Rosedale Gardens Church Will Celebrate

Sunday Set Aside As Day For Observance Of Anniversary

Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church will mark the 15th milestone in its history Sunday, December 12 at two services to be held at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., at which the church will celebrate not only its anniversary, but also the first year of its financial independence and the end of its drive for a $30,000 building fund.

Rev. Thoburn T. Brumbaugh of Detroit, nationally known church leader and executive secretary of the Detroit Council of Churches will preach at the morning service, as will Rev. John B. Forsyth, the pastor. The evening service will bring back former pastors of the church, among whom Rev. William W. Townsend, now at the Grace Presbyterian Church in Detroit, will preach the sermon. He served the congregation during two summers early in its history. Rev. John H. Snook, the first pastor will also be back to visit with charter members and to take part in the evening service. The choir, under leadership of Mrs. Lloyd Nelson, will sing at both services.

Gelston, minister of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church, member of the board, will bring greetings from the Presbytery.

Rev. Forsyth, the present minister, came in 1937 when the church membership was 70, and is the first to give full time to the church. Growth has been steady, until now membership stands at 231, with a Sunday School enrollment of 215. The building fund drive, under chairmanship of Harry Burton will be ended by Sunday at which time results will be announced.

Goodfellows Ready For Sale

Workers Plan For Troubled Years Ahead

Saturday, December 18—that's the one important date of the year that members of the Plymouth Goodfellows organization have with the residents of Plymouth and vicinity.

It's the date when these busy workers take time off from their regular jobs to sell newspapers, so that the unfortunate people in this vicinity will not be overlooked when old Santa comes to town.

Chairman James Latture explains that because of the unusual conditions prevailing at the present time, there will not be such a great demand for relief during the present winter.

"But we know what lies ahead, and we believe in preparing for the future. Every penny we make this year in excess of what our actual needs will be, will be saved for the days to come when we know that there will be a demand for food, clothing and medical supplies on the part of large numbers of people. We hate to think of it, but the day of destitution is surely coming for large numbers, and that is what we are preparing for right now," stated Chairman Latture.

So when the Goodfellows of Plymouth next week Saturday had you and ask you to buy a newspaper, remember that the dollars you invest in that newspaper will either this winter, or some future winter, provide relief and comfort for some boy or girl, or man and woman unable to help themselves.

Poem Written By H. Herman Schryer

The excellent poem that appeared on the soldier's page last week was written by H. Herman Schryer. The name was unfortunately omitted from the article.

"That Guy Named Ford Came To See You" Said The Maid

Charles H. Bennett
First person in world to buy stock in Ford Motor Co.

The great, near great and the lowly all look alike to some people, there isn't much question about that.

It has just become known that during the recent illness of Charles H. Bennett, president of the Daisy Manufacturing company, he felt considerably improved one afternoon and his attending physician said to him that it would be perfectly alright if he went out for a brief walk.

During the time that he was away from his home, an automobile was driven up in front of the Bennett residence.

The driver got out, walked up to the front door and rang the bell.

The good woman that Mr. Bennett had employed to assist in the housework during his illness, answered the call to the door.

The courteous inquirer wanted to know if Mr. Bennett was at home.

He was advised that Mr. Bennett was out. The caller then requested the lady to advise Mr. Bennett of the name of his caller. It was not long before Mr. Bennett returned home.

"That guy named Ford was here to see you when you was out, Mr. Bennett," said the courteous lady of the house to Mr. Bennett when he returned.

"That guy named Ford" was none other than Mr. Henry Ford, founder and president of the Ford Motor company. Mr. Ford and Mr. Bennett have been friends for more than half a century. The well known Plymouth air gun manufacturer was the first man in America to sign up to buy stock in the Ford Motor company when as a youngster Henry Ford was trying to organize his automobile manufacturing concern.

Mr. Bennett has always had a very high regard for Mr. Ford, even risking a fairly substantial portion of his own possessions with Mr. Ford back in the days when most people thought the "gasless" buggy was nothing more than a wild dream.

Change Rules For Purchasing Liquor Effective Monday

Instructions received from the Liquor Commission are to the effect that beginning Monday, December 13, purchase slips will be used by individuals, instead of the present form.

Individual card holders are to fill out these slips, designating the code number of liquor desired, brand name, number of bottle and his Permit Card serial number. The slip must then be signed by the individual before purchase can be made.

Selections and code number must be made from a list of available brands, posted in the liquor store.

All Permit Card holders must apply in person when they desire to make a purchase.

Number 4 and the letter C on Permit Card extends through December 31.

All sales must be made in the liquor store only. None at the hotel desk.

Because of the help shortage, no sales will be made after 6:30 p. m.

Starts Taxi Service In Northville

Northville now has a taxicab service. Elmer Austin, who operates the Plymouth taxicab service, stated yesterday that he had secured proper authority from the village officials of Northville and other governmental agencies to give to the nearby community a similar service to that enjoyed in Plymouth. He has placed two machines in service in Northville and plans to give Northville the badly needed local transportation it has needed for many months.

"Squander Bug" Gets Real Wallop In This City

New Woman's War Bond Committee Puts Him To Sleep

How the "Squander Bug" is squawking! Plymouth's newly organized Woman's War Bond Committee under the direction of Mrs. Walter Kellogg Sumner, has snatched $7,733.40 right out of its clutches and converted the cash into war bonds and stamps!

That's right, nearly $8,000 of Christmas spending money converted into war bonds and stamps right at a time when the "Squander Bug" was turning heaven and earth to get every cent of it!

It is nearly $8,000 that right now is on its way to buy Christmas food for our millions of fighting lads in all parts of the world—to buy not only good, substantial food, but bullets and bayonets so they can fight their way back home to peace and security—so they can come home and enjoy Christmas in the days to come as they did in the days gone by.

"Most of the work was done by telephone," stated Mrs. Sumner. "And every member of our committee stated that it was a delight to call the homes of this vicinity. There was not a single rebuff and every one was so courteous and anxious to help. We have never taken part in any campaign where the cooperation was so extensive and so pleasant."

The members of the committee that licked the Squander Bug in Plymouth is composed of Mrs. O. M. Valliquette, Mrs. A. Lincoln Lantz, Mrs. Dow J. Swope, Mrs. Vaughn H. Smith, Mrs. Earl Russell, Mrs. Kermit Smith, Mrs. Walter Hagins, Mrs. John H. Blossom, Mrs. Lloyd Gates and the chairman, Mrs. Sumner.

Wins Vacation By Bond Sales

Jerry Nelson Puts Company "Over Top"

Down at the Great Lakes Training Station near Chicago a big war bond rally was held on December 7, the anniversary of the Jap sneak attack on Pearl Harbor.

All the boys were told that the company buying the most bonds would be given an extra three days at furlough time.

Needless to say what the results of this "vacation" offer was. Jerry Nelson of Company 1636, son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Nelson of Starkweather avenue, wanted to come home to Plymouth with a few extra days to spare. So Jerry went to work.

The first thing he did was to put in a long distance telephone call to his home in Plymouth.

"Mom, send me $506.25 right away. Don't wait. I've got to have it. If I get it maybe I'll be able to be home for Christmas," he rattled away over the phone.

Soon the money was on its way to the Great Lakes. Now word comes from Jerry that his bond purchase was the largest made by any boy at the camp and that because it won for his company, too, the high place in the campaign, he won for all of his associates in the company an extra three days furlough for Christmas. The Plymouth lad is quite the hero around Company 1636 headquarters these days.

Editor Averill Rotary Speaker

Stresses Ideals Of Rotary Organization

"If we think more in terms of service and less in terms of self, we become more effective not only in our personal lives but also in our business and professional lives," asserted Editor George Averill, of the Birmingham Eccentric in a talk to members of the Plymouth Rotary club last Friday noon.

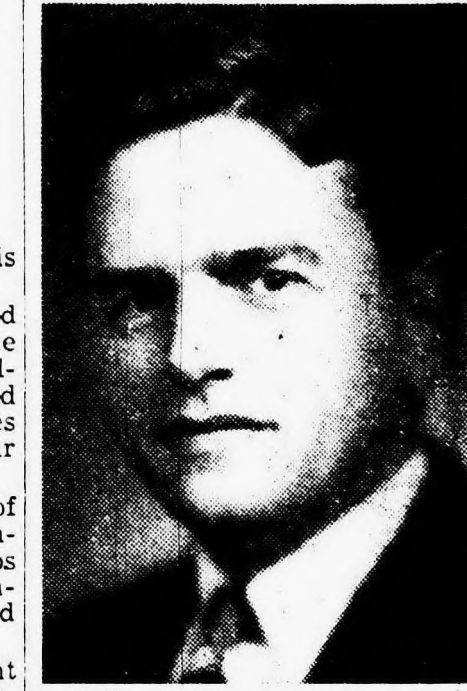

The well known Birmingham editor, a former district governor of Rotary and long active in Rotary club affairs, stressed strongly strict adherence to professional and business ethics, especially as it pertains to the relationship between employer and employee.

"In these times it is highly essential that civilians perform the many little acts that may be beyond the call of duty, if our war effort is to be successful," he declared.

He urged strongly that Rotarians take an active and wholehearted interest in community, church and school affairs.

"Only in this way can we as Rotarians put our communities in positions to do our part in reshaping the world," he asserted.

Prepares Exhibit Of Rare Bibles For Display On Sunday

Rev. Edgar Hoeneke
His special services Sunday will be featured by an interesting exhibit of rare old Bibles to be displayed at St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church.

Rare Old Bibles To Be Displayed

Rev. Hoeneke Plans Unusual Service

Sunday is universal Bible day throughout the world. The event will be emphasized in a most emphatic way at St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church in Plymouth.

Rev. Edgar Hoeneke plans a display of numerous Bibles of rare historic value, some of them printed centuries ago, for members of his congregation to see when they visit the church Sunday morning and evening.

The day is to commemorate the great work of translating the Bible into the 2000 and more languages and dialects of the world. Especially during the present century the American Bible Society has done remarkable work in this respect. The Bible has been rendered into more than 1,100 tongues. It is still easily the best seller on the world's book markets. The English Bible of the well-known King James version of 1611 has the greatest circulation.

The celebration at St. Peter's Lutheran will also feature a sermon on the subject and the reading of the 23rd Psalm in five different languages. Four of these were the only ones available to the common people, before the 1611 version of King James was completed. The Psalm will be read in the original, old Hebrew; the Greek version of the Septuagint from about 250 B. C.; the Latin edition called the Vulgate, made by Jerome in the 4th century; the German translation by Martin Luther, made in 1520; and the English translation of the King James version of 1611.

The Bible display will be prepared by the Girls' Club and Boys' Club of the church. Among the unusual editions to be displayed will be a Latin edition of the Bible, portions, printed in 1573, the Old Testament in the original Hebrew, and the New Testament in the original Greek, an edition of the New Testament in beautiful, hand-made illumination, printed purposely for the Emperor of Germany and many others. Anyone wishing to display an old or unusual edition is asked to get in touch with Miss Margaret Swanson or Robert Elliott. The books are to be displayed in a glass case, and all exhibitors are assured that their books will be most carefully handled by the committee and returned in good condition.

A tiny copy of the Bible is now included in the equipment of every life raft by our government, sealed in a water-tight envelope. Copies of the New Testament and Psalms are supplied by St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church to any boy or girl leaving this community for government service.

The service begins at 10:30 a. m. Everyone is invited and welcome.

More Volunteers Are Needed For Red Cross Sewing Rooms

The Plymouth Branch of the American Red Cross faces the possibility of falling short of its quota of sewed articles unless more women volunteer their time to the organization. A shortage of sewing machines has made the situation more critical. Many women who have been called upon to devote some of their time to sewing garments have stated that they won't have time until after the holidays — OUR BOYS overseas can't wait 'till after Christmas before they begin action!

The Red Cross sewing rooms are open Monday through Friday from one to four p. m. in the Presbyterian church.

Dairy Farmer Makes Less Than Dollar A Day

B. A. Hodge Gives Producers' Side In Milk Issues

Are dairy farmers getting a square deal? That's the question many are asking.

B. A. Hodge, well known dairyman living on the Eight Mile road east of Northville, has prepared the answer to this question for The Plymouth Mail. He says:

"Mr. C. F. Burger, spokesman for the creameries, claims that the farmer got 51.76% of the consumers money paid for milk, but he failed to state that from the $3.32 per hundred base price there was .33c or more deducted for dues, freight, hauling, etc., so the check received by the farmer was less than $3.00 per 100."

"The milk truck drivers got 30.24% or $1.94 per 100, plus the 30c or more haulage charges to the city which leaves the farmer 41% of the customer's dollar instead of 51%."

"Now for the farmer's costs: We will pass over the little matter of an investment of about $1,000.00 per cow in land, buildings, equipment, etc., and consider the feed alone, based on a 1,000 pound cow and the minimum requirement as given in experimental station findings.

"The feed required for such a cow to maintain her body functions must contain 7 pound Protein, 7 pound carbohydrates and .1 pound fat and to produce each 1 pound of 3.5% milk, will require .49 pound protein, .22 pound carbohydrates and .019 pound fat and cows giving richer milk will require slightly more but must be provided in about the above proportion to give the most economical results."

"The maintenance requirement is about 1 pound protein to 10 pounds carbohydrates while the milk production requires 1 pound protein to 5.4 pound carbohydrates.

"So as milk production increases the protein content must be increased and to do this high priced milk feeds must be purchased.

"The cow will eat from 20 to 25 pound roughage per day which will maintain her body and allow for about 11.50 pound milk and will require 1 pound of grain for each 2 or 3 pound milk in addition."

"Prof. Haacker used 2 pounds roughage for each 100 pounds live weight and adds 1 pound concentrates for each 2 or 3 pounds of milk.

Van Pelt's cheapest ration is 40 pounds silage and 15 pounds alfalfa hay for from 15 to 20 pounds milk higher producers to get grain mixture to provide the extra nutrients required.

"From all this scientific data what do we find? That under the most perfect conditions, the best cows, the most perfectly balanced rations the experts can not get as many pounds of milk as the cows require feed and at present prices that under these conditions, milk costs a considerable more than $1.60 per hundred.

"Now for the dairyman's actual results he has few cows that can produce as well as those above a few more strippers that will produce much less and some dry cows that produce nothing; all must be fed the maintenance ration and as he cannot balance the ration of each cow as the experts do, he overfeeds protein to one cow and it is wasted, he overfeeds carbohydrates to another and she puts the excess on her back as fat, so his cost as compared with the above data.

"I have talked to three neighbors that have from 22 to 28 cows; none of them get 20 pounds a day from each cow, one feeds 240 pounds grain for a little over 400 pounds milk, all admitted feeding more pounds of roughage than they got milk, all fed brewers grains. Silage and ground grain. Each one feeds more than 25 cents worth of roughage per cow per day and gets less than 2 pounds of milk per pound of grain so they are spending 25 cents for hay and about 30 cents for grain to get 20 pounds milk or 50c for feed to get 60 cents for milk or 5 cents per cow per day.

"How many C.I.O.'s would milk 20 cows for $1.00 a day and the manure pile?"

"The country haulers get 30 cents per 100 for hauling to the city."

"The city milk truck drivers get $50.00-$70.00 per week or $1.94 per 100 and the dealers, 18% or $1.24 per 100."

"The farmer gets less than $3.00 and spends $2.50 to $2.75 for feed."

"The average shipper sends about 200 pounds per day and cannot hope to get $1.00 per 100 for his labor and investment."

"The grower gets 92 cents per 100 for handling it over the counter."

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Lantz will be guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Robinson of Royal Oak.

City Votes Monday On Gas Franchise

Voters Asked To Confirm Action Of City Commission

Plymouth voters, under both state and city laws, will be required to approve the action of the city commission at a special election in this city Monday in continuing the franchise of the Consumers Power company permitting that company to provide gas for domestic and industrial use in this city.

The franchise, which has been passed upon by the city commission after months of consideration, state city officials, fully protects the interests of the community and provides methods for such changes as might be necessary during its life.

The polls will open Monday morning at 7 o'clock and remain open until 8 o'clock in the evening, and it is urged that voters show their interest in civic affairs by going to the polls and voting Monday. Eastern War, fast time, hours will prevail as usual.

The relationship between the city of Plymouth and the Consumers Power company since this company has taken over the gas business of Plymouth has been most satisfactory, it is pointed out by city officials, and it is for this reason that a large vote on the franchise is requested Monday.

Eugene Spencer, a graduate of the Plymouth high school about the year 1910 and a cousin of Spencer Heeneey of Farmington, who is remembered by many of the older residents of this city, was one of the former Jap prisoners who returned to America last week on the steamer Gripsholm. He had served as a missionary in China for many years before being taken a prisoner by the Japs. He has two brothers, Leo and James, the latter being a teacher in Detroit.

Swamp Churches With Clothing For War Victims

Truck Loads Will Soon Be On Way To War Torn Countries

"He's got a heart as big as an ox" is an old expression used pertaining to one of an outstanding charitable nature.

The world can apply that expression to all the city of Plymouth today—for good people of this city have in more ways than one made it manifest that each and every person has a "heart as big as that of an ox."

When the call went forth last week for mothers and fathers to bring their discarded clothing to church last Sunday morning, seemingly every attic and closet in the city was searched for wearing apparel that could be used for the war sufferers of other nations.

Sunday morning most pastors were both amazed and delighted when the worshippers brought great bundles of clothing to church and deposited them in the vestibules of the numerous houses of worship. Pastors even found the front porches of their parsonages piled with contributions to the war sufferers.

Little school boys and girls did their part, too. Those that didn't take old clothing to Sunday school, carried it to their public schools Monday morning. In fact several bundles have been received in the last few days. Rev. Henry J. Welch stated yesterday that it would probably be necessary for another big truck to come out from Detroit next Monday to take in the additional contributions.

In a few brief weeks these discarded suits and dresses cleaned and repaired, will be covering the shivering backs of the emaciated victims of Hitler's brutality in the conquered nations of Europe that have been retaken from the enemy.

No Christmas Decorations

Streets Look Bleak In Companion To Past

This Christmas holiday period is going to look different than any other Christmas in Plymouth for many years.

There are no street decorations, no Christmas lights burning—few Christmas decorations in any of the windows.

Plymouth merchants have done a bit of decorating within their stores. A Christmas touch here and there has been added to the window decorations. But outside of what the merchants have done there is little to indicate that this is the Christmas season.

It is just as well—with so many hundreds of our boys away from home—many of them on the first time. When they come back—then's when we will do the decorating!

Trailer Preacher To Visit Plymouth

Miss Mary Murray, Baptist trailer camp missionary, in Wayne county, will be the guest speaker at the annual evening meeting of the Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, December 16. Miss Murray, recently featured in a Detroit newspaper rotravure section, has a trailer camp, a complete church of wheels with which she does her work. Though most of her work is among children, she also sponsors many church services at which local pastors assist her in the work. Miss Murray will speak at the First Baptist church December 16, beginning at 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

What Would You Do In This Case? Goodfellows Would Like Your Answer

What would you do? This is a question, seriously asked, and a serious answer is wanted.

Here is the problem: The Plymouth Goodfellows run into all types of problems, but here is one which confuses even those with long experience.

There is one family in Plymouth, which every Christ has or a number of years (and even occasionally during the entire year) has been a regular recipient of the goodfellowship of the organization.

There are several children in the family. Frequently, their clothes have not been adequate. On cold days, they needed warm clothes. Without the Goodfellows there would have been no toys—not even a good Christmas dinner.

Now, during the war boom, the father is working. He is earning good money, but most of it—at least a good big portion of the money—is going for booze.

Thus far at least, the children have shoes and adequate, though not desirable, clothes.

But the family has submitted its name for Christmas gifts. It is readily admitted that if the Goodfellows do not respond, the children will get nothing. In other words, the modern Scrooge, has no spirit of Christmas in his heart.

What would you do? Would you say to the father, you buy the gifts, when you know he won't?

Those are serious questions, and a serious answer is asked. The Goodfellows want to know.

Discuss Plans For Improvement

Would Beautify Depot Surroundings

A committee composed of T. Glenn Phillips, A. C. Dunn and City Manager Clarence Elliott was appointed by the city planning commission to meet with officials of the Pere Marquette railway to discuss the beautification and facility improvements of the station, located between Starkweather and Mill streets.

The city already has obtained possession of the lot across the tracks from the station, which will be constructed into a parking lot for the convenience of railroad users.

The railway company in a letter to the planning commission indicated its willingness to do anything for the beautification of the station within the limits set by the war emergency.

Included in the plans for the improvement of the railway center is the pavement of Division street, which runs between Starkweather and Mill streets behind the station.

Here Is Deer Story That's A Dear Story

Here is the deer story to end deer stories for this year: One local woman called up a friend whose husband had gone hunting (no names mentioned because of OPA) and the local woman said:

"Did your husband get a deer?"

"No," the other woman replied, "but he brought back two suits of underwear for my little girl."

An enema syringe should be carefully cleaned after use if the possibility of carrying an infection into the bowels is to be avoided. Wash syringe with soap and water; boil for five minutes; rinse in cold water, drain dry and wrap in clean cloth. 1t-c

Painting Metal

When applying protective coatings to iron and steel, all rivets and rough edges should be coated evenly and completely. A sensible practice is to brush the paint in the direction of the rivets and rough edges, rather than away from them to insure filling all cracks or small holes in the metal. Prior to painting, the metal should be thoroughly cleaned to make sure that it is free from dirt and grease, salt or other chemical deposits. 1t-c

Freezing Berries

If you own a home freezer or rent locker space, freeze strawberries for winter's use. After the berries are hulled and washed, they may be packed whole or chopped. Chopped fruit usually retains a better flavor than the whole berries. Use four pounds of fruit to one pound of sugar. Stir sugar and fruit together until the fruit is coated with dissolved sugar and fruit juice. Pack in container made for frozen foods. 1t-c

Suitable Flying Diet

For passengers and crew alike, foods to be taken before and during flight should be carefully selected in order to obviate dizziness, headache, mental sluggishness, airsickness. Desirable are high-calorie diets, rich in carbohydrates, since the chief need of the body while aloft is to maintain its heat and energy. 1t-c

Cultivate Diagonally

First cultivation of corn, soybeans and other row crops may be diagonally across the rows, with a weeder, spike-tooth harrow or rotary hoe. If the work is done after the sun has been out for some hours in the morning and the plants are no longer crisp, little damage will be done to the crop. 1t-c

Protect Edges of Screens

The edges of window screens, which do not show when the screen is in place, are sometimes left unpainted, with resultant rotting or warping. This may turn out to be a costly error. The edges of the screen should be kept thoroughly painted or varnished. 1t-c

Sterilizing Infected Rooms

Following recovery of a patient from infectious disease, refinishing the interior of the sick room with a fresh coating of paint, varnish or enamel is a simple and effective way of guarding against danger to visitors or future occupants from germs. 1t-c

Best Preventives

Remember dust and sprays serve best as preventives of further trouble and should be applied at first evidence. Avoid poison sprays on leafy crops to be eaten soon; use rotenone or pyrethrum which are not poisonous to humans. 1t-c

Packed House Hears Christmas Concert

A packed auditorium heard the Christmas concert presented by the music department of the high school, Wednesday evening. The precision and expression of the singing was worth that of a trained adult chorus. The program was varied, including all the old favorites and consisted of hymns and carols as well as some modern numbers. Robert Bingley acted as announcer. The lighting and the back drop added effectively to the program. Malcolm MacGregor played "Liebestraum" as a piano solo. For the last number, "Silent Night," the Girls' Double Quartet went to the second floor and acted as an echo to the choruses. 1t-c

Of the 150,000 war inventions submitted to the National Inventors' Council since 1940, about 50 have been adopted and are in production, while more than a thousand others are being tested. Odds and Ends

Envy has no holidays.—Francis Bacon. We favor things that begin on time; we'd favor our execution taking place on time. The best things in life are not free—you pay for them on the "easy payment" plan. The calmest husbands make the stormiest wives.—Thomas Dekker. You can have banana fritters and I'll take another slice of fresh home made bread and butter. All good-looking girls under twenty look alike and all well-groomed women over fifty look alike. Even though you are home safe in bed, you feel wicked if you listen by radio to some orchestras and vocalists at one a.m.—what they play and how they sing, whew! Letters containing Mussolini's autograph, once valued at $50 apiece, cannot be sold today for $5. When you need cash, a block of War Bonds will be a real life saver. That which thy fathers have bequeathed to thee, earn it anew if thou wouldst possess it.—Goethe. Married couples who enjoy each other's company without too much conversation seem to get along amazingly well. Which counts most—a pretty face, a shapely figure or a warm response? They seldom all come in the same package. 1t-c

"Now I Know How to Buy Children's Shoes!"

No more guesswork for me. When you follow the same easy rules, the shoes you buy for your boys and girls will give them a firm foundation for lasting fit and foot comfort.

HERE ARE 3 SIMPLE RULES

1. Never judge children's shoes by outward appearance alone. It's the hidden materials and inner construction that determine whether shoes keep their shape.
2. Insist on Built-in Fit. Sturdy inside construction protects growing feet, keeps pliable growing foot bones straight—make shoes wear longer.
3. Buy a Brand you can trust... like Poll-Parrot and know you're getting honest craftsmanship and rugged materials, inside and out.

WAR BONDS in action

Over the top in Italy! One more ridge, one more mile on the road to Berlin. As in victorious military campaigns, people on the home front must sacrifice to provide all the sinews of war. One of these is the regular purchase of War Bonds.

Linseed and soybean oils used in protective coatings and printing inks have been given superior drying and bonding properties through wartime chemical research in the paint and printing ink industries.

Rat Bait Almost everything edible has been used as a bait for rats, but foods from the following groups have proved satisfactory: cereals, meat or fish, milk products, fresh fruits and vegetables.

Control Potato Blight To control late blight of potatoes, the plants must be protected with a covering of Bordeaux spray or copper-lime dust from the time they are four to six inches tall until maturity.

Cultivate Raspberries Raspberry plants should be kept cultivated to a narrow row one foot or less in width, for ease in picking, for production of larger berries, and for effective control of diseases.

Old Boxes Save Metal Salvage and reuse one quarter of the 18 million wire-bound citrus boxes used each year would save for other war uses 2 1/2 million pounds of metal.

Mock Canned Grapefruit In Britain's "austerity" food program a recipe is offered for making "Mock Canned Grapefruit" out of squash.

Paper Hangers Save Metal Paper clothes hangers have saved nearly 1 1/2 million pounds of metal, which would have gone into metal hangers.

B Team Victors 25-21

Hugh Harsha was high scorer for the Rocks with nine points in the game played at Plymouth Tuesday evening; Duck Olds was second with eight points, and Carpenter of Melvindale third with six points.

The first half of the game was very slow for the local boys, high lighted only by Melvindale's speed and shooting. Tom Robertson showed outstanding floor play and abilities of light fingeredness in stealing the ball throughout the game. Harsha scored five points in the first half with Evans and Carpenter of Melvindale with four points each. The half ended with the score at 8-17 in favor of the Cards.

In the last half the locals seemed to have the "Plymouth Pepper" and forged ahead to tie the score by the end of the third quarter and stand as winners when the game ended.

"Duck" Olds was high scorer for the last half with six points. Harsha with four, and Robertson with three; the latter also showed some more plain and fancy ball handling.

The Melvindale Cards scored only four points in the last half. The final score was 25-21 in favor of the Rocks in their first game of the season.

Varsity Drops First Game 32-28

Plymouth took possession of the ball as the game started, dropped the first point and then rambled on until the score mounted to 17-13 at the end of the first half. High scorers in the first half were Bennett, Newton, and Walane, all with six points. It is odd to note that Melvindale played the complete game rotating two players in each position.

The Melvindale boys gradually slipped up behind Plymouth and tied the score at 22-22 near the end of the fourth quarter; then the Rocks dropped a free shot, going ahead 23-22; then Melvindale plumped a sinker to end the third quarter ahead 23-24.

As the last half opened, Meahin made a field goal, leaving the score 23-26; then Rienas sneaked a field goal making the score 25-26, and Newton made another free shot to tie the score. Short, Wise, and Walane disliking close scores, fired three field goals in less than a minute. Bennett, not to be outdone, fired a field goal himself, making the final score 28-32 with Melvindale the victors.

Some interesting facts about the game are that it could be said, Melvindale won the game in the last five minutes when the Rocks threw some bad passes.

Real 'Devil Dogs' on Bougainville

The words "Devil Dogs" have been a nickname for marines for many years. Today real dogs are performing combat tasks for the marines. Men and dogs are pictured on Bougainville hot on the trail of the enemy. Doberman men have been extensively used on this island to smell out hidden Japs, to carry messages, and occasionally in first aid work during battles.

Garden Sanitation Garden sanitation requires both the protection of plants from diseases and insect pests, and the prompt removal of diseased plants. When a squash, cucumber, or melon vine collapses with wilt, don't ever walk near it until you're ready to remove it from the garden. Don't gather beans pockmarked with rust and then go on to handle clean vines. Examine undersides of leaves frequently for young Colorado potato beetles, Mexican bean beetles, and striped and spotted cucumber beetles.

Cut Plants When Purple Cut eggplant fruits when purple, not brown, and take with each one the large firm cap. Branches on tomatoes formed too late to ripen fruits before frost should be nipped from the older branches when so small this can be done with the thumb nail. Squash and gourds formed too late to ripen are useless; nip the ends of the branches after five or six fruits have set on each vine.

Pressure Saucepan Cooking in a pressure saucepan is especially satisfactory for the saving of food values and also for palatability. This is a good method for many vegetables, including green ones, except asparagus, but is not so satisfactory for strong-jucled vegetables, namely broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cabbage, calliflower and onions.

Don't Crowd Pillows In storing extra pillows do not crowd them into a small container or bundle because the arch of the feathers which keeps the pillow fluffy will be broken. Pillows should be wrapped and sealed to protect them from moths, then loosely packed in a cool, airy place.

Control Clover Height Wild-white-clover pastures should not exceed a height of four inches at any time during the growing season. Ladino-clover or alfalfa pastures, or those made up largely of grasses may be permitted to make somewhat higher growth before being grazed.

Improves Visibility White paint used on the floors of factories in which bombers are constructed reflects light and aids workmen by giving them improved visibility on the underside of the fuselage and wings of the planes.

"Silent Night" The battle is over. The bomb-shattered village is deserted, lifeless. And the silence that greets our invading men is deathly. It's the kind of grim stillness many of them will know on Christmas Eve this year. Not like the warm, beautiful "Silent Night" we know. Not like the peace in our homes the night before Christmas. But the only way we can have some peace in our hearts is to know that we're helping bring our men back. Actually helping by buying all the War Bonds we possibly can. And by giving all the War Bonds we possibly can. For no other gift could mean so much this year... no other gift could do so much good. In War Bonds, lies the spirit of Christmas. FOR PEACE ON EARTH BUY WAR BONDS ELTON R. EATON, Chairman Plymouth War Bond Committee. This advertisement prepared under the auspices of the U. S. Treasury Department and the War Advertising Council. Babson Terms Subsidy a "Dope"—It Might Help For Short Time, But Famed Economist Declares It Is Of No Value As Permanent Cure

Washington, D. C., December 10—So many inquiries come to me asking for an explanation of "subsidies" that I am in Washington getting the story. Frankly, there are two sides to the problem and I am convinced that the leaders on both sides are honest. If you believe in "paying-as-you-go" and letting nature take its course, then you will oppose subsidies; but if you believe in borrowing and postponing the day of settlement, then you will favor subsidies. To be specific, the farmers are opposing subsidies; but labor is urging subsidies.

price rises which are due to a permanent increased demand or shortage of supply. If the producers of wheat are not making enough money, they will stop raising wheat. There are two ways to prevent this. One is to let the price of wheat go up so that production will again increase; the other is for the government to "appease" the farmers by giving them a small bonus or subsidy for raising wheat. (A few years ago we gave them a bonus for not raising wheat!) In a way, the subsidy plan seems fair because then the extra cost would be distributed all over the country through taxation and not fixed upon the farmers alone. When the Law of Supply and Demand is permitted freely to work—as it must be in the long run—there is a considerable pyramiding of profits. For instance, when the farmer raises his price for wheat, the converters, wholesalers and retailers are not content to add the equivalent amount to the price of flour and bread but all increase their prices on a percentage basis. This could result in the price of bread increasing five cents when the farmer receives only one cent more for the wheat in the bread. Hence, the labor unions want subsidies. President Roosevelt and his advisors are having a terrible struggle to keep wages at their present level and this can be done only by keeping prices at their present level. The Administration is in an especially tough spot at the present time because next year is election year. It will be very difficult to hold both the farmer vote and the labor vote, to say nothing regarding the consumers' vote. Subsidies do not solve the problem; but they could postpone the solution until after the election!

25 Years Ago

News items of a quarter of a century ago taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail.

Ira Wilson has rented R. G. Samsen's house on Penniman avenue and will move his family here from their farm at Elm.

C. A. Fox is making some extensive improvements on his house on Main street which he and Mrs. Fox will occupy when it is ready.

F. A. Dibble is driving a handsome new Buick sedan.

Gale's store advertised oranges at five cents each and grapefruit, three for 25 cents.

Master Donald Bovee of Lapham's Corners was visiting his grandparents in Plymouth for a few days.

Wednesday evening, about twenty young people surprised Anthony Yuchas of Perrinsville, the occasion being his birthday. A very enjoyable time was reported by all.

The wedding of Alice Pankow and Walter Mielbeck was solemnized at St. Peter's Lutheran Church by Rev. Charles Strasen Saturday afternoon. The bride was attended by her sister, Lena, and E. Mielbeck, a nephew of the groom, was best man. The bride was beautifully attired in white and the bridesmaid wore a gown of pink. The couple will reside at Nankin mills.

Mrs. Ezra Rotnour pleasantly entertained several relatives at her home last Monday, the occasion being her birthday. A delicious dinner was served and the hostess was the recipient of several nice gifts.

A memorial service was held in the First Presbyterian church last Sunday afternoon in memory of Sergeant Myron H. Beals who died in the American Red Cross Hospital near Paris in July after having been severely wounded. Sgt. Beals was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beals of this village.

The total enrollment of the high school reached the even 250 mark last week.

Roy Eckles and wife of South Lyon entertained a large company of relatives from Plymouth for Thanksgiving.

M. and Mrs. Kincaid, who reside on Starkweather avenue, are the parents of a young daughter who arrived at their home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ryder and family of Newburg spent Thanksgiving at C. D. Paddock's in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Blunk entertained all the members of the Blunk and Bolgas families for Thanksgiving dinner, with approximately 25 guests present. There were about 75 present at the "shadow" social Friday evening, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Root of Freeport, and $28 was made for the Red Cross.

The transport of gasoline is so important that tank trucks have been cut in half, flown out of this country, and welded together again at their destination.

"No, this is not O'Tool's Garage!"

POOR LADY! This morning she got a call for Ben's Men's Haberdashery. And yesterday one for Larry's Bowling Alley. Judging from the piece of her mind she gave the last caller, her peace of mind is definitely disturbed. Unfortunately, mix-ups like these are bound to occur when people trust to memory in calling telephone numbers. Even more unfortunately, a wrong number means an extra call on the already overburdened telephone system to correct the mistake. You will get fewer wrong numbers—and every one will benefit—if you will follow these practices:

- 1 If you are not absolutely sure of a number, check it in your telephone directory.
- 2 If you compile and use your own telephone list, go over it once in a while and eliminate obsolete numbers... write in the correct ones.

This country now is much like a man who needs to have a surgical operation, but he has some very important affairs facing him and cannot now afford the time to go to the hospital. Therefore, the doctors give him a belt to wear and certain pills to take which will delay the necessity of an immediate operation. Moreover, once in awhile, during such a delay, nature cures the patient and the operation is not needed at all. Although believing in their hearts that the subsidy program will give only temporary aid, the President's advisors do know that there is one chance in ten of its giving permanent relief.

Subsidies are habit-forming. To start subsidies may be like a man starting to use a drug. A man believes he can quit it any time, but too many have been sadly disappointed. Subsidies are like certain drugs,—useful on occasions, maybe, but very dangerous. After subsidizing one product, producers of other products will try to get similar government aid; soon the country could be in an awful mess. As it is always easier to start a habit than to break it up, it will be much more difficult to cut off subsidies in years to come, than to start them at the present time.

A further evil of subsidies is that they are never paid for by current taxes, but by selling government bonds and dumping the cost on future generations. Naturally, this is a popular argument; but a very questionable one in the sight of God. Finally, this question of subsidies is closely connected with the possible length of the War. If we are in for a long War there is no use of bothering with subsidies. We had better let nature take its course and inflation gradually increase with a slow rise in both prices and wages. Both must go up together and, hence, in the end no group will be any better off.

On the other hand, if it is to be a short War, then subsidies can perform a real service even to the farmers by lessening the dangerous drop in farm prices which is sure to take place after the War. This is because subsidies will succeed in keeping down prices for a short time. (I will discuss the probable length of the War in my Annual Forecast which will be released on December thirtieth.) Probably—as the lesser of two evils—a subsidy on a very few universally used products may now be wise.

While the State Department has closed 53 of its foreign offices since Pearl Harbor, it still maintains 246 embassies, legations and consulates and 21 consular agencies, with 45 ambassadors and ministers and 4,000 officers and employees.

TIRE SHORTAGE Predicted For 1944

The curtain of false optimism is down. In all its bare nakedness is revealed the fact that there will be a shortage of many millions of tires in 1944. Production cannot hope to keep up with the demand of the armed forces and essential civilian driving. Meanwhile thousands of tire casings are being ruined by neglect or carelessness—casings which cannot be replaced, once they are worn beyond repair.

FORGET OPTIMISM—LOOK AT FACTS!
Too many automobile owners have lived in the land of dreams as regards to new tires which may be available in 1944. Don't be deluded as to what you might expect. Be guided by the major thought that the tires you now have must last you through 1944. They must be carefully nursed during the emergency—receive more careful attention than ever before—by tire experts who will tell you the plain facts—and know how to make your tires last.

THESE THINGS YOU MUST DO—
Drive carefully. Drive under 35 miles per hour. Don't slap on your brakes and cause skidding. Don't bump over curbs. At the first sign of damage to your tire, bring it to your tire expert for a careful examination and have the repair made immediately. When it is time for a recap, have it done then rather than to continue driving until the all-important rubber has worn through the fabric.

WE'LL DO OUR PART—IF YOU DO YOUR SHARE
We are anxious to keep you driving. Millions of men and women depend on automobiles to get them to work. Farmers and industries depend on tires. If you do your share in watching the tires you own we'll do our best to preserve them for you.

Spring

The meadows in the spring-time are green as they can be. The little birds are flying all among the trees.

The little flowers are dancing. They all seem to say, "Spring is here! Spring is here! Come our way."

Winter

Winter, winter. When the leaves are softly falling, I can hear the snowflakes falling softly. Lightly!

On the trees on the ground. Smothering and covering everything around. But that's the season I like best. Do you?

It is important that the baby or child learn to like the foods that his body needs. Forcing him to eat some special food very probably will be the means of developing an aversion to it. Give but one new food at a time. Start with a small amount, offered at the first of the meal while the baby is hungry. Do not start a new food when the child is emotionally upset, for he may unconsciously develop an unpleasant mental association.

Professional

Modern embalming is an exact science which requires professional training and years of practical experience—in addition to passing a license examination conducted by the State. It is the basis of modern funeral service, in addition to guarding public health by preventing the spread of disease. All of our skill is at the call of those we serve.

THE FORGOTTEN LIGHT

There it shines, a forgotten porch light burning all night long at someone's door. In normal times your porch light is a real convenience: It helps callers find your house number, it discourages prowlers, and it reduces accidents from falls on dark steps. The cost is only two or three cents a week—for electricity is cheap.

Today our country is at war... and that light burning needlessly is a serious matter, especially when it burns all night. It uses vital coal and manpower and transportation. And today our Government is asking for the most careful saving of these critical resources. It is asking you to save VOLUNTARILY.

Remember that electricity is a WAR MATERIAL, even though it is cheap and unrationed. There is no shortage of facilities for making electricity. But thousands of tons of coal per day are required for its manufacture in Edison power plants. Use it as carefully as you would rubber or gasoline or other critical resources. Power saved at home means more power for the fighting fronts. The Detroit Edison Company.

Wanted-Badly-Some Furniture

For The Service Men's Center

Ladies and gentlemen, you are about to be chiseled right out of some furniture—all for the benefit of the soldiers, sailors and marines.

The Service Men's Center, located over the Taylor and Blyton Penniman avenue store, is now ready for equipment.

A pool table has been obtained and installed. And there are a few chairs, but more are needed. Aavenport or two would be appreciated. A gas stove is an absolute necessity, and dishes and silverware and pots and pans are required.

Anyone having any of these materials from which they are willing to be chiseled, are requested to call Mrs. Ray Bachelder (484-R) during the day or Arno Thompson at the City Hall (93) at night. A truck will pick up whatever you have.

Police Arrest Car Strippers

Plymouth is not a healthy place for any one with "sticky" fingers to operate.

The police are too alert for these "smoothies" who go around trying to steal parts from automobiles and other articles they may find available.

The other night Patrolman Kenneth Fisher observed two or three young fellows driving their automobile in various parking lots.

As they started to come out of the lot next to the Ford garage, he stopped them and discovered a number of automobile parts in the back of the car.

Investigation showed that they had been stolen from the Bev Smith parking lot on Main street. The boys, residents outside the city of Plymouth, confessed, made restitution and are now paying the penalty, states Chief of Police Charles Thumme.

League Of Women Voters Meets

The regular meeting of the League of Women Voters will be held this afternoon, (Friday), from two to four o'clock at the home of Mrs. Harold Schryer on Penniman avenue. The program will feature a book review of Walter Lippman's book, "U. S. Foreign Policy" by Mrs. Frank Nair, Mrs. Miller Ross and Mrs. Clarence H. Elliott. Mrs. Horace Thatcher will review the Women's League News articles. The chairman and discussion leader for the day will be Mrs. Maurice Woodworth.

To Ask State For Land Titles

City Seeks More Playground Space

The city planning commission will recommend to the city commission that efforts be initiated to have the state transfer to the city a number of lots in the southern section of the city, which in the future may be used as playgrounds.

The lots are located facing Byron street, west of Harvey street at the extreme southern edge of Plymouth, and farther north some narrow lots on Carol street west of Harvey. Both can be used extensively for playground purposes.

Such lots which were given to the city by the state, cost the city nothing, and at the same time do not detract from the available revenue of the city.

In planning for the future, the planning commission is taking full cognizance of the anticipated increased demand for play facilities both for the younger children, and for the older youngsters and adults. Such lots within the city limits, would be used largely for play facilities for the little tots.

Believing the saying that "Music hath charm," the Woman's Club has secured Richard Edwards, minister of music at the Calvary Presbyterian church in Detroit, who will give an organ recital at the meeting December 17. Mr. Edwards is a noted organist and leader of the National Welsh Singing Festival.

Members are urged to bring visitors in observance of Guest Day.

Mrs. Henry Baker is the program chairman for the meeting. Hostesses will be Mrs. J. T. Chapman, Mrs. Frank Dunn, Mrs. Harold Finlan, Mrs. Earl Mastick, Mrs. Maxwell Moon, Mrs. John P. Root, Mrs. Ralph Taylor and Mrs. Charles J. Neal.

The meeting will be held at the Presbyterian church.

How many more days, Mummy?

"Tell me. How many more days before Daddy can come home?"

And mother doesn't know. So she answers the same way she's answered a hundred times...

"Not so many days... we hope. Daddy can't come home to us until the war is over. Until we win, you know."

Nobody can tell the thousands of bewildered little hearts when their Daddies will come home.

Nor the millions of other Americans when their husbands, or sons, or sweethearts will be back.

The tragic truth is that many of them will never see their loved ones again. Never.

But this we do know...

Every minute by which the war can be shortened means fewer lives lost—fewer white crosses on a lonely hillside.

Your job is to put every dollar you can possibly dig up into War Bonds. The fighting equipment bought by your dollars will hasten the day of Victory... the day when the boys come marching home.

Don't slacken your Bond purchases while victory is within our grasp! Never let it be said that while the attack grows stronger on the fighting fronts, we at home failed to back it to the very limit of our ability.

Dig down deeper. Buy extra War Bonds. Help shorten the war by those vital minutes—or days, or months—which mean American lives saved!

KEEP ON BACKING THE ATTACK!

Summer Welles on WORLD AFFAIRS

EVERY Wednesday in The News

Summer Welles, recently Under Secretary of State, writes a weekly article on international affairs on which he is perhaps better informed than any other American of his time.

Entering the diplomatic field shortly after he was out of Harvard, Mr. Welles was secretary of the Tokyo embassy. Thence he laid the foundations of the Good Neighbor policy at Buenos Aires. He served both Republican and Democratic administrations... helped stabilize Cuban affairs... traveled extensively in Europe... later was chosen to gather information in Europe's troubled capitals in 1940.

A precise man with an amazing grasp of detail, he has been characterized by Joseph E. Davies as having a "mind like a Swiss watch."

Don't fail to read these timely weekly reports which cast much information on today's events every Wednesday in The Detroit News.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Never knew that before, Judge... I would have sworn it was just the other way 'round."

"No, Arthur, the grain used in distilling war-alcohol is not wasted. In an efficient distillery up to 29% of it is reprocessed and is returned to farms like yours in the form of premium-quality livestock feed."

"Remember, this nourishing remainder is plumb full of protein, vitamins and carbohydrates and becomes a highly-prized feed concentrate."

"By developing new products from this processed grain, the modern distilling industry has taken a leading part in solving the vital shortage of cattle and poultry feed ingredients which are rich in vitamins B-1 and B-2, so essential to satisfactory growth and production."

"And what I have told you about the absence of grain waste in making war-alcohol, Arthur, also applies in the making of whiskey, although not a drop has been made in this country for over a year."

Maybe you're both too busy to have spent much time together lately—but Christmas is the time to revive every sentiment you've ever shared. How better can you please a man than with a gift of clothing that's comfortable and fits in with his life—his needs. A gift to buffet winds and cold while he's on the job—or at his battle station. A gift to soothe him with at-home comfort when the day is done. We have so many suggestions, you'll be chiding yourself for having worried about what to give him. Anything you give him from here will long warm his person and heart—and bring you closer together in spirit, if not in time and space!
