What I Think and Have a Right to Say

ELTON R. EATON

The PLYMOUTH MAIL

Vol. 58, No. 45 Plymouth, Michigan Friday, July 12, 1946 $2.00 Per Year in Advance

SMILE — THAT'S THE STYLE.
"A good loser is always appreciated by the public" writes Editor William Irving in his substantial Sandusky Republican-Tribune. It is unfortunate that the candidate for Governor that Editor Irwin so enthusiastically supported didn't measure up to the standard set by Mr. Irwin for political losers.

THAT CORN CROP.
Back years ago over in Kalamazoo county we used to hear farmers say that corn should be "knee high by the Fourth of July" if there was to be a good crop of corn in the fall. From the looks of some corn fields around here, corn will not be knee high before the first of August. But here's one thing we can charge up to the weather man instead of the New Deal.

"SEEING THE GOVERNOR."
Met a member of the state legislature at the convention in Detroit the other day. He said he had just talked with Kim Sigler, the Republican nominee for Governor.
"I asked him how long it would take me to get a chance to interview him on some legislative question if I thought it was necessary" said the Representative.
"Thirty seconds" he said the Governor replied.
This same member of the house tried unsuccessfully for over eight weeks to see Governor Kelly for an interview during the last regular session of the state legislature, he declared.

HOME-TOWN LOYALTY.
In last week's issue of The Saturday Evening Post there was an excellent write-up of the successful effort made by Cheboygan to keep from becoming a northern Michigan ghost-town. It recited the problem that faced Cheboygan back in the days when its sawmills and stores were closing as a result of the decline of the lumber business—and of the determination to make Cheboygan a thriving, bustling northern Michigan city even though it didn't have any lumber business.
Down at the Republican state convention last week in Detroit, Al Weber for nearly half a century editor of the Cheboygan Observer, was buying up every Saturday Evening Post he could find on the news stands and giving them to his many friends who were delegates to the convention. Every time we saw him he had a new armful of the famous weekly magazine. He would turn to the page on which the article was published, show it to some friend, then give him the Post with instructions to read the article. That's what we call effective hometown boosting.

"THE OLD GUARD"—DEAD AND BURIED.
When Michigan's largest attended Republican state convention ended in Detroit the other day, the delegates left behind the fraud, graft, filth and rottenness in Michigan politics that had flourished so successfully under the "Old Guard." There is a new day ahead in Michigan for Republicanism and the thousands of good citizens throughout Michigan who have fought so long for that day are jubilant to think that the Old Guard, which was the symbol of "bribe-giving, bribe-taking, ill-gotten gains and crookedness in politics, is now a thing of the past. Kim Sigler and his forces have seen to that. For the good of Michigan, let's hope that never again will this state be disgraced by such conditions as were revealed by Kim Sigler before politicians eliminated him as special prosecutor of the state grand jury.

A REGRETTABLE INCIDENT.
Appearing in a recent issue of Lieut. Governor Vern Brown's Ingham County News was an editorial written by Editor Nelson Brown, son of the Lieutenant Governor.
It assailed bitterly a number of newspaper editors about the state who deemed it a public duty to support Kim Sigler for the Republican nomination for Governor. In the group was the writer of this column.

Mr. Brown has time and again been honored by the Republican party. This is the first time he has ever tasted serious political defeat—and he took it with the biggest dose of sour grapes we have ever witnessed in any candidate, we are sorry to say.

Son Nelson goes to great pains to say that his father did not know that he, Nelson, was publishing in his father's paper a vicious, miserable attack upon Mr. Sigler and a number of newspaper editors all old friends of his father who had supported Mr. Sigler.

That's just pure bunk.
We do note with considerable interest that Frank McKay of Grand Rapids published IN FULL on the first page of his weekly Grand Rapids Times the very personal, and uncalled for attack that Mr. Brown's Ingham County News published against Mr. Sigler and many of those who supported Mr. Sigler's successful contest.

We note, too, that the Ex-Boss of Michigan politics paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Brown in another article on the first page of his paper—which gives public notice as to where Mr. McKay stood in the recent primary election.

After all this is a lot of space to give to a disappointed, defeated candidate, who is possessed of none of the sportsmanship one in politics should possess. It is impossible for every candidate to win and unfortunately for Mr. Brown he has wound up his political career snapping and snarling at a lot of old friends. It is all most regrettable, especially when one who has been as critical over a long period of years of public officials as has been Mr. Brown. We do not condemn him; we just feel sorry for him. We've had our bumps in politics, too, but we have always tried to come up smiling instead of sobbing.

POTATOES FOR BOOZE.
When you go into a store and look around for some nice potatoes and you can't find them, don't do any more guessing as to where they have gone.

Trainloads of potatoes are being made into whiskey at Lawrenceburg, Indiana, and potatoes are also being used in a distillery in Pekin, Illinois, Prairie Farmer reveals in an article in the current issue.

But rumors that pineapples were being used for beverage alcohol in the Indiana plants have been disproved, Prairie Farmer says.

The article reveals that distillers are buying the potatoes at above government support prices and using them for alcohol since the government cut the use of grain by distilleries to three days supply per month.

One distiller said that the old crop potatoes were being used were "off-grade, not fit for market, sprouted, rotten at the core."

A Prairie Farmer reporter found some of the potatoes carried out of a distillery in workers' dinner buckets for use in their own kitchens proved much larger than any potatoes that could be bought in local stores. They were sprouted but they were not rotten.

2 Armed Bandits Arrested Here As City Sleeps

While most of Plymouth was deep in slumber early Tuesday morning, two armed bandits from Detroit were captured without a struggle in front of 628 South Main street less than 20 minutes after they had staged a daring holdup of a Livonia Township lunchroom and stole an automobile.

The holdup pair were apprehended through the combined efforts of Plymouth officers Charles Thompson and Roger Vanderveen and Northville patrolmen George Purdy and Ben Williams. They had been alerted by radio.

The officers in their respective police cars were in Plymouth's downtown area checking cars traveling on Ann Arbor trail. Suddenly the bandit car turned south on Main street off East Ann Arbor trail.

Both cars gave chase and overtook the bandit car in front of 628 South Main. One of the thugs leaped from the car and ran but fell in the weeds and surrendered in a whimpering tone begging the police not to shoot him. His partner in crime remained in the car and offered no resistance.

Thus, less than an hour after the bold bandit pair began their excursion into crime they were in the Wayne County jail charged with robbery armed and theft of a car. They are Floyd Hinton, 19, of 18755 Fenkell, and Eugene Swearingen, 24, of 15322 Mansfield, both of Detroit.

Plymouth police reported that the pair entered the lunchroom of Ferris Steinhauer, 36, at 36441 Plymouth road, Livonia, and robbed him of $45 at gunpoint. In leaving they forced James Shetteroe, 17, of 673 South Main street, Plymouth, and four youthful companions out of their car and used it to escape in.

The entire episode is one to bring lots of merit to the Plymouth police and prove the value of a county-wide police radio hookup and the maintenance of constant law enforcement agencies in communities surrounding Detroit.

Co-operation between departments is one of the things that make it difficult for criminals to operate. The speedy capture of the pair early Tuesday proves once more that crime does not pay—at least not in Plymouth.

Farm Dwelling Leveled by Fire

Fire believed to have originated when a defective oil heater flared Wednesday morning destroyed the two-story frame farm dwelling of Vernon Hodge, 1043 Lotz road four miles southeast of Plymouth.

The family, assisted by neighbors, were able to carry out several pieces of furniture, dishes, clothing and many other items before the fast-spreading flames drove them back.

Willow Run firemen who answered the alarm at 9:44 a.m. estimated the loss at $5,000 and said they understood the insurance covered only about a fifth of it. The Mail was unable to reach Mr. Hodge for a confirmation of their report.

When the firemen arrived, neighbors said, the house was three-quarters gone so they directed their efforts toward saving the surrounding buildings. Neighbors reported the Wayne department was summoned but did not respond when they learned the fire was not in the territory served by them.

During the height of the blaze, firemen said, three large tanks of fuel oil at the rear of the house exploded but did not endanger surrounding property.

Half-Year Plates Ready Monday

Plymouth motorists who are now driving with half-year license plates on their automobiles are reminded that they must exchange these plates for full year permits not later than August 31.

Donald Sutherland Wins in School District Election Monday

Nearly 200 school electors went to the polls last Monday to cast their ballots in the annual school election. Donald Sutherland, a member of the board, was re-elected for a three year term, receiving 82 votes. E. J. Cutler received 49 and Wallace Laury 48.

Out of a possible 6,000 voters only 181 electors took time to cast their ballots on school election day and only 21 people attended the annual meeting held directly after the polls closed in the High School.

Reports of the year's activities were read by the board's secretary and treasurer and the announcement of the fact that insurance had been denied on the school boilers for the coming year was made. Approval of the sale of school properties acquired by the recent consolidation was also given at the meeting.

To Have Honor of "Miss Plymouth" Riding On First PM Streamliner

Plymouth is to be represented at the formal christening in Detroit early in August of the "Perre Marquette," the Diesel-driven streamliner which the Pere Marquette Railway is to put into service through here between Detroit and Grand Rapids.

The city's representative will be one of the town's young women to be selected several days before the christening.

A guest of the Pere Marquette, she will ride to Detroit on the new streamliner on a special run carrying newspaper and radio representatives from Chicago, New York and Michigan, and a girl from every other city and town on the line's Detroit-Grand Rapids route.

At Detroit, at the elaborate christening service in the afternoon, "Miss Plymouth" will be invited to step to the radio and public address system microphones and extend Plymouth's greeting and express her community's pleasure that the new trains will serve this city. After the ceremonies, still a guest of the railway, Miss Plymouth will be returned to this city on the regular evening Pere Marquette train.

The "Perre Marquette" are described as the finest day trains anywhere; as the state's first Diesel-drawn streamliners and the first complete train to be post-war delivered anywhere in the country. They will make six trips each weekday between Detroit and Grand Rapids on a 2-hour 40-minute schedule, and four trips on Sunday. The train will be solid coach, all seats reserved, with only coach fares charged.

W. A. Reddeman Ends Municipal Career Aug. 1

William A. Reddeman, veteran Plymouth municipal employee, this week announced his retirement effective August 1.

His career as a City employee here began on September 4, 1919. He started as a common laborer. Within two weeks Mr. Reddeman was named superintendent of public works and the water department.

He continued in that post until three years ago when the public works superintendency was combined with the city engineer's duties. Since then Mr. Reddeman has devoted his full time to the water department. He also has served as timekeeper for all public works personnel.

The municipal water supply throughout the years has kept Mr. Reddeman on the job virtually seven days a week 365 days a year. He has never been off duty because of illness, a fact of which he is justly proud.

Mr. Reddeman, a former Canton Township farmer, settled in Plymouth the day before Labor Day in 1919. He planned on seeking a job within a few days. He recalls that while out walking on Labor Day he encountered Gilbert Brown, city manager.

"Looking for work?" inquired Mr. Brown.

Mr. Reddeman stopped and a brief conversation ensued. He hired out and was told to report at 6 a.m. the next morning.

"Our first job was a sewer in the west end of town, he recalls." It was much of a surprise to Mr. Reddeman.

Midget League Slashes Teams

Play and interest in the Rotary Midget League is steadily progressing with the boys developing into better players every week.

There was been a bit of trouble on the part of some squads in getting their players together for games, but on the whole the league is holding up fairly well.

The loop has been reduced to five teams, Virgil C. Knowles, Plymouth recreation chief, reports. They are captained by Casey Cavell, Roger Merritt, Tommy Rutherford, Kenneth Kisabeth and Adrian Wilhelm.

A new schedule for the five teams has been arranged. It is as follows:

July 15, Red Socks vs. Midgets; July 17, Cubs vs. Wildcats; July 19, Red Socks vs. Wildcats; July 22, Midgets vs. Blue Wings; July 24, Red Socks vs. Blue Wings; July 26, Midgets vs. Cubs; July 29, Blue Wings vs. Cubs; July 31, Wildcats vs. Midgets; and Aug. 1, Red Socks vs. Cubs.

Games are played on the Track diamond back of Plymouth high school at 4 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Local Merchants Fight to Hold Prices Down

Most Plymouth merchants, tradesmen, service institutions and landlords have pledged to join with other progressive business-men throughout the nation in an all-out fight to prevent widespread inflation.

In general they have announced they will do everything possible to hold prices at present levels. However, several merchants have pointed out that with the death of OPA the government subsidies on many commodities also was removed.

This is one factor that has caused the price of meat and butter to increase. Yet when the consumer analyzes the subsidy program they can, if of average intelligence, ascertain that present butter and meat prices are no more than they were when subsidies were being paid by the government.

In fact the subsidy program was the most unfair economical setup ever spawned upon the American people, one Plymouth merchant declared. "It forced you and every one else to share the expense of your neighbor because subsidies came out of everybody whether they were using certain commodities or not."

By way of explanation this merchant pointed out that during the war if John Smith used only half a pound of butter a week and Jim Brown used two pounds, Smith was helping pay the subsidy on Brown's two pounds though he got four times less butter to use than Brown.

Under the new setup with all subsidies removed, Smith will pay only for what he consumes and no more. Therefore the cost of Brown's two pounds of butter per week will be borne only by Brown and no one else.

Metropolitan newspapers are screaming about the boost in prices, but most Plymouth merchants declare they still are

City Boys Help Busy Farmers

The County Agricultural Agents' office in Wayne and the Detroit Farm Labor recruiting office is doing a brisk business of placing and supplying strong, husky city boys to farmers throughout Michigan to help out in the current farm-labor shortage in the state. Haying time is here and plenty of extra help is needed.

Farmers in Michigan are very well satisfied with this type of help. Numerous boys have been placed with farmers in this county and are accomplishing a grand job. Many other farmers in the county who might be short of farm help should contact the County Agent's office on this type of help.

The office has received announcements of training short courses to begin in September at Michigan State College. Special training courses offered are as follows:

1. Nursery and Landscape Management
2. Farm Equipment Service and Sales
3. Elevator and Farm Supply Business Operation and Management
4. Forest Practice.

More information on these courses can be secured from our office or by writing directly to Michigan State College, East Lansing.

Two Hurt In Car Accident

Two Plymouth residents were seriously injured in a automobile accident Wednesday at Plymouth and Farmington roads in a car driven by James McGraw who resides at 371 Auburn. The two passengers who were injured were Charles Sherman of 10675 Ann Arbor road and Howard L. Houghton of 9889 Joy road.

Both were taken to Wayne County General Hospital with serious injuries. McGraw was not injured in the accident. The other car in the collision was driven by William Malloy of Detroit who was also seriously injured.

Melvin King, S/I/c is in the U. S. Naval Hospital at Treasure Island, California. He will be confined to the hospital for several weeks for surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Rich and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Underwood and Dick, Mrs. Charles Foster, Mrs. Jack Cover and Patricia Hadley and Mrs. Edythe Hadley attended a picnic Saturday evening at Riverside Park.

New Principal

Louis E. Schmidt, 37, Eaton Rapids, an honorably discharged naval lieutenant, senior grade, has been placed under contract to serve as principal of Plymouth High school for the coming year.

He will succeed Randall Penhale who resigned to accept a position with the War Savings Bond Committee of Michigan.

Mr. Schmidt, married and the father of a daughter, Barbara, seven years old, holds both a Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degree. He also has had considerable experience in the field of education and administration.

He received his A. B. in 1931 from Central State Teacher's College at Mt. Pleasant and his Master's in 1937 from the University of Michigan. He attended the Arthur Hill High school at Saginaw.

For six years Mr. Schmidt was principal at Kalkaska. While there he joined the Masonic Lodge and is now a past master of the Kalkaska Blue Lodge. The next five years he was principal of the high school at Onaway. Then he went to Eaton Rapids. After two years there he accepted a commission in the Navy.

For two years he saw service in the Pacific and in China, Japan and Korea. His military service was terminated just this spring. In addition to being a Mason and a past president officer of his home lodge, Mr. Schmidt is a Kiwanian and a member of the VFW. He is adjutant of the Eaton Rapids post.

Plymouth Derby Day Set For Wednesday

Wednesday, July 17, has been fixed as the date for the first boys' derby under the direction of the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce since the ending of the war. Parents, and especially the boys, recall what an outstanding success these events were in Plymouth before the war. Now that we are again able to conduct these wholesome, interesting and clean events, as Mayor of the city of Plymouth, I am pleased to commend to the citizens of Plymouth their support and co-operation in making the first after-war Coaster Derby the most successful of any of these contests ever held in this city.

In behalf of the citizens of our city and as your mayor, I am glad of an opportunity to thank the members of The Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce for their efforts in reviving the annual Plymouth Coaster Derby for the boys of this vicinity.

ROBERT LIDGARD, Mayor City of Plymouth

Jaycee Members Are Reviving Popular Boys Contest

Plymouth's first coaster derby since 1941 will be held next Wednesday, July 17, on "Derby Hill" at Cass Benton Park. Preliminary heats will start at 4 p.m. with the main event set for 6 p.m. Sponsors of the classic, are the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mayor Robert Lidgard has officially proclaimed next Wednesday as Derby Day and commended the Jaycees for their efforts in reviving such a wholesome event for Plymouth boys.

Judging from the attendance records of the pre-war derbies more than 5,000 persons should be on hand clamoring for a glimpse of the drivers and their coasters. The only other derby this year in Wayne County will be at Detroit.

Admission to the derby site is free. However, the sponsors are preparing a souvenir program booklet to sell for a quarter. It is through the sale of these programs that the Jaycees will be able to underwrite the purchase of the grand array of prizes for all contestants and send the winner to Detroit.

All proceeds over and above expenses will be contributed by the sponsors to the Plymouth District Veterans Memorial Foundation.

Pre-derby ceremonies will open tonight, Friday, when the "weigh-in" of the cars and their drivers is conducted at the Allison Garage.

At that time the coasters will be given their final inspection and each boy will get a "driver's license" which will permit him to participate in the derby. The parents of each boy must sign the permit before he will be allowed to race.

More Aid For Local Victims of Sudden Flood

After a thorough investigation into conditions and upon the recommendation of several of the contributors, the fund raised to aid storm victims in this vicinity has been turned over to Roy Jewell to spend in behalf of the family of eight who were victims of the flash flood that took place on the second night of the storm some three weeks ago.

Mr. Jewell, as well as a number of others, made an investigation into the reports, and found that the mother and father and five six little children, living in a tent on the bank of a creek on Sheldon road just south of Ford road, are desperately in need of aid.

The tent is unsuitable for severe weather of any kind, the children are in need of clothing and the human tent-house needs more bedding.

The complete list of contributors follows: Stanley Corbett $10, Harry Terry $2, Elton R. Eaton $10, Foster Calahan $5, Stuart Dodge $10, John Doe $1, Wendell Lent $10.

Mr. Jewell will expend the money in the way he believes will be of greatest benefit to the family. It had originally been intended to mail the money to Windsor for the storm victims in that section of Ontario, but the need of the Canton township family, also victims of the storm, is so urgent that it was deemed more advisable to aid some of the storm victims nearer at home.

Who Drowns In Michigan

July is the peak month for drownings in Michigan, according to the State Health Department. Of the 241 deaths by drowning reported in the state last year, 75 occurred in July. The vacation months of June, July and August account for two thirds of all drownings.

Eighty-six per cent of the drowning accidents occur among males. Of the 1407 persons drowned in Michigan during the past five years, 1209 were males.

Among males the largest number of drownings (30 per cent of the total) occurred in the 10-19 age group. Among females the peak age was 5 to 14 years.

Fire In Motor Puts Hoist Out of Action

Plymouth firemen were summoned Wednesday afternoon to the Pilgrim Drawn Steel Corp., on General Drive. An outdoor self-powered hoist had snapped its fuel line and sprayed gasoline on the hot motor. Company spokesmen said workmen at the scene had the fire out when firemen arrived.

The hoist, used to move stock in the yard, will be out of commission for several days, the company reported. All of its electrical system must be replaced. The motor itself was not badly damaged by the flames. No one was injured.

Drug Stores List Sunday Schedule

All Plymouth drug stores have united and worked out a Sunday closing plan which will go into effect July 21 for the remainder of the summer.

Instead of remaining open all day Sunday as has been their practice in the past, all of the druggists will close at 1 p.m. Sundays and not reopen until Monday morning.

WEDDINGS

Vaun Campbell Becomes Bride of Stephen Jariett of Detroit

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Farley, Adams street, was the scene of a quiet wedding, Sunday, June 30th, when her daughter, Vaun Campbell, became the bride of Stephen Jariett, son of Albert Jariett of Detroit. The Rev. T. Leonard Sanders of the Methodist church of Owosso performed the ceremony at four o'clock before an arrangement of white gladioli and palms, in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom. "Lohengrin Wedding March" was played by Miss Helen Sherlock of Dearborn. The bride wore a street length gown of pale pink crepe with a corsage of gardenias. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Farley wore a dress of blue crepe with a corsage of pink carnations. Following the ceremony a buffet lunch was served from a table centered with white lilies and pink roses flanked by tall, white tapers. Guests present from out of town were Albert Jariett, Mr. and Mrs. William Jariett, Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, Miss Goldie Jariett, Mr. Andrew Donaldson, Jr., Miss Grace Lapham, Mrs. Mildred Barnes of Detroit, Mrs. Mabel Fair, Miss Pauline Fair, of Windsor, Mrs. Martha Sherlock, Miss Helen Sherlock, of Dearborn; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fraser, David and Jean Ann, of Flint; and Miss Catherine Flood of Wyandotte. Mr. and Mrs. Jariett left in for a three week's western honeymoon.

Kenneth Brown Weds Detroit Girl at Duns Scotus Chapel

Florence Petoskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Petoskey of Detroit and Kenneth Brown, son of Mrs. D. E. Felt of Northville road in Plymouth repeated their marriage vows to Father Bartholomew in the Duns Scotus College Chapel, July 6th at eleven o'clock. The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a lovely white net gown, fashioned with tight bodice, long sleeves and a very full skirt scattered with tiny satin bows. Her finger-tip veil matched her gown and was caught to a cornet of seed pearls. Her flowers were white roses and lilies. Mrs. Ruben Swanson, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, wore a Nile green gown fashioned similar to the bride's. She carried yellow roses and daisies. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Harold Brown. Ruben Swanson, brother-in-law of the bride, and William Smith, brother-in-law of the groom, ushered. Mrs. August Petoskey, mother of the bride, wore a black and white print crepe dress with black accessories. Mrs. D. E. Felt, mother of the groom, wore a pink and black printed sheer dress with black accessories. They both wore corsages of carnations and roses. A reception was held immediately following the wedding at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are honeymooning in Northern Michigan. For traveling Mrs. Brown wore a cinnamon brown crepe dress with white accessories.

Dolores Marie Cadreau Bride of Carroll Lee

A double ring ceremony was performed at the Nazarene church Sunday afternoon uniting in marriage Dolores Marie Cadreau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Flourey of Milford, and Carroll R. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lee of Plymouth. The ceremony was read by Rev. William Welton with only the immediate family present. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white afternoon dress with white accessories and a corsage of orchids. Miss Virginia Hicks, sister of the bride, attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore a pink afternoon dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. The groom was attended by brother, Romaine Lee. Mr. and Mrs. Lee left after the ceremony for a brief trip in Northern Michigan and upon returning will make their home on Dewey avenue in Plymouth.

LOCAL News

Miss Neva Lovewell's birthday was celebrated Saturday with a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Laible. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humphries and Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Taylor and children, Mary Ellen and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. John Crandall and Jean, and Mrs. Robert Gardener. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Caplins left Tuesday for their vacation at Lake Charlevoix.

Mrs. K. M. Lloyd and daughters Mary Margaret and Jean Ann, who have been staying with Dr. and Mrs. Peck, left this week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watts, her sister, in Adrian.

Miss Jean Blunk has returned home after a week's visit in the home of her fiancé's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Radosky, in Chicago. While there, Jean was guest of honor at a surprise shower which was also on her birthday. There were 30 guests present and many lovely gifts were received by the bride-to-be.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lorenz are the happy parents of a baby son, Kirk Thomas, weighing 10 pounds one ounce at birth in St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor Tuesday. Both Mrs. Lorenz and baby are doing nicely and will return to their home on Ann Arbor Trail the latter part of next week.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. Sanford Becker and Mrs. Nina Blunk visited the home of David Amusement Park at Benton Harbor. They returned home Monday afternoon.

Miss Janet Scheider of Rochester, N. Y., is spending her vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Powers on Joy road.

The MOMS of America Inc. annual state board and unit presidents luncheon was held at the First Baptist Church June 19 at 12:30 served by the MOMS of Plymouth Unit, 18. Twenty-two units were represented. After the luncheon the meeting was opened by singing America, giving the Pledge of Allegiance and having a prayer by Plymouth chaplain, Mrs. Fred Anderson. Mrs. Arthur Norgrove gave a very hearty welcome to all present. Mrs. Charles Hewer then introduced State President Mrs. Kenneth Foust of Dearborn who gave the response and then took charge of the meeting. The following guests were introduced and responded with a few remarks. Mrs. Mrs. Luther Immler, National President, and her secretary, Mrs. Palms from Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Myron Copley, first National Vice-President; Mrs. William Gabler, Past National President; Mrs. Elmer Chaffee, state and national Honorary Director and one of the founders of the organization, Mrs. Frank Phelps, another of the founders was also present. The Unit Presidents, past and present, were then presented and told of the work their units were doing. Many helpful ideas were exchanged and many problems solved. The main objective seemed to be unanimous permanent peace and, as our motto is "We will never forget," care for the hospitalized veteran. The state project is at present the Greenhouse at Fort Custer.

W. A. REDDEMAN ENDS MUNICIPAL CAREER AUG. 1

(Continued from Page One) Reddeman when one day after the job was completed he was informed that he was being appointed superintendent of public works.

"I guess they found me one that could be trusted and who was willing to work." That's the only explanation he has for the sudden promotion.

Through the years Mr. Reddeman has proven that choice well founded. His faithfulness to the discharge of his duties has been unwavering. Love for his work regardless of the monotony always kept his interest high.

Records he has maintained are immaculate and his water supply charts are so clearly compiled that anyone could read them. They are filed away in an orderly manner attesting to the way in which Mr. Reddeman has done his work.

Sundays and holidays have never been considered when it came to keeping an eye on municipal affairs in his scope or taking care of the city water supply. "I've reached the retirement age under the new municipal employes system in effect here, Mr. Reddeman said, so I'm going to take advantage of it."

He said there were so many things around home that he had to take care of that his time for a while would be spent there. Then he intends to take life easy and do what he wants to and not what a job demands.

Mr. Reddeman is one of the most popular municipal employes in Plymouth and anyone who meets him is sure to like him. His ready smile, the pride he takes in a job well done and his keen wit endear him to all who know him.

He has three sons, all of whom are successful in their own right in private industry. Floyd has just received a new promotion at the Daisy Manufacturing Company; Elmer is associated in the Plymouth Lumber and Coal Company; and Clifford is a foreman at the Ford plant at Waterford.

Now Member of Don Large Chorus

One of the most popular musical organizations of any radio station in this part of the country among Plymouth residents is Don Large's WJR chorus. The regular Sunday musical feature, "Mother's Album" is sung by the Don Large musicians.

It has just become known locally that among the new singers of this popular musical group is Fred Kendaall, husband of the former Evelyn Ambler, daughter of Mrs. Leota Ambler of this city.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Kendall were in the military services of their country. They met in a training camp in New York, but were married in Japan, their wedding being the first among Americans in that country after the invasion.

Mr. Kendall is highly pleased with his new musical affiliation.

P. T. O'Leary, of Jackson, is offering home-building sites free for 101 veterans, on a 30-acre tract northeast of the city. The farm has been owned by his family for 67 years.

Ten Vacation Commandments

By William DeKleine, M. D. Commissioner Michigan Department of Health

Do the things you enjoy most, provided your doings are safe and sane. Avoid hazards to mind and body.

Eat sensibly—choose a balanced diet—avoid overeating. Eat lots of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Select clean eating places when dining out. Avoid insanitary ones—always.

Exercise moderately in the open out-of-doors. Take advantage of the invigorating influence of fresh air and sunshine.

Peel off some of your clothes and gradually develop a coat of tan. Avoid long exposure to the sun and prevent severe sunburn.

Drink only pasteurized milk and only water that is known to be safe.

Sleep a third of the hours every day in comfort and quietude.

Bathe only in waters that are known to be safe. Avoid sewage-contaminated streams and lakes. Do not swim alone in deep water nor dive in shallow places.

Oldsters act your age! Do not attempt anything that will tax your physical endurance.

For your peace of mind, avoid arguments and unpleasant situations. Spend only within the limits of your vacation budgets. Be moderate in all things.

Observe these commandments and keep them wholly; herein lie physical, mental and spiritual values.

"Sacrament" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, July 14. The Golden Text (1 Cor. 10:15) is:
"The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?"
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Galatians 3:26,27): "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 242):
"Through repentance, spiritual baptism, and regeneration, mortals put off their material beliefs and false individuality."

LOCAL MERCHANTS FIGHT TO HOLD PRICES DOWN

operating below 10 percent for GROSS profit on butter with the new retail prices of 76 to 83 cents a pound.
They also point out that the new price on butter still is within the OPA schedule except the consumer is paying all of it over the counter instead of part of it over the counter and the rest in hidden taxes and levies with which he has been supporting the government subsidies.
As one prominent Plymouth market operator said, "Now there is no subsidy on butter or meats so the consumer is paying only his own subsidy tax and not someone else's."
A survey of retail merchants in Plymouth revealed that most of them looked with scorn upon the whole subsidy program. "It's like borrowing yourself out of debt at a high rate of interest," was the way one grocer explained it.

Most people who are crying about high prices fail to realize they have been paying these prices and perhaps didn't know it. Some of course prefer it that way as they like to kid themselves along and hate to face the truth.

In brief here is what has happened. When OPA died the subsidy program died along with it.
So now the merchant has no subsidy on which to depend.
Instead of charging the consumer 67 cents a pound for butter and collecting the remainder through subsidies, he must charge the consumer the full price, or the OPA price plus what he was being paid through government subsidies.

Plymouth merchants in general want to "hold the line" on all prices. What they want to do and what the wholesalers will let them do is two different things.
However the picture is brighter.

One meat dealer declared that in slightly over a week there already is a distinct downward trend in the livestock market and it is going lower. He said the yards all over the country are jammed, yet the big packers are not buying at the prevailing prices. This means the yards must move the stock and consequently the commission merchants will have to take what they can get.
When that starts prices naturally begin to drop.

He went on to say that it took four years for the OPA to put the food situation in its present muddle and he thought the American people should be willing to give the merchants at least four weeks trial without the OPA before they began pointing fingers of scorn at them.

Most merchants in Plymouth were firm in their belief that "supply and demand will return the country to normal sooner than expected." Application of that law, they declared, will solve the current crop of real or imagined consumer grievances.

Plymouth merchants have pledged to refrain from any unwarranted markup of prices for goods now in stock. Regardless of OPA they will strive to continue the policy of fair prices and honest dealings.

Only when they are forced to pay more for various products will they increase prices but they will be emphatic that they would not increase their margin of profit.

The spiraling rent prices experienced in many parts of the country and in Michigan have not been felt in Plymouth except in one or two isolated circumstances, a survey has shown. Justified increases in rent are being put into effect here but only two complaints have come to the attention of The Mail.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Ethel Booth
Following an illness of several months, Mrs. Ethel Booth, mother of Mrs. Clifton Raum, 448 Sunset avenue, died July 4 at the home of another daughter in Birmingham where she had been spending the past few months.

For over four years she had her home in Plymouth and became well acquainted with many residents of this city, as well as members of the Presbyterian church which she attended. All of her Plymouth friends held her in high regard.

Following the death of her husband a number of years ago, she went to reside in Florida but returned about four years ago to make her home in Plymouth.
The funeral was held Saturday at 3 o'clock in Birmingham, burial taking place in the family
lot in Oak View, Ferndale. The two daughters and a son, Bruce, survive.

Mrs. Jennie P. Chaffee
Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 10th from the Schrader Funeral Home at 2 p.m.
for Mrs. Jennie P. Chaffee who passed away early Monday morning July 8th at the age of ninety-five years. Mrs. Chaffee resided at 908 Penniman Avenue. She was the widow of the late Alfred W. Chaffee and is survived by five nieces and three nephews,
Mrs. William Taylor and Mrs.
Brant Warner, both of Plymouth,
Mrs. Mable Cady and Mrs. Jennie Lane, both of Detroit, Frank Lyon of Birmingham, Mrs. Tracy McMurtry of Wayne, Elmer and Orrie Chaffee. Mrs. Chaffee was a resident of this community for the past eighty years, a life member of the Order of the Eastern Star and member of the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth. Rev. Woodrow Woolley of Rosedale Gardens officiated.
Two beautiful hymns were rendered on the organ by Mrs.
M. J. O'Conner. The active pallbearers were Messrs. Kenneth Harrison, William Taylor, Austin
Whipple, Charles Garlett, Leo Bower and Robert Randall.

Interment was made in Riverside Cemetery.

SCHOOL BOILERS Not Worth Repair Inspector Says
Last winter the heating system at Plymouth High School proved conclusively it was not adequate for the current needs.

For years the boilers there have been pushed to their limit and the continual strain has not been conducive to their longevity. The Plymouth Board of Education all last winter feared there might be a tragic accident should the boilers be pushed too far and gave orders not to operate them at top capacity all the time.

The board figured new boilers would be needed before the coming winter. Criticism from several sides has been leveled at the board accusing them of "needless expense."

Feeling they were right in their determination to obtain new boilers the board on June 19 and 22 had the school's heating plant inspected by the Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection and Insurance Company, of Detroit. They wished an impartial report from a qualified authority.

The company's report is anything but encouraging. In fact it is gloomier than the school board anticipated. In short the company advises the complete scuttling of the two boilers.

F. H. Bechtol, inspector who made the survey, spared no words in painting a very black condition of the boilers. The board in turn is very glad to present his report to the general public of Plymouth.

"On boiler No. 1-M 4094M, Mr. Bechtol writes, I found scale 1/16 of an inch thick on the internal surfaces. The tubes are seriously pitted and cannot be considered reliable for further use. Corrosion is quite general on the external surfaces of the boiler; the heads of some of the rivets at the bottom of the water legs are seriously wasted. Patches on the fire box plates indicate that leakage has been experienced from time to time in the past."

"Boiler No. 2-M 4095M, the inspector reported, had corrosion in the form of wasting away of metal on the external surfaces. The tubes in this boiler also are seriously pitted and cannot be considered serviceable. One of the return pipes leading to the boiler has pitted through at a point inside the boiler setting."

The report goes on to state that a hydrostatic pressure test of ten pounds was applied to the second boiler following the internal inspection. As a result leakage was noted at the right rear corner of the fire box as well as at rivets in the bottom of the water leg; at the return line connection to the boiler.

The company's chief inspector wrote the board "that each of the boilers is 30 years old, an age representing the normal life expectancy of equipment of that type."

"Due to their age and general deteriorated condition we do not consider the repairs necessary to place them in serviceable condition to be warranted."

"They are not worth the repair and we recommend that consideration be given at this time to replacing these boilers."

Thus the school board has confirmation by an authority of the fears they expressed last winter. Just where the money necessary to replace the boilers is coming from is something the board is not currently able to say. But the boilers will be replaced and at once too.

SCHOOL BOILERS Not Worth Repair Inspector Says
Last winter the heating system at Plymouth High School proved conclusively it was not adequate for the current needs.

For years the boilers there have been pushed to their limit and the continual strain has not been conducive to their longevity. The Plymouth Board of Education all last winter feared there might be a tragic accident should the boilers be pushed too far and gave orders not to operate them at top capacity all the time.

The board figured new boilers would be needed before the coming winter. Criticism from several sides has been leveled at the board accusing them of "needless expense."

Feeling they were right in their determination to obtain new boilers the board on June 19 and 22 had the school's heating plant inspected by the Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection and Insurance Company, of Detroit. They wished an impartial report from a qualified authority.

The company's report is anything but encouraging. In fact it is gloomier than the school board anticipated. In short the company advises the complete scuttling of the two boilers.

F. H. Bechtol, inspector who made the survey, spared no words in painting a very black condition of the boilers. The board in turn is very glad to present his report to the general public of Plymouth.

"On boiler No. 1-M 4094M, Mr. Bechtol writes, I found scale 1/16 of an inch thick on the internal surfaces. The tubes are seriously pitted and cannot be considered reliable for further use. Corrosion is quite general on the external surfaces of the boiler; the heads of some of the rivets at the bottom of the water legs are seriously wasted. Patches on the fire box plates indicate that leakage has been experienced from time to time in the past."

Following these ceremonies at the garage the coasters will be given their final trial runs on Mill street. Then the entries will be returned to the Allison Garage where they will be stored until the day of the race.

again, except for minor adjustments, before the derby. Some may be on display elsewhere over the weekend but the bulk will be housed at the garage.

On Tuesday night, the night before the derby, there will be a parade down Main street to Kellogg Park. The drivers and their coasters all will be in the parade.

The Plymouth Community Band directed by Jaycee Joseph Ribar, will play a concert Wednesday night following the derby when the prizes are to be awarded in ceremonies scheduled for Kellogg Park.

At that time the drivers all will be introduced and their prizes given them and the grand prize winner feted by the entire community.

The Jaycees will award a deluxe bicycle to the grand prize winner—the driver of the fastest coaster in Plymouth—in addition to sending him and others to Detroit for a chance to compete in the national derby at Akron, Ohio.

In fact every boy participating in the derby will receive a prize. There will be special prizes for the best built coaster, best upholstered and designed coaster and the coaster with the best brakes.

The derby will be held on the basis of elimination heats until there are but two coaster left for the main event. The winner of that race will be declared the grand prize-winner.

The contestants and their individual sponsor are as follows: Jack Daggett, Daggett Radio Shop; Bruce Besse, Roe Lumber Company; Dave Reitzel, McLaren Company; Donald Lightfoot, Plymouth Lumber and Coal Company; David Henry, Plymouth Country Club; Jerry Walsh, Davis & Lent; Henry Levering, Huston Hardware; Donald Moore, Todd's Market; Edward Kalinske, Fisher Shoe Store; Bill Agosta, Hines & Owens Shell Service; Thomas Osman, Eckles Coal and Supply; Hillis Cash, Cash Shop; Tom Campbell, John Campbell Plumbing, and perhaps one or two others who are now racing against time to complete construction of their racers.

Honorary officials for the coaster derby have been selected as follows: Mayor Robert Lidgard, general chairman; Roy Fisher, director of starting operations; Col. Cass Hough, director of finish line operations; Garnet Rush, chief judge; Jack Taylor, chief starter; Charles Brake, chief inspector; and Chief of Police Lee R. Sackett, track director.

Jaycee members who will actually sweat out the derby duties include Charles Wolfe and Clayton Koch, general co-chairmen; Ted Box, track director; George Todd, director of hilltop operations; Marvin Terry, director of elimination heats; Ralph Taylor and Al Schuster, assistants of Mr. Terry; and Edward Sinta, director of service pits, assisted by Marvin Partridge.

J. R. Cutler, Henry Lorenz and Frank Dely, judges; Lee Turkett, director of finish line operations, assisted by Joseph Ribar, Donald Lightfoot and Henry Lorenz; Sanford Knapp, chief starter, assisted by Cecil Owens, Howard Shreyer and Vincent Hester; John Gaffield, clerk of the course, assisted by Fred Waara and Rockwell Smith; Wendell Lent, director of course arrangements, assisted by Karl Miller and James Ross; Frank Walsh and James Marsh will handle the sound car and amplifying system and Dewar Taylor and Donald Blessing will be in charge of the first aid station.

City, county and state police officers will be present to handle the crowd and direct traffic before and after the derby.

In case of inclement weather The Mail will announce the new derby date in the July 19 issue.

Patchen School Elects New Board Members

The annual meeting of the Patchen School District No. 3 of Nankin Township was held Monday evening July eight. The business of the evening, the expiration of the president's term, was taken up and a new president was elected. Paul Woodard of Revine road was the retiring president and Mrs. Kenneth Sorenson of Joy road was elected to the office for a three year term.

The resignations of Clyde Smith, who has been a member of the board for nineteen years and felt that he had been in office long enough, and Mr. Lawrence Zielasko, who has been in ill health for the past year, were presented and accepted. Two new members were voted in, George Lomas of Morley Avenue, who became the new treasurer, and Dr. T. E. Lewis of Ford road, who became the new secretary.

Another change which was voted upon and carried, was that the school year will be ten months long, instead of nine months, next year.

The school board wishes to announce that it hopes to meet as many important problems that it possibly can and would welcome any suggestions that would be helpful from residents of the district.

Robert Simmons Wins G.O.P. Place

Robert Simmons, president of the Plymouth Hi-Twelve Club, and active in Junior Chamber of Commerce affairs, was recently elected treasurer of the newly organized 17th Congressional district Republican committee.

George A. Shafer of Detroit, a resident of the 17th district and long active in Republican affairs, was made chairman for the ensuing two years. Mr. Shafer is associated with the Detroit office of the Michigan Bell Telephone company and was one of the original members of the Wayne County Precinct organization.

The new secretary is Mrs. Edith Carew of Robson avenue in Detroit. Like Mr. Shafer, she also has long been an active Republican worker.

Softball League Nearing Finale

Plymouth's Industrial Twilight Softball League is nearing the close of its schedule with play getting keener and games proving more exciting. The leadership of the loop is now shared by Oldsmobile City Service, Cavalcade and DeHoCo. Each has lost only two games.

Monday night Cavalcade handed Oldsmobile its second setback, 2 to 1. The tilt was a hurling duel. Breaks were responsible for all the runs. Oldsmobile was first defeated, 8 to 7, by DeHoCo on July 3.

Daisy handed Cavalcade its second loss last week with a late spurge that made the score read 5 to 1 at the finish.

The Merchants are in fourth place at this writing. The league playoffs will involve only the first four teams, Virgil C. Knowles, Plymouth recreation director stated. The picture may be different when the schedule is completed however as each of the first four teams have some tough games yet to be played.

Mr. Knowles said the league playoffs would find team 1 against team 4 and team 2 against team 3. The winner must take three out of five games. These winners then will play until one wins four out of seven.

Standings as of July 9 follow:

Table with 5 columns: Team, W, L, Pct, G. Rows include Oldsmobile, Cavalcade, DeHoCo, Merchants, Daisy, Atchison Gulf, Wall Wire, Burroughs, VFW.

Western Wayne League
Some good ball is being played currently by the clubs in the Western Wayne Baseball League. The games, played on a twilight schedule, have so far attracted good crowds.
The Daisy Air Rifles, piloted by Cy Scalding, have performed magnificently, according to Mr. Scalding. They dropped their opener to the Wiedman Cardinals, 3 and 1, but took the next one at the expense of Northville, 12 to 5. Dave Reitzel and Bill Emmons are the Daisy batteries.

In the game with Northville the Daisy lads executed a neat double play. With a man on first and one out the batter lined to Hunter in right field and Hunter's peg to first was good enough to double the runner.
Games in the league next Tuesday at 6 p.m. include Livonia Tigers vs Northville at Cass Benton Park; Daisy Air Rifles vs Livonia Recreation at Nankin Mills; and Redford vs Wiedman's Cardinals at Riverside.

Plymouth Rotary Honors Bill Wood
Friday noon, June 28, William (Bill) Wood, of Rosedale Gardens, popular and genial dean of Plymouth's insurance brokers, was honored by 70 members of the Plymouth Rotary Club and several guests at luncheon at Hotel Mayflower.
The occasion marked the termination of Mr. Wood's twenty-year tenure as secretary of the club and the start of his twenty-fifth year as a Plymouth Rotarian. He resigned the office because the press of personal business required more and more of his time. The club accepted the resignation with regret. For it was Bill Wood who interested the Plymouth club in sponsoring the Livonia Rotary Club. Much of that group's initial success was due to his leadership and influence.
The luncheon in his honor was a complete surprise to Bill and left him emotionally unable to say much except "thanks."
However, in a special letter to the club this week Bill wrote, "Please accept my sincere thanks and be assured of my appreciation for the honor paid me last Friday. I was deeply touched because of this tribute on your part, and could not find words to express myself at that time."
"Everyone but myself knew about the affair. Please know I did appreciate the remarks extended by the several old friends, and even now I find it difficult as to just what to say. All I can honestly say is many, many thanks for the honor and the gift that went with it. It has always been a pleasure to do the work of secretary and I have enjoyed every year of it. I always shall strive to work for our club. Again, many thanks."
District Governor Harry Palmer and Governor-elect Joe Brady both paid their respects to Bill. Each said much of the success enjoyed by Plymouth Rotarians was due to his untiring efforts. Rotary presidents of neighboring communities also were present and paid tribute to Bill's work as a scribe.
Walter T. Elliott, executive secretary of the Detroit club, was on hand to make the presentation of a token in appreciation for his 20 years as secretary of the club here.

Wagenschutz Family Reunion
The 19th annual Wagenschutz reunion was held Sunday, July 7th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melburn at Tecumseh.
The reunion was opened with a prayer led by Melburn Partridge. This was followed by the singing of America and a pledge to the flag.
After the family dinner, the business meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Arthur Marsh. The minutes of the last reunion were read by the sec'y, Carl Wagenschutz. There were no deaths in the past year, and one addition to the family, a little daughter, Wanda Lynn, born to Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Partridge. Officers were elected for the coming year. They were: President, Mrs. Amelia Ford, Vice President, Owen Partridge, Sec'y and treas. Mrs. Alvin Wagenschutz, Entertainment committee, Mrs. Wm. McLellan, Mrs. Wm. Huber, and Clayton Myers.
The 1947 reunion will be held at Williamston, Mich. with Mr. and Mrs. George Rutan as host and hostess.
Those attending this year's reunion were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh and family of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. George Rutan and family and Mrs. Otto Wagenschutz of Williamston, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Partridge and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Myers, and Mrs. Amelia Ford of Northville, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huber and son of Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lindow and son and Mrs. George Krumm of Chelsea, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wagenschutz and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wagenschutz, and family, Mrs. Lucy Wagenschutz, Mr. Frank Wagenschutz, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wagenschutz, all of Plymouth; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLellan and family of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Partridge and family, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Partridge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Partridge, all of Tecumseh.

About 27,600 Michigan families, including 7,000 GM strikers and their families, are currently on direct relief. The best available figures indicate that extra welfare costs in the State, resulting from the GM strike, may total $1,000,000.

The schedule for next Wednesday, July 17, is as follows: McConnell's vs Box Bar No. 2; Box Bar No. 1 vs Michigan Bell; Plymouth Mail vs. Todd's Market; Twin Pines Dairy vs. Davis & Lent; and Terry's Bakery vs. Fisher's Shoe Store.
Standings of the Wednesday Nite Golf League are as follows:
McConnell's Barbers, 24½ Pts.
Terry's Bakers, 23½ Pts.
Plymouth Mail, 22 Pts.
Todd's Market, 20 Pts.

Davis & Lent, 12 Pts.
Bell Telephone, 8 Pts.
Box Bar No. 2, 9 Pts.
Twin Pines Dairy, 8 Pts.
The McConnell Barbers still lead in the team standings, despite two setbacks in a row. By picking up three and one half points, Terry's Bakers climbed into second place only one point out of first place. However, Art torrid pace as individual point leader. Art has yet to lose a match. A fine leather billfold was the weekly award, won by Jim Ross.

Legion 9 Faces Busy Weekend
The baseball club sponsored by Passage-Gayde Post, American Legion, will play two games this week-end.
At 3 p.m. Saturday, tomorrow, in Riverside Park, the Legion nine will play the B-29s of Inkster, an all-negro team which has a reputation of playing stellar baseball. This should be a great game and a good show for all.
On Sunday the Legion baseballers will meet the Fluekey Insurance club at Cass Benton Park, near Northville. This game also will open at 3 p.m. It is a regular Michigan Inter-County Baseball League game.
Plymouth's other entry in the league—Cloverdale Dairy—will play Sunday at Riverside Park with Northville furnishing the opposition. That game will open at 3 p.m. also.

TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH ORDINANCE NO. 3

AN ORDINANCE COVERING THE INSTALLATION AND USE OF GAS BURNER EQUIPMENT USED IN CONNECTION WITH HEATING SYSTEMS.

ORDINANCE NO. 3

The Twp. of Plymouth Ordains:

Sec. 1—Gas Burner General Requirement. The construction, arrangement and manner of installation of all gas burners and gas burner equipment hereafter installed for use in connection with heating systems, and the alteration and repair hereafter of all gas burners and gas burner equipment used or to be used in connection with heating systems, shall conform to the following provisions:

Sec. 2—Gas Burner and Gas Burner Equipment Defined. For the purpose of this code, the term "gas burner" shall mean a device for the final conveyance of the gas, or a mixture of gas and air to the combustion zone of a boiler or furnace used in connection with a heating system. The term "gas burner equipment" shall include gas burners, as above defined, and all piping (other than supply piping from meter to appliance shut off valve), blower, control device, and accessories connected to the burners.

Sec. 3—Installation. When Lawful. It shall be unlawful for any person or his agents to install any gas burner, such as above defined, until an application for a permit on a form similar to that set forth immediately hereafter, shall have been filed with and a permit issued by the Building Inspector.

Sec. 4—Approval. The Building Inspector shall issue a permit for installing any gas burner approved by the American Gas Association or any other nationally recognized inspection board or laboratory. Gas burners not approved by the American Gas Association or any other nationally recognized board or laboratory shall not be installed until they shall have been inspected, tested and approved by some recognized engineering board or laboratory capable of making such a test and inspection. This inspection and test shall cover arrangement of parts, suitability of material, strength of parts, electrical control, thermostatic arrangement, reliability of automatic features and positiveness of ignition.

Sec. 5—Installation of Used Gas Burners, Procedure Required. It shall be unlawful for any person, licensed to install, alter, repair or replace gas burners within the City, to install any used gas burner or for the Building Inspector to issue any permit authorizing him so to do, until said licensee shall have first submitted with his application for such permit a copy of the purchase order describing the used burner that is to be installed and a statement by the purchaser acknowledging that to be the case, together with a statement by said licensee that said burner has been properly reconditioned and will comply in every way with code requirements for new equipment as to operation, safety standards and adjustments.

Sec. 6—Ventilation. Gas burners, as hereinafter defined, shall not be installed in an appliance located in a room where the normal facilities for ventilation do not permit proper combustion of gas, unless special provision is made for supplying sufficient air for complete combustion.

Sec. 7—Flues. All appliance flues through which flue gases are conducted shall be thoroughly cleaned and examined for leaks and draft conditions before installation is to be made.

Sec. 8—When To Be Replaced. Where flue pipes are rusted or burned out, they shall be replaced by new pipe.

Sec. 9—Kind of Material To Be Used. Material used for flue pipe shall be such as to resist the corrosive action of flue gases.

Sec. 10—Support of Location. Flue pipe shall be well supported to prevent sagging, shall be adequately insulated from and in no case shall be located closer than four inches to combustible building materials.

Sec. 11—Draft Hood. A draft hood or its equivalent should be installed which is designed to (1) Insure the ready escape of the products of combustion in the event of no draft, back draft, or stoppage beyond the appliance, (2) Prevent a back draft from entering the appliance and (3) Neutralize the effect of stack action of the flue upon the operation of the appliance or in the appliance itself. Such draft hood, or equivalent device, shall conform to the American Gas Association for Standard Listed Draft Hoods.

Sec. 12—Location. The draft hood shall be located at a point not lower than the top of the highest flue passage in the appliance.

Sec. 13—Draft Hood Location, Alternate. The draft hood should ordinarily be located adjacent to the appliance. In cases where it appears desirable to place the

- 10—Application filed by
- 11—At Plymouth Township, this _____ day of _____, 19__

The permit fee shall be Three Dollars for each residence, commercial, or industrial installation plus fifty cents for each additional unit.

Sec. 14—Reversible Type. Appliances of the reversible flue type shall have the draft hood located at least one foot higher than the top of the highest flue passage. In all boilers or furnaces of the reversible flue type not specifically designed for the use of gas fuel, proper provision shall be made to prevent the accumulation of gas in any part thereof subject to the approval of the Building Inspector.

Sec. 15—Area. The internal cross-sectional area of the section of the flue pipe between the outlet of the appliance and the draft hood shall be such as to provide not less than one square inch of flue area per 7,500 hourly BTU input. In no case shall this section of flue pipe be less than three inches in diameter and it shall be not larger than the next integral inch diameter above the size given in the following tables:

Input B.T.U. Per Hour	Area of Flue Output—Sq. In.	Diameter of Flue Pipes—Inches
52,500	7.0	3
94,500	12.6	4
147,000	19.6	5
212,250	28.3	6
288,750	38.5	7
377,250	50.3	8
477,000	63.3	9

Based on 1 sq. in. flue area per 7,500 B.T.U. per hour input.

Sec. 16—Adjustable Damper. The proportioned section at the flue outlet of the appliance eliminates the necessity of using an adjustable damper in the flue pipe.

Sec. 17—Dampers Permanently Kept Open. Where dampers are an integral part of the boiler or furnace, they shall be removed or permanently secured in the wide open position, except such dampers the function of which is to alter the passage of flue gases through the appliances, which shall be locked in such a position as not to interfere with the normal operation of the burners.

Sec. 18—Relocated. Flue pipe shall be relocated where necessary, to avoid sharp turns or other constructional features which would create excessive resistance to the flow of the flue gases.

Sec. 19—Where Installed. Means shall be employed which will prevent the flue pipe from entering beyond the inner wall of the chimney flue. Flue pipe shall be cemented to the chimney wall so as to prevent infiltration of cold air.

Sec. 20—Baffles Not to Be Used. No baffle shall be applied which will interfere with the proper combustion of the gas.

Sec. 21—Heating Surfaces. The heating surfaces shall be thoroughly cleaned before burners are installed.

Sec. 22—Gas Tight. The combustion chamber and all flue gas passages shall be gas tight.

Sec. 23—Doors. In converted burners, the fuel door of the draft hood at a distance from the appliance, the size of the restricted section may be modified according to the length and rise of the flue pipe.

Sec. 24—Installation, General. Gas burners of all types shall consist of factory assembled and tested units and shall be accompanied by complete and comprehensive installation and operation instructions.

Sec. 25—Directions Must Be Followed. The burner or burners shall be located according to the manufacturer's instructions and shall be securely fastened in place to prevent twisting, sliding or dropping out of position.

Sec. 26—Accessible for Cleaning. The burners shall be so installed so as to be readily accessible for cleaning and inspection.

Sec. 27—Prevent Incomplete Combustion. The burner or burners shall be so installed that no part of the flames impinge so as to cause incomplete combustion.

Sec. 28—Air Shutter Adjustment. Air shutters shall be adjusted to produce a good flame at the prevailing gas pressure.

Sec. 29—Secondary Air Openings. Where secondary air opening or openings shall be provided of sufficient area to supply an adequate amount of air for complete combustion.

Sec. 30—Controls. Where an automatic secondary air control is provided, the construction shall be such that in case the control fails in any way, either the gas will be shut off or the secondary air door will remain open.

Sec. 31—Pilots. Either a thermostatic pilot, so constructed and adjusted that no gas can flow through the main burner unless the pilot flame is burning, or some other similar type of safety device serving this same end shall be employed. The operation of this safety device shall not depend on the closing of an electrical circuit to shut off the main gas supply.

Sec. 32—Fixed in Stationary Position. Pilot burners shall be supported in such a manner that their position relative to the main burner or burners will be fixed.

Sec. 33—Accessible. Pilot burner or burners shall be so placed that they can be safely lighted and they shall be readily accessible or removable for cleaning.

Sec. 34—Lines To. Pilot lines shall be connected to vertical main gas supply lines or to the side or top of horizontal lines ahead of all controls except pressure regulators and shall be susceptible to independent control.

Sec. 35—Thermostatic Safety. Thermostatic safety pilots shall be so adjusted that main gas supply will be shut off within three minutes after flame has been extinguished.

Sec. 36—Shut-Off Valve Main. A manually operated shut-off valve shall be installed at each appliance to shut off the entire gas supply to the appliance in cases of emergency.

Sec. 37—Location. Such valve shall be so located that it is readily accessible and shall be a (Continued on page 5) heating appliance must be arranged to relieve pressure due to puffs or backfire caused by delayed ignition.

Sec. 24—Installation, General. Gas burners of all types shall consist of factory assembled and tested units and shall be accompanied by complete and comprehensive installation and operation instructions.

Sec. 25—Directions Must Be Followed. The burner or burners shall be located according to the manufacturer's instructions and shall be securely fastened in place to prevent twisting, sliding or dropping out of position.

Sec. 26—Accessible for Cleaning. The burners shall be so installed so as to be readily accessible for cleaning and inspection.

Sec. 27—Prevent Incomplete Combustion. The burner or burners shall be so installed that no part of the flames impinge so as to cause incomplete combustion.

Sec. 28—Air Shutter Adjustment. Air shutters shall be adjusted to produce a good flame at the prevailing gas pressure.

Sec. 29—Secondary Air Openings. Where secondary air opening or openings shall be provided of sufficient area to supply an adequate amount of air for complete combustion.

Sec. 30—Controls. Where an automatic secondary air control is provided, the construction shall be such that in case the control fails in any way, either the gas will be shut off or the secondary air door will remain open.

Sec. 31—Pilots. Either a thermostatic pilot, so constructed and adjusted that no gas can flow through the main burner unless the pilot flame is burning, or some other similar type of safety device serving this same end shall be employed. The operation of this safety device shall not depend on the closing of an electrical circuit to shut off the main gas supply.

Sec. 32—Fixed in Stationary Position. Pilot burners shall be supported in such a manner that their position relative to the main burner or burners will be fixed.

Sec. 33—Accessible. Pilot burner or burners shall be so placed that they can be safely lighted and they shall be readily accessible or removable for cleaning.

Sec. 34—Lines To. Pilot lines shall be connected to vertical main gas supply lines or to the side or top of horizontal lines ahead of all controls except pressure regulators and shall be susceptible to independent control.

Sec. 35—Thermostatic Safety. Thermostatic safety pilots shall be so adjusted that main gas supply will be shut off within three minutes after flame has been extinguished.

Sec. 36—Shut-Off Valve Main. A manually operated shut-off valve shall be installed at each appliance to shut off the entire gas supply to the appliance in cases of emergency.

Sec. 37—Location. Such valve shall be so located that it is readily accessible and shall be a (Continued on page 5) lever handle valve, or of such construction that the "open" and "closed" position is clearly indicated.

Sec. 38—Electric Control Valves. Electric control valves shall be installed according to the instructions furnished by the manufacturer and comply with the Electrical Ordinance.

Sec. 39—Gas Pressure Regulators. A gas pressure regulator shall be installed on all gas burner installations for heating purposes.

Sec. 40—Safety Devices. The boiler or furnace shall be equipped with safety devices arranged to limit high steam or water temperature, as well as high air temperatures in warm air furnaces which are equipped with circulating fans.

Sec. 41—Shall Be Independent of Shut-Off Main Gas Supply. Safety devices operated electrically shall not depend upon the closing of a circuit to shut-off the main gas supply. This requirement shall not be construed as prohibiting the use of electrical regulating devices, provided the required safety devices are also installed.

Sec. 42—Cut-off, Low Water. Each gas fired steam boiler shall be equipped with a low-water cut-off.

Sec. 43—Forced Primary Air Control. When air under pressure is used in connection with the gas supply, effective means shall be provided to prevent the air from going back into the gas piping.

Sec. 44—Piping, Fuel Line to Burner. All gas piping installed for the service of the gas burners shall be of adequate size to supply the requirements of the heating system, and shall be of sufficient size to deliver gas to the burner at a pressure in excess of the manifold pressure specified by the burner manufacturer.

Sec. 45—Adjustment of Pilot and Burners. After the piping has been thoroughly purged, the pilot burner shall be lightened and adjusted and the burners put into operation in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.

Sec. 46—Pilot Operation. Pilot flames shall effectively ignite the gas at the main burner or burners and shall be adequately protected from drafts. A device which is at least equal in performance to the draft hoods hereinafter provided for shall be interpreted as fulfilling the second part of this requirement as far as chimney drafts are concerned.

Sec. 47—Flames Not to Be Extinguished. Pilot flames shall not become extinguished when the main burner or burners are turned on or off in a normal manner, either manually or by automatic controls.

Sec. 48—Luminous Flame. Luminous flame pilots shall be adjusted so as not to show carbon deposits.

Sec. 49—Electrical Devices, Approval. All automatic or electrical devices used in connection with the operation and repair of gas burners must be approved by the American Gas Association or some other nationally recognized board before a permit will be issued thereto to install such device.

Sec. 50—Gas Burners, Summer Cooling, How Equipped. Gas burners equipped with summer switches for cooling purposes must have a key type switch installed.

Sec. 51—Flame, Regulation Of. The flames from each burner shall freely ignite the gas from adjacent burners or from each constant burning pilot when operating at the prevailing gas pressure or when the main control valve is regulated to deliver about one-third the full gas rate, except where additional pilots are provided.

Sec. 52—Not To Flash. When ignition is made in a normal manner, the flames shall not flash outside the appliance.

Sec. 53—Not to Burn In Mixer. Burners shall not expel gas through air openings in mixer faces when operating at the prevailing pressure.

Sec. 54—Appliance Operation, Oxygen, Concentration, Pressure. The concentration of oxygen in the flue products shall in no case be less than four per cent. The rate of flow of the gas shall be adjusted to within plus or minus five per cent of the required hourly B.T.U. input rating at the manifold pressure specified by the manufacturer. When the prevailing pressure is less than the manifold pressure specified, the gas rate shall be adjusted to the prevailing pressure.

Sec. 55—Appliance, Method of Test. The appliance shall be allowed to operate until the stack temperature becomes stabilized, after which a sample of the flue products shall be taken at a point in the flue after the outlet of the appliance but ahead of the draft hood and analyzed for carbon dioxide and oxygen.

Sec. 56—Checked by Inspector and Installer. The various controls of the appliance shall be checked by both inspector and installer to insure their proper operation.

Sec. 57—Printed and Posted Instructions. Suitable printed instructions shall be supplied by the installer and posted in a prominent position near the appliance.

Sec. 58—Direct Fire Unit Gas Heaters. Direct Fire Unit Gas Heaters may be used in public garages and similar buildings and shall be of a type listed by the Department of the American Gas Association for use in garages and similar buildings; must be installed near the eave level at least 8 feet above the floor. All vents to extend 2 feet above roof with aerated nipple with stove cap on vent.

Sec. 59—Validity. Should any section, clause or provision of this code be held unconstitutional or invalid by any court, all other sections, clauses and provisions shall nevertheless be deemed effective just as though such unconstitutional or invalid section, clause or provision had never been inserted in this code.

Sec. 60—All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 61—Any person, firm or corporation, violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed One Hundred Dollars or to imprisonment for a period not to exceed thirty days or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Made, passed and adopted by the Township Board of Plymouth Township this 1st day of April, 1946.

If You Are Waiting... For Electric Service

For the first time in over 40 years, some Detroit Edison customers are having to wait an unreasonably long time for connection to our service. Even though our power plants, substations and high voltage lines are ready to take care of new customers immediately, transformers and other accessories for connecting them to our lines are hard to get. Manufacturing problems of our suppliers have slowed deliveries of such material.

Orders for new electric service are being filled immediately where lines can be run from existing transformers. And requests for service requiring the installation of new transformers will be filled in turn as quickly as this material is available.

If you are waiting for electric service, please bear with us. We are doing everything possible to hasten that service to you.

"Michigan and the Old Northwest"

1712: Detroit's commandant, alleges local Foxes are besieging his fort.

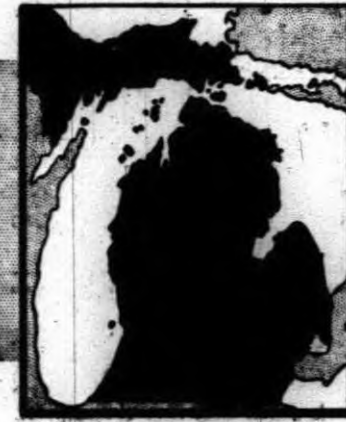

About 100 warriors escaped Detroit slaughter to rejoin Wisconsin tribesmen.

The Michigan and Wisconsin area of conflict with the Foxes is shown here.

Failing to break the siege, fearful for their families, the Foxes surrendered.

Reports from northern Michigan indicate that there was a "good business" over the Fourth, but that it was nothing like what had been expected. No one had to sleep in their cars as they did a few years ago — and travelers were able to find fairly good accommodations.

The constant warnings about careful driving also had its beneficial results. The number of traffic accidents was far below the expected results.

Whether it is the strikes, the inability of people to get automobiles, the fear in driving old cars or the disturbed Washington political conditions—or all of these reasons—that kept large numbers of people off the highways over the Fourth holiday is not definitely known. But there wasn't the rush to the northlands that had been expected.

Froggers who have made a business of supplying restaurants and hotels with frog legs are in for some amateur competition this season, now that many are discovering for the first time the ease with which this meat may be collected "on the jump."

One enthusiastic amateur gathered up a good dinner for four—18 big bull frogs—in a few hours the morning the lake fishing season opened, on a marsh in one of the conservation department's southeastern Michigan state recreation areas. Legs of the common smaller and more abundant frogs are equally esteemed as delicacies.

Most frogging is done at night, when bass viol soloing guides the hunters, but spears may not be used with artificial lights. Skinned and salted on the spot, the meat needs no other preparation for the table than rolling in flour and frying.

Copies of "Canoe Trails of Michigan," one of a series of brochures or handbooks being published by the Michigan Tourist Council for guidance of tourists and travelers in this state, have been received by the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau and can be obtained by writing to the Tourist Council in Lansing.

Such information as routes, river conditions, camp sites and water locations of 36 streams in Michigan are contained in the guide, besides a large sectional map showing meanderings of each stream. The information for the booklet was gathered from conservation officers, guides and others who have had experience with canoes on the streams described.

Telling whether the streams are for experts only or whether novices can run them, where to obtain supplies for trips, how far and how long each trip is, the 40-page handbook describes 11 canoe trips to be taken in the Upper Peninsula. They are on the Black River in Gogebic county; on the Presque Isle in Gogebic county; on the Ontonagon river, Ontonagon county; on the Point and Net rivers Iron county; on the Michigan river in Marquette and Iron counties; on the Menominee river in Dickinson and Menominee counties; on the Escanaba river in Dickinson, Marquette and Delta counties; on the AuTrain waters in Alger county; on the Tahquamenon river in Luce and Chippewa counties; and on the St. Mary's in Chippewa county.

Supplementing a larger size book, "Michigan—a Jewel of Many Facets," the Tourist Council also is publishing booklets, of which "Canoe Trips" is part, on "Good Hunting in Michigan," "Where to Fish in Michigan's Upper Peninsula," "Winter Sports in Michigan," "Historic Michigan" and others. Any of them can be obtained by U. P. Chambers of Commerce by writing to the Tourist Council.

Field observers for the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service are reporting that this spring's flight of ducks has been the poorest in many years, Albert M. Day, director of the Service, said today. Waterfowl populations are greatly reduced in all sections observed, particularly Canada, Mr. Day announced.

"This year the Service is making a wider coverage of the waterfowl breeding grounds than at any time in the past," said Mr. Day. "Two Service planes are now in Canada making extensive and intensive surveys of waterfowl abundance and distribution. We have added another waterfowl observer to our staff, Arthur Hawkins, who is assisting Robert H. Smith, Mississippi flyway biologist. We are making a greater effort to get more facts on nesting conditions in 1946 than we have ever had before."

Mr. Day cited one sample report made by Flyway Biologist Smith on June 14, from Delta, Manitoba, Canada. "I have covered areas that were heavy duck producers in 1942 and 1943," the report stated, "and even in 1945, but today the story is the same everywhere. The duck populations are greatly reduced. Some marshes and potholes that look ideal for ducks have none at all."

"In the light of what we have seen, and judging from reports from the West, I can only reiterate that in my opinion the situation is serious and drastic reductions in the kill are in order." A spring report made by Albert Hochbaum, of the Delta Waterfowl Research Station in Canada, operated by the Wildlife Management Institute of Washington, D. C. declared. "The spring flight was the poorest we have seen at Delta. The decrease in mallards and pintails was marked. There was no indication that lesser scaups had recovered from their deep drop of last spring. The breeding population is the lowest at Delta since the middle 1930's. It is considerably smaller than it was in 1938."

Mr. Hochbaum's report showed that no increase was recorded for any species; decreases were noted for mallards, pintails, blue-winged teals, redheads, and the lesser scaup. Species remaining about the same as last year were gadwalls, baldpates, green-winged teals, shovellers, canvasbacks, and golden-eyes.

"The individual water areas which we have checked from year to year are greatly reduced in the number of birds they carry this year," the report continued. "For example, one small area which held 16 breeding pairs of the nine species in 1945, held but two breeding pairs this year—a pair of mallards and a pair of gadwalls. This in spite of the fact that water level, food, and nesting cover are unchanged on this spot. It is the same elsewhere in the marsh and in the bordering region. Numerous areas suited for breeding ducks are devoid of them this year. The marsh has never been so seriously under-populated."

The report concluded: "Considering the fact that the total breeding area is greatly reduced and the remaining waters are under-populated, it is clear that duck production in the Delta region will be the poorest in years."

C. J. Henry, manager of the Service's Lower Souris National Wildlife Refuge in North Dakota, on the Mississippi flyway, reported to Director Day, "This spring's flight of ducks has been the poorest in the history of the refuge and there does not appear to be any local reason for the poor showing."

"Diving ducks were the only ones to appear in any number approaching normal numbers. There was a good flight of lesser scaups, probably about average, while the canvasbacks and redheads were only slightly below normal. Gadwalls and mallards were very scarce."

How To Save Freezer Space

Plymouth has probably more patrons of freezer storage space than any other city of its size in the country.

Naturally any suggestions pertaining to the use of cold storage lockers is of interest to a very large number of people in this vicinity.

From 30 to 40 percent of your freezer storage space can be saved if meat is boned before packaging, according to L. J. Bratzler of the department of animal husbandry at Michigan State college. Boneless cuts are easier to wrap, can be wrapped tighter, and will store better than comparable bone-in cuts, he adds.

He also advises the housewife to plan the meat cutting to the family's tastes. If steaks are not enjoyed, the cheaper cuts can be ground and used for meat loaves, chili and hamburgers.

Ground meat, he says, does not store as well as steaks or roasts. If pork sausage is to be frozen and stored, it is recommended that all of the seasoning ingredients except salt be mixed in with the meat. The salt can be added during the cooking process. Salt, he believes, accelerates the development of rancidity and should not be added to the pork sausage before freezing.

Cured meats do not store well in a frozen condition because of the salt.

Bratzler recommends that all meat be tightly wrapped with a moisture-vapor proof material that is elastic, tough and pliable. Beef and lamb supplies should be consumed in six or seven months, while pork and veal should not remain in lockers over three or four months. This, he believes, will insure the meat being at the best quality.

If you have any items of interest about your family or friends please call Plymouth 6.

Gives Brides Tips On Home Making

Numerous June brides, in addition to wives of returning servicemen starting housekeeping for the first time, have resulted in many newcomers at meal-planning, food-shopping and meal-preparation. That is why Emma Dubord, Home Demonstration Agent for Wayne County believes a little "menu mathematics" may be handy information at this time. The number of servings from one pound of fresh vegetables varies. Fresh lima beans, peas and spinach will provide two or three servings per pound, while fresh snap beans, kale and carrots make three or four servings per pound. Out of a pound of head lettuce, red or green peppers, five servings can be obtained, while leaf lettuce and raw salad greens make eight servings to the pound. Canned or frozen lima or snap beans or peas make four servings to the pound. Miss DuBord reveals that a pound of oranges or grapefruit, in the form of sections or in juice, will make two to three servings, but if canned, a pound will serve four. Fresh tomatoes will serve three to four per pound and canned tomatoes four per pound. Potatoes and sweet potatoes will serve about four per pound. Five to six cups of dry beans will make 6 to 10 servings. Boned or boneless cuts of meat will serve about four to the pound, while ground meat will serve five to the pound and ready-to-eat meats about six to the pound. Meats with bone, such as chops, and poultry and whole fish, will serve only two or three to the pound.

It is needless to tell the housewife that soap saving is a real necessity these days. But Miss Laura P. Davis, extension specialist in home management, gives the homemaker a few tips on how to make the soap go further and how to make the clothes cleaner. Too much soap in the washing machine not only is wasteful but does not do as good a job as the right amount. It is wasteful to use soap as a water softener. There are many softeners on the market today and they are less expensive than soap. Water softener, however, should be thoroughly dissolved before the soap is added. It will, however, reduce the amount of soap required, if you give it a chance to do its job before you add the soap. Give it three to five minutes. Always measure the quantities to be used, after determining by experimentation the right amount necessary for the water you use. A two-inch suds on the wash-water is the most desirable. Find out how much soap it takes for that suds, then measure the amount in the future. A thorough rinsing of the clothes will lengthen the life of the fabric, Miss Davis contends. Not only do you have that "tattle-tale-gray" look in your white clothes if not properly rinsed, but you will weaken the textile fibers. Hot soft water is ideal for rinsing. Soft water dissolves the soap without leaving a scum or sediment. The first rinse should be about the same temperature as the suds and of

Strawberries for Food Lockers

Housewives in and around Plymouth who have food lockers and are planning to save what few strawberries they can get for use next winter, will be interested in knowing the proper way to prepare them for freezer locker storage. Emma DuBord home demonstration agent of Wayne county, suggests the use of the Michigan State College recipe as shown in Extension Bulletin 208 "Preservation of Fruits and Vegetables by Freezing." She advises homemakers to obtain this bulletin from the county extension office as it provides tested recipes for the freezing of all fruits and vegetables. In freezing strawberries, select only bright red, firm, ripe berries. Avoid green or over-ripe fruit. Sort, wash hull and drain thoroughly. Handle quickly. For best results, make a 40 per cent syrup (3 cups of sugar to 4 cups of water), bring to a boil, and cool thoroughly. Fill the containers to one-half inch or the top with berries, add syrup, preferably enough to cover fruit, and seal container. A crumpled wad of waxed paper placed under the lid of the container just before closing will help hold the fruit under the syrup and prevent browning on the surface.

We're standing in line, too

MOST materials are hard to get. Some are available only in limited quantities. Others can't be had at all.

With you it's butter and sugar and shirts and many other things. With us it's lead and copper and steel and lumber and brass and textiles — and many other things needed in the manufacture of telephone equipment.

A few months ago it looked as if things might be getting better. But disturbed conditions have tightened up the supply situation. In recent weeks, material shortages have been more critical than during the war.

We have found many substitutes, made some old materials do, and practiced all kinds of short cuts in an effort to meet a situation that is far from normal.

Right now, we hope that most of the orders for telephone service received before the first of this year can be filled by the end of the year. In some areas, of course, we expect to complete many orders received this year. But it may be late next year before we can return to a "ready-to-serve" basis everywhere.

We're moving just as fast as we can, and as supplies improve, we'll get going full tilt.

* Long Distance lines and switchboards serving Michigan resort areas are extra busy this summer. On calls to and from those areas, you'll get better service by avoiding the rush hours — 10 A.M. to noon and 7 to 9 P.M. Keeping calls brief will help, too.

Official Proceedings of the City Commission, City of Plymouth, June 3, 1946

The regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chambers of the City Hall on Monday, June 3, 1946 at 7:30 p.m.

Present: Mayor Lidgard, Commissioners Corbett, Davis, Shear and Taylor.

Absent: None.

The Clerk read the minutes of the regular meeting of May 20, 1946, and they were approved as read.

It was moved by Commissioner Taylor and supported by Commissioner Corbett that the bills in the amount of $18,124.28, as audited by the Auditing Committee, be approved.

Ayes: Mayor Lidgard, Commissioners Corbett, Davis, Shear and Taylor.

Nays: None. Carried.

The Clerk read the following reports: Health, Treasurer's, Veteran Councillor's and Fire.

It was moved by Commissioner Shear and supported by Commissioner Corbett that these reports be accepted and placed on file. Carried.

A communication was received from the State Highway Department, stating that Plymouth Road could not be re-surfaced this year.

A communication from the Wayne County Road Commission stated that plans for the interceptor sewer to serve the south end of the city are being prepared.

A communication from the City of Grand Rapids, relative to Sales Tax, was received.

Another communication was received from the Myron H. Beals American Legion Post No. 32, stating that after June 1, 1946, the Post would not assume the responsibility for the maintenance and upkeep of the memorial in Kellogg Park.

This was the night set for a Public Hearing to determine whether or not to construct a curb, gutter and blacktopping on Edison, from South Main to the end of Edison.

There were no objections.

The following Resolution was offered by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Davis:

WHEREAS, a Public Hearing has been held for the purpose of determining whether or not to construct a curb, gutter and blacktopping on Edison, from South Main to the end of Edison, and

WHEREAS, no objections have been received by the City Commission, and

WHEREAS, the Plan, Profile and Estimate covering the proposed improvement has been accepted and is now on file in the office of the City Engineer.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That this Commission approve of and declare its intention to proceed with the construction of a curb, gutter and blacktopping on the above mentioned street.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Assessor be directed to prepare an Assessment Roll covering the cost of the improvement.

Ayes: Mayor Lidgard, Commissioners Corbett, Davis, Shear and Taylor.

Nays: None. Carried.

Mr. John Blyton, representing the Fire Committee, submitted a report making recommendations for the improvement of the Department.

The Commission requested that the report be studied.

An ordinance to abolish Ordinance No. 73, known as an ordinance creating a fire department for the Village of Plymouth, was read.

It was moved by Commissioner Shear and supported by Commissioner Corbett that proposed Ordinance No. 29 be passed its first reading.

Ayes: Mayor Lidgard, Commissioners Corbett, Shear and Taylor.

Nays: Commissioner Davis. Carried.

Commissioner Davis wished to be recorded as voting no because he wanted more time to study the ordinance.

It was moved by Commissioner

Corbett and supported by Commissioner Shear that Proposed Ordinance No. 129 be passed its second reading by title only.

Ayes: Mayor Lidgard, Commissioners Corbett, Shear and Taylor.

Nays: Commissioner Davis. Carried.

It was moved by Commissioner Shear and supported by Commissioner Corbett that the Motion of July 19, 1920, approving the Constitution and By Laws of the Fire Department and any amendments thereto be rescinded.

Ayes: Mayor Lidgard, Commissioners Corbett, Shear and Taylor.

Nays: Commissioner Davis. Carried.

It was moved by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Taylor that the report of the Fire Committee be accepted and placed on file. Carried.

Mayor Lidgard read the resignation of C. H. Elliott, from the position of City Manager and Clerk of the City.

May 27, 1946

Honorable Mayor and City Commission of Plymouth, Michigan.

Dear Gentlemen:

With deep regret I submit herewith my resignation from the position of City Manager and Clerk of the City of Plymouth.

This resignation is necessary because of an opportunity for advancement in the field of Municipal Administration.

It is difficult to express in words, my sincere appreciation for the confidence that this Commission and other governing bodies of the City of Plymouth have placed in me during my tenure of office. It has been a privilege to serve as City Manager and to have been associated with so many genuine people as you have in Plymouth.

I will consider it an honor to be called upon to render any service to the City in future problems of Administration, and I will gladly give as much time as possible to the solution of them.

When you have selected my successor, I shall be pleased to instruct him in all matters of administration.

Again let me thank you for the cooperation you and the citizens of this city have given me and for the honor and pleasure I have had in serving this community.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. ELLIOTT
City Manager

SHE:lk

It was moved by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Davis that the resignation of C. H. Elliott be accepted with regret. Carried.

It was moved by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Shear that the meeting be adjourned. Time of adjournment 9:15 p.m. Carried.

Present: Mayor Lidgard, Commissioners Davis and Shear.

Absent: Commissioners Taylor and Corbett.

At this meeting, Mr. Harold R. Cheek and Mr. James L. Galloway were interviewed for the position of City Manager and Clerk.

No official action was taken, and the meeting was adjourned.

Official Proceedings of the City Commission, City of Plymouth, June 10, 1946

A special meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chambers of the City Hall on Monday, June 10, 1946 at 7:30 p.m.

Present: Mayor Lidgard, Commissioners Corbett, Davis, Shear and Taylor.

Absent: None.

The City Manager presented an appraisal made by the District Real Estate Company, on property necessary for an alley between Forest, Ann Arbor Trail, Harvey and Wing.

After considerable discussion, it was moved by Commissioner Shear and supported by Commissioner Taylor that the City Attorney be requested to stop condemnation proceedings on the above alley.

Ayes: Mayor Lidgard, Commissioners Corbett, Davis, Shear and Taylor.

Nays: None. Carried.

A communication was received from Helmer A. Nelson Superintendent of Schools, relative to water rates. The manager suggested that the three schools be billed as a single unit rather than furnishing the water at a flat rate.

It was moved by Commissioner Taylor and supported by Commissioner Shear that the water used by the Plymouth Schools be billed as a unit.

Ayes: Mayor Lidgard, Commissioners Corbett, Davis, Shear and Taylor.

Nays: None. Carried.

At this meeting, Mr. G. P. Rocks was interviewed for the position of City Manager and Clerk.

It was moved by Commissioner Shear and supported by Commissioner Corbett that the resignation of Ernest S. Roe be accepted with regret. Carried.

A communication was received

Made Member of Training School Control Board

Not only were members of the board of supervisors highly pleased over the selection of Mrs. Johnson but those who have known of her work, as well as that of her husband in behalf of unfortunate boys and girls, were to know that she would take a place on the Training school board. Mr. Johnson has for years been state president of the Michigan Children's Aid Society.

Mr. Shear had the support of all the supervisors of this locality in his successful effort to place Mrs. Johnson on the board.

The happiest, sweetest, tenderest homes are not those where there has been no sorrow, but those which have been overshadowed with grief, and where Christ's comfort was accepted.— J. R. Miller

Compensation Claims Drop

The Plymouth office of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission paid unemployment benefits to 395 unemployed people in Wayne county for the week ending July 6, according to Grace H. Miller, chief claims examiner.

This figure includes 139 unemployed veterans paid readjustment allowances and 256 industrial claimants paid from the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund. Included among the industrial claimants were 100 women.

According to Mrs. Miller there were 25 initial claims for the week, a decrease of 49 since the previous week. Of this number 12 were veterans and 7 were women.

We're Sorry

There'll Be Less Cake But No More Bread

The government has just reduced our sugar allotment for the three months starting July 1st to 60% of the amount of sugar which we used in the same period of 1941. This is going to mean that we will be able to make less of the baked goods you like—because we are not magicians and we need ingredients to make palatable baked goods.

Statements made by government officials that the cut in our sugar allotment would increase our bread production are incorrect. Government officials have been informed and they know that bakers cannot make bread out of the flour they use for cakes and pastries. The statement was apparently made in order to place the blame for a shortage of bread upon the bakers, rather than upon the short-sighted and stupid policies which the government has been following. Right now it is almost impossible for us to get bread flour as a result of these policies. How, then, can we produce more bread? And with our sugar allotment cut, we must curtail our production of other types of baked goods.

If you believe—as we do—that starving people abroad should be fed but that none of the wheat and flour purchased by the government should be used for other purposes until the food requirements of our own people have been taken care of, won't you write to your Congressman and Senators and tell them so?

25 YEARS OF A QUARTER OF A CENTURY TAKEN FROM THE FILES OF THE PLYMOUTH MAIL

E. K. Bennett left Wednesday evening for Walloon Lake to spend several weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stevens and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Root and son spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stevens.

Miss Margaret Mehlbeck and brother Henry spent the Fourth with their brother, Walter and wife. Henry took a ride in an airplane.

Mrs. Egluff, son Harry, wife and baby, and Misses Lydia and Nellie Sessions of Detroit, were Fourth visitors of Mrs. Egluff's son, Edward Egluff and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Arms of Milford were guests at H. C. Robinson's the first of this week.

Herman Toussaint of Northville spent the Fourth with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dunham.

Frank Rambo, who has been confined to his home for the past two weeks on account of illness, is improving.

Mrs. J. D. McLaren was an over Sunday guest of the Misses Mary Conner and Alma Wheeler at their cottage at Walled Lake.

Edgar N. Durfee and family of Ann Arbor were visitors at the home of the former's uncle, George Durfee on Sutton road, last Monday evening.

A Campbell reunion numbering about sixty was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Campbell, in Canton, last Sunday. A pot-luck dinner and supper were served, and the day was enjoyed in a quiet but pleasant way. Guests were present from California, Florida and Michigan.

A night-blooming cereus at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown on East Ann Arbor street caused considerable interest last week Thursday evening, when one of its beautiful white blossoms burst forth into full bloom. Many friends called during the evening, and it was indeed an interesting sight to flower lovers.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Ball spent the Fourth at Hastings, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron P. Willett left last week Thursday for a motor trip to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Norgrove and daughter Helen are visiting friends at Iosco, Mich.

Leon Willett and wife and Ross Willett of Detroit visited at Ed Willett's over Sunday and the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rowe and son Russell, and Miss Grace Stowe of Fowlerville; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Purdy and Miss Hannah Doan of Detroit, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Smith, over the Fourth, Miss Stowe remaining for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Scudder of Boston, Mass., were Plymouth visitors last week enroute to their home from California, where they had been spending the winter. Mrs. Scudder was formerly Jeanne Markham, daughter of Dr. William Markham, a resident of this place many years ago. She was looking up her ancestors and called on Miss Louise Markham, a second cousin.

George C. Hull, of Lansing, was a guest Sunday of his aunt, Miss Anna McGill.

Fred Bogert and family of Ann Arbor visited Mrs. D. W. Packard on Main street Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Detroit spent the Fourth with the latter's sister, Mrs. E. Estep. William Sutherland and family and R. R. Parrott and family spent the Fourth at the former's cottage at Base Lake.

Frank Whitbeck, who has been in the West for several months in the interests of the Detroit Vapor Stove Co., is home on vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jewell and little son were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Wilson at Decker-ville the Fourth.

Mrs. Fred Stocken of Ann Arbor was a week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Orr Passage, on Maple avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Richwine and son Alton attended a reunion of the Johnson family at Wyandotte the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Grey, Mrs. George Meddaugh and son Archie motored to Fenton Sunday where they visited Mrs. Grey's brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Campbell motored to Greenville, Sunday, returning home Monday. They were accompanied home by the former's father Dr. S. E. Campbell.

Louise Spicer and Herbert Miller, county champions of club work, 1920, are spending the week at the M. A. C., with other club champions of the state. The girl's cooking club had a picnic at Walled Lake Saturday.

Sheldon Gale, who was prostrated by the heat, last Friday, is getting along nicely.

LOOKING AHEAD FIVE YEARS
Babson Park, Mass., July 12—

A book has been written by me and published by Harper & Brothers entitled, "LOOKING AHEAD FIFTY YEARS." In this book, I discuss various subjects, such as the future of investments, the development of new industries, the changes in farming, the outlook for small businesses and the possibility of labor law.

Numerous readers have written to me saying, "I will be dead and gone in fifty years. Tell me what you expect during the next five years." Of course, this is a more risky thing to do. I, too, will be dead before the end of fifty years, while I hope to be around for the next five years! But here is how I now feel about the immediate future.

EXPECT LOW INTEREST RATES

I expect continued low interest rates. Hence, since money doubles in 15 years at 5 per cent, should you not seek 5 per cent interest with reasonable safety rather than speculate even on the "long swings" of the stock market? Of course, you can't pick 5 per cent investments off blueberry bushes. You must take time to hunt them up and find them.

Certainly, you should not be satisfied with bonds that pay less than 4 per cent interest unless they are either tax-exempt or convertible.

DAYS OF MASS UNEMPLOYMENT OVER

I expect continued employment among the masses or else government aid for them when unemployed. The upper middle-class people and the well-to-do will continue to have their up-and-downs; executives will again have their salaries reduced and their dividends cut with corresponding declines in stock prices; but the days of mass unemployment are over for many years.

The American people are not going to let labor leaders rule them; but the days when employers can be arbitrary are also over. Hence, if the Republicans hope to return to office they must realize that we are living in a new world, whether they like it or not.

No political party can survive another era of low wages. If private industry cannot continue present wages, the government will do so or else provide wage subsidies. Hence, in view of the above, are not the merchandize stocks, the food producers and similar concerns the safest investments? Remember, high wages are to continue.

REAL ESTATE A PRIME INVESTMENT

I expect a continued demand for properly-located real estate, especially for homes. Next to food and clothing, reasonably-priced homes should continue as a prime investment. Hence, I believe that your first investment should be in a home and enough fertile land for a "kitchen garden."

Houses depreciate, but well-located land should appreciate.

Try to avoid large cities, especially on the coast. Unless a great spiritual awakening occurs, the chances are that World War III will come, when some of our large cities will be totally destroyed.

INVENTORIES vs MUNICIPAL BONDS

I expect that money invested in inventories, good stocks and homes will continue safe when many municipal bonds may be in default. This situation now exists in Mexico, which is our nearest neighbor, and in most of the Latin-American countries. England is destined to follow suit as well as other countries.

We have already seen many municipal bonds of Southern cities default and sell for 20 cents on the dollar, while the sales of the Chain Stores in these same cities held up. Hence, are government and municipal bonds a truly prime investment? May not certain merchandizing and other stocks be safer in an emergency?

CONCLUSION

Diversification is of great importance, but such should be applied geographically as well as industrially. Above all, should not our investments in coastal cities, subject to bombing, be very limited? This does not mean there will be another War in five years, but it does mean that within five years people will become war-conscious and begin to readjust and reallocate their securities and real estate holdings. This readjustment process could greatly affect prices. Settle in a small interior city and buy securities with assets in such cities.

Seek To Improve Turkey Quality

Production of a better and meatier turkey to satisfy the ever-increasing year around market in Michigan is the goal of the Michigan Turkey Growers Association. Meeting on the Michigan State college campus recently, directors of this group took additional steps to improve the quality of birds going to market.

Cooperation with the MSC program for using only the higher quality turkeys for egg production, development of better feeding programs as well as dressing and marketing operations is a part of the plan.

To better acquaint growers with improved methods, the association will hold a State Turkey Tour on September 18 and 19. A number of flocks will be visited where improved facilities may be inspected.

While the number of turkeys being produced this year is about 15 per cent under the million birds grown in Michigan last year, the general trend is upward. Shortage of feed, as well as higher prices for feed, caused decreases in flocks this year. In the past eight years however, Michigan's production has increased from 400,000 birds in 1938 to approximately one million in 1945.

While the average flock in Michigan is below a thousand birds, some growers raise as many as 18,000 to 20,000 turkeys annually. The gross wholesale returns from such flocks are well over $100,000 annually.

Directors of the association include: R. A. DeWitt, Zeeland, president; Homer George, Carson City; D. Van Ommen, Zeeland; Bernard Clement, Britton; E. P. Haines, Vassar; H. J. Painter, Alma; Kenneth Lyle, Paw Paw; John Ruesink, Adrian and O. E. Shear, MSC poultry specialist, East Lansing.
