What I Think and have a Right to Say

ELTON R. EATON

"I AM VOTING YES."

The school board of the Plymouth district has called a special election to be held on Monday, March 28, for the purpose of asking the approval of the taxpayers to issue $1,350,000 in bonds so that this school district can erect two new elementary grade buildings, remodel and enlarge the present Central grade school and the High school, and build a new gymnasium and swimming pool.

Ordinarily one might expect a taxpayer who pays a rather substantial real estate tax and whose children are all beyond the public school age, not to be too greatly interested in public school problems.

But such is far from the case. Like hundreds of other citizens, the writer is vitally interested in the schools of Plymouth and their continued improvement. While we have enjoyed good schools over a long period of years, we all know that the growth of Plymouth and the surrounding territory has been exceptionally rapid, especially so in the last decade. There is everything to indicate that the growth in the next few years will be even greater than it has been in recent years.

For more than two decades we have done nothing to expand the facilities of our school buildings, although there has been an increase in school attendance every year. The point has now been reached where the lives of children are endangered if the school rooms are crowded more than they are at present. Not only has a danger point been reached, but the work of the excellent instructors we have could be greatly improved if better school facilities were available.

The only school improvement Plymouth has enjoyed in the last 20 years came about through the activities of a local luncheon club which raised by individual contributions some $23,000 to build and equip a lighted athletic field for the use of our school children.

Our city is expanding. Traffic conditions of our streets have for a number of years been a source of worry not only to our traffic officers, but to parents of school children as well. We have been most fortunate up to the present time that none of our school children have been killed, although frequently many of them have been injured in traffic mishaps.

It is wrong for the elders of this school district to compel parents to send their children such long distances to their school rooms, crossing busy thoroughfares in many cases half a dozen times or more.

Our school attendance requires additional grade rooms. We should vote to build these two additional elementary grade schools, locating them in sections which would eliminate as far as possible all traffic dangers.

Our school gymnasium is not much less than a farce, out-rated by nearly every crossroad town in this part of Michigan. Parents are deprived of an opportunity to see their children participate in such events as necessarily must take place in a gymnasium. We should build a gymnasium that is in keeping with the progressive spirit of Plymouth—a gymnasium and swimming pool that will for years be a credit to the community—providing our children with benefits now enjoyed in other progressive communities of the state.

This is no criticism of any one—but our school system facilities have not kept pace with the industrial, religious, business and social advancement of our city and surrounding territory.

The youthful sons and daughters of our boys and young women who fought to save our republic and its free institutions, are already reaching school age. In a few brief years this oncoming generation will comprise almost entirely our school population.

If for no other reason we should without hesitation vote overwhelmingly in favor of this school bond issue so that the children of the veterans can enjoy the best of educational opportunities. After all it will be but a few brief years when the veterans will be carrying a good share of the bond issue responsibilities.

As one grows older there is a tendency to conserve what little we might possess as well as to hesitate about assuming additional obligations. But the elders of today owe a far greater obligation to the younger generation than we can ever repay. So if we can provide their children with proper educational advantages to meet the new and troublesome problems they are bound to face, we should unhesitatingly do so. It is for these reasons that I am going to vote "YES" on the school bond question.

WHO STARTED THE FIRE?

A few days ago fire destroyed the largest pier of the United States army base at Oakland, California. Vast damage was done to large supplies and materials stored there by the U. S. army. In not one of the newspaper dispatches we read about the fire, was there any reference as to how it started. But with the country filled with Communists and their like, who openly declare that they are for Stalin first and last, there is plenty of reason for the investigators to confine their inquiry entirely to the ranks of the Communists. They have declared that they will do anything to destroy America—so why wouldn't they be rightfully suspected of starting this disastrous fire?

THE RIGHT OF A CITIZEN.

The United States Supreme Court held recently that the power of the individual state under existing law is supreme in labor matters; that state laws which ban the closed shop are constitutional under both the Taft-Hartley act and the Wagner act. However, in the new administration labor law which is designed to succeed the Taft-Hartley and Wagner acts, there is a specific clause which forbids the states from passing any laws contravening federal statutes in this field and setting up a complete closed shop, says The Dowagiac Daily News.

The right of a citizen to barter his services where he wishes is killed as completely as others of his rights have vanished under the new deal conception of the state. It appears that this court decision comes at a time when it emphasizes the whole problem of the right of a person to his individual liberty under working conditions. The Taft-Hartley provision recognizes the right to a minor degree for it allowed the individual to take a job and an employer to hire him, but if the shop contract was union, he had to join after a few days. At least that was something and certainly protected the union. Now the struggle is on to force unionization as a contingent upon employment.

NORTHERN AND WESTERN VOTERS AGREE.

One of the important facts that came to light during the fight of southern senators on the filibuster issue in Washington was the fact that 15 northern and western states had recently submitted to the voters of these various states the misleading named "fair employment practice commission" proposal.

In every state where the voters were given the opportunity to vote upon this issue, they overwhelmingly voted it down. In California the vote was nearly three to one against it.

Why, therefore, should congress try to inflict upon these states something they do not want? On the surface of things it would appear that Mr. Truman and his pressure groups are decidedly on the wrong side of this question. It is strictly a state question, no matter how strongly we may feel otherwise.

Robin, Sun, Rain Initiate Spring

Spring has come, the calendar says, but it will take a lot of talking to convince some that it has really arrived.

The most encouraging bit of proof offered is the report made by Mrs. Doris Wick. Monday morning she spied a robin, the first of the season to be reported to The Mail office.

The weather man has also offered a little bit of everything as far as spring weather is concerned, producing sunshine and warm temperatures Monday and rain on Tuesday.

Rotary Will Honor Charter Members Friday Night

Rotarians Will Celebrate 25th Birthday Friday

Members of Plymouth's Rotary club, their wives and guests, will pack the crystal dining room of the Hotel Mayflower Friday evening on the event of the club's 25th anniversary.

Honored guests of the evening will be the eight charter members of the club: George A. Smith, Edward Hough, William Wood, Carl Shear, John Dayton, Paul Wiedman, William Pettigill and Dr. B. E. Champe who are still active in the club's affairs.

A most elaborate program has been planned for the occasion with Richard Hedke, international past president of Rotary, in 1946-47, highlighting the evening with an address. International greetings will be conveyed to the club by district governor John F. Smith and a resume of the club's activities since its inception will be presented by Carl G. Shear.

Local Men's Clubs Honoring Women

Women's Week is a title which could easily have been bestowed on the current one in Plymouth.

Members of the Kiwanis club started it all this week by inviting their wives to attend their regular Tuesday evening dinner meeting. The following evening, Wednesday, Hi-12 members honored their wives and guests at a dinner program which featured S.L.A. Marshall as guest speaker.

Tomorrow evening, Friday, Rotarians will escort their wives and guests to the program in the Hotel Mayflower which will commemorate the organization's 25th anniversary in Plymouth.

Donkey Olympics Will Open Tonight

Proceeds from the Donkey Olympics programs, which begin a two night run here this evening, will be used to purchase uniforms for city volunteer firemen.

At the same time he made this announcement, Fire Chief Robert McAllister stated that the Plymouth Fire association is sponsoring two shows. Both will be presented in the high school auditorium.

The program for this evening and tomorrow includes ten individual acts. All those taking part in the performances will go

Society's Annual Meeting Slated

The annual meeting and election of board members for the Plymouth Symphony Society will be next Tuesday, March 29, announces President Mrs. Harry Fischer.

It will open with a 6:30 p.m. dinner in the Methodist church. Those who cannot attend this portion of the program, the president pointed out, are urged to attend the business meeting which will follow at 8 p.m.

City Will Use Equalized Valuation Imposed by County and Schools

Whether or not the city should adopt the school and county's recent equalized valuation for assessment of all buildings in Plymouth, was a problem with which the city commissioners were faced Monday evening.

After weighing the pros and cons, the adoption of such a plan was accepted as being the most equitable solution.

Ten percent was recently added to property values in Plymouth for the purpose of county and school assessments, City Manager Harold Cheek told the commissioners. The added ten percent puts Plymouth on a level with Detroit and Highland Park communities throughout the county were passed in one of three levels for the move. One necessitated a 20 percent jump for the county and school, another at ten percent, and in the third class came those cities where no equalization was necessary.

Should the city fail to adopt the equalized valuation, it would mean losing out on a portion of what the schools and county are getting, it was pointed out. The ten percent rise in valuation would amount to between $7,000 and $8,000, according to an estimate by the city manager.

Women Schedule Annual Meeting

Plans for the annual meeting of the Plymouth Woman's club have been made, and President Mrs. Milton Laible reports that it has been set for April 1 at 12:30 p.m. in the Veterans Community Center.

Dessert and coffee will be served at the onset of the day's affair, and Mrs. A. C. Williams has been appointed as chairman. Assisting will be: Mrs. Clarence Moore, Mrs. Albert Pint, Mrs. Walter K. Sumner and Mrs. Robert Willoughby.

Hostesses for the annual meeting have been named by Mrs. Laible as: Mrs. Earl Kenyon,

Mrs. F. E. Adams Dies at Age of 95

Early Friday morning, March 18, Mrs. Frank Elizabeth Adams passed away at the age of 95. Funeral services were held on Monday, March 21, at 2 p.m. from the Schrader Funeral Home.

Mrs. Adams, who had resided at 187 Adams street, was a lifelong resident of Plymouth. She had been a member of the First Presbyterian church.

On February 22, 1939, Mrs. Adams was preceded in death by her husband, the late John Adams. Surviving are: her daughter, Miss Verita Adams of Plymouth; her sister, Miss Anna Baker of Plymouth; several nieces and nephews.

Christian Science services were read Monday by Frederick M. Hull of Ann Arbor. Two hymns on the organ were presented by Mrs. Edna O'Conner. The active pallbearers were Henry Baker, Cass Hough, Roderick Cassidy, William Westfall, John Olsaver and Richard Daniel.

Interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Red Cross Drive Nears Quota; Aid Still Necessary

Optimism over the outcome of Plymouth's Red Cross drive was expressed this week by Chairman Ernest Henry as he announced that the total of contributions is nearing the goal.

Admitting that it is neither feasible nor possible for volunteers to contact all residents of the city, Mr. Henry stated there are many persons who have not been solicited for their contribution. To help in pushing the total over the quota, Mr. Henry asks all those not reached to mail their contribution to the Plymouth Red Cross, Plymouth.

Pointing out the need for everyone in the city donating to the drive, Mr. Henry stated that the national goal is $60,000,000, while the county has set a quota of $1,224,000.

"Today, in the 68th year of the Red Cross' existence," Mr. Henry said, "The American Red Cross is still on the scene everywhere in the United States. Its 3,746 chapters provide Red Cross service in every county and every community of our country."

"Because of its network of chapters, the Red Cross is able, at a moment's notice, to go into action when disaster strikes. Last year in 303 disaster relief operations, it assisted 312,400 persons," the local chairman stated.

"Red Cross activities are as varied as human need itself. They will remain undiminished during the coming year, thanks to people of both Plymouth and other cities across the nation and their generous support."

Club Takes Count of Lent Program

Early percentages on the progress on the Kiwanis sponsored "Go to Church During Lent" program were recorded this week by James Gallimore.

Comparisons were made between the attendance of members of Rotary, Lions, Hi-12 and Kiwanis clubs.

During the week of March 6, members of the various organizations attending their club's meeting reported the following attendance: Kiwanis, 49 percent;

Grass Fires Keep City, Township Departments Busy First of Week

The first day of Spring, Sunday, brought with it an outbreak of grass fires which kept both the Plymouth city and township fire departments jumping.

Sunday and Monday a total of 11 calls were answered by the two departments. The city received only one on Sunday, the scene of which was on Deer street. According to Chief LeRoy Jewell the township crew fought grass fires on Southworth in Tominson subdivision, at the corner of Lilley and Joy roads, and at the corner of Ann Arbor trail and Gold Arbor on Sunday. On Monday they were called to the scene of grass fires on Wilcox road, east of the Ford plant, and on Minehart drive.

Monday in Plymouth the city fire fighting crew was kept on its toes by a total of five grass fire calls. Five minutes after the first truck left to fight the blaze at Sheldon road and U.S. 12, a call came in reporting another near the Plymouth Lumber company. Simultaneous calls also came when fires broke out at the end of Pine street and at Warren and Ridge roads. In the case of the latter, announces Fire Chief Robert McAllister, the city crew was called in by the Willow Run department when its equipment was out fighting other fires. The final call on Monday was for the fire at 1125 Starkweather.

The Detroit House of Correction fire fighting equipment stood by at the city hall Monday while the city's department members were answering calls, in case of further fires. It was supervised by Harry Hunter.

Chief McAllister attributed the outbreak of the many fires to the fact that many persons believe the grass to be wet. On the contrary, he pointed out, it is exceedingly dry.

District Festival Attracts School Band Saturday

Plymouth High school's band is currently priming for the School Band and Orchestra festival for District No. 4 which will be held in Ypsilanti under the auspices of the Southeastern Michigan Band and Orchestra association on Saturday, March 26.

The festival program will take place in the Ypsilanti High school and at Ypsilanti State Normal college. Plymouth's 70 piece band will first appear at 9 a.m., states Paul Wagner, director. A total of 55 bands will participate.

To be eligible for the state contest, a band must receive a first division rating in the district contest, Mr. Wagner announces. This procedure diverges from that followed last year, when those with both first and second division ratings were eligible to appear. Last year the Plymouth band got a second division.

The state contest will be held in Ann Arbor on April 23.

Plymouth's musicians will compete with a group of bands from Class B schools from this area when they meet next Saturday. Included will be: Ypsilanti, Belleville, Wayne, Milford, Birmingham, Romeo, Lake Orion, Oxford, Walled Lake and Roseville.

Selections which the band is preparing under the direction of Mr. Wagner are "Emblem of Unity," concert march by Richards, and "Schertzo" from the Symphony in B Flat by Fauchet. The required number for Class B bands is "Au Pays Lorraine" by Baley-Chidister. The band will also be required to play one composition from sight, the director reports.

Church Sets Up Building Fund

Making allowance for expansion which will be required in the future, a building fund was set up for the First Presbyterian church at the meeting of the congregation Sunday.

The meeting was held following the regular church service and was conducted by Edwin Schrader, president of the Board of Trustees.

Mr. Schrader explained that at the present time the fund is for no specific purpose. It is simply to provide for future expansion requirements, he stated.

It is The Duty of Every Qualified Voter of This School District to Vote Monday. Voting Booths are in the High School Building. Polls are Open from 7:00 in the Morning Until 8:00 in the Evening.

Funeral Services Held Sunday for Calvin Whipple

Funeral services were held for Calvin Whipple in the Schrader Funeral Home last Sunday, March 20.

Mr. Whipple, who was 69 years of age, had died the preceding Thursday. He had been a life-time resident of the city, and had formerly resided at 1059 Penniman avenue.

A life membership in the Plymouth Rock Masonic Lodge No. 47 F & A.M. had been held by Mr. Whipple, as well as a life membership in the Order of the Eastern Star No. 115.

Surviving him are: his widow, Mrs. Sara Whipple; his daughters, Mrs. David Zink and Mrs. David Dodge, both of Plymouth; three brothers, Austin and Elmore Whipple, both of Plymouth, and Arthur Whipple of Detroit; and two granddaughters, Patricia and Sally Zink.

At Sunday's funeral the Rev. Henry J. Walsh officiated. Services were also under the auspices of the Plymouth Rock Lodge No. 47 F & A.M. Organ selections were played by Mrs. Alta Woodworth.

Active pallbearers were: Loren Goodale, Berton Giles, Herbert Finton, Evered Jolliffe, Henry Baker and Maxwell Moon. Interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Six Are Named to Election Board

Sterling Eaton will chairman the election committee named to serve at the school district election next Monday in the high school. Other members of the election board will be J. Rustling Cutler, Elizabeth Hartwick, Alice Rathbun, Gladys Deyo and Gladys Tillotson.

The polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Voters will be given the privilege of voting two ballots, one which will ask for an increase in the millage, and the other which will ask for $1,350,000 for a building program. Both ballots will have to carry to enable the school to carry out their program.

Pruitt Involved in Fatal Accident

Chester Pruitt of Plymouth was involved in an accident at Telegraph and Goddard roads Saturday evening which proved fatal to Lee Drzyga of Taylor township. Pruitt is being held on investigation of manslaughter, according to the Wayne County Sheriff's department.

Others involved in the accident were Lyle Ernest of Ann Arbor trail who was riding with Pruitt, and Mrs. Drzyga and her year old baby girl. Mrs. Drzyga was the only one of the survivors receiving serious injuries.

Pruitt was driving north on Telegraph prior to the accident, and he told police that as he approached Goddard road the light was changing. At the intersection he hit Mr. Drzyga's car, forcing it across the road against the side of a gas station. Mr. Drzyga was killed instantly.

During questioning Pruitt told police he does not recall how fast he was traveling.

Virus Infection Reported Circulating in Plymouth

Many cases of a virus infection have been reported in Plymouth during recent weeks, according to a report by Dr. Harold Brisbois, Plymouth health officer.

Similar to the flu or the grip, it has a duration of about one week. Dr. Brisbois termed the infection as "not serious."

I REMEMBER...

By THE OLD-TIMERS

From E. O. (Dick) Helwig: "I remember when kids used to gather in front of the house after a wedding and serenade the new bride and groom with discordant noises made with kettles, tin horns, etc., until the groom would toss out a handful of pennies. This was supposed to bring good luck. Sometimes the pennies were red hot and couldn't be picked up for a long time. This ceremony was called a shivari, spelled it as it was pronounced. Through the years we learned that the correct spelling is charivari, when means a mock serenade."

From Henry H. Vocke: "When a new building was under construction the plasterers would mix the lump lime in a big box and soak it with water overnight to dissolve the lumps. They always covered the mixture with a layer of sand. Many a time I got pushed in."

From Evangeline Sedgwick: "I remember those winter days of long ago when the kids used to play on 'rubber ice' in some stream or creek. The writer doesn't see this any more. Is this an oversight on her part, or is 'rubber ice' a thing of the past, too?"

From Evangeline Sedgwick: "I remember the penny-a-cake days of Fleischmann's yeast. Also, Arbuckle coffee, James' Eyle company packaged soap powder, packaged oat meal and the porcelain white window letters of Salada Tea company that outlasted them all."

Real Estate

WOW... It's Here

The home that we dream about. Close your eyes and think of this. A perfect two-level house. Entering a paneled living room with a homey fire burning in the fireplace, you see an unusual kitchen—dining arrangement that is 100% pleasing. Just 3 steps up from the living room is an L shape hall with 4 large bed rooms and a bath. A paneled library leading to a large screened-in porch is next in line. A full basement with hot air furnace and a 2 car garage ALL UNDER ONE ROOF. That isn't all. A stream, a winding drive, 1 1/2 acres, very expensive landscaping and a building for a horse is included. Price is $14,000 with $5000 down. Appointment only.

Women Schedule Annual Meeting

The president further announces that the club is interested in obtaining information as to the whereabouts of the minutes of the meetings prior to 1920. She asks that anyone who can help her locate them to contact her.

The annual benefit sponsored by the new members of the club is to be in the form of a cooking and deep freeze demonstration this year. April 21 is the date on which it is scheduled, and it will be held in the Penniman-Allen theater. Tickets may be purchased at the meeting on April 1, or from any of the new members of the club.

Roll Call Dinner Planned for K of P

On Thursday evening, March 17, 75 members and friends of Plymouth Lodge No. 238 Knights of Pythias gathered in their Castle Hall for the annual roll call dinner.

The assembly was called to order by Chancellor Commander Harold Yakley, with Past Chancellor Russell Bingley acting as toastmaster.

Following the roll call Past Chancellor James Gotch gave a very interesting talk as speaker of the evening.

C. V. Sparks entertained with a program of magic, sketches in chalk, and wholesome bits of poem and prose. Charles Miller led the group in singing with Mrs. Charles Thorne accompanying at the piano.

Vaccination to be Set Up Nearby

The first in a series of vaccination clinics to be held in Livonia township will be in the Clarenceville High school on April 6, and in Livonia Center school on March 30.

This will provide an opportunity for all children between the ages of six months to ten years to be protected against smallpox, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus. The new combined vaccine which gives protection from the three diseases, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus will be used (smallpox vaccination will be done separately). This combined vaccine can be used both as a single booster dose to reinforce any whooping cough vaccine or diphtheria or tetanus toxoid the child may have had previously or it may be given in a series of two or three shots to provide protection for those who have had no immunization or only partial immunization. In other words no harm is done in giving this combined vaccine regardless of what "shots" if any have been given previously.

The complete schedule for the clinics is as follows: Livonia Center school at 9:30 a.m. on March 30, April 27 and May 25; and in the Clarenceville school at 9:30 a.m. on April 6, May 4 and June 1. The immunization will be done by Dr. L. M. Hotchkiss. There will be a charge to cover the cost of the vaccine and other services which cannot be provided by the county.

Girl Scouts Hold Vesper Service

Girl Scouts and Brownies from all troops throughout the city joined for a reverent observance of the organization's birthday on Sunday, March 20.

The annual vesper service, which was in commemoration of the Girl Scout March 12 birthday, was held in the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

The main address was given by Mrs. Frederick Poole who spoke on "International Friendship."

Representatives of each troop attending also took part in the remainder of the program.

Houser to Direct Sunday Concert

(Continued from page 1) February concert, will also appear on the Methodist church choir program. Now a member of the University of Michigan faculty, she has appeared with many outstanding organizations in the East and Middle West.

Mr. Houser, who is director-organist, has studied with Carl Weinrich, Charles Peaker, Marshall Bidwell, Eleanor Taylor, and at present with Josef Schnelker. He was assistant conductor of the Coe college band from 1946 to 1947, and in that capacity he conducted in Orchestra hall, Chicago, of Palm Sunday in 1947.

Thomas Wilson, graduate student at the University of Michigan, will be guest conductor for the evening.

PTA Group Plans Officer Election

Concluding this portion of the program was the showing of two motion pictures by Mrs. Jewell Bell. One was entitled "Winter on the Farm" and the other was "Fun with Blue Gills."

Entertainment was supplied by Mr. Payne's tap dancing class. The Hospitality committee provided name tags at the door, made of appropriate St. Patrick symbols.

Assisting Mrs. O. C. Wood with refreshments were: Mrs. Thelma Jewell, Mrs. Hazel Vincent, Mrs. Bernice Thomas and Mrs. Leo Kowalcik.

Sponge iron produced by the Bureau of Mines during 1947 was used successfully in industrial tests as a scrap substitute in the production of high-quality steel suitable for the manufacture of tools and cutlery.

Donkey Olympics Will Open Tonight

The cast includes all Plymouth men, the fire chief emphasized. Phil Barney, filling the role of Bill Stern, will set the scenes of the various acts, and Robert McAllister, impersonating Ted Husling, will describe each event. In the boxing scene George Schoeneman will attempt to mimic Jack Dempsey and Ward Schultz, Joe Louis.

Judges will be members of the Plymouth and Northville city commission and the city manager. The role of referee will be filled by Loren Goodale, William Ross, Charles Hansell, Helmer Nelson, R. Secord and William Johnson.

The Mail Fetes City Orchestra

During the social hour which followed Monday night's regular rehearsal by the Plymouth Symphony orchestra, The Plymouth Mail provided refreshments for the musicians.

Members of the Symphony Society each week prepare and serve refreshments during this after-rehearsal period. The Plymouth Mail, recognizing the importance of the orchestra in the community, made a recent request for a chance to also take part in this portion of the Symphony Society program.

Mrs. Harry Fischer, president of the Symphony Society, reported that the orchestra members were highly appreciative.

Club Takes Count of Lent Program

(Continued from page 1) Rotary, 40 percent; Hi-12, 58 percent; Lions, 40 percent. No count was taken of the grade schools and high schools that week.

The following week of March 13, 55 percent of the members attending Kiwanis club reported they had attended; no count was taken for either Hi-12 or Rotary clubs; Lions club reported 32 percent. That same week 55 percent of the grade school students in the city attended Sunday School, and 50 percent in the high school attended either church or Sunday School.

Spring to Feature Metallic Yarns

Bright metal yarns woven in cotton fabrics are high fashion for this spring and summer. These fabrics are available in yard goods and moderately priced ready-made garments, reports Emma DuBord, Wayne County Home Demonstration Agent.

This fabric has the advantage of being dressy looking and usable for many purposes and yet being washable. Margaret Hearn, home economist at Michigan State college, advises Plymouth women that the metal threads are made of aluminum foil coated with a plastic on both sides which prevents tarnishing. Lurek is the name of these flat strips of aluminum yarn which are lightweight and may be used as yarns in almost any kind of fabric.

Color is used in the plastic coating to give a gold or copper effect. Clear plastic gives a silver effect. Fabrics using the lurex yarns resemble gingham or chambray and may have different colored yarns in addition to the metal ones. The metal yarns are used to produce crosswise stripes or checked and plaid design. When ironing these new fabrics press carefully with a warm iron as the coating on the aluminum yarns reacts to heat.

Several uses for alum or aluminum sulfate are described by the Bureau of Mines. They include water treatment and clarification, production of baking powder and dyes, and in diluted solutions as a mild astringent and antiseptic for the skin.

Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. —Matthew 19:19

Hope

Grace Noll Crowell

THIS would I hold more precious than fine gold,
This would I keep although all else be lost:
Hope in the heart, that precious, priceless thing,
Hope at any cost.

And God, if its fine luster should be dimmed,
If seemingly through grief it may be spent,
Help me to wait without too much despair,
Too great astonishment.

Let me be patient when my spirit lacks its high exuberance, its shining wealth;
Hope is a matter, often, God, I know Of strength, of health.

Help me to wait until my strength returns,
Help me to climb each difficult high slope,
Always within my heart some golden gleam,
Some quenchless spark of hope.

Lenten Program Saturday Feature

"One Great Hour," a thrilling story of the relief work abroad of the Protestant churches, will be heard on a nation-wide broadcast next Saturday night, March 26.

Next Sunday at the worship services of churches of the participating denominations, a sacrificial offering will be taken to raise ten million dollars in one hour for world relief. The Presbyterian church is participating. The offering will be taken at the First Presbyterian church, First Methodist church, Plymouth, and the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church, at the 11 a.m. services on Sunday, March 27.

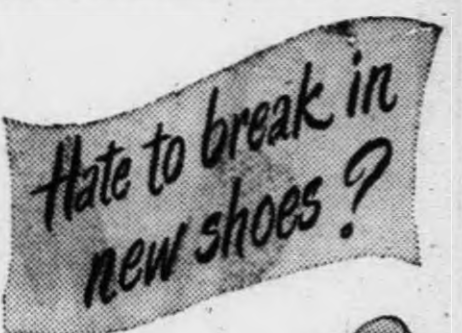

The churches are appealing to their people for this sacrificial offering during Lent because of the great suffering abroad.

As part of this program, the churches are conducting a weekly sacrificial meal observance during Lent. The savings are deposited in a receptacle and the amount saved to date added to the offering next Sunday. The balance will be given on Easter Sunday. All who would like to participate in this work of mercy are invited to contribute.

Sport Shop Opposes Adrian Tonight at Adrian in Class B Cage Finals

Tallying 16 points in the last four minutes of the game, Sport Shop swamped Centerline 57-38 Friday at the Pontiac High school gym in the Michigan Recreation Class B basketball district tournaments.

Sport Shop, winners of the Plymouth Men's league playoffs, plays Adrian in the state tournament tonight at 9 p.m. at the Adrian college gym in Adrian. This evening's winner will meet the Trenton-Ypsilanti victor on Saturday at 3 p.m. The winner will play in the finals on Saturday evening at 8 p.m.

With four minutes remaining, Sport Shop led the Jeromes of Centerline 41-38. Maynard Schmidt netted a two pointer, Bob Bentley sunk a free shot and Charley Sampier hooted a field goal in rapid succession to give the green-clad Plymouth outfit a 46-38 lead at the two minute mark. At that point Centerline seemingly gave up as Glen Simmons netted three field goals, Art Johnson and Sampier each tossed two points through the hoop, and Schmidt accounted for a free shot in the brief two minute period to chalk up a 57-33 victory. In the last four minutes while Sport Shop was on its 16 point spree Centerline was unable to score.

Play was even in the initial quarter with the score being 11-11 at the conclusion of the first stanza. Sport Shop went into a 17-11 lead at the three minute mark, but two quick Centerline baskets brought the score to 17-16. Then the smooth-working Sampier hooted a field goal giving the Shoppers a three point lead which they increased by one by halftime. At the intermission Sport Shop had a 22-18 lead.

Maynard Schmidt tallied the net 15 points for Sport Shop on three field goals and four charity tosses. When Schmidt concluded his ten point effort, Sport Shop was in front 32-26 at the four minute point. Diminutive Bob Bentley sank five points in a row and Glen Simmons added two more tallies while Centerline scored two counters making the scoreboard read Sport Shop 39, Centerline 28 at the beginning of the last quarter.

The fast passing and the adept ball-handling of the Jeromes almost overcame the 11 point lead. The Jeromes rattled in ten points by the half way mark of the quarter as Sampier tallied Plymouth's only basket. At this point Sport Shop led by only three points 41-38; however, a 16 point surge clinched a trip to Adrian for the Shoppers.

Leading Sport Shop to victory was Charley Sampier's 17 points. Maynard Schmidt netted 15 points and Bob Bentley tallied 13 counters to aid the winners cause.

Zack Holmes' lads snowed to good advantage on the large playing space of the Pontiac gym. Several times the guards passed the entire length of the floor to the teammates, who clicked for baskets. Sport Shop displayed the same form which had been evident in their style of play in the past six weeks. After a slow start Sport Shop caught fire to take second place in the league behind First National Bank and they swept through the playoffs without a defeat. The last time Sport Shop lost was on February 3 by a forfeit to First National.

Team 8 Holds Loop Leadership

Team 8 still holds a one point lead over Team 3 in the Lutheran bowling league. The two leaders each rang up one point Friday evening.

To complete the tightness of the league, Team 7 has 57 points, two counters behind the league leaders while Teams 1 and 2 are tied for fifth place with 55 points.

W. Foerster rolled the high game Friday of 218. Ash, Sheere Blunk and Stevens also had 200 games.

Baseball, Softball Managers Asked to Meet for Plans

Baseball and softball managers interested in having teams in Plymouth recreation sponsored leagues this summer are urged to meet with Herb Woolweaver, city recreation director, on special dates in the next two weeks.

The Class E and D managers are asked to meet at the recreation office in the city hall on Tuesday, March 29. The E mentors are slated to convene at the office at 7 p.m. Immediately after this meeting the D coaches will assemble at 8 p.m. Last season the D league functioned with six teams. The loop's winner Wayne, gave a good account of themselves at the state tournaments at Dearborn.

On Monday, March 28, the girls league managers will convene at 7 p.m. with the heads of the men's division assembling at 8 p.m. The Old Timers are scheduled to see Woolweaver at 7 p.m. on Monday, April 4. All these meetings will be held in the recreation office on the second floor in the city hall.

Saturday Boxing Bouts Prove Hit

The first annual boxing show sponsored by the city recreation department was a tremendous hit as evidenced by the capacity crowd that witnessed the matches Saturday evening at the high school.

Deserving a large share of credit for the success of the match is Mike Spitz who acted as referee, promoter and trainer. Others aiding in the bouts were Dr. Frederick E. Bentley, who donated his services; judges, Carroll Warkup and Charles Miller; timekeeper, Floyd Fleming; announcer, Bill Farwell; usher, Tim Coleman; and tickets, Shirlee Hopkins. The refreshments were handled by the varsity club members of the school.

Winners of the bouts were: Bruce Wood over Phil Tobey, Arlan Ottensman over Neal Boyer, Ronald Lee over Wayne Wood, James Freshman over James Carney, Donald Carney over Craig Bachman, David Rank over John Hopper, Robert Cloar over Bobby Micol, Gerry Heil over Burton Shoebridge.

In addition to the above other winners included: Jack Sweeney over Marion Johnston, Bill Micol over Lindy Mills, Ronald Markham over Jerry Jarvis, Donald Fleming over Paul Daoust, Dale Depriest over Dale Houghling, Melvin Sawyer over Bernard Farnwell, Deloss Kew over W. Dewitt, Bill Batterton over Sheldon Fulton, Jim Ruthford over Lou Holstein, Jerry Helmer over Bob Delno, Marion Johnston over Jim Archer.

The following were involved in draws and no-decision bouts: Jack Helmer and Douglas Stevens, Chuck McKenna and Dick Hively, Dick Cram and Jim Wiley, Tom Rutherford and Leslie Frenczi, and Tom Caldwell and Glenn Freeman.

Featuring the evening's entertainment was a wrestling match equal to the exhibitions at the grout and groan places in Detroit. Bob Bruner won two of three falls from Pat Kearney.

And God said, Let there be light; and there was light. —Genesis 1:3

Finney Sparks Plymouth Team

Larry Finney

A few weeks ago the Suburban B cage mentors selected Larry Finney unanimously for a forward position on the all-league squad.

Although Finney played with a last place team, he revealed enough basketball skill to receive this honor. Besides competing in basketball Larry plays football and baseball. On last fall's grid eleven he was a star backfield man and in baseball he is a dependable left fielder. Larry is possessed with a great arm to being a steady hitter. When Finney graduates from high school in June he should be walking out with six letters, three in baseball, two in basketball, and one in football.

City Stars Bow to Jerry Lynch's Last Period Offensive of 28 Points

A long winter grind of basketball payed off for the Jerry Lynch cage all-stars of Detroit. Monday, at the Plymouth High school gym when they downed the Plymouth men's league all-stars 77-50.

Witnessing the encounter was a near capacity crowd. For three quarters the Plymouth stars gave the Wheelberg quintet a tough battle. At the conclusion of the third stanza Jerry Lynch led 49-45. Then the experience of 40 games through the past four months proved the deciding factor as the Lynchers pulled away from Plymouth.

With Hal Kutnick, a product of Wayne university, doing the mainwork, Plymouth soon fell to the onslaughts of the Jerry Lynch stars. The last quarter saw Jerry Lynch score 28 points to the city stars' five counters. In the first three quarters John Sandmann and Sammy Slough featured the city stars attack. Both sank several long shots with ease. At the half Jerry Lynch had a 34-27 margin.

The high man for the evening was Hal Kutnick with 18 points on eight field goals and two free shots. Levitt tallied 16. For the Plymouth stars John Sandmann hooped 13 points, Charley Ketterer netted 11, and Sammy Slough and Mac Pierce each tossed home nine each.

In the preliminary attraction the Oldsmobile girls downed the Highland Park star aggregation by the score of 40-36. The girls played this contest according to girls rules. Street rattled 18 points through the hoop to lead the city girls to their deserved win.

Nothing could go wrong for this group as they ran up a 20-7 score at halftime. The game marked the first time this season that these five have played together. Larry Finney paced the varsity, netting 16 points, while Muskrat Houghton rattled 14 counters through the hoop.

ABC Tournament Slates City Team

The American Bowling Congress tournaments in Atlantic City will include a Plymouth team this weekend.

The local team scheduled to participate is Beglinger Oldsmobile, and the bowlers are slated to roll games both Saturday and Sunday. Members of the team are Lee Butler, Ray Danol, Robert Johnston, Don Lightfoot, Harvey Shaw and Ray Gilder.

Beglinger is the second local team to take part in the ABC tourney. The Fisk Tire bowlers made the trip about a month ago.

Ramblers Drop First Round of Class D Series

Despite the fact that the Ramblers made good on 17 of 20 free shot attempts, they lost a first round game in the Michigan inter-city recreation basketball Class D tournament held in Detroit last week. The game was held at the Lasky Community center.

The Ramblers, winners of the Plymouth Class D league over the Hoofs, lost the game to the Neighborhood club of Detroit by the score of 37-33. The Detroiters had the lead throughout the game.

Setting the pace from the outset, the Wheelberg quintet jumped off to a 13-5 lead at the conclusion of the first quarter. All five of the Ramblers points were via the charity toss route. In the second stanza the Plymouth lads became accustomed to the Lasky Community Center floor, with the result that they climbed to within six points of the Detroiters at the half 22-16. Ed (Hook) Whipple tallied the Ramblers' initial field goal early in the quarter. Hook hit for another two pointer later in the period, as did Ron Hees. By the half the Plymouth outfit had tossed in only three field goals.

The Detroiters maintained their long shot artistry in the second half to hold the lead, although Plymouth made repeated surges to come within three points. By the automatic timeout in the fourth quarter, the Neighborhood boys had built up a 37-28 lead. Then the Ramblers put on a five point rally as Bruce MacGregor sunk a field goal and a free shot and Ron Hees netted another two pointer to make the score read Detroit-37, Plymouth-33. The Motor City courtsters stalled the remaining distance to walk off the court with a victory.

Pacing both squads in the scoring category was Ed Whipple with 14 points on four field goals and six free throws. Ron Hees connected for nine counters.

Wolves, Red Sox Eliminated From Kids Tournament

Proving a stumbling-block to the Wolverines and the Red Sox, winners of the Class E and F cage leagues in the city, were two teams from Dearborn.

The Wolverines, who won their first round encounter from Centerline on Monday, lost to a Dearborn quintet on Wednesday, March 16. The game was played at the Copernicus Junior High school in Hamtramck. Although the Wolverines displayed good form on Monday they lost Wednesday by the score of 31-13. Gary Sockow topped the losers with seven tallies.

On the same evening at Copernicus the Class E cage champions of Plymouth, the Red Sox lost to Dearborn by the close margin of 25-22. The game was close all the way.

Joe's Jottings

A momentous decision comes up before the people of Plymouth Monday in regard to the voting for higher taxes for the purpose of new school buildings. The vote Monday will either make or break the plans for new school buildings and a gym and a swimming pool.

If the vote comes out on the affirmative side it will show to school officials that the taxpayers are behind the plans for building. However, if the vote is negative Plymouth school buildings will remain the sore spot of the city. In the past few months we have mentioned the need for a new gym. A large gym is a necessary item in this modern era of ours while the swimming pool is classed as luxury. These two places, if built, would aid the town immensely. Where can the younger set go for recreation in the city now? The answer is nowhere except the theater, and one can't afford to go to the theater three or four times a week. Otherwise near-by towns are meccas for the teen-agers of Plymouth.

A new gymnasium and a swimming pool would solve the problem. The pool could be used by different groups while more basketball could be played by recreation teams in a new gym. Also a gym is needed for the physical education program, a program which other schools have available throughout the four high school grades. Boys at Plymouth High can take gym only through their freshman year while girls have this course through their sophomore year. Every boy and girl at PHS should be able to take this course through their four years in high school.

As a senior expecting to graduate in June the new buildings will not affect me. The class of 1950 won't even be able to take advantage of these plans, but someday when the gym and the swimming pool come into existence, kids will be able to use these facilities as kids should have been using them in the last ten years.

Some of the people in the town don't know how acute the condition is. Having been a member of the school the past few years we know how bad things are, not only in the gym but also in regard to rooms and halls. More people are moving into the area every day with the result that more children are entering the schools. Plymouth doesn't want third rate buildings and third rate education, but this is bound to come about if something isn't done about the buildings. Remember the building program affects all the people in Plymouth because with a good educational system and adequate buildings the city will be respected.

Shuffleboard is Underway Here

Although the opening of the shuffleboard tournaments was hampered by bad weather, a large crowd of spectators and players was attracted last Wednesday evening.

Several of the teams were unable to make it on opening night, but it was expected that all 18 teams would swing into action last evening, Wednesday.

Fox Club Season Nears Conclusion

The 15th fox gotten this year by the Fox club was bagged during a recent outing which was one of the final of the season.

From fall until spring the club members meet each Sunday morning and roam from one end of this area to the other in search of foxes. At the present time there are 12 members of the organization, an affiliate of the Western Wayne County Conservation association.

Questioned as to the luck of the members compared to previous seasons, President Joe Elliott stated that last year's total number of fox was 12, while the preceding year it reached 23.

The local club was organized four years ago for conservation purposes.

At the present time the club members have temporarily given up their spring search for foxes, and are on the lookout for crows and hawks. Of the former they have gotten 100 and the number of hawks shot numbers 15.

Next Monday the Fox club will honor the Twelve Pointe club at dinner, by virtue of the latter's win in the recent inter-club Euchre tournament.

Carnera Meets Londos April 1

Brute strength versus animal cunning will highlight the heavy weight wrestling match between Primo Carnera and Jim Londos at the Olympia Friday, April 1.

Carnera, 6 ft. 7 in., 275 lbs. Italian giant, will attempt to use his tremendous physical advantages to offset the ring generalship and superior wrestling ability of Londos, the Greek Croesus.

Londos, with a championship belt to back him up, insists he is still the undisputed champion of the world. Carnera, boasting the tacit backing of the Wrestling Promoters Association of America, claims the bauble. The former heavy weight boxing champion-turned-wrestler has not been defeated since he returned to this country from his native Italy in the fall of 1946.

His greatest victory, one that enhanced his title clamor was scored over Gorgeous George at the Olympia last December. While referee Vern Clark disqualified both grapplers, the convincing manner in which Carnera man-handled his tinsel-haired opponent left no doubts with the 9,000 fans as to the better man.

Londos is undaunted by his opponent's size. Among his many victims are Wladyslaw Talon, George Zaharias, Man Mountain Dean, and other gargantuan of the grappling world.

Londos' magnetism as a gate attraction has not been dimmed by the muddled heavyweight wrestling picture that finds a title claimant in all sections of the country. His appearances on the West Coast, where he has confined his artistry the past two years, have always elicited capacity crowds. Whereas California fans have flocked in droves to boo the novelty of Gorgeous George, the same fans pay to watch and applaud Londos' unmatched bag of wrestling holds and ring guile. They still regard him as the master wrestler of this modern age.

Matchmaker Louis Marudas has announced that an all-heavyweight card will support the Carnera-Londos attraction.

The withholding of truth is sometimes worse deception than a direct misstatement.

Brilliant new DE SOTO gets tremendous welcome from public!

Come in and see "The Car Designed With YOU in Mind"

It's BRAND-NEW . . . so new that there aren't many on the streets yet. But already it's a tremendous success. And it's easy enough to see why. Everybody wants a smart, good-looking modern car. But most of us don't want to pay a penalty for being modern. We want more room . . . more comfort . . . more visibility . . . not less.

That's where De Soto scores. It's got those long, low lines. But you don't have to wriggle into it. It has big wide doors. Plenty of headroom, too. The roof won't scrape your hat, no matter where you sit. It's roomier than ever.

It's no use having bigger windows and windshields unless you can see out of them. In the new De Soto you can . . . because you're sitting on chair-high seats. Even a short person can see over the steering wheel. Even a six-footer won't hit his knees on it.

You don't have to enlarge your garage to hold the new De Soto. You can still change a tire yourself. And a dent in the fender doesn't mean an expensive body repair job. Come in and see this wonderful car that lets you drive without shifting. Compare it with any other at any price. Then decide.

Tune in "HIT THE JACKPOT" every Tuesday night, all CBS stations

Drive in Nearby Area Progresses

The drive for Red Cross funds in Livonia township is described by Mrs. Mary McDowell as making "good progress."

Residents who made house-to-house calls in an attempt to put the drive over the $775 goal set for that area were: Mrs. Raymond Bowers, Mrs. Marion Butt, Donald Ryder, Charles Schaffer, George Bentley, Mrs. Lucien Rhoads, Mrs. Douglas Shaw, Mrs. William Horie, Mrs. Farrand Perry, Mrs. Kay Adamson, Mrs. Ned Lingemann and Mrs. Robert Eddy.

Mrs. McDowell, who resides at 9833 Ingram, Plymouth, states that anyone in that area not contacted, may send a check made out to the American Red Cross to her above address.

Mrs. Myron Copley is Guest of Local MOMS

Mrs. Myron B. Copley, national president of the MOMS, was a special guest at a recent meeting of the Plymouth organization.

The national president, who resides in Royal Oak, was accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth D. Foust, national first vice president, of Dearborn.

Retiring Officers to Act as Hosts at Square Dance

Acting in their final official capacity, out-going officers of the Plymouth 49ers Square Dance club will act as hosts at the dance which members have planned for Thursday, March 31, in the high school gymnasium.

Scott Colburn has been named as the caller. The dance will begin at 8:30 p.m., and the evening will be concluded at 11:30 p.m.

Out-going officers who will act as hosts are: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Osgood, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bromann and Mr. and Mrs. James Warren.

The following were elected at the last meeting to serve as officers for the coming year: president, Dr. Elmore Carney; directors, Mrs. Elmore Carney, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Art Whelan. They will begin their duties with the first dance in April.

Amateur Show Entry Deadline is This Saturday

Final plans for the Children's Amateur show on April 2 are now being completed, according to Mrs. Marvin Kleinschmidt, chairman of the program.

All members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary, the sponsoring organization, are now selling tickets. They will also be available at the door.

Mrs. Kleinschmidt has issued a reminder that all children must register for the show by Saturday, March 26. Students may enter the competition by contacting Paul Wagner or Mrs. Donald Johnson.

Children between the ages of five and 13 are eligible to compete.

The next Congress is expected to consider a bill for the abolishment of fish traps used by Alaska Canneries.

To Fellow Citizens of Plymouth

We, the undersigned, who have enjoyed the privilege of attending the Plymouth Public Schools during years gone by and have had the opportunity to judge how valuable this education has been to us, wish to go on record as being heartily in favor of the bond issue necessary to carry out these plans. There is no question about the need — and we have in mind that these youngsters will soon be running our city and country, so let's educate them for the job.

Madonna College Holds Senior Day

The third annual Senior Day at Madonna college was held on Thursday, March 17. Seniors from the high schools of Detroit, to the number of 241 gathered for a day of orientation.

Upon arrival and registration, the senior girls were welcomed by the dean, Sister M. Paula. A brief talk on "Vocations" by Rev. Hector Sauline followed.

During a social hour in the afternoon a pageant depicting various careers for women requiring a college education was portrayed by the Madonna college students, with Miss Joan Kaminski as narrator. Each school group then presented a vocal, musical or terpsichorean number.

After a brief intermission, the guest speaker, Rev. Stanley Borucki, of the Michigan Catholic, emphasized the importance of higher education for women. He stressed the serious obligations that a student has to accept the opportunity for further study, if the parents are willing to make the necessary sacrifices.

The day ended with a tour through the classrooms, labs, library, art rooms, exhibits and residence hall.

Club Invites Local Hikers to Join

Plymouth residents interested in hiking have been invited by the Garden City Unit 27 of the Detroit News Hiking club to take part in the organization's weekly walks.

Next Sunday, March 27, they will meet as usual at 2 p.m. at the Rexall Drug store on Ford near Middlebelt. The destination of the hike will be announced at that time. The customary length of the hikes is between two and three hours, Emma Martini, leader, announces.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the hike. The minimum age of all persons taking part in the club's activities is 21. Anyone wishing to secure further details is asked to call Middlebelt 6961.

Lecture Sunday is on Catholic Art

"Symbolism in Catholic Art" is the theme of an illustrated lecture to be given by Dr. A. G. Weimer, at Madonna college on Sunday, March 27, at 7 p.m. in the DeSales auditorium.

The lecture will be helpful to the students and all those visiting the students' chapel and the chapels in the transepts, and chancel where, all the stained glass windows carry symbols of creation, of the angelic choirs, of the mysteries of the rosary, of titles of Our Lady in the Litany of Loretto, of the Eucharist, of the Apostles, of the gifts and fruits of the Holy Ghost, of the works of mercy. The rose windows have symbols of the Blessed Trinity and of the Felician crest respectively.

There will be no admission fee. All interested in art, particularly symbols in art, are welcome.

Dr. Weimer is head of the art department of the University of Detroit and art consultant at Madonna college. Besides teaching he does professional work which includes mural painting, landscape, with probably most emphasis on portraiture. He received his education at the Art Institute of Chicago, University of Notre Dame, Harvard, New York University, and the University of Michigan.

The light of nature, the light of science, and the light of reason, are but as darkness, compared with the divine light which shines only from the word of God. —John R. Lord

Miss McKinney Wears Gown of Chantilly Lace for Nuptial Ceremony

Tall baskets of white snapdragons and daffodils and lighted tapers formed a setting before an archway in the home of her parents, when Leslie Jean McKinney exchanged marriage vows with Robert Sockow at an 8 p.m. ceremony on Saturday, March 19.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinney of Rosedale Gardens, and Mr. Sockow is the son of Mrs. Edna Sockow of Plymouth and John Sockow of Ann Arbor.

The Rev. Woodrow Woolley, pastor of the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church, officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a ballet length gown of orchid Chantilly lace styled with fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar and full skirt.

She carried a nosegay of white roses centered by an orchid. Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Katherine Stone. Mrs. Stone was costumed in a gown of pink Chantilly lace, and carried a nosegay of roses.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Levi Sockow, to be his best man.

Mrs. McKinney, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue dress with accessories of the same color, and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Sockow was attired in a navy blue dress with a pink rose corsage.

Rosedale Gardens clubhouse was the scene of the reception for 150 guests following the wedding. Out of town guests were present from Chicago, Detroit and Flint.

Chicago was the destination Mr. and Mrs. Sockow set when they left for their wedding trip. For traveling Mrs. Sockow chose a brown and gold suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Sockow were graduated from Plymouth High school. Mr. Sockow is a veteran of four years service in the Army Air Force, and at the present time he is employed by the Burroughs Adding Machine company.

On returning from their wedding trip the newly wed couple will reside in their new home on South Main street.

Socially Speaking

With semester examinations over many college students closed their books and said goodbye to the college campus for a spring vacation. A number of those students are arriving in Plymouth to spend the between semesters holiday at the home of their parents.

From Michigan State college Sally Gustafson arrived Friday, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Knut Gustafson of Adams street. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sutherland will welcome home their daughter, Beth, also from Michigan State. Ralph Bachelder of Michigan State is spending the vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bachelder.

Also arriving from Michigan State this weekend will be Bruce and Robert Deyo, who will spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deyo of Church street.

Rosemary Guthrie, a student at Baldwin-Wallace college will arrive by plane tomorrow, Friday, to spend a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Guthrie.

Plymouth also welcomes home its residents who have been spending the winter months in Florida. In this group are Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy C. Jewell, who returned recently after enjoying a five weeks stay in Florida. While there they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark at the trailer park in Bradenton. Mrs. Jewell reported that they enjoyed fishing with Mr. and Mrs. A. R. West during their two weeks' stay in Englewood. One week of the Jewells' vacation was spent at Riviera Beach. On their return home they traveled through Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky and Ohio.

After spending two months at St. Petersburg, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy, Mrs. Fred Geng and daughter, Joy, returned to their home at 38620 Plymouth road last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Clark left Plymouth Sunday morning for Bradenton, Florida, and they will be accompanied to Plymouth by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark, who have been spending the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Scott, who have been vacationing for two weeks in Florida, wrote from St. Petersburg where they are spending ten days and gave an interesting account of their trip thus far. They made the trip down through Ohio, and Mammoth Caves, Bowling Green, Covington, and Louisville in Kentucky, and from there went to Alabama. From Alabama they continued their travels to Panama City. After several days rest in that city they drove to the southern part of Florida and report that sightseeing has taken up a greater part of their stay in Florida.

John Jacobs stopped in The Plymouth Mail office on Monday afternoon to report that he and Mrs. Jacobs returned safely from a pleasant winter's stay in Florida, even though they were involved in a bad accident their first day on the road home.

At Madison, Florida Mr. Jacobs' trailer hitch broke and their trailer turned over, dragging the car into a ditch. Neither were hurt and the car stayed upright; however, the trailer was badly damaged. They commented on the fact that Monday in Plymouth was equally as nice as any day they experienced in sunny Florida during the winter.

On the list of those going out of town this week were Mrs. Henry E. Baker and daughter, Mary Lou and Cynthia, who left Friday for a trip to Richmond, Virginia. While there they will visit with William Baker.

An event of Saturday evening was the dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Jaul Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arlen and Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams.

Co-hosts at bridge on Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Truesdell and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sims of Birmingham. Their guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Carvel Bentley, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Van Ornum, Henry Baker, Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hoheisel, were entertained in the Truesdell home on Lilley road.

One of the most unusual projects of a local organization might be the "Gypsy Basket" which Circle No. Four of the Presbyterian church is carrying on. Leaders of the project are Mrs. Claude Rucker, Mrs. Harold Shirey, Mrs. Austin Stecker, and Mrs. Edwin Schrader. Members of the unit are taken a basket containing baked goods or an apron and a canister for a contribution. The member who receives the basket, fills it, adds her contribution, and takes it to someone else on the list. The contributions received by the circle are turned over to the church auxiliary to be donated to the charitable institutions supported by the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Richwine and daughter, Betty Jane, and Miss Margaret Dunning left Wednesday morning for Florida where they will vacation until the first of April.

It is one of the most beautiful compensations of this life, that no man can sincerely try to help another without helping himself.

Beans Make Main Dishes for Two Novel Menus

Legumes, the fruit of the bean family, make hearty main dishes your family will love the taste of, says Alice Petersen. Writing in McCall's for March, she gives Plymouth women two perfectly planned menus, and some recipes:

MENU

- Tomato Sauce
- Mixed Bean Casserole
- Sauerkraut Salad
- Salt Sticks
- Indian Pudding with Ice Cream

- #### MIXED BEAN CASSEROLE
- 1 clove garlic, minced
  - 1 medium onion, chopped
  - 3 tablespoons bacon drippings
  - 2 cups baked beans
  - 2 1/2 cups cooked kidney beans
  - 2 1/2 cups cooked green lima beans
  - 1/2 cup ketchup
  - 3 tablespoons vinegar
  - 1 tablespoon brown sugar
  - 1 teaspoon dry mustard
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Start your oven at 350 F or moderate. Cook garlic and onion in bacon drippings in a heavy frying pan until the onion is really limp. Then combine with all the other ingredients, pour into a 2-quart casserole and bake 45 minutes. This is enough for 4 or 6.

Sauerkraut Salad: Slice up a green pepper and a pimiento in thin strips. Mix them in with a pound of 2 cups canned sauerkraut. Serve on a few spinach leaves for decor. Enough for 4.

MENU

- Fruit Juice
- Red Kidney Beans in Wine
- Mixed Green Salad
- Crescent Rolls
- Apple Cheese Betty

RED KIDNEY BEANS IN WINE

- 1 lb. dried kidney beans
- 1/3 cup butter or margarine
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 3 whole cloves
- Few grains thyme
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 cup claret or Burgundy wine
- Few sprigs parsley, chopped
- Wash and soak beans in cold water from 3 to 4 hours. Drain. Place in heavy pan, cover with water, add butter or margarine, onion, cloves, thyme, salt and pepper. Cover and simmer slowly 1 to 1 1/2 hours, stirring frequently. Add wine and cook 15 minutes longer.

Serve in a piping hot dish and sprinkle top with chopped parsley to make it pretty. Plenty for 4 or even 6.

APPLE CHEESE BETTY

- 3 cups toasted bread crumbs
- 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
- 3 large tart apples
- 3/4 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- Rind of 1/2 lemon
- Juice of 1/2 lemon
- 2/3 cup hot water

Start your oven at 350 F or moderate. Mix crumbs with butter or margarine. Place about a third in bottom of greased baking dish. Pare apples, core and slice thin. Put half the apple slices on top of crumbs. Sprinkle with sugar, nutmeg, cinnamon, rind and half the lemon juice. Repeat, ending with toasted crumbs. Pour water over it all and bake 45 minutes. Cool slightly. Serve with whipped cream sprinkled with grated American Cheddar cheese. Serves 4.

Frozen Cake Makes Thrifty Use of Freezer

If you have unused space in your home freezer, why not use it for storing baked products—cake for instance. Cake can be successfully frozen either before or after baking. Chief advantage of freezing baked products is the time and energy you save by making several at one time. Then, too, you're always prepared for unexpected company and busy day meals. Mary Katherine Knight, frozen food researcher at Michigan State college, suggests to Plymouth homemakers.

Butter and sponge types of cakes generally are more successful when frozen after baking. Frozen unbaked cakes have a much shorter storage life. Whether you freeze the batter or the baked cake you should package it in moisture-vapor-proof material. Placing the cake in a box after freezing helps protect it. Unbaked batter may be frozen in two ways—in a cardboard freezer carton or in a baking pan. If you use a carton, select a type easily filled and emptied. When ready to use, thaw the batter just enough to remove it from the carton. Transfer it to the baking pan to finish thawing.

If you freeze the batter in a pan, wrap the pan and batter in cellophane. Heat and seal it and freeze immediately. Thaw the batter before baking to avoid humps. Bake the batter as soon as it is thawed.

Thaw frozen baked cakes at room temperature in the package for one and one-half hours. If you want the cake frosted before freezing, butter frosting is best. You may prefer frosting your cake after removing it from the freezer.

COZY SHORT-RIB DINNER

Juicy beef short ribs can take the place of corned beef in a cozy New England dinner. Brown the cubes of meat first in added fat, if necessary, then cover with liquid and cook until tender, about 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 hours. Near the end of the cooking time, add cabbage wedges and carrots and cook until tender. Serve the meat and vegetables on a platter, reserving the good meat gravy to pour over them.

SHORT RIBS WITH VEGETABLES

- 2 pounds beef short ribs
- 1/4 cup flour
- 3 tablespoons lard or drippings
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/4 cup diced onion
- 1 cup diced carrots
- 1 cup diced potatoes
- 6 stalks celery, cut in 1 inch pieces

Dredge short ribs with flour and brown in hot lard or drippings. Season. Add water; cover and simmer 1 hour, or until meat is nearly tender. Add vegetables and cook until tender. Place meat on hot platter. Remove excess fat from the liquid and vegetables. Make a flour paste and thicken liquid for gravy. Six servings.

"Spring Look" Combines Many New Fashion Trends

The spring look is made up of a number of different style trends—a slightly shorter skirt, slimmer lines, giant pockets, shantung, the plunging neckline and the ensemble, among others. In McCall's for March, Marian Corey tells Plymouth women about these changes in the fashion picture for spring:

"The spring look is a blue look: navy, royal, medium, light blue, pale blue, ice blue, turquoise, peacock, and any other blue that you can think of. It is a shorter skirt look. Maybe an inch. If you wear your skirts at 12 inches from the floor and that suits you and looks right in your long mirror, stay that way. If it feels drabby, change to 13. "The spring look is a slim skirt look. Slim for suits, day dresses, some soft dresses. Even skirts with back fullness manage to look slender. Evening gowns and young clothes are the exceptions. Shoulders will have a more natural look. When we say natural we are visualizing beautifully shaped natural shoulders. If yours don't make the grade, continue with pads—thin pads. "The spring look is a suit look. This spring is apt to be a navy gabardine suit look. Any suit at all, whether tailored or soft. It is also an ensemble look. A princess coat in wool, a printed dress to match, or a redingote ensemble.

"The spring look is a printed dress look. It is a big polka-dot spring. The plunging neckline and the bare neck will be prominent. The "prunger" is usually accompanied by a narrow shawl collar which flukes it seem sharper and deeper than it is. The wide-open neck will soon be everywhere. "The spring look is the shantung look. Silk shantung and rayon shantung for tailored dresses. It is also the giant pocket look. Oddly enough they do not enlarge the hipline—quite the contrary."

Good Braising Technique Means New Variety

Make this a month to brush up on your braising technique. Remember that braised meats can be always new and different through the use of various liquids and seasoning, so Plymouth cooks need make no apologies for cooking several kinds of meat by the same method. And what's braising? A simple meat cookery method in which the meat may or may not be floured, is browned in its own or added fat, has a small amount (usually 1/4 to 1/2 cup) of liquid added, is covered and cooked slowly until tender—it's the old familiar method used for cooking pot-roasts!

Try braising cuts from all the kinds of meat, suggests Reba Staggs, food expert. Beef offers many cuts for braising. Round, arm and blade steaks are just starters. Flank steaks, short ribs and individual cross-cut shank pot-roasts suggest other good ideas. Remember, too, that many cuts often cooked in liquid to cover also may be braised, such as heel of round and fresh brisket.

Veal pot-roasts from the round also make good braising cuts, and braised cubes of veal form the basis of many tempting dishes. Pork chops and many other small fresh pork cuts are best when cooked by this method. You'll find lamb neck slices, riblets, and breast cuts favorites when cooked this way, too.

Canned Meats Cited Suitable for Everyday Meals

Take time right now to survey that certain shelf you save for packaged items. If its stocks are low, make a list and replenish it the next time you shop.

Rather than save the foods on this shelf exclusively for emergencies, plan some of your meals around them. You'll find this especially easy if you depend on some of the canned meat items. For example, Vienna-style sausage makes hot, hearty potato soup a meal in itself. Just cut the sausages and float the slices, Reba Staggs, home economist, suggests to Plymouthites. Or you might top baked stuffed potatoes with some of the new cocktail-size frankfurters complete with barbecue sauce.

Roast beef, stews and pot-roasts even come in cans nowadays, and think of the time you can save yourself by serving them. Meat balls and gravy, perfect for serving over rice, are another good choice.

When guests come and your shelf does become an "emergency" shelf, fold deviled ham into a soufflé to serve with a tossed salad. This meat with some of the other canned meat spreads, such as potted meat or liver spread, is an excellent base for a sandwich spread.

Successful Parenthood

MRS. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

ONE of the earliest sources of conflict between a mother and her child is the afternoon nap. Some mothers are so harassed by daily battles with their three or four-year-old that they give up and decide that perhaps, after all, the child no longer needs a mid-day rest. This is contrary to all expert opinion. Even if the child doesn't sleep, until he is six he needs a daytime rest period. Children in nursery schools accept naptime as a regular part of the day's schedule. Naturally, the fact that all the children nap makes it easier for the rebellious one to go along. But even at home alone with her child, a mother can build a taken-for-granted attitude toward an after-lunch rest period that makes it acceptable to a youngster.

If you think it isn't worth the struggle, take a close look at some of the four and five-year-olds who have graduated prematurely from nap taking. By evening they are shrill of voice and too bright-eyed or so droopy with weariness that they don't want their suppers. For Father's sake, as well as the child's, it is eminently worth while to preserve some of a child's freshness and enthusiasm for an evening visit with the parent whom they haven't seen all day.

Of course, you can't make a child go to sleep in the middle of the day. But you can make undressing and playing quietly in a darkened room as much a habit as eating meals or going to bed at night.

No two children respond to exactly the same soothing aids, but you can soon discover what surroundings are most apt to lull your child into sleep, or at least into a quiet mood. Children love ritual, and each family can establish its own. For example, suppose your three-year-old objects to night clothes for his nap. All right, compromise by taking off shoes and outer garments and donning a bath robe kept especially for daytime rest. Perhaps a summer beachrobe of cotton cloth, associated with lazy hours on the sand, could be carried through the year as a garment to be put on after lunch for a rest period.

One of the best ways to keep naps a part of your child's day is to allow occasional exceptions when something comes along of special interest to the child. Recently I spent a week-end with friends whose children are four and six. The day of my arrival the children accompanied their parents to the train to meet me. Then, after lunch we all went for a drive to show me some of the sights of their city, which I had never visited before. In this way, the guest was made the children's as well as their parents. By supertime they were both half asleep, but they had had a happy and important day. The next afternoon there was no question about naps—they were ready and willing to go to sleep while their mother and I called on some friends

Red Cross Nutrition Aids

Carrots and dry onions are still heading the list of vegetables in the market as far as plentiful supplies are concerned. Thrifty Plymouth homemakers have been using them in their menus for quite a long time, and if they expect to keep on taking advantage of their low prices it will be well to plan as many changes as possible in their flavor and appearance.

Both carrots and onions are delightful additions to salads which are so appealing at this time of year. Add them to almost any combination of greens for pleasing flavor and color contrast.

In many homes carrot sticks appear on the table at almost every lunch and dinner. This may lead to boredom and the family will really eat more if they are offered less frequently. When they are served make sure they're crisp and crunchy by keeping them in the hydrator or wrapped in a damp towel in the refrigerator until it's time to slice and serve them.

Vegetable, macaroni and most meat salads are uninteresting without onion for flavor and this pungent vegetable is often used as a main ingredient too. Try it thinly sliced, combined with sliced beets, eggs, or a combination of the two. It's a good partner for sliced oranges as well.

Aside from enjoyment, carrots make an important contribution of Vitamin A to our diets, according to the Nutrition Service of the American Red Cross. Onions aren't as valuable from the standpoint of food value, but by making things taste better they can help to raise the intake of what we need to keep us well.

Here are a few recipes for giving a new look to these familiar vegetables.

CARROT ROLLS

One and one-half pounds round steak, salt, pepper, flour, 6 whole carrots, 2 tablespoons fat, 1 small can mushrooms with liquid, 6 whole onions, 6 whole potatoes.

Cut steak in pieces to wrap around whole carrots. Season with salt and pepper and dip into flour. Wrap piece of steak around each carrot and fasten with skewer or toothpicks. Heat fat in skillet, add carrot rolls and cook until brown on one side. Turn, add mushrooms with liquid, peeled onions and potatoes. Cover pan closely. Bring to boil over high heat, then reduce heat to low and cook for about 1 hour or until vegetables and meat are tender. Serves 6.

CRUSTY CARROTS

Cut large carrots in halves cross wise and cook in boiling salted water until tender. Drain well. Dip carrots in mayonnaise and roll in quick-cooking oatmeal. Brown slowly in margarine or butter.

ONIONS IN CHEESE SAUCE

Six large white onions, 4 tablespoons table fat, 4 tablespoons flour, salt and pepper, 2 cups milk, 1/2 cup or more grated cheese, 4 tablespoons table fat, 1 cup dry bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon paprika.

Peel onions and cook in boiling salted water until almost tender. Drain. Cut in halves and place in greased shallow baking dish. Make a cream sauce of first amount of fat, the flour and milk. When smooth and boiling remove from heat, add salt and pepper to taste and the grated cheese, using up to 1 cup if mild. Stir until cheese has melted. Pour over onions in dish. Cover with crumbs mixed with second amount of fat, melted, and the paprika. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees F., until crumbs are well browned and sauce is bubbling—about 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

GLAZED ONIONS

Twelve medium sized or six large onions, 2 tablespoons table fat, 1/2 cup water, 1 tablespoon sugar, salt and pepper, 1 tablespoon flour.

Wash and peel onions. If large onions are used cut in halves. Melt fat in frying pan, add onions, water and sugar, season with salt and pepper, and simmer gently for about 15 minutes, or until tender. Mix flour to smooth paste with small amount of cold water and add to onions. Cover and bake in moderately hot oven, 375 degrees F., for 20 minutes. Makes 5 servings.

GRAPEFRUIT AND CARROT SALAD

One package lemon-flavored gelatin, 1 cup hot water, 1/2 cup grapefruit juice, 1/4 cup vinegar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 cups grated raw carrot, 1/2 cup chopped grapefruit pulp.

Pare grapefruit and remove segments from membrane, catching the juice. Add hot water to gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add grapefruit juice and vinegar. Chill until lightly thickened. Add remaining ingredients. Pour into cold, wet mold and chill until firm. Serve on salad greens with either French dressing or mayonnaise. Makes 8 servings.

PEANUT CARROT SALAD

Two cups grated raw carrot, 1 cup chopped peanuts, 1 tablespoon grated onion, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, salad greens, tomato wedges.

Combine carrots, peanuts, onion, salt and mayonnaise. Serve on greens garnished with tomato wedges. Serve 6.

"EASY DOES IT"

By HELEN HALE

FIBER porch rugs will give longer and more satisfactory wear if they are coated with clear shellac before using. Repeat the coating each year before using. Adhesive tape may be readily removed with nail polish remover or cleaning fluid. If using the latter, make certain you are away from flame and fire as well as escaping gas. To avoid polishing decorative copper pieces, have them sprayed with clear lacquer. To remove rust from garden furniture and other wrought iron pieces, rub with coarse sandpaper, steel wool or an emery cloth. If the rust is heavy, cook in oil, but remove oil before cleaning.

When starching curtains, dip all curtains for a window in the starch at the same time so they will all have the same amount of starch. If bureau drawers stick, rub soap or wax on the sides and bottoms so they will slip in and out easily. Glue stains are removed simply from washable articles if they are sponged with warm water applied with a soft brush. Repeat the treatment. If cleaning materials are kept in a cart with a handle or in a toy wagon, they will be easier to move around on cleaning day. This will also keep everything assembled efficiently. When carpet sweeper brushes become clogged with thread and pieces of string, run a scissors lengthwise between the bristles and cut the threads off. Brush out the cut pieces. An old polishing cloth kept in a glass jar with a cover will keep in good condition and will not stain other articles. Bread should be kept in cool, ventilated boxes for best storage. Refrigerate in the summer time.

CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY

Members of the Western Wayne County Conservation Association recall well a visit made to the club a year or so ago by Harry Ruhl, chief of the game division of the Michigan Conservation Department. He talked much of game control and problems.

Now he comes forth with information that will be interesting to farmers in various parts of the state where they have been bothered with deer nibbling on fruit trees and growing crops. Farmers, he says, soon will be able to purchase a new deer repellent which has been tested by the state of Maine and found effective under certain conditions.

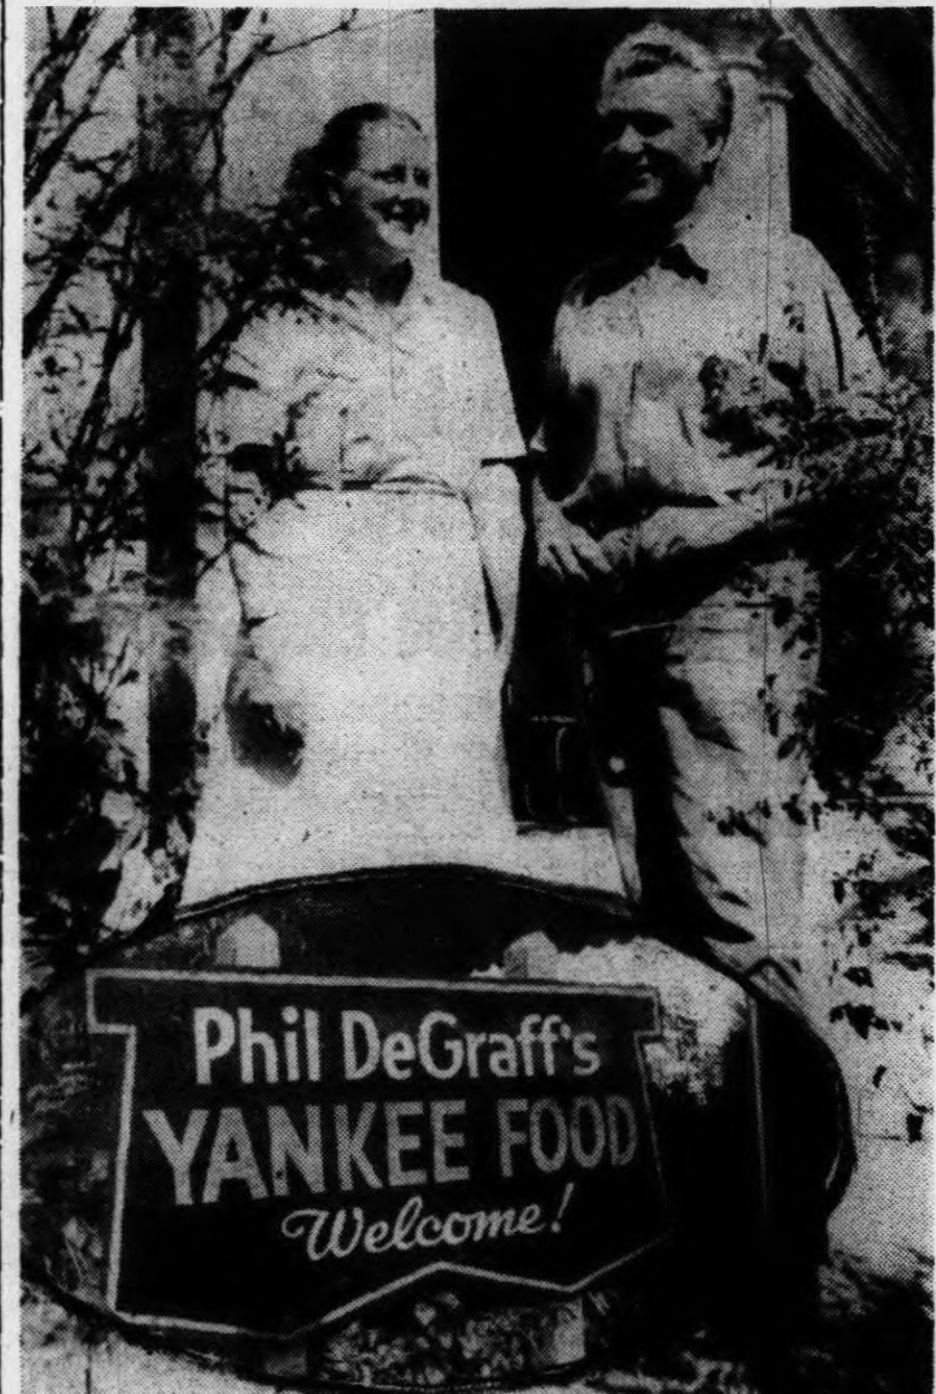

Compounded by a former Michigan conservation department biologist, Luther Baumbartner, the repellent, when eaten by the deer apparently causes throat discomfort. Manufactured by the chemical division of one of the large rubber companies, the deer repellent is expected to be offered by orchard and farm supply stores at a price comparable with regular orchard sprays.

"He's so tough he can eat nails" declared Editor Al Weber of Cheboygan a few months ago while talking about an old-timer up north. Apparently not only does life in northern Michigan make men so tough they can eat nails and get away with it, but fish can do the same thing, and "live to tell the story."

The Michigan Conservation department is authority for a report which says that 13 finishing nails have been recovered from the stomach of a lake trout which was taken in Glen Lake, Leelanau county. The two-inch nails appear to have been affected by the digestive juices in the trout's stomach. All fish are well supplied with hydrochloric acid which helps them in the digestive process. The department's fish division has several records of hooks and other metal objects being digested in the stomachs of fish.

While nails are sometimes used to sink minnow bait, Hoard believes that in this instance a shanty fisherman had dropped a bag of nails which this particular trout had swallowed, possibly in one gulp.

Northern Michigan Resort Owner Makes "The South" Like Yankee Food

Mr. and Mrs. Phil DeGraff PLYMAIL PHOTO

Upper Peninsula Trout Lake resort owner who invaded "deep south" with "Yankee food" and got away with it during past winter. Above pictures of Mr. and Mrs. DeGraff and the sign in front of Miami hotel where he operated were taken early in February.

"Yankee foods" served right in the heart of Dixieland—a big sign in front of the hotel, sticking out like a sore thumb, advertising the fact, too, caused eyebrows to rise this winter in Florida.

With the same sort of Yankee nerve that drove General Sherman from "Atlanta to the sea" when he marched his Yankee troops through Georgia, Phil DeGraff of Upper Peninsula-Trout Lake fame, invaded Florida last winter with "Yankee food" and made them like it.

Dixiecrats, Democrats, Mizouricrats or Holyerats held no fears for northern Michigan's prominent summer resort operator when he decided to spend the winter in Florida operating the dining room of a well known Miami hotel which he leased for the winter months, and where he served strictly "Yankee food."

The story is a brief one. Phil grew tired of spending the long winter shoveling snowbanks from around the clubhouse and cottages at his Trout Lake resort and decided to spend the winter where summer breezes blow in January. As you know, Trout lake is located some 30 miles north of St. Ignace, not so far from "Elmer's Place" at Brimley, which is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wieland, formerly of Plymouth.

With Mrs. DeGraff, a former South Haven girl, he went south early in the winter and took over the operation of the dining room of a hotel where he had spent much of his time when serving in Uncle Sam's navy during the war.

He served for breakfasts his popular "blueberry pancakes" and for dinner, roast beef, roasted just as any real Yankee would like it—with "Yankee" fried chicken that was as tender as a northern Michigan brook trout.

His "Yankee food" sign survived the entire winter without having been shot to pieces or splattered with Dixiecrat brickbats. Phil really captured the southlands without firing a single shot. He won them over by feeding 'em good "Yankee" food. Next winter he may point his "shootin' irons" at President Truman's winter hang-out way down where some Holyocrat or Dixiecrat jumped into the ocean before he heard about Phil DeGraff's "Yankee food."

Fruit Growers Asked to Aid in Control Program

Brown rot, which causes great loss to Michigan's three million bushel peach crop annually, is the target for a wide-spread Michigan campaign this spring and summer. Plymouth fruit growers are being asked to cooperate in a control program which it is hoped may eliminate some causes of this fungus disease.

Growers are not often aware of the extent of brown rot in their crop. MSC specialists say that much of it occurs after the fruit is marketed and before buyers consume or can the peaches.

The fungus that causes infection from one season to the next is carried over through mummies on the ground or tree and in twig cankers on the trees.

At blossoming time, the open blossoms are infected by spores coming from the mummies and cankers. Blighted blossoms fail to form fruit but carry spores which often infect fruit at time of ripening.

Warm temperatures, accompanied by rainy, humid weather, favors rapid growth of brown rot spores. Specialists warn that two applications of lime sulfur should be used where brown rot is a problem. The first one should come at the time of balloon pink and the second when 25 percent of the blossoms are open. Additional sprays or dusts may be necessary during the bloom period if the weather is rainy and humid.

Although emphasis soon will be placed on blossom sprays, the Michigan State college fruit authorities recommend these good sanitary practices:

1. Pick up dropped peaches at harvest time. This is good orchard practice.
2. Remove all mummies from the trees and cut out cankers during winter pruning.
3. In pruning, branches should be thinned to admit sunlight for quick drying and make it possible to penetrate the trees with spray material.
4. Disk the soil around the trees to bury infected mummies before fruit buds start to swell in the spring. This will reduce the infection.

Honesty of thought and speech and written word is a jewel, and they who curb prejudice and seek honorably to know and speak the truth are the only builders of a better life.

Next Sunday, March 23, 1924, will mark a most important epoch in the history of the Evangelical Lutheran St. Peter's church of Plymouth, the occasion being the dedication services of the newly remodeled and enlarged church edifice. For the past several months the church has been undergoing some extensive additions and improvements, which are now completed, and the building ready for occupancy again.

The Plymouth Chamber of Commerce has completed plans for the erection of an information booth, to be located on Main street, in the space between the pavement and the sidewalk, near the drinking fountain in front of Kellogg park. This will be a most slightly and convenient location for a booth of this kind, and that it will be a great help and convenience to the stranger in our city, there is not a doubt, and will be something that will advertise Plymouth and our progressive and up and doing Chamber of Commerce far and wide.

For the last year there has been a great discussion in and around Plymouth concerning the probable route of the new concrete road through Plymouth. Realizing that it would be of great benefit to Plymouth, the Chamber of Commerce and the village got together and decided to unite in recommending the old Plymouth road and Ann Arbor street from the Main street corner west as the preferred route through Plymouth.

Miss Louise Steinhebel spent the weekend with her aunt, Mrs. James Nairn, in Plymouth. Arch Herrick and family moved back on their farm last Saturday.

D. M. Berdan and Harry Lush left yesterday for Shreveport, Louisiana, on a business trip. A blaze on the roof of the house known as the Lyon property on Main street called out the fire department Wednesday forenoon. The damage was slight.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Gates were entertained at the home of Manna Blunk Sunday.

Mrs. Mark Joy visited relatives in Detroit last week Wednesday.

Mrs. Albert Stevens and daughter, Mrs. Ross Gates of Plymouth spent last week Thursday with Mrs. Edgar Stevens.

Our city manager, Mr. Strong, visited Miss Hayes civics class last week, and gave them an interesting talk on the government of Plymouth.

Mrs. Emerson Woods and daughter, Vera, spent Sunday with relatives in Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Clark of Highland Park took Sunday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Woods.

Miss Grace Stowe of Detroit, spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. G. A. Smith.

The Leap Year Bridge club was entertained by Mrs. R. O. Mimmaek and Mrs. E. O. Huston at the home of the former, last week Thursday afternoon.

The Pere Marquette R. R. company has had the office building, that has been used in the north yards, moved to the diamond, where it is being used as a telegraph dispatchers' office.

Mrs. Herald Hamill and daughter, Jean of Ann Arbor, were Saturday visitors at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Charles Bo-vee, and were over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green.

10 Years Ago

Another important announcement that means much to Plymouth was made this week when Blunk Brothers made known the fact that their dry goods and ready-to-wear department store had been sold to William Taylor and John Blyton. The latter has been in charge of the department during the last three years.

Russell A. Kirkpatrick, for the last four years a member of the Plymouth district board of education, was elected treasurer of the board Monday night at a special meeting. He succeeds George Burr.

A hobby show committee of seven was chosen by the Civic committee at its meeting Monday evening. Glenn Jewell was named chairman for this group, which includes Lisle Alexander, Mrs. Leo Crane, Mrs. Robyn Merriam, Mrs. Russell Daane, Marvin Partridge and Margaret Buzzard.

Mrs. Miller Ross has been ill the last three weeks in her home on Ann Arbor road.

Mrs. Tom Moss entertained several guests at a luncheon on Thursday.

Young business men of Plymouth are invited to attend the meeting to be held in the Mayflower hotel next Wednesday evening, to discuss organization plans for a local Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Employees of the Purity Market enjoyed their annual corned beef and cabbage dinner last Saturday noon at the store. The employees consumed over 11 pounds of corned beef, which was prepared by Mrs. Fred Schaufly.

Elmore L. Carney, son of Mrs. Ira Carney of Port Huron and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Draper of this city, will graduate today, Friday, from the Northern Illinois College of Optometry.

Mary Ann Witwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Witwer, has been very ill last week, with throat infection. She was taken to Ford hospital Saturday for treatment and observation, but returned home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ralph Miller attended the Nino Martini concert in the Masonic Temple, Detroit, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Clifford Tait will entertain the Thursday evening contract bridge group, March 30, in her home on Northville road.

Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Hoenecke spent Sunday and Monday with the former's parents, Professor and Mrs. Hoenecke in Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor will entertain their dinner bridge group of Northville friends, Saturday in their home on Sunset avenue. The guests will include: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coolman, Mr. and Mrs. Del Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Masters.

Mrs. John L. Olsaver will entertain her contract bridge group Tuesday at a luncheon and bridge.

Leone and Rose Niedospal, Charlotte Jolliffe, Jean Anderson, Don Mielbeck, Don McDonnell, Bill Thams, Shirley Sorensen, Jack Ross, Dorothy Ebersole and Tom Campion saw Kay Kyser and his College of Musical Knowledge at the Fox theater last weekend.

Dorothy Bohl, Ivan Packard, Bettie Knowles, Jean Anderson, Maxine Willard, Keith Jolliffe and Barbara Olsaver followed the high school orchestra, The Hi-Steppers, to Northville Friday night to attend the junior class St. Patrick's day dance.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Bake returned Thursday from a vacation in the Southland, spending most of their time in Biloxi, Mississippi. They also visited the famous Bellingrath Gardens near Mobile, Alabama. Mr. Bake had the distinct pleasure of playing a game of golf with Walter Hagen on the Mobile golf course.

Of the Qualified Electors of Plymouth Township School District, Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan

To the Qualified Electors of Said School District:

Please Take Notice that a special election of the qualified electors of said School District will be held in the high school building in the City of Plymouth in said District on the 28th day of March, 1949, for the purpose of submitting the following propositions:

- I. Shall Plymouth Township School District, Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan, borrow the sum of One Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($1,350,000) and issue its bonds therefor, for the purpose of erecting and furnishing two additional elementary schoolhouses and a gymnasium building, of remodeling the existing school buildings, and of acquiring sites for the gymnasium building and for one elementary school in said District?
- II. Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be assessed against all property in Plymouth Township School District, Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan for all purposes, except taxes levied for the payment of interest and principal on obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1923, be increased, as provided by Section 21, Article X of the Constitution of Michigan, by eight-tenths of one per cent (0.8%) of the assessed valuation of all property in the School District for a period of twenty (20) years from 1949 to 1968, both inclusive, for the sole purpose of providing a debt retirement fund to pay the principal and interest on bonds of the School District in the principal amount of One Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($1,350,000) to be issued, if approved by the qualified electors of the School District, for the purpose of erecting and furnishing two additional elementary schoolhouses and a gymnasium building, of remodeling the existing school buildings, and of acquiring sites for the gymnasium building and for one elementary school?

Each person voting on the proposition of borrowing and issuing the bonds of said School District must be a citizen of the United States, over 21 years of age, a resident of the state for 6 months and of the School District 20 days prior to the date of the election, and the owner of property assessed for taxes within the School District or the lawful husband or wife of such owner.

Each person voting on the proposition to increase the tax rate limitation must be a citizen of the United States, over 21 years of age and a resident of the state for 6 months and of the School District 20 days prior to the date of the election.

I, Harold E. Stoll, County Treasurer of Wayne County, Michigan, do hereby certify that, as of March 10, 1949, there is NO VOTED INCREASE in excess of the Constitutional fifteen mill tax rate limitation affecting the taxable property of Local Unit:

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP SCHOOL DISTRICT
Plymouth, Canton and Northville
Townships and Plymouth City
Wayne County, Michigan
(s) HAROLD E. STOLL,
Wayne County Treasurer

The polls will open at 7:00 o'clock, A.M., and close at 8:00 o'clock, P.M., Eastern Standard Time, on said 28th day of March, 1949.

Take Notice that the Board of Education has estimated the total expense of erecting and furnishing two additional elementary schoolhouses and a gymnasium building, of remodeling the existing school buildings, and of acquiring sites for the gymnasium building and for one elementary school, in the District to be One Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($1,350,000); all of which it is necessary to raise by borrowing and issuing the bonds of the District.

This Notice is given by order of the Board of Education of Plymouth Township School District, Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan.

(s) Marian B. Morrow
Secretary, Board of Education

THE JOY OF FORGIVING
IF YOU can forgive an injury, great or small, you have a beautiful nature. I mean actually forgive, not merely humble yourself. We may not be saintly enough to love our enemies, but for the sake of our own health and happiness, we should at least forgive and forget. And we can't forget unless we forgive, and the other way around.
The late William Lyon Phelps, the most popular professor in Yale's history, sold himself on forgiving his enemies by declaring that he was not going to let his enemies determine whether or not he should be happy. He said:
D. Carnegie "I do not intend to let other people, especially those who do not like me, determine whether I shall have peace of mind or not. If someone reports to you a malicious word, and in consequence of that you become unhappy, you have allowed another person to hold the key to your heart, to settle whether you shall be happy or not. I insist upon determining that question for myself, and you should do the same for yourself."

England's celebrated prime minister, Disraeli, ignored the vicious attacks made upon him by John Leech, the cartoonist — attacks that continued for 30 years, ridiculing Disraeli as a monkey and a clown, "a village seducer." But years later, when Disraeli learned that the children of John Leech were in desperate need, he obtained a pension for them.
Also, Disraeli bestowed the highest honor within his power on Thomas Carlyle — the same Carlyle who had once cried out in print: "How long will John Bull suffer this absurd monkey to dance on his chest?"
One of Disraeli's friends protested against his rewarding calumny with charity and honors. Disraeli replied, "I never trouble to be avenged. When a man injures me, I write his name on a card and lock the card up in a drawer. Later I take it out and marvel at how many men who have tried to injure me have the knack of disappearing."
Don't you find these stories of great men conquering common weaknesses inspirational? I do, for they set me to thinking of noble traits.

School News

Band to Attend Music Festival

Among the 54 organizations attending the district music festival, at the Ypsilanti Normal college on March 26 will be the Plymouth High school band.

Some of the organizations participating are: Belleville, Wayne, Roseville, Milford, Oxford, Ypsilanti, Birmingham, Romeo and Walled Lake. Leaving sharply at 7:45 from the school the band is scheduled to play at 9 a.m. One bus will return at noon, while the other bus will return later in the evening.

A new rule concerning the entries for the state contest will be in effect for the contest on April 23. This rule limits the contest only to bands who have a one rating at the district contest.

A concert by the Plymouth High school band, with Ronald Witt as the featured soloist, will be presented in the high school auditorium on the evening of April 14, after the contest is over.

Red Cross Group Sponsors Drive

The Junior Red Cross, working in cooperation with the American Red Cross, sponsored the yearly drive in PHS. This year contributions were made by students in the first hour classes. Besides the money received from students, the Teacher's club sent its annual check.

During the year, the Junior Red Cross has made scrapbooks of cross-word puzzles, colorful pictures and Christmas cards for hospitals in the surrounding vicinity. Now they are making fancy nateups for Easter favors, at the Maybury sanatorium.

Pierce, Students Go To Conference

Tuesday, March 15, five students and Cyrus Pierce, principal, attended a Principal-Freshman conference at Mt. Pleasant at Central Michigan college.

The purpose of this meeting was to acquaint the high school principals with current problems in college life so they will be able to prepare their high school seniors to cope with these problems.

Those seniors who attended were: Jack Scheel, Neil Fisher, Patricia Granger, Jeanine Stillwagon and Lois Packard.

Dance Pictures Snapped by Club

Mike Kleinschmidt's orchestra provided the music for the junior class dance which was held Friday night, March 18.

A special feature was supplied by the Photography club when students were given the opportunity to have their pictures taken at a dime apiece.

The money raised by the club from the sale of the pictures will be used for the prizes that will be given to the winners of the all school Photography contest, which will be held in the near future.

Annual Magazine Sale is Scheduled

April 1 will mark the beginning of the Plymouth High school magazine sale. The program will be carried on through home rooms which will meet daily until April 11 when the sale will come to a halt.

The secretaries of the home rooms will take charge of this program. The goal has been set at $3,500.

Prizes will be awarded daily for high sales by the student council, but the prizes have not yet been decided upon. An assembly will be held March 31 to encourage the students to reach its quota.

The Art department will have charge of making a large thermometer and posters, which will be placed in the front hall. The publicity will be taken care of by the Pilgrim Prints staff.

Reserve 5 Romp League Team

The reserve basketball team still keeps on winning games even though it is only a noon hour attraction. This time they romped over the city league team by the score of 28-7.

The reserve team was made up of the following: Phil Jacobus, Wally Dzurus, Bud Young, Allen Finney and Charles Stark.

The city league team consisted of: Gary Sockow, Jerry Finnegan, Jack Daggett, James Stevens and David Travis.

Wally (Sheep Dog) Dzurus and Charley Stark paced the fast moving reserves with eight points each.

The varsity team also won a noon hour game against the Class "D" league champions by a score of 46 to 17. Larry Finney and Bob Houghton paced the team with 16 and 14 points respectively.

Leaders' Club Hold Initiation

The Leader's club formal initiation and pot luck supper was held Monday, March 21, in the cafeteria of the high school.

Chairmen for the event were: general chairman, Katie Trucks; pot luck, Jane Pierce; ceremony, Wilma Latture; and invitations, Jean Agosta.

Following the pot luck supper, provided by the old members of the club, a formal candle light ceremony was held.

The 12 new members are: Dorothy Wright, Joyce Forshee, Eleanor Rutherford, Anne Preston, Betty Blow, Thelma Trombley, Carolyn Smith, Joyce Houghton, Betsy Ross, Helena Plummer, Shirley Pine and Phyllis Wikens. They were informally initiated into the club on Monday, March 14.

Cheerleaders Club Sponsors Mix Party

The Cheerleader's club is sponsoring a party for the members of the club and their guests. The party will be held in the near future in the grade school gym.

Refreshments will be served and records will provide the music for dancing and various games are also planned for entertainment. The club consists of 11 varsity and six freshmen cheerleaders.

Ladies Auxiliary Sponsors Contest

"My Part in America's Future" is the theme for the essay contest being sponsored by the local chapter of a ladies auxiliary. The essay is compulsory for the juniors and any senior who wishes, may participate.

The prizes for the contest are: first prize, $10; second prize, $5. The winners of third, fourth and fifth prizes will receive $1 each.

The winning essays of the local contest will be entered in the state and national contest to compete for the national prize of $1,000.

Varsity Club to Have Free Dance

At their last meeting the Varsity club decided to give a free dance to the students of Plymouth High school, on April 8, from 8 to 11 p.m.

The committees are: chaperones, Bill Farwell and Dick Underwood; refreshments, Bob Gow and Jack Elliott; tickets, Fletcher Campbell, Otto Ruehr, Irving Stewart and David Heinzman; floor, John Wiltzie and Dwight Eckler; orchestra, Ronald Bouldin and Douglas Phillips.

 Your Weekly Guide by G. Cardinal LeGros

On Monday, March the 21st, the Sun entered the sign of Aries and Spring began. This first season of the year was considered very sacred by the ancients, and they held solemn ceremonies to commemorate it. Spring was regarded as something more than the rebirth of the year—it was respected as a new cycle for the soul of man.

There is a growing tendency at present to learn more about the spiritual realities behind nature, and many people are beginning to suspect that the four seasons have a profound effect upon human consciousness. Winter with its cold winds drives us indoors where we have greater opportunity to ponder upon the mystery of ourselves and perhaps surmise that our inner reality is more important than the outer unreality. The Christmas-tide awakens a spirit of good will among us and for a few days we behave unselfishly. This is really not because of the Christmas giving; it is more than that. It is a spiritual awakening.

Spring is to the deeper consciousness the greatest birth-time of all. Sometimes without knowing it each one responds to that celestial call throughout all nature. Our intuitions quicken and we feel more at one with the universe about us. The poet reacts strongly to Spring because his sensibilities are usually keener than ours. But every one feels the majestic flow of the great tide of life because we are really at one with the universe about us. All things are interblended and woven together in the grand design. The cycles of the planets are in keeping with the growing of the flowers. Nothing in nature stands apart or alone.

Summer is the season of fruition, of natural expansion and maturity. It is the time of the year when things reach their culmination and fullness. Summer was thought of as the time when mature spiritual man went forth to do his great work in the world—when the Sun entered the psychic Water sign Cancer. It is interesting to note that the sign Cancer is ruled by the Moon, and the Moon has a great deal to do with fertility and the creative side of nature. Women with the Sun or many planets in Cancer are very maternal, expressing this mother-side of life.

Autumn is the time of ingathering, when nature has completed her work for the year and must rest. The poets always write of the sadness of autumn because they react to its spirit of silence and mystery. All things must someday die and pass away, and nature in her infinite perfection reaches this transition-time in September when the Sun goes into Libra. In the sign of Libra the Sun is said to be, astrologically, in her "fall"—which is perhaps the reason why we use that term in connection with autumn. But autumn is in many ways the most beautiful of all seasons because nature covers the year's death with its coat of many colors and we see the future spring mirrored in the sky and the waters.

The great Truth of life stares us in the face all the time. Man is a child of the universe, a pilgrim of the eternal ways. In his deep, complex nature he is a little world containing the elements of everything that is. Nothing is separate from him; he holds the same power that moves the stars. His hopes and dreams are the expression of an infinite longing in the great heart of all. He is an exile from heaven, ever searching for the lost key that will reopen the mysterious doors of a higher reality. And his greatest comfort should be in knowing that the laws of life are so designed that he is helped, every hour, to draw closer to that lost reality.

Babson Discusses Retail Prices

We see much in the newspapers and picture magazines about snow in California, freezes in Texas, drought in Florida, and floods elsewhere. Readers then wonder why weather conditions do not have more effect on retail prices, either to raise or lower them.

Why Retail Prices Are High
Congressmen like to point to the fact that farm prices have declined, but there has been little decline in food prices. The reason is that the farmer gets only 15 percent of the retail price under any conditions. Labor for picking and packing gets 25 percent, and this has not come down, transportation—trucks and railroads—get 20 percent and this is increasing; while retailers' rents, wages, waste and other expenses remain the same or are higher. Hence, consumers should not blame the retailers.

Competition of Canned and Frozen Products
When I was a boy in Gloucester, Massachusetts, I peddled vegetables for my grandfather. He made a specialty of beets. In those days, canned beets could not be purchased. Today much better beets can be purchased in cans and for less money. Why anyone buys stale beets from the stores when they can get truly "fresh" beets in a can! The development of the canning and freezing industry is another factor in the situation.

Having spent every summer of my life, excepting during World War I, in Gloucester, I know something about fish. Of course, the finest fish is what we, ourselves, catch, and fry by the side of the stream. Then only an hour elapses from the time the trout is in the water until it is in our stomach! Otherwise, I much prefer frozen or canned fish. It truly is "fresher" than anything you can get at a fish market. When I buy whole fish at a store, it is two or three days older than when I buy it frozen or in cans. Some fish, like sardines, which are seined near shore will be in cans within a few hours from the time they are caught. What price the fishermen get, however, is a small factor in the retail price. This is dependent upon labor costs, transportation costs, and rent costs all of which are surely going up.

Investments for Farmers
Often the farmers have asked me to recommend some investment for their loose money. When prices were low, I have suggested either the American Can Company, or General Foods which leads in the freezing industry and has a valuable distributing system. I also like merchandising stocks, especially those of established "5 and 10" cent stores, and the good grocery chains.

To my friends in Florida, who have never controlled their surplus crops, I am tempted to say "Sell your grove and re-invest at the right time in the United Fruit Company. This concern is now doing with bananas what you for 30 years have failed to do with oranges and grapefruit. It raises, packs, ships, transports and distributes bananas and hence can control the cost and price."

Small Merchant Opportunity
I believe in small sustenance farms, as insurance for people whose income is not dependent upon the land. But I cannot recommend a small farm as a business. Farming, ranching and fruit growing is becoming "big business" whether we like it or not. The present owners of small units will sell out or combine with larger units. Agriculture is going on a factory basis the same as the manufacturer of shoes, shirts and bread.

There always will be an opportunity for the small merchant who will live over or near his store and open up before the big stores and keep open later at night. He cannot get rich or become a country club member, but he can be free from labor worries and many other headaches. Hence, I am much interested in the Small Businessman's Association, which my friend Ernest Gaunt is fathering. This organization is not blaming either the growers or the retailers, but rather the railroads and the labor unions.

ALL kinds of rumors arose these days what with NBC trying to build up its many vacancies left by CBS' raids . . . Some say a comedy show starring Mickey Rooney may hit the air waves soon . . . Others have it that a show featuring Elliott Lewis (the "Frankie Remley" of the Phil Harris-Alice Faye show) will make its debut this summer . . . Meanwhile, Edgar Bergen, who retired from radio, is in New York looking over the television field and may reach an important decision any day now.

Excited over the success of Meredith Wilson's "And There I Stood With My Piccolo," its publishers recently made formal request for rough draft of a sequel . . . Jack Bailey, who not only wrote "What's Cookin'" but knows how to cook the recipes in it, has completed an outdoor barbecue at his Hollywood home . . . Jimmy Dorsey's wife is slowly recovering from the serious burns she suffered when the Dorsey home caught flame recently . . . ### PLATTER CHATTER

Capitol: In time for St. Patrick's Day, Capitol came up with an album of grand old Irish folk songs, all beautifully handled by Michael Tobin . . . Included are such songs as "Mother Machree," "Molly Brannigan," "Rory O'More" and "Kitty O'Coleraine" . . . And if you like hillbilly music, Capitol has an answer for that, too, in its latest album, "Music from the Hills" featuring Uncle Henry's Original Kentucky Mountaineers, Karl and Harty . . . They give forth with some nice singing of such numbers as "Fire On The Mountain," "The Love That We Once Knew," "Precious Memories" and "I Just Don't Care Anymore."

Victor: One of the most beautiful jobs of waxing ever attempted, in the opinion of these tired old ears, is Ray Noble's super-wonderful job on "Lady Of Spain" . . . Catch it, by all means . . . The reverse has that revival, "I've Got My Love To Keep Me Warm."

This Week's Public Issue

(Editor's Note: Here are the pertinent facts on a public issue as prepared by the University of Michigan Department of Political Science. This material is designed to present both sides of the question to help you in your thinking on current issues. Your club or discussion group may also find this column useful.)

SHOULD CONGRESS PASS THE WAGNER-MURRAY-DINGELL HEALTH INSURANCE BILL?

For several sessions a health insurance bill has been before Congress. The present bill provides for a system of nationwide health insurance which would cover approximately 85 per cent of the population, including employees, self-employed persons in business for themselves, and the dependents of both. The cost would probably amount to a charge of about three per cent on the average personal income. The plan would provide for medical and dental service from general practitioners and specialists, home nursing care, hospital expenses, laboratory services and even eyeglasses. Free choice by the patient of his doctor and dentist is guaranteed, as is also the right to change one's choice. Doctors may participate or not as they like and they may reject patients if they choose to do so. Hospitals are not to come under government management. Payments are to be made to doctors from the insurance fund by a method to be determined by the participating doctors themselves. In each local area, administration will be carried out with the help and participation of local citizens, including members of the medical profession. Each state is given the right to set up a state agency to administer the system provided Federal standards are met.

The American Medical Association, the doctors' professional organization, is strongly opposed to the bill. The A.M.A. has proposed as an alternative to increase the efficiency of voluntary agencies now operating in the health field. This program includes the enlargement of voluntary medical care plans such as the Blue Cross scheme for hospital care. Improvements in hospital services and in programs of medical research are other elements in the A.M.A. plan.

Some of the chief arguments which have been advanced on this issue are:

Yes
1. In case of serious illness the cost of medical care is now ruinous to people in the low or middle income groups, unless they are willing to accept charity. In 1946, before prices had reached their present level, 28 per cent of those responding to a Gallup poll on the subject said they had spent over $100 on doctor, hospital and dental bills in the past year. Two out of three people need financial help to meet the cost of a serious illness.
2. If people were insured they would not, because of the expense, hesitate to go to a doctor at the first sign of trouble. Many serious illnesses of themselves and perhaps of others would be prevented if they were treated in an early stage under this plan. In Great Britain, which has adopted a plan similar to the one proposed for this country, health insurance has proved the most popular measure adopted in recent years. Although most British doctors originally opposed the plan 90 per cent of them are now participating in it.

3. The terms of the proposed bill provide for retaining a great deal of personal freedom under the scheme. Is it fair to label as "socialized medicine" a scheme in which doctors are not required to participate and which leaves patients free to patronize doctors outside the plan if they wish to pay for extra service? Something like this has been done for years in the field of education, where we have both public and private schools.

No
1. Health insurance means socialized medicine. A huge governmental organization will be necessary to administer such a scheme. The road to socialism everywhere will be opened if we allow it in what has always been such a private and personal field as the practice of medicine.
2. Whatever may be said to the contrary, the mixing of governmental controls with the practice of medicine will lead to political meddling which will lower the high standards now prevailing in this field. There will be political interference with the normal relationship between doctor and patient. The large bureaucracy this plan will entail should afford a happy hunting ground for politicians looking for jobs to give their friends. Would you want to have to deal with a political appointee when your wife or child is ill?
3. The great majority of doctors, who should know the most about the problems of medical care, are strongly opposed to this project. In response to a poll on the subject, 61 per cent of them say they will not participate in such a scheme. Even if all doctors were willing to join there would not be enough doctors to take care of all the demands which would be made on an insurance plan of this sort by people who will flood the system with trifling requests and imaginary complaints.
