What I Think and Have a Right to Say
Eaton R. Eaton

THIS CHARITABLE DRIVE NEVER FAILS.

It is easy to understand why The Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Disabled Adults and the Rotary club always select Robert Willoughby of the Plymouth Walkover Shoe store to conduct their annual crippled children Easter seal sale drive in this city. "Bob" is not only a busy merchant, he also is one of the state's biggest wholesale fruit buyers in Michigan. But that doesn't keep him from putting Plymouth way over the top in its Easter seal sales campaign each year. He gets these satisfactory results by the enthusiastic and persistent way he conducts the job.

ENCOURAGING WORDS INDEED.

The news out of Russia pertaining to Stalin's position in world affairs is most encouraging indeed. At least it has taken some of the fear that prevailed out of the world situation. It is up to us Americans to talk peace and think peace and stop this warmongering blabbing.

KIM SIGLER FOR GOVERNOR!

"They" fired Kim Sigler as special prosecutor for the state grand jury that has been digging up the dirt, filth and graft in the state government. Maybe it was because he was doing too good a job and getting mighty close to big "pay dirt." Maybe it was for other reasons—but no reasons having been given, the citizens of this state have a perfect right to do what speculating as to the cause they may care to do.

Then other "theys" quickly started a smear campaign against Sigler, trying to blacken the work he had done, his name and his character. The "smear" appears also to have been directed against witnesses who are yet to testify in court against some alleged grafters. This appears to have been done for the deliberate purpose of influencing juries that will try these cases. If they are ever tried.

Kim Sigler, apparently, is not the type of a citizen who will take this kind of "gaff" lying down.

He has announced himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor. If he wins, (and we predict that he will) he will be able to keep up his fight against the grafters and thieves and bribe takers who have disgraced the state of Michigan over a long period of years.

The issue of this campaign is a closely drawn one. Every political crook, every grafter, every "easy-money" grabber and their friends and associates will be opposed to Sigler. Oh yes, there might be some honest people who are not well acquainted with all the facts, who might be for some other candidate but this number will not be large.

Supporting Sigler and doing all they can to help him win his fight will be the vast majority of the respectable citizens of Michigan, who believe in and favor HONEST government.

Democrats as well as Republicans in this locality have already freely expressed their support of Sigler.

Lieut. Governor Vern Brown has always kept mum about grand jury activities.

Mayor Ed Jeffries announced that he is going to run on a "clean-up" platform. If that's what he has in mind, he'd better get out of the race and get back of the Sigler candidacy.

The time is here for a state-wide decision as to whether the votes of people elected to serve in high state offices can be bought and sold on the open market the highest bidder getting the vote. The time is here to end all forms of rackets in connection with state affairs and state business.

Kim Sigler, had started to do a real job, but for unexplainable and QUESTIONABLE reasons he was fired at a time when his work was beginning to produce real results.

Some 30 or more grafting legislators, bribers and others who sold their state and their souls down the river for a mess of pottage have been convicted by Sigler. He lost the McKay case by the decision of a circuit judge, not by the verdict of a jury of Michigan citizens.

Pending before the grand jury when Sigler was fired was the notorious chain bank case, where thousands of dollars were reported to have been spent and in which higher-ups in both the Republican and Democratic parties have displayed a suspicious and intense interest in the outcome of this inquiry.

There is also that slot machine racket matter of which the newspapers said much when a raid was made by the state last fall. What is going to happen to this and other matters that Sigler had taken before the grand jury?

But there is no need to go on discussing the work of the grand jury which was "suspended" on March 4 by the judge who fired Sigler, and who now has appointed another attorney at exactly the same amount paid to Sigler to "study up" on the work of the jury and to continue its inquiry.

We know that if Sigler wins, Michigan's government will be conducted on the up and up and that thieves, bribe-takers and bribe-payers will have a pretty tough time of it. Maybe, too, the state legislature might start impeachment proceedings against any official who has an idea that the state is not in favor of a thorough house-cleaning up in Lansing.

LET'S SEE WHAT WE SHALL SEE.

Russell J. Boyle, editor and publisher of the Michigan Tradesman, a business paper circulated extensively throughout the state, in the last issue of his publication, hinted strongly that powerful financial influences are out to destroy the work of the state grand jury in Lansing.

We don't know the answer. From the outside looking in, it doesn't look good. In fact it looks rotten, rotten to the core.

Of course we know that all crooks, thieves and the grafters are deadly opposed to any grand jury inquiry.

We know, too, that there never has been any grand jury inquiry that caught up with all the thieves and grafters.

Editor Boyle does, however, give some enlightening information about the miserable method taken to smear some of the important persons connected with the startling deals in thievery and bribery revealed by former Special Prosecutor Kim Sigler and his assistants.

The Tradesman editorial follows:

Two forces—to all intents and purposes sincere unless correctly identified and interpreted by the public—have gone far toward undermining the Ingham County Grand Jury in Lansing.

They are:

- I. State Senator Ivan A. Johnston of Mt. Clemens, "fronting" for powerful big money interests, some of whose top men having urgent reasons to fear implication in further Grand Jury investigations.
- II. The Lansing State Journal public "mouthpiece" of those self-same interests.

Johnston, former prosecuting attorney of Macomb County, in which there are more organized gambling cliques than in any other county in Michigan—uncurbed during Johnston's career as a prosecutor—is the author of Senate Resolution No. 9, introduced in the Senate on February 14, during the special session of the Legislature just adjourned.

That resolution called for investigations of the expenditures by the Grand Jury.

First—Why has Senator Johnston, enforcement officers in a county where violations of State laws were numerous and notorious, suddenly become so meticulous about minute and trivial details of

To Erect $7,000,000 Hospital Near Here

State Plans Big Institution

Construction of a new $7,000,000 state hospital for psychiatric patients at the northwest corner of the Seven Mile and Haggerty highway, four miles from Plymouth and a mile east of Northville, will begin early in the summer, it has just been revealed in Lansing by the Michigan Mental Health Commission.

The 290 acres already purchased by the state is known in this vicinity as the old Gardner Simmons place but for sometime past has been owned by a Detroit resident. While the original purchase of land for the hospital site is sufficiently large for the first unit which will be erected as soon as possible, it is known that the state eventually contemplates the addition of a sufficient number of units to care for not less than 3,500 patients.

The first unit to be erected will care for some 1500 patients.

This will require a medical and nursing staff as well as maintenance workers of some 150 or 200 people.

Most of the hospital staff members will find it necessary to secure housing facilities in Plymouth and Northville and surrounding country.

While the state board was authorized at the last regular session of the state legislature to take steps for the erection of a new mental hospital for this section, the appropriation for the work was passed at the special session of the legislature held in February.

The new site is regarded as an ideal one, being on one of the highest spots in Wayne county and only 21 miles from downtown Detroit.

Tests made for a water supply have been made in recent months and an excellent flow of water was found not far from where the first unit will be erected.

It is understood that plans for the new structure are nearly completed and that bids for construction may be asked for in the not distant future.

Warns Vets to Register War Trophy Guns

Got yourself a war trophy? If it's a gun, better get it registered. The Treasury Department inspectors will get you if you don't.

Charles A. Greatham, a Treasury Department investigator, was in Plymouth this week and said very few ex-service men in this area were registering their battlefield souvenirs.

He warned that such souvenir guns can easily fall into the hands of those who will use them unlawfully. Many will be stolen. If that happens to your trophies it means trouble for the owner when the gun is traced to him.

Investigators like Mr. Greatham are most efficient at tracing down the ownership of such weapons too.

Robert S. Krause, investigator in charge, 1754 Buhl Building, Detroit, explains that returning veterans who have sent or brought certain types of firearms to their homes are required to register them. Failure to do so makes the possessor liable for heavy penalties he warned.

Not all the thousands of firearms brought home by returning veterans are required to be registered, Krause said, but explained that owners of the trophies should inquire of his office concerning all firearms they possess.

Information may also be obtained at any state police post or from Chief of Police Lee R. Sackett.

The Treasury Department has been designated as the enforcement agency for violations of the National Firearms Act. Firearms affected by the act are: shotguns or rifles with barrels less than 18 inches long, any weapon except a pistol or revolver that is capable of being concealed on the

Tells of Girl Scout Activities In the Nation

Mrs. John Henderson has just returned from attending the 28th convention of the Girl Scout National Council at Atlantic City, N. J.

She was sent there by the Plymouth Girl Scout Council to represent the 18 active Girl Scout troops in this area. Funds provided by the Plymouth Community Fund were used for this purpose.

Thus the Plymouthites who might wonder if their donations to the community fund ever benefited local societies need not look further for an answer.

Without maintaining favorable relations with the national council the girl scouts of Plymouth would not be able to progress as they have and are now doing.

Unless funds were made available locally, too, the valuable assistance received from the national council would not be forthcoming.

Mrs. Henderson had a very busy four days at the national convention. The agenda left her little time for her own devices.

As a representative of Plymouth's 18 active troops, Mrs. Henderson was entitled to membership on the Girl Scout National Council. As such she was called upon to vote on matters like the national girl scout budget for 1946-47, new officers of the national organization and recommendations of the executive board.

The program during the convention included addresses, panels and movies on new developments in program and leadership training, reports on past achievement and forecasts for future accomplishments.

One of the most noted speakers heard by Mrs. Henderson was Lady Baden-Powell, of Great Britain, the present World Chief Guide of the Girl Scouts. She spoke of her recent 17-day trip around the world during which

Seven Take Exam For Fire Chief

One Plymouthite and seven applicants from outside the community wrote a competitive examination Tuesday at Ann Arbor for the post of full time fire chief in Plymouth.

The examination was conducted by officials of the Michigan Municipal League at the association headquarters in Ann Arbor. Plymouth is a member of the league and elected to take full advantage of the league's facilities for such procedure.

Results of the examination will not be known for several days. Following the written tests are oral examinations and interviews with the city manager here.

Two Eight Year Old Youngsters Stage Successful Dog Show

Youngsters of the Hough School held a dog show Friday. It was promoted entirely through the efforts of Kenneth Steinke and Tommy Rowe, eight-year-old pet fanciers.

Probably there wasn't a blue-blooded canine among them but all were blue-ribbon entries in the minds of the proud young owners. And, though the show wasn't run under American Kennel Club rules, everyone, including the dogs, appeared to have a good time.

The show was spawned in the reading class at the Hough School when Masters Steinke and Rowe began asking questions about a dog show they were reading of in a newspaper.

"Gee Teacher, shilled Tommy, why couldn't we have a show of our dogs?" "Yes, chimed in Kenneth, Tommy and I could put it on."

The teacher encouraged them and the show began to take form. First of all the two boys invited all their classmates to enter their dogs. Tommy then secured permission to hold the show at the farm home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Rowe, of 3933 Ford Road. Tickets were then prepared and offered for sale at two cents each.

More than 75 tickets were sold and over 30 people attended the show which had 10 dogs and a few puppies on exhibition. Girl Scouts were called in to judge the animals. Blue and red ribbons were awarded first and second best dogs.

With the blue ribbons went one-pound packages of dog food. For their efforts in judging the pooches the Girl Scouts received penny boxes of raisins. All of the ribbons and prizes were purchased by the two promoters from funds realized on the sale of tickets.

Both promoters cautioned the judges very seriously not to reward either of their pets with a prize. "We want it fair, they chorused."

Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steinke, of 40906 Ford road, was a bit perturbed when the judges awarded a red ribbon to his cousin's entry, but being children and fortunately not suspicious of their fellow friends, none of the other owners questioned the award.

Adults who attended the show enjoyed themselves no end and applauded the efforts of Kenneth and Tommy. Their teacher said the show had done much more than just reading about it had done.

Anyway the eight-year-old Barnums gained a lot of experience and proved themselves able showmen in staging the event. They got a big bang out of it and their chums had a good time too.

Dog shows and the like for eight-year-olds instead of regimented marching with wooden rifles always will be the American way of life.

Plymouth electors will go to the polls Monday in the annual city election to name two city commissioners from a field of three candidates. All qualified voters are urged to get out and cast their ballots.

Candidates seeking election to the commission include the pair of incumbents, Jack E. Taylor and Ruth H. Whipple and Attorney Dunbar Davis, now in the military service but who will be discharged May 1.

Although there are three candidates seeking two commission membership vacancies, this year's election is not expected to turn up a record vote.

Voters in the fourth precinct will be exercising their franchise in a new setting. Instead of the Episcopal church the polls in that ward will be located at Giles Real Estate office on Franklin avenue. Other precincts will vote at the usual places.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. No absent voter's ballots can be accepted after 5 p.m. Saturday, March 30, tomorrow, according to City Manager Clarence H. Elliott.

First precinct electors will vote at the City Hall. The election board is as follows: Judge J. Rusing Cutler, chairman; Miss Verne Rowley, inspector; Mrs. Oral Rathburn, clerk; Mrs. E. H. Scully, clerk; and Mrs. Ann Richards, clerk.

In the second precinct the polls will be located at Starkweather School. Board members serving electors in that ward will be Mrs. Ralph West, chairman; Mrs. Harold Jolliffe, inspector; Mrs. Maude Bennett, inspector; Mrs. Marie Polley, clerk; and Mrs. Grant Stimpson, clerk.

Plymouth High school is the scene of the third precinct balloting. The personnel of the election board supervising the polls there are Harry L. Hunter chairman; Mrs. Eugene C. Benson, inspector; Mrs. Fred J. Thomas, inspector; Mrs. Arthur Mills clerk; Miss Ada Daggott, clerk; and Mrs. E. C. Drews, clerk.

Fourth ward electors voting in the Giles Real Estate office building will be served by the following board: Mrs. Sidney Strong, chairman; Mrs. Harry Mummy, inspector; Mrs. Clarence Jetter, inspector; Mrs. F. Earl Reh, clerk; and Mrs. E. C. Vealey, clerk.

Plymouth Youth Witnesses Theft Of Police Car

Melvin Larson, Plymouth High school student, and son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Larson, of 45245 Joy Road, witnessed the theft of a Northville police patrol car early last Saturday from in front of the Northville Restaurant, according to his parents.

Due to his prompt action in notifying the policemen inside the restaurant that their car was stolen, they were able to recover it undamaged and place the pair of culprits under arrest.

Melvin, along with Harry Jackson, of Northville, chanced to see two men whom they knew were not policemen, get into the empty police car and drive off.

After being advised of the theft the Northville police enlisted the aid of Plymouth police and Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol officers. For three hours the combined police units combed the immediate vicinity for trace of the car. It finally was located on Sheldon Road near Plymouth with its motor running and the lights burning.

Fifteen minutes later the guilty pair were also picked up and placed under arrest for the theft which they readily admitted to Northville police.

During the search for the police car, Melvin located a stolen bicycle the officers also had been looking for, his parents reported.

Jack Dobbs, Dick Farrell, George Schomberger, DeWayne Becker, Jay Daggott and Gerald Allen attended the State basketball tournaments at Jenson field house, Lansing, Friday and Saturday.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (James 1:17): "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 298)

TELLS OF GIRL SCOUT ACTIVITIES IN NATION
she visited eight different countries. Mrs. Henderson gained considerable and valuable knowledge which should benefit the Plymouth council and its 18 troops in mapping their future programs. Without such assistance, gained by participation in the national council, the Plymouth Girl Scout Council would be attempting to operate independently as an isolated organization. To adopt such a policy would defeat the ultimate goal for which the local troops were organized. Thus it is ably demonstrated that the community fund drive deserves the whole hearted support of the city and its citizens. Plymouth can well expect new and greater Girl Scout activity in the months to come.

Sore Muscles, Colds and Picnics Herald Spring

An epidemic of stiff muscles and colds in Plymouth is proof positive that at long last spring has arrived. Sore muscles and stuffy noses always are a sure sign of spring.

But there are other signs too. Three wonderful days in a row this week. How long the balmy breezes and warm sunshine will stay with us is anybody's guess. Everyone hopes they have seen the last of snow and bitter winds.

Spring flowers are out and so are the real harbingers of spring — the pussywillows. In and around Plymouth the downy willows can be found in abundance. Crocuses in the many Plymouth yards are peeping through as are the butter-yellow daffodils. Forsythia bushes already are stirring and tufts of yellow buds are showing.

Tulip beds are struggling to get into production. Lilac bushes are green with leaf buds and the grass is taking on a much healthier look.

Picnics already are being held in the parkways around the city. As yet no one has reported seeing a straw hat on the streets. When that happens all will know that spring is here to stay. Right now we all are hard at work making the fickle young lady feel at home and urging her to settle down. Whether she will is a matter of conjecture. In the meantime let's take it easy, don't rush the season, take our sulphur and molasses and wait until we're sure if our lovely guest is going to stay.

Second Lieut. Ernest M. Engleson, provost marshal officer, corps of military police, is expected home this week-end to visit with his parents for a few days. He is at present stationed in Texas, coming home from overseas last September. His army assignment, after he completed his school work in Texas, has been with the intelligence and security office. What his new assignment will be has not yet been advised. His plans are to remain in the army.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lichow and two daughters, Ann and Shirley, motored to Chattanooga, Tennessee last weekend. They returned to Plymouth on Monday and were accompanied back by Mrs. Mildred Rew.

The Lapham School Community Club has earned a duplicator for the school, thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Doris Curtis, saleswoman for the Farm Journal and the Farmers Wife magazines. S/Sgt. Robert Whittaker telephoned his parents, the Glenn Whittakers late Saturday afternoon from Boston. He had just arrived from India and expected to leave immediately for Fort Sheridan, Monday, however, he phoned again from New Jersey and expected to leave that day for Camp McCoy, Wisconsin where he expects to receive his discharge. Sgt. Whittaker has been in service 3 years with 26 months overseas duty in India.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schweim and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Griswold Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van Aken and daughters spent Saturday evening in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hawker and two sons were Sunday visitors at the William Ritchie and Albert Brown homes.

Mrs. John VanAken is entertaining her mother, Mrs. George Newman and her aunt, Mrs. O. Thoreson and two children of Traverse City.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ritchie, Miss Gladys Ritchie and Mrs. Albert Brown attended the wedding of their cousin, Winifred Stoddard to Marvin Corbe at the Redford Lutheran church Friday evening at 6:00. Miss Stoddard had an all-white wedding with four bridesmaids and little Lynn Ritchie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ritchie, was flower girl. Do you know that a few drops of olive oil, added to a liquid shampoo soap, is grand for dry hair? Do you know that tar soap tends to darken the hair? COKE-CROWD CAPERS. Saturday was Virginia Dorey's birthday, and to celebrate it, eight girls gathered at her home in the evening. The girls, Ellen Kelly, Marie Duthoo, Phyllis Christensen, Iris Kelly, Don Gill, Ross Hauk, Doris and Virginia Waldecker played games and listened to the radio from 8 to 12 p.m. At ten they ate a light lunch of salad, sandwiches, cake, cocoa, and relishes.

Carolyn Rolen celebrated her birthday Sunday by inviting Eleanor Hart, Lois Hansen, Mary Ellen Sexton, Jackie Daiton, Fish Pierce, and Virginia Waldecker to her home for dinner. They ate dinner about 2:00 p.m. and then went down to the Palms-State in Detroit to see "The Bells of St. Mary's".

Elsie Mae Keeping, Barbara Lorenz, Shirley Lightfoot, and Virginia Osterhout helped Beverly Kouseau celebrate her birthday Saturday from 6:30 to 11:00 p.m. They had a dinner of spaghetti, relishes, cake and ice cream at 7:00, and afterwards played cards. The girls outdid themselves by eating two lunches after that of cake and ice cream. To get themselves into the proper mood for a dark night and a long walk home, the girls told ghost stories and other weird tales.

Saturday night at the dance in the Masonic Temple, a trio, made up of Mary Ann Sytk, Mable Vickstrom, and Jacqueline Bothwell entertained the people gathered there with many popular songs. Some of them were, "O what It Seemed to Be" which was requested many times, "Personality," and "You Won't be Satisfied." They have also been asked to sing at the next dance at the Masonic Temple, April 6.

Nina Jean Lawson returned Tuesday from a vacation in Birmingham, Alabama.

Homes for Vets Object of New Govt. Regulation

Practically all proposed Plymouth building now under construction and virtually every anticipated repair job in the community has been forbidden by the Federal Government.

In one single but far-reaching edict effective at noon Wednesday, March 26, the Civilian Production Administration banned the start of any new commercial or industrial construction and clamped drastic restrictions on the repair and completion of all other structures now being erected.

The objective, a most laudible one, is to make building materials more readily available for the 2,700,000 new homes for veterans which the Government is aiming at within the next two years.

The order one of the most drastic yet issued by Washington, will affect the industrial future of Plymouth, it is believed. Many concerns who planned to start new stores, factories and shops in Plymouth within the next month find themselves stymied.

Some report they have disposed of present space and face the prospect of going out of business because of the new edict. Others must forego expansion plans because of the ban.

The measure announced by the national housing expediter, Wilson W. Wyatt, and CPA administrator, John D. Small, is so designed to permit completion of any construction now underway provided (and right here is where the usual Government confusion begins).

"Any of the materials which are to be an integral part of the structure have been incorporated in it on the site," before March 26.

Whether that means if cinder blocks for the walls were not on the site by last Wednesday noon they can not be used, or beams to support a roof that had not been yet delivered, cannot now be delivered, is something all of us would like to know.

Some builders say that everything on order for your building can still be delivered and used without constituting a violation of the ban. Others insist that unless the materials to be used were on the site at noon Wednesday, March 26, they can not be legitimately obtained to complete the structure.

To make sure that the order is obeyed the OPA is setting up a regional construction office in each of the 71 cities where Federal Housing Administration has offices.

That means there will be one in Detroit.

Working with these offices will be an advisory committee, the OPA said, of "prominent citizens" who will judge their neighbors much in the same manner the nation's youth were "selected" to go out and fight.

Repairs won't be quite so hard to manage providing you want to do a job big enough. You will be allowed to build a garage for your home if you can build it for $400.

Resort owners can circumvent the edict by spending at least a $1,000 on each job of new construction or repair they want to complete. This also applies to stores, theatres, churches, schools, old stations, radio stations, farm buildings other than a home and charitable institutions.

Despite the measure, Plymouth can have new factories—IF—its construction costs will be $15,000

Mayflower Hotel Officials Give Thanks To Retiring Manager

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Frost

Profound thanks from the Board of Directors of the Mayflower Hotel here mark the departure of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Frost from Plymouth on Saturday, tomorrow. They will return to the quiet life of their farm home near Rockford.

Without the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Frost during the dark days of war, the Mayflower Hotel would undoubtedly have suffered from inexperienced management.

When the war struck the hotel was not immediately hard put. As the tempo of the turmoil increased the bistro began to experience a help shortage, especially in the administration department.

The board suddenly thought of retired hostelryman Frost, whose 45 years of hotel experience were not being utilized. Mr. Frost was contacted. Though he needed a rest and was doing just that at his rural home near Rockford, he consented to come to Plymouth.

From May 1, 1943, until this week, he and Mrs. Frost have guided the destinies of the Mayflower Hotel and guided them well. Now that the emergency is over they are going back to resume resting. They will leave a host of friends behind in Plymouth and a debt of gratitude the hotel's directors insist can never be repaid.

There is nothing in the law that limits the number of jobs that may be undertaken at the same time on the same job. However, they warn that no job which normally would be a single piece of work can be subdivided for the purpose of coming within the cost allowance.

The edict is so worded that currently all is confusion over its interpretation. Clarification of the measure will probably not be forthcoming.

Members of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vealey's bridge club gathered in their home Saturday evening for a farewell party honoring Mr. and Mrs. James Cranmer who are soon moving to Grand Rapids where they will make their permanent home. Later in the evening the honorees were presented with a small gift from the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Darling of Northville road have returned from Saint Catharines, Ontario, where they were called last Tuesday owing to the sudden death of Mrs. Darling's sister, Mrs. Charles Copland.

person, any machine gun, a muffler or silencer for any firearm. This act does not require the registration of a .22 caliber rifle unless the barrel is less than 16 inches long.

Definition of machine guns include machine pistols and machine rifles which will fire more than one shot with a single pull of the trigger, pistols, revolvers that have stocks or detachable stocks, and automatic pistols that can be converted to full automatic by an adjustment of the mechanism on the gun.

Krause also urged all persons with such guns to have them rendered unserviceable. This can be done by requesting a Treasury Department officer to call, who then takes the gun to an expert welder, and it will be rendered harmless but still remain a valuable souvenir. The officer will give you a receipt for your gun. The charge for this service is less than a dollar.

It is illegal to transfer firearms of the types described except by the payment of $200 tax as provided by law. However, if firearms are rendered unserviceable they may be transferred tax-free as war trophies, upon submission of the proper form to the commission of internal revenue, Washington, D. C.

"No attempt is being made to deprive service families of their richly earned trophies of war, the investigator explained, but every precaution must be taken to prevent these deadly weapons from getting into the hands of criminals."

Failure to register usable guns with local police may result in the arrest of owners when information is obtained that they have them in their possession, the officer emphasized.

Michigan law requires that all revolvers and pistols must be registered with police authorities no matter what their origin.

What I Think and Have a Right to Say the manner in which the Grand Jury is being conducted? Second—Why was all precedent and customary procedure violated in the introduction and hasty adoption by the Senate of Johnston's resolution?

Lieutenant Governor Vernon J. Brown, presiding officer of the Senate, was away the day this resolution was offered. The man who occupied the chair was Senator Harry F. Hittle.

Incorporated in the resolution, offered under suspension of rules, was a provision that the committee to investigate expenditures of the Grand Jury be composed of Senator Johnston, Senator Harold D. Tripp of Allegan and Senator Robert McDonald of Flint.

It is also usual practice when committees are created that designation of members of the committees be left to the presiding officer, who would have been Lieutenant Governor Vernon J. Brown.

It is a fact that when the funds were appropriated for the Ingham County Grand Jury, the appropriation was made possible through joint action of both the Senate and the House.

It is unprecedented for one body to launch an investigation of this nature, dealing with a fund that has been created by both the Senate and the House, without at least seeking the approval of the other branch of the Legislature.

Upon investigation it is revealed that those who were inspired to introduce Senate Resolution No. 9 (and there is no question but what this effort was instituted by Senator Ivan A. Johnston of Mount Clemens) also intended to introduce a similar resolution in the House hoping for a concurrent resolution.

The member who ATTEMPTED to engineer the House resolution was Harry J. Phillips, a prominent barber in Port Huron, comes from Senator Ivan Johnston's senatorial district and also from the city where the Michigan National Bank, only bank in Michigan operating chain or branch banks, has a branch.

When the Bishop Bill, Senate Bill No. 97 passed the 1945 session of the Legislature (a bill to prohibit branch banking on a statewide basis), a bill favored by every independent bank in the State, the record shows that 25 senators voted for the bill, two senators were present but did not vote, one of the latter, Johnston.

The record further disclosed that after the bill passed the Senate and went to the house, active opposition to the bill emanated from the Barber of Port Huron, Representative Phillips.

He not only spoke against the bill but, with his colleagues, tried eight different times to amend the measure in order that its real purpose might be emasculated. But he failed in his efforts and the bill passed with 67 votes. It was later signed by Governor Kelly on April 10, 1945 and became law immediately because it had been given an immediate effect clause by both houses of the Legislature.

Isn't it peculiar that Senator Johnston, who lacked sufficient decision or conviction to vote either for or against the anti-statewide branch bank bill when it passed the Senate early in the 1945 session, should now muster enough courage to launch with great vim and vigor, an attack upon the Grand Jury which has been laboring long and well to ferret out graft and corruption?

Particularly now, such a move is suspicious because this Grand Jury had just announced to the daily papers that it was about to release indictments in connection with anti-statewide branch bank legislation and gambling. Senators who were present when the resolution passed to investigate Grand Jury expenditures were induced to believe that the Senate Investigating committee would scrutinize expenditures of the Grand Jury and report back to the Senate without interfering with the operations of the Grand Jury and further indictments that were pending.

One Senator has declared publicly that the resolution was rammed through on a voice vote, whereas, he says, he is positive that had a vote of record been required—it should have been on an issue of such great public concern—it would have been defeated.

Immediately after the resolution was passed, the Senate committee demanded the records of the Grand Jury from Judge Louis E. Coash. Special Prosecutor Kim Sigler at the time was in Florida where he found it necessary to take his sick wife.

The Senate committee then began to make public announcements which were designed to discredit the Grand Jury in the eyes of the public and members of the Legislature.

In the more than two years in which Sigler was chief investigator and trial lawyer, 12 warrants were issued indicting 99 persons. In six trials he had 39 guilty verdicts, three jury dis-agreements. Twelve guilty pleas were entered, and at least a dozen other men, under grant of immunity or not named in any warrants, testified in criminal trials and court examinations that they participated in and had knowledge of graft conspiracies in the Legislature.

The grand jury also turned to attempting to solve a murder, with the gangster-style slaying of State Senator Warren G. Hooper, Jan. 11, 1945, declaring Hooper was to have been a key witness.

That investigation led to the conviction of four Detroiters last summer on charges of conspiracy to murder, and of five persons, including three of those convicted in the murder conspiracy, on charges of the armed robbery of a Pontiac bar.

Have the people of any State ever had so much for their money? The Legislature appropriated about $448,000 and Sigler as prosecutor has spent around $350,000. Money's left and two big warrants on a banking bill of 1941 and gambling are ready for prosecution.

The Senate Committee found fault with an item of some $19,000 paid to Charles F. Hemans. If Hemans had not been cared for, it might have been necessary to bring him back from some foreign soil and pay heavy legal expenses and court costs not to say anything about the delays. In another case, Sigler was compelled to extradite a man living in New Jersey; he hasn't been brought back yet after over a year and a half of legal entanglements; he is represented by Mayor Hague's attorney, from Jersey City.

A public official who has served the people of Michigan as well and faithfully as has Special Prosecutor Kim Sigler deserved better treatment than he has been accorded.

The people of Michigan had confidence in Sigler and they know that under his guidance the graft in State Government would be brought to public view.

Now they are not so sure. Judge Louis E. Coash has dispensed with Sigler's services. In the place of this expert who has the experience, the know-how and the fighting heart to continue with his uncovering of wrong-doing in high places, Judge Coash has appointed Richard B. Foster, a former prosecutor of Ingham County. Foster is young and certainly has little knowledge of the intricate background of the evidence accumulated by Sigler.

Michigan Tradesman views his appointment with trepidation. We certainly wish him every success.

This much is certain. If the Grand Jury should fail now, that failure will land right smack in the lap of Judge Coash, and the people of Michigan will rise in their wrath and demand that Coash justify himself and his actions. He will be subjected to a different brand of light than that which the Lansing State Journal turned upon him when he suspended the Grand Jury. It will be a scorching light, which few survive. Some very important indictments are coming up, it is indicated by Judge Coash. If these are scotched or whitewashed, it will be just too bad for those who scotched them!

"Babes in Toyland" Next Presentation of Detroit Civic Light Opera

Marking one of the high points of its 10-week season, the Detroit Civic Light Opera Association will present Victor Herbert's delightful fantasy, "Babes in Toyland," for one week, beginning Tuesday night, April 2 in Masonic auditorium. There will be seven evening performances ending Monday, April 8, and a matinee Sunday, April 7.

The list of stage personalities who will appear in "Babes in Toyland" is one of the most impressive in the three-year history of the Association. The production from every viewpoint, is one of the most ambitious yet to be undertaken by the local Civic group.

Here is the all-star cast and the characters they will play: Margaret Spencer, acclaimed for her work in "The Bat," "Naughty Marietta" and "The Great Waltz," as Contrary Mary; Lee Dixon, Broadway star of "Oklahoma," as Gonzorgo; Mary Hopple noted contralto, as Tom Tom; Fred Harper, as Roderigo; the veteran Joseph Macaulay, as Uncle Barnaby; Dan Eckley, responsible for the lovely dance sequences during the whole season and who appears for the first time behind the footlights, as Grumio; Marjorie Peterson, as Jene; Robert Stuart, as Alan; John Cherry, as Inspector Marmaduke; Louise Kelley, as the Widow Piper; and Artells Dickson, as the master toy maker. Specialities will be presented by A. Robins, sometimes referred to as the "world's most famous clown" and a noted pantomimic burlesque magician, and Niska, dancer extraordinary.

The book for "Babes in Toyland" is by Glen MacDonough. Actually, the story is a nursery tale of childhood and embraces many of the characters found in nursery rhymes of bygone days. Among the not-to-be-forgotten Herbert melodies are "March of the Toys," "Go To Sleep, Slumber Deep," "Toyland," "I Can't Do that Sum," "Floretta" and "Rock-a-bye Baby."

Tickets for "Babes in Toyland" can be obtained in advance at the Civic Light Opera ticket office on the mezzanine floor of the J. L. Hudson Co., which is open daily from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The box office at Masonic auditorium opens nightly at 6:30 and on Sunday at noon, when tickets may be secured for the current performance.

SPRING COMES TO PHS

Spring has come to PHS. All of the signs of spring fever are here with the students gazing dreamily out of the windows, neglecting their homework and yearning to be out of doors.

While the boys are going out for golf, baseball, and track practice the girls are equally busy planning their new Easter outfits.

At noon you will find many of the students in front of the school and uptown sitting in the park, taking pictures of their friends, and just standing around talking.

These are all signs of the season that has just been ushered in. Alas! Spring has come to dear old PHS.

I. WALDORF IS ELECTED V. PRES. OF WAYNE MEA

Miss Irene Waldorf, English teacher at Plymouth High School, was elected second vice president of the Wayne County District meeting of the MEA held at the Plymouth Hotel at Dearborn on Friday, March 22. During the business session reports of standing committees were given and Dr. A. E. Miller of Lansing presided over some of the activities of the organization.

After a musical program by the Plymouth Girls' Double Quartet and Tenth Elys' Glee Club, Anaut, the only Eskimo woman on the American platform gave an interesting and instructive address.

School was closed Friday to allow the Plymouth teachers to attend.

J-HOP NAMED BIG TOP HOP

The Big Top Hop is the name of the J-Hop to be held on April 26 in the Plymouth High School gymnasium. The dance to the mellow strings of Larry Livingstone and his orchestra will start at 9:00 p.m. and end at 1:00 a.m.

If one of the couples attending the dance goes to school here, no invitation is necessary, but if neither one goes to school they must have an invitation. Requests for invitations may either be placed in the J-Hop box in the library or given to Pat Isbel by telephone, Livonia 2345. The sender's name and address as well as the name and address of the person to whom the invitation is being sent must be given.

The Hillside restaurant will be open after the J-Hop for the students and reservations can be made with Miss Lovewell after April 1.

GIRLS HELP PREPARE NOON DAY LUNCH

Cafeteria is happy to make known that the following girls have helped to prepare the noon day lunch almost continually since school started. All the grades are represented by these girls: Ann Vincent, 7th grade; Bonnie Nellbaum, 8th grade; Beverly Patrick and Malda Eads, 9th grade; Shirley Adams, Virginia Wellbaum, Wilma Smith, 10th grade; Mary O'Neill and Catharine Eads, 11th grade; and Annabelle Koch, 12th grade.

Casual visitors would hardly realize what a job it is to prepare large quantities of food in a limited time. But the chief cook, Mrs. Wellbaum, manages each day with a smile. Students from Homemaking help also first hour as part of their class work. The whole cafeteria project is under the direction of Mrs. Christyna Soule.

CARNIVAL CANCELLED.

Due to lack of time the all-school carnival has been cancelled until next year when they will begin work on it as soon as school starts.

Don Korte's orchestra will furnish the music. For those who enjoy hunting for eggs, that entertainment is also planned. Committees for the "Easter Bunny Welcome" are: Refreshments, M. A. STUDENTS CAN COOPERATE

Working on the Senior play proved one of the points most prominent in our thoughts today. People can cooperate! Everyone worked together and enjoyed it. There were no arguments or any disagreeing over trivial matters. When a group was needed to haul furniture someone gladly donated the truck from his father's farm and they all loaded the properties and returned them or went after them. The night after the last performance and party, the Seniors did not stay in bed by 8:30 the following morning everything was completely cleaned up and the stage ready for others to use.

Yes, the Seniors made a success of their cooperation. Why do not we have more of this thing in our school in every club or class activity we have. More is accomplished. A good feeling between the teachers and students is felt and I know that when we all work together for one common cause rather than our own selfish interests or what we can personally gain from it, we will have one of the finest and happiest bodies of students there are.

LIFEBODY.

Dear few fans, Having returned home from Florida I am once more completely back in the swing of things—and do those doors swing. Yes, I had an enjoyable time down South, but I enjoy Michigan for all around weather. It's so mild, hot, humid, mucky, wet, and good for colds. Well, so much for that. Now for the weeks forecast.

Today—Work for the night is coming. Then relax. As to your method of relaxing that is entirely up to you.

Monday—Begin the week right. Do your assignments and do them right. Ask sensible questions and reply with sensible answers. Remember it doesn't take long for six weeks to creep past.

Tuesday—Steer clear of the Library tonight. I see that the teachers are to gather there for a little chat at 3:30.

Wednesday—Start looking forward to reading your first copy of the school paper. You will enjoy some of the features. I plan to have this column syndicated in it.

Thursday—Girls! Beware of those wolves in sheep's clothing. They might pull the wool over your eyes.

Yours for better living, Lifebody.

SENIOR PLAY DRAWS CAPACITY CROWD

With one or two white hair does and liberal supply of grease paint applied, the Seniors presented the hit comedy "You Can't Take It with You" in the high school auditorium on March 20 and 21. Playing to capacity crowds, the cast sent the audience away wiser as to why "you can't take it with you" and helped relieve the overload on the already gasping senior treasury.

Snakes, fireworks, a slipping toga, G men, outdated formals (how times do change) ballet dancing, and here and there some acting combined to make the show one that amateur grease painters will long remember and one which provided a full night's entertainment for those who saw it.

COURTESY PAYS OFF TO TWO POLICEMEN

An article similar to the one which follows shows that courtesy can be very helpful as well as useful if one tries to make an advantage of it:

Harrisburg, Pa., Courtesy paid dividends to Patrolmen Paul Rafter and Earl Wollett. A hotel owner, who frequently had been helped by the two policemen stationed nearby, willed them each $250.

Has your courtesy been improved during the courtesy campaign? If not, remember—Room 21—Manners completely overhauled. Manners Incorporated. We fix 'em.

Leaders' Club—April 4, will be a play day for Leaders' Club girls as was decided at their last meeting. Plans for the Leaders' Club dance, April 12, were discussed along with the plans for an assembly which will also be held April 12.

Art Club will do statues in clay using the same method that the sculptor from the U. of M. who performed at an assembly used.

French Club—Plans for a party are being made at meetings but the date has not been set.

Hi-Y and Girl Reserves are still in a thick fog over their party that they planned weeks ago, but due to conditions beyond their control the big party has not been held.

In Evergreen Bluff, Michigan, Allen Chesbro, after five successive wooden mailboxes had been flattened by drunken drivers, built No. 6 on a 15-in steel beam, buttressed by 16 tons of concrete, guarded by a 130-lb. rail, topped off by an ominous replica of a block-buster bomb.

WHAT IF?

Lois Thomas didn't go with Jerry Allen? Ken Truesdell didn't meet Neva Anderson at her locker every morning? Margie Kahler didn't wear her hair a different way every day? Those girls didn't giggle every time a certain boy came around a certain girl? Margie Basset didn't like Jack Dobbs? People didn't send slam books around every year? Ted Campbell didn't have a special interest in Detroit these days? Cute little brunette, isn't she, Ted? Tom Sanders didn't have 3 or 4 girl friends? What's wrong with Joyce, Tom? Joe Mandel had a girl friend? Beverly Rousseau didn't admit she was the "timid" type? If you have any items of interest about your family or friends please call Plymouth 6.

Buy Right Kind of Garden Seed

Just because a garden seed is offered for sale is no reason that it is the best for Michigan.

That is the best advice that any gardening specialist can offer. Jack Rose, Michigan State college authority believes it is all right to try a few new varieties, but he reminds you that there are some old standbys. And these definitely should not be passed up—for the picture that looks so good in the catalog, may be of a variety that does well in Georgia.

"A good gardener watches the new creations that come along. Improvements are constantly being made and he misses none of them. But he knows, too, that for the most of his garden, he must depend on the tried and proven varieties," Rose says.

And here are the tried and proven varieties for Michigan, which Extension Specialist Rose recommends:

Asparagus—Mary Washington. (Buy roots if possible).
Beans, green bush—Longgreen, Tendergreen, Stringless Green Pod, Logan.

Beans, wax—Pencil Pod, Cooper's.

Beans, pole—Kentucky Wonder, Beans, Lion Bush—Portland, USDA No. 2 Henderson.

Beet—Early Wonder Cerebel, Egyptian (early); Detroit Dark Red, (late).

Broccoli—Italian Green Sprouting.

Brussel Sprouts—Catskill, Long Island Improved.

Cabbage—Copenhagen Market, Golden Acre, (early); Round Dutch, Glory of Enkhuizen, (mid-season); Wisconsin Hollander No. 8, Bunker, (late).

Carrots—Imperator, (sand or muck soil); Nantes Half Long, (heavier soils); Red Cored Chantenay.

Cauliflower—Snowdrift, Early Snowball.

Corn, sweet—Northstar, Spancross, (early); Golden Cross Bantam, (mid-season); Ioana, (late).

Cucumber—Burpee Hybrid, A and C, Straight 8.

Eggplant—Black Beauty.

Salsify or Oyster Plant—Mammoth Sandwich Island.

Parsnips—Model, Hollow Crown.

Lettuce, head—Great Lakes, Imperial 847, New York PW 55.

Muskmelon—Honey Rock, Hearts of Gold.

Okra—Dwarf Green Long Pod.

Peppers—California Wonder, Burlington, Merrimac Wonder.

Onions—Early Yellow Globe, Brigham Yellow Globe, Sweet Spanish.

Potatoes—Chippewa, Pontiac.

Peas, dwarf—Laxton's Progress

Peas, tall—World's Record.

Pumpkins—New England Pie, Sugar Pie.

Radishes—Scarlet Globe.

Can You Tell The Difference?

When cut, bread made from 80 per cent flour appeared creamier, but unless the two loaves were examined side-by-side, no difference was noticed. In some instances the economists and food editors were of the opinion that cake made of the 80 per cent flour tasted better and had a slightly finer texture.

After attending the Kroger preview, one food page editor summarized the situation as follows: "If you have been worrying about the 80 per cent flour that soon will be on the market to take the place of the 72 per cent flour we have been accustomed to buying, just sit back and relax."

The visitors listened to discussions on the flour from the standpoint of the commercial baker and the homemaker, and then had an opportunity to taste-sample almost a score of products, comparing them with the same items made of 72 per cent flour.

They found there was virtually no difference in the outward appearance of bread, cakes and French Breakfast, White Icicle.

Spinach—Long Standing Bloomsdale.

Kale—Dwarf Blue Curled.

Tomatoes—Early Chatham, (earliest); Victor, Bounty (early); Stocksdale, Pitchard (midseason); Marylobe, Rutgers, (late).

Tomato, yellow—Golden Jubilee.

The Michigan State extension bulletin No. 4, "The Home Vegetable Garden," which was widely distributed last spring, gives other information to the home gardener. If you did not get one of these last year, they are available from your county agent or by addressing: The Bulletin Office, Dept. of Public Relations, Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan.

Melon Grower Shows Pictures

Members of the Plymouth Rotary club last Friday noon had the opportunity to see how Henry and Ray Grimm, prominent Michigan market gardeners, produce some of the country's best tomatoes and muskmelons for the markets in this part of the state.

Colored motion pictures showing the various steps taken in producing the plants and crops were shown and explained by Ray Grimm. The meeting was in charge of Robert Waldecker, chairman of the club's rural affairs committee, and it proved to be one of the most interesting of the year.

While hundreds of Plymouth residents visit the Grimm farm during the late summer and early fall to purchase the high grade vegetables and melons that are produced, few of them have ever taken the time to make a careful study of the methods used in producing their crops. The series of motion pictures shown to the Rotarians last Friday revealed reasons why the Grimm "boys" have been able to even amaze agricultural college experts by their success in producing such large crops free of all pests.

The extension department of the Michigan State College, it was revealed, has adopted and recommended to other growers many of the methods developed by the Grimm brothers.

They were among the first melon growers in the country to adopt the overhead irrigation sprinkler system. The spray machines, as well as most of the other equipment used in planting and harvesting their crops were also designed by themselves.

Their farm is located at the southeast corner of Wayne and East Ann Arbor roads.

Wiedrick to Run Chicago Races

Sam Wiedrick, who established the Northville Downs as one of the country's leading trotting horse tracks, will be general manager of the new Maywood plant, when night harness racing with pari-mutual betting is inaugurated in Chicago on June 6. A 60-night meeting will begin at Maywood Park, North Avenue and River Road, under the auspices of the Maywood Park Trotting Association.

Robert G. Johnson, New York broker and member of the Chicago Board of Trade who is president of Roosevelt Raceway, New York trotting track, will be president of Maywood Park.

Associated with him are a number of prominent New Yorkers and Chicagoans, including Michael G. (Mike) Phipps, international poloist and New York sportsman, and Owen Robert Traynor, Jr., Chicago real estate man.

Martin W. Littleton, well known New York attorney and former district attorney of Nassau County in New York, will be vice-president.

Application has been made to the State Harness Racing Commission to race from June 6 to July 13, and from Sept. 15 to Oct. 19.

More than $500,000 will be spent in remodeling and improving the present grandstand and half-mile track; constructing a new clubhouse and pari-mutual track building; new stables; installing the latest lighting equipment and otherwise beautifying the racing site which is situated in minutes of the Loop. In general revival of the harness racing sport, Maywood Park will rank among the foremost racing tracks in the country. The existing grandstand will be seen in action. Races will be held nightly.

No announcement has yet been made pertaining to the Northville races for the coming season. Last year there was an early spring race meet preceding the Detroit race meet, and a late fall meet, following the Detroit meet.

SENIORS ATTEND GUIDANCE CONFERENCE

"Study your employer if you want to get and keep a job," was the advice of Dr. T. L. Purdom, director of the Bureau of Occupational Information and Placement, when he spoke to the students, parents, and faculty of Plymouth High School at the guidance conference held Tuesday night.

Dr. Purdom also stressed the need of parents knowing and being with their children more often; thus giving them a better background and preventing delinquency. After the completion of Dr. Purdom's talk, the meeting broke up into individual groups with many well known people acting as leaders.

Present were Robert E. Burke from Stinson Aircraft; Miss Gladys Tmey, director of Occupational Therapy and Dr. F. E. Lord, director of Special Education at Michigan Normal, Ypsilanti; and Miss Katherine Mason, Freshman Counselor, Western State College.

Also there were Charley Parks, Commercial Announcer of WJR; Mr. A. R. Hellworth, Electrical Engineer, Detroit Edison Company; Mr. Conley Bacon, Employment Supervisor of General Motors; Mr. Donald Sutherland, Accounting, Cleary Business College; Russell Kleis, Assistant Director of Short Courses; and Miss Doris Williams, former graduate of PHS, now attending Michigan State College; Richard A. Schroiter, Assistant Superintendent of Personnel, J. L. Hudson Company; John Gallimore, Ford Motor Company, and Mr. Albert Lucioni, Teal Music Studios, Detroit. Before the meeting refreshments and entertainment were presented to the guests.

TYPING IS A POPULAR COURSE

One of the most popular courses at Plymouth High is typewriting. Almost 200 students are enrolled in this semester's typing classes. Around 50 percent of these students are taking typing for their own personal benefit.

Typing is becoming more and more important in the present age. While many of the students take typing with a view of becoming a secretary, many others are taking it for their own benefit—to use in college or to help pay their way through college. Recently there has been a great shortage in good male typists. More fellows are enrolling in typing each year. At present there are about 28 per cent boys in all classes in PHS.

If a student possibly can take it, he should get one semester's typing into his schooling. It can be used in many ways in later life. If enough Seniors, who did not have a chance to get it in before graduation, show an interest, there will be a summer school for them. Mr. Brown will conduct a beginning class and an advanced class this summer. Blanks will be provided for those interested later on.

Some of the projects undertaken by the typing classes are: typing and mimeographing the new seventh grade newspaper, "The Seven-Up"; making classification and enrollment blanks, as well as attendance reports. Many teachers have had work, tests, etc. typed and mimeographed or dictated. Next year it is hoped to have more clubs, school functions, etc., come to the typing room for program invitations, etc. A commercial club which could be one of the largest clubs in school, is also planned.

In classes each student has an individual graph on which is recorded his speed and errors each week. Currently Maxine Martin is leading the typing II class with 15 words a minute. Laurel Thompson leads typing IV with better than 60 words per minute.

Lieut. Thams Is High Up in Alps

According to letters received by Dr. and Mrs. S. N. Thams from their son, Lieut. Robert W. Thams, he is now stationed high up in the Bavarian Alps with an anti-aircraft outfit of the United States army.

But it is not military work that concerns him so much now. At this place is the former German Georgian Military Academy erected by Adolph Hitler for the Nazi training of German youth. The structure is one that escaped Allied bombing and is now being used by the Americans to train officers as instructors for some 38,000 American soldiers who will comprise the "elite corps" of the American occupation forces in Germany.

There are now some 120 officers and 400 enlisted men at this Constabulary school wrote Lieut. Thams.

See Strange Sight in Florida

Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs who have been spending the winter in Florida returned home a few days ago, but not until after witnessing one of the strangest events in marine mammal life ever recorded along the Florida coastline.

As they visited Pass-a-Grille, a Gulf of Mexico beach near St. Petersburg, 27 killer whales swam into shallow water, for what marine life experts declared was a mass suicide of these strange animals of the sea.

Fishing editors of St. Petersburg papers, as well as other experts on marine life, say this is a common trait among killer whales that are sick.

Newspaper clippings brought home by Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs show illustrations of these big mammals floundering about in shallow water.

Residents in an effort to save them from destruction, fastened ropes about the tails of some of them and tried to drag them out to deep water. When successful and the whales were released, they returned directly to the shallow water.

Mr. Jacobs said that disposition of the big mammals was going to prove quite a problem to the local residents, due to the stench that would develop in a few days.

The scene was being visited by thousands of vacationists and tourists, stated Mr. Jacobs.

The well known Plymouth residents have spent a most pleasant winter in southern Florida. Most of the time they were located near Fort Lauderdale. Both declare that they have been much benefitted by the first good vacation they have had in five or six years.

Four Women Are Nylon Winners

Must be at least four Plymouth women have good-luck horse shoes hidden about somewhere.

Each one was a winner a few days ago at a pair of Nylon stockings at the first drawing conducted by a big Detroit store.

Out of 126,000 names, these four were among the few hundred that were fortunate enough to be drawn as winners, Mrs. G. I. Hix of Pine street, Mrs. K. F. Packard and Mrs. H. Reddeman of Blunk avenue and Mrs. William Squires of North Harvey street.

According to percentage averages, Plymouth residents were much more fortunate than were residents of other cities of similar size to Plymouth in the Detroit area.

Church Choir to Give Concert

A rare musical treat is in store for Plymouthites at 7:30 p.m. Friday, tonight, at Church of the Nazarene, Holbrook and Pearl Streets.

At that time H. T. Stanley and his choir of 30 voices will present a special concert of religious numbers. Other music will be provided by the famous Tompkin Sisters, of Detroit, gospel singers who broadcast over Detroit stations.

The Rev. F. D. Wright, of Mishawaka, Ind., will preach a special revival sermon at the close of the musical portion of the service.

More American lives were lost in motor vehicle accidents in 1945 than were lost during the past 75 years in 36 major disasters resulting from fire, flood, storm, earthquake and explosion, the National Safety Council reports.

In Manila, Judge de la Rosa played it safe, gave a six-month sentence to slippery Bank Robber Antonio San Juan, dead a month.

Makes Trip to Mexico by Plane

Ross V. Heilman, vice-president of Wall Wire Products company returned to Plymouth last week from a three weeks' vacation in Mexico. Mr. Heilman flew from Chicago to Mexico City and spent much time visiting the places of interest in that country. He visited the new volcano there and also went to Yucatan for a brief visit before returning to Cuba by plane and then on to Tampa, Florida where he spent a few days with his family who have been spending the winter in that city.

Mr. Heilman was much impressed by the larger Mexican and South American cities and said that the climate in Mexico City was as near perfect as any he had experienced.

"Michigan and the Old Northwest"

In France Cadillac gained support of Pontchartrain, minister of marine.

Cadillac had left St. Ignace in '97; by 1700 he was back in Quebec from France.

In early June, 1701, the bold leader quit Montreal for the founding of Detroit.

Cadillac's historic journey required 7 weeks. A great new era was at hand.

In just two months all of Michigan's state parks will be open for visitors. Many of them are already open. According to information sent out by the conservation department, the state is expecting the greatest park attendance this year since the creation of the state park system under the administration of former Governor Alex J. Groesbeck. Forty-seven parks will be open out by the conservation department, the state is expecting the greatest park attendance this year since the creation of the state park system under the administration of former Governor Alex J. Groesbeck.

Nine million visitors were counted in state parks in 1941 — the all-time attendance record — and the conservation department estimates that the parks will be visited by at least 7 and one-half million persons this year, maybe 2,000,000 more. Attendance last season was 5,700,000.

An additional six state parks now incorporated in larger downstate recreation areas also will be open to the public next summer. The department has been buying land in southeastern Michigan in recent years to provide room for city dwellers to stretch their legs and some purchases extend the boundaries of existing parks.

The department will push construction of a bathing beach at Pontiac lake and picnicking facilities in the recently-acquired Rochester-Utica recreation area that will serve the Detroit metropolitan area will be undertaken as rapidly as labor and materials become available.

New group camp facilities are to be supplied at Sleeper state park near Caseville in Huron county and in the Island lake recreation area southeast of Brighton. Existing camps in the Allegan state forest and on Ojibwa lake in the Black lake state forest in Presque Isle county will be put in shape to handle groups of campers.

Only development of the Porcupine Mountain recreation area in Ontonagon county that can be undertaken this year will provide hiking trails and possibly some trailside shelters.

State parks will be staffed with approximately 225 rangers and maintenance employees.

Do you want to try your luck in raising pheasants for the state this spring?

Well then write the state conservation department in Lansing, but remember all the pheasants you raise must be liberated in the vicinity where you raise them.

Pheasant eggs, bought on the open market, will be furnished by the conservation department to sportsmen's groups, 4-H clubs, and others if the departments own egg producing facilities fall short of meeting the demand.

The department expects to double its egg production this spring and to hatch or distribute 20,000 eggs as compared with the approximately 10,000 eggs that were obtained through cooperation of the Prison of Southern Michigan last season.

Immediate mailing of applications for eggs will assist the department's game division in making an equitable distribution of the combined supply.

Michigan's conservation department as well as property owners along the Great Lakes, always have one problem to face. That's the constant changing of the coast line.

The writer has for a number of years had a cabin up on Lake Huron. Sometimes there's a stretch of sand some 400 or 500 feet to the water's edge. Other years it isn't over 200 feet wide.

Ways to control wave action that is seriously damaging Great Lakes shorelines in several areas in the state are now being studied by conservation department geologists.

Norman F. Billings, department hydrogeologist, will attend a meeting of engineers in Washington March 21 when new control methods will be discussed.

Needed are control methods that are within the means of the average owner of shore property. A favored development is a wall with openings along its entire length that is constructed at a right angle to the shore. Such construction may cost less than a sea wall and serve to check erosion.

Wave action is causing property loss in the vicinity of Holland, Ludington, and Mears along the Lake Michigan shore, near East Tawas and along the Thumb shore of Lake Huron, and near Monroe on Lake Erie.

Michigan's forests are again threatened with fire this year, advises the state's conservation department. Officials of the department say that for the second year, conditions of extreme fire hazard have been built up by climatic conditions.

Snow already has disappeared over the entire southern peninsula and in the ostuh half of the northern peninsula. Lush vegetation encouraged by the last two "wet" seasons, and slashings left by war-accelerated lumbering operations, will increase hazards if forest lands continue to dry up.

Grass and forest fires in March of 1945 caused approximately 14,401 acres before two-thirds of the season's acreage April 1. Season's loss was 22,881 acres.

The conservation department today issued its first warning against setting grass or brush fires without first securing permits from conservation officers, unless fire breaks sufficient to control the spread of such fires are plowed around the areas to be burned.

The department again will hale offenders into court. Stiff fines and jail sentences were handed down in a number of courts last spring when conservation officers carried on an intensified campaign against uncontrolled burning.

Spring burning of grasslands and brushlots is not encouraged by the department, which points out that the practice destroys wildlife and food and shelter for wildlife, reduces soil fertility and promotes erosion and loss of valuable top soil, and contributes to flood conditions.

Persons who set grass or brush fires which result in damage to others' property are liable for damages in civil actions.

At long last, conservation department fish authorities have indisputable proof that smallmouth bass may be taken on hook and line in winter.

Two bass caught by ice fishermen early this month in Walled lake in Oakland county have been sent to the department's institute for fisheries research in Ann Arbor.

There had been rumors that smallmouth bass had been taken in Elizabeth lake, also in Oakland county, and elsewhere in winter but it was only when Lee Anderson, in charge of an institute lake mapping party, visited Walled lake that evidence was secured that the fish can sometimes be caught in deep water in wintertime. The bass — 10 and 12 inches in length — were caught on minnows at a depth of between 16 and 20 feet.

Fish authorities have believed that smallmouth bass hibernate in winter and there have been reports that the fish have been dredged up from resting places among rocks or in mud bottoms of lakes.

Walled lake fishermen declare that smallmouth bass bite more readily in winter than in summer in that particular lake.

Michigan's long-continued efforts to establish Hungarian partridge as a game bird in southern counties continue to show disappointing results.

Scout Council President Prentiss Brown Honored

Prentiss M. Brown

The 39 thousand Cubs, Scouts and Leaders of the Detroit Area were very proud to learn that their Council President, Prentiss M. Brown was appointed the General Chairman of the Golden Jubilee committee—to "Plan for the Celebration of 50 Years of Progress in the Automotive Industry."

Mr. Brown was elected as the 1946 Council President early this year—replacing Frank Cody former superintendent of the Detroit Public Schools, who served as Council President during 1944-45.

As a former congressman and former head of the O.P.A., Mr. Brown was much in the public news for several years. He was recently appointed as Chairman of the Board of the Detroit Edison Company and accepted the Scout Council presidency only after much deliberation.

In Seattle, evidence of the expanding labor market appeared in a Post-Intelligencer ad: Help wanted, male—Refined, reliable gentleman to clean toilets.

1945 A BUSY YEAR AT MICHIGAN BELL

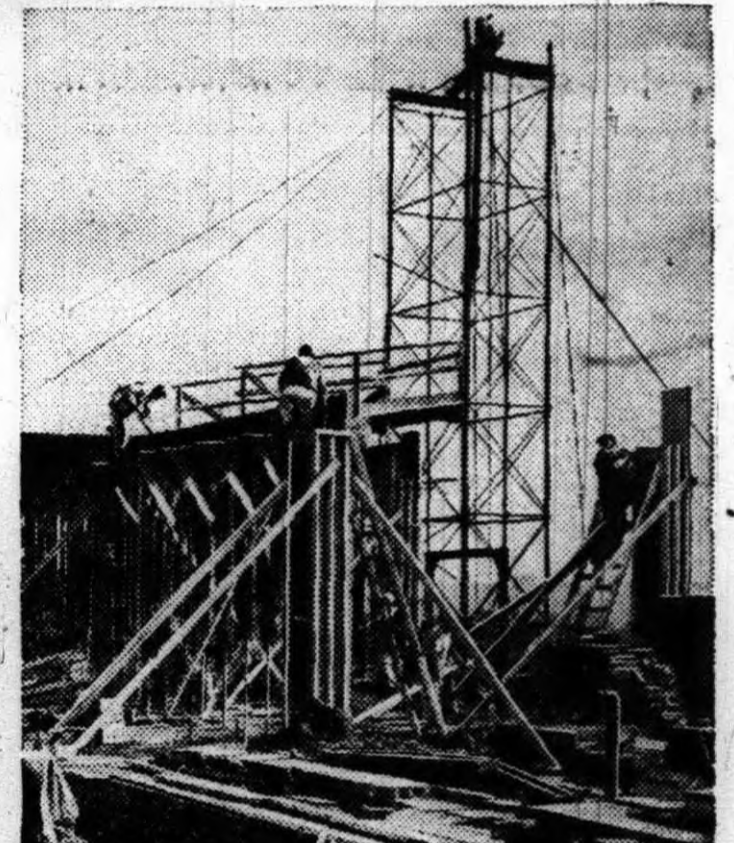

TRANSITION War gave way to peace, but unfilled orders for new telephones continued to soar, reaching 127,500 in November. As Michigan Bell's Postwar Expansion and Improvement Program gained momentum, the number of applicants waiting for service was reduced to 113,200 by year's end.

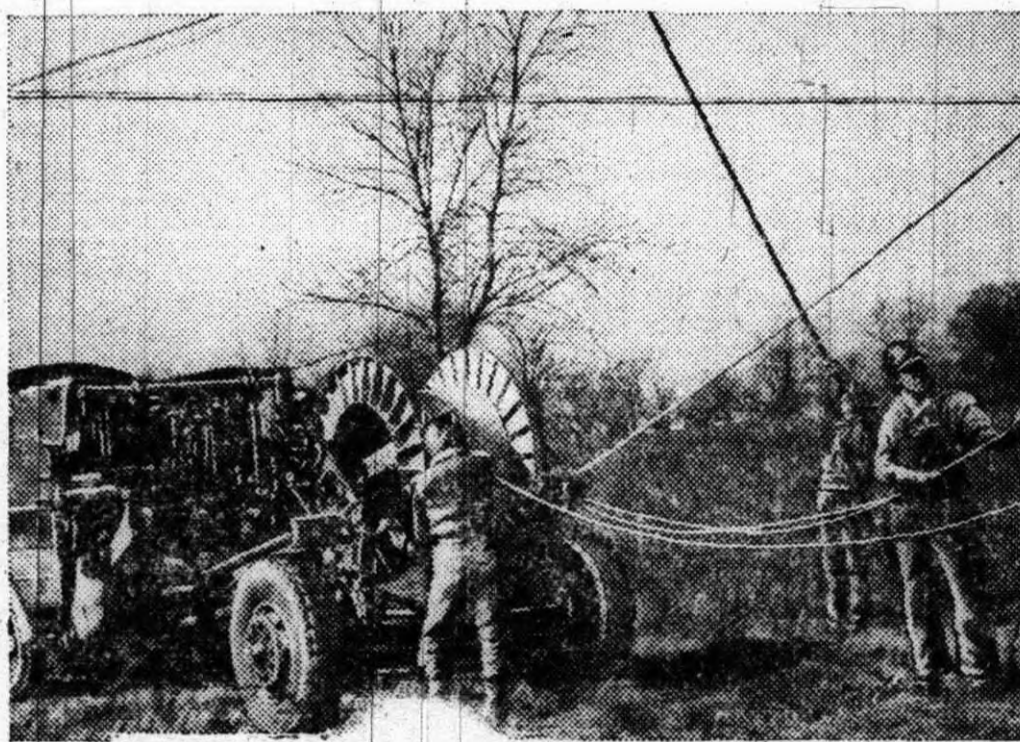

WELCOME 1,295 of Michigan Bell's 3,056 war veterans had returned by Dec. 31. Mourned were 57 who had died in service. During the year, total employees had climbed 3,400 to an all-time high of 16,500. The prewar ratio of about 50-50 between men and women had shifted so that 2 of every 3 employees were women.

MORE CALLS Calls in 1945 — 159,700 toll and 6,004,000 local per day — were about double the prewar average. Service, although not up to prewar quality in some respects, was generally good.

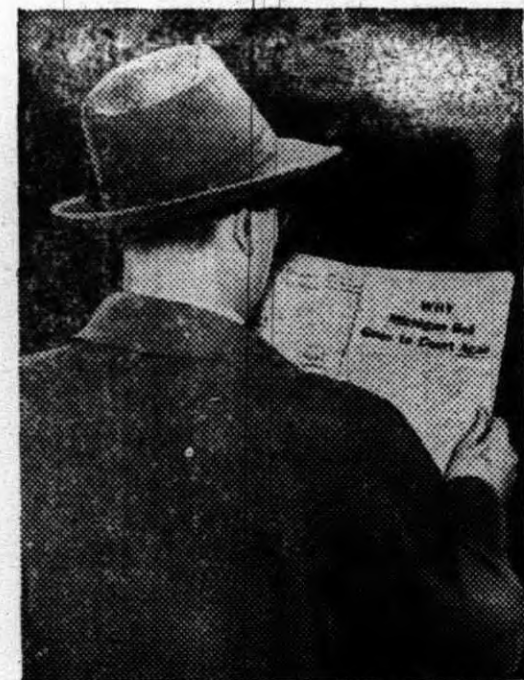

PROGRAM BOOSTED The figure for Michigan Bell's 5-year Postwar Expansion and Improvement Program was boosted from $120,000,000 to $150,000,000 after experience gave a clearer picture of increasing public needs, rising costs of materials and labor. Money for the program must come largely from the sale of Bell System securities to investors.

GOAL To return as quickly as possible to the kind of service wanted, when and where it is wanted, is Michigan Bell's aim. By year's end, work was being rushed on nearly 100 major projects which will boost central office capacity by 85,000 lines and add about 850,000 miles of subscriber lines. 2,600 miles of open wire were built in 1945.

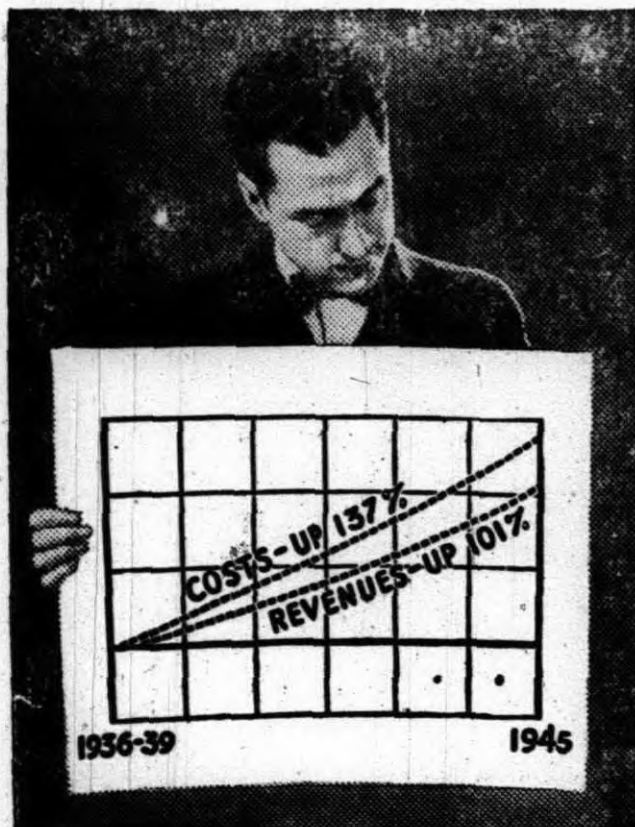

MORE TELEPHONES By Dec. 31, telephones in service totaled 1,174,513 compared with 742,118 in 1939. In the last 3 months of 1945, the increase was 37,000 telephones, largest 3-month gain in Michigan Bell history.

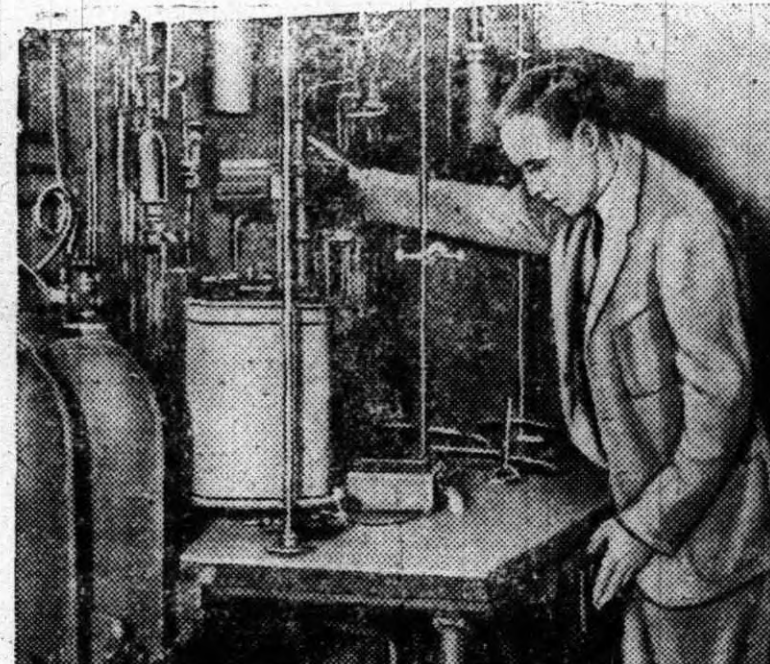

RATE-CUT RESISTED

To attract the investor's dollar, the rate of Telephone Company earnings must compare favorably with the average of other industries — not substantially less, as has been the case in recent years. The future quality of telephone service, then, depends on earnings attractive to investors. So Michigan Bell in January, 1946, appealed to the courts for relief from a Michigan Public Service Commission order calling for retroactive reductions of $3,500,000 a year for 1944 and 1945, and lower rates for local service in 1946.

EARNINGS DOWN While Michigan Bell's total revenues of $80,806,000 in 1945 were 101% over the prewar 1936-1939 average, costs were up 137% to $71,254,000. The amount left over to pay for the use of investors' money was about $69,000 less than the average of prewar years, although an additional $36,000,000 had been invested in the business since 1939. So the average return on the stockholder's dollar dropped from 7 1/2 to 5 1/2 cents.

FUTURE Unlike most industries, we have no alternative but to expand our plant when necessary to meet service demands. With earnings attractive to investors, we can continue to improve the quality of service and use future, technical research developments to help keep rates down in the face of rising costs. It is to everybody's interest that we give the best service at the lowest cost which will protect the future of the business.

ANNUAL REPORT The full story of Michigan Bell's operations for 1945, complete with all the facts and figures, is contained in an interesting, illustrated booklet, entitled "War to Peace." Copies may be obtained at any Michigan Bell business office.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS.

GEORGE: "Yes, I certainly would like to hear why you call that an old fashioned idea, Judge."

OLD JUDGE: "Glad to tell you, George. Until recently, a person known as an alcoholic was generally treated as a social outcast. Little if anything was done to understand him or help him. But, during the past few years, medical research and study has developed that alcoholics are really sick people . . . that there is usually a deep-rooted physical, social or emotional reason behind their behavior. That's why today so much is being done to help them by finding out and correcting the condition that leads them to excess."

GEORGE: "How many folks are there like that, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Well, according to scientific research, 95% of the people who drink, drink sensibly. 5% do so unwisely, at times. Included in that 5% is the small percentage of the sick people I'm talking about."

GEORGE: "That certainly gives me a clearer picture. It's the most sensible approach I've ever heard on the subject."

Investment Trusts
New York City, March 29. — In view of the tremendous growth in the business of Investment Companies, readers of this column should realize their possibilities, both as a service to the small investor and as a factor in stabilizing the present stock market.

"Closed-End" versus "Open-End" Companies

Investment companies are divided into two main groups—the closed-end companies are the old-fashioned, Investment Trusts, of which there are a large number scattered throughout the United States. There, however, are only a few large ones, the securities of which are listed on the New York Stock Exchange. As examples of these companies, I might mention Lehman Corporation, Adams Express, Atlas Corporation and Tri-Continental.

These closed-end companies have a definite amount of capital stock which is not increased or decreased. When an investor buys such stock he does not buy of the company but, through a stock-exchange broker, must buy the stock of someone else who desires to sell. As a rule these companies do not diversify very broadly but usually confine themselves to special situations in which they purchase a large interest. Often stocks of these companies sell for less than the real liquidating value of the securities which they hold. This is an advantage to the investor when buying such stocks; but a disadvantage when selling.

"Open-End" Companies

When a salesman calls upon you to sell you the shares of an Investment Company it will probably be an open-end company where the amount of stock outstanding varies from day to day. There are about 75 of such open-end companies. For instance, if the salesman should sell today $100,000 worth of these shares, when the checks come into the company it will go into the stock market and invest this $100,000 in perhaps twenty high-grade listed stocks, which stocks will be held in the company's treasury. Then, the company will issue $100,000 worth of new shares which will be mailed out to the above-mentioned investors.

It will be seen, therefore, that these open-end Investment Companies provide a very good method of diversification for small investors. Naturally, the investor must pay something for this service. All "open-end" Investment Companies add a sales charge to the asset value of their shares and this charge normally runs around 8½ per cent. There is, however, no charge for liquidation of a holding except in very rare instances and in such cases it is usually less than 1 per cent. Without getting into the minute details of the computation, the base figure of asset value is arrived at by dividing the net value of the assets at market by the number of outstanding shares and adding to this the sales charge. This net asset value figure is what is used to determine the price paid at liquidation.

Different Classes of Open-End Shares

Among the larger of these open-end companies might be mentioned the Massachusetts Investors Trust; Keystone Custodian Funds Incorporated Investors, and the State Street Investment Corporation. These companies often have different Funds. One Fund may be limited to common stocks, another Fund to preferred stocks; another Fund to bonds. Moreover, in some cases the above divisions may be divided into "high-grade with low return" and "speculative with high return" which might mean six or more different Funds. This enables an investor to decide for himself the character of securities in which he desires to invest, but still insures him broad diversification in the group which he selects. Furthermore, there is no reason why an investor cannot select more than one group, if he so desires, and thus get a double form of diversification.

Investment Companies and the General Stock Market

Investors buying the shares of any Investment Company should realize that there is nothing

Miss Czarina Penney is driving a new Ford coupe.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Beyer entertained fourteen relatives and friends at dinner, Sunday, at their home at the corner of Mill and Liberty streets, in honor of the ninth birthday of their daughter, Helen.

The Plymouth Lumber & Coal Co., have secured the exclusive agency for Plymouth, of the Winthrop tapered asphalt shingles. The homes of W. S. Thomas and Gilbert Brown and the Presbyterian church have just been re-shingled with these shingles.

Mrs. William Kaiser delightfully entertained a number of ladies at her home on Blunk avenue, Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Cay Young of Sault Ste. Marie, who is a guest of Mrs. R. L. Hill. The event was in the nature of an Easter party; the decorations and color scheme being in green and white. Five hundred furnished the amusement of the afternoon. Mrs. B. E. Giles was awarded the first honors, while Mrs. Jesse Hake was given the consolation. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Jack Kenter and Henry Ray have embarked in the plumbing tinning and heating line. Watch for their ad next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Miller and two sons of East Ann Arbor road, have returned home after spending the winter at Lake Worth, Florida.

Miss Esther Strasen of Detroit, is spending the spring vacation with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. Strasen.

Walter Sumner of Maryville, was an over Sunday guest of his uncle and aunt, D. E. Kellogg and Mrs. A. A. Taft.

guaranteed, either as to the annual income to be received, or what cash will be returned if one desires to sell. The market price of the shares in Investment Companies must go up and down with the general stock market. It is not like putting your money in the savings bank or in government bonds where you know exactly what interest you are going to get and that you can get back the same principal that you put in, no more and no less. Therefore, when buying the shares of an Investment Company the general stock market averages should be considered.

In the early days, these investment companies were not a market factor; but today they should contribute as a stabilizer of the entire stock market. For instance, it is estimated that about 1500 firms throughout the country, with an average of 5 salesmen each, are selling, every day, the shares of Investment Companies. They are turning in to the New York Stock Exchange, in purchases, nearly $50,000,000 per month, which is nearly 5 per cent of the total transaction. It is possible that one-half of the stocks now being liquidated by insurance companies, educational institutions, and trust funds are now being absorbed by these thousands of small investors throughout the country who are daily purchasing the shares of these Investment Companies. These companies are a cushion which the stock market has never had in the past and, until the holders of these shares liquidate, which previous history shows as a rule they do not do, these Investment Companies are performing an economic stabilizing service to the holders of all stocks.

Fairly Firm Stock Market Expected

Today the stock market is very little influenced by typical old time speculators. The fact that he must pay 100 per cent cash for his purchases has pretty much eliminated him from the market. Wall Street and most brokers are now largely "sold out" and the market is in the hands of real investors throughout the country who — either directly or through these Investment Companies — have the securities paid for and in safe deposit boxes. They are holding these for income; only some panicky event could cause them to sell.

Days when the market is strong, there usually is considerable profit taking. So long as the Investment Companies and other legitimate investors can absorb these sales, the market holds firm. When such selling exceeds the buying powers of these Investment Companies and small investors, the market sells off. When the buying power of these Investment Companies — spurred on by 7500 active salesmen — exceeds the selling, the market continues to rise. It is true that we have a "thin market" today; but this need not prevent it selling at these levels or above for many months to come.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. John Bennetts, 41651 Cherry Hill road, April 2, 1946.

Coffee and sandwiches were served by our hostess.

In Spokane, Police Captain Lee Markwood and Sergeant Dan Mangan laughed as they watched a driver wriggle out of a parking space in front of the police station, stiffened their upper lips as the car's owner appeared just too late to stop the thief from driving away.

In San Diego, a woman told police to look again; her missing nephew must be at the address she gave them. The Ouija board said so.
