Who Pays for Advertising ?

Not The Newspaper Reader

They save money and time by shopping for the honest values offered in the advertising columns.

Not The Advertiser

Advertising always returns a profit when it is used correctly and consistently.

Not The Publisher

Plenty of business men profitably invest hundreds of dollars in newspaper advertising.

The Person Who DOESN'T Advertise Pays The Bill

This Is Why . . .

The non-advertiser's lost business pays the cost of advertising. This lost business also returns a handsome profit to the person who DOES advertise. So the person who doesn't advertise pays for the advertising of others in the volume of business he loses. He pays because a number of customers go elsewhere to buy.

Whether it's a want ad or a full page display advertisement working for you, you can be sure your original investment plus a profit will be returned.

States Country Benefited When Postmasters Were Placed Under Civil Service

The National Association of Postmasters has launched a campaign to inform the American public of the true position of postmasters in the civil service system.

The association states that the country benefited when postmasters were placed under competitive civil service. They must qualify through examinations and in these examinations they must be among the top three eligibles.

Harry P. Mitchell, chairman of the United States Civil Service Commission, in his approval of the campaign, said, "Today a postmaster is a full time representative of the federal government rendering particularly important service to his community. The postmaster and his employees are the most important daily contact a citizen has with his government. They bring the American system of government close to the homes of the American people."

New Record For Dining Service

If the present average number of meals served each day at the Hotel Mayflower dining room and coffee shop continues until June first, there will have been served during the present year a total of more than 102,900 meals, stated Manager Norbert Lofy.

"We have for over six months been serving an average of better than 300 meals per day. I see no reason why there should be any decrease during the next few weeks," he said.

"There has been a rapid increase in the number of meals served at the hotel each year since we assumed its management. I believe we have merited this rapid increase in business by the satisfactory meals we have always tried to serve," he added.

The directors of the Hotel Mayflower company are at present considering ways of creating additional space for dining room service.

Exhibits Button Collection

Mrs. Kar. Starkweather of 711 Starkweather avenue prepares some of the 15,000 buttons in her collection to exhibit in the lobby of the Plymouth United Savings bank. She has been working on her button hobby since 1938.

The third most popular hobby in the world, button collecting, will be exhibited this week by Mrs. Karl Starkweather, 711 Starkweather street, in the lobby of the Plymouth United Savings bank.

Mrs. Starkweather has been collecting buttons since 1938 and has about 15,000 in her collection. She has round buttons of all sizes and types and they range in size from 3 inches in diameter to some the size of a pin head.

One of the oldest buttons is one made of black glass which dates back to the time of Queen Victoria. Another old one is a gold button designed with the first airplane made by the Wright brothers.

Unusual buttons in the collection are known as "story" buttons with Huckleberry Finn and Robinson Crusoe's man Friday in the design. These buttons usually have a character from a well known book in the pattern. Another group is the insignia button.

Same Number of Waters Open For Spring Run Fishing This Year

Fishermen planning to work spring runs for perch, smelt, suckers and other legal fish have about the same number of waters open to them as last year, the conservation department points out.

Certain waters have been eliminated while others have been added to the open list. Anglers can check with the local conservation officer for possible regulation change applying to the particular lake, river or stream of interest.

Perch can be taken with hook and line in any waters not otherwise closed to fishing.

Help to Prevent Forest Fires, Michigan Vacationers Are Warned

The summer of 1950 will be another big vacation season for Michigan, according to the Michigan Tourist council. Predictions are that more Americans than ever before will be enjoying paid vacations.

"With thousands and thousands of visitors coming to enjoy our fishing, our scenery and our other attractions, everyone of us in Michigan should re-alert ourselves to the importance of protecting those assets from their greatest danger—forest fires," said Robert J. Furlong, administrative secretary of the Tourist council. "Forest fires would cause our rivers and streams to dry up; they would destroy game cover for the hunter and they would mean an end to our scenery."

Amos the Prophet and His Program

Lesson for April 16: Amos 7:1-15; 8:1-3

Memory Selection: Amos 5: 6

AMOS, a native of Tekoa, near the northern boundary of Judah, who made a living by selling wool and figs, left his humble surroundings about 775 B.C. and appeared at Bethel, in Israel, to rebuke the king and his people for their wickedness.

About 150 years had passed since the division of the nation. Jeroboam, the first king of Israel, fearing the loyalty of the people to the new government might be weakened if they came in contact with the people of Judah several times a year in going to Jerusalem for the feasts, as they were commanded to be by the law of Moses, set up shrines at Dan and Bethel, with a degraded worship of Jehovah, and also allowed the worship of Baal.

Under Jeroboam II the influence of impure religion had entirely corrupted the nation. The masses were poor and oppressed by the few who had all the wealth of the country.

Under the figure of the plumb line and the basket of summer fruit, Amos predicted that Jehovah would soon leave the nation to its fate. About a generation afterward the terrible Assyrians despoiled Israel, and the kingdom and its 10 tribes passed from history.

The lessons of Amos are quite modern, we find, and as applicable to present conditions as they were to those in Israel 2800 years ago.

Shorts in Sports

by Al Larson

Looking in on the University of Michigan's spring practice, we find that Lowell Perry, former Ypsilanti Central High school halfback has created quite a sensation on the Wolverine grid field. Switching from half to an end, Perry has proved that he may be of great value to the Maize and Blue for the next three years.

Chuck Ortman, Michigan passing star, says that with Perry as end it will make a great difference in the whole team next season. Bennie Osterbaan acclaims Perry as being another Bob Mann, who is now playing with the Detroit Lions and a former Michigan great.

Perry is only a freshman this year and he will be around for quite some time snagging passes. Playing for Ypsilanti for three years, Perry played against Plymouth several times and made the difference of the game many times. Also a basketball player, he is a very versatile guard.

Another former Suburban B athlete and Ypsilanti halfback, Dave Hill, is also expected to go great guns at the University this year. Hill made all-state halfback in his senior year at Ypsi.

Because he is out for track, Hill was unable to make spring practice, but he is another fellow with a great chance of going places. Both Perry and Hill are potential all-Americans for the future.

Another former Suburban B player from Wayne made the grade as All-American. His name you recall from Michigan State, Don Mason. All in all, the Suburban B-B league has proven to be a pretty tough league in this area.

That old jinx has once again stricken the Detroit Red Wings and at the present there is little hope for Jack Adams and his crew of hockey players, who are always jinxed by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

For three straight years and possibly four, the Maple Leafs have won the Stanley Cup. Last year Toronto narrowly made the playoffs yet they went on to beat Detroit four straight games and came up with the cup.

As they did a year ago, Detroit won the league championship, but had a hard time getting through the first round of the playoffs and then were beaten out in the finals.

At the present Turk Broda, Maple Leaf goalie, has shut out Detroit three times and has had only five goals scored against him in five games. A very good record indeed. Detroit's Harry Lumley has had 11 pucks fly by him in five games, which also is not too bad.

The loss of Gordie Howe, who led the Red Wings in goals scored the past season, hampered Detroit very much in the last four games. Well, maybe next year Detroit will be able to pull one out of the hat.

The fastest way to get action is to use Plymouth Mail classifieds.

Boxing Show in High School Gym Saturday Night

Don't forget that Saturday night, April 15, in the high school gym at 8 p.m. the Plymouth Boys' Boxing club will put on their last indoor show of the year.

Twelve bouts have been scheduled for the evening which will all be amateur bouts with boys from Livonia, Wayne, Plymouth, Northville, Inkster and Garden City getting into the night's performance. The Boys' Boxing club is sponsored by the VFW and the show will be sanctioned with the Michigan A.A.U.

To date the last two previous shows have had very poor attendance and it is hoped that a large crowd will show up for the last indoor show of the year. If enough people show interest in this last performance it is probable that the boxing club will have bouts out-of-doors this summer.

Western Wayne Loop Considered One of the Best

Probably one of the toughest "D" leagues in the state, Western Wayne, has proven itself so by sending several of its boys up to a higher league and many of the boys are being watched closely but cannot be contracted because they are still in high school.

Jim Throgmorton of Papp's Market has been given a baseball scholarship to college; Dean Higgins, also from Papp's, has been signed with Wisconsin Rapids of the Wisconsin State league as a pitcher; Dale Ferris has been watched closely by major league scouts but he is still in high school; Ken Krieser, another Papp's ball player, has been approached by the St. Louis Browns.

From the local Daisy team Ed Groves and Tommy Fairbanks are being watched very closely by the Detroit Tigers. Others who have been eyed by the big time scouts are Cedric Dempsey of Wayne Deitrich who plays second base; Charles "Buster" Lau of Wayne; Dale Ferris of Papp's and Jack Scheel of Plymouth, who formerly played with the Wiedman Cardinals. This local D league is being considered by many scouts as a good spot to watch.

Join Badminton Classes at WCTS Monday Nights

Every Monday evening at the Wayne County Training school, badminton is played beginning at 8 p.m.

Anybody is welcome to come to the training school and play badminton if they wish to do so. Fifteen people were present at the last meeting which was Monday, April 10.

Nine Leagues to Start Ball Season

Nine baseball or softball leagues are expected to be in action in and around Plymouth this coming season with approximately 30 or more teams from Plymouth in the race for league supremacy.

These leagues include Men's Open softball league, Industrial softball league, Old Timers' league, Girls' Inter-City league, Boys' D softball league, Boys' E softball league, Western Wayne D league, Western Wayne E league and the Midget baseball league.

Although many teams have not shown their desire as yet, to enter these leagues, following are the teams so far entered from Plymouth: South Side Merchants, DeHoCo and Northville in the Men's Open league; Dunn Steel, Wall Wire, Champion Corrugated, Daisy Manufacturing company and Universal Power Sprayer in the Industrial league; Dunn Steel, Contractors and the V.F.W. in the Old Timers' loop; Twin Pines and DeHoCo in the Girls' Inter-City league; Wayne County Training school Red Birds and the South Side Barbers in the Boys' softball league, D; Falcons, Indians and the Black Hawks in the Boys' softball E league.

There has not been a meeting for the Western Wayne league, although Daisy will probably enter from Plymouth. Daisy was runner-up to the state title in Class D last year.

Display New Nash Rambler

The new Nash Rambler convertible will go on display tomorrow at the Charles Oliver Nash Motor Sales on Main street. In naming its new car, Nash Motors revives the famous Rambler name which first appeared on a motor car in 1902. Equipped with about $300 worth of custom extras, it is priced below the lowest of the automobile industry's five-passenger convertibles.

The new Nash Rambler automobile, a five-passenger custom convertible, will go on display tomorrow at the Charles Oliver Nash Motor Sales on Main street. The car is the first model in a new Nash series.

New standards of safety are claimed for the Nash Rambler, which is priced the lowest of today's five-passenger convertibles. The new car combines much of the safety of an all-steel sedan, with the recreational advantages of an open car. New overhead safety protection is accomplished with two heavy steel side rails framing the top of side windows. The electric driving mechanism of the fabric top operates aircraft-type, nylon-coated cables. These are attached to the top for pushbutton control. The top can be stopped to provide an opening at any intermediate position from closed to fully open. The flexible plastic rear window folds without damage and can be removed entirely with zippers for summer driving with the top up.

Is Named Honorary Prison Chaplain

For the first time in its 90 years of existence the Detroit House of Correction officials have just named its first honorary chaplain, the distinction being given to Dr. Henry Walch of the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth.

Warden A. Blake Gillies made the announcement last week. Rev. Walch is one of the many pastors who is never too busy to lend a helping hand in conducting services at the Detroit House of Correction whenever there is an opportunity to do so.

The Second National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America will be the greatest gathering of boys to be held in the United States—more than 40,000 are expected to camp together.

Pioneer Teacher Dies in Florida

News has just been received here of the death in St. Petersburg, Florida, of Prof. Ira A. Beddow, who was superintendent of the Plymouth public schools more than half a century ago.

After leaving Plymouth Prof. Beddow, who died at the age of 82 years, headed the speech department of the Central Michigan college at Mt. Pleasant. He remained in this position for more than 33 years. It was upon his retirement from this position in 1939 that he moved to St. Petersburg where he has lived in retirement until his death a few days ago.

Prof. Beddow is well remembered by many of the older residents of the city.

Andersons Like The Golden West

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson of Culver City, California, former residents of Plymouth, are spending a few days in this city and vicinity visiting old friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left Plymouth a few years ago to become permanent residents of California and to establish a trailer park near the city of Los Angeles. It was a vacation trip to the west when they gained the idea that a trailer camp would, if properly conducted, be an excellent investment. They have found their venture to be a most successful one.

Mr. Anderson states that they are thoroughly sold on the west, its climate and its many advantages. The weather is not as bad as some back east believe, states Mr. Anderson.

"We do now and then have a cool day and some rain, but most of the time our weather is excellent. Culver City is one of the busiest places on the coast. We have some of the biggest studios in California located in our city. The aircraft manufacturing business is one of our biggest and fastest growing industries," said Mr. Anderson.

They expect to return to the west within another week or so. Mr. Anderson is a former commander of the American Legion post of this city and for years was one of its most tireless workers.

Rural Tele-news

TIMBER—It takes a sizable logging industry to keep Michigan Bell and other Bell System companies supplied with telephone poles. Altogether they use some 100 different sizes of poles, ranging from 16-foot "toothpicks" to 90-foot giants. Trees are but one of many products of the soil that are bought to provide you with telephone service.

SAVINGS AT WORK—Every time you use the telephone, the accumulated small investments of hundreds of thousands of telephone stockholders go to work for you. One in every 50 families in the United States shares directly in the ownership of the Bell Telephone System. They have invested their savings in the business, confident of a fair return on their investment. To attract the money needed to improve and expand telephone service requires the continued confidence of investors. That takes a financially healthy telephone company.

FARM CITY—If you took the 73,000 telephones that Michigan Bell has added since V-J Day in the rural areas it serves, you'd have as many telephones as there are in Flint, the third largest city in Michigan. To add all these telephones in our rural areas, we have set 75,000 poles and strung 37,000 miles of wire. This rural improvement and expansion program has cost more than $15,000,000 since the war.

UNCORKING THE NEWS

By CARL PETERSON

Service men who earned their campaign ribbons the hard way during the late Big Bricker will be interested in the latest proposition of the Defense Dept. To boost morale of bare-chested postwar warriors a new decoration has been approved. It will be awarded for basic military training and will be called the "American Spirit Honor Medal." We're in favor of America, Spirit, Honor and medals... but we can just hear a tough top-kick bellowing, "Come on youse guys, snap into it or youse ain't gonna get no American Spirit Honor Medal." It's a ribbon that may get a bit of ribbin'.

If any medals are to be awarded around here, we believe they should go to Plymouth's Chamber of Commerce officials who are doing so much to bring additional housing and commercial building to our city. Our hats are off to them.

SUCCESSFUL PARENTHOOD

By Mrs. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

DOING THINGS FAST and hurrying are by no means the same thing. In fact, the first is one means of securing leisure, the latter a way of cluttering up your life so that you never seem to have a minute to yourself. But both are habits, one good, the other deplorable. It would be well to help your children acquire the first and avoid the second.

The first step in bringing this about is to keep hurry at a minimum in your children's lives. This is done, not by trying to have their days go along at a slow tempo, for with some quick, high-strung children this wouldn't be possible. Instead, you guard against hurry providing little islands of leisure between jobs, and between pleasures too.

It's like crinkling the edges of a pie crust to keep the good juices in. A moment or two taken to savor an experience helps preserve the best of it, and at the same time takes away that feeling of constant rush which is the result of running from one thing to another without pause. Naturally you can't just say to children "Now sit down and think about what you've been doing." That wouldn't make sense to an eager child. But you can plan their days so that they do this without realizing it.

The first requirement is to begin the day in good time. A nice long morning is one of life's greatest blessings, but you don't get them by wishing, only by setting an alarm clock and obeying it. Nutritionists are campaigning for a good, substantial breakfast for every American. We add, and time to enjoy it! Nourishing food, pleasant warmth to wake up the digestive tract, and someone with plans to listen to your wonderful plans for the day—the good feeling generated by such a leisurely, conversational breakfast will usually outlast the morning's minor upsets. But as lunchtime nears you'll have to supply another quiet island in your child's day. A surprise of some sort or a great mystery about what you are preparing for dessert will bring him in from his play ahead of time. Now you ask him questions about the morning's activities—just have a good chat about the things he is really interested in. This isn't the time to interrupt with criticisms, any more than you would make oral judgments during a friend's conversation. But if you aren't wholly pleased with what you hear, make mental note of it. For you are accomplishing two things in these talks—giving your child a few moments of unconscious reflection, cementing happiness if the morning has been joyous, releasing irritation if things have been at sixes and sevens. And you are also gaining that knowledge of your child's mental make-up, his weaknesses and his strength, without which you can not possibly guide him to becoming his best self.

The day isn't half over and we must leave you. But you get the idea. A physician concerned primarily with health would simply call them "frequent rest periods." But we look upon them not alone as moments for recuperating energy, but as the means of establishing a rhythmic pattern of living that later on will help your child avoid the confusion and compulsions of a hurried existence.

Hints For Plymouth Homemakers

Tests Prove Frequent Washing Lengthens Life of Curtains

Curtain time—and time to inform homemakers that it's not the "put them up and take them down" action—coupled with frequent launderings—that shortens the life of those lacy curtains. Sun and soil, say the textile experts at the American Institute of Laundering, research and educational center for the laundry industry, are the culprits.

Sunlight, claims the Institute after exhausted tests on curtains panels in their laboratories, burns delicate curtain fabrics in much the same manner as it burns a sensitive skin. While that sun shines bright on window hangings, it is at work weakening the fibers of the fabric. Weakening will occur as a result of continued exposure to the sun's rays to such an extent that the fibers will eventually break or disintegrate during the laundering process no matter how gentle the treatment. Just the weight of the wet fabric alone is then enough to cause it to fall apart.

This destructive effect of sun on fabric can't be prevented. But lowering blinds at windows where the sun pours in, when the room is not being used, will slow down the destruction.

To lessen the danger to your curtains even more, advises the Institute, change them from exposed to protected windows frequently. Wear and the effects of bright sunlight will then be more evenly distributed.

The enemy soil can best be overcome by not allowing dirt to accumulate and weaken fabrics. The Institute recommends that curtains be laundered when they first show signs of soil rather than waiting until they are quite dirty.

Now's the Time to Serve French Fried Smelts

The Plymouth homemaker who features fish for the main dish at dinners will find plenty in the markets. People who always serve fish either fried or broiled need to brush up on new methods of preparation. Fish is as versatile as meat and may be more popular with the family if it is served in a different guise occasionally.

For the sake of variety try the recipes suggested here. The first one is for smelts which are now plentiful as the season opens. These sweet-meated fellows are at their best fried to a delicate brown.

FRENCH FRIED SMELT
2 pounds smelts
2 eggs
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons cream
1 cup cracker meal
Scrape smelts with sharp knife. Slit fish and remove entrails. Remove silver lining from stomach. Wipe and dry gently. (Fishing guides soak the cleaned smelts in slightly salted water overnight, then drain and dry them gently in the morning.) Beat eggs with cream, salt and pepper. Dip smelts in egg mixture then in cracker meal. Fry in deep hot fat, 370 degrees F., for 3 to 5 minutes or until golden brown. Serve at once with tartar sauce.

Parsleyed potatoes, buttered corn and a jellied tomato salad combine well with the smelts. Fruit gelatin with custard sauce and cookies or plain cake make a good dessert.

STUFFED FISH FILLETS.
3/4 cup finely cut celery
3 tablespoons chopped onion
6 tablespoons melted fat
3 cups coarse stale bread crumbs
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 teaspoon thyme
1 to 1 1/2 pounds small fish fillets fine crumbs, and fat
Cook celery and onions in measured fat for a few minutes. Add crumbs and seasonings and mix well. Place stuffing on skin side of fillets. Roll and fasten with toothpicks. Roll stuffed fillets in fine crumbs and brown in hot fat in frying pan. Cover pan and cook fish over low heat until tender, for about 10 minutes. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

With the stuffed fish serve baked potatoes, scalloped tomatoes and cole slaw. Top off the dinner with apple dumplings.

FISH CHOWDER
2 pounds haddock or cod
1 1/2 inch cube fat salt pork, diced
1 medium onion, chopped
4 cups diced potato
2 cups boiling water
1 quart scalded milk
1 cup light cream, scalded
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
6 hard crackers
2 tablespoons butter
Wash fish quickly, cover with cold salted water and bring slowly to boiling point. Simmer, covered, for about 5 minutes or until tender. Drain, reserving the stock, and remove skin and bones. Flake fish.

Brown salt pork in large kettle. Remove crisp meat and drain on absorbent paper. Cook onion until golden brown in pork drippings, add potatoes and boiling water and boil for 5 minutes. Add flaked fish and stock and simmer for 15 minutes. Add milk, cream and seasonings and reheat to boiling. Add crackers and butter. Sprinkle crisp pork over crackers and serve at once. Six servings.

MEAT CUT Quiz

Q. What is the name of these cuts of meat?
A. Frenched lamb chops.

Q. Where do they come from and how are they identified?
A. These chops are cut from the lamb rack and contain a rib bone and rib eye muscle. They are the same as rib chops except meat is removed from ends of ribs.

Q. How are they prepared?
A. By broiling or panbroiling. To broil, place chops on broiler rack so the top of 1-inch chops is 2 inches from the heat and 2-inch chops, 3 inches from heat. When one side is browned, season, turn and finish cooking on second side, season. Chops cut 1-inch thick require 10 to 12 minutes cooking time; 2-inch chops, 20 to 22 minutes. In panbroiling thinner chops, place them in frying-pan and cook over low heat, turning occasionally for uniform doneness. Do not cover and do not add water. Cook until brown on each side.

Give Rules for Sewing Popular Plaid Fabrics

If the beautiful plaid fabrics appearing in the yard goods departments have given you the urge to make them up, remember that they are not as simple to sew on as plain colors are.

Usually you will need about one-fourth yard of extra material to make a plaid dress or suit for there is often waste in matching the plaids.

Extra fabric is used because the pattern is laid out so that the plaid design matches at the seams. Fabrics with an up-and-down-design as well as a right and left design are most difficult. It is easier to match plaid in a simpler pattern with few seams. A good example of a simple skirt pattern is a four-gore skirt. The plaid mitered down the center front and center back is beautiful in line and design.

It is important to check the notches when laying the pattern pieces on the material. Make sure, for example, that a notch on the sleeve comes at the same place in the plaid as the corresponding notch in the armhole of the blouse front and back.

When making a plaid garment it usually pays to cut each piece singly and match the plaid pattern perfectly as you proceed. Check first to see if you have enough material for the whole garment. There is a great deal of satisfaction in making a plaid garment with the plaids matched perfectly at the seams.

SEW ANY BUTTONS which you remove from old garments on a string so they do not scatter and become separated in case you want to use them together.

Tape measures will not get tangled if you attach them to an empty spool of thread and sew a snap on the other end of it to fasten after rolling it around the spool.

Keep ribbons, edgings and tapes on their cards in a covered box so they cannot get tangled in your sewing box.

Sewing machines should be oiled after about six hours of use to keep them in perfect working condition. Oil cloths for the kitchen table are easily mended by placing ad-

When you have a stack of odd hose whose colors do not match, remove the old color with color remover, then tint with one of the new shades. Make pairs out of the hose, matching heel shapes and sizes.

Sheets will wear longer if you make the same sized hems on either end so they can be placed on the bed in alternate ways.

When pillow cases are showing wear, cut them into small squares and hem into handkerchiefs for the youngsters. Another alternative for using worn pillow cases is to use them as protectors for the pillows, underneath the regular cases.

Bakery and Home Made Bread Both Have Excellent Food Value

White bread vs. whole wheat is one of the favorite dinner table controversies about grain foods. Another common question in some homes is how much baking should be done in the family kitchen.

There's no easy answer to the home baking question. You can expect excellent food value from bread in either case. Good quality bread can be bought for little more than the cost of ingredients and fuel needed for baking. Add to this the labor required in home baking. On the other hand, nothing can match the flavor and aroma of good home-made bread. It's mainly a matter of time and taste, then, and strictly dependent upon your individual situation.

As for the white or whole wheat argument, the nutritive gap has been greatly reduced in recent years. In the process of milling and bleaching flour, minerals and vitamins are removed along with the outer husk. Much of this food value is now being returned to the flour before it is marketed. B vitamins niacin, riboflavin and thiamine are replaced, as is iron.

But there's still a lot to be said for whole wheat bread. Although it contains no more calories, it generally furnishes considerably more protein, minerals and vitamins than white bread.

Regardless of the type of flour or bread you use, here are a few guides to help insure getting your money's worth for each dollar spent:

1) Make sure that the package of white flour you buy is labeled "Enriched."

2) Buy a flour to fit its use—it pays off in the finished product. "All-purpose" flour is not adapted to making most cakes.

3) Don't pass up the day-old bread bargain. It's a good buy for toast, crumbs, puddings, or scalloped dishes. Some people even prefer to eat day-old bread. It is easier to digest than "too fresh" bread.

4) Keep bread and bakery goods fresh and mold-free until used. Bread, biscuits, or rolls will keep well if stored in a ventilated bread box or drawer. Cakes should not be stored with breads. The refrigerator is a good storage place for bread if you have space there. If a bread box is used keep it clean and fresh, and away from heat sources. Hot soapy washing, scalding, and airing in the sun will help avoid odors and mold.

Plan Meals Around 7 Basic Food Groups
In planning your family's meals around the basic seven food groups you will find some fairly abundant and relatively inexpensive selections in each group.

You need at least one serving daily from the leafy green and yellow vegetable group. Carrots will give more than enough for one day's vitamin A needs for adults and children. Green beans give about one-fifth of one day's needs. Winter squash gives about four-fifths of a day's needs. These recommendations are based on one serving. Second servings from this group will add to the vitamin A requirements.

Look how you save with Dynaflo

First thing you notice, of course; is the bother and effort Dynaflo Drive* saves.

Next, that Dynaflo saves you physically—after long trips you're less tense and tired, more relaxed.

But then, as the miles pile up—and this comes from cold, recorded fact after Dynaflo's two years of public operation—you spot savings you hadn't expected...

You save on tires—because power application is steady, even. On clutch expense—the usual friction clutch is gone.

You save on transmission maintenance, and the rear-axle expenses likely to go with it. And the way your engine is oil-cushioned against normal shocks and strains shows up in less engine upkeep.

You may well discover another pleasant surprise, too.

We are getting a steadily mounting number of well-satisfied letters about gasoline mileage with Dynaflo cars.

The SPECIAL has shown some records little short of phenomenal. The SUPER is delivering mileage that compares most favorably with gear-shift cars. And the ROADMASTER more than holds its own with cars of its size and bulk.

In short, there's a lot more to please your budget in the 1950 Dynaflo than its new lower price. Refinements over the past two years result in savings that are sizable over the life of the car.

Knowing that, don't you want us to demonstrate the big side of Dynaflo—the utter smoothness of America's first oil-does-it-all drive?

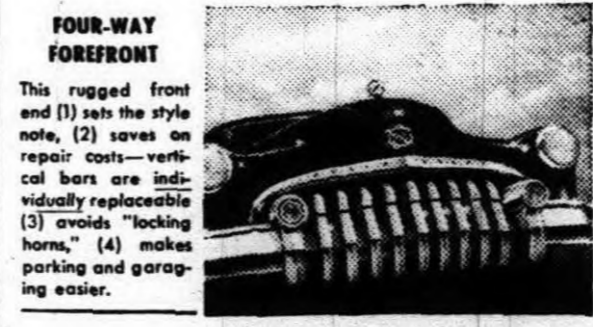

Only Buick has Dynaflo—and with it goes: HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.)

- NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fender, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights
- WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back
- TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging; short turning radius
- EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles
- SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steady torque-tube
- WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

Matchless Team — DYNAFLO and F-263

In the Buick beauty pictured here you can have both Dynaflo and Buick's very latest in power. For every latest in power, Buick's very latest in power. For every latest in power, Buick's very latest in power. For every latest in power, Buick's very latest in power.

1950 SUPER has the F-263 engine, that lively high-compression stepper that's the big power thrill of the season. Dynaflo Drive is optional equipment at extra cost.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT
This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS

Section 1.01 SUBDIVIDE. The word "subdivide" as used herein shall have the same meaning as defined in Act 172 of the Public Acts of 1929 and amendment thereto.

1.02 PARKING SPACE. A parking space shall mean an area of not less than one hundred sixty (160) square feet, exclusive of drives or aisles giving access thereto, accessible from streets or alleys, and to be usable for the storage or parking of self-propelled passenger automobiles.

ARTICLE II
PROCEDURE FOR THE PREPARATION AND FILING OF PLATS.

Section 2.01 APPLICATION. An application in writing shall be submitted to the City Planning Commission by the owner or his authorized representative for approval of a preliminary plat of any proposed subdivision lying in the limits of the City of Plymouth.

2.02 PRELIMINARY PLAT. Three copies of the preliminary plat at a scale of not more than two hundred (200) feet to the inch showing the following shall be submitted with the application:

(a) Title under which proposed subdivision is to be recorded, description of land to be platted, name and address of owner and technical author of the plan.

(b) Location of existing property lines, streets, buildings, water courses, railroads, utilities and other physical features.

(c) The location of the adjoining streets, utilities, buildings and other physical features which relate to the development of the subdivision.

(d) The location, name and width of proposed streets, alleys, easements and public utilities, parks, plantings, lots and building lines on the property to be subdivided.

(e) Any engineering data deemed necessary relative to the topography, street cross-section, sewer elevations, water elevations, etc.

(f) Proposed use of property.

(g) Areas proposed to be dedicated for public purposes.

(h) Proposed grade elevations at street intersections or breaks of grades.

(i) Date, north point and graphic scale.

2.03 TENTATIVE APPROVAL OF PRELIMINARY PLAT. Preliminary plats shall be subject to the tentative approval of the City Planning Commission who shall take into consideration of the City's requirements and the most appropriate use of the land. Particular attention will be given to the standards of design, the justification for the development of public improvements and the subdivisions conformity to the existing street plan. The width, location and arrangements of streets, the dimensions of lots, the location of utilities and other features will be studied.

If the preliminary plat is not approved, a list of the changes necessary to render the plan acceptable will be made known to the subdivider.

If the preliminary plat meets the approval of the City Planning Commission, then the subdivider may proceed to make an accurate survey of the property and prepare the final plat. Plans thus tentatively approved by the City Planning Commission shall bear the signature of the Chairman of the Commission and one copy shall be filed in the Office of the City Engineer, one copy in the file of the City Planning Commission and three signed copies returned to subdivider.

The approval of a preliminary plat shall not constitute an acceptance of the subdivision. The final or record subdivision plat shall be submitted to the City Planning Commission in triplicate, within one (1) year after approval of the preliminary plat; otherwise the approval of the preliminary plat shall become null and void unless an extension of time is applied for and the application is granted by the Commission.

2.04 RECORD OR FINAL PLAT. The final plat shall be prepared and presented in accordance with the provisions of Act 172, Public Acts of Michigan for 1929 as amended, and in addition, shall show:

(a) Any private restrictions shall be shown on plat or reference to them made thereon; and plats shall contain proper acknowledgements of owner and mortgages accepting said platting restrictions.

(b) In addition to the above the City Planning Commission will require a statement from each subdivider indicating:

1. Ownership of the property proposed to be subdivided as evidenced by an abstract of title certified to date, or, at the option of the proprietor, a policy of title insurance.

2. The improvements and utilities to be installed by the subdivider.

3. The restrictions to be imposed upon the property after subdivision.

4. The streets, alleys, parks and easements as agreed upon with the Planning Commission, with a recital that same are dedicated to the use of the public.

5. The total area in acres of the tract to be subdivided.

6. The net area in lots.

7. The total lot frontage in feet, classified as to (a) residential frontage (b) business frontage (c) industrial frontage.

8. The area in streets.

9. The area in parks.

2.05 HEARING. Any plat submitted to the City Planning Commission shall contain the name and address of a person to whom notice of a hearing shall be sent and no plat shall be acted on by the Planning Commission without affording a hearing thereon. Notice shall be sent to said person at the said address by registered mail of the time and place of such hearing not less than five (5) days before the date fixed therefor. Similar notice shall be mailed to the owners of land immediately adjoining the platted land, as their names and addresses appear upon the latest city tax record.

2.06 APPROVAL. The Planning Commission shall examine the map for compliance with the preliminary plat and required changes thereof and shall approve, modify or disapprove the plat within sixty (60) days after submission thereof to it, provided that the applicant for the Planning Commission's approval may waive this requirement and consent to an extension to such period.

Approval of the City Planning Commission shall be certified on the plat by the secretary pursuant to authorization by the City Planning Commission and no plat shall be approved by the City Planning Commission without the prior approval of the City Planning Commission.

ARTICLE III
PLATTING REGULATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

Section 3.01 CONFORMITY TO THE CITY PLAN. Subdivision shall be in harmony with the Master Thoroughfare Plan.

3.02 STREETS.

(a) Relation to adjoining street system. The arrangement of streets in a new subdivision shall make provision for the continuation of principal existing streets in adjoining or adjacent subdivisions, insofar as they may be necessary for public requirements. In general, such streets shall be of a width as great as that of the street so continued or projected. The center line of such streets shall continue with the center line of existing streets.

In general, the streets shall extend to the boundary of the subdivision to provide the proper access to adjoining property, and provide for proper connection with the highway system for contiguous land.

Where the planning commission has adopted a plan or plat of a neighborhood or area of which the subdivision is a part and proposed plat provided conditionations with the street systems of the city different from that of said continuations or projections of existing streets and the subdivider's plat conforms to such neighborhood or area plan or plan of the Commission, the Commission may approve the subdivider's plat.

Where the plat submitted covers only a part of the subdivider's tract, a sketch of a proposed future street system of the unsubdivided part shall be considered in the light of adjustments and connections with the street system of the part not subdivided.

(b) Access to Property. Each residential lot within a subdivision shall be provided with a satisfactory means of access. Building permits shall not be issued for the construction of buildings which do not have access on a public street. There shall be no reserve strips controlling access to a street, except where the control of such strips is definitely placed with the City Commission.

(c) Large Allotments. Where the parcel is subdivided into larger tracts than for building lots, the platting shall not be such as to stop the opening of major streets and the extension of adjacent minor streets, which in the judgment of the Commission should ultimately be opened and extended.

(d) Street Intersections. Streets shall be required to intersect each other at as nearly right angles as practicable. Streets converging at one point shall be reduced to the least practicable number.

(e) Streets in Relation to Railroads. Whenever a subdivision is to be laid out adjacent to a railroad right-of-way, a street shall be placed parallel to the railroad. The intersection of the centerline of the parallel street with that of any street which crosses the railroad shall not be less than three hundred (300) feet from the line of the railroad right-of-way.

(f) Dedication of Half-Streets. The dedication of half-streets will be permitted where a subdivision adjoins undeveloped property and wherever there already exists a dedicated and recorded half-street or alley on an adjoining plat, the other half must be dedicated on the proposed plat to make the street or alley complete.

(g) Dead-end Streets. Dead-end streets will not be approved if they exceed four hundred (400) feet in length. Every permanent dead-end street shall be of such width at the closed end as will permit a turning radius of not less than forty-five (45) feet.

(h) Building Lines and Set Back Lines. Building lines shall conform to the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance and the Master Thoroughfare Plan as provided by Act 285, Public Acts 1931 as amended.

(i) Street Widths. The width for major streets shall conform to the width designated on the Master Thoroughfare Plan.

The minimum width for minor streets shall be sixty (60) feet except in cases where the topography or special conditions make a street of less width more suitable, the City Planning Commission may waive the above requirement.

(j) Street Grades. Profiles may be required of all streets at the discretion of the City Planning Commission.

The minimum grade allowed shall be 0.5 per cent.

(k) Corner Radii. Curb corners shall be rounded with a radius of not less than twenty-five (25) feet. Intersections where the interior angle is less than sixty (60) degrees shall have the curb corners rounded with at least a thirty (30) foot radius and when the interior angle is less than one hundred thirty-five (135) degrees it is recommended that the corner be rounded with a minimum radius of ten (10) feet. Property lines at such corners shall be rounded or otherwise set back sufficiently to permit such construction.

(l) Access to Streets Across Ditches. Subdivider shall provide access to all proposed streets across water courses or ditches in a standard manner approved by the City Engineer.

(m) Street and Subdivision Names. All proposed streets obviously in alignment with another already existing and named, must bear the same name. New street names shall not duplicate existing street names and all names must be approved by the City Planning Commission.

Duplication of proposed subdivision names, with the names of those already existing, will not be permitted.

No Finer List of Names
On Earth!

If you had in your hand a list of all the people in the world who own and ride in Cadillac cars, we think you'd agree that you could search in vain for another list of equal size—and greater distinction.

Cadillac is the great common meeting ground for the world's distinguished people. Wherever the car is available, it has become almost the automatic companion for outstanding personal achievement.

And yet, such is the magic of Cadillac's manufacturing ingenuity, that this internationally distinguished car is available at a price which makes it a great practical value.

The lowest-priced Cadillac model—the lovely "Sixty-One"—actually costs less than certain models of numerous other makes of cars.

The great Cadillac engine is so economical to operate that gasoline mileage actually approaches that of the smallest, most economical cars. In a recent, officially-supervised economy run, three Cadillac cars averaged better than twenty-two miles to the gallon for 751 miles!

And there is simply no practical limit to the car's endurance. It is merely a question of how long you wish to keep it and drive it. The full lifespan of a Cadillac has never been accurately measured.

In view of all this, isn't it the part of wisdom to add your own name to the list of those who own this distinguished car?

This is a wonderful year for moving up to Cadillac. The car has never been so beautiful, so luxurious—so utterly thrilling to ride in and drive. It is an everlasting satisfaction to utilize and possess.

Better come in and talk it over. We'd be most happy to see you—any time. But please bear in mind that every day you delay will cost you its price in pleasure and satisfaction. Why not come in today?

Subdivision Ordinance Ordinance No. 159 City of Plymouth, Michigan

minimum width of twenty (20) feet, will be required in the rear of all local business and commercial lots. A diagonal cut-off shall be made at all acute and right-angle intersections of alleys sufficient to provide an inside turning radius of thirty (30) feet. At the intersection of alley lines with street lines, a corner cut-off line shall be provided between points established by measuring a distance of five (5) feet in both directions along the alley line and the street line from the point of their intersection.

3.04 EASEMENTS. Where alleys are not provided, easements of not less than six (6) feet in width shall be provided on each side of rear lot lines and of side lot lines where necessary for utilities and shall be noted on the record plat. Easements of greater width may be required along natural water courses and channels, such easements to conform substantially with the lines of such natural water-ways.

3.06 BLOCKS. Residential blocks shall not be less than two hundred (200) feet wide, they shall not be less than six hundred sixty (660) feet long nor more than twelve hundred (1200) feet. Where blocks are more than eight hundred (800) feet long, a ten (10) foot cross walk shall be provided near the center of the block.

Business, commercial and industrial blocks shall not be less than two hundred eighty (280) feet wide, they shall not be less than two hundred eighty (280) feet long. 2. No lot classified as business, commercial or industrial shall be platted that is less than forty (40) feet in width and less than five thousand (5000) square feet in area.

3. The subdivider and the Planning Commission shall consider the off-street parking provisions as provided for in the Zoning Ordinance and make adequate allowance for the same.

(b) Lot Lines. All side lot lines should be at right angles to straight street lines, or radial to curved street lines, unless a variation from this rule will give a better street and lot plan.

(c) Lots with Double Frontage. Lots with double frontage shall be avoided, but if provided, the corner lots must have sufficient depth so that a reasonable front yard may be provided on both street frontages to protect similar frontages on adjacent lots in each direction.

(b) Property use and area restrictions must be in accordance with the Zoning Ordinance.
(c) Business lots when platted shall bear a reasonable relation in number to the probable future number of families constituting the purchasing power of the neighborhood. The Commission will reserve the right to allocate business lots in accordance with its Master Plan and Zoning Ordinance.

3.10 UTILITIES AND IMPROVEMENTS.

The installation of storm sewers and sanitary sewers, storm water inlets, house connections from sewers to beyond the curb location, water mains with house connections to beyond the curb location, off-street parking facilities in conjunction with business lots, sidewalks and the construction of the roadway to the approved grade. Plans and specifications must be approved by the City Engineer and the construction must be carried out under the direction of the Office of the City Engineer in strict accordance with standard city specifications for the various kinds of improvements, as established by ordinance or resolution adopted by the City Commission. The City Engineer will assign a city inspector to the work for such time as may be necessary to insure full compliance with specifications, and the wages of such inspector shall be paid from a sum for inspection to be deposited by the subdivider with the City Treasurer.

(b) Off-street Parking for Business Use. Off-street parking facilities, on the basis of one parking space, exclusive of drives or aisles giving access thereto, shall be provided for each two hundred (200) square feet of platted business area.
(c) Street signs. When in the opinion of the Planning Commission the identity of any street appears desirable, the establishment of street signs of the same type and design in general use within the community may be required.
(d) Street Trees. Wherever the Planning Commission deems it desirable in order to insure continuity of purpose, street trees shall be planted in conformance with a planting plan approved by the Planning Commission.

Once Saved Hotel From Burning

When Don Lightfoot read in the newspapers the other day that the Seneby hotel had burned at Seneby in the Upper Peninsula, he had more than the usual interest in the fire.

He recalled that it was some nine or ten years ago when he was on a deer hunting trip in the Upper Peninsula with Irving Blunk of this city. The two were making their headquarters at the well-known Seneby hotel.

"It was about 11 o'clock at night when I suddenly woke up and smelled smoke from burning wood. I immediately aroused Irving and told him I thought the hotel might be on fire. We dressed hurriedly and sure enough when search was made with the clerk we found a fire in one of the rooms that was occupied by a hunter who apparently had gone to sleep while smoking a cigarette," said Mr. Lightfoot in telling of the incident.

"It was by the timely discovery of the fire that we saved the hunter from burning up as well as saving the hotel," he added.

Over a long period of years Mr. Lightfoot, who is now in the heating business, worked in lumber yards and anyone who is employed in or around sawmills or lumber yards just naturally is alert to all fire hazards. Seemingly they can smell smoke from burning wood that would not be noticed by the average individual.

The Seneby hotel had for years been a stopping place for many Plymouth deer hunters. It was built during the period when Seneby was a roaring lumber community. After the passing of the lumber business in that part of the state the hotel became a sportsmen's headquarters during the fishing and hunting seasons. The loss was estimated at over $75,000.

The second national Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America will be held at Valley Forge park, Pennsylvania, June 30-July 6.

DALE CARNEGIE AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING"

Do You Enjoy Worry?

MRS. ANN VASSAR, Yuma, Arizona, has two God-given traits: a sense of humor and a sense of values. And she has put them to work.

She says she went through a worry period but that she didn't realize that she was worrying; instead, she thought she was merely facing her adversities, which consisted of not only her own problems, but the problems of her children, which she tried to solve for them without stopping to consider whether they were able to solve them for themselves. Also, she had some which she couldn't very well laugh off.

Carnegie

One day she was jacked up to a realization of what she was really like when she heard her oldest daughter say to her sister, "Oh, let Mother worry about that; she loves to worry; she really enjoys it."

That remark, lightly but sincerely made caused her to analyze herself. Of course, she was at first pained by it for she knew she had problems she couldn't solve all at once. Just the same, she knew that a change had to come. How should she bring it about?

First, she decided to stop trying to live her children's lives and to give more attention to her own affairs. As soon as she made that resolve, she realized that she was helped a lot in seeing things more clearly. This resolve not only brought relief to her but to her children as well and they don't seem to think her callous to their problems either.

Second, she adopted an optimistic outlook on life, and began living only for the day. She says she at once began ending her days happily and this caused her to sleep better and arise in the morning fully rested, which she had not done for some time.

Third, those debts! She would lump them, divided into the proper categories, and pay off a little of each at a time. She says she is doing right well here and that small amounts are not so frightening.

Developing a sense of values brought a keen sense of humor, and humor always helps in almost any problem.

But there was a fourth, and that fourth was she found that she had one to lean on far, far stronger than herself. She says she knows now that where there is God there is no worry.

Roger Babson Says...

Babson Discusses Weather

One of the chief topics of discussion here today is whether Dr. Irving Langmuir and his Harvard friends will succeed in making it rain.

Scientific vs Legal Phases

Of course, based on statistics, nature favors their reputation. Every day New York goes without rain, the chances increase that the rain makers will be "successful." If no rain occurs after they doctor the clouds, their experiments will be of some value; but if rain does occur, no one can tell whether or not rain would have come without this doctoring.

Perhaps the most interesting feature will be the results of the legal suits:—(1) Those brought by business concerns—department stores, amusement centers and building contractors—who do not want rain; and (2) Those brought by communities other than New York City who will claim that New York "stole" rain which they greatly needed. One thing the rain makers have accomplished. They are giving the gambling element something new to bet upon! So much for this New York experiment.

Watch Weather Maps

The real thought which I have in mind is to emphasize the importance of watching the daily U. S. weather maps as they appear in most city newspapers. My reason, however, is not to know per se if it is to rain or be fair, if it is to be colder or warmer; but how the change is to affect the behavior, disposition, judgment and courage of you and me. Upon these things our happiness and business success largely depends.

Watch Your Step

Rule No. 3: Last week Mrs. Babson and I celebrated our Golden Wedding. Naturally we—like every other couple who have been married 50 years—have had rows! But when—last week—discussing our experiences it was evident that every serious "flair up" started accidentally over some very insignificant and unexpected word. With my present knowledge of weather psychology, I believe that the weather was an important factor in starting most of those unhappy days. Hence, my Rule No. 3 is to "Watch my step during such cloudy or muggy days" and keep away from other people as much as I can, remembering that the weather is making them "touchy" or a little ugly as well as it is affecting me unfavorably.

My Weather Rules

In my own life I use the weather forecasts as follows: Rule No. 1: If I want someone to take a favorable attitude or to answer "Yes" on some project, I wait for a cool and clear day with a rising barometer. (I have a barometer over my desk beside my clock.) I always can get better results by so waiting.

Rule No. 2: If someone wants to call upon me whom I do not care much about seeing, I make a date when the day probably will be cloudy or muggy with a falling barometer. I have two reasons for this: (a) Because the person then may not have the energy to call; and (b) Because it will be much easier for me to say "No" when the barometer is falling and I don't feel well. Looking back on my life it seems as if 90% of my mistakes were due to my not having the guts to say "No" and stick to it!

FROM THE OLD TIMER OF FRANKFORT, KY.

"I remember when canning was a long, hot job for the women folks. Foods were scalded in a wash boiler, but you scalded yourself, too. There was always that uncertainty about foods keeping. How about your memories of days gone by, old-timers? I'd like to have some for this column. Write me in care of Box 340, Frankfort, Ky."

From Sara Reed Dole of Chicago: "I remember the winters when I was a small girl living in a small town in Kankakee county, Illinois, and the thrill of opening the pit and taking out apples, turnips, potatoes and cabbage for our winter meals. There were no basements in those days, and no deep freezers, either. Many a time farmers had to go through fields to town because all the roads were blocked by high snow banks. The snow was often so hard-crusted that we could walk right on top of it. Sometimes we'd sink in up to our waists. We had to walk two miles to school."

From J. F. Bauman of Rockport, Ind.: "I remember when church was over, we would step up to a girl and say, 'May I see you home tonight?' And we didn't always get an affirmative answer. How different it is nowadays!"

From Mrs. Nettie L. Vanderwerker of Napoleon, Mich.: "I remember sleeping in a trundle bed. It was a low contraption on casters and was rolled under the regular bed for the daytime and rolled out at night."

Watch Your Step

Rule No. 4: Finally, I no longer telephone the doctor when members of my family have pains or think they are sick without first looking at the barometer! If there has been a sudden weather change, I say: "Cheer up, You'll be O.K. tomorrow. Today's aches and depressions are due to a changing weather condition!" This forecast is usually correct and all the family are again feeling fine in a day or so. This barometer pays for itself every month. I wish I could be as successful forecasting the stock market!

A Peek at THE STARS

By LYN CONNELLY

PROBABLY the least known man on radio is the strange character called "Mr. Peavey" on "The Great Gildersleeve" program each Wednesday, played by Dick LeGrand, who has trouped since an actor's basic training consisted of departing boarding houses via the window . . . He is no longer able to accomplish this feat, but time has served him well in another direction . . . He owns a one-story home and fusses with rose bushes.

HAL PEARY

There always will be a Mr. Peavey played by LeGrand on any Gildersleeve show run by Harold Peary, the windy Giddy in the flesh . . . Their friendship goes back a good many years and is solidly cemented with the mutual-ity of interests found among those who have often wondered whether the stock company manager would still be around come pay day . . . Hal and LeGrand first met in Stockton, Calif., in the days when there was such a thing as a stock company.

LeGrand was an established "big wheel" in stock, and was known in a couple dozen western cities . . . Peary was just getting started . . . In fact, when he walked into the Stockton job it was his first try at lead roles . . . The rest of the troupe had been in that one spot long enough to have memorized all the plays . . . "I was green as they come," Peary relates, "but they all managed to help me—and Dick, in particular, was great at figuring new business to get near me when I'd forgotten a line . . . He always knew it and gave it to me."

Doing two bills a week required some fast study, recalls Hal . . . often he went on not entirely familiar with his part—which meant he'd have typewritten lines placed around the stage to help a flagging memory . . . Dick helped Peary in those days and Hal is not one to forget . . . When Peary is written out of the Gildersleeve program the whole show, who can be sure, will be dissolved. That's friendship.

The first Chief Scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America was Dr. James E. West who served in this capacity for 32 years.

Michigan Milk Producers Ass'n

Never Wanting for a Paying Customer

Dairy farmers who are members of the Michigan Milk Producers Association enjoy a marketing situation which is available to very few business men throughout the entire world.

These 15,000 members are GUARANTEED a market for all of the milk they produce at all times and furthermore, prompt payment for that milk is GUARANTEED.

Through their own cooperative efforts during the past third of a century, they have established these protective measures. Here is an outstanding example of self-help and free enterprise at its best. Even in cases of the farmer's family being quarantined and his supply of milk banned from the market, he receives fifty per cent of the amount he would have obtained had the milk been salable.

These protective measures work just as much to the advantage of the consuming public as to the dairymen. The supply of milk in the Michigan cities provided by the MMPA is always ample to meet the needs of all the people—a direct result of the association's farsighted and equitable policies.

Whether you are producer or consumer, you can depend upon the Michigan Milk Producers Association to safeguard your interests.
