Bomber Plant Makes Record

The Willow Run bomber plant is now beating its own bomber-an-hour record.

Ford officials today revealed that complete four-engined B-24s are rolling off the line regularly every 55 minutes of working time.

Just last week Willow Run's total production passed the 8,500 mark. Of this number more than 200 bombers—enough for three heavy bomber groups—were a surplus created by Willow Run's 20 months of ahead-of-schedule production.

"With the allocation of more materials and a little more manpower," a Ford official said, "we know that this plant could have turned out considerably more than our record of 462 bombers built during one month—March 1944."

The bomber plant's schedule was reduced drastically last month and production will cease not later than August, according to present plans.

A fire in the house trailer of the Thomas E. Currie Construction Co., located at Plymouth and Eccles roads, did little damage but brought out the department Monday noon.

Weddings

Albertson-Hix.

The Presbyterian church of Plymouth was the scene Friday evening, May 18, of the wedding of Miss Winnifred Hix, daughter of Mrs. Cady Hix, of Maben road, and John Albertson, son of Mrs. Mary Albertson of Ypsilanti. The ceremony uniting the young couple was read at 8 o'clock by candlelight. The Rev. Henry J. Walch read the service. Palms, lighted tapers and large vases of gladiolus and snapdragons in pink and white decorated the altar.

Preceding the marriage Mrs. Jerry Kelly of Wayne sang "Because" and following the double ring ceremony "Always."

The bride, given away by her uncle, Floyd Fulton, wore a candlelight satin gown with rose-pointe trim and made with long waisted bodice, a sweetheart neckline, and long sleeves with points extending over the hands. Her skirt was full with long train. The full length veil of net was held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Grace Wacker was maid-of-honor wearing a pale blue dress with bodice of lace and skirt of net. A lace cap held her matching shoulder length veil in place. Yellow roses formed her bouquet.

The bridesmaids, Uellen Mills and Norma Kruger, were gowned alike in yellow lace and net and carried pink roses.

Virgil Albertson attended his brother as best man and the ushers were Leeman and Leland Terwilliger of Ypsilanti.

Both the bride's and the bridegroom's mother were gowned in navy blue crepe, Mrs. Hix wearing rose accessories with corsage of pink roses and Mrs. Albertson blue and white accessories with corsage of pink and white carnations.

A reception followed later in the evening in the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hix on Warren road with 100 relatives and friends present.

Mr. and Mrs. Albertson spent the week-end at Dearborn Inn returning to their home on Maben road Sunday evening. For going away Mrs. Albertson chose a soft rose print dress with white accessories and blue wool coat.

Reamer-Adams.

Miss Wanda M. Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Adams of San Marcos, Texas, formerly of Northville, became the bride of Richard D. Reamer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Reamer of this city Saturday, May 12, at 8:00 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents in Texas.

Reverend J. Kelly Neal of the First Presbyterian church in San Marcos read the double ring ceremony. The mantel in the living room was banked with white gladiolus, lilies, and tapered candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore the traditional wedding gown with finger-rip veil which fell from a crown of bouquet of red roses and tulle.

Miss Marjorie Ellison of Martindale, Texas, was maid of honor wearing light blue and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. Pfc. William C. Gilbert of Savannah, Georgia, was best man.

Mrs. Adams, mother of the bride, chose a black and white dress, and wore a corsage of red roses and sweetpeas.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the Adams home. In the center of the table was placed a large wedding cake with miniature bride and groom. Pink rosebuds forming heart-shaped designs encircled the cake. Tapers were used to produce lighting effect which gave a soft romantic touch to the scene. Thirty guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Reamer left for San Antonio, Texas, for a wedding trip.

They will return to Michigan at a later date to make their home.

GREAT MILITARY PARADE STAGED ON V-E DAY IN TEXAS.

Private Martin J. Mepians in a letter from "way down in Texas" says that V-E day was a great event at Sheppard Field, where he is at present stationed. He writes as follows:
"Just a note from one of many fellows to thank you for The Plymouth Mail. You have no idea how much it helps to bring home and Plymouth closer to me down here in Texas. Every Tuesday I look forward to The Mail to see how my friends in high school are getting along."
"At the present time I am going through an advanced basic training program here at Sheppard Field. I was recently classified as a gunner aboard a B-29. The cadet training has been cancelled, due to the excess of pilots. It is hard to tell what will become of us, but there is some rumor that we may be classified as MP's over in Europe. Of course, until a plan is devised to take care of all these men, we will probably continue our basic at this field."
"On V-E day, Sheppard Field had the largest parade in the history of the field. Some 35,000 men took part in this parade which covered about three-fourths of the air field. The parade lasted about two hours and a band was there to supply music for the event."
"The weather is getting warmer day by day. The wind which continues to blow all day helps to keep the heat under control. The wind also keeps the sand (red dry clay) blowing into everything one owns."
"My brother Marvin, who is a Navy Corpsman, is stationed at Corpus Christi, Texas. He is about 100 miles from here but my pass won't let me go that far, so I cannot see him. Fred Bird from Plymouth is also stationed at this camp with me."
"Thanks again for the paper. I appreciate it very much."

"HE FINDS FLORIDA AN INTERESTING PLACE AND THE CLIMATE GOOD."
Andrew McCauley, better known to his Plymouth friends as "Sparkie," is now training down in Florida, having been transferred there from Oklahoma. He writes as follows:
"Hello there. Here are a few lines to say hello and that I hope all are faring well at home. I have been receiving The Mail regularly and I always look forward to getting it with great pleasure as it is my only link with Plymouth and the goings on there."
"I have looked far and wide for another Plymouth boy here but I guess there are none to be found. I was transferred here just as I met George Eads and Jim Precious from Plymouth at Norman, Oklahoma, so things are pretty lonely. This state has a wonderful climate and I have pulled liberties in both Miami and Palm Beach and had a swell time at both places. There are really a lot of bathing beauties down here."
"My work, or training, here is flying out over the ocean and making torpedo runs on ships with dummy torpedoes and using blank ammunition. The only excitement is when a plane cracks at sea of which there are two or three a week and sometimes a day. I have been in one crash myself when the engine failed and we were forced to hit the silk. But we were all rescued by a PT crash boat with no injuries except the radioman's broken arm where it hit the side of the plane when he bailed out."
"Well, I will close now, thanking you again for The Mail and the swell job you are doing for us boys in the service. Please note the change of address."

In all instances where our experience of the past has been extensive and uniform, our judgment as to the future amounts to moral certainty.—Beattie.

"When the urgent need for blood was announced, the steps and hallways of the hospital were soon crowded with officers and enlisted men, signalmen, mechanics, drivers, clerks, WACs, MPs — Americans 6000 mile from home, who still felt that they weren't doing enough."
Before nightfall, the hard-pressed Medics had planes loaded with 1,000 pints of whole blood for immediate transfusions.
Cpl. Perry is the nephew of Mrs. Fred Pinnow of 13273 Northville road, Plymouth. He was employed by the Belle Creamery prior to entering the service.

PLYMOUTH SOLDIER DONATES BLOOD FOR WOUNDED COMRADES.

Cpl. Joseph F. Perry of Plymouth, with the U. S. air command in Europe is one of the thousands of Air Technical service command soldiers in France donating his blood to help fellow GIs battling on the front lines a short distance away.
Cpl. Perry has followed US combat planes through two countries, with the job of helping to keep thousands of them in the air.
When the urgent need for blood was announced, the steps and hallways of the hospital were soon crowded with officers and enlisted men, signalmen, mechanics, drivers, clerks, WACs, MPs — Americans 6000 mile from home, who still felt that they weren't doing enough.

GIVEN ADVANCEMENT AFTER HE RETURNS TO SERVICE FROM LEAVE.

When ARM 3c Owen Gorton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Gorton, recently returned from leave of absence to his naval base, he was advised that he had been given a promotion to ARM 2c. He has been in the service for two years and six months, returning to the states from overseas some months ago. He is now stationed at Quonset Point, Rhode Island. He writes that he has seen Douglas Lorenz frequently.

SGT. LORNE ARCHER HAS BEEN DECORATED WITH AIR MEDAL.

Sergeant Lorne W. Archer, 26-year-old B-17 Flying Fortress tail gunner, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Archer, 335 Rose street, Plymouth, has been decorated with the air medal — for courage and high achievement in action while paving the way for Allied armies into the Reich with bombs. He was formerly employed at Parkview bowling alleys. He is now stationed in England.
Sgt. Archer serves with the veteran 390th bombardment group, crack eighth air force unit, which holds a war record for destruction of enemy aircraft by a lone group in a single engagement, having shot down 63 German fighters over Munster, Germany, on Oct. 10, 1943. The group has been cited by the President and shares in another presidential award for aiding in the third air division's epic shuttle attack on key Messerschmitt plants at Regensburg, Germany.

BRONZE STAR IS AWARDED TO PFC. JOSEPH ASHLEY.

Private First Class Joseph N. Ashley, of Plymouth, with the 134th Infantry, in Germany has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for heroic service near Marive, Belgium.
The citation accompanying the award reads:
"When the ammunition and pioneer platoon of his organization was given the mission of protecting the battalion left flank upon the Arlon-Bastogne highway, an enemy force of 50 men attacked the defending group which consisted of but 18 new, inexperienced men."
"Pfc. Ashley, an acting squad leader, while using his carbine with telling effect upon the enemy, shouted orders and words of encouragement to his squad, as a result of which, they acquitted themselves in the manner of veterans, and repelled the enemy attack."
Pfc. Ashley is the son of Mrs. Joseph N. Ashley, 3751-7 Horton Road, Plymouth.

HARRY MORGAN'S OUTFIT WINS HONORS OVER IN ENGLAND.

The 448th Sub-depot in England, with which Private First Class Harry E. Morgan, of Plymouth, serves as an aircraft mechanic, has become the first sub-depot in the European theatre of operations to win the newly-created Meritorious Service Unit plaque.
Awarded for "superior performance of duty in the accomplishment of exceptionally difficult tasks and achievements," the plaque marks the second major recognition accorded Pfc. Morgan's outfit in less than a year. Last fall the 448th took permanent possession of the divisional Stitt trophy for sub-depot proficiency, after winning the cup three times in seven months.
The new award entitles Morgan to wear a miniature cloth plaque on the sleeve of his service blouse. Pfc. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Morgan, of 38190 Warren, is married and has been in the army two years. With their young son, his wife lives at 678 Adams in Plymouth.
The sub-depot to which Morgan is assigned has been overseas 22 months servicing and supplying B-17 Flying Fortresses of the 381st bombardment group, one of the veteran units of first air division, cited for battle honors by the President.

MORRIS MCCONNELL HAS HAD OPPORTUNITY TO VISIT HOLY LANDS.

Word has been received from Morris L. McConnell, son of Lee C. McConnell, who is with the air transport command, that he is now stationed at Casablanca, French Morocco. He had been stationed previously at Payne Field in Cairo Egypt. This is near the huge pyramids. At the holidays he had a furlough to the Holy Lands and also to Alexandria on the Mediterranean. He left Cairo and arrived in Casablanca the same day, a distance of nearly 26 hundred miles. He states he is fine and just about 21 flying hours from the USA.

WOUNDED PLYMOUTH SOLDIER TELLS WHAT TO DO WITH HITLER.

There isn't much question what would happen to the German war mongers if J. Ronald Swegles, a wounded Plymouth soldier now in Gardiner General hospital in Chicago, had his way about it.
Writing from the hospital where he is a patient, he says:
"I'm writing to thank you for The Plymouth Mail. It is a swell paper and I'm very glad that you aren't afraid to write the truth, like some other papers near home. I think you will help the boys in the service to finish making this a good world to live in."
"I hope the news pictures they are showing in all cities of what happened to the American prisoners of war will make the people stop and think. I'm sure that the German prisoners of war are better fed than our own boys. They even laugh at the American boys in training because they have so much to do while the prisoners do as they please. We should treat our prisoners like they should be instead of like kings."
"I don't know what they are doing with Hitler's leaders but I hope they put them in some of the places and let them smell the bodies of the men they have killed; then finish them off. I feel sorry for very few German people. They asked for what they got and we have an awful job in teaching and helping other countries teach them what it is to live in peace."
"While overseas I learned that the Italian children have to be taught what is right, for all they are interested in is money, cigarettes and things they shouldn't know about yet."
"I would like to say hello to all my friends and hope they are home for good soon. I'm doing fine but am getting tired of hospitals. Thanks again."

PLYMOUTH SOLDIER HELPS TO BRIDGE RIVERS IN EUROPE.

Pfc. Gasper Noble, 44125 Ford road, is a member of a bridges and pontoon section that helped to bridge the Rhine and make possible the speedy victory in Europe.
The following interesting news item pertaining to the outfit that soldier Noble is serving with, has been sent to The Mail from the European war headquarters in Belgium:
"Knowing the urgent need for steel bridge sections and pontoons for the Rhine crossings by U. S. armies, soldiers and Belgian civilians of Engineer Depot E-319 in channel base section recently pushed their production rate up to 600 pounds of cargo handled per man hour, the highest in Europe."
"One shipment of 300 assault boats for the third army was handled in a single afternoon. In an..."

other instance, several trains of more than 50 freight cars were loaded for the front in less than 6 hours. In two months of operation, nearly 2,000 rail cars and 450 barges have been unloaded at the huge depot and more than 2300 freight wagons have been loaded for movement into Germany.

Headed by Lieutenant Colonel Milton C. Wright, of Knoxville, Tennessee, commander of the depot, the officers and enlisted men are working 7 days a week in two 12-hour shifts. Their achievements were recently recognized by Major General C. B. Moore, chief engineer of the European theater of operations, who said that a weekly record analysis indicated that "Depot E-159 handled more tons of supplies per man hour than any depot on the Continent."

"Brig. Gen. Fenton S. Jacobs, commander of Channel base section, joined in commending the depot, informing Col. Wright that he wished to add his "personal commendation for the untiring efforts and devotion to duty of all personnel under your command." Col. Wright informed his officers and enlisted men that the credit was theirs.

"Altogether, the depot has received, sorted and distributed more than 100,000 tons of engineer supplies in its first two months.

"Everyone in this depot—officer, soldier or civilian—knows the need for pontoons, bridges and assault boats on the Rhine," Col. Wright said. "That's why we are moving supplies through this depot in a hurry, and we'll keep on moving fast."

FORMER WILLOUGHBY EMPLOYE WITH FIGHTERS OVER IN ITALY.

Pfc. Clarence W. Smith, Jr., truck driver, son of Mrs. Annie Smith, 37355 Eight Mile road, is a member of the 403rd Anti-aircraft Artillery Gun Battalion, whose 90-millimeter weapons, firing with precision a range of ten miles, were knocking out German targets in Italy's Po valley before peace came.

A versatile, pioneering outfit, the 403rd has brought down eight German planes on the Fifth army front near Bologna this winter, but its chief role has been one of field artillery.

Firing on a German truck in the Po Valley, the 403rd sent a shell that burst directly above the vehicle, ten miles away. The truck was destroyed. Another shell burst 30 yards above a farmhouse full of German troops. Another exploded 15 yards in the air, directly over the heads of a group of Jerry soldiers. Credited with more than 550 days in combat, the battalion has fired 115,000 rounds in the Italian campaign alone.

Before entering the armed forces, Clarence was employed at the Willoughby shoe store. He also attended the Plymouth schools.

HAZEL WESSELLING NOW AT HOSPITAL DOWN IN TEXAS.

Hazel Leon Wesseling, 709 Pine street, Plymouth, a member of the Women's Army Corps recently left first WAC training center at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, for technical training at William Beaumont General Hospital, El Paso, Texas. Upon completion of this special training she will be assigned to duty in one of the army general hospitals.

In announcing the successful completion of the WAC hospital recruiting program, General of the Army George C. Marshall, Chief of Staff, U. S. Army, states that the response to the army's urgent need for trained hospital personnel has been gratifying. Virtually all women enlisted in the WAC since February 1 have chosen and met the requirements for hospital service.

Demand for Wacs is expected to continue heaviest in the fields of administrative and hospital work, but additional numbers will be required from time to time in virtually all branches of

ENSIGN DONALD REH BACK FROM PACIFIC WITH THE AIR MEDAL.

Ensign Donald E. Reh, U.S.N.R., of 1251 West Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth has returned from the Pacific where he flew with the famous navy air group 80 in twenty combat missions against the Japs.

Ensign Reh's squadron, known as "The Vipers," holds the record for one day's destruction of enemy planes in the air by any carrier-based air group—71 Jap planes shot down in the first day of the Tokyo raid.

Flying a navy Hellcat fighter, he strafed and bombed enemy positions, radar stations, shipping and troop concentrations on Luzon, Formosa, Iwo Jima and in the China Sea.

The 21-year-old naval flier, son of F. Earl Reh of Plymouth, has been awarded the air medal for his action with "The Vipers." Now on leave, Ensign Reh will soon resume his flying duty. The fighters, dive bombers, and torpedo bombers of air group 80, led by Lieutenant Commander A. O. Vorse, Jr., U.S.N., of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, shot down 183 planes and damaged 50 others in the air. In addition, they destroyed 80 and damaged 174 on the ground. Thirty-five Jap ships were blasted to the bottom, 25 probably were sunk and 68 damaged. These results were not accomplished without a price, and air group 80 lost 17 pilots and 14 aircrewmen listed as killed or missing in action.

SGT. BILL WOOD HAS BEEN FLYING OVER LAND OF THE JAPS.

An interesting note from Sgt. Bill Wood, gives the first news about his flights over the land of Japan. Sgt. Bill writes:

"Wish to inform you of the change of address so The Plymouth Mail can be sent here. We are somewhere in the Marianas. No complaints because it is pretty nice here.

"They are keeping us pretty busy. So far our crew has put in three missions. One mission sure takes in plenty of work. Our ground crew really keeps our plane in commission. The plane has been named "DoDo's Rival, Miss Led."

"I've seen Mt. Fujiyama and it is really beautiful. The conditions at which I saw it weren't any too good. The Japs play a little rough when you go over their homeland. Their fighters and flak start appearing. From the papers you can see we are giving them

"Haven't had The Mail for quite a while but moving such a distance takes time for it to catch up. Wish to say hello to all my friends. Thanks a lot for The Mail."

HE'S NOW TRAINING WITH TANK OUTFIT OUT IN CALIFORNIA.

"No doubt this will be quite a surprise to you to be hearing from me again after so long a period but I had to drop a line and let you know my new change of address. I'm still in California but not at the same base. I'm now down at the boat basin at Camp Pendleton which is just outside of Oceanside, California, writes staff Sergeant Roger McClain.

"I got transferred from aviation to line company duty now and it is a lot different. I'm going to specialize in tanks now. I started to school last week and so far it isn't too bad. The liberty is swell because we get a 48 hour pass every 10 days and overseas men get every night on to that.

"I suppose some of my buddies have been wondering why I have not written but I have misplaced their addresses so tell them to write again and I'll do better next time. I have sure missed getting The Plymouth Mail and hope to start getting it again soon.

Talking About The Weather

Such weather! Not in the memory of man has Plymouth and vicinity ever been given such a variety of severe weather as it has experienced during the present month of May. First there were killing frosts almost nightly for a week or more. Ice froze on water left in pails and pans outside one early May night.

Want to Farm? What to Read

(By E. B. Hill, Farm Management Department, Michigan State College.)
Persons who are interested in getting started in farming after the war need information. The following is a typical letter to Michigan State College and is from Willis... now in the U. S. Coast Guard service. "I have been reading U.S.D.A. Farmers Bulletin No. 1961 'Getting Started in Farming,' and therein it refers to various state agencies where agricultural information may be obtained. Thus I am writing to you for information. My intentions, after the war, are to purchase a small farm. With this farm I intend to make a living and a home for my family. The type of farming I intend to participate in is truck gardening, fruit, flowers under glass, and poultry."

WARNING

To All Who Are Dependent On Furnace Heat for Next Winter.

Last year it seemed that everybody waited until the cold weather struck before giving their furnaces the attention they required. Our phone kept ringing with frantic last-minute calls for repairs and service; naturally, we were swamped with work, and many homes had to suffer the cold inconvenience of waiting their turn. If you wish to avoid this hardship, now is the time to have your heating system inspected. To delay simply means that you will have to take your chances on the scarcity of materials and manpower. It may be that your furnace needs only slight attention, something that we could take care of now in a matter of minutes—but which would require weeks to get at during the rush period. We want to give you the best possible service, no matter how big or small the job, and your cooperation in calling us now will be to your benefit. Don't let next winter catch you with your grates down!

In the first World War, a spy in London used a method of sending his messages to Germany that deceived the British censors for two years. He got a job in the pressroom of an old and respectable magazine whose masthead, a drawing of a swarm of bees around a hive, was so familiar that apparently no one had looked at it for a long time. So the spy used it to convey his code messages by rearranging the bees in a new drawing every week. Finally, he gave himself away by adding several extra bees in India ink on the one copy he mailed to Switzerland, and they were so prominent that a censor spotted them at once.

Babson Park Mass., May 25.—There can be no question about it, we—in our day—have arrived at one of the great crises of history. The closest approach to present-day conditions is probably to be found in the Roman Empire of Jesus' time. There were many differences, of course, but also some startling similarities.

Let's Look at History

As in the world we have known, wealth was then, in general, the key to power. When the Roman Empire broke up under the blows of barbarian invasions, civil wars, political corruption, depressions and inflations, great wealth was destroyed and ceased to be the key to power. Power was seized by chieftains—vigorous and dominating—who ruled by military might, but pretended to protect their peoples. Business fell into what we may properly call a drastic permanent depression.

This new way of life shook down into the feudal system. In the feudal period, power was based on control of the land and the serfs who worked it. And for centuries thereafter real power was organized around the hereditary, land-holding aristocracies of Europe. There continued to be an aristocracy, but it was a very different one from the prosperous Roman days.

The discovery of America and of silver and gold which flowed from the mines of Mexico and Peru, plus the reopened trade with the East Indies, upset this feudal system. An economic and industrial revolution, with its political counterpart, the French Revolution, followed. This undermined the power of the landed aristocracy everywhere. Private enterprise, private capital, industrial and mechanical achievement again opened the field of economic opportunity to the individual. Again the accumulation of wealth became the road to power. Our country grew up and attained its outstanding position in the world under this system.

Freedom or Security?

First formulated by Marx, socialist economy came to flower in the Russian Revolution following World War I. The essence of it is the exchange of freedom for a government-promised social security. Sad to say, too many people in this country seem to prefer an artificial security even at the cost of freedom.

This social revolution has already engulfed most of Europe and is hammering at our gates. It has already, under the title of the "New Deal," greatly modified our economic system. The realities of power have already in large measure, passed from the wealthy families and efficient industrialists into the hands of politicians, bureaucrats and labor leaders.

Beware Another Depression

Yet, the powerful New Deal wave which started in 1932 is now receding—although some of the new controls will stick. Private enterprise and private capital are to have another trial. The next few years should be reasonably prosperous in spite of the big national debt. But if another depression comes, then look out for trouble.

Money may then no longer be the high road to power. The young man who wants to get into the struggle for power should perhaps consider politics or become a labor leader. It will be well to have military experience. Those who seek security first should become experts in some one line and depend upon civil service. Small business ventures may provide economic freedom, but not too much security. The failure rate is high. The professions offer positions of honor and public service and the law is a gateway into politics. Farming offers perhaps the largest measure of security and freedom combined, but no financial reward. All of these—even agriculture—now require specialized education.

Read Good Books

Finally, I want to put in a strong word for the reading of history, economics and philosophy—or let us call it frankly "religion." I recommend this not as means of making a living, but of LIVING. Such reading will give you a better understanding of what is going on in the world and one's proper relation to God and man.

The Glory of the Sea is the finest and rarest of all sea shells. Less than 25 specimens are known to exist, and all were found more than a century ago.

Probably no country equals the United States in the number of towns having peculiar names. For example, among the hundreds are: Battiest, Okla.; Dames Quarter, Md.; Frostproof, Fla.; Nine Times, S. C.; Smoky Ordinary, Va.; and Whoopflarea, Ky.
