What I Think and Have a Right to Say
By ELTON R. EATON

Kick Them Both Out
Newspaper dispatches from Chicago state that Frank D. McKay, national committeeman from this state, has refused to resign his position as demanded by State Chairman John Dethmers. The demand was made because of the belief that McKay's resignation would be a help to Republicanism in this state and would remove the political stench that goes along with the mentioning of his name. The same dispatch says that Mrs. Dudley Hay, Michigan's national committeewoman, is all out for Wendell Willkie for the Republican nomination, a position she has not the slightest right to take in view of her position as committeewoman from this state. This is not the first time that Mrs. Hay has used her position for the benefit of some candidate she favored. It is up to the delegates from this state to decide how Michigan shall vote in the national convention. It is not the duty of political fixers to assume that responsibility. In view of the facts, Mrs. Hay's services to Republicanism of Michigan is no more acceptable than that of his committee companion, Frank McKay. Both should get out for the good of Republicanism in this state.

Government Advertising

A few weeks ago, we said something against government paid advertising. A prominent newspaper editor of Michigan took issue with our statement. He had a right to do so. The trouble was, that the editor of The Mail did not give our reasons for our statement. We are OPPOSED to any government advertising under the PRESENT administration in Washington. Why? Because if congress should appropriate money for that purpose, these dollars will find their way into a lot of political sheets that from an advertising standpoint are absolutely valueless. We know whereof we speak. Look at the administration's record in Wayne county in the way it has turned nearly all legal advertising under the control of the government into a lot of valueless political rags that have ever seen or know a thing about. If there was an administration in Washington that would see to it that a war bond advertising appropriation would find its way into legitimate publications, that would be a different story. When there is some semblance of political honesty having been restored in the administration of affairs in Washington, then we will say we favor government paid advertising in behalf of war bond sales. Until that time arrives, we will continue to DONATE and seek local sponsorship for war bond advertising.

Browder's Endorsement

When Frank Murphy was up for re-election as Governor of Michigan, Earl Browder, Communist party leader recently released from a federal prison by Presidential orders, made a public endorsement of Frank Murphy and urged his re-election. "Now Communist Browder urges the voters of the nation to cry out in clear and loud voices to force President Roosevelt to run again for the fourth term." If the nation reacts to Browder's endorsements as did Michigan, the election result is known well in advance of the ballot counting.

Where It's Nice And Warm

Editor Muri DeFoe of The Charlotte Republican-Tribune comments: "We see by the papers that Senator Ferguson has gone to Miami as a member of some investigation committee. One thing about these legislative committees they certainly know their climates." Ouch!

A New Farmer Hereabouts

We have a new farmer in our midst. Guess who? Some six or seven years ago the writer was a member of the house of representatives labor committee in Lansing. Appearing before the committee numerous times was the organizer and president of

Blunk-Thatcher Ad Featured Hero In India

Who Is Member Of Our Own Bob Martin's Outfit

No. Blunk & Thatcher do not sell any furniture or house furnishings over in India, but nevertheless their advertisements are being read in that part of the world. In fact, every advertisement in The Mail is being read by hundreds of thousands of people scattered over the continents and seas of the globe. From Robert Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Martin, who has been stationed in India for nearly two years with Uncle Sam's flying forces, came a letter the other day to his parents enclosing one of the series of patriotic advertisements being published by Blunk & Thatcher in which "Bob" advised his parents that the hero pictured in the Blunk & Thatcher advertisement published in The Mail on November 5 belonged to his outfit over in India.

"You can imagine my surprise when I opened The Mail and found a picture of one in my own outfit in the paper," wrote Bob.

The advertisements, published under the heading of "Victory's Sons", contained the following information about Nathan S. Goldstein, a soldier chum of Bob Martin:

"One of the bombers of the India air task force was miles high over a Jap target when Sgt. Goldstein heard over the inter-communication phone that three out of five of the 1,000-pound bombs could not be released. Instantly he left his gun position, attached an oxygen mask to a portable bottle and climbed out on the catwalk of the bomb bay. Then, with a screw driver, he proceeded to release the tripping mechanism of the bombs. "He was working in a tight spot and his mask became torn. He grew dizzy and his strength waned. With a last supreme effort he freed the bombs, saving the mission. Then he fell over unconscious. Had it not been for his heavy clothes, which wedged him against the racks, he would have fallen through the open doors. For gallantry in action Sgt. Goldstein was awarded the Silver Star."

When Driver's Licenses Can Be Secured

Because of the press of other duties, the Plymouth police department is curtailing the service of issuing driver's licenses.

Under the new plan, licenses will be issued from eight in the morning until seven at night on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, the licenses will be issued from eight in the morning until five in the evening.

Under no circumstances will driver's licenses be issued after those hours.

RED CROSS WORK ROOM AGAIN OPENS

Mrs. Harold Brisbois, chairman of Red Cross surgical dressings announces that material has arrived and the surgical dressing rooms will again open on Tuesday at Starkweather school and all workers are urged to return. Any one wishing to contribute their services may do so. The rooms will be open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

PTA TO FEATURE HEALTH PROGRAM

The Central Grades Parent Teacher Association is making its January meeting a "Health" program to acquaint citizens with today's problems. The meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Central Grades Auditorium. Dr. Brisbois is the speaker and his topic will be "A Cross Section of the Health of the Community."

BLOOD BANK MOBILE UNIT HERE FEB. 23

Plymouth Red Cross members were advised yesterday that the Red Cross mobile blood bank unit will be in Plymouth at the Masonic Temple, February 23 from 7:15 o'clock in the afternoon until 9:15. Register now with Mrs. H. R. Penhale, 252-W.

Soldier and Mrs. Sam Horowitz have been enjoying a few days furlough at the home of Mr. Horowitz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Horowitz, corner of Plymouth and Wayne roads. Sam, a member of Uncle Sam's armored infantry forces, has recently been transferred from Fort Benning to Camp Gordon, Georgia. Mrs. Horowitz, who has been with her husband most of the time, plans to leave for her home in Winnipeg.

Chairman Powell Makes Arrangements With City For Collection Service

Due to the vital shortage of waste paper plans have been completed for regular bi-weekly collections of paper by city trucks on every other Thursday afternoon. The first collection of paper will be on Thursday afternoon, January 20. The next will be on February 3.

The plans for this collection were worked out by City Manager Clarence Elliott in conjunction with Mrs. Esther Powell of the Salvage committee.

Under the plan, paper, magazines and boxboard should be placed at the curb every first and third Thursday mornings. Those persons who are unable to get their paper to the curb, should call Mrs. Powell, phone 50, and Scouts will be sent to carry out the paper.

Paper, magazines and boxboard should be tied securely in separate bundles, states Mrs. Powell.

Although no plan has been worked out to this time for collection of paper in the township, it was pointed out that paper can be dropped by township residents at the city hall, or at the curb in front of any house on Thursday morning.

The urgency of this matter cannot be too strenuously brought to the attention of every person. Already all uses of paper have been curtailed and there is a heavy shortage of shipping cartons in which to pack supplies for the troops.

Kiwanis Club Plans Minstrel Show On January 27 and 28

The Kiwanis club's presentation of "Minstrel Memories" will be held at the high school auditorium on the evenings of January 27 and 28 and rehearsals already are under way.

However, talent is still needed, and any one wishing to appear in the performance should contact any of the members of the club.

The show is under the direction of Earl Harrison, an old time minstrel comedian. Tickets already have gone on sale for the show at 75 cents, and may be obtained from any of the members of the club.

CHAIRMAN ISBEY HERE THIS NOON

Frank Isbey, chairman of the Michigan War Bond committee, who has placed this state in the forefront of the nation in war bond sales, will this Friday noon, address a joint meeting of Rotary and Kiwanis club members and guests at the Mayflower hotel. Mr. Isbey will give important war information and bond data at the meeting.

RED CROSS WORK ROOM AGAIN OPENS. Mrs. Harold Brisbois, chairman of Red Cross surgical dressings announces that material has arrived and the surgical dressing rooms will again open on Tuesday at Starkweather school and all workers are urged to return.

Roll Out Tin Cans Saturday! Time To Collect

City Trucks To Be Used For War Collection

Ladies and Gentlemen! Saturday is TIN CAN day in Plymouth.

Mrs. William Rambo, chairman of the tin can collection campaign, wants more tin cans "rattled" to the curbing. Saturday the CIO. He made a favorable impression upon the legislators that have been in any previous campaign.

They must be flattened out and ready to dump in the city trucks.

About the busiest of busy men in Plymouth these days are the city employees who operate the collection trucks.

They have more refuse to collect, more ashes to haul away, more street work to do than in any previous winter.

So you will help them by having your tin cans placed conveniently in containers so that all they have to do is stop their trucks just for a minute, get your cans and then the neighbors, and start them on the way to the munition factories.

Let's comply with the request of Mrs. Rambo and make Saturday's collection the biggest ever.

Coal Situation Improves A Bit

Several Cars Received Here

The coal situation was slightly improved in Plymouth this week with the arrival of three cars of coal at the Eckles Coal Co., and arrival of other cars at other dealers, but the situation is still serious.

Eckles reported that purchasers are still getting only a ton of coal at a time, one fourth of which must be slack.

There is only slight chance that Kentucky coal will be shipped in, but it is terribly dirty stuff to handle or burn, and dealers frankly admit that it is difficult to sell.

There are reports circulating that the Office of Price Administration will ration coal next winter, but there is little likelihood that rationing beyond what the dealers themselves are doing, will be instituted this year.

After all, it was pointed out that there is no reason for rationing of coal for no person will buy more than will satisfy needs.

War Workers Buy Riding Horses—Over 1000 Owned Here

If you see a horse cantering up and down the road, or another that is prancing to the touch of the riding whip and boot stirrup, don't get excited about it.

Probably the rider is a tired war worker who has bought a riding horse in order to gain some badly needed exercise.

Dr. E. B. Cavell, Jr., Plymouth veterinarian estimated there are more than 1000 horse owners in the area as compared with slightly less than 100 three years ago.

Inquiry shows that most of the new horse owners are war plant workers, especially those where both parents are working.

In some sub-divisions in this area, community stables have been erected by horse owners.

Some owners are quartering their horses in the garage, and letting their automobiles stand outside.

The average horse in this area is valued at about $200, according to expert authority. An additional $100 is needed for an adequate saddle and bridle.

Dr. Cavell estimated that it costs about two dollars a week to maintain a horse with food and medical care when it is needed.

In addition to the private horse owners, there are about a dozen public stables, where horses are rented, and best reports indicate it is a lucrative business, with horses renting for as high as $1.50 to $2 an hour. Most prices, however, are $1 an hour.

Arthur Sinclair To Entertain Club Members

Husband's Night will be observed by members of the Plymouth Women's club when they meet Friday evening, January 21 at 8 o'clock at the Episcopal church. Speaker for the occasion will be Arthur Sinclair of Detroit, chalk talk artist, who has appeared here before and made a favorable impression.

It will also be guest night and a sum of 25 cents will be asked for each guest. Reservations should be made by Monday the 17th to the committee chairman or to Mrs. Robert Willoughby.

Hostesses for the day are Mesdames Maurice Woodworth, Edw. Ayers, Otto Beyer, Ada Murray, Chas. Humphries, Milton Liable, John Dalton and Miller Ross.

Pioneer Resident Of Newburg Dead

Mrs. Emma Ryder For nearly half a century The Mail correspondent at Newburg.

Readers of The Plymouth Mail during the past half century have read with interest the news items appearing weekly from the nearby community of Newburg. Yes, Newburg news will be published again but the writer of these items for almost 50 years, will never again write them.

Not only are the people of Newburg mourning the passing of Mrs. Emma E. Ryder, pioneer resident of the Newburg section, but the hundreds of readers of The Plymouth Mail also regret her passing.

She was born in Danville, Michigan, December 7, 1862, when her father, Alfred Fay, was serving with the Union army in the south. Mrs. Ryder was a direct descendant on her mother's side of the family of General Greene of Revolutionary war fame.

She was only 16 years old when the family moved to Newburg, where she met Charles E. Ryder to whom she was married on January 9, 1881. The Ryder home has always been on land that was taken up from the government in 1827 by the Ryder family. Her husband died in 1929.

From girlhood she was one of the most active members of the Newburg Methodist church, being a charter member of the Ladies' Aid Society and later its president. She was active in the Women's Relief Corps, an auxiliary of the old G. A. R., and took a keen interest in the affairs of the Newburg Sunday school.

Six children survive, Raymond of LaGrange, Illinois; Lee, Donald, Earl, Mrs. Fayo Grimm and Mrs. Beulah Smith, all of Newburg. Funeral services were attended by large numbers of friends and neighbors who mourn the passing of one who spent a most useful and exemplary life. Burial took place in the family lot in Newburg cemetery.

Albert Rohde New President

Lutheran Church Elects Officers

Albert Rohde was elected president of the congregation of St. Peter's Evangelical church at the annual meeting last Tuesday evening.

Other officers elected were Edward Hoshack, vice president; Walter Schultz, secretary; William Bartel, treasurer and Paul Groth, financial secretary.

Jacob Brinks was elected chairman of the board of trustees and Harold Stevens, Carl Rohde and Edwin Goebel were named deacons.

It was reported to the congregation that 1943 was a most successful year financially. A total of $10,235.64 was contributed during the year, about three times the contribution of ten years ago.

It was reported that there is about $8,000 in the building fund, and that plans have been completed for raising $25,000 more this year.

Women's Footwear Under $3 Price Is Pointless For 12 Days

The nation's shoe stores will be able to sell ration-free at $3.00 or less a pair, a percentage of their stock of women's footwear during the two-week period from the 17th through the 29th of January, the Office of Price Administration announced today.

The footwear released is limited to 15 per cent of the retailer's stock of women's shoes listed in his September inventory report to OPA.

This action does not mean that the shoe supply picture has improved, OPA said. Rather, it is taken to help dealers dispose of limited quantities of wearable shoes, mostly novelty types, which under rationing have been lying idle on "dealers' shelves.

These shoes, if moved into consumers' hands, will furnish considerable additional shoe mileage that otherwise would not be used.

Plymouth Boys Give Lives, We Are Asked to Loan Dollars

Down under the equator in the South Pacific, in Africa, in the Aleutians, in Asia, in Europe and under the waves of the Atlantic lie the remains of Don Hunter, Keith Lawson, Archie King, L. J. Owens, Raymond Martin, Leslie Hugst, John J. Kinsey Jr., Charles Hadley, Don Passage and Peter Gayde. Imprisoned like wild beasts back of Japanese barbed wire fences are Joe Merritt and Dick Cooper.

These Plymouth boys have given their all to OUR COUNTRY.

For the next 30 days men and women of Plymouth and vicinity are being asked to loan at a good interest rate some of their money to OUR COUNTRY.

Some may think it a hardship to part with a few of their surplus dollars—but OUR BOYS didn't hesitate when it came to giving up their young lives that you and the rest of us might live in peace and security.

Plymouth's Fourth war loan drive has started. Under the able direction of Supt. George A. Smith and the teachers of the public schools, every school child has become a bond salesman.

Women of Plymouth have been rallied under the banner of the newly organized U. S. Treasury Woman's war bond committee of Plymouth directed by Mrs. Walter Kellogg Sumner.

To assist in a house to house sales of BONDS for BULLETS NOW AND BREAD FOR OURSELVES later, she has created a Victory E Bond committee made up of wives, mothers and relatives of Michigan men and women in service.

Mrs. Kenneth Gust has been named chairman of this committee and the precinct directors of this organization are Mrs. Marjorie Hoyer, precinct one; Mrs. David Mather, precinct two; Mrs. George Farwell, precinct three, and Mrs. Cass Hough, precinct four.

In addition to this special group, Mrs. Sumner has enlisted every woman's organization in Plymouth to assist in the drive.

Her executive committee is now made up of the following enthusiastic war bond workers: Mrs. O. M. Valliquette, Mrs. Earl Russell, Mrs. Russell Powell, Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Dow Swope, Mrs. Vaughn Smith, Mrs. A. Lincoln Lantz, Mrs. John M. Bloxson, Mrs. Walter A. Harms, Mrs. Richard M. Olin, Jr., Mrs. Earl F. Reh, Mrs. E. B. Cavell, Jr., Mrs. Kermit R. Smith, Mrs. Clarence Jetter, Mrs. Chas. B.

Bank Deposits Here Jump Over Million Dollars In Year

Bank deposits in Plymouth increased during the year 1943 by a million, one hundred thousand dollars, and in addition the banks alone sold war bonds to the extent of $1,030,000 in the same time.

These figures were revealed following the annual meetings of the stockholders of the Plymouth United Savings Bank and the First National Bank, at which all officers and directors of both institutions were reelected.

Officers of the First National Bank reelected were: Dr. John L. Olsaver, chairman of the board; Floyd Kehrl, president; Russell Roe and Charles Finlan, vice presidents and Jack Taylor, cashier.

Mr. Kehrl reported that deposits of the First National Bank had increased during the year by $1,017,000, a 42 1/2 per cent gain over the year 1942.

At the same time, Mr. Kehrl reported the bank had sold $1,110 government bonds to a total value of $690,575.

Officers of the Plymouth United Savings Bank reelected were: Paul W. Voorhies, chairman of the board; Charles H. Bennett, president; Russell M. Daane and Edson O. Huston, vice presidents; Harry O. Mohrmann, cashier and Clara L. Alexander, assistant cashier.

Deposits of the Plymouth United increased during the year by $270,000 and the bank sold $740,000 in war bonds to the general public.

The increased deposits are a reflection of the prosperity of the city, but almost equally, it is a reflection of the thrift of the Plymouth citizens, and their confidence in the Plymouth banks.

Garden Club Elects Officers

Mrs. R. R. Lindsay Made President

At the annual meeting of the Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Winston Cooper, the annual reports of all officers and committee chairmen were given.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: president, Mrs. R. R. Lindsay; first vice president, Mrs. L. R. Von Stein; second vice president, Mrs. Edward Bolton; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank Dunn; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Sam Spicer; treasurer, Mrs. LeRoy Jewell.

The president appointed the following committee: chairmen and assistants for the year: program, Mrs. Paul Wiedman; chairman, Mrs. Raphael Mettelt; co-chairman, Mrs. A. J. Dohman and Mrs. Winston Cooper; membership, Mrs. Max Trucks; chairwoman, Mrs. John W. Blickestein; co-chairman, and Mrs. LeRoy Jewell; civic, Mrs. John J. McLaren, chairman, Mrs. L. G. Manners, co-chairman, Mrs. H. G. Homer Burton, Mrs. Clayton Clare and Mrs. Milton Laible; social, Mrs. George M. Chute, chairman, Mrs. M. A. Arnold, co-chairman, Mrs. William Hartmann, Mrs. Clarence Sherwood and Mrs. C. G. Shear; educational, Mrs. H. Hees, chairman, Mrs. J. M. Swegles, co-chairman and Mrs. T. G. Hegge; publicity, Mrs. William T. Pettegill; conservation, Mrs. Dow J. Swope, chairman, Mrs.

Messmore, Mrs. Albert Pint, Mrs. Homer Burton, Mrs. Wm. T. Pettegill, Mrs. Frank Dunn, Mrs. Ralph J. Lorenz, Mrs. E. D. Bolton, Mrs. J. C. Weed, Mrs. Earl Mastick, Mrs. Allen Buckley, Northville; Mrs. Robert Willoughby, Mrs. Wallace Laury, Mrs. Chas. C. Cushman, Mrs. Harry Terry, Mrs. G. W. Baker, Mrs. Harry J. Christensen, Miss Bessie Sutherland, Mrs. B. E. Champe and Mrs. Wm. C. Hartmann.

Already the American Legion and the Auxiliary has started its work. Mrs. Powell will direct the bond campaign in Plymouth township.

Rolph Smith has been named as chairman of a business committee. Members of the Business and Professional Woman's club will work in cooperation with Mr. Smith to see to it that every person in the downtown section of Plymouth is given an opportunity to loan just a small portion of their funds to our government.

And let it be said right in the beginning of the campaign, that there is every indication that Plymouth will go way over the top again, as people have started buying bonds at a rate much faster than they did in the second and third war loan drives.

The Board of Education at its meeting Monday night granted diplomas to twenty-eight seniors who have completed their high school courses. The diplomas were granted at this time because some of the men graduating will need them on their entry into the armed services.

Two other seniors received their diplomas after completing their high school work at the close of summer school, making a grand total of 30 diplomas granted since the start of the school term.

No commencement exercises will be held at this time, and the seniors graduating at mid-term will be considered a part of the 1944 class, and some of them in all probability will be present for the commencement exercises.

School officials said all of the boys in the class had been called for induction, and presumably will be in the army in a short time if they pass the physical examinations.

City Water Main Near Park Lowered

City employes have completed the lowering of the water main just south of the entrance to Cass Benton park, necessitated by the lowering of the stream bed by the county. The stream bed was lowered to prevent washing of one bank. It was one of the most difficult engineering jobs the city has been called upon to perform. It was under the supervision of City Engineer Stan Besse.

John Black, co-chairman, Mrs. Douglas Elliott, Miss Pauline Peck, Mrs. Lawrence Lyons, Mrs. John Scheel, Mrs. Walter Sumner, Mrs. Austin Whipple, Mrs. Roy Harvey Whipple and Mrs. Roy Scheppele; marketing, Mrs. George Cramer, chairman, Mrs. Gustave Lundquist, co-chairman and Mrs. Earl Russell; transportation, Mrs. Horace Thatcher, chairman, Mrs. R. D. Merriam, and Mrs. Luther Peck.

The association decided to sponsor a flower show in the fall and other subjects of importance were discussed and approved. Mrs. George Chute invited the group to meet with her in February.

Corp. Carl Cook returned to Camp John T. Knight, Oakland, California last Friday after spending a week's furlough with his family on Gold Arbor road.

Mrs. Fred Schrader and daughter, Evelyn, were in Detroit last Friday to attend the reception and tea given for Mrs. Bricker, wife of the governor of Ohio, which was held in the Book Building Hotel. They also attended the luncheon given for Gov. Bricker at noon.

Mrs. Elmore Carney received a letter from her husband, Lt. Carney stating that he is now stationed in the New Hebrides Islands. Lt. Carney and his associates celebrated Christmas after landing and according to Lt. Carney it was the most unusual Christmas he had ever had.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wood will entertain the Couples Club this Saturday evening in their home on Simpson street. Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. George Farwell, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dobbs, Mr. and Mrs. William Arscott, Mrs. Elmore Carney, and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Williams.

The following members of the Sunset circle were entertained on New Year's evening at the John Chaney home on Pacific avenue: Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Manford Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rorabacher, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Turkett.

Lt. and Mrs. A. B. Miller are home on furlough from Ft. Dix, New Jersey, visiting Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Mattinson on Forest street. Lt. Miller's mother, Mrs. Ernest Miller, and sister Louise, of Osceola, Iowa, were week-end guests in the Mattinson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Shannon, of Five Mile road, entertained at dinner, Mr. and Mrs. "Ole" Stephen Olsen of Malverne, New York, and Mrs. Wm. Zimmerman of Detroit. Mr. Olsen, of the Olsen and Johnson comedy team, appeared recently at the Cass in person in the musical comedy, "Sons of Fun."

Joanne Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Walsh, will entertain several friends Sunday afternoon at a skating party and lunch. They are: Maxine Martin, Jerry West, Marilyn Tebo, Dorothy Richwine, Donna Jean Swarbrick, Nancy Broman, Kenneth Hitt, Bill Bateman, Dave McIntosh, Donald Schaufele, Edward Sawyer, John Pint, and Bruce Deyo.

Julius Sener of Powell road was happily surprised on his 50th birthday last Wednesday evening when a number of his friends met at his home for an evening of dancing, musical entertainment and refreshments. The guests were, Mr. and Mrs. William Kreeger, Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson and son; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cole, Otto Kipper and son; Robert Ingram, Bessie

Crane; James Crump; Mrs. Evelyn Ranney; Fred Balko, Jr.; Elmer Bennett; Albert Huegel; Mrs. Sophie Huegel.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen E. Wall of Evergreen street attended the wedding of their nephew, Lieutenant E. L. Mather to Miss Marian Funk of Cleveland, Ohio last Saturday evening in the Methodist church at St. Clair Shores. Lieutenant Mather has been in the Pacific area since August, 1942, with the 67th Fighter Squadron. He has been out of active service since September due to combat fatigue. He has 146 combat missions to his credit and has earned the air medal, D. F. C. with two oak leaf clusters. He will return to Texas air base the last of the month.

Patience Lands New Bus For Detroit-Plymouth Line
Ed. Sinta believes in patience and persistence.

It has been these two qualities in the manager of the Plymouth Coach company which has resulted in the purchase of a new bus for the Plymouth-Detroit run.

For two long years, Ed. has camped on the front doorsteps of bus manufacturers, government officials and any one else who had anything to do with bus making and selling, in an effort to get another badly needed bus for the Plymouth line.

While others would have given up, not so Ed. His ability to stick to it, the other day brought results. A new bus, all dolled up with all the latest fixings that careful old Uncle Sam would let him have, took its place in the regular run between Plymouth and Grand River.

Amazing, how quickly it has helped to relieve the congestion of the Plymouth over-taxed buses.

Ed. says he needs another bus and hopes some day to surprise everybody by putting it into service some bright, sunny morning.

Fourteen years before becoming the fourteenth state in the Union, Vermont declared herself an independent republic. She fought the British and Indians for freedom from English rule during the Revolution without joining her forces with the other colonies.

Even Fire Doesn't Frighten Children When Old Santa Is Right With Them

Above is a photograph taken during the recent Christmas celebration at the Salvation Army Nursery home at the very minute flames were climbing to the roof of the building to put out a slight roof fire. When a big, red fire truck pulls up in front of a building, it generally means plenty of excitement for the children—but NOT when old Santa is right there! The photograph shows what a pleasing Christmas party was provided for the children at the nursery.

Weddings

Kansas Girl Weds Plymouth Soldier

From the Wichita, Kansas, News is taken the following report of the wedding of Howard Olson, a Plymouth soldier lad serving with the armed forces in training at Winfield, Kansas, to Marie Estelle Nickum, a Wichita girl.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Nickum of this city announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marie Estelle Nickum, to T/Sgt. Howard A. Olson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Olson of Plymouth, Michigan, December 23 at the Wellington Place Baptist church, 8 p. m. Dr. Vernon Reffner officiated at the double ring candle-light service.

A basket of mixed chrysanthemums against a background of fern plaques and candelabra decorated the altar. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Ray Alway played "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" and "I Love You Truly." Mr. Don Regier sang "Because," and "O Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. Alway at the organ. Miss Iris Wetz presented a violin solo, "Dreams of Love," accompanied by her brother, Mr. Wayne Wetz at the organ. Mr. Raymond Nickum, brother of the bride, and Mr. Jimmy Truman were taper lighters.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown and fingertip veil and carried a white prayer-book topped with gardenias. She was attended by Mrs. Dale Martens, Winfield, as matron of honor. She wore a gown of poudre blue and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations. Sgt. Dale Martens of Winfield served as best man. Ushers were Mr. Edward Wetz and Mr. Wayne Wetz, cousins of the bride from Kiowa.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. Immediately following, the couple left for a short wedding trip. The bride attended Wichita high school North. Before her marriage she was employed at Spines. The groom was graduated from the Plymouth high school and was employed in the Plymouth post office before entering the service. The couple will be at home in Winfield.

Richardson-Fisher

The marriage of Miss Alice Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Richardson of Northville, to Corporal Oren S. Fisher, son of Mrs. William Last of South Harvey street, this city, was solemnized New Year's eve by Rev. Edgar Hoenecke of this city. The couple were attended by Miss Irene and Charles Stibbles of Waterford, Corp. Fisher left within a few days for Keesler Field, Mississippi, where he expects to take a five months' course in an airplane mechanic school. The young couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Buggies Gone—So Double Doors To Connor Store Go Out

Last vestige of the old horse and buggy days disappeared from Main street the other day when Max Moore of the Connor hardware store, removed the old double doors that open into the store and replaced them with a single door.

Old timers will recall the attractively painted and nicely trimmed buggies that once upon a time were displayed in the Connor store.

The double doors to the store were put on so that the buggies could be brought into the store easily from the sidewalk.

FAMOUS GENUINE Charm-Kurl PERMANENT WAVE Kit 59c Community Pharmacy

But no longer are buggies on display in the store and recently the doors began to sag a bit, so Mr. Moore, not anticipating the return of the horse and buggy right away, had a single door installed.

Only Nine Tons Of Paper Collected

The City of Plymouth contributed only nine tons of waste paper to the drive of the Plymouth Civilian Defense Salvage campaign, it was revealed this week by City Manager Clarence Elliott.

Some rural schools have collected more than fifty tons.

The paper was tossed into the garage at the city hall, where it required considerable time of city employees to bundle it for sale to the scrap dealers.

Some city officials declared that although the demand for scrap paper is great and that it is now one of the prime necessities of the war, that it would appear that collecting it is a war time job for idling youth, and not for city employees.

Official Proceedings of the Plymouth City Commission

January 5, 1944

The regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chambers of the City Hall on January 3, 1944, at 7:30 p. m.

Present: Mayor Shear, Commissioners Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple.

Absent: None.

The minutes of the regular meeting of December 20, 1943, were approved as read.

It was moved by Commissioner Whipple and supported by Commissioner Lewis that the bills in the amount of $4,118.19 be approved as audited by the auditing committee.

Ayes: Mayor Shear, Commissioners Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple.

Nays: None. Carried. This was the night set for a public hearing to determine whether or not the following lots should be changed from residential to industrial area on the zoning map:

Lots 21-26 inc. of Gravel Hill Sub.

Lots 50-56 inc. of Gravel Hill Sub.

Lots 10-16 inc. of Amelia Stark-weather Addition.

Lots 19-32 inc. of Amelia Stark-weather Addition.

Lots 37-50 inc. of Amelia Stark-weather Addition.

Lots 53-59 inc. of Amelia Stark-weather Addition.

Also the western 80 feet of lot 60 of Assessor's Plat No. 4.

The following members of the Plan Commission were present for the hearing: Commissioners Dunn, Strong, Bennett, Rotnour, and Chairman Burt. Also Mr. T. Glenn Phillips was present.

Mr. Phillips and C. H. Elliott presented the facts concerning the change in zoning.

A petition requesting that the zoning map be left as at present was presented by Mr. Cassidy. This petition was signed by 76 property owners in the locality affected.

Twenty citizens were present and many of them spoke not in favor of the change. After considerable discussion it was moved by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Hondorp that the matter be referred back to the plan commission and that the plan commission also study the matter concerning the vacating of Blanch street between the R. R. and Amelia. Carried.

Mrs. Russell Powell asked the Commission to permit the City through the D. P. W. to have regular collections of paper. The matter was referred to the manager.

Mr. John Jacobs representing the American Legion, recommended to the Commission that a picket fence be built around the "Memorial" in Kellogg Park.

It was moved by Commissioner Whipple and supported by Commissioner Lewis that the recommendation be adopted.

Ayes: Mayor Shear, Commissioners Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple.

Nays: None. The following reports were read by the Clerk, Fire, building inspection, Police and violation bureau, court, treasurer, and health reports.

It was moved by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Lewis that these reports be accepted and placed on file. Carried.

It was moved by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Lewis that the manager be instructed not to purchase the watchman clocks at the increased price. Carried.

It was moved by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Hondorp that the manager be instructed to install some form of call system for the purpose of having the police officers call headquarters. Carried.

A communication was received from Chief of Police Thumme recommending an additional parking space of Taxi stand at Pennington and Main.

It was moved by Commissioner Whipple and supported by Commissioner Corbett that the recommendation be approved. Carried.

The program for street improvement in 1944 was discussed. No official action was taken.

A communication was received from the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees requesting a conference with the City Commission.

It was moved by Commissioner Whipple and supported by Commissioner Corbett that a special meeting be held Monday, January 10 for the purpose of conferring with the representatives of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees and for the purpose of reviewing the audit. Carried.

The City Engineer presented bids for 12" water pipe and fittings for a water project installing a 12" main from the new well to the corner of Amelia and Blanch.

It was moved by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Whipple that the low bid of James B. Clow for 3294 feet of 12" water main and the low bid of the Traverse City Iron Works for fittings in the amount of $6,620.93 and $1,416.55 respectively be accepted and that the City Manager be instructed to proceed with the work as soon as possible.

Ayes: Mayor Shear, Commissioners Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple.

Nays: None. Carried.

Mayor Shear appointed Commissioners Corbett and Lewis and City Manager C. H. Elliott on the Recreation Committee.

It was moved by Commissioner Whipple and supported by Commissioner Hondorp that the appointments of the Mayor be confirmed.

The matter concerning parking lots for off-street parking of automobiles was discussed. It was agreed that the Commission would meet Saturday, January 15, 1944 for the purpose of visiting several sites.

It was moved by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Whipple that the meeting be adjourned. Time of Adjournment 9:45. Carried.

C. H. ELLIOTT, Clerk.
C. G. SHEAR, Mayor.

The real name of Molly Pitcher, Revolutionary war heroine, was Mary Hays. She received her nickname because of her tireless devotion in carrying water to the soldiers.

Like Buckwheat Flapjacks? "Makin's" Most Plentiful

Michigan's fifty-seven year record of rainfall during the growing season of 1943 has been blessed by some crops exceeding previous years production, according to the Michigan and United States Crop Reporting Service.

Leaders in the record-breaking field especially are beans, potatoes, and buckwheat. The production of buckwheat increased 205% over 1942 and 247% over the ten-year average. 800,000 bushels were produced this past year compared to 391,000 bushels in 1942 and 323,000 on the ten-year average, enough to make twice as much buckwheat pancake flour or should be enough to satisfy everyone.

The farmers of Michigan in 1943 produced $500,000,000 worth of food products, an all time high, states Charles Figy, Commissioner of Agriculture, and he is pleased to report this state again produced 90% of the nation's navy bean supply. This past year 5,797,000, 100 pound bags were produced, or 10% larger than 1942, in fact an all time high production. Sixty per cent of the state's bean supply has been frozen by the United States Government for the men in service and lend-lease food supplies.

Potato production jumped 35% over last year when 22,365,000 bushels were produced.

Oats and barley has suffered more than any other crops. They with corn show a production of 52% of the 1942 crop but 79% of the ten-year average.

Red Clover Seed production is 120% above 1942 and is 66% greater than the ten-year average. Alfalfa seed production was very light throughout the state when 16,000 bushels were produced compared to 28,000 bushels in 1942. 75,800 bushels for the ten-year average.

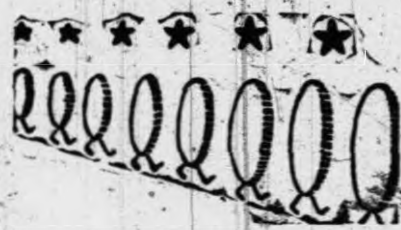

Of livestock and livestock products many changes have been experienced during the year.

The pig crop has led the procession when 2,239,000 spring and fall pigs were raised, which is an increase of 23% over 1942 and 78% over the ten-year average. The shortage of feed supplies no doubt is going to reduce this considerably for 1944.

Milk production for the 1,026,000 dairy cows is less per cow for the state but the increase in dairy cows makes total production equivalent to that of a year ago. Egg production in 1943 to December 1 was 7% over the same period of a year ago. Up until December 1 Michigan hens laid 1,420,000,000 eggs. Lack of available feed supplies is already beginning to show reduced production.

Our worth is determined by the good deeds we do, rather than by the fine emotions we feel.—E. L. Magoon.

America's Feed Dealers are Helping Her Win

Sometimes he's called a middle-man." It's a good name. If surely tells where he stands right now, and no mistake . . . in the "middle" of one of the hottest spots on the home front . . . at the heart of the fight to keep America eating . . . yes, and her Allies as well.

Feed dealers all over America are carrying a heavy load. Theirs is the burden of seeing that each one of millions of feeders gets his rightful share of the available supply. With less help than they have in normal times . . . or none at all . . . they're handling a record-breaking tonnage of feeds and ingredients. And in addition, they're carrying on as usual helping feeders with all manner of feeding and management problems . . . helping them in every way they can to do a better feeding job.

We too, are here to help you with your problems. Please feel free to use our services and make our store your headquarters.

He Faces Paying the Supreme Sacrifice Every Fighting Moment!

IF YOU WERE IN HIS PLACE . . . what would you think of any civilian who claimed that buying War Bonds was too much of a sacrifice! If we all had to crawl through mud and jungle on our bellies, and eat dehydrated "mess" out of a little ration kit our concept of the word "sacrifice" would be mighty different, wouldn't it? Well, let's try to see it from our fighting men's point of view.

We want as many of them as can to come home alive and sound of body and mind; we want this war to be as short as our united endeavor can make it; we've proved that by all we've done to back up our fighting men so far. But it isn't enough. It won't be enough, until we've made it possible for them to win the war and come marching home victorious!

Postmaster's Pigs Have Been Made Into Pork Chops and Hams

These are sad hours around the Harry Irwin country "estate" on Canton Center road. When the family went to bed Monday night there was no familiar squeal out in the backyard. When they woke up bright and early Tuesday morning, it seemed just like a morgue, everything was so quiet and peaceful.

There were no grunts and no squeals coming from down under the cherry trees where two porkers have lived happily and contented for nearly a year.

When the genial Postmaster went out to his steam-heated pig pen, where ultra-violet rays from old man Sun have been a source of joy and comfort to two fat, wedding porkers, there was nothing but desolation. The nice bed of straw where they had slept in comfort was all mussed up.

Yes sir, some "feller" came along the other day, and deliberately cut the throats of Postmaster Irwin's porkers.

After doing such a dastardly thing, he up and cut out the hams, the pork chops, the spare ribs and the nice slabs of bacon—and even made sausage with plenty of sage and pepper.

No Sirree, the kindly Postmaster, even though sad and downhearted over the whole affair, isn't going to worry about rationing points any more this winter. He has tucked away in various hideouts around his estate enough pork to last the Irwins until the Republicans take charge of things down in Washington and straighten matters out. At least that's what Supervisor Charles Rathburn a while back told the Postmaster what was going to happen next November.

Training School Cow Makes Record As Milk Producer

The Wayne County Training School is the owner of a registered Holstein cow which has further added to her outstanding lifetime production of more than 100,000 pounds of milk. Her name is Maryland Johanna Colantha Matador and her production records are officially recorded by The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

In nine yearly milking periods, "Colantha" has produced a total of 152,863 pounds of milk and 4,895 pounds of butterfat. Her highest single record was made at the age of 11 years 7 months when she produced 17,869 pounds of milk and 601 pounds of butterfat.

All her records were made under supervision of the Michigan State College of Agriculture in cooperation with The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Newburg

The Fidelis Class met with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lamb on Thursday evening.

On Wednesday, January 5, Rev. Carson installed the officers of the W.S.C.S. for the following year. The new officers are President, Mrs. Agnes MacIntyre; vice president, Mrs. Sarah Gilbert; secretary, Mrs. Edward Ayers; treasurer, Mrs. Stella Simmons; secretary of children's work, Mrs. Melvin Gutherie; secretary of supplies and letters, Mrs. Dorothy Sitarz, and spiritual secretary, Mrs. Ray Johnston.

Newburg was saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Emma Ryder on Wednesday evening. Those from away who attended her funeral on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ryder of La Grange, Illinois; Mrs. May Casterline of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson of Drayton Plains; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ross of Ann Arbor and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Drews of Sidney.

Mrs. Raymond Grimm is visiting her niece, Mrs. Howard Gerst of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mackinder spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. Vera Mackinder of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Newburg friends extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. James Remy in the death of their grandson, Gerald, who was in the first grade at Newburg school.

A letter received by Doris Ryder from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kempster of St. Ignace, Michigan, states that they are well, and would like to be remembered to their Newburg friends.

Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gutherie were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ayers and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowman and sons, Norman and Bob.

Vice-Consul From Netherlands To Speak Before The D. A. R.

The Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the D. A. R. will hold its annual birthday luncheon Monday, January 17 at 12:30 p. m. in the parlors of the Presbyterian church.

The speaker will be William K. von Weiler of Detroit, who is the vice-consul from The Netherlands. He has chosen "Americanism" for his subject and will show pictures in connection with his talk.

Music will be furnished by the Glee Club from the high school under the direction of C. A. Luchtman.

MACCABEE NOTES

Wednesday, January 19, is installation night. Lady Nickelson from Detroit will be the installing officer, with Farmington Hive putting on the floor work. The public is invited.

We congratulate Lady M. Carley on that 8½ pound boy, born in Sessions hospital, January 5.

Every patriotic home in America will want to display this emblem. Paste it on your front door or on a window to show that you have done your part in the 4th War Loan.

Display your colors

Every patriotic home in America will want to put up this emblem!

THIS EMBLEM is a symbol of your patriotism. It tells the world that you have done your full share in the 4th War Loan. Every true American will be proud to display it at home.

Our valiant fighting men . . . soldiers, sailors and marines . . . on every far-flung battlefield are on the attack . . . forging ahead steadily, relentlessly. Nothing on earth can stop them . . . IF WE BACK THEM UP!

That's the purpose of this 4th War Loan Drive.

To earn the right to display the 4th War Loan Emblem you must invest in at least one EXTRA hundred dollar Bond over and above your regular War Bond subscription. But don't stop with one! Invest in all the extra bonds you think you can afford . . . then invest in some more!

Every dollar you put into War Bonds helps to win the war . . . and insures your financial security.

Here, too, is a chance to help your company meet its quota in this 4th War Loan.

Maybe this will mean sacrifice on your part. Maybe it will mean doing without something you want. But don't forget . . . while you are only lending a few spare dollars . . . thousands of our gallant fighting men are giving their lives for you! Show that you're backing them up 100%. Invest in extra War Bonds to the limit of your ability. And display the 4th War Loan Emblem at home!

BUILD YOUR FUTURE WITH THE WORLD'S SAFEST INVESTMENT

All over the country men and women look to the future with confidence. They are the ones who have put part of their extra wartime earnings into the world's safest investment—U. S. Government War Bonds.

Yes, they are helping their country in its grimmest struggle. But they are helping themselves, too! They are helping to secure their future, to weather any troubled days that may lie ahead.

What about you? Are you letting the dollars slip through your fingers—dollars that should be put safely away in War Bonds?

There are War Bonds to fit your needs . . . Bonds that are backed up by the strongest "company" in the world. Build that home you have always dreamed about. Send your child to college. Buy the wonderful things that are coming after the war. YOU CAN DO IT WITH YOUR WAR BOND SAVINGS.

LIEUT. SCHRADER HAS JAP RIFLE AS SOUVENIR

"Jap cigarettas are terrible—but I've got one of the Jap rifles that we captured on Christmas day. Am keeping it as a souvenir and hope to bring it home with me," wrote Lieut. (j.g.) Edwin Schrader to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Schrader, the other day.

Apparently, too, the cigarettas were captured from the Japs. "Bud," as he is best known to his host of Plymouth friends, is somewhere in the Pacific southwest and the island that he has reference to is probably one of the several islands that the United States fighting forces have captured from the Japs during the past few weeks.

Bud writes that the steel decks of his ship get so hot from the sun that the men are required to wear a specially made shoe, so their feet will not burn. The heat penetrates the regular shoes, and therefore they cannot be worn.

DON THRALL NOW AT AUSTRALIAN REST CAMP

"So much has taken place during the year of 1943 that it just doesn't seem possible that the New Year is about here," wrote Don Thrall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Thrall of Irving street, to The Plymouth Mail a few days ago.

Don, who has been right down in the thickest of the fighting around New Guinea, is now in Australia where he has apparently been sent to rest camp following more than a year in action right up at the front.

"The Plymouth Mail is doing a swell job, and I haven't the words to tell you how the boys over here appreciate it. We know what it must mean to you to try and get a copy of The Mail to all of the Plymouth men in service. Can we ever repay you?"

"Please give my kindest regards to any I may know. A Merry Christmas to you and a Happy New Year to every one in Plymouth," wrote Don.

LOCAL SAILOR WRITES OF SIGHTS IN CASABLANCA

The shores of the good old U. S. A. were undoubtedly a mighty pretty sight to travel-weary Bob Weaver when he had first glimpse of them after being on a mission for 41 days. Bob is an AOM first class in the navy and described his trip:

"Our foreign port was Casablanca, Morocco, a city which has housed the Germans as well as ourselves in this war. There were numerous bombed areas, ships on their sides in the harbor, buildings blown to pieces, etc. It is quite a modern city in some ways. Of course, you must consider its position on the map—it is away from the new ideas of the world. Their Sultan (king) and international trade have modernized it a great deal.

"The people of Casablanca are a mixture of Negro, Arab, Jew and French, these being the greatest majority. There are class distinctions and their religions are many. They have an enormous Catholic church attended mostly by the French people. One would think that the people of the lower classes never work to see them on the streets begging and I do mean begging. Old women who are blind bring their whole families to town and they try to grab an American's hand so that they can hold on to him until he gives them 5 or 10 franc.

Practically every person you meet has something to sell. They wear burlap sacks and you'd be surprised to see all of the merchandise they can carry. When trying to sell an article, they start off with an enormous price which is about 3 or 4 times more than they really expect to get. Of course, this doesn't hold true in all business establishments. They have good organization in the large businesses and their prices do not vary. I bought a silver ring in a jewelry store—the clerk wanted 225 francs for it and no matter how much I talked, she still wouldn't cut the price. (Our metallurgists say it's really silver). We took old fountain pens and got between 250 and 400 francs for them. Most of the pens my men sold were 39 cents. One of the boys had a streamlined Eversharp pen and got 900 franc. I had broken my tiger head ring so I sold it for 350 franc. You can see that the war has brought on a great scarcity of certain articles by these prices.

"I visited the Sultan's palace, which is of greatest interest in the city. I have several snapshots of it which I will send as soon as possible. The palace consists of a mansion, garage, which housed at least 10 cars—all makes, tea rooms (houses), two of them in the trees, shrubbery and flowers, a complete house for the Sultan's children, tennis court and numerous bird baths. Everything has been hand carved.

"Before I forget, I'll tell you about the money, although there isn't much to tell. Practically all of their currency is of francs—one franc is worth two cents of our money. There are 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, 100 and 500 franc notes, most of it has been printed in Philadelphia, U.S.A.

"I have probably neglected to tell you a great many interesting things, but I'll get around to it in time.

"Another thing, the American Red Cross has a book for the Yanks to write their names and addresses in. I spent over an hour trying to find some Plymouth boys, but no success. Mine is in the book now."

Bob, who is the son of Mrs. Louise Leadbetter, 831 Wing street, returned to Norfolk, Virginia, after his mission and has now gone out on another.

HE WARBLERS WITH A BARBER-SHOP QUARTET

Melodious strains of old-time songs, set to quartet harmony. "Barber-shop harmony" to be exact, have been piercing the peace and quiet of the evening at Fort Benning, Georgia, lately. And in the midst of the music-making group, you will find Pvt. Donald L. Olson singing right along with them. Donald, son of Mrs. Freda Olson, formerly of Amelia street, is a member of the group of officers and enlisted men from the 176th Infantry Regiment of the Infantry School Troops Brigade station there who meet one night each week in the company mess hall.

All meetings pattern closely after those of SPEBSQSA, Inc. (Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber-Shop Quartet Singing in America) opening with the mass singing of "America" and continuing informally with rehearsals of the harmony parts on "barber-shop" ballads. Extra flavor is afforded by the several quartet combinations which develop extemporaneously and sing their own versions of songs at hand. Some of these are quite good, some are not so good, but all are received in the same spirit of good fellowship which only singing can engender.

ENGLAND BEAUTIFUL, BUT U. S. BEATS ALL

From our own Johnny Nelson came a letter the other day from England in which he declares that the country around where he is stationed, is beautiful, but that it is nothing as compared to "good old Plymouth."

He adds, "There's nothing I'd like better than to be right back in the good old Plymouth Mail office this very minute. They are good to us over here, but how we all wish we could finish up our job and get back home right away."

Christmas packages mailed to him were received undamaged—and he was glad to get them.

SERVICE MEN COME AND GO AT HOLMAN HOME

Traffic of a military nature was heavy at the Holman home on Plymouth road during the month of December—it was "old home month" for the service men in the family.

Archie C. Hall, H. A. second class, was home on leave from Shoemaker, California, for the first week. He is the husband of Betty Jane. He was closely followed by Pfc. Bethel Thomson, who with his wife, Delores, and infant son, Michael, arrived on a furlough from San Antonio, Texas.

The last of the service men to come home was Donald Holman, seaman second class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Holman, who was home on leave from Farragut, Idaho, the third week. And as December brought to an end the welcomed visits, the Holmans hoped that 1944 would bring their "boys" back home permanently.

BOYS TAKE A BIT OF 'HELL ON EARTH' OVER THERE

The fact that the news which Pvt. Lloyd Clark read in a Plymouth Mail he recently received "somewhere in Italy" was five weeks old didn't bother him—it was good news from home anyway. Pvt. Lloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark, Union street, has been in the thick of things over there and has the distinction of "chauffeur" two colonels in that theatre.

"I have been with this outfit now for nearly four months," he wrote, "and haven't written anything to publish about it. That in itself is a crime. I am proud to say that I am a member of one of the 'fightnest' outfits overseas. The boys over here are taking a good bit of that 'Hell on earth.' You never hear the boys complaining, although I am inclined to believe that if we had a few more troops over here fighting for the U.S.A. and not quite so many fighting for the U.S.O., the war would progress considerably sooner. You know the work that the outfit did in Sicily, and in the future, will know of their work in Italy. Take it from me that if any outfit can do any better, they are doing one whole lot. That's saying a lot, I know."

"I have seen Rodger Vanderveen and the Gears boy. They are both in the same outfit. It was quite a reunion when all three of us got together. They are both fine and doing a large job."

Pvt. Clark is with the Divisional Headquarters and our hats are off to him and the rest of OUR BOYS doing such a splendid job.

TRAINS AS AXIS-BLASTER AT TEXAS AIR FIELD

Air Cadet Lawrence Leit Arnold has successfully completed the Flexible Aerial Gunnery Course at the Army Air Forces Flexible Gunnery School, Laredo Army Air Field, Laredo, Texas. He was sent there upon the completion of his pre-flight training and now that he has received the rating of Aerial Gunner, he will continue his training as bombardier at Midland, Texas.

DON GRANGER CO-PILOTS FLYING FORTRESS

From an Eighth Army Air Forces Bomber Command Station in England comes the news that Second Lieutenant Harold D. Granger, former telephone installer for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company here, is now on combat duty in England as co-pilot of an Eighth Air Force Flying Fortress. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Granger of Canton Center road.

COMPLETES PRE-FLIGHT TRANSFERRED TO NEW BASE

Naval Aviation Cadet Joseph E. Measel, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Measel of Ann street, was graduated with the 35th Battalion at St. Mary's Pre-Flight School last week and will be transferred to the Naval Air Station at Livermore, California, for his primary flight training.

Cadet Measel has already successfully completed three months of ground school and military training. He took an academic course which included celestial navigation essentials of naval service, advance aerology and advanced recognition of ships and planes. His military arts course included communications, seamanship, gunnery and first aid.

Nor was his physical conditioning neglected—he engaged in many competitive sports, among them swimming, boxing, wrestling, football, basketball, hand to hand combat, tumbling and gymnastics.

As part of the ceremonies of graduation, Cadet Measel participated in a regimental review which was received by Commanding Officer Clyde W. King.

TRAINING IS NOT IN VAIN WRITES IVAN CAMPBELL

"Here I am, another Plymouth lad writing to you, thanking you for the Plymouth Mail which comes to me regularly," writes Pvt. Ivan Campbell from the Lone Star state, Texas. Pvt. Campbell is stationed at Sheppard Field, an Army Air Field.

As the news from home arrives, Ivan shares it with Pvt. Art Gillis who is there with him.

"We both finished our basic," continues Ivan, "and are waiting shipment to a technical school or gunnery. We both washed out of cadets on physical defects, but the training we will get will sure be valuable to us in the Air Corps schools. I also met Morrie McConnell down here. He's an Aerial Mechanic student. We had a good talk of old times in school and he wishes to thank you, too, because he doesn't get much time to write at all.

"Will close and again thank you for the Mail and say 'hello' (Continued On Page 10)

 'Til Victory is Ours!*

Our boys on the fighting front, the war workers in our War Production Plants are doing their job, so it's up to us on the home front to do ours.

We must conserve fuel—GAS IS VITAL TO WAR PRODUCTION.

If we don't have fuel the War Plants cannot produce the arms for our fighting forces.

Do your part. START TODAY.

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN HELP

- 1 Cook whole meals in oven. Cook "one-dish" meals on top burners.
- 2 Repair leaky faucets. Heat no more water than necessary.
- 3 Don't use oven to heat kitchen.
- 4 Winterize your home by weather-stripping and insulating.

Girls Receive Hospital Training

To receive hospital service training, twelve members of Junior Red Cross went to Mount Carmel Hospital in Detroit for the first class of instruction Saturday, January 8.

There are in the group twenty-one girls. Organizations represented are Junior Red Cross from Plymouth, AWVS, and various Girl Scout Troops from Detroit. It is necessary that all be sixteen or older.

Their instructor will be a nurse, Mrs. Ann Catlin. She will teach them in five weeks how to make hospital and surgical beds, to admit and dismiss a patient, take pulse, temperature, feed babies, and do other things necessary for hospital work.

At the end of the training period each member will receive a cap with the insignia of her club organization and is expected to work not less than three hours a week. She must wear white cotton uniforms and white shoes.

Here and There

Marion Johnson, Arthur Breitmeyer, Mildred Shingler, and Clarence Post, U.S.N., spent Sunday evening dancing at the Grande.

Elaine Johnson, Melvin Larson, Virginia Landau, Rosemary Kaiser, and Deloris Livingway of Northville composed another crowd who were at the Grande.

Yvonne Sawyer is at St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor where she is being treated for an ear infection.

Joan Gilles and Paul Wayne of the U.S.A., saw "Thousands Cheer" at the United Artists in Detroit last Saturday evening.

Audrey Neale, Mitzia Jacobson, and Mary Livingstone attended the Michigan theater in Detroit New Year's eve where they saw Ina Ray Hutton and her orchestra.

Pat Benson, Carol Kinney, and Marion Oldenburg helped Margaret Brown celebrate her seventeenth birthday at a surprise party last Monday.

Phyllis Lee and Al Porritt attended the Michigan theater Sunday and saw Ina Ray Hutton and her orchestra.

Ellen Kelly and Virginia Dorcy went ice skating and bowling at South Lyons last Sunday. Later in the evening they attended the Adams theater in Detroit where they saw "Pistol Packin' Mama" and "Happy Landin'."

The Spanish students are writing themes describing themselves. The Spanish class together with the Drama Club presented plays for the Business and Professional Woman's Club on Monday evening, January 10.

Mr. Stadtmiller's seventh grade class is making maps and studying about imports from Latin America countries.

P. H. S. Out To Exceed Its Record

Having sold nearly $50,000 worth of bonds in the Third War Loan Drive, the local schools have set $110,000 as the price of a Douglas ambulance plane as their Fourth War Loan quota, this plane to be marked with the name of the high school. They are out to exceed their own marvelous record. There will be keen competition among the classes, stimulated by posters and thermometer readings quoting the amount of bonds sold. The public speaking classes taught by Mr. Latture will speak Monday, third hour, January 10, on the need for money to prevent inflation and for after war security.

Bonds will be sold in the morning and at noon at the high school in the class room. Upon buying a bond the buyer will receive a sticker showing that he contributed his bit. The days students are urged to buy these bonds are January 11, 13, 18, 20, and 25.

Plymouth High School has been outstanding in the Third War Loan, and so it is expected that all students will go all out to make this, the Fourth, the best.

Senior Sketches

People who have no sense of humor is Barbara Martin's pet peeve. Barb is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Martin of 9499 South Main street. She has been taking a college preparatory course and plans to join the Nurses Cadet Corps after graduating. Her hobbies are sports and music. She has been a member of the Girl Scouts and Girl Reserves and been on the Annual and Senior Prom committees.

Warren Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Mason of 11304 Arden avenue, Rosedale Gardens, plans either to go to college to study psychology or to join the Navy. People who don't take part in student government and student activities are his pet peeve, while instructing swimming is his hobby. Bud has been pursuing a college preparatory course and has been on the Senior Prom and J-Hop committees, assistant editor of Senior Annual, on the Student Council, and on the tennis team.

To be a social worker is Shirley Luttermoser's ambition. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Luttermoser of 9209 Stark road. Her hobbies are swimming and playing the piano while unmanly boys are her pet peeve. Shirley has been taking a college preparatory course and has been a member of the Girls Double Quartette, Girl Reserves, president senior year, Home Economics Club, Junior J-Hop committee, Junior Play committee, in the Declaration Contest in Speech Activities, has a 1000-point letter, was on NBC Radio Broadcast (School of the Air), Senior Prom Committee, was a Student Council member, in Glee Club, and a Freshman Reception Hostess.

Horse-back riding is the hobby of Dorothy Carley, daughter of Margaret and Raymond Carley of 561 Deer street. Dorothy is following a general course in school and plans to be a telephone operator. She has been in the Junior play, stunt night, and a member of the Girl Reserves. Her pet peeve is braiding hair.

To take up radio or an electrical course in the Navy is the ambition of Wendell Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson of 312 Holbrook avenue. He has been following a business course in school. Wendell has been a member of the football and basketball teams of the Boys' Chorus, and the Student Council. His pet dislikes are liars, conceited people, and Japs.

Bill Bakewell, son of George and Anna Bakewell, lives at 33105 Plymouth road. He has followed a college course and after graduation plans to go to engineering school. Bill's hobbies are collecting airplane photos, reading current news, and skiing. He had the lead in the Junior play, "Ever Since Eve", was treasurer of his sophomore class, took part in the Junior-Senior "Get Together", was on the Prom decorations committee, and was a reporter for the Pilgrim Prints for three semesters. Bill is one person without a pet peeve.

G. R.'s. Write To Boys In Service

The members of the Girl Reserves will attempt to keep up a correspondence with the boys and girls in service who attended Plymouth High School. Each girl will draw by lot one or more names to whom she will write. Marian Miklosky, Audrey Moble, Carolyn Trocke, and Elaine Mahoney who sent the Christmas cards to the boys from the club, have received many answers. Margaret Brown, service chairman, is in charge. Any additional names and addresses turned in to Margaret Brown, Shirley Luttermoser, or Mrs. Lickfeldt will be appreciated by the girls.

All Senior Orders Be In By Jan. 20

All seniors who have not already decided, with their parents assistance, the number of announcements they need, should do so immediately. All orders must be in by January 20 and once placed, can not be changed. Orders may be turned in at Miss Fiegel's room from 8:30 to 9:12:45 to 1; and after school. The announcements are 10 cents each, the printed cards $1.25 a hundred, and the engraved cards from $1.45 to $2.45 a hundred. All announcements and cards are ordered through the "Plymouth Mail." It is requested that seniors consult their parents before ordering. Last year many seniors found their parents wished cards for family friends, and neither new orders nor additions to old ones could be placed.

Odds and Ends

Dave Johnson got scarlet fever the day before Christmas and will not return to school for at least four weeks. While he was quarantined and had to stay in bed, he wrote the following poem and dedicated it to Dr. A. C. Williams, his physician.

'Twas the night before Christmas and I was all red,
My mother hurried 'round and put me to bed.
My temperature was taken and she combed my matted hair,
I hoped that the doctor soon would be there!

I was all nestled so hot in my bed while visions of ice water danced in my head.
My sisters were worried—did Mother believe
They'd be quarantined 'til New Year's Eve?

Down at the front door there arose such a clatter
But I couldn't get up to see what was the matter.
They talked in such low tones my teeth I did gnash!
Was it the doctor to examine my rash?

The doctor was coming to, make me all hep,
When what to my wondering eyes should appear
But a little black bag and a face full of cheer.
He hallowed and waved and called me by name.

To be sick at this season is certainly a shame!
A wink of his eye and a twist of his head
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.
He spoke a few words and went straight to his work,
To the business of examining this poor dumb jerk!

Flashing a tiny light across my red chest
He pronounced all I needed was six weeks' rest.
He jumped in his Packard and away then he flew,
Shouting as he went
"Merry Christmas to You."
—By Dave Johnson: '44.

Math And The War

Both trigonometry, and solid geometry will be taught next semester. Trigonometry was added so that boys leaving for the service would have a chance to take it. Miss Todd asks that all students who are planning to take trigonometry should have advanced algebra. Some exceptions may be made for students who had an A or B average in primary algebra.

All pilots, navigators, bombardiers, and many members of ground crews must have a knowledge of trigonometry. War plants and many other plants are looking for workers with an understanding of higher mathematics. Jobs are open for both men and women with the proper mathematical education.

New System For Librarians

Miss Gravelle has put her student librarians on a percentage basis in determining their monthly grades. These students are marked on four separate items:

2. The number of books they put away each day.
3. The test grade.
4. Extras and their duties.

Respect Is Not Rationed

In these days of war needs, all of us are called upon to make sacrifices—to do without the things we would consider indispensable in normal times. In serving our friends we try to make sure that such sacrifices involve only material things—not matters of the inner spirit. Respect is not rationed nor is the amount of considerate attention we give to every service—regardless of the material values involved.

William Ray, a former resident of Plymouth, now living in Spokane, Washington, was a brief visitor in his old home city last week.

He states that Spokane is one of the busiest cities in the country, that the development of large military camps in that section has resulted in an immense influx of people.

The trains are crowded. When they tell you to take your lunches with you on a trip, you had better do so. The last day on the trip before we reached Chicago, it was impossible to get into the dining car.

Rocks Win First Game 35-17

Having suffered four defeats, Plymouth came back in its fifth game to win from Wayne by a score of 35-17 Friday evening at Plymouth.

Rienas was high scorer with 16 points, almost half of all the Rocks won; Hunt was next with 7; Brink and Moers followed with 5 each.

Captain Bill Bennett opened the game dropping the first three points, the only ones he made.

The first half was very fast, with Brink and Hunt stopping most attempts to score and Rienas and Hunt doing most of the scoring.

Rienas netted the ball five times in the first half for ten points, more points than any player on either team made in the complete game.

In the first half for Wayne, Moers and Leppala were the only players to get a field goal; the remainder of their seven points came from free shots.

The score at the half was Plymouth 21, Wayne 7. In the next half the Wayne boys came back with plenty of fire and pep and were able to bring their score from one-third of the Rocks score to one half, and there it stayed for the remainder of the game.

Rienas still carried the flag, scoring six more points and Brink followed with four more. Demaltick, a substitute for Wayne, in the last quarter scored three points for the opposition.

The game ended, Plymouth 35, Wayne 17. This was Plymouth's fifth game; the first four were defeats. Wayne has lost five games.

Young Rocks Lose To Wayne 22-29

Starting slowly in the first and second half, the Plymouth second team lost to Wayne 22-29 Friday night at Plymouth.

Gladstone, playing a one-man game against the Rocks, scored as many points as the complete local team. Bob Hall was the Plymouth high scorer in the first half with four points; Gladstone and McClary were Wayne's top men with nine and four respectively.

The score at the half was Plymouth nine, Wayne thirteen. In the second half the Rocks showed new spark, Ducky Olds scoring five points and Tom Robertson dropping six points.

McClary and Smith each netted four points for Wayne. The Wayne boys never allowed Plymouth a chance to close the score.

Gladstone was high scorer with eleven points, McClary next with eight, Olds third with the score of seven.

The game ended with the score showing twenty-two points for Plymouth and twenty-nine points for the Visitors.

Rocks Drop To Baldwin 46-32

(Omitted From Last Week) Birmingham, scoring two points to Plymouth's one in the first half, won by a score of 46 to 32 Tuesday evening at Plymouth.

The Rocks were stopped for the first half when Boomer, Little, and Larsen scored 19 points among them and the whole Rock team was able to score only thirteen points in the first half.

George Newton, the first Plymouth "hot box," in the first half was able to drop two long shots and two free throws to score half of the points made in the first half. The score at the half was 26 to 13 in favor of Birmingham.

The last periods were very nearly an even match with twenty points scored for Birmingham and nineteen for Plymouth. Kelley of Birmingham scored eight points in the half to become high scorer with 13 points; Larsen and Little were next with 11; and Rienas of Plymouth followed with nine points. The game ended 46 to 32.

This was the fourth time the Rocks have lost this season, twice to Birmingham.

Reserves Lose 22-19 To Baldwin

(Omitted From Last Week) The Rocks Reserve trailed the floor pounding the Birmingham team and losing 22-19 at Plymouth Tuesday evening.

The first half was an even battle with "Ducky" Olds and Bobby Brink dropping all but two of the local's points. Bergess and Wanberg did all right for Birmingham, scoring half of their team's points. The score at the half was Birmingham 14 and Plymouth 12.

George Danic with his innocent poker face stole not only the show but the ball in many cases. Little Bobby Brink, silently slipped scores for Plymouth throughout the game. Bergess and Little scored all but one of the points for Birmingham in the second half.

The local boys were leading at the end of the third quarter by 20-19, the only time in the game when they were able to carry the lead.

High scores were Brink and Bergess with eight points each; next was Olds with six and Little with five.

The final score was Birmingham 22 and Plymouth 19.

SOLDIER SENDS SYMPATHY TO HUNTER FAMILY

The following letter came to the Mail office this week from Sgt. Francis J. Pott stationed at the Base Weather Station, Baer Field, Fort Wayne, Indiana: "I wish to express my deepest sympathy for the brave Hunter family on the grave news I have read in the last issue of the Plymouth Mail."

"Don was one of my closest pals. We chummed together from the eighth through the twelfth grades. We were in the same scout troop and never once had our friendship ended up in a quarrel.

"May I join with the people in Plymouth by expressing my deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Hunter on such a tragic event?"

"Let us not forget that he and the rest of the Plymouth lads lost in battle have not given their lives in vain. Let us keep in our hearts a warm remembrance for the cause for which they have fought."

★ ★ ★ VIEWS LONDON WHILE ON PASS RECENTLY

"Safe and sound, well and very happy" are the descriptive words which Forbes Smith used when he wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Smith, from England recently. He stated that he had been to London on a pass and "liked it very much."

"Have learned a lot here and will keep on, but I haven't run across anybody from home—may in the near future. I am still working in engineering, the same as always. Haven't as yet received any mail from you since coming back, but hope pretty soon to get your letters and the Plymouth Mail which I wish to thank Mr. Eaton for sending me."

"Have you heard from Emerson Robinson lately? Hope he is o.k. Tell his mother to write me and give the addresses of her relatives and can probably see them for her. Give everybody my address—would like to hear from them."

"Am going to Scotland in January on my furlough. It is beautiful there, as I have flown over it, but never had a chance to get on the ground. Will send you some pictures. Write when you get a chance. Happy New Year to everybody."

I have never heard anything about the resolutions of the apostles, but a great deal about their acts.—Horace Mann.

Grange Installs New Officers

M. J. Swegles Is New Master

Members of the Plymouth Grange held their regular meeting at the Grange hall last Thursday evening, and following the pot-luck supper, new officers were installed.

They are Master, Maliew J. Swegles; overseer, John Hawk; lecturer, Vivian Swegles; assistant steward, Ted Dent; chaplain, Della Hawk; treasurer, Henry Ehrensberger; secretary, Elsie Ehrensberger; gate keeper, Harry DeBar; Ceres, Rosa DeBar; Pomona, Stella Mettetal; Flora, Lavinia Cole; lady assistant steward, Sallie Dent; piano, Emma Gates.

Samuel Spicer, installing officer, was assisted by Mrs. Alma Spicer. A pleasing program of entertainment followed the installation, a recitation by Mrs.

Townsend Club To Celebrate

Plymouth members and friends of the Townsend club will celebrate the 77th birthday of Dr. Townsend at their regular meeting Monday night in Grange hall. The session will begin at 8 o'clock. Cards and other entertainment will be enjoyed.

EASTERN STAR NOTES

Officers practice, January 17. Special meeting, January 18 opening at 4:30 with a covered dish dinner at 6:30, convening again at 8 o'clock.

Thirty-three members attended the school of instruction held last Friday evening in Northville and conducted by Worthy Grand Matron, Viola Gram.

Amy Northrup, and a vocal solo by Ray Mettetal were greatly enjoyed.

Grange members were pleased to have Private Jess Tritton who is stationed at Camp Fort Lewis in Washington, with them during the evening. He was home on a 15 day furlough.

Use Of Plymouth Library Grows By Leaps And Bounds

The people of Plymouth are using the facilities of the Plymouth Branch of the Wayne County Library to a greater extent than ever before, but Mrs. Ada Murray, the librarian says tastes in literature change with the changing conditions.

At the moment, there is an ever increasing demand on the library for reference information, and all types of books concerning the war.

School students make up about half of the demands on the library, but among the adult population the increase in desire for information is noticeable.

Fiction, of course, occupies the principal demand on the library, and poetry and essays are least in demand.

The library here maintains about five or six thousand volumes, but all of the facilities of the Wayne County Library system, and all of the facilities of the Detroit public library are available to the local branch.

There are now close to 3,000 patrons, who use the facilities of the Plymouth branch.

Fathers To Cook For Next Session Of Starkweather PTA

The next meeting of the Starkweather Parent Teachers Association will be held on Thursday evening, January 20, will be conducted by the fathers in the Association.

There are prospects of a "gay evening" of special dances, singing, and old time square dances. The meeting will be held in the Starkweather school auditorium and will start at 7:30 o'clock.

Refreshments will be served by some of the "cooking" fathers—but the inside dope is, however, that mothers will have to wash the dishes.

All parent members of the association are urged to attend.

Dog Poisoner Is Still At Large

Although the Plymouth police have been unable to trace the person who placed poison where at least nine dogs could get it, there have been no more poisonings reported since last week, and the police now believe the culprit has been sufficiently scared to prevent any further such depredations.

Luncheon Club Speaker Jailed

Accused Of Being Jap Propagandist

When Arthur C. Read lived in South Lyon, he was noted for his refusal to work, but South Lyon never dreamed that he would some day achieve a national reputation because of Federal Bureau of Investigation charges that he served and was paid as an agent of the Japanese government.

But when he lectured here in Plymouth in late 1940 before the Kiwanis club, the people of Plymouth refused to fall for his line of gaff.

In his lecture, which he delivered throughout Wayne county, he praised the Japs and deprecated the Chinese. He fostered and urged a better understanding of the slant-eyed Sons of Heaven or Hell.

Read was arrested in New York last week where he had been on furlough for the army in the Carolinas, where he is serving as a corporal.

His career from birth to the present is more or less speckled with this and that. He was born at New Hudson, Michigan, and was adopted soon afterward by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Read, now well-respected retired farmers.

He attended high school at South Lyon. He was known as a brilliant boy at times, but there were other times, according to South Lyons residents, when he was downright dull. He never worked if he could get out of it.

He joined the army soon after graduation from high school, and was sent to the Philippines, where his meteoric career began. When he finally resigned from the army, he was a second lieutenant, and next was heard of in China, where he was an advisor or a general or some other high sounding personage.

He married a Russian girl at the time, who when questioned in Detroit declared him to be a selfish, conceited brat, but she thought he was not the agent of the Japanese government. South Lyon residents can't recall either that he was particularly vociferous in his shoutings for the Japs when he returned from the Orient. Rather he seemed to be telling stories just as tourists might tell them, but the FBI just doesn't make mistakes.

Committee To Serve For City

To Assist, Not Direct, Youth "Hangout"

(Omitted From Last Week)

The kids of Plymouth are going to have their hangout.

The high school youngsters, who sat back and watched their elders try and fail to provide a recreation program for them, decided among themselves what they would do, and with a little help in the right places they have exactly what they asked for.

The hangout will offer entertainment of the type the kids themselves want, and they will run it to suit themselves so long as they stay within the bounds of propriety.

The manner in which the kids obtained the hangout is long and complicated, and in some cases a bit obscure, but the best information brings out the following:

Four girls circulated a petition only to show that such a place as "The Hangout" is needed. The petition was circulated by Florence Konazski, Shirley Hokenson, Margery Stitt and Jean Strachan.

Three hundred and sixty-nine high school youngsters signed the petition, which was handed to The Plymouth Mail, which in turn submitted the petition to Stanley Corbett, a member of the city commission.

Entirely on his own, Mr. Corbett moved quietly among the business men of the city, and determined to his own satisfaction that private support for such a project could be obtained, and even secured pledges for it.

But meanwhile, the youngsters themselves took some action. A committee composed of Harold Todd, Robert Deyo, Jeanet Strachan and Jane Ann Lyons appeared before the city commission, and explained that what they want is a place, where, so to speak, they can let their hair down and do as they please; some place which would be theirs; some place they could run to suit themselves—within of course the bounds of propriety.

On Mr. Corbett's motion, the city commission allotted $20 a week to underwrite the project. They intend to install a juke box, a soft drink bar, and sufficient other equipment to make the place what they want it to be.

A committee has been formed to start the place off. Under present plans, it will operate from 4 to 6 in the afternoon, and will be open to those high school youngsters who contribute to its support. The actual details of whether it will be club membership and a few other things like that have not been decided.

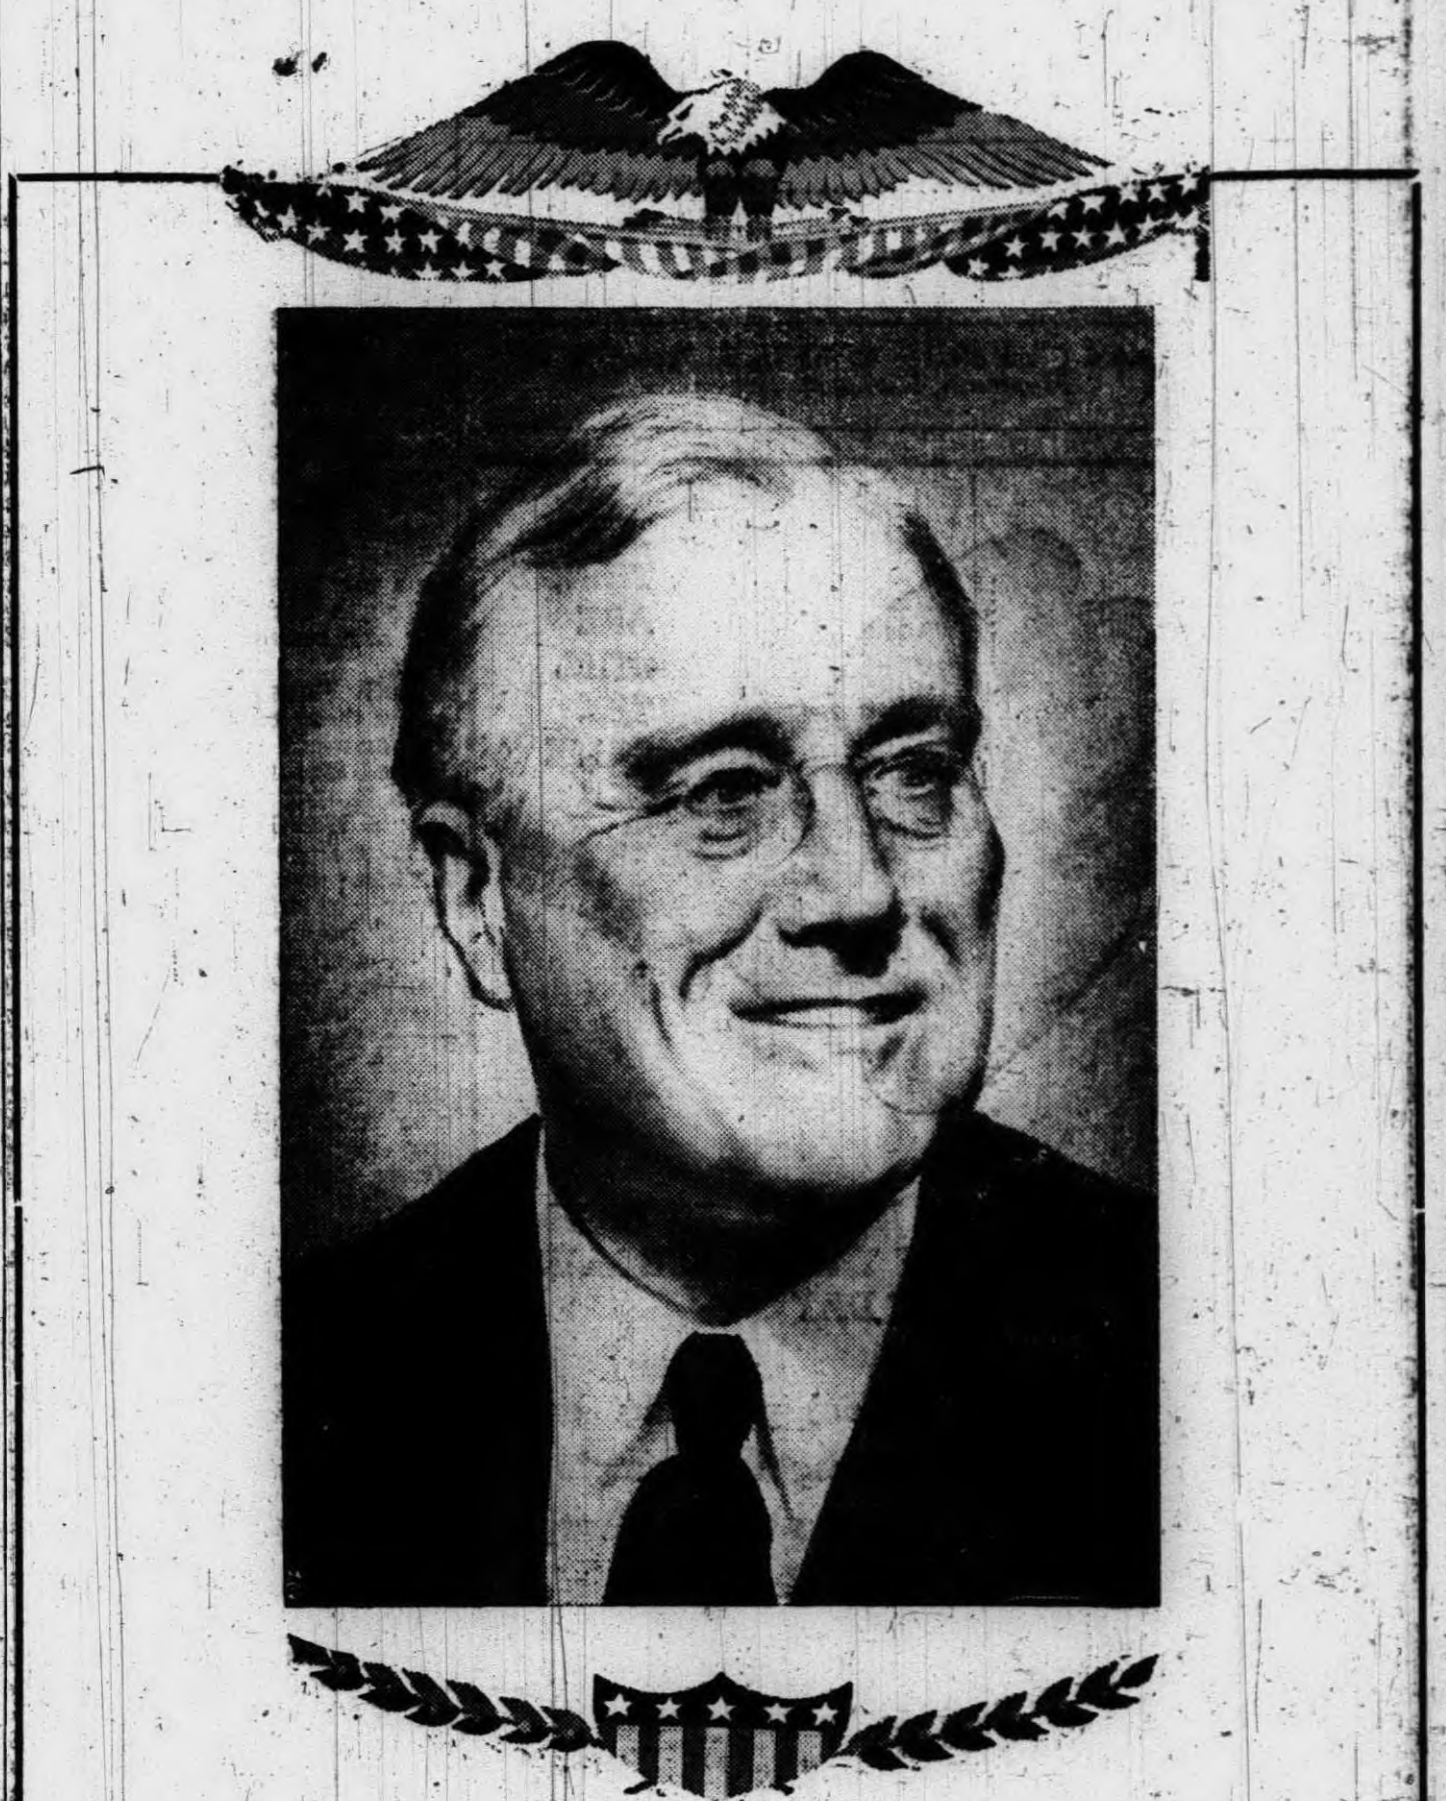

It hasn't even been decided how the place will be chaperoned, but of course whenever the hangout is open, there must be some older person there. The general idea is that one or two or three mothers, or other adults sympathetic to the youngsters will be in attendance.

But the kids are going to run it. It will belong to them, and of course if it ever gets to be self supporting, the city contribution will be dropped.

Mayor Carl Shear appointed a committee composed of Commissioners Corbett and Lewis and City Manager Clarence Elliott, who will oversee the city's funds, and act as a sort of link between the kids and the city commission, but it is the intention of Mayor Shear that the city, nor none of its officers, shall have any part in the actual management of the place.

The kids started the whole idea. They have expressed a desire to operate it themselves, and now the elders are expected to sit back and let them do it.

He Asks Us to Join Him In Fighting the Ravages of Infantile Paralysis

Each year thousands of young Americans who started in life perfectly normal—are crippled by the dread disease infantile paralysis. It takes long months, sometimes years, for them to sufficiently win in battling this disease, so that they have the use of their limbs. One great institution in our land is dedicated to helping infantile paralysis sufferers. It is the Warm Springs Foundation in Georgia, which needs your help to carry on its great work. If someone you love should ever be stricken by this consuming disease—then only could you truly know how vital it is that each of us enlist in the March of Dimes!

A Voice From Overseas Speaks to the World in Behalf of Bleeding, Dying Soldiers and Sailors Reprinted from The Muncie, Ind., Press and The United States News of Washington, D. C.

(Somewhere aboard a warship in the South Pacific a sailor wrote to his home-town paper expressing his reaction and that of many of his shipmates to the strikes going on in America.

The writer was Kenneth (Irish) Walsh, and he wrote to the editor of The Muncie (Ind.) Evening Press. Along with the article came a letter telling how the sailor came to write it. His ship had put in at an island port and he attended a movie in the heart of the jungle. During the program it rained, "but not a single man left his seat to find shelter, for entertainment is a rare thing in these parts." A newsreel showed pictures of the coal strike back home. The men cursed bitterly. Young Walsh went back to his ship and did something he had never done before—he tried "to put on paper the whirling thoughts that came to mind." He said:

"I should like very much to convey my feelings and those of the thousands upon thousands of service men on this same subject to the ones back home."

The article is reproduced in full below. (David Lawrence)

By Kenneth (Irish) Walsh

I want to show you a bit of hallowed ground—it is the Arlington Cemetery of the South Pacific; it is the Valhalla of American service men. I'm going to show you this bit of ground, but it will be done the hard way. Come with me up Seakark Channel on that dawn of Aug. 7, 1942. The feeling of living in a vacuum tells you that this is the thing that these men have waited for so long. Like actors that have rehearsed well their lines, the marines and sailors stand there in the hush of the opening curtain.

Yes, Mr. Striker, I want you to stand at the rail with these men, nerves drawn as taut as a violin string—mouth dry, eyes strained to the breaking point, breath coming in short gasps of fear—that awful feeling of nothingness in the pit of your stomach. The objective comes into view, the step has come for these men to step out on the stage, and they know full well that death plays the leading role in this theater. There they go over the side of the big transport, Tom Jones, Dick Brown, Harry Smith; hand-over-hand they crawl down the cargo nets into their small craft that is to take them to a rendezvous with that death. You know it's death—it is in the destiny of these men. An attempt at a small joke, a few scattered laughs, as the small craft pull away from the protection of the mother ship.

The first objective is reached—the coconut grove at the water's edge. Men ate down never to rise again, but like some great tidal wave, other men move up to take the places of the fallen. The main objective is an airfield beyond that fringe of coconut trees, and as though God Himself has pulled the curtain on this brutal stage, their movements become vague and finally obliterated and these movements become lost to you. The uncertainty, the utter feeling of helplessness leaves the element of time suspended in the hellish hot sun of the tropics.

Close your eyes, Mr. Defense Plant Worker, close them tight; it is another day, in another month; your hands are gripping another rail, the inevitable coconut tree rail that separates the living from the dead in these areas of war. You can open your eyes now, Mr. Coal Miner, open them wide. Yes, the seeds that have been planted have grown into bloom; the bloom is the row upon row of white crosses that meet the eye. These men have paid the price in full "for just seven small acres of ground, but seven of the most important acres of ground ever owned by Uncle Sam. Restful, isn't it? peaceful and quiet—yes, quiet with eternal peace. Read the epitaphs, Mr. Labor Leader, they tell a story in themselves—America, the Land of the Free. One sees the Star of David beside a pair of rosy beads owned by some Lithuanian. A captain of marines and a colored boy from Georgia sleep side-by-side—a lieutenant from Indiana, a sailor from North Dakota, an aviator from Ohio, from here, from there, from every star in the flag, a cross in the ground. Tom Jones, Dick Brown, Harry Smith. It's their home now, some 7,000 miles from home. These men were making $50 a month, Mr. Striker, $50 a month, room and board.

Mr. John L. Lewis, look up into the misty blue of yon mountain top that frames this cemetery. Is that a vision I see? Is that the murmuring of the trade winds, or is it some message. He is trying to convey to you and yours? I believe I hear it, I think it is a message, and the murmuring seems to say, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

"For the want of the nail the shoe was lost, for the want of the shoe the horse was lost, for the want of the horse we got some news out here the other day, Mr. Labor Leader, the kind of news that hurts, the kind of news that makes a man wonder if this thing is worth the price. 'No! Not in money, Mr. Defense Worker, but in something that you seem to have lost."

When you were a kid you studied about the American heritage of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Read it again and then again; study it; delve back into the pages of American history and show me anything in the American creed of living that will justify your wartime strikes. Come out here with us in these South Pacific waters and stay a while. Eat our chow, sleep in our sacks, watch us work, help us fight these jungle flies, help us kill dangerous, malaria-bearing mosquitoes. Walk with us through the mud and the slime of the swamps of these jungle islands; walk with us in the sweltering, sultry, steamy heat of a noon-day sun. There isn't any air-conditioning out here, Mr. C.I.O., and there isn't any way you can strike for it, either. You haven't even the time to think about it.

Come with me to the bridge over the jungle river. I want you to see someone who would make you ashamed of that extra $0 cents an hour you get in your pay envelope. He's just a 17-year-old kid that the brass hats put on duty at this infrequent bridge for the simple reason that he isn't sure of himself any more. Did I hear you ask what's wrong with him? He was on a destroyer that took three "fish" amidships and blew up. Mr. Twenty-Dollars-a-Day-Man, his brother was on that ship, here were some of his few survivors from a crew of 300, and his brother was not among them. He's plainly shell-shocked. Talk to him a while, watch him; he'll break your heart, man, if you have one. Did you ask how much money he makes—$50 a month, Mr. Welder, $50 a month, room and board.

Here's a guy I want you to meet, a left-handed marine. What's so remarkable about that? I should make myself clear. He's learning to be a left-handed marine. A Jap slashed off his right hand at the wrist as he was climbing out of a fox hole on Guadalcanal. He is making $50 a month, room and board. His room, since last August, has been a stink, muddy hole, and his board has been canned untasty food—when he has time to eat it. Ask him how near-sighted the Japs are reputed to be. He'll tell you that in a morning check-up no less than 25 of his buddies were found dead at their posts, shot through the head, Mr. Slacker. Found 7,000 miles from home in God-forsaken hole in a God-forsaken bit of land. Now, very nice to hear about it, is that? But it's the brutal truth. Think about it the next time you sit over a big steak dinner in your comfortable home.

See that boy sitting over there on that hatch cover. Mr. A. F. of L.? He's only 22—just a boy, maybe the one that lived down the street from you. He looks down in the mouth, doesn't he? Why shouldn't he? Some time this week his wife is going to have a baby, but he's not going to be there when it happens. He has to stay out here for the duration. Don't you suppose he is thinking something like this: "1945—now if this damn thing is over by then my kid will be almost three years old. Hell, I'll be a stranger, not only to my kid but the wife will hardly know me any more. But one thing about it, the Government will give me an extra 12 a month for the little shaver. Wonder if it's a boy or a girl; hope it's a boy. I wonder if my wife is well. Please, God, she doesn't die—she can't die—I've got to get home." Fifty dollars a month, Mr. Coal Miner, $50 a month, room and board.

What are you going to do, Mr. Railroad, when the eerie sound of the air raid siren sends out its warning cry over Los Angeles, Frisco, Seattle, Middletown, Peoria—the small and the large, they're all bomb sights. These eggs the Japs lay weigh 500 pounds apiece. Be sure one isn't laid in your front yard—your children may be out there. What are you going to send up in the sky, Mr. Striker, to fight off those madmen from Japan—dollar bills? Don't think it can't happen over these.

A ship is bringing in a cargo today that you might be interested in, a cargo of human suffering. Come down to the quay with me and witness the transition of young America. Yes, there is the familiar little locomotive and her white-painted coaches, each carrying the red cross of mercy on its side. She is here to take way these human derelicts, it's an old story to her. A little to the left of the train is a great army band standing rigidly at attention. The big hospital ship slowly comes into her berth and as the ground crew makes her fast to the wharf, one hears the band softly playing the music these men loved so well. "My Old Kentucky Home," "Beautiful Ohio," "On the Banks of the Wabash."

The men on the wharf become tense, the music has a sound to it that is of the infinite as all eyes are strained toward the slowly descending gangway. The first man of these thousands of battered troops tortuously feels his way to the ground the band strikes up the "Star Spangled Banner" as soldier after soldier follows in his wake.

But what is this? What is wrong? These men have to be led! They aren't sure of themselves as they stumble and fumble their way down to Mother Earth. Mr. John L. Lewis, look into eyes that are open, but see not. Watch lips that move, but say nothing. Look at the stumps dangling from their bodies that once were arms and legs. Look into the souls of these shell-shocked, fear-ridden, malaria-sick men that are not men but sacks of skin and bones. Nerves gone, minds temporarily deranged, bodies numb from being stretched on the searing, tearing rack named war.

Yes, Mr. C.I.O., these men that are no longer men, have paid part of the price with their arms and their legs, their eyes, their nerves—but stay awhile, don't leave me now! Do you hear the bugle in the far distance blowing taps, it has an unearthly sound and it is for the unearthly that it is being played. The band in an undertone plays on and one hears their music as though they were playing in a thick, foggy fog. The big boom on the hospital ship swings downward and picks up the last of her cargo—the wicker baskets of the dead. Look around you, man. Those are tears you set in the eyes of these hard-bitten veterans, they who have just witnessed a scene from God's greatest of plays, "Life and Death." The baskets are lowered to the cold concrete of the dock and draped with the flag—that they gave their lives for. Their work is done, men and women like you and I can live and worship and talk in the peace and assembly of an American people united.

Babson Says - -

Churchill Is Now Roosevelt's Political Adviser

Babson Park, Mass., Jan. 14.—I am much interested in President Roosevelt's plea that we forget the "New Deal" until after election next November. The general belief is that he is saying this at the urgent demands of certain Southern and other Democrats who fear defeat. My hunch is that Winston Churchill has begged him to change his tune. Churchill is tremendously anxious for Roosevelt's reelection to a Fourth Term and has been giving him some good economic advice.

Both Roosevelt and Churchill know there may be a terrific unemployment problem both in the United States and throughout the British Commonwealth after World War II. Churchill argues that the governments of these nations cannot then continue their present "middle-of-the-road" policy of trying to please both leftists and rightists. He believes that the returning soldiers will insist upon employment, but that to give such means either taking the present shackles off employers and investors, or else following Russia and making our industries state-owned. There can be no half-way compromise.

Naturally, President Roosevelt does not like such advice; but he has great confidence in Churchill. Roosevelt is a great compromiser and has hoped to bring us out of postwar unemployment by continuing to play to employers, labor leaders and consumers. Churchill, however, insists that such a course is suicidal. Apparently, Roosevelt is, at the moment, taking Churchill's advice; but whether Roosevelt will continue to do so after November sixth is a different question.

Another factor bothering the New Dealers is the desire of both the drafted and enlisted men to get back to their homes and their old jobs at the earliest possible moment after Germany and/or Japan collapses. None of our men want to remain abroad to police the world. Furthermore, Roosevelt naturally is fearful of leaving the policing job to Great Britain and Russia to do. Hence, it looks just now as if "policing-the-world" is out of the window and that the Washington bureaucrats will have to provide jobs at home in the United States for the 1,000,000 men they have been planning to leave abroad.

Here is another reason that is knocking this "policing-the-world" idea sky-high. The only thing necessary to prevent Germany, Japan and Italy from rearming is to ration the amount of iron, coal, oil and other essential raw materials which these countries must import in order to rearm. This cannot be accomplished by treaties or agreements as such would develop great international bootlegging enterprises which would surely lead to another war. Hence, the only practical means of rationing these raw materials would be to police Sweden, France, Arabia, Brazil and other neutral nations. In other words, the victorious nations need policing instead of the vanquished nations!

My own guess is that Russia will dominate and protect all East of Germany; while England will dominate and protect all West of Germany and that both England and Russia will have free access to the North Atlantic, to the Mediterranean and to the Indian Ocean. Through agreeing to protect Holland, Belgium and France, England will indirectly get control of the Dutch East Indies and the African Colonies of Belgium and France. The United States will get nothing but the privilege of paying the bills!

I do not feel badly to have the above happen. It may be best in the long run for us to leave the Eastern Hemisphere to Russia and the British Commonwealth with one proviso: This is that we insist on free and open markets in Asia, Africa and South America for our products. To the extent these markets are necessary to keep our people employed, they must never be shut against us. Secretary Hull has the right solution for the postwar employment problem.

The greatest statesman in the United States is Cordell Hull. He alone holds the key both to world peace and postwar employment. I wish he might be elected President in November. Otherwise, if Mr. Roosevelt insists upon running, perhaps Mr. Hull would consider being Vice President AND Secretary of State. There is no reason why he could not hold both offices. Then, whether Roosevelt resigned or continued in office, the country would be safe so long as Secretary Hull is at the helm.

P. S. Readers are asking, "What are the chances of government ownership of the railroads after the War?" My answer is that most investors would probably welcome it, but the decision will rest with organized labor. I don't know what labor will want.

News items of a quarter of a century ago taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail.

Sheriff Coffin has appointed George W. Springer deputy sheriff of Plymouth township. Mr. Springer assuming the oath of office Tuesday. Officer Springer's appointment meets with general satisfaction throughout the village and township.

Although the attendance was not as large as so high class an attraction deserved, the folks who heard the Saxophone Sextette at the auditorium last Friday evening were well entertained. The entertainment was a part of the Citizens' Entertainment Course scheduled for the winter months. The usual January sales of merchandise were already in progress in the city.

Howard Burden wrote his parents from the Base Hospital at Camp Joseph E. Johnston, Florida, that he had been promoted to sergeant.

F. L. Becker has purchased the residence of Frank Loomis on Dece street and expects to move to the village soon.

Mrs. M. M. Willitt attended the birthday dinner of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Eckles at East Plymouth Monday.

John Dethloff and family have moved into their new home at Livonia Center.

Charles Merritt is driving a dandy new Ford truck.

Mrs. J. D. McLaren has returned home from a week's visit with relatives in Saginaw.

The sewing department of the Plymouth Branch of the Red Cross has been a busy place during the past week. Plymouth has been asked to make 300 refugee garments by the 28th of the month and there is still a great deal of work to do.

Mrs. Charles Olds visited her daughter, Mrs. Earl Stevens, at Ypsilanti last week.

Miss Hildred Baehr, who has been quite ill with bronchitis at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. T. Bridge, is able to be out again. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Gates of Newburg are the parents of a son born Tuesday morning, January 7th.

The Rengert family reunion was held New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Keller of Ypsilanti. Twenty guests were present including the grandparents, children, and grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Herrick and daughter, Grace, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Will Eckles and helped her celebrate her birthday.

Now we have HOMOGENIZED VITAMIN D MILK

THIS new Homogenized Vitamin D milk is our regular grade of milk... made more nutritious by the addition of Vitamin D (activated ergosterol) and homogenized.

Homogenization breaks up the fat globules, distributes the butter fat evenly throughout the whole bottle of milk... giving every ounce... every sip... an equal share of cream. This means that everyone drinking this milk gets his or her share of the valuable butterfat.

Vitamin D is essential to the proper development of bone and teeth in persons of all ages. It is found in very few foods and is almost non-existent in the daily diet. Now, in Homogenized A.R.P.L. Process Vitamin D milk, you have 400 U.S.P. units of Vitamin D in every quart! Growing children need not less than one quart per day. Expectant and nursing mothers the same. Others at least a pint a day. Serve our Homogenized Vitamin D milk at every meal.

A BIGGER FOOD VALUE — FOR ALL THE FAMILY

VICTORY'S SONS

HEREVER there's tough fighting, Lt. General George S. Patton will be in the midst of it. He goes out with his men, and often ahead of them. He prefers to bounce along in a tank, rather than ride in a limousine. In the invasion of Sicily, he scrambled down the rape nets with the advance units. In the Mexican campaign of 1916, in France in '17 and '18, in North Africa in this war, this brilliant tough leader proved that he is not called "Blood and Guts" for nothing.

His latest award is the Oak Leaf Cluster, which is added to the Distinguished Service Medal he already holds. The citation reads: "For exceptionally meritorious service in a duty of great responsibility. General Patton, commander of the Western Task Force, was responsible for the planning and execution of the attacks on French Morocco... His driving force and vigor... resulted in the maximum dash and offensive spirit... which contributed greatly to the early overcoming of opposition and the surrender of the opposing forces."

Overcoming the opposition and making the opposing forces surrender in a hurry—that's Gen. Patton's idea of war!

Save electricity to save coal!

OUT FOR LUNCH

The government asks the utmost conservation of electricity to save coal, manpower, transportation and critical war resources. Turning off your office lights for an hour at lunchtime may not seem like much of a saving. But one or two lights in thousands of offices, turned off one hour a day, will save in a year thousands of tons of coal vitally needed today.

Electricity is not rationed and there is no shortage of electric power in this area. The Government asks you to reduce your use VOLUNTARILY as part of the national conservation program. Save electricity whenever and wherever you can—in store and office and home. The Detroit Edison Company.
