What I Think and Have a Right to Say
 ELTON R. EATON

JUST PLAIN, ORDINARY FAKING.

Ed. Jeffries, who has twice been re-elected mayor of Detroit because the voters have picked him as the lesser of two political evils, is doing some out-right political faking in connection with his efforts to induce voters to adopt Proposal No. 2 on the state ballot this fall.

Proposal No. 2, as you know, is probably the greatest boon-doggling plot ever devised. It puts to shame all the leaf-raking, shovel plotting schemes the New Dealers down in Washington ever dreamed of.

But here comes a group of slick, smooth-talking city officials, who would foster upon Michigan a new plan of boon-doggling just as the nation is about to wipe off the last remnants of the old new deal money juggling.

One night last week I was asked to take part in a discussion on this proposal with Mayor Jeffries of Detroit at Northville.

Among other things he said:

"The state now has over $300,000,000 in cash and government bonds in the banks on which it is drawing interest."

He didn't say that that was the state total collection from all sources for one year. He said just what I report that he said, that the state had that amount of money on hand and that it was drawing interest.

If Mayor Jeffries possesses just plain, ordinary common sense, and we know that he does, he knows any such assertion is a deliberate misstatement of facts.

A few evenings before he told a Detroit group that the state now had a total of $137,000,000 in cash "available." Even this rounded amount he mentions is just as inaccurate as the $300,000,000 figure.

The state at no time in its entire history, or in any combination of a period of 20 years or more, ever had that much money on hand.

The facts are that at the present time the state does have something like $17,000,000 on hand, but which has been appropriated for additions to state hospitals and educational institutions, and which has not yet been spent because the state, (just like you) can't buy materials it needs for construction work.

Then he said that he had been "going to Lansing for the past six years in an effort to get the legislature to return some of the state's surplus to the cities."

When Jeffries went up to Lansing some years ago, it was to get WELFARE aid for the city of Detroit. He appeared as a supplicant before the welfare committee of which I was chairman at that time. Not one word did he say about general aid to all Michigan cities at that time.

If he had been making an appeal for state funds to the cities "out of the state's big surplus" he talks about, he would have been appealing at a time when the state was broke and running in the red.

The state six years ago, we told him, had a deficit of $11,900,000. That is on the record.

At no time, since the sales tax law was adopted, did the state ever carry a surplus in its treasury, previous to the war.

And any one with an ounce of brains, knows WHY the state right now does have a surplus.

He scoffed at the special liquor tax passed by the legislature, which brought to the cities last year over $11,000,000.

Maybe the legislature had better turn that directly over to the public schools, where it will be appreciated and used properly.

When figures were produced showing that out of the state's revenue for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1946 Wayne county received more than $56,000,000, more in proportion, than other counties of the state received, and all other counties received more than $12,000,000, he said:

"You should draw a line across the state from Bay City to Muskegon and give all the rest of northern Michigan back to the Indians. The only thing it is good for is a place to hunt deer."

When confronted with a statement taken from the October 16 issue of The Detroit Free Press in which he was quoted as having said that opponents are "deliberately misleading the public" he accused The Free Press of having misquoted him, notwithstanding the fact that The Free Press has an excellent reputation for factual reporting.

When reference was made to the $77,000,000 or more that the states require the state to carry in the Public School Employees Retirement fund, the state insurance fund, the veterans "trust" fund, the state employees' retirement fund, and other funds set up by law, he declared that:

"The legislature could use this money for other purposes if it wanted to."

Of course it could, but what would the thousands of teachers in Michigan that Jeffries claims to be so interested in now, do when the time comes when they will no longer be able to work, if the legislature should wipe out this retirement fund, as the Mayor suggests?

If the Mayor does elsewhere as he did in Northville, he tries to create the impression that the state does nothing for the schools or other local units of government, when as a matter of fact last year the state turned back to the schools and cities and other units of government more than $180,000,000.

AT NO TIME has either Mayor Jeffries of Detroit or Mayor Welsh of Grand Rapids, the chief two sponsors of this tax raid scheme, EVER said one word in behalf of greater school aid, until they decided that they would have to have school teacher aid if they were to be successful in raiding the state treasury, and probably forcing a raise in the sales tax.

I asked Mayor Jeffries if he had at any time ever prepared or suggested enabling legislation which would help Detroit to help itself.

This was his answer:

"Detroit isn't in bad shape. In fact we are in pretty good shape down there. We haven't had any strikes like they have had over in Pontiac or up in Saginaw."

Senator Don VanderWerp, chairman of the senate finance committee, has revealed how the school aid proposal is just a blind to let Detroit and Grand Rapids get the greater part of the state's income.

Senator VanderWerp quoted Jeffries as having said that "if the schools get too much, the cities can lower the millage they are getting now and that will go to the cities."

I told Mayor Jeffries at Northville that the school section of the Proposal No. 2 was the "bait" held out for votes. Here comes a revelation that not only are the school teachers being used to get votes, but that if the voters are induced to pass proposal No. 2, the cities are scheming to get most of the money.

While the supporters of the proposal are doing a lot of talking about getting more pay for the teachers out of the scheme, there isn't one thing in the amendment which makes reference to wages of H.W. the money shall be spent.

It dumps into various units of government lump sums, with no strings tied to it and to be spent in any way some of the local officials may dictate.

Thousands of school teachers are alert to the scheme and are opposing it, and an organization made up of school superintendents has gone on record as denouncing it.

But there are many sincere people and school workers who honestly think this is the best plan by which greater school aid can be sought. But those who have made a study of it, including the State Department of Education officials, are of the opinion that it will eventually prove a loss to the schools instead of a gain.

Jeffries said something about neglect of the schools by the state legislature.

Do you think more than a 400 percent increase in state aid to the public schools in the last ten years is state neglect?

Councilman Edwards of Detroit in a radio broadcast Sunday asserted that cities could expect little aid from a "graft-ridden legislature."

Let's ask Mr. Edwards a question.

Didn't nearly every one of the grafters in the legislature, come out of Detroit — and didn't they represent pretty well the type of people elected by Detroit to public office during the past decade?

To Tell Rotarians Of Wartime Alaska

Members of the Plymouth Rotary club with this Friday noon, hear a talk and see pictures by Rev. Harold Fredsell of the Northville Presbyterian church of the "Alcan" highway.

His talk will also cover the work he did among soldiers and civilians during the two years he served with them as auxiliary chaplain of the Northwest Service when they built the highway that extends from the southern Canadian boundary line north of Montana to the territory of Alaska.

Plymouth Pets Endangered By Animal Thieves

Animal lovers in and around Plymouth are warned to be on the alert for professional animal thieves now operating out of Detroit and Ann Arbor with the blessing of medical schools, hospitals and pharmaceutical laboratories.

Officials of the Anti-vice League of Michigan, Inc., this week reported that professional crooks are now being employed by medical schools and laboratories and hospitals to keep them supplied with pets upon which to perform agonizing experiments.

Plymouth Man Gets New Post

Clarence W. Schuler, of 295 Arthur, is the new sales manager of the Nash Detroit Company, Woodward at Piquette, Detroit.

H. A. Bauer, vice president of the firm, said Mr. Schuler is one of the oldest Nash men from the standpoint of length of time in the organization.

He said Clarence started selling Nash cars in April, 1923, and has been with the Detroit organization ever since with the exception of his war service.

During the war Mr. Schuler was in the production planning department of the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Company, in Plymouth. He held that post from 1942 to 1945 when he returned to the Nash Detroit Company.

Mr. Schuler is a past president of the Hi-Twelve Club in both Plymouth and Highland Park, where he formerly resided before coming to Plymouth.

Some of his associates claim that Clarence has sold more Nash cars than any other Detroit salesmen. Anyway they are joyously sharing his promotion and its accompanying honor with him. That's what the Mail would like to do also. Congratulations Clarence. It's residents of your calibre that make Plymouth Wayne County's "Biggest Little City."

City Registers 318 New Voters

City Manager Harold R. Cheek reports that 318 new registrations were received at City Hall by Oct. 16. One precinct had 96 new qualified electors. The second highest precinct had 33.

These boosted the Plymouth City total number of electors to 3,406. Mr. Cheek said. That is believed to be an all time high for the community but still is not ALL the registrants. Anyway the number of new registrations turned up was surprising to all concerned.

Election officials only wish all of those registered would cast ballots. They indicate that they expect only about 2,700 votes to be cast Nov. 5, but hope they are wrong.

Raymond Brown To Be Buried Here Sunday

Raymond A. Brown, aged 62, one time resident of Plymouth who has resided in Greenville in recent years, and a past president of the United States Funeral Service Examining Board also a leading Republican figure in Central Michigan, died in Blodgett Hospital, Grand Rapids Wednesday.

Brown was chairman of the State Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers for 15 years; a member of the Greenville Board of Education for 27 years, and a Montcalm County supervisor for 15 years.

A number of years ago he was employed in the Schrader Funeral home in Plymouth. Burial services will take place, according to an announcement by the Schrader Funeral Home, at Riverside cemetery, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Ten Year Old School Girl Terribly Burned When Stove Exploded

Ten year old Betty Stoops, one of the seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stoops of 15747 LaSalle road, is in a critical condition in Wayne General hospital as the result of serious burns received Monday evening when the heating stove in the Stoops home exploded, setting fire to her dress.

She ran out doors, with her body enveloped in flames. Only for the timely assistance of Mrs. Taylor, major of the Salvation Army, who happened to be near, and grabbed the girl, rolling her on the ground and extinguishing the flames, she probably would have been burned to death.

She is suffering third degree burns over her entire body, and attending physicians say the chances of her recovery lie in numerous blood transfusions, which are now being administered.

Mr. Stoops is employed at the Twin Pines Dairy in Northville. Betty is a member of the 4th grade of Starkweather school.

Fred Erb New President Of Hi-Twelve Club

Fred Erb, former Master of Plymouth Rock lodge, has been elected president of The Plymouth Hi-Twelve club for the ensuing year. Other officers elected are: first vice president, Edward Scott; second vice president, Edwin A. Schrader; secretary, Walter Warner; treasurer, Clyde Smith; international representative, Russell Kirkpatrick; directors, Henry Grimm, Arthur Har, Albert Hubbs, Donald Monroe and the retiring president, Robert Simmons.

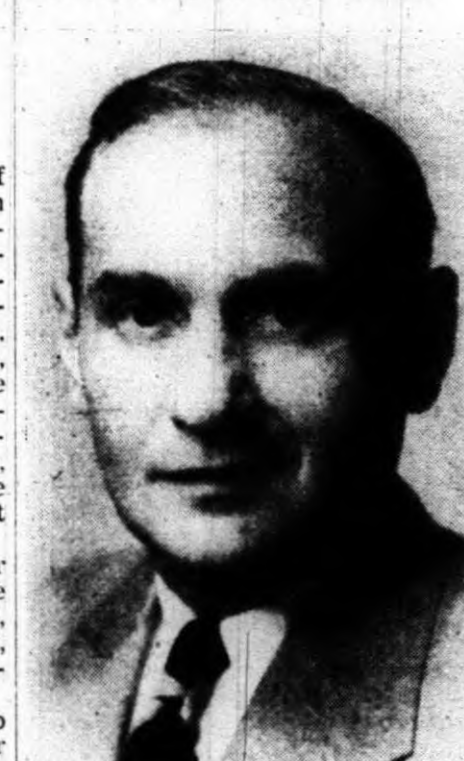

The new officers will take over on January 1. The Hi-Twelve club now has a membership of 80, and because of accommodations, it has been frozen at that number.

At the next meeting of the club on Wednesday evening, October 30, Congressman George A. Dondero, will be the speaker.

He will talk on the subject "Back of the Iron Curtain." He recently visited Russia and what he will have to say will be of especial interest.

President Simmons states that the event will be an open meeting, but that people making applications for tickets, must do so not later than Monday, as it is a dinner meeting and will take place at the Masonic temple. The meeting will begin at 6:30 o'clock.

He's New President Of the Hi-Twelve Club

Members of the Hi-Twelve club have named Frederick H. Erb, former high official of the Plymouth Masonic lodge, as president. He will assume his new duties January 1.

Two Fires Keep Firemen Busy

Two fires in as many nights kept Plymouth smoke eaters busy early this week.

Sunday they were summoned to the Plymouth Township farm home of S. E. Tallian, 9305 Corinne, where an overheated oil furnace was causing a trouble. Chief McAllister reported that the damage was slight.

Monday a blazing truck at the Collins garage routed out the firemen again. This time they had a real fire on their hands. The truck, according to Chief McAllister was owned by Huston & Co., Plymouth hardware dealers.

It was damaged to the extent of $200, firemen reported. The flames originated, firemen said, from a short in the wiring.

Both runs were made in good time and in the case of the truck fire prompt action by firemen kept the damage down. Chief McAllister and his men are equal to any alarm.

Navy Mothers Thank Generous Citizens

The Plymouth Navy Mothers have requested The Plymouth Mail to express thanks to the citizens of this community for the generous aid extended the Navy Mothers last Saturday on tag day.

A good sum was secured. All of this money will be used for the benefit of service boys who are still confined in U. S. hospitals throughout the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Neale held open house to their friends at their home at 242 Auburn avenue last Saturday evening on the event of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Police Report Auto Accidents Too Plentiful

Nature's current benevolent mood does something to people, according to Police Chief Lee R. Sackett.

Every nice day like those of the past month brings another auto accident or two, Chief Sackett reports. The last few weeks in Plymouth have seen a tremendous increase in these accidents, he said.

Fortunately no fatal accidents have occurred in the city but several have resulted in painful injuries to drivers and passengers alike. The toll in property damage is boosted daily.

What is the reason? Chief Sackett believes the weather is the chief cause. Nice days, dreary autumn haze and the lovely color schemes produced by nature detract from the attention usually given over to driving.

With one's natural alertness, the mind diverted to beautiful trees, the countryside or children romping on the street, an accident is inevitable.

Chief Sackett said some of the collisions had taken place when motorists failed to obey the traffic signals in the city. He can see no excuse for that. His suggestion is that motorists upon approaching a traffic signal should decrease their speed and always expect that the signal is going to change.

Motorists who step on the gas when coming to a traffic signal and insist of beating the change of lights are the worst hazards in city driving whether it be Plymouth or Chicago.

Unless accidents take a sudden drop in Plymouth the police department will take drastic measures to keep erring drivers off the highways.

Too many accidents involve the same motorists. This is a clear cut indictment of their ability to drive and makes them a target for stern measures such as a jail sentence or revocation of their operator's permit.

Plymouth police are more interested in keeping people out of jail and out of hospitals and cars on the roads than anything else. However if local residents demonstrate their inability to properly drive on the streets, the police have no alternatives.

Let's be careful, drive careful and walk careful. Injured or jailed persons, smashed cars, and motorists without a permit to drive are no goods to the community.

Here Monday Eve

Hon. Kim Sigler
 He will tell Plymouth of his fight for clean, honest government in Michigan.
 Monday evening.

Brake Tells Rotarians Views On Proposal No. 2

Before members of the Rotary club last Friday, former Superintendent George A. Smith of the Plymouth public schools, and Charles Brake, assistant school commissioner of Wayne county, discussed the pros and cons of the proposed constitutional amendment No. 2.

In the last issue, The Mail published Mr. Smith's arguments made before the Plymouth Forum two or three days before the Rotary club meeting. Before the Rotarians he used the same arguments as used at the Forum, of which The Mail carried a report.

In view of this fact, The Mail is at this time presenting only Mr. Brake's argument before the Rotarians, as follows:

In a democracy, when the voters are asked to pass upon any proposal, it is inevitable that there shall be differences of opinion. Thus, in a consideration of Proposal No. 2, which is being presented to the voters on November 5, under the joint sponsorship of the Michigan Education Association and the cities, villages and townships, it is to be expected that all viewpoints cannot be reconciled. It is a privilege to me to be permitted to discuss the proposal affirmatively and to answer my esteemed friend and co-worker, George A. Smith, who has presented the negative arguments.

The first step in any discussion is to find points of common agreement. Mr. Smith and I agree with all other educators of Michigan that the school have been starved for many years, and that there should be a very appreciable increase in state funds for schools. Mr. Smith also says that he does not oppose return of state collected funds to cities, villages and townships. We agree also that under the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Michigan, the responsibility for education is a state responsibility and not a local responsibility. We would agree, therefore, that the state of Michigan is the only unit of government which can aid the schools in this crisis, since local responsibility is limited by the fifteen mill amendment and locally we have gone as far as we can.

Now that we agree upon the main issue, let us explore the differences between us which are of very minor importance. In fact, much of the argument that has developed in relation to Proposal No. 2 is of the tweddledum and tweddledum variety.

Here's Latest About OPA Sugar

That OPA! No you haven't heard the last of it yet—the thing that has proved the biggest farce ever fostered upon the people of this country.

Here's the latest.

Last summer a Plymouth couple decided to make a little venture into business for themselves. So they bought a small summer resort in the Upper Peninsula, up in a section where they could board and room deer hunters in the fall after the summer tourist business ended.

They wrote to their friends who are deer hunters, and told them that they could board them during the deer hunting season.

They were successful in getting a capacity reservation for meals. Then they made application to the OPA for a sufficient amount of sugar to take care of their prospective boarders during the deer hunting season.

What did the OPA nit-wits do? They granted this little resort a total of one pound of sugar for nearly twenty boarders for the entire two week's deer hunting period.

Do you wonder that the people of this country are incensed over the treatment they receive from the crackpots that are running national affairs in this country?

Watch election results — that will tell you the story.

New State Road Maps at The Mail

Planning to go deer hunting? If you are, you will find one of the new Michigan road maps in the office of The Plymouth Mail.

They are right up to date and will show you just how to get to that deer hunting camp up near Roscommon, or other northern Michigan deer country.

If you go to the Upper Peninsula or around Whitefish Point or Negaunee or Gogebic, the road map shows you all the main thoroughfares as well as the side roads.

Come in the office and help yourself. Please do not send children.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Spitz, of Arthur street announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine to Capt. Don Miller of Grand Rapids. They have set January 4, 1947 as the date for the wedding.

Kim Sigler Here on Monday

BULLETIN!
 Plymouth Republicans were advised late Thursday that Congressman George A. Dondero would also be a speaker at Monday night's rally.

Arrangements have been completed for the big rally to be held in Plymouth Monday evening in the high school auditorium for Kim Sigler, the Republican candidate for governor.

Robert Simmons, chairman of the Plymouth district committee, announced yesterday that Mr. Sigler would be the only speaker, but that candidates for other state and county offices would be present and would be introduced at the meeting.

District Chairman George Shafer of Redford will open the meeting, which will begin at 8 o'clock.

Since announcement was made in last week's edition of The Plymouth Mail, Chairman Simmons reports that there has been an exceptional interest displayed in the event.

"It seems that every one in the city wants to hear him talk. My only suggestion is that they get there early, as we can seat only about 400," he said.

Local Realtors To Get Charter

Arthur Bassett, executive vice-president of the Michigan Real Estate Association, will Tuesday evening at the Warren Valley golf club house present to the newly organized Western Wayne County Board of Realtors its charter, which includes membership in both the state and national real estate organizations.

It is expected that over 100 members will be present from Plymouth, Northville, Garden City, Wayne and Romulus.

The two high officers of the Plymouth area, Roy Lindsey being president and C. E. Alexander, the vice-president, Ernest Bird is secretary-treasurer.

It is expected that several outstanding board presidents will be in attendance. The banquet arrangements are in charge of Arnold Folker of Garden City, Clyde Maben of Wayne and Roy R. Lindsay of this city.

Forbes Smith Up In Aleutians

Sgt. Forbes Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, who served during the world war in the air forces assigned to Europe and re-enlisted when he was sent home from the services, is now located on Adack Island in the Aleutians.

In a recent letter to The Plymouth Mail, he states that he expects to be in his present location until next May, when he will enter the University of Alaska at Fairbanks to complete his jet propulsion or aeronautical course.

"It's the most interesting thing I have ever studied," he writes.

He states that he is a member of the crew of the Commanding General's plane and that as a recreation, he has had many flights to the mainland in Alaska, and has made frequent trips to the city of Yokohama.

"I would like to be stationed in Japan for a while just to see what the people are like and how they live," he wrote.

"We are right in the heart of the fishermen's Paradise. We catch rainbow trout that average from 30 to 35 inches long. Each week we enjoy a salmon roast that would delight any one, especially Harry Lush, Brick Chave, Bill Kanko, Sterling and some of the other fellows."

"We have those big Kodiak bears on this island, and they are big fellows, too. Better not miss one, if you shoot at him, because he's a bad actor. Generally when the fellows go hunting, four or five now go together."

"Some of the men have their families here, but there is no sunshine for their children, although the scenery is beautiful. Get The Plymouth Mail, regularly. You know that I thoroughly enjoy reading it and the other fellows do, too," he wrote.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker were in Lowell Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Newton Coons.

Two Pheasants With One Shot

Take a tip! Look out for the boys back home from Uncle Sam's navy! They know how to use a shot gun as well as they did the navy's big boom booms.

Ex-navy Lieut. Ralph Lorenz, who is now back home running the Mayflower hotel again, went pheasant hunting the other day in a corn field down back of the Lorenz home on Ann Arbor trail.

He saw a pheasant running down a corn row.

Bang!

And Mr. Pheasant fell over as dead as a door nail.

When the former navy man went to pick the bird up, he had two for his bag instead of one.

Would you believe it! He had killed two cock pheasants at one shot.

And that one shot ended the day's hunting for him.

Take a tip! Look out for the boys back home from Uncle Sam's battle wagons.

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Rathbun were among the guests present at the birthday dinner of Lola Chapter No. 503, Detroit October 14.

Leo Bartz who underwent an operation Saturday morning at Plymouth Hospital is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weidman returned to Plymouth Thursday after spending a week in New York City.

The Moms Club of Plymouth will hold a pot luck supper and social meeting Monday, October 28, at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lee Sackett at 813 Forest.

Paul Branigin Is Columbia Senior

Paul Branigin, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Branigin, 18080 Newburg road, is a member of the senior class at Columbia College, New York, New York.

Columbia College, liberal arts college for men of Columbia University, is beginning its 193rd academic year with the largest enrollment in its history. About 2,450 men undergraduates, two-thirds of them veterans, have registered for the fall term.

In an effort to accept as many students as facilities permit, the entering class of the College was expanded to about 700, half of them veterans, half civilian secondary school graduates. The usual pre-war entering class numbered about 500, and the average pre-war enrollment was 1,750, making Columbia College a small liberal arts school in the shelter of one of the country's great universities.

To expand facilities to their fullest, several academic buildings have been undergoing renovation to provide more classroom and laboratory space.

Atomic power plants promise to become practicable and within reasonable cost range, but the first plants will probably serve sections remote from coal and water.

New versus old. New potatoes are ideal for salads, creaming, and the like because they hold their shape. Old ones mash better.

Girl Scout News

Plymouth Girl Scouts will be able to have swimming classes at the Wayne County Training School every other Tuesday through the generosity and thoughtfulness of the Boy Scouts. The boys are giving up the pool to the girls every other Tuesday night from 7 to 9 p.m.

Four classes have been established for the Girl Scouts, a senior group and three intermediate groups. The intermediate groups will be divided into separate classes according to their swimming ability.

Mrs. J. R. Witwer, formerly with the Health Education program of Michigan State College will be in charge of the swimming program and Mrs. Harold Shirey who holds a Red Cross Life Saving certificate will be the instructor.

The swim program starts Tuesday Nov. 5, and will be conducted every other Tuesday during the winter months.

Twenty-one Girl Scouts, members of Troop 6 with their leaders, Mrs. Dobbs and Mrs. Krump visited the Plymouth post office last Wednesday as part of their procedure towards obtaining their Community Life Badge.

In Memoriam
 In memory of my dear mother, Amy A. Millard, who passed from this earth October 29, 1916.
 When your beautiful soul took its flight from the earth, And was born anew in the spiritual birth, You left behind on the records of Time Sweet memories, Mother, of your joys and mine. I know when you reached the other estate

Where the soul takes its rise, the Master to meet.
 I know that you asked to wait at the Gate,
 To wait at the Gate, sweet Mother of mine.
 Now since you have trod that unknown Path
 To the beautiful Paradise above,
 It is with peace instead of pain That I have learned to think of you.

Sweet memories, Mother, are clinging today,
 Sweet memories of your joys and mine.
 And I know at the Gate you'll be waiting for me.
 Yes, I'm sure you will greet me, dear Mother of mine.
 Her loving daughter,
 Mamie C. Kingsley.

Powr-Trol Equipped Tractor Due Here Saturday

Farmers of the Plymouth trading area should be interested to know that Johnson Farm Service, John Deere Farm Equipment Dealer in Plymouth, has announced one of the most important new farm implement developments in recent years—the new John Deere Hydraulic Powr-Trol.

It's safe, smooth and positive hydraulic power does all the work. With it the job of straining to reach levers or tugging on ropes is forever eliminated. Powr-Trol allows the farmer to drive the tractor and conserve his work. It performs all the back-breaking labor.

At the touch of an operator on a small control lever conveniently located near his hands, Powr-Trol raises and lowers plow bottoms or discs, grain drill openers, mower cutter bars, combine platforms, corn picker gatherers and potato digger shovels.

Johnson Farm Service claims that the new development means easier, faster and better work on every job. Farmers are urged to come out and prove to themselves that it is all it is reputed to be. Don't forget the time, 10 a.m. Saturday, tomorrow, at the Hough farm. Come out, see it, try it and you'll want to buy it.

WHAT I THINK AND HAVE A RIGHT TO SAY.

Mayor Jeffries had no answer to the proposed waste of state funds set up in Proposal No. 2 in connection with townships. With possibly one or two exceptions, there is not one township out of the 1260 townships in Michigan in financial distress.

At no time has Mayor Jeffries ever asked one cent of aid for the public schools of Michigan.

When the legislature was considering a direct state appropriation of $2,700,000 to Wayne University some two years ago, do you suppose Ed. Jeffries ever said one word in support of the grant?

I asked him at the time of apparently being opposed to Wayne University aid.

It was a state grant that he knew he couldn't get his fingers on—so why care anything about the educational opportunities of the young men who had gone to war to fight to save the city of which Jeffries is mayor?

I asked him the other night, what he would do with the insane from Detroit that fill the state hospitals, with the 5290 convicts in Michigan prisons, a half of that number being from the city of Detroit?

I asked him if he would be willing to take state aid away from dependent children, to cut pension grants to the aged unfortunate people of Michigan, to turn out of the normals and the other state educational institutions the thousands of veterans we took out of the class rooms and put into the army to save this country from conquest by European military bandits?

I asked him if he was willing to turn out in the streets the thousands and thousands of these young men and women who are now being given an opportunity by the state to try and catch up on their educational preparation for future careers as a direct result of state aid.

He answered these questions by some insipid remark that the state "had lots of money."

Vote NO on proposal number 2 if you have any desire to maintain a state government that is interested in the welfare of all of its citizens and its schools, rather than the interests of a group of grasping, "gimme" city officials.

Halloween In Days of Old

HALLOWEEN today stands as one of the holidays most anticipated by the world's children and by all merry-makers. It was not always so considered.

In the beginning it was an agricultural feast, and was surrounded by the many rites with which ancient men invested days or seasons to which he attached peculiar significance. It was in the dim and storied reaches of antiquity, thousands of years before the dawn of written history that halloween customs, now repeated from season to season, had their origin.

It was believed in Ireland during the seventh to twelfth centuries that evil powers dwell in the caves of Cruachan in Cannaught, called "the hell-gate of Ireland." It was here that the rituals of halloween originated.

Today not even little Betty believes that a curled apple paring will tell her future matrimonial status, but at halloween time, she will have a lot of fun reacting an ancient ritual, while Johnny will carry away gates and play other pranks in the neighborhood.

Modern 'Minute Men' Have Record as One Of World's Greatest

United States Marine Corps Has Acquired Itself With Great Honor.

This nation has reason to be proud of the United States marine corps, which celebrates its 171st birthday, November 10. It has a record as one of the greatest organizations of fighting men in the world, with a history dating back to the Revolutionary war. Established by an act of the Continental congress November 10, 1775, it went into action in early March, 1776.

Gen. Alexander A. Vandergriff, commandant U. S. marine corps.

The corps has taken a prominent part in every one of this country's military ventures since colonial days. They fought in the war with the Barbary states, the war of 1812 and the war with Mexico. In the Spanish-American war, the first landing in Cuba was made by marines.

In World War I there were approximately 13,500 officers and men in the corps. In recognition of the gallant action of the marines at Belle woods, the French changed the name of the sector to the Bois de la Brigade de Marines. Their World War II exploits are notably familiar to all Americans. The list is long and honorable.

1. Mr. Smith states that this proposal was badly drawn and that the legislature will refuse to carry out the mandate of the people by giving to the schools what the people have voted that they shall have. If we grant this proposition, is not this one of the greatest indictments that has ever been made against democracy? If the legislature can and will override the will of the people expressed in a free and fair election, then why should the people ever vote on any amendments at all? In fact, if the legislature will fly in the face of the people and do as it pleases, why have any constitution? The legislators are servants of the people, not masters. They take an oath of office to support the constitution and proposal No. 2, when passed will be a part of that constitution. The reference to reapportionment as a case in point is pretty weak, because we all know that argument over reapportionment is not shall it take place, but just how shall it take place. Who will lose a seat and who will gain? In the instance of proposal No. 2, there is no question of how it is to be done. Therefore, we believe that you may quiet your fears in this matter.

2. Mr. Smith states that there are school people in the state who have a bear by the tail and wish that they might let go. This charge is easy to make but the public will not accept it until Mr. Smith can name some of these school people. Who are they? Will you present the evidence?

3. Mr. Smith questions the integrity of the members of the Board of Directors of the Michigan Education Association, of which I am one, because we changed our minds on this matter after very thorough and careful study. He further states, "The city boys got busy and put on the heat," thus causing the Board of Directors to change its position. This is a pretty serious charge. As the member of the Board of Directors, who, the records will show, proposed the motion to disapprove and later to approve, may I say that no city person at any time ever talked to me about this proposal. I changed my mind because I would rather be inconsistent and right than be consistently wrong. We all admire Senator Vandenberg who changed from isolationism to internationalism because the facts convinced him that he should change. Our Board of Directors, in its study, found that 31 of the 48 states had already earmarked state funds for schools, that the state of Michigan could carry out the provisions of the proposal and still carry on all normal functions of the state government. The Board of Directors considered every argument for and against the proposal, including those presented by Mr. Smith, and in the face of all of the facts could do no other thing than support the proposal. The welfare of the boys and girls of Michigan was the controlling factor in bringing about the decision. Again, I would say to Mr. Smith that to make blanket charges is very easy but such charges will receive no acceptance by thinking people until they are substantiated by evidence. I ask Mr. Smith to present documented evidence that any member of the Board of Directors of the M. E. A. was caused to change his vote because of "city pressure." Unless he can, it is not "cricket" to make the charge.

3. Mr. Smith suggests opposition to the proposal because Wayne County will receive less than it pays. This puzzles me very much. If you follow that argument to its logical conclusion, it would mean that each city should receive in return in proportion to its payment. Is Mr. Smith willing to have this apply to Detroit? If he is then he is asking the people of Plymouth to take a decided loss because Detroit pays the tax which supports schools, roads, etc. throughout the state. If the return on all taxes paid to the state in the city of Detroit were returnable in a proportionate basis the rest of the state would be in a sorry mess. Is not Michigan a state? Are not little children up in Alcona County deserving of an education which cannot be supported by local funds? Is our vision so short that we cannot see beyond the boundaries of Wayne County? Wayne County will always pay at a rate higher than the return just as it always has. Any student of taxation will agree. If your argument for refusing to go along on Proposal No. 2 were valid here, it would also be valid for opposing any increase in state aid by legislative action and, in fact, for any return of state tax collections at all.

4. Mr. Smith states that he would rather trust a friendly legislature for school support than to go to the people directly. The only way we can judge the future is by the past. For years, the school people have been going to the legislature and presenting facts that would justify increases in state aid. Some aid has been forthcoming. But we have not received aid for schools in proportion to the increase in sales tax collections. For instance, from 1940 to 1945, the sales tax collection increased by nearly 100 percent. The state aid to schools increased by 66 per cent. No, Mr. Smith, the schools have been going to the legislature for years. They have not made the appropriations for schools, until all other agencies of government have been cared for, and the state has continued to roll up surpluses and the schools to starve. We believe in giving the schools a priority once and for all.

In conclusion, we school people are in agreement on all the main issues, which are as follows:

1. Do the schools need the money? We agree that whereas the state is now sending back $41,500,000 of our money, it should send back at least $75,000,000. I know of no schoolman in Michigan who would dispute this figure.

2. Can the state afford it? We all agree that the state can carry out the provisions of the proposal and have considerably more money for normal state functions than it has had during the years when it has been building up surpluses.

3. Is the method fair? Distribution among cities, townships and villages is on a census basis. Every person in Michigan would count for no more and no less than every other person. The city of Plymouth would receive at least $16,000; and the township of Plymouth would receive at least $3200 per year. Distribution among the schools would be on a census and membership basis. Plymouth Township School District, our own district, would receive at least $51,000 per year. Are we in Plymouth willing to refuse to accept these amounts when the money is so badly needed here? A portion of these funds can be set aside for needed school building.

4. Would an additional tax be necessary? A careful study of state finance convinces us that no extra tax will be necessary. Certainly the legislature would not increase the sales tax under any consideration because that would increase the amount to schools, cities, townships, and villages much faster than to the state.

For these and many more reasons which we might present, we ask all voters to weigh the matter most carefully and to follow the dictates of their own consciences as they vote on November 5.

pet has been in a pound 48 or 72 hours the poundmaster is given the right by law to sell it to anyone wanting it.

Some are so eager to make "extra" money that they will sell your pet within a few hours after picking it up and, then tell you they've never seen it. Actual Michigan Humane Society case records show this "vile practice" to be all too common in some communities particularly those having a dog catcher.

Another favorite trick of animal thieves is to check want-ads for items stating that puppies, kittens or rabbits will be given away to "good homes." They visit these people and put on a very wonderful act to get the animals and then sell them at good prices to be cut up by bumbling and vicious medical students. These innocent animals, the A-V League said, undergo the torments of the damned before being allowed to die.

The league urges all owners of dog, cats and rabbits or monkeys to beware of any soft spoken stranger who wants to buy the pet. They also should beware of them snooping around as they get the lay of the land during the day and then commit their thefts at night.

Last week in Wayne a group of kiddies with three puppies were playing on a street corner. A red truck drove up and two men got out. They said they were dog catchers and that the puppies had no license. Paying no attention to the pitiful wailing of the kiddies these wretches gathered up the puppies and drove off. Upon hearing the story from their children, frantic parents beseeched the pound but learned no puppies had been brought there and that the truck described by the children was not that used by the pound.

Dog and cat thieves are heartless and have no scruples at taking a valuable hunting dog or even, in one case near Romulus, a $500 Seeing-Eye Dog from a blind youth.

Sometimes bands of medical students rove the countryside and steal animals to practice surgery upon to save fees or sell them to their school to obtain additional funds. They are not gentle with the animals nor do they care what happens to them.

A-V League officers ask that pet owners report any thefts to the police at once and if possible give chase themselves to any truck or station wagon they suspect of containing stolen animals. Go to any extremes, they say, to free the animals from their tormentors and then start to work on the thieves with a ball bat or lead pipe.

"Band Ball" Draws Large Attendance

A crowd of more than four hundred people danced to the music of Mike Kleinschmidt and his orchestra at last Friday's dance, the "Band Ball" sponsored by the band. Those responsible for the big success of the affair were: General Chairman, Bill Bateman, also Chairman of Tickets and Refreshments; Chairman of Music, Doris Waldacker; and Chairman of Advertising, Ed Sawyer. In charge of floors and lights were Martha Wilson and Manjean Penhale. The teachers present were: Mr. Paul Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, Miss Harland Bristah, and Miss Neva Lovewell. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Travis and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stewart.

A twirling exhibition was given by Joyce Frisbie at the intermission.

English Classes See "G.I." Hamlet

On the evening of October 24, forty members of the Senior English classes went to hear Maurice Evans in the G. I. version of "Hamlet" at the Cass. This is the longest acting version of "Hamlet" in existence, taking about two hours and forty-five minutes. This tempo is gained by omitting many divisions between the scenes as Shakespeare wrote it. School buses took the members and chaperones and brought them back. When tour manager of Maurice Evans' "Hamlet" spoke to interested Seniors and Juniors last May he mentioned the G. I. version of "Hamlet" filled the Honolulu High School auditorium (capacity 1400) every night for over three months.

Many of the members of the grade 12 class in English have already seen "Henry the V" at the Cinema.

Rock Eleven Loses To Trenton 39-0

The Rocks lost their second straight grid game via the white-wash route; this time to Trenton by the score of 39-0 at Trenton Friday, October 18. The tilt was played in a cold atmosphere and the teams were somewhat hampered by a muddy field.

The Down-river boys completely dominated the game, scoring in every quarter. Trenton scored in the first few minutes when a Plymouth punt was blocked on the Rock 30 yard line. After a few plays Scheffler scored from the 9 yard line and the conversion was missed. Trenton scored once more in the initial quarter with Walney tallying on a pass from the 20. The point was made and Trenton led 13 to 0 at the end of the first quarter.

Trenton put in their second team and the battle seemed even, although Trenton scored on a plunge of 8 yards. The Rocks crossed the midfield stripe for the first time as the half ended. In the second half Trenton pushed over three more touchdowns; the final score made on a two pass affair. On this play the Rock backfield was aslep and did not cover the pass receiver.

The next game on the Rock schedule is on November 3 with Mt. Clemens at the Riverside gridiron. This game will be the last at home for the Rocks.

An old note in the game was that the Rocks made the same yardage by passing as by rushing, 73 yards being made in both these departments.

As yet, Plymouth has shown no signs of blocking.

Second Team Is In Losing Column

Remaining in the background for the entire season, the Plymouth second stringers have left the "win" column un-invaded and marked the last column with three defeats. Beaten by Wayne, Belleville, and Ypsi, the locals have not been up with their opponents.

The fullbacks are Hopson and Stevens; halfbacks are Sparker, Perkins, Zander, and Benjamin; and alternating quarterbacks are Benjamin and McDowell. Although Besse and Knight have made good showings as line men lack of experience has held them behind.

All Girls' Party Is Great Success

The annual All Girls' Party was held on Wednesday, October 23 from 7:30 till 9:30 by the Girl Reserves. Entertainment for the affair consisted of games, songs, skits by both teachers and pupils, and a grand march in which prizes were given for the prettiest, the funniest and the most original costumes. Cider and doughnuts were served. Velma Kainz was general chairman of the get-together and her helpers were as follows: Rosemary Guthrie, Skits and Games; Nancy Mastick, Prizes and Invitations; Doris Ryder, Refreshments; Sally Fraleigh, Publicity; Pat Isbell, Clean-up; Jo Ann Bovee, Singing.

REGARDLESS of the season, a thoughtful neighbor always knows how to share. That goes for his party-line telephone, too.

Today, with telephone equipment still scarce because of material shortages, knowing how to share our party line is more important than ever before. Sharing the lines means more service for more people sooner.

To provide as many waiting applicants as possible with telephone service, we are temporarily having to limit most new installations to party lines. As additional facilities come through and are installed, we will be able to give individual-line service to those who want it.

But meanwhile, you can help to improve party-line service by following these simple suggestions:

- 1 When the line is in use, please don't interrupt except in case of emergency.
- 2 Keep all calls as brief as possible.
- 3 Avoid making several calls in succession.
- 4 Be sure to hang up after every call. One receiver off the hook puts all the telephones on the line out of service.

The candidates for nomination for each city office to be filled at the next city election, in number equal to twice the number of persons to be elected to each such city office, receiving the highest number of votes at any such city primary election shall be declared the nominees for election to the respective offices for which they are candidates and their names, together with the names of persons filing petitions in whose behalf petitions have been filed, for offices with respect to which no primary election was held, shall be certified to the election commission to be placed upon the ballot for the next subsequent regular city election.

If you're figuring NOW for '47...

WITH the end of harvest, and winter's approach, clear-thinking farmers start planning for next spring. They are thinking in terms of expansion—of increased profits in 1947.

Most farmers will agree that the answer to the manpower shortage is increased use of electricity. But it's not always easy—on a budget—to know whether an electric brooder will prove a better investment than a feed grinder or a portable grain elevator.

When it comes to electrical improvements for your farm, there's one man it pays to consult—your Edison Farm Service Advisor. He has the up-to-the-minute facts on every sort of electrical equipment—he can arrange practical demonstrations for you. More than that, your Edison man can give you accurate, impartial recommendations for planning your long-range electrification program. He has no equipment to sell... there's no charge for his services. He's simply available to help you—to put the latest Edison research and experience to work on your farm.

How many of these "WIRED HANDS" are working for you?
(The Edison man can advise you on each of these electrical time and labor savers, as applied to your own farm.)

Babson Discusses Advertising

Chicago, Illinois, October 25.—Advertising which started in a very simple manner (largely by patent medicine manufacturers) has become of great national and economic importance. In fact, it has become a part of the employment cycle which requires greater advertising appropriations to cause a demand for goods which, in turn, will hold up, or increase, the number employed so that they will buy more goods and keep the ball rolling.

Advertising vs Labor Troubles

The above economic theory has, however, one difficulty which is largely responsible for many labor troubles today. In order to have advertising attractive to make people buy and thereby hold up employment, this advertising must make people dissatisfied with what they now have as well as want things which they do not now have. This requires that families must have more money in order to fulfill their desires.

In studies which I have made, it is evident that the wage worker himself often has been satisfied with his wages; but his wife and children have so prodded him for more money to buy more things that he has been an easy prey of unprincipled labor agitators. Therefore, although I see no remedy for the situation, advertising is probably directly responsible for many labor troubles and unnecessary strikes.

Circulation Not Everything

There is a tendency among advertising agencies to talk too much about the circulation of the newspapers in which they place advertising. Of course, it is very much easier for an advertising agency to bill each month one large city newspaper than to bill twenty small papers to get a given circulation. I insist, however, that this is unfair to the advertisers who are employing the agencies. Twenty small city papers may be worth to an advertiser far more than one large city paper with the same circulation.

It is better for an advertiser to distribute his products over a large number of cities rather than concentrate on one city. Also the small papers are read more thoroughly. The average large city newspaper has so many pages that the reader goes through them hurriedly and does not give sufficient consideration to the advertisements. Advertising agencies and newspapers have performed wonderful feats but they have not increased by one small second the available time each day which readers have.

Remember The Weekly Newspapers

Statistics show that the reader of small city papers has more time and gives more consideration to the advertisements. I will not say that weekly papers are seven times as valuable as daily papers of the same circulation, but surely they have some advantages. No one reads a daily paper the day after it is issued, but the weeklies are read during seven days.

Small town papers will become more-and-more important. Many large cities have reached a maximum in population. Whether or not there is a World War III the Federal Government must prepare for it by encouraging decentralization and the building up of the small interior communities. One of the best investments today should be a small town daily, or weekly, paper in a self-contained agricultural community.

Advertising and Taxes

Notwithstanding the importance of advertising in keeping up employment, statistics show that employers spend the largest sums for advertising when more employment is not needed, while they cut down advertising expenditures when there is much unemployment. The average employer seems to do the wrong thing, at the wrong time, when spending money for advertising.

One of the best ways to avoid the "boom or bust" policy would be for the government to allow a special tax reduction on five-year contracts for advertising expenditures. Then instead of spending their surplus on advertising this one year, with very little left for the next year, the advertising appropriations would be spent over a five-year period. This would do much to prevent a depression during the next few years.

NEWS ITEMS OF A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO TAKEN FROM THE FILES OF THE PLYMOUTH MAIL

A number of Pere Marquette employes and their families and a few invited guests, enjoyed a supper in the Beyer Hall, Wednesday evening. After the supper, progressive polo and dancing, furnished the past time for a most pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and children, Mrs. Samsen, the two Misses Egan and Miss Nellie Roke, all of Detroit, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Huldah Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. George Richwine and sons, Perry and Walton, were Flint visitors, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hamill and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herald Hamill at Grass Lake, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gayde and daughters, Sarah, Helen and Clara, visited their son and brother, Peter Gayde, at Saginaw, Sunday.

Plymouth defeated Ford City, 34 to 0, here Wednesday. Good teamwork and helpful interference determined the victory. Ford City put up a stiff battle, but was not too light. Bartlett got two touchdowns, while Segar and Stevens and Captain Norgrove each obtained one. Millard kicked goal four out of five times.

Miss Grace Stowe of Detroit, was a Sunday visitor of her sister, Mrs. George A. Smith.

Winfield S. Birch is erecting a new greenhouse at his property on South Main street, 22x80 feet in size. A Chicago firm has the contract.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hayes and children of Detroit, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jewell, last Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Chappel, who underwent a serious operation at Harper hospital sometime ago, returned home last Saturday, and is convalescing.

F. L. Becker has red raspberry bushes in his garden that are blossomed out and some with green berries on. This is very unusual for this time of the year.

Plymouth Woman Has 500 Sets Of Salt and Peppers

Everybody has heard of stamp collectors, coin collectors and match cover collectors. A new hobby in the collectors' field came our way this week however. It's salt and pepper sets.

Mrs. Joseph C. Richard, an invalid, who is a temporary resident of Garden City, at 1844 Middle Belt road, is their owner. She has 500 sets of all varieties, shapes, sizes and value. All are gifts.

She began her collection in 1940 when she found her Plymouth home contained 118 sets. Once established as a collector of the items she found it little effort to obtain additional sets.

Mrs. Richard, who plans on returning to her Plymouth home next spring, is a former graduate nurse. Her most valued set is a doctor and nurse pair which she has had for more than 30 years.

Others are higher in monetary value but in sentiment the doctor and nurse can't be beaten. Her most priceless items are those inlaid with mother-of-pearl and others made from shells and beautiful stones.

She has sets of the seasoning dispensers from every state in the nation and from several foreign countries. Her oldest pair came from England.

One of the salt and peppers is but an inch high. Some are strictly art-pieces and could not be put to practical use. Most of her collection, however, is usable.

If you have any items of interest about your family or friends please call Plymouth 6.
