

WORKING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

Reports out of Lansing indicate that State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler is showing the department's program to build through trunk-line highways around some of the important cities of Michigan instead of using the heavily travelled, and often narrow main street for through traffic.

We recall distinctly the days when former Governor Groesbeck started the system of having trunk line roads by-pass cities and villages wherever possible — and of the vicious stories circulated at that time about the objects of such a purpose.

Passing time has convinced the high officials of Michigan as well as other states that it is no longer advisable or good business to send heavy lines of trucks, trailers and passenger automobiles into city traffic.

Mr. Ziegler recently announced the acceptance of bids for some of these by-passes. The bids totaled $1,571,571.36. Following are the projects, low bidders and amount of the bids:

3,836 miles of grading and drainage structures on US-12 relocation south of Galesburg and 2,072 miles of grading and drainage structures and aggregate surfacing on Miller road, also south of Galesburg, in Kalamazoo county.

This is the first construction on the Kalamazoo by-pass which eventually will extend approximately 20 miles from east of Galesburg south around the city of Kalamazoo, connecting the present US-12 about seven miles southwest of Kalamazoo. The work on Miller road will be necessary as a part of it is to be used in the new highway. When completed, the relocation will relieve the Kalamazoo city streets from the heavy US-12 traffic.

This by-pass will be part of the Detroit-Chicago expressway which will utilize present US-12 from Detroit to Chicago. By-passes around large cities will form the initial construction of the expressway. Considerable work already has been done on the US-12 by-pass around the north side of Jackson, a section of which was recently opened to traffic. Similar by-passes are planned at Ann Arbor, Battle Creek and Benton Harbor and St. Joseph.

LET'S SLOW DOWN.

When Dale Carnegie wrote his latest book he started out by saying its purpose was not to tell something new, but to remind you of what you already know and to kick you in the shins and inspire you to do something about applying it, remarks the Royal Bank of Canada in the Monthly Letter.

The problem is the feeling of being pushed. For ten years it has been becoming progressively worse. We cannot put our finger with certainty on anything that is causing it; we cannot point our finger confidently at the goal to which we are being pushed. We just keep rushing along in a state of never having time to do the things that seem to be pressing upon us.

Twentieth-century living keeps us guessing. The trouble seems to be that we are midway in transition from an age that was based on the assumption of permanence into one where the only certainty is change. We are not highly enough developed to feel comfortable. We are victims of mounting tension, and we have difficulty in relaxing. We feel that we are not quite as quick as we should be in grasping things. We are sensitive, and doubtful, and in a hurry. Our high-strung nervous systems are on a perpetual binge. We have no time for the repose that is necessary if we are to see the stars.

A curious symptom is that people talk more than they did of "next" job, or "next" week, of the "next problem to be tackled." Having reached a destination we try to cut down our "turn around" time so that we sail off quickly to the next port.

David Seabury, in his excellent advice on "How to Worry Successfully" reduces the whole business to this: "Frenzied toil has long been a curse in America, though often praised as a virtue." He quotes Longfellow: "But they, while their companions slept, were toiling upward in the night." Then Seabury adds: "Nonsense. They were digging their graves."

It is sad but true that persons held up by our culture as most praiseworthy and desirable are the very people who are most likely to overdo the pace of life. They are conscientious, painstaking, and indefatigable in their work; they have a strong sense of social responsibility; they assume more than their share of community tasks.

Teachers, maintaining discipline in a restive young race; doctors trying to cope with crowded reception rooms; stenographers who must do so many words a minute if they are to get their work out; telephone operators whose hands must keep pace with conversation; business men rushing from piled-up desks to business conference lunches and back again; farmers deprived of help by the lure of city life; all these are examples of high-tension living. Even small talk makes a demand on nervous energies.

Often people in all good faith deny that they are under any tension. The state has become chronic with them, and they are not aware of it. To the keen observer, however, there are signs; unnecessary hand-waving and pencil tapping, wrinkled foreheads, frowns, vacant stares, restlessness.

People who are on the rush all day and far into the night are not living fully. The true-life of man does not consist in reckless surrender to forces he cannot explain, which is a just and fair description of the rush complex that has us in its grip. Life at its best should be a harmonious adjustment of necessity and desire, of what must be done and what we should like to do.

These are abnormal days. We must meet them with firmness, admitting our susceptibility to injurious influences and doing what we can to get rid of physical and emotional strain. We should try, in our way, to change the world for the better, without worrying because it doesn't change faster. We need to learn to overcome what troubles can be surmounted, and adapt ourselves to those that are as yet incurable.

We need to be honest realists. This means admitting limitations of physical and mental strength and keeping within those limits.—(Reprinted from Port Elgin Times.)

THE VILLAGE OF WAYNE DOESN'T FOOL.

A year or so ago our progressive little neighbor, the village of Wayne, decided that its automobile parking problem needed attention. The village officials agreed with business men of the community that something should be done at once — and as a result something WAS done at once.

In less than a year the village purchased a site near downtown, made an immense fill and now has a parking lot that will care for nearly 800 automobiles.

We're still talking about additional parking space in Plymouth — been talking about it for a dozen years or more. At any rate, it is always a good subject to talk about.

MORE CARE NEEDED.

One cannot help but feel terribly grieved when reading newspaper dispatches telling of the death of two or three children, sometimes more, in fires that destroy the homes in which they live. These fires generally take place when parents are away from their homes for a few hours. Surely when families live in homes that might become flaming pyres, either the father or mother should remain to watch over and protect their children.

Just a little sacrifice would save many fathers and mothers a life from grief as well as the lives of their children.

Rotarians and Farmers Have Social Evening

Roses were presented to the above by local Rotarians at the annual Rotary Rural Urban dinner last Thursday night at the Masonic Temple. The four honored were left to right, Rotarians Robert Beyer and Charles H. Bennett, youngest and oldest club members at the meeting, and Arthur Huston and Raymond Schultz, oldest and youngest farmer guests in attendance. Rotarians prepared the meal, served the same then washed the dishes to make the evening complete. "Piece d'occasion" on the menu was one of Farmer-Rotarian Robert Willoughby's prize Black Angus steers.

Pierson Gets Money Back

"Plymouth is just the best place in America to live", at least that's what Roy Pierson told The Plymouth Mail this week. The victim of a particularly deft pickpocket last week Mr. Pierson lost his Old Age Assistance money and was at the mercy of local people for his board and room for the next three weeks.

Soon after The Mail printed this story Mr. Pierson began receiving financial assistance from people in the community. Envelopes containing dimes, quarters and even dollar bills began arriving and some $6.00 was left at The Mail office for him. When he took a final financial check of his funds Wednesday noon he found that he had his $31 and "maybe a dollar or two more."

Needless to say he was more than grateful to the people that were so kind to him and asked that The Mail let it be known, "that a man his age has an awful lot to worry about when he loses his entire means of support". To get it back from the goodness of the hearts of the people in his town is indeed something he will always remember.

Teen-Age Dance is Huge Success

The first teen-age dance which was held by the Plymouth Optimist club Saturday, January 14, at the Presbyterian church proved to the dance committee that their efforts for weekend recreational activities have met with the approval of many of Plymouth's young people.

Soon after the 8:30 p.m. starting time over 160 teen-agers were dancing to the music of Clyde Bennett and his Rhythmasters.

Refreshments of pop, hot dogs and potato chips were served by Optimist Mike Kleinschmidt and his "Opti-Mrs." Lois Kleinschmidt.

The committee, consisting of Charles Finlan, John Wimsatt and Ed Houghtaling, were ably assisted by Bob Minock and Susie Hubbell. Chaperons were Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Cavell, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Engle.

The next dance will be held on Saturday, January 21 at Our Lady of Good Counsel church hall, at the corner of Arthur and William streets, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

Truesdells Celebrate Golden Wedding Jan. 22

To celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday, January 22, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Truesdell are having open house from three to six in the afternoon. They have asked The Plymouth Mail to extend an invitation to all their friends to visit them at 1280 West Ann Arbor trail.

Outside Shoppers Deluge Local Business Firms

Most Plymouth stores experienced what could have been a last minute Christmas rush last weekend. Merchants that were holding clearance sales reported buying greater than any they had ever experienced. The business rush continued through the early part of this week and merchants that had advertisements in The Plymouth Mail reported an unusually heavy call for advertised merchandise.

The weekend sales event was emphasized particularly strong in The Plymouth Mail Buyers' Guide of which 14,000 copies were mailed to neighboring communities. In addition to the Mail Buyers' Guide practically 5,000 copies of the regular issue of The Plymouth Mail carried the sale messages to all of the residents of the city and surrounding area. With over 19,000 copies of their sale and merchandising advertisements reaching into homes in and around Plymouth's trading area it can be readily understood why the unusual buying activity.

Gravel Poured on City's Streets

In order to keep the city's streets in repair, gravel is regularly poured on the roadways. In the past week, Amelia, Garfield and Maple streets have been paved with about 160 yards of gravel. Recent rains and warmer weather have caused deep ruts in the city's unpaved streets, necessitating the gravel repairs, it was announced by the city engineer's office.

Suburban Shrine Elects Officers

The Suburban Shrine club held their annual election of officers last week for the year 1950. Roy L. Christenson, of Plymouth, was elected president for the coming year.

Other officers elected are as follows: N. K. Pattison, of Northville, vice president; A. N. Carnes of Plymouth, secretary treasurer; board of governors, A. Blake Gillies, of Plymouth; Joseph Measel, of Farmington; Haze F. Bennet, of South Lyons; Fred Hearn, of Plymouth; William Taylor, of Northville; Charles Huebler, of Plymouth; Roy LeMaster, of Northville; Joseph N. Wells, of Detroit; Earnest Kay, of Garden City; and Lewis Nickles, of Farmington. Arthur Ottowitz, of Plymouth, will head the publicity committee.

Glassford Represents City in Phone Rate Discussion

At the last meeting of the city commissioners, Albert Glassford, city manager, was authorized to represent the city at a meeting of the Public Service commission, January 23 in Lansing.

Committees Set for Symphony Ball Saturday

Last minute plans are being completed as Plymouth awaits the third annual Symphony Ball to be held this Saturday night in the high school auditorium at 9 p.m.

Tickets for the ball, which is sponsored by the Plymouth Symphony Society, are going fast, it was announced by Mrs. Russell Daane, general chairman. Anyone wishing to secure a ticket should contact Mrs. Mildred Barnes, ticket chairman, who may have some available.

Entertainment during intermissions at the ball will be provided by the expert ballroom dancing of Audrey Neale and William Rodgers. Miss Neale's daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Neale of Auburn street and a graduate of Plymouth High school, has danced professionally for several years and taught dancing in studios in Detroit. She and her partner will give four numbers—a Viennese waltz, a rumba, a tango and the newest of South American dances, the samba.

Paul Wagner, Director of Symphony Society

Mr. Rogers is from Detroit where he also taught ballroom dancing. He is the winner of many national dance contests.

Mrs. John Blossom and members of her decoration committee will be busy Saturday dressing up the auditorium for the gala occasion. She has been assisted by art students of Plymouth High school, under the direction of Mrs. Frances Overton, art instructor.

Other committee chairmen include Mrs. Helmer Nelson, refreshments; Mrs. Charlotte Comer, cloak room; Mrs. Edwin Rice, guest book and Mrs. H. E. Raaflaub, publicity. Paul Wagner is director of the Plymouth Symphony which will receive proceeds of the ball in order to provide more and better music in Plymouth.

NINETY-SIX NEXT TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Todd will entertain members of their families at their home Saturday evening at 844 Simpson honoring Mrs. Todd's father, Albert Trinkhaus, who will celebrate his 96th birthday next Tuesday.

Plymouth Debaters Win Second League Title

Winning the Detroit Metropolitan League championship is practically a habit for Plymouth High School debate teams. For the second time in two years they defeated Pershing High School in Detroit, to walk off with the league title. Gladys Witt, left center, accepts the gold cup for Plymouth from Natalie Klimecki of Pershing. Witnessing the presentation are, left to right, Plymouthites Ronald Witt, Larry Mack and Rodger Kidston. Natalie's associates are Eugene Duston, Quin Adamson and Rosemary Lychuk. If Coach James Latture's excellent debate teams can win the title next year they will have permanent possession of the gold trophy.

Petitions For Commission Candidates Due

Election of three city commissioners will take place next April 3. Petitions for candidates must be filed by noon a week from Saturday on January 28, it was announced by Albert Glassford, city manager. The petitions require the signatures of 250 registered voters of the city.

Primary elections will take place February 20. If no more than twice the number of candidates needed are nominated, then a primary election is not necessary. Those elected will serve a two year term.

The three commissioners whose terms expire are Cass S. Hough, Eleanor Hammond and Floyd Tibbitts. Hough was not available for a statement as to whether he will run for the office. Mrs. Hammond did not comment on whether or not she will re-run for the commissioner's job. Tibbitts has stated definitely that he will run for re-election. At this time no petitions for other candidates have been filed or are known to be in circulation.

Harry Lush Marries Charlotte Walker In Tucson, Arizona

Announcement was made on Monday by Mrs. Claude Gebhardt of the marriage of her sister, Charlotte Loretta Walker, to Harry R. Lush at a ceremony held last Saturday at Tucson, Arizona.

The marriage of the well known theater owner came as a complete surprise to his many friends here in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Lush expect to build a residence at Rancho Sante Fe, California where they will make their future home.

Penniman Building is Sold by Evans

Final papers were closed this week concluding the sale of the Penniman building directly across from the post office by Mr. and Mrs. Gar Evans. The Evans purchased the building, which houses Thomas Market and the Goldstein Department store with offices upstairs, about three years ago. Purchaser of the building was Floyd Kehrl, president of the First National bank.

Woman's Club Special Meeting Set for Jan. 24

The special meeting of the Plymouth Women's club is scheduled for Tuesday, January 24, at 2 p.m. in the grade school auditorium. All members are urged to attend this important meeting. The next regular meeting of the club will be held in February.

VET RECEIVES FIRST CHECK

The first veteran reported to have received his G. I. Insurance dividend check is Carl Cook of 11059 Gold Arbor road. Cook received his check January 16. He had served 32 months with the quartermaster corps in the states.

Petitions For Charter Changes Sent Governor

At the January 16 meeting of the city commissioners, Harry Deyo, city attorney, presented his report on the six petitions for amendments to the city charter which had been filed with the city manager. Each petition had the signatures of at least 250 qualified voters.

Copies of the proposed charter changes have now been sent to the Governor for his study and decisions. This is the usual procedure for city charter changes and the action was authorized by the city commission. The commission now awaits the consideration of the governor on the matter.

Club Will Hold Dinner Meeting

The Business and Professional Women's club of Plymouth will hold a dinner meeting Monday, January 23, at 6:30 p.m., at St. John's Episcopal church.

Under the direction of the vocational and educational division of the club, the program for the meeting will consist of two speakers, Miss Donna Baker, principal of the Rosedale Gardens grade school, and Miss Helga Oltersdorf, a former German student. Miss Baker was an exchange teacher in Germany.

Miss Florence Gableman has been appointed treasurer to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Patricia Robinson, who is now residing in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The committee for the dinner meeting is composed of Mrs. Duane Parkes, chairman; Mrs. Rockwell Smith, Mrs. Norma Cassady, Miss Ingeborg Lundin, Miss Sarah Gayde and Mrs. Charlotte Comer.

Remodels Store After Big Sale

After closing their gigantic dissolution of partnership sale the Robert Simmons Jewelry store has been completely remodeled and redecorated. The sale brought about an end of the partnership between Robert Simmons and O. M. Valliquette, Mr. Simmons buying out the full ownership of the organization.

Since the reopening of the store a $10,000 merchandise gift campaign has been started which has created much interest in the diamond contest announced by Mr. Simmons.

Father and Son Banquet Thursday, February 2nd

The annual Presbyterian Men's Brotherhood father and son banquet will be held on Thursday, February 2 in the parlors of the church. Plans are being made to accommodate 200 fathers and sons at the affair according to Chairman David Mather. Dinner will be served by the ladies auxiliary and movies of fishing and hunting will be shown for entertainment that evening. Tickets can be secured from either Mr. Mather, Elvin Taylor or Dr. Elmore Carney.

Mr. Deyo declared that all the petitions filed comply with the provisions of Act 279, Public Acts 1909. In the opinion of Mr. Deyo the proposals definitely restrict the powers of the city manager, but do not necessarily change the form of city government.

The petitions are as follows: 1. An amendment defining who shall be administrative officers or employees of the city and providing for certain matters relative to administrative officers.

2. An amendment to make the city manager general administrative officer of the city and to separate the offices of the city manager and the city clerk.

3. An amendment to exclude administrative officers from appointments and the removal power of the city manager.

4. An amendment creating a trial board to hear charges against employees and authorizing the city manager to initiate proceedings for the removal by the city commission of administrative officers serving under his direction.

5. An amendment to increase from $300 to $500 the amount of any purchase or sale without competition.

6. An amendment to elect rather than appoint the city representative or representatives on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

Benefit Game Augments Fund

A benefit basketball game at the Detroit House of Correction Sunday augmented the March of Dimes fund by approximately $60. This money was donated by the inmates and spectators who witnessed the game between the First National Bank and Pontiac teams.

Miss Neva Lovewell, chairman of the drive in Plymouth, urges all who mail their contributions to please credit the donation to Plymouth. Contributions may also be sent directly to the March of Dimes account at the First National bank on Penniman avenue.

Placing of the March of Dimes containers has now been completed. For the convenience of the public, the containers are in a conspicuous place in all local stores and offices. The money is collected for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis which aids polio victims all over the country.

Hardware Store Adds Light Fixtures

Announcement is made elsewhere in this issue of the fact that the Plymouth Hardware store is now carrying a complete line of lighting fixtures for general home use. Manufactured and designed by Moe, the line includes all fixtures that anyone would desire in homes, offices or other buildings.

Eunice Garchow Weds in Nuptials at St. Michael's

Vases of white gladioli and lighted tapers were the altar decorations at St. Michael's church in Rosedale Gardens when Eunice Garchow became the bride of Bill Magee. The 11 o'clock ceremony was read by the Rev. Father Patrick J. Sullivan on Saturday, January 14.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Garchow of Ross street, Plymouth, the bride chose a colonial style gown of white satin. Her gown was detailed with a yoke of illusion edged in ruffled net and finished with a high round neckline. The fitted bodice buttoned to the waist in the back. Tiers of lace ruffles accented the full hooped skirt which ended in a circular train.

The bride's fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a prayer book on which two white orchids rested. Mr. Garchow presented his daughter in marriage.

Duties of the maid of honor were performed by Bonnie Jean Fuhrman of Detroit. For the ceremony the honor attendant donned a gown of blue satin. A short blue veil was attached to a coronet of blue flowers for Miss Fuhrman's headpiece. Pink carnations were in the bouquet she carried.

Wearing a gown of pink satin, Betty Jean Wagoner of Plymouth acted as bridesmaid. Her headpiece was a coronet of tiny pink flowers, and matching pink veiling. She carried blue carnations tied in pink ribbon the same shade as her gown.

To be his best man the bridegroom asked William White of Detroit. Ushering at the nuptial rites was the bridegroom's brother, Fred Magee. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Magee of Hubbard road, Plymouth.

Navy blue fashioned the dress which the bride's mother wore. Her accessories were grey and as a final touch she pinned a corsage of yellow carnations to the shoulder of her coat. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Magee, chose a dress of black and pink with black accessories. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Following the wedding, members of the bridal party and immediate family were guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. Agnes McCoy at the home of Mrs. Hayes on Five Mile road. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Garchow held open house at their home at 936 Ross street in honor of the newly weds. Approximately 80 guests attended the evening reception.

A two week honeymoon traveling in Florida was the wedding trip planned by Mr. and Mrs. Magee. For traveling the bride chose a two piece dress of pink wool jersey and black accessories. Her corsage was of white orchids.

A graduate of Farmington High school, Mrs. Magee is employed by the Fisher Insurance agency in Plymouth. Mr. Magee attended Plymouth High school and is a veteran of World War II having served in the medical corps.

Upon returning from their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Magee will reside in Plymouth on Fairground street.

Celebrates 100th Birthday Sunday

Having a hundredth birthday is just another event in the day's occupation for Susan Lennox, local resident who will celebrate that occasion next Sunday. Other than the fact that her son and daughter-in-law with whom she resides, Mr. and Mrs. John Lennox of 258 Joy street, are planning an open house for family friends and neighbors to honor her 100th birthday, she would be just as well satisfied to sit and hear her favorite radio programs. Since her hearing and eyesight started to fail a few years ago her main occupation is enjoying radio programs during her waking hours. Several months ago she gave up smoking which has been one of her favorite pastimes for 65 years. This habit she acquired as the result of a doctor prescribing a pipe and Mullen weed as a sure cure-all for a stomach ailment she had been troubled with. There is no doubt about the effect of the Mullen weed, says Mrs. Lennox, because for over 50 years her trouble has been cured. The mother of five children, Mrs. Lennox has made her home in and around Plymouth for about 60 years, having come to this section from Rockford, Illinois, where she was born on January 22, 1850. In reminiscing of her early childhood, she can readily remember her mother weaving all of the family clothing, and it is hard for her to compare the hardships of 100 years ago with all of the luxuries we have today. She can vividly remember her grandfather, father and uncles going off to fight in the Civil, Boer and Spanish American wars, but memories of the hardships of some of those times have apparently been forgotten.

Mrs. Glenn Fraleigh entertained a group of ladies at her home on Gold Arbor road Monday evening.

Mrs. Margaret Stremich entertained the Liberty street bridge club at her home on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Betty Worth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Worth of North Territorial road is convalescing at her home from an arm injury suffered at school.

Dinner guests of Mrs. Nina Blunk on Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Potter and daughter, Jacqueline, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Blunk, Mr. and Mrs. John Radosky and Mrs. Norman Potter. The dinner was in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Donald Potter.

The Jolly 12 club entertained on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everett of Haggerty highway. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Olds, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ash, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rubey and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cook who substituted for Mr. and Mrs. Horace Truesdell who were unable to be there.

Convicted For Buying Liquor For Minors

"No leniency will be shown anyone charged with buying liquor for minors," declared Judge Nandino Perlongo following the settlement recently of just such a case in Plymouth.

On January 13 a young man from the area pleaded guilty to the charge of contributing to the delinquency of minors. He had purchased liquor for a group of boys December 16. The boys later got into a fight and were picked up by the city police. An investigation was held in order to determine where the youths got the liquor, knowing only persons over 21 years of age can sell liquor in the state of Michigan.

The investigation led to the arrest of the adult responsible. Judge Perlongo, at the hearing, stressed the seriousness of the charge. He emphasized that he is completely unsympathetic with those who feel they are doing minors a favor by buying liquor for them, and he will heavily penalize those convicted of this charge.

DAVIS & LENT'S DIRTY SHAME SALE

Sometimes we hate to put on a Clearance Sale... 'cause all the stuff gets dirty from so many people pawing over it to get the biggest values... and that's just what happened last weekend. Not all of it is dirty... but this weekend we hope to continue the sale to get rid of the odds and ends (plus some newly sorted out stuff). So we're calling it a "Dirty Shame Sale"... because some of it's soiled from handling, but more so because it's a shame to let go of these things so dirt cheap.

Come on, then... you guys... deal yourself in a few of these clothing items (groan) at the crazy price we are happy (sob, sob) to offer. Take 'em home this time... don't just paw 'em over and leave them for someone else (lucky?? man).

SUITS... There's really nothing wrong with these, except they didn't sell fast enough to run us out. But don't tell our stockholders about the give-away prices... then they'd know why we don't make any money. Where can you get a 40-buck 2-pants suit nowadays? Naturally, we have the answer, right here. It's a $7.50 job for forty dollars, plus 35-odd cents. Then we've got a couple 1-pant models reduced from 49.50 and 60.00 to 34.65 and 42.00. Gads, a steal!

Ah, Ha SHIRTS... who's laughing? Nobody but the boss, cause he thinks with these low-advertised prices, you will think there's something the matter with the shirts (or our heads). But there isn't, except some of them are a wee-bit soiled... others with "noisy colors" to make some of you retiring types the personality kid... and whites, you should see 'em. They're honest-to-gosh 3.50 shirts we're letting you carry out for a dollar ninety-five ($1.95). Need we say, Hurry? When they're gone we'll say, Hurrah.

HATS... these have not been worn... only shop-worn and at that mostly by the clerks who when they have nothing else to do try them on for size. They won't buy them, but you will when you're told they have had 30 percent knocked off the price.

TIES, we're giving them away... yes, buy one at the regular price, and we throw another in just to make us both happy... we're getting rid of them... and we have some b-e-a-u-t-i-f-u-l (left over from Xmas). Dad doesn't dare wear them, but you will... if only for the laughs.

SPORT SHIRTS... some of these even der Bingle wouldn't wear... but others are quite (quite) nice... and you'll like the prices, too. We're nuts to give 'em away... especially the 6-50 ones for $2.95. You don't believe it? Then, come-on in and be convinced... or something. If we're busy the service will be lousy, but everyone else has mused up the piles, so you may as well, too. (Anyway, re-sorting the shirt stacks might keep Sam and Ed away from the hat rack).

SOCKS... some call them hose, but we're calling them specials at three for a dollar. Please don't try them on in the store, even the some of them cost $1.50 before the sale. We have all kinds, but don't expect every size in each color... this is a sale, you know, so don't be fussy... just take a handful and be sock-happy about it!

BASEMENT SPECIALS... if you dare, come into the basement with Ed or check with Charlie down there, and mull over the Sweaters, Jackets, Sport Coats and Wool Shirts which we're giving you with our 30% markup knocked off. Yup, we've put out these basement items and gone to the cellar with the prices. And for the working man, all work clothes are reduced 20% during the sale... and even if you don't work, grab a couple sets of overalls, you yard-birds, for your spring puttering around.

TOP COATS... yea, man, we're even throwing these to the masses! You'll see some for 27 and a half which sold for 35 and others which were a half a hundred bucks going for 35. Also, there are a few gabs and part wool gabs at special prices.

PAJAMA SPECIALS... if you dare, come into the basement with Ed or check with Charlie down there, and mull over the Sweaters, Jackets, Sport Coats and Wool Shirts which we're giving you with our 30% markup knocked off. Yup, we've put out these basement items and gone to the cellar with the prices. And for the working man, all work clothes are reduced 20% during the sale... and even if you don't work, grab a couple sets of overalls, you yard-birds, for your spring puttering around.

Services For Gustave Freund Held Jan. 16

Funeral services were held on January 16 for Gustave Freund of 824 Maple street who passed away after a short illness on January 13 at the age of 59. He had been a resident of Plymouth since 1921.

Mr. Freund was taken to the Schrader Funeral home. Afternoon services were held at St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church with the Rev. Edgar Hoenecke officiating. Mrs. Linnea Salow sang hymns, accompanied by Gerhard Mueller at the organ. Pallbearers included Messrs. David Taylor, Howard Last, Louis Westfall, Theodore Box, Jacob Brinks and Marvin Sackett. Interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Anna Freund; his two sons, Ferdinand Freund and Albin Krizman, both of Plymouth; two brothers, Ferdinand, of Centralia, Illinois, and William of New Douglas, Illinois; three sisters, Mrs. Alfreda Baker of St. Louis, Missouri, Mrs. Mary Lund of Carlyle, Illinois and Mrs. Harriette Eschel of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; and a grandson, Michael Krizman.

Mr. Freund has been employed at the Daisy Manufacturing company as night watchman for the past 16 years.

Joseph Koss Dies Suddenly

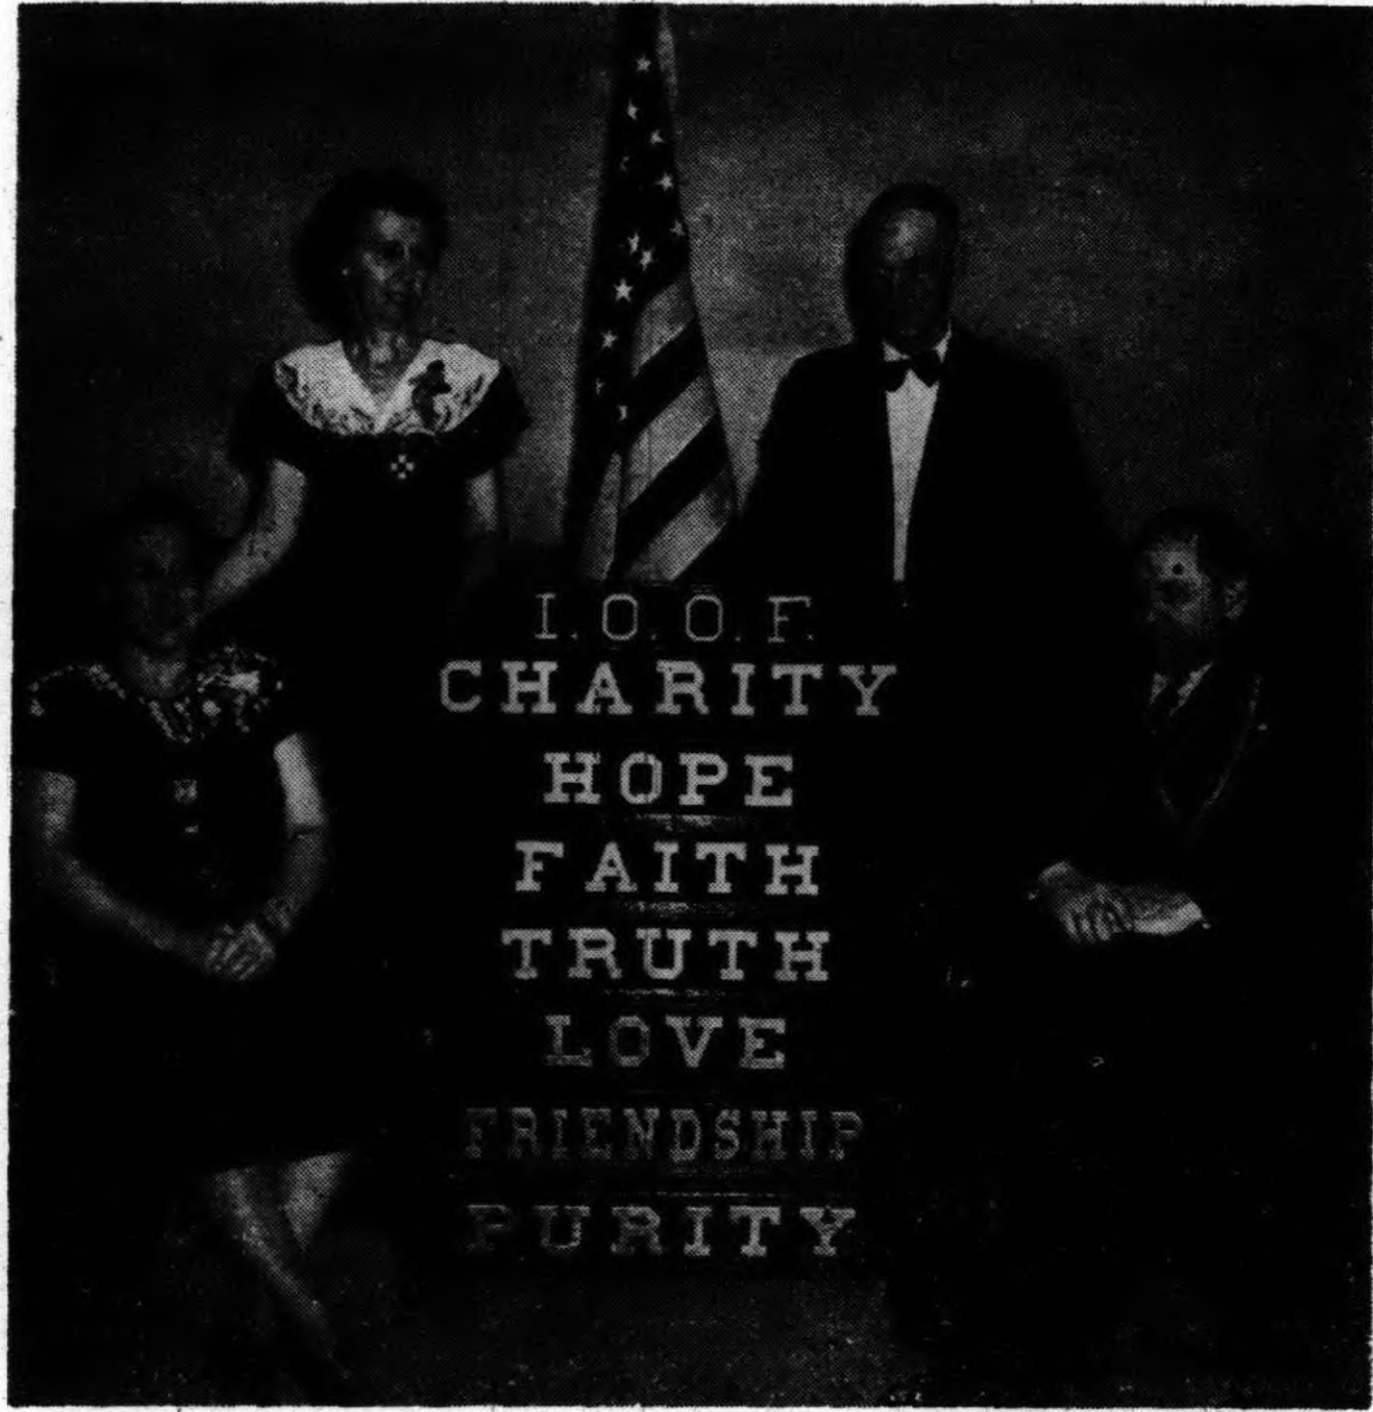

Joseph Koss of 41494 Joy road passed away suddenly January 14. A resident of Plymouth and vicinity nearly all his life, Mr. Koss was 65 years old.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, January 18 at 9 a.m. at Our Lady of Good Counsel church with Rev. William P. Mooney officiating. Pallbearers were Messrs. DeMoss Keith, Earl Bradley, William Rudick, Joseph Zielasko, Walter Klinke and John C. Gilles, Sr. Interment was in Mount Elliott cemetery, Detroit.

Mr. Koss was brought to the Schrader Funeral home and later was taken to his home where the rosary was said Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. by Father Mooney.

Surviving Mr. Koss are his two sisters, Miss Anna Koss and Mrs. Marie Walker; and three brothers, Frank, Walter and Raymond Koss, all of Plymouth.

Odd Fellows-Rebekahs Install Officers..

In a joint public installation ceremony Mrs. Roma Krumm, seated left in the picture, was installed as Noble Grand of the Plymouth order of Rebekahs, and Earl Gray, seated right, was installed as Noble Grand of Tonquish Lodge number 32 of the I.O.O.F. Installing officers were district deputy president, Irene Broegman, and district deputy Grand Master, George Mott. The installation was held Saturday night in the Odd Fellow hall where several state officers of both groups participated in the impressive ceremony. Nearly 150 members and friends were on hand to witness the event and hear musical selections offered by the Metropolitan Barber Shop quartet of Detroit, and solos by Dorothy Zanders who was accompanied on the piano by Mildred Collins.

Harry Johnson Named For American Legion National Committee

Harry O. Johnson of Plymouth has been named as a member of the American Legion national committee on education of orphans of veterans, it was announced recently by R. Gerald Barr, Michigan state commander of the Legion.

Johnson's new post was among the national and state appointments of the American Legion for 1950. He is a member of the Passage-Gayde post in Plymouth.

Optimists Hear U of M Professor

Members of Plymouth's Optimist club had the privilege of hearing an illustrated talk by Professor Russell Hussey, head of the University of Michigan geology department Monday evening. Professor Hussey told of the changes during the last millions of years that brought about the great mineral deposits in Michigan and other nearby states.

His talk was illustrated with color slides reconstructed by the University of the country in the different ages. The talk was one of the most interesting the club has had in many months. The professor was introduced to local Optimists by Dr. Glen Shipman, president of the Ann Arbor Optimist club.

Reports of the outcome of the club's first sponsored "Teen Age" dance were given by Chairman Charles Finlan. The second in the series of dance will be held this Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Engle acting as chairman of the chaperon committee.

Mrs. Albert Groth, Mrs. Joseph Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Rodman and O. F. Curtis and family, of Plymouth; and Cyril Rodman of South Lyon, were called to Urbana, Illinois on Wednesday to attend the funeral of Harley Baldwin of that city. Mr. Baldwin was the only brother of Mrs. Groth and Mrs. Tracy.

Don Peck Leaves For Position in Mt. Clemens

Don Peck, a member of the Willoughby Brothers firm for the past 11 years, will become manager of the Miller Shoe store in Mount Clemens next Monday, January 23.

Though Peck has thoroughly enjoyed his association with the Willoughby Brothers, he feels he should not overlook this opportunity for advancement. His last working day will be this Saturday.

Peck, who resides at 934 Hartwood street, will be especially missed by the Mayflower post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, which he helped organize after his discharge from service. At the present time he is service officer of the post and Mrs. Peck is president of the ladies auxiliary of the post.

Official Proceedings of Your City Commission

The regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Tuesday, January 3, 1950 at 7:30 p.m.

Present: Mayor Richwine and Commissioners Fisher, Hammond, Hough and Tibbitts.

Absent: None.

The clerk presented a report from Commissioners Hammond and Hough concerning the taxi-cab business.

It was moved by Commissioner Fisher and supported by Commissioner Tibbitts that the matter of the taxi-cab business be tabled until the next regular meeting so that the taxi-cab companies will have a chance to be read until the next regular meeting. Carried.

The Mayor stated that the space requested by Mr. James Davis was not practical for a bus depot because of the traffic problem.

The minutes of the regular meeting of December 19, 1949 were approved as read.

The Clerk presented the following reports: Statement of Receipts, Disbursements and Balances for November, 1949 and the Veteran's Information Center Report for November, 1949. Commissioner Hough presented an oral report concerning his meeting with the C & O Railway and the Public Service Commission stating that until the C & O decides whether they are going to have one track or two tracks on Main Street, no decision can be made concerning the type of protection needed at that crossing.

It was moved by Commissioner Tibbitts and supported by Commissioner Fisher that the above reports be accepted and placed on file.

The Clerk presented the following bills in the amount of $29,237.89.

It was moved by Commissioner Hammond and supported by Commissioner Tibbitts that the bills in the amount of $29,237.89, as presented by the City Manager and audited by the Auditing Committee, be allowed and paid.

Yes: Mayor Richwine, Commissioners Fisher, Hammond, Hough and Tibbitts.

No: None.

The clerk read Proposed Ordinance No. 158 to amend Section 26 of Ordinance No. 99 entitled "AN ORDINANCE to regulate the use and operation of vehicles on the highways within the City of Plymouth, Michigan, to provide for the arrest and penalties to be imposed upon persons violating the provisions of this ordinance, and to repeal all prior ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith."

It was moved by Commissioner Hough and supported by Commissioner Fisher that Proposed Ordinance No. 158, and Ordinance to amend Section 26 of Ordinance No. 99 entitled "AN ORDINANCE to regulate the use and operation of vehicles on the public highways within the City of Plymouth, Michigan, to provide for the arrest and penalties to be imposed upon persons violating the provisions of this ordinance, and to repeal all prior ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith" be passed its third reading. Carried.

A discussion of Proposed Ordinance No. 157, An Ordinance to prohibit the creation or maintenance of nuisances in, upon or in the vicinity of Public or Private property or in or upon public or private streets or alleys in the City of Plymouth, Michigan; To provide methods for the enforcement thereof and to provide penalties for the violation of such ordinance, was held.

It was moved by Commissioner Hough and supported by Commissioner Hammond that Proposed Ordinance No. 157, An Ordinance to prohibit the creation or Maintenance of Nuisances in, upon or in the vicinity of public or private property or in or upon public or private streets or alleys in the City of Plymouth, Michigan; to provide methods for the enforcement thereof and to provide penalties for the violation of such ordinances, be tabled until the next regular meeting.

It was moved by Commissioner Fisher and supported by Commissioner Hammond that Proposed Ordinance No. 159, known as the Electrical Ordinance, be tabled until the next regular meeting. Carried.

The clerk read a communication from the State of Michigan Water Resources Commission stating that a meeting will be held on March 21 and 22, 1950 to examine a suggested program for control of Municipal pollution in the Detroit Metropolitan area.

It was moved by Commissioner Hough and supported by Commissioner Tibbitts that the letter from the Michigan Water Resources Commission be received and placed on file.

The Mayor appointed Commissioner Tibbitts as the City's representative to any meetings held by the Michigan Water Resources Commission and make a report back to the City Commission of their decisions.

Commissioner Hough asked for permission for the Daisy Mfg. Company to purchase Church Street East of Union Street to the Railroad. He was informed that the proper procedure would be to present a petition and have a hearing on the vacation of said property.

The Mayor appointed Dr. John Olsaver as a member of the Board of Appeals.

It was moved by Commissioner Hough and supported by Commissioner Tibbitts that the Mayor's reappointment of Dr. John Olsaver as a member of the Board of Appeals be confirmed. Carried.

The clerk read a report from himself and a letter from Mr. Percy, Union representative of Local 862 of the American Federation of States, County and Municipal Employees relative to the Union's desires.

It was moved by Commissioner Fisher and supported by Commissioner Hammond that the report and letter be accepted and placed on file.

The clerk presented a letter from the Wayne County Board of Supervisors suggesting that the City Commission pass a resolution requesting the governor to place on his call for the Special Session of the Michigan Legislature in 1950 a proposed amendment to Act 199, Public Acts of 1933 (the horse racing law), to provide that 20 per cent of the revenue from horse betting, up to $500,000.00 from each race track, be paid to the counties in which such tracks are located instead of to the cities as presently provided for.

It was moved by Commissioner Hough and supported by Commissioner Fisher that the letter from the Board of Supervisors be accepted and placed on file. Carried.

It was moved by Commissioner Tibbitts and supported by Commissioner Hough that the meeting be adjourned. Time of adjournment was 10:45 p.m. Carried.

Signed: Perry W. Richwine, Mayor
Albert Glassford, City Clerk

SPECIAL MEETING

The special meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Thursday, January 12, 1950 at 7:30 p.m.

Present: Mayor Richwine, and Commissioners Fisher, Hammond and Tibbitts.

Absent: Commissioner Hough. This was the night set for a hearing on the Forest Avenue Paving between Ann Arbor Trail and Wing Street and the Simpson Avenue Improvements.

Mr. William and Mr. Joseph West inquired as to the widths of the driveways on Forest Avenue.

The following resolution was offered to Commissioner Fisher and supported by Commissioner Hammond:

WHEREAS, a public hearing has been held for the purpose of determining whether or not to construct an 8-inch concrete pavement with curb, gutter and appurtenances thereto on Forest Avenue from Ann Arbor Trail to Wing Street, and WHEREAS, no objections have been received by the City Commission, and

WHEREAS, the plan, profile and estimate covering the proposed improvement is now on file in the office of the City Engineer, and is hereby accepted.

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the assessment shall include sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66-2/3%) of the cost of acquiring an additional ten foot strip of land on the east side of Forest Avenue.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that in addition to the above, the assessment shall include sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66-2/3%) of the total cost of the pavement including curb, gutter and appurtenances thereto.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the City shall pay out of the General Fund thirty-three and one-third per cent (33-1/3%) of the acquisition cost of the 10 foot strip of land on the east side of Forest Avenue and thirty-three and one-third per cent (33-1/3%) of the total cost of pavement including curb, gutter and appurtenances thereto.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Assessor be directed to prepare an assessment roll covering the property owner's share according to frontage on Forest Avenue between Ann Arbor Trail and Wing Street. Yes: Mayor Richwine, Commissioners Fisher, Hammond and Tibbitts.

No: None.

The matter of the Simpson Street Improvements was explained and discussed.

It was moved by Commissioner Tibbitts and supported by Commissioner Hammond that the meeting be adjourned until 7:30 p.m. February 6, 1950. Carried.

Health Groups
to Provide Free Chest X-Rays

In an effort to combat tuberculosis, a free chest X-ray will be made available to adult residents, industrial workers and high school students of Plymouth. This service is provided by the Wayne County Health Department, the Wayne County Medical Society and the TB and Health Society and will start about February 6, continuing for two weeks.

A mobile X-ray unit will be furnished by the Michigan Department of Health as a part of the state-wide tuberculosis control program. The program has been approved by Dr. Harold J. Brisbois, Plymouth health officer.

Volunteers willing to aid in this program are asked to attend the first planning committee meeting today, Thursday, in the Plymouth city hall at 10 a.m. At this meeting the people of the community will decide on the best ways to obtain 100 percent participation in this community-wide case finding program.

Conservation
Club Serves
Venison Dinner

Venison and all the trimmings were served at the Western Wayne County Conservation Club's annual dinner, meeting on January 11 at the club house on Joy road.

Phil Barclay of Barney's Grill prepared the dinner with the assistance of members George Hubert, George Tarbet and John Reiser. About 200 members and friends attended.

Door prizes for the evening were a wool hunting suit from Davis and Lent, won by Gail Brewer of Livonia, and a rod and reel donated by Motor City Sport Shop of Dearborn, which was won by Roy Crites, club vice president. Walter Beglinger supervised the drawing.

Following the dinner Mr. Beglinger showed several colored motion pictures of hunting and fishing trips in Michigan and Canada. A special vote of thanks is extended by all who attended to Jack Miller, Jack Smooth, Jack Taylor, Ken Rood, George Hubert and all other members who contributed to the success of the dinner.

The regular monthly meeting of the club will be held February 1 at 8 p.m. The plans for the Western Stock Horse show and rodeo will be discussed.

School Groups and Parents Study Curriculum Changes

These are the chairmen of the school's extra-curricular activities, left to right are: Harry Fountain, 10th grade; Sarah Lickly, 12th grade; Colvir Cooley, 11th grade; Cyrus Pierce, principal; Harry Reeves, 9th grade; Mrs. Dorothy Stein, 7th grade; Donald Rank, 8th grade.

With physical facilities for an improved school program soon to be realized in Plymouth the attention of some parents and other residents has turned to the actual learning activities which are to be housed in the new school buildings. Participating in a local curriculum study of some 80 members are Mrs. Warren Worth, Mrs. Steve Veresh, Mrs. Bernice

In commenting on this, Paul Johnson, elementary coordinator, said, "The support which parents and the community in general has given to school projects during the past few years makes those of us who are in the school doubly anxious to do everything in our power to make the Plymouth schools the best in the

Thomas, Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Mrs. Leo Kowalcik and Mrs. Don Rank. The study groups have been meeting from 3 to 5 p.m. each Monday. About 80 per cent of the local school teaching and administrative staff is also participating in the study which is concerned with improvement in teaching methods in the high school and elementary schools and with the programs in health, art, music, audio-visual aids and occupational preparation.

School authorities have at various times expressed their appreciation for the interest shown state of Michigan. We have a really fine corps of teachers who are not only conscientious in their daily teaching but are willing to work at the job of improving their services to children and young people and to the community. I feel it is a duty we owe the community to keep it informed concerning our activities in the school.

Many activities of the local teaching staff are virtually unknown to the general public. In the high school one group of teachers which finds itself busily engaged with activities other than teaching at this time of the year is composed of class advisers. These teachers are instrumental in helping students plan their course selections for the coming semester. Chairmen of the various adviser groups are also often engaged in guiding students as they plan their many school activities. It becomes their responsibility to see that committees of students and faculty members work together to meet the needs of the entire high school student body. Following are the names of the high school principal.

Other groups are often engaged after school hours in planning the improvement of various phases of the school program. One such group, recently organized, consists of the school nurse, the dental hygienist, the speech teacher and the elementary coordinator. Organized for the purpose of better coordinating the various health services in the school, members will meet regularly on the first Thursday of each month to review work accomplished and especially to discuss problems which have arisen to which the group may give its attention.

cial problems is the group of second grade teachers pictured elsewhere in The Mail with the elementary art teacher and elementary coordinator. The meeting held last week for the purpose of evaluating the elementary art program also gave an opportunity for the exchange of information and to clear up any misunderstandings regarding instruction in art.

"Meetings such as these are most helpful," said Marie Post, elementary art teacher. "The classroom teachers are able to give information which enables me to do my work better. Also, I have an opportunity to explain what I am trying to accomplish in my teaching."

Operators Rated
Tops in Index

If the "voice with a smile" seems a little more cheery than usual these days chances are it is because the local switchboard operators of the Michigan Bell Telephone company have recently achieved a perfect record for operating skill, efficiency and courtesy.

Erwin Scherdt, manager of the Plymouth office, said the operators who handle local calls for subscribers here were credited with a "service index" of 100 for last month.

"It's the equivalent of shooting a hole-in-one in golf or pitching a no-hit baseball game," said Scherdt.

The noteworthy feat was accomplished by the 86 operators under the supervision of Mrs. Anne Jones, chief operator of the Plymouth office. Not many people outside the telephone business realize the importance telephone workers attach to the monthly index.

Those who have travelled in foreign countries universally agree that this nation has the best telephone service in the world. The Bell System—largest of 6,000 U. S. telephone companies—says one of the reasons has been the development and use of a method of measuring service quality.

Each department of Michigan Bell has its own formula for determining the effectiveness of the service it performs. The results are measured against a scale ranging from zero to 100. This scale, or measuring stick, is the "index." The constant aim of each department is to place as high as possible on the index.

Scherdt said the various indexes of the company have been set high purposely in order to encourage continuing improvement. An index of 97 generally is considered very good.

The various indexes are reviewed periodically and compared with previous indexes of Michigan Bell and current indexes of other companies associated with the Bell System. If there has been any slippage or if the index is disproportionately lower than for the rest of the system, steps are taken to correct whatever is responsible for the difference.

The traffic index, which is for the most part the measurement of operator services, is compiled through confidential spot-checks of that portion of actual calls which is handled by the operator. The checks are made daily and include observation of such things as speed in answering a customer's signal and accuracy in recording details of the call. Such observations do not intrude upon the privacy of conversation between the parties on a call.

Scherdt said the index provided an effective means of competition within the ranks of a business generally considered to be non-competitive.

"We are constantly trying to make each new index better than the last, better than other offices within our company, and better than other companies in the system," he said. "It keeps us on our toes all the time, but it enables us to know whether or not we are doing a good job. The mere existence of a standard keeps us alert to our service objective."

"Telephone people are traditionally known for their 'spirit of service.' The index helps them give that little something extra—call it personal satisfaction or pride in their work—which makes American telephone service what it is," Scherdt concluded.

The remarkable thing about family pride is that people can be proud of so little.

New Director Guest Speaker at Men's Club

Last Thursday evening the Men's club of St. John's Episcopal church met for their monthly dinner meeting at the church. The speaker for the evening was Rev. Francis Ayres, director of Parishfield, the new diocesan center near Brighton.

The Rev. Mr. Ayres gave an interesting talk about the work of the personnel at Parishfield, and told the men how they hoped to make the center an important influence in the lives of Christian men and women throughout the diocese of Michigan.

"If Christianity has no bearing on our lives, then the fault is with us," Mr. Ayres stated. "Parishfield is designed primarily for the use of clergymen and laymen in similar fields of occupation to discuss and probe ways and means of applying the teaching of our Saviour to our everyday lives."

The president of the club, Arden Sackett, announced that the next meeting of the organization would be held Thursday evening, February 9 at 6:45 p.m. Dinner will be served as usual, and the speaker of the evening will be Prof. Mischa Titiev, head of the anthropology department of the University of Michigan, who will discuss the bearing of recent moves in the far east with the world political situation. The meeting will be open to the men of the community, who would like to attend, but you are asked to call the church office, 1730, if you intend to come in order that we have enough food.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. Rev. Henry J. Walch, D.D., minister. Church school, 9:45, classes for all ages. Morning worship, 11, sermon by the pastor. The Session will meet Wednesday, January 25 at 7:30 p.m. The annual Father and Son dinner will be held Thursday, February 2 at 6:30 p.m. in the church dining room. Tickets may be secured from David Mather and must be purchased by Sunday, January 29.

SALEM FEDERATED CHURCH. C. M. Pennell, pastor. Sunday morning worship, 10:30. "Forbid Him Not" will be the text of the sermon. Bible school, 11:45 a.m. Cottage prayer meeting, Wednesday evening, 7:30 p.m. The Washenaw County Brotherhood plans to meet in the Federated church on Sunday, January 22, at 4 p.m., with Rev. Asa Compton of Whitmore Lake Methodist church as guest speaker, and at 7:30 when Dr. Wolf of Ypsilanti will bring the message. Our Aid meeting is to be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knowles Bueers Thursday, January 26, with dinner at noon.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH. Ann Arbor trail at Elizabeth St. Rev. Patrick J. Clifford, pastor. Bible school, 10 a.m. Ride our bus to Bible school. For information call 1413. Morning worship, 11:15. The First Christian Martyr
Lesson for January 22: Acts 6: 8-7: 60
Memory Selection: Revelation 2: 10

STEPHEN was one of the seven men who formed a committee for the equitable distribution of food and other necessities. It is recorded that he was "full of grace and power," and that he "wrought great wonders and signs among the people." He was a mighty witness for Christ. When certain ones who had disputed with him were vanquished, they took him before the council of the Sanhedrin. There the face of Stephen shone like that of an angel.

The council condemned him to death and he was dragged from the city to be stoned. This was contrary to the Jewish custom for such cases and also against the provision that the Roman authorities only could inflict the death penalty. The spirit of the martyr rose superior to agony and sin. As the stones were rained upon him thick and fast, he called upon Jesus to receive his spirit and then, kneeling down, prayed for those who were stoning him. Then merciful death closed his lips.

There is a great testimony for Christ in the death of Stephen. In the whole dreadful transaction, the anger and the murderous deed of his enemies marked their utter defeat in their contention with truth. Stephen's martyrdom must have had a great effect upon a young man named Saul, at whose feet the outer garments of those who stoned Stephen were laid. And the first Christian martyr has lived on through the ages as a powerful witness to the reality of the religion that can strengthen a man.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST. Sunday services at 10:30 a.m. Sunday school, 10:30 a.m. for pupils up to 20 years. "Truth" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, January 22. The Golden Text (Psalms 145: 18) is: "The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth." Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Psalms 89:14): "Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne; mercy and truth shall go before thy face." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 542): "Let Truth uncover and destroy error in God's own way, and let human justice pattern the divine."

Badminton Played at W.C.T.S. Every Monday

All are welcome to join in the badminton games played every Monday in the gymnasium at the Wayne County Training school. The games start at 8 p.m. and continue until 10:30 p.m. Last Monday 14 players were present on the five courts available. Anyone wishing to play and needs transportation to the Training school can call 1668-W.

Major manufacturers spent $12,500,000 for newspaper and magazine advertising last year promoting contests requiring box tops or labels with entries. More than $2 million was paid out to the winners.

UNCORKING THE NEWS

By CARL PETERSON

The nation's optics are on the Northwest's plans to curb juvenile delinquency. The idea is that parents are to blame for the crimes of their children, and when trouble develops Mom and Pop will have to meet the judge. The plan has worked in Baker and Lakeview, Ore., but now Eugene, Ore., will give it a major test. Most parents don't need this sort of threat to keep an eye on the kids, but there's no doubt some folks may take their family jobs more seriously if they're going to share junior's guilt. There's only one question. Who's to blame for the adult delinquent?

Congratulations to The Plymouth United Savings Bank for their presentations to various groups of the film showing how juvenile delinquency is curbed.

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan says that for the first time in history the world should be able to produce enough milk for all. Now all we need is enough of the milk of human kindness to go around. We have enough friendly service to go around. We also have the best prescription department in town. Accuracy is our key-word. So be sure. Depend on PETERSON DRUG, 840 W. Finney Racks Up 23 as Rocks Win Over Wayne For Third Straight

With Allan Finney sending 23 points through the hoop, the Plymouth Rocks won their third straight victory of the season, downing the Wayne Zebras 57-54 last Friday night.

By winning this game the Rocks are now tied with Ypsilanti for third place in the Suburban B league, Ypsi having lost to Redford Union.

Jumping to a quick 12-2 lead after five minutes of play, the locals were never behind, although Wayne was edging close in the last few minutes of play.

Allan Finney, a junior, scored Plymouth's first five points and Dempsey of Wayne netted the Zebras seven points in the first period, while Finney hooped eight in the initial quarter.

At the end of the first quarter, Plymouth had gained a 17-7 lead as Eckler, Ebersole and Finney played beautifully. Racking up 14 points in the second period as Wayne netted 10, the Rocks led at half time, 31-17.

Steadily coming up on the Rocks, Wayne outscored Plymouth in the last half, 37-26. Dempsey and Clark of the Zebras both got hot in the second half and put quite a scare into the locals.

At the end of the third quarter Finney had dropped in 19 points and most everyone was sure he would pass up Dwight Eckler's previous high of 23 against Northville, and possibly the school record of 28.

When the whistle sounded at the automatic, Plymouth was leading 52-47. From here Wayne, headed by Putman, outscored the Rocks 7-3 before the game ended.

Just after ringing up his 23rd point, Finney committed his fifth foul of the game and was put out with two minutes remaining in the contest. Young Allan was given probably one of the biggest ovations ever given a Plymouth sportsman as he made his way to the Plymouth bench. Having used only five players up to that time, Finney was ejected from the game. Coach John Sandmann sent in Bud Young.

Dempsey of Wayne was also put out on fouls right after Finney left the game and this evened things up again on both sides.

Dave Reitzel and Captain Dick Fenton played a brilliant game at guards bringing the ball down the floor and setting up the plays and they were equally good on defense.

Free throws played a large part in this game as Plymouth sank 13 out of 17 from the foot line and Wayne made 12 out of 18 charity shots. The local quintet sank 22 field goals out of 60 shots at the basket for an average of 37 per cent which is comparatively good.

Allan Finney made seven out of seven free throw attempts and Dempsey of Wayne sank nine out of ten free throws. Finney was also high in field goals made on, shots at basket, sinking eight out of 17.

Following is the individual scoring for the game:

PLYMOUTH-57

Player	fg	ft	tp
Finney	8	7	23
Ebersole	5	1	11
Eckler	5	3	13
Fenton	2	1	5
Reitzel	2	1	5

Trenton Team Leads Suburban 6-B League

With the basketball season almost half over we find Trenton riding along in first place in the Suburban B league and Redford Union holding down second.

The Trenton Trojans are the only undefeated team in the Six-B league with four victories in a row, having beaten Ypsilanti, Plymouth, Wayne and Belleville.

Redford Union's only loss was at the hands of a fast improving Plymouth quintet, while downing Ypsilanti, Wayne and Belleville.

Last Friday night, Trenton took an easy victory from Belleville, 36-22, with Don Mexicotte nailing 12 points for the winners. Redford Union upset a declining Ypsilanti five, 40-21.

The Plymouth Rocks with a record of two wins and two defeats are tied with Ypsilanti for third place and Wayne is down in fifth position with one and three setbacks.

The Belleville Tigers have lost to every team in the league except Plymouth, whom they play tomorrow night, Friday, at Belleville.

A non-league school with interest to Plymouth fans is Northville who were trounced by Ford Trade School last Friday night by a score of 47-22. This was Northville's second loss of the season, having bowed to Plymouth 45-43 earlier in the season.

The schedule for Friday night's tilts in the Suburban B league are Plymouth at Belleville, Trenton vs. Redford Union and Ypsilanti at Wayne.

Following is the Suburban 6-B league standings:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Trenton Trojans	4	0	1.000
Redford Union	3	1	.750
Plymouth Rocks	2	2	.500
Ypsilanti Braves	2	2	.500
Wayne Zebras	1	3	.250
Belleville Tigers	0	4	.000

Plymouth Mail Upsets DeHoCo

Downing the Detroit House of Correction last Monday night, by the score of 40-39, Plymouth Mail now boasts its second victory of the season against seven losses, in the Men's Basketball league.

Leading all the way Plymouth Mail was victorious by the slim margin of one point. At half time the boys from the press had taken a 22-9 lead over DeHoCo and a 31-28 advantage at the end of the third period.

Sammy Slough kept up his pace, scoring one point more than his average per game, netting 18 points. Phil Bosman dropped in 10 and Jack Scheel nine for the Plymouth Mail.

First National Bank, currently tied for first place in the Men's loop, trounced a first place team from Pontiac, 66-50, last Sunday in a benefit game for the March of Dimes.

The local cagers started off quickly, taking a 10 point lead but then letting their opposition tie them up. First National led all the way and at half time gained a 27-23 lead.

Charlie Fortner played a fine game along with Bill Perkins and Reinard Heinagar, who scored 25 points for First National. Fortner is probably the best ball handler in the league as he makes the game of basketball look easy.

Two Tied Teams Try For Lead in Girls' Basketball

Twin Pines and Daisy Air Rifle at the present time are leading the Girls' Inter-City basketball league with three wins and no defeats and these two teams will meet Monday night, January 23, in the high school gym for the first place battle.

Daisy smothered Northville on January 9 by the overwhelming score of 48-22 and Twin Pines outplayed Romulus 29-17 for their third straight victory of the season.

The girls' basketball rules state that in case of a tie for a certain position in the league standings, the team with the most points scored rates the higher position in the standings. In men's basketball, teams are rated the higher position in alphabetical order.

Following is the Girls' Inter-City league standings:

Team	W	L
Daisy	3	0
Twin Pines	3	0
Willow Village	2	1
Ypsilanti-1	2	1
Ypsilanti-2	1	1
Northville	1	2
Wayne	1	2
Romulus	1	2
Edison	0	2
Michigan Bell	0	3

Sports Writer Addresses Lodge

Plymouth Rock Lodge No. 47, Free and Accepted Masons, will open its social activities for 1950 with a dinner meeting January 27 at 6:30 p.m.

The guest speaker for this evening will be W. W. (Eddie) Edgar, state coordinator of bowling. Previous to his present position, Edgar spent many years on the staff of the Detroit Free Press, and has written articles for national magazines. His newspaper experience and background, and the many friendships he has made in the sports world qualify Edgar for his talk.

Tickets for the dinner may be obtained from any of the officers or by calling W. J. Gregory at Livonia 2997.

The books advertised luridly as naughty are usually not.

Plymouth Rocks Look For Fourth Consecutive Victory at Belleville

In hopes of pulling into a tie for second place in the Suburban B league, the Plymouth Rocks journey to Belleville in quest of their fourth straight victory of the season.

After losing four consecutive cage tilts, two league contests, the Rocks have won three in a row, two league tilts, to move into a tie with Ypsilanti for third place.

No matter how the game between Redford Union and Trenton turns out, if the locals win they will be in a tie for second place. Belleville has lost to every team in the league except Plymouth, and the Rocks hope to make it every team. Last Friday, Belleville was downed by Trenton, the league leaders, 40-31.

To date Plymouth has won three games and lost four, including non-league encounters. The Rocks have scored 258 points

Tie For First in Men's League

With both league leaders winning games last Thursday, first place in the Men's Basketball league was still held down firmly by First National Bank and Atchinson Chrysler.

First National Bank emerged victorious over Daisy Air Rifle, 44-33, with the winning margin coming in the last half at the DeHoCo gym.

Bill Perkins and Charles Fortner played a brilliant game for First National in quest of their seventh victory of the season. First National led by the slim margin of 20-18 at half time and a 32-26 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Perkins and Fortner performed beautifully in the second half with Fortner bringing the ball down and Perkins sinking the sphere through the hoop.

In the second game of the game evening at DeHoCo, Atchinson Chrysler won an easy victory over Tait's Cleaners, 48-41, to stay in a tie with First National for first place.

Atchinson Chrysler took a quick 8-0 lead, which they did not relinquish throughout the game. At half time Atchinson Chrysler took a 23-14 lead and at the end of the third period were ahead 39-31.

Vince Massaro of Atchinson Chrysler got hot in the last half, scoring 10 points and bringing the ball down the floor nicely.

After taking a sufficient lead Coach Zach Holmes was able to clear his bench of players, giving them all a chance to see action.

Vince Massaro led the scoring for the game with seven field goals and one free throw, netting him 15 counters.

Playing the Detroit House of Correction Tuesday, January 10, Atchinson Chrysler won a tough encounter 36-31 to keep pace with First National Bank in a first place battle.

With seconds left in the first half, Clare Ebersole sank a two pointer to give Atchinson Chrysler a 16-10 half time lead.

Clare Ebersole and Al Horton played a fine game as Clare controlled the basket and Al played an all around good game.

Sammy Slough scored 17 points one more than his average, to bring his total for the season to 130 in eight contests.

Following is the league standings not including games of January 16:

Team	W	L
Atchinson Chrysler	7	2
First National Bank	7	2
DeHoCo	4	4
Daisy	4	5
Tait's Cleaners	3	6
Plymouth Mail	1	7

Training School Cage Squad Wins

All three of the Wayne County Training school teams chalked up victories in the E and F leagues Saturday morning, January 14. The Bulldogs defeated the Buzzards 37-19. Felms and Woods took scoring honors for the winners with six points, while Agneie had four for the losers.

In the second game the Falcons downed the Indians 19-5 with Webb scoring eight points for the Training school squad. The Wolverines dropped the Junior Firemen in the third game 28-5. Chielolas scored 16 counters for the Wolverines.

The Falcons are now resting in first place in their respective league and the Wolverines are holding down second.

The center of population is moving westward. It is now on the western border of Indiana and will cross it by 1950, according to census experts.

I REMEMBER... BY THE OLD-TIMERS

From W. E. Burroughs of Independence, Kas.: "I remember when men folks wore cowhide boots winter and summer and the women wore hoops and three-foot trains on their skirts. Ladies of that era were so modest that if a man came to the door on wash day, they would take time to dry their hands and roll down their sleeves before opening the door."

From Robert H. Sedgwick of Chicago: "I remember what fun it used to be to climb trees—a sport which kids disdain nowadays. What has become of that energetic boy who boasted how high he could climb and, showing off, started climbing and then found himself unable to slide down for fear of getting a sliver or, worse, a rip in his pants because he had picked a thornapple tree by mistake?"

From Mrs. Sallie West of Jasper, Ala.: "I remember when a two-seated surrey with a fringe around its canopy top was the last word in family conveyances."

From Mrs. Mary Stewart of Chicago: "I remember chinning myself on the old-fashioned pulldown doorbells, which made a racket like a cowbell."

From Gertrude Richmond of Indio, Calif.: "I remember the wax dolls little girls used to play with and how the faces would melt if we let them sit too near the stove. Dolls were dolls in those days."

From Mrs. William Dast: "I remember when threshing machines were run by horse power and some bee hives were made of braided straw. I lived in Michigan in those days."

Shorts in Sports

by Al Larson

Half year students have always brought headaches to their coaches at the end of their term in high school and this year is no exception as the semester nears an end.

Coach John Sandmann is in a position to re-arrange his whole basketball team as Keith Ebersole and Dwight Eckler make their departure from Plymouth High school. With the Ypsilanti basketball tilt on January 27, Ebersole and Eckler will participate in their last sport for Plymouth High school.

Ebersole has been a participant in Plymouth High sports ever since he entered the educational center in the winter of 1946.

Basketball was Keith's first athletic achievement and he made the freshman quintet in the second semester of the year, where he joined Larry Finney, Jack Scheel, Ron Hees and other '49 graduates.

"Ebe" played fullback on the freshmen grid squad the following fall and was the regular tailback, under the coaching of Bob Newstead. Keith, growing all the time, played on the Plymouth reserve cage team throughout his sophomore year and when he became a junior he moved right up to the varsity quintet.

As a sophomore, "Ebe" exercised his athletic abilities as a half-back on the reserve football squad and he was able to play in a few varsity grid games, including Plymouth's smothering of Northville 50-0.

In the first half of his junior year in 1948, Keith made his letter under the coaching of John Klingebarger, who had replaced Bill Scott as Rock mentor.

Playing varsity football under the fine coaching of Eddie Bender, Keith made his letter playing half-back and showed good aspects of an athlete.

Although the cage squad won only two cage tilts, those being with Northville, Keith was one of the main spark plugs of the team and this was "Ebe's" only full year of basketball for the Plymouth varsity.

In the following spring Ebersole went out for tennis and became one of Carvel Bentley's star court men.

In the fall of 1949 Ebersole was elected captain of the football squad under the new coaching of Hilton Ponto and called the offense plays. "Ebe" also was picked as one of the best backs in the Suburban B league and was given an honorable mention on the Detroit News All-State grid squad.

With John Sandmann as coach of the basketball team this year, Keith has proven himself an asset to the Rock cagers. He has scored 61 points so far this year for an average of 8.7 per game.

Keith is probably the best athlete of the class of '50 and Coach Sandmann is still looking for a replacement on the squad for "Ebe" when he leaves the squad at the end of the semester.

Dwight Eckler will also leave the cage squad at the end of the semester ending his reign in Plymouth sports. Eckler first played freshman football along with Ebersole under Bob Newstead and then he waited until his junior year before he again went out for the grid team.

At first trying out for end, Dwight saw that Coach Eddie Bender was overloaded at this position and he then switched to tackle for which he and Bender were both happy.

Dwight played varsity football for Plymouth for two years, including this year with the coaching of Hilton Ponto and he was one of the roughest gridders on the Rock squad.

Reporting late to the Plymouth cage squad, Eckler did not play in the first game of the season with Farmington, but he soon moved up and was playing varsity basketball for John Sandmann.

In his first game Dwight was high point man against Ypsilanti while playing only in the second half of the encounter. Here, Coach Sandmann was determined that Eckler be put on the starting five.

Against Northville Dwight scored more than half the points for Plymouth, downing the Mustangs 45-43 as he hooped in 23 counters. Eckler to date has scored 68 points in six games for an average of 11.3.

Ebersole and Eckler were one of the best working combinations Coach Sandmann has had this year and we say farewell to these fine athletes and may their experience in Plymouth sports bring them fine rewards.

Easton-Packers Romp All Stars

With the London Tecumseh withdrawing from the Michigan-Ontario Amateur Roller Hockey league, whom the Easton-Packers were slated to encounter last Monday evening, the Packers played an all-star team instead, composed of players from Arcadia, Barons and Arena Flyers.

Posting the only shut-out of the season, Easton humiliated the all-stars 13-0 in a very free scoring game on the part of the Packers.

Eight goals were scored in the last period by the victors as four of them were netted within 43 seconds; three of these goals were slipped into the net in 15 seconds and two within five seconds.

Rusty Richardson starred for Easton, picking up five goals and an assist while Sam Tome pushed three goals and five assists into the net. Four of Richardson's goals and his assist came in the final stanza.

Bill Fershneider, Packer goalie, in registering the only shut-out this season also made 47 saves. A more brilliant performance could not have been made by a net minder than this masterpiece of work. Five major penalties were called in the last period, as three fights broke out among the players.

Next Monday night the Easton Packers will play the Arcadia Wildcats at Riverside in a battle for first place in the league.

The Christmas engagement of Martha E. Wilson of Buffalo, New York to Frank A. Szabo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Szabo of Buffalo, was announced by her foster-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ray of Starkweather avenue, Plymouth.

Miss Wilson attended Plymouth High school and was graduated from Lafayette High school in Buffalo. Her fiancé is a graduate of Bassick High school in Bridgeport, Connecticut and the New York State Institute of Applied Arts and Sciences in Buffalo.

The couple plan to be married in July and reside in Buffalo after their wedding.

Martha-Mary Chapel Will be Scene of March 18th Ceremony

Plans for a wedding at the Martha-Mary Chapel in Greenfield Village are in the making for Elizabeth H. Hitter and Robert E. Houghton, whose engagement was announced on New Year's eve by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hitter.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Houghton of Williams street, Plymouth, are the parents of Mr. Houghton, who is associated with the local branch of the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

A graduate of Plymouth High school, Miss Hitter is now employed by the Ford Motor company. She will become the bride of Mr. Houghton in a ceremony on Saturday, March 18.

Garden Club Plans Benefit

The Ways and Means committee of the Plymouth Garden club is sponsoring a program to benefit the club's general and scholarship funds. Under this program members of the club will give or attend individual benefit bridge parties from January 24 through February 14. Proceeds will go to the two funds.

Mrs. Peter Ralph Miller is in charge of the project. Anyone wishing to attend one of the bridge parties, which will be given both in the afternoon and evening, should contact Mrs. Miller, or any of the following committee members: Mrs. Roy N. Leemon, Mrs. Ward M. Jones, Mrs. Floyd Burgett, Mrs. Ralph G. Lorenz, Mrs. Austin Stecker, Mrs. Walter K. Sumner and Mrs. Russell Daane.

The scholarship fund is used annually toward a college scholarship awarded a 4-H girl who has distinguished herself in 4-H activities and has maintained a high average in school. She may attend a college of her choice.

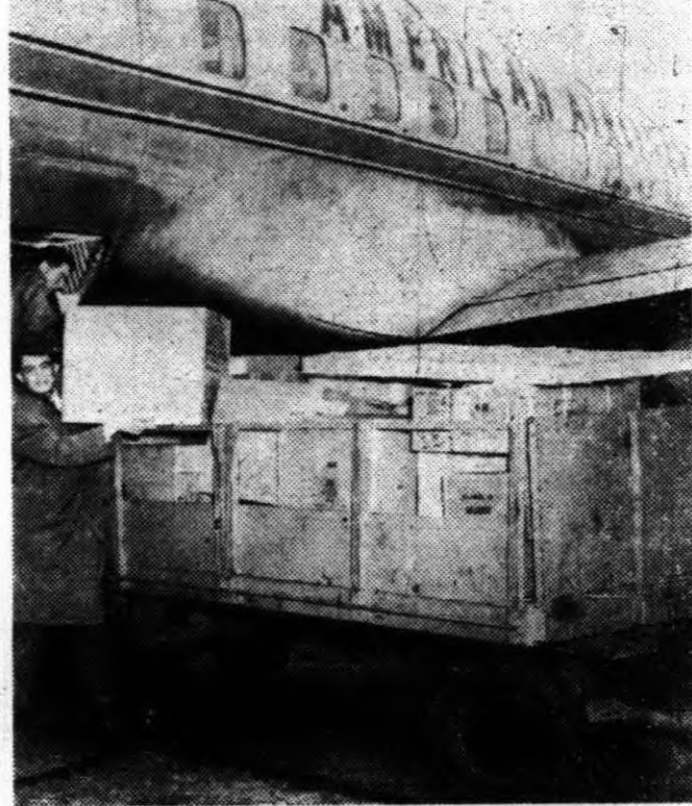

Husbands' night will be held February 13 by the club. Arthur A. Sinclair will give a chalk talk at this meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. in the First Methodist church.

Sewing Classes Prove Popular

A great deal of interest is being shown in the adult recreation Sewing classes which are held every Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the high school.

Several of the ladies are making suits as their first project. During the first class they studied the basic principles of design, proportion, unity, harmony, rhythm, balance and subordination, and how to adjust the commercial patterns. They were also taught something about the sewing equipment.

This week the ladies will study the standard figure used as a gauge, learn to make Berend button holes and inset pockets. The Tuesday night class is filled and there is only room for four more in the Thursday night class. You may call Mrs. Humphries at 1125 or Mr. Woolweaver at 93, if interested.

If your food budget is leaking, you can stop it by using the following tips:

- Butter left on butter plates may be used for cooking purposes in white sauce, gravy, vegetables and frying.
- Use leftover meat or meat juices or gravy or vegetable juices left from cooking vegetables in stews, meat pies, hash, soups and gravies. These flavorful juices add more flavor than just plain water and give nourishment too!
- Leftover garnishes of parsley, celery, stops and watercress may be "revived" by washing under the cold water faucet and used a second time.

Cut-up celery tops may be used to flavor roasts, meats and stews or bread stuffings. Or, combine them with cut celery, cook until soft and use a strainer. Use as a basis for cream of celery soup.

Mince leftover parsley and use for seasoning stews, meat pies, salads, sandwiches and vegetable dishes.

Leftover watercress may be minced and used as a garnish for soups, in salads or sandwiches. A few pieces of leftover fruit make an excellent garnish around meats or puddings.

Juices from canned fruits may be combined with other juices to use as a beverage or as the liquid in gelatin puddings, fruit cobbles, sauces for cornstarch puddings, or for basting meats, for sherbets and for tapioca puddings.

Hints For Plymouth Homemakers

New Antihistaminic Drugs Prevent Colds, Speed Cure

The common cold is only a fraction of the menace it used to be now that new drugs have been developed which help to prevent its onset, reduce its discomfort, and hasten recovery. These antihistaminic drugs, first used as treatments for hay fever, hives and certain skin allergies, can now be bought for the first time at drug counters without a doctor's prescription. They are safe and effective in the majority of cases.

Doctors know that when histamine is released in the body, it goes on a rampage. It causes you trouble in the form of allergic reactions of one sort or another, among them hay fever and the common cold. For the last five years, doctors have used antihistaminics to treat hay fever, hives and certain skin allergies.

Now, the United States Food and Drug Administration has cleared certain new antihistaminics for sale to the public without a doctor's prescription. Some, such as Pyribenzamine, are nasal sprays. Some are in tablet form, such as Inhiston, Kriptin, Antamine, Resistab and Anahist. The story of Anahist is especially dramatic.

Last year the manufacturers tested it on a group of convicts at Sing Sing. The test period ran from October of 1948 to April of 1949.

Of the convicts getting the drug within 48 hours after their first sniffle, 100 per cent responded to therapy. Those who took it within 24 hours were completely cured in little more than one day. Those who started taking the drug on the second day after the onset of cold symptoms took two days to clear up their colds. Those dosed more than two days after taking cold suffered as long as the others who got only dummy pills or standard cold remedies. No one in the drug-treated group developed secondary complications, such as bronchitis, sinusitis or pneumonia.

Two miles from Sing Sing, an even more startling experiment was launched among six hundred Sisters and students—male and female—of the Maryknoll Convent and Seminary, to find out if the drug would prevent colds if taken regularly.

Of the 100 subjects who took the presently-recommended daily dosage during the test period, 90 showed no symptoms of a cold at all. Seven developed first-stage cold symptoms—stuffy nose, sneezing, nasal discharge. Within 24 to 48 hours these symptoms disappeared. Only three of the 100 got full-fledged colds.

Of 300 subjects receiving dummy pills, 59 were free of colds, 62 got fairly heavy colds, and 179 got heavy colds, with malaise, thick discharge, cough. Eleven eventually had to be put to bed with complications—sinusitis, bronchitis or pneumonia.

Q—What do antihistaminics do?
A—They protect the cells from histamine's action and thus head off the allergic symptoms—sniffles, sneezes, bleary eyes, runny nose, and malaise, the medical term for "not exactly sick, but certainly not feeling well."

Q—When should you take antihistaminic tablets?
A—As soon as possible after exposure, preferably within the first hour after your first sniffle, in the recommended dosage. If a member of your family shows any signs of a cold, that's the time to start dosing everyone in your home.

Q—Can antihistaminics CURE a cold?
A—No. Doctors know of nothing that directly attacks the cold virus itself.

Q—Can they prevent a cold?
A—Yes. With development of antihistaminics it is possible, for the first time, to abort a cold before it develops. They are worth taking even when you have a bad cold, because they tend to reduce nasal secretion, and thus help prevent the spread of colds.

Q—Are antihistaminics safe?
A—Approval for sale of any drug, without a doctor's prescription, means that the Food and Drug Administration has found the drug safe when taken in recommended dosage. But FDA does not pass on effectiveness of drugs.

Local Farmers to Attend 1950 Farmer's Week

Farmer's Week, annual event at Michigan State college in East Lansing, marks its 35th anniversary this year. Dates for the 1950 program are January 30 to February 3.

The program includes meetings of the breeder's associations, agricultural engineering groups, dairy farmers, horse breeders, and other groups interested in forestry, poultry, conservation, wool marketing and sheep breeding.

Many farmers in the Plymouth area plan to attend all or some of the sessions. William Pickard of the Willoughby farms intends to go and is especially interested in the part of the program concerning dairy and beef cattle. Fred J. Korte of Warren road will attend the dairy meetings. Other farmers going to East Lansing with their families are Clyde Smith of Newburg road and John Schroeder of Six Mile road.

Speakers for the general meetings during the week include Alan B. Kline, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, who will speak on the topic "Farm People Look Ahead." Marquis Childs, writer of the syndicated column "Washington Calling," will address the first general meeting January 31. A top-ranking scientist, Dr. Gerald Wendt, is another speaker on the program. He will interpret for the layman news of vital developments in science.

Farmer's wives will be especially interested in the horticulture discussions and the home economics exhibits. Sessions will be held on food, nutrition and textiles, and a style show is being planned for the homemakers.

The Rural Safety Council, the Flying Farmers, the State Grange and the Beekeepers association will also hold meetings. Entertainment on the program includes movies of interest to farmers, concerts and educational exhibits.

Winter Menus Need Variety in Vegetables

Winter menus can have nearly as much variety as during harvest time, and many vegetables are still economical food buys for Plymouth housewives. With modern storage warehouses and cellars, many vegetables from Michigan fields continue to flow to our markets during winter months. Others are shipped in from southern states.

Here are a few hints on how to get the most from your winter vegetable dollar:

Cabbage — This vegetable is used by practically every family in the country, and would be even more popular if properly cooked. Cabbage is rich in minerals and vitamin C, and new cabbage contains vitamin A.

To prevent cooking odor, place the cabbage into a small amount of salted water, cover the kettle until the water boils again, then remove the lid for one minute to allow the volatile acids to go off in steam. Then re-cover tightly and cook for five or six minutes until done. All cabbage will cook in eight minutes or less. If overcooked, it will have strong flavor and become dark gray or brown in color. Both vitamins and minerals will be lost, the cabbage will be harder to digest, and there will be a strong odor in the house.

Carrots — Rich in vitamin A, carrots have become known for their ability to improve night vision. They also are a fairly good source of minerals and vitamin B.

When buying fresh carrots, you will probably do better to buy those topped and packed in cellophane bags. Although they look fresh with the tops on, the tops have probably had time to pull moisture out of the root, which makes the carrot tough. Before they are used, carrots should be kept in the refrigerator, either in the hydrator or in a wide-mouth glass jar with a tight lid. Cook them in a small amount of water, in a covered pan, only until tender.

Celery — Green celery leaves are rich in vitamin A, and the stems contain vitamin B and C. The main value of celery in the menu is for variety and flavor. It should be washed and placed in the refrigerator hydrator, or wrapped in a wet cloth to keep it fresh and crisp for salad or relish. It can also be used in soups, or as creamed celery.

Squash — Late or winter squashes most commonly found in the markets now are the large dark green, Hubbard and the small, ridged acorn variety. Look for winter squash or pumpkins which are heavy for their size, free from blemishes and have a hard rind. Acorn squashes are usually cut in half and baked, while the Hubbards are cut into individual sized portions. If only part of the large squash is cooked, the remaining portion will keep well if covered with waxed paper.

Turnips and rutabagas, although less popular than some of the other winter vegetables, make economical buys for boiled, mashed or buttered vegetable dishes.

To prevent spotting and water-soaking of linoleum around the sink, treat with an application of automobile wax.

Hickory Best of Fuel Wood

Did you know that when you "throw another log on the fire" you can choose its fragrance, the amount of heat and smoke it will produce, and even the color of its flame. All these characteristics depend upon the species of tree your logs were cut from.

In Michigan some of the finest fuel woods in the world are available. Many of these can be obtained by people in Plymouth who own wood-burning fireplaces. Americans burn about 45,000,000 cords of firewood a year.

Elm uses up more heat than it gives out; hemlock, spruce, tamarack and balsam make a fine, hot blaze, but display a fireworks of sparks; sapwoods of red gum and white oak burn quietly until heat strikes the heartwood; and then explode in red hot low-flying chunks. Paper birch burns with a brilliant yellow flame, apple wood burns colorfully and makes good coals, and sycamore burns tranquilly and reduces itself to complete ash.

Hickory, champion of the fuel woods, burns with a very hot flame and produces a long-lasting bed of coals. Pine, spruce and eucalyptus should be burned when they are half-green because the resins, oils and gums in them burn with a hotter flame than the wood itself.

Kitchen Magnets

Two new kitchen gadgets have literally magnetic personalities. One is a cutlery or tool rack which screws into a convenient wall. Just touch the blade of a knife to it, and the built-in magnet grips it firmly. A similar rack can be installed over a workbench to hold tools. The other kitchen gadget is a bulletin board which holds memos, pads and pencils between the magnetic "pull" of the board and small metal blocks.

Fruited Ham

Flavor combining is wise, especially when it's smoky ham and apricots. For joining these flavors, choose a ham slice about one inch thick. Place the ham on the broiler rack two inches from the heat and sprinkle with spices—allspice and cinnamon. Occasionally baste the meat with apricot juice. When brown, turn and sprinkle spices on the other side and repeat the basting process. When the ham slice is broiled, arrange apricot halves on top and return to the broiler just long enough to slightly brown the fruit.

Slim Skirts, Navy Gabardine Lead in Spring Suit Styles

Spring styles in suits will offer a wide choice to everyone, but, as always, the favorite will be the navy gabardine tailored suit. Skirts will be straight and very slim with three-panel backs and low-placed plaits to offset any bagging in the back.

There is no one suit that everyone feels she positively must have or else go into hiding. You will have a tremendous choice this spring, and if you can't find just what you want in color, fabric and style, you really are hard to suit. Of course, one type will always stand out, and this year that seems to be the very slick tailored suit. Gabardine is its preferred fabric still, and navy is its preferred color.

Slim is the word for skirts. Anything goes in jackets, but there is practically no choice at all in skirts. The suit skirt is a slim sheath. And that brings up the old worry—will it eventually develop a derriere? It need not. First, they have the best back ever designed—the three-panel back. Second, they have low-placed back plaits, which make a tremendous difference. Such skirts won't bulge. They won't catch you at the knee when you mount a step. And when you sit, they won't climb into your lap.

If you finally choose a suit without such ease, the skirt will still keep its shape if you press it after each wearing. Or line the back, part way, with taffeta, the lining being a half inch narrower than the panel.

Granted that navy is the leader in colors, it is followed closely by grey and lovely powdery beiges, and taupe, which looks so marvelous with white blouses. After these any color, with yellow strong for the south. Other materials—serge, which has returned after a long time away, the usual glen plaids and mannish worsteds, tweeds, and above all pin checks.

A new V neckline is making its debut this month. You can see it in one dress number with a notched V neckline. The over-skirt has loose panels that are a great help to the new straight silhouette, as they give it an effect of ease.

The bloused back is the detail of first importance in some of the new spring dresses. Paris introduced it in the last openings. And drop-shoulder sleeves are another Paris idea. They are combined in a perfect wool-jersey dress for early spring.

Here Is Another Time The Anti-Trust Lawyers Were Wrong!

Ever since the anti-trust lawyers filed their suit to put A&P out of business, they have been making, in the newspapers and over the radio, various "allegations" about how they think this company does business.

Please remember that "allegations" are charges that have not been proved.

In this case they will be disproved.

There have been times in the past when the anti-trust lawyers made very damaging "allegations" about this company that the courts eventually decided were utterly without foundation.

In our last advertisement we told you about the time the anti-trust lawyers charged that A&P, two other fast chains and two labor unions conspired to fix the price of bread in Washington, D. C.

And yet, when this case came to trial, it was revealed that the defendants were actually selling bread cheaper than most other stores in Washington, and there was absolutely no evidence that they had ever engaged in any such "alleged" conspiracy.

That was the time Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty."

It was the time he said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"If you were to show this record to any experienced trial lawyer in the world, he would tell you that there was not any evidence at all.

"Honestly, I have never in my over forty years' experience seen tried a case that was as absolutely devoid of evidence as this. That is the honest truth. I have never seen one like it."

But this was not the only time that the anti-trust lawyers made such serious "allegations" against A&P which were false. Again, and still again, they brought cases against A&P and suffered defeat.

As we have said, we think you are entitled to know about these other cases. And now, we are going to tell you about the second time the anti-trust lawyers were wrong.

The North Carolina Potato Case

In December, 1941, the anti-trust lawyers brought a criminal suit in Wilson, North Carolina.

They charged that A&P's fresh fruit and vegetable buying subsidiary, and other good American citizens, had conspired to fix and depress prices paid farmers for potatoes in North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland.

Can anyone imagine any charge calculated to be more damaging to a retail grocery business that must rely on farmers, day after day, for the food we distribute to our customers?

In this case the anti-trust lawyers gave a story to the newspapers, telling millions of farmers that we were the kind of people who would force their prices down, deprive them of a decent income, and lower their families' living standard.

These charges were false.

They made these charges despite the fact that it has always been A&P's policy to pay our farm suppliers fair market prices for all produce; to aid agriculture through better distribution of its products; to narrow the spread between farm and retail prices; and to help farmers build better markets for their products.

That is why many thousands of farmers all over the country are now coming to our support.

When the case finally came to trial, the anti-trust lawyers put on as their first witness a potato expert of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

This expert, who was the anti-trust lawyers' own witness, testified that contrary to the anti-trust lawyers' "allegations," the defendants made every effort to help the Department of Agriculture in its efforts to aid the potato farmer in better marketing of his products and in getting a better price for his products.

When the anti-trust lawyers had put in their evidence and had argued their case Federal Judge C. C. Wyche directed the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty."

Judge Wyche said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"I have studied this case from the very outset. In my opinion there is no testimony produced from which it can reasonably be inferred that the defendants entered into a combination to depress or lower the price of potatoes.

"I might say that I never tried a case in my life where a greater effort, more work, more investigation had been done, combing almost with a fine-tooth comb to gather evidence, as was done in this case.

"But, as was said a long time ago, you can't make brick without straw, and you can't make a case without facts."

So, here was a case in which the anti-trust lawyers made seriously damaging charges against A&P in which the Judge decided that there were no facts to support those charges.

That is why we say the anti-trust lawyers can be wrong and have been wrong.

That is why we say that they are wrong again, just as they were wrong in the Washington bread case and the North Carolina potato case.

We are going to show the American people that the suit to destroy A&P is really a suit against efficiency and against real competition.

The real question involved in this suit is whether businessmen are going to be encouraged to do a better and more efficient job; or whether we are going to let the anti-trust lawyers in Washington blow the whistle on anybody who gets big by giving the people more for their money.

No one can make us believe that it is a crime to try to sell the best quality food at the lowest possible price.

Central PTA Offers Panel on Delinquency

The Central Grade school Parent-Teacher association will present a panel discussion on juvenile delinquency January 24 in the school auditorium at 8 p.m. The Starkweather PTA has been invited to attend this meeting.

The discussion will follow a showing of the film "Glass Houses," a movie on juvenile delinquency. Ray Williams will act as moderator and members of the panel include A. Blake Gillies, warden of the Detroit House of Correction; Perry Richwine, the mayor of Plymouth; George Canfield, vocational director of Plymouth High school, and Warren Smith, representing the parents' viewpoint. The panel members were selected in order to provide various outlooks on the delinquency problem.

Mrs. Elvin Taylor is program chairman for the evening. Following the discussion Miss Kathryn Beck, fifth grade teacher at the high school, will give a report on the recent activities of the Italian school which received school kits from her students two years ago.

Bell Almanac Now Available

The Michigan Bell Telephone company announced today that the 1950 edition of the perennially-popular "Telephone Almanac" is now available to the public, without charge, at all of its business offices.

Theme of this year's almanac is the romantic and interesting account of man's efforts to communicate with his fellowmen. Words and pictures trace his progress in this endeavor from the day when he used drums, horns and cannon, up to his present-day use of radio relay, teletype and a telephone in his automobile.

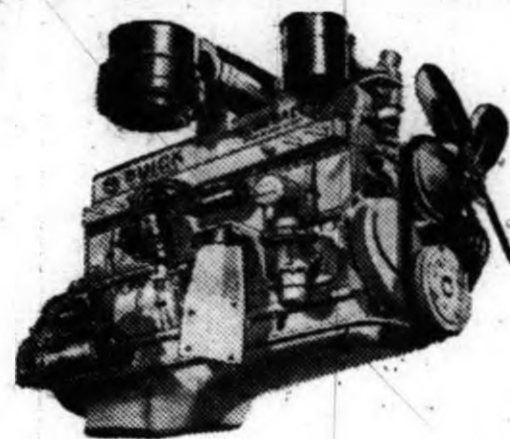

In addition to the traditional astronomical observations and other useful information, the new edition contains the usual Rebus, or brain-testing word picture puzzle.

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR, ABC Network, every Monday evening.

HOTTEST ENGINE NEWS of 1950

That's the word spreading about Buick's brand-new F-263 valve-in-head engine, already proving itself in the hands of new SUPER owners

CALL it if you will the biggest power-story of the year. Call it another triumph in Buick's long history of coming up with car performance beyond compare.

But, sir, when you step into the sleek-lined traveler pictured here — hang on to your hat.

For you'll be riding behind a power plant that is not only new but a major sensation of the 1950 season.

You'll be commanding the very latest word in valve-in-head power—the newest accomplishment of the organization with the country's longest stretch of experience in this engine design.

Here every fist-size fuel charge now delivers a huskier wallop. Shorter, lighter connecting rods mean that pistons flash with faster and livelier action.

Heavier crankshafts, floated on bigger, more rugged bearings, take this greater load and transmit its stepped-up surge to the drive shaft and rear wheels.

And you, behind the wheel, wreath your face in smiles at the lift you find! At the trigger-quick take-off—the mile-eating cruising stride — your easy disdain for the passing gas pumps.

You and your SUPER are really stepping out—and Buick's good name as "a sweetheart on the road" gains still more lustre.

Nor is road-thrill the only blessing this new power plant brings. Simpler design makes service easier, so upkeep diminishes as a problem. Hydraulic valve-lifters keep valves properly seated for efficient operation—and for quiet unbroken by tappet noise.

And you can have this power either with Buick's easy-shifting Synchron-Mesh transmission or the silken luxury of Dynaflo Drive.*

Either way, this SUPER is certainly something to see. To this top-notch new power it adds style and room, comfort and a wide outlook, soft easy stride and handier new over-all length.

Even the price justifies a prompt trip to your Buick dealer to learn more about Buick for 1950. You'll soon see why so many folks are already saying, "Whatever your price range — better buy Buick!"

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Features like these mean BUICK'S THE BUY

- HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines, five hp ratings. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.)
- NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with bumper-guard grilles, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights
- WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back
- TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius
- EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles
- SOFT BUICK-RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube
- DYNAFLOW DRIVE standard on all ROADMASTERS, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL series
- NINETEEN MODELS with Body by Fisher
- WIDE CHOICE OF EQUIPMENT adding flexibility to prices that bracket every price range above the lowest.

Cabinet Making Class Formed

A cabinet making class has been formed for adults interested in making cabinets, desks or other such things, and will be held in the wood working shop of Plymouth High school.

Classes will be held every Tuesday night from 7 to 9 p.m. with Dewey Smith as the teacher.

The cost for entering the class is $4.00 for 10 weeks which includes 10 lessons of wood working. Anyone interested in the class may contact Mr. Smith, teacher of cabinet making, by calling 51-W or Mr. Woolweaver, recreation director, at 93.

Sell Tickets for Bach Event

Demands for tickets for the Bach Commemoration concert on February 5 indicate a full house at Detroit's Masonic temple for the event which commemorates the 200th anniversary of Bach's death. Hanna Strasen and Norma Cassidy, of the Plymouth Symphony society, are in charge of ticket sales in Plymouth. They will be selling concert tickets for about another week, after which time all tickets will go on sale to the general public at Grinnell Bros. music store in Detroit.

Registration For Adults January 20

Adult Education classes will open at Madonna college, Schoolcraft and Newburg roads, on January 26. Registration for these classes will be held on January 23 and 24 at 7:30 to 9 p.m. Contemporary social movements will be given on Monday; advanced ceramics and typewriting on Tuesday; child welfare and beginning ceramics on Wednesday and water color on Thursday. All classes will begin at 6:30.

Rosedale Man Is New Scout Head

Arthur E. Henry

Announcement of a new District Scout Executive to serve District Seven, the Sunset or Plymouth district, the western part of Wayne county, has just been made by the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America. The newcomer is Arthur E. Henry, who transfers from District Four, the north Detroit, Highland Park and Hamtramck part of the council, where he has served for nearly three years.

Mr. Henry, a native of Michigan, is a graduate of Western State Teacher's college and attended Scouting's National training school at Mendham, New Jersey. He served as a field executive in Muskegon and Minneapolis, Minnesota, and later as Scout executive in Grand Forks, North Dakota. He resigned his North Dakota post to resume Scouting in his home state, which he claims is the greatest in the land.

The Henrys, with their three daughters, will live in the Sunset district, having purchased a home at 11031 Berwick in Rosedale Gardens.

In social and civic life, Henry has been a Kiwanian, in Junior Board of Commerce affairs, a board member of the Methodist church, and an active leader in the Community Chest—now the United Foundation. The District Four executive vacancy caused by Mr. Henry's transfer to this area will be filled by Frank B. Specht, the former Sunset district executive.

Hi-12 Members Hear Dr. Poole

Dr. Frederick G. Poole, minister of Plymouth's First Methodist church, was guest speaker last night at the weekly meeting of the Hi-12 club. Dr. Poole addressed the members on the subject of the world outlook of Protestantism.

Guests at the January 11 meeting of the club were Robert Wilbourn, salesman for the Appliance Wholesalers, and David Galin, of Plymouth's Purity market. Mr. Galin spoke on President Truman's State of the Union message, in which he stated that we can have a bright outlook for business in 1950. Mr. Galin compared this message with the Dun and Bradstreet report of business failures for the past year, which, according to Galin, should dampen the President's optimistic ideas for business.

Two Stolen Cars Found in Area

Two cars stolen in Plymouth last week have been recovered, the city police report.

One car, a 1947 Chevrolet convertible, was stolen January 12 from behind the Stop and Shop grocery, 470 Forest avenue. John G. Rucker, owner of the car, is manager of the Stop and Shop. His car was recovered in Redford with the license plates missing. A 1934 Ford with a Detroit license was found abandoned, presumably by the thief, near the grocery store.

The second theft occurred on January 13 in the parking area behind Plymouth high school. A student, Jack Emery, 365 Pacific avenue, discovered his 1936 Ford missing after his afternoon classes. The auto was found on Pearl street.

Local Student Teaches Fencing

Milton Laible, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Laible and a graduate of Cranbrook high school, has been appointed student instructor of fencing at Hillsdale college where he is a junior. Fencing was discontinued at Hillsdale college during the war years and is being offered for the first time since then when the second semester begins in February.

Madonna Offers New Sociology College Courses

Madonna college for women, 36800 Schoolcraft road, is offering two new sociology courses this coming semester. The courses to be offered are contemporary social movements and child welfare.

The course in contemporary social movements is an analysis of economic, religious and political movements and their influence on present social conditions. The course in child welfare gives a historical background and should be of special interest to teachers and social workers engaged in the field of child welfare as well as to students who are preparing to enter these fields.

Mrs. Amanda F. Jones is presenting these courses and there will be both lecture and opportunity for discussion. Mrs. Jones is a case supervisor with the Detroit Department of Public Welfare and taught formerly at the University of Detroit.

The Felician Sisters in charge of Madonna college are offering these new courses as a continuation of their expansion plan of the college to a major field. This is in keeping with the Franciscan tradition of advocating social reform based on Christian principles.

Registration for the second semester will be held January 23 and 24. Classes will begin January 27.

Lions Welcome New Members

The Plymouth Lions club held a joint meeting at the Hotel Mayflower January 12 with the Strathmoor Lions club of northwest Detroit as guests. Many Lions from the Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor clubs also attended. At this dinner meeting Past District Governor Bert Reynolds conducted the initiation of new members. They are Alfred L. Vincent, Frank Fitch, Joseph F. Balobraydic, Thomas Riley, Thomas S. Mangan, Carl Groschke and Hilton Ponto.

"The Plymouth club has far surpassed expectations," said Reynolds in his talk to the group. "It has come a long way since its organization a few years ago when it was co-sponsored by the Ann Arbor and Northwest clubs". He also remarked that "service to the community is first, last and always", the primary concern of the Lions.

Raymond Williams, president of the Chamber of Commerce and vice president of the Plymouth United Savings bank, presented a film recently purchased by the bank for showings in the community. The movie is entitled "Glass House" and concerns prevention of juvenile delinquency. It features Jay Jostyn, radio's Mr. District Attorney. Norman Marquis was chairman of the program for the evening.

Many Michigan hospitals have installed portable beauty salon equipment for the benefit of women patients. The service is operated by beauticians who reside in the cities where these hospitals are located. Women patients can have their hair set, get a facial or have their nails manicured while recuperating.

The Michigan National Guard now has a total membership of 10,667 men, the highest number ever in service in the state National Guard at any time.

Not in over 15 years has Michigan had a typhoid fever case due to the public water supply of any city or village. This state maintains a close inspection of the water supplies of every community within its boundaries—and it has paid off well.

Expansion of a state park rehabilitation program using prison labor is planned for 1950 if the legislature approves a conservation commission recommendation, advises the Conservation department.

Much needed repair and improvement of equipment and grounds was carried on in four state parks this year, and the commission has endorsed extending the prison work camp program to Warren Dunes park, Berrien county; Brighton state recreation area, Livingston county; Black river game area, St. Clair county; Au Sable river state forest; and the Cusino wildlife experiment station, Schoolcraft county.

Prison labor was first utilized in 1948 at the Waterloo recreation area in Jackson county. This year trustees worked in Pontiac lake recreation area, Oakland county; Tahquamenon Falls park, Chippewa and Luce counties; Wilderness park, Emmet county; and the Porcupine Mountains park, Ontonagon and Gogebic counties.

Besides making picnic tables, prisoners repaired park roads, cleared brush, constructed or improved beach and other park buildings, developed parking lots, made park signs, cut timber to supply logs and lumber for improvements, and worked on other necessary projects.

The conservation commission also has agreed to spend up to $1,000,000 of the $2,000,000 in the game and fish protection fund to acquire additional hunting land in southeastern Michigan. Fund money is derived from sale of hunting and fishing licenses.

Other matters approved by the commission: Leasing of the U. S. Forest Service nursery at Manistiquet with the provision that the state will supply the U. S. forest service annually with up to 4,500,000 seedlings at cost. Either the state or federal government may terminate the lease at any time.

A reciprocal agreement with Wisconsin for uniform fishing regulations on common boundary lakes and streams. Trolling with motors will be prohibited on six of the 21 lakes—Tenderfoot, Lac Vieux Desert, Mamie, Crooked, West Bay, and Big.

Six well-heeled Massachusetts business men who wantonly shot 20 pieces of protected game in Ohio were run clean through their $100 bills in maximum court fines and costs to the final tune of better than $4,500. Besides taking 13 hen pheasants, six quail and one Hungarian partridge, the Wildlife Management Institute reports, the conservation law violators also had taken 14 cock pheasants, two more than the Ohio legal limit.

Stamp collectors who want first crack at the 1950 Michigan trout stamp, which trout fishermen will not need until late April, can pick up the new issue from a local license agent at any time.

The conservation department announces the 1950 stamps are printed in brown, featuring the trout of the same color. Collectors and fishermen alike will continue to pay $1, the same as before.

The department has issued 165,196 of the 1949 stamps, latest tabulations show, about 1,500 of which have been purchased by Michigan and outstate stamp collectors.

Closed seasons now prevail on brook, brown and rainbows, but not on lake trout in the few upstate lakes where they are present. Most lake trout fishing, through the ice, with hook and line, is done on such northern lower peninsula lakes as Crystal, Elk, Torch, Charlevoix and Glen; and on Beaton lake in Gogebic county in the upper peninsula.

Also open to winter lake trout angling, when ice conditions permit, are Lake Superior and other Great Lakes locations where these fish still may be found. Maximum take per day or in possession, is five on inland lakes while there is no limit on the Great Lakes.

Resident fishermen do not need a 1950 sport fishing license on Great Lakes and connecting waters—St. Marys, St. Clair and Detroit rivers. Neither is a trout stamp required for lake trout fishing in any Michigan inland or Great Lakes waters.

Rural Tele-news

BEARING FRUIT
 Michigan Bell's rural construction program continues to produce more telephone service for Michigan farmers and their families. There are now 73,000 more telephones in the rural areas we serve than before the war. This required setting 76,000 poles and stringing 37,000 miles of wire. Since V-J Day we've spent $15,000,000 on rural telephone construction.

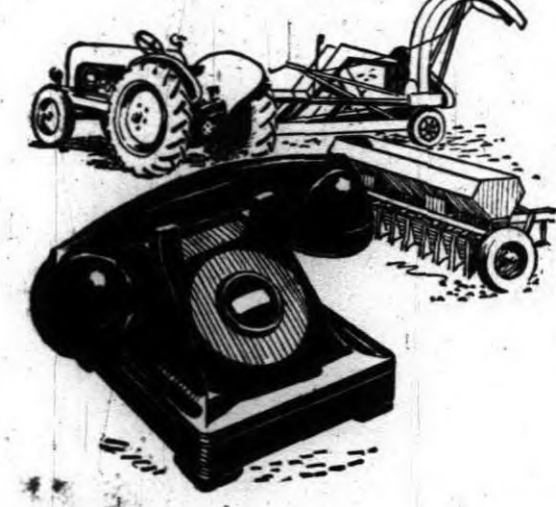

LET'S TAKE IN A FREE MOVIE

Michigan Bell maintains a library of interesting and entertaining films, which are provided without cost to clubs, Granges, Farm Bureau groups, schools, church gatherings, and meetings of all kinds. These films show many phases of the telephone business. To obtain a free catalog listing many interesting telephone movies, or to arrange for the films, simply call your Telephone Business Office.

THE FARMER AND THE TELEPHONE

If you made a list of the equipment that helps the Michigan farmer work his farm efficiently, more profitably, you'd undoubtedly include the telephone. For the telephone is one of the world's greatest time-savers... and time is money on the farm. The telephone is important for ordering supplies from town, getting the latest market prices, selling, or simply talking over mutual problems with friends and neighbors. It's easy to see how a telephone on the farm is worth a lot more than it costs.

"Step-down" designed Hudsons leaders in resale value! Let us show you, in figures from Official Used Car Guide Books of the National Automobile Dealers Association, that Hudson is a leader in resale value, coast to coast!

Lower-Priced Hudson shouts "Value!" for all to hear!

- MOST ROOM!
- BEST RIDE!
- SAFEST!
- BIGGEST DOLLAR VALUE!

YOU DON'T have to buy an undersized car just because you're economy-minded. For the new, lower-priced Hudson is a big, powerful car... priced for average pocket-books... styled to hold its own in the finest company!

You instantly see that it's the most beautiful of them all. Free-flowing, low-built design flashes the fact that here is the lowest center of gravity in any American automobile. And you know instinctively that, as a result, the Pacemaker hugs the road more tenaciously... and is therefore America's best-riding and safest car!

You'll see, too, that this new member of the Hudson family has full road clearance, and more head room than in any other mass-produced car built today, thanks to "step-down" design with its recessed floor. And amazing head room is only one kind of interior spaciousness you'll find in the new Pacemaker. "Step-down" design gives you more space because it gives you new space that is wasted in other makes of cars. With normal outside width, this compact automobile brings you seat cushions that are up to 12 inches wider than those in cars of far greater outside dimensions!

And for dazzling get-up-and-go, there's the new high-compression Pacemaker engine—a lightning-like performer with saving ways!

No matter how much or how little you intend to pay for your next car, we invite you to look at Hudson's lower-priced Pacemaker... it has a "value" message you'll like to hear!

The fourth annual membership campaign of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce will be inaugurated on January 19. The membership of the Chamber is to be divided into two divisions. Captains will be chosen to head each side. It is planned to enlist the aid of the entire membership so that every member will have a part in this drive for memberships. The Chamber is out for 500 new members this year and there is no reason why it cannot be secured if every member does his part.

Baby Thelma, the child wonder of the century, will appear at the Penniman Allen theater next Wednesday. This little Miss is only eight years of age, yet a living mystery. She is a mind reader, telepathist and memory marvel. She has just finished a star tour of the Shubert theaters and is without a doubt the greatest child genius of the age.

At a meeting of the village commission on Friday afternoon, the commission voted to purchase a new American LaFrance 750 gallon triple combination pumper with complete equipment as additional apparatus for the fire department. The purchase price of the new outfit is $12,250.

The Letter Box

"When Representative Barden of South Carolina advanced a bill purporting to give federal aid to public schools, he evoked some dissenting views on the subject. This matter is bound to come up again in Washington legislative halls and thinking Americans will want to give the issue serious study.

"During the holidays I met a person from Virginia who tells me that state stands 46th in States evaluation of public school efficiency. Farther south there were evidences during the war of large scale illiteracy. Farther south still is a South American country which this year listed 400,000 children of school age whose education is being neglected for want of schools. Will any thinking American deny the right of our government to create opportunities for the education of our children?"

"In some quarters our public schools are given the opprobrious name of being 'godless'. I am not so convinced. The greatest teacher of all time came to reveal that God is a loving Father interested in the development of His children. I am persuaded the public school is an ally of such a revelation.

"If Federal Aid is given parochial schools, we stand in peril of embarking on a policy of competing sectarian school systems. Aid to public schools is far less injurious, divisive and disruptive to our democracy."

Council Plans School Pin Sale

Final plans were made for selling school pins and beanies at the regular Student Council meeting on January 12. Gladys Witt, chairman of this committee, gave the report. Plans were made to sell these on Tuesday and Thursday noons and during home games.

The Varsity club plans for initiation were accepted. An extensive discussion was carried on for the possibility of having a student court system. The chief of police and his lieutenants are going to be asked to attend a meeting and explain their views on the idea.

Exam Time Here for High School

Plymouth High school students will begin their examinations on Tuesday afternoon, January 24.

The fourth and sixth hour classes will have their exams Tuesday afternoon, first, third and fifth hour classes Wednesday, and the second hour class Thursday morning. All examinations will be held during the usual class period; however, if any instructors have tests which will take more than an hour, it must be arranged so that the students do not write two consecutive hours.

Students will be excused on Thursday afternoon and all day Friday to give the teachers time to make out grades, mark report cards, and complete records. During this time the teachers will be available to the students for guidance and advice on their next semester's program. Report cards will be given out January 30.

Sophomores to Hold Dance in School Gym

The sophomore class of Plymouth High school, under the guidance of Harry S. Fountain, will give its annual dance tomorrow night, Friday, in the high school gymnasium.

The dance, entitled "The Sophomore Swing", will be from 8 to 11 o'clock and pupils in grades 7 through 12 are invited. Refreshments will be on hand and music will be provided.

The committees and members are: music and chaperons, Brenda Covell and Pat Johnson; concessions, Gary Hees, Gerald Corey, Iva Lou Kahrl and Norman Van Dyke; floor, Jim Brinks and Lynn Osen; tickets, supervised by Miss Nevel Lovewell, Chuck Merryfield, Norma Van Dyke, Iva Lou Kahrl and Brenda Covell; publicity, Shirley Pine, Lee King, Gladys Witt and Chuck Merryfield; decorations, Shirley Pine, Jean Tetzloff, Lynn Osen, Carolyn Smith and Chuck Merryfield; and clean-up, any committee members available.

Pop corn pops because moisture remains inside the kernels and as this moisture is converted into steam, the corn explodes. Other types of corn do not have the high moisture content of pop corn.

Students Tour New Laundromat

The second hour girls home-making class toured the Forest Self-Serve Laundromat last Thursday. There they learned the different procedures taken in the automatic wash from the manager.

The seventh grade girls are studying a unit on repairing and making needed household articles. Potato chip cans are being converted into waste paper baskets; clothes bags, shoe bags and dressing table skirts are being made. A few girls are doing embroidery work; and some are re-painting small articles for the house.

French Club Amends Rules

The French club of Plymouth High school held a meeting on Friday, January 13, with Judy Parmenter presiding.

The main topic of discussion was the constitution of the club which contained an undesirable article. Article III, Section III stated: "It is necessary for club members and club officers to have a 'C' average in all their school grades." It was amended to read: "Any person who is taking French or has taken French may be a member or officer of the club." This will not become official until the student council has accepted it.

Other business was the question of club dues for a semester. It was decided that club dues would be paid at the beginning of next semester. The next meeting will be held tomorrow, Friday.

Sheep are often a valuable addition to the farm business, say Michigan State college animal husbandry specialists. They can graze areas that should be kept in sod, require little labor, and returns come quickly. Lambs can be marketed as soon as nine months after the ewes are bred.

Art Classes to Decorate For Symphony Ball

Under the direction of Mrs. Frances Overton, students from the art classes of Plymouth High are working during their free periods on the decorations for the Symphony Ball that is being given by the Symphony Society this Saturday night in the high school gym.

Mrs. John Bloxson, chairman of the decorations committee, has asked Mrs. Overton to supply the backdrops for the affair. At Mrs. Overton's request and with the life art class directing, Daisy Hornback, Susan Hubbell and Charles Todd are designing the backdrops. Other students that are helping them are Bruno DeBenedet, Barbara Leadbetter, Lois Minehart, Ronald Beaver, Joan Dudley, Lloyd Campbell, Carolyn Rakowski, Betty Tibbitts, Daphne Yorck, Dolores Nesbitt and Kay Dørling.

Y-Teens Have Movies, Talk

An interesting program was presented to the White chapter of the Y-Teens last Thursday. Dorothy Wright, president of the group, introduced Miss Harland Bristah, the guest speaker, who is working at International House in New York, is a former adviser of the club.

Movies concerning the activities of the students who reside at International House were shown to the girls. Miss Bristah explained them, and talked to the girls about her work with the students there.

The Blue chapter of the Y-Teens has also been active in their various programs. Playing volleyball with the Blue chapter of the Hi-Y provided excitement for both clubs. Dorothy Curtis was in charge of organizing the girls' team.

Varsity Club to Hold Initiation

The Varsity club of Plymouth High school, under the supervision of Coach Hilton Ponto, has announced the plans for its initiation.

All the boys who are to become new members will wear the following apparel to school in the near future: a babushka or any funny hat, tennis shoes wrapped with burlap bags, a skirt with long underwear underneath, a shirt on backwards, a tie, a pop bottle with a nipple, a sign saying "Varsity Club or Bust," one leg shaved, one leg striped like a barber pole.

The club has announced that a large dinner party will be given soon for all new and old members of the club. The party will be held in the high school cafeteria.

First Ceramics Class a Success

At the first meeting of the Plymouth Ceramics class on Thursday, January 12, 19 members were present and the class got off to a good start in their designing and other work. Their is still room for one more student. Projects consisted of working the clay till pliable and rolling it out by hand. Then it was made into a tentative form to make ash trays, mugs, salt and pepper shakers and many other items.

Roger Babson Says...

Babson Discusses Stock Market Advertising

A very revolutionary event is taking place on Wall Street. It is one reason for the better stock market which we recently have enjoyed. I refer to the new advertising campaigns of conservative banks and stock exchange firms.

History of Financial Advertising

From the early years of the New York Stock Exchange up to 1929, most financial advertising was of one of two classes: (a) Large splashing ads of new issues; or (b) very dignified small "cards" of Stock Exchange member firms. The big ads were knocked out by the Securities and Exchange Commission after the 1929-32 debacle. The dignified "card" advertising has tended to die out because of lack of returns.

Another thing: Up to recently 90 per cent of the financial advertising was to get people to buy new stock issues. Very little attention was given to continue investors interest in these issues after they were once sold. Hence, the market declined and investors often were compelled to take a loss if they later needed to sell. Almost no money was spent to interest investors in the standard issues which, for many years, have paid dividends and had a ready market.

New Era Has Come

Now all this has changed, at the earnest solicitation of Emil Schram the able New York Stock Exchange President. Many of these dignified Stock Exchange members are putting out attractive ads calling attention to the "Great Opportunities", "Large Incomes", and "Remarkable Security", that "a family with only a few hundred dollars" can find among the established stocks already listed on the Exchange.

Let me add that most of these advertisements are written in simple language which every reader can understand. Some have been prepared by expert ad writers and are pulling good results. All this is very revolutionary. It has never happened before since the Stock Exchange was started in 1792. This new policy has great possibilities.

What Cyrus Curtis Taught

When I was a young man I worked for the Saturday Evening Post which then had a small circulation and very little advertising. At that time "national advertising" was almost unknown. As Henry Ford was the father of mass production, so my friend Cyrus Curtis was the father of national advertising. Mr. Curtis had three rules for successful national advertising. They were:

- (1) The ads must tell what the product can do for the readers. (Most of the advertising of that day merely glorified the concern doing the advertising).
- (2) The ads must be of short sentences and words of one or two syllables. (This rule developed experts in advertising. There then were very few advertising agencies.)
- (3) The products advertised must be worthy, obtainable everywhere and sell at a stable price.

Continuous Advertising Necessary

As I read these new financial advertisements, I think they conform to Mr. Curtis' rules (1) and (2). They surely have a "new look" and if continually improved, should bring good results. "But"—as Mr. Curtis would say, "advertising to be successful must be continuous. Millions can be lost in advertising as well as made by getting discouraged and curtailing just before reaching the jack pot."

Two Important Warnings

Mr. Curtis' rule (3) meant that the product must have a "stable market and, if possible, a fixed price". Stock Exchange firms cannot stock a fixed price for their wares. But they can talk only of security, income and marketability, making no reference to "profit possibilities". I go further and say (and this is very important) to make this new advertising campaign a permanent success, the Stock Exchange MUST STABILIZE PRICES and eliminate the big gyrations for which the Exchange has always been blamed. This, moreover, can be done.

The other MUST is that these firms cannot succeed by advertising only in the big city newspapers. The idle money awaiting safe investment with good income can best be found in small cities and towns. Even magazines cannot reach these "grass roots" prospective investors. Women can be reached by magazines, but the men who control the family investment policy can best be reached through small daily and weekly newspapers.

Leather Class For Beginners

Nine members were present at the first meeting of the Leather class of Plymouth last Thursday at the high school.

The first thing that the class was taught was the double stitch, such as is used in pocket books, brief cases and hand bags.

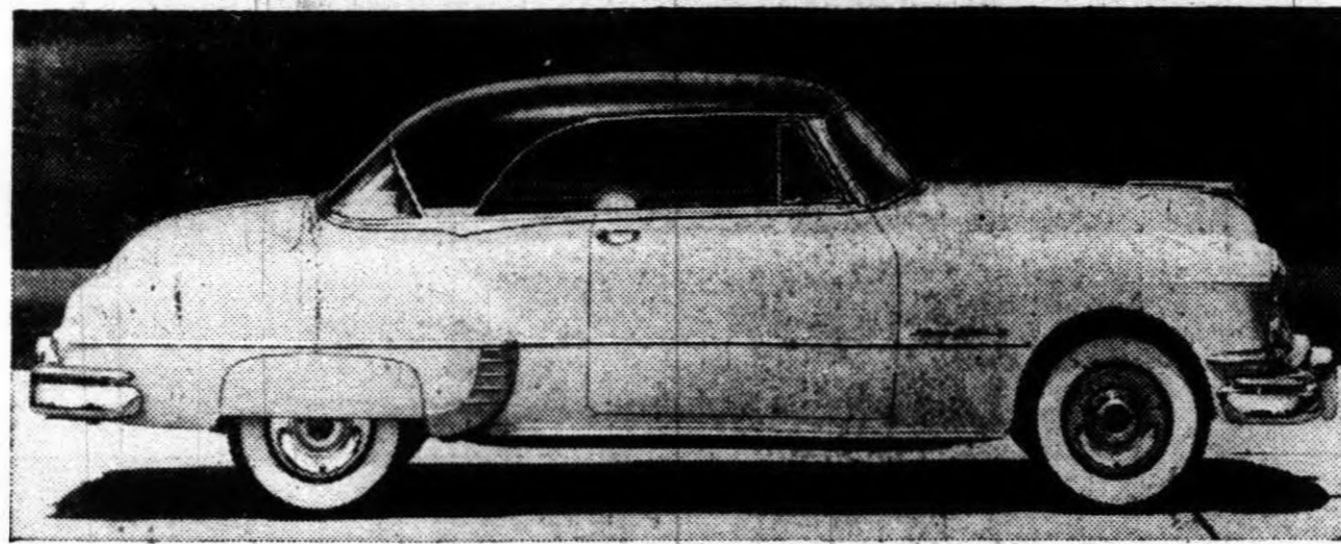

This is definitely a beginner's class. Anyone may get in the class by contacting Herb Woolweaver, recreation director, by calling 93.

The Leather class had a demonstration on what can be done, such as in hand tooling or carving.

If he decides not to quit smoking, after all, his grippe is getting better.

Your Police Department Speaks

Written by members of Plymouth's Police Department

After a few weeks absence we are back again with our little column. The absence can be attributed to the fact that just about everyone's operator's license expired the first few weeks in the year; at least that's the way it seems here and we're wondering if F. M. Alger, Jr. had something to do with it.

HELEN TRAUBEL, famous opera star, has two consuming interests . . . One is music, the other baseball . . . But her two interests, unfortunately, conflict . . . Although she is an honorary mascot for the St. Louis Cardinals, she is allowed to attend only a few games . . . Reason? She is such an avid and excitable fan that she yells herself hoarse at a game . . . and her managers feel that the Traubel voice is too precious a gift to be used so, even for her beloved Cards!

TRAUBEL

The old story of the man who gave his wife a mink outfit for Christmas—a trap and a shotgun—loses it punch when applied to the Lauritz Melchior . . . When Mrs. Melchior showed up with her illustrious husband at a rehearsal for his "Carnegie Hall" broadcast recently, she wore a beautiful leopard fur coat . . . And she didn't have to shop for it at some swank Fifth avenue furrier . . . It was just part of the big game her singing husband bagged on a recent safari to South Africa . . . Not for Melchior are the mounted heads on the wall to show his prowess as a hunter . . . He'd rather display his trophies on his radio wife.

RADIO CHATTER

ABC reported the duck a TV series based on the Dick Tracy comic strip . . . Jack Holt scheduled to debut on radio in a quarter-hour chatter series . . . "The Goldbergs" show, which had been airing the same scripts over video and radio, is using separate scripts in an effort to hype the radio stanzas . . . The air show has been way behind the TV audience ratings . . . Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt scheduled for a new radio and TV show over NBC after the first of the year . . . Show, which will be a once-weekly affair, will be broadcast over radio and tele simultaneously.

Hildegard will make a formal concert tour next October . . . Martin and Lewis are dickering with NBC on a new contract.

Corp. Elliott Serves in Japan

Cpl. Frank G. Elliott, of 365 Roe street, is now serving with Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 32nd Infantry Regiment, 7th Infantry Division in occupied Japan, as a radio repairman in the Communications Platoon of Headquarters and Headquarters Company.

Enlisting in the Army in October 1946, he saw action with a crack infantry regiment during World War II. Leaving the United States in June 1947, he arrived in Japan, and was assigned to the 31st Infantry Regiment at Seoul, Korea. After he had served with the 31st Infantry for a short period of time, he was later transferred to the 32nd Infantry Regiment at Camp Hagen, Japan.

Rust is a thief that has stolen many pieces of farm machinery before they have served their useful life. The use of approved rust preventatives during the winter will help to preserve metal parts and bolts where adjustments are made.

Fifty per cent of housing and slum clearance proposals submitted to voters in the general elections were approved.

It is believed that the Koreans developed movable metal type 50 years before Gutenberg printed the Bible.
