

What I Think and Have A Right to Say
By ELTON R. EATON

LIQUOR SALES OFF.

There's one thing sure—business "ain't what it used to be" if liquor sales are any indication as to what's what in Michigan. Lansing reports say that state liquor store sales are off more than seven percent. Maybe it's been too hot to drink—or maybe pork-choppers have been taking too much for their "cut" in recent months. Some one down in Washington better look into this situation as it is an omen that doesn't indicate fair weather for the tax collectors.

DETROIT WANTS TO KNOW.

City officials in Detroit are getting somewhat worried about the status quo of Truman's prosperity wave. In fact there are so many unemployed in Detroit under the "jobs for everyone" administration that Mayor Van Antwerp wants to find out just how many Detroiters will be on the dole in the near future.

Detroit chiefs through an "expediting committee" hope to get big federal hand-outs to keep the wheels of prosperity turning after the next congressional election.

Officials say that the total of 85,000 unemployed at present is nothing to get too worried about, but Detroit can't stand it to have many more thousands laid off in the weeks and months to come. That's why the officials are already figuring on ways to get federal hand-outs.

HE'S DOING A BIG JOB WELL.

It was pleasing to read in The United States News recently a statement that Raymond Foley, head of the U. S. Housing and Home Finance Agency, is doing an excellent job. The News states that in the embattled field of housing he has proved a soothing influence. Although he believes in public housing for the underprivileged, he has carefully avoided alliances with any of the factions. All of them apparently consider him competent and sincere. He has earned their respect.

He believes that the postwar housing shortage is too big a problem for private enterprise, local communities or the Federal Government to tackle alone. The three must work together, he thinks, with the Federal Government providing guidance and direction, and help in supplying the money when it cannot be obtained elsewhere.

As he sees it, costs and other factors make it difficult, if not impossible, for private enterprise to build the housing that low-income groups need at rents they can afford, therefore the Government must help with subsidies to make up the difference between what the tenant can pay and what the landlord should receive.

He is undeterred in this view by the fact that at the last count some 23 per cent of the tenants in such developments were no longer eligible to occupy their quarters because, since moving in, their incomes had risen above the maximum figure for occupancy. In many such cases they must be kept on because there is no other place to which they can move.

It was by the merest chance that Mr. Foley is not a resident of Plymouth. When he was doing an excellent job in Michigan in the early years of the federal housing program, he came to Plymouth to make an address. While here he was so impressed with the locality that he made an effort to buy a home site, and would have done so if it had not been for the fact that he was appointed just at that time to his high position in Washington and had to move to that city. His friends in Michigan are pleased to know that he is doing so well on a very tough job.

HAS WASHINGTON GONE LOONY?

Time was a few months ago when official Washington was pointing out the horrors of an unbalanced budget. Now President Truman says he welcomes an unbalanced budget.

Up in Lansing Governor Williams, a member of the Truman fair-deal political machine, is giving Republican legislators a tongue-lashing wherever he goes because they refused to raise more taxes to keep the state budget from being balanced. He wants to keep on spending and spending, just as they are doing in Washington.

Sometimes we think we the people would be safer in the hands of a bunch of maniacs taken from various state hospitals and placed in high official places in Washington and Lansing than we are under the administrations now in control in these two seats of government.

WASHINGTON'S FIVE PERCENTERS

It begins to look as though there's nothing but graft here, there and everywhere in Washington. A five percent rake off to the "right" parties is the latest gyp of the people uncovered. It seems to be rampant everywhere—millions being taken in loot and "commissions." The measly hundred thousand paid to a former high Republican official during administration of Warren Harding was a mere drop in the bucket compared to what has been going on in Washington since the advent of the new and the fair dealers. Secretary Fall was a piker compared to those who have infested high places in recent years.

YOUR TAX PENNIES PAY THEIR TAXES.

Remember back three or four years ago there was a lot of "talking" in this column against the plan to divert more than half the state sales tax back to various governmental units of Michigan?

Remember we said that some townships in Michigan would get so much money taken out of your pockets when you buy food and clothing, that some of these townships would use your tax pennies to pay off the real estate taxes assessed in those townships?

Remember we said that something like $9,000,000 would go to various governmental units that would find it difficult to spend the money legally?

The thing we talked about then has really come to pass. A Detroit newspaper in some way heard that there is a township over in Calhoun county doing the thing we predicted some townships would do—they'd use your tax money to pay their taxes.

This is what a Detroit newspaper reporter found out over in Marshall township in Calhoun county:

In a nearby rural outpost, not more than 100 miles from here a backwoods township supervisor is busy laying in his ammunition for an all-out war with the Lansing politicians.

His name is Arthur O. Murray, supervisor of Marshall township in Calhoun county, and he stands ready for a fight to the finish defending his "illegal" system of cutting taxes for his small band of 778 constituents.

He simply uses the proceeds from state "handouts" to pay the local taxes of his people. Other taxes generally imposed by township officials he blithely ignores.

Flouting two governors, two attorneys-general and half a dozen state tax experts, Murray has done so well up to now that some of his people pay no local tax.

And while state officialdom cries out that Murray's maneuvers aren't according to Hoyle, the 72-year-old Marshall township supervisor blandly replies:

"The hell with them. Let them mind their own business and we'll mind ours."

Currently bothering the Lansing experts is Murray's method of using receipts from the sales tax diversion amendment to settle his taxpayers' debt to the county—including his own.

They point menacingly to an opinion by former Atty. Gen. Eugene S. Black and a follow-up by present Atty. Gen. Stephen L. Roth saying the practice is "illegal."

But Murray isn't so sure they know what they are talking about. He says: "Black said a lot of things while he was in Lansing and the supreme court said he was wrong. Now, who are you going to believe?"

Commissioners To Submit Recall Question Directly To Local Voters

Official announcement was made Tuesday by the four members of the city commission that recall petitions have been filed against them, that they will submit the recall question directly to the voters at an early date.

Commissioners James Latture, Lewis Goddard and Frank Henderson and Mayor William Hartmann are the four that the Citizens League of Plymouth filed petitions against asking their removal from office on the basis of nonfeasance.

In making their announcement they pointed out that they had two courses to take in making their decision. First, they were entitled to take the petitions to court and ask for a ruling as to whether the charges made were substantial enough to warrant an election, or they could submit the question directly to the voters.

Choosing the latter method, Mayor Hartmann stated that they believed it was only fair that the registered electors of the community be given the opportunity of voicing their opinion. He said he and the other three commissioners were ready to stand by a decision rendered in a democratic way and that they would stand or fall on their record and that of City Manager Harold Cheek during the last three administrations.

The mayor further asked that the announcement of their decision point out the following facts which are the basis of their reason to stand for an immediate referendum and leave the question of recall in the hands of local electors.

The statement which the four commissioners prepared points to the fact that the cash position of the city on June 30th this year was $100,000.00 better than in June, 1946. It further states in reference to finance that all funds are now carried in specific separate bank accounts such as general fund, debt retirement fund and water fund so that the money could not be improperly spent.

The statement stated that investment of surplus funds was started in 1948 which brings to the city one per cent interest during the peak deposits of surplus funds.

Mention is made of the fire department which they say has been greatly improved from the standpoint of rendering service to the community and much of their statement dealt with the thousands of dollars worth of labor saving maintenance equipment which the city has purchased.

They pointed out that a separate bank account has been established for this purpose and all city departments using the equipment charged a rental fee which is set aside for replacement and reserve purposes.

The water situation was covered. (Continued on page 8)

Portrait Sent To J. Edgar Hoover

A portrait of J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D. C. was sent to him this week by Mrs. Marion Rigby, who directs activities of the Plymouth Artists Guild here.

Painted by Mrs. Rigby from a photograph, the portrait was sent in commemoration of Hoover's 25th anniversary with the FBI.

Plymouth C of C Books Speaker

Plymouth's Chamber of Commerce has scheduled DeLoss Walker to speak in the city on September 12.

From all appearances, Walker is no ordinary man. A newspaper in Duluth, Minnesota, says this about him: "Perhaps no other man in this country is better informed on national business, economic and social conditions."

A former president of Rotary International comments, "He gets action always in tune with realities. He is our leading economic crusader today."

A North Carolina newspaper says, "A man for more stimulating personality and appeal would be hard to find. Mr. Walker is a man who knows what he is talking about."

BULLETIN

Ward Masters, Northville business man who was well known in Plymouth, committed suicide late Wednesday afternoon in his store at 106 Dunlap street in Northville.

Prison Official Breaks Up Sit Down Strike of Alimony Offenders

Without the use of goon squads, blackjacks or mediation boards, Superintendent A. Blake Gillies of the Detroit House of Correction recently broke up a sit-down strike of a dozen or more prisoners who are serving time for non-payment of alimony.

The other day the prisoners sent word to the Warden that they didn't propose to work any more on the prison farm because of the fact that they were in prison only because they hadn't paid money to their ex-wives.

"O. K. If you want to keep on with this sit-down strike, you don't get any more smokes, you get no newspapers to read, you get no visitors, you get just nothing at all except a place to sleep and what food you need to live on," snapped back the Warden.

He banged the door and went back to his office. It wasn't long before the sit-downers sent word that they had repented and were ready to do the work that the Warden had ordered them to do—and that they were awfully sorry to have bothered the "kind-hearted" prison official with their domestic troubles.

Flames Roar Thru Candy Co.

Fire blazed through the Plymouth Candy and Tobacco company at 900 North Mill street at 6:30 Tuesday evening. The extent of the damage is unknown.

The proprietor of "The Shack" located next door to the Tobacco company, said he heard a crackling noise through the walls. When he went outside, he saw smoke and flames roaring from the building. He called firemen immediately.

The cause of the flames, which started from cartons of book matches, is undetermined, according to Fire Chief Bob McAllister. The fire chief also said it was a "very hot" fire.

West Bros. Plan Party For All On Friday Eve.

Would you like to see a complete dinner cooked the easy Westinghouse way, and your laundry days made easy the automatic way? West Brothers will show you the way at their Homemakers' party, Friday evening, July 29, at 8 o'clock, at the Farm and Home store on Main street.

Two noted authorities, Miss Anne Ryan, of Westinghouse company, and Miss Ellen Fulmer, of Detergents, Inc., will demonstrate the proper use of automatic laundry and kitchen equipment.

Besides the education, there will be fun for everyone. An old fashioned square dance is planned. "Slim" Williams and his western band, stars of radio and stage, will be on hand to provide the music.

Everyone will have a chance to win valuable door prizes and there will be a gift for every person who attends the party.

Polio Strikes Woman in Rosedale Gardens

A woman in Rosedale Gardens in Livonia has been stricken with polio. The office of the Livonia Health Commissioner refused to give out the name of the victim.

There is no polio in Plymouth, according to Dr. Harold J. Brisbois, who said that the number of cases in Detroit has reached epidemic proportions.

Mechanical Man Provides Summer Fun For Plymouth at Kimbrough's

A crowd of people gathered in just a few minutes in front of Kimbrough's Appliance company on Forest avenue last Thursday. Jazz music was coming out of the outdoor loudspeaker. All eyes were on the large glass display window.

It wasn't a television set with a six by six foot screen that was attracting all the attention. Doris Day wasn't autographing records of "My Dream Is Yours."

It was "Oscar the Mechanical Man" who was drawing the interest and speculation of the people of Plymouth. With rigid gestures the robot was going through the antics of a band director, a jive enthusiast and a lover of anyone in skirts.

Make-up of pancake powder in a bronze tan shade an exaggerated eyebrow, lines etched in eyebrow pencil and streaks of silver at the temples, Howard J. Stevenson played to the hilt the role of a mechanical man come to life. Gray gloves on his hands, and jerky motions of arms and legs added reality to the part.

Downs Schedules Stake Races At Northville Meet

Northville Downs expanded and refurbished to provide a great many new comforts for its patrons, will open its sixth year of night harness racing on Monday evening, August 1.

The compact half-mile raceway has been repainted and displays a new entrance, additional pari-mutuel wagering facilities, new rest rooms and an increased lighting plant.

Here are nearly 500 of the finest trotters and pacers in America. The horses which will race at Northville during the 54-night meeting that is slated to continue until October 1 are, by all odds, the finest quality of racing stock ever attracted to the Downs.

The big reason of the extremely high calibre of horses at the 1949 meeting, is the program of stake races for the meeting. Starting with the $5,000 Inaugural pace on opening night, Northville will present one major stake race every week. Seven of the stakes will carry purses of $5,000 each, while the other two will be worth $10,000 apiece.

The two top features are the Michigan Racing derby and the Northville Driving club trot. The big Pacing derby is set for September 23, while the $10,000 trot will be raced a week earlier on Friday, September 16.

It is this stake program, with its $55,000 in prize money, that has drawn nominations of such star campaigners as Jimmy Creed, Rosemary Brooke (holder of this year's fastest mile time), Dr. Stanton, Jerry the First.

Fire Chiefs Elect Bob McAllister To State Office

Fire Chief Robert McAllister was elected to a three-year term on the board of directors of the Michigan State Fire Chiefs' association at their state convention in Cadillac last week. He was also named to the fire safety education committee.

Governor Williams was the featured speaker at a banquet during the three-day session. He spoke on a state-wide fire safety program.

Another speaker at the convention was James Just, fire chief of Maryland and head of the training school at the University of Maryland. The eastern school offers the most outstanding and up-to-date fire training program in the United States.

Local Students Will Broadcast With State Band

Music students from Plymouth will be among the 128 boys and girls in the University of Michigan All-State band from Interlochen who will broadcast tomorrow night over radio station WKAR. The program can be heard from 6 to 7 p.m. at 870 on the radio dial.

Hammond of 302 Sunset who plays flute, Kenneth Thompson of 11962 Newburg road who plays bass tuba, David Green of 6121 Lotz road who plays trombone, Russell Maxwell of 47955 Joy road who plays drums, Jerry Corey of 405 Blunk street who plays bassoon, and Norman Ruehr of 689 North Mill who plays alto-clarinet.

Directed by Dale C. Harris of Pontiac, the All-State band began its session at the Interlochen National Music camp on July 18. It will continue until the 31st. Fifty-eight towns and cities in Michigan are represented.

Local Engineer Takes New Job

A Plymouth man was included in the Financial Short's column of the Detroit Free Press last week. Edwin D. Scott, 1302 West Maple, long associated with automotive body engineering in the Detroit area, has joined the Peninsular Metal Products corporation as chief engineer.

Scott was one of the first five technicians assigned by the late Edsel Ford to the B-24 bomber project and was closely associated with its subsequent developments.

In World War II he participated in combat service, rising from private to lieutenant in the Ensign's Corps.

New Water Supply Ready For City Soon

Chamber Limits Donations In City

In an effort to crack down on the operations of solicitors who have in recent years found Plymouth to be a fertile pasture, suggestions for curtailment of donations and contributions for various "causes" have been drawn up by the board of directors of Plymouth's Chamber of Commerce.

The board is asking members to comment and make criticisms on the proposed plan before it goes into effect on August 1.

Church donations, other than for a church of which the contributor is not a member, are limited to two dollars for tickets and two dollars for a gift or prize when the church is put-

Good Work

Within the last three months 25 requests were received by the Chamber of Commerce to allow solicitations from merchants, professional men, and industry. Only one of this group was given the go-ahead signal and a letter permitting him to contact citizens of Plymouth for money. Such action on the part of the Chamber of Commerce saved both members and non-members the cost of a membership, in both money outlay and time consumed in talking with the representative.

While the new water tank on the south side of the city may not be ready for use by the time the water will be flowing through the mains from Beck road, that will in no way delay the immediate use of the pure water supply that was cut off a number of years ago when the city began using water from a deep well located north of the city just off Starkweather avenue.

In an effort to keep contamination out of this water supply, it has been necessary for the city to use an immense amount of a purifying chemical which has given the water a bad taste and smell.

Township Taxes Not Necessary In Nankin in '49

Except on Mondays (wash day) the city at present uses from 600,000 to a million gallons of water per day. This includes the summer period when a considerable amount of water is used for lawn sprinkling.

The new water tank on the south side of the city, which will give to that part of the city the badly needed water pressure that residents have long requested, will hold 250,000 gallons. The one tank, located just off Frallick avenue and which has served the city for years, has a capacity of 125,000 gallons.

The greatly increased well capacity at the Plymouth water farm has been given numerous tests, and the supply is as great as predicted by engineers who made the city water survey a number of years ago.

Girl Scouts Hold 3 Day Expedition

A 16 inch water main has been laid direct from the water farm to the mains within the city. These improvements are all due to a direct mandate of the voters of the city, who forced the water improvement by overwhelming majorities in three different elections.

The city official stated that he would like to be able to give Plymouth residents the exact day they would once again be getting the pure water from the water farm, but that would be difficult because of the tests. It will, however, be within an exceedingly brief time, probably late next week.

Leinbach-Roach Gives $35,000 Water Contract

Leinbach-Roach gave the $35,000 water contract for Green Meadows subdivision to John Monte and R. J. Alexander of Detroit.

Work will begin within a week on the water main that will bring Plymouth water to Green Meadows residents within two and a half weeks. Lateral mains will be constructed within the subdivision together with 970 feet of 12 inch main on Ann Arbor road.

Plymouth - Northville Real Estate Dealer Writes of African Growth

Rigid Rules Prevail For Immigrants Into "The Land of Tomorrow"

Elmer Smith, well known Northville and Plymouth real estate dealer who is touring Europe this summer with Mrs. Smith, has sent The Plymouth Mail considerable information pertaining to the intensive drive England is making for the colonization of South Africa.

In the data sent was a special supplement of the London Daily Mail's Paris edition given over entirely to the exploitation of South Africa.

The most interesting feature of the material sent was the information pertaining to the class of people who will be permitted to settle in South Africa.

It is quite apparent that the admission of immigrants into South Africa, called "The Land of Tomorrow" is on a highly selective basis.

Not only are certain racial groups being eliminated from admission into South Africa, but the political background of all prospective immigrants is being most carefully scrutinized.

A special article by the Minister of the Interior of the British South African colonies, points out that the South African government has decided on the program of action within the framework of the above mentioned policy and considerations.

a) To enforce a more effective and discriminating screening of prospective immigrants;

b) To devise measures whereby all prospective immigrants will be induced to pass through the screening machinery provided by the Government; and

c) To divest itself, save in exceptional cases, from any financial obligation in respect of the provision of transport for immigrants to the Union.

In practice it means that the main points in our program are twofold: The first is that whoever comes to South Africa comes through the recognized funnel, and the second is to see that the funnel has a filter which acts effectively to prevent undesirable or less desirable immigrants from coming to this country.

We want a full knowledge beforehand of all the people coming to this country; we want to know what they are coming for; we want to know what particular category of labour they will drift into; we want to ascertain the state of health of the immigrants and in this connection we feel that an ordinary medical certificate is not sufficient; they must also provide an X-ray of the chest area so that we can ensure that we do not have any likely tuberculous immigrants coming into the country; we insist on a close scrutiny of the labour efficiency of the men who come out here; and last but not least there is also a close scrutiny as far as security reports are concerned; we do not want to import into this country people who are bound in the near future, by reason of their ideological convictions, to create difficulties in this country; in this respect we regard Communism as a definite threat and danger to our way of life.

We regard these preventive measures as essential in the interest of both our settled population and prospective immigrants; the last named will, because they are immigrants, already have a hard task adapting themselves to a new environment; we regard it as our duty to our future citizens to make that task less and not more difficult for them.

The Union Government desires it to be realized abroad that it does not propose by these measures to exclude those who by reason of outstanding knowledge, skill and experience or in other respects can make a substantial contribution to the material prosperity of the Union or its spiritual development and who will fit into the national pattern and way of life.

For such there still is room, but only the best is good enough for South Africa. And here I particularly have in mind industrialists who intend bringing their factories, their capital and their employees to the Union to assist in the development of our young and virile nation.

The main objective of our immigration policy and program of action is that it must be regulated in accordance with the needs and requirements of South Africa. There will always be these tugging forces: On the one hand we will have the labour requirements in our expanding economy; on the other side there are the interests of the settled population.

The Constitution of the United States went into effect the first Wednesday of March, 1789.

For no one's favor, great or small.

If you have a social item or any other local news, phone 1755.

Communications

To the Editor of the Plymouth Mail:

In view of the violent attack of Cardinal Spellman against Congressman Graham Barden and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, personally and against the Barden Educational Bill, H.R. 4642, providing Federal Aid for Public Schools the enclosed editorial seems very fitting.

Frederick G. Poole

Cardinal Spellman's outburst against the Barden bill for aid to the public schools is strongly reminiscent of a similar intemperate denunciation sounded in Canada some 60 years ago. The consequences of that action deserve recall now. When Manitoba decided to establish a non-sectarian system of education, the Roman Catholic authorities of Canada demanded separate and state supported sectarian schools. The Conservative party introduced in the Canada Parliament at Ottawa a bill intended to give the church what it sought. Sir Wilfred Laurier, a French Roman Catholic and the leader of the Liberal party, successfully opposed the bill. Father LaCombe, writing in the name of the Roman Catholic hierarchy, warned Laurier in a letter that he had incurred the hostility of the church. He threatened reprisals. The Liberal leader answered with a speech in the Canadian House of Commons. He referred to the threat from the church to which I belong and said: "I am here representing not Roman Catholics alone, but Protestants as well, and I must give an account of my stewardship to all classes. . . . Am I to be told that I am to be dictated to as to the course I am to take in this House of Commons by reasons that can appeal to the consciences of my fellow Catholic members but which do not appeal as well to the consciences of my Protestant colleagues. No! So long as I have a seat in this House, so long as I occupy the position I do now, whenever it shall become my duty to take a stand upon any question whatever, that stand I will take, not from the point of view of my Roman Catholicism, not from the point of view of Protestantism, but from a point of view which can appeal to the consciences of all men, irrespective of their particular faith, upon grounds that can be occupied by all men who love justice, freedom and toleration. The die was cast. The issue went to a general election. Bishop LeFebvre declared that no Catholic could without sin vote for a party whose chief supporter was such error. The Liberal party won a substantial majority of the seats in the House of Commons and Sir Wilfred Laurier became prime minister of Canada. If Cardinal Spellman or any member of Congress would care to have his memory refreshed on this event, the story can be found in "The Day of Sir Wilfred Laurier" by Oscar D. Skelton."

9,000 Guardsmen Start Maneuvers

D-Day for the Michigan National Guard is Saturday, July 30, when a thousand airmen take off for field training bases at Grayling and Camp Williams, Wisconsin to lead the way for 9,000 citizen-soldiers who will participate this year in the greatest mobilization of men and equipment in the long history of the Guard.

A week later, August 6, 3,000 Guardsmen of the 46th Infantry Division and attached units from two-score Michigan communities will concentrate at historic Camp Grayling. Both airmen and ground troops face a rugged 15 days of training and tactical maneuvers designed to fit them for their M-Day missions.

All Michigan air units will operate from Grayling air base except the 107th Bomb Squadron. This squadron, under command of Major George W. Kemp, will join other bomb units of the 66th Wing for training at Camp Williams, Wisconsin.

Camp Grayling, site of Guard training since 1914, will echo to the rattle of small arms fire as ground troops attain proficiency in the use of their weapons. The Guard camp now has outstanding firing ranges for all weapons from the pistol to the 155mm howitzer as the result of a major expansion program completed during the past year. Overnight dined for all organizations, embassies in the field are scheduling security measures and small unit tactical operations.

Turtles Eat Up Smith's Evidence

The Doubting Thomases and still going to be Doubting Thomases.

For years and years they've questioned the fishing stories that Glen Smith has brought back to Plymouth about his luck at Pettibone lake, up near Baldwin where the Smiths have their summer home.

A few days ago Glen took down his old cane fishing pole, dug some fresh worms and went fishing.

The story goes that he caught a nice big bass which looked as though it might weigh up near the five pound mark.

"Now I'll show those smart alecks down in Plymouth that when I say I catch big fish, I really catch 'em," Mr. Glen Smith told the natives up around Pettibone lake.

He immediately rowed to shore with his big catch. It was getting dark when he landed and he couldn't get a picture of his big bass until morning.

So he drove a big stake into the lake, hunted up a metallic stringer, and tied his big bass to the stake where he proposed to leave it until the sun was shining brightly the next day.

Morning came. With his camera swinging by his side and all the kids in the neighborhood running along with him he started for the lake to take a picture of his big bass, to "show those Plymouth smart alecks."

Like all kids, some of them ran ahead to get there first.

Suddenly one of them yelled: "There ain't no fish here! It's just a head and backbone." Sure enough—Mr. Glen Smith had tied up a good supper with that finest Pettibone lake.

He decided not to take a picture of the head and backbone of the fish that remained securely fastened to the pole he had driven into the lake.

But he is still doubting whether the big bass was eaten up by turtles or whether some of those "smart alecks" from Plymouth had a hand in depriving him of proof of at least one of his fishing stories.

I REMEMBER...

By THE OLD-TIMERS

From Louise Perry of Manhattan Beach, Calif.: "I remember when my sister, Margaret, and I walked five miles to a little red schoolhouse, and in winter we wore long black stockings mother had made out of wool."

From Mrs. Mary Stewart of Chicago: "I remember when traveling salesmen were called 'drummers.' They carried carpet bag satchels, and were dressed in loud attire and girls were warned by their elders not to speak to such men. In small towns they were always looked upon as a menace."

From Anonymous: "I remember when skirts were as much as six yards around the bottom, lined with saledia interlined near the bottom with stiff material and finished with a bias binding of velvet at the bottom."

From Gertrude Richmond of Indio, Calif.: "I remember when girls wore rats in their hair and the bigger the rat the more fashionable you were. How it would make your hair puff out in front to give you that 'graceful look.' Sometimes, especially in hot weather, your head would feel like a balloon, and would look like one, too — but that was the style! That's why so many of 'us girls' looked alike 50 years ago."

From F. E. Meredith of Fairmont, W. Va.: "I remember when breads were called counterpanes."

Some public officials recently have been using words that are commonly connected with the gentle art of mule-skinning. This is placing newspapers in a quandary without a road map. As good reporters they ought to publish the facts, but when the language is blunter than a bulldozer the journalists have a problem. Should they print the words, or indicate them with dashes, asterisks, exclamation points and quotes? It's said that children should be seen and not heard; maybe officials should be heard and not obscene. They're sworn into office, but there's no reason for them to swear themselves out of it.

Notice Of Annual Meeting And Financial Report

of Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1949
PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP SCHOOL DISTRICT
Plymouth, Michigan

The Annual Meeting of the Plymouth Township School District was held on June 13, 1949 at 8:15 o'clock p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

The president, Mr. Donald Sutherland presided. Present: Mr. Hulsing, Mrs. Morrow, Mr. Sutherland and Dr. Williams. Absent: Mr. Wesley. There were seventeen school electors present. The minutes of the Annual Meeting of June 14, 1948 were read and approved.

The President gave the following report: He explained that the money obtained from the Bond Issue would be used for a grade school, which would be completed a year from September. The school would be located on a plot of ground at the foot of Ross and Simpson Street. He told how the Board of Education had discussed securing the Smith property on Main Street, also that they had talked with Mr. Cassidy about his property for a building site for elementary buildings. The Methodist Church had been contacted for property on Church Street.

The kind and type of building to be erected is being studied. The Board of Education hope to invest the funds of the bond issue at interest.

The secretary read a report to the people from the Board. Dr. Williams read the treasurer's report as printed in the booklet. Mr. Latture moved, Mr. Bentley seconded a motion that the salary of the school board be $1,000.00 for 1949-50 to be divided as the Board of Education decides. Carried.

Mr. Purcell moved, Mr. Brake seconded a motion that the school year be set for ten months. Carried.

Mr. Brake pointed out that it seemed unnecessary to distribute funds in so many banks.

Mr. Purcell opposed putting funds in one or two local banks, but suggested that it be left to the Board of Education to decide on the number of depositories needed.

Mr. Nelson mentioned that investments of $80,000 from Debt Retirement Fund are located in 18 banks. He suggested that ceiling of $70,000 be set in the two local banks.

Mr. Purcell moved that the Board of Education use the two local banks as depositories, placing the ceiling at $70,000 in each, and that the Board of Education be given authority to deposit funds in other banks at their discretion. Mrs. Bennett supported the motion. The motion was lost.

Mr. Brake moved and Mr. Rossett supported a motion that deposits be left to the discretion of the Board of Education. Carried.

Mr. Smith asked if Debt Retirement Fund monies were not used to call in bonds? Dr. Williams informed the meeting that the Board of Education had attempted to call in outstanding bonds, but bondholders would not release them because of the high interest rate and also because they are tax-exempt.

A discussion followed regarding the type of building to be constructed for the elementary school.

Mr. Brake pointed out that there was a $30,000 surplus in the General Fund, but the amount was small in that it was not sufficient to carry the financial load until taxes were received in January.

Mr. Purcell moved and Mr. Warren Smith seconded that the meeting be adjourned. Carried.

The time was 9:15 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Marian B. Morrow, Secretary

Commissioners to Submit Recall Question Directly to Local Voters

ed in the statement which says that the improvements are now 95 per cent completed and the city will soon again have the excellent water which the Beck road springs previously provided. Savings in the water development were pointed at specifically and full credit for keeping this expenditure at a minimum are given the manager and members of the commission. In conjunction with the water program the statement further points to the new water billing system which cuts cost of yearly billing to one third of the previous cost.

Parking was mentioned and parking meters were given credit for greatly improving the traffic conditions on the main streets. Since 1946 the big parking lot back of the Main street stores has been paved and a new lot opened on the corner of Marquette and Ann Arbor trail.

The mayor's statement covered such other improvements for the good of the city as the installation of a two way radio system for the police department, sewer and street improvements, better pay for all city employees, a more equitable basis of property assessment throughout the city, and a statement in particular pointing out the fact that the cost of city government had increased since 1940, but that the population of the city had increased some 50 per cent in that period also.

"It is on the basis of this record made not only by ourselves and former commissioners serving under Mayors Frank Henderson, Jack Taylor and Robert Lidgard, and all having as their manager, Harold Cheek, that we submit this record on which we base our decision to submit to the electors of this city the question of a recall," said Mayor Hartmann. Under the provisions of the city charter the city clerk has 30 days in which to certify the names on the recall petition and after that is done, he has 35 days in which to call an election provided the petitions have sufficient names of registered voters. An early check of the petitions clearly indicates there are sufficient names to cause this action. Recall action came about on the part of the Citizen's League after the League had filed a petition with the city commission asking the removal of City Manager Harold Cheek. On the advice of the city attorney the commission denied a hearing on the petition because the charges made were not specific enough against the manager to warrant a hearing.

At the same meeting of the commission, however, the four commissioners named for recall asked that a legal petition from the league again be presented on more specific charges for their consideration. At this time no further petition, other than the recall, or no further court action against the manager on any of the charges made against him have been taken.

by golf match and local talent shows as well as the Jaycee Christmas party, Halloween party, Fourth of July celebration and other events are limited to a two dollar maximum. A limit of one dollar is set up for any other solicitation unless it carries a letter from the Chamber of Commerce stating a recommendation of why it should be more than one dollar. Community Chest contributions should be left to the individual, according to action taken by the board of directors who felt that a limitation could be placed on donation for the Red Cross and Cancer drives.

Lansing officials have threatened all sorts of reprisals, including fines, imprisonment and ouster proceedings. But in two years nothing has happened.

The auditor-general says he cannot move in until the attorney-general makes the request. The attorney-general says it's a local problem. The state tax commission says its hands are tied.

Murray's constituents, with an eye on the goose that lays the golden egg, say nothing. Quoting Edward J. Morse, Calhoun county clerk:

"You don't shoot Santa Claus, do you? The people in the township would be fools to ask for an investigation."

Reporters from one Michigan newspaper chain tried to question Murray about his tax secrets but he promptly told them to "git".

"Nosey," he explained, as he went about his chores on his 160-acre farm here.

"Too darned nosey!"

"As for you, young feller, I'll tell you about it but just don't ask too many questions or you'll have to git, too!"

"I'm agin' taxes. Always thought we paid too much anyway. So when my neighbors asked me to take this job 20 years ago I told them I would if I could run things my way. Haven't had opposition in 15 years."

"Well, I got rid of the township tax. No use spending money for police protection when you got the sheriff's deputies and state police to look after you."

"Ain't many fires out here anyway."

"The little fellers need schools but I figured out there was no use cluttering up the place with buildings if you could send them somewhere else."

"So in part of my district we use the money the state gives us and pay it out for tuition in some other town. That cuts down the school tax."

"About this sales tax business, there isn't much to it. I won't deny we're paying off the county taxes with state funds. Can't see anything wrong with it."

"That place you come from (Detroit) gets 16 million dollars. They put it in a fund to pay for streets and other stuff and it's all intended to cut down taxes."

"We don't have such things to worry about around here so what's wrong with helping a feller out with his tax bill?"

"It was mildly suggested that people who don't own property in his township can't share in Murray's scheme of things."

The supervisor raised his eyebrows, looked out of the corner of one eye and said:

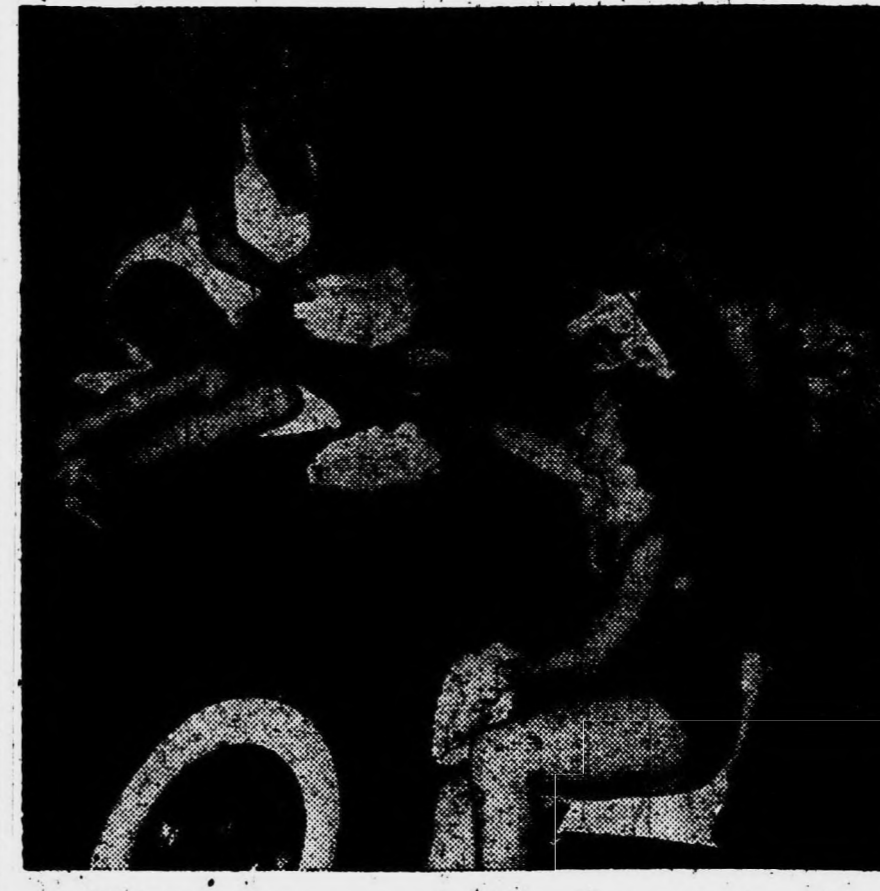

"Now there you go asking questions like I told you not to. Can't you young 'uns take any advice?"

Yes, last year the county assessed his township $4,987.36 in taxes and Murray "refunded" his constituents $4,761.16.

"Didn't quite have enough," he explained, and what about it?"

Brucita's Guy, Guest Star, Royal Man, Little Judy, Forbes Chief and Scottish Boy. With that class of horses for the stake races, all of the fields at Northville will be noticeably stepped up in class.

The physical facilities at the Downs have never before been in as good condition for the public. The mutuel plant has been expanded by the construction of a new section outside the east end of the grandstand, and by moving the section at the west end so as to give more room for the public to circulate. A new men's rest room has been constructed at the west end, behind the big steel stands which were erected at the Downs a year ago.

The new entrance will handle the crowds faster than ever before, and will also provide a great deal more exit room when the races are over. At the entrance and throughout the plant, Northville's traditional red-and-white color scheme has been carried out.

The schedule at the Downs calls for nine races each night with the first race starting at 8:15 p.m. The newest model of the E. M. Smith starting gate, with Starter Norman Wilson in control, will send the races away.

The preparation for the meeting, now nearing completion, plainly indicate that this will be the biggest season in the track's history.

State's 4-H Club Ranks Highest

With more than 88 percent of Michigan's 53,830 4-H club members carrying projects through to completion in 1948, the state ranked highest of any in the north central section of the United States. In the nation, only two states ranked higher, and both of these, Maryland and Rhode Island, have less than 5,000 4-H members enrolled.

A. G. Kettunen of Michigan State college, state leader for the 4-H club program, cites local leaders of the 5,261 clubs for this record of achievement. "Michigan has 2,000 more 4-H clubs than any other state in the nation and that means more leaders," Kettunen remarked. "We owe a great deal to these men and women who give of their time to help the rural youth of our state in this fine program."

Although a few states have more 4-H club members than Michigan, the state has by far the largest number of clubs.

G. Edsall Held On Theft Charge

Two men are held in the Wayne County jail on theft charges after one was caught attempting to steal truck tires from Willoughby brothers, wholesale dealers, on Ann Arbor trail and Lilley road Wednesday night, July 20.

They are Govett Edsall, 22, 19337 Angline road, and James Sokally, 25, 21475 Stahelin.

Edsall told the Wayne County Sheriff's office that he was driving by Willoughby's about 11 p.m. Wednesday evening and saw the trucks parked in the drive. He said he needed two tires for his pick-up dump truck.

The sheriff said Edsall stopped across from the Willoughby lot and took two tires from a Tandem semi-trailer. He put one tire into the trunk of his car, according to the sheriff, and was about to take the second tire across the street when the headlights of a passing car spotted him. Edsall immediately dropped the tire, left his car parked at Willoughby's and ran across the fields, said the sheriff.

The passing car turned out to be the Plymouth police who were investigating a call at the Powell distributors. The police checked the license plates and found that the car belonged to Andrew Sokally, now in Pasadena, California. Sheriff's officers went to the home of James Sokally, Andrew's brother, who lives at the Stahelin address. Sokally told officers he was about to report a stolen car, but when the sheriff's men heard an unusual noise and searched the house, they found Edsall. Police said Edsall admitted the theft of the tires.

Both were taken to the Wayne County Jail. Sokally was released the next day, but Edsall is still being held, said the sheriff.

KROGER CUTS THE COST OF LIVING

By ROBERT H. HARPER
Psalms of Trust
Lesson for July 31: Psalms 34: 5-8; 37:5-6; 46:1-3.

Memory Selection: Psalms 91:2
A number of the Psalms are songs of trust in the Lord, and as such they touch the chords in every heart. In Psalms 34 the author rejoices in the fact that God delivers those who put their trust in him. Out of his own experience in being heard of God and being saved from all his troubles, the author invites all to test God's goodness for themselves.

But wicked men cannot look for large blessings from God, for they are not prepared to receive them. A man must trust in the Lord and do good if he would gain the greatest blessings. "Commit thy way unto the Lord." The whole of life, with all its plans and purposes, must be given wholly unto God, if a man would know "justice as the noonday."

In Psalms 46 the singer of Israel rejoices that God is "a refuge and strength" at all times. We need not fear through all the changes about us—changes symbolized in the cataclysms of a nature. It should strengthen the heart at this time, when there is so much of unrest over the world, need and hunger and suffering, fear of future wars, and the ever-present dread of something to befall the nations and disturb the peace of men, that through faith we need not fear.

Whatever your personal need may be, God is able and ready to help you when you come to him aright. Learn to trust God for the help you need. That is surely a great lesson to be learned—peace and wellbeing depend upon it.

New Church Is Being Built Here

The long planned-for Church of Christ is now under construction on South Main and Ball streets, just south of Ann Arbor road. Besides the church building, this property will also be used to build the minister's home.

The cinder block building will have a full basement for fellowship and Bible school purposes. The first floor, 30 by 50 feet, will seat 160 parishioners.

Because of the large amount of donated labor, it is estimated the cost will not exceed $11,000. Future plans include a church auditorium to seat 250 persons and facilities for the same number in Bible classes.

The Rev. Almon P. McAllister began his work in Plymouth in 1945. Services are now being held in the Masonic Temple until the new building can be occupied.

Economy is Also a Cadillac Word!

OVER THE YEARS, there has come into being what amounts virtually to a Cadillac vocabulary. There are literally scores of words which, applied to automobiles, call Cadillac almost instantly to mind. Few can hear such words as "Character," "Prestige," "Quality," "Craftsmanship," "Precision," "Distinction"—and a host of others—without associating them with Cadillac. But there is one potent word which applies with equal emphasis to Cadillac—but which motorists, in the past, have not so readily associated with the car. That word is Economy. With its marvelously efficient new high-compression engine, the 1949 Cadillac delivers gasoline mileage which actually approaches that of the popular low-priced cars. It is almost unbelievable for a car so large and luxurious. And, of course, Cadillac dependability and long life have become traditional. In fact, the full life-span of a Cadillac has never been accurately measured. Yes, "Economy" is also a Cadillac word and belongs in the Cadillac vocabulary. Have you inspected and driven a 1949 Cadillac? If not, you owe it to yourself to do so—for it is truly a revelation in what a motor car can be and do. You are most welcome to visit our showrooms.

Red Cross Nutrition Aids

Fresh vegetables are important in summertime meals. Whether she garnishes them from the home garden or chooses them from the colorful array in the local market, every Plymouth homemaker will use them generously while they are at their best.

Most of the time we like to serve the vegetables cooked in steam or just enough water to prevent scorching until they are barely tender, with the addition of a small amount of salt to bring out the flavor. Then we can enjoy the natural delicate flavors of these foods.

But almost any successful garden produces such an abundance of vegetables that it's necessary to serve them in new combinations, to keep them interesting. The popularity of home-made vegetable soup containing almost every variety of vegetable Plymouth women will find in the garden or the market is sure proof that these foods perform as well in teams as they do singly.

The Nutrition Service of the American Red Cross suggests serving vegetable combinations as the main dish of luncheons and dinners if they contain a generous amount of an efficient protein food, such as cheese, egg or meat, necessary for building tissue and blood. If they don't contain such food, be sure to add it to the menu in some other form, maybe a salad or dessert.

Here are a few interesting dishes Plymouth homemakers will enjoy serving while they are abundant and garden-fresh, with suggestions for foods to go with them.

Buy Poultry Now Says Foods Head

One of the best buys for Plymouth women at the meat counter these days is poultry which has the advantage of being adaptable to summer meals and cooking either indoors or out-of-doors.

Cook it in a variety of ways and serve it hot or cold—it will please your family suggests Roberta Hershey, extension foods specialist at Michigan State college.

If you have a home freezer or locker storage, Plymouth homemakers will want to consider freezing some white broilers, roasters and fryers are plentiful. Only high quality birds should be used because storage does not improve quality.

Proper killing and bleeding are essential in obtaining the best possible appearance. Dry pick or "slack scald" (125 to 130 degrees Fahrenheit—bird immersed 20 to 60 seconds) the birds to remove the feathers. Remove pin feathers and singe to remove hair-like feathers.

Cool, if possible, overnight at 32 to 34 degrees. If chilling room is not available, draw immediately and rinse in water at room temperature to remove blood and wash in ice water.

Under most conditions of storage for home use the halving of the bird, or cutting up in pieces for frying is more desirable since less space is required for storage. This simplifies the drawing procedure. Remove the head and neck, oil sac and shanks. Cut from the neck to the rear along the backbone. Remove entrails. Broilers may be halved by cutting along the keel.

Chicken for frying should be disjointed after final washing. When packing halves of chicken, one half is placed skin down on the table. Two pieces of waterproof paper are placed on the half and the other half placed on top. Wrap and freeze as for other meats.

Successful Parenthood

MRS. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

WHEN LITTLE GIRLS play with their dolls at housekeeping they are always elaborately polite with each other. It is "Mrs." this and "Mrs." that, with "How is your baby today?" and clucks of sympathy if the doll baby is supposed to be ailing. But have you noticed how rude they often are to their dolls? "You're a bad, bad baby," they will say, with a shake or a spank.

Doesn't this reflect the double standard of courtesy parents often have for their own grown-up friends and their children? If you meet a friend in the grocery market and she has obviously come in a hurry and not waited to smooth her hair and put on fresh lipstick, you don't say, "My, you look a sight this morning!" But if one of your children should dash up to you in the store, where he may have spied you on his way home from school, aren't you apt to exclaim, "How did you get your shirt so dirty — and for goodness sake wear the talls either in or out, not half and half."

In other words, adults try not to embarrass their friends, but they seem to feel that children haven't any feelings about being criticized in public. On the contrary, children often have a greater sense of personal dignity than adults. A friend of mine hated school for years because a kindergarten teacher, thinking the child was too warmly dressed, removed an undergarment in front of the class, a blow to the child's sense of dignity and privacy.

There are, of course, many ways in which children must be treated differently from adults. They must be protected from their own lack of wisdom in taking care of themselves physically, they must have an earlier bedtime, their dressing must be supervised to insure enough warm clothing in winter and they must be kept close at home until they are old enough to watch out for their own safety on the streets. But different handling needn't mean less courteous treatment.

What we've been saying doesn't all come under the head of "Children's Rights." It is just as much to your own advantage to be polite with your children, for that is the only way you can teach them manners.

You will have to respect their feelings if you want spontaneous consideration from them. If you are habitually unwilling to stop your work to listen to something a child wants to tell you, you are apt to get inattention when you ask him to stop his play and "Come here this minute."

You can, however, go too far in putting the child's interests first. There are families where visitors, grandparents, parents are forced to stop in the middle of a sentence if Junior wants to say something. This can lead to lording it over his playmates, though fortunately a gang of healthy kids is quite capable of providing a counter-balance to too indulgent parent.

Tips Offered On Selecting Linens

Quality in linens is important but buying the best quality you can afford does not need to mean the most expensive advises Emma DuBord, home demonstration agent, to Plymouth women.

Towels are made of cotton, pure linen or a combination. Rayon is used a little for decorative towels as it is lustrous when dry—but it is weak when wet. Color and design add to towel cost because of the extra work and expensive dyes involved. Your regulation Terry cloth linens are always on the job both to wear well and to dry because they're a pile fabric.

The surface loops do the drying and should be close and thick. Light should barely show through a towel. Hems should be neat with firm small stitches and be backstitched at corners to prevent unraveling.

Sheets today are made of cotton, muslin or percale, and linen. Muslin sheets are coarser and heavier than percale and come with varying thread counts. A thread count of 112 per square inch or lower is impractical because the material won't wear well. A count of 128 gives medium durability and satisfactory wear. Highest quality muslin is 140 and percale from 180 to 200 or over.

Hold a sheet up to the light and if the threads vary from thick to thin there will be spots that wear out quickly. Pure linen sheets are very expensive but wear for years and years. So look for strong selvages and weaves, clear colors. If you know the brands by experience your task is easier. An informative label helps too.

Check Lighting In Your Home

Our eyes are precious possessions and eye care is needed to preserve them, says Emma DuBord, home demonstration agent. Word from Jessie Marion, Michigan State college home furnishings specialist, points out that the first consideration is enough light for each eye activity common in the home.

Reports say that the fundamental requirement for adequate lighting in the home is safe, easy and comfortable seeing. Insufficient light for easy seeing may be one reason that you fall asleep when reading the evening paper. Junior might not mind doing his homework if he could have enough light for easy and comfortable seeing.

It's simple, the specialist states, to check for proper lighting. First, look at the bulbs in your lamps. Should it be possible to use a larger bulb to provide better light? Spotty lighting is a fault in many homes. This means that each lamp seems to be in a small light pool and the rest of the room is in deep shadow.

There's danger, too, of having too much light with resulting glare. Bulbs with no shades often cause trouble. Another common glare source is light reflected from glossy walls and shiny table or dresser tops. New shades and reflector bowls will help to correct these difficulties.

Northern Michigan places that operate during the summertime to reap tourist dollars had their "ears pinned back" a while ago by James Welsh, the "Old Traveler" of the Automobile Club of Michigan.

The "Old Traveler" is well known in Plymouth, having spoken here frequently. He declared that Michigan was slipping as a tourist state—slipping because many northern Michigan resort sections are out to get as many tourist dollars as they can and give as little in return as possible.

"On the way up north," he said, "I stopped in an eating place to get a bite to eat. The day was hot and I asked for some cold tea. 'AINT got any,' said the waitress. 'Then I'd like some iced coffee,' said the Old Traveler. 'Aint got no ice coffee,' was the reply. 'But can't you put some ice in a cup of coffee and let me have that?'" he asked.

"Yip—I can do that," said the gal. "What did I get?" asked the Old Traveler. "I got a cup of the best looking mud you ever saw. This case is not an exception. It unfortunately is the general rule," he said. Not only do many travelers find the quality of food below par, but the prices are even higher than tourists were charged in some places in Florida last winter.

But permit Gene Allman of The Michigan Press Association to complete the story. In his regular column in Michigan weekly papers Mr. Allman recently reported as follows: "I know what I am talking about. I travel about the country constantly. Each month I write a travel article on some Michigan city or region for the Motor News, monthly magazine of the Automobile Club. Michigan is not keeping up with the progress made by other states in attracting tourists. We are definitely slipping."

It is the Old Traveler's contention that Michigan people lack pride in their home state. They fail to brag (or even talk) about Michigan's wealth of natural resources, its air-conditioned summer climate, its thousands of white-sand lakes, leadership in hunting and fishing, and such unique scenic attractions as Mackinac Island, Porcupine mountains amid a forest wilderness, and the Tacquamenon Falls.

Why? Michigan people are too complacent. They neglect to greet outstate visitors with warm friendly hospitality and say, "Be sure to see this—and that before you leave!"

"Despite a state advertising budget approximately one-half that of the leading states, Michigan ranked third among the 48 states in 1948, according to an independent national survey, and this year should be tied with California for second place in dollar volume."

"New York, surprisingly enough to some people, leads all states in tourist travel business. New York City is chiefly responsible for this. New York's state advertising budget for vacation promotion is $500,000—just double that of Michigan. California's state budget is nearly as high."

"Don't overlook these facts: Michigan has 3,000 miles of shore line on the Great Lakes. Michigan possesses 11,000 inland lakes, 33,000 miles of rivers and streams, game and fish for more license holders than any other state in the U.S.A."

"Our bathing beaches are nationally famous. White sand beaches are the rule, rather than the exception. And then there is the prevailing westerly wind from Lake Superior and Lake Michigan which air-conditions all sections of the state."

"What other state in the Mid-West can boast of 58 state parks? What other state has created the recreational area plan for a metropolitan area on such a vast scale as Michigan? And don't forget our 62 roadside parks and 300 roadside picnic tables, provided and maintained by the state highway department!"

It is Furlong's belief that Michigan citizens, particularly those living in the tourist regions, cannot afford to rest "on their oars." Forty-five of the 48 states now compete to attract tourists. Eight states joined the ranks in the past two years.

The state legislature this year turned thumbs down on a bill, sponsored by the conservation department, to grant blank-check authority to build and operate hotels and cabins on any state land. Strangely enough, most members of the conservation commission privately frowned on this latitude. So did the state legislature!

The bewhiskered "Old Traveler," now promoting Michigan attractions for ten years, started something when he prodded newspaper editors at Topinabee. An intelligent and prolific writer, he may have done it deliberately. The result has been a re-appraisal of Michigan's tourist resources and perhaps a reawakening to the need for every citizen to be a friendly host this summer to millions of visitors.

So you visited Mammoth Cave on your recent tour through Kentucky? If you did, you are one of many hundreds of Plymouth residents who have walked down into this vast underground region and marveled at the things nature has done.

You will be surprised to know, however, that Kentucky's famed cave is seriously threatened by a proposed flood control dam across the Green River near Mining City, according to the Wildlife Management Institute. If this dam is built, periodic flooding will permanently damage characteristic geological formations in the cave, the National Park Service states.

Water level retention above 421.2 feet will cause flooding of both the Echo River and New Discovery sections of the labyrinth, and plans call for a maximum surface elevation of 450 feet. Mammoth Cave National Park contains some of the outstanding underground limestone formations in the world. The land was purchased by the people of Kentucky at a cost of millions of dollars and was presented as a gift to the people of the nation. Nearly 200,000 people visited the park last year.

Battle lines are clearly defined and are typical of the support and opposition for and against such projects. Blind, as usual, to natural esthetic and recreational values, the "practical" army authorities state that the project has been approved by the Congress as a part of the comprehensive plan for development of the Ohio River Basin. They contend that flood control and power benefits to be realized outweigh the damage to Mammoth Cave. Backing them are local proponents who feel that the short-term "boom town" construction community will bring dollars into the region and that the artificial lake will have recreational attractions to future tourists.

Opposed are conservationists, in Kentucky and over the nation as a whole, who feel that the recreational values of the unique natural area can never be replaced by artificial means and that the virtual destruction of Mammoth Cave would be a great loss to the nation as well as to the people of Kentucky. They feel that the invasion of national parks by flood control and power projects is not consistent with the purpose of these public areas, and that if such dams must be built, other less destructive sites can and should be found. Firmly behind them are the National Park Service and the Department of the Interior. The Secretary of the Interior already has protested formally and vigorously to the Secretary of the Army against the construction of this proposed dam. There are artificial lakes in every state in the Union. Only Kentucky has Mammoth Cave.

Dale Carnegie

HAVE YOU ENTHUSIASM for what you are doing? No? Then you'd better get into another line. Either make a change or do something about developing enthusiasm for your work. You may think that's not possible, but in nine out of ten cases there is something about a man's work over which he can enthuse.

D. Carnegie

When Walter P. Chrysler was asked to give what he considered the secret of a man's success, he listed various qualities, such as ability, capacity and energy. "But," he added, "the real secret to real success is enthusiasm."

Then he went on to say that if a man had enthusiasm for his work, he was excited over it, that if he once became excited about it, he enthused others and the company got business.

Yes, enthusiasm is by far the highest paid quality on earth; probably because it is the rarest — yet it is one of the most contagious. I have seen an enthusiastic head of a department fire his workers with so much enthusiasm that they preferred to stay and work overtime with him.

Enthusiasm is not merely an outward expression. It works from within. Enthusiasm is born of a genuine liking for some phase of what you are doing. You may even dislike another phase of your work, and yet reach great success, if you but have enthusiasm for the main issue. It's a good deal like a youngster learning to like his vegetables, because he knows if he doesn't eat them, dessert will be denied him. He eats vegetables tolerantly, decides he likes some better than others, then, presto, he does actually like them.

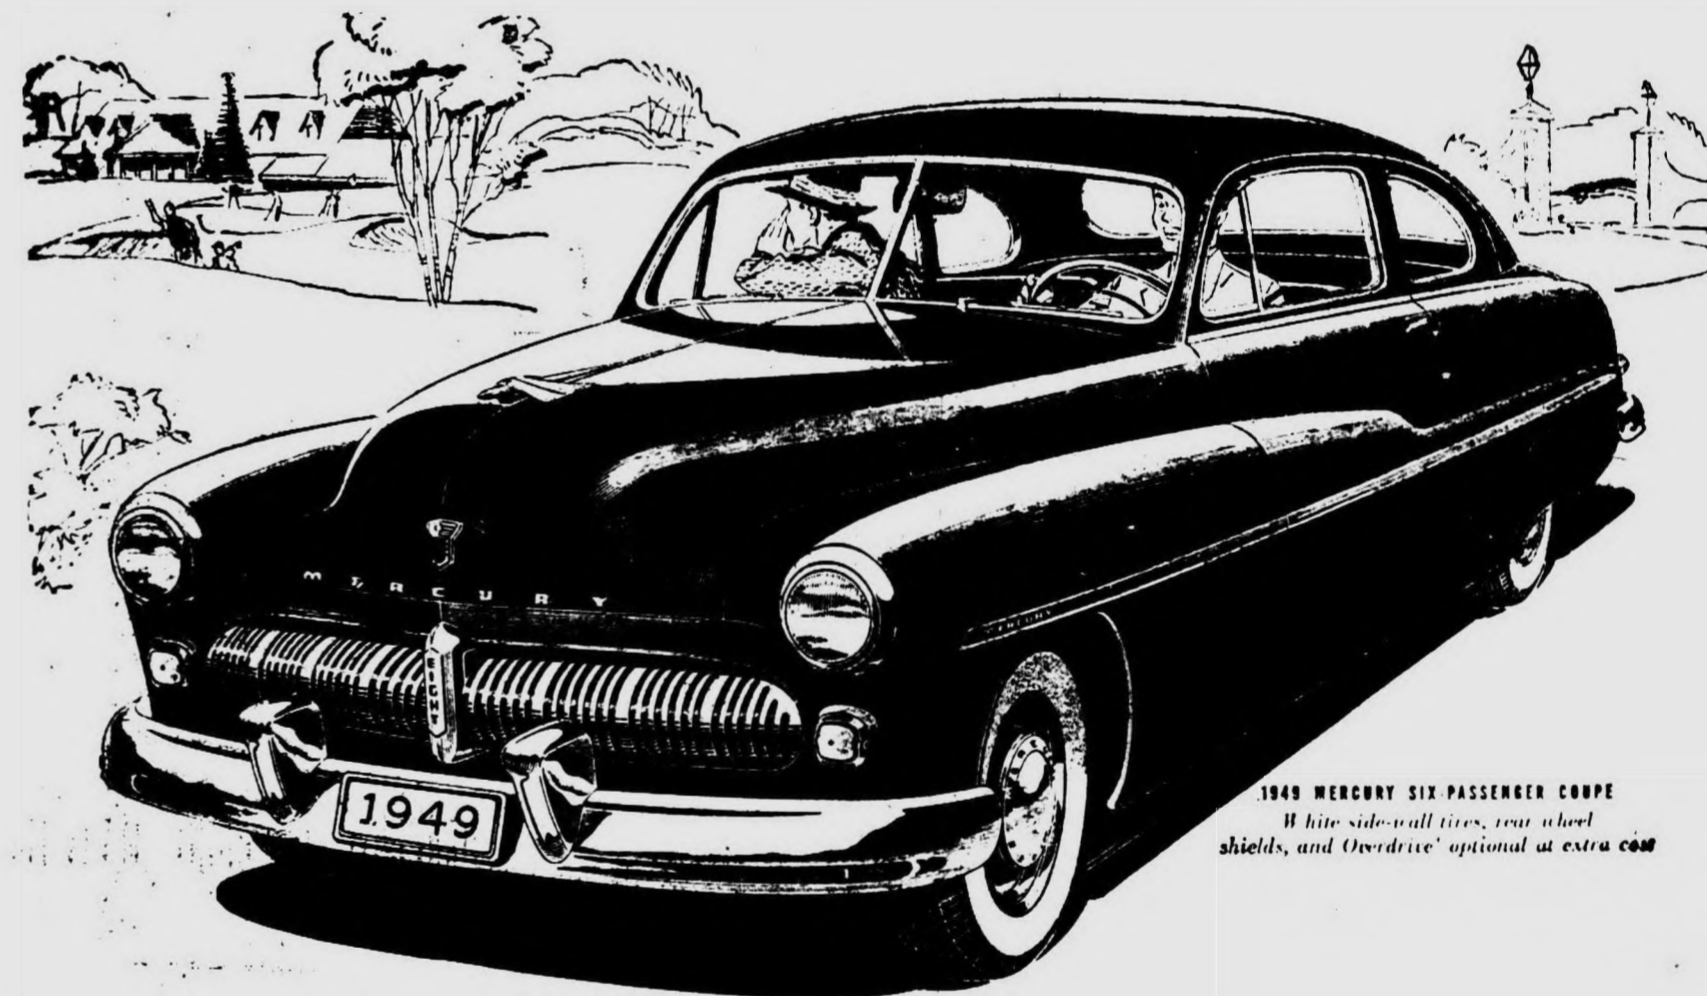

How can you make yourself become enthusiastic? By telling yourself what you like about what you are doing, and pass-on quickly from the part you don't like to the part you do like. Then act enthusiastic; tell someone about it; let them know why it interests you. Try this formula; see if you don't develop some degree of enthusiasm in a few days. I'd be willing to bet on it.

Hilltop Altering Course For City Golf Tournament

According to information received via the golf circuit grapevine, the old familiar layout at Hilltop golf club will receive extensive changes for the city tournament. Location of tees, changes in roughs and out-of-bounds lines will greatly alter the all-over perspective.

While it is not expected that the course will be any more difficult to score on, it may puzzle local golfers on qualifying day, August 13.

Max Todd, acting tournament chairman and pro-manager at Hilltop, reports that entries are coming in well for the annual city golf event. It would appear that a new record may be in the offing for the number who will tee off on the 13th, according to Todd. In past years approximately 100 golfers have entered.

Hilltop also reports that entries have been received from the three former city champions. Tom Lock, winner in 1946, George Todd, who defeated Lock to win in 1947, and Robert Oakley, winner of last year's event are all planning to make a stab at repeating this year.

The starting hour on qualifying date will depend on the number of entries. Players are being offered the opportunity of choosing the hour that will be best for them.

Players with amateur standing from the township of Plymouth, Livonia, Nankin and Canton are eligible to enter.

Eighty of the total number entering will be qualified into five different flights depending on their scores. Match play for elimination will begin Sunday, August 14, and will continue on Saturday and Sunday, August 20 and 21. Finals will be played on August 27.

Winner of the championship flight will take top honors as the city golf champ of 1949. He will receive a valuable award as well as the Plymouth Mail trophy. Winners in the other flights together with runners-up will also share in a host of beautiful trophies and valuable prizes.

Prizes and trophies will soon be placed on display in one of the local merchant's windows. Golfers are urged to enter before Tuesday, August 9, which is the deadline. "Players' names and their starting time will be announced in the August 11 issue of the Plymouth Mail.

From lack of moral strength empires fall. Right alone is irresistible, permanent, eternal.

Last Day Camp of '49 Scheduled For Friday

The last day camp of the year will be held tomorrow, Friday, at the Detroit zoo. Children will leave Plymouth by bus at 10 a.m. from the high school and return at 5 p.m.

Miss Delores Loewe says that if children want spending money they should bring it themselves. All will probably take the train ride. Lunches should also be taken.

Wayne Captures Second Place In Legion Tourney

At the recent American Legion district baseball playoffs at Wyandotte's Pulaski Field, Wayne, 16th district winner and a member of the Western Wayne Class D league, captured second place behind Catholic Central.

In the finals Sunday afternoon Central beat Wayne 11-3. Templeton, Fritz and Martin hurled for the losers. Martin hurled the Daisy game, which Wayne originally won 6-1, before the forfeit that is, Fritz checked the Wiedman Cardinal tit hurling the route.

In games Friday and Saturday Martin and Fritz each gained victories, Martin hurling three hit ball over Beauty. The score was 2-0 for Wayne. Also in that contest Hugh Fritz, who banged a home run in the Cardinal game, smacked a four baser to give Wayne the lead.

The toughest game for Wayne to lose was Saturday against Catholic Central as the winners scored four runs in the last of the ninth to whip the Western Wayne squad 8-7. The losing pitcher was Jim Martin, his first loss in 16 games this year.

Swim Program Successful Here

"I am very pleased with this year's swimming participation and equally pleased that many of the young children are learning how to swim," says Miss Delores Loewe, assistant recreation director.

Last week's program saw 308 youngsters traveling to the Rouge pools.

Miss Loewe says that the following girls have learned to swim and dive in the past few weeks: Mary Simmons, Suzanne Daly, Barbara Carley, Gail and Brenda Foreman, Sharlene Johnson and Pat Gronowick.

Red Cross cards will be given to the children on completion.

Plymouth Boys Play in B'ham Golf Tournament

Two Plymouth lads, Jerry Walsh and Elton McAllister, are now playing in the Detroit Times-Hears, junior golf tournament, which started Wednesday at North Hills in Birmingham. The finals are slated for Saturday in the match play tourney.

Immediately after the finals, the two who played for the title will leave for Chicago and the Hearst nationals. This tournament will be played at Medinah Country club's number three course.

On Monday and Tuesday, July 11 and 12, the Plymouth quartet of Jerry Walsh, Larry Bentley, Elton McAllister and Doug Jetter came in sixth out of a 12 team field at the Junior Chamber of Commerce golf tournament held in Lansing. The Lions club of Plymouth sent the boys to Lansing.

Walsh and Bentley shot 161's to tie for 14th. McAllister and Doug Jetter shot 172 and 209, respectively.

Dunn Steel Ties Dunn Steel 2-2

Don't have any apprehensions about the above headline, Dunn Steel really tied Dunn Steel. However, the two Duns are in different leagues, the Industrial loop and the Old Timer's circuit.

The game was played on the Plymouth High school diamond Friday evening. Dunn of the Old Timer's tallied one run in the initial frame as Bill Herter singled home Bob Herter, who had singled and reached second base as interference was called on Harris. However, in their half of the first the Industrial league squad scored two runs. Truax started the stanza with a home run. After Eckler popped to the catcher Dunham, Pierce singled and Farwell walked. Then Joe Colino scored Pierce with a single.

The Old Timers tied the contest in the fourth as Howard drew a pass from Pankow and went around on an error by McClain, a fielder's choice, and a walk. In the remaining five innings only two Oldsters reached the basepaths. In the eighth Bob Herter doubled and Harris walked. Marshall then struck out Bill Herter to retire the side.

The game was finally called at the end of nine innings. The Oldsters got four hits and the Industrial team got five hits.

Contractors Still Lead the Oldsters

It is becoming a repetition to say that Contractors is leading the Old Timer's softball circuit, but they are as they have been for two summers. Contractor's head second place Dunn Steel by a game and a half, and third place Beglinger Olds by two and a half games.

Tuesday evening, August 2, Contractors and Beglinger Olds hook up on the high school diamond at 8:20 p.m. Wednesday will see VFW facing Allen at 7 p.m. and Dunn Steel meeting Wilson Service at 8:20 p.m. on the school diamond.

Dale Rorabacher hurled the pacesetter to a 10-0 victory over Bud Wilson Service on July 20 at the school field. He limited the losers to three hits, two by Hagen and one by Wolfe. Only two men drew walks from Rorabacher. On the offensive side of the picture Contractors tallied six runs in the initial frame on six hits and a walk. Gillis poked a home run in the second for the longest blow of the evening. Gillis got another hit in the fourth as Contractors tallied their remaining three runs. This last blow gave Gillis three hits for the evening out of four trips to the platter.

In the second game on Tuesday's program Dunn edged VFW 7-6. Potter singled to drive home Dickman, who had doubled, with the deciding run in the bottom of the seventh. Hudson, Dickman and Herter sparked Dunn to the win. Hudson had three hits including a homer with Les Herter on base in the sixth. Dickman had a triple besides his double, and Les Herter boomed a homer.

Beglinger climbed into third place Wednesday, July 29 as Allen Industries bowed to them 6-5. Searfoss, who had two hits, was credited with the victory, an eight hitter. Konazeski and Urban also collected two hits for the winners.

Industrial Loop Tourney Slated For Ludington

The Michigan recreation association softball tournament for cities under 25,000 will be held at Ludington on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 26, 27 and 28.

Teams eligible to compete in this tournament shall be the winner or runner-up in a regular schedule conducted by or under the direction of a member of this association. The league must have been made up of at least four teams playing a schedule of ten games.

For this tourney the player list is limited to 16 with the choice of selecting two additional players who may appear in any position in this tourney. The extra players must be selected from the roster of the league that provided the competing team.

Tournament headquarters is recreation department, city hall, Ludington, Michigan. The tournament chairman is Kenneth Lindner, who formerly was a Plymouth umpire. Lindner is the Ludington recreation director. Dehoco won last year's tournament which was held in Plymouth.

Dearborn Holds Class D Tourney

As it has been for the past several years, the Class D baseball tourney will be held in Dearborn from August 17 to 19 under the auspices of the Dearborn recreation department.

The Plymouth recreation department will send one of the following three teams: Wiedman Cardinals, Papp's Market or Daisy. In previous years the Wiedman Cardinals and Harold Dietrich of Wayne have represented the Plymouth Recreation Class D league.

The tournament, which is under the direction of Harold Manchester of Dearborn, will be on a one game knock out basis with the winner representing Michigan at the national tournament. Although championship teams are limited to 15 regular players, the league title-holder may choose three batterymen; pitchers and catchers; from the other members of the league to go to the tourney.

Another stipulation is that no registered American Legion team or players will be eligible to participate in any division of this tournament. Pairings will take place in the city hall at Dearborn, August 4, 1949 at 10 a.m. Class E and F will play at Pontiac.

In December, Navy Squadron VR-8 flew 51 flights into Berlin in one day for an efficiency rating of 222 per cent.

Wayne Forfeits Six Games to Give Daisy First Place In D League

Because of Wayne forfeiting six games, Daisy is now in first place, a game and a half ahead of the Wiedman Cardinals. This evening Daisy travels to Ecorse and Jim Daly takes on Papp's Market, who have improved 100 per cent since the last time the two clubs met. Daisy won the first encounter 11-3.

Daisy now has one seven and lost none while the Cards have a 6-2 record. Papp's take third with a four won—three lost record.

Now to the Wayne story. Wayne had been going great guns, winning all their games having their closest contest with the Wiedman Cardinals, 2-1. However, last week, Herb Woolweaver, city recreation head, found that Gerald Wilson, Wayne's catcher, was 19 years of age. Because the age limit is 18, Wayne had to forfeit all the games in which Wilson played.

Wilson played an instrumental part in the Wiedman Cardinal game as he smashed a double in the ninth inning to drive in the winning run.

Last week the Cards split their two tilts with Romulus and Papp's Market. The former bowed to the Cards 23-3 as Jack Scheel, ace hurler, won another game. All three runs were unearned. This contest, also marked the initial performance of Bill Runge, who hurled for the PHS freshman squad this past year. Bill pitched the last two innings allowing only one run. Fifteen Romulus errors aided the Cardinal cause as the Cards made 15 hits to go along with the misplays. Fletch Campbell led the attack with three hits and Phil Bosman, Jack Scheel, Norm Mahrley and Gil Wasalaski collected two hits each. Norm had a triple and a double.

After this lopsided battle the Cards lost to Papp's Market on Thursday by the score of 4-0 as Dale Ferris hurled a five hitter. Dick Shepherd started for the Cards and Jack Scheel finished, both allowing two runs. In the eighth stanza the Cards' rally was broken as the umpire confused Shepherd. With one gone Shepherd smashed a ground rule double to the left field fence, then Fletch Campbell hit a hump back liner into centerfield. Shepherd played it halfway as the center fielder made a dive for the ball, however, he only trapped the pellet. Then Shepherd raced to third and was thrown out. That was as close as the Cards came to scoring a run. Later Dick explained that the arbiter didn't say whether the fielder had made the catch or not. The Cards protested, but to no avail.

This evening the Cards are idle, however, Tuesday evening the Cards travel to Inkster park to face Inkster Westwood. Daisy plays Harold Dietrich of Wayne at Daisy field Tuesday.

Also last Thursday Daisy dropped Inkster Harrison 10-5 behind Wally Dzuris and Dave Reitzel. Tom Fairbanks, Daisy third sacker, boomed a home run over the center field fence into a tourist camp in the third inning with a man on base. Later in the contest Fairbanks connected for a double. Pendagrass had a homer for the losers.

After the summer vacation, Bentley, a 17 year old Rosedale Gardenite, plans to attend Rollins college in the state of Florida. By doing this he will be able to keep up with his golf. During his senior year at Plymouth, Larry led the PHS golf squad to a league crown and then to a regional title.

State Recreation Golf Tournament Slated At Hilltop

The Hilltop golf club will be host to the first annual Michigan Recreation association amateur golf tournament, which will be held Saturday, September 10, at 1 p.m.

Teams from Battle Creek, Dearborn, Ypsilanti, Willow Run, Adrian, Pontiac, Jackson and Plymouth have displayed interest in the tourney.

The winning squad will receive a traveling trophy which will be presented by the merchants of Plymouth. The trophy is made possible through the merchants contribution for a Dehoco state softball trophy fund which was collected last August.

Bentley Still In Golfing Spotlight

Larry Bentley, a member of the illustrious class of 1949 from Plymouth High, is keeping his name in the golf spotlight.

By virtue of his tying for the lead in the sectional amateur golf tournament held at the Dearborn Country club, a week ago Tuesday, July 19, Larry qualified for the national tourney at Washington, which started yesterday, July 27 and runs through Saturday, July 30.

Larry tied Ron LaFraugh of Lansing for the lead with 79's. The Plymouth entrant came from behind to gain the tie as he sank a 30 foot birdie putt on the final green. Last year Larry won the state tourney.

After the summer vacation, Bentley, a 17 year old Rosedale Gardenite, plans to attend Rollins college in the state of Florida. By doing this he will be able to keep up with his golf. During his senior year at Plymouth, Larry led the PHS golf squad to a league crown and then to a regional title.

Western Wayne Sends All-Stars To U of M Field

Fifteen members of the Western Wayne Class D league traveled to the University of Michigan's Ferry field Wednesday morning to face a Flint all-star aggregation in a Hearst national tournament baseball game.

Coaching the outfit were Herman Scheel of the Wiedman Cardinals, Lee Goodney of Papp's Market, and C. A. Hamlin of the Inkster Harrison team. Herb Woolweaver accompanied the group to Ann Arbor.

The all-star squad was composed of the following players: pitchers, Scheel, Cardinals; Higgins, Papp's Market; Vultich, of Inkster Westwood; and Wilder, of Inkster Harrison—catchers, Lou Wayne; and Butler, Inkster Harrison—infielders, Fritz Wayne; Bosman, Cards, Dempsey; Wayne; Fairbanks, Daisy; and Fenton, Daisy—outfielders, Groves and Luzod, Daisy; Mahrley, Cards; and Throgmorton, of Papp's Market.

These same boys with a few additions played a game last Monday evening with White Lake supposedly. However, it was later found that several Detroiters were included on the White Lake nine. Also the White Lake manager placed several of the Western Wayne boys on his squad. Perry Deakin, head of the tourney and Southeastern High coach, decided to let the Plymouth squad travel to Ann Arbor, although White Lake won the ball game 7-3.

Herman Scheel and Walter Dzurus coached the squad Monday. Cedric Dempsey, Jerry Harder, Ed Groves and Ariston Luzod were the only local lads to get hits. However, several Wayne players performed for the White Lake nine. Lou of Wayne had a homer and a single in two times at the plate.

Scheel, Wilder and Higgins pitched for the Plymouth squad.

Social items can be phoned to 1755.

Davis and Lent Keeps on Winning

For the first five innings the game was comparatively close, but in the sixth the pacesetters broke loose for eight runs to put the game on ice. Green's triple with one man on the bases was the feature blow of the stanza.

Davis and Lent had a scare on Wednesday, July 20 as the Firemen tied Davis and Lent in the fifth inning 9 all. However, five big runs came across in the last of the sixth to place the league leaders in command 17-9.

The Firemen brought their average up to .500 Monday defeating Local III by the score of 8-4, behind the two hit pitching of Kenny Kisabeth.

The Great Americans rolled over Local III 23-6 on Wednesday, July 20 as Ribar and Angavine gave up seven hits between them.

Joe's Jottings

by Joe Miller

Onions and orchids department: Onions to Gerald Wilson for playing six games for the Harold Distich club of Wayne in the Class D league classifying himself as 17 years of age when he really is 20. Thus Herb Woolweaver, city recreation director, was forced to forfeit all six games in which Wilson played. That's one good way to ruin a ball club's chances.

Orchids to Tiny Judd, Universal Power third baseman, who works diligently keeping score of all the city softball games. He does this without getting paid. More of his kind would help the recreation department to the utmost. Also orchids to Harry Blessing, Plymouth High senior and a member of the Bull Dogs in the boys softball league. Doug Slessor, baseball and softball supervisor, reports that Harry is doing a swell job umpiring the afternoon games at the high school.

We see that the Training school finally received their first loss last Friday at the hands of the Bull Dogs, who are managed by Al Larson. Fred Pringle was on the mound for the winners.

Dotting the walls of the recreation office these days are pamphlets concerning the state playoffs in the various divisions of play. Ludington will be the site of the Industrial playoffs where Ken Lindner holds forth. Plymouth fans should remember Ken. He umpired in the Plymouth leagues last summer and then in the state finals in the Industrial league. Classes E and F will have their finals at Pontiac in mid-August.

The highest baseball league in Plymouth, the Class D Western Wayne circuit, sends its winner to Dearborn also in mid-August. From Dearborn the winner travels to the nationals, which were held in Dayton, Ohio, last year and Louisville, Kentucky the year previous. Most of the games are under the lights; that would be quite a thrill for the 18 and under lads. Dearborn Movers won the national crown last year from Detroit's champ Joe Gentile.

The golf tourney will be held at Plymouth's Hilltop course in the early part of September. Max Todd and Herb Woolweaver will be in charge. This will be the second tournament for Plymouth in two years, last year the city had the softball tourney.

Three members of Wayne's championship ball club of last year, in the Western Wayne circuit have received contracts from the major leagues. Bill Bidwell, blond chucker, inked a St. Louis Cardinal contract last fall and he was sent to Johnson City in the Appalachian league. Thus far Bill has chalked up a six won and two lost record, not a bad mark for a Western Wayne product of last year. Denny Piscopink, burly catcher, recently signed a contract with the Brooklyn Dodgers and Greenwald signed a minor league contract.

WHERE DOES LUBRICARE STOP?
In one of our exacting Lubricare treatments, you pay only what a routine "grease job" would cost elsewhere — but when your Buick comes purring back home you discover we've eased up the trunk latches, puffed a little bit of graphite powder into your door locks, checked your brake fluid.
We've even oiled the windshield wiper mechanisms — and that's only a good beginning. While we lubricate we also inspect, from bumper to bumper — catching your little troubles before they grow to big ones.
This time of year your garage doors open onto a wonderful world of fun, wide and fresh again — waiting for you and your Buick!
Great highways where you breeze along — shaded narrow roads leading you back to the hills, or to a piece of water you want to see again — you'll take them equally in your stride if your Buick's in top-flight shape.
How about letting us put it in that shape for you?
Get one of our conscientious motor tune-ups, and one of our thoroughgoing Lubricare treatments. We'll put the bounce back in your motor — while we're taking the bounce out of your ride.
We do this well because we're Buick men. We know your Buick, we've studied correct factory methods for each operation, we know the factory specifications your car was built to. We use genuine Buick parts — even special Buick tools!
Yet you don't pay a penny more for all these extras. Stop in this week, won't you?

Angus McLay, vice president in the sales department of the Detroit Edison company, who was well known in Plymouth, died at his home in Birmingham on Wednesday, July 20.

He was born in 1887 in Canada and attended schools of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, and the University of Michigan. In his various positions with Detroit Edison, Mr. McLay played an important part in the early development of electrical refrigeration and air conditioning and had general responsibility for sales policies and all other policies concerning customers.

Mr. McLay started to work in 1906 as an operating engineer with the Michigan Northern Power company, Sault Ste. Marie. In 1914, while studying electrical engineering at the University of Michigan, Mr. McLay was hired by the Detroit Edison as superintendent of the former Eastern Michigan Edison company in Ypsilanti. He was later transferred to the Detroit office and worked up through the ranks from a clerk to a vice-presidency. Mr. McLay was appointed senior sales engineer in 1929, assistant sales manager in 1935, sales manager in 1938, and was elected vice president in 1943.

In 1917 Mr. McLay volunteered for military service and served overseas, rising to the rank of a major in the United States Army Signal Corps.

Mr. McLay was a past president of the Michigan Electric Light Association and the Utility Sales Executives' Conference of the Association of Edison Illuminating Companies. He was also active in the Detroit Community Fund and the Detroit League for the Handicapped.

Surviving are his wife, Anabelle, sister of former Vice President, Henry A. Wallace, two sons, a daughter, a brother and a sister.

PRETTY COMPETITOR . . . Miss Jacque Mercer, 19, Phoenix college sophomore, named "Miss Phoenix of 1949," will compete for the title of "Miss Arizona."

Dave Galin Visits
Chicago Rotary Offices

While in Chicago on business a few days ago, Dave Galin took time off to visit the headquarters of Rotary International, and was amazed at the vast information he was given about Rotary activities in all parts of the world.

He stated that there are now 6,844 Rotary clubs scattered throughout the world, with a total membership of more than 330,000.

Mr. Galin told of his visit to Rotary headquarters at the last meeting of the Plymouth club. Phil Lovejoy, who is in charge of the Chicago offices and who has been a visitor of the Plymouth club, sent greetings to the local organization through Mr. Galin.

Chevrolet Dealer Is
Rotary Club Speaker

Frank Allison, associated with his father in the Chevrolet automobile agency in this city, was the speaker at Friday's Rotary club meeting.

His talk was one of the vocational service committee series of which Rolfe Smith is chairman. Rotarians learned a lot about the conduct of a successful automobile agency, its problems and its method of carrying on various services in connection with its business.

Announcement was made by President Frank Henderson that Tuesday, August 9 has been fixed as the date for the annual Rotary club picnic.

BABSON DISCUSSES WAGES

I am happy to be back again on Cape Ann. I am sure there is no better place for summer anywhere in the whole U.S.A.—and this makes a pretty good home for the entire year.

Getting a Job

Unfortunately, Gloucester-like most of New England—has some unemployment. That is, there are many who cannot get jobs which pay the wages these unemployed want. It is very hard for girls, who got over $45 per week during the war, to work for $25 which is all that many employers can now afford. As my old friends and their children, here in Gloucester, ask my advice as to what to do, I say:—

"Take the $25 a week job; be the first there every morning; the last to leave every night; and help your employer make some money. The important thing is to get your foot in the door. When I graduated from college, I tramped the streets six weeks looking for a job and finally took one at $8.00 per week. Of course, $8.00 then bought more than double what it does now—but this is not the fault of any employer."

A Lesson in Economics
The cost of honest and sensible living is the real thing in which we all should be interested. It's not how much money we get in our pay envelope, but rather how much that pay envelope will buy in food, clothing and shelter. Well, to increase this latter requires that more people shall work. Short hours and loafing send up costs whether this loafing is on the job or off the job. Only as more goods are produced, is there more to divide. This is another reason for taking a $25 to $30 a week job. It's a crime for any of us to loaf.

The business honeymoon is over, but there is no need of a depression now if everyone will keep busy. The wages received are of secondary importance. Lower wages will clamp us for awhile and force our families to give up temporarily some things we now enjoy,—perhaps beauty shops, dry cleaners, telephones and even automobiles.—but the family income at one half war wages will give nourishing food, good-looking clothes and a place to sleep. Smart are those who first realize this. Foolish are those who are now unnecessarily accepting unemployment insurance.

President Truman's Theory

It is unpopular amongst businessmen to say a good word for Mr. Truman; but there may be some sense in the theory of his leading Cabinet Member Charles Brannan, Secretary of Agriculture. His advice—as I understand it—is to let prices and wages find their natural levels and then have the government protect farmers with subsidies, and protect wage-workers with old age assistance, free medical service, government housing and other "welfare benefits." This is contrary to good Republican doctrine; but I fear it will be tried.

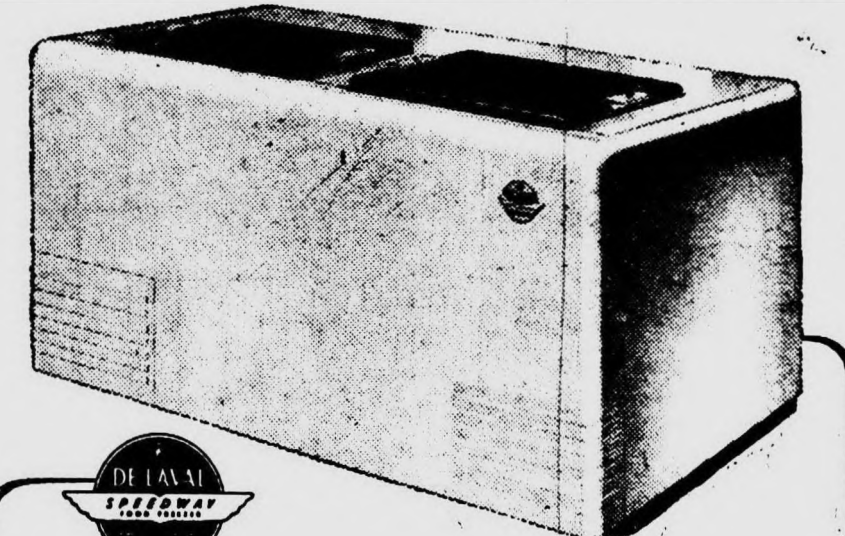

Certainly, the system of price fixing was a big failure; and I believe that wage fixing, either by legislation or labor unions, is bound to create unemployment and hence hold up costs. It seems fine to have a minimum wage of seventy-five cents per hour if you can get a job at that wage; but if your employer can't afford it and you lose your present job at sixty cents per hour you are worse off.

Reduce Costs and Lower Prices

The above is my advice to farmers; but fight for fair subsidies. My advice to wage-workers is to cheerfully accept the "market wage" whatever it may be, but not be ashamed to take reasonable government assistance. As manufacturers are protected by a tariff, so farmers and wage workers are entitled to some similar protection.

Of course, the above means either higher taxes or more debt. As taxes are now higher than the country can long stand, the Brannan Policy may force an increase in the Federal Debt or a reduction in Federal expenses. It is a crime to waste the people's money. I favor a cut of 10 per cent for all Departments. If the so-called "deficit money" is used for permanent improvements, the Federal Government may be as entitled to increase its debt some years the same as is the Telephone Company; but only when so used. Perhaps we must also recognize: If our capitalist system (in order to exist) depends on encouraging people to spend all they earn during good times by installment buying, expensive advertising and high pressure selling, then it perhaps must in some way take care of these people in lean years when their income is cut off.

Michigan Waters Make State Lead In Paper Making

Did you know that there is an area in Michigan that produces more paper than any other in the world?

Kalamazoo is the center of this spot where almost every kind of known paper is made. Michigan's leadership in this industry is a simple story of profits, pure water, position and people . . . all mixed in a boiling pot of pulp, paper stock and primary chemicals.

The first paper mill was founded in Michigan three generations ago by a New England paper maker who sensed the future enormous market for paper in the great industrial mid-west. No less important to the industry were the capitalists who took initial risks in supplying the money for the building of the mills and purchase of expensive machinery so necessary for the manufacture of paper. Of equal importance are the hundreds of highly trained paper makers and skilled workers who gradually concentrated in Michigan.

Water is another important contributing factor to Michigan's success in this industry. One mill alone in Michigan used 14 million gallons in just one day. For over half a century paper making has been one of Michigan's major industries and today boasts 65 mills spread over 29 communities in both the upper and lower peninsulas. The states paper and paper products industry gives employment to thousands of workers and produces an annual tonnage whose value runs into many millions of dollars. The only kind of paper that is not made in Michigan is wall-paper. Although paper products are legion in number, there are factories in the state producing practically every one of them. Paper has a thousand usages and scores of varieties must be made to meet all requirements. The greatest tonnage is consumed by daily newspapers. Kalamazoo has been named the paper city of the world. The city where more tons of paper are made than in any equal area in the world. It is especially famous for food protection papers, writing, and printing papers, book papers, cartons and hundreds of converted items. Yes . . . THIS IS MICHIGAN!

A PEEK at the STARS

By LYN CONNELLY

NWNS Radio-Screen Editor
STRONGEST RUMOR of the current season is that Eddie Cantor will replace Garry Moore as emcee of NBC's "Take It Or Leave It" next season . . . How the powers that be managed to come to this decision is beyond comprehension, but it might have been decided in one of those smoke-filled conference rooms that produce so many also-rans in presidential elections . . . Eddie is all right as a comedian, but as an emcee we can't quite see it . . . especially when Garry Moore lifted the program from the doldrums to which Phil Baker had previously dropped it . . . Garry's plans are not yet known, but he deserves a good break — "Take It Or Leave It" never did show his versatility.

CANTOR

PLATTER CHATTER
COLUMBIA: A fine new album is Buddy Clark's latest in which he gives mellow renditions of such wonderful favorites as "I Wonder What's Become of Sally," "Just One More Chance," "Girl of My Dreams," "Stay As Sweet as You Are," "Linger Awhile," etc. . . . This is a must for every generation . . . In singles, recommended ones are Dick Jurgens' latest "24 Hours of Sunshine," one of his best.

CAPTOL: Jo Stafford and Gordon MacRae have a new combo that is interesting — "Whispering Hope" with "A Thought in My Heart" on the flip . . . From "My Friend Irma," comes a commercial pop number that is done ably by Dean Martin . . . It's "My Own, My Only, My All," a provocative title . . . "Just for Fun," from the same picture, is on the back.

VICTOR: Polka lovers will be in their glory with "Ship Ahoy Polka," as done by the Merrie Musette orchestra . . . The reverse has "Jolly Fella Tarantella" . . . Jean Babson does a nice job with a beautiful new melody, "Paris Wakes Up and Smiles," with "Dites Moi," from "South Pacific" on the reverse.

Sgt. Wilson Assigned Duties of Radio Writer

Earl H. Wilson of 681 Deer street, Plymouth, recently reported for duty with the Second Marine Division, Fleet Marine Force at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Staff Sergeant Wilson has been assigned to the Public Information Section as Radio Correspondent. He recently completed 14 months recruiting duty in Indianapolis, Indiana and in Detroit, where he was performing the duties of Public Information Sergeant.

Wilson served with the Second Marine Division during World War II where he participated in the campaigns for Tarawa and the Marianas Islands. He was awarded the Purple Heart and the Presidential Unit Citation with one star.

Cool Hens Can Produce Better

Summer ventilation of Plymouth farmers poultry houses is often neglected with resulting lost egg production, says Michigan State college extension poultry specialists.

If Plymouth flock owners are to get the best performances out of their flocks, special attention should be given to opening every window, door and slot wide during hot weather. Shade should still be provided.

Collecting eggs frequently in hot weather is another important job. Quality is rapidly lost unless eggs are gathered and placed where they will cool to the proper temperature. Frequent marketing will also help make sure the consumer gets a quality product.

I must stand with anybody that stands right. Stand with him while he is right, and part with him when he goes wrong.
