 FROM A LAND OF PLENTY TO DESPAIR OVERNIGHT

It seems that it was but a few weeks ago when everybody had money. The beer gardens were so crowded at times that even standing room was at a premium. When people paid their bills, they flashed twenty and fifty dollar bills as though they were ones and twos. Everybody was buying and spending, spending almost as freely as the water flows over a dam.

It was predicted that when the war ended there would immediately start anew the greatest period of prosperity this country had ever known.

The reasons for these claims were plentiful—and those same reasons still exist.

But what has happened?

The nation industrially has been thrown into a tail-spin. You know the reasons without them being reprinted again.

Christmas—the glad time of the year when there should be joy supreme throughout the land—is near at hand.

And what do we find?

There seemingly is no gladness. Between employe and employer groups there has for over 12 long years been instilled a spirit of hatred of "management" so called. And now we have unemployment, we have despair and we have hunger at a time when this land of ours should be rolling in prosperity and happiness.

It's a fine world OUR BOYS are coming home to—a world of gloom, a world of ill-will and a world that for the present looks pretty dark.

In the face of it all, let's look to the bright side. Let's hope for the best. Let's do all within our power to turn night into day, despair into gladness and gloom into happiness. Let's make this a happy old world in face of all of our unnecessary troubles.

UNMASKED

The hand of the world seems hard
 The heart of the world seems cold;
 Of selfish schemes seem all its dreams,
 And its only goal seems gold.
 Yet whenever Christmas comes,
 From the tender part of its kind, true heart,
 The world the mask removes,
 And we learn how much it loves.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Every time the legislature meets, there are certain groups in the state that put forth strong efforts to get the legislature to pass laws making it more difficult for young people to get jobs. They seek to place under control of a state department the activities of all young people under the age of 18 years. They would make it impossible for them to work without consent of the state, and then it would be possible for them to work at only such occupations as the state job holders would permit.

This control is sought under the somewhat misleading suggestion of child labor legislation, even though Michigan at the present time has a somewhat comprehensive child labor law.

There is a fast growing feeling that the tremendous increase in recent years in juvenile crime is due entirely to the idleness that the state and communities have forced upon young people. It is not necessary to go beyond the city limits of Plymouth to realize what a tragically important part youngsters are taking in crime activities.

Not so long ago a news dispatch out of Lansing published in one of the Detroit papers, discussed this situation. There is so much information in it that we are reprinting it in full, for your consideration. It follows:

Thousands of youngsters in the state and the nation will mature in a world where most of the available jobs may be lost to them in "a squeeze play between the unions and the returning veterans," Walter M. Berry, executive secretary of the Michigan Youth Guidance Commission, warned recently.

"I am fearful that among these youths, now in their teens, we may develop another 'lost generation,'" Berry said. "When they grow up and find that gainful employment is difficult or impossible, there will be a diminishing outlook on life—and delinquency."

Berry said the "squeeze play" between union members and veterans already has begun and job opportunities for youth have begun to diminish. He said the adage that idle hands get into mischief quickly will be true of the jobless youth.

"This is one of our greatest youth problems because it involves so many individuals," he said. "It is not only the most widespread problem but the one which is the greatest potential source of future trouble."

Confessing that a solution will be difficult to find, Berry suggested that one helpful program would be for the schools to enlarge their vocational courses and determine what fields still are open to youth.

Berry said the youth problem in general is a complex of factors and conditions which have arisen in the last 10 or 15 years.

"Most of our youth were born in a depression and grew up in a war," he said. "They have hardly known a normal existence. Few of them have had work experience."

"Most of them have been considered somewhat irresponsible until they become 12 years old, when they suddenly are responsible enough to enter the armed forces and protect their country."

Delinquency factors of the present period, Berry said, include:
 1 The effect of the war, emotionally and otherwise, on youth and adults.
 2 A generation of youths "too old to cry and too young to fight," who have seen glory go to their elders and who feel overshadowed.

3 Returning servicemen and their readjustment problems, with repercussions in the home and on individuals outside the home.

4 The "greatest increase in divorce ever known," partly as a result of hasty war marriages, the war separation of man and wife, and the strangeness of man and wife to each other after they are reunited.

5 Education of youths, and adults interrupted by the war.
 6 The "fast-developing group" of unemployed young people who suffer in the squeeze play between the unions and returning servicemen.

7 Sudden decreases in the family income when war plant jobs ended.

Berry said he had inquired from several lawyers their opinion for the increase in divorces. He said a reply which was frequently given astonished him.

"They say many of these divorces started in the share-the-ride program," Berry said.

Berry said the decrease in family income involved not only the income to the head of the family. Many families during the war had two, three, four or more members gainfully employed in a variety of work.

"Now perhaps only one member of the family is employed, and in many cases there is uncertainty about the length of his employment," Berry said. "The changed condition is a shock to all members of the family and there is a direct effect on its youthful members."

Farmers Feted by Kiwanis Club

Members of the Kiwanis club Tuesday night were hosts to farmers from the surrounding areas at a dinner at Hotel Mayflower. Each member brought a farmer. It was the club's annual observance of Farmers' night. Movies provided the entertainment. William Hartmann was program chairman.

The club is still talking about the swell venison dinner served last week Tuesday. The piece de resistance was furnished by Russell Roe, one of the local nimrods lucky enough to bag his buck this season. A wag suggested that the meat was good though salty but supposed that resulted from the amount of salt Russ put on the buck's tail so he finally could get close enough to shoot it.

Auxiliary Dinner, Goodfellows Are Ready for Sale

Plymouth's Old Newsboys—the city's Goodfellows—are digging up their woollens, heavy caps and mittens and overshoes to be properly prepared for their annual paper sale, Saturday, Dec. 22.

On that day these men—your friends and neighbors—will take time away from their own business to station themselves at various locations throughout the city to sell Goodfellow issues of The Mail. They also will make a city wide door-to-door canvass.

In purchasing these papers you are expected to let your conscience be your guide in the price you pay. The Goodfellow load here this year is heavier than usual. Strikes, reconversion bungling and closed factories have reduced the local purchasing power.

The Goodfellows need every penny they can get and the people of Plymouth are the only source they have. It's true that the poor are always with us, but this year some of the indigent cases the Goodfellows will aid are not self-imposed. The war has wrought a good many. Allotments too small for the family they should support and the necessary—and unnecessary—cashing of war bonds has left many family circles in dire straits.

Indigent cases now being reported to the investigating committee appointed by the Goodfellows show that their number will set a new record here. The Goodfellows have pledged that no indigent group or individual shall be without a proper Christmas. Baskets of food, clothing and gifts will be sent all.

The newsboys who will handle the sale of the Goodfellow issues of the Mail will make an all-day job of it. They hope to begin the sale at 10 a. m. Saturday, Dec. 22.

Preceding the sale the Goodfellows—AT THEIR OWN EXPENSE—will sponsor a breakfast for members of the Plymouth High school band. The home economics girls at the school will prepare and serve the meal there.

Following the meal the band and Goodfellows will assemble at Starkweather and Liberty and parade down Starkweather to Main and down Main to Kellogg Park. They will disband at the park and assume their various stations.

It's an old saying that unless the sponsors of a thing are sold on its worth they can't sell anyone else.

Certainly no one can deny that Plymouth's Goodfellows aren't sold on the worth of their effort. They feel that their project is one of the finest and all right thinking persons know it. They feel it is so worth while that they take time from their own business to attend meetings to plan the program and to sell the papers with which their efforts are financed.

Anyone who can't see what a wonderful thing the Goodfellow movement is can leave now, they will never be missed. The effort on the part of these few men reflect the true spirit of Christmas as God intended it should be.

He gave the world Jesus Christ as its Saviour without asking anything in return. He decreed that it is "more blessed to give than to receive." The Goodfellows in Plymouth and all over the nation are only trying to follow that creed.

You can help Plymouth observe its first peaceful Yuletide in five years by contributing a little more generously to the Goodfellows than you did last year. Your child won't lose its faith in Santa Claus so why should your neighbor's child be denied a traditional Christmas just because you are too busy or too stingy to give.

Remember, the Prince of Peace has returned to our country and our homes and it is his birth that we should rightfully celebrate at Christmas. What better way there is to do this than make someone else's way easier through your contribution.

Open your hand to give just as eagerly as you would to receive and the Goodfellows' effort can't fail.

C. H. LaMay, Jean O'Meara, and George Petraszewsky were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Giles at the Curve Crest Figure and dance club at Muskegon, where they officiated at the greater Michigan roller skating championship at the Curve Crest roller rink, George Petraszewsky and Jean O'Meara being qualified judges, also gave skate dance tests to a number of skaters.

Installation ceremonies will be in charge of James Nairn, a past master of Plymouth Rock Lodge.

School Board Options Lot

To alleviate the crowded conditions on the playground at Starkweather school the Board of Education took an option to purchase the back half of the Ross Willett property on Holbrook street last week.

The area in which the Board is interested in purchasing would run 47½ feet south of the school on a parallel line with the back of the building and 70 feet east to the crest of the hill which slopes down into Riverside park.

The additional property would afford more room for swings for the lower grade youngsters and would make possible a diamond for softball behind the school. On the present grounds during recess there isn't enough room behind the school for any activity unless the children go down the hill into the park and for the little ones this system has proven very unsatisfactory.

Under Mr. Schulers' able direction the club has grown from some 20 original members to nearly 80 and it has now become the largest organization of its kind in the city.

Other officers elected for the ensuing year were: Blake Gillies, first vice-president; Edward Gardner, second vice-president; William Taylor, secretary; Jack Taylor, treasurer, and directors, William Michael, William Rose, Fred Erb and Al Hubbs.

These officers will be installed at semi-public ceremonies tonight at the Masonic Temple, preceding the ceremonies there will be a dinner and program for members and their wives. The dinner is scheduled for 6:30 p. m.

Col. Cass Hough will present a lecture and show several feet of film taken by cameras in the wings of combat planes on missions over Germany. Other entertainment is to be furnished by the Ford Motor Co.

Installation ceremonies will be in charge of James Nairn, a past master of Plymouth Rock Lodge.

Blue Lodge Lists Officers for 1946

Oral Rathbun has been elected worshipful master of Plymouth Rock Lodge, F. & A. M., for 1946.

Other officers are Ralph Pentecost, senior warden; Manley Smith, junior warden; Oscar Alsbro, secretary; Alonzo Brocklehurst, treasurer; Leslie Evans, senior deacon; Melvin Michaels, junior deacon; Merritt Crumble, Tyler; Arthur Karnatz, chaplain; Harry Brown, marshal; William Michaels and Louis Jacobs, stewards.

Memorial Group Giving Thought To School Site

In order that the people of Plymouth may have a clear understanding of the nature of the proposed Memorial project, all the information possible will be laid before them, as soon as it is available. This early in the process of planning, so much of what is presented will, of necessity, still be in the form of planning, but not definite in nature so that an announcement can be made with complete certainty. Let us consider the problem facing the committee responsible for the choosing of a site for the memorial.

This committee, headed by Wendell Lent, its chairman, must look for the following things in whatever site is chosen. First, the location must be conveniently accessible for the city, central, and yet with room for parking space, with good possibilities of expansion in the way of the addition of wings as the need and the funds come in. The matter of keeping near the Central School and High School must be considered, so that whatever possible cooperation may be had between school and the project may be facilitated. Thus, it should be possible for the school, during hours when the public would not make a prior claim on the use of the building, to use the facilities of the auditorium or the swimming pool. Located too far from the school, this would not be possible, and since the maximum use of the building is desired, this matter is important. Should some arrangement be made to include the library in the memorial, and quarters for the Music Box, accessibility to the school would be important. The question of the cost of the location is also a most important consideration, since the size of the building projected as necessary for the needs of this community will require a sizeable fund, and the more money available for use in the building proper, the more can be done to make it meet the needs of the various groups of the community wishing to use the Memorial. These factors must enter into the deliberation of the site committee, and it is no simple matter to find a suitable location which will meet all the ideal conditions. But the committee is at work on the project, and will make a definite report as soon as the decision is made, and the location decided.

Rose Sells His Liberty St. Store

Two Ann Arbor men, Bob Beck and Bert Dayton, have purchased the hardware store of W. A. Rose at 195 Liberty street. They began operation of the business under their name this week. From now on the store will be known as the Liberty Street Hardware.

Mr. Rose, for years the owner of two hardware stores in Plymouth, announces that he will continue to operate his "downtown" store—Plymouth Hardware—at 376 South Main street.

Plymouth's new business men, both of whom will move their families here when accommodations are located, have a long background in the merchandising field.

Mr. Beck, for the last two years in the hardware department at Montgomery Ward's in Ann Arbor, is a former ten-year veteran with the A & P Tea Co.

Mr. Dayton is an experienced hardware and implement man with 11 years experience in the Montgomery Ward organization in both Port Huron and Ann Arbor.

The new owners have a large display ad in this issue of The Mail announcing the change of the store name and their future policy for serving Plymouth.

The Mail joins with the other business houses of the City of Plymouth in bidding Mr. Beck and Mr. Dayton a sincere welcome and wish for success in their new enterprise.

Fire at Bartlett School Is Probed

Fire in a cabinet filled with toilet tissue drove more than 40 pupils from the Bartlett School in Canton Township last Thursday and destroyed the cabinet along with the contents. The Plymouth fire department was summoned and extinguished the blaze within a few minutes.

Because of circumstances surrounding the blaze the state fire marshal is investigating. It is quite possible that the blaze was of incendiary origin but the investigation may prove different. Firemen believe the damage to the school will not exceed $35. Other than the cabinet nothing in the building was burned. Smoke damage to the interior was negligible.

Schrader Given Navy Bronze Star

Edwin Schrader was presented with a Bronze Star citation in Detroit, Wednesday, by Commander Jasper Flemming for meritorious service in assault landings in the Pacific Islands and for transferring troops from a Liberty ship, which had struck a reef, to his own.

Lt. Schrader is back in Plymouth, operating the Schrader Funeral home which he owns, while on terminal leave from the Navy. News of the citation reached him Monday and a presentation ceremony had already been arranged for him in Detroit on Wednesday.

Mrs. Schrader accompanied him to the Navy headquarters in the city for the ceremony.

Veterans' Group Elects Officers

The Ex-Service Men's Club of Plymouth met in annual session last Tuesday night at Graves Hall. Officers for 1946 were elected. They are:

John Straub, veteran of the Spanish-American and first World wars, commander; Postmaster Harry Irwin, veteran of the Spanish-American War, vice commander; Arno B. Thompson, secretary; Thomas Campbell, officer of the day. The last three named are veterans of World War I.

Other business transacted at the meeting included the adoption of a resolution endorsing the proposal for a Veterans' Memorial Home in Plymouth and pledging the club's full co-operation to the Memorial Home committees.

The club also discussed the municipally sponsored Veterans' Counselling service and hailed the appointment of Carvel Bentley as head of the department.

However the group went on record as feeling that the veteran assistance program could be materially strengthened by closer cooperation and advice from organized veterans groups.

City's Bond Drive Lagging; 17 Days Left to Meet Quota

Plymouth's Victory Bond premier held last week Thursday night, Dec. 6, at the Penn Theatre through the courtesy of Harry Lush, was very well attended. Nearly a full house of bond purchasers saw "The Dolly Sisters," starring Betty Grable and June Haver.

Gallants were guests of Mr. Lush and sat in a group at the premiere. Mrs. Walter Sumner, chairman of the Victory Bond drive, and chairman of all other bond drives that have been held here, pronounced the premier a success, and praised Mr. Lush for his contribution to the effort.

She advised The Mail that as of Tuesday, Dec. 11, the city had a total of $143,424 in bonds purchased. That is just $50,000 less than the community's assigned quota of "E" bonds.

"It would seem, said Mrs. Sumner, that Plymouth would like to keep its bond drive record complete by putting this campaign over the top like it did all the others."

"To fail now would be a shame, but then we can't force anyone to purchase bonds."

She urged more bond buying and suggested that they would make ideal Christmas gifts.

"We as a community, declared Mrs. Sumner, have only the rest of this month, this year, to put Plymouth over the top on its final bond drive."

"People here will be celebrating their first peaceful Christmas in five years. For many it will be just another Yuletide away from their families in the drab surroundings of a military installation."

Purchase of an "E" bond is about the finest way an individual can assure the boys now "left behind" that they will certainly be home for the next Christmas.

Mrs. Sumner suggests that if a family feels they don't know what they can buy for each other they should pool what money each would spend on something and turn the total into victory bonds.

At any rate the community will have to step on it if they meet their quota by Dec. 31.

Busses to Carry Students to Games

Arrangements were completed by the athletic department of the Plymouth high school this week to afford free transportation of all high school students to and from the games at the Wayne County Training school.

The busses will pick up the children at the high school and return them there directly after the games and the expense will be paid by the athletic association which expects to more than make the difference on the crowds that it can accommodate in the larger gym.

About 900 basketball fans may be accommodated in the Training school gym and when arrangements were made for its use it was felt that all Plymouthites interested in seeing the team play would have an opportunity to have a seat this year.

In addition to affording the team a championship court to play on where a better brand of ball can be played the move will also afford other school groups an opportunity to use the high school gymnasium for school activities.

During the basketball season there are musicals, plays and other activities and all need the gym for practice at the same time the basketball team is working out. With the team practicing one day a week at the Training school and then having its Friday night games there it will give the other groups badly needed time in the local gym.

Seating facilities in the Training school gym are excellent and a huge parking area is adjacent to the building.

Annual Party Held By Club

Members and wives of the Ex-Service Men's club held their annual Christmas party at Grange Hall last Tuesday evening. About 80 members and newly returned service men guests participated in a delicious chicken dinner.

A pleasant evening was passed with group singing and the passing out of gifts from a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. The dinners are a monthly affair with the club and have proved very popular with the members.

Hotel Is Being Newly Decorated

Under the direction of manager Arthur Frost the Hotel Mayflower is undergoing an interior beauty treatment. Workmen have undertaken the job of painting all of the main floor of the building including the lobby, dining rooms and kitchen and all up stairs halls.

The majority of the rooms on the second and third floors are being papered and it is hoped the work will be completed before the Christmas holidays.

Plans are being made for work on the outside of the building in the spring.

Double Wedding For McKinney Sisters Wednesday

Avis McKinney became the bride of Pfc. Douglas Phillips, and Beverly McKinney became the bride of Pfc. Charles Newman at a double wedding ceremony performed Wednesday evening at 3 p. m. in the First Presbyterian church with Rev. Henry Walch officiating. The altar was decorated with white mums, palms and white candles.

The brides are well known daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robby McKinney of Stark road whose parents have lived in Livonia township for 35 years. Douglas Phillips is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Phillips of Adams street and Charles Newman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Newman of Stark road.

The brides who were given in marriage by their father wore identical gowns of white satin tops and tulle skirts with trains. They carried bouquets of white roses.

The matrons of honor, Mrs. Charles Phillips and Mrs. Gerald Cook, wore identical gowns of pink with three-quarter sleeves and wide ruffles on the bottom of the gowns. They carried pink carnations and mums. The bridesmaids, Janice Sullivan was a gown of green, Mrs. David Rail, blue, Irene Newman, yellow, and Lois Hoffman, orchid. Their bouquets were pink carnations and mums.

Douglas Phillips was attended by Richard Smith and Charles Newman was attended by Donald McCarthy.

The two couples left together on their honeymoons. Beverly chose a suit of gold with black accessories and a grey fur coat. Avis chose a teal blue suit with black accessories and a grey fur coat. They each wore white roses.

Shopping Heavy Merchants Say

Plymouth is at the peak of its Christmas shopping season. Local merchants report that last week and the early part of this week they were deluged with local residents who were trying to complete the items on their Christmas shopping lists.

Most stores found they were able to fill the demands of holiday shoppers and many reported that their customers were pleasantly surprised with the many unusual gift items that were to be offered.

Toy merchants say that local children will have one of their most exciting Christmas days in view of the fact that so many metal toys not available during the war are appearing every day on their shelves.

Clothing stores reported a great demand for things to wear and the jewelry and gift items to be found in the city were helping many shoppers to complete their shopping tasks.

Most merchants reported that people had made it a point to do their shopping early and as a result the last minute Christmas rush was expected to be lighter than in previous years.

Sales of higher priced merchandise amazed storekeepers and it seems that type of gift item will be the first to be sold out this year.

Local grocers and meat dealers said that from their standpoint there was no reason why every family in Plymouth couldn't enjoy a real old fashioned Christmas dinner because all the "fixings" and "trimmings" were available along with turkeys, geese and chickens.

Talks Turkey About Turkey

When you get ready to bake that Christmas turkey, don't forget how large it is, suggests Emma DuBord, county home demonstration agent. The well-cooked turkey should wear a becoming sun tan, she maintains, but the size of the bird has a lot to do with the way it should be cooked. Turkeys are running larger this year, and the larger the bird, the lower should be the oven temperature if hick parts are to be cooked through without scorching the skin or overcooking thin fleshed parts. For a 20 to 30-pound turkey use a temperature of 250 degrees F, which is not even a moderate oven. A 10 to 15-pound bird will cook evenly at 300 deg. F. The roasting pan should not be so large that it keeps the heat from circulating in the oven. It should be the size that allows space on all four sides. At the low temperatures suggested, no cover on the roaster is necessary. Fruit cakes also need a low temperature—200 to 275 deg. F.

"God the Preserver of Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on (Sunday, Dec. 16. The Golden Text (Psalms 121:7,8) is: "The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore." Among the Bible citations is this passage (Isaiah 32: 17,18): "And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever. And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;" Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (467): "It should be thoroughly understood that all men have one Mind, one God and Father, one Life, Truth, and Love. Mankind will become perfect in proportion as this fact becomes apparent, war will cease and the true brotherhood of man will be established."

BELIEVE IT OR NOT
It takes lumberjacks, masons, carpenters, electricians, plumbers, railroaders and truck drivers to build a home.
Do you look for lower wages in those trades?
WE DON'T
So we say that a lovely and completely modernized steam heated, 4 bedroom home that's up to the minute and located on 20 acres of good earth is a BARGAIN at $8450 and that doesn't have to be all cash. See and compare this BUY now.

Propose Concert Band of 40 Pieces Be Formed Here

Armed with a $150 library of music, enough for 40 instruments, and lots of determination, two Plymouthites seek to organize a concert band for the city.

This pair of civic minded men—Carl Groschke and Louis Ribar—believe that Plymouth needs and would appreciate a band that could give evening or Sunday afternoon concerts in Kellogg park during the summer.

They hope to effect organization of such a group without costing the city or its residents one red cent. Players who seek membership in the band will understand their efforts will be for the sheer joy of playing rather than the monetary recompense.

This arrangement also will apply to the director of the band. His services without charge will be solicited and unless willing to serve on that basis will not be considered. At present Mr. Groschke and Mr. Ribar have three prospects for the job. All are agreeable to the arrangement.

Volunteers are being sought to fill the band's ranks. Right now about 20 players have been lined up. There is no age limit. However, beginners are not qualified as the band will not offer any courses of instruction.

Somewhere in the city there must be former band musicians or musicians who would like to play in a band for the practice they would receive. To join such a group would be a fine way to contribute to the civic life of the community.

Band concerts one night a week during the summer months, on each Sunday afternoon, in the park would add a great deal to Plymouth, these men believe. They would bring good band music to those having an ear for such melodies and also would offer the band personnel a chance to play that they might not have otherwise.

Ability is the only yardstick by which the personnel will be judged, Mr. Groschke said. Friendship will not enter into the organization when it comes to placing the musicians. The director will be the boss and not Mr. Ribar or Mr. Groschke. They are just bending their efforts towards getting the project underway.

They plan to enlarge the band's library through co-operative contributions by the members. Of course, donations for the purpose of purchasing additional music will not be discouraged, but neither will they be solicited.

Those wishing to have a chair in the proposed outfit are asked to contact either Mr. Ribar or Mr. Groschke. At present there is no rehearsal hall available but Mr. Ribar has offered the use of his music studios.

Vets Buttons

The little "gold" honorable discharge button which now graces so many vets buttonholes is in reality a plastic item gold plated. Fifty thousand buttons are plated, packed, and shipped every day.

Productive Labor

Twelve hours of farm labor will grow enough wheat to feed a person for a year. It would take 419 hours to raise broilers enough to feed a person a year.

Seabee Slogan

The famous Seabee slogan, "We do the difficult immediately, the impossible takes a little longer," is familiar to almost everyone.

Complex Language

The Chinese language has a total of about 40,000 characters, making the art of reading and writing a difficult one to master.

Drags Tire

A wheel one-half inch out of line drags a tire 87 feet sideways each mile, cutting tire life.

Sun Rays

The human eye utilizes in seeing only about 10 per cent of the rays in sunshine.

The Plymouth Mail Want Ads bring results.

Tire Life

The national average tire life for passenger car tires in 1940 was about 22,000 miles. In the test on concrete roads in Iowa, a tire life of 40,000 miles was obtained for speeds ranging from 25 to 65 miles an hour. The tire mileage obtained by various drivers of Iowa highway commission cars ranged from 20,000 to 70,000 miles.

Water Rules Weather

Water rules the weather in Ireland. Warm winds scoop moisture from the Atlantic, blow mistily against the western hills, wet the coast strip with heavy rains, keep the island's temperature 20 degrees to 30 degrees higher than American or European areas in the same latitude, assure a mild, damp climate.

A farmer may buy accident insurance for himself, for members of his family, or for his employees. Of the many accident insurance policies, some cost from as little as $1.00 to more than $100 a year.

Fly Nursery

If manure is allowed to accumulate, it will be a ready-made nursery for flies all summer. Old feed boxes containing an accumulation of wet and rotting chaff and hay also are sources of fly-breeding.

Fishing Port

Boulogne ranked among the greatest European fishing ports. Passenger traffic into Boulogne by ship was heavy. The city's industries turned out textiles, cement and bricks, iron products and processed fish.

Snappers Choose Charles Loomis

New officers of the Plymouth Camera Club were elected last Monday night. C. M. Loomis is the president. Bart Rice is vice president and treasurer and Mrs. Clyde Hinman is the secretary.

The club has voted to cancel the showing of winter landscapes at its meeting, Dec. 24. These will be shown at the Jan. 28 meeting.

On Jan. 12 the club will have an exhibition of its members' prize winning prints for 1945. Members also voted to have two classes of prints in each monthly contest. One will be for beginners and the other for the advanced group.

About 98 percent of the membership were present at the annual Christmas party of the Business and Professional Woman's club held at the home of Mrs. Anne Schryer on Monday evening. A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served by the hostess. The members sang Christmas carols accompanied by Hanna Fleming at the piano. White elephant gifts which were then drawn from a gaily decorated tree caused much merriment. Miss Florence Stader a member who resides at Caro was a welcomed guest. Mrs. Alice Blyton, president, called attention to the "Give-a-Gift to a Yank who Gave" project which is sponsored nationally by Eddie Cantor and locally by the Myron H. Beals post, American Legion No. 32 and Auxiliary, also by the Passage-Gayde post No. 397.

Garden Club Tea Attended by 150

Success crowned the efforts of those who worked so hard to stage the annual Christmas tea of the Plymouth Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association. More than 150 women attended the affair last Monday in the parlors at St. John's Episcopal church.

More than $60 was realized from the sale of baked goods and gifts. This will be used in the club's 4-H scholarship fund. The parlors were resplendent in the holiday motif. Christmas carols sung by the assembly added to the gaiety of the occasion. From the first cup of tea to the final carol, all present seemed to be enjoying themselves immensely.

Because of numerous requests for membership the club has decided to increase its number of members from 75 to 100.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the group is set for Jan. 14.

John McLain Is Married To Jackson Girl

Cornelia Sipes of Jackson, and Poquonoc Bridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sipes, was married November 20 to John Hugh McLain, USN son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLain of Plymouth.

The double ring ceremony was performed at the Chapel-on-the-Thames, Submarine Base, by Chaplain Joseph M. Broadley. The attendants were Eleanor Edgar of Stonington and Charles Halter, USN of Ann Arbor. The bride wore an American beauty velvet dress with black accessories and a corsage of white gardenias and stephanotis. The maid of honor wore a gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The reception following the ceremony was held at Les Rendezvous in Westery for guests

Furniture Spots
Dark spots remaining on furniture that is being refinished may be removed by bleaching with a solution using two ounces oxalic acid crystals to one pint of hot water. Saturate a rag with this solution and put it on the spots. After 20 minutes, remove rag and wash spots with some ammoniacal water. If spots persist leave saturated rag on overnight.

Shellac Substitute
As a shellac substitute, zeln is combined with other resinous materials, and each pound of the new chemical product replaces two or three pounds of shellac. Experiments being conducted indicate that for some uses this substitute is superior to the natural product.

Stiffening Organdy
To make a starch substitute for stiffening organdy silk or crepe use three tablepoonsful of sugar in a gallon of water for organdy, weak gum arabic solution for silk and crepe, and bran water or rice water for cretonne and figured cottons or linens.

Killer Syllable
The suffix "cide" means killer or destroyer. For instance, herbicide or weed killer, insecticide or destroyer of insects, fungicide or destroyer of fungi, and nematocide or killer of worms in animals.

Home Nurse
The home nurse should provide herself with an easy chair in the sickroom so that when she has time for reading aloud or for handwork and conversation she can relax and really rest.

Articles of cut glass will have a brilliant polish if a little turpentine is added to the water when cleaning them. Use about one table-spoon to two quarts of water.

Keep Handy
One of the necessities that should be kept nearby for convenience is a can of machine oil for use in oiling motors, hinges, sewing machines, locks and bolts.

De-Grease Waffle Iron
A paste of water and baking soda, applied with a soft, dry brush, removes grease and discoloration from the grids of a waffle iron.

Solled Suitcases
Powder and dust particles are best removed from suitcase fabric linings with a good stiff brushing. Don't try to wash the lining.

Columbus' Burial
Christopher Columbus' body is buried in the cathedral of Santo Domingo at Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic.

Prevents Rust Marks
A cloth cover placed over bed-springs will prevent iron-rust marks on the mattress.

3,300 Tons Stamps in Year
The United States makes about 3,300 tons or 82 carloads of stamps every year.

Keep From Children
Keep matches in tin containers and out of the reach of children.

3 Plymouth Girls in National Contest

Shirley Hersh, Doris Waldeck and Marie Duthoo, all of Plymouth, attended the National Junior Vegetable Growers convention in Cincinnati, Ohio, as members of the Michigan team.

Doris ranked fourteenth in the national vegetable judging contest. This is an excellent record as she is a tenth grade student and was forced to compete with college graduates.

Both Doris and Shirley were members of the state team which placed thirteenth in a field of 64. Doris scored 870 points and Shirley 718. The team's total was 2,462. It was a three-member team.

Marie was a member of the Wayne County team and scored 500 of the squad's 2,119 points.

Wants to Organize Stamp Collectors

Plymouth philatelists (stamp collectors) and all those people interested in becoming collectors of postage stamps in any form and would like to organize a stamp club are asked to get in touch with H. L. Poppenger, of 1496 Penniman. His phone number is 411-J.

There must be several collectors of stamps in the community and the surrounding territory, Mr. Poppenger believes, that would derive a great deal of benefit from a stamp club. He says that stamp collecting is the leading hobby in America.

Providing a club can be organized in Plymouth, Mr. Poppenger says he will attempt to have it sponsor a juvenile club too.

Stamp clubs, says Mr. Poppenger, are most beneficial to collectors of all age brackets as all have something in common. The younger collectors can get valuable information from the older members and the adult members can trade information.

Such clubs, according to Mr. Poppenger, have regular meetings at which members make trades, sell surplus items and compete for prizes.

If enough interested collectors in this area contact Mr. Poppenger and express their desire for such a club he will take care of all organizational worries and try to have a club underway by the first of the year.

Veterans Using Center Service

In the past two weeks some 30 veterans of World War 2, living in or near Plymouth, have taken advantage of the Counseling Service which the City of Plymouth is offering to them. The problems which confront the veterans and the matters on which they seek advice are varied. They come into the veterans information center at the city hall seeking solution to one problem and before leaving ask questions concerning several others.

Nearly 50 percent are interested in continuing their education. Many of these are interested in vocational training, particularly apprenticeships in the skilled trades or learning a business through on-the-job training programs. Some want to complete their high school work, while others intend entering college; thus seeking advice as to what course to take and what college to attend.

The housing problem faces some; most of them looking for apartments or small homes. Several seek information concerning their National Service Life Insurance and advice on personal problems.

Old jobs and new jobs, claims, legal matters, and loans are other problems which confront the veteran. A few, having tasted civilian life and not finding it entirely to their liking, are seeking information concerning reenlisting in the armed forces.

If the information which the veteran is seeking cannot be answered to his satisfaction locally, he is then referred to some county or state agency where he may receive help. However this referral to other agencies, other than local, is kept at a minimum. If it does become necessary to refer him to a county or state agency an appointment is made either by correspondence or telephone so that he knows just where and when to go and who to see. One of the main functions of the local veterans information center, sponsored by the City of Plymouth, is to prevent the veteran from chasing all over the county or state getting the information he desires.

Carvel Bentley, the local veterans counselor, states there are questions which some of these veterans ask which he is unable to answer. In a case of this kind they are first referred to local individuals who have so kindly offered their services, or to local agencies who are able and willing to help the veteran. If, after exhausting local sources of information the veteran's question still remains unanswered, then referral is made to county or state agencies.

The following is a copy of a letter which the local selective service board is giving to each Plymouth veteran as he reports there after receiving his discharge:

Welcome Home Veteran:

As a member of the armed forces of the United States you did your job well and your city is very proud of you. As you return to civilian life there may be some questions with which you would like some help. Questions such as: What to do about your GI life insurance, employment, the GI bill of rights, high school and college education, vocational training, legal assistance and perhaps many others. Through the efforts of your home town folks and your city officials a veterans information center has been set up in the city hall. This office is for your use at no cost to you. A veterans counselor is on duty to help you with your questions. Just drop in at the city hall and ask for the veterans counselor. He will be very glad to see you and if he is unable to answer your questions he knows who can, and will see that you get to the proper agency immediately.

Plymouth Scout News

(By Harold H. Schryer)

The Cubs and Cubbers of Pack 620 are proud, indeed, of the total results of their November activities which made possible such a fine collection of toys and gifts as was presented to their sponsoring unit, the Plymouth Kiwanians, at their Pack meeting on Friday, last.

Around 200 items of reasonable interest were brought to the meetings, where, after they were displayed for all to see, they were packed and taken to the Children's Unit of the Maybury Sanitarium for distribution to the inmates.

Henry Hees, Cubmaster of the Pack, was well pleased at the splendid co-operation shown by the Cubs in bringing in the results of their efforts; also well pleased at the fine attendance at the meeting which proves that the local Cubbers are beginning to see the true need for Adult-Cub co-operation.

Cubs Garry Hees and Don Lightfoot were graduated into Scouting at this meeting. Garry into Troop P1 and Don into Troop P2. Both of these Cubs have excellent records of attendance and effort and are now the proud recipients of the Webelo Cub Rank which denotes the highest possible award in that program.

One of the highlights of the meeting was the showing of the color-films of the Summer Day camp which showed many of the beautiful scenes which are the back-ground for our Annual Day-camp which is traditionally rich in Indian lore and crafts.

To Dr. Gulden goes the credit for these lovely pictures which will serve to monument these hours of Cubbing so well liked by our members. Dr. Gulden spent many hours with the camp leaders and should receive the highest plaudits of everyone concerned.

Next on the list of activities at the meeting were the refreshments served to the Cubs by their sponsors under the direction of Dr. Rice, chairman of the Cub committee of the Kiwanis club. This is always a looked-forward-to feature of the December meeting.

The membership of Troop 2 were treated to a splendid display of taxidermy and a relevant talk: "Taxidermy—A Hobby or Business" at their last troop meeting. The speaker of the evening was their own assistant scoutmaster, Ulrich Lyeka, who gave an excellent coverage of the topic. His qualifications as a bonafide blue ribbon taxidermist made it possible for him to reach the hearts of his audience on the true merits of taxidermy as the means of the preservation of specimens of wild life.

Bringing out the principles of conservation in line with sane and understanding hunting aims which do not tend to wantonly destroy the heritage of our national ways of life Mr. Lyeka stressed the necessity of using taxidermy as a means of preservation rather than trophy hunting.

We are sure that all of us are in line with this reasoning and we hope to add our influence to this end in the future.

Biggest Flights of Geese Reported

The biggest flights of wild geese to cross Michigan in many years marked the 1945 migratory waterfowl season which ended Saturday.

Blue and snow geese were seen in larger-than-usual numbers.

Conservation department game men believe wildfowling had at least average success, saying that fewer reports of poor shooting have been received this fall than in several seasons.

Flight ducks, especially red-heads, arrived early this year. Flights of ducks also were larger than in the last two years. Blue-bills were back this year to help fill out bags.

The 80-day season opened September 20. The department advises wildfowling that it is unlawful to have migratory game birds in possession more than 30 days after the close of the season, except that such birds may be kept an additional 60 days under permit obtainable from conservation officers.

WILL THERE BE A STEEL STRIKE?

Not if the CIO abides by its pledged word, given only last spring.

Question: What would be the general effect on the country of a steel strike?

Answer: Over 40 percent of all factory workers in the country earn their living by making steel into useful products for American life. A shutdown of the steel industry would be a disastrous blow to reconversion and would cause a serious loss in both wages and industrial production at a time when they were most needed.

Question: Is it true that the Steelworkers Union has pledged itself not to strike?

Answer: Yes. Every contract which the Union has signed this year with the various steel companies has a clause wherein the Union agrees not to strike during the life of the contract.

Question: Are those contracts still in effect?

Answer: Yes. They were signed in the spring of 1945 to run until October, 1946.

Question: Who signed for the Union?

Answer: Its International officials—Philip Murray, Van Bittner, Clinton Golden and others—and the local Union heads at the various plants.

Question: Is there no "escape clause" by which either side could end the agreements?

Answer: No. The Union demanded a fixed, long-term contract and got it.

Question: Why did they want a long-term contract?

Answer: In the Union's own words before the War Labor Board, "The Union's request for a termination date of October, 1946, is not made capriciously or pressed here for bargaining purposes. It represents the considered view of the Union that only such a term will adequately serve the needs of stability."

Question: Did the recent strike vote violate the contracts?

Answer: No. Only an actual strike would violate them.

Question: Haven't there been strikes already during the life of the contracts?

Answer: Yes. There were 998 strikes in steel plants during the past year alone. They were mostly local strikes which the Union characterizes as "wildcat," but they meant a big loss in production.

Question: Does the end of the war justify changing contracts?

Answer: No. The bond was sealed on both sides and should be kept whether times be good or bad. The steel companies are continuing to live up to these agreements. If a strike is called, it will be in clear violation of the existing agreements.

A strike in the face of existing contracts would shatter any confidence in the validity of union agreements in the steel industry.

Winter Is Coming! Will Arrive Here Saturday Dec. 22

Don't look now but isn't that Old Man Winter hovering around here? He is trying hard to fool us into thinking he has forgotten about his annual pilgrimage. From past experiences we should not be caught napping.

The old guy is cagy. He'll try everything to catch us off guard. So beware and bear in mind that his yearly visit with us begins Saturday, Dec. 22. Yes, sure you did, lots of you folks thought he arrived last Sunday night but not so. It was his press agent instead.

That's why the old man is so unpopular. His smart aleck press agent breezes into town a couple of weeks ahead and "blows" a lot about what the "boss" is going to do and all the time the "boss" is trying to make out like he has forgotten about his yearly appearance.

He tries to lull us into false security by withholding the snow and ice. He says, "If the people can still see the grass and shrubs they forget about me and I can get in without so much trouble."

But we are onto the old man and although his press agent is a detestable, windy gent, we know he is right as rain and that when he says the "boss" will arrive Dec. 22, we can count on it.

You see the press agents. U. L. Freeze, works without pay just to show up Old Man Winter. They had trouble years ago when the "boss" suggested that he would be better off without the services of "Windy" Freeze.

Suspecting foul play, Freeze promptly went on the defensive and has since spent his time exposing the "boss."

"Windy" has succeeded, in these parts anyway, in making the "boss" a most disliked gent but as yet he has not stopped his annual visitations.

We're not sure but believe "Windy" won't stay very long in Plymouth because he has numerous other places to visit and warn them about the "boss."

Get in your coat, put on your storm sash and get your cars and yourselves prepared for cold weather, is "Windy's" warning.

He says the old man might drop in gently enough but can't behave for long. He may refuse to let us have snow for Christmas, "Windy" said, but that don't mean he won't make it cold for everybody 'cause the old gent loves rosy cheeks and red noses. He gets quite a chuckle out of cold hands and feet too.

"People here may think I'm windy and ruthless, the double-crossing press agent said, but wait until the "boss" arrives. He'll make me look mild."

Silver and gold are not the only coin; virtue too passes current all over the world.—Euripides.

Prudence is the necessary ingredient in all the virtues, without which they degenerate into folly and excess.—Jeremy Collier.

Better take good care of that old car as it looks as though it will be a long time before there will be many new ones made.

Remember the egg that "just got by"?

There's a story about a schoolboy whose grades were never more than merely passing. His father asked him one day whether he was satisfied to "just get by." "Yes, father," replied the boy. "My son," said the father, "how would you like to eat an egg that 'just got by'?"

The point is that most Americans aren't satisfied in peacetime with anything less than the best that can be had. We know it's true of the kind of telephone service Michigan folks want.

The telephone bill is so small an item in their regular expenditures that customers want really good service even though it might cost a trifle more than they would need to pay for inferior service.

In order to provide you with the kind of telephone service you want in the future, Michigan Bell sees the need for a 5-year $120,000,000 post-war expansion and improvement program. Money to finance that program must come from the savings of thrifty people who are willing to invest in Bell System securities. But, if prospects for future telephone earnings are unattractive compared with those of other companies, people will place their savings elsewhere.

Too long a continuation of a rate of earnings substantially below that of other industries would weaken our ability to raise the money required to meet expected telephone needs. So the future quality of your telephone service depends on telephone rates sufficient to produce earnings attractive to investors.

Draft Knows No Holiday; 8 Leave

Death takes an occasional holiday but not Selective Service. At least four Plymouth families are facing a cheerless holiday season because the long and inescapable arm of the nation's "draft law" has reached into their midst and called one of their members into military service.

A contingent processed by the Plymouth draft board left Monday for induction. The local youths are Andrew Izzo, of 15325 Woodring; Edmund Rogenski, of 3541 Hix road; Billie Magee, of 15401 Hubbard; and Ascension Gonzales, Anderson Hotel.

Others were Lennox Sutton, of 15861 West Seven Mile, Northville; Orrie Munden, of 18699 Norborne, Detroit; Francis Goodreau, of 24833 Midland, Detroit; and Paul Steele, Jr., of 25833 Student, Detroit.

There never was any heart truly great and generous that was not also tender and compassionate.—South.

WILLOUGHBY BROTHERS

WALKOVER SHOE STORE

A speed violation was reported for one out of every three fatal motor vehicle accidents in 1944, the National Safety Council reports.

As the casualty list comes in from the first few days of the deer hunting season indications are that the list will run a close second to World War II.

Sixty-five per cent of the grade crossing accidents last year involved trains going less than 30 miles an hour or standing still, the National Safety Council reports.

Hunters Set New Records This Year

There's one certainty about Michigan's 1945 deer season: Hunters had more fun, the north country folks who take care of hunters enjoyed their biggest season ever.

"There was a bigger per capita increment of happiness for hunters and folks in the service industries than I'd ever encountered before," reported Harold Titus of Traverse City, conservation commission chairman, completing visits to hunting camps in several counties.

The conservation department is not ready to say that the hunting army was the biggest ever or that the kill topped the 70,189 deer taken a year ago, the previous record. Hunters, however, took 11,437 deer out of the upper peninsula as compared with 7,989 a year ago, and 1,233 hunters on Drummond Island brought back 398 deer as compared with 909 hunters and 283 deer in the 1944 season.

Size of the hunting army will not be known until all license dealers report their sales. A total of 228,261 resident and non-resident hunters was licensed in 1944.

Again quoting Titus: "There are a lot of gripes, usually—nothing but does, 'weather bad,' 'luck bad.' During the recent season all I heard were expressions of happiness—'lots of bucks,' 'deer moving around.'"

Fewer fatalities—nine as compared with 13 the year before—mattered the season but trigger-happy hunters are estimated to have killed at least 7,500 does. That number figures out to one doe killed illegally for every four square miles of Michigan's 30,000 square miles of deer country—probably a low estimate.

A bull moose weighing 500 pounds was shot near Long Lake on the Tahquamenon river in the upper peninsula; a white horse was killed in a field near Roscommon; hunters stole four pigs averaging 100 pounds each from their pen at Fife lake state forest headquarters.

"Meat thieves" also were active around hunting camps; stole at least five tagged deer strung up at various camps in Iron county.

All in all, however, the first postwar deer season will be remembered as one of the best in Michigan's history. Titus quotes one hunter as declaring:

"I may not get my buck, but no one can take from me my memories of this beautiful weather, this enjoyable time."

Servicemen Get Army Jeeps First

Acknowledging "Jeeps" as the number one request of returning veterans, the Consumer Goods Division of RFC's office of surplus property announced today through F. A. McLaughlan, Chicago regional director, that there are now sufficient vehicles on hand to accept orders from veterans.

Beginning immediately, veterans in Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, North Dakota and South Dakota who have obtained their certificates from the Smaller War plants corporation, may send orders for "Jeeps" to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Office of Surplus Property, Consumer Goods Division at 209 South LaSalle Street. The sale will close on Dec. 17, 1945.

Prices for 1945, 1944 and 1943 models in new, or substantially new mechanical condition and rebuilt models will be sold for the retail price of $782. Models of the year 1942 will be sold for $695. Older models will go for $598.

"Jeeps" requiring replacement of missing parts, units or assemblies, or which require other major repair, will have placed upon them by the RFC an appraised price adjusted to compensate for the cost of putting the vehicles in good mechanical condition.

To date no Plymouth veterans have a jeep on order but several are considering securing one for their own personal use after the first of the year.

Head line, "Nylons will be 25 per cent lower." Does that mean lower in length or price

James Ronald Swegles son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Swegles, who was wounded in Italy, Oct. 6, 1944 has been transferred from Gardner General hospital in Chicago to Percy Jones hospital in Battle Creek.

Tells How To Clean Rug Spots

When something is accidentally spilled or tracked in on a rug, it's wise to act quickly before the spot has had a chance to set, reminds Hazel B. Strahan, head of the department of textiles and clothing at Michigan State college. A clean absorbent cloth or white blotting paper should be used to blot up liquids as soon as possible. Semi-solid materials should be scraped up with a dull knife or spatula. If the carpet has been wet through to the back, it should be raised to permit the wet spot to dry as quickly as possible.

If the nature of the stain is unknown, it is best to sponge the spot with water or with a water solution of one of the soapless lather cleaners. If neither treatment removes the stain, try a solvent cleaner. Stains caused by household pets can sometimes be treated successfully with a warm dilute solution of acetic acid or white vinegar.

Seems a lot of high ranking officers of the army gave a stag party at Indianapolis at which party a flock of nude dancing girls put on an act. The sergeant, who on orders, took pictures of the troop is now being held at Fort Benjamin Harrison, because he printed up a few of the pictures for himself. "Ain't" army life grand?

JUNIORS PRESENT "JANIE", DEC. 19, 20

"Janie," a three act comedy written by Josephine Benthan and Hershel Williams, will be presented by the Junior class on Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 19 and 20, in the High School gymnasium. The play is being coached by Miss Louise Spence, dramatics teacher.

"Janie" contains its good round of laughs. In it, small town comedy and army camp shenanigans are neatly spiced. It is disarming, amusing, down to earth in its contemplation of the American scene.

The entire cast in the order of their appearance is:

Charles Colburn—Fred Weinert
Elisbeth Colburn—Phyllis Makepeace.

Lucille Colburn—Beverly Hauk
Rodney—Bill Farrant.
John Van Brunt—J. Hanna.
Janie Colburn—Wanda Hunt.
Bernadine Dodd—Pat Isbell.
Paula Naolan—Frank Santo.
Thelma Lawrence—Bob Perkins.

Tina—Gerry Shear.
Andy—Charles Dudley.
Frank—Hugh Bradley.
Oscar—Jack Young.
Hortense Bennington—Margaret Plummer.

Dead-Pan Hackett—Dick Palmer.
Carl Loomis—Bob Wagon-schutz.

Joe Jerome—John Pint.
Mickey Malone—Bob Meilbeck.
Uncle Poogie—Lornie O'Hara.

LETTER-MEN HONORED AT BANQUET

Honoring the letter men of Plymouth high school's football team and the coach, Wayne Falan, the Rotary Club of Plymouth entertained at a banquet Friday, Dec. 7 at the Mayflower hotel.

The boys enjoyed a delicious fish dinner and afterwards were entertained with movies of the Michigan-Army football game. Art Valry, assistant coach at Michigan and coached at Ida and Midland high schools before being called back to Michigan.

G. R.'S HOLD RECOGNITION SERVICE

On Dec. 3 a recognition service was held by the Girl Reserve's at 4 p.m. Pat Woods and Caroline Rolin were chairmen of the service. The girls who were recognized are: Jane Houck, Lois Phillips, Nancy Saari, Lois Blankenhagen, Theresa Litwicki, Jean Agosta, Doris Ryder, June Rohrman, Shirley Schockow, Ila Culbertson, Elizabeth Stone, Gayle Hessler, Margaret Plummer, Kathleen Blossom, Patsy Packard, Nancy Pettibone, and Ruth was in charge of the music. All the mothers were invited. The informal recognition was held the next day.

NATIONAL ELECTIONS HELD IN GOVERNMENT

Carrying on lively campaign meetings, the students of Mr. James Latture's government class are now under way on a mock election. Each class divided into its chosen political parties and nominated candidates for the coming election.

Two of the party names chosen are Slacidar (read it backwards) and the Burps ("We bring up ev- (Continued on Page Three)

D. PHILLIPS' DOG RETURNS FROM WAR

One of the happiest boys in Plymouth high school was freshman Douglas Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Phillips of 9618 Ingram in Rosedale, on Nov. 21, when his dog, Prince returned from the war. Doug gave Prince to his country in August 1942 and he immediately started his training in Nebraska. Although Prince never went overseas he has been shipped to several different parts of this country. Now, with an honorable discharge, Prince is home again with his loved master.

NEW SERVICE STAR COMMITTEE CONTINUES TO KEEP RECORD

Continuing where last year's committee left off, Joan Dipboye, Thelma Swan, Lois Marvin, and Rosemary Cuthrie, the new 1945-1946 Service Star committee, are working every Monday during the sixth hour to keep the school up to date on its boys in the service.

Receiving information from the Plymouth Mail, drop-boxes in the Library and Study Hall, and from hearsay, the committee places stars or symbols under the picture of the graduate which hangs in the hall on the first, second, or third floor in order to show his status of service. Below is listed the service status and symbol which will show anyone when looking at a picture the position of graduates of PHS.

Blue star—Serving the U. S. military service.

Green star—Discharged veteran

Gold star—Killed while in service.

Silver star—Missing in action

Red Cross—Medical discharge

Red star—Prisoner of war.

LETTER OF THANKS.

Whether it has been the policy of previous staffs of the Pilgrim Prints or not, it is the belief of this staff that credit should be given where credit is due. Therefore, in this issue of the Pilgrim Prints we would like to express the thanks of the Senior class to some of its members for making the Senior Prom the success that it was. If it were not for these certain individuals who lead others there would not have been the biggest party of the year in the high school last Friday evening.

Our appreciation is given to Jackie Dalton as general chairman for her efforts in seeing that every committee was doing its job. Also to Emmy Lou Hough and her committee who worked themselves dead a week before the party and especially the night before when they worked until 11:00 p.m. putting the decorations in place. We desire to say thank you. We believe that after the auditorium is in complete readiness and all of the decorations are in place a Prom can be a complete failure without good music, therefore to Mary Jane Christensen and her committee a word of gratitude is expressed. Then, to the class advisors, Miss Fiegel, Mrs. Oberg, Mr. Mojsio who kept the chairmen going we also show appreciation.

Of course there were others who helped greatly to put on this party, but the above mentioned we feel deserved mention particularly for their effort, however, we appreciate what all of the Seniors did and again say "Thank you."—Pilgrim Prints Staff. F. B. Hover, editor.

SENIORS OF THE WEEK.

Art and swimming are the hobbies of Marjorie Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Elliott, of 1088 Dewey, Plymouth. Marjorie is completing a commercial course in high school and also takes classes in the Meininger Art school in Detroit, once a week. She plans to continue her art after graduation. Some of Marjorie's activities have been: 9th grade class treasurer, Leader's club, 1000 point letter, Junior play committee, art chairman for Senior Annual and the Art club.

Barbara Folsom, daughter of Esther and Bernard Folsom, resides at 1007 Ingram, Rosedale Gardens. Barb is pursuing a college course and plans to go to the Long Beach Junior College in California or Michigan State College. Waiting for letters and people who spell her name wrong, are Barb's pet peeves. Among her accomplishments are: Girl Reserves, Junior play, Glee club, Senior prom committee, Senior Annual committee, and Drama club. Her hobbies are piano playing and swimming. Barb's travels have extended to Northern Michigan, California and Canada.

Lorraine French's ambition is to travel to California after she graduates to see if it is as good as it sounds. Lorraine's activities have been the J-Hop, Junior play committee, Junior-Senior get-together, and Senior Annual committee. Keeping scrapbooks is Frenchie's hobby. Living at 10530 daughter of William and Marie French, Kansas, Missouri, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, and Pennsylvania have been the places Frenchie has traveled. She is pursuing a college course.

GEOGRAPHY CLASS TRIP BY: EDW. SCHOMBERGER

Wednesday morning, Dec. 5, Mr. Stadtmiller's second hour world Geography class took a trip to the Museum of Natural history. Upon arriving in Ann Arbor at the museum we were split up into two groups. While one group was studying mastodons, the other group was studying different kinds of animals found in Michigan.
 Of the animals found in Michigan the birds were the most plentiful. The birds were shown how they lived and worked for an existence. The animal that seemingly had the most enemies was the rabbit. Also, it showed how an animal stalks its prey.
 On the second floor were skeletons of mastodons and other animals of the prehistoric ages. One of the most interesting of the Mastodons was one found near Ypsilanti, Michigan. Another interesting skeleton was that of an Indian woman found near Detroit.
 After looking over other minor things we left the museum and headed for home. We arrived in Plymouth at 11:30 so we had time to go to our afternoon classes.

STUDENT COUNCIL MINUTES.

The regular meeting of the Student Council of Plymouth high school was called to order by the mayor, Alan Kidston, on Nov. 29, 1945 at 2:45 p.m. in room 37.
 The secretary's report was read and approved. Caroline Rolan read the treasurer's report. Lydia Finetti moved that it be accepted. Motion carried.
 Unfinished business: There was a discussion on Carolina Rolan's report on A and B or just B averages in school work. Bill Bateman moved that we leave the averages to all A and B for the honor roll. Motion carried.
 New business: Mayor Kidston read a letter from Redford Union requesting our Student Council's presence early in February at a district Student Council meeting. Caroline Rolan moved that Don Korte write a letter to Redford Union accepting their invitation to this Council meeting. Motion carried.
 Margery Bassett read a paper presented by a group of students requesting that they be able to wear a school sweater bearing some emblem signifying their participation in sports. Don Korte moved that this request be denied. Motion carried.
 Bill Bateman suggested that we give hall monitors, who fulfill the requirements, a season's basketball ticket. Fred Weinert moved that we postpone this suggestion until next meeting, Wednesday, Dec. 5, sixth hour. Motion carried.
 Bill Bateman moved the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried. Secretary, Student Council, Don Korte.
 A special meeting of the student council of Plymouth high school was called to order by the mayor, Alan Kidston.
 The secretary's report was read and approved. Caroline Rolan, read the treasurer's report. It was accepted.
 A discussion was held about the financial circumstances of Student Council.
 Unfinished Business: The problem of giving season basketball tickets to the troupers was brought up. It was suggested that they be admitted to one game free. It was also stated that we had no control over giving free basketball tickets.
 Fred Weinert moved that we give a season ticket to our treasurer for her work on the magazine sales. The motion was carried.
 Bill Bateman moved that we send the following petition to the one in charge of the basketball seats. M. Bassett was to take it to the proper place.
 The Student Council resolved on Dec. 5 to send a representative to the Athletic department to ask their permission to allow two troupers from each floor to be admitted free to every basketball game. Each trouper can not attend more than two games free. There must be an interval of two games between each troupers attendance.
 We talked about the troupers and the time they leave class. It was brought up that they should try and see that paper is picked up.
 A motion was made that a committee be appointed to make a report on the court and hall monitors. Motion carried. Joan Erb, Lydia Finetti and two outsiders were chosen.
 Fred Weinert moved the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried. Substitute Secretary, Student Council, Margie Bassett.

YOU can't put more eggs in a basket than it will hold. It won't work! And you can't use any number of electrical appliances on one circuit. It won't work either! Yet many home owners have become accustomed to inadequate wiring—to frequent blown fuses because of an "overloaded" circuit. Making sure that your home wiring is up to date is your assurance of being able to use the electrical appliances you want in your home when you want to use them—where you want to use them. It means having your home furnishings arranged to suit your taste, with outlets always convenient. It also means that it should accommodate a new frozen-food cabinet, electric range, automatic laundry, electric dishwasher and many other electrical appliances. And, of course, if your plans for tomorrow include a brand-new home, adequate wiring is an "A-1" item to check in plans and specifications.

This is one of a series of advertisements prepared in cooperation with the electrical contractors in your area in the interest of insuring adequate wiring for every home. When you build or remodel, be sure your home is properly wired. For wiring recommendations, call your local Detroit Edison office.

(Written by a Cadet of the Plymouth CAP)

Here's good news for the people who have been following Civil Air Patrol events. Mr. R. R. Penhale, the principal, and Mr. H. A. Nelson, the superintendent of Plymouth high school, have agreed to put Civil Air Patrol on the school curriculum. Cadets taking Civil Air Patrol courses will receive one credit a year. This will be added to the regular high school credits.

First Aid classes were started December 4, under Lieut. L. Duffy. Lieut. Duffy has had 12 years of Industrial First Aid and has offered to give class instruction to all cadets of the Plymouth Flight. The first class was mainly a discussion of bone structure and how to treat people who have received a fractured or broken bone.

Lieut. L. Wells, Flight Commander of the Plymouth Flight has sent to Wing Headquarters for the following instructional movies in reference to First Aid, First Aid for Battle Injuries (this includes all practical use of elementary first aid as taught by the Red Cross.) First Aid for Non-Battle Injuries, Essentials of First Aid, and Personal Hygiene.

Two weeks ago last Sunday, Lieut. L. Wells, and Cadet Sgt. R. Mielbeck and Lieut. R. McDowell undertook to fly to Adrian. This normal flight took an unexpected turn when the three suddenly realized that they had forgotten to bring along a navigational chart and as a result they had to land in a farmer's cornfield 25 miles south of Adrian, their destination. The seemingly normal flight which was supposed to take one half hour took them an hour and a half. This is a very good example of how the most experienced pilot can get lost from just failing to bring along a navigational chart.

Men's Clothing Shortage Is Serious Problem

Returning Plymouth veterans are having difficulty in purchasing civilian clothing to take the place of their uniforms. While Plymouth stores have put forth special efforts to keep in stock clothing badly needed by OUR BOYS now coming home, they have been unable to get their orders filled.

Detroit stores are no better off than are the Plymouth stores. They, too, are having their problems. With retail stocks at the lowest point since the war began, clothing manufacturers today held out a little hope for improved supplies of suits and coats for men but cautioned that production hinges on getting more rayon for linings.

An industry spokesman in New York said men's clothing makers are getting only 30 to 40 per cent of the normal supply of lining fabrics, while demand is at least one third above normal.

Estimates of current production of men's clothing range from 700,000 to slightly over 1,000,000 suits a month, while monthly demand for veterans alone is said to be about 2,000,000.

"Clothing is starting to come through now in increasing quantities," said Jerome I. Udell, president of Max Udell Sons & Co., New York clothing manufacturers. "Production was about 50 per cent of normal before V-J Day and currently has risen to about 75 per cent. If there is relief in rayon linings, by January production may approach normal."

The Civilian Production Administration has taken steps to correct the unequal distribution of lining materials by giving men's and boys' clothing priorities, he said. But other problems to be met are gray goods pricing difficulties, diversion of rayon yarn to tire cord and strikes in some finishing plants.

"Retailers' stocks can't go much lower than they are now," Mr. Udell said. "But with gradual improvement in production a veteran will be able to get a suit. He won't have much to choose from, but with a little shopping he will be able to find one in his size."

While his chance for getting a suit—and even a coat—may improve, the veteran probably will have more trouble than ever in buying a shirt.

"Bad as it is today, the shirt supply situation will get worse if we don't get textiles," said M. J. Lovell of the Shirt and Pajama Manufacturers Association. "Unless something happens I don't think we will have anywhere near what we will need into 1946."

Mr. Lovell added that one possibility for improvement is that "the passing of the old tax period Dec. 31 might bring out a bigger flow of goods that may have been held up for tax purposes."

Chickens To Be Streamlined

A blueprint for the ideal "Chicken of Tomorrow" received final approval today as representatives of the nation's major poultry organizations concluded a two-day meeting here and completed arrangements for a three-year breeding contest to duplicate the model in live flesh and feathers.

Many of the country's leading poultry scientists and geneticists contributed to designing of the ideal chicken of the future, according to Dr. R. George Jaap, Oklahoma A & M College, and Dr. T. C. Byerly, U. S. Department of Agriculture, two scientists who are members of the national committee in session here. Specifications call for a bird, the two specialists said, with meatier, shorter legs and a broader breast. A larger proportion of flesh to bones must be bred into the bird to provide more ample carvings of both white and dark meat, they pointed out, adding that the ultimate goal is to put at least 10 per cent more edible meat on the average chicken. It must grow faster on less feed for economical production and contestants must prove their entires can be reproduced.

All poultry producers, from large breeder hatcheries to owners of backyard flocks, will be eligible to compete in the contest to produce the living duplicate of the plaster model designed by the scientists. This program was originated and offered the poultry industry by A & P Tea Company which has furnished funds for conducting it, including a $5,000 cash award for the most successful breeder and smaller awards for regional winners.

"This is the first definite plan to bring about postwar improvements of the country's third largest agricultural crop — the only farm commodity which is grown in every county in the United States," said D. D. Slade, Lexington, Ky., contest committee chairman. "Our committee realizes the difficulty of trying to blueprint a design for the future of something that lives, walks and breathes. But we will accomplish our main objective of focusing attention of poultrymen on the benefits of selecting breeding stock for meat-type characteristics, rather than just their egg-producing ability."

The contest starts Jan. 1, and continues through 1948. Poultrymen may obtain descriptive folders and entry blanks, Slade said, from their state poultry associations.

John Lewis and the AF of L promises to prove a stumbling block to CIO plans. If Lewis and the federation stand together it may result in better conditions both for industry and workers.

Disorder in the house was responsible for 18 per cent of home accidents studied in a survey made by the National Safety Council.

It is thought that automobile tire rationing will end after the first of the year. There should be plenty of tires for the old cars as it looks now as if the CIO would prevent the manufacture of many new cars.

Mistakes Now And Then Get By

There's nothing quite so exasperating as for an editor to see a typographical mistake in his own paper. Frequently they make the hair on the head of The Mail editor "stand right up straight." But there's consolation in knowing that The Plymouth Mail is not the only good newspaper in the world that now and then lets an error get by.

The following slips were recently compiled from some of the papers throughout the country—you will read them with interest:

From the N. Y. World-Telegram: Loretta Young is in a hospital, where she gave birth to a son, Peter, July 16.

A notice in the Bridgeton, N. J.,

Evening News: Elder Vales, pastor of the Soul Stirring Church, Brooklyn, will speak here at eight o'clock. She will bring a quart with her and they will sing appropriate selections during the service.

Ad in the Batavia, N. Y., Daily News: Odd jobs wanted by handy man, trimming hedges, shrubs and others.

An item in the Tulsa, Okla., Tribune: F. Clark Parnell, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Z. O. Parnell, has left for the Mexico Military Institute.

The Manchester, N. H., Leader, in a piece explaining the point system, reported: The Army expects to discourage 6,000,000 men by next July 1.

In an Ohio paper: The operator of the other car, charged with drunken driving, crashed into Miss Miller's rear end which was sticking out into the road.

From an ad for DDT in the Baldwin, Kan., Ledger: Prepared for destruction of flies, aunts and other pests.

The Lansing, Mich., State Journal announced: President Truman will appoint Bennett Champ Clark a member of the District of Columbia court of appeals, a lifetime job paying $12,000 a year.

From the social column of the Asheville, N. C., Citizen: A musical program was presented during the afternoon. Mrs. Melvin Tilson, accompanied by Mrs. C. Fred Brown, sang two numbers.

Counterfeit $50 Federal Reserve notes seized in Milan, Italy, recently bore the words "redeemable in awful currency of the United States Treasury." — New York Times.

Few Kept Bees Honey Shortage

At various times there have been quite a few folks in Plymouth who have kept two or three hives of bees in order to provide their own honey needs for the year.

But mischievous boys, late and wet springs, and lack of sugar to properly feed them during the winter has somewhat discouraged this old thrift habit.

Only a very few around here kept bees during the past year.

And now there prevails a great shortage of honey in this state. Not because of a bee shortage as around here, but because of the demand.

In spite of the fact that Michigan's 1945 crop of honey was approximately 32 per cent higher than that of the preceding year, reports Charles Figy, Director of the State Department of Agriculture, the demand far exceeds the supply. With about nine months before next year's crop will be available, already about three-fourths of the crop is out of the hands of the producer.

Michigan's honey crop this past year was of exceptionally good quality, the larger part of which was of mild flavor and excellent for canning purposes. Due to the extreme shortage of sugar at canning time, a large amount of Michigan's light, mild flavored honey was used in canning peaches and other fruits that were available.

The crop this past season in Michigan was estimated at 8,910,600 pounds. The crop in the northern part of the state was considerably above average in both quality and quantity, which undoubtedly played an important part in the total increase in yield over that of the preceding season.

Had it not been for the fact that sugar was made available to beekeepers for bee feeding purposes, states Don P. Barrett, Chief Apiarist, this crop could not have been obtained, for the unseasonable warm weather of early spring started unusual bee colony activity in the hives, resulting in a rapid consumption of stores. Then, with the prolonged cold and rainy weather throughout April and May, many colonies by the first of June were on the verge of starvation. For every pound of sugar allowed by the government for bee feeding purposes, approximately 10 pounds of surplus honey was made available for human consumption, besides an additional amount of honey which is left to maintain the colonies through the winter months, or until spring again brings nectar producing flowers into bloom.

About one-half of the 1945 crop was produced in the north-central states, in which the honey industry of Michigan played an important part.

To cultivate sympathy you must be among living creatures, and thinking about them.—Ruskin.

Slippery Streets Add to Holiday Accident Toll

Snow and ice, those twin accomplices of SPEED, the KILLER, seem to take fiendish delight in adding to their toll during the Holiday season.

Perhaps it's because auto fatalities are doubly tragic at this season of the year.

Skidding, born of speeding in most instances, cost 84 lives in Michigan last December.

But, Hazardous as they are, slippery streets and highways need not reap the harvest that they do.

Safe driving practices—driving slowly when approaching intersections; always keeping the car under control, will prevent such tragedies.

35% more meat wanted! This means thousands of new jobs!

Jobs on the hoof! Raising more meat means more jobs!

Jobs in packing plants!—As demand for meat zooms!

Jobs in stores! More demand means more workers needed.

Making Postwar Jobs—Out of Meat!

HOW many jobs will there be as this country returns to peacetime production? Will there be enough jobs for veterans, for former war workers?

No one can say, exactly. But this much we know: Many industries along our routes offer amazing possibilities for jobs in the immediate future—thousands of new jobs that have never existed before! These jobs are going to grow out of the gigantic demand for goods and services that exists in this country—and from production that will satisfy that demand.

Consider the meat-packing industry. Meat suffered the greatest shortage and was missed more than any other food during the war. Moreover, meat has become a greater item in our diets—both military and civilian. And new knowledge of the health-giving qualities of meat has made meat more in demand than ever.

Right now, leaders in the meat-packing industry are readying production facilities to take care of a tremendous increase in domestic consumption. They confidently expect a rise in demand of as much as 35%! This will make meat a 4-billion-dollar enterprise, ranking with steel and automobiles in the number of people employed.

It will mean myriads of new jobs on the country's 3,000,000 ranches and farms growing meat, in the 4,000 packing plants, and on the sales staffs serving these plants. It will mean more jobs in the country's 400,000 retail outlets selling meat—and it will mean new jobs in the factories and the service trades that supply or serve people connected with raising, packing and distributing meat!

Meat-packing is only one of many industries along the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Nickel Plate, and the Pere Marquette, that are going ahead with all possible speed, now that Victory has been won.

GO EARLY...
GO GREYHOUND!

Start Before, Return After the Holiday Rush

The happiest Christmas in four long years means that millions of Americans will be on the move — especially right around the Holidays.

You'll be wise to take your Year-End trip early, a little before the rush days — returning a little after, if convenient — rather than during the immediate holiday period, when all travel facilities will be most heavily taxed.

So we say Go Early... Go Greyhound! You'll get more for your travel dollar — more comfort, more enjoyment — by arranging to go before or after the days when travel is heaviest.

And here's another timely tip: Check with the Greyhound Agent, in advance of the date you plan to leave, for complete information about schedules, fares and routes.

Babson Says - -

Babson Park, Mass., Dec. 14.—People may disagree as to the seriousness of the present labor situation. The fact, nevertheless, remains that labor unions hold the same position of power today as bankers held a generation or two ago.

Will Labor Abuse Its Power?

When I first started my statistical work forty years ago, the bankers—both of the large cities and of the small communities—had tremendous power to make or break manufacturers, merchants, and businessmen in general. This could be done by granting or withholding credit and advising others to follow their example. This power was what ultimately resulted in the government's practically taking over the management of the nation's banking. Now, the bankers' wings have been clipped and a banker is only a businessman like the rest of us.

In those days, labor had very little power and labor leaders were looked upon as "irresponsible bolsheviks." As the power of the bankers waned, the power of labor leaders has increased. Today, many labor unions are powerful enough to make or break any manufacturer, merchant or other businessman. Let us hope that labor will consider its power a sacred trust in the interest of the people as a whole. If not, our labor leaders will be dethroned the same as were the bankers. In a democracy, no one group can, for long, abuse its power.

Labor Unions Increase Unemployment

Apart from the abuse of power, labor is fast reaching a point where it will kill itself by overweight as did the big mastodons of old. Every group throughout history has been subject to Sir Isaac Newton's Law of Action and Reaction, commonly known as the Cycle. This is most simply illustrated in the case of prices and production. Prices are high because production is low; increased prices cause increased production; until finally prices break and they are back from where they started. This seems to be a fundamental law of nature.

The unreasonable wages which now are being demanded by certain groups will result in forcing the employers to install more new labor-saving machinery. A thousand men may, by holding a pistol up to their employer's head, force an unjustified 15 per cent raise in wages. But in such a case, the employer is forced to install labor-saving machinery and get on with 850 men instead of 1,000. Hence, 150 men are thrown out.

Foolproof Labor Stocks.

Companies whose labor expense is the smallest proportion of their total expense should be the least vulnerable to labor troubles. The following list speaks for itself: Drugs 10%; Soap 13%; Paints 17%; Food Preparations 17%; Chemicals 20%; Petroleum Refining 24%; Cement 26%; Smelting & Mining 28%; Can Manufacturing 30%; Rayon 36%; Electrical Equipment 37%; Meat Packing 38%; Tires & Tubes 39%; Agricultural Machinery 40%; Machine Tools 40%; Bakery Products 41%; Office & Store Machinery 41%; Aircraft 42%; Locomotives 45%; Automobiles, Steel Works, Woolen and Cotton Mills, and Shoe Factories 50%.

There, however, are other factors which investors should consider, such as how the earnings of a company are affected by strikes. Considering this also makes me conclude that the all-round best hedges against inflation are: (1) BANKS, (2) INSURANCE COMPANIES, (3) UTILITIES, (4) MERCHANDISING CHAINS, (5) LAND COMPANIES, (6) REALTY AND RENTAL COMPANIES, (7) COMPANIES OWNING PATENTS, (8) FINANCE COMPANIES, and (9) COMPANIES MAKING LABOR-SAVING MACHINERY.

My Cyclone Cellar

If Congress does not rectify the present unfair labor situation we will have one big national strike when our homes will temporarily be cut off from all conveniences. As a hedge against that day, I am building in my yard a small house and stocking it with canned goods. I am driving a well for my water; am installing underground oil tanks with a good big wood pile; am building a chemical toilet and am insulating the small "hut" against heat and cold. In an emergency, we could continue to sleep in the bedrooms of my adjoining house, but the living, cooking and eating will be in this new little building!

In a study made in Vermont, it was found that the average damage to an automobile involved in an accident was $56.20 when it was traveling 10 miles an hour or less. When the car was traveling over 50 miles an hour, the average accident damage was $454.67, according to the National Safety Council.

25 Years Ago
News items of a quarter of a century ago taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail.

A quiet and pretty house wedding occurred Wednesday morning, Dec. 1, at nine o'clock, at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Mills on Church street, when their daughter, Mildred M. Mills, became the bride of Harold J. Barnes of Plymouth. Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony, using the Presbyterian ring service. Only the immediate members of the family and a few of the bride's most intimate friends were present.

Corette Hough was the guest of her brother, Cass Sheffield Hough, and other friends at Culver, Indiana, over Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cochran of Northville, and Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Gilbert and little daughter, Helen, of this place, visited the former's daughter, Marian, at Monroe, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Barrows had as Thanksgiving guests, the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. Cora Hawkins and Miss Alice Hawkins; also Miss Mary Hoover, Mrs. Rose Mallory and Mrs. Schrieber, all of Detroit.

Oscar Alsbro spent last week Thursday in Cincinnati, Ohio; Friday in Louisville, Kentucky, and Saturday and Sunday in Nashville, Tenn., returning home the first of the week.

George A. Starkweather of Billings, Montana, who has been spending the past month in Detroit and vicinity spent Thanksgiving at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Louis Hillmer. Mr. Starkweather is a nephew of the late George A. Starkweather of this place.

Mrs. Donald Ryder entertained at luncheon Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Henry Grimm, Jr.'s birthday: Mrs. Glen Smith, Mrs. Frederick Thomas, Plymouth; Miss Ellen Gardiner and Miss Beulah Ryder.

Mrs. Fred Lee received a card from Mrs. Charles Weaver, stating they were located in Oakland, Calif., for the winter. They made the trip by motor and were six weeks on the way. Having to change their route on account of a snow blockade, which lengthened their trip.

William Garshow is having a new lighting system installed in his buildings.

Burt Paddock and children spent Sunday afternoon at the home of his uncle, C. E. Ryder.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy and family spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Quinn in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kehrl and family took Thanksgiving dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Louis Krumm's in Detroit. Mrs. Kehrl and children remained over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Smith were Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Josephine Thompson at North Adams, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Daggett have moved to Holly to make their future home. They have purchased residence property there, Plymouth people regret their leaving very much indeed.

A birthday surprise party was given Archie Collins, last Saturday evening, at his home on Pennington avenue. There were fourteen relatives and friends present, and he was the recipient of a number of nice gifts in remembrance of the occasion. Cards furnished the amusement of the evening, after which refreshments were served.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Teich of Northville, Saturday, November 27, an eight-pound girl. Mrs. Teich is a niece of Mrs. E. P. Lombard.

Miss Rose Hillmer, who for the past two months has been a guest at the home of her brother, Max L. Hillmer, at Anderson, Indiana, has returned home. During her visit there, she with her brother and family, motored to Cincinnati, Ohio, where Miss Hillmer visited the hospital in which she was dietitian. On their return trip, the party drove through the hills of northern Kentucky. On the way back to Plymouth, Miss Hillmer visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Keese, and Mrs. Hulda Huffman, at Silver Lake, Indiana.

F. W. Hillman has just completed installing a 54-inch ventilator, 25 feet in height, in a new addition which the Dalay Mfg. Co. have built at their plant.

Henry Fisher's blacksmith shop will be closed on the 7, 8, 9, and 10 of December while Mr. Fisher is attending the Implement Dealers Association convention at Grand Rapids.

Including in the improvements which the Pere Marquette are making here will be a rest room, a wood working shop and a store-room for castings, etc. There are pretty good indications now that next spring will see a new depot under construction in Plymouth.

Mrs. H. A. Spicer very agreeably entertained her Sunday School class of 23 ladies at her home on East Ann Arbor street, Wednesday afternoon, at a farewell tea in honor of their teacher, Mrs. G. H. Whitney, and Mrs. John Stewart, members of the class, who leave next Tuesday for a winter's stay in Florida. Music and a social hour made the afternoon a pleasant one, and the guests of honor were each presented with small gifts as a token of best wishes.

William Graden, who fell from a load of cornstalks, last week, is reported a little better.

In the fall and winter months only 24 pedestrians are killed in traffic accidents in the three hours immediately before sunset for each 100 who die in the three hours just after sunset, according to the National Safety Council.
