

NEWSPAPERS FIGHT FOR DOCTORS.

It is interesting to note that although the state of Texas has for years been a Democratic stronghold, the president of the Texas Editorial Association at a recent state convention urged every editor to make his fight against socialized medicine a most determined one.

He declared that editors should use every power at their command to prevent the institution in this country of such a scheme. But Texas newspapers are not alone in this fight for the preservation of a great profession and an American ideal. It is difficult to find anywhere in the country a newspaper that is not strongly opposed to this socialized scheme of political quackery.

CAN IT BE TRUE?

Walter Winchell asked the other night in his radio broadcast if Secretary of State Acheson had contributed $25,000 to the defense fund of Alger Hiss, betrayer of America. If Acheson did such a thing, then he should be tried for conspiring to cheat American justice. Why under the sun the United States senate doesn't kick Acheson out of office is something we cannot understand.

A HIGHLY IMPORTANT EXPERIMENT IN GOVERNMENT

The citizens of Livonia township, whether they realize it or not, are entering into one of the most important and unusual experiments in local government that has ever been attempted in Michigan or any other state.

An entire township, made up of both residential and high grade farming areas will soon become a city, with all of its responsibilities and opportunities for tremendous growth and development.

It is something entirely new, but as we see it, under careful and wise leadership the experiment ought to prove a success—the kind of a success that will satisfy the vast majority of residents of that fast growing area. There are important problems to be worked out in the beginning, such as the protection of farming areas against excessive taxation, the satisfying of areas that will demand public services the new city will not be able to afford for many years.

But we believe if every one will be patient, if every one will work in unity for the good of the new city, it will prove a most successful venture into a new type of local government for township areas.

INVASION OF ILLEGAL ALIENS.

One of the outstanding Democratic leaders in congress not so long ago declared that there has been a steady invasion of "illegal aliens" in New York city—that at least more than 200,000 had come into our country in recent months without complying with immigration regulations.

If that is so why doesn't some one do something about it? Representative Gossett of Texas, who made the charge, declares that there seems to be a general evasion of all laws regulating the incoming of foreigners.

Gossett, a member of the House judiciary subcommittee immigration, made his charge as the result of a study he conducted with Rep. Boggs (R) of Delaware, in the New York area. He said that similar surveys might be made in Detroit and other immigration centers.

Gossett recommended that military intelligence agents be assigned to the immigration service to conduct periodic roundups of illegal aliens on grounds that many of them are in the country for "subversive purposes." He charged:

"That there are hundreds of lawyers in New York who make their living by helping aliens enter the country and to remain in the United States illegally.

"That there are numerous underground channels" by which aliens skip ashore and that a "fake birth certificate" racket is practiced.

"That New York courts are refusing to enforce immigration laws.

Gossett said: "In the New York courts the alien seems to have more rights than the citizen."

WHAT OTHER SMALL CITIES ARE DOING.

Up in the central part of the state, the progressive little city of Alma, about the size of Plymouth but possessing no where near the thickly populated rural section that we have, has just decided to develop a new parking site that will cost the community something like $45,000.

These funds will be taken from the money fed into the city treasury through the parking meters now located on the main streets of the city.

Officials of Alma hope to have within the next few months a parking area that will accommodate the many hundreds of automobile owners who drive to Alma to do their shopping.

If you have a few minutes to spare some day, just drive over to our neighboring community of Wayne and see what that progressive little city has done during the past two or three years to solve its parking problem. It will surprise you.

Meanwhile we wonder just how far along our own good city is in its efforts to solve its parking problem?

WHAT CAN BE EXPECTED.

President Truman has become the self-appointed leader of the campaign of criticism against the press in this country. In like manner, representatives of the Labor Government in England have assumed a similar role, recently declared The Editor and Publisher, a publication devoted to the interests of newspapers and periodicals.

The only conclusion to be drawn from these parallel facts is that the party in power in each country cannot stand up under the comments, criticisms or light of publicity from a free press. The alternative, therefore, as they see it, is to discredit the press in the eyes of the public—tear it down as something to be laughed at, discounted and not believed.

In recent months President Truman has hardly missed an opportunity to criticize the newspapers. His campaign started right after the last election. No one blamed him then for chiding the newspapers and the pollsters that were wrong in their political forecasts.

More recently, however, his digs have taken on a more sinister purpose. The frequency and tenor of his remarks about newspapers begin to reflect the reasoning behind his tactics.

He began to get serious back in July at the reception given for him in Chicago by Jake Arvey. Speaking of metropolitan newspapers he said, "I have no respect for any of their political prognostication or influence." Up until that time he was playing the record strictly for laughs. But ever since that Chicago statement he has given up clowning about how he beat the newspapers in the last election and he has become seriously intent on destroying public confidence in them.

Before the Legionnaires in Philadelphia he said: "I find there is a good deal of misunderstanding and misinformation about our international economic policy. Some of this is deliberately stirred up by certain newspapers and politicians for political reasons."

In a speech at Pittsburgh he spoke of "spokesmen and lobbyists for organized special interests" and charged them with "stirring up opposition to our legislative program." Then he linked them to newspapers by saying: "The hue and cry

Debaters Win Again

Cheering Plymouth High school students greeted the winning debate team as they returned by train Feb. 21 from Grand Rapids where they won the state quarter final debate tournament. Team members Roger Kidston and Ronald Witt defeated debaters from East Grand Rapids High school three to nothing and are now eligible to compete in the state semi-finals to be held next week.

This is the debate team's 20th straight win. In the past few weeks they have met and defeated some of the best teams in the state and it is likely they will capture the state championship. Their next contest, the semi-finals, may be held at Plymouth.

The state chairman of the Michigan debate tournaments made the statement yesterday that in checking debate records over a great number of years he found that no other school has won 20 consecutive victories without at least one dissenting vote. The record of the Plymouth team is most enviable and certainly is a new first in the debate field.

Fire Destroys Home on Mill St.

An overheated furnace caused a serious fire in the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Ven Casovic at 557 North Mill street last Thursday. The fire burned beams in the basement and spread to first floor rooms of the house.

An estimate of damage amounted to at least $3,000. The fire department received the call at 12:45 p.m. Smoke and water damage to the house and furnishings was heavy, as the thick smoke forced the couple to flee the house without taking any of their belongings. Smoke in the living room was first discovered by Mrs. Ven Casovic and the fire had already spread through the basement to the stairway leading upstairs. Ven Casovic is employed at the Mayflower hotel tap room.

A special sale beginning yesterday marked the first anniversary of the Stop and Shop Supermarket on Forest avenue. The store, owned by J. G. Rucker, Jr., opened a year ago with a meat department, Awrey's bakery, and a complete line of groceries, frozen foods, dairy products and fresh fruits and vegetables.

Due to increasing business during the year, the addition of a new register is being considered to relieve congestion during the busy end-of-the-week shopping time. Five registers are now in use at the exit counters.

Rucker expressed his appreciation of his employees' efforts and cooperation since the opening of the store. "Many customers have remarked on the employees' helpfulness and courtesy," Rucker added. Use of the property, which belongs to the Fred Schrader estate, was offered to the city for public parking on the condition that the city would pay the property tax. No rental fee will be charged by the owners.

The property will need graveling but few other changes will have to be made before the area can be used for public parking.

The completion of this work will make the upstairs rooms of the library usable for storage or other purposes. # SUCCESSFUL PARENTHOOD

By Mrs. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor Parents' Magazine

AILING MARRIAGES are as symptomatic of the tensions of our times as plagues in the middle ages were symptomatic of ignorance of the origin of disease, as well as of lack of sanitation. Tackling the problem of wholesale contagion led in a few hundred years to the germ theory of disease and to the science of immunization, along with the enactment of sanitary laws.

At long last we are turning scientific inquiry to the appalling divorce rate, as the Pastors and the Dr. Ehrlichs of the past century concentrated on finding the causes of disease, refusing to believe that plagues were the scourges of God. Already many of the root causes of failure in marriage are being brought to light. That is, each divorce is no longer looked upon, as it was in our grandmother's day, as a shocking moral failure on the part of two people alone. Each case can now be examined in the light of thousands like it in an attempt to find the "carrier germ" for the various types of broken marriage.

Slightly this body of knowledge, contributed to by ministers, doctors, psychologists and others working in the field of human welfare, is being made available to unhappy wives and husbands, as well as to young people considering marriage. Books are being written as guides, courses on marriage are given in colleges and a few high schools, magazines know that service to their readers must include insights into marital problems as well as child care, cookery, dress-making, home-decorating and other time honored subjects.

As an example of the trend, a quarter of a century ago it was thought that all mothers and fathers needed to make them successful parents was more and better understanding of their children. Now we know that understanding themselves is equally as important. One new source of help is the marriage counselor who diagnoses and treats marital problems. As a profession, marriage counseling requires years of training—7 or 8 years of college in addition to clinical experience. Since it is often the counselor's job to refer his client to another specialist if he sees that the case requires the help of a psychiatrist, doctor, lawyer, etc. he must have a working knowledge of these professions.

The American Association of Marriage Counselors has a through the work of a committee of its members set up standards of certification for marriage counselors. Because no one knows better than the duly qualified how much harm can be done by quacks, the association has provided this safeguard against the bungling of "do-gooders," as well as against venal incompetence.

Not only your own happiness, but the security and happiness of your children, depends on making a go of your marriage. You wouldn't try to fight disease without professional help. If you feel your marriage tottering, why not seek equally sound advice on how to steady our belief that the Girl Scouts should have first priority on the use of the Cabin for a trial period of not less than one year from the time the Cabin becomes usable.

However, the Boy Scout groups will have the privilege of using the Cabin through this period provided their usage does not conflict with Girl Scout activities.

After the trial period is over, if, in the opinion of the Kiwanis Board of Directors the Girl Scouts are not using the Cabin to the extent of our investment, then all local Scout organizations will have equal usage of the Cabin."

At the present time we have between eleven and twelve thousand dollars invested in this project, not including the large number of contributed man hours of labor by Kiwanians and local citizens, and will require approximately twenty five hundred dollars additional to put the cabin in condition for early spring to late fall usage.

The Kiwanis Club would like to see our reply to your suggestion published in the Plymouth Mail so the people may know that we are interested in the welfare of our youth but that, at this time, we deem it unwise to turn the cabin over to the recreation commission as a recreation center.

Very truly yours,

The Letter Box

Dear Editor:

I perceive by your editorials that your love for our Great President is less than luke warm. F.D.R. pre-empted use of the word "great" and all of its derivatives.

I shall give you some reasons why our President is great. In collaboration with that great humanitarian, John L. Lewis, he has to a large extent abated the smoke nuisance, also the noise nuisance, such as train and factory whistles and the clink of dining pails.

By his appointment to the Department of State of certain brilliant men, he has advanced the date when the Kremlin can take over this country and manage it even more efficiently than the great Democratic Party has.

I hope after reading this you will see the light and change the tone of your editorials.

Yours truly,
Walter Postiff

The Board of Directors, at their regular meeting on January 31st, heard a request from a representative of the Boy Scouts for the privilege of using the Scout Cabin for some of their special meetings if there was no conflict with Girl Scout usage.

The Board, after discussion and due consideration, passed the following motion:

"Because most of the funds raised for the cabin have been raised in the name of 'The Kiwanis Girl Scout Cabin' it is

Ex-Service Club Has Anniversary

Members of the Ex-Service Club and their auxiliary installed new officers on Tuesday, February 14. Jesse Tritton was installed as commander, Howard Sallisbury as vice commander, John Jacobs secretary and treasurer and officer of the day Harry Hunter.

The auxiliary installed Venita Alquire as president, Louise Tritton, vice president; secretary, Clara Mumby; treasurer, Ruth Gardiner and chaplain, Mable Hunter.

This year marks the 25th anniversary of this organization in Plymouth and the new officers and members are looking forward to a celebration of this event later in the year. The Ex-Service club meets the second Tuesday of every month in the Mariette Hough Memorial center on Main street and members of the auxiliary serve dinner at which all veterans and their wives are welcome.

Other than the many military activities that the club has always been interested in, members have taken a leading part in the many charities of the city. During the last depression their "Cheer-Bringers" dances, for which admission was a can of food, brought national recognition and their help to unfortunate in this area has made them one of the outstanding service units of Wayne county. Residents of the community for the last 25 years will readily associate the names of Alquire, Hunter, Mumby, Brown, Jacobs and many others with the activities of the club.

Pankows Observe Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. August W. Pankow of 424 North Main street will observe their golden wedding anniversary March 3. They will hold open house in honor of the occasion on Sunday afternoon, March 5, from 2 to 5 p.m.

The couple wishes to extend, through the Plymouth Mail, an invitation to all their relatives, friends and neighbors to attend the open house and help them celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. They request that their guests bring no gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Pankow have lived on Main street for the last 29 years. They previously lived on Seven Mile road where they moved at the time of their marriage. They are the parents of four sons, Levi, Clarence, Harvey and Harold; and two daughters, Mrs. Nettie Kincaid and Mrs. Mary Hauger. The couple also has 14 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. They are members of St. Peter's Lutheran church.

DROP EVERYTHING . . . Unidentified cashier of a New York restaurant covers her eyes after three robbers forced these four waiters to drop their pants during a holdup. The culprits snatched $300 from the cash register and fled into theater district crowds. They herded six men and two women employees into a back room, but first they watched boxing bouts on the restaurant's television screen for a half hour before the stickup.

WHAT I THINK AND HAVE A RIGHT TO SAY that has resulted, in the press, and on the air, and through the mail, has been deafening."

It is obvious the President is already laying the groundwork for the 1950 elections. Part of his strategy is this continuing attack on the reliability and veracity of newspapers. We may expect it to develop in intensity as the campaign draws nearer.

Perhaps it is good politics for a President to take to the road to build up public support for his legislative program. It has been done before.

But we do not think it is good strategy, good taste, or good sense for a President of the United States in the name of political expediency to continually attack our free and independent newspapers. His unwarranted slurs and insinuations are unsupported generalizations designed to degrade the nation's foremost medium of communication whose record of honesty, integrity and truthfulness is second to none.

Kiwanis Tours Whitman Barnes

A trip through the Whitman-Barnes manufacturing plant followed the Plymouth Kiwanis club dinner last Tuesday night. Ray Williams, club vice president, and his program committee made arrangements for the tour.

As a result of last week's meeting, at which Nelson Cushman, Wayne county 4-H agent, spoke, the Kiwanis agricultural committee met to consider the possibility of sponsoring a 4-H club in Plymouth. The committee met with Cushman following the meeting. Fred Van Dyke is chairman of the committee.

Burglars Break Into Stop and Shop Sunday

Rucker, owner of the market, left the store at 6 p.m. and the burglary was discovered by city police at 9 p.m. They discovered packages of cigarettes on the ground near the rear exit of the store. USE COTTON THREAD in piece of silk for mending leather gloves since it is less likely to cut the leather. Use the same stitch in mending gloves as was used when they were sewed originally, usually a running or whip stitch. Coat buttons are best when sewed on with small buttons underneath the outside button. The small button helps distribute the strain on the coat fabric and covers the irregular stitches used in button sewing. Adhesive tape is excellent for mending rubber and oiled silk garments such as raincoats and galoshes. Purchase soft collars at notions counters to replace threadbare

Drain, clip stems and cut into small pieces. Sift together flour, salt, sugar and baking powder. Work shortening into flour mixture. Combine milk and beaten egg and mix with flour. Add figs and stir to blend. Fill greased muffin pans about 3/4 full. Bake in a hot (450°F.) oven about 20 minutes.

ones on mens' shirts to get more wear from the garments. Remove raw threads from the inside of a sweater to use for reinforcing weak spots that appear on sleeves, elbows or collars. The use of a darning technique will make these almost invisible. Slips which have worn underneath the arms are easily mended to give additional wear, simply by reinforcing with similar material underneath the spots which are ragged. Wool and silk garments usually dye easily to give the owner extra months of wear. Avoid dyeing sun-streaked garments unless the color is removed first, or unless they are to be dyed black or a very dark color.

Records Show Deer Hunters More Successful Last Season

About six per cent more deer hunters were successful last season judging from a preliminary conservation department tabulation of resident hunter report cards.

An incomplete tabulation of pheasant band returns suggests small game hunters shot fewer game farm cocks. Game men, however, are quick to point out that release birds make up only a small portion of the total pheasant kill.

Game division has record of 1,153 leg bands turned in so far, which means at least 7.6 percent of the 15,002 males released from the Mason state game farm were taken. In the 1948 season, 13,860 males were turned loose and the game division received a total of 1,321 bands denoting at least 9.6 percent of the birds were shot.

Total release, cocks and hens, amounted to 28,896 last year as against 27,412 in 1948.

Both deer and small game hunters were supposed to mail in their cards by February 15. Many still are reporting. Stub returns now are coming into the game division headquarters at the rate of a bushel basket a day.

Michigan United Conservation clubs are cooperating with the conservation department in an attempt to get a larger return of cards. An incomplete tabulation of pheasant band returns suggests small game hunters shot fewer game farm cocks. Game men, however, are quick to point out that release birds make up only a small portion of the total pheasant kill.

Honeymoon Takes Couple to Florida Following Saturday Ceremony

St. Michaels church in Rose-dale Gardens was the setting of the ceremony in which Shirley Jean Kubic exchanged marriage vows with Robert H. Mack of Wayne. The couple was married on Saturday morning, February 18, by the Rev. Father Zinger.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jacob Kubik and the late Mr. Kubik of Ann Arbor trail, Garden City.

Presented in marriage by her brother, Leo Kubik, the bride was gowned in white slipper satin designed with a fitted bodice, and square neckline embroidered in seed pearls. A coronet of pearl orange blossoms was the headpiece to which the bride's fingertip veil was fastened. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and orchids.

The bride's only attendant was Madeline Blanchard. The maid of honor was gowned in orchid chiffon and wore a picture hat in the same shade. Yellow carnations were in Miss Blanchard's bouquet.

Melvin King of Milford attended the bridegroom as best man.

Both the bride's mother, Mrs. Kubik, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Mack, chose navy blue ensembles. Their corsages were of white carnations.

A reception at Huck's Inn, Redford, took place following the ceremony.

Upon returning from a wedding trip to Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Mack will be at home to their friends on Ann Arbor trail.

Recipe Ideas Add Variety to Menus of Lenten Dinners

Lenten menus are with us once again, and lots of recipes using sea food, eggs and cheese will be needed to provide both nutrition and variety for meatless meals.

In the absence of meat at the family's main meal, fish or cheese should be served to give the necessary protein.

Casserole dishes, baked fish and vegetable plates can solve many a menu problem for Plymouth homemakers during Lent. Here are some suggestions for Lenten dishes:

SALMON AND PICKLE LOAF

Grease casserole or baking pan with olive oil or other vegetable fat. Line with slices of sweet pickles. Drain, then flake one 16 ounce can of salmon. Add, mixing well, 1/2 cup bread crumbs, 1/2 cup milk, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon salt, and 1 tablespoon butter, melted. Pack into the casserole or baking pan, then set in shallow pan containing a small amount of hot water. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about one hour or until loaf becomes firm. Remove to hot platter and garnish with sprigs of parsley. Cut into 1/2-inch slices and serve hot. Serves 4.

CREAMED OYSTERS

1 pt. oysters (about 20)
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
2 egg yolks
1/2 teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
dash nutmeg
Toast

Heat oysters in their own liquor over medium heat until edges begin to curl (about 3 or 4 minutes). Drain and combine liquor with the milk.

Melt butter or margarine in a heavy saucepan over low heat, then stir in flour until smooth. Take off stove and add the milk-oyster mixture gradually, stirring until thoroughly mixed. Now put back on the stove and cook over low heat, stirring frequently, until sauce begins to thicken.

Beat up the egg yolks with a fork, then beat in a little of the hot sauce (this so as not to cook eggs up in a lump). Now combine the two and add salt, pepper and nutmeg. Cook over low heat 3 minutes. Do not let it boil or your sauce will lump. Combine sauce and oysters and serve at once on thin, delicate slices of buttered toast to 4.

THIN FRENCH PANCAKES

3 eggs
1/2 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
2 tablespoons salad oil

Delicate, tender, thin as paper, these fabulous pancakes can be made up ahead of time and reheated. Serve them with a meat filling, but do try them with a sweet filling such as jam, jelly or honey.

Beat eggs slightly or just long enough to mix yolks and whites. Then add flour and salt and stir again until batter is smooth. Combine milk and salad oil into egg mixture until batter looks like heavy cream. Store in refrigerator until ready for use.

Pour batter from cup or pitcher right onto hot greased griddle. When little bubbles show on top, turn pancakes and brown prettily on other side. To serve place a generous amount of the filling on one side of pancake, then fold over. Place in baking dish and reheat in 350 degree F. oven 15 minutes.

MACARONI LOAF WITH MUSHROOM SAUCE

1 cup elbow macaroni
3 slices bread
1 small onion
3 sprigs parsley
4 pimientos
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/4 lb. American Cheddar cheese
3 egg yolks
1 cup milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper

Cook macaroni according to directions on package. Drain. Then start your oven at 350 degrees F. or moderate. While macaroni is cooking, crumble the bread and chop up onion, parsley and pimiento fairly fine. Melt the butter or margarine and grate the cheese.

Beat up yolks slightly with a fork, add melted butter or margarine and milk. Next add seasonings, bread crumbs, cheese and, finally, the drained macaroni. Pour into a greased loaf pan (9x5x3 inches) and bake 30 minutes. Serve with Mushroom Sauce.

MUSHROOM SAUCE: Drain the liquid from a 6-ounce can of mushrooms into 1/4 cups of milk. Now melt 4 tablespoons of butter or margarine in a skillet over low heat, then mix in 3 tablespoons of flour until smooth. Take off the stove and gradually stir in milk mixture. Season with 1/4 teaspoon salt, dash of cayenne and big dash of paprika. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until smooth and as thick as heavy cream. Add the mushrooms, bring to a boil only and serve over the loaf, which serves 6.

Solves Problem for Burdened Lady Shoppers

Delving into a bulky handbag for keys, pencils, bus tokens, money and lists while shopping can be very frustrating and embarrassing for the lady shopper burdened with packages.

Designed to solve the situation is a new, efficient and smart looking garment called the Handi-Coat which you can make yourself. It was designed by Clarice Scott, clothing specialist for the bureau of human nutrition and home economics of the United States Department of Agriculture. The pattern is now available.

The Handi-Coat has hidden accessories and special pockets designed to provide more shopping comfort for its wearer. The grocery list fits in a slot in the left sleeve. A second slot is made to hold a handkerchief. Pencil and fountain pen stand upright in slots in a lower right-hand pocket, leaving room for a wallet beside them.

Those who ride a bus will appreciate the token dispenser attached to a pull chain inside the right upper pocket. The house key, too, is on this chain which flips back into place when released. Equally handy are the roomier pockets for gloves, check book or other items.

This rain-or-shine coat is attractive as well as practical. It has a shirt-type collar, long zipper closing, and a front kick pleat to provide walking room. The detachable visor hood with shoulder cape gives added protection against rain.

The coat would be especially smart made up in one of the new checked or plaid fabrics which should be shiner repellent and wrinkle resistant for best service. The design is available to pattern and ready-to-wear companies and the pattern is now offered by one woman's magazine.

LAUNDRY METHOD

Gertrude Mueller, in charge of Michigan State college laundry, reports that washing methods used by professional laundries are extremely effective in destroying bacteria. The scientifically operated power laundry is definitely a valuable guardian of public health.

Spring Checks in Early

You needn't wait for the first pussy willows to sport this neatly checked worsted dress. Wear it under your coat now and be ready to salute Spring's earliest zephyrs. Designer Sheila Lynn has given the ever-popular check pattern new dashes of style in the diagonally-arranged buttons and folded tuck pleat. It's one of three checked dresses featured in Harper's Bazaar and retails for about $40.

Few Fashions of '20s Return in Style Patterns for Spring

All the talk about reviving the fashions of the '20s has caused much comment among members of the feminine sex. For those who remember the styles of the "roaring '20s" as something that should stay in the past, here is some consolation. Only a few details of these earlier fashions are being promoted by most designers.

Those that are again in fashion are the close haircut, Grecian sleeve-line and beaded trim. Very low waistlines, boyish chestlines and skirts above the knees are features that will not be repeated this spring. What the future holds is hard to tell.

An interesting comment made on women's fashions is this: "A costume is considered indecent 10 years before its time; shameless five years before its time; daring one year before; smart during its time; dowdy five years after its time; hideous 10 years after; ridiculous 20 years after; amusing 30 years after; quaint 50 years after; charming 100 years after; and beautiful 150 years after its time."

Stewing Chickens Provide Low Cost Meals for Housewives

Those matronly old birds sold as stewing chickens have a great deal to offer thrifty Plymouth shoppers. It's true that they need long slow cooking in steam or water to make them tender, but anyone who can spend time on them will be more than amply rewarded by the savory dishes she can offer the family at relatively low cost.

Most good cooks have learned that mature birds are best for soup. They have a great deal more flavor than younger poultry. Then too, they contain a larger proportion of meat to bone, so they're a good choice for almost any dish that calls for diced chicken.

Steaming or cooking in water naturally draws flavor from the meat. For the best results experts recommend keeping the chicken whole—prepared exactly as if you were going to roast it—and to keep the amount of water at a minimum. For the juiciest and best flavored meat, cool the chicken in the stock, breast down, for at least two hours, or better still overnight.

It takes 3 or 4 hours of either steaming or simmering to make a stewing chicken tender, whether it's whole or cut into pieces. The time is greatly reduced if a steam pressure cooker is used. Directions with the cooker give the time required.

Diced cooked chicken is the base of many delicious dishes. You can count on from three to four cups of diced meat from each 4 or 5 pound fowl. If the dark meat is cut in smaller pieces than the light meat it shows less and everyone thinks the dish contains more of the choicer variety.

Here are some popular ways of serving stewing chickens:

CHICKEN-MUSHROOM RICE RING

1 pound mushrooms
1/4 cup butter or fortified margarine
3 tablespoons flour
1 1/2 cups chicken stock
2 cups diced cooked chicken
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 teaspoon scraped onion
1/2 teaspoon salt
dash of pepper
1/4 cup chopped pimiento
2 egg yolks or 1 egg, slightly beaten
3 cups hot, boiled rice

Wash mushrooms quickly, and drain well, slice and cook in table fat until lightly browned.

Add flour and stir gently until blended with fat. Add chicken stock and cool until thickened, stirring constantly. Add meat, seasonings, pimiento and egg and cook for 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Serve at once in a ring made of the hot boiled rice. Makes 6 servings.

CHICKEN CROQUETTES

4 tablespoons chicken fat, butter or fortified margarine
5 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1 cup chicken broth
3 pounds ground, cooked chicken
1 teaspoon minced onion
1 tablespoon minced parsley
salt and pepper to taste
1 egg
1 tablespoon water

Dry, sifted bread crumbs, fat. Make a thick sauce with the measured fat, flour, stock and milk, and let stand until cold. Add chicken, onion, parsley and seasonings to suit taste. Mold mixture into cylinders or cones. Dip in egg beaten with water, roll in fine dry bread crumbs and allow to stand for an hour in cold place until dry. Fry in deep fat at 350 degrees F., until nicely browned. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve hot with cream chicken gravy or mushroom sauce. Makes 6 servings.

If preferred, croquettes can be baked instead of being fried. To do this, mold the mixture into flat cakes before crumbing. Place on generously greased baking sheet. After the coating has dried, brush over with melted fat. Bake in moderately hot oven, 400 degrees F., for 25 to 30 minutes or until heated through and well browned.

The Haggerty brick yard located on Michigan avenue west of Detroit is still one of the largest producing brick yards in Michigan.

"Town Line 16" is the boundary which southern Michigan hunters must cross to get into Zone Two. This line is the north boundary of Oceana, Newaygo, Mecosta, Isabella and Midland counties, projecting across Bay county to Saginaw Bay. Zone Two does not include any part of the Thumb.

Michigan has a total of 11,037 inland lakes, according to the conservation department's fish division. Sanilac and Saginaw counties are without lakes.

The hunt for uranium in the Upper Peninsula is not the first time prospectors have visited that interesting part of Michigan. The Upper Peninsula for more than a century has been the hunting ground of prospectors for gold, silver, copper, and iron. Vast fortunes have been made by these searches and vast fortunes lost.

The Municipal Fruit market at Benton Harbor is one of the largest of its kind in the world.

The inland city of Midland is now supplied with water from Lake Huron. The intake for the Midland water supply also supplies the city of Saginaw. It is located over two miles out in Lake Huron south of Charity island.

"Old Baldy" is a sand dune. The name, generally applied to mountains, designates the largest sand dune in the state. It is located between the mouth of the Kalamazoo river and Lake Michigan near Saugatuck.

Two great shows—the first time ever combined under one management—will officially usher in the spring and summer season in Detroit March 25 through April 2, when the ninth annual Detroit Congress Sportsmen's Show and the ninth annual Detroit News Travel Show are presented at the Michigan State Fair Grounds in Detroit.

This year's big event, which is regarded by sports enthusiasts and tourist officials as an indication of what the coming summer season offers for Michigan, is under management and direction of Campbell-Fairbanks Expositions, Inc.

In addition to many exhibits, the new equipment and a multitude of special features, 12 headline acts will be offered as the feature attraction of the tank show in the Coliseum where the Detroit Sportsmen's Congress will hold forth. The Travel Show will be housed in the Agriculture Building with the exhibits and displays featuring many Michigan attractions.

Three performances will be offered Saturdays and Sundays, while matinee and evening shows will be presented on weekdays. Headline acts include the spectacular Lottie Mayer's Disappearing Water Ballet, direct from the New York and Chicago Sports Shows; Sandy, the Seal; Tuffey Truesdell and "Rodney," the wrestling alligator, first time in Detroit; the Fitzsimmons Sisters in a swimming specialty, and R. S. Marshall, a pistol expert who can shoot three guns at one time.

Opening day, March 25, has been designated as Detroit Day and Sunday, March 26, will be Governor's Day.

Special events include fly and bait casting exhibitions, a reptile show, plus a real coon hunt on the fair grounds property each Saturday and Sunday of the show. This will be staged by the Detroit Sportsmen's Congress' dog committee.

The Michigan Conservation Department will have a special exhibit in the Food Building on the grounds. The Michigan United Conservation Clubs will also have a display, together with the Audubon Society.

While Michigan led the nation during the year 1949 in the total number of fishing licenses issued, it ranked in second place in the amount of revenue received from the issuance of these fishing licenses. The total number of licenses issued in Michigan was 1,110,109. California was in second place with 79,592 licenses less than issued in Michigan. But California took in more than a million dollars than did Michigan from the fishing license sale. California's total in cash was $3,138,501. Michigan received $2,102,347. Michigan's need for cash in keeping its lakes and streams stocked with game fish is far greater than that of California, which has an ocean shore line of hundreds and hundreds of miles where fishermen can satisfy their fishing desires.

Conservationists for some time have been disturbed by the hydra-like growth of governmental agencies entrusted with the care of natural resources. Expansion alone has been essential to match new needs created by an increasing population. The growth, in many cases, however, has been outward away from the common center. Mr. Charles L. Horn, chairman of the Minnesota Emergency Conservation Committee sums up the situation ably, the Wildlife Management Institutes believes, in the following words:

"There is no coordination. We have an incredible hodgepodge of bureaus and agencies including the Departments of Agriculture and Interior, the War Department represented by Army Engineers, the Extension Service largely in the hands of 48 different state agricultural colleges and by many other bureaus and agencies, pulling in opposite directions, without any coordination and confounded by jealousies and political considerations.

"There is no water policy; there is no land use policy. We are not even attempting to approach water resources from the stand point of land use.

"The Army Engineers are still damming, ditching, draining, dredging and leveeing. They have been on the job for many years. They now have new allies in the various Soil Conservation Districts who are subsidized by federal grants, and who are aided and abetted by agricultural extension divisions of state universities in a vicious program of farm pothole drainage. They seem determined on draining every such pothole: already 2,000 farm potholes have been drained since 1947 in Day County, South Dakota, alone.

"While these and other agencies are promoting drainage, the Soil Conservation Service, the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the state conservation departments, local individuals and groups are advocating conservation of potholes and are attempting marsh restoration.

"While some federal agencies are advocating deserts, the U. S. Department of Agriculture is doling out hundreds of millions of dollars to farmers in agricultural states, including Minnesota and South Dakota, for the building of artificial potholes.

"It's an intolerable mess with impossible tragedy in the immediate offing.

"There are too many agencies too exclusively engrossed in their own specialties, failing to interpret the implications of soil erosion, improvident grazing, deforestation, drainage of marshlands and destruction of watersheds. Responsibility is not centered; there is no effort to see things whole. A merger is an absolute and immediate must."

The solution of this complex problem lies in unification of federal conservation activities under a single governmental department. Such recommendations already have been advanced by the Hoover Commission's Natural Resources "task force" report. The establishment of a Natural Resources Department along lines suggested in this report would coordinate and unify these closely interrelated agencies, which now often seem to be racing in all directions toward the same goal.

Designated as "prairies" by the early settlers because large areas of ground laid perfectly flat, there are sections in Kalamazoo county which are still known by the prairie names given them by the first settlers. Kalamazoo county had nine localities designated as prairies. They are Big Prairie Ronde, Gourd-neck prairie, Genesee prairie, Grand prairie, Gull prairie, Toland's prairie, Chimax prairie

Lake Michigan contains more than 3,400 cubic miles of water. The average width of the lake is about 60 miles. Its deepest place is reported to be about 1,000 feet.

Michigan's trunk line road system was laid out by former Governor Alex J. Groesbeck. With the exception of minor changes to changes made in the routes.

Michigan's first major antlerless deer hunting season ended favorably for the deer, final reports show.

Put into effect to control the herd and reduce serious damage to orchards in the northwestern part of the lower peninsula, the special December 1-10 season ended with an estimated kill of less than 3,200 animals according to the conservation department.

Permits to hunt in four areas had been issued to 21,300 persons but only about 11,000 hunters used them.

Only in relatively small wildland areas near Mancelona, Brethren and Thompsonville was hunting pressure heavy. Elsewhere in the orchard country surrounding Grand Traverse Bay hunters were few and well distributed.

In the Charlevoix and Antrim county area, for which 4,000 permits were issued, around 2,000 hunters took 400 to 500 deer. In portions of Grand Traverse, Leelanau, Benzie and Manistee counties an estimated 10,000 of the 15,000 permittees took not more than 2,500 animals.

With 86 square miles of Allegan county opened to hunting in the special season which dates from 1941 in the locality, 499 of 800 permit hunters put in an appearance and took 54 deer.

An estimated 400-500 hunters of the 1,500 holding permits got less than 200 deer in a portion of Newaygo county opened to hunting in the special season because of a winter food shortage and failure of the acorn crop.

The take of antlerless deer was far below the anticipated kill, due possibly to overly conservative department restrictions, and concern is felt that not enough deer were taken to relieve the crop damage situation.

There was some posting of private lands in the four areas but not enough to effect the kill materially and the anxiety of persons who foretold a wild inrush of permittees proved unfounded.

Light to heavy snow over the areas aided hunting in some places and hindered it in others, making tracking easier in open country but blocking many woods roads in wildland territory.

Hunting was heaviest during opening days of the special season.

Intensive field studies in New Jersey to determine the effects of DDT on songbirds, fish, and game have been completed by the State DDT Study Commission, according to the Wildlife Management Institute.

The eight-man commission is made up of representatives of the State Health Department, the Agricultural Experiment Station, Rutgers University, the Fish and Game Division, the State Entomology Department, and the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. It has sought to find effective methods of mosquito control which would not cause damage to desirable wildlife. Under the conditions tested, one-tenth of a pound of DDT distributed in one pint of spray per acre was found to be entirely adequate for mosquito control and to cause no damage to related interests. This concentration of the potent insecticide is far less than is used by most commercial spraying firms. The uncontrolled use of DDT and other powerful insect-killing sprays without regard to biological interrelationships has caused much concern to conservationists. The heavy application of these insecticides by misinformed individuals has resulted in damage to fish, birds, and crops in some localities.

The work of the New Jersey Commission shows the value of joint study by state agencies concerned with insect-control problems. With all agencies working toward the same goal, the interchange of technical information is facilitated, and greater efficiency is assured. It has provided maximum pest control, minimum damage to wildlife and other resources, and points the way toward safer control at less cost to commercial sprayers.

Hold Concert in Northville

The Northville Community Concert association extends to the people of Plymouth and surrounding areas an invitation to attend its concert. The last concert of the season will be the George London concert to be held in the auditorium of the Wayne County Training school April 11.

The association was reorganized recently into a community project. The concert was formerly under the sponsorship of the Business and Professional Women's club, but because the sponsorship has become too large an enterprise for one organization to handle, other organizations of Northville have joined in its promotion.

Two years ago when the woman's club was organized, the group was challenged by the idea of bringing good music to the community. Under the guidance of Mrs. Arthur Carlson, president, and the concert chairman, Mrs. K. R. Babbitt, "Community Concerts" is in its second successful year.

..All Dramatically Restyled...and Powered by Cadillac's Sensational New Engine!

TODAY, we are presenting, for your consideration, the finest, most beautiful motor cars we have ever been privileged to announce.

They are the new Cadillacs for 1950—and we want you to come and see them.

We not only want you to see them—but we think you should see them. For to see and inspect these wonderful creations will make you a sharper judge of all cars—and increase your motor-car wisdom in every respect.

There are four entirely new series of cars—all with wholly new bodies, and all completely restyled. We think you'll agree that nothing so sleek and dynamic and beautiful has ever been seen on the world's streets and highways. They are arrestingly and breath-takingly gorgeous—and all are distinctively Cadillac.

And not only are they advanced in beauty—but their performance is finer in every way.

Cadillac's great new high-compression engine is even smoother; it is actually quicker in acceleration; and it runs so quietly that only the indicators reveal when it is in action. It is simply wonderful to drive.

And—difficult as this will be for owners of 1949 Cadillacs to believe—the 1950 cars are even more economical to operate. Gasoline mileage really approaches that of the smaller, lowest-priced cars. It is no less than amazing that cars so big and luxurious should run so far on a gallon of gasoline.

Comfort and handling ease are also remarkably advanced. There is far finer road balance and over-all steadiness at all driving speeds. Steering is softer and more positive. Brakes are more efficient and longer-lived. The over-all satisfaction of driving—from every standpoint—is simply "out of this world."

Truly, here are cars so fine and beautiful that they deserve your personal consideration.

Make your plans now to come in and see them. You will be cordially welcome at any time.

News Summary of Lecture on Christian Science
Entitled Christian Science: The Science That Meets the Human Need

Mankind's improving mood today for better ways of living is being met in Christian Science by proofs of restored health, abundance, and well-being in all branches of living, declared John S. Sammons, C. S., of Chicago, in a public lecture here Sunday afternoon on "Christian Science: The Science That Meets the Human Need."

Four years ago, at a time when the newspapers were giving prominence to a certain type of paralysis, a friend of Mr. Sammons woke one morning and found himself manifesting the symptoms of this disease. He was quickly and permanently healed in Christian Science.

This and other verified experiences of healing were offered by the lecturer to substantiate his statement that Christian Science brings the full salvation promised by Christ Jesus, including freedom from sickness as well as from sin.

Mr. Sammons came to Plymouth in the course of a national speaking tour. He is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. His visit here was sponsored by the First Church of Christ, Scientist. The lecture was held in the high school auditorium. Mr. Sammons was introduced by Mrs. Murray O'Neil.

"Christian Science reveals God's presence and power and the science and art of relying upon this presence and utilizing this power," Mr. Sammons said. "As prophet and apostle of an earlier day so beautifully and conclusively demonstrated, so Christian Science is proving today that wherever there is a human need this sacred presence may be found available and ready to adjust, and correct, to heal and bless."

Throughout his lecture Mr. Sammons explained how any sincere inquirer can learn to make scientific use of the rules for living whereby works of healing are accomplished.

"To Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science," he said, "the welfare of others was always a matter of immediate concern. She was ever inclusive in her thinking and early developed an interest in love for mankind."

"Mrs. Eddy's offering knew no bounds, her sacrifices no end. The Sunday services and Wednesday meetings, the lectures, the quiet sanctuary of the Reading Rooms, bear present witness to her conscious desire to meet the human need and evidence the universal nature of her love. She accepted without reservation and consistently practiced what she taught. She had a childlike trust in God, a great compassion for the sufferer, a graciousness and tenderness towards all, an unqualified acceptance of her mission, and a complete willingness to bear the cross of spiritual leadership—a leadership which continues to illumine the path of her followers."

The key to Mrs. Eddy's rediscovery of the healing power taught by Christ Jesus for his followers in all ages to come is her perception of the divine qualities, Mr. Sammons continued. Power, for example, is a divine attribute expressed through laws which can be learned and applied. Since God is good, His power brings blessings to mankind. To illustrate how his friend had been healed of paralysis through understanding the divine power, Mr. Sammons read the account of this healing in the words of the one who experienced it.

"It was an ugly picture," the friend wrote, "but after the first shock I began immediately to apply what I knew of Christian Science to the situation, and this statement of Mrs. Eddy's came to me: 'A danger besets thy path?—a spiritual behest, in reversion, awaits you' (Message to The Mother Church for 1902, p. 19)."

"I was taken to the country, to the home of a member of the family who was also a Christian Scientist, and there devoted my thought completely to the acknowledgment of the presence and activity of my individual sense of the Christ. For ten days there was no apparent improvement, but I became disciplined during that time to think of no selfhood apart from God. On the eleventh day I was able to partake of solid food for the first time, and from then on a gradual but continuing recovery was evident. At last except for one spot on the face the healing was complete."

"As I pondered this persistent and final effort of error to get itself accepted as reality, I recalled a small child who upon leaving a Christian Science Sunday School walked away with measured tread repeating in rhythm a line from a poem, 'There is no spot where God is not.' It came to me with great clarity that there was indeed 'no spot where God is not' and with this added realization I was restored to normal health in all particulars."

Such a convincing proof shows the practical nature of prayer as understood in Christian Science, Mr. Sammons continued, "prayer which is the affirmation of Truth, the denial of that which is untrue; prayer which is the silent realization of God's presence, the understanding and appreciation of His great goodness, and the consciousness of the power of His law, the quiet conviction that under the sovereignty of divine Love all is well. Such prayer destroys fear, restores confidence and trust, dispels ignorance and superstition, supercedes false law with the higher law of Spirit, causes the morbid or excited action of disease to cease, and all related or associated beliefs to revert to their native nothingness.

"True prayer establishes in thought and demonstration the spiritual basis for sound health. This is the operation of divine Truth in the affairs of men, the practice of Christian Science fulfilling its healing and saving mission, and one of the reasons for the vital place this Science holds in the life and affections of countless numbers.

"The salvation through spiritualized thought, which Christian Science offers, is not a play upon the emotions, but the gentle emergence from the bondage of material sense into the freedom

Plymouth will be allowed to send three members, to be chosen later, to the assembly. The students chosen, preferably 11th graders, will be judged on general knowledge of American history, citizenship and special knowledge of U.N. problems and attitudes. Each participating school will be assigned a special country to represent at the assembly.

The local Rotary club will pay all expenses dealing with travel of the representatives while the Hillsdale Rotary club will furnish room and board for the students. The Rotary will also provide a guest speaker from the U. N. assembly at Lake Success.

The officers and committees will be chosen from the representatives. Since there are so many committees in the U. N., only three have been selected for the junior U. N. meeting. They are a political committee, a humanitarian and social committee and an Ad Hoc or special political committee. The purpose of this meeting is to give the young people a chance to discuss world problems and their solutions.

Movies Instruct School Classes

Trains For Armed Forces Maneuvers

Cpl. William C. Yearns is receiving amphibious training at the Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek, Virginia, in preparation for participation in Exercise Portrex, joint air-sea-ground maneuver to be held in the Caribbean during late February and early March.

Portrex is planned to test new amphibious and airborne techniques and equipment, to accumulate knowledge and data concerning the principles governing a joint operation, and to indoctrinate Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine personnel in joint training of all services for increased efficiency of the armed forces as a fighting team.

Climax of the operation will be a combined assault on the island of Vieques, which lies about six miles off the coast of Puerto Rico. Vieques will be defended by an "aggressor" force, one of the latest wrinkles in adding realism to maneuvers.

Cpl. Yearns, a member of the headquarters battery, 9th FA, BW, Fort Benning, Georgia, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Yearns of 194 South Mill street.

Says Ohio Flood Did Much Damage

Mrs. Goodwin Crumie returned to Plymouth last weekend after spending two weeks with Mr. Crumie in the Maumee River valley, where Mr. Crumie is located with the United States Engineers. During her visit there she witnessed the floods which caused so much damage to that section of Ohio.

Mr. Crumie is located in that section where the engineers are making a survey of flood damage in previous years. She said the flood was the worst that section had had since 1913 and that they were in flood during the worst of the same where they witnessed many of the rescues made by the National Guard which took over control of the area while flood waters were at their peak.

Mrs. Crumie said that the damage done by the flood would run into many hundreds of thousands of dollars and that literally thousands of families lost everything they owned during the disaster.

The Letter Box

Dear Editor: I am haunted these days by the tune that is currently popular—"I Love Those Dear Folks and Gentle People" (that live and love in my home town). Do you know why???? Because it makes me think of just one place—Plymouth, Michigan.

Maybe I was just lucky and met only the finest folk, and maybe to some who live in Plymouth it's full of disappointment and evils. But I found only the good. And so the song is very real to me. All the words in it.

It would be interesting to know how many others feel that way. Wouldn't it be fun for your paper to see how it does measure up in the eyes of the people who live there all the time. I don't think they half realize what a very fine group of people they have. Or do they? Although I can't claim it as my home town, I have the same sense of welcome each time that I return that the composer speaks of so aptly.

To write this sort of a fan letter is probably very foolish (and maybe undignified!) but I could not resist... especially since I hear that tune wherever I go!

Here's to Plymouth... may it keep its charm!
Sincerely
Eleanor Klx

Down Under The Florida Palm Trees With The Mail's Roving Wolverine

Gloomy days—that is the days when sunshine is bright and there are lots of places to go—are over for a time down here. In the past few days the tourist rush expected in December and January, has started. For the next week or two it begins to look as though Florida's gloom is all over—for a time at least.

From what one reads in the newspapers the number of visitors is now expected to equal that of a year ago, but the "money take" is going to be considerably less and the days when visitors were "hijacked" are apparently over, too. Prices are and have been exceptionally reasonable this winter. Of course, if one wants to make a fool of himself, he can still do that. But if one desires, it is possible to spend a winter vacation in Florida in desirable quarters and locations much cheaper than it can be spent in northern Michigan, providing you have to rent a cottage or tourist court accommodations.

The tourist business in Florida means just as much, if not more, to its permanent residents than does the tourist business of northern Michigan to that part of our beautiful state.

St. Augustine, long the center of the shrimp industry of this part of the country, is no longer in the shrimp business. When on the way south a few weeks ago we spent two or three days in St. Augustine. At that time it was generally reported in that city that the vast shrimp beds in the Atlantic ocean which had kept a fleet of shrimp boats busy during much of the year, were no longer producing shrimp. Most of the boats were tied up at the docks and the few that went out to net shrimp returned with only a few pounds.

But shrimp fishermen have found a new place to net shrimp—and it looks as though Key West is going to be the main port from now on of the shrimp industry.

A St. Augustine newspaper dispatch has the following to say about the "discovery" of the new shrimp beds:

"The bulk of the shrimp industry here is weighing anchor and moving to the Florida keys and Key West where new shrimping grounds have been discovered."

More than 75 boats already have pulled out for the islands of the Dry Tortugas and more are leaving today. The news is spreading up the Georgia coast and the exodus from Savannah, Charleston and Fernandina, has begun.

"One shrimp dealer said the industry here will look like a ghost town in a few days. Shrimping has been a $2,000,000 annual business for the past several years and also has been St. Augustine's third chief revenue source."

"The new shrimping grounds off the Florida keys were discovered by Felix Salvador and E. L. Peterson. The run of shrimp off St. Augustine has been poor for the past two years and shrimp boat captains have been exploring other grounds."

"Back in August, Salvador and Peterson made arrangements to explore the grounds off Key West in boats which were rigged with special equipment. Their hauls reached as high as 5,000 pounds per boat a day."

"Salvador said, there seems to be an unlimited supply of shrimp in these virgin grounds. The shrimp are of a different variety from those caught here. They are pink in color and similar to the specie caught in waters off Texas."

"The departing captains said there were many difficulties staring down the new venture. At present ice has to be hauled 140 miles from Miami to Key West and there is little dockage space for the fleet. Some boats are tying up at Fort Myers and other ports."

"We hate to leave St. Augustine," one captain said, "but we have to make a living."

Remember back in the days when Michigan first adopted its sales tax law under the administration of Governor Comstock when you'd say to the groceryman or the clothier, "Here's three cents for the Governor?"

Well, that's a common remark in Florida at present. Florida has just enacted a three cent sales tax—and what a lot of "wolfing" there is about it. But Florida has gone much farther than Michigan. It taxes every sale made, even though it is a dime. It does not tax groceries if you buy them in a store, but if you buy them prepared to eat in a restaurant, you pay it there. It taxes rents, magazines, almost everything under the sun except groceries.

While the people of Michigan howled when the Comstock administration put the sales tax law into effect, the howl down here is a roaring growl, especially among the natives. Most visitors are accustomed to a sales tax and say nothing about it—but if you want to know just how a lion roars, be around when an old time Florida resident pays the clerk for a bill of goods, plus the sales tax.

Folks in this part of the good old United States believe in using "slugs" when they get a chance, it would appear from a recent article published in a local newspaper. Last year phone workers collected $11,273 in slugs from telephone toll boxes. During the first few days of January this year, slugs paid for $2,115 worth of telephoning in Miami.

How To Handle A Frightened Child

HANDLING A FRIGHTENED CHILD is something that all professional men are called upon to do at times, and parents very frequently. Here's how Dr. T. H. Long, Mobile, Alabama, handled a young and refractory patient, and persuaded him to do what—as desired of him.

The little chap was five years old, old enough to know fear and to understand that hurts come even with those who are trustworthy. Dr. Long wanted to measure the corneal curvatures and to do so he had to use an instrument called the ophthalmometer which to the uninitiated resembles some gadget from a Buck Rogers movie.

Carnegie

The young patient was extremely timid anyway, and when placed before the instrument, he became almost hysterical. Dr. Long and the mother did their utmost to reassure him, but it was no go, and after a long siege they were about to abandon the idea of examining him that time.

But Dr. Long knew that it would probably be worse the next time for fear would attack him the minute he entered the office. So he put the little boy out of the chair, and he himself took his place. He paid no further attention to him while the refractionist went through the motions of obtaining the finding. The little boy's tears stopped flowing as he watched what was going on.

Pretty soon, he wanted to look. But the doctor paid no attention to him, just continued to show, tremendous interest in the proceedings. The child's curiosity got the better of him; now he must see. So Dr. Long relinquished his seat to the boy, fixed his eyes rapidly upon the target, and the finding was obtained with no further delay.

Yes, and if you can handle children, you can handle adults. They are not so different.

Petitioning for leniency for the dog that bit him, a man in Detroit explained matter-of-factly: "I suffered no ill effects, but the dog got sick."

Chrome-alloy motor blocks which minimize wear and reduce upkeep costs • Triple-Safe Brakes—finest hydraulic system with reserve mechanical system on same pedal, plus finger-tip-release parking brake • Fluid-Cushioned Clutch • Wide-arc vision with Curved Full-View windshield and rear window • Weather-Control!—Hudson's heater-conditioned-air system • Super-Cushion tires • Safety-Type wide rims • Center-Point Steering and more than 20 other high-performance, long-life features that help make "step-down" designed Hudsons leaders in resale value, coast to coast, as is shown by Official Used Car Guide Book!

IT'S EASY for you to discover that Hudson is at sensational lower prices—offers you the most room . . . best ride . . . greatest safety of any car . . . and more value at less cost!

Your first glance inside shows you that Hudson's exclusive "step-down" design, with its recessed floor, puts at your service new space that is wasted in other cars.

That means seat cushions that are up to 12 inches wider than in cars of far greater outside dimensions . . . more head room than in any other stock car built today . . . a spaciousness further increased by the placing of interior hardware and door controls in recessed panels to give extra elbow room!

But Hudson's fabulous roominess is only part of the story! Hudson's free-flowing, low-built design quickly tells you that the New Hudson has the lowest center of gravity in any American automobile; yet there's full road clearance!

As a result, you know instinctively that this thrilling motor car handles more surely, hugs the road more tenaciously than any other automobile, and is therefore America's best-riding and safest car! And for added safety, Hudson's Monobolt body-and-frame*, an all-welded, all-steel single unit of construction, rides you completely encircled by box-section steel girders, even outside the rear wheels!

Yes, Hudson brings you more value at less cost—as a few minutes behind the wheel will disclose. We invite you to visit us soon—check Hudson's sensational lower prices—and discover quickly and completely that, because Hudson is built differently, "The New Step-Down Ride" is America's best and safest ride! *Trade-mark and patents pending.

Roger Babson Says...

By LYN CONNELLY

Babson Discusses Human Relations in Industry
One of the greatest problems which will confront us in the next 12 months is how to bring the break-even point down. When the present artificial boom has burst, producers must find ways to make more goods at cheaper prices and at the same time keep wages up, continue workers' short hours and give more benefits.

and labor's place in the scheme of things. Yet, if we are to preserve Democracy, avoid state socialism and develop a state of abundance, then we will send teams out to explore, conquer, and develop this relatively unknown frontier of Human Relations in Industry.

One small manufacturer, some months ago, became desperate. His break-even point was too high and he faced a shutdown. But a simple formula evolved which resulted in a production increase of 160 per cent in a short space of time. Here's how. Management found that about 38 per cent of its sales dollar was charged against the cost of labor. Labor was offered the difference between the 38 per cent and whatever savings it could effect. Labor accepted the challenge. Cost dropped—production went up—new business was available on the basis of decreased costs of production, and deliveries were made on time at a profit to all parties.

Why Labor Doesn't Produce
One of my own employees worked a few years ago as assistant to the president of a nationally-known company with its share of labor troubles. He put on a pair of overalls, went out into the plant as a sort of labor-spy. He learned how to use a paint spray gun and after a while was fully accepted by the workers as one of them. Among other things he was taught by them how to hold work back so that management would never know how fast they could really work. He learned how to so mix paint and to so spray that he could collect for a three-coat job when in reality the company was only getting a one-coat job.

This new man observed skilled workers withholding their skills from new workers. He watched spoilage pile up. He saw workers let excellent suggestions for improving efficiency and cutting costs go down the drain, and then sneer at management because it was so inefficient. Company problems were none of their business; for these men "only worked there." Labor productivity has been frozen by management.

Conclusion
I believe that we can save our private enterprise system only by allowing the wageworkers to become entrepreneur along with management. When the workers can have a personally gratifying part in solving their company's production problems; when they can reap a proportionate reward; then, you won't need to worry much about "collective bargaining" in your plant.

Management's Opportunities
The officials of too many corporations have inherited this scheme of things from their forebears. But we too have succumbed to their time-worn dogmas about management's prerogatives.

one of the saner of the famous trio, has turned to dramatics and is doing well playing straight roles on radio and television. Shortly before Patrice Munsel was signed by the Met, the landlord of her New York apartment cancelled her lease because the constant vocalizing disturbed the other tenants... They probably are the very ones spending fancy prices now for the privilege of hearing the young lady... Probably the biggest flop since the advent of radio was the highly touted "Hollywood Calling."

Merely Tidbits
George Petty, internationally famous artist, served as technical advisor on the Columbia technical musical, "The Petty Girl"... Joan Caulfield and Robert Cummings (good casting!) are starred in the story of the girl who was the inspiration of Petty's noted pin-up pictures... Columbia is kidding referred to by its director as "The Battle of the Oscars"... In the cast are Ray Milland, who won several years ago for "Lost Week-End," Edmund Gwenn, who nabbed an award for "Miracle on 34th Street," and Rosalind Russell, three-times nominated for an award—for "My Sister Eileen," "Sister Kenny" and "Mourning Becomes Electra."

It's "Prof" Elliott Lewis these days... Radio's "Frankie Remley" opened his radio acting and directing classes at the University of California at Los Angeles on February 14... He conducts four-hour classes twice weekly.

Your Police Department Speaks

Written by members of Plymouth's Police Department

After a week's absence from being in print we return with glad news. During that period of very bad weather Plymouth citizens reported only two accidents, both involving only minor property damage. Drivers are always much more alert and careful when the streets are snowy and icy. The same amount of caution should be exercised on the fairest day in June.

A most unusual thing happened over our counter not long ago. A smiling gentleman walked in with his half of a speeding ticket (the $10 size). He stated that he was quite willing to pay the ticket because he knew that he had been in the wrong and perhaps he would profit by his experience. Our mottois dropped open—they really did—to see a person happy to pay a speeding ticket.

We quote again from the Traffic Ordinance: Section 31. (a) Upon the approach of any vehicle of the Fire Department, Police Department of Police authorized vehicles, when on emergency call, sounding a siren or bell, all operators of other vehicles shall immediately drive as closely as possible to the right hand curb and stop, and shall not follow any vehicle or apparatus of the Fire Department until same shall be at least five hundred (500) feet away, or has stopped. (b) No vehicle other than those of the Fire Department or Police Department, except by direction of the officer in charge, shall approach or park within six hundred (600) feet of any fire apparatus responding to a call after such fire apparatus shall have reached the scene of the fire. (c) No operator shall drive over any fire hose or fire hose line which may be lying in any public street alley.

Alter Regulations on Lakes Now Open to Winter Anglers

Winter anglers interested in fishing under experimental conditions have a number of lakes open to them where the conservation department has altered regulations.

The experimental lake program is an attempt to further evaluate the worth of statutory limitations imposed on fishing. Six-inch size limit on par-fish was removed as a result of this program.

The first group of experimental lakes, composed of Craig lake, Branch county; Duck lake, Calhoun county; Fine lake, Barry county; Lobbell lake, Genesee county; Pontiac lake, Oakland county; and Whitmore lake, Livingston county—are open to hook and line fishing at any time of the year for taking all fish during their respective open seasons. Regular possession limits prevail.

There is no closed season on bluegills and sunfish in the second group consisting of Big Portage lake, Jackson county; Fife lake, Grand Traverse county; Minnewaukon lake, St. Joseph county; and Sugarloaf lake, in

Grange Notes

Plymouth Grange, No. 389, held their regular meeting on Thursday evening, February 16, with a good attendance. A patriotic program was planned, the roll call being matters of interest about our country. Readings on the lives of George Washington, Lincoln and Edison were given by several members. Miss Czarina Penney presented two of her piano pupils, James Zukowsky and Eric Eklund. Each played two piano selections which were much enjoyed by all.

Next Monday evening, February 27, as early as possible after dinner, the men of the Grange are having a "bee" to do some necessary repairs and cleaning at the hall. Ladies that are able to come will be welcome. Bring tools, scrub pails and rags. Soap will be furnished. Three ladies have volunteered to furnish donuts. Others may bring sandwiches, each bringing their own cup and spoon.

Coffee will be furnished. Let's have a good crowd, work and have fun as well and best of all, cooperation.

The next regular meeting will be on March 2 with pot luck supper at 6:30. Come and help Mr. and Mrs. Vealey celebrate their wedding anniversary.

The program will begin about 8:30 and will be open to the public. Special music is planned, and sound colored pictures from the Conservation Educational department in Lansing will be shown. One film shown will be "Buck Fever" taken at the Spicer camp, near Mio, and brother Sam Spicer and his brother, Frank, are in the pictures. Other films are "Michigan Porcupine Mountains State Park" and "Michigan Commercial Fishing."

A cordial invitation is extended to the public, if interested. No charge.

Charlie McConnel is on the job again in his barber shop on Main street, feeling much improved in health.

James Gates is home from the hospital but is still in bed.

By REV. ROBERT H. HARPER
Planting a Church in a Pagan City (Temperance)
Lesson for February 26: Acts 18: 1, 8-11; II Corinthians 6: 14-7:1; Memory Selection: I Corinthians 6: 19-20.

CORINTH Paul abode a year and six months and had a great ministry. Corinth was a very wicked city, with a bad reputation. But Paul, encouraged by a vision from God, boldly preached the Gospel and invited men to the better way of life in Christ.

Ages before God told Elijah of the thousands in Israel who had not bowed the knee to Baal. And the Lord bade Paul to "be not afraid, for," he said, "I have much people in this city."

Afterward, as Paul wrote the Corinthians, he urged them to be strong against all the evils about them. One of the three primary laws of logic, upon which all reasoning must finally depend, is the law of contradiction—Nothing can both be and not be at the same time.

A white object may be burned black, but it cannot be white and black at the same time. A wicked man may become good, but he cannot be bad and good at the same time. Paul reasoned according to this law.

There is no concord between Christ and Belial, and no union between a believer and an infidel. Therefore the Corinthians were urged to come out from among the wicked and to be a separate people. In this time of much corruption the Christian meets many temptations to fall into dissolute living. He who makes no compromise with evil will not go into intemperance and the ways of vice.

200 Present at Church Dinner

Two hundred sons and fathers enjoyed the dinner served by the Methodist church women at the Father and Son meeting last Thursday at the First Methodist church. Much credit is due all committees which helped to make this annual event a success.

Five Wayne university students entertained with their puppet show, Mischa and the Mole. Following the act the boys were invited back stage to learn how the show was put on. Bob Nulty spoke on what boys expect from their dads, and George Burr spoke for the fathers. He expressed the hope that the boys would not only prepare themselves to meet the challenge ahead, but that they would not neglect the everyday courtesies that make for satisfactory day to day living. He emphasized that they especially develop faith in God and the church.

All participated in the singing led by Al Glassford, with Murray O'Neil at the piano. A Laurel and Hardy sound film was also shown. Program chairman for the evening was Randall Penhale. The March meeting will be held in conjunction with the Lenten services of the church.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST, Sunday services at 10:30 a.m. Sunday school, 10:30 a.m. for pupils up to 20 years. "Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, February 26. The Golden Text (Colossians 2:6,9) is: "As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: ... for in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily."

Among the Bible citations is the passage. (I John 5:1): "Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 26): "The Christ was the Spirit which Jesus implied in his own statements: 'I am the way, the truth, and the life.' 'I and my Father are one.' This Christ, or divinity of the man Jesus, was his divine nature, the godliness which animated him."

There's no use trying to hide it, fellows, a national magazine has just reported that most U. S. husbands draw some K.P. duty. It seems 84.8% do the dishes with some degree of regularity; 53% sometimes get their own breakfast; 38.7% know how to whip up a meal. At least it proves we're determined not to go hungry... and it's also a rebuttal to that famous feminine remark, "Oh, men are so helpless in the kitchen". As a matter of fact, most famous cooks have been, or are, men. But let's not make too much of it, or the first thing you know we'll be in the kitchen for keeps.

Atchinson, First National End League Season in First Place Tie

With the basketball season completed for the two top teams in the men's basketball league, there still remains a tie for first place between Atchinson-Chrysler and First National Bank.

STANDINGS table with columns W, L, and team names: Atchinson-Chrysler, DeHoCo, Tait's Cleaners, Daisy Air Rifle, Plymouth Mail.

Shorts in Sports by Al Larson

Keeping up with their running mate, Atchinson-Chrysler, for first place in the men's loop, First National eked out a victory over the Detroit House of Correction last Thursday, 48-45.

For the first time in four years a team other than the Trenton Trojans or the Ypsilanti Braves captured the Suburban 6-B basketball championship as Redford Union mathematically took the crown.

Trenton and Ypsilanti have dominated the basketball crown for the past four years with the Trojans winning it twice and trying for it once while Ypsilanti has won it once and tied with Trenton on another occasion.

Ypsilanti has been the power of the league for the past five years in most every sport on their schedule and a regular Notre Dame in football. It is nice to see one of the schools, who has taken few top honors, walk off with the crown.

The Plymouth Rocks have always been a good contender in the cage league with the exception of last year when they won only one game in the league all season. The local quintet had the best year during the season of 1946-47 when they lost the championship by two points in the last few seconds of a hard fought battle with Trenton.

Plymouth had another fine opportunity for top honors this year, boasting at one time a five game winning streak over league opponents. With those five games the Rocks beat every other team in the loop and now every other team in the league has beaten Plymouth, except Belleville, who the local lads play tomorrow night on the Plymouth court.

The Rocks were handed their worst defeat of the season when they were shellacked by the Wayne Zebras 69-36. Cedric Dempsey of Wayne, a top contender for the all-league team, broke an individual scoring record for Wayne, racking up 22 points, six short of the league record and high for the league this season. Eight of his 32 counters were made on free throws.

If Belleville beats Plymouth, which is not likely, it will form one of the daffiest cycles in basketball this year. The Rocks lost their first four games of the season and then beat Northville by two points, which started a six game winning streak for the locals. Plymouth won victories over Redford Union, Wayne, Ypsilanti, Belleville and Trenton in that order.

Plymouth then lost to Northville by two points which put them on a losing streak, bowing to Redford Union, and Wayne so far.

We sure hope that the Rocks do not lose tomorrow's contest with Belleville to form this cycle as Plymouth cannot finish lower than a tie for second if they win this tilt.

The real form of an athlete came out in Dick Cramb, junior at Plymouth High, when he won a three round bout in the boxing show at Wayne Wednesday, February 15 with the Plymouth Boys' Boxing Club.

Dick's bout was scheduled to be the eighth of the evening but because he was practicing for the junior play, he could not get to Wayne on time and the bout was re-scheduled for the last of the evening.

Near the 10th bout Dick, who had hitch-hiked from Plymouth to box at Wayne, dashed in, in time to meet his opponent in the last match of the evening.

Dick did box and he did win the bout proving that if you have the heart to really box or go all out in a sport you can do good in it.

Boys' Boxing Club Wins Four Bouts at Wayne Fights

A fine showing was made by the Plymouth Boys' Boxing Club at Wayne Wednesday, February 15, as they won all four of their scheduled matches plus a good showing between two Plymouth flea weight competitors.

Chuck McKenna and Charles Chesner, two Plymouth contenders, battled it out for three rounds and received no decision. McKenna's weight was listed at 82 pounds and Chesner's at 75.

Another couple of flea weights from Plymouth, Doug Simpson, 78 pounds, and Terry Goebel, 80 pounds, fought it out for a no decision bout.

Arlen Ottensman of Plymouth won a three round decision bout from Charles Sayan from Wayne as Arlen showed some fine stuff out there in the ring. Both of these boys were 130 pounds.

Dick Love, another Wayne lad, was beaten by Don Beaver of Plymouth in a three round decision bout, chalking up another win for Plymouth as they battled right along.

Delos Kew, 158 pound Livonian boy boxing in the Plymouth Boys' Boxing Club, fought his way to victory over Danny Witt of Wayne, weighing 160 pounds, in a three round decision bout.

In the final bout of the evening and what was probably the best of them all, Dick Cramb of Plymouth received a three round decision match over Leslie Goodlett of Wayne. Cramb tipped the scales at 132 pounds and Goodlett at 126.

This bout was scheduled to be the eighth of the evening but because Dick Cramb was practicing for the Plymouth High school junior play he had to hitch-hike to Wayne for the bout. Dick was late getting to the boxing show and to prolong the time and let him box, the bouts were shifted and Dick was able to get there in time to make it the last bout and one of the best of the evening.

With Cramb coming through with a victory it gave the Plymouth Boxing Club a record of four wins and no losses for the evening and a 1,000 batting average. We are sure Mike Spitz, Plymouth boxing director, is proud of the showing his boys made at Wayne.

In other bouts at Wayne, Tony Dubena, Detroit boxing club, won a TKO from Robert Sherwood in the second round of a scheduled three round bout. Al Garza, Golden Gloves champion at Jackson, Michigan, took a three round decision match from Joe Agostone of the Shamrock Boys' Club. Garza weighed in at 136 and Agostone at 145 pounds.

Another fellow well known to many Plymouth boxing fans and especially Wayne fans, Dick Spisak, met John McGuire of the Shamrock Boys' Club and won by a TKO in the second round of a scheduled three round bout. Each boy weighed in at 135 pounds.

Hector Scharrett of the Detroit boxing club won a three round decision match from Gene Fisher of Wayne with both boys tipping the scales at 147 pounds.

The Plymouth Chess Club, which has been meeting every other Friday evening at the city hall with good attendance, is now looking for some chess matches with other top chess clubs.

President Joe Haefner relates that it is pretty late in the season to look for any matches but that they hope to still get some.

About nine or ten men have been attending the meetings. The next meeting is scheduled for tomorrow night in the city hall beginning at 7:30 p.m. Besides President Joe Haefner, Steve Verch is secretary-treasurer.

Twin Pines Wins March of Dimes Cage Encounter

The Twin Pines girls team journeyed to Adrian February 16 to play an exhibition tilt with Adrian college for the March of Dimes and won in a see-saw battle that saw one team and then the other go ahead. The game ended 26-25 in favor of Twin Pines.

Twin Pines took a firm hold on second place in the Girls' Inter-city league by defeating the Ypsilanti Sophisticians in a hotly contested game. The local cagers took the lead in the initial period but Ypsi came from behind twice to tie it up.

In a practice game with Garling's Real Estate of Dearborn, Daisy dropped their first game of the season 25-20, which was not a league contest.

Daisy had an easy time with the Edison sextet of Wayne, emerging victorious 48-18 February 16. At the half the scoreboard read 22-1 in favor of Daisy. In the last half Edison made seven baskets and three free throws. Daisy divided the scoring with Sierlet dumping in 14 counters, McCough 12, Fellows 11 and Furmenek nine. The playoffs will start in this league Monday, February 27, at Plymouth with the first game beginning at 7 p.m.

Fox Bagged in Local Club Hunt

Fox hunters from Elkton were guests of the local Fox club last Sunday with weather conditions ideal for fox hunting and a fine tracking snow covering the fields.

A chase soon got underway which ended in a kill. This was the second fox killed this past week. Fox are plentiful this year but the kill has not been as heavy as other years, which, in the opinion of the hunters, should show an increase of fox for next season.

The hunt was called off at 3 p.m. and a dinner was then served at the Plymouth Country Club. The local Fox club is now engaged in a series of euchre games with the Twelve Point club. Twenty-four players meet once a week and battle to see who puts on a dinner when the final round is over.

New officers of the Fox club are Howard Hern, president; Bob Burley, vice president, and Fred Rhead, secretary-treasurer.

Dempsey Leads Wayne to 69-36 Win Over Locals

Sparked by the remarkable playing of Cedric Dempsey, who last year was chosen a member of the all-league team, the Wayne Zebras swamped the local cagers 69-36. Wayne dominated the entire game as Dempsey hooped 32 points.

The spectators saw Wayne snap off an early lead with Dempsey and Clark making baskets from all angles of the court, the score at the end of the quarter was 18 to 8 in favor of the Wayne cagers. At the half the score was 28-19. Dempsey had collected 16 points in the first half.

Captain Dick Fenton and other cagers tried in vain to catch the high scoring Zebras in the second half. The local lads probably slid to their worst performance of the year during the tilt.

The evening's star was without a doubt Cedric Dempsey who set a new school record scoring 32 points. Dempsey in a previous game had scored 29 points. When Plymouth played Wayne on Plymouth's court Dempsey scored 19 points. Another point of interest is that Dempsey has made good on 42 out of 49 free throw attempts.

The local cagers played without their star guard, Dave Reitzel, who is half of what is sometimes considered the best pair of guards in the league. Dick Fenton is the other guard.

The victory gave Wayne a tie with Plymouth and Trenton for second place. Wayne encounters Ypsilanti next week. If they win they can finish no lower than second in the league standings.

Alan Finney, who scored 23 points in the other tilt took scoring honors for the Rocks with seven points.

Red Birds Triumph Over Gould's For 9th Consecutive Victory

In the game of the evening at the Wayne County Training school last Thursday, the Red Birds downed Gould's Cleaners 37-32 for their ninth straight victory of the season. The Red Birds have only to win one more game to finish the season undefeated.

The Training school jumped to a quick lead and led at the end of the first period 14-0. At the half the Red Birds were ahead 18-12 as they eased up the play of the game.

In the last three periods Gould's outscored the Training school 32-23 but could not get ahead because of the scoreless first quarter.

By losing this game Gould's will have to win tonight's game with the Ecneics to be eligible for the playoffs. Jim Bloomhuff took scoring honors for the game with 15 counters while Syrkett tossed in 12 for the Red Birds.

The second game at the Training school found the Rock Crushers finally coming through with a victory as they edged past the Bulldogs in the last quarter to win 24-20. The Bulldogs took the lead at the end of the initial period 8-4 and had a 14-8 margin at half time.

With things going smoothly the Bulldogs led at the end of the third stanza, 20-13. With a seven point lead the Bulldogs substituted four from the bench but the second stringers were not in the game two minutes until the game was tied up. The first five men were sent back into the game but could not score while the Rock Crushers tossed in four points and emerged victorious 24-20.

Bill Burger was high for the Rock Crushers with eight and Derald McKinley netted the same total for the losers.

With three players getting 12 points or more, the Panthers smothered the Ecneics 48-25 for their sixth triumph of the season and to get a firm hold on second place.

The Panthers did not get hot until the second half when they scored 30 points to the Ecneics 13. At the end of the first quarter the Panthers led by only five points, 14-9.

Bud Carson dropped in 14 counters for the Panthers and Ed Klinke and Dick Wiltse each 12 for the victors. Don Helm hooped in 15 points for the Ecneics.

Following is the league standings:

League Standings table with columns: Team, W, L. Lists Red Birds, Panthers, Bulldogs, Goulds, Ecneics, Rock Crushers.

Redford Wins B League Crown

By defeating the Ypsilanti Braves the Redford Union Panthers capped the Suburban B league crown. Plymouth was the only team that had a chance to tie the Redford boys for the league championship. Plymouth, in order to tie for the title, had to win their next two games with Wayne and Belleville, and Redford Union had to lose to Ypsilanti and Trenton. If Plymouth wins next week against Belleville they will have earned for themselves at least a tie for second place.

The Time The Anti-Trust Lawyers Killed Their Own Case!

For ten years the anti-trust lawyers have been attacking the business methods that make it possible to give the public the best quality food at the lowest prices.

In our last ad we told you how Federal Judge W. H. Atwell, at Dallas, threw the anti-trust lawyers and all their inflammatory charges against A&P right out of his court.

But the anti-trust lawyers were not satisfied with decisions against them by three federal judges.

They still wanted to destroy A&P.

They Appealed to New Orleans

So they appealed Judge Atwell's decision to the three-judge Circuit Court at New Orleans.

One of the three, Judge Curtis L. Waller, agreed with Judge Atwell that the case should be dismissed.

The other two members of the Circuit Court, Judge Joseph C. Hutcheson, Jr., and Judge Allen Cox, although saying the case should be tried, agreed that the indictment was vague and contained many allegations which were inflammatory.

They decided that Judge Atwell at Dallas should protect A&P from these inflammatory allegations and could order the anti-trust lawyers to supply the defendants with a bill of particulars.

So the case was back in Dallas again.

Judge Atwell, carrying out the decision of the Circuit Court, struck out the inflammatory matter.

He said that without this inflammatory and prejudicial matter the Grand Jury might never have returned the indictment.

Judge Atwell said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"There are many statements in the indictment which are not at all in violation, and are highly prejudicial and inflammatory."

The anti-trust lawyers objected. They advanced an amazing argument. They said that the removal of their inflammatory allegations (which all four judges had agreed did not belong in the indictment) destroyed their case.

Judge Atwell instructed the anti-trust lawyers to furnish the court with a bill of particulars. In short, he wanted specific charges instead of vague generalities. He set the deadline for furnishing this material at January 15th, 1944.

When the anti-trust lawyers twice asked for more time, pleading sickness among their staff, Judge Atwell extended the time to February 25th because he believed that they were honestly trying, in good faith, to prepare the material he had requested.

Actually, it developed, they were using the time to get ready to drop the case in Dallas and start it in another court.

They Quit in Dallas

On February 26th, while the judge was still waiting for his answer, and without any previous notice to him, the anti-trust lawyers gave a story to the newspapers in Washington, announcing that they were dropping the case in Dallas.

They said that it was their intention "to file a substantially similar suit in an appropriate jurisdiction at an early date."

The "early date" turned out to be the same day.

As soon as one anti-trust lawyer killed the case in Dallas, another anti-trust lawyer filed a new case in Danville, Illinois. This new case made most of the same allegations that had been made and dropped in Dallas; and that are being made against us today.

So now, according to the anti-trust lawyers, all four judges who had ruled on the Dallas case were wrong.

Despite defeats in three federal courts in widely separated parts of the country, they continued their campaign to destroy A&P.

When Judge Atwell heard of their action he ordered the anti-trust lawyers to prepare an order for his signature dismissing the Dallas case.

In signing this order he said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"This nolle prosequi does not have the sanction or approval of this court. That is not necessary, nor that the government ask for the court's approval."

"It is, however, a matter that may be presented to the other court and may be of interest to the people at large."

So after their efforts to destroy A&P had failed in Washington, D. C., Wilson, North Carolina, and Dallas, Texas, the anti-trust lawyers moved on to Danville, Illinois.

They were still determined to destroy this company which had brought more and better food at lower cost to millions of American families.

They Were Wrong Three Times Before!

Three times the anti-trust lawyers went into federal courts and made serious and damaging charges against A&P.

Three times federal judges said the anti-trust lawyers were wrong and rendered decisions against them.

In previous ads in this series we told you about these other anti-trust "cases" involving us, which the judges said were not cases at all.

We think you should know about these previous cases, because once again the anti-trust lawyers are making damaging "allegations" that could seriously affect our business if they were believed by the public.

There was the time in Washington, D. C., when they said we and other good American citizens conspired to fix the price of bread in that city.

This was the time Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough ruled that A&P and the other defendants did not even need to put in a defense. He instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty".

It was the time Judge Goldsborough said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"If you were to show this record to any experienced trial lawyer in the world, he would tell you that there was not any evidence at all."

"Honestly, I have never in my over forty years' experience seen tried a case that was as absolutely devoid of evidence as this. That is the honest truth. I have never seen one like it."

There was the time in Wilson, North Carolina, they said we and other good American citizens conspired to fix prices paid farmers for their potatoes.

This was the time Federal Judge C. C. Wyche directed the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty".

It was the time Judge Wyche said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"In my opinion there is no testimony produced from which it can reasonably be inferred that the defendants entered into a combination to depress or lower the price of potatoes."

"I might say that I never tried a case in my life where a greater effort, more work, more investigation had been done, combing almost with a fine-tooth comb to gather evidence."

"But, as was said a long time ago, you can't make brick without straw, and you can't make a case without facts."

There was the time in Dallas, Texas, when they made practically the same "allegations" they are making today.

This was the time Federal Judge W. H. Atwell ruled that the case should not even be tried. He said that the indictment contained inflammatory statements that he would not permit to be presented to a jury.

It was the time Judge Atwell said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"I know of no American rule, and I wish I had the power to underscore the word 'American,' which permits us to try a man because of his size."

"If I thought I was presiding over a court and that I might have to sentence some person because he was a great big fellow, or because he was a Lilliputian, I would feel like resigning. God knows we don't want it ever to occur in America that the size is going to determine whether a man is guilty or innocent."
