Noel Hover Visits Arthur Robinson

Arthur E. Robinson, radioman third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Robinson, of 49601 Powell road, Plymouth, has written home that he encountered a buddy, Noel Hover. Both boys are Plymouthites and in the Navy.

Arthur wrote that while on the bridge of his ship, the U.S.S. Leo he was looking about Tokyo Bay with a telescope. Suddenly he saw the U.S.S. Antietam. He knew Noel was aboard that ship.

He rushed to his commanding officer and secured permission to visit the Antietam. He was sent over in a special boat by command of the skipper and given four hours leave.

Arthur waited until Noel came up from chow and then tapped him on the shoulder. He wrote that never did two sailors have such a jubilant four hours as they did gabbing about Plymouth and exchanging news from home.

They talked lots about the way Plymouth people celebrated V-J Day. Arthur wrote. He also wrote that it was probably the happiest thing that had happened either to him or Noel since they entered the Navy.

Explains New Livestock Act

Dr. E. B. Cavell, Jr., Plymouth veterinary, is urging farmers in this area to become familiar with the new Bang's Disease law, listed as Public Act No. 290.

Dr. Cavell feels the law is very important to farmers and especially livestock dealers who buy and sell cattle.

The law provides that all cattle over 12 months of age that are sold or moved to associate with cattle of another herd must be accompanied with a certificate of record which shall be issued by the Commissioner of Agriculture, showing the animal to be negative to a Bang's disease test within 30 days. Or that the animal originated from a herd which was tested and the entire herd found negative within 90 days prior to such sale or movement.

The act provides that it shall not apply to steers or cattle being moved for immediate slaughter.

Nazarenes Get New Preacher

The Rev. William O. Welton, for the last seven years pastor of the Nazarene church at Hobart, Ind., has arrived in Plymouth to assume his duties as pastor of the Church of the Nazarene. He will preach his initial sermon here Sunday morning.

The new pastor will reside at 366 West Ann Arbor Trail. He is married and has four sons, Delbert, 15, and Dale, 11, who live at home will enter the Plymouth schools.

Assisting Mr. Welton will be his wife who for many years was very active in the district missionary society of the Nazarene church in Northern Indiana. Both will be a welcome addition to the religious circles of Plymouth.

Four years prior to coming to Plymouth, Mr. Welton was secretary of the Nazarene Church Examining Board for Northern Indiana and chairman of the Church School Board.

The coot or marsh bird is not a duck although it often feeds with the divers, is shot for a duck by the amateur, and is classed with the duck in the hunting laws.

GROWS PEACHES THAT MEASURE OVER 11 INCHES

Thanks to Sergeant Major H. Thomas, of the Salvation Army, the Mail is in receipt of three lovely and oversized peaches.

The tree weighs a total of one and three-quarters pounds. The largest measures 11 and three-quarters inches in girth. They are supposed to be Elbertas and were harvested from a four-year-old tree at 9034 Hix road.

Sergeant Major Thomas said his act in bringing the fruit to the Mail was prompted by a neighbor's remark that in Florida he had seen a peach that was 11 inches in girth.

Plymouth Scout- ing News

There seems to be a definite change in the Scouting out-look of late. The general air of apathy which seemed prevalent in this community a year ago seems to have been somewhat overcome and once again we are beginning to see some efforts towards home-cooperation in the homes of our young people.

This new attitude may be a direct reflection of the brighter side of living which we can begin to indulge in after these long and wearisome years of doubt and dread through which we have lately passed. No matter the reason it is high time that we turn our attentions to those who will soon enough become our own mentors and policy makers in things which we now control.

In this light we may well understand the reasons why we must go all in our power to inject right thoughts and right examples into these future projects of power and deeds—the youthful minds of Tomorrow's America.

Scouting is a powerful factor in this sphere of influence, as it is a direct means of providing the atmosphere of which we are disciples—strong characters and useful citizenships. It is this twain of Americanisms which have built our National background into the thing of democratic solidity now

The Lamp of Hope which shines across a befuddled world and lights the way for a countless host of less fortunate peoples who seek the warmth of our hearths and the light of our understanding. Please! If you are asked to serve—think this over.

All commissioners attention! There is to be a meeting of all District Seven commissioners at the Stark school on Friday evening, Sept. 21, 1945. The school is located at Stark and Line Pine roads, south of Plymouth road.

The agenda includes several important items which you cannot afford to miss in the interests of your duties.

You are urged to attend this meeting. Will see you there!

The Grange Hall in Plymouth was the scene of a Sponsors' dinner given to Troop P-2 by the ex-servicemen's club of this city on Tuesday, Sept. 11.

A fair attendance of parents and interested persons were on hand to witness the entertainment program which the Troop gave following the affair to show their appreciation for their sponsors' timely interest.

Scouts Edward Sawyer, Herbert Swanson and Patrick Kearney received their First Class recognition and Scout Hillis Cash was recognized in the Second Class ranks.

Other recognitions were awarded to several of the troop.

The next monthly paper pick-up will be held on Saturday, Sept. 29, 1945.

Please have paper at the curb if weather permits. This will help expedite the drive as we expect a large amount of paper this month due to the omission of last month's pick-up.

Here's to better Scouting.

The Livonia Community Camp-out held in the Burton woods, Five Mile and Farmington roads during this past week-end proved to be quite successful from the Scouting angle.

A council fire program was held on Saturday evening and competitive Scouting events based upon the diverse items of Scouting skills was held Sunday afternoon and drew quite a few interested adults of the community as spectators.

The Livonia Scouting leadership is to be highly congratulated for providing these activities for their Scouts and Scouters. It is only through actions permitting of practice that true advancements can be made in Scouting, hence we may readily see that theirs is a progressive program as befits the community's Scouting needs.

Due to ill health at the present time, Robert Carlson, Cubmaster of the Rosedale Gardens Cub Pack has been forced to turn over the active leadership of RG-1 to his Assistant CM, Olrich Lycka, of Merriman road. Knowing this man's interest in Cubbing and Scouting it is felt that Mr. Lycka will do full justice to his neighborhood and to the program Mr. Carlson has heretofore provided.

At the first meeting of Hi-Y, the day, Michigan won the game 27 to 2 against Great Lakes.

Jean Murray, Dale Bentley, Carolyn Sayre, and Ray Kurtz went to Ann Arbor last Saturday for the Michigan game.

Carolyn Sayre, Bill Moon, and Lt. and Mrs. Charles Clendenning Jr. went to Eastwood Gardens last Friday night.

LAM service club had its first meeting for the purpose of electing officers. Those elected were Marilyn Vershure, president; Mary Jane Christensen, vice president; Nan Gerst, secretary; and Jo Ann Delahunte, treasurer. The program for the year will include supervision of Lost and Found, helping in the Nurses Office, and serving in the Victory celebration. A program for noon-time recreation is also being considered by the club.

The Plymouth firemen were summoned Saturday afternoon to make a run to Amelia and Farmington roads where a fire was endangering adjacent property. The blaze was put out before any damage was done. One of the firemen racing down Plymouth road to answer the alarm almost collided with a car coming out of a side street.

On Way Home from Tokyo Bay

Linwood W. Dethloff, SK 3/c aboard the 28-year-old battleship U.S.S. Mississippi, has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dethloff, of 41011 Five Mile, that he is enroute home.

Linwood has been overseas several months on the grand old battleship. He was one of the proud Yank sailors who had the privilege of steaming into Tokyo Bay as part of Admiral Halsey's Third Fleet Occupation Force.

It was the second time a battleship bearing the name Mississippi had entered Tokyo Bay. The first ship of that name was in Commodore Perry's fleet that went to Japan to open its doors to world commerce.

Linwood's ship has played a big part in World War II, ranging from the icy waters of the North Atlantic to the sweltering Solomon Islands and even to the fog-bound Aleutian Islands in Alaskan waters. Despite her proud record and the pride with which Linwood must be filled to have been a crew member aboard her, he writes that it will be swell when they reach the United States and he heads for Plymouth.

With each license tag issued the City Clerk shall furnish a certificate showing a description and age of the dog, name and address of the owner, the fee paid and on which certificate shall appear a summary of this ordinance.

Young Farmers Win More Prizes

Plymouth was well represented last week at the annual State 4-H Club Show held at Michigan State College, East Lansing. Many high honors were won by able 4-H'ers from the community.

Gerald Salow's prize senior yearling Holstein brought him a blue ribbon in that particular division.

Robert Wagenschutz, exhibiting a calf in that class, placed 14th. The two-year-old Jersey heifer shown by Donald Korte took third place. In the same division the animal of Donald Vetal placed sixth.

In the Holstein County Herds, Wayne was awarded ninth place with animals owned by Gerald Salow and Robert Wagenschutz, and George Carpenter, of Wayne.

Plymouth contestants who won blue ribbons in the vegetable garden basket exhibits included Mary Martin, Donald Brinks, Shirley Hersh and Gloria Laginess.

Red ribbons for displays in that category were awarded Marie Duff Hoo, Edward Allen, Carol Schatz, Barbara Daniels, Inez Daniels and Jeanne Tuck.

Gerald Salow, Kenneth Pankow and Floyd Pankow, all exhibited beef steers and sold them at the auction where they brought well over the current market prices.

All in all, Plymouth contestants at the state show won the lion's share of ribbons, awards and cash prizes. Naturally all were very proud and it is fitting that the community should view their efforts with pride.

The 4-H youths of today are America's farmers of tomorrow. Encourage their efforts and you pave the way for their future. Because of their importance to the nation's welfare they should be saluted by this community.

The annual picnic of the General Electric Engineering society and families of Detroit will take place Saturday in Riverside park. Mr. and Mrs. George M. Chute and son, Bob, plan to attend.

Will Construct War Memorials

The Rosedale Gardens branch of the Michigan Division of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association is planning a living memorial in honor of the service men of World War II.

Ornamental seats will be built in the enclosures of the street gateways to Rosedale at the Plymouth road intersections. On each seat will be placed a small plaque and the space around each seat will be landscaped.

The present plan is to also place a seat at Hubbard, two at Berwick and one at Arden, all to be for the use of the general public.

Funds for the memorial will be raised by donations from the citizens of Rosedale Gardens.

Salvage 1,313 Pounds of Fat

Plymouthites really turned in the fat during August, according to the salvage chairman, Mrs. R. D. Merriam. In the 31 days they saved and turned in 1,313 pounds, or an average of 42.35 pounds a day. That is a record for several larger communities to show at.

It shows that people in Plymouth are not letting down just because the fighting is over. They realize the soap shortage is still something that strikes every home. Even if the salvage fat is not needed now for explosives, it is necessary in the manufacture of cleansing abrasives, soap chips, powder and cake soap.

Salvage fat is easy to save and nearly every home has an unlimited source. The few minutes necessary to drain the skillet or other cooking utensils is wisely spent and pays dividends in a big way.

Mrs. Merriam urges Plymouth housewives to continue their fine performance in the matter of saving and turning in the fat as soap factories are badly in need of it right now.

Instead of stopping with a mere 42 pounds plus per day she believes Plymouth is capable of saving 50 pounds per day.

Fund Committee Gives Report

"With the approach of the National War Chest and Plymouth Community Fund 1945-1946 drive for donations, the Plymouth Community Fund Board of Directors feels that the general public, and particularly those who contributed in 1944, should have a full account of the receipts, expenditures and future aims of the Plymouth Community Fund.

Last year at this time the Plymouth Community Fund was merely in the planning stage. It was not until the first annual meeting in January 1945 that the Board of Directors were elected. By agreement with the National War Chest, the funds collected in Plymouth in November 1944 were divided equally between the National War Chest and Plymouth's new-born Community Fund. The total receipts last year were $10,158.90 so Plymouth retained 50 per cent, or $5,079.45 for purely local use.

Soon after its induction into office the community fund board began interviewing agencies which were already established in Plymouth township for the purpose of determining whether or not those agencies were eligible for Community Fund aid. Several agencies which applied for financial aid were rejected because their work, however worthy, was not strictly COMMUNITY work but was national in character. According to the Articles of Incorporation of the Plymouth Community Fund, the funds MUST be used in Plymouth and Plymouth township.

The following agencies which applied for financial aid were found eligible by the Board: 1. Boy Scouts. 2. Girl Scouts. 3. The Youth Recreation Center. The Board did not undertake the total financing of any of these agencies, but, after reviewing their budgets in detail, voted the following amounts to their support:

To the Boy Scouts of Plymouth and Plymouth township (for local use) for the fiscal year January 1, 1945-December 31, 1945: $500.

To the Girl Scouts of Plymouth and Plymouth township (for local use) for the fiscal year January 1, 1945-December 31, 1945: $500.

To the Youth Recreation Center a sum not to exceed $35 per week for the salary of their Director, for the fiscal year October 1, 1945-September 30, 1946.

The checks for the Boy and Girl Scouts were given out immediately. The Youth Recreation Center had sufficient funds to last thru September 1945 so a maximum amount of $1,820 was earmarked for the Youth Recreation Center.

The financial statement of the Plymouth Community Fund as of September 10, 1945 is as follows:

Plymouth Community Fund share of the Nov. 1944 drive	$5,079.45
To Boy Scouts	$500.00
To Girl Scouts	$500.00
For Treasurers bond	$12.50
For Filing Fee and Franchise	$15.00
For Corporate Book and Seal	$10.92
For Mailing	$10.00
For Printing	$5.25
For Stationery	$11.95
Total disbursements	$1,065.62
Promised to Recreation Center	$1,820.00
	$2,885.62

Total funds on hand and unexpended Sept. 10, 1945 — $2,193.83

Community Fund Board of Directors feels that Plymouth and Plymouth township have many needs which, at present, are unfulfilled. We have such services as a Visiting Nurses Association in mind. We should like to see an adequate recreation center for the use of adults, as well as children, in our city. We constantly keep in mind the fact that the war-caused employment boom has made welfare work in Plymouth unnecessary during the last few years. But that situation may not be lasting and we may need to dip into the Community Fund to help our fellow townsmen thru hard times. So we have been conservative in the use of the public funds and have kept a reserve for future needs.

The Community Fund belongs to all of Plymouth and Plymouth township. We, of the Board of Directors, ask for your help, your interest, and your suggestions. A donation of $1.00 or more entitles you to attend the annual meeting each January and cast your vote for your Board of Directors. Please give some of your time, thought and financial aid to this new-born service for our community."

Signed Margaret R. Houh, Secretary Plymouth Community Fund.

The Fifty-third annual May Festival of six concerts will take place May 2, 3, 4 and 5—four evening programs and two matinees. The Philadelphia Orchestra under Conductor Eugene Ormandy, and Associate Conductor Alexander Eilsberg, will be heard throughout. The University Choral Union under Hardon Van Deusen, will offer several choral works, and the Festival Youth Chorus, under the direction of Marguerite Hood, will take part in one concert. Negotiations are pending with an imposing list of soloists, both vocal and instrumental.

Sends Prayer From Germany

Pfc. D. B. Grimes, and artilleryman in Germany, and son of Mrs. W. L. Grimes, of Plymouth, wrote his mother on the occasion of the war's end in Japan. She received the letter this week.

"Well this is the end," he wrote, "and I can't explain to you how I feel about it. It won't be too long now before I get back to Plymouth and you."

Enclosed in the letter was a copy of his battalion's daily paper, "Carbarn Operator." The paper gets its name from the code used in combat by the battalion. On the first page of the paper is a piece called "How Shall I Pray."

Pfc. Grimes writes, "Read it Mom, that is how most of us feel over here today."

It is as follows: "Oh, God, I wish I knew the words, to say the things I feel today. There's joy and thanks, and mental peace, to thank you right—there seems no way. The longing years, the endless nights, the grief and hardships near at hand. The tired, hopeless, onward push that only you could understand. These things our home friends cannot know, it's best they never feel our fears, for now it's past and peace has come. We'll rise above those empty years. We hope our friends who won the peace, are safe. Let's not forget the dead. Please God, calm the anguished hearts. Let them feel joy instead."

We thank thee, God, for lessons learned. Let bitter hearts be kind again. We've had enough of war, please send us home. We want to live once more as men."

Farm Agent Gives Land Advice

County Agricultural agents in Michigan are fully prepared to help lend advice and information to returning veterans who may be seeking to purchase farms in the state. R. J. Baldwin, director of the Michigan State College Extension Service, said today.

With present prices nearing land-boom levels, many farms are not good buys and may even become debt burdens or white elephants, according to Mr. Baldwin. But, he pointed out, real opportunities do exist in agriculture for persons who know the science and skills of farming.

"Thorough investigation of every farm before a deal is completed is the only safe procedure for the veteran who hopes to establish himself in a paying business," the extension director cautioned.

Agricultural advisory committees have been set up in nearly every county in the state, with the county agent one of the principal advisors. This committee is ready in each case to give valuable information that will indicate the earning power of the farm in question. Included are average yields and market prices of adapted crops, soil productive capacity, necessary farming equipment, farm operating costs, transportation and marketing advantages or handicaps, sources of credit and reasonable interest rates.

Mack Chrysler and Jack Huffman of Chatham, Ontario, accompanied Ralph Bachelder home for the week-end after he had visited them for two days.

News of Our Boys In Armed Forces

JOHN J. CAMERON'S
OUTFIT PRESENTED WITH UNIT CITATION.

From the headquarters United Kingdom Base near London in England comes information that the Meritorious Service Unit Plaque—given for superior performance of duty—has been awarded to the 3411th Ordnance Medium Automotive Maintenance company, located in London.

Among the members of the unit, which repairs anything on wheels from motorcycles to prime movers, is S/Sgt. John J. Cameron, 38325 Joy road of Plymouth.

The company, commanded by 1st Lieut. J. F. Schoenberger, 1712 Meadville St., Pittsburgh, Penna., was cited for "commendable diligence and skill in the proficient execution of all assigned tasks" between June 1, 1944, and July 31, 1945.

The citation, signed by Lieut. Gen. John C. H. Lee, commanding Theater Service Forces, European Theater, reads in part:

"The technical knowledge and untiring efforts of the personnel of the 3411th Ordnance Medium Automotive Maintenance company were in keeping with the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States."

Lieut. Col. Stephen M. Batori, United Kingdom Base Ordnance officer, presented the plaque at a special ceremony.

LEON SCHROEDER WITH U. S. FLEET NOW ANCHOR-ED IN TOKYO BAY.

"We are now anchored in Tokyo bay. The scenery here is beautiful, especially when we can see Japanese ships in every direction that have been sunk in the harbor by our flyers," writes Leon R. Schroeder from the captured Japanese islands to "Our Boys" page.

"Our bombers did a very good job, as we can plainly see from our ship," he writes.

"Tomorrow will be a big day here. That's the time they are going to sign up their surrender to our forces. I will be very close to the ship where the Japs are going to come and sign our terms. Our ship is a sister ship to the Missouri."

"I have seen a few Japs real close here today and they don't like our looks from the way they act. I guess they know what's coming when they begin to take orders from us. And there's nothing they can do about it. I hope I will be able to get a few Jap trophies before we leave. We are supposed to be back in the States for navy day."

"When I was in Leyte a couple of months ago, I just missed seeing my brother Don. He came aboard my ship but because he didn't have enough time to look me up, we missed seeing each other. I got a few trophies at Leyte."

"We did a little job after we left there that made the headlines in the newspapers back home."

"I was surprised to learn that my brother Bob had joined the Merchant Marines. Now all four of us are in the armed forces."

"I read in The Plymouth Mail where Bill Wood was given up for lost. That was bad news to me. I hope they find him, as he was a good friend of mine. I hope all of our boys get home O.K. and that they get there soon. The navy life isn't bad, but civilian life is much better."

"I suppose everything is going fine in Plymouth and here is one in the navy who hopes to see everybody back home soon."

"I have read where a few of my buddies have left the services in the last few months. Good luck to you and all the others in Plymouth and I hope to walk into your office some day and tell you of my appreciation. Give my best regards to everybody back home and say hello to them through The Plymouth Mail."

Few are sufficiently sensible of the importance of that economy in reading which selects, almost exclusively, the very first order of books.—John Foster.

PROMOTION COMES TO GERALD PAIGE NOW DOWN IN GUADALCANAL.

Gerald Paige, former Ford Motor Company employee and now serving with the 278th Quartermaster Refrigeration Company on Guadalcanal, has been promoted from private first class to technician grade five. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Paige, reside in Detroit, and his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Wisusik Paige, at 9830 Berwick road, Rosedale Gardens.

Cpl. Paige entered the Army in September, 1942, and after basic training embarked for service in the South Pacific in December, 1942.

During his 38 months of overseas service, the Corporal was awarded the Good Conduct medal and is entitled to wear a gold colored wreath on the right sleeve of his uniform, signifying the Meritorious Service Unit Plaque by the President of the United States.

PFC. IVAN CAMPBELL
NOW AT ENID, OKLA.

In a brief note to "Our Boys" page, Pfc. Ivan Campbell says he is now located at the Enid Army Air Field at Enid, Okla., where he is serving as flight engineer on a B-25. The Enid Air Field is for advanced two engine cadet training. Cadets do much cross-country flying and he writes, "I hope in the future to fly into Romulus and drop into Plymouth for a few hours, just to say thanks to the Mail for what it did during the war."

JOSEPH ASHLEY OF HORTON ROAD WINS HONORS FOR SERVICES IN FRANCE.

Pfc. Joseph Ashley, 37517 Horton road, is one of the 11 Michigan men with the First Battalion of the 134th Infantry regiment which has been awarded Battle Honors and a Unit Citation by the War Department for "Outstanding performance of duty in action, 15 to 19 July, 1944" in the regiment's capture of Hill 122 near St. Lo, France.

"The magnificent gallantry, heroism, teamwork and will to win displayed by the First Battalion, 134th Infantry, in this crucial operation, characterized by countless deeds of individual and group heroism, and its tremendously significant part in the action on Hill 122 at the approaches to St. Lo, contributes immeasurably to a major victory for the United States and reflects the highest credit upon the character and training of the officers and men of this unit," the citation stated.

Hill 122 was captured July 18 by the 134th in its first engagement against the Germans, just 13 days after the first elements of the regiment landed at Omaha Beach.

Following seizure of the hill, the enemy pulled out of St. Lo, 1,800 yards to the south. This gave the Americans the key to the Normandy road network, vital to General Patton's lightning drive through France last August.

The award will be worn permanently by all men of the 1st battalion who participated in the action, and will be worn by others while they are assigned to the organization.

Success in life depends upon persistent effort, upon the improvement of moments more than upon any other one thing.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Football Team Opens Season At Farmington

Plymouth high school's gridgers will get their first taste of battle Friday, today, in the season's opener at Farmington. With the exception of one backfield man and three linemen none of the starting lineup will be veterans.

Coach Wayne Falan says the grid outlook right now for his unseasoned and untried but eager young eleven is gloomy and there is no reason whatever for anyone to believe differently.

"We're going to try mighty hard, he observed, but I feel the odds are against us." "As yet I haven't encountered any real football talent but I'm still looking."

Coach Falan revealed that 68 Plymouth youths have signed up for varsity football. In addition he has 21 freshman boys out.

If eagerness and the desire to play made a grid machine, Plymouth would have the finest, reports the coach. Such enthusiasm has been displayed so far that double practice sessions were held the first few days.

Coach Falan did not begin actual contact work with his grid stalwarts until this week. He administered several stiff conditioning workouts and considerable maneuvers with tackling and blocking dummies.

This week he added small doses of light contact work and fundamental scrimmaging. With the conditioning sessions out of the way he hopes to emphasize grid fundamentals both in "skull" sessions and field drills.

Coach Falan has little to work on in the way of a squad nucleus, he said. Plymouth has but four veterans back from last year's eleven. Three are linemen and the fourth is a backfield man. They will have to form the team's core, the coach reported.

If nothing else the squad is blessed with quantity, but where there is quantity, quite often quality soon rears its lovely head. Coach Falan won't admit it but that is what he is looking and hoping for this season.

Although singing the blues loud and long, the coach did wipe away his tears long enough to confess that Plymouth's forward wall this season would be "weighty but undeveloped."

He also stopped sobbing long enough to admit that his backfield would be "small but fast."

If Falan is like most grid mentors his pessimism is legitimate but exaggerated. He denies that, so all Plymouth can do is sit back and wait, hoping his current gloom is unwarranted.

Meanwhile the gridgers are taking to their tasks with a zest no coach could deny. That is a healthy sign and should do much to dispel the school's football fears should they have any.

Briefly, the school is not currently strong on the gridiron but under Coach Falan's guiding hand it can grow strong and take its rightful place in that sport.

Coach Falan, a newcomer to Plymouth, should be complimented for his attitude. Caution is never wasted. Plymouth can be proud that its new grid coach is not out promising big things for his veteranless squad. He is more interested in showing results before talking. And it's a safe bet that the results his team will display during the coming season, as a smooth-working and sportsmanlike aggregation if not always the winner, will have Plymouth buzzing with pride.

With gas no longer rationed there is little reason why Plymouth cannot give its squad as much support away from home as at the home games. Let's go, Plymouth.

The best time to re-set clocks and watches is 2 a. m. but for those Plymouthites who will be fast asleep at that time it is recommended that they return their timepieces to Eastern Standard time upon retiring. That gives you an extra hour of sleep at the flick of your wrist.

It also would be well to gather the family together and explain who will have that duty. In the past several families have had that normal experience of having their clocks set back two and sometimes three hours because each member thought they would take care of the task not knowing it already had been done.

Solar homes—with windowed walls. More healthful, enjoyable, economical housing. And new jobs for glassworkers.

Fireproof glass draperies. Greater public safety—more jobs from glass.

Glass Insulation—in home appliances—will mean jobs.

Making Postwar Jobs—Out of Glass!

HOW MANY postwar jobs will there be—for soldiers, sailors, war workers? No one can tell exactly. But this much we do know:

Business management, in scores of industries, has long since planned new products, new ventures, new services, that will make jobs by the thousands by creating new demands.

For example, the glass industry in producing for war has found amazing new uses for its product. Imagine glass through which nails can be driven, like wood. Glass that bends. Glass that bounces. Glass that floats, like cork.

Soon, now, beautiful textiles will be made of glass—textiles that are fireproof and mothproof. There will be rotproof glass tarpaulins. Glass awnings. Glass windows that will not frost. Improved glassware for homes.

All these new uses will increase the demand for glass—and demand for goods makes jobs.

The glass industry is only one of many along the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Nickel Plate, and the Pere Marquette, that have planned very thoroughly for postwar employment.

And now that Victory has been won, these industries and others throughout the country will put into operation their plans for the jobs and opportunities all of us want.

DANGER POINT

The old fable of the last straw that broke the camel's back is too familiar to need repeating.

But it's worth remembering in connection with your Telephone Company. Some people may say: "Michigan Bell's doing a lot of business—taking in a lot of money. Let's tax 'em—cut their rates."

Michigan Bell is handling the biggest volume of business in history, is taking in more money than ever before. But costs have gone up faster than income. Higher wages, higher taxes, higher material costs — and rate reductions — have cut net earnings far below the peacetime rate, far below the average of other industries.

When earnings become insufficient, you don't notice any immediate effect on your telephone service. But, like the camel's back, there is a danger point — a point beyond which earnings that are too low will jeopardize the quality of service.

Michigan Bell customers want good service. The telephone bill is so small an item in their regular expenditures that customers want really good service even though it might cost a trifle more than they would need to pay for inferior service.

To again provide telephone service when it is wanted and where it is wanted, to give the quality of service you want in the future, Michigan Bell must undertake a construction program costing $120,000,000 in the first five post-war years. Money to finance that program must come from the savings of thrifty people who are willing to invest in Bell System securities. But, if prospects for future Telephone Company earnings are unattractive compared with those of other companies, people will place their savings elsewhere.

The future quality of your telephone service depends on telephone rates sufficient to produce earnings attractive to investors. Too long a continuation of inadequate earnings would weaken our ability to meet expected post-war telephone needs.

School superintendents and some teachers see the handwriting on the wall; but those who really control the situation appear blind to what is going on.

More Visual Education Needed

Some years ago, a few far-seeing educational leaders were convinced that moving pictures had great possibilities in connection with the public schools. They thereupon urged certain concerns to make "educational" films. These concerns have done a good job and these films are being used today successfully in many schools and colleges. They, however, teach only history, science and certain other factual subjects, without developing the character of the child.

By "character" I mean his purposes, habits, and desires. As every modern psychologist knows, character is the big thing for which the public schools should aim. Yet, in this very technical work over to plumbers, storekeepers and politicians to solve. Top-notch educational experts tell me that the answer lies with properly directed emotional visual education.

Study Your Own Children.

I have a bunch of grandchildren. Incidentally, I believe that good healthy grandchildren, who love to work and have been taught to pray, are the best inflation hedges which any man can have. Naturally, I want them "educated" in addition. But here is what troubles me:—One of my grandchildren is a girl 12 years old. She has little interest in her school work except the games which she is taught to play. Yet, at home she is "glued," most of the time, to the radio. Like most other kids, is crazy to go to the movies. She knows the names of all the leading movies and broadcast actors. She especially likes the movie and radio dramas. Upon checking with neighborhood parents, I find that their children measure up about the same.

Schools Must Go Drama

Some old maids reading this column will say that young children should not be allowed to go to the movies or listen to these radio "bedtime" features. Others blame the inefficiency of the public schools on the home and pass the buck back to the parents. What is the answer? Should the children be forbidden to listen to these radio dramas and attend the run of movies or shall the public school adopt more visual emotional education while still retaining discipline?

Frankly, our present educational system must be amended. The school committees—backed up by the publishers of textbooks—are forcing children to drive "horse and buggies" in an automobile and airplane era. Unless the public schools are to turn the real education of our children over to the commercial movie and broadcast companies, then schools must install more visual education and drama. Otherwise, the public schools will gradually become a waste of time and money.

What Will Television Do?

All of the above is true without any consideration of what will happen to our children when television gets into every home. Considering the present influence on the child's character of going to the movies only once or twice a week, what will happen when television operates in all homes all of every evening? Really the situation is very serious.

I am making no appeal for the movies or radio. I sometimes wish neither had ever been invented. Moreover, I am much opposed to "babbling" or "amusing" children. Schools should not engage in any appeasement program. I even believe that the bamboo stick and black walnut ruler should be restored as a part of the public school system. My appeal is merely schools after teaching the "3 R's" should be to awaken children intellectually and spiritually. The best way to accomplish this may be to scrap much of the present school system and institute more carefully selected, both factual and emotional, visual education.

One of the half-dozen airplanes designed to be driven entirely by human muscular power was a machine which made four flights, averaging 702 feet each, at Frankfort, Germany, on August 30, 1935. Weighing about 60 pounds and having a wingspread of approximately 30 feet, the plane developed its take-off speed by the use of rubber bands and then continued its flight under the power of the pilot, who worked pedals, like those on a bicycle, to revolve the propeller.

New Radio Show For Farm Family

Don Horton, Allis-Chalmers dealer in Plymouth, wants his customers and friends to know that the National Farm and Home Hour is now being beamed over a coast-to-coast NBC network each Saturday from 1 to 1:30 p.m. The program can be heard locally over WWJ.

Horton says the sponsor is the tractor division of the Allis-Chalmers company. It is the first time in 15 years that the show has had a commercial sponsor. The original show has changed but little. Everett Mitchell has been retained as master of ceremonies. He guided the show's destinies for 13 years and saw it run over 5,000 consecutive broadcasts to set an all-time network record.

The Allis-Chalmers company will continue its policy of promoting the family farm as a way of life. The program will emphasize better living, better farming and more profits.

A wedding of unusual interest was solemnized in the Methodist Episcopal church, last Monday afternoon, Sept. 6, when Miss Ruth M. Jenkins of this place, was united in marriage to Frederick J. Thomas, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomas. The church was filled with interested friends and acquaintances, and at 3:30 o'clock Miss Winnie Joliffe, presiding at the piano, entertained the company with several instrumental selections. Mrs. Thomas is one of Plymouth's popular young ladies. She is a graduate of the Plymouth High, and a member of the class of 1917. The groom is one of Plymouth's promising young men. He is a graduate of the Northwestern High School in Detroit, and has spent two years in the Albion College. Last year he attended the University of Michigan, but left to assist his father in the real estate business in Detroit. Late in the afternoon the bride and groom, amid a shower of flowers, left by auto for Detroit, making a boat trip to Mackinac and other points in Northern Michigan. On their return they will be at their new home at 492 Harvey St., which is furnished and awaiting them.

Warns About New "DDT" Chemicals

The wide publicity and general acceptance of DDT as an insecticide, based almost wholly on the success attained in its use by the armed forces for alleviating and controlling specific conditions, does not justify the public clamor for DDT as a "cure all" for everything under the sun, says Charles Figy, Commissioner of Agriculture. Neither does it justify the present trend to produce commercial products under a fanciful trade name containing some DDT and attempt marketing to the public for wide and varied claims.

The abbreviation "DDT" has been adopted for that class of chemical compounds known generically as Dichlor-diphenyl-trichloroethane.

The manufacture, sale, and distribution of this product in Michigan is governed by the Insecticide and Fungicide law. It may not be labeled in a false, deceptive, or misleading manner, and the label must state plainly the correct names and percentage amounts of each and every ingredient having insecticidal properties and the total percentage of inert ingredients.

DDT, as an insecticide, is usually mixed or compounded with other materials to make it suitable for application.

W. C. Geagley, Chief Chemist, State Department of Agriculture, cautions purchasers to examine the label, therefore, for:

Active Ingredients: Dichlor-diphenyl-trichloroethane and the inert ingredients and the total of each.

Above all, do not be misled by catchy trade names or false claims. Follow the advice and recommendations of the Michigan State College and other agencies for guidance.

The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well; and doing well whatever you do, without a thought of fame.
