What I Think and Have a Right to Say

NOTHING SLOW ABOUT OUR OUTDOORS MEN.

Outdoor magazines in the last year or so, especially since the end of the war, have had much to say about air transportation as it will apply to the activities of outdoorsmen in the future.

They say that "in the years to come" air travel to favorite hunting, camping and fishing spots will be the popular method of transportation to and from distant places.

But Plymouth sportsmen are not waiting for that distant period "in the years to come." They are right now doing the thing that outdoor magazines talk about as one of the developments of the future.

For several years past a group of local sportsmen, including Don Lightfoot, Russell Powell, Gar Evans, and a number of others have had some shacks up on Saginaw bay near Sebawaing. During the war they found it difficult to get back and forth because of gas rationing. Their transportation troubles resulted in considerable thought being given to the best way to travel the hundred miles or so from Plymouth to Saginaw bay.

What is the result? Early this spring these lovers of the outdoor life leased a field adjoining their cottages and in recent weeks have been busy in leveling it off into a satisfactory landing field.

Both Mr. Lightfoot and Mr. Powell have been plane owners and both have pilot licenses. At present they are using rented planes while awaiting new planes they ordered some time ago.

To some Plymouth sportsmen, the use of planes is "old stuff" in getting around in this land of streams, lakes and woods.

OTHERS HAD GOOD LUCK, TOO.

Plymouth deer hunters are still talking about the good luck the most of them had last fall. This hustling little city sent into the north woods more than 300 hunters, and more than half of them returned with a nice deer.

But Plymouth deer hunters, apparently, were not the only ones who had good luck. A report issued a few days ago by the Michigan Conservation department shows that the kill of 97,721 deer last fall sets a new high and climaxes a 14-year increase, in the kill each fall. The analysis is based on a card return similar to that in previous years, amounting to more than 25 per cent to date for the 1945 season.

The 269,977 licenses sold show the 1945 deer hunting army to be the largest in the state's history. Previous high in license sales was 226,432 in 1941. And hunters' success last season—with 36.2 per cent of those hunting bringing home venison—was the best it has been since 1933, when only one-quarter as many hunters (64,234 to be exact) were competing for a share of the season's crop.

The deer herd furnished the harvest of nearly 100,000 animals without harm to the stock, according to J. H. Stephenson, assistant chief of the game division. A series of light winters, including the one just ended, has kept deer numbers high and herds in good condition. But heavy winter losses in hard winters may recur, and game division deer management policy calls for harvesting annual surpluses while they are available.

Roscommon, with 18,646 hunters, was the most heavily hunted county last season and yielded the most deer—6,899 bucks—as 37 out of every 100 hunters scored. Oscoda, Ogemaw, Montmorency and Crawford counties all had more than 10,000 hunters each. Oscoda was second in yield of deer, with 5,286, while Alpena was third, with 4,614.

In the northern peninsula Iron county had the most hunters (6,623) the most bucks (3,380) and the best average luck (51 per cent). Chippewa, Schoolcraft, Marquette and Ontonagon counties all had more than 6,000 hunters and produced 2,400, 2,566, 2,823 and 2,708 bucks respectively.

Regular season hunting by residents accounted for 94,121 bucks, non-residents for 2,695, camp permits for 819 and the special Allegan and archery seasons for 86 deer.

NEW HAMPSHIRE EARLY ICE-OUT "UNPRECEDENTED"

According to a New Hampshire Fish and Game Department release, the early ice-out in that state is "unprecedented." The ice is reported to have been out of most lakes shortly after April first. High winds, however, have hampered trolling and prevented fishermen from reaching favored spots, so there is as yet no definite index as to the fishing that will be on tap this year.

New Hampshire like its neighbor, Maine is chiefly famed for its land-locked salmon and trout fishing. The most productive large waters are Lake Winnepesaukee and Lake Sunapee. Although the wind has interfered with fishing in both these lakes, same good catches of lake trout and land-locked salmon have been made in the former and of "square-tailed" or speckled trout in the latter.

MICHIGAN INDIANS THE ONE FEATHER KIND.

Indians in Michigan's resort areas who sport full-feathered war bonnets and live in conical tepees show the influence of cowboy-and-Indian motion pictures more than they reveal the life of their ancestors, according to F. Clever Bald, war historian of the University of Michigan.

Bald declares any Indian "brave bedecked in a war bonnet would have emerged looking like a plucked rooster after traveling through the dense forests which formerly covered Michigan. The Indians in Michigan usually wore but one or two feathers, he says.

Likewise, the historian asserts, the homes of Michigan redmen were constructed of saplings and bark and did not in any way resemble the buffalo-hide tepees of the Western Indians which Hollywood likes to portray.

Use of hides of the plentiful buffalo was the logical solution to the western Indians' housing problem, Bald states. Those Indians took their tepees with them when they moved since wood and bark generally were not available at camp sites. And the western Indians could and did wear the colorful plains, he adds.

Two styles in housing were featured by the Michigan Indian, Bald explains. The simplest type was made by bending over saplings, fastening them together at the top and covering the saplings with bark. The more elaborate structure was the "long house" which had compartments and a central passageway. The bark roof of "long houses" was curved and had an open slot running the length of the building through which smoke from cooking fires theoretically was supposed to escape.

All this is revealed in papers and books published by the late Dr. Winfred S. Hinsdale, which are in the General Library at the University of Michigan. But Bald declares some Michigan Indians are good business men and choose the more colorful eye-attracting garb and tepees of their western cousins.

Plymouth Bread Famine Becomes Serious — See No End to Shortage

In Plymouth, Michigan—in the month of May, 1946 A.D.—there was a bread famine!

That's right—there was not enough bread in Plymouth to feed all of the people of this city.

In fact Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and a lot of other days hundreds of families here went without bread.

Why? No one can give the answer.

Some bureaucrats down in Washington say it is because we are sending our wheat to Europe.

Some bureaucrats say we are hoarding too much wheat.

Others say there isn't enough wheat in the country to make all the bread that is needed to feed all of the people of this country, say nothing about feeding Europe and Asia.

Whatever the reason, merchants say that the bread shortage is a serious one, that it is going to continue for many months to come.

Yes, it begins to look as though the good housewives of Plymouth and vicinity and the rest of America must again learn how to bake bread if their families are to be provided with the "staff of life."

Ford Company Gives School District Valuable Machinery

Plymouth school authorities were notified this week that upon the recommendation of Henry Ford II, all of the machinery loaned to them by the Ford Motor Company would now become the permanent property of the school district.

The machinery, valued at several thousand dollars, was borrowed from the Ford factory through an arrangement made by former superintendent, George Smith, to enable Plymouth schools to provide complete shop training.

Plymouth's public school shop has been classed as one of the finest in Michigan and the gift of Mr. Ford to the district is greatly appreciated. The school has also been fortunate in securing many additional machines from former war plants from the state and at present is faced with the problem of providing more space to house these machines.

Demands for shop training at the school by students is becoming so great that new facilities will have to be provided before school opens next fall.

Annual Poppy Day Sale Takes Place Tomorrow

Tomorrow, Saturday, is an important day in Plymouth. In addition to all the other activities in behalf of various worthy causes, the annual poppy day sale for the benefit of unfortunate victims of both world wars will take place.

The committee in charge of tomorrow's sale is composed of Paul Keller, Harry Hunter, Melvin Blunk and David Galin, representing the four veteran organizations of the city. They say all arrangements have been completed and that it is their hope to make Saturday's sale the outstanding one of years.

For 25 years the poppy has been the American Legion Auxiliary's symbol of remembrance and hope; remembrance of our soldier dead and hope for our living victims of war.

The poppy has lost none of its meaning with the passing of the years and the change in world conditions. The auxiliary program for the coming year has a three-fold purpose: (1) Child welfare, (2) Rehabilitation and (3) Therapeutic endeavors.

The funds derived from the sale of poppies are a sacred trust to be used only for Rehabilitation and child welfare work. The value of the poppy sale to the men and boys scarred with war is unlimited—not only from the money that results from selling poppies, but also in having something tangible to do instead of having to rest, read or talk. These men in government hospitals are delighted to be kept busy with the intricacies of fashioning the poppies. Needy wives and children also reap the benefits from the sale of the flowers.

Last year a million and a half poppies were made and now we stand on the threshold of a new year. More poppies than ever will be made and the child welfare and rehabilitation load will be greatly increased.

So let's all be good citizens and buy a poppy either from a veteran or an auxiliary member on Poppy Day, May 25.

Ypsilanti Man Is Rotary Guest

Ypsilanti superintendent of schools, Ernest Chappell, was the speaker at the Plymouth Rotary club last Friday noon. His subject was "the school looks at the church" and his presentation was most interesting to local Rotarians.

From his talk three definite conclusions could be drawn as a schoolmaster looking at the church and they were: first, that the school needed to offer more religious education. Secondly, that the churches should consolidate and project a more unified front in both education and religion, and thirdly, that the church should seek out more leaders from the youth groups and afford them training in religious fields.

Three new members were taken into the club as members Friday also. They were Earl West of West Brothers, Lee Butler of the Plymouth Recreation, and Leo McGuire of the Pilgrim Drawn Steel.

Four Plymouth High School Graduates Win Scholarships

Robert Chute Ruth Campbell Lorraine French John Moon

Four Plymouth High School graduates were this week awarded scholarships to the University of Michigan through the efforts of the University of Michigan Club of Plymouth. The recipients were recommended for the scholarship by the club through its scholarship committee whose members are: George Burr, chairman, Dr. John Olaver, and George A. Smith.

Following the recommendations of the committee, the applicants are given examinations; the results of the examination together with the club's recommendation are used as a basis for choosing the winners. This year's winners of the Regents-Alumni Scholarship awards are:

Robert Donald Chute, 546 Garfield Avenue, Plymouth.

Ruth Reynolds Campbell, 941 W. Ann Arbor, Plymouth.

Lorraine French, 10530 Laurel Dr., Plymouth.

John William Moon, 881 Penniman Avenue, Plymouth.

One scholarship for each accredited high school in the state is given each year. The fact that Plymouth received four this year speaks for itself and for the Plymouth University of Michigan Club which is the third largest in the state with a membership this year of 258.

Plymouth Tot Hit By Car; Injuries May Prove Fatal

Sylvia Robertson, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Robertson, of 1097 Hartsough Street, is in critical condition at University Hospital, Ann Arbor. She is in an oxygen tent and little hope is held for her recovery.

The child ran from behind parked cars during a rainstorm last Saturday morning just north of The Mail office and was struck by an automobile being driven by Barbara Weed, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weed, of 895 Williams.

Miss Weed, a Plymouth High school student, picked the child up and rushed her to Plymouth Hospital. She was later transferred to Ann Arbor by Schrader's ambulance, police reported.

Police Chief Lee R. Sackett said Miss Weed told him she was not driving fast because of the rain and the many cars parked on both sides of Main Street. She was going north. Miss Weed said suddenly the child appeared from between or behind a parked car and ran right in front of her.

Miss Weed said she attempted to turn away from the child and at the same time applied her brakes but the right front fender or bumper struck her.

The crew of a city truck that was waiting to pull onto Main Street off Fralick, and occupants of a car following Miss Weed told Chief Sackett the accident was unavoidable. All held Miss Weed blameless.

Chief Sackett advised the Wayne County prosecutor's office of the accident.

Chief Sackett learned that the child was enroute to the home of her grandmother on Union Street. Witnesses said she started to cross the street diagonally from in front of the Ellis Restaurant, going west to east.

University Hospital attaches reported Monday that the little girl had not regained consciousness since she was admitted. She is very low.

Miss Woods To Give Concert

Miss Evelyn Woods has kindly consented to give a piano concert Thursday evening, June 6 in the high school auditorium for the benefit of the much needed Veterans Memorial Foundation fund. Miss Woods is a talented musician and those who will attend the event will be hearing an excellent concert as well as giving aid to a most worthy cause.

Make Your Own Bread — Here Is How to Do It with a Tested Recipe

Didn't have any bread for dinner yesterday? That's too bad—but it will not be necessary to go without bread, if you make your own.

Here's one way to make two nice loaves of fresh bread today for your family's dinner:

Put into a dish 3 level table spoons full of shortening, 3 level table spoons full of sugar, 1 level table spoon full of salt.

Then pour 2 cups of scalded milk into the dish. Break into small pieces one half of a Household yeast cake and put that in one-fourth a cup of warm water. When this is dissolved add it to the dish containing the scalded milk and seasoning.

Then add 3 cups of flour that has been sifted once. Beat until smooth.

Add 3 more cups of flour and knead into a soft loaf. Let rise until twice its size.

Then punch loaf down in middle, turn it over and let it rise again. Then place in two tins and put in oven heated to 350 degrees. Bake about 45 minutes.

This recipe will make two loaves of better bread than ever turned out by any Detroit bakery.

Try it and see.

P.S.—If any housewife in or around Plymouth has a better recipe than this one, send it to The BREAD Editor, c/o The Plymouth Mail, Plymouth, Michigan.

and we will pay you $5 for it—with Frank Terry of the Terry Bakery acting as judge as to the best and most satisfactory and easiest way for you to make bread for your own family during this New Deal created bread shortage.

Plymouth Citizens to Help Clothe Suffering People of England

The generous heart of Plymouth, Michigan citizens is going to bring comfort and health to large numbers of the war victims of Plymouth, England, victims of bombing raids who are trying to exist in a city and country where there is not sufficient clothing available to protect the weakened bodies of America's most valued ally in the terrible war in which we were victorious.

While the city and township drive does not take place until tomorrow, Saturday, John Blyton of the Taylor & Blyton store, which has been made the depot for gifts to the stricken people of Plymouth, says he is both surprised and delighted at the large amount of parcels of wearable clothing that has already been left at the depot for shipment down to Plymouth, England.

One package is labeled "From Plymouth to Plymouth."

Harold Anderson, who is the active chairman of the drive, says he believes the collection of used clothing for the war sufferers of our namesake city across the Atlantic will be one of the most successful ever staged in Plymouth.

I have never seen such a general desire on the part of everyone to help in this collection. All seem to feel that because the Rotary club of Plymouth, England will have complete charge of the distribution of the clothing that all of it will go direct to those who are in greatest need and that none of it will get into unworthy hands," said Mr. Anderson.

Students Operate City Government

Students of the senior government class at Plymouth High school Thursday, yesterday, tried their hands at running the city government.

With the regular city officials on hand to instruct them, the students assumed their offices for the day. Only those students who wished to participate, took part in the special project.

Alan Kidston was city manager and city clerk. Emmy Lou Hough served as mayor. The chief of police was James Knight, while Chuck Minthorne handled the fire chief's duties.

Members of the city commission were Caroline Bolen, Jackie Dalton, Bob Chute, Bill Moon and "Mayor Hough." The city treasurer was Mary Sikowski. Charles Hoheisel served as the assessor.

Ilene Fegal headed the Department of Public Works for the day. She was assisted by Marie Duthoo, Barbara Davis and Ilene Newman. Mary Sexton functioned as superintendent of Riverside Cemetery. Bob Newstead and Art Sietloff were firemen for a day.

In all, about 24 students took part. They gained a lot of practical experience and the regular officials enjoyed showing them how the city government operated.

Next week The Mail will carry another story of the details of the day and what business the students conducted.

Memorial Day Program Has Been Arranged

Plymouth's annual Memorial Day program will be held at 2 p.m. next Thursday in Kellogg Park. Participants, including the principal speaker, have not yet been selected. They will be announced in The Mail next week.

Plans for the city's observance of the day call for the traditional parade down Main Street from Mill Street. The parade will start at 1:30 p.m. led by the Plymouth high school band.

Preceding the parade there will be a brief memorial for the city's Navy and Marine dead from the Plymouth Road bridge over the Rouge River. Navy Mothers of Plymouth will be in charge.

Plymouth's two American Legion posts, the VFW post and ex-servicemen's club and their respective auxiliaries all will unite in the parade. Boy and Girl scout troops also will take part.

At Kellogg Park wreaths will be placed on Plymouth Rock and the new military memorial shaft.

As usual all municipal, federal and private enterprises will suspend operations in the community for the day. The public in general is requested to display the flag all day.

Garden Club Members Attend State Meeting

Fourteen members of the Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association attended the Annual State Division meeting, luncheon and tea on Wednesday held at Dearborn Inn. The guest speaker at the luncheon was Mr. Fred Zeder, vice president of the Chrysler Corporation, who gave a most inspiring address. Following the luncheon the guests had the privilege of visiting Mrs. Henry Ford's gardens.

Those attending from here were Mrs. L. R. Von Stein, Mrs. O. F. Beyer, Mrs. Floyd Burgett, Mrs. LeRoy Jewell, Mrs. R. R. Lindsay, Mrs. Frank Dunn, Mrs. Luther Peck, Mrs. Edwin Scott, Mrs. Homer Burton, Mrs. Paul Wiedman, Mrs. A. Dohmen, Mrs. Edwin Bolton, Mrs. Max Trucks and Mrs. E. L. Thrall.

Plymouth Churchman to Aid in National Campaign to Save Starving

Rev. Edgar Hoenecke, pastor of the Lutheran church of Plymouth, who has just returned from Minneapolis, where he was made vice chairman of the National Lutheran Relief committee, is devoting every spare minute he possesses in an effort to help set up an organization that will provide some relief for the millions of war stricken people now facing starvation.

Alarmed at the seriousness of the reports of conditions he heard at the Minneapolis meeting, the energetic Plymouth churchman has lost no time in helping to formulate the relief program.

The program calls for the collection and distribution of clothing, food and funds to people in all of the devastated and impoverished areas throughout the globe. Political boundaries, racial and religious divisions will be entirely ignored in this tremendous church drive to help save a starving world.

It is not a program to last two or three months, but one that will continue for at least five years, asserted Rev. Hoenecke yesterday.

The first phase of the program calls for immediate relief of the acute needs of Europe and Asia through the collection and free distribution of clothing, shoes, food and funds. During the first three months of this year Luther-

D.A.R. Elects New Officers

Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the D.A.R. met with Mrs. Irving Blunk, Monday afternoon.

The Chaplain Mrs. E. J. Cutler read an original poem in memory of one of its members Miss Marian Paddock whose passing is mourned by all members of the Chapter. Mrs. Cutler also read a fitting tribute to Miss Paddock.

As this was the annual meeting yearly reports were given by officers and committee chairmen.

Officers chosen for the coming year were: Regent, Mrs. E. J. Cutler; First Vice Regent, Mrs. Harry Deyo; Second Vice Regent, Mrs. Max Modin; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Walter Nichol; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Robert Coolman; Treasurer, Mrs. Sherwin A. Hill; Registrar, Mrs. Ralph Taylor; Historian, Mrs. Harry J. Gorman; Chaplain, Mrs. E. J. Cutler.

Directors elected are: Mrs. Henry Baker, Mrs. Irving Blunk, Mrs. Sydney Strong and Mrs. Earl Mastick. It was decided to give a series of parties to raise funds toward the creation of the veterans memorial building.

During the afternoon the members made a sizeable supply of cancer pads.

The June meeting will be a picnic on Cass Benton Hill.

Plymouth Churchman to Aid in National Campaign to Save Starving

Rev. It is not a program to last two or three months, but one that will continue for at least five years, asserted Rev. Hoenecke yesterday.

The first phase of the program calls for immediate relief of the acute needs of Europe and Asia through the collection and free distribution of clothing, shoes, food and funds. During the first three months of this year Lutheran World Relief, Inc. has shipped more than 1,500,000 pounds of clothing directly into eight European countries. The agencies for distribution are the church groups which have been licensed to apply relief where most necessary. Food in bulk has already been shipped into the friendly countries of Europe by the national committee, and individuals have been encouraged to send packages to relatives and friends overseas.

It is hoped that legislation now before the House of Representatives, suggested by Mr. Hoover and passed by the Senate will soon enable the committee to reach also the needy areas in Germany, Austria and Finland with food, as they have been reached with clothing. To this end a national collection of food in tins is soon to be inaugurated in the Lutheran churches of the country.

A planned and controlled program of selection of the most vitally necessary and nutritious foods for post-famine conditions will take the place of a general, indiscriminate gathering of foods of relatively low value. Thought is also being given to the fact that a program of food relief ought to adapt itself to the customary diet of the populations (Continued on 2nd section, page 2)

WEDDINGS

Margaret Erdelyi Becomes the Bride of David V. Hale

On Saturday afternoon, May 18, at 4 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, Plymouth, Miss Margaret V. Erdelyi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Erdelyi of Forest street, became the bride of David V. Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Van W. Hale of Canton Center road. The Rev. Henry Walch performed the ceremony before the church altar which was decorated with white lilacs.

The bride was attired in a grey siloue gabardine suit with navy accessories and wore a corsage of blue forget-me-nots and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister Alice, who wore an aqua suit with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

David was attended by his brother, Carl Hale, Robert and Bayliss Erdelyi, brothers of the bride, seated the guests.

The ceremony was attended by the families and a few intimate friends. A reception was held after the service in the Erdelyi home.

Mrs. Erdelyi wore a grey print dress and a corsage of pink carnations, while the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Hale, wore a blue dress with a corsage of white carnations.

After a short wedding trip the couple will go to Lovells, Michigan where they will reside. All their friends extend to them their best wishes.

Louise Sanocki and Joseph Gates are Wed in Ann Arbor

Louise Sanocki, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sanocki of Ypsilanti, and Joseph Gates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gates, spoke their marriage vows Saturday morning, May 18. The double ring service was performed at 11 o'clock in St. Thomas church, Ann Arbor, by Rev. Fr. Allen.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in brocade satin with long fitted sleeves. The off-the-shoulder neckline had a not yoke. The full skirt with train had two net over-skirts with tiers of ruffles on the first and the top three-quarter length net skirt had a ruffled scalloped edge. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. She wore a three-strand pearl necklace, a gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of white carnations with an orchid in the center.

Miss Adrienne Pepin of Ypsilanti was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Viola Monse of Cleveland, and Miss Leona Sanocki, sister of the bride. They were attired alike in yellow eyellet gowns with fitted bodices, full skirts, short sleeves and wore pearl chokers. They had coronets of starched lace and ribbon, and carried old-fashioned bouquets of pink shaded carnations with yellow streamers for the bridesmaids and green streamers for the maid of honor.

George Jones of Dearborn was best man, and guests were seated by Floyd Curtis, Jr., nephew of the groom and Edward Sanocki, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a navy dress with white accessories and a gardenia corsage. The groom's mother chose a navy ensemble and had a lily-of-the-valley corsage.

Immediately after the ceremony, dinner was served at the Farm Cupboard with guests present from Ypsilanti, Plymouth, Detroit, Dearborn, Wayne, Royal Oak, Pontiac and Cleveland.

The young couple left for a brief wedding trip through the west. The bride wore a black gabardine suit with white hat and gloves and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. They will make their home in Plymouth.

Smith, Past Patron responded for the guests. A delightful program of dances by Patty and Barbara Shannon and songs presented by the Symphony 4 of Northville was greatly enjoyed.

The evening meeting was opened by officers of the Plymouth Chapter at 8:30 p.m. in the Chapter Rooms at the Temple. Exemplifying the Degree were: Past Matrons and Past Patrons of the Chapter as follows.

Lillian Hartmann, Presiding Matron; Presiding Patron, Dunbar Davis; Pearl Lundquist, Matron's First Lecture; Clara Alexander, Matron's Second Lecture; Flora Rathburn, Associate Matron; Dan Murray, Associate Patron; Lucile Buzzard, Secretary; Leota McCormick, Treasurer and Assisting Marshal; Evelyn Brocklehurst, Conductress; Anna Stever, Associate Conductress; Clella Smith served as Chaplain; Catherine Henderson, Marshal; Alta Woodworth, Organist; Mildred Litzenger, Adah; Ada Murray, Ruth;

Ann McGeorge, Esther; Alice Rathbun, Martha; Julia Innis, Electa; Marian Barnes, Warder; Mary Lucas, Past Grand Esther and honorary member of the Chapter served as Soloist.

The Patron's work was exemplified by Robert Chappel, Obligation; Rheinhold Ruerh, First Lecture; Alonzo Brocklehurst, Second Lecture; William Michaels, Secret Work; Chauncey Rauch, Signet; Harry Brown, Patron's Last Lecture and Dunbar Davis, Scripture.

Out of town guests were present from Detroit, Ann Arbor and Wayne.

PLYMOUTH CITIZENS TO HELP CLOTHE ENGLAND'S SUFFERING

drive here Saturday should not fail to participate to the fullest extent.
Any doubt that has existed over the need of that stricken city's populace has been dispelled by a feature article that appeared in the London Daily Mail last April 16. It reached John Blyton this week.

Plymouthites of the Wayne County variety should blush in shame at their smugness regarding the unblemished manner in which they, their homes and their city came through the war, if they could but read this pitiful story in full.

According to the Daily Mail no city in all of Britain suffered more than Plymouth. Its very heart was ripped out but its spirit continued to live.

The collective opinion of the bombed-out, war-torn and broken community is best expressed by a sign hanging over the door of the lovely church of St. Andrew's.

It reads simply, "Resurgam" ("I shall rise again").

That sign has become the watchword of Plymouth, England, in its desperate struggle to regain a normal, pre-war life.

Residents here in the name-sake of that stricken city over there can greatly ease the desolate trek back to normalcy by contributing handsomely to the old clothing drive Saturday, tomorrow.

Figures tell the plight of the English Plymouth better than words. According to the London paper air-raid sirens wailed 902 times between July, 1940, and April, 1944, in that community.

Bombs destroyed 3,754 private dwellings and seriously damaged over 67,000 others. Civilian casualties totaled 4,448 and many of the dead were buried in a communal grave.

Out of 389 public houses, 100 were obliterated. Only three top-flight hotels were left standing. Sixty-five percent of the business district was lost too.

Financial experts from London have figured that Plymouth lost a third of its rateable value. The population dropped from 220,000 to 140,000.

Its docking industry was destroyed, 50 acres of shops were reduced to rubble and the city's shopping center was no more.

When the sirens sounded for the last time, Plymouth, England, existed in little but name.

Therefore it is fitting and a privilege for the people of Plymouth, Michigan, to lend a helping hand to the residents of Plymouth, England.

Clothing is the greatest need there now. Clothing for babes, boys and girls, men and women is badly needed. If you have anything in that category that you can spare, please do so.

The main drive with a house-to-house canvass will be conducted Saturday, tomorrow, by Plymouth's Rotarians. Bundles also may be left at Taylor & Blyton's store.

Contributors to this very worth while drive need have no worries about their donations getting into a black market. Articles collected here will be shipped to the rotary club in Plymouth, England, and they will have charge of the distribution.

John Blyton, who knows just how badly the distressed people of that English city need our help, can confirm everything the London paper has written about it. He knows how grateful the people there will be at receiving this "lift" from their Yankee brothers.

Plymouth, England, truly is down but not out. It deserves your sympathetic support in its effort to successfully navigate the torturous road back. Let's not fail them.

Because his girl friend turned state's evidence on him, a New York hoodlum sent her this postcard from his new home: "Having an interesting time—wish you were here."

Mrs. Walsh Made State Officer

Mrs. Francis Walsh and Mrs. Sanford Knapp, delegates from the Plymouth auxiliary attended the Junior Chamber of Commerce state meeting held last week-end at the Hotel Olds in Lansing.

The annual election was held with Mrs. Norman Buran of Detroit being elected state president. The other officers were elected and then Mrs. Buran appointed Mrs. Francis Walsh as corresponding secretary for the coming year.

An amendment was passed whereby three delegates from each club are to attend the state meetings. The delegates from the Plymouth club will be Mrs. J. Rusling Cutler, new president, Mrs. Francis Walsh, and a third to be named after the next regular meeting.

Those attending the state meeting found it very interesting and worthwhile, as in addition to the meeting a banquet and semi-formal dance was held Saturday evening for delegates and husbands.

Wild geese usually reappear in Michigan with the first February thaws. During late March and well into April thousands of geese rest and feed in the Kalamazoo, Allegan, and Saginaw regions.

Fifty-five of Michigan's southern peninsula cover more than 32,687 square miles of salt deposits. These deposits are estimated to contain probably 3,269 cubic miles of salt.

In Memoriam

In memory of a loving father and a devoted husband, Charles F. Millard. Two year's ago today May 27
You went to rest with the setting sun:
But not to wake in the morning bright.
It is a long, long goodnight.
Your loving wife,
Josephine and family.

SALE OF Box Springs

Twin or Full Size Available

If you need a new bed spring, here is an opportunity to get a well-constructed box spring at a great saying. This is an odd lot of springs that have accumulated in our warehouse and, due to the scarcity of ticking, we cannot get mattresses to match them, consequently we are offering them at this remarkable price for quick sale.

$18.95 to $39.50

Odd Lot of Mattresses

Twin or Full Size

Box Spring Legs Set of Six $5 Installed

In this lot of mattresses you will find a variety of qualities in an assortment of colors, in either twin or full size. Like the box spring, this is an accumulation of odds and ends which are priced for a quick sale.

Hollywood Beds

Hollywood beds are very practical as well as popular. In a home that is too small for regular twin beds, very often a pair of Hollywood beds can be used without crowding the room too much. A set of legs put on a box spring make an ideal Hollywood bed. Either twin or full size.

Mrs. John Schroder of Six Mile road spent the week-end in Holland viewing the Tulip Festival. Marlin Simmons of Ann Arbor Trail is spending some time at home, due to an accident in which he suffered two cracked ribs.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sitarz of Canton Center road were Friday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Loesch of Wayne Road.

The Riverside Reading group met on May 23 at the home of Mrs. C. J. Kershaw for a potluck luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Joy of Dearborn were Saturday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Dale Liscum of Ann Arbor Trail.

An old-fashioned box social and dance will be held in Newburg church hall on Saturday evening, May 25, sponsored by Newburg's newly-formed Wesleyan Service Guild. Daintily trimmed boxes, containing lunch for two, brought by each lady, will be auctioned by Mr. Fred Wilson. Proceeds of the auction will go into the Wesleyan Guild's treasury, and used towards future mission work. Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy this old-fashioned party.

Gold Star Mother Given Flowers By Pals of Her Son

Though a bit tardy this story is one that will make Plymouth glow with a just pride. It happened on Mother's Day.

Three local youths, two of whom are honorably discharged veterans, presented Mrs. Lawrence Gladstone, of 175 North Mill Street, with a large floral tribute.

It was in memory of Ewart Gladstone, better known as Pee Wee, who made the supreme sacrifice in the Pacific theatre of operations last January.

The thoughtful trio included Melvin Hunt, John McMann and John McClain. All had been pals of Ewart and were Boy Scouts together. They went through Plymouth High school together too.

Ewart would have given his mother the flowers, they said, but the Lord has called him home sooner than the rest of us. We just did what he would have wanted us to do and what we would have wanted him to do for us under the same situation.

Mrs. Gladstone is deeply grateful. It's probably one of the most lovely gestures she has experienced.

Simmons Elected To State Hi-12 Post

Plymouth was host last Saturday to more than 300 masons, and their wives, from Michigan and Ohio. The occasion was the annual convention of the Michigan Association of Hi-12 Clubs.

A feature of the election was the naming of genial Bob Simmons, Plymouth jeweler, as treasurer of the association.

As the Plymouth club is a comparatively new one in the association, his election is a distinct honor for the local lodge and himself.

Business sessions were held at Hotel Mayflower. The banquet, served by the Plymouth OES chapter, was held at Masonic Temple. Principal speaker was the Rev. Henry J. Welch, Plymouth's Presbyterian prelate.

Wives of the visiting delegates were taken on a tour of the grounds and buildings at Detroit House of Correction.

Commandry to Attend Church

The Northville Commandry of the Order of Knights Templar will attend services in the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth on Sunday morning, May 28. The Commandry will meet at the Masonic Temple in full uniform, at 10:30 a.m., and march to the church.

In the event of rain the Commandry will meet in the dining hall of the Presbyterian church to form for the processional. All members of the Order of Knights Templar are welcome to join the Northville Commandry for this service. Past Commander Sidney F. Chown, Prelate of Northville Commandry, will assist in the service.

Each girl of Troop 1 presented their mothers with a corsage. Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Rice were present and gave interesting talks on area camps.

Here's the Man Who Killed Bear

That bear story—what a bear story it proved to be.

They said it was Walter Beglinger who shot it.

Later some one said it was Frank Rambo. Both Rambo and Beglinger denied the story.

Some one else hinted that maybe Herman Bakhaus pulled the trigger that resulted in a prize black bear being shot in Canada and brought home by Matt Powell and Bert McKinney.

Herm says he hasn't been able to get outside of Wayne county this year—and he had nothing to do with the bear.

Now comes the positive assertion that Russell Dettling was the real slayer of the real bear.

And Russell doesn't deny it! So it looks very much as though Russ Dettling was the real killer of the bear that Matt Powell and Bert McKinney went north to shoot—and didn't shoot.

Country Club Elects Officers

Members of the Plymouth Country Club recently elected to its board of directors, met last week and organized for the current season. Officers named were: Vaughn Smith, president; Minor Sweet, vice-president; and Estel Rowland, secretary-treasurer.

Other members of the board are: Herman Bakhaus, Clyde Smith, Geraldine Chamney and Victor Petschulat. M. C. (Casey) Partridge serves as Pro-Manager of the club.

Committees appointed by the board to serve with other members to be appointed later are: House committee, Minor Sweet, chairman, Victor Petschulat and "Chick" Wilson; Entertainment committee, Byron Champion, chairman, Vivian Champion, Russell and Esther Powell, E. C. Schwimmer, and Edwin and Myrtle Schrader; Tournament committee, Herbert Burley, chairman, Ralph Randall, Gordon Moe, Geraldine Lichow and Clara Wilson; Rules committee, William Rambo, chairman, Robert Burley and William Fishlock.

With the advent of golf weather, several twilight leagues have been formed and play began this week. They are scheduled as follows: Monday, first nine, Men's Low Handicap league; Tuesday, second nine, Mixed Two-ball foursome; Wednesday, first nine, Business Men's league, second nine, Women's league; Thursday, second nine, Member's league, and Friday, Mixed Two-ball foursomes.

Members, if they desire to play with one of these leagues, are asked to call the clubhouse.

COKE CROWD CAPERS.

(by Kathleen Bloxson) Friday afternoon after school, 10 girls gathered at the home of Betsy Ross to celebrate Betsy's 16th birthday. The girls were: Patricia Isbell, Margaret Plummer, Betty Ann Spanier, Thelma Swan, Dorothy Richwine, Jean Murray, Rosemary Gutherie, Beverly Hawk, Donna Campbell, and Kathleen Bloxson. The party began at 4:00 p.m. with several games. Betsy then opened her many nice gifts. They ate a delicious dinner of macaroni, beefs, salad, jello, ice cream and cake and a variety of soft drinks. They all went to the dance afterwards.

Saturday afternoon a committee of three met with Miss Ruth Eriksson to draw up the first draft of the constitution of the "Trail Dust Riders." They will present it at the next business meeting, May 24, to be approved. The Presbyterian Young People, whose plans were changed by a lack of tickets to the Ford Hour, went instead to the Music Hall to hear the Detroit Symphony, at 4:00 on Sunday. The orchestra played "The Secrets of Suzanne Overture" and "Brahms First Symphony in C Minor." Afterwards a few of the Young People went to Edgewater Park. Sunday the Methodist Youth Fellowship had their picnic in Riverside Park. Everyone took his own lunch. They were taken to the park by Reverend Sanders. Virginia Waldeck and her mother drove to Ohio Sunday. They stayed in Springfield Sunday and overnight and on Monday they drove to Yellow Springs where Antioch College is located. They looked around the wooded grounds and talked to women in connection with the college.

Plan to Attend Convention

Fred Lute and Gus Pankow, long active members of the Plymouth Townsend club, will attend the next national convention of the Townsend clubs to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, beginning June 26. They will represent the local organization at that meeting.

Mr. Lute has been advised that the convention will be attended by Dr. F. E. Townsend of California, founder and president of the organization. Dr. Townsend recently appeared before a congressional house committee and outlined his views of the Townsend plan.

POLICE WARNING!

Police officers of the United States and Canada, under the sponsorship of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, begin their Traffic Safety Check on May 15, to curb the rapidly mounting toll of traffic fatalities and injuries. In 1945 28,500 persons lost their lives and 1,000,000 were injured in motor accidents. The police believe these figures can be lowered if all drivers will drive safely in safe cars.

Plymouth Girl Scout Heads Attend Training Camp

A group of Girl Scout leaders including Mrs. William Arscott, Mrs. Matthew Krump and Mrs. Edward Dobbs attended an area training camp conference at Mill Lake in the Waterloo Area near Chelsea over the week-end. Instructions were given in outdoor cooking, arts and crafts and nature study. These leaders brought back a vast amount of information to be used in Girl Scouting.

Pre-registration For Kindergarteners

A pre-registration, for children enrolling in kindergarten next fall, will be held in the kindergarten room of Central Grade school on June 5, and at the Starkweather school in the principal's office, on June 6. The purpose of this early registration is to acquaint the child with his new environment, so that he may more readily adjust himself when he enters school. The school nurse will be present to distribute blanks for physical examinations.

The age of admittance to kindergarten is five years on or before December 1, 1946. Educators have felt for some time that children have been entering school too young and are not mature enough to satisfactorily do the required work as they pass on to the succeeding grades. The ease with which older children do the work is sufficient evidence to prove that children are not ready for school until they are five years of age. The school would appreciate having a parent accompany the child to school.

More than four million home oil burners now are in use in the United States, all of them placed in service after 1920.

AN ORDINANCE COVERING THE INSTALLATION AND USE OF GAS BURNERS AND GAS BURNER EQUIPMENT USED IN CONNECTION WITH HEATING SYSTEMS.

ORDINANCE NO. 128

The City of Plymouth Ordains:
Sec. 1—Gas Burner, General Requirement. The construction, arrangement and manner of installation of all gas burners and gas burner equipment hereafter installed for use in connection with heating systems, and the alteration and repair hereafter of all gas burners and gas burner equipment used or to be used in connection with heating systems, shall conform to the following provisions:

Sec. 2—Gas Burner and Gas Burner Equipment Defined. For the purpose of this code, the term "gas burner" shall mean a device or the final conveyance of the gas, or a mixture of gas and air, to the combustion zone of a boiler or furnace used in connection with a heating system. The term "gas burner equipment" shall include gas burners, as above defined, and all piping (other than supply piping from meter to appliance shut off valve), blower, control device, and accessories connected to the burners.

Sec. 3—Installation, When Lawful. It shall be unlawful for any person or his agents to install any gas burner, such as above defined, until an application for a permit on a form similar to that set forth immediately hereafter, shall have been filed with and a permit issued by the Building Department.

APPLICATION FOR PERMIT TO INSTALL BURNER
The undersigned hereby requests that a permit be issued to install the gas burner described below.

- 1—Address where installation is to be made
- 2—Name of burner
- 3—Type of burner
- 4—B. T. U. input
- 5—Name of manufacturer
- 6—Address of manufacturer
- 7—Kind of fuel recommended for burner
- 8—Length of time burner has been on market
- 9—Name of approving laboratory
- 10—Application filed by
- 11—At Plymouth, Michigan, this _____ day of _____, 19__.

The permit fee shall be Three Dollars for each residence, commercial, or industrial installation plus fifty cents for each additional unit.
Sec. 4—Approval. The Department shall issue a permit for installing any gas burner approved by the American Gas Association or any other nationally recognized inspection board or laboratory.

ed inspection board or laboratory. Gas burners not approved by the American Gas Association or any other nationally recognized board or laboratory shall not be installed until they shall have been inspected, tested and approved by some recognized engineering board or laboratory capable of making such a test and inspection. This inspection and test shall cover arrangement of parts, suitability of material, strength of parts, electrical control, thermostatic arrangement, reliability of automatic features and positiveness of ignition.

Sec. 5—Installation of Used Gas Burners, Procedure Required. It shall be unlawful for any person, licensed to install, alter, repair or replace gas burners within the City, to install any used gas burner or for the Inspector to issue any permit authorizing him so to do, until said licensee shall have first submitted with his application for such permit a copy of the purchase order describing the used burner that is to be installed and a statement by the purchaser acknowledging that to be the case, together with a statement by said licensee that said burner has been properly reconditioned and will comply in every way with code requirements for new equipment as to operation, safety standards and adjustments.

Sec. 6—Ventilation. Gas burners, as hereinafter defined, shall not be installed in an appliance located in a room where the normal facilities for ventilation do not permit proper combustion of gas, unless special provision is made for supplying sufficient air for complete combustion.

Sec. 7—Flues. All appliance flues through which flue gases are conducted shall be thoroughly cleaned and examined for leaks and draft conditions before installation is to be made.

Sec. 8—When To Be Replaced. Where flue pipes are rusted or burned out, they shall be replaced by new pipe.

Sec. 9—Kind of Material To Be Used. Material used for flue pipe shall be such as to resist the corrosive action of flue gases.

Sec. 10—Support of Location. Flue pipe shall be well supported to prevent sagging, shall be adequately insulated from and in no case shall be located closer than four inches to combustible building materials.

Sec. 11—Draft Hood. A draft hood or its equivalent should be installed which is designed to (1) Insure the ready escape of the products of combustion in the event of no draft, back draft, or stoppage beyond the appliance; (2) Prevent a back draft from entering the appliance and (3) Neutralize the effect of stack action of the flue upon the operation of the appliance or the appliance itself. Such draft hood, or equivalent device, shall conform to the American Gas Association for Standard Listed Draft Hoods.

Sec. 12—Location. The draft hood shall be located at a point not lower than the top of the highest flue passage in the appliance.

Sec. 13—Draft Hood Location. Alternate. The draft hood should ordinarily be located adjacent to the appliance. In cases where it appears desirable to place the draft hood at a distance from the appliance, the size of the restricted section may be modified according to the length and rise of the flue pipe.

Sec. 14—Reversible Type. Appliances of the reversible flue type shall have the draft hood located at least one foot higher than the top of the highest flue passage. In tall boilers or furnaces of the reversible flue type not specifically designed for the use of gas fuel, proper provision shall be made to prevent the accumulation of gas in any part thereof, subject to the approval of the Inspector.

Sec. 15—Area. The internal cross-sectional area of the section of the flue pipe between the outlet of the appliance and the draft hood shall be such as to provide not less than one square inch of flue area per 7,500 hourly BTU input. In no case shall this section of flue pipe be less than three inches in diameter and it shall be not larger than the next integral inch diameter above the size given in the following tables:

MINIMUM PERMISSIBLE FLUE SIZE FOR GAS BURNER INSTALLATIONS

Input Rating, B. T. U. Per Hour	Area of Flue Outlet, Sq. In.	Diameter of Flue Pipes, Inches
52,500	7.0	3
94,500	12.6	4
147,000	20.6	5
212,250	28.6	6
288,750	38.5	7
377,250	50.3	8
477,000	63.3	9

Based on 1 sq. in. flue area per 7,500 B. T. U. per-hour input.

In cases where the outlet from the appliance is greater than the above indicated size, an orifice plate may be inserted or a section of the flue pipe restricted to the size indicated.

Sec. 16—Adjustable Damper. The proportioned section at the flue outlet of the appliance eliminates the necessity of using an adjustable damper in the flue pipe.

Sec. 17—Dampers Permanently Kept Open. Where dampers are an integral part of the boiler or furnace, they shall be removed or permanently secured in the wide open position, except such dampers the function of which is to limit the passage of flue gases through the appliances, which shall be locked in such a position as not to interfere with the normal operation of the burners.

Sec. 18—Relocated. Flue pipe shall be relocated, where necessary, to avoid sharp turns or other constructional features which would create excessive resistance to the flow of the flue gases.

Sec. 19—Where Installed. Means shall be employed which will prevent the flue pipe from entering beyond the inner wall of the chimney flue. Flue pipe shall be cemented to the chimney wall so as to prevent infiltration of cold air.

Sec. 20—Baffles Not To Be Used. No baffle shall be applied which will interfere with the proper combustion of the gas.

Sec. 21—Heating Surfaces. The heating surfaces shall be thoroughly cleaned before burners are installed.

Sec. 22—Gas Tight. The combustion chamber and all flue gas passages shall be gas tight.

Sec. 23—Doors. In converted burners, the fuel door of the heating appliance must be arranged to relieve pressure due to puffs or backfire caused by delayed ignition.

Sec. 24—Installation, General. Gas burners of all types shall consist of factory assembled and tested units and shall be accompanied by complete and comprehensive installation and operation instructions.

Sec. 25—Directions Must Be Followed. The burner or burners shall be located according to the manufacturer's instructions and shall be securely fastened in place to prevent twisting, sliding or dropping out of position.

Sec. 26—Accessible For Cleaning. The burners shall be so installed so as to be readily accessible for cleaning and inspection.

Sec. 27—Prevent Incomplete Combustion. The burner or burners shall be so installed that no part of the flames impinge so as to cause incomplete combustion.

Sec. 28—Air Shutter Adjustment. Air shutters shall be adjusted to produce a good flame at the prevailing gas pressure.

Sec. 29—Secondary Air Openings. Where secondary air is necessary, secondary air opening or openings shall be provided of sufficient area to supply an adequate amount of air for complete combustion.

Sec. 30—Controls. Where an automatic secondary air control is provided, the construction shall be such that in case the control fails in any way, either the gas will be shut off or the secondary air door will remain open.

Sec. 31—Pilots. Either a thermostatic pilot, so constructed and adjusted that no gas can flow through the main burner unless the pilot flame is burning, or some other similar type of safety device serving this same end shall be employed. The operation of this safety device shall not depend on the closing of an electrical circuit to shut off the main gas supply.

Sec. 32—Fixed In Stationary Position. Pilot burners shall be supported in such a manner that their position relative to the main burner or burners will be fixed.

Sec. 33—Accessible. Pilot burner or burners shall be so placed that they can be safely lighted and they shall be readily accessible or removable for cleaning.

Sec. 34—Lines To. Pilot lines shall be connected to vertical main gas supply lines or to the side or top of horizontal lines ahead of all controls except pressure regulators and shall be susceptible to independent control.

Sec. 35—Thermostatic Safety. Thermostatic safety pilots shall be so adjusted that main gas supply will be shut off within three minutes after flame has been extinguished.

Sec. 36—Shut-Off Valve Main. A manually operated shut-off valve shall be installed at each appliance to shut off the entire gas supply to the appliance in cases of emergency.

Sec. 37—Location. Such valve shall be so located that it is readily accessible and shall be a readily handle valve, or of such construction that the "open" and "closed" position is clearly indicated.

Sec. 38—Electric Control Valves. Electric control valves shall be installed according to the instructions furnished by the manufacturer and comply with the Electrical Ordinance.

Sec. 39—Gas Pressure Regulators. A gas pressure regulator shall be installed on all gas burner installations for heating purposes.

Sec. 40—Safety Devices. The boiler or furnace shall be equipped with safety devices arranged to limit high steam or water temperature, as well as high air temperatures in warm air furnaces which are equipped with circulating fans.

Sec. 41—Shell Be Independent of Shut-Off Main Gas Supply. Safety devices operated electrically shall not depend upon the closing of a circuit to shut-off the main gas supply. This requirement shall not be construed as prohibiting the use of electrical regulating devices, provided the required safety devices are also installed.

Sec. 42—Cut-Off, Low Water. Each gas fired steam boiler shall be equipped with a low-water cut-off.

Sec. 43—Forced Primary Air Control. When air under pressure is used in connection with the gas supply, effective means shall be provided to prevent the air from going back into the gas piping.

Sec. 44—Piping, Fuel Line To Burner. All gas piping installed for the service of the gas burners shall be of adequate size to supply the requirements of the heating system, and shall be of sufficient size to deliver gas to the burner at a pressure in excess of the manifold pressure specified by the burner manufacturer.

Sec. 45—Adjustment of Pilot and Burners. After the piping has (Continued on Page Six)

it takes a warm bath to make life rosy again

Yes, most everyone enjoys this season of the year, its beauty and promise of brighter, happier days ahead. But it's also house-cleaning time and for the housewife it means days of labor and tired aching muscles that are apt to take much of the joy out of life. One of the best ways to relax and soothe those muscles is to take a good hot bath or shower. Just as plenty of hot water helped to clean out winter's dirt and grime, it will also cleanse and soothe your body, improve your disposition and help to make life rosy again.

Providing an ample supply of piping hot water economically is just one of the many services performed by that modern, dependable, quiet, quick, clean household servant Gas to make living more enjoyable, more convenient, more comfortable.

Lapham Corners

The pupils of Lapham School and their teacher, Mrs. Esther French, presented a graduation exercise last Friday evening which would have been a creditable performance for a group of high school students. There were only two graduates, Shirley Griswold and Basil Barrett, but they demonstrated as much ceremony as though they numbered 50.

The opening song, "This Dear Old School of Ours," by the entire school was sung with sincerity and the volume of over 30 pupils accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Russell Knight.

Shirley Griswold gave the Salutatory, a pointedly comical version of the ambitious masterpieces usually attempted by High School Salutatorians.

Margaret Jean Willoughby, daughter of the Robert Willoughbys of Plymouth, sang two numbers, "Come to the Fair," and "Do You Know My Garden?"

A class funeral complete with black draped casket and bier by the seventh grade pupils bade a said farewell to the graduating class. Terrence Barrett was the doleful narrator.

Mr. Helmer Nelson, Supt. of Plymouth schools, was the speaker for the evening. His topic, "Unfinished Business" ably described the chaos and turmoil of the present day world and left the well planted thought that there is no time for fancy speeches and flowery thoughts until our "unfinished business" is taken care of and the world's mixed up affairs are properly straightened out.

Mr. Nelson congratulated each graduate and presented their diplomas. Their many friends and relatives gave them some lovely gifts and refreshments were served to nearly 100 people attending the program.

Girl Scouts from Lapham Corners and their leaders, Georgia Van Aken and Marian Rich attended Troop meeting at the town hall last Thursday evening. Many of the girls wish to attend the Day Camp but no transportation is available at the present time.

Bob Whittaker had some of his neighbors in a dither Saturday afternoon when he built a rubbish fire and billowing black smoke blanketed the countryside. For a while he had lots of company when potential "fire fighters" drove up to see the "fire" expecting to find the barns and house all going up in smoke. But it was only a little fire with a big smoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Knight and son Henry attended the Spring Musical of the Detroit Chapter of the Independent Music club at the McGregor Library Auditorium. It was the tenth anniversary of the club and about 150 persons attended.

Elaine Rich spent Saturday afternoon visiting the three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dix.

A group of Lapham Mothers and older pupils of the school visited the University High School in Ann Arbor last Friday. Due to the over crowded condition of Lapham school, some of the parents are anxious to work out some plan whereby the seventh and eighth grades could be entered in a junior high school. This year past there have been 37 pupils attending Lapham school, involving nine grades and making a total of more than 40 classes a day, all under one teacher.

HOME INJURIES EXCEED WAR CASUALTIES

It's a fact Accidents take a frightful toll. Every day, hundreds of Americans are injured in the "safety" of their homes. And yet, 90% of American families are unprepared to render the simple first-aid treatments that ease the pain and prevent infection. Don't wait for a painful injury to reveal that your medicine chest is lacking in essential first aids. Check your supplies against this list and come to DODGE'S for the missing articles.

Sound Picture Will Be Shown

Dr. Irwin A. Moon
 Vivid full-color scenes from astronomy and natural science are featured in "The God of Creation," sound motion picture to be shown at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night (May 23) in the Calvary Baptist church, Ann Arbor Trail at Elizabeth, according to the rev. John I. Paton, pastor.

Produced in the West Coast laboratory of Moody Bible Institute by Irwin A. Moon, Sc.D., "The God of Creation" is the second in a series of evangelistic films. The first film by Dr. Moon "They Live Forever," had a large showing in all parts of the country.

In the opening section of "The God of Creation" the audience takes a trip to the stars by means of solar photographs taken through the giant 100-inch telescope of Mt. Wilson Observatory in southern California, and views complex gyrations of our own solar system.

Lapse-time photography is utilized to demonstrate the beauties of natural science. The illusion of flower buds developing into full-blown blossoms in a few seconds is created through this time-compressing photo technique. The metamorphosis of a caterpillar through the various stages from worm to butterfly, and pollination of flowers are seen on the screen in full color.

Believed to be the first of their kind are the natural-color pictures of photosynthesis, the mysterious food-manufacturing process resulting from the action of sunlight on green leaves.

Through photomicrography the audience peers into the microscopic world of a drop of water and observes complexity of tiny organisms, enlarged more than a million times.

been thoroughly purged, the pilot burner shall be lighted and adjusted and the burners put into operation in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.

Sec. 46—Pilot Operation. Pilot flames shall effectively ignite the gas at the main burner or burners and shall be adequately protected from drafts. A device which is at least equal in performance to the draft hoods heretofore provided for shall be interpreted as fulfilling the second part of this requirement as far as chimney drafts are concerned.

Sec. 47—Flames Not To Be Extinguished. Pilot flames shall not become extinguished when the main burner or burners are turned on or off in a normal manner, either manually or by automatic controls.

except where additional pilots are provided.

Sec. 52—Not To Flash. When ignition is made in a normal manner, the flames shall not ash outside the appliance.

Sec. 53—Not To Burn In Mixer. Burners shall not expel gas through air openings in mixer faces when operating at the prevailing pressure.

Sec. 54—Appliance Operation. Oxygen Concentration, Pressure. The concentration of oxygen in the flue products shall in no case be less than four per cent, nor more than ten per cent. The rate of flow of the gas shall be adjusted to within plus or minus five per cent of the required hourly B.T.U. input rating at the manifold pressure specified by the manufacturer.

Sec. 55—Checked by Inspector and Installer. The various controls of the appliance shall be checked by both inspector and installer to insure their proper operation.

Sec. 56—Printed and Posted. Suitable printed instructions shall be supplied by the installer and posted in a prominent position near the appliance.

Sec. 57—Direct Fire Unit Gas Heaters. Direct Fire Unit Gas Heaters may be used in public garages and similar buildings and shall be of a type listed by the Department of the American Gas Association for use in garages and similar buildings; must be installed near the eave level at least 8 feet above the floor. All vents to extend 2 feet above roof with aerated nipple with stove cap on vent.

Sec. 58—Validity. Should any section, clause or provision of this code be held unconstitutional or invalid by any court, all other sections, clauses and provisions shall nevertheless be deemed effective just as though such unconstitutional or invalid section, clause or provision had never been inserted in this code.

Sec. 60—All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 61—Any person, firm or corporation, violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed One Hundred Dollars or to imprisonment for a period not to exceed thirty days or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Made, passed, and adopted by the City Commission of the City of Plymouth this 20th day of May, A. D. 1946.

ROBERT LIDGARD, Mayor

 to be served. Rather than provide strange foods which physiologically and psychologically will be difficult to assimilate.
 The legumes, soy beans, peas, beans; corn and other cereals; evaporated, rather than powdered milks; fats, fish and meat in tins; molasses; coffee, tea and chocolate, all these are on the preferred list, carefully prepared through consultation with the Federal and State Department of Agriculture, Wayne University and Wayne County Health Department nutritionists and others.
 Recently the committee for relief received a magnanimous offer from the Lutheran farmers of Minnesota, largely of German and Scandinavian extraction, proffering the facilities of the many dehydrating and community canning plants of that great state to the committee for the processing of surplus and contributed farm and garden produce. At a meeting last week at New Ulm, in the heart of the great farm area of Minnesota, the committee organized the state into circuits, headed by laymen to promote and supervise the production and collection of such processed foods. Similar organizations are to be effected throughout the Lutheran districts of the Middle West.
 The heart of the program of the Lutheran Committee for Relief of War-Sufferers, then, is:
 1. Collect foods to which the famine-stricken peoples are accustomed.
 2. Produce the equivalent in foods to take the place of those shipped overseas through an intensive program of home gardening and home canning.

 3. Secure avenues of transportation of relief foods into all countries of the globe for IMMEDIATE alleviation of the need.
 4. Collect funds for the production of foods in bulk by canning and dehydration for a long-range program of subsidizing countries where food production has been disrupted beyond repair during this or the coming few years.
 5. Issue a continual warning against waste of foods of any kind, or failure to produce to capacity.
 Shortly after the end of hostilities on both fronts, the Lutheran Churches in the United States began to put into effect plans for the Lutheran World Relief program now in full swing. The program called for relief through the collection and distribution of clothing, food and funds to people in devastated and impoverished areas throughout the globe, ignoring boundaries of political, racial and religious nature.
 Humanitarian feeling as well as practical reasoning prompted the initiation of a program of such universal scope. The Chicago Tribune recently stated editorially, that "to let the children and adults of former enemy countries perish from slow and planned starvation through neglect on our part . . . is as reprehensible as the brutal acts of the Nazi warlords themselves." Mr. Herbert Hoover has put the practical and selfish case for unrestricted relief in words of unassailable logic. "The present famine is the most critical food period in all history. . . . From the Russian frontier to the Channel there are today 20 millions of children . . . badly undernourished and steadily developing tuberculosis, rickets, anemia, and other diseases of subnormal feeding. Unless they are better fed many will die and others . . . will furnish more malevolents. The responsibility rests heavily upon the world."
 Dr. Jonas Salk, Director of the School of Public Health of the University of Michigan recently spent three months in Europe, studying famine conditions. His adjutant, Adelia Beeuwkes, told Rev. Edgar Hoenecke in a recent interview on the necessity and nature of the cooperation needed from the churches in the relief program.
 "There is today not sufficient arable and cultivated land in the world to feed the earth's population, according to the finding of experts in agriculture and economics.
 "The famine areas of the world in Europe and Asia are serious spots of infection and grave sources of danger through the epidemics which they breed for the rest of the world. The great plagues of history were generally the result of starvation and malnutrition following wars; and despite the advances and the efforts of medical science, the famines of today will most certainly prove the prelude for epidemic conditions of disease, unless the maladies from malnutrition are nipped in the bud by providing a cure for the cause: food for the starving and undernourished.

 "Plagues and epidemics have never respected national boundaries; today, more than ever before, with transportation bringing the peoples of the earth in ever closer intercourse, these focal points of infection must be cleared with despatch to forestall universal calamity. The control of tuberculosis, for example, has been set back decades in Europe through the present famine condition. The danger that some of these dreaded diseases might become epidemic also in countries which are better fed is as real and prevalent as was the worldwide influenza plague in 1918.
 "A proper program of relief cannot, therefore, aim only at temporary aid through food and clothing, but must assist in bringing back the lost controls over disease through proper nourishment and expert, medical and economic planning.
 "The modern methods of transportation, supply and sanitation must meet the challenge of securing for humanity a total victory for health, happiness and freedom from want, as they do miraculously snatched military victory from defeat.
 "The relief program can, however, hardly be considered complete, unless it works toward the production and conservation of food in all categories, while it supplies areas which are at present unable to provide for their normal needs. The program of supplying the European and Asiatic peoples from our own depleted larder must necessarily impose an undue strain on our own food stores, unless these are consistently protected and replenished by the very personal and back-to-the-earth movement of planting home gardens and of home canning of garden produce. Apathy and aloofness toward such a home garden program on the part of the people of our cities and villages can result only in still more acute food stringencies for ourselves and an aggravation of the food and resultant disease crisis in the world. Hand in hand with the impersonal contribution of a can of peas and corn from the corner grocery to be sent overseas for relief must go the very personal contribution of

 another HOUSE OF THE MONTH

Exclusive Design of Monthly Small House Club, Inc.

The quiet dignity and hospitable charm of Colonial architecture are embodied in this home for well planned building and comfortable living in this one of the Post-War Series of All American Homes. White wood siding favors a shingled roof; the garage and L-porch are integrated in the exterior design. Spacious living room with fireplace; square dining room and well-equipped kitchen fill the lower portion of the house; the second floor has three cross ventilated bedrooms; and there is a full basement. The Taft is designed to meet FHA standards; the electrical layout has been approved by the National Adequate Wiring Bureau; specifications and blueprints may be obtained from the Monthly Small House Club at $7.50.

PLYMOUTH LUMBER & COAL CO.

You Will Be Glad To Know . . .
PLENTY OF NATURAL GAS IS ON THE WAY

ABUNDANT SUPPLIES of natural gas, beginning late in 1947 and extending over the next 25 years, are assured to all of the Michigan cities, towns and industries served by Consumers Power Company through a new contract just completed with Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company.

Since extensive new construction of pipe lines and compressor stations by each company will be necessary, only a nominal increase in gas supply will be possible this year. However, beginning late in 1947 the amount of Panhandle Eastern gas available to Consumers Power Company, will increase steadily, year by year.

For example, as compared with 5 1/2 billion cubic feet of Panhandle Eastern natural gas sold to Consumers Power Company in 1945, it is anticipated that a total of 27 1/2 billion cubic feet will be delivered in Consumers Power territory in 1950!

Important feature of the new contract is its provision to use the extensive Winterfield and Cranberry Lake gas fields in north central Michigan as huge underground storage tanks. Into these, Michigan Gas Storage Company, a proposed subsidiary of Consumers Power, will pump billions of cubic feet of Panhandle Eastern natural gas, brought from Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas during the months of each year when domestic consumption of gas is low. By this means, a vast reservoir of natural gas will be built up and made available to Consumers Power to meet the heavy demands of winter.

Panhandle Eastern is glad to join with Consumers Power in announcing this happy solution of a serious and complicated problem . . . one which threatened to interfere severely with the growth and prosperity of your own community and many others.

Officials of Consumers Power and Panhandle Eastern have recognized for several years the need to provide more gas to meet the heavy demands that inevitably would develop after the war . . . especially since Michigan's own gas fields are rapidly becoming exhausted. However, until recently, Panhandle Eastern's entire supply was under rigid controls imposed by the War Production Board. Similarly, all new construction was prohibited, except as ordered by the government to serve critical war areas.

Now the road is open. Consumers Power and Panhandle Eastern are moving with utmost speed to assure your future gas supply.

Given the approval of the Michigan Public Service Commission and the Federal Power Commission, the new Michigan Gas Storage Company will start construction of the pipe lines and compressor stations it will need.

On its part, Panhandle Eastern is awaiting authority of the Federal Power Commission for its own $27,000,000 construction program which will bring additional natural gas from the Southwest.

This large-scale construction by both companies, even under the most ideal conditions, will require all of this year and most of 1947 to complete. Meanwhile, we wish to thank users of Panhandle Eastern gas . . . gas customers of Consumers Power Company . . . for their patience and understanding.

DEPOSITORS LIQUIDATION CORPORATION, Plaintiff, vs.
 WALTER E. ASH, William S. BAKE, EDWARD H. BOLTON, MRS. LIVINIA COLE, HERBERT C. FELTON, GEORGE F. HILLIMER, JOHN BAZE, JR., NELLIE H. GREENLAW, JOHN C. WILCOX, WALTER J. EBERT, ELMER J. REDDEMAN, MYRTLE C. FISHER, EUGENE ORNDORFF, and PLYMOUTH UNITED SAVINGS BANK, a Michigan banking corporation, Defendants.

No. 378,374
ORDER APPROVING REPORT OF AVAILABILITY OF DIVIDENDS AND PROVIDING FOR ESCHEAT OF UNCALLED FOR SUMS
 At a session of the said Court held in the Court House in the City of Detroit, County of Wayne, State of Michigan, this 19th day of April, 1946.
 PRESENT: THE HONORABLE

JOHN V. BRENNAN, Circuit Judge.
 Upon reading and filing the Report of Availability of Dividends and Uncalled For Sums and Petition for Escheat, heretofore filed in this court and cause, from which it appears that Depositors Liquidation Corporation, plaintiff herein and Plymouth United Savings Bank, its agent, have given notice of the availability of the trustee's final liquidating dividend by publication and by mailing in accordance with the Decree heretofore entered in this Court and cause on July 26, 1945, and from which it appears that certain beneficiaries of the trust which is the subject matter of this suit and who were entitled to a dividend under the terms of said Decree have not called for or demanded their dividend within the period provided in said Decree.
 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the acts of Depositors Liquidation Corporation, plaintiff herein, and Plymouth United Savings Bank, its agent, in giving notice of the availability of the trustee's final liquidating dividend by publication and by mailing be approved and ratified, said acts being pursuant to and in full compliance with the appropriate terms of the Decree heretofore entered in this Court and cause.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the acts of Depositors Liquidation Corporation, plaintiff herein, and Plymouth United Savings Bank, its agent, in making available and paying the trustee's final liquidating dividend be approved and ratified, said acts being pursuant to and in full compliance with the appropriate terms of the Decree heretofore entered in this Court and cause.
 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that unless the beneficiaries named in "Exhibit 5" attached to the said Report of availability of dividends and Uncalled For Sums and Petition for Escheat, or their successors in interest, who have not received their dividend shall call for or demand the same within sixty (60) days from the date of this order, said dividends (including those concerning which inquiry has been made but which have not been paid because of lack of proof of right to payment) will be escheated to the State of Michigan, and Depositors Liquidation Corporation, plaintiff herein, and Plymouth United Savings Bank, its agent, will be relieved and discharged of all further liability in connection with the distribution and payment of the trustee's final liquidating dividend.

 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that notice of the entry of this order and of the escheat of the uncalled for sums at the end of the sixty (60) day period shall be given by publication of a true copy of this order once each week for six (6) successive weeks in the Plymouth Mail, a newspaper printed and published in the City of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan, and by publication at least once of a complete list of the names of all beneficiaries appearing in said "Exhibit 5".
 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that upon the expiration of the sixty (60) day period herein fixed, and upon the filing with this Court of an Affidavit of Publication of this order as herein provided, that an order will be entered in this Court directing Depositors Liquidation Corporation and Plymouth United Savings Bank, its agent, to deliver all uncalled for funds to the Michigan State Board of Escheats.

AMATEUR ASSEMBLY SPONSORED BY S.C.

To promote good-will between the various regional schools, was the purpose of the assembly presented by the Student Council on May 17, at 9:30 and 10:30 a.m.

There were entertainers from Redford Union, Northville, Belleville, and Ypsilanti High schools. Redford Union's program was tap dancing, Barbara Mienk, and Barbara Chambers; Accordian solos, Carlo Serra; piano and trumpet duet, Bob Bates and Roland Charpentier; and piano solo, Bob Bates.

Northville's program included piano solos by Julia Lewis and an accordian solo by Keno Lolitz. Belleville's program included the Girls' Octet composed of Jeanne Walt, Hene Miller, Midge Pullen, Barbara McCash, Elaine Graham, Alice Whotmer, Rita Razawalka, Joan Keys, and Carol Derring; piano accompanist, Olga Procyzayn did a Russian dance. Ypsi's program included a dance by Sue Oakes and a piano solo by Nancy Philbin.

STUDENTS TO RUN CITY FOR THE DAY

On Thursday, May 23, representatives of the Senior class who have taken American Government, will take over the various positions of Plymouth's City government. The following students have been chosen by Mr. Latture, government teacher, to run the city for a day:

City Manager, Alan Kidston; City Commission, Jackie Dalton, Caroline Rolan, Bill Moon, Ray Kurtz, Em Hough; Mayor, Em Hough; Chief of Police, Jim Knight; Policemen, Bob Newstead, Arthur Scliff; Fire Chief, Chuck Minthorne; City Engineer, Fred Fischer; City Assessor, Chuck Hohiesel; Department of Public Works, Hene Fegel; Cemetery Sexton, Chuck Strachan; Water Department, Dick Olin; City Attorney, Gerald Joyce; Health Officer, Frank Santoro; Recreation director, Dick Groth; Secretary to City Manager, Marie Duthoo; Water department secretaries, Myrlene Bower and Mabel Vickstrom; Police department secretaries, Irene Newman and Barbara Davis, and City Treasurer, Mary Ann Zukosky.

The students will follow the general work of the usual administrators and should gain an interesting experience from the various appointments.

5 TRACKMEN QUALIFY FOR STATE MEET

Placing fourth in the BE classification at the Regional track meet at Ypsilanti May 18, Plymouth will send five men: Brink, MacGregor, Kaluzny, Pankow, and Weathres, to the state meet at East Lansing Saturday, May 25.

Here is a recap of what happened at Ypsi last Saturday. Bob Brink won the mile race in 4:51; MacGregor won the first race of the 440 in 55.5 with Weathers and Vetal taking second and third respectively in the second race. Pankow took fourth in the 100 yard dash and third in the 220, Kaluzny taking a second in the 220. Thompson took third in the second race of the half mile and Wiseley was in a three way tie for fourth and fifth in the pole vault.

Coach Meisio said that he was highly pleased with the results and added that as far as he could remember Plymouth placed more men in the state meet than we have for several years.

ROCKS WIN IN THE SEVENTH

With Plymouth at bat in the seventh inning, and the score one run, the Rocks spurred ahead to win the game 4-3 in a game played at the Riverside Park diamond Tuesday, May 14, which was the Rocks' fourth victory of the season. Everybody was pulling for Becker to get on and he did—via a walk. Newstead then batted for Daggett and doubled to left, scoring Becker. Bentley struck out. Now came the dramatic moment of the game, with Newstead on third moved over on a passed ball, and the Northville infield pulled in to cut off the run if possible. But Jerry Allen upset the plans by lining a single to left, winning the ball game 4-3.

Before the fruitful seventh, the Rocks scored in the first and sixth. The Mustangs tallied in the sixth on two hits and two errors. Dale Bentley won his second game of the season by pitching all the way. Dale allowed only five hits, many being of the scratch variety. Lister chucked the entire game for the Mustangs. Jack Dobbs collected two hits again, but the heroes were Bob Newstead and Jerry Allen.

Hot, muggy weather brought out the Rocks' largest crowd of the season, and the fans were well rewarded by the Rocks' victory.

COUNSELORS ENROLL RURAL STUDENTS

The Plymouth High School counselors, Mr. Anthony Matulis and Mrs. Donna Reincke visited rural schools last week and this week to enroll freshmen for next semester. Tests are being given to help determine aptitudes, interests, and needs so that a wiser choice can be made of school subjects.

Physical examination blanks to be filled out during the summer by the family physician are being left with the student. A booklet "Hi-High School," Scholastic publication is given each pupil which introduces him to school activities, desirable school manners in assemblies, on the bus, in the classroom, hints on personal appearance, class spirit, courtesy, health problems, the cafeteria use of the library, attendance, etc.

Faculty Committees have completed a Plymouth High School Course of Study which is being used to help pupils enroll. College Preparation, General, Vocational Training and the Vocational courses are listed.

Fire! Fire! What To Do To Make Service Better

Fire Chief Robert McAllister is seeking the wholehearted co-operation of Plymouth city and Township residents in an all-out effort to improve the efficiency of the department.

Chief McAllister says the firemen and the equipment are of the finest, but their efficiency is impaired by poor reporting on the part of persons turning in a fire alarm.

First of all, persons turning in a call for the fire department should control themselves to a degree where they are able to speak coherently. Speak quietly and clearly into the phone and give the EXACT location with the CORRECT street number. This manner of reporting a blaze may mean the difference between a small hole in the roof or a destroyed residence.

"It's very confusing," Chief McAllister said, "when an alarm is turned in from one address and upon arrival there the men learn the fire is down the street several houses."

When you are reporting a fire for someone in your neighborhood, the chief advises, DON'T GIVE YOUR ADDRESS — GIVE THE ADDRESS WHERE THE FIRE IS and tell the operator, whether it is North Mill or South Mill; East Ann Arbor Trail or West Ann Arbor Trail.

Do not speak an address on some street into the phone and hang up and then let the firemen guess whether it is north, south, east or west. Give that information along with the house number.

Fires in the country whether it be Plymouth Township or other adjacent rural areas require the utmost in reporting to save the department time in reaching the scene.

In addition to giving the location by number and name of road, be sure to give the NEAREST cross road and the direction as to north, south, east or west.

Either remain at the scene yourself or have someone on hand to direct the firemen to any water supply within a 1,000 feet. A creek, pond, cistern or special hydrant that the department can obtain a good supply of water from should be pointed out to them upon their arrival so as to operate at maximum efficiency.

All fires upon detection should be reported to the fire department immediately. The practice of trying to put out your own fires has been very detrimental to all departments. The firemen are well versed and well trained on all fire fighting methods and should be the ones to be fighting the fire from the start.

Chief McAllister urges the public to remember that the initial five minutes at the scene of a fire are worth more than the following 30 minutes.

A practice that is all too common is that of following the equipment too close and hindering in the proper functioning of the department. By giving the right-of-way to all concerned will eliminate loss of time in reaching the scene of a fire.

Your whole hearted co-operation in these matters will be greatly appreciated by all concerned.

Girl Scouts Set Ma-Pa-Me Rally

Mothers and fathers are invited by the Girl Scouts to attend the Ma-Pa-Me Rally in the Plymouth gymnasium Tuesday, May 28, at 7:30 p.m. At this rally three Girl Scout groups will be presented with "Curved Bar" awards, the highest award in intermediate scouting, for the first time in the history of Plymouth Scouts.

In addition to the flag presentation by Mrs. Louis Jacobs and group singing led by Mrs. J. R. Witwer, five minute skits will be given by each group of girls.

The groups to receive the awards are those led by Mrs. Edward Dobbs and composed of Mary Vincent, Jacqueline Showers, Patricia Zink, Sally Zink, Joan Dudley, Kay Dobbs, Carol Lidgard, Betty Lorenz; Mrs. J. R. Witwer's, composed of Dorothy Curtis, Marilyn Walsh, Ann Witwer, Vivienne Bellish, Beverly Hokenson, Alice Moore and Mrs. William Arscott's, composed of Lily Lloyd, Wilma Latture, Diane Arscott, Verna Rice, Barbara Cushman and Janet Rollins.

Closing ceremonies will be conducted by Mrs. Matthew Krump's group.

BABSON

Babson Discusses Money Rates
Babson Park, Mass., May 24—Interest rates are today lower than ever before. Banks and insurance companies are hard hit when they have to invest their funds to get only 2 1/2 per cent. When they cannot earn a good return on their investments, it means: (1) that their profits will shrink; and (2) it will soon cost more to buy bank services and insurance of all kinds.
Big Tax Savings
Despite the uncomfortable position in which these companies find themselves, as a result of falling money rates, most readers are unknowingly benefiting from hidden tax savings. The Liberty Bonds bought during World War I paid 4 percent or more; the very highest rate available in World War II was 2.9 percent. Indeed, many of the war bonds issued this time return the holder or even less.

Such an amount, there is an annual cost reduction of $1,500,444. This means that every reader of this column should be able now to get electricity cheaper. The big utility companies should also be able to pay out more in wages to their workers.
Bullish On Heavy Industries
Prosperity in this country of ours is highly dependent on a healthy expansion of industry of all kinds, as well as on building, road and other construction. To build a new factory or plant to give employment requires vast amounts of capital—about $5,000 for every man employed. The cost of capital, to those men of vision and courage who embark on such ventures, is measured by the money rates they have to pay. Present low "cost of money" is a great stimulus to such job-providing enterprises. Low money rates encourage plant extensions and this means more jobs.
I have one word of warning about this low money rate situation. In a nutshell, the low cost of money makes it altogether too easy to borrow. Money is plentiful today and money lenders are anxious to put it to work. If you must borrow to buy or build a home by all means do so—but do not be lulled to unproductive purchases. Pay off your loans as rapidly as you can! My half a century of experience has driven home to me, time and again: if you don't get out of debt when business is good, you won't be able to do so when the turn comes. My father had this motto on his desk: "Debts kill more men than germs do."

This means that your government—which indirectly means you—is saving 2 per cent on the cost of its war money. On each billion dollars borrowed, this saving amounts to $20,000,000. Since World War II increased our debt by over $200,000,000,000, this lower money rate results in saving taxpayers over $4,000,000,000 a year. It was not so many years ago that $4,000,000,000 would have paid the total cost of running our whole federal government! This means a real tax saving to us all.

Blessing to Home-Owners

When I was a boy back home in Gloucester, Massachusetts, no one ever expected to pay less than 6 percent a year for mortgage money. Some paid 7 percent or 8 percent. Today, the savings banks are scrambling to lend money on homes at 4 percent. When you realize that the average borrower will pay interest on his mortgage for 20 years, the total saving in living costs is, indeed, sizable. On a typical mortgage of $5,000 a saving of only 2 percent comes to $100 a year. Over a 20-year period $2,500 is saved on a compound-interest basis. That is money which the home-owner can have available for other things.

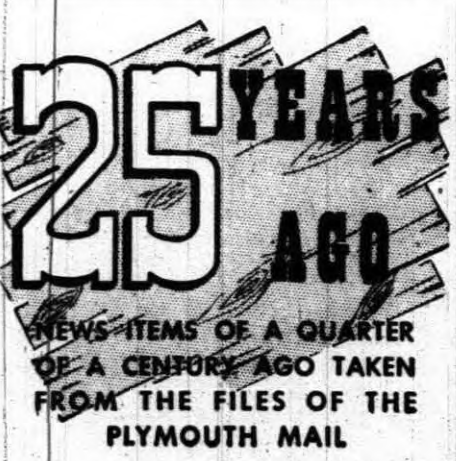

Following World War I, the electric and gas companies were hard hit, not only by soaring prices, but also by rising interest costs. One of the largest utility companies in the country had to pay 8 percent for bond first-mortgage money in 1920! Now, with World War II closed, an operating utility company recently borrowed money for 2 1/2 percent. Think what a saving of over 5 percent means on a $30,000,000 loan. On

Pierson PTA Ends Good Year

The final Pierson PTA meeting for this term will be held at the school on Thursday, May 23, at 8 p.m. After a short business session there will be installation of officers for the coming year.
The program feature for the evening will be, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Welsh, "The Old Traveler" who have traveled far and wide to gather facts about little known oddities, places and personalities. He will have many interesting things to tell about his travels and experiences. Come and hear him relate some of these bizarre facts and vignettes that form the very roots of American history.
Refreshments will be served following the conclusion of the program.
In Bridgeport a manufacturer has invented a transparent umbrella with a windshield wiper that works on a battery.

Rotary Club Set to Sponsor Junior Baseball League

Plans for a baseball league for junior boys are being worked out by the Plymouth Rotary Club. Tentative arrangements call for as many teams as possible composed of boys 11 years and younger. Limited equipment and baseball caps for the teams will be furnished by the club.
Those who are supervising teams in various neighborhoods about the community and would like to have those squads participate in the league, are requested to leave their team roster with the Plymouth Recreation Director. It can be brought or mailed to room 204 at City Hall.
Definite plans for such a league will be announced by the Rotary club later. Much is dependent upon the response that is made. The club is willing to foster organization of the league if the demand for it is great enough.

Plymouth Man Re-Joins Army, Goes to Alaska

Sergeant Forbes Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith, of Plymouth, is now on duty in Alaska with the Army Air Force Engineers.
Sergeant Smith, a veteran of four years in the Air Forces, is one of the few Plymouth boys who re-enlisted after being honorably discharged.
During the war he saw action both in the European and China-Burma-India theatres of operations.
In a recent letter to his parents he told about his plane being forced down at Salt Lake City by engine trouble. He and a dozen other engineers were chosen to accompany the commanding officer to the Alaskan base.
In his letter he spoke about "my weekends in Plymouth being ended for some time, but I love the service so I can put up with that."
He described the beauty encountered in flying over the snow-capped mountains. He also told of a trip he had made to India, but said the country was too dirty for him to ever want to live there.
Sergeant Smith asked his parents to thank everyone who had made his Plymouth visits pleasant.

There were four fires in less than 11 hours in the Congress Hotel in Chicago, resulting in the suffocation of one man, injuries to many others including two firemen.
