Vol. 59, No. 7 Plymouth, Michigan Friday, October 18, 1946 $2.00 Per Year in Advance

"HAD ENOUGH."
Radio commentators in the east have been having much to say about a big electric sign flashing over the city of Boston. It reads: "Had Enough! Vote Republican." There seems to be some sense to that one.

KEEP THIS IN MIND, MR. VOTER!
If you are induced by some special groups to cast your vote in favor of proposal No. 2 on the ballot November 5, you are voting to force the legislature to increase the present sales tax of 3 cents to at least 4 cents, but more likely 5 cents. If you desire higher taxes, be sure and vote for proposal No. 2. If you don't like higher taxes then vote against it.

"A DISGRACE TO THE NATION."
Carter Glass, who served in the United States senate for a long period of time and who was regarded for years as one of the great leaders of the Democratic party, made a speech in October, 1936 which carried with it a prophecy that we are right now beginning to realize how true was his prediction. Senator Glass, a Democrat, said:
"The New Deal, taken all in all, is not only a mistake, it is a disgrace to the Nation. And the time is not far distant when we shall be ashamed of having wandered so far from the dictates of common sense and common honesty."
It has taken only ten years of the New Deal to bear out the prediction of Senator Glass, that "The New Deal" is a disgrace to the nation."

DO YOU REMEMBER THE ARGUMENTS?
Remember back when congress was discussing the merits and demerits of the proposed Wagner labor act? Remember the claims made for it that it would put an end to the strikes in this country—that there would be peace and harmony among the workers and employers? What is the answer to those claims?
In the 11 years before the enactment of the Wagner law there were only 11,830 strikes in this country, involving a total of 5,919,484 workers.
In the 11 years since the enactment of the Wagner labor law there have been 38,521 strikes, involving 19,354,519 workers. And that total does not include the strikes that have taken place in this country since July 1 of this year. This is more than three times as many strikes as took place during the previous eleven years before we had the unAmerican Wagner labor act on the statute books.
We have said before and we say it again—that the Wagner labor act came from the brain of a foreign born mind steeped in all the ill-will, hates and greed of the Central European groups that have kept that continent embroiled in war since the beginning of time.
And don't fool yourself—unless the Congress of this country gets rid of this foul piece of legislation, we might not be so far from the same sort of conflicts that have torn Europe asunder for centuries.

SO YOU DIDN'T REGISTER!
Unless you were sick or away from home on business and didn't register in the townships where re-registration was made necessary this year, you have lost your chance to vote in the forthcoming November election.
You can't vote in one of Michigan's most important state elections in years. You can't vote to stop a two or three cent increase in the sales tax, which is bound to come unless constitutional proposal No. 2 is defeated.
If the "gimme boys" are able to put over constitutional proposal No. 2, don't you dare say one word when the legislature is forced to increase the sales tax on the food you eat and the clothing you wear in order to keep the functions of the state government in operation. Don't you dare say one word about what may or may not happen up in Lansing or down in Washington in the next two years. You deprived yourself of that right when you didn't register.

IT PAYS TO LOAF.
There was a time when man lived by the work he did. The more he worked, the more he had. The less he worked, the less he had. The same rule applies today as it did years ago to the man who is willing to work and does work.
But there is a new scheme in this great land of ours. It is the scheme which enables the loafer to loaf and eat just as much, and sometimes better, than does the man who does an honest day's work.
If Mr. Loafer gets fired from a job for loafing, or if he gets laid off because somebody else is loafing, all he has got to do is make application for unemployment compensation and a good sized check will keep coming to him for three months or more while he loafs about. Under the law a loafer is supposed to register with the employment office and if he is offered a suitable job and doesn't take it, he is supposed to be cut off from his weekly loafing check.
But what happens under the putrid system that now flourishes like a skunk weed?
Mr. Loafer says he doesn't think he is suited for the job that has been offered him and he will not take any other job that might be open. So, under the law, the employment office must send a notice to the unemployment compensation commission that Mr. Loafer has refused a job at good wages, therefore stop sending Mr. Loafer his unemployment compensation check.
Does the check stop coming to Mr. Loafer?
Of course not!
Didn't we start this scheme in order to find a way to buy up votes with the other fellows' money? Didn't we?

Elect Officers Thursday Oct. 26
The organization of a Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion, Passage-Gayde Post No. 391, Plymouth is well under way, thanks to the assistance rendered by the Plymouth Mail, and the attendance of many interested wives, mothers and sisters of American Legion members and Ex-Servicemen.
The second and fourth Thursdays of each month has been set as the regular meeting night, and Thursday, October 24, an election of officers will be held.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dettling of Manchester were Saturday afternoon and dinner guests of Mrs. Homer Singer and Mrs. Jessie Leonard.

Help! Help!
Because of the exceedingly serious paper shortage it is essential that The Mail know as early in the week as possible the amount of space available for advertising and news. If you will do what you can to get your news, want ads and display advertising in as early as possible in the week, it will help greatly. Again this week several hundreds of inches of advertising and news matter is being left out. Please help by getting your copy in early—earlier the better on Monday and Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Collins are the proud parents of a son, George Edward, born October 4 at Sessions Hospital in Northville, weighing 8 pounds and 1 ounce.

School Men Grab Slicker "Bait" On Proposal No. 2

George A. Smith, former superintendent of schools of Plymouth and one of the best posted educators of the state, told citizens attending a meeting of the local Forum Tuesday evening, that proposal No. 2 on the ballot at the fall election, was a slick scheme to help larger cities at the expense of the entire state, and that the school aid clause written into the amendment was nothing more than "bait" to get votes for the scheme.
Mr. Smith, who has made a careful study of the proposed constitutional amendment, urged voters to strongly oppose it. He said in part: "With I could kid myself into the belief that Amendment No. 2 would solve our financial dilemma in public education. It must be so comforting."
"Let's look at No. 2."
"A.—One-half cent of sales tax (present base) goes to cities, townships and villages. (absolutely) distributed on the federal census basis. In 1940 Wayne County had 38.34 percent of Michigan's population."
"In 1944 and 1945 Wayne County paid 47.2 percent of the sales tax, therefore for every dollar, which 'cities' and etc. would receive, it would cost you and me a dollar and twenty-three cents. Do you want to pay 18.8 percent of your sales tax dollar for its collection?"
"Michigan Tax Study Commission" recommended that cities be allowed to collect one-half cent sales tax, keeping $1.00 for every $1.50 of tax collection. Wouldn't that be more sensible and just?"
"B.—One-half cent goes to schools (and schools census basis) absolutely, but requires legislative enactment for schools to receive 42.64 percent of the sales tax, collected by the state during the preceding year."
"The sponsors of 'No. 2' (Detroit and several cities, having the 15 mill tax limitation) say that the legislature has no choice but to pass the necessary 'enactment.' 'No. 2' says the legislature shall etc."
"The state constitution Article 5—sec. 4 also says 'At the session in 1913 and each 10th year thereafter the legislature shall, by law, rearrange the senatorial districts and apportion anew the representatives among the counties and districts according to the number of inhabitants, using as the basis for such apportionment, the preceding year."
"You will observe 'Article 5—sec. 4' and amendment No. 2 are almost identical in their wording, and the 'cities' have failed in their attempt to force reapportionment."
"In consideration of the 'cities' repeated failures to tap the state treasury, it is evident that the sponsors of 'No. 2', premeditatedly, wrote it exactly as they wanted it to read. They knew that the legislature could not be forced to appropriate more money for schools than what it believed to be really necessary and could be harmonized with other necessary appropriations, any more than the 'cities' have been able to force 'Article 5—sec. 4'."
"What the 'cities' wanted was to force those interested in education to force an entrance, for the 'cities', into the state treasury."
"Some of the leaders in education to my amazement, have grabbed the bait and like the man, who grabbed the bait by the tail, they would gladly let go of the 'bait', if they dared."
"By 'No. 2' cities, townships and village get $20,000,000.00 more."
Wayne County gets (38.34 percent) $7,668,000.00 but to receive $7,668,000.00 we in Wayne county must pay $9,431,640.00 ($7,668,000 x 1.23) or $1,763,640.00 more than what the collecting agency returns to us. The 'cities' want us to pay the $1,763,640 as a sort of a bonus. Detroit needs the money and is especially glad to have the tax-covers pay the bonus—ARE YOU HAPPY TO PAY THE $1,763,640.00 BONUS?"
"Schools receive $20,000,000.00, divided according to the 'school census.'"
"The school census included the names of public school pupils (between the ages of 5 and 19 years inclusive) and also the names of all attending parochial city, which has one-half of its pupils attending parochial and private schools would receive twice as much per pupil in its public school, as would a city or rural district which provided education for all of its boys and girls."
"Unfair? Well its just the way the 'City Slickers' wrote the amendment."
"Of course they tell you the amendment says 'the legislature shall etc.' They knew this was a joker, just read again 'Article 5—sec. 4'."
"If the crafty City Wizards intended to be honest in dealing with education, why didn't they have the amendment read 'The collecting authority shall send to the school districts along with and in addition to the 1. The primary school interest fund and 2. The one-half cent on each dol-

Voters Rush to Register at Last Minute-Heavy Registration Here

It appears that voters in this part of Wayne county do not propose to let the November 5 election get by without voting.
In both Plymouth, where re-registration was not necessary, and in Plymouth and Canton townships, the registrations were exceedingly heavy during the final three days.
What the totals are, is not yet known, but both city and township officials were surprised at the large last minute registration.

Auto Driver Crashes Into Side of Train, Painfully Hurt, Car Wrecked

Failing to see a train standing on the track across Starkweather avenue, Charles Roberts, age 20, of 48530 Powell road, shortly after midnight Saturday night, crashed into the side of a baggage car and was painfully hurt and his Ford car was badly wrecked.
Roberts was coming from the north, and the railway flagman was on the south side of the train, the youthful driver failing to see the swinging lantern or the train.
He was taken to Eloise hospital in the Schrader ambulance where his injuries were treated. He returned home early in the week.

Will Celebrate Her 102nd Birthday in Plymouth Today

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Ingraham, great-aunt of Mrs. Ralph G. Gutz, wife of the manager of Hotel Mayflower, will observe her one hundred second birthday anniversary today, Friday.
In her honor Mrs. Lorenz will entertain at a family party this afternoon. Mrs. Ingraham, who fell and fractured a hip two years ago, will come from the River-view Rest Home for the occasion. Until her accident she lived with Mrs. Lorenz.
Mrs. Ingraham was born in Maryland right on the Pennsylvania border. She has a vivid recollection of the Civil War and can provide many entertaining hours for those who wish to learn of the Civil War days first hand. Three of her brothers were in the war. Two began their service with the Union Army, while a 3rd one, visiting in a Confederate state when the war broke out, was forced to serve with the South for a while. Finally he escaped to the North and joined his brothers for the remainder of the war.
Mrs. Ingraham also has a set day her brothers came home from service. She smiles and wryly remarks, "Mother spent the day delousing them. She burned their clothes."
One of her brothers participated in Sherman's March to the sea. From him she got several relics and she also obtained many Civil War souvenirs from various battle scenes by visiting them personally.
Mrs. Ingraham also has a set of four cups and saucers from which George Washington ate. She got them from her great-grandfather who used to dine with Washington on Sunday nights when both were young men.
When a girl, Mrs. Ingraham attended a seminary and became a school teacher. She taught in Hagerstown, Maryland, for several terms. Upon marrying she moved to Dundee, Mich. She has been a widow since 1910.
Although she never had any children she has raised several of her relatives children who were left homeless or without a mother through death and accident.
A woman through and through, Mrs. Ingraham up to 1944 refused to divulge her correct age or birth date. Her only immediate relatives are Mrs. Lorenz and her sister and two brothers.

Community Fund Drive Stalled

Plymouth's Community Fund Drive is lagging horribly, according to the committee in charge of collections. So far less than half of the $7,000 fund goal has been received.
The committee reports that many Plymouthites are ignoring their appeals for contributions, and that responses to the letters they have sent out are falling far short of expectations.
In brief, Plymouth is indicating that it does not want its visiting nurse program continued. The Community Fund committee insists that unless its quota of $7,000 is reached, the visiting nurse project must be discontinued.
To aid the tardy contributors the drive has been extended to Nov. 1, the committee reported. They hope that by then the donations will have increased to the point where success for the effort will be assured.
Right now the whole thing is dying for lack of support. The committee claims, and needs to be revived with additional donations. If this plea is not heeded by the public, the committee warns, there just won't be any money for financing a visiting nurse plan this winter in Plymouth.

Musicians Give Services To Club

Twelve philanthropic Plymouth musicians pitched in and donated their very excellent services as a dance band for the Plymouth Woman's Club dance last Thursday night at the Masonic Temple.
The music they furnished for the dancers was superb and the thought that was behind their effort was most commendable. The crowd was well over 150 persons, all were profuse with their praise for the musicians.
The Woman's Club dance series so far has netted $850 for the proposed Plymouth District Veterans Memorial Foundation. The next dance is scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 14, at the Masonic Temple. Tickets are now on sale at Simmons Jewelry Store.

State Director City Visitor

O. K. Fjetland, state director of the U. S. employment service, accompanied by P. P. Verner, field supervisor, were in Plymouth Tuesday consulting with Clarence Jettens, manager of the Plymouth office.
Mr. Fjetland expressed himself as well satisfied with the satisfactory way in which the Plymouth office is being conducted and stated that records showed it to be of special benefit to a very large group of both employes and employers.
The Michigan unemployment compensation office has offices in connection with the employment office in the Jewell hall on East Ann Arbor trail.
During the administration of former Governor William Comstock, Mr. Fjetland served him as executive secretary.

City Manager Speaks To Business Women

The Plymouth Business and Professional Women's Club observed National Business Women's Week with a special dinner meeting last Monday night at St. John's Episcopal parish house.
Guest speaker for the occasion was City Manager Harold R. Cheek. He was introduced by Mrs. Elva Merryweather, chairman of the club's public affairs committee which was in charge of the program.
Mr. Cheek's talk proved very interesting for those present. He explained the form of government Plymouth has and how it operates. He also told how special assessments were levied and other pertinent facts about the municipal government.
Music for the program was provided by Jean Daoust, soloist, and her accompanist, Miss Hanna Strasen. Mrs. Alice Blyton, president of the club, conducted a brief business session. Three new members were welcomed to the club at the meeting.
Committee personnel beside Mrs. Merryweather, who had charge of the program, included Mrs. Hyacinth Wilske and Mrs. Ruth Cooley.

Donates Artistic Gateway To City Cemetery

Thanks to Edward C. Hough, vice president and treasurer of the Daisy Manufacturing Company, Riverside cemetery is going to have a brand new ornamental stone gateway and other improvements.
The city of Plymouth will have a hand in the project, too, but the idea was Mr. Hough's and without his success in the city probably wouldn't have undertaken the job for years to come.
Shortly after being named to the cemetery board and being elected its chairman, Mr. Hough conceived an idea for improving the cemetery entrance and driveway leading to the mausoleum.
In a letter to the city commission he proposed to build an ornamental stone gateway, that Thomas Moss would design, landscape the area around and in front of it, screen the gateway with decorative fencing and take steps to preserve the stately evergreens now bordering the driveway.
He would pay the expense of this, he offered, providing the city would backstop the driveway from Plymouth road to the mausoleum and construct concrete curb and gutters on each side of the driveway.
The city commission thought the proposal was excellent and asked the cemetery board to act upon it. That body approved of the plan unanimously. So did the city commission.
Mr. Hough was very pleased and proceeded with his part of the plan. Already he has had Mr. Moss submit a design for the gateway and that, too, has been approved by both the cemetery board and city commission.
Mr. Hough also has had the evergreens trimmed and "fed" to improve their appearance and insure their longevity, so the cemetery drive always will have a stately skyline of evergreens.
The stone for the gateway also is on hand. Lack of concrete is the obstacle holding up construction right now.
City Manager Harold R. Cheek reports that the city will begin its part of the improvement program as soon as possible. Lack of concrete is the one thing that may prevent the city from completing its curb and gutter work before next spring, Mr. Cheek lamented.
Anyway the whole program is worthy of much commendation for both Mr. Hough and the city of Plymouth. City Manager Cheek revealed that Mr. Hough was so anxious to see the program completed that he offered to advance the money for the city's portion of the work for one year without interest if the commission felt they had no funds to use for the project. That's wholehearted philanthropy.

Vote "No" On Number 2

Vote "NO" on the big city scheme to wreck the taxation system of Michigan and force a higher sales tax. These facts will interest Plymouth voters. It's No. 2 on your ballot.
Do you know that state aid voted for the school districts of Michigan, provide nearly ONE HALF of the entire amount used in the operation of the Plymouth public schools?
Last year the state provided Plymouth with $82,982.14 for the use of its public schools. Local taxpayers raised less than $10,000 more than this amount, or a total of $93,399.86.
This information is being published because of the apparent belief of some that the state does little to help its public schools.
Extensive state aid to public schools started in Michigan only 12 years ago. That was in 1934. Previous to that time for a period of years the state did grant $2,000,000 per year to all public schools through a legislative act known as the Turner bill.
In 1934 the legislature inaugurated the practice of making large grants to the public school system in an effort to bring relief to the real estate tax payers.
Since that time these yearly grants have grown by leaps and bounds, the increase being more than a 400 percent during the 12 year period.
Following are the state appropriations made to the public schools beginning with the year 1934

1934	$15,000,000.00
1935	15,000,000.00
1936	36,040,000.00
1937	37,400,000.00
1938	43,000,000.00
1939	43,000,000.00
1940	41,000,000.00
1941	41,000,000.00
1942	44,500,000.00
1943	44,500,000.00
1944	50,000,000.00
1945	60,000,000.00
(Plus $3,200,000 for teachers' retirement fund)
1946	60,000,000.00
Plus
For special education	$900,000.00
Junior colleges	500,000.00
Vocational education	450,000.00
Rural Agricultural schools	375,000.00
Adult education	235,000.00
Visiting teacher	185,000.00
County normals	69,000.00
(Total of these special educational appropriations)	$2,714,000.00
No other state can show such a tremendous state aid increase to public schools as Michigan. There are 160 agricultural schools in the state.

Kim Sigler Coming to Plymouth For Big Mass Meeting on October 28

Kim Sigler, Republican candidate for Governor, who made one of his first addresses during the primary campaign in Plymouth, will return to this city on Monday night, October 28 for a mass meeting to be held in the high school auditorium, according to information provided The Plymouth Mail by George Schafer of Redford. Mr. Schafer is chairman of the 17th district Republican committee.
Not only will Mr. Sigler be here, but there are prospects that Senator Vandenberg will also speak at the Plymouth mass meeting.
Mr. Sigler, who was given an overwhelming majority in the Republican primary in Plymouth, from reports received about the state, is picked as a two to one winner over his opponent in the final election.
Additional details of the October 28 mass meeting will be published next week.

Hunters Lament Lack of Pheasants, Arouse Farmers Ire on Opening Day

Both Agree Hunting Ban Should be Adopted
For most Plymouth nimrods Tuesday was a dark day. The weather was ideal but there was little if any game, particularly pheasants.
Hunters blamed Detroit sportsmen(?) and the screwy time limit conservation officers announced for the openings of pheasant shooting.
Plymouthites who abided by the 10 a.m. time limit for pheasant hunting found that Detroit hunters who were in the field at sunrise on the pretense that they were seeking rabbits and squirrel, had also shot what few pheasants there were.
Local farmers complained that they heard shooting in their posted fields as early as 6:30 a.m. and saw hunters with their limit of pheasants as early as 8:00 a.m.
Many farmers said it was useless to buy "No Hunting" signs and put them up as Detroit Hunters disregarded them and in several cases ripped them from the trees and fence posts.
They complained that there were no conservation officers around and no peace officers to call for arresting trespassers. Others said they were afraid to order hunters from their fields lest they be shot at by them.
In some instances the hunters charged that farmers had been shooting pheasants on their own property the past several days. They accused them of enticing the birds to eat with their livestock and then shooting them from their barns and killing many more than they were legally entitled to.
The fields around Plymouth abounded with hunters. In places motorists thought the War Department was holding special maneuvers the throng of nimrods was so great.
Several parties of Plymouth hunters said they covered acres and acres of country that generally is very fine hunting area but failed to locate even a hen pheasant.
Some sportsmen charged the Michigan Conservation Department with deliberately omitting Wayne County from the list of counties where pheasants were planted. Others blamed farmers for cleaning out fence and hedge rows and burning their land. These practices rob the game of places to nest and also result in the deaths of many litters of rabbits and flocks of birds.
At least both hunters and farmers agreed that the state should close hunting in Wayne County for at least two years—or else.

City's First Air Marker Installed

Plymouth's first authorized aerial identification marker has been painted on the roof of the Parkview Recreation building on East Ann Arbor trail.
Chrome yellow letters ten feet high on a jet black background identify the city to all aircraft and also gives the direction and distance of the nearest airport (Mettrall, 2 miles) and a true north range. In all the marker covers 60 feet.
It was authorized by the CAA and conforms to their standards for such markers. It not only will advertise the city but serve as a guide for hundreds of aircraft and some time might save a lost pilot from destruction.
The marker was obtained through the united efforts of the Mettrall Airport management and Al Schuster, a local pilot, whose father owns the Parkview Recreation.
Directors of the Plymouth Country Club have announced a new conforming operation for 1947. Details of the rates that will apply and other information about the new system can be found in an advertisement elsewhere in this issue.
In short, according to M. C. (Casey) Partridge, pro-manager of the club, the new policy eliminates payment of greens fees by the day. It also limits the club memberships to 350. Under the new policy which takes effect Jan. 1, 1947, all members of the club who play golf must purchase playing memberships by the year. In other words, members of the Plymouth Country Club will take their golfing privileges on a yearly basis instead of an as-you-play basis.

City's First Air Marker Installed

Plymouth's first authorized aerial identification marker has been painted on the roof of the Parkview Recreation building on East Ann Arbor trail.
Chrome yellow letters ten feet high on a jet black background identify the city to all aircraft and also gives the direction and distance of the nearest airport (Mettrall, 2 miles) and a true north range. In all the marker covers 60 feet.
It was authorized by the CAA and conforms to their standards for such markers. It not only will advertise the city but serve as a guide for hundreds of aircraft and some time might save a lost pilot from destruction.
The marker was obtained through the united efforts of the Mettrall Airport management and Al Schuster, a local pilot, whose father owns the Parkview Recreation.
Directors of the Plymouth Country Club have announced a new conforming operation for 1947. Details of the rates that will apply and other information about the new system can be found in an advertisement elsewhere in this issue.
In short, according to M. C. (Casey) Partridge, pro-manager of the club, the new policy eliminates payment of greens fees by the day. It also limits the club memberships to 350. Under the new policy which takes effect Jan. 1, 1947, all members of the club who play golf must purchase playing memberships by the year. In other words, members of the Plymouth Country Club will take their golfing privileges on a yearly basis instead of an as-you-play basis.

Methodist Ladies To Help Mothers

Leave it up to the ladies to figure out ways to help out in these days of shortages and tribulations.
Next Friday, October 25 up at the Methodist church, the ladies have collected together a lot of used clothing for children and adults, as well as many other articles, that will be offered for sale to mothers and others who are not able to find what they need in regular mercantile places.
Some call it a rummage sale, but this year it's really a community service affair, beginning at 9 o'clock in the forenoon and ending at 9 o'clock in the evening.

Marion Goodman Is Married in Chapel At Ann Arbor Saturday

Before an altar decorated with white gladioli, at Saint Marys Chapel in Ann Arbor, the Rev. Frank J. McPhillys united in marriage Marion Smith Goodman the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Goodman of Plymouth and Robert Matthew Raultl, the son of Mrs. Joseph Raultl of Chicago, Illinois.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white wool with dolman sleeves and a gold belt. She carried a white prayer book covered with gardenias and stephenosis, with a matching headpiece in gardenias. Marie Ann Miller of Plymouth, the maid of honor chose cinnamon brown wool with gold and brown accessories. The bridesmaid, Evelyn Luhrs of New York City selected aqua wool with brown accessories. Both of the attendants wore headpieces and corsages of bronze mums.

Mr. Raultl's best man was John Lightner of Chicago, and the ushers were William Schultz of Plymouth and William Quillian of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Raultl left immediately for Chicago. Mrs. Raultl wearing a black and gold trimmed suit with black accessories.

Whittaker-Smith. At a candlelight ceremony performed in the Federated church in Salem on Tuesday night, Oct. 1, at 8 o'clock, Beth Smith daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith of S. Dixboro road, became the bride of Robert Whittaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Whittaker of South Salem. The Rev. Cora M. Pennell, pastor of the church read the double ring service in the presence of 125 invited guests. The church was very prettily decorated with palms, vases of white gladioli and white dahlias, lighted tapers in tall candelabra were placed at either side of the pulpit. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal dress of white embroidered nylon fashioned with a fitted bodice, square neckline, long sleeves which extended into points over the wrists, and a long full skirt which ended in a short train. Her finger tip veil of tulle was edged with lace and was held to the head with a seed pearl tiara. She wore a string of pearls, gift of the groom and carried a tatted handkerchief which was a gift of Mrs. Fay Simpson. She carried a bridal bouquet of white calla lilies centered with a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Harold Fallot of Plymouth and Mary Jane Simpson were matron of honor and bridesmaid respectively. Their gowns of deep blue were fashioned identically with silk jersey tops and bouffant skirts of tulle. The dresses were made with cap sleeves and jewelry necklines. They wore tiara headdresses of blue flowers and a veil of tulle, both matching the blue of their gowns. Each wore sterling silver ear rings, the gift of the bride. Their flowers were arm bouquets of yellow mums tied with yellow satin ribbon.

Joyce Ann Bibbie, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bibbie of Charlotte was flower girl. She wore a floor-length yellow net dress, and she carried a basket of fall flowers, strewn them along the path of the bride.

Mrs. Russel Richards sang "Because" and "The Lords Prayer."

Accompanying her on the piano was Margie Faye Tait of Plymouth. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith wore brown with brown accessories, and a corsage of yellow baby mums. The groom's mother wore black with white accessories and a corsage of white baby mums. A reception in the basement of the church followed the service where baskets of fall flowers were used in decorations. A four-tier wedding cake and tapers centered the brides table.

The groom is a graduate of Plymouth High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hornback held a get-together at their home on Shearer drive Sunday, a basket dinner being enjoyed. The honored guest was Mrs. Emma Lienemann, who is visiting here among old friends. She is now a resident of Dennis, Kansas. Some 34 guests were present. Mrs. Lienemann is now in Chicago where she will visit with relatives before returning home.

Plymouth Postal Exams Scheduled

Open competitive examinations, leading to permanent appointment to positions in the Plymouth postoffice, have been announced by the local secretary of the United States Civil Service Commission.

The positions are for substitute clerks and carriers. These are the first examinations for promotional appointments to be announced since Oct. 23, 1943. Promotional examinations in the post office department were suspended at that time in order to give those in the armed forces an opportunity to compete.

Veterans, accordingly, are given special consideration for these jobs. Disabled veterans, widows of veterans and wives of disabled veterans will receive an extra ten points in their examinations. As eligibles, they will receive top rating on the list for appointment. Other veterans will receive an extra five points.

Those currently holding temporary or indefinite appointments made subsequent to Oct. 23, 1943, also will be able to compete for permanent status. Examinations are limited to the patrons and temporary employees of the Plymouth postoffice.

The basic pay for these positions is $1.04 an hour with increases added annually. Applications forms may be obtained from the local postoffice. They should be filled out and filed with the regional director, United States Civil Service Commission, 433 West Van Buren St., Chicago 7, Ill., not later than Oct. 17.

Former Jap Prisoner Goes In Business Here

Former Jap Prisoner of War, Francis G. Bain, 632 N. Mill st., has recently joined the ranks of Veterans who have gone into business for themselves. Bain has taken a household dealership for the Plymouth area.

A native of Houston, Bain joined the Army before Pearl Harbor in March 1941. He was shipped out with the 200th Coast Artillery to the Philippines after five months of basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas.

He served under Generals MacArthur and Wainwright on Bataan in the Philippines during the entire Philippine defense. He was taken prisoner by the Japs on April 9, 1942. He endured the death march of Bataan and was held in Cabantaun Prison Camp No. 1 for two and a half years. Later Bain was moved to the Hanawa Prison Camp in Japan where he spent another year.

On September 15, 1945, he was at last released, returning to the United States on October 27, 1945. Bain was discharged as a Staff Sergeant on May 27, 1946.

He married the former Yvette Jackson of Plymouth and the Bains are now making Plymouth their home. Prior to joining the Army, Bain held a dealership in Houston, but due to the malaria fever he contracted while fighting in the Pacific, he is unable to return to the South.

Geography Class Visits Ford Plant

On October 3 Mr. B. Stadtmiller's Commercial Geography class made a trip through the Ford River Rouge plant. The group had to register at the Rotunda before going through the plant.

First of all they went through a parts plant and then the group drove to the Ford dock where they saw a freighter being unloaded. From there they went to an assembly line where they saw a car start from a frame and progress to a completed car.

The River Rouge plant employs about 70,000 men and turns out about 425 cars in a day. Approximately 100 miles of railroad are within the gates of the plant.

Mr. Stadtmiller also arranged for the group to go through the Edson Institute Museum.

MATERIAL SHORTAGE Shackles GAS EXPANSION PROGRAM

Conditions beyond our control are responsible for NEW GAS SERVICE being delayed.

The situation with regard to gas piping for the expansion of Consumers Power Company's gas mains is just as discouraging for the Company as it is for those customers who are anxiously waiting for gas service.

Manufacturers who are accepting orders take them without the promise of delivery for months. For this reason you can readily understand why it is impossible for us to commit ourselves to the delivery of new gas service in any specified time period where the extension of gas mains is involved.

We are, however, making the most efficient use of all the material we are getting, in order to speed service to you. And we want to thank you for the patience you have shown and the cooperation you have given us under these trying circumstances.

*Additional house heating customers can be accepted only after the available supply of natural gas has been greatly increased through a major pipeline and storage field project now under way. It is hoped that connecting of new house heating customers can be assumed before the winter of 1947-48.

RADIATOR MOUNTING

NO DIM-OUT — NO BLACK-OUT

Millions of owners of older model cars can now have the added safety of sealed beam headlamps the same as on newer, more modern cars. These headlamps throw a more powerful beam, stay consistently bright through the life of the unit—and are sealed against dirt, dust and traffic film. Even if the lens is accidentally cracked, the self-contained bulb within the unit continues to burn until the damaged unit can be replaced.

For either radiator or tender mounting—on Fords 1930 to '36, Chev's 1930 to '37, Plymouths 1930 to '38, as well as many other cars.
