Temporary Ban on Canning Sugar Is Removed

The two-week ban on issuance of canning sugar was lifted Monday by the OPA.

The temporary ban had followed a welter of rulings and charges out of Washington of "chiseling" in applications for the canning sugar.

William Wood, local OPA chairman, quoted Birkett L. Williams, regional OPA administrator, at Cleveland, as having said "This drastic action has been made necessary because so many people applied for canning sugar in areas where fruit is not available now."

Sugar certificates already issued for June were not affected, Wood said. Word from Detroit headquarters, Wood added, is that, while reserve supplies are small, there will be plenty of sugar when fruit for canning becomes plentiful in Michigan markets. There is no need for alarm.

The supply in the market is adequate to meet all outstanding certificates, he asserted. Even before the regional office had ordered sugar frozen, local officials had been instructed from the Detroit office to issue only two-thirds of the canning sugar applied for by housewives.

The "unwarranted" grains on stocks threatened to divert sugar from regions having earlier canning seasons than the five-state area that includes Michigan, officials said.

The amount of sugar to be issued for canning will be five pounds per person to everyone needing it for canning.

"All district and board quotas heretofore established have been withdrawn," Williams' statement said.

The freeze order followed launching in Washington by Price Administrator Chester Bowles of a program designed to end what he termed a home canning "sugar racket developing in some parts of the country."

He said the plan was aimed at "chiseling" falsifying their applications to get sugar they know they won't use in canning." He inferred that the sugar was being used for bootleg liquor.

Ray Bachelder, chief ration board clerk, said he knew of no "chiseling" in the Plymouth area.

"We've only issued a very little canning sugar," he said. "I don't think there is such a thing (chiseling) going on out here."

"You know, this is quite a canning district and we will be needing sugar very soon for such items as rhubarb, pineapple and strawberries.

"We have had more applications for May and June this year than last year. I believe this is due to the many cancellations last year, however. They're trying to get their sugar right away."

The new program, as announced in Washington:

1. Everyone applying for home canning sugar must hereafter sign a pledge to use the sugar only for canning and to surrender coupons for that left over.
2. OPA local boards in areas where fruit and vegetable crops are not now available for home canning will suspend issuance of ration stamps for this purpose until the canning season starts in these areas.
3. Issuance also will be suspended in many other areas to give local boards a breathing spell, so they can process more carefully the applications on file.
4. A special staff of OPA investigators will undertake a "vigorous campaign" against the diversion of home canning sugar to bootleg liquor or illicit bottling of drinks.

The tightening of sugar distribution followed a boost in the ration point value of canned tomatoes to 40 points, up 10, while a can of spinach of the same size will require 20 instead of 10 points. Spinach in No. 2 1/2 cans also will be up 10 points to 30.

Ten points will buy two cans of tomato juice or vegetable juice combinations in containers through size 2 1/2. But the current value of 10 points a can will continue for single purchases. In 48 ounce containers both kinds of

No Potatoes On Sale in Plymouth

In this land of plenty and in this part of Michigan where potatoes have been nothing more than mere spuds since Plymouth Corners was first settled—potatoes have become a rare sight in Plymouth.

Housewives hunted the stores this week in vain, looking for just a few cooking potatoes.

Farmers have been busy answering telephone calls from their friends and acquaintances asking them if they have any potatoes for sale.

But there are none to be had.

Why?

Ask the boys down in Washington who have some crazy notions about "planned economy."

Maybe they can tell you—no one else can.

One farmer when asked about the situation the other day, said that if they didn't stop bungling this crop growing business, the people of this country will actually go hungry by the end of another year.

"In fact the situation is so bad at the present time, I am not so sure but what there will be some empty stomachs before next spring" he added.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Harry Devo had the pleasure of entertaining ten members of the Detroit Parent-Teachers association, mostly from the Brady school, at cooperative luncheon. On Friday she was also a luncheon hostess to ten guests.

Thanks A Lot

I leave Plymouth with regret, but with the joy and satisfaction of knowing that I have made many real friends, and what is more cherished than real friends?

It is difficult to leave such fine people as Plymouth is so bountifully blessed with, but other important factors make it necessary.

It goes without saying that I know Mr. Wendell Lent who will continue to operate the store of Davis and Lent will appreciate your continued patronage and serve you as we have in the past, to the best of his ability.

THANKS FOR EVERYTHING

PLYMOUTH LADS FIGHT WITH TEXAS DIVISION TROOPS.

From the headquarters of the 6th army group in Germany came a news article to The Plymouth Mail which revealed the fact that two boys from this part of Wayne county are members of the famous Texas division which landed first on German soil. Sgt. Russell D. Webb, 10478 Laurel Rd., and Gordon A. Banks, a former employe of the Wayne County Training school, Michigan boys, are members of the First 36th Texas Division troops on German soil. These doughboys of the 41st Infantry Regiment, in 10 days battered the Wehrmacht from strong positions along the Moser River through the Siegfried Line.

Engaged in bitter house-to-house fighting in the town of Hagenau, the U. S. Seventh Army infantrymen broke out from a small bridgehead across the Moser, clashed with German rear-guard and finally knocked out 35 pillboxes and forts in cutting through the Siegfried Line. The doughboys, commanded by Col. Charles H. Owens of Wallace, Idaho, have left landmarks to a defeated Reich from Salerno, Italy, to the Rhine in Germany in 353 days of conflict with the enemy. Among the most veteran infantrymen in General Jacob L. Dovers' 6th Army Group, they captured more than 6,000 Germans in France alone. Several Nazi leaders were added to their bag in Austria.

They were the first Americans to assault now-crumbled Fortress Europe with the Salerno landings and later fought in the Rapido River's famous "Battle of Guts" below Cassino. The mountain city of Vietri fell to them when they took part in the spectacular 36th Division infiltration maneuver that opened the gates to Rome.

Spearheading a beach landing in Southern France, they struck north to aid in the destruction of the German 19th army near Montclair. Other battles included rugged warfare in the Vosges Mountains the defense of Colmar passes, and combat against Germans encamped in Maginot Line fortresses near Bitche.

SENDS JAP MONEY USED IN GUINEA.

Andrew McCauley, better known to his friends in Plymouth as "Sparkie," has sent to the editor of "Our Boys" page some Jap money used as invasion money in New Guinea.

"Sparkie" writes as follows: "Hello again. Here's some more bad news for you. I am being shipped out again and the scuttlebutt has it as being soon. So I would appreciate it if you would delay sending the Mail until I reach my new base. That way it will enable me to receive The Mail sooner than if Naval P.O.'s kicked it around for a couple of weeks. I should receive last week's edition tomorrow and this letter should reach you in time to kill my slug.

"I am enclosing some currency, Japanese occupation money for the Dutch, which the Japs used quite liberally at Dutch held New Guinea. A crewman lost it to me in a crap game and I thought that perhaps you might like it as a souvenir. I will close abruptly thanking you for the service you are doing us fellows by sending the Mail to us."

A modernistic swimming pool, tennis courts, gymnasium, golf course, and many other recreational facilities are available to the patients and hospital personnel. RAYMOND NAULT AT GREAT LAKES STATION.

Raymond H. Nault, 28, husband of Mrs. Stella M. Nault, 14810 Merriman road, is receiving his initial Naval indoctrination at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois.

His recruit training consists of instruction in seamanship, military drill and general Naval procedure. During this period a series of aptitude tests will be taken by the recruit to determine whether he will be assigned to a Naval Service School, to a shore station or to immediate duty at sea.

When his recruit training is completed, the seaman will receive a period of leave.

SAM VIRGO SERVES NOW AS INSTRUCTOR.

Samuel W. Virgo, 22, gunner's mate, second class, of Plymouth, is an instructor at the PT training center, Melville, R. I., after 17 months of action board a motor-torpedo boat in the Pacific. He participated in two major engagements.

Who rises from prayer a better man, his prayer is answered. — George Meredith.

The flame throwers used by American soldiers were recently made more deadly and safer to operate by the adoption of a jelled gasoline, which is prepared on the battlefield by stirring a powder into ordinary motor fuel. As this jelly produces a cohesive stream of fire instead of a billowing flame, it not only sticks to and ignites anything that will burn, but it can be shot through small openings, such as the narrow slits of tanks and pillboxes, at a distance of 60 yards.

The shifting systems of false religion are continually changing their places; but the gospel of Christ is the same forever.

Remember, whatever warrant you have for praying, you have the same warrant to believe your prayers will be answered.—J. Phillips.

The divinity of St. John's Gospel brings to view overwhelming tides of revelation, and its spirit is baptismal; he chronicles this teaching. A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another.

The prayer that begins with trustfulness, and passes on into waiting, will always end in thankfulness, triumph, and praise.—A. Maclaren.

Sell The Culls Not the Flock

Sell the culls, but don't sell the farm poultry flock.
That's the plea of J. M. Moore, extension poultryman at Michigan State College, who is fearful of developments resulting from attractive prices being offered for chickens because of the meat shortage.
Sales of entire farm flocks are building up to an egg shortage that may take place in a month or more, Mr. Moore declares. He stresses that it just isn't good business to sell hens that are laying and will continue to lay during summer and fall, even though high offers are made by buyers.

Lincoln Plant To Go On Five Day Schedule

Cutbacks in the production of tank engines is expected to place the Ford Motor company's Lincoln plant on a five-day week operating schedule.
Ford officials said employment would not be affected. The Lincoln plant is the only Ford unit now on a six-day schedule.
The June output of low-silhouette GAF type engines, used in the General Pershing tanks, and the GAA type, which power the General Sherman tanks, has been reduced by 200 engines.
Officials said production of the engines now on order will keep the plant busy through March 1, 1946, on a five-day week working schedule.

Tonight Is Big Night at Races

Tonight and tomorrow night, (this and Saturday evening), will be the big nights of the present week in racing at the Northville Downs.
The brilliant program which has attracted the leading pacers and trotters of the United States and Canada is billed as the Michigan Pacing Derby and the Northville Downs Trot, both carrying purses of $6,600. Post time each night will be the same as any other evening—8:30 p.m.

The Northville Trot Derby has attracted a field of 34 horses and will be contested June 29, while the Pacing Derby set for the following evening boasts a record-breaking field of 40.
Michigan owned horses are very much in the running in both stakes with probably Lady F Spencer, owned by Perry Williams of Birmingham ruling favorite in the Northville Trot.

Lady Spencer will be driven by Pat Harvey, top driver of the meet and War Bond prize winner during the first two weeks of the summer meeting which ends July 4.

Another outstanding Michigan owned trotter accorded an excellent chance is President Elect, owned by Beaman and Munn of Jackson, who already has three victories to his credit in this meet. Donnie Miller, another top driver here will be up on the Jackson speedster.

Among top out-state trotters will be Sergeant Murphy owned by R. Parker Whiting of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Modern Boy, owned by James O. McVey of Hutchinson, Kansas.

Robert Frances of Pontiac, who purchased Bonny Cash a few days ago from C. D. Brook of Muncie, Indiana, will start in the $6,600 Northville Downs Pacing Derby on Saturday evening June 30 and is accorded a good chance.

He will have the favored Doctor Brodie owned by Saunders Mills Inc., of Toledo, The Count, owned by J. W. Brown of New Liskeard, Ont., 1944 Canadian pacing champ, Morate, owned by Glen Ingram of Hastings, Michigan, as chief rivals.

Many Victory Gardens Planted

While not an accurate check has been made, it is believed that Plymouth has as many if not more victory gardens this year than last.

Nearly every vacant lot in the city available for planting purposes is now growing much needed food for this fall and winter.

E. I. Besemer, county farm agent, has issued a few hints for late planters. They follow:
If you haven't planted those late potatoes, this is the time to do it. Cut chunky rather than wedge shaped seed pieces and to reduce seed-borne diseases treat them before planting in Semesan Bel.

It is time to make that second sowing of sweet corn and green beans. Plant 20 feet of row of beans and 40 feet of sweet corn for each member of your family.

To keep cutworms from girdling tomato plants place a paper collar around the stem of each plant. A 3 by 5 inch filing card will do. Roll it around the stem with the bottom of the roll extending two inches below ground and 1 inch extending above.

Lima beans, soy beans and pole beans can be planted now. If planted before the soil warms up, many of the seeds will rot. Plant about 50 feet of row of limas, and 25 feet of soy beans for each member of your family. The amount of pole beans to be planted will depend on how many green beans you plant.

If you sowed seeds of squash, melons and cucumbers in strawberry boxes or plant hands inside they can be planted out now. Just knock the bottom out of the box and set it down in the soil instead of disturbing the roots. These plants will produce earlier fruit for you. Seeds of these crops can also be sown now.

Fool-proof packaging of war material manufactured in Michigan is the objective of a special team of air crops personnel which completed its training in Detroit. Rough handling of crates may result in unloading under fire may result in sealed packages being broken, thus exposing the contents to salt spray, dirt, sand or rain. Quantities of goods must be stored out of doors, often in damp jungles. Certain fungi attach to glass and metal surfaces, sometimes etching an optical lens such as a camera has so as to render it useless. Proper packaging before shipment from the factory results in an even greater percentage of equipment reaching advance bases intact. Lumber for wood crates is cut throughout Michigan and box manufacturers are located in many cities.

Report Broken Street Lights

IN COOPERATION WITH the national conservation program to save as much electricity as possible, we have discontinued for the present the testing of street lights in daytime. This means that lamps burned out or broken will not be discovered, perhaps, until all street lights go on at dusk.

But the manpower shortage and other necessary wartime restrictions have decreased the frequency of our patrols. We must therefore call upon all civic-minded, patriotic citizens to phone us when they notice a street light out of order.

Adequate street lighting protects you, your children, your auto, the place where you live; it helps prevent crime, expedites the movement of workers, troops, war materials.

REPORT BROKEN STREET LIGHTS to any Edison office or to the police. Your cooperation will help prevent motor accidents and robberies.

Wood Tells How To Get More Gas

William Wood, chairman of the Plymouth rationing board yesterday gave details of changes affecting the eligibility of several groups of persons for gasoline rations. They are as follows: 1. Servicemen returning to this country from overseas, who are issued temporary duty orders for "Rehabilitation, Recuperation and Recovery" may obtain furlough gasoline rations. These servicemen should apply to their local war price and rationing boards and present both their temporary duty orders and the mileage rationing record (OPA R-534) for the car that they are going to use. Previously, the ration was given only when servicemen on leave or furlough for three days or more presented leave or furlough papers. The furlough ration, which will remain unchanged, provides one gallon of gasoline each day of the furlough, leave, or temporary duty, to a maximum of 30 gallons. 2. Because growing crops damaged by hail or wind must be inspected promptly for maximum salvage, adequate gasoline rations will be provided insurance adjusters to make trips to farms for this purpose. Formerly, semi-preferred mileage, which is limited to 825 miles per month, was permitted for damaged crops. 3. Prepared rationing cards will be issued to buyers for essential plants who have to travel long distances to buy cattle, sheep, pulpwood, rice and similar items processed at the plants. Local boards will give the preferred mileage rations to buyers for such essential establishments as packing plants, feedlots, canneries or processing plants, under the following conditions: (1) Applicants must be skilled in grading and classifying the products they buy. (2) The industry's marketing practices or conditions, such as unavailability of public markets, must require buyers to travel long distances. Heretofore, these buyers were limited to semi-preferred mileage. In many cases this ceiling of 825 miles per month, which will remain unchanged when the regular "B" ceiling is raised to 650 miles a month June 15, does not provide sufficient gasoline for essential travel by these buyers. 4. The eligibility of social workers for preferred mileage is limited by the provision that only full time social workers who are both employed and paid by a nonprofit organization may be issued preferred mileage rations.

Says River Trip Is Country's Best

"It is one of the greatest trips a man can take in any part of the country" stated Robert Jolliffe the other day after Mr. and Mrs. Jolliffe returned from a river trip to New Orleans. They left from Cincinnati, went down the Ohio to the Mississippi, and down the Mississippi to New Orleans, returning the same way. "If any one desires a quiet, peaceful way to take a vacation, I know of no better way to secure it than by taking this trip. But don't get too excited about it. It is necessary to make your bookings a year ahead of time, as the boat is all booked up for this year," he said. The steamer makes several stops along the way, enabling the passengers to visit interesting and historic places in the various cities along the river banks.

Edison to Build Farm Lines E. J. German, district agent of the Detroit Edison company states that the company has requested and expects to receive approval from the Michigan Public Service commission of a new ruling which permits the company to build farm line extensions at its own expense with the customer paying only a nominal minimum monthly bill instead of contributing part of the cost of the line. Under the new ruling there will be no construction charge for any farm line extension of reasonable length. The farmer will be asked to pay only a minimum net amount of $2.25 a month for three years after the service is connected. For this amount the company will render all its usual electric service, including the use of 54 kilowatt-hours per month. Electricity will be sold to these new farm customers at the same rate which is paid by all other Edison residence and farm customers. The commission has indicated that the petition will be granted. Practically all farm line extensions by Detroit Edison will be on the new basis as soon as the request has been formally approved by the commission. Commenting on this action Mr. German of the Detroit Edison said: "For many years The Detroit Edison company has been working toward the desirable goal of completing its rural distribution system so that practically every farm in our 7,600 square miles of territory will have electric service available to it. The company now serves some 34,000 farmers and its distribution lines pass 1700 additional farms whose tenants can have electricity whenever they choose to take it. There remains about 2,100 farms or only five per cent, still to be reached in order to make service available to all of them. "Until recently, wartime restrictions have curtailed the company's program of farm line building but the War production board has just given us permission to go ahead. It may be quite a problem to get the necessary men and materials as quickly as we wish. However, we are anxious to complete the job which will require the construction of about 800 miles of line and may take several years to accomplish completely. Some of these new lines are needed to reinforce our rural electrical system by closing long dead ends into loops and installing to maintain better voltage on many of the present farm circuits. We are delighted that the commis-

Some Tips on Ways to Make Fish Sauce That Is Really Good

When hubby goes fishing next week and when he returns home with a nice catch of bass or bluegills, if you want to fix them up in some other way than just plain fried, here are a few tips as to what to do.

Miss Helen A. Baeder, assistant professor of foods and nutrition at Michigan State college says nothing is quite so monotonous as fish served "plain" day in and day out.

A tomato sauce, an egg sauce, a horseradish sauce or a cheese sauce will completely change the appeal of an ordinary fried or broiled fish. For the tomato sauce, cook a small chopped onion and a tablespoon of green pepper in a tablespoon of fat until tender but not brown. Add a tablespoon of flour, 1 1/2 cups tomatoes and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Simmer 10 minutes; strain if desired.

The other three sauces are based on a cream sauce of 1 1/2 tablespoons shortening, 1 1/2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt and a few grains of pepper. Melt the fat in a double boiler, blend in the flour and add the milk gradually. Stir until thickened and add the seasoning.

For the egg variation, add 2 sliced hard-cooked eggs to the cream sauce. Cheese sauce requires the addition of 1/2 cup of grated cheese, cooked in the sauce until melted. For real zest, try adding 2 tablespoons grated horseradish which has been drained from its vinegar.

An onion sauce, especially good with herring, is made by frying one medium sliced onion in 3 tablespoons fat until yellow. After fish have been fried in onion and fat removed, add 1 cup top milk to the onions and stir. To serve, pour sauce over fish.

A sauce to spread on fillet before broiling consists of 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 tablespoons chili sauce, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon lemon per serving.

If fish is still served only occasionally, the favorite standbys, tartar sauce or lemon juice may be preferred. But to wake up lagging appetites, any one of the above sauces should add the necessary tangy flavor.

Sgt. Major and Mrs. Howard Sharpley are spending a few days with the soldier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sharpley of So. ANOTHER CHORE FOR MILLIONS OF FARM BOYS

This official U. S. Navy photograph of American boys landing under enemy fire on a Pacific island is typical of the hard, bloody jobs our troops are doing—and will have to continue to do for many weary months to come—for you and for all Americans.

Give them a hand—
BUY TWICE AS MANY BONDS IN THE MIGHTY 7th WAR LOAN!

The time is ripe.

It's now—now when America can't afford to falter... NOW is the time for you to back up our fighting men by buying twice as many War Bonds in this mighty 7th War Loan as you ever did before!

Does that seem like too much of a chore? Would you rather wait until crops are in and you have more cash?

You wouldn't, if you could see how urgent it is to act now.

Up to this time last year there had been two war loans. This year, the 7th War Loan must raise almost as much as two loans last year. That's why you are asked: Buy twice as many Bonds in this mighty 7th War Loan!

Regardless of what has happened in Germany, we must still send our millions of men in Europe tons and more tons of supplies daily.

In the Pacific we still haven't gone all-out against Japan. We must build new, deadlier, more costly planes... harder-hitting tanks... new warships... and more of everything than ever before, if we are not to let our boys down just when they need our help the most.

And we, all of us, have a new responsibility... to the thousands of our wounded. We must see to it that they get the best of care, the best of medicines, the best of everything through the long, pain-filled months of their recovery.

All this takes money. That is why your country is again asking you to lend your dollars by buying twice as many Bonds as you ever did before!

War Bonds pay off in these 7 ways...

- 1 The same Government security backs your War Bonds as backs the actual dollars you put into them.
- 2 You get $100 at maturity for every $75 loaned now.
- 3 You can get your money back, 60 days after issue date, any time you need it... in the meantime you get safety and steady growth.
- 4 You have a backlog to renew farm buildings and equipment after the war.
- 5 Bonds will insure your children's schooling, or provide for your own security, travel, retirement.
- 6 Bonds go into a national nest egg that will help to assure post-war prosperity.
- 7 Bonds transform your love of home and country into action... you join personally in the biggest, most urgent War Loan of all—the Seventh!

Babson Says - -

Washington, D. C., June 22. - The past week I have been trying to make an intelligent forecast of the prospects for reduced Federal taxes after Japan collapses, which should be within six months. This is a summary of my conclusions.

Excess Profits Taxes
The average investor little realizes what tremendous sums corporations are penalized by excess profits taxes. In many cases these taxes amount to more than investors receive in dividends; in fact, some times double or perhaps triple. If these were suddenly eliminated, after Japan collapses, some companies could double or triple their dividends. Yet in all probability this will not happen, especially if company earnings fall off materially.

Normal Taxation
Normal corporation taxes before the war were 20 per cent. Then they were jacked up to 40 per cent at which they are at present. My feeling is that there will be a compromise at 30 per cent and perhaps stabilization at this figure for some time. This would be a fair thing to do if the excess profits taxes are eliminated. These excess profits taxes are what are causing the trouble and may be a real factor in causing unemployment. Congressmen should insist that these excess profits taxes be eliminated as soon as possible with a fair compromise on normal taxes.

Political Considerations
President Truman is an honest man. Furthermore, he is thrifty and sincerely hopes to balance the budget before he runs again for office in 1948. He can so balance the budget only by keeping up taxation. Hence, I am not as optimistic as some of my friends in believing that there will be radical tax reductions after Japan collapses. "We should hope for the best, but prepare for the worst."

At least this is my conclusion at the present time. The only possible exception is in the case of corporations whose stock at market prices represents actual cash invested. There may be exemptions to the extent that the book values of corporations and the actual cash invested are represented in the assets. Finally, let it be remembered that although President Truman is both honest and thrifty, he has been well-trained in the school of politics. Although he may turn neither to the right nor to the left, yet he may perform that acrobatic feat which the tight-rope walker with the long pole performs at the circus. Instead of following any one pressure group or ignoring any other one pressure group, he will throw a few crumbs to each pressure group. THIS MEANS WHEN IT COMES TO TAXES THAT ALL FORMS OF TAXES - EXCESS PROFITS, NORMAL CORPORATION, INDIVIDUAL AND SO-CALLED "NUISANCE TAXES" - MAY ALL BE REDUCED PROPORTIONATELY "GIVING EVERY DOG A LITTLE BITE."

Postwar Heating on New System

Mother-in-law won't be able to complain of chilling drafts "that keep my ankles so cold" when the family moves into one of the hundreds of thousands of newly-designed homes to be built after the war.
According to Practical Builder Magazine, heating engineers have developed panel heating for homes to the point where rooms will be spacious, low-temperature radiators in themselves, eliminating entirely the discomfort caused by drafts, cold walls and windows.
In panel heating systems, water pipes are located either in the floors, walls or ceilings, and hot water is circulated through them to provide even, comfortable temperature.
Another system of heating in new homes will see the elimination of the "on and off" type of heating now in use. This system maintains a constant temperature in the rooms at all times.

The furnace is controlled automatically, but it is constantly in operation with a system of valves, automatically controlled regulating the heat that is allowed to come up into the house.
Still another system is zone control heating, in which one section of the house may be kept at one temperature while another section is kept at a higher or lower temperature, as desired.
For example, the living room area might be kept at 70 degrees with the bedroom wings at 65 or 68 degrees, depending upon the occupant's desires.
Improvements in forced warm air and hot water heating will further insure greater comfort in post-war homes.

In a television broadcast today, the moving images are picked up by a postcard-size metal plate in the camera, containing 315,000 "electric eyes," which transmit their own individual charges of electricity so fast that they are transformed into 30 complete pictures a second on the screen of a receiver. Thus, a televised scene requires the transmission of 10,450,000 signals a second.

A 9 1/2 pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bassett Monday.

The Girls' Clover Leaf canning club held their first meeting and demonstration at the home of Mrs. S. W. Spicer Friday night. Each girl canned one quart of some product under the direction of the home demonstration agent.

Brake Program Is A Success

The Nationwide Brake Emphasis Program, from April 15 to June 1, showed good results, both in Plymouth and the State, Police Chief Lee R. Sackett announced.

All local garages and service stations reported a big increase in brake work as a result of the program, some of them listing a 75 per cent jump in service of that category.

A total of 392 car-owners had their brakes re-aligned, adjusted or new brakes installed, according to figures compiled by Sackett. Of 110 autos stopped by the Plymouth police, 40 were given warning tickets.

Only 11 minor accidents were reported during the period and of the 22 cars involved, only two had faulty brakes.

Thirteen drivers paid fines totaling $72 during the same period for various traffic violations. Only four failed to appear in court and warrants will be issued for these, Sackett said.

State figures for April showed that only 67 persons were killed in traffic as compared with 82 for the same month in 1944.

There were only 5,204 accidents of all kinds reported in the State during April as compared to 5,605 April, 1944.

"I think the drive served a very good purpose in making people conscious of the importance of good brakes," Sackett said.

"That consciousness should go a long way toward decreasing the number of accidents in the future with a consequent saving of lives, limb and property."
