Dime Collection Doubles Last Year

Plymouth's second March of Dimes campaign for the National Infantile Paralysis Fund was a huge success, nearly doubling the 1944 collection. Chairman A. L. Lantz announces. A total of $1,785 was collected from all sources, as compared to the $1,084.97 contributed last year. School children gave $139, the theater audiences contributed $15 and personal checks ranging from one dollar to $50 added greatly to the fund. The CIO local in the medium sized plants collected $96.45. The fund is handled for any local cases through the Wayne County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Lantz said that anybody who may need help should contact him and he will expedite immediate action. The one case which occurred in Plymouth last fall received prompt attention as soon as it was brought to Lantz' attention and the boy now is getting regular treatments and showing a good response. In thanking everyone who contributed and assisted in the campaign, Lantz paid special tribute to the work of Mrs. Catherine Henderson and Mrs. O. M. Valliquette as well as the following Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts who assisted in the theater collections: Barbara Weed, Sally Gustafson, Barbara Daniels, Ann Cadot, Betty Dely, Patsy Packard, Elsie Mae Keeping, Barbara Ward, Rita Ottensman, Allyn Williams, Beth Ann Sutherland, Mary Davis, Colleen Bothwell, Kathleen Bloxom, Mary Kathryn Gillis; James Rollin, Philip Hosier, Neal Lanphier, David Reitzel, Raymond Michaels, Richard McKinley, Herbert Swanson, Robert Houghton, Ronald Corey, Hillis Cash, Ronald Hees, Larry Finney, Fletcher Campbell, Robert Kennedy, Don Burkhardt, Norman Treadwell, Henry Levering, Tom Kucie, Ferris Mathias, Frank Hokenson, Tom Hopson, Pat Kearney, Jerry Walsh and Edson Whipple.

Passenger Train Tows Freight

Pere Marquette Passenger Train No. 3 bound from Detroit to Grand Rapids, was delayed about 45 minutes just east of Plymouth Tuesday morning by the derailment of the back truck of the tender on the engine of a freight train. Fast thinking on the part of Conductor Bernie Bacon, of the passenger train, and the fact that it had a big engine, saved No. 3, as well as No. 103, bound for Bay City, from being much later. Bacon ordered his engineer to hook onto the back end of the freight train and pull it back so that a switch engine could get in ahead of the freight and pull it off on a siding. Had this not been done, it would have been necessary for No. 3 to back up seven miles to a crossover to the other track. It was an unusual sight, a passenger train pulling a freight train of nearly 100 cars backward, but it accomplished the feat with ease. Incidentally, in the course of the backward tow, the passenger engine blew a perfect smoke ring—or rather steam ring—which spiraled heavenward, making a pretty sight.

Wins Bronze Star For Combat Work

Master Sergeant Norman E. Zeuner, husband of the former Ruth Perkins, has been decorated with the Bronze Star, his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Perkins, of 260 Union street, have learned.

Mrs. Zeuner, whose husband has been stationed in England for nearly two years, enlisted in the WAC last May and is a private, stationed at Scott Field, Ill.

Zeuner's citation says: "For meritorious achievement in connection with military operations Nov. 30, 1943 to Oct. 7, 1944 against the enemy."

Through Sgt. Zeuner's proficient service, performed under many adverse conditions, his aircraft completed 50 consecutive operational missions against the enemy without having to return because of mechanical difficulty or failure.

"This enlisted man, by unselfishly and wholeheartedly devoting his skill to a vital task, has made a noteworthy contribution to the successful record in combat established by this group.

"The initiative, resourcefulness and devotion to duty displayed by Sgt. Zeuner reflect the highest credit upon himself and the armed forces of the United States."

Zeuner, a native of Walling Lake, lived in Plymouth with his wife before being drafted about three years ago. He worked at the Ford Rouge plant.

He is a brother-in-law of Kenneth Perkins, who was discharged last December from the army after having earned the Purple Heart.

The only woman delegate to the Peace Conference in Paris in 1919 was Lady Suma Shimun. She was sent as a representative of her brother, the patriarch and ruler of the self-governed Assyrians in Mesopotamia, to protest against the wartime persecutions of her people by the Turks who had driven them from their homes in Turkey.

Brown-Out, Helps To Save Coal

Actual results of the brownout by Detroit Edison customers in southeastern Michigan show a coal saving at the rate of 4,000 tons a month during the winter months, according to Angus J. McLay, vice president and sales manager of The Detroit Edison Company. This saving will be progressively reduced as the days lengthen.

Reduced use of electricity from the brownout will lower the company's gross revenue by more than $150,000 a month during the winter months, McLay said. "While the greatest part of this saving is made by the merchants, and at some real sacrifice to their sales, the householder is also contributing by the economical use of lighting."

Figures released were based on a detailed study of the first month's brownout operation. Results of the first ten days' curfew showed no appreciable effect upon the company's commercial load from twelve midnight to 2 a.m.

Movie Depicts Experiences On A Life Raft

"They Live Forever," a color motion picture with sound, dealing with the spiritual aspects of World War II, will be shown at 7:30 Monday night in the Calvary Baptist church, Ann Arbor Trail and Elizabeth street. Pastor, John F. Paten, announces.

The film was produced by Irwin A. Moon, of the Moody Bible Institute, and is being distributed under the institute's auspices in army camps and naval training stations.

Moon photographed the film's superb color sequences while touring Army and Navy camps with his "Sermons from Science."

"They Live Forever" features the life-raft experiences of Lt. James C. Whittaker and Sgt. John Barlek and the testimony of Col. George S. Clarke, one of the last army officers to leave Bataan, as well as a series of training shots taken in both Army and Navy camps.

In the version of the film being shown here a sequence is devoted to some of Mr. Moon's "Sermons from Science" demonstrations, including examples of photomicrography, lapsed-time photographs of growing flowers, and pictures of crystal growth under a polariscope.

There are other scenes of an active volcano erupting, and a delicate operation on a human heart.

Tax Payers Set Collection Record

Final tax collections to March 1 for 1944 for city, county and school levies indicate the best record in Plymouth's history, City Treasurer Charles Garlett announces.

The 1944 city levy has been 99.1 per cent collected and the county and school levy collection are 98.5 per cent complete. A total of $184,694.77 cents was paid by Plymouth residents.

The 1943 collections, best previous record, were 98.7 per cent for the city levy and 98 per cent for the county and school levies. The total collected that year was $169,410.17.

All unpaid tax bills have been returned to the county treasurer. They must be paid at the County Building, in Detroit, with a penalty added.

Broken down, the city levy collection totaled $91,989.09, county, $38,117.16, and school $54,588.52.

Health Officer Asks Clean Up

It's time to clean up your property and keep it clean to prevent the breeding of rats and other disease carrying animals, City Health Director Luther Peck says.

Dr. Peck tells of finding many back yards with refuse matter, garbage and tin cans strewn about. These conditions are ideal for rats.

A city ordinance requires that all garbage and other refuse be kept in covered metal containers so anchored that they cannot be tipped over. Dr. Peck says he is going to enforce the ordinance rigidly.

He also asks that the public refrain from throwing garbage on the highways in sacks. This also attracts vermin.

Lots of Butter But No Buyers

Butter, butter everywhere, but there's no butter to spread on that slice of bread!

And what's the matter? Plymouth merchants report that they have more butter on hand than they have had in a number of years. Their refrigerators are filled with it—and nobody will buy it.

Why? Because it takes RED POINTS—and they just haven't got enough red points to buy butter, even though there is plenty of it on the market.

But its the way of the jumbled mess. Nobody knows whether it is necessary to have it this way or not.

If necessary everybody, except a possible few, says O.K., we'll get along.

But so frequently a situation like this has been found to be another one of those messes created by a lot of Washington rattlers who just do things to make it tough for everybody because they've got the right to do it.

Some merchants say that they fear there might be a spoilage unless some of the butter can be moved soon.

Senior Play Draws Over $400.00

The old saying that crime does not pay was proved last Thursday and Friday evenings at the Senior play "The Last Warning" directed by Winnifred Bixler. The auditorium was filled to capacity and the audience was held in constant suspense trying to figure out the murderer. The ending was indeed a surprise with Elevelenda Hendon as Mrs. McHugh and Mike and Robert the murderers. George Valrance acted the part of the detective very convincingly and Connie Moncrieff and Beverly Broman added humor with their characterization of Miss Hendon. The favorite scene in the play was the one where the policeman ran up and down the aisles as if it were Grand Central station.

Cowboy Style Wedding Is Introduced In Plymouth

"Buff Miller" Weds Oklahoma Girl on Horseback

Plymouth had probably its most unusual wedding last Sunday when Louard (Buff Miller) Lamb was married to Jean Ray, of Marlin, Okla., at the Miller Bros. 101 Ranch, 36600 Ann Arbor Trail.

Here's News of a Wedding in Reno!

Once in a while, some of the Plymouth boys who are serving their country in most heroic ways, find time to do a little courting — and sometimes this courting leads to the altar.

That is just what happened recently to T. Sgt. James Nairn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Nairn of Sheridan avenue who returned to America after doing his part in helping to blow Germany off the map.

News from Reno, the divorce capital of the nation, about a marriage is really news. So that is why "Flying Jim's" wedding is all the more important.

Last year in Australia, an "international" football game was invented, so that the teams of that country could play the U. S. troops stationed there.

This month thousands of Americans will receive millions of Extra dollars

In March, 1935, thousands of Americans invested in the new U. S. "Baby Bonds." These Bonds later became the United States War Bonds you buy today. In March, 1945, this month, these thousands of Americans will receive a total of over $36,000,000... the full maturity value of those Bonds.

Championship Michigan Barber Shop Quartet Meets Tonight

THE GARDENAIRES
ROSEDALE GARDENS CHAPTER
MICHIGAN CHAMPION BARBER SHOP QUARTET for 1945

If you can sing, or like to hear good singers sing, you are invited to be at the Rosedale Gardens Community house this, Friday, evening where the Rosedale Gardens champion Barber Shop Quartet will conduct one of its regular meetings and rehearsals.

Local News

The following article tells something about the Rosedale Gardens quartet that has won fame throughout the state. Five thousand people in an auditorium in Flint—35 quartets from all over Michigan singing their offerings from the huge stage—judges of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Incorporated listening with keen ears for the slightest errors—that was the picture on Saturday night, Feb. 24 during the state-wide competition for the best quartet in Michigan.

Four men, members of the Rosedale Gardens Chapter, stepped out on the stage and sang—and walked off with the first place—top honors of the whole state—the Gardenaires. Earl Rubert, George Gdanic, Lou Burke and Howard Tubbs have been singing together for only a few months, yet their voices blend so well, they are so well matched for close harmony, that they were chosen as the best barbershop quartet in Michigan.

Last year the Harmony Halls of Grand Rapids were in that spot, and last June they were chosen best in the entire nation during the International Convention held in Detroit. History may repeat itself if a convention is held this year, and the Gardenaires may be the leading quartet in the U. S. and Canada. Let us wish them well.

The Rosedale Gardens Chapter was chartered in January, 1944, the 21st Chapter in Michigan. Many of you may have attended the Minstrel show staged by this Chapter in the Plymouth high school auditorium early last year under the auspices of the local Rotary club. Due to certain local difficulties, the membership was, at first, limited; but these difficulties have been cleared up and the chapter is now open to all eligible to join. To be eligible, one must be a male, white, who loves to sing or who loves to hear the old songs rendered in close harmony, and who can get to the meeting place (the Rosedale Gardens Community House) on the third Friday evening of each month.

Mr. Otto Brown is the musical director who will train the membership in group singing of the good old songs arranged in the close harmony of the barbershop style of singing. Meetings will be held throughout the summer, some of them perhaps in the park. There will be a lot of fun in addition to the training.

If you have not heard the Michigan Champion Quartet it will be worth your while to attend one of the meetings as a guest. Then you will certainly set aside that third Friday evening of each month as your night to howl—harmoniously of course. The Gardenaires will be at most of the meetings as well as some visiting quartets. The members of the Chapter can assure you of a full evening of singing in harmony.

Junior Chamber Gets Voters Out

It is planned to have committees busy on election day calling voters attention to the fact that the polls are open for their expression of preference of candidates and others will be available with cars to transport voters from their homes to the voting booths.

War Vets Given Local Advice

A survey of the activities of 50 of Michigan's more than 100 local veterans' counseling centers reveals that 10,332 veterans called upon the centers for assistance in 1944, according to Elmer J. Hanna assistant director of the State Office of Veterans Affairs, who has charge of the organization work. The centers surveyed had been actively in operation for an average period of five months in the larger cities and two months in small communities. The average number of veterans counseled per month per counselor was 273 in Detroit and 33 in other Michigan cities. Arno Thompson, chairman of the Plymouth Area Veterans' Council, which represents the office of Veterans Affairs here, said that more than 60 veterans had received either advice or aid since the local body was organized Nov. 1. Assistance requested fell into 14 major classifications: claims, 1,452; new jobs, 1,351; G.I. loans, 1,103; education and vocational training, 1,061; physical and/or mental General Eisenhower calls it "esprit"!

IT'S A SPIRIT that rises to accept each new challenge with quiet dignity. It's a spirit born of vision. Of a love of freedom so great it transcends human hopes and fears. And makes any sacrifice worth while. It's the spirit that tackles all kinds of Army jobs. Humbly. But with a joyous pride. A spirit that has its eyes on Tomorrow. That has won the eternal respect of the Army of the United States. This is why General Eisenhower has said: "The esprit constantly exhibited by our Wacs is exemplary!"

Defending Our Homeland and Our Liberties.

TROPICAL HEAT OF PACIFIC ISLAND IS PRETTY "TOUGH."

From an island somewhere far out in the Pacific in among the Palau group, came a letter to "Our Boys" page the other day from TS Russell C. Lockwood.

"I didn't know much about the death of my brother in France until The Plymouth Mail arrived. It saddened me very much when I read it," wrote Russell. (His brother Arthur was killed during the invasion of France.)

"I am O. K. and must thank you again for The Plymouth Mail. It really helps a lot down here to get all the news from the home town.

"I can't tell you where I am, but I am located in the Palau group. This tropical heat is pretty tough to endure. I have been here since I left Hawaii a few months ago. We have built up this place a lot since we have been here.

"When we first arrived everything had been wrecked by shell fire. We have a pretty vital job, but that's all I can say about it.

"There is a movie show every night, but even that doesn't help much to keep down the lonesomeness of this place. Keep sending me the paper, as that helps the most of anything."

JOHN SIPES BACK WITH SHIP WHICH HELPED IN INVASIONS.

Pharmacist's Mate 1c John F. Sipes, of 11037 Cranston road, a member of the crew of a large infantry landing craft the "234" which served for 22 months abroad, and took part in four major amphibious operations, has returned with his ship to the Atlantic seacoast.

This craft took part in the invasions at Gela, Sicily, Salerno, Anzio and southern France. It has been returned for overhauling.

Upon arrival at the Lawley shipyard in the Neponset section of Boston, she tied up at the same pier she left in 1943 to assault the "Fortress Europe."

Although the 234 was in the initial assault waves of all four operations, she suffered neither damage to herself nor casualty to her complement. Some casualties were suffered, however, by army personnel carried.

Veterans in her crew regard the Sicilian assault the roughest of the 234's career.

Salerno also was tough, and for 12 days, the 234 ferried casualties from the beaches to hospital ships while subjected to shelling and air raids. The crew was overworked, sleep was almost unknown, but spirit and courage remained at a high level.

The 234's part in the battle for Anzio continued five months, during which she helped supply the beachhead with men, food, mail, ammunition and nurses.

In the southern France operation, the 234 performed salvage duties off the beachhead. Later she evacuated prisoners from the famed Chateau d'I and the Isle d'Antenne, being the first allied vessel to tie up at the latter. Finally, the crew had a welcome respite from arduous duties while stationed at Marseille more than a month feeding crews of small boats.

DONALD SCHRODER NOW IN PHILIPPINES "BUD" ON WAY OVER.

Donald Schroder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Schroder of 645 Forest street, is with the American forces that have recently invaded some of the Philippine islands.

In letters to his parents, he says "The Philippine people are very good to us. They watch us all the time and when we open a package of cigarettes, they want one too.

"Some of the women do our washing for us. They have given us some bantam chickens—and how they do fight. That's a great sport out here.

"Say thanks to The Plymouth Mail. While we miss it once in a while, it does find its way to us wherever we go sooner or later. And tell the folks back home that we get bacon and eggs for breakfast. Tell all of my friends out in the Kelsey-Hayes plant hello and for them to keep up their good work so we can all come home before next Christmas."

His brother Leon is now stationed at the Great Lakes where he is in training for duty in the navy. He expects, however, to be transferred to the Seabees as he has been taking a special course which will prepare him for Seabee services.

Another son of the Schroders, known to his many friends as "Bud" recently went overseas with the Army Air corps to New Guinea. He is hoping to meet his brother Donald later on somewhere up in the Philippines.

WINS PROMOTION TO CORPORAL.

John O. Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Schwartz of 8207 Lilley road, Plymouth, has been promoted to the rank of corporal, according to announcement made by Col. Tracy K. Doyset, commanding officer of the Troop Carrier base at George Field, Illinois.

Cpl. Schwartz is now in training to become a crew chief on a C-47 transport ship.

EUGENE COCHRANE RETURNS FROM LONG SERVICES IN PACIFIC.

Eugene B. Cochrane, Aviation Ordnanceman Third Class, U.S. N.R., of 32218 West Chicago Boulevard, Rosedale Gardens, has returned from a tour of combat duty in the Pacific, where he served as a gunner in a navy plane based on an escort carrier in the Pacific.

Attached to Composite Squadron 78, he flew in an Avenger torpedo plane, which can attack with bombs, rockets, or 50-caliber machine-gun fire, as well as with torpedoes.

Composite 78 distinguished itself by never having lost a plane to Jap air, surface or submarine attacks while protecting huge convoys steaming to and from three major invasions.

The squadron, while not losing a single pilot or aircrewman in 8 months of combat action, death out a formidable amount of damage to the enemy.

Pilots and aircrewmen of the squadron's Wildcat fighters and Avenger torpedo planes flew ground support operations for the troops invading the Palau islands. In the important operation they bombed and shot up Jap trenches, supply dumps, barges, trucks, tanks, and enemy airfields. Again during the Leyte engagement and the Luzon invasion they provided great help by protecting all-important convoys.

THIS PLYMOUTH LAD LIKES THE CALIFORNIA CLIMATE.

From Marvin Meppans out in California, comes the following interesting letter:

"I wish to thank you for the wonderful job you have undertaken in preparing and sending The Plymouth Mail to the men and women in service who once resided in or around Plymouth. Never before did I realize just how much a home town paper like The Mail would mean to me until I was stationed here in California. The Mail has been coming regularly on every Tuesday of each week.

"My main duties here are to attend classes which will train me in hospital responsibilities. The course will last until April 5, at which time I will be sent to some hospital for three weeks of actual experience in applying what we have been taught here.

"The California climate is the best I have been in since entering the service. I would recommend it for any one.

"Say hello to everybody for me and tell them it won't be long now before we will all be back home to stay.

"Thank you again for sending The Plymouth Mail. It is a wonderful feeling of pleasure to receive it every Tuesday."

ELSMER KREEGER WINS FOURTH OAK LEAF CLUSTER.

First Lt. Elmer W. Kreeger of Plymouth has been decorated with a fourth Oak Leaf Cluster to his Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" on more than a score of combat missions over Europe with the 35th bombardment group. He is with an Eighth Air force bomber squadron in England.

A B-17 Flying Fortress bombardier, he is a veteran of bomber assaults on Berlin, Ludwigshafen, Merseburg, Kassel, Soest, Frankfurt, Rheine, Nurnburg, Politz, Stargard, Hamburg, Bohlen, Krefeld, Bitburg, Sterkrade, Aschhofenburg and other vital enemy installations.

The citation accompanying his award read in part: "The courage, coolness and skill displayed by this officer upon these occasions reflect great credit upon himself and the Armed forces of the United States."

Lt. Kreeger, 23 years old, a graduate of Plymouth high school in 1939, was a student at Michigan State Normal college before entering the army January 5, 1943. His wife, Mrs. Juanita M. Kreeger, lives at 1380 Sheridan ave. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Kreeger, 11845 Brownell street.

News of Our Boys

From Private Lucille E. Truax, a Plymouth girl who joined the Wacs to help her country in its fight for freedom, tells of the great work being done at the McCloskey General Hospital at Temple, Texas.

Her interesting letter follows: "I wrote this to show what I think of the army and of the work we are doing.

"I thought the people at home would want to know about the job that the Wacs are doing here at McCloskey General hospital. "Some are in the ward's and others are doing other jobs and making good at them too. The families back home who have daughters in the service ought to be very proud of them.

"The army is a strange new world when you first enter it but after you are in a while you would not have any other life if some one handed you a million dollars in a silver platter. At least I wouldn't. Some of them would though.

"You think before you even get started in your basic training that you will never be able to take it out you do. When you think of what it means to do a job to help get the war over with then you are very happy and nothing else matters.

"When you get on your first assignment you are thrilled to death that you can do something to help the boys who have been wounded. Some of them are pretty lonesome. "I only wish that there were more girls back home who felt the way I do about helping these fellows here.

"I never did any of this work before in my life. I was trained on the job. The other girls got their T5 stripes when they deserve very much. I do not have mine yet, but I will probably have them soon. The wind is blowing hard here today, but it is nice otherwise" she concluded.

★ ★ ★ PLYMOUTH GIRL HELPS IN INVASION OF GERMAN HOMELAND.

As the Nazis are driven back further, into Germany, the need for vital war materials grows. This Air Transport command base of the European Division under the command of Brigadier General Earl S. Hoag which supplies these materials by air, has had to increase its tempo proportionally. At this base, you see American soldiers and Seabees, American and English civilians and WACS all working together at this increased speed to meet the essential demand.

WACS are seen driving trucks along icy roads, working on airplanes "on the line" in the cold damp weather. Whether it is in trucks, on the line or in office jobs, the WACS are doing their part in this necessary enlargement and "step up."

Pfc. Alma Forster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Forster, 915 1/2 Ann Arbor road, Plymouth, is assigned to this station as a telephone operator for the Signal section. She has been in the WACS since May 14, 1944, and has been stationed in the European Division, USAAF Air Transport command for the past three months.

Private Ivan Campbell, in a brief note from Kingman, Arizona, says: "Well sir I believe it's about time I wrote and let you know where I am training now. I transferred from the Sioux Falls, South Dakota radio school and went to Las Vegas, Nevada. Flexible gunnery school, the field was pretty well filled so I was again moved to Kingman, Arizona. Flexible gunnery school where I am now putting in my training. As yet I haven't started school but I work on the line repairing the planes used in training. Las Vegas was quite a town, mostly all gambling and big time clubs. I also saw the Boulder Dam, truly a beautiful sight to see for a boy from Michigan. I have also flown over the Grand Canyon from this base, we are only about 45 miles from the canyon.

Michigan Maple Syrup In Demand

As Michigan sugar bush operators prepare for the spring run of sap, they can be assured there will be an unlimited demand for their product this season, says P. W. Robbins, of the forestry department of Michigan State college. He observes that since maple syrup and sugar are not on the ration list they will be welcomed by housewives who have difficulty stretching their sugar allowances.

A limited supply of sap buckets, spiles, covers, filters and other equipment may be released, so Mr. Robbins suggests that operators check over their equipment and place orders immediately. Although gallon tin containers for the finished syrup will be available, he believes it will pay to fill many quart bottles as possible. Sirup in glass if carefully filtered and attractively labeled, sells itself, in his opinion.

Labor to process the sugar oush will be difficult to find this year, so it is suggested that roads and paths through the maple groves be cleared so that all trees can be reached with a minimum of walking between collecting sled and tapped trees. If the collecting sled isn't arranged to drain by gravity into the storage tank, now is the time to build a ramp. This will save untold labor in emptying. Also, the storage tank should feed the evaporator automatically.

War Hits Janitors' Jobs

The janitor's lot is a hard one, especially in wartime. Because of shortages of materials and scarcity of labor—it is impossible to get young men for the job.

There are four men working under Mr. Stewart here and two other janitors at the Starkweather school. One of the men does nothing but general repair work; for example, every week on the average of six seats have to be re-waxed in one room alone. The gym doors, too, are particularly troublesome.

Substitutes for a critical material are another headache. The soap obtainable now is of poor quality and irritates the hands. In some cases, however, as with the new cellulose sponges, the substitutes are better than the originals.

P. H. S. has had better luck in obtaining coal, although a month ago it had to be hauled from the city every day when the regular shipment was delayed. Incidentally the school uses eight tons of coal in an average winter day.

The janitors also have to cope with overcrowded halls and children arriving early for school. One boy of 11 was found waiting at 5:40 in the morning. When asked what he was doing he said "I'm waiting to play basketball."

Here and There

The Hesco after giving a Silver Tea for faculty members and mothers enjoyed a pot luck dinner followed by a local theater party.

Eunice Meininger and her sister, Barbara entertained Bernard Birt, Jack Huebler, Kay Runkel, and John and Fred Hopkins at their home last Friday. After dinner the guests went bowling.

George Waters was so nervous the day of the Senior play cuts, that he was running around looking for his coat and came to find out he had it on. Oh George!

Mary Livingstone, Beverly Giles, Johnny Kubichan, and Dick Brady went to a formal dance at Cranbrook School in Bloomfield Hills, March 2. Both boys attend the school. Before the dance they went to a cocktail party.

Because of the OPA ruling of no conventions, the meeting of the School-Masters club, which was to be on April 20 at Ann Arbor, has been called off.

Jackie Dalton, Ralph Bachelder, George Valance, Natalie Reitzel, Emmy Lou Hough, Ed Strong, Marion Kirkpatrick, and Jim Thornton heard the Don Cossack Chorus Friday, March 2.

Caryl Cushman, Mary Jane Christenson, Marilyn Vershure, and Dick Groth saw "Winged Victory" and then had dinner at the "Stockholm," Saturday, March 10.

Herbert Swanson and Ted Thrasher went to the basketball game Tuesday evening, March 6, at the Olympia. The two were quite excited because they sat in the box with the Mayor of Detroit.

Connie Moneriff held a party at her home in Rosedale Gardens, Friday, March 9 for the Senior Play cast after their closing performance. Her guests were Joan Gilles, Mitzi Jacobson, Peggy Hart, Jean Ann Livernois, Beverly Broman, Lorraine Nichol, Audrey Neale, George Valance, Stanley Burdon, Jack Huebler, George Waters, Jim Wilsie, Bill Horie, Ed Strong, George Simmons, and Bob Dicks.

June Bassett was hostess Saturday evening for Chuck Rowe who enlisted in the Navy and will leave next week. Those present were Lois Vetal, Wanda Hunt, Vivian Anderson, Nancy Gerst, Lois Mills, Rudge Stitt, Mary Rewe, Marge Bassett, Donald Vetal, Gordon Vetal, Bob Trombley, William Schwartz, Bob Bartel, and Vincent Simonetti. Dancing was followed by refreshments.

March 17, Saint Patrick's Day

All over the world, where ever the Irish have penetrated, March 17, is celebrated as Saint Patrick's feast day. He is the patron saint of Ireland and was a missionary here for many years during fifth century. His work was so successful he founded over 300 churches. Many strange legends grew up about this man. One well known legend is that Saint Patrick drove all of the snakes out of Ireland by his beautiful music. Most of the things told about him are legendary. The wearing of the green on this day is in honor of Saint Patrick and also in honor of Ireland's flower, the shamrock.

The committee chairmen are for decorations, Jo Ann Delahunte; publicity, Marilyn Vershure; tickets, Mary Schuster; chaparrones, Peggy Hart; and refreshments, Carol Hubbell.

Don't forget to wear a green outfit in honor of Saint Patrick.

Leaders' Club Plans Summer Sports

Leaders' club is studying basketball and pingpong rules in order to be able to officiate at games. They plan to have one outside activity every week such as biking, hiking, and picnics when the weather is nice. Some activities will be open for all the girls in high school and some closed. The first one was a supper hike last Monday. These outside activities will end in June with the annual Leaders' club picnic. This group is also planning for a play day for all the girls in school.

The basketball tournament is now tied between Mary Jane Christensen's and Betty Baker's teams. Basketball will be continued until spring vacation and afterwards if the weather is bad.

All girls interested in tennis or golf should see Miss Olmsted immediately. Also see her if you wish to order tennis balls.

Girls who are working for their jetties should check their points with Eleanor Hart, Mary Jane Christensen, Margaret Jackson, or Jeanne Schuler.

500 Expected Here At Institute

"How to Stay Alive While You're Living" is the subject of the address to be given by Bonaro Overstreet, poet, psychologist, and author of New York City, March 23, at the Out-county Teachers' Institute at Plymouth High School.

The day's program will begin by registration followed by music by the a-cappella choir of Melvindale which consists of 194 girls directed by Charles Sweet, music teacher. Brief remarks will be given by Alfred Amundsen, Michigan Education Association field representative for southeastern Michigan. After Bonaro Overstreet's address the morning will be concluded by a business meeting.

Luncheon will be served by the Methodist and Presbyterian churches for those who made reservations in advance. The Northville High School dance band will provide instrumental music after luncheon. Following this Dr. John C. Sullivan from the college of Education, of Wayne University, will speak on Discipline and Children. A Latin-American demonstration and exhibit will be given by Laura Osborne and 17 members from Detroit.

Miss Irene Waldorf, general chairman, has as her local committee chairmen: Miss Roselle Whisley, reception; Mrs. Evelyn Gorton, posters; I. W. Goodwin, parking facilities; Miss Florence Gravelle, stage arrangement; Mrs. Elaine Moran, luncheon; Mr. Luchman, music.

About 500 teachers are expected from the Northern Sub-district from the Wayne county District of the M.E.A. Schools in the district are Wayne, Plymouth, Northville, Redford Union, Livonia Consolidated, Hamtramck, and Garden City and surrounding rural districts.

Class News

Students of the second year Spanish class, with their marks averaging 80 per cent or above, are doing special projects in Spanish such as reading Spanish novels, magazines and papers and also writing popular songs in Spanish for the Spanish Operetta. So far three students are working on these: George Waters, Ray Runkel, and Connie Moneriff.

Mrs. Alba Anderson, a representative of the Home Making Division of Vocational Education at Lansing, came Thursday to visit the local Home Economics department. The girls in Home Making III told her about their community and school projects. She was very pleased and thought they had a nice variety of subjects. In Home Making III this is the last week to finish the garment problems the girls have been working on for four weeks. Some of the garments are suits, blouses, skirts, jackets, and dresses largely of rayon materials.

The typing classes are now being taught by Mr. Griffith as Miss Olsen will be in the hospital for about a month for a necessary operation.

The French club at the last meeting attempted to learn how to jitterbug.

The speech contest held in Miss Whisley's 10th grade English class last week was won by Beverly Hauck and Frank Santo. Good book reports were handed in Monday. One class had them in booklet form. Original programs are being held in 10B and 10A classes.

Voters to Decide on Raise for Municipal Judge

Voters of Plymouth will go to the polls two weeks from Monday, on April 2, to decide on whether to give the municipal judge a raise and to elect four city commissioners, as well as go through the formality of okaying new terms for the judge and constable.

The question of the raise for the judge comes in the form of a charter amendment which must receive a 60 per cent majority to pass. The amendment would raise the present statutory limit on the judge's salary from $1,500 to $3,000 and would set the pay for the next term at $2,000 per year.

The judge at present gets $1,000. However, if the amendment should not pass, he still will be assured of a raise, since the commission already has passed an ordinance raising the salary for the next term to the maximum now allowed under the charter—$1,500.

Of course, that ordinance would be superseded if the amendment passes. Judge J. Rusting Cutler is as good as re-elected to another four year term since he was the only one to file for the position.

Constable Lee Roy H. Reimann likewise is assured of another term — for two years — for the same reason.

Six candidates are seeking the three full-term commission seats. They are: Robert Lidgard, Harry L. Hunter, William C. Hartmann and incumbents Carl C. Shear, Carlton R. Lewis and Mayor Stanley T. Corbett.

Jack E. Taylor and Robert O. Chappell will vie for the remaining year of the term of the late Henry Hondorp, who died unexpectedly last month.

Doris Dubee Joins the Waves

The many young Plymouth friends of Doris Dubee daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Dubee former residents of this city, will be interested to know that she has recently joined up with the Waves in Uncle Sam's navy and is now completing her boot training at Hunter College near New York. She expects to leave there this month and is hoping to be assigned to a hospital corps.

Doris is a graduate of the Plymouth high school with the class of 1940. After finishing school here she entered Monticello college and the Lansing Secretarial college. She is a member of Beta Sigma Phi.

The Dubees are now residing in East Lansing. They removed from Plymouth to that place after Mr. Dubee was transferred from the Plymouth state highway office to the state highway department's headquarters in Lansing.

Farmer Elected Power Director

Lee D. Ferden, widely known Saginaw County farmer, has been elected a director of Consumers Power Company, which supplies electric service to 79,000 farms in 57 Michigan counties.

Born in Iowa 40 years ago, Mr. Ferden came to Michigan to engage in farming after graduation from a business college in Illinois. He operates a 200-acre farm near Chesaning, 40 acres of which are used for experimental purposes in co-operation with the Michigan Crop Improvement Association and Michigan State College. He developed Ferden's yellow dent seed corn, and he grows this product and also certified seed wheat, oats and beans. He has won many awards at state, national and international grain shows.

He is a member of the Saginaw County Farm Bureau and the Michigan Crop Improvement Association, and a vice president of the Saginaw County Fair Association.

Sign of Spring—Baseball Practice

The call has gone out for first baseball practice so Spring can't be far behind.

Coach John Tomshack, of Plymouth High School, has issued a call for the first baseball practice to be held Monday in the school gymnasium after school. Of course if the weather is warm enough he may take the boys outside.

He's hoping for a continuance of the good fortune he experienced in basketball that his nine will improve greatly on last year's team's record of winning only two of 12 games.

In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of baseball.

Plymouth Orators License Sales Enter Ypsi Meet Show Increase

Plymouth High School, which for years had one of the best records in the state in speaking competition will return to that field of endeavor this year. Speech Instructor James Latture announces. The school, which dropped out of interscholastic speech competition three years ago as a war measure, will bid to resume its top ranking when it competes in the Suburban Six "B" League meet in Ypsilanti Central High School April 12.

At present aspirants seeking to represent the school in the meet are engaged in an intraschool competition to determine who will get the honor.

The meet, which will also serve as the state district qualifier, will include competition in oratory, declamation, dramatics, reading, and extemporaneous speaking. Winners at Ypsilanti will go to the regionals.

Latture said the school also will enter debating competition next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Russell were hosts Saturday evening to the following friends for cards and midnight lunch, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. White, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Eurch, Mrs. T. H. VanKeuren and Mrs. H. A. Franklin of Detroit.

A total of 6,025 license plates, half year and full year, was sold by the Plymouth branch of the Secretary of State's office; Manager Frank Rambo announces. This was 238 more than were sold last year to the same date. Rambo said. However, it still was considerably under the total sold two years ago, as could be expected.

Despite the increase in total sales the halfyear plates fell off 164, to 803. Of these, 655 were passenger car plates, 101 commercial, 29 farm and 18 trailer.

Of the 5,222 full year plates, 4,575 were for passenger cars, 245 commercial, 174 farm and 223 trailer.

Rambo said the auto owners evidently headed the injunction to buy their plates early as the local office never experienced a real rush, although business picked up the last few days before the deadline.

Only a few stragglers still remain without plates, he said.

Granted Leave, Then Hurts Hand

Theron Tallmadge, one of the lads in Uncle Sam's fighting navy, was loading a shell into one of the guns on the big boat which he has been serving during the past year.

He didn't happen to see a sharp piece of steel that had been left in the packing case containing the shell.

As he reached for the shell to help lift it into place, the steel cut a big gash right through the middle of the palm of his right hand.

But doctors on his craft sewed it up and the next day he was on the way back to America, just as though nothing had ever happened. But his hand is still in a bandage.

Theron, a former employe of the Kelsey-Hayes plant, resides at 144 Ann street. Its needless to say that he is glad to be home with his family and friends.

He expects to return to the Pacific coast for his new assignment after the expiration of his leave, but he does not know where he will be sent this time or to what boat he will be attached.

Soon to Open Plymouth Club

Mel G. Partridge of Tecumseh, a former resident of this city, and president of the Plymouth Country Club, in a note to The Plymouth Mail, states that just as soon as weather permits, the Plymouth Country Club will be opened for the 1945 season.

The club was taken over by Casey Partridge, son of the Melvin Partridges, a few years ago, but since he went into the armed forces, the father has been looking after the affairs of the club.

"Casey is still in Italy with a group of aviation engineers but it is my intention to keep the golf course in shape and going, awaiting his return," wrote the father.

Sam Virgo Home on Brief Leave

Sam Virgo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Virgo, well known residents of this city, who has been jumping from wave to wave in a P-T one of Uncle Sam's smallest but fastest fighting crafts, is back in Plymouth on a brief leave after having served for two years in the South Pacific.

Sam finds it quite a change from the blistering sun of the south Pacific to the chilly breezes of Michigan March weather, but he declares he can stand any kind of a change in order to be home.

He is enthusiastic over the type of naval service to which he has been assigned, even though the little P-Ts bob around on the big waves like corks on fishing lines.

These little crafts have tremendous speed and during the past two years they have raised havoc with the Japanese fleet.

He expects to return to the Pacific after the expiration of his leave of absence. Sam is a Plymouth high school boy, where he was active in athletics.

His brother, Richard, now at the Great Lakes Naval Training station, near Chicago, came home Sunday for a brief leave to enjoy a visit with his brother.

Good soldier

The proudest title in the Army

IT CONSISTS of two simple words. Yet every soldier who's worth his salt covets it. This title is simply: "Good soldier."

It isn't just happenstance that so many women in the WAC have earned this title—the proudest in the Army.

For wherever Wacs are working, both here and overseas, there you find a job well done. And done with a spirit so gallant and fine that high Army officers everywhere say of the WAC...

"They're soldiers, Good soldiers!"

FOR 70 HOURS naval guns and bombing planes had been blasting the Jap positions in the Marshall Islands. Then the Marines, waiting tensely in landing craft offshore got the long-awaited order to rush the beaches. Among those who leaped ashore on Kwajalein atoll was First Class Private Phillip Givan, a 19-year-old farm lad from Indiana, known to his comrades as "Zek."

Babson Says - -

Babson Park, Mass., March 16.—It may cost you 20 percent more to live after the war than it did before Hitler blew the lid off in 1939. In other words, your 1939 dollar may then probably be only 80 cents. Since your pay envelope will probably be thinner than it is now, this is something to worry about!

Learning to Economize As a matter of fact, living costs are at present averaging close to those of 1925-1926, and are not 2 percent or 3 percent above 1929. This is high enough to give you consumers plenty of headaches.

Gauging the Future. Here is my forecast of the pattern of living costs over the years ahead: There is not likely to be any great change until the European conflict is ended. Not long after that happy event, the outlook is for some deflationary pressure on the cost-of-living. Unemployment and the shifting of full war focus to the Pacific area is bound temporarily to curtail public demand for goods.

Besemer Says Do Pruning Now

(By E. I. Besemer) Now is the time to get the pruning job done on fruit trees and grapes. The annual pruning of a bearing grape vine when trained to a two-wire trellis is as follows: 1. Select 4 straight unbranched one-year-old canes about 1/4 inch in diameter. These should originate near the main trunk of the vine and should be trained one each way on each wire.

dormant spray. This should be done while the buds are strictly dormant. Apples, pears and quinces: Oil emulsions use 3 cupfuls for 5 gallons. The oil spray should be put on when the weather is not freezing and the spray will dry before the temperature drops below 40 degrees F.

A Michigan State College developed bean, the Michelite, during the eight years since its birth has become so popular in the state that from 80 to 85 percent of the navy bean acreage is now planted to this variety, according to information from County Agricultural agent, E. I. Besemer. Developed by the farm crops department in 1937, it is productive, highly resistant to blight and mosaic, and has a chalk white seed coat and low screen loss.

After dinner Mr. and Mrs. Hillman entertained their guests by taking them to see Marguerite Clark at the Penniman Allen theatre. On Thursday evening, March 4, a very fine banquet was given by the men of the Presbyterian church to the ladies of the church and to which those who are in any way especially interested in the church were cordially invited. Owing to the inclemency of the weather many were detained from going, but a large company however, was gathered about the tables which were prettily decorated with fern leaves and various colored carnations. A most delicious menu was served in good form by the men, who acted as waiters. C. H. Bennett had charge of the dining room, and the success of the banquet was due in a large measure to his thoughtfulness in arranging all the details that help to make such an occasion delightful. William Kaiser had charge of the kitchen, and was assisted by an efficient corps of workers. During the evening, the high school orchestra rendered several selections that were greatly appreciated and added much to the pleasure of the evening. After the banquet the program of the evening was given, with F. D. Schrader acting as toastmaster. Mr. Schrader introduced each speaker in a most happy and pleasing manner, and he is entitled to much credit for the splendid success of the evening's program. The program was given as follows: Solo—Miss Evangeline Foster; Address—Prof. John Doe (H. J. Green); Address—W. R. Shaw; Trio—Mrs. Wm. Bake, Mrs. Maxwell Moon, Mrs. John Olsaver; Duet—Miss Ada Leach, Miss Hope Conkey; Address—Supt. Geo. A. Smith.
