Couple Are United in Church Ceremony

Betty Ann Lang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler of Ann Arbor trail, and Carl Lampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lampton of Francis street were married Saturday, February 14 at the Newburg Methodist church with the Rev. G. MacDonald Jones officiating. The bride was given away by her father.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white satin with an overlay of white marquisette trimmed with Chantilly lace. A peaked crown of rhinestones with fingertip veil edged with matching lace completed her costume. She carried American Beauty roses.

Margaret Lampton, matron of honor, and Ramona Lang, bridesmaid, wore matching dresses of pale pink satin. Janet Zander, acting as flower girl, also dressed in pale pink and carried an inverted pink and white parasol filled with matching roses. Everett Lampton served as best man for his brother and Harry Stearn was head usher, with William Loesch and Clyde Smith seating the guests.

A reception followed the ceremony, served by the Wesleyan Service guild at the church hall. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in flowers and decorations.

The couple left for a short trip to Arkansas and will return to Plymouth to live.

Announce New 4-H Program

"How can we best apply our leisure time?"
That query from farm youth throughout Michigan has brought an answer in the form of a 4-H recreation and rural arts awards program. Designed to promote group action, the program promises to be a decided influence in developing community spirit.

Activities encouraged include 4-H members forming outdoor or indoor sports teams, quartets, orchestras, bands; presenting one-act plays, or pageants, and hiking, camping or picnicking. In rural arts and crafts, members' handiwork in drawing, painting, carving, collecting leaves or some other hobby, may receive recognition at state exhibits.

A blue ribbon will be presented to each local 4-H Club determined by the county extension office as having conducted a recreational program worthy of an outstanding rating. A $25 cash award will be provided to each county naming a blue award group of 4-H clubs, for the purchase of recreational equipment.

Individual efforts to get club members together in carrying the recreational activities will also receive recognition. Two 4-H'ers excelling in recreational leadership in each of the four extension sections will both receive an educational trip to the 1948 National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

All awards, in addition to funds for training clinics at which specialists will instruct local 4-H Club leaders in recreation and rural arts, are provided by U. S. Rubber Co. The leaders in turn pass the instruction on to their club members.

County extension agents will furnish full information regarding this new program.

city constantly, in the minds of the Plan Commission and City Commission. Even while it "grows" like Topsy, Plymouth did grow into a pleasant town of comfortable homes, good churches, schools and stores, small diversified industries, big trees and shady streets. While there are many of its citizens working in Detroit and other places, it is not a "dormitory" town. While it is near enough to Detroit and Ann Arbor to make shopping in those cities easy, yet our stores are fine and well patronized. While it is within the metropolitan area and near enough perhaps to be called a Detroit suburb, yet in all things civic it is an independent community. It has grown up "a city of homes" as the city seal has it. It is a good place in which to live and raise a family. And these two Commissions feel deeply that Plymouth needs to be kept that way, growing, yes, but keeping true to type. So, as the plans for our city are developed and discussed with interested citizens in public hearings and in conversations, it is to be hoped that Plymouth men and women will lend a sympathetic ear and will cooperate to the fullest extent in bringing about this "opportunity for growth" that is being planned.

Horses Reported Well Fed, Healthy

Many inquiries and comments have been received concerning the horses which were reportedly surviving under extremely diverse conditions near the site where two horses were recently found frozen to death. Some facts on the case have finally been uncovered by Jack Miller, Sr., of the Miller Brothers 101 Ranch.

Mr. Miller stated that he had received numerous calls from alarmed sympathists who were protesting the condition and demanding that something be done. He and several other men then took it upon themselves to go to this pasture and look the situation over, with the intention of reporting it to high state officials if the situation warranted it.

Upon arriving, however, they found that the reported condition did not exist. The horses, he stated, are housed in a large barn with an ample supply of food. They further discovered, Mr. Miller said, that they are fed and watered once a day. Of the approximately 25 horses, he continued, only a few are in a poor condition.

Although Mr. Miller said that he disagreed with the way the horses were being cared for and that he would not follow that procedure, nevertheless, they are healthy looking on the whole, he stated. He emphasized that had that situation warranted it, it would have been reported.

Concerning the two horses which were frozen to death, no additional information has been obtained, he stated.

Over 300 Attend Scout Program

Plymouth troops and the four Cub packs and the newly formed P-1 Seniors, The Ditto Masters, Ted Thrasher, John Bachelder, David Sanford and Ronald Hees gave with barber-shop rhythm. Troop P-1 did some blind folded knot tying and Fredabelle Killingsworth, Norman Ruehr and Patsy Lidgard entertained with piano and clarinet music. After a movie from Scout headquarters had been shown, Troop P-2 led the closing ceremonies.

The presence of so many older people (not old, just older than the boys) at these two Scouting programs proves a live interest in this organization and its work in Plymouth. The boys and their leaders appreciate this form of interest and approval. They also need a much greater active support in the way of more active volunteer leaders to work with the boys. There are never enough leaders, for whom there is no money reward, but for whom there is a real satisfaction in doing something for and with the younger generation.

Perhaps the local young men's organization which recently expressed the opinion that Scouting was at a low ebb in Plymouth would have changed its opinion had it been in attendance at these two meetings. And there is a definite challenge from Scout leaders in Plymouth to this organization to do something real and concrete in the way of offering some of the needed volunteer leaders to build up Scouting in this community. There is no lack of Scouting quality here, but there could be more Scouting quantity.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Leon Johnson Chapman
Funeral services were held Saturday, February 14, at 2 p.m. from the Schrader Funeral home for Mrs. Leone Johnson Chapman who passed away Wednesday evening, February 11, after an illness of several months. Mrs. Chapman resided at 1192 West Ann Arbor trail, and has been a resident of Plymouth since February 1921.

Surviving are her husband, John T. Chapman; two brothers, C. Clyde Johnson of Detroit, and Fred W. Johnson of Birmingham; the surviving relatives have become limited, but she had a host of friends. Mrs. Chapman was a member of the Plymouth Woman's club for many years; also a member of the Woman's Glee club. She attended the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth. Since 1927 Mrs. Chapman has sung at the Schrader Funeral home. The Rev. Henry J. Walsh officiated. Two hymns were rendered on the organ by Mrs. M. J. O'Conner. The active pallbearers were Messrs. Wilbur T. Replogle, Willis S. Fenn, F. Lakemond Johnson and Jordan E. Johnson. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

Lutheran Men's Club to Give Father-Son Dinner
Motion pictures of the Rose Bowl game will be shown following the dinner to be given by the Men's club of St. Peter's Lutheran church Monday evening, according to the Rev. Edgar Hoenecke.

The dinner is to begin at 6:30 p.m. at the church, and will be a father and son affair.

Realtors Hear Assistant State Housing Director

Guest speaker, Harry N. Steffy, was introduced by Roy R. Lindsay of Plymouth at the recent regular meeting of the Western Wayne County Board of Realtors. The meeting took place at the Warren Valley Golf club.

According to Mr. Lindsay, there was an approximately 100 per cent attendance, due to the distinguished guest speaker of the evening. Mr. Steffy is assistant State Director of the Federal Housing Administration.

Present at the same meeting was John H. Jones, also of Plymouth, vice president of the board.

Kiwanis Bowlers Down South Lyon

South Lyon was defeated by Plymouth's Kiwanis bowling teams in an inter-club match held at Northville Sunday. The team chalked up an approximate 200 pin margin.

The winners will travel to Livonia Recreation in Rosedale Gardens Sunday to meet the Livonia Rotary team at 9 p.m.

Because of the great success which the teams have met in inter-club matches, Plymouth's Kiwanis plans to send one of the teams to the state Kiwanis bowling meet to be held at Traverse City in the spring.

The sports committee, under the direction of Mike Huber, has been instrumental in organizing the teams and scheduling the meets. The teams take part in league bowling every Tuesday evening, and have participated in numerous inter-club matches.

Twenty four Plymouth Girl Scouts and leaders will travel to Ann Arbor tomorrow, Saturday, to attend the conference of Senior Girl Scouts of southern Michigan. Troop members will be present from Milan, Jackson, Wayne, Ypsilanti and Plymouth. The program will begin at 10 a.m. and continue until 3:30 p.m. Senior Scouts from Plymouth who will be present include: Katherine Trucks, Margaret Saxton, Lois Osgood, Joyce Frisbie, Barbara Cushman, Jane Stremick, Diane Arscott, Nancy Morrow, Mary Aquino, Janet Millross, Saxie Holstein. Carol Lidgard, Wilma Latture, Jane Pierce, Naomi Mishler, Maryanne Witwer, Sally Rupp, Barbara Goodale, Patricia Wilkin, Kay Dobbs, Gwen Phillips, Dorothy Curtis, Carol Henry, and Ann Vincent. Leaders who will attend are: Mrs. Elsie Arscott, Mrs. Henrietta Dobbs, Mrs. Kate Henderson, and Mrs. Chris Witwer. Registration costs and transportation will be furnished by the local Girl Scout council. The program will begin with registration, group singing, and new ideas and information on good troop programs. At 11 a.m. the conference will be divided into nine discussion groups including: Vocational Exploration, Outdoor Programs, Helping the Community, International Friendship, Recreational Activities and the Troop, Marine Scouting, Wing Scouting, Program Aides, and Choosing a Senior Scout Field. A cafeteria lunch and style show will be held at 1 p.m. and a report of discussions and an informal hour of fun and getting acquainted is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. The conference will close at 3:30 p.m.

Easter Seal Sale Slated to Begin Next Saturday

(Continued from page 1) funds, Mr. Daane reported, they can be obtained from the state society, however. The contributions, he pointed out, cover the expense of caring for crippled children in this vicinity, purchase appliances, and finance tutoring, which is necessary in many cases, to mention a few of the channels into which the funds are put to use. The solicitation for the most part will be carried on by direct mail, Mr. Daane continued. The Saturday preceding Easter, however, the customary Easter lily sale will be carried on in the downtown district. In Freehold, N. E. L. Millis Named Edison Company District Manager

(Continued from page 1) the company had only about 6000 customers. In 1915 when the Company was expanding into the rural areas, Mr. German came to Wayne as Manager. He has remained in charge of the Wayne District for the past 33 years during which time the employees increased from about 10 to 120. During his 33 years in Wayne, Mr. German was President of the Board of Commerce, an active member in the Co-ordinating Council of Churches and Clubs, President of Wayne Rotary, and for two years President of the PTA of the Roosevelt School in Ypsilanti. The new District Manager for Plymouth, Northville and Wayne, E. L. Millis, came to the Company in 1915 following attendance at Michigan State Normal College. His first work in the Company was in the Ypsilanti District. Following service in World War I, Mr. Millis came to Detroit and was employed in the Sales Department in the Accounting Division and until 1926 when he was appointed Manager of the Northville and Livingston Districts. Mr. and Mrs. Millis live at present in Birmingham, and are well known in Plymouth. The news of his appointment as manager of this district came as a most pleasant surprise to his former employees and his host of friends throughout the Plymouth-Northville area where he was most active a number of years ago. He is a past president of the Northville Rotary club, a former member of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce and throughout the years, while a colonel in the service and serving the Edison company in their Detroit office after the last war, he has always maintained his friendly relations with his associates in this section.

In Moultrie, Ga., an irate traffic cop demanded an autoist's name, for an answer got "Scram"—and, just in the nick of time, the rest of it: Joe Scram. After a spirit of discernment, the next rarest things in the world are diamonds and pearls.

Meeting of Scout District Planned

Plymouth will be host next week to a meeting of the full district committee of the Sunset District, Boy Scouts of America. A dinner will be held in the St. John's Episcopal parish house Thursday, February 26, followed by a program of music, pictures, and talks. It has been estimated that 50 or more men will be present, representing Scout units in Wayne county, west of Inkster road and north of Goddard road. The office of chairman for this district is filled by T. F. Kuckelman of Belleville. Among those living in Plymouth who are members of the committee, and who will be present are: Henry Hees, district commissioner; the Rev. Henry Walch, James Houk, Carlton Lewis, Roy Leemon, Harold Jacobs, Dr. Elmore Carney, Donald Bovee, J. J. Huddleston, LeRoy Rofferty, Barton Rogers, and Sidney Strong, field commissioner. Program plans are under the supervision of Frank Specht, district executive. Colored slides of the recent Dawson City Sweepstakes will be shown. Among other program features will be songs by the "Ditto Masters" from the high school.

Home from Visit in South America

Don't start planning that trip by automobile yet, not for several years at least. This is the advice of Peter R. Miller, owner of Shady Side Farm on East Ann Arbor trail and secretary of the Michigan State Racing commission, who with his wife just completed a 10,000 mile-trip by plane to Jamaica in the British West Indies, and nine Latin American countries, including Cuba, Colombia, Panama, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Honduras, El Salvador, Guatemala and Mexico. "I have been interested in the development of the so-called Pan-American or Inter-American highway since the first link was opened up between Larado, Texas, and Mexico City 10 years ago", Miller said.

"In five of our 10 trips to Mexico since then, we drove in our own car, going deeper into southern Mexico as new stretches of highway were completed. However, the dream of getting into an automobile and driving to Buenos Aires remains only a dream and likely will for years to come. Mexico has accomplished the greatest amount of road-building, but still hasn't reached her southern border. Guatemala has a paved highway of sorts which we have driven over, but it is not the one that eventually will be linked into the Inter-American system. From El Salvador south to the Canal Zone, there is no connecting highway. Although Costa Rican maps show a completed highway, we flew up from Panama to San Jose, the Costa Rican capital, with an American surveyor who said that even preliminary surveys had not as yet been made to determine the route of the Inter-American Highway across that country." With most Central American countries still controlled by military dictatorships, there is manifest unrest in the majority of these "banana republics", Miller reports. Demonstrations in Panama, Costa Rica and Nicaragua broke into headlines within recent weeks. "The most picturesque of the countries north of the Panama Canal", Miller said, "remains Guatemala with its colorful Indian life which has remained unchanged through passing centuries. In the other countries, machine-made goods are fast supplanting the handicrafts which gave to these peoples a charming individuality." In the 16 plane flights necessary to complete their trip to South America and back, the Millers encountered bad flying weather only in the United States. On the first leg of their flight, from Detroit to Miami, they were forced down at Charlotte, North Carolina, when one engine on the twin-engined DC-3 they were on "went dead". Returning from Mexico, they were grounded for two days at Houston, Texas, because of adverse weather conditions. In Washington, a patent for a better mousetrap was awarded to Sir Isaac Newton. In Pittsburgh, Ronald L. Hale escaped an auto smash-up with slight injuries, one embarrassment; he was knocked out of his pants. In Jerome, Idaho, David Detweiler, in an accidental brush with a potato-digging machine, suffered no injury at all but was picked clean of everything but his shoes & socks.

February Has Five Sundays for The First Time in 28 Years

Plymouth and the nation is having a lot of "firsts" this year. Although just a little over a month old, this has been one of the coldest years in over a decade. Now for the first time in 28 years—and the second time in the twentieth century—there will be five Sundays in February. This year February 29, that extra day added every four years to keep the months from shifting into another season, will be on Sunday. The last time Leap Year Day came on Sunday was in 1920. In 1944 the extra day inserted at the end of February was a Tuesday, at the beginning of the forties decade it was a Thursday, and in 1952 it will be a Friday. Leap Year Day comes on the same day of the week every 28 years, as a rule. Our grandparents, however, had to wait 32 years for February 29 to fall twice on the same day—1900 was not a Leap Year. For many centuries an extra day was added every fourth year. But less than 400 years ago a new rule was introduced—that of not having a Leap Year Day when the century years are not divisible by 400. Thus the year 2000 will be a Leap Year, but 2100 will not. All of this difficulty of adding and not adding a February 29 to the calendar is caused by the fact that the solar year—which governs our seasons—actually consists of 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes and 46 seconds.

Official Proceedings Board of Education

A regular meeting of the Plymouth Township School Board was held February 9, 1948.

Present: Eaton, Hulsing, Strong, Sutherland and Williams.
Absent: None.

The minutes of the regular meeting of January 12 and the special meeting of January 31 were approved as read.

Sutherland moved and Strong seconded the motion that the north line of the district be enforced and parents of children from kindergarten to the eighth grade north of that line be notified that they can not be received next year.

Ayes: Eaton, Hulsing, Strong and Sutherland.
Naves: None.

Hulsing moved and Sutherland seconded the motion to raise the depository limit in the two local banks to $50,000.00.

Ayes: Eaton, Hulsing, Strong and Sutherland.
Naves: None.

Strong moved and Sutherland seconded the motion to buy five In-Wall tables to be installed in the Central Grade School Gym.

Ayes: Eaton, Hulsing, Strong and Sutherland.
Naves: None.

Those tables are like the ones installed this year in the Starkweather Gym. They will be used by the children who bring their lunches from home. Five tables will accommodate 100 children. This is a normal number though in the coldest weather some additional arrangement will have to be made as the number of children staying at noon is much larger. These tables and benches fold back into the wall and lock there, thus leaving the gymnasium free for the usual use. These tables will also be much cheaper in labor as once out of the way in the wall the cleaning of the floor will be very quickly done.

Hulsing moved and Strong seconded the motion that the Pere Marquette Railroad Track from Ann Arbor north and west to Beck Road, then north on Beck road be the dividing line between Starkweather and Central Grade School. All grade children east and north of this line shall attend Starkweather school. Necessary deviations from this division shall be left to the discretion of the Superintendent.

Ayes: Eaton, Hulsing, Strong and Sutherland.
Naves: None.

Strong moved and Hulsing seconded the motion to pay bills in the amount of $8,210.00 in addition to the payroll of $30,662.49.

Ayes: Eaton, Hulsing, Strong and Sutherland.
Naves: None.

At this point Dr. Williams, who had been detained, came into the meeting.

Louis Schmidt gave a report to the Board of his work as Senior High School Principal, the problems, procedures, etc. of operating the high school. This was a very interesting and valuable report to the Board so that they may become more familiar with the work.

Meeting adjourned on motion at 11:40 p.m.

Alice V. Strong, Secretary

Rebekah News

After our last meeting, February 13, we had a valentine party with entertainment and refreshments.

The next visitation will be at Brightmoor, February 26.

The members of this lodge and their families have been invited to attend the church services at the Newbury Methodist church Sunday, February 29. Services at 10 a.m.

At our next meeting, February 27, we will entertain Sister Louvia Fox, our advisor for this year. There will be a pot luck supper at 6:30 p.m. Bring your own dishes.

Don't forget the pot luck supper, Friday, February 27, at 6:30 p.m.

Sisters Mabel Hunter, Margaret Bunyea and Marguerite McKenna attended the District Deputies luncheon in Detroit, February 13.

Sister Catherine Leatherby, president of the Rebekah Assembly, gave a talk following the luncheon. Sisters Bunyea and McKenna wish to thank Sister Mabel Hunter for the nice time they had.

We are pleased to hear that Sister Eva Gray has returned to her home and is improving rapidly. We hope that all those who are ill may soon be up and better and back with us.

How A & P Gives You Lower Food Prices

During the past week you have noticed lower prices on many important food items in your A & P Stores.

These prices are a direct reflection of the reductions in the market cost of the food to us. Many of our customers are amazed to find these price reductions going into effect so quickly at the retail level. They wonder how we do it. There is no mystery about it.

We are able to reflect these market reductions promptly because of three basic policies:

1. We endeavor to buy our food from primary sources of supply, such as farmers, meat packers and grocery manufacturers, and move it directly to our stores and warehouses. This keeps down the cost of distribution to us and the price to you at all times.
2. When the cost of food to us goes down we do not wait until we have exhausted supplies on hand, but endeavor to reflect reductions in our retail prices promptly.
3. We are food merchants, not food speculators. We do not build up great reserves of food at any time. We are in the market from day to day, buying food to meet our customers' day-to-day needs.

The lower prices you are finding in A & P stores, coming as they do at a time when all of us are concerned with the high cost of living, have prompted many of our customers to ask us what the food price outlook is. Are there going to be further price reductions in these and other foods?

Frankly, it is impossible for anyone to predict future retail food prices without knowing whether the break in the commodity market is temporary or the beginning of a general trend. Grocers do not control the price they must pay for food. They can lower retail prices only to the extent to which they buy wisely, keep their own costs and profits down and pass along savings resulting from lower wholesale prices to their customer.

We base our retail price on the cost to us, plus our low cost of doing business, which includes our small profit of about 1 1/2 cents on each dollar of sales.

Therefore, we can say A & P prices will follow the market trend and that any further reduction in the cost of food to us, or in our costs of doing business, will promptly result in lower prices in our stores.

You can count on A & P to give you lower prices whenever and wherever it is possible. You can trust A & P to give you the most quality food for your money.

U of M Historian Tells of Academy

Few people know it, but a white frame house at Lodi Plains, about six miles south of Ann Arbor, once was the home of the founder of an educational academy there on hundred years ago. The house was owned by Prof. Rufus Nutting, a Presbyterian minister, who gambled that a private academy to train young men and women as teachers and to enter colleges and universities would succeed.

Built sometime after the academy began, the several times remodeled house now is owned by Karl D. Weavie. It is located on the southeast corner of Saline and Textile roads, adjacent to the spot where the academy building once stood, according to Dr. F. Clever Bald, assistant director of the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan.

Prof. Nutting founded the academy, called Lodi Plains academy, in 1847 following his resignation as principal of the Romeo branch of the University of Michigan. He had held the position from 1842 to 1846, but no longer found it profitable after the University, for lack of funds, withdrew its support of the branches.

In the Michigan Historical Collections is an academy catalogue of 1849-1850 which indicates there were 136 students of both sexes at that time. There were 65 in the classical department and 71 in the English department.

Tuition fees for the three terms yearly varied from $9 to $15 per year, according to the courses elected. Each student also paid "for fuel and the care of the house" 25 cents for the winter term and 12 and one half cents for each of the other two terms, the catalogue said.

Most of the students lived with farmers in the neighborhood. Dr. Bald declared. Board and room could be obtained for $1.25 to $1.38 a week, although many students paid for this by doing farm chores.

After Prof. Nutting's death, a Prof. Patchin continued the academy until about 1864. The property later was sold and the academy building torn down. Opposite the academy was a Presbyterian church, built in 1837, which a number of years later was moved to North Adams where it still is in use.

Probably the most distinguished academy graduate was Edwin Willits, Dr. Bald said. Following his graduation in 1855, Willits went to Monroe and became a teacher, lawyer, newspaper editor, member of the State Constitutional Commission, member of Congress from 1877 to 1883, principal of the State Normal School at Ypsilanti, president of Michigan Agriculture college, (now Michigan State college), and assistant secretary of Agriculture under Presidents Harrison and Cleveland.

Gas Company Issues Warning

"If you smell leaking gas in your home, play safe and call Consumers Power company."

This advice was issued today by David L. Brown, division manager for Consumers. He said it applied to all Plymouth area residents, regardless of whether or not they have gas service in their homes.

The severer winter, according to Mr. Brown, has caused the possibility of breaks in underground gas lines. Gas escaping in frozen ground may travel underground along gas pipes into the home of a gas customer. Or it may follow a water line or some other pathway into the home of a non-customer.

"This has been the most severe winter in many years from the standpoint of gas companies and water departments", said Mr. Brown. "The ground has frozen much deeper than usual, and while our mains and service pipes are built and maintained in accordance with the customary practices, the danger of underground breaks cannot be entirely eliminated. Leaks in underground pipes, sometimes develop from the contraction and expansion of the metal under extreme weather conditions. Or frost may sometimes cause the ground in some particular spot to heave more than the piping can stand."

Mr. Brown said the chief danger caused by heaving of the ground may develop during the next few weeks as the frost leaves the ground.

"We are putting lots of odor into the gas, he said, "so that leaks may be easily detected. If anyone smells leaking gas in his home, the only safe course is to call the company immediately."

"We will be glad to send a man right out to check the situation and take whatever action is necessary."

If the odor of gas is strong, another good precaution, according to Mr. Brown, is to ventilate the house by opening doors and windows.

If you have a social item you desire published in The Mail phone 1755.

1948 Trucks Add Comfort

Two of the comfort and convenience features of the 1948 Chevrolet truck and commercial car series are illustrated by the above view of one of the new light-delivery truck cabs. Gears are now shifted by a lever on the steering column; parking brakes are foot-operated and have been moved to the far left. The improvements clear the floor of obstructions and permit full enjoyment of the larger, roomier cabs.

How well do you know your own home?

How many electric motors are there in your home? And how many electric heating appliances do you have?

When you check the list below, perhaps you'll find that you've underestimated the electrical equipment that keeps your home pleasant and comfortable.

Our records show that customers are using more and more current in their homes—our production of electricity is at record-breaking heights, far greater even than when war plants worked round the clock. But that increased use of current means that—for a few more pennies a week—you get household tasks done in less time—with less effort—and for less money than in any other way.

Check your electrical equipment against this list...

Motors: Sewing machine, refrigerator, washing machine, clock, razor, record player, furnace fan, electric tools, ventilating fan, ironer, vacuum cleaner, kitchen mixer, dishwasher, vibrator, stoker or oil burner, electrical toys, home freezer.

Heating Appliances: Toaster, heating pad, electric blanket, range, water heater, roaster, space heater, bottle warmer, hand iron, mangle, coffee maker, waffle iron, bun warmer, curling iron, grill, tea kettle, heat lamp.

(Figures show that the average Edison customer has more than five of these.)

BEGLINGER SHOWS NEW OLDSMOBILES

Walter Beglinger, Plymouth distributor for Oldsmobile, America's oldest motor car manufacturer, today publicly announces the 1948 Series "98" Futuramic Oldsmobile is on display at his showrooms at 705 S. Main. While the "Futuramic" line embodies the best in design and construction developed by Oldsmobile over five decades it also points the way toward a new "golden era" in automotive travel, in the opinion of S. E. Skinner, vice-president of General Motors Corporation and general manager of Oldsmobile.

Brand new in styling from bumper to bumper, the Series "98" Futuramic Oldsmobile offers many new noteworthy developments, such as an entirely new body design with graceful streamlining and futuristic lines, increased front and rear vision through curved glass, wider seats, and more luxurious upholstery and interior trim than has ever been available in the Oldsmobile price class before.

Production of the full 1948 Oldsmobile line has been underway for several weeks, and retail delivery of the new cars will commence immediately, according to Mr. Skinner.

For buyers in the medium, popular price range, Oldsmobile will produce the "Dynamic" Series "60" and "70" in 1948. Seven body styles, including a convertible and station wagon, are being built in the "Dynamic" Series. The customer has a choice of a six-cylinder 100 h.p. Oldsmobile engine, or an eight-cylinder 110 h.p. engine in this series.

General Motors Hydra-Matic Drive, providing fully automatic shifting in all forward speeds, is available as optional equipment, at extra cost, throughout the 1948 line of Oldsmobile cars. Pioneered by Oldsmobile in 1940, this unique engineering feature has obtained both enthusiastic and wide-spread acceptance by American motorists in the past eight years. More than 425,000 Oldsmobile owners have driven literally billions of miles since 1940 without having to shift gears or push a clutch pedal.

Another item of optional equipment offered at extra cost is hydraulic controls for raising and lowering windows and adjusting position of the front seat in the "Futuramic" Series "98" Oldsmobile. This is available this year in closed models, as well as in the convertible coupe, which also has a power operated top.

In 1948 Oldsmobile's customers have an unusually wide choice of colors. Ten distinctive and attractive solid colors are offered in closed models of the "Dynamic" and "Futuramic" Series, or the customer may select any one of five suggested two-tone combinations, with a single exception. That is the "Futuramic" Oldsmobile club sedan. This body style like that of the convertibles and station wagons, is produced in solid colors only by Oldsmobile.

The 1948 "Futuramic" Series "98" Oldsmobile is this G. M. division's "golden anniversary" model. Oldsmobile was founded in August, 1897, and is America's oldest motor car manufacturer. It established its just claim to the introduction of mass-production methods and assembly-line techniques, later copied by the entire automotive industry, with its famous "Curved Dash" Runabout, equipped with a one-cylinder engine of seven horse-power.

Having pioneered many styling and mechanical changes in automobiles from the days of the "gasoline-driven buggy" to the modern motor car providing the utmost in styling, speed, comfort and convenience, Oldsmobile confidently looks forward to the next 50 years and the new "golden era" of automobile travel. With the new-styled "Futuramic" model in actual production and with an eight-year head start in the field of fully automatic transmissions, Oldsmobile Division anticipates increasing public acceptance of its product in 1948 and the years to come.

Suburban Shrine Dinner Dance Held Saturday

Approximately 200 attended the Suburban Shrine dinner dance held Saturday evening, February 14, in the Hotel Mayflower. This affair marked the first social function of the organization since the new officers took over. Music for the dance was furnished by the band of Haze Bennett.

Parkside Falls to Daisy-I.D.E.A. 5

Daisy-I.D.E.A., led by Ben Dugid, defeated Parkside Bar Thursday, February 12, at DeHoCo 54-37. This cannot be classified as an upset, as in their first encounter Parkside won by only seven points.

The Air Rifles were never behind as they led 15-9 at the quarter, 21-15 at the half, and drew further ahead at the third quarter, 37-22.

Ben Dugid set a new individual scoring record as he made 14 baskets for a total of 28 points.

Doug Egloff led the losers with 14 points, raising his season's total to 234 points.

These two teams will meet again in the playoffs, which begin March 1.

In Cambridge, Mass., a would-be policeman flunked his physical when examiners found that he had raised his height to the required 5 ft. 6 in. by plastering his long hair back over a coconut shell.

Woods Win First Playoff Game

Woods Studio, who had won their last three games of the regular season by one point, continued the same practice as they defeated Plymouth Mail 16-15 in their first play-off game. The score was tied 8-8 at the half, but the Mail took a third period lead of 14-12 on baskets by Martin, Gothard and Trinka. However, in the fourth quarter they could only add one free throw as Dipboye and Bassett scored field goals to win. Martin of Plymouth Mail scored nine points as Dipboye and Bassett netted six each for Woods. These same teams will meet Wednesday, February 25, in the high school. Woods can win the championship with a victory, but a victory by Plymouth Mail will make a third game necessary. The third game, if needed, will be played at 7 p.m. Monday, March 1.

Sport Shop Drubs Atchinson 48-18

Sport Shop apparently did not miss the three players declared ineligible last week, as they scored a decisive victory over Atchinson Motor Sales of Northville. Led by Jack Roberts, who scored 17 points, and Robert Bentley, who hit 13 points, Sport Shop held a 14-6 edge at the half and pulled away easily in the last half to win. Atchinson's leading scorer was Slessor who netted seven points.

Taxi Team Upset by South Lyons

South Lyon Methodist, who had not won a game in their league games totalling 11, scored a surprise 23-22 victory over Austin Taxi. The game was unique in that South Lyon did not score a point in the last period and still won. Austin trailed 16-23 at the end of the third quarter, but could only score six points in the last period. Duane Dysinger scored 10 points for South Lyon as Gordon Moe netted the same for Austin.

Herrick Donates Trophy for Winning Sponsor

Dean Herrick, Plymouth jeweler, has donated a trophy to be given to the sponsor of the winning team of the Men's Division of the Plymouth Recreation league. This trophy will be engraved with the team name and year won and will be in the possession of the sponsor. If you have a social item you desire published in The Mail, phone 1755.

PLAY IT SAFE!

Why take any chances on not having all your equipment in good running order next season when you can have it all fixed up now. That's our business—expert repairs on any tractor, implement or tool used in farming. We have the mechanics, the special shop equipment and a big stock of genuine IHC parts to do your work right.

The main thing is to give us a little advance notice when you can. Most of the time our shop is swamped but when we know ahead of time we can schedule your jobs and have your machines ready when you want them.

Just give us a ring. Then when you're coming in, on the next trip, load up your tractor or any other piece of equipment and drop it off here. You'll find our service as good as the McCormick-Deering machines we sell. Our prices are reasonable. And we guarantee your satisfaction.

League Trophies Are on Display

The basketball trophies, which will be given to the various winners at the conclusion of the playoffs, will be displayed in the Plymouth Mail window for the next week. Beginning March 1, they can be viewed in the window of the Davis and Lent men's furnishings store on Penniman avenue.

The small gold trophies will be given to each member of the winning girls and mens teams and are given by the Plymouth Recreation commission.

A silver trophy will be presented to the sponsor of the men's champions. This trophy will become the possession of the sponsor and was donated by Dean Herrick. The Ted Box trophy will be presented to the player voted the most valuable by the members of the league. This trophy must be won three times to become the possession of the winner.

Blunk's Win First Game of Playoffs

Blunk's Inc., faced with winning their next four games to reach the playoffs, won their first as they handed DeHoCo a 59-51 defeat.

With Jack Dobbs and Dave MacIntosh each scoring 18 points for the winners, Blunk's led 30-24 at the half. Myers of DeHoCo scored 13 points to lead the losers.

Try to Remember
Grace Noll Crowell
CONSIDER your headache of the past, the pain You may have thought could never be relieved; Recall some ancient sorrow that had lain For long upon you—could you have believed You would forget it as you have? Ah, no, We are so blind along the road we go!
Our eyes are hidden and we cannot see This grief will fade, this hurt will be as naught; This sorrow pass away—the peace we sought Will rest upon us and we will be glad, Forgetting all the sorrow we have had.
Try to remember, Hearts, when grief is sore, That it will pass, as it has passed before.

The PLYMOUTH MAIL

THE WOMEN'S PAGE

Plymouth, Michigan

By Charlotte Winterhalter and Kay Knowlton
February is the month of sales, and here's a wonderful bargain you can't afford to miss. Stadnik and Shekel Motor Sales at 203 S. Main street are offering a 4-door Delux 1940 Dodge, complete with radio and heater, good tires, and overhauled motor for $795. Terms, of course, with all bank rates and up to 18 months to pay. Those 1947 Frazer Manhattans are really super, and here's your chance to purchase one, like new, far below the retail price. Also—1940 Chevrolet Coupe—$39 per month—your old car in trade.

Food, as you all know, is being steadily shipped to needy families in Europe. At Saxton's Feed Store you can buy a package of assorted seeds, which contains 25 different kinds of vegetables, for the small sum of $3.95, including postage, to send overseas. With enough seed to produce five tons of food, and Europeans being more-garden minded than we are, this is your opportunity to give them new hope for the coming year. Don't delay—to this today!

A car requires constant attention, on your part, to keep it running in winter weather, so make sure you take no chances with yours. The salt sprayed on ice eats through mufflers and tailpipes, and, if you are driving an old model, it, too, probably needs new replacements. Ash's Shell Service—584 S. Main street—will remove old mufflers and tailpipes, and install new ones. If you have neglected to check your auto lately—better do it today by stopping in to see Walter Ash.

Time is running out—in fact, there are only nine days remaining to register for the big drawing March 1, at Davis and Lent. Three prizes will be given away: 1st—$50 War Bond, 2nd & 3rd—$25 Bond each. There's no obligation, but while you're there, look at the wonderful ladies' jackets that are going for 1/2 off for clearance. Ladies' Westerns, formerly $23.50—now $11.75; Ladies' Golfers, were $12.95—reduced to $6.48; and Ladies' Casuals at $3.98. The special for this week—men's suits—one lot, values to $42.50. NOW $29.50; others to $60.00. NOW $39.50! (all other stock suits, 10% off!).

It's Easy to Serve Eggs Daily!
(See recipes below.)

Eggs A-Plenty!
"My family simply refuses to eat eggs, and I don't know how to work them into my menus," says many a housewife who is trying desperately to give each member of her family "the egg a day" that nutritionists recommend.
Today, we're devoting the column to recipes which are rich in eggs. For the families who refuse to eat eggs as such, there are many ways of disguising them. Instead of poached eggs for breakfast, serve a Dutch pancake, for example, and see how well received it is; use butter bread for lunch, and serve a vegetable custard for dinner. Isn't it easy?

Dutch Pancake.
(Serves 4)
4 eggs
1/2 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
2 tablespoons soft butter
Confectioners' sugar
Jam
Beat the eggs. Sift flour and salt together and add to eggs alternately with milk to make a smooth batter. Spread butter over the bottom and sides of a cold frying pan. Pour in batter and place in a hot (400 degrees) oven. Bake 20 to 25 minutes, reducing heat gradually to moderate (350 degrees) during the baking. Pancake should puff at the sides and be crisp and brown. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar and spread with jam. Roll like an omelet. Serve on hot platter at once.

Batter Bread.
(Serves 6)
3 eggs
1 cup buttermilk
1 cup sweet milk
1/2 cup fine white cornmeal
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons melted butter or shortening
Set baking pan in oven to heat. Beat eggs, add buttermilk and sweet milk, beat well and add dry ingredients sifted together, then the butter. Grease heated pan, pour in batter and bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) until set in center, about one hour. Serve at once.
There was a number of vegetables which are enhanced if they are made with an egg mixture and baked. Why not try one of these when adding eggs to the diet as well as your vegetable?

Corn Custard.
(Serves 6)
3 eggs
2 cups canned corn, kernel style
2 tablespoons melted butter
2 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon sugar
Cracker crumbs
Butter
Beat eggs well. Combine with corn, melted butter and milk. Stir well. Add seasoning and sugar. Pour into a buttered casserole and sprinkle with cracker crumbs, then dot with butter and bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 40 minutes or until the custard is firm.

Omelet Supreme.
(Serves 6)
6 eggs, separated
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup green pepper or parsley, finely chopped
2 tablespoons onion, finely chopped
2 cups creamed tuna, chicken, lobster or vegetables
Add salt to whites and beat stiff. Beat yolks then add pepper and flour and beat to blend thoroughly. Add green pepper and onion. Fold yolk mixture into beaten whites. Pour mixture into two well greased hot eight-inch layer pans (place pans in oven to heat while mixing omelet). Spread mixture lightly in the pans having mixture higher around the edge. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 15 minutes or until knife inserted comes out clean. To serve, invert one layer on warm serving platter. Pour about 1/2 cup creamed mixture over layer. Invert second layer atop sauce. To serve, cut in pie-shaped pieces. Pass remaining creamed mixture in a bowl.
Other fillings for omelets: Chopped crisp bacon and fried potatoes; creamed tongue; chopped, cooked chicken livers with sauteed onions; creamed oysters or shrimp; corned beef hash; highly seasoned, stewed kidneys, chopped and spread over top; cooked sausage—meat; broiled or creamed sweetbreads; thin slices of tomato sprinkled with soft, grated American cheese—place under broiler until cheese melts, then serve omelet immediately.

Ham-Cheese Souffle.
(Serves 4)
1 1/2 cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup grated Swiss cheese
4 eggs
4 slices ham
4 slices tomato
Add milk, seasoning and cheese to slightly beaten eggs. Turn the mixture into a baking dish which has been greased and lined with ham and tomato and set into a pan of hot water. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 25 to 30 minutes or until the custard is firm. Let stand for three minutes and unmold onto a platter. Serve with tomato sauce, which may be heated canned tomato soup.

Omelet Supreme.
(Serves 6)
6 eggs, separated
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup green pepper or parsley, finely chopped
2 tablespoons onion, finely chopped
2 cups creamed tuna, chicken, lobster or vegetables
Add salt to whites and beat stiff. Beat yolks then add pepper and flour and beat to blend thoroughly. Add green pepper and onion. Fold yolk mixture into beaten whites. Pour mixture into two well greased hot eight-inch layer pans (place pans in oven to heat while mixing omelet). Spread mixture lightly in the pans having mixture higher around the edge. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 15 minutes or until knife inserted comes out clean. To serve, invert one layer on warm serving platter. Pour about 1/2 cup creamed mixture over layer. Invert second layer atop sauce. To serve, cut in pie-shaped pieces. Pass remaining creamed mixture in a bowl.

King Cotton Will Lose Wrinkles

Now under way is a new "wrinkle-resistant" finish for cotton goods. This finish called Resloom C will create many new uses for cotton in both men's and women's clothing.
Florence Rann, clothing specialist at Michigan State college, states that the cotton industry has been attempting to produce an all-purpose fabric for some time. Manufacturers have been able to produce material that is shrink-proof and color fast. Now that they can make it wrinkle-resistant, they can give cotton a worsted effect. Men's and women's suits, uniforms, and sports shirts are a few of the new items that you may expect to see on the market.

Manufacturers to Make Children's Clothing by Measurement, Not Size
Mothers of young children who have had difficulty in buying clothing for them by sizes will welcome an announcement from the lead-manufacturers of children's clothing.
You will purchase clothing by measurement rather than by size reports. Lola Belle Green, extension specialist in clothing at Michigan State college, it will be much easier for you to buy clothing which will fit your children than when you have to buy by size numbers alone.
Manufacturers are identifying garments by hand tags that give waist, weight and height measurements on every size. You simply measure your child before you shop and then consult the measurements on the tag when you buy.

MISS ALTA FISHER SPEAKS OF GERMANY AT ASSEMBLY

The people of Germany "don't dare to think and don't know how to think", stated Miss Alta Fisher at an assembly on February 12.

Miss Fisher, who was introduced by Miss Gertrude Fiegel, is a graduate of Plymouth and the University of Michigan and is a supervisor of schools in the American occupied zones in Germany. Miss Fisher, who also attended the Nuremberg trials, centered her speech around the city of Frankfurt, Germany and neighboring towns.

The Plymouth High school band opened the assembly by playing "The Carnival of Roses." The Girls' Glee club sang "The Rain-drop" by Chopin, and the Boys' Glee club sang, "Old Man Noah."

In Lawrence, Mass., Mrs. Jeanie R. Gordon sued for divorce, said that her husband threw her parrot out the window when the bird snatched on him for coming home late. In Portland, Me., Raymond Bracey, seeking a divorce, complained that his wife not only served him pea soup for breakfast and dinner but put pea-soup sandwiches in his lunch box.

In Toledo, a bartender friend kindly bailed out the Rev. Howard B. Pritchard, of the Anti-Saloon League, who had been arrested for drunken driving.

Plant "Freedom Gardens" to Help Hungry World

This little city of Plymouth that "rang the bell" during the world war by producing vast amounts of food in its victory gardens, is now being asked by the government to repeat its patriotic wartime performance by making a record production during the forthcoming summer in "Freedom Gardens."

Every one will recall how successful were the campaigns for Victory gardens under the tireless leadership of Mrs. Walter Kellogg Summer. Every one recalls, too, the necessity for those gardens. But now with these United States called upon to help feed the entire world, the government is again asking some 20 millions of U. S. families to help fight the world food battle with peacetime Freedom Gardens.

It wants the nation's citizenry to start now collecting hoes, rakes, spades, shovels—and perhaps a supply of liniment—to begin an early assault on the soil. This ambitious planning was revealed a few days ago as several hundred garden enthusiasts gathered at the National Garden Conference to map advance action for the "Freedom garden," 1948 model. Their plans were considered sufficiently important to rate the personal encouragement of top administration officials including three cabinet members who spoke at opening meeting.

Freedom gardens are an outgrowth of that famous institution, the national defense garden, which, after Pearl Harbor, was called the victory garden. The wartime truck plots grew to such proportions that, in 1943, they were supplying over 40 percent of the nation's fresh vegetables.

If the goal of 20 million backyard gardens can be reached this year, it is claimed, the nation will get a 6-million-ton boost in its vegetable supplies—enough to feed two million people through next winter. At a conservative figure of seven cents per pound this would reach the astounding total of almost $1 billion worth of food.

To attain their goal, the garden organizers are trying to revive the thousands of volunteer garden workers and groups which carried the organizational burden throughout the war.

Most important target in this year's garden drive will be the city dweller.

The National Garden Institute—it's made up mostly of prominent citizens who also like to putter around in their backyards—will concentrate on getting suburbanites back to the soil.

The city goal has been fixed at 14 million garden plots but planners are worried that lack of suitable ground in many areas will mean a tremendous handicap. For that reason, they're asking real estate owners to provide space and encouragement to city folk.

Many plots were vacant during the war and available for gardening operations because federal regulations prohibited new construction. Now that these bans have been removed, a large number of the once-vacant lots are no longer open to amateur gardeners.

A recent survey indicated that one-third of the city garden plots last year were less than 500 square feet in size. The Institute is shooting for a minimum of a thousand square feet per garden in 1948—that's only a 25-foot by 40-foot planted area.

Garden growers also are being asked to increase yields down to the radish. By efficient timing, it is possible to quadruple production in some cases, experts think. This can be done only by working plots from the earliest onions and lettuce of spring to the last turnips and kales of late fall.

Farm folk have a much better opportunity to meet the goal of six million gardens which they have been assigned. Their problem will be to concentrate on greater quantities of the type of vegetables they normally ignore. During the war, over 600,000 children tended their own gardens in rural areas. Through the 4-H Clubs and similar organizations this land army is once again being recruited.

But the garden people insist their studies show that the family which grows its own vegetables actually buys more in the open market. The reason seems to be that, once a taste is cultivated for a food not habitually eaten, demand mounts in the long run.

Nutrition Aids
 from the
 Nutrition Service

The smart homemaker who is keeping up the food value of the family's meals while she keeps the grocery bill within bounds knows her beans. She considers them one of the best alternates for meat and one of the least expensive.

Although the protein in dried beans—peas and lentils too—isn't quite as good as that in meat it does an excellent job of muscle building and repair if milk, a bit of cheese or egg is served in the same meal.

Beans are rich in iron. When they're prepared with a small amount of molasses as in baking they top some of the lighter colored meats in this respect.

They add generous amounts of calcium to the diet too, for teeth and bone building. On this score they're superior to meat. Added to these food elements is their content of Vitamin B to make them one of the most valuable of low cost foods.

Dried beans need soaking before cooking to soften the fibre and make them more tender, unless directions on the package state otherwise. They should then be cooked in the same water or most of the minerals, vitamins and flavor will go down the drain. SODA SHOULD NEVER BE ADDED TO BEANS. It destroys the vitamins and doesn't soften the beans any over. It's long cooking in a slow oven or at a simmering temperature that makes them palatable. Unless of course, they can be done for a short time in a steam pressure cooker.

Beans have a natural affinity for fat pork—either salt pork or bacon. The fat accents the flavor of the beans as well as complementing the high starch and protein content.

New Englanders insist on a generous lacing of dark molasses in baking beans with a dash of mustard and an onion buried deep in the pot for added seasoning. Some cooks add to these a bit of ginger and some tomato ketchup.

Below the Mason-Dixon line beans and their cousins are likely to be served combined with rice or hominy. Sweet herbs such as marjoram may be added to point up the flavor.

Still farther south the more colorful pink, red and pinto beans play an important role in dishes highly seasoned with chili powder. If beans are to replace meat more often it will be wise to try some new ways of serving them.

Barbecued Lima
 Two cups dried lima beans, ½ teaspoon salt, small piece of salt pork, 1 medium sized onion, finely chopped, 1 tablespoon chili powder, 2 tablespoons dark molasses, 1 teaspoon dry mustard.

Pick over and wash beans. Cover with cold water and soak about 6 hours. Add salt, bring to boiling point, then reduce heat and keep at simmering temperature for 45 minutes. Drain, reserving the liquid.

Pour beans into casserole or bean pot. Add salt pork which has been rinsed with warm water. Mix rest of ingredients with liquid drained from beans and pour over beans, mixing well. If necessary, add more water to cover beans. Cover casserole and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 2 hours, removing cover for last half hour. Makes 6 servings.

Salt Pork, Beans and Hominy
 One-half navy beans, ½ pound hominy, ½ pound salt pork, salt, pepper and sweet marjoram.

Pick over beans, wash and cover with cold water. Soak overnight. Cover hominy with water and soak overnight. In the morning combine the two. Wash salt pork, cut in thin strips and place on top. Season with salt (about ½ teaspoonful), pepper and marjoram to taste. Cover pan and simmer for about 5 hours or until tender, adding water as necessary to prevent scorching. Serves 6 to 8.

Mexican Bean Salad
 One cup dried kidney beans, 4 cups cold water, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 cup diced celery, 1 tablespoon minced onion, ¼ cup chopped nuts, 1 tablespoon salad oil, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ¼ teaspoon chili powder or paprika, lettuce.

Wash beans and soak in cold water overnight. Add salt and cook at simmering temperature until tender. Drain and chill. Add celery, onion and nuts and mix lightly. Mix oil, lemon juice and chili powder or paprika. Season with salt to taste. Pour over beans. Serve on lettuce. Serves 4.

The city goal has been fixed at 14 million garden plots but planners are worried that lack of suitable ground in many areas will mean a tremendous handicap. For that reason, they're asking real estate owners to provide space and encouragement to city folk.

Many plots were vacant during the war and available for gardening operations because federal regulations prohibited new construction. Now that these bans have been removed, a large number of the once-vacant lots are no longer open to amateur gardeners.

A recent survey indicated that one-third of the city garden plots last year were less than 500 square feet in size. The Institute is shooting for a minimum of a thousand square feet per garden in 1948—that's only a 25-foot by 40-foot planted area.

Garden growers also are being asked to increase yields down to the radish. By efficient timing, it is possible to quadruple production in some cases, experts think. This can be done only by working plots from the earliest onions and lettuce of spring to the last turnips and kales of late fall.

Farm folk have a much better opportunity to meet the goal of six million gardens which they have been assigned. Their problem will be to concentrate on greater quantities of the type of vegetables they normally ignore. During the war, over 600,000 children tended their own gardens in rural areas. Through the 4-H Clubs and similar organizations this land army is once again being recruited.

But the garden people insist their studies show that the family which grows its own vegetables actually buys more in the open market. The reason seems to be that, once a taste is cultivated for a food not habitually eaten, demand mounts in the long run.

Spiritual vision is not subordinate to geometric altitudes. Whatever is governed by God, is never for an instant deprived of the light and might of intelligence and Life. —Mary Baker Eddy

Rural Tele-news

NUMBER PLEASE: Two dozen different kinds of Michigan Bell operators provide telephone service in Michigan—local, long distance, information and others. Latest is the mobile service operator who handles calls to and from motor vehicles.

BIGGER SPAN . . . LOWER COST: New high-strength steel wire now is being used for many rural lines instead of galvanized iron wire. The new wire, under certain conditions, lets us span our poles up to 350 feet apart. This means fewer poles and less hardware and reduces the cost of rural-line construction.

GOODBYE, OLD CRANK: Last year, some 2,700 Michigan Bell customers said goodbye to familiar crank-type telephones which were replaced with more modern equipment. Still more Michigan Bell customers in rural areas will have their telephones "changed over" this year. It's all a part of our $13,500,000 postwar rural expansion and improvement program.

Down Under The Palm Trees

By ELTON R. EATON

As long as everybody seems to be talking about prices, what about some of the prices charged down in Florida for some of the essentials of life?

In looking over some of the advertisements in Miami newspapers the other day, Grade AA fresh Iowa eggs were advertised for 48 cents a dozen. Sliced bacon is being sold for 63 cents a pound, picnic hams were advertised for 41 cents a pound. New potatoes are retailed at 35 cents for five pounds and green cabbage is sold for 3 cents a pound. Canned goods are sold for about the same price one pays up north. Oranges and grapefruit are being sold at roadside stands for 50 cents per half bushel. Best grade oranges cost more.

A while back during the intense cold weather that prevailed through the north, Edward C. Hough, who is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Kimball, in Miami, wrote a brief note to his long-time business associate, Charles H. Bennett, who has remained throughout the winter in Plymouth, enjoying the snappy fresh air as it whirled over the snowbanks and slippery highways.

Mr. Hough, in his letter, said among other things: "Well, here I am, Charley, sitting out in the warm sunshine listening to the mocking birds sing."

A few days later Mr. Hough received a reply to this letter from Mr. Bennett, in which Mr. Bennett commented about the weather in the following way: "Dear Ed—While you are sitting out in the yard enjoying the bright sunshine of Florida, I'm sitting here in the front room trying to keep warm and watching a half dozen, dirty, hungry sparrows sitting out near the street waiting for some horse to 'o by.'"

Seymour Poole, who was for many years the Ford dealer at Wayne and has many friends in Plymouth, has been in Florida during the entire winter. He is now in the best of health, but does not plan to re-enter active business for sometime, although he still operates a very successful tire store in Wayne. When he returns home he hopes to be able to go almost immediately to northern Michigan where he will spend the summer with Mrs. Poole.

More than 200 visiting Rotarians from northern states heard Capt. Edward Hughes, a recent Liberal candidate for the house of commons in England, tell Miami Rotarians the other day that there apparently is a wrong impression in this country pertaining to English political parties. "The Labor party in England," said Mr. Hughes, "is made up chiefly of business and professional men. It is true that very many laborers belong to the party, but its leaders are all of the professions or business. Our Labor party is nothing like your labor organizations would be."

He asserted, also, that England has not relegated Churchill to the backstage, as many here believe. He is one of the nation's most beloved citizens and he will forever hold the gratitude of the people for what he did during the war. But right now, the vast majority of people do not regard his policies as the best for the nation.

England is rapidly being taken out of the depression by the incentive system.

"We are glamorizing the man who digs the most coal. His picture is in the paper, with members of his family. The papers interview his wife, printing her favorite recipes. He is made to feel that he is a sort of King for a day, that he has really done something for his country," said Captain Hughes.

"England has never been without its freedom but we are troubled with the growth of bureaucracy, which, of course, in time will be curtailed. We are curing one of our greatest ailments by equalizing taxation. Formerly taxes were so high that people could not live in the country, but moved to the cities where taxes were lower. That condition is being remedied and people are returning to the country where they can produce food not only for themselves but the city people, too", he declared.

The Plymouth Rotary club came in for special recognition at one of the recent meetings of the Miami Rotary club. One of the members of the Miami Rotary club is Dr. Edward Lee, a former resident of Wayne, who some 23 years ago helped to organize the Plymouth club.

Dr. Lee was present with President Paul Wiedman, Edward C. Hough, and the writer at this meeting. The three enjoyed the unusual experience of being introduced to the nearly 400 Rotarians present by President Price of the Miami club.

As an indication of how widely Plymouth's famous product, the Daisy air rifle, is known, when Mr. Hough was introduced as being of the Daisy company, from all sections of the vast dining room came the remarks, "I've got one", or "I had one when I was a boy."

When the meeting was over, many of those present made it a point to meet one of the makers of a toy that has brought so much joy to millions of youngsters, as well as elders throughout the land.

Edwin Westen of Garden City has been making up his luncheon club meetings in Florida this winter. The club where he has been attending has a drawing for a box of Florida fruit every week. The last meeting he attended here was the day before he started back north—and much to his surprise and pleasure, he was the lucky one to be awarded a box of fine Florida citrus fruit.

If Michigan people thing they had a tough winter, they had better talk with some of the folks from New York, Pennsylvania, or the New England states. A resident of Philadelphia who arrived here a few days ago declared that frequently during the coldest weather this winter, thousands of families had been without fuel to heat their homes or apartments. A New York resident said the people of that state had never experienced such a distressing winter. By far the largest number of people in Florida are from the eastern states and the New England section of the country. If it had not been for the exceptionally cold winter, this year's Florida tourist business would have been a flop.

Tom Breneman's Guest Has Kin in Plymouth

Mrs. L. B. Rice, 963 Harding, has reported that she is the grand-daughter of Mrs. Belle Redman, a recent recipient of the orchid award on the Tom Breneman Breakfast in Hollywood show.

The corsage was presented to the 95 year old woman for being the oldest one present. According to Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Redman, who lived in Brighton for awhile, spent a recent summer as her guest. She also stated that Mrs. Rice, now making her home in Long Beach, California, is an active member of the Episcopal church and Woman's City club.

In Miami, when police arrested E. Manuel Bernan for stealing 100 pairs of panties from a lingerie shop, he declared that it was all his wife's fault: "I'm glad I got caught. No telling what she'd have made me do next."

What KIND of Printing — ?

Almost every day we discover a local resident who asks us just what "kind" of printing we do. The answer is: We don't do any kind . . . we do all kinds.

We do simple black and white (forms, cards, posters, etc.), we do two color work (folders, catalogs and inserts, broadsides and circulars), and we do four color process printing . . . the ultimate in fine work. We do books and magazines . . . any type of publication work.

And we do well on whatever job we handle, because we are experienced in the "know-how". Whatever your letterpress requirements, we offer our services to your organization for any kind of printing.

You ride here behind Fireball power that is lively and eager and big—and now cradled to the fluid smoothness of still waters running deep.

You relax in big cushioned interiors that are rich and fine in finish—and so blissfully quiet that it seems a whisper can be heard throughout the car.

Your tires are soft pillow cushions, your four springs gentle coils, your rims the sure-footed Safety-Ride kind that only Buick provides.

Your ride is the first one truly shielded against road shudder and shiver by scientific damping of vibration build-up within the car.

And if you choose a ROAD-

MASTER, you can treat yourself to Dynaflo Drive—a liquid-smooth drive that does away with all gear-shifting—and driving becomes a near-miracle of ease.

You profit, in Buick, from 30-odd new advances—choose from ten sparkling models—select from three series in three wheelbases and four power ratings.

You get style—you get size—you get comfort, quiet and ease—and ever the solid goodness that the name Buick stands for.

In another two or three weeks, stamp collectors and trout fishermen will have an opportunity to purchase what is believed by the Michigan Conservation department to be the first stamp ever issued by a state to license fishermen.

William Rambo and other Plymouth dealers who handle game licenses have been advised that they will have their allotment of stamps not later than March 15.

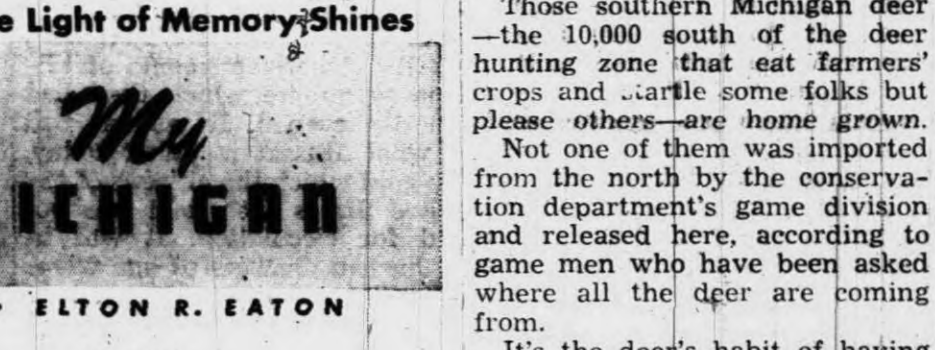

The Michigan conservation department reports that arrests for game law violations in 1947 hit a new high of 5,344—26 per cent above 1946 and nine per cent above the previous high of 5,362 in 1941.

The increase since 1932 is explained in part by the much greater number of persons now hunting and fishing, but this explanation does not hold for 1947, when the total of hunting and fishing licenses issued was less than in 1946.

Durward Robson, chief of the conservation department's field administration division, attributes some of the 1947 increase to intensified patrol in trouble areas, and to an increasing disregard for laws protecting fish and game.

Wives of licensed anglers, who have fished free on their husbands' licenses, may also fish trout free on their husbands' trout stamps. An endorsement on the wife's free license stub may be made when the husband buys a trout stamp for his license.

Wisconsin is making good use of the tags deer hunters are required to wear on their backs while hunting deer. Enforcement Officer Hadland, of the Wisconsin department, declares that the numbers are of untold value, not only to the department but to honest sportsmen as well.

Those southern Michigan deer—the 10,000 south of the deer hunting zone that eat farmers' crops and cattle some folks but please others—are home grown. Not one of them was imported from the north by the conservation department's game division and released here, according to game men who have been asked where all the deer are coming from.

It's the deer's habit of having twins and triplets that accounts for the present mushrooming of the deer population, they say. That, and some excellent food and cover, mild climate and immunity to hunting.

As for the seed stock from which the southern deer developed, game men say there were two known plantings, in Livingston county in 1925 and in Allegan county in 1931—both by local people with local support, and contrary to recommendations of conservation department game men who have recognized the incompatibility of deer and agriculture in southern Michigan for two decades.

In addition there have been escapes and releases from the 30-odd small herds, maintained under breeders' licenses, in parts of the southern counties in the last 20 years. A third source of seed stock has been infiltration of deer from the north. Natural expansion of the northern herd in good years produced some venturesome ones that drifted down into the agricultural zone. Once cut off from northern deer country, the strays probably have traveled great distances, with relays of farm dogs on their heels.

Conservation department records indicate the presence of deer in all counties of Michigan, including Wayne. They may be hunted legally only by archers in the southern counties, but highway traffic also takes a considerable toll.

Durward Robson, chief of the conservation department's field administration division, attributes some of the 1947 increase to intensified patrol in trouble areas, and to an increasing disregard for laws protecting fish and game.

Wives of licensed anglers, who have fished free on their husbands' licenses, may also fish trout free on their husbands' trout stamps. An endorsement on the wife's free license stub may be made when the husband buys a trout stamp for his license.

Babson

Babson Discusses Money
Babson Park, Fla., Feb. 20. Since my recent column stating that high prices are largely a matter of "supply and demand", I have received many letters of protest. These letters claim that the "amount of money in circulation" is the main cause.

Money in Circulation
There is about three times as much money in circulation today as there was ten years ago. This doubtless is a factor in the situation, but it makes no difference how much money is in circulation or the rate of circulation if people do not buy goods.

Ten men may be sitting around a table where each one owes the other a hundred dollars, or a total of $1,000. By presenting one of these men a hundred dollar bill he can pass it to the next man, and the next man to the next man, and so on; then this one hundred dollar can "pay up" the entire debt of $1,000! But this does not effect prices one penny.

Russia's Cure
What Russia has recently done in reducing the amount of money in circulation was done at the suggestion of her economists who, through advance notice, had their savings in land, commodities, and other real things which were not deflated. This program of Russia, however, does not increase the amount of food, clothing and shelter available to the Russian people which are the things in which they are really interested.

President Truman could accomplish the same thing in a gradual way by paying off Government debt, increasing bank reserves, raising interest rates, and forbidding installment sales, but for political or other reasons the Administration shies away from sound recommendations.

Robbing Us of Gold
Readers will remember that during the early part of the Roosevelt Administration when we held more gold than any other nation, President Roosevelt made us turn in all of our gold coins. At that time gold was worth $35 per ounce compared with $207 per ounce for gold today. Mr. Roosevelt did this on the advice of the same economists who are now razzing me for saying that "inflation" is 90 per cent a question of supply and demand.

President Roosevelt then robbed the American people of billions of dollars which they had honestly earned. It was as bad as what Russia is doing today. The gold which the citizens of the United States then held was not used for circulation. It was in the bureau drawers of our wives and children; it was carried in our own pockets for luck and emergency; and much of it was in safe deposit boxes throughout the country.

When, however, President Roosevelt forced us to turn in all of this gold and exchange it for paper currency, this paper money was spent, and hence, greatly inflated the amount of currency outstanding. As the swapping of gold dollars for paper money then increased the amount in circulation, why wouldn't the reverse be true today? If Washington is really serious in reducing the amount of money in circulation, why not offer people their gold dollars back again in place of the paper dollars which they would turn in? The U. S. Treasury certainly has gold enough buried in the ground.

Coale's New Book
I have finished reading a new book by Ansley J. Coale entitled, "Vulnerability to Atomic Bombs," prepared under the direction of the Social Science Research Council. It is published by the Princeton University Press and should be read by everyone. This book plainly shows that if World War III should come, it would destroy some of our large cities. After reading this book, I made up my mind to put some good bank notes in a safe deposit vault and, in fact, hide away some silver dollars or half dollars.

If every reader would follow the above program this would result in reducing the amount of money in circulation which the economists say is necessary and, at the same time, give each of us some ready money in case World War III closes our large city banks! Certainly, the Government cannot object to us storing up good bank notes and silver when claiming that the amount in circulation is responsible for high prices.

25 YEARS AGO

FROM THE PLYMOUTH MAIL FILES

The village primary election held Tuesday, to place in nomination six candidates for the office of village commissioner, to be voted for at the coming village election, March 12, only brought out a total of 76 votes. The following is the vote given each candidate: J. W. Henderson 59, R. R. Parrott 59, E. R. Daggett 58, George H. Robinson 56, H. J. Fisher 53, W. T. Pettingill 46, Daniel Murray 37, Frank Rambo 32. The first six given above are the candidates whose names will appear upon the ballot at the coming village election, when three commissioners are to be elected.

The valentine social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Campbell, February 9, was well attended, and a good time was had, netting better than $35.

Harry Terry has sold his home to Carl Ambrose.

W. T. Pettingill, who has been quite ill, is able to be out again. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drows on January 31, a son.

The Misses Elizabeth and Marion Beyer and Dorothy Melow spent the weekend in Northville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bolton pleasantly entertained the Pedro club at their home, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilkie spent the weekend with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smedley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Terry spent Sunday in Detroit as guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scharr.

About fifty girls from the Ford plant at Phoenix, were transferred to Highland Park, Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Ball of South Main street, received a very nice valentine, Wednesday, February 14, in the form of a fine baby boy, Lynton Lyman.

H. R. Lush, D. M. Berdan, J. H. Patterson, Frank Rambo, M. G. Blunk, Perry Woodworth, of this place, and Mr. Ryder of Salem, made a business trip to Columbus, Ohio, the first of the week.

Little Jeanet Blickenstaff of West Ann Arbor street, pleasantly entertained a company of schoolmates, last Saturday, in honor of her ninth birthday. Games were played during the afternoon, after which ice cream and cake were served.

In the county bowling tournament at the H. S. German alleys in Northville, which closed last week, the Plymouth Rocks, bowling team of Plymouth, got fourth place in the five men events.

"A deed once done can never be undone," someone has said. But certainly none would care to undo the generous deed which was performed by the class of '22. The graduates must have felt a deep devotion for their high school when they caused one more trophy to be placed among those Plymouth has held in the past. The way in which the seniors expressed their devotion for their school can be seen any time the front doors are open. After you enter the building, just look directly in front of you and you will see, a beautiful glass case placed behind the drinking fountain, with the front pane of glass gently tilting, so that you can get a closer view of what it boasts. The workmanship of their trophy is very fine, no wood frame being necessary, except the base and the doors at the rear. It contains one shelf of glass on which is proudly displayed the rewards of Plymouth's various contests in athletics, debating and stock judging meets.

Cancer, Heart Ails Lead Killers

Heart ailments and cancer were the number one and two killers in the line-up of fatal diseases last year. Together, they accounted for nearly 72 per cent of the deaths among American men and women.

This was the experience of The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, according to Fred Van Dyke, the company's field representative in the Plymouth area, who made public yesterday a study by the company of the causes of death among its 1,000,000 policyholders.

Diseases of the heart and circulatory system caused more than 57 per cent of the deaths in all age groups combined, but "hit hardest among people over 60 years of age where they accounted for nearly 62 per cent of the deaths. Cancer, on the other hand, was most severely felt in the ages 40 to 59 group, where it caused about 16 per cent of deaths. Mortality from cancer in all age groups combined was 14.6 per cent of the total deaths from all causes.

Accidents ranked third among the killers last year. The heaviest toll was among those under forty years of age, where accidents were the principal cause of death and accounted for nearly 36 per cent of all deaths in this age group. Suicide and tuberculosis also hit youth harder than they did the older age groups. Suicide accounted for more than 6 per cent and tuberculosis 4 per cent of deaths in the under-age-40 group.
