THE ANSWER MUST BE STRICTLY YES OR NO.

In view of the distressing events around the world and the belligerent attitude of Russia towards its friends that saved the Soviet from destruction by Hitler, it is high time that we make EVERY Communist in this country stand up and be counted. He is either FOR the United States or he is FOR Russia. Belief in Communism is belief in Russia and belief in Russia in these times is disbelief and disloyalty to these United States. The time is here for this country to demand a yes or no answer from EVERY Communist as to just where he stands. If he is for Russia, there is but one thing for the people of these benevolent United States to do, kick him out of the country so quickly that he will never know how it all really happened. He's NO GOOD around here.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.

Not so long ago one of the scientists who helped develop the atomic bomb declared that it might be far better for the United States to step out right now and conquer the nation or nations that still threaten the peace of the world before they have time to develop an atomic bomb for their own use. War is a terrible thing, but if it is to be forced upon us at sometime in the not too distant future, it might be far better to follow the advice of this scientist and do the job now, rather than wait until the war-making nation or nations have the same weapon to use against us. It is a singular fact that Russia is the only nation in the world that didn't demobilize after Hitler had been defeated.

THE BLACKEST ADMINISTRATION IN HISTORY.

So you think the Congressman May scandal is something outrageous, do you? It is. Facts so far revealed show that his conduct during the war borders mighty close to the traitorous line. But the May scandal is a mere drop in the bucket compared to some things that will be revealed, say Washington reports. A Washington correspondent a few days ago wrote that a Southern ardent New Deal congressman, had failed to do anything about information which had been given to a committee of which he is chairman for investigation showing that billions and billions of dollars, (yes, that's right) billions of dollars had been actually stolen from the people during the New Deal phantasmagoria of spending. Republican members of this committee have unsuccessfully made efforts to get at the bottom of this stealing, but so far have been unable to get at the facts. The wife of the New Deal congressional chairman of this committee, it is known, was given a $2,500 diamond bracelet by a contractor who had built a ship for the navy. It seems that the congressman's wife broke a bottle of wine on the ship's bow as it was launched. We have said before—and we say it again—that when history is written the Roosevelt New Deal administration will be known to future generations as the most corrupt not only in the history of the United States, but of the entire world. What a shame—what a disgrace.

IS COMMUNISM TREASON?

The Michigan Constitution defines treason to the state in the following words: "Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it or IN ADHERING TO ITS ENEMIES, giving them aid and comfort." It has become increasingly evident that the Communist party is an enemy of the state. It is known to be openly "ADHERING TO ITS ENEMIES" and is giving aid and comfort to a nation that gives every indication of desiring to overthrow the government of these United States of ours. Permit me to ask — if that is not treason as defined in the constitution of the state of Michigan, then what is TREASON? It is true that we aided Russia to defeat a common enemy—but at no time since that enemy was defeated has Russia given the slightest evidence of being a friend of the United States. The Communist party in these United States is supporting every move that Russia makes. It is doing all within its power to disturb conditions in this country, just as it did in Germany before Hitler rose to power. It will be denied, but there is not the slightest question but what 99 percent of all the strikes are inspired by Communists. Is it not treason, in view of all the facts, for a person to be a member of the Communist party in the state of Michigan, or in the United States? We definitely think it is TREASON—and there is only one way to treat traitors.

CONGRATULATIONS TO WJR.

Not so many months ago, a returned veteran of World War II, who in addition to doing his part to help American troops fight their way into Japan, won much popularity among his fellow GIs by his songs at night time, was looking for a job as a radio singer. WJR offered to GI Fred Kendall the opportunity he was looking for. Alert Don Large who developed the popular WJR chorus, was quick to discover the new "talent," he had added to his group. In the brief time this returned veteran has been with WJR he has won for himself a solo part on a new WJR program, "Indian Summer Days" that will be presented each Wednesday evening at 7:15 during the month of September. Plymouth is interested in the success of this veteran because while in Japan he met and married the former Evelyn Ambler, who was doing her part in helping to win the war by serving in the Red Cross. Their wedding was the first in Japan of two Americans wearing the uniforms of these great United States. Again, congratulations to WJR for starting a returned Vet on the road to success. Our prediction is that within an exceedingly brief while, Mr. Kendall will become one of the outstanding radio singers of the country.

WOULD YOU FAVOR IT?

If you live in any of the townships or in the villages of Michigan, it is essential that you re-register for the fall election. State officials a year or so ago decided that all of the voting precincts of Michigan should have what is termed a permanent registration system. This was made mandatory for cities a number of years ago, but for some reason townships and villages were exempted from the provisions of the act when first passed. Now that Michigan is to have the permanent registration system for the townships and villages as well as cities, it is ABSOLUTELY necessary that you re-register at least 20 days before November 5, if you desire to vote in the fall election. And let it be said right now that Michigan NEVER had a more important election than the one that will take place on November 5. There is one issue before the voters of Michigan — and

Seven Changes Are Proposed To City Charter

Plymouth electors will have the opportunity to vote separately on seven proposed amendments to the city charter at the biennial election on Nov. 5.

Each amendment has been approved by Gov. Harry F. Kelly. In order to provide electors with a brief but accurate account or just what the proposed changes are The Mail has prepared the following digest.

Section 4 of Chapter 2 requires provide for the method of nomination of candidates for city elective office. These sections as re-written, conform more closely to state procedures.

Section 4 of Chapter 2 requires that a petition signed by at least 25 registered electors be filed with the City Clerk to qualify a candidate for any elective city office. The Clerk must also publish notice of the last day to file nomination petitions at least 1 week and no more than 3 weeks before the last day for filing.

Section 5 of Chapter 6 states that the written consent of the candidate must be filed with the nomination petition if the petition is filed by someone other than the candidate. Within 5 days after the nomination petition is filed, the city Clerk must notify the candidate in writing either that the petition has the required signatures or that it does not have the required signatures.

Section 6 of Chapter 2 was re-written so that if the city has a spring primary election, it will be held on the same day as the ## Government—For the People or Against the People?

The Plymouth Board of Education found itself this week right smack in front of a situation which according to Congressman George A. Dondero was just another instance of "Government Against the People."

Superintendent Helmar Nelson Monday not only had the worries of school opening on his desk but he was confronted with a problem so great that it took the helping hands of Congressman George A. Dondero and State Police Commissioner Oscar Olander to help find an opening wedge in the solution of his headache.

The trouble all started early last spring when the school boilers were deemed unfit for further service. Prompt action on the part of Mr. Nelson and the Board of Education at the close of school brought about the removal of the old boilers and tentative orders were placed for new ones as early as April. As soon as definite delivery dates were given the school early in June contracts were awarded for their installation and all of the necessary materials for their installation were ordered from suppliers in Detroit. Delivery of these materials was to be made the first of September at which time the first boiler was to arrive from the manufacturer. The boiler arrived but on August 27 the C.P.A. (a Federal agency) froze most of the materials that were needed to complete the installation. Plymouth's pipe, elbows, connections and other items were included.

Faced with the fact that although one boiler was on the

Patriotic Unit to Open Season Next Monday

Principal speaker for the occasion will be Mrs. Elaine Stones, of the Burton Historical Branch of the Detroit Public Library.

Merchants Differ On Parking Meter Installation

From early indications the public hearing to be held on September 30th concerning the installation of parking meters will be one of the best attended hearings ever held here.

A brief survey of local business houses revealed the fact that local business men are about equally divided on the subject although those in favor of the project seemed slightly more enthusiastic than those opposed. Many arguments were advanced by both sides. The main one from the opponents standpoint was the fact that parking meters would drive trade away from the city because of the fact that slight infractions would cause penalties to shoppers which would tend to drive them to other shopping areas.

Those in favor of the meters pointed out the fact that shoppers coming to the city would be better able to park and therefore the city would gain trade because of the easier accessibility to downtown stores.

In both cases however, those for or against the meters, were willing to be convinced that the other side was right and after all the consensus of opinion was that the people that did the shopping were the ones that should be pleased.

Several women shoppers were also asked over the weekend as to their pleasure in the matter and so far the inquiring reporter has yet to find one that wouldn't welcome the meters. Their main reason being that with meters they felt it would be much easier to find parking space near the stores when they wanted to shop. In any case the subject is being given much study by merchants and city officials and the September 30th hearing should prove an interesting one.

Joint Rites Held By Legion Posts

New officers of the Myron H. Beals and Passage-Gayde American Legion posts were installed last week at joint ceremonies held in Newburg Hall.

The impressive rites conducted by the very able ritual team of Oakland County Voiture 40 and 8 made up of Legion posts from Farmington, Pontiac, Royal Oak, Southfield and Ferndale. Special guests at the ceremonies included Plymouth's own Lyle Alexander, state adjutant; Earl Genshaw, state commander; and Joe Nickols, commander of the seventeenth district.

The joint rites were concluded with a fine lunch served by the ladies auxiliaries.

The national goal of 20 million gardens for 1946 is an increase of more than a million over 1945.

Detroit News Photo Proves Harry Robinson Tiger Ball Fan Forty Years

Proof that Harry Robinson, prominent Plymouth auctioneer, is a veteran and rabid Detroit Tigers fan came to light last week. In a picture taken in 1908 at Bennett Park, forerunner of Briggs Stadium, printed Sept. 4 by the Detroit News, Mr. Robinson is shown attending a game with Mrs. Robinson and the late Ira Wilson, at that time a well known Plymouth dairyman. The picture, which the Mail is pleased to reproduce above through special permission of W. S. Gilmore, editor and chief of the Detroit News, shows the late Mr. Wilson leaping to his feet with arms upraised. Mr. Robinson is the distinguished looking gentleman in white shirt and straw hat to the right of the picture and beneath Mr. Wilson. Mrs. Robinson's hat and her eyes can be seen at the extreme right, although she is nearly hidden by another woman in the front row. Mr. Robinson does not recall just what occasioned Mr. Wilson's jubilation nor does he recall what game it was. He was happily surprised to see the old print and prove that he is probably Plymouth's oldest Tiger rooster.

An Ounce of Prevention . . . Police Chief Warns Parents Of Dangers Lurking On City Streets

Former warnings by Police Chief Lee Sackett failed to bring the response his department felt was necessary for the safety of local residents. The fact that there have been several instances where local women have been molested by a prowler at night, one as recently as last Friday, and in spite of the fact that one young girl was seriously attacked by a man that picked her up in a car, and that two other parents after learning of that experience reported similar, though not as serious, experiences with their daughters to the police department, Chief Sackett thinks another serious warning at this time most appropriate.

Plymouth like many other communities is unfortunate in the fact that it does have some dangerous individual that might willingly do bodily harm and it is with this thought in mind that Chief Sackett is asking parents to take extraordinary precautions at this time. Parents are asked to accompany their daughters when it is necessary for them to be out at night. All residents are asked to report immediately any suspicious person or persons that might be seen. Women are asked to use extreme care when they are away from home alone in the evening.

The last appeal Chief Sackett made for local residents to trim shrubbery that was close to the sidewalk and to remove all weeds that were tall enough to conceal anyone was practically ignored he said. He is particularly anxious that weeds be removed from areas near sidewalks and from around entrances to buildings and homes. Areas such as these present ideal hiding places at night.

Local police are alert to their problem but they need the cooperation of local residents. Another worry that the department now has is in regard to traffic and all of the children that are on the streets before and after school hours.

A patrolman has been detailed to the corner of Adams and Church street to help congestion there and one is down town during the busy hours but local motorists are asked to use more than ordinary caution as they drive about the streets on school days.

Plymouth has had an excellent record in the past in regard to traffic accidents involving children and Chief Sackett is anxious to avoid any serious accident this year.

Concert Social To Be Wednesday

The Starkweather Parent Teacher Association will sponsor a joint concert by the Plymouth Civic Band and an ice cream social, Sept. 18, on the grounds of the Starkweather school.

In Chicago, Paul Zimmerman went to a police station to pay a parking fine, returned to his car, found it burgled of $1,000 worth of jewelry.

Names of 10 Plymouth Enlistees Announced

Ten more Plymouth men have enlisted in the Regular Army of the United States, according to Staff Sergeant Norwood Boadway, of Ann Arbor, who is in charge of local Army Recruiting.

Hi-12 Club Hears Survey Executive

Local Hi-12 club members had an opportunity to learn of the work of a state taxpayer organization and become conversant with some of the federal governmental problems which are facing the taxpayers of the nation, Wednesday, September 11 when Rolland E. Fisher, representative of the Michigan Survey spoke at the weekly meeting of the club.

Mr. Fisher has been active in the public relations and organizational work of state taxpayer groups for a number of years, and has a first-hand knowledge of the work being accomplished throughout the nation and in the State of Michigan by organized taxpayers. The speaker is a former newspaper man from New York State and for a number of years was regional field representative of the Citizens Public Expenditure Survey of New York State a sister organization of the Michigan Survey. He has been actively identified with Junior Chamber of Commerce movements throughout the nation, particularly in the affairs of governmental improvements.

The speaker's topic covered the activities of the Michigan Survey and its program to re-awaken Michigan's citizenry to its civic responsibilities and bring better government at lower costs to the taxpayers. Particular attention was given to the national governmental picture and the various pieces of Federal legislation in which taxpayers are interested. The members of the local club found the remarks of great interest and importance as we wrestle with the problems of post-war readjustment and peace-time reconversion.

Over 500 Attend Grand Opening

More than 500 persons attended the grand opening Tuesday night of the new Plymouth Recreation Rooms. Most of them expressed themselves as feeling it was truly a place "Where Good Friends Meet."

In the local players tournament that was a feature of the opening Norman Wilson took first prize. Jim Brinegar, Douglas Prough and Carl Hosier were other winners in that order. Following the local tourney, Jimmy Moore, state billiard champion, gave an exhibition of fancy and trick shots. He also engaged Norman Wilson in a straight pool match. Naturally Mr. Moore won by a wide margin but Mr. Wilson gave a good account of himself.

Baskets of flowers for the occasion were sent by the Wood-Johnson Insurance Agency, Parkview Recreation, Wick and Ash Service Station, Brunwicke-Balke-Collender Co., and the Williams family.

At this time the Plymouth Recreation Rooms operators—Marian, Roy and Homer Williams—wish to publicly thank the donors of flowers for their opening and for the reception accorded them by the public of Plymouth.

Former Plymouthite Gets Post In Germany

Miss Alta L. Fisher, a graduate of Plymouth High school and an employe in the office of the Wayne County Superintendent of Schools, is one of the nine persons selected by the government from Michigan to work with the schools in occupied areas.

Miss Fisher, who received her Master of Arts Degree from the University of Michigan this summer, will sail soon from New York for Frankfurt, Germany. Her assignment is not now known and will not be made until she arrives in Germany.

To enable her to accept the appointment, Miss Fisher has been granted a year's leave of absence by the Wayne County superintendent of schools.

In Chicago, the Brookfield Zoo's giant anaconda, "El Diablo," gave birth to 21 baby anacondas, was hastily renamed "La Diabla."

Small Vote Is Expected Monday At City Election

At a special election to be held next Monday, Plymouth voters will be asked to approve a thirty year franchise to the Detroit Edison Co. The franchise, already approved by the City Commission, requires a 60 per cent vote of the people before it can be ratified and become effective.

City officials have pointed out that the proposed franchise is merely a protection to the power and light users. In reality the agreement only gives the Edison Co. the right to furnish power to Plymouth users and the use of the Plymouth streets and alleys for its lines. The franchise is not exclusive and any other power company could, with the City's permission, bring their lines to Plymouth and enter into competition with the Detroit Edison Company.

The proposed franchise was approved by the City Mayor and Commission only after long and careful consideration of the public's interest. In its approved form it is believed it will give the city every possible protection.

Under the terms of the City Charter any public utility seeking a franchise in Plymouth must bear the entire cost of the required special election. The election Monday will be held at no cost to local taxpayers.

The election polls will be open as usual from seven o'clock in the morning until eight o'clock in the evening. Voters will vote at their usual voting places.

While a small vote is expected Monday, the Franchise is of such importance to the city that every voter should make an effort to cast a ballot.

Praises Work Of Local Rotarians

Joseph V. Brady, district governor of Rotary told local Rotarians last Friday that the need for understanding and service was greater today than ever before. "Understanding for each other and the understanding of other nations is the only thing that can possibly avert another great war," he said.

Bringing greetings to the Plymouth club from the other clubs of the 153rd district, of which Plymouth is a member, the governor praised highly the work undertaken by the local club. He commended the officers for their efforts to place the Rotary there before club members and the community and said international understanding could best be brought about by an exchange of Rotary ideals and principals.

He also presented six club members with attendance pins given in honor of one year or more of perfect attendance. Those receiving the pins were Dr. B. B. Avel, two years; Charles Brake, three years; Tony Matulis, Elmore Carney, Edward Gardner, and Dr. A. C. Williams, five years and R. M. Daane ten years.

Stores Back On Full Week Basis

Plymouth merchants resumed their full hours of operation this week and the summer Wednesday afternoon closing is forgotten for another year. The city was one of the first in this section of Michigan to attempt to adopt the Wednesday closing as a whole and shortly after it went into effect here the plan was followed by Birmingham, Wayne, Ypsilanti and other neighboring communities.

Most of the cities stores open daily at nine a.m. now and close at six with the exception of Friday when many remain open until nine p.m. Most retail stores close Saturday at six p.m. School opening brought an end to summer hours and with the event of all fall season local merchants find their shelves ready for the usual back to school rush and many say that already they are beginning to get inquiries in regard to Christmas merchandise. It is generally felt by the merchants that their supply of goods for the fast approaching holiday season will be much more complete this year than it has been during the past five years and all are expecting a holiday season that will set a new high in dollar volume.

Oldsmobile Club Wins Plymouth Softball Title

Oldsmobile won its fourth and final game from the Cavalcade team, 6 to 0, to capture the Plymouth Twilight Industrial Softball League championship for 1946. The playoffs ran to eight games, according to Virgh C. Knowles, Plymouth recreation head.

The extra game was necessary when the third contest was called due to darkness with the score tied at 6.

Several persons have asked for comparative figures on the two hurlers performance in the playoffs. Mr. Knowles figured out that Wicker, who pitched seven games for Cavalcade, allowed an average of four hits, four walks and scored six strikeouts per game.

Street, who pitched all eight games for Oldsmobile, allowed five hits, one walk and scored six strikeouts per game. Likewise, who hurled the eighth game for Cavalcade, issued ten passes, allowed five hits and scored a lone strikeout.

The playoffs were attended by 8,284 spectators.

Wicker, Cavalcade's hurler, led the playoffs plate performers with an average of .347, with Williams of the Oldsmobile team placing second with .333.

Batting averages for each player in the playoffs follows:

Camera Club Program Slated

Following a three month recess the Plymouth Camera Club convened Monday night at the Photographic Center and outlined plans for the coming season.

The club decided to hold a field trip Sunday, Sept. 29. The itinerary and other facts pertaining to this tour will be announced at the club's next regular meeting, Monday night, Sept. 23.

It also was announced that the club had enrolled in the Photographic Society of America Traveling Salon. This action will make six salons available to the members during the next year. The first one in which they may exhibit prints is set for Oct. 1 at Los Angeles.

Club members also voted to hold an annual dinner and salon next Jan. 23. At that time a year-book consisting of each member's most choice print will be presented each member. The year-book will be published by the club.

Any amateur photographer in or around Plymouth or Northville is eligible to join the club and is invited to do so. The next regular meeting is at 8 p.m. Monday, Sept. 23, at the Photographic Center on East Ann Arbor Trail at Penniman.

The largest school of its kind is China's Central Police College in Chungking, where the members of all police forces in that country are trained. Established in 1936 and attended by about 4,000 students at a time, this school gives an intensive two-year course comprising 3,000 hours of classroom instruction in 48 subjects.

In School Days
Still sits the schoolhouse by the road.
A ragged beggar sunning;
Around it still the sumacs grow,
And blackberry vines are running.
Within, the master's desk is seen,
Deep scarred by raps official;
The warping floor, the battered seats,
The jackknife's carved initial,
The charcoal frescoes on its wall;
Its worn door sill, betraying
The feet that, creeping slow to school,
Went storming out to playing.
Long years ago a Winter sun
Shone over it at setting,
Lit up its western window panes
And low eaves' icy fretting.
It touched the tangled golden curls,
And brown eyes full of grieving,
Of one who still her steps delayed.
When all the school were leaving,
For near her stood the little boy
Her childish favor singled,
His cap pulled low upon a face
Where pride and shame were mingled.
Pushing with restless feet the snow
To right and left, he lingered
As restlessly her tiny hands
The blue-checked apron fingered.
He saw her lift her eyes; he felt
The soft hands light caressing,
And heard the tremble of her voice,
As if a fault confessing—
"I'm sorry that I spelt the word;
I hate to go above you,
Because"—the brown eyes lower fell—
"Because, you see, I love you!"
Still memory to a gray-haired man
That sweet child-face is showing,
Dear girl: The grasses on her grave
Have forty years been growing.
He lives to learn in life's hard school
How few who pass above him
Lament their triumph and his loss,
Like her—because they love him.

VENISON MAY BECOME DEAR IF YOU STILL HAVE SOME ON HAND
Plymouthites still having venison in their frozen food lockers at home or in public lockers plants are reminded that they are in danger of being arrested and heavily fined for such possession.
A representative of the Michigan Conservation Department was at the Purdy Market this week advising locker plant operators of this fact and dropping a friendly warning that unless such venison is disposed of they will begin making arrests.
Three Detroiters were arrested last week for such offenses and each heavily fined and their venison confiscated.

(Continued from Page One) grounds, C.P.A. permission had to be granted before the boiler could be placed in the basement. Mr. Nelson rolled up his sleeves and started down the list of approval facts necessary before government help would be forthcoming.

First, in order to secure permission to place the boiler in the empty boiler room it was necessary to secure proof from the State Fire Marshal that the old boilers had reached their maximum years in service. Since the head of the State Police is also State Fire Marshal he was consulted on the matter and though his department has at no time seen the boilers or had any information regarding them, on the basis of the fact they had been used for thirty years and on the statement made by the boiler insurance company, which the C.P.A. had seen, he gladly complied with the request to write a letter stating that the boilers should be replaced.

since the material that was ordered has been redistributed and a search will have to be made again, on receipt of the priority, for the needed material. The problem is far from solved but Congressman Dondero and Fire Marshal Olander are doing their utmost to help local school officials untangle the complex problem that the C.P.A. freeze has thrust upon the Plymouth school system.

that issue is—SHALL MICHIGAN PURGE ALL FORMS OF DISHONESTY FROM ITS GOVERNMENT or will this great and mighty state continue to permit its public officials to sell their votes and their influence and the state of Michigan to the highest bidding thief?

Voting is a mighty important business — in fact it is your most important public responsibility if you profess to be a good citizen.

The thought has sometimes run through my mind as to the possible benefits of mandatory voting... If a citizen, physically and mentally capable and in good standing within the laws of the state, should fail to vote in a regular election, what would you think of a law which would deprive that citizen of his rights under the laws of the state and nation he refused to help create?

We do not say we are in favor of any such a law, but so frequently have such large numbers of good, intelligent and respected citizens FAILED to vote, that we sometimes wonder if the state or nation should not take some steps to compel all qualified citizens to vote at the various elections of the townships, cities and state.

Not once, but many, many times during the weeks previous to an important election, we have heard good citizens say that they were so disgusted with public affairs that they would not vote in any election.

And that very citizen is the one who must bear his part of responsibility for such grafting and thieving as has been revealed in state affairs by Kim Sigler and Judge Carr.

What do you think of compulsory voting? At times we think it is the answer to our political problems — and again we wonder just how it would work out in the long run.

THEY OUGHT TO KNOW—AND DO KNOW.

Newspapers the other day reported that the taxation committee of the State Bar Association says that it believes the plan for "appropriating and distributing state revenues to the local units of government is not a proper matter for incorporation in the constitution."

We do not know what the State Bar will do with this recommendation when it meets in the next few days, but the tax committee of the Bar Association has displayed not only a lot of common sense but a knowledge of the dangers lying in any scheme to write into the constitution provisions relative to tax matters.

Writers of the constitution knew, as well as do the members of the tax committee of the State Bar Association, that tax problems are NOT a matter for inclusion within the provisions of the basic laws of the state.

We have said frequently that state aid for distressed cities CAN be provided in some way, but we certainly are opposed to writing any such provision into the constitution.

We have said before, and we say it again, that if this provision carries, Michigan citizens are writing into the state constitution a provision which makes MANDATORY FOR THE ENTIRE LIFE OF THE CONSTITUTION, a tax upon food and clothing. Who knows but that within the next two or three years conditions might make it necessary for the elimination of the tax on food and clothing? Here is one person who believes that maybe this tax can be eliminated in the immediate future, providing the sales tax continues to climb as it has since the creation of a consolidated state tax collecting system.

If Mayor Ed. Jeffries of Detroit and Mayor George Welch of Grand Rapids, backers of this unholy tax diversion scheme, want to do something for the distressed people of their cities, WHY don't they advocate a reduction of the state sales tax from 3 to 2 cents, or the elimination of a tax altogether on food and clothing?

No — that is not what they want. They want more tax dollars to spend, and they want to take it out of the state treasury because they assert that the state has more income than it needs.

If that is true — let's take the tax off from food and clothing — and let's do it at the next regular session of the state legislature.

Speak up, Mr. Jeffries and Mr. Welch! Why not take the sales tax off from the necessities of life. You say you want to help the people of your cities — well, here's a mighty fine way to do it.

Both of you know that it is fundamentally wrong to write into a state constitution provisions pertaining to tax matters, especially as to what to tax and who is to get the tax money.

Let me say right here, we are not so concerned about the cities and townships as we are the school districts of the state. They DO need help, and they need it in a big way. You dragged them into the scheme in order to get votes for your constitutional proposal.

You did this KNOWING that this fall the voters of Michigan are going to elect a Governor a strong backer of public schools and that the public schools of our state will soon have a sincere, progressive and enthusiastic public school advocate who WILL see to it that the schools get what they need in order to properly educate the youngsters of this state.

Maybe you do not realize it, Mr. Welch and Mr. Jeffries, but the issue you have forced upon the ballot this fall, is to our way of thinking, one of the most dangerous that has faced the state in generations.

You are wrecking the financial system of the state — and I am not so sure but what you are endangering the very existence of the public school system of Michigan — all for the purpose of adding to your income, dollars taken from all of the taxpayers of the state. Your proposal, Mr. Jeffries and Mr. Welch, is not only a mighty selfish one, but it is a dangerous one.

Plymouth Keglers Set For Big Year

More than 600 Plymouthites will participate in various bowling leagues this fall and winter which opened their schedules this week at the Parkview Recreation and Plymouth Recreation Bowling alleys.

With several of the returned veterans taking part and the added women's teams, local proprietors of bowling alleys look for an unprecedented season in the sport of kegling. All records for participation and games bowled should be broken if the enthusiasm now being displayed lasts all winter.

A house league of 16 teams will hit the headpins each Monday night at Parkview Recreation. On Tuesdays an eight-team Catholic league will bowl. A ladies' league of 16 teams will take over the alleys Wednesday nights. The Classic League of 16 teams is scheduled for Thursday nights. Friday nights the Lutheran League of eight men's and eight women's teams will bowl.

At Plymouth Recreation Bowling the following schedule will be observed:

Ladies' Classic League, eight teams, 7 p.m. Mondays; Men's Classic League, eight teams, 7:15 p.m. Tuesdays; Ford Motor Co. eight teams, 6:30 p.m. Wednesdays; Men's "775" League, eight teams, 8:30 p.m. Wednesdays.

Evans Products, eight teams, 6:30 p.m. Thursdays; mixed league, eight teams, 8:30 p.m. Thursdays; Wayne County League, eight teams 7:00 p.m. Fridays, and Daisy Air Rifles (mixed league) eight teams at 9:00 p.m. Fridays.

There still are openings on Monday and Tuesdays at the Plymouth Recreation Bowling for 8 and 8:30 p.m. leagues. Also in the Men's Classic League at 7:15 p.m. Tuesdays there is room for two additional teams. They must be made up of bowlers with 875 average and no handicap. Call Plymouth 9118 for further information.

There is no reason to fear that the famed beauty of the Michigan State college campus will be marred by the extensive building program now under way on the campus. Harold A. Lautner, landscape architect and head of the department of college architecture of the college, already has made plans for blending the new structures into the remainder of the campus.

H. S. Enrollment Drops; Better Deal For Students

Superintendent Helmer A. Nelson reported Wednesday that 150 less students had enrolled in Plymouth High school this year than the previous year.

He said that enrollment at Starkweather school had jumped between 50 and 60 students over the top figure of last year. At Central grade school the enrollment remains the same.

In reporting the decrease in high school enrollments, Supt. Nelson pointed out that it would result in a better school all around. The decrease in high school enrollment is due mainly to the fact that all Livonia ninth grade students are now being given instruction in the Livonia school system.

"For one thing, he said, it will eliminate overcrowded study halls and classrooms. Congestion and the attendant confusion also will be done away with."

"With the elimination of congested classes, Supt. Nelson continued, our teachers will be better situated to give more personalized attention to their students."

He explained that some students needed personal supervision if they were to keep up with the rest of the class. Large classes which tax the teacher's capacity prevent such supervision.

Supt. Nelson indicated that he and his faculty rather welcomed the drop in enrollment in the high school. It will simplify the faculty problems, make for better student-teacher relations and enable backward students to obtain the assistance from teachers to which they are entitled.

High school enrollment by classes is as follows: Seventh grade, 148; eighth grade, 156; freshmen, 222; sophomores, 257; juniors, 185; and seniors, 155.

Starkweather school's enrollment figures are as follows: Kindergarten, 64; first grade, 77; second grade, 62; third grade, 64; fourth grade, 69; fifth grade, 42; and sixth grade, 66.

At Central grade school the enrollment by grades is as follows: Kindergarten, 97; first grade, 97; second grade, 103; third grade, 79; fourth grade, 98; fifth grade, 81; and sixth grade, 85.

Supt. Nelson said there might be a few additional enrollments during the next few weeks. He said that classes were begun on regular schedule Tuesday morning.

Stop Look and Beware Friday The Thirteen

Superstition which has sacrificed countless lives, wasted untold treasures, embroiled nations, severed friends, parted husbands and wives, parents and children, filled jails and madhouses still lives on. Many are the superstitions held in regard to Friday the Thirteenth—the "holiday" of superstitions. Among those held is that Friday the Thirteenth is an unlucky date. For Friday some of the superstitions are:

Friday is regarded as unlucky because many people believe that it was on Friday that Adam and Eve partook of the forbidden fruit. . . . Evil will come to you if you start a journey on Friday.

It is bad luck to begin a job on Friday. . . . It is believed by some that if a garment is begun on Friday, you won't live to finish it or to wear it out. . . .

Friday night's dream on Saturday told
Is sure to come true, be it ever so old.

Or—sneeze on Friday, sneeze for sorrow. . . . If you cut your nails on Friday, you cut them for sorrow. . . . He who sings on Friday will weep on Sunday. . . . Friday is always the fairest or foulest. . . .

Thirteen is an unlucky number, teachers at a California teachers' college voted. . . . Many believe that Friday the Thirteenth is the real unlucky date. . . . It is bad luck to set out on a journey on the Thirteenth.

Adult Help Needed To Aid In Harvest Of Peaches, Apples

General farmers who have reached a lull in their own harvest and farm program can help pick peach and apple growers in the southwest Michigan fruit belt throughout the month of September. Don Hamilton, emergency farm labor assistant for the extension service of Michigan State college, this week cited a need for additional help.

More adult peach pickers are needed now for late harvest in Benton Harbor, South Haven, Allegan, Paw Paw and Cassopolis.

Flying Farmers May Organize At Lansing Meeting

Michigan farmers who fly planes or have an interest in flying may organize a state Flying Farmers organization. Some interest in such an organization has been shown by a number of farmers in the state and Michigan State College, the Michigan Department of Aeronautics, and the Michigan Farmer are cooperating to make possible a meeting.

Saturday, September 14 has been set as the date for the meeting which will open at the Lansing airport at 10 a.m. Milton Grinnell, editor of the Michigan Farmer, is arranging the program.

A display of commercial planes of the latest design will be at the airport and a luncheon and meeting is being planned at noon.

William Stout, Detroit, pioneer of aviation in Michigan and chairman of the Michigan Department of Aeronautics; Lt. Col. Floyd Evans, Lansing, director of the Michigan Department of Aeronautics and Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State college, will be among the speakers.

Flying Farmers clubs were originated in Oklahoma and recently a national convention for flying farmers was sponsored by Oklahoma A. and M. college at Stillwater. State flying farmers groups have been organized in Ohio, Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas and other midwestern states.

All Michigan farmers interested are invited to attend the meeting on September 14.

areas and will be needed about September 15 for apple harvest in these same areas.

In discussing the need for additional workers, Hamilton said that men can handle the heavy picking jobs, while women are valuable in picking from small trees and low branches and in packing the fruit. In most instances the work is too heavy and requires too much care for child workers.

As well as receiving a high hourly and piece rate wage, the workers are given an opportunity to purchase tree-ripened peaches in orchards for their own use.

Although housing is provided by many growers, Hamilton emphasized that pickers should provide their own sleeping and cooking facilities wherever possible. Applications for picking jobs may be made at the county agents' offices in any of the areas or at the emergency farm labor office at 361 Ninth Street in Benton Harbor.

MICHIGAN, My MICHIGAN

BY • ELTON R. EATON

This Wolverine state of ours, draws down the lion's share of the appropriation made by congress under the terms of the Pittman-Robertson act to be used for wildlife restoration projects during 1947. The state's portion of this appropriation will amount to $129,652. Texas follows, with $10,000 less than Michigan receives. California, Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio are next in order.

The fact that Michigan receives the largest share of this appropriation reflects district credit upon its Department of Conservation and the work it is doing. The federal government simply matches funds used by the state in this work.

But to the credit of Michigan, it can be said that its work in wildlife restoration far exceeds that reflected in dollars spent. While there is no definite way to make a positive check, except by comparisons such as this, Michigan residents can rightly believe that no state in the Union can compare with this one in conservation progress.

Michigan leads in so many ways that it would be difficult to enumerate all of them. It is possible that other states have as good standards of protection for the buying public as Michigan, but none is superior to that of this state.

We have reference especially to the buyer of food and other articles by weight and steps taken by the state to protect that buyer.

What does the state do for his protection?

Let Director Charles Figy of the department of agriculture answer that question.

"Has a customer a right to see the weight registered on the scale when making a purchase?" Michigan says YES.

Recently a citizen wrote to Director Figy stating that in a market where she frequently made purchases, the scales were placed down low with a high counter show-case in front, and large cans of pickles on top of the show-case so that it was impossible to see what weight was registered. Also the face of the scale toward customers was dark so figures were not visible.

The State regulation governing the position of weighing or measuring devices requires that a weighing or measuring device used in retail trade shall be so positioned that its indications may be accurately read, and the weighing or measuring operation observed from some reasonable customer position.

Another writer asked if it was legal to sell ice cream by weight. We receive numerous complaints about short measure from consumers in their purchase of ice cream. Some ice cream dealers have been attempting to sell ice cream regardless of the measure. Michigan law requires ice cream to be sold by liquid measure, gallons, quarts, pints, etc., and ice cream must not be sold by weight.

Many requests are received daily by Miles Nelson, Chief of the Bureau of Marketing and Enforcements for testing different types of weighing and measuring devices, especially scales of widely varying capacities. According to state law, the Department must, upon written request of any citizen, test or calibrate weighing or measuring devices used as standards in the state. It is the policy of the Department to do so as promptly as possible, but so often the written requests fail to give enough information to permit the handling of such matters as expeditiously as we would like, says Director Figy. Too many requests simply state, "Will you please have an inspector test our scales," without giving us any idea about the size of the scale. It takes much different equipment to test a large capacity scale, such as a truck or livestock scale, than it does the counter scale in a grocery store or market, or the prescription scales in a drug store, although the Department is equipped to test all types of scales.

Any persons desiring to have scales tested should tell the type of scale they have, because scales of over 1,000 pounds capacity must be tested by our large capacity scale testing truck with its crew of two men, while all other weighing devices are checked by our district inspectors, who carry sufficient equipment to test any scales up to 1,000 pounds capacity.

Ten concerts featuring four symphony orchestras, a colorful choral group and five well known artists will be offered in the 68th Annual Choral Union Series at the University of Michigan, according to Charles A. Sink, president of the University Musical Society.

What state, other than Michigan, can offer its citizens such an outstanding series of musical events?

The series of concerts will be opened Thursday, October 10, by the American tenor, James Melton. Concluding concert on Sunday, March 16, will present the Chicago Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Desire Defauw.

Egon Petri, Dutch pianist, will appear on Wednesday, October 30, followed by the Cleveland Orchestra under the direction of George Szell on Sunday, November 10. Yehudi Menuhin, New York-born violin virtuoso, will be featured on Tuesday, Nov. 19.

The Icelandic Singers will inject unusual color in the series when they appear in Hill Auditorium on Monday, November 25. These singers represent the best in choral groups in Iceland, a country where singing is the national pastime. The Icelandic Singers, under the direction of Sigurdur Thordarson, will be making their first tour of the United States.

The Boston Symphony Orchestra, with Serge Koussevitzky as conductor, is scheduled for Monday, December 9.

No concerts are booked during the Christmas holiday season so the next number in the series will be held on Friday, January 17, with Vladimir Horowitz, Russian-American pianist, as the soloist. On Monday, February 17, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will perform under the direction of Conductor Karl Krueger.

Lotte Lehmann, leading soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will appear on Wednesday, February 26, and the Chicago Symphony's performance on March 16 will conclude the series.

Season ticket sales will be continued by the University Musical Society at the Burton Memorial Tower until Monday, September 23, when the remaining tickets will be broken up and put on sale for the individual concerts.

Here's E. S. Humphrey talking about his farm

"Sometimes I'm five men—and so are each of my helpers. Today, we're loafing—just doing about two men's work apiece."

"Sounds like a riddle, Mr. Humphrey."

"No riddle. See that potato field? Seven of us planted those 25 acres in 10 hours' time. But—without my electric potato cutters to get 'em ready for planting—and other modern equipment—it would have taken thirty-five men to do the job."

"Golly—what a saving!"

"Yep. Electricity does a lot of our work more cheaply. Right now it's lighting my five-story chicken house—keeping my cattle inside a little one-wire fence—cooking supper—cooling the refrigerator—running the water heater. It may be washing the clothes and sweeping the rugs, too, for all I know."

"But doesn't that give you a big electric bill?"

"It's only a small fraction of one man's monthly wages. Electricity is the best of hired hands—it's never tired, it never talks back, and the more it works the lower its hourly wage. As a matter of fact, electricity is about the biggest bargain on my farm."

For your enjoyment, the Detroit Edison Company presents "THE ELECTRIC HOUR" over WJR at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, and H. C. L. JACKSON on WWJ at 12:15 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

An Autumn Scene In Michigan

Little cabins nestled deep in the woods now are in a framework of brilliant coloring as Fall paints the woodlands in reds and yellows and browns, the first warning of winter's approach.

Fall Colors Calling Tourists To View Their Beauty In Northern Michigan

It's the season of hazy blue smoke over the countryside, piles of golden yellow pumpkins along the highways, fields of shocked corn—and a general feeling of peace and plenty.

It's autumn in Michigan, the most beautiful season of all in this state of fall beauty. Sumas in deep red along the highways very like the flames of Indian ceremonial fires—a sort of healing peace after the hectic days of summertime vacations.

Yes, Michigan is beautiful in the Fall, beautiful from the Irish Hills in the southern edge of the state to Copper Harbor, at the tip of Keweenaw Peninsula, and from the sand dunes along Lake Michigan to the Lake Huron shoreline of The Thumb. A veritable spreading blanket of rich and lusty color—the Fall dress of maple and oak and ash contrasting with the bright green of the conifers. And a thousand lakes, nestling among the rich coloration like turquoise and amethyst, and blue skies flecked with the white of floating clouds.

Up in the Indian country around Harbor Springs and Cross Village the ancient ceremonies are being staged, the tribal rituals in which the Great Spirit is thanked for another year of life and food, and farmers are snuggling down their farms for the winter months. The hunter is ready to take the field for the bountiful crop of game birds. Nature gives Michigan year after year, and blue and red flowers along the country roads rear their heads bravely in their last parade until next year.

It matters not in the least where you travel in Michigan you will find this magnificent parade of color. Down Adrian way, that country with a wealth of old maples breaks into golden-red glory. The Irish Hills are ablaze with color. Up the western coastline, from Benton Harbor right into the Traverse area and on into Mackinaw City, there is the same parade; through The Thumb there is a bit more hardwood and a richer brown in the woodlands. Up through the center of the state, ranging from Oakland county northward to the Straits there is the richness of the combination of willow and beech and ash and oak, with the added beauty of the conifers. The Upper Peninsula, with its pine forests, parades a still different coloration, no less rich and certainly no less beautiful.

Roadside parks—and they are legion over the state—literally beg you to pause for a roadside luncheon—beg you to light a fire and cook your food in the great outdoors. Stoves are there—and fuel. And the smart lover of the outdoors will plan to do considerable cooking along the way, not in the main for its convenience, but because food cooked outdoors always has a taste found not in the swankiest restaurant. But it is the color mainly which should make this Fall travel unusually enchanting. Fields along the highways are in their last flowering of red and blue blossoms—the sunlac flames—and the highways themselves are dappled in the lacework of sunlight and shadow. The rush and flurry of summer has disappeared—it is a more leisurely world. Robins are assembled in little flocks, ready to begin their long flight southward. An occasional cock pheasant struts across the highway, blash fellow confident that he can beat the hunter's gun. In the upper reaches of the state you'll see a deer or so nibbling greens along the road, and it isn't unusual to see a black bear waddling off into the undergrowth.

Several Michigan areas run Fall color tours over plainly marked routes leading into the most beautiful vistas. This is not-

Duck Hunters Are Given Warning

One-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour before sunset is the legal daily span for shooting waterfowl this season, but hunters are cautioned against guessing the starting and stopping hours from a glance at the sky.

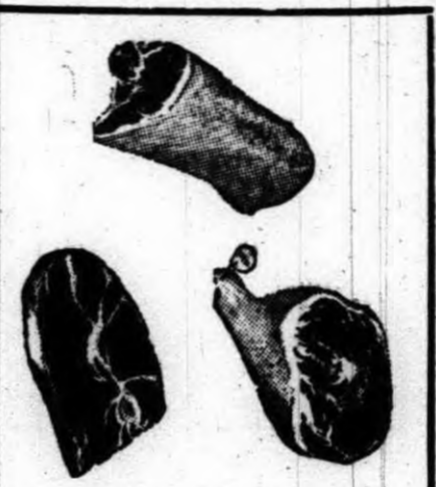

A watch and the official timetable will be much more dependable, the conservation department advises. Since the hours vary from week to week and from county to county, hunters are advised to clip the official timetable appearing in newspapers, or consult local conservation officers for specific information on local shooting grounds.

The Grand Traverse section is another ineffably beautiful area in the Fall, especially Old Mission and Leelenau Peninsula, for both fingers of land are framed in the great expanses of blue water, and in that area there is the added interest of Indians and Indian ceremonies. That, too, applies around Petoskey and Harbor Springs, for the Ottawas around Harbor Springs have just staged their highly colorful memorial ceremonial for the sons of the tribe who didn't return from the war. Almost time now among the Ottawas for the traditional Ghost Supper, one of most ancient of their ceremonies, that strange festival in which the Indians feast from well-laden tables in a central spot and then return to their homes leaving much food for the feasting of the spirits of those who have died over the year.

Do the spirits feast on the earthly food? Well, the Ottawas will tell you that next morning the food left on the tables has disappeared!

So—well, let's take a final whirl at seeing Michigan the Magnificent before snow falls.

It is the old lesson—a worthy purpose, patient energy for its accomplishment, a resoluteness undaunted by difficulties, and then success.—Punshon

City To Have 20 At M.S.C. This Fall

One of the fastest growing "cities" in the State of Michigan is the campus of Michigan State College at East Lansing. A year ago the college provided housing for less than 3,000 students, but with the completion of its present building program, it will be possible to house 9,200 students in college-operated housing early next year.

That population of 9,200 students isn't all of it either. About 1650 students will have with them their wives and children, as will 130 faculty members to be housed on campus. Dependents of married students and faculty members are expected to total about 3,300, bringing the total on-campus population to about 12,500 people late in the winter.

Fall term classes at Michigan State college will begin on Sept. 30, with a record enrollment of about 10,500 students expected. Some 23 students from Plymouth will be enrolled in the college this fall.

Activity for new students, an estimated 4,000 of them, will start a week earlier on Monday, September 30. The orientation program will open with a conconvocation at 1 p.m. with Dr. John A. Hannah, president of the college, as the main speaker.

Following the convocation the new students will meet in groups with their counsellors. Those who already have picked their major course of study will also meet their enrollment officers to discuss program of study.

Tuesday, all new students will undergo examinations of various types, such as psychological, reading and English tests. These new enrollees also must have a complete physical examination by college health authorities.

All students, old and new, start registration on an alphabetical schedule on Wednesday, September 25, and actual classroom work will start the following Monday, September 30.

BABSON

BABSON DISCUSSES SELECTING STOCKS

Babson Park, Mass., Sept. 13.—We hear much about stock market "averages," especially the Dow-Jones Industrial Averages which are pretty much the standard. This Average was 381 early in 1929; it fell to 41 in 1932; since then it has gradually crawled back (with a break in 1937) to 212 a high in May, 1946. Since then there has been a decline, so that the Average today is about 181.

THE DOW THEORY

In addition to watching these believers in the "Dow Theory" so-called. This is that a change in the cyclical trend of the market is indicated when there is confirmation in the individual price movements of the industrial group and the railroad group of stocks. Such a change of trend is said to have taken place when both groups break through an earlier fairly recent top or bottom of the group's averages.

My own opinion is that in the years ahead, between now and World War III, much less attention will be given to these or any other Averages. They will mean much less in the future than in the past. As for the Dow Theory, I believe this has fulfilled its usefulness and we will hear much less about it from now on.

SELECTIVE MARKETS AHEAD

Nothing in sight suggests there will be any less idle money to invest during the next few years even though more securities are being issued. Therefore, the buying demand should exceed the desire to sell; in fact, many of those who sell will ultimately reinvest in something else. People may change their investments from stocks to other forms of securities, or may put the money into houses, automobiles or other things. The money, however, will continue to exist in someone's pocket or bank account.

My own guess is that we are facing a very selective market. As the international situation becomes more intense, wise investors will sell securities of corporations which have most of their assets in large U. S. cities which will probably be destroyed if World War III occurs. Then they will seek out companies which have their assets well distributed throughout the country mostly away from large cities.

WATCH INVESTMENT COUNSELLORS

Investment counsellors and investment trusts are already busy seeking out such corporations and switching their funds accordingly. This probably explains why stocks like Greyhound, General American Tank Car, Corn Products, Diamond Match, St. Joe Lead, United Fruit and certain oils and sulphurs have gone up above the Averages; while stocks like the railroads have lagged. Surely, the stocks of certain chain store companies with their merchandise distributed among hundreds of small communities throughout the Central West or South should be safer investments than the stock of a large department store in some big coastal city.

As these investment counsellors get underway in their studies, their clients will create a buying power which may well cause much higher prices in so-called "war-proof" stocks, and much lower prices in "war-vulnerable" stocks. How this will affect the Averages, no one can now tell. These investment counsellors will also again give much consideration to the effects of inflation upon securities. If World War III comes, it cannot help being followed by wild and uncontrolled inflation.

SELECTING INDUSTRIES USING LITTLE LABOR

There also is one other consideration which is already making this a selective market. I refer to labor demands. Wise investors are selecting stocks which employ a comparatively small amount of labor. Hence, the ideal investment is one which would fulfill these three requirements:

- (1) A company with most of its assets outside of large vulnerable cities.
- (2) A company which would not suffer from severe inflation.
- (3) A company which has a comparatively small labor cost.

To me, the merchandizing chains, operating in the Middle West, best fulfill these three conditions and in such I, personally, have considerable money.

In Pittsburg, Paramount employees sought a picnic place in South Park, were offered choice Warner Grove, indignantly refused, took Monongahela Grove instead.

Professor Paul A. Herbert, head of the forestry department at Michigan State college, has been named chairman of a national committee of foresters which will study the problem of keeping the forestry teachers in the country up-to-date in their methods. The ing of the teachers by agencies group houses to arrange for harkworking in the field so that the teachers can learn by actual practice.
