What I Think and Have a Right to Say

By Evan R. Eaton

PLYMOUTH PAYS DEARLY

We are astounded by the rapidity with which the names of Plymouth boys are being added to our casualty list—a list of names of Plymouth boys and young men who have made the supreme sacrifice for the preservation of OUR America.

Last week we added the name of Wesley Hoffman. This week we have added the name of Major "Jack" Dalton, raising the total number of boys from Plymouth and vicinity who have given their lives so that we might live in peace to the amazing total of 25. That far exceeds the total number of Plymouth boys who were killed during the Civil, Spanish and first World wars. We doubt if any other city in Michigan of our size has paid such a terrific price to help free the world from dictatorship. And our greatest fear is that there will be many more names added to our losses before victory has been finally won. Certainly it behooves every one of us at home to turn heaven and earth in our efforts to help win this war as quickly as we can, to win a smashing victory. The quicker we can bring this thing to an end, the more lives of OUR BOYS will be saved.

HARD TO BELIEVE

Newspaper dispatches from Akron, Ohio, state that the government is about to begin an investigation into why there is such a serious tire shortage. The assertion is made that the trouble lies in the fact that the union officials have fixed such a low schedule of production that the demands of the army cannot be met. While OUR BOYS are being killed by the thousands on every fighting front, it is simply impossible to believe that union officials would impose production regulations that would in any way hamper our war effort. It is hard to believe, but army officials declare the tire shortage is seriously endangering our prospects of an early victory. Among the tire workers in Akron, it is reported that there are thousands upon thousands of young men within the draft age who are deferred because of their occupation. We hope the government investigators go to the bottom of this thing.

"WE REPUBLICANS ENDORSE"

"We, the members of the Republican party of Michigan, in convention, endorse without mental reservations or any hesitation whatsoever, Eleanor Roosevelt's 'My Day' column, the re-election of Franklin D. Roosevelt as president of these United States for another 12 years and the perpetuation of the bureaucratic form of government until we are destroyed by bureaucratic rule."

FALL ELECTION PROSPECTS

Spent a day or so up at Republican state convention last week. It has been many a year since the writer has heard so much optimistic talk. In many counties in the state, the New Dealers have not even nominated county tickets, so hopeless do they look upon the forthcoming election. At the convention mention of the name of Thomas Dewey got twice as much cheering as that of any other person. Especially emphatic were farmer-delegates in their declarations that the time has come to end the confusion that has turned the nation into a near mad-house. Some were present who frankly stated that they had voted for the present President when he first ran. But never again, they say now.

"FREEDOM FROM OPA"

Up in St. Ignace, the home town of the author of the law creating the Office of Price Administration, there hangs on the wall one of the main eating places of the town one of Rockwell Kent's paintings of "Freedom From Fear." Some one has changed the wording to read "Freedom From OPA."

GERALD L. K. AGAIN

It is heartening, indeed, to note the straight, hard-hitting punches delivered by Governor Thomas Dewey and Governor Bricker at Double-Dipper Gerald L. K. Smith. The slick collection plate rattler who messed up a Michigan primary election two years ago, the other day insulted Bricker by placing on his (Smith's) money political ticket, Gov. Bricker as Gerald L. K.'s candidate for vice president.

The collection plate rattler had named himself as candidate for president—in our mind not much more than a deliberate insult to the office.

WAC Recruiting Campaign Is Being Organized

Mrs. Milton Laible, recently appointed by Mayor Stanley Corbett as chairman of the WAC recruiting committee for Plymouth and vicinity, attended a meeting of all recruiting chairmen in Wayne county, held last Wednesday in the Rookham building in Detroit. At this session, plans were discussed for the intensive recruiting campaign to be conducted in Wayne county.

M. L. Greer, executive secretary of the Wayne county council of defense, presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers, Captain Donald S. Leonard, state director of the O. C. D. and Henry Lohr, state plant protection officer for O.C.D.

They stressed the need of civilian co-operation in this vitally important WAC recruiting program, and outlined the qualifications for enrollment, the benefits they receive and the services they perform.

They explained that WACS can choose from 239 possible branches of the service, varying from highly trained technical jobs to routine work that even an untrained girl can soon learn to do easily and efficiently. They told, also, of the training WACS receive and of the officer's training course which they may apply for three months after enrolling.

Lieutenant Muncy and Lieutenant Madigren of the WACS, gave a short resume of their experiences in the service, and told of the many WACS who are serving with our armed forces in every theater of war.

Mrs. Milton Laible becomes one of a permanent committee that will meet once a month to discuss the progress made and the problems encountered in the recruiting program.

In the near future she will appoint a committee to work with her, and members of it will acquaint themselves with every phase of the WAC program. While the committee has not yet selected its headquarters, it plans to establish a booth in some centrally located spot, where members can aid prospective enrollees in making their applications.

Fix Date For Flower Show

The Women's National Flower and Garden Association will hold Thursday, August 24, at the Plymouth high school auditorium from 2 to 10 p. m. The public is invited to see the display.

Plymouth Police Fighting Fast Increase In Petty Thievery

Over the past year, the number of cases in petty thievery reported to Plymouth Police department has increased to sizable proportions.

Chief of Police Charles Thumme and his officers have had amazing success in clearing up most of the cases in petty thievery.

But at the same time, it was pointed out by City Manager Clarence Elliott that such cases require an unusual amount of time for the police department, which might be engaged in more profitable pursuits for the entire city.

With that in mind, Mr. Elliott and Chief Thumme urged that citizens of the city take more care in locking the doors of their automobiles, and locking the doors of their houses and garages.

Hardly an evening passes but what the police find some business house left open.

Therefore, as a matter of self-protection, everyone is urged to stop as much of the petty thievery as they can by keeping their doors locked.

Urges Voters To Register Now For Election

October 18 is the last day to register for the November seventh election.

City Clerk Clarence Elliott said this week that 2,338 names are properly registered on the election books of the city, and at the same time he estimated that about 500 more voters in the city are not properly registered.

Works Out Plans For Opening Livonia Schools

Superintendent Harry O. Johnson of the Livonia township schools announced this week projected plans for the operation of the new township school system during the coming year.

The plans have not yet been approved by the township school board, but it is generally anticipated that they will be approved at the next meeting, which will be held Monday night.

Some of the plans are tentative, and are dependent on the arrangements which can be made for transportation of the students, which is now a township problem.

Herewith is the setup as it is now planned:

All high school students will attend the high school of their choice, but that high school generally will be the one nearest their home, and the one usually attended by students in that locality.

Seventh and eighth grade students will attend school either at the Newburg school, or the Livonia Center school, which ever is more convenient for bus transportation.

Rosedale Gardens school—Kindergarten through the sixth grade, accommodating all students in Rosedale Gardens and surrounding area and the kindergarten students from the Elm school district.

Wilcox school—Kindergarten through the sixth grade. Pierson school—Kindergarten through the fifth grade. Stark school—Kindergarten through the sixth grade.

Briggs school, a one room school—Grades one through six.

Prepare Now For That Christmas Box Overseas

While the dates designated for mailing overseas Christmas packages are nearly two months away (Sept. 15 to Oct. 15), it is time for the families of men overseas to give thought to the regulations which will govern these shipments.

With 1,000,000 men overseas (there will be more by Christmas holidays) it is reasonable to assume that at least there will be 700 or 800 boys from Plymouth overseas at that time.

From the official Postal Guide, the following information is taken. It is being "boiled down" to simplest and briefest possible space and may be worth saving for future reference:

1—Christmas mailing should be done between September 15 and October 15 to men with OPA addresses.

2—The War Department advises that Christmas cards be mailed in sealed envelopes and sent first class.

Addresses should be plainly written or typewritten, giving name, rank, Army serial number, branch of service, organization and APO number—also postoffice through which the package or greeting is to be routed.

3—Parcels will be accepted without requests between the Sept. 15 to Oct. 15 dates only. Par. (Continued on Page 8)

Plan Big Rodeo At Northville Aug. 16 to 20

At the Northville fair grounds, August 16 and continuing through a Sunday matinee on August 20, there will be staged one of the best rodeo shows ever seen in Michigan.

Governor Dewey On Radio Sunday

The Wayne county republican committee is sponsoring a political radio forum over WJW every Sunday afternoon, 4:30 to 5 o'clock from now until the November election. Governor Dewey, of New York, the Republican nominee for President, will be the speaker this Sunday; introduction by Governor Kelly. The following Sunday, Governor Bricker, of Ohio, will be the speaker. Other programs will feature the Republican candidates for the state senate, the nominees for Congress, a woman's program and also two or three for labor. Auditor General Vernon J. Brown will conduct the forum for state senate nominees and Speaker Howard Ugent, for nominees for state representatives, county candidates will take care of local conditions in public affairs.

No Longer Owls In His Belfry

The Rev. George W. Rothery, pastor of the First Baptist church, no longer has owls in his belfry. That statement is literal.

The facts are that six screech owls were creating a considerable nuisance in the Baptist church area of North Mill street. They would screech at night and have a high old time as owls are prone to do.

But almost equally as bad, they would bring dead fish and other debris into the area and eat at their convenience from the lofty perch of the Baptist church belfry.

Awarded Purple Heart Medal

Mrs. Hattie Andrews, residing at 109 South Mill street, has been advised by the war department that her son, Lester Andrews, was seriously wounded when American forces invaded France on June 26.

Planning Picnic For Youngsters

This is a bit of information for youngsters through the age of about twelve. Strictly speaking, it is for those youngsters who attended the neighborhood playgrounds during the summer, and of course for any other youngsters in this area of the same age.

There will be a picnic for you at the wading pool at Riverside Park on August 11 at 1 p. m. Get that. Bring your lunch. And bring your mother and Dad.

Hangout Soon Ready For Use

The city-owned property at corner of Church and Adam Sts., which will be used this fall, and winter by the high school students and their "hangout," has been fumigated, and already a number of boys have started setting up the property to put it in shape for use.

The house will be decorated by the students themselves. It will be furnished and operated by them.

The City Commission has voted to underwrite the costs of the operation of the house, including a nominal rental for it to the extent of $10 a month. The remainder of the expenses will be paid by the students through membership fees and profits from the sale of soft drinks and candies.

Harold Jacobs Home On Leave

Harold Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs of Virginia ave., arrived home this week for a 28 day leave of absence after spending 20 months on the Pacific with Uncle Sam's fighting fleet.

Harold has seen much of the vastness of the Pacific, having participated in naval activities from the Alutians to New Guinea and the mid-west Pacific.

His service bar reveals eight combat stars, which means that the part of the fleet he has been serving with has seen plenty of action.

"We get mighty good food and plenty of it. The Navy treats us fine, but you can bet I'm glad to be home," stated Harold.

Victory Garden Display Asked

Chairman Robert Joliffe of the victory garden committee stated yesterday that the garden committee would like very much to have victory gardeners make a display of some of their products at the flower show to be held on August 24 by the Farm and Garden club. Chairman Joliffe says that exhibits from gardeners would be most welcome.

Extend Water Main On Harvey

The city commission has approved the installation of a new water main and a new sanitary sewer on South Harvey street between Wing and Brush streets.

The action was taken after no objectors to the improvement appeared at the public hearing which was scheduled prior to the city commission meeting.

Band Plays Last Concert Tonight

The fourth and last concert of the summer recreation program will be presented tonight at 7:15 in Kellogg park. The high school students under the direction of Clarence Luchtman will play the following numbers:

"Star Spangled Banner", "Officer of the Day", "I Hear America Singing", "When Johnny Comes Marching Home", "Victory Polka", "Old Folks at Home", "Dixie", "Navy Wings", "I Love a Parade", "Bombardier", "American Patrol", "When Day is Done".

Wm. G. Johnson Dies Suddenly

William G. Johnson, 312 Holbrook avenue, died suddenly Thursday forenoon. He was the Plymouth representative of a well known coffee company. Besides Mrs. Johnson, three sons survive, one a prisoner of Germany, another in the Pacific area and a younger son at home. The Johnson family had resided in Plymouth for about 10 years.

"Our Boys" Ask For Ballots

City Clerk Clarence Elliott said this week that he already has received applications from 50 soldiers for absent voters ballots to be used in the fall election.

At the same time, he said that the absent voters ballots will not be distributed until August 29. At that time, he will be prepared to send these ballots to members of the armed services, and to those voters in this area who are certain they will not be in Plymouth on November 7. All applications for absent voters ballots must be made in writing.

"Our Boys" throughout the world—get your application in as quickly as you can, so you will be sure and get your ballot in time.

The Golden Text (Psalms 62:5) is: "My soul, wait thou only upon God, for my expectation is from Him." Among the Bible citations is this passage: (Psalms 143:8): "Cause me to hear thy loving-kindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust; cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift my soul unto thee." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (308): "The Soul - inspired patriachs heard the voice of Truth, and talked with God as consciously as man talks with man."

Ford Worker Is Killed In France

Irving Perkins, 19 years of age, inducted into the service from the Plymouth board about a year ago and who resided at 26530 Plymouth road, just west of Telegraph, was killed in action in France, according to a telegram received by his mother. The family had lived in this locality about a year before he went into the army. Previous to his induction he was employed at the Ford Lincoln plant. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ayley, one sister and four brothers, two of whom are overseas. Memorial services were held last Monday at St. Michael's church in Rosedale Gardens. The family formerly resided in Cadillac.

Weddings

Stamler-Blundell

Announcements were recently received in Plymouth telling of the marriage of Robert William Blundell of this city to Margaret Stamler of Ridgewood, New York, the wedding taking place in the First Congregational church in San Francisco.

The bride, a daughter of Mrs. Margaret Stamler, upon learning of the arrival of "Bob" on the west coast from somewhere in the southwest Pacific where he has been serving with the United States navy, immediately went to California to meet him and to plan the wedding, which took place in San Francisco.

The youthful naval groom is well known in Plymouth. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Simpson, former owner of the Simpson's Tavern and now residents of Houghton Lake. He is serving with the navy somewhere in the Pacific.

Luzuis - Horvath

At a double-ring ceremony, in the First Methodist Church, on Saturday, August 5, the Rev. T. Leonard Sanders read the service uniting in marriage Charlotte Sybil Luzuis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Luzuis of Ann Arbor, and Pvt. Albert Martin Horvath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Horvath of this city. The couple spoke their vows in candlelight before an altar decorated with palms and white gladioli. Mrs. Linnea Wilson sang "Because" and "Perfect Love", accompanied at the organ by Mrs. M. J. O'Connor.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a round neckline and ruffle of Chantilly lace. Her full skirt was finished with a long train. A flat bow of illusion secured her finger-tip veil and she carried a bouquet of white rose buds.

Mrs. Robert Luzuis of Pontiac, the bride's only attendant, wore a frock of pale green net. Her arm bouquet was of pale yellow roses with matching flowers in her hair. Stephen J. Horvath of Detroit was best man and Robert Luzuis served as usher. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Luzuis chose a lavender gown and hat with white accessories and a corsage of white mums. Mrs. Horvath wore a gown of grey print with black accessories and a corsage of white mums.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors with about 65 guests from Pontiac, Toledo, Detroit, Ann Arbor and Plymouth.

For going away the bride chose a brown dress with matching accessories and a pink chrysanthemum corsage. After a brief honeymoon at Evans Lake the groom will report to Fort Meade, Maryland. Both young people are graduates of Plymouth, and the bride is employed at Diesel Mfg. Co. in Detroit.

The American Red Cross has ordered $450,000 worth of clothing supplies, of which $132,000 worth has been produced by Red Cross chapters and the balance procured through government funds, to be shipped to the Union of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies of the U. S. S. R. for the relief of Russian war blind.

A three months' reserve of American Red Cross standard food packages has been established in virtually all German prison camps.

Why Farmers Should Buy & Keep War Bonds

by R. R. Renne
President
Montana State College

BUILDING financial reserves, paying off debts, helping to fight dangerous inflation, and patriotism, are all good reasons why farmers should buy and hold War Bonds.

A good financial reserve is an important part of sound farm management. War Bonds are safe investments and are almost as liquid as cash. Thus, they comprise an excellent financial reserve for unexpected needs and emergencies. After the last war prices fell rapidly, as they have after every major war, and thousands of American farmers lost their farms because they could not weather the economic storm. No other factor is more essential for continued satisfactory farm operations, through good years and bad, than adequate financial reserves.

In addition to unexpected needs for emergencies, farmers need adequate reserves to finance repairs, replacements and improvements around the farm. Difficulties in obtaining needed materials and labor for these expenditures cause farm buildings and equipment to wear out faster during the war period than in peacetime. If farmers can wait until sometime after the war ends to make these repairs and improvements, their dollars should go farther than they will immediately following the war, and better quality materials will probably be available. Moreover, too rapid or forced cashing of War Bonds immediately after the war could create a serious situation and contribute to post-war inflation. Also, holding Bonds to maturity makes it possible for the farmer to increase his investment by one-fourth through accumulated interest. Still another reason for having a good reserve in the form of War Bonds is that funds will be available for the boys when they return, to assist them in getting established in peacetime pursuits.

Many farmers still have long-term mortgage debt outstanding against their property. Investment in War Bonds now makes it possible for the farmer to help finance the war and at the same time accumulate the funds which will enable him to liquidate his debt in a lump sum after the war. Systematic purchase of War Bonds furnishes a very orderly and sure way of accumulating the necessary funds for liquidation of debt that requires large lump sums for settlement.

The extremely heavy expenditures required to carry on modern total war creates high purchasing power, which combined with shortages of materials and labor, cause serious inflationary threats. Most farmers can remember the very high prices which occurred during the last war and the very low prices and depression which followed. With the present scale of operations much greater than during the first war, it is imperative that widespread inflation in general prices and in land be prevented. Using surplus funds to purchase War Bonds helps reduce inflationary pressure in commodity markets and, at the same time, helps finance the war.

Building financial reserves, paying off debts and fighting inflation, comprise adequate reasons for buying War Bonds. However, there is still another major reason why farmers should invest in War Bonds until it hurts and this is the patriotic reason. We are engaged in a very serious struggle to preserve democracy and our way of life. The sooner we can win this war the fewer lives of our sons and daughters will be lost. Our youth are making great sacrifices on the battlefronts all over the world, and it is up to each one of us on the homefront to give all we have. Large sums of money are needed for winning the war and if we will all buy War Bonds to the limit of our resources voluntarily, we can help finish the war at an early date.

Rotarians Hear New Governor

"The future peace of the world can be secure if the principles of Rotary are used as a pattern", said Harvey Lowrey, district governor of Rotary to local club members last Friday. Making his official call on the Plymouth club, the speaker presented those in attendance with one of the most interesting talks ever heard here.

He based his talk on the development of the constitution and told of the early trials in the drafting of the same. He told Rotarians that Rotary's code of ethics and the principles for which it stood were the principles that would make for permanent peace and security throughout the world.

John Blyton of the Taylor and Blyton Department Store was welcomed into the club by Governor Lowrey at the meeting.

Today's program will feature a talk by Alfred Witanen, principal of the Taft school of Ferris, Michigan and his subject will be "You Can't Always Apply the Rules."

County 4-H Clubs Plan Exhibit

By Ada Watson
County 4-H Club Agent

The Wayne County 4-H Livestock clubs are holding their annual 4-H Exhibit at the Northville Fair Grounds on Saturday, August 19. Judging of animals will take place on Saturday morning beginning at 10:00 o'clock. 4-H Club members will take part in a Dairy Cattle Judging Contest in the afternoon. The six top members will make up the Wayne County Judging Team, which will compete for State Honors at the State 4-H Club Show to be held in East Lansing, September 5 - 8.

A Livestock Parade will take place early Saturday evening before the Rodeo.

A vegetable Judging Day will be held at the Ferry-Morse Seed Farm which is 2 miles south of Rochester and 1/4 mile east, on Monday, August 21 from 9:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

Vegetable and insect identification will make up a part of the day's program.

All 4-H Club members are invited to take the trip and take part in the judging and vegetable and insect identification.

The American Red Cross announced that 3,000 Red Cross recreational kits especially designed to help relieve monotony and boredom for small groups of sick and wounded servicemen returning to the United States aboard Army or Navy transports, have been prepared for shipment to various ports in the overseas theatres.

Street Paving Job Finished

Workmen this week have completed the first major improvement made south of Ann Arbor Trail in many years, the paving of South Harvey and Wing streets.

The paving on South Harvey, which serves the entire southwest section of the city, has been finished to Wing street and Wing street has been paved from Harvey to Main street.

Not only does the paving give residents in that part of the city a long-needed improvement in the street conditions, but it provides a much needed cut-off, taking considerable travel from South Main street.

The paving was done in record time by the Oak Construction company of Royal Oak. Mayor Corbett states that he also hopes to be able to bring about badly needed water and sewer extensions in the south end of the city.

The Farmer and War Bonds

by Mr. A. S. Goss
Master of the National Grange

VERY FREQUENTLY hear farmers raise the question as to whether or not they should buy War Bonds as long as they are in debt. The answer to this question should depend in large measure upon the nature of the debt and whether or not it is current. If part of it is past due, and the borrower expects to experience difficulty in meeting past due payments, he probably should bring his debt into current position before investing in Bonds. If, however, his payments are current, there seems to be no reason why farmers should not buy as many Bonds as they are able. Most individual investors in government Bonds are carrying debt in one form or another, at rates higher than the Bonds will yield. This is as it should be if the purchaser is in an earning position which permits the accumulation of some surplus, for we all owe it to our government to do our utmost in the financing of the war, even though the transaction may result in our paying some extra interest on outstanding debts.

When a farmer owes money, he is always concerned as to whether his crops will sell at prices which will enable him to repay his debt. When prices are high it is good business and conservative finance to reduce the debt as rapidly as possible because when prices are low, it takes more crops and more efforts to make the payments.

We should not forget, however, that a government Bond will pay off an equal amount of dollars of debt, no matter whether prices are high or low, therefore, a sound and conservative practice to buy government Bonds and lay them aside to make payments on existing debts when they fall due. In fact, quite aside from the patriotic appeal, it is good business to buy Bonds rather than make pre-payments on debt, because the time may come when the ready cash is needed and the money tied up in pre-payments cannot be returned. If this money is invested in Bonds, it can be converted into cash to meet any needs which may arise.

If everyone followed the policy of buying no War Bonds until their debts were paid, few Bonds would be sold to the public. We have an obligation to help finance this war which is vastly more important than the income we may receive on the investment of money in War Bonds.

Farmers are finding it impossible to maintain their machinery and buildings in a satisfactory state of repair. They are finding that they cannot replace worn-out equipment except at exorbitantly high cost.

It would seem to be sound and conservative business practice to lay aside money to make the repairs and replace worn-out equipment when material and machines are again available. No safer place can be found to lay aside money for such purposes than in government Bonds.

Every time we buy a Bond we are not only assisting in financing the war, but we are also doing our bit to prevent that most dreaded economic disaster called inflation. If each one of us would invest as much as we could in government Bonds, the danger of inflation would be greatly reduced.

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thompson have as their guests the former's mother and niece of Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simmons and family returned home Sunday from a week's stay at Indian River.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Sumner and family left Thursday for Port Huron where they will spend a few days on Lake Huron.

Deane Herrick was elected vice president of the Michigan Retail Dealer's Association at the Jeweler's Convention at Grand Rapids last week.

Robert Todd, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Todd, returned home Monday from a two weeks' vacation at Camp Interlochen near Traverse City.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Churchman and son, Jimmie, of Detroit were recent visitors of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Chambers.

The next Proficiency Class of Plymouth Chapter No. 115, O. E. S., will be held at the Clayton Clair residence, 9840 Phoenix road, Tuesday, August 15 at 7:30 p. m. All those taking these instructions are urged to attend this class.

Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Lewis of Gaylord road were recent visitors in the Chambers home on South Main street. They also visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stevens of Newburg. Mrs. Lewis attended the Ladies' Aid picnic of the Newburg church on Wednesday.

Miss Charlotte Luzius was the guest of honor at a luncheon and linen shower given by Mrs. Geo. Britcher on Wilcox road on Friday, July 28. Pink and white flowers were used to decorate the luncheon table and the honor guest received many nice linen gifts.

Wild Lifers Plan Big Picnic

Members of the Western Wayne County Conservation Association will hold their annual potluck picnic Sunday, August 12 at Jack Taylor's cottage at Base Lake, according to an announcement just made by President Brick Champe.

Following the dinner, which will be ready promptly at 1 o'clock, says Mr. Taylor, there will be numerous interesting events. There will be a casting contest, horse shoe pitching and badminton games.

Prizes will be offered for the biggest bass, the biggest bluegill and the biggest perch caught during the day.

Some cynical member who refused to permit his name to be published, declared there wasn't a fish in Base Lake that would measure up to the list, so he asked, how there could possibly be a fishing contest.

But Jack Taylor declares that the biggest suckers, chub and sunfish he ever saw in his life were caught right in his favorite fishing hole in Base Lake.

President Champe and Secretary Ernest Henry have figured out that the best way for members to save gas coupons is to leave Plymouth on territorial road, drive out 22 miles to Mist road (one coupon for a Ford), turn left to Strawberry Lake road, then left to Base Lake, and you're there minus one gas coupon and a half. It will require the other half of the coupon and a full one to get home. Then there will be no more traveling for the rest of the month.

The program will continue until the sun begins to set over Base Lake. Jack says it's the "most beautiful sight" in the world and he is anxious to have all the Wild Lifers see that sunset.

No Shooting Of Hen Pheasants

Here's a bit of news that will settle one question that has been bothering Plymouth pheasant hunters.

There will be NO open season on hen pheasant this fall. The conservation commission or conservation department have no authority to change Michigan law to allow the taking of pheasant hens in areas where they are causing excessive damage. Such change in the law must be made by the legislature.

Today's statement by the department is its answer to demands that are being made, notably in Thumb areas, for liberalizing of the law next fall. Pheasant damage has been particularly heavy in Huron county.

State law limits department authority and responsibility to the establishing of seasons on muskrats, beaver, skunk, bear, waterfowl, and deer in Allegan county. The department can, at its discretion, also reduce season length and bag limits. It cannot enlarge neither.

Prepare Now For—

cells will be accepted after Oct. 15 with requests, or if the serviceman's address has been changed after Sept. 30.

Christmas parcels must be plainly labeled "Christmas Parcel."

7—The parcel weight limit is five pounds; 15 inches in length and the combined length and girth shall not exceed 36 inches. 8—Not more than one Christmas parcel or package will be accepted for mailing in any one week for the same addressee by the same sender.

9—Owing to the great distance overseas packages must travel, packages must be wrapped in metal, wood or strong fiberboard reinforced by gummed tape and strong twine. Fiberboard packages must also be wrapped in strong wrapping paper to prevent contents escaping if box is crushed or split.

10—The complete address should be included with the contents in case the outside address is destroyed.

11—Hard candies, nuts, caramels, cookies, fruit cake should be contained in a separate inner box to prevent breaking and spoilage to other contents of the parcel.

12—Sharp pointed or sharp edged instruments such as razor blades, knives, etc., must have their sharp edges protected so that they will not cut through covering and damage other mail or postal workers.

13—Perishable matter will NOT be accepted; fragile articles should not be sent.

14—Intoxicants, inflammables, materials (such as lighter fluids) and any form of poisonous composition will not be accepted.

When obtainable, special overseas boxes are desirable. Already some of the stores have had these in stock, but the holiday season approaches it will become more and more difficult to get these. Great care should be exercised in getting containers, or boxes, the right dimensions for postal employees are insisted upon. The tremendous task of getting tens and tons of mail delivered to remote places where service men are stationed makes the above restrictions necessary and the instructions important.

You'll always find values when you shop in our store.

Because Schultz Electric Coolers quickly cool my milk—and keep it cool they insure my boss, the full butter fat test I have worked so hard to produce. Schultz Coolers also halt bacteria growth and make my milk more salable.

The Schultz principle is that of floating ice and top cooling without the need of a circulating pump of any kind. The coils automatically manufacture the ice on the smooth inside surface of the cabinet walls. This allows the ice to release and float on top of the water where it is needed. Schultz coolers effectively reduce labor costs; keep the nights milk under 40°. Many users say, "I wouldn't sell my Schultz Cooler for $1,000.00 if I couldn't get another."

Available in sizes to cool from 2 to 12 cans at one time. Buy the cooler to fit the job—not the milk house. Can be very easily installed in the average milk house. Easy payment plan can be arranged. See us today for further facts and prices.

More Join Lady Golfers' League

The Plymouth Hilltop Ladies' League continues to enlarge its ranks. There are now about 30 members, some veterans and some newcomers to the game. Under the individual handicap and point system, all have an equal opportunity to share in the prizes, which has encouraged a turn-out of players who ordinarily felt that their game did not merit playing in a league.

The Boys' Junior League is progressing, too, but could still use a few more players. Boys between 14 and 18 who seek to play in the Junior Open September 15th should join now and gain the practice and experience.

Last Sunday featured another Ford Motor Co. get-together. Among those present were M. J. Herie, former superintendent of material for the Ford Tank project, M. Dunlap, former superintendent of production at the same place and Robert Saeisinger of the Ford purchasing department.

Rosedale Gardens residents have begun to attend the Hilltop among them Mr. and Mrs. Peristy and Mrs. Homer Branion who appear regularly.

Max Todd, who is operating the club, reports that the course is now in excellent condition and anticipates an even higher standard of quality very soon.

At present there is no arrangement between nations for the exchange of able-bodied prisoners of war, the latest issue of the Prisoner of War Bulletin of the American Red Cross states.

17 Descendants Live In City

Seventeen of the 75 descendants of Mrs. Margaret Schmidt 98 years of age who died a few days ago in Petoskey, are residents of the city of Plymouth. Michigan newspapers thought it most unusual for one to leave so many descendants. They are three sons, a daughter, 28 grandchildren, 42 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Mrs. Schmidt was born in Austria. She came to this country in 1911. Since then she has lived in Pellston and Center Township, near Petoskey.

The Plymouth descendants are Mrs. Helen Smith, of Roe street, a daughter-in-law and the following grandchildren: Mrs. Edward Kliniski, Mrs. William Lorenz, Mrs. Edward Kopenski, Mrs. Max Preston, Ted, Robert, Edward, and Dorothy Smith, and nine great grandchildren.

Be Careful Of The Straw Stack

A youngster surveying the countryside from the top of a straw stack may feel that he is "sitting on top of the world"—especially if he can reach up and touch the wires running between two power line poles. And it is just this way that serious accidents have occurred in the past. Both children and adults have received injuries and bad burns by coming in contact with high line wires.

Farmers threshing grain are urged to locate straw stacks in safe locations. The safest method to follow is to pile your straw stacks well out of reach of all wires. Then it is unlikely that someone will unthinkingly reach out and touch the wires or strike the wires with a metal rod or throw a metal or wet string over the wires, thereby endangering his life and safety.

Another thing to remember is that metal machines of all kinds should be kept out of contact with high line wires. There have been times when a boom or an

Salvage Work Slips In July

Plymouth slipped a bit during July in its salvage work for the army and navy. But that might be expected, in view of the tremendous record that had been made in previous months.

The total amount of grease collected, according to final reports made to Mrs. Russell Powell, general salvage chairman, showed 1,751 pounds that found its way to the munition factories.

The tin can collection amounted to only 16 tons and the total amount of waste paper collected amounted to only ten tons. Old

Mrs. Louis Sherman has just returned from Camp Lee, Virginia where she has been visiting her husband, Louis Sherman, now in training for postal service with Uncle Sam's great army. He has finished his basic training and is now taking his technical training at the same camp.

He requested that The Mail, through its "Our Boys" page, say hello to all his old friends in Plymouth and elsewhere throughout the world. He likes the army.

While in Virginia, Soldier and Mrs. Sherman visited interesting and historic places in Petersburg, Richmond and other parts of that state.

JAMES L. LOSHAW NOW SERVING AS A MECHANIC IN AIR SERVICE COMMAND.

Somewhere over in England, James Loshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Loshaw, 11428 Stark road, is serving as a mechanic in the engine repair section of the largest Air Service Command depot in Britain. He is one of the many thousands of American boys where American fighting air crafts are kept in condition to make things hot in Europe for Hitler. James is a graduate of the Plymouth high school and he entered the air service back in February, 1942. He has been overseas for a considerable length of time.

PREPARES FOR SERVICE IN AMPHIBIOUS FORCES.

Charles A. Custer, whose parents reside at 1112 Hartsough, is preparing for duty with the amphibious forces aboard an LST—landing ship, tank—one of the biggest ships in the navy's invasion fleet.

Charles has been assigned to the crew of an LST at the Amphibious Training Base, Camp Bradford, Va., where he is going through the strenuous training required of bluejackets who man the beach-hitting tank carriers.

Heavier than a modern destroyer, the 300-foot LST lands assault troops and equipment directly onto enemy beachheads, under the protective bombardment of heavy warships and navy planes.

Despite its size and weight, the landing vessel is designed to navigate shallow approaches to hostile beaches, spilling its troops and tanks ashore through huge bow doors.

Camp Bradford, where Charles is stationed, is one of a group of bases operated by the Amphibious Training Command of the U. S. Atlantic Fleet along the eastern seaboard. The Bradford base alone is readying thousands of Navy men to operate the ships of the amphibious fleet, fast growing toward its year-end goal of 80,000 new landing craft.

EUGENE SHIPLEY WRITES FROM NEW GUINEA—WHERE IT'S HOT!

From down in New Guinea, where it is both hot and wet, comes a brief note from Eugene Shipley, well known Plymouth lad with Uncle Sam's invasion forces in that part of the world. Eugene writes as follows:

"Dear Friends: "Hi, everyone! How is good old Plymouth these days? As you can see from my letter, I'm in New Guinea. I see by The Plymouth Mail that there are lots of other Plymouth boys down here. I also know where Bob Kenyon is, but as yet have not seen him."

"For the last few days we've been having nothing but rain and it gets a guy down. It does get hot, very hot, here also. I mean it gets HOT, much hotter than it ever gets in Plymouth."

"There are lots of natives here and do they know the value of money! They are very friendly as long as you treat them right."

"Very sorry to hear about so many Plymouth boys being killed. I went to school with most of them and they were the best friends a guy will ever have. Guess I'll close now and thank you again and again for sending me The Plymouth Mail."

William A. Morris, Jr., 18 son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morris, Sr., 11309 Cranston, is receiving his initial naval indoctrination at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois. His recruit training consists of instruction in seamanship, military drill, and general naval procedure. During this period a series of aptitude tests will be taken by the recruit to determine whether he will be assigned to a naval Service School or to immediate active duty at sea.

LIKES TO READ EVERYTHING IN THE PLYMOUTH MAIL.

A brief note from James E. Stevens telling of his change of address has just been received from Camp Lee, Virginia. "Jim" has been up in Montana for some time and is now down among the "Virginians."

"Can't thank you too much for sending me The Plymouth Mail. It is swell to hear from old pals all over the world. Enjoy reading everything from "What I Think and Have a Right to Say" right down through all the big ads and little ads."

"Would like very much to hear from my old friends who are in the service. Tell them that my new address is down here," wrote Jim.

(Note—The address of boys are not published in the paper, but if his old friends will call at The Plymouth Mail office, they will be provided with his address. Do not use the telephone.)

SAYS NORMANDY IS BEAUTIFUL COUNTRY.

John Nelson, one of the Plymouth Mail boys, who went through the north African campaign then Sicily, is now with the American invasion forces in Normandy. In a letter written late in July to "Our Boys" page, John says that Normandy is a beautiful country.

"The French people are very friendly and they sure like the Yanks very much."

"I am getting The Plymouth Mail, here, too. It seems to follow us, no matter where we go. Can't tell you how much I appreciate it. Other boys from other states in our outfit read it, too, and like it very much."

"There are lots of small farms and plenty of cattle everywhere. But give me the good old U. S. A. There is nothing that I have seen around here that looks anywhere near as good as does Michigan—and how I would enjoy the smell of printers' ink again," wrote John.

"Say hello to all of my friends and tell them we are doing the best we can to get this job over with just as quickly as possible so we can get home and settle down again."

PLYMOUTH BOYS AID WOUNDED MEN.

Two Plymouth boys, Pfc. Wilson E. Nixon of 14714 Farmington road and Pfc. Clifton Osterhout, Jr., 1399 Penniman avenue, are members of Uncle Sam's big army hospitals somewhere in England, where wounded men in France are flown and given the best of medical care. Something about the operations of the flying ambulance services carrying wounded men out of France to the big hospital in England where they are given immediate medical treatment, will be interesting to readers of "Our Boys" page especially in view of the fact that two of "Our Boys" are serving in this hospital.

A telephone call from the landing field to the hospital's receiving office sets in motion the entire organization, which is geared for instant response. The hospital never knows in advance how many planes will arrive or how many injured persons each plane will carry.

As soon as the receiving and evacuation center is called, Lieut. Colonel Sterrett E. Dietrich of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, commanding officer of the hospital, orders all the personnel to stand by under alert conditions.

Ambulances are dispatched to the field. Captain Otto J. Swisher of Columbus, Ohio, the receiving officer, goes to take charge of the loading of the patients.

Load assembly teams of enlisted men ride in the ambulances. A personnel carrier trails behind, carrying men who drop off at intersections and road run-ways to act as road guards when the ambulances return.

Ambulances are tagged at the air field with numbers of load zones in the hospital area. When the ambulances come back, the drivers go straight to zones near the wards where the patients are to occupy beds already prepared for them.

To speed up the process of admission at times when large numbers of casualties arrive, the patients are taken directly to the wards and treatment begins within a few minutes. Later the registrar's office and the receiving office send men into the wards to fill in the details of the admission records.

The patient must be made comfortable as soon as possible—that is the primary aim of the hospital's system. Every new arrival is bathed by ward attendants, fed, and examined by a ward medical officer. Progress charts are established. X-rays are taken, and the patients are swiftly settled in the wards.

Each ward officer must see to it that all his new patients are given complete treatment before any officer, nurse or enlisted man is free to go off duty for rest or food.

"The type of work done in the forward areas is excellent," Col. Dietrich says. "The condition of nearly all the men arriving here is miraculously good."

Large stocks of penicillin, plasma, sulfa drugs and other pharmaceuticals needed by the hospital are always on hand, and are carefully utilized by a staff of surgeons and physicians with wide professional backgrounds. The staff includes graduates of 29 leading medical schools in the United States and their professional experience ranges up to 32 years.

Chief of the Surgical Service at the hospital is Lieutenant Colonel J. Ralston Wells of Daytona Beach, Florida, a surgeon who served in France during the last war and later was an associate professor of surgery at the Women's Medical College in Philadelphia and an assistant professor in the graduate school at the University of Pennsylvania.

John S. Palmer

John S. Palmer, recently appointed manager of the Plymouth office of the Michigan Bell Telephone company, has arrived in Plymouth and assumed his new duties last week. He will fill the place made vacant by the transfer of John MacLachlan to the management of the Wayne office.

Mr. Palmer has been office manager of the Michigan Bell Telephone company in Lansing. He was transferred from Grand Rapids to Lansing two years ago. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and upon completion of his school work, he returned to his native city and immediately entered the employment of the Michigan Bell. He is married and it is his plan to move Mrs. Palmer and their two children to Plymouth just as soon as a house can be found.

The Plymouth office of the Michigan Bell Telephone company has supervision over a large territory. It embraces all of Livonia, South Lyon, Northville and the Walled Lake exchanges. There are nearly 7,000 telephones in this district.

AMERICA'S FINEST BEER Schmidt's THE NATURAL BREW

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Good morning, Doc. Your good wife tells me you're working night and day now that so many of the younger doctors are in the army."

"That's right, Judge, and I'm glad I'm still able to do it. Had a long letter from Harry... that bright young fellow I was breakin' in to take over my practice. He said the boys in the service are getting the best medical care of any armed force in our history. They really should with all those brilliant doctors and plenty of supplies to work with."

"Speaking of supplies, Doc, not many people realize that a large part of the alcohol required to make the medical supplies that are being used right this minute to alleviate pain, combat infection and save human lives, is produced by the beverage distilling industry. For nearly two years this entire industry has been working night and day producing nothing but alcohol for the government's program."

"Nobody knows better than I, Judge, what an important contribution to our war effort that has been."

"My neighbor on the next street had a telephone installed. Why did he get one before me?"

Possibly your neighbor is a person to whom a telephone is essential in performance of important war duties, or for public health, welfare or security. Such orders come first today, and are filled promptly.

Or he may have moved from elsewhere in the same exchange or an adjacent one where he already had service. Or, it may be that your neighbor ordered a telephone before you did, in which case it's only right that he should have the preference. Such orders can be installed only as present users give up service. In handling them, we follow a uniform and fair procedure provided for in orders of the War Production Board and in tariffs filed with the proper regulatory bodies.

Problems like this are unavoidable in wartime, when the armed forces need almost all the telephone and other communications equipment that can be manufactured. We, too, will be glad when we again can supply all the service everybody needs — immediately.

VICTORY'S SONS

FLIGHT of six heavy American bombers was making its second run over Bougainville island in the South Pacific, when about 20 zeros came in for the attack. Machine gun bullets killed the pilot and wounded the co-pilot of the lead plane. Col. Laverne Saunders, the commander, quickly moved forward, pulled the dead man from the controls and took over. Two engines were out and the left wing was blazing.

"We came out of the overcast at about 500 feet," said Colonel Saunders later, "and I saw I'd have to put her down. I brought her down at 95 miles per hour. The tail broke off and the crew slid out through the hole."

"We got two rubber boats inflated, and paddled to a small island. On the way the co-pilot died. When we landed we pulled our rafts into the brush, as we did not know whether we were close or not."

"Soon two big canoes full of friendly black natives came to us. They took us to their village, where we had a good night's rest. The next day a navy plane picked us up."

Colonel Saunders (since advanced to Brig. General) was awarded the Silver Star.

POSTWAR JOBS
Babson Says: "Prepare for Them Now"

Babson Park, Mass., Aug. 11. Many inquiries are coming to me from the families of Service Men regarding what their boys should do after returning home. Of course most of those who left good positions will be taken back by their old employers. On the other hand, a large percentage of the men in our armed forces never had worthwhile, if any positions. To these men I make the following suggestions:

A prominent magazine which was especially interested in developing national advertising once employed me. The publishers were especially desirous for me to discover some product not now profitably marketed. After three months of intensive study I was forced to report that I was unable to find a single industry in which some concern, somewhere, was not already making millions. This included everything from cradles to coffins.

This is even more true today than it was at the time of this study. It shows that success depends upon the man rather than industry in which he is engaged. This is especially important for young men to remember in this new age when they expect everything to be planned for them and when they will temporarily be seeking security rather than freedom.

Opportunities are found everywhere for those with integrity, industry and the pioneering spirit. This will be truer after the war than ever before, although the temptation to "let George do it" will also be far greater. Although the small businessman has a harder row to hoe than the big corporations, yet there may be more opportunity for the individual with the small businessman. This is probably what the Readers Digest has in mind in offering $25,000 in prizes in its August issue. The published answers to this inquiry will be very interesting.

The big business corporation has a momentum which carries it along through the power of organization and money together with the ability to use national advertising profitably. It is not so dependent upon the energy and imagination of any one individual. The small businessman, however, is absolutely dependent for success upon a few exceptional men. Although as an inventor I prefer to put my money into a large corporation, yet as a returning Service Man I would seek to help some small businessman.

I understand that it is difficult to send a book to a Service Man unless you have a letter from him asking that it be sent. If you think your boy is wondering what he is to do when he gets back, have him ask you to send him a Classified Telephone Directory for your city. These directories may be little gold mines for those who are willing to study them. When someone asks for my idea as for what he is best fitted, I give him a classified telephone directory and suggest that he read it through as to headings while waiting in my office. This very often solves his problem so that he does not need help from me.

There will be a great temptation after the war for returning soldiers to get into politics or labor unions or farmers' leagues or something of the kind to "secure justice for the Service Man". Some of these organizations may have been useful in the past; but those men will get on best in this postwar era who depend more on their God and themselves and less upon politics and man-made organizations.

May I add one more suggestion without being misunderstood. Many prayers are said in vain. American and German boys, however, can logically pray for peace and for guidance as to what they should do after peace comes hence my final advice regarding postwar jobs is that the family should take God into their confidence more. Don't try to decide this or any other important question alone.

The Farmer and War Bond Purchases

by Charles W. Holman, Secretary
The National Cooperative Milk Producers' Federation

American farmers have a great deal more at stake in purchasing War Bonds than simply a patriotic urge to assist in financing the war so that it may be prosecuted to an early and victorious conclusion. Modern war demands governmental expenditures far in excess of those which may be met by current revenue receipts. This means Government borrowing. If a large part of this borrowing is through commercial banks additional inflationary spending power is created through the expansion of credit. On the other hand, if the borrowing is largely from individuals much of their excess funds are drained off. Hence, the pressure on prices resulting from unusually large funds bidding for limited amounts of goods and services is relieved, and thus inflation retarded.

A tremendously increased agricultural production and some increase in average prices received above those paid by farmers have raised the net income of all United States farmers from the 1935-39 average of $4.7 billion to $6.3 billion in 1941, $9.4 billion in 1942, and an estimated $12.5 billion in 1943. With available supplies of farm machinery replacements and building materials limited, Agriculture has a fund available for either debt retirement, savings readily liquidated for future purchases of machinery, buildings, etc., or for present investment in land.

A marked decrease in farm mortgages in recent years indicates that much of this fund has been properly applied to debt retirement. However, activity in land sales and a very marked increase in land values demonstrate that farmers are probably diverting a large part of this fund into land purchases. From March 1, 1943, to March 1, 1944, average land values per acre rose 15 per cent, with the larger part of the rise taking place in the last four months of the period. The increase during this four-month period was the highest on record, being 20 per cent greater than the average monthly rate of increase for the 1919-20 boom year. Average values per acre have increased more than one-third in the past 3 years. In the 1916-19 period the rise was about the same.

It appears that an overcapitalization of probably temporarily high farm commodity prices is in process just as in World War I. Large mortgage debts incurred now at high levels of income, will prove disastrous when both total agricultural production and prices fall. Land values are based on the net return to land. With the end of the war in sight and with the prospect that farm labor and other costs will require a relatively larger return leaving the return to land less, the logical course for land values at present would appear to be downward rather than upward.

Therefore, it appears that farmers would do well to invest every available dollar, beyond that needed for debt retirement, in Government Bonds. These can be held against the day when necessary farm replacements will be available and when farm land values will have become more stable. In this way the individual farmer may assist in hastening the day of return of his son, and also have capital available to help finance him in ventures of his own choice. U. S. Treasury Department

25 Years Ago

New items of a quarter of a century ago taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail.

The village water mains are being extended on Forest avenue. George Rowland has broken ground for a new house on Harvey street.

John Haggerty is building a fine barn on his farm on the Canton Center road.

Mrs. Frank Dicks and two sons, Howard and Floyd, have been visiting friends in Tecumseh.

The Plymouth Agricultural Association expects to begin making tomato pulp, August 15th.

A temporary bridge has been built over the River Rouge near the cemetery, where a new cement bridge will be built.

An auction sale with more than ordinary interest will take place on the farm of A. H. VanVoornes, six miles west of Plymouth on the Plymouth and Ann Arbor road, Thursday, August 14th.

Plymouth friends will be pleased to hear of the birth of a little daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hecker of Detroit, Sunday, July 27th. Mrs. Hecker will be remembered as Miss Helene Woodard.

During Monday night's electrical storm, lightning struck a chimney on the home of W. D. McCullough on South Mill street, completely demolishing it. A peculiar thing about the occurrence was the fact that in some unaccountable manner a bedquilt and an umbrella in one of the upstairs rooms was set on fire, but the blaze was extinguished before any further damage was done.

A benefit moving picture show for the Plymouth Boy Scouts, entitled the "Little Scout" will take place at the Penniman Allen theatre, Tuesday evening, August 19th.

Merritt Crumbe, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Crumbe, of this village, has just been promoted to a sergeancy in the 830th aero squadron. Sergeant Crumbe has been overseas for nearly a year, and is now stationed at Romerion, France. His promotion comes as a result of his splendid work on motors. His many Plymouth friends will be pleased to learn of his advancement. In a letter to his parents recently, he says he expects to be home in September.

Last Thursday evening a large company assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimm in honor of their son, Henry, who has just recently returned from France. The evening was pleasantly spent with music and social chat. Ice cream and cake were served. Before departing, the Gleaners, of which organization Henry is a member, presented him with a remembrance of their esteem. Two other soldiers who had seen service overseas, Donald Ryder of Newburg, and Ralph Ryder of Plymouth, were present.

Next Thursday, August 14th, is to be red letter day in Livonia township, since the citizens have arranged a home coming and a basket picnic to be held at Rank's grove in honor of returning servicemen of the world war. Supervisor Dainel McKinney has requested that all stores and public places be closed and all work cease in the township of Livonia, and give the soldiers and sailors of old Livonia a hearty welcome home.

The Red Cross ladies will serve dinner to all soldiers and sailors in uniform.

The Mail would suggest that the business places of Plymouth close during the afternoon, and thus make a general half holiday that all may attend the big picnic. For further particulars see program elsewhere in this paper.

HEATING INSIDE OUT . . . To most of us, heat is heat - but not to the scientist. To him, heat has a wave length - either "short" or "long." And, like a tailor measuring a pair of pants, the scientist can choose the wave length best suited for a certain job. For example, by using the proper wave length, the scientist can heat things from the inside out. Some startling war production jobs have been done in this way. Making heat do new jobs is only one of many important projects under way in our research laboratory.

TASTY SUMMER TREAT . . . Here's a nourishing salad the whole family will like.

- Macaroni Salad
- 1/4 cup French dressing
  - 1/4 cup pickles relish or sweet pickles
  - 1 cup diced celery
  - 1 green pepper, chopped
  - Salt and pepper
  - 1 onion, minced
  - 1/4 cup pickle relish or sweet pickles
  - 3 hard-cooked eggs
  - Mayonnaise
- Add French dressing to macaroni while still slightly warm. Let stand until cool. Add celery, green pepper, onion, relish, and two of the eggs, sliced. Mix lightly with mayonnaise enough to moisten (1/2-3/4 cup). Season with salt and pepper. Pack in paper container, garnish with sliced hard-cooked egg, and chill. Serves from five to six.

We will repair your electric toaster, iron and other small appliances with no extra charge except for necessary parts.

BUY 'EM AND HOLD 'EM . . . A War Bond is like captured territory - it's not much good unless you keep it! Although we are a whole year nearer victory than we were in 1943, we dare not slacken our pace on the fighting front or the home front. Our men across the seas are doing their job; we at home must do ours. Buy War Bonds . . . and keep them!
