Wacs flesh landing instructions to Army Air Force Pilots

General Eisenhower calls it "esprit"!

IT'S A SPIRIT that rises to accept each new challenge with quiet dignity.

It's a spirit born of vision. Of a love of freedom so great it transcends human hopes and fears. And makes any sacrifice worth while.

It's the spirit that tackles all kinds of Army jobs. Humbly. But with a joyous pride.

A spirit that has its eyes on Tomorrow. That has won the eternal respect of the Army of the United States.

This is why General Eisenhower has said: "The esprit constantly exhibited by our Wacs is exemplary!"

PRINTED ACETATE TRICO JERSEY
Brilliant zig-zag print that will make you the most vivid personality in any gathering. Beautifully styled with soft-folds at the V-neckline ending in a draped-bow with narrow loose ends. Offering a note of color-harmony are transparent buttons. From the waist, stitching releases into gown. A self-belt is joined at the center of the waist by a white leatherette self-buckled tab. Marvelous for the cocktail hour as well as for town-clothing. Size 10 to 20 in Green, Lavender, Red and Blue.

EASTER HATS are so pretty!

An extravaganza of lovelies... buoyant in spirit... appealingly styled. Your new Easter Bonnet has all the endearing charm of an old world print... all the light-hearted gaiety of spring at its merriest. High crowned cloches, wide brim "coolie" hats, smart adaptations of the sailor—festooned with flowers, softened with veiling, enchantingly yours...

News of Our Boys

News of Our Boys

In Uncle Sam's Fighting Forces Defending Our Homeland and Our Liberties.

FREEZE ALL NIGHT, SWEAT DURING THE DAY OUT IN CALIFORNIA.
Jack Henry, a Plymouth lad, who recently arrived at LeMoore Field in California, writes: "Here I am in sunny California, where you freeze and sweat all day. I arrived here two weeks ago after spending 12 happy days in good old Michigan with its cold and snow. It sure is a different world out here compared to the southernmost part of Texas where I graduated from gunnery school."

"My training has been very interesting and at times very exacting. We were each assigned a turret to specialize in and during our training, I'm here at LeMoore Field awaiting reassignment to a plane and crew."
"My Plymouth Mail has started coming again. It seems to catch up with me wherever I go. Sometimes they come in a pile, but you don't know how much they are enjoyed even if they do all come at once. I especially enjoy reading about the boys. It keeps me posted as to where they are and what they are doing. Thanks a million and keep up the good work. Best regards to everybody."

HE IS NOW PRIVATE FIRST CLASS.
Leslie O. Gocha of Plymouth Road, Plymouth, was promoted to the grade of private first class at the leading West Texas combat crew training station for fighter pilots, located at Abilene, Texas. It was announced by Col. Harry Weddington, commandant. Pfc. Gocha is the son of Mrs. Katherine L. G. Hermann and is assigned to duty here as an airplane mechanic specialist.

FLORA CURTIS HAS BEEN SENT TO ARMY CAMP IN KENTUCKY.

Flora Adele Curtis, E. Ann Arbor Trail, a member of the Women's Army Corps, recently left first WAC training center at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, for duty with the Army at Camp Breckenridge, Kentucky. Since Jan. 1 the WAC recruiting program has emphasized the enlistment of women possessing specialized skills; including clerical workers, typists, stenographers, tabulating machine operators, radio operators, control tower operators, parachute riggers and cryptographers. Because of high casualty lists and the return of thousands of sick and wounded soldiers to the United States every month, there is also an urgent continuing need for several thousand medical and surgical technicians in army hospitals. WACs are following our armies in vital office and communications jobs in all major theatres overseas.

HOME TOWN PAPER GREAT HELM WHEN FELLOW IS IN A HOSPITAL.

George Eads, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis down in Norman, Oklahoma, where he is now located, says there is nothing like reading the home town paper, especially when you are tied down in a hospital. "You don't know how it really helps. I like to read 'Our Boys' page. Be sure and check my new address as I do not want to miss a single copy" he wrote.

PHILIP McNULTY COMPLETES COURSE.
Philip B. McNulty, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. McNulty, of 11 Plymouth, was graduated recently from the Naval Air Technical training center located at Norman, Oklahoma. While at the Norman school he studied the aviation specialty field for which his recruit training aptitude tests showed he was best suited, and is now eligible to earn a petty officer rate. The newly graduated man is now awaiting further duty orders either to sea or to a naval base.

QUALIFIES AS CARBINE RIFLEMAN.

Pfc. Charles S. Lawry, son of Stuart Lawry of Ann Arbor Trail, has qualified as rifleman with a carbine at Hamilton Field, Calif., one of the Fourth Air Force's air bases. It was announced recently. Lawry has been stationed at Hamilton Field for one year.

GREETINGS FROM PERSIA AND THE LAND OF THE ARABS.

Plymouth boys are certainly getting a world-wide education as the result of the war. It's been sometime since any word has been received from Pfc. James Stevens, but would you believe it—the other day a letter to "Our Boys" page came from far away Khorramshahr in Iran, the land of the Arabs.

His letter in part follows: "Greetings from Persia, the land of rugs, Arabs, Persians and what-have-you. I am writing you in order to give you my new forwarding address, please send me my Plymouth Mail at the above address. I'll sure be glad to see some Plymouth news again. There isn't much I can tell you of my work, I am working in an office and in a swell outfit with a fine gang of fellows, most of them from Chicago, however the fellow who is working with me is from Michigan and has been here quite some time."

"Persia is nothing but sand and Arabs of all kinds, Persians are a different type and their customs are different, however what people I've seen outside of camp are Arabs more than Persians."

BROTHERS ARE NOW IN SAME OUTFIT.

It takes a world war to bring about odd things. Letters have been received by members of the Gates family telling of the fact that the two Gates boys, who are both in the paratrooper outfit of the army, recently met in France and have been assigned to the same company.

Corporal Joseph Gates, writing to his parents said he got a real surprise on March 4th when he discovered that his brother Pfc. Alfred Gates, was also in France and had been made a member of the same company to which he belongs. The boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gates of 174 Harndenburg. Mrs. Helen Gates is the wife of Pfc. Alfred Gates, who went overseas in January. Joe has been overseas for over a year and a half.

STANLEY BLUNDELL HAS SERVED THREE YEARS OVERSEAS.

Sergeant Stanley G. Blundell, Jr., son of Mrs. W. C. Simpson, Houghton Lake, has recently completed three years service overseas. He is serving as a supply sergeant in an anti-aircraft artillery battalion with XI corps on Bataan Peninsula in the Philippine Islands.

Sgt. Blundell was among the first army troops to arrive in the southwest Pacific area after he left the United States February 18, 1942 as a member of an anti-aircraft regiment. Since that time he has served in Australia, New Guinea, Netherlands East Indies and the Philippines, without furlough or rotation to the United States.

Sgt. Blundell has been awarded the American defense ribbon, the Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon, with 2 bronze service stars for participation in the Papuan campaign and the New Guinea campaign, and the Philippine liberation ribbon with 2 bronze service stars for the Philippine campaign. Prior to his entry into the army Sgt. Blundell was employed as a Dry Cleaning salesman by Forest Cleaners and Dyers, E. Forest Ave., Detroit. He entered the service of the army on June 2, 1941 at Detroit and received his basic training at Camp Grant, Illinois. Sgt. Blundell states he is looking forward to returning to the United States soon.

HE IS NOW INSTRUCTOR IN AERIAL GUNNERY SCHOOL.

S/Sgt. Franklin Coward, former teller of the First National bank who went overseas last spring and returned in November after completing his number of missions over Germany, was recently graduated from the Army Air Forces Central Instructors school at Laredo, Texas. While overseas he served as a gunner on a bomber and received the air medal with clusters. He is now in Sioux City, Iowa, where he has become a gunnery instructor. Mrs. Coward is with her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coward, former residents of this city, are now residents of Lapeer. He is serving as cashier of one of the banks of that city. In Plymouth he was cashier of the Plymouth United Savings bank, leaving here to accept the Lapeer position.

SGT. GILBERT WILLIAMS NOW WITH AIR FERRYING DIVISION.

Sgt. Gilbert Williams is now located near Wilmington, Delaware, with one of Uncle Sam's air transport ferrying commands. "This is a nice base here and Delaware seems like a pretty good state, but none of the states I have seen so far compare to good old Michigan" writes Gilbert. "And there is no town quite like Plymouth."

ROBERT HUDSON WINS CITATION, THE BRONZE STAR MEDAL.

Robert Hudson, graduate of the Plymouth high school, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson of 188 North Main street and husband of the former June Bakewell, has just won a citation and awarded the bronze star medal for outstanding services overseas.

The complete citation reads: "Robert W. Hudson, 36 1/2 416, Technician Third Grade (then Technician Fourth Grade) Signal Corps, headquarters and headquarters company, 1st Signal Battalion, for meritorious service from 7 August 1944 to 14 September 1944, in Southern France. Sergeant Hudson, as repairman, was responsible for the installation and continuous supervision of the vitally important cryptographic machines aboard the headquarters ship of the amphibious operations and in the subsequent operations following the assault. Through his brilliant technical ability and devotion to duty a record in-handled by the operating personnel was made possible, thereby contributing to and greatly facilitating the transmission of vital tactical messages from army headquarters to the combat units."

Robert entered the army on August 29, 1941, and went overseas in November, 1942. His wife is residing at the home of his parents until he returns from overseas.

who recently visited his home in Plymouth, is now being processed through the army ground and service forces redistribution station in Miami Beach, where his next assignment will be determined. Cpl. Thrall served 35 months as a company clerk in the Southwest Pacific theater of operations. While there he was awarded the American defense campaign ribbon, the Asiatic-Pacific campaign ribbon with one battle star, and the combat infantryman badge.

Amy ground and service forces redistribution stations are located in various parts of the U. S. Military personnel returning from overseas are processed through these stations before assignment to military organizations and installation within the U. S.

Before entering the service Cpl. Thrall was employed as a teacher at the Hazel Park high school of Hazel Park, Mich. He became a member of the armed forces on October 6, 1941. Cpl. Thrall graduated from Michigan State college at East Lansing, Mich., with an A.B. degree.

PLENTY OF RAIN OVER IN FRANCE.

A brief note from S/Sgt. Harry Donahue, who is now somewhere in France, says:

"Just a line to let you know of my change of address. It is a real pleasure to have the good old Plymouth Mail coming to me no matter where I go. It does nothing over here in France except rain. I'll take good old Michigan anytime in preference to anything I have so far seen. Keep up the good work back home."

SGT. ARCHER NOW AT AN ENGLISH BASE.

Sgt. Lorne W. Archer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Archer of 335 Roe street, has recently arrived in England and is now at a U. S. Strategic air force base where he is receiving a brief orientation course before going into the combat zone. It is expected that he will soon be transferred to an advanced base somewhere in Germany. He was employed at the Parkview Recreation before entering the service.

ROBERT SCOTT IS NOW AIR LIEUTENANT.

Aviation Cadet Robert E. Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Scott of 1302 West Maple avenue, was a member of the graduating class recently at Moore Field, Texas, and has now been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army Air Forces. The graduation ceremonies were of the Central Flying Training Command Advanced Pilot school.

Since 1935, a laboratory in Englewood, New Jersey, has specialized in preparing fruit and vegetable juices scientifically mixed in a variety of combinations to meet specific nutritional needs for vitamins and minerals in a natural and concentrated form. Today, the firm sells 250 of its own standard combinations and also fills annually 150,000 physicians' and dentists' prescriptions, completing each within 48 hours, even when the prescription calls for as many as 16 ingredients, some of which may be out of season or native to a foreign country.

Between 1939 and 1944, the price of wolfram, or tungsten ore, increased from $300 to $20,000 a ton in Spain and Portugal through the bids of Allied agents who were instructed to pay any price for this indispensable war material to keep it out of the hands of Germany.

Accentuate the Positive

By Mr. In Between

Our Mr. In Between really gets around; in fact, he is just like a little fairy, sees all and tells all. This is what he told me he heard: Bob Reh saying to Anna Cooper, "Let's the Long Way Home"; Jean Norgren singing to Don Rock, "It's Love, Love, Love"; Mickie Schuster writing to John Schroeder "Miss You"; Jackie Dalton singing to Ralph Eschelder "This Heart of Mine"; Eleanor McDonald saying to Bill Bauman "Together"; Wanda Hunt singing to Don Huebler, U.S.N., "He's Home for a Little While"; Mary Christenson singing to Caryl Cushman "Make Me Believe."

Well that's all Mr. In Between heard, but from all indications Spring is here.

Because the Treaty of Trianon, signed with the Allies in 1920, deprived Hungary of more than half of its population and two-thirds of its land, the Hungarian people adopted a slogan of protest: "Nem, nem, soha!" (No, no, never!) And ever since, to keep it alive, many of them have had it engraved on a brass plate on their front doors.

Spanish Operetta Stars Runkel and Curtiss

"El Guapo Bandalero," the Spanish operetta is underway; casting began Monday, March 19. Ardis Curtiss is starred as the heroine and Ray Runkel plays her leading man, el bandalero. Other leading members of the cast are George Waters, Stanley Burden, and Nancy Proctor. It is a typical operetta filled with songs and dancing and it looks like very promising entertainment.

Class News

Sandra Walsh, Dorothy Curtis, Diane Arcott, Carol Lidgard, Pat Zink, Jane Pierce, Barbara Cushman and Saxie Holstein of the seventh grade; and Dallas Holt, Doris Rose, and Donna Wise of the eighth grade prepared outstanding patriotic notebooks for the February period in Miss Anderson's English classes.

In Mrs. Moran's Homemaking I the girls are preparing luncheons using casserole dishes. They have started their semester projects which must be completed by May; the favorite project is planning and preparing a day's menu for seven days.

Charles Arnold, Eric Mason, and Ann Speers made the best maps about Magellan's journey around the world in Miss Niles' 9B English class.

In her 11B History class Freeman Hoyer, Joyce Hartzell, and Betty Fulton made the best maps on the campaign of American Revolution. Betty Fulton also wrote a novel poem about Washington.

Miss Lundin's Homemaking III class have planned their work for a three week period. Job experiences were discussed as part of this work. Five minute reports are being given on the different phases of Homemaking.

The girls of Mrs. Soule's Homemaking I are working on their garment problems which must be completed by Easter. Some of the garments are peasant blouses, shorts, housecoats and pajamas. As some girls have had four years of 4H and others none, there is a great deal of working in groups. Work on the senior annual is almost complete except for the individual pictures which are not available.

Miss MacDonald's 9A English class are having choral reading—which is enjoyed by all?

On the display shelves of Mrs. Highfields newly decorated shop room were many nice projects on display for the shop exhibit March 23. Among others were Robert Houghton's sleeve board, Robert North's lamp, Robert Benjamin's bird house, and Robert Szesbridge's metal plantholder. Each semester they work harder to do a better finishing job on their projects.

Comic posters for the betterment of grade school conduct are the present work of Mrs. Gorton's second year art class.

Design V-14 — The Early Georgian Home

THE EARLY GEORGIAN HOMES found on the Eastern Seaboard meet the requirements of the family that would like a dignified and simple plan. They will not quickly become outmoded.

This attractive Georgian house has been completely brought up-to-date. Characterized by the comfortable and happy living within, it will present a pleasing and serene appearance in the community.

Designed to meet today's living conditions, it combines all the comforts that modern equipment and appliances can furnish. There is an excellent first floor plan with a splendid living room, a large kitchen and dining room. The stair hall and entrance door are closely related to the pleasant kitchen work space. Convenient access to the rear porch from the breakfast bay is a feature. On the second floor are three pleasing bedrooms, served by large closets and a good bath.

The exterior is of stone and standard frame construction, with Georgian details modified in the direction of simplicity.

To Celebrate Anniversary

April 11 will be revered in the hearts of many a substantial citizen this year—not as the 96th anniversary of the patenting of the safety pin—but as the 7th anniversary of the founding of the S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A. (Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.) International President Phil Embury of Warsaw, N. Y. has just issued an official proclamation designating the period from April 2 to 14, inclusive, as Founder's Week.

It is entirely too close to this day in April, 1938, when Founder O. C. Cash proposed a song revival to his Tulsa buddies, for us to appraise accurately the results of that meeting, which has subsequently flowered into an international society. Suffice it to say that already there are 140 chapters, located in almost every state from coast to coast. One is flourishing in Windsor, Canada, and 6 are in the armed forces in England, India and the Pacific.

Barber shop harmony gets its name from just where you'd expect. In earlier days, a small town or neighborhood barber shop was clubby. Friends gathered there to swap news, tell stories, and to sing. A typical new-world type of harmony singing developed around those informal singing groups.

Aside from the definite morale building influence among its members, the society has a definite way of civic service. Item No. 10 in its code of ethics reads: "We shall render all possible altruistic service through the medium of barber shop harmony." Many thousands of appearances by society quartets have been made for worthy causes, such as Red Cross, Community Chest drives, Church functions, Veterans' hospitals, to say nothing of a continuous program of service at various USO centers, and at army and navy camps.

The society's membership is truly American, and includes not only the "butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker," but members from just about every known field of endeavor. The spirit of the society is entirely democratic, as a mutual love of harmony permits no fancied class distinction.

During the 7 years of its life-span, 6 national conventions have been held—1939 in Tulsa, 1940 in the New York World's fair; 1941 at St. Louis, 1942 at Grand Rapids, 1943 at Chicago, 1944 at Detroit. At the latter event, 58 quartets from all over the United States competed to get into the finals, in which the 15 best quartets in turn competed for the 5 top places. The 1945 quartet finals will again be held in Detroit, government rulings permitting.

Born originally as a release from the pressure of modern life, this truly democratic society now does a man-size job in "keeping America singing." In the last year the number of finished and beautifully balanced quartets has pyramided. Public approval of "quartet parades" given in the largest auditoriums, including the Chicago Civic Opera House, is a matter of common knowledge. The significant thing is that there has been no sensational advertising, no spectacular display nor appeal to academic support. Success has been built on just one thing; cleverly arranged and finely blended close harmony. Call it "barber shop" if you will, but do not try to discount it. It is great entertainment! And it's here to stay.

The president of the Rosedale Gardens chapter of the society is W. Earl Rubert, and meetings are held regularly on the third Friday at 8:00 p.m. in Rosedale Community House.

Finder Given Large Reward

Honesty was rewarded the other day when Ernestine Burkholder found a pocketbook containing several hundreds of dollars.

The young girl, a high school student who spends a part of her extra hours after school clerking in one of the ten cent stores, found the pocketbook recently.

When she discovered it had a large amount of money in it and no name or address, she took it to Chief of Police Lee Sackett at the city hall.

It was not long after it had been turned over to the police when the owner, who was making a frantic search for it, called at the police station to inquire if it had been left there.

He quickly identified it and left $40 for the honest finder—who was surprised at the large amount of the reward paid to her for her honesty.

A TELEPHONE CAN'T WORK BY ITSELF

Like others, the Bell System will have to convert its telephone factories to civilian production after the war. But when post-war automobiles, refrigerators and washing machines leave the manufacturers, they'll be ready to use. With telephones, it's different.

After we get new instruments and equipment, there is the long, painstaking job of installing and joining them to the present system.

Many new buildings must be erected; others enlarged. Billions of hand-soldered switchboard connections will have to be made. It's time-consuming — even a small section of central office equipment contains thousands of those connections, and space allows only a few men to work on it at one time. Then, too, thousands of miles of wire and cable must be constructed to connect telephones to central offices.

So that we can provide service for the 100,000 orders on our growing waiting list and again install telephones promptly wherever wanted, Michigan Bell plans a five-year post-war construction program costing $120,000,000. But even working at that rapid rate, it will take at least two years before telephones generally can be installed without delay.

If you are waiting, we appreciate your patience and understanding. We will supply you with service just as quickly as we possibly can.

VICTORY'S SONS

THE HILL COUNTRY that nurtured Sergeant York of World War I fame has sent many of its sons to battle and glory. One such is Corp. Paul B. Huff of Cleveland, Tenn.

Last February he volunteered to lead a scouting patrol into enemy territory near Cerano, Italy. Clear weather and absence of cover on the barren hills made the mission especially perilous. Corporal Huff and his six men entered a shallow valley.

When Huff's patrol reached a point about 350 yards from the end of the draw, the guns opened up. Machine gun bullets splattered about, and mortar and 20 mm cannon shells burst close by. Huff dropped to his knees and advanced alone. Circling slowly he got behind the first gun emplacement and shot all the crew dead. Then he deliberately exposed himself to draw fire and so discover the positions of the other guns. Bullets licked up the dust near him, but all missed. With the locations fixed in mind, Huff crawled swiftly out of range.

Four hours later, the patrol returned without a casualty. Huff's information was so accurate and complete that his company was able to rout the Nazi unit of 125 men, killing 27, and taking 21 prisoners. Corporal Huff has been awarded the Medal of Honor.

Babson Says - - The Plymouth Mail 25 Years Ago

PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN

Elton R. Eaton Editor and Publisher
Sterling Eaton Business Manager

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Entered as Second Class Matter in the U. S. Postoffice at Plymouth, Michigan

Babson Park, Mass., March 30.—Our President and the Congress, I respectfully submit, are sadly in error if they believe that our domestic problem number one will be to find 60 million jobs. That might be relatively easy. The really tough core of the postwar crisis will be to find 60 million people—or even half that number—who are equipped to fill jobs! By all odds the most likely material for employment will be the returning servicemen: They are truly trained.

Neither warfare nor peacetime business has any real use for high school hoodlums who are physically unconditioned, mentally unequipped, and spiritually undisciplined and unprincipled.

Our major postwar worry will be these barrel-bottom scrapings, for they will not only be unemployed, but unemployable. How are the schools going to dispose of the worthless product which they have manufactured?

Fruits of "Education" Worm-eaten
It is not my intention to scold. In fact, I can frame no criticism half so caustic as the stark conditions that shock you on every hand. For several generations now, our flaccid educational systems have been under test. By war's pressure we have been forced at last to audit and appraise the end results. They are stunningly inadequate—as might have been predicted by any personnel officer, employer, or analyst of social trends. Rather than wait until dire crisis bursts upon us, it is not more sensible to face this potential disaster in advance, while remedy and repair are still possible.

Matchless opportunity is open to the schools to reorganize and tool up anew for improved performance. War has liquidated some things and liquified all things. In this current flux, the school committees have an ideal chance to redeem themselves,—if only they will devote themselves to reform instead of defense, alibi, and apology. Better schooling is a prime step toward fuller employment.

The Military Shows the School-masters
You have been reading, as I have, accounts of the all but incredible effects of the specialized training given to army and navy personnel. Literally armies of men have received such training in hundreds of courses covering languages, mathematics, and technical skills. Compared with the corresponding records of traditional schooling these new military methods have proved their startling superiority. Subject for subject, the service trainees have absorbed far more knowledge and wisdom in far less time. This training has taken advantage of up-to-date aids; viz. films, records, models,—unknown to the old red schoolhouse. Yet it has forced the men to THINK.

If our school committees jump to install movies, soundies, and whatnot, but otherwise refuse to mend their ways, I forecast they will only score a more spectacular failure.

Behind and beneath the near-miracles achieved by army and navy instruction is the radical difference in basic attitude of both teacher and taught. In the old fable, the hare out-raced the fox, because the fox was running merely for his dinner while the hare was running for his life.

School Committees Your Key Commitment
Why have our educators, broadly speaking, failed throughout all these many years to inspire their civilian trainees with the vital purpose of education? In my view, this tragic inability to reach and fully teach their pupils can be traced back chiefly to one agency. I would pin this school guilt primarily upon the school committee. You know and I know of good committees and good members of shabby committees,—but let us talk the law of averages.

As long as control rests in the clutch of individuals who intellectually and spiritually are scandalously unfit, there is scant hope that the schools can be renovated by powerless superintendents, underprivileged teachers, absentee parents, and immature pupils.

The educational stream remains polluted at its springs. The employment problem will be to procure employable people. To attain this, de-louse the school committees. Spotlight members of the shady, self-seeking political brand and give them dishonorable discharge.

He's Studying Ways To Lay Linoleum
Thomas D. Brady, of 3147 Newburg road, an employee of Blunk & Thatcher, 825 Penniman, Plymouth, is taking a course in linoleum installation this week at the Armstrong Cork company's laying school for linoleum mechanics at Lancaster, Penn.

As a part of the course, all students are conducted on a tour through the Armstrong floor plant to study the manufacture of linoleum and other resilient floorings and to see the company's extensive production of shot and shell, aircraft parts and assemblies, bomb cluster adapters, and other munitions.

News items of a quarter of a century ago taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail.

Byron Willett is preparing to build a house on his lot on Holbrook avenue.

John Amrhein has purchased the house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Passage on Starkweather avenue.

The large barn of Louis Newman of Livonia, burned to the ground, last Monday night. Cause of the fire is unknown.

Quite a surprise in Salem when Frank Carey set up the cigars, Wednesday morning and announced he was married to Miss Blanche Havershaw of South Lyon, Tuesday.

Owing to the scarcity of help, after April 3rd there will be no more city delivery. H. B. Brown, proprietor.

L. B. Stark has purchased a lot of George Robinson on Maple avenue, and is preparing to build a new house this spring.

W. R. LeVan says he expects to build several houses in the village this summer. Walt, has engaged with Contractor Patterson as foreman.

Dr. J. L. Olsaver has moved his dental office from the rooms over Riggs' store to the front suite of office rooms in the new bank block with entrance on Penniman avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lorenz, who have been in charge of the Wayne Red Front grocery store for the past few months, have been transferred to the Plymouth store.

Gerald Hondorp happily celebrated his 8th birthday, last Wednesday afternoon, by entertaining about twelve of his little playmates. Games were the entertainment and refreshments were served.

Plymouth Rock Lodge, No. 46, F. & A. M., has purchased of J. H. Patterson the property located at the corner of Penniman avenue and Union street, opposite Kellogg Park, now occupied by Hadley and Kincaid as a garage. As soon as arrangements can be completed to do so, it is the intention to erect a modern lodge home upon this site to cost between $30,000 and $40,000.

A pretty wedding was quietly solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Starkweather avenue, last Wednesday afternoon March 24th when Miss Helen C. youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Chisholm, was united in marriage to Pedro Lamnaco, also of this place. Shortly after the service the happy couple left for Detroit, enroute to New York City for a few days' stay. The bride has been in the employ of the Bell Telephone company, for some time, and is well and favorably known here. The groom is in the employ of the Pere Marquette and is also favorably known.

The White-slave-traffic Act was passed in 1910 for the sole purpose, as indicated by its title, of enabling the federal government to stop the growing interstate transportation of women for commercial prostitution. But unfortunately, a suit brought in 1913 to discredit a political figure was decided on an unnecessary five-word phrase and set the precedent that no commercial motive was required to convict. Under later interpretations, a man may even violate this law when he pays the fare of an unaccompanied female employee across a state line, such as a secretary sent to report a convention or a maid to open a country house.

BAKING

With the first breath of spring comes that longing to be out of doors. And there's really no reason why you can't be. With the delicious baked goods we offer there's no need to spend time in a hot, stuffy kitchen. We've a tempting assortment of pies, cakes, bread and rolls—fresh daily.

DUST CHASER... Women will welcome word of an electrical device that removes dust and smoke from the air, promising less frequent need of housecleaning after the war. Electrically charged plates are installed in the air-duct of the heating system. These plates collect dust particles in much the same way that a magnet attracts bits of metal. Smoke, dust and dirt are precipitated on the plates, leaving the air clean and pure.

EASTER BASKET... Children love this novel cake recipe suggested by our Home Service Department:

Individual Easter Baskets
Follow recipe for your favorite yellow cake. Bake cake in a large shallow pan. Cut cake when cool into oblong pieces four inches long and 2 1/2 inches wide. Hollow out the center of each piece of cake so that it will resemble a basket. (Be sure to leave a quarter-inch edge around the basket. You will find that the cakes will then be easier to frost.) Frost each of the cake baskets with your favorite white icing. Roll baskets in coconut that has been tinted a delicate yellow. Make handles for the baskets from strips of angelica, candied orange peel or fresh orange peel. Fill with varicolored fruit balls or candy Easter eggs.

TURNOVER... "A good company to work for," our employes often say of us—a sincere tribute that we value highly. Their opinion is reflected in the small labor turnover figure for Detroit Edison. Turnover averaged only 1.2 per cent per month during 1944, this despite keen competition from other war industries for the services of our men and women.

KITCHEN CRAFT... Sandwiches will keep their original freshness if you place them in the crisper drawer of your refrigerator. You needn't wrap them.

WARNING

To All Who Are Dependent On Furnace Heat for Next Winter.

Last year it seemed that everybody waited until the cold weather struck before giving their furnaces the attention they required. Our phone kept ringing with frantic last-minute calls for repairs and service; naturally, we were swamped with work, and many homes had to suffer the cold inconvenience of waiting their turn. If you wish to avoid this hardship, now is the time to have your heating system inspected. To delay simply means that you will have to take your chances on the scarcity of materials and manpower. It may be that your furnace needs only slight attention, something that we could take care of now in a matter of minutes—but which would require weeks to get at during the rush period. We want to give you the best possible service, no matter how big or small the job, and your cooperation in calling us now will be to your benefit. Don't let next winter catch you with your grates down!

Becomes Bride of Donald E. Baron

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baron
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chuhran of Arcola street, Garden City have announced the marriage of their daughter, Lillian, to Donald E. Baron AMM2c, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoffman, of Starkweather avenue, now serving in the United States navy.

The wedding took place Monday, March 12 at Don Scout College, corner of Evergreen and Nine Mile road at 10 o'clock a.m., the Rev. Fr. Bart performing the ceremony.

The groom, who saw much active service in the Pacific during the early days of the war and was one of the survivors of the big aircraft carrier Wasp when it was sunk, has been stationed at Norfolk, Virginia, during the past few months. Previous to being sent to Norfolk, where he is acting as a squadrons' plane director instructor, he was in Bermuda and Cuba for several months.

The longest automobile race in history was run from New York to Paris in 1908, its route crossing the United States, Canada, Alaska, Siberia, Russia, Poland, Germany, and France. Of the six cars that started, only two completed the trip, with the winner driven by two Americans, covering the 13,400 miles in 112 days.

Phone Earning Hit By War

The Michigan Bell Telephone company today reported a continued wartime slump in its earnings for 1944 in the face of the greatest volume of business on record.

President George M. Welch, in his annual report, stated that, although the company took in 68 per cent more money than in peacetime 1939, costs went up faster than revenues, resulting in a $750,000 decline in net income.

"We have not profited from the war," Welch said. "Neither do we wish, nor expect to."

The president reported net income of $9,265,000 against $10,319,000 for 1939 and $9,339,000 for 1943. Earnings represented a return of 5.6 per cent on stockholders' investment in the business against 7.4 per cent in 1939 and 5.4 per cent two years ago. The company paid dividends of $5.50 a share on 1,609,000 shares of stock a decline of 25 cents a share under the 1943 declaration.

Further comparison with peacetime operations revealed that expenses of the company, including taxes, were nearly double pre-war figures. Even without taxes, expenses were up 75 per cent. Payroll costs of $29,851,000 more than doubled the pre-war level, while taxes of $15,647,000 compared with $8,038,000 in 1939.

Pointing out that the Michigan Bell, as an associated company in the Bell System, obtains new capital through the sale of stock to the American Telephone & Telegraph Company and that AT&T, in turn, secures funds by selling its own securities on the open market, the report emphasized that the attractiveness of such securities depends largely upon the American company's earnings on its investment in associated companies.

Welch cited an increasing spread in recent years between Bell System earnings and those of other industries with which it competes for capital. Today, he said, the system earns one-third less than the average for other industries and the Michigan Bell about one-half less.

"Michigan Bell must do its full part in maintaining the American company's ability to sell its securities country-wide," Welch said. "This trend toward lower earnings must not be permitted to continue or our ability to obtain new capital, necessary to assure good service after the war, may be seriously impaired."

Noting the company's appeal from the $3,500,000 refund order of the Michigan Public Service Commission, Welch said that "because such whittling of our earnings weakens our ability to meet expected postwar service demands, we were under the strongest obligation to avail ourselves of our day in court. Our appeal, we believe, is in the broad public interest."

The report said the company's proposed $120,000,000 construction program in the first five postwar years will mean jobs not only for some 3,000 employees in the armed forces but also for many new employees, and will make work for several thousand others who will furnish service or materials for the program. No early relief was expressed in the report for more than 93,000 applicants for service who are unable to get telephones because of wartime shortages. It pointed out that switching equipment in 127 of the company's 343 central offices is loaded to capacity and that there is a corresponding shortage of cable, wire, and instruments. The company reported 1,122,033 telephones in service at the end of the year. In five war years, it said, the telephone increase has been as large as in the previous 18 years. The volume of long distance calls handled by the company was up 10 per cent over the 1943 figure to a new high of 136,000 a day, while local calls averaged 5,586,000 daily.

Good Advise For Gardeners

(By E. I. Besemer)

A survey made March 13-15 on 14 orchards in the southeastern fruit area shows that there are aphid eggs, red mite eggs and scale enough to justify a dormant spray.

The dormant spray must be put on when the buds are strictly dormant so as to prevent injury.

This new garden calendar is a special service designed by your Victory Garden committee to remind you of the things to be done in your Victory Garden this week.

With Spring here there are many small jobs that can be done early to insure a better garden.

Start your hotbed now. It can be heated with fresh manure or if built adjacent to a basement window, the heat from the open window will keep the temperature in the frame high enough for germination of the seeds and subsequent plant growth. On the coldest nights, it may be advisable to cover the glass with a mat, straw or a blanket.

If you haven't already sown seeds of onions, head lettuce, early cabbage and broccoli indoors, better get them started so they'll make good stalky plants to set out next month.

Tomatoes, peppers, eggplant and cauliflower seeds can now be sown indoors.

To destroy damping off or seedling rot, heat the seed soil to 180 degrees in an oven and pour sufficient boiling water on it to bring it to the same temperature. This treatment will also kill many weed seeds.

Chemicals such as formaldehyde can also be used. Use one ounce of formaldehyde to two ounces of water mixed in one bushel of soil. Semesan, potassium permanganate, acetic acid or even tear gas can be used. They will kill the damping off fungi, but will not destroy the weed seeds. For further protection treat the seeds before sowing with Semesan, Aresan or Spergon.

Last call to complete that garden plan—Draw it on paper to insure the greatest return for the time and effort expended. Indicate on your plan the late crops that are to be planned to follow early crops after they have been harvested. Extension bulletin No. 4 available from Michigan State college or your Victory Garden chairman will guide you.

Test any seeds left over from last year before buying new ones. Cut a piece of cotton flannel cloth 18x18 inches in size. Fold the cloth from each side to the middle and crease. Scatter 10 large seeds and 20 small ones in rows across the inner strip. Bring in the two sides and roll up the strip. Tie and wet in warm water then stand in a glass jar containing an inch of water. Most seeds will germinate in 10 days. Some like carrots and parsnips will take two or three weeks. If 60 percent or more germinate—save and sow.

Don't delay ordering or buying your seed. The best varieties are always sold out first and further delay may make it necessary to accept substitutes.

Ask your seed dealer to show you the seed chart furnished him by your local Victory Garden chairman. It lists recommended varieties for Michigan gardens as well as the quantity of seed necessary to plant your garden.

Make a second small sowing of head lettuce indoors to plant out next month. The variety Great Lakes is recommended for Michigan.

To Victory Gardeners equipped to grow plants indoors for setting into the garden, County Agricultural Agent E. I. Besemer offers these suggestions.

Treat all vegetable seeds with one of the seed-treating materials, following the directions of the manufacturer.

Germinate the seed in a warm soil, temperature 70 to 80 degrees F.

Start the plants in time to permit a growing period of 6 to 8 weeks previous to the time for garden setting. Celery and onions require 10 weeks, while melons, cucumbers and summer squash require only 3 to 4 weeks.

Place soil that is loose and easily crumbled in the cold frame or hot bed. Pure sand with a nutrient solution applied as the plants emerge gives good results.

Keep the proper temperatures, if possible, for the plants being grown. Tomato and pepper plants need 70 to 80 degrees F; head lettuce, celery, cabbage, onion, broccoli, cauliflower and brussels sprouts require 55 to 70 F; white melons, cucumbers and squash need from 70 to 89 F. For most vegetables the temperature during the night should be 5 to 10 degrees cooler than during the day. Thoroughly soak the soil when watering the plants. Frequency of watering depends upon the rate of growth, temperature and humidity.

Soil for flats, pots, and bands should be moderately fertile, so that excessive applications of fertilizers are not necessary. Too much fertilizer produces a soil condition that results in slow growth.

Because of the three cent mailing cost the juniors are not sending invitations to persons out of the school unless a request is made, not even to those persons who were invited to the senior prom. If a student brings a guest, such guest does not need an invitation, but all others do, and a request must be received. Send it to the school in charge of Miss Wallörf or to any junior.

Rural Living To Be Discussed

A regional work conference on rural living will be held this week end in the Rackham Building, Woodward at Farnsworth, in Detroit, according to Charles E. Ziegler, who is one of the sponsoring group. It will be an outgrowth of the White House conference held last October and the Michigan conference at Grand Rapids in January.

Mr. Brake, Wayne county deputy superintendent of schools, and chairman of the program, states it will get underway at 10:30 a.m. Eastern War Time or 9:30 Central War Time, with a talk by Dr. Howard A. Dawson, director of rural education of the National Education Association, who was the keynote speaker at the White House. Following his address, the conference will divide into 11 groups. Each group will try to accomplish three purposes: a statement of the problem, a study of resources available to solve the problem, and a short list of specific recommendations to be made to the group in the evening session, at which time Dr. Dawson will summarize the recommendations.

Some 800 representative people in the metropolitan area have been invited to participate in these group meetings. The evening session, starting at 8:00 p.m., EWT or 7:00 CWT, is open to the public.

Sheriff Hot After the Dogs

Look out! Sheriff Andrew Baird declares he's hot after the stray dogs in Wayne county.

There are hundreds of them in and around Plymouth—and when the Sheriff speaks, you'd better look after Fido, if Fido happens to be your "stray" dog.

Any dog is a stray dog that is running at large without a number around its neck.

Sheriff Baird has ordered a drive on all stray dogs in the county because of the increasing number of people who have been bitten by dogs that are permitted to run at large. In the past three days fifteen dog bite reports came to the notice of the sheriff's road patrol. Many of the dogs involved in these reports were stray dogs of unknown ownership; in other cases the owners were traced, but all of the dogs were permitted to run without restraint. Sheriff Baird intends to contact all of the township supervisors reporting to them of this serious menace and asking for their cooperation in forcing dog owners to keep their dogs confined.

Because of the danger that in some cases these dogs may be suffering from rabies, it is imperative that anyone bitten by such animals should report the same at once to the sheriff's road patrol in order that the dog may be quarantined and placed under observation so that proper treatment may be given the victim to prevent hydrophobia.

Stanley T. Corbett and Carl G. Shear Should Be Re-elected to The City Commission

Stanley T. Corbett

Carl G. Shear

They have installed a businesslike administration of city affairs and a businesslike procedure of city commission meetings.

As a result of their efforts there has been more street improvement work in Plymouth during the past two years than in all preceding ten years.

Concrete pavings have been laid on Fralick avenue, Harvey street, Wing street and Farmer avenue. Black top pavings have been laid on Maple street and Dewey street.

There have been only four special meetings of the city commission in the past two years, thereby resulting in the savings of many hundreds of dollars to the taxpayers.

All secret meetings of the city commission have been abolished and the people of the city have an opportunity of knowing just what takes place at every meeting of the commission.

The water system has been greatly improved during the past two years and plans have been made to continue this improvement.

Plans have been started for the extension and the improvement of the sewage system, with plans underway to provide sections of the city long neglected with badly needed sewage service.

The city has lived within its budget and there have been no expensive legal cases.

For these good and sufficient reasons, these two businesslike officials should be re-elected so they can help to continue the excellent public improvement they have started in Plymouth.

Be sure and mark your ballot for Stanley T. Corbett and Carl G. Shear when you go to vote Monday.

A Serious Statement About Your Tires

We Mean the Tires On Your Car Right Now!
According to OPA rulings your tires are now classified mainly as either
A TIRES D TIRES or E TIRES

If you have a tire classified as A that means the tire is useable as a "running" tire although it may have been recapped or vulcanized or both.
If you have a tire classified as D that means the tire is NOT usable and emergency spare so that it cannot be used as a "running" tire or an emergency spare.

If you have a tire classified as E that means this tire can be used as an emergency tire although it has very few serviceable "running" miles.

Every tire inspector is bound by government orders to report the present condition of all tires on each vehicle inspected. Beyond this he does not control what tires may or may not be allotted to you.

In view of the seriousness of the present tire situation each inspector has been warned by the Plymouth Tire Panel to lay particular stress on inspection and reporting of the condition of all tires inspected. There are many useable tires locked in the rear compartments of cars that will have to be used as running tires

Frequent Tire Inspection and Recapping or Vulcanizing
Where Needed are the Only Two Ways We Can Suggest to You to Actually Keep Your Car Operating

TO DELAY IN EITHER OF THESE IMPORTANT ITEMS MAY PUT YOUR CAR OUT OF OPERATION FOR MANY MONTHS AHEAD.

These facts are published by the undersigned service stations in this area in the hopes of keeping your car operating until larger tire supplies are available.

A frank discussion regarding your tire problems will be welcomed by any of these dealers at no obligation to automobile owners

Lt. Col. Moore Is Awarded Bronze Star
 Lt. Col. Richard H. Moore, who has been following in the illustrious military footsteps of his father, the late Col. William K. Moore, has been awarded another medal.
 Young Moore, who already had received the Silver Star, has been awarded the Bronze Star, his wife, Geraldine, who lives at 305 Holbrook, has learned.

The Bronze Star was awarded "for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy during the period of August 2 to Oct. 24, 1944," the citation states.
 "During this period Lt. Col. Moore led his battalion entirely across France in a series of difficult and hazardous marches made in the presence of the enemy, during which time his unit was subjected to repeated air attack.
 "By his courageous and expert leadership, the artillery battalion under his command participated with distinction in the actions at Martes, Gassicourt, Charmes, Luneville and Foret de Parroy.
 "His outstanding leadership, professional ability and personal bravery contributed largely to the strong support his unit rendered the infantry and reflect great credit upon himself and the military service."
 The citation is signed by Maj. Gen. Wade H. Haislip.
 Col. Moore has two children, Barbara 7, and Richard Kinney Moore, 4.
 Col. Moore's mother, Mrs. William K. Moore, and his grandmother, Mrs. Ella J. Moore, live at 253 Irvin street.

School Hours Get Setback
 All pupils will report a half hour earlier when they return to school Tuesday morning following the short Easter holiday, Superintendent George A. Smith announced.
 As has been the custom since the adoption of war time, the school hours are set back a half hour during the late spring and early fall months. This is done to give the pupils more time on their jobs or on the farms.
 The hours, starting Tuesday, will be 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. During the winter, when it was dark in the early morning hours, the children started school at 9 a.m.

Local Residents Taking U. of M. Courses Right Here at Home.
 Five citizens of Plymouth, two women, and three men, are taking University of Michigan courses right here at home.
 Enrolled in the correspondence study division of the University, their studies include: English, algebra, and commercial art.
 Designed for Michigan residents who can not go to Ann Arbor or who want to take only one or two subjects, the work is taught by University staff members and the credit courses carry equal credit with those given on the campus.
 Civilians fall into several groups: There are high school students whose education has been interrupted; Older persons taking work leading to a high school diploma; adults—housewives, office workers, industrial employees, who want to study special fields; those incapacitated by illness—invalids, convalescents.
 Since the war started, civilian enrollment has gone up and service figures have skyrocketed. More than 25,000 soldiers and sailors in other countries now study University courses. In addition, this year—1,164 service men still in this country have enrolled for the first time.
 Unlike most schools, the University makes a flat charge for each course. A recent national survey showed Michigan's $12.00 fee was the lowest rate asked by any first rate institution.

School Orators Named for Meet
 Plymouth High School will have a team of eight orators in the Suburban Six "B" League speaking competition a week from Thursday—April 12—in Ypsilanti Central High School.
 The lineup, which will attempt to regain the top spot Plymouth held for years in speaking before dropping from competition because of the war, was selected on the basis of intra-school competition, said James Latture, speech instructor.
 Beverly Hauk and Marion Lawson will compete in the declamation contest, Wanda Hunt and Elizabeth Neal will battle for dramatic reading honors, Frank Veresh and Clarence Hoffman will vie for oratory titles and Wanda Merritt and Joan Gillis will bid for honors in extemporaneous speaking.
 "The meet also will serve as the State district qualifier, with the winners advancing to the regionals."
 Latture said that Plymouth also will re-enter debating competition next fall.

No Tire Relief Likely Very Soon
 Any increase in tire production due to the development of synthetics will go to the armed forces and not to civilians, Mel T. Santmyer, district tire officer, told a meeting of tire inspectors in Plymouth City Hall.
 In view of the continued shortage and probable further restriction in civilian tires, Bob Bucknell, of Board 40, the industrial board, stressed the importance of careful tire inspections.
 He urged the vulcanizing of breaks in the sidewall and reiterated the necessity of recapping before the fabric is damaged. He also demonstrated how easy it is to damage the thin sidewalls of tires by bumping curbs, etc.
 Santmyer, in impressing the fact there is no hope for the immediate future, pointed to the fact that the Plymouth board, which serves approximately 55,000 people, was allotted only 223 tires for March.
 The 25 inspectors, about two-thirds of those in the area, also saw movies of the punishment tires take in actual battle. Battle scenes from all over the world were included.

Telephone Users' Opinions Sought
 When the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. launches its postwar rural expansion and improvement program, it will have the benefit of expert advice—from the farmer himself.
 The company has sent a 23-page questionnaire relating to farm line service to 1,500 rural users in 36 exchanges and 24 counties of its territory. This embraces 35 per cent of the State's total area.
 That number is presumed to represent a cross section of some 31,000 telephone users in the 24 counties.
 Theodore H. Dawson, director of the company's farm service program, said the purpose of the survey is to "obtain information which will aid the Michigan Bell in its plans of extending and improving telephone service, thereby increasing its usefulness to all telephone users."
 The questionnaire contains 77 questions relating to quality and use of the service, rates, and farm line construction. The party line comes in for attention.
 Farmers also are asked where they obtain information on weather, market and road conditions, and time of day.

OFFICIAL MINUTES, PLYMOUTH BOARD OF EDUCATION.
 The regular meeting of the Board of Education, District No. 1, Fri. Twps. of Plymouth and Northville was held at the high school March 12, 1945.
 The superintendent presented the principal's recommendations regarding the offering of teacher contracts for the school year of 1945-46.
 It was moved by Eaton, supported by Brisbois that the principals and teachers of the Plymouth public schools, as approved by the Board of Education at their regular meeting held March 12, 1945, be extended teaching contracts, by the superintendent, for the year 1945-46.
 Ayes: Brisbois, Eaton, Stark, Strong and Sutherland.
 Naves: None.
 It was moved by Eaton supported by Stark that the superintendent be authorized to tender clerical contracts to Dora Gruebner and Elaine Kunkel for the year 1945-46.
 Ayes: Brisbois, Eaton, Stark, Strong and Sutherland.
 Naves: None.
 A group from the south section of the school district were present to discuss the transportation problem. After considerable discussion it was decided that Dr. Brisbois and Howard Stark should go with representatives of this group to the bus company officials.
 It was moved that the meeting be adjourned. Carried.

Blood Bank Returns April 11
 The Red Cross blood donor mobile unit will make its quarterly visit to Plymouth a week from Wednesday—April 11—from 3 to 7 p.m., when it will set up shop in the Masonic Temple.
 Plymouth needs 300 registrations to meet its quota and erase the blot on its record of last December when it fell down on its quota.
 Now, with the war stepping along at an ever-increasing pace and more and more casualties mounting up, the need of blood plasma is even more acute.
 Anyone between the ages of 21 and 60, or from 18 to 21 with the consent of parents, should register immediately at City Hall, Beyer's Pharmacy or call 252-W.

The Campo Santo Cemetery, in Pisa, Italy, is believed to be particularly holy because, when under construction between 1188 and 1200, it was filled in with 53 shiploads of earth imported from California.
 The nation's productive capacity was reduced in 1944 by the loss of 41,500 workers. National Safety Council figures show that 18,000 were killed in work accidents, and 23,500 in off-the-job accidents.
