

Would Restore Original Name of Penniman Ave. to Territorial Road

If there is anyone in Plymouth or anywhere else who can tell why Penniman avenue should not have its original name, "Territorial road" restored, there are a number of people in Plymouth who would like to know why.

Twice last Saturday, and within an hour, two different automobile drivers stopped in front of the postoffice to ask where they could find Territorial road.

"You are on it now—just keep going in the direction you are headed for," they were told.

Except for the fact that a fellow named Penniman came to Plymouth, made lots of money here through loans and real estate investments, there is no other reason in the world for the street being named Penniman, commented the bystander.

Territorial road has for generations been known as one of the main thoroughfares traveled by the early pioneer settlers of Michigan. It branched off from the old Ann Arbor trail just east of Kellogg park.

Just who originated the idea years ago to rename a portion of the road Penniman is not known, but there are some people who believe that the original and historic name of the street within the city of Plymouth should be renamed Territorial road, the same as it is known outside the city limits.

Mayor Taylor Urges Every Voter to Express Views at Tuesday Election

No matter whether you are for a better water supply for the city of Plymouth or against it—no matter whether you think the city should install a water softener in connection with its proposed water improvement program or whether the city should eliminate this part of the project, you are strongly urged to express your opinion at the polls next Tuesday, November 4.

Mayor Jack Taylor, in an open letter to the public, urges every one to vote on this advisory ballot whether you favor the water softener plant or are opposed to it.

In this position the Mayor is one hundred percent right, every one should vote Tuesday.

His letter to the voters of Plymouth follows in full: "I would like to urge upon the people of Plymouth the importance of getting out and voting on the Water Softener proposition on November 4. I, and I know the other members of the city commission, feel the same way. I am afraid that this problem of the water softener is not being taken seriously enough by the voters."

"Your city commission is looking to you to tell us whether you want the water softener or not. Regardless of our personal feelings in the matter, we are going to be guided by what the majority want, and unless we have a large vote, we will have to be guided by the few people who do get out and vote.

"When you do vote, weigh carefully the advantages and disadvantages of the water softener—should it be included in the proposed water improvement program. Some of the facts I have learned since studying the problem are:

"Soft water would be provided at a cost much less than what it costs to have home softeners, even with the higher water rates necessary under the proposed water improvements. We all know that something has to be done about the water situation and you must decide whether or not it would be good business not to include the softener when we are trying to do a good job of providing the best water for Plymouth.

"From figures provided it has been proven that there is tremendous saving in households in soap, wear and tear on clothing and heating installations when soft water is used. I have heard people say that they thought the taste would be objectionable, and, after all, that is one of the things in our present water we are trying to correct.

"The only statement I can make regarding that is that I have talked with people from both Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor, where softeners are in operation, and they state that they are very well satisfied with the taste of the water in those cities.

"The city of Plymouth has always tried to stay away from burdening debt as much as possible, but the time always comes when it is necessary to make essential improvements and our water situation can certainly be classed as such.

"We will all agree that the amount of money needed to make the improvements is a considerable sum, but when you take into consideration the fact that the people who use the water should be the ones to pay for it and that the cost will be spread over 25 or 30 years, the burden should be easily carried, particularly when we are getting good water.

"Let me again urge every registered voter to get out and vote on the water softener advisory vote on November 4. Vote which ever way you please—but vote."

Jack E. Taylor, Mayor, City of Plymouth.

Kryl Orchestra to Give Plymouth Concert Friday

Next Friday night, November 7, at 8:15, Bohumir Kryl will walk out on the stage of the High school auditorium and begin directing his all girl symphony orchestra in a concert for residents of Plymouth. Tickets for the concert may still be obtained from members of the High school band, orchestra, and chorus, according to Paul Wagner, High school music director. He also stated that a special matinee performance will be staged for students.

The conductor of this 50 piece group has lived an extremely interesting life, far removed from the cut and dried existence people often think of as typical of great musicians. He was born in Prague, Bohemia, as the son of a sculptor. At the age of 11 he ran away from home one night to join a circus which was traveling Europe. The boy was soon featured as an acrobat with the group, as well as a comedian in the parade. He traveled with this circus for two years, until he was injured and forced to quit the life forever.

Jack Taylor, Mayor City of Plymouth

A limited number of tickets for tomorrow night's Kiwanis Knight Klub party are available to the general public, according to Robert Joffille, ticket chairman. They may be obtained by contacting Mr. Joffille.

The dance will take place in the High school auditorium, beginning at 8 p. m. A smorgasbord has been planned for the evening, as well as entertainment. Music for dancing will be provided by Strasen's orchestra.

Decorations will carry out a cabaret theme, Byron Becker, chairman of the special projects committee, has announced. He also stated that the dance will be informal.

CKLW Editor to Speak on Europe

The public is invited to attend a lecture by Myrtle Labbett on "The Little People of Europe," which she will give November 13. The program is being sponsored by the Jaycee auxiliary and will take place in the Hotel Mayflower at 8 p. m., according to Mrs. Ray Danol, chairman.

Mrs. Labbett, who lived in Northville at one time, is at present women's editor of radio station CKLW. She and her husband recently traveled to Europe where they spent a few days in England, Belgium, Holland, and Paris.

Those desiring to attend may obtain a ticket from any member of the Jaycee auxiliary.

Mothers Drive Netting Results

Mothers of the players on the Plymouth High School football team are completing their canvass this week to pick up funds for the football field that were missed this summer by Rotarians in their drive. So far the mothers have collected $364.00 from homes that were missed during the previous drive and they hope to exceed the thousand dollar mark before they are through.

The drive is under the direction of Mrs. Manfred Becker who notified The Plymouth Mail that if there are still local people desiring to make a contribution to giving a second contribution that they may call her and she will see that it is collected.

Tuesday Election Important

Tuesday is election day—a day which will test your interests in both your citizenship and your concern about the community and county in which you live.

In Plymouth there will be two questions for the voters of this city to decide. One is of local concern only. It is an advisory vote upon whether the water softening plant made a part of the proposed water improvement program of this city.

The water softening plant has been recommended by both the engineers who have been engaged to develop a good water supply for this city as well as public officials of Plymouth who have made a careful study of the water problem of this community. They point out that it will be a big saving to local residents over a period of years.

There are a number of citizens who do not believe that the water softening proposal should be included in the water program. As a result they filed with the city commission petitions asking that the question be submitted to the voters.

The commission complied with the request of the signers of the petition and as a result the water softening question is on the ballot for the election which takes place Tuesday.

Mayor Jack Taylor has written a most commendable letter pertaining to this question which is being published on the first page of this issue.

The other question to be voted upon pertains to a proposed county bond issue for the erection of a combined Detroit city hall and new county building.

Detroit badly needs a new city hall, but because of the fact that Detroit is so badly bonded that it can no longer issue additional bonds, the city induced the county.

National Officer to Visit Jaycees

National Junior Chamber of Commerce vice president Paul Bagwell will be the guest speaker at the Plymouth organization's meeting next Wednesday night. This meeting, which has been designated as past president's night by the Jaycees, will honor the previous presiding officers.

Charles Wolfe, chairman of the club membership committee, is in charge of the program. He has stated that members and guests from both in and around Plymouth are expected to attend.

Preceding his present national office, Mr. Bagwell was president of the Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1946. He was chosen to fill his national post at last Spring's national convention, which was held in Long Beach, California. He has been active in Jaycee activities for several years, particularly with the Lansing organization. Among other honors, he was president of this group at one time.

But the Jaycee has not been Mr. Bagwell's singular interest. During the war he was actively engaged in the direction of speakers' bureaus for war bond rallies, Civilian defense affairs, and patriotic drives of all types. He was chosen president of the National Victory Speakers' conference in 1942 and held his post until 1946 when the Michigan Office of Civilian Defense was dissolved. In recognition of this war time work, Governor Harry F. Kelly presented him with the Distinguished.

First Television Set Installed in Plymouth

Everyone has heard stories about Mr. and Mrs. so and so being the first ones to install electricity or the first ones to buy a car. Now there is a new one.

In years to come the descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Russell can brag that that couple was the first to purchase a radio-television set in the city. They recently obtained it from the Kimbrough Appliance company. The latter company is the only Plymouth business concern which carries television sets at the present time.

Football Field to Be Dedicated at Game Tonight

Formal dedication services for Plymouth High school's football field will take place tonight, Friday, between halves of the game with Northville.

The dedication program will begin with the raising of the flag while the combined bands of Plymouth, Northville and Livonia play the national anthem.

Mayor Jack Taylor will deliver a welcoming address to those who attend the service, and Paul Wiedman, president of the Rotary club will make the presentation.

Mr. Wiedman will present the field to the president of the school board, Sterling Eaton, who will accept it on behalf of the school.

Community Chest Funds Still Long Way from Goal

It was announced at Tuesday night's meeting of the Plymouth Community Chest committee that approximately $1,741.00 has been contributed to the drive. Since all volunteer workers were not present, it was impossible to determine the exact amount which has been received, according to James Gallimore, chairman.

The chairman has stressed that this amount is still a long way from the $9,000 mark, which has been set for the drive. Since the total amount of contributions are donated to Plymouth Red Feather organizations, such as the Boy and Girl Scouts and Visiting Nurses, to mention a few, the committee members urge all residents of the city to make a donation, no matter how small. Only by backing the drive, can Plymouth have successful Red Feather organizations which can compare to those of other cities. All donations must be turned in by November 12.

Volunteer workers are soliciting contributions by calling at homes and places of business in the city. It is practically impossible to call on each family, however, since the number of workers is comparatively small. Anyone desiring to contribute to the fund, who is not called on, can take their donations to Mrs. Lisle Alexander at the Plymouth United Savings Bank.

In conclusion, Mr. Gallimore stated it is his hope that Plymouth will make as good a showing in the drive as other cities in the vicinity.

Antique Guns to be Featured in Turkey Shoot

Authentic old guns will be used by members of the Western Wayne County Conservation association when they meet for a turkey shoot on Sunday, according to Dr. B. E. Champe, president. The meet will be staged on the grounds of the club house, beginning at 9 a. m.

The guns are reported to be in 100 per cent shooting condition. They have been on display in the Plymouth Sport Shop for the past week. Contestants must use the guns furnished by the club. Dr. Champe stated, and loaders will be on hand to keep them in shooting condition.

The president announced that one turkey will be furnished each squad of ten men. The grand prize will be shot at with a Flint Lock, a gun which is approximately 200 years old.

Band and Team Given Banquet

Plymouth might have lost the football game last Friday night but the local players and 76 members of the band were given a royal treat after the contest by Jake Stremick at Hillside. Mr. Stremick played host to 130 school children, the members of the band and the football team, at a delicious steak dinner after the game.

Hillside was decorated for the event in blue and white, the school colors, with one dining room expressing a musical theme with large musical notes on the wall and the ceiling, and the other with footballs.

All who attended agreed that it was an especially fine meal and all expressed their gratitude to Mr. Stremick for his thoughtfulness.

The American foreign policy will be discussed by Dr. Alfred Kelley when he appears before the Plymouth Woman's club at their meeting next Friday afternoon, according to Mrs. George Chute, program chairman. The business meeting will begin at 2 p. m. in the St. John Parish House, and Dr. Kelley will be introduced at 3 p. m.

The speaker is an associate professor of American history at Wayne University, and has been on the staff for 12 years. He has specialized in American diplomatic history and foreign policy. Dr. Kelley received his doctor's degree from the University of Chicago in American history and international relations. During the last war, he served as a lieutenant and was stationed in the Aleutian area.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Chute will be Mrs. Walter Nicol, Mrs. John Olsaver, Mrs. Maxwell Moon, and Mrs. Albert Stevers.

Four Aged People Made Homeless by School Deal

Unless something happens in the next few days, four old people, the youngest 79 years of age and the eldest 90 years old, will be set out in the highways of Livonia township with no roof over their heads and no place to go—all because the new Livonia township school thought it necessary to buy four lots near the present school site.

Supt. Harrison Johnson, who at first disclaimed any knowledge of eviction proceedings, stated that a number of months ago when the school district bought the property, the usual notice was served upon the occupants of the house that the property had been purchased and that proper authorities notified the occupants to move in due time.

The elderly people are George Songo, 79 years old, the youngest of three brothers and a sister who occupy the house, Sam Songo is 84 years old, Mary Songo, a maid-sister, is 86 years old and Frank Songo, the oldest, will shortly be 90 years old.

The house they occupy is located at 15225 Cranston, just off the

Church Thieves Not Yet Caught

Plymouth police or the sheriff's force have not yet caught up with the thieves who recently broke into the Presbyterian church, doing much damage to the property, but securing nothing for their efforts.

Entrance was secured by breaking in one of the basement windows that opens into the kitchen. In breaking into the pastor's study and some of the other rooms where the doors are kept locked, the thieves did considerable damage to the woodwork, which will require expensive repairs to be made.

Officers are convinced that the thieves are residents in this vicinity who are familiar with the interior of the church and its arrangements. Burglary in Michigan carries with conviction stiff prison sentences.

Parent-Teacher Conference to be Held in Ann Arbor

The subject of the 18th annual parent-teacher conference, which will be held November 5 and 6 in Ann Arbor, will be "Toward World Understanding." The meeting will take place in the auditorium of the Rackham building, beginning at 9:15 a. m.

Many prominent speakers will be present for the conference. Among them will be Dr. Ralph A. Sawyer; Dean Horace H. Rackham, of the school of Graduate Studies; Emily Taft Douglas, a member of the house committee on foreign affairs; Dr. James Pollock from the Political Science department of the University of Michigan; Dr. Ernest Ligon from New York and many others. Their topics will be pertinent to conditions, attitudes, and relationships with foreign nations which must be understood before a world peace can be realized.

A membership fee from the local PTA, which will entitle all members to free admittance, has been mailed to the committee in charge. Anyone who does not have their membership card should call Mrs. William Rambo. It is hoped that a large representation from the Central grade PTA will be present.

Safety Rally Held Monday Evening

Approximately 250 people attended the safety rally which was held in Central Grade school auditorium last Monday evening. The program was sponsored by the Pere Marquette district of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway company.

This rally was the first of its kind to be attempted by the railroad officials in Plymouth. Similar programs are being sponsored over the entire system, marking the first time the program has been planned on such a wide scale. Edward Ebert was in charge of the local program.

The evening's speaker, Cass Hough, gave a brief lecture on the importance of safety measures. Mr. Hough, a member of the Air Corps during the war, related experiences with planes which pointed out the importance of the smallest safety precautions. In conjunction with this, he stated that a small oversight on the part of one person, could cause disaster to many.

A motion picture on safety was also included on the evening's program. Those attending were served refreshments, and an orchestra provided music for dancing for the remainder of the evening's program.

The accident occurred when the trailer, in which the horse was riding, came loose from the car and ran into a tree. The horse received a concussion, internal injuries, and multiple abrasions.

"Home, Sweet Home" is a fine song—but there has to be more than one Home when Kroger sings it. For there are Kroger stores in 1500 towns and cities—and every one of these communities is one of Kroger's homes. The Kroger payroll helps support home merchants. The Kroger store contributes to home charities. And Kroger store people are home folks.

Four Aged People

Made Homeless by School Deal

Supt. Johnson disclaims all intention of forcing the removal of the aged people. He says that the school district made some sort of a trade to get the land for future use, and in the transaction the house was disposed of, the district retaining only the ground on which it stood. He claims that it was the intention of the board to do nothing towards getting the old people out until next spring, but in the transfer process, as far as can be found out, no steps were taken by Supt. Johnson to see to it that the old people had shelter for the forthcoming winter. The new owner of the house, it is stated, desires to sell the house and move it off the property and in order to do so he must have it vacated, it was stated by Mr. Johnson.

The superintendent of the Livonia schools denies that the house was sold or traded so that it would not appear that the school district was evicting the aged people.

The deal has caused all kinds of comment throughout the district. There are many residents of the district who declare that they cannot understand why the school authorities sold the house, which could easily have been converted into a domestic science building for school use at the beginning of the fall term in 1948.

It is pointed out that if this had been done, four aged, respected citizens of Wayne County would not have to be thrown out on the street just as winter is approaching and that instead of Supt. Johnson recommending the disposal of the house that it would have been good economy for the district to have kept the house and converted it into some use for the school district.

The Songos exist on state old age pensions. They have lived in this part of Wayne County all of their lives and in their present home for nearly ten years.

With the hunting and camping season here, every woodsman owes it to himself and his country to follow the simple rules of safety with fires.

Using one tractor tool does one job at a time. MSC farm labor specialists advise multiple tractor hitches. They do several jobs at a time.

Memorial Center to be Dedicated Nov. 9

He stressed that since the building will be dedicated to the veterans, it is hoped that as many as possible turn out for the ceremonies. Mr. Daane has stated that all commanders and leaders of these organizations have been advised of this wish, and that he would like to know by November 5 how many of the group's members will appear for the parade, as well as how many will be present in uniform. The parade will proceed up Main street to where the service will take place on the front lawn of the Center.

The speaker's platform will be located on the front porch, and from here the Reverend Henry Walsh will deliver the invocation. Following this, Congressman Dondero will give the dedication address.

A silver tea in the Center will follow the dedication services. All residents of Plymouth have been cordially invited to attend and take the opportunity to tour the building. Mrs. Harold Brisbois, who is chairman of the tea committee, has stated that any money donated at the time of the tea will go into a fund which will be used for needed furnishings.

In way of background, the Foundation, which has made this project possible, was organized two years ago. At that time the group chose as their goal the eventual construction of a civic center which would include when completed a needed meeting place for city organizations, in addition to a swimming pool and auditorium. It was planned that this building should be erected in honor of the veterans of all wars.

The site for this project has been secured, but the cost of such a venture places its actuality many years in the future. Thus, as a sort of interim project, the Veteran Memorial Center has been set up for the use of Plymouth organizations and Veteran's groups. A small fee will be charged civic organizations who wish to hold their meetings here but veteran's groups will be able to use it free of charge. The fee is being asked in order to defray operation costs. The entire basement has been converted into an exclusive meeting place for veterans, while the first floor will be used by other clubs and organizations.

It is hoped by the Foundation committee that the building, which will be known as the Mariette Hough Veteran Memorial Center, will at least partially answer the need of a meeting place for Plymouth groups. Funds for the project have not been solicited. The entire project has been possible by contributions. Anyone desiring to donate to the Center, should contact Edwin Schrader.

Kryl Orchestra to Give Plymouth Concert Friday

(Continued from page 1) however, for within six months Kryl was on his way to America. He worked his way over by playing the violin in the ship's orchestra. He got his big musical chance about 10 years later when John Phillip Sousa, after hearing of a capable young cornetist who was working as a sculptor, auditioned him. To Kryl he gave the post of cornet soloist with his band. After a few years under Sousa and other noted bandmasters, the young musician was more than ready to take his place with his symphonic band in halls of music throughout America.

Kryl organized his girl symphony orchestra last September, and it was warmly received almost immediately by music lovers throughout the land. The musician's record shows that he has been conducting his own musical organization for 40 years.

One particular outstanding fact about this conductor is that he has never resorted to the use of a baton. In fact, he is acclaimed as being the first to abandon the use of it in conducting his band.

Tuesday Election Important

(Continued from page 1) ty to put up to the voters a bond issue of Wayne county, the money to be used for the erection of a combined city hall and county building.

The county has practically no bonded indebtedness. There is a wide difference between the water improvement program for Plymouth and the proposed bond issue of the county for a Detroit city hall and county building.

The county bond issue, if voted, will become an obligation of the property owners of Wayne county and will have to be paid out of a real estate tax.

The water improvement program for the city of Plymouth does not become a tax obligation upon the real estate of the city. If it is approved by the voters, the entire improvement will be paid for out of the water rates collected by the city from water users.

Both issues are highly important and it is urged that all voters get out and vote. The polls open at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning and will be open until 8 o'clock in the evening.

An electric device has been developed to singe fowl.

The Water Question

To the People of the City of Plymouth:

I have felt that we as citizens were not properly informed as to what we are being asked to vote on Tuesday, November 4th.

I have attempted to examine available information. I have listened for over four hours to discussions by members of the City Commission and the City Manager. I have come to the conclusion that the City Commission has not made up its mind as to what is best for our City insofar as the water problem is concerned.

After reading the article in last week's Plymouth Mail, the reference to inadequate water pressure impressed me. I secured a copy of the report prepared by the engineering concern hired by the City of Plymouth. After studying the report, I found it necessary to consult with two different engineers to better understand the report.

The Plymouth Mail was apparently correct. To quote from the report of the city engineers: "The greatest need is for additional elevated storage available in the town, to equalize pressures, and to feed water from both sides of a fire in time of stress".

The engineers with whom I consulted agreed on the need for storage plants. (One believed that underground storage with pressure pumps would be less unsightly and more practical.)

The next question: Will the matter we are asked to vote upon answer that need? No.

The proposed water softener plant is to be built in what is known as Auburn Addition, north of Junction Avenue approximately at the north end of Evergreen Street. Our water supply comes into Plymouth at Starkweather Avenue. The proposed water softener would be of no use with our present water system. A new water system would have to be installed later in order that the softening plant would be of any use. In other words they are proposing that we put the "cart before the horse". I don't think we want in excess of $120,000.00 spent now at today's high cost in a plant which will not be useable until over $500,000.00 more is spent. Our present experience is that building costs are nearly 50% higher than contemplated, and the additional improvement might cost as high as $750,000.00.

A water softener would increase substantially the overhead of our city government. One engineer advised me that a fulltime chemist should be employed to properly safeguard our citizens and keep the right quantity of the proper chemicals in the proposed water softener.

In the report of the engineers for the City, the first project mentioned for improvement of the water supply is, I quote: "Water from Detroit—Detroit water is of good quality in all respects and, were it available in sufficient amounts and at adequate pressure, would be the most attractive source available. The present connection with the Detroit system is completely inadequate."

This matter was investigated and in the opinion of one of Michigan's best informed engineers on water, any other type of permanent water system for Plymouth is economically unsound.

We are approximately ten and one-half miles from the main feeder main of the City of Detroit. It has been estimated that it would cost less to build an adequate main all the way from Detroit than to install the proposed water system to wells which may or may not be adequate. Detroit water does not need softening.

In addition more users would be picked up on the line from Detroit as two of our largest industries have already located east of Plymouth, in Plymouth Township, and another large industry has already made plans to so locate. The whole Township of Livonia is also in need of additional water facilities in this area.

The proposed water rate in Plymouth would increase the rate to you, the local consumer, in excess of 100%.

The proposed water rate to Plymouth industry would be increased approximately 125%.

Plymouth is already paying too high a rate for water. Industry cannot afford to pay more than twice as much for its water than its competitors. Our present water rates are higher than many of the surrounding communities. Someday we will want more of our people steadily employed. A satisfactory relation between a community and its industries is necessary for continued prosperity.

I do not propose to tell you or anyone else how to vote. I have lived here all my life and I have confidence in the ultimate good judgment of the Plymouth voter if he is given the facts. We have not been given the facts. Our own City Commission does not know yet whether or not they want Revenue Bonds or General Obligations Bonds.

We as citizens and taxpayers should insist on knowing what is going on before obligating our Community on a project what may cost from $600,000.00 to $750,000.00 at today's high prices.

Remember we may be paying our tax costs when money is not so plentiful.

Respectfully,
 Perry W. Richwine

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Nelson Observed 50th Wedding Anniversary Sunday

Last Sunday, October 26, Mr. and Mrs. Bert A. Nelson held an open house in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary. Approximately 230 friends and relatives were received between 2 p. m. and 5 p. m. and again from 8 p. m. until 10 p. m.

The house was decorated with baskets of oak leaves and gold marigolds, as well as many large bouquets of mums. A lace cloth covered the table, and a bouquet of gold and bronze mums made up part of the table decorations. Four white tapers in crystal candle holders, trimmed with gold bells and stripes of gold paper, were placed on either side of the bouquet. At one side, a four tiered wedding cake frosted white with yellow roses, was placed.

The lunch was served buffet style, with Miss Mayble Clinansmith, Miss Gertrude Zweruakoski, of Worden, and Mrs. Roy Lyke, of Plymouth assisting. Miss Hazel Brown, of Worden, and Miss Carol Briggs, of Detroit, poured. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Velma Freydl and Mrs. Betty Bruner, of Portsmouth, Ohio, took charge of the guest book.

Mr. Nelson was born in Lodi on April 26, 1875, and was the only son of George and Alice Waters Nelson. Mrs. Eu Dora Ovenshire Nelson was born in Salem Township on November 25, 1877 and was the only daughter of Frank and Caroline Van-Atta Ovenshire.

The couple were united in marriage on October 27, 1897 by the late Reverend Eugene Coffin at her parents home in Northville before 85 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson had three children, two daughters and one son. One daughter, Iona LaVerne, was born April 20, 1900, and passed away at the age of six months. A daughter, Mrs. Velma Freydl, now lives in Northville, and a son, Millard, resides in Flint. The first three years of the couple's married life was spent on his father's farm in Salem. The remaining 47 years have been spent on the farm where they now reside. It is known as the Sylvester Sober farm.

For the occasion Mrs. Nelson wore a gown of powder blue taffeta, trimmed with pearls and crystal beads, which were worn on her wedding day 50 years ago. She wore white accessories and an orchid corsage given her by her three grandsons.

Guests were present from Ann Arbor, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Northville, Plymouth, Houghton, Holly, Canfield, Ohio, Portsmouth, Ohio, Whitmore Lake, Silver Lake, Lansing, Milan, Cherry Hill, and Flint.

Elizabeth Hutchison Becomes Bride of Joseph Brigandi

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart of Blackburn avenue, Rosedale Gardens, announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Hutchison, to Joseph Brigandi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brigandi, Sr. of Los Angeles, California.

The double ring ceremony took place at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Detroit on Saturday, October 18 at 7 p. m. with the Reverend Gee and Grigsby reading the rites. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves, and a circular skirt with a short train. The finger-tip veil was gathered at the top with a cluster of orange blossoms and her bouquet was white mums.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Neil Keenan, sister of the groom. The bridesmaids were Betty MacFarlane, and Mrs. Richard Mythy who were gowned in fuchsia taffeta. They both carried bouquets of yellow roses and mums.

Neil Keenan, the groom's brother-in-law, acted as best man. Seating the guests were Richard Mythy and James Huebner.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stewart wore a formal gown of turquoise. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Preceding the service Mrs. John Towart sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly" and during the ceremony rendered the "Lord's Prayer".

Following the marriage, approximately 160 guests attended a reception at the Rosedale Gardens Club House. Music for dancing was furnished by Mr. Schaffer's orchestra. A buffet supper was served at 11 p. m.

The couple later left on a short honeymoon and then departed Wednesday for Los Angeles, California where they will make their home.

Eugene Highfield to Tell of World Jamboree

Eugene Ray Highfield, Plymouth's World Jamboree Scout, will be one of the speakers at the annual meeting of Scout Leaders at the Wayne County General Hospital Tuesday evening.

The Scoutmaster's Key, symbol of service and training, will be presented to John J. Huddleston, Plymouth's representative on the district camping committee.

Troop Camping Certificates will be presented to Troop No. 1, Plymouth Methodist church, and Troop No. 3, Plymouth Rotary Club.

Harold Fallot Leases Service Station on Main

The district agent for the Sinclair Refinery company, William Hartman, has announced that the company station, located on South Main street, has been leased to Harold Fallot.

The new manager graduated from Plymouth High school in 1941. He served with the Air Corps for 37 and a half months as an aerial gunner and automatic pilot maintenance man.

The service station specializes in pick up and delivery service, wash and grease jobs, and winterizing.

In Ephrata, Wash., brothers Luther and Homer Gray, meeting for the first time in six years, exchanged a cordial, hearty handshake that fractured Luther's arm.

Here's Post-war Power for Pre-war Buicks

A brand-new 1947 Fireball engine puts today's Sparkling Zip into your 1937-1942 Buick

IF you've been itching to get the thrill of a power-packed 1947 Buick engine under your treadle toe, here's the quick and happy solution.

It's a factory-fresh Fireball engine right off the 1947 production line. It's exactly the same mighty package of power that goes into the flashing new Buicks. You can get it now to repower any Buick built in the last ten years.

How can we do it—when new cars are so hard to get? Here's the answer:

While shortages of bodies and other parts slow up completed cars, Buick engine production has forged ahead. So engines are available now—ready to go into your car and step it up with today's up-to-the-minute power performance.

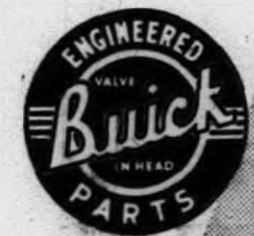

And it's as simple as this: We take out the old engine—put this new one in its place—and your car's young again, rarin' to go, with a new lease on life and headed for thousands and thousands of miles of smooth, spirited service.

It doesn't take long—far less time than a thorough overhaul—and often at less cost. Convenient payments can be arranged, if you like.

It's the next best thing to getting a new Buick—and a good investment because it makes your car worth so much more.

Certainly well worth while looking into, isn't it? Come in and let's talk it over.

Plans Billiard Tourney Here

Plymouth men have for many years taken part in all kinds of tournaments—golf, tennis, bowling, euchre, chess, baseball, basketball and the like—but it has been a long time since they have had an opportunity to participate in a billiard tournament. This week, announcement is made elsewhere in the Plymouth Mail of a tournament of this kind which is being sponsored by and held at the Plymouth Recreation Rooms on S. Main street. It is called "Open Baseball Tournament" but nevertheless it is played like pocket billiards.

Homer Williams, proprietor of the establishment planning the tournament, says that anyone is eligible to enter. It is to start Wednesday evening, November 5, and continue for a month. After that time, teams will be formed and play will go on all winter.

He is especially anxious to have those who do not play pocket billiards regularly enter the tournament. It is designed for amateurs and experts alike. Williams invites inquiries and says that he may be reached at his billiard establishment anytime during the day or evening.

In Franklin, N. H., the weekly Journal-Transcript announced that its staff was going on a ten-day vacation; but subscribers needn't worry about missing the news; next week's issue was already printed and ready for distribution.

Dykhouse Writes for School Publication

Claude J. Dykhouse is the author of an article appearing in the October number of "The Nation's Schools". This article summarizes the investigations in a twenty-three year period of the Detroit school salary schedules. It gives a formula for determining whether the school district finances will be capable of meeting the progressive increases in annual outlay over the normal period of the schedule.

Dr. Dykhouse is now a member of the faculty of the University of Southern Illinois in Carbondale, where he was fortunate in securing a house immediately. He teaches two classes in psychology and two in high-school methods, the only professor on the campus who teaches this latter subject.

NEWS AND NOTES OF INTEREST FOR EVERY WOMAN

By Helen Potter and Kay Knowlton

They're 7 years old today! And by way of celebration Lidgard Bros., at the corner of Liberty and Starkweather, have set up some real month-end specials. On Stokely's line of select canned fruits and vegetables, Frinstate. And specials at the meat counter, too. Use Lidgard's display ad on page nine as a shopping list this weekend, and phone your order in by calling 370. They'll have it ready for you to pick up in jig time!

I can't resist telling you about the lovely hand worked pillow cases I saw at Mrs. Hugh School's Home Made Gift Shop, at the corner of Harvey and Fralick. The lucky gal who receives a pair of these, all wrapped up in tissue and ribbon, has a gift that's set apart from the usual. The shop is only a block from the Post Office, and you'll find many ideas for that Christmas list.

The holiday season's coming, when our homes will be practically open houses. Your living room can be given a new dress for the holiday merry-go-round in a matter of hours, you know, with one of Dorothy Lieber's exclusive hand-loomed fabrics, as reproduced by United Wall Papers. Eger-Jackson Co. at 139 Liberty, can fill your order overnight, and provide all the necessities of tools, paste, etc. Their wallpaperers are the same as those featured by Fisher Wall Paper Co., in Detroit, and their sample books have some lovely suggestions.

Now, at this very instant, the Fisher Shoe Store (299 South Main) has a wonderful variety of those famous Air-Step shoes. There's a good looking suit shoe in Burgundy polished calf with a tailored bow, and in alligator. Or, if you're in a party mood, you'll see a twinkling toe in a pair of lovely black suede sandals. You'll see closed-in toes and heels, too, from Air-Step's Fashion Fair, at Fisher's. And gals, here is a find: Soft, white, light weight bowling shoes at $5.95.

Zinning goes the doorbell. And there, before your delighted eyes, are good friends long time no see. But even while welcoming your visitors you're hoping that by some miracle the refrigerator is stocked full of good things to eat. Well, gals, here is that miracle: The Deepfreeze! With a Deepfreeze from Lodge Electronic Sales & Service, 1100 Starkweather (and there is only ONE Deepfreeze home freezer, you know), you'll always be at your hospitable best when unexpected guests arrive.

Trays are the homemaker's step-saver and the hostess's delight, and Martin's (US-12 at McCumpha) has a scrumptious horde of Social Supper Trays. Generously sized, in tole, china plate or chintz designs, and in round, square or octagonal shapes, the trays have slightly lifted borders for easy carrying. And they can take it—they're waterproof, alcohol proof and chip proof. (Wouldn't it be something to find one of these in your Christmas stocking?) Mrs. M has the collapsible metal racks, too, that will convert any tray into a good looking coffee table.

The Rose Arbor! Don't you think that's a cute name for a place to eat? On US-12 at Canton Center Road, it's perfect for that after-the-game snack on the way home from Ann Arbor. Jeanette Williams opens the doors at 11 AM and stays open 'til midnight SEVEN days a week, with sodas, sundaes, sandwiches and HOT chocolate. So while you're on the prowl tonight with the witches and hobgoblins, stop in and cozy up. The other half of the Williams combo, Paul, has that good "Speedway 79" gasoline right next door.

Here are some tips that will stretch your egg money cup into a teapot during the heavy production months of winter, when egg receipts are highest: Cull non-layers and poor producers before housing time. Give your birds Avi-Ton in their mash and the 10-day Avi-Tab treatment. And fit your birds with helmets now, before the laying season starts. Helmets will not hamper normal activity, and they WILL prevent pick outs. Specialty Feed Co., Haggerty Highway at the P.M.R.R., has all of these.

Here's a business with real imagination—a radio service shop that comes right to your door. Who'd a thunk it? A veteran did! E. A. Nash and his Rolling Radio Service will fix that ailing radio, record changer or sound equipment on the spot. Call Mr. Nash at 1198-W between 8-9 AM, 12-1 PM or 6-7 PM. Or leave a message at any other time with Bill Thomas at Boyer's Haunted Shack; his phone is 539.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Economical Cuts Of Meat Are Tasty If Prepared Right

Leftover meats are easily creamed and served in patty shells on a platter generously heaped with vegetables—an economy note for your budget.

Budget-wise homemakers are taking a second look at their budgets this season, and most of them are keeping one eye on their purse strings, while the other eye is glued to prices. One item that is getting extra consideration is meat.

There's hardly such a thing as a budget cut of meat anymore, but naturally there are some that are less expensive than others. Breast of lamb is among those as well as some of the beef cuts including tongue; if you like pork, you'll have to be satisfied with a suggestion of the flavor.

A roast is good economy if it is beef or lamb because you can count on two or three meals as well as sliced meat for sandwiches. If you plan on one roast per week—carefully cooked so as to avoid expensive shrinkage—then it's easy to use the economy items I've already mentioned to fill up the other days nicely.

Liver-Rice Cakes. (Makes 10 cakes)
1 pound sliced pork liver
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 small onion
1 1/2 cups cooked rice
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 egg
1 1/2 tablespoons milk
1/4 cup milk

Fry the liver in the 1/2 cup of shortening until nicely browned and let cool. Put the liver and onion through the food chopper. Add the rice, salt, pepper, egg, milk and mix well. Shape into small cakes and brown in 1/4 cup of shortening until brown on both sides.

Barbecued Lamb Breast. (Serves 4)
2 pounds breast of lamb
1 medium onion
1/2 cup chili sauce
1 teaspoon salt
Pepper
1/2 teaspoon red pepper
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 cup water

Cut lamb into 5 pieces. Season with salt and pepper. Place in a hot skillet with the fatty sides of the meat on the bottom so they will brown easily. Mix chili sauce, red pepper, vinegar and water and pour over lamb. Slice onion and place over meat. Cover. Simmer for 1 1/2 hours, then remove lid and cook for about 20 minutes or until most of the barbecue sauce is absorbed.

A pot roast is very nice to have as the roast of the week, and then it's easy to use as sliced meat for supper, or ground and used for meat pies, stuffing for peppers, pinwheels with biscuit dough, etc. If you make it creole style, it will have plenty of flavor for other uses.

Creole Pot Roast.
5 pounds chuck of beef
1/2 cup salad oil
Juice of 1 lemon
2 bay leaves
1 onion, minced
2 teaspoons allspice
5 teaspoons salt
Pepper
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
2 cups tomatoes

The Detroit Presbyterian meets with the Presbytery in Immanuel Presbyterian Church, West Grand Boulevard at Porter, Tuesday, November 4, at 10 a. m. Please call Mrs. Olin, 199-W, and make your reservations by Saturday noon, tomorrow.

LYNN CHAMBERS' MENU
*Cream Swiss Steak
Browned Potatoes
Lyonnaise Carrots
Pineapple Cde Slaw
Bran Muffins
Floating Island Beverage
*Recipe given.

Mix oil, lemon juice and seasonings; rub well into meat. Dredge meat with flour and brown slowly in fat. Add the tomatoes. Cover closely and cook in a slow oven for about 4 hours or until meat is fork tender.

Swiss steak is cheaper than some cuts of meat, and the leftovers may be used as the meat from pot roast.

*Cream Swiss Steak.
1 1/2 pounds round or arm steak
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup flour
2 tablespoons lard
1/2 cup sliced onion
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sour cream

Have steak cut 1 1/2 to 2 inches thick. Season with salt and pepper and pound flour well into steak. Brown steak on both sides, in lard or drippings. Add remaining ingredients. Cover closely and simmer for about 3 hours, or until tender.

Rice-Beef Balls.
1 1/2 pounds ground beef
1/2 cup uncooked rice
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon grated onion
1 can tomato soup
1/2 can water
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper

Mix meat, rice and seasonings. Shape into small balls and drop them into tomato soup to which the water, onion and green pepper have been added. Cook very slowly for 40 minutes. Serve with tomato sauce poured over them.

A few slivers of leftover meat are easily used in an attractive salad served in shells to make a substantial luncheon dish. Add eggs, cottage cheese and vegetables if you are some what shy of meat itself.

Here are two real economy dishes which you'll like for the cooler weather:

Breaded Oxtails. (Serves 4)
2 oxtails
3 sprigs parsley, chopped
3 sprigs thyme
1 bay leaf
Salt and pepper
Dash of cayenne
1 egg, beaten
1 cup sifted dry bread crumbs

Wash oxtails and cut into 4-inch lengths. Cover with boiling water. Add parsley, thyme, bay leaves, salt, pepper and cayenne. Simmer tails until tender, about 2 to 3 hours. Let cool in stock. Drain meat, dip in egg and roll in crumbs. Fry in deep, hot fat (370 degrees) until brown.

Ham-Sweet Potato Puffs. (Serves 5)
1 cup ground, cooked ham
2 cups mashed sweet potatoes
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt

Combine ham, sweet potatoes and egg. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Add to ham mixture. Drop by spoonfuls onto a hot greased griddle. Brown on each side.

Gee! A telephone!

Not so many years ago, a telephone was still a curiosity. Few people had them. There was only a limited number of other telephones you could call.

But through the years, as more and more telephones have been installed, you've been able to reach more and more people. Your telephone has been able to run more and more errands for you. Now, with still greater numbers of telephones being added, to take care of people waiting for service, its value is growing every day.

BY ELTON R. EATON

The pheasant hunting season for 1947 is at an end—and what a glorious finish it was for big city game hogs!

They couldn't find even hen pheasants to shoot so they shot poultry, cattle, horses and anything else that moved in the fields. If every farm in this part of the state is not closed to hunters in the next two or three years, it will be because the owner of the land will be physically unable to tack up no-hunting signs.

The conservation department says that the poor hunting of the present season will mean "a substantial carryover of breeding stock to next season."

An if those in authority do not close the next hunting season and the hunting season thereafter to pheasant hunting there is something wrong with their thinking.

There are fewer pheasants in this part of the state than there have been in over a quarter of a century. Two-legged game hogs, irrespective of all the other allies given, are the chief cause of the disappearance of pheasants.

It's another good year for raccoons, and this news is like the "music" of hounds on the trail on a moonlit frosty night to thousands of enthusiastic coon dog owners. Lew Ford's coon dogs seem to know all about it, from the way they act, says Lew.

Conservation department men have been handling normal numbers of complaints about coon raids on corn and other garden stuff, and the numbers observed to date indicate the hunting and trapping should be about as good as it was a year ago, when hunters took 71,870 and trappers another 15,140.

Only two upper peninsula counties—Delta and Menominee—are open to raccoon hunting and trapping, hunting November 1-14 and trapping November 1-30. In the lower peninsula raccoon hunting is permitted from November 1 through December 15, but trapping is limited to November 15-December 15 in the northern half and December 1-15 in the southern half of the lower peninsula.

There is no bag limit on coons, but so many hunters prefer the chase to the pelt that releasing captured ringtails is not uncommon.

High hopes and deep despair are connected with the history of a man commemorated by a simple bronze tablet at Sault Ste. Marie.

Located at the corner of Park Place and River Drive, the tablet embedded in a boulder honors Ensign Louis le Gardeur, Sieur de Repentigny. He and another Frenchman, Louis de Bonne, Sieur de Miselle, once owned 214,000 acres of land in that region, including that now occupied by Sault Ste. Marie.

King Louis XV granted the land to his subjects on June 24, 1751, with the stipulation that they own it for life and that on their deaths it go to "their heirs and assigns." But their "heirs and assigns" never were able to get the valuable property, although it was once granted to them by a court, for the two Frenchmen did not fulfill completely the terms of the grant.

According to information in the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan, the two were to build a fort at Sault Ste. Marie. The fort was to help break up the Indian-British fur trade and to be a haven for French traders. By 1752 the fort was erected.

However, best evidence available indicated the two did not live on the land. De Bonne never even visited it, while de Repentigny spent only part of his time there until 1758 when army duties demanded him elsewhere.

This slackness in fulfilling the residence provisions of the grant was terrifically damaging to the heirs when they sued the United States for possession of the land, Michigan Historical Collections information shows.

All land in that region had gone to the British in the Treaty of Paris in 1763 and to the U. S. in 1783. Terms of the agreements were that those possessing the land at the time were to continue to own it.

The suit began in Detroit in 1861 and three years later the claimants won their case. But their hopes of immense wealth were dashed, nevertheless.

For the Congressional Act which permitted the claimants to sue the government also provided that the U. S. District Attorney take the case to the U. S. Supreme Court if the government lost the legal battle.

The Supreme Court reversed the decision of the lower court. According to the Michigan Historical Collections, the Supreme Court's decision was based mainly on the fact that de Repentigny and de Bonne had deserted the land and that they had not made sufficient improvement on it to carry out terms of the concession.

Wisconsin's conservation department has advised "My Michigan" editor that that state continues to hold that position as a bow and arrow hunting state. The department claims that archers from nearly every state in the Union seem to have preference for Wisconsin. But this may not be for long, as Michigan for the first time this year opened up some 16 more counties for bow and arrow hunting.

Wisconsin estimates that the 10,000 bow and arrow deer hunters in that state have to date taken 145 deer since the season opening on Sept. 27 and deer will continue to be legal targets for the ancient weapons until Nov. 11, the conservation department pointed out today. Deer of any age or sex can be taken with bow and arrow during the special season.

Of the total kill, 83 of the animals were taken on the Necedah Wildlife Refuge where it is estimated that 3,500 archers hunted on opening day. A total of 27 deer were taken in Vilas county and eight in Forest county. Other counties where archers killed one or more deer are Jackson, Oneida, Ashland, Bayfield, Douglas, Clark, Burnett, Florence, Iron, Monroe, Oconto, Marinette, Sawyer and Waupaca.

A total of 256 deer were taken with bow and arrow in Wisconsin last year.

Sale of Concert Tickets Begins

Tickets for the Loretta Petrosky and Evelyn Woods two piano concert, may be obtained from members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary, or by contacting Mrs. George Todd. The pianists will appear here November 12 in the High school auditorium.

Former organist and director of music at the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth, Miss Petrosky now teaches vocal music at Central High school in Detroit. She is also credited with being a former member of the Chamber music society of Detroit. Miss Petrosky has given numerous recitals, in addition to appearances with the Faculty Symphony orchestra of Detroit.

Miss Woods has made solo performances throughout the country, as well as periodic radio broadcasts in New York City. This pianist, prominent in Detroit since 1940, has gained marked recognition through her work with Michigan symphonies, and through annual winter concerts at the Detroit Art Institute.

Proceeds from the concert will be donated to the Plymouth Veterans Memorial fund, according to Mrs. Douglas Miller, chairman.

Michigan farmers applied 250,000 tons of marl to their soils during 1946. This is about four times as much as any other state and almost half of all the marl used in the United States.

THE RUSSELL — The floor plan of the ADAMS, one of the earliest of the small houses of our present Housing Series, received wide popular acclaim. It seemed to have most of the practical features that so many homebuilders are seeking today. First it was an expandable house that might start off as a four room bungalow and later grow naturally into a two story, three bedroom, six room home. Its simple lines made it not only attractive but economical to build. Its style was early American, which remains probably the favorite architectural style of most home building families. It could have a basement or not, depending on personal preference and climatic conditions. It could be built with or without an attached garage. It would fit on a small lot. There wasn't an inch of wasted space. It was a home anyone might be proud to own.

This week in the RUSSELL, pictured above, we publish by request another house with practically the same floor plan as the popular ADAMS. In outside appearance it is entirely different, but equally charming. The RUSSELL shows the influence of early Dutch settlers of New Amsterdam and of the rich Hudson farm country. It features a high pitched roof and a wide front overhang, both characteristic of the Dutch Colonial style.

The inside room arrangement is practically the same except that the house is turned differently on the lot and the plan is reversed. Living room and kitchen are to the front, the two bedrooms in the rear. It is the simplest and cheapest type of expandable house. It provides all needed first stage accommodations for the small family on the ground floor. As the family grows two additional rooms and a second bath are pre-planned for the second floor. It is derived from a proven floor plan used by many professional builders who are always on the alert for good, practical plans that permit low cost construction.

Of course it meets Federal Housing Administration requirements and its electrical plan was checked and approved by the National Adequate Wiring Bureau. Complete architect's blueprints and specifications—everything needed to build the RUSSELL—are available. Call our office for further details.

*LIVING-ROOM AND BASEMENT LINE

There've been some wrecks, it's true. And hardly a day goes by that at least one car isn't derailed. But ever since that Christmas morning when it first started operation, young Johnny's Living-Room and Basement Railroad has never lacked electrical power.

One reason for this is that all Detroit Edison power lines are interconnected. Even if the particular circuit supplying current to Johnny's home is shut down temporarily, another one can immediately take up the job of keeping lights burning, appliances going, and the L. R. & B. running right on schedule.

The work of supplying current to your home or place of business may be switched from one of the dozens of Edison substations to another. You never know it. But it is one important reason for the year-round reliability of your electrical service.

When the PHS marching band steps on the athletic field this Friday at the Plymouth-Northville tilt, it will not be alone. Also on the field with Plymouth's 78 piece band will be the Northville High school band and the Livonia Township High school band.
Since this is the last time the Plymouth Band will march for the home games this year, quite a display has been planned. The theme will deal with Rain, including such melodies as "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" and "Singing in the Rain".

MUSTANGS MEET ROCKS AT OFFICIAL DEDICATION
The Plymouth Rocks tangle with the Northville Mustangs tonight on the turf of the new football field, behind the High school, when the new football field will be officially dedicated. Northville gave Plymouth the honor of playing at the dedication of their new field last year, where Plymouth played the last game of the season.
Plymouth holds a slight edge over Northville, having won two games this season, while the Mustangs have dropped each encounter to date. Last year the Rocks beat the Mustangs by the score of 18-6. The rivalry between these two schools has gone on for many years, with Plymouth winning the majority of the games.

REPORT CARDS GIVEN
PHS students received report cards for the first seven week period ending Thursday October 23, this week Wednesday during sixth hour home room meetings.

The Commercial department has one of Plymouth High school's leading clubs this year, with 30 new members along with 15 old members.
On Wednesday evening, October 8, the Commercial club had their formal and informal initiation in the High school lunch room. The old members prepared a pot-luck luncheon, speeches, and stunts to be enjoyed by the new members.
The program committee met last Tuesday during noon hour and decided on the program for the coming year. They plan to have prominent men and women in the business field give speeches, and also a few of the alumni to tell the members of their experiences during the first year in an office. The club also plans to visit the J. L. Hudson store. Along with this they will do research work on worthwhile things and give reports.

Chess Team Loses to Ford Players
Tuesday night, October 21, the Plymouth Chess club was defeated across the boards of the Ford Motor company's Chess club. The competition was staged in the Ford company's recreation rooms at the Rouge plant.
In spite of the fact that the team lost the match, the Plymouth players, who are relatively inexperienced, were proud of their showing of four out of ten possible wins from such a fine group of players. The Plymouth team is now batting an even .500, having won their first match from Dearborn by a score of 5 to 4. At the Tuesday tournament,

INSTRUMENTS ADDED FOR CONCERT SEASON

Two piccolos, played by members of the flute section, arrived recently, along with another oboe to be played by Louis Vargha. LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

The better to serve—both members and the consuming public—is the primary objective of the Michigan Milk Producers' Association.
From its inception—31 years ago—this organization has operated on a true cooperative basis—the principles of Democracy being carried out to the fullest degree.
On Thursday, November 6th, some 500 delegates selected by the 16,000 members will meet in East Lansing for their annual meeting to hear reports on the past year's activities and formulate plans for future operation of the dairy farmer's organization.
In shaping the policies and program of the Michigan Milk Producers' Association, a majority vote of the delegates elected by the membership is necessary. Majorities are seldom wrong in their decision. To this policy, adopted by the farsighted founders of the organization, may be attributed its constant growth and record of achievements.
Every activity of the Association is guided by the sound principle that the interests of the consuming public must always be given equal consideration with the interests of the milk producer. That is the Democratic way and this is a Democratic body of men.
Providing the highest quality of products, efficiently produced and transported to markets, at prices which are equitable, demands sound planning in order that the public be assured of an adequate supply of nature's most nearly perfect food.
The modern receiving station (pictured above), equipped with the most sanitary machinery obtainable, is a part of the program of progress now being carried out by members serving the Detroit market. This entire program is designed to provide consumers in the area with the purest, best quality milk and dairy products it is possible to produce, always remembering that milk is vital to the public health and welfare and its cost is of paramount consideration.
The experience of the past 31 years together with our cooperative method of operation leads us to look to the future with confidence in our ability to continually better serve both the public and our own members.

BABSON SAYS

Babson Discusses Commodity Prices

Babson Park, Mass., Oct. 31. Readers recently have been asking me some rather tough questions. To answer all of them, I would have to be an oracle, as well as a statistician. However, I do the best I can. Right now I am deluged with inquiries as to when the peak in wholesale commodity prices will be reached and whether there will be a further rise in the cost of living. Briefly, and with fingers crossed, the wholesale price peak should be seen by the early second quarter of 1948. As to retail prices and the cost of living, a further rise is inevitable.

A Glance at the Record

To bring you up-to-date on commodity price inflation, I shall risk boring you with a few statistics. The latter, as you know, are much maligned, but do serve a purpose. Since August, 1939, to recent date, the Bureau of Labor's all commodity wholesale price index has advanced 109.5%. Building materials have skipped ahead to the tune of 103.5%, other things have advanced 165.3%. The real culprit, however, is farm products, with a gain of 207.4%. Hence, the unprecedented prosperity in the farm belt, which seems destined to continue for a year or so at least. Merchandisers should keep that fact in mind. Farm areas are a seller's bonanza these days. Farmers should be very careful not to lose their profits by making questionable "investments".

To give you a better idea of what the current commodity price inflation means in terms of dollars and cents, I shall cite a few specific instances. Back in August, 1939, railroads and manufacturers could buy a ton of bituminous coal at the mines for $2.50 to $2.70; today they must pay $4.85 to $5.25 per ton. Southern pine lumber then was selling for $22.35 per M; today it commands $80. A pound of butter in August, 1939, would have cost your market man 24 1/2¢; today the price is 68 1/2¢. Whereas cocoa then was selling for about 5¢ a pound, the price now is 49¢. This fact bodes no good for the 5¢ chocolate bar.

Raw Materials Outlook

Raw material prices have increased since August, 1939, about 160% and will go higher. Huge public purchasing power, plus continued high employment at good wages, points to heavy demand for finished goods for some time to come. Steel and certain other raw materials are already scarce. Nylon stockings may soon be scarce again. Rents will be higher. Production costs certainly will not move lower in the months ahead, and might well increase, especially if labor should strike for still higher wages to offset advancing living costs.

It is possible, however, that prices of certain imported raw materials may move lower in the not-too-distant future. Prices of cocoa, burlap, and shellac, are being artificially maintained at exorbitant levels by foreign governments. But it may well be that these governments of producing countries are over-playing their hands.

Farm Price Trend

Farmers, under government tutelage, now know when to hold and when to sell. Under the "parity price" program, they have little to lose by playing their cards close to their chest. The well-advised program of foreign aid, with its indicated strain upon domestic economy, is the farmer's cue for holding his wheat, or other products, for still higher prices.

Under the circumstances, I believe that farm prices will hold up during 1948. This year's short corn crop, plus heavy foreign demand for wheat and other food products, is the pivotal factor. While the food conservation program may tend to ease the overall strain, it will not radically alter the tight supply-demand situation.

Conclusion

While I regret to say it, the average American housewife in the months ahead, will be faced with higher prices in order to fill her market basket. Already, she is paying over double the August, 1939, food prices. My advice is to practice economy by following simple dietetic rules. There are many good substitutes for costly meat, eggs, etc. A few shifts in diet, and a little curbing of inordinate appetite can easily fatten the pocketbook while slimming the figure. The best exercise is to push food away from you! "Second-helping-itis" is the most prevalent American disease.

Water is just as important as feed in poultry raising. Be sure chickens always have a supply of clean water available near the mash feeders.
