Weddings

Bauman-Hobbins. The wedding of Edna Laura Hobbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Hobbins, of this city, and Edward Bauman, son of Mrs. Ella Bauman, of Salem, took place at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, February 24, in the Methodist church of Plymouth. The ceremony was performed in candlelight by the Rev. T. Leonard Sanders. A-lms and baskets of white iris decorated the altar.

"I Love You Truly" and "Always" were sung by Linnea Vikstrom preceding the service. The bride wore a gown of white satin and net, the bodice of satin was close fitting with long sleeves extending to points over the hands, and the net skirt had a long train. The full length veil of net was attached to a cap of satin. She carried white carnations.

The bride was attended by her three sisters, Mrs. Warren Bassett acting as matron-of-honor, wearing yellow marquisette with matching headdress, and carrying headress and carrying deep pink and Beverly Hobbins were bridesmaids, wearing blue and pink marquisette with matching headdress and carrying deep pink and variegated carnations respectively.

The little flower girl, Marlene June Bassett, niece of the bride, wore a floor length gown of pink net made with puffed sleeves. She carried a basket of daffodil and Answers To What's Going On In The World!

- (1) The proposals were sent to Congress to be approved as an executive agreement. This means they must be approved by bills passed in both houses, rather than by two-thirds of the Senate as a treaty would be.
(2) April 25, 1945 is the last day on which Russia can denounce her treaty of non-aggression with Japan. The treaty, signed in 1941, must be denounced one year before its expiration (April 25, 1946) or it will continue in effect automatically.
(3) The Johnson Act forbids loans to countries which defaulted on their war debts from World War I. The President has asked for its repeal in order to make possible loans for reconstruction.
(4) Argentina will not be represented.
(5) The Curtzon Line was established by the Allies in 1919 as the best boundary possible on ethnological and historical grounds.

"Fighting Lady," Navy's Film Epic of Pacific War, Here Sunday

Official U. S. Navy Photograph

Stepping up for another round in the Pacific. A Curtis Hell-diver moves into the take-off spot and is ready to leave with her 1000-pound bomb load for the ambushed Jap fleet in "The Fighting Lady," 20th Century-Fox's thrilling Technicolor hit, which opens Sunday for four days at the Penn Theater. Lt. Robert Taylor, USNR, was assigned by the Navy to deliver the commentary for the film which tells of the daring exploits of the officers, pilots and crewmen of the giant carrier. Filmed by U. S. Navy photographers in combat zones.

Flaming Jap Zeros and bombers plummeting into the sea after unsuccessfully spitting death at Yanks... enemy vessels loaded with TNT exploding before your very eyes... ammunition oil dumps going up in smoke and ruins... planes strafed on ground and bursting into flames... ack-ack fire splitting the skies... valiant Navy airmen stepping uninjured from their planes after crash landing on the flight deck... U. S. gunners in action, shooting the attacking enemy from the skies.

All this thrilling drama and more, too, highlights 20th Century-Fox's Technicolor production "The Fighting Lady" the story of the exploits of an unnamed aircraft carrier during its battles against the Japs in the South Pacific. Lieutenant Robert Taylor, USNR, former film star, tells about it in his commentary for the film which opens Sunday for four days at the Penn theater.

In "The Fighting Lady" Uncle Sam's daring officers, pilots and crewmen live their parts from day to day in battle and aboard ship. Every scene was filmed on-the-spot; none were specially re-enacted for the cameras.

The picture is truly an innovation in motion picture entertainment. Louis de Rochemont, one of the founders of March of Time who produced the picture, terms "The Fighting Lady" a news-drama and an adventure in pictorial journalism; something never before attempted in this medium of entertainment.

Ernie Pyle, most famed of all war correspondents, whose daily column is distributed by United Features Syndicate and appears in The Detroit Free Press, devoted a whole column recently to praise of the picture.

He said the film is a "magnificent piece of work. You'll know considerably more about what war feels like after you see it... If you ever see it advertised, for goodness sake see it!" All through the battle scenes becomes apparent that you are looking straight down the gun in the air, the realization soon barrels on the planes.

The pictures were taken automatically with the same mechanism which operates the guns, and the pictures shake with the gun's recoil.

Battles of Marcus, Kwajalein, Truk, Guam, Saipan, Tinian, and the Philippine Sea are all unfolded in "The Fighting Lady"—the action in the skies and aboard the carrier.

As one officer remarked: "Our synchronized cameras record, what no human eye and memory could record, just what our guns and bombs do to the enemy."

"The Fighting Lady" was filmed in cooperation with the United States Navy and under the supervision of Commander Edward J. Steichen, U.S.N.R.

Junior Red Cross Drive Now On

The annual Junior Red Cross drive opened yesterday in Plymouth schools to raise money for the alleviation of suffering among children throughout the world. The drive, which is confined to children according to Mrs. Glendine Baker, chairman, will run until March 9. Every child in school will be asked to contribute from his own money, preferably money he earned himself. The money goes to the National Children's fund.

A program over WJR from 9:45 to 10 a.m. yesterday, to which the pupils of the schools were to listen, got the drive off to a good start. All schools will fly a Red Cross flag during March.

The Junior Red Cross, which has been active in Plymouth for three years, has engaged in a wide program of war-useful activities.

Pupils from Central and Stark-weather schools have made blankets, wash cloths, pillows for soldiers, painted vases for hospitals, made scrapbooks, writing boards and packed Christmas boxes.

The sewing classes have made such useful home front items as layettes, diapers, and card table covers which also went to soldiers in the hospitals.

The Junior Red Cross also has given dances to raise funds for the above mentioned purpose, conducted various salvage drives and packed Christmas toilet and writing kits for servicemen.

At present they are engaged in a drive for playing cards for the servicemen.

Young Col. Moore's Name Is Richard, Not William

The Mail regrets an error in last week's paper in which it referred to Lt. Col. Richard H. Moore as William H. Moore. Col. Moore, who is making a brilliant record in this war, is the son of the late Col. William K. Moore, hero of four wars.

If a child habitually sleeps with mouth open, suspect adenoid growth.

Cubs Schedule Training Series for Leaders

The Cub Scouts of District 7 will have another series of training classes for Cub Leaders and parents beginning Monday, March 19, in Stark school, at 7:30 p.m.

The Cubbing program has grown so rapidly that the training of new leaders becomes one of the foremost necessities.

About one hundred trainees are expected to participate in the classes, some of whom are present leaders seeking additional knowledge of their work.

Such training will definitely tend to better the Cubbing program in this district. It makes possible a better relationship between the adult and the Cub, who seeks guidance and counsel from his leader.

Classes will be held for committee men, den dads, den mothers, cubmasters, assistant cubmasters and all Cub-parents and adults who are interested in the promotion of the welfare of the 9- to 12-year-old boys.

The public is cordially invited to join the classes for fun as well as training. Come and bring an interested friend.

The boys of P-1 joined with the three other troops last Monday evening in a sealed order hike which ended in the Parkway near Plymouth road.

There the reason for carrying sandwiches and a cup became evident.

Next Monday Robert North will be received formally as a P-1 Scout. The investiture service will be the "First Two Ages of a Scout."

Last week P-1 collected paper in its district. Its experience brought out two conditions that affect all the troops.

Evidently many people don't find the cards distributed by the block chairman giving the date of the collection. That is something the boys can't do very much about.

It also has been heard that a few families have said that Scouts are welcome to come in and clean out their papers for them but that they can't be bothered with getting the paper ready for the boys.

The work of the householder in tying up his papers neatly and securely is much less than that of the Scouts loading and unloading their trucks.

Except in extreme cases as a good turn, Scouts are forbidden to go beyond the curb or the porch to collect paper. It certainly shouldn't be necessary for them to do more.

During the months of March and April, the Scouts are expected to make special efforts to collect paper and to make the paper camaign a real spring house and town cleaning.

You will hear more about the Gen. Eisenhower-Boy Scout paper drive.

This is the month the Troops register. April is the start of the new Scout year in Plymouth.

Hi-12 Elects C. W. Schuler President

At a meeting of 44 local Masons at the Mayflower Hotel last Wednesday night the formal organizational work of forming a Hi12 club for Plymouth was undertaken. The group elected C. W. Schuler of Kelsey Hayes president and Fred Erb first vice president. Robert Simmons was elected second vice president; Edward Gardiner, secretary and Jack Taylor, treasurer. Vaughan Smith was elected international representative.

The club will meet every Wednesday evening at the Hotel Mayflower.

How To Increase Output Of Farms

Michigan farmers can increase the effective size of their farms without the risk of investing in present high priced land, says C. E. Miller, head of the soil science department of Michigan State college. He recommends following the advice of Benjamin Franklin in Poor Richard's Almanac: "A deposit of fertility in the soil bank is safest and best."

Productive capacity of many soil types in the state can be increased 20 percent or more by conserving and improving the soil and making use of improved varieties of crops and better tillage methods. This has been shown in tests at Michigan State college and on farms throughout the state, Mr. Miller says.

The otter was first given protection in Michigan in 1909 when it was made illegal to take them between April 1 and October 31.

Plymouth Voters Pick Commission Nominees Monday

Plymouth voters will go to the polls Monday to decide which six candidates for three city commission seats they want to appear on the April 2 city election ballot.

That is the only question which will be decided at Monday's primary election at which a field of seven candidates will vie for the six positions on the ballot. In other words, the primary is being held to eliminate one candidate.

Regardless of the fact that only one issue is at stake, City Manager Clarence Elliott, who also is city clerk, and as such leads the election machinery, urges every voter to get out and exercise their voting privilege.

"The surest way to lose the liberties we enjoy," said Elliott, "is to fail to get out and vote. That's the privilege our sons are fighting for today all over the globe."

"Ours is one of the very few lands on earth where we have the privilege, periodically, of choosing the heads of our government."

Plymouth's four polling places will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. in order to give everybody a chance to register their choice.

Election board officials for the polling places, as announced by Mayor Corbett are:

Precinct No. 1—Miss Verne Rowley, chairman; Mrs. Alice Rathbun, Mrs. Ethel Joffille, Mrs. Anna Richards, Mrs. Edward Scully.

Precinct No. 2—Mrs. Minnie Hines, chairman; Mrs. Mary Starkweather, Mrs. Maud Bennett, Mrs. Dorothy Stimson, Mrs. Marie Polley.

Precinct No. 3—Mrs. Ellen Laible, chairman; Mrs. Harry Deyo, Mrs. Ruth Thomas, Ada Daggett, Mrs. Jessie Squires.

Precinct No. 4—Mrs. S. D. Armstrong, chairman; Mrs. Elsie Arscott, Mrs. Margaret Smith, Mrs. Clara Mumby, Charles Humphries.

Accident Ends Active Fighting for Jack Crisp

Active participation in the war as a fighter apparently is over for Second Lieut. Jack Crisp, 21, of 9917 Cranston avenue, Rosedale Gardens.

Lieut. Crisp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. Crisp, had been on 36 missions over Europe in a B-26 Marauder bomber as bombardier when he lost the tip of a finger in an unfortunate accident as he was about to start on his 37th raid.

A member of the Ninth Air Force, Crisp had been overseas 6 months, long enough to have earned the air medal, three battle stars and the Purple Heart. His command flew in tactical support of ground troops in France and Western Germany.

Despite the fact that flak was extremely heavy on raids over the Moselle River, Metz and Brest, among other places Lieut. Crisp says his plane never was hit.

"The fighters never bothered us either," Crisp asserted. "They just went after the heavies. I guess we were just a little too fast for them."

"I was really impressed with the way our infantry slugs it out with the enemy—and we have a grandstand seat up there," he continued. "I have all the respect in the world for them."

"It makes your heart bleed, too, to see some of the pitiful hospital cases. It was heart-rending to see whole towns, many of them the size of Plymouth, wiped out completely."

Aachen, he said, was an example of a town that had been gutted. Paris, on the other hand, hasn't hardly been touched. Crisp said he was quite surprised never to have seen a bit of damage on his visits to the city.

The English really are all out for the war, he said. "They have been taking an awful psychological—as well as physical—beating from those buzz bombs. And so did we. The buzzers worried us a lot."

Those V-2 rockets aren't such a psychological hazard since you don't hear them before they hit. Occasionally you can see one at a distance. They look like falling stars."

His injury, suffered when the bomb bay door accidentally opened, crushing his hand, bothered him at first.

"However, when I saw some of those other boys in the hospital, I realized how lucky I was," he said. "And those kids are so cheerful."

"Another thing, don't forget those doctors and nurses. They work 18 to 20 hours a day and still take an interest in you and your troubles."

Crisp has returned to O'Reilly General Hospital, in Springfield, Mo., where he is due to lose another piece of the finger, back to the knuckle.

He was graduated from Plymouth High School in 1941 and attended the University of Detroit a year before enlisting Sept. 18, 1942.

A younger brother, Second Lieut. Harold N. Crisp, Jr., also a former Plymouth High student, is a bombardier too, stationed in Gulfport, Miss. He's due to go overseas soon.

UNOFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS OF THE CITY COMMISSION OF PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN

The regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chambers of the City Hall on Tuesday, Feb. 20, 1945, at 7:30 p.m.

Present: Mayor Corbett, Commissioners Lewis, Shear and Whipple.

Absent: None.

The minutes of the regular meeting of Feb. 5, 1945, were approved as read by the clerk.

It was moved by Commissioner Shear and supported by Commissioner Lewis that the bills in the amount of $6636.05 as audited by the auditing committee be approved.

Ayes: Mayor Corbett, Commissioners Lewis, Shear and Whipple. Nays: None. Carried.

The clerk read the police report for the month of January.

It was moved by Commissioner Lewis and supported by Commissioner Whipple that the report be accepted and placed on file. Carried.

A petition was presented requesting construction of a sanitary sewer on Fair and Virginia streets.

The city manager recommended that a hearing be called March 6, 1945, for the purpose of obtaining the wishes of the property owners.

You Give to the Worthiest of Causes When You Give to the Red Cross

And if you should stop to ask the reason why—the answers are manifold! For this great army, your Red Cross, stretches out a hand of mercy to millions all over the world—soldiers, sailors, marines and civilians. A hand that collects millions of pints of life saving plasma . . . a hand that delivers millions of sustaining food packages to dejected allied war prisoners . . . a hand that delivers heartening emergency messages from loved ones and to loved ones . . . a hand that brings food and clothing to helpless victims of a ruthless war. Yes, this is your Red Cross that does all these things and more! For over a war-torn world its hand of compassion offers hope and comfort to wrecked souls and maimed bodies. Can an organization whose every fibre is directed at aiding and giving solace to the war weary be denied? Look to your heart for the answer.

Without your generous contributions the Red Cross could not carry on its magnificent and humanitarian work. Your son, husband, brother or sweetheart would be without the plasma needed to save his life . . . without the recreation that keeps up his morale . . . without those important little things that bring a semblance of home into the horrors of battle. Give it a little thought, people of Plymouth—and let your heart write your check.

Injuries Slight in Freak Mishap on Ann Arbor Rd.

Four residents of Battle Creek can consider themselves really fortunate.

Driving east on Ann Arbor road last Saturday at about 5 p.m., their auto was involved in a freak collision with one being driven south on Sheldon road by Mrs. Myrtle Lou Fogg, 27, of 5275 Barr road, Belleville, according to Police Chief Lee R. Sackett.

Mrs. Fogg's car caught the coupe driven by Mrs. Mary E. Rioux, 53, of Battle Creek, on the left rear side, starting it into a sideways skid of about 48 feet from which it turned over on its side and skidded about 27 feet farther.

Then it turned the rest of the way over, finally coming to rest right side up in the ditch about 36 feet away.

According to Mrs. Fogg, Mrs. Rioux flew clear of the car after it went over on its side and flew through the air landing beyond the rolling auto when everything had come to a stop. Mrs. Rioux's husband, Ernest, 53, who was riding in the turtleback, also was thrown clear of the car.

Mrs. Rioux suffered only bruises of the arm and leg. Rioux received torn ligaments in his shoulder plus a possible fractured rib and scalp, face and hand lacerations.

Mrs. Rioux's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gouldon M. Kelley, 75 and 77 respectively, of Battle Creek, who were riding in the front seat with Mrs. Rioux, received only bruises.

No tickets were issued, said Sackett, because neither car was exceeding the proper speed and in his opinion neither driver was guilty of gross negligence.

"That intersection at that time of day," Sackett asserted, "is one of the most treacherous in this area. The sun, aided and abetted by buildings in the vicinity, absolutely blinds any one trying to look to the west."

Mrs. Fogg stopped at the intersection, and failing to see the Rioux car approaching, started to cross Ann Arbor. Mrs. Rioux, seeing the approaching car too late to stop, speeded up in an effort to avoid the collision and nearly succeeded in doing so.

Mrs. Rioux was going about 35 miles per hour and Mrs. Fogg about 10. Mrs. Fogg's auto stopped within 10 feet, Sackett said.

Sailor Seeks Stolen Satchel

Hospital Apprentice First Class John Osterhoudt was given quite a reception by a person or persons unknown when he came home on an emergency leave last Sunday night.

He was picked up at the train by his brother-in-law, George W. Curtiss, and while the whole family was having a reunion in the Curtiss home at 894 Irwin, some body went into Curtiss' unlocked car and stole Osterhoudt's bag containing all of his personal belongings.

Osterhoudt, who came home to arrange for the hospitalization of his wife, says whoever stole the bag is welcome to the 12 or 13 packs of cigars if only they'll return the rest of the contents—especially a prized picture of his wife, which he says can't be replaced.

The blue denim zipper overnight bag contained one complete suit of Navy dress blues, four white Navy caps, one blue Navy cap, one GI blue sweater, a leatherette shaving and toilet kit, a wrist watch with the minute and second hands missing and a broken strap, two complete sets of Navy underwear (shirts and shorts) and three pairs of socks.

The Navy apparel would be of no value to anyone else, Osterhoudt says, since they all are indelibly imprinted with his name.

He has to leave next week to return to his base at Ocean Side, California.

Six of the largest cities of the state—Pontiac, Ann Arbor, Jackson, Lansing, Battle Creek, and Kalamazoo obtain their water supplies from wells.

Livonia Blood Bank Success

The Livonia branch of the Red Cross held its blood bank at St. Michael's school Feb. 16. Those in charge are very proud of the generous response.

There were 247 donors registered and 180 pints donated. One donor was Pvt. Earl W. Van Alstine of 18289 Irving street. It was Earl's misfortune to be seriously wounded at Casino, at that time one of Earl's buddies gave blood for a transfusion. Later while recovering in a hospital plasma was also given. Earl is one of the many boys who know the value of blood donations.

The services of the following were donated to make a house to house canvass: Mrs. Clyde Carey, Mrs. Russell Longley, Mrs. Bernard Green, Mrs. William Henner, Mrs. W. G. Meier, Mrs. Walter R. Thepts, Mrs. Clara Smith, Mrs. E. Heuhman, Mrs. Charles Guideau, Mrs. David McKinney, Mrs. G. E. Taylor, Mrs. Stephen Sassa, Mrs. Valrance, Mrs. Julia Roberts, Don Ryder and George Bentley.

A great many were reached in this way. Mrs. Klason, chairman of the blood bank, wishes to thank all those who gave of their time in the splendid service to our boys over there.

Before the war, the average U. S. citizen ate 13.3 pounds of fish a year. The average Japanese got 55 pounds in a year; the Swede 32 pounds; the Englishman 35. Neighboring Canadians ate more than twice as much as U. S. citizens—29 pounds each on the average.

Don Thrall Visits Home After 3 1/2 Years in Pacific

Cpl. Don Thrall, looking older, but very fit, stopped off en route to a new assignment after 35 months in the Pacific to visit his parents and tell some new experiences of Jap treachery.

Thrall, 27, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Thrall, of 288 Irving street, had changed so after nearly three and a half years in the Army that many friends had difficulty recognizing him.

A member of the famed 41st (Sunset) division, he had participated in the Salamaua, Hollandia and Biak campaigns as well as the invasion of the Netherlands East Indies. He wears the combat infantryman's badge and three major battle stars.

He told how the Japs would approach apparently intent on surrendering and then fall flat with machine guns strapped to their backs and the men behind would spray their surprised would-be captors with lead.

The former Hazel Park High School art and handicraft teacher served in the communications section and had plenty of close calls in his hazardous occupation of keeping communications open.

His art training came in handy in making sketches of scenes which he sent home for the education of his parents and friends. Bullets flew all around, he said, but he just considers himself lucky. "Some get 'em and some don't. All you can do is hope for the best."

"You don't really get time to worry under fire," he went on. "It's afterwards, when you realize how close it was when you got it and you become aware of how lucky you were, that you get really scared and wonder how long your luck will last."

The Japs offered no really stiff opposition as far as air or naval power was concerned, Thrall said. "The odds there were decidedly in our favor."

He was greatly impressed with the hospitality of the Australians and would like to go back there some day after the war for a visit.

He suffered no wounds but contracted malaria in New Guinea. However, he never was hospitalized. He had a slight attack of the disease while home.

Thrall is a graduate of Plymouth High School, in 1936, and of Michigan State, 1940.

He has left for Miami and re-orientation before starting a new assignment.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mielbeck of Nankin Mills entertained at dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and family of Newburg road and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Nyman and Erick of Laurel road.

Alfred Deno of Farmington, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Liscum of Ann Arbor Trail.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of Newburg Methodist church will meet on Wednesday March 7, at the home of Mrs. Ida Thomas on Newburg road.

Teachers Lose Understanding

An epidemic of falls hit members of the faculty of Plymouth High School last week.

Coach John Tomshack has been going around all week with a stiff neck as the result of two falls, which also caused him to miss Friday night's basketball game at River Rouge.

And William Campbell, shop instructor, has his hand all bandaged after falling at the rear of the school as he was leaving.

Tomshack fell first Thursday evening in front of the school after returning from the freshman basketball game at Farmington.

That wasn't too bad but a second inglorious flop on Church street Friday noon as he was going home for lunch sent him to bed over the weekend with a wrenched-back and neck.

GETS CHRISTMAS PACKAGES — MEETS PLYMOUTH BOYS.
 From somewhere far out in the Pacific came a letter the other day from Arthur Robinson, who has been seeing plenty of action. Arthur writes:
 "Another short letter from me to change my address. It seems I am always writing to you to do that."
 "Yesterday was a red letter day for the other members of the LCC 22674 and myself. A lot of our pack mail, most of our Christmas packages, and to me eleven copies of The Plymouth Mail caught up with us. Although every once in a while when I saw a fellow from Plymouth I was able to see a copy of The Mail how I digested those eleven copies!
 "At the time you folks were reading your October 20th copy I was, according to a poor map, approximately 9666 miles from Plymouth. That is, I was on Leyte. As the first wave left us at one hundred yards, the men in the LVT's and LVT (P)'s grinned and raised their thumbs and first two fingers in the sign of their impending victory.
 "Now as I read The Mail and see how wonderfully you people have passed your mark for the sixth war loan I'm really proud of you. And I'm sure those fellows we led in would be equally proud if they knew about it. Keep it up and we'll all be home soon.
 "Since I've come back to Hawaii I've seen quite a bit of Milt Humphreys and Boy Kenyon. Although I haven't seen them lately, I have seen Chuck Minthorn and Bill Slater. Milt, Chuck and I were in the same class at Plymouth high school, 1943, so we know pretty much the same people.
 "We really had some grand get togethers. There is nothing like seeing the pictures the other fellows has and talking over home.
 "As usual my short letter has extended, so I had better close. Thanks again for The Mail."

PRIVATE GRIMES IS ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE PACIFIC.
 A brief note from Private C. F. Grimes tells of his arrival on the other side of the Pacific. He says:
 "I would like to thank you for sending me The Plymouth Mail every week, which I enjoy very much, as it takes me back to my home and family and friends in Plymouth.
 "I left Plymouth July 6, 1944, and I had my boot training for the marines at Parris Island, South Carolina. Later, I was sent to Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, and then to Oceanside, California. I crossed in December and I am now stationed over here in the Pacific.
 "A few days after I landed here, I met my brother-in-law, Cpl. Edwin Cavanaugh, who has been over here for 22 months with the marines. I am the first one he has seen from home so we have been busy talking about home and our families.
 "I have seen many things over here that are new to me and different, but I'll take good old Plymouth any day. Thank you again for sending me the Plymouth Mail."

LEON SCHROEDER AT GREAT LAKES STATION.
 Leon R. Schroeder, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Schroeder, 695 Forest, is receiving his initial naval indoctrination at the U.S. Naval Training center, Great Lakes, Illinois.
 His recruit training consists of instruction in seamanship, military drill and general Naval procedure. During this period a series of aptitude tests will be taken by the recruits to determine whether he will be assigned to a station or to immediate duty at naval service school, to a shore sea.
 When his recruit training is completed, the seaman will receive a period of leave.

FEBRUARY IN KEY WEST LIKE OUR JULY SAYS YALE CUMMINGS.
 S2/c Yale Cummings now located in Key West, writes:
 "Just a few lines to thank you for sending The Plymouth Mail. The paper is like a long letter from home. I really enjoy reading about my Plymouth friends and different school activities.
 "I met Marvin Mepnyans in O.G.U. at Great Lakes. He was leaving for California the same day I left for Florida. Marv is going to Hospital Corps school in San Diego.
 "Sorry I can't say anything about my training because everything is restricted to class rooms. We are not allowed to take any notes or papers out of class.
 "It doesn't seem like Plymouth should be having so much snow when it is so different here. Today it was more like July than February."

BERLE FISHER IS NOW A SERGEANT.

Plymouth Mail Given Thanks

The Plymouth Mail is among many papers throughout the United States that has received from the United States Treasury department a letter of high praise for the publicity it gave during the last 8th war loan drive. The letter follows: "The Sixth War Loan was the most successful sales program in the history of the world—total sales amounted to $21,621,000,000. Preliminary treasury figures show that a greater amount of news and editorial space was devoted to the Sixth drive, than to any other. "That news, made by news in every department of the press of the nation pounced away with powerful front page stories—editorials—special articles—comic strips—comic panels—editorial cartoons—special features—pictures, etc., with the urgent message of our nation's financial needs. "The proof of the power of that tremendous support by the press is shown in the final sales figures of the greatest of all money raising programs—the Sixth war loan drive. To say that newspapers played a vital part in that great effort is not enough. The job that they did in answer to America's call for funds represents an accomplishment that is well worthy of special recognition. "The free press of our nation has demonstrated again that there is no limitation on what it can accomplish when voluntarily united in a common cause for the benefit of mankind. The American people should feel proud of the job that you have done. "The importance of war bond sales cannot be overemphasized. As some of our leaders have said on many occasions, Next to the actual fighting, the war bond program is the most vital part of our war effort. "Your cooperation with the treasury through the Allied Newspaper Council and the Newspaper Editorial Advisory Committee, both under the chairmanship of Frank E. Tripp, is proving most helpful to our program, and all of us here at the treasury sincerely appreciate the outstanding support that newspapers are giving this vital cause."

veled heavy bomber outfits in the Pacific.

Based where its B-24 Liberators bomb, strafed and harassed the enemy at points within 600 miles of the Japanese mainland, the 11th group has participated in almost every major move of the great offensive that has rolled the Japanese back more than 3,000 miles to their own front yard.

Its fighting tradition began at Hickam Field when the group was all but destroyed in the Pearl Harbor attack. The 11th later sent bombs crashing down on Wake and Guadalcanal.

It precision-bombed northward through the Gilberts, the Marshalls, the Carolines, the Marianas, bringing such targets as Truk, Tarawa and Guam within its bombsights. Now the Bonin and Volcano Islands are the targets for its attacks.

"The valiant record of your group is the valiant record of its men both as a unit and as individuals," General Douglas declared. Lieutenant Criger's mother received Mrs. Adella R. Criger, lives at 649 Dodge street. He was graduated from Plymouth high school in 1936, and attended Wayne University, and the University of Detroit. Prior to entering the service in February, 1942, he was employed as an efficiency expert for Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Corporation. He has been awarded the air medal with three Oak Leaf clusters, and the Distinguished Flying Cross with one Oak Leaf cluster.

MARGARET ZIMMERMAN NOW IN PENNSYLVANIA.
T/5 Margaret Zimmerman, daughter of Mrs. E. L. Zimmerman of 254 Blunk Ave., has recently been assigned to the Station Hospital, Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, Pa. Cpl. Zimmerman has been assigned as a Surgical Technician. Cpl. Zimmerman enlisted in the original Women's Army Auxiliary Corps in May, 1943. She took her basic training at Ft. Devens, Mass., and has since served at the Holabird Signal Depot Station hospital at Baltimore, Md., and at the Army and Navy General Hospital in Hot Springs, Ark. Cpl. Zimmerman is a graduate of the Enlisted Medical Technicians' school at Hot Springs.

Previous to entering the service Cpl. Zimmerman was employed by the Ford Motor Co. in Plymouth and Ypsilanti, Mich.

C. H. ELLIOTT, City Clerk.

Build That Home Tomorrow With War Bonds Purchased Today . . .

Your New Home...

We present these plans hoping they will prove interesting and helpful to you in making plans for your future home. Please ask our assistance at any time. Complete working drawings are available for each house we illustrate.

THE HEARTSTRINGS of most Americans are warmly touched when they see an Early American house. Somehow their thoughts hark back to times of yesteryear for this style has a homecoming feeling, and offers a practical solution of a home plan.

Design V-10—The Early American House

This two-story house is true to type, the Early American style, modified to meet the constant modern demands and changing living conditions brought about by new appliances, new equipment and new methods of building.

The living room is a particularly fine room, with a large circular bay facing the street and flooding the room with sunlight.

The kitchen is closely related to the front door, the basement entrance and the garage, thus saving many unnecessary steps. Close by the kitchen is a closet where brooms, mops and vacuum cleaner may be stored. This type of closet is frequently omitted from plans, but is really a great convenience.

Sleeping accommodations on the second floor are excellent—three rooms with a good bath and ample closet space.

The exterior is true to the best Colonial tradition with a gracious Colonial doorway, the overhanging second floor,—a definite indication of the Early American style and really useful as it allows wider bedrooms in the upper story.

Eight Passed Music Test

The fifth and sixth grade children of Starkweather school have been given the same Music and Intelligence test as the seventh graders in the high school. Among those who passed with an above average score and who have secured instruments are Donald Moyer, Norman Ruer, Lynn Osen, Barbara Packard, Robert Puckett, Donna Hunt, Janet Burgett and Larry Jolliffe. These students will be prepared to join the Junior High band when they are in the seventh grade.

Class News

The biology class is studying the effects of alcohol and tobacco on the nervous system, and also learning ways to break bad habits and establish good ones. Lists are made of their good and bad habits that could be changed to improve themselves.

Mrs. Humphries, dressmaker and night school clothing teacher, spoke to the Homemaking III class on Thursday as to how her career in dressmaking began, and then she stressed principles of design and types of patterns. The class enjoyed Mrs. Humphries talk and wish to thank her. Many of the girls are making their Easter clothing.

A quiz program has been inaugurated in Mrs. Blunk's world geography class. Once a week the group discuss world events in charge of a chairman.

Mary Arthur, of Miss McDonald's English class, brought to school "The Lamar Democrat" from Lamar, Missouri. Parts of the paper were read to Miss Allen's journalism and English classes. Both groups found the construction grammar and material of the articles strange.

Miss Killham's French class II are supposed to speak French all hour even when they whisper.

Miss Niles' 9A English class has been studying classroom activities and so her three English classes selected the best students in each. The results were Dorothy Fuggett, Owen Hedden, and Barbara Lorenz.

Betty Fulton and Muriel Nipper made the best maps concerning the French and Indian war in Miss Niles history class.

The Advanced Machine Shop boys are working on a series of gauges which, when finished, will be used to set up a complete inspection department. The gauges will be used in checking standard instructional projects, under regular inspection methods.

The seventh grade geography class is making scrapbooks in their study of the United States. Up to now they have studied cotton, lumbering, and natural resources; each subject receives several pages in these scrapbooks which will not be finished until spring.

Third hour public speaking class has been giving speeches to inform. Helen Phillips gave a talk on the new dance "Samba," with J. Giles and C. Hoffman as her concrete objects. Some fun!

The seventh grade Home Economics girls made posters illustrating meals which fulfill the daily nutrition requirements. Some illustrated by using magazine pictures, others drew and painted their own illustration. Especially good ones were made by Nancy Morrow, Sandra Walsh, Saxie Holstein, Wilma Latture, Kathleen Trucks.

The Lenawee county board of supervisors voted unanimously in October to close the county tuberculosis sanatorium. Reason for the decision was an increasing difficulty in obtaining employees and mounting costs of operation.

Sixty-five Play in Tournament

Leaders' club had formal initiation, Monday, February 19, for the girls who were named in Feb. 16th paper.

Ping Pong tournament started this week with 65 girls having signed. The contestants are playing off their tournament in the morning, noon, after school and during any vacant hour.

Easter vacation will mark the end of the Wednesday night recreation program.

Christensen, Dipboye, and Boyd basketball teams are for first place at this date.

J-Hop Committees Appointed

"Penthouse Garden" is the theme for the J-Hop to be April 20. Bob Chute, general chairman, has appointed Jim Thornton assistant chairman. Chairman for decoration is Dick Groth with Marion Kirkpatrick and Lois Norgren assisting; music, Emmy Lou Hough; construction, Danny Wisely; invitation, Virginia Waldecker; publicity, Don Vetal; clean-up, Jackie Dalton; intermission, Jim Knight; check room and tickets, Gene Thompson; floor, Dick Olin; chaperones, Natalie Reitzel; lighting, Ray Kurtz.

Here and There

We wish to make a correction on last week's article concerned with The Best Boy and Girl Citizen of 1945. This year there will be no state or national meetings, as was stated in the article, to conserve transportation facilities.

Last Wednesday evening Miss Irene Walldorf and Miss Ingeborg Lundin were dinner guests of Mrs. Evelyn Gorton in Ypsilanti.

Edna Newton had a pajama party last Saturday night. The group, Nancy Broman, Joyce Cartwright, Nancy Proctor, and Lois Thomas, went to the Michigan the next day and saw "Since You Went Away" and "Dangerous Passage."

The Hi-Y is having a theatre party Saturday night. Jim Knight was elected secretary of the Hi-Y for this semester.

Annabelle Guards Biology Room

As this reported entered the biology room—taking a wide detour around Annabelle, the skeleton—he was taken in tow by an enterprising young student who proceeded to show him a leaf under the microscope, the teeth of a horse, and assorted skulls of small animals. All the while the poor boy was distractedly murmuring such phrases as "algae, fungi, phyla, chlorophyll, and bryophyta."

Upon further investigation I discovered that having completed their study of birds, Mr. Hedrick's classes are now taking up the subject of living things and food. When they have finished the chapter they are supposed to know:

- (1) How plants and animals obtain food;
- (2) How we can choose the proper sort of food;
- (3) What is meant by digestion.

Such is the life of a biology student.

What Would Happen If—

Mr. Latture forgot the story about the fly?

Melva Makepeace dyed her hair black.

There wasn't a man shortage?

Virginia Waldecker bought some notebook paper?

Nobody slammed his locker?

Betty Lou Arnold wore boots on a snowy day?

Joan Laitur couldn't talk?

Marilyn Tebo swallowed her gum?

Assembly would be presented sometime except when one has library and study hall? It just picks out one's free time.

One basketball game was played without any booping?

Calendar

March 1-2-3—Basketball tournament, Ypsi.

March 2—Girl Scout dance.

March 3-9—Senior play.

March 16—Lams club dance.

March 23—Out-county teachers' institute at Plymouth. No school.

March 30-April 2—Easter vacation.

Kunkel-Schumacker Attend Conference

Elaine Kunkel and Betty Schumacker were elected by the Girl Reserves to attend the Midwinter conference at the Detroit Y.W.C.A. on February 24 and 25. The theme of the conference is "One World—Is It Yours?"

To become better acquainted with each other, the members of the Girl Reserve cabinet met with their advisers on Monday, Feb. 26. After a pot luck dinner a social hour followed.

Senior Sketches

George R. Simmons, son of Robert and Gwendolyn Simmons of 199 Arthur street, is taking a college preparatory course. When he is not in school or repairing clocks at his father's jewelry store, one may find him working on a model or reading. He also likes to dance. His pet peeve is painted toenails. He plans to attend the Bradley Watch College at Peoria, Illinois, upon graduation.

Definitely a boy with loads of friends, Donald Rock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rock, 40651 Five Mile road, hopes to attend college and be a physical education teacher or join the armed services. Don has been active in football, basketball, and baseball, and has been an active member in Varsity club. He has a hobby which consists exclusively of reading good fiction books. Don, like most boys, "dislikes women that talk all of the time and don't even come up for breath."

A Coast Guardsman who left Feb. 27 is Robert Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schultz, 40839 Five Mile road. Bob has been active in all sports and has completed a general course. Being a good-natured fellow, Bob has no pet peeves.

Hunting, skiing, and trapping are the hobbies of Ronald E. Micol, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Micol of 1226 South Main street. Ronald has to his credit three years of basketball and two years of football. He is taking a college preparatory course and plans to go to college unless, as Ronald stated "the U. S. army doesn't call for my services." His pet peeve is girls who wear anklets with high heels.

"I shall attend Michigan State college until October when I shall enlist in the navy" said George H. Valrance, son of Genevieve and Hurd T. Valrance of 9628 Cranston road, Rosedale Gardens. His nickname is Val. Music and all athletics are his hobbies, while his pet peeve is people who don't enjoy sports. George is following a college preparatory course. Some of his accomplishments are baseball, football, J-Hop and Senior Prom committees, Senior play, Hi-Y, Varsity club secretary, Senior class vice-president, and best boy citizen of 1945.

"Audie" as we call her, or in reality, Audrey Neale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Neale of 242 Auburn, is on a college preparatory course and says her pet peeve is "people who spread untrue gossip and those who wear anklets with pumps." Her hobby is collecting bracelets, and her favorite sport is swimming. Audrey has traveled through many western states. She has worked on the J-Hop Senior farewell, Prom and Senior annual committees, and has taken part in the Senior play. After graduation she plans to go to Ypsi normal for the Fine Arts course.

Hesco Club

The Hesco club purchased a baby layette, made by two Homemaking III girls last semester to be used for illustrative purposes in the Home Economics department.

A committee was appointed to find out the equipment needed for the Home Economics department.

Next week's meeting will be a "Club Sing" under the direction of Phyllis Laverne.

Miss Lundin's Homemaking III class visited Broadway market Feb. 22. Later they went to Hudson's to see the Ideal House and rooms which are furnished. The class also looked at kitchen utensils and dishes. After completing what Miss Lundin considered a very beneficial afternoon they ate at Greenfields.

Free Throws

Two Senior boys overheard in the hall—"Her strut is like two monkeys each going in different directions!"

Mr. Latture: "If your mother is Greek and your father Russian and you were born in England what are you?" Bright student replies: "Why a baby!"

Students, doesn't the sign for "The Last Warning" over the third floor drinking fountain give you goose pimples?

Some seniors will never grow up. They are still sticking their tongues out at people.

Raymond R. is really learning about finger nail polish, styles of hair, and so on from the girls in journalism class. He can't leave the class and well, you know women!

The first hour typing class is learning how to spell February. They often omit the r.

"I'm going to Oklahoma, tonight," said Miss Olsen to one of her Junior typing students.

He replied with a most sincere and serious voice: "Oh, isn't there any school on Monday?"

Jean Norgren of Miss Bristah's geometry class is trying to prove the proposition that you can "live on love." One wonders if she doesn't get sort of hungry?

Rocks Lose Final to Ecorse 44-37

The league-leading Ecorse squad maintained its steady progress toward the League title by defeating Plymouth in the final game of the season with a score of 44 to 37. It was the Rocks' third straight loss.

Although they began the year well the local five took only four out of ten league games, beating Wayne twice and taking one apiece from River Rouge and Ypsi.

Tomshack's boys began combat with a beautiful long shot by Rock followed by another from Schomberger. In the first few minutes of play the Rocks piled up a score of 9 to 3 but the Red-shirts, spearheaded by their star Schuler, began to click. At the first quarter they trailed by only three points.

The second quarter set the pace for the rest of the game with Ecorse building up a seven-point lead which they kept throughout the game. The battle ended with Ecorse on top 44 to 37 largely through the efforts of Schuler, who accumulated eighteen points in the process.

The second team game was as exciting as the first and even more heart-breaking. Plymouth had played a tight see-saw game all the way and was leading by one point when, with 30 seconds to go, Ecorse's forward Marsh, sank a tough shot to win 21 to 20.

Fresh End Season With Victory

The freshman team concluded a successful season February 22 by hammering Farmington for a 36 to 17 victory. In their previous encounter Plymouth had lost by only one point. Gerald Allen was high man with 15 points.

Jack Kenyon to Address Hi-Y

Jack Kenyon, P.H.S. graduate just returned from overseas will talk to the Hi-Y club Feb. 28.

Mr. Dunbar Davis, attorney, addressed the club, Feb. 21, on the subject, "What an inductee should expect in the first few months of military service." He gave an accurate picture of army life pointing out both the advantages and disadvantages.

Mr. Davis' services were secured by Bill Bakewell. Other good programs have been supplied by Ed Strong, Freeman Hoover, Bill Bateman, and Paul Miller.

In a short business discussion the club decided to have a theatre party Saturday night.

Tournament Began in Ypsi March 1

The basketball tournament for class "B" schools will be held in Ypsilanti, March 2. The teams will include Wayne, Ypsi Central, Ypsi Roosevelt, and Plymouth.

The drawing for opponents was held Monday, Feb. 26. The playoffs were held Thursday and today, and the district finals will be on Saturday, March 3.

The tournament will be played in the one game knockout style. That is, two teams will play and the winner will fight the victor of the other two teams.

G. R. Cabinet Council Meet

The Girl Reserve cabinet and their advisers, Miss Wrisley and Miss Bristah, met with the Adult Council at the home of Mrs. Morrow on Feb. 22 to acquaint the council members with the members of the cabinet and to become informed as to what the club has been doing and is planning for this semester. After refreshments the business meeting was followed by a social hour. Members of the Adult Council present were Mrs. Marion Morrow, Mrs. Helen Stevens, Mrs. Elizabeth Mather, Miss Getrude Fiegel, Mrs. Dora Hondorp, Mrs. Maxine Willoughby, Mrs. Margaret Ross and Mrs. Geraldine Walsh.

The winter of 1944 saw no commercial production of smelt, except for a few scattered pounds, in Michigan waters of the Great Lakes.

A 55-acre field of standing corn on the Todd wildlife sanctuary southeast of Fennville has been picked almost clean by an estimated 800 Canada geese, 200 mallards, and 800 pheasants that are wintering there. The 1,500-acre muck soil sanctuary has supported several thousand pheasants in previous winters.

VICTORY'S SONS

Major Joseph N. Renner of Arlington, Va.

ONE OF the foremost of the Marine air officers who turned the tide against the Japs in the Solomons area in the early months of 1943 is Maj. Joseph N. Renner. As commander of an observation group, he did not go out looking for trouble, but when it came, he knew how to handle it.

When engaged by 11 Japanese Zeros on Jan. 23, Major Renner led his squadron into daring and aggressive action in which five enemy ships were destroyed. The same determined and courageous leadership effected the complete rout of nine attacking enemy fighters on Feb. 1, Major Renner personally shooting down two Japanese planes in these engagements.

Babson Says - -

Babson Park, Fla., March 2 — Here are some questions which have recently been shot at me. Following each question the reader will find my answer.

Industrial Outlook

(1) What should be the most active industries after the war? Answer: The building and furnishing of small homes. Accompanying this there should be a great demand for new automobiles. The clothing industry should also be good in the post war era.

(2) What industries may suffer the most after the war? Answer: Of course the manufacturing of airplanes, the building of ships and the making of munitions will suffer most. In addition, I believe that both agriculture and railroading may receive body blows.

Investment Outlook

(3) In what can we invest our money now in order to have it best maintain its purchasing power during the years ahead? Answer: Buy selected peace stocks—especially the oils, metal and other stocks which should be helped by inflation. This includes the merchandising chains which have their assets in goods, cash and real estate. They should be excellent hedges against inflation.

(4) Are high-grade bonds attractive now? Answer: Decidedly NO. Not only should interest rates strengthen after the War, but income taxes will be reduced. Any such reduction in taxes should cause tax-exempt municipals to decline. Other high-grade bonds should be affected sympathetically.

Reconversion

(5) What about utilities in the postwar era? Answer: There are some utility stocks which look very attractive due to possible dissolutions of holding companies. Furthermore, the persecution of the utilities seems to have come to an end for the present. The uncertain question is whether the natural growth of the utility business will overcome the increased costs due to inflation. Frankly, I do not know.

(6) What will be the effect of reconversion on the stock market? Answer: Reconversion may cause a serious shock to business, but not necessarily to the Stock Market. Most securities (with the exception of the rails) have fairly well already discounted peace.

(7) Do you expect a period of good business after reconversion is completed? Answer: Yes, I expect a few years of excellent business; but be prepared for trouble about 1950, or after, when the people have spent their savings and foreign competition begins to be felt.

(8) Will such prosperity keep up the prices of railroad stocks and income bonds? Answer: No. Railroad securities may not for many years again sell for the highs of February 1945. Truck, pipeline, water and airplane competition together with rising costs due to inflation can be very bearish on railroad securities.

(9) What about taxes? Answer: I do not look for radical tax changes until the U. S. Federal budget is again balanced. But all changes made will be favorable to business and corporations. Only tax-exempt bonds should suffer from the tax reductions.

(10) Do you think the Roosevelt administration—especially the securities and exchange commission—is unfriendly to legitimate business? Answer: No, I do not. The masses of the entire world are on the march and, with all the regulations and difficulties facing U. S. employers, they are—and will continue to be—better off than the businessmen and investors of any other nation.

(11) Do you think inflation is inevitable? Answer: Yes, and this means a gradual increase in living costs with higher prices for most consumer goods as well as for certain stocks, real estate and gold. Moreover, only a world spiritual awakening can prevent a final collapse of this upward spiral.

(12) What about the postwar unemployment scare? Answer: There will be no especial difficulty for a few years but later there may be much trouble. Unemployment is a spiritual and educational problem rather than economic. Congress cannot prevent unemployment. The churches and school committees of each community will determine the unemployment situation.

How To Start Tomatoes

Keith C. Barrons, extension specialist in horticulture at Michigan State college, advises farmers and commercial vegetable growers to use starter or transplanting solutions to improve tomato crops. Instead of using plain water when transplanting tomatoes, Barrons recommended the use of fertilizer in water to give plants the necessary nutrients immediately. He stated experiments revealed that in some instances the yield was three tons an acre greater. And the fertilizer solution added only 50c to $1.00 an acre in cost.

For fertilizer Barrons advises commercial growers to use 10 pounds of 4-12-8, 4-16-4, or 4-16-8 or any other fertilizer similar in analysis in 50 gallons of water. By adding one cup of hydrated lime, the acidity of the solution is reduced before applying the transplanting solution to the tomato plants. For each plant one-half to one cup of the solution should be used.

For the home gardener Barrons recommends three ounces of fertilizer in one gallon of water, with one teaspoon of hydrated lime. One-half to one cup of the solution should be used for each plant.

25 Years Ago

News items of a quarter of a century ago taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail.

Born, a little son to Mr. and Mrs. Galen Cripe on Starkweather avenue, Wednesday, March 3, George McLaren has purchased of John E. Wilcox, the house on Union street, where he now resides. George A. Smith has purchased the residence on Union street where he resides, and Ernest Westfall has purchased of Mr. Wilcox the house on Union street now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Stilson.

A pleasant birthday surprise was given Lawrence Johnson at his home on Church street, last Sunday, when about 12 relatives gathered there in response to an invitation from Mrs. Johnson. A delicious dinner was served, and the day was very enjoyable for all present.

A committee of local teachers submit below their expense account for one year. They wish it understood that anything published in these columns is not meant as a criticism of the Board of Education, nor is it anything directed entirely toward local conditions. Of course, Plymouth may be paying what other towns its size pay, but the aim of teachers generally has been to attempt to raise the standards for the profession, and the way to do this has seemed for each group to do some missionary work in its own locality. Neither the state association, nor the national education association, nor any city nearby should be entirely responsible for public information of local people.

We should like to call attention to one thing to be kept in mind. Housewives wear their street clothes for only part of the day as a rule and things that may last them two years will, in the chalk dust and with the hard wear from morning till night last a teacher only half as long. More underwear is needed, for the housewife can wash in the middle of the week or at her convenience; the teacher must send hers perhaps to someone who uses chemicals or to some one who is careless.

It took doctors a long time to teach folks that a pain low in the right abdomen might indicate appendicitis. But it may mean some other ailment.

BAKED GOODS FURNISH NEEDED EXTRA ENERGY

Terry's Bakery

Timely items of interest and value... helpful suggestions about cooking, lighting and appliance use.

STRETCHING OIL... By means of a special process, using recently installed equipment, Detroit Edison now expects to salvage every year more than 150,000 gallons of used insulating oil. The oil reclaimed for further use in thousands of transformers and other electrical equipment is, after processing, equal in quality to new oil. Besides the fact that oil vital to the war is thus stretched to go farther, the new process effects an important economy, helping the company keep electric rates down in spite of ever-rising costs.

FULL STEAM AHEAD... Deep under downtown Detroit, live steam rushes through Edison steam mains at 600 miles or more per hour, to heat a hundred million dollars' worth of downtown buildings. Thirty to sixty feet underground, miles of tunnels containing Edison steam mains carry steam to buildings that have no furnaces or boilers, depending entirely on Detroit Edison steam heating service. Over 1,500 customers use more than 2 1/2 billion pounds of steam annually—requiring 192,000 tons of coal. Edison has four large heating plants to provide steam for this tremendous heating job. Saving electricity saves coal, transport and manpower.

LENTEN LUNCHEON

Our Home Service Department suggests this meatless recipe for Lent:

Baked Luncheon Sandwiches

- 1 cup grated carrots
- 1 cup cooked peas
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup medium white sauce
- 1 tsp. grated onion
- Salt and pepper
- 2 cups flour
- 3 tsp. baking powder
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. dry mustard
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 3/4 cup milk

Combine carrots, peas and celery; mix with white sauce. Add onion and season with salt and pepper. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and mustard; cut in shortening. Gradually add milk, mixing to form a soft dough. Roll out dough 1/4-inch thick on lightly floured board; cut in three-inch squares. Spread vegetable mixture between each two squares. Place on baking sheet and bake in hot oven, 425° F., about 20 minutes. Serve hot. (Serves six.)

KITCHEN CRAFT... To minimize chances of soggy pie crust, sprinkle the dough with sugar, or brush with white of egg, before adding the filling.
