Three New Residences Will be Erected Soon in Hough Park Sub

There is considerable activity in the Hough Park Subdivision at the present time. A fine residence for Mr. and Mrs. Earl Russell is underway and will be ready for occupancy in the early fall. Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Taylor have bought two lots facing on Hough Park and expect to build in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. James F. Stinson have just purchased a large plot on the corner of Garfield and Elm avenues and have plans ready to start building a fine ranch type home this month. Many people who have been holding off building on account of present costs seem to have concluded that it is useless to wait for lower prices and are going ahead with their plans as many did after World War I, and who found that so-called good old days have failed to return.

Wildlifers Name Officers for Ensuing Year

Dr. Brick Champe, who has served as president of the organization every year except one since its organization more than a decade ago, was re-elected president without opposition. Ezra Rotnour, a charter member of the club and one of its most active members, was elected vice president to take the place of Elton R. Grass Fire Sets Oil Truck Afire Thursday

A grass fire set a truck filled with three tanks of oil afire yesterday noon, Thursday, at Farmer and Amelia. Members of the Plymouth Fire department reached the scene and put out the fire before it reached the truck's highly inflammable contents. Damages to the truck have been set at $500. Mr. and Mrs. John Nash were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Luther Peck of West Ann Arbor trail for two days on their way home to London, Ontario, from Florida.

Restaurant Fire Damage Greater Than Estimated

First estimates on the damage caused by fire to Al's Italian restaurant have been found to fall far short of the actual loss, Al Carnavale, owner, revealed this week. The heat, smoke, and fire damaged the building to such an extent that it has been deemed irreparable. The building will have to be torn down and rebuilt, the owner reveals. He estimates that it will be at least three months before he can again open his restaurant to the public. The fire occurred Tuesday, March 30, resulting from a short in the refrigerator wiring. It is believed to have smoldered for about two hours before it was finally detected and reported to the fire department. First estimate on the damage was $3,500, and it was believed repair could be completed within a few weeks' time.

Wayne, Northville Plants to Merge

Mergence of the Sinclair Northville Bulk plant with the Wayne sales area is planned, terminating 15 years of operation for the former concern. The Northville plant dealt with deliveries to service stations, commercial, farmers, and heating oil accounts. William C. Hartmann, commission agent, will be in direct charge of the Wayne Bulk plant. The position of plant foreman will be filled by Gilbert Peters, and John Shinn and Anthony Szukaitis have been named to serve this area in the capacity of commission drivers. The latter classification puts the men in business for themselves, and they will cover the same area as when operating out of the Northville plant. Within the last year, the Sinclair Refining company has completed its terminal on Ford road and Wyoming avenue, Detroit. Gasoline for the local service station will be delivered direct from the terminal to the station. Larger tanks will also be installed at the various service stations, thereby permitting larger deliveries which will be made with a 5000 gallon company unit.

Career Planning Conference to be Next Wednesday

Final plans are presently being taken care of for the annual career conference, sponsored annually by Plymouth High school, to be held next Wednesday, April 14. The conference program is held for the benefit of Juniors and Seniors, parents, alumni, and veterans. Present plans reveal that the conference will begin at 7 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The evening's keynote speaker has not been announced as yet, although a list of the consultants was revealed this week. At 8:15 p.m. a panel will be held on the subject of colleges, covering the fields of engineering, nursing, teaching, commercial, and journalism. W. Worth, of the Wayne County Road commission, will be on hand for discussion of engineering, while Katherine Faville, dean of the Wayne University college of nursing, will represent the nursing profession. Paul Johnson, elementary coordinator of Plymouth Public Schools, will be the consultant for teaching, and James W. Stover, home delivery promotion manager for the Detroit Times, is slated for those interested in journalism. Provision is made for discussion of general college, as well as home and family living, which is slated for 9 p.m. The Rev. Alex Miller, vicar in charge of the Episcopal church, has been obtained for the boys, and Jeanette Lee, is tentatively slated for the girls.

On the non-college program, home and family living has been chosen as the topic for 8:15. Those undecided as to their future career can consult Mildred Barnes or Ellis Wylie, personnel relations assistant with Michigan Bell, at 9 p.m. Dr. Maxwell will advise those interested in commercial work; Wendell Lent, retail trades; John Campbell, metal and building trades; and Pat Cochrane, cosmetology. Questionnaires have been filled out by the school students, specifying their interests, around which the conference program will be based. Louis Schmidt, principal, is chairman of the steering committee and has been working on plans for the past six weeks. Members of the school's Student Council will act as ushers for the affair. Replies have been received from the state teachers colleges and many other schools, including Michigan State college, and the University of Michigan, stating that they will have representatives present to consult with interested students.

PTA's Program for County Held Here on Tuesday

The PTA leadership training program held in Plymouth's Central Grade school Tuesday, April 6, has been deemed by Mrs. Jack Taylor, president of the school's PTA, as highly successful with approximately 100 attending. This marked the first time Plymouth has been chosen to play host to this program Mrs. Taylor revealed. It is sponsored by the Wayne County Council of the PTA for Parent - Teacher groups throughout the county. Discussing "The Role of the PTA in the Community," Dr. Edith Roach Snyder, guest speaker, told the duties of the parents and teachers and explained what they could do as an organization. She stressed that the membership should not be exclusive of these two groups, however, telling that anyone interested in children should be included in the membership ranks. Anyone with interest has something to contribute, she pointed out. Dr. Snyder also voiced her opinion that the PTA should play an important part in the community affairs. Dr. Snyder is principal of Pontiac's Webster school, and music director of the state PTA organization. Officers of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers attending were: Mrs. Charles Wren, secretary who reported on publicity; Mrs. Chester Tuck, fourth vice president; Mrs. Wayne Mohr, state membership chairman. Mrs. Lewis Goddard of West Maple street was called to Port Huron on Tuesday by the serious illness of her aunt.

Daylight Savings Time is Adopted

Plymouth commissioners decided to follow Detroit in the adoption of Eastern Standard Daylight Savings time at the meeting held Tuesday, April 6. When residents awaken Sunday morning, April 25, they will find they have lost an hour which won't be regained until September. The time change goes into effect April 24 at midnight, extending until September 26. The commission was unanimous in its consent to the time change.

Gas Fire Averted by City Firemen

What might have been a most serious, destructive fire was averted by the quick action of the Plymouth fire department Wednesday morning, April 7. A short occurred in the pumping motor of the Detroit Sohio Fleetwing truck while it was pumping 7500 gallons of gasoline into a storage tank of the station owned by P. L. Owens, located on Main street by the P. M. railroad tracks. Fire resulted, setting the mechanism ablaze. The city's fire department was contacted and arrived before the fire reached the gas or storage tank. Chief McAllister approached the explosive place with hand equipment and is singularly responsible for extinguishing it, an eye witness reported. The pumping motor was completely destroyed.

Home Ransacked Thursday Night

After ransacking the home of Thomas Bateman Thursday night, April 1, burglars departed with an estimated $500 worth of jewelry and a wool shirt. The Bateman residence is located at 1347 West Ann Arbor trail. Entry was gained to the home by forcing a window. Police found a second window open when they arrived, which may have been used for escape, or as a precaution in case a speedy departure were necessary. Telephone wires were found broken, and the house was completely ransacked from the first floor to the attic. Two diamond rings, and a diamond stick pin were reported missing, in addition to the shirt.

City Jail Break Breaks Record

History was made in Plymouth Saturday night, April 3. It was on that night that a resident of the city jail sawed his way to freedom, marking the first escape in the police department's history. The slippery prisoner who squeezed out through the small opening made by sawing only one bar of the window, was Anthony Aceto, 24, a fugitive from the Muskegon jail who has been enjoying liberty since 1945. He was originally jailed for an alimony case. The escapee was apprehended by Capt. Carl Greenlee when he attempted to claim a car at the police department which had been impounded earlier because it was minus a license. Theodore Tyler of Plymouth was driving Aceto's car at the time it was stopped by the police. Where the saw came from for the removing of the window bar cannot be known for certain. Police Chief Lee Sackett stated this week, His escape occurred shortly after he had been let out of his cell for supper. He was unguarded, although believed to be tightly locked in, at the time.

Prowler Breaks into Plymouth Home Knocks Young Girl Unconscious

The case of the prowler continues in Plymouth, with the report that a man entered a local home early last Friday morning, April 1, where a young girl was alone. The girl reportedly had entertained friends that evening, going upstairs following their departure. When she shortly returned to the first floor to lock the door, she was struck over the head and knocked unconscious. Her clothing was cut or torn, and her face, arms and legs were scratched. According to the police, she had not been attacked. She told police she had not seen the intruder. Police did, however, apprehend a 26 year old man Friday evening, April 2, reported to be indecently exposed. He was sentenced on a disorderly conduct charge, which is a high misdemeanor, and put on a year's probation. The first 90 days of his probation are being spent in the Detroit House of Correction. Police Chief Lee Sackett this week calls attention to the fact that the numerous stories which wind around town via the grapevine, which are not only untrue but unfounded, are actually harmful to the police staff in their attempt to apprehend guilty persons. It takes the department a great deal of time to track down these rumors, he stated. He points out, however, that it is truthful tips from residents of the city which lead to many of the arrests. He asks everyone's cooperation. These tips are of utmost importance, particularly in the case of incidents of indecent exposure. Such incidents should be reported immediately to the department, he reveals, as should any suspicious persons.

Delegates Choose Charles Brake as MEA President

Delegates to the Michigan Education Association's Representative Assembly, held in Lansing last Friday, April 2, elected Plymouth's Charles Brake to the organization's highest and most honored post, that of president of M.E.A. Mr. Brake, who is the Deputy Commissioner of Wayne County schools, resides at 299 Ann street. The new president is ascribed by his colleagues in the county district M.E.A. as having "devoted his educational career to the betterment of schools and education in Michigan." He has spent his entire life in Michigan, working from the post of rural teacher through principal and superintendent. In 1935 he was named to serve as Deputy Superintendent of the county schools. Mr. Brake's teaching career includes rural schools of Kent and Mason counties, the Hudson school, Detroit Y.M.C.A. and he has been principal of Mt. Pleasant High school and superintendent of Grosse Ile schools. A list of his activities reveals that he is a member of the M.E.A. Survey committee, president of the Wayne County Board of Health, and of the Wayne County Children's Center. Mr. Brake is also a former president of the M.R.T.A. and of the Plymouth Rotary club. In 1942 he was chosen as chairman of Region I of the M.E.A.

This is the Way They Voted in All the Precincts

	Precinct 1	Precinct 2	Precinct 3	Precinct 4	Total
Goddard	134	70	225	170	599
Latture	138	74	193	127	539
Hunter	107	71	143	112	433
Davis	58	38	67	64	227
Total	438	253	634	473	1798

Exactly 1,000 voters balloted in the Monday, April 5, election, naming Lewis Goddard and James Latture as the commissioners to serve the city for a two year term, beginning with the April 19 commission meeting. Mr. Goddard and Mr. Latture polled 599 and 539 votes, respectively, edging Harry Hunter and Dunbar Davis, incumbent, out of the race. Mr. Hunter received a total of 433 votes and Mr. Davis, 227. Both newly elected commissioners have lived in Plymouth for a number of years; 16 for Mr. Latture and nine for Mr. Goddard. The former is on the teaching staff of Plymouth High school, holding the title of debate coach and instructor of government. He resides at 986 Harding. Mr. Goddard is affiliated as an engineering executive with the Goddard and Goddard company of Detroit. He and his family reside at 1227 West Maple. City Manager Harold Cheek states that the number of voters taking part in the balloting was good in view of the fact that it was a city election, with only one issue up for vote. He also revealed that of the 1,000 votes cast, 15 were spoiled and one was blank. In the primary election, when the water improvement program as well as the nominating of commissioners appeared on the ballot, a total of 768 votes were cast, falling 216 short of the valid number in Monday's polling. The cause of the increased number of ballots in the recent election may be attributed to the weather, or it may indicate increased interest on the part of Plymouth voters concerning their city government. Commissioners whose terms are currently ending are Mayor Jack Taylor, who declined to run for reelection, and Dunbar Davis, who was defeated. Other commissioners serving Plymouth at the present time are William Hartmann, recently appointed to replace Robert Lidgard, Frank Henderson, and Ruth Whipple.

Dump Available for Clean-up

Since April has been declared as clean-up month, the Plymouth Farm Bureau has located a place where rubbish and tin cans can be dumped, according to Mrs. August Hauk. This dump is located on Wick road, the north side of the road. It is situated one mile east of Wayne road and one mile south of Ecorse road. Mrs. Hauk asks that all Plymouth residents cooperate and keep roadsides clean and free from rubbish. The program is directly under the supervision of Harold Fischer, of the Fischer Greenhouses, and his Kiwanian Agricultural committee.

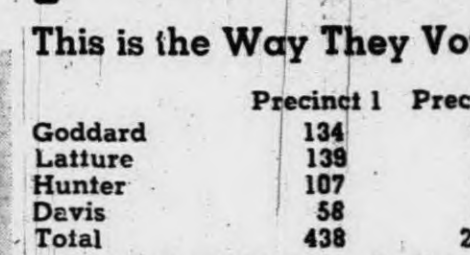

Taxi Companies Ask for License

Two new taxi cab concerns have applied for licenses to operate in Plymouth, City Manager Harold Cheek told commissioners Tuesday evening, April 6. He stated that both concerns plan on using two cabs each. The manager reminded that eight licenses are issued to the present company and recommended that the commission put a limit on the number of cabs to operate here. He advised that this limit be placed at 10. This recommendation was based on the belief that if too many cabs were permitted in the city, with none making a sufficient profit, the equipment used and service to local customers would suffer as a result, Mr. Cheek stated.

Telling the entire story of steel, in sequence, supported by sound effects, a 40 minute technicolor motion picture, furnished by the United States Steel corporation and sponsored by Dunn Steel Products of Plymouth, will be shown to residents of Plymouth today and Monday.

Rotary members will see the film today, Friday, at noon. Plymouth students will have the opportunity to see it this afternoon and Monday, April 12, during the day. The final showing will be for industrial workers and the general public at 8 p.m. Monday in the high school auditorium.

To acquaint the public more fully with the wonders and activity of the steel industry, is the purpose of the film. Technicolor cameramen took their special equipment into the depths of the ore mines, to the furnaces, and through the mills, shooting the principal steps in steel making.

There is no charge for admission to the Monday evening presentation. Everyone is cordially invited.

25 YEARS AGO
 FROM THE PLYMOUTH MAIL FILES

Miss Ethel Bolton of this place, and Glen Davis of Canton Center township, were married at the Methodist parsonage in Wayne, by Rev. Biddlecombe Wednesday. The bride is a popular and efficient clerk at the W. T. Pettin-gill store. The groom is a car-penter and is employed by Clin-ton Gottschalk.

The Parent-Teachers associa-tion will hold its April meeting Monday, and Prof. George A. Smith will address the meeting on something of interest along the line of school work.

Mrs. J. W. Blickenstaff and daughter, Janet, spent last week with the former's parents at Lake Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lancaster and small daughter, June, were over Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tillotson.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwocho and sons of Plymouth township were Easter guests of Mrs. Schwocho's sister, Mrs. Theodore Siefhoff. Winston Cooper, who has been spending his Easter holidays at his home here, returned to his school duties at Lawrenceville, N. J., Tuesday.

Mrs. D. F. Murray, member of the Plymouth Board of Education and Superintendent of Schools, attended a meeting of superintendents of school boards at Ann Arbor, last week Wednes-day.

Oral Rathbun has been confin-ed to his home on account of ill-ness, for the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bake left the first of the week for a few days' trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Rorabacher and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Becker were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Carleton.

Last Saturday the roof on Har-ry Laible's house on Starkweather avenue, was discovered to be on fire, a spark from the chimney having set the shingles ablaze. The fire was extinguished without serious damage.

Plymouth Fliers Join Dawn Patrol

Four airplanes from Plymouth took part in the first Dawn Patrol of the season Sunday, April 4, which took them to Adrian.

Local pilots and passengers who took the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Herrick and five year old daugh-ter, Sue, Howard Cochrane, and Chase Willett and passenger.

The Dawn Patrol is an organi-zed flight with fliers all over the state making the trip in private planes.

This first meet of the season was reported to be the largest in the history of the organization, with approximately 450 planes landing on the Adrian field. Gov-ernor Kim Sigler made the trip in his own plane, addressing the pilots and their passengers fol-lowing the breakfast.

Mr. Herrick was awarded a Bendix portable air craft radio during the program.

The next flight will be to Hills-dale on April 18.

Business Women Choose Officers

Neva Lovewell was elected by members of Plymouth's Business and Professional Women's club to serve as president for the year, succeeding Henna Taylor.

The election was held during the annual meeting, Tuesday eve-ning, April 6, at St. John's Epis-copal church, following a dinner program. Other officers chosen were: Belle Young as vice presi-dent; Dora Gruebner, recording secretary; Jean Peet, correspond-ing secretary; and Florence Gable-man, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Diack of Detroit were featured on the eve-ning's program, entertaining the group with motion pictures taken on their recent tour through the west. The program was under the supervision of the finance com-mittee, headed by Margaret Dun-ning, assisted by Florence Gable-man, Hazel Diack and Wilma Finrock.

Two new members were admit-ted to the club during the meet-ing: Barbara Rice and Mildred Schwartz.

A group of the Plymouth mem-bers plan to attend the convention of the Michigan Federation of Business & Professional Women's clubs, to be held in Grand Rapids on May 21, 22, and 23. There will also be representatives of the Plymouth club at the annual meeting of District No. 1, planned for April 11 in Royal Oak.

An automatic electric execu-tioner of flies, gnats and other small insects, eliminating the need for sprays, has been devised for use, especially in dairies, bakeries and other food outlets.

Pep Up Meals With Delectable Fish (See Recipes Below)

Favorite Seafoods

Have you discovered what pleasant variety fish dinners can give to your meals? If not, you have a real flavor treat coming.

New cooks will like using fish because it is so easily and quickly prepared. There are so many varieties to use, you need run into no rut even though you serve fish often.

You can substitute fish for meat easily because, it, too, is a good source of protein in addition to providing such important minerals as calcium, phosphorus, iron, copper and iodine. Those of you who live inland would do well to fortify your iodine supply by eating fish more often, as it's difficult to get enough in any other way, except medicinally.

Overcooking is one of the faults most frequently found in the preparation of fish, for many people do not realize that fish is really tender. Broiling and pan-frying are good methods to use, as is baking.

You'll find that fish served in a casserole takes little time and can be really delicious. The time required for baking is short as the food really only needs to be heated.

Fresh, canned or frozen fish may be used, whichever is available to you in the recipes I've included today.

Parents Can Help Their Children With Listening Habits for Radio

As parents are you concerned about the radio programs which your child listens to in the evening? Do you wonder if so many programs of horror and crime will have a harmful effect on your child?

Some critics feel that these programs can be the cause of delinquency and severe emotional disturbances. Others feel that such programs offer outlets for suspense, adventure and aggression. Mrs. Lenneth K. Beckus, child development specialist at Michigan State college, feels that you should consider whether the programs over-excite your child.

Exciting radio programs may tend to be too exciting for your child for several reasons. First of all, they are concentrated into an hour or an hour and a half of continuous programming. Second, they usually occur at the end of a child's day when he is pretty well tired out. Finally, the series frequently end upon a high note of suspense.

What can parents do about the radio listening problem, you ask? It might help if you encouraged your child to listen to a program which is a complete story in itself instead of having to wait until the next evening to relieve suspense. However, children have a way of liking what they like and we may not be too successful in attempting to influence their choice of a program.

Your best solution for getting your child's point of view and being of some positive help to him is to listen with him to some of his favorite programs. By sharing the listening with him you can relieve some of the tension and make more intelligent comments to him. If you try, you can enjoy watching your youngsters grow through various stages of radio interest.

Walled Lake May Become a City

Former Mayor Carl Shear and City Manager Harold Cheek were in Walled Lake Thursday evening attending a meeting of the citizens of that place who desire to incorporate Walled Lake into a city.

The former mayor appeared at the request of Mayor Jack Taylor who could not be present because of previous engagements.

During the past few years the business section and population of the Walled Lake community on the north shore of the lake has grown at a remarkable rate and property owners believe that the time has come to organize a city similar to the government that prevails in Plymouth.

In Albany, the New York State Assembly unanimously approved a bill allowing men to get their hair and nails done at beauty parlors. In Beverly Hills, Calif., Furrier Al Teitlebaum announced a new line of men's smoking jackets in seal, broadtail and Persian lamb.

Fair in the Light of Memory Shines
MICHIGAN
BY • ELTON R. EATON

In two weeks, bright and early Saturday morning, April 24, the Michigan trout fishing season for 1948 will open. But Plymouth trout fishermen should remember that in addition to their regular fishing license, they must purchase the Michigan trout stamp, which costs $1, and attach it to their fishing licenses which now cost $1.50.

These are available in Plymouth in all stores where fishing licenses are handled.

But all fishing is not illegal just at this time. There is fishing for bluegills, sunfish, perch, rock bass and rough fish for instance, on Bear lake, Hillsdale county; Saddle lake, Van Buren county; Big Portage lake, Jackson county; Minnewaukon lake, St. Joseph county and Sugarloaf lake, Washtenaw county. The same rule applies in the north of Fife lake, Grand Traverse county.

Bear and Saddle lakes also have special regulations permitting taking of an unlimited number of undersized bluegills, sunfish, perch, rock bass, crappies and other panfish, along with regular creel limits of legal-sized fish.

Open to fishing for perch, crappies, rock bass and other species during their regular seasons (while other southern lakes are closed entirely) are Craig lake, Branch county; Duck lake, Calhoun county; Fine lake, Barry county; Lobdell lake, Genesee county; Pontiac lake, Oakland county and Whitmore lake, Livingston county. Rules for these lakes are identical with those for non-trout lakes in the north.

The northern pike and walleyed pike closed season of March 15 - May 15 prevails on the experiment lakes as on all other inland lakes. Anglers fishing the experiment lakes are more likely to meet creel census clerks than elsewhere, as the effect of the new rules is being closely checked before they are extended to other waters.

Special regulations also permit fishing at all times in Lake Macatawa, Ottawa county; and after May 15 on Duck lake, Montcalm county, Gould's Pond, Shiawassee county, and Birch lake, Cass county.

Michigan's department of conservation announces that it will soon begin planting one million legal size trout in the trout streams of Michigan. While many states are following this practice, there has been some question as to the benefits of it.

In fact at the recent Wildlife conference in St. Louis, it was pointed out that the practice was both expensive and of not much benefit.

In the Michigan legislature this week, a number of law-makers made it evident that it was their intention of recommending to the department more stream improvement and not so much planting. Meanwhile trout planting will continue in Michigan.

In the ordinary season the fisheries men can count on about 75 days suitable for trout planting, from shortly before the season opens in April to mid-August. On these 75 days the crews must average more than 13,000 legal size trout per day, in addition to other fish planting and routine hatchery work.

Even distribution of the big trout over thousands of miles of stream requires truck travel over remote trails seldom used by any vehicles other than light passenger cars. The planting operation itself takes considerable time, as the trout must be spread along the stream in likely places where they can find food until the angler finds them. The longer it takes for back roads to become passable, the greater the load on planting crews in midsummer.

Except for the lower part of Black river in Mackinac county where rainbow trout fishing starts April 15, the state's trout streams and trout lakes are open of productive land per person. In Italy, present increase in population will cut this meager acreage in half in about 75 years. In Greece it will happen in less than 60 years.

This is no time for indecision and feeble effort. This is a time for level-headed, analytical appraisal and constant, constructive, even if slow, progress toward a determined goal—careful husbandry of the land and frugal use of all the natural resources we possess. This may be hard on wildlife. It means that on most land wildlife must remain a by-product. But there is no alternative. The goal is the survival of man.

Before Michigan conservation department crews begin their summer's work of installing stream improvement devices, they have two spring chores to clean up: planting of trees and shrubbery along stream banks where more shelter is needed, and placing the last of the winter's brush shelters in lakes.

The brush shelter work is a clean-up of projects halted when the lakes froze over last fall. During the winter men of the stream improvement crews have been working in Pigeon River state forest, getting out timber for

TIP as to what's TOPS

POLLS seem to be the thing these days — so why not make your own?

Just bend a private ear to what's being said all around you — and you'll get a dozen tips a day as to what's tops in cars this season:

"My dear," one gal tells another; "it's even smarter inside! Everybody says it's the best-looking car on the road, but just wait till you sit in it!"

"And it's so easy to drive! I never thought a big car . . ."

"I'm telling you, Jim," you'll hear a man say. "Get a car that's big enough!"

"There's just no substitute for enough roadweight—especially with that Buick power plant to give you the get-up-and-go you want."

"Listen!" says another. "Here's the first car where I've really been comfortable! We pack the whole crowd in—kids and all—and those big three-person seats give 'em all the wiggle-room they want—and still let me handle the wheel in comfort!"

Then you may overhear a very, very bubbly individual who's driving a Dynaflo® Buick:

"Nothing like it," he says. "Nothing like it ever before. Don't ask me how it works; I'm no engineer—but it's the silkiest, smoothest, slickest thing I ever laid hands on—and I've driven 'em all!"

"Why, I went up Ft. George hill the other day—slowed to a dead-stop halfway up—held 'er there—picked up—went over the top accelerating—and never touched the control lever!"

"Never did anything but feed gas to it wanted it!"

And so it goes.

Power fans praising Fireball power. Comfort lovers going for Quadruflex coil springing and Safety-Ride rims. Folks who like quiet, singing pacans to Sound-Sorber top lining.

And everybody, yes everybody, agreeing there's only one true fashion plate—and you can spot it at a glance.

So why hold back? You'll never get to the top of a dealer's list that way! See that Buick dealer today—with or without a car to trade—and get your firm order in.

Consumers Asks for Rate Revision

A report received from the Plymouth office of Consumer Power company reveals that the company has requested the Michigan Public Service commission for permission to revise and standardize its natural gas rates in ways that would provide additional revenues for the company.

Plymouth, which is located in an area already paying the higher rates, would not be effected to the extent of gas users in the other Michigan area.

The company, in its petition, pointed out that gas users in the so-called "all - Michigan" gas area, which includes the cities of Alma, Bay City, Charlotte, Hastings, Howell, Ionia, Ithaca, Lansing, Mason, Midland and Saginaw and other nearby communities, are paying substantially lower rates than those in the so-called "Texas" area, which includes the cities of Birmingham, Ferndale, Flint, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Marshall, Mt. Clemens, Owosso, Plymouth, Pontiac, Royal Oak and St. Johns, and surrounding communities.

For some years all natural gas for the "all-Michigan" gas area came from Michigan fields. Now that natural gas for both areas comes from a common source, supplied almost entirely from distant Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas gas fields, it is only fair, the company says, that all communities served should pay the same rates.

Standardization of rates throughout the Consumers system, a company spokesman said, might mean a substantial increase in the rates paid by large industrial customers and space-heating (including house heating) customers in the all-Michigan gas area and a more moderate increase in the rates paid by domestic customers in this area who use gas for such purposes as cooking and water heating.

"Space heating by the use of natural gas," the petition says, "is in direct competition with other fuels, including fuel oil, bituminous and anthracite coals, and coke. Prevailing retail prices of these competing fuels have greatly increased during recent years, so that, viewed exclusively from the price standpoint, natural gas is now actually cheaper than the other types of space heating fuel, being, by way of illustration, from 40 to 50 percent less than fuel oil."

Consumers now has to pay a higher average price for natural gas, the petition recites, and other costs of supplying natural gas service also are up.

It used to be Sergeant Frank C. Hammon of 16115 Middle Belt road, Plymouth, Michigan, but it's Staff Sergeant Frank C. Hammon now, according to a report from the Thirteenth Air Force headquarters.

Sgt. Hammon was one of three Thirteenth Air Force, Clark Air Force Base men, assigned to the 18th Fighter Group (SF) in the Philippines who recently was promoted to his new grade.

Fertilizer Recommended for Spring Grain

The use of commercial fertilizer on spring grains is recommended by E. D. Longnecker, soils specialist at Michigan State college.

One of the best places to use the fertilizer, he points out, is with small grain crops with which seedings of legumes or legumes and grasses are being made. The benefits to the grass and legume seeding often equal or surpass the benefits to the grain crop.

On the heavier types of soil, the silt loams and clay loams, an application of 300 to 400 pounds per acre of 2-16-6, 2-12-6, 0-14-7, 0-20-10, 0-20-0, is advised. Where a legume is being seeded with the grain, a fertilizer carrying half as much potash as phosphorus should be selected. On a field which tends to produce grain crops lacking in straw growth a complete fertilizer carrying at least two percent of nitrogen should prove most satisfactory. Where stable manure is being applied, ordinary superphosphate may be used to supplement the manure.

Fertilizers carrying more potassium are needed on the lighter soils such as loams and sandy loams. Analysis such as 3-12-12 and 0-12-12 can be used. The 0-12-12 should be used only on soils which tend to promote over-rank straw or stalk growth.

This spring it may be necessary to substitute 2-12-6 for 3-12-12 because of shortages. If 2-12-6 is used on small grains in which legume seedings have been made, an application of 0-12-12, 0-20-20, or 0-10-20 should be made as soon as it can be obtained.

"I AM ONE of 24,000 Michigan Bell employees. In 1947 we had more facilities and equipment to work with. We added new wire, cable and central office equipment at record speed. And by the end of the year we were putting telephones in at the rate of over 1,500 a day. Last year, 1,900 more telephone jobs were created, which meant up-from-the-ranks promotions for many of us. Wages were higher. There were nearly three times as many of us as ten years ago, and our payroll was nearly four times as high. One out of every eleven of us received payments for illness or injury under the company's Benefit Plan and 7,400 of us were buying A. T. & T. stock under a payroll deduction plan."

Which were you in 1947?

"I AM ONE of 1,200,000 Michigan Bell customers. In 1947 we bought more telephone service than ever before. And the rates we paid were the same or lower than they were ten years ago. We made 10% more local calls and 8% more long distance calls than in 1946. We got better, faster service. By the end of the year there were 133,000 more Bell telephones in Michigan that we could call. So our own telephones became more valuable to us—and will become even more valuable when the thousands who are waiting for telephones get them."

"I AM ONE of more than 730,000 people whose savings, invested in Bell System securities, provide money for building the telephone system. That makes me an investor in Michigan Bell. Millions of others have invested in the telephone business indirectly through their savings accounts or insurance policies with institutions owning Bell securities. Although Michigan Bell took in 6% more money than in 1946, the cost of providing service rose 13%. And Michigan Bell earned only 3 8/10c last year on each of our dollars invested in the business. This is less than a fair return and offers us little incentive for investing additional money needed to expand and improve service. So it's a good thing Michigan Bell has asked for an increase in telephone rates to assure us a fair return."

LOOKING AHEAD: Michigan Bell fully expects to supply a continually improving service to the public... good jobs for thousands of employees, with plenty of opportunity for advancement in a growing business... and a reasonable return to those whose savings are invested in the business.

BABSON

Babson Discusses Prices
 St. Louis, Mo., Apr. 9. During the past two weeks I have visited some of the largest U. S. cities, interviewing prominent farmers, manufacturers and merchants. The following are their conclusions:

Food Prices
 The wholesale market for nearly all farm products has declined since I was in the Central West six months ago. Yet, intelligent farmers do not regret this and feel more secure than when prices were abnormally high. Most farm products, with the possible exception of dairy products, will continue to work lower over the long-range.

Therefore, the farmer should follow the practice of getting out of debt and putting his buildings and implements in good condition. Otherwise, he should carry on business as usual continuing to plant acreage and let prices follow naturally. Avoid speculation by either rushing crops to market or holding them back for higher prices.

Building-Prices
 I see no reason why building costs should be less during the balance of 1948, but one should be able to get better materials. Moreover, as the labor shortage decreases, the painters, bricklayers, and carpenters should give more work for the same amount of money. Certainly, I would not build anything now that I did not need to build. However, I should keep my buildings in good repair.

Veterans are howling for more houses, subsidized more or less by the Government. On the other hand, this great increase in building, such as the veterans want means even scarcer materials and higher prices. Veterans want continued rent control, although so long as rent control stays very few new houses will be built for renting. It is a bad mess.

Retail Trade Prices
 Merchants, although holding well as to the total of dollar sales, know that the unit volume has declined. Therefore, wise merchants are resisting price increases and are keeping down inventories. In fact, unit retail prices may now be at a high point for some years to come.

Fuel Prices
 Readers should now order their winter's supply of coal and fuel oil. With the exception of summer "fill-up" fuel oil discounts there will probably be no reduction in fuel prices and there may again be a scarcity.

Oil companies are spending huge sums developing new wells and bettering their refining methods. However, the consumption is terrific, now running about 5,400,000 barrels a day. Synthetic fuel plants cannot help for years to come. Here again the only answer is for drivers of automobiles to show some restraint and not waste gasoline.

War Outlook
 In my Annual Forecast for 1948, published in this paper about January 1st, I made two very important statements. One was that World War III would not start in 1948. Notwithstanding the calamity howls of the broadcasters and the exciting news in the papers, I continue to be convinced of this whatever may happen after 1948. The longer it can be delayed, the better chances are that it will not occur for many years.

Another definite forecast was that 1948 would be a year of preparation for war. I now add that these preparations will increase monthly, in fact this preparing for war will be one of the things to prevent it.

Conclusions
 I still cling to another statement in my Annual Forecast, namely, that 1948 will be about the same as 1947. Thus, farmers, manufacturers, bankers, and especially merchants, should go about business as usual. Figure that there will be no shortage of goods, yet no surplus. Buyers will not be justified in buying surplus goods for fear of higher prices. Let us all give more time to developing our business and reducing operating expenses, and less time to listening to news broadcasts and discussing them with our neighbors.

Extension Groups Plan Program

More than 30,000 Michigan women are enrolled in home extension groups this year. Emma DuBord, home demonstration agent, reports that 1000 of these extension members are enrolled in Wayne County.

In every county in Michigan home extension members are making preparations for the week of May 2-8 which will commemorate their program—National Home Demonstration Week. Women in every state in the union will be engaged in similar activities.

Home Demonstration work is carried to homes throughout the whole United States by more than 3000 home demonstration agents and half a million unpaid volunteer leaders. Home demonstration work is a cooperative project of the local county government, the land grant college such as Michigan State college, and the United States Department of Agriculture.

"Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World" is the slogan which guides these home extension members as they plan their activities throughout the year and for National Home Demonstration week. Home demonstration activities start in the home but they branch out around the world. Community projects and help for world neighbors are as important extension activities to these women as feeding their families, remodeling their homes and making their own clothes. Anyone interested in joining an extension group or organizing one in his neighborhood, should see the county home demonstration agent in his local extension office, at 3914 Monroe avenue, Wayne.

Troubles Ahead for the Dunkers

There's no rose path ahead for the members of the Plymouth Dunking club to follow, it appears from "inside" information that has leaked out through a leaky coffee cup.

It is all a result of the fuss kicked up because President Don Lightfoot of the club was accused of letting National Doughnut Week go by without proper observation.

Now President Lightfoot declares that hereafter he is going to eat his doughnuts raw—just plain raw.

"There's going to be no more dunking as far as I'm concerned! A doughnut is just as good even if it isn't dunked. So what's the use of these fine rules about just how you hold your little finger and bend your elbow in dunking a doughnut? From now on its raw doughnuts for me", declared the "hard-boiled" president of the Doughnut Dunkers.

Plymouth Garden Club Backs Plea for Planting of Vegetable Gardens

Plymouth potential gardeners are urged by the local branch of the National Farm and Garden association to get out that spade and seed and begin work on a vegetable garden.

They will not only be helping themselves, Mrs. Carl Shear, president of the club states, but they will be doing their part in helping the national food situation as well.

Mrs. Shear tells of a speech delivered recently by Mrs. William J. Yeager, Sr., at a council meeting of Garden club presidents at the City club in Detroit. Mrs. Yeager is executive secretary of the garden commission for the city of Dearborn.

She reports that the speaker told that it is just or more important that people plant their vegetable gardens this year than it was during the war years. Mrs. Yeager stated, Mrs. Shear reveals, that during the war there were surpluses of food on hand from the peace time market. Now, however, she is reported as stating, we are suffering from the aftermath of the war and shortages prevail in many fields, one of which is food.

Plymouthites Report For Training Duty

Kenneth K. Walker, of 11329 Southworth avenue, and Daniel C. Burton, a former Plymouth resident, have reported at the Grosse Ile Naval Air Reserve Station for two weeks of active training duty in the Naval Air Reserve Program. Captain Clifford S. Cooper, USN, commanding officer, announced today.

Walker, an Ensign in the Naval Air Reserve, served as a Naval Aviation fighter pilot in the South Pacific and Philippines during World War II. A graduate of Redford High school, he is a senior at Michigan State college.

Separated from active military service in October, 1945, he is the holder of the Navy Air Medal and Presidential Unit Citation. At the present time he is maintenance officer of the Organized Reserve unit at Grosse Ile.

Burton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Burton, of 9924 Ingram avenue, is a Lieutenant (j.g.) in the Naval Air Reserve. A veteran of 16 months duty in the Pacific, he served with the amphibious forces as Security Officer receiving commendation for the highly efficient manner in which he performed his duties.

Now a teacher at Redford Union high school, Burton also attends classes part time at the University of Michigan.

Rural Mail Carrier Position is Open

Announcement was made this week of an examination to be given by the United States Civil Service commission for the position of rural carrier at the Plymouth post office.

The examination will be held here, and applications must be received for the position on or before April 22.

Accompanying the notice was a statement revealing that all rural carriers must furnish and maintain at their own expense all necessary vehicle equipment for the prompt handling of the mails, but they are allowed an equipment maintenance of six cents a mile on the basis of the daily mileage.

Application blanks can be obtained from the post office.

Robert Simmons Given Honors

Robert Simmons, chairman of the Republican committee for Plymouth, was honored Saturday at the Republican caucus of the 17th Congressional district by being elected secretary of the pre-convention meeting. But he was not the only Wayne county man honored at the district. George Shafer of the 22nd ward, which is a part of the 17th district, was made a delegate to the national convention.

Mr. Simmons has been most active in Republican party organizational work in the past two years and he has been called upon to do much which has for its purpose the strengthening of the party as well as creating a greater activity on the part of younger members.

There was only one slight flurry in the caucus, an unsuccessful effort being made to elect a delegate from Oakland county who had not been given the endorsement of the Republicans from that district.

George Valrance Will Appear with Choir

George H. Valrance, tenor, will appear with the Albion college a cappella choir during its spring concert tour from April 11 to April 22.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hurd T. Valrance, 9628 Cranston.

The choir will appear in Michigan, Indiana and Illinois, meeting 18 concert and radio engagements during the tour. Among recent honorary invitations the group has received, was one from Richard W. Elasser, conductor of the Bach Circle of Boston, who invited them to participate with the Boston Symphony orchestra in next spring's Bach Festival in Boston.

In Little Rock, Forrest City and Marianna, Ark. and in Kosciusko, Miss., police searched for the pipe-organ "repairmen" who had stolen pipes from organs in each of the four towns.

Lost Bridge is Found in Woods

Dr. Brick Champe had telephone in hand and was about ready to phone the above ad into The Plymouth Mail office the other day, when he decided that he would try and find the bridge without the help of any lost ad.

It seems that during the recent high waters the flood had carried away the bridge that connects the pathway leading from the Western Wayne County Conservation club to the skeet field on the south side of Tonquish creek.

The loss was reported to President Champe of the club. There is no access to the skeet field without the bridge, unless one desires to swim the Tonquish, and that hasn't been done in recent years for numerous reasons.

President Champe decided to do a little searching for the bridge, so he pulled on his hip boots and started downstream. Lodged high and dry among the trees and bushes some half mile or so below the skeet field was the bridge, entirely intact. Now the problem is to get in back where it belongs.

HERE ARE THE Facts ABOUT Gas House Heating

NATURAL GAS remains in short supply, and we won't be able to take on any more house heating customers for at least two or three years. If you are among the lucky ones who now heat their homes with gas, you will be interested in these facts about all types of house heating.

What does it cost to heat a home with natural gas today? Just what it cost to heat the same home with natural gas five or six years ago.

Gas rates for space heating are the same as in 1943, though our cost of supplying you with natural gas is much higher.

Everything that goes into your gas service is up. The cost of gas to us is up. Construction costs are up. Materials are up. Equipment is up. Wages are far above 1943 levels.

While the cost of natural gas to you has stayed down, the cost of competitive fuels—oil and coal—have skyrocketed. See the bar chart below for a comparison.

"What would you do—under these circumstances?"

UP 85%

UP 52%

Increased COST OF HOUSE HEATING WITH Oil SINCE 1943

Oil for house heating costs almost twice as much today as it did in 1943. That's because the costs of production and distribution are up.

Increased COST OF HOUSE HEATING WITH DOMESTIC Coal SINCE 1943

Coal prices also have taken a big jump during the last few years. Miners' wages are up, freight rates are up. So are all the costs.

THERE HAVE BEEN No Increases IN GAS RATES TO OFFSET GREATLY INCREASED COSTS TO US.

Natural gas for space heating still sells at the same old rate, though the cost of supplying you with this service is much higher than it was in 1943.

Natural gas is a superior fuel for house and other space-heating purposes, and might naturally be expected to command a higher price than other fuels. It sold on this basis in former years but today it is selling at rates far below the cost of fuels which do not offer equal advantages in cleanliness and convenience. The chart below tells the story. A thousand cubic feet of gas for house heating purposes still costs only 68 cents. Coal of equal heating value costs 88 cents, oil $1.14.

CHART SHOWING Comparative COST OF HOUSE HEATING - Expressed in Cents Per Thousand Cubic Feet, Natural Gas at Consumers Power Company's Present Rate Compared with the cost of today's OIL and COAL*

*Based on prevailing prices for Pocahontas lump coal and No. 3 furnace oil in this area, generally accepted efficiencies of gas, coal and oil furnaces, and the average amount of gas sold to space heating customers by Consumers in 1947.

Jane Ann Lyons Bride At Beautiful Church Ceremony Last Saturday

Jane Ann Lyons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Edward Lyons became the bride of Richard Irvine Daniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Irvine Daniel of Rosedale Gardens at a candlelight ceremony at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 3.

The double ring service was read by Dr. Henry J. Walsh in the First Presbyterian church before an altar decorated with white madonna lilies and white candles in tall standards. Fred Nelson played "The Lohengren Wedding March" while the wedding party took their places. At the close of the ceremony F. Earl Reh sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a model of candlelight satin. Rosepointe and duchess lace outlined the net yoke of her bridal gown and a full skirt extended into a long circular train. Her full length wedding veil of French illusion was attached to a gown of matching lace. She carried a white bible covered with rosepointe lace embroidered with pearls which was adorned with a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The maid - of - honor, Barbara Ann Daniel, sister of the bridegroom, wore a gown of light pink silk faille. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Scheppelle, Ruth Popovich wore dusty pink faille and Mrs. William Wernet and Margery Livingstone wore silk faille in American Beauty shade. The gowns were made alike with tight fitted bodice and full skirt. Each carried a bouquet of roses matching their gowns tied with satin streamers and a headdress of the same roses.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Robert Leslie Daniel, as best man and the ushers were Harold Todd, Robert Scheppelle, Warren Mason and William Sexton.

Mrs. Lyons, the bride's mother, was gowned in pastel blue crepe with which she wore pink and white accessories and a camellia corsage. Mrs. Daniel, mother of the bridegroom, chose a gown of grey crepe with pink accessories and camellia corsage.

A reception with 250 guests present was held in the home of Jane Ann's uncle, Charles H. Bennett, on Main street, north.

The young couple are at Williamsburg, Va., spending their honeymoon. For travelling, Jane Ann chose a tropical tan wool suit with which she wore brown accessories and brown orchid corsage. They will be at home after April 18 at their home, 300 Adams street.

Dick graduates in June from the University of Michigan college of Engineering. He is a member of the honorary engineer societies, Tau Beta Pi and Eta Kappa Nu.

The rehearsal dinner was held in the Hotel Mayflower Friday evening with covers laid for 26.

Former Plymouthite Married Saturday

The wedding of Mary Virginia McKinnon and James Winslow Standart took place Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church in Detroit with Dr. Frederick Olert officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Neil McKinnon of Detroit. Miss McKinnon chose a white silk gown banded with embroidery at the round neckline and the hem and an embroidered panel running the length of the gown. Her illusion veil fell from a rosepointe lace cap and she carried lilacs and white flowers.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Charles Marshall Rogers, came from Evanston, Illinois, to be matron of honor. Her gown of turquoise silk crepe had an applique design on the yoke. Her bouquet of spring flowers was matched by a flower headdress.

Joseph G. Standart, Jr., was best man for his brother. Ushers were John H. French, Jr., Richard W. Jackson, James McMillen and Cameron Waterman III.

The bride and her parents are former residents of Plymouth. Mary Virginia graduated from Plymouth high school.

Those attending the wedding from Plymouth were, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Jolliffe, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hegge and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Whipple of Mead's Mills, Northville.

Plymouth Sport Shop Five Take Greater Detroit Championship

By Ralph Johnson

The Plymouth Sport Shop basketball team, runner-up in the city league this year, brought fame to Plymouth as they won the Class B, Inter-City championship at Pontiac High school Friday, April 2.

This tournament, called an Inter-City tournament, was actually a Greater Detroit tournament, with teams representing Dearborn, Highland Park, Hamtramck, Wyandotte, Pontiac, St. Clair Shores, Ecorse, Detroit, Van Dyke and River Rouge.

Sport Shop drew the home town team of General Motors Trucks in the first round, one of the teams favored to win. The score was never close as Sport Shop took an early lead of 12-7 at the quarter and led at the half 27-18. By the end of the third quarter they held a 42-22 lead and wasted to a 56-30 victory. High point men were Maynard Schmidt with 15 points and Jack Roberts who scored 14.

On the following evening, Tuesday, March 30, the Plymouth team met the Wyandotte Chemicals who had drawn a bye for the first round. Sport Shop again commanded the game from start to finish. After taking a 6-3 first quarter lead, they spurred slightly before the half to lead 21-11. They drew away during the second half to win 57-30. Doug Cassey led the attack with 14 points, as Jack Roberts and Robert Bentley scored 10 points apiece, and Robert Geddes netted 12 points.

Wednesday evening the competition became more keen as Sport Shop's opponent was Highland Park. The Parkers had defeated Hamtramck 45-43 in the first round and dumped the favored Dearborn team the previous evening.

Sport Shop played the first half in their usual slow breaking fashion, shooting only when they were open, but against Highland Park's fast team they trailed 17-10 at the quarter and 27-24 at the half. Beginning the third quarter Sport Shop, true to pattern, opened up with their first break and led 41-37 at the end of that stanza. Continuing the attack with their speed, they finished on the long end of a 61-48 final score. Maynard Schmidt again led the scoring with 20 points as Robert Bentley and Jack Roberts tied with 13 points each.

The final game on Friday evening was against the Hy-Vets, Detroit's representative, who had previously defeated Ecorse and River Rouge. Sport Shop again used a slow offense the first half which caused the score to be 20-20 at the half. Again they opened up during the last half to lead 36-22 at the third quarter and win the championship with a 50-33 victory. Robert Geddes led the scoring with 16 points as Jack Roberts added 12 points.

The Plymouth Sport Shop team played so well together that the selection of the outstanding player is difficult, but the award rightly belongs to Robert Geddes, 6 ft. 5 inch center, for his outstanding play under both backboards. Using his height to advantage, Bob controlled the backboards during all four games.

The team was awarded a large team trophy which can be viewed in the Plymouth Sport Shop window.

Sportsmanship is Seen to Pay off

By Ralph Johnson

The Plymouth Sport Shop basketball team not only won the Inter-City Basketball championship, but also top laurels on sportsmanship and good conduct at the tournament.

Comments were made by the Pontiac Recreation department, the referees, scorekeepers, and spectators, as to the clean play and good sportsmanship of the Plymouth Sport Shop team. By the half of the first game, Sport Shop was the favorite of the crowd and continued to be so throughout the entire tournament.

Sport Shop committed only 34 fouls for the four game series, which is only 8.5 fouls per game. Never once did a Sport Shop player complain or give the official a dirty look on any decision.

Never before have I seen such good clean hard play and open display of good sportsmanship. Plymouth should be extremely proud of the boys' conduct, for their impression on the people of Pontiac was not only of themselves, but of the city they represented.

The parting words from Pontiac were, "Glad you could come. Come back again, we enjoyed it." Teams representing Plymouth in state athletic contests to come, really have something to live up to in the future.

Taxes cost Americans more than food. Official statistics show the nation's 1946 food bill was about $39 billion, while federal taxes (exclusive of State and local) amounted to more than $40 billion.

Meeting for Men's Softball is April 13

There will be a meeting of all managers, or their representatives, of teams entering the Plymouth Men's Open Softball League at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 13, in Room 204 of the city hall.

Discussion of league rules, traveling league, and issuing of players contracts will take place at that time.

Team entries close May 1, 1948.

Hitt Leaves for Spring Practice

With his destination Whiteville, North Carolina, Robert Hitt left Plymouth Friday evening, April 2, to begin spring baseball practice with the Northern league's Eau Clair team.

He revealed before departing that the team has scheduled 154 games, which will begin next month. He will return to Plymouth following the conclusion of the season. Hitt and his wife reside at 266 Irvin avenue.

Two years ago the pitcher played pro ball in the Ohio State league with a team which was a member of the Boston Braves system.

CAGERS CONTEST COURT HONOR AT REDFORD UNION

Members of Marilyn Vanhoy's, Mary Louis Richwine's and Lois Packard's basketball teams traveled to Redford Union Tuesday, April 6, for the first in a series of play days.

Those who went were Helen Fisher, Marilyn Vanhoy, Arlene Wagenschulz, Nancy Branan, Allyn Williams, Barbara Lorenz, Ann Cadot, Doris Waldecker, Mary Louis Richwine, Betty Baker, Beverly Brown, Betty Hitter, Gerry Henderlong, Pat Packard, Barbara Daniel, Nancy Gillingham, Lois Packard, Marion Pernie, Rose Ann Ewer, Jean Agosta, Jane Hawk, Mary Therese Waters, Beverly Baisley, Jackie Showers, Nancy Mastick, and Pat Dudley.

This Tuesday, April 13, the Redford Union girls will come to Plymouth to participate in a play day with the Junior teams.

Every 38 seconds fire breaks out in the United States. Every 1 1/2 minutes an American dweller catches fire. Every 50 minutes a person dies in a fire or from burns.

City's Golf Courses in Top Shape as Announcement of Openings is Made

Golf season for Plymouth is getting well underway, according to announcements from Max Todd, pro-manager of Hilltop Golf course and M. C. (Casey) Partridge, pro-manager of the Hilltop Country Club.

The Country Club opened last weekend and the Hilltop course and club house will open to the public tomorrow, Saturday.

A meeting of the golf league team captains will be held in the next week or so, the managers stated. Prospective players will be contacted, and any golfers who have not signed for a team are reminded that vacancies exist on both. Anyone interested should contact either manager.

Western Wayne League Meeting to be April 14

The final organizational meeting of team managers for the Western Wayne Baseball League Classes D, E, and F will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 14, in Room 204 of the city hall.

All boys and managers interested in playing in a league of under 19 years, under 17 years, and under 15 years, are urged by Ralph Johnson to attend.

Both courses are reported to be in excellent condition, with no standing water on either.

In preparation of the season, the Country club house has been redecorated. During the process, the women's locker room has been moved, and the bar and dining room are now located in separate wings of the building.

While all this has been going on at the Country club, much new mowing equipment has been obtained for the Hilltop course for this current season.

Fire is the leading cause of all disasters and catastrophes in the United States. The American Red Cross reports that fire is responsible for more disaster relief calls than all other causes combined.

"Understand Rivalry and you understand America"

by Ed Thorgersen

For a bit of Americana... for racing thrills in a folksy, county fair setting, you just can't beat sulky racing. Something of the America of yesterday seems to return as you watch sun-tanned drivers in bicycle-wheeled sulkies urging the graceful trotters around the track in a final heat.

No mere youngsters, these harness drivers. Many of them have been racing since you and I first climbed into three-cornered pants. And as you watch them, wise in the ways of racing and horses, you admire the spirit that helps them keep racing, year after year.

And you remember that love of competition has no age limits. A man of 70 gets the same thrill in beating his rivals as a lad of 7 gets from surpassing his gang at marbles. Competition is a slice of the soul of America—in business as well as in sports.

Look at the oil business, for example, where over 34,000 individual companies compete with rivals. Their thrill—beating out rival firms. How? By giving you better products... better service... more for your money.

That's how you gain from the rivalry of more than 1,250,000 people who earn their living in the oil industry... producing, refining, transportation, distributing and retail sales. Their rivalry, their love of competition, brings you finer fuels and lubricants... courteous, more efficient service... newer, better products.

Yes, every day, in more ways than most people can imagine, you benefit from the rivalry in the oil business. That's why you can be sure "there's a plus for you in Petroleum's Progress."
