Displays Copper and Brass Hobby

Mrs. George Hubert of Newburg road holds an antique copper teapot belonging to her collection of antique copper and brass. Mrs. Hubert began her collection with several pieces that belonged to her family in Denmark. Her collection will be on display this week in the lobby of the Plymouth United Savings bank.

The teapot isn't in the kitchen at the home of Mrs. George Hubert, 3990 Newburg road—at least not the copper one that belonged to her great grandmother and dates back to 1845.

The teapot is the oldest piece in Mrs. Hubert's collection of copper and brass, which she uses as decorative items throughout her home. Another unusual item in the collection is a specially made pan for making Danish pancake balls. Many of the items came from Denmark and belong-

Leona Niedospal Becomes Bride of Harold D. Brown

Leona Ellen Niedospal, daughter of Mrs. Helen Niedospal of East Ann Arbor trail, and Harold Duane Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brown of Sharpsburg, Iowa, were united in marriage Saturday, May 13 at 11:30 in the morning at Our Lady of Good Counsel church by the Rev. William P. Mooney.

The bride, attired in a gown of slipper satin with the waist and peplum fashioned of chantilly lace, was escorted to the altar by her brother, John Urban.

The bride's gown was detailed with a high mandarin collar, long sleeves ending in points over the wrists and a full skirt ending in a train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a bonnet-type cap made of satin and trimmed with seed pearls. A diamond studded cross, a gift of the groom, was worn about her neck. A bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid corsage, was carried by the bride.

Mrs. Marie Cylk sang "Ave Marie" and "On This Day" for the wedding ceremony.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Irene Curmi, carried out the duties of matron of honor. She was attired in a lavender embroidered organdy gown over taffeta. Pink snapdragons with blue iris made up her bouquet.

Mrs. Thomas Green was the bride's only other attendant. Blue embroidered organdy over taffeta fashioned her gown, and she carried yellow snapdragons with blue iris.

Edward Curmi was the groom's best man and Harold Moyer seated the guests.

The bride's mother, attired in a maple sheer crepe gown with chartreuse accessories and a corsage of tea roses, greeted approximately 70 guests for dinner at Hillside Inn.

For her wedding trip to the groom's home in Iowa and through the south, the bride wore a maple and gold suit with a chartreuse blouse and navy accessories. The young couple will be at home to their friends in Ypsilanti after returning from their wedding trip.

Graham's Overseas Report
by Lillian Graham

The Dartmouth House 37 Charles St. Berkeley Square, W. 1 London, England
Spent my first day in London at the British Industries Fair, where the King and Queen and Princess Margaret came too since it was opening day. Various materials, manufactured products, foods, etc., from all over the British Empire were shown. There was not a room in all of London for rent. Fortunately I had reservations in advance. Everyone is eating better than last year when one egg per person per week was the rule (there is still nothing in London to compare with one of Peterson's healthy milkshakes).
Spent yesterday in Manchester where I went thru the mills which loom the famous Manchester tissue which goes into the R and K cottons which we now have in Plymouth. These are made by generations of skilled craftsmen who pass on their skill from generation to generation. There is undoubtedly no cotton in the world that comes close to the Manchester tissue. It's texture is in a class by itself.
The British woolens at the Fair are very beautiful though conservative. I understand much of it is exported to the United States where it goes into Betty Rose and other famous brands of coats and suits in the store.
Nylons are still comparatively scarce and the British women have a jealous look in their eyes when they notice the beautiful Mojud hose which I have been wearing. Many of them wear woolen hose.
Leaving London tomorrow to be a house guest of the Prices at the Groves in Taynton. It should be interesting staying at the home of a member of Parliament.

Present Paper on Music at Recent PEO Meeting

A paper was prepared by Mrs. Robert O. Hoffelt of Ypsilanti, who is a graduate of the University of Indiana and who has been on the piano faculty of Drake university. She was unable to attend because of a prior commitment but Mrs. Clarence Adamson read the paper. It was entitled "Music in the World Today," and pointed out what is happening in several countries in the fields of opera and symphony.

Cap Smith is Drowned While on a Fishing Trip With the tragic drowning of "Cap" Ebdon Smith, age 71, while on a fishing trip last Thursday, death has removed the last of the three famous auctioneers who for over half a century served the farmers in their auction sales throughout this section of Michigan. The first to go was Auctioneer Lucian Lovewell of South Lyon, then Harry C. Robinson of Plymouth. "Cap" Smith, as he was best known to his many friends and acquaintances throughout this area, was fishing with his son, Gordon E. Smith of New Hudson, on a small lake over in Brighton township. "Cap" had hooked a big pike and in his efforts to land it, leaned too far backward in the metal boat they were using. It tipped over, throwing both fishermen into the water. There were no buoyancy devices in the boat and as it sunk, the two fishermen started to swim to shore, a distance of only about 50 feet. Mr. Smith, long known as a good swimmer, was making good progress, but when his son reached the shore he turned and did not see his father. Rescue efforts were immediately made by the son, with the assistance of passing motorists, but were ineffective. The state police were called and the body soon recovered. It was removed to the Phillips Funeral home in South Lyon, where the funeral was held Monday. Burial took place in the family lot in Riverside cemetery in Plymouth. The Rev. James Roberts of South Lyon officiated. Mr. Smith was born in Livonia township at Elm, the son of Richard and Mary Smith, pioneer residents of this vicinity. He was married to the former Katie Millard in Elm, December 28, 1898, who survives. After leaving the Elm neighborhood, the Smiths moved to a farm on Ann Arbor trail, a mile or so this side of Dixboro, which they sold just previous to the outbreak of the last World War. Soon after this, the family moved to New Hudson. During the last quarter of a century or more he had conducted hundreds of farm auctions in this vicinity and as a result of his sales he just naturally made a vast number of friends. Besides his wife and son who was with him on the fishing trip, another son, Harold C. Smith of South Lyon, a grandson, and a brother, Richard S. Smith, of Plymouth survive. Agricultural research has added many dollars to the farmers yearly income in Michigan.

By CARL PETERSON "The world's Tallest Show Girl," six-foot-five-inch Joni Criss, plans to campaign for the presidency of the U.S. in 1970. Joni shyly admits, "I have the basic requirements... beauty, brains and ambition... and I know I'm going to make the grade." Well, Abe Lincoln was no beauty, but he made the grade. She also thinks men are too soft and sentimental and can be handled easily by an attractive woman. Instead of Yalta or Teheran maybe, Joni, as Madam Pres., could meet Stalin at Stromboli. She has one thing in her favor... most of us could look up to a 6-foot-5-inch president.

Conner Family Sells Oldest Hardware Business in Plymouth

Plymouth's oldest mercantile house has been sold, as owners of the Conner Hardware store have decided to terminate a business that has operated most successfully in this community for a century. Henry Hanchett is the new owner of the hardware firm on Penniman avenue.

During those 100 years the store with the brief exception of six or seven years, was owned and operated by members of the pioneer Conner family that through three generations had an active part in the growth and development of this city.

The decision will cause both surprise and regret to residents of this city and surrounding territory who had come to regard the Conner family's business almost as much of a fixture in Plymouth as was the old town pump that stood for generations at the same corner where the store is located.

It was in 1857 when Henry Bennett decided to sell the hardware store he had started to Michael Conner.

Upon the passing of Michael Conner, the store was taken over by his son, William Conner, who conducted it and developed the place into a sort of community center, where all of the problems of the little village of Plymouth were discussed nightly by citizens of the community who gathered around the big wood burning stove that heated the place.

After the death of William Conner the store had been continued by Max Moon, husband of Hazel Katherine Moon, a daughter of the William Conner family. Mr. Moon was associated with Mr. Conner for many years before the death of this well known and popular Plymouth pioneer.

It is an interesting fact that if Michael Conner, first member of the Conner family to operate a hardware store in Plymouth, had been successful in his hunt for gold out on the Pacific coast during the gold rush days there probably never would have been a Conner store in Plymouth. It was in 1852 when Michael Conner left Plymouth with David Fralick to join a wagon train of gold prospectors in Ohio that was on its way to California to seek gold.

Young Fralick died on the way to the west coast, but Mr. Conner kept going with other members of the wagon train until he reached California. The trip was not only a hazardous one, but a hard one for the Plymouth young man because of illness. For four village president to serve after the adoption of the new system of municipal administration.

It was during the period when he owned the store that the various Conner buildings that stand at Main street and Penniman avenue were erected.

A few years after his death, the Conner hardware was moved from Main street to a portion of one of the Conner buildings on Penniman avenue.

A prayer in its simplest definition is merely a wish turned Godward.

New Seventh-Day Adventist Church Organized Here

Seventh-Day Adventists in Plymouth officially organized into a church last Saturday, choosing as its name the Plymouth Seventh-Day Adventist Church. The organization took place in the chapel at 1056 South Main street.

Elders G. E. Hutches, president, and E. F. Willett, secretary-treasurer of the Michigan Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists of Lansing; A. A. Lieske, district superintendent, and his assistant, Mr. Clough, of Detroit, and M. S. Krietzky, district leader of Belleville were present to officiate at the organization. With the addition of the new church at Plymouth this brings the number of Seventh-Day Adventist churches in Michigan to 148 with a membership well-over 12,000.

According to statistics at the beginning of 1949 the world membership of the Seventh-Day Adventist denomination was over 670,000 and they are established in 228 of the 282 countries listed in "The World Almanac" and the "Statesman's Yearbook."

In addition to churches, the denomination maintains schools, hospitals, treatment rooms, publishing houses, and food companies. At present there are 551 institutions. This work is supported largely through the tithes and offerings of the membership. Last year this amounted to $136.84 per capita. Welfare work is carried on around the world through a network of Dorcas Welfare societies whose principal function is care of the needy. In postwar years Adventists have sent clothing shipments amounting to more than 2,800,000 pounds overseas to more than 40 countries.

In the organizing of the church here in this city another link has been added to the great chain of churches of this denomination which encircles the globe.

Break Ground For New Addition to Madonna College

Ground was broken last Friday for the new addition to Madonna college on Newburg and Schoolcraft roads. Taking part in the ground breaking ceremonies were Mother Mary Januaria, provincial superior, and a number of the faculty and students of the college. Preceding the ceremony the ground was blessed by the Rev. Paul Zelaff, chaplain.

The new addition will consist of a west wing built on the north section of the present building. When completed this wing, which will measure 112 by 41 feet, will serve as a hall for resident students of the college. A social room, guest rooms, a recreation room, a kitchenette, a snack bar, locker and utility rooms will be located on the ground floor.

Double rooms for students, 17 to each floor with residence facilities, will be provided on the first, second and third floors.

The architects and engineers are Maguolo, Quick, and Associates of St. Louis, represented by Edwin F. Noh of Detroit. The contractor and builder is the Kreighoff company. The American company will take care of plumbing and heating while the O'Toole Electric company will do the electric wiring. The cost is estimated at $320,000.

Madonna college, a college for women conducted by the Felician sisters of Plymouth, was opened for lay students in September, 1947. It is approved by the State Board of Education for granting college degrees and is affiliated with the Catholic University of Washington, D. C. The first group of lay students will graduate in June, 1951, though there have been two commencements for those students who after two years in Presentation Junior college, attended elsewhere for one year and then returned to Madonna college for their senior year.

All these things indicate that our customers have confidence in the policies of fair, honest dealing which have guided this company for the past 90 years.

We want to do everything we can to merit your continued support. Please send your suggestions to:

Local Track Team Takes First Place For League Championship

Collecting 74 1/3 points in the Suburban 6-B league track meet, the Plymouth Rock tricolored rolled to first place and a 22 point margin over the second place team, Ypsilanti, on the Plymouth track Friday, May 12, copping the league championship.

Plymouth placed first with Ypsi second (52 1/3), Trenton third (47), Redford Union fourth (33 1/3), Wayne fifth (21) and Belleville sixth (12). Trenton would have taken second place in the meet had they not been disqualified in the 880 relay, taking eight points away from them.

In the medley relay Ypsilanti took first place with Plymouth in second. Ypsi ran the course in 2:37.3. Wayne came in third, Belleville fourth and Redford Union fifth. Running the relay for Ypsi were Duede, Smith, Hill and Baker.

Paul Harding of Plymouth tied the record in the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.3, closely trailed by another teammate, Bob Anthony, who placed second. Dicks of Wayne took third, Hill of Ypsilanti fourth and Monroe of Wayne fifth.

With a time of 4:39 Davis of Belleville was all alone as he took first in the mile run. This was the only event that Plymouth failed to score in.

Coming within one second and one tenth of tying the record, Lou Vargha captured first place in the 440 yard run with a time of 54.9 and Dick Underwood, also of Plymouth, took third place. Wright of Trenton followed Vargha home in second while Ypsi's Sutton took fourth and Broudecker of Redford Union took fifth.

Taking his second first place of the evening Paul Harding came within one tenth of a second of tying a league record with a time of 23.1 while Bob Anthony came in second. "Buzz" Todd took fourth place for Plymouth, giving the locals 12 points in this event.

Calvin Becker of Plymouth, who holds the record for the 880 yard run, slacked up slightly and came home in second place Friday as Wynn of Ypsilanti passed him on the final lap, hitting the tape at 2:06.2.

The Plymouth relay team finished far ahead of their contest competitor as Bill Burger, Paul Harding, Bob Anthony and Lou Vargha took the event in 1:37. Harding started it off and took a good lead, Burger held the lead up fine, Anthony gained a few yards and Vargha brought the final lap in good time.

Trenton took second place in this event but they were disqualified and Ypsilanti was awarded second. Wayne third, Redford Union fourth and Belleville fifth.

Crawford of Trenton tooted the shot put 47' 6 3/4" for a first place and Gary Rodman of the Rock tricolored captured second with a heave of 46' 1 1/2". Fisher of Trenton, who is currently holding the league record of 48' 5 1/4", placed third.

Vaulting 11', Martin of Trenton took first place and Bluhm of Redford Union took second in the pole vault. Jim Law of Plymouth had to settle for fourth place, as he vaulted 10'. Another former local pole vaulter, Jim Wagenschutz, holds the league record with 12'.

John Hill of Ypsilanti leaped 19' 7" to a first place in the broad jump while Cline took second. Lou Vargha of Plymouth had a 19' 4 1/2" jump which was good for third position.

A three way tie came about in the high jump as Reed of Ypsi, Petit of Redford Union and Bob Anthony of Plymouth each notched 5' 4", dividing the first, second and third place points equally.

In the 180 yard low hurdles Cline of Trenton took first place with a time of 21.6 and Mallette of Redford Union finished second while Melvin Schultz of Plymouth garnered enough speed to take third place.

In the 120 high hurdles Cline also took first place as he hit the tape at 16.2 and again Mallette raced home in second place, but this time Thomas of Trenton took third and Jim Law, running for Plymouth, captured fourth.

Plymouth, besides capturing the league crown with a total of 74 1/3 points, took four first places and tied in another in 13 events while Trenton took an even four firsts and Ypsi took three firsts and tied for first in another. Belleville took one first place and Redford Union tied for first place and Wayne did not take a first in anything.

Showing unexpectedly good form were Dick Underwood in the 440, placing third, "Buzz" Todd in the 220, placing fourth, Bob Anthony tying for first in the high jump and Melvin Schultz capturing third in the low hurdles.

Cline of Trenton led in the individual scoring for the meet, garnering 16 points as he took two first places and one second. Bob Anthony of Plymouth gathered 15 1/3 as he tied for one first, took two second places and ran a leg in the relay team. Paul Harding, also of Plymouth, followed Anthony in scoring with 15 points as he took two first and ran a leg in the relay team.

The second, thirds and fourths brought Plymouth up and gave them their margin of victory. Several boys made their letters for Plymouth in this meet as they entered the scoring department. These boys were Dick Joachim who placed in the broad jump; Dick Underwood, taking third in the 440, and Buzz Todd who raced to fourth in the 220.

Kon Moiso, coach of the victorious Plymouth track team, stated that he would like to compliment Herb Woolweaver and Bob Ingram for running off the meet in such quick fashion. He also stated that it was a very good meet.

This Saturday, May 20, the Plymouth track team journeys to Ann Arbor where they will enter the regional track meet. Also entered will be Howell who beat out the local team in the Albion Relays.

Rock Baseball Squad Wins Two in Week - Elliott Knocks Home Run

Winning their second victory within four days, the Plymouth Rock baseball team defeated Belleville 7-2 Thursday, May 11 on the locals home diamond behind the school.

Carl Elliott's big bat produced four of the seven runs scored by Plymouth as he connected for a home run with one man on and a single with the bases loaded.

Wally Drurus hurled the Rocks to this victory as he pitched six hit ball and was credited with the win, while Ballard was the losing pitcher, giving up four hits.

Belleville drew first blood as they took the lead at the end of the second inning 1-0. Johnson scored the first run after walking and then crossing the plate on a two bagger by Cadwell. In the third frame the Tigers scored once more after the locals had muffed a couple of plays, taking a 2-0 lead.

Both teams were held scoreless until the fifth inning when Gary Sockow walked and scored on Elliott's home run, tying the contest at two all.

In the sixth frame for Plymouth Dave Travis led off by walking and then stole second base. Dick Fenton struck out, but Lloyd Campbell came through with a single, sending Travis to third. Captain Bobby Gow reached first base on an error and Travis scampered home giving the Rocks a one run margin.

Keeping the rally going Gary Sockow walked and Elliott banged out his second hit of the tilt, a single, driving in two runs. Hunter also singled and drove a run in, and Jacobus walked forcing in another Rock run. Drurus and Travis then struck out.

Dzurus pitched a fine game for the Rocks and struck out 12 Belleville batters and gave up only four bases on balls. Ballard whiffed eight locals and walked five.

Men's Volleyball to Discontinue Until June

Men's volleyball which has been in full swing for the last few months at Starkweather Grade school every Tuesday evening under the direction of Dunbar Davis will be discontinued for the present but will start up again in the middle of June, and will resume action on the high school tennis courts.

The men have all had a fine time at the gym. Every night that

Reitzel Pitches Shut-out For Initial Victory

With Dave Reitzel pitching a brilliant shut-out for the Plymouth Rocks Monday, May 8, the locals subdued Wayne High school 3-0 on the latter's home diamond, although connecting for only four base hits in an extra three inning tilt, notching their first victory of the season.

Reitzel allowed only four hits, all singles, in his 10 innings, striking out six Wayne batters. Templeton, who went all the way on the mound for the Zebras, was handed the loss although he gave up only four hits and struck out 17 Plymouth batters.

At the end of the regular seven innings of play the game was tied up at 0-0, due to some fine pitching on the part of both, Reitzel and Templeton. In the ninth frame the Rocks had three men on base but failed to score any of them.

Leading off in the top of the tenth for the locals Gary Sockow walked. George Hunter hit a grounder to L. Huebler at second who booted the ball, placing runners on first and second for Plymouth. Phil Jacobus sacrificed Sockow and Hunter along. Dave Reitzel, who had already done his share of the work in chucking nine scoreless innings, pulled a squeeze play, scoring Sockow with the winning run and then beating out the hit himself.

Dave Travis doubled Hunter and Reitzel home, ending the scoring for the game. Dick Fenton followed Travis and grounded out to the shortstop and Lloyd Campbell struck out.

Going into the last of the tenth Reitzel was holding a 3-0 lead. Cedric Dempsey led off for Wayne and struck out; D. Huebler grounded out Hunter to Campbell, and Pega ended the game by bouncing one to Reitzel who threw him out at first base.

Plymouth had three runs, four hits and four errors while Wayne had no runs, four hits and two errors. Although pitching a fine game Reitzel made three wild pitches.

the group met, approximately 20 men were present. With Davis directing the group they scheduled matches with several teams and won almost all of them. They journeyed to Detroit on various occasions and also played at the House of Correction.

Howard "Bud" Carson was the medalist for the first time with an 82 count. Bill Farwell and Jerry Walsh were close behind as they shot scores of 85. Henry Levering followed this trio with an 86, which was also very good, giving the locals a total of 334 to Van Dyke's 374.

5. Players may be contracted up to 12:00 p.m., July 28, 1950. Players may be released anytime during the season but no player may be contracted after the above date.

6. To be eligible to play in the next scheduled game, a player's contract must be in the hands of the Recreation Director or post-marked at least 24 hours prior to game time. No player may play with another team in this league within seven days after his release from any other team in this league. Players must sign their own contracts.

7. Games will be played on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings beginning May 30, 1950 and will end near August 1. The scheduled game times shall be 6:15, 7:00 and 8:20 p.m. unless otherwise noted on the schedule. (No inning is to start after 1 hour and 10 minutes of playing time has elapsed.) Exception: Rule 10.

8. Forfeit time shall be 15 minutes after scheduled game time. A team must have a minimum of nine players to start a game. If both teams do not have enough players to start, both teams will be charged with a loss and a forfeit. Any team which forfeits twice will have to pay another fee of $12.00 before the next scheduled game or be dropped from the league. (A team may use 10 players).

9. All games will be played under the 1950 Softball Rules as approved by the Joint Rules committee. Pitching must be underhand—no Windmill pitch. Pitching distance is 46 feet.

10. If a game be a tie at the end of 7 innings, play shall be continued until one side has scored more runs than the other in an equal number of innings up to the 10th; provided that if the side last at bat scored the winning run before the third man is out in any inning between the 7th and 10th, the game shall be legally over. If still a tie at the end of 9 innings, the game must be played off at a later date (unless it can be finished without further inconvenience to the other teams).

11. The line-ups must be in the hands of the home team score keeper 10 minutes before game starting time.

12. Player Eligibility:
A. Any man who has reached the age of 30 years before September 15, 1950, shall be eligible to play in this league.
B. Two members of each team may be under 30 years of age but they cannot participate as pitcher.

C. No player shall be eligible to play in this league who is a member of a softball team in any other organized league.
D. With the consent of the opposing team manager and witnessed by umpire and supervisor, a team may pick up other players of the Old Timers' league in order to prevent a forfeit and play the game as official.

13. Each team will play in accordance with the season's schedule as printed. In case of a postponed game, teams will continue with the regular schedule and the postponed game will be played at a later date, as agreed upon by both team managers and the game supervisor. The method of play-off shall be the same rules as applied in the Men's Open league. A player must play in at least one-third of the regular season games to be eligible to play in the play-offs.

14. Warm-ups for the 2nd and 3rd games should not exceed 5 minutes for each team and games may be called to start at the discretion of the supervisor. The home team will take the field last.

15. All questions of rules concerning the game must be discussed only by the manager or captain with the umpire. Unsportsmanlike abuse to umpires from players will immediately subject them to suspension from his team; the time will be so designated by your game supervisor and the amount will depend on the nature of the offense act. No smoking on the playing field—it is O.K. on the bench.

16. Indefinite suspension will be the penalty for the players or umpire under the influence of alcohol in any form during any game sponsored by the Plymouth Recreation commission.

17. No protest will be accepted concerning an umpire's judgment, however, protest may be filed concerning the rules of the game and their interpretation, or the eligibility of players. All protests must be filed in writing within 24 hours after completion of the game with the Director of Recreation. Each protest must be accompanied with a check of $2.00. If the protest is won the check will be returned, however, if lost, the check will be placed in the Activity Fund account.

18. If discovered, any team using one or more ineligible players will be charged with a loss and a forfeit.

19. The Department of Recreation will furnish one softball for each game and the home team will have enough suitable balls to complete the game. The home team shall supply the umpire with one ball before the game and the umpire shall be the sole judge concerning the suitability of the ball.

20. All softballs used must be of the "Flat Seam" type and must have "Official Softball" stamped on them.

21. It shall be the responsibility of the home team to keep the score sheet and to see that the score sheet is placed in the hands of the umpire immediately after the game—completely filled out and signed.

22. The Twin Pines Dairy "Milk Can" trophy will go to the winner of the play-offs and the runner-up will get the "Milk Can Lid" trophy.

23. Umpires must be on time. If they are not on hand ready to work by game time, they must forfeit half of their fee for that game.

24. If there is an odd number of regular season games any team within one notch of 500% will be considered eligible for the play-offs.

25. Plymouth Recreation leagues are formed and operated on the basic principles of tolerance in judgment, wholesome fun, courtesy to others, good sportsmanship and other policies pertaining to all around good clean character development. Bickering, frequent protests, and "grumbling—hard to please participants" are being retarded in these programs throughout the National Recreation association.

Seven Teams Entered in Girl's Inter-City Loop

Seven teams have entered the Girl's Inter-City league which is to begin its season soon. The exact date of the first game of the season is not known but the approximate date is the first week of June.

Teams entered so far in this league include Plymouth Twin Pines, DeHoCo, Northville, Ypsilanti Sophisticats, Jackson Coal company of Ypsilanti, Novi Twin Pines and Champion Corrugated of Plymouth.

The girls' team this year are to be made up strictly of women with no men for coaches or managers, as has been the case in the past few years.

Character is that which reveals moral purpose, exposing the class of things a man chooses or avoids. —Aristotle

Over 28 women are now enjoying the recreational and social activity provided by the golf classes being conducted by the Plymouth Recreation commission. The classes are held on Wednesday mornings at 9 and 10 a.m.

Utilities Move Into First Place

Downing Maple Grove by the large score of 12-3, Plymouth Utilities baseball team tied with Wyandotte for first place in the Class A division of the Inter-County league Sunday afternoon, May 14, at the Riverside diamond.

Daisy tromped Warrendale 12-6 on the Daisy baseball field Sunday afternoon with Johnny Slessor the winning pitcher. This victory surged Daisy into first place with Grandale in the White division of the Inter-County league.

This Sunday Daisy journeys to Clarenceville, who has a record of one victory and one defeat. Utilities play Selgren on the Riverside diamond and First National plays Maple Grove at Flat Rock. The First National game will be played on the Flat Rock High school diamond. All of these contests will begin at 3 p.m.

Two Boys Teams Wanted in D and E Softball Leagues

Wanted: two boys' softball teams for the Plymouth Recreation league, one in Class E and one in Class D. At the present time three teams have entered the D league which includes the South Side Barbers, Training School and Northville. Three teams are almost definitely in the E league and there is a possibility of a fourth.

More than two teams are desired but at least one more team in each of these leagues must be entered before a league can be organized.

A sponsor is just waiting for a boys' softball team to enter so that they may sponsor it if so desired by the team. The first team to enter will hold the rights of sponsorship which will be the Elks club.

In a D league exhibition game the South Side Barber Helcats play the Training School on the WCTS diamond Sunday, May 21 at 2 p.m.

OUR SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY

and you probably would if it hadn't been for William Bartow. Along about 1825 when William Starkweather made the first clearing in the dense woods on the site of what now is Plymouth, he and other early settlers began casting about for a name for their settlement. In view of the fact that the closest two neighboring communities were called Nankin and Canton most of these men favored PEKIN as the name for Plymouth.

However Mr. Bartow, who incidentally became Plymouth's first supervisor, pointed out the fact that many of the first settlers had come from families that had located at or near Plymouth Rock and he felt it most appropriate that the name Plymouth be given the new settlement. On May 4th in 1827, just two years after Mr. Starkweather built the first home here, the name was officially adopted at a meeting when the township was organized. That meeting was held at the home of John Tibbits and it was here the first Plymouth township officers were elected. Mr. Bartow was supervisor, Allen Tibbits was named clerk, Roswell Root assessor and Henry Lyon and E. W. Starkweather overseers of the poor.

Actually the first land purchased here was in 1824 by a Quaker named Alanson Aldrich and he was followed by Starkweather, Tibbits, Houghtaling, Gates, Stuart, Slows, Baker and Lincoln. Growth of the new settlement was rapid and in 1838 the village was laid out by Henry B. Holbrook. Plymouth then could boast of a Presbyterian Church, five stores, a wild cat bank, a drug store and three taverns.

History records the fact that living was hazardous in the early days of the community. "Bear and wolves roamed plentifully in the dense forest surrounding the settlement and were more dangerous than the frequent visits paid to the settlers by scurvy Indians that filled the woods around Detroit, many of whom were fired by white man's whiskey." It was not uncommon, show the records, for a settler to lose his whole flock of sheep at the hands of bear and wolves during the early days of Plymouth. On the other hand, says the record, deer were so plentiful and tame that meat was plentiful on the tables of the settlers.

Soon after the first log cabins were erected in this area a trail was opened from Detroit to Ann Arbor and as many as eight four-horse stage coaches would pass through the settlement in a single day. Travel was difficult and a trip to Detroit by ox cart took a local resident the better part of a week.

The records record the building of the first saw mill at Plymouth Corners by Luther Lincoln who was followed a few years later by A. B. Markham who built the first hand power mill in the area. The first minister was Elder Hickox who was followed by Elder Marcus Swift, both holding services in the homes of the settlers. Apparently the first doctor to locate here was J. D. Davis and Giden P. Benlon was the first postmaster. Dail Penny was the first poney express agent and T. P. May opened the first general store which was located on the site of the Wilcox house which now stands facing the park on Penniman avenue.

This is an account of some of the things that laid the foundation for the city we know today;

"The occasion of 'raising' the house was the most trying emergency of the pioneer's first summer experience. The logs were heavy and they could not be put in place by his unaided efforts. His neighbors were few and far away. When everything was ready he sallied forth and summoned everybody within reach to assemble on a day appointed to assist in this work. The first settlers at Plymouth on such occasions responded promptly to return the service. These 'raising' bees were made the occasion for considerable social hilarity. The fare was rude but hospitably dispensed and usually a specimen of their best style of cooking. Games and sports closed the day.

The cabin was enclosed and then offered a shelter for the family and the next labor was to clear an opening in which to plant corn and vegetables for the household. The forests were dense—the trees of large growth and the physical labor of clearing them away great. The trees were slashed in windrows and fire did the further work of removal. The second season usually saw the barn erected, built of logs and covered with 'shakes'.

All supplies were hauled from Detroit and, as ox teams were used, the journey was tedious. The roads were axle deep in mud in the spring and fall and the round trip to Detroit, of 25 miles and back, occupied a whole week. Detroit was the only market and not a good one for there was no shipping demand. To haul wheat at fifty cents a bushel was not encouraging. Coin of the realm was scarce. But there was not much use for money. There was food to satisfy the appetite and clothing was home spun. The shoe maker came around once a year and made up boots and shoes to last until his next visit.

The village boasted two hotels — one called 'Union Hall' and kept by Peter Fralick. It was first class and was the stage headquarters.

The Black Hawk War created a great sensation. All able bodied men were called out leaving the women unprotected. The presence of Indians and animals made hazards. It was not unusual for the women to assemble at night with a kettle of scalding water to scald the first head that thrust itself in the house.

The settlers were New Englanders or of New England descent and a school was early established. It was a rude log cabin like the settler's dwellings. The seats were hewn slabs with pegs set at proper angles for legs and without backs. The desks were slabs supported on legs. The master was usually a young man who worked on a farm in the summer and was employed in the winter to teach."

President Roosevelt's Board said— NO!

President Truman's Board said— NO!

Still the leaders of the Railroad Firemen's Union say— "STRIKE!"

This ridiculous strike is an affront to every citizen of the nation. It's not for more money. It's not because of hours. It's only for soft feather-bedding spots for additional unnecessary firemen to go along in diesel locomotives just for the ride. A leading liberal newspaper calls the demands of the union leaders "horse-feathers"!

The reckless leaders of the firemen's union want to force down the throats of the railroads and the public a ridiculous "make-work" proposal which has been twice ruled out by Presidential Fact Finding Boards duly appointed under the provisions of the Railway Labor Act.

This demand of union leaders for additional and unnecessary firemen to ride in diesel locomotives was rejected —after months of hearings— by a Board appointed by President Roosevelt in 1943.

It was again rejected in 1949 by a Board appointed by President Truman.

Recent meetings with the National Mediation Board have brought no change in the attitude of the union dictators.

"feather-bedding" by leading the members of their union out on strike and threatening paralysis to large areas of the nation, they are defying the spirit and intent of the very law which they helped to create.

This strike is not for higher wages. It is a strike to force the railroads to employ many more thousands of firemen who are not needed! It would be indefensible waste. The railroads have refused to place this additional and unnecessary burden on the public.

But more important than any other consideration, is the action of these few irresponsible union leaders in seeking to force a crippling strike upon the nation for their own selfish purposes.

There is no other possible answer to such a demand but "No!"

The railroads in making such a reply believe they have the whole-hearted support of the people in whose interest they are willing to fight this out, despite the loss and inconvenience that all will suffer.

It is time to put an end to such un-American demands.

SUCCESSFUL PARENTHOOD

By Mrs. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

CLUTTER, NOT DIRT, is the real housekeeping bugaboo of most mothers. But how can a mother keep a neat house without having to be constantly yipping at the children, "Pick that up! Clean up this mess!"

One mother managed it by enlisting the help of the whole family. Together they made a study of the spots in the house where "junk" just naturally seemed to collect for all the world to see—and proceeded to eliminate them. The result has been a much more peaceful family life all around and, amazingly enough, the children have a spirit of tidiness their parents never dreamed they had.

Here's how this family went about reformation: The first step was to see that each of the three children had places of study, with good light, drawer and shelf space. This eliminated living and dining rooms becoming study-and-clutter areas.

The next step was to make the enclosed, heated sun porch off the dining room into the children's sitting room rather than a general family room. Here they have their own radio-phonograph (secondhand but adequate) and their stacks of hair-raising records. Here they have an outsized low table, strongly reinforced to allow sitting upon, painted black and waxed highly to a hard finish that doesn't show marks. There's a couch and easy chairs to give each child a comfortable reading place where he can sit on his feet, munch pop corn, peanuts and apples, and swig milk and soft drinks without a single "don't" from parents.

This leaves the living room

strictly for adults or whose family gatherings—a room in which general loafing, munching, roughhousing and "taking over" by the young are strictly forbidden. This Mother and Dad say it's wonderful!

The next attack in this new plan for family living was upon the "junk gatherers"—the table tops and shelves which presented temptations to the children to dump their belongings after school or play. The front entrance hall had a covered radiator which offered a splendid place for unloading school-books, caps, mittens and such miscellany. The "don't" was removed simply and easily by removing the temptation. The shelf now holds a large driftwood and philodendron plant arrangement. Now the entrance hall stays neat and uncluttered, for there just isn't any place to dump.

In short, by removing the availability of the living room as a dumping place and by handicapping convenient table tops and shelves in hall and dining room, it's practically impossible for the children to drop belongings any place but where they belong—in their own rooms, in the kitchen closet (now equipped with coat hangers) or in their sitting room.

Part of the whole scheme is the way the children have become more inspired toward neatness after seeing how pleasant their parents' orderly quarters can be. Imagine this mother's amazement when recently she came up on her two daughters industriously cleaning the windows in their sitting room "because we expect company and want it to look good."

Mrs. T. McMarr Jackson of Youngstown, Ohio spent last week with her daughter, Miss Jean Jackson.

Mrs. Harry Devo entertained her bridge club Tuesday at her home on Church street.

Hints For Plymouth Homemakers

Know The Various Cheese Types and Their Uses Before Buying

Knowing all about cheeses would be an impossible task for most homemakers—there are some 400 varieties used throughout the world. All of us, however, would find it helpful to be acquainted with the common cheese types. It would mean less time wasted at the cheese counter and more satisfaction at home.

There are several ways of classifying the different cheeses. "Mild," "mellow," "nippy," or "sharp," for example, refer mainly to age, which may range from one to 12 or more months. Probably the most common method of classification is on the basis of hardness or texture.

Other groupings can be made for flavor, use, or basic ingredient. Cottage cheese is made from skimmed milk. Swiss, Edam and Parmesan are examples of cheeses usually made from partly skimmed milk. Most are made from whole milk, however, while cream cheese has cream added.

Here are a few buying-guide pointers for some of the common cheeses:

Cheddar—a hard mild-flavored, all purpose cheese, especially well suited for most cheese dishes such as macaroni and cheese or souffles.

Edam or Gouda—hard, mild, well suited for use with fruits or pie.

Swiss—mild, sweet - flavored, goes well in sandwiches and cold cuts.

Parmesan or Gorgonzola—hard, may be sold in grated form, good for salads, soups, or as flavor for other dishes.

Roquefort—semi-hard but soft when ripe, pronounced flavor, slightly salty, makes good cracker or dessert or appetizer.

Brie or Camembert—soft, well-flavored, spread easily, and are especially suited as dessert spreads and appetizers.

Limburger—soft, very strong flavor and odor.

Cream or Neufchatel—soft unripened, mild flavored, nice for salads and spreads or with fruits.

Cottage—soft unripened, very mild, excellent for salads, with eggs, in sandwiches, and in baked dishes.

Process or loaf cheese, is made by grinding Cheddar or other cheese, adding a substance to produce smoothness, heating and molding. It keeps well, has uniform flavor and smooth texture, but is usually more expensive than the untreated cheese. Cheese foods or spreads may have had water, skim milk, or concentrated whey added, and are less concentrated than cheese.

For strict economy, the two types usually cheapest are American Cheddar and cottage cheese. They are also the most versatile in meal planning. Imported cheeses such as Parmesan, Gorgonzola, Edam and Gouda are more expensive but offer a good choice for desserts or appetizers where their distinctive flavors are desired.

Look in Your Back Yard For Vegetables

Wild greens make good vegetables, according to the Michigan Department of Health.

Some of the small shoots of wild greens just coming up in Michigan back yards and along Michigan roadways are excellent eating and have just as many vitamins and minerals as the leafy green vegetables bought in stores or grown in home gardens.

Some of the commonest weeds which both the Michigan gardener are considered excellent eating in other lands. Parsley (pulsy), for instance, when eaten raw or steamed is considered a great delicacy in some countries. Shoots of milkweed can be used like asparagus and their flavor compares favorably with that vegetable.

The average family picks dandelion greens to cook or use in salad and takes water cress from country streams for use in salads or sandwiches but few housewives know other edible wild greens.

Young leaves of marsh marigold, chicory, winterress, pigweed, mustard and sorrel are edible. Like all green leafy vegetables, wild greens belong to the group of "protective" foods, chiefly because they are so high in iron and vitamin B. They also contain considerable amounts of other minerals and vitamins such as Vitamin B1, C and G and calcium, and they afford bulk or roughage.

In selecting wild greens, take only the small tender leaves and shoots. Wash them several times in pans of warm water. Pick them off the top of the water each time so that the sand grit goes to the bottom. Do not allow them to stand in water. Cook them in just the water that clings to the leaves. Salt them when you put them over the fire. Turn with two forks during the first few seconds of cooking so the water goes to the bottom. Cook only five to eight minutes. Greens get bitter and mustard-colored if they are cooked too long. Use cooking water in gravies, soups or stews. These rules save food values and make the greens more attractive and palatable.

For seasoning, use salt, pepper and butter, or bits of crisp fried salt pork. Variety can be had by adding sliced hard boiled eggs, or slices of crisp bacon, or finely chopped pepper or onion. Use only greens you can identify. Some wild greens are poisonous.

The Michigan Department of Health has printed a pamphlet "Wild Greens are Good for You," which helps to identify the edible wild greens and tells how to prepare them. A copy may be obtained free of charge from your local health department or from the Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4, Michigan.

Shoe Styles Should Go With Wardrobe

"Coordinates" is the name of women's fashions for summer cotton dresses, and blouses that go with several skirts, skirts that go with several pairs of shoes, costumes that go with short coats and topcoats—it's the "go with" that is the secret of making a small clothes collection look like an extensive wardrobe. The secret is in always having the right shoe for each costume. It involves careful planning but it's well worth the trouble.

There are three classifications: street shoes, dress-up shoes and casuals or playshoes. The style-wise woman needs all three but not in all colors. She needs street shoes for suits, fourteen-eighties heels and lower, tailored types with good sturdy walking heels, closed pumps, step-ins or strap shoes of polished leather or reptiles. For more formal wear, there is the shantung shoe, in sandals, slings or closed pumps, with higher, shaped heels.

While patent leather is more important in the spring, some sections of the country show it year round, and particularly now that patent leather belts are featured on suits and dresses. It is used as a trim on suede or leather, and as an after-five shoe in black or the new bronze or gunmetal. For her cottons, informals and playclothes, she will wear casuals and playshoes in platform and wedgies, flats and softies and the loafer and saddle shoes, often in bright color combinations.

Beans a Natural for Thrifty Dish

Boston made the bean famous, but Michigan grows the beans. Let's take a tip from the frugal New Englanders and make the most of the more-than-abundant supply of dry beans.

In fact, so many beans were produced last year that a National Bean Week is now being observed to call attention to the merits of this food in our diets.

Here are a few tips about dry beans that homemakers should find helpful in weeks ahead:

You'll find the pork and bean combination practically unbeatable. It's one of those "natural" food combinations alert homemakers seek, to please the family and make food budget money go farther.

Make each of your low-cost bean dishes a taste treat by generous use of seasonings which blend well with beans. Try tomatoes, onions, molasses, brown sugar, ketchup or spices and meat flavors in the combinations.

To further insure satisfaction at the table, observe these basic bean-cooking rules. Wash in cold water, allow plenty of time for soaking, and soak in soft water if you can. Hard water toughens the skin. Keep heat low when cooking beans, watch the pot carefully—dry beans soak up a lot of water.

As far as dried bean quality is concerned, you have little to worry about. You are likely to be buying a Michigan product, and all beans packed in the state are carefully graded by processors. Michigan grows more than one-fourth of the nation's beans, and more than nine-tenths of the popular navy or pea bean varieties.

Quartet Of Styles For A Twinkle-Toed Summer

Here are eight steps to a stylish "understanding" that will keep you well-shod around the clock all spring and summer long. Pictured, left to right, are high-strapped, patent sandals designed by Dior; white suede fitted pumps; red leather beach sandals that are easy on the feet and eyes, and a pair of shantung pumps that can be had in several colors. All are designed for cool and comfortable walking pleasure.

Cut Corners on Housework For Leisure Time

Minutes saved add up to hours saved and those hours saved quickly add up to more leisure time for homemakers. And even those jobs that you think you have simplified down to the least possible effort and time may be cut even more.

For example, you may have used the electrolytic method of cleaning silver and thought it time-saving, but have you heard the latest? Putting soft water in a shiny aluminum pan with one teaspoon of salt and one of soda for each quart brightens countless pieces of non-soldered silver with one minute of boiling. It's a quick and easy method but one must scour the pan to make it bright again. If you substitute a porcelain enamel pan with a piece of aluminum foil that can touch each piece of silver, you'll have bright silver and no pan to scour.

Even coring lettuce can be simplified. A stout rap of the core on a hard surface will break it free so that it can be lifted from the head. Loosening the leaves with tepid water makes the job a simple one.

Dishwashing is regarded by most homemakers as a dull chore, and any suggestions to make it less time and energy consuming are welcome. With suitable equipment and work space, and by working with both hands, you can save time and energy. Some of the equipment you may need are a rubber scraper, dish drainer, and washing and rinsing pans. Is this equipment located conveniently in relation to the sink area? One change in equipment location may save you many steps a day. One homemaker moved the soap flakes and saved work must progress from left to right, it is possible to learn to develop a smooth left to right process. You can learn to hold the dish with the right hand and wash with the left. This avoids the longer reach necessary if you washed with the right and transferred the dish into the drainer with the left hand.

Why the lowest-built car is best for you

Through the development of the RECESSED FLOOR, Hudson engineers have brought to you the priceless advantages of lowness which the industry has been striving for since the beginning of the automobile!

ROAD CLEARANCE

IN HUDSON, the recessed floor ("step-down" design) brings space between frame members, which is wasted in other cars, into the passenger compartment. This results in America's LOWEST center of gravity (and full road clearance), while providing more head room and seating room than any other car.

ROAD CLEARANCE

IN OTHER CARS, the floor is on top of the frame, so the vital space between frame members is not available for passenger use. The result is a HIGHER center of gravity and either a high roof line or insufficient head room. Seats are narrower; passenger space is reduced.

HUDSON

Hudsons, with recessed floors, their great array of high-quality, long-life features, and advanced design, are leaders in resale value, as shown by Official Used Car Guide Books!

Roadside Parks Along Michigan Highways Ready For Travelers

With the approach of another tourist season close at hand, many requests are being received by the State Highway department from both Michigan and out-of-state tourists for information concerning facilities at the roadside parks maintained by the department throughout the state. Because many of these requests are from people who desire camping and other recreational facilities, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler advises tourists that these roadside parks should not be confused with the State Parks operated by the Department of Conservation.

Location of the State Parks which provide for such facilities are indicated on the official State Highway department map while roadside park sites are not listed. "A great number of people," the Commissioner said, "are of the opinion that camping, bathing, boating and other such recreational facilities are obtainable at these roadside parks. We do not provide such accommodations; in fact, these roadside park areas have been developed principally for the immediate public. Because they are comparatively small developments, usually two acres or less in size, they are intended for stops of short duration, affording an opportunity for motorists who become weary to draw off the highway and rest, returning to the highway in a more alert condition for driving."

Commissioner Ziegler pointed out that the roadside park areas, located at scenic spots along the heavily traveled state trunklines, are an integral part of the highway system, developed to provide safety and service to motorists enroute to the more distant recreational areas and are not intended as camping sites for vacationers.

In addition to the off-highway parking provisions at these roadside parks, pure, fresh drinking water, toilets, picnic tables and stoves are available, but no bath house facilities or playground equipment are provided and overnight parking of cars and trailers is prohibited. Although some of the roadside park areas are located near streams and lakes, swimming is also prohibited because it creates a responsibility the department is not prepared to assume.

Tourists and sportsmen should not, Commissioner Ziegler said, confuse these roadside parks with the public access areas to lakes and streams provided by the Conservation department. The use of these roadside areas by fishermen who park their cars and trailers for an extended length of time and launch their boats and other water craft in the adjoining lakes and streams impair the efficient operation of the parks for the general traveling public. Location of available fishing sites are indicated by Conservation department signs along the state trunklines.

The department maintains 63 of these roadside parks as well as 2,400 rustic-type roadside tables located along the state trunklines.

Your Police Department Speaks

Written by members of Plymouth's Police department

Plymouth has joined with the State Safety Commission in conducting an all-out drive against unsafe vehicles during the month of May.

The motoring public is being thoroughly informed of the dangers of unsafe brakes and other equipment through an intensive public educational program in newspapers, over the radio, in motion picture theaters and by safety posters, leaflets and stickers.

Last year's increase of 9% in the number of vehicles and 6% in the traffic volume in Michigan make it even more important than ever for every driver to have a safe car which will help him to see better, stop quicker and keep his car under control.

Pointing out that last year, in a similar safety program, the law enforcement agencies of Michigan checked the brakes on over 130,000 cars and found a high proportion in unsafe condition. All motorists are urgently requested to cooperate on this important safety program by having their cars checked at their regular service station. The department will check the brakes of all cars stopped for traffic violations.

Dynamite blasting cap accidents to children increase every year during the summer vacation period, it was pointed out in a nation-wide warning issued today by the International Association of Chiefs of Police and the Institute of Makers of Explosives. The Institute, in cooperation with local police, county sheriffs, Boy Scouts, Junior Deputy Sheriffs' Leagues, Girl Scouts, other youth and adult groups, and newspapers and radio stations, is stepping up its long national campaign to warn children not to play with or even touch blasting caps.

Children or adults finding a blasting cap are warned to leave it alone and report it immediately to the police department or the sheriff's office.

Blasting caps are small round copper or aluminum cylinders or tubes about one-quarter of an inch or two in length. Some may or may not have a fuse attached, while others may have plain or colored covered wires leading from one end. The tube or cylinder is loaded with a powerful, sensitive explosive used to explode dynamite.

make dynamite useful in important work, such as mining, highway and railroad construction, and clearing farm land or tree stumps and rocks, and other jobs.

Often blasting caps are lost, stolen or left lying around in unlocked tool boxes, barns, or alongside of highways and railroad tracks. Children who pick them up are in great danger so long as they are near them.

Workmen are cautioned to keep all explosives under strong lock and key. The child they save may be their own.

College Art Show to Begin May 21

A public showing of the second annual art exhibit at Madonna college will be held from May 21 to 28 inclusive. The main floor exhibit hall will be open daily from 3 to 5 p.m., and each evening from 7 to 9 p.m.

A classic, yet "1950" attitude is reflected in painting and drawing as well as in weaving and ceramics. This coming exhibit, to which everyone is invited, is aimed at interesting the art-minded public, and at showing creative work that has aesthetic as well as commercial value.

Of particular note, and on display, will be a set of dishes, designed and executed by Marjorie Haskel of Detroit, a pair of bookends, a mermaid and sea horse by Hilma Aubert of Livonia, an interesting hand woven afghan by Elsie Daniels, also of Livonia, paintings both water and oil by Joan Kaminski, Ruth D'Annunzio, Phyllis Cunningham, Elsie Travis, Sally Kocel and others. The college is located at 36200 Schoolcraft road.

Student Job Seekers Should Obtain Social Security Cards

Students planning on summer jobs should have their social security cards before applying for work, according to Harry D. Turk, manager of the Detroit-Northwest field office located at 12365 Wyoming avenue, corner Grand River.

"Many employers will not accept your application for work unless you have your social security card with you," Baltuck said. "If you have never had a card, you should get one before you start job-hunting. If you have had a card and lost it, you can get a free duplicate of your original number at our office. We issue both original and duplicate cards."

"Be sure to apply for your duplicate card immediately if you need one," Baltuck urged. "A certain length of time may be needed to replace your original card, if you do not have the stub from the original."

The Northwest office is open daily from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., but is not open on Saturdays.

Applications for social security cards and duplicate cards can be had at the Plymouth post office. A representative from the Northwest-Detroit Social Security office will be in the Plymouth post office the second Thursday of each month to assist you in getting a duplicate card as well as in all other social security matters.

Anniversary Stamp Goes on Sale June 13

VFW News

The program presented by the Post in commemoration of V-E day Monday, May 8 at the high school gym was a very fine one. A movie was the main feature of the evening. The invocation and the closing prayer was led by Captain Roberts of the Salvation Army. Several musical numbers were sung by the Redford Four barber shop quartet of which Roy Creites of Plymouth is a member.

With the funds recently earned by the sale of Purity Brand Products, the Auxiliary is purchasing a television set to be presented to Maybury sanitarium. Lee Schiller, hospital chairman, is in charge and will announce later the exact date of the presentation.

All veterans of Plymouth and vicinity are urged to participate in the Memorial Day parade, in uniform. Let's make this the biggest turn-out we have ever had. There will be further announcements about the meeting place and the time. Watch for them in this column.

Don't forget the rummage sale this Friday and Saturday, May 19 and 20, at the Veterans' Center. Instead of the hours announced last week, doors will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. both days. There will be plenty of good bargains, so plan to drop in early.

Auxiliary members would like to remind everyone again about the dance at the Hotel Mayflower on May 27, from 9:30 to 1. Come and bring your friends.

GOSLINGS TO WEED RASPBERRY PATCH
Maybe she doesn't believe everything she reads but at least Mrs. Ray Dunham who resides at 33124 East Ann Arbor trail is willing to find out if some of the things are true. Raising raspberries will be an easy chore this year if the Farm Journal item on how to keep the patch clean proves correct, she says.

That's the reason she has a want ad in The Mail classified columns this week—"Wanted, two goslings." According to the Journal two goslings will keep all of the weeds out of the farmer's berry patch and that's what Mrs. Dunham is hoping will turn out to be true.

Tea will be served in each room. Pat Krump is chairman for Miss Ingeborg Lundin's class; Bonnie Bohl, for Mrs. Christina Soule's; and Sally Hockenberry, for Mrs. Barbara Parkes.

Disclose Statistics on School Maintenance

An interview with the chief maintenance man of Plymouth High school, Leo Kowalcik, disclosed some interesting facts about the school.

Three janitors are employed full time and one half time in the high school building. One janitor takes care of the boilers and is responsible for heating the grade school and the high school.

About 60,000 square feet of floor are swept every day. In the whole school system 300 gallons of liquid soap are used during the school year, which equals about 3,500 gallons when diluted.

One hundred and ten gallons of penetrating floor seal are used each year in the two grade schools and the high school. Five hundred bars of soap are used in 180 days in the whole system. In 180 days 750,000 hand towels are used and 4,000 a day are used in the high school alone.

The students were urged to acquire pride in the school and to help keep the building clean.

Canfield Attends Guidance Meeting

As chairman of the Planning committee for the fall meeting of the Michigan Counselors' association, Mr. Canfield held the first meeting of the Institute of Testing, Counseling and Guidance at Michigan State college, April 26.

Those attending this meeting were Rosebelle Snorr, Lansing; W. A. Christopherson, Howell; C. E. Erickson, director of the Institute of Testing, Counseling and Guidance; and Ray Hatch, executive secretary of Michigan Counselors' association.

Roger Babson Says...

Babson Discusses America's "Magic Circle"

Eureka, Kansas. (Before describing the resources and opportunities of this section, I must pay my respects to the Pacific Coast. In some ways it and other sections exceed in attractions the "Magic Circle." I especially have in mind climate. With this apology, readers outside the following six states will forgive me for telling this story.)

Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Northern Texas make up the "Magic Circle" area of 400 miles diameter, located at the heart of the United States. The center of the "Magic Circle" is at Eureka, Kansas. Its annual income has increased in ten years from six to sixteen billion dollars, or an increase of about one thousand dollars a year for each man, woman and child.

Agricultural Wealth

This "Magic Circle" is said to be the richest 400-mile radius for agriculture on earth. To the west is the greatest winter wheat area; to the north is the greatest corn belt; to the east is one of the last great stands of hardwood forest; to the south is the greatest cotton belt; and the center is one of the greatest beef cattle raising areas. This "Magic Circle" is rapidly becoming one of the richest vegetable fruit, egg, dairy, poultry, alfalfa, soybean and dairy products areas. It is an inexhaustible source of hay, straw and vegetable cellulose for the manufacture of wallboard, roofing, insulating material, paper, cardboard, films, plastics, thickeners, coatings, rayons and the many other magic synthetics of modern science. Almost 30% of recent prices of the agricultural production of America comes from the "Magic Circle." It is truly the greatest of the seven great breadbaskets of the earth,—three in Asia, the two in Europe and the two in North and South America.

Mineral Wealth

America's "Magic Circle" is the richest 400-mile radius in minerals. Under its western plains lie the greatest gypsum, salt deposits and gas fields, with a reasonable amount of oil production; to the north are the greatest bauxite and aluminum deposits; to the east the greatest lead and zinc mines; while to the south are the greatest sources of sulphur, coal and petroleum. There are vast deposits of cement and other building materials, such as glass sands, bentonite, dolomite, barites, tripoli, granites, sandstones, limestones and ceramic clays. Nearby are great reserves of volcanic ash, potash, nitrates and other fertilizers.

Human Resources and Markets

The "Magic Circle" is also rich in human resources. Fifteen million people live in the "Magic Circle," five million living on farms, and almost one million engaged as skilled or semi-skilled workers. Twenty-three percent of all public schools in America are located in the "Magic Circle," from which 12 percent have attended college. Selective Service records show these Prairie States were the healthiest of all the U.S. Even the commanding generals of the last four great wars of American history came from the "Magic Circle."—General Grant, General Funston, General Pershing and General Eisenhower! People there think more about God and try harder to live by the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount. The little white churches work with the little red school houses developing a Utopia of government. Surrounding the "Magic Circle" are among the greatest markets of the earth. Within 500 miles of its circumference are 55 million of rich and intelligent customers. The world's best transportation system, consisting of 2,000,000 miles of highway, 165,000 miles of railroads and unlimited airlines spread from the "Magic Circle" to serve these markets.

Sad Populations Trends

Yet in the period from 1930 to 1940 more than a million and a half people moved away from these six great states! Only the birth rate saved them from a net loss during that ten year period. Its greatest loss was among its young couple—many of them college men and women,—the topsoil of energy, imagination, ability and enthusiasm. The explanation is that most of the "Magic Circle" income is from agriculture and only very little from industry and business,—whereas, for the United States as a whole, just the opposite is true. Here, the richest agricultural, mineral and human area of the earth is losing population because it lacks the industry to convert its raw materials into finished products.

The "Magic Circle" "gives away" its wheat to Battle Creek at $75 a ton and then buys it back, as corn flakes or shredded wheat, at $500 a ton. It "gives away" hay and wheat straw at $15 a ton and then buys back paper and cellulose pulp products at $100 a ton. It "gives away" alfalfa at $15 a ton and buys it back from Detroit as vitamin pills at $1000 a ton. It "gives away" cowhides at $5 to $10 a hide and buys back shoes and fancy leather goods at $100 a hide. It "gives away" its petroleum at $2 a barrel and buys back flavoring extracts, synthetics and perfumes made, from this oil, at $1200 a barrel; it "gives away" its salt at $3 a ton and buys back industrial chemicals and medical preparations, made with this same salt, at $2000 a ton. The "Magic Circle" destroys billions of cubic feet of gas for carbon black at 5 cents a pound and buys back shoe polish at $1 a pound! The "Magic Circle" ships a dollar's worth of volcanic ash to Chicago where a little soap is added and then it is shipped back to the "Magic Circle" in fancy colored boxes as kitchen cleansers at 100 times the price. The same comparisons likewise apply to what happens to all other agricultural and mineral products.

Present Opportunities

The immediate opportunities which I see here are in developing processed food products, coke and by-products, paving and roofing materials, furniture, paper, stone, clay and glass products; textile manufacturers, wearing apparel, electrical equipment, farm implements, stationary gasoline engines, chemicals, drugs, rubber goods, leather products, and many additional goods. To manufacture existing raw materials into these deficit products would require 10,000 additional plants, producing an average output of $300,000 a year each, supporting 2,000,000 more people and providing investment for approximately $5,000,000,000 of new capital in the form of increased bank deposits, insurance funds and safe securities. But to put this over 100,000 more salesmen of character, intelligence and energy are necessary. These are the immediate need.

(This trip has again convinced me that Horace Greeley's famous advice: "Go West Young Man" continues to be good. Readers desiring to ask any special question should write Byron Dunn, President of the National Bank of Commerce, Lincoln, Nebraska, who is also president of the Magic Circle Educational Foundation,—a non-profit institution.)

Six Plymouthites Graduate at MSC

Plymouth graduates include Ralph R. Bachelder, George N. Bennett, Kenneth A. Brinks, Robert C. Deyo, Philip L. Kisabeth and Dale E. Wisley.

County Farmers to Study Modern Grass Uses at Bakhaus Farm June 14

The use of legumes and grasses in farming will be demonstrated and the latest information on hay and grass management will be given out at the 1950 Grass Day programs.

In this area the program is scheduled for June 14 on the William Bakhaus farm, located two miles south of Plymouth on the corner of Sheldon and Warren roads. The event is being arranged by the Michigan State college extension service and local planning committees, according to P. R. Biebesheimer, county agricultural agent.

Michigan State college extension specialists in cooperation with Mr. Bakhaus prepared demonstration plots of various seedings there last fall for inspection this June by Grass Day visitors. The plots will reveal fertilizer results and erosion control, and will also be used in harvesting demonstrations.

Grass Days, which were well received by farmers throughout the state the past two years, are conducted to bring farmers up-to-date on the establishment, management, harvesting and utilization of higher yielding forage of better quality, according to Biebesheimer, county agent of Wayne county, who is general chairman.

With the emphasis of high crop production, grassland farming has been neglected, authorities point out. They contend that well balanced rotation, including both soil-building crops and grain and row crops, will provide the most satisfactory results through a period of years.

Weed control, gully control, and efficient use of forage, will be other highlights of the Grass Day. New harvesting machinery and other farm equipment will be brought in for visitors' inspection.

On hand will be MSC extension specialists to explain the various demonstrations and to discuss individual management problems with Wayne county farmers.

THE STARS

By LYNN CONNELLY

WILLIAM BENDIX has been the target for so many thrown missiles in his latest picture that he wonders how they failed to hurt the kitchen sink at him... Recently, in his role as an umpire for Columbia's "Kill the Umpire," he had a blizzard of seat cushions hurled at him by 445 extras playing baseball spectators... The next day, 150 extras bombarded him with over-ripe fruit and an assortment of vegetables... When the scene was over, Bendix with a good portion of the missiles clinging to him, turned to Director Lloyd Bacon and snapped: "I think I was miscast in this baseball picture... I should have been a catcher."

Bill was in town recently and moaned to the press that he would be ostracized in Brooklyn when that popular burg sees him as an umpire... He, who was a baseball bat boy in New York in his teens and who later portrayed the great Babe Ruth... "They'll think I'm a traitor," he said woefully... Bill takes his baseball seriously, also his new grandchild, of whom he is extremely proud—even though he had hoped for a boy in the family... He also enjoys his "Riley" role in radio and hopes to be doing it on TV this coming fall... Big, lovable Bill has just signed a new movie contract and is riding the waves of success these days.

PLATTER CHATTER

MERCURY—Richard Hayes follows up his current successes with a nice rendition of "Truly" with "Thunder in My Heart" on the flip... If you happen to be a Dixieland devotee, you'll want to latch on to Bobby Sherwood's "Dixieland Ball" and "Mumkari Rumble"... Eddie Howard comes up with a beautiful arrangement of "The Girl That I Marry" with "Brother Bill" on the reverse.

CAPITOL—Next to Godfrey's recording of "Candy and Cake" the best rendition we've heard of it so far is Ray Anthony's... "Where in the World" is on the reverse.
