Milk Shortage Due To Bungling By Bureaucrats

Farmers Blame Labor Policy And Price Ceilings

There is some shortage of milk products in the Plymouth area, but there is NOT the shortage that the metropolitan papers have led the people to believe.

A survey of the milk dealers in Plymouth has revealed that there is a shortage of milk due to a variety of reasons, the chief of which are:

1. Many farmers are quitting the milk business, either because they are not making sufficient money to cover their costs under OPA price ceilings, or because they can make more money in a war plant, or because there is a shortage of feed.

2. This is normally the lowest production period of the year, the time just before the farmers start feeding inside and the cows leave the pasture.

3. Consumption is up.

4. There is a shortage of labor. Joseph Zielasko of the Newburg Dairy probably hit the nail squarely on the head when he told The Plymouth Mail that there are just two reasons for the present milk shortage.

"First—it is the labor policy of the administration and second it is the low prices farmers are forced to sell their products for. You can't work a few hours a day on a dairy farm or any other kind of a farm and produce anything. To produce on the farm, you have got to really work and work hard long hours. And then when we have produced it, we should be able to sell it at a price sufficient at least to cover our costs. I can't see any hope for getting out of the mess we are in, if they keep on doing things as they are. We plan to do all we can to keep our regular customers supplied."

Herman Bakhaus, head of the Cloverdale Dairies said that there is some shortage of milk in the Plymouth area, but that there has been no curtailment of the supply to customers. He said his firm has had to haul in some milk in order to satisfy the demand, but that thus far he had been successful.

Other creameries said they had been forced to cut down in the manufacture of milk by-products. The Newburg Dairy said they had had to quit making cottage cheese and buttermilk, and the Maplelawn management agreed with Mr. Bakhaus that there is a shortage.

The Jersey Bell people said they had a bigger supply than usual at present.

All were agreed that the peak of the shortage period has been reached, and that within two or three weeks the situation should be cleared to some extent.

Free Party To Aid War Chest

Ex-Service Men Plan Big Event

First of what may be a series of parties for the benefit of Plymouth's war chest, will be held at the Grange hall on Tuesday evening, November 9, sponsored by the Ex-Service Men's Club.

Admission will be free, and there will be a variety of entertainment for the boys and girls of the navy and army who need a home away from home.

All of the proceeds of the entertainment will be turned over to the war chest.

Plenty Of Fun For Children

Hallowe'en Programs For Saturday Eve.

All plans have been completed for the series of citywide Hallowe'en parties which will be held Saturday night.

Under the general chairmanship of Frank Walsh, the various committees and group chairmen, have made all of their purchases of food for the programs.

The smallest children will have their parties at the Central and Starkweather Grade schools. These will range in age up to the third grade. The older children's party will be held at the high school gymnasium, and the high schoolers will meet at the Masonic Temple.

Boys Leave On Morning Train

Walter Harms, chairman of the Plymouth Selective Service Board announced this week that men leaving Plymouth for the army will depart hereafter on the 9 o'clock train in the morning, instead of the afternoon train.

They will be sent either to Camp Grant or Fort Sheridan at Chicago, rather than Fort Custer, which necessitated the change in time.

Military Takes Entire Force Of Plymouth Mail

Every Member Of Original Mechanical Staff Now In Service

It isn't often that a newspaper itself makes news.

But this week, The Plymouth Mail has made big news! It is with pride that we are able to announce that EVERY male employee of the mechanical force of The Mail at the outbreak of the war, is now wearing the uniform of some branch of the military forces of the United States.

Eight of them—eight from the mechanical force of a country weekly paper published in a community of 5,300 good Americans.

Probably no other paper, of comparable size in the United States, can boast that EVERY ONE of its male employees in the mechanical department is serving in the military forces of the nation.

This week The Plymouth Mail is produced with an entirely new mechanical force, recruited from the ranks of Old Timers who have been willing to take up the printers' rule and composing stick and carry on in the profession so dear to the heart of every man who loves the smell of printer's ink and pleasure of working with type designs produced down through the ages by men who have devoted their lives to the perfection of characters of the English language.

John Nelson, a printer, makeup man and pressman, was the first to go. He enlisted with the National Guard before Pearl Harbor and is now in Sicily. He recently sent Mrs. Editor an attractive sample of Sicilian fancy work, now on display in one of the windows of The Plymouth Mail office. John has gone through both the African and Sicilian campaigns without a scratch.

Yankees in Germany Fare Better Than Civilians

A visiting delegate of the War Prisoners Aid of the YMCA made these photographs of captured American soldiers at a German prison camp southeast of Berlin. The prison camp fare plus weekly 1 1/2 pound food packages from the American Red Cross give the interned Yankees a better diet than that of German civilians. Top left: Prisoners receive Red Cross food parcels. Bottom left: American prisoners lined up before the mess hall. Some wear British uniforms because theirs were worn out or destroyed in battle. Farm Implement Situation Grows Serious

Problem Next Year To Grow Worse Says Don Horton

Don Horton, prominent Plymouth farm implement dealer, said this week that despite all reports, there is expected to be another shortage of farm implements next spring unless the government does something to release more steel to the farm implement manufacturers.

Returning from a convention of the farm implement dealers in Chicago, Mr. Horton declared he found nothing but pessimism concerning the prospects, and one manufacturer went so far as to assert that there would be an even greater shortage next year than prevailed this year.

Government reports that 900,000 tons of steel would be released for farm implements was denounced as over-optimism, and one manufacturer said that the supply situation would have to be straightened out if there were to be more machines available.

Horton said the dealers would have to bear the brunt of the misinformation when they are called upon to explain to their customers that the machines for farming are not available.

He was particularly pessimistic when he recalled that the government is making every effort to increase production of food stuffs next year, which simply cannot be produced without additional machinery.

The government sells the farmer on the idea of producing more food. To produce more food, the farmer must have machines, repair parts for his old machines, or new machines, which do wear out, and he is promised that he'll get them. Then when he approaches the dealer and finds out they are not available, he is sore, and it is the dealer and not the government which takes the blame.

Horton said the 900,000 ton allotment for new machines actually is nothing more than a list of what the manufacturer has the right to go hunting for the steel to make the machines. It is no guarantee that he is going to find it.

The public, Horton said, must get up in arms to demand farm machinery if we are going to produce the necessary volume of food.

Create New Gas Panel For Kelsey-Hayes

First Steps Taken To Reorganize Rationing System

First steps in what will eventually be a complete change in the method of rationing gas and tires for employees engaged in war industrial plants were taken in Plymouth last week with the creation of an industrial plant gas-tire panel composed of Ernest Allison as chairman, Rev. T. Leonard Saunders and Stephen Schomberger, an employee of the Ford Newburg plant.

The panel has already assumed its new responsibilities and will work directly with Chayton Vianaw, who has charge of Kelsey-Hayes plant transportation problems.

At present the employees of the Kelsey-Hayes plant will be the first ones to come directly under the control of the new rationing panel, but later it is expected that the employees of the Burroughs factory, Wall Wire, Pilgrim Products and others will function through the new gas-tire rationing panel.

The establishment of the first industrial plant rationing panel in the Detroit area comes as the result of a direct order from F. T. Broadwell, district director of the Michigan rationing organization. This is the first and only panel set-up of its kind in the vast metropolitan district, but because of the tremendous increase in work growing out of gas and tire rationing, it is expected that other similar panels will be created in the immediate future.

One can gain an idea as to how extensive the rationing problem is when it is realized that over 90 percent of the employees of the Kelsey-Hayes plant use privately operated automobiles in getting to their work.

One employee travels 140 miles each day in going to and from work in the Kelsey plant. A large number of others travel more than 50 miles every day.

The new industrial gas-tire panel will function directly under the jurisdiction of the Plymouth rationing board.

Scrap Iron Drive Will Take Place Nov. 6

Soldiers Will Make Collection In Plymouth

For Plymouth's scrap iron drive which will take place Saturday, November 6, the army is donating six big trucks, each one manned by three soldiers, to make a house to house collection in Plymouth and Plymouth township.

Mrs. Russell Powell, general salvage chairman for this district, was able yesterday to make definite announcement as to this arrangement.

Every Plymouth resident is urged to collect all the scrap iron they can find and place it on the street curb in front of their home Friday night, November 5, so that when the trucks start the collection Saturday morning, November 6, there will be no delay.

Remember this is a scrap iron collection, old iron badly needed by the government. It is not a collection of your rubbish, fence wire, paint cans and the like. Collect ALL the scrap iron you can find and place it at the curb on Friday night, November 5. There will be no scrap pile this time. The scrap will be immediately delivered.

Paper TIED in bundles will also be collected the same day. Paper NOT tied in bundles will not be picked up. One truck will be devoted to the collection of badly needed paper and magazines.

If you should have scrap iron too heavy to move, simply tie a white cloth to a stick and place it at the curb, or tie the white cloth to a tree.

In the township, place the scrap at the roadside and tie a white flag to the mail box.

War-Chest Fund Proclamation Issued By Mayor Shear

Plymouth citizens who have always contributed liberally to every charitable and patriotic cause, are again being called upon to help mankind by donating to the United War Fund Drive which will be conducted during the month of November. Our quota has been fixed for $7,000. Because of the urgent need, and because of the fact that every dollar of it will directly or indirectly go to help OUR BOYS, I strongly urge and commend to the citizens of Plymouth their fullest cooperation in this great humanitarian drive. It is one of the ways we can help win the war.

CARL G. SHEAR, Mayor of Plymouth.

Prefers Outside Job, So He Becomes Rural Mail Carrier

Postoffice Clerk Cecil Owen, at his own request, has been made the rural mail carrier on Route 3 out of Plymouth. The appointment has just been confirmed by the Postoffice Department. Patrols along Route 3 will be glad to know that there is an inside postal worker who prefers the fresh air to the comforts of the postoffice. He will assume his new duties at once.

"Hick" Auto Horn Tooters May Face The Municipal Judge

Again it's the auto horn tooters! So many complaints are being made by residents whose sleep is disturbed early in the morning, that police may be forced to act.

There are many war workers in Plymouth who work until midnight and the only sleep they secure is generally between 1 o'clock in the morning until about the middle of the forenoon.

But along about 6:30 in the morning along comes some hick horn tooter to arouse a neighbor who is expected to ride to work with the "Hick" tooter.

There is a city ordinance against needless automobile horn blowing and unless the practice is stopped, some of these tooters will be paying a substantial fine into the city treasury.

Chicken Thieves Loot Coops—Owners Threaten To Shoot

There's a bit of thievery going on out in Newburg.

Sylvester Pace, who lives on Plymouth road, woke up Saturday morning to discover that 30 chickens had been taken from his chicken house during the night. The culprit or culprits left no clues as to their identity. Other chicken raisers say they will shoot the first person they catch stealing their chickens.

Recently, two bicycles mysteriously disappeared from the Newburg school and have not yet been recovered.

More Twins Rise Up To Plaque "Ye Editor" For His Mistake

Once an editor errs, there is never an ending to it. Each week when The Plymouth Mail has gone forth to its growing family of readers recently, it has carried stories about some of the many attractive twins born about here in recent months.

And each week the editor has believed that he had reached the end of the rope.

It has now reached the point where "Ye Editor" is no longer sorry he made the mistake, because he's glad to find out that there are so many twins in and around Plymouth.

City Ready For Fund Drive

Chairman Hopes To Far Exceed Goal Set For Plymouth Vicinity

Mrs. Catherine Henderson, chairman of the Plymouth drive for the National War Chest said this week that there is no objection to any type of fund raising party by any of the organizations in Plymouth which are soliciting for the fund.

The Ex-Service Men's Club already has arranged an enormous party for the benefit of the organizations which will benefit through the funds contributed.

Money for the fund already is being received by Mrs. Henderson, although the drive is not scheduled to get underway officially until November 1.

The President and every major official in the nation, all radio programs and the theater are engaged along with newspapers in carrying the story of the National War Chest to the people, and the need for it.

Seventeen organizations will participate in the funds which are derived from the drive.

Chief among these is the U.S.O., the soldier's home away from home.

The U.S.O. was started as a private organization to do everything possible to make the soldier happy in his new environment.

Every fort and every camp has its U.S.O. center. Every city and almost every town in the United States has its U.S.O. organization designed to provide for the needs of the soldiers and sailors who call on it for help.

The National War Chest also provides for some of the relief for the ravaged countries of our allies, but this is a comparatively small share in comparison with what is given to the U.S.O.

"I don't happen to have a boy in this war, but I was in the last war, and I know what such an organization as the U.S.O. would have meant to us. There is nothing which makes a soldier so dreary as the constant routine of camp life. If they can get away for only a day, or even an hour, it is heaven.

"Therefore, I say, let's give all we possibly can to this National War Chest drive."

Programs also are underway in Livonia and Canton Center township. Mrs. Sarah Dent is the chairman of the Canton Center drive, and Carson Johnston is the chairman of the drive in Livonia township.

They also have appointed their various committees and will be ready for the drive, which begins Monday.

Famed Choral Director Here On November 3

Hardin Van Duersen, director of the University of Michigan choir, the choral union, and one of the top flight singing masters in the nation, will be in Plymouth on Wednesday night, November 3 to discuss the future organization of the Plymouth Community Chorus. He is expected to give expert advice on the organization.

It also was learned that the community chorus is attempting to employ Robert Luscomb, director of the MacKenzie high school music department in Detroit as the permanent director of the chorus.

Blood Donors Needed Here

Blood types 4 and 0 are needed by the Odd Fellows Blood bank, which maintains an organization that gladly gives blood for transfusions when they are needed.

The organization was formed three years ago, and since that time numerous transfusions have been given, not only in Plymouth but in Detroit and Ann Arbor hospitals.

However, the service and other causes have depleted the club to 18 members, and more are needed. The type needed most is type 4 or 0 the so-called universal type.

Persons wishing to participate in the club, should telephone Earl Gray (1342-W) or Harry Hunter (1299-M) giving their blood types and when available.

Hotel May Open Dining Room

Directors of the Hotel Mayflower have stepped into the restaurant food crisis in Plymouth and have offered to open their dining room facilities to local residents and war workers who are forced to get their meals out, providing sufficient help can be secured to prepare and serve the food.

It was the unexpected announcement of the temporary closing of Hillside where many have secured their meals, and worry of many war workers as to where they would get their meals during the next two months, that caused the Mayflower hotel company to call a special meeting of the board to decide how the hotel might help out in the serious food situation that Plymouth faces.

It was decided at the meeting late Tuesday afternoon that the hotel would be willing to go more than half way in meeting the situation, providing help can be secured.

At the present time the hotel serves only breakfasts and noonday meals. There are only five restaurants where evening meals can be secured, and some of these are not open every evening of the week. Some do not serve breakfasts, so the hotel company has decided to do what it can to help out in an emergency, if help can be secured.

Defense Worker Killed By Auto

Boarding Bus When Hit By Machine

Norman Lorimer, 43, of 9961 Cardwell street (near Inkster and Plymouth road) was killed Saturday morning at 7:45 when he was struck by an automobile driven by William Pridemore of Detroit. Both men are employed at the Plymouth plant of the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Co.

The report of the sheriff's officers who investigated the accident said that Pridemore was driving west, and that Lorimer was crossing Plymouth road to board a bus to go to work.

The sheriff's report said that Pridemore reported he was driving about 40 miles an hour, and that he failed to see Lorimer crossing the road.

The sheriff's officer measured skid marks at the scene of the accident and said that Pridemore had skidded his car about 55 feet before stopping, and that Lorimer's body was found about 300 feet west of Cardwell street. Pridemore was held for investigation.

Army Navy Tests Set For Nov. 9

School Graduates Offered Training

The next army and navy tests for young men of high school age will be held at the high school on November 9.

Boys eligible, are those who will be graduated from high school at the end of the present term, and those who have already been graduated, but have not yet been called into the service.

Those students with the highest averages, not only in Plymouth but throughout the country, will be chosen by either the army, or the navy and immediately inducted into the service. They will then be sent to stardard colleges and universities for training and if they meet the tests, will emerge with officer ranking.

The tests will be given for the army and navy by the school officials.

Brothers Meet In Sicily Garage

Mrs. Floyd Reddeman Gets Interesting News

Strange things happen in war times—sometimes terrible things—now and then very happy incidents.

It was one of the latter that took place in a garage on the island of Sicily recently when Robert Cash, serving in the air corps, and James Cash in the army ordnance department, brothers of Mrs. Elmer Reddeman of Artur street, met for the first time in nearly two years.

The event was a most unexpected one, as neither of the boys knew that the other was in Sicily or a thousand miles from the place. According to letters Mrs. Reddeman has received from her brothers, the event proved a delightful one. They were together for more than two hours before "moving on."

In addition to these two brothers, she has two other brothers who are now wearing the uniforms of the nation's armed forces.

Boys Damaging New Homes

Police Get Reports From Builders

City authorities have been informed that considerable damage has been done to new houses being constructed in the northwest section of the city.

There have been several reports of the breaking of windows, and in some cases sticks have been stuck through the fresh plaster.

Police report they have no information as to who is doing the damage, but it is presumed that it is being done by children.

Auctioneers-Sales for householders are no longer exempt from the used consumer durable goods price regulation, OPA announced recently. The regulation originally exempted sales of used goods by householders, whether they were sold by the householder himself or by a professional auctioneer for the household. At the same time, OPA brought used household sewing machines under the price regulation when sold by an auctioneer.

2,500 Christmas Boxes On Way

Plymouth Sends Happiness To Boys

More than 2,500 Christmas packages were mailed at the Plymouth postoffice for the soldiers now overseas, and some packages are still being mailed to the men in the navy.

The largest crush of Christmas mailing came during the last week as parents and friends rushed to get their packages in the mail.

All packages for overseas soldiers had to be mailed by Oct. 15. Packages for sailors with the fleet will be accepted up to Nov. 1.

No soldier or sailor boy will be forgotten, not if the Mom's club, the Navy club, the Legion Auxiliary, the patriotic telephone girls and scores of other groups had the names of boys in the service.

For weeks these thoughtful women have been searching over the records of names of boys from this vicinity who have gone into the service, and from late reports, it is believed that every boy from Plymouth who is now overseas has a Christmas box on the way. At least Postmaster Harry Irwin not only thinks every Plymouth lad will get one Christmas box, but he may receive two or three, from the way they came to the postoffice during the final hours of shipment.

To save electricity, refrigerators should be turned off prior to departure for any great length of time.

Cider Mills Not Operating Here

Favorite Fall Drink To Be Scarce

Like sweet cider? Like hard cider? You do? Here's bad news for you. Norman Miller is not going to run his cider mill this year. Reports are that there is not a single cider mill in this entire locality that expects to make apple cider this fall.

Lon Parmenter on Northville road has opened his mill, but with only Mrs. Parmenter to help him.

"I don't know how much cider we will be able to make. Apples are very high priced and of course outside of ourselves we have no help. It takes a lot of work to run a cider mill, but we are going to try it for a time," stated Mr. Parmenter the other day.

Norman Miller, who has generally supplied this locality with a good portion of its cider requirements, states that his apple crop is so short that he is not even going to start up his cider mill.

In past years cider has generally sold for ten cents a gallon around here, but with no cider mills operating close to Plymouth, no one has offered to make a guess as to what the price might be, if one can find any cider to buy.

When you get an ailment you never heard of before and begin talking about it, you find that every third person has had it personally and that every second person has a relative who is a victim right now.

Official Proceedings of the Plymouth City Commission

October 18, 1943. The regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chambers of the City Hall on Monday, October 18, 1943 at 7:30 p. m. Present: Mayor Shear, Comm. Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple. Absent: None. The minutes of October 4, 1943 were approved as read. It was moved by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Lewis that the bills in the amount of $5,861.18 be approved as audited by the auditing committee. Ayes: Mayor Shear, Comm. Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple. Nays: None. Carried. A petition was presented by thirteen gasoline dealers in the City of Plymouth requesting that the City Commission pass an ordinance regulating the hours of operation for the sale of motor oil sold at retail to six days per week, excluding Sunday. It was moved by Comm. Hondorp and supported by Comm. Corbett that the petition be accepted and acted on file and that the City Manager be requested to check the legality of such an ordinance. This was the night set for the hearing to determine whether or not to construct a water main on Sunset between Blanche and Farmer streets. It was moved by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Corbett that the following resolution be adopted: WHEREAS, a public hearing is being held covering the proposed improvement and no valid objections have been received, and

WHEREAS, the plan, profile and estimate covering the proposed improvement have been accepted and are now on file in the office of the City Engineer, now

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the assessor be directed to prepare an assessment roll covering the total cost of the improvement.

Ayes: Mayor Shear, Comm. Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple. Nays: None. Carried. A petition was presented to the City Commission requesting that the same be cancelled on a certain piece of property because the owner had entered military service. It was moved by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Corbett that the same be cancelled on a petition until the City Manager obtains legal opinion from a prosecuting attorney and the Michigan Municipal League. Carried.

A communication was received from the State Land Office Board acknowledging receipt of a letter from the City of Plymouth requesting that lot No. 589 of Assessor's Plat No. 17 be deeded to the City of Plymouth. Also, a communication was received from the Wayne County Board of Commissioners stating that a request for a grade separation for and in the City of Plymouth would be considered as part of the Post War Work. Also, an annual report was received from the Michigan Municipal League. It was moved by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Corbett that these communications be received and placed on file. Carried.

A communication was also received from the Plymouth War Chest requesting the use of the proceeds on Saturday, November 13, 1943. Carried. It was moved by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Corbett that the City Manager be instructed to write to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, thanking them for the excellent concert presented in our High School Auditorium, November 13, 1943. Carried. A communication was received from the Treasurer of Wayne County, Mr. John Kozaren, requesting the Commission to formulate a policy concerning the disposition of funds received from the State owned lands. The following resolution was offered by Comm. Corbett and supported by Comm. Whipple: WHEREAS, the County Treasurer has in his letter of October 1943 shown that tremendous land work is necessary to divide the lands into individual units of government from the proceeds of state owned property.

Children Aided By Kiwanians

"Knight Klub" Event Proves Big Success

Two hundred and fifty dinners were served Tuesday night at the annual Kiwanis Knight Klub party at the Masonic Temple. Turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, cranberry sauce, green salad, celery and olives, apple pie and cheese were served to the guests. Entertainment for the evening was provided by Haze Bennett and his gang. The Kiwanis club made a profit of more than $200 which will be used for the betterment of underprivileged children. Ernest Allison was the master of ceremonies for the evening, and Ernie Henry was the master of the kitchen. And Ernie's regular boss, Postmaster Harry Irwin, said he hadn't eaten so well, or so much in many a moon. The Kiwanis Knight Klub annual affair was the same outstanding success this year that it has been every year since its inauguration.

Marine Fighter Home On Visit

Roger McClain Wins Citation

Wearing a Presidential citation for gallantry and bravery in action and stripes showing participation in both American and Asiatic war campaigns, youthful Roger McClain, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McClain of 154 Ross street, is home from Guadalcanal on a 20 day furlough. The young veteran arrived Tuesday night, the first visit to his home in Plymouth in over 19 months. He is attached to a flying unit of the Marines and was in Guadalcanal from the first of the year to late in June when he was transferred to another Pacific island base.

His outfit apparently saw plenty of action. He declares that the happiest minute of his life was early in February when he met Don Schaufele by mere chance on Guadalcanal. It was a day or so after this when Don was sent to another location. "I know there are many other Plymouth boys over there, but Don is the only one I happened to meet. I think the Marine flying outfit is the best in the world, but I don't care much about Guadalcanal. It's a good place to get away from on there now. It's not the kind of a country I want to live in," declared Roger. He has two other brothers in the armed services.

Supt. Smith To Talk To PTA Members

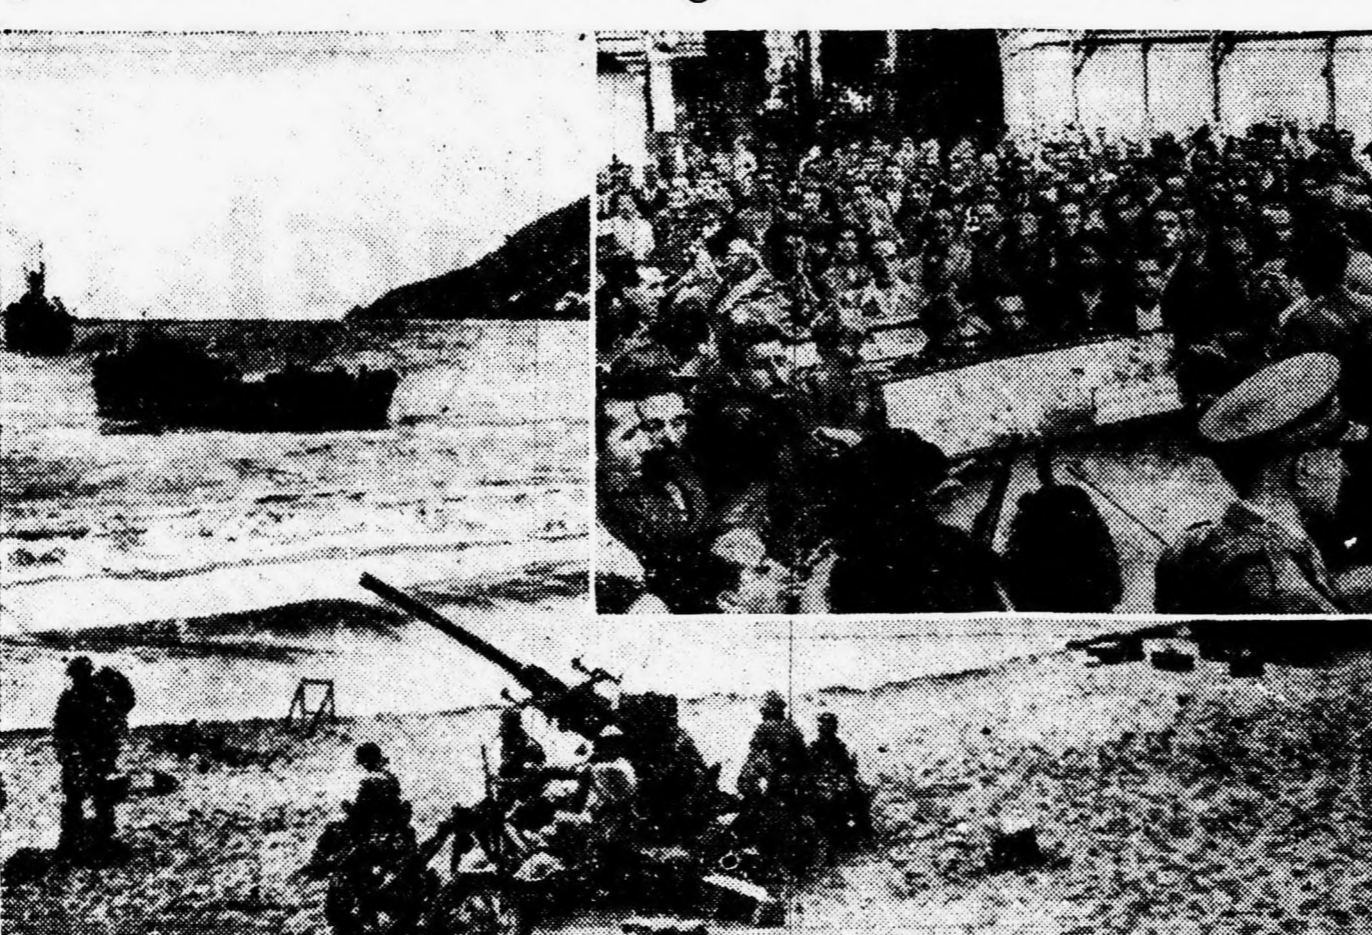

Julien Bryan, super-cameraman and stirring speaker, will present exclusive documentary films on "Chile" to the Detroit Town Hall audience in the Fisher Theatre Wednesday, November 3, at 11 a. m. Bryan, whose camera since 1932 has documented the background for war in Russia, Nazi Germany, Poland, Finland, Turkey, China and Japan, returned recently from his third extensive visit to South America. He brings to Detroit the pick of 120,000 feet of new film on Chile. Our war investment there is greater than in any other country of comparable size, he says, since Chile furnishes iron, explosives and other urgent fighting materials to the United States.

percentage of 6985 in the division of all monies received by him for the sale of state owned property. RESOLVED FURTHER, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the treasurer of Wayne County. Ayes: Mayor Shear, Comm. Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple. Nays: None. Carried.

The City Manager presented the 1942-43 audit from Miller-Bailey Company. The Mayor called a special meeting for November 8, 1943 in order that the Commission might go over the audit carefully. The City Engineer presented estimates for the work of Porath and MacIvaine. One estimate was for work performed on Frallick up to October 16th in the amount of $1,775.56, the other for curb and gutter on Roosevelt, Auburn and Burroughs in the amount of $2,840.10. It was moved by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Corbett that the estimates of $1,775.56 and $2,840.10 be approved and that the City Clerk be authorized to draw a warrant on the treasurer for these amounts. Ayes: Mayor Shear, Comm. Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple. Nays: None. Carried.

The City Manager presented a letter from the City Engineer requesting a .05 raise for three city men on the labor pay roll. It was moved by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Corbett that the Commission postpone consideration until the next regular meeting. It was moved by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Corbett that the meeting be adjourned. Time of adjournment 9:15 p. m. C. G. SHEAR, Mayor. CLARENCE ELLIOTT, Clerk.

Italian Scenes Preceding New War Declaration

Thirty-five days after surrendering to the Allies, Italy declared war on her former Axis partner, Germany. Marshal Pietro Badoglio announced the declaration and said that German ferocity had "surpassed every limit of human imagination" at Naples. In picture above, British anti-aircraft units are shown covering the arrival of troops near the Chiunzi pass, gateway to that city. Inset: After the fall of Naples, Italians mobbed a car carrying three fascist generals who had been in charge of defenses there. The generals had co-operated with the Germans and required Allied protection from the angry Italian masses.

Fourteen Will Enter The Navy

To Leave Plymouth Saturday Morning

Fourteen boys will leave Plymouth for services in Uncle Sam's navy Saturday morning. Fourteen more, passed by the induction board, will leave next week Saturday for the army. The young men who will leave here for the navy Saturday are: Anthony F. Bongiovanni, 302 Yerkes, Northville; Clarence F. Lange, 20125 Deering, Detroit; Alden J. Plank, 245 Fair, Plymouth; John C. Ballinger, 13586 Scribner, Detroit; William J. Hill, 29224 Independence, Farmington; Carl E. Johnson, 33180 Ann Arbor Trail, Wayne; Ira A. Jones, 13116 Centralia, Wayne; Ernest G. Hutcheson, 953 E. Michigan, Ypsilanti; Lawrence J. Rotarius, 634 Irvin, Plymouth; Robert L. Tinney, 24702 Fenkell, Detroit; Frank A. Kovarik, 19165 Norborne, Detroit; John J. McDonough, 437 N. Center, Northville; Hal B. Horton, 958 Ross, Plymouth.

Senior Sketches

People who make noise while eating is the pet peeve of Robert H. Grimm, son of Henry and Fay Grimm of 8934 Wayne road. He is taking a college preparatory course and after graduating he hopes to become an aviator or a farmer. His hobbies are collecting Indian relics, skiing, hunting, and bird study. "I am going to join the Navy Air Corp," said Robert Deyo when he was asked what he planned to do when he graduated, "and after the war I plan to go to college and become an aeronautical engineer." He is the son of Lt. Colonel Harry N. and Gladys Deyo of 808 Church street. Bob has been taking a college preparatory course and has listed Hi-Y, Junior Red Cross, Junior Play, J-Hop Committee, and Master of Ceremonies for the freshman reception as his activities. Girls who wear red slacks are his pet peeve while archery and collecting girls' pictures is his hobby. Riding, swimming and hunting are the hobbies of Rosemary Hertz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hertz of 139 E. Liberty street. She is following a commercial course and plans to go to a business college. She is an other person who does not like anklets with pumps. Monte Hines who is now waiting to be called into the Marine Corps, the son of Frances E. Hines of 14483 Northville road, is pursuing an industrial art course. He hopes to become a pilot in the Marine Corps; therefore naturally his hobby is airplanes. To put it in his own words his pet peeve is "Women in general."

Bowling and music are the hobbies of Barbara Butt, daughter of G. Curtis and Marian Butt of 11325 Arden, Rosedale Gardens. She is pursuing a college preparatory course. She plans to be a department store buyer or merchandising manager. She has been a member of the Lam Service Club for two years, president one in Library Club two years, and in Junior Red Cross two years. She has been class treasurer for the last two years and served on a freshmen-senior reception committee. Her pet peeve is her best friend's hiccupps.

Although Joe Brisobis, son of Harold and Louise Brisobis of 1496 Sheridan avenue, is graduating this year, he had enough credits so that he could take advantage of a plan offered by Notre Dame in which juniors could finish high school credits there and begin college at the same time. He has been active in student government and the band. His hobbies are collecting records, stamps, and minute animals. Joe's pet peeve is girls who say "I just washed my hair and I can't do a thing with it!" He plans to be a surgeon.

Where Japs Lost

Bitter battles were reported in this area for possession of the port of Finschhafen and Wewak harbor. When the Japanese attempted to reinforce bases in this sector, Allied air fighters destroyed 53 enemy planes, seven surface vessels, and many supply barges. Many enemy planes were caught on the ground.

Alden Village Extension Group Meets October 25

The Alden Village Home Economics Extension group met Monday, October 25, at the home of Mrs. William Mullen, of Standish road. Following the business meeting, an open discussion was conducted by Mrs. Mullen on remodeled and home-made furniture, stressing the fact that seemingly outmoded furniture can be reconitioned with a minimum of effort and cost. In times such as these, when unnecessary spending is out of order, a project of this sort is well worth while. In keeping with the spirit of the times, each woman attending the meet brought a box lunch and the hostess served the beverages. Those attending were Mrs. Paul Nixon, chairman, Mrs. George Loudon, secretary, Mrs. Leo O'Meara, Mrs. Irvin Tenniswood, Mrs. Thomas Naubert and Mrs. Terrill W. Lamb. The meetings are held under the auspices of the Michigan State College Extension Service and the Alden Village group cordially welcomes women of the village to attend the future meetings.

County Health Guild To Meet November 4

The Wayne County Health Guild will hold a meeting on Nov. 4 at 2:00 p. m. at the Baptist church in Garden City, Middlebelt and Beechwood, one block north of Ford road. The speaker will be Miss Jean Blair, teacher in the Lowry school and her subject is "Handicap of the Deaf and What Can Be Done." Miss Lowry will demonstrate what can be done with a class of deaf children from Lowry school. Those who have seen this demonstration say it is miraculous. Every person interested, whether a member of the Health Guild or not, is welcome to attend. The League of St. John's Episcopal church will meet at the church Wednesday, November 3 at 1:30.

Must Increase Food Supply

Rotarians Told Of Next Year's Needs

In anticipation of a far greater demand for food next year than at the present time and with farm population decreasing at a most rapid extent, James Rossman, who directed the drive to secure extra labor for farmers in Wayne county during the past year, told members of the Plymouth Rotary club last Friday noon that steps are already being taken to secure additional farm labor for next summer. "We will probably have to call upon more women than ever before. And the plan for business and professional men who grew up on farms to spend their next summer's vacation doing farm work will be expanded far beyond what it was last summer," he said. "There is far too much farm land lying idle," he declared, "and if the food needs of our own country are to be met in addition to what we must send to the starving people of other countries, we must plan now to grow far larger crops next summer." Mr. Rossman is principal of the Stark school. Previous to entering the educational field he was a farm worker.

To Tell Of Chile And Show Pictures Of Famed Country

Superintendent of Schools George A. Smith will deliver the principal address at the next meeting of the Parent Teacher Association of the Central Grade School. He will discuss the school's activities in war time, which have been manifold. All parents are urged to attend the meeting to hear and meet Mr. Smith. Reports of the officers of the PTA, said that the Central grade school organization was the largest of its kind in Plymouth last year, and that it is anticipated that it will be even larger this year.

Class News

Miss Emma DuBord of the Wayne County Home Demonstration gave a canning demonstration here Tuesday, October 12. She told how to kill, draw, clean and can chicken. The secret of canning meats and fowl is the pressure cooker method. All the food classes under the direction of Miss Lundin are making war time dishes and studying how to stretch ration points and learning which unrationed foods one can use appropriately for meals. Those interested in homemaking activities are eligible to join the Hescos who meet every Tuesday noon and bring their lunches. They have several interesting homemaking projects. The officers are president, Rosemary Miller; vice-president, Kathleen Fisher; secretary, Joan Gilles; treasurer, Edith Nolte. The meetings are divided into four parts for four weeks; social, business, service, and educational. The Hescos are Phyllis La Vergne, Edith Nolte, Rosemary Miller, Joan Miller, Gertrude Murly, Juanita Petty, Jean Ann Livernais, Betty Lou Arnold, Marjorie Elliott, Joan Gilles and Kathleen Fisher. The number served in the luncheon has increased considerably since the beginning of cold weather. Sugar rationing has been beneficial since the children with more money to spend buy a hot dish or vegetable instead of candy and lavish desserts. When the school nurse takes children to the dentist, he always asks for gum and candy for sale at the school. They are not sold in the luncheon and are rather scarce in the stores because of sugar rationing. The 8B science classes are studying the sources of heat and how we use it. The 8A classes are studying sound and how it affects our lives. The electricity class is starting problems on electric resistance in wires of different diameters and metals. The shop classes are learning the use of the lathe which means there should be a complete supply of table lamps and ash trays in town soon. Some of the boys are having trouble glueing table tops and other large articles together. We are wondering if our gun stocks will be finished before the hunting season is over. Mrs. Soule's homemaking I classes have begun their work on their home experiences. Each girl selects her project with the approval of both her teacher and her mother. The project is required so that the girls may put into practice what they have learned in class. Then the girls hold a conference once a week to discuss any of their problems. The homemaking classes are displaying a sugar beet exhibit showing the growth from the time the seeds are planted until the beets are made into sugar. There is also a map showing the districts in which the beets are grown. Mrs. Gilder is teaching her eighth grade English students how to diagram a sentence to make the parts of speech more easily understood. The Drama Club is preparing to give a play for the Ex-Service Men's Club Nov. 9. Those in the cast are: Lorraine Nichol, Agnes Montreiff, Joan Gilles, Elizabeth Neal and Betty Jean Duff.

If electricity is used for heating water, it should not be wasted. Leaky hot water faucets should be repaired, and the water heater turned off prior to departure for any great length of time. Hike To South America Given In Movies

Robert Friers, formerly of Saginaw, presented his moving picture adventures in Latin America for the student body, Thursday, October 21.

Starting out alone at the age of twelve, he had hiked over every main highway on this continent by the time he had reached eighteen. Today he has been in thirty-eight countries.

Within three months of graduating from the University of Michigan he accepted a wage from his roommate to leave Ann Arbor not later than forty-eight hours from that time, to travel around the world, going east.

With little financial help from friends he sold clothes, books, typewriter, etc., and left with ninety dollars in his pocket.

After graduating upon his return he traveled again to South America. He rode on trucks, horses, autos, burros, motorcycles, dugouts, bicycles, and airplanes, all of the time taking pictures of the fascinating Latin American country.

During the past three years he has been a foreign correspondent for Booth Newspapers, sold pictures to such publications as LEO, and Look, had his own radio programs, and produced several newsreels.

Mr. Friers' pictures of South America proved to be one of the most interesting programs presented at assemblies.

Wayne Outplays Rocks 27-0

Main Sparkplug Team Work

Teamwork was the winning factor shown by Wayne in the game Friday when Plymouth was beaten by a score of 27-0 at the Wayne field.

The first quarter of the game was an evenly pitched battle with Brink and Simonetti running around the ends for short gains and Scheppele plowing through Wayne's line.

Shad, a substitute right end for Wayne, caught a pass from Piscopink on the twenty-five yard line and ran for a touchdown and Piscopink converted for the extra point. At the end of the second quarter Lowe went around right for another touchdown from the five-yard line. Plymouth made one good gain during the second quarter on a fake buck into the line with a pass from Scheppele to Bennett.

The third quarter ran smoothly for both teams with equal gains by both the Rocks and Wayne until a pass from Brink was intercepted by Smith and run for a touchdown with Piscopink converting for the extra point.

After the pass interception by Smith the Plymouth reserve team went on the field for the remainder of the game.

The last quarter was highlighted by a twenty-yard end run by Cummings and a sixty-yard return of a punt by Piscopink after which he converted the extra.

The starting line up for Plymouth was RE, Bennett; RT, Montgomery; RG, Bachelder; C, Rock; LG, Wiseley; LT, Livernois; LE, Johnson; RH, Hall; LH, Moffitt; FB, Scheppele; QB, Brink; Subs: Harsha, Jewell, Stuart, Smith, MacGregor, Michol, Downing, Valerance, Schaufele, Short, Cummings, and Simonetti.

Norval C. Bovee, Food Analyst

Norvall C. Bovee, the food analyst and director of food and housing at Central Michigan College of Education at Mt. Pleasant, graduated from Plymouth High School with the class of '35. Mr. Bovee participated in drama for four years and had the leads in both the Junior and Senior plays. After graduating he went to Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti where he managed the soda fountain in McKenny Hall. From there he went to Central Michigan College of Education at Mt. Pleasant where he is head of the food unit in Ronan Hall and also supervises the housing. The students at Mt. Pleasant are mainly in the Navy V-12 plan which consists of nine hundred fifty men. Mr. Bovee plans meals for which they use thirty-seven and a half tons of food a month. Norval is the son of Mr. Charles Bovee of Robinson Subdivision.

Juniors Downed By Common Words

"Leisure" was the word that pronounced Rosamund Busby champion speller of the first hour 11B English class last Monday. Her defeated opponent was George Waters. Ed Strong presented the largest banana in town to Rosamund for her prize. George and Rosamund were the captains. The fourth hour class's winner, Bill Bauman, received a box of chocolates donated by Jeanne Williamson as his prize.

"Precedent" was the word that caused the defeat of Richard Wall who received a box of homemade fudge given by Nora Wefsenmo. The two captains were Clarence Holman and Bill Bauman.

WANT TO BUY OR SELL A USED GAS APPLIANCE?

Maybe I Can Help YOU!

Announcing A NEW SERVICE FOR OUR CUSTOMERS

Because of the scarcity of new and used gas appliances brought on by the war, we believe it will be a genuinely helpful service if we serve as an "information center" for this used equipment. With this in mind we announce a new, free service to our customers—

Each of our stores will maintain a list of used gas appliances available from individuals and a list of those desiring to buy.

Assisting buyers and sellers in locating each other, will be the extent of our service. We cannot undertake to buy or sell these appliances or act as agent for their sale or purchase. We will assume no obligation nor charge any fee or commission.

Hallowe'en Programs

Hallowe'en programs for Saturday will be interesting and varied.

The kindergarten, first, second, and third grades of Starkweather will celebrate in their own gym while these same grades in Central will use the high school gym, both parties being in the afternoon.

The fourth, fifth, and sixth grades of each school will have an evening party of movies, games, and refreshments, each in its own gym.

The seventh and eighth grades will celebrate in the high school gym with movies, games, and eats.

The ninth to twelfth grades will convene in the Masonic Temple, probably for a dance.

ATTENTION!

Boys and girls, would you care to join the Little Theatre group on Tuesday evenings at 8 o'clock in the high school. Try out November 2. All are invited.

Junior-Senior Committees Meet

A meeting of the chairmen of the Junior-Senior play committees was held last week at which Mrs. Bixler presided. Each committee chairman was told his duties and how to organize his committee. Mrs. Bixler said the whole play depended on the committees and they should start their duties now and not wait until the last minute. The senior committee chairmen will work with Miss Killham, and the junior committee chairmen with Mrs. Carey. A member of a committee must do some work before his name is put on the programs. Names will not be put on just because the student signed up. The general senior chairman is Lois Vetal, and general junior chairman is Eleanor MacDonald. The chairmen of the committees are publicity, Roberta Orr; newspaper and Beverly Files; posters, ushers, Marian Milkosky; Thursday night, Shirley Hitt; Friday night, stage construction, John Hopkins; stage design, Betty Spicer; stage properties and settings, Shirley Cramer; personal properties, Anna Marie Cooper; programs, Helen Bowden; tickets, Shirley George; and lighting and sound effects, Henry Schmaedecke.

The Hi-Y hayride last Friday night was a success even though it rained, according to the sixty kids who attended it. Three wagons were used for the ride which started at Vetal's. After the ride all the kids went to the "Breakfast Nook" where they roasted hot dogs and marshmallows and had doughnuts and cider. Eleanor MacDonald, Joan Gilles, Jean Livernois, Bob Minock, Ray Runkel, Lois Bryan and Carl Hale attended a party last week given by John Hopkins for Carl Hale who left for the Marines. Doris Fulton, Laurel Norris, and Donna Underhill attended a square dance last Saturday night. Daniel Dougan is home on furlough, and has been visiting in high school. After the dance Friday night Joan Gilles, Carl Hale, Jean Livernois, Bob Minock, Eleanor MacDonald, and John Hopkins

Lam's Take Over Lost And Found

The Lam Service Club has taken over the lost and found department located on the second floor across from the library. If any articles are found, return them to this department any time in the morning between 8:00-8:30, at noon 12:15-12:30 and after school from 3:30-3:45. Students may claim lost articles also at this time.

Football Shorts

The Ypsilanti football game will be on Thursday because all of the teachers and coaches will be at a meeting of the Michigan Education Association.

Iron-man Muggs Hunt, star passer of the Plymouth High football team, is gone for the rest of the season because of a broken shoulder. During the first game of the season he came very near having his back broken.

After persistent two-hour drills every night in blocking and tackling, this phase of the football practice shows decided improvement.

Honor Roll

The tenth grade led the honor roll for first period with 19% of the students while the eighth grade trailed with only 8%. The percentage of students on the honor roll of all grades is 12, which is considered average. The girls seem to be more studious than the boys, since sixteen per cent of the girls were on the honor roll to seven per cent of the boys.

Odds and Ends

It is not only the wives in factories who are doing double duty in this war; the hens are doing their share also. Doris Sawtelle bought a dozen eggs last week, and every last one of them had two yolks. There must be a shortage of shells so that two yolks must be crowded into one egg. At least you get your money's worth.

When Mr. Keeslar came out of his room to ask the kids who were still celebrating Shirley Lutermoser's birthday with a box of candy last Wednesday, to move, the girls offered him a piece of candy and he forgot what he came out to do.

We've heard of receiving lines, but what kind of line was that which the kids went through when they left Shirley's surprise party?

Have you seen the pictures of Bud and Dot taken at Joe's party? For further information see Joe Brisbois.

We wonder why "Mac" McGregor and Bill Saxton were dancing together at the "Triangle Trot." Maybe they were waiting for someone to cut in.

With the U. S. Armed Forces in Europe, David T. Garrison, Jr., recently received a promotion to the rank of private first class. Pfc. Garrison is the son of Mrs. Pearl Garrison of Mill street.

IS MEMBER OF A.S.T. UNIT AT SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY, NEW YORK

Pvt. Ivan E. Packard is studying basic engineering at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York, having been assigned there in connection with the Army Specialized Training Program. Pvt. Packard, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Packard, is a graduate of Plymouth High School.

EVERETT L. SALOW RECEIVES PROMOTION

Plymouth boy makes good—Everett L. Salow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Salow of Newburg road, was recently promoted from staff to technical sergeant. At present he is stationed at Williams Field, Chandler, Arizona, where he is a mechanic in the Army Air Forces.

IS TRANSFERRED TO FORT DIX, NEW JERSEY

Pfc. Dudley C. Martin, formerly at Chanute Field, Illinois, has been transferred to Fort Dix, New Jersey.

RUTH WELLMAN, MEMBER OF SPARS, NOW IN ST. AUGUSTINE

Ruth Wellman, Plymouth's first member of the Spars, has been transferred to historic St. Augustine, Florida, where she expects to be stationed for some time to come.

"It surely is swell to read the many interesting letters in The Mail and to get all of the home town news every week," she wrote last week.

St. Augustine is one of the most interesting cities in the United States, as well as being the oldest.

Every time you snap the switch of your kitchen light—or any other electric light in your home—that light actually BURNS COAL. Thousands of tons of coal per day are required to manufacture electricity for Detroit Edison customers—besides manpower, transportation and other critical materials. When you save electricity you save coal, and that is vitally important today.

Our government asks your help and the help of every person in America to make this nationwide conservation program a success. CHASE B. WILLETT IS WELL-LIKED "TOPKICK" AT SOUTHERN CAMP

A recent article in the camp paper at Greensboro, North Carolina, accompanied by a sketch, reveals what's been happening to Master Sergeant Chase B. Willett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron M. Willett of Holbrook avenue, since he entered the army in March, 1942.

M/Sgt. Chase B. Willett, topkick of the 301st Training Wing, explains his job by saying that he has very little to do when things are running smoothly. When there's any hitch in the schedule, however, he has to get busy.

A native of Plymouth, Michigan, M/Sgt. Willett graduated from the Business Institute of Detroit after specializing in accounting and banking. In civilian life, he sold cars and life insurance and worked in a bank among other things. His hobbies are many. He took colored movies, was interested in ball-room dancing, and flew with a private license for a year before coming into the army. Right now, he is collecting Army insignias and has 107 of these colorful patches.

M/Sgt. Willett entered the army March 3, 1942. He spent six months at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, and six months at Atlantic City, New Jersey, and points out that he is now in his sixth month here in Greensboro. He is good-looking, single and one of the most pleasant topkicks on the post.

All of which goes to prove that sergeants aren't so bad after all.

SAYS WILL ROGERS FIELD IS ONE OF BEST IN COUNTRY

A good description of Will Rogers Field, Oklahoma, is given in a letter from Pfc. William

Wenett who was recently transferred there:

"I am now stationed out here in Oklahoma at what I think is one of the finest fields in the country. It was named after the famous and favorite humorist of America. I believe it is just about as fine as Will Rogers would have wanted it.

"It is located about eight miles from Oklahoma City, which, by the way, is a swell town for a service man. The field isn't large but good. We have all the comforts of home in our barracks, including gas heat, good beds and even sheets for a change."

With such enthusiasm, William is going to get along O.K. in Uncle Sam's mighty army.

LIKES NEW ORLEANS,
BUT SAYS IT DOESN'T
COMPARE WITH PLYMOUTH

"Way down south in New Orleans" is Pvt. Grayson Jones, Jr., who writes that the famous city is a pretty nice place right now. During the summer months, it was a bit too warm there, though, to suit Pvt. Jones. He has gone over the city quite thoroughly while on his few and far between passes from camp and has come to the conclusion that it still doesn't compare with good old Plymouth.

PHIL WILLIAMS MEETS
FRED MILLARD—BOTH
IN MIDDLE EAST

Phil Williams has been "over there" for a year now, performing his duties as one of those "tough and terrible" M.P.'s with the rank of a private first class. He is stationed in the Middle East.

Writes Phil, "I have yet to meet another Plymouth boy over here, although there are lots of them in North Africa, but I did have the good fortune to find a friend of mine from Rosedale Gardens—none other than Fred Millard, Jr. He is recovering from wounds received in the Sicilian campaign. Whenever I got my copy of the paper, I turn it over to Fred when I am through with it. Fred tells me they named a camp in North Africa after Don Passage.

"Before me on the wall of our building, we have a painting called 'The Sinking of the Wasp.' It almost seems as though I can see our Plymouth boys there in the water instead. In fact, when an officer remarked about the picture and said it was a wonder any of those sailors got away alive, I told him about Don Baron and Sonny Bridge and how both of them were not only alive, but back in there fighting once again. Then I kept right on bragging about the people from our fair city. When I told him that Col. Cass Hough was from Plymouth also, he thought I was kidding until I showed him my latest copy of The Mail (August 6). In this part of the world, the air corps is tops and when it comes to speed in an airplane, there is no doubt that Cass Hough is top man in that.

"So you see, that wherever you may choose to go in this world, you will find that there is usually someone from Plymouth who tops all the rest. As my old pal, Bill McAninch, puts it, 'Plymouth is not only one of the best towns in the country, Plymouth is the best town in the whole world.'"

LETTER FROM INDIA
REACHES PLYMOUTH IN JUST 13 DAYS

Sergeant Louis N. Pearsall, well known Plymouth high school lad who is now somewhere in India, has sent to The Mail a most interesting letter, a letter that came from the other side of the world in just 13 days. It was mailed in India on October 8 and reached The Plymouth Mail office on October 20.

So interesting is his letter, that it is being used in full, as follows:

"Upon the approach of our mailman today, I dropped what I was doing, as it was unbreakable, and reached out for my first Plymouth Mail I have received since I left the good old U.S.A. Say! but those familiar letters at the top of the front page looked good to me. I guess nothing can hold back the Plymouth Mail even when we boys are on the other side of the world.

"Of all the places, I never thought those beautiful, angry waves would carry me to—India, India, a strange, colorful land, one that relatively few Americans have seen. Customs, dress, language, color, religious beliefs and political institutions have little resemblance to anything I have known in America. If I exercise a normal amount of curiosity I'll learn much that is fascinating; much that will enable me to begin stories to my children or grandchildren in later years.

"Now, when I was in India—"

"I guess the first thing I noticed was the strangeness of Indian dress. Since I have experienced the Indian sun I realize that the costume worn by Indian men and women results from centuries of living in a climate one American soldier described as 'too hot, too cold, too wet, too dry.'"

"In India I have seen more beggars with more pitiful faces and misshapen bodies than I have ever seen before. Many of them wear little clothing and smear their bodies with ashes. Most have matted hair, often worn in a coil on top of the head.

"No Hindu would dream of killing a cow. They will starve first. A cow is sacred. You see them wandering unmolested along the main streets of towns and along the highways. They roam wherever they wish. Why, some soldiers woke up one morning and found a dead cow in their barracks. The very next morning another was found in the latrine! After all, a line should be drawn, don't you think? There are so many interesting things I could tell you and lots of things I would like to be able to tell you.

"Yes, India is an interesting place, but the thing I'm mainly interested in is fulfilling my little part in a big job until it is finished and getting back home again. I'm anxious to again see that sunrise behind our Statue of Liberty.

"And now, before I sign off, I want to again thank you for sending me the Plymouth Mail. It's great to learn the news back home and read the letters from my friends who are now soldiers in all parts of the world."

COLVIN C. COOLEY
BUSY INTERVIEWING
FUTURE SAILORS

A former instructor of radio and electricity at the Plymouth high school, Colvin C. Cooley is now with the U. S. Navy at Great Lakes, Illinois, where he is a specialist "C" third class.

Some of the mechanisms of the navy are described in his letter to The Mail. "Going through the process of becoming part of this man's navy seemed quite drastic to a fellow who considered himself pretty well settled for a nice peace time life. I was certainly impressed with the immensity of the training station here at Great Lakes. They our mail is not censored. I'll stay on the safe side just the same and simply say, to give you some idea of the size, the station uses four tons of coffee a day!

"After four weeks of 'boot' camp here, I was taken out and sent to Bainbridge, Maryland. Went through four weeks of rather intensive training there and emerged as a Specialist "C" third class. Have been back here at the Lakes for about three weeks, hard at work on my new job. My work, in main, is interviewing navy recruits about 10 days after they enter the navy, and deciding what kind of material they are, and where they can best be placed. My opinion is that the navy is doing a fine job of placement. Each recruit gets almost a full day of rather comprehensive tests that check his general ability, capacity to learn and mechanical and electrical knowledge. On the basis of these tests, plus his civilian background, he is either sent to a service school before sea duty, or assigned directly to sea to learn his job there. Some of the better qualified men are picked out for commissions, officer training, special billets, or occasionally, given ratings on the basis of their civilian training experience. To make a long story short, it keeps you on the jump interviewing men during the day and deciding where they can best be placed. Every man, of course, is an individual problem, and some are certainly a challenge to the interviewer. So, that is about the long and short of my job and would like to say to the mothers and fathers back home that the navy certainly does its best for the boys that are sent here for their initial training. It is admitted, of course, that in such a mass production set-up, there are bound to be some misfits, but, in the main, a fine job is being done."

SENDS GREETINGS TO HIS PLYMOUTH BUDDIES

Though Cpl. J. E. Stevens has been working in the offices at Camp Rimini, near Helena, Montana, he still has occasion to drive a team of dogs now and then. Camp Rimini is a war dog and reception training center and there, Cpl. Stevens has charge of a team of nine black dogs of which he is very proud and says he hopes to see a little of the Arctic with them.

Jim looks forward to seeing news of his Plymouth pals each week and writes, "It makes a fellow stop and think a little when he sees that list of names of boys who have died for their country. I would also like to congratulate you on your very excellent editorials—it's good to note that somebody has our future in mind, whether it be concerning politics or something on the home front."

After getting the news read about my pals over there, I turn to the back page of the Mail and when I have finished an editorial, I say to myself, 'That's telling 'em!' I sure look forward to seeing one of those stirring editorials concerning the strikes and race riots and their effect on man-hours lost in making important war products for boys over there."

Jim closes his letter by sending his greetings to all his buddies, wishing them the best of luck in the swell job they're doing.

"Just dropped by to tell you, Frank, I had a fine letter from your son, Joe, this morning. Mighty nice of him to take the time to write me... I know how busy they keep the boys. That's a fine camp he's been transferred to up in New England."

"Yes, Catherine and I had a letter this morning, too. Said he was writing you... he's very fond of you, Judge. Catherine is certainly proud of Joe and proud of the great Army he's a part of."

"She has good reason to be, Frank.

Joe is one fine fellow and the Army he's in is the best disciplined, best behaved in our history. Just last night I was reading an article that quoted a report signed by five chaplains in the very camp where Joe is now training. I remember their exact words which were "there is no liquor problem at this Post." And I understand that's true in camp after camp all over the country. And if Catherine would like to see that report, I'll drop it off at the house tomorrow."

"WHY ARE YOU SELLING YOUR AUTOMOBILE?"

—THE INQUIRING REPORTER ASKS

AND HERE ARE THE ANSWERS FROM A TYPICAL GROUP OF WARTIME AMERICANS

"It just happens I don't need my car for my work—and seldom for other purposes. I feel it would help the war effort more... in the hands of someone who needs it badly."

"I'm going in the Army next week. With prices so high, I figure I'll trade my car for War Bonds now, and have a good start toward buying a new Olds after victory."

"My husband's in the service. I'm living with my own family and seldom use the car. When I figured up how many War Bonds it would buy... well, I decided to sell right then and there!"

"Frankly, my Oldsmobile dealer has offered me such an attractive price, I feel I could hardly afford not to sell my car, especially since I use it so seldom."

"Well, we used to be a two-car family. But my wife and I got together and decided that the patriotic thing to do was to get along with only one."

"Why not? It's just plain good business. At today's prices, I can get almost as much as I paid for it two years ago."

IF YOU DON'T NEED YOUR CAR

IT'S PATRIOTIC TO SELL IT!

and it's wise to sell it to us!

WE'LL PAY TOP PRICES. Because of our large volume of used car business, because of our fast turnover, and because of the fact that we recondition cars in our own service shop, we can afford to pay the top market value.

WE'LL PAY YOU IN CASH OR WAR BONDS. Bring your car in today, and walk out with the full cash price in your pocket. Or, if you prefer, we'll pay you the price in War Bonds, made out in your name.

WE'LL MAKE IT EASY FOR YOU. Our aim is to enable you to sell your car with a minimum of bother to yourself. No searching around for a buyer. No selling expenses. Just bring your car and title to us, and we'll handle the whole transaction, quickly and easily.

WE'LL PUT YOUR CAR IN THE HANDS OF SOMEONE WHO NEEDS IT. We number among our customers a great many essential war workers who must have dependable transportation to get to their jobs. Putting cars like yours into hands of people like these is part of our wartime duty.

Phone Party Line Use Jumps
Manager MacLachlan Tells Of Increase

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company today reported that the war has increased the number of families using party-line telephone service in its territory by more than 150,000 since Pearl Harbor.

John R. MacLachlan, manager in Plymouth for the company, cited the increase in party-line usage as one way by which the Michigan Bell has been able to meet much of the unprecedented demand for wartime service with a minimum use of critical materials. Because of the shortage of materials, the company has been asking many of its customers and applicants to accept party-line service for the duration. Even with that avenue of relief, many thousands have been unable to obtain service because of lack of central office equipment, cable and other facilities.

The manager said that more than 80 per cent of all residential telephone service and much business service in Michigan Bell territory is now provided by party lines. On the basis of the average-sized family, that means that 2,240,000 Michigan Bell users are sharing their home telephone lines with others.

He declared that the heavy increase in party-line service pointed to one more thing that users can do to relieve the strain on wartime telephone service—"be a good telephone neighbor."

"It is quite possible that the public overlooks the telephone line as one of the things that should be shared understandingly in wartime," he said. "But the telephone has gone to war just as have automobiles and lawn mowers.

"Thousands of new subscribers and many who have moved have accepted party-line service to help spread the existing supply of telephone facilities. Many of them never have had party-line service before but are cooperating wholeheartedly in the courteous sharing of their lines."

Auto Tire Shortage Becomes Acute

The Plymouth Price and Rationing Board has been informed by headquarters in Detroit that there is still a terrific shortage of tires, and that the local board has been instructed to watch carefully all applications for new tires.

New Grade 1 tires will be issued only to those persons with C books who have rations to drive more than 600 miles a month.

And in any event, if tires can be re-capped, that procedure must be done before any new tire certificates will be issued.

FDR says:
Payroll savings is our greatest single factor in protecting ourselves against inflation.

Need Truck Tire? Ask Detroit

The Plymouth War Price and Rationing Board will no longer handle requests for truck tires, it was announced this week. The new order took effect on Tuesday.

Under the new rules and regulations all requests for new truck tires must be made to the Central Mileage and Ration Board at 4465 Woodward avenue, in Detroit.

The excessive shortage of truck tires has made the new regulation necessary, it was announced.

Clean Up That Victory Garden!

It Was Part of The Bargain, Remember

Despite the frost and the snow and the complete absence of any vegetables in the victory gardens of Plymouth, the gardening season is not over.

Definitely not.

There is the matter of cleaning up the garden lots.

When the lots were given and rented to the users during the summer, it was with the distinct understanding that the gardens should be cleaned up when the gardening season was completed.

On top of that, gardens to be used next year will be in much better condition if they are plowed now.

To make the nation's supply of livestock feed produce the maximum amount of food, the War Food Administration says hogs should be marketed at lighter weights than during the past two years and 1944 spring farrowing should be held substantially below that of last spring. These measures will be necessary, WFA says, if livestock numbers and feed supply are to be held in balance. WFA urges very best use of roughage and pasture for sheep and cattle. In general, WFA points out, if feeders hold down the weights to which they feed their meat animals, they'll get maximum output of meat per pound of feed used. To conserve feed, WFA recommends heavy culling of range herds.

The Unknown Sailor

A SALVAGE CREW had re-boarded the doomed United States carrier, Yorktown, mortally stricken in the final phases of the Battle of Midway. The destroyer, Hammann, stood by for rescue.

Crash! A torpedo! Then another! Two great fountains of water reached towards the sky. The Hammann listed badly; began to settle. The sea was filled with struggling men, from both the Yorktown and the Hammann.

Waist-deep on the deck of the fast-sinking Hammann a sailor was seen. The salvage crew watched him, fascinated. He was setting the safety on depth bombs so they would not blow to bits the hundreds of sailors floundering in the water. He stayed there working on his last merciful, self-imposed assignment—too busy to think of himself. His lonely figure stood in heroic silhouette against a somber background as the Hammann made her final plunge.

Who was he? Write him down as the unknown sailor, known but to God.

TO THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

"Ye Editor" is probably one of the most enthusiastic motion picture fans in Plymouth or hereabouts. We have always liked motion pictures, from way back during the days when Frank D'Arcy over in Kalamazoo installed one of the first "Nickelodeons" in Michigan.

We have watched and applauded its tremendous progress. But the time has arrived for a word of warning.

During recent months the writer has observed what appears to be a cleverly devised system of political propaganda injected in many of the pictures we have seen. Some of it not so clever. It is apparent that the industry is beginning a fight against the Republican party and every once in a while there is a dirty dig at the political organization which, in the beginning, made the motion picture industry possible. Not only is the industry apparently going out of its way to smear the Republican party, but it is going out of its way to glorify the party in power.

Those reaping vast fortunes out of the motion picture industry, apparently have an idea that the present administration is going to remain in power forever. If so, they had better change their minds.

And when that change comes, the new administration will be fully JUSTIFIED in whatever retaliatory steps it might decide to take against an industry that is going out of its way to crucify a political organization that is responsible for America occupying its position of leadership in world affairs.

THE SALVATION ARMY

During the next two weeks, a group of Plymouth citizens are devoting their time and effort to a campaign organized for the purpose of raising $3,000 for the Plymouth branch of the Salvation Army. We hope that the goal is not only reached, but far exceeded. During the years that the Salvation Army has existed in Plymouth, it has accomplished a world of good. Its day nursery school has proven of untold benefit to families employed in war industries. Its charitable work has been outstanding and it is one religious organization that has never overlooked the necessity of ministering to the hundreds of inmates of the House of Correction. We know that Plymouth citizens are being asked to buy war bonds and to donate to various war charities, and we know that every individual is carrying a heavy burden at present. But the Salvation Army is one institution that should not be forgotten in a world filled with overflowing with trouble and sorrow. The Salvation Army marches forward, ALWAYS with songs and cheers for the weary and discouraged. GIVE — and give liberally.

THE REASON WHY

Numerous readers of The Plymouth Mail have asked the editor why there was no report in last week's issue of the three day production tie-up of machine guns at the Kelsey-Hays plant. The answer is an easy one. We are sending nearly 600 copies of The Plymouth Mail to Plymouth soldier, sailor and marine boys fighting on every battlefield in the world. We do not believe that it is good judgment to pass along such distressing and disheartening news as that involved in the Kelsey-Hays strike to OUR BOYS who are fighting, bleeding and dying to preserve the right of every man and woman to work for a living. OUR BOYS are up against a mighty tough, treacherous and blood-thirsty enemy, so why add to their worries and fears by telling them of the shameful and terrible news at home?

25 Years Ago

News items of a quarter of a century ago taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail.

Local Board for Division No. 4, Wayne County, sent sixteen men from this division to Rockwell Field, Santiago, California, Monday morning.

On account of the closing orders, the opening of the Penniman Allen theatre has been postponed until the latter part of November.

In compliance to the orders from the State Board of Health, the churches, moving picture at the village hall, and all other public gatherings have been declared off until there is an abatement of the Spanish influenza epidemic sweeping the state.

The Plymouth Branch of the American Red Cross announced Tuesday that no parcels intended for member of the American Expeditionary Forces would be accepted for shipment until Monday morning, October 28th.

Frank Palmer has donated three bushels of walnuts to the Junior Red Cross. The children enjoyed picking out the meats and then saved the shells to be sent away to be made into carbon for the masks that our soldiers wear.

The village commission is contemplating the purchase of a motor driven fire truck, capable of carrying 1000 feet of fire hose and chemical tanks.

The sale of canning sugar was stopped last Saturday night by the United States Food Administration. No more canning slips can be issued here. Strict adherence to the two pound per month per person regulation will be maintained in the future. Sugar for household purposes can still be obtained on the sugar card system, although one-half of a family's allowance may be obtained before the fifteenth of the month.

Everyone took advantage of the chance to drive their automobiles Sunday. Plymouth road was literally lined with cars.

The physical culture class, which has been receiving instructions from Mrs. L. McIntyre for the past week, have formed a permanent organization to be known as the Plymouth Health Club. Mrs. Karl Hillmer is president and Miss Verne Rowley, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Julia Goodale received a message last Sunday evening from the war department at Washington, stating that her son, Private Vernon Goodale, had been wounded in action, degree undetermined, about the 30th of August.

George Huger, Jr., only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Huger of this place, and Miss Edith Thomas, also of Plymouth, were quietly married in Flint, last Saturday, October 19th.

Mrs. Fred Ahrens of Pinekey discovered a piece of art in her hencoop the other day. One of her hens laid an egg with a landscape in green monochrome nicely executed on the shell. This egg is a rare curiosity. Oscar Alsbro, one of the senior boys, left Monday morning for the U. S. Aviation Field in California.
