

Plymouth Has 100 Percent Clean Traffic Record Over Fourth Holiday

Chalk up a hundred percent record for the automobile drivers of Plymouth and vicinity!

There was not a single automobile accident reported in or around Plymouth during the Fourth holiday period.

Two Detroit residents did have an argument at the intersection of the Northville road and Hines driveway just this side of the Tait dry cleaning establishment, but no one was hurt and the only damage done was a slight dent in a fender of one of the cars. Both claimed the right of way.

Within the city of Plymouth there was not a single call to the police department pertaining to traffic mishaps from Wednesday until the end of the holiday period when nearly every one had returned home Monday.

Chief of Police Lee Sackett and his force were highly elated over this fine record of Plymouth motorists. While hundreds of people left the city over the week-end, nevertheless it required the use of the streets in going to and from the city. The police department desires to thank every one for their excellent cooperation in giving Plymouth a Fourth of July observance without a mishap of any kind.

Boy Scouts to Collect Old Papers Saturday to Pay For Camp Expenses

Here's something for you to do right now for the members of Plymouth Boy Scout troops No. 3.

Tip up that bundle of old newspapers and magazines, place them on your front porch Saturday morning early and sometime Saturday forenoon the Scouts of Plymouth Troop 3 will pick them up and sell them.

The money they make from this paper collection Saturday — tomorrow — will be used to pay for their summer camping expenses.

So be sure and tie up those old newspapers and magazines very early Saturday morning, put them on your porch and do a good turn for a Boy Scout.

Largest Collection of Indian Relics on Display in Plymouth

Sport Shop Devotes Entire Window to Le Forge's Life Hobby

Plymouth area residents this week have a opportunity to view a part of a collection of Indian relics which is thought to be the largest of its kind in the world. Clinton I. Le Forge's private collection of relics is on display in the windows of the Plymouth Sport Shop, on Penniman avenue. It numbers more than 22,000 pieces and nearly all of them were found right here in this area.

Le Forge, who in private life is a woodcraftsman, maker of fine violins, and a retired corporation lawyer, was born over near Ypsilanti. Early in life he became interested in the lore of the Redman, his mother being of part Indian blood. He had been watching brought an arrowhead up from his hole in the ground. That prompted "Clint," as he is known around here, to dig and what he found was a burial ground. This was on the old Le Forge homestead. Later he came back, and exploring further, found 97 separate burials there.

In all he has made 317 excavations of Indian cemeteries, the largest was right in Ypsilanti where the area covered six city blocks. In nearly every case Le Forge has reburied the dead after collecting his data which he has compiled for historical research.

In fact, so complete is his collection, that if it hadn't been for World War II his results of 55 years of research might today be in the Berlin Museum of Natural History. Just before the war negotiations and a down payment had been made for the sale, but that was cancelled when the U.S. Government's actions became strained. Now, Le Forge says, the collection is not for sale. It will go to his son, Donald, who is now 32, and who is interested in going on with the work in Indian history that his father started.

"It's a wonderful story," Le Forge says, "especially in that I am one of the few of the Indian-Early American question. I have kept up my study of the Indian these many years, all the time trying to learn more about them and their habits, mainly out of respect for my mother who saw to it that I had an opportunity for education.

"The night was never too dark, the moon too great or the going too bad but what she would get up and slip on a pair of snow shoes, if necessary, for the relief of mankind," the naturalist declared. "She had the ability of an Indian to administer and many times I saw her save a person's life." Le Forge said.

"Why, if it hadn't been for the first Americans early colonists would have perished from starvation. The Indians fed the whites the first five years they were here. And it was what they learned from the Indian that helped them survive in later years."

In the Sport Shop windows are nine of Le Forge's display boards of relics. One is what he calls a "school board" on which there is mounted one of nearly every type of thing he has found. On this board he has articles from the only modern excavation he has ever found. By "modern" is meant that the mound indicated that the individual buried had been buried in the early days. This was shown through the digging of silver buckles which may have been used on shoes, a French parochial (double bar) cross, a French dagger, English coins and pendants.

Hundreds Back From The North

Stragglers from the exodus that left Plymouth for Michigan northlands the night before the Fourth of July and on the Fourth began returning home early Sunday afternoon.

Rains throughout most of northern Michigan late Saturday night and early Sunday morning started the homeward parade a few hours earlier than had been anticipated. By Monday noon a very large percentage of those who left the city for the weekend holiday had returned.

Fortunately there have been no reports of accidents in any part of Michigan in which a resident of this city was involved.

Mrs. M. Eva Smith.

Death Ends Long Life of Well Known Pioneer

Mrs. M. Eva Smith, aged 86 years and a life long resident of western Wayne county who since her wedding day 66 years ago had lived continuously on the same farm on Newburg road, died Tuesday morning at 6:30 o'clock.

She had helped her husband plant the trees that shaded the home where she went as a bride when she was 18 years old in the vicinity was just beginning to be used for farming purposes. She also helped to organize the little Methodist church at Newburg where she had worshipped for more than a half century and which she had served as an official of the numerous church organizations until failing health some five or six years ago made it impossible for her to continue her religious activities.

Mrs. Smith was born January 2, 1851 on a farm near Wayne. Her maiden name was Mary Eva Cady, being one of five daughters of a pioneer family that had settled in what is now known as the Cady neighborhood some time referred to as Cady Corners. Her sisters were Ella, Viola, Bernice, deceased, and Mrs. Essie Smith of Toledo, who survives.

She was married to William J. Smith October 17, 1881, who took his bride to the Smith homestead on Newburg road where he was born and lived until his death six years ago.

Hough District Again Says No

By a vote of 51 to 45, residents of the Hough school district have for the second time rejected a proposal to become a part of the Plymouth school district, the second special election having been held Monday night June 30.

There was considerable more interest displayed in the question at this election than at the first time the question was voted upon, a total of 96 votes being cast, which was much higher than at the first election, states W. H. Langmaid, an official of the Hough school district board.

The Hough district is one of the first school districts organized in this part of Wayne county.

Jeanne Schuler of Arthur street spent the past week with Margaret Jackson at the Jackson summer cottage at Point Pelee in Canada. Jeanne is now attending the Detroit Business Institute.

City to Drive Three Test Wells At Water Farm

The city commission at its meeting held on July 7, instructed the City Manager to request bids on Contract No. 1 which includes the drilling of three test wells and construction of one 12-inch producing well or three 8-inch producing wells at the Beck road water field. The city will therefore know the quantity of water that will be available before additional expenditures are made for other parts of the water works improvements.

The city contracted for a complete survey of the water problem and the recommended solution on December 19, 1946. The survey report was submitted by Shoecraft, Drury and McNamee, Consulting Engineers, in February. Then on April 23, the engineers were instructed to proceed with preparation of planning documents for water works improvements for Plymouth in with their report.

City Manager Harold Check asked the engineers to make a written report on July 1, indicating the progress made on dilled plans and specifications. For convenience in carrying out the construction work, the water improvements project has been divided into seven construction contracts which have been arranged and scheduled in such a way to develop the project logically. The status of these several contracts is as follows: contract No. 1—test wells and producing wells.

Sealed bids will be received on August 4th for the drilling of three test wells and construction of one 12-inch producing well or three 8-inch producing wells.

The engineers suggest that the test wells, provided for under this contract, be drilled as soon as possible and the producing wells installed in the softening plant. Engineers request that this equipment be requested soon. This contract is complete and was received by the city of Plymouth on July 7.

Contract No. 2—softening plant equipment. This contract provides for the purchase of the equipment to be installed in the softening plant. Engineers request that this equipment be requested soon. This contract is complete and was received by the city of Plymouth on July 7.

Contract No. 3—elevated storage tank.—The planning documents for this contract are substantially complete, the only undetermined item being that of the construction site. Within a short time the city will have purchased a site and then the engineers will complete the location plan and the design of connecting mains.

Contract No. 4—supply main. This contract covers the supply main from the Beck road supply field. Surveys have been completed and plans and specifications are about 90 per cent complete. Engineers expect to deliver the planning documents for Contract No. 4 this week.

Contract No. 5—feeder mains. This contract includes the feeder mains within the city distribution system plan to complete the feeder loops in order to improve distribution, circulation, and pressure throughout the city.

Surveys for the contract are nearly complete and drawings and specifications are about 70 per cent completed. Engineers expect to deliver planning documents for Contract No. 5 next week.

Contract No. 6—softening plant buildings. This contract covers the building of the softening plant and the related building services, such as plumbing, heating and lighting.

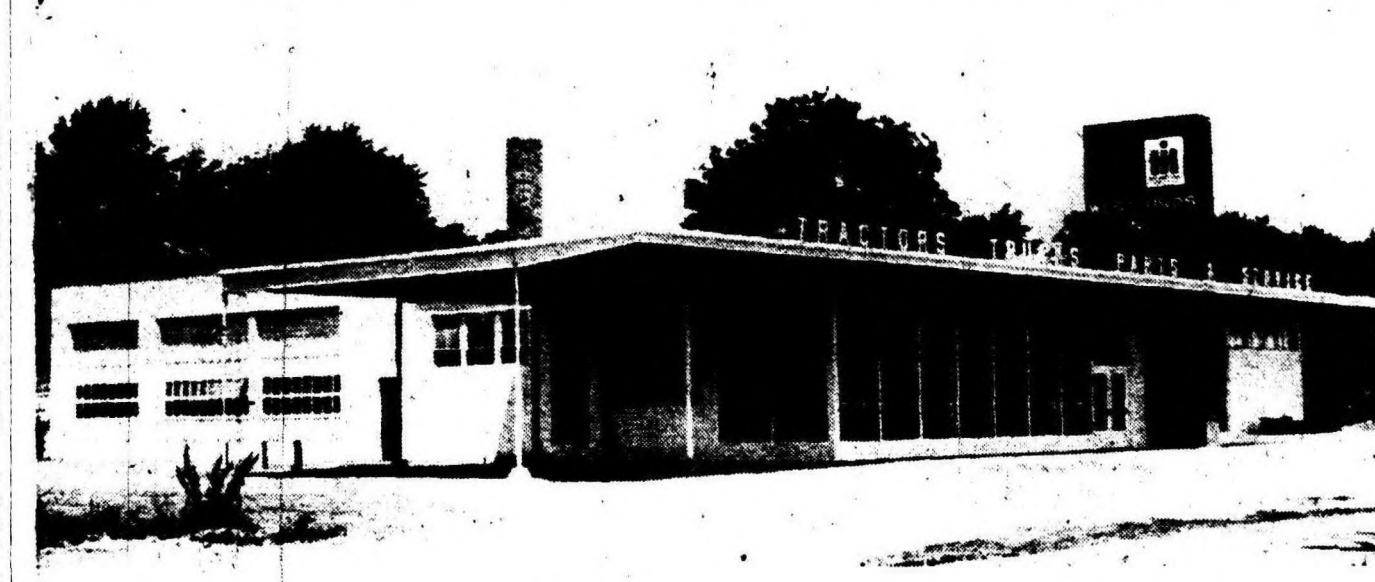

The work of planning these facilities is about 50 per cent complete and is being deferred pending the award of contract No. 2 for softening plant equipment. When the actual equipment to be purchased under Contract No. 2 has been determined the building under Contract No. 6 can be planned to more particularly house that equipment.

Contract No. 7—well houses. This contract includes the construction of small houses for the producing wells. Planning work on the well house or houses is well along, but is being deferred in the thought that the producing wells and their equipment might be determined at an early date, whereupon the building can be specifically designed for them.

After the city receives the complete planning documents for each one of these contracts, the city must send two copies to the Michigan Department of Health, whose Bureau of Engineering, Division of Water Supply checks the contracts and approves them and issues construction permits.

The specifications of contract No. 1 have been approved by the Michigan Department of Health. Contract No. 2, which was just received by the city on July 7th, includes specifications for water softening equipment and also two iron removal units. Such units are to precipitate the iron in solution and then to remove the iron as it passes through a filter. An important part of the water improvement program is to re-

Legion to Stage Carnival For Youth Benefit

For the purpose of raising funds to help pay for the building of a Plymouth public school athletic field in keeping with the needs of the city, members of the Myron H. Beals American Legion have arranged to stage a carnival from and including Monday, July 21 to 22 o'clock Saturday night, July 26.

Mayor Jack Taylor recently recommended to the city commission that the request of the veterans who desire to do something to help the city in which they live, be granted permission to hold the carnival for this worthy purpose.

Commander John Jacobs of the American Legion advised the Mayor and members of the city commission that it was the intent of the veterans to turn over to the Plymouth Rotary Athletic field fund every cent that is made as the result of the carnival.

Mr. Jacobs said the Legion planned to have some of the most up-to-date rides and other attractions available for a week of fun and profit.

"We hope to make many hundreds of dollars, maybe a thousand or more, for the new athletic field. I think what the Rotary club is doing to help create a good place for the school boys of Plymouth to play their football and baseball games is an outstanding public service. It is time we began to give some thought to doing something to help keep our boys out of trouble and I know of nothing which is better for them than to keep them interested in football, baseball and other athletic contests," said Mr. Jacobs.

"This carnival will be an excellent way for the Legion to make some money for a very worthy cause and we are going to do all we can to make it a great success," he added.

New Furniture Styles Shown

O. M. Valliquette and A. L. Lantz of Blunk's Inc., who are attending the 139th furniture show in Grand Rapids report that they are surprised and pleased to note the many new furniture designs being offered the public.

More manufacturers and wholesalers are accepting new accounts than at any market since furniture producers were forced to restrict their lines in keeping with wartime regulations. In some cases the quota plan of distribution is still in effect.

The price picture indicates little or no change, although some manufacturers either through a change of mark-up or improved quality are attempting to give increased value. Lumber, springs, finishing materials and shipping cartons have advanced substantially in price in the past six months, before they decrease.

With the addition of millions of dollars worth of new equipment greater production efficiency will be reflected in lower prices when material and labor costs can be adjusted.

Contemporary design gives promise of making striking advances along the entire furniture front, but good old reliable Eighteenth Century traditional designs are continuing their numerical advantage. Colonial design was next in popularity closely followed by French Provincial.

After completing their buying in Grand Rapids, Mr. Valliquette and Mr. Lantz will proceed to Chicago to continue their search for new and unusual things to present to the customers of Blunk's Inc.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burrier of Toledo were guests of Mrs. J. R. Elliott.

Hillside Ready For Re-opening On Tuesday, July 15

Despite all talk of depression, hardwork and many other unforeseen problems, Hillside opened its doors 14 years ago. The doors were the standard size but the dining rooms were small. Today, it's a different story. With the latest re-modeling started June 30, and completed July 14, Hillside has gone all the way in offering you dining in comfort and in pleasure as well as away from downtown parking problems. You're really in the ozone at Hillside.

There has been a tremendous amount of post-war discussion about the feasibility of lowering prices in the face of constantly rising food prices. Without entering into a long drawn-out recital of the pros and cons on the matter, Hillside would like to point out its record in this connection. It is a record they believe will be hard to match by any other restaurant comparable to Hillside. Remember, Hillside has never closed its doors but for vacation time. Briefly, Hillside's current food prices represent an increase of approximately 50 percent over the food prices in effect during the year 1939.

Folks, that's quite a record. Certainly it's one that is unmatched by other restaurants in the immediate vicinity. Some of the reasons why it has become possible to establish their prices despite almost universal economic trends in the opposite direction has been the personnel of Hillside and the way they do it. You see, Hillside has a top-notch staff of experienced chefs, salad chefs and waitresses whose job it is to serve you and that they do in a most gratifying manner. Those at Hillside believe they have an enviable record for serving and service.

Many folks, quite naturally have overheard the fact that rationing was once in effect. That's too expected.

"We don't mind admitting—strictly among you people of course, who have always been fussy about your food that we at Hillside were at times scared of those rationing days when it came to the job of preparing a menu. During the rationing days prices were high and even though you had the money to buy it, you still couldn't buy it in any great quantities, but you could stand in line at Hillside and get a fine meal (that standing in line wasn't so good). The management of Hillside didn't like it either but you were taken care of and as far as we can ascertain in good shape, because you, the public, worked and co-operated just as hard as we did," says Mr. Stremich. "We know you appreciated it because you still continue to come back—(only no more standing in line). We at Hillside have gotten a great deal of pleasure out of being able to look back on those days of rationing. It's surprising how many things occurred during those days that made it appear unreasonable. The things we at Hillside would have to tell you and you in turn would tell us. But, now that it's all over and we are back to our post-war menus and a completely remodeled dining room; it's most gratifying to see you and be able to serve you."

To all of you who made our fourteen years of business a success and a great deal of pleasure (including rationing days) we invite you to return and enjoy better food at reasonable prices in cool pleasant surroundings.

"We know that you know how much green stuff it takes to get food those days! Everybody that reads this article is a pretty hearty eater and that's our best customer so say Hillside a visit and note reactions, if any."

General Chairman of the Coast-to-Coast Derby Marvin Partridge, this week announced the following committees selected from members of the young businessmen's organization to act the day of the race:

Chief Starter, Sanford Knapp, assisted by Gerald Shoemaker; clerk of the course, John Gaffield, assisted by Fred Waara and Roy McAllister; director of course arrangements, James Ross, assisted by Charles Phillips and Walter Patrick; sound car operated by Frank Walsh and Jack Marsh.

Advertising for the official program is in charge of Theodore Box, who this week has been contacting Plymouth business concerns in arranging for their space in the booklet. Proceeds from the derby will help swell the fund which Jaycees have pledged in underwriting the high school's new band uniforms.

The Misses Dora Gruebner, Marion Miklosky, Dorothy Loney, and Elaine Lyandre enjoyed a four-day cruise to Mackinac Island on the S. S. Western States, and a dish to pass, and will meet at the Patchen School at 6:30 p. m. There will be games and prizes and also drawing for the Hand made quilt.

The Patchen Community Club annual picnic will be held at Plymouth Park on Wednesday, July 16. Members and friends are asked to bring their own services and a dish to pass, and will meet at the Patchen School at 6:30 p. m. There will be games and prizes and also drawing for the Hand made quilt.

48 Boys Tryout For Big Leagues

Forty-eight boys from Plymouth and vicinity under the age of 19 years appeared for a chance to play in Briggs Stadium on July 26. Tryouts began on Wednesday, July 2 at the Daisy Field in Plymouth. All of the boys who appeared the first night were held over for the first elimination which took place at the House of Correction Field on Saturday, July 5.

The boys were chosen on their proficiency in fielding, throwing, hitting, and running. All four of these factors are vitally important and must be performed well to become a proficient baseball player. The judges rated the boys on each quality, combined their ratings and picked the boys with the highest points.

Two squads were selected and will play a final game on Monday, July 14 at 6:00 p.m. at the House of Correction. The general public is invited to attend. A practice game was played on Thursday, July 10 to acquaint the boys with each other and their type of play. Prominent baseball scouts and outstanding Detroit baseball players will be on hand Monday to select the three boys who will play with the Out-State team against the Detroit team in Briggs Stadium.

Falling Limb Cuts Off Power

That high wind Monday noon didn't do much damage but it did cause a lot of inconvenience to residents and business places on the east side of Main street between Penniman and Rose streets. A big limb was blown from a tree on Rose street directly across two high tension wires of the Detroit Edison company's service, breaking both of them. Fortunately when the wires fell to the ground no one was hurt and no damage done.

Clown Makes Hit With Wild Lifers

In these days of hurry, worry, confusion and errors it appears that most anything can happen. And one of these "most anything's" happened recently in a write-up of an important event in Plymouth that failed to mention one of the big features, one of the parts in a program that made the affair such a pleasant one.

It all pertains to the annual summer barbecue of the Western Wayne County Conservation Association that took place out at the club house and grounds on Joy road recently.

President Brick Champe and other members of the committee on arrangements knew that a large number of members planned to bring their wives and children. They also knew that the wives would be able to find plenty to do, but there was some worry about the hundreds of boys and girls who would be present.

Some one suggested that it

IF NOT PLEASED, your 35c back. Ask any druggist for this STRONG fungicide, TE-O-L. Made with 90 percent alcohol. PENETRATES. Reaches and kills MORE germs faster. Today at BEYER PHARMACY.

would be a good stunt to have a clown—a real one—there to help entertain the crowd. So President Champe began looking for a clown, and a good one.

To the surprise of every one he discovered that a clown of long experience lives in this vicinity, Theodore Edward Donnithorne of 8150 Ravine drive, and the committee was quick to make arrangements for the appearance of this well-known fun maker at the big summer event of the Wild Lifers.

And what a big hit he made, not only with the boys and girls but with the entire crowd of nearly 2,000 people. From the time he arrived at the grounds until he, as well as the crowd were all tired out, he kept every one in almost a constant roar of laughter.

Mr. Donnithorne did a swell job in his part of the program. The Plymouth Mail regrets that in its haste and the necessity for brevity in all news articles appearing in the issue of two weeks ago that suitable mention was not made of the splendid part that

Flying Saucers And Roller Pins

There's one thing pretty sure. Plymouth folks just have to be "shown."
That's why there have been no reports of any one living in this locality seeing the so-called "flying saucers" that a lot of folks around the country have reported.

One of the regular readers of The Plymouth Mail who refuses to get excited about anything except politics and Newdeal squandering, offered the following contribution to The Mail pertaining to the "flying saucers."
"Let's have a guess about the flying saucers. If we should have a report about 'flying rolling pins' it would not be such startling news, but now we have the 'flying saucers' and that is startling news."
"The average man or woman listening to and reading about this jittery world can see almost anything their fears can conjure up."
"If some thirsty people should see a mirage on a hot day while listening to a radio blast out a program, what a discription they could give of what they actually saw, and who could contradict?"
"Now we have a very jittery people watching the sky and looking for something they can't explain. So why not have a guessing game about it and keep our mind on the facts."

"My guess is that these flying saucers are a reflection on tops of new moving automobiles caused by the sun and projected on the clouds similar to a mirage. Take a look at "mirage" in the dictionary and never mind the flying saucers but dodge the flying roller pins. They're usually real."

City Manager Harold Check called attention the other day to the city ordinance which regulates the possession of dogs in Plymouth.

The ordinance is a strict one. It says that if you own or "harbor" any dog and you let it run around without a license tag, you are subject to a fine.

Not only that, but during the months of July, August and September no dog can be on the streets of Plymouth unless the owner is securely holding it by a leash.

That means if your dog runs out in the street and you do not have hold of its leash, you are subject to arrest and a fine.

Better look after Fido. The cops have got an eye on him.

Need Blood For War Veterans

Plymouth residents who desire to make donations of blood to war veterans will have the opportunity to do so on next Wednesday, July 16.

Police To Crack Down On Dogs

Like that dog of yours? If so, you had better hurry right down to the city hall and get a license for it, or some Plymouth policeman may kidnap Fido from the street and hustle it over to the city dog pound.

Residents of Wayne county have been asked to take the place of friends and relatives of patients at the Veterans' Administration Hospital, Dearborn.

Whole blood is needed for transfusions for these men, most of whom are from other parts of the country.

This means that the usual relatives and friends, who would stand ready to donate blood for them, just are not available." Dr. Thomas P. Crane, manager of the hospital, said.

The Wayne County Chapter of the American Red Cross has been asked to assume responsibility for all whole blood needs of the hospital—and you must share the responsibility with the Red Cross.

The Red Cross will furnish blood from its Community Blood Bank. Its ability to meet the present requirements of the Veterans Hospital — 100 pints a

Howdy Folks: You can't believe everything the way you hear it. For example, there was the man who said that his wife's cooking warmed his heart, when he really meant that it gave him heartburn.

When a friend borrows ten dollars, about the best security you can have is a chain and padlock, a pair of handcuffs and a watchdog.

"Why does your brother say 'Honk! Honk!' all the time when he is crossing the street?" "It's because he doesn't want people to know that he isn't an automobile."

And if you want to keep on having an automobile, we suggest you drive it in here and 'honk' just once. We will come running to give you the finest service you can ask for—super quality gas, oil and lubrication. That kind of service will insure finer car performance for a long time to come.

Fix Dates For 4-H Club Fair

By E. I. Besemer
The Board of Directors of the Wayne County 4-H Fair Association announced this week the days of August 20, 21 and 22, as the days for the first Wayne County 4-H Fair. The exhibits will be set up on August 29 and judging will be done August 21.

The rose chafer is out in full force but a 10 per cent DDT dust will be effective in its control. Do not use DDT on food plants such as lettuce, broccoli where the leaves or heads are eaten. The black flea beetles are working over time on tomatoes. Bordeaux mixture will drive them away. To get a kill of the flea beetle use 1 per cent Rotenone dust or spray.

Michigan's harvest machines will soon be in full operation bringing greatly increased hazards to life and limb of farmers. Now is the time for each farmer to make definite plans for safety in his harvesting operations, declares E. I. Besemer, county agricultural agent. Records of the National Safety Council show that farm accidents become more frequent during the harvesting season than during any other period of the year. Harvesting machinery with its high speed shafting, belting and gears, together with its cutting mechanism, increases the chance for serious accidents. The fundamental step in the safe operation of harvest machines is to put them in good condition before the harvest begins.

The following suggestions point out the important precautions that should be taken to insure safety during the harvest:

Stop completely all machinery before oiling, adjusting or unclogging it.

Safety guards and shields should be kept in places at all times while the machinery is in operation.

Floppy or ragged clothing which catches easily in moving machine parts should not be worn.

Operate machines at a reasonable speed. Start smoothly, turn corners slowly.

Rough or hilly ground calls for reduced speed.

Avoid driving too closely to the edge of ditches or embankments.

Avoid jumping off a machine before it has come to a full stop.

Small children are definitely out of place around harvesting machinery.

Anderson Wins Blunk Prize

Each year when the fishing season opens it is quite an event for the Manna Blunk family out at their cottage on Maxfield lake in Livingston county. The newspapers and outdoor magazines are not the only ones who offer prizes for the biggest fish caught on opening day, for Mr. and Mrs. Blunk also offered prizes for the "biggest one" that didn't get away.

This year the prize went to Knut Anderson of Plymouth who landed a big eight pound pike with the aid of Gus Lundquist and an oversized landing net.

Visitors at the Blunk cottage at Maxfield lake on opening day were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Brocklehurst, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Felton and son George, Mr. and Mrs. Knut Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lundquist, all of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Steffer, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Shear and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Koch, all of Ann Arbor.

Athletic Field Being Rushed To Completion

In the short period of three weeks tremendous strides have been made toward the completion of the new football field at Plymouth High school.

The whole area has been graded and preparations are now nearly completed for the seeding operation. Fertilizer has been applied to the field. Following the initial seeding this week the field will be reseeded in the near future. This will insure a perfect grass covered field in time for the opening of the football season.

The installation of lights about the field is all but completed. Ten, sixty foot poles have been set into the ground and the powerful lamps are being put in place. There will be six individual lamps on each of the poles, which will provide 60 lights in all. Each of the bulbs are 1500 watts and enough light will be available to make the field at night as light as day.

It is also planned to provide for a quarter mile cinder track around the outside of the football field. The excavating and grading for this has already been completed. The entire project, including the proposed bleachers and grandstands, will be fenced in. The fencing is expected to arrive at any time and those in charge of construction feel that the field should be ready for the fall season.

Food "Not So Hot" Over in Ireland

"We're having a swell time but the food and the weather are not so hot" wrote Hugh Quee of Northville road who is touring Ireland, England and the European continent with Mrs. Quee. It is their first trip back to their native Ireland since the end of the First World war, in which Mr. Quee served with a British outfit.

One of the reasons for a visit back to their native Ireland and England was to look up some of the veterans who fought in France with Mr. Quee. While in France it is their purpose to visit some of the battlefields where many of Mr. Quee's old friends lie buried.

The trip is being made by plane. He states that the flight overseas was about as ideal as one could hope it to be.

They will be back in Plymouth late in July.

Two Northville Boys to Appear in Try-Outs

When scouts from the St. Louis Cardinals of the National League appear in Battle Creek next week to watch the try-outs of many Michigan youths who aspire to professional football there will be two youngsters from Northville who hope to win the favor of these baseball experts.

They are Dene Nitzel, who has played second base and Charles Cole, short stop who has been doing some excellent pitching this summer.

Both have been hitting over .300 and are members of undefeated baseball teams.

In Belle Isle, Mich., Motorist Kenneth Blue concluded that the rain was getting much too heavy when his wiper failed to keep water off the windshield, stepped out to investigate, had to swim ashore from the 10 ft. deep lagoon into which he had driven.

Trend of the Family

There's Pop — and Mom — and the kids — somehow all of them have to get together on which car it will be for the family.

Well, if you go by the pollsters, there's no problem.

One poll asked the youngsters who are old enough to have fixed opinions which car they preferred.

It was Buick — head and shoulders.

Another went to the ladies, guardians of the family pocketbook.

And ruming way ahead of other cars at its price — staging a nip-and-tuck battle for second with one of the "lowest-priced three" — was this Buick beauty, trim and fresh and gay as a Paris bonnet, new as tomorrow in looks and line.

As for the men —

Is a poll necessary to show how men go for the lift and swing of eight great Fireball cylinders?

Do you have to ask to find out that they prefer a car big and steady and sure-footed on any road as this Buick is?

Is there any man who wouldn't rather have the smoothness of four gentle coil springs, the quick, deep-throated answer of this star performer to his treadle-foot, the sense of perfect mastery of two generous tons that are ever "obediently yours"?

The answer's written on the order books of Buick dealers from coast to coast: This is America's most wanted automobile.

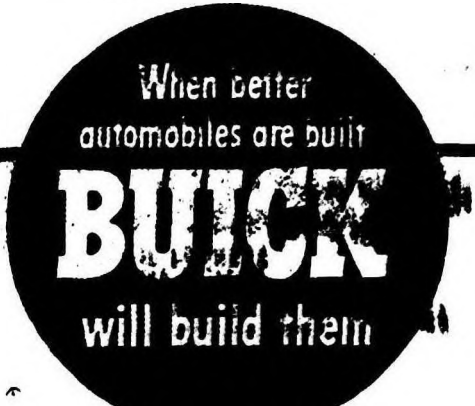

This is the one the whole family goes for — on style, on size, on room, on power, on performance — so why not join the trend?

We'll take your order any time you say — and give it equal consideration whether or not you have a car to trade.

On Tuesday, July 15th at 6:00 p. m. Oldsmobile and House of Correction, Industrial League leaders, will meet on the Central High School Field. In their last meeting the House won by the score of 5 to 1, but "Gabby" Street, Old's ace pitcher did not "chuck" that game.

Tuesday's game will feature Street, undefeated in eight games in the Plymouth League, matching pitchers with the House of Correction's Trombley who has won seven and lost two. Both of Trombley's losses were due to the lack of support by his fielders. Trombley is at present averaging fourteen strike-outs per game and is showing the same form that made his name famous when he threw for the Briggs Beautyware team of Detroit.

On Thursday, July 3rd, Cavalcade took undisputed possession of third place as the House of Correction went down under the pitching of "Danny" Eskin by the score of 1 to 0.

Oldsmobile and Evans Local played ten innings on the Central No. 2 field before Old's squeezed a run in to win 1 to 0.

Daisy Air Rifles in First Place
The Western Wayne League which plays on Tuesday evenings at 6:00 p. m., is showing some promising baseball players. Although Daisy is in first place, having won 3 and lost none, the individual stars are on the Wiedeman's Cardinals, who are close behind, having won both games they have played.

In the first game, Gilbert Wasalaski faced only twenty-three batters in his seven inning win over the Plymouth Red Sox, at Riverside Park. Wasalaski's control weakened slightly in the third as he walked Harold Secords who failed to get any further than first base. With two out in the seventh, he had only David Heintzman to get for a no-hit game, but David had his own ideas, as he drove a double to center to burst the balloon. However, Richard Klein proved little trouble, as he hit an easy fly to center to give Wasalaski a 10 to 0 victory.

On Tuesday, July 1st, Jack Schell took the mound for the Cardinals and proceeded to equal Wasalaski's one hit game, downing Livonia Recreation 15 to 1. Sharing the honors with Schell was Wasalaski who, playing third base, hit for the circuit. He had a perfect day at bat hitting a home run, triple, single and double in that order.

Schedule for Tuesday, July 15
Plymouth Red Sox vs. Livonia Recreation at Riverside Park
Wayne vs. Northville at Wayne
Redford vs. Livonia Firemen at Redford
Daisy vs. Cardinals at Daisy.

Playground Activities
During the month of June, 6,220 people participated in the Recreation program. There were 1,089 participants in the athletic program witnessed by 1,700 spectators. Presents Gift To Westwood Club

Last official act of Charles Brake, retiring president of the Plymouth Rotary club, took place last week when in behalf of Plymouth Rotarians, he presented to the newly organized Westwood Rotary club a brief case for the use of the new club's secretary.

The affair took place at the Dearborn Inn when charters were presented to two new clubs, the Westwood club and a new Rotary organization at Ecorse. Nearly 200 Rotarians from this part of Michigan were present.

Both new clubs, referred to as "Our Twins," were organized as the result of the activities of the Dearborn club.

District Governor George A. Smith was present at the affair and had a seat of honor at the speaker's table, although he did not assume his new duties until the day following the Dearborn affair.

Besides being represented by Mr. Smith and Mr. Brake, Dave Galin and Elton R. Eaton were present for the Plymouth Rotary club.

FAIR IN THE LIGHT OF MEMORY SHINES MICHIGAN My MICHIGAN ELTON R. EATON

An extremely late and backward season, one of the latest on record, has been reported from some sections of the Canadian waterfowl breeding grounds, the Wildlife Management Institute advised today. Similar reports have come in from the Prairie Provinces and from the Maritime, it was stated.
This unseasonable weather has interrupted the migration of waterfowl, delayed selection of territories and caused some ducks to nest farther south, according to Fish and Wildlife Service flyway biologists and the waterfowl specialists at the Institute's research station at Delta, Manitoba. There is no evidence so far to suggest that this will have any effect on the ultimate hatch, however.

The ice had not gone out of Lake Winnipeg on May 13, the reports show, and ice was still floating free on Lake Manitoba on May 17. Water froze in the quiet ponds at Delta, and it was 24 deg. F. at Regina, Saskatchewan, on May 18. Snow was piled deep in some of the coulees on the Assiniboine River May 19.
Estimates on this year's reproduction, used by the Fish and Wildlife Services in determining the open season and bag limits on waterfowl, will be late in coming in, the Institute believes.

Rescue of a seven-year old boy and his five-year old sister from a rubber boat that had drifted a mile out into Lake Michigan before a Grand Haven state park ranger here spotted it points up a state park ruling regarding use of these craft.

The conservation department's parks concessionaries to rent rubber boats except on small, quiet, inland lakes. On larger inland lakes and at Great Lakes beaches their use is discouraged because high winds and strong currents make them unmanageable for the ordinary vacationer.

Twice last season state park personnel assisted in rescue of persons blown far out into Lake Michigan in inflated rubber boats.

Ohio has set a seven-day pheasant and a 25-day rabbit season for 1947, with hunting hours limited to 9 a. m. - 4 p. m. daily.

The new bill, H. R. 3802, recently introduced by Congressman

Kerston, Wisconsin, is a substitute for H. R. 2617 by the same author, the Wildlife Management Institute said today. Both bills would increase the price of Duck Stamps from $1.00 to $2.00, and amend the Migratory Bird Hunting Stamp Act so that 25 per cent of the area of established refuges may, in the discretion of the Secretary of Interior, be opened to public hunting, provided that the birds in the area or flyway are not on the decline. Reintroduction was easier than to have the first bill referred from the Committee on Agriculture to Merchant Marine and Fisheries.

Michigan's long-planned expansion of its force of conservation officers edged into a position "just around the corner" as the conservation commission authorized hiring 56 more men within the next 60 days.

The commission ordered this strengthening of its law enforcement staff in its first meeting since the Legislature voted increased fishing and hunting license fees to support an intensified law enforcement program.

In the first months of their service, the new officers alternately will spend two weeks in the field with officers who are seasoned veterans and two weeks in training classes at the department's Higgins lake school.

Need of enlarging the present staff of 150 conservation officers to keep pace with greatly increased fishing and hunting pressure in all sections of the state was a basic consideration in revision of the license fee schedule.

Trappers last season took more muskrats, raccoons and opossums but fewer mink, badgers, skunks and weasels the conservation department's game division reports after sending a 22.5 per cent sample of trappers' report cards through the sorting machines.

The muskrat take is estimated at 582,400 pelts, an increase of 33,550 over 1945. A take of 12,000 opossums is 2,800 more than were trapped a year earlier. The 15,140 raccoons trapped are 2,550 more than were taken in the previous season.

Trappers reported taking 20,800 weasels, 14,230 fewer than in the year before; 30,250 mink, 3,155 less than before; 11,000 skunks, 630 less than in '45; and 740 badgers, 225 less than in '45.

Hunters took more of some fur bearers than trappers got. Their take last fall included 71,870 raccoons, 38,630 opossums, 12,730 mink, 500 badgers, 11,640 skunks, and 11,285 weasels. Hunters also shot 4,425 woodchucks.

Hungry bunnies need not be exterminated to prevent damage to garden flowers and vegetables, the Wildlife Management Institute said today. Numerous distasteful repellents can be used to discourage rabbits from eating tender plants and chewing young orchard stock, and they are not expensive, the report points out. A number of the cheap commercial spraying mixtures and dusting powders will keep cottontails from nibbling on plantings, or any of the following "home remedies" will prove most effective with repeated applications; dust plants liberally with dusting sulphur, or with powdered lime when plantings are damp; sprinkle plants with red or cayenne pepper; or spray plants with a solution of any of these mixtures, three ounces of epsom salts in a gallon of water, one teaspoonful of lysol to a gallon of water, two teaspoonful of Black Leaf Forty to one gallon of soapy water.

You can best solve your rabbit problem by erecting a 2-foot, 1 1/2-inch mesh, chicken wire fence around the garden or orchard, the Institute suggested, but the bottom should be staked to the ground.

THE BANCROFT

THE BANCROFT—The architect was asked in designing The Bancroft, to strive simply to develop the most compact, most convenient one story three bedroom house possible. So efficient is the room arrangement that this three bedroom house costs little more than the less skillfully designed two bedroom bungalow. It has about 19,000 cubic feet, has a floor area of 2000 square feet with basement. Meets FHA and National Adequate Wiring Bureau standards.

Plymouth was practically deserted over the Fourth, many of our citizens going to nearby towns and lakes where there were celebrations on that day.

Many from here went over to a big Fourth celebration in Northville.

Dr. and Mrs. Olsaver and little daughter Barbara Jean and the former's mother, Mrs. Harrison Olsaver of Rushton, motored to Willoughby, Ohio the latter part of the week where they spent the weekend with relatives.

Miss Anna Baker and Mrs. J. W. Henderson pleasantly entertained a few friends in honor of Miss Alice Safford.

J. E. Pettigill has purchased the house now occupied by B. E. Giles on Williams street and plans to move into it in the near future.

The re-opening day at O. P. Martin's store last Saturday was largely attended. Many friends and patrons called at the store during the day to compliment Mr. and Mrs. Martin on the fine improvements which they had made.

The opening of the Plymouth hotel restaurant and luncheon counter last Saturday was well patronized. Everybody was greatly pleased with the quality of the eats and the splendid manner in which they were served by the new proprietor, Arch W. Matherison and associates.

Babson Discusses Stock Market BABSON PARK, Mass., July 11.—Most of the stock market barometers forecast higher prices. This is due to the large amount of money in circulation, abounding credit, good dividends, high farm income, no unemployment and general prosperity. Yet, there is an underlying lack of confidence which makes large investors hesitant.

What Is the Trouble? The simple fact is that too many businessmen are discouraged and tired. Most of these corporation officials have enough money and do not need to work. They really hold their position because they want to be of service and thus far have "enjoyed the games." Now they are unfortunately reaching a time when they wonder if their work and worry is worthwhile. As these men are an important factor in the development of business, this discouraged attitude has a serious backfire. Let me tell you why.

Statistics show that 2% of the population of the U. S. is responsible for 90% of the new building, new businesses, new inventions, and enterprise in general. It is hard to make people believe this fact and labor leaders scorn it; but it nevertheless is true. Kill off even 1% of the population—if this 1% were the business drivers of the country—the nation would go into the greatest slump in history.

Taxes and Labor During the debate on the Tax Bill, President Truman and his friends tried to show that the reduction in dollars which would go to this 2% would be out of proportion to the reduction in dollars which would go to the rest of the population. This is not withstanding the fact that the upper bracket people would get a tax cut of only 15% compared with a tax cut of 30 per cent which the great mass of taxpayers would receive. Yet, higher bracket people are the ones who have the needed brains, inventive genius, organization ability and "drive" which makes industry tick. Industrial leaders were therefore much disappointed when the President vetoed the Tax Bill. They furthermore were again disappointed when President Truman vetoed the Labor Bill, even although Congress passed it over his veto. Why? Because when they went to their offices next morning, with new plans to spend money for improvements and extensions, more serious strikes were threatened. Thousands of men even left the coal mines in retaliation of Congress. As coal is vital to all industry, business leaders once more asked themselves:—"Why bother?"

Free Enterprise Capitalism, so-called, has many faults. It seems unfair that one boy should be born with a million dollars, while another boy equally worthy should inherit only debts. Monopolies of any kind are wrong; business leaders have abused their power in many ways. The fact that labor organizations have copied the same wrong methods is no excuse for the sins of capital. "Two blacks do not make a white,"—nor do two wrongs make a right.

President Truman should, however, honestly explain and recognize that there is a difference in people and that the few natural leaders should be encouraged and not persecuted as at present. The idea that everyone is equal in ability, as first emphasized by the leaders of the French Revolution and as now preached by the New Dealers, Socialists and Communists, is fundamentally unsound and every reader knows it. It may require a great depression to get people once more to think honestly and correctly; unless before then the importance of the two per-cent is frankly recognized.

What About Vacation? It is in view of the above that the stock market has reached a stalemate. It goes up a few points and then down a few points, with small volume of transactions. These transactions are mostly by professional speculators sitting in the offices of brokers. The real worthwhile industrialists, merchants, bankers and professional men are tired and discouraged. Perhaps a good vacation this summer may do them. Let us hope that they will take it and come back renewed in spirit and once again willing to buy stocks.
