THE RIGHT CANDIDATE.

Last winter we read some comment in Michigan newspapers about prospective candidates for Governor on the Republican ticket in the next state election. In the list there wasn't one mentioned who would really satisfy all of the Republican groups of the state, or who would strongly appeal to the independent voters.

There was no mention of one Republican who could be overwhelmingly elected—and who would have the backing of all the pro-public Republicans of the state.

In some comment made in this column about the situation we pointed out that this prospective candidate was Congressman Albert Engel of Muskegon, who has served his state and country efficiently and diligently in congress. In fact he has won for himself nationwide fame as the result of his tireless efforts to see to it that the people of this nation have the type of government and administration to which they are entitled.

Months ago we urged that he be made the Republican candidate for Governor in next year's election. He should be given the nomination without a contest.

And if he can be induced to become a candidate and if the people are wise enough to elect him, Michigan will have one of the hardest working and best governors it has had since the days of Alex J. Groesbeck. Congressman Engel knows the problems of our state. He served well as a state senator for a number of years before going to congress.

It is with pleasure that we now read in some of the metropolitan papers of Michigan that there is a possibility of inducing Congressman Engel to become a candidate for Governor on the Republican ticket. We are for it one hundred per cent.

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

Malcolm Bingay of the Detroit Free Press and Fred Allen, who advertises Ford cars over the air, both declare that "Republicans" are "dumb." Maybe they are dead right. In Allen's case it is difficult to see how he expects to continue to sell Fords to "dumb" Republicans, unless his "Senator Claghorn" thinks Republicans are too dumb to know that they are "dumb," as he proclaims.

There now lies before the Republican National Committee at the present time a golden opportunity to disprove the charge that Republicans are as "dumb" as Ford's radio advertising king bee says they are and as "dumb" as the famed "journalist" of The Free Press thinks they are.

For many years we have been unable to understand why the Republican organization has not made a sincere effort to extend its party activities into southern states. As we see it, there are in all southern states a very large number of highly intelligent and patriotic American citizens who are far better Republicans than are some of the so-called Republican party leaders in the north.

They thoroughly believe in the American way of life. They are proud of their country and they have fought for it with all the energy they possess. We believe that the vast majority of southern people, if invited to do so, would welcome an opportunity to join up with a Republican party leadership that would have enough brains to send its workers and its candidates into southern states, at least during campaign times.

We felt last fall, and still feel, that one of the biggest blunders of the Dewey campaign was the fact that he didn't visit every southern state. He would have shown them at least a courtesy they were entitled to receive.

Northern Republicans and Southern Democrats have for years worked in close harmony on many questions in congress. Why under the sun, "her, can't the real Americans of the north and the real America" of the south—who represent the ideals set forth in true Republican ideals, unite to save our nation from the hates, dislikes, suspicions and greed of those who cannot forget the conflicts that have kept the old world in constant turmoil since the days of Roman conquests.

And unless the Republican National committee demands that Fred Allen give up a part of his radio time so that Republicans have an equal opportunity to counteract the miserable insinuations that come out of the Fred Allen-Claghorn radio broadcasts, we might have additional reason to think that maybe after all, our Republican national leaders are just plain "dumb" or else are so lax in the performance of their duties that the party should set up another organization to restore the party to the eminence and respect to which it is entitled.

THE WELFARE STATE IS A SLAVE STATE.

"The welfare state is a slave state," or "The man who pays the fiddler calls the tunes." Just where we read that we do not recall. But how true it is! Look about you! Ask the man who gets an old age pension from the state. Ask him if he is permitted to do a little light work to make $25 or $30 a month extra to supplement his state aid. He will tell you that "the social welfare aid investigator" will not let him do the extra light work he would like to do in order to make a few extra dollars. Yes, the "welfare state" is truly a "slave state." And we are so near to it that it isn't a bit funny.

AND THEY CAN DO NOTHING ABOUT IT.

Four or five men the other day decided they wanted to slow down the work in a well known Detroit automobile factory. The action of these four led to the necessary lay-off of a couple dozen men. Then it became necessary to close down most of the entire plant, some ten thousand or more people being thrown into idleness because four or five workers got mad about something. Under existing laws and regulations, there isn't one thing that can be done about such a thing. Those guilty of causing the trouble cannot even be fired. As we see it, there can be no remedy for such a situation until the rights of the man who pays the bills and holds the responsibility for all that takes place, are restored to him.

Blake Gillies Happy—Counts Over 1,000 Free Boarders for Breakfast

These are happy days for Supt. A. Blake Gillies of the Detroit House of Correction. He is singing like a meadow lark most of the time and is as contented as that old Holstein cow that fell into a corn silo. There's sunshine mixed with those rough words he finds necessary to use now and then so that people may know what he is thinking about.

Why all this happiness? For the first time since long before the war he's got almost a full house of star boarders.

He counted them the other day and discovered that there were over one thousand who answered the first call to breakfast!

One thousand! Think of it! Once during the war his count for a turkey dinner just topped the 300 figure. Those were dark, dreary days. Close friends worried about the rough and tumble warden. Some of them even watched closely the banks of Tonquish creek—for fear that he might accidentally fall in.

But now he's living in a new world where there is nothing but sunshine sparkling from his checkered vest and his well polished hair.

It seems that the great state of Michigan hasn't enough room in its various prisons to keep all of the law offenders, so the state sent some of its "overflow" to Blake the other day to board and room for a few years. That shipment sent the breakfast count up to over 1000—and isn't the genial warden of the Detroit House of Correction filled to overflowing with glee, dew and sunshine!

Heads of Industry Will be Honored Guests of C of C

Top executives from a group of industries in this area which are classified as those in the "newer class" will be guests of honor at a Plymouth Chamber of Commerce dinner program next Monday, April 4, in the Hotel Mayflower at 6:30.

Guest speaker duties will be filled at that time by Ralph Lee of the General Motors corporation.

New firms in this area which will be represented at Monday's meeting will include Whitman-Barnes, Evans Products company, General Motors, Burroughs Adding Machine company, Standard Tube, and Centri-Spray corporation. Each firm is expected to send three representatives.

The meeting has been arranged to enable official representatives of the new industries that

Red Cross Drive Concludes Today: Quota is Reached

Plymouth's Red Cross drive is officially concluded today, Thursday, following a month long campaign for funds with which to carry on the organization's year long assistance program.

Estimates made yesterday by drive chairman, Ernest Henry, put the total contributed in Plymouth over the local goal. He listed $2,500 as the approximate amount donated heretofore.

Although the drive is officially concluded, there is still an opportunity for those who have not as yet donated to the fund to do so. Contributions may be sent to the Plymouth Red Cross Drive, Plymouth, the chairman asserted.

During a further statement made in connection with the local drive, Mr. Henry expressed his appreciation of those persons

Minister Upholds Kiwanis Program

This week James Gallimore, Kiwanian who is directing the club's "Go to Church During Lent" program, called on the Rev. Henry Walch for comments on the subject.

The following is Rev. Walch's reply:

"The reasons for going to church are many. To the religious person there is a basic religious conviction which would make the reasons why he attends quite different from the reasons one can advance to non-church goers as to why they should attend church. So the reasons given here will in no wise be complete in their appeal. But here are a few reasons, from a rational view-point, why it is good for a person to attend church.

"First, religion is a discipline. Neither civilization, freedom, nor democracy can exist without some discipline, either within or without. Democracy is making claims in our day that it is a better form of life than and dictator.

Club Begins Golf, Social Season

Plymouth's Country club opens its golfing and social season this week, an announcement issued by M.C. Partridge, pro-manager, discloses.

The social side of the club's activities begins with a spring dance Saturday evening at 9 p.m. An orchestra has been secured to provide music for dancing. This weekend's events will be open to both members and their guests. According to reports from the club, memberships are also still available.

The pro-manager states that the course is now ready for golfers and the flags giving the go-ahead signal are already up.

Clyde Smith Will Open Used Car Lot Tomorrow

Tomorrow, Friday, Clyde Smith will open a used car lot at 875 East Ann Arbor road. In addition to this venture, Mr. Smith will continue with his Hudson dealership.

Cancer Workers Get Drive Underway Here

Completing last minute details for the American Cancer Society Fund drive which starts tomorrow, are, left to right: Mrs. R. S. Shattuck, head of clubs and organizations; Mrs. Floyd Reddeman, chairman of Precinct No. 3; Mrs. Homer Frisbie, chairman of Precinct No. 4; and Mrs. Edwin Schrader, chairman of Precinct No. 1.

In this city, and nearly 3,000 others across the nation, the American Cancer Society drive for a minimum of $14,500,000 will be launched tomorrow, Friday.

Tomorrow morning solicitors will begin an active campaign of a door-to-door solicitation. Various committees have been assigned to handle the campaign, which will also reach women's clubs, men's service clubs, and fraternal organizations.

Mrs. Austin Stecker, local chairman of the cancer campaign, said "We hope to make it possible for everyone in the area to have an opportunity to give to the cancer drive.

"There is evidence that 1949 will be the most important year of our lives in progress against cancer. We are fast reaching a climax in this conflict. If enough funds are made available to push forward the work of research and to bulwark the frontal assault of detection and treatment.

First Lady Gives to Local Easter Seal Campaign

Included in the returns to Plymouth's Easter Seal drive was a check signed by Nancy Quirk Williams, first lady of the state.

Among the high school students taking charge of the mailing of solicitation letters was one who was struck with the ingenious idea of sending one to the governor. It wasn't long before the returning contribution was received.

The Easter Seal drive, which solicits funds for the aid of crippled persons, is directed in Plymouth again this year by C. H. Bennett. Sponsored by the Wayne Out County chapter of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, funds donated in this area are used to

Students Prepare for 'Night of Song'

"A Night of Song" is the title applied given to the evening of April 6 in Plymouth. At that time all vocal music departments of the high school will blend their talents for a choral concert.

Under the direction of Fred C. Nelson, the students will open their program at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Contributing to the program will be the junior chorus, girls glee club, boys glee club, high school choir and featured soloists. This will mark the first public appearance of the newly formed junior chorus, commented Mr. Nelson.

Proceeds from the concert will go into a fund for the new choir robes.

Russia-USA War Will Start When Soviet is Ready, Marshall Believes

"Just the minute Russia thinks it can win a war against the United States, our next war is going to start," Col. S. L. A. Marshall of Detroit told members of the Plymouth Hi-Twelve club at its meeting last week.

"Not for one day or one minute has Russia stopped the production of munitions for war since the defeat of Germany. Its war aims were fixed against the United States at the very time we were helping to save the Soviet from destruction by Germany. Every move and every act of the Soviets has been to better its position in the conflict it is determined to force upon the United States," among the startling statements made by one who served during

History of Rotary Club Highlights 25th Anniversary

Plymouth's 70 members of the Rotary club, their wives and high Rotary officials from both Michigan and Canada last Friday evening celebrated the 25th anniversary of the Plymouth Rotary club, the overflow banquet taking place in the Crystal room of the Hotel Mayflower. The event proved to be one of the most outstanding in the club's history.

Not only was it a very pleasant affair, but there was for the first time unfolded a brief history of the club's activities which have been of outstanding benefit to this community.

President Edward Gardiner presided. Invocation was offered by Captain William Roberts of the Salvation Army, who is an active member of the organization. Group singing was led by Rev. Henry Walch and Mayor Frank Henderson introduced the many guests as well as charter members of the club who were present.

George A. Smith, who recently completed a term as district governor, presided as toastmaster. It was William Wood, first song leader of the club, who led the group in three songs popular

Taylor & Blyton Has Anniversary

Ten years isn't a particularly long time but this week as far as two local businessmen are concerned it has seemed like ages. Ten years ago this week William Taylor and John Blyton opened the Taylor and Blyton Department store on Main street in the building formerly operated by Blunk Brothers.

This week they are commemorating that event with a store

Ice Vending Machine Installed at McLaren's

Vending machines take another step forward as they invade the ice industry.

Already set up at the McLaren company is a mechanism which will give local ice users and picnickers 24 hour service. The purchaser simply drops coins into the machine, and out comes a 25 pound cake of ice.

The machine is described as the latest innovation in the ice industry, and J. D. McLaren invites all residents to stop at the office and see how it operates.

High School Band Wins Top Rating; State Contest Next

Judges at the District School Band and Orchestra festival awarded Plymouth's band a highly coveted first division rating last Saturday, marking the first time such a distinction has been paid to the local musicians.

Two other Class B schools receiving a similar rating were Birmingham and Oxford. All three are now eligible to go on to the state contest which will be held on Ann Arbor on April 23.

The district phase of the competition took place in Ypsilanti. Paul Wagner, the director who led the high school band on to the winning of first place laurels,

Sheline to Have New Building

If all proceeded according to schedule, ground was broken this week for a new building to house Vinc's Tire Service.

Site of the new building is the old Tighe property, on the east side of Starkweather, near the corner of Main street. Vinc Sheline, owner, states that the cement block building will measure 24x35 upon completion. He expects the building to be finished in approximately 30 days.

The new structure will house his complete vulcanizing and recapping service.

The building in which Mr. Sheline's business is now located will be razed.

1257 Voters of 1700 Local Registrants Voice Approval of $1,350,000 Project

Plymouth's school electors gave a decisive majority to both school proposals when they went to the polls last Monday. Voters passed the tax limitation ballot by a majority of 818 to 431 and the bonding proposition by a majority of 746 to 418. In both cases the vote was in favor of the issues almost two to one.

There were 1257 local voters that cast their ballots in the election out of a possible 1700 qualified school electors.

School officials were elated with the returns of the election and indicated that they would take immediate steps to start the proposed building program. According to board president, Donald Sutherland it will take several months to prepare the bonds for sale so that immediate building is still many months off but he indicated the board would favor the immediate construction of at least one grade school as soon as possible.

No definite plan of action has been outlined by the board and three of the five members who were contacted after the election all agreed that there would be no rush into any kind of an enlargement program. Before a gymnasium and pool can be built a site must be selected and certainly no remodeling can be undertaken in the high school buildings until all the other phases of the program are completed.

Board members also agreed that the preliminary work of getting the voters to approve the program was only a start of their worries and that the real work was ahead in determining what to build, where to build it and when to build. The board has indicated that it does not intend to jump into any hurried program and that it proposes to take every advantage of lowering prices.

Voters Will Elect Judge, Constable; Commission Seats Uncontested

City voters will go to the polls Monday to select a municipal judge and a constable. There are two candidates for each of the above offices and in each case one must be selected.

Three members of the city commission are up for re-election but they have no opposition. They are Mayor Frank Henderson, William Hartmann and Ruth Whipple.

The two candidates for the office of judge are Incumbent J. Rusling Cutler and Nandino Perlongo. Cutler is completing his second term as municipal judge. Perlongo, a Plymouth resident since 1942, came to Plymouth as an associate of Dunbar Davis. He is a graduate of the Michigan High School for Blind in Lansing and received his law degree from the University of Michigan in 1937.

Judge Cutler has been a resident of the city since 1924 and is a graduate of Plymouth High school. He received his law degree from the Detroit College of Law.

Candidates for the office of constable are Lee Roy Reiman, incumbent, and Arthur Johnson. Plymouth township office holders have no opposition, but voters there will vote on a proposed expenditure of $25,000 for the building of a fire hall in that area. Livonia township officials are faced with a full Democratic ticket for opposition in their election this year.

A partisan state ballot will also be presented to local voters when they go to the polls on Monday. They will select two university regents, one member of the state board of education, two state board of agriculture members, a superintendent of instruction, and a state highway.

Hobby Show Monday Showed Wide Variety of Local Interests

Hobbies, often described as "a safety valve in one's life," were displayed in their full importance Monday evening at the Plymouth Business and Professional Women's club Hobby Show in the St. John's Episcopal church.

The educational and entertaining side of each was brought out when the owner gave a brief story of her hobby. Displays set up for the show included samples of textile painting by Mrs. Verne Steele, and picture painting by Mrs. Claudia Hausley. Marian Bennett had samples of her elephant hobby there, and Mrs. Burton brought her daguerrotype cases. The antique bonnet on display was brought by Mrs. Rodrick Cassidy, and Mrs. Georgia Chingren brought products of loom weaving. Penguins turned out to be Miss Hannah Strassen's hobby, and Miss Evelyn Bryant displayed pieces of needlework. The demitasse cups were from the collection of Mrs. Emerson Robinson, hand made silver was displayed by Mrs. Warren Mason, and Mrs. Mable Bacon donated some of her ceramics for the show.

The antiques shown that evening were from Mrs. Francis Kellogg's collection, and Mary Lou Hartwick contributed her salt and pepper shakers for the show. Mrs. Jean Stillings hobby of weaving was represented, and Mrs. Lily Smith's hobby of needle point and rug making. Mrs. Stafford Frances displayed old laces, and Mrs. J. H. Todd showed samples of her weaving.

Harrisons Observe 50th Anniversary

Judge and Mrs. Willis R. Harrison observed their golden wedding anniversary with open house for 200 friends and relatives on Sunday, March 27.

In observance of the occasion there was a family dinner party for 200 guests at the Hillside Inn in Plymouth on Saturday evening.

A Nankin township justice of the peace for 19 years, Judge Harrison is 74, and his wife, the former Cora Spurr, of Detroit, 69. The couple was married in Detroit, March 29, 1899.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison are the parents of six children and eight grandchildren. The children are: Mrs. John M. Blossom of Plymouth, Mrs. H. F. Blossy of Cleveland, Ohio, and Harold E. Harrison of Inkster. Three other sons, R. Alger, Howard, and Walter, are residents of Dearborn.

Residing at 28631 Avondale, Inkster, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison live in the same house in which the judge was born, and on the same plot of ground that has been property of the Harrison family since about 1814.

Arlene Jeffrey to be April Bride

Plans for an April wedding were in the making this week by Arlene Jeffrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Albani.

Miss Jeffrey will become the bride of Charles William Spaulding in a ceremony on April 9 in the First Baptist church.

For her maid of honor the bride-elect has chosen Ruth Nagel. Completing the list of attendants are Ardith Albani and Vivian Spaulding.

On March 24 Miss Jeffrey was honored at a miscellaneous shower in the home of Ruth Nagel of Russell street. Seven guests were present for the Thursday evening shower.

Another recent shower in Miss Jeffrey's honor was hosted by Mrs. Earl Spaulding. Mrs. Spaulding entertained at a personal shower for 12 guests.

Real Estate

WOW... It's HERE

WOT HOPPONED?

It's really very simple. Pulling out our golf clubs, and spring togery we spotted this excellent listing. 5 rooms, bath and basement for $6300. Location is 2 blocks from town. In both good financial and structural condition. SEE IT...

5 Room Home With Oil Heat

Built 1 1/2 years ago (still in the bottle stage). Located near Burroughs and Evans plants. Living room with large bay windows, full dinette, modern kitchen, bath, 2 large airy bed rooms, full 2nd floor that permits additional space and a utility room with heat unit, tubs and water heater. Newly decorated. You'll be proud to pay the mortgage on this home.

Held over by popular request

Besides I didn't sell it yet. 4 lovely bed rooms, living room with a fireplace (last week we had a fire in it, but it's nice and warm now), full dinette separated from the kitchen by a snack bar, paneled den fitting for a television set, screened porch, full basement with hot air heat, tubs and 2 car shelter. Exterior features are a winding drive, a creek (with water in it), shelter for a horse, and expensive landscaping. Located 7 miles from Plymouth it's a beauty, $14000 with $5000 down. Appointment only.

Although we advertise only a few homes, we have over 40 listings. It is impossible for us to place all in the paper. BUT if you will come to our office we will aid you in your housing problems regardless whether it benefits us or not. We say this in all sincerity.

Mrs. Roy Elliott's Unusual Hobby Grows into Prosperous Business

Twenty years ago it was just a hobby with Mrs. Roy Elliott, but today her interest in collecting horse equipment has developed into one of the most prosperous businesses in this area: a business she believes to be the only one of its kind in the country.
A shop in the basement of her home on Spring drive in Northville is filled with more kinds and types of equipment for horses than the average person would believe existed.
Mrs. Elliott said that she caters to the needs of fine show horses, harness horses, in addition to runner equipment. Many of her customers, she added, reside in the Plymouth area.
When Mrs. Elliott first started out in the field of horse equipment, in the days it was just a hobby, she had no idea it would grow to its present proportions. All her life she has had a keener than average interest in horses and the world in which they move. Owning her own, she naturally had to purchase a certain amount of equipment. A shrewd business sense led to selling bits of equipment one by one, and she gradually enlarged her scope through the small profit she made each time.

Mrs. Elliott's husband was formerly with the Detroit police department. When he was injured during a race riot in 1945, they decided to move to Northville where she started in the pony business. This was discontinued when sufficient help became unavailable, so Mrs. Elliott continued with her equipment hobby.
Weekend exhibits at the horse shows and trips to various shows and sales across the country where she came in close contact with persons who make a profession of dealing with horses, set up her list of customers. Each year her clientele grew larger, and it was augmented with the mounting interest in harness racing which developed in this area in 1947.

All kinds of orders are received by Mrs. Elliott. Many are from persons who want to use pieces of equipment in purely irrelevant ways. Others are for custom made items. Mrs. Elliott said that each show and racing horse has its own individual colors, and they see to it that everything from its blanket on down to the water pail follows the proper scheme.
"Yes," she added, "everything associated with either show or racing horses can be gotten here." This was no small statement, as she went on to relate that halters, blankets, and sheets are the only things the different types of horses use in common. From there on they branch out, and citing racing horses as an example, she stated there are as many as 2500 items available for harness horse users.
More important than the volume of articles carried by Mrs. Elliott is the comprehensive knowledge of the horse field that one must possess to carry on such a business. Anyone delving in the business must not only have an intensive knowledge of

Oscar Davidsen Funeral Today

A three year illness proved fatal to Oscar T. Davidsen Monday.
The 67 year old man, who had resided at 9669 Gold Arbor road, was taken to the A. M. Norton Funeral Home.
Funeral arrangements have been made for this afternoon at 2 p.m. in the Danish Lutheran church at Vermont and Caroline in Detroit. The service will be officiated by the Reverend Swend Jorgensen. Interment will be made in Riverside cemetery.
Mr. Davidsen is survived by his wife, Petty, and three children, Mrs. Oda Bruns, Lloyd and Petty Jane, all of Plymouth. Brothers and sisters surviving him include Olga and Johanna and George and Henry, all of Copenhagen, Denmark.
To be worth anything, character must be capable of standing firm upon its feet in the world of daily work, temptation, and trial. —Smiles

Fox Hunters Meet Friday

The monthly meeting of the Fox club was held at the home of Estel Rowland Friday evening.
The business session was preceded with a roast beef dinner.
The club's dinner for the 12 Point club has been postponed until Monday evening, April 4, state officials of the club. It will be held in the VFW hall.

First Robin Story Proves Old Stuff

The "first robin" story, it would appear, has now become "old stuff."
Some robins in recent years have been known to remain here during the entire winter. Others return from their winter visits to the south long before there is any indication that spring is "just around the corner."
According to Lawrence Lyons, there is just one sure sign left in these changing times to indicate that spring is really here.
It's the croak of a bullfrog!
"Larry," as he is best known to his wide circle of friends, was slowly cruising back to Plymouth the other day from the city of Detroit. When he left the city of dirty streets and messy sidewalks and reached the vicinity of mudholes and ponds of stagnant water standing in the fields west of the Kelvinator plant on Plymouth road, he heard bull frogs croaking so loud that he thought some of them might have jumped into his car when parked down in the city famed for its wild cat strikers and its numbers rackets.
"There is one thing sure about croaking frogs," said Mr. Lyons, when discussing nature's sure indicator of the coming of spring, "there is no guess work about it. When a frog starts croaking one just knows that spring is not only on the way, but that it's right here. I'll believe the croaking frogs much quicker than I will the robins when it comes to indicating changes of the seasons."
There are others, many others, however, who still stick to the early arrival of robins as the sure harbinger of the coming of spring.

Bad Car Brakes, Lights Attacked

Plymouth's police department is joining in the campaign against defective brakes and headlights, announces Chief Lee Sackett.
All cars stopped by department members for moving violations will be checked for these two features. If either is found defective the driver will be ticketed. Chief Sackett states that as soon as the driver shows proof the faults have been corrected, the ticket will be cancelled.
The police department is calling on garage and gas station owners to cooperate in the program.

Parents, Students, Other Residents Contribute to Curriculum Workshop

Parents and other citizens are making an important contribution to the study of the school program being carried on in Plymouth schools, according to Paul Johnson, elementary coordinator.

School officials have expressed enthusiastic appreciation of the interest shown so far in the project. "The assistance given by the parents who are participating in our group discussions will be of particular importance in the school's present attempt to evaluate the school curriculum and in future attempts at improvement," said Helmer Nelson, superintendent of schools.

The curriculum study workshop has been meeting each Wednesday from 4:30 to 6 p.m. and from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Between 50 and 60 members also eat together in the high school cafeteria at 6 p.m.

In addition to school staff members, a number of parents and high school students have been participating on a regular member basis. Others have been attending on an individual meeting basis. Among parents and general citizenry who have participated in the group studying Occupational Exploration and Preparation are Jack Taylor, John Blyden, Warren Smith, Stan Bessie, Mrs. Norma Cassidy, Mrs. Amrhein, Mrs. Reddeman and Mrs. Farwell. Participants in other groups have been Mrs. Evered Joffe and Mrs. Bowden in the Basic Intellectual Skills group and Dr. Van Ornum, George Caldwell, Mrs. Steve Veresh, Mrs. George Evans, Mrs. Paul Johnson and Miss Marjorie Lore of the Wayne County Health department in the Personal Development group. The fourth group which is studying the area of Social Living has had the assistance of Mr. Aebersold, Mr. Caldwell, Mrs. Leo Kowalcik, Mrs. John Wolfe, Mrs. Bowden, Mrs. Dodge, Mrs. Livingston, Mrs. Failing, Mrs. Denhoff, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Helmer, Mrs. William Campbell, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Sonderegger, Mrs. Belobradic, Mrs. John Zittel, Mrs. Topps, Mrs. Joffe, Mrs. Lee Gaeke, Mrs. Bower, Mrs. Durwood Jewell, Mrs. Paul Vincent, Mrs. Steve Veresh, Mrs. George Evans and Mrs. Clifton Tillotson. Students who have participated in these discussions so far are Nancy Morrow, Carolyn Keen, Wilma Latture, Dynese McKinley, Ted Thrasher, Ed Whipple, Phillip Bosman, Agnes Sierlet, Otto Ruehr, Pat Zink and Irving Stewart. Other parents who have participated in general meetings are Mrs. John Morrow, Mrs. Warren Worth and Frank Arlen.

Any citizens of the Plymouth school district are welcome to attend these workshop meetings, school officials announce.

A general evaluation of progress has been tentatively planned as the activity for the meeting of April 6.

Children Display Talent Saturday

A Children's Talent Show will be held in the Plymouth High school auditorium Saturday, April 2, at 8 p.m.

Sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary, the show will give talented children an opportunity to appear before the public, as well as compete for prizes.

Tickets will be on sale at the door the evening of the performance.

Judges for the competition will be Mrs. John Crandell, Mrs. Harry Fischer and Fred Nelson. Paul Johnson will fill the role as master of ceremonies.

First Lady Gives to Local Easter Seal Campaign

He again reminded that in Plymouth alone, the society aided 22 active orthopedic cases within the past year.

The same type of letter received by the governor was sent out to local residents in request of donations. Persons are asked to return their contribution before the April 17 deadline of the drive.

Advances made during the past year in the education phase of work with homebound was also described by Mr. Bennett. Last September, he stated, the special education division of the Michigan Department of Public Instruction extended its supervisory function to the homebound teaching program in rural Wayne county. In addition to this, the Wayne village and the Taylor township boards of education sponsor three teachers who each has a teaching quota of 15. Variety of cases tutored through the year are: convulsive disorders, acute and chronic nephritis, complicated and multiple fractures, muscular dystrophy, osteomyelitis, polio, rheumatic fever, transverse myelitis, congenital deformities, arrested T. B., torn leg muscles and chorea.

The chapter has assumed responsibility for a plan of screening for the home teaching service. Mr. Bennett announced, and it has been the spearhead of the program.

Prior to this year, home teaching was arranged on an individual basis by the children.

A total of 59 children from the out-county area attend special classes at the following schools: Oakman school in Detroit, Wayne University Children's clinic in Detroit, Rackham school in Ypsilanti, Garfield school in Wyandotte and Lowrey school in Dearborn. Arrangements for transportation have been made by the local boards of education with the chapter assisting where special conveyance has been necessary.

Livonia Officials Seeking Reelection at Polls Monday

Supervisor Ziegler Clerk Harry Wolfe

Two veteran Livonia officials are again heading the Republican ticket in that township at the election next Monday. Supervisor Jesse Ziegler who is now completing his 27th year as a member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors heads the ticket which asks re-election on the basis of the many things they have done for their township.

Other candidates on the Republican ticket seeking election are Clerk, Harry S. Wolfe; treasurer, Carl Wagenschutz; highway commissioner, Charles Wolf; Justice of the Peace, Daniel McKinney; Board of Review members, Albert Nacker and Bert McKinney, and Constables, Ray Owens, William Newstead, Fred Brandt and Sidney Dethloff.

Under the capable leadership of Ziegler and Wolfe, Livonia township boasts the fact that it was the first township in Michigan to become zoned. It was one of the first to install a permanent registration system for its voters, some 11 years ago, and the first in the area to secure a water revenue issue. Of late several new water mains have been installed in the township without additional assessment and the township is again ending its

Display of Flags Urged for Army Day in Plymouth

(Continued from page 1) recognition to those who wear and have worn the uniform of the army; to those who are a bulwark of the nation's defense in war and a faithful servant of the people in time of peace.

Sgt. Long said "In the occupied countries, the Army represents the American people. Our soldiers are there because communities such as Plymouth want them there. They are merely an expression of the citizen's desire for security.

"The community pays for the army with its money and supports it with its men. Army Day is the time the army makes its report to the people."

Optimists Form Club in Northville

"Optimism is the love of God; the love of our flag," explained Charles Snyder, past international vice president of Optimist International, at the charter night banquet program of the Northville Optimist club last Thursday evening.

Over 200 Optimists and their wives attended the meeting. During the program Linwood W. Snow, president of the Northville Optimists, accepted the charter from Governor Arlington O. Holbrook of the 17th district of Optimist International. The evening's guest speaker told that as an effect to Northville, the Optimist club will provide a new opportunity of service to something "most important in all the world—our boys." Aid to boys is a foremost creed with Optimists.

Mayor Urges Support of Drive

WHEREAS, the people of the City of Plymouth have always shown a progressive spirit in responding to public appeals when such causes are just and worthy, the month of April has been declared Cancer Control Month by proclamation of the President of the United States and by act of Congress, and

WHEREAS, cancer is a great menace, on the average some homes in this city will be stricken by cancer unless the death rate of this dread disease is soon lessened, I, Frank Henderson, Mayor of the City of Plymouth, do hereby proclaim April as Cancer Control Month, and request that the citizens of this city observe it as such.

I further request that all individuals, institutions, businesses and organizations within this city cooperate and assist the American Cancer Society in its campaign during April.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the City of Plymouth this 31st day of March in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine.

The evening's guest speaker, who is author of "Man to Man on the Job," and an outstanding authority on employee relations, has chosen "Humanics in Business" as his topic for the Monday meeting. He is a member of the G-M public relations department.

According to Charles Hansell, Chamber manager, the audience will be limited to 125.

The reception committee for the meeting will be composed of Frank Arlen, Joe Merritt, Paul Ramsdell, J. R. Saxton and Rolf Smith.

torship. But democracy does not exist because of a dog-fight between persons with conflicting interests; it exists because there are enough people with a common desire for freedom to allow democracy to function. Some of the people who are loudest in their praise of democracy and their condemnation of tyranny are people who do as little in a real way to make democracy possible as the veriest communist. Religion holds up before man his duty to God, his brother, and himself. It is a trying experience for a person to be in the presence of the holiest and take a good honest look at his own character. It troubles the conscience of men to be so exposed. That's why a lot of honest men don't come to church,—they recognize the sin of their own lives, and don't want to change, and are uncomfortable in the presence of God,—so they stay away. Yet the hope of our world is not in such characters,—it is in men who have the courage and the moral worth to face themselves for what they are, and to change to what they ought to be in order to call themselves decent persons.

"Second, the church should be a place where men may find the strength which they need for the warfare of life. Our world is not an easy one to live in and it makes demands that challenge the last ounce of energy we have. Often conditions look hopeless to us and we feel that we can never find the strength or resources to hold on. "In quietness and confidence shall be your strength" says the Scripture. The church is the place where men may come away into that which is the source of all help strength, the sense of a help which is greater than that which we see, and abiding beyond the chances and changes of this mortal world. The church is not supposed to be a place where men are entertained either with exciting shows or interesting words; it is the place where men may come in the realization that God is there, that in Him they may find forgiveness for their sins and failures, comfort for their troubles and perplexities, light for their confusions, and the strength which comes from quietness and the sense of peace.

"These are but two reasons why men should come to church, and there are many others which are very real to many people who go to church. If you are one who does not attend a church,—why not try it out and see what it can do in your life?"

In commenting on their ten years of business in this locality both Mr. Blyton and Mr. Taylor look back over their ten years and when they think of the bare shelves that they sometimes contended with during the war years, and when they think about the hurried buying trips they had to make all over the country to secure merchandise for their customers, they say they sometimes think it has been 50 years.

However, with the stormy war years behind them and an Easter merchandising period ahead of them they are grateful for the fact that they selected Plymouth as a place for their business and in expressing their gratitude to their customers they said they would show their appreciation by large price reductions on their merchandise for their anniversary event which starts this Thursday.

"It is true that discoveries now being made in laboratories may not be put to practical use for years to come," Mrs. Stecker stated, "but our best medical authorities tell us that basic mysteries of cancer is being unraveled. In the meantime, advanced in surgical and radiation treatment are being discovered and put into practice, resulting in more and more lives saved.

"As Dr. Charles S. History of Rotary Club Highlights 25th Anniversary with the Rotarians in the early days of the organization.

Greetings to Plymouth Rotarians were extended by District Governor John F. Smith of Windsor, Mrs. Mary Arlen most pleasingly sang a group of three songs. She was accompanied by Mrs. Evelyn Nelson. Carl G. Shear briefly reviewed the activities of the club during the past 25 years.

The address of the evening was given by Richard C. Hedke, of Detroit who served as president of Rotary International during 1946-47. He interestingly told of his visit to Rotary clubs around the world.

In the souvenir program was a brief history of some of the Plymouth's clubs' accomplishments since its organization that was written by Edward C. Hough, one of the few remaining charter members of the club. It is of so much general interest to the entire community that the brief review is published in full as follows:

"The Plymouth Rotary Club was sponsored by the Rotary Club of Wayne with Dr. Edward Lee of that club being appointed as the Governor's Representative in the formation of our club. Dr. Lee met with a number of Plymouth businessmen on the night of March 6, 1924, when it was decided to organize a Rotary Club in Plymouth and twenty-three men signed up. Rotary International accepted their application on March 10, 1924.

"Paul King, District Governor, presented the charter to the club on Charter Night, April 17, 1924, and Judge Arthur Tuttle (now deceased) made the principal address.

"George A. Smith was chosen as the first president of the club; Edward C. Hough, vice-president; William Wood, secretary; Sidney D. Strong, treasurer; and Frank Rambo, sergeant-at-arms.

"The club held its first meetings in the basement of the Peniman-Allen building, then moved to the old Masonic Dining Room, to the new Masonic Temple, to the auditorium of the High School, and then to the Lutheran Church, where it continued to meet until the Mayflower Hotel was completed in 1927, where it has met since.

"The club has flourished from the start and its membership has grown steadily from 23 until today 70 enjoy the fellowship the club affords. The club has taken an active part in all community activities and its members have made an honest effort to carry out the true spirit of Rotary and its motto 'Service above Self.'

"One of the early activities attempted by the club was that of making a house-to-house canvass of the entire community and surrounding country to find crippled children and arrange for their proper care. Since that early effort a County and State organization has been brought about, and our club members are still enlisted in the work and have donated liberally of time and money to this worthy cause.

"Another early activity of the club was that of sponsoring a troop of Boy Scouts. Sidney Strong was the first to lead this movement, later taken up by Brick Champe. This work has continued thru the years and today is led by Elmore Carney, who is most enthusiastic over boys' work and has done a splendid job for leadership.

"For many years the Boys' Work Committee has sponsored the Decathlon Meet at the High School, and its assistance at this annual affair and the presentation of badges to the winners has become an event looked forward to by the boys who compete in this worthwhile event.

"Thru the leadership of George Smith, the club established and financed a Student Loan Fund, and several students have been assisted in securing a college education thru the use of this revolving fund.

"For many years the club has arranged meetings with the rural members of our community, and these meetings are looked forward to by the club members as a real opportunity to foster good will and friendship with our neighbors who earn their living by working the soil, and contribute so much to our health and enjoyment.

"A real opportunity for community service, was presented when a movement was started to build a community hotel in Plymouth. Every member of the club served on some committee and when the drive was over, nearly a quarter million dollars had been subscribed and our Mayflower Hotel came into being in 1927. It has been the home of the Rotary Club, as well as other service clubs, and the center of public activities since that time. While Father Frank LeFevre was club president, 1935-1936, he conceived the idea of making some member of the Senior Class in High School a Junior Rotarian. It has been the custom since for the school authorities to select a member of the Senior Class to serve for one month, then another member of the class takes his place, and the day the new member is presented, the retiring member tells the club of the impressions he received from his contact with the members during his four weeks' membership. This Junior membership idea has been adopted by a large number of clubs throughout the nation and has undoubtedly been the means of building membership in Rotary in future years, and given publicity to the real objects of Rotary.

"In 1947 Plymouth felt the need of a lighted football field, and our club made this their leading project of the year. Our members entered into the fundraising campaign with great enthusiasm, with the result that the completed field was dedicated on October 31, 1947 at a cost of upward of $20,000.00, part of which was assumed by the Athletic Department of the School.

The greatly increased attendance at games quickly made up the additional cost and left only the project of building permanent seats for the field as a future undertaking.

"The Broadcaster,' the club weekly publication, was started in 1925 and has continued without interruption during all these years. It has been the means of keeping the members informed of the plans of the various club committees, and also includes comment in the different programs presented to the club, of particular benefit to absent members. The publication of 'The Broadcaster' each week has represented many hours of effort on the part of the secretary, and Bill Wood, who carried on this work for years and years, has earned the gratitude of the members for giving so unselfishly of his time and talent to this purpose.

"Rotary Anns—The lady members (God bless 'em) have been most helpful in carrying out the aims of the club and their presence on Ladies' Nights has been heart-warming to the members. Here is an orcaid to each of them.

"We wish to pay recognition to the members of the Kiwanis Club, who have always cooperated so splendidly, to the Hi-12 and also to the members of the more recently organized Lion's Club. Between us we can surely carry out any project that is needed in Plymouth to make it a more desirable place in which to live and rear our children. The club appreciates the honor of having had one of its members, George A. Smith, serve as District Governor during the past Rotary year."

Near Lisco, Nebraska, Benny Ovido stopped his car on a railroad crossing to make certain the tracks were clear, jumped free just before the car was demolished by a train.

township crew Tuesday morning. When department members arrived the blaze was working toward small buildings on the property, but all were saved from damage.

Five minutes after this call was received, another came in reporting a grass fire at the C. H. Bennett farm.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Joseph Klein, Jr. of 6053 Lotz road was forced to call the township department to fight a grass fire which got out of hand. Before it was finally quelled, dog kennels and a chicken coop were damaged.

That evening the township fire fighters received their 20th call. It reported a grass fire at the corner of West Ann Arbor road and West Ann Arbor trail. No damage was incurred.

Chief Jewell reminds all township residents to place fire calls at 2020.

states that there were four judges. They awarded Plymouth three firsts and one second. Four years ago, he recalls, the local band got a fourth division rating. Since that time they have come up one rating a year.

Comments written on the judging sheeting praised the Plymouth band. One read, "An excellent job, and a very satisfying one musically. Your community should certainly be proud of this group, and fortunate in its conductor." Another stated, "Fine instrumentation. Army Day Proclamation

The President of the United States, as commander-in-chief of the Armed Forces, has designated April 6, 1949, as ARMY DAY throughout the United States and at our overseas installations.

This annual observance enables the United States Army to report to the people it serves on the present state of its affairs and its plans for the future. It is designed also to remind the people of our nation of the contributions the Army has made to the securing of the peace and the preservation of the American way of life. It is an opportunity to focus the attention of our people on the importance of national security and on the sacrifices which have been made to guarantee freedom—now our birthright.

In times of peace, the United States Army in its training camps, its laboratories, and its schools continue to serve the people in research, public works and in the occupied countries around the world. In time of war the Army's mission is to destroy the enemy that would destroy us. In both peace and war, our Army serves the cause of justice and human dignity wherever men want to be free.

Therefore, I Mayor Frank Henderson, do hereby proclaim April 6, 1949, as Army Day and call upon the citizens of the City of Plymouth to observe Army Day by the display of our national colors, suitable meetings and parades and by continued support of our Army, National Guard and Reserve organizations in the maintenance of our national security.

Organization of Elks Chapter Moves Forward

Completion of the first organizational meeting of the Benevolent Protective Order of the Elks in Plymouth brought an announcement that arrangements had already been made for a second one on April 6.

Philip Barney, acting chairman, states that again the meeting will take place in the Jewell and Blaich hall, beginning at 8 p.m. Attendance will be open to not only those attending the first, but also to those men who were unable to be present at the March 23 meeting.

Also actively assisting in the formation of the local organization is Ted Box, acting secretary.

The first meeting was attended by 28 men.

Officials from chapters in this vicinity attending the first meeting and who helped with the initial planning were: Lou Koepfgen and Irvin T. Unger, officers of the Detroit organization; Edwin Klotz, exhalted ruler of the Ann Arbor chapter; Austin D. Eslep of Pontiac, district deputy grand exhalted ruler; and Judge Jay Payne, past district deputy grand exhalted ruler.

In Jefferson City, Missouri, Prison Trusty M. T. McDonald finished off his weekly sermon at the penitentiary with the text: "I go to prepare a place for you—that where I am, there ye may be also," a few hours later escaped.

It is estimated that 25,000 Navy personnel are in travel status at all times.

Dale Carnegie

Author of "HOW TO WIN FRIENDS and INFLUENCE PEOPLE" AN UNSUNG HEROINE

HERE'S a courageous story, similar to those that are enacted over and over again every day, for which the heroine receives no credit.

Four years ago, the sister of Mrs. Rose Gislason, Winnipeg, Canada, was sent to the hospital, leaving with Mrs. Gislason her little boy of three months. The little fellow was delicate, didn't want to eat and, when he did take food, it didn't agree with him.

D. Carnegie

Of course, this necessitated the most meticulous care on the part of Mrs. Gislason, since the baby grew dearer and dearer to her. He seemed like her own child, and since it seemed he could hardly pull through, she held him more and more closely to her.

By and by, he began to pick up, and finally grew healthy and strong, so miraculous is love. His mother came home from the hospital—but not for long. After six months of caring for both mother and baby, Mrs. Gislason lost her sister forever.

The father was in no position to care for the child, so he became more and more Mrs. Gislason's baby. Bright and affectionate, she says she loved him as much as her own two little boys.

Then it happened. You've probably guessed. He was four years old, and was calling Mrs. Gislason "mother" when the father wrote that he had re-married and was now in a position to "relieve" Mrs. Gislason of the care of the little boy. "Relieve her!" But since our understanding is based largely on our own experiences, how could he be expected to understand? Legally, however, the little fellow belonged to his father!

How did she find comfort? By constantly reminding herself that a little boy needed his father; by recalling the happy hours he had brought into her life for four wonderful years. Many a woman had never had even four months, or four weeks, or four days of a little child's love and dependence.

Scholarship Student Wins Praise

Although most persons are not given an opportunity to actually assist in instructing the youth of America, those in this area can still help some local girl realize her dreams of a higher education, states Sister Mary Paula, president-dean of Madonna college.

Contributions made to the school's scholarship fund last year by far sighted residents of Plymouth have already helped one student to get closer to her ideal, the dean continued. She is Geraldine Henderlong, of 14320

Haggerty road, who graduated last June from Plymouth High school.

Telling of Geraldine's situation, Sister Mary Paula stated that the young girl has long been attracted to a career of nursing, but circumstances made college unthinkable for her for at least several years.

School officials soon heard about her, at a time when the fund which was inaugurated for just such girls was slowly growing, the dean continued. Early in June the college notified Geraldine that the scholarship provided by Plymouth benefactors was open to her.

The fact that "Gerry" has been the type of a student that teachers dream of, can be vouched for by students and members of the faculty, her dean stated. She is described as being "on the alert at both study and play."

This year's scholarship fund is slowly growing, and Sister Mary Paula believes that before June another will be provided.

In San Francisco, Jeweler Harry Winters reported that $950 had disappeared from his store while detectives were investigating a $45,000 burglary.

DAR's Report on Flint Conference; Mrs Mastick Elected to State Board

Several members of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution attended the 49th state conference held in Flint last weekend.

Outstanding news the members reported upon their return dealt with the election of Mrs. Earl Mastick as a member of the state board. She was named to the post of state registrar.

Mrs. Mastick and Mrs. Maxwell Moon left Friday morning for the conference which was held in the Durant hotel. According to their report, Mrs. Chester F. Miller, of Saginaw, state regent, was the presiding officer, and she entertained the honor guests, state officers and regents, at luncheon that noon.

During the afternoon sessions, reports of state officers and state chairmen were followed by an address given by the recording secretary-general, Mrs. Edwin Stanton Lammers of Texas.

A description of proceedings by local women attending, further revealed that Mrs. Miller cited the work done in Michigan with the American Indian, the DAR's contribution of scholarships for two at the Lansing Nursing school, one at Albion, and another at Lawrence, Kansas. She also told that the Michigan society donated $2,700 to complete an apartment for the faculty at the Kat Duncan Smith school at Grant, Alabama, one of the schools supported by the DAR.

Friday evening a formal banquet was held in the hotel's ballroom, at which Robert Kazmayer of New York was guest speaker. Speaking from experience gained while conducting tours through Europe, he stressed the importance of citizenship. "Increasingly, over large areas of our society, there is coming to be a feeling that everyone can do less and less work, collect more and more pay for what he does not do. They also believe the nation can grow stronger doing it." Mr. Kazmayer pointed out that "This is the philosophy the French adopted following World War I, which led them to the brink of destruction before World War II began."

Spicer, of Plymouth, Mrs. E. J. Wylie of Rosedale Gardens and Mrs. John Litzberger of Northville arrived for the meeting that day. Accompanying them were the two DAR Pilgrims chosen from the Plymouth and Northville senior classes. They were Barbara Goodbold of Plymouth and Ruth Simonds of Northville. The Good Citizenship Pilgrimage procession was held at 11 a. m., followed by the presentation of awards and an address by Dr. Charles L. Anspach, president of Central Michigan college. The Pilgrims were honored at luncheon at the Masonic Temple.

During the business session a member of the local chapter was put on the state board when Mrs.

Earl Mastick was named to the post of state registrar.

Following the election of the new state officers, the 49th conference closed with the singing of "America" and the retiring of the colors.

Plymouth 49'ers to Meet Tonight for Square Dance

Plymouth 49'er square dancers will meet in the high school gymnasium this evening, Thursday, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

An orchestra has been secured to provide dancing music. Scott Colburn will act as caller for the evening.

According to the committee in charge, refreshments will be served.

Art Students Win Contest Awards

Awards were presented to three Plymouth High school art students for their entries in an art contest sponsored by Crowley Milner and company.

Jean Gillies received an award for her entry in design for dress fabric. An award was presented to Charles Todd for his entry in a dark and light scheme. Joy Evanoff received an award for each of her three entries. Two of Joy's entries were fashion drawings in which she worked for originality and appropriateness and the other entry was a charcoal portrait which was worked for character.

The aim of the contest, as in previous years, is to set up high standards of achievements in art and not to discourage the students.

Students having a "B" or better mark in art were eligible to attend the exhibition. In attending the students gained a wider view of knowledge in work such as charcoal drawings, pen and ink drawings, and oil paintings, clay models and photography.

Goal is Set for Magazine Sales

With $3,500 set as this year's goal, Joe Shields of the Crowell-Collier Publishing company will introduce the annual magazine campaign during an assembly today, March 31, for the purpose of raising money for the inter-communication system. The money from last year's sales also was placed in this fund.

Posters and a thermometer will be provided by the art department under the supervision of Mrs. Frances Overton. The journalism classes, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth McDonald, are in charge of all publicity. Bookkeeping will be handled by Harry Fountain, and the students from the commercial department. Prizes will be selected and purchased by the Student Council under the direction of Miss Irene Walldorf.

As before, this drive will be carried through the homerooms with the seventh through 12th grades participating. Daily prizes will be awarded to the high salesman of the day.

In Salt Lake City, the editors of the state prison newspaper had a consoling word for their fellow convicts: "No one is entirely useless. Even the worst of us can serve as horrible examples."

In Davenport, Iowa, two employees on trial for stealing from their boss were cheered by the receipt of their annual bonus checks.

Health Knowledge Tests Given 20 P.H.S. Students

A "Health Knowledge Test" was given 20 Plymouth High students, five from each grade, as part of an introduction to a project to standardize a health knowledge test for high school students.

The material for this test was sent to two high schools in each state in an effort to get a nation-wide reaction on the tests.

The tests were sponsored by the University of Colorado under the direction of Arden K. Ruddle of Boulder, Colorado.

Biology Students Tour Museum

The fifth and sixth hour biology classes traveled to the Natural History Museum in Ann Arbor, Friday, March 25, by school bus to view the various things they have been studying, among which is the study of prehistoric man and animals through several stages of development. Ross Hedrick, biology instructor, accompanied the group.

The collections they saw at the museum were fossils, skulls, and skeletons of dinosaurs, reptiles, birds, and fish. Charts of man from the archeozoic to the psychozoic era were also viewed, as were many preserved birds, fish, and mammals of Michigan in their natural environments.

The biology classes make these trips once each term, so that each student visits the museum at least once while he is taking biology.

"Rocks" Win in Opinion Poll

An opinion poll was taken last week in Plymouth High school to determine if the nickname of Plymouth High school athletic squads should be changed.

In an essay contest a few weeks ago the name "Pirates" was selected to oppose "Rocks." When the votes were counted the "Rocks" won over the "Pirates" by a large margin.

Y-Teens Sponsor Skating Party

A roller skating party was held by the Y-Teens, on Monday, March 28, from 7 to 9:30 p.m. at the Riverside Roller Rink and was open to all students, grades nine through 12.

Jane Houk was in charge of the party.

Six Senior Boys Attend Engineering Conference

Possibly some of America's future engineers and scientists attended an engineering conference held Wednesday, April 6, at the Rackham Building. It was the Fourteenth Annual Vocational Guidance conference for high school seniors interested in engineering and science occupations.

Six senior boys accompanied by Mel Blunk attended the conference from Plymouth High school. The program opened with a general assembly in the large auditorium. Conferences with speakers in the science and engineering professions in the Detroit area followed.

Dr. Ivan C. Crawford, dean of the college of engineering, University of Michigan, was the speaker for the assembly. Individual invitations and cards of admission were mailed to the students by the Engineering Society. Parents, principals, counselors and teachers were welcome to attend.

By REV. ROBERT H. HARPER. Turning Toward the Cross.

Lesson for April 3: Mark 8:27-34; Luke 9:23-35, 51.

Memory Selection: Mark 8:34.

In the second quarter we continue studies in the Life of Christ. Today we first consider the Great Confession. The place was among the sources of the Jordan river.

His thoughts "turning toward the Cross," Jesus then began to tell the disciples of the things that awaited him. In the consternation that followed, Peter, as usual, was the spokesman.

The transfiguration, with only Peter and James and John with Jesus, evidently came to Jesus as he prayed, and was given him for his own assurance and also to strengthen the faith of the disciples.

Great Confession and Transfiguration both pointed to the Cross that awaited Jesus and soon, as the last passage of the lesson tells us, Jesus "steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem." He was going to the Cross. And what a blessing it would be to a sorrowing and anxious world if all men would now turn toward the Cross.

Volleyball Is In Full Swing at Starkweather

The sport of volleyball is still in full swing at Starkweather, reports Herb Woolweaver, city recreation director. Those taking part are enjoying this type of recreation to the utmost.

Woolweaver urges everyone to come and enjoy the sport. Admission is free. All that is needed is a pair of gym shoes or rubber soled shoes. Meeting nights are: men on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., girls on Thursday at 7:30 p.m., and women on Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Girls' League Softball Rules

Teams represented: Wayne and Romulus, Maynard Lucas, Daisy, Floyd Fleming, Twin Junes, Eileen Williams, Mike Spitz; umpires association, Earl Gray.

The unanimous opinion of the group was in favor of an inter-city girls league including: Romulus, Wayne, Northville, Detroit (Helin Tackle—Mibs Fedoroka), two or three teams from Plymouth and any other town close by. All home games to be played on the home fields. This would mean traveling for all teams except the Dehoco girls. Their games would all be played at Dehoco, including the playoff games involving them.

The entry-fee hasn't been determined as yet for out-of-town teams, but will be taken care of at our next meeting on Monday, May 2 at 7 p.m. in the Plymouth recreation office. The kind of awards for the winners will also be decided at this meeting by the managers involved.

RULES CHANGED:

Rule 9—The last sentence changed to read "No full inning is to start after one hour and ten minutes of playing time has elapsed."

Rule 14—The reference of umpire was changed to supervisor. The home team will take the field last for warm up.

Rule 23—Added—All questions of rules concerning the game must be discussed only by the manager or captain with the umpire. Umpires from players will immediately subject them to suspension from their teams; the time will be designated by your game supervisor and the amount will depend on the nature of the offensive act. No smoking by players or coaches on the playing field. It is ok to do so on the bench.

Meeting adjourned at 8 p.m. Next meeting Monday, May 2 at 7 p.m. in the recreation office.

Lutheran Bowlers Go to Tournament

Twenty bowlers from Plymouth's Lutheran league will take part in the 20th Annual Lutheran Bowling tournament tomorrow, Saturday.

At 5:50 p.m. the men will assemble in double squads at the Great Lakes Bowling Center in Detroit. Teams will include the following: Harold Stevens-George Schultz, Joseph Rowland-Wesley Sheere, Anthony Kreger-Norman Mahrley, Edwin Ash-William Clement, Carl Wagenschutz-Harvey Jahn.

Others meeting at the same time are: Vincent Forshee-Raymond Williams, Lawrence Blunk-Edwin Goebel, Arnold Ash-Gustave Eschels, Jarvis Wendland-Arthur Merryfield, Nick Vandersloot-Walter Foerster.

Bowlers taking part in the competition on Saturday and Sunday will come from Fort Wayne, Indiana; Cleveland, Euclid and Toledo, Ohio; East Tawas, Lansing, Romulus, New Boston, Wyandotte, East Detroit, St. Clair Shores, Detroit and Plymouth.

Plymouth's Last Cage Hope Bows

Bowing to Adrian 69-31 the Plymouth representative in the Michigan Recreation basketball finals, Sport Shop, ended all opportunities for a Plymouth team to win a cage championship this year.

The contest was played at the Adrian college gym on Thursday, March 24. Previous to this battle Sport Shop had beaten Centerline in the district tournaments at Pontiac. However, a flaw was found in the winning of this game as Sport Shop used two players illegally. Sport Shop played two men under the names of Maynard Schmidt and Glen Simmons. The punishment for this act will be announced at a later date.

Men's League Softball Rules

Teams represented: Beglinger Oldsmobile, Gabby Street, Nick's Bar, Fred Thompson, (no sponsor as yet); Champion Corrugated, J. P. Torrence; Wayne, Maynard Lucas; umpires' association, Earl Gray.

Unanimously agreed policies were as follows: All season games involving Dehoco to be played at Dehoco Field, if they so desire. All play-off games must be played at Plymouth High school field. All games at Dehoco must start at 6 p.m. slow time.

The league winner will receive the individual and team awards for highest percentage at the close of the regular season. The winner of the playoffs will receive the honor and right to represent Plymouth in the state Class B tournament to be held in Ludington in August.

Individual awards are not to be medals. Suggestions, up for further study to be decided on at the next regular meeting, were: chenille emblems properly lettered for jackets, small wall plaques, or mounted regulation softballs.

RULE CHANGED:

Rule 10—The last sentence changed to read: "No full inning is to start after one hour and ten minutes of playing time has elapsed."

RULE 15—The reference of umpires was changed to supervisor. The home team will take the field last for warm up.

RULE 16: The addition to this rule as: no smoking by players or coaches on the playing field, but ok on the bench, if necessary, but the general opinion was that they should not.

Meeting adjourned at 10 p.m. Next meeting, Monday, May 2, 8 p.m. in recreation office.

The Army Day theme: The United States Army—part of the team—for security, April 6.

Shuffleboard Tourney Arouses Interest

The interest shown on the players' faces, as well as the fans' faces, reveals to what a fine extent the shuffleboard tournament has gone over.

Shuffleboard was introduced to the city about three months ago. Since that time the game has aroused much interest with the result that a doubles tournament is now being held at the Plymouth Recreation rooms. All games are played Wednesday night. The officers of the tourney are president, William Shepard; secretary, John Nelson; treasurer, Roy Williams; and the committee, Frank Veresh and D. Rutenbar.

Northville Slates April Boxing Bout

The next scheduled boxing bouts for the Plymouth Recreation boxing club is carded for Northville on Wednesday, April 20.

The tentative date for the next home card is Saturday night, April 23.

Rock Nine Meets Bentley First

An additional game with Bentley High has been added to the Rocks baseball slate. The contest will be played Tuesday, April 12. On Friday, April 29, the Rocks will open their league schedule at Belleville.

The team's first inter-squad game will probably be played tomorrow afternoon on the high school field. By tomorrow the squad will be cut down to approximately 20 players.

At this point the catching staff appears to be well handled by Jerry Harder, Bob Gow and Lloyd Campbell. Jack Scheel, Mickey Brown, and Dave Reitzel have been doing effective work on the mound. Heading the infielders are Phil Bosman, Dick Fenton, Bill Newstead and Jim McDowell. Pacing the out-gardeners are Larry Finney, Fletch Campbell and George Hunter.

This spring the Rocks mentor is John Sandmann, a former star outfielder on the eastern seaboard.

Team No. 8 Holds Lead of League

Setting the pace in the Lutheran bowling league is Team No. 8 which has 61 points. This men's loop meets every Friday evening at the Parkview alleys.

Teams No. 3 and 7 are tied for second place with 60 points, while Team No. 2 has 59 points. The highest of five games Friday was rolled by J. Wendland, who was credited with a 223 game.

Joe's Jottings

The unpredictable Dick Wakefield, outfielder for the Detroit Tigers, seems to be the target for most of the sport writers gibes again this spring as in the past few years. From what the sport scribes write, one can never find anything good about the ex-University of Michigan athlete. Too much importance has been placed on Wakefield's value to the team for one matter. In the spring the headlines burst forth with banners similar to this, "If Wakefield Hits, Tigers Will Win" and "Teams Chances Depend On Wakefield." This is not sensible to the team's chances or to Dick's opportunities of making good. The Detroit Press has been on Wakefield ever since he came out of the service. Just because he had two sensational years in 1943 and 1944 the Tiger reporters think that he should keep the hitting up against top-flight pitching. From Dick's record in '43 and '44 and the past three years, one can only say that Dick is a war-time ball player. Because of these facts the sport writers shouldn't haunt Wakefield with sayings that he will be the inspiration and the hitting force behind another Tiger pennant winning team.

Softball fans in the area will be treated to another fine season this summer. This year the after-dark contests will be played on a new field which is to be constructed east of the football field on the Plymouth High school athletic field. New light poles also will be constructed for the games. Already Nick's Bar, a strong aggregation from Detroit, has expressed willingness to enter the men's league this season. Last summer Nick's was one of the top three teams in the league. The other two squads were the state Class B softball champs, Dehoco, and Oldsmobile.

It appears that John Sandmann, coach of the Plymouth Rocks, has his four pitchers all set for the coming season. Included among the four are three lettermen, Mickey Brown, Jack Scheel and Dave Reitzel. The other hurler is Wally Dzurus, the sophomore southpaw. Reitzel is a lefty also. Scheel and Brown have been on the squad in their junior and sophomore years. This is Reitzel's second year and Dzurus' first on the varsity nine.

Social items can be phoned to 1755.

Tournament Will Include First National

Plymouth First National Bank has entered the Michigan AAU basketball tournament, which begins Tuesday, April 5. Early first round games will be played at Hackett Field House in Highland Park and the Gross Pointe Neighborhood club.

The Plymouth aggregation will play at Hackett Field House with Ford Motor, Stewart, Alma Gittleman, River Rouge A. C. Ray's, Arlington, Belleville, Wayne Moose, Ford Local 600. All told 20 teams are slated to play in the tourney.

KEEP FIT -- BOWL!

To The Voters Of Plymouth

On Monday, April 4, 1949 the people of the City of Plymouth will select three members of the City Commission, a Constable and a Municipal Judge—the last two offices being contested.

My experience and technical training qualify me for the assumption of the responsibility of the office of Municipal Judge.

In 1927 I finished High School at the Michigan School for the Blind, Lansing, Michigan and the following fall enrolled at the Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan, receiving an A.B. degree and State Teacher's Life certificate from that school four years later.

In 1934, I was admitted to the University of Michigan Law School, from which institution I received my L.L.B. in 1937 and passed the bar examination in June of the same year.

I obtained employment with the State of Michigan shortly thereafter and remained in Lansing until October 1939, when I was transferred to the Wayne County Bureau of Social Aid, in Detroit, as a legal advisor.

In November of 1942, I became associated in the practice of Law in Plymouth with Dunbar Davis, a former classmate of mine at law school.

During the six years I have lived in Plymouth and practiced law here I have been amazed at the friendliness and kindness that has been extended to me and my family.

In closing let me urge you to make a special effort to exercise your right to vote on April 4, 1949. Your support in my campaign for the office of Municipal Judge will be greatly needed and appreciated.

Very truly yours,
NANDINO PERLONGO

These Events Were News 25 Years Ago

Last Sunday was a memorable day for the Evangelical Lutheran St. Peter's congregation of Plymouth, the dedication of its remodeled and enlarged church being the great festival event of the day. Although the weather was not very favorable, a large crowd waited at the door, when Rev. Charles Strasen, with his two assistants, Rev. F. Krauss and Rev. E. Rupp appeared to open the church.

The village commission met for the last session of the fiscal year, Monday evening, and after transacting a few remaining items of business adjourned sine die. The new commission was then called to order by Sidney D. Strong, village clerk. The first action was the election of a president for the coming year. John W. Henderson, who has filled the office most satisfactorily for several years, was the unanimous choice of the members of the commission for this important office.

A number of merit badges were awarded last Wednesday evening at the regular meeting of Plymouth Boy Scout Troop No. 1. Badges, bringing them near to being life Scouts, were presented to: William Rambo, Edwin Schrader and Allan Strong.

A number of young folks surprised Estelle Rowland on Wednesday evening of last week, in honor of his birthday. The evening was spent in a very enjoyable manner. A lovely lunch was served, after which the young people departed, wishing Estelle many more happy birthdays. He received a number of beautiful and useful gifts.

Fraternal Dinner is Saturday Night

On Saturday evening, April 30, at 7:30 p.m., the Masons, Knights of Columbus and the B'nai B'rith of the greater Detroit area, including many from Plymouth, will hold their eighth annual Interfraternal dinner.

This year the Knight of Columbus are the hosts for the affair and will give the dinner in the St. Mary Magdalen Parish hall on Wood street at West Outer drive in Melvindale. The Interfraternal dinner is sponsored by the Detroit Round Table of Catholics, Jews and Protestants, and each successive year one of the three fraternal groups plays the role of host.

The honorable Archie H. Cohen, prominent Chicago attorney and past president of the District Grand Lodge, number six of B'nai B'rith, will be one of the three keynote speakers. Dr. Herbert Beecher, pastor of the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian church for the past nine years, will share the platform. The third speaker, Mr. Gus Van-ech, a prominent Catholic layman and Assistant U. S. Attorney General, will come from Washington, D. C. for the dinner.

Robert H. Jones, Grand Knight of the Lincoln Park Council, K. of C., is the general chairman for the eighth annual Interfraternal dinner. Serving with him are; Louis E. Barden, for B'nai B'rith, Willis Harvey for the Masons and Fred J. Potvin for the Knights of Columbus.

Air Force Applicants Offered Transportation

Effective April 1, 1949, applicants for training as United States air force aviation cadets will be furnished government transportation for all travel required during processing, according to S/Sgt. Long, Plymouth recruiting officer.

Applicants for aviation cadet training tentatively accepted at a Michigan Army and Air Force Recruiting station will be furnished transportation to one of the five recruiting main stations to take the aviation cadet mental and qualifying examinations. Recruiting Main stations in Michigan are located at Detroit, Fort Custer, Grand Rapids, Traverse City and Escanaba.

Applicants determined qualified at recruiting main stations for further processing by the aviation cadet examining board at the nearest air force base will be furnished round trip transportation for appearance before Oscoda Centennial? Shmoo Club? or ???

The two local business men pictured above, William Choffin and Roy Williams are causing much local concern among their friends and customers with the sporty beards they have been supporting for the last few weeks. Neither will reveal the exact purpose of undergrowth and speculation has it that they are either unofficial members of the Oscoda centennial committee that conducted the 100th anniversary of that northern community last year or that they are the leading officers in a new local organization called the Shmoo club. At any rate which ever it is or what ever it is, both are extremely proud of the success of their efforts.

the board and accomplishment of physical examinations.

Under the new eight class per year schedule of training aviation cadets, nearly 5,000 young men are slated to be trained as air force pilots each year.

Qualifications for aviation cadet applicants remain the same. Men 20 to 26½ years of age, with two years of college training or able to pass an equivalent examination, married or unmarried, are eligible for cadet training.

Young men of the Plymouth area interested in applying for aviation cadet training should report to the U. S. Army and U.S. Air Force Recruiting station at the City Hall on Tuesdays and Thursdays for complete information.

Babson Discusses Mr. Truman's "Prosperity"

Washington, D. C. April 1.—Harry Truman told voters last fall they needed a Democratic "Fair Deal" Congress to protect their pocketbooks, their homes, their futures, and even the happiness of their children. I know a few workers who are beginning to smart under this "Fair Deal." Today they can't pay the grocer or the landlord.

FOR years, Barbara Whiting, who stars in "Junior Miss," has been haggling with singer-sister Margaret Whiting for the best room in the Hollywood Whiting household, and for dresses, perfumes and other items sisters generally feud about. . . . Now that Maggie is Mrs. Hubbell Robinson and a way from home, Barbara whistles a different tune. . . . "It's a lonely old world," she sighs wistfully. . . . CBS reports that Bing Crosby will have a new sponsor when he airs over that net next season.

PLATTER CHATTER

Capitol: Dean Martin has a new record out that should click in a big way. . . . It's "Johnny Get Your Girl," a rhythmic, simple little ditty that he treats lightly and pleasingly. . . . The reverse has "Have a Little Sympathy." . . . Another bright young crooner, Gordon MacRae, comes up with a swingy tune, "I Get Up Every Morning." . . . He changes his style completely on the flip, a romantic ballad entitled "The Right Girl for Me."

"No Orchids for My Lady" is a tender ballad appropriately handled by Jan Garber, with Tim Reardon taking good care of the lyrics. . . . The reverse has "Everywhere You Go," another revival, and a cute one. . . . Jo Stafford and Gordon MacRae combine talents again and have a winner in "A, You're Adorable," which has a catchy, light air and clever lyrics. . . . The flipover is "Need You," in which they blend their voices in a romantic ballad. . . . A lovely, haunting continental ballad, "Comme Ci, Comme Ca," which we predict will be heading the Hit Parade before not too long, is beautifully handled by wonderful Margaret Whiting.

The postwar boom has faded so badly that nearly all of our governors are crying for Federal Aid. Unemployment in some states is up 100%. In some New England towns where the normal working population totals five to ten thousand, as many as 40% of the working population are unemployed.

The economic laws of life are catching up with Mr. Truman in spite of the clairvoyant prognostications of his economic pontificate. Retail sales volume has shrunk. Unemployment consequently continues to increase. Carloadings have likewise slumped. Rail, plane, and bus seats are vacant. Hotel accommodations are available without advance reservations. Automobiles are once again procurable. Food prices are down.

Clothing prices have been slashed. The housing boom is busted. Business failures are up. Warehouses are full, and many concerns are burdened by too heavy inventories. Why?

Have Americans Lost Their Initiative

The fact of the matter is, some thinking Americans are pretty well convinced that Harry Truman himself is not only killing the proverbial goose, but also smashing the golden eggs. Many sharing this opinion are American businessmen. They are the ones who supply the jobs. They are the main spring of every "Main Street" in every city—large or small—of the United States. They are best symbolized by sweat and ulcers.

In the face of bureaucratic waste and inefficiency and demands for greater bureaucratic control to create more waste, businessmen are getting discouraged. With the President wanting to embark upon steel-making, regardless of the consequences to jobs and savings of millions involved, businessmen rightly question the President's business acumen.

Give Freedom a Chance

Perhaps there are no longer men left with the competitive spirit. Perhaps all Americans are fast becoming a bunch of leeches unwilling to exert the individual energy necessary to keep this country great. I cannot believe this. I am old-fashioned enough to believe in America and in those creative principles which have made her great. I think Mr. Truman needs to develop a similar faith in our country. He needs to add a fifth freedom to the now famous four—namely, FREEDOM OF ENTERPRISE.

The fruits of freedom will ripen only if the social climate is conducive to good growth. The human organism may have the experience, knowledge, and necessary inheritance to develop into a full-blown free man. But, how humans use these assets and their savings depends on environmental factors which alone develop industry, perseverance, competitiveness, and self-reliance. In short, the human organism must be adequately conditioned and motivated to "git up and git." This is a lesson in elementary psychology of human relations which President Truman overlooks.

Government's True Function

If Mr. Truman is sincere in his desire to fulfill his campaign promises, he will try to remedy his gross misunderstanding of business functions. He will realize the importance of the competitive spirit and the profit motive in a healthy and free national economy. Government is justified in preventing monopolies and assuring that business is carried on honestly; but otherwise politics and business do not mix to make prosperity.

curable. Food prices are down. Clothing prices have been slashed. The housing boom is busted. Business failures are up. Warehouses are full, and many concerns are burdened by too heavy inventories. Why?

Have Americans Lost Their Initiative

The fact of the matter is, some thinking Americans are pretty well convinced that Harry Truman himself is not only killing the proverbial goose, but also smashing the golden eggs. Many sharing this opinion are American businessmen. They are the ones who supply the jobs. They are the main spring of every "Main Street" in every city—large or small—of the United States. They are best symbolized by sweat and ulcers.

Jacquelyn Dalton and David Johnson Repeat Vows in Candlelight Setting

Nuptial vows were read by the Rev. Henry J. Walsh in the First Presbyterian church for Jacquelyn Elizabeth Dalton and David Johnson, at a candlelight ceremony on Saturday, March 26.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John Dalton, and Mr. Johnson is the son of Mrs. Sarah Johnson of Holbrook avenue.

"Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by the bridegroom's sister, Barbara Johnson, preceding the double ring ceremony.

Before an altar decorated with large baskets of white snapdragons and lighted tapers, the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Paul Bengtson of Hartford, Connecticut.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white satin and styled with princess lines, the skirt ending in a short train. The empire neckline was edged in a lace ruffle, and the long fitted sleeves ended in points over the wrists. The bride's fingertip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of lilies of the valley, and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses.

Mary Jane Christensen was chosen to act as maid of honor to the bride. Her gown of royal blue satin was styled along the same lines as the bridal gown. Miss Christensen carried American beauty roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Frank Knight of Lansing as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dalton chose a floor length gown of aqua crepe with an aqua lace peplum. She wore lace mitts of the same shade and a corsage of talisman roses.

Mrs. Johnson wore a rose crepe dress with a yellow rose corsage.

A reception for 250 guests took place in the church parlors following the wedding ceremony. Out of town guests were present from Royal Oak, Ferndale, Belding, Pontiac, Detroit, Hartford, Connecticut and California.

For her going away costume, Mrs. Johnson chose a balenciago silk print dress with balenciago accessories and a light navy coat.

Mrs. Johnson was graduated from Plymouth High school in 1946 and is a junior at Michigan State college where she is affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Mr. Johnson is also a junior at Michigan State college and formerly served with the army for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home in Lansing.

New Members of Woman's Club Plan for Cooking Demonstration

Mrs. Milton Laible, president of the Plymouth Woman's club, announces that Mrs. Harrison Moore is general chairman of the charity benefit which new members present annually.

This year's project will take the form of a cooking demonstration and film on April 21 at 1:30 p.m. in the Penniman Allen theater. The entire program will be presented through the courtesy of the Wimsatt Appliance Shop.

Guild Presents First Play for Public Friday

The curtain will go up at 8 p.m. tomorrow evening, Friday, in the Central Grade school auditorium when Plymouth's Theater Guild presents its first public performance.

The one-act comedy which will be presented at that time is entitled "Love in a Cupboard." The cast includes Mrs. John Gaffield, Mrs. Hugh Law, Marvin Terry and Max Trucks.

Adele Miller is chairman of the House committee which will supervise the serving of refreshments to the guests.

Socially Speaking

By Mary Wright

Most of the Florida news this week is about people returning to their home towns, and Plymouth's sunny days have been a rival to the weather of the coastal states. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark left Bradenton, Florida last Monday on their return trip to Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark had been vacationing since December 15, and reported that they enjoyed visits from several Plymouth families also vacationing in that state.

Among the guests at the Clark's trailer home were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Jewell, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Worden, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stevens, Elton R. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jolliffe and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Blunk.

They returned via the East coast stopping in Washington, D. C. for sightseeing. From Washington the Clarks drove to York, Pennsylvania for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Robert Gildart.

After spending two weeks in the South, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phillips arrived at their home on Adams street Monday evening.

The Phillips' spent a day sightseeing at Natchez, Mississippi. From Natchez they drove to West Palm Beach for a visit with Mrs. Phillip's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Brown. While in Florida Mr. and Mrs. Phillips visited friends in Orlando and stopped at Fort Meyers and Ocala. Mrs. Phillips reported that they really didn't have much time to do much fishing, but the swimming was grand. They left Florida on Friday morning, and returned through Tennessee where they stopped for a tour to the Lookout Mountains, near Chattanooga.

There to offer their congratulations to Mr. Wolfe were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tycoki of Canton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moe, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hahn and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stremich.

The list continues further with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Corey, Mr. and Mrs. Vico Cesari, Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cavell, Mr. and Mrs. John Leitz, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bassett and Miss Gloria Jones.

Also present were Mrs. Clara Everson, Ross Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vealey, Frank Konazski, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Wolfe, and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Davey of Rochester.

The Penniman avenue home of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Balfour was the scene of a supper party on Sunday evening for some of their friends from Detroit. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. N. C. Atorhy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Baker, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Laurisin, Dr. and Mrs. Max Pierson and Dr. and Mrs. John Surbis.

Mrs. Lawrence Parmenter completed plans early this week for a stork shower which she is giving this evening, Thursday, in honor of Mrs. Cloyce Myers of Northville. She will serve a buffet luncheon to 14 guests. Decorations for the shower will be in pink and blue.

To the list of college students home for spring vacations this week, the names of Kit Hough and Katherine Moss are added. Kit was accompanied from Culver Military academy by Baxter Miller, a schoolmate. They arrived on Thursday to spend their vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cass S. Hough.

Miss Moss, a student at Michigan State college, returned to East Lansing on Tuesday, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moss of West Ann Arbor trail.

Completing the guest list were Mrs. L. C. Doyle, Miss Fay Duthy of Portland, Oregon, Mrs. Purchase of Saginaw, Mrs. Carrie Porter, Mrs. Lenora Plumley, and Mrs. Jane Thistle, all of Dearborn.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Bert Kahl entertained members of the 500 club in her home on West Ann Arbor road. Her guests were Mrs. Charles Hower, Mrs. Perry Campbell, Mrs. Robert Minock, Mrs. Frank Bradwell, Mrs. Lee Eldred, Mrs. John Murdoch and Miss Florence Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Demchak of Detroit entertained at a family dinner at their home on Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Fred Schoomaker, Jr. Mrs. Schoomaker and two children, who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Varga, are leaving by plane on April 2 for Fort Sill, Oklahoma where they will join Lieutenant Schoomaker.

On Saturday evening Mrs. Kenneth Wolfe was hostess at a surprise birthday party honoring the birthday of her husband. The Sheridan avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wolfe was the scene of the party.

There to offer their congratulations to Mr. Wolfe were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tycoki of Canton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moe, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hahn and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stremich.

The list continues further with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Corey, Mr. and Mrs. Vico Cesari, Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cavell, Mr. and Mrs. John Leitz, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bassett and Miss Gloria Jones.

Powers - Hopkins Nuptial Rites Held in Bride's Home

In a candlelight ceremony on Friday, March 18, Patricia Marquon Powers exchanged nuptial vows with James H. Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Hopkins of Lakeside drive.

The double ring rites were read by the Rev. Stockinger before an altar arrangement of pink and white carnations and lighted tapers in the St. Clair Shores home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Powers.

Preceding the ceremony, Barbara Houghton of Lansing presented "Because", "I Love You Truly", "At Dawning", "Through the Years" and the traditional "Wedding March."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a pale green wool dress with black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Ray Cockayne. Mrs. Cockayne wore a shell pink wool dress and a corsage of pink carnations.

With her honey beige crepe dress the bride's mother wore a corsage of talisman roses. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Hopkins, was attired in a dark green crepe dress and a corsage of talisman roses.

Following the wedding a reception for 70 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. Out of town guests were present from Ohio, Lansing, Three Oaks and Plymouth.

Mrs. Hopkins was graduated from Lakeshore High school. The bridegroom was graduated from Redford High school and attended the University of Michigan. At the present time he is employed by the Fisher Body guild in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins will make their home in Detroit.

Less Blue Wash Days Forecasted

A brighter "sock brigade" and less "blue" wash days are in store for Plymouth with the increasing supply of vat dyed cotton hosiery coming on the market.

If you have had the discouraging experience of opening up the washing machine to find a colored sock staining your husband's white shirts you will appreciate this news from Lola Belle Green, extension clothing specialist at Michigan State college.

Fast colors in cotton socks are gradually coming in the stores. Look for the words "vat dyed" on the labels. They are your best guarantee of colors fast to washing and sunlight.

Until about a year ago, the only vat dyed cotton socks were a small part of children's anklets and crew socks. These were limited to striped or argyle patterns. During the past year more vat dyed children's and infant's socks have been produced in plain colors.

Vat dyes are now making their way into the men's cotton hosiery field. While they are not widely available now, they should be in good quantity within the year.

Since most labels disappear after a few washings, it might be well to label vat dyed socks with colored thread so you will know which ones may be safely thrown in with the regular washing.

Part of the team—for security. Your United States Army. Fly the flag Army Day, April 6.

CORNED BEEF HASH MOLD
2 No. 2 cans corned beef hash
1 cup milk
2 eggs, well beaten
Combine milk and eggs. Blend the corned beef hash and milk-egg mixture thoroughly. Pack in a well-greased, floured 9-inch ring mold. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 30 minutes. Turn onto a hot platter. Fill center of mold with buttered corn or green peas. 8 to 10 servings.

SAUSAGE LINKS IN BATTER PUDDING
1 pound sausage links
2 cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup corn meal
4 eggs
Heat milk in double boiler. Add salt and corn meal. Stir constantly and cook 10 to 15 minutes. Cool slightly and add well-beaten eggs. Pour mixture into a well-greased baking dish, and place sausage links on top. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 40 to 45 minutes.

Feed is Not Usual Cause of Chicken's Ailments

If you're blaming the feed of your chickens for ailments in the flock, the chances are that isn't where the fault lies, according to recent research reports received at Michigan State college and forwarded to Plymouth.

Howard Zindel, MSC extension poultryman, says that tests by the U. S. Department of Agriculture have shown that when feeds are at fault, it is almost always a deficiency in the ration used, rather than harmful ingredients, that causes death or disease symptoms.

The report states that the first impulse of many poultrymen seems to be to take a sample of feed and have an analysis made when disease of unknown origin occurs. Much better diagnosis usually comes from examination of the chickens by a poultry pathologist than by feed analysis.

Certain undesirable conditions in the flock are sometimes caused by diet, it is pointed out. Feather picking and cannibalism are related to diet and management, especially to overcrowding and diets low in fiber and salt.

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. These are short ribs of beef.

Q. Where does this cut come from and how is it identified?

A. The short ribs are cut from the plate and rib sections of beef and are made by sawing across the ribs. They consist of layers of fat and lean, and contain portions of the rib bones. Usually, they are cut in square, individual-sized serving pieces.

Q. How should this cut be prepared?
A. Short ribs of beef are either braised or cooked as a stew. To braise them, dredge in flour and brown on all sides in hot fat. Add a small amount of liquid (water, tomato juice, tomatoes, or other), cover tightly and cook slowly until tender, about 1 1/2 hours. To cook as a stew, follow the same procedure, but cover with liquid, and cook 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 hours. Near the end of the cooking time, vegetables may be added. Either method produces a good homey meal that will more than satisfy family appetites.

Successful Parenthood

BY MRS. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

NOT LONG AGO we were discussing a motion picture with a group of women whose task it was to decide whether or not the film was suitable for children. One of the committee members remarked indignantly, "But the boy told a barefaced lie—how can you recommend the film for children?"

As a matter of record, the film was finally considered too mature for children under 12, but not because of the boy's falsehood. That, in fact, was in the opinion of most of the committee one of those inescapable lies that most children succumb to now and then. The boy told a lie because the truth was too painful for him to utter.

The circumstances were these: the boy's beloved pony was dying and he knew it. But when a bunch of neighbor children trooped by to see him ride the pony they had heard so much about, he couldn't say, "You can't see my pony—he's in the barn sick—he's going to die." To put that terrible truth into words would have required age and maturity. So the boy said instead, "My father took the pony in town to get him shod."

This was not the fabrication of what strict disciplinarians used to call "a natural born liar." It was a defense against the hurts of life put up by one too young to know better.

The film, incidentally, is John Steinbeck's "The Red Pony" and this isn't the only example of its insight into childhood's problems. Indeed, parents could benefit greatly in increased understanding by seeing it. An undercurrent to the whole story is the unhappiness of the boy's parents. It isn't anything serious—like poverty, or infidelity or drunkenness. It is just the inability of two young people to understand what is in each other's hearts. The father is unconsciously jealous of his son's devotion to the hired man, who is a hero to the boy because he knows so much about horses.

Instead of acknowledging this to himself, the husband takes out his unhappiness on his wife's father—a garrulous old man whose long and oft-repeated tales of leading a caravan across the desert—"western" he calls it—irritate the younger man. This, in turn, puts the wife on the defensive out of loyalty to her father.

This familiar situation is sketched in the film from the point of view of its effect on the boy. The youngster doesn't miss a bit of the tension between his parents. Being a sensitive lad, he feels sorry for his grandfather, too, and tries in little, ineffectual boyish ways to comfort him.

If you suppose for one minute that you can bring children up in a tense, quarrelsome atmosphere and not have them equally tense and on their guard against the unpleasantness they dread, this film should help make it clear that children absorb as much through their feelings as through the words they hear spoken.

Another extreme example, that of a child's need to strike back at the injustices of life, is shown in the boy's insane attack on the vultures which he finds winging over his pony's body. The next time your child deliberately kicks a chair or mistreats his pet, try to find out what it is in his own life he is trying to get even with.

Women Told of Bright, Tempting Meatless Meals with Hearty Menus, Savory Recipes

A meatless meal can be exciting and tempting if you plan your menus around bright-looking, tasty cheese, fish, and egg dishes and a wonderful dessert, according to Prudence Dorn, who has two menus to suggest to Plymouthites, and some recipes, in McCull's for March:

MENU
Garlic Buttered Noodles
Spinach
French Bread
Fruit Upside-Down Cake
Coffee

Cheese Cutlets
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 cup all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup evaporated milk
1 cup water
1/2 lb. Am. Cheddar cheese grated

1 6-oz. can sliced mushrooms
6 stuffed olives, sliced
1 small onion, chopped
1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Few sprigs parsley, chopped
16 soda crackers, crushed
1 cup crushed cornflakes
4 tablespoons salad oil

Melt butter or margarine. Take off stove, mix in flour and salt until smooth, then gradually stir in milk and water. Cook slowly, stirring constantly, until thick. Add cheese and continue cooking, still stirring, until smooth and very thick.

Take off stove, add all other ingredients except cornflakes and salad oil. Chill 1 hour. Shape into cutlets, roll in cornflakes. Fry in hot oil until brown. Serves 4.

FRUIT UPSIDE-DOWN CAKE
1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1/2 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/4 cup shortening, melted
1/3 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup butter or margarine
4 cooked or canned pears
8 cooked or canned figs

Start your oven at 350° F. or moderate. Sift flour. Measure. Then sift again with baking powder, salt, white sugar. Mix up egg, milk, vanilla extract and stir into flour gradually. Then add shortening and beat hard a minute. Dissolve brown sugar with butter or margarine in heavy frying pan.

Place pear halves, cut side down, with figs in the brown sugar and butter mixture. Cover with cake batter and bake 50 minutes in frying pan. Turn upside down on plate and allow to stand so syrup drains into cake. Serve hot with whipped cream.

MENU
Fish Timbales with Egg Sauce
Buttered Celery
Stewed Whole Tomatoes
Corn Meal Croquettes
Real Brownie Pudding
Coffee

FISH TIMBALES
1 lb. fish (haddock, halibut, flounder, etc.)
1 medium-size onion
1 cup light cream
8 slices soft white bread
1/2 Salt
Few grains white pepper
4 egg whites

Start your oven at 325° F. or moderate. Grind fish and onion together twice, using medium blade. Heat cream to boiling point only. Cut crusts off bread, pull bread apart and drop into hot cream. Cook slowly, stirring hard, until you have a smooth, shiny mass. Then add fish mixture, salt and pepper and allow to cool.

Beat egg whites until stiff and mix or fold into fish and bread mixture very gently. Pour into 4 greased custard cups, place in shallow pan filled to a depth of 1 inch with hot water and bake 1 hour. Unmold and serve with:

EGG SAUCE
Melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine. Take off stove and stir in 2 tablespoons flour with 1 teaspoon salt until you have a smooth paste. Stir in 1 cup milk gradually. Put back on stove and cook, stirring constantly, until sauce has thickened. Pour sauce around fish timbales and, if you like, garnish with egg slices.

REAL BROWNIE PUDDING
1/2 cup brown sugar
5 tablespoons cocoa
1 cup hot water
1/3 cup all-purpose flour
1/4 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg
1/2 cup sugar
6 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
1/4 cup broken walnuts
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract

Start your oven at 350° F. or moderate. Mix up the brown sugar with 3 tablespoons of the cocoa. Sprinkle this over the bottom of an 8 1/2 in. by 4 1/2 in. by 2 1/2 in. greased pan. Pour the cup of hot water over this.

Sift the flour, baking powder, salt and remaining cocoa together. Beat egg until light and fluffy. Then mix in sugar and melted butter or margarine. Add the dry ingredients, walnuts, vanilla extract and beat very well. Place by spoonfuls on top of brown sugar and water mixture. Bake 35 minutes. Enough for 4.

"EASY DOES IT"

By HELEN HALE
PLACE a teaspoonful of salt into the water in which you cook eggs. This helps keep the shells from breaking. Lower eggs gently into the water.
To make a nice, quick topping for a simple cake, place a paper doily over the cake and sprinkle with powdered sugar. Remove doily gently and you'll have a lacy effect on the cake.
If you buy lamb patties which have already been formed into cakes, wrap them with a strip of bacon before broiling. Serve on lightly browned pineapple slices which have been topped with sweet potato patties, cooked.

SIZES 1, 2, 4, 6

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Broiled Cheese Sandwiches
(Serves 6)
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 pound shredded cheese
4 tablespoons chili sauce
1/4 teaspoon salt
6 slices bread
6 slices bacon
Mix together eggs, cheese, chili sauce and salt. Spread on bread which has been toasted on one side. Top with bacon and place under broiler until cheese is toasted and bacon is crisp.

Add mincemeat to pancake batter, fry into cakes, then serve with a sprinkling of lemon juice and a dusting of powdered sugar for a quick dessert.

Chopped, stuffed olives added to bread stuffing with a bit of olive liquor will pep up the flavor of veal. Use the stuffing for veal breast or veal birds.

To serve with pork roast or pork chops, carrots and apples are a good combination. Cut tart apples into eighths and the carrots into strips. Sprinkle with brown sugar. Cook in butter until tender, while roast is in the oven, or in a heavy-covered pan on top of the range.

A delightful pudding topping can be made by folding two tablespoons of orange marmalade into 1 cup of whipped cream.

Unused portions of canned foods should be left in the cans. Store them covered in the refrigerator.
Spiced beets add color to cabbage slaw. They may be sliced or cut in long strips and used to decorate the slaw.

"PLENTY OF RUNNING WATER MAKES OUR JOB EASIER!"

*Says JACK HARVEY R.F.D. No. 2 Utica, Mich.

Jack Harvey is mighty proud of the electric water system on his farm. He declares that not only did the installation pay for itself in a surprisingly short time, but it has jumped milk production 10%. Just as enthusiastic is Mrs. Harvey, who says that because of the completeness of the system, her family is now enjoying a far happier, healthier and more comfortable life than before installation.

No wonder thousands of other farmers, linked by Edison lines, have also discovered PROFITS GROW WHEN WATER FLOWS.

ENLARGE YOUR SYSTEM

Complete water systems and electric pumps of all types and capacities, for use in shallow, medium or deep wells are available for immediate installation. See your friendly Edison Farm Service Advisor for full details. There's no obligation to you.

Portion of Movie Filmed in Schools

Motion pictures were taken in Plymouth schools last week for a film which is to be entitled "The Sixth Chair."

Sponsored by the National School Service Institute, manufacturers of school equipment, it will show the needs of schools through "before and after" shots of education facilities in Michigan.

The idea for the film was furnished by an article written by Dwight Eisenhower, which appeared in the February issue of The Readers Digest. Written as an open letter to parents, it urged them to get behind education and achieve improvements.

Other schools in the state chosen as sites for the filming of the picture were Grosse Pointe High school, Mason schools and Herman school.

Completion of the film is expected by the end of next week. Eventually it will be available for showing to school students and members of clubs.

GET OUT OF THE RED—WITH NO RED TAPE!

Plymouth Finance Co. Across from Plymouth Mail 274 S. Main. PHONE 1630 JAMES B. O'HARA, Mgr.

Notwithstanding the fact that he is about as busy a busy businessman as there is in Plymouth, "Bob" Willoughby not only finds time to devote much of his attention to the work of the Salvation army, the Rotary club's crippled children's activities, St. John's church and attendance records of some 75 or 80 members of the Rotary club—but he takes a few minutes off now and then during the fishing season to fish for pike. In fact Bob is right now dreaming of the minutes he can get up on those lakes in Otsego county and drop some bright, new bait right where some big pike is waiting for it. But he's so busy that he does not have time to check on the new fishing tackle and baits that have come on the market during the past winter. So Mrs. Willoughby takes care of that little detail for him. During the past few days she has been making inquiry among some of Plymouth's old has-beens at the fishing game as to what is the best new bait for pike fishing that has come on the market during the past winter. The sum-total of her inquiries has brought forth the information that there isn't anything much better than the good old fashioned red and white dare-devil, alternating now and then with the black and white dare-devil. Confessionally, too, Bob has a certain place out back of his barn on Ann Arbor trail where he can dig up some nice, big fat angleworms anytime he wants 'em to feed to the fishes.

Fish stories seem to be the order of the day just now, although smelt are not yet running. With the return, however, of a good portion of Plymouth's population that went south during the winter months, one is just bound to hear fish stories, some true—others—well, you guess. But this one is reported to be a most truthful fish story. No one has ever before challenged the championship of Dr. Ace Williams to being the champ of all champs when it comes to catfish fishing. Doc grew up on the banks of the Mississippi down around Vicksburg, Mississippi where catfish are catfish and no one dares deny the fact. He caught 'em big and little, being the undisputed champ as to the number and size of catfish caught in the Mississippi river.

Now comes Matt Powell to challenge the supremacy of Doc Ace. It was not, however, a Mississippi catfish that Matt brags about catching. It was a "high-power" catfish of the kind that lives in the bays and backwaters of the Atlantic ocean along the east Florida coastline.

Matt says while fishing from a bridge over a canal near Boynton, Florida a while back he caught a catfish that weighed considerably over 22 pounds but possessed 222 horsepower plus.

"It wasn't the weight of the catfish I caught that caused all the trouble. I think that catfish was the fastest and strongest fish that ever bit a fishhook. It dragged me the full length of the bridge and if Bert McKinney hadn't caught one of my legs as the catfish wheeled me around the end of the bridge, that catfish would have taken me for a swim. We finally stopped its run and by the use of additional manpower we got it out of the water. Doc Williams might have caught big catfish down in the Mississippi but he never caught one that had the horsepower of that one I hooked down in Florida," declared Matt when claiming new fishing honors the other day.

There has been a report going around the country for some time that the slaughter of wild ducks during the winter down in Mexico was an important factor in the decrease of ducks in the United States. This story has been denied by those in a position to know. It was good to note the other day that the Wildlife Management Institute of Washington has circulated generally throughout the country an article published some months ago in Field & Stream which points out the fact that there is not the slightest basis for the charge that vast numbers of ducks are slaughtered in Mexico. The article not only gives facts and figures to prove the untruthfulness of the charge, but it points out as well that the kill of wild ducks in Mexico during an entire season is far less than it is in this country even on the opening day.

Mexico has been doing much to not only protect wild life, but to help and restore it and it was unfortunate indeed that the article criticizing Mexico was so generally circulated. We are glad to note that the Wildlife Management Institute in Washington has been thoughtful enough to give our friendly neighboring country full credit for the good work it is doing, as well as answer the untruthful charges made by some one who didn't take time to get the true facts.

It was unfortunate that there were not a sufficient number of votes in the house of representatives at Lansing the other day to pass the bill which would have authorized the Michigan Conservation department the right to fix game and fishing seasons. While the majority of those present voted for it, there was not a sufficient number present to give the bill a majority vote of the entire house membership, some 20 or 25 being absent. Michigan is not overly blessed with a sufficient number of elective public officials who are conservation minded to do the real job that should be done in this state.

William Rambo, one of the officials of the Multi-Lakes Conservation club of Oakland county and operator of the Plymouth Sport Shop, who for years has been active in conservation work, is at a loss to understand the position of Chairman Nelson of the house conservation committee. Rambo, in company with several hundred others, heard Nelson make the statement at a meeting in Gaylord some months ago that he would not only vote for, but do all within his power to help enact legislation that would give to the department a right to regulate game seasons.

He quoted Nelson as saying at that meeting, "We can try it for two years and if it doesn't work out, we can easily go back to the old system."

Rambo said yesterday, "How any one can get up and make such a statement as Nelson did, then not only vote against what he said he was for, but at the same time berate and condemn the sportsmen of Michigan who are trying to do something for conservation is beyond me."

Wisconsin Conservation Commission is attempting to restore its depleted prairie chicken population through an intensive management program recently inaugurated in that state, the Wildlife Management Institute reports.

Under the leadership of James B. Hale, the grouse management project's major problem will be to restore open wild lands needed by this bird without conflicting with agriculture and forestry. This is being accomplished by cutting and burning brush from selected demonstration areas in three counties. No restocking will be done and emphasis will be placed on restoring this once-important game bird to its former status through habitat restoration work alone.

President Bert Stoll has advised the writer that the spring meeting of the Michigan Outdoor Writers Association will be held at Higgins lake May 27-30. Last year the writers were guests of the Ontario conservation department at their new training school at Dorset, some 175 miles north of Toronto. Believe it or not, Michigan has got to go some to keep pace with its progressive neighbor on the other side of Lake Huron in conservation development.

I REMEMBER ...

By THE OLD-TIMERS From Mrs. Mary Stewart: "I remember these old-time sayings from the days when "Oh, Yeah?" was considered quite a snappy comeback: "Get a hoop and just roll away" ... "Shiny on your own side" ... "Ishabable, I should worry" ... "Shake a leg" ... "Finders keepers, losers, weepers" ... "Pipe down!" ... "He's so green he ought to be out in the pasture" ... "I love my wife, but oh you kid!" ... "Are there any more at home like you?"

From Robert H. Sedgwick: "I remember when we kids used to make a flying-spear by inserting a horseshoe nail in a bottle cork with a feather attached to throw against posts and barns."

From Joe Forrest: "I remember when men would come to tar the roof and the boys from the local tavern would ask them to line their beer cans with tar so the foam wouldn't make such a high collar."

From A. A. S.: "I remember when lace-trimmed Valentines came in attractive boxes. The boy or girl who received the greatest number of them was considered the most popular in the school."

From C. C. M.: "I remember when boys read western stories behind the barn instead of listening to them over the radio in the living room. In those days many Chicago streets were paved with cedar blocks and when they were replaced we kids would haul them home for kindling."

From Mrs. R. A. Rubadue of Columbus, Ohio: "I remember when my husband's chauffeur's registration certificate had to have on it the names of the cars he could drive (1909 to 1915). These included some long-forgotten cars such as the Reo, Frayer Miller, Chalmers, Reliance and Jackson."

Your Weekly Guide by G. Cardinal LeGros

ARIES is often rash, impetuous, intense and impulsive in love affairs and marriage as in everything else. She is passionate, possessive, and high-strung, but at the same time capable of great idealism. The best kind of mate for this powerful Mars-ruled sign is the quiet, passive type who needs some of the dynamic over-flow of the zodiac's first house.

TAURUS is ruled by Venus, the planet of love, and the feelings are deep and strong. Taurus women can never be driven to do anything, but they can be gently led by kindness and affection. Financial matters are always important to natives of this second house sign. And they make excellent wives if their mates are understanding and considerate.

GEMINI'S outlook is usually an intellectual one. She is a living question-mark and likes to practice mental vivisection. Slowness in others is exasperating to this third house sign of action. The mate of a Gemini woman should be able to converse interestingly and be ready to take her to dances and the theater to satisfy her restless nature. If he doesn't, she'll go anyway. And maybe keep on going!

CANCER women are extremely imaginative, emotional, romantic, sentimental, protective, and deeply maternal. They are subject to fluctuating moods but capable of great tenacity and faithfulness in love. This fourth house "Home" sign needs a man who wants to be mothered morning, noon and night. Cancer is expert at this.

LEO is intensely loyal, generous, magnanimous, but at times quite dominating. Capable of great idealism, this fifth house sign of Self-expression tends to set those it loves upon a pedestal. Men who marry Leo women should resign themselves to being bossed around a bit, but Leo is worth it in other ways.

VIRGO women are generally sufficient unto themselves and very discriminating. They should never marry careless, slipshod types of men or they'll pick them to pieces. Virgo needs a man who is as refined and orderly as she. This sixth house sign of Service excels in dutifulness, tidy habits, and cleanliness, and makes a good wife for a man with highly developed sensibilities.

LIBRA is the seventh house sign that stands for marriage, and gives a romantic, idealistic nature requiring much sympathy and affection. Libra women should marry men who are Prince Charmings as well as good providers because they need a lot of attention and they do NOT like to soil their hands.

SCORPIO is the strongest of all 12 signs and can rise to the heights emotionally as well as sink to the depths. Physical love is important to this creative eighth house sign under the rulership of dynamic Pluto. Jealousy is a constant source of trouble. Scorpio women can get greater happiness out of marriage if they pick men with high ideals and then try to live up to them. A spiritual outlook is always a saving grace for this section of the zodiac. No sign needs it more.

SAGITTARIAN women are open, easy-going, friendly, and inclined toward sports and the out-of-doors. They should marry men who share their whole-some interests and lofty ideals. Above all, Sagittarius resents any kind of restriction or restraint. She likes to get around. So she should stay away from men who think they can carry their wives about in their watch pockets. Friendship is generally more important to them than passion. Scorpio needs some of the Sagittarian element to balance things.

CAPRICORN women, while good managers and basically self-sufficient, still find happiness in being protected and sympathized with. This is the tenth house sign of Business but ruled by gloomy old Saturn. Therefore Capricorn women need men who are thoughtful, affectionate and serious. She doesn't like to be fooled, or fooled with.

AQUARIUS is an idealistic, contemplative, philosophic sign with great interests in life and humanity. This is the eleventh house of the zodiac, ruled by progressive, humanitarian Uranus, and usually rigid in matters of morality and convention. Aquarian women should marry men of spotless character and lofty ideas and ideals in order to be happy. Because she can't possibly tolerate off-color things. This is one of the best signs of the 12.

PISCES is also idealistic, but deeply sensitive and sympathetic. This is the twelfth house sign ruled by mystic Neptune, giving women born under it the most impressionable natures in the zodiac. Appeals to their feelings are hard to resist and they usually suffer more than other people. But intuition is strong. They make good business executives and perfect, understanding wives for men who appreciate delicate, fine quality; in women. They should marry men who are protective, affectionate and above all, understanding.

First Video Test Device Installed

Richard Kimbrough, of the Kimbrough Appliance company, announces the installation of the first device in Plymouth for testing and aligning television sets. The record of "first" he holds in this field was preceded by the distinction of being the first merchant in Plymouth to carry television sets. The first one was received in October of 1947, he said.

The newly installed device includes scopes, sweep generator signal generator, marker and vacuum tube volt-ohmmeter. Dale Mayer, head of the television and radio division of the store, will use the instrument. Previously the sets had to be sent back to the factory or shipped to a firm where the equipment was available to have the aligning and testing work performed.

Official Proceedings of the City Commission of Plymouth

The regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Monday, March 7, 1949 at 7:30 p.m.

Present: Mayor Henderson, Commissioners Hartmann, Latture and Whipple.
Absent: Commissioner Goddard.

The minutes of the regular meeting of February 21, 1949 were corrected to include, following the vote on Proposed Ordinance No. 154, "It was moved by Commissioner Goddard and supported by Commissioner Whipple that the City Manager be allowed $60 a month allowance for the normal useage of his private car for City business."

Ayes: Commissioners Goddard, Hartmann, Latture and Whipple. Nays: None.

The clerk presented the following reports: Fire Department Report, the Traffic Violation Report and the Veteran's Information Center Report for February 1949 and the Annual Fire Loss Report.

It was moved by Commissioner Whipple and supported by Commissioner Hartmann that the above reports be accepted and placed on file. Carried.

It was moved by Commissioner Hartmann and supported by Commissioner Latture that the bills in the amount of $23,156.69 as presented by the City Manager and audited by the auditing committee be allowed and paid.

Ayes: Mayor Henderson, Commissioners Hartmann, Latture, and Whipple.

Nays: None.

The clerk read a communication from the Wayne County Department of Health concerning the work done in this area by their department.

The Clerk read a communication from C. H. Buzzard, City Attorney, concerning the powers of the Chief of Police under Section 3 of Ordinance No. 99. Mr. Leslie Ferenczi requested that the Commission approve his application to the State Liquor Control Commission for an SDD license. The Commission deferred action until the Liquor Control Commission requests a decision.

The following resolution was offered by Commissioner Latture and supported by Commissioner Hartmann:

WHEREAS, it is deemed desirable for the City to secure to itself the benefit of local Home Rule and otherwise to promote the common welfare of its people by amending the City Charter with regard to its provisions for special assessments.

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the City Commission of the City of Plymouth does hereby propose to submit to the electors of the City of Plymouth the following amendments at a special election to be held in accordance with provisions of the state law and the City Charter:

Amendment No. 1 "Shall Section 30 of Chapter 8 of the Charter of the City of Plymouth be amended to read as follows":

The expense of constructing and maintaining bridges and the whole, or such parts as the Commission shall determine, of the expense of improving and working, including grading and graveling upon the streets and highways, may be paid from general City funds. However, the expense of grading, paving, widening and graveling or otherwise improving any street, and of purchasing or improving public parking facilities may be paid from the general City funds, as the Commission may decide. The lots and premises to be assessed as provided herein shall constitute a special assessment district. The term paving shall include curbing and the installation of all necessary service lines and drainage structures, the cost of which shall be assessed, according to benefits with the paving.

Amendment No. 2 "Shall Section 31 of Chapter 8 of the Charter of the City of Plymouth be amended to read as follows":

"When expenses for any such improvement shall be assessed in a special assessment district, and there shall be lands belonging to the City, or other public property against which no assessment is to be levied in such district, such part of the expense of such improvement as in the opinion of the Commission or Board of Assessment and Review making the special assessment would be justly apportionable to such public grounds, buildings and City property, and to any interior squares or spaces formed by the intersection of streets, were they to be assessed, shall be paid from general City funds, and the balance of such expense shall be assessed upon the taxable lots and premises included in the special assessment district in proportion to their number of feet frontage upon such improvement. When such assessment is to be made upon lots in proportion to their frontage upon the improvement, if from the shape or size of any lot an assessment thereon in proportion to the frontage would be unjust and disproportionate to the assessment upon other lots, the Commission or Board of Assessment and Review making the assessment may assess such lots for the number of feet frontage as in their opinion will be just."

Amendment No. 3 "Shall Section 32 of Chapter 8 of the Charter of the City of Plymouth be amended to read as follows":

No special assessment shall be made to defray the cost or any portion of the cost of ordinary maintenance or repairing of any street, lane or alley.

Amendment No. 4 "Shall Section 1 of Chapter 9 of the Charter of the City of Plymouth be amended to read as follows":

The cost and expense of the following improvements, including the necessary lands therefor, viz: for public buildings and offices for the use of the City officers, engine house and structures for the fire department, for lighting purposes, parks, and City prisons, shall be paid from the proper general funds of the City. When by the provisions of this charter, the cost and expenses of any local or public improvements may be defrayed in whole or part by special assessment upon lands abutting upon and adjacent or otherwise benefitted by the improvement, such assessment shall be made as in this Chapter provided. If, at or prior to the time that the Commission meets to consider any objections to the special assessment in a particular district for a particular improvement as provided in Section 2 of this Chapter, more than fifty percent of the number of owners of privately owned real property to be assessed for any improvement or in the case of assessment in proportion to frontage more than fifty percent of the number of owners of frontage to be assessed, shall object in writing or by petition to the proposed improvement, the improvement shall not be made without a four-fifths vote of the members-elect of the Commission. The restrictions provided in this Section shall not apply to assessments for sidewalk construction.

Amendment No. 5 "Shall Section 10 of Chapter 9 of the Charter of the City of Plymouth be amended to read as follows":

Upon the confirmation of any special assessment, the amount thereof may be divided into not more than ten installments, one of which shall be collected each year, as such times as the Commission shall determine with annual interest not to exceed six percent per annum, but the whole assessment after confirmation may be paid to the City Treasurer at any time in full, with the proportionate interest thereon.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the above proposed amendments supercede the present comparable provisions of the Charter of the City of Plymouth: Section 30-Chapter 8-of the Charter of the City of Plymouth. The expense of constructing and maintaining bridges and the whole, or such parts as the Commission shall determine, of the expense of improving and working, including grading and graveling upon the streets and highways, may be paid from the general highway fund, to be raised by tax upon all property in the City, subject to the limitations and provisions of Section 32 of this chapter. The expense of grading, paving and graveling or otherwise improving any street, may be subject to the limitations as to the amount prescribed in Section 1 of Chapter 9 of this charter be defrayed by a special assessment upon the lots and premises abutting upon such improvement, in proportion to their number of feet front upon the street, or a part of such expense may be so paid and the remainder may be paid from the general highway fund, as the Commission may decide. The lots and premises to be assessed according to their frontage upon a street improvement as aforesaid, shall constitute a special assessment district. The term paving shall include drainage structures, the cost of which shall be assessed, according to benefits with the paving.

Section 31-Chapter 8-of the Charter of the City of Plymouth. When expenses for any such improvement shall be assessed in a special assessment district, and there shall be lands belonging to the City, school buildings, or other public buildings or public grounds not taxable, fronting upon such improvement, such part of the expense of such improvement as in the opinion of the Commission or Board of Assessment and Review making the special assessment would be justly apportionable to such public grounds, buildings and City property, and to any interior squares or spaces formed by the intersection of streets, were they to be assessed, shall be paid from the general City funds, and the balance of such expense shall be assessed upon the taxable lots and premises included in the special assessment district in proportion to their number of feet frontage upon such improvement. When such assessment is to be made upon lots in proportion to their frontage upon the improvement, if from the shape or size of any lot an assessment thereon in proportion to the frontage would be unjust and disproportionate to the assessment upon other lots, the Commission or Board of Assessment and Review making the assessment may assess such lots for the number of feet frontage as in their opinion will be just.

Section 32-Chapter 8-of the Charter of the City of Plymouth. No special assessment shall be made to defray the cost of any portion of the cost of repairing or repaving any street, lane or alley.

Section 1-Chapter 9-of the Charter of the City of Plymouth. The cost and expense of the following improvements, including the necessary lands therefor, viz: for public buildings and offices for the use of the City officers, engine houses and structures for the fire department, for waterworks, for lighting purposes, parks, City prisons, and hospitals shall be paid from the proper general funds of the City. When, by the provisions of this charter, the cost and expenses of any local or public improvements may be defrayed in whole or in part by special assessment upon the lands abutting upon and adjacent or otherwise benefitted by the improvement, such assessment shall be made as in this chapter provided. The aggregate amount of all special assessments which may be levied against any one parcel of land and be at any one time outstanding, and not delinquent, shall not exceed 26 percent of the value of such parcel of land, as shown by the City assessment roll last confirmed preceding the time of the making of the last of such special assessments.

Section 10-Chapter 9-of the Charter of the City of Plymouth. Upon the confirmation of any special assessment, the amount thereof may be divided into not more than ten installments, one of which shall be collected each year, at such times as the Commission shall determine with annual interest at the same rate as paid on the bonds, and not to exceed six percent per annum, but the whole assessment after confirmation may be paid to the City Treasurer at any time in full, with the proportionate interest thereon. The number of installments shall be such that no installment against any parcel of land shall exceed five percent of the value of such parcel as shown by the City assessment roll confirmed next preceding the levying of such assessment.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the City Clerk cause a copy of this resolution to be published in the Plymouth Mail, a newspaper of general circulation in this City, on March 10, 1949.

Ayes: Mayor Henderson, Commissioners Hartmann, Latture and Whipple.

Nays: None.

The following resolution was offered by Commissioner Whipple and supported by Commissioner Latture:

WHEREAS, the State Legislature has now under consideration legislation to place in the general fund of the state certain state collected taxes that are now being distributed to cities, and

WHEREAS, the loss of such monies would seriously affect the necessary services in our city, and

WHEREAS, the City of Plymouth will have to increase local taxes to maintain present services and make needed street and sewer improvements even though distribution of ALL present state shared taxes is continued.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Commission of Plymouth express its opposition to legislation to place in the general fund of the state monies that are now being distributed to cities.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a certified copy of this resolution be immediately forwarded to our representatives in the State Legislature.

Ayes: Mayor Henderson, Commissioners Hartmann, Latture and Whipple.

Nays: None.

It was moved by Commissioner Latture and supported by Commissioner Whipple that the meeting be adjourned. Time of adjournment was 10:50 p.m.

Carried.
