

What I Think and Have a Right to Say
Edwin R. Eaton

AN AMAZING ACCOMPLISHMENT.

Probably one of the most important statements published in The Plymouth Mail in scores of years appeared in last week's issue.

There were no big headlines over it—just an ordinary, everyday sort of a statement you read then pass on to read something else.

It was a statement which not only reflected the tireless and successful efforts of an institution, but it reflected the tremendous growth and development of the City of Plymouth.

If you still have last week's issue of The Plymouth Mail on your library table, turn again to the statement of The First National Bank.

Read once more that line which says "Total assets—$5,031,940.78." Yes it says The First National bank now has assets to the value of five million, thirty-one thousand, nine hundred forty dollars and 78 cents!

Who would ever believe back five, ten or fifteen years ago that this conservative but progressive little city would have a bank with more than five millions of dollars in assets! It wasn't you, and it wasn't me.

But it was an accomplished fact!

The Plymouth Mail likes to say good words about people who do worthwhile and beneficial things. That's why we say to Floyd Kehrl, president of the First National bank, and his able assistant, Jack Taylor, the cashier, congratulations!

From right down on the bottom of the heap, they have raised The First National bank to one of the outstanding financial institutions of Michigan.

It was no easy task—this amazing and successful accomplishment.

The writer of this column always thought he was one of the "early birds" in getting down to work in the morning. But in recent years we found that we had company in turning office lights on before daylight. President Kehrl and Cashier Taylor have not only been on the job early in the morning, but they have worked late nights as well as holidays. Their last bank statement shows the results of their tireless efforts.

Even though they work long hours both President Kehrl and Mr. Taylor find time to do their part in community affairs.

Not only have they been most cooperative with the patrons of the bank, but with those who were not even customers of the bank.

While it is not generally known, Mr. Kehrl from the first war bond drive until the last one, was one of the most enthusiastic war bond workers in this or any other city.

During one of the drives, Plymouth was around $160,000 short in its sale of E bonds as the drive was nearing its final day. The local war bond chairman called Mr. Kehrl by phone and asked him if it would be possible for him to try and increase sale of the E bonds.

"I'll see what I can do" he replied. Late that same afternoon he called back and reported that the amount could be reduced by $40,000. In two or three more days he had sold nearly the entire amount of E bonds necessary to make up the quota.

Not only did he actively take part in every war bond drive, but he employed extra help in the bank in order to make it more convenient for people who desired to turn their cash into war bonds in order to help win the war.

This is but a sample of his willingness and desire to serve Plymouth and the area surrounding this progressive city.

Mr. Taylor has always displayed the same enthusiastic interest in the welfare of any movement which has had for its purpose the betterment of this city and its people.

Again we say congratulations—and we are sure we reflect the spirit of the entire community when we say it.

THIS HOUSING SHORTAGE.

The Washington administration's new housing authority says that there are about 500,000 new homes needed in this country at the present time.

That goes to show how little some of these newly created bureaucrats seem to know about the job they are expected to do. Those who are in a position to know, say the figure should be five million, instead of a mere half million.

In fact the little city of Plymouth could very easily use not less than 500 new homes, if we had them. And that, say some, would not take care of the demand for residences in and around Plymouth.

ED. GOODWIN AND MCKAY.

See by the papers where Ed. Goodwin, for years and years a McKay stooge and business associate of Ed. Nowak, who is now under sentence to federal prison for running a racket in gasoline stamp coupons at a time when American boys were dying by the hundreds because of gas shortages on the fighting fronts, has been cited for contempt of court in Lansing.

News accounts have not been too clear, but from what one reads it would appear that a deliberate attempt has been made to bring about a miscarriage of justice in the McKay case by interfering with the jury panel.

From the day that the grand jury started to dig into rotten conditions in Lansing and sending to prison grafting public officials, Ed. Goodwin through his political sheet has done everything within his power to discredit Judge Carr and Special State Prosecutor Kim Sigler.

Believing Sigler to be more vulnerable, Goodwin's aim has been directed chiefly at him, in the hopes that Sigler could be discredited to the benefit of McKay.

These newspaper reports indicate that Goodwin has gone so far as to even try a little jury tampering.

We are not acquainted with all of the facts in the case, but there is this that can be said about it, the McKay political mob which is spending hundreds of thousands to beat the state's charge, will go the limit in its efforts to make the public believe that McKay, the Grand Rapids politician who has freely boasted that he has made millions of dollars through politics, is the Simon-pure angel of Michigan.

As a matter of fact, he and his whole crowd are just what you think they are—and we don't know your thoughts. But we DO KNOW that McKay started the Republican party in Michigan down hill of the toboggan, and that until the party is rid of him and all of his ilk, the public has a right to suspect its honest intent.

It is interesting to note, too, that Rabble Rouser Gerald L. K. Smith must soon do a lot of explaining to a congressional committee investigating un-American activities. Both Ed. Goodwin and Ed. Nowack were active in Smith's senatorial campaign and did what they could to make this notorious money-grabber a candidate on the Republican ticket for United States senator. There's an old saying that birds of a feather, etc.

Mrs. Hattie Holloway has moved to Plymouth and is staying at the Drake Sisters home on South Harvey street where she will be glad to see her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee announce the engagement of their daughter Phyllis to Roy Singleton, son of Mrs. M. Singleton. No date has been set for the wedding.

$30,000.00 Addition Is Started At Lingemann Plant

Announcement of the immediate construction of a $30,000.00 addition to their present building was made last week by the Lingemann Products Company of this city.

According to Loren Lingemann, president of the company the new building will be of glass and cement block construction with two stories in front which will house the offices and one story in the rear to add necessary floor space for the manufacturing of hose reels. The new building is to be north and immediately adjacent to the present building and will add about 35,000 square feet of floor space to their plant.

Mr. Lingemann and Spence, partners in the company, worked along side of one another at Murray Body Corporation back in 1933 and 34 from there Lingemann went into a tool and die company and Spence took up mechanical dentistry. It was 1943 before they were back together again only this time as employers and partners in the Lingemann Products Company. Just prior to the war Lingemann started out with several lathes and grinders, doing small tool and die jobs, with that start he branched out into custom welding and the manufacturing of storage tanks. The next step was to take on work sub let to them by some of the larger tool and die firms from Detroit.

Most of the profits were turned back into their growing concern for the purchase of additional machinery which is being put to use in post war work.

Coinciding with the announcement of the expansion came an announcement that their two shifts will be increased to three this week. At the present time the staff is vitally concerned with a

Detroit Coming Here to Share Richwine Office

Willard H. Bracklow, of Detroit, a practicing attorney for more than 20 years, will come here soon to share offices with Perry W. Richwine, veteran Plymouth barrister.

Mr. Bracklow, whose specialty is municipal law, will bring with him a broad experience in conducting Circuit Court trials and in briefing.

His coming to Plymouth will permit Mr. Richwine to indulge his desire to confine his practice to Probate, Real Estate and Income Tax Law.

Olds Garage Is Under Construction

Construction has been started on a new Oldsmobile garage at 755 S. Main Street by Walter Beglinger of this city. Plans call for 42,000 square feet of floor space which will house a sales room, large service department and gasoline station.

The new building, a one story cement block structure with a tile front, is the realization of the need for a larger site and more floor space. The property was purchased by Mr. Beglinger in June 1945 in order that his business might expand with the ever increasing demand for new automobiles and allow him to make any needed expansion in the future as well as have enough room for a used car lot.

Robert Burley, the former manager of the Austin Shell Service Station will have charge of the service department. Mr. Beglinger announced this week. Mr. Burley was recently discharged from the Army as a Sergeant after four years of service, most of it spent in the South Pacific.

The building is being constructed at a cost of $16,000.00 and the gas station will carry City Service products.

Three West Brothers Form New Business Corporation Here

Alfred R. West, Plymouth's McCormick-Deering dealer since 1935, this week announced that his agency has been reorganized to include two of his brothers, Earl and Joe, and since January 1 has been doing business as the West Brothers, Inc.

The new setup will also include a discharged veteran of World War II, Tom Mitchell, who worked for Alfred about three years before the war. Tom will have charge of the parts department.

Under the plans drawn up for the corporation, Alfred West will have charge of the sale of farm implements, Earl will handle the trucks and Joe will run the business office and serve as bookkeeper.

The brothers are well qualified to run the business as all received excellent training in merchandising from their father who operated a general store in the Cherry Hill district for many years.

In addition to the invaluable experience they received while helping their dad in his store, each has since pursued a line of business, which fits them well to become members of a "family" firm.

Alfred was selling the International line of implements as early as 1927 when he was then located in Sheldon. He moved his business to Plymouth in 1935 and continued to grow.

Earl has sold cars and trucks previously and hopes to place many International truck units in this area when the current production snarl all over the country is unraveled and things get back to normal.

Joe has always been the clerk of the family. His ability to keep books and manage the business office of the new firm will do much towards assuring the success of the brothers' venture.

In conjunction with the announcement regarding the brothers, Alfred West revealed that materials for the firm's new building are beginning to be released.

Foundations for the 82 by 100 structure are all poured and the concrete blocks are on the site. The contractor hopes to have it completed by spring. When finished the building will be the largest and most modern farm

Roof Blaze Results in $400 Damage at Ringle Home

Sparks from the chimney set fire to the roof at the William Ringle home, 877 Blunk street, last Saturday afternoon. Damage to the residence was estimated to be $400, according to Plymouth firemen. They received the call at 2:55 p.m. and remained at the scene for 45 minutes, their report states. Firemen said most of the wood shingles were destroyed and the roof boards badly burned in several places.

Novel Plan Will Fill March of Dimes Cannisters

Dollars instead of dimes will march next Monday in Plymouth as the merchants and professional men answer the annual appeal for aid to the polio victims of the immediate vicinity and the country as a whole.

Harry Reeves, chairman of the polio campaign fund drive, here this year, announced that a novel plan for filling the cannisters in local business places had been worked out.

Virtually every store in the community has agreed to place the entire profit of some particular item sold during the day, Monday, into the cannister at the store. Those places not adopting that plan will place a percentage of their day's profits as a whole or on a single item in the cannister. A few will donate the day's sales tax.

In the professional offices and such places as the license bureau, banks, postoffice, Western Union and chamber of commerce office, persons will be asked to make special donations to the respective polio cannisters during the day.

Such a program should result in each cannister being well filled and put Plymouth over the top in this year's most worthy March of Dimes campaign.

A dinner will be given after the dance Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Terry for Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hollidge of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Laskey of Milan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ruterbusch, Mr. and Mrs. Don Rank, Charles Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Rustling Cutler and Mrs. Earl Lyke.

Rotary Club Fete Tickets All Gone

Tickets for the annual "Ladies Rotary Club" at 7 p.m. next Tuesday night banquet of the Plymouth Rotary in the Masonic Temple are virtually all sold. Those who failed to secure them will regret their negligence. To miss hearing Colonel Jack Major, Peducal, Ky., humorist, is something that should not happen to anyone.

Col. Major, secured for the occasion through the efforts of C. H. Bennett, president of the Daisy Manufacturing Company, and chairman of the banquet program, is by far the country's top humorist. His ready wit and ability to tell stories is known from coast to coast.

He is a favorite with the great and near great in our nation's capital and with the armed forces personnel. The audiences of England and Australia acclaim Jack as America's leading comic.

Jack seldom appears in a community the size of Plymouth but through the efforts of Mr. Bennett, who first heard him at a convention in New York, he agreed to come here for the Rotary banquet. It will be an evening long remembered by those fortunate enough to hear him.

Allen Industries Hit by Fire Monday Night; Damage Will Exceed $15,000

For the third time in the past few months the Allen Industries plant at Junction and Harvey Streets, Monday night was the scene of a stubborn blaze. Plymouth firemen who remained on the job from 10:30 p.m. to 6 a.m. said they believed the damage would exceed $15,000.

Elmer Zuckerman, president of the firm's local division, said that he was unable to make any estimate of his plant's loss. He did say that more than 200,000 pounds of jute was rendered useless by fire and water and that production was interrupted for more than 36 hours.

The fire, thought to have originated from electric sparks resulting when a light bulb broke, was centered in the plant's raw material storeroom. Mr. Zuckerman said.

Despite the spray from 52 automatic sprinklers and the amount of water firemen poured into the building, the piles of jute still were burning late Tuesday afternoon.

Charred and smoldering piles of jute littered the vacant lot adjacent to the plant. Firemen and the night shift employees cleared out much of the damaged material and the remainder, still smoldering and soggy with water, was removed Tuesday by the day shift, according to Mr. Zuckerman. He said the plant would resume production sometime Wednesday. Fibre auto accessories are manufactured there.

The storeroom is located on the second floor and in order to gain access to the blaze it was necessary for firemen to smash most of the windows. Mr. Zuckerman reported.

He also said that no other portion of the plant was damaged, but believed some of the machinery directly beneath the storeroom might have been damaged by water leaking through. Although the entire plant is protected by a sprinkler system it operates only in the affected part of the building.

Mr. Zuckerman said the fire was the worst experienced by the plant and the most costly. The blaze was not spectacular but very stubborn and for that reason attracted little attention from the general public. In damage, it is probably one of the biggest fires in Plymouth's history.

Former Resident Dies at Lansing

Mrs. Frank H. Shattuck, 80, a former Plymouth school teacher, died January 15 at her home in Lansing. She had resided in that city since 1918.

Funeral services were held January 17 in Lansing. Burial rites with the Rev. T. Leonard Sanders officiating were held at Riverside Cemetery here.

Mrs. Shattuck, a daughter of the late Rev. Charles Church, former pastor of the Plymouth Methodist church, taught school here many years ago. With her husband she moved to Lansing from Plymouth during World War I.

Surviving is the husband, Frank, a retired rural mail carrier who formerly worked out of the local postoffice; a nephew, R. Sanford Shattuck, and niece, Mrs. Charles H. Garlett, both of Plymouth; and a cousin, Marquis E. Shattuck, assistant superintendent of public schools in Detroit.

"Business Future Most Uncertain Since Country's Inception"—Lovett

Biggest Need Is Administration Stand

"Business is facing its most uncertain future since the inception of this country," stated John Lovett to local Rotarians and guests last Friday noon. Mr. Lovett is secretary and manager of the Michigan Manufacturers Association and was brought to the meeting through the efforts of Paul Wiedman, local Ford dealer.

"Businessmen and manufacturers are facing a period of uncertainty and without the aid of government planning for the future it is difficult to determine just what the next few months will bring forth," he said. He discussed the strike situation in the country and gave an insight into the major problems confronting both labor and management in their attempt to bring about a solution.

He stated that the General Motors strike was not called on a basis of more money for the employees but was a planned program by union leaders in an attempt to strengthen their position within their own organization. He traced the growth of unions since the CIO organization and stated that this was the first time that the CIO was forced to stand on its own in a real collective bargaining showdown.

The speaker further stated that he felt that the unions were ready to make a settlement in view of the fact that so many of their employees were beginning to feel the pinch of striking.

In conclusion Mr. Lovett stated that the one thing most needed in America today was a definite program by the administration and until the administration took a firm position the future stability of our economic structure was at stake.

Local Couple Marks Golden Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Minehart, of 990 Brush Street, residents here all their married life, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Sunday.

In observance of the occasion they held an open house at their home for their friends and relatives from 3 to 7 p.m. A feature was the four eldest granddaughters serving as hostesses at the dessert table.

They were the Misses Shirley Musolf, Jean Minehart, Dolores Minehart and Barbara Ann Church. Assisting them was a niece of the honorees, Mrs. Joseph Burdick.

Out of town guests were present from Detroit, Northville, Wayne, Highland Park, Dearborn, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor and Royal Oak.

Injuries Riddle Ranks of Public Works Department

Personnel in Plymouth's Department of Public Works are growing more cautious in the discharge of their duties. They are beginning to believe a jinx is upon them. They have good reason for their belief too.

Tuesday morning following the night-long battle against the fire at Allen Industries the fire truck was sheathed in ice. Upon returning to the City Hall firemen found its pumps and several feet of hose frozen solid.

Fire Chief Fred Wagenschutz and his assistant, August Meyers, drove the truck inside, closed the doors—and left the truck motor running. As they worked they were gradually overcome by carbon monoxide and narrowly escaped asphyxiation.

Though both managed to get outdoors before losing consciousness they suffered severe effects of the poison and were off duty two days.

Tuesday night while at work locating a break in the water main at Maple and Kellogg streets three more maintenance employees were hit by a motorist.

Paul Groth, foreman of the crew, is in Plymouth Hospital suffering from a fractured rib, internal injuries and shock. Charles Wilson escaped with minor lacerations and bruises. Louis Schroeder was not hurt.

The trio told Police Chief Lee R. Sackett that they were excavating to reach the break in the main and had red lanterns placed around the area in which they were working.

Chief Sackett said the motorist, Kenneth Felt, a discharged veteran and plant protection patrolman at Willow Run, told him he did not see any lantern. This would indicate the men were between the car and the lantern thus obscuring it from Felt's line of vision.

He told Chief Sackett that he noticed figures at the side of the street and believed them to be children at play. He slowed down and then upon seeing the men who were in a crouched position he tried to stop and skidded into them. He could not turn out, Chief Sackett said, because of a parked car opposite the scene of operations.

Full Blooded Arabian Horses Right Around Plymouth But Few Know It

Plymouthites for whom Arabian Horses hold a thrill and who appreciate their Oriental beauty, gentleness and intelligence need but take a short drive east of the city to feast their hungry eyes on two magnificent full blooded Arabian stallions.

Few local lovers of Arabian horse flesh are aware of their proximity, perhaps because they never associated Michigan with the raising and keeping of this excellent breed.

But, for the edification of those persons, The Mail takes pride in announcing that two beautiful members of that noble equine family are the priceless possession of the Stolte Brothers Riding Academy on the north side of Middlebelt Road.

They are NAR, a beautiful pure white eight-year-old and TEREK, an equally beautiful chestnut brown three-year-old. Both are full blooded Arabians and have won their owners many prizes. Each is very well trained.

James Stolte, Sr. astride his Arabian stallion, NAR

The Stolte Brothers, Lawrence and James Jr., both have been and still are serving their country in the armed forces. Lawrence, a gunner in the United States Coast Guard, is stationed in China. James Jr. is a private first class in the Army Air Force and is on duty at Fort Ord, Calif. He has just re-enlisted for another year.

They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Stolte, who have been managing the riding academy for them since their induction.

Their parents, Jim and Mildred, both accomplished riders and trainers, will continue to operate the academy until the boys return to take over where they left off when the war interrupted their efforts.

Stolte's Academy has been located near Plymouth the last four years. The family has been in Michigan 22 years although they stem from Oklahoma. Their whole life-centers about the Arabian horses and especially the two boys own.

Mr. Stolte in a statement to The Mail remarked that "anyone driving by and seeing just an old barn and a pile of manure wouldn't dream that it was the home of two full

$30,000.00 ADDITION IS STARTED AT LINGEMANN PLANT

May first deadline for the construction of 50,000 garden hose reels for the Firestone Tire company.

George Peterson, formerly of Northville and the Swedish Tool Company, is the capable manager of the second Lingemann Products Company located at Harbor Springs. This unit is turning out clothes pins and crating for the Plymouth plant and in the future will manufacture beverage boxes and crates.

In conjunction with the new building program being undertaken by the company the business system is also under a complete rearrangement. Under the direction of C. E. Raum a most modern and efficient business system is being installed and is now in operation.

For the time being no oil storage tanks, a Lingemann specialty are being constructed, but as soon as the housing situation gets into full swing they will specialize in tanks ranging from 200 gallons to 1,000 gallons, however they still offer one day service on radiator repairs for local garages or private car owners.

 blooded Arabian horses exactly like those roaming the Sahara Desert today.
 Take the time to stop there, however, and providing you love good horses, you'll never regret it. In addition to the pair of Arabians which naturally will be shown you first, the visitor will see Palominos, Albino, and Spotted horses as well as Morgans. It literally is a paradise for horse lovers.
 The animals are well fed and impeccably groomed. When one sees how the large stallions are handled with only a single rope and no bits it is then that the visitor realizes that kindness to animals pays dividends.

Mr. Stolte, in the absence of his sons, is carrying on the reputation of the academy's fine breeding record. Mares from all parts of the state and neighboring states, both of the Arabian and other families, are sent here to the court of NAR and TEREK.
 The Arabians, when not busying themselves with family duties, are used as mounts by the Stolte family. NAR and TEREK are fleet of hoof and love nothing better than to thunder off across the plain like a dive-bomber.
 The upright head with nostrils dilated and their arched tail and flowing mane make them by far the most picturesque pair of horses in this part of the country. One need not search out these beauties in lands far away. They are practically on our doorstep and can be seen for the asking.
 Another member of the Stolte Academy who has won his share of show prizes and is the first horse the family ever owned is King, a Palomino, who unfortunately is very ill at present with a disease known as peri-peri. He is being treated with penicillin.

 Mr. and Mrs. Stolte both are avid readers of fact and fiction surrounding the Arabian horse and can furnish valuable information about them.
 For instance, very few people know that the Arabian horse has one less rib and two less vertebrae than other horses. Most people don't know that any Arabian horse with grey in his color makes up will gradually turn white as he grows older.
 Their long-evity is another feature. Many live to be 35 or more. The oldest on record was a mare that lived to be 41 and foaled her last colt when 40.
 Mrs. Stolte has this to say about the Arabian horse: "The Arabian horse has for ages been noted for his great endurance, fine carriage, sound feet and legs and his ability to thrive where many other breeds would fail."
 "When crossed with other breeds, he will produce fine specimens of horse flesh. He is a natural born saddle horse and although not large is capable of carrying a heavy man all day over any type of terrain."
 "The kindness and docility of the Arabian horse is not exceeded by any other breed in the world. While they are very spirited and always ready to go when asked, with both head and tail high in the air, they are at the same time kind and lovable. Their disposition is appreciated by everyone who loves horses."
 "Their docility is especially prevalent when being guided by a woman. Too much can never be said regarding the disposition of an Arabian horse."
 "Before being imported to this country they have for ages been accustomed to being quartered in the tents on the desert with the sheiks and their families. This is why they have the trait of longing for the company of humans."
 "Many people have the mistaken idea that Arabian horses are spotted in color. The full blooded Arabian, however, is solid in color with white face markings and white feet. There are only two or three solid blacks in the United States. A white colt is seldom foaled but the greys become lighter with age and eventually turn pure white."
 "History tells us that down through the ages the affection and devotion shown by these horses to their masters is almost unbelievable."

The more you do the better you'll feel

● Clothing that you may consider old can bring new life to some suffering family to whom war brought years of despair and utter destitution.

Bring them new life... and bring America new friends!

Goal of the Victory Clothing Collection is 100,000,000 garments, plus shoes and bedding. If your contribution seems negligible, bear this in mind: Every garment you give means one more human being saved from cold or sickness or possibly death. Your spare clothing will be distributed free, without discrimination, to victims of Nazi and Jap oppression in Europe, the Philippines, and the Far East.

Dig into your attics, trunks, and closets today... dig out all the clothing you can spare... take it to your local collection depot now. If you doubt the need for it overseas, ask the boys who've been there!

VICTORY CLOTHING COLLECTION IN PLYMOUTH SATURDAY JANUARY, 25th

Tie suits & matching clothes, two piece dresses and shoes together. Bedding will be accepted but no hats, toys, pillows, rugs, mattresses, handbags, novelties or furniture.

Place a friendly note in pockets of clothing — make a friend from one in need. Place bundles on porch so truck may collect them on Saturday. Pick up will be made in city and in Plymouth township tomorrow.

MICHIGAN MY MICHIGAN

by ELTON R. EATON

Every winter there is a lot of talk among those who are interested in conservation problems about the question of feeding deer. All now seem to realize that winter feeding has most benefit benefits on the deer population of the state.

The large number of deer in the woods last fall can be attributed chiefly to the open winter and the good feeding that the deer had last winter.

But there are winters when deep snow, frequently crusted over with ice, makes it impossible for deer to move about. And any one who knows anything about deer know that when there is much snow they will not move from their winter feeding yards.

It is during these severe winters when the greatest number of deer die of starvation.

We belong to that group who believe that the state should feed deer in their native yards during these severe winters. Many dispute the advisability of this plan, declaring that it is of no lasting benefit.

Read with some interest recently where the state of Wisconsin is trying out a winter deer feeding program. The conservation officers of that state are not so sure it will be of lasting benefit, but they are trying the experiment anyway.

Plymouth fishermen who have not been able to "wet their line" much during the past three or four years, will be glad to know that there are excellent prospects for considerable new fishing tackle on the market this spring. There will be more reels, new lines, fishing rods and more baits. Some of this new material is already showing up on the retail counters. Way down here in Florida we heard the other day that Plymouth may soon have a sporting goods store.

That will be good news to the hundreds of men and women in that locality who like to hunt and fish. It has been said that there are more sportsmen in and around Plymouth than in any other city of its size in the country. That's a credit to any community that can make the boast.

Just what the state can do about reducing the number of hunting accidents no one seems to know. Nearly every one killed last fall and winter during the hunting season died as the result of carelessness on the part of some one or themselves. Two or three years ago when the number of killed was higher than last fall, it was generally charged that minors were to blame. But information pertaining to accidents during the last hunting season does not bear out this belief. High powered rifles in the hands of careless hunters are bad combinations in the woods. We think that some strong propaganda issued by the state to hunters when they get their licenses might help some. In fact it might do a lot of good to impress upon the hunter when he gets his license that his hunting days in Michigan are over if it should be found that he is to blame for a hunting accident. Why not try it out and see? Some warning notices given to hunters when they get their licenses will surely be read by most hunters, if not all. Even though just one life is saved, that will be worth the trial effort. What about it, Mr. Hoffmaster

Dr. Brick Champe, president of the Western Wayne County Conservation Association two or three years ago made a special appeal to all sportsmen in this locality to be sure and notify the conservation department in Lansing if they ever shot any duck that had a number band on its leg. This appeal is recalled to mind by a news item from Rockland, Idaho, where a mallard duck was shot during the recent hunting season that had a band on its leg placed there on July 18, 1933 by the Wisconsin conservation department. The information reveals how long a mallard duck will live and how successful it can be in escaping duck hunters. It not only reveals these interesting facts, but it shows that ducks do not always return northward to the same summer nesting places by their usual flight routes.

Patchen School to Discuss Building

Residents of the Patchen School District are invited to a P.T.A. round table at the Patchen school on Friday evening, February 1st. The subject to be discussed will be the acute problem facing the district in regards to the building of a new school.

Since the Patchen school addition burned down a year ago last December the 168 children of the district have been only able to attend classes for half day periods. At the present time there also is no kindergarten being operated by the school.

Members of the P.T.A. are interested in getting a building program under way and they have asked deputy Wayne County school commissioner Charles Brake to conduct the discussion on that evening.

The school is located on Newburg road just south of Warren road. Their problem is similar to that faced by all other schools in this area and the discussion will no doubt be a most interesting one to the residents of that locality.

BY THE MAYOR OF PLYMOUTH

THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA, incorporated February 8, 1910, and chartered by Congress June 15, 1916, is celebrating its thirty-sixth birthday anniversary during Boy Scout Week from February 8 to 14. In the past 36 years the more than twelve million present or former members have rendered notable service to our community and our nation. Now that our country has successfully concluded the war, the Boy Scouts of America will again continue to render noteworthy service through many years of peace.

In times of distress from floods, hurricane, tornado, and other disasters our Scouts have demonstrated the effectiveness of organized boy service. During the period of economic stress they contributed in many ways to the relief of suffering. Their services rendered during our four years of war cannot be estimated in dollars and cents.

The Boy Scouts have also contributed to a deeper appreciation by the American people of the higher conception of good citizenship.

THEREFORE, I, CARL G. SHEAR, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF PLYMOUTH do hereby recommend that the citizens of the City do whatever they can to observe Boy Scout Week and give their support to the Sustaining Membership Campaign which follows at the close of Anniversary Week.

The Boy Scout Movement offers unusual opportunity for volunteer service. It needs men to serve in various capacities as leaders of boys. I hope that all who can, will, through the organizations with which they are connected, enlist for such personal service. Anything that is done to increase the effectiveness of the Boy Scouts of America is a genuine contribution to the welfare of this Community, the State, and the Nation.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Community to be affixed.

Done this 15th day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty six.

CARL G. SHEAR.

Water Softener Business to Move

Because of the ever increasing demand for new water softeners and in order to better service his present customers, William C. Clark will move his water softening business into a new $7,500 building at 1376 S. Main street some time this week.

The new structure is a one story cement block building and when finished will have a brick front and will house his office as well as his softening plant equipment. However for the present his office will remain at 276 S. Main street. The plant is entirely equipped with new machinery for the recharging of the Zeo Lite tanks which contain the chemicals for filtering and softening the water.

The soft water service was first conceived by Mr. Clark five years ago while visiting his brother's home in Nebraska who had a similar softener unit in his home. He realized that there was a need for this same kind of service in Plymouth and with this in mind, Mr. Clark started his business. The biggest problem facing the company today is getting pipes and fittings for the soft water units which are again available.

Delivery has been promised, Mr. Clark on a new "deliver all" truck which will facilitate the handling of the soft water tanks and will be a big factor in giving even better service in the future to his customers.

Northville Visit Enjoyed by DAR

Members and guests of Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the D.A.R. enjoyed its nineteenth birthday luncheon in the dining room of the Presbyterian church in Northville, Monday.

As the guest speaker, Mrs. Sweetman Smith, was to talk on Mexico, the tables and dining room were beautifully decorated with rare specimens of Mexico's art. To enhance the picture, the speaker's table was laid with a centerpiece of Spring flowers, and a corsage bouquet of camillias for the speaker.

The Young Women's Guild of the church furnished the delicious and well served luncheon, with Mrs. Kenneth MacKay chairman. Preceding the salute to the flag, the Chaplain read an appropriate and original poem "Women of Today." The Regent, Mrs. Earl Mastick, in a few well chosen words introduced the special luncheon guests.

Mrs. Steele Sellers, Regent of Piety Hill Chapter, Birmingham, Mrs. Joseph Shoemaker, Regent of Ezra Parker Chapter, Royal Oak, Mrs. Emanuel Wiedman, Regent of Ypsilanti Chapter, Ypsilanti, and Mrs. Horace Wilbur, State Chairman of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Pilgrimage, Ypsilanti.

One of the delightful features of the afternoon was furnished by the Girls Glee Club of the Northville High School composed of fifty young ladies in blue choir robes.

Under the able direction of Mr. Leslie Lee they rendered three numbers by Franz Schubert "Ava Maria," "O Peaceful Calm," and an arrangement of the twenty-third Psalm.

In introducing the speaker Mrs. Mastick said the Daughters of the American Revolution have always been interested in Mexico and our other South American

City Gets Branch Recruiting Station

Plymouth is to have a branch Army recruiting office to handle original and repeat enlistments beginning next Tuesday. It will be located at the City Hall in the first floor corridor and be open 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each Tuesday until further notice.

Corporal Koffman of the district recruiting station at Ann Arbor will be in charge. He will have all information prospective enlistees might desire. All who sign up will go into the regular Army.

Anyone unable to contact Corporal Koffman in Plymouth on Tuesday may call the Ann Arbor office any other time and speak to Sergeant Danneffel. The phone number is Ann Arbor 3456 and may be called collect. If the prospect desires to visit the Ann Arbor office in person he is more than welcome. It is located in the Armory at Ann Street and Fifth Avenue.

Married life needs an occasional change of key; things so trivial as a wife trying a new hair-do or a husband learning to play bridge may furnish the modulating note.

neighbors and in maintaining the good neighbor policy toward them. In our mental picture of Mexico we think of warmth, gaiety and sunshine, so we welcome one who is qualified to give a more vivid portrayal of the early country.

Mrs. Sweetman Smith was born in Mexico City of the upper class Spanish aristocracy. Her early schooling was in this city, after which she spent many years in Europe and attending school in Paris. She completed her studies in the Western University in Cleveland. Mrs. Smith charmingly and vivaciously presented to her audience a clear vision of the life and heritage of the people in her native land.

Of the 18,000,000 about 3,000,000 are pure Spanish, 9,000,000 are part Spanish and Indian and the rest are pure Indian composed of many different tribes and groups. The Indians furnish the artists and writers of the country. There are not enough educated people in Mexico to make it a democracy. The upper class is supposed to be God's chosen people and the lower class, kept in ignorance, is supposed to wait on them. Family ties are strong and where education is permitted it is purely cultural. Aristocratic families are not in trade. The University of Mexico was the first university in America but it was only for aristocrats. The Catholic church did not further reforms and has lived by the ignorance of its people. A middle class is now coming up which is proving to be more progressive.

Hollywood with its pictures has helped to change the standards of the people, as has also the American tourists.

Following Mrs. Smith's talk, many questions were asked which she graciously answered and all felt they could have listened much longer.

The afternoon, as a whole, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Deyo was declared one of the most colorful and happy birthday celebrations of the Chapter. The unique decorations were in charge of Mrs. Elton Biery.

THE L. L. BALL STUDIO PHOTOGRAPHY

The above sign appears over the entrance to our Studio at 659 West Ann Arbor Trail at the east end of Kellogg Park. This explanation is for the benefit of new comers to Plymouth who have not as yet become acquainted with the BALL STUDIO, which has been established in this community for over Forty Years.

We have experienced many changes in the making of photographs in the past nearly half-century—in lighting, posing, processing, etc., and we have at all times kept up with modern methods and given our clientele the very latest and best work possible, which is your guarantee of complete satisfaction when you have your photographs made at the BALL STUDIO.

DO NOT BE MISLED BY PASSING FANCIES and think that some other is just as good or better. There are plenty of itinerant, high-pressure salesmen, or "would-be photographers" at large, coming into our city for a short stay and taking away plenty of cash, leaving you disappointed with work received—if you receive it.

'GLAMOUR PHOTOGRAPHS'

Don't let anyone kid you or try to make you believe that "GLAMOUR PHOTOGRAPHS" can only be made in Hollywood or by someone who imagines he is the only one who knows how to produce "GLAMOUR" in portraiture.

If you want "GLAMOUR" in your photographs, we know how, and we have the necessary equipment for any type of portrait photography. It requires skill and experience to produce character and personality in portraits, and we are proud to have our name appear on all our photographs.

There is a lot of satisfaction in feeling that when you spend a dollar, you get a dollar's value in return—don't be high-pressured or pay extravagant prices for photographs just because someone says "These are Glamour Photographs."

When the treasurer of a Pacific Coast theater chain was held up, papers spread the news that he had lost his entire bank roll—$15. The president of the chain forthwith issued orders: All executives hereafter must carry at least $150. In the event of a hold-up, publicity would be more favorable.

To Build Homes For Veterans

In the next two or three weeks, depending on the weather, construction will start on 25 modern Cape Cod Cottages, to be built exclusively for veterans, was the announcement made Wednesday by William G. Birt Sr. of the William G. Birt and Sons Inc., local contractors and builders. He went on to state that he had secured the necessary material and would begin excavation soon for the homes which are to be built in Plymouth on Arthur, Sunset and Auburn streets.

These new homes are to be wide sided frame construction with two and three bed rooms, situated on 50 foot lots and will range in price from $6,800.00 to $7,500.00. The homes with two bed rooms are to have an unfinished second floor which may be completed by the owner at a later date. Each house is to be fully insulated and will have a tile path. Some units will feature gas heat, the others will have coal furnaces which can easily be converted to gas at the owners convenience.

Birt and Sons at the present time have 15 homes in this area under various stages of construction and by the end of the year will have built 40 new homes in and around Plymouth. The plumbing, wiring and heating installations have been sub let to contractors who make a specialty in their particular field.

Girl Scouts Plan Winter Outing

Weather permitting, the Girl Scouts of Troop RG.1 of Rosedale Gardens will hold a Winter Events program at Cass Benton Park on Saturday, Jan. 26 at 2:30 P. M.

Mrs. Burns, Troop Leader, assisted by Mrs. Ulrich Lycka and a group of sincere Scouting parents will provide the necessary transportation and leadership attendant to this affair which is slanted towards an out-of-doors activation of their program of Scouting.

The Troop hopes for tobogganing weather suitable for a real Winter frolic. We understand that several of Rosedale's young fellows have been asked to participate in the fun and we are sure that none of them will reject such an excellent chance for real social activity.

The telephone tide has turned in PLYMOUTH

This is a report we are glad to be able to make to you:

In this exchange, we are now installing telephones faster than we are receiving new orders.

The number of families waiting for telephones has begun to shrink.

This good news is evidence of the progress being made in Michigan Bell's 5-year $120,000,000 expansion and improvement program. As more and more equipment and trained manpower become available, we intend to step up the pace of that program still further.

Before spring we expect to clear up virtually all orders which require only telephone instruments to provide service. This applies to a large percentage of the waiting applicants in this exchange area. To serve everyone, however, more outside wire and cable must be manufactured and installed. And that's a big job that will take quite a while longer.

If you're waiting for a telephone, you can be sure that we will install it in its proper turn just as soon as we can. The waiting list is still long. But instead of growing longer, it should be getting shorter from now on.

REDFORD UNION—PLYMOUTH
 The Plymouth Rocks watched their last half rally come within two points of tying Redford Union and then blow up as the final bell rang with a final score of 43-41. Behind 8 points at the half the Rocks pulled up within one point of the Panthers by the third quarter.

The climax of the game provided many thrills for the fans. The Rocks were ahead by two points with one minute to play. Intercepting a pass, Stafford, of Redford Union, went the length of the floor to tie the score. Fifteen seconds later he repeated this action and sent the Panthers forward with a two point lead. The Rocks then quickly brought the ball up the court and shot from mid floor. As the ball approached the basket, the final bell rang. Had the ball gone in, the score would have been tied and sent the game into overtime. Unfortunately, it circled the rim twice and rolled off.

Dobbs, of Plymouth and Kelly of Redford Union each netted 11 points while George Shomberger sank nine.

In the second team game, the Redford Union Second Stringers pulled a seeming defeat to victory also in the last minute of play over the Rock reserves, 33-28. The game was rough and tumble with forty-two fouls being called on the two teams. The game was fast with many long and wild passes. Dave McIntosh lead the scorers with twelve points, while Neubauer netted seven for Redford Union.

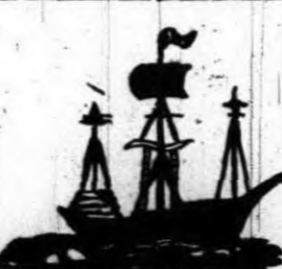

The score alternated in the first quarter, each team taking over for a short time and the Rocks were ahead by one point at the half. The game was not decided until the final quarter, when Redford scored five points in the last minute.

The victory was the fifth for the Redford team, which has only dropped one contest. Plymouth plays Wayne at the training school tonight.

REDFORD FRESHMEN WIN
 The Redford Union Freshmen nosed out the Rock's quintet 27-25 Thursday night at the Plymouth gym. The game was hard and furious. Redford took a commanding lead in the first quarter by scoring 17 points to the Rocks' 6, and as the teams went to the locker rooms for half-time intermission the score was Redford 21 Plymouth 10.

The pace was slow until the fourth-quarter when the Rocks came on with a rush. They were coming fast, but were stalled by the final bell. Just a second after the bell rang MacGregor sank a basket to no avail.

The loss was the first for the Freshmen who had previously beaten Belleville on the opponent's court.

The Redford Eighth grade swamped the Plymouth Eighth in an earlier game.

TEACHER'S DELIGHT. OR, LET'S HAVE A FINAL EXAM

Too soon it will be examination time in old P.H.S., and once more the pupils and students will for one week be in a daze as to what they should know and do not know. The night before the great tests are to be held everyone studies like mad so they will be sure and write an "A" final the next day, or perhaps a few of them will figure that it is useless and that it won't pay to cram everything into their head at the last minute. Yes, in fact quite a few of them will take this attitude. Pretty good attitude to take if there is a good movie at the theatre.

The day has arrived, the students file into the classroom eager to write the little paper. "Now children," exclaims the teacher, "put all of your books on the floor and keep your eyes on your own papers, it isn't nice to cheat you know." She (or he) then proceeds to pass the tests out the group and after thirty minutes which has been spent in re-writing the mimeographed copy they are at last ready to write. After the teacher gives them permission to begin they all take their pencils in hand as though to write. But, what is this? "Name the parts of the crustacean type of life and draw each." And so it goes throughout the hour. After the bell has sounded all of the class being to a questions and find out that nobody knows anything more than themselves.

After the first day of torture is over everyone collects at the Music Box to discuss the problems of the day and with firm determination decide to make a better try the next day. Alas, their determination was in vain for again the next day they are stumped or one person moves his head too far to the left and the chief at his desk fails the pupil right then and there for copying a friend's paper.

After this second day is over there is nothing but suspense. Suspense, suspense, this usually drives one mad but after going mad he receives his report card and credit slip and finds that he is worried in vain for there it is in black and white. Yes, the students made the grade and are now ready to try for another. Maybe they will pass this time!—Wonderful invention these final examinations!!!!

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

ECORSE RESERVES TRIM PLYMOUTH

The Ecorse second-stringers defeated the Rock Reserves 34-16 at Ecorse Tuesday night. Inaccurate shooting and poor passing led to the downfall of our team. The Red Raiders were in complete control throughout the game.

Schmauch led the scorers with nine points, while Blunk paced the locals by netting eight.

There were few fouls on either team, but the Rocks could not seem to connect on their way. Friday the Rocks were to play Redford Union away.

LIFEBOY

January 25, today—After you have been in a daze with the finishing of your exams you will begin to come out of your dullness. Cheer up. Have a good time in the afternoon. Blow your top!

January 28, Monday—Many will begin to worry as to what their report cards will have on them. Perhaps this is a good idea in some cases. Generally it is too late for anything to be thought about. Make a resolution to do better this semester. Freshmen are cautioned to do their very best work and receive the highest marks. They will realize why when they are Seniors.

January 29, Tuesday—My day off. No prediction.

January 30, Wednesday—Bring a bottle of medicine to school. Why? Take a look at the calendar of events and see what your home room teachers will give you first hour. Be sure and take these little pieces of paper home.

January 31, Thursday—Too many pupils will be in the detention room tonight. Better get to school on time. Stars predict that the next basketball game will be won by Plymouth's opponent.

Yours for better living, Lifeboy.

More Boy Scouts Sought for Class

Wallace Laury, ace swimming coach in Detroit whose Northwestern High school natators have captured many meets, both intra-city and inter-city, and Earl Mastick, local Dodge car and farm implement dealer, are looking for more Boy Scouts interested in swimming.

Coach Laury, with the assistance of Mr. Mastick, has been and will continue offering his time in an effort to teach Plymouth scouts the fine arts of swimming.

They conduct the swimming classes without charge in the Wayne County Training School pool. Right now these two are looking for additional Plymouth scouts who want to learn the correct art of swimming or who have never swum and would like to but know nothing at all about it.

The local youths perhaps don't realize how fortunate they are in having an experienced swimming instructor like Coach Laury who will give of his time and effort to make better swimmers of them. He feels it is important that all youngsters know how to swim in order to save themselves if ever thrown into the water accidentally.

Coach Laury and Mr. Mastick deserve a great deal of credit for their unselfish efforts to furnish free and expert swimming knowledge to the local Boy Scouts. More scouts is all they ask.

Aeronautical Head Returns

Thos. E. Walsh, Chairman of the Michigan Aeronautics Commission, recently announced the return from service of Colonel Floyd E. Evans, who served as Director of the State Department of aeronautics from 1930 through 1940, at which time Colonel Evans entered military service. Mr. Walsh stated that Colonel Evans would resume his duties as Director of the Department of Aeronautics on January 1st.

The Department of Aeronautics achieved its most important accomplishments and rose to a position of recognized importance under the able directorship of Colonel Evans' untiring efforts and his faith in this gigantic industry, which he cradled in his heart as early as 1917 when he was a military pilot in the United States army air forces in World War I.

At that time Colonel Evans enjoyed the distinguished company as well as the expert competition of renowned fliers like Eddie Rickenbacker, General Doolittle and a host of others whose names, with Colonel Evans' name, will never be omitted from the roster of those great men who have contributed most generously of their time, their skill and their courage to bringing aviation to its present high level of perfection.

Through the many years which have passed since Colonel Evans' first flight he has gained a reputation as an expert on aviation.

He not only is a pilot of international renown but has gained as much respect for his knowledge of aircraft engineering. For many years the development and construction of airports has been his major interest. This was constructively exhibited at the time Colonel Evans took command of the air base at Tunis in the Americas had completely devastated the airport facilities during the North African invasion. In a short period of time the Tunis Base was reconstructed and brought to an operating capacity of three hundred planes per day under the efficient command of Colonel Evans.

Prior to reentering the Armed Service, Colonel Evans was most active in the Michigan National Guard. Upon resuming service with the Army he was assigned to an Intelligence Post with the 32nd Division and later was made an Air Officer with the Fifth Army. Before going overseas Colonel Evans was Regional Commander of the Civil Air Patrol with headquarters in Chicago.

As an Intelligence Officer Colonel Evans served in the African Gold Coast, Sierra Leone and in French Guinea. After Colonel Evans was placed in command of the air base at Tunis in February of 1944. All tactical maneuvers into Italy were inaugurated at the Tunis base. Upon returning to the United States in May of 1945 Colonel Evans was given command of Gore Field at Great Falls, Montana. He served there until recently, when he returned to Lansing and is presently on terminal leave.

In a recent statement Colonel Evans predicted that no other industry will play as important a part in the economic and cultural development of our lives as aviation. He stated that early future years will reveal innumerable refinements of aircraft, both for the flier of the personal plane as well as for commercial transportation. He stated that within the next ten years there should be 150 thousand airplanes in the state of Michigan. This figure was based on an estimate of three planes per thousand of population.

Colonel Evans believes that every community, no matter how large or how small should provide adequate facilities for air transportation such as is planned here at Mettetal Field. He warned that if more community interest is not invested in aviation, the industry will soon outgrow the facilities provided for its product.

Top Quality Seed Supply Is Limited

Seed stocks are ample for the spring planting of most crops in Michigan, according to A. A. Johnson, extension farm crops specialist at Michigan State college. However, he points out that top quality seed of a number of varieties will be short of demand, and early purchasers will have the choice.

The most critical shortage appears to exist for alfalfa and red clover seed. Supplies of hybrid seed corn are sufficient, but a large percentage of the seed is of inferior quality compared to that of other years. Michigan certified hybrid seed corn, which is of superior quality, will take care of about 285 to 30 percent of hybrid seed needs. The remainder of the seed must come from other states. Much of this is expected to be inferior. Crops specialists estimate that about 20 per cent of the hybrid seed corn planted in Michigan next spring will germinate below 90 per cent.

Corn growers wishing a list of hybrids suitable for their areas may ask their county agent for Extension Folder F-67, "Corn Hybrids Compared," or the folder can be obtained by writing to Bulletin Office, Department of Public Relations, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

Although the wet harvest weather cut the yield of certified Michelite beans nearly in half, the situation is not critical, and enough good seed probably will be had. Malting barley seed will be short.

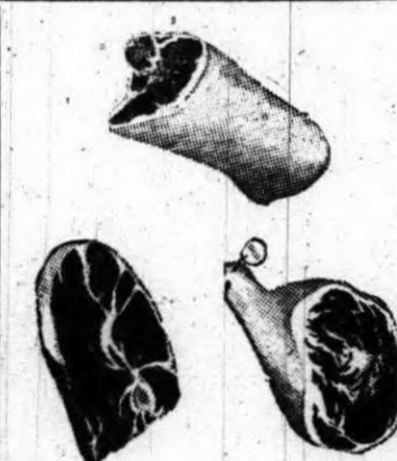

A directory listing growers of certified seed can be secured from county agricultural agents or from the Farm Crops Department, Michigan State College.

If you have anything to sell or rent try a Mail want ad. They bring results.

Coming Election Lacks Candidates

Apparently there is little interest in the coming election for membership to the City Commission. So far no one, not even the two incumbents, have called at the City Clerk's office for nomiinating petition blanks. The deadline for filing such petitions is 5 p.m. Friday, Feb. 1.

City Manager Clarence Elliott said it was surprising if not shocking to note the lack of interest in the scheduled election. He thought, however, that perhaps sometime this week at least one of the incumbents would take out petitions.

Qualifications for potential city commissioners are not rigid but limit the field to property owners of at least two years duration within the city. Petitions must be signed by at least 25 qualified electors.

Commissioners whose terms expire this year are Mrs. Ruth Whipple and Jack Taylor.

What I Hear And See Under The Palm Trees Down in Florida

When folks from the north come down to Florida to spend the winter it is usually to rest and relax. That's why Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs of Plymouth came down to Florida last December.

But take Mr. Jacobs' word for it. "I'm the busiest man in Florida trying to find nothing to do." Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs who are nicely situated at a tourist camp just outside Fort Lauderdale, drove down to Miami the other day to call upon "the editor and his wife" and to see the sights.

The many friends of Mr. Jacobs in Plymouth will be pleased to know that he is looking fine and feels much better.

"I guess it's the sun that's doing the trick. But it's a strange thing, we just do not seem able to find time to do all the things we want to do," he said. Mrs. Jacobs agreed with him.

If by chance you should be driving down to Florida and want to see the Jacobs and you do not find them at that trailer court just north of Fort Lauderdale, drive down to the beach where you will find them both bathing in the old Atlantic, thoroughly enjoying themselves. It is their plan to stay until early April unless business should call them home earlier.

Under Florida laws if you have registered as a Democrat you cannot become a candidate for any office in a Republican primary. Neither can a registered Republican run for office in a Democratic primary. That's why the Republicans right now down here are having a hard time filling up a slate of candidates for the fall election. It seems that Republicans are told it's "bad for their business" to register as Republicans, so they register as Democrats to protect their business affairs. But some residents down here say that that isn't true, it doesn't hurt your business to let the people know you are a Republican. At any rate this registration law is the reason why Republicans are having difficulty in filling up their tickets, as most Republicans have registered as Democrats in past elections.

Heard that Mr. and Mrs. Ken Groth and little son Ken Jr. are somewhere in Florida making a study of the lunch room business for the purpose of getting new ideas to take back to Ken's Place, "Kitty Korner from the Bank." If that's what they are looking for, they will get plenty of them, as there are more eating places per square foot in Florida than in any other place in the world. Maybe that's just rumor, as they have not showed up in Miami as yet, and folks must come to this place if they really want to "see" Florida.

When the country wakes up to the fact that this whole strike business is part and parcel of a Communist scheme to wreck the American way of life and the country gets back on the right track with peace and good will prevailing between workers and employers, the nation will soon thereafter see the greatest traffic jam in its history.

Right now with cars that have been able to survive not less than four years' use, some of the main highways are jammed. It only requires a glance of the main highways to anticipate what is in the offing. We are beginning to think that private parking lots, especially in states like Michigan and Florida which are popular with tourists, will two years from now be about as good an investment as one can make.

The managing editors of the nation met in Miami a few days ago for their first convention in four years. Every one doesn't know it, but the managing editor of a newspaper is the one individual who is responsible for about everything that takes place around a newspaper office. If the paper is a good paper, he is the one who gets credit for it. If it is not so good, he's the one who has to answer the question, WHY?

Met Fred Gartner, managing editor of The Detroit News while he was here to the convention. Editor Gartner has been with The News for a long period. He is regarded as among the top-notchers in the newspaper business. Dale Stafford, youthful executive recently appointed managing editor of The Detroit Free Press, was also here, but I didn't happen to see him. Those who know the new Free Press managing editor predict for him a most successful future in the high position to which he has been elevated.

Out at the national air meet here the other day, a kid climbed into one of the planes, pushed a button, and before it was stopped, all of the high-priced trophies for the meet had been destroyed. Last fall during the Victory jubilee celebration in Plymouth, a lad climbed up in the seat of a new tractor that had been placed on the street for display purposes. He stepped on the starter and it started direct for a big crowd standing near a stand. Only the timely action of a representative of the tractor company who jumped forward and turned the switch off, was a possible serious accident prevented. Kids like to push the buttons and turn the switches, but the practice proves to be a pretty dangerous business. But to keep them out of the seats of new automobiles, tractors and planes on display is a horse of another color.

If you drive down to Florida this or some other winter, better be sure and not park your car under a coconut palm tree. The other day a New Yorker left his car on the side of a street and directly under one of these trees. During the night a coconut fell on the car and made a big dent on the top. Natives down here say that this is a frequent happening, with the body-repair men reaping quite a harvest out of this type of accident.

Many Plymouth residents will remember Don Campbell, who was employed for a year or so as special writer on The Mail. Don was also a former member of The Detroit Free Press staff. When he left Plymouth he came to Miami to join the staff of The Miami Herald. The other day I learned that Don had enlisted as a sailor in the navy when the war broke out. He advanced rapidly and during the past two years served as a naval lieutenant, in both the Atlantic and the Pacific. He has just arrived in New York city from the Pacific and is expecting his discharge from the navy in the next few days. Don plans to return to The Herald staff in Miami. While in Plymouth Don made many friends, who will be pleased to know that he came through the war without injury. He's a good newspaper man and is well liked around The Herald office.

Northern residents who have been coming to Florida for years before the war are wondering what has happened to the mocking birds and cardinals that were so plentiful here in years gone by. Best information is that thousands of these birds were killed during the hurricane last September. There are a few of them that survived but it will be several years before they will be plentiful again. Robins are plentiful in the country, but few of them are seen in the cities. But these birds are migratory and are here spending the winter like a lot of northern human beings.

Have discovered reasons why the fellow who introduced Senator Pepper a while back at a meeting I attended spent so much time declaring that Senator Pepper had paid his own expenses on that recent junket he made to European countries. Copies of northern papers I have seen since made reference to the fact that the taxpayers had footed the bill for his European trip. It would be interesting to know just what part of his expenses were paid out of the Senator's own pocket.

Right now Florida is beginning to really feel the flood of tourists from northern states. Miami streets are filled to overflowing with cars from every northern state. New Jersey seems to have the largest number, with Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio trailing closely. Michigan and Indiana are not far behind. Local residents say that drivers of cars from New York city are the worst road "hogs" in the country. Have not driven enough around the city to be able to judge, but some of them do take frightful chances in "cutting in," no matter how severe the traffic jams might be.

Vemba Dunlap Is Club Speaker

Hazel Diack and Gerry Champe were hostesses to 19 members and guests for the January dinner of the Business and Professional Women's club meeting held at the St. John's Episcopal parish house on Monday evening at 6:30.

The address of Miss Vemba Dunlap was of unusual interest to those present not only because of her long devoted career as supervisor of Probation, Recorder's Court, Women's Division, Detroit, but also Miss Dunlap is District chairman of District No. 1 of this organization.

Following the group singing, the soloist, Lois Kleinschmidt, accompanied by Hanna Fleming, sang the following selections: "Estrelita," "Falling in Love," and "Grand Night for Singing."

Mrs. Hazel Johnson was elected to membership in the club. Hyacinth Wilske who is chairman of the clothing drive for the club reports a generous response to her plea for warm clothing, shoes or rubber footwear.

Letter to the Editor

After reading the article by Elton Eaton in last week's issue of the Plymouth Mail regarding eels a foot long in Houghton Lake, another Wild Life Editor of the Mail some what in doubt about the eel story rushed over on the corner to get hold of Ez Rotnour No. 1 fisherman and Capt. of the Houghton Lake navy for some first hand information. The Capt. replied "There might have been a few eels in Houghton Lake but they sure were more than a foot long because if one did hook an eel that small, one of these big Northern Pike would snap it off before you could get it near the boat, and further Elton knows that the shortest measure on the Capt's boat is twenty four inches and that the scales won't weigh a fish under Five Pounds."

Mayor Carl Shear says "It won't hurt a thing for Elton to tell those Florida folks about our Great State of Michigan and the wonderful lakes but I hope he don't tell them about the Pan Cakes and Fried Potatoes or we will have so much company it will take him all the time to wash the dishes and he won't get time to go fishing himself."

THERE ISN'T ALWAYS ROOM FOR ONE MORE

Dad found this out when he tried to flag a bus during yesterday evening's rush hour. Mother discovered the same thing when she plugged in her electric waffle iron, and blew a fuse. And Junior has noticed that his electric train won't pull as many cars when Sis is ironing. No, there isn't always room for one more, particularly when it comes to adding new and wonderful electrical appliances to an obsolete house-wiring system. Almost any of the older homes of today are likely to have too few electrical circuits to carry the many electrical appliances needed in today's living. Your home can be as adequately wired as a new house—the cost is small compared with the comfort and convenience you will enjoy. Then, too—if you are planning a new home, be sure it has plenty of outlets, conveniently located, and served by enough circuits properly distributed.

This is one of a series of advertisements prepared in the interest of the electrical contractors in your area to insure adequate wiring for every home. When you build or remodel, be sure your home is properly wired.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

DICK: "I wonder how the distillers feel about that new movie—built around an alcoholic."

OLD JUDGE: "It's funny you asked that, Dick...I was just reading a piece about it."

DICK: "What did it say?"

OLD JUDGE: "A very sensible statement. It said the beverage distillers are fully aware of this problem and are cooperating in every way possible to help solve it. The alcoholic is to the beverage distilling industry what the reckless driver is to the automobile industry. There is nothing wrong with the automobile, but in the hands of a man who doesn't know how to drive it or is reckless, it becomes a menace. Likewise, it's not the use but the abuse of alcoholic beverages that causes trouble."

DICK: "Wonder why it is most men can drink moderately and others can't?"

OLD JUDGE: "Intensive research at a great university has shown that most excessive drinkers are really sick people. They are suffering from some physical, social or emotional upset. And great strides have been made in developing clinical methods of helping these unfortunate people."

On May 18, 1675, beside the blue inland sea, an historic apostleship was ended.

The approximate death site has been marked and receives many visitors.

In 1818 a wooden cross still marked spot where he was first buried. Voyageurs paid homage there.

Today the site highlights a visit to modern St. Ignace, named for the mission.

and the strains of four war years! Your winter trip to the sunny South or West — to friends or family in nearby towns — to popular snow-sport resorts — will be warm and comfortable aboard a Greyhound highway coach. Fares, as always, are lowest for any type of transportation. Go soon and go Greyhound — for a pleasant, relaxing winter trip

IT'S STILL WISE TO PLAN AHEAD:

Babson Says --

Babson Discusses 'Little Investors'

New York City, January 25.—For the first time in some years I find that the "big boys" of New York are bearish. They believe that stocks are too high and that the market has gone up too fast. This especially applies to those conservative bankers and brokers who are responsible for the funds of colleges, hospitals, trusts and large estates. They are mostly out of stocks and are very long of government bonds.

Will the "Big Boys" be Fooled?
I also learn that many men have even sold stocks in their own companies believing that the prices are too high. They assume that the new purchasers of these stocks are speculators who will throw these stocks overboard when the next crash comes. The big boys then hope to buy these same stocks back again at 20 cents on the dollar as they have in the past. Now, will they be able to do so? Well, this question is the subject of my this week's column.

1946 Investors Unlike Those of 1929

Experience shows that when stocks get into safe deposit boxes it is hard to get them out. So long as stocks pay a dividend investors quickly forget prices paid or even fail to look at current prices. Even some of the big investment trusts now ignore market prices so long as dividends are paid. The "open end" trusts especially want a good income. This they can get only by holding stocks. Surely, small investors are much wiser today than they were in 1928-1932.

What of the Future?
This change of ownership has great social and economic possibilities. It may mean that the control of American corporations is changing from the rich men of the country to ordinary people like you and me. Of course, the tax situation is helping bring about this change by penalizing the rich in favor of John Q. Public. If labor would get busy and quietly buy up shares of corporations, they could attain their goals far quicker than by their present silly strikes. This means we should not sell stocks for fear of labor troubles. Strikes merely delay prosperity; they do not destroy it.

Instead of yelling "Help the small businessman," if each of these little fellows would buy a few shares of stock in the big companies, they could easily control these companies which they now fear. Well think this over also. Some day a powerful leader may arise who will get all these small investors together and throw out some of the present managements. They would need no legislation to do this. It is rumored that John L. Lewis has been pondering over this opportunity. One thing is certain. Before you or I sell stocks just because they are "high," we should carefully consider what we will do with our money when we do sell. Also, we should remember that it is purchasing power which we really want. Hence, idle bank accounts do not look too good. Let "little investors" consider this.

Floor Finishing Firm Is Formed

George O. Jackson, a discharged veteran of nearly five years service in the Army, and William Eger, both Plymouth men, have formed the Eger-Jackson Co., and bought out the floor sanding business formerly operated here by Otto Kipper.

In addition to offering floor sanding and finishing service they also plan to maintain a retail floor coverings store at 149 West Liberty in the old Pfeiffer Building. They will handle asphalt tile, linoleum and linowal.

They are open for business now but due to the scarcity of linoleum and its kindred products have a very limited stock of floor coverings.

However, they are offering all types of floor finishing service such as sanding, waxing, varnishing and filling. Both are former employees of the Armstrong Cork Company, of Detroit, makers of linoleum.

Mr. Eger spent three years with the local firm of Blunk and Thatcher as a linoleum layer and one year with (Schrader's) in Northville in the same capacity.

Both are well qualified to manage such a business and are expert appraisers of floor coverings and experienced in installing the same.
