A SPLENDID PRESENTATION.

All of Plymouth has reason to be proud of the splendid presentation made Tuesday evening by Cass S. Hough, of the Daisy Manufacturing company, of the Daisy's profit-sharing plan in a Town Hall radio discussion in New York city. Not only did he marshal his facts in perfect order but his delivery was far superior to that of all of the other distinguished citizens who took part in the radio debate. Plymouth, too, received some continent-wide advertising out of the discussion, as this city was prominently mentioned as the home of the Daisy company.

STILL WAITING FOR A DENIAL.

It's Drew Pearson again—as much as we dislike his chatter—Sunday night he declared that former Governor Kim Sigler last week had lunch in New York with Frank D. McKay and McKay's lawyer, Mr. Garry. We can't believe it—but up to the present time we've heard no denials from anywhere.

A GREAT BIG PAT ON THE BACK.

For the two city employes who refused to have any part in the alteration of city commission records, Plymouth citizens owe them a great big pat on the back. Their refusal to be a party to any such thing is most commendable, especially so when both of them realized that they might at that time be endangering their jobs. We have nothing but the highest of commendation for them and what they did.

If such a practice should be countenanced, what would prevent any ex-mayor or anybody else from going down to the city hall, tearing out a page of the city commission proceedings if there should be something on it they didn't like or they thought shouldn't be there, throwing it away and writing in something they wanted in the proceedings?

Such a practice is just too absurd to think about, but nevertheless except for the justified defiance of a couple of city employes, that is what might have happened in Plymouth.

WHAT THEY SAY NOW.

John L. Lewis says he never trusted Franklin D. Roosevelt. There's nothing surprising about that. Lewis, irrespective of what one might think about him, has always been known as strictly honest—and honest men are quick to pick out those that can be trusted and those that cannot. It seems that Jim Farley, former Supreme Justice Byrnes, Barney Baruch and many, many others who were high in the Roosevelt administration at the beginning, now have the same ideas about Roosevelt as does Lewis.

BETTER PREPARE NOW.

Although the new law will not be enforced until March 1, 1950, there are some sections of the new traffic regulations for travel on all Michigan highways and streets that automobile owners, motor scooter and bicycle riders had better become acquainted with as quickly as possible.

Every one owning a motor scooter or a bicycle with motor attached must, next year, secure a state title and license, just as is required of every automobile owner.

Specific regulations governing the operation of bicycles on the public highway were written into the law. These are largely in accordance with former requirements of the common law but had not been previously written into any state statute.

It now becomes a misdemeanor for the parents or guardian of any child to authorize or knowingly permit the child to violate these provisions. These prohibit more than one person riding on a bicycle or motor scooter unless it is equipped to carry more. It also prohibits persons riding a bicycle or even on a sled or roller skates to hang onto an automobile being driven on a highway. It prohibits the carrying of packages on a bicycle if this prevents the driver from keeping both hands on the handlebar.

It requires the equipping of a bicycle operated on the highway at night with a lamp throwing a white light in front of the bicycle which must be visible for at least 500 feet and with a red reflector on the rear visible at all distances from 50 feet to 300 feet.

Motor driven cycles are required to be equipped with head lamps of sufficient intensity to reveal a person or vehicle at not less than 200 feet in the front if driven at more than 25 miles per hour.

It is now necessary for every person in whose name a car is registered to notify the Secretary of State of change in address within ten days thereafter. Change was made in the requirements regarding the reporting of accidents to require anyone who has struck a parked car to notify the owner, if possible, and if that is not possible to report the accident to the nearest police officer.

The report must also be made to the police where stop signs or bridge abutments and other fixtures on the highway are struck. Persons removing damaged cars from the scene of the accident are also required to remove from the highway any glass or other injurious substance dropped from the vehicle. The right of police officers to direct traffic on all highways of the state was specifically authorized. It is now immaterial whether or not you are outside the city limits. It is an offense to refuse to comply with the officer's orders.

EASY FOR GRAFTERS.

Russell J. Boyle, editor and publisher of the Michigan Tradesman of Grand Rapids speaks out with the truth when he declares that since Governor Williams signed the bill repealing Michigan's famous grand jury law, this state is at the mercy of grafters and vote buyers.

In a recent issue of The Tradesman, Mr. Boyle said: "The State of Michigan and the 6,500,000 people who live in this Commonwealth are absolutely at the mercy of grafters who place gold and silver ahead of everything else, without the One-Man Grand Jury Law."

For many years the 32 members of the Michigan Senate, and the 100 members of the House, have been embarrassed and intimidated by certain pressure groups who have been audacious enough to offer petty bribes to sway the votes of the legislators.

We do not want to be misunderstood in making this statement, because many men elected to the Senate and the House were beyond reproach. They voted for legislation which they thought meritorious and in the interest of the majority of the people, in spite of the intimidation and temptation which prevailed. A small group in both houses were susceptible, but the vast majority of the members were courageous and conscientious.

The One-Man Grand Jury Law was inaugurated by master minds who saw an opportunity to use the law to intimidate opposition groups in various Counties of the State when as and if the opposition rose and became potent. But, when the One-Man Grand Jury Law was pressed into service at a time when these master minds were busy protecting themselves and defending their questionable acts, at the first opportunity, when they got off-the-hook they set in motion a program to repeal the One-Man Grand Jury legislation. In the regular sessions of the 1949 Legislature the One-Man Grand Jury Law was repealed. The new Law, which was substituted, provides among other things for a Three-Man Grand Jury, but it does not contain the most useful weapon in the former One-Man Grand Jury Statute, which gave a Grand Juror or a Grand Jury the right to grant immunity to a witness who, even though guilty himself, agreed to testify against others involved in a conspiracy.

Michigan bankers, industrialists, retail and wholesale merchants, manufacturers, investors, employes and employers alike, those who subsist on Old Age Assistance, and those who are interested in social security and the voters generally, will best protect their interests from the ravages and encroachment of selfish groups with plenty of money to buy their way through thick and thin regardless of equity, by getting behind a program which will give special emphasis in the 1950 primaries to the revival of a new One-Man Grand Jury Law with teeth in it and the immunity clause re-instated.

C of C Schedules Annual Meeting For December 12

Plymouth's Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual meeting after a dinner at the Hotel Mayflower on Monday, December 12. Election of members to the board of directors and presentation of project reports will follow the dinner which begins at 6:45 p.m.

Ralph Lorenz will deliver the report on the housing committee on which he served as chairman. A report on the Fourth of July celebration will be given by chairman Robert McAllister. Recreation director Herb Woolweaver will discuss the Halloween program and Robert Lidgard will speak on the Chamber's progress in curbing solicitations in the city. Walter Rensel is going to speak on the group's cooperative plan for Christmas decorations for Plymouth.

Plans for projects to be emphasized during 1950 will also be discussed at the meeting.

Chute Demands Police Rehiring

It developed at Monday night's meeting of the city commission that it wasn't Chief of Police Lee Sackett or City Manager Albert Glassford who rehired Ray Rogers to serve as a member of the police force.

When questioned by Mayor Perry W. Richwine at the meeting about Patrolman Rogers, Manager Glassford said he was put back on the force at the demand of former Mayor George Chute who ordered that he be rehired before the new commission took over. Mr. Chute told Manager Glassford on Sunday, October 2 that Rogers should be rehired before the next commission meeting the following night.

In rapid fire questioning, Mayor Richwine asked Chief Sackett if at any time it was necessary to take a gun away from Rogers when he was on the force. The answer was an emphatic "No." Negative replies were also given to questions asking if Chief Sackett had ever been involved in an argument with Rogers or had any trouble with him that would reflect on the good name of the city of Plymouth. The Chief declared that the police officer in question had his full recommendation, although Rogers is strictly on his own "in proving himself."

When the commission was asked for any opinion on the rehiring of Rogers, Mrs. Hammond said she felt they should accept the opinion of Chief Sackett. The governing body of Plymouth then took up other business on the evening's agenda.

Here's a Robin That Seems to Like Tough Winters

There's one robin in the Plymouth area that apparently has no intention of going south to spend the winter amid the flowers and sunshine of the southlands.

Out at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Cassidy on Territorial road, there is a robin that seems to be thoroughly enjoying the snow as well as the other cold weather.

The Cassads have noticed it about their place for several weeks. It apparently has picked out a nice roosting place in a crab apple tree right near the house. Last Saturday morning when the mercury was hovering around the zero mark, Mr. or (Mrs.) Robin just shook its feathers, stretched its legs, looked up towards the sky where it ought to have seen a bright warm sun, and then dozed off to sleep again. An hour or so later it was hopping about looking for an angworm that might have been just as foolish as was the robin.

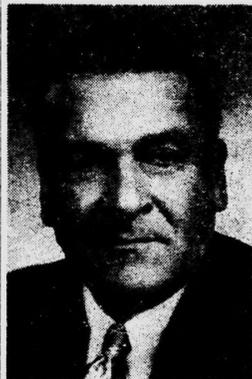

Maybe this robin likes the severe winter this part of Michigan is experiencing because of the generous and kindly hospitality of the Cassads.

Rotarians Will Entertain Rock Football Team

Plymouth High school's 1949 football squad will be guests of members of the Rotary club at their regular luncheon meeting at the Hotel Mayflower on Friday. One of the football coaches at Michigan State college will be on hand to comment on colored movies of this year's thrilling MSC-Notre Dame game which will be shown at the meeting.

Burroughs Co. President is Optimistic of Future

John S. Coleman Tells Plymouth Kiwanians of Rapid Developments in Business Accounting

John S. Coleman
President Burroughs Adding Machine Company.

The future holds much for both Plymouth and the Burroughs Adding Machine company, believes John S. Coleman, president of the Burroughs Adding Machine company, who spoke to nearly 100 Plymouth Kiwanis club members and their guests at its Thanksgiving week meeting.

"We feel that we are a corporate member of your community. We feel as though we belong here," declared the

School Boy Hit by Police Car

Long regarded as one of the most careful of police car drivers, Captain Carl Greenlee had the misfortune last week Wednesday, to hit a 10 year old school boy, Dale Woods, as the lad darted into the street from in front of a parked school bus near the intersection of Penniman and Church street.

The boy, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Woods, suffered a fractured left arm, internal injuries and serious bruises. He was quickly taken by Captain Greenlee to the offices of Dr. Charles Westover who gave him emergency treatment and had him removed to the University hospital in Ann Arbor where he is reported recovering.

Added to the fact that the driver of the police car has a record of careful driving, the injured lad has also been serving as a traffic patrol boy for Our Lady of Good Counsel school, where he is a student.

The empty school bus had been left unattended and Officer Greenlee reported to the department that he was stopping his car to make inquiry as to why the bus was parked in the place it had been left, when the unfortunate accident happened. Mr. and Mrs. Woods, the parents of Dale, reside at 8661 Hix road.

George Chute Tells Why He Tried to Change City Commission Records

George Chute who served as interim mayor during the period between the recall election and the election of a new commission, in a statement brought to The Plymouth Mail office, admits that he did take a page from the official record of city commission proceedings and that he deleted a part of it and rewrote a new paragraph to take the place of that which he had omitted.

The statement he had prepared seeks to justify his action because—"The decision NOT to include certain portions was reached at a CONFERENCE meeting of all (interim) commissioners." Asked if this "conference" meeting was a secret meeting of the former commissioners, he denied that it was.

"Anybody could have been there if they wanted to," he said. But nobody knew when or where the "conference" meeting was held and there is no record of it in commission proceedings.

His statement, which he had signed by the four commissioners he says were at the "conference" meeting, was signed by himself, Dr. Luther Peck, Nell T. Curry and S. N. Thams. It states that portions of the proceedings, of the recalled city commission executive of one of the world's most progressive mechanized accounting machine manufacturing plants.

It was a number of years before the World war when the Burroughs company in searching for a site for a new factory it desired to build outside the city of Detroit, selected Plymouth as "tops" for the new plant which now employs some 1,000 people, a very large number of them being Plymouth residents.

President Clarence Moore of the club and Dr. R. Ray Barber, chairman of the program committee, as well as all of the Kiwanians present, made it evident to Mr. Coleman that all of Plymouth not only feels as a part of the Burroughs company is a part of this community, but that it is the high type of an industry that is more than welcome to the industrial circle of this fast growing city.

While it is not news to the many hundreds of workers at the Burroughs plant, it was news to those at the Kiwanis meeting that the Burroughs company is using one of its Plymouth buildings for much of its experimental and development work.

"The art of mechanized accounting is rapidly moving into the field of electronics. In the next five years we are expecting remarkable developments in the use of electronic impulses. We are dealing with speed much faster than that of the human brain," said Mr. Coleman.

"In fact the Burroughs company is engaged in making mathematical brains and we are right now entering into a new era of accounting, just as we did when the first Burroughs adding machine was invented.

Special Comfort For Presbyterians

It just seems as though the good Lord is especially kind to Plymouth Presbyterians.

No longer is it going to be necessary for Presbyterian worshippers and church attendants to sit on hard, wooden pews during the hours of worship.

From somewhere—and only the kindly Giver of all good things knows, there is on the way some nice, new cushions for every pew in the church. These new cushions are said to be more comfortable than anything else ever made for human comfort.

P.S.—Do not ask the "parson." He may or may not know from whence the cushions are coming and who is so thoughtful as to provide such comfort for all the members of his flock—and if by chance he does know, he just isn't telling.

Jaycee Treasure Hunt

Dated for the annual Jaycees-sponsored Treasure Hunt has been set for the afternoon and evening of December 19. Tickets for the holiday event will be ready for distribution on Tuesday, December 6.

George Chute Tells Why He Tried to Change City Commission Records

George Chute who served as interim mayor during the period between the recall election and the election of a new commission, in a statement brought to The Plymouth Mail office, admits that he did take a page from the official record of city commission proceedings and that he deleted a part of it and rewrote a new paragraph to take the place of that which he had omitted.

"Messiah" to be Given on Sunday by Civic Chorus

Handel's most successful and best known oratorio, "The Messiah", will be presented by the Civic chorus and orchestra of the Plymouth Symphony society in two performances this Sunday at the high school auditorium. The first one will be given at four in the afternoon and the second at 8 p.m. There will be no admission charged for either performance.

Following the 4 p.m. concert there will be an informal tea in the Veterans' Memorial center for members of the Plymouth Symphony society and their guests. Mrs. Charles E. Brake is chairman of the tea committee.

This is the third year the Plymouth group has undertaken "The Messiah", which has become a tradition for Christmas and Easter singing. The chorus has grown considerably since the first concert in 1947 and now numbers 88. Many of the original singers are still with the group, but there are many high school

Warns Against Drunk Driving

J. Rusling Cutler, assistant city attorney, who is in charge of the prosecution of traffic cases in Plymouth, calls upon all motorists to support the December "Holiday Hazards" safety program being conducted by the Michigan State Safety commission. He urges all motorists who drive after drinking to "take it easy."

"Every judge feels unhappy at the travesty of having a traffic violator in his court charged with 'drunk driving' as a result of some holiday party given in honor of the Christmas season," he said.

Mr. Cutler emphasized the fact that the safety authorities in Michigan are carrying on an intensive public education program with posters, leaflets, stickers, motion picture trailers and newspaper and radio warnings and that, therefore, no motorist could argue that he was not aware of the serious problem of driving after drinking. "Any motorist brought before Judge Perlongo charged with drunk driving, if the facts substantiate the charge, must expect a penalty in keeping with his disrespect for the educational program and the threat against public safety caused by driving while drunk", he added.

In conclusion, Mr. Cutler points out that under a mandatory state law any motorist convicted of drunk driving automatically loses his license for at least 90 days and that this action is taken by state authorities and not by the court.

Milton Berle Uses A Daisy in His Show

Even Milton Berle, famed comedian of television finds it necessary to use a Daisy air rifle to put his shows over. In one of his extra good features a few nights ago, it was a Daisy that he used in "slaying" some of the turkeys he was "harvesting" for his Thanksgiving feast. The stunt went over big. The hundreds of Plymouth residents who have become television fans immediately recognized the air gun as one manufactured in Plymouth.

Central P.T.A. Hears Detroit Edison Speaker

Colored slides and a talk on proper lighting of homes and especially study areas highlighted the meeting of the Central Grade school PTA on November 22. The program, which followed a short business session, was presented by Miss Mary Taetke of the Detroit Edison company. She explained how homes can be well-lighted but not expensively so.

TURKEY CLUB PLANS PARTY

A turkey party will be given Tuesday evening, December 6 by the Plymouth Turkey club at 8 p.m. in Our Lady of Good Counsel parish hall at the corner of Williams and Arthur streets.

The public is invited to come and enjoy the party with the members of the Plymouth Turkey club and their families. A good time will be had by all.

Fire Route Designated
Church street, from Main to Adams streets, has been designated as a fire route for the city fire trucks. Plymouth residents are asked by Plymouth police and fire departments to observe the "no parking" signs on the north side of the street.

Plymouth United Fund Drive $2,000 Over Goal Set Here

Stores Stay Open

To aid Plymouth shoppers in their Christmas shopping, some local stores have already begun staying open in the evenings until 9 p.m. Another group of stores is slated to start staying open Friday night, December 9. Although these stores will be open every night until Christmas, they are planning to close Christmas eve at 6 p.m. The Chamber of Commerce has distributed signs to all stores which will be displayed and announce the night when each store will begin staying open for the holiday shoppers.

Finds Transfer of Money Illegal

"Transferring money from one fund to another is illegal," declared City Attorney Harry Deyo at Monday's commission meeting when he presented his opinions on the matter in a written report. "Basing my judgment on court rulings that have been handed down in the state of Michigan," he continued, "I find that such practice is illegal."

Citing several cases concerning such action, Mr. Deyo reported that the courts hold that when city charters forbid the transferring of funds from one to another, "the same may not be done." The Plymouth City Charter prohibits such practice which, at certain times, has sometimes prevailed in the city hall. The city attorney was asked to make known his findings on the question at a previous commission meeting so the matter could be clarified, once and for all.

Examination Date Postponed Again

Examination of two young men accused of stealing tires and accessories from Forest Motors Sales was postponed for the second time last Monday. Now scheduled for next Monday, December 5, the examination will be held in front of Judge Nandino Perlongo. Its outcome will determine whether or not the accused men will be turned over to circuit court for trial.

After much stalling by the Wayne county prosecutor, warrants for the arrest of the alleged thieves were finally issued on November 16. They were arraigned that night by Judge Perlongo who set bond at $750 each after they pleaded "not guilty."

The examination was originally slated to be held on November 21 but was postponed because a witness could not be present. The boys confessed to the theft of three automobile tires and signed admissions of their guilt, but warrants for their arrest were not issued immediately by the Wayne County prosecutor because Forest Motor Sales did not have a record of the serial numbers of the tires.

Winter Comes With Vengeance—Zero Weather Ahead of Time

There's no fooling about an early winter this year. It came early—and it came both vicious and bitter cold.

The mercury, for two days last week, hit the lowest points for November in weather history for this part of Michigan.

It was reported zero in many places around Plymouth last Friday morning. In Lansing it was three below and in Flint it was reported seven below. Never before has this part of Michigan experienced below zero weather so early in the season.

The heavy snow and the sleet made automobile driving the most difficult in years. The Mayflower hotel, Hillside and other popular eating places in and around Plymouth, suffered hundreds of cancellations of Thanksgiving day dinner orders. The early morning wet snow, which fell during the entire day on Thanksgiving made

"Final returns on corporation gifts within the past two days have sent Plymouth's United Community Fund drive over the top," reported Paul Johnson, drive chairman, when interviewed this week.

"Until we received word concerning the amounts contributed through factory campaigns conducted by the United Foundation, we had barely made our quota," continued Mr. Johnson. "Our present total of receipts stands at $13,983.07. This will enable the Community Fund board to more than cover total disbursements for the coming year which will approximate $13,234."

The local drive committee composed of Frank Arlen, Lincoln Lantz and Paul Johnson expressed their joint thanks to Plymouth and its surrounding community for the fine cooperation shown in both the actual giving as well as in the work of carrying on the campaign. Chairmen in charge of various phases of the drive this year were: William Roberts, residential; Ray Williams, commercial and professional; Elmer Zuckerman, industrial; Sterling Eaton, organizations; Carvel Bentley, schools. Local service club teams from the Lion's club, Rotary club and Optimist club gave fine service in the commercial drive.

When asked about the local Community Fund board's relations with the United Foundation in the current drive, Frank Arlen, president of the board, stated, "Our relations have been of the finest. We have found Terry Rielly, campaign director for Western Wayne county, most cooperative and fair. We are glad to have had a part in this trail blazing venture of the United Foundation. It is our sincere hope that other deserving agencies may be associated in this federated drive so that Plymouth may be able to have one such campaign providing sufficiently ONCE FOR ALL."

New Baby Shop Opens

"Everything hand-made" characterizes all the articles being sold at the newly opened Beal's Little Shop which is featuring clothing for infants and toddlers, aprons and handkerchiefs. Located at 181 West Liberty street, the shop is owned by Mrs. Earl Houghton who designs and makes all of the articles sold there.

Mrs. Houghton has been a resident of Plymouth for the past 12 years and began sewing and designing as a hobby. She uses all original designs and patterns. Her shop specializes in hand-knitted and crocheted gifts for babies.

Fish Supper Friday

A fish supper will be served tomorrow night by the women of St. John's Episcopal church. Dinner hours will be from 5 to 8 p.m. On the evening's menu will be hashed brown potatoes, fish and tartar sauce, squash, cabbage and carrot salad, and home made rolls. Apple crisp and coffee will round out the Friday night supper. Reservations may be secured by calling 542-J.

Rev. Hoenecke to Show Colored African Films

Because of the many people who were turned away Monday night, another showing of the colored movies taken by the Reverend Edgar Hoenecke on his trip to Africa last spring and summer will be presented at St. Peter's Lutheran church next Monday, December 5.

Friends of the church as well as members of the congregation who are interested in seeing the 4,200 feet of full color film are cordially invited to this second presentation. The showing will begin at 7:30 p.m. A plate offering will be taken.

Rotarians Will Entertain Rock Football Team

Plymouth High school's 1949 football squad will be guests of members of the Rotary club at their regular luncheon meeting at the Hotel Mayflower on Friday. One of the football coaches at Michigan State college will be on hand to comment on colored movies of this year's thrilling MSC-Notre Dame game which will be shown at the meeting.

Garden Club Changes Location of Annual Sale of Christmas Greens

A bit of the north woods will be brought to Plymouth when the local branch of the National Farm and Garden association holds their annual sale of Christmas greens on December 17.

All proceeds from the sale will be used by the club for their fund which affords a scholarship to some Plymouth student.

The location of the sale has been changed from the Crystal room of the Hotel Mayflower, to the Consumer's Power office at 459 South Main street. Members of the club will be on hand from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. to help Plymouthites choose from an abundant supply of wreaths, table decorations, yule logs, candles and Christmas bows.

Also featured at the garden club's sale will be a variety of baked goods with Jack Horner pies as a special attraction.

Named as a committee to assist Mrs. Wiedman with plans and preparations are: Mrs. Andrew Vargha, Mrs. Carl Shear, Mrs. George Merrivewather, Mrs. Roy Lindsay, Mrs. Fraser Carmichael, Mrs. Louise Von Stein, Mrs. Peter Ralph Miller, Mrs.

Sidney Strong, Mrs. Horace Thatcher, Mrs. Edwin Bolton and Mrs. J. M. Swegles.

Other December doings of the club include a trip to Birmingham where they will be guests of the Birmingham branch of the National Farm and Garden association's Christmas show and open house to be held at the Community house from 2 to 9 p.m. This will be an event of December 12, and arrangements may be made with the transportation committee for those who would like to attend.

Mothers Club to Hear Book Talk

"Books For Young Readers" will be discussed by Harriet Harwood, book reviewer, when she addresses members of the Starkweather Mother's club next Tuesday, December 6, at 1:45 p.m. at the Starkweather school.

A member of the J. L. Hudson company's speakers' bureau, Miss Harwood will cover outstanding books of general interest for boys and girls.

Tea will be served by Mrs. E. Allen, Mrs. D. Herrick, Mrs. K. Schling, Mrs. F. Clement, Mrs. E. Burger and Mrs. W. Fillmore. The speaker was secured by Mrs. Nancy Tanger, principal at Starkweather school, and Mrs. W. Brown.

Miss Harwood's reviews are neither critical nor dramatic but, rather, they are the highlights about books and the people who write them. She is convinced that reading is one of the greatest pleasures in life and enjoys sharing her own enthusiasm in new books with others. She thinks that one of the greatest gifts parents can give their children is to help them develop a taste in good reading.

"Reading is fun", she says, "and young people who like to read are never lonely and grow into adults with a background of wider horizons for the future."

In Los Angeles, Mrs. Joyce Brainard won her divorce after testifying that when her husband came home at night he kissed the dog before he kissed her.

Auxiliary to Aid Youthful Patients

Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary members have designated collecting of pajamas for children at Maybury sanatorium as their special project.

Pajamas from size two and one-half up to size eight are urgently needed at the hospital, according to the Jaycee auxiliary. Toys are also needed at the sanatorium to help the children there pass the long hours of their confinement. Plymouth residents who wish to contribute "p-jays" or toys for use by the Maybury children are urged to call Mrs. Charles Wolfe at 1270-W to have them picked up by auxiliary members.

Miss Martin's Troth Revealed

Announcement of the engagement of Marietta Iadel Martin to William Dwight Walton is made this week by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Martin of Dearborn.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Walton of Sussex avenue, Detroit, are the parents of Miss Martin's fiancé. The Martin family are former residents of Plymouth, having made their home on Newburg road before moving to Dearborn. Miss Martin and Mr. Walton have not named a date for their wedding.

Holiday Party Fetes Symphony

Christmas festivity will furnish the theme for the informal tea being given Sunday afternoon to members of the Plymouth Symphony orchestra and Civic chorus, following their four o'clock performance of Handel's "Messiah".

Members of the Symphony society, the orchestra, Civic chorus and their friends will be given a hearty welcome as they are received by Dr. and Mrs. Harold Todd and Miss Hanna Strasen at the Hough Memorial home on North Main street. Miss Strasen and Dr. Todd represent the advisory board of the Plymouth Symphony society as president and vice president, respectively.

Decorating the red and white covered tea table, handmade paper mache carolers dressed in red, green and grey to resemble English characters will add to the holiday motif. Mrs. Fred Nelson and Mrs. Paul Wagner have been asked to pour.

Serving as chairman of the tea, Mrs. Charles Brake will be assisted by Mrs. William McAllister, Mrs. Maxwell Moon, Mrs. Russell Daane, Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Nelson, Mrs. Gregory Clemmons, Mrs. Clarence Schuler, Miss Janet Rollins and Miss Dorothy Curtis.

OES News

The regular meeting of Plymouth chapter No. 115 will be held Tuesday, December 6, at 7:30 p.m. Members who wish to contribute to the Wayne County Fraternal home are asked to bring their donations to this meeting.

On Friday, December 9, the Wayne County Fraternal home will hold open house and any members desiring to visit are asked to call Sister Burl Tremaine, phone 790-W, for further information.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Oral Rathbun and Mrs. Lucille Smith attended Loach chapter on November 14. This was their first initiation with the new corp of officers.

Those attending initiation at Nankin chapter in Wayne November 23 were Mr. and Mrs. Oral Rathbun and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thorpe.

Sisters Bernice Sawyer, Elaine Moran, Mary Davison, Burle Tremaine and Gladys Colgan are on the sick list. Betty is at the Plymouth hospital. Eastern Star members wish them a speedy recovery.

Speaks Vows in New York Rites

Announcement is made of the marriage on Wednesday, November 23, of Miss Maria Fanelli, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Fanelli of New Rochelle, New York to Harry Dale Terry. Mr. Terry is the son of Mrs. Herbert A. Terry and the late Mr. Terry.

The ceremony was performed by the Honorable Stanley W. Church, mayor of New Rochelle, before a gathering of relatives and friends. Davenport Country club in New Rochelle was the setting of the wedding and dinner-reception which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry are now residing at 276 Union street, Plymouth.

Salem Resident Dies At Home November 26

Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, 82, of Salem township died Saturday, November 26 at her home, 7029 Five Mile road.

She was the daughter of James and Emma Furlong, Mrs. Thompson was born in Plymouth October 10, 1867 and was married to Gilbert Thompson of Salem township, who died in 1936.

Mrs. Thompson is survived by two sons, DeForest of Salem township and LaVerne, of Hampton, Vermont, a daughter, Miss Winifred Thompson of Detroit; and five grandchildren. She also leaves a brother, Arthur Furlong of Washington, D. C.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2:30 in the Phillips Funeral home at South Lyon. Burial was at Worden cemetery on Five Mile road.

Hough School PTA Slates Meeting For December 6

Members of the Hough school PTA will meet Tuesday evening, December 6, to hear Walter Grimala, managing director of the Vocational Guidance center, present a talk at 8 p.m.

At the close of the program refreshments will be served. A cordial invitation is extended anyone who would like to come.

Miss Betty Arnold to Wed Richard W. Swanson

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Arnold of 643 Burroughs street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Betty, to Richard W. Swanson, the son of Mrs. Clesson Peck and Harold Swanson of Hastings.

A Wonderful Tribute

ARE PEOPLE happier because of your presence? Maybe you don't know, but it wouldn't take much of an effort for you to find out. There are certain things that can be counted on to make people happy. Laughter is one of them. People like you if you lighten their hearts; a little child, even a baby, likes you if you make him laugh.

D. Carnegie

Don Marquis, who in 1938 went on to what I am sure is his Great Reward, will be remembered by his friends with tenderness and appreciation as long as they live. He made them happier by his presence while on earth. He will be remembered by readers and students for how long no one can foretell. His publishers bring out a new edition of his works every few years, and the sales are as great as ever.

Not long ago I paid a call on Don's sister who lives near my home. A representative of the oil company was there. We spoke of Don, and his writings. Said he: "I subscribed for the newspaper he was writing for 20 years ago just to read what Mr. Marquis' characters, Archy and Mehitabel, had to say about this and that. I still take the paper, but I don't read it much any more."

Don originated clever lines that have been cribbed and used by dozens of writers. It was he who said, at the Players Club in New York, one night, "I know I ought to go home and get to work, but I'm not going to let my will power get the best of me."

My friend, Homer Croy, says that Don was easily the most popular member of that club. And when Don died, they held a memorial for him in one of the biggest theaters in New York. Seats sold for $5, $10 and $15. There wasn't a vacant seat in the house! The memorial consisted not of mournful eulogies, but of entertainment.

Don would have preferred it that way, and Christopher Morley, the chairman, and one of Don's prized friends, knew that. So they laughed at what Don had written and said. They had such a good time that they were reluctant to go home.

Articles Made by Handicapped to be Sold Slate Art Classes on Tuesday Night

A special sale of craft articles made by handicapped children and adults will be held December 15, 16 and 17 at the Willoughby Shoe store. Sponsored by the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, sale arrangements are being handled by the crippled children committee of the Rotary Anns. Mrs. William Wood heads the committee.

Articles to be sold will be hand made products made by the homebound handicapped people who are being served by the occupational therapy program of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults. Last year the agency served 527 handicapped people by bringing an occupational therapist into their homes.

The money from the sale of each article is returned to the person who produced it. To many of these people, the sale of these products mean the first money they have ever earned, to others who have earned it, it means a renewal of their hope and courage and proves to them again that they can make a useful contribution to society.

Hand woven place mats, towels, hooked and braided rugs, hand tooled leather goods, stuffed toys, baby clothes, ceramics, plastic and metal jewelry, pot holders, aprons and children's clothes are among the sale items.

Harold Stein, art director, announces that every Tuesday night from 7 to 9 p.m. an art class will be held in the art room, room 20, in the high school. Mr. Stein has had instructions from the University of Michigan and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance at the art classes.

Church Marks 21st Anniversary

The Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church will celebrate its 21st anniversary on Sunday, December 11 with special services at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The preacher in the morning will be Dr. Kenneth Neigh, executive secretary of the Presbytery of Detroit and in the evening Rev. William Townsend, minister of Grace Presbyterian church and one of the first ministers of the Rosedale Gardens church.

Former pastors Rev. John B. Forsythe and Rev. E. A. N. Wilson will also participate in the evening service with Dr. W. Glenn Harris, minister of the First Presbyterian church, Birmingham and acting moderator of the Presbytery of Detroit.

The Sunday school and preaching services were started in the Rosedale Gardens school building March 4, 1928 under the auspices of the Board of Church Extension of Detroit Presbytery. The church was organized December 11 of the same year.

All friends of the church are invited to both services. It would be appreciated if those who know of the present addresses of any of the former adherents of the church would send them to the church office.

Volleyball Slated For Local Women Tonight

The first of the women's volleyball games will be played in Plymouth at the Starkweather gym tonight at 7:30 p.m. for an eight-week season. Organized on an informal basis, with fun and exercise as the objectives, the games are open to any girl or woman in the city who enjoys the sport.

A part of the recreation program, the games will last for two hours and will be played on December 1, 8, 15 and 22 and January 5, 12, 20 and 26. January 19 was not open since the gymnasium is being used for a PTA meeting that evening, so the women will play the following night.

Chairman of the group is Mary Therese Watters.

Worden Specialty Display at Bank

Currently being exhibited in the Plymouth United Savings bank are a frozen food display cabinet for use in grocery stores and a metal display merchandising table from the Worden Specialty and Machine company.

The firm, located at 15169 Northville road, specializes in contracting for metal fabricating jobs. Besides the food cabinets and merchandising tables, Worden Specialty also manufactures automatic water softeners for the home.

Officers of the company are Walter Smith, president; Andrew Adamson, vice president; and Perry Richwine, secretary-treasurer. Most of the firm's 25 employees are residents of Plymouth.

In Milwaukee, haled into court for peddling toys without a license, Alvin B. Wolff persuaded the judge to buy three mechanical penguins before he was ordered to get out of town.

Scouting The Sunset Trail

Time in its passing creates many changes! This is a most natural course of events and all of us know that it is true, yet there are times when one would much prefer to cling to the old rather than to experience the testing of the new.

All of this leads up to the fact that the Sunset district is to have a new face in the Executive's post. Our good friend Scouter Specht is to enter new fields at the turn of the year and Scouter Art Henry, formerly of a neighboring state to the west is come to us in his stead.

Mr. Henry is an experienced Scouter who knows his way about and we all would like to take this opportunity of welcoming him to our Council Fires which burn the year around here in Sunset. Greetings, Scouter Henry!

More action for the district leaders of all Cubs, Scouts and Explorer units will spring into being on the evening of December 7, when all of the following personnel is invited (if not urged) to attend the joint round tables being held at the Plymouth High school starting at 7:45 p.m.: Cub leaders, committeemen, Den Mothers, leaders and troop committees, Explorer leaders, committeemen and Explorers.

We would like to see (how about it?) every registered adult leader present at this affair. And bring that friend or neighbor who you might feel to be interested in Scouting along with you, too! He'll enjoy his visit we're sure.

There will be fun! Laughter! Let's show Scouter Henry how we do it in Sunset!

Your reporter has been wondering about your unit publicizing activities and has noted a great lack of action in this respect. It must be realized that no tree of any real size can grow unless it is permitted to exercise the prerogatives of nature which expects each small leaf to unfold in its due time.

If your unit does not seem to grow, or to hold the interest it should in its community, the fluff lies in the fact that you have not tried too hard to cultivate interest in its activities.

As a Scouting unit is a community property, reason proves that the owner has a right to knowledge of its growth, and becomes as interested as its stated value increases in his knowledge.

As you plan, publicize! As you accomplish, report the result! Small beginnings grow from right advertising. This column does not supersede your own copy. It merely takes up the slack where you leave off, or omit. No theorizing can ever take the place of reported results. If you are in doubt as to procedure, or method, contact your favorite editor. His advice is invaluable as he is the public voice of your town or city. But let's publicize!

Look! Snow! That fluffy stuff for the sledge runners at the Dawson City! How are the sledges coming along? Some of them are already underway. Is yours? It takes time and planning, but now you have the opportunity for both. Don't wait too long or your gang will surely miss the boat and you know how you'll feel when it leaves the dock and leaves you standing there—alone!

Harold H. Schryer

In Bournemouth, England, Bernard Silver, who ran the Silver Burglary Prevention and Security Service of London, was sentenced to 15 months for receiving stolen goods.

The monthly meeting of the Plymouth Townsend club will be held Monday, December 5 at the Grange hall. A pot luck will be served at 6:30 p.m.

ARE YOU SICK OF COAL STRIKES?

Then Switch to Oil

MAKE YOUR PRESENT FURNACE OR BOILER AUTOMATIC WITH

WINKLER LP* OIL BURNER

*low pressure

Cuts Fuel Oil Bills One Half!

THE ANSWERS to a few IMPORTANT QUESTIONS about Oil CONVERSION . . . . .

Is an oil conversion burner practical and economical?

Yes, now with Winkler LP*. The Winkler people of the U. S. Machine Corp. of Lebanon, Ind., are producing an oil conversion burner that will successfully change a cast or steel coal furnace into an oil designed furnace. Otwell's invite you to see how it is done—before you buy. We have a demonstration model. Call for a definite appointment, let one of our trained engineers bring you out to see this amazing new Winkler LP* burner in actual operation.

Will oil conversion make a grease film in my home?

No—not with Winkler LP*. Proper installation of automatic oil in a good furnace is the keynote to a clean home. Skilled mechanics of Otwell's will modernize your present furnace into oil design furnace making sure of a tightness whereby no odors, gases, film or dirt can get into your house.

What is the cost of oil heat with a conversion burner?

In dollars and cents for the average 5 or 6-room house approximately $80 or less per year fuel cost in your present cast or steel furnace with the Winkler LP* furnace. Yes, we admit it sounds unbelievable. We know that many times before you have been told that a coal furnace could not be successfully converted without a blower or other expensive changes. True in the past, but not now. The Winkler LP* burner heats your home perfectly in zero weather at a minimum of cost. The amazing principle of low pressure makes your furnace into an oil designed heating plant.

REMEMBER — Fuel oil prices are coming down, coal prices are going up.

Is my home too small or too large for an oil conversion burner? Small 5 and 6-room homes have a maximum heat loss of approximately 55,000 B. T. U. per hour. These buildings usually have a boiler or furnace properly sized for their heat loss—the difficulty in establishing economical operation lies in the oil burner.

Fuel oil has an approximate heat content of 140,000 B. T. U. per gallon. Oil burner nozzles with ratings as high as 135 gallons per hour are frequently used in these heating plants, because nozzles become clogged in service.

1.35 gallons per hour represents a heat release in the combustion chamber of about 200,000 B. T. U. per hour. This is much more heat than smaller heating plants can absorb and as a result, stack temperatures are extremely high. Heat thus pouring up the chimney means wasted oil — low efficiency!

Now assume a ½ gallon per hour burner under the same circumstances. This burning rate provides a heat release of about 70,000 B. T. U. in the combustion chamber. The heat absorbing surfaces of the small heating plant are designed to handle this heat release efficiently, and a low stack temperature results. This means saved oil — high efficiency.

PAYS FOR ITSELF— IN OIL SAVINGS

In three hours or less of heat interruption your present oil burner can be replaced with an economical Winkler LP* Burner and immediately start paying for itself. It pays for itself by eliminating costly service attention that results from clogged nozzles, filter and strainer and inability to burn fuels. It pays for itself by doing away with wasteful over-firing which results in short, inefficient burner operation. It pays for itself by releasing only the amount of heat the heating plant can absorb and transfer efficiently. And it pays for itself by burning cleanly and efficiently with an ever-constant fuel-air ratio over longer operating periods that prevents soot from insulating the heating surfaces. These are a few of the reasons why the LP* will pay for itself and why it offers service-free performance.

OIL BURNER OWNERS

Replace Your Old Burner Now with the oil-saving Winkler LP* . . . a sensational new oil burner development.

See These Amazing Proofs

Seeing is believing. Come in today and watch the Winkler LP* burn—

1. Crankcase drainings.
2. Mixed oil and water.
3. New hard-cracked fuel oils.

Letter Box

"To the Plymouth City Commissioners:

"Regarding the action of the new city commission in reversing the established liquor policy of our city. I wish to hereby enter my most vigorous protest. Having already talked to Manager Glassford over the phone immediately upon reading the Plymouth Mail for November 24, he suggested that I put my protest in writing.

"According to the paper, you, the City Commissioners, are concerned for the poor grocers who are now denied the privilege (???) of selling packaged beer and wine, and feel that they are being discriminated against. Have you thought far enough to consider the fact that you are ALSO responsible to people who much prefer to trade at grocery stores where the stuff isn't sold? Have you considered that in giving these 'poor grocers' their so-called 'privileges', you are discriminating against parents of young children without having constantly before them what we consider degrading influences?

"Must we, who have no use for liquor of any kind, be FORCED to trade where it is sold? What of OUR privileges? Were you elected BY THE PEOPLE AND FOR THE PEOPLE, or by the comparatively few grocers and the liquor interests—and strictly for them?

"A few years ago, the property owners on Starkweather, north of Pearl street were assured by those who were governing the city at that time, that there would be NO FURTHER liquor licenses granted in Plymouth—S.D.M. OR ANY OTHER KIND.

"You have only to read the newspapers and listen to news reports to know that the majority of the men who commit heinous crimes against women and children, do it under the influence of liquor. Is our City Commission going to make it EASIER for such crimes to be perpetrated here in our own city? The thing is coming close all the time, as it is. If people can pick up the vile stuff that makes fiends out of some men and women, at every grocery store they pass, who is to say that YOU aren't opening the way of some hideous crime to be committed against my children or your own?

"If more liquor licenses are granted in Plymouth, by the action of the City Commissioners, and THEN some innocent child should become the victim of a crime committed by someone under its influence, I, for one, will consider that the blood of such a victim will be on the hands of every member of the City Commission and every grocer that sells liquor—to say nothing of the bar owners. IT COULD HAPPEN in Plymouth, you know.

"Last winter, after the only heavy snowfall of the season, my two boys, six and nine years of age, were shoveling snow from the driveway, at about 7 or 7:30 in the evening. A car pulled up to the drive, close to the boys, and directly beneath the street light. The driver opened the door nearest them, and motioned them to get in. The older boy approached the car door and asked what was the matter. Without a word, he motioned him to the front seat. Frightened, the boys came in, and the older one said, 'Mom, you'd better come and see what this man wants—he acts funny and keeps patting the seat for me to get in his car.' Startled, I went out to the porch. The man was out of the car, and the door was open. Obviously, he had started after the boys, to force one or both into the car. As soon as I went into the house to phone the police, he left. I still shudder when I think what could have happened to my boys that night. For all you or I know, he might have been the slayer of young Gene Paul Kennedy or some other innocent child. Neither do we know whether he lived in Plymouth, nor whether he had been drinking; but ALL TOO MANY CRIMES are committed under the diabolical influence of alcohol.

"WHY INSIST ON INCREASING THE POSSIBILITY OF HORROR IN PLYMOUTH?—and for what reason?—so the grocers can all have this wonderful 'privilege' of making more money at the expense of our children!"

"Some day, He Who judges all things righteously will avenge the blood of the innocent boys and girls who suffer violent deaths at the hands of drinkers. I'll wager that these murderers won't stand alone in their guilt before Almighty God—psychology and psychiatry and the so-called 'justice' of the courts notwithstanding. With them will stand the brewers who put the stuff on the market, those who sell it—and all those who aid and abet in getting it to the people by granting licenses for its sale. For my part I'd put alongside of them all those who listen to the weak-kneed, wishy-washy argument that 'it isn't fair not to let all the grocers sell it'—and 'it's in 75 percent of the stores already and it might as well be in the rest.' I'd say that people who argue thus are helping in the spreading of crime, and therefore guilty of the blood of

"Bill" Trepagnier Tells Plymouth Friends Best Way to go to Florida

Don't like the slippery roads, did you say? Don't like the snow and the sleet and the zero weather and the fogs and all of the other nice things that come along in winter time—especially this winter?

William J. Trepagnier, chief of the editorial staff of the Motor News, issued by the Automobile Club of Michigan, and a former resident of Rosedale Gardens, knows that a lot of Plymouth folks follow the robins and the blackbirds to the southlands every winter, so he kindly sent to The Plymouth Mail a new map showing the best roads to travel in going to Florida.

He not only advises which way to go, but he has had Harry Rogan, travel manager of the Michigan AAA prepare for Plymouth and other southland travelers right up to the minute information not only about roads, but something about costs along the way and after you get in Florida. He has also sent to L. B. Rice, manager of the Plymouth office of the AAA in the Mayflower hotel the latest maps as well as recommended over-night places along the way.

This year's Florida-goer will find new roads and new route numbers galore, says Mr. Rogan. Detroit signs will be few and far between—good news indeed. For dodging road construction gangs has been a regular feature of the southland trek for the past decade. This year most bottlenecks will be cleared out by Christmas holidays.

"Starting in January at the height of the season, and continuing throughout the winter," says Mr. Rogan, "our two main links to Florida will be easier to drive than at any time in the past ten years."

Postwar hotel, motel and restaurant construction in Florida has been moving ahead fast. The 1950 AAA Accommodations Directory lists 786 approved places to stay this year, against 662 last year. Within the five states along the Michigan-to-Florida route (Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama and Florida), approved places to stay have risen from 1,165 to 1,331.

"Because AAA has dropped a number of previously approved places since last year, these figures show only part of the in-such murder victims.

"If there is really any question of fairness and impartiality, let Plymouth establish ONE STORE devoted to the sale of liquor. Why discriminate against us who don't want the stuff in any form, and against the children of Plymouth? If you, the City Commissioners, aren't concerned about the moral and physical welfare of my children and your own, I AM!"

Sgd. Helen M. Salter

crease in available hotels, motels, tourist courts and resorts," says Rogan.

Don't look for much of a dip in prices this season. The "shopping" 1950 Florida-goer might force operators to cut prices a little to meet competition. The lucrative 1949 summer season in Florida was a result of reduced rates, and that factor could also be an important one in easing the cost of a 1950 Florida winter a little. But don't plan on it.

Hotel rates enroute will run about $6 to $10 per night, with first class motor courts costing from $3.50 to $8. Meals will average from $3 to $5 per day per person, depending on the appetite. That's a noticeable drop from last year's bill of fare.

This year there are two "best" routes to Florida.

The direct route, which includes some mountainous roads, can be covered in three days of "through" driving. The easier-to-cover western route, from 20 to 100 miles longer depending on Michigan departure point, is free of mountain driving and major construction activity.

The direct Florida connection runs through Cincinnati, Ohio; Lexington, Kentucky; Chattanooga, Tennessee; Atlanta, Georgia; and Lake City, Florida. A network of good roads radiates from Lake City to all points in the sunshine state.

The western route is becoming more popular each winter, says Rogan. It requires only a few miles of extra driving per day, allowing more comfortable travel all the way. Leaving Michigan, the route goes to Louisville, Kentucky; then through Nashville, Tennessee; Lewisburg, Tennessee; Fayetteville, Tennessee; Huntsville, Alabama; through Gadsden, Anniston and Opelika, Alabama; to Columbus, Georgia; and Lake City, Florida.

Michigan vacationers should watch their speedometers carefully while driving through both Georgia and Florida, particularly within the limits of cities. Rogan advised. Both states allow open-range grazing.

"Story Hour" Takes Vacation

Children's "Story Hour" at the Plymouth branch of the Wayne county library will be discontinued until after the holiday season. Announcement of the resumption of the "Story Hour" will appear in The Plymouth Mail.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Curtis entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Agosta and Mr. and Mrs. John Chaney.

Commissioners Discuss Safety

"Safety" keynoted much of the business at Monday's commission meeting. City Attorney Devo, Commissioner Hammond and Chief Sackett were asked to draw up an ordinance pertaining to the control of school buses. They were asked to consider the parking, loading and unloading of passengers of school buses as well as the passing of such buses by other vehicles on city streets.

Further action taken along the safety theme involved Mayor Richwine's request to Chief Sackett to make an analysis of the number of signs needed in and around Plymouth regulating the speed limits. A report is to be given at the December 19 meeting of the commission.

Commissioner Tibbitts reported that the tractor now owned by the city is not mechanically suited for conversion for use as snow cleaning equipment by putting on a broom attachment. He presented costs for new equipment. Since this year's budget makes no provision for the purchase of snow cleaning equipment, the commission decided to include the purchase in the 1950-51 budget.

City ownership of the Baptist cemetery located at the end of York street was determined at the meeting by Mr. Devo who said a warranty for the property had been turned over to the city on March 4, 1937. Much concern has been expressed in the city about the vandalism in and bad condition of the cemetery.

Mayor Richwine announced that W. S. Bahe had reconsidered his resignation from the board of appeals and would continue to serve.

A special meeting of the commission will be held on Friday, December 16 to discuss a taxicab matter presented by Mr. Austin.

In Long Beach, California, the Rev. Ralph M. Grove called in engineers to help his hard-of-hearing parishioners; the church's newly installed ear-phones were picking up nothing but local police calls.

Tax Law Revised by Commission

Due to a change in state general property tax laws, all real and personal property in Plymouth will be assessed according to its valuation on January 1 instead of on April 1, the date set aside for the purchase in former years in the city.

Plymouth's city commission has passed an ordinance changing the date so that local and state laws would coincide. Year-end inventories will now be used as a basis for assessment in Plymouth places of business.

Under the new ordinance, a house built in February could not be taxed as it would have to be under the former law.

The new ordinance also calls for the making and completion of the assessment roll on or before the first Monday in March. The board of review is to meet not later than the first Tuesday after the first Monday to review and correct assessments and to hear complaints.

The assessment rolls are to be closed at a special meeting of the commission subsequent to the third Monday in March when the assessor meets with the commission to review the assessments in general. Review and hearing of objections by the commission is to be completed not later than the first Monday in April, according to the ordinance.

Sisters Celebrate Diamond Jubilee

A sharp November chill did not halt the Diamond Jubilee procession of the Felician Sisters last week that began at the main entrance, crossed the campus and advanced to the chapel, to the main altar, for the religious part of the celebration. The clergy, monsignori, bishops and His Eminence, Edward Cardinal Mooney, in full cardinal's attire moved to the sanctuary, decorated with palms, giant chrysanthemums and lights glowing in the seven branched candelabra.

The clergy, the nuns, benefactors and representatives of organizations filled the nave and chapel. A select choir of the Felician Sisters sang the mass which was celebrated by Msgr. Edward Szumal, 'coram cardinale'.

Bishop Steven Woznicki in his sermon pointed out how the Holy Ghost did "much long distance planning" in which the Felician Sisters played an important role.

Famines in Ireland and two unsuccessful uprisings in Poland influenced indirectly the development of the church in America. To meet the needs of immigrants here, volunteers were called and among them were five Felician Sisters. "And look how the mustard seed has grown."

Next, words of congratulations came from Cardinal Mooney, who cast a look into the future and asked the sisters to be ready for any new work that the church had for them.

At the banquet which followed, Judge Joseph Moynihan, Msgr. Michael Grupa and Clara Swieczkowska reviewed that part of the Sisters work with which they were most familiar. Three hundred guests were present.

CHURCH GROUP TO MEET
The St. John's Guild will meet at 1 p.m. on Thursday, December 1 at the Episcopal church.

Victorious Deer Hunters Return

Men and some women from the Plymouth area are returning to their homes with stories of their hunting accomplishments in the North woods. Some have reported to The Plymouth Mail with their deer and others have checked in at local business places.

Mrs. Mary Grimes of 9381 Canton Center road shot a seven point buck, after only one hour of hunting the first day of the season at Arnold in the Upper Peninsula.

Arthur Forbes of Six Mile road must hold some sort of a speed record for hunting luck. He arrived in Harrison, Michigan at midnight a week ago Saturday, shot an eight point, 200 pound buck and was back home at 2 p.m. the next day.

Pat Tetzlaff of 5010 Gottfredson bagged a 17 point buck while hunting in Delta county on opening day. It weighed over 250 pounds.

Estel Rowland holds the record to date for the biggest buck in the Morgan-Burley deer hunting contest, although more hunters are expected to report their kill. Rowland bagged a ten point buck that weighed 173 pounds. The smallest deer reported at Morgan-Burley was a spike horn that weighed just 97 pounds which was bagged by Harold Hansor.

Others to check in for contest honors include Ernest Kalm-baugh with a five point buck, Russell Detting with an eight point, William Michael with a four point, Ellis Maddox with a nine point, William Morgan with an eight point, "Shorty" Davis with an eight point, Forest Truesdell with an eight point, Ferd Freund with a five point, Dale Rorabacher with an eight point and Dr. Brick Champe with a four point. John Blossom and James Bassett also reported shooting deer.

Checking in at McAllister Brothers to have their deer processed were A. Pint, A. Smith, B. Murry, M. Smith, A. Heald, J. Skeba, J. Sidler, W. Gladstone, C. Bueffer, Mr. and Mrs. R. Brink with one deer each, W. Smith, E. Passage, B. Keiffer, K. Hopkins, A. Mills, C. Smith and A. Rohde.

CHECKS CZECH CHURCHES - Alexis Cepicka, Communist minister of justice, heads a new cabinet office in Czechoslovakia that controls church finances, appointments, administration and pay. He is a son-in-law of Premier Gottwald.

New Trucks Now at West Brothers

Completely re-designed and re-engineered International trucks from International Harvester's new L-line were introduced Wednesday at the showroom of West Brothers, Inc., 534 Forest avenue. These trucks are the first new models since the war.

The new International truck line consists of 87 basic truck chassis models designed to handle any type of hauling job. Guy Fiber, in charge of truck sales at West's, said.

Mr. Fiber said the heavy-duty engineered L-line presented a completely new design in motor trucks, at once apparent from the massive front end to the smartly-styled cab. He pointed out that many new mechanical and engineering improvements, designed to promote operating efficiency and economy, were features of the new line.

The new trucks, introduced after years of exhaustive testing and research, required the greatest expenditure of any new models in International history. More than $30,000,000 was spent for the vast production change-over involving the widespread revamping of facilities, layouts and assembly lines in the company's plants.

THIS PETTY PACE

BY BROWN LEE YATES

Which is the smoo, labor or capital?

This week we review a book on each side of the worker-management dispute: "Strangled Slave" and "Cough Up, Capital," by a couple of "hack, hack" writers. Prefatory remarks are by Windsor Knott, author of "Inside the White Collar."

"Cough Up, Capital," contending that labor is gagging capital, was printed minus part of the alphabet. The letters AFLCIO were out on strike.

Through coercion by union bosses, the title page of "Strangled Slave" (contending that capital is gagging labor) was smuggled by printers into the other book. It was neat literary picketing.

Between labor and capital the main gulf is terminology. Before they see eye to eye, they must speak with the same tongue. (A rather difficult trick. Did you ever see two guys hand a tongue back and forth?)

Labor calls for a 20-MINUTE work week; capital wants a 20-DAY work week. Until they resolve the difference between MINUTE and DAY, the two factions will remain alienated. Economists call it "alienation of the factions."

Other slight differences: Labor would like a no-day work week. Capital counters with a no-pay-day work week. Labor asks for pensions and welfare funds. Management would rather relinquish a couple of vice-presidents. Labor suggests a fact-finding board. This is OK with management if the board consists of Taft-Hartley.

Both books are appropriately bound. "Cough Up, Capital" is covered with morocco, tinted with gold. It is embossed with cool-blue dollar signs—a cool million.

"Strangled Slave" is bound in chains.

In Chester, England, police of Cheshire County began printing photographs of the town drunkard, planned to send copies to all pubs with the warning: "If you serve this man, you are liable to a fine."

In Great Falls, Montana, hospital attendants, after looking high and low for the rare type of blood needed to give Jacob Dirkes an emergency transfusion, found that the only pint available was the one that Dirkes had donated a few days before.

Burroughs Co. President is Optimistic of Future

"Some bookkeeping methods still used today were invented by the Babylonians. Their methods have been used for centuries and our business grew out of their accomplishments."

"You may be interested in knowing that our plants in Plymouth are set aside for the making of new products. You know we have to change models, too, in order to keep up with the trend of the times. Styles in accounting in industry change frequently and it is our responsibility to keep up with developments but to be a few steps ahead," he said.

Mr. Coleman, regarded as one of the clearest thinking industrialists in the country, discussed briefly some of the new problems facing business as the result of changing export regulations and restrictions.

"But these are problems the Burroughs company is trying to meet in order to retain its foreign business", he added.

Plymouth Kiwanians gave Mr. Coleman a most cordial welcome and President Moore as well as Chairman Barber expressed for the club its appreciation for his interesting and timely talk.

The Burroughs company has the reputation of maintaining an ideal relationship with its employees. As a result, during all of the recent years of turbulent labor disputes, Burroughs employees have enjoyed all of the benefits of steady employment under most excellent conditions.

It was by an interesting coincidence that members of the Rotary club through Dr. Walter Hammond had sometime ago booked Edward F. Neubecker, assistant secretary-treasurer of the Burroughs company as a speaker for its meeting last Friday. Mr. Neubecker interestingly told of the development of the adding machine during the past half century.

In Richmond, the Virginia State Industrial commission allowed a claim of $176 for medical expenses to Actor Mell Turner, who said that during a love scene he misjudged the distance, broke his nose on the leading lady's forehead.

Changes Loading Procedure For School Buses

Supt. of Schools Helmer Nelson, it has just been learned, is working out a plan whereby there will be no more loading or unloading of school buses on Main street.

He hopes to have in immediate effect a plan whereby all of the students attending the grade school as well as the high school located on Church street, can get on or off the buses in parking areas directly in front of the school or in the rear of the city hall where there is no street traffic.

Superintendent Nelson is especially anxious to have this done as soon as possible owing to the greatly increased traffic on Main street, which is one of the narrowest as well as busiest thoroughfares in the city. He is cooperating with the Plymouth police department in an effort to eliminate as far as possible unnecessary traffic dangers. Mr. Nelson hopes to be able to make a definite announcement next week as to just where the buses will load and unload.

"Messiah" to be Given on Sunday by Civic Chorus

Students singing the oratorio for the first time and some experienced voices from surrounding communities of Wayne, Redford, Northville and from Detroit.

Tenor soloist will be F. Earl Reh, who returns to this part after two previous performances in 1947 and 1948. A former pupil of Clyde Nichols and William Lavin, he now sings with the choir of the First Presbyterian church. He has been tenor soloist at the Temple Baptist and First Congregational churches in Detroit.

Singing the soprano role for the first time with the Plymouth Civic chorus will be Frances Kellogg, although she has had this part several times before in Saginaw presentations. Mrs. Kellogg has been doing solo work for radio stations, concerts and churches throughout the state. A pupil of John Elwell of the Ypsilanti Conservatory of Music, she directs the Children's choir, sings with the Chancel choir of the First Presbyterian church here, and has just recently organized a student group of the Symphony society for high school music lovers.

Also taking the role of a soprano soloist will be Miss Ruth B. Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Campbell, who also sang the part in last year's performance. A senior at the University of Michigan School of Music where for the fourth year she has qualified for the scholarship received after graduating from Plymouth High school, she now studies with Arthur Hackett, dean of the music school in Ann Arbor. A former pupil of Mrs. Edna O'Conner of Plymouth, Miss Campbell is a member of the Michigan Singers, University of Michigan choir, Mu Phi Epsilon (music honorary), and the Choral Union of Ann Arbor in which she is now stand-in soloist for their "Messiah" presentation.

Alice Truscon, contralto, is remembered in Plymouth for her artistic performance as guest soloist with the Plymouth Symphony orchestra at one of their first concerts. She has studied with Harden Van Deusen of the University of Michigan. Chris Anderson of Hollywood, California and Fred Patton of Michigan State college. At present she is soloist at Central Woodward Christian church. Mrs. Truscon is the wife of Dr. Charles C. Truscon of Dearborn.

boots than they sold during the entire winter a year ago. Extra clerks were required at both Willoughby's Walk-Over store and at Fisher's shoe store.

First snow for this winter fell in Plymouth and vicinity on Tuesday, November 15 and since that day there has been continual winter weather, with only a few hours of sunshine in over two weeks.

Plymouth fuel dealers report that their piles of fuel are the lowest they have been in years. They are still delivering just enough to keep customers from getting entirely out of fuel.

The weather warmed up a bit on Sunday, thawing the slippery snow from heavily traveled highways and as a result Sunday driving was considerably improved over what it had been during the previous week.

Many Plymouth deer hunters were unable to return home as soon as they had planned, the snowfall in both the Upper Peninsula and throughout the Lower Peninsula closing some trail roads entirely. Some hunters tell of having been forced to dig roadways for long distances.

The high wind predicted by the weather bureau for southern Michigan for Monday night failed to materialize. In its place came a rain storm which helped to remove the ice from the highways and melted much of the snow which has been falling for a couple of weeks.

Old Mother Nature apparently came to the conclusion Tuesday that enough was enough. So when the clouds cleared away late in the day there was both sunshine and moonshine. The nice weather, with clear roads, prevailed through Wednesday and the weather man says he may be good for a while longer.

states that it was Mr. Chute who came to her and ordered the change made. She states that she refused to comply with his request unless he gave her a written order to do so. This, Mrs. Robinson says, he refused to do and then he took the page out of the book and left the clerk's office.

It was not until a few days ago when he returned a substitute page that all of this information became known.

That portion of the proceedings of the meeting held September 6 by the former commission that was recalled and which some one wanted "deleted" was as follows, says Mr. Chute's statement:

"The mayor recessed the meeting to the high school at 8:12 p.m. for the purpose of publicly hearing the proof of charges made by the Citizens' League against Mayor Hartmann, Commissioners Goddard, Henderson and Latture.

"It was moved by Commissioner Whipple that the meeting be adjourned. There was no second."

The proceedings then state that a representative of the Citizens' League read a statement, and a former commissioner also read a prepared statement.

The proceedings continue as follows:

"Mayor Hartmann, Commissioners Goddard, Henderson and Latture and City Manager Cheek made remarks in answer to the charges of the Citizens' League statement.

"It was moved by Commissioner Goddard and supported by Commissioner Latture that the meeting be adjourned. Time of adjournment was 10:10 p.m. Carried."

The above portion of the commission proceedings was on the page removed from the city records by Mr. Chute.

To take the place of that portion of the proceedings of the former commission, Mr. Chute brought to the city hall a few days ago the following paragraph, according to his prepared statement:

"The Mayor recessed the meeting to the high school at 8:12 p.m. It was moved by Commissioner Whipple that the meeting be adjourned. There was no second."

Mr. Chute explains that he made this alteration in the city records because on page 13 of the Plymouth city charter, there is a provision which reads as follows: "The commission shall hold regular meetings at the Commission Chambers on the first and third Monday of each month, and on such other days as may be ordinance, resolution, or rule by fixed," etc.

Mr. Chute said Tuesday that the page he had removed from the official minute book of the city commission had not been destroyed and that he still possessed it.

In Sidney, Nebraska, Merle E. Faulkner explained to police how he happened to be carrying an uprooted parking meter on his shoulder; he had been having a little trouble pilfering its hoard and had decided to work on it at his leisure elsewhere.

Jesus' Death and Burial. Lesson for Dec. 4: Luke 23:33-38; Mark 15:34; Luke 23:46-47; Matthew 27:57-60.

Memory Selection: John 10:11. After the travesty of a trial was ended, Jesus was led to the crucifixion. When a place called Golgotha had been reached and Jesus had been lifted up between two thieves, the chief priests and the soldiers taunted the Sufferer and told him to save himself, and one of the soldiers offered him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall. And above the head of Jesus were these words: THIS IS THE KING OF JEWS.

At the ninth hour (three in the afternoon) Jesus cried: "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?" Let us regard these words as evidence that Jesus, who had come willingly to the cross for sinful men, whose sins had separated them from God, had to feel utterly alone in his sacrifice.

In the last moments, Jesus cried out, in a loud voice: "Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit." These were the last words from the cross. They are sufficient answer to some who have supposed that his cry of being forsaken indicated waning faith by Jesus.

The Sanhedrin, in declaring Jesus worthy of death, was not unanimous in its action. Joseph of Arimathea did not agree. And, after the crucifixion, he begged the body of Jesus from Pilate, and he and Nicodemus lovingly placed it in Joseph's new tomb. Matthew writes that Joseph "also himself was Jesus' disciple." It is true that he had been a disciple secretly, but at the last he acted boldly and at great risk to himself. The same was true of Nicodemus.

DeHoCo, Atchinson-Chrysler Win First League Games of Season

Playing on the Detroit House of Correction gym last Monday evening, Daisy was beaten by DeHoCo 30-21, to start off this year's men's basketball loop.

All five of the players that started for DeHoCo scored at least four points or more, with Sammy Slough leading the pack, scoring eight. This was high for either team as Oldenberg of Daisy sank seven points.

The Detroit House of Correction has only two players on the squad from last year's team, Sammy Slough, high scorer in the league last season, and "Cowboy" Misiulowski.

In the second game of the evening, Atchinson-Chrysler defeated the Plymouth Mail 32-22, as Zach Holmes, coach of the winners, got his team started off early in the season.

The Atchinson-Chrysler team is made up of several players from the Sport Shop, which was coached by Holmes and won the city league championship last year.

Bob Norman took scoring honors for the evening with four field goals and four free throws, netting 12 points. Goodney tallied eight for the winners and Doug Slessor dropped in seven points for the Plymouth Mail.

The fouls in both games were few. Daisy committed only six, while DeHoCo made 10. The total for the four teams in the two games was 37. Sometimes one team commits that many in just one game.

Men's Basketball League Begins 1949-50 Season at DeHoCo Gym

The Men's basketball league got underway last Monday evening, November 28 at the Detroit House of Correction gym with Daisy playing DeHoCo and Plymouth Mail versus Atchinson-Chrysler. Tait's Cleaners played First National Bank on Tuesday night.

Six teams are playing in the Men's league which will play all of their games at the DeHoCo gym this year.

Teams which are playing and their managers are as follows: Atchinson-Chrysler, Zach Holmes; Daisy, William Strautz, Jr.; Detroit House of Correction, Vic Saltinski; First National Bank, Don Hiebler; Plymouth Mail, Peter Tichene; Tait's Cleaners, Dave McIntosh.

Tait's Cleaners looks like the team to beat this year as the season gets underway, with such outstanding players as Dave McIntosh, John Sandmann, Dwayne Becker, Mac Pierce, Jerry Allen and others.

Following is the complete Men's league schedule:

Thursday, December 1-Daisy vs. Plymouth Mail-8:45.
Tait's vs. DeHoCo-7:30.
Monday, December 5-First National vs. Atchinson-Chrysler-7:30.
Wednesday, December 7-Daisy vs. Tait's-7:30.
First National vs. Plymouth Mail-8:45.
Thursday, December 8-Atchinson-Chrysler vs. DeHoCo-7:30.
Tuesday, December 13-Daisy vs. First National Bank-7:30.
Atchinson-Chrysler vs. Tait's-8:45.

Hitt and Krizman Roll High Scores

Bob Hitt and Albie Krizman bowled series of 690 and 682 respectively Tuesday night, November 22 at the Plymouth Recreation bowling alley.

These two high scores helped First National take two points from West Brothers.

Lou Dely, a 169 average bowler, subbing for Cloverdale Ice Cream, rolled 257 his first game at Plymouth Recreation.

In the 775 league, McAllister Brothers grocery shot 945 for a high singles game over Crown Market due to Jim McAllister's 257 game.

Black Bear and Fox Listed Among Plymouth Hunter's Trophys . . .

Plymouth's proudest hunter is Ellsworth Minnock who bagged the 150 pound black bear pictured above. Mr. Minnock who lives on Goffredson road shot the bear in Chippewa county north of Trout lake. He was hunting with his father, Robert Minnock, LeRoy Sterile and Arthur Brinkmoler. The party also bagged a 7 point buck but they are not sure which hunter fired the fatal shot. The bear, a young female, measured about five feet long and had an unusually beautiful coat which, in all probability, will grace the living room floor of the Minnock home.

Dr. Edwin B. Cavell, Jr., shows the Plymouth Mail photographer how he shot his fox which was on a dead run according to the hunter. His 170 pound buck was shot near Mio just ten minutes before his party was ready to leave for home on their seventh day of hunting. Mrs. Cavell was also a member of the party that numbered 11 hunters who reported 5 bucks and a fox for their bag this year. Dr. and Mrs. Cavell reside at 930 E. Ann Arbor road and have hunted the last several years at the Don Anderson camp, three miles southeast of Mio, Michigan.

Flyers Score 7-4 Upset at Arena

Arena Flyers staged an upset victory over the powerful London (Ontario) Tecumsehs Monday night at Riverside arena, in a wild game of roller hockey when the Flyers won by a score of 7-4. In the last two periods there were nearly always one or more players in the penalty box.

On the verge of fighting all the time, the game opened up in the second period when left wing Heatherly, London, slashed right defense Daniels, Flyers. Daniels promptly beamed Heatherly and opened up a four-inch gash on his head. Daniels got kicked out of the game and Heatherly drew a two-minute penalty for slashing. At an on-the-spot meeting of the board of commissioners, Daniels was suspended for one game.

The Flyers lost to the Easton Packers on November 21 by the overwhelming score of 12-1.

Next Monday night the Easton Packers and the Arcadia Wildcats will tangle for the league lead at Riverside. It's a big game.

Gould's Cleaners Romps Over Training School

Gould's Cleaners, a basketball team which will enter the boy's Class D league, defeated the Wayne County Training school Redbirds 58-16 on November 20 in a loosely scoring game on the part of the Cleaners.

Gould's Cleaners started out practicing early for the basketball campaign and have been playing games and having practice since October.

By downing probably their toughest rival to enter the Class D league, Gould's Cleaners seems destined to finish high in the standings.

Men Play Volleyball Every Tuesday Night

Every Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 p.m., volleyball is being played at the Starkweather Grade school gym for all men interested in the sport.

Dunbar Davis is in charge of volleyball. He stated that 12 men attended the night of November 22.

It is open for more men and it is hoped that many more will attend.

More Boxers Welcome For Recreation Training

Mike Spitz, Plymouth Recreation boxing trainer, reports that training is well underway in the city recreation room in the city hall. Boys and young men from eight to 25 have been participating in regular training periods since November 25.

Twenty-five boxing enthusiasts are eagerly looking forward to the forthcoming exhibitions which are scheduled to be held until next June. There is room for more trainees.

Mr. Spitz says that all those interested in training for the exhibitions who have not already begun training should start conditioning at once since it takes from four to six weeks for the average boxer to get in condition.

Training periods are held every night of the week from 5 to 9:30 p.m. in the city hall. Parents are invited to attend these practice sessions. Commenting on parent attendance, Mr. Spitz said that although space for spectators is limited, they are cordially invited to attend and watch the boys in action.

Shorts in Sports

Who is the greatest athlete of all time?

In my opinion, the greatest athlete of all time was the immortal red faced Indian, Jim Thorpe, who excelled in every sport in which he participated.

This great Indian, who by the way was one-fourth Irish, will probably never have an equal.

Thorpe was a natural and lazy. Big Jim never did like to practice much, but liked to save all his energy for the games. At Carlisle "Pop" Warner used to get disgusted with Thorpe but he could not leave this one man team on the bench.

Playing football for Carlisle one season, the rusty-faced Indian scored 25 touchdowns and 198 points which is still tops for any college player. The closest anyone ever came to equalling Big Jim's mark was the 120 points scored by Glenn Davis, playing for Army.

Thorpe would yell out to opposing teams where he was going to run the next play and then hit the indicated spot with all his strength and power, running for good gains.

When opponents would pile him up, the Big Chief would just get up with a big grin on his face.

Knute Rockne, who was to be known as a great coach at Notre Dame, was playing end one game against the Carlisle Indians and twice in a row he threw Thorpe for a loss. Jim grinned at him and said he shouldn't do that for the 25,000 fans in the stands had come to see the great Thorpe run. Rockne told Big Jim that they had come to see him stopped, too.

The next play Thorpe took the ball and ran Rockne's end with his legs going like pistons as he steamed down the field. The Carlisle Indians looked back as they picked up the injured Rockne and carried him off on a stretcher.

On the track team, Thorpe could out do anyone else on the squad in any event. Big Jim had just to watch someone else before he tried. Then he would surpass their mark. One time the Carlisle track team was to play a team in Pennsylvania. A crowd gathered at the train station to meet the squad. The crowd stood dazed as only two men got off the train. One of the greeters asked where the rest of the squad was, and the Big Indian exclaimed that they were it. He was then asked if just the two men were the track team and Thorpe quickly stated, "No, I am the track team and this is my manager." The Indian went out to take eight first places and walk away with the track meet as a frustrated audience looked on.

The only thing that kept Thorpe from making good in the major leagues as a baseball player was because he could not get along with his managers, mostly because he was too independent and lazy. In the few years that Big Jim played professional baseball he was able to acquire a batting average over .300.

A man of 61, Jim Thorpe is now a bouncer in a Los Angeles bar.

Do you know of a greater athlete than this big Indian, who in the Olympic games in Stockholm took so many first places in events, that he won the Olympics single handed for the United States, only to have the awards taken away from him because of an innocent professional debut. Because of his showing in the Olympics, the King of Sweden acclaimed him as, "the greatest athlete in the world."

Plymouth Rocks Play Farmington Tomorrow Night

Opening the 1949-50 cage season tomorrow night, Friday, the Plymouth Rocks journey to Farmington.

The Plymouth Rocks bowed to Farmington each time that the two teams met last season.

Plymouth has a much improved team than that of last year. They have a good chance of winning this encounter without too much difficulty.

Fine prospective cagers have been shown in such players as Dick Fenton, Walter Dzurus, Al-an Finney, Keith Ebersole and Dave Reitzel. The Rocks are coached by John Sandmann.

Preceding the varsity game the local reserve squad will play the Falcons' second team.

Launch Women's Basketball Here

Ten teams have entered the 1949-50 women's basketball league with six entries representing the squads.

The cities sponsoring teams and their squads are as follows: Wayne-Michigan Bell Telephone company, Detroit Edison and the Wayne Merchants; Ypsilanti-two teams; Plymouth-Twin Pines and Daisy; Northville-Old Mill; and one team from Willow Village.

Twin Pines or Daisy will play in the Plymouth gym on Monday night starting December 5. The schedule for the games will be December 5, January 9, January 23, January 30 and February 13. Two games will be played each evening beginning at 7 and 8 p.m.

Women's basketball in this league will be played under regular women's basketball rules and should prove very interesting.

In Greeley, Colo., Henry C. van Schaak, Jr. explained that he opened fire on a low-flying airplane only because it kept scaring the ducks he was trying to shoot.

In Milwaukee, Gordon Edwards recovered his stolen automobile, noted that the engine had been damaged, went to get a mechanic, returned to find the car stolen again.

Pacific Street Closed For Winter Coasting

With the winter weather coming on and the ground covered with beautiful white snow, the hearts of young kids turn to the sport of sledding.

As there is only one hill on the west end of town to slide on, the recreation department has obtained permission from the police department to block off traffic on Pacific street for the children to coast on. Residents on this street may pass with caution.

Anyone from nine to 93 loves to get out their sleds and go spinning down the hills. Regardless of what "mom" says, they'll ride those sleds.

If you drive an automobile where there are likely to be sleds, be unusually careful—go slow, use your horn, and if at all possible drive around streets being used by sleigh riders.

There will be supervision between 3:30 and 5:30 p.m. on week days at the streets being used for coasting.

A N.Y. psychologist told the schoolteachers of America to go climb a tree. He's not trying to get them out on a limb... he just claims tree climbing is relaxing. If there's anything a schoolteacher needs after the dunces cap has been sent out to be reblocked and the boards are cleaned for the week-end... it's relaxation. By that time she's tight as a fiddle string and ready to become unstrung. Now, if tree climbing will calm her that's oak with us. There's only one small question, Doc. How do you convince the school board after they've seen their tired teachers making like Tarzan in the treetops?

Hines and Owens Pass 3 Year Mark

PLYMOUTH PHOTO

One of Plymouth's outstanding success stories is contained in the three-year history of the Jake Hines-Cy Owens partnership on the corner of Plymouth road and Mill street.

Jake, 52, at the above left in the picture and Cy, 32, formed the partnership in the summer of 1946 and at the same time obtained a Kaiser-Frazer franchise. The business flourished from the start. In three short years, Hines and Owens sold more than 1,200 new and used cars, topping all records in the first 10 months this year with 340 sales—better than a car a day.

The partnership began under unusual circumstances. Back in '46, Cy was carrying the mail and one of his regular stops was the Hines service station on the Mill street corner. They became fast friends and one day Jake proposed that Cy go in business with him—"50-50". Cy agreed and they have been agreeing ever since.

Jake, with a wide following and years of experience, naturally gave his attention to the service end of the business. Today the Hines and Owens service department is one of the busiest and best equipped in town.

Owens, with the vast acquaintanceships and friendships typically enjoyed by mail men, plus a genuine love of selling, was a natural for the sales department.

That the combination of Cy for sales and Jake for service was a right one is attested to by the record: 1,200 cars sold in three years.

In Newark, the Erie Railroad, petitioning the Public Service commission for an increase in fares, promised to modernize 144 commuter coaches so that windows could be opened "even by one lady."

Phone news items to 1755.

In St. Louis, after hiccuping for eight days, Robert Meier explained how he had been cured: a stranger called on him, lit two black candles taken from a wet noodle and draped the string over Meier's head with the noodle hanging between his eyes.

Building Ordinance, Township of Canton, Wayne County, Michigan

AN ORDINANCE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF CANTON, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN, PROVIDING FOR MINIMUM CONSTRUCTION REQUIREMENTS OF DWELLINGS, BUILDINGS AND STRUCTURES, DESIGNATING THE MANNER IN WHICH, AND THE TYPE OF MATERIALS OF WHICH DWELLINGS, BUILDINGS AND STRUCTURES SHALL BE ERRECTED OR ALTERED, DESIGNED TO LESSEN CONGESTION ON PUBLIC STREETS, TO PROMOTE THE PUBLIC HEALTH, SAFETY, MORALS AND GENERAL WELFARE, AND THE SAFETY, PROTECTION AND SANITATION OF SUCH DWELLINGS, BUILDINGS AND STRUCTURES, PROVIDING FOR AMENDMENTS OR SUPPLEMENTS THERETO, REFERENDA THEREON, PROVIDING FOR PENALTY FOR VIOLATION THEREOF, AND PROVIDING FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF SUCH ORDINANCE

THE TOWNSHIP OF CANTON ORDAINS:

Section 1:—The purpose of this Ordinance is to provide for the minimum construction requirements of dwellings, buildings and structures, to designate the manner in which, and the type of materials of which dwellings, buildings and structures shall be erected or altered, in accordance with a plan designed to lessen congestion on the public streets, to promote the public health, safety, morals and general welfare, and the safety, protection and sanitation of such dwellings, buildings and structures.

Section 2:—All buildings or structures used for dwelling purposes shall be required to conform to the following regulations:

A. Front Yards: There shall be provided on every lot or parcel of land on which a building or structure is erected a front yard, the minimum depth of which, measured from the front lot line, if constructed on a subdivided lot, or from the right of way line if the public road or street in front of such parcel, if constructed on an unsubdivided parcel, to the front wall of the building or structure shall be Twenty (20) feet. Provided that porches and steps may extend to within not less than Twenty (20) feet of said front lot line or right of way. If at the time of the effective date of this Ordinance Twenty-five Percent (25%) or more of the buildings or structures used as residences on one side of a street in a platted subdivision, between two intersecting streets, already have a front yard of a depth of less or more than said Twenty-five (25) feet, however provided, it is the intention of this Ordinance that the Board of Appeals hereinafter established shall consider under its duties provided for in Section three, under the Board of Appeals, that the observance of the spirit of this Ordinance and the establishment of substantial justice would dictate the finding of such Board to be that the building line and the size of the front yards on such side of street between such two intersecting streets, should be uniform and be the same as the yards in front of the structures and buildings already constructed thereon.

B. Side Yards: There shall be on each side of every lot or parcel of land upon which a building or structure is erected a side yard, the minimum width of which shall be Seven (7) feet, measured from the side lot line or side parcel line to the building.

C. Rear Yards: There shall be on every lot or parcel on which a building or structure is erected a rear yard the minimum depth of which shall not be less than One-third (1/3) the depth of the lot, measured from the extreme rear portion of the dwelling to the rear lot or parcel line. Provided that such rear yard need not exceed Thirty (30) feet in depth. An attached garage shall be considered part of the building or structure to which it is attached.

D. Floor Area: Each structure or building shall have a minimum floor area of Four Hundred Eighty (480) square feet.

E. Floor Height: There shall be a distance of not less than Seven (7) feet, Four (4) inches from the floor to the ceiling in each room on the ground floor, and at least Seven (7) feet for the second floor.

F. Chimneys: All chimneys must rest upon masonry foundations constructed to a depth of Thirty-six (36) inches below the grade line, and must be lined with terra cotta flue linings, such linings to commence at least Eighteen (18) inches below the thimble.

G. Ingress and Egress: For each living unit or apartment of any dwelling there shall be at least two means of ingress and egress, with a door for each, one of which shall be at the front of the structure or on the side thereof, not farther than one-half of the distance to the rear, and the other at the rear or side thereof.

H. Living Quarters in Connection with any Business Structure: Living quarters in connection with any business structure shall have a minimum area of Four Hundred Eighty (480) square feet.

I. Foundations: All structures and buildings shall rest on and be permanently fixed to a solid continuous wall foundation of cement, cement block, cinder block, brick or stone, extending not less than Thirty-six (36) inches below grade line.

J. Footings: The footings of basement walls shall be constructed Four (4) inches wider on each side of the wall it supports. Such footing shall be Six (6) inches thick for frame construction above and Ten (10) inches thick for brick-veneer construction above. All outside basement walls shall be plastered with One-half (1/2) inch cement plaster coated water proofing from the bottom thereof to the grade line.

K. Joists, Spans and Studs: All joists on first and second floors shall be 1 1/2 inches by 7 1/2 inches in actual dimension, spaced not more than Sixteen (16) inches from center to center. All ceiling joists shall be 1 1/2 inches by 5 1/2 inches, spaced not more than Sixteen (16) inches from center to center and securely nailed in place. All spans of Twelve (12) feet shall be 2"x10" spaced not more than Sixteen (16) inches from center to center. All exterior wall and bearing partition studs shall be 1 1/2 inches by 3 1/2 inches actual dimension, spaced not more than Sixteen (16) inches from center to center, securely nailed in place. All exterior walls shall be covered with not less than 3/4" material of wood or insulating board, actual thickness, securely nailed in place. All joists and studs are to be sound, straight-grained material and free from loose knots or shakes. Roofs shall be supported by rafters of not less than 1 1/2 inches by 3 1/2 inches, actual dimension, covered with 3/4" boards nailed in place.

Section 3: All buildings or structures shall be required to conform to the following regulations:

A. Height: No building shall be erected or altered in this township to be of greater height than Two and one-half (2 1/2) stories, or Thirty-five (35) feet. Provided, however, that churches, or schools may exceed such limit of Thirty-five (35) feet by One (1) foot for each foot in excess of Ten (10) feet that said church or school sits back from the closest property line.

B. Plumbing: All plumbing shall be done in accordance with the requirements of the Michigan State Plumbing Code, as amended.

C. Electrical Work: All electrical work shall be installed in conformity with the laws of the State of Michigan and the rules and regulations pertaining thereto by the State of Michigan, and such other requirements as the Township Ordinance with reference to electrical work may require.

D. Foundations: All buildings and structures shall rest on and be permanently affixed to a solid continuous wall foundation of cement, cement block, cinder block, brick or stone, extending not less than Thirty-six (36) inches below grade line. Providing, however, that the foundations for private garages shall extend not less than Twenty-four (24) inches below grade line.

E. Outside Finish: All buildings shall have finished outside walls of new finished lumber, painted with two coats of paint, brick or face brick, treated block, asbestos, painted metal or cedar shingle siding, or imitation brick siding with asbestos or like insulating material, provided that all structures and buildings to be used for business or commercial use shall be faced on all sides facing on streets or highways with brick, face brick, stucco, painted metal or like facing material.

Section 4: Outside Privies: No outside privies or toilets shall be built, constructed or used unless connected directly with a septic tank as approved with the building permit, except that on farms of five (5) acres or more, or large lots of Five (5) acres or more the same may be permitted without a septic tank if located One Hundred Feet (100) from any property line.

Section 5: The use of trailers, tents or portable structures as dwellings for human habitation, or the establishment of trailer camps within the Township of Canton, is hereby expressly prohibited; provided that any person taking out a permit to build a dwelling may use a trailer on the premises described in the permit as a dwelling during the construction of the dwelling, which permit for the trailer shall expire six months from the date of the issuance thereof and may be renewed only for a further period of six months, and then only if the dwelling is roofed and sided.

Section 6: The provisions of this Ordinance shall be a supplement to any and all State of Michigan laws relating to building and applicable to the buildings in the Township of Canton.

ADMINISTRATION

Section 1: The Township Clerk is hereby authorized and directed to enforce all the provisions of this Ordinance. He may delegate the enforcement of this Ordinance to any official of the Township or any other person appointed by the Township Board. The administration officials so appointed shall be for the purpose of this Ordinance have control of all building operations within the Township limits. The Township Board shall appoint a building inspector, who shall be at all times under the direct control of the Township Board.

A. Whenever any building work is being done contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance or is being done in an unsafe and dangerous manner, the building inspector shall order the work stopped by notice in writing served on any persons engaged in the doing or causing such work to be done, and any such persons shall forthwith stop such work until authorized by the building inspector to commence and proceed with the work.

B. Any building or portion thereof, including buildings and or structures in process of erection, if found to be dangerous to persons or property, or unsafe for the purpose for which it is being used, or in danger from fire due to defects in construction, or dangerous for use because of insufficient means of egress in case of fire, or which violates the provisions of this Ordinance due to the removal, decay or deterioration of any thing, appliance or device originally required by this Ordinance, shall be condemned by the building inspector. The building inspector may order portions of the structural frame of a building or structure to be removed for inspection when in his opinion they are in an unsafe condition. In any of the aforesaid cases the building inspector shall serve notice in writing on the owner, reputed owner, or person in charge of such building or premises, setting forth that such building is condemned. Proper service of such notice shall be personal service upon the owner of record, if he shall be within the corporate limits. If he is not within the corporate limits such service may be had upon any person accustomed to collect rent on the property in question who may be within the Township of Canton, and in the absence of such person, upon the tenant of the premises. In the event such premises are vacant, and the owner is not within the corporate limits, such service will be completed when the notice is sent by registered mail to the last known address of the said owner. Whenever the owner, agent or tenant is a corporation, service may be upon the President, Vice-President, Secretary or Treasurer, or in the absence of any of these, the local representative of such corporation. The person receiving such notice shall vacate such building within 48 hours thereafter and such building shall remain vacant until its occupancy is again authorized by the issuance of a new certificate of occupancy. If such building is, in the opinion of the building inspector, dangerous to adjacent public or private property, or persons thereon, alterations and repairs shall be started to remove such danger, within 48 hours thereafter, and diligently prosecuted to completion, failing which the building shall be torn down.

C. Should the necessary changes not be started within 48 hours after the service of such notice, and if such work is not prosecuted in a diligent manner after starting, the Township Board may order the building inspector to take such steps as will remove the existing hazard to adjacent property or to persons thereon. A statement of the cost of such work shall be transmitted to the Township Board, who shall authorize payment of costs incurred and shall order such costs to be levied as a lien against the property.

D. The Building Inspector or his authorized representative may, at any reasonable time, upon presentation of proper credentials, enter any building or premises for the purpose of inspection of existing buildings, or to prevent violations of this Ordinance.

PERMIT AND PERMIT FEES

Section 1: It shall be unlawful to commence to alter or repair any existing building at a cost of more than Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00) or to commence any work on any new building or structure until after a permit has been issued by the Township Clerk or the Building Inspector, and no work shall be done therefor until the representations of the builder or owner indicate that all building and zoning regulations of the Township of Canton are to be complied with. Such permit must be granted before any work or excavation or construction is begun.

Section 2: An application for a building permit shall be made in writing and accompanied by a sanitation permit signed by the owner of the property or his duly authorized agent, and filed with the Township Clerk at least Ten (10) days prior to the time when any work is to be started on any building or structure. Such application shall be accompanied by a drawing to scale in duplicate, either upon blueprint paper or in black ink, showing the actual dimensions of the lot or parcel to be built upon, the kind and size of building to be erected, the lot number and name of the subdivision, or the general description of the property if not subdivided, and such other information as may from time to time be required. A careful record of such application and the plans shall be kept by the Township Clerk. Accessory buildings which are to be erected at the same time, or nearly so, as the principal building on a lot or parcel, and shown on the application for the principal building, shall not require a separate building permit. No building permit shall be required for the construction of a shed to be used for the storage of grain, hay, fodder, implements, livestock, or other agricultural equipment, where such buildings are owned by a person or persons actively engaged in farming, and providing that such person or persons, own at least Ten (10) acres of land contiguous to the location of such building or structure.

Section 3: A building permit shall be required for the moving of any building from one location to another, except for structures or buildings used strictly for agricultural purposes.

Section 4: The application for permission to construct any building or structure, or to alter or repair same, shall be accompanied by a minimum fee of $5.00. On buildings or structures estimated to cost more than $4000.00 a fee equivalent to $5.00 for the first $4000.00 estimated value and an additional $1.00 for each $1000.00 or fraction thereof in excess of the first $4000.00 of the estimated cost of the building or structure shall accompany such application, up to an estimated value or cost of $40,000.00; from $40,000.00 to $100,000.00 an additional $50.00 shall accompany such application; $100,000.00 to $300,000.00 an additional $100.00 shall accompany such application; all over $300,000.00 an additional fee of $200.00 shall accompany such application. A permit fee of $2.00 shall be required for permission to remodel any existing building, and a permit fee of $2.00 shall be required for moving any building.

Section 5: When the Building Inspector issues a permit he shall endorse in writing or stamp both sets of plans and specifications with his approval. One set of plans and specifications shall be retained by the Township as a public record, and one such set of the plans and specifications shall be returned to the applicant, which set shall be kept on such building site at all times during which work which is authorized thereby is in progress and shall be open to inspection by public officials. Such approved plans and specifications shall not be changed or altered so as to involve changes in any part of the building which will result in a violation of this Ordinance.

Section 6: There shall be issued by the Building Inspector with each permit a weatherproof card, which shall be maintained by the owner or his agent in a conspicuous place upon the work until the final completion and acceptance of said work. It shall be the duty of the Building Inspector to stop any work requiring a permit which does not have said card properly displayed.

Section 7: If the work on any structure upon which a permit has been issued is not performed in accordance with the approved plans and specifications and this Ordinance, the Building Inspector shall notify in writing the owner or his agent who obtained the permit, and shall include in such notification a statement of the defects, omissions and prohibitions. If the owner, or his agent, within 48 hours after receipt of said notice, fails to comply with the requirements of same or make set provisions to do so, the Building Inspector shall revoke said permit.

Section 8: Whenever it shall be found that a permit has been issued in violation of this Ordinance, or any other Ordinance or State law, or in consequence of a false statement of facts, or misrepresentation of conditions, the Building Inspector shall require the person holding such permit to appear before him at a stated time to show cause why such permit shall not be revoked. If after such hearing it appears such permit was improperly issued and the proper revisions are not made, the Building Inspector shall issue a written order revoking that permit, and shall then proceed as if no permit had been issued.

Section 9: Permits upon which work is not started within six months after date of issuance, or upon which work is abandoned for a period of six months, shall lapse and cease to be in effect. The Building Inspector may, within six months of such lapse re-issuance, but such reinstatement shall be only at his discretion. Permits which have lapsed for a period of six months shall be revoked.

Section 10: Temporary permits may be issued by the Building Inspector, subject to the approval of the Township Board, for the erection of temporary buildings. Such permits shall be limited to a period of three months, unless permit is renewed. Frame sheds used as tool sheds, storage sheds, or construction offices by builders in connection with the erection of permanent buildings may be built of such size as may be deemed necessary by the Building Inspector. Such sheds must be removed at the completion of the permanent building, or at any time when the work on the permanent building is abandoned for a period of sixty days. Such building shall not be removed for any purpose not directly connected with the erection of the permanent building.

INSPECTION

Section 1: It shall be the duty of the holder of every permit to notify the Building Inspector, either verbally or in writing of the time when such building will be ready for each inspection as prescribed herein, and further work shall not be done upon the structure covered by the permit until inspection has been made and construction approved. Inspections shall promptly follow receipt of such notice and shall in all cases be made within three days after such receipt of notice, exclusive of Sundays and holidays. Three inspections shall be made on all new buildings, except sheds and garages of less than Six Hundred (600) square feet of floor area, which shall require one inspection. The first inspection above mentioned shall be made as soon as foundations have been completed, but before backfilling or earth around foundations and basements or the erection of any portion of the superstructure. The second inspection shall be made when the principal members are in place and electric wiring roughed in, but before the same have been covered with lath and plaster or covering. The third inspection shall be made when the building has been completed. Sheds and any other structures permitted without foundations below grade shall be inspected as soon as wall studs are in place, and again when the structure shall have been completed. Alterations, repairs, installations or operations covered by this Ordinance shall receive at least one inspection, to be made as the Building Inspector may decide. The fact and time of each inspection shall be endorsed upon the records in the Township office, and upon the permit card tacked on the premises by the Building Inspector at the time of inspection.

CERTIFICATE OF OCCUPANCY

Section 1: The use and occupancy of any building shall not be changed, or in case of a new building, made until a certificate of occupancy permitting same is issued by the Building Inspector. No such certificate of occupancy shall be issued unless the building shall comply with the requirements of this Ordinance for the proposed occupancy.

BOARD OF APPEALS

Section 1: The Township Board shall act as a Board of Appeals upon all questions arising under this Ordinance, and may fix rules and regulations to govern its procedure sitting as such Board of Appeals. Such Board shall hear and decide and review any order, requirement, decision or determination made by the Township Clerk, Building Inspector, or person to whom authority is delegated. The Board shall also hear and decide all matters referred to it, or upon which it is required to pass hereunder. The concurrent vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Appeals shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of any authorized official, or to decide in favor of the applicant any matter upon which said Board is required to pass under this Ordinance. Appeals may be taken by any such person aggrieved.

Section 2: Such appeals may be taken within such time as may be prescribed by the Board of Appeals, by general rule, by the filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken, and with the Board of Appeals, of a notice of appeal, specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the Board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

Section 3: Where there are practical difficulties or unnecessary hardships in the way of carrying out the strict letter of this Ordinance, the Board of Appeals shall have the power in passing upon appeals to vary or modify any of its rules, regulations or provisions relating to the structural changes in equipment or alterations of the buildings or structures, so the spirit of this Ordinance shall be observed, public safety secured and substantial justice done, and the decision of such Board shall be final so far as it involves discretion or the finding of facts.

PENALTIES

Section 1: Any firm, corporation or person who violates any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00), or more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for such offense or shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days for each offense, or may be both fined and imprisoned as provided herein. Any building which is erected, altered or converted, or any use of land which is begun or changed subsequent to the time of passage of this Ordinance and in violation of any of the provisions thereof, is hereby declared a nuisance per se. The Township Clerk, any Township official, or any person to whom such authority is delegated by the Township Board, or the Board of Appeals, or any court having jurisdiction shall order such nuisance abated, and the owner or agent in charge of such building or land shall be adjudged guilty of maintaining a nuisance per se. Each day that violation is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense. The rights and remedies provided herein are cumulative and in addition to all other remedies provided by law.

AMENDMENTS

Section 1: This Ordinance may be amended from time to time in accordance with the provisions of Act No. 185 of the Public Acts of 1943 of the State of Michigan.

REFERENDUM

Section 1: Referendum may be had upon the adoption of this Ordinance as provided in Act No. 185 of the Public Acts of 1943 of the State of Michigan.

PUBLICATION

Section 1: Publication of this Ordinance according to law shall be made by causing a true copy thereof to be inserted once in the Plymouth Mail, Plymouth, Michigan, a newspaper circulated within the Township of Canton, said insertion to be made within Ten (10) days after the passage thereof.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 1: Without the referendum provided by law, this Ordinance shall take effect Thirty (30) days after the publication of same.

VALIDITY

Section 1: Should any section, clause or provision of this Ordinance be declared by a court to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the Ordinance as a whole, or any part thereof, other than the part thereof so declared to be invalid.

This Ordinance was passed at a meeting of the Township Board of the Township of Canton, Wayne County, Michigan, on the 26th day of November, A.D., 1949.

ANDREW G. SMITH
Township Clerk

The Robert Simmons Jewelry Co. is an incorporated firm. The two major officers and stockholders were Robert Simmons and O. M. Valliquette. It was mutually agreed that Robert Simmons would buy all the stock belonging to said Company. This necessitates a complete liquidation of the entire inventory in order to ascertain the cash value and assets. There was no course open other than to turn the entire stock over to a merchandise adjuster to sell all merchandise at what it will bring for cash. Therefore this sale was planned exactly for that purpose. There is no time limit. He is under contract to do this job in the shortest possible time regardless of price. We sincerely trust that you, our old friends and future customers will greatly benefit from this necessary course of action especially now coming at this Xmas season. We sincerely thank you.

Holiday Program to be Presented by Woman's Club

A typical home at Christmas time will be the setting as Mrs. Dow Swope tells the "Story of Silent Night" by Opal Wheeler, at the December meeting of the Plymouth's Woman's club on Friday, December 2. The Christmas program will be staged in the First Presbyterian church at 1:30 p.m.

Assisting Mrs. Swope in her story will be Jill Atchinson, Christine Wall and Wyn Schradler.

Music for the afternoon meeting has been the work of Mrs. Carlton Wall, chairman of the music committee. Christmas songs will be played by Gerald Corey, David Green and a clarinet quartet made up of Connie Pascoe, Freda Killingsworth, Marilyn Welch and Jon Brake. Carols will be sung by club members and their guests.

Mrs. Henry Welch was named as program chairman, and decorations were in charge of Mrs. Gerald Hondorp and Mrs. Verne Steele.

Serving as tea chairman will be Mrs. Elmore Carney. Selected as hostesses were Mrs. Phillip Theobald, Mrs. Leo W. Arnold, Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mrs. Julian Weed, Mrs. William Hartmann, Mrs. Harry Deyo, Mrs. Claude Buzzard, Mrs. Frank Dunn, Mrs. Robert Harding and Mrs. Robert Sylvester.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore and family from near Commerce lake were among the Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. William K. Moore of Irvin street.

Miss Thornton and Mr. Althouse Are Wed in Candlelight Ceremony

The First Presbyterian church was the setting Wednesday, November 23, when Miss Nancy Louise Thornton was united in marriage with John Victor Althouse. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Althouse of Royal Oak.

White mums and palms formed the background for the 8 o'clock candlelight service at which Dr. Henry J. Walch officiated. The bride's brother, James Thornton, presented the wedding music. His solos were "Until" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was gowned in candlelight satin detailed with a fitted bodice and a cascading overskirt of matching Chantilly lace. The full skirt fell into a circular train in the back. A Dutch bonnet of Chantilly lace secured the bride's fingertip veil of illusion in place. The bride's gown and veil were designed by her grandmother, Mrs. C. E. Wenger. Ivory mums and English ivy were in the bride's bouquet.

To act as her matron of honor, the bride asked Mrs. Richard Erdelyi. Mrs. Erdelyi selected a gown of gold satin and carried a bouquet of wheat and mums in shades of deep gold. A headpiece of matching mums completed the honor attendants' ensemble.

Serving as bridal aides were Mrs. Jack Crisp and Miss Dorothy Althouse, the bridegroom's sister. Their gowns of muave satin were styled along the same lines as the matron of honor's. The light gold mums and wheat in the bride's bouquets were repeated in their headpieces.

Wearing a white ruffled gown of georgette and taffeta Nancy Lee Dallavo served as flower girl. She carried white mums arranged in a bouquet similar to the bridal attendants.

James Raeside of Royal Oak was best man. William St. Clair Jack Church, William Snyder and James Thornton ushered at the evening wedding.

A reception for 300 guests followed the wedding in the church parlors. When she greeted the guests Mrs. Woods wore a forest green gown with beige accessories and a corsage of green orchids. Mrs. Althouse chose a lime green dress with plum accessories. Her flowers were brown orchids.

Out of town guests for the wedding and reception were from Hamilton and Toronto, Ontario; Cleveland, Ohio; Danville,

Hearty Desserts Help Homemakers to Supplement Light Dinners

It's a good idea to plan dinner around dessert sometimes. This is particularly true when the dessert is a hearty concoction rather than just a simple sweet that does little more than make a pleasant ending for the meal.

During the chillier weather most Plymouth homemakers will have requests from the family for rich puddings topped with gooey sauces, tortes filled with crunchy nut meats and similar heavy mixtures. It's smart meal planning from both time saving and nutrition angles, to use such foods as the starting of the menu. Instead of saving these deluxe desserts to top off an already more than adequate Sunday or company dinner, use them to highlight a simple combination. They are just the thing to finish off the meal on the day you've planned to make a big pot of chili, pea or bean soup with the rest of the ham. Stir up a batch of corn bread to eat with the soup, add a tossed salad or a big platter of raw vegetables and the special dessert will make the family add the combination to their favorites.

If the heavy dessert is one which contains a generous amount of nuts or eggs it's perfect to supplement a main course which is planned around a meatless dish or one that contains relatively little meat. Even the dinner who feels a bit abused when dinner doesn't provide generous servings of this food will admit that he feels satisfied when he leaves the table.

Here are a variety of recipes for super desserts to top off light meals. All of them contain foods plentiful at this time.

INDIAN APPLE PUDDING

One-third cup yellow corn meal, 1 quart milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup molasses, 2 cups tart apples, finely diced, 1/2 to 1 teaspoon ginger.

Cook corn meal, milk and salt in double boiler over boiling water for 20 minutes. Add molasses, apples and ginger, varying the last to suit personal taste. Pour into greased baking dish and bake in slow oven, 300 degrees F., for 2 hours. Serve warm topped with cream or vanilla ice cream. Makes 12 servings.

BAKED APPLE DUMPLINGS

Two cups sifted cake flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 6 tablespoons shortening, 1 egg yolk, slightly beaten, 1 1/3 cup milk, 6 to 8 tart apples, pared and cored, sugar, cinnamon, butter or fortified margarine, 1/2 cups sugar, 1/2 cup water, 1/4 cup corn syrup, 1 1/2 teaspoon butter or fortified margarine, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together and cut in shortening until mixture looks mealy. Combine egg yolks and milk and add to dry mixture, stirring to form a stiff dough. Turn out on floured board. Roll to quarter-inch thickness and cut into 6-inch squares. Place apple in center of each. Fill cavity in apple with sugar, sprinkle with cinnamon and add a piece of butter. Pinch edges of dough together on top to enclose apples. Place in well greased pan and put in hot oven, 450 degrees F., for 10 minutes.

In the meantime combine the remaining ingredients and bring to boiling point. Boil for 5 minutes. When dumplings have baked for 10 minutes reduce heat to 350 degrees F. and pour syrup over dumplings. Continue baking for about 25 minutes longer, basting occasionally with syrup in the pan. Serve warm with cream, ice cream or hard sauce. Serves 6 to 8.

STEAMED CRANBERRY PUDDING

Two cups sifted enriched flour, 2 teaspoons baking soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup shortening, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 cup molasses, 2 eggs, 1/2 cup water, 1 cup whole cranberry sauce, 1/2 cup chopped walnuts.

Sift flour, soda and salt together. Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add molasses and eggs and beat until light. Combine water and cranberry sauce. Add to creamed mixture alternately with dry ingredients. Stir in nuts. Pour into greased 1 1/2-quart mold. Tie double thickness of waxed paper tightly over top. Steam for 1 1/2 hours. Unmold and serve warm with whipped cream or hard sauce.

If pressure sauce pan is used for steaming, follow directions that come with it. To steam without pressure pan put 2 quarts boiling water in large kettle which has a rack on the bottom and a closely fitting cover. Put mold on rack and over pan closely. Place over high heat until steam escapes freely, then reduce heat to keep water boiling gently.

DATE AND NUT TORTE

One-fourth cup sifted enriched all purpose flour, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 1/8 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1 1/2 cups chopped dates, 1 1/2 cups broken walnut meats.

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Beat eggs until light then beat sugar into them gradually, continuing the beating until the mixture is fluffy. Add vanilla. Combine dates and nuts with dry ingredients and stir into egg mixture. Spread in shallow buttered glass baking dish. Bake in slow oven, 325 degrees F., for 50 to 60 minutes. Break into pieces and serve warm or cold with whipped cream or vanilla ice cream. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Dressing Up Macaroni For Your Sunday Party

For Sunday night supper when there are guests, serve elbow macaroni in a cheese sauce to which pimiento stuffed olives have been added. Tomato aspic on crisp shredded lettuce tastes good with this hot dish, and fruit and cookies make a good ending for the menu.

Seasoning For Avocado

Ripe avocado is delicious mashed fine and seasoned with salt, pepper, a little wine vinegar and finely grated onion; use as a spread for potato chips or small crisp crackers.

Pork Tenderloin is Versatile Meat

It's food magic, says the family! It's pork tenderloin, says the homemaker! And according to well-known food expert Reba Staggs, this long, tapering pork muscle may be either left whole and roasted or braised or be cut into individual servings or Frenched (cut cross-wise into two-inch slices and flattened) and braised or slowly panfried.

Whole pork tenderloin filled with a well-seasoned stuffing is simply prepared by slitting the muscle nearly through lengthwise, then opening it out flat and spreading with the stuffing. Or two tenderloins flattened out may be placed one on top of the other with stuffing in between and skewered or sewed around the edges. Either way, stuffed tenderloin is placed on a rack in an open roasting pan and slowly cooked in a moderate oven (350° F.) until well done.

Frenched pork tenderloin slices are temptingly prepared in a cream sauce following the braising process. The slices are browned in hot lard or drippings, then seasoned with salt and pepper. One cup of cream is added, the frying-pan covered and the meat allowed to cook slowly for about 45 minutes or until the meat is well done. The fillets are removed to a hot platter, the cream thickened with flour and the gravy brought to a boil for three to five minutes. The gravy is served over the meat.

For pan-frying, the tenderloin slices are dredged with flour and browned on both sides in hot lard. The meat is seasoned, then cooked in a moderate temperature until done, turning occasionally. About 35 to 45 minutes cooking time should be allowed.

EASY DOES IT

BY HELEN HALE

Before stuffing your bird, rub the cavity with salt, using 1/4 of a teaspoon per pound of the bird. If you are stuffing the neck cavity, rub that with salt, too.

If you are stuffing a bird and don't know the amount of stuffing you will need, plan on one cup of stuffing for one pound of fowl.

Breast meat will be more juicy if the bird is roasted, breast down on a V-shaped rack. Before roasting time is finished, turn the bird so the breast is up, thus giving it a chance to brown.

Brush the bird, before roasting, with unsalted butter or lard, to prevent the skin from blistering. Wrap fat-soaked cheesecloth over the legs and breast of the bird before roasting, so that the bird will not brown too much, especially if you have a large bird.

THIS WEEK'S RECIPE

Sausage Stuffing (For 10-16 pound turkey)

- 1 pound pork sausage meat
- 3 quarts toasted bread cubes
- 1 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- 1-1 1/2 cups hot water

Break sausage into small pieces and brown slowly over low heat. Pour sausage and all drippings over bread cubes, salt, celery, onion, parsley and seasoning. Mix thoroughly. Add enough hot water to moisten.

Remove cloths during last of roasting period if bird has not browned sufficiently.

Cheesecloths around the legs, brushed frequently with butter, will prevent the legs from drying out, thus making them more edible. This is especially true when you roast small fowl such as chicken and small turkeys.

Fowl is much easier to carve if it is allowed a resting period of 15 to 30 minutes before being brought to the table for carving.

Allowing a rest period for the bird after roasting also frees the oven for baking rolls or biscuits, as well as vegetables, if necessary.

In Newport, Ky., after 45 members of the police department had voted on a trustee for their pension fund, Chief George Gugel called the whole election off: the ballot box contained 51 ballots.

SUCCESSFUL PARENTHOOD

By Mrs. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor, Parents Magazine

IT IS NO NEWS that an infant loses its first, often luxuriant, growth of hair. But it isn't so generally known that the hair doesn't acquire its adult texture until late prepuberty, usually between the ages of seven and nine. So don't be discouraged if your child's hair at four is still as unmanageable as a baby's.

During these formative years try every possible direction of combing it to see if there is a curl lurking in any strand. Brushing the hair up, parting it in every conceivable way, then brushing the strand over your finger, or trying a finger wave when the hair is wet—if you keep at these various methods of curl hunting you may discover a wave in hair that appears straight.

Brushing—that daily must for adult hair—is good for children's hair too but should be done with a soft brush until the child is ten. Use the first baby brush for about two years, then graduate to one with semisoft bristles until the hair has gained its adult strength. For one thing, a child's circulatory system is usually adequate so that brushing isn't needed for scalp stimulation. But to remove the day's accumulation of dust, to train the hair into smoothness, a clean brush is still your best tool. Always brush upward and outward to the end of the strand.

The normal rate of hair growth is 1/4 inch a month, and the average life of a hair is two years. This means that the hair is constantly coming out. So don't be alarmed if your child's brush has hair in it. If the amount is excessive look first to general health.

Has he been getting plenty of sleep? Is he tense from school worries or any other unhappiness? Is he spending enough time in the open air and sunshine? Is he drinking several glasses of water and lots of fruit or tomato juice every day? And, most important of all, is his diet well-balanced with plenty of nonclogging foods, such as fruits and green vegetables? Adequate protein and minerals are essential too, for a diet lacking in these elements will starve the hair.

Although there is nothing you can do to speed the changing hair texture or to achieve coarser hair, if nature elects to leave your child's hair the baby-fine type, you can encourage the hair's growth by keeping the scalp supple. Application of warm oil to remain overnight before a shampoo is the best scalp reconditioner. Every week or ten days is the usual spacing of shampoos for a school child.

Why youngsters are born with blonde hair which later turns to brunette is nature's own secret. Certainly there is nothing you can do to arrest this change since bleaching a child's hair seems to us quite unthinkable. Besides, it's really better to go along with nature where hair coloring is concerned, for the tone of the skin often changes as the baby face does and may require darker hair to complement it. Shining dark hair is as pretty as blonde hair anyway, despite golden-haired princesses of fairy tales.

Plants Ideal Christmas Gifts

Those lovely green plants that you have been seeing used as decorative objects in the colorful pictures of lovely new homes and rooms in current magazines will make perfect Christmas gifts.

These green plants fill those first gift requirements of being both lovely and useful; something persons might not afford for themselves, and yet inexpensive for your budgeted gift list.

If you don't know the names of these plants, this information from Nikola Bayle, home economist at Michigan State college, may help you. Most of the plants are available at local nurseries and if not can be ordered for you if you get your request in early.

Ficus is an effective plant with large leather-like leaves, and ranges from around 30 inches to four or five feet tall. Consider one of these for your professional friend's office.

Philodendron has endless varieties and comes in different heights. Look at the point or spade leaf type in dark green or variegated hue. The cut leaf and oak leaf philodendron are effective in their design pattern and add interest to any room. Sometimes small philodendron vines are grown on bark or may be combined with the English ivy.

Don't overlook the handsome rubber plant. It is sturdy and the leaves have a texture which is as pleasing as that of beautiful leather.

A bouquet of rhododendron branches is inexpensive and if kept trimmed and in fresh water will last for almost three months. A single branch can be used to fill in many a spot.

In Honolulu, Laura McConnell got her divorce after she testified that her husband spent five nights a week playing bridge, the rest of the time talking bridge.

Careful Preparation is Key to Meat Satisfaction

Meats you will find in the stores this winter are expected to be of very high quality—they are being produced on record crops of livestock feed. But quality alone does not mean satisfaction at the dinner table. It's still the way you prepare the meat that counts, says Mary Bodwell, agricultural economics department food specialist at Michigan State college.

Let's start with mutton. There is a lot of misunderstanding about this meat dish because many of us do not prepare it carefully. Before cooking, the thin papery membrane which covers the meat should be removed. It gives an undesirable flavor to the meat. Mutton is not as tender as lamb, but is good when stewed or cooked with moist heat.

"Lamb" comes from sheep less than one year old. It is naturally tender and tasty and can usually be cooked with dry heat.

Pork cuts are always fairly tender. They should always be cooked slowly, with dry heat until well done. Pork cooked at low temperature will shrink less, and have more flavor than if cooked at higher temperatures. For pork, "well done" means cooking to an internal temperature of 185 degrees, as measured by a meat thermometer, or 30 to 35 minutes for each pound at 350 degrees F.

If you get a tenderized, ready to eat ham, all you need to do is heat it through and serve hot. Parboiling to remove some of the salt is required for home-cured types. Then bake in dry heat at 300 degrees F. until tender.

Beef requires treatment very different from pork. Some cuts are tender while others are less tender. Cook the less tender cuts with moist heat. Tender cuts may be cooked with dry heat and served rare or well done as preferred.

ON CAPITOL HILL
NEWS and COMMENT
 FROM CONGRESSMAN GEORGE A. DONDERO

Owing to what has amounted to a propaganda campaign covering the last 20 years, millions of Americans nowadays labor under the New Deal-Fair Deal fostered delusion that the United States of America is a Democracy in the classic sense of the word. Others less susceptible to propaganda know the United States to be a Republic. There is a vast and important difference between the two, as any dictionary will show.

James Madison, one of the early American Presidents, who had as much if not more than any other to do with the adoption of our Constitution, wrote the Federalist Papers, which are still the standard reference work on the Constitution and its meaning. In these papers he had the following to say about the difference between a Democracy and a Republic:

"The two great points of difference between a Democracy and a Republic are, first, the delegation of the government in a Republic to a small number of citizens elected by the rest, and secondly, the greater number of citizens, and greater sphere of country, over which a Republic may be extended."

"The effect of the first difference is, on the one hand, to refine and enlarge the public views (public opinion) by passing them through the medium of a chosen body of citizens whose wisdom may best discern the true interest of their country, and whose patriotism and love of justice will be least likely to sacrifice it to temporary or partial (partisan) considerations."

"Under such a regulation, it may well happen that the public voice, pronounced by representatives of the people, will be more consonant to the public good than if pronounced by the people themselves, convened for that purpose."

James Madison's meaning becomes all the more clear when it is considered that a Republic is a representative government, while a Democracy is non-representative. If the United States were a true Democracy, every citizen would have to vote on every measure and make himself directly felt in every decision now made by the Congress of the United States.

Manifestly, it would be physically impossible for every single American citizen to pass upon every single item of often highly technical legislation now handled by Congress. If this were attempted, government soon would cease to be Democratic and would become Mobocratic, owing to lack on the part of most citizens of the special knowledge and skill gained by Members of Congress in the course of their duties.

Furthermore, the very unwieldiness of the Democratic machinery of government would make it impossible to protect the rights of all minorities. Under the Republican representative system at present, minority members of Congress are able, by argument and persuasion, to restrain the majority from committing the excesses which would work injustices upon the minorities. Under the present representative system, it is even possible for minority Representatives, facing a common danger to their constituents, to combine and defeat the majority which otherwise might destroy one or another of the people's essential freedoms.

The fact that our nation is a Republic, and that Republicans continue to stand firm for representative government, is the chief reason why there always is hope for America. So long as the minority, of whatever political party in Congress, has the right to check on the majority and thus to bring out into the open any proposals that constitute a threat to freedom and justice, just so long will Americans continue to enjoy that freedom and justice in furtherance of which the Republic was founded.

TEAM BANQUETS WITH PRESBYTERIAN MEN

The Men's Brotherhood of the Presbyterian church will act as hosts to the varsity and freshman football squads of Plymouth High school at a dinner on Thursday, December 1, at 6:30 in the Presbyterian church. End Coach Bill Orwig, of the University of Michigan coaching staff will be the speaker of the evening and will show movies of some of the Michigan games. The men of the Presbyterian church have made it a tradition to entertain the football team, each year at the end of the season, win, lose or draw, in recognition of the hard work put forth by the boys on the squads.

Famed Spanish Dancer on Town Hall Dec. 7

Elena Imaz, Spanish dancer from Argentina, will introduce her International dance trio to a Detroit Town hall audience at 11 a.m., Wednesday, December 7, in the Fisher theater. It will be the first Detroit appearance of the talented troupe.

Featured on the program are Miss Imaz, in a group of colorful Flamenco dances; Iona McKenzie, youthful ballerina; Wayne Lamb, former Broadway musical comedy star who specializes in the modern dance, and Polish-born accompanist Osca Kosches, who also is scheduled for a piano solo performance.

Tiny, brunette Elena Imaz, whose fiery technique and colorful personality has captivated American audiences on her current tour, is a former prima ballerina of the San Francisco Opera company. It was in San Francisco that she presented the premiere of her own ballet, "Amor Espanol."

Ballerina Iona McKenzie, who has replaced Miss Louise Ferrand in the troupe, conducted her own school of the dance in Canada. In the United States she has been soloist with the New York City Opera ballet, and premiere danseuse with the San Carlo Opera company.

Dynamic and youthful Wayne Lamb is a product of the Broadway stage. His musical comedy experience includes solo dancing in "Yours Is My Heart," and a leading part in the road company of "Call Me Mister."

Advance tickets for the attraction are available at Grinnell's, Woodward 1-1124.

Answer to LAST WEEK'S Puzzle:

Brother, Sister See Each Other After 33 Years

Thanksgiving marked the last day of a two week-visit with a brother she hadn't seen for 33 years for Mrs. Oscar Davidson of 9669 Gold Arbor road. Her brother, Jens Ytterboe, and his wife from Norway left Plymouth the next day for New York City to board a ship for their homeward journey to Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ytterboe arrived in the United States about two weeks ago when the cargo ship on which they were sailing landed in Baltimore, Maryland. Mrs. Davidson met them on board ship and accompanied them when the ship sailed for New York where the party spent a week visiting the points of interest in America's largest city.

The group left New York aboard another cargo ship and sailed down the Atlantic coast heading for the Panama canal and on to San Francisco. Mrs. Davidson, her brother and sister-in-law left San Francisco for Plymouth by bus. The cargo ship sailed on to China. The Ytterboes were most enthusiastic about America, Michigan and especially Plymouth. They visited many interesting places in the vicinity including the Ford Rouge plant, Willow Run and Cranbrook.

Don't Let Anybody Fool You!

These Things Will Happen If The Anti-Trust Lawyers Have Their Way

When the anti-trust lawyers from Washington filed their suit against A&P, we told the American people, our customers, our suppliers and our employees how this attack would affect them.

We said that this attack, if successful, would mean the end of A&P as you know it.

We said that it would mean higher food prices for American consumers.

We said that if they succeed in destroying A&P the way would be cleared for the destruction of other efficient large-scale retailers.

We thought the American people were entitled to know about this threat to their welfare and standard of living.

Since that time, however, the anti-trust lawyers have been making speeches, talking over the radio, writing letters and giving stories to the newspapers, in which they say we are all wrong.

They say that this suit will not close a single A&P store; and that instead of raising food prices it will lower them.

And they have tried to give the impression that nobody will be hurt by this decision except the present owners of A&P.

We don't think that the American people want to be confused by these statements. We know that when they have the facts, they will understand that this case can affect the living standards and the way of life of every American citizen.

Here are the facts:

It Will Destroy A & P

The anti-trust lawyers have repeatedly stated that "the suit will not result in the closing of a single A&P store", and that "the purpose of the suit is to enjoin A&P from continuing activity which has been held to violate the law."

The fact is that the suit is designed not only to "enjoin" A&P from alleged illegal activities, but actually to destroy the company.

Here is what they have asked the court to do:

Break up A&P's retail stores into seven groups, each of which must be sold to different owners, and operated under new management.

Order us to sell A&P's factories, which produce many of the fine foods you find in our stores, to still other new owners.

Prevent any of the seven groups of stores from operating any of the factories.

None of the present owners, who have made A&P what it is today, can have anything to do with either the stores or the factories.

The first A&P store was opened 90 years ago. For the past 50 years the company has been managed by George L. Hartford and John A. Hartford.

These are the men who have pioneered the policy of low-cost, low-profit, low-price food retailing which has won A&P the patronage of millions of American families and given them more good food for their money.

If the anti-trust lawyers have their way, these men and other company executives will be completely out of the picture. No one can predict what the policies of the new owners of the various parts of A&P will be.

No one can predict that they will sell the same quality food at the same low prices, or that they will keep the same employees, or give them the same high wages, short hours, pensions and security.

Nor, despite the anti-trust lawyers' statement, can anyone tell how many A&P stores will remain open or will be closed.

So, while there may be a food store where your A&P is now located, it won't be your A&P store.

Make no mistake about it. If the anti-trust lawyers win their suit it will mean the end of A&P as you know it.

Your Food Will Cost More

The anti-trust lawyers have repeatedly stated that the suit will not increase, but should decrease, grocery prices.

Anybody who has ever shopped in an A&P store, or has ever taken a high-school course in economics, knows better than that.

Everyone knows that A&P's policy has always been to keep costs and profits at a minimum so that it can sell good food cheap.

The very heart of the anti-trust lawyers' case is that A&P's methods, which they claim are illegal, have enabled the company to undersell competitors.

How can anyone possibly say that you will get lower food prices by eliminating the company that has done so much to bring them down?

Actually, there is no question that this suit, if successful, will mean higher food prices for A&P customers.

Here is just one of a number of reasons:

We manufacture many of the quality foods we sell in our stores, such as Bokar, Red Circle and Eight O'Clock coffees, Ann Page foods, White House milk, and many others.

The anti-trust lawyers admit that we pass along these manufacturing savings to our customers in the form of lower prices.

But, the anti-trust lawyers have asked the court to order us to get rid of our manufacturing facilities, which would put an end to all these savings.

This means that if these A&P brands continued to be manufactured, you would have to pay higher prices for them wherever you found them.

The anti-trust lawyers say that food prices would go down in other stores. They claim that food manufacturers would be able to sell cheaper to other grocers because they would not have to make up alleged losses they now incur in selling to A&P.

This, of course, is pure nonsense. The suppliers who voluntarily seek our business and are now rushing to our defense obviously find it profitable to deal with A&P. Actually, their sales to this company enable them to build up their volume, reduce their costs, and sell more cheaply to all grocers.

The elimination of A&P from the picture would tend to increase, rather than decrease, the wholesale cost of food; and this, in turn, will be reflected in increases in retail prices.

Make no mistake about it. If the anti-trust lawyers succeed in putting A&P out of business you will find your food bill is higher.

Others Will Be Hurt

The anti-trust lawyers have insisted that this suit will not affect other distributors, "nor will it destroy any efficiencies of mass distribution."

The fact is that the anti-trust lawyers ask the court to break up the company, make it get rid of its admittedly legal manufacturing operations and in general destroy many of the efficiencies which have enabled it to sell food cheaper.

If such an attack is successful, it immediately raises the likelihood of similar attacks on other chain stores.

The anti-trust lawyers are saying that they "do not contemplate any other suits of this nature at this time."

But that does not mean that they cannot undertake such suits at any future time if they win this case.

As a matter of fact, the anti-trust lawyers made practically the same allegations against two of our largest competitors that they are making against us. And it can also be used as the basis for an attack against other grocers and merchants in other lines.

There are today literally thousands of chain stores, voluntary groups and individual merchants operating with the same methods and in the same pattern here under attack.

If A&P is destroyed, no businessman could safely pursue an aggressive sales policy designed to lower prices and give his customers a better deal if by so doing he takes business away from any competitor.

Even if the anti-trust lawyers have no intention now of prosecuting other suits, a decision against A&P will establish a precedent that could be used by the present anti-trust lawyers, or any future anti-trust lawyers, to destroy any efficient business that buys cheaply, sells cheaply, and grows big in the process.

Such a decision would mean the end of the vigorous, healthy price competition which has given this country the highest standard of living ever enjoyed by any people anywhere in the history of the world.

The anti-trust lawyers are trying to give a new interpretation to the anti-trust laws that, instead of preserving competition, will reduce competition.

They are trying, by court decision, to impose a new kind of economic policy on the people of this country.

Make no mistake about it. If they succeed in destroying A&P they will be destroying the method of distribution that has helped make the American standard of living the envy of the world.

My MICHIGAN

BY ELTON R. EATON

The average precipitation in Michigan, including both rain and snow, is about 30 inches per year. Michigan, located in the same latitude as New York and the New England states, has less snowfall but more rainfall than these states.

One of the good iron ore producing mines in the Upper Peninsula is named the Plymouth iron ore mine. It is located near Wakefield, for years one of the largest iron ore producing centers in Michigan.

Father Gabriel Richard, one of the early settlers of Michigan, was the only Catholic priest ever elected to congress from this state. Through his activities, congress made funds available for improving one of the main trail roads between Detroit and Chicago. A part of the proposed Detroit-Chicago express way follows the same route as that surveyed back in 1824. The road was then known as the Great Sauk Trail.

More than 12,869,000 people visited Michigan state parks during the year 1949. This is almost 400,000 more than visited the parks during 1948. Legislation enabling Michigan to create a state park system was passed during the Albert Sleeper administration. It was former Governor Alex J. Groesbeck, however, who created and developed the Michigan state parks, which have become nationally famous.

Much has been said at various times in this column about the traffic situation at the Straits of Mackinac and what the remedy might be in order to speed up the traffic between the Lower and the Upper Peninsula.

Some weeks ago an interesting letter was published from Stewart Woodfill, owner of the Grand hotel on Mackinac Island, recommending the construction of a bridge across the Straits, in which he advised that such a project could be easily financed.

But to those who have made a careful study of the bridge question, there has always been a serious doubt as to the advisability and safety of its construction.

While it is not generally known, in the middle of the Straits of Mackinac running from east to west, is a deep channel, geologists advising that it is an old river bed. It drops suddenly down more than a hundred feet.

No tests have ever been made at the bottom of this deep channel to know just what the soil composition might be, but in the shallower places, engineers have found that the shale composition is of such a soft nature that it would never support the giant piers that would be needed to support a bridge some five or six miles long.

The chairman of the geology department of the University of Michigan, Dr. Kenneth K. Landes, recently declared that a bridge across the Straits would be unsound.

Rocks at the Straits are not strong enough to support bridge piers, explains Professor Landes, who with two other University geologists made a study of the geology of the Mackinac Straits region for the Michigan Department of Conservation in 1944-45.

A possible tunnel under the Straits would be a very costly affair, the geologist says. A submerged river valley makes the Straits over 150 feet deep toward the center and any tunnel would have to be dug at 600 to 700 feet below the surface to get below a zone of collapsed rock, he says.

Professor Landes points out that mixed limestone blocks in shale form a large zone of "collapsed rock," rather than limestone beds under the water at the Straits. A geological explanation for the "collapsed zone" is that thick salt beds underlay much of Michigan's surface in prehistoric times. Ground water dissolved the salt leaving large caverns. Eventually the cavern roofs collapsed filling the caverns with a mixed-up rock and soil formation.

To put the wet shale in the "collapsed zone" under the great pressure of steel piers needed to support a suspension bridge would cause the shale to flow and become nothing more than mud, Professor Landes said. The limestone blocks would neither help nor hinder in the support of the piers.

Core drillings in the Straits in 1941 showed that limestone makes up less than 20 per cent of the rocks in the submerged area between St. Ignace and Mackinaw City, Professor Landes reports. "In fact, the shale materials were so soft that they washed out of the core barrels before the barrels reached the surface," he declares. "Core recovery was only ten to 15 per cent."

Ice in the Straits during the winter is heavy. That ice pushing against the piers plus the strong winter wind blowing against the superstructure, Professor Landes says, would exert terrific pressure that would strain the sturdiest foundation rock on which a bridge stood. And at the Straits that kind of rock just is not there, he added.

The study by Professor Landes, George M. Ehlers, professor of geology at the University, and George M. Santley, formerly at the University, was published in 1945 by the Department of Conservation as publication 44, geological series 37, "Geology of the Mackinac Straits Region."

DID YOU EVER SEE a rainbow walking? No? Well, may we suggest that when you're in town, you stroll up to the Mutual network's Chicago studios any weekday and attend their new quiz feature heard from 1:30 to 2 p.m., CST and watch the very colorful emcee Tom Moore conduct his daily session of "Ladies Fair." With all the hoopla, noise, and excitement of a county fair barker Moore may be seen in his colorful array of bright shirts, flowing ties, and brilliant swallow-tail coats. His color combinations run to yellow coat, red shirt and kelly green tie and are sufficient to take his contestant's minds off their housewifely chores and insure them a lively half hour.

"Ladies Fair" is an audience participation feature designed to maintain the laugh-packed pace set by the MBS "Queen For A Day" program preceding it. Quick-witted Tom Moore, one of the most popular masters of ceremonies in radio, presents to his designed-for-ladies-only studio audience each broadcast day a series of games in the carnival spirit—weight guessing, pitching hoops, spelling bees, musical guessing games, balloon games, races and every element-of-chance game which may bring some respite to the fair ladies. On occasion emcee Moore relents and includes a group of singing husbands who determinedly try for a permanent spot on the midway, but they soon retire in favor of their better halves.

Highlight of this spirited show is a treasure chest routine offering valuable gifts to the contestant who tries to select the right key from 15 offered to her. Each day new prizes are added and the number of keys exhibited on the front of the chest are decreased until it is opened by some lucky contestant. So, if you've never seen or heard a walking rainbow, and would welcome a little carnival fun with a minimum of effort involved, try Mutual's "Ladies Fair" for the maximum in quiz entertainment.

Babson Discusses Opportunities For Small Businessmen

More colleges of Business Administration are needed. Too many businessmen here are still in the kindergarten stage.

Helping Small Business
 Small businessmen are now yelling for government aid. They think because Mr. Truman supports farm prices, he should also support wholesale and retail prices to help out inefficient and ignorant manufacturers and storekeepers. Hence, we read of bills to be submitted to Congress by Representative Emanuel Celler to limit the size of corporations, together with the so-called Fair Trade Laws to prevent big stores from underselling small shopkeepers. The truth is that these small manufacturers and merchants should go to school and learn to become successful businessmen through efficiency, advertising and hard work.

Nearly all big concerns were started in cellars or garrets. They won their success by giving the public better goods for less money. Whenever they fail at this, consumers will quit buying their products, causing them to go out of business. So I say to all my business friends: "Stop crying about competition. Send your sons to some school which will teach them how to overcome competition with character, brains and hard work. Then listen to these young men and give them a chance to make your business a big success." Although I am writing this column in the Central West, yet what I say above applies generally to all small businessmen—in the East, the South and the Pacific States as well.

learn how to successfully compete is the purpose of Utopia college, which is located here. It is a non-profit institution which I can heartily recommend.

Importance of Processing and Selling
 Most farmers have had no experience in processing their products. They raise wheat at $2.20 per bushel and ship it East to breakfast food manufacturers, who get for it $50 per bushel. They raise alfalfa at $15 per ton and ship it East to vitamin manufacturers, who get for it $100 per ton; while their oil, which they grow so much about and are so happy to sell to Easterners at $3.00 per barrel is turned into perfumes, dyes, etc. by Eastern chemical companies who get for it $500 per ton! These Easterners have the "know-how" which my western friends have not yet learned.

Farmers know little about selling. They raise good crops and livestock; but they have nothing to say as to what price they get. Farmers are as much gamblers as those who buy and sell securities on the New York Stock Exchange. They know very little about creating markets through advertising, sales forces, etc. These are things which their sons should learn. These western states now need "county agents" which will train farmers not only to raise crops, but to process them and advertise them.

Your Police Department Speaks
 Written by members of Plymouth's Police department, this column will appear in this space each week.

The National Safety Council has formulated the following rules to follow to avoid a smash-up in this wintry weather with its hazardous streets:

1. When starting on ice or snow, get the "feel" of the road surface. Test your braking and acceleration when clear of other cars.
2. Reduce speed when road surfaces are snowy and icy. Remember that it takes 3 to 12 times more distance to stop on snow or ice than on dry pavement.
3. Keep snow and ice off the outside of the windshield as well as fog and frost inside. Be sure your defroster is working and that wiper blades really wipe clean. Watch out for pedestrians.
4. When treacherous snow or ice prevail, use steel tire chains. They reduce braking distance for cars and trucks about 40 to 70 percent, and provide the "go" traction often needed.
5. Use an intermittent brake application. Normal application of brakes on an icy or snowy surface may lock wheels and throw the vehicle out of control.
6. If possible, have tires with good treads. They provide better stopping ability on both dry and wet pavement. But even new rubber treads do not give normal traction on packed snow or ice. Tests also show that the "rubber chains" sometimes skid farther than bare tires on ice.

Experience shows that in northern states, the winter traffic accident death rate jumps 24 to 53 percent above the summer figure, and that this is almost entirely due to more difficult driving conditions, including ice and snow on highways, and shorter daylight hours. With more drivers on the road than ever before, every driver must exercise extra caution. As the National Safety Council says, "the life you save may be your own."

Last week we quoted a few sections from the Traffic Ordinance regarding the "don'ts" of parking. Here's an example of what can happen if a motorist parks to close to an intersection: He obstructs the view of drivers approaching the intersection; they must pull over the crosswalk in order to observe and approaching traffic. Next, a child crosses the street, walking behind the vehicle and into the path of a vehicle turning left. The life of an innocent child who is not responsible for his actions is endangered only because of somebody's willful or thoughtless violation of the law. A sign to remind you costs approximately $8.00 (you're the taxpayer); if you forget, whether the sign is there or not, you pay again. It all adds up to obeying the law.

A gentleman by the name of R. U. Wovonem very kindly contributed this item to our Rhyme Department:

There are many kinds of drivers. Some bad, and some first class, But the Guy gives me the jitters Who on a hill will pass.

Then there's the Guy that hugs my rear, Too close for safety's sake, For God knows what will happen If suddenly I must brake.

But the Guy that I would like to kick, Where a kick would do most good, Is the driver that takes more space to park Than a decent driver should.

With ample space for two big cars, He parks like he were drunk, Is he a bloated "Parking Hog" Or just a Low Down Skunk?

PACKARD Ultramatic Drive

The last word in automatic, no-shift control!

"Way ahead in driving ease . . . because it's ahead in basic principles!"

Born of a 16-year Packard development program. Backed by seven million dollars' worth of new manufacturing facilities.

That's Packard Ultramatic Drive!

Come in—see for yourself why independent technical observers call it "the last word in automatic no-shift control!"

★ New simplicity: Naturally, there's no clutch pedal. And that's only the first hint of the convenience of Packard Ultramatic Drive! There's nothing new to learn. Just step on the gas, and steer!

★ New smoothness, new quietness. No jerking or "clunking," because there's no gear-shifting anywhere. No "racing engine" sensation, because there's no slippage at cruising speeds.

★ New economy: Ultramatic Drive saves gas—because there's no slippage at cruising speeds. And thanks to its advanced design, Packard Ultramatic Drive requires no complicated maintenance.

★ New safety: No chance of involuntary unexpected "down-shifts," which might cause a prolonged skid on slippery pavement. Packard Ultramatic Drive gives you smooth, gradual engine braking power for safe deceleration.

★ More responsive: No lag, at traffic speeds or highway speeds, waiting for gears to shift. For instant bursts of safety-sprint acceleration—just "tramp down."

★ More positive, more flexible: Your choice of high-range, or low-range operation. Easy shift from forward to reverse. Yes, you can rock the car in snow!

Come in now for your introductory drive!
