Poster Contest Winners Revealed

Winners of the Poppy Day poster contest staged by the Myron H. Beals and Passage-Gayde American Legion auxiliaries have been announced.
The Beals auxiliary awarded winning honors in the class I division of fourth, fifth and sixth graders, to Mary Balkma, 11400 Melrose road. Mary attends school in Rosedale. The class II award for seventh, eighth and ninth grade competition was won by Mary Jean Schindler of 624 Hix road, Wayne, a student of Plymouth Junior High school. Tenth, eleventh and twelfth graders comprised class III, the winner of which was Betty Bassett, 615 South Harvey.

Members of the Passage-Gayde auxiliary announce Nancy Morrow as first winner in the eleventh and twelfth grade competition, ninth grader Harold Campbell as second place winner, and Arden Standbury, sixth grader, as third winner.
Mrs. Dean Saxton, chairman of the contest for the Myron H. Beals auxiliary, states that prizes will be awarded these winning students. She also announces that the posters will be entered in the state contest.

Judges were Mrs. Jean Snaar, grade school art teacher; Mrs. Lee Coolman, retired art teacher; Mrs. Al Smith, former teacher of art in the Plymouth schools; and members of the auxiliary posts also had a vote in the selection. Through the cooperation of Irene Overton, high school art teacher who made the contest a class project, a large number of fine, well done posters were submitted, Mrs. Saxton revealed.

George Dondero Seeks Reelection to 81st Congress

Congressman George A. Dondero, who has represented this congressional district since 1933, and who announced publicly last February his intention to seek reelection to the 81st Congress, has placed in circulation his petitions for nomination.

Because of his continuous service, Congressman Dondero has risen to the powerful position of chairman of the Committee on Public Works of the House of Representatives. Under the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, four committees (Rivers & Harbors, Flood Control, Highways, and Public Buildings & Grounds), all of which are of vital interest to Michigan and our Congressional district, were combined to form the present Public Works committee. The chairman of such a committee exercises a powerful influence and determines the legislation to be considered by his committee and reported to congress. The 17th district should retain this important committee chairmanship by continuing Congressman Dondero in office.

Throughout his service, Congressman Dondero has accomplished substantial savings to the people because of his watchful attention to legislation, while at the same time he has fought for needed and valuable measures which were essential to the progress and security of the nation. Congressman Dondero has exerted his every effort to uphold our American principles and has constantly fought to rid the Army, Navy, and the government agencies of persons with Communistic and Fascist leanings who are not loyal to our form of government.

During the present Congress, Chairman Dondero has been instrumental in having reported from his committee the improvement of the Red Run-Clinton River flood control; a Federal Highway bill which will benefit Michigan and the 17th district; legislation establishing a program for stream pollution control; a national defense measure at Nome, Alaska; and other measures looking toward the rehabilitation of our veterans and to help those who were wounded or disabled in the service of our country.

He has been unselfish in giving of his time and effort to the problems of his constituents in the matter of better mail service; veterans' cases before the Department of the Army, Navy, Veterans' Administration, etc.; immigration cases which meant the uniting of families and loved ones; giving a helping hand in naturalization cases; and endeavoring to be helpful to all who write him on legislation and seek information which he is able to furnish or can secure for them.

He has put his full weight behind the effort to reduce taxes and to cut governmental waste and extravagance. Congressman Dondero believes in practicing what he preaches and held the Omnibus Rivers & Harbors-Flood Control bill, coming from his own committee, to less than $40,000,000 in contrast with a previous bill, passed less than twenty-four months earlier, amounting to $1,250,000,000. He has favored and urged equitable legislation for our postal employees who have served the nation faithfully at all times.

Congressman Dondero's bill to compel Communists and Fascists to register as agents of a foreign power whose object is the control or overthrow of the United States, was embodied in the measure reported to the House of Representatives within the last few days. Mr. Dondero has consistently opposed the shipment to Russia of oil, machinery, scrap, and, in short, any items which would build up that country's war machine and possibly be used later against the United States. He has been sympathetic toward help for the starving and needy people of Europe, without depleting the resources of America. The congressman has said, "If our financial structure is under-mined, then we can be of no material help to the other peoples of the world and stand to lose our own form of government, for which the flower of our manhood has twice been sacrificed."

The savingest woman! She turns off the electric lights when they aren't being used, uses a triplicate saucepan for cooking three vegetables on the same burner, and her husband calls her blessed.

Plymouth Trot is Set for August 5

August 5 has been set as the date for the Plymouth Trot at Northville Downs, a report revealed this week.
The stake for the race is $2,000. This year's racing season opens August 2 at Northville and will conclude October 9. The report further announces the biggest stake program in the half-mile track's five year history. Twenty stakes, three of the $5,000 featured events, will offer horsemen $57,000 in purses during the 60-night meeting under the floodlights.

The new stake program, outlined by president-general manager, H. B. Dennison, and race secretary, William C. Connors, is said to mark an innovation in Northville Downs racing. A stake event will be presented each Tuesday and Thursday night during the season.

Ralph Johnson Submits Resignation to Plymouth Recreation Commission

Virgil Knowles, held the post to March 1, 1948.
Johnson has been the city's second recreation director. The first, when the department was first created in the city. He also served Plymouth for a one year period, leaving at the end of that time for a position in Kansas.

The Ypsilanti position, Johnson states, is an advancement in the field of recreation. He will have an increased budget to work with and increased facilities, including two community centers, use of school buildings, use of the high school swimming pool, parks, and four playgrounds. Ypsilanti's recreation budget averages $31,000 annually, Johnson reports, averaging two dollars per capita, as compared to Plymouth's one dollar per capita average.

Rotarians Hear of Members' Fields

Two Plymouth Rotarians described before the professionals under which they are classified on the club's roll at last Friday's meeting in the Hotel Mayflower.
Helmar Nelson and Harry Mohrmann were the members who acted as chief speakers for the day. The former, superintendent of Plymouth schools, related highlights in his career to date. This he coupled with important factors in education, telling many of the present day issues in the field.

The day's second speaker, Mr. Mohrmann, cashier of the First National Savings bank, viewed banking history. He brought it up to date by describing many factors vital to today's banking. The meeting was under the supervision of Mr. E. C. Hough.

amendments to the state constitution which have important bearing on meeting school housing needs. Questions submitted from the audience will also be considered.
Mr. Woods has stated that this is to be community meeting and he urges all who are interested in the children of the community and their schools to be present. He states that it is hoped information brought out through this meeting may assist all citizens to more intelligently consider important school issues which may arise later.
Girl Scouts of Troop No. 8 will present entertainment during the evening. Refreshments have also been planned.
The next meeting of the PTA will be a band concert and ice cream social. It will be held June 8.

Jaycee Nominated for State Position

Ballots submitted to Junior Chamber of Commerce members at tomorrow, Saturday's, annual state meeting will include the name of Charles Wolfe for the office of vice president.
His initial nomination was made by the Plymouth club and notification of his acceptance has been received. George Todd, president of the local club, reports.

Tomorrow's annual meeting will be transacted in Grand Rapids' Rowe hotel. Nine vice-presidents will be elected for the Michigan Jaycee organization, Todd states.
Wolfe's background in Jaycee work, qualifying him for the post, includes the fact that he has been active in the local club since its organization in 1937. During 1940 and 1941 he served as a member of the board of directors, and he has acted as chairman of the clean-up, paint-up and membership committee. Wolfe held the chairmanship of the first three Plymouth Coaster Derbies in 1941, 1942, and 1946, and in 1944 was voted as vice president of the city's club. The position of secretary was given to him in 1945 and he was named chairman of the youth welfare committee in 1945.

The highest ranking post in the Plymouth club, that of president, was filled by Wolfe in 1946. The following year he was named as chairman of the leadership training committee.

He assumed duties with the state organization in 1946, as a member of the state board of directors, and has held that post to the present time.

Gold Star Mother is Not Forgotten

Three friends paid honor to the mother of one of their friends on Mother's Day—a friend who was not here to offer the tribute himself—a friend who lost his life in Korea in 1946.

The Gold Star Mother, Mrs. Laurence Gladstone, 175 North Mill street, was remembered with flowers from Melvin Hunt, John McClain, and John McMann, close friends of her late son Ewart. Mrs. Gladstone has expressed her appreciation of the tribute, and added, "Thank you boys from the bottom of my heart."

Sloping Land Calls for Special Planting Plans

Soil conservation and possible increased yields are the outcome when farmers plant across the slope on gently sloping land, R. G. Hill, extension soil conservationist at Michigan State college, reports.
The effect of working across the slope is the creation of thousands of tiny dams which will trap water during flash summer rains. Hill advises that tests show cross-slope cultivation will hold water for crop use, save fertilizer, and reduce erosion. Run-off plots in soil conservation districts have lost 30 to 40 percent of the summer rainfall when worked up and down the slope—compared to a 10 to 12 percent loss from plots worked across the slope. This saving has had immediate effect in increasing crops yields.

The specialist further notes that cultivation on long, steep slopes may require additional erosion control practices to effectively reduce run-off.
More than 3,000 American travelers will take their cars with them to Europe in 1948, according to a forecast by the American Automobile Association. Car shipment rates are expected to drop about $200 from their present record trip level of approximately $650.

Never coast downhill with the gear shift lever in neutral or with the clutch disengaged. In many states such practices are illegal because authorities know a car in neutral is much harder to control.

Nutrition Aids from the American Red Cross Nutrition Service

Good fishing is reported on the Great Lakes—not only for the amateur who dangles a line for fun but for the commercial fisherman as well. That means larger supplies of fresh water fish in Plymouth markets. They offer homemakers the basis for many appetizing meals. The woman who knows how to handle fish so that it reaches the table tender and juicy need never feel any concern about limited meat supplies. Fish can be one of the most delightful foods or one of the worst. Because it has no connective tissue it should be cooked only long enough to separate the flesh from the bone and to develop flavor. Long cooking dries out the juices in fish, makes it tough and ruins the flavor. The simplest methods of cooking fish can give perfect results, if done right. To accent the flavor and texture add a bland creamy sauce, such as an egg sauce, or one with a piquant flavor like tartar sauce. Vegetables with less pronounced flavors and crisp light salads are best with fish. Here are directions for some of the basic methods of cooking fish, garnered by the Nutrition Service of the American Red Cross. The first is especially good for perch, smelts or any other small fish weighing a pound or less. BAKED SMALL FISH Clean small fish weighing a pound or less, removing heads and tails. Dip in salted milk (1 tablespoon salt to 1 cup milk) then roll in fine, dry bread crumbs. Place in greased baking pan. Sprinkle with melted fat (about 1 tablespoon for each pound of fish) and bake in very hot oven, 500 degrees, for 20 minutes. Lean fish are usually chosen for boiling because they remain firm. Carp, cod, flounder, hake, haddock, halibut, perch, pickeree, pike and whiting are usually used. Large lake trout, salmon and tuna are fat fish often served boiled with a sauce. BOILED FISH Fill a deep sauce pan about 2/3 full of water to each quart of which has been added 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon vinegar or lemon juice. If liked add a few sprigs of celery leaves, a few peppercorns, bit of bayleaf, slice of onion, carrot and a few whole cloves. Cover pan. Bring water slowly to boiling point then reduce heat and simmer for 15 minutes. Add fish. The fish should be tied in a piece of cheesecloth, wrapped in parchment paper, or be placed in a wire basket before putting into water so it can be removed from pan without breaking. Bring fish gently to the boiling point, then lower heat and SIMMER until tender. Cook filets or steaks 10 to 15 minutes; allow 8 to 10 minutes per pound for whole fish or for large sections (such as salmon). Unwrap fish, drain and serve on hot platter covered with an egg sauce made by mixing lemon juice with melted butter or margarine and chopped parsley. Suit proportions to taste. If boiled salmon is to be served cold, let it cool in the fish stock. Serve well chilled with a sauce made by combining mayonnaise with thick sour cream. PAN-FRIED FISH Wipe fish filets or small whole fish dry. Dip in milk then in a mixture of 1/2 cup each fine yellow cornmeal and flour and 4 teaspoons salt. Heat about 1/4 inch fat in heavy skillet. Fry fish until brown on one side, then turn and brown on other side. Allow 8 to 18 minutes for entire cooking process depending on thickness of fish. Many fish experts insist that broiling is the best method of cooking fish, from every point of view. Fat fish are preferred for broiling, but the drier ones may be used if plenty of fat or oil is added during the cooking. The following are among those suitable for this type of cooking: bass, bluefish, cod, haddock, halibut, mackerel, perch, salmon, sole, crowd, swordfish, trout and whitefish. BROILED FISH Pre-heat broiler and broiling rack thoroughly. Grease rack well. Sprinkle fish with lemon juice and brush over with melted fat which has been seasoned with salt and pepper (1 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper to 1/4 cup fat). Place in broiler about 2 inches from heating unit. Broil about 10 minutes or until brown on first side, then turn and brown on other side. A whole, split fish is placed on broiler rack skin-side down and turned to crisp skin. Fifteen minutes is usually long enough for the total cooking time. Allow 6 to 12 minutes of cooking for thin, skinned filets; 15 minutes for thick filets or steaks. Plymouth Railroad Yard Switchman Rides Bicycle in Performing Duties (Continued from page 1) trick" switchmen to see to it that these trains get in and out of the Plymouth yards without the loss of a single moment and without accident. To the credit of Mr. Meddaugh and the other switchmen who work with him, the Plymouth yards have almost a perfect record. But this is not all—the 58 year old Archie believes in making things as easy as proper and justifiable for one who has worked so faithfully so many years. It's a pretty long hike from one end of the Plymouth yards to the other—especially when you stop to think that the C & O, formerly the Pere Marquette, has more trackage in this city than most cities of 30,000 or 40,000 population possess. In fact, it has as much railroad trackage as does the city of Fort Wayne, Indiana, one of the largest railroad centers in Indiana. Instead of hiking all of these miles, Archie bought a bicycle when the war started back in 1941. He sold his automobile to a war plant worker and from that day to this, he has ridden his bicycle to work. Not only does he ride it to work, but he rides it while working, peddling from one railroad yard to the other. He declares that it is a great time saver and keeps him from getting leg-weary. This faithful switchman of the Plymouth railroad yards like all other busy men, has a hobby. He spends the long winter evening hours making fancy articles for the attractive back yard of the Meddaugh home. When early spring arrives and he has placed all of his lawn ornaments in their proper position, his yard looks like a miniature circus. He is in perfect health and enjoys nothing quite so much as he does his job and his home. Phone news items to 1755.

New Black Light Venture is First Introduced Here (Continued from page 1) are making the new techniques available to small advertisers throughout the state. They have a studio located on Woodward in Detroit and a plant on Lotz road, south of town. The concern is headed by Irving Smith and Ed A. Carney, the former handling the creative art end of the business, and Mr. Carney—the merchandising and sales. Both men began their research in the field of black light independently. They are commercial artists and began experimenting with this process while seeking a new finishing process. What they present today is said to be a total of seven years of working in the field. Black light has been used by large companies and corporations for experimental purposes for some time, and it has been used in the theatrical world for between ten and twelve years. Using the light is therefore nothing new, but new techniques which the men have developed in its use can be attributed to approximately 90 percent of its present success.

High School Students Win Scholarships (Continued from page 1) part in sports, and has served on school committees. Her all-school average is 93.3. Virginia plans to study business administration and music in college. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Knut Gustafson, Sally, has retained an A average for her high school work. This year she was presented the "Best Girl Citizenship" award. She served as treasurer of the junior class and secretary of the senior class. Her list of activities includes the band, Y-Teens, Science club, junior play, two all school play, and class committees. She plans to major in home economics, specializing in dietetics.

The two students winning Regents-Alumni scholarships to the University made application to the local University of Michigan club scholarship committee, following which they were offered an examination by the school. The awards are made by the school on the basis of high school record, the examination, and recommendations. The Michigan State scholarship winner was awarded an alumni undergraduate scholarship, based on her high school record. Mrs. Laible Voted as Club President (Continued from page 1) Thomas S. Phillips as recording secretary. Program chairmanship for the year 1948 to 1949 was given to Mrs. Henry J. Walsh and Mrs. Paul Christensen and Miss Edna M. Allen were named as board members. During the past year Mrs. Laible acted as first vice president; Mrs. Hulsing as second vice president; Mrs. Thomas Phillips, recording secretary; Mrs. Dow J. Swope, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Edwin Bolton, treasurer. It was announced at the meeting that during the past year the membership has been raised from 150 to 200 active members. Dessert was served at 12:30, preceding the regular 2 p.m. meeting. The annual meeting began at 3 p.m.

Work Begins on Girl Scout Cabin

Floor plans and a perspective of the cabin which Plymouth's Kiwanis club is building for the Girl Scouts of the city appears above. It is the hope of the club that the depicted plans can become an actuality by fall.

Ground breaking ceremonies were held last week, Thursday, officially beginning work on the project. The cabin will be constructed on Plymouth road, located on the William Elzerman property.

The perspective was drawn by L. Rossetti of Giffels and Vallet, Inc., associated engineers and architects. Byron Becker, local Kiwanis member, drew the plans and working specifications.

Elizabeth Ross Joins Freshman Honorary

The name of Elizabeth Ross is included on the list of 54 University of Michigan freshman women students who have been honored for outstanding scholarship during their first year of college study.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Ross, 50000 Ann Arbor trail.

The students were initiated as members of Alpha Lambda Delta, national honor society for freshman women. At least a "B-plus" average is required for membership.

Senior Girl Scouts Give Dinner for Mothers

Traditional Girl Scout colors, white and green, predominated in decorations used at the dinner which the Senior Girl Scout troop No. 2 gave for their mothers, Tuesday evening, May 11.

The troop, which is under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Dobbs, held the dinner in the Methodist church. Mary Lynn Walsh presented the toast to the mothers, and the response was given by Mrs. Jean Wilkin. Naomi Mischler was program chairman for the affair.

All 18 members of the troop and their mothers attended.

DAR Meeting Planned for Monday Afternoon

Officers Attend District Meeting

Three representatives of the Plymouth Lions club attended a regional zone dinner meeting held at Saddle Ridge club Thursday, May 6.

Local members attending were: Ward Jones, president of the Plymouth club; Norm Marquis, vice president; and Max Todd, secretary.

Representatives were present from clubs in Dearborn, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Wyandotte and Plymouth. The deputy zone director of Wyandotte spoke. He discussed plans for the coming year and the International convention to be held in New York in July.

Jones announced that this week's regular meeting has been postponed until next Thursday, May 20. The month's second meeting will be held the following week, he stated.

Selling airplane passenger transportation is more difficult in January, February and March than in any other period of the year. And it has been that way since the birth of commercial aviation.

Plymouth Places Fourth at Relays

Competing with 15 other class B schools at the Central Michigan Relays at Central Michigan college of Education in Mt. Pleasant, the Plymouth track team captured fourth place. The schools placing ahead of Plymouth at this meet were Birmingham, Greenville, and Alraa in that order.

James Wagenschutz vaulted to a first place in the pole vault going up 11 feet. This height broke the record, which was ten feet and six inches, held by several contestants of other years. David Heinzmann, Bentley Crane and two other contestants tied for first in the high jump at five feet six inches. Bernard Terris took a fourth place in the broad jump at nineteen feet six and one half inches.

The two mile relay consisting of R. Runge, J. Guettler, B. Crane and G. Buddy took second place. The state medley relay consisting of C. McClumpha, D. Heinzman, and D. Joachim, the sprint medley relay consisting of M. Schultz, P. Dowling, R. Bouldin, and R. Sexton, and the 440 relay consisting of I. Stewart, C. Spargur, P. Harding, and B. Terris all took fourth places.

Bank Team Wins Sunday Opener

The First National bank baseball team, formerly Cloverdale Dairy Farms, 1947 Class "A" champions, won their first game of the season Sunday by defeating C. I. O. Ford Local 600 of Dearborn by the score of 5-3.

George Molnar went the distance allowing 4 hits, and Duncan Bone worked behind the plate. The two stars of the day were Bill Crisovan and Harold DeWulf who made some brilliant fielding plays. Jack Dobbs was the leading hitter and played a fine game at first base.

Next Sunday, May 16, the First National bank will play Telegraph - Pardee Civic association, at Riverside Park, at 3 p.m.

Golfing Activities Get Underway at Plymouth's Country Club

Twilight leagues and club activities begun this week, fill the schedule at Plymouth's Country Club, M. C. (Casey) Partridge reports.

Monday evening a low handicap group of 40 golf enthusiasts started a new nine hole league. Two men play on each team with no less than a nine handicap at the start of the season. At the conclusion of three weeks of play no one can have more than an eight handicap, and at the end of six weeks, no more than a six handicap. The golfers will play their individual opponents both match, medal and best ball as a team, making five points to the match.

Four man teams will play in regular competition on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, as in past years. Each man will be handicapped one point for each individual match, and one point for low team net. There are ten four man teams in each league.

Thursday afternoon has been set aside as Woman's day. Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. and nine holes of golf are planned for the afternoon. Four flights are scheduled so that each golfer plays in competition with women of comparable skill. Women busy in the afternoon, can play their nine hole round in the evening. It is anticipated that as many as 60 women will compete in this weekly event.

The popular two ball mixed foursomes will be played Friday evenings. The husbands and wives change partners weekly, and play one ball taking alternate shots. Following the golfing, a luncheon will be served and dancing is planned.

The remainder evening events of the week are taken by club members from Ford Motor company, Kaiser-Frazer corporation, Ann Arbor business men, Twin-Pines Dairy workers, and Burroughs Adding Machine company employees.

Plymouth Rock Baseball Squad is Victorious Over Trenton Trojans

by Al Larson

Dick Farwell singled in the sixth inning with two men on base, giving Plymouth a 6-4 victory over Trenton Thursday, May 6, at the down-river boys' diamond.

Paige, Trenton hurler, who was the losing pitcher, had formerly downed Belleville with a one hit performance. In the sixth inning when the Rocks gained their winning margin, there were two out and the score deadlocked 4-4.

In Trenton's half of the last inning with a man on second and third and two outs, Jake Pomrenke, one of the best hitters in the league, came to bat and hit a solid grass cutter at DeWayne

Becker who threw him out at first, ending the game and giving Plymouth their first league victory of the year.

Mickey Brown was the winning pitcher making his first victory of the season against one loss. Gil Wasalaski, Rock prominent third baseman, suffered an injury to his wrist when sliding into second base and is expected to be ready for tonight's game with Redford Union. Bill Newstead, playing second base, switched to third base and Dick Farwell finished at second.

The Plymouth Rocks now have a record of 2 wins and 1 loss with victories over Inkster and Trenton and a single loss to Ypsilanti.

VFW Sponsored Marble Tournament Planned to Begin Next Wednesday

By Ralph Johnson

The V. F. W. Mayflower Post, No. 6895 is sponsoring a city-wide Marble tournament, in cooperation with the Plymouth Recreation commission, to begin Wednesday, May 19.

To be eligible to enter the tournament, a boy must attend the Starkweather, Central, or Lutheran Grade schools, be in the first through the sixth grades, and shall not have reached his 13th birthday by December 31, 1948.

Boys attending the Starkweather school only, shall report behind the Starkweather school at 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 19. Competition will be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday beginning each day at 3:30 p.m.

On Monday, May 24, all boys attending Central Grade school will report behind that school at 3:30 p.m. Contestants there will compete Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The scene of the tournament of the boys of the Lutheran school will be their playground at 3:30 p.m. Thursday and Friday, May 20 and 21.

Marbles will be furnished by the Mayflower post. Boys may use their own "shooter", which cannot more than three-fourths inch in diameter.

Boys in the first through the third grade will compete in the junior class and will shoot in a six foot diameter circle.

Boys in the fourth through the sixth grade will shoot in the senior class, using a ten foot circle.

The first, second and third place winners of both classes of each school will be awarded medals.

The first, second and third place winners of both classes of each school will be eligible to compete in the city championship to be held behind the high school at 6:30 p.m., on Monday, May 31. All boys will compete, regardless of class, in a ten foot circle in this phase of the tournament.

Awaras or prizes will be given the city champion, runner-up, and third place winner, and will be donated by the Mayflower post.

In the event of a postponement due to weather, new tournament dates will be announced through the school principals.

The V. F. W. committee conducting the tournament is composed of Berle Fisher, Milton Miller, Jury Olson, "Mattie" McLellan, Kenneth Gust, James Bartlebaugh, William Norman and Donald Peck. Mr. Fisher has been appointed chairman of the committee as he is the post's junior activity chairman.

Eve Arden has big plans for her own producing company. She says she'd also like to direct pictures but not those starring herself.

Golf Team Chalks Up Third Win

By winning their meet with Wayne, the Plymouth golf team won its third victory of the season Wednesday, May 5, by 34 strokes at Hawthorne Valley.

Bill Benjamin was medalist with 83 and Larry Bentley and Elt McAllister tied for second with 84. Dick Daane played the first nine and Bill Farwell the second nine and they turned in a 94.

The golf team also played Ann Arbor Monday, May 5, but the results are not yet available. The golf team now has a record of 3 wins against 2 losses to Redford Union.

Hilltop League is Slated to Begin Next Wednesday

Initial play in the Hilltop City Golf league will begin next Wednesday, May 19, Max Todd, pro-manager, reported this week.

League play was originally scheduled to begin May 12, but had to be postponed because of wet grounds.

Ten leagues, consisting of four men each, have been set up. Todd states, and Charles Wolfe has been named league secretary and George Todd, treasurer.

The rules committee is manned by Jack Beckman, Frank Heike, Jerry Engle, James Ross, Rockwell Smith, James Scott, and Ike Porter.

In regards to the system of qualifying, the following is in effect, Todd announces.

"Golfers who played in the league in 1947 will use last year's handicap plus three strokes. Handicapping which follows will be based on 80 percent of their actual score. Players without an established 1947 handicap must turn in two nine holes scores to the league secretary before Monday, May 17."

Euchre Winners are Given Dinner

Members of the Fox club were guests at a dinner given by the 12 Point club Monday evening, May 10.

The event was the result of a recent series of euchre games, with the losers giving the dinner. During the evening challenges were made and accepted by the two presidents for more euchre games.

The 12 Point club consists of local sportsmen who own a deer hunting camp at Sidnaw in the upper peninsula. Clyde Smith is president; Gerry Simmons, vice president; and Robert Burley, secretary-treasurer.

Officers of the Fox club are James Gothard, president; Emmett Kincaide, vice president; and Fred Rhead, secretary-treasurer. It is composed of local sportsmen who jointly take action against predators.

Rev. Matthews to be Here Sunday

The Rev. Gordon Matthews

The Rev. Gordon Matthews, executive secretary of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, will visit St. John's church on Sunday May 16. Mr. Matthews will officiate at a service of the Holy Communion, and preach the sermon, at the service at 11 a.m.

Mr. Matthews comes as representative of the Diocese of Michigan, holding one of the most responsible positions in the diocesan organization. As executive secretary, he has the responsibility for seeing that the programs of work authorized by the annual convention of the diocese are carried out within the budgets provided for them. He also has an important part in the administration of the diocese. He acts as secretary of the various departments, and many of the smaller subsidiary groups, and endeavors to see that the work is done with as little overlapping as possible. He is also responsible for carrying out the details of the financial program of the diocese, his office handling the collection and disbursement of moneys.

"Drive in Futuramic Style every Hydra-Matic Mile!"

Whirlaway WITH GM HYDRA-MATIC DRIVE

It's the smash hit of the year . . . the big success story of 1948 . . . the car that has all America singing its praises! Everywhere it goes, the Futuramic Oldsmobile goes over in a big way. Watch how people gather 'round to inspect that massive Futuramic front end . . . those flowing Futuramic fenders . . . that smartly tailored Futuramic interior.

Then watch the face of the lucky driver. He's got that "Futuramic Feeling." It's more than just the smoothness of a coil-cushioned ride. It's more than just the simplicity of "no-clutch, no-shift" Hydra-Matic Drive. It's even more than the breath-taking thrill of stepping down on the accelerator and feeling that surge of power as WHIRLAWAY goes into action. That "Futuramic Feeling" is a combination of all these Oldsmobile features—topped off with a goodly measure of pride at driving the best looking of all the new cars on the roads today!

Four More From Plymouth Enlist

Four from Plymouth enlisted in the U. S. Army during the month of April, and Northville rated three, M/Sgt. Walter Dolbee, recruiting officer, announced this week.

Local recruits are: Jack Britcher, age 22; Donald Burkart, 17; John A. Garrison, 18; and Myron Yarbrough, 21. Those from Northville are: Calvin C. Dail, William A. Schrader and Joseph H. Hoover.

Britcher and Garrison enlisted in the First Cavalry and will be stationed in Japan, Sergeant Dolbee states. The former resided at 15551 Benson road, and the latter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David T. Garrison, 537 Mill street.

Burkart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laren Burkart, 40200 Gilbert street, will serve with the Armored Force for three years and will be stationed at Ft. Knox, Kentucky, as will Hoover. The Air Force was the branch chosen by Yarbrough, 725 North Ann Arbor street, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Yarbrough of Alabama, Dail and Schrader. Those with the Air Force will be stationed at San Antonio.

Sergeant Dolbee reminds that he is available at the city hall on Tuesday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. for interviews. The Armory at Ann Arbor is also open daily from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., he continued.

He reported that the Ann Arbor district, of which Plymouth is a part, won the trophy for the number of enlistments made in this section during the month, making it their permanent possession. This is the second time an award has permanently been won by this district.

Eddie Canter says his biography is progressing well, despite contrary reports. He expects it to be filmed in the autumn. However, he doesn't approve of the studio's choice of Gordon McCrae as Canter. He's still looking for another Larry Parks.

Elizabeth Beard Named to Science Honorary

Elizabeth B. Beard, 9904 Berwick road, is among the group of 223 faculty members and students at the University of Michigan who have been elected to membership in Sigma Xi, national honor society for research scientists.

Initiation of the group was marked by a public program Wednesday, May 12, at 1:15 in the Rackam lecture hall. Dean R. A. Sawyer, dean of the graduate school, lectured at that time on "The Social Responsibilities of Modern Science." New members of the society were honored at a social hour following the lecture.

Miss Beard was one of 148 graduate students whose research work was recognized by election to associate membership in the honor society.

Six to Attend Boys Meeting

Plymouth will be represented at Boy's State in East Lansing this year by six boys.

Under the direction of Legion Youth Program director Elmore Carney, the Hi-12 club, the Rotary club and Passage Gayde post have already made arrangements for the sending of four boys. Several other local organizations are discussing the plan to send the other two boys.

Wolverine Boys State is held each year at Michigan State college under the sponsorship of the American Legion and the date this year is the week starting June 17th.

Clean-Up Week Helps Business

Merchants will find it to their advantage to shop-clean, Fire Chief Robert McAllister declared in calling for the cooperation of Plymouth businessmen in Spring Clean-Up Week.

Cleaner, more attractive premises will invite more customers, the Chief pointed out. More customers mean more money for more improvements and modernization which will in turn bring in bigger sales.

To the businessman who wants to climb aboard this profitable merchant's merry-go-round, the Chief offered these suggestions in cleaning up his store:

Remove all heaps of dirt, papers, rubbish in basement, packing and shipping rooms and yard. Keep them as clean as possible.

Be sure oily waste or other greasy material is put in metal waste cans which should be emptied every day.

Keep aisles and entrances clear of obstacles to exit. See that fire escapes are safe and fire doors are not blocked open.

Check for all woodwork or other combustible material located too near steam pipes, boilers, flues or furnaces. Make certain fuel supply is stored safely. Move open flame lights away from any burnable equipment.

Look over all electric wiring, and equipment for broken fixtures, loosened wires, cords looped over nails and fuses replaced by improper current-carrying devices.

Insist that smoking rules be obeyed.

Inspect fire-fighting equipment. Check sprinklers for coated or corroded heads, obstructions, and to see if any part of sprinklers or pipe is exposed to freezing.

Be sure combustible stock is stored safely in a room with fire walls.

See that the watchman visits all parts of the building.

Chief McAllister announced he has inspection guides on hand at the fire headquarters. Prepared by The National Board of Fire Underwriters, they will assist you in making an efficient clean-up.

Short persons (5 ft. to 5 ft. 6 in.) in their teens or twenties have a longer life expectancy than taller ones in that age group. But by the time age 40 is reached, the taller have the best expectancy. Perhaps the short ones take on more weight with age.

Flag Presentation Made to Auxiliary

An important chapter was added to the history of the American Legion Passage Gayde post auxiliary last week. Thursday, May 6, the formal presentation of the unit's flags was held in the Veterans' Community center.

At that time Mrs. Emily Mosher presented the American flag in memory of her husband, the late Andrew Mosher, and William Gayde and Miss Sarah Gayde presented the unit colors in honor of Peter Gayde, son and brother, who lost his life during world war II.

Many prominent guests from Detroit, Dearborn, Northville, Holly and Plymouth, including 17th district officers and departmental officers, attended the ceremonies.

Mrs. Helen Benjamin of Detroit, a past department president, spoke, as did Lisle Alexander, department adjutant. The latter told of the life of Peter Gayde. Following the program, refreshments were served, the Commander, William Langmaid presented the president, Maxine Kunz, with a gavel, a gift from the post to the auxiliary.

Music entertainment was provided during the evening by Miss Davetta McBride, accompanied by Carol Jean Henry on the piano, and Miss Louise Kurgin, a second vocalist.

Courses in automobile driving can now be had by every high school in America. All they have to do is to show sufficient interest and manufacturers and motor clubs will provide dual control cars.

Esther Englis Becomes Bride of W. C. Guldner in Friday Ceremony

Esther R. Englis of Detroit and William C. Guldner, son of Mrs. Julia Guldner of North Harvey street, were united in marriage on Friday evening, May 7, at 7 p.m. The ceremony took place in St. Peter's Lutheran church with the Reverend Edgar Hoenecke officiating.

The bride wore an aquamarine suit with black and white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Patricia Pool, maid of honor, was dressed in a tan suit. The bridesmaid, Joan Pedersen, chose a gray suit and both wore gardenias.

The bridegroom's attendants were, Glenn Guldner, best man, and Arthur Russell.

Following the ceremony, a small reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's mother. The couple plan to make their home in Detroit.

Ad-Libbing.....

with "Ginny" by Virginia Schuster

It takes plenty of punch to swat the old apple out of the lot... it takes plenty of skill to swat out the unwelcome hums or noises snorting from your radio, BUT, if it can be done, Glenn Frederick can do it! (House radios, car radios or what have you, as long as it's radios.) Your radio will wind up giving you Demand Performance when Glenn finishes, of course. This "know how" of radio repair is given you at Daggett's Radio Service.

What's the "new look" in living? It's not one... it's one of many! Under your roof it may be informality, curvilinear furniture and Dufy circus colors. It may be a household of Victorian decorum and nostalgic "decor." Your home is in fashion when it fits your family, your activities, your ambitions. Now open for business, Thatcher Furniture Company in Plymouth Rosedale Gardens, will help you have that home today with all furniture of medium or better quality. WATCH for the formal opening! Puffed with Pride and No Wonder—is Mr. Thatcher.

Kabobs Help You Keep Cool

Cool Tactics

As soon as warmer weather starts seeping into the house, many a woman asks the all-important question, "How can I keep cool and still cook for the family?"

That is a neat trick, but you can do it, too. The first thing is to plan your menus so there are no long cooking ideas in them. Make a point of not selecting anything that will require more than 30 minutes cooking.

The second is to do most of your work in the cool of the morning, so that you won't be spending too much time right at supper time when it is so warm.

The third is to plan all-cool meals and get the preparation out of the way before hot weather really hits you. There are a number of cool ideas such as meat or meat-fortified salads that can be whipped together early and stored until supper time. Do this once or twice a week and see how nicely it works.

Here are several ideas that won't require much actual cooking preparation. Use them often for variety.

Kabobs (Serves 6)
2 pounds lamb steak (sliced 3/4 inch thick)
3 tablespoons cooking oil
6 tablespoons lemon juice
1 onion, minced
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 pound mushrooms

Cut lamb into one-inch squares. Combine oil, juice, onion and salt. Pour over lamb and let stand for several hours. Drain lamb and arrange on skewers alternately with mushroom caps. Place four inches below moderate broiler heat and broil 12 to 15 minutes, turning several times. Serve with broiled tomatoes (broiled at same time).

Pork Tenderloin in Sour Cream (Serves 6)
1 1/2 pounds pork tenderloin
Fat
Sour Cream
1 tablespoon flour

Cut tenderloin into one-inch slices and brown in fat. Cover with sour cream and simmer about 20 minutes until tender. Remove meat, add flour to cream and simmer four minutes.

Salisbury Steak (Serves 6)
4 strips bacon
1 1/2 pounds ground chuck or round
1/2 pound ground pork
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper

Chop bacon and mix lightly with meat, onion, green pepper, parsley and seasonings. Shape into cakes and place them three inches under broiler heat. Broil 12 minutes, turning once.

Vegetable Sausage Salad (Serves 6)
1 quart diced cooked potatoes
2 cups cubed salami or Thuringer sausage
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 cups large cooked peas
1 cup chopped celery
1 pimiento, chopped
6 sweet pickles, chopped
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
Mayonnaise and salt

Mix all ingredients together and add enough mayonnaise to moisten, salt to taste and extra vinegar, if desired. Heap in a large wooden bowl lined with crisp lettuce and garnish with tiny whole pickled beets and slices of hard-cooked eggs.

A mortality survey published some years ago (1918) revealed that the farming states of Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and the Dakotas had a mortality rate of 11 percent lower than the over-all average for all states. With the spread of mechanized farming it can be expected that this rate has changed for the worse.

*Recipe Given

Breaded Veal Cutlets (Serves 6)
6 veal cutlets, 1/2 inch thick
Salt and pepper
1 cup fine bread crumbs
2 eggs, slightly beaten
Fat

Season cutlets with salt and pepper. Dip in bread crumbs, egg and then in bread crumbs.
Sauté in fat for 15 minutes on each side, using low heat. Serve with tomato sauce.

Jellied Tuna Fish (Serves 6-8)

2 6-ounce cans tuna fish, flaked
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
1/2 cup sliced stuffed olives
2 tablespoons capers
1 tablespoon chopped chives or minced onion
1 tablespoon plain gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
2 cups mayonnaise
Lettuce, sliced tomato, sliced avocado

Combine tuna fish, eggs, olives, capers and chives. Soak gelatin for five minutes in cold water. Dissolve over hot water. Add to mayonnaise, stirring constantly. Add to fish mixture and mix thoroughly. Turn into mold and chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce and garnish with tomatoes and avocado.

Shrimp Salad, New Orleans (Serves 4)

1 cup cooked rice
1 cup canned or cooked shrimp
3/4 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon minced scallions or onion
2 tablespoons French dressing
1 tablespoon chopped stuffed olives
1/4 cup sliced green pepper
3/4 cup diced raw cauliflower
1/3 cup mayonnaise
1/2 small head of lettuce or escarole, finely shredded

Chill rice. Clean shrimp, removing black vein down the back. Cut shrimp into pieces, then combine with remaining ingredients. Serve on individual beds of the shredded lettuce.

Salad That Satisfies

Salad suggestions always intrigue the homemaker who is interested in varying her menus, particularly when she wants to "dress up" a cold meal for hot summer days. Here is one slightly different from the usual salad: Make lemon jelly in the usual manner, using lemon flavored gelatin or the plain unflavored gelatin and following the standard recipe. Turn into molds which have been rinsed with cold water. Fill molds about one-fourth full. Let this gelatin harden. Then fill molds with a combination of chopped apple, grated coconut, celery and a bit of chopped pimiento for flavor. To two cups gelatin, use one cup chopped apple, two-thirds cup chopped celery, one pimiento and one-half cup grated coconut. Fill molds with gelatin and chill until firm. Serve on salad greens with French dressing or a sour cream dressing.

EXHIBITION, OPENHOUSE PLANNED BY DEPARTMENTS

To show the fruits of their labor over the last 13 weeks, the home economics, art, commercial and shop departments will sponsor an exhibit and open house Wednesday, May 19, in the high school auditorium.

Presenting the open house is the home economic department. A test will begin the program at 1:30 after which the entertainment will include music and a short skit. The girls will demonstrate phases of home making they have studied in their classes and concluding the program will be a style show of 1948 spring fashions.

From 3:30 to 8 p.m. the shop department will present projects in wood, metal, electricity and exhibit the tools, fixtures, etc., made in the shop by the students.

At this time the art department will also present various drawing projects completed during this last semester and the commercial department will exhibit business machinery and projects.

FUTURE JOURNALISTS TO TOUR DETROIT TIMES

Twenty-three members of the Pilgrim Prints staff and journalism I class will tour the Detroit Times Thursday, May 20. The tour, beginning at noon, will take from an hour to an hour and a half, so the students will return to Plymouth before 3:30 p.m.

JUNIORS PLAN BIG EVENT IN GYMNASIUM TO SENIORS

The Junior - Senior Farewell which will be held Friday, May 21, in the high school gymnasium is off to a good start with Dick Wylie as general chairman and with decoration, entertainment, music and refreshment committee chairman already chosen.

The affair will be in the form of a dance with only juniors and seniors invited. A special entertainment will be provided along with a band. Heads of various committees are: Larry Bentley, decorations; Madelyn Fedell, entertainment; Bob Johnson, music; and Nancy Mastick, refreshments.

STUDENT READING HABITS SHOW IN ECONOMICS POLL

Joan Travis, with the aid of Marjorie Majors, members of the sixth hour economics class, recently compiled a survey of reading habits of PHS students concerning the daily newspaper. Over 600 forms were made out and handed out to tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade students in first hour classes.

Of the number of students polled, sophomores who read editorials occasionally number 73, juniors, 120, and seniors, 55. Those who read editorials regularly number 11, 21 and 43 in the same order; seldom, 43, 55, 34 respectively. Students who never read editorials number 26, 9, and 31 for the three grades.

Reading front page news items takes the time of 93 sophs, 150 juniors and 58 seniors. Reading headlines only occupies 16, 16 and 26 of the three classes respectively. The number who read inside news items were 73, 107 and 46.

Juniors seem to take quite an interest in advertisements with 45 reading them regularly and 94 occasionally. Sophomores polled 22 regularly and 71 occasionally, and seniors registered 32 regularly and 50 occasionally.

Commented Mr. Reeves, "This activity shows the carryover of the study of social sciences into outside activities."

In his book "Laughing With Congress," Wisconsin's Senator Wiley tells of the New Deal bureaucrat, a former professor, who dreamt that he was back teaching school, woke up and found that he was.

DAVID HEINZMAN WINS TWELFTH GRADE ELECTION

Dave Heinzman won the office of president of the forty-niners! A thriller action mystery on who would be elected as top officer had everyone holding his breath Tuesday, May 4, when a special election was held to decide between Dick Wylie and Dave Heinzman.

The need for this special election arose when the fact was established that the class of '49 cannot have two presidents. Dave and Dick were in a deadlock for the office. Dave won by the very small margin of five votes.

Michigan Women Will Demonstrate Progress

Michigan's 30,000 women enrolled in home demonstration groups this year shared honors with homemakers all over the nation and in Puerto Rico, Hawaii, and Alaska as they observed National Home Demonstration Week May 2-8. Michigan's Home Demonstration Agents who are part of the Cooperative Extension Service staff at Michigan State college are located out in the counties where they can best help the homemakers.

Rachel Markwell, home demonstration leader at Michigan State college, announced that these homemakers chose as their slogan, "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World". Home Demonstration agents over three decades look at their 3,000,000 members with pride and high hopes for the future.

During the week home demonstration members used hundreds of devices to show their accomplishments in their homes and communities to the public. They reported their progress to their county government, to Michigan State college, and to the United States Department of Agriculture whose cooperation, make their program possible.

Because of the home demonstration program in Michigan thousands of families are better fed, clothed, and housed and better trained to meet their future. Thousands of communities have better health programs, better libraries, more beautiful parks and successful school lunch programs because of the efforts of home extension members. Their influence has even spread to foreign countries where they have sent food and clothing. Their members meet with women of other countries and discuss mutual problems.

It has been asserted without any contradiction that Michigan's biggest income during the year is from the tourist travel. It has been estimated that this income runs up into the hundreds of millions of dollars.

Large sums come from Ohio, its people finding the nearby lake regions of Michigan most convenient places to spend their vacations.

But now comes forth a statement from the Wildlife Management Institute in Washington which says that Ohio, too, profits not only from its tourist business, but that hunting and fishing brings a direct or indirect income into that state of more than $75,000,000. We have not seen a breakdown of the Michigan tourist business which separates the hunting and fishing visitors from those who come here to just rest and play, but no doubt it would exceed that of Ohio by millions of dollars.

Wisconsin is expecting a heavy tourist business during the coming season according to preliminary indications that have been recorded by the conservation department of that state.

Attendance at sport shows during the winter and spring has set new records.

More people are inquiring about Wisconsin vacation possibilities than at the same time last year, according to J. H. H. Alexander, in charge of state tourist promotions, with a single day bringing 878 mail requests for tourist literature. There were 22,946 requests from prospective tourists up to April 25.

The first state tourist newspaper advertising has appeared in 30 large out-of-state newspapers to supplement that carried in magazines.

The first warm weather will greatly stimulate demands for vacation information and requests for reservations at the many resorts and the more impatient of the vacationers will be on the move.

Hundreds of fossil specimens of insects and plants which lived 35 millions years ago were discovered by University of Michigan geology students and faculty last summer and have been added to collections in the University Museums.

The discovery of the fossils was made during the summer field session at the University's Camp Davis, near Jackson Hole, Wyo. The fossils were found in southern Montana, where a party of about 20 faculty members and students were making a general geological study of the area.

They found a series of beds of shale which contained hundreds of excellently preserved insects and plants. Dr. A. J. Eardley, professor of geology and director of field work at Camp Davis, has reported. The fossils provide the geologist with considerable information about the climate and topography of this region 35 million years ago.

Among the insect fossils found were some, such as the crane fly, which have changed relatively little through the ages since they were imprisoned in the shale. Modern trees were already common, with the willow, birch and walnut being particularly prominent in the newly discovered fossil beds.

Work in this fossil bed area will be continued in 1948 in cooperation with the Montana Bureau of Mines and the U. S. Geological Survey, Dr. Eardley has said.

The Edwin S. George Reserve, near Pinckney, Michigan, provides the University of Michigan with an "outdoor laboratory" of more than 1,000 acres. The area is protected and is used by University students and research workers studying problems of wildlife.

Thirty-three different kinds of mammals have been found and identified on the Edwin S. George Reserve, a forest tract owned by the University of Michigan for zoological and botanical research. The smallest of the 83 is the masked shrew, weighing about as much as a nickel, and the largest is the white tailed deer, which may weigh as much as 300 pounds.

Cooperation of Rural Area, Town is Needed

The future is bright for the small town that realizes its responsibilities to the farm people living in its trade area.

This fact was uncovered by a recent study conducted by the Michigan State college department of sociology and anthropology in one of Michigan's "thumb" counties.

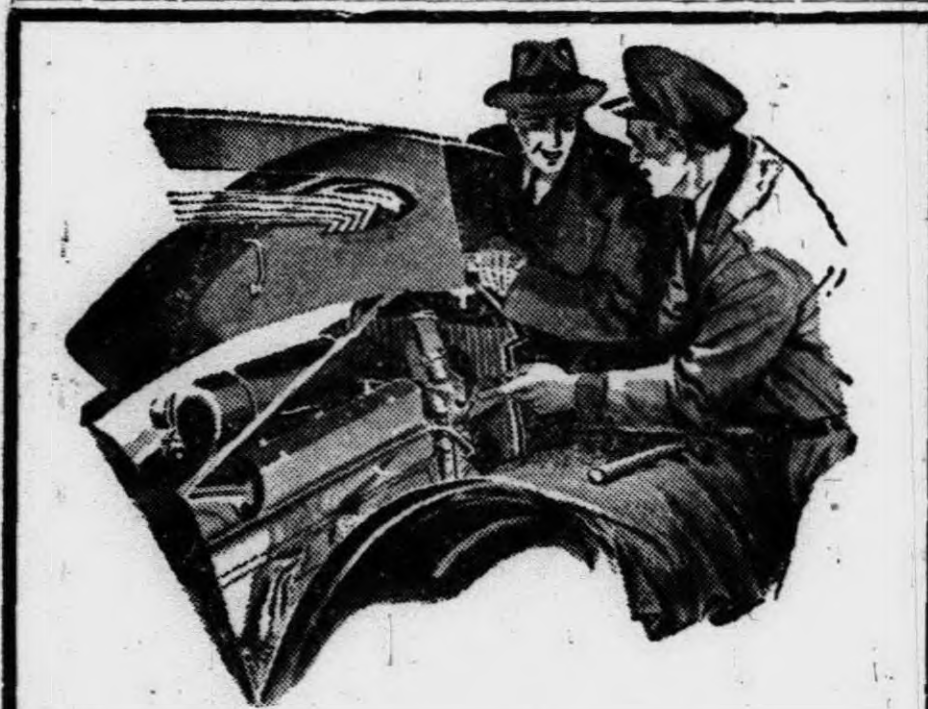

The study revealed reasons for the differences between towns that were progressive and those that were slipping. Progressive communities were ones in which leaders from both farm and town worked together on problems affecting all the people in the trading area. In two cases studied, the first move toward this goal was the formation of a community club. Monthly programs were planned for farmers, businessmen, and leaders in church and education.

The research sociologists found that these gatherings became a clearing house for community problems. Solutions were worked out cooperatively and the country people came to feel that the facilities of the town belonged also to them. One community succeeded in erecting a large community house. Parks and landscaped cemeteries were results in other instances. In contrast to this situation are the towns where the local leadership either does not understand or does not know how to work cooperatively with rural people. Problems of education, health, recreation, civic improvement, etc., are not solved. As a result, both groups suffer in a lack of community facilities and these towns lose their trade area to more aggressive communities.

Here's the A-B-C of Dynaflo Drive*

A First, there's a highly efficient new-type pump like this, filled with oil. Driven by the engine, it spins, shooting out oil under pressure from the channels indicated by the pencil.

B Then there is a true turbine, like this, with its blades curved sharply to catch the speeding oil. Entering in the openings indicated, oil makes the turbine spin too, thereby turning the rear wheels.

C Finally, there is this unique "supercharging assembly"—three ingenious elements not found on any other car. Mounted between the pump and turbine, they control the force and direction of oil to adjust driving power to different driving conditions—starting, accelerating, hill climbing, etc.

PUT all these together and they spell Dynaflo—the first American passenger car drive that requires no changing of gears in normal driving.

Functioning entirely on their own in an oil-filled drum, these parts give you the equivalent of low gear, second gear, high gear—and an infinite number of "gears" in between.

When you start, they give you smooth starting power. When you want to accelerate, they give accelerating power. When you cruise, they give an efficient cruising ratio—all without gear changing on your part.

Just set a lever and press the gas treadle—the power plant does the rest. Once started, you'll never need to touch the selector lever in normal driving until you're ready to park or back up.

You get good engine braking on hills—with more in reserve at a touch on the lever. You get smoothness unimaginable—a new "sweetness" to the whole car—a relief from things-to-remember that makes all-day driving noticeably less tiring.

Look into Dynaflo if for no other reason than to be up to date on what's newest in automobile drives. Your Buick dealer will take your order with or without a car to trade.

BABSON

Babson Discusses Going Into Business for Oneself
Babson Park, Mass., May 14. Recently, many young men about to graduate from colleges and several veterans have asked, "Should I go into business for myself this June?"

Pioneering, an American Tradition
These boys, many of them veterans, are chips off the old block. From frontier days to the present, pioneering has been an American tradition. It renews my faith in American youth to know that they still want to hoe their own row, regardless of huge corporations and governmental restrictions.

Setting up shop for oneself is not the easiest way to earn a living. I can tell you from experience that it is much tougher today than it was in the fabulous days of the Edisons, Fords and Rockefellers. But the small businessman still symbolizes that which has made this country great, — personal independence and freedom of action.

Times Have Changed
I can remember the days when a lad with $500 and the determination to succeed could, through sweat and toil, earn a fortune. But times have changed. The other day, Joe, an enterprising young man dropped in to see me. A year ago Joe went into business for himself, — commercial soaps, window washes and the like. Yesterday, Joe went to work for a nationally-known soap company. Why did he give up his year-old business? Simply because he had limited capital. Today it takes more than $500, particularly if you want to get into production and distribution of some tangible items.

Joe met his Waterloo when he tried to market his products. He found that there were already many good soaps for sale and that most markets had been well exploited by large and long-established companies. He was also confronted with the problem of advertising, for which he needed not hundreds of dollars but hundreds of thousands. Had Joe been selling his own services, as for example, in advertising or personal counseling, his chance of success would have been greater. Then he would have needed little more than an office, a desk, a telephone and a secretary to get started.

Advantages and Disadvantages
The real pioneer is challenged by rough going. So, if you are a business frontiersman, remember there will always be opportunities in enterprises where machinery and volume are of minimum importance and in enterprises where personal care is of maximum importance. For example, there will always be a field for specialty stores, repair shops and restaurants with individuality.

Remember, as you dream, that big business has certain important advantages over small business—especially if much machinery or determination is needed. On the other hand, small business also has advantages where personal attention gets the trade. It can keep open longer hours and not be tied by iron rules. It can afford greater risks. Therefore, if you are on the fence vocationally ask yourself, "Can this business be operated more economically as part of a large chain?" If your honest answer is "yes," then aim at becoming an employee in top management. If your answer is "no," then pioneer!

Get More Education
Whatever your answer, found your plans on education. Go to a good business college and get some practical courses. These will give you the necessary principles and functions of business as accounting, distribution, economics, finance and production. You will get off to a faster start and a better finish.

Hough in Charge of Conference

Cass S. Hough, chairman of the Michigan Aeronautics commission is serving as general chairman for the state's third annual aeronautics conference planned for May 27 and 28 at Lansing's Hotel Olds.

Discussions are scheduled of many major problems confronting Michigan's aviation industry today, led by men nationally recognized as authorities in their particular field. Speakers will be Arthur Hook, assistant administrator for airports, C.A.A.; Hugh DeHaven, director, crash injury research; Carl Voelter, airport manager and operation specialist, C.A.A.; Frank Young, chief of trans Canada airline operations.

The conference is sponsored by the Aero club of Michigan; Aircraft Owners & Pilots association; Aviation association of Michigan; Michigan Department of Aeronautics; Michigan Municipal League; Michigan Chapter Ninety-Nine; Michigan department, American Legion Aviation committee.

Men serving on the commission, in addition to Mr. Hough, are: Mario Fontana, vice chairman, William M. Joy, Thomas E. Walsh, Bruce E. Anderson, Donald S. Leonard, Charles M. Ziegler, P. J. Hoffmaster and Floyd E. Evans, director.

Let all eyes be centered at your throattline. Teens, these days, are wearing cut ties, old-fashioned clips, and delightful pins on their Gibson blouses. You should do the same, to be in style.

If we find the job where we can be of use, we are hitched to the star of the world and move with it. — Richard Cabot

25 YEARS AGO
FROM THE PLYMOUTH MAIL FILES

With about two inches of snow on the ground and the thermometer at freezing, Wednesday night set a new record for the month of May in Michigan.

Railroad contractors have established a camp between Plymouth and Stark in preparation for the work of grading the road bed for the new double track Pere Marquette is going to build this summer between Plymouth and Detroit.

W. S. Bake and family have moved into one of the apartments in "Maple Croft Manor" on South Main street, which Mr. Bake has just recently completed.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday, it was decided to hold a fourth of July celebration in Plymouth this year. Harry Lush was appointed by President Denniston as chairman of a committee on arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fillmore and son, Wellman, were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fillmore of Petersburg, Michigan.

Miss Alta Fisher of Dixboro and Miss Camilla Fisher of this place were Sunday guests of their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fisher.

Mrs. Lloyd Fillmore received a card from Mr. and Mrs. Brocklehurst of Raddison, Wisconsin, formerly of this place, announcing the birth of a daughter, Virginia Mae, on May 5.

About 50 friends enjoyed a dancing party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Sieloff, Saturday evening, in honor of their son, Mayford, who recently returned from a winter's stay in the West.

Harry Brinkman, Theodore and Louis Sieloff and Helen and Louise Rorabacher were home for the weekend.

Work has been commenced on the cement road leading from the Seven Mile road to Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCrone and Miss Lena Christianson of Detroit spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Ball.

Mrs. George Webb of Providence, R. I., who has been spending the winter in California, is the guest of Mrs. Charles A. Root.

Theodore Johnson has sold his pony to the Detroit Creamery company, to be used on the little wagons which are driven in the resident district, carrying ice cream to the purchasers.

M. G. Blunk will build a new house on Blunk avenue. Fred Rhead has the contract.

Austin Taxi Will Have New Radio

According to Elmer Austin, well known taxi operator in this part of Wayne County, his cabs will soon all be equipped with new two-way radio phones. Installation has been started on the 12 cabs that are now operating in Wayne and as soon as another branch station is under way, installers will come to Plymouth and modernize the local cabs.

Mr. Austin, one of the pioneer cab operators in this section, has made it his policy to keep his equipment most modern and he feels the radio addition will do much to give faster service to local residents.

A well-read person soon gets on everybody's nerves.

Recipes for Lake Fish Prepared

Tempting ways for preparing the "aristocrats of the Great Lakes", lake trout and whitefish, will be found in a recent publication of the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station, East Lansing.

Long a favorite with those who enjoy good food, fish can be made even more appealing through the use of the many recipes listed in this colorfully illustrated bulletin.

Methods of preparation included are: frying, broiling, baking, planking, boiling, simmering, and steaming. A variety of recipes for fish casseroles and salads is also featured. Special sauces to be served with fish are also described.

For the amateur who feels that fish cookery is complicated, the authors have prepared sections on how to buy fish, how much will be needed for the family, and methods of preparation. Identification pictures of lake trout and white fish as well as the yellow perch and walleye make it easy for the housewife to select the fish at market. Since fresh fish is a very perishable commodity, one section of the bulletin deals with the care of the fish in the home.

The publication, last in a series dealing with fishes found in inland waters, is entitled "Recipes: Lake Trout and Whitefish", and is illustrated with a number of four color illustrations of fish dishes. Previous publications have dealt with carp, lake herring, burbot, and smelt.

To cover cost of publishing the bulletin, 40 cents is charged. Copies of the folders dealing with other fishes may be had free of charge if requested. Orders should be addressed to the Bulletin Office, Michigan State college, East Lansing, Michigan. Ask for circular 209.

Prepares a perfect seed bed . . . Increases mineral and moisture content . . . rebuilds soil — Nature's Way. M-E makes garden work easier . . . does it better than any other equipment you can buy.

NOW YOU CAN SEE IT! TRY IT! BUY IT!

Now—for the first time—you can see and try the new G-E All-Automatic Washer. You can see the G-E All-Automatic do all the work—from soaking the clothes to damp-drying them. Here is all you do:

Toss in the clothes, add soap, and set the dials. When the clothes have been soaked, washed, rinsed, and damp-dried—all automatically—many pieces are actually dry enough to iron!

And not only does the G-E All-Automatic Washer save you hours of work and attention, but it has all the features you've always wanted in an automatic washer.
