Health Officers Endorse Survey

At a meeting of the public committee for the TB X-ray survey, which was held Monday afternoon, Miss Catherine Varva, health education consultant, announced that Dr. F. E. Bentley and Dr. Harold Brisbois have endorsed the X-ray program for Plymouth since they feel it is an important health precautionary measure.

Dr. Bentley is township health officer and Dr. Brisbois is city health officer. Their recommendation concerned the X-ray survey which will take place in Plymouth the first part of next month. The program is being sponsored by the Wayne County Health Department and the Tuberculosis and Health Society of Wayne County.

At the same meeting suggestions for programs in the schools were made, including both the grade and high schools. The possibility of a speakers' bureau was also included on the afternoon's roster of discussion as well as possible programs which could be staged for various civic organizations at their request. This would include either a brief speech, lecture, or motion picture.

Numerous meetings have been held this past week, performing the initial work which must be accomplished before the final phase of the program gets underway. The neighborhood committees, the committees working with industry, and the presidents of the various women's organizations met recently, the latter to work out plans for assisting at the unit during the survey.

Christmas Seal Sale Opens November 24

The 1947 Christmas seal sale, spearhead of the National Tuberculosis association's battle against TB, will open on November 24 and continue until Christmas.

This year the Christmas seal, as the symbol of the concerted effort to reduce the disease, pictures a team of oxen drawing a sleighload of Christmas trees. In the upper left-hand corner appears the traditional double-barred cross. Below the picture is a "Merry Christmas" greeting.

Since 1904, when the National Tuberculosis association was founded, an organized, nation-wide attack has been waged against tuberculosis in this country. The attack today is being carried on by the NTA and its 3,000 affiliated associations. U. S. public health service, and state, county and city health departments all work in close cooperation.

Progress made in the campaign is revealed in the 50 per cent decline in the TB death rate since 1904. Leading cause of death in the nation then, the disease has dropped to seventh in 1947—a victory which represents a saving of four million lives.

Roy Gowman Donates Pins to Aid School

Roy Gowman, brought on Plymouth road, Riverside Gardens, donated the Bentley high school pins for the purpose of raising funds so equipment can be purchased. Two hard working Livonia women put these pins across with living colors. Mrs. George Harrison and Mrs. Johanna Damon called on the merchants of Livonia Thursday, and through their efforts they raised the sum of $56.71, which amount was turned over to the Bentley high school football team. Many thanks go to Roy Gowman for his interest in the Livonia high school.

Church Society Honors Member

At the last meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Jennie Cramer was honored for her many years of faithful service in the church when Mrs. Walter Nichol presented her with a life membership to the Christian Board of Education of the Presbyterian church, Circle Two, of which Mrs. Cramer is a member presented her with a corsage.

"Foreign Missions" was the theme of the meeting which was under the auspices of Circle 3, led by Mrs. Sally Dent. The program chairman, Mrs. Leslie Daniels, presented the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. A. M. Wylie of California, a former missionary to China who is visiting in Dearborn.

Mrs. Ada Watson was in charge of the musical portion of the program. Forty-one boys from the neighboring schools, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Brake, presented a musical program built up around the theme "One World".

Following the program tea was served with Mrs. Herman Scheel at tea chairman. Assisting Mrs. Scheel were Mrs. Albert Borsos, Mrs. Ada Watson, Mrs. Ruth Seeberger, Mrs. Sally Dent, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith and Mrs. Walter Nichol.

Army-trained men get more out of college says E. R. Silvers, Dean of Men, Rutgers University

This long-experienced educator advises young men to take advantage of the training opportunities in the Army and Air Force before entering college. Here's what his new book, Son of Tomorrow, says:

Recent high school graduates are handicapped

"The tempo of scholastic life has quickened and most of our recent high school graduates find the pace too fast for them... They become followers, with little opportunity of developing the qualities of leadership which a college should give."

Army experience enables student to go ahead faster

"The average seventeen and eighteen-year-old now planning to attend college would get much more out of college and contribute much more to it, if he first gave himself a chance to broaden his experience by going into service for at least eighteen months."

BABSON
Babson Discusses the Russian Menace
Babson Park, Mass., November 21. The revival of the Third International should rouse every thinking American to action. Action of what kind? And against what and whom? This is the most important problem facing both employers and their workers today—far more important than prices or wages.

Business and Communism
The Russian leaders are wiser than we want to admit. They have studied people, conflict and revolutions. Their moves are calculated like those of the expert chess player to make us use our own strength to destroy ourselves. The Communist knows that the idea of a bridge is more important than the bridge. It may be easy to destroy the bridge and very difficult to rebuild the bridge if you lose the idea. Therefore, reason the Communists, let us try to destroy the idea of democracy. Since ideas tend to be perpetuated by intellectuals, colleges, schools, the press, and the like, Communism has made a point of successful infiltration into these ranks.

American businessmen, on the other hand, have too often forgotten the school, church, press, and radio in their plans. They have sometimes failed to realize, as the Russians have realized, that the idea of their very freedom of enterprise is in a great measure entrusted to be imparted in classrooms, on the screen, and through radio. The newspapers have their feet on the ground and can be trusted; but some of the other groups are now going wild in their race for votes, money or circulation.

Let Us Not Kid Ourselves
Communism most certainly has the dual goals of (a) building up a strong defense within, through the cultivation and development of natural resources and (b) building a subtly strong offensive of party members in the western hemisphere who, like termites, bore away under cover. Let's stop kidding ourselves. There can be no peace between democracy and dictatorship. Sooner or later the one or the other will be annihilated. The course of the world might have been different had we acted when Japan walked into Manchuria or when Mussolini raped Ethiopia. The world will be markedly different if we do not soon awaken to history's object lessons.

Democracy Must Recapture Its Youth
Communism is fired with a highly combustible and destructive fanaticism. Has democracy, on the other hand, become too passive and too contented? There seems to be no longer the urge to win souls. Where, today, in this great country of ours is there great enthusiasm for democracy? It just does not seem to exist.

Our democratic way of life, purchased and hallowed for us by sweat and blood, was once also fired with passion and enthusiasm. Today, too often our way of life is taken for granted. It, therefore, now must become the obvious challenge to every businessman to rekindle that spirit and enthusiasm. This especially applies to members of school committees, of boards of directors, and those on the production line, at home, and in the church.

Conclusion
I am reminded of Jesus' parable of the talents. Democracy is a sacred talent. To him that hath it shall be given. To him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away."

THE SYKES—American to the core—and as much a part of our Virginia Colony heritage as George Washington and Thomas Jefferson—is this small but stately brick home in the Williamsburg manner. Except for size it is a home in which early royal governors might have dwelt and which thousands of Americans have enjoyed visiting in the delightful restoration of the old-time capital of the Dominion state. Built of warm red brick with its dignified entrance, its solid shutters, and its flush board gable painted white, it is an authentic reproduction of southern Colonial architecture.

A small house, its well proportioned lines produce an illusion of greater size. The SYKES has been efficiently designed to provide economical living for the family of four to six people. Its clever planning has included three generous bedrooms, ample closet space and bath on the second floor. The first floor plan provides an unusually large living room with a modern, alcove dining room and a conveniently located efficiency-kitchen.

The SYKES carries the seal of approval of the Structural Clay Products Institute, which means that it is a permanent, fire-safe house having a low initial cost and with maintenance charges reduced to the minimum. The working drawings show a full basement. The SYKES, only 21 feet x 24 feet and containing approximately 12,000 cubic feet, will stand graciously either on a small suburban lot or on a spacious grassy knoll approached by a tree shaded lane.

The plan was drawn to conform to the standards and requirements of Federal Housing Administration and its electrical plan conforms to the efficiency and safety standards of the National Adequate Wiring Bureau. Architect's detailed blueprints and specifications for this attractive brick home may be obtained; also, further information at our office.

THE FINEST MEAL I EVER COOKED!

That's what Jim said after the first meal on our new electric range. And he's right. Postwar electric ranges are a vast improvement over older models. Ovens are better insulated. Heating units are more efficient. That means even faster cooking... lower cost.

You save extra time, too, with the automatic control that starts and stops your range by itself. Why, you can go shopping all day and have supper ready to serve when you return. And there's no heating up the kitchen... no soot or smoke to bother about.

These easy-to-use electric ranges are in stock right now at your local dealers. Be sure to see them soon.

STUDENTS DRAW MAP OF LIBRARY FOR NEW-COMERS

The students of Miss Irene Walldorf's English grammar class have been studying the library and where the books, dictionaries, and encyclopedias are kept. The class drew maps showing the location of the books and the floor plan. Miss Walldorf then presented the maps to the Guidance department to give to every new pupil who enters, in order that he will know where the books are located and have a general idea of the floor plan.

7B HOME EC CLASS HAS VARIED ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Christena Soule's 7B Home Economics class has been carrying on a variety of activities since school started. They completed their own project of hemming a towel and making an apron. This was accomplished with the use of the new electric sewing machine. They each hemmed a wash cloth and made a Scrap Bag for the Junior Red Cross. The scrap bag was filled with a variety of sewing equipment and materials so a little girl in a hospital could make doll clothes and the like. During education week the following Mothers visited the class: Mrs. Leo Arnold, Mrs. James Henry, Mrs. James Beaulieu, Mrs. Russell Daane, and Mrs. John Amrhein.

BENDER TURNS ATHLETIC REINS OVER TO SCOTT

Seventy-five prospective basketball players turned out for Plymouth High's first basketball practice of the 1947-48 campaign. Coach "Bill" Scott took over the head coaching reins and Coach "Eddie" Bender, head football mentor, will assist him. Mr. Scott said that the squad would later be cut to 30 men.

With seven varsity men returning, the future looks fairly bright for the Rocks this coming season. Last year the team finished second in the league's standings, losing only two games to the Trenton Trojans who took first place.

The Rocks take on Redford Union December 12 in their initial tilt.

HIGH SCHOOL SADDENED BY TEACHER'S DEATH

The faculty and student body were deeply saddened last week by news of the death of Miss Ethel Killham, language teacher at the high school for over ten years. She had been ill for many weeks and succumbed late Tuesday evening at her home in East Lansing.

Miss Killham received her Bachelor's Degree from Michigan State College in 1923 and came to Plymouth High school in January of 1926. Since that time her activities here were many and varied. She first taught English and French, at which time she organized the French club. In 1943 she received her Master's Degree from the University of Michigan and two years later changed to teaching French and Spanish. This year she was on the advisory staff for the Seniors and was also elected President of the Teachers club.

The faculty and student body extend to the bereaved family their deepest sympathy.

Persons Over 15 Urged to Have X-ray for TB

When the chest X-ray clinic in Plymouth gets underway, efforts will be made to see that every person over 15 years of age is checked, according to the committee members in charge of the project.

Children from seven to 15 years old may be X-rayed if they are accompanied by their parents, however, but particular stress is being placed on older persons, since the disease is more prevalent in that age group. Tuberculosis is reported to have killed more people between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other disease.

Results of the X-rays will be mailed to the individuals involved, and, if the test should be taken at a place of business, the employer will receive no report whatsoever of the employees test. In case follow up tests are necessary, reports will also be sent the person's family doctor and the Health Department.

Particular emphasis in the past has been placed on school children, and they constituted the majority of those X-rayed the last time a survey was taken in Plymouth. It is being realized, however, that it is equally important for industrial workers. The objective with this group also is to discover persons with undetected cases of tuberculosis who may spread the disease to their associates.

Recent surveys in industry indicated that 20 out of every 1000 employees examined by X-ray were found to have tuberculosis in some form. Approximately one-fourth or four per 1000 have the disease in its active form.

It has been stressed that early tuberculosis has no symptoms. The X-ray is the only way to discover it in its early stages, and it has been added, early discovery means early recovery.

Square Dancing Club Deemed as Successful

The Square Dance club began its activities this fall in the Central Grace school gymnasium with an average attendance of 32 members. During the last part of October and the first half of November the activity has been attended by 24 couples, Ralph Johnson, recreation director announced.

"Fun for all" is the motto of the club which dances from 9 to 11 a.m. every other Thursday evening. At the conclusion of the dancing a "midnight snack" is served in the high school lunch-room.

The next meeting will be December 4, followed by a Christmas dance on December 18 in the high school gymnasium.

Collectors of Buttons Meet

Plymouth's Button club met at the home of Mrs. Harold Todd, 890 South Main, last Friday evening. Also taking place this past week was a district meeting in Detroit at the home of Miss Maybryn Bowen. Members of the state organization met in Lansing earlier this month, as well as national members who gathered in Indianapolis, Indiana.

The Plymouth group meets once a month at the home of the various members. The meeting serves as a time for members to congregate and discuss their hobby, as well as a time for doing their exchanging and purchasing. At the state and national meetings, dealers are present and the collectors are also furnished with an opportunity to discuss various phases of the hobby with those from other parts of the state or country.

The value of the buttons depends on their rarity, general makeup, and antiquity. One of the finest collections owned by a Plymouth enthusiast is in the possession of Mrs. Ada Murray. She

Dick Olin Back From Alaska

Richard Olin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Olin, Jr. of Arthur street, who knows what it is to crack up in a plane just a few hundred miles this side of the North Pole and to lay in the snow for hours while the mercury hovers something like 60 degrees below zero, is home on a brief furlough.

He was recently discharged from an army hospital up in Alaska, completely recovered from his fractured legs and other injuries received when the army plane he was in cracked up when cruising over the ice covered seas and mountains of northern Alaska.

He is in the quartermaster's department of the army, but is nearing the close of his enlistment period.

Discussion Club Deals With Home and Community

Cartoon movies were shown by Rev. Luther Butt preceding his lecture before the members of the University of Michigan club discussion group last Thursday evening, November 13.

The motion picture carried out the theme of the discussion which followed, the relation of the "Home and Community". They depicted family life. The first showing an ideal family and the second was an illustration of various things members of the family can do to which make for unhappy family life. For example, it was shown that a mother who is too particular about her home, and a disinterested father, etc. make for discord in family living.

The pictures, as well as his latter lecture, stressed that home influences the community and, on the other hand, the community influences the home equally as much. The importance of making the community safe for children was also emphasized by Rev. Butt.

One plan for bettering the community was described by the speaker. In several communities, where it was attempted, a social council planned activities for the entire town. Members of the various civic organizations were representatives who set up the program. In the communities tried, the plan was effective, he added.

Rev. Butt is superintendent of the Ann Arbor district of the Methodist church. Miss Marion Gale was in charge of the meeting and it took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coella Hamilton.

Our Country's Future $1,000,000,000
ONE BILLION—and more to come DOLLARS
Steel Companies—USA

THIS is a great country. All Americans worthy of the name believe that. They have abiding faith that we will keep right on growing... will become even greater. American steel companies believe that, too. They are backing their faith with cash. They are now pouring ONE BILLION DOLLARS into expansion of steelmaking capacity. Few industries anywhere have ever launched so gigantic a program of peacetime expansion. A billion dollars is more than the entire steel industry earned during the four war years. It equals a third of the dollar-value of all the present steel plants. Translated into production, it means 2,500,000 additional tons of steel a year for the homes, cars, and appliances America needs. ONE BILLION DOLLARS deposited to the account of America's future! Americans for years to come will draw against that account... in the form of higher productivity, more comfort and prosperity.

American Iron and Steel Institute
350 Fifth Avenue - New York 1, N. Y.

There are 101 member companies of the Institute with plants in 173 American communities. They produce 96.3 per cent of the country's steel.
