

What I Think and Have a Right to Say

Edwin R. Eaton

"WE SHALL NOBLY SAVE OR MEANLY LOSE THE LAST BEST HOPE OF EARTH."—Abraham Lincoln.

Using the above quotation from Abraham Lincoln as the title of his editorial, Malcolm W. Bingay, editorial director of The Detroit Free Press, rose to new heights of fame in the world of expression Monday as he briefly reviewed the rise and fall of dictatorship and glorified the survival of government of, by and for the people.

We know there are large numbers of readers of The Plymouth Mail who regularly receive The Free Press. We know, too, that there are several thousands who do not. It is for their benefit that we are reprinting Editor Bingay's Monday morning editorial, which will live long as one of the outstanding historic documents of this war.

We are eliminating our own column this week so that we can use Mr. Bingay's great editorial in full. It follows.

WE HAVE WON IN EUROPE.

Hitler, high priest of hate, and his mighty legions of terror and torture who sought to enslave the mind and body of man, have been crushed.

Freedom still lives.

The contemned democracies, naked of armor but a thousand and ten thousand times armed with the righteousness of their cause, accepted the challenge of the blood-stained tyrant, as free men, and there was brought about the miracle of which generations will speak in awe until time is no more.

Never in all the world was a war won with such valiance, or victory achieved with such brilliance.

Theomyplae will have been forgot when men will still remember Dunkirk.

And, standing alone without comparison, will be that conflict in the heavens when even the stars seemed to pause in their course as beardless boys triumphed in the Battle of Britain—"Never in the field of human conflict was so much owed by so many to so few."

Forever, too, there will be remembered the majestic figure of Winston Churchill as he stood alone holding together in his clenched fist the crumbling strands of the empire of democracy and defied the onrushing cohorts of the Stygian dark—

"We shall not flag or fail. We shall go on to the end... We shall defend our island, whatever the cost may be, we shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the landing grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills; we shall never surrender, and even if which I do not for a moment believe, this island or a large part of it were subjugated and starving, then our Empire beyond the seas, armed and guarded by the British Fleet, would carry on the struggle, until, in God's good time, the New World, with all its power and might, steps forth to the rescue and the liberation of the old."

This, the race of man will always remember as imperishable testimony to the dignity and valor of the human soul.

And there was the new-born Russia, arousing herself after a thousand years of troubled sleep under the despotic czars, groping to orient herself to a new way of life. She it was who bore the brunt of the onslaught of the mechanized might of madness, often with nothing but human flesh to stem the tide.

Never before in the annals of war had such passionate courage been shown.

And, over all, came the power and the glory of the New World—America resurgent!

We realized at last the significance of the struggle.

For, with Europe gone, England going, we faced the berserk battalions of the Beast of Berlin.

A peaceful people in the ways of military matters, we performed a miracle that must have had God's guidance.

We armored the world of free men everywhere.

Out of the stores and the factories, out of the offices and the farms, out of the schools and the professions, we gathered 11,000,000 fighting men—the most powerful and best trained Army and Navy the world had ever known.

This did we vindicate for all time the philosophy of our fathers and the justice of our claim for personal freedom.

Within this democracy we revealed the ancient courage, the stamina, the initiative, the know-how that gives to liberty-dedicated man invincibility against all the robots of regimentation ever devised by totalitarian tyrants.

The cost can never be computed.

Of the heroic American youths who fought as Knights Crusaders for God and Country in the Armageddon of Europe scores of thousands will never return. They rest in the blood-soaked soil of their ineffable sacrifice.

There can be no estimate of those who will come back to us, maimed, blinded, wrecked of mind.

Through the long night of Hitlerian horror it is estimated that 25,000,000 men, women and children have gone to their death from battle, massacre or starvation to gratify the mad ambitions of one man.

He had nothing but an idea when he started, as a lowly paper-hanger.

That idea was to conquer the world or destroy it.

It is so written in his book.

The robot rocket was not Hitler's secret weapon. It was a mere mechanical thing of steel and wire and wheels and explosive. Its power was apparent. Obvious, too, were the Wehrmacht and the Luftwaffe.

The hidden assassin he used to destroy the mind of man was hate. He found it plentiful for his purposes.

First the Jews, then the Christians, then all classes, then all Germany and then—the world.

Yet Hitler, arch criminal of recorded time, the monomaniacal apotheosis of the antichrist, is but the terrifying symbol of the age that gave him birth.

Our age!

It has been an age when we forgot.

And only remembered when starkly faced with the utter loss of the things of the spirit which make livable existence upon the face of the earth.

It has ever been clean and decent, tender and dear and beautiful, righteous and sacred was in the balance.

Now it has come to pass that all these things have been saved to us if we have at last learned the lesson out of this, the world's Gethsemane.

"Twas an age of greed and grandeur, of lust and luxury, of poverty and pestilence, of bigotry and bitterness. A materialistic age wherein we worshipped at the shrine of the machine and forgot that man had a soul.

We forgot the age old and yet ever new lessons of the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount.

We builded to our purposes a mighty world machine, a thing as soulless as Hitler's robot rockets. But even as we builded we forgot the fundamental law of friction, that any machine will fly to pieces unless there is a lubricant.

And the lubricant needed for this world machine, created out of human bone and flesh and human heart and mind, is the oil of the spirit.

That is what we forgot.

If this had been a normal world the monstrous incubus could not have been visited upon us.

But we have not known a normal day upon it since that shot was fired at Sarajevo on June 28, 1914.

An old world died.

A new one is yet unborn.

It was not an ideal world, or even a good world.

But it was a steady world of understood values. It was a world of established institutions where everything outwardly seemed safe and secure. Systems, customs, habits, philosophies, political organizations and economic forces were so completely taken for granted that criticism of them came only from the radical few and the philosophically quiescent.

The first World War tore from us all accepted values and standards, and hate took possession of our hearts—everywhere.

The civilization we thought we were building for eternity, with steady consistent progress, collapsed before our eyes and there was a darkness on the face of the earth. Moral, political, economic faiths died. Anarchy was king.

And in this darkness the Hitlerian horde planted their seeds of hate. All mankind had been making the soil so fertile the seeds soon sprang into hideous blossom.

Never before in the whole saga of mankind was there a war like this.

It was not a political or an economic war. It was not a war of ideas or ideals. It was not a religious war. It was not a quarrel among kings or rival governments. It was not a war of the Have-nots

Mayor Puts End To Canard About New Beer Garden

Upon the recommendation of Mayor Carl Shear, the city commission Monday, evening went on record as being opposed to the opening of any new beer garden in Plymouth.

Commissioner Stanley Corbett moved that the city manager be instructed to advise the state liquor commission of the wishes of the local government. The motion, supported by Commissioner Lidgard, passed without opposition.

The matter came before the commission because of unfounded rumors that an effort may be made at some future time by some one unknown to any one to open another beer garden in Plymouth.

A similar unfounded rumor was started during the administration of former Mayor Stanley Corbett. At that time he declared that if any effort was made to open another beer garden in Plymouth he would oppose any such action.

The story about the plan to open another beer garden at that time was found to be false.

As far as any one knows, there is not the slightest base for such a rumor at this time. No one has made any plan to try and open a beer garden in Plymouth. No one could get a permit to open one, if they desired to do so, as the state is not issuing new beer garden permits, and no one could open a beer garden in Plymouth anyway without the consent of the local officials. The story seems to be just another one of those that has been started for some unknown reason.

The legislature at the last session passed and gave immediate effect to a bill which reduces the number of beer gardens in the state. In past years beer gardens could be opened, with consent of local officials, upon a population basis of one beer garden for every 600 people.

The law now provides that only one beer garden for every 1500 persons can be opened by some person or persons.

That restriction prevents any new beer garden from being opened in Plymouth until after the next census in 1950, and only then with the consent of local officials.

Mayor Shear and other city officials hope that the action taken Monday night will bring an end to the baseless rumor that every now and then is started by some person or persons to try and open a new beer garden in Plymouth.

Lift Racing Ban, and the Brown-Out

It hasn't taken the administration in Washington long to fix things up for horse races and the night clubs.

Less than 24 hours after Germany had been crushed, the ban on horse racing was lifted and the brown-out ended.

Lights can burn brightly at night and the night clubs can stay open during legal hours. You can again turn on your display lights outdoors and you can go to horse races and night clubs—while thousands of more American boys will perish in desperate battles to defeat Japan.

Plymouth Soldier Visits Prison Camp Calls It a Big Slaughter House

Corporal Charles Olson Says Words Cannot Describe Horrible Sights He Saw

"The best name for it is a slaughter house within a murder camp. The first thing that caught our eyes was a pile of bodies stacked up like cord wood. More skin and bones and a horrible sight. When we went inside we found five crematory furnaces with parts of bodies still in them not all burned up.

"In the cellar they finished off a lot of them and had an elevator to take them upstairs to be cremated. I've never seen anything to compare with it and hope never to see the likes of it again. But I know it is the truth for I saw it with my own eyes. This was the German prison camp for those who were against the Nazi rule.

"Well, it is time to hit the bed as tomorrow probably won't be a rest day."

"There are prisoners in there of all nationalities and a lot of them are nothing but skin and bones. Some are so

An expert riflemen, he went overseas last Nov. 12, and went into Iwo Jima on Feb. 21. He was the 42nd Plymouth resident listed as killed, missing or prisoner.

Lt. Gust Meets Lt. Roosevelt

Lieut. Kenneth Gust, serving somewhere in the Pacific with Uncle Sam's navy had the pleasure recently of meeting Lieut. John Roosevelt son of the late President and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"He came aboard our boat and spent several hours on business" wrote Lieut. Gust.

"He is tall, looks much like his mother and seemed to be a real fellow, just as common as the rest of us. We were all glad to meet him. His visit was a surprise, but we were pleased to have him on our boat if only for a short time" added the Plymouth navyman.

All of the Roosevelt sons are serving in the armed forces of the United States, some on the western front and some in the Far East.

Monday Is Tin Can Kiwanis Clubbers Collection Day

Get those tin cans ready! Mrs. William Rambo has announced that the next collection will take place Monday.

Be sure and have them at the usual place on the curbing. Some time during the day the city will make the collection.

Tin is one item badly needed to help bring about victory in Japan. Place your cans at the curbing EARLY Monday morning.

Jacobs Talks To Women's Group

John Jacobs, commander of the Ex-Service Men's club of Plymouth, was guest speaker at the monthly dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club held on Monday evening at St. John's Episcopal Parish house. The tables were decorated with red and white snapdragons and American flags.

Mr. Jacobs gave a talk concerning the campaign now being conducted by the Ex-Service Men's club to raise $5000 to provide plastic restorations for maimed servicemen.

At the conclusion of Mr. Jacobs' talk the club voted to donate $100 to aid in carrying out restoration work.

Sam & Son Close

Joe Lipsen announced Thursday that he had sold the stock and goods of the Sam & Son store on Penniman avenue to New York brokers. He plans to close the store immediately and go to Miami, Florida, where he will enter business. The Barbara Anne shop was also closed by him.

Plymouth Prays As Victory Comes In Europe

The long-awaited V-E (Victory in Europe) Day came to Plymouth Tuesday and the citizens of this city observed it in a manner which brought nothing but praise from all leaders, religious and civic.

The event, which had been expected momentarily for several days, followed after climax upon climax and practically everybody knew before Monday had passed that surrender would be announced Tuesday.

The combination of the knowledge that the war could not possibly last more than hours longer and the fast-breaking news events of the past month, probably had much to do with the sober and sane celebration of V-E Day.

It also was influenced undoubtedly by the knowledge that the war still is only half won. There still are the Japs to lick and indications from sources of information point to much sterner, and perhaps longer, struggle in the Pacific.

All churches reported packed services in the evening. Almost all retail business establishments closed for the day, but the war industries, with few exceptions kept going full blast. Flags flew all over town.

Only a few misguided individuals in isolated cases, who didn't hear or refused to heed the exhortations of the President and all leaders, stopped work and put on demonstrations that at best could be called only artificial excuses for boisterousness.

The time to celebrate will come with the advent of V-Day—total victory day—when Japan is finally brought to its knees.

Said City Manager Clarence H. Eddy "I was very pleased at the way Plymouth reacted. We had no reports of any undue hilarity and no complaints of any damage."

"We should all redouble our efforts to get the other war over at the earliest possible date so that we can really have reason to celebrate."

Mayor Carl G. Shear urged everyone to "rededicate himself to the task of bringing about the day of total victory at the earliest possible date."

"We still have a long, bloody and cruel war to fight with the Japanese barbarians," said Mayor Shear. "Let nobody be lulled into complacency by our splendid and complete victory over Germany."

"All obstacles in the Pacific war are infinitely greater than they were in Europe. The supply lines are longer, the climate is much harder on men and equipment and we are facing a much more fanatical foe."

"Some of the Germans, at least, had sense enough to know when they were whipped. We have yet to find any evidence that the Japs know when to quit."

The Rev. T. Leonard Sanders, pastor of First Methodist Church, also was pleased with the way the city took it. "It was very fine," he said. "The people acted in a sane way which was becoming to conditions, with only half the world at peace."

The "extreme sobriety" of Plymouth's observance of the occasion was gratifying to the Rev. Edgar Hoencke, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran Church. "I was very happy, and somewhat surprised to observe how well our people behaved," he asserted.

Rev. Sanders; Rev. Henry J. Walsh, pastor of First Presbyterian Church; Rev. Mark F. Sanborn, of First Baptist, and Rev. Francis Tetu, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, collaborated in two giant services in the Presbyterian Church.

The services, at 10 a.m. and at 8 p.m., were well attended, the evening worship being packed. They followed a program prepared by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

The Rev. Hoencke chose as his theme Psalm 46:1-11 before an overflow congregation. The Psalm: "Come, behold the works of the Lord; what desolation He hath made in the earth; He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth. He breaketh the bow and cutteth the spear in sunder; He burneth the chariot in the

Woman Gallants Out to Put This City Over Top In 7th Bond Drive

The Way For Plymouth to Cheer

Yes, we have won the world's greatest military victory in Europe! We have crushed the cruel, hating, domineering Nazis and Fascists.

We have left dead, bleeding and crippled on the battlefields of Europe over 800,000 of the finest of American young men, in order to win that victory.

Nearly a MILLION of America's finest!

We now move into the second phase of this terrible world war. Japan and its fanatical, vicious, sneaking armed might of pagans, must be annihilated before we celebrate.

All honor to the citizens of Plymouth and this part of Wayne county for the sober way they accepted our first victory in Europe!

There were prayers instead of cheers. Morning and evening, Plymouth churches were filled with men and women who went to offer thanks to God for the victory that had been won. Again on Monday thousands will return to the churches to offer thanks for our deliverance by the armed might of our young men from the forces of a God-hating maniac.

Yes, this is a time for prayers—not hurrahs! For in the days to come in order to deliver ourselves from the dangers of another pagan race, millions more of our young men must face death. And we know now that thousands upon thousands of them will perish—that they will never again see their loved ones in Plymouth, in St. Louis, in New York, in Bellevue or Belleville.

Some of OUR BOYS will suffer a terrible death. Thousands more of them will perish in the sea.

And there were cheers and idleness in many of our war plants! There were cheers and hilarity on the streets of some of our great cities!

Forgive them, for they knew not what they were doing.

Forgive them! Because millions and millions of OUR BOYS who went through hell in Europe to beat the Nazis, must again face death and suffering and torture on the other side of the world before they can come home to their loved ones—if they live to come home.

That certainly is nothing to cheer about. But it is cause for EVERY American to make up his mind that right NOW is the time to make the supreme effort in order to bring this war to an immediate and victorious end.

What can we who have lived in the lap of luxury at home, in peace, in security and enjoyment—do?

We can make the 7th war loan drive just the kind of a smashing success as OUR BOYS have won in Europe.

We in Plymouth can double our quota—if we WILL to do so. OUR BOYS kept going when it seemed that human endurance could carry them not one inch further!

We who have remained at home during this war think we have done a lot to help win the victory. What we have done is a mere nothing compared to what OUR BOYS have done.

Let's show OUR BOYS that Plymouth is cheering their victory in Europe and helping to win another victory in Japan by investing every penny we can get hold of in war bonds!

Let's double our quota! That's the way for Plymouth to cheer the victories that have been won by OUR BOYS! Cheer by buying war bonds!

Two Plymouth Boys Liberated From German War Prison Camps by Army

There is happiness supreme in two Plymouth homes! Two local boys who have been prisoners of war in Germany, have been liberated by American fighting forces, were found to be well and are expected home in the next few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Prough, 335 North Harvey street, have been advised that their son, Corporal Irving Prough, taken prisoner by the Germans some months ago, has been liberated by American armies, that he is in good health and expects to be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cicirelli, of Plymouth road, who learned a few months ago that their son Nicholas was a German prisoner when they saw his picture in a captured German film shown at the Penn theatre in this city, have also been advised that Nicholas was liberated by American forces from a German prison camp on April 15.

They have had a letter direct from him since his liberation and he says that he is well and will be home soon. The letter was written May 1.

Snow Falls Here Thursday Morn

Here's one for the books! It snowed in Plymouth on Thursday, May 10, 1945!

Old timers have had difficulty in remembering a time when there has been so much cold weather so late in the spring—and some of them just can't recall a time when it has snowed so late in the season as it did this week.

A cold rain early Thursday morning turned to snow soon after daylight. No damage to crops was done, but the patience of farmers and gardeners has been sorely tried. They're having difficulty in getting crops planted.

Trenton Men Stop Plymouth Again, 66 to 38

Trenton surprised with strength in Plymouth's strong departments, and the Rock trackmen suffered another setback, at Trenton, last Friday, 66 to 38. Kenneth Pankow was Plymouth's leading scorer in a meet that again was hampered by poor field conditions. Especially was this the case in the field events where the Plymouth performers were way off form. Pankow anchored the winning relay team and won two other events. The relay victory was awarded on a foul when Trenton's first man crossed so closely in front of MacGregor, Plymouth's No. 1 man, as to force him off the track and cause him to lose stride. The race was so close that Plymouth might have won anyway.

The meet also saw Thompson and Seyer lose their events for the first time this season in a dual affair. Thompson runs the 880 and Seyer the 440. Lory of Trenton won four events.

Plymouth entertains Wayne in a league meet Friday on the Plymouth field. Summaries of last Friday's meet: 100 YARDS—Won by K. Pankow (P); Kureth (T) 2; Simonetti (P) 3. Time—1:11.1. 120 HIGH HURDLES—Won by Lory (T); McDonald (T) 2; Johnson (P) 3. Time—1:17.9.

What to do with a German bill of 100,000 marks or how to figure out its actual worth over and above that of just a souvenir is bothering Miss Betty Curtis of the Michigan Bell Telephone company. The other day in a letter from Dennis Grimes, who has been in Germany with the Ninth army, since that outfit crashed over the Rhine, to Miss Curtis there was enclosed the German bill.

Fat Collection Takes a Drop

"You can't get much grease out of hot dogs" explained Mrs. Robert Merriam, chairman of the Plymouth war munitions grease collecting committee, when explaining yesterday the big drop in the amount of grease collected in this city for war purposes. The total for the month of April was only 1728 pounds, a drop of 236 pounds from the previous month. But the reason Plymouth is not right up in top place where it has been since the war started is due entirely to the meat shortage. There has been but little meat on the market in this city for weeks.

No Burglaries Since April 23

The burglary wave in Plymouth and vicinity appears definitely to have been checked by the efficient work of the Plymouth Police department under the leadership of Chief Lee R. Sackett. No burglaries have been reported since April 23. The five youthful burglars who were placed on probation for breaking and entering the Cloverdale Farms Dairy store, in Northville, have been picked up again in connection with two gasoline station robberies in New Hudson, which occurred prior to their probation. They were picked up by Plymouth police for the state police as a result of fingerprints taken here by Capt. Carl Grendel. Then the culprits were picked up in the Northville case. The prints talked with these found at the scenes of the New Hudson jobs.

Officers whose alert work aided greatly in solving these crimes were: Patrolmen Lou Westphal, Gerald Prince, Ed Brown and Lawton Williams. The interests of childhood and youth are the interests of mankind.—Janes.

Science Lecture Heard by Many

The world is turning to God because of the dismal failure of material ways and means to solve the problems of human existence, and is finding a demonstrable understanding of the healing power taught by Christ Jesus, Herbert W. Beck, C.S.B., of San Francisco, said in a public lecture on Christian Science here last night.

Mr. Beck, a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, spoke in the Plymouth high school auditorium Monday evening under the auspices of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Plymouth. A large audience was present.

"God is divine love, infinite good," the lecturer declared in opening the presentation of his theme, "Christian Science: The Revelation of the Omnipotence of Good." "Christian Science reveals to us that good is the only power; the only action; and it gives life to all its ideas. God is good, not but as good itself. Hence good is God. Seen in this light, good is the true antidote for evil and its mesmeric pretensions.

"Love true, spiritual good, and you worship God. Expect good for God, good, is ever present. Give to Him all of your allegiance, all of your thought, all of your expectancy. Then you will be able to demonstrate that good is the only real power in the universe."

Explaining the basic teaching of Christian Science, that whatever is unlike God cannot be real, but is shadowy illusion, Mr. Beck used motion pictures as an example.

"The picture," he said, "is made of lights and shadows; there is no reality to it, no man, woman, child, or building — just lights and shadows. Yet we are uplifted or debased; we laugh or we weep over the sense of reality that we put into those lights and shadows. Consequently we must observe carefully the lights and shadows which mortal mind would project upon the screen of our consciousness, reject the false, and let our living reflect God's glory."

"Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, realized the omnipotence of good. She was a deeply religious woman, and when she was lying at the portals of death, the Bible was the book to which she naturally turned for comfort. Reading it with an exalted expectancy, she received her healing from an injury. This healing was a miracle to her friends, but the revealed power responsible for the healing was to Mrs. Eddy a discovery which has since placed her in the forefront of the emancipators of mankind."

"Mrs. Eddy placed prayer very high in her experience. She prayed three times a day that God's kingdom come on earth; that good be found and lived by mankind. "Christian Science is a healing, sustaining power for the young man in our armed forces, in whatever branch he may be. "Let us awake to our true sonship and express the glory of the begotten of the Father."

Salute to American Mothers
They are the unsung heroines of this War. True it takes all kinds of people to win a war, soldiers and sailors and businessmen, farmers, laborers, wives and sweethearts . . . and MOTHERS. Mothers because they are part of the force behind the fighting force . . . because they wait for the peace that will send their sons home to them . . . and because while they wait, they work. Theirs is the important job of morale . . . of keeping intact the American home. For today, as in other wars, the home remains the port of happiness and safety to which men turn first when the War is won.

Card of Thanks. We wish to thank Rev. Sanders, the Odd Fellows, the employees of the Wayne County Training School, the ladies of the Methodist church, neighbors and friends for the many kindnesses shown us during the passing of our dear husband and father. Mrs. Mary Passage Mr. and Mrs. Glenmore Passage Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Gray

Without the vast resources which God gave... our rapid armament would have been impossible. And the outcome of the Japanese still is to be decided.

"But victory presents us with a great obligation: Not only to go on to final victory—that is only incidental to God's real purpose. The real solution is worldwide missions prosecuted with fiery zeal — I will be exalted among the heathen."

"Our victory song: A confession of our faith the world over — The Lord of Hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our Refuge."

Plymouth Prays

(Continued from Page 1) "Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen; I will be exalted in the Earth."

Rev. Sanborn read the scripture in the combined services. Rev. Walch delivered the message on the subject, "We Remember Before Thee," Rev. Tetu led the Litany of Intercession, and Rev. Sanders spoke on, "We Dedicate Ourselves to Thee."

Rev. Walch spoke of those who gave their lives and those who have lost loved ones as uppermost in memories. He also suggested we remember our own sins and the sins of those who refuse to be penitent, including the German people and their rulers.

"The ocean of human miseries is so deep that its depths are unfathomable by anything we can do," Rev. Walch asserted. "It goes beyond the power of human understanding."

"The only way this debt could be paid with the coin of any minting is through our love and understanding and through the realization of the reality of the Cross as a contemporary force in human events."

"However, in making the peace, we must not let our hearts affect our heads too much. There can be no soft peace until the barbarian Nazis and Japs have been re-educated as human beings."

Rev. Sanders said that "We must here now dedicate ourselves to build a new world... We must build on God, God as moral Law. We must renew our loyalty to God. Too frequently men have forgotten Him."

"In the midst of prosperity they have belittled the need for God... If we sow mercilessness, we reap mercilessness; if we sow injustice, we reap injustice."

"Democracy demands that the moral law be heeded. It is evident to everyone that democracy has been weakened from within because of disobedience to the moral law."

"Faith, if it is really faith, holds firm not in good times only, but when darkness overshadows the earth. God has spoken in times past. He has spoken also in these last days by his son, by whom also he will build a new world."

Rev. Hoenecke told his congregation: "This terrible war was permitted to come upon us by the Lord to humble us to an acknowledgment of our neglect of Him and His word."

"In this connection, a part of the job is still before us—Japan. Some of the heathen fanaticism and brutal ferocity must be charged to our account."

"Having opened the door to Japan in 1853, we largely exploited this land commercially, teaching them the use of our industrial power without prosecuting missions with zeal."

"Now God has given us victory... Let no man say our strategy and the valor of our arms alone have gotten us this glorious triumph."

HOW DEEP WILL YOU DIG in the MIGHTY 7th WAR LOAN? THIS YEAR, the 7th War Loan has to raise just about as much as was raised by two loans up to this time last year. You can see in the picture above one reason why... why that boy and millions like him must continue to have every advantage money will buy to do the job and get home again. War bond money buys food, clothing, weapons and ammunition. War bond money buys medical supplies and convalescent care. War bond money helps bring him home faster. That much for your conscience... That much for your pocket: $4 for every $3 invested, at maturity; guaranteed security—the same security that backs the dollars you put into the bonds; the world's best investment.

ELECTRO-MECHANICAL BRAIN... Do you know that your electric bill is figured entirely by an "electro-mechanical brain," with no human computations entering into it? Little holes punched in a card furnish the "brain" all the information needed for preparing your bill—such as your account number, class of service, present and previous meter readings, etc. From the time our meter reader marks your reading on a card, the "electro-mechanical brain" takes over... subtracting, multiplying, adding, checking and printing your bill. The chances of human error are almost entirely eliminated. Next time you receive your Edison bill, notice the little perforations: they are the "key" to this automatic billing.

NO SUGAR NEEDED... Try this sugar-saving dessert from our Home Service Department:

Honey Custard Pie

- 1 unbaked pie shell
- 2 1/2 cups milk
- 1/2 cup honey
- 3 eggs
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. vanilla

Nutmeg

Beat eggs until light and foamy. Add honey, milk, salt and vanilla. Pour into unbaked pie shell and sprinkle with nutmeg. Bake for 30 minutes in a preheated, 425° F. oven.

QUEER OIL... Detroit Edison takes extraordinary precautions to insure the dependability of its electric service. Stand-by facilities are maintained for use in emergencies; switch and transformer units, transmission lines and other facilities are duplicated; every effort is made to anticipate and prevent power interruptions. But these safeguards can be nullified by FIRE—a constant and great menace in modern power plants and substations because of the large quantities of oil used. A novel and ingenious sprinkler system has therefore been developed to combat oil fires—which are particularly stubborn. The underlying principle is to bombard the oil with a water spray of sufficient velocity to form an oil-in-water emulsion... and the emulsified oil is incapable of burning!

KITCHEN CRAFT... Sift flour onto a sheet of waxed paper or a paper towel. You'll have one less bowl to wash.

Weddings

Lorenz-Gunsell.

Miss Marilyn Leasia Gunsell of Northville, and Petty Officer Ralph Douglas Lorenz AEM 2/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Lorenz of this city, whose engagement was announced last November, were married at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, May 2, in the Central Congregational church in Providence, Rhode Island. The Rev. Arthur Bradford, D.D., performed the double ring ceremony by candlelight.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gunsell, of Northville, was given in marriage by her mother. Marilyn wore a street length dress of black silk crepe with a yellow daisy pattern, and matching hat having a shadow lace brim. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds and white sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served at the Sheraton Hotel in Providence. A four-tiered wedding cake graced the center of the table.

The young couple are at present living in Apponaug, Rhode Island near the Quonset Point base where Douglas has been stationed since returning to the states from service in Cuba and Trinidad, South America.

Mrs. Lorenz, mother of the bridegroom was also in attendance at the ceremony.

Mose-Hubbard.

The wedding of Gertrude Hubbard, daughter of Mrs. Mary K. Hillmer, and Ernest Mose, of Detroit, took place Tuesday afternoon, May 8, in the parlors of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Henry J. Waich performed the ceremony in the presence of 30 relatives and friends from Detroit, Lansing, Ann Arbor, Northville, Wayne and Plymouth.

The bride wore a costume of pink and black with matching hat and gloves. Her shoulder corsage was of orchids, and daisies. The couple were unattended.

Miss Henrietta Vincent, a teacher in the Detroit Conservatory of Music, played the piano during the reception which followed the ceremony. A three-tiered cake in pink and white centered the table at which the bride's daughters, Barbara and Gretchen, served the guests.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Mose entertained 160 guests at a reception in the crystal ballroom of the Fort Shelby hotel in Detroit.

They are spending their honeymoon in Toronto, Canada. On their return they will reside in Detroit. The bridegroom is the proprietor of the Art Sewing company in Detroit and the bride is supervisor of three floors in the Crowley-Milner store.

New Cloverdale Team Organized

The Plymouth Cloverdale team opens the season in the inter-county league at Riverside Park, Sunday, May 13th. They will be opposed by McClures service of Ypsilanti.

The Plymouth Cloverdale team formerly known as the Plymouth Merchants and the Schrader-Haggerty's, were champs back in 1941. Warren Bassett is the manager and has signed some of the former players. Some of them are 'Howdie' Schryer, who still annoys the pitcher with his antics, H. Williams, Jim Williams and 'Ken' DeBozy, who is still pitching good ball.

In an exhibition game at Cass Benton last Sunday they bested DeRoys of Redford by a score of 10 to 5.

Support your home team and have a 100 per cent turn-out Sunday. The game starts at 3 o'clock sharp at Riverside Park.

SGT. EDWARD FORNWALD
FIRST COMMENDATION
FOR MERITORIOUS WORK.

An Eighth Air Force Fighter Station — Sergeant Edward J. Fornwald of Plymouth, who has completed a year of service overseas with the 361st P-51 Mustang Fighter Group, has been commended by his group commander for his meritorious work during the year.

The 28-year-old soldier, a medic at the Eighth Air Force station, is the son of Lawrence Fornwald of 397 Pacific street, Plymouth.

DICK NEALE WRITES
FROM SOMEWHERE OUT
IN CENTRAL PACIFIC.

Corporal Richard Neale has found time to write a brief note to "Our Boys" from somewhere out in the Central Pacific. Dick says in part:

"I guess I'm pretty slow in writing but lately I've been doing quite a bit of moving and haven't had a chance to get a permanent address. I've now been assigned to the 3rd Marine division so this address should hold good for a while.

"I'm attached to the Weapons Company of the 21st regiment as a radio operator and at the present time we're in training.

"I left the states in the early part of January and was surprised to find Chuck Phillips another Plymouth boy aboard the same ship.

"I want to thank you for the paper. It's really swell to be able to read about the old home town and what the rest of the Plymouth boys are doing."

LIEUT. COYLE HELPS TO BLOW IMPORTANT
BRIDGE TO PIECES.

With the 340th B-25 Bomb Group in the Mediterranean theater—Manning the controls of a B-25 Mitchell bomber as his unit the 340th medium bomb group, ranged up to Austria to blast a rail bridge, 2nd Lt. James A. Coyle, Plymouth pilot, contributed to the success of his group's 800th combat mission. Photos revealed the bridge, at Muhldorf just northwest of Villach on the Austro-Italian frontier, received direct hits.

Mrs. Helen E. Coyle, Lieutenant Coyle's wife, lives at 2537 Oakview road, Plymouth.

The 800th mission of the Plymouth pilot's group was flown two years after it began operations in Tunisia in mid-March, 1943. Part of the "busiest medium bombardment wing in the Army Air forces," the 340th group flew its last 500 missions in less than a year's time, battering German railroad communications throughout Italy to France on the west, Yugoslavia on the east and Austria in the north.

With other 12th Air Force bombers and fighter-bombers it is continuing its campaign to cut the German supply line over the Brenner pass railway in northern Italy.

MEETS OLD FRIEND FROM HOME TOWN DOWN IN TEXAS.

In a brief letter from Marvin Mepfans, from down in Texas, he tells of a pleasant surprise a few days ago in meeting Malcolm MacGregor, an old friend from Plymouth. His letter follows:

"I wish to inform you that I am now located at a new station. My new base takes me down to Corpus Christi, Texas, where I am stationed at a hospital.

"Corpus is a small town, in fact much smaller than San Diego where I was last stationed. Liberty is not very good as there isn't much to do. There are only two service centers which have very little going.

"My work at present is helping to care for patients in Ward 3 of the sick officers quarters. There we are chiefly concerned with the diets of patients, some are on special diets and others are on regular diets. We prepare and serve the meals. I will be here for three weeks at the most. How much longer depends on the drafts needed for overseas.

"Last week Saturday, I was glad to see Malcolm MacGregor who was located on Ward Island, not far from my base, as an A.R.T. He now has graduated and is on way home for nine or ten days' leave. It sure was swell to see somebody from home.

"I have not as yet received a Mail since my arrival here but I presume they will be forwarded to me from my old base. In sending the ones in the future I think they will get to me faster if you will send them directly to this station.

"Thanks again for sending The Mail. I would be lost without it."

WOUNDED BY SHELL FIRE. SGT. GEORGE GONYOU IS RECOVERING.

Wounded in the right leg by shell fire while advancing through Germany in a tank, Sergeant George H. Gonyou, 23, of Goffredson road, Plymouth is now convalescing at the 186th General hospital of the United States army in England.

ENSIGN WILLIAM MCALLISTER HELPING TO BOMB TOKYO.

Readers of "Our Boys" column will be especially interested in the following excerpts of letters sent recently by Ensign William McAllister, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McAllister of Northville road, in which he tells of the numerous bombings of Tokyo. He has been doing his share to help blow the Japs off the earth. He is a fighter pilot and flies a Hellcat.

The letters were written between March 18 and April 13 and they contain a pretty good history of all that has been happening around Japan during that period. They follow:

Mar. 18—Well we're at sea again after being at a rest camp in port for 10 days and now are again hitting the Japs pretty regularly. Had a hot time today and tomorrow is promising. They finally gave us the OK to talk on the Tokyo deal. I see you surmised that I was there. It's something I'll never forget—the weather was terrible; the clouds

News of Our Boys

being almost on the water. Just taking off and joining together was a hazardous job. I went in on the first strike in the early morning. By some miracle we all got together in the dark safely and proceeded to the target. Believe me, I had an empty feeling in my stomach all the way there. We finally broke out of the overcast, just as we hit the Jap coast and there stood Tokyo and Mt. Fujiama what a sight that was. Right then my neck was on a swivel looking for Jap fighters that may be getting on my tail. Our target was two airfields on the coast but before getting there we spotted another and immediately dove on it and gave them the works. I spotted a train going hell bent for election down the tracks, I dove and fired two rockets and missed. I could have made another pass and blown it to h... but our primary target was aircraft so I concentrated on straffing planes on the ground. I exploded several of them and also blew up an oil tank. I could not help but laugh to myself—there I was at 400 knots just raising hell and having the time of my life. After using up our ammunition we all returned to our carrier without a scratch. I've been on several other raids since that, now it's old stuff. Just thought I'd tell you about that one in particular.

Mar. 28—Today I flew 3 1/2 hrs. We've been getting up at 3:30 a.m. for a week now to fly and don't get through till 6 at night. You can follow me around all right just by the news in the papers. After hitting Tokyo we came down and helped the Marines at Iwo Jima, dive bombing and rocket firing on the dug-in Japs in foxholes and caves.

Mar. 31—Yes, Mom, you're absolutely right about my location etc. Things have really been hot and not just the weather. I finally shot down a couple of Japs. Ran on to them quite accidentally. Their opposition in the air is surprisingly weak but their attack is very good. Our operations are going as well as planned and it's sure good to be flying over their homeland. We have a meeting every night to plan the attack. We intend to drop a lot of fire bombs tomorrow. The Japs won't be suffering from cold around here by tomorrow noon. The bombs are dropped at a very high speed and low to the ground in a horizontal position. They make a burning path, destroying everything in a strip 300 ft. by 50 ft. It's really quite a sight to see a hundred of us fighters drop these in formation. We could burn a town the size of Plymouth in nothing less than 3 minutes. Sounds cruel doesn't it? But that is the best way to get the Japs out, as they can't stay in their holes when they are covered with flame. I'm still in the best of health. Hope all is well at home.

April 7—Yesterday we got word that many Jap planes were approaching our task force and to scramble all our fighters immediately—What happened will go down in history. Our pilots got 46 Jap planes—another carrier got 26 and another 59. When it was over there were 174 down in all.

Then today some Army pilot flying near Japan discovered what was left of the Jap fleet. The task force was ordered to get its planes into the air and I was lucky enough to go and I don't mind telling you I was plenty scared when we saw a large Jap battleship, 2 cruisers, 7 destroyers. You see, only one in ten Jap planes that attack our force get away, and as far as ack ack goes, the Japs are pretty sharp, so I figured there would be a few of us not returning. The cloud cover was in our favor and we knocked h... out of them.

I broke through the clouds right smack over their big battleship, going straight down, then figured it was too big for old "Pod" to tackle so I shifted my attack on a heavy cruiser and hit her with my rockets. To me, it was a great sight to see her burning. When we left they were in a bad way and we still haven't had the final results as we couldn't afford to stay to watch them sink as our gas supply is always the governing factor. Our losses were very light, which was the best part of all so I feel pretty good tonight. I've been recommended for a couple of medals but won't know if I'll get them for a month or so.

Apr. 12—Every now and then these Jap boys hit a carrier with a suicide plane and we have to get the planes off while the ship goes into port. I've seen a couple of these "Kamikazi" boys come pretty close but we managed to shoot them down in flames just before they struck.

I'm feeling fine with the exception of a stiff neck from so much lying, and am looking forward to tomorrow's mail call.

Apr. 13—I put in a pretty good day yesterday. Our division of four planes spotted four Jap dive bombers. They are pretty slow and it was no trouble at all to get them. Each one of us picked our own and sent him down in flames. I got on the tail of this one guy and he tried everything in the books to get away but my old Hellcat just stuck on his tail, and he finally went down burning like a match. I then spotted a single plane in the distance, not knowing if it was enemy, I waited quite a while before I radioed the rest of the boys. By that time I was closest to it and saw it was a Jap fighter. Well, I raced like mad. The division leader and I both got there at the same time and then began the wildest chase I ever hope to see again. The Jap's plane is smaller and lighter and can turn quicker than ours. He sure had us in a heck of a game for a while before we finally burned him. When he started to burn he turned directly at me trying to collide. He just barely missed me and for the first time I actually saw a Jap about 10 ft. away, burning to death. He had one arm out of his cockpit, just as if he were waving goodbye at me. He finally dove straight into the ocean and blew up. So I got credit for 1 1/2 planes yesterday which makes a total of 3 1/2 planes now.

Sure had a good meal tonight. Steak, mashed potatoes, peas, tomatoes, and peach pie. No milk though; had my last milk at Pearl Harbor in January. I'm in the best of health. Hope all is well at home.

Your New Home...

We present these plans hoping they will prove interesting and helpful to you in making plans for your future home. Please ask our assistance at any time. Complete working drawings are available for each house we illustrate.

WHAT COULD BE MORE PRACTICAL than this modern little house of five rooms, the plan of which has been well studied? The vestibule through which one enters the living room is a practical solution for colder climates, with a coat closet right handy. A large bay window floods the living room with light and sunshine; the placing of the fireplace at one side makes possible an ideal furniture grouping.

The kitchen is in close proximity to the garage, the basement and the entry, thus saving many steps.

Rather unusual are the high, continuous strip bedroom windows, which permit placing furniture below, as these windows are raised above the eye level of passers-by, with consequent privacy to the occupants.

The exterior treatment is particularly charming, using drop siding alternating with shiplap. Painted white, with gray colored roof, bright curtains at the windows and clever landscaping, this will be a home to be admired.

Plymouth Outshot by University High

Ann Arbor's University High golf squad won the match last week by 23 strokes. Bob Schwarz was the only Plymouth golfer to win his match, shooting 85. Howard Houghton had 103. For University, John Gehring was low with 83 strokes and Lee Roy Wassmund next with 87, winning by 18 strokes. The second match was closer. Ed Thorne and Bob Minock shot 111 and 112, respectively, while their opponents, Frank Blumenthal and Bob Pollock shot 107 and 111.

Several of Plymouth's best golfers such as Jim Noyes and Dick Groh are playing baseball and league rules forbid boys playing both sports.

The golfers will try again Friday when they journey to Ypsilanti to meet Central's team in a Suburban "B" League match.

The state tournament will be held at the University golf course at Ann Arbor, June 2, where 'A', 'B', 'C', and 'D' class schools will compete.

Sanders Tells Hi-Y Secret

Rev. Leonard Sanders talked to the Hi-Y last Wednesday noon on the subject of success. He put a figure on the blackboard showing the elements of success: thus, 'S'—study, 'U'—unity, 'C'—Christianity, 'C'—character, 'E'—education, 'S'—sacrifice, and 'S'—service.

He especially stressed Christianity and education as the two most important elements. As examples he cited the insane inhumanity of the German prison camps as a lack of Christianity and the Army-Navy tests which show a lack of education. He declared the great leaders of this country and of the world are firm believers in Christianity. A member contributed the fact that 95 per cent of juvenile police court cases are non-church goers. The speaker suggested in connection with this that the members should follow the San Francisco conference and discuss it. Bob Chute appointed Bill Bateman to lead the meeting in such a discussion next week.

Mr. Sanders closed his talk by saying that he hoped the boys would continue their good work for the Hi-Y.

The club will have a joint meeting with the Girl Reserves soon. Probable topic will be "Boy and Girl Relations."

Class News

Marion Wetsenmoe brought a cotton exhibit she acquired while in the South, to show her 7B clothing class members who are studying cotton. She and Doris McMullen, formerly from the South, described the different stages from the flower bud to the ball. They also explained how cotton was picked, and how the fields looked.

Mrs. Soule's 8A foods class is learning how to cook and serve vegetables. They also made various kinds of vegetable centerpieces.

The girls biology class is studying first aid which includes what to use in an emergency and how to treat wounds.

Homemaking I has been studying how to cook vegetables in order to retain their nutrient value.

No Cloth Wasted Say Girl Reserves
If you're wondering whether the clothes you have turned in for these clothing drives have been used economically, Miss Wrisley, Miss Bristah, Elaine Kunkel, Pat Woods, and Caroline Rolan are well equipped to answer your questions.
The Girl Reserves held a contest in which clothing was collected and taken to the American Friends association whose service room is located in one of the Merrill-Palmer schools in Detroit. From there clothing is sent to Philadelphia and then distributed to needy people in war torn countries of Europe. The representatives of the Girl Reserves discovered that not one scrap is wasted.

After each article is cleaned to prevent moths, each buttonhole is repaired, all linings repaired, all rips and tears sewed up. Everything which is sent to the association is used to the best advantage. If a coat is no longer wearable, a suit or jacket is made from it; when a shirt is beyond repair, a blouse is made from it. When cloth can't be used for anything else, it is made into balls for the children.
The American Friends association accepts gifts of money to be used in their work and all excess money is sent to feed children in Europe. Each week from 13 to 18 bundles weighing 30 pounds each are sent to Philadelphia.
To make the contest, called the Rabbit Race, carried on by the Girl Reserves more interesting, the club was divided into teams, the captains of which were Joan Miller, Pat Isbell, Pat Woods, Lois Hanson, Mary Agnes Evans.
The winning team was "Osar" whose captain was Pat Isbell. Members of her team were Helen Fisher, Velma Kainz, Caroline Rolan, Betty Schumacher, Jeanne Tuck, June Venus, Inez Daniels, Rosemary Guthrie, Beverly Hauk, and Betsy Ross.
The winning team was given a party in Riverside park by the other teams.

"I'm helping them get what Joe died for!"

Mike and Tony are too young to remember their father.
Joe died in Africa, at Kasserine Pass, in a battle that already seems long, long ago...
Died for his country—though Joe might have put it differently. What America meant to Joe was mostly Mike and Tony: the opportunity it meant for his kids.
A college education. A real start in the world, and freedom to grow in.
And they're going to have it!
I'm buying War Bonds—and keeping them.
They're the safest investment on earth.
In less than ten years now, I'll have four dollars for every three I put in. That's as good as a 33% pay raise! That money will go a long way to educate the kids, to establish them in life the way Joe wanted.
And it's comforting to know the money's there, if I need it—against any emergency that may come.
Joe did his part for our children. I'm going to do mine. I'm keeping my War Bonds—and buying as many new ones as I can.

What I Think

against the Haves.

Poor Poland had nothing to offer! This war lacked even the barbaric sweep of such scourges as Genghis Khan, Attila, Alaric. They pillaged savagely and ruthlessly but without venom.

This war was Freudian in its concept, motivated only by hate, which became an epidemic insanity; communicated at first to the few, then to a powerful minority, then to the mass.

The madness grew into an epoch, wherein even the free lands of peace, such as our own, became contaminated. There was no health in us.

Hitler and his aides plotted with fiendish ingenuity. It was the land that gave us one of the most tenderly beautiful words ever uttered by mortal lips, "Kindergarten" (Children's garden) the Nazis taught little babies to lisp:

"Wie schön ist Stahl! Wie schön ist Eisen." (How beautiful is steel. How beautiful is iron.)

And the refrain went on to exclaim, "How beautiful it is to see an enemy of the state burned at the stake of torture!"

Not the soul exalting little German-born songs that other generations were taught to sing, such as "Holy Night," but the defilement of torture at the stake for all the enemies of Hitler!

A generation of those children, brought up to hate their mothers and fathers, the church and all its teachings, became the mighty legion of the damned, who in conquering Europe soaked its soil with martyr's blood.

We see them at Lidice, that lovely little Czecho-Slovakian village where the monster Reinhardt Heydrich had been killed by an outraged citizen.

We see them, in reprisal, slaughtering every male adult, outraging the women and sending the living to torture and slavery.

The town was leveled to the ground and its name officially stricken from the records.

This story was not propaganda.

The Nazis, then in the zenith of their mad power, boasted over the radio of what they had done. And proclaimed that all others who opposed their will would be treated in the same manner.

And now we know, too, that the story of Lublin was not propaganda.

For the ghastly products of the Lublin murder factory, attested by reliable and accredited American war correspondents, form only one chapter of a crime so awful that it can never bear a name.

Horror upon unspeakable horror was disclosed by the advance of the Allied armies across Germany. Belsen, Buchenwald, Breendonk, Vught, Treblinka, Miesitz, Auschwitz, Chelmno and Heppenheim are place-names made forever infamous.

There, as in other centers of mass murder, by fire, starvation, shooting, gas asphyxiation, lynching, by devices fiendish beyond all imagining, the Nazis methodically obliterated their helpless captives.

One such murder camp might not be believed. The grisly evidence of dozens of them—with bodies and bones stacked like cordwood, with still-living hordes skeletonized by starvation and made imbecilic from torture—is incontrovertible proof of the German policy of systematic slaughter. The murder camps alone would make "Nazi" eternally synonymous with all that is monstrous, vile and bestial.

These are but flashes out of the cauldron of hell the Nazis made of Europe.

Not until the Day of Judgment can all their crimes be recorded. Too deep is the horror of it all, too wide and too vast ever to be completely comprehended on the one hand or ever, on the other, to be fully eradicated from the memory-stream of the human race.

But, why dwell on such things now on this day of all days when the lights of our world are being turned on again?

Japan remains—Japan, the Oriental counterpart of Nazi Germany's hideous evil and fantastic might. Japan must be beaten as utterly as the European enemy. Great trials face our fighting men, and sacrifice and suffering. We cannot fail them! Final military victory is not yet ours.

More than that, even after Japan is conquered, the real triumph will not have been won.

We of America can know no real victory until we have conquered our own souls and have driven hate from our hearts—that hate which has dominated our lives in this great free nation for a generation, that hate which has dominated our political and economic thinking, that hate of one for another, which brought on this war with all its Miltonian chaos, the very poison which Hitler brewed to conquer the world.

To the extent that we have hate in our hearts this day, to that degree are we disciples of this Lucifer incarnate.

Hate is like an insidious contagious disease. It feeds upon itself. In war we hate the enemy. But when the guns have ceased to roar, that hate does not leave us. We visit it upon each other.

This explains the rise of the bigotry-inspired Ku Klux Klan after the last war.

The demagogic politician, the wild-eyed radical, the blinker-wearing reactionary, the maladjusted, and the depraved glory in it.

And, so it is, that we will have lost the war if we have not learned its only real lesson for us: That hate and hate alone destroyed our civilization and left a whole generation a thing accursed.

One obscure house painter saw a hate-filled world and captivated upon it for the fulfillment of his demonic dreams. He could not have triumphed as he did if the whole world had not been sick with the poison of hate.

Unless we have learned that lesson our valiant dead shall have died in vain.

God made America the land of opportunity. He gathered His people from the four corners of the earth and placed them on this continent. Out of the amalgam came that figure unique of all time and place and history—THE AMERICAN!

It may be that God in His infinite wisdom set aside this continent through the aeons until man was ready to try the great experiment in free government in which we have led the world.

America has been the emblem of the high hopes and dreams of all the saints and sages down through the ages.

Today a crushed and broken world looks to us for guidance and inspiration.

Shall we fulfill our ordained destiny by being true to our ideals, or shall we cast aside the heritage of a Nation dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal? If the blind lead the blind both shall fall into the ditch.

We cannot establish democracy on a world scale until we have established democracy at home.

Democracy is not a thing of forms and rules, regulations and definitions. True democracy is a thing of the spirit.

It is the political, social and economic manifestation of the peace that Isaiah preached and the peace for which Jesus gave His life.

In its highest essence it is the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God.

Without it, in a world where time and space have been annihilated, the people perish.

We cry, peace, peace, when there is no peace—and there is no victory.

For we have not conquered ourselves.

At a cost beyond mortal computation in lives and treasure and agony, human liberty has been saved for us by the sacrifices made in this war.

Shall we lose that liberty again?

We will, unless there wells within us a moral and spiritual renaissance that we may once again glimpse the lost horizons of our destiny.

He who preaches racial or religious hate, he who calls for war of class against class, he who bears false witness against a fellow mortal, is following in the footsteps of Hitler.

Such men will destroy America even as Hitler made a shambles of Europe.

If we can learn that lesson in the meekness and humility of Him who went about doing good—then—victory will be ours.

Then the sacrifices of those who gave the last full measure of devotion shall be hallowed in our hearts.

They're giving their all... back them up with YOUR dollars!

AS THE battle lines approach the heart of the enemy's homeland, the fighting grows fiercer... and more costly in men, material, and money. That's one reason why every red-blooded American must back this mighty 7th War Loan with every dollar he can lay hands on. Another reason is that this is really two drives in one. In the same period last year, you were asked to invest in two war loans, as against one this time.

WARNING

To All Who Are Dependent On Furnace Heat for Next Winter.

Last year it seemed that everybody waited until the cold weather struck before giving their furnaces the attention they required. Our phone kept ringing with frantic last-minute calls for repairs and service; naturally, we were swamped with work, and many homes had to suffer the cold inconvenience of waiting their turn. If you wish to avoid this hardship, now is the time to have your heating system inspected. To delay simply means that you will have to take your chances on the scarcity of materials and manpower. It may be that your furnace needs only slight attention, something that we could take care of now in a matter of minutes—but which would require weeks to get at during the rush period. We want to give you the best possible service, no matter how big or small the job, and your cooperation in calling us now will be to your benefit. Don't let next winter catch you with your grates down!

Babson Says - -

Babson Park, Mass., May 11.—We shall be passing up vast opportunities for national advancement if we now fail to capitalize our recent lessons on how to educate. I mean the lessons which have been taught to us by the new techniques of training men and women for war.

Public School vs Military Training
It is true that civilian education is aimed at peaceful objectives. As commonly practiced, the most popular courses are the so-called "outside activities," although most of them are non-educational. I refer to jitter-bugging, juke-boxing and those graver pastimes which may not be immoral, but surely are a facsimile thereof. In military training, the purpose is "How to win and come back alive." Nevertheless, the two educations (civilian and military) can be alike in attitude, even if unlike in subject matter.

The famed super-speed and ultra-efficiency of military training are not to be explained by mere mechanical methods alone. Stroboscopic or slow-motion pictures, models in miniature, high-pressure coaching, pocket-size texts—these modern boosters are worthy of attention by every school committee. The inner difference, however, which puts Army and Navy training long miles ahead of our average public schools—is the superior build-up of educational attitude.

Raising the Mental Age
In the schooling of the armed forces, both trainees and trainees are consciously dealing in life or death. However immature in years, the servicemen are quick to feel the adult attitude of those who learn their lessons "under live ammunition." This "adult attitude," this precocity of maturity, is what makes military instruction click and tick. Our public schools should duplicate, in peacetime, this wartime attitude to raise the mental age.

When we extend the range of education to cover maturity, we automatically increase the power of education and tap its unexplored and undreamed possibilities. The surest way to raise the standard of living and true security is to raise the average "mental age" of the population. Hence, another way to raise this average mental age is to encourage adult education. This requires supplementing our present public school system with new adult educational systems.

School System Needs Reformation
Our school system in its juvenile branches offers alluring possibilities of reformation. Speaking bluntly, but realistically, most of today's schools—under the joint influence of hardheaded politicians, soft-headed sentimentalists and empty-headed parents—are a mess. That the school certificates of graduates are traditionally engrossed on the skin of the sheep seems grimly fitting when we look up the I.Q. of this self-regimented animal!

Yet, unfortunate is the fate of those of us who seek to reform the schools. The prospective controversy, resistance, obstruction and reaction are shocking to behold. The possibilities of reform are alluring, but the path of reform appalling. It may be better to leave the schoolmen to stew in their own juice for awhile longer and turn attention to development of adult education. But I will say more about Adult Education next week.

Importance of Adult Education.
In countless camps all over the world, it has been demonstrated that boys and girls became men and women most promptly and most surely when the mark of an educated man or woman is not a diploma but a dogtag. I foresee that my realism will shock the sentimentalists, but the statement stands.

Yes, the double failure of the antiquated public school system is that it results in delayed maturity of the virtues, while prompting precocity in the vices. If it is hopeless to reorganize the schools, there is high hope to organize Adult Education. It could, it might, it may become America's outstanding contribution to world security. Surely, we can educate for life as efficiently as we educate for death.

Brake Emphasis Program Shows Good Results

While most motorists in Plymouth and vicinity have good to excellent brakes, the brake-check program being conducted by the police shows that far too many drivers have a blind faith in brakes which can't stop in time, according to Chief of Police Lee R. Sackett.

During the first two weeks of the brake-check program, 59 cars have been checked by the police with seven cars failing to meet minimum requirements, or about 12 per cent.

Ten service stations and garages working in cooperation with the police in the drive reported 127 cars were overhauled, including adjustment, relining, brake drums, new and turned down. This is a 25 per cent increase in brake work over the first three months of the year. There also has been a 75 per cent increase in general repairs.

In April there were five accidents. Three failed to signal, one ignored a stop sign on a through highway and one made a wide right turn. This was a decrease of two accidents from the record of April 1944.

"While most motorists contacted by the police appreciate the urgency of conserving their cars, many do not seem to realize that their cars must not only last for the duration of the war but for two or three additional years," Chief Sackett said.

The brake-check is applied to cars involved in moving traffic violations and in accidents, also to cars operated in a manner indicating unsafe brakes.

"This is not a blanket check of all cars," Sackett said, "yet it is hoped all drivers will cooperate by having their brakes tested voluntarily at repair shops and fixed if necessary."

"Brakes usually lose their efficiency over a period of time. Since brakes lose their power gradually, many drivers do not realize how bad they really are."

The brake-check program is being conducted by the police of Plymouth as a part of the nationwide program of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

While the emphasis is on the urgency of having good brakes, it is hoped by police officers that the program will focus the attention of all drivers on car conservation.

25 Years Ago

News items of a quarter of a century ago taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail.

Roy Jewell and Carl Blaich have formed a partnership and have leased the plumbing and tinning business which has been conducted in connection with the Corner hardware store for many years. Both young men have had considerable experience in this kind of work and will without a doubt receive their share of the patronage in this line.

Plymouth is to have an athletic field in connection with the public schools, which has long been needed in this city. The ground will provide ample room for a baseball diamond, running track, football gridiron and tennis courts.

Prof. George A. Smith, superintendent of the Plymouth schools has been honored by Governor Sleeper in an appointment as a member of the Board of Control of the State Public School at Coldwater, Mich.

Born Monday, May 3 to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Scharrer of Northville a little daughter.

At a recent meeting of the State Homeopathic Medical association, a woman's auxiliary was organized. Mrs. Luther Peck was elected the vice president of the association.

R. W. Shingleton has purchased a lot of Wm. Gayde and 2 lots of Louis Hillmer on Stark street and expects to erect a business block on the site in the near future.

Virginia Park is the name of a new sub division in Plymouth that is just about to be placed on the market. It is located on Penniman avenue on what is known as the Shear property.

Land Mines Are Killing Many

"Many people in Italy are being killed by the land mines that were planted in the ground by the Germans when they retreated from that country. Many more are going to be killed or wounded by them," stated Sgt. Clarence R. Comer, who has been with the 5th army in Italy during the past year or so.

He is now enjoying a 21-day furlough with his wife, and other relatives and friends in this vicinity.

"They should compel the Germans to tramp over the fields and remove the mines they planted so if any one gets killed they should be the ones."

"Every once in a while before I left Italy you would hear of some Italian who had gone into a field to plant crops being killed by a land mine. In fact these mines will be killing people for years to come, because it will be impossible to find all of them," he said.

Sgt. Comer is not expecting to be sent back overseas immediately, but he does not know where he will be located when he returns to service.

HOW MUCH TO MOVE A WAR?

AS SOON as we can, we'll bring to bear on the Japs all the additional might we've been using against Germany.

What will it cost, this Moving Day of War? Estimate it in these terms: The job of moving millions of men from one front to another. Thousands of ships to carry the supplies of battle. Swarms of new-type aircraft to blast the path into enemy territory.

You can get an idea of the cost from the fact that Uncle Sam needs 7 billions from us in the mighty Seventh War Loan—now!

The Seventh War Loan will call for the greatest bond-buying we have ever done.

If you have an income—whether from work, land or capital—you have a quota in the 7th War Loan.
