

MAKE IT ONE THOUSAND!

Congratulations to the officials of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce for their decision to start a membership drive for this very worthy organization.

At no time in Plymouth's history has there been a greater need for an energetic and a BIG Chamber of Commerce than right now. We have much to overcome—and much to do. So let's do it in a big way.

Let's have a Chamber of Commerce in a city of some 6,000 or 7,000 people with a membership of not less than ONE THOUSAND.

Yes, ONE THOUSAND members — active members — men and women who are willing to donate a few dollars as well as a lot of their time for the good of our own community.

Whatever helps Plymouth, helps every one in the city—that's why we are so much in favor of a BIG Chamber of Commerce, with a lot of members and a lot of activity.

It is the ONLY organization in the city to which any good citizen can belong, no matter what his occupation might be. As a member of the Chamber of Commerce he is on an equal footing with every other member and his opinions and his vote count just as much as that of the other fellow.

The right kind of a Chamber of Commerce is not strictly a business men's organization. It is just as much for the worker as it is the man who operates a small or a big business. It is the one place where EVERY ONE can put their shoulder to the wheel and help shove along to success, any project which will be for the benefit of Plymouth.

Yes, let's make it ONE THOUSAND members!

WORKING BOTH SIDES OF THE STREET.

So the Governor would like to have the legislature reduce from 21 years to 18 years the legal limit for maturity in Michigan, contending that 18 year olds are as competent as 21 year olds to assume both citizenship and parenthood responsibilities.

His publicly stated reasons for such a proposal are the "bunk." The real reason—the hidden reason—is the desire of the Governor and the powerful near-billion dollar distilling interests to add many hundreds of thousands of patrons to the liquor joints in Michigan.

You see there is now a state law which says any one under 21 years of age is a minor—and minors are prohibited from spending their dollars and time in hard booze joints.

But look at the votes Soapy thinks he might get by suggesting such a scheme! Members of the legislature should be careful about some of the Governor's political schemes, especially this one.

HIGH TAXES A REAL THREAT.

Today's taxes are too high and are stifling, rather than encouraging, free enterprise, Senator Ralph E. Flanders of Vermont said recently.

Freedom to start new enterprises "is diminishing year by year," Senator Flanders, a former president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, said.

"Year by year the big companies are consolidated in their competitive positions," he asserted. "No laws can change this situation so long as the amount and kind of our taxation makes it inevitable."

Urgently needed is an awareness by both conservatives and liberals that the country needs long-range, rather than superficial, answers to its economic problems, he said.

"We have to persuade people—whether as members of political parties, trade unions, farm organizations, or business groups—that they should look at the long-range interests of all the people rather than to the short-range interests of their own group," he warned.

"We have to do this in spite of the fact that those who undertake it may thereby lose the positions which give strength and carrying power to their words."

The problem, Senator Flanders said, "is to replace emotional liberalism and clever politics with solid achievement."

There is a legitimate place in the federal government for consideration of problems of welfare, he added, such as slum clearance, improving of education and health conditions, unemployment compensation, and old-age benefits.

But he contended that "false liberalism believes that it has a universal remedy for all our ills in the concept of universal welfare."

"In this country," he added, "we see welfare carried to the point of absurdity in the Brannan plan, which seeks by taxation to maintain the income of the farmer."

This would set a precedent for taxing to protect the wages of all workers, professional men, and even stockholders, he said.

"It is fortunate that we have had this idea of welfare presented so soon in its most extreme form because it then becomes quite evident that the universal maintenance of income by universal taxation is an absurdity," he declared.

He said he was aware that "anyone who has spent the active years of his life in the business management class is tremendously handicapped in discussing those things with wage earners."

"Perhaps," he added, "there is needed a new vow of poverty, a preaching brotherhood among the management class, who, by living austere lives and devoting their incomes almost completely to public uses, may hope to put themselves into the position where their pleas may be considered, without the suspicion that they are speaking from personal interest."

GLORIFIED PAUPERISM.

Up until recent years it was always regarded as a sort of a disgrace if an able-bodied person had not accumulated sufficient funds to care for himself and family during "lean" times. If one through misfortune or illness had expended all of his cash, relatives deemed it a family responsibility to give financial aid and look after the needs of distressed or ailing relatives.

But then came the era of loud-mouthed politicians who said a person seeking public support should not be regarded as a "pauper" but he should be looked upon as a "client"—a glorified pauper, as one former poor superintendent expressed it.

We agree that the word "pauper" is a hard word to use—that at times it was applied to those who were anything but deserving of being classed as such. And we think it well that the use of the word is fast disappearing.

But unfortunately through the kindly sentiment of all of the people, another group has risen up to take the place of those who had become convinced in their own minds that the public owed them a living.

This group is known as the "welfare chisler." They ride down to the welfare office in taxicabs to collect their welfare checks. Beer garden operators will tell you that a very large majority of both welfare checks and age assistance checks are cashed by liquor dispensers.

It has been revealed that not hundreds of thousands of dollars, but many MILLIONS of your hard-earned tax dollars are wasted each year as the result of welfare cheating.

The state has been weak in its control of these funds. Because of its carelessness and its shiftlessness, public officials to a very large extent MUST take as much of the blame for this waste as is now being heaped upon the welfare cheater.

The public has a perfect right to class the welfare cheater as a "glorified pauper." And that he is—no matter how hard one might try to overlook his transgressions.

Old Timers Say Plymouth Streets Worse This Year Than Ever Before

Garfield avenue near Penniman was almost impassable, and towing trucks pulled out several cars and trucks that sank to the hub caps in the mire. Unpaved roads in all parts of southeastern Michigan caused traffic delays, giving wreckers a booming business.

This corner, at Junction and Evergreen streets, challenged even the bravest of drivers. The city street department has poured gravel on many of the streets in town to make them usable.

Mud—Missouri mud—deep and thick and sticky—mired southeastern Michigan right down to the running boards of thousands of automobiles Sunday and Monday of this week.

From Plymouth to Detroit, not hundreds, but thousands of car drivers who live on unpaved streets were forced to park their automobiles alongside the paved thoroughfares. To venture on one of the gravelled highways or other unpaved streets was an invitation to the driver of a wrecked car to come and pull the car out of the mud.

Old timers do not recall a period when the mud was so deep. Some blame the late winter and heavy downpour over the week-end for the unusual condition.

At any rate it proved most inconvenient to thousands of Plymouth residents and others who depend upon automobiles for transportation. It did, however, provide garage owners who operate wrecker cars with more business than they could handle.

March came in like a lion—and it remained like a lion right up to the last press day before the end of the month. It roared, it snowed, it rained and it blew most of the month. Tuesday morning the sun slipped some of its rays through the sky and things looked brighter and the mud looked thinner.

Rain and warmer weather played havoc with Maple avenue early this week, causing deep muddy ruts. The city blocked off many streets that were in this condition, including Maple east of Sheldon road.

One of the worst streets in the city was Carol avenue, near Harvey. Car owners parked on the nearest paved street and walked to and from their homes, rather than attempt to drive to their garages. Pedestrians find crossing streets like this as hazardous as driving on them.

Plymouth residents are bemoaning the fact that every street in the city that is not paved was nothing more than a quagmire. Most residents of these streets left their cars in the garages and walked to Main street where they could get a bus.

Farmers, however, look upon the late snows and rains with an appreciative eye. Farmers always regarded late spring snows as the "poor farmers' fertilizer."

Next Monday Is Election Day

Mayor Expresses Opinion of City Charter Changes

Mayor Perry W. Richwine, in an address to members of the Kiwanis club Tuesday night, expressed his opinion of the proposed charter amendments to be voted on at the election April 3. Richwine withheld his opinion of the amendments until the Kiwanis meeting. The views of some of the other city commissioners were published last week.

Joe Merritt was chairman of the program and Mrs. Walter Hammond, Floyd Tibbitts, R. M. Daane and Henry Fisher were in attendance at the meeting as guests of the club.

The mayor presented the following statement to the Plymouth Mail following the Kiwanis meeting.

"Proposed Amendment No. 1 Vote No. I believe this amendment should not be adopted as its purpose is to remove the power of appointment of the Member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors from the Mayor, with the approval of the commission, and make this a new position which candidates must file and run for election. You will also note that in the proposed amendment, number 6, that the number of years for which this person is to be elected is not fixed.

"Proposed Amendment No. 2 Vote No. The proposed amendment ties in with the above proposed amendment and by the passage of the one without the other the status of the City Clerk could be in doubt.

"Proposed Amendment No. 3 Vote No. I recommend a 'no' vote also be made on Proposed Amendment No. 3, as these three proposals are fitted together. (Continued on page 6)

Plymouth voters will go to the polls Monday, April 3, to elect three city commissioners and to vote on the six proposed amendments to the city charter. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. The proposal amendments may be found on page 7, section 3, of this issue.

Voters in Precinct I cast their votes at the city hall; Precinct II, Starkweather school; Precinct III, Plymouth High school, and Precinct IV, Forest Motor Sales.

The only contest in the election is between Cass S. Hough, present commissioner, and Joseph Haefner, who are both running for the short term. This is the first time Haefner, who is 45, has run for public office. He is a member of the City Planning commission and of the Citizens' league. Haefner is employed as a guard at the Detroit House of Correction where he began working in 1941. He moved to Plymouth in 1943 and lives at 1062 Hartsough with his wife and three children. Originally from Buffalo, New York, Haefner managed chain grocery stores and worked in the steel industry before he began his present occupation. He studied at the Detroit Business University, and is president of the Plymouth Chess club, which he helped organize.

Eleanor Hammond and Floyd Tibbitts, now in office, will run for re-election for the long term seats and are unopposed. Mrs. Hammond first entered politics last October when she was elected city commissioner. A former school teacher, Mrs. Hammond attended Michigan State Normal. She is married to Dr. Walter Hammond and has three children.

Tibbitts first held public office when he was elected to the commission last October. He is the owner of the B & F Auto Supply company, and is a member of the Masonic lodge, Hi-12 and the Goodfellows. He lives at 356 West Ann Arbor trail with his wife and family.

Hough who is a life-long resident of Plymouth and executive vice president of Daisy Manufacturing company is now serving his first term on the city commission, being appointed to the seat last fall to fill the unexpired term. He has been active in all civic affairs for a number of years and of late has had national recognition for his work in the development of better labor conditions and relations between employee and employer. He resides with his family at 1477 Ann Arbor trail.

Members of the election board include: Precinct I, Mary Bolton, chairman; Mabel Spicer, Alice Rathbun, inspector; Anna Richard, Verne Rowley, inspector; and Geraldine Walsh.

Precinct II, Ruth West, chairman; Ethel Joffile, inspector; Dorothy Stimpson, inspector; Clara Todd, Mary Starkweather, and Ivah Bentley. Precinct III, Alice Strong, chairman; Clara Drews, Jessie Squires, Ada Daggett, Ruth Virgo and Ruth Thomas. Precinct IV, Myra Benson, Hazel Jettens, Dora Wood, Clara Mumby, Isola Moss and J. Rusling Cutler, chairman.

Only 400 returns have been received thus far, out of 5,000 letters sent out in this area. Last year contributions totaled $2,500. Donations for Easter Seals may be sent to Daane at the Daisy Manufacturing company.

A paper lily sale will be conducted to benefit the drive by the Plymouth Rotary club. The Rotary Anns, club auxiliary, has organized the sale of the lilies in Plymouth by 32 children on Saturday, April 8, from 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. The sale is part of the Rotary project for aiding crippled children.

Evan Welsh, D.D., of the Ward Memorial Presbyterian church, Detroit, whose subject will be "Shall Not Have Died in Vain."

There will also be a Good Friday service held at the theater. See further notice about that service in section one, page six.

Steal Auto Tires From Three Cars

Tires were stolen from automobiles parked on Pacific and Arthur streets late last Monday night. Police believe they were stolen by the same thieves who operated in the area two years ago.

Four tires were taken from the car of Douglas Hammill, 345 Pacific street, two tires from the car of Eleanor Hoelscher, 272 Arthur street, and one from the car of Mrs. M. S. Egge of the same address. Tires were stolen recently in the area of Five Mile road and Haggerty highway. These victims were unable to park their cars in garages because of muddy roads and drive-ways.

This Want Ad Got $1,450 Cash

Last week a 50 cent want ad sold a 1949 Chevrolet for Russell Walker on Territorial road. Mr. Walker had many calls from his ad from people interested in buying his car but imagine his surprise when Friday afternoon a family drove in from Jackson to see the car and paid him $1,450.00 cash on the spot. How they knew about his ad in The Mail he doesn't know, but one thing he is sure of, the car was sold and it only cost him 50 cents to make the deal.

Mail want ads get results. Why not try them when you have something to sell, rent or buy. Phone 5 or 16 no later than Tuesday.

Novelty pairs include a wooden salt and pepper shaker shaped like a hot dog complete with bun and mustard. Other wooden pairs are made like a baked potato, loaves of bread, a phonograph, a telephone, and a frying pan holding an egg. One pair of old glass ones were found in Riverside park, probably left by picnickers.

Give Orchid With Special Cake Sale

The newest innovation in the old art of cake making was announced today by Frank Terry of Terry's Bakery.

An orchid, flown direct from Hawaii, is included with every purchase of a Lady Orchid cake.

The Lady Orchid Cake is a faintly golden, two layer cake. Designed for serving on special occasions, the side of the Lady Orchid Cake is frosted with colorful orchid-tinted divinity while the top is blanketed with snowy white frosting. As a crowning touch, a live orchid is centered on top.

The orchids, grown in Hawaii in lava cinders, are showered with over 400 inches of rainfall yearly. Their natural growth accounts for their being considered one of the hardiest members of the orchid family. The orchid comes complete with a plastic vase lapel pin. Due to the moisture in the lapel pin, the orchid's keeping quality is considerably lengthened.

Ask Merchants to Close From Noon to 3 Good Friday

The Chamber of Commerce, along with the churches of the community, are urging the merchants in the city to close on Good Friday from 12 noon to 3 p.m. Many business men have already planned to follow the suggestion.

A statement from the Plymouth Ministerial association, representing 10 churches, reads: "We wish to convey to the Chamber of Commerce our most hearty endorsement of this plan. Since there will be memorial services in the community during this period, it is a splendid gesture of cooperation on the part of the men of commerce. Certainly the crucifixion and death of our Lord on the cross at Calvary warrants some measure of devotion on the part of the people He came to save."

Plymouth Rotary Anns held their regular luncheon and their monthly meeting on Monday, March 27 at the Methodist church. Mrs. Herma Taylor and Mrs. Hillah Graves gave very interesting talks and illustrations of their work. A nice assortment of colored materials for the crippled children's weaving was brought in. Much interest was centered on the Easter lily sale which will be on in Plymouth the Saturday before Easter.

The Ladies Mission Society of St. Peter's Lutheran church will make their annual trip to Eloise hospital on Good Friday immediately following the first service at 1:30 p.m. Each year these ladies pack approximately 300 bags of Easter cheer for patients at the hospital. The bags will be filled on Maundy Thursday evening immediately after the services and all ladies are urged to help, both in filling the bags and distributing them, on Good Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stewart drove their son, Charles, and Jerry Shannon to the Straits of Mackinac Sunday where they continued on to Michigan College of Mining and Technology at Houghton, Michigan. They were home for mid-semester vacation.

"Proposed Amendment No. 4 Vote Yes. On this Proposed Amendment I would recommend a "yes" vote as, in my opinion, this Proposed Amendment is the most important one being presented to the people and is a very great improvement over our present system. This Proposed Amendment really gives to the City employees many of the advantages afforded municipal employees under a Civil Service plan, which has not been enacted in our City.

"Proposed Amendment No. 5 Vote Yes. Proposed Amendment No. 5, in my opinion, should be adopted. Its only practical effect is to increase the purchasing power of the Manager from $300.00 to $500.00. In the past, such purchases in excess of $300.00 have required the approval of the City Commission. There are many times when matters come up which require immediate action, and such immediate action is facilitated by this proposed amendment.

"Proposed Amendment No. 6 Vote No. I believe the voters should vote "no" on this amendment. The adoption of this amendment provides for election at the municipal election of Plymouth's representatives on the Board of Supervisors. I believe it is to the best interests of our City to have a member of its City Commission represent our City on the Board of Supervisors. Greater authority and dignity are, in my opinion, given to the Supervisor when he is a member of the City Commission. All the members of the Detroit City Council are members of the Board of Supervisors. At the present time Plymouth has only one member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, and that representative should have the dignity of being a City Official and thus speaking for the other members of the City Commission when voting on matters relating to our County and City Government. I believe this Proposed Amendment was too hurriedly prepared.

As this proposed amendment now stands, a term of office is not given for the proposed member of the board of supervisors. Our charter does not provide how long this elected official shall remain in office. I do not believe it is to the best interests of our people to elect any official who has an undetermined term of office.

"In my opinion, all of these Charter Amendments were prepared too hurriedly. I believe that a Charter Commission should be elected with the task of completely revising our City Charter. There are a number of changes that need to be made. I will cite a few of them.

"1. The Charter should be immediately amended to permit the City Commission to accept petitions for improving the streets in this community.

"2. The Charter should be amended to permit the City to set up municipal parking lots and provide the funds for their purchase and operation.

"3. The Municipal Court provision of our Charter should be completely revised to comply with the State law with reference to establishing the jurisdiction of our Court. Our City Charter now provides that our Court has jurisdiction up to $500.00. It is my opinion that under the State law the jurisdiction is only $300.00. There is also considerable question as to the legality of the present method of handling traffic violations. The Traffic Bureau, as now handled by our City, probably does not have any legal existence, and the Charter should be amended to give it its proper legal status.

"4. The present provisions of our Charter are too restrictive as to the using of funds which are appropriated for one purpose and later found to be needed for other emergency measures. The switching of funds from one category to another has been a source of deep concern to many City Commissioners in the past.

"In closing, I would like to make a brief statement regarding the operation of your Municipal Government. Plymouth is having growing pains. Our City Charter was designed for a city of less than 5,000 people. Now we probably have a population in excess of 7,000, with an outlying area with a population of over 20,000.

"Our Police Department has been increased to take care of the problems involved, not only because of our City, but because of the larger areas surrounding our community. Our police budget for the coming year is close to $50,000.00, which is nearly one-third of the amount which we will realize from taxes upon property in this community. During the past six months we have added two new police cars which were badly needed. We have two police cars completely equipped with two-way radio, in order that our policemen on duty can be in constant contact with the police headquarters. Emergency calls can thus be handled in a matter of seconds. However, our police department still does not have sufficient manpower to properly patrol our streets and supervise our parking meters. The average policeman in Plymouth is now working in excess of fifty hours, and is on call practically twenty-four hours a day.

"Our Fire Department has been expanded to take care of the growing needs of metropolitan Plymouth. We no longer operate on an entirely volunteer basis. We now have three full-time employees, and still each of these men is forced to work over seventy-two hours a week in order to give our community twenty-four hour service, seven days a week. Our Fire Department budget in the coming year is over $18,000.00. Our Fire Department has modern equipment. A new vehicle has been added to our Fire Department, which is called the Chief's car, but which is actually an emergency vehicle, fully equipped to assist people involved in accidents, drownings, people overcome by gas and smoke, and a complete emergency stretcher is installed in the car. Many small fires are now handled by this vehicle without calling out the complete Fire Department. However, there is additional equipment which is still needed by our Fire Department.

"Over $25,000.00 could be wisely spent in improving and expanding this important unit of our municipal service. While modern ladders have been added, we still do not have equipment which would assure the removal of persons trapped in a building three stories high or higher. We have three buildings within the City limits which would require additional equipment, should it be necessary to remove occupants in case of fire. Another problem which confronts us in connection with this matter is that none of the adjoining communities have the needed equipment which could be brought in time for such an emergency. A modern truck with a ladder attachment would cost approximately $22,000.00. If a serious fire should break out in the plants of Whitman & Barnes, Burroughs Adding Machine, Daisy Manufacturing Company or in the Hotel Mayflower, the need for this added equipment would be imperative.

"Our Public Works Department has an unusually efficient, hard-working, experienced and well-trained crew. However, they do not have adequate equipment to work with. We do not have sufficient funds available to provide them with a needed road scraper, gravel and equipment to repair the roads in our community. In the paving of Forest Avenue the City is spending approximately $12,000.00 of its own funds which are badly needed to take care of other streets.

"The City needs new quarters for the Police Department with garage space, in order that the cars can be kept inside and kept washed and in the proper condition. At the present time the cars have to stand outside. Storage buildings are also needed for the Public Works equipment. Much of such present equipment has to stand outside, thus greatly shortening its life and decreasing its usefulness.

"These problems all add up to one thing—the City needs more revenue. Where are they going to get it? We are limited by State law to 15 mills, and all of this amount is being used. The only other way to secure more funds from our local property owners is to increase the valuation of their property in order that a larger tax could be assessed. During the past year our school system has had to be expanded, and our property owners have already received an increase in their taxes. This increased tax has become burdensome to many. An additional increase in city taxes to the local residents should be avoided if possible, and is being avoided this year. To secure new revenue for our City it is, in my opinion, going to be necessary to go outside of the present corporate limits of our City to secure new taxpayers. Taking in vacant land or subdivisions would not give us any substantial revenue, but would only increase the cost because of new services needed in these areas. "The only other alternative is to add industrial areas where the valuations are sufficiently high, to give the City the revenue it needs. I believe careful consideration should be given to the advisability of adding to the tax rolls of our City the small area north of Plymouth Road to Eckles Road, and south of the railroad, which would include property now owned by the Burroughs Adding Machine Company, the Whitman & Barnes Company and the Evans Products Company. The increased valuation of these properties added to Plymouth's tax rolls would provide the much needed funds which this City will need to meet its expanding needs. If these areas are added, the City should expand and increase its services to give these taxpayers "Something for their Money."

"A greatly improved Fire Department which could give them emergency service in time of need would probably be the number one service which could be offered. The second would be improved streets for our residents, many of whom are employees of these factories. Third, enlarged and properly equipped parking areas in order that these employees and other residents of the surrounding area could get in to Plymouth, take care of their shopping, professional and entertainment needs without parking blocks from the business area.

"You can build a suit of clothes for a ten year old boy, but when he is fifteen or twenty years of age he will be bursting at the seams, and he will need a new suit of clothes. Plymouth needs new and more adequate services to take care of an ever growing and expanding community."

Tuesday, March 28, 1950
The Plymouth Mail,
Plymouth, Michigan.
Gentlemen:

In accepting the invitation of the Kiwanis club tonight it was our understanding that the speaker of the evening would "discuss" the six proposed charter amendments that are to be voted upon April 3, 1950. We understood at the time we were invited we should be prepared to take part in the discussion if called upon, and we were prepared to do so.

The presentation of the speaker was, as he stated a "minority view," strictly biased, and appeared to have only one purpose: that being total defeat of the proposed six amendments.

The speaker passed lightly over the first three amendments stating their "basis" was to provide for the election of the representative of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors and thereby eliminate the appointment of this person by the Mayor. The truth of the matter is that only amendment number six deals with the election of this representative and reference to it in the first three amendments is necessary to make the entire charter read logically and so that all sections of the charter may conform. The speaker omitted to say that many other important matters were included in the first three amendments. What the speaker neglected to say was that these amendments are designed to protect the citizens of Plymouth from a future dictatorial City Manager.

While the speaker offered no objection to proposal number four he again neglected to admit the good that would come from the establishment of a trial board.

The reasons for adoption of proposal number five are self evident.

The speaker inferred that the people were not as competent to select the representative to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors as the Mayor. The reverse would appear to us to be true. Competent authorities, including the Attorney General for the State of Michigan, have advised the Mayor and the City Commission by letter dated January 27, 1950 that there is ample time prior to the next general election in which to establish a term of office for an elected supervisor, therefore we are not alarmed about the omission of a stated term in proposal number six.

Since the opportunity to present these views was not available to us tonight we are presenting them by letter hoping that you will still be able to print them in the current issue of the Plymouth Mail. Your cooperation is appreciated.

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER

The Church Suffering and Triumphant.

Lesson for April 2: I Peter 4: 12-13; Revelation 7: 9-17.

Memory Selection: II Timothy 2: 12.

THIS being Palm Sunday, it is fitting that we consider the Church Triumphant. Peter writes churches he had founded in Asia Minor of some fiery trial that had come upon them, or would come. And he exhorted them to stand firm in view of the blessings that would come to them in the better world.

In Revelation we learn of the heavenly glory in the great hereafter. As the inspired seer, St. John, looked off from Patmos, the isle of his banishment, he saw the New Jerusalem, and a vast multitude that no man could number, standing before the throne, clothed in white robes, with palms in their hands. What a Palm Day indeed!

One of the elders told John that these arrayed in white robes had come out of great tribulation and had washed their garments white in the Lamb's blood. And they served God in his temple. What a glorious thing to contemplate from the vantage of our imperfect world! When our trials have passed away, we can join in the service of praise, led by the four and twenty elders, casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea.

We cannot know just how heaven will be for us. It is enough to know that its joys will never end. The one thing is to make sure of going there, through faith in Christ. Let us strive to be worthy of a place in the innumerable multitude by washing our robes.

(Matt. 7:19, 20): "Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 472): "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made."

Choir Gives Palm Sunday Concert

The choir of St. John's Episcopal church will present John Stainer's "The Crucifixion" on Palm Sunday evening, April 2, in St. John's Episcopal church at 8 p.m. This concert is open to the public.

"The Crucifixion" is one of the best known and best loved of the Passion-tide cantatas. It features bass and tenor solos which will be sung by Ross Whitehead of Northville and Ernest Williams of Plymouth. The choir, under the direction of George Alexander Miller, is known for its finesse and polish, and a worthy presentation is assured.

In the absence of the regular organist, Mrs. Marie Bonamic, who was injured in an automobile accident right after Christmas, Miss Harriett Wilson, of the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, will play the organ accompaniment. The public is most cordially invited to attend this outstanding presentation.

Plymouth Boys' Boxing Club Fight at Wayne Tomorrow Night

Tomorrow night, Friday, the Plymouth Boys' Boxing Club will journey to Wayne to put on a boxing exhibition with the boxing club from that city. Last Saturday night the Wayne boys came to Plymouth for a boxing show.

The first four bouts of the evening were all draw decisions. Jim Palmer and Jim Del Apil, each weighing 68 pounds, threw punches and never let up. In the second bout Jerry Calkins and Johnny Thomas fought a good bout. These boys weighed in at 72 pounds.

Another draw decision found Bob Danol and Don Fleming displaying good offensive and splendid defensive work. Danol and Fleming each weighed 100 pounds. The first three bouts were all Plymouth boys.

With each boy listing his weight at 125 pounds, two Northville boys boxed a fast three rounds to a draw. J. Moshiner and B. Thompson put on a very fine show for the Plymouth audience.

In the fifth fight of the evening Bob Sherwood of Wayne scored a TKO over Dave Riker of Plymouth. Riker knocked Sherwood down twice in the first round and was well ahead on points going into the third. Boxing defensively, Riker's tactics were misunderstood by the referee who thought he was hurt, and stopped the bout, awarding the decision to Sherwood. Riker, a 121 pounder, was surprised at the awarding of the bout.

Arlan Ottensman of Plymouth pounded out a decisive decision over Don Monroe of Wayne. Ottensman dropped Monroe with a

Weather Holds Up Ball Practice

With the weather too changeable and very damp, baseball practice has not yet started for the whole Plymouth Rock team, but a few of the batterymen have been working out in the gym after school.

The baseball team is coached by John Sandmann, who mentored the local cage quintet and the reserve football squad. Mr. Sandmann coached the Rock baseball team last season and the Plymouth nine finished third in the league, compiling a record of three wins and two losses. Including non-league games, the Rocks finished up with a 6-3 record.

Tennis Practice to Begin Soon

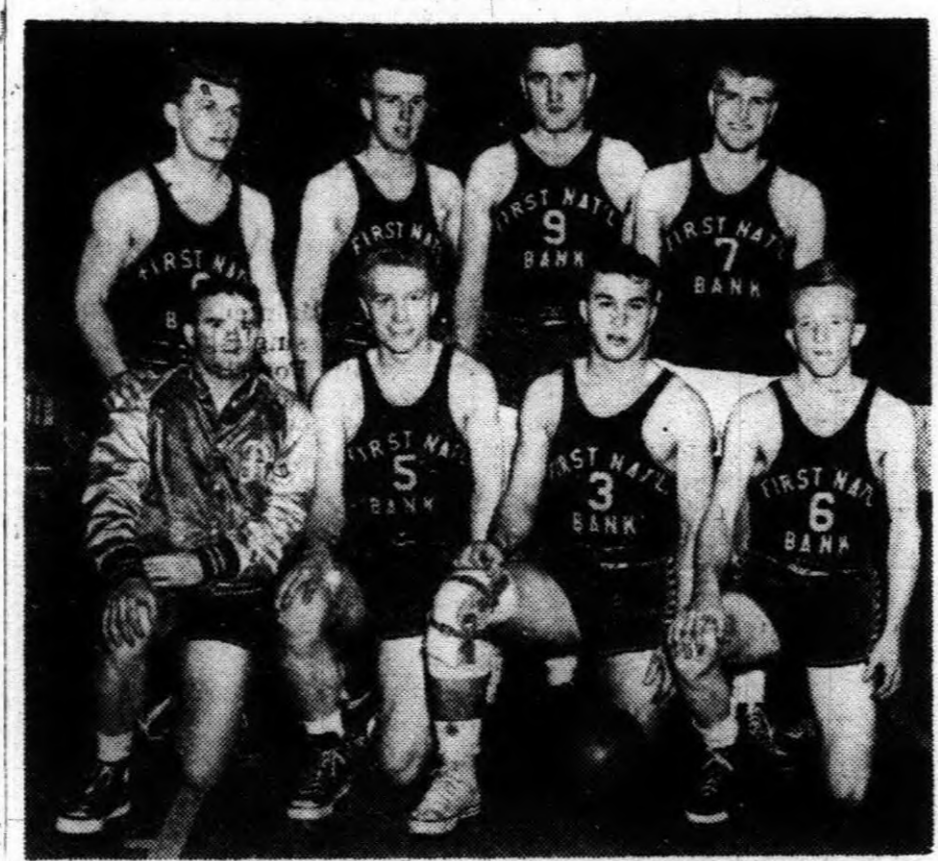

Seventeen boys reported for the Plymouth High school tennis team this year that will be coached by Carvel Bentley. Last year, only 12 candidates reported to the initial meeting.

Last season the local netters finished third in the league and third in the regionals which were held in Dearborn, compiling an overall good record. This was the first season since before the war that Plymouth had been represented by a tennis squad.

Returning lettermen from last year's team include Don Gronowick, Jim Stevens, Roger Kidston, Bob Bowen, Bill Gayde and Walter Hammond. The team should have a fair season this year. In 1936 Bentley's team took the state championship and he has always had a top notch club.

First National Wins Basketball Crowns..

Top basketball honors have been taken by the First National team which won both the Men's league and playoff championships. The team won 12 games and lost three in league play, and took all playoff games. Team members are, left to right in back row, Bill Perkins, Milt Neubauer, Don Huebler, manager, and Reinard Heinegar; front row, John Wilkie, Charlie Fortner, Bill Hobbs and Johnny Slesor. Huebler is high point man in league games with 162 points. Heinegar has the best average with 15 per game.

Chess Club Drops Match to U of M

The Plymouth Chess club lost their second straight match to the University of Michigan Friday, March 24, at Ann Arbor. The U of M team won three matches and had two draws, thus defeating the local team.

With an undefeated record, Michigan challenged the Plymouth chess club and remained with an unblemished mark. The students from the University played superior chess and looked very good in their victory. The Plymouth team played good also but Michigan had too powerful of a squad.

The Plymouth Chess club has tried to get several matches this season but most all of the clubs are already fully booked for the year. The attendance at the past several meetings has been above average and the local club hopes to get a few more matches this spring.

First National Runner-up in State Class B MRA Cage Tournament

Bowing to Marshall on Saturday, March 25, First National Bank had to settle for runner-up in the state Class B Michigan Recreation association basketball tournament. The local quintet dropped a 71-58 encounter to Marshall in the finals.

To reach the finals First National had to win three games in the M.R.A. tournament which included victories over very strong teams in the state such as River Rouge, Mt. Pleasant and Hazel Park.

The Bank team defeated River Rouge on March 20, 61-55, with Charlie Fortner leading the way, dropping in 17 points and playing an all-around brilliant game as did the whole team.

Journeying to Marshall where the last three games of the tournament were played, First National ousted Mt. Pleasant, who was rated as one of the best teams in the state, 62-58.

On the afternoon of March 25, First National encountered Hazel Park and knocked another team from the playoff ranks, this time scoring with ease as they held Hazel Park to a minimum, 62-46.

The local team had an easy time of it as they emerged to a 41-20 lead at halftime. Every player on the team was contributing to the scoring and there actually was not a high point man on the team.

Coming down to the last game, which would decide the State Class B champs, First National got off to a slow start and never did get back on their feet.

Marshall seemed to have First National buffaloed in the final game as the locals just could not work in the ball and net two pointers. By winning three games at Marshall and losing one, First National stretched their record for the season to 23 victories and only five losses, which included 12 wins and three losses in the regular season, three wins and no losses in the local playoffs, four wins and one loss in exhibition contests, and three wins and one defeat in the State M.R.A. tournament.

Representing the First National team in the tournament were Charlie Fortner, Reinard Heinegar, Bill Perkins, Don Huebler, Milton Neubauer, Bill Hobbs, Johnny Slesor and John Wilkie. Each of these players received individual trophies and the team received a large trophy for being runners-up in the state.

Bank Players Have Various Occupations

First National Bank, Plymouth Men's league champs, playoff champs, and runners-up in the State Class B Michigan Recreation association basketball tournament, have a fine group of ball players on the team. Although there are eight ball players, no two cagers have occupations of the same type.

John Wilkie, who played basketball for Plymouth High school a few years back, is a mortician; Reinard Heinegar, who played for Michigan Normal college, is a mechanic; Bill Hobbs, former Wayne university grider and the professor of the team, is a school teacher at Redford Union High school; Milt Neubauer works for the government as a mail man; Bill Perkins, all-state cager, is a furnace repairman; Charlie Fortner, Wisconsin High school all-state bucketeer, earns his living as a wholesale tractor salesman; John Slesor, former Redford Union athlete, is a contractor; and Don Huebler, player-coach of the team, and former Plymouth High grider and basketball player, is a peace officer in the city of Plymouth.

Softball Managers to Hold Meeting April 3

With the coming of summer, men's hearts faintly turn to thoughts of "play ball" which is very common with the men and boys of Plymouth and the surrounding area.

On April 3 at 7:30 in the city recreation office there will be a managers' meeting for the men's open softball league and the industrial league to make plans for this summer's activities.

There is a possibility and hope that two men's leagues will be formed this season and this first meeting will most likely determine that probability. If any managers are interested and cannot be there to voice their opinion, call Herb Woolweaver, city recreation director, at 93 before the meeting, if possible.

Shorts in Sports

by Al Larson

As the opening game of the baseball season draws nearer and the cry of "play ball" echoes through the ball parks all over the country, the selections as to how teams will finish in the league this season must be made.

Taking the American League we find that a few changes in the finishing will be made this season with the Detroit Tigers topping the list, pushed steadily all season by the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees.

Detroit will cop the American League flag by five full games or more with their all around team play. The Bengals boast one of the best outfields and infields in the league, a fine pitching staff and a better than average backstop crew.

Without a doubt the Tigers regular lineup will consist of Dick Kryhoski, on first, Gerry Priddy holding down second, George Kell is a sure bet on third and Johnny Ligon will make the grade at shortstop.

In the outfield will be old reliable "Hoot" Evers shagging balls in left, Johnny Groth will roam the center part of the field and Vic Wertz is assured of the right field berth. Aaron Robinson will without a doubt start the season behind the plate.

Second to Detroit in the American League will be the Boston Red Sox, who will give the Tigers a run for their money. The boys from the bean town have the power to blow any team from top to the cellar, but they must also come through with their pitching which has to be consistent throughout the complete season.

Melvin Parnell and Ellis Kinder, who both won 20 games or more last season, enjoyed the greatest season of their careers but they will not have such a good season this coming campaign. Ted Williams, Dom Dimaggio, Bob Doerr and Johnny Pesky have the power to take the team to second place but that is about as far as they can go.

In third place will be last year's world champions, the New York Yankees. Everyone came through for New York last year but Casey Stengel's men will have a hard time of it this season.

Joe Dimaggio, Tommy Henrich, Phil Rizzuto and "Snuffy" Sternweiss, who carried the Highlanders to the World Series in 1949, are getting old. Bobby Brown, the medical student, is the only young man in the Yankee infield. Joe Page, whose only good seasons are in the odd years, will not have such a good time of it this campaign.

Behind New York in fourth place will come the Philadelphia Athletics with Connie Mack in his 50th season as manager of the squad. Connie would like to see his A's capture the crown but it looks very doubtful.

Cleveland will lead the league in the second division, finishing a good fifth place in the league. The Tribe's infield is probably the oldest in the majors as the foursome of Lou Boudreau, Mickey Vernon, Joe Gordon and Ken Keltner averages well over 30 years.

The Indians have a fine pitching staff of Bob Feller, Gene Beardon, Bob Lemon, Steve Gromek, Mike Garcia, Al Benton and a few others but they cannot win the pennant by themselves, and it is doubtful if any of these pitchers will win 20 games.

The Chicago White Sox have not done anything to improve their team from last year except that Gus Zernial will probably play more games and the team from the windy city will finish just as they did last year, in sixth place.

Again we find the Washington Senators and St. Louis Browns making a race of it to see who holds down the cellar position. Washington's chances are as slim as the Browns of finishing above eighth place and so we give the teams a tie and wish them better luck next season.

St. Louis seems to be the grooming center for other American League teams, because as soon as the Browns get a player of distinction they have to sell him so that they will stay in business.

Last season St. Louis drew 270,000 paid customers in the whole season at home. This is approximately an average of 3,400 per game, which is very good for a major league team.

In six good games in which Briggs Stadium was packed they drew more games than St. Louis did all season. This accounts for the reason the Browns have to sell their top notch players.

Following is the predicted standings for the American League for 1950:

- 1. Detroit Tigers
2. Boston Red Sox
3. New York Yankees
4. Philadelphia Athletics
5. Cleveland Indians
6. Chicago-White Sox
7. Washington Senators
8. St. Louis Browns

Highland Park Takes Detroit Tourney Crown

Tait's Cleaners, who won their first game of the Detroit Inter-City tournament, lost their second game by three points to Highland Park, who took the crown.

The locals won their first encounter by trouncing Royal Oak 70-46, but then they lost out to Highland Park 52-49 in an exciting game in which the score changed hands several times.

Highland Park also took the D tournament in the 18 years and under class, which was held at Laskey field house in Hamtramck, by ousting Hamtramck, Ypsilanti and Dearborn.

The Wayne County Training school Red Birds, representing Plymouth, lost their first game of the tournament 37-22 to Dearborn. Dearborn then went right down to the final contest by also winning a protest from Detroit.

Dearborn took the Class E tourney by defeating the Plymouth team, WCTS Falcons, 31-18. To get into the final round the local quintet triumphed over Hamtramck 30-26 in a riotous tilt.

Hamtramck, who downed the Plymouth Firemen in the Class F tournament, pushed their way right up to take the crown by downing Dearborn, Plymouth and Highland Park.

In Edinburgh, after due consideration, the Lord Justice ruled that because Kathleen Love threw her engagement ring in her fiancée's face, it did not follow that she intended to break off the engagement. "To say that the return of a ring by a woman was, in all cases, an irrevocable step would be to deprive the female sex of one of its most cherished privileges, and literature and the stage of one of their most hackneyed situations."

Founder Honored at Scout Program

Approximately 150 Girl Scouts and their parents enjoyed a Girl Scout birthday party Monday evening in the high school auditorium, honoring Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scout movement in the United States, 38 years ago.

The welcome was given by Mrs. Matthew Krump, chairman of the Juliette Low Fund, followed by an interesting and entertaining program given by all 13 troops in the Plymouth area. This included a pageant demonstrating the Girl Scout laws, a number of songs and dances, several skits, and a style show in which the girls wore their mothers' clothes dating back to the 1920's.

Another highlight of the party was the presentation of a "thank you" badge to Mrs. Edward Debbs in recognition of her years of service as Girl Scout commissioner and for her outstanding work with the Scouts for the past seven years.

The Scouts and their guests then participated in a "penny march" to benefit the Juliette Low Fund, and were served refreshments by Mrs. Krump and Mrs. Robert Wesley, program chairman of the council.

Your Police Department Speaks

We've had many people ask "who has the right of way at intersections where there is no traffic control?" The answer is as follows and quoted from Section 20 of the Traffic Ordinance: When two vehicles enter an intersection at approximately the same time, the driver of the vehicle on the left shall yield the right of way to the vehicle on the right except as otherwise provided. The driver of any vehicle traveling at an unlawful speed shall forfeit any right of way which he might otherwise have hereunder.

In San Antonio, a woman fined $25 for drunkenness indignantly denied the charge; all she had, she averred, was a fifth of whisky and eight beers.

The department asks your cooperation in eliminating vandalism and other destruction of property. A large portion of such damage is caused by juveniles; reporting known offenses is to the advantage of all (even the offender) concerned. Willfully damaging another person's property can be a beginning and seems only sensible to straighten the youth out and possibly teach him some respect for others. Parents are held responsible for property destroyed or damaged by a juvenile.

Helen Brown Becomes Bride in Saturday Evening Ceremony

A gown of white slipper satin was the choice of Helen Stewart Brown, for her wedding on Saturday evening to Tom Barber. The couple was married in the Farmington Methodist church in a ceremony at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, March 25. The Rev. Stone officiated at the rites.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of Shotts, Lanarkshire, Scotland, the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, James Stewart of Plymouth. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barber of Farmington.

Palms, candelabra and altar bouquets formed the background for the wedding. Nuptial music was presented by the soloist, Bobby Isley, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I Love You Truly."

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Joseph H. DeVriendt of Plymouth. Her gown was fashioned from light blue organza and she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of peach gladiolus.

As bridesmaids, the bride chose Betty Wagoner and Marguerite Kalmbach of Plymouth, and Betty Wixon of Farmington. They selected identical gowns in lavender and blue. Gladiolus were in the bridesmaid's bouquets.

Duties of the best man were carried out by the bridegroom's brother, Frank Barber, Joseph H. DeVriendt of Plymouth, Don Oldenburg and Orbie Mynatt of Farmington, were the ushers.

Pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations complemented the brown dress which Mrs. Barber selected for her son's wedding. Mrs. Macbeth, the bride's aunt from Mt. Clemens, was gowned in a navy blue dress trimmed in white, and she carried a corsage of pink carnations. Congratulations were extended to the newly wed couple by 350 guests who were present at the reception in the American Legion hall in Farmington. Out of town guests were from Washington, Mt. Clemens, Rogers City, Toledo, Roscommon and Plymouth.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Barber left on their wedding trip. They will spend a month in Florida.

Hints For Plymouth Homemakers

Pungent or Mild, Onions Add Zest to Soups, Meat Dishes

The onion which good cooks use to add zest to all kinds of dishes with the exception of desserts is scheduled for a more prominent role in most Plymouth homes. It's one of the least expensive vegetables in the market these days, so thrifty shoppers will be going home with generous supplies of them.

Whether onions are served in their unadorned state along with Hamburg patties or weiners, or dressed up, they'll please most people. For those who like a robust flavor, the dry yellow onions grown in Michigan are top choice. At the present time they're least expensive, too.

For more delicate palates there are large sweet onions, some of which are now coming in from Texas. This variety is a good choice for stuffing, too. The cavity left after the center is removed is big enough to hold a generous amount of a savory mixture.

Big or little, pungent or mild, onions are about the same nutritionally speaking. They're moderately good sources of calories because of the sugar they contain and they add some minerals and vitamins for boosting general good health.

French onion soup when it's made with a richly flavored meat stock is justly famous. Serve relatively small portions as an opener for dinner, or use more generous ones as the main dish of a lunch. A good salad, crusty rolls, a French bread and butter and a hearty dessert will leave everyone well filled and happy.

FRENCH ONION SOUP
Six medium sized onions, cut in thin slices, 3 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 1 qt. meat stock, salt and pepper to taste, 3 slices toast (French bread preferably), 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese.

ONIONS IN LEMON BUTTER SAUCE
Twelve medium sized onions, salt and pepper, 1/2 cup butter or fortified margarine, 3 tablespoons lemon juice.

Peel onions. Cook in boiling salted water for about 30 minutes or until tender. Drain and season to taste with salt and pepper. While onions are cooking, cream table fat until soft. Beat in lemon juice a little at a time until thoroughly blended. Add to hot onions, stir gently and serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

DEVILED ONIONS
Six large onions or 12 medium size, 3 hard cooked egg yolks, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, 1 1/2 tablespoons minced parsley, 1 cup medium white sauce made with 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 2 tablespoons flour and 1 cup milk, fine buttered crumbs or 3 slices of bacon.

Cook onions in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and chop very fine. Mix with egg yolks, seasonings, parsley and white sauce, adding more seasoning, if necessary. Pour into six individual baking dishes. Cover top with buttered crumbs or with half slices of bacon. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, for about 20 minutes or until heated through and top is browned. Makes six servings.

Good Pressing Job Essential in Sewing New Spring Clothes

Secret to the finished look on the new spring clothes you are making or plan to make is a good pressing job. The right equipment is an important help when pressing. A large press pad, which you can make at home, is the tailor's ham which will help you press to shape fitted seams, darts or sleeve seams.

Emma DuBord, home demonstration agent, gives directions for making a "ham" at home. Length of the tailor's ham is 16 inches without seams and width in the widest section is 12 inches. Place two curved darts in the widest end of the ham. Allow 1/2 inch seam allowance. Use heavy canvas or ticking for the cover and fill it with sawdust, small pieces of cloth or rags that are cut very fine. To make quick work of cutting the scraps, try putting them through a meat or sausage grinder. This will cut the scraps very fine and they will pack down more firmly.

French-inspired, American-made is this Fuller cotton broadcloth dress, one of the Kate Greenaway juvenile fashions. Its sturdy seams won't "give" in the laundry, and its simple design is a friend of the lady who dunks, starches, and irons.

Palm Beach Suit

Here, Ladies, is a suit to put spring in a winter-weary wardrobe. Cut from famous Palm Beach cloth, the details include a straight skirt and a long, one-button jacket with notched collar and double pocket flaps. Sacony makes the suit in white, black, maize, aqua, ice blue, clove red, navy, mocha, sand and gray. And Cosmopolitan magazine calls its spring and summer-long versatility, at the modest price of about $22.50, a sound investment during the income tax season.

Serve Lamb Roast with Mint Stuffing on Easter Menu

Cushion Style Lamb Shoulder Roast

An old custom links Easter Sunday and tender roast lamb, and there may be a lamb roast that is new to the family. Of course, there is a handsome leg of lamb, a lamb loin roast, a crown roast, a rolled shoulder roast; however, there is another cut that presents a unique way of teaming lamb with mint, a cushion style shoulder plump with mint stuffing.

In preparing the cushion style shoulder the meat dealer bones a square cut lamb shoulder in such a way as to make a pocket for stuffing. (He sews around the edges leaving one side open.) To make the mint stuffing, two tablespoons of finely chopped mint are added to each cup of bread stuffing. The stuffing is then placed inside the meat and the opening sewed or skewered. A cushion style shoulder is cooked exactly as any other roast. It is placed on a rack in an open roasting pan and cooked uncovered in a slow oven (300° F.) until done. For a cushion style roast, 40 to 45 minutes per pound cooking time should be allowed.

Shopper's Choice

Browsing through Plymouth stores, shoppers can get many ideas for Springtime buying. Mothers will be particularly interested in the new line of children's shoes featured at the Fisher Shoe store. The younger set can choose from a selection of dress shoes in patent leather, and sandals and oxfords in red and blue, a color innovation for children's shoes. Sturdy oxfords in brown and white are still popular for growing feet as well as the standard all-brown shoes.

Lady shoppers will find many Spring pick-me-ups at the cosmetic counters. A special combination sale of Aquamarine lotion and complexion soap can be found at the Dodge drug store. The all-purpose lotion is excellent for chapped hands and arms, and can be used as an after-sun lotion. Its fragrance is delightful and the 5-ounce bottle will last a long time.

Community Pharmacy offers a best-face-forward idea with Coty's new finger blend make-up set. With every box of Coty Air Spun face powder the buyer receives the finger blend palette. The palette contains a month's supply of powder base, rouge and eye make-up, along with directions for achieving a perfect color blending of facial cosmetics.

For the first time since the war, Peterson's drug store has the fragrant Yardley sachets available. Prettily packaged, the small sachets are useful for pocketbook, dresser drawer or clothes closet.

A spring tonic for the house can be found at Simmons Jewelers; A new shipment of English bone china tea cups and saucers has just arrived and shoppers will find a wide variety of patterns from which to choose. These sets are gaining more and more popularity with collectors and have become conversation pieces at luncheon and bridge tables.

Graham's wearing apparel shop carries a new item in ladies' lingerie—the hook-in-front brassiere. They are made of satin and have a wide band of elastic across the front, styled for quick and easy dressing.

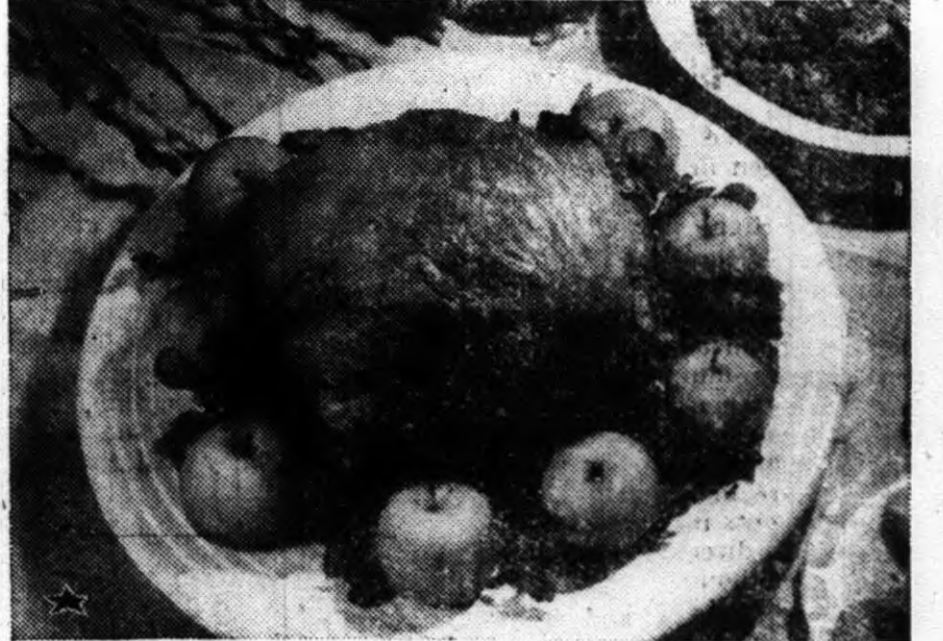

When ready for the table, the roast may be attractively garnished with leaves or watercress and peeled apples bearing a colorful glaze. In preparing the apples, a small glass of currant jelly is melted and apples heated in it until thoroughly glazed. Also on the menu may be included mashed potatoes, buttered broccoli, a tossed vegetable salad and hot rolls. A touch of spring may be revealed in a sumptuous frozen lemon torte dessert.

Pictures Show Growth and Development of Plymouth School Band in Last Few Years

Plymouth has for many years shown a keen interest in the development and success of the Plymouth High school band. The beginning of the first band dates back a good number of years and many of first band members are still taking an active part in the community's musical progress.

Some of the early band members are now playing in the Plymouth Symphony orchestra and others share in the promotion of musical events in the city. Former band directors, including Claude Dykhouse, Louis Evans and Clarence Luckman, are responsible for much of the success of the high school band, and established a foundation for its growing prestige.

The present director, Paul Wagner, continues the endeavors of the early directors to keep the high school band one of the best in the state. The band was rated high in contests in the last two years and has participated in two state festivals to date.

The band entered the South-eastern Michigan Band Festival Saturday, March 25 at Ypsilanti, receiving a straight first division rating from all judges. Participating in the judging were Larry Teal of the Detroit Symphony orchestra; Merle Isaac of Chicago; David Mattern of the University of Michigan, and Harry Clark of Cleveland. The band, because of placing in the first division, is now eligible to enter the State Band Festival to be held at Michigan State college, East Lansing, on Saturday, April 29.

The activities of the band are varied and include participation in concerts, festivals, contests, parades, football pageantry and many solo and ensemble activities. Some of the future plans of interest to the band include a trip to Holland, Michigan to participate in the Holland Tulip Festival on Saturday, May 20; to Jackson, Michigan on June 10 to parade in the Elks state convention; and on Memorial Day, May 30, they will parade here as they do in many civic events. The final band program of concert music will take place on May 10, in conjunction with National Music Week.

The training organizations of the Plymouth band include a large grade school band made up of 61 students in the fifth and sixth grades from both Central and Starkweather schools. This organization meets once a week in a group and twice per week in various sectional rehearsals. The grade school band will make its first public appearance of the year at the concert to be held on May 10. Besides performing with this group, many of the members of this band study privately from a large staff of instructors made available to them from Ann Arbor and Detroit.

The Junior High school band is comprised of students in the seventh and eighth grades and prepare students for the last step to the concert band. Many of the students have played for three to six years before entering the senior high school band. The competition for a chair in the Senior band is becoming increasingly difficult each year, and as a result, much better work is continually being done by the training bands.

"Peter Rabbit" Given Tonight

A three act operetta, "Peter Rabbit," based on a story by Beatrix Potter, will be given by the first, second and third grade students of Central Grade school tonight at 7:30 in the high school auditorium.

The cast will include Billy Schwartz as Peter Rabbit; Julie Stecker, Mother Rabbit; Michael Porter, Mr. McGregor; Nancy Alford, Flopsie; Martha Wesley, Mopsie; Marilyn Holst, Cottontail, and Edith Dibble, First Lettuce.

Other students will take part in the chorus, acting as garden vegetables which befriend Peter. The play is directed by Ruth Erickson, assisted by members of the Central Grade school PTA which is sponsoring the operetta.

Hear Cardinal Speak on Federal Aid to Education

Fourteen women from Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic church attended the luncheon and 12th Annual Day convention of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women held March 21 at the Book Cadillac hotel in Detroit.

His Eminence, Edward Cardinal Mooney, who delivered the principal address at the afternoon session, pointed out to the 900 delegates and visitors three false, oft-repeated statements that tend to obscure the real question involved in the current controversy relative to Federal Aid to Education: 1. The fallacious contention that the question at issue is in some way related to the American doctrine of separation between Church and State. 2. The false assertion that state or federal funds derived from taxes on the public should, in principle, be expended only on public schools instead of on schools that serve a public purpose, i.e., any school, parochial, public or private, that fulfills regulations imposed by compulsory education. 3. The unwarranted implication that legislators may legitimately resent the activities of church groups when they are objecting to measures that affect their members as citizens.

Emphasizing that lobbyists for business, labor and secular education apparently are not resented by the legislators, the Cardinal asked why members of church groups should be disqualified as citizens when their rights are to be decided by an elected legislator for whom they voted.

At the morning session, the delegates heard a discussion of the proposed internationalization of Jerusalem by Siste Ann Joachim, O.P., Ph.D., director of social studies at Siena Heights college, a nun who holds five college degrees and has been admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court.

Reverend Father John Wuest, of the Order of Friars Minor, described the work of protecting the shrines and holy places in Palestine, which have been entrusted to the Franciscan Order for over 700 years.

The Plymouth women present were: Mrs. Paul T. Bollinger, Mrs. Joseph Boscik, Mrs. Russell Dettling, Mrs. John Donovan, Mrs. Harold Finlan, Mrs. Theodore Gronowick, Mrs. DeMoss Keith, Mrs. Mark McGraw, Mrs. L. P. McGuire, Mrs. Leroy Mitchell, Mrs. Edward Nelson, Mrs. Ralph Penatoni, Mrs. James Sexton, Mrs. Wilfred Thelan.

Reverend Father William P. Mooney, pastor of Our Lady of Good Counsel church, was an interested visitor.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, Mayflower Post No. 6695 met Tuesday, March 21 at the Veterans' Memorial Center, for election of officers. Those elected were: president, Mrs. Kenneth Gust; senior vice president, Mrs. Lee Coolman; junior vice president, Mrs. Kenneth Fisher; treasurer, Mrs. Jerry Olsen; secretary, Mrs. Ray Danol; conductress, Mrs. Arthur Dickie; guard, Mrs. Gerald Krumm; chaplain, Mrs. Grace Burley.

Mrs. Donald Peck, the retiring president, was presented with a Past President's pin and also with a personal gift from the officers. The presentation was made by Mrs. Ethel Gagnor, of Northville.

Members of the post are sponsoring a series of boxing matches in the high school gymnasium, as part of the Plymouth Recreation program. General chairman is Robert Burley.

1949-50 has been a busy year for Mayflower Post No. 6695, and also a successful one. During numerous visits to Maybury sanatorium, members have distributed gifts, magazines, games and playing cards and the Auxiliary has purchased to date, six radios to be used by the veterans there; a local boy and girl were sent to the V.F.W. summer camp last summer for one week and contributions have been sent to the V.F.W. National home at Eaton Rapids. The home is supported by contributions from posts and auxiliaries all over the nation. The widows and orphans of deceased veterans are given all the advantages and comforts they would have in a home of their own.

New officers are making plans for the coming year, which they hope will make it one of the most successful ones since the post and the auxiliary were started in Plymouth.

MICHIGAN

BY • ELTON R. EATON

One of Michigan's fastest growing cities of some three decades ago no longer exists. It was in 1923 when a little community over on Michigan avenue was incorporated as a village and in 1925 it became a city. Then Henry Ford moved his automobile manufacturing plant from Highland Park to a site near Springwells. The population of this bustling little city jumped to many thousands over night. In 1928, at the insistence of Henry Ford, who liked the name Dearborn better than he did Springwells, suggested that Springwells be united with Dearborn. The voters approved of the idea—and now if one should ask where he can find the city of Springwells which shows on all old maps of Michigan, it is only the old timer who can tell you what happened to Springwells.

Ypsilanti is the birthplace of the popular trading-stamp idea that swept the country like wild-fire some 15 or 20 years ago. A former newspaper publisher and hotel builder, Shelly M. Hutchinson, originated the idea and made a fortune out of it.

Charlevoix, where many residents of this part of the state spend their summer vacations, was named in honor of one of the early French explorers. His name was Pierre Francois Xavier de Charlevoix. The first settlement on the present site of Charlevoix was an Indian village. Then it became a commercial fishing community and gained much public notice when the Mormons came to Michigan and tried to chase the fishermen out of the place.

Michigan ranks closely to being the largest oil producing state east of the Mississippi.

When the last census was taken the Indian population of Michigan was about 7000. Of this total only 1214 were full-blooded Indians.

Michigan is the only state in the Union which possesses an island devoted exclusively for burial purposes. It is known as Cemetery island and is located near the Middle Island channel to Rock Harbor on Isle Royale. This island is now a part of the national park system.

The interesting little community of Brimley located on the southern tip of Whitefish bay was at one time known as Superior. The name was changed because of the fact that some confusion resulted owing to its proximity to Superior, Wisconsin. There has now and then been some agitation favoring the restoration of its old name.

The little village of Mears, Michigan has one bid for fame that cannot be taken away from the community. It has for years possessed the smallest newspaper published not only in Michigan, but the entire United States. Its size is less than that of a sheet of writing paper after it has been folded—and surprising as it may seem it is one of the most widely quoted papers in Michigan.

Conservationists share the alarm of the U. S. Park Service over plans of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation to build dams on Dinosaur National Monument, according to the Wildlife Management Institute. The proposed Echo Park dam, in particular, would seriously impair the canyon scenery for many miles. The reservoir behind the 535-foot dam would place beneath a fluctuating water level many spectacular geological formations and beautiful streams and would lower the apparent height of towering cliffs which now characterize this beautiful area. Important archeological remains, camp sites, and wildlife habitat would be inundated. Existing recreational areas maintained by the Park Service would be destroyed and detailed plans for the future development of the monument, now delayed because of insufficient appropriations and because of the current threat to the monument, would have to be abandoned.

Dinosaur National Monument lies astride the northern Utah-Colorado state line and was set aside by the Federal Government to preserve one of the richest archeological quarries in North America. It contains scenery which can be matched in few other national monuments or parks and, potentially, is one of the finest recreational areas in the national park system. The proposed Echo park and Split mountain dams would destroy the entire character of this unique national monument.

If present plans of the Bureau of Reclamation and the Army Corps of Engineers are carried out, practically every mile of the Colorado river system, from its source to its mouth, will be inundated by reservoirs within a relatively few years. While we are preserving things for future generations it might be advisable to set aside a segment of this river in its natural state so that those who follow us will know what it once looked like. Echo park, Split rock, and other proposed dams in the national park system could not be constructed until alternative sites have been exploited.

Value of Michigan's mineral production increased to $214,115,000 in 1948 as compared to $146,355,000 in 1946, according to the latest report just issued by the conservation department's geological survey division.

However, Michigan's share of total United States production was off slightly from 1.9 percent in 1946 to 1.4 percent in 1948. State's production in order of value to the state but in percentage relationship to the nation's total: iron ore, 13 percent; petroleum, one percent; cement, five percent; salt, 27; stone, nine; sand and gravel, 6.5; copper, three; bromine, 23; clay products, 14; gypsum, 18; magnesium compounds (natural) 21; natural gas, 4; raw clay, four; natural gasoline and allied products, .1 percent; and coal .002 percent.

Warn Cyclists Against Violating Regulations

With the arrival of spring, many bicycles appear on the streets of Plymouth. In order to make bicycling safe and enjoyable for cyclist, pedestrians and drivers, specific laws have been established by both the city and state. Cyclists are urged to observe all the following regulations as a safeguard for both themselves and others on the street.

On June 10, 1901, the Village Council passed the following ordinance regarding bicycles: "All persons are prohibited from riding bicycles on any sidewalk in the Village of Plymouth." This ordinance is still in effect.

The following is quoted from the "State of Michigan Vehicle Code" and is effective in the City of Plymouth: "The parent of any child and the guardian of any ward shall not authorize or knowingly permit any such child or ward to violate any of the provisions of this chapter. These regulations applicable to bicycles shall apply whenever a bicycle is operated upon any highway or upon any path set aside for the exclusive use of bicycles subject to those exceptions stated herein.

"Every person riding a bicycle upon a roadway shall be granted all of the rights and shall be subject to all of the duties applicable to the driver of a vehicle by this chapter, except as to special regulations in this article and except as to those provisions of this chapter which by their nature can have no applications.

"A person propelling a bicycle or operating a motorcycle shall not ride other than upon or astride a permanent and regular seat attached thereto. No bicycle or motorcycle shall be used to carry more persons at one time than the number for which it is designed and equipped.

"No person riding upon any bicycle, coaster, roller skates, sled, or toy vehicle shall attach the same or himself to any street car or vehicle upon a roadway.

"Every person operating a bicycle or motorcycle upon a roadway shall ride as near to the right side of the roadway as practicable, exercising due care when passing a standing vehicle or one proceeding in the same direction.

Persons riding bicycles or motorcycles upon a roadway shall not ride more than two abreast except on paths or parts of roadways set aside for the exclusive use of such vehicles.

"Wherever usable paths for bicycles have been provided adjacent to a roadway, bicycle riders shall use such paths and shall not use the roadway.

"No person operating a bicycle or motorcycle shall carry any package, bundle or article which prevents the driver from keeping both hands upon the handle bars of said vehicle."

"Every bicycle when in use at night time shall be equipped with a lamp on the front which shall emit a white light visible from a distance of at least 500 feet to the front and with a red reflector on the rear which shall be visible from all distances from 50 feet to 300 feet to the rear when directly in front of lawful upper beams of head lamps on a motor vehicle. A lamp emitting a red light visible from a distance of 500 feet to the rear may be used in addition to the red reflector.

"No person shall operate a bicycle unless it is equipped with a bell or other device capable of giving a signal audible for a distance of at least 100 feet, except that such vehicle shall not be equipped with nor shall any person use upon such vehicles any siren or whistle.

"Every bicycle shall be equipped with a brake which will enable the operator to make the brake wheels skid on dry, level, clean pavement."

If you have a social item or any other local news, phone 1755.

These pictures illustrate six violations of laws governing bicycling. With the approach of warm spring weather, bicyclists are urged to observe the regulations which safeguard the cyclist, driver and pedestrian.

Roger Babson Says...

Babson Discusses Teaching Factory Workers

Private ownership has lost the support of millions of workers. Why? Because management has never taken the time to bridge the gap between the front office and the shop with the romantic story of the American free enterprise system.

The Workers' Attitude

We have assumed that the schools have been giving our youth an understanding of various economic systems and then pointing out the advantages of American free enterprise. The schools have not done the job. Ask a few simple questions of any one in your own family and you will see what I mean. They have failed in this as in teaching spelling and arithmetic.

Get your ear to the ground in your own shop and I will warrant you will be plain scared when you find how many workers believe management is just raking in the dough. They will even quote you figures: "The boss gets seventy-five cents of each dollar and we poor suckers get a miserable twenty-five cents!" And wait until you hear what they think about profit reserves! They are convinced that stockholders have only one interest: to grow rich by exploiting the workers. Down with all stockholders! Talk about advertising—that is a foolish waste of money. If the company was really interested in the worker, it would give him the money it spends for advertising! In short, too many wageworkers honestly believe that stockholders rob them of a rightful living; they think that the government should take over and do away with profits.

Management's Attitude

Can responsible free business survive with an antagonistic working force? The answer to this question is an emphatic, "No." Management has too often looked upon the worker as a "hired man." With this attitude, management must defend its prerogatives, or "good-bye" to American supremacy.

I wonder how many businessmen have recognized the significance of what General Eisenhower said about the "inseparability of all the freedoms." If you really believe that some of our freedoms cannot be kept while others are flung to the winds, then you believe that all our personal, political and social freedoms can survive only with the survival of our economic freedom—which includes freedom to work, to own, to save, to sell, to buy, to compete, and to bargain honestly without the use of force by either side.

Sell America

If you are really enthusiastic about the American way, a system that enables six percent of the world's population to out-produce the other 94%, why have you kept it a secret? Why haven't our employees learned that the American system provides more goods and services for the wageworkers themselves than any other system in the world—in spite of its imperfections.

The time is now to sell America. Dig up the facts. Toss out some comparative statistics. Bring in D.P.'s who have lived under Communism and Socialism to tell how they fared as workers. Use your PA system, house organ, posters, supervisors to give the worker information he wants and needs. Let him know what it costs to own and maintain a factory, repair and replace equipment, provide power, labor and materials, the cost of waste... and don't forget taxes!

What About Profits?

There has been a lot of loose talk about profits. We should show wageworkers how company reserves mean protection for their jobs, how they should encourage venture capital. A few statistics on advertising should be helpful reminding workers that the fellow on the next machine got his job as a result of the company spending more on advertising.

It won't be hard to prove that the fellow who thinks it is OK to soak the employer with taxes is just soaking himself in the long run. Every employee should know how much capital it takes to provide him with his job. I have faith in the intelligence of our employees; but management must build a friendly bridge between the front office and the back shop. The free enterprise system succeeds when the white and blue collars work together.

He enlisted for the Army in July 1947, and received his initial training at Fort Dix, New Jersey, before being ordered to the occupation of Korea, March, 1948. Upon arriving in the occupation of Korea, he was assigned to the 31st Infantry. Whereas: The fearsome disease, cancer, represents a serious community problem in Plymouth as it affects on the average one of every two families in our city;

Whereas: It is known measures can be taken to cut down the present cancer death-rate, easing the tragedy for individuals and lightening the community burden of the great social and economic losses resulting from this high death rate;

Whereas: Cancer Control, to be effective, must be the vital concern of each and every one of us, therefore, I, Perry W. Richwine, mayor of the city of Plymouth, hereby proclaim April as CANCER CONTROL MONTH and request that the citizens of this city observe it as such.

I request that all individuals—for the protection of themselves and their loved ones—learn the essential facts about this disease. I further request that all individuals, institutions, businesses, and organizations support, cooperate with and assist the American Cancer Society in the 1950 Cancer Crusade.

IT APPEARS NOW that Bob Hope and his sponsor have come to the parting of the ways after a dozen years together... The divorce came about through Hope's desire to tape record his shows a la Crosby and the sponsor's unsympathetic ear to his pleas

... This summer when "My Friend Irma" takes its seasonal leave from the airwaves, Marie Wilson, who plays Irma, and her husband, Alan Nixon, also an actor, will go on tour... Incidentally, Alan, with Marie as instigator, was just signed by Paramount Pictures... Dennis Day will make his first movie in six years—it's called "I'll Get By."

Paul Douglas, who was a top-flight announcer prior to the war, will audition a new comedy series for NBC... Only four years ago, Douglas tried a comeback on radio and couldn't make it... Now a success in pictures, he can have his pick of shows on the networks... Fifty Gene Autry pictures made at Republic are being offered to television for $1,000,000.

JUST A LITTLE CHATTER

Jack Bailey, emcee of "Queen for a Day," whose "What's Cookin'" has been among the top selling cook books, has an offer to do another book—this time on his radio experiences with "Queens" on the Mutual network Cinderella show... Joan Davis has mixed a CBS offer to keep her show, "Leave It to Joan," on a sustaining basis until a new sponsor can be obtained.

Anne Whitfield, 11, and Jeanine Ann Reese, 12, who play the daughters of Phil Harris and Alice Faye on the radio, went to Toots Shor's restaurant during their recent New York visit... A solicitous waiter didn't know who they or their mothers were, but thought he could be helpful by pointing out a celebrity to them... He looked around, then leaned over and said confidentially, "Over there are Alice Faye and Phil Harris, the famous radio team."

Schedule Annual Canton Township Meeting April 3

The annual Canton township meeting will be held April 3 at 1 p.m. at the Sheldon church, corner of Geddes and Sheldon roads. This will be a regular business meeting, and any other business that might come before the board will be transacted at that time.

Proclamation....

Whereas: The fearsome disease, cancer, represents a serious community problem in Plymouth as it affects on the average one of every two families in our city;

Whereas: It is known measures can be taken to cut down the present cancer death-rate, easing the tragedy for individuals and lightening the community burden of the great social and economic losses resulting from this high death rate;

Whereas: Cancer Control, to be effective, must be the vital concern of each and every one of us, therefore, I, Perry W. Richwine, mayor of the city of Plymouth, hereby proclaim April as CANCER CONTROL MONTH and request that the citizens of this city observe it as such.

I request that all individuals—for the protection of themselves and their loved ones—learn the essential facts about this disease. I further request that all individuals, institutions, businesses, and organizations support, cooperate with and assist the American Cancer Society in the 1950 Cancer Crusade.
