Loomis, program chairman, presented a tentative year-round program which indicates a full and interesting schedule for the members.

The next meeting will be Monday in Enterline's home, 11850 Haggerty Highway. Members will bring negatives for a demonstration on enlarging, which should prove of great value to beginners.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Walker of Mio were called home Sunday by the severe illness of their father, Robert Walker. His sister, Mrs. Noble McNally, of Simcoe, Ontario, is caring for him and his condition is improving.

School Orchestra Is Led By GI's On Surprise Visit

Members of Plymouth High School's orchestra got an unexpected thrill Monday when two former members, now in the armed forces, visited them unexpectedly and were given the baton by Music Director Clarence A. Luchtmann in a practice session. They were Signalman First Class Marvin (Mike) Kleinschmidt 20, and Pvt. Harry Krumm, 18. Kleinschmidt, who has been overseas 20 months and wears the Purple Heart and four battle stars, stepped right in and took over like a veteran. He really made the orchestra toe the mark, insisting they follow the music very strictly.

Several times when they missed cues he rapped the baton and made them start over—just like a veteran director, which he is. He had a band of his own here before enlisting Nov. 13, 1942. Mike, who was the orchestra's first president, in 1940, came home from his station in Brooklyn on a week-end pass to see his wife, the former Lois Ridley, whom he married just a year ago Monday.

Mrs. Kleinschmidt is in People's Community Hospital, in Wayne, recuperating from a minor operation and Mike reported she is doing fine. She is staying with her sister, Mrs. Robert Paxton, of 448 Auburn.

Mike, who plays the saxophone, is finishing his schooling in the Navy. He left school while in the twelfth grade to take a job in the Fisher Shoe Store and is sorry now that he didn't complete his education.

While home he stopped at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kleinschmidt, of 14680 Northville road.

Krumm, a paratrooper, has been in service four months. He's visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krumm, at 1255 Penniman avenue.

Time past and time present, both, may pain us, but time improved is eloquent in God's praise. —Mary Baker Eddy.

Better Eat Up That Venison!

Here's a tip, Mr. Plymouth Deer Hunter! If you've got some venison left over in your deep-freeze, you'd better eat it up, or the Law may get after you.

Most folks didn't know it, but January 29 was the last day any one was supposed to have any venison hanging around. Of course if you have a special permit from the conservation department, you can keep your venison for six months longer, but you had better get that permit.

The law provides that venison may be held for 60 days after the close of the deer season, November 30, without special permits. January 22 was the last day of the 45-day period during which wild ducks and geese could be held in storage legally, under federal law. The department cannot extend the period.

The department's district offices and conservation officers issue permits for storage of small game as well as venison.

More Victory Gardens Needed

Plymouth victory gardeners did a "bang up" good job during 1944, declared Mayor Stanley Corbett the other day.

"But it looks as though we had better do a better job this year than we did last from all the information I have received" he added.

"The state is urging a million better gardens this year than we had last. Plymouth should do its share to help ease the serious food situation that is bound to prevail next winter."

The state plea came from Paul R. Krone, extension specialist in horticulture at Michigan State college and state victory garden director. There is a greater need than ever for victory gardens in 1945 he stresses. This is apparent because of rationing, the drafting of all available manpower for the army, and plans of commercial vegetable growers to reduce their acreage by about 10 per cent. Mr. Krone says there is urgent need for the family sized garden, producing the necessary green and yellow vegetables. Special emphasis should be placed on growing more greens next spring and summer, he declares. Green vegetables such as spinach, chard, broccoli, and others which were not grown so extensively last year, are high in nutritive value. Mrs. Nellie Fenton and Mrs. Dorothy Roosevelt of Birmingham were Saturday guests of Mrs. E. A. Kimmell of Church street.

Are you a Dollar SABOTEUR?

Every time you buy goods you do not really need, you help force prices up, help make critical shortages of merchandise even more critical. Any one of us who is spending as high a percentage of his income on "unnecessaries" today as he was before the war, is just that—a saboteur.

But when you buy War Bonds regularly—when you go to the bank each pay day and make a deposit—when you save according to a plan—you help build a backlog of saved dollars which will help keep prices down and will help assure continued prosperity after the war.

PLYMOUTH GIRL'S HUSBAND HONORED FOR BOMBING SERVICES.
S/Sgt. Kenneth L. Gullekson, 21, of this city has arrived at the Army Air Forces Redistribution Station No. 2 in Miami Beach for reassignment processing after completing a tour of duty outside the continental United States.
Medical examinations and classification interviews at this post, pioneer of several redistribution stations operated by the AAF personnel distribution command for AAF returned officers and enlisted men, will determine his new assignment. He will remain at the redistribution station about two weeks, much of which will be devoted to rest and recreation.
Sergeant Gullekson flew 35 missions as gunner on a B-24 Liberator heavy bomber in the European theater of operations, which he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with three oak leaf clusters. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duesy Gullekson, Mesick, Mich. His wife, Bobbie Jayne, lives at 511 N. Holbrook street.

DESERTED PILL BOX IS HOME OF PLYMOUTH BOY ON MAGINOT LINE.
Sergeant John Arrington, Plymouth, and Corporal Jesse Traylor, Houston, Texas, members of A Field Artillery battalion of the 38th "Texas" division have found a new home, and a very impressive one it is. They are living in an old deserted pill box, part of the fortification of the old Maginot line in France.
"We haven't had it any better for quite a while," says Sergeant Arrington, "no mud, no snow, and it's certainly safer than a fox-hole."
"It was cold when we first found it," adds Corporal Traylor, "but that was easily remedied. We found another oil box with a big stove and lugged the stove over to where we had set up. We've really got it made now."
A brother of Corporal Traylor, Vernon F. Traylor lives at Columbia street, Houston, Texas. The father of the sergeant, William E. Arrington, lives at 617 Ann street, Plymouth.

SERGEANT RICHARD INNIS NOW WEARS BROKE SERVICE STAR.
There are many men in important "behind-the-scenes" jobs with Uncle Sam's Air Forces today—men like Staff Sergeant Richard C. Innis of Plymouth, who service the giant Douglas C-47s of Air Service Command's Transport Wing at a French air-drome.
S/Sgt. Innis is a crew chief and he is one of the vast army of ground crew men who service and maintain the cargo-carrying sky-liners maintaining the aerial supply routes to the front. The Transport Wing operates from depots in England and France to airstrips directly behind the front lines. The twin-engine aircraft haul gasoline for the armored forces, ammunition for the infantry, clothing, blood plasma and a thousand other critical items. On the return flight, Allied wounded are evacuated to base hospitals.
Innis is the husband of the former Miss Alberta V. Long, who is serving in the WAVES, and is now stationed in Florida.
Before entering the service in September of 1938 he was employed by the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel company. He has been overseas since October of 1943, and was recently awarded the Bronze Service star for wear on his theater ribbon for participation in the campaign of Northern France.

SOLDIER WILSON PLEADS FOR HOME FOLKS TO THINK OF WAR TO THINK OF WAR.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of 194 South Holbrook have received a letter and clipping from their son, Pvt. Clayton P. Wilson, with the Fifth army in Italy, which pleads for more thought of the war by folks back home.
"Maybe if more of the people back home would learn what this war is all about and what the boys are going through with us we come in contact with the enemy, they wouldn't be willing to pay German prisoners of war 45 cents per hour to work, as they are doing back in America" wrote Soldier Wilson.
"Think of giving them dances, movies and boat rides for recreation! Do you think our boys are treated that way in Germany? NO! Any girl that was ever friendly with any German in Italy has had the hair on her head shaved off in public," he wrote.
The following clipping was enclosed from the Stars and Stripes, the army newspaper published on the European continent, in his letter to his parents, which tells of the killing of American prisoners by the Germans:
"Muddy, shivering survivors, weeping with rage, today told how German tankmen tried with machine guns to massacre 150 American prisoners standing in an open field.
"Those of us who played dead, got away later," said T-5 William B. Summers, Glenville, W. Virginia. "But we had to lie there and listen to German noncoms kill with pistols every one of our wounded men, who groaned or tried to move."
"Those dirty blanks. I never heard of anything like it in my life. Damn them. Give me a rifle and put me with the infantry. I want to get back and kill every one of those blanks."
Summers belonged to an artillery observation battalion trapped at a road fork by a powerful German armored column which had driven several miles into Belgium since the major Nazi offensive began yesterday.
The heavy guns of the enemy's Tiger tanks quickly shot up more than two dozen American trucks and lightly armed vehicles. The Yanks were then led into a field and as the German column moved past, less than 50 yards away, Jerry gunners deliberately raked the defenseless group with machine guns and machine pistols.
The survivors expressed hope that perhaps a majority of the men had escaped with their lives by diving to the ground and lying still, but three hours after the mass slaughter was attempted, fewer than a score had made their way back to their own lines.

Cpl. Paul J. Limback, of this city is an ordnance weapons mechanic in a 15th AAF B-24 Liberator group which has flown more than 200 missions from Italy over enemy territory. It plays a vital role in the crippling aerial assaults upon enemy industrial and communications targets in southern Germany, Austria, and northern Italy.
Prior to his entry into the USAAF in January 1943, Cpl. Limback was employed as a floor inspector by the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel company. He attended the army ordnance school at Lansing, and completed his overseas training at the Alamogordo, New Mexico, army air base. Cpl. "I had a good break today — I got a chance to take a shower bath and get some clean clothes. Now I feel like a million dollars."
"The Christmas rush has stopped all the mail and how I miss The Plymouth Mail. I hope it comes through soon. Can't thank The Mail enough for what it has been doing. My brothers feel the same way."

Senior Play Is Novelty Melodrama

"The Last Warning" the Senior play to be given March 4 and 5, presents many novelty features for the third act. These include sending several policemen down the aisles and having them stand guard at the doors throughout the scene.

Every day last hour the Seniors are trying to learn their lines by 4 o'clock. Usually George Waters or George Valrance miss their cues—so most of the time the cast send out for their supper.

From all indications this play, "The Last Warning" will be well worth while, giving one suspense, surprise, romance, humor, climax, and a plot which will keep the audience on pins and needles.

French Club Gives Mardi Gras Dance

The Mardi Gras, meaning Fat Tuesday, is a Catholic holiday celebrated in America in New Orleans. It is the day before Ash Wednesday which is the beginning of Lent. In England the Mardi Gras was called Pancake Day. This was the day to use up all the grease and drippings, and so the eating of pancakes was customary.

The French Club will hold a Mardi Gras dance, Feb. 16 from 8 to 11 o'clock in the high school gym.

During intermission there will be two skits in French and songs by the club. Ruth Campbell and Phyllis LaVerne are soloists.

The general chairman is Jack Huebler. The chairman of the committee are for decoration, Rosamund Busby; intermission, Ruth Campbell; tickets, Mary Ellen Sexton; floor, Dick Moore; publicity, Eleanor McDonald; refreshments, Phyllis LaVerne and chaperon, Marie Duthoo.

Class News

Jack Huebler has written the Senior Drama Club's current play "Double Trouble" starring the Hopkins' twins. It is the story of the trials and tribulations of identical twins.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will be entertained with two, one-act plays to be given by the Senior Drama club on Feb. 14 at the Methodist church.

Under Miss Wrisley's direction, her English 10A class is making notebooks which contain literature charts, daily study questions, records of magazines which they have read and original work.

Room 26, bulletin board: that's where you'll see clever and interesting pictorial book reports made by the 10 grade classes.

Here and There

Mrs. Bixler's second year Spanish class is now in the middle of a catastrophe, called the subjunctive mood. What's that? Don't ask any of the class because even they don't know.

Audrey Neal, I still would like to know what the colonists thought when Christopher Columbus first discovered America.

The chairman of the committees for the Senior Annual will be Ann Arbor Feb. 3 to Edward's Brothers Litho Printer to make arrangements for the printing of the Annual. Among the committee chairmen were Peggy Hart, Anna Marie Cooper, Bernice Miklosky, Lois Hanson, and advisor Miss McDonald.

Free Throws

All the Seniors are still wondering if Audrey Neale knows the difference between a conference committee and a joint committee.

My! Some people sure are happy when they get a letter from a sailor—aren't they Joan?

You would have shrieked to see the Senior play cast—eating their nice marshmallow sundaes with their fingers—quite inconvenient!

Robert Reinas, won't you please make up your mind; the suspense is killing.

Mr. Lature starts his third hour public speaking class by giving them the three "u's" in public speaking—they are "Stand Up," "Speak Up," "Shut Up!"

Reaction of a Senior upon receiving his Senior picture—"Egad, I knew I was homely but this is ridiculous!"

Miss Killham said the other day that some of her classes were so full the students were hanging on the chandelier.

Miss Olson's new slogan: "Let's make new pupils feel at home. Huh! You've done it!! And we thought you never knew we existed. You lucky girl, Jean M.

New girl in school: Gettin' right in there, eh, Bernard?

Part Time Jobs Average One a Day

When passers-by notice how small Mr. Reeves vocational training class is, some think he has a soft job. Actually vocational coordinating keeps Mr. Reeves very busy. The reason for this is that there is no general trade study course. Each pupil must be treated individually according to his job. For instance, besides regular textbooks an auto mechanic apprentice studies Popular Science magazine and other periodicals to keep up with his trade. Each trade has its own set of periodicals and it is a constant search for new material that occupies much of Mr. Reeves' time.

Records have to be kept of each student's job, the hours he works, his wages (Mr. Reeves has a cumulative record of all the wages earned by the students since the department was organized in 1937). In addition he helps to make adjustments between employer and employee; helps to iron out difficulties.

Besides his regular trades study apprentices Mr. Reeves helps other students to obtain part time jobs, on the average of one a day.

The success of his work is proved by the fact that five of his graduates are doing the same work in the service for which he trained them. Many others have

Math Needed for Navy Radar Test

Six out of ten boys fail the Navy's radar test, it is discovered, and so the advanced math classes in the local school have almost doubled in size in the past few years. The reasons for this growth are expressed by Miss Bristol in that big brother and his pals have been writing home and warning younger brother and sister of the importance of mathematics and that the present day situations demand that one have a knowledge of math in order to pass the tests given by the Army and Navy. Mr. Goodwin's ideas on this are that math has been simplified. He says that it is no longer confined to the proving of theories but to practical applications and at the present time the educational system is teaching math from this practical point of view.

But no matter what the reason for the increase, there is a need for it.

important service jobs because of their special training.

Says Mr. Reeves "The whole purpose of apprentice training is to place students in the type of work experience according to their native abilities. It enables students to make business contacts while still in school."

"You never know what's going to happen next," so Mitzie Lee Jacobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jacobson of Newburg road hasn't any special ambitions yet except to go to Michigan State College. Of pet peeves, Mitzie says, "Haven't any—figure I'm not perfect either." Her hobbies are "writing letters and receiving them." She also likes "freezing at football games and dancing." Mitzie has traveled in Montana, Wyoming, Utah, California and other western states. "Just a few of the more important" activities are leading lady in the Senior play, 9th grade stunt night, Drama club, and J-Hop and Senior prom committees. (Continued from Page Eight) nery and a few hours in a pursuit plane and we were all set for orders to ship out. But after two months of waiting for those orders we were finally told there was no more need for single engine pilots and we were all going to be made co-pilots on bombers.

"Our job we were told was to make simulated attacks on bombers while student gunners would take camera shots of us, so really our small field of about 40 pilots is a sub base of the advanced gunners school, Buckingham in Ft. Myers. And that's what I've been doing the last two months. We fly P-39s and Bell's new plane P-63. Besides our work with the gunners we get training for combat such as formation, gunnery, legalized dueling and dog fighting. It's a lot of work but also a lot of fun. After about four or five months of this I might get a chance for combat but nothing is certain in this army. Sorta looks as if I'm destined to spend the duration as an instructor of one sort or another.

"In spite of all the good training I'm getting and we're all getting in this war I'm just as anxious as the next fellow for it to be over so we can get back to Plymouth and the way people are supposed to live. I only wish you all could have a little of this warm Florida sunshine up there in Michigan. Thanks again for sending me The Mail. I eat it up every week! Sure is good to hear about the fellows and their travels and how well Plymouth does in the bond campaigns."

PRIVATE DONALD WADE IN SOUTHLANDS

Pvt. Donald Wade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wade, 10893 Laurel, Plymouth, has reported to Keesler Field in Mississippi to take the army air force training command examinations to determine his qualifications as a pre-aviation cadet.

As an applicant for training that will make him a flying officer, he will be given a series of medical and psychological tests at Keesler Field which will indicate the type of air crew training for which he is best suited by aptitude and personal characteristics.

Victory Garden Planning Urged

The need for Victory gardens this spring and summer will be as great if not greater than in 1944, states E. I. Besemer, county agricultural agent.

Besemer urges Wayne county folk to start making plans now for gardens that will accurately fit the family needs.

Gardeners should profit from last year's experiences—and avoid growing crops that did not measure up to the family tastes, he said. It is good gardening either to omit them entirely in this year's plans or put them down to what the family will use.

More vegetables are necessary especially for canning if nutritional balance is to be maintained.

Paul R. Krone, Michigan State College extension garden specialist, reports that a Michigan State Victory garden program survey revealed less than 40 per cent of the families in the state canned more than 25 quarts of fruits and vegetables per person the past season.

This is not a sufficient supplement, under present rationing restrictions, to make up the 85 to 115 quarts each person needs.

The just, though they hate evil, yet give men a patient hearing; hoping that they will show proofs that they are not evil.—Sir P. Sidney.

Plymouth High School Receives National War Music Citation

Plymouth High School has gained national recognition as a result of the contributions of its music department, under the able direction of Clarence A. Luchtmann to the nation's war program.

The Music War Council of America, organized soon after the start of the war to mobilize all forms of music for the national effort, has awarded a distinguished service citation to the school, Howard C. Fischer, the council's executive secretary has announced.

"The Plymouth High School music department has been voted a Music War Council distinguished service citation in recognition of its outstanding contributions to the war effort through participation in special wartime musical activities," said Fischer.

Included in the school's musical contributions have been the band's leading of parades of bandmates to the railroad station, scrap drive parades, OGD rallies and its participation in the dedication of the Willow Run highway approaches. It was the only high school band at the dedication.

The band also played at the dedication of the memorial for servicemen in Kellogg Park and at funeral services for Plymouth men who have made the supreme sacrifice.

The popular Girls' double quartet also participated in many of the war activities, including singing at meetings and doings of various patriotic organizations, such as the Navy Mom's club, etc.

Other activities, too numerous to mention, were included in the efforts of the school's musicians which led to the award.

Plymouth is only the fourth school in the Detroit area to be honored with an award from the MCWA. The others were Dearborn, River Rouge, and Theodore Roosevelt high of Waynecott.

Only 29 schools in the entire State have been so honored among the 300 citations awarded to musical groups of all kinds since the organization was founded.

In a letter to School Supt. George A. Smith, telling of the award, Fischer said:

"We want to take this opportunity to congratulate you, and through you, Mr. Clarence A. Luchtmann, and the members of the music department.

"We know they had no thought of receiving any reward for the patriotic services they have rendered and the sacrifices they have made, but their record is so impressive that it should not pass unnoticed. You may well be proud of them."

A public presentation ceremony will be arranged at the high school in the near future, Fischer said.

It is hoped to have Ray S. Erickson of Chicago, president of the MWCA, or some other national official of the organization present to make the presentation.

Bob Chute Heads J-Hop

The second formal dance of the year, the J-Hop, with the general chairman as Bob Chute is scheduled for April 20. Bob is clever with mechanical devices. While rolling up crepe paper ceiling after the Senior prom so the Juniors could use it later, he made a very novel drill device to render the job easier. The Juniors thought if he could make that job less troublesome, he could do the same for others. Emmy Lou Hough is the chairman for the music committee.

Rocks Win From Wayne

Whittling down Plymouth's 10-point lead in the third quarter last Friday, Wayne played a close game. But in the last quarter the Rocks went back to work, winning 36 to 29.

Plymouth's second team fought hard but was swamped by Wayne's offensive. Final score 31 to 26.

Brink was high scorer in the Varsity game with 11 points, while the center, White, led the Wayne team with 8 points.

Some Lights Are Not Under Ban

One of the few signs that does not come under the ban of the "brown-out" regulations are those that pertain to transportation. The rules say that railways, bus lines, air lines or taxicab systems that provide transportation at night time are not required to come under the light ban. This will explain to some why the light has not been turned out over the local taxicab office, which gives to large numbers of residents in this locality their only night transportation.

A DELIGHTFUL RANCH HOME comprising all the distinctive features of that type,—rambling with the air of the plains, the wide spacious porch and low roof lines, rustic timbered posts and entrance,—all without sacrifice of the modern features to be found within, and now so much in demand.

The rear terrace and porch, with the outside grill built into the chimney structure, will prove enjoyable elements of the plan. Hard, too, is an excellent outdoor play space for the children during rainy weather.

Inside, a large studio room is partially divided by a glass block partition to form the dining room at the one end and at the same time produce a cozy hearth corner which lends itself well to good furniture groupings.

The kitchen incorporates all the latest modern features into a "U" shaped plan with a glass block panel above the sink to form a complete bay of light for the work space. Note also, that in the entire plan, a abundance of light is emphasized.

Boy Scouts Plan Special Events For Anniversary

In commemoration of the 35th anniversary of the Boy Scout movement in the United States, which is being celebrated this week, Sidney Strong, local special field Scout commissioner, has written the following:

"It was 35 years ago last fall that the good turn by an unknown British Boy Scout so interested William D. Boyce in London that he came home and started the program in this country. And it is 35 years ago yesterday that Mr. Boyce and others first incorporated the movement in the United States.

"Here in Plymouth four Troops are prepared to celebrate this anniversary. Each Troop will have a window display to show its handiwork and to call attention to various Scouting details.

"Sunday each troop will attend one of the Plymouth churches to exemplify the 12th point of the Scout law—A Scout is Reverent. This weekend there will be a camp in Kellogg park in which all of the outfits will take part. Scout uniforms will be much in evidence, because the boys are asked to wear their uniforms during Scout week.

"This anniversary reminds the local special field commissioner that here in Plymouth, Scouting is not much younger than it is nationally. The first Troop was formed here only a year after the incorporation in New York.

"So he expects to contribute to this column a series of stories of first those old troops that no longer exist—and then the four troops, the Cub Pack and the senior groups that now carry on.

"Plymouth citizens should not forget the hours—many thousands of them—that the leaders of these boys have spent teaching the Scout program of good citizenship to their sons.

"And they should not forget the great help that Scout lore has been to the hundreds of former Plymouth Scouts now in the service of their country."

Twenty members of P-1 took part in a sealed order hike last meeting night. For some reason or other all three Patrols ended up at Blick's where he filled the 'prescriptions' the boys had picked up along their routes. The Scouts enjoyed the 'prescription.'

The members of this Troop find that on April 1—the beginning of the new registration year—P-1 will be 22 years and five months old.

The honor roll that is being prepared shows the names of 101 boys who have gone into the armed forces of the United States from the past and present membership of the Troop.

Scouts of P-3 will attend the Baptist Church Sunday as part of their observance of the 35th anniversary of Scouting in the United States.

There will be no Scout meeting Monday, or Sea Scout meeting Tuesday.

The Sea Scouts will camp at Camp Howell today, tomorrow and Sunday. They will attend church services in Brighton.

P-2 went on an outing last Sunday which was very successful. The boys all had a lot of fun.

There were many tests passed such as fire-building, cooking, knife and hatchet, and maps, after which there were maneuvers.

There will be a patrol meeting of the Flying Eagle patrol of P-2, Saturday at 3 p.m. in the home of Mr. Hees.

P-2 will have its window display in Huston's Hardware to commemorate Scout week.

There will be a document which was presented to the troop dating back to 1912.

Joe Merritt Now In Tokyo Prison, U. S. Army Advised

Joe Merritt.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Merritt of Lilly road, have just been advised by the Headquarters Army Service Forces in Washington, D. C. that their son, Private Joseph D. Merritt, captured by the Japs on Bataan Peninsula in the spring of 1942, has been transferred from a prison camp to the Tokyo Prison camp in Japan.

While the letter makes no reference to the kind of camp to which Joe has been transferred, some who know about the methods used by the Japs, say that Joe is now probably able to work and has been assigned to some task in a Jap war industry. Many of Japan's big war plants are located in the Tokyo area.

This is the first information that the Merritts have had from their son in much over a year. Joe was one of the American Marines sent overseas to the Philippines before war was declared.

Pheasant Feeding Again Is Urged

The Western Wayne County Conservation association again reiterated at its meeting Monday night in Jewell & Blaich Hall the urgency of feeding pheasants.

The group also decided to send two boys instead of one, as originally planned, to Higgins Lake Camp to learn the fundamentals of safe handling of firearms.

The date also has been moved back to July and August. It originally was scheduled for February.

It also was announced that bids have been entered for a clubhouse. Location of the clubhouse will be disclosed if and when the deal is closed.

The 70 members present also saw enlightening movies furnished by the Wisconsin Conservation Department. They showed the raising of animals on the state farms and how they are released to roam the states wilds.

Swadling Sends Radio Message

Good news is piling up in the Thatcher home, at 262 Blanche street, where Mrs. Shirley Swadling is living with her parents.

Last week we told of Mrs. Swadling having heard from her husband, Pvt. Bill Swadling, who has turned up as a prisoner in Germany after having been missing for many months.

Now we have more good news to report. Bill sent a message last Friday night via the German shortwave radio to his folks, on the first anniversary of the birth of his son, Jack.

Mrs. Swadling wasn't fortunate enough to hear the broadcast but she has had to date more than 25 messages from persons who did hear it in addition to an official telegram giving the text of his message.

The telegram was another indication of what fine work the War Department is doing in keeping track of its personnel who are missing or prisoners and of how prompt it is in getting information to relatives of their loved ones' status. The telegram's text:

"Following enemy propaganda broadcast from Germany has been intercepted:

"Dear Shirley: 'I'm a prisoner of war in Germany. I am well. Do not worry about me. Pray for us and take good care of yourself and Jackie.

"All my love, Bill.' They also told her that they got the impression from the broadcast that he was in a 'transit' camp.

The German announcer asked after Bill gave his message that anyone hearing the broadcast notify Bill's relatives.

"This broadcast supplements all previous reports." Signed, Provost Marshal General's office.

Mrs. Swadling said the cards and letters she received from people on the east coast who heard the broadcast indicated it was received at 9:52 p.m. last Friday.

Mrs. Swadling also has had two more cards from Bill since last week, dated Nov. 22 and Nov. 24, in which he promised he'd be home for next Christmas and reiterated he was well and not to worry.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN.

Special meeting Board of Education, Plymouth, Michigan, 1:05 p.m. Wednesday, January 24, 1945.

Present: Brisbois, Eaton, Stark and Strong.

Absent: Sutherland.

A special meeting of the Board of Education was called to discuss with the superintendent, the high school principal and a representative of the Plymouth Coach company the problem and danger of over crowded school busses. An investigation by the Board revealed that at times some 80 to 85 children were carried on busses when the maximum safe load should have been 60 children.

As a solution to the problem, high school children were advised that transportation would no longer be furnished by the bus company on any other bus except the one designated for the purpose of transporting high school students to the school.

The shifting of the load to the proper bus would properly care for the problem according to bus company officials.

Babson Says - -

Babson Park, Fla., Feb. 9.—Neither parents nor servicemen now realize the new conditions which they must face in the post-war era. The boys must not expect to find, upon their return, the same opportunities which existed when they were drafted.

War Reverses the Rules (1) Before this war, it was bad to unfairly kill one's enemy; but now it is good to kill the enemy in any way and under any conditions.

(2) Before this war, it was good to create things; but now it is good to destroy things.

(3) Before this war, it was undesirable to regiment and desirable to have individual liberty; but now it is desirable to regiment and undesirable to have individual liberty.

(4) Before this war it was popular for the government to restrain expenditures; but now it is popular for the government to increase expenditures.

(5) Before this war, it was wise to allow interest rates to rise to curb booming output; but now it is wiser to keep interest rates down and produce beyond "capacity."

(6) Before this war, it was natural for stock prices to boom with business; but now it is more natural for stock prices to disregard wartime earnings.

(7) Before this war, it was best to allow commodity prices to seek their supply-demand level; but now it seems wise to ration commodities and control prices.

(8) Before this war, we could wait and allow God's justice to shine in due time; but now it appears necessary for us to completely upset American ways and principles.

If I Were Young

The greatest developments of the future will be along creative lines, possibly in connection with foods, researchers or small manufacturers or sales agents. If I were about to go to college today, I would specialize in biological chemistry; or, I would connect myself with either a pharmaceutical concern or a fertilizer corporation with the ultimate idea of getting into business for myself.

Insurance Attractive

I am now a director in two life insurance companies and one life insurance company. Many insurance companies are in ruins; and there are great opportunities with casualty insurance! The system used by Lloyd's has never secured a foothold here. It would be very tempting to develop it. Although I have constantly fought against "gambling" in stocks, I fully realize the human instinct to take chances. Although Washington has driven gamblers out of the stock market, they still love race tracks and number games.

Don't Forget Good Soil Whatever your boys do, see that they own and live on an acre of fertile land within walking distance of post office, church and schools. In this connection, I am reminded of a wise old gentleman who used to visit my office. He was Hon. Westmoreland Davis, ex-Governor of Virginia. He always carried a steel suit case. One day we asked him why he carried the odd suit case. He replied "Because it looks less like a carpet bag than any other type of hand luggage and I want to forget carpet bags!" This opened up conversation with regard to the uncertainty of investments.

The old gentleman became deadly sincere and told us that we of the North could never understand what real chaos and tribulation could follow a war because we had never experienced it. He had lived through the Civil war and the reconstruction days. He said, "There was never any piece of paper representing the ownership of property that came through those evil days of the South. Our bonds were no good; our cash was worthless. There was only one thing that came through. That was the land; which we occupied. Those of us who stuck to the land came through. Security-owners, mortgageholders and absentee landlords were all wiped out." I do not mean to suggest that anything like this could happen here during the next 20 years; but it is wise to insure against everything.

The sentiment of justice is so natural and so universally acquired by all mankind, that it seems to be independent of all law, all party, all religion.—Voltaire.

Dee, Jay & Cee Old Boys to Meet

Former employees of the old Detroit, Jackson and Chicago electric line will hold their sixth annual mid-winter party in the Knights of Pythias Hall in Ypsilanti tomorrow night, says Charles Thumme, president of the Dee, Jay & Cee Old Boys.

The program will include election of officers, motion pictures, dancing and lunch (pack your own).

The women folk have been asked to "bring two or three sandwiches more than you will want for your family. That will take care of any who may not be able to bring some."

The notice of the meeting, signed by Thumme, vice president, Charles Neir and Herb Renton, secretary treasurer, also says: "Cash fares will be collected. Trip passes not honored. We'll be looking for you."

The second annual community banquet will be held in the dining room of the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening, February 12, at 7:00 o'clock sharp. A fine turkey dinner with all the trimmings will be served. Good speakers and fine music. This is not a church or money making affair, but just what the name implies, a get-together for a good feed and talk fest.

Plymouth high school's third debate for this year will take place with the Mt. Clemens high school debating team in Plymouth high school auditorium, Monday evening, February 9. The Plymouth high school team, consisting of Lyman Judson, Hanna Strassen and Lillian Lundy, will debate the negative side of the proposition, "Resolved, that congress should adopt a system of universal military training for all able-bodied male citizens between the ages of 18 and 25."

Downstate trout fishermen will have opportunity to test their skill next season on three bodies of water under special conditions. So successful was the experiment last season in opening Portage creek and pond in the Waterloo recreation area in northeast Jackson county to fishermen, the conservation commission this week approved similar regulations for the conservation department's Wilder creek rearing pond near Marshall in Calhoun county and the Bates rearing pond at the Hastings fish hatchery in Barry county. Anglers may fish with artificial flies only from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset each day. Two trout of a minimum length of eight inches may be taken. No boats or rafts are to be placed or used on the ponds. Every angler shall make a creel census report each day fished on forms to be provided at the ponds.

SUGAR SAVER No sugar—and very little shortening—is used in this recipe from our Home Service Department:

- Plymouth Bread
1/2 cup yellow corn meal
2 cups boiling water
2 tbs. shortening
1/2 cup molasses
2 tsp. salt
1 cake yeast
1/2 cup lukewarm water
4 3/4 cups sifted all-purpose enriched white flour

Stir corn meal very slowly into boiling water, stirring constantly. Boil five minutes add shortening, molasses and salt. Cool. When lukewarm, add the yeast, which has been softened in 1/2 cup of lukewarm water. Add the flour for a stiff dough. Knead well and let rise until double in bulk. Shape into two loaves, place in well greased loaf pans; let rise until double in bulk again. Bake for one hour in preheated oven at 350° F.

SABOTAGE BY WEATHER Rain, sunlight heat, cold and corrosive atmosphere are all enemies of outdoor electric equipment. Our fight against the elements is endless, posing many problems to our research engineers. The windows on outdoor meters become obscured with a film that won't wash off. Wood poles rot internally. Painted surfaces crack, peel and become chalky. Pole line hardware is eaten by corrosive gases in the air. The search never ends for better materials and better protective coatings to lengthen the life of equipment exposed to the weather.

KITCHEN CRAFT Egg yolks or egg whites will stay in good condition several days if you keep them in the refrigerator in a tightly covered glass jar.
