SCREWBALL LEGAL MUDDLING.

It seems that all one has to do, if a member of the Michigan State Bar Association, to get his name in big newspaper headlines, is start some sort of screwball court litigation.

Some Jackson lawyer who apparently likes to see his name in print and who apparently can't get it there except by starting some freak court action, has temporarily tied up the payment of legislative salaries, contending that the constitutional amendment enacted last fall which provided for this increase, wasn't strictly according to Hoyle.

To our way of thinking, he has pointed out several phoney reasons for his action, notwithstanding the fact that the voters of Michigan and the legislature which went out of existence on December 31, by large majorities, decided to rectify a wrong that has too long continued.

The fact that Michigan over a long period of years paid members of the legislature but $3 per day for their services has been nothing more than a joke.

Those who sought election to the legislature under the former pay schedule, did not seek membership in the house or senate because of what remuneration it might offer, but because of the opportunity for public service a place in the legislature makes possible.

It is true, of course, that there have been some elected to the legislature who have betrayed the public.

But what about crooked lawyers? Probably there is more legalized stealing, cheating and defrauding carried on by certain members of the legal profession than by any other so-called profession in the state or nation.

Because some lawyers are crooked does not mean that all of them are crooked or unworthy of the trust their admittance to the bar impose upon them.

Most crooked legislators sooner or later get caught. But not so with the legal profession—and its record of disbarring those who have been caught red-handed is not of a too complimentary nature to the profession.

It should also be said that there are doubtless hundreds, yes thousands of attorneys, who render legal services for the benefit of the public for which they do not receive one cent of remuneration.

Using the same logic as appears in this screwball court action at Jackson, why wouldn't it be just as sensible for the legislature to tie up the income of all the lawyers of Michigan, because some few of them get a larger fee than which the "rules and regulations" of the Michigan Bar Association provides, or implies that they should get?

When a person takes the oath administered by the Bar Association, that oath does NOT carry with it a blanket right to pick the pockets of people who now and then find themselves in need of legal services, any more than does the oath of office of a legislator carry with it a right to be paid money for services he does not render unto the state.

There is this to be said about the work of a sincere legislator—if he was paid ten times what the new law provides for his services, he would be underpaid.

The writer knows what he is talking about. Days, weeks, months have at times been spent in securing data on certain legislative questions under consideration or to be considered by the legislature. This work is all done outside of legislative hours.

The old law, or the new law providing pay for the members of the legislature, does NOT give him one cent to pay for any research work that member may carry on. It is true that the legislature two or three years ago set up a legislative reference bureau where it is possible to secure some data, but not much. The Bureau is too young to be of the value it could be developed into in the course of time.

Meanwhile members must do their own research work—and devote a good portion of their time when not attending legislative sessions consulting with county, city, school and township officials, as well as the individual citizens of the district he represents. Frequently, too, he is called upon to give service to people living elsewhere in the state, people who happen to be interested in various legislative problems he is well acquainted with.

Now because a proper legal step, approved by the voters of the state, has been taken to pay members of the legislature a little better compensation than they have received in the past, a screwball court action has been taken to block payment of legislative salaries.

The action is nothing less than an outrage, and should so be regarded by not only members of the state legislature, but the courts as well. There are many, many good men in the legislature, both Republicans and Democrats, who have given and will give the state excellent services in Lansing, who are not financially able to pay their hotel bills and other expenses unless they receive their state paychecks.

Some of them are working men who have been granted leaves from their positions to go to Lansing and help solve state problems and enact legislation beneficial to this great state.

And who asks for more legislation for their own benefit than do the lawyers of Michigan? We do not believe in retaliation, but maybe it is about time for members of the legislature to give the legal profession a bit of the same sort of treatment being accorded it by an honored member of the legal fraternity—and all lawyers are honored members of the Bar Association, unless they have been disbarred.

It is quite a simple matter for either branch of the legislature to take away control of the judiciary committees from the legal profession—and how they would howl if that was done!

This continued assault upon the legislature by some people with fancied or personal grievances, or for other reasons, should be brought to an end for the good of Michigan. To our way of thinking, it is not good citizenship, it is not even common decency for an assault of this kind to be made upon the legislature. The implication is there, whether it is said or not, that 132 good citizens of Michigan, elected to highly important public positions, are prostituting themselves by trying to grab off some tax money that they are not entitled to receive.

If we are to have good, efficient government, it is about time for the citizens of this state as well as the nation, to bring an end to the constant unfair, malicious, and VICIOUS assaults being made upon all legislative bodies.

This is the opinion of one who served many years in the legislature—and one who has not the slightest intention or desire of ever seeking election again to any public office.

OF VAST BENEFIT TO PLYMOUTH.

Of much more importance than one would think at first glance is the announcement of the plans of R. A. Cassidy to open a new residential subdivision on the west side of the city.

While the section selected for the proposed highly important public improvement is not within the city limits, it lies directly across a main thoroughfare and adjoins one of the best residential sections of the community.

Plymouth is growing much faster than we realize. Our development during the next few years will without doubt surprise even the most optimistic.

Within the city limits there are not a great many building lots left, especially in residential sections. Mr. Cassidy plans to extend our somewhat limited home areas by including as ideal a site as can be found anywhere in this entire area for home development.

Banks Show Gain in Resources of Over $700,000

Re-election of officers and directors for both the First National and Plymouth United Savings banks topped the business transacted at the annual meetings held last week, along with the announcement that in the past year the total bank resources have risen close to $700,000.

The Plymouth United Savings Bank reported over $5,600,000 in resources, and the First National showed total resources of over $6,900,000. The former's gain over the past year was $347,000, while the First National listed $336,000. Both report a "substantial growth and profitable year."

Former Plymouth Bandit Linked in Shooting Incident

The name of Arthur J. Sheehan, believed to be the gunman who fought a duel with a 16 year old Southfield township drug store clerk Tuesday night, had a familiar ring to the ears of many Plymouthites.

Sheehan was one of four bandits who staged a professional stick-up job in the First National Bank of Plymouth back in 1926. After a gun fight in Detroit, which resulted in the killing of a policeman and one of the four, the group was apprehended in Illinois. Sheehan was sent to the

Scouts Assist In Dimes Campaign

Senior Girl Scouts will assist in the March of Dimes solicitation for funds in Plymouth's two theaters on January 30, 31 and February 1, Miss Neva Lovewell, drive chairman, reports.

The Scouts have taken care of this portion of the March of Dimes program in Plymouth for the past three or four years.

Again Miss Lovewell reminded that no direct mail or house to house solicitation for funds will be carried on this year, with the exception of the theater program.

Two Hour Parking Zone Established on S. Main

Two hour parking signs will be installed by the police department on South Main, from Maple to Brush streets.

The decision for such action was made on the request of merchants and homeowners in that area. The suggestion was made as a remedy to the offending all day parkers.

Parking restrictions will be effective from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Commissioners expect two hour parking to move those who are now parking in the area for either all morning or all afternoon.

Plymouth township began 1949 with a fire department all its own; a department staffed with a volunteer crew numbering nine men, one truck, and headquarters located in the Strasen and Wiggins garage at the corner of Ann Arbor road and South Main street.

Already five fire calls have been answered by the department, announces Fire Chief LeRoy Jewell. The fire fighting crew maintains 24 hour service, and has assumed the responsibility of protecting all homes and industry in the township.

Taxicab Owners Spark Monday's Meeting of City Commissioners

Owners of both taxi cab companies operating in Plymouth cited instances where the other had undercharged on the established fare rates, at the meeting of city commissioners Monday evening.

The contention arose when Bernard Carroll submitted, the commissioners with a request to cut his rates ten cents. The commission had initiated the ten cent hike approximately six months ago at the request of Elmer Austin. At that time the Carroll Cab company was not operating in the city.

Mr. Austin then requested that Mr. Carroll's cab stand be changed from its present location at the corner of Main street and Penniman avenue, adjacent to the bank. He announced his request was made in view of the fact that this space, described by him as the "best spot in town" was taken away from him a few years ago.

Explaining the city's stand on the first of the two discussion points, Mayor Frank Henderson stated, "We don't want to see Plymouth taxi service deteriorate as a result of a price war." He further elaborated, stating it is a known fact that shabby cabs and poor service would result from such a fracas.

Again given the floor, Mr. Austin contended that he saw it

Rotary Hears of City Development

Members of the Plymouth Rotary club heard a brief resume of city planning last Friday when they were given talks by Mayor Frank Henderson, Planning Commission Chairman Sidney Strong and Manager Harold Cheek.

The three city officials outlined briefly plans for future civic improvements, such as additional parking facilities, street improvements and mentioned the fact that there has been some thinking done on the subject of incorporating some of the township into the city.

The methods of annexation were explained by City Manager Cheek and some of the advantages of this move were discussed by Mayor Henderson.

Members of the city commission and the heads of many local civic organizations were guests of the club at this meeting.

A recent addition to the department was a siren, now mounted on the garage housing the fire station.

Chief Jewell emphasized that all calls for fire service in the township must be made to Plymouth phone 2020.

It is the hope of township officials that the present location of the department is only temporary. Contemplated future planning includes the erection of a township hall which will include facilities for the department.

Californians Sent Gifts for Winter by Plymouthites

Harold Anderson, a former Plymouth resident now operating a trailer camp in Culver City, California, has been sent collect, via air mail, a large package.

Upon receipt his thanks will be due to the instigators, Judge James Sexton and Melvin Guthrie.

According to an account printed in one of the Detroit papers Monday, the package contained an ancient fur-lined overcoat and fur lined gloves.

At the same time the Aeronautics commission, chaired by Cass Hough, voted to send to the commissioner in California a pair of skis for use on their plains.

Local Students See Inauguration

Although hundreds of miles from the national capitol, students of Plymouth Junior and Senior High school were able to watch the inauguration of President Harry S. Truman, Thursday.

Merchants from three local stores donated a total of six television sets so that the feat could be accomplished. Two sets were

Pipe Collection Displayed Here

Pipes of all sizes, shapes and descriptions which fill the display window of Davis and Lent's, are from a collection owned by Hiram Clark of 42425 Hammill street.

The collection includes some 500 pipes that have been gathered by Mr. Clark over a two year period.

Reburial Services Held Monday for Ronald D. Tobey

Military funeral services will be held Monday for Marine Pfc. Ronald Duane Tobey who was killed in action on August 1, 1944, while defending the United States and ideals of democracy.

A member of the Eighth Marines, Second Marine division, Company A, Pfc. Tobey was killed on Tinian in the South Pacific.

Memorial services will be held at 1 p. m. on Monday in the Schrader Funeral Home. Interment will be made in Riverside cemetery.

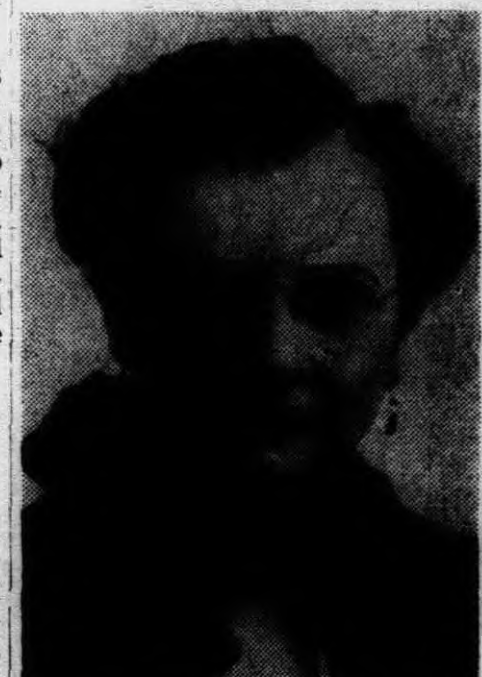

Pfc. Tobey was born in Plymouth on June 14, 1925, and attended Plymouth High school. He went into the service on August 7, 1943.

Surviving him are: his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tobey who reside at 630 South Harvey street; three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Merle Stevens, Mrs. Marian Willis, Mrs. Gwendolyn Holcombe and Gerald Tobey, all of Plymouth and Burton Tobey of Wayne; other relatives and a host of friends, Ronald was the brother of the late Mildred Burgett.

Wife Will Replace Pastor on Sunday

A complete reversal of proceedings will be in order in the pulpit of the First Methodist church of Plymouth next Sunday.

At that time not the Rev. Frederick Poole, but his wife, Mrs. Poole will be representing

Mrs. Frederick Poole of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, an organization which annually holds a "thank offering" service. She will speak on the subject, "Humanity Waits".

Four years have been spent by Mrs. Poole as national chairman of Christian Social Relations and Local Church Actions for the Employed Women of Methodism. She has also been a member of the national resource committee on "The Family" for the Woman's Division of Christian Service.

Lashing Wind Hits This Area Early Wednesday

General Primary Election Date Set As February 21

February 21 will be general primary election day in Plymouth, City Manager Harold Cheek discloses.

If a sufficient number of persons file petitions for the civic offices, the electors will name candidates for three seats on the city commission, office of municipal judge and constable.

Commission members whose two year terms are currently expiring are William Hartmann, Mayor Frank Henderson and Mrs. Austin Whipple. J. Rusling Cutler now holds the four year term municipal judgeship, and LeeRoy Rieman is concluding his fourth year as constable.

Petitions for the offices must be turned into the city clerk's office not later than noon Saturday, January 29, Mr. Cheek announces. All petitions must be filed on forms furnished by the same office, he emphasized.

Registrations of qualified electors are being accepted now in the city clerk's office, and will be until Tuesday, February 1. The office is open for registrations from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. five days a week, and on February 1 registrations will be accepted from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. To be a qualified voter, a person must be 21 years of age, a resident of the state for six months, and a resident of Plymouth for 20 days.

Community Chest Directors Elected

Three new directors were elected at the annual meeting of the Plymouth Community Chest Tuesday evening, January 18, President L. P. McGuire states.

Newly elected to serve as directors for three year terms are Paul Johnson and Mrs. John Wimsatt. Robert J. Stewart was chosen to fill a one year directorship.

The three will fill the posts vacated with the expiration of terms of Mrs. Eleanor Hammond, Clifford Tait and Roy Fisher. Regulations of the organization prohibit directors from succeeding themselves.

All directors will meet next Wednesday evening, January 26, for an election of officers, Mr. McGuire announces.

Airports in This Vicinity Are Reported Hardest Hit by Furious Gale

Winds ranging anywhere from 40 to 100 miles an hour tossed around electrical wiring, planes, buildings, shingles, windows and trees in this entire area early Wednesday morning, leaving behind hundreds of reports of destruction.

The biggest instance of major damage in this immediate locality was felt by some of the airports. The raging wind severely damaged a hangar at Triangle airport, with the blast playing the same trick at the airport located on the Wilson property on the corner of Middlebelt and Plymouth road.

Damage was inflicted on many of the planes which were hurled around by the blast, reports disclose, and a constant fight against the elements was kept up by employees of the flying fields to keep as many as possible intact.

One Plymouth insurance agent estimated Wednesday that probably 200 cases of damage had been reported to local offices throughout the day, adding, however, that he believed the amount fell short of that incurred during last spring's severe storm. Most reports of destruction, he stated, consisted of damage the wind imposed on roofs, windows and storm doors.

His views were re-stated by another agent, who explained the storm felt here in the city was quite extensive. Most of the claims, he continued, were comparatively small.

A check with Norman Denne, local agent for the Detroit Edison company, revealed that many persons throughout the city were without electrical service as a result of the wind downing wires. Several primary wires were among those brought down by the blast, he explained.

No specific areas were hit by the sudden halt of electrical power. Mr. Denne announced, for it was described as a general thing. All wires were taken care of as soon as possible, and no instances of injuries as a result of this phase of the storm's destruction were reported.

School Savings Plan is Adopted

A discussion of "Thrift-Forming the Habit in the Growing Child", by Randall Penhale was heard by members of both Central and Starkweather Grade school PTA organizations at a joint meeting on Tuesday, January 18.

Mr. Penhale, who had previous experience in promoting the savings program, emphasized the belief that "Buying savings stamps with part of an allowance, or money earned around the home, forms a lasting habit of thrift." He further contended that it "Promotes the idea of spending money wisely, which goes toward making good citizens."

Members of the PTA organization then voted upon the subject, and adopted the plan.

It was explained that one day each week the children are to bring their money for stamps and bonds. The students are to work with the PTA in selling them. Mr. Penhale added, "They can become efficient in this work."

Following the program was an hour of games and singing, including a birthday party for Helmer Nelson, superintendent.

City Says "No" to Hike in Gas Rates

Opposition to the Consumers Power company's request for raising city rates was expressed by City Manager Harold Cheek when he attended the Michigan Public Service commission's hearing on the case Monday.

Mr. Cheek had been instructed by city commissioners to register the city's opinion in the negative. This decision was based on the fact that the requested increase would mean a hike of approximately 11.4 per cent to Plymouth home owners who use gas for cooking and water heating, and a jump in rates of approximately 31.4 per cent for those using gas for home heating.

Strong Quoted on Glacier Problem

Frequent quotes by Richard Strong dotted a story headed "Omen of Disaster" in the Detroit Free Press on Monday morning.
The article related the possibility of the United States becoming a dust bowl as a result of shrinking glaciers.
Mr. Strong, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Strong of Plymouth, collected data on the subject last summer while he was working on a geological survey on ground water levels in Kentucky. Other information for the article was obtained from Dr. Eugene Walker, University of Michigan geologist.
At the present time Mr. Strong is teaching meteorology and geology at the university, and at the same time working on his doctor's degree. His degree will be in geology.

impossible to operate a taxi service without a loss at anything below the present rates. He cited an instance of a taxi company in a nearby city where fares were identical to those proposed by Mr. Carroll. The company, he continued, recently went out of business.
Commissioners instructed Mr. Carroll and Mr. Austin to confer with the city manager, relative to the rate request of Mr. Carroll, and asked that their recommendations, if any, be brought back to them.
Mr. Austin's request for the removal of Mr. Carroll's cabs from the bank corner was postponed by the commission.
In Tokyo, the Communist newspaper Red Flag accused city officials of luring prospective members from the party by offering them free baths.

The sets were installed in six classrooms, and Helmer Nelson, superintendent, explained that every child in school will have an opportunity of seeing some portion, if not all, of the ceremony.
The donation by the merchants served a two-fold purpose, the superintendent pointed out. They watched the President's inauguration, and at the same time were able to view television, a thing many students had not had the opportunity to do prior to yesterday.

WHAT I THINK AND HAVE A RIGHT TO SAY

It is proposed eventually to take the new sub-division into the city, which should be done in the immediate future. As a matter of fact, whether we like it or not, we should begin NOW to plan for the extension of the city limits. There is much territory lying along the edges of the city at this time which should be annexed immediately, for the good of those living within the areas as well as the city itself.
We commend Mr. Cassady for his timely and highly important decision to open for home development an exceptionally favorable section of land lying along Sheldon road. It is in step with the right type of progress for one of Michigan's fastest growing cities.
DREW PEARSON AGAIN.
Once again the notorious Washington news faker, Drew Pearson, labels the good name of Michigan. The other night in telling of the filing of a petition for a recount in Michigan's last fall election he referred to it as "Michigan's vote frauds and scandals."
Well the only major vote scandal and fraud Michigan ever had was when a group of New Dealers banded together in an effort to steal an entire state election. Fortunately they were caught at the racket and a dozen or so New Dealers went to prison and served time for their crimes. But Pearson confines his slanders chiefly to Michigan Republicanism, not to spying and traitorous new dealers.
Some day they'll catch up to this political faker, and what a hot spot he'll be on.

Detroit House of Correction on a life sentence.
At the present time Sheehan is in Detroit's Receiving hospital with a bullet wound through the abdomen.
Police link his injury with the drug store holdup which occurred three hours prior to his apprehension by friends on Detroit streets. At the time he was picked up, Sheehan was suffering from the bullet wound.
According to the story told by Eugene Newsom, the drug store clerk, he had fired two shots at a man who had held up the concern in which he was employed. The handkerchiefed bandit returned with two shots, then driving off.
Sheehan was 16 years old when he staged the holdup in Plymouth's bank. Although sentenced to life imprisonment, he was granted a retrial last February. This came as a result of the Supreme Court's censure of Michigan's quick justice court proceedings.

Team. Camsters have been placed in a majority of local business concerns for donations," she added.
The chairman also announced that this year's need for funds is especially urgent, due to the recent upheaval of the disease which has swept the nation, depleting the funds with which actual treatment and preventative research are carried on.
"The March of Dimes is the only means by which the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and its local chapter may continue to fight infantile paralysis," Miss Lovewell pointed out. At the same time she explained that direct assistance to victims in the Plymouth area is rendered with funds contributed locally.
Another important point Miss Lovewell emphasized was that due to the severity of this year's infantile paralysis cases in Michigan, and the peculiar type of polio which necessitates long-term care, 22 local chapters in the state requested and received a total of $131,000 additional aid from the national foundation.

PTA Group Plans for Founder's Day
Plans for the February Founder's Day program were discussed at the meeting of the Wayne County Council of Parents and Teachers association held at the Evangelical Reformed church hall last Tuesday.
Suggestions to plan their Founder's Day program around the history of their local PTA organizations and their founders were made by Mrs. Lola Moore, who presided at the meeting. Introduction of the guest speaker, Roberta Hershey, was made by Mrs. Thelma Howard. In her talk, Miss Hershey, nutrition specialist from Michigan State college, stressed that good nutrition is a must for good health and happiness.
"At their next meeting," announced Mrs. Lillian Bower, past president of the Dearborn Council, "the members of George Fisher school PTA will honor Mrs. Gladys Tuck, fourth vice-president of the State Congress, with a life membership.
At the meeting scheduled for Tuesday, February 8, in the church hall of Goddard road, the past presidents of the council will be in charge of the program.

Court Registrar Appears Monday
The Wayne County Juvenile Detention home has been chosen as the chief point of discussion for the next meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club on Monday, January 24, in the Episcopal church.
The evening's speaker will be Ernest L. Bridge, registrar for the juvenile branch of the probate court.
Members and their guests will meet at 6:30 for the dinner which precedes the month's meeting, a club official announces.
Margaret Jean Willoughby will be the guest soloist and she will be accompanied by Mrs. Helmer Nelson.
The legislative committee planning for the meeting consists of: Mrs. Austin Whipple, Mrs. Ada Murray, Mrs. Arthur Mills and Miss Beth Sutherland.

Accident Rate for First of Year Seen to Run High

A survey of the first 15 days of the year revealed to Police Chief Lee Sackett that 13 accidents had occurred in Plymouth within that time.

This is high for the city, he stated, and gains special magnitude with the reminder that this year's winter has so far been minus the slippery roads and streets that normally pose such a hazard at this time.

Mrs. Price Honored at Shower on Friday

Mrs. William Price was guest of honor at the stork shower given by Mrs. James Love and Annabel Lovg last Friday afternoon.

An old fashioned baby cradle, 73 years old, decorated in white, pink and blue was filled with gifts and presented to Mrs. Price.

Pink and blue booties served as favors for the 36 guests present.

Fuzz Smoulders at Allen Industries on Thursday

Ninety-seven packages of fuzz were found smouldering at Allen Industries last Thursday, January 13, necessitating a call to the Plymouth Fire department for assistance.

Department members had to unload the car, soak and break up the material to extinguish the smouldering fire.

The cause was attributed to a spark from the packaging process. Damages were listed at $150.

Basketball Squad Plays Game Here Tonight

Improved Ypsilanti Quintet Meets Rocks This Evening on Home Floor

For the first time since December 17 the Plymouth Rocks will be at home tonight in their band-box gymnasium. Another capacity crowd is expected to welcome the Rocks home after a two game road trip, which turned out on the negative side with defeats to Wayne and Belleville.

Tonight's opponent, the Ypsilanti Braves, tied for the league championship last season and they are once again up in the race for title honors this season. The Tribe defeated Wayne, previously unbeaten in league competition, 37-33 Friday on the Ypsi court.

Trenton now has undisputed possession of first place in the Suburban B as the down-river boys thumped Redford Union Friday 29-21.

On deck this evening the Suburban B slate has Trenton at Wayne and Belleville at Redford Union. The first contest will be a battle for first place while the latter will be a battle for fifth position.

Boxing Takes Limelight

Working out is Chuck McKenna, a ten year old Plymouth boy. The new boxing instruction under Mike Spitz gives boys of all ages and sizes a chance to show their boxing abilities.

During the halves of tonight's Ypsi-Plymouth basketball game five boxing bouts will be held. The following will be paired for the bouts: Tim Coleman vs. Jim Rutherford, Arlan Ottensman vs. Dick Cram, Chuck McKenna vs. Tom Rutherford, Robert Cloor vs. Loren Goodale, and Jimmy Archer vs. Marion Johnston.

Mike Spitz, boxing instructor, wishes to announce again that the nights for boxing are Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Boys are urged to come up whenever they have the necessary time.

Church Lead Held by Team 2

With three victories and the high single game, 911, Team No. 2 collected four points Friday to remain in first place in the Lutheran Bowling league.

On the leaders' heels is Team No. 8, a squad which won three games and first place in the high three games with 2643 pins.

Red Sox Out-Play Northville Team in Non-league Tilt

As the Wolverines were dropped in the Class F cage league the Red Sox scored a forfeit Saturday remaining undefeated with four wins and no losses. The F leaders, however, went out of their league to beat Northville 17-10. Bud Lamphear tallied six points for the winners.

The Firemen crushed the Red Wings 27-4 to remain a game behind the Red Sox. Kisabeth and Corey led the Firemen with eight and six points respectively. Johnson tossed in four for the losers. With Finney netting six the Wildcats stayed even with the Firemen defeating the Junior Michigan five 16-3.

Tomorrow at 10:35 a. m. the second place Wildcats will meet the first place Red Sox in the feature attraction of the morning.

Women Champs of State to Face Hi-12 Bowlers

One of the top bowling matches ever to be held in Plymouth is scheduled for Sunday, February 6, when the Hi-12 men's bowling team of Plymouth faces the women state champs of 1947-48, the Gears-by-Enterprise. The match will be at the Plymouth Recreation at 2 p.m.

On the champs' squad is Lois McAllister, a Plymouth resident, who has won the single and doubles championship of the C and M tourney of Detroit.

Besides the Plymouth member, the team is comprised of Agnes Ekstrom, captain, Marie Shamlock, Hattie Wooster and Dorothy Brichta.

This quintet won the Detroit Times bowlerettes crown in 1946-47 and 47-48. In addition to these honors they won the C.Y.O. tournament team event. Another team honor was scored on December 16, 1946 when the Gears bowled games of 881, 1110 and 1141 for a series of 3132. The total and final games represents two world records.

Bank is Leading by Two Games

First National Bank increased its lead in the Men's cage league this week to two full games by whipping the Plymouth Mail tonight while Northville lost to DeHoCo.

Netting 16 points, Art Gilles paced the Bank to a decisive win over the Mail 47-26 on Monday at the high school. The Mail was in contention only in the initial quarter as the Bank led 14-8. By the half that margin was increased to 22-9.

Tuesday at the Detroit House of Correction the institution's team played its best game of the season downing Northville 54-44. X-Ray marksmanship gave DeHoCo the win for they netted several long shots. No team can hope to stop that kind of offense.

DeHoCo led throughout the contest. With 17 points Slough paced the winners offense. Krause had 12 for DeHoCo. Mac Pierce and Red Pottinger scored 12 and 11 points respectively for Northville. In the second game Tuesday Sport Shop gave Plymouth Mail its eighth consecutive loss.

THANK YOU...

It is with a great deal of justifiable pride that we express our appreciation for your response to our Formal Opening announcement.

Never did we realize that so many of you would want to come in and see what we think is the most up-to-date establishment of its kind in this part of the country.

You said, you liked our new equipment, the latest seating arrangement, the 1950 television unit, the horseshoe bar, the clean, modern tiled rest rooms, the draught beer, direct from the kegs, cooled without coils.

For all the nice things you said, for the public congratulations from the general contractor and sub-contractors for the building, for the many baskets of flowers, and for coming in to see us, we sincerely say, "Thank you."

First National Bank Opposes Tait's Cleaners Monday at High School

Basketball fans can look forward to Monday evening, for on that night the leaders of the Men's league, First National Bank, will meet the always dangerous Tait's quintet at 8:30.

The leaders must clear this big hurdle if they want to remain in that first place berth. Preceding this important battle is a girls contest between Plymouth Hardware and Daisy at 7:30. Tuesday at the Detroit House of Correction DeHoCo faces First National Bank at 8 p. m. and at 9 p. m. Tait's collide with Sport Shop.

Although Tait's aren't on top in the league, they have the leading scorer in the loop in Dave McIntosh. The blond McIntosh has tallied 90 points in seven games this season, giving him an average of 12.9 points per game. Dave was formerly a star forward for the Plymouth Rocks. His best season was his last year as a high school athlete, 1946-47, when he played a stellar game for Wayne Falan's quintet. That year Dave aided the Rocks to a second place berth. This season his highest output has been against DeHoCo, last Friday, as he netted 22 points in his team's victory 50-44.

In second place in the scoring department is Slough of DeHoCo, who has an average of 11.7 in seven contests. He has tallied 82 points, 18 of which were against Tait's also last Friday. A teammate of Slough's, Ross, is in third place with 74 points good for an average of 10.6. Ross holds the honor for the high individual performance of the season, 25 counters. The other member of the ten and over club is Mac Pierce of Northville with 50 points in five tilts. His average is right on the nose, ten.

In London, Paula Perks quit her job in a perfume shop, explained that the smell "got me down," went back to pig farming.

Jack Elliott Paces Reserve Scorers

Even though he has played only four of the six games, Jack Elliott leads the Plymouth High school reserve basketball team in the total points, 38, and in total baskets made, 17.

The ten top reserve scorers are as follows:

Player	TP	FS	GP
Jack Elliott	38	4-15	4

Olds Increase Girls Loop Lead

With Street and Wilkins connecting for 17 and 15 points respectively, Oldsmobile walloped Plymouth Hardware Monday 55-7 in a girls league basketball game.

The victory was Oldsmobile's fifth without a defeat this season. In second place is Daisy two and a half games behind.

Olds has the league's high scorer, Eleanor Wilkins. She has tossed in the hoop 67 points in 5 games for an average of 13.4. Her best scoring effort was 16.

Joe's Jottings

by Joe Miller

City recreation director, Herb Woolweaver, traveled to Battle Creek for the sports heads convention with somewhat ambitious plans. He planned to offer our fair city as site of the Class B softball, golf and chess meets. He came out of the meeting with the recreation golf tourney. It will be held on the Hilltop course on Powell and Beck roads on September 10 and 11. Woolweaver put, in a bid for the softball games, but waived to Ken Linder of Ludington. Linder used to be in the Ypsi recreation department and he was an umpire for the Plymouth tournament last August.

A chance still remains for Plymouth receiving the chess tourney. As the meeting closed Saturday, plans were made to investigate the prospects of a chess tourney. That would be a great achievement for the meet to come to Plymouth for our city has some of the best chess players in the state.

Tonight Rock fans will have the opportunity to see the Ypsilanti Braves, one of the area's best teams, on the home floor. The Braves will be led this evening by the ebony-colored duo of Dave Hill and Lowell Perry. Hill, of football and track fame, is no slouch at basketball either. Last year he paced Ypsi to a share of the Suburban B basketball crown. Perry, although a star in his own right, does not quite reach his mate in athletic ability. We doubt if two finer pair of athletes can be found in the metropolitan area.

For the past few weeks we have told you of Ed Brown's predictions on the Rocks games. Brown, a typing teacher at the local institution of learning, is making his outstanding prediction of the season tonight. He believes tonight's contest will be the most thrilling tilt of the year. He says Plymouth will stop the Braves march toward first place, winning by three points. We will string along with that theory and hope it comes true. His average remained at five last week as he selected Belleville, by eight points.

In addition to the varsity battle on the home court, the Plymouth reserves will be fighting for first place in the Suburban B reserve race. John Sandmann's crew has lost one game; however, that was a non-league affair with Farmington.

In Hoboken, New Jersey, Dorothy Cantor and David Drysdale succeeded in stealing a watch, failed in their quick get-away by hailing a police car they mistook for a taxi.

Plymouth Sinks to Bottom of Suburban Loop

Although displaying a 100 per cent better brand of basketball than against Wayne, the Plymouth Rocks still lost to Belleville last Friday 35-32. This defeat dropped the Rocks to last place in the Suburban B conference with no wins and four losses.

Behind by 11 points with six minutes remaining in the game, the Rocks made a gallant try. In quick succession Larry Finney made three charity tosses, Jack Scheel one free throw, Bob Houghton a basket, and Wally Dzurus a basket. That flurry left the Rocks within three points of the Tigers with a minute and a half to go. Then the Tigers controlled the ball the rest of the way to win.

At the beginning of the game Coach John Klingebarger sent in four fellows who didn't start the Wayne contest, and Dave Reitzel who did start that tilt. At the forwards were Phil Bosman and Jack Elliott, at center Ted Thrasher, and at guards Wally Dzurus and Reitzel. Dzurus and Elliott were up from the reserves.

This combination remained in contact during the entire first half except for Keith Ebersole replacing Thrasher at center. The Rocks, hitting on a great percentage of their shots, led 13-10 at the quarter and 18-15 at the half. However, the Felines came out clawing in the second half and tallied 14 points to the Rocks four in the third stanza giving them a 29-22 margin. They increased that to 11 by the six minute mark and then the Rocks narrowed the final score to 35-32.

Wally Dzurus, the brush-cut sophomore with great possibilities, took scoring honors for the local lads with seven points on three field goals and one free toss. His baskets were all swishers that almost hit the ceiling because of so much arch. Phil Bosman counted six and Keith Ebersole five.

As usual the Plymouth reserves won, their fifth consecutive victory, whipping the not too ferocious Tiger reserves 36-17. Coach Sandmann used 12 players as the Rocks led throughout the 32 minutes of play. The score was 10-3 at the quarter and 19-5 at the half. The second stringers were sent into the contest in the second quarter, but couldn't be stopped.

The Rocks coasted in the second half and came out with a 36-17 victory. Tops in the scoring department were Phil Jacobus and Alan Finney with eight apiece. Dick Fenton collected five while Bud Young, Jerry Walsh and Chuck Stark had four tallies. The final two points were racked up by Dwight Eckler.

In Sacramento, Municipal Court Clerk Mrs. Nola Lowery got a phone call from a woman who wanted advice on the appropriate thing to wear when she appeared to pay a traffic fine.

Jesus and the Preparatory Ministry of John.
Lesson for January 23: Matthew 3:1-17.

Memory Selection: Matthew 3:2.
JOHN THE BAPTIST was a cousin of Jesus and eminently fitted to be the forerunner of his great kinsman. Gift to parents long childless, and bearing a name not common among his people, he became a man of the wilderness, where God prepared him for his mighty work.

He began to preach at the Jordan of the Jordan—soon his fame spread abroad and multitudes went to hear him. His theme was repentance. And many were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins. He recognized the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism as a generation of vipers. He disclaimed being the Messiah and pointed his hearers to One who was to come after him.

That One himself came to John for baptism. John demurred, but Jesus bade him proceed so as "to fulfill all righteousness." As the Lord came up from the water, the heavens were opened, the Spirit descended upon him as a dove, and a voice from heaven said: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

If we wonder why Jesus needed the baptism of John, we may think that Jesus was setting an example, and also completely identifying himself with those he came to save. As one who became sin for us, he who had no need to repent came to the baptism into repentance for the sake of those who needed to repent of sin. As John baptized men to receive Jesus, let us prepare our own hearts to receive him.

Church Sponsors Icebound Tonight

Cornel Wilde, distinguished young motion picture actor, will star in the radio dramatization of "Icebound," Owen Davis' Pulitzer Prize play, which will be broadcast this evening, Friday, over station CKLW at 8 p. m. This was announced by the Rev. Alexander Miller, rector of St. John's Episcopal church.

"Icebound" is the story of a young New Englander, Ben Jordan (Cornel Wilde), who almost ruins his own happiness and the happiness of those around him by letting old grudges and grievances remain frozen up—icebound—inside his heart. This gripping drama of human emotions tells how the warmth of human love and companionship thawed out Ben Jordan's icy inner burden.

"Icebound" is the 17th broadcast in the radio series, "Great Scenes from Great Plays," sponsored weekly by families of the Protestant Episcopal church and the Episcopal Actors' guild.

The message in "Icebound" tells people with no church affiliation that through the warmth and companionship of church membership and through the blessed spirit of Christian love and charity—millions have found the way to throw out their inner burdens and to lead a full and happy life.

City School Problem Repeated After 25 Years

The need of a school building project now facing all Plymouth residents, is nothing new. Twenty five years ago the city, then a village, was getting ready for an expansion program also.

In The Plymouth Mail published January 18, 1924 the following story appeared:

"People of Plymouth are to vote on a bonding proposition: Monday evening, January 28, from 8 to 10 p. m. at the high school auditorium. Since the erection of the present building, which was completed in 1917 and considered adequate for an almost unlimited number of pupils, has been, due to Plymouth's rapid growth, completely outgrown as shown by the following data:

Enrollment
Kindergarten-88
First grade-67 (double session- 32 a. m. and 35 p. m.)
1A and 2B-44
2B and 2A-47
3B-53
3A and 4B-42
4B and 4A-41
5B-49
5B and 5A-47
6B-73; two teachers,
Grades 7 to 12-337

The present building was designed to care for 400 pupils in the grades, instead of 549, and the high school to care for 264 instead of 377. The increased pupils in the high school have been cared for by crowding laboratories together and placing assembly rooms in what were originally laboratories, and re-seating original assembly rooms so as to make them care for more pupils than they were originally intended. One room which was intended to accommodate 66, is forced to accommodate 106 at present.

The congestion in the grades is to be further increased on Monday, January 28, due to the fact that at that time 400 pupils, who have been in the kindergarten for one year, will start first grade work, and an additional group of beginners will take their place in the kindergarten. The addition of 400 more pupils in the already congested first three grades will necessarily have, during the second semester this year, at least three grade rooms, not counting the kindergarten, on double sessions.

This is a statement of conditions as they are in the school at the present time, and the only solution for the problem lies in rushing our new building to completion before school opens in September. This solution of the problem is possible if we start at once. No community can afford to neglect the educational advantage for its children, and therefore I, as superintendent of schools, ask you to consider the above data carefully and seriously.

Packard Dealers Televis Show

Packard dealers of Greater Detroit have launched a weekly half-hour television show, starring George Scotti with "a new kind of variety entertainment," over WWJ-TV (Channel 4) from 8 to 8:30 p. m. on Thursdays, an announcement from the Plymouth agency, Earl S. Mastick company, discloses.

"Packard has been studying the potentialities of television for some time," Mr. Mastick said. "Now, we are going to apply our various ideas in an experimental 'home town' program, Scotti has appeared on a sustaining show the past few months, but his Packard program will be new and different.

Mr. Mastick explained Scotti would do pantomime impressions of popular recording artists, using the piano, solovox, novachord and celeste. There also will be some participation by audiences in the WWJ-TV auditorium.

Down Under Florida Palm Trees

The Plymouth Mail's "Rambling Reporter" finds news, here, there and everywhere.

Once in a while The Plymouth Mail's Rambling Reporter gets a real surprise—and a pleasant one, too. That happened the other night when we walked into the dining room of the attractive and delightfully located Miramar hotel in Miami and were greeted by none other than Phil DeGraff, who owns and operates the famed DeGraff lodges at Trout Lake in the Upper Peninsula.

Phil decided early in the winter to close up his Trout Lake place for a few weeks, go south for the winter and operate the dining room of the Miramar until snow begins to melt up around Trout Lake.

It was not one of the best, but the BEST meal we've had since leaving Plymouth, that was served under the direction of Phil DeGraff. Not only was it the best, just like the fine meals he serves up at Trout Lake, but his rates are far more reasonable than one can find elsewhere in this city.

He daringly advertises "Yankee dinners" in this part of the country where some are still fighting the Civil war.

Mr. DeGraff, who has done much to help build up and encourage Upper Peninsula tourist business, is tentatively planning on spending about three months out of each winter down here, operating the Miramar dining room, returning to Trout Lake early in the spring.

As every one knows the winter tourist business in northern Michigan is as dead as a door-nail—and Phil being one of those energetic, tireless working gents, became somewhat weary of just digging the snowbanks away from the front door of his main lodge at Trout Lake, waiting for spring and tourists to return.

He believes that his winter tourist activities in Miami will prove pleasing to Michigan tourists who come to Miami, and then too, it will give him an additional opportunity to help boost Michigan's tourist business down here during the winter.

Whether he is Governor or not—it makes no difference—Kim Sigler lands directly on the first page of any newspaper wherever he goes. The other day we picked up a copy of the Miami Morning Herald, and right there on the first page was a picture of former Governor Kim Sigler presenting a trophy to the winner of one of the air races that was recently held here. On the first page of second section of The Herald there was also an interview with him in which he told of his plans to fly from here to Mexico, then Central America.

It is not difficult to read the signs of the times down in this land of sunshine in winter time and hurricanes in the summertime. Big signs in automobile sales rooms now read "You can get your new car now without buying any extras." And something more—from what one hears, you can get immediate delivery on most any type of a car you desire to purchase.

Remember one time Roy Woodworth told the writer about his trouble in dodging cattle that roamed the highways one winter when he and Mrs. Woodworth drove down to Florida to spend the winter. He declared the roving cattle was surely one good way to slow down traffic in southern states.

Well, if the new Governor of Florida has his way, all of the trunk line roads of the state will be fenced before October of this year. He had quite a bit to say about it in his message to the legislature—and declared that this was one of his first campaign promises he intended to carry out.

The many, many Michigan tourists who drive south every winter know full well the traffic hazard roving cattle and the gaunt looking "razor-back hogs", create. Even on a short trip along a main Florida highway one will see from two or three to half a dozen dead piglets lying along the roadside that persisted in getting right in front of some speeding automobile.

Governor Fuller Warren, who can serve but one term of four years under the Florida constitution, doesn't say whether the state will build the fences or whether property owners will be forced to pay the expense. Rest assured there may be a wire shortage this summer and fall if the thousands of miles of unfenced roads in Florida are to be fenced in the next few months.

Not only are hotel rates tumbling in Florida, but one can get a cup of coffee in any restaurant in downtown Miami for a nickel. And it's coffee, too.

Members of the typothetae profession (or trade) which ever you prefer to call it, will be interested in knowing that Al Capone II, son of the notorious Chicago gangster, is employed as a printer in a Miami job printing plant.

Plymouth school teachers will be interested in a statement made before members of the Miami Rotary club a few days ago by J. D. Ryan, New York city, director of International travel of the American Automobile Association. In discussing foreign travel, he declared that previous to the war American school teachers and university educators did more traveling to foreign countries than any other group or class of Americans. Naturally their travels were closely associated with their educational work.

Now the number of teachers who travel abroad has dropped to one of the lowest among the groups who go abroad—due almost entirely to the failure of American taxpayers to maintain a proper wage scale for public school instructors.

What groups make up the largest number of American travelers abroad these days? In first place are American housewives who like to go sight-seeing. Labor leaders and "skilled" workers stand in second place. College and University students rank third in the travel groups.

Wherever one goes and mentions the fact that he is from Plymouth, Michigan, the invariable response is, "Why, that's the place where my Daisy air rifle I had when a boy was made. Never did a kid ever have anything that gives him more pleasure than a Daisy air gun."

That is just what Fred Heltman, owner and operator of Hovey's Bear Trap resort on Indian lake up near Manistique in the Upper Peninsula said to the Mail's Rambling Reporter the other day.

Before he became a northern Michigan resort operator, Mr. Heltman was for more than 30 years a Cleveland, Ohio, music publisher. That is where he lived when as a boy he owned the Daisy air gun that gave him so much pleasure.

He is a member of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau's executive board and not so long ago headed a campaign which resulted in the organization and equipment of the Manistique school band. He recently came to Florida with Mrs. Heltman to be associated for the remainder of the winter with Phil DeGraff in the operation of the dining room of the Miramar hotel.

England is the only country in the world where rich and poor are sharing alike in an effort to restore normalcy to their country, declared J. D. Ryan recently in a talk before Miami Rotarians. There one eats rhubarb sauce without sugar.

"I'm an Irishman—all Irish—but I take off my hat to the people of England for the uncomplaining sacrifices they are making for their country," he said.

Friends Prove to be Samaritans

About two weeks ago, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Hamlin was completely destroyed and they lost just about everything they owned.

The young couple was married in August.

According to reports, Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin saved only their living room furniture, losing all their clothes and wedding gifts in the destructive blaze.

Eighty friends of theirs recently proved to be samaritans, presenting them with gifts as a start in replacing their lost articles. The miscellaneous shower was given by the Rev. and Mrs. William Welton of West Ann Arbor trail. A light lunch was served to all the guests.

Mrs. Hamlin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Swain.

In Hendon and Golders Green, England, 96 married couples, all living with their in-laws, simultaneously solved their housing problems and their family troubles by swapping living quarters.

University Exhibit Recalls Good Old Days

Ah, for the good old days when rent was a $1 a week, a full course dinner 25 cents, a couple could live in Plymouth on $381 a year, and parents could send their children to the University of Michigan for maybe $150 annually.

Unbelievable? Well, just drop in at the Michigan Historical Collections at the nearby University of Michigan. There on exhibit is documentary proof that such prices once prevailed. Consider several entries in the diaries of Charles M. Cleveland, grocer and general merchant of Adrian, who lived in Michigan from 1836 to 1895. Twenty-nine of his diaries are preserved in the Michigan Historical Collections.

In September, 1855 he went to the circus for 30 cents, the concert for 25 cents, a theater for 20 cents. In December, 1857 he was paying $1-a-week rent.

In Cleveland's summary of expenses for 1858, he wrote: "A glance at one's yearly expenses correctly recorded will often times frighten one into economy. Now this eve, I gaze on the total of this year's expense, which amounts to $381.02, and say to myself and wife we must live considerable inside this sum, if possible the next year."

A university catalogue of 1863 stated that an admission fee of $10 and an annual fee of $5 entitled a student to permanent membership in any university department. Board and lodging with private families, it continued, varied from $2 to $3.50 a week, bringing the necessary annual expense of a student to $125 or $125. Now the annual cost is about $690.

A menu for the "Chop House Supper" given in 1900 at a North Park Congregational church, in an unidentified Michigan city, offered a main course (choice of cold ham, cold turkey with cranberry sauce, pork and beans or cold tongue), vegetable, bread, pickles and celery, pastry (choice of mince or pumpkin pie), and milk or coffee—all for 25 cents.

However, the 1930-35 period produced some low prices too. An ad in a Grand Rapids paper in 1934 lists wool suits for men at $17.95, wool overcoats for $12.95 and boys' sheep-lined leatherette coats for $1.

Representative items in the 1934 handbills of the Detroit Grand Trunk Market were per pound: pork, 1 1/2 cents; smoked hams, 14 cents; country roll butter, 20 cents; fresh sausage, nine cents and sliced bacon, 18 cents. Eggs were 20 cents a dozen.

Federal Expenditures Said to Cost Wayne County Total of $813,193,524

President Truman's proposed budget calling for federal expenditures of $41,858,000,000 during the 12 months beginning July 1 of this year will cost Michigan taxpayers approximately $1,960,920,000.

That is the estimate made by the Michigan Survey, a state taxpayer organization, based upon federal tax collections in Michigan, the state's share of the national income and population.

Henry Steffens, Survey director, urged that Michigan residents understand that this figure is "One billion, nine-hundred-and-sixty million, nine-hundred-and-twenty thousand dollars, or 5.7 times the $341.6 million Michigan collected in taxes in fiscal 1948."

It is more than four times the $471 million the state spent for all purposes in fiscal 1948, he said.

Michigan has an estimated population of about six million men, women and children. On a pro rata basis, he said, the President's budget will cost each of them $26 next year.

Figuring it another way, the Survey estimates that Michigan's 1,588,500 families will pay an average of $1,234 to Uncle Sam next year.

Getting closer to home, a Survey tabulation shows that, on a population basis, the new budget will cost the people of Wayne county $813,193,524 during fiscal 1950.

What can the people of Michigan expect to receive for all these Washington-bound dollars? The Survey shows that approximately 4.68 per cent of the $41.9 billion in contemplated expenditures are allocable to this state.

On this basis, Michiganders will spend more than $314 million to finance U. S. relations with other countries, $668 million for national defense and $257 million for veterans' services and benefits—which adds up to more than two-thirds of the total Michigan costs for these three items alone.

Then, Michigan taxpayers can expect to spend about $110 million for social welfare, health and security, $18 million for housing and community facilities, $19 million for education and general research, $78 million for agriculture and agricultural resources, $87 million for natural resources, $74 million for transportation and communication, $5 million for finance, commerce and industry, $9 million for labor, $57 million for general government, $255 million for interest on the public debt and $7 as a reserve for contingencies.

According to Steffens, this is only the beginning. "In addition," he said, "there will be deficiency and supplemental appropriations added from time to time to carry this Colossus of Government through the year. Contract authorizations will be made for work that will run into more billions before completion. Still more billions will be added ultimately to the cost of federal government if new spending proposals are passed.

"People here at home," he said, "must realize that they themselves have to foot the bill for the services rendered by the federal government."

DAR Chapter's History Enhanced by Gift Monday

Decorations of red, white and blue were used on luncheon tables in Northville's Presbyterian church for the Monday meeting of the DAR, commemorating the 22nd birthday anniversary of the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter.

Of special significance was the presentation to the chapter of a Bible which had belonged to the father of Miss Sarah Ann Cochrane. The presentation was made by Mrs. E. H. Lapham and her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Chapman.

The day's guest speaker, Miss Harriet Harwood of the J. L. Hudson company, reviewed books of the season for the attending 55 members and guests. Those she covered were "Remembrance Rock" by Carl Sandburg; "Zulu Woman" by Rebecca Brehr; Eisenhower's Memoirs; "Smile Please" by Mildred Topp; "High Towers" by Thomas Costain.

Regents from numerous other chapters of the DAR were present at this anniversary meeting, to offer felicitations on behalf of their organizations. The list of regents included: Mrs. Walter N. Nacker of the John Sackett chapter in Detroit; Mrs. Thomas Navin of the Piety Hill chapter in Birmingham; Mrs. Roy V. Barnes of the Ezra Parker chapter in Royal Oak; Mrs. Millard Toncray of the Louisa St. Clair chapter in Detroit; Mrs. Paul Mieser of the Fort Pontchartrain chapter in Highland Park; Mrs. Richard Lafges of Southfield township's Three Flags chapter; and Mrs. Ruth D. Buchanan of the Keziah Cooley Goss chapter of Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Maxwell Moon, regent of the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter, presided at the Monday anniversary meeting.

The organization's next meeting will take place in the home of Mrs. Earl Mastick, instead of in the residence of Mrs. Bake, as previously announced. The meeting is slated for February 21.

Previous to this date, on February 4, the DAR chapter will sponsor a benefit dessert bridge in the Veterans Community Center. Mrs. Harry Deyo, chairman, states it will take place at 1 p.m. Others serving on the committee planning the bridge are: Mrs. Moon, Mrs. Irving Blunk, Mrs. Earl Mastick and Mrs. Kenneth Hulising.

Socially Speaking

Birthday celebrations continued to be the favored entertainment of Plymouthites this week. The hobby party given by Mr. and Mrs. Warren J. Worth, however, deserves credit for being the most original. At the party honoring the 15th birthday of Nancy Worth, guests made hats to illustrate their various hobbies, and then explained their hobbies. Nancy's guests were Beverly Ross, Barbara Packard, Helena Plumber, Norma Van Dyke, Gwendolyn Phillips, Patricia Johnson, Brenda Covell and Jean Teetsloff.

In honor of their daughter, Linda, on her fourth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Robertson will entertain a group of boys and girls in their home on Hartsough street today. Linda Parks, Jean Laverty, Barbara Kelly, Judith Heafner, Joyce and Diana Allen, Gaynor and Jaryn Robertson, Sylvia and Sharron Robertson, Gary Burns, Diana Bloomhauf, Allan Curtis, Judy and Sandra Kisabeth, and Diane and Dennis Robertson have been invited to join Linda in celebrating her birthday.

Entertaining at luncheon and cards last Thursday was Mrs. Edwin Reber whose guests were Mrs. Floyd Burgett, Mrs. Carl Hartwick, Mrs. O. G. Beyer, and Miss Amelia Gayde.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Truesdell, Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hoheisel, and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bentley will gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Simms of Birmingham for bridge on Saturday night.

Last Tuesday morning Mrs. Eugene Benson invited the members of her breakfast group to meet at her home on Blunk street for breakfast. Her guests were Mrs. J. G. Clemmons, Mrs. Harry Deyo, Mrs. F. Earl Reh, Mrs. Dow Swope, and Mrs. Thomas W. Moss.

Members of the Birthday club were the guests of Mrs. Walter Nichol when she entertained on Saturday night in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Florence Webber. Other members present were Mrs. C. G. Draper, Mrs. Mary Polley, Mrs. Burton Johnson, Mrs. Carl January and Regina Polley.

Mrs. Frank Allison, Mrs. Elvin Taylor, Mrs. David Mather, Mrs. James Meyer, Mrs. Kenneth Hulising, Mrs. T. Fraser Carmichael, Mrs. John Gilles Jr., and Mrs. Ralph Taylor gathered Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Murray O'Neill for cards.

Dr. and Mrs. John L. Olsvaver were hosts Saturday evening to members of their dinner bridge group, including Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Moss, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cowgill, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garlett, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Neale, and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Brisbois.

Among other Plymouthites who entertained at bridge parties during the past week was Mrs. Harold Stevens whose guests were members of the Ambassador Bridge club. The members, Mrs. George Cramer, Mrs. Roy Clark, Mrs. William Kaiser, Mrs. Forest Smith, Mrs. I. N. Innis, Mrs. Albert Stever, and Miss Chloe Powell gathered at the Stevens' home Thursday afternoon for dessert and bridge.

Ruth Ann Lake of Bay City was house guest over the weekend of Nancy Morrow. Ruth Ann's parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lake and Frederick, joined them on Sunday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Morrow.

Newly Arrived...

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Secord, 751 Arthur street, are the parents of a baby girl, Janet Lee, who was born in Sessions hospital on January 10. Her weight was reported as seven pounds and 15 ounces. The mother is the former Ruth Elsie Wegner.

The baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Heidt of South Lyon on January 12, has been named Carl Raymond. Sessions hospital officials recorded his weight as seven pounds, ten ounces. Mrs. Heidt is the former Elsie Schmidt of Plymouth.

In Boston, John F. Fitzgerald hemmed and hawed before finally paying $125 for an antique desk, took it home and found $219 in one of the drawers.

Ina Juntunen and Marvin Schmidt Wed Saturday

A wedding dinner at the Dearborn Inn followed the ceremony in which Ina H. Juntunen became the bride of Marvin G. Schmidt.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Andrew Juntunen of Bruce Crossing and Mr. Schmidt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidt of Plymouth road.

The Rev. Poole officiated at the ceremony on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. in the First Methodist church.

For her wedding the bride chose a toast brown suit and matching hat. She wore a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Elton Bakewell attended the bride as matron of honor, and her husband, Elton Bakewell served as best man to the bridegroom.

After a motor trip through Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt will reside at 38507 Plymouth road.

In Magazine, Arkansas, John Park Cravens withdrew his complaint that he had never received his order of four quarts of whiskey, advertised at $3.20, when he learned that the ad was 48 years old.

Pursell - Kuni Wedding is Recent Event

Mr. and Mrs. William Kuni received 200 guests at a reception held in Detroit's Yacht club following the ceremony which united them in marriage on December 22.

The bride, the former Evangeline Ruth Pursell, was given in marriage by her brother, Roy Pursell of Plymouth, at a 7 p.m. service in the Methodist Episcopal chapel of Detroit. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Pursell of Caro.

For the marriage ceremony the bride had worn a gown of white lace and sequins, and a shoulder length veil which fell from a tiara of small white feathers. She carried a prayer book topped with white orchids and streamers.

The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Jack Hoyt of Detroit, was maid of honor. She was attired in pink chiffon and carried pink roses. Mrs. Roy Pursell, bridesmaid, wore a blue taffeta gown, and matching feathers in her hair. She carried red roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Billy and Wayne Kuni.

Mums, white bows, and candles were used to decorate the church. Christmas evergreens, white mums, and white poinsettias were used as decorations at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuni traveled to Atlantic City for their wedding trip.

Among those attending the nuptial service were W. W. Perkins, father of Mrs. Roy Pursell of Niagara Falls, Ontario, Carl Cordia and Joanne Pursell.

Changing Furniture Fashion Trend is Forecast to Furniture Retailers

Returning from a furniture market in Chicago, officials of Blunk's Incorporated this week pointed out certain trends which will prevail in the furnishing of future homes.

They also submitted an article from the Retailing Daily, covering the highlights of a lecture given by Christine Holbrook, associate editor of Better Homes and Gardens, in which she enumerates the changes. It reads as follows:

"Less severity of line, more accent on ornamentation, greater efficiency—these are three of the continuing and increasing trends in furniture for the coming year," said Christine Holbrook. She was outlining for the board of directors of the National Retail Furniture association at the Stevens hotel what she believed to be the important fashion significances to look for at the current home furnishings markets being held here.

"Highlights from her talk included: Greater emphasis on Hepplewhite, blond woods less blond and more of the wheat tones, greater use of marble tops, continuing emphasis in Chinese Modern; more French Provincial in the medium brackets, a trend to the cabir and a half, greater use of swivel chairs in living rooms for viewing television, more glint to fabrics used for upholstery.

"In decorative fabrics there is a much more elegant look and a return to velvet and brocades with a switch away from shaggy fabrics. Smoother surfaces are in greater favor.

"Mrs. Holbrook felt that there was a new color cycle starting with coral growing in importance and a strong return of blue, ranging from the light faded shades on through peacock and an ink blue. Black is still important as an accent color. There is also, as has been noted, a strong return to the earth colors, such as terra cotta and a rich brown.

"In furniture woods there are more rubbed finishes, greater use of walnut and the fruit woods. The light finishes are darkening and the dark ones getting lighter, she feels. There is much more marquetry, metal grilles and the use of brass to add distinction.

"She feels that there is a much greater versatility in casual furniture and a growth in the use of outdoor pieces used inside the home.

"Reiterating her feeling about the greater efficiency there is to be found in today's furniture, she added that adequate storage space was the first requirement in case goods today."

In Springfield, Massachusetts, a woman complained that she could get nothing at all on her hearing aid but the radio station WSFL next door.

Successful Parenthood

MRS. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

THE experts are showing a great deal of respect these days for what young mothers tell them about their babies. In other words, they are no longer so scornful of the claim that "mother knows best."

Yet no one is suggesting that we go back to unguided mother intuition in the training of children. For happily we seem to have arrived at a state of profitable cooperation whereby child welfare authorities make available to parents information on child care—the parents try it out, adapt the theories to their own children and family problems and arrive at their own methods of child raising. Then parents, in turn, pass on to the experts what they have found workable in dealing with their own children.

One young mother paid her debt to the help she had received from authorities in the parent education field by thinking through her own experience and arriving at six simple rules for bringing up a baby. Here they are:

1. Study and know your baby, and act accordingly. Babies are distinct personalities from birth. Treat yours as an individual, letting him set the pace for his development and various phases of training as he indicates his readiness to learn.
2. Take it easy. No baby will accept training for any habit until his body is ready to make the required change. Every phase of training requires long weeks of infinite patience.

In Leeds, England, Mrs. Doris Leake frantically told doctors that a toy wheel had been swallowed by one of her 13-month-old twins—she didn't know which one.

If you have a social item or any other local news, phone 1755.

3. Put first things first. There are times when the baby's welfare must come first, just as there are times when his routine must be upset for the greater good of the family.

4. Love your child and express that love. Too often love is taken for granted, but a child, from babyhood up, needs frequent warm assurance of love if he is to feel secure.

5. Present a united front. Parents must cooperate and should settle differences of opinion in private discussions. No child can respect his parents or be happy when he can play one against the other. A united front is just as important when dealing with interference from family and friends.

6. Set a good example. By a child's actions we know his parents, for a child mirrors what he sees.

We particularly liked the second rule—to take it easy. I so often see parents who aren't enjoying their children because of the responsibilities they bring. Of course, they bring work and their care is pressing and often worrisome. If parents would only stop to realize that they will have the children for such a few years—why waste a minute in grumbling?

And another sound conclusion this mother reached was that the baby shouldn't take all her time and attention. Rule No. 3 puts it very well—there should be time for the other members of the family and for rest and recreation.

Citrus Fruit Season at Peak: Recipes For Healthful, Handsome Desserts

Now that citrus fruits are at their peak—and cheapest—you can make sure of getting all your vitamin C by drinking an extra glass of orange juice in the middle of the day. But there is an even tastier and prettier way of getting your daily quota, according to Marjorie Griffiths, who tells you in McCall's for January, how to serve these fruits in wonderful desserts:

"No question about it, this is the prettiest and tastiest way to get your vitamin C, the wonderful vitamin that helps to keep you frisky. Since you can't store up this vitamin against a seedy day, you should drink a nice big glassful every morning.

"Now that oranges are at their peak and, therefore, cheapest, go ahead and pamper yourself with an extra glass in the middle of the day. As for lemons and limes, they are the great flavor dramatizers—add so much to fish, vegetables, meats and other fruits.

LEMON SOUFFLE
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
3/4 cup milk
Juice and grated rind of one lemon
4 egg yolks
4 tablespoons sugar
5 stiffly beaten egg whites
Grease a round 1 1/2-quart casserole.

Nutrition Aids
from the American Red Cross Nutrition Service

During the last 50 years there has been a shift in the distribution of the population from youth to middle and old age. The percentage of people 65 years and older has increased several more times than that of the entire population.

Whether the added years to which we can all look forward are to be a burden or fun for us and those with whom we live depends almost entirely on the living program we follow. Putting into practice modern scientific discoveries can make grandma and grandpa the happiest and most popular members of the family.

According to the Nutrition Service of the American Red Cross a good diet is one of the most important factors in making older people healthier and happier. Some of the ailments which have been regarded as a natural accompaniment of increasing years are due entirely to a lack of proper food.

Take the matter of stooped shoulders and brittle bones as an example. They're the result of too little calcium over a long period of years—even before advanced age sets in. The time to prevent them is during youth and middle age by boosting the daily calcium intake by such a simple means as being sure to get a pint or more of milk in some form.

The need for iron and other minerals, protein and the vitamins remain as high as during any other period of mature life. Decreased muscular activity brings a reduction only in the need for energy producing foods—starches, sugars and fats.

Usually decreased exercise means a decreased appetite. This, combined with poor teeth or uncomfortable dentures, causes many older people, especially if they live alone, to use only a limited variety of soft foods. Dietary deficiencies then occur to make old age a period of discomfort and distress.

A good plan to follow to make our advanced years as youthful as possible is to include the following foods in our meals.

MILK—One pint or more as a beverage, in soups, creamed dishes, in the form of ice cream or cheese.

VEGETABLES—One serving of a green or yellow vegetable; one serving white or sweet potato; one serving of another vegetable. Raw vegetables in salads can be managed easily if they're grated or shredded finely. Do this just before serving so they'll retain their crispness and vitamin C.

FRUITS—One serving of orange, grapefruit or tomatoes plus a serving of another fruit, either raw or cooked. The citrus fruits or tomatoes daily are especially important because so many of the other foods will be cooked.

MEATS—One or more servings of meat, fish or poultry. Use dried beans or peas and peanut butter occasionally.

EGGS—Three to five weekly or better still, one each day.

CEREALS—Two or three servings of whole grain or enriched cereal or bread.

BUTTER—Two or more tablespoons, or use fortified margarine.

Plan your meals around this list. Add more of these same foods plus others to satisfy the appetite and maintain weight, but remember to get these in first.

serole and sprinkle with a little sugar. Set your oven at 350 F. or moderate.

Melt butter or margarine in a saucepan and smooth in the flour. Add milk and cook very slowly until thick, stirring constantly. Stir in lemon juice and lemon rind. Beat egg yolks in bowl, add sugar and beat again until thick and light. Now add egg yolk mixture to hot thickened milk and cook three minutes longer, stirring constantly.

Remove from stove. Mix in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in casserole 15 minutes. Dust top with sugar. Serves 4.

ORANGE-LEMON DUSTING
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
3/4 cup sugar
2 eggs, separated
2 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons lemon juice
Grated rind of 1/2 lemon
Grated rind of 1 orange
1/2 cup milk
1 cup heavy cream
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
Start your oven at 300 F. or very slow and grease a 1 1/2-quart baking dish.

Cream butter or margarine with sugar until light and airy. Separate eggs and beat yolks thoroughly, then mix in with the creamed sugar. Add flour, lemon juice, grated lemon and orange rind and milk. Beat egg whites until they form peaks but aren't dry. Then fold or stir gently into batter.

Pour into baking dish and set in a pan of hot water. Bake 50 minutes. Serve hot with cream whipped up with sugar and vanilla extract. Treat for 4.

Electric Cleaners Cited as Safe for Use on New Rugs

If you're one of the homemakers who believes that no electric cleaner should ever touch a new rug or carpet—here's news for you.

You can use a cleaner on your rug from the very first moment it's laid on your floor. There will be no ill effects advises Ruth Peck, Michigan State college home economist, in a report to Plymouth. This information is based on recommendations from the American Institute of Carpet Manufacturers who have good reason to want you to be satisfied with the wear your rug gives you.

A new rug or carpet will "fluff" to a certain extent because there are short fibers left in the pile when the yarn is cut. These gradually work loose, but this does not injure the life or quality of your rug. It will stop as soon as the loose fibers have been removed.

Occasionally during the early life of your rug or carpet a tuft may protrude above the surface. Never try to pull this tuft out, as you may injure the fabric. Instead, clip the tuft close to the pile, with sharp shears. Your new rug or carpet may also have a spot where several tufts are missing. Tufts may also be damaged or removed in service. When this happens, and when the areas are small, the tufts may be replaced by sewing in the proper colored yarns. The store from which you bought the rug will be glad to help you with this problem.

Carpets frequently receive much wear in one or two spots, such as in front of a favorite chair or near a doorway. While a carpet is new, plan to protect it against such localized wear. Use scatter rugs or reverse the rug in the room.

In Memphis, Orville Bond complained that his housemaid had filled all his 30 pipes with a sweet-smelling deodorant.

Question: Our marriage turned out just as you warned me it would, and now my parents are having it annulled. I can't understand how a man can change so much in the course of a few days. Before we were married he all attention to me, and as loving as a person could be, but afterwards he changed completely into the person you described. Anyway, it convinces me that astrology has a lot of truth in it and I want to study it and learn how to judge character like you can. How do I go about it?

Answer: To go very far in the mystery of astrology one must have some of the qualities of the mystic in his make-up. These are shown chiefly by strong positions of Uranus and Neptune in the birth-chart, or by important aspects to these planets. To read a horoscope properly requires more than a mere mechanical or mathematical knowledge of the technical science. There must be intuition and mystical discernment in order to see within and behind the aspects and planetary positions. Only thus can the hidden meaning of each life be seen. And it is this secret quality in the chart of birth that contains the important information. Astrology is essentially a spiritual, not a material, science. It gives us the key to the fundamental life-pattern providing we know how to find that key.

Because your horoscope contains strong aspects to Uranus and Neptune, thus showing that you have the true mystical qualities, it is safe to say that you could, with the necessary study and practice, develop into a competent astrologer. And your first step would be, not to read books on astrology, but to broaden your whole understanding of spiritual teachings so that when you took up the stellar science you would receive it as a portion of the Great Truth, not as an independent or isolated fragment. In ancient times astrology, music, mathematics, and ethics were studied together. The true astrologer needs a sound general background of art and science in order to be complete.

As for your own life-pattern, you are one of that great majority of women whose real purpose in living is to achieve self-expression and satisfaction through marriage and a home. But your great lack is insight into human nature (which was responsible for your unfortunate marriage). This, together with a certain heedlessness (for you are quite young) was the cause. Practice self-analysis and thus prepare yourself to analyze others. If you do this, and broaden your knowledge of spiritual things, including astrology, you will be able to make a wiser choice in a marriage-partner the next time. In the mean-time, return to school and finish your formal education. This will please your parents and help to restore the broken harmony. You have a long life ahead and the promise of a happy marriage as well. Be glad that you have passed through the recent experience with a minimum of trouble.

The writer will be glad to help you with your personal problems through the science of astrology. Write to Mr. G. Cardinal Le Gros, 1111 Burlingame avenue, Apartment 4, Detroit 2, Michigan. Be sure to include your complete birth-data.

Fifth Civic Opera Opens Tuesday

"Connecticut Yankee", starring Wilbur Evans and Vivienne Segal, will be the fifth musical on the Civic Light Opera's ten week season.

The gay show opens Tuesday, January 25 at Masonic Temple and runs through Sunday, January 30.

Among the hit tunes of the Herbie Fields-Rodgers and Hart musicalization of the Mark Twain fantasy are "My Heart Stood Still," "Thou Swell," "Camelot Samba," and "You Always Love The Same Girl."

Vivienne Segal starred in the 1943 revival of the show on Broadway as lovely Queen Morgan Le Fay. Evans, one of the most popular stars who appeared last season with Civic Light Opera, is known for his leading role in "Up in Central Park." Earl MacVeigh, the new singing star, and Joseph Macauley team with Ralph Riggs to round out the cast of principals.

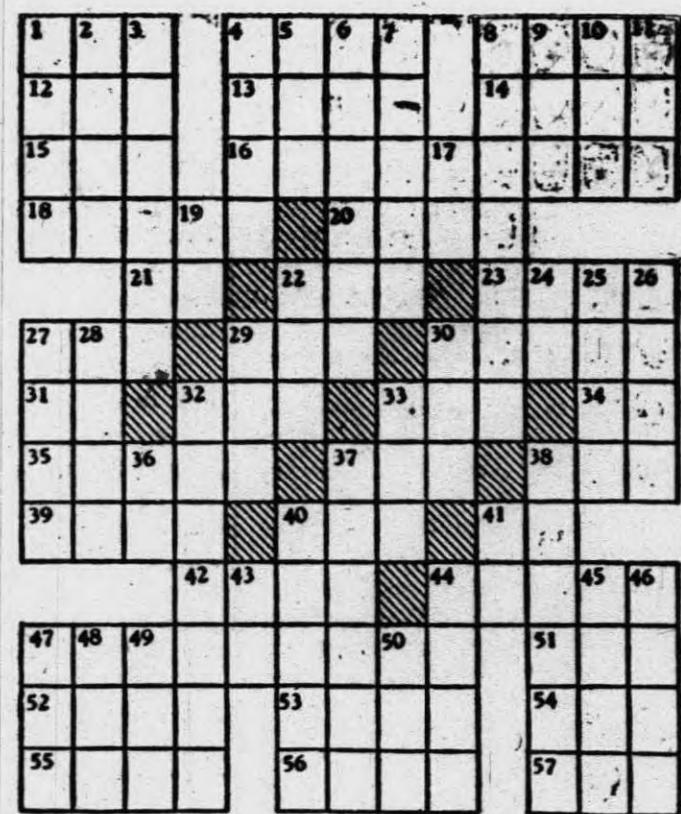

"Vagabond King", the current Civic Light Opera production closes its run, Sunday night, January 23.

Akin to Automatic Propulsion!

White sidewall tires available at additional cost.

When the great new Cadillac engine was in the final stages of development, a Cadillac engineer made a test run up Pike's Peak. "It felt," he said upon his return, "as if the car were moving by automatic propulsion." When you drive a 1949 Cadillac—powered by this magnificent new engine—you will understand what the engineer was talking about. The power flow is so smooth—and the supply of power so seemingly inexhaustible—that the driver is scarcely aware of the engine's existence. Owners are finding that this smooth, even, effortless flow of power does far more than increase the car's agility. It adds immeasurably to handling ease and maneuverability. It increases the confidence of the person at the wheel, and thereby makes him a better driver. And it increases the car's over-all safety to a remarkable degree. It has long been true that a search for the finest leads inevitably to Cadillac. But, today, the sign posts are marked so plainly that searching is not required. There is, literally, nowhere else to go—if you want the ultimate in motor car quality and satisfaction.

Canton Township Blaze Completely Destroys Home

A fire Sunday evening completely destroyed the home and all personal belongings of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Donnell of Beck road in Canton township.

The Ypsilanti fire department was called, but arrived too late to give any assistance in combating the consuming blaze.

The fire started in the back store room of the home, and it is believed that the cause might be attributed to a short circuit. Mr. O'Donnell was at home at the time, and did not detect the blaze until it had gotten a rapid start. According to reports he discovered it when he began investigating the resulting surge of heat.

Reports state that the O'Donnells are the parents of a six-year old girl, and are expecting another child next month.

Further descriptions reveal that they were building on their property, approximately 200 feet in front of their home which was completely razed. The flames did not reach this structure. At the present time only the shell of this new building has been erected.

Care of Tractors Now Will Pay Off In Springtime

If that farm tractor is to be ready to go at the first break of spring, it needs some attention, Jack R. Schram, agricultural engineer at Michigan State college, tells farmers in the Plymouth area.

The farm tractor or any engine on a baler, combine or another implement, should be serviced as though you were getting ready for a big day in the field, Schram says. It should be completely lubricated and the oil drained from the crankcase. The oil filter should be cleaned or replaced.

Schram advises if the crankcase is refilled with new oil and the tractor or engine run for a short period of time, a protective film of new oil will be pumped into all working parts.

Wheels should be jacked up off the ground. The spark plugs should be removed and two tablespoons of motor oil placed in each cylinder, and then the engine turned over by hand. Batteries should be stored inside. All drain cocks should be opened and fuel drained from tank and carburetor.

Schram reminds local tractor owners that complete draining of the radiator and block and leaving all drain plugs open or out is also important.

In Glendale, California, Albin Nelson complained that his neighbor, Miss A. C. Madsen, not only kept him awake all night while she listened to the Republican Convention, she stuck a hose through the window and squirted him when he turned in the Democrats.

In Merrittton, Ontario, Mrs. Ruby Lawrence called all the town councilmen at 4 a. m., had them listen to the cocks crowing outside her window, succeeded in getting action toward passage of an anti-noise ordinance.

1949 Chevrolet Goes On Display Here Tomorrow

A product of three years' development work and more than a million miles of engineering research, the 1949 Chevrolet goes on display at the Ernest J. Allison showrooms here tomorrow (Saturday).

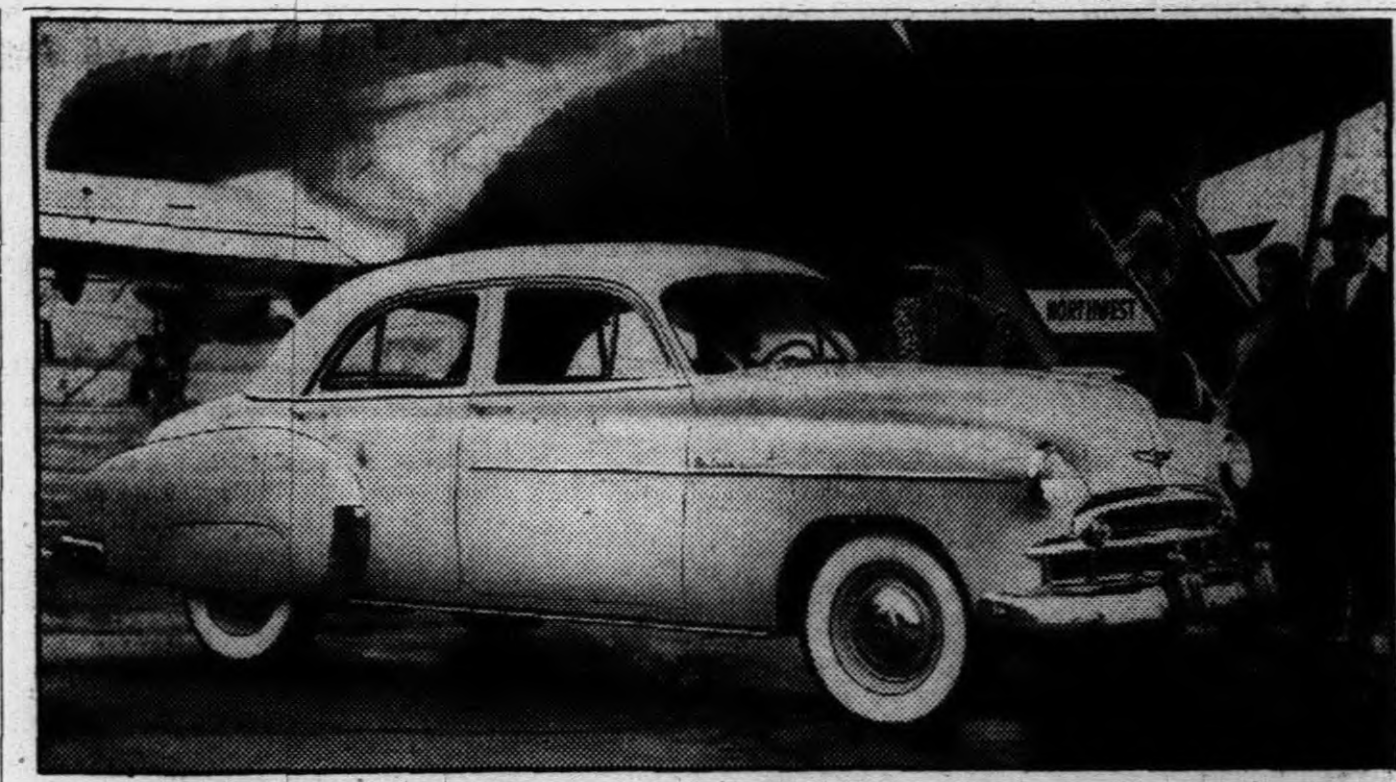

The latest model has been completely restyled. It is lower, wider and more distinctive than any previous series. Not only does the design introduce superior beauty to the lowest-priced ranks, but numerous body and chassis improvement promise to add to Chevrolet's reputation for comfort, safety and convenience, states Mr. Allison.

Two series of cars, the Fleetline and Styleline, are included with DeLuxe treatment an option in most body types. DeLuxe cars lay increased emphasis on the styling of fabrics, trim and appointments. The lineup shows:

Fleetline—Two and four-seaters. This design is distinguished by the extension of the roof line in an unbroken sweep to the rear. Known to the trade as a "fast back," the form achieved popularity on the 1948 two-door Aerosedan.

Styleline—Two and four-door sedans, sport coupe, three passenger business coupe, convertible, wood and all-steel station wagons. Styleline sedans carry the "notch back." Here the curvature of the roof meets the rear deck at the body belt line.

In both styling and performance, the 1949 series continues the "big car" aspects that have always been traditional with Chevrolet. The design is fresh and substantial-looking without approaching the extreme. Greater comfort is reported demonstrable by "ruler and by ride."

Progressive streamlining of the 1949 Chevrolet is in emphasis in this view of the Styleline De Luxe four-door sedan against a new Martin 202 passenger airliner. Notable in the roomier, lower cars is a balance in design that adds greater comfort and driving ease as well as smart appearance.

The six-cylinder, valve-in-head engine remains fundamentally the same, but refinements are said to increase appreciable the car's handling ease and owner satisfaction.

"In the engineering of our most important model in several years, we considered first the qualities that have consistently given Chevrolet the leadership in the industry," said Mr. Allison. "We did not make changes simply for the sake of change. Every innovation throughout the chassis and body was exhaustively tested and proved. We exercised great care to assure ourselves that each departure met Chevrolet standards." The entire passenger compartment has been moved forward, lengthened, broadened and lowered, affording a pleasing balance in proportions. Rearwardly the front fenders have been absorbed into the body, their vertical planes built flush with the doors. Crowns of the fenders have also been raised to fit more snugly into the hood and low, clean ensemble of the grille. To add grace and protect body surfaces, a partial rear fender has been retained.

From the passenger's standpoint perhaps the chief improvement in bodies is the immense increase in glass area. All windows have been deepened and widened. The windshield takes full advantage of broader bodies, curving inward at the narrowed pillars to improve sideway as well as forward vision. On comparable models the gain in visibility over 1948 has been as much as 30 per cent.

Besides its influence on overall balance in design, repositioning of the passenger compartment claims still other benefits. Rear seat passengers are now cradled in the comfort zone between the front and rear axles. (Formerly passengers rode over the rear axle.) Lowering of the compartment has reduced the center of gravity of the car, resulting in greater stability on curves and at higher speeds. Further, the lowered floor and wider doors permit easier entrance and exit by passenger.

Another important factor in better road ability is the adoption of the front and rear of direct double-acting shock absorbers, a type that proved itself in wartime service. Front suspension, which continues to feature the coil spring "Knee-Action" Chevrolet pioneered 15 years ago, has been made sturdier.

The gearshift is new. Recent developments in shift linkage caused engineers to substitute the manual shift for the former vacuum-assisted mechanism. The lever remains on the steering column, but has been lengthened to equalize the effort of shifts.

In addition to the ventilation controls, the driver will find unusual features. The steering wheel is thinner and somewhat lowered to supplement the safe vision made possible by larger windows. Dials are grouped in a circular cluster on the face of the jumbo speedometer. Starting is by button on the instrument panel. A nearby knob controls the windshield wiper, vacuum-powered and now especially designed to hug the curvature of the glass. The emergency brake is a straight pull lever mounted below the dash at the right of the steering column.

While all of the other details of the 1949 Chevrolet cannot be covered in a limited description, worthy of mention are: larger trunks equipped with automatic lock; rear compartment dome light doubled in candlepower; a concealed gasoline filler pipe, the tank now being located on the left hand side of the car; parking lamps built into the grille; a ball-bearing mounted front seat adjustment.

CHEVROLET
is the only car bringing you all these fine-car advantages at lowest cost!

YOU'LL PREFER ITS "LUXURY LOOK!"
Chevrolet's new Leader-Line Styling is lower, wider, rader . . . with new Dyna-Cool radiator grille. Single-Sweep front and rear fender treatment, and fast-as-a-rocket lines all round . . . by far the most beautiful development of the new "functional form" for motor cars.

MORE BEAUTIFUL FROM EVERY ANGLE!
The new Beauty-Leader Bodies by Fisher (with push-button door opens outside) are true masterpieces by the master builder of fine coachcraft . . . with superb lines, extra-fine upholstery and a wide variety of stirring colors . . . much more beautiful from every angle—inside and outside—front, side and rear.

MORE ROOM AT EVERY POINT!
The new Super-Straight Interiors featuring extra-wide "Fly-By" Foot Seats, give you plenty of head, leg and elbowroom as well as extraordinary seating space for six full-grown passengers; and you'll also notice that the giant rear decks have what amounts to "truck room" capacity.

SEE ALL ENJOY ALL!
New Panoramic Visibility, with wider curved windshield, thinner windshield pillars, and 30% more window area all-round, permits you to see all and keep safe in all weather. (1) Heater and defroster units optional at extra cost.

THESE ARE CARS THAT "BREATHE!"
Yes, you'll enjoy the additional pleasure of riding in a "car that breathes," for a completely effective heating and ventilating system supplies warm air to every nook and corner of the interior—exhausts stale air—and keeps glass clear in all weather. (1) Heater and defroster units optional at extra cost.

THE NEW RIDE'S A REVELATION!
A vastly improved Unitized Knee-Action Frame, combined with new direct-acting airplane type shock absorbers, front and rear, and extra low pressure tires, gives the stability, smoothness and road-safety you have always wanted.

THERE'S ONLY ONE WORLD'S CHAMPION ENGINE
You get the finer results of Chevrolet's sturdy Valve-in-Head Thrift-Master engine in all Chevrolet models . . . together with all of Chevrolet's money-saving economy of operation and upkeep . . . and this is the world's champion engine for miles worked, owners satisfied, and years tested and proved.

JUST COUNT THE COMFORTS!
Push-Button Starter for simple, quiet starting; Hand-E-Gearshift with Synchro-Mesh Transmission for maximum shifting ease; and Firm Foundation Box-Girder Frame for ride-stability and road-sureness unsurpassed in the Chevrolet price range.

STOP MORE SWIFTLY AND SAFELY!
The new Curt-Safe Hydraulic Brakes give even faster stops with safety . . . and assure the highest degree of effective braking action for you and your family.

YOU'LL SAVE MORE MONEY, TOO!
This new Chevrolet is designed, engineered and built to speed your price and spare your pocketbook, for it brings you all these and many other important improvements at the lowest prices and with extraordinary economy of operation and upkeep.

Plus NEW CENTER-POINT DESIGN!
A remarkable 4-way engineering advance exclusive to Chevrolet in its field, and consisting of Center-Point Steering—Center-Point Seating—Lower Center of Gravity and Center-Point Floor Suspension gives the new Chevrolet riding and driving results without precedent or parallel in low-cost motoring. That means a new kind of riding ease and a new kind of driving ease heretofore reserved for owners of more expensive cars. Presently only new Center-Point Dodge cars give you all these four major results; and only the new Chevrolet brings you Center-Point Design at lowest cost!

Fire-Safe Homes Stop Many Deaths

Home is the place where the majority of fire victims die every year—and nine out of ten fires don't have to happen. Is your home fire-safe?

A stitch in time could have prevented those nine fires states Olevia Meyer, extension home management specialist at Michigan State college and Plymouth Fire Chief Robert McAllister. Chief causes of home fires are faulty chimneys, stoves and furnaces, careless smoking and use of matches, misusing gasoline and kerosene, and defective wiring. Miss Meyer and Chief McAllister recommend that you:

Check your chimney to make sure it is fire-safe. Be sure your stoves or furnace are large enough to heat the room or house without forcing. Overheated stoves or furnaces are fire hazards. Place a fire screen in front of the fireplace.

Don't be guilty of starting a fire with gasoline or kerosene and always warn the members of your family against the habit. Home dry cleaning is another dangerous business and should be done with caution.

Check electric cords, plugs, outlets and equipment before using to make sure they are not faulty. Broken plugs, outlets or electric cords with the insulation worn off are fire hazards. Don't run electric cords under rugs, or hang on hooks or nails. Be sure you have enough wall outlets in all rooms so this won't be necessary. Check the fuse box to make sure the fuse used is not larger than 15 amperes and that some other object such as a penny is not being used instead of a fuse. If you do these things you will be safe—not sorry.

Dale Carnegie

Author of "HOW TO WIN FRIENDS and INFLUENCE PEOPLE" THE MUD OR THE STARS?

ONE day I dropped in at the University of Chicago and asked Chancellor Robert Maynard Hutchins how he kept from worrying. He replied, "I have always tried to follow a bit of advice given me by the late Julius Rosenwald, president of Sears, Roebuck and company: "When you have a lemon handed you, make a lemonade."

D. Carnegie

Here is the story of a woman who did just that. During the war Mrs. Thelma Thompson of New York City, was living in New Mexico in order to be near her husband who was stationed near the Mojave Desert. She hated, loathed the place; she had never been so miserable. Her husband was out on maneuvers in the desert and she was left all alone in a tiny shack. The heat—125 degrees—was unbearable. There was not a soul to talk to but Mexicans and Indians and they couldn't speak English. The wind blew incessantly and there was sand, sand everywhere, even in the food. She was so wretched that she wrote her parents she wanted to come home. She said she would rather be in jail than where she was.

Her father replied to her letter with just two lines: "Two men looked out from prison bars, One saw the mud, the other saw stars."

Those two lines changed her entire life. She was ashamed of how sorry she had been for herself and she made up her mind that she would look for the stars. So she made friends of the natives and their reactions amazed her. She showed an interest in their pottery and weaving and they gave her wonderful pieces, favorite pieces that they refused to sell to tourists. She studied the fascinating flora around her, watched sunsets, hunted for seashells that had been left there millions of years before when the sands of the desert had been an ocean floor.

What changed all this for her? Well, the desert and her surroundings hadn't changed. But her attitude had, and her life had become filled with exciting adventure.

She was so excited that she wrote a book about it, called the "Bright Ramparts." She had looked out of her self-created Hades and found the stars.

One of the most remarkable things in this world is the power you have over your own mind!

Farmers Must Plan to Face a New Agriculture

Farm people must be well informed and be constant students in their chosen fields so they may adjust operations to meet changing agriculture. Dean E. L. Anthony of the Michigan State college school of agriculture believes.

"We had this in mind in arranging the program for the 34th annual Farmers' Week at East Lansing from January 24 to 28," he tells Plymouth farmers. "With farm prices down more than 14 percent from January of 1948, efficient methods are important if the farm family is to get its fair and just share of the national income," Dean Anthony commented.

Dean Anthony pointed to the Farmers' Week theme: "Modern Farming for Modern Times" and expressed a belief that every department had prepared programs that both farmers and homemakers would find educational and entertaining.

Each department has morning and early afternoon meetings Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. As usual, Monday is Dairy Day with general dairy meetings in the morning and breed association meetings at noon and lasting through afternoon. The agricultural engineering department will open its farm structures conference on Monday also.

General sessions during Farmers' Week will be Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 p. m. in the college auditorium. Evening entertainment, free of charge to visitors, will be available these three nights.

All departments have planned programs of special interest and muck farmers meetings will continue through Friday, January 29.

Stumps Continue to "Stump" Many

Are you "stumped" by stumps? Many Plymouth farmers are. And if you take the word of George Amundson, Michigan State college agricultural engineer who has made some study of land clearance, there is just no real easy way to rid land of stumps.

Every now and then someone comes along with a new recipe for chemical treatment and burning of stumps. Reports from tests made at the University of Illinois show that using any one of many compounds did not make stumps burn much better.

In other words, even the experts are still being "stumped" by stumps.

In Minneapolis, Gebhardt M. Moses sued an auto dealer for $30,000, declared that the suspense of waiting and waiting for delivery of his new car had given him ulcers.

NIPS TROUBLE IN THE BUD—Special equipment in the telephone central office tells the approximate location of cable trouble miles away. A tone is sent out over the wires. Then a repairman out on the line moves an electrical instrument called a "Cable Bug" along the cable until he no longer hears the tone. Right at that spot he opens the cable and finds the trouble. Another example of how fast and economical methods have been developed to do difficult telephone jobs.

ASTRONOMICAL FIGURES—To serve its customers, Michigan Bell has some 6,000,000 miles of wire and 822,000 telephone poles in Michigan. The wire is equal to 25 single strands stretched from here to the moon. The poles, if "planted" 40 feet apart, would form an "orchard" of 7,548 acres. Money for poles, wire and other equipment needed to provide service comes from folks who invest a part of their savings in the telephone business and expect a fair return on their investment.

RURAL-LINE SERVICE IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT—The quality of rural-line service rests in the hands of those who use it. It can be good service if everyone shares the line... spaces out calls... surrenders the line when others have emergency calls to make... hangs up the receiver carefully after each call.

LIGHTLY spur that Buick thoroughbred of yours. Feel it surge ahead with a sure-footed stride, stepping out in front to set the pace—with never a murmur or complaint.

Yes, you can have quiet, lively horsepower like this, and a chassis that's free of stiffness and winter squeaks—if you let us keep your Buick in tiptop shape.

Take lubrication, for example. For the price of a routine "grease job" elsewhere, we turn our Buick-trained men loose on a complete, tailor-made lubrication service from hood latch to trunk handle. They make a regular habit of extra care, such as dropping a spot of graphite on the carburetor heat-control shaft, or using a special, non-sleeve-soiling lubricating stick on your door strikers—and we could list a dozen more.

The point is, these mechanics are Buick specialists of long and patient experience—they know your Buick and its needs better than anyone else—and they take pains to keep you happy with it.

Yet you don't pay a penny more. Why not drop in this week?

Band Members Attend Concert

Thirty members of the Plymouth High School band attended the University of Michigan Band concert Tuesday, January 11. The group rode to Ann Arbor in a school bus accompanied by Paul Wagner, Plymouth band director.

The concert, from the Student Recital Series, was held in Hill auditorium. Dr. William D. Revelli conducted the program.

The music presented was as follows: Overture to "Il Matrimonio Segreto" by Cimarosa; Siegfried's Rhine Journey from "Die Gotterdammerung" by Wagner; Symphony No. 1 in B-flat with four parts, Moderato maestoso, Allegro molto deciso, Scherzo, vivo, giocoso, Allegro vivace by Fauchet; and Toccata and Fugue in D minor by Bach. Following intermission the program continued with March for Americans by Grofe; Sequoia by LaGasse; Symphony No. 5 (Finale) by Shostakovich; Skyscraper (First Performance) by Phillips; and concluding the program was a medley of marches entitled Spirit of Michigan, including Campus on Parade, Men of the Maize and Blue, Michigan on Parade, Varsity and Victors.

The Plymouth band played two of the marches, Varsity and Victors during the football season this past year. Three years ago the band played Sequoia, by LaGasse, which was the Class B required number at the District and State Music Festival.

Students Attend Youth Conference

The Plymouth chapters of the Hi-Y and Y-Teen clubs are sending delegates to a "Older Boys and Girls conference" at the Witherell Y.W.C.A. on Saturday, January 29.

Problems of boy and girl relations will be discussed by Professor George Miller.

Y-Teen delegates are Pat Pine and Mary Vincent with the Hi-Y sending Paul Harding, Dave Jolliffe, Keith Ebersole and Dean Joachim. Each delegate's club had paid $2.50 from their treasury for the delegate. At noon a box lunch will be served with each boy eating with the girl whose lunch he has received. In the evening a banquet will finish off the conference.

If you have a social item or any other local news, phone 1755.

Four Apply For Quill and Scroll

Four students have applied for membership in the Quill and Scroll club of Plymouth High. They are: Jack Gage, Nancy Walton, Alvin Larson and Beverly Balsley.

Requirements to join the club are: to be recommended by the adviser or principal, have a semester of journalism, have a B average or in the upper third of the class, be on or have been on the staff of the school paper or school annual, and have written at least 50 inches in the school paper or the school annual. Writing for the local city paper does not count in the 50 inches.

Hi-Y Takes In New Members

New members were received at the noon meeting of the Plymouth Hi-Y Thursday, January 13.

New members are: Dave Heinzman, Jim Wagenschutz, David Henry, Irving Stewart, Bruce MacGregor, Herb Swanson, John Wiltse, Ted Thrasher, Ralph Good, Fred Rafferty, Dale Blackmore, Dick Crocker, Neil Lamphaer and Fred Dethloff.

Friday, January 14, new members were informally initiated. They wore mismatched shoes, socks, tee-shirt, bow tie, overalls rolled up to knees, rope for belt, and burlap bag to carry their books. That night of the Hi-Y dance, "Bread Basket Brawl" new members sang and danced throughout the night.

English Students Study 20th Century Writer

Poetry and poets have again aroused the interest of Miss Irene Waldorf's American Literature class. Continuing their study of poetry, they have made a special study of the life and works of Carl Sandburg, one of the greatest 20th century poets.

Pictures of Mr. Sandburg have been mounted on the bulletin board of both his winter home in Chicago and his summer home on Lake Michigan. It was because of Mr. Sandburg's poem "Chicago" that he was first recognized.

The students also have written epitaphs of someone they know, a fictitious person, or of themselves after studying Edgar Lee Masters, another 20th century poet whose chief works were epitaphs, mostly fictitious.

Committee Plans For Assemblies

The assembly committee met Wednesday, January 12, to make plans for the coming semester. The members of this committee are: Arthur Alford (faculty chairman), Garret Kramer (teacher), Margie Tait, Irving Stewart, Madelyn Fedell and Dorothy Curtis (student representatives).

The tentative plans are: February 2—Puppet Show for Junior High and fourth, fifth and sixth grades from Starkweather Grade school; February 8—Junior High assembly with a Jerry McSafely Show; February 10—Assembly for both Junior and Senior High with a talk on Russia; February 23—Y-Teen exchange assembly.

March—to ask Bentley to put on a play and ask Inkster to put on a musical program.

April 4—Sperandio Duo with Giovanni and Elso Sperandio.

May—Spring Concert.

There is still one more day available the first of May and one the last of March. No assemblies will be presented in June.

Parents Quizzed on School System

On January 12 and 17, parents of Plymouth school children were requested to fill out questionnaires for the use of a group of Plymouth teachers who are taking a course in curriculum study at Livonia Center.

This course will be held at Plymouth next semester. Teachers taking the course plan to study the answers of the parents closely to get their opinion on the present school program and also the parents ideas on what can be done to improve the program.

The opinionnaire asked questions regarding the parent's opinion on the present system of teaching in comparison with the hickory stick, etc., and also inquired about subjects being taught which should be added or removed from the curriculum.

The opinionnaires were given only to the youngest member of a family in the Plymouth school system so that there would be only one pamphlet to a family no matter how many children attend Plymouth schools.

Band Participates in U of M Sessions

Members of the Plymouth High school band, who journeyed to the Interlochen National Music camp during the summer vacation, also traveled to the University of Michigan Friday, January 14, to be present at the Mid-Western Music conference.

The conference was sponsored by four musical organizations; the Michigan School Band and Orchestra association, Michigan School Vocal association, University of Michigan Extension Service and University of Michigan School of Music.

Members of the Plymouth band who attended are as follows: Robert Johnson, percussion; Walter Hammond, flute; Beverly Balsley and Connie Pascoe, clarinet; David Green, trombone; Wesley Potts, trumpet; Nancy Mastick, baritone; and Louis Vargha, oboe.

PHS To Receive Debate Trophy

James E. Latture, Plymouth High debate coach, has received a letter from the coach of Pershing High school, asking him to set a date for the Plymouth squad to come to Pershing and receive the Detroit City League trophy, which was given to Pershing last year when they won the league championship.

A Free Press photographer will also be present to take the debaters' picture.

By defeating De LaSalle, its last opponent, the Plymouth squad captured the Detroit City championship. This year's question is "Resolved: that the United Nations be revised into a Federal World Government." The debaters include: Ronald Hees, Roger Kidston, Lawrence Mack, Ronald Witt, Sandra Walch and Gladys Witt.

The first debate for Plymouth in the state eliminations series will be February 1.

Varsity Club to Have Initiation

The Varsity club will have an informal initiation for the cross country boys today, Friday.

President, Larry Bentley, told the plans for the initiation to the student council at their last meeting on Monday, January 10. Probably six boys will enter the organization.

Students Tour State Offices

Twenty-four students from Miss Gertrude Feigel's government class went to Lansing by school bus to see government in action on Wednesday, January 12. The students went on a conducted tour through the capitol, house, senate and supreme court.

The students were introduced to the Senate by Senator James P. Hannan and saw the House, Senate and Supreme Court in action. The group also toured a number of offices, including the office of the treasury, the auditor general's office, and the office of the department of public instruction. The class heard an explanation on how the office of the treasury works and saw the Great Seal and how it is used.

The students also shook hands with the governor, went to the dome, and had lunch in the Union building of the Michigan State college.

Members of Hi-Y Club Distribute Drive Canisters

Last Monday members of the Hi-Y club distributed canisters for the March of Dimes.

Most of the businesses were covered in Plymouth. Those who participated in the distributing were: Ronald Boudin, Dean Joachim, Jim Wagenschutz, Bruce MacGregor, Herbert Swanson, John Wiltse, Carl Pursell, Dick Joachim, Jerry Micol, Dave Heinzman, Andrew Pringle and Dave Henry.

Your contribution will help the cause.

Board Chooses Play Committees

The third meeting for the first semester of the junior class executive board was held Wednesday noon, January 12, in the room of Miss Sarah Lickly, class adviser.

The purpose of the meeting was to pick committees and chairmen for the junior play, "George Washington Slept Here" which takes place on February 16 and 17.

Also a list of members of the junior class was given to each officer and the student council members. Returns from the J-Hop were reported by treasurer, Rita Datcher.

Plymouth Rocks Reach Mid-Way

As the 1948-49 basketball season approaches the half way mark for the Plymouth Rocks, the record indicates that they have won one game in six starts.

The record also indicates that Plymouth's deficiency lies in field goal production, for in six games the Rocks have made 293 shots on the basket and were successful in 74 of these for a .252 average. On the other hand opponents have connected on 166 of 365 shots for a .291 average. Plymouth's best effort in this respect was against Northville when the Rocks scored 17 field goals in 48 tries. However, Northville also equalled this mark. In all other games the opposition has scored more.

At the foul line Plymouth holds an edge, however. The locals have made good on 47 of their 86 attempts, for an efficiency mark of 55 per cent. Opponents have established a mark of 49 per cent with 40 out of 81.

In Oklahoma City, fifth graders polled on punishment preferences voted 34 to 1 that they would rather have a spanking than a friendly talk.

PEEK at the STARS

BY LYNN CUNNELLY
NWN's Radio-Screen Editor

OF ALL NBC's "Quiz Kids," perhaps one of the most remarkable is 13-year-old Lonny Lunde whose diversions vary from a fanatic interest in sports to an equal love for music — preferably classical. . . Music just came naturally to him, which was a complete surprise to his parents, neither of whom are talented in that field. . . He was four years old when he returned home from Christmas Eve services at his local Lutheran church, sat down at his sister's piano and slowly picked out with one finger various hymns he had heard played that night.

Several weeks later he was playing with both hands and within a year he could play over 100 folks songs and hymns. . . It was then that his sister, Marcia, now 22, gave up the piano. . . "With all her lessons she could play reasonably well, but seeing her four-year-old brother just sit down and play without previous training was too much for her," Mr. Lunde grins. At the age of six, Lonny played for the Northwest Symphony, although he doesn't recall the incident.

He is also a composer, having written "You've Got Blues, Oh, Brother, You've Got Blues" which had an airing on the Fred Allen show when he and several other quiz kids were Fred's guests some years back. . . He also composed the words and music to "The Chief Quizzer," in honor of Quizmaster Joe Kelly, "You Walked Away From My Heart" and a little ditty about Allen which was presented to the comedian. . . He is now working on a symphonic arrangement which he calls "Suite in D Minor for Piano."

Lonny is tall and lanky with brown hair and brown eyes. . . He likes to travel whether it's with the show or with his folks, and this summer enjoyed a three-weeks motor tour of California and other points west with his family. . . He dotes on hamburger and raw onion with all the trimmings. . . Ask him what he intends to be when he grows up and he's torn between a symphonic conductor and a baseball player, with the conductor having a slight edge.

Fair in the Light of Memory Shines

BY ELTON R. EATON

In an effort to prevent extensive starvation among the deer herds of Michigan, the state conservation department is putting forth various methods to provide feed necessary to keep alive the deer that find it difficult to get food.

Tops of cedars logged from swamps are now an important supplement to the deer herd's winter food supply. This winter, under the timber sale program developed by the conservation department's forestry division, some cedar will become available where and when the need in the state forests is expected to be greatest.

Cutting permits on state-owned lands in deeryards are now in effect, and more are being prepared for auctioning among operators. Cutting under these permits is restricted to the months of December, January, February and March. In addition to the timber sold at public auction, numerous smaller areas within established deer yards have been located in each district where emergency cuttings may be made if the deer food shortage becomes critical.

Cutting areas are so spaced that the cutting will be economical for the operator, an improvement to the timber stand, and a dependable food supply for the deer when it is most needed.

A scientific hiking expedition which will follow the crest of the Rocky Mountains from Mexico to Canada will leave the southern border next April under the supervision of Joseph C. Wampler, Berkeley, California, according to the Wildlife Management Institute. This is the first time that such an expedition has been attempted and the party will traverse some of the highest peaks in North America.

The 2,200 mile journey is expected to occupy six months, and the party will be limited to from 10 to 15 persons. Participants must be in excellent health, preferably with experience in mountaineering and field work. Persons interested in joining should contact the leader at 1940 Hearst Avenue, Berkeley, California. Mr. Wampler has engaged in research in the Near East under the auspices of the Pacific School of Religion and has had wide experience in exploration and mountaineering in Europe and North America, both for scientific research and for recreation.

According to the recent report issued by the Michigan Conservation department, forestry division activities last year centered around timber sales, nursery operations, private forestry cooperation and surveys.

State forest timber sale receipts in 1948 were $160,000, or 25 percent above 1947. Products included six million board feet of sawlogs and 60,000 cords of pulpwood. More than 1,500 cutting permits were issued.

In preparation for the resumption of state forest plantings in 1949, five acres were added to the Higgins Lake nursery where the inventory of pine stock is now 30,000,000 trees. Twenty-two hundred bushels of pine and spruce cones, and five tons of fruits and seeds of 38 game food and cover species were collected. While no planting was done on state forests, 4,363,000 pine trees were sold to private individuals or given to schools and communities.

Twenty-one counties have been completed in a study of forest resources, growth and drain, and a timber management survey on state forests has covered 375,000 acres. The use of Michigan woods in the manufacture of commercial products is the subject of still another survey.

Michigan, in 1948, became the 22nd state to adopt the Tree Farm System which gives recognition to timber owners who practice good forestry.

So you have a desire, do you, to do some prospecting for new and highly valuable ores, do you? Maybe you can go anywhere in some states or over in Canada in search of ores, but not so in Michigan.

The common belief that a prospector can search anywhere and, assuming a strike is made, stake out a claim which would give him ownership to the minerals and ores discovered does not hold true in Michigan. This is possible in many parts of the country, the conservation department's lands division advises, but Michigan land laws do not provide for this procedure.

The land in Michigan is either owned by private interests, the state, or the federal government. A prospector working privately-owned land is a trespasser unless he has first made arrangements with the property owner. To be safe the prospector should have a written agreement with the owner stating how the potential fruits of his labor shall be shared. Failing to take this precaution may result in the prospector receiving nothing for his work.

A lease must be obtained, in advance, in order to prospect on state land. Leases are offered at public auction and must be approved by the conservation commission. Further information can be secured by writing the lands division of the conservation department at Lansing.

Leasing requirements on federal land can be secured by writing to the Bureau of Land Management, Department of Interior, Washington, D. C.

By legislative orders the Wisconsin department is required to feed deer but it is finding it difficult to buy sufficient high quality alfalfa hay for that purpose.

What the conservation department wants is second or third cutting, fine stemmed, leafy, alfalfa hay of the highest quality. The hay must be well baled.

BABSON SAYS Babson Discusses Tornadoes

At Warren, Arkansas, a few days ago occurred a tornado which is reported to have killed 59 persons and injured about 250 more. Every few months some such disaster occurs in the U. S. Most of them are in the southern center of the country; but every one of the 48 states has, at some time, one of these tornadoes. Therefore, this is a subject in which everyone should be interested.

What About Hurricanes?

Before discussing tornadoes, let me say a word about hurricanes. These originate on the ocean and can be prevented by "killing" them at their birth. For instance, the hurricanes which hit the South Atlantic States and Florida, and the Gulf States, start 2,000 miles or more away, —mostly east of the Leeward Islands and the Caribbean Sea. When they hit our Southeastern States, these hurricanes may have a diameter of 100 to 500 miles. This diameter varies with each hurricane, but can easily be measured in each case. We have been hit by about 150 major hurricanes since 1930. These have done tremendous damage.

If our Navy would patrol the waters, with small airplane carriers, where these hurricanes originate, they could easily be detected. As the aviator would come to a small area where the barometer suddenly drops to 28, he would know that this area is a dangerous spot worth watching. It then might not be more than 2000 to 5000 feet or less than a mile in diameter at its birth. Authorities differ as to how they would kill it; but I say that it can be killed. They are most common in the fall months.

How Tornadoes Can Be Killed

Tornadoes originate on the land, due to "a dead warm spot" of very low pressure, overlaid by a cold high pressure heavy area, held down by gravity. Tornadoes come with less warning and at all times of the year. Often they have a diameter of only a few miles, and the core (which does the damage) may be only a fraction of a mile. Furthermore, they last for a much shorter time than do hurricanes. As tornadoes are more frequent than hurricanes, the nation's total annual loss from tornadoes can equal or exceed the total annual loss from hurricanes.

Scientists now see no way of preventing tornadoes because it takes them such a short time to develop nearby. Tornadoes appear to be born mature and do their damage almost at once. I, however, do believe that all loss of life from tornadoes can be prevented. The people in the tornado area can be notified in time with proper warnings. In other words, every community in the Southern-Middle West should be protected with a tornado siren-alarm system. This cannot prevent the tornado or its accompanying property damage; but it can absolutely prevent loss of life. There is no excuse for the deaths and injury of so many people at Warren. The entire state of Arkansas could have been properly safe-guarded against loss of life from tornadoes.

How to Detect Tornadoes

Every tornado has three features: (1) A very low barometer reading within a hot-stagnant area, (2) a gradually increasing wind from five miles upwards to 300 to 500 miles per hour, (3) a dark colored column of rain, dirt, and other material. The fire or police station in every southwestern community should always be on the watch for these three signals. Upon seeing them, they should, by radio, immediately notify all surrounding territories. As each community gets the word, it should ring in a Gamewell siren alarm, which would give the proper warning to the inhabitants either to enter a cyclone cellar or to go out into the open and lie down. After the cloud has passed an all-out signal should be given. Perhaps the tornado will have done much property damage, but in no case need any persons be killed or hurt.

We live in a wonderful country. It is rich in resources and opportunities. In this country, however, we are far too careless of human life. This applies to every community and in every department of life from needless auto accidents to needless fire losses. For reducing loss of life through automobile accidents, fires, etc. much has been done,
