

Will Honor School Leaders Here For Past Quarter of Century

Supt. George A. Smith

Mrs. Nellie Bird

The first world war was nearing its close in September of 1918.

Hundreds of men had gone from Plymouth, many of them school teachers.

The school board, and Superintendent Reebes were having their troubles in employing competent teachers, just as the present school system is having its troubles.

But that September, while the Allies were just beginning to start their final drive which was to end with the armistice in November, three people came to Plymouth who have had a profound effect on the affairs of the city since that time, three people who have affected the very lives of thousands of others who still live here and those who have moved to other fields.

The first to come actually was Mrs. Nellie Bird, but she didn't come intentionally. And that was in 1917.

They were erecting the new high school building at the time, and her husband was employed in that construction.

Mr. Reebes was short of teachers and he called upon her to help him out, and she did, and she has stayed, and for most of the twenty-five years since the end of the first world war, she is the story of the changes in the world in general during the twenty-five years between wars. Let's begin with Mr. Smith. He's the driving sort of individual, self taught with a story of success in life which rivals the imaginations of Horatio Alger.

An orphan when he was six years old, he went to the Coldwater children's home, and then went to live with a kindly man and his wife at Hanover, Michigan, where all his adolescent life he was loved and cherished, even though Smith now admits that as a red-headed, freckle-faced kid he was something more than Little Lord Fauntleroy.

But with all the vicissitudes, he was graduated from Hanover high school, and immediately began teaching school, for in those days college was not a necessary requirement for a teacher. After a year of teaching at Pulaski, he went to college at Ypsilanti. Then he taught at Albion, and coached football there, too. Then back to school again. Then superintendent at Stockbridge and Manchester, and finally he founded his home in Plymouth.

When he came to Plymouth he didn't have his liberal arts degree, but he got it the next year, and five years later took his masters degree—again that

Planes Speeded By Invention Of Cass Hough

Uses Water Pistol Idea To Gain Faster Time

According to an Associated Press dispatch from England, Plymouth's own Cass Hough, a lieutenant colonel in Uncle Sam's flying forces, has used to good advantage of our flying fighters the knowledge he gained on his recent spectacular speed flight and his training in the Daisy plant in Plymouth where air guns, water pistols and the like were made before the war.

The following dispatch, released by the 8th Air Force Fighter Command Headquarters in England, explains the project:

"The peacetime air rifle manufacturer who piloted a Thunderbolt fighter plane in a record dive at 780-plus miles per hour is now capitalizing on a phenomenon experienced by the average motorist in night driving.

The man is Lieut.-Col. Cass Hough, young vice president of the Daisy Air Rifle Company of Plymouth, chief of the 8th Fighter Command technical experimental section.

"His project is a miniature water pistol which, when the Thunderbolt's 2,000-horsepower Pratt and Whitney engines get running full blast, squirts a tiny stream of water into the cylinders.

"The water dilutes the gas mixture slightly, delaying ignition which otherwise is accelerated by engine heat, and thus makes the engine run more smoothly and efficiently.

"This is the same thing which often makes auto engines run more smoothly at night. The dampness in the night air gets into the motor through the carburetor, making the ignition more even.

"This innovation is understood to give the Thunderbolts burst of 500 extra horsepower or 20 miles an hour additional speed—often enough to be the deciding factor in whether you get the German or he gets you.

"Thunderbolt pilots assiduously try their wings just to squeeze out a few more miles an hour, so the water-injection system is considered a boon."

Former Burma Missionary To Be Conference Speaker

Rev. Leo W. Spring

Rev. Leo W. Spring, former Burma missionary, will be one of the prominent guest speakers at the World Parish Day convention of Baptist churches to be held in the Masonic Temple in Plymouth, Thursday, November 18.

Rev. G. W. Rothery, pastor of the First Baptist church of Plymouth, who is in charge of the details for the important Plymouth meeting, states that the talk by Rev. Spring just at this time will be of most timely interest because of the importance of Burma in the present worldwide war struggle.

It is expected that there will be a good attendance at the session.

Even 100 New Homes Are Being Built Here

Thirteen More Permits Sends Total To Hundred Mark

Thirteen more building permits for defense homes in Plymouth have been issued, bringing the total for the past six months to an even 100 new homes.

One of the houses, built by the Dawson Construction Co., already is open, and is now being used as a sales office.

It is fully anticipated that the builders will have little trouble in either renting or selling the homes.

The city has installed water mains along Sunset and Irving streets between Blanche and Farmer and between Farmer and Junction streets to serve the new homes.

The new homes will bring an additional 400 persons to Plymouth it is believed, and will in no way reduce the property values already here.

The houses have been constructed under the strict supervision of the city engineer, and conform in every way to the building code.

Other houses in other sections of the city also are under construction and are expected to be ready soon.

The water mains along Irving and Sunset are six inches in diameter, and the sanitary sewer in the same area is eight inches in diameter.

The new building permits were taken out for lots on Adams, Arthur and Auburn streets, by the Dawson Construction Co.

Tons Of Scrap Iron Collected

Large Amounts Of Paper Donated

The city of Plymouth and Plymouth township collected 21,430 pounds of scrap metal and 37,570 pounds of paper last Saturday under the direction of Don Horton.

Six army trucks from the Romulus air base made the collection with the assistance of local workers, stated Mrs. Russell Powell, general salvage chairman.

The scrap metal contributed was for the most part the smaller items, the final cleanup of all scrap metal, for most of the larger pieces of scrap had already been contributed.

Workers on the drive included Kenneth Norris, James Lature, Wallace Laury, George Huebler, Jack Taylor, James Oliver, Don Horton, Art Helmer, Del Slater, Claude Dykhouse, C. A. Luchtman, Harry Reeves, James McGraw, R. Powell, Jack Dobbs, Don Oppenheim, Ed Slater, Tom Sanders, Dick Farwell, Chuck Finlan, Ray Grice, Billy Hartman and Alan McMahon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Finlan of Arthur street entertained Miss Agnes Schoeb of Dearborn over the week end. Sunday they had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mieden and daughter, Darlene, of Monroe.

Educational Leaders Discuss Future Perils

Annual Meeting Held In Newburg Church House

The thirteenth annual banquet of school officers and teachers in the northern section of Wayne county was held at the Newburg church house Monday, November 8th.

Fred C. Fischer, county commissioner of schools, was the master of ceremonies for the occasion. The theme was "Education for Victory," which was interpreted by all speakers as "Education for Peacetime after Victory."

George A. Smith, representing the county school board, spoke upon "Planning for Victory." Mrs. Eva L. Sagen, board member from the Walker school, spoke upon "Providing Education for Victory." James Rossman, principal of Stark school, spoke upon "Teaching for Victory." Charles Brake, deputy county superintendent of schools, spoke upon "Evaluating Education," emphasizing the need for developing a Christian sense of right action.

The principal address was given by Dr. Howard Dawson, director of rural education from the federal department of education, Washington, D. C., speaking upon the theme "Education for Victory." Dr. Dawson emphasized very clearly and forcefully that education is the vital spark which must be kept alive if democracy is to succeed. There is no escaping the cost of education, because society pays a greater cost, later, as a result of avoiding temporarily costs of education.

He used as an illustration the fact that the southern states which have failed to educate their colored people to a degree at which they might be used as soldiers are, of necessity, sending more white boys into service than would otherwise be required. This same peril has invaded the north, because when there is a definite number of men to be inducted, if one state is unable to send its quota because of illiteracy then the other states are forced to send an additional amount to make up the deficit.

Grocers Ask Aid Of Buyers

Have Both Cash And Coupons Ready

Grocers in Plymouth have come up with a new idea.

The facts are that grocers are in much the same predicament that others are in—there just ain't no help. (Pardon the grammar, but it's expressive.)

So, when a patron appears, makes purchases, and then fiddles with ration stamps, counts them, arranges books, one, two, three and four, sorts stamps, and finally gets around to handing over the cash—well, valuable minutes have been lost, minutes which might have been used to better advantage in waiting on another customer.

And who knows, maybe the customer who was waiting, was you.

Issue Warning To Auto Owners

Better Get Car Ready For Winter

Note to motorists: When the first cold, wintry blasts struck Plymouth last Tuesday, there was a rush for the garages to get winter work done. One garage turned away fifteen persons. Another turned away ten.

The result was that the garages warned the motorists that if they want service they had best arrange dates in advance.

There is a shortage of help in everything else, and the garages can't take cars like they used to, and like they would like to do now.

In fairness to everyone, dates must be made in advance, so if there is any work you know your car is going to need—you'd better make your dates now—in advance.

Rev. Nichol Critically Ill

The condition of Rev. Walter Nichol, who has been seriously ill for sometime, is reported to day as being exceedingly critical. Close friends of the family say they believe there is little hope for the recovery of the former Presbyterian minister. He retired from active church work last March.

Plymouth Falters In War Chest Drive

Sewing Machines Are Badly Needed By Plymouth Red Cross

To Plymouth Mothers—Many of you have sons in the armed forces of the nation. Some of you have no sons to offer to your country. Some of our Plymouth boys have been in hospitals, due to wounds received in combat or due to illness contracted in the jungles. The Red Cross is always the first to help.

The Plymouth chapter of the Red Cross makes many, many garments which our boys in the services need. Right now the patriotic women of Plymouth haven't enough sewing machines for all of those who have donated their time. If you have a sewing machine you can loan to the Plymouth Red Cross, kindly call Mrs. John McLaren by phone. Call either 235 or 646. It would help too if you could deliver the machine to the basement of the Plymouth postoffice, which is now being used as the sewing room for the Red Cross.

Only 10 Days Coal Supply In Plymouth Yards

Rationing Necessary Say Dealers Of This City

There is less than two weeks supply of coal in the coal yards of Plymouth, and when more will be received is problematical.

Most coal dealers are convinced, however, that there will be no suffering in the city, and that conditions will not be as bad as they were during the first world war when it was necessary to open public buildings in the evening in order to keep people warm.

City Manager Clarence Elliott has been appointed by Mayor Carl Shear as rationing officer for coal within the city, and priority orders for delivery may be obtained from him when there is less than a five days supply of coal on hand in any person's basement.

However, the city manager said, he thought it would be unnecessary for him to issue many such priorities, because the coal dealers themselves are now permitted to deliver one ton of coal to any household who has less than ten days supply of coal on hand, and that most of them are following that procedure.

The coal dealers of the city met with the city manager and Mayor Shear last Friday night, at which time it was estimated that there are less than 1,000 tons of coal for home users in the city. This is generally estimated to be from one to two weeks' supply of coal, depending on the weather.

One coal dealer told the Plymouth Mail that he believes that bins in the city are fairly well filled, and that there is no cause for anxiety as yet.

Time Of Reception To Educators Here For Quarter Of Century

A public reception for three teachers in the Plymouth schools who have served the city's educational interests for 25 years, will be held in the high school gymnasium on the evening of November 16 from 7:30 to 9:30. The reception is sponsored by the faculty of the schools, and is open to the entire public.

The three teachers are George A. Smith, superintendent of schools; Edna M. Allen, head of the high school English department; and assistant principal, Mrs. Nellie Bird, principal of the Central grade school.

Special invitations have been sent to out of town school officials, and to former students of the high school who now live elsewhere.

No special invitations have been sent inside Plymouth township except to officials, but everyone is invited to appear at the high school to pay their respects to three persons who have served the city so long.

Ask City Manager To Be Board Member

City Manager Clarence Elliott has been invited to become a member of the Regional Planning Board, which is composed of public officials in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties. Their task is to make future plans for the area, and the signal honor to the Plymouth City Manager will probably open vistas for increasing the value of this section of the county.

About Half Of Allotment Has Been Raised

Workers Seek Aid In Putting Plymouth Over Top

If some little Chinese kid doesn't get the pair of pants he needs, and some Yugoslav mother doesn't get the milk she needs, and some American soldier boy doesn't find the entertainment he needs—blame it all on a variety of circumstances, to wit:

The Plymouth drive for the National War Chest is not the tremendous success it should be, but then for that matter, neither are the similar drives in other communities.

But in Plymouth in particular, there are a variety of circumstances, other than those which other drive committees are encountering.

There is the usual lethargy which followed the heavy and successful war bond drive. There is a lackadaisical attitude based on the erroneous American belief that the war will soon be over.

But still more than that, there was trouble with the stork and automobile drivers. Two of the women solicitors became mothers right at the time they were ready to solicit, and one woman lost all of her soliciting materials when her automobile was stolen. Luckily she had the money she had already collected, in her purse.

The local committee is having its difficulties with the county organization over devoting a proportionate share of the contributions of Plymouth men to the chest to the Plymouth total.

Mrs. Catherine Henderson, chairman of the local campaign, said however that she has been informed that contributions from the three Ford factories in the Plymouth area, will be included in the Plymouth total.

The goal is for $7,000 for Plymouth alone, and unless intense activity is evidenced before next Tuesday, the local campaign will be a failure—the first failure in this war from Plymouth.

More and bigger contributions are needed in Plymouth, and at once.

It is absolutely essential that Plymouth go over the top in this drive, for what most people do not understand is that the money is used not only for our soldiers and sailors and marines, but also for the relief of those persons who are bearing the brunt of the suffering in this war—not only for themselves but for us.

Shriners Hold Fall Party

Mayflower Event Pleasant Affair

Members of the Suburban Shrine club last Saturday evening enjoyed one of their best parties held in years, the event taking place in the Mayflower hotel.

Even though it was a "hard-time" affair, the Shriners made plenty of fun for themselves and their guests.

Haze Bennett, chairman of the evening's entertainment, saw to it that there was something doing every minute. Of course he had the big advantage of having that popular Ford musical group with him to provide the program.

The Mayflower provided one of its top-notch dinners for these times, and the service was as good as the meal.

Over 200 were present. A substantial sum was raised for the Shriner's crippled children fund.

Buy Horse—Gets The Wrong One—Blames The New Dealers

So confused was the New Dealer who got Walter Postiff that he is no longer sure about anything—hint some of his friends.

This prominent and well known farmer and turkey grower, bought a horse the other day. He went out to the farm where he had purchased it, picked out the horse he thought he had bought and took it home with him.

Imagine his surprise a day or so later to discover that he had taken a horse belonging to Perry Campbell, well known dairyman and milk dealer. "Just blame the New Deal for it. If there is any kind of a mix-up anywhere, you can blame it to the New Dealers. They have us so confused we don't know what we are doing these days," said a friend of Mr. Postiff, as he related the details of the horse deal.

Seeks Men To Donate Work

William Rose Asks Your Help

William Rose, who has just been appointed chairman of the 17th congressional district civilian employment committee of the American Legion, is in urgent need of 20 or more men who are willing to donate three hours or more work per day at Fort Wayne.

If 20 or more volunteer workers can be secured who can go to Fort Wayne to work during the early hours of the evening, Mr. Rose says that the army will provide transportation to and from Plymouth.

The pay for this extra work will be 85 cents per hour, with no transportation charges involved. Men are wanted for at least three hours work each evening and on Sundays, too, if you can get away from your other duties. The work is of a manual nature.

Mr. Rose requests that you call him and discuss your availability for a bit of extra work for Uncle Sam.

Likes Wintery Maine Better Than He Does Warm Florida

No, please do not send this clipping to any one in Florida. They may not like it—but here's Soldier John Thorpe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ous Thorpe, of Shearer Drive, who says he likes the cold, wintery state of Maine far better than he does the snake infested army camps of Florida.

John, a member of the military police force at Presque Isle, Maine, which is right up in the northern tip of that state only 30 miles from the Canadian border is home on a brief furlough. He spent last winter in Florida and was sent to northern Maine early in March.

"I like it lots better than Florida. There it was hot in the day and cold and damp at night. Up in Maine the air is nice and cool and bracing all the time. There's plenty of snow up there now. We are right in the heart of that famous potato growing country—and I've already got my deer hunting license, the woods are full of them and as soon as I get back, I'm going out to get my buck," he informed The Mail yesterday.

Yes, John is that former big boy who drove a team of dogs around town hitched to a cart he had made. The dogs were trained by John. So proficient were they trained that he could drive them as easily as a farmer could a team of draft horses.

Elect Thatcher Chairman Of Choral Society

Board Of Directors Also Selected For Next Year

Horace Thatcher was elected permanent chairman of the Plymouth Choral Society and the Little Theater group at the organizational meeting last Tuesday night.

The two groups, which are now combined, and meet jointly on Tuesday evenings, are believed to be the nucleus of one of the outstanding cultural organizations in this section of the state.

The society elected a board of directors composed of Mrs. M. J. O'Connor, Mrs. Virginia Fisher, Mrs. John Birchall, Mrs. William Morgan, Al Smith, Frank Hamill and Joseph Witwer. The board then appointed Mr. Thatcher as permanent chairman.

The Board of Directors, then set December 23 as the tentative date for the presentation of "Sing Nowell," the tableau play which has been selected for the initial offering.

It was announced that Robert Luscomb, the prospective director of the choral society will make his first appearance at the rehearsal next Tuesday evening. Mr. Luscomb is the director of fine arts at MacKenzie high school in Detroit, and is the assistant conductor of Don Large's chorus, which sings over WJR.

The play-tableau will be jointly conducted by Mrs. Edward Devine, the director of the Little Theater group, and Mr. Luscomb.

Mr. Thatcher announced that O. M. Valliquette will be the scenarist for the production.

The combined organizations have grown from an original seven persons who met for the first time a month ago to more than 80 singers and actors who now meet each Tuesday night.

NOTICE! To Our Subscribers—Numerous calls have been received during recent weeks asking why the expiration dates on the papers have not been changed. The answer is an easy one, our mechanical staff has not had the time to make the changes. Do not worry, however, as you have been given full credit on the office record when you made your last subscription payment. We regret this delay, but it is one of the problems that has come along with the critical labor shortage.

Do Christmas Mailing Now!

Postmaster Irwin Issues Warning

Harry Irwin, Plymouth postmaster, says there will be more Christmas mail this year than ever before in history.

More money flowing into more channels will make for more Christmas mailing than ever before, and if all gifts are to be delivered on time, the mailing must be spread out over a period of weeks.

It is true that the Christmas packages for men overseas have already been sent, but the increased mailing of cards and gifts will overtax the Post Office Department beyond its capacity, unless some of the mailing is done early.

Therefore, Mr. Irwin requests that all packages be mailed as early as possible, even during the month of November, with of course the notation that they are not to be opened until Christmas.

Mr. Irwin points out that it will be far better to have the Christmas gifts arrive a month early, than to have them arrive several days late.

Starkweather PTA To Have Panel Discussion At Meet, November 18

A panel discussion will be the feature of the next meeting of the Starkweather Parent Teacher Association which will be held Thursday evening, November 18th. The meeting will begin at 7:30 in the Starkweather Auditorium.

"Basis for a Just and Durable Peace" is the theme of the program with Superintendent George A. Smith as the co-ordinator.

The panel members and their topics are Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple, "Disarmament"; Clarence Elliott, "Collective Responsibility in Industry"; Mrs. T. Leonard Sanders, "Brotherly Race Relations and Peace"; Mrs. Carl Adler, "What About Colonialism?"; Mrs. Miller Ross, "There Must Be No Revenge"; Mrs. Frank Pierce, "How Feed So Many Mouths?"; A general discussion will be conducted following the topics.

The public is invited to attend the discussion.

Mrs. A. L. Stover, who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Clarke of Burroughs avenue for several weeks, has returned to her home in Bradford, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Stover is the mother of Mrs. Clarke.

City To Install Police Call Clocks

The city commission has ordered the purchase of four time clocks to be located at different parts of the city, which the police must punch in their rounds each night. Instructions to the city manager for the purchase were made at the last commission meeting.

The clocks are to be installed for several reasons. In the first place, it is always a good thing to make certain that the police have made their appointed rounds, but almost equally important, it is necessary for the police themselves to have some record that the police were in a certain section of the city at a given time.

The city manager will locate the clocks after they have been purchased.

Sign of the Times in Southwest Pacific

Two entertainers and their chauffeur read a prediction by President Roosevelt on this huge sign posted along one of our invasion routes in New Guinea. Reading the message are Ray Bolger, atop the rear seat, "Little Jack Little," left, and Col. C. S. Meyers. The entertainers have been putting on shows for the Allied troops in the Southwest Pacific.

Newburg

The subject of Rev. Carson's sermon Sunday was "The World." Several members of the Myrom Sevels Post of the American Legion were present for the service. Attendance in Sunday school numbered 133. Next Sunday, the Sunday school collection will be given to the War Chest. William Leosh contributed the $35 which he made from the sale of pictures taken on Rally Day to the church organ fund.

Don't forget the Homecoming and Bazaar this Saturday evening in the church house. Dinner will be served, too. Everyone is invited to come and meet old friends.

Attending the annual banquet held at the hall were 195 teachers and officers. A delicious turkey dinner, served by the W.S.C.S., was enjoyed by all. The speaker for the occasion was Dr. Dawson of Washington, D. C.

A new drinking fountain has been installed in the hall by the Fidelity Class. Jack Campbell did the work.

Members of the W.S.C.S. enjoyed a fine meeting last Wednesday in the church house. Mrs. Ed Ayres presided. The theme of the program was "Peace." The women who gave addresses and their subjects were: Mrs. J. McCollough, "Economic Enterprise"; Mrs. William Nolte, "Promises Will Not Give An Enduring Peace"; Mrs. J. Bennett, "War and Peace"; Mrs. H. Meilbeck, "Hands and Hearts and a Fresh Determination"; and Mrs. Raymond Grimm, "World Order." The December meeting, which will feature a Christmas play, will be held in the church house.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Guthrie and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith attended the wedding reception, Saturday evening of Miss Jean Kettler and John Meddaford at the Strathmore Methodist church.

Henry and Raymond Grimm, Leigh Ryder and Walter Snyder, left Tuesday evening for the Porcupine Mountains for their annual hunting trip. Jack Campbell and Bob Grimm plan to join them later.

Mrs. Kenneth Kleinschmidt, accompanied by the Misses Doris, Bethel and Neoma Snyder, left last week for Los Angeles, California to be with Mr. Kleinschmidt, who is stationed at Camp Roberts.

Mrs. Melvin Guthrie and Mrs. Paul Bowman attended a Benefit Party given in Detroit Thursday by the Detroit Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association for the USO.

Mr. and Mrs. Marenus DeLow and son, who is attending midshipman's school, were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Guthrie.

Rosemary Guthrie spent the week end with Jean Murray at Rosedale Gardens. Saturday, the girls attended the performance of "Little Women" at the Schubert-Lafayette theatre in Detroit.

Corporal Raymond Guilsdorf of Panama, and his sister, Hilda, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimm, Sr., Saturday afternoon.

Staff Sergeant James Henriksen is on a fifteen day sick leave from Tampa, Florida, and is at the home of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ayres and son were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryder Sunday.

Salvation Army Needs More Cash

Campaign Will Be Continued

Through a combination of circumstances, a complete canvass of the city for funds for the Salvation Army has been delayed, it was announced this week.

Illness of some of the solicitors, closeness of the campaign to the drive for the National War Chest and absence of many persons from their homes has made necessary a continuation of the drive for funds for the operation of the army for the next year. The army drive, however, was conducted this year at the same time as in other years.

Mrs. S. N. Thams, general chairman of the drive, said that thus far more than $2,000 has been contributed against the goal of $3,000, which is considered a very small budget for the amount of work which is done, and the good which is contributed to the city by the Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army is a combination of organizations all in one. It offers constant help to the needy who might not otherwise be provided for. It provides help for children and for working mothers, and perhaps equally important it provides spiritual help for those who need it.

All persons who wish to contribute to the fund are requested to send their money to or call Mrs. Thams at (telephone 639) 475 Jenner street.

Little Comment On Parking Fee

Officials Seeking More Information

City Manager Clarence Elliott said today that he had had only slight reaction to a feeler which city officials put out sometime ago over the method of paying for parking lots which may be installed in the downtown section of Plymouth.

One of the plans suggested was to charge a fee of 10 cents for parking lot privileges. Another plan was to make an assessment on the merchants in the downtown area, who would reap much of the benefit from the parking lots.

However, insufficient reaction has been obtained for the guidance of the city administration in its efforts to reach an equitable solution to the problem.

There is no question, however, but what parking lots are needed in the downtown area. The crowded condition of the streets make it almost impossible at times to find a place to park the family automobile while shopping.

To impress others we must be earnest; to amuse them, it is only necessary to be kindly and fanciful.—Tuckerman.

City Seeks Part Of State Tax

To Send Petition To The Governor

The city commission has ordered City Manager Clarence Elliott to draw up a resolution to be sent to the Governor, the state senator and representatives from this district and to other interested governmental agencies of the state, declaring that it is the opinion of the city commission that some division of the state sales tax should be made to the lesser governmental agencies of the state.

This action was taken in the hope that if some of the money from the sales tax is diverted to the city, then property taxes could be reduced.

Churches Aid In The Entertainment Of Both Young And Old

First steps in a program of self entertainment have been taken by the Rev. Henry Walsh, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who for the past month has been conducting Thursday evening get-togethers for old and young alike in the basement of the church.

Crowds of about 40 to 50 persons both young and old have met for the past five weeks and have sung hymns, with a story of the reason and the circumstances that they were written. Afterwards they played folk games and danced in the basement and had refreshments.

Because of a conflict of schedule, this series will be discontinued, but Rev. Walsh, and Rev. Sanders of the Methodist church, are now planning joint entertainments of such character for the members of both churches.

City To Get Data On Pay Schedules

The city commission has instructed the City Manager to inquire from the other towns and villages in Wayne county the salary schedules of different classifications of city employees who determine whether the Plymouth schedules are out of line.

Choir rehearsals are held each Friday evening at seven o'clock for the children, and eight for the adults. The Annual Union Thanksgiving service on Thanksgiving Day will be held this year in the Presbyterian church. The hour will be ninethirty in the morning, so that it will be possible for those who worship to still meet the necessary demands of the day in their homes, or away, as the case may be. Will Honor School Leaders same old driving force which started him in life, his desire for knowledge, his desire to keep up with his profession and to improve it.

And he has. Then, there is Miss Allen. She's assistant principal and dean of girls now, and head of the English department. But her life was different.

She was born into a family, all of whom attended college. She was destined for college from birth. Nothing piecemeal about her education. It was planned. It was intended, and from it she emerged an even finer woman than she had been a girl, and with it all a love of teaching, of philosophy and knowledge.

Mrs. Bird is still working for her master's degree, but like Mr. Smith and Miss Allen, she has had a constant desire for new things, for new ways to teach, and to appease that appetite for learning and teaching methods, she has gone to school for 18 of the 25 summers she has spent in Plymouth, and with every year, her love of small children has grown.

And now their stories, their beliefs and their philosophies, for these are the things which have made the changes in Plymouth schools in 25 years.

When they came here, there were set textbooks and set courses of study for every child, whether he was destined for a factory shop or the sheltered cloisters of collegiate learning. It was all the same. English, Latin, mathematics, science, history. These subjects were required for graduation. A high school student had to take them. Whatever else he took was perhaps his own business—that is music and art and things in the lighter vein. But this all has changed now. The courses of study have been expanded. The idea is to fit the school to the needs of the child. As Mr. Smith explains it now: "If a child wants and needs to search for cross-eyed mosquitoes, we'll provide the microscopes and an instructor to help him hunt."

That seems to tell the story of the school system today. It is fitted to the needs of the child. There are machine shops for the boy who wants to study such things. There are manual training shops. There are music rooms and domestic science rooms, and commercial training rooms. And the history, Latin, French and English are still on the curriculum.

But, Mr. Smith, Miss Allen and

Mrs. Bird see no changes in the children of today and those of twenty-five years ago.

They are being fitted for the life they want to lead. They are being fitted to earn a living as well as trained to live with their earnings.

But the children today are no more intelligent than the children of a quarter of a century ago. They live at a faster pace, because of the economic requirement of the times. And because of this faster pace, there are more temptations for dishonesty which they are required to squelch, but there are still just about two per cent of the children which give trouble, and twenty-five years ago it was about the same percentage.

As Miss Allen and Mr. Smith said, when the chips are down, the kids of today and yesterday will come through. Miss Allen likes to make kids think, and for that reason she is inclined to be irked occasionally with those who have no desire to think. She wants them to read and to learn and to live.

Mrs. Bird, who has been teaching the third grade these many years, loves her children even more today than she did twenty-five years ago.

She admits they're cleaner and on the whole better cared for than those of yesterday, but she is worried about the working mothers.

The children she knows, who fail to go home because there is no one there, are being neglected. Those children feel alone, and they are.

And the care of them hangs heavily on her mind, but she knows they are no more intelligent than all the others she has had in 25 years.

And now, the teachers of the school system are going to honor these three at a public reception to which the community is invited on the evening of Nov. 16. Honor for 25 years of service and growth to a community. Honor for 25 years of unselfish, low-paid endeavor to educate you and me.

Thursday Nights Fixed For Hearings

The Plymouth Price and Rating Board hearings will be held on Thursday night in the future, instead of Friday night. The Plymouth OPA office is open regularly on Thursday night, and it was decided that if the panels met on that night instead of Friday night that considerable work would be saved. Persons having direct dealings with any of the panels are requested to make their appearance on Thursdays in the future.

A man in earnest finds means, or if he cannot find, creates them.—Channing.

Woman's Club Told Button Collecting Is Very Interesting

Buttons, 20,000 of them, of every description, color and design were on display at the meeting of the Woman's Club last Friday afternoon when Mrs. M. C. Bullock of Reed City spoke on button collecting as a hobby. Mrs. Bullock's collection of buttons was attractively arranged on panels of various sizes and patterns. Club members found one panel of buttons forming a basket and flowers most appealing. Perhaps the most curious buttons were one that was 200 years old and a burial button on which there was a tombstone. Mrs. Bullock urged her audience to begin a hobby of some sort, conveying the thought that hobbies stimulate one's interest in life.

During the business meeting, the club voted to give an acre of pines to the memory of the late J. Merle Bennett. Mrs. Earl Wellman was selected to be chairman of the 31 Teaspoon Grease committee. Club members have been asked to save at least a teaspoon of grease each week for the salvage grease program.

John Schombergers Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

A solemn high mass was chanted at Our Lady of Good Counsel church Sunday morning at ten o'clock for Mr. and Mrs. John Schomberger, for many years well known and prominent residents of this community, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday.

In the same way and with the identical ceremony used a half century ago, the Reverend Fathers Hubert Klenert of the Sacred Heart Seminary of Detroit, and Jacob of the Holy Cross Parish in Detroit, and Father Sweeney again wedded the couple just as they were married in Aledo, Hungary, November 12, 1893. For the ceremony Mrs. Schomberger wore a dress of violet with black accessories and a corsage of tea roses.

Two of the attendants who assisted the bride and groom fifty years ago were present. Mrs. Mary Herperger, of Ecorse, was bridesmaid and Leslie Herperger, also of Ecorse, was best man. Little Betty Lou Tanguay, Ecorse, great-grandchild of the Schombergers, was the flower girl.

A bountiful dinner was served at one o'clock for more than a hundred guests from Ecorse, Wyandotte, Detroit, Lincoln Park, and River Rouge, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ferenczi on South Main street. ## Stabbed During Fight At Joy Bar

Earl Hillaker In Serious Condition

Earl Hillaker, 42 years old, of 12237 Tryonville road, is in a serious condition at Sessions hospital in Northville as a result of a brawl at the Joy Bar, Joy and Middlebelt roads, last Saturday night. Hillaker was stabbed in the abdomen. Leo Russel De Garmo, 27 years old, who resides in a trailer camp at 28433 Joy road, has been arrested by Sheriff's Detectives Borrell and Gregory, along with his brother-in-law, Virgil Garrison, 24, of the same address. Detectives are still searching for another man said to have been engaged in the melee.

According to the story as pieced together by Detective Borrell from stories told by DeGarmo and Hillaker, and from other witnesses, a general fight between all of the principals followed a pin ball game between DeGarmo, Garrison and two girls.

The girls lost, and when they sought to buy the drinks at a table, someone objected and a fight started. It continued outside, and Hillaker, who had had no part in the fight inside, entered into the brawl during which he was stabbed.

Hillaker said he thought he had been kicked in the stomach. He got up and walked to his own car after he was stabbed. Someone drove him to his home where the stab wound was discovered. Dr. Bentley was called, and he was taken to Northville where the stab wound through the abdominal wall was discovered.

Detective Borrell said no charges would be placed against DeGarmo until it is determined whether Hillaker lives.

DeGarmo has been in Detroit for five months, and Garrison only five weeks. They came here, presumably to work in a war plant, from Welch, West Virginia.

Buffalo Feast For Wild Lifers

One front quarter South Dakota buffalo.

The injured Ernest Henry, third finger on right hand trimmed off at end in cabbage slicer.

Harry Rackham, Northville, left thumb neatly carved as he haggled off slices of rye bread.

That sums up in brief the "casualties" resulting from the annual "wild life" banquet of the Western Wayne County Conservation Club staged Monday night under the command of Buck Privates John Crandall, William Gayde, Ezra Rounner, Charles Messmore, Ernest Henry and Jack Taylor.

President Brick Champe rounded up some 200 or more "rough riders of the west" who raided the basement of Jewell & Blaich's hall and ate good old fashioned buffalo stew, stewed in sherry, until vest buttons began popping like a lot of Daisy pop-guns.

Two citizens of Plymouth who still contend they are of the Democratic faith, Postmaster Harry Irwin and Eugene Orndorff, said it seemed like good old Republican times to be able to eat an old-fashioned square meal again.

Chief Steward John Crandall, took the day off from court practice, in order to see to it that the buffalo was cooked to a queen's taste, say nothing about pleasing the "tastes" of 200 or more of Brick Champe's hardy wild lifers. Even such finicky individuals as Mayor Carl Shear and City Commissioners Stanley Corbett and Henry Hondorp, as well as "Boss" Stu Dodge, declared it was all good. So there isn't much more that can be said about it.

No, there were no "points" necessary.

Weddings

George, in the post chapel in Marianna, Florida, where the groom is serving as a pilot in the American Air Force. The bride wore a satin gown made princess style and trimmed with lace. Her tulle veil was fastened to a headdress of seed pearls, and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses.

Miss Helen George of Detroit, a sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant. Lt. George chose as his attendant Lt. Paul Galentine, Jr., of Gardiner, Maine. The young couple returned home after the ceremony for a short leave after which they will go to Mitchell Field on Long Island, New York.

HARRIS-COX
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cox of Maple street announce the marriage of their son, Wilbur H. to Miss Ruby May Harris of Salem, Virginia, on Wednesday, October 27. The young couple left for Harbor Springs after the ceremony to spend a few days with relatives before the groom left for Norfolk, Virginia, where he reported for duty. The bride will continue to reside in Plymouth where she is employed as a waitress in the Glenn Smith restaurant.

"How Big Is Your Heart?"

John Blyton of Taylor & Blyton has always been a great believer in advertising.

He not only believes in spending money to advertise his own business, but he believes in spending money to help advertise great humane campaigns.

That is why in last week's Plymouth Mail, the Taylor & Blyton store sponsored that appealing advertisement in behalf of Plymouth's war chest drive.

Did it help?

Monday morning Mr. Blyton was in front of his Main street store.

A local citizen came along. "That was a wonderful ad you had in The Mail last week," he said.

"I rather liked it, too," said Mr. Blyton.

"Here's $20 I wish you would turn over to the committee. I had planned to give $5, but I'm going to make it $20. I made up my mind. Mr. Blyton, after I read your ad."

How many more increased their contribution to the war chest drive as a result of that advertisement is not known, but it is probable that many thousands of dollars were contributed as a direct result of that ad.

How to avoid Wasting Light

Today any waste of electricity is as serious as wasting rubber or gasoline or other critical war materials. When you save electricity, you save coal. Here are practical ways to save electricity in your home:

- (1) Turn off lights in rooms not occupied, and floor or table lamps not immediately in use.
- (2) Wipe lamp bulbs frequently, also reflector bowls and ceiling fixtures. Dust wastes as much as one-third of your light.
- (3) Flaring lamp shades do a better job of spreading light than straight-sided shades. The wider the opening at top and bottom, the more useful light is directed into the room.
- (4) Avoid dark colored lamp shades (they soak up light), or try fitting them with white linings. Use good, white paper and fasten seam with Scotch tape. White linings will often increase the amount of light from the lamp by as much as 50 per cent.
- (5) Whenever possible, make floor and table lamps serve more than one person for reading or sewing. A single lamp on a table, for example, can provide light for chairs on both sides of it. The Detroit Edison Company.

Plymouth met Wayne for the second time this year at Plymouth Friday, November 5, the last game for the Rocks this season, which they lost 47-0.

When the Plymouth team took the field in the first quarter, they were defending the north goal which was crossed four times during the quarter. Leppola caught a pass from Piscopink and ran for the first score. Piscopink ran over his own tackle for a twenty-yard touchdown. Shedd then caught for another score, and Loewe ploughed through the Plymouth line for another score late in the quarter. During the first quarter when Plymouth had the ball, all they could do was try to punt. The Rocks had four of these blocked.

In the second quarter Loewe was able to run off tackle for a score from the ten-yard line. Plymouth made slight gains in this quarter on end runs and explosive line plunges by Bennett.

After the half the complete first team took the field and held Wayne scoreless for the quarter. End runs by Brink, Simonetti, and Bennett highlighted the quarter; also Bennett ripped holes in the Wayne line.

The Rock reserve team played the last quarter and Carpenter caught a pass from Piscopink for the first score. Then Piscopink ran over tackle for sixty yards for the last score. Mason, Wayne's center, kicked five out of seven extra points.

This game ended the Plymouth football season with eight defeats.

When Barbara B. told Bob D. she would call him Macbeth since he was a tragic character, a fellow senior piped up saying "You mean he is a sad case."

It seems Joan G. is so popular she must ration her dates. Several of her friends are wondering where Eleanor McD. disappeared to at Nancy Pettibone's party.

The man shortage is getting serious since Wayne H. was seen escorting six senior girls to the show last Thursday. Did you notice Dot and Joe talking in a corner at the Halloween dance? We wonder where Bud was.

It seems strange that Miss S. gets a piece of pie every third hour. We wonder who is working for the A.

The chairmen are publicity, Bill Sexton; lighting, Cameron Lodge; floor, Harold Todd; chaperons, Janet Strachan; invitations, Ruth Hoystradt; construction, Downing Jewell; intermission, Nancy Thornton; decorations, Jack Schoof. "IT'S TOUGH NOT TO KNOW"

In Michigan, a thousand miles away, his young wife is in the hospital. Ever since he got excused from drill he's been waiting by the public telephone—waiting to get a call through to the doctor—hoping to hear him say, "It's a boy, and they're both doing fine!"

But the wires are crowded with calls that move armies and speed war production, calls from service men to the folks back home—and many civilian social calls.

So—patiently he waits. Waits and looks at his watch with a lump in his throat. And finally he'll have to go back to his barracks—to go to bed, but not to sleep.

"Where Your Money's Well Spent"

For three months, Bob Hope toured the camps in England, Africa and Iceland. He saw our boys, ate Army chow with them, jumped into ditches with them when Junkers came over. He sat on their hospital beds and wondered how they could still laugh at his fun-making.

Sure, Bob's a comedian, but he's dead serious in what he tells in an inspiring article appearing in This Week Magazine, with Sunday's The Detroit News. Read it.

"YOU MAKE 'EM WE FLY 'EM" WRITES LT. J. B. GAFFIELD

According to a letter recently received from Lt. J. B. Gaffield, he's now "pioneering again—this time in the Georgia swamps about 50 miles from Savannah."

Continues Lt. Gaffield, "We're all alone down here, and believe me, it seems good to be able to operate without looking out for sea-shooters and bombers in the same traffic pattern. Our squadron has 25 new airplanes direct from the factory in Wayne. Probably some of the people in Plymouth helped to build them. The L-5 is certainly a good performing ship for the type of work it is intended. Our pilots like them so well I have difficulty scheduling them so that one doesn't get more than the other."

"I'm still squadron operations officer, in charge of the L-pilots while they're on the line. I like the work, but as the rest of the pilots stuck here, want to get recess soon."

CPL. JOHN SIEBERT RECEIVES MEDAL FOR GOOD CONDUCT

The Army Good Conduct medal has been awarded to Cpl. John F. Siebert by command of Brig. Gen. Walter A. Dumas, commanding general of the Tank Destroyer Replacement Training Center at Camp Hood, Texas. A Good Conduct Ribbon, red with three narrow white bands at either end, is usually worn instead of the medal. The Good Conduct Medal is given on recommendation of unit commanders, to those enlisted men who have demonstrated exemplary behavior, efficiency and fidelity in performance of their duties.

Siebert formerly lived at 11657 Russell street.

TALKS OVER GOOD OLD DAYS WITH NORTHVILLE BOY IN ALEUTIANS

The bleakness and monotony combined with the strict censorship of the Aleutian Islands doesn't stop Pvt. Walter Jendrycka, former Mail employe, from writing swell letters. Walter writes that he hasn't run into anyone from Plymouth there yet, but recently was fortunate to meet Paul Baldwin from Northville. The fellows had a great time recalling pre-war days and friends.

Walt has been in the service nearly two years, and like every other boy away from home, he's anxious to get back home soon. He sends his regards to all his friends here.

FRED MILLARD WRITES ABOUT SEEING PHIL WILLIAMS IN AFRICA

Fred Millard, Jr., one of OUR BOYS who has been awarded the Purple Heart for outstanding service in action in North Africa, is now recovering at a base hospital there. A recent letter from him states:

"Thought I would write and tell you that I saw a fellow from Plymouth. His name is Phil Williams and he's stationed near here. The way he knew about me was that my name appeared in the Stars and Strips for getting the Purple Heart and he saw an article in the Plymouth Mail about me being in Africa.

"Well, two more days and I'll be up and around again. I sure feel O. K. now though."

"They took the bandage off my arm and all there is now is a scar about 3 inches long and in the middle is a little place that isn't healed yet. The only thing is that I can't use my arm or hand. I move my fingers a little, but I think they're going to operate on it again. The place is right where I wear my watch—it cut the band in two."

"Well I guess that's all for now."

Fred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Millard of Berwick avenue, Rosedale Gardens. He was wounded last summer.

RAIN OR SHINE IS FORECAST BY SGT. BRUCE MILLER

Back home, we don't always think the weather man is such a nice fellow, but down in Lakeland, Florida, where Drane Field is located, the weather man is heeded with great respect. That man is Bruce Miller, recently promoted to master sergeant.

Sgt. Miller has charge of the Drane weather station and through his efforts and those of his co-workers, the big bombers at the field are assured added safety. The station keeps tab on the elements with constant observations and forecasting since the planning of a flight route is determined by the status of the weather along the proposed course. So it's an important job which requires the peak of efficiency at all times.

In civilian life, Miller attended high school here and before leaving for the army, was employed in Boston. He has been at the Lakeland Army Air Field since last November when he was transferred there from Chanute Field, Illinois.

PLYMOUTH MEN TAKE FIRST STEPS TOWARD BECOMING U. S. SAILORS

Four more Plymouth men are becoming acquainted with Uncle Sam's navy at Great Lakes Training Station, Illinois. Right now they're busy going through their "boot" training which initiates them to navy life, seamanship, and military drill. After that, they'll be given a series of aptitude tests to determine whether they'll be selected to attend one of the navy's service schools or will be assigned to active sea duty.

The Plymouth recruits are Warren G. Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Todd of Simpson street; Linwood Walter Dethloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dethloff of Five Mile Road; Alexander Pitt, husband of Margaret G. Pitt of Plymouth road; and Kenneth Henry Langbecker, husband of Mary Langbecker of Mercedes street.

LT. ANTHONY MATULIS RECEIVES TOUGHENING COURSE AT PRINCETON

Now at Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey, is Lt. (j.g.) Anthony Matulis, who writes: "Uncle Sam believes in really toughening up his officers. We get no special consideration of any kind; in fact, we have less free time than the army, navy, and marine students here in school. So far, the only special consideration I have seen is giving us our shots before our week end leaves, which spoils the leave but is easier on the system than drilling with a 102 degree fever."

"The fellows are a grand lot. We have a wonderful unit here and splendid officers. They work us every second, trying to cram a year's work into a few weeks. You really learn more than you ever thought you could. I am becoming the possessor of entirely new skills, and interests."

We all miss Plymouth, of course, and hope that this will all soon end so that we can be back. They do not fill you with any false optimism, however."

Lt. Matulis was employed as athletic coach at the high school before leaving for the navy. Mrs. Matulis is with him in Princeton.

SPENDS WEEK END WITH SEVERAL PALS FROM BACK HOME

Pvt. Fred Korte is studying as he never studied before and with his enthusiasm, we know he'll come out with flying colors. He's attending aerial gunnery school at the Marine Corps Air station, El Centro, California, and in another two weeks, will be classified as an aerial gunner. Though his schedule is a full one, he found time to write:

"So far, my training hasn't been tough. Of course, if you don't study and keep awake in class, it is. The instructors here are really swell and will do anything to help you out. So far, our subjects have been aircraft recognition, radio code and material, blinker, sighting, skeet shooting with 12 gauge shotguns, 3A2 trainer, and 30 and 50 calibre Browning machine-guns. Have been getting good marks and that's what counts. It's a lot different from high school. We know that someday, when we are sent overseas, we will be able to put into action what we were taught. Next week we will go to the malfunction range where we will fire and fix jams on 30 and 50 calibre machine-guns. Our last two weeks of training will be the real thing. We'll go up in SNJ's and SBD's and fire at a target being towed by a training ship. What we experience will be just about the same as when we are in action."

"Last week end, I had a 72 hour pass so I went to San Diego and met a few of my pals. I had written to Lou Dely, Roy Kearney, and Tom Lacy, who are stationed there. Lou Dely was the only one who showed up and we spent the week end talking over old times we had in 'civics' and about the gang. We went out to Kearney Mesa to see if we could find Tom, but he had pulled out for Norman, Oklahoma two days before. Lou is stationed at the same base as Roy, but hasn't been able to locate him. We also stopped at Camp Elliot to see Bill (Windy) Donahue. It seemed great to see Windy, too, as I haven't seen him since we left 'recruit depot.' Bill is doing O. K. for himself—the training he is getting will make any 'Jap turn and run'—and he's ready to crack at one."

"Thanks a million for the paper and keep up the swell work you are doing. We really appreciate it."

Fred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Korte of Warren avenue.

PVT. STEPHEN RUH RETURNS TO STUDIES AFTER FURLOUGH HERE

"Catching up" on lost sleep was Pvt. Stephen J. Ruh's main activity while he was home on furlough last week, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ruh. He's attending New York City College where he is studying engineering with the Army Specialization Training Program and it's not an easy course.

Stephen has been a member of Uncle Sam's armed forces since April of this year.

IN THE CANAL ZONE HE IS PROMOTED TO CORPORAL'S RANK

Jack Warkup, a machine gunner stationed with the Coast Artillery guarding the vital Panama Canal, was recently promoted from Private first class to the grade of corporal.

Jack is a member of Battery D of the "Jungle Mudders" which was recently cited for their performance of duties in the Regimental Esprit de Corps contest. He entered the army in October, 1941. After serving a tour of duty at Camp Wallace, Texas, he was assigned to the Panama Canal department, arriving on the Isthmus three months later. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Warkup of 385 Acams street, Plymouth.

"STRIKES FOR HIGHER RATING IN THE NAVY"

Not even the Navy has escaped that affliction known as strikers, but a striker in Uncle Sam's Navy isn't much like the production hold-ups we have here. He is merely seeking an advanced petty officer rating in his specialty. Such a striker is Howard J. Hellner who was recently graduated from the Service School at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Active duty orders aboard a Man O'War or at some naval shore station which await Blue-jacket Hellner where, after further training in his new trade, he will be eligible for still higher promotion in the petty officer ratings.

SPAR TAKES TRAINING IN SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

Now and then, a member of the fairer sex creeps into this column—this time it's Jean Saley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Saley of Northville. Jean has begun training with the SPAR, which is the women's coast guard reserve. She is stationed in Seattle, Washington, doing her bit to help release members of the coast guard for active duty. Jean graduated from Plymouth High School and is well known here.

RETURNS TO CAMP PICKETT AFTER FURLOUGH

Pvt. Lester Alexander is getting "into the swing of things" again after spending a ten day furlough here with his wife and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hoffman of Starkweather avenue. He's stationed at Camp Pickett, Virginia.

EARL SPAULDING IS NOW ABOARD SHIP

Earl Spaulding, seaman first class, is now aboard ship "somewhere" and doesn't get news "om back home quite so regularly. He writes that news from good old Plymouth is one of the best morale builders he can think of.

JAMES SEXTON NOW STATIONED IN FLORIDA

At the Naval Air Base, Pensacola, Florida, is James Sexton. He was transferred there from Iowa.

James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Sexton of Penniman avenue.

IS TRANSFERRED TO MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

William R. Huston, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. West, has completed his training at Navy Pier in Chicago and is now stationed at Memphis, Tennessee.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS . . .

"Yes, I'm afraid there's no denyin' it, Judge . . . jeeps and trucks and other kinds of motorized equipment have taken the place of the good old horse in modern warfare."

"It's true of lots of things in this war, Eben. Every day we hear of new tactics and requirements and new uses of products. For instance, take the alcohol that is used for war purposes. In World War I, this vitally needed product was used mostly in making smokeless powder, chemical warfare materials and medical supplies. Today it must do far more . . . it must provide the base for such indispensable products as synthetic rubber, shatterproof glass, lacquers, plastics and many other of our requirements so essential to victory."

"As a result hundreds of millions of gallons are required every year . . . half of which is being produced by the beverage distilling industry. Bet you didn't know that, Eben."

"As a matter of fact, I didn't, Judge. That's a mighty important war contribution that had escaped me completely."

Geog. Classes Visit Museum

Ruth Robins has given the following report on what she observed at the Normal College Museum at Ypsilanti Saturday when Mr. Stadmler's geography class visited it.

The museum is divided in half with show cases and bone mounts on each side. They start with the smallest form of life, showing the evolution of plant and animal to the largest forms. Directly in the center is a large mastodon head and tusks mounted on a plaster stand. The head including the tusks is about four feet in diameter and the tusks exceed six feet in length and are about six inches in diameter. The head and one tusk were found in Ypsilanti. A large leg and foot of a prehistoric dinosaur stand at the back of the museum. It is about eight feet tall and eight inches in diameter. The foot bones are long and finger like. Upstairs on the second floor are all kinds of stuffed animals and birds in real life scenes.

Odds And Ends

We hear that Plymouth and Northville teams are having a little trouble getting together to give us our "most exciting football game" this year.

Superintendent of Schools George A. Smith declared at a meeting of the Central Grade School Parent Teacher Association recently that schools should continue during periods of emotional stress, as evenly as possible.

He reported details of the financial operation of the schools, of where the money comes from, and where it goes, but principally he devoted himself to the problems of education in these war times.

Education, he maintained, should fit boys and girls for good citizenship after the peace comes, and education should be directed in these channels.

Boys and girls, he said, should grow to feel that if anything is right, it should not be replaced by some easy fallacy, and that democracy should be lived by boys and girls in school if they are to become good citizens in our community.

On the subject of finances, he reported that the funds the school receives come 34.3 per cent from taxes, 26.4 per cent from state aid, 24.9 per cent

Hundreds Hear Church Lecture

Auditorium Of School Crowded

Several hundreds of interested people heard the address delivered Sunday afternoon in the Plymouth high school auditorium by Gavin W. Allan, C.S.B., of Toronto, Canada, a member of the board of lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Scientist.

The subject of his address was "Christian Science; The Revelation of the Kingdom of Heaven." He said in part:

"The kingdom of heaven" is a New Testament phrase. Its earliest use seems to have been by John the Baptist, who came proclaiming, "Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Repent means change your mind, change your way of thinking, change the very basis of your thinking from the material to the spiritual. Human beings have been educated to think of themselves and all that pertains to them as material in origin and existence. They have been taught that they are mortals, that they live in a material universe, and are subject to laws of matter. This is not the real truth about man. The Bible reveals that God, Spirit, is the only creator, and that man is His expression, a spiritual being, living in a spiritual universe, and it urges us to awaken to this truth. As we do we shall find that "the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Our Master frequently spoke of "the kingdom of heaven," and on one occasion as recorded in the thirteenth chapter of Matthew he endeavored to explain this phrase by a number of parables or stories. Possible one of Jesus' earliest utterances may throw some light on this subject. You will remember that, as we are told in the fourth chapter of Luke, Jesus "came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up; and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read." And this is the passage he read: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised." When he had finished reading Jesus announced, "This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears."

It was to be Jesus' mission to meet the needs of the poor, the brokenhearted, the captives, the blind, and the bruised. In other words, Jesus came to prove that, as Mary Baker Eddy has expressed it in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 494), "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need." Economic needs, mental needs, social needs, physical needs, spiritual needs, all were to be met. Jesus came to reveal by his words and works not only what God is but what He does for men. He proved that the kingdom of heaven is here and is available to men now.

Quite early in his ministry Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people. With out Master, preaching and practicing went together. He practiced what he preached. He came not only to proclaim but to do the will of the Father. He proved by his healings that it is God's will that men should be happy, whole, and free.

The kingdom Jesus referred to was not some territory in Palestine, or some place in the clouds, under the rulership of a personal king. This was no material or local kingdom. Indeed it is entirely separate from matter or things material. This is how Mrs. Eddy defines it in "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 174): "The kingdom of heaven is the reign of divine Science; it is a mental state. Jesus said it is within you, and taught us to pray, 'Thy kingdom come;' but he did not teach us to pray for death whereby to gain heaven. We do not look into darkness for light. Death can never usher in the dawn of Science that reveals the spiritual facts of man's life here and now."

Many people believe that the kingdom of heaven has little to do with "here" and "now." They believe that if there is such a condition it belongs to some distant future and can be entered only through the experience of death. They believe that death is a gateway to paradise, a stepping-stone to life. Whence came such a conception? Does the Bible teach any such doctrine? Did Jesus speak of death in this way? The Bible speaks of death, not as a friend, not as a progressive step, but as an enemy, something to be overcome. The entrance to the kingdom of heaven is, as the Bible points out, through repentance, a new birth, or as Paul puts it, "the renewing of your mind." Such steps can be taken now. If the kingdom of heaven is to be found at all, it is to be found where we are, and the advice of the wisest and most scientific man the world has ever seen is that we make the seeking of this kingdom our first consideration. Where may we be informed about it? How shall we seek it? The Bible tells us what it is, and the Christian Science textbooks outline practical steps to be taken toward finding it. With these books as our guides, and their directions faithfully followed, we cannot miss the way.

CEILINGS ON CORN PRODUCTS

Ceiling prices on wet corn milling by-products sold as animal and poultry feeds—but chiefly as protein supplements for dairy cattle—were set recently by OPA at levels around $7 a ton above those set by the price "freeze" as of March, 1942.

Worried About Meat Supply

Stop It! Rabbits Will Save The Day

There is a new meat supply in Plymouth.

It is now estimated that there are more than 200 rabbit breeders in the city of Plymouth alone. One man has gone into the business on a big scale and has more than 600 rabbits, which he sells for meat purposes.

The increased interest in the rabbit business is occasioned by the shortage and the anticipated greater shortage of meat.

And the people who have adopted the rabbit breeding as a supplement to the normal meat diet have done so because of the speed with which meat is produced.

In addition, it is far cheaper than chicken meat.

And if you like rabbit meat, you are better off than you would be raising chickens, for it is cheaper to produce.

Experts agree that rabbit meat can be raised for about 10 cents a pound, as compared with about 30 cents a pound for chicken meat.

The new rabbit breeder usually chooses New Zealand Reds or Whites for his breeding stock. A bred doe costs about $3.50, and will kindle a litter of from two to sixteen. They are ready for eating within six weeks after kindling and a doe will bear young about four times a year. Thus, with for or five does, the family larder will be well stocked for the winter.

Rabbits flourish in the winter even more than in the summer. The domestic rabbit produces an all-white meat, as compared with the darker meat of the wild rabbit. They are fed on clover, carrots and other vegetables in the summer, and in the winter, rabbit food can be purchased for four cents a pound.

Warn Careless Business Men

Police Find Many Unlocked Doors

The city commission has instructed City Manager Clarence Elliott to write letters to some 38 business men in Plymouth, who have a habit of leaving their doors and windows open.

The habit is disconcerting, for it makes extra work for the police department, all unnecessarily.

For instance, a door is found unlocked. The police must make a reasonable search of the building or store, to make certain there is no one in the place. Then, they must call the store owner, and the store owner is inconvenienced in having to make a trip downtown to lock up, either the door or window.

There have been from 17 to 38 such open doors and windows found by the police every month, and what with the increase in population, the more or less change in the population itself, it just isn't the thing to do, so the business men will be notified to please lock up.

Prices of all alfalfa hay products are now set by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 456. Under the revised regulation, these products will cost somewhat more in Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Mississippi, Utah and portions of Idaho and Oregon.

Hundreds of English children whose parents have been killed and whose homes have been destroyed during the war are being nourished back to health and guided in the ways of normal childhood at the Hanover Lodge Nursery in London. Center: In the garden the children pose for the cameraman. Top right: This modest young man covers his face as he is photographed while being given a bath. ## Seniors Keep Up School Work

Not Following National Trend

Principal Claude Dykhouse of the Plymouth High School reported today that the trend in Plymouth is for high school seniors to remain in school, which is contrary to the national trend.

Mr. Dykhouse said that 188 seniors are still in school as compared with a starting figure of 189. Two boys have enlisted in the armed services, one in the Marines and one in the air corps, but there has been one addition.

Because of the high wages being offered to the youngsters, Mr. Dykhouse said the marvel was that so many returned to school, and that so many have remained in school, especially in view of the fact that the boys may be expected to enter the service as soon as they have completed the school term in which they reach the age of 18.

"DISPELLING THE FOG"
The New Deal administration in Washington for many years paid a fellow by the name of Charles Michelson to write newspaper propaganda for the office holders. Charlie sent this dope out to the editors of the country under the heading, "Dispelling The Fog." We often wondered why he didn't entitle it, "Dispelling The Washington Fog." Anyway the dope sheet has disappeared. Possibly the highly paid pen-pusher gave up the job as hopeless, as the Washington fog seems to be getting thicker and thicker. We are glad to note, however, that there are encouraging signs in the sky. The voters last week, it would appear, have taken it upon themselves to "Dispell The Fog."

PUBLIC SERVICE
We are sometimes puzzled by the attitude of some people who are suddenly called upon to serve the public in various capacities. For some strange reason they take anything but a pro-public attitude and seemingly think that it is their duty and responsibility to lord it over everyone, no matter what the occasion might be. The more trifling the public trust they have assumed, the more arrogant is their attitude it appears. Their attitude should be the antipathy of arrogance. It should be one of tolerance, of understanding, of patience and kindness. Above all, one should maintain an open mind. A citizen has a right to a hearing, even under New Deal rules and regulations. And a citizen has a right to JUSTICE, no matter what some petty bureaucrat says. We have long believed that NO PERSON should hold any kind of a public position unless he is possessed of a pro-public mind and is above the pettiness that is so evident in so much of the public business of today.

WORMY APPLES
It looks pretty much as though Mr. and Mrs. Consumer had been handed some rotten apples by the Washington "fellers" who fix up the ceiling prices for essential goods. Notice came out the other day that the ceiling price of apples is something like two pounds of apples for 19 cents. The joker of the whole thing lies in the fact that anybody can sell any kind of an old apple for the ceiling price, as no differential in grades is specified in the ceiling order. So when you buy your apples from now on, you can expect to get knarled apples, bruised apples, wormy apples, scubby apples and rotten apples, all for 19 cents per two pounds. Previously when a buyer has gone into a store or called upon some fruit grower to buy apples, he had a chance to buy some mighty fine apples for a decent price. If he wanted some windfalls or a cheaper grade, he could buy them for much less than he paid for the better grade. But there is no grade now. The ceiling price is fixed for all apples at 19 cents for two pounds, and Mr. and Mrs. Consumer can expect to find a lot of knarls, worms and bruises in their bags of apples from now on.

VEGETABLE PRICE CEILINGS
Ceiling prices that will prevail for 13 fresh vegetables at country shipping points have been announced by OPA and WFA. The vegetables are lima beans, snap beans, carrots, cabbage, cauliflower, celery, cucumbers, eggplant, lettuce, green peas, peppers, spinach, and tomatoes. Maximum prices for beets, asparagus, watermelons, cantaloupes and the 1944 crop of onions are to be announced soon. Prices were announced to assist vegetable growers in completing their production plans.

A. H. Dibble and son have about completed the work of removing their stock of goods into their new quarters in the room formerly occupied by J. R. Rauch and Son in the Penniman block and they now have one of the most up-to-date stores as will be found anywhere.

Local Board 510, 4 for Wayne County, with headquarters in Plymouth, had the honor of having the lowest percentage of rejections for physical fitness for army service of selected men into the contents of any board in the state of Michigan.

Word has been received here that Henry Harer, a Plymouth soldier boy, has been quite severely injured on the battlefield of France and has been in the hospital for several weeks.

About thirty-five selected men will leave Plymouth next Monday for Camp Wadsworth, North Carolina.

The general election in Plymouth Tuesday passed off very quietly. The warm November sunshine brought out a fairly good vote but not as large as two years ago, when a total of 746 votes was cast. The absence of many of our boys no doubt accounts for the smaller vote to quite an extent. The total number of votes cast was 560.

McKernan and Taylor, proprietors of the Central Drug Store, have moved their stock of drugs to Detroit this week where they have opened a new store at the corner of Vicksburg and Wildermer avenues.

The Woman's Suffrage amendment to the Constitution of the State of Michigan carried in a Plymouth Township by a majority of 142 votes—326 men said "Yes, let the women of Michigan vote"; 184 men said "No" while 50 others refused to express their opinions at all.

G. B. Crumlie, local agent for the Nash cars, has sold William Bake a handsome five passenger car.

A. J. Lapham is busy rebuilding his store which was recently destroyed by fire.

Charles Westfall, of Camp Custer, came home to vote Tuesday.

C. H. Bennett has had a Delco lighting system installed at Buena Vista farm. This system not only furnishes lights for the house and outbuildings, but also furnishes power for the water supply in the house and barns.

Mr. and Mrs. Manna Blunk and son, Melvin, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lee of Livonia Center Sunday.

Two interesting letters were received by the C. E. Ryders of Newburg from their son, Donald, who is in France. One was written aboard ship and the other from St. Andre De Cuboc, France.

Winter prices on many species of frozen fish have been set at the processor level by OPA. This action may mean an increase of about 10 to 15 percent in retail frozen fish prices, but it is expected to result in greater supplies of this product.

Telephone Help Shortage Acute

Company Appeals for Women Workers

Plymouth has been listed by the Michigan Bell Telephone company as one of the numerous cities in this part of the state that is suffering severely from a shortage of "womanpower."

Telephone lines are overcrowded, but the phone company is finding it practically impossible to get sufficient help to take care of the calls.

The company offers various types of positions to women who are not already doing essential work — patriotic women who have not been to work outside the home. They are urged to become a part of an essential industry which provides clean, healthful pleasant surroundings in work that is not too demanding physically. New employees have the thrill of "earning while learning." And the work doesn't interfere with other patriotic activities such as work with the Red Cross and USO.

The telephone jobs include that of an operator, whose job takes on added thrills in wartime. The switchboard is a good place to develop a little more charm in one's voice, an important factor to all women. At some points, the company needs "service representatives," the company's business office contact with the customer, either by phone or by the customer's personal visit. The job develops qualities of patience, tact, understanding. In some exchanges, too, a demand exists for stenographers, typists, accountants, and other office workers.

A telephone job is good work, and war work, if you can get it and the telephone company needs the help of a lot of women from all walks of life these war time days.

RESTRICT DELIVERIES

Restrictions on all wholesale and retail deliveries ordered by the Office of Defense Transportation have gone into effect throughout the nation. The restrictions include—(1) No retail delivery of packages weighing five pounds or less or measuring 60 inches or less in length and 60 inches or less in width combined; (2) Limitations upon the frequency of retail and wholesale deliveries of certain commodities; (3) No Sunday retail deliveries except of ice, milk or cream. Common carriers may not be used to make retail or wholesale deliveries to circumvent the order.
