NOT OUR TYPE OF PATRIOTISM.

It is not our type of patriotism that is being shown by the group of men who are being installed as officers of the Plymouth Kiwanis club. These men are being installed as officers of the club because they are the best men in the city. They are the best men in the city because they are the best men in the city. They are the best men in the city because they are the best men in the city.

USING COMMON SENSE.

When a man is in a position of authority, he should use common sense. He should use common sense when he is in a position of authority. He should use common sense when he is in a position of authority. He should use common sense when he is in a position of authority.

The new committee appointed by Chamber president Ray Williams consists of James Houk, David Gamm, John Backenstaff, Wendell Lent, John Blyton, Norma Cassidy, Herbert Swanson, Loren Goodale, Carl Caplin and William Claffin.

EGGS: EGGS!! = BILLIONS OF EGGS.

It is estimated that there are billions of eggs in the world. It is estimated that there are billions of eggs in the world. It is estimated that there are billions of eggs in the world.

Many local stores are planning clearance sale events which will be held or highlighted at the same time all starting on January 12 and a city wide dollar day.

Parents of the New Year baby are Mr. and Mrs. James S. Winterhalter of 354 North Main street. University hospital in Ann Arbor was the birth place of the nine pound three ounce baby who arrived at 8:25 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Joffe of Plymouth are the maternal grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. George Winterhalter of Baytown, Texas, are the paternal grandparents.

YOU—THE TAXPAYER—PAY IT ALL.

The burden of the tax is on the taxpayer. The burden of the tax is on the taxpayer. The burden of the tax is on the taxpayer.

After the national and state taxes, they will parcel back to you in the form of benefits. The little drublets they think you should get, but notice it too much of the time you get nothing. But wait until the end of the year when you have a surplus.

So keep on working. Keep on working the bureaucratic form of government. After a while you will get just what the bureaucrats are worth. After a while you will get just what the bureaucrats are worth.

TWO PULLMAN PORTERS.

Dickens wrote his "Two Pullman Porters" but this is a short, short story of the Pullman porter whom we encountered some time ago on a train from New York to a distant city and return.

When we were two men working for the same company, in the same identical location, with the same tools and equipment. One cheerfully performed the duties required of him, plus—the other shirked his responsibilities with no thought of extras. Both had equal opportunities.

We will wager a new ten dollar in Stetson against your last summer's straw hat that a pretty number one, owns a nice little home somewhere, has a fine wife and family; that his children are well fed and clothed and are getting a good education; that he has a nest egg and by in a savings bank and has an equity in life insurance; and that he is an asset to the community in which he lives.

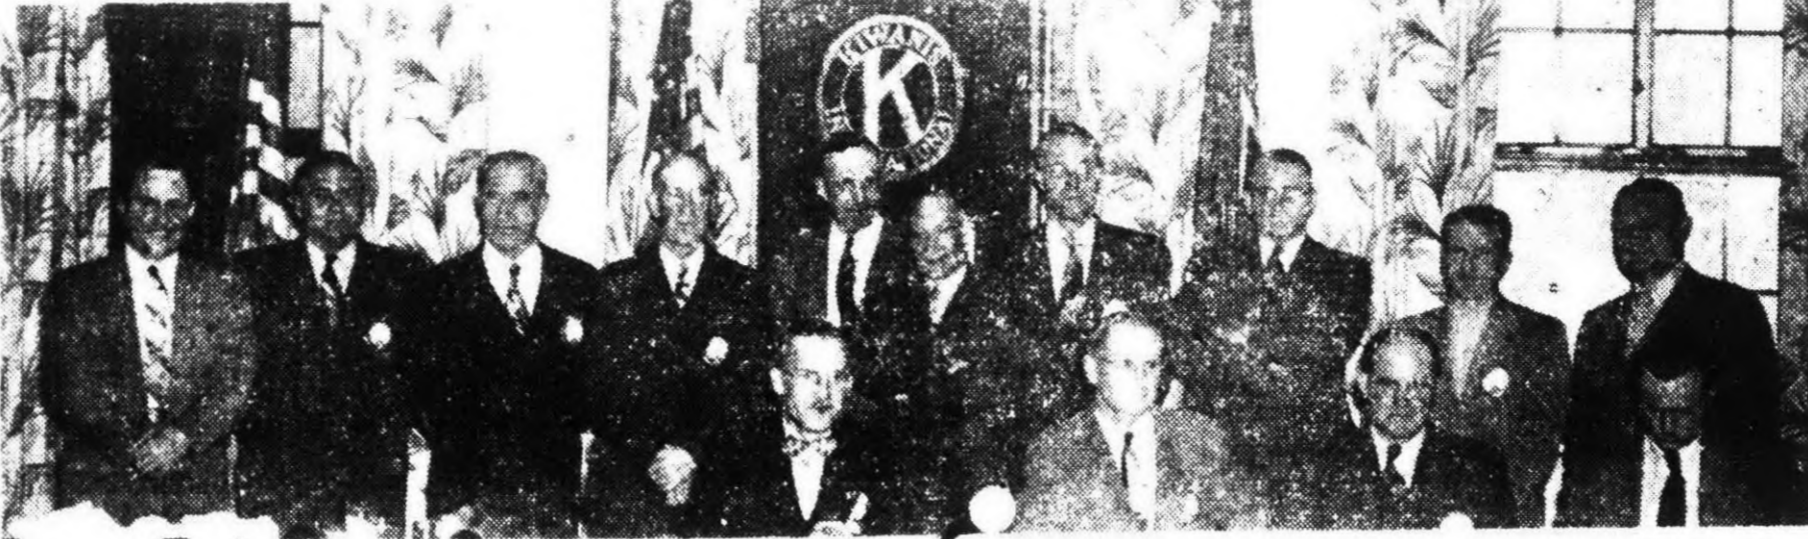

We would also like to bet a hundred dollar bill against a plucked mink that porter, number two, if married, has his wife and family domiciled in wretched quarters; that they are poorly fed and clothed; and that he has nothing put aside for a rainy day or old age. No doubt, he is envious of his fellow; complains bitterly of his lot and harangues against the inequalities and unfairness of the American system.

Two men on the same job, enjoying equal opportunity—one prospering, the other a failure. Yet, there are those who suggest that this thrifty fellow be penalized by giving a part of his well-deserved gains to the undeserving malingering. Our opinion is that this is wrong. What do you think about it?

Couple Exchange Vows in New Year's Eve Ceremony

The Rev. Father Joseph Rivard officiated at the high nuptial mass which united Ida Theresa Simon and Sgt. Edward L. Keller in marriage on Saturday, December 31. The wedding took place at 11 a. m. in St. Anne's church in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simon of Detroit are parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Keller of Five Mile road, Plymouth, are parents of Sgt. Keller.

The young couple spoke their vows before an altar decorated with poinsettias, greens and white flowers. Preceding the ceremony, the bride and groom were introduced by a cousin of the bride, Mr. Burke, sang "On This Day" and "On Beautiful Mother."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of tulle and white bridal satin with a full bodice and a full skirt which ended in a train. Her fingering of illusion was held in place by a row of seed pearls. A train of honor Margaret Simon was her sister's only attendant. She was gowned in white tulle and carried a bouquet of pink carnations tied in white and white streamers.

To serve as his best man, the bridegroom asked Gerald Fisher of Detroit.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Simon, chose a black dress with grey accessories. White carnations were in her corsage. Grey wool fashioned the gown which the bridegroom's mother wore for the Saturday wedding. Her accessories were navy blue and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

Members of the wedding party and immediate families were guests at the wedding breakfast given at the home of the bride's parents. In the evening 150 guests were received at the Simon home on 17th street in Detroit for the reception honoring the newly wed couple.

El Paso, Texas was the destination of Sgt. and Mrs. Keller when they left on their wedding trip. They will make their future home there while Sgt. Keller is serving in the Army Air Corps.

Letter Box

Fairbanks, Alaska
December 21, 1949

"Plymouth Mail:
"Mr. Eaton

"As former Plymouth residents we enjoy and look forward to reading The Plymouth Mail. We have it sent to us regularly. My wife and I thought you and our many friends might like to hear from us and about our weather and country around here. Enclosed is the daily weather report and forecast. Notice the time the sun rises and sets—

Clipped from Fairbanks Daily Miner, Wednesday, December 21. Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday. Lowest temperature tonight 25 below, high Thursday 15 below. High during the past 24 hours ending at noon today 4, low 20 below. Sunrise 9:58 a. m., sunset 1:40 p. m.

"So far this winter we have had weather almost identical to yesterday and today's. It froze and snowed the first week of September and has hovered around zero most of the time.

"Fairbanks is a city of about 3,000 or 10,000 set in the hollow of a group of hills, is 440 feet above sea level. Mount McKinley and its range of mountains that are snow covered can be seen on any clear day. There are three months of continuous daylight and nice warm weather ranging from 30 to 80 degrees, which are June, July and August.

"Army construction and road building are the two biggest booms up in the territory now. Living conditions are poor until a person gets settled. Getting good water here in Fairbanks is a problem, most people buy water daily from trucks that bring it from springs about 10 miles away. The University of Alaska is located five miles from town and a great many gold mines are in all the surrounding valleys and hills.

"Most of the good land accessible to roads has been taken up within 50 miles of Fairbanks. There is no work up here in the winter and most of the summer job recruits are enlisted in Seattle and flown up. Alaska is a country of opportunity and adventure but is rugged and rough to live in. A trade or skilled occupation is almost a necessity, although there are a few nice farms around close to town. There is no manufacturing and mining is slow now. Unskilled labor is seasonal only. There are four months that the construction contractors can work. Wages are high but living costs are doubled and building materials are tripled.

"My wife and daughter and I are feeling fine and don't mind the cold weather at all. We are looking forward to Christmas and this year we cut our own tree and also one for the church. The trees were just out of town a few miles. We have our own two room cabin up here that we built last summer. It is very warm so far and is very comfortable. I have been working steady since we came up in June, with the exception of one week and will work all winter. We are planning on being back in Plymouth next Christmas. We wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

"Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott and daughter, Bonnie."

Public relations costs for the armed forces are estimated to exceed $8,000,000 for 1950.

Blackshear, G. Schmarz, R. Schmarz, J. Markham and F. Johnson. Interment was in Rural Hill cemetery, Northville.

To remove the dirt and dust from a felt hat, rub the entire surface with fine sandpaper. Art gum may be used, too. A rubber sponge also is excellent for cleaning felt hats but is more satisfactory for brushing wooden suits, coats and dresses.

Advises Vets About Tax Exemptions

Plymouth veterans and servicemen are entitled to exemptions up to $2,000 from the general property tax, it was announced by Charles Thompson, city assessor. Affidavits to obtain an exemption must be filed at the city hall.

The exemption applies only to homesteads and only to the first $2,000 of assessed valuation of the property. If the homestead is valued at over $2,000 on the tax roll, the owner must pay taxes on that part of the assessment in excess of $2,000. The state is required to reimburse cities and villages for all exemptions allowed by them.

Your Police Department Speaks

Written by members of Plymouth's Police department, this column will appear in this space each week.

"Wear white at night when walking" is the advice to pedestrians given this week in pointing out that darkness multiplies hazards for those afoot in traffic. Many pedestrians just do not realize that drivers cannot see them at night until dangerously close and that they are even more difficult to see when wearing all dark clothing. Specific suggestions are made to pedestrians for increasing their visibility at night. Among them are to wear a large area of white clothing, carry white, such as a handkerchief, carry reflector material or a flashlight. But even with these devices pedestrians are dangerously difficult for motorists to see at night; so those afoot at night must watch out for themselves.

Also the pedestrian must be certain to look in all directions before crossing the street and be sure that any approaching vehicle is at a safe distance and traveling at a reasonable speed. If the vehicle is less than a block distant, wait until the vehicle passes.

Our New Year's wish is that there will be fewer accidents in and around Plymouth than ever before and that we may have the coming year with no fatal accidents. Remember that January and February are the two most dangerous months of the year so far as driving is concerned; be cautious and take it easy.

Sewing Classes Are Announced

Let's get ready for Easter by joining the sewing classes at the high school. Mrs. Lila Humphries has announced that classes will be held in room 21 of the high school beginning January 10 on Tuesday and Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Let's come out and join the first 1950 sewing class and enjoy the thrill of giving expression to your creative ability.

Plymouth's new Masonic temple was dedicated Monday evening to the uses of Freemasonry, to the glory of God and to the purposes of benevolence. Before an audience of several hundred persons, including officers of the Grand Lodge of Michigan, visitors from the Masonic lodges in neighboring towns, and the members of the Order of the Eastern Star, the officers of the Grand Lodge, using the square, the level and the plumb of speculative masonry, dedicated Plymouth's handsome fraternity home and in an impressive service of solemn dignity, the building was accepted and consecrated to the uses of the order for and by which it was constructed.

The Plymouth Rotary club played Santa Claus last week, Wednesday evening, to several hundred kiddies. Under the auspices of the Rotary club, the community Christmas tree was erected in Kellogg park and the big tree with its many colored lights looked very pretty amid the wintery setting of snow and ice. YOU have given me a problem

Little did I realize your interest in our continuing in the retail meat business. Your interest in having a good independent meat market down town has given me something to really worry about.

Of course I intended to continue my operation of my frozen food locker plant and continue to sell you meats at wholesale for freezer purposes. Now you have raised the question to me that as long as I am still operating a meat department, WHY GO ENTIRELY OUT OF THE RETAIL MEAT BUSINESS AND DEPRIVE YOU OF A FINE INDEPENDENT MEAT STORE, DOWNTOWN.

I am doing something about it but it will take more than just a few days to comply with your request, so please bear with us and in the meantime come in and we will prove that your patronage during the last 22 years has not been forgotten.

The Styleline, one of two individually designed sedans which have achieved immense popularity with Chevrolet owners, will have new beauty in 1950. Improved grille work, sturdier bumper guards and more tasteful ornamentation are some of the exterior improvements. New Chevrolet also offer increased power and comfort with the Powerglide automatic transmission as optional equipment on De Luxe models.

By LYN CONNELLY MARIE WILSON, whom millions of radio and movie fans know as the delightful "My Friend Irma" of CBS has worked up dozens of little routines and stage bits that she can do, by herself, or with people... but she really floored the audience at the publicists' party handle dinner in Hollywood the other night... When she was introduced she took her bow, looked in the palm of her hand at a tiny slip of paper and then she recited, from start to finish, the Declaration of Independence... That's Irma... whoops, Marie... for you.

New Chevrolet Powerglide Simple to Operate

Performance of the 1950 Chevrolet Powerglide, first automatic transmission in the low-price auto field, is illustrated by the five small pictures set over the controls. When the pointer is positioned at "Park," wheels are locked and the car cannot roll. "Neutral" is an idling position or for starting the engine. When the lever moves the pointer to "Drive," forward momentum is entirely dependent on accelerator pressure. "Low" is for emergencies, as in deep mud or snow. In addition to backing, the "Reverse" position gives quick response when conditions make necessary the "rocking" of a car by shifts from low to reverse.

What Can The People Believe?

When the anti-trust lawyers in Washington filed their suit to put the A&P out of business, they immediately handed out for all the newspapers of the United States a story giving in detail their "allegations" against this company.

When we published advertisements giving our side of the case, they protested, even though they had made, and have continued to make, in newspapers, in speeches and over the radio these charges that would seriously damage our business, if they were believed by the public.

Every week millions of American housewives patronize A&P stores. Many of them would not want to deal with the kind of people that the anti-trust lawyers represent us to be.

We think we have a right to protect this 90-year old business which has made it possible for millions of American families to get more and better food for their money, which is providing high-wage employment for 110,000 Americans and which is helping millions of farmers to improve the methods of distributing their produce.

No answer by us would be necessary if the anti-trust lawyers were always right. But they, like all other human beings, can be wrong.

In this case we know they are wrong. They have been wrong before.

In case after case they made charges against A&P which were proved in court to be utterly without foundation.

We will prove that statement right up to the hilt. The anti-trust lawyers tell the public that they won a previous anti-trust suit against us at Danville, Illinois. They did.

What they do not tell you is that they brought case after case against the A&P in federal courts all over the United States. Before they won this case they suffered three defeats.

The anti-trust lawyers have told everybody about the time that the courts said they were right. We think you are entitled to know about the three times the courts said they were wrong.

Now we are going to tell you about the first one. In future advertisements we will tell you about all of them.

The Washington Bread Case

In April, 1941, the anti-trust lawyers brought a criminal suit in Washington, D. C.

They charged that the A&P, two grocery chain competitors, two labor unions and other good American citizens had conspired to fix the price of bread.

Can anyone imagine any charge calculated to be more damaging to a retail grocery business? They asked millions of people to believe that we were the kind of grocers who would take bread out of the mouths of poor people and make it harder for a wife and mother to feed her family.

These charges were false.

In that case it developed that the A&P and the two competitors who were charged with conspiring with us to maintain high bread prices actually sold bread cheaper than most of the other stores in Washington.

The anti-trust lawyers presented and argued their case. When they were through, Federal District Judge Allen T. Goldsborough ruled that A&P and the other defendants did not even have to put in a defense. He ordered the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty."

Judge Goldsborough said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"If you were to show this record to any experienced trial lawyer in the world, he would tell you that there was not any evidence at all."

"Honestly, I have never in my over forty years' experience seen a case that was as absolutely devoid of evidence as this. That is the honest truth. I have never seen one like it."

So here was a case in which the anti-trust lawyers made seriously damaging charges against the A&P, in support of which, in the words of the court, they did not have "any evidence at all."

This was not the only time the anti-trust lawyers made charges against the A&P which the courts said were not true. In future ads we are going to tell you about these other suits. We are not going to duck, either. We are going to tell you about the criminal suit that the anti-trust lawyers won at Danville, Illinois.

The anti-trust lawyers say that they are not attacking "bigness" or efficiency. They have to say that because the courts have decided that "bigness" and efficiency and selling at low prices is not a crime.

But the fact is crystal clear that they only brought their bread suit against the big companies and against companies that sold good bread at the lowest prices; just as in this current suit they are attacking a big company that sells good food cheap.

We are going to show the American people that the suit to destroy A&P is really a suit against efficiency and against real competition.

The real question involved in this suit is whether businessmen are going to be encouraged to do a better and more efficient job; or whether we are going to let the anti-trust lawyers in Washington blow the whistle on anybody who gets big by giving the people more for their money.

No one can make us believe that it is a crime to try to sell the best quality food at the lowest possible price.

Ford for power

Feel the "go" of the '50 Ford's 100-horsepower engine. It's the same type engine now used in America's costliest cars—but the '50 Ford brings it to you for hundreds less than most "sixes." And it's a quiet engine, too. It actually whispers while it works.

Ford for style

Ford's "Fashion Car" styling—now more beautiful than ever—is protected by new baked-on colors, "built to live outdoors." New sparkling upholstery fabrics are long lived, too. Even seat life has been lengthened through the use of non-sag front seat springs under foam rubber cushions.

Ford for price

To ride in a '50 Ford, you'd think you were riding in one of America's costliest cars—yet Ford is America's lowest-priced car with a V-8 engine. This hundred horsepower "eight" is yours for hundreds less than most "sixes." Quality feature after quality feature such as Ford's low, level "Mid Ship" Ride—Ford's sound-conditioned "Lifeguard" Body—Ford's 35% easier acting King-Size Brakes—make the '50 Ford the one fine car in its field.

Easton Packers Edge Past Arena Flyers, Moving Into First Place

Although playing the last place Arena Flyers, the Easton Packers narrowly emerged victorious Monday, January 2 in a Michigan Ontario amateur roller hockey tilt, 5-4.

The first goal of the evening was scored by Sam Tome of the Packers in 46 seconds on an assist by Bob Henze. A few minutes later the same pair netted a second goal.

Bob Carron of the Arena Flyers turned the hat-trick, scoring three goals, all on assists from Don Martin.

By winning this contest the Easton Packers were able to pull into a tie with the Arcadia Wildcats for first place with seven wins and two losses.

Goalie Bill Ferschneider displayed good form and proved why he is one of the best goalies in the league in the last period, as he stopped some daring and hot pucks.

In the final stanza each team was really playing hockey, with the game getting exceedingly exciting.

The same two squads meet again Monday, January 9 at the Riverside Arena starting at 8:30 p.m.

I REMEMBER... By THE OLD-TIMERS

From Mrs. Dorothy Rayborn of Chicago: "I remember... many years ago... We rode out to grandmother's house in a sleigh, with the ground all covered with snow... When we entered her huge kitchen, what a heavenly smell of spice, of roast turkey and pumpkin pie... and other goodies so nice... The big, old-fashioned kitchen stove made the kitchen cozy and warm... It felt so good to come into the house, out of the cold and the storm... The table groaned with good things to eat, as we sat around the table and ate... And I remember grandmother's face, radiant and sweet, as she stood waiting for us, out at the garden gate."

From Mrs. Minnie H. Burner of Phillips, W. Va.: "I remember when children bought their shoes and school supplies at the country store with walnut kernels, chestnuts and mayapple roots. Said supplies consisted of slates, pencils, pen, ink, writing paper and a few yards of print for aprons."

There's Nothing Like Starting School With a Clean Slate!

Books were the greatest problem. They had to be bought with money. Each book would be handed down from child to child as they moved up from grade to grade. We all wore wool stockings and in the winter we wore shawls instead of coats."

From Mrs. Alice Addington Harrison of Gotebo, Okla.: "I remember when a girl chum and I made dresses of black lawn costing five cents a yard. We put baby ribbons on each ruffle. The ribbon cost five cents for 20 yards. Altogether, the dresses cost us less than a dollar apiece to make. P.S.: I am 81 years old."

BRUIN TURNS THE TABLES... Wearing a hunting cap, Mr. Bruin jauntily drives into Buffalo, N.Y., with a fine specimen of homo sapiens roped to the hood of his car after a successful hunting trip. It was a gag, of course, but it might have been this way. For Harry Szarowski, a Buffalo television repair man who shot the bear, reports that the 300-pound bruin played possum after the first shot, and he might have bagged the hunter had the latter been less cautious.

THAT'S WHAT I CALL REAL SERVICE

And You ALWAYS Get It When You Use McCormick Equipment

One day, right in the middle of harvest, a customer hurried in and asked for a replacement part for his 10-year-old combine. I went to the parts bin, and as I came back and plunked the part down on the counter, he grinned and said: "That's what I like about using McCormick equipment. When I do need a part, you always have it or can get it right quick."

He started to walk out, and I said, "How about letting our service man put that part on for you? Your machine might need a little adjustment here and there, and he can do that at the same time."

He thought it over for a minute, and laid the part back on the counter. "Go ahead," he grinned. "I've got a couple of other things to take care of here in town anyway. The combine is standing in the field south of the house."

He turned to go, and I mentioned, "If you're not at home by the time he puts on the part, I'll have him try the combine and look it over thoroughly and give you a report. Maybe we can get together and arrange to fix it ahead of time for next season and save you time and trouble."

"Go ahead," he agreed again. "That's what I call real service!"

"Just a part of our regular IH 5-Star Service," I said.

Family Will Relish Vegetables If Dressed Up and Varied Often

It's almost inevitable that Plymouth homemakers overlook what's happening in their own families just because they're too close to them. Once in awhile it's a good idea to pretend we're strangers and examine ourselves critically. It wouldn't be at all surprising if we discovered some particularly pleasing qualities that we've been missing and also a few things that can stand correcting.

Take the matter of food habits, for instance. Surveys among people in different sections of the country have shown that average diets checked against good standards are lacking in various respects, particularly in the use of vegetables.

Food experts agree that our day's meals should include two vegetables each day in addition to potatoes. Because of their richness in vitamin A either a green or dark yellow vegetable should be chosen as one of them. The other may be any variety.

One reason that vegetables may be neglected is that too often they're added to the meal as an after-thought. Then too, in the preparation of dinner most of the attention is centered on meat and potatoes and the vegetable dish may be overcooked so the color, flavor and texture are unappealing.

Serving vegetables immediately after they have reached tenderness is of paramount importance in having them at their most interesting. Keeping the cooking time short by starting them in boiling water and using only enough water to prevent scorching are also necessary to preserve the color, flavor and food value.

Carefully cooked vegetables seasoned to taste with salt, pepper and a generous amount of butter or fortified margarine are vegetables at their best. A family which has not shown much relish for these foods may be tempted by them in more dressed-up versions.

Suggestion For Left-Over Ham

Ham & Asparagus Rolls With Cheese Sauce

4 slices boiled ham, cut 1/2 to 3/4 inch thick
12 fresh or frozen asparagus spears
Cheese Sauce
Cook asparagus until tender. Roll 3 spears of asparagus in each ham slice and fasten with a toothpick. Place in a frying-pan and cook until ham is lightly brown on all sides. Serve with Cheese Sauce. 4 servings.

Cheese Sauce

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
Pepper
1 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 5-oz jar cheddar cheese
Melt butter or margarine in double boiler. Blend in flour, salt and pepper. Stir in milk and cook over boiling water until smooth and thickened. Add Worcestershire sauce and cheese. Stir until smooth.

Eye Make-Up Adds Beauty

Plymouth women can highlight the natural loveliness of their eyes with a little care in shaping the brows and in adding color to the lids and lashes, says Jack Dawn, a noted make-up consultant to famous movie stars.

"1. Run finger over bone above eye for line brow should follow to give eye its most flattering frame.

"2. In plucking brows remove only lower hairs and stragglers. A straight, thin line gives a hard look.

"3. Extend brow out and up. Use brown pencil unless brows are black. Downward lines are aging.

"4. Choose eye shadow to match the veining at the inside corners of your eyelids. Use only the softest whisper of color.

"5. Darken your lashes with mascara and the color of your eyes will seem to deepen. Brown mascara looks most natural.

"6. Every night stroke lids and below eyes with rich oil to relieve eye strain and discourage tense little lines."

Sunday Night Treat

Hot sandwiches are a quick answer to your lunch or Sunday night supper problem. Here are some tempting open-faced broiler combinations: slices of American cheese spread with chili sauce and topped with half strips of bacon; applesauce, sausage links and grated cheese; liver sausage topped with chopped bacon.

Gives Secret of Tasty Meat Stew

The secret of a magnificent meat stew is a good basic recipe to which Plymouth homemakers can add whatever meat suits her fancy and these are the first steps in making any stew and recipes for three meat flavorings:

First basic step: Cut up meat into serving pieces. Then dust lightly in flour that has been mixed with 2 teaspoons salt. Heat 4 tablespoons of fat or salad oil in a large, heavy skillet and brown the meat well and quickly on all sides, turning the pieces with a spoon instead of a fork so you won't pierce the meat and let the good savory juices escape.

Now transfer your meat to a heavy kettle or Dutch oven. Next stir 1 cup boiling (it must be boiling) water into the skillet, at the same time scraping down all the rich crusty business around the sides. Pour this flavorful stock over the meat.

Right here add your flavor-making bouquet garni: 1 bay leaf, 4 sprigs parsley, stalk celery, several celery tops, 3 whole black peppers, 3 small onions, 1 carrot. Also 1 medium potato for thickening.

Second basic step: After adding the proper seasonings, cover the kettle tightly and cook over very low heat (this means so slowly the stew barely moves in cooking) until you can pierce the meat easily with a fork. (Allow approximately 2 hours for lamb, chicken or beef; 1 1/2 hours for veal.) Now remove the meat from the kettle. Then strain the stock, pushing the vegetables through the strainer (they thicken the stew). Combine the strained stock and meat once again in the big kettle. Then finish your stew with whatever meat you wish. Each stew serves 6.

CHICKEN STEW

Buy a 4 1/2-pound stewing chicken, fresh or frozen, and follow the basic cooking directions. When you add the bouquet garni (at end of first basic step) add these seasonings:

1/2 teaspoon summer savory or tarragon
1/4 teaspoon sage or poultry seasoning

After straining the stock (at the end of the second basic step), add 1 cup boiling water and the following vegetables:

8 stalks celery, sliced
10 pearl onions

Continue cooking covered, very slowly, until vegetables are tender when pierced with a fork.

LAMB STEW

Buy 2 1/2-pounds stewing lamb, then follow the basic cooking directions. When you add the bouquet garni (at end of first basic step) add these seasonings:

1/2 teaspoon summer savory or rosemary
1/2 teaspoon basil or thyme
Grated rind and juice from 1 lemon

After straining the stock (at the end of the second basic step) add 1 cup boiling water and the following vegetables:

2 cups peas, fresh or frozen
12 pearl onions
12 potato balls

Continue cooking covered, very slowly, until vegetables are tender when pierced with a fork.

VEAL STEW

Buy 2 1/2-pounds stewing veal, then follow the basic cooking directions. When you add the bouquet garni (at end of first basic step) add these seasonings:

2 tablespoons paprika
1/2 teaspoon rosemary or summer savory
1-8 oz. can tomato sauce

After straining the stock (at the end of the second basic step), add 1 cup boiling water and the following vegetables:

2 cups lima beans, fresh or frozen
1/4 lb. sliced mushrooms
8 stalks celery, sliced

Continue cooking covered, very slowly, until vegetables are tender when pierced with a fork.

MEAT CUT Quiz

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. Pork tenderloin.

Q. Where does it come from and how is it identified?

A. It comes from the pork loin. It is a long, tapering round muscle weighing from 1/2 to 3/4 pound. It may be purchased whole or cut into approximately two inch slices and flattened. In this manner it is called Frenched.

Q. How is it prepared?

A. A whole tenderloin is roasted. It is placed on a rack in an open roasting pan. No water is added and the pan is left uncovered. The tenderloin is allowed to cook in a 350° F. oven for one hour. Two tenderloins may be flattened out and placed one on top of the other with a dressing in-between, then roasted in the above manner. Frenched tenderloin is cooked by braising. The meat is browned on both sides in a small amount of added fat. Two or three tablespoons of water is added, the pan covered, and the meat allowed to cook slowly for 35 to 40 minutes or until well done.

Vary Chili With Cheese and Fruit

Hot chili is tempting Plymouthites these wintry days. Its menu accompaniments are important. They're the way to make chili dinners varied and interesting.

For instance, serve potato chips with chili. Or for a change, spread crackers with tangy cheese, then slip them in the broiler just long enough to melt the cheese. Serve the crackers straight from the broiler.

Still another idea is serving chili, thick with ground beef, over rice in an unusual chop suey manner. On another occasion, chili may be accompanied with toasted-corn bread.

In a menu with chili a crisp salad is desirable. A tossed vegetable salad or cole slaw are both ideal, or perhaps a relish tray.

Also in order is a light dessert. A bowl of colorful fruits will be welcomed, accompanied by a plate filled with various cheeses. To vary, a gelatin fruit salad may be served.

No Food Shortage in Sight For 1950—Prices Slightly Lower

What's ahead for Plymouth food supplies and prices during the coming year?

Plymouth people are expected to eat as well in 1950 as they have in the past year.

There are no shortages in sight for any of our leading foods—and prices in general should be slightly lower.

The following predictions are based on combined forecasts of the many government specialists and business men familiar with the food situation.

Meats—There will be more pork available than in the past year, with lower average prices. The beef supply will be about the same, with little if any price change. Lamb and mutton supplies will continue short, with continued high prices, as sheepmen try to rebuild flocks.

Poultry, eggs and fish—Plentiful, at prices generally less than in 1949.

Milk and dairy products—We can expect a larger supply than in the previous 12-month period, with prices down slightly.

Fruits—In general, fruits will continue in more liberal supply this winter and next spring than a year ago. We will have more oranges and lemons at lower prices, but less grapefruit, at prices equal to or higher than in 1949.

Winter vegetables—Fresh vegetables from southern states, potatoes, and sweet potatoes will be ample for our needs. Little change in prices is anticipated.

Cereals—Cereal foods will be abundant in 1950, but bread prices will stay about the same.

Prospects for most foods which are usually smaller budget items are also good: In the fats and oils group, we will probably find more lard, butter, and cottonseed oil products available, at lower prices. The sugar supply is expected to meet Plymouth consumers' needs, with the price remaining about the same.

The general slight reduction in food costs for 1950 is based on two expectations—an ample supply of food products and slightly lower consumer purchasing power.

Train Engine Helps Furnish Heat to Daisy Factory

While in the process of converting their heating system from coal to oil burning boilers, Daisy engineers connected this C & O engine to their heating system which enabled the change to be made without loss of heat. A 20,000 gallon oil storage tank has been installed and an incinerator was built in the base of the chimney in the old lighting plant to take care of shavings and sawdust which were formerly fed directly into the boilers. Total cost of the change over amounted to $25,000.00 and is the first project outlined for completion this year in Daisy's modernization program.

Every other Wednesday at the Starkweather Grade school, dances are being held for students of the fifth and sixth grades of Mill and Starkweather schools from 7 to 9 p.m.

These dances are to teach the kids how to dance so as to help them along as they grow older. This month the dances are to be held on January 4 and 18.

For these dances a free orchestra and free instructors have been obtained for the sole purpose of teaching the kids how to dance. Margaret Foreman and her orchestra play for the dance while Chase Willett and O. C. Wood are the instructors.

An admission of 10 cents is being charged the kids, but this goes to other sources and not to the orchestra or instructors.

The dances are sponsored by the PTA and it would be nice if more parents could attend and watch the dancing. Approximately 60 kids attend each week.

Fair in the Light of Memory Shines
The only form of entertainment Detroit enjoyed after it became a city in 1815 were "home talent" plays put on by troops stationed there who were under the command of General Macomb. The first theatre was reported to be a large brick storehouse located at the foot of Wayne street. No women appeared in these plays.

Ferry lines operate during the entire winter across lake Michigan, one from Ludington and one from Frankfort. These are railway ferries, but they also transport automobiles. The Michigan State Highway department ferry now operates every day of the year across the Straits of Mackinac.

Oshkosh, some five miles west of Kalamazoo, is the highest point on U. S. highway 12 between Detroit and Chicago. Its altitude is a little over 800 feet above sea level. Fine Crest Sanitarium, a tuberculosis hospital is located near the place.

While serious water shortages plague New York and other areas in the nation, there is no cause for present alarm in Michigan. State conservation department hydrologists make this reassuring statement although Michigan ground water levels hit successive new record lows in September, October and November.

The November average stage of .93 of a foot was the lowest recorded by the department's geological survey division since it started regular checking of ground water levels 16 years ago. The U. S. Geological Survey's latest report also shows Great Lakes water levels are down about three inches below average.

"Fortunately, we are not tapping our ground water 'bank' at a faster rate than the supply can be replenished," explains state hydrologist Norman Billings. "This is particularly so, now — for our winter season consumption is lower than at any other time of the year."

"We could have some temporary domestic well failures in cases where the particular wells do not penetrate water-bearing formations too deeply. For example, shallow farm wells could fail temporarily since they would be quite sensitive to radical water level fluctuations."

Billings points out that "ground water supplies, which serve over a million persons in some 400 municipalities in the state, actually divert only a small part of the rain and melted snow which infiltrates into the ground. The larger share of the annual ground seepage sooner or later enters the inland rivers, streams and lakes — and most of that passes off into the Great Lakes." He cited Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Pontiac, Birmingham, Holland and Alma as being among the larger Michigan cities utilizing ground water. Another 136 municipalities which service over 3,000,000 persons, including Detroit, Bay City, Saginaw, Midland, Flint and Port Huron, depend on surface water. The first four of these, he continued, draw from the Great Lakes and have an inexhaustible supply.

Some Michigan cities, however, occasionally do use their supply in the summer period as fast as it is available. Billings added that transportation is the big factor which deters many cities from using the Great Lakes as a supply source. Construction and operation of transmission lines would be a terrific cost item.

He further explains that 12 inches of infiltration would saturate four to five feet of ground in many southern Michigan localities whereas upstate in more sandy soil areas the same quantity of water would saturate only a couple of feet in many places. The state obtains roughly two-thirds of the normal ground water recharge in a short period of time — late March through part of May — when the snow melts and spring rains come.

"Our top threat to our water supply," Billings asserts, "is pollution." Other water problems are lake level control, local over-production of water, and floods.

Billings would not rule out the possibility that at some future time, with greater population and industrial demands, some state regulation may be necessary. Some states, he noted, are in a less fortunate position with regard to water and already have been forced to regulate new consumption.

Oil and gas leasing activity on state-owned land in 1949 swelled the state's general fund by a record $1,200,000 in bonuses, rentals and royalties, or about 180,000 more than in 1948.

In the four public oil and gas lease auctions conducted by the conservation department in 1949, nearly 240,000 acres were placed under lease to oil companies and independent operators, slightly more than the record 239,000 acres successfully bid on in 1948.

State-owned land now under standard five-year lease for oil and gas exploration now totals 670,000 acres, highest in history. Records of the department's lands division show 270 oil wells and 24 gas wells active on state-owned land during the year.

Continued expansion of the Beaver creek oil field in Crawford county accounted for a substantial increase in royalties paid to the state.

Acres in about 20 counties was involved in lease auctions, primarily Crawford, Kalamazoo, Grand Traverse, Missaukee and Wexford. Except for 200 acres, all land offered was wildcat acreage which produced average sale bids ranging from $23 to $139 an acre. Average acreage price received by the state since 1929, when first regular lease auctioning started, is $70 an acre.

Increased interest by mining companies in their search for commercial quantities of suitable lower grade ores was evident in 1949. The lands division reports 27 active iron ore exploration leases covering 13,530 state-owned acres in the western upper peninsula.

A brief flurry of interest in uranium exploration, following the nearby Canadian discovery, resulted in several applications for uranium ore exploration options, but no discoveries on state land to date have warranted the issuance of leases.

A third of the population of The Azusa, California, post-the United States aged 21 years master, Thomas Barclay Thompson over has obtained at least a son, has published more than 100 high school education. short stories and novels.

No wonder they're calling them "TOP CHOICE FOR 'FIFTY"

They're greater in power—higher in compression—a standout in styling—dreams to drive—and now there's a Buick beauty for 1950 to fit practically any budget

No, we just couldn't hold back the whole big Buick line for 1950. They're too good-looking—too much fun to drive—too jam-packed with stepped-up, higher-compression, ready-to-ramble power—to be kept under cover.

So maybe you've already seen some 1950 Buicks on the highway. Maybe you've noticed the extra "git up and travel" they have—glimped the wide, curving windshields (one piece in most models)—noted, approvingly, that the typical Buick taper is now found in all Buick fenders.

Maybe you've even heard some things... That there are more than a dozen-and-a-half models to choose from. That there are three power plants in the Buick line—all of higher compression, all stepped up in power.

That all models are big and roomy inside—some rear seats are better than a foot wider than before!—yet in every instance, shorter over-all, so easier to handle, park and garage.

Above all, maybe you've heard of exciting news on price... That Dynaflo Drive, for instance—standard on ROADMASTER models, optional on all others—now costs 20% less than on 1949 models.

LOTS OF LUGGAGE SPACE, plus a high-fashion rear-end treatment, graces the Buick tourback Sedan models for 1950. This is the ROADMASTER, and above is the SUPER version of this much-wanted 4-door, 6-passenger Sedan.

That there are more than a dozen-and-a-half models to choose from. That there are three power plants in the Buick line—all of higher compression, all stepped up in power.

POWER NEWS WITH A REAL PUNCH!

Here's just one part of Buick's three-way power story for 1950—the brand-new F-263 valve-in-head straight-eight. Packing a wallop that makes the SUPER a stand-out performer of the season, here is still higher compression and still greater power in no greater over-all size. You'll get this new engine on all SUPER models, in 124 hp with Synchro-Mesh transmission, 128 hp with Dynaflo Drive.

That in the full line—SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER series—there is a Buick to fit practically every budget above the very lowest!

Hadn't you better see him—right now—and see if you, too, don't find Buick "top choice for 1950"?

Alcoholics Anonymous Helps Cure Drunks Says A. Blake Gillies

There is one prison official who thinks that Alcoholics Anonymous is one of the greatest things that ever came along to help cure the heavy drinker of a mighty bad habit.

That official is Supt. A. Blake Gillies of the Detroit House of Correction.

Doubtless there is no other prison official in these United States who has committed to his care more "drunks" than does Supt. Gillies. Several times a week a bus load of drunks from Detroit's Skid Row is delivered to his door. Some are sentenced for ten days others for longer terms.

It was more than five years ago when there was organized at the Detroit House of Correction the A. A. Mr. Gillies declares that he knows personally it has redeemed more than 100 liquor addicts.

There are regular meetings of the group every Sunday—and attendance is entirely voluntary.

An organization of former drunks, who have succeeded in drying themselves out permanently, A. A. keeps no records of its accomplishments, knows but few names of the men it has helped.

But at DeHoCo, A. A. can tell when it has convinced an inmate. The face never reappears behind DeHoCo's prison bars.

A. A. operates with the complete cooperation and understanding of Supt. Gillies and Dr. Morris Floch, DeHoCo psychiatrist. Both are enthusiastic about A. A.'s work.

When the organization first went out to DeHoCo, the inmates laughed openly at it. But they are not laughing any more. A. A. brings former prisoners to the jail; men who have sobered up and are now good citizens in the community.

These men, A. A. feels, are the only ones capable of talking turkey to a down-and-outier. "Who would be a better missionary to a savage than another savage?" is the theory it puts into practice.

"These men can't be babied," a member of A. A., who is now a top-flight salesman in Detroit, said. "We give it to them cold. It can't be sold."

If the drunk has a spark of hope left, A. A. goes after him. Letters from former inmates admit they have "cleaned up and gone home" where they belong. Frequently, the rehabilitated drunk returns to his church. Three of Detroit's most legendary bums climbed out of DeHoCo with A.A.'s assistance to become gainfully employed.

What's the secret of A.A.'s miracle at DeHoCo, or at Wayne County General hospital, or Ypsilanti General hospital, or even at Jackson prison?

"All we do is tell them they are suffering from a disease," A.A. says. "Once an inmate admits he is a hopeless drunk and is ready to put himself in the hands of a higher power, we're ready to work with him."

The formula doesn't hold true for only the "low-bottom"—the Skid Row—drunk alone; A.A. is carrying its message to the "high-bottom"—the person with social status as well.

"The results are beautiful," declared a distinguished gentleman, who admitted that he spent 20 years on the skids before he found himself through A. A.

"We get a lot of drunks off Skid Row who thank DeHoCo for saving their lives," he said. "They tell us point-blank that they are happier now."

At DeHoCo, where an average of 70 inmates attend the weekly meetings, A.A. realizes it has one big advantage.

There is no backsliding. The skeptic can't fog his brain against A.A. by reaching for a drink. The Detroit House of Correction is the driest spot in Michigan.

DALE CARNEGIE
 AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING"

Disagree Agreeably
 N. W. LIEBERMAN of Brooklyn, N. Y., thinks I am wrong when I assert that one should never say, "No, you're wrong." He thinks there are times when a man should be told definitely that he is wrong.

Well, note that I didn't say you must always agree with a man, though I did say for you not to say, "No, you're wrong." It is the phrasing that is important.

Dr. Lieberman says—and I am sure that you will agree with him, as I do—that there is an art in saying no, and this art is based on the oldest law of human relationships—respect for the other fellow.

"When someone comes to me with an idea," says Dr. Lieberman, "I ask him to spill it, and as soon as possible I agree with some minor point of his proposition. Then I ask him to come back after a few days or a week, when we both will have had time to think over the matter. If, when he returns, my answer is still no, I say no, but I give reasons for my conclusion, and I attempt to raise his own self-esteem by suggesting a substitute idea not too far removed from his own."

"Before I end the interview, I praise him for the value of his idea and ask his opinion about some other matter about which I know him to be well informed."

You will note that Dr. Lieberman tactfully refrains from arguing; that he is honest in his treatment, and that he shows the man the respect that everyone craves. And you can be sure that Dr. Lieberman has many more patients than he would have if he put up an argument with them on matters in which they are not wholly in accord.

If he shouted, "No, you're wrong!" when they did not agree, he would be sure to offend the sensibilities of some of those patients, with the result that they would not care to have further association with him.

Chess Club to Resume Classes

The Plymouth Chess club suspended operations over the holidays but will resume their activities again this Friday evening, January 6 in the recreation room of the city hall, but without a few of the top ranking players.

Several of the top players of the Plymouth Chess club have moved away and this leaves the club with only six players left of which only three are top performers.

Last year the Chess club won every match that they played but because of only a few left in the club, they have not had any matches yet this year.

A few of the top-notch teams that they played and naturally beat were Ford Motor company, Ferndale, Dearborn, Detroit Edison and Highland Park.

The few remaining members in the club include Henry Baker, Clyde Copps, Joe Haefner, William Marcus and Mr. O'Neil.

Joe Haefner, president, stated that to play matches you must have at least six fairly expert players because all of the opposing chess teams have excellent players.

Local Farmer Wins Championship

PLYMAIL PHOTO

"If thars gold in them there hills thars sure corn in them thar fields." And that, Plymouthites is a statement of fact as far as Columbus Wilkin's fields are concerned. "Bus", as farmer Wilkin is better known to his many friends in and around Plymouth, was just awarded the DeKalb corn growing championship for Wayne county this year. His fertile fields produced an average of 105.84 bushel of corn per acre, which was the highest yield of any farm in the county. Of 85 state contestants the average yield was 98.36 bushel per acre. Mr. Wilkin resides at 7803 Beck road and has about 80 acres of corn growing in his fields each year. He has worked the farm, which was purchased by his father in 1907, for the last 15 years. It was no surprise to local farmers to find that Mr. Wilkin won the county contest because for many years he has been among the first to have his sweet corn on the market in the early summer.

Services Held at Masonic Temple

We of the L.D.S. church are happy to announce that all Sunday services will be held in the Masonic Temple, Penniman at Union streets. We feel that it is quite appropriate that our first communion service of the New Year was held in our new meeting place and we were pleased with the fine attendance.

Sunday evening the Lola Valley Mission members and friends were guests of the Plymouth group at their traditional New Year service. An atmosphere of peace and quiet was formed with organ music recordings as 75 members and friends were slated for the service. The call to worship and invocation were given by Elder Nobel Gault, followed by a candle lighting ceremony presented by four members of the Women's department. The past pastors spoke a few words of remembrance and encouragement. Our special speaker was the young city missionary, Wallace Jackson, who spoke on "The Open Door of Opportunity Presented to Us in the New Year." The Cathedral film "Faith of the Faithful" was shown by Robert Burger.

While refreshments were being prepared the audience entered whole-heartedly into a good old-fashioned hymn-sing, directed by Richard Gault.

We appreciated the special music provided by our guests, David and Arlene Salominer and Richard and Mildred Gault of Detroit.

Babson Says

Babson Discusses The Age of Idiots

The next decade may be known by future historians as the Video Age, the "V" stands for television. This has already become "big business".

Television is Big Business. It is estimated that 10 million people watched our last national political convention on TV. Double that number saw Truman inaugurated. How many local fans watched the Big League games this summer and fall is anybody's guess. People who never have been to a baseball game, football game, boxing bout or set foot inside a theater, have become ardent home fans.

The folks who need this kind of diversion must—rural dwellers—cannot yet get TV in their homes. This is due both to the limited number of stations permitted by the FCC and to the present limits of TV broadcast radius. This will ultimately be remedied. In fact, by the year's end, the networks hopefully anticipate nearly three million sets in use. TV manufacturers, already beginning to count their 1949 profits, believe the cash registers will sing to the merry tune of a good $500,000,000 plus.

TV and Amusements. Practically every survey, conducted thus far to measure the "looking" audience, indicates that people listen less now to regular radio. The day may well come, and soon, when A.M. radio will be as obsolete as the old crystal sets and earphones are today. The corner movie house is already feeling the pinch. Within the next half dozen years, we shall be able to view good movies right in our own living-rooms, and without the present eyestrain. It has already been reported that Broadway's box office receipts nose-dive on Milton Berle night.

Sports promoters are worried too. Wrestling, boxing, baseball, and football enthusiasts are forsaking the arena and ball field for the home video screen. College athletic directors are especially concerned. Intercollegiate football is a most expensive sport. Advertisers have found that with the same number of sets, television ads pull four times the sales of ordinary radio advertisements.

Television Pros and Cons. Schools and colleges have found as a result of the comic book, picture magazines, talking movies, and the radio that our youth even now can not read comprehendingly. They have become allergic to the printed page. Our children have also forgotten how to amuse themselves. Instead of developing into active participants, they are becoming passive bystanders. They are becoming sluggish and lazy in this matter of their amusement. This is very unfortunate.

Television, however, has a tremendous opportunity to instruct and amuse constructively. Television might well reestablish the home as a family meeting place. Video could become a potent force in helping to lower juvenile delinquency and crime rates; it could become a helping hand in lowering divorce rates. Television could bring to the home the broadening cultural experiences of seeing great paintings in a museum, or witnessing great experiments in the laboratory. Video could actually let us see great historic events in the making. Think of what your reaction might have been to a telecast of the Battle of Dunkirk or the Invasion of Okinawa.

Shear Shows Buick Roadmaster for 1950

Tops in the Buick line for 1950 is the stately Roadmaster six passenger sedan, according to Carl Shear, local Buick dealer. Inches shorter than its predecessor the car has a more powerful engine, a completely new body and features a one-piece curved windshield. Note the full taper-through of the front fenders, the wrap-around bumpers, spacious trunk and the narrow rear quarter panel permitting the rear window to come well around to the side providing better rear vision for the driver.

Television is Dynamite. On the other hand, television can develop a race of idiots. It's already on its merry way toward this goal. It can easily condition its lookers to something even less idiotic than pie throwing! What kind of future race of mankind do we want? The answer lies with parents, schools and churches. We can't afford to let unprincipled "entertainers" ruin America. Television is dynamite.
