FOR MAJORITY RULE.

We have always believed in majority rule. The majority of the people of this country have decided that they want four more years of Roosevelt. As long as that is the majority wish of the nation, we will abide by the decision and we will be as good as a "soldier in the army" for America as if our own party had won.

We have never believed in long tenure in office. We do not believe in it now. We believe that no president, no matter what the circumstances, should serve more than eight years. But our belief does not keep us from accepting the verdict of the majority and doing our part as a good American citizen to help keep this old nation right out in front fighting for the rights of a free people.

We accept the verdict and we will be right out in front doing all within our power to help win this war and helping to win a better condition for the people of America.

NOW APPOINT PHIL RICH.

There has been a vacancy on the state conservation commission for many months. Many interested in a real conservation program for Michigan have urged the appointment of Phil Rich of Midland to the vacancy. We believe that for the good of conservation and for the good of Michigan he SHOULD be appointed.

The election is over. There is nothing that can be gained by stalling the appointment any longer. Phil Rich is the RIGHT type for the job. He knows MORE about conservation than many of the so-called experts. He is one of the citizens of Michigan who fully realizes the importance of this problem and what to do about it. If the Governor wants to do the right thing by the state and for the state, he will no longer hesitate in the appointment of Mr. Rich to this important commission.

RIGHT — BUT WHY RESIGN?

Former Governor Groesbeck is absolutely right in his position pertaining to the low pay of a vast number of state employees. They have long been underpaid. But why resign as chairman of the civil service commission because of this condition? As a member of the commission, one is in a position to attempt to do something about it. But when one resigns such an important place in the state government—simply as a matter of protest, he steps right out of the opportunity to force favorable action. Personally we think he should have stuck to the job until he had won his fight for better pay for the thousands of underpaid state workers. Nothing is gained by quitting the fight in behalf of these poorly paid workers.

Service Men Plan Festival

The Ex-Service Mens' committee under the Chairmanship of John Jacobs, and consisting of the Commander Thomas Campbell, Howard Eckles, Harry Mumby and George Gottschalk have "raided the farms" for miles around to assure enough "feathers" to go around at their annual party that will be conducted by the Old World War Veterans at the Legion hall at Newburg, Monday, November 20th.

All the wise and regular party goers around this part of the county look forward to this annual Veterans Party, because they know that more feathers fly per capita than at any other "festival."

Everybody is invited — the more the merrier. It all starts at 8 p.m.

Salem Arrow Hunter Gets Buck

Clifford Bennington, of 9660 Six Mile Road, Salem, is believed to be one of the first successful archers during the current deer season. Bennington bagged a spikehorn buck, which weighed 130 pounds, late in the afternoon of the second day of the season on Buck Creek, near East Tawas in the Huron National Forest.

Bennington downed the buck with a steel-tipped arrow at a distance of 40 yards. It was his fourth shot of the season, and was his first buck in four years of bow and arrow hunting.

Hunting with Bennington, but unsuccessful, were: Les Bookout, Martin Pitts, Richard Duncan and George Hamilton, all of Rosedale Gardens.

Kenneth Nowry Wounded

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Nowry, 803 Ann street, have received a message advising that their son, Private Kenneth Nowry, has been slightly wounded in action while fighting with General Hodges 1st Army in Germany. The message did not state the extent of his wounds or when it was received, but advised that they would be given more details later.

Dr. Edward Fisher Loses Election

Dr. Edward Fisher, former state representative from this district, fell a victim to the Democratic landslide and was defeated for re-election to the legislature Tuesday from the city of Dearborn. The city of Dearborn was made a legislative district by the Wayne county board of supervisors at its last meeting. Pat Doyle is the new Democratic representative from that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Wilsey of Adrian spent the week-end with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tatzka on Holbrook avenue. On Saturday Mrs. Tatzka and guests visited Mr. and Mrs. Milton Densmore near Northville.

Lee Sackett Becomes City's New Police Chief Next Wednesday

Lee Sackett, who for more than 12 years has been a member of the Plymouth police force with one of the best records of any officer who ever served the community, was Monday night appointed Chief of Police upon the recommendation of City Manager Clarence Elliott. The city commission approved the selection without a single opposing vote.

He replaces Charles Thumme who resigned the position to take a place with a well known company.

Mr. Thumme, who had been with the department for more than a quarter of a century, served a little over three years as chief.

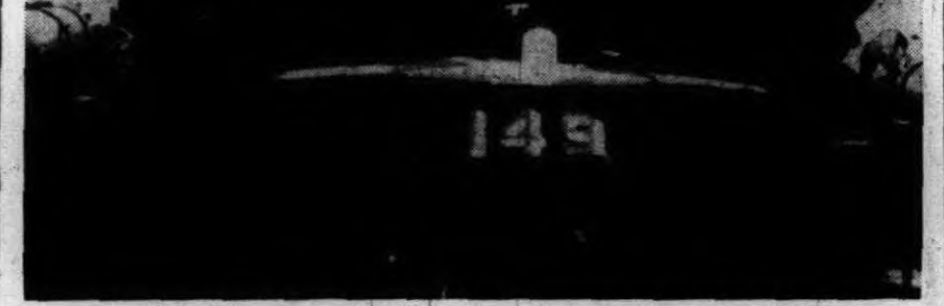

Plymouth during its long history has made few changes in the administration of its police department.

George Springer served as village marshal and police chief for much more than a quarter of a century. He was followed by Vaughan Smith, who served for some twelve years before he resigned to accept a position as chief of the plant protection force of the Continental Motors company of Detroit.

Mr. Thumme was appointed to fill the vacancy when the former police chief left the department.

The new police chief has been regarded as a most efficient officer. Outside of his police work he has been active in affairs of the Plymouth Ex-Service Men's club, of which he recently served as commander.

Following is an interesting story that has been sent to The Plymouth Mail from New Guinea pertaining to the routine patrol of "The Nite Hawk" one of the Navy's little deadly PT craft that has been raising havoc with the Jap fleet.

It is of special interest to Plymouth residents, because Sam Virgo, a Plymouth high school graduate and son of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Virgo of 343 South Harvey street, is one of the members of the crew of the famed little fighting "Nite Hawk."

Public Invited To P. T. A. Meeting

Prof. E. Wiggins Waugh, teacher of Political Science at the State Normal College at Ypsilanti, will be the speaker at the Starkweather Parent-Teacher Association meeting in the evening of November 16 in the school auditorium, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Prof. Waugh is well known in Plymouth, having spoken at various clubs and organizations, recently being guest speaker at the Business and Professional Women's Club of Plymouth. He has traveled extensively in the European countries and spent several months in Russia prior to the conflict. He is also author of the book entitled, "Heaven Speaks American." An invitation is extended to the public to attend this meeting.

Presbyterians Plan Annual Dinner

Reservations for the First Presbyterian annual turkey dinner are high, according to Mrs. Leslie Daniels, president of the Women's Auxiliary. Plymouth people like the idea of a community dinner, especially during war time, says Mrs. Daniels. Reservations are being made by groups, families and individuals who want a real old-fashioned home cooked turkey dinner. The dinner is an event of November 15 at 5:00 and 6:30 p.m. in the Presbyterian church dining hall.

Hough Extension Group Has Meeting

The Hough Extension Group met, November 2, at the home of Mrs. L. R. Holston of Lotz road. The lesson given by the leader, Mrs. J. T. Maxwell, was "Family Recreation—A Wartime Necessity."

Reading aloud by different members of the family was encouraged and a new book-list presented.

Irene Walldorf Awarded High Honors In Educational Circles

At a ceremony in the Wardell Sheraton Hotel, Detroit, last Saturday, Irene Walldorf, English teacher in the high school was initiated into the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, a national honor-fraternity for women in education. She was one of 12 teachers in out-County schools to be made a charter member of the Kappa chapter, organized at that time. Active membership is limited to one-tenth of the women teachers in a county who have had a minimum of five years of successful teaching experience. Other qualifications for membership are powers of leadership, unselfish professional spirit, cooperative nature, and other desirable personal qualities.

Other members were from schools in Wayne, Dearborn, Farmington, Melvindale, and Wyandotte.

Newburg Church Will Celebrate Anniversary

Completed plans for the observance of the 110th anniversary of its founding were announced last Sunday by the Newburg Methodist church. The anniversary celebration is to take place next week, November 12-19. Speakers during the week will include Dr. Frederick Poole of Detroit, Professor Preston Slosson and the Rev. Joseph Dutton of Ann Arbor, Rev. Herbert Brubaker of Blissfield, and Dr. Thomas Pryor of Royal Oak.

A Methodist Society was first formed in Newburg in 1834. Their first church building was built in 1846 on Newburg road at Ann Arbor road. The present building, built in 1848, was purchased from the Presbyterian church. It stood on Ann Arbor Trail across from the Newburg cemetery. During the pastorate of the Rev. Joseph Dutton it was moved to the present location.

The anniversary activities open Sunday when Dr. Frederick Poole, director of Christian Education of the Methodist church, speaks at the morning worship service at 10:00 a.m. He will also visit the church school. During the church school session recognition will be given all former teachers and officers.

A young people's banquet will be held on Tuesday, November 14 when the Rev. Herbert Brubaker, former dean of the Summer Youth Institute will be the speaker. The banquet will be served by some of the parents of the youth. The youth will carry on the program.

The anniversary banquet will be held on Thursday, November 16 with Dr. Preston Slosson, well known teacher and radio commentator, who will speak on "The Morning After the War."

Former ministers have been invited back for this banquet and each will be given the opportunity to bring greetings. The banquet will be given at 6:30 p.m.

The Homecoming Sunday will be observed on November 19, 1944. The Rev. Joseph Dutton, former pastor, will preach at the morning worship service. In the evening Rev. and Mrs. Taylor of Garden City will conduct a worship service of music. Dr. Thomas Pryor, another former minister will preach during the evening service.

"The Newburg church invites all its friends, both old and new, to worship and rejoice with us during this week of our Anniversary," said the pastor, the Rev. Verle J. Carson.

Moms Ask For Boys' Addresses

Will the Moms please give their sons' addresses to Mrs. Charles Robinson, phone 766-J so that we may complete our Christmas package mailing at once.

Bring gifts for boxes that are to be sent to veterans of World War I to our next afternoon or evening meeting.

During October the Moms made 21 lap robes, 51x54 inches, also eleven quilts, 84x84 inches square, 2 pair pajamas, and 36 utility bags. These quilts and robes were made from clothing donated to the Moms which has been cleaned, pressed, cut into pieces and made into quilts at the service center at the afternoon meetings.

Sixty nine mothers took part in this work during October.

Collect 24 Tons Of Waste Paper

Over 24 tons of scrap paper were collected in Plymouth by Boy Scouts during the month of October, according to data just compiled by Mrs. Russell Powell, general salvage chairman for this locality.

Troops one, two and three collected equal amounts, totaling seven tons each. Troop 4 collected four and a half tons.

Leaders of these energetic Scout workers are, Troop one, Lidgard; two, Hadley; three, Mathias; four, Spitz.

Mr. and Mrs. Alda J. Rolph and Mrs. John Gormley, of Monroe, were entertained at dinner Sunday, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

Pere Marquette Rebuilding Depot Here

No fooling this time! The Pere Marquette meant business when its officials said sometime ago that the Plymouth depot would be rebuilt just as soon as priorities could be secured.

The job is under way—and from all indications it is going to be a worthwhile improvement, one in keeping with one of the fastest growing cities in the country.

Already the depot has been raised nearly a foot and a half above the old grade, a new roof placed on the building, and much of the siding removed preparatory to a new asphalt siding.

Soon workmen will begin to lower the roof at least four feet. The entire interior will be refinished. The high ceiling will be considerably lowered and the old heating stove that has for night onto fifty years provided varying degrees of heat and intense heat and even no heat at all at times, will be replaced by a modern heating furnace that will be installed in the east end of the building.

The floor of the waiting room, as well as the offices, will be covered with the latest there is in modernistic floor covering.

In fact, when the work is finished, about all that will be left of the old depot will be a part of the frame.

Not only is the depot being entirely rebuilt, but the Railway Express building is being placed on a new foundation and raised to correspond to the height of the depot.

As soon as workmen have finished construction work on the two buildings, a fill will be made from Starkweather avenue eastward along the tracks to a point considerably beyond the express building. This entire space will be cemented from the depot to the first railroad track, and along the west side of the depot to the paving on Starkweather avenue.

Not only will this entire space be given a concrete covering, but the company plans to construct a paving just south of the depot from Starkweather to Mill street.

This land belongs to the railroad company, but for years has been used for street purposes, and now the railroad company is going to pave a street much used and never improved.

In addition to the paving for street purposes, a new cement sidewalk will connect the two streets, taking the place of the gravel walk that in the long years ago was a cow path.

The progressive, alert new officials of the Pere Marquette hope to have all of this done before winter blizzards make it impossible to carry on outside work.

If the progress that has been made since the improvement was started is maintained, the whole job will have been finished by the end of November.

Cicirelli Is War Prisoner

Nicholas Cicirelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cicirelli of 33605 Plymouth road, reported missing in action over Germany in late August, has been found to be a prisoner of war in Germany.

His parents received a telegram Saturday evening from the Red Cross, stating that he had been found and that he was among American prisoners being held within Germany.

The parents, as well as his many friends, are greatly relieved to know that he is alive.

Wayne County P. T. A. To Meet November 14

The regular meeting of the Wayne County Council of Parent Teacher's Association will be held in the Methodist church at Flat Rock, November 14. A dinner at 6 o'clock will precede the evening meeting which convenes at 7:15 o'clock. The guest speaker will be Dr. Marion S. Pittman of the Georgia State Teacher's College, Statesboro, Georgia. Come and win the membership banner.

Eaton Wins For Legislature

Plymouth and this section of northwest Wayne county failed to be moved by the political storm that swept the nation Tuesday and remained as steadfast Republican as ever.

While it had been expected that a nearly four to one Republican vote could be expected in this locality, it did not reach quite that proportion, but did go much better than two to one Republican.

This city and surrounding townships strongly supported Governor Dewey for president and the entire Republican state ticket. It gave Frank Ferguson a lead over Judge Friedman for circuit judge.

A local candidate, Elton R. Eaton, won election to the state legislature, overcoming the tremendously large Democratic vote in the east end of the district along the Detroit city limits by a flood of ballots that were split by hundreds voting the Democratic ticket.

In one Northville precinct, there were nearly 50 split ballots for him. This legislative district, as a whole, went Democratic by nearly 2,000 votes. Eaton's unofficial total vote, with all precincts in the district reporting, is 15,566 to a vote of 14,203 for his opponent.

There might be a slight variation in this figure on the official count, but it will not be great.

Eaton carried the north side of Inkster, but the south end precincts of that community went heavily Democratic for the first time. A large government housing project for residents of that locality is believed to have had some bearing on the election results.

There were more than 1200 straight Democratic votes in these two Inkster precincts.

Eaton's vote in Plymouth was 1903 to 757 for Shedd. In Plymouth township it was 601 for Eaton, and 288 for Shedd. In Northville's two precincts, Eaton had 1341 and his opponent 594. In Canton, Eaton's vote was 663 to 342.

Plymouth gave Governor Dewey and the Republican state ticket an average from 1856 to 1900 votes. The Democratic vote in Plymouth was about 700 to 775.

Congressman Dondoro carried Plymouth by a total vote of 1887 to 782 for his Democratic opponent.

State Senator Clarence Reid, who appears to have been re-elected by large returns, had 1873 votes in Plymouth to 742 for his opponent.

Out county Wayne went heavily against all of the proposed constitutional amendments.

While the city of Plymouth voted strongly against home rule, the Yes vote in this city was higher than elsewhere in the county. This city voted 1646 against it and 657 against the proposal. There were large numbers of ballots not voted at all. Most townships and communities in the county voted an average of from four to one to five to one against Amendment four.

Late returns from about the state indicate that all amendments were defeated.

Plymouth Township Voters in Plymouth Township Voted as They Usually Do in All Elections, Strongly Republican

The only difference between this and previous elections is the fact that the vote was one of the largest ever cast in the township.

With a total of over 600 votes, the board was also the first in this entire section of Wayne county to complete its count.

The vote in the township gave Dewey 576 and Roosevelt 345.

It gave Kelly a vote of 617 and Fry a vote of 287. The rest of the state ticket ran from ten to 30 votes under the Kelly vote.

Congressman Dondoro received 590 votes and his opponent John Hicks, 292 votes.

Senator Clarence Reid had 583 votes and his opponent Robert Campbell had 295.

Elton R. Eaton for state representative had 601 votes and Arthur Shedd 288.

Plymouth township also gave George Ferguson a majority over Judge Friedman for circuit judge and it registered an emphatic disapproval of all of the proposed amendments, the residents of the township voting especially strong against the proposed home rule amendment.

Canton Township Going true to form, Canton township which always votes Democratic in township elections, went overwhelmingly Republican in the national and state elections. This has been the rule in Canton for years.

Mrs. Ann Sumner

Plymouth women, who have been doing a splendid job in connection with various war efforts during the past three years, have been inducted into full war service to help deliver the final knock-out blow to the Nazis and Japs!

They will carry the ammunition, lead the front line charges and drive the enemies into surrender!

In other words, the tremendously important Sixth war loan drive will be under the complete direction of women of this city!

Mrs. Ann Sumner, who for nearly two years has served most efficiently as chairman of the U. S. Treasury Women's War Bond committee for Plymouth, has accepted the general chairmanship for the Sixth war loan drive in Plymouth.

For nearly two weeks she has been busy recruiting a staff of workers who will not fail in the highly important task they have been called upon to perform.

To the ever lasting glory and honor of Plymouth, this city (Continued on Page 13)

This Is Tin Can Collection Day

Today—Friday—November 10—is tin can collection day! It is just as important as ever that you do your part to help win this war—the nation's tin supply is still far short of the needs.

Properly prepare your tin cans, then place them in some sort of a container set them at the curb line so that it will be an easy matter for the collection to be made this afternoon by the city workers.

Mrs. William Rambo, chairman of the tin collection committee, is especially anxious to have Plymouth do its part in today's collection.

Let's comply with the request! Let's have the tin cans ready for collection this Friday afternoon. Have them at the curb line no later than 12 o'clock.

Armistice Day Party Planned

Arrangements have been completed by members of the American Legion and the Auxiliary members for a benefit party to be given Saturday evening, November 11 at the Legion hall on Newburg road. Every one is invited to be present and take part in the affair. All money raised will be spent for Christmas purposes for men who are now in the armed forces of the country. Here's one way to do something for the boys and at the same time secure a little enjoyment for yourself.

The Spinster's Club composed of high school teachers met for a pot-luck dinner at the home of Miss Edna Allen, and Miss Ursula Carey Monday evening. Miss Carey was presented with a birthday gift and Mrs. Murray, the former Maxine Saffel, was also honored with a gift and then given the customary "firing" from membership.

Eaton Wins

(Continued from Page 1) Nowak, who had 345 votes. Elton R. Eaton for state representative, had a total of 663 and Arthur Shedd had 342. Albert Riddering, Republican candidate for congress had a total of 659 votes to Congressman John Lesinski had 345. The rest of the state and county ticket ran about the same ratio. Canton also registered disapproval of all of the amendments, indicating that voters at this time are not at all interested in making governmental changes of a basic nature.

Livonia Township Livonia township cast a total of 4893 ballots, and like Plymouth, Northville and Canton townships, went Republican. But the Republican majority in Livonia was not as high as in other places. Precincts on the eastern side of the township went Democratic. Republican majorities averaged from 400 to about 900. Frank Ferguson, name candidate for circuit judge, had a vote of 2302 as against 1544 for Judge Friedman. Probate Judges Healy and Murphy were easy victors in Livonia.

Keith is a grandson of Mrs. Henry J. Fisher, and is known by many in this city. No word had been received from him in some time, so it was welcome news to know he was in the states.

Weddings

Delvo-Barlow A quiet ceremony performed in the chapel at Camp Elliott near San Diego, California, on Tuesday, October 31, united a young couple from Plymouth, Betty Ann Barlow daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Barlow of Ann Arbor road, east, and Sgt. Richard J. Delvo, a marine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Delvo, of Harvey street, south. The bride and bridegroom were attended by Ena Peoples and Sgt. Lynn Eglsner, of San Diego. Sgt. and Mrs. Delvo enjoyed a brief honeymoon in Los Angeles, California, where they visited her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Laury. The bride and bridegroom are Plymouth high school graduates. They will reside in San Diego as long as he is stationed there.

Zielasko - Driscoll. One of the loveliest weddings of the year took place at St. Mary's Church of Wayne on Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock when Miss Ruth Driscoll daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Driscoll of Avondale became the bride of Edmund Zielasko of Plymouth in a nuptial ceremony read by the Rev. Father Dorr. The bride was beautiful in her brocaded gown of white satin, styled with a sweetheart neckline and long train. Her veil was finger-tip length, falling from a pearl-studded tiara. The bridal bouquet was of white roses, white carnations and white snapdragons.

Maid-of-honor, Miss Anna Mae Driscoll, who attended her sister, chose a dress of aqua, with silk jersey bodice and a full net skirt of matching color. The bouffant skirt was appliqued with birds outlined in gold brocade. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and blue snapdragons. Bridesmaids, Rita Brainard, Amalia Zielasko, and Jean Kubitsky, wore identical gowns of pink with jersey bodices and bouffant net skirts. Each carried arm bouquets of pink carnations and white snapdragons.

41 LOST 52 Lbs. WEAR SIZE 14 AGAIN! MRS. C. B. WELLS, 171 FRONT ST. As Pictured Here - You may lose pounds and have a more slender, graceful figure. No drugs. No laxatives. Eat most delicious, healthy, buttery. The experience of Mrs. Wells may or may not be different than yours, but why not try the Ayds Plan? Look at the picture.

In clinical tests conducted by medical doctors more than 100 people in a few weeks with the Ayds Plan lost an average of 25 lbs. If you are not satisfied, your money is refunded. With this Ayds Plan you don't cut out any meals, starve, eat potatoes, eat anything you desire. It's simple and easier when you use the Ayds Plan. The experience of Mrs. Wells may or may not be different than yours, but why not try the Ayds Plan? Look at the picture.

Robert Zielasko was best man and Joseph Ribar, Clarence Le-vandowski, and Donald Brainard were ushers.

Mrs. Raymond Driscoll, mother of the bride, wore a gray crepe street-length dress with a corsage of white gardenias.

Mrs. Joseph Zielasko, mother of the groom wore a blue crepe street dress with a corsage of white gardenias.

Mr. Zielasko has served in the armed forces over three years. He was in the Tunisian and Sicilian invasions and other major campaigns. He has been given an honorable discharge.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given at the Hillside Club. For going away, Mrs. Zielasko wore a suit of ashes-of-roses shade, with black velvet trim. Her shoulder corsage was of white orchids.

After a wedding trip to Chicago, the couple will be at home in their new house on Barry St., north of Wayne.

The good man's hope is laid far—far beyond the sway of tempests, or the furious sweep of mortal desolation.—H. K. White.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST — Sunday morning service, 10:30; Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of 20 years. Wednesday evening testimony service, 8:00. "Mortals and Immortals" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, November 12. The Golden Text (I Corinthians 15:48) is: "As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly." Among the Bible citations is this passage (Psalm 17:15): "As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (492): "For right reasoning there should be but one fact before the thought, namely, spiritual existence. In reality there is no other existence, since Life cannot be united to its unlikeness, mortality."

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH. corner of Ann Arbor Trail and Elizabeth St. offers you a place to worship if you have no affiliation elsewhere. Strangers are welcomed always. Sunday school 10 a.m. Preaching service, 11:30. Preaching also in an evening service which begins at 7:30 with a song service. Your church is closed Sunday evenings? Why not visit us some Sunday evening? The Bible Society has arranged through the reading of the same passages from the Scriptures to link the home and front for a 33 day period beginning at Thanksgiving. We have the lists of these readings on our blackboard. More than 10,000,000 book marks listing the passages in the Bible are being distributed from store counters, etc. "All the sense of integrity, honor, and service I have in my heart, I got from hearing the Bible read by a school teacher in the three years I went to a little old-fashioned grammar school."—Henry Ford, and there are teachers in the rural communities who are closing their doors to the rural Evangelist because they haven't "time" to have him present his lessons, and many of these children have never been in church, and never hear the name of Christ except as it is used profanely!

NEWBURG METHODIST CHURCH. Minister, Verle J. Carson, 9614 Newburg Rd. Plymouth 860-W4. Sunday morning worship 10 a.m. Dr. Frederick Poole will be guest preacher at our opening anniversary service. The church meets at 11 a.m. with Superintendent Roy Wheeler

To Help Farmers Fight Fox Plague

Did that sly old fox get one of your chickens or a turkey the other night? Did it get that big fat goose you were getting ready for Thanksgiving? Here's what to do about it. The Western Wayne County Conservation Association has decided to lend its aid to the farmers in ridding this part of the state of the menace. At a meeting of the board of directors called by President Brick Champe Monday night, the board decided that if farmers will call either President Champe or any one of the directors of the association, they will organize a party of members, go to the farm dig out the fox den and kill every fox they can find. The club members are fully aware of the damage being done to farmers poultry flocks as well as to wild life in this vicinity, and the directors were unanimous in their decision to do something about it. They are not agreed that a bounty on killing fox is the best way to end the plague, but they do think that sportsmen can help a whole lot by digging out their dens and then after snowfalls, in hunting down these predators. Members of the board are President Brick Champe, Secretary Ernest Henry, Ezra Routner, Russell Powell, Charles Messmore, John Crandall, William Morgan, Jack Taylor, Floyd Hopkins, Harry Rackham, William Gayde, Elton R. Eaton, Hugh Horton and Walter Smith. The Plymouth Mail Want Ads bring results.

Mr. Townsend Presents

Chief A. Hemming

One of the World's Greatest Herbal Scientists Will Talk at

At Jewell-Blaich Hall, Plymouth

8 p.m.

Thurs.
Friday

NOV.

16-17

His Talk Entitled "Sparks from the Anvil of Health"

Genesis: 1st Chapter: 30th Verse.—"And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to everything that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat; and it was so."

Genesis: Chapter 1: Verse 31.—"And God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good." Why are we sick? Hear this lecture then you will know why!

Revelations: Chapter 22: 2nd Verse.—"In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month, and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations."

DR. FRANK G. BRACEY, D. C.

Chief Hemming:

The above has been known to me for some time as an Herbal Scientist. I have experienced his work in many cases of systemic conditions such as poisons in the body and other conditions where internal remedies are needed, nature's way is always the best. Frank G. Bracey, D. C.

DR. C. H. SHEWMAKE, D. C.

To Whom It May Concern:

In my practice, I have had the occasion to treat many people who have tried and proven to their satisfaction the great qualities of Chief Hemming's herbs.

I feel in the healing profession that what gives results to one can do likewise to another. C. H. Shewmake, D. C.

Heart Trouble

I have taken Chief Hemming's medicine for high blood pressure and heart trouble. I am feeling better every day.

Susie H. Campbell,
772 Forest Ave.,
Plymouth, Mich.

Ulcers of Stomach

I have taken Chief Hemming's medicine for ulcers and I am eating every thing and feeling fine.

James G. Nairn,
1309 Sheridan
Plymouth.

Ulcers of the Stomach

I have taken Chief Hemming's medicine for indigestion and ulcers some time ago. And I am feeling fine at the present time.

Henry A. Hares,
774 So. Harvey
Plymouth, Mich.

Arthritis

I am taking Chief Hemming's medicine at the present time for arthritis and I am feeling much better.

Mrs. Chas. Rengert,
8963 Joy Rd., Rte 1,
Plymouth, Mich.

Cancer of the Bone

24550 Scott Ave.,
Dearborn, Mich.

My husband was told that my life was very short, about six weeks to remain on this earth. Thank God my prayers were answered. After taking Chief Hemming's herb medicine I am now feeling fine.

Mrs. Wm. Moench.

Cancer of the Bone

In 1941 my husband was told I had 3 months to live, that I had cancer of the spine. I was in bed for 26 months. But had faith in God that I would recover. With the aid of God and Chief Hemming's herb medicine I am in good health today.

Mrs. Martha Holland,
11303 Manor
Detroit, Mich.

Diabetes

To whom it may concern, seven years ago I suffered from diabetes and hearing of Chief Hemming's herb medicine I tried it and now feel better.

Mrs. George Shafer,
9811 Newburg Rd. Rte 5
Plymouth, Mich.

Nervousness

Thanks a million for the help I got from your herb medicine. My nerves were very bad, but are very good now.

Mrs. Beatrice Bulmer,
9846 Newburg Rd, Rte 5

Rheumatism and Arthritis

I wish to thank you Chief Hemming for the help I received from taking your herb medicine. I have no pain now and feel completely better.

J. H. Roberts
19180 Carmen St.,
Detroit, Mich.

Here you will see and hear people that were crippled and deserted.

YOURSELF

Today, thrift is a national necessity. Every dollar spent carelessly makes already scarce goods scarcer, forces prices higher, lowers the buying power of the dollar, may lead to widespread economic insecurity later.

It's your duty to save now. Persistent, long-continued, planned saving by all of us will lead to greater prosperity after the war. Buy War Bonds regularly—and go to the bank every pay day to deposit as much of your salary as you can. It's your patriotic duty, as well as your duty to yourself and your family.

Interment will be on the family lot in Oce Russell Cemetery, Dickson, Tennessee.

If good people would but make their goodness agreeable, and smile instead of frowning in their virtue; how many would they win to the good cause?—Usher.

As wisdom without courage is futile, even so faith without hope is nothing worth; for hope endures and overcomes misfortune and evil.—Martin Luther.

It is hope which makes the shipwrecked sailor strike out with his arms in the midst of the sea, though no land is in sight.—Ovid.

Reporter Visits Junior Rehearsal

Amid the hustle and confusion of twenty-two people all seemingly doing different things, the Junior play "Junior Miss" is rehearsed. The rehearsal room is small and the sound of the players shouting their lines bounces back into one's ears creating a terrible din. The most frequent comment by the director is "louder." No props are used except a telephone and all sound effects are furnished by the actors themselves.

Good humor among the cast is prevalent even though most of the scenes have to be rehearsed two or three times and strain on the voice is terrible. The players seem to be pretty good at remembering their lines and expression but they have trouble with gestures and action. The male leads can't seem to resist adding their own touches of comedy to the lines.

The play will be presented on December 14 and 15. The male leads are the same for both evenings but the others change.

Annual Committee Chairmen Announced

The 1945 Plythean is well under way now, following the appointment of the committee chairmen who are Catherine Cooper, class history; Rosemary Miller, biographies; Betty Arington, club reports; Bernice Miklesky, art; Hugh Harsha, sports; Lois Hanson, make-up; Bernard Birt, photography; and Kay Fisher, typing. The committees are meeting to assign divisions of their work, and it is hoped that a last minute composing rush will be avoided. Pictures will be taken by Miss Fiegel or Peg Hart, editor, or Miss Elizabeth McDonald, advisor of the Annual.

Harold Todd Guest Of Camera Club

Harold Todd, a graduate of '44 gave a talk on the developing of films at the Camera Club meeting October 30. Alan Kidston and Freeman Hoover also gave talks on the same subject.

Class News

After studying the chapter on the newspaper and learning the purpose of the public letter box Miss Walldorf's English class wrote letters stating the pros and cons of proposals varying from a swimming pool for Plymouth and better bus service to praise or attacks of the presidential candidates.

Miss Gravelle announces that there are 38 new books in the library covering varied and interesting subjects such as composers, sports, minerals, seeing eye dogs, historic costumes, and the lives of such famous men as Bret Harte and Peter the Great. Especially helpful to senior girls will be "She's off to College" which is a guidebook of what to expect in college. There are also two copies of John Gunther's "Inside Asia."

In Miss Walldorf's English 11B the students wrote paragraphs with the topic sentences either "Dewey should be elected in November" or "Roosevelt should be re-elected in November." Although Dewey won the margin was much smaller than is expected in a Republican town.

Miss Fiegel's American history classes are engaged in the study of the Articles of Confederation. They recently finished the Revolutionary period. Miss Fiegel made the interesting statement that her history classes as a whole are doing better than the classes of the past few years.

The girls vocations class of Mrs. Bates has completed the study of the various phases of the aviation industry. Her boys' classes have finished a study of the automobile industry.

Mrs. Carey's history classes who are studying the Revolutionary period in American history have been enjoying historical novels as part of their outside reading.

Hearing Tests Conducted In School

Miss Swartwood, Instructor of Special Education from the Rackham School in Ypsilanti, has conducted hearing tests throughout the school during the past week. In groups of approximately forty the students were tested by means of an audiometer. The work is expected to take a few days more, but it is hoped that upon completion all students defective in hearing will be informed in order that they may correct it.

Hesco Girls Initiated

Walking through macaroni and ice cubes was part of the informal initiation of twenty-two new members of Hesco October 25. In the formal initiation held by candle light that evening, each girl was presented with corsages. Red and white were the colors of the table decorations which consisted of red carnations, red betty lamp, the symbol of the club, and red candles. The guests of honor were Miss Lundin, Miss Lucy Clire, and Mrs. Moran.

Nora Weisenmoe Head Of All Girls' Party

Heading the committees for the All Girls' Party given Thursday, November 9, and sponsored by the Girl Reserves were Nora Weisenmoe as chairman and Eleanor McDonald as co-chairman. The chairmen of the class skits were 9th grade, Joan Miller; 10th grade, Pat Isabell; 11th grade, Virginia Waldecker; and 12th grade, Joan Gillis. Marian Kirkpatrick was the refreshments chairman; Betty Arnold, the floor chairman; and Nancy Groth, hostess chairman.

Here and There

Lorraine and Shirlee Nichol were hostesses at a Halloween party in their home in Rosedale Gardens on the evening of October 28. Their guests were Elizabeth Neale, Peg Hart, Anna Marie Cooper, Marion Kirkpatrick, Margaret Jackson, Jeanne Shuler, Betty Jean Duff, Beatrice Johnson, Lois Mills, Patricia Martin, Dick Tarnutzer, Heinz Hoenecke, Jack Bucknell, Paul Miller, Bob Reh, Jerry Treadwell, Bruce Murray, Hugh Harsha, Merlin Datcher, Donald Shely, Bernard Birt, David Johnson, Dale Wiseley, Bob Deyo, Melvin Larson, Bob Trombley, and Jimmy Mathison from Redford High school, who was a guest of Bob Reh. The group spent the evening dancing and eating.

A take off on women voters was the theme of the original play the Drama Club presented to the Business and Professional Woman's Club on November 7.

Tony Plays Games In France

The following is from a letter of Tony Matulis, former coach of P.H.S. basketball teams. "We had a basketball game October 22, the first exercise I have had in ages. There was a girls' game going on when we arrived and we had to wait for it to end. They played boys' rules and really played plenty rough. It was a good game and fast. I think our American girls would really have to put up quite a fight to compete with them.

"We played outdoors, and fortunately it didn't rain during the time that we played. It was a tennis court made into a basketball court; it had a good clay top and was in fine shape. We won 47 to 23. I played three-quarters of the game and was plenty pooped. I thought I would be stiff today, but to my surprise I am not.

"Before the game began, our recreation officer was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. It was lovely. I didn't get a chance to see it in detail but would say that it was a mixture of mums, dahlias, and small flowers, very colorful. With it was a note saying that the American Welves were welcome to their athletic club, and expressing the appreciation of the French for the American's willingness and cooperation in competing with them. They had a fair team, but ours had better shots, as we had two fellows who were intercollegiate athletes and very good.

My contribution was 7 points, most of them free throws. I played back and let the younger generation do the fast work; I helped keep the score down and got the ball off the bank board on defense. Next Sunday we are to have two games, one enlisted men and one officers. It appears that their Sunday pastime here is athletic competition. The crowd was very appreciative and stared at the big fellows on our team.

We accepted to be at home on their court and played a pretty good brand of ball. I think they enjoyed watching team work or our part as much as they wanted their team to win. They always cheered when a good play was executed. They couldn't get over the fact that we could shoot from midcourt and have the ball go swish through the basket. I took two of those shots and made one. It was all fun and seemed like home to me. That is the first time I have done anything like that since I left P.H.S. I thoroughly enjoyed it, even if I did have to take a cold bath afterwards, as U.S. engineers still haven't the water supply repaired after the German destruction."

A lot of women think they look as young as their daughters, but nobody else does.

Freshmen Win Closing Game 18-0

Plymouth freshmen played their final game of the season against Wayne, beating them 18 to 0 last Thursday. It was the second time the freshmen had played Wayne, and they also won the first game, 31 to 0. They scored three touchdowns, one in the first quarter and in the third and fourth quarters. No conversions were made.

This game finished the 1944 freshman season. They now have a .500 average, winning two and losing two games. "The material for next year's varsity squad looks very good," said Mr. Ingram, freshman coach.

Submit Names Now For Prom Invitations

Invitations to the Senior Prom to be held December 1, can be received by asking any senior to submit the name and address of the couple wanting to come or by calling the chairman of the invitation committee, Lois Hanson, at Livonia 2228. Invitations are necessary only when neither one of the couple attends Plymouth High school.

Combination Locks Are A Success

According to Mr. Dykhouse the combination locks which the student council bought are proving their worth. These will be paid for by the students in this way: each deposits one dollar on the locker which he or she will occupy. If the lock and locker are in good condition, the student will receive seventy-five cents at the end of the year. The students are keeping their locks on all the time, as a whole, with not so much thievery as a result.

Senior Sketches

Merlin Datcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Datcher, lives at 7422 Deering Street, Garden City. Hunting, fishing, and fly tying are his hobbies. He is taking a college preparatory course. He has been vice-president of the junior class, on the student council in the twelfth grade, judge one year, in the cast of the Junior-Senior Play, on the baseball team two years, and is on the cross country team this year. Girls who smoke are his pet peeve.

People who chew gum loudly is the pet peeve of Violette Meyers, daughter of Louis and Cecelia Meyers of Auburndale, Rosedale Gardens and music and reading are her hobbies. She is a member of Girl Reserves, has worked on the Junior-Senior play, the J-Hop, Senior Prom, and the Senior Annual. She is taking a college preparatory course but plans to become a Cadet Nurse if the war is still being fought when she graduates.

Barbara Dely, daughter of Mrs. Anna Dely of Maple Avenue, is now employed at Wilson's Dairy store but is undecided as to her plans after school. Barbara, who is taking a general course, has as her hobby, skating; her pet peeve is girls who wear anklets with pumps.

The mayor of Plymouth High School, Stanley E. Burden, is the son of Russell and Ora Burden of Butternut Street in Robinson Subdivision. He is taking a commercial course and has no plans except the service after graduation. Stan has been in many one-act plays and had one of the main roles in the James play. He was also active on J-Hop committees and was the vice-president of H-Y one year. His hobbies are dramatics, writing poetry, and collecting ticket stubs. His pet peeve is smoking girls.

Beverly Broman, daughter of Ralph and Martha Broman of Virginia street, plans to take an interior decorating in college; she is now taking college preparatory work. She has been a member of Girl Scouts and Girl Reserves. Her hobbies are art and good murder mysteries.

Train Sons For Father's Jobs

Training sons of dealers to assume the business responsibilities of their fathers will be carried out under a new education program of the Ford Motor Company.

This program will in no way conflict with a similar training system already set up for the benefit of returning veterans who want to enter the automobile business with Ford.

The proposed plan calls for training approximately 40 dealer sons in a group, each group requiring about six weeks to complete the scheduled class and laboratory work. Housing on the barracks or camp plan will be provided near the Rouge plant.

An outline of the proposed study plan already has been approved by regional managers and dealers. Students will go through an introductory period to learn the background and history of Ford operations. Then progressive classes will take them through actual engineering and production operations, with thorough grounding in service.

When the factory courses have been completed the students then will begin study of selling methods, business management and office procedure. Systems of accounting will be studied along with costs, time study, market evaluations and distribution practices.

Garden Club To Meet Monday

The Plymouth Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will hold its November meeting at the home of Mrs. Lincoln Lantz, 189 Union street Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The subject for discussion will be herbs and chrysanthemums. It is especially urged that all members be present.

Our thanks should be as fervent for mercies received as our petitions for mercies sought.—Charles Simmons.

porter, and a cameraman were aboard. Normally, only 10 crewmen are carried. Tonight's three extras were replacements for old-timers expecting relief shortly as 12 months is the usual tour of PT duty.

Bob Mack was at the wheel and Mr. Richardson moved about the boat to see that everyone was all set. The sun was setting and the evening breeze was invigorating as we cruised along at about 35 knots. We had 3,000 gallons of high octane gas along and plenty of armament. Around 1830, Thomas Hanley, radioman first class (of Baltimore) received a message from "Blondy" (our Beaufort bomber co-worker for the night) telling us that he had spotted a suspicious launch flying the American flag, which apparently had no business in that area. Skipper "Steve" immediately changed course and headed in the direction the ship had been reported. We had covered approximately five miles when "Blondy" (which was an Australian plane) called in to say that it was a joke on him. The ship had turned out to be a friendly one of Australian make and had eventually answered his challenge correctly.

Back to our course again and the reporter went below to look around with quartermaster second class Bob Alvarez (of Chicago). The first thing that struck our eye was the cozy little day room replete with the inevitable pin-up girls. Against the walls were a couple of bunks for lounging and a rack of books. Amidships was the radioman's room and the quartermaster's plotting board. Just ahead was the little galley with a cove for the skipper and exec. Beyond, was the crew's mess table. A leather bench surrounded the mess table and around the walls were six bunks with comfortable mattresses. Alvarez offered us a cup of coffee. It was the percolated type and good. Nothing like the brownish solution that comes out of a GI can. We sat around and shot the breeze concerning the relative risks the infantry and the PT boys take. "You know," said Alvarez, a slightly built curly haired kid of around 21, "you fellows take a lot of chances and I don't envy you. (We didn't envy him either). But one thing where you have it over us, you can jump in a foxhole when they blaze away at you and we can't." Bob then showed us a few snaps of Gary Cooper, he had taken when Gary, Phyllis Brooks, and Una Merkel had taken a ride with them a few months back.

Back up on deck, one of the first things we noticed were intermittent lights flashing from the shore about a mile off our starboard side. "Yeah, those are Japs all right," said "Steve," "but we have learned that they only play that way when they have a field piece trained on you. We'll do the teasing. Not those babies." Steve is a stocky, grey-eyed ex-footballer from Plymouth, Indiana. He played end for Purdue on the same brilliant teams with Cecil Isabell and Lou Brock back in '36, '37, and '38.

The crew on this boat is amazingly like those on bombers. Loyalty among them is an unspoken thing that is instinctively felt. "Ed Steve is the best damned skipper out here," said chunky little seaman third class, Fred Hug (of Chicago). From the unconscious off-hand way he made that remark it was obvious that Hug would take that stand against any other PT crew in the area. Nineteen, Hug is the baby of the crew. We learned from him that the PT boats operating off their tender had credit for sinking over 100 barges, in the We-wak area.

At approximately 2000 we pulled into Victoria Bay to find three other PT's waiting for us. After a lot of good-natured bantering between the skippers as to who was going to close in and bait the Japs it wound up with all four boats dashing in and out along shore. Now, we were doing the teasing and begging them to start something. We were within 200 yards of shore. Good range for a carbine shot. After ten minutes or so of this business with no response, the boats withdrew to about one thousand yards offshore and cut their motors.

"Well, here we are you Japs," said one of the crew. "The next move is up to you." Watchers were posted and the boys off-duty lay around the decks for a few hours rest. At midnight we went below for steak sandwiches and coffee.

The balance of the night passing without event and at 0500 we came up on deck to be greeted by the soft persistent drizzle so common in the tropics. Around 0530 it cleared up enough for fair visibility. "Okay," announced the skipper, "we'll go in and see what gives." Simultaneously, the three other PT's started their motors and we all started circling the Bay in the area known as "shot-gun alley." At a given signal all boats opened fire, on a village along the shore. We were back inside the 200 yard area now and all the guns on all the ships were blazing away. The thatched huts were disintegrating before our eyes. Some of the shells hit them low and literally lifted them into the air. We were using tracers and some of the shells could be seen ricocheting all the way to the top of the mountain behind the settlement. An aerial patrol the day before had reported a Jap sun in that area but we received no return fire. While the ed overhead looking for signs of enemy activity. Thirty minutes of this and "Blondy" suggested, "Suppose we go home, chaps." The four boats turned their sterns on the village in a beautifully uniform maneuver and streaked for the open sea. Ensign Mack of Three Rivers, Mich., a former tackle at Alma, Mich., College was at the wheel and having fun riding in the wake of the boat just ahead. Below deck, ship's cook first class

Ernest McDermott, Gary, Indiana, was grumbling because the resulting bounce was ruining the sunny-side up eggs he was preparing for the crew's breakfast. "Blondy" was having a couple of these eggs and a couple of these buzzing the boats and a couple across each other's bow. The blazing early morning sunlight cast a beautiful background for their antics. We stopped below to have a few last words with the skipper. Over delicious flapjacks, eggs, and coffee, he apologized, "Afraid this has been pretty dull for you. It's rather quiet just now. Nearest thing to excitement we have had lately happened a few nights back when one of the boats spotted a Jap sub and chased it into a mined area where it blew up. A few weeks ago the traffic of Jap trucks leading down the road to We-wak looked like Broadway at night time. Then we could go in and knock 'em off like clay pigeons. And too, they would throw a bit of stuff from their three-inchers at us. It was more fun then.

At 0830 we pulled into the base and tied-up to the tender. The Nite Hawk had one more mission under its belt. The crew piled off for a few hours rest. Later in the day, they would clean the guns and go over the boat from top to bottom. The following afternoon they would go trouble hunting once more.

Merchant Marine Hero To Speak

A hero of the Merchant Marine who was thrice torpedoed in 24 hours will appear at Detroit Town Hall in the Fisher theatre, Wednesday morning, Nov. 15 at 11 o'clock. He is twenty-six year old Colin Mackenzie, author of the best seller, "Sailors of Fortune."

In his lecture, the young seaman will describe the thrilling experiences which gave him the title, "the most blown up man in the service." Mackenzie was thrown into the water at night, bunk and all, when his ship was torpedoed. He scrambled back aboard, donned a life jacket, but was again plunged into the sea when the second blast came. With his ankle broken, he floated all night in shark infested waters. The freighter which picked him in the morning was also sunk.

Because of his injuries the sailor was invalided home. When he recovered, it was to ship out again for the North African, Sicilian, and Italian invasions. At Salerno, Mackenzie fought for three days with the American army on the beaches. His ship was beside the cruiser, Savannah when she was rocket bombed and destroyed. The sailor is recuperating again, meanwhile lecturing, and writing another book to follow the first, "Sailors of Fortune."

Reservations for the lecture may be obtained at Grinnell's Music House, Ra. 1124.

Our gifts and attainments are not only to be light and warmth in our own dwellings, but are also to shine through the windows into the dark night, to guide and cheer bewildered travelers on the road.—H. W. Beecher.

Mrs. Ann Summer

has not only made its quota in all previous five war loan drives, but it has gone way over the top. Once or twice the city came within a small amount of almost doubling the quota fixed for Plymouth.

Chairman Summer will announce her list of "Gallants" next week. Not only will she present to service many new war bond workers, but she will have the splendid co-operation of the V-volunteers who have been of so much assistance during the past two war loan drives.

Did you think there were going to be no more war loan drives? Well there is! State Chairman Frank Isbey at a meeting the other day stated that there would be a seventh war loan drive, an eighth, a ninth, a tenth, maybe more.

"We are a long ways from victory—much longer than many of us believe," he said. State Chairman Isbey ought to know. Since the Fifth loan drive, he has spent five months in France, in Italy, in Holland, in Belgium and in England. He knows what he is talking about.

Chairman Summer of Plymouth's Sixth war loan drive was in attendance at a recent meeting in Detroit of women who will play an important part in the Sixth war loan drive. She heard the facts about conditions, and she—like all others who know—is impressed by the seriousness of the situation facing this country.

While Plymouth women will direct and lead the Sixth war loan drive in Plymouth, that does not mean that various organizations of men can count themselves out. Chairman Summer is going to call upon every organization in Plymouth, both men and women, to take an active part in this all-important drive.

She not only hopes to exceed the quota for this city, but she hopes to double it this time—and that can be done, with your help and the help of every one else.

By the end of June, 1944, the national debt was $201 billions. Computed annual interest charges on this was $3,863 millions—about 3.86 per cent of all Federal expenditures.

As of March 31, 1944, the national debt was owed as follows: To all individuals (including E Bond holders), $41,800,000,000. To insurance companies and savings banks, $23,200,000,000. To other corporations and associations, $23,500,000,000. To State and local governments, $2,700,000,000. To Federal agencies and trust funds, $18,100,000,000. To commercial banks, $64,200,000,000. To Federal Reserve Banks, $12,100,000,000.

Contrary to rumors and propaganda, bond redemptions are not alarming, considered in relation to the total invested.

Up to August 31, 1944, Americans had purchased more than 26 billion dollars worth of Series E bonds. On that date 87 per cent of this money was still invested in these bonds.

Last year people redeemed only about 6 per cent of all savings bonds outstanding at the close of the year.

War bonds issued in the names of individuals as owners or co-owners may now be cashed at most banks and trust companies without charge. This new arrangement applies to Series E war bonds and to the old "Baby Bonds" (Series A, B, C and D) first issued in 1925. It is only necessary to present the bond and satisfactory proof of identification at any bank which has qualified to act as redemption agent.

Although this new arrangement makes it easier to cash bonds, it is expected both to increase buying and to reduce redemption. People will no longer find it necessary to anticipate emergencies which may never arise, either by increasing their bank deposits or by converting their war bonds into cash. Now they can wait until the need actually presents itself, because if a bond must be cashed the money may be obtained as easily as though it were withdrawn from a savings account.

There are many ways in which to measure how much a war—ally costs. We can count the lives lost, the property and resources destroyed, the work expended, the money consumed.

The FINANCIAL cost of the war must be paid while the war is actually being fought. A gun cannot be fired until it has been made and loaded. The labor and the sacrifice involved in paying for the war belong to TODAY, not to TOMORROW.

During the months ahead we must set ourselves to the task of waging a long, hard, and costly war against an enemy who has shown no indication of granting us an easy victory. To pay for that struggle, and to help shorten it, we must all BUY MORE BONDS IN THE 6TH WAR LOAN AND UNTIL THE JOB IS DONE.

In the Sixth War Loan our Nation must raise $14,000,000,000. Why?

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1945, our Government's expenditures are estimated at $99 billions; $90 billions of this to pay for the War.

Even if Germany quits the war before the end of that period, we will still have the Japanese War to win, an Army, a Navy and all the auxiliaries to supply and maintain.

The average serviceman will receive, upon his discharge, the equivalent of six months' wages as mustering-out pay.

Funds will be needed for goods already delivered to the Army, Navy, and Maritime Service but not yet paid for and for other costs of the war.

Income payments to individuals during 1944 will total about $133,000,000,000 — one hundred fifty-three billions of dollars!

Local, State, and Federal taxes will reduce the figure of $153 billions to about $133 billions.

This means that consumers will have $133 billions with which to purchase $96 billions worth of goods and services.

And this means that our citizens must voluntarily save $37 billions by limiting their purchases to their just share of $96 billions worth of consumer goods.

Because of the limitations upon the production of consumer goods and services, only about $96 billions worth of these items will be available to consumers during 1944.

$96 billions worth of goods and services.
THIS IS INFLATION! HOARDERS HASTEN IT... PROFITEERS GROW RICH BECAUSE OF IT... ECONOMISTS DREAD IT... BUYING WAR BONDS WILL HELP PREVENT IT.

REMEMBER WHEN

—the Brussels carpet had to be taken up and beaten every spring? It was hung over the clothes line and pounded with the carpet beater until not a wisp of dust followed a stroke. Then father put in the evening on his knees, stretching the carpet tight and tacking it along the edge. Carpet cleaning was an event. Remember?

News of Our Boys
 In Uncle Sam's Fighting Forces
 Defending Our Homeland and Our Liberties.

EDWARD ROHDE SAYS HE "SURE MISSES" THE HUNTING SEASON.
 Edward C. Rohde, located at a naval air station out on the Pacific coast, says in a note to "Our Boys" page that he misses the hunting season. In part his letter follows:
 "Well, I thought I would sit down and write you a few lines to thank you for sending me a copy of the Plymouth Mail.
 "It sure seems good to read the news from the good old town of Plymouth, and it is very interesting to read the letters from my friends on 'Our Boys' page telling what they are doing in the different camps all over the different states.
 "They have been keeping us pretty busy here painting the inside of the fire house and going to Portland on working parties but it is a good life in the navy. However, I don't intend to stay in the navy after the war. We had a Rear Admiral aboard the station last week.
 "I suppose the hunters are knocking down left and right. I sure am missing the hunting this year and I am going to miss deer hunting the most, as that is the best sport. I like it best of all, and especially the snow, as they do not have any out here, but they sure have a lot of rain. I will close now thanking you again for sending me The Plymouth Mail."

WOULD LIKE TO SEE SOME OF PLYMOUTH BOYS NOW IN ITALY.
 Sgt. Douglas Eckles in a brief note to The Plymouth Mail pertaining to a change of address, says it is wet and damp in Italy. In part he says:
 "This is to inform you of a change of address again. For awhile I missed some of the issues of The Plymouth Mail, but since I have been here I have been getting them again. They had been forwarded to me from Sicily. I'm now located in Italy and with this new address I think The Mail will come to me more regular now.
 "From reading about the boys in service I have learned that there are quite a few of my friends in Italy. So here's hoping I run into a few of them soon. As yet I have seen no one from Plymouth.
 "It's the beginning of the rainy season now. When it rains it really rains here. So in general the climate is very damp and not at all comfortable at this time of the year.
 "I'm hoping for a chance to visit some of the historical places of Italy while I am here. Perhaps at a later date I'll be able to describe some of the things I have seen.
 "Please print just a note that I'm in Italy and looking for some of the Plymouth fellows."

WILLIAM LEWIS AIDS IN SMASHING NAZI AIRCRAFT.
 Private William H. Lewis, of Farmington, Mich., is a member of the Military Police Company which boasts close to 500 Nazi aircraft destroyed on operations into enemy held territory. In addition numerous ground installations have been blasted and hundreds of German vehicles strafed and dive-bombed.
 Pvt. Lewis' unit is not only charged with the security of the VIII Fighter Command station, somewhere in England, but also regulates the vehicular traffic on the perimeter of the field. Having been trained more thoroughly in infantry tactics than any other air base unit, an MP company stands ready to defend the base should the occasion arise.
 A landscaper in civilian life, Pvt. Lewis worked for the Farmington Gardens before entering the army in February, 1943. He has been serving overseas for 16 months. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Lewis, the soldier's parents, live at 34236 Seven Mile Road, Farmington.

ROBERT C. HEWER AT A "SWEAT BOX" DOWN IN NEW GUINEA.
 In a brief note to The Mail, Robert C. Hewer says that he is now located at a "Sweat Box" down in New Guinea and that a copy of the Mail is not coming to him as regular as it did.
 "Hope you can look into it and see if the service can't be improved. I've been here for a number of months. Not only would I like to have the paper coming regular again but I would like to hear from some of my old friends," he wrote.

FIRST CHRISTMAS CARD ARRIVES.
 The first Christmas card from overseas has arrived. It came to "Ye Editor" from Ray Danol who has been tucked away by the navy out on a little island somewhere in the Pacific, near the Hawaiians.
 Here's Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to you—the kind of a Merry Christmas greeting like those that used to be exchanged in the composing room of The Mail after the Christmas edition was "put to bed."
 It's a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, also, to every Plymouth boy and girl in the service, no matter where you are or what you are doing—direct from the editor who has enjoyed more than words can tell the intimate and intensely interesting little notes you have written me during the past three years. Let's hope and pray that before another Christmas rolls around you will all be home for the 1945 Christmas celebration.

THREE MONTHS FOR THE MAIL TO REACH "MAC" McDONNELL.
 From somewhere in Italy came an interesting note to The Plymouth Mail the other day from E. J. McDonnell, better known to his many Plymouth friends as just plain "Mac", in which he said his July 14 issue of The Plymouth Mail has reached him just three months later.
 "I know war bonds can buy us equipment which we need badly, but it takes something like The Plymouth Mail to pep up the morale of men who are so far away from home," wrote "Mac."
 "So many times in past months I have wished to be back in my own place at 659 Holbrook, but I know this is asking too much, as all of us have a big job yet to do. So long until I am back home and give my regards to everybody in Plymouth—and keep up the swell job you are doing."

CHARLES BOWDLEAR WRITES OF NATIVES OF NEW GUINEA.
 Extracts taken from an interesting descriptive letter sent by Charles Bowdlear, serving with Uncle Sam's fighting forces over in New Guinea, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bowdlear of 1926 Melrose, Rosedale, Michigan. Charles, gives a pretty clear description of native life in New Guinea, where he has been stationed for sometime.
 "It follows in part:
 "We got a big surprise as to the cleanliness of the village. They take palm branches and sweep the ground every day. The ground is just as clean and flat as a threshold floor. The houses are quite high off the ground. They were cooking corn, green bananas and coconuts. The children were very anxious to have their pictures taken, the women were passive and the pigs weren't photo-genic at all. The Aussies told them that we would be back and to bring up a lot of stuff to trade, papayas, coconuts, bananas and grass skirts.
 "The natives have a very interesting habit here that makes their teeth at first black, then they get spongy and fall out. First they chew beetlenuts, and then they sip on a mixture of lime and water, which ruins their teeth and gives them a jag to boot. Just like a frog. They put the lime water in a gourd and dip an ebony stick in the water and lick the stick.
 "We saw one fellow making a cigarette out of a long strand of tobacco wrapped in a newspaper. It was about 6 inches long.
 "At this village we made the acquaintance of the local Hangow, or Australian commissioner, of that district. He looked like any regular Aussie but he had been here long before the war broke out. He told why the village was so deserted. Back when the Australians had complete control and 10 American soldiers had ever thought of going to New Guinea, the natives had worked a whole day for a handful of salt but now since the Americans have come here they have paid them such high wages that the Aussies have not been able to get them to work for them, their real masters.
 "The natives aren't supposed to work for the Americans except with permission of the Aussies but they do. So the local Aussie masters came into the villages and beat the natives for working for the Americans without permission. That seemed quite cruel but that is the way they handle it. Because of that most of the natives took to the hills except for a few that they left behind. Here we saw a boy with elephantitis of the leg. His leg was swollen just like a watermelon. After we had talked to the Hangow a little while he told us that probably we would be the last bunch to come up there."

CORPORAL WILLIAM WOOD TELLS OF HIS FLIGHT TRAINING.
 A brief note from Corporal William Wood, located at Salina, Kansas, who is with a bombing squadron training outfit says:
 "I'd like to drop a line to the fellows letting them know what I'm doing and that I would be glad to hear from them.
 "My Mail came today and I read how some of my former chums are doing. Take Bob and Dick Dailey, I used to play with them and Chuck Crumm when we were like kids. Bob has seen lots and wrote a swell letter. I haven't seen another home-town paper which puts our letters in a column like The Mail does.
 "Mel Blunk sure is getting around now. Besides reading The Mail, I noticed for the first time today that the library carries daily and Sunday the Detroit Free Press. What a swell combination, but I prefer The Mail, since it carries news of my buddies and friends. Thanks again and always for The Mail.
 "My training started today and it looks rough to me. Our first sixteen days have been listed and we don't get a day off. Some days we may not fly, so we get a day off then.
 "Our schedule calls for four days of flying in the super-fort, while we take in three days of schooling. We go up tomorrow for seven hours. This will be my first trip in a B-29 and I know I'll love it. The rest of the crew are a swell bunch of fellows. There are enough men to make up a football team. Connecticut is represented by three members, with New Hampshire, Tennessee, Alabama, Rhode Island, Ohio, Michigan, and Texas being represented.
 "We have a second flight engineer from Adrian, a Staff Sgt. Adleman. We've got a nice team so, we'll do O.K. and a swell bunch."

because they were going to put all the villages off limits to all ranks. "The native women here are very agile and flexible. We saw some dusting the ground and they bend straight from the hips without bending their knees. They could touch their elbows to the ground and all of them could do it, too.

"We took several pictures from the truck after we got through trading with the natives. The native men wear a loin cloth and the women wear grass skirts and that is all. They have a little in jewelry but I didn't see much of the native crafts except the making of houses, skirts and their black earthen cooking pots.

"There are two types of skirts; one type the two long parts go in front and back. The grass strips that are used in the skirt goes in front. Most of the cloth articles that they wear look like they were imported."

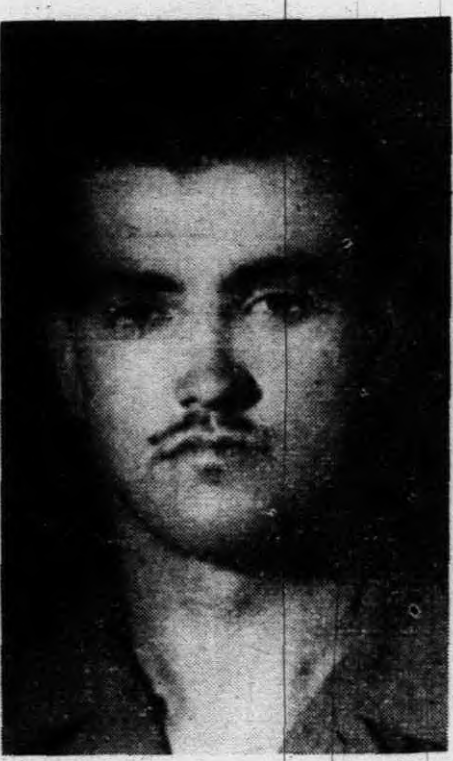

TWO PLYMOUTH BOYS AT CAMP WOLTERS DOWN IN TEXAS.

Harry Walter Krumm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krumm of 1255 Penniman avenue, and Marvin D. Johnson of 9255 Oakview, Plymouth, are now stationed at Camp Wolters, Texas. This is an infantry replacement center and both of these Plymouth soldiers have been assigned to a battalion that stresses training for heavy weapons. Johnson is married and his wife, Alexandria, is remaining here at her home.

MARVIN MEYANS NOW AT GREAT LAKES.

According to information released at the U. S. Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Illinois, Marvin Meyans, 12, of 32206 West Chicago boulevard in Rose-dale Gardens, is now receiving his initial indoctrination. When this is finished he will be given a brief leave of absence to return to his home for a few days.

Wins Badge For His Part In Combat

Sgt. Victor Buttermore

Remember the hustling young fellow who some years ago dished out the "burgers" and filled your coffee cup so full that it ran over when you went into Ken & Ork's to get one of those "quicks" no more.

You called him "Vic." His name is Victor Buttermore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Buttermore of 134 North Center street, Northville.

This pleasant young fellow is not serving customers in Ken & Ork's any more. He's over in Italy dishing out hot lead to the Nazis. And for his part in this war, he has been awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for participation in combat with the enemy. He's with the Fifth army and it is the Fifth army that has been driving the enemy slowly but surely back into the Fatherland.

Sgt. Buttermore for a time ran the "Bean Pot" in Northville. He was a former student of the Plymouth high school and most of his companions are now in the fighting forces of the country. The former June Jones of South Lyons is his wife, the two having been married shortly before he went overseas.

HELPING TO CARE FOR WOUNDED FROM THE EUROPEAN FRONT.

Pfc. Celestine G. Ash, somewhere in England, says in a note to "Our Boys" page:

"It has been a long time since I have written to you, so will try and get in a few lines. After spending a year in Ireland I am now in England, but would prefer to be with the boys up at the front, although someone has to be left in the rear to man the hospitals. After seeing the way some of the boys come back on stretchers, crutches, and many other ways, too, numerous to mention, a person doesn't mind what he has to do, as long as he knows he is helping.

"I believe I have seen wounded from nearly every country but Japan; it's really a sight to see how well the boys take it even though they have been badly wounded. These buzz bombs sure did a lot of damage in certain places. All I can say is that it is a good thing the Jerries didn't have good control over them or it would have been a d. . . sight worse.

"I want to thank you for The Plymouth Mail, it follows me wherever I go. Maybe the news is a little old but it is still news from home, and that is what counts."

STEVEN J. DELY WRITES OF BEAUTIES OF HIMALAYA MOUNTAINS

From somewhere in India where he has been located for months and months Pfc. Steven J. Dely, son of Mrs. Anna Dely, 606 Maple street, recently wrote an especially interesting letter to his mother of his stay at a troop rest camp high up in the Himalaya mountains of India.

His letter, filled with details of his stay at the rest camp follows:

"I got back from rest camp last night. I had a swell time—hated to leave.

"We didn't get mail up there so I have quite a stack now. I got the billfold—I really like it. Also the pictures (2 of Mom, Helen and Neil). Wave those taken in our backyard! Gee, I guess I don't know the place very well.

"The rest camp is in the Himalaya mountains about 8400 feet above sea level, quite a way up! We went most of the way by train, but went up the mountains in trucks. What a ride! The road was hardly wide enough for two trucks—on one side was a cliff going up, on the other side a cliff going down. Just a few thousand feet drop! But all kidding aside there was no danger. The drivers are very experienced and know the roads.

"The country up there is beautiful. I didn't think any part of India could be so nice. At times the camp was covered by clouds, other times we could see clouds in the valley below us.

"I did some horseback riding. I guess you know it was the first time for me. I was sore afterward but it was fun riding on those narrow trails around the mountains. There is a dairy about 4 miles from camp which we rode to. Every time we went there we drank a quart of milk (that's something we don't get in this part of India). The second time I went riding we went to a hotel that set itself up in the mountains. We ate dinner and rode back to camp. The ride was about 16 miles round trip—I was really sore after that.

"The Red Cross has two clubs "Hilltop Club" and "Valley Club." There is also an athletic field. The Red Cross sponsored "weiner roasts." The last night I was there they had "pig roast"—three big pigs, and it was really good.

"A fifty-five piece Italian band played for us two nights. There was also a Ghurka band up there for one night. Both were very good. Of course they didn't play "In the Mood," or "Marisy Dots" but they were good.

"I went into town with two of the boys and stayed a couple days. The name of the town is Murree. It's not much of a town but we had some very good meals. It was the first time any of us had eaten pork chops for months—we almost choked putting it down.

"I really hated to leave. I could hardly believe I was in the army. We didn't have to lift a finger. There are bearers to do all the work. They shined our shoes, made the bed, got hot water for a bath. We even had waiters in the mess hall. Ah, what a life! The food wasn't bad—we had plenty of fresh milk.

"We took some pictures. I will send them as soon as I get them printed. I bought a few pictures up there (the ones in this letter). Read the backs of them.

"That just about takes care of my stay at rest camp. It all adds up to 'I had one Hell of a good time.'

"A lot has happened around town, at least it has according to all the clippings you sent. I have not had time to read all of them yet. I was sorry to hear about Jim Sexton and Mr. Johnson and the others. Yes, I know N. Cicirelli. He was in my class in school.

"As I said before I have lots of mail that piled up while I was away. I got twelve letters, two cards from home. Also got F. Lodge's address. I thought he was in India—that's what this Dear-burn man said.

"Mary tells me she and Helen can really "hit" Don't cut too many rugs—they're hard to get.

"I'll try to get a picture of a veiled woman for Betty. All I can say is they just look like a sheet walking.

"Gee, I'm sorry I forgot Helen's birthday. She'll get a present from me even if it's after the war. Anyway "Happy Birthday." (I'm still not sure about everyone's birthday.)

"Erna sent me some pictures of their boat and some taken at their home.

"That's about it from here. After being away from camp I feel like a rookie here just starting. I feel as though I have a long stretch ahead of me. I hope it's just a feeling and not a 'act.'"

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"That's really a great editorial you just read in Judge. Where did you say it appeared?"

"In 'The Stars and Stripes'... the newspaper of the U.S. Armed Forces in Europe. Kind of gives us folks back home something to think about, doesn't it, Bill?"

"It certainly does, Judge. Particularly the last paragraph. Would you mind reading that again?"

"Glad to, Bill. As says, we can remember the days of prohibition, when moonshine whiskey made quick fortunes for bootleggers, crooked politicians and dishonest police officials. As a result, we claim we know what we want in the way of liquor legislation and feel those at home should wait until we return before initiating further legislation on liquor control."

"Out of fairness to our boys over there fighting, Judge, how could we disobey such a wish?"

If you're waiting for a home telephone

... you naturally want to know how soon we can fill your order.

We wish we could tell you but the fact is that it depends on these two things:

The extent to which present subscribers may decide to give up service, thus releasing central office equipment, instruments, outside wires, etc.

The extent to which manufacturing facilities and manpower, new and released equipment, are made available after the needs of war are met

Meantime, we promise you this: Your application will not be forgotten and it will be filled in the proper turn.

Why is Ed Lane up in the air?

BECAUSE he's down to earth about conserving coal. That's why he's putting up storm windows. He knows (here will be some shortage of coal going to householders.

No less coal is being produced. More is being mined than ever before—with fewer men. Mine owners and miners alike are doing a splendid job. And there are ample rail facilities for transporting coal to your city.

But certain grades of coal are going to be greatly in demand for war production. And, to make things worse, your local coal dealer faces a shortage in manpower, trucks and tires.

So if you want to keep warm this winter, do everything possible to conserve the coal you can get. The little, common-sense things you can do will make your coal pile go 10% further—and save that much on your fuel bill.

Install weatherstripping. Clean your furnace. Fire carefully, and avoid overheating. Shut off unused rooms. Pull your shades low at night. For other suggestions, see your coal dealer.

One of the biggest jobs of the C & O Lines is hauling coal from the mines along its routes, so we're in a position to understand the problem, and to know how essential coal is these days.

VICTORY'S SONS

HE startled Nazi fighter pilots had never seen a "Flying Tiger" in action before. They thought that the small group of American bombers, escorted by a lone Mustang, would be easy pickings. Thirty German planes swooped to attack.

Then, to their astonishment, they found out what kind of fighting a "Flying Tiger" was accustomed to. Major James Howard, veteran of many dogfights with the Japs, cut loose with all his tricks.

Swirling, darting and dodging, he seemed to be everywhere at once. His guns sputtered almost constantly. Yet whenever a Nazi pilot got Major Howard's plane lined up in his sights for an instant, the swift Mustang would somehow elude the German's bullets.

During this melee, the bombers were nearing their objective, Ochtersleben. They reached it, dropped their "eggs" and turned back home. Major Howard continued his single-handed defense tactics until the Nazis, fearing to get too far from their field, gave up the chase.

When the score was tallied up, Major Howard was credited with two enemy fighters shot down for certain, two other probables, and two disabled, in 30 minutes!

Babson Says - -

Babson Park, Mass., Nov. 10.—Notwithstanding the results of Tuesday, I now make some predictions as to what will happen at Washington during the next four years. These forecasts assume the Republicans and Conservative Democrats will combine to control Congress.

Taxes will materially be reduced. A reduction in Excess Profits taxes will come shortly after the collapse of Germany. Most "nuisance" taxes will be eliminated. Corporation taxes will later be put back nearly to pre-war figures. Personal income taxes should be reduced; but these will be the last to be lowered.

There will be no attempt to balance the budget. This is something to aim for, but it will be done slowly. Too radical cuts could cause deflation which, at this time, would be worse than inflation. The United States will, however, diligently work for a better financial setup for which we all should be thankful.

Great Britain, Russia and the United States will combine and hold the peace so long as they remain friends. (China may or may not be admitted to the inner councils.) How long these three great nations will remain friends, is anybody's guess. Other nations will be admitted to some of a World Organization; but they will not have much to say.

Congress will pass legislation so that our navy and air force can act—in emergencies—without the formal declaration of war. But this is a feeble step toward permanent peace. This can be secured only as all nations are willing to give up certain rights as to tariffs, immigration restrictions, natural resource monopolies, etc. I see no sign that the incoming Administration at Washington will do this.

Both farmers and union labor have had their honeymoons. Both will get less consideration during the next four years. We may, therefore, expect lower farm prices and only a few—if any—wage raises. Certainly the total income of both groups will be much less.

The hourly rate for wages may not be cut; but "overtime" will be out of the window. We will go back to the forty-hour week. I strongly advise both farmers and wage workers to begin immediately to "save up money for a rainy day." It surely is coming. Moreover, this would still be true if the election had gone the other way.

Both candidates at heart believed in "free enterprise" so long as it will keep people employed. When, however, it does not prevent unemployment, the voters surely will demand that something be done. This "something" will be quack remedies contrary to the spirit of free enterprise.

Certainly, much will be done for the returning soldiers, sailors and airmen. Some of this aid will be uneconomic and wasteful; but Washington will be driven to it. Such action will help along the inevitable inflation and some day cause us a lot of trouble. This, however, should not come until around 1950.

In short, conditions make Presidents; rather than do President's make conditions. The masses of the entire world are on the march. Neither Roosevelt nor Dewey nor an undecided election can stop them. It is a mistake to try to block them as did Avery of Montgomery-Ward; it is a mistake to cheer them as have many politicians during the past two months. The wise man will attend to his own business, keep out of debt, educate his children to be useful and wait for these masses to learn their lesson through experience.

As to the effect of the elections on the markets, I expect no more changes than have already occurred. I am bearish on municipals and other high grade bonds; but am still bullish on most well-selected stocks. I do, however, not like the rails, air-rafts or shipping stocks for the four years.

Sea Gulls Cry

In Salt Lake City is a memorial to sea gulls, by Mahonri, grandson of Brigham Young. It commemorates the sea gulls of 1848 that destroyed the pest of crickets appearing in the Great Salt Lake region.

Over the cliffs of Dover the sea gulls wheel and cry as isolated lookouts keep tense watch in preparation for the Allied invasion. Far above them our bombers roar toward Germany daily.

25 Years Ago

News items of a quarter of a century ago taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail.

Linus Galpin is building an addition to his house on Main street, and adding other improvements.

Chicken pie, the mention of which carries one back to the days of long ago, is to be the main attraction at a supper given by the Third division of the Ladies' Aid at the Methodist church tonight.

C. H. Bennett has purchased the E. Longley farm on Golden street, commonly known as the Moon farm.

The old time representation of going to the Western market, was well patronized by the Canton ladies, Saturday, eggs selling for $1.00 per dozen, and butter, 80c per pound.

Mr. and Mrs. William Krumm and Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes have moved from Commercial Hotel to Depot street.

Born, a little daughter, Tuesday, November 11, to Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Dunham on West Ann Arbor street. Mrs. Dunham was formerly Miss Bernice Lane.

A large crowd attended the Armistice dancing party given in the Penniman-Allen auditorium, last Monday evening, by the Sergeant Myron H. Beals Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The U. S. Express Co. are preparing to build an addition to their present building at the Pere Marquette depot.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Gates entertained eighteen relatives and friends last Sunday, in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary. They all had an enjoyable time. The house and table were prettily decorated in pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Gates are well known residents of this vicinity and we wish them many happy returns of the day.

With T. C. Huckle of Ypsilanti, business manager of the Ypsilanti Evening Press, as speaker for Thursday evening, and local leaders of young people as speakers for other evenings, a fine program of young people's meetings has been planned for next week to be held in the Methodist church each evening from 7 to 8 o'clock. Although these meetings are planned especially for young people and by young people, Mr. Huckle speaks, it will be an open meeting for everybody, old and young. Mr. Huckle is an able speaker and a young people's leader of enthusiasm and force. While in the newspaper business at Reed City, he was president of the Big Rapids district Epworth League, and was the recognized leader of young people in his community. It will be an inspiration to many to hear this enthusiastic christian business man, next Thursday evening.

DETROIT EDISON LINES

Timely items of interest and value . . . helpful suggestions about cooking, lighting and appliances.

SAVE ELECTRICITY . . . Electricity requires coal for its manufacture. Thousands of tons are burned every day in Detroit Edison power plants! Every time you turn on an electric switch in your home, or plug in an electric appliance, you are actually burning coal . . . coal that has been transported by boat and by rail—coal that represents vital production and manpower. Coal is a critical war material. So is electricity, and it should not be wasted. Save electricity whenever you can, as much as you can: Help save urgently needed fuel.

29 MILLION TONS! . . . As a part of the nationwide National Fuel Efficiency Program to save 29 million tons of coal (or their equivalent) this winter, 1,800 business establishments—large and small—in southeastern Michigan have enrolled to put into effect fuel savings for this year's heating season. Coal rationing can be avoided if everybody helps by saving fuel!

GILDING THE HOT DOG . . . Meet the humble hot dog in a glorified dish, presented by our Home Service Department:

Crown Roast of Frankfurters
Arrange frankfurters to form a crown in a shallow baking pan. Place stuffing in center and tie bacon strips around frankfurters to hold them in place.

Sweet Potato Stuffing
Add one cup diced celery, one tablespoon minced onion, two tablespoons melted butter and 1/2 teaspoon salt to three cups mashed sweet potato.

CONVERSION . . . The Lime and Ford Buildings in downtown Detroit have operated their own power plant for 31 years—and now have changed over to using Edison electricity and steam. 1,300 tons of coal and 120,000 gallons of fuel oil will thereby be saved for the war, it is estimated. Practically all the big buildings in downtown Detroit—one hundred million dollars' worth of them!—operate without furnaces or boilers. For light, heat and power, they depend wholly on Edison service.

You save coal, transportation and manpower when you save electricity
