The PLYMOUTH MAIL

THE REASON WHY.

The real reason why a dollar will not do anywhere near as much today as it would before the days of the New Deal, Fair Deal and Phony Deal is because people have been educated by these "deals" not to do much for a dollar.

A TREMENDOUS GROWTH.

With a new Lutheran parochial school and a new Catholic school erected in our city during the past two or three years to relieve somewhat the burden of our public schools, school attendance figures just released by Superintendent Helmer Nelson show a total public school attendance this year of 2,423, an increase of more than 200 over last year. That indicates an exceedingly rapid growth in this city and vicinity. It reflects, too, the good judgment used by the voters two years ago in providing funds for a much needed school expansion program. One of the new buildings is about completed, the other two will be ready during the winter—just in the nick of time, we would say.

WHY WE VOTED THAT WAY.

A good citizen asked us the other day how it happened that some two years ago we decided to vote to replace the Republican county chairman who was serving at that time. The question is easily answered, although it seems a bit like ancient history.

When he was first a candidate, some four years ago, we voted for him. A year or so later we discovered that much of his legal practice was before the state liquor commission and other state agencies.

As a lawyer he rated the same as any other lawyer appearing before a state board, but as a Democratic or Republican chairman in a county as big as Wayne, the LAWYER as a REPUBLICAN or DEMOCRATIC county chairman is something entirely different. Such a practice is all within the law, but it just didn't come up to our ideas of what a county chairman should or should not do.

Therefore when the time came, we voted for "Jim" Lyons, who as a Republican county chairman had NEVER used his position to benefit his own business.

Mr. Lyons, who is no longer serving as county chairman, during the time he filled that position did so with credit to himself and the party. We hope that sometime the opportunity will come when such a tireless worker as he proved to be will be rewarded in some way for his services in behalf of Wayne county and the Republican party.

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING.

The Grand Rapids Herald hit the nail on the head a few days ago when it discussed the flip-flop of Truman's Fair Deal policy.

Said The Herald:
A Democratic Administration suddenly deprived of its Fair Deal "giveaway" program of "something for nothing"—nothing, that is, except votes—is up against a rugged campaign this Fall.

The Fair Deal has been shelved for the duration. So-called "social gains," financed by borrowed money that some day must be paid back, had to be put aside when the Administration reversed itself on Far Eastern policy and suddenly put the country into a war which, while justified, it was unprepared to fight.

The cry of "me too!" is heard again in the land, not as a derogatory label aimed by Democrats at Republicans but coming from the alarmed Democrats themselves.

An Administration which has coddled Communists now tries to hurl the Communist-coddling label at Republicans who, all along, have taken the lead in exposing them and fighting them.

Witness the speech recently by W. Averell Harriman, Special Assistant to the President, in which he said that had Sen. Taft's lead been followed "Communist objectives would thereby have been furthered."

In the same speech, Mr. Harriman by implication took credit for the Administration for the Marshall Plan and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Yet the Marshall Plan, Greek and Turkish aid, and the Vandenberg Resolution which led later to the adoption of the North Atlantic Treaty were enacted by the Administration-maligned Republican 80th Congress.

The Administration begins to sound like a "me too" Party. Time after time, it has followed the Republican lead in recent days.

Sen. Lodge publicly urged that the Armed Forces be increased to 3,000,000 or more. The President then urged the same thing. Sen. Lodge publicly urged that our strength in Europe be stepped up. The President a little later said that it would be.

Sometimes the "me too" has come late, as in the Orient, where our foreign policy was strictly one Party rather than bipartisan or unpartisan, a policy of "waiting for the dust to settle."

The Administration's glaring mistakes now need covering up. An attempt is made by trying to smear individual Republicans as Mr. Harriman sought to do in his attack on Sen. Taft for voting against some of the measures that were, nevertheless, passed with strong Republican support. And that was at a time when the Administration itself failed to recognize the Communist march toward world domination.

Throughout its lifetime, the Administration's vote-getting appeal has been to the voters' "what's-in-it-for-me?" attitude.

Now, when its policies have brought it to the brink of disaster and it must reverse its course, it finds it must borrow unstintingly from programs and policies long advocated by the minority Party, "pay-as-we-go," the bipartisan policy, a firm stand in the Orient, and all the rest.

The charge of "me tooism" has come home to roost.

Set Regulations Governing All City Personnel

Annual and sick leave, insurance and work schedules of city employees will now be governed by a new set of administrative regulations worked out during the past few weeks by City Manager Albert Glassford, assisted by Commissioner Eleanor Hammond, Henry Fisher and Floyd Tibbitts.

Under the new regulations the city manager shall be responsible for the interpretation and administration of the rules and these matters will no longer have to be brought before the city commission.

The regulations govern annual leave, emergency leave, leave without pay, absence without leave, military leave of absence, leave on account of injuries, compensation insurance, leave records, work schedules and holidays.

For employees working a 40 hour week, annual leave amounts to 10 work days; for a 44 hour week 11 work days, and for a 43

Mayflower Hotel Manager Named to State Office

Ralph G. Lorenz, manager of the Hotel Mayflower, was honored by Michigan hotel men at their annual meeting in Petoskey last weekend when they named him secretary of the state association. Mr. Lorenz has been active in the hotel group for many years having served on its executive council for the last seven years.

Noel K. Black of the Morton hotel in Grand Rapids was named president of the association. J. E. Frawley of the Fort Shelby hotel in Detroit was named second vice president and R. C. Hodges of Battle Creek was named first vice president.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz returned to Plymouth late Sunday afternoon after spending the weekend in Petoskey at the convention. Mr. Lorenz stated that in addition to truly enjoying the meetings of the group the colorful fall scenery in northern Michigan made the trip most worthwhile.

Collins Marks 19th Anniversary

Collins Automotive Supply company will celebrate 19 years in business in Plymouth this weekend. The company opened on South Main and Ann Arbor road in 1931 and in 1937 moved to its present location at 1094 South Main street.

Alvin Collins, owner of the garage and auto parts business, has been president for the past four years of the Automobile Maintenance association for Washtenaw and parts of Wayne county. He is also treasurer of the state organization.

Services Held For Mrs. Glenn Smith

Funeral services were held on Monday for Mrs. Luree Weeks Smith who passed away September 30 at St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor, at the age of 55.

She was the wife of Glenn Smith who for many years operated Smith's restaurant on South Main street. A lifetime resident of Plymouth, Mrs. Smith was born here October 15, 1894. On her sixteenth birthday she and Mr. Smith were married. The couple would have rounded out 40 years of married life on the 15th of this month.

The Rev. Melbourne I. Johnson of the First Methodist church officiated at the services, held at 3 p.m. at the Schrader Funeral home. Active pallbearers were LeRoy Jewell, Allan Giles, Lee Sackett, Claude Eckles, Irving Blunk and Charles Minchert. Interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. Smith had been ill for some time, and underwent surgery about four years ago for cancer. Its recurrence was the cause of her death. She was the sole survivor of her family.

She is survived by her husband, Glenn, who resides at 867 Forest avenue; a daughter, Mrs. Vivien Merillat, and a son, Clifford, both of Plymouth; and four grandchildren, Luree and Glenna Merillat and Lary and Janelle Smith. Another daughter, Betty Jean, died in 1924 when only three days old.

Kiwanis Gets Ready for 25th Anniversary Celebration

"Those were great days," says Robert Jolliffe, oldest living active Kiwanis president, as he reminisces with Dr. Luther Peck who served as the 4th president of the club. Mr. Jolliffe front right, was the 3rd president of the club. Standing in the background are two newer Kiwanians and members of the anniversary program committee who not only enjoyed hearing of some of the club's early history from these Kiwanis "old timers," but were glad of their assistance in outlining the program for October 10th. Standing on the left is Dr. Frederick B. Foust and Harry Roberts on the right. The 6th Kiwanis president was E. J. Allison, who was out of town when this meeting was held. First and second presidents of the club were Lawrence Johnson and Dr. Freeman Hover both deceased. The fifth president was Rev. F. B. Lendrum recently retired and now making his home here in the city.

Civil Defense Council Seeks More Volunteers

Civil defense organization for the city hit a stumbling block during its first week when less than a half dozen volunteers offered their services. Russell M. Daane, director of the Civil Defense Council, states that he and the council members were quite disappointed at the lack of response to the appeal.

He added that the response might increase as people become more aware of the need for volunteers. A coupon on page 1 may be filled out and sent to city hall by those wishing to offer their services. Some of the jobs that will be assigned to volunteers include: emergency police, fire and wardens, housing and food, nursing and first aid, road repair service, demolition and clearance, transportation and registration.

As soon as enough local people have signed up for this work, each unit will organize with a council chairman assisting. Much of the work, such as the housing survey, must be started very soon and the council is especially anxious for those interested in this work to sign up as soon as possible.

Jimmy's Pony Will Recover

Little Jimmy Archer's valiant pony has pulled through the crisis and, barring a relapse, he will recover from lockjaw. The pony, which Jimmy won in the 4th of July celebration here, was stricken with lockjaw a week ago Friday and for several days he was not expected to live.

Veterinarians now claim that the pony responded to the shots and has improved considerably in the past few days. Jimmy, whose spirits have also improved, is now making plans for late fall rides for him and his pet.

Chamber of Commerce Names Halloween Committee Chairmen

The Chamber of Commerce promises a bigger and better Halloween celebration this year than ever before. Herbert Woolf, director of the Plymouth Recreation commission, has been chosen general chairman for activities, assisted by representatives of local service clubs.

Plymouth's Halloween events have been so outstanding in past years that 15 communities have written to the Chamber of Commerce for suggestions and ideas in planning their own programs.

Children will again be in the spotlight this year, with prizes being awarded for the most original, most attractive and most weird costume. They will also be responsible for displays in the windows of local merchants and will vie for first, second and third place honors in three divisions—the most gruesome, most comic and the best Halloween atmosphere.

The work of each service club and the chairman areas follows: Kiwanis, distribution of apples; Bill Thomas, Rotary, distribution of popcorn; Dave Galin; Lions, cider and doughnuts; District, Russ Cutler; Optimists, orchestra, public address system; Bill Saxton and Jim Hopkins; Junior Chamber of Commerce, publicity and pictures; John Gaffield; Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary, awards and ribbons; Mrs. Marvin Partridge.

Judges selected for the window display contest are Robert O. Wesley, Mrs. Gerald H. Nordorp and Mrs. Marjorie Becker. Costume parade judges are Ed Campbell, Miss Ingeborg Landin, Mrs. Joseph Witwer and Mrs. Henry Walsh.

Donald Ray and Cyrus Pierce will supervise the skits, parades and treats for the school children. Fire Chief Robert McAllister will be in charge of uniformed policemen and firemen who will police the area during activities.

Mr. Stewart asks that all employees of local industry indicate on the Community Fund pledge cards that will be distributed whether they would like their contribution credited to Plymouth.

A coupon for those who are willing to assist in the drive is on page eight. It should be filled out immediately and mailed to Loren Goodale and workers will later be notified as to their particular job in the drive.

The goal for this year is $12,000 and fund chairmen are confident that this amount will be exceeded if Plymouthites give as generously this year as before.

Benefiting from the funds collected here are a number of local agencies including the Boy and Girl Scouts, Recreation commission, Visiting Nurse association, Well-Baby Clinic, Veterans' Memorial Foundation, the Salvation Army and the 18 agency services of the United Foundation.

Mike Kleinschmidt Called Back Into Navy

Mike Kleinschmidt, owner of Mike's Shoe service, on Main street will leave October 30 for the Navy. Mike, who has been in the active naval reserve since his discharge after World War II, will assume the duties of quartermaster.

He is considering selling his shoe service but has made no definite decision on the matter.

Football Game to Raise Money For Scholarship Fund

Members of the Plymouth Rotary club are busy selling tickets for the Plymouth-Bentley High school football game on Friday, October 27. Through a special arrangement with school officials Rotarians will push the sale of tickets for this event to swell their scholarship fund which this year is helping five local students through colleges scattered throughout the country.

Tickets will be sold by Rotarians at the regular 75 cent price for admission and the club will be allowed to keep 30 cents on each sale they make. The entire proceeds they realize from this sale will go into the Rotary scholarship fund and will be used exclusively for student loans. Students are now attending the University of Michigan, the University of Virginia, Central State Teachers college at Mt. Pleasant and Michigan College of Mines as a result of aid from the Rotary fund.

School officials feel that the added ticket sale to people that

Accept Members For Symphony Concert Season

With the first Plymouth Symphony orchestra concert scheduled for October 22, not much time is left for membership subscriptions to the 1950-51 concert season.

Over 50 percent of last year's members have already subscribed for this season and a large number of new members have joined. Membership subscriptions are being taken by Chairman Mrs. Roderick Cassidy and may be obtained at the Cassidy store on Main street.

These contributions are needed for supporting the symphony which charges no admission at concerts. The worthwhile work of sponsoring the symphony is carried on by the Plymouth Symphony society and subscribers become members of the organization.

The symphony is under the able direction of Paul Wagner, who during the summer months studied under Pierre Monteux, world famous conductor. Mr. Wagner was also selected to conduct two concerts for the Town Hall concerts in New York City. His first concert there will be in November and the second is scheduled for next spring.

Otwell Awarded Magazine Prize

Bill Otwell of the Otwell Heating company was named a winner this week in the All-Industry Merchandising contest sponsored by Domestic Engineering, publication of the plumbing, heating and air conditioning business. He was awarded a Fuelstat Oil Pump.

The contest entries consisted of articles on merchandising advertising and dealers' all over the country competed in the event. An article telling of the beginning and growth of the Otwell company was published in the August issue of the publication, and covered several pages of the magazine, using three pictures of the Otwell plant and truck.

Galín Observes 23rd Anniversary

In observance of his 23rd year in business in Plymouth, Dave Galin of Galin and Son on Penniman avenue, is offering an outstanding special to his meat department customers.

All patrons purchasing meat and having it processed at Galin's will be given rent-free locker space for the remainder of the year. This special offer is being made over this weekend only as an anniversary event.

60 Businessmen Enroll in Sales Training Course

Over 60 local businessmen and their employees attended the first meeting September 27 of the Sales Training course sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Ed Vandenberg, of the bureau of business research, University of Michigan school of business administration, presided over the meeting and was given an enthusiastic reception.

There is every indication that the five week course will prove both interesting and informative, and merchants should be able to pick up many sound principles and suggestions to help increase the efficiency and effectiveness of their retail sales people.

After registration and a brief outline of the entire course, Mr. Vandenberg introduced Otis Cook, director of the Michigan Retailers association, and a very well known man in Michigan retail circles. Mr. Cook spoke of the broader, fundamental aspects of retail selling, including the human element; knowing your customers and their desires; being friendly attentive, courteous; and solving a customer's problem with the right merchandise.

Following a short group discussion of these topics, the sound film, "Face in the Mirror," was shown. The movie depicted a day in the life of a typical male shopper and the various types of sales treatments such a shopper might encounter. Mr. Vandenberg announced that several outstanding figures in the Detroit retail field will appear as guest speakers later during the course.

Enrollment for the training course is still open. Classes meet for two hours each Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Plymouth High school library. The fee for the course is $5 and tickets may be secured from Carl Caplin, George A. Smith or at Davis and Lent Men's store.

City Increases Aid on School Street Project

The city decided to appropriate more funds Monday night to the construction of the street abutting the George A. Smith school. The commission originally planned to spend only $1,000 toward the costs of the new street but will now appropriate $2,598 and will assist in the grading and spreading costs.

The decision was reached after a report was presented to the commission by Floyd Tibbitts, Stanford Bessie and A. F. Glassford. The three were appointed to investigate the street costs by Mayor Hough a few weeks ago. They met with School Board President Robert O. Wesley and Helmer Nelson, superintendent of schools.

Parts of the committee report follow:
"The committee for the city recommends that the length of the storm sewer remain as it is installed, namely, 400 feet, since Mr. Bessie is of the opinion that enough sewer has been installed to take care of the school property and since any costs for the extension of the sewer northward from the present point should be borne by the parties developing the new area requiring disposition of storm water. They should also absorb the difference in the cost which we have assumed for the 24 inch tile.

"The School Board committee and the City committee carefully went over the costs of the sewer and street improvements. Subsequent to the estimate it was determined that a 24 inch sewer should be installed in the event

Western Union Ready to Meet War Emergency

Never in its history has the nation's vital telegraph system been half so well prepared as it is now to meet any national emergency, stated Charles J. Krawczewski, manager of the local office. The telegraph system has doubled its World War II capacity and vastly increased its efficiency of operation, despite the fact that its tax-depressed volume is only 75 percent of the wartime peak.

Western Union has extended its all-out cooperation to the military and other government departments, as well as war industries and civil defense and security organizations, to meet their communications needs in any emergency.

Highlighting the Western Union's preparedness and technological progress, the company has been called upon by the United States Air Force to provide an extensive network utilizing high speed switching equipment.

Western Union facilities serving military camps and naval establishments have been expanded. A large number of direct circuits for operation around the clock already has been added for the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Additional telegraph equipment and direct wires have been installed for a number of companies with war contracts. The company provides nationwide private wire networks to General Electric, U. S. Steel, United Air Lines and others important in national defense. Added telegraph capacity has gone primarily into strategic industrial centers in recent years, augmented by customer direct-wire connections which have been increased 40 percent since 1941.

Fire Prevention Week Oct. 8-14

In observance of Fire Prevention Week October 8 to 14, the Plymouth Fire department will have an extensive display of all types of fire fighting equipment in windows of the D & C store this coming week.

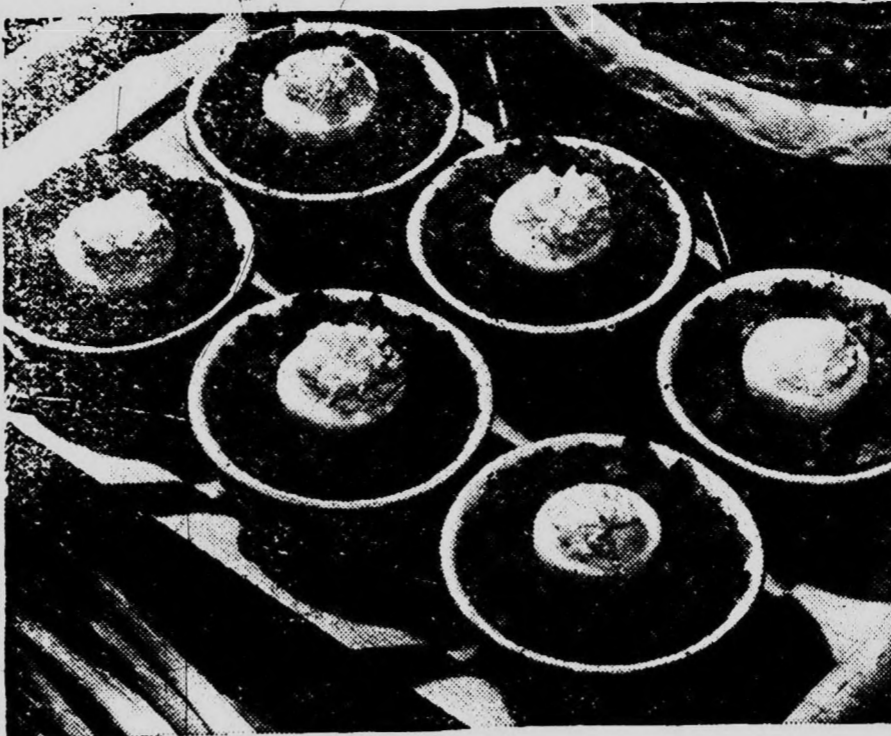

Fire Chief Robert McAllister urges every citizen to see the display and to inspect the fire trucks and equipment at the city fire hall during the week.

"Eleven hundred homes are destroyed and 30 people die every day as the result of fire," the chief said. He added that we must all become more conscious of fire prevention methods and should eliminate fire hazards in our homes and places of business.

PANTRY SHELF MENU PLANNERS

By Marie Gifford

More and more women are turning to the Pantry Shelf Meals in a can to solve their menu problems. One look into a cupboard, well stocked with these menu planners and all sorts of meals come to mind.

When you're searching for a quick and easy idea for Sunday night supper, lunch for the hungry school youngsters or the evening meal on club day, these Pantry Shelves are at your service.

The cooking directions are the same for the entire line of "meals in a can"—turn out of can, heat and eat. Some of the leaders in this line are corned beef hash, spaghetti with meat, beef stew, chop suey, and chili con carne.

Here are two of our favorites using these quick, easy and economical Pantry Shelf Meals in a can. This Corned Beef Hash with Deviled Eggs has a "to each his own" touch. Place Corned Beef Hash in individual baking dishes or custard cups. One can makes 3-4 servings. Bake in 325° F. oven for 20 minutes.

An old favorite with a new twist is Chili-Potato Pie. For this, fine a baking dish with seasoned mashed potatoes and bake at 400° F. for 10 minutes to lightly brown the potatoes. Pour heated chili into the pie. Serve with crisp relishes and individual fruit and cheese plates for dessert.

Issue Four Home Building Permits

Permits for four new homes were taken out during the month of September showing a decline over previous summer months when requests for home permits were at a new high.

A $9000 four room home will be built at 382 Irvin street by Vern E. Cronk of 31531 Schoolcraft. Orr Brothers of Detroit are building a $7800 four room home at 957 Ross street. A $16,500 home permit was issued Clifford A. Smith for a seven room house at 1497 Penniman avenue. E. P. Light of Dearborn will construct a $18,000 room home at 24 North Sheldon road.

Permits for the building of the Kresge store, two garages, moving a garage, moving two homes and three building additions and major repairs were also issued during the month.

Suburban Shrine Plans Stag Party

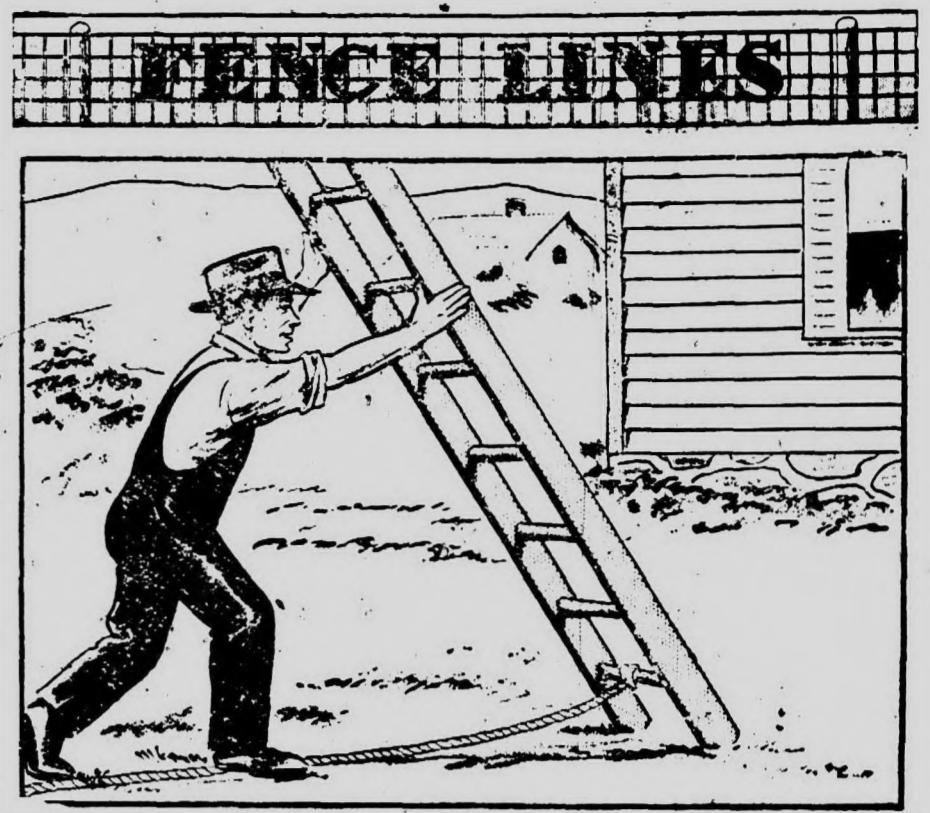

The Suburban Shrine club's "Open House" Stag party to be held on Friday, October 13, will be the first of several activities scheduled for this fall. A very enjoyable evening, including prizes, entertainment and superb buffet supper is being planned at the Saddle Ridge club house located just west of Plymouth on Curtis road between North Territorial and Ann Arbor roads.

All Shriners and their friends are invited to come out and renew old acquaintances. Tickets must be ordered early from any of Suburban Shrine club's officers or members as attendance is limited. Proceeds will go to Crippled Children's hospital.

SUCCESSFUL PARENTHOOD

By Mrs. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS Associate Editor, Parents Magazine

FOUR-YEAR-OLD Donald has always loved listening to phonograph music. One day recently he noticed the label on a record. "What does that say?" he asked, pointing to the title letters. His mother told him that was the name of the record. With the light of discovery in his eyes, Don picked up each record in turn, announcing "And this is the name of this record," (he pointed a chubby finger at the title) "and this is the name of this one." Then he noticed the letters on the record album and wanted to know what they said. Now he's curious about the printing on cereal boxes, in magazines and books. His mother wonders if she ought to try to help him learn to read. He'll enter kindergarten this fall, and the teacher will, of course, take up the main job of teaching him to read.

Most teachers welcome sound parental help. In Donald's case, it is advisable for his mother to begin reading work with him because now is the time he seems to want it. When a child expresses a desire to learn a skill, the time is ripe for teaching. The best time to teach reading differs with each child. Donald is showing readiness earlier than most boys, who usually develop this interest later than do girls.

Methods of teaching reading change through the years. The ABC method has yielded to the phonetic method and the "look and say" method in turn. If your child is already receiving formal reading instruction in school it will be well to discuss his reading with his teacher and follow her suggestions. With a younger child, if you have found happiness and satisfaction in helping him learn to walk and talk you will be able to tune yourself to his growth and in the same pleasant way help him to see meaning in words. You are pretty sure of success if it is fun for your youngster and you.

After picture books, you can supply your child with books which have a sequence of pictures telling a story. They help a child's eyes get used to moving from left to right. When he begins to read tell him that we read in this direction. Sweep your hand under the line from left to right. Simple story books, with pictures giving a clue to the words underneath will probably interest the child next.

Large print, of course, is best for young eyes. And capital letters are the ones children learn first. Nouns will probably be remembered best, while the words that seem simplest to adults—the, a, was, and, but, for, than—are the ones which confuse children the most. Here's where your patience and good humor are needed. No matter how many times he mis-calls a simple word like "the," don't scold. Nor is there cause for alarm if he says "was" for "saw" etc. because many children see words backwards until they are eight or nine years old.

As your child progresses to more advanced reading, don't take away his "baby books." Going back to them, finding how easily he can read their stories, will give a child his first idea of what reading is meant to be—a key that opens treasure filled storehouses, magically, easily, rewardingly.

City Christmas Lighting Plans Are Assured

The Chicago Tribune carried a picture last week of workmen already erecting basic platforms for that city's Christmas decorations this winter. At almost the same time here in Plymouth Bert Giles, acting chairman of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce holiday decorating committee, was holding his third meeting with local business men making plans for lights on Plymouth's business streets during the next holiday season.

For some years Plymouth merchants have complained because of the lack of holiday decorations throughout the city and due to efforts of the Chamber of Commerce plans are now formulating which will institute a permanent program of street lighting and decoration.

A continuance of the projects started in the parks last year is planned and it is hoped that city wide contests can be held to induce local business firms and local residents to decorate their store fronts and their homes to make Plymouth one of the most beautifully decorated places in Michigan.

According to Chairman Giles and Chamber Secretary George A. Smith no stone will be left unturned this year to give the city a real holiday appearance with lights, stars, decorations and holiday games.

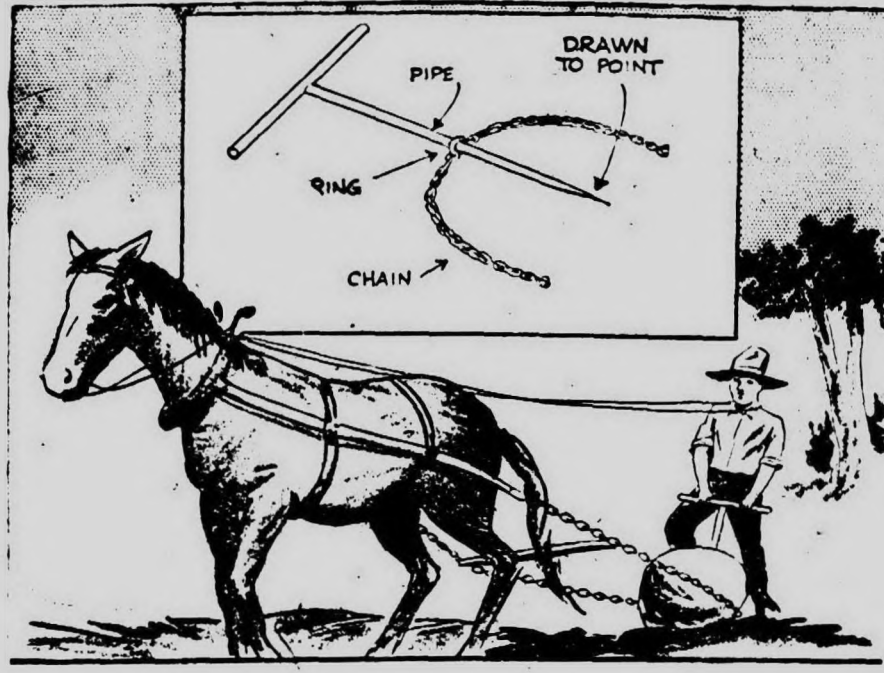

If the program is successful it is hoped that the decorations can be placed on the streets Thanksgiving weekend so that Plymouth may open the holiday shopping season at the same time larger shopping centers have their openings.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McConkey of Chicago, Illinois will arrive tonight, Thursday, to spend until Sunday as the house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Salisbury of Sunset avenue.

To ease opening day hunting pressure, the conservation commission has voted to open the lower peninsula waterfowl season simultaneously with the small game season.

It voted on October 15, 10 a.m. opening day for the lower peninsula small game. Thereafter daily starting hour for small game will be 7 a.m.

Joint opening is contingent on an October 13 opening waterfowl season date being selected by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service as now anticipated. If the federal service approves the October 13 waterfowl date, it would mean the elimination of less than two days waterfowl hunting in the lower peninsula only.

The upper peninsula waterfowl season would open October 13 at noon. The commission agreed to go along with the maximum bag limits and length of season permitted by federal regulation.

Another migratory bird, the woodcock, would be a legal first-day target October 1 above the Straits and October 15 in the lower part of the state, in conformance with the ruffed grouse.

Funeral Held For William H. Cort

Services for William Henry Cort were held Sunday, October 1, at 2 p.m. from the Schrader Funeral home. He passed away September 28 at his home, 32700 Schoolcraft road, at the age of 77 years. He was confirmed in the German Lutheran church in Livonia. Until 1918 his occupation was farming. Later he joined the Wayne County Road commission in which he was active for 25 years.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Flora Cort; his two sons, Robert of Detroit and William of Livonia; four grandchildren, Lois, Russell, Robert and David John Cort. Also surviving are two brothers and one sister, George Cort and Mrs. Anna Woodruff, both of Detroit and Henry Cort of South Lyon.

The Rev. Henry J. Walch, D.D. officiated. Hymns were rendered by Mr. Austin Whipple. The active pallbearers were Orville Cort, Oscar Cort, Nelson Cort, Drayton Cort, George Cort and Grover Woodruff, Jr., nephews of Mr. Cort. Interment was in Livonia cemetery.

Final ruling on waterfowl recommendations as well as setting of bag limits and opening and closing hours is made by the federal service. The service has advised 1950-51 regulations will be issued in late August or about a month later than last year in order to have more time to analyze information from flyway biologists on northern breeding grounds.

J. J. Hartford Dies Suddenly

Funeral services were held on Monday, October 2, at 1 p.m. from the Schrader funeral home for Joseph Johnson Hartford who passed away suddenly Friday, September 29, at his home, 1399 Penniman avenue.

Mr. Hartford, a former resident of Detroit, was an employee of the Burrough's Adding Machine company for 42 years. He was foreman in the plastics department in both the Detroit and the Plymouth plants. He was born in Lowell, Massachusetts.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Loretta Hartford; two sons, Joseph and Frank Hartford, both of Detroit; and two daughters, Mrs. Carol Brown of Farmington and Lynn Hartford of Plymouth. Also surviving are four grandchildren and a host of friends.

The Rev. Henry J. Walch, D.D. officiated. The active pallbearers were Fred Bullock, Robert Jackson, Robert Treadway, Stanley Bankett, Clifford Parker and John Miller. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 164

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 141, entitled "An Ordinance authorizing the acquisition and construction of additions, extensions and improvements to the water supply system of the City of Plymouth; authorizing and providing for the issuance of self-liquidating revenue bonds for the purpose of defraying the cost thereof under the provisions of Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended; Providing for the fixing, collecting, segregation and disposition of the revenues of said water supply system and payment of said bonds out of the revenues thereof; creating a statutory lien on such revenues and providing for other matters relative to said bonds, the water supply system and the revenues therefrom."

THE CITY OF PLYMOUTH ORDAINS:

Section 1. Section 8 "CONNECTION CHARGES" (a) and (b) of Ordinance No. 141, an ordinance entitled "An ordinance authorizing the acquisition and construction of additions, extensions and improvements to the water supply system of the City of Plymouth; authorizing and providing for the issuance of self-liquidating revenue bonds for the purpose of defraying the cost thereof under the provisions of Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended; Providing for the fixing, collecting, segregation and disposition of the revenues of said water supply system and payment of said bonds out of the revenues thereof; creating a statutory lien on such revenues and providing for other matters relative to said bonds, the water supply system and the revenues therefrom," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 8. CONNECTION CHARGES (a) Charges for water service connections to users within the corporate limits of the City of Plymouth shall be Fifty ($50.00) Dollars for all connections up to and including 3/4 of an inch. For connections exceeding 3/4 of an inch in size, the charge shall be including the $50.00, the actual cost of making such connections, plus 15%.

(b) Charges for water service connections to users outside the corporate limits of the City of Plymouth shall be the actual cost of making such connection, plus 15%; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that said connection charge shall not, in any event, be less than Sixty-five ($65.00) Dollars.

Section 2. Section 8, with the exception of the aforesaid amendment is to stand without change.

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect twenty-one (21) days from and after the date of its passage by the City Commission.

Made, passed and adopted by the City Commission of the City of Plymouth, Michigan, this second day of October, 1950 A.D.

In Memoriam 28

In loving memory of Asa Barlow, who passed away one year ago, October 6, 1949. They say time heals all sorrow and helps one to forget. But time has only proved how much we miss you yet.

God gave us strength to fight it and courage to heal the blow. But what it means to lose you, no one will ever know.

Sadly missed by his wife and children. 28-1tp

In loving memory of Maggie Mason who passed away October 4, 1949.

October brings back sad memories. Of a loved one gone to rest. And those who think of her today. Are those who loved her best.

Long days, long nights, you bore your pain. Waiting for cure but all in vain. God says that you were suffering and that the hills were hard to climb.

And he closed your weary eyes. And whispered peace be thine. She bade no one a last farewell. She said goodbye to none. Her loving heart had ceased to beat.

Before we knew she was gone. Sadly missed by her husband and her sister. 28-1tp

Install Gates at Main Crossing

Extra protection has been added at the Main street crossing of the C & O tracks, with the new blinker lights and gates. The gates and signal were first put into use Tuesday afternoon.

Both the lights and gates were scheduled for installation some time ago but the C & O had difficulty in obtaining the necessary materials and equipment. The city commission negotiated with the railroad company for the equipment late last winter.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Lucille Martin of Gary, Ind.: I don't remember the little red schoolhouse, but I do remember the three-room red brick school building with each room heated with a pot-bellied soft-coal stove. The building usually was set in a small, cinder yard. There was a red-composition water bucket in each room with a tin dipper which was shared by about 60 pupils—a far cry from the more sanitary drinking fountain.

From Abigail M. Temple of New York City: Who remembers the songs of Col. Will S. Hays? A few of his most popular numbers were: "Evangeline," "My Southern Sunny Home," "Little Log Cabin in the Lane," "Take This Letter To My Mother," "Mollie Darlin'," "The Drummer Boy Of Shiloh," "I'll Remember Your Love In My Prayers," "Fourteen Years Ago," "Tilden and Reform," "Driven From Home," "Old-Fashioned Roses Are Sweetest" and "Nora O'Neal."

From Mrs. Mary Stewart of Chicago: I remember getting matches in long boxes containing 1,000 pine sticks with sulphur tips. A box seemed to go fast. Diamond was the most wanted brand.

From Mrs. Maude Phillips of Ontario, Calif.: Those song-titles sure bring back old memories to me. Those I remember best include: "When You and I Were Young Maggie," "Nellie Gray," "On the Lone Prairie" and "My Old Kentucky Home."

Hold Services For Mrs. Sweet

Mrs. Catherine F. Sweet, who for the past three years has resided at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Miller at 2005 Sheldon road, Northville, passed away Monday, October 2 at the age of 74 years. Mrs. Sweet formerly lived in Detroit. She was a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel church of Plymouth.

She was the widow of Sylvester Sweet. Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. Frank Miller of Northville; two granddaughters, Mrs. Joan Evans of Plymouth and Mrs. Rosemary Reichwald of New Bern, North Carolina. Also surviving are her sister, Mrs. Arthur Covert, and her niece, Mrs. Celia Hill, both of Detroit.

Mrs. Sweet was brought to the Schrader funeral home where the Rosary was recited Tuesday evening, October 3, at 8 p.m. Funeral services were held yesterday at 9 a.m. from Our Lady of Good Counsel church with the Father William P. Mooney officiating. The active pallbearers were Harold Evans; Peter R. Miller, Thomas Fitzpatrick, Lawrence Fitzpatrick, Benjamin Tinkham and Henry Lankhorst. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Draft Calls Six Plymouth Boys

Six Plymouth boys were inducted into the army last week, it was announced by Board 132 of the Selective Service office. They are William Judd, James McAllister, Paul Hockenberry, Patrick Bradley, Robert Wassman and Floyd Pankow.

Another group of 45 young men were sent to the induction center in Detroit for their physical examinations prior to draft classification. Their names cannot be disclosed by the draft board office. Those from this group who are classified 1-A will be inducted October 30.

WHEN YOU HAVE a few pieces of ironing left over or some pieces which are difficult to iron, wrap them carefully in waxed paper or a plastic bag and place them in the refrigerator. They will not dry out, and you'll be amazed at how much easier they are to iron.

To prevent starch from sticking, use borax in the starch solution in the proportion of one teaspoon to a quart. When starch has stuck to the iron, avoid harsh abrasive cleaners. Fine steel wool may be used or whitening. Polish the iron when thoroughly clean with beeswax. Occasional tubbing cleans stuffed toys beautifully. Let them tumble in rich suds in the washer for about five minutes, rinse thoroughly, and hang by the ears to dry in the sun.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK Raisin-Nut Bread (Makes 1 loaf) 1 tablespoon shortening 3/4 cup sugar 1 egg 2 cups sifted flour 1/2 teaspoon salt 2 teaspoons baking powder 1 cup milk 1 cup seedless raisins 1 cup broken nut meats Cream shortening and add sugar; cream together. Add egg and blend thoroughly. Sift dry ingredients together and add to first mixture alternately with milk. Fold in raisins and nuts. Place in greased loaf pan; let stand for two minutes. Bake in a moderately slow (325°F.) oven for 1-1/4 hours.

Any material which has acetate present in it should be ironed care fully with a warm iron, which means using a temperature of less than 300 degrees F. Higher temperatures tend to melt or fuse the acetate rayon fibers.

When ironing rayon crepes and jerseys, iron with the grain of the fabric on the wrong side. Do touch-up jobs on right side using a pressing cloth.

Garments made of cotton corduroy can be safely laundered, but any wringing or twisting may roughen the finish. Since corduroy is heavy, allow time to dry.

Hunting Named CROP Chairman

Willis B. Hunting, research director of the Plymouth Colony Farms, was chosen chairman of the Wayne County Appeal of the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) at a meeting September 26, at Wayne, of local farm, church and civic leaders interested in the nation-wide, coordinated program to send bulk farm gifts in kind to the needy overseas.

Sponsors of the program are Catholic Rural Life, Church World Service, and Lutheran World Relief. These three parent agencies of CROP are represented in the Wayne county CROP organization by the Rev. Lorenzo Woods of Northville representing Catholic Rural Relief; Dr. Henry Welch of Plymouth, representing Church World Service, and the Rev. Paul Miller of Flat Rock, representing Lutheran World Relief.

Mr. Hunting will be responsible for helping organize the harvest season campaign for farm to farm canvassing of wheat, corn and soybeans. Emphasis in the CROP appeal, he said, is on giving of bulk commodities, although cash is accepted and used to buy exportable staple food-stuff for the hungry, homeless, aged, and infirm overseas.

The actual CROP appeal will take place on October 30, when volunteer solicitors will collect from farm to farm.

hour or more week, 12 work days. Sick leave shall accrue at the rate of one day a month of service up to a maximum of 30 days leave, and shall be granted with the approval of the city manager upon the recommendation of the department head.

Any regular or probationary employee entering the armed forces of the United States, on or after July 1, 1950 shall be granted leave of absence without pay for a period of the military service required of him, with the right of restoration to his former position in the same class, if capable of performing the duties. He must apply for reinstatement within 90 days after discharge under honorable or satisfactory conditions from the armed forces, or from a veterans' administration hospital.

The working schedule of city personnel is stated in the regulations as 8 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 8 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays. Women employees work a 40 hour week within this schedule, as arranged by the department heads. The schedule of working hours for policemen and firemen is established by the police and fire chiefs.

Letter Writing Week Oct. 15 to 21

National Letter Writing Week will be observed this year from October 15 to 21, according to Dr. George A. Timpona, Plymouth postmaster. The purpose of the annual event is to encourage letter-writing between families and friends and to make known to the public the services of the post office department.

"It is through the medium of letters that the intervening miles separating families and friends are bridged with messages. As a result of Letter Writing Week many home ties are renewed, old friendships recaptured and new ones discovered," said Dr. Timpona. "The spirit of good will and the mutual understanding engendered through the exchange of messages will be prolonged perhaps for years."

Postmaster Timpona urges all writers to keep on hand a supply of convenient stamp books, stamped envelopes and air mail stamps for speedy service.

Buy Robinson Property on Main

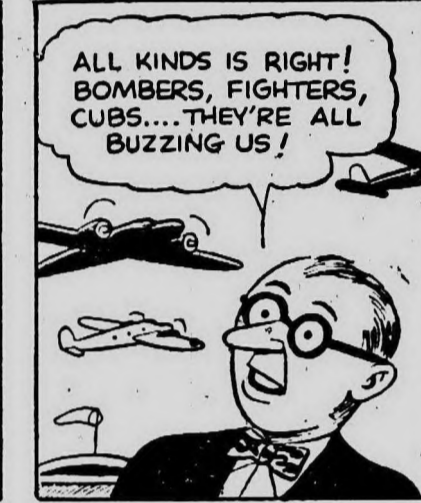

The Harry Robinson property on North Main street was purchased last week by A. M. Bullard who has been operating the used furniture store on that site since February.

Known for some time as the location of furniture auctions, the store was a center of the used furniture trade, operated by Mr. Robinson, well known auctioneer, until his death two years ago. Mr. Bullard maintains a complete line of used home furnishings and appliances.

of development of street to the north. "In order to save money for the school and the city, we recommend that the city purchase the gravel for the school, supervise its spreading, and assume the grading costs as part of our maintenance operation."

The City committee pointed out that eventually we would have considerable expense for providing a sidewalk on Sutherland street. Ross street will require storm sewer, graveling and grading for a distance of 300 feet. We also have an investment in the improvement of Sutherland street amounting to about $3400 of which only $1300 is assessable. We therefore recommend that the city assume $2598, as their share of the cost of the new street abutting the Smith school.

Today's Recipes

LOOKING for something different in a beverage for entertaining? Your guests will enjoy equal parts of hot fresh coffee mixed with hot cocoa, topped with whipped cream or marshmallows. You'll enjoy this new way of serving squash: mash cooked squash and mix with strained orange pulp, then season. Pile back into orange shells and bake long enough to heat through. What's roast duck without oranges? Cut the fruit in half, sprinkle with sugar and dot with butter. Place these right in the roasting pan with the duck for about two hours. Try this grapefruit garnish with fish: roll the sections of fruit in a mixture of half flour and half sugar. Brown in drippings, and serve around fish.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK Citrus Salad Dressing (Makes 1 1/4 cups) 1/2 cup orange juice 1/4 cup lemon juice 1 cup canned fruit juice 1 tablespoon grated orange rind 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind 1 egg, slightly beaten Combine ingredients. Cook over very low heat until thickened, about 7 minutes. Cool. Serve with fruit salads, or as a dessert sauce on puddings, deep dish fruit pies or turnovers.

Walnut bonbons are a nice accompaniment to fruit salads. Make small balls of seasoned cream cheese and place the ball between two walnut halves.

Vegetable chowder made with vegetables cooked in milk takes on appeal and nourishment if you add some processed American cheese to it. Heat slowly, long enough to melt the cheese.

Try this variation for your next batch of scalloped tomatoes: layer the tomatoes with sliced onion and bread cubes. Add seasonings of sugar, salt and pepper and bake.

Leftover chicken makes a good skillet meal if you brown onion in fat, then add two cups of chicken broth and 3/4 cup uncooked rice. Cook slowly until rice is tender, then add the chicken, some canned mushrooms and season.

Coffee loses 12 to 20 percent of its weight in the roasting process, but increases its bulk by one-third.

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER
Personal Commitment to Christ
Lesson 1 for October 8: Matthew 16: 24-25; Mark 1: 16-20; Philippians 1: 19-26
Memory Selection: Philippians 1: 21

THE FIRST PART of the lesson text shows that true life is found in giving oneself to Jesus. It declares a great paradox of human experience, that "whoever would save his life shall lose it," but whoever shall lose his life for Christ's sake shall find it. This paradox is illustrated in many a story of sacrificing for others.

Walking by the Sea of Galilee, Jesus called Andrew and Peter, and James and John, two pairs of brothers. He called them to be "fishers of men." The Master calls men in the midst of their daily labor, and he often calls them to work in his service where they are. Some he calls to special service, but the most he calls to live for him where they are.

In the last passage of the text, Paul writes of the joy he has in committing himself to the Lord's service. "For me to live," he declares, "is Christ, and to die is gain." He was so thoroughly committed to Christ that he was assured that Christ dwelt in him. And even to die for Christ would be gain for him—the sooner he would be with his Lord.

Let us come to the great decision to give all to Christ. It may be said that faith is acting as well as believing. If you believe in Jesus, you must, and will, live for Him. And he promises to keep you always by his wondrous grace.

Ypsilanti Braves Hand Rocks Second Defeat With 27-0 Score

Although playing a very fine game, the Plymouth Rocks bowed to a very powerful Ypsilanti Brave squad by the score of 27-0 last Friday. Ypsi had some very fancy backs that could readily run and this was the main downfall of the Plymouth squad. Ypsi scored two touchdowns on punt runbacks. Ypsi's whole line played a very good game as almost every player was the size of Charlie Stark. Phil Jacobus did a fine job of quarterbacking for the Rocks.

Plymouth had the same starting line as the week before, including Charlie Stark and Jerry Huddleston at ends, Gary Sockow and Jack Daggett at tackles, Jack Robinson and Bob Koeny at guards, and Bob Gow at center. The backfield was without the services of George Hunter who was sick. Bill Runge substituted for him and did a fine job. Phil Jacobus, Dave Travis and Ron Davis were the other starting backs.

As in the opening game, Plymouth won the toss and elected to receive. Ypsi kicked to the 20 yard line where on a handoff Jacobus got back to the 25. The powerful Brave line held the Rocks and Gow was forced to kick. It was then Ypsi's ball on the 45 yard line where on the first play the Braves picked up 9 yards before Jacobus came in to make the tackle. Ypsi then picked up a first down only to have a 15 yard penalty set them back to the 45 again. On the next play Ypsi was offside. The Braves made up for the penalties on the next play as they pulled off a 27 yard run. Ypsi then drove on for two more first downs and then over for a touchdown with four minutes left in the quarter. The Braves made good on the conversion for a 7 point lead.

Ypsi then kicked off to the 13 where Jacobus came back to the 27. Again Plymouth was held and Bob Gow punted to the Ypsi 45 where the ball carrier took the pickin' back for another touchdown. This time Ypsi missed the extra point.

Travis received the Ypsi kickoff and scampered back to the 31 where the Rocks were held again and Gow kicked to the Ypsi 42 with the Braves picking up 5 yards on the runback. This ended the first quarter.

Ypsi picked up another first down to the Plymouth 42 before having to punt where Runge came back to the 17. Plymouth then picked up a first down. Bob Gow then went into the backfield and completed a pass to Crumb, but to no avail as Gow was forced to punt again with

Recreation Dept. Classes

TYPING

The typing class will start on Monday evening, October 9 in the typing room at the high school. Anyone interested may call the recreation office or come that night.

WOMAN'S GYM CLASS

Come tonight to the Starkweather gym at 7:30 for an hour of fun and relaxation. Mrs. Alex Miller will welcome anyone interested in participating.

SQUARE DANCE CLUB

Don't forget the first dance of the year in the Central Grad-school gym at 8:30. Every couple brings their own sandwiches and coffee is furnished. Dave Palmer, who called several times last year will be with us this year.

CERAMICS

The ceramics class taught by Mrs. Meier, started October 3 in the high school. There is still room for several more if you would like to start next Tuesday. Call Mrs. Donnelly at the recreation office, 2075.

SWIMMING

The woman's swimming class at the Training school will start October 11 at 8 o'clock. A physical examination by your own physician is required. You may pick up your card to be signed by the doctor in the recreation office.

Sewing Students Given Basic Instruction

Basic instructions for pattern-cutting, fitting and taking measurements and individual styling were given sewing students at their first class held Tuesday and Thursday nights of last week.

Mrs. Lila Humphries, instructor for the recreation department's class, assisted students in preliminary work on the clothing they will make during the six-week course. The two separate classes are held Tuesday and Thursday nights at 7 p.m. in the high school home economics room. Enrollment is still open.

Rock Thinclads Win 2nd Victory

The Plymouth cross country squad chalked up their second victory Friday as they turned back the Ypsi Braves 25-32. John Baloge of Plymouth came in first for the meet, which was held at Plymouth, with a time of 11:38. Ypsi's much heralded Seidl came in second with a time of 11:40. By winning this meet the Rock squad is in good position to capture the league crown. Tomorrow the thinclads will meet Trenton. Following is the way the players placed:

Railroads Plan Telegram Service

Every railroad traveler automatically will have a charge account with Western Union and can send telegrams en route easily and conveniently under a new plan now being placed in operation with the cooperation of the railroads. It was announced today by Charles Krawczewski, of the Western Union-Telegraph office in Plymouth.

The new plan avoids the necessity for cash payment. The traveler merely hands his telegram, written on a special new telegram blank being placed in Pullman and other railroad cars, to the train attendant for sending at the next stop. He can charge it to his home address, or can have it charged to his business charge account or Western Union Credit Card number. He also can send it collect.

Official Proceedings of Your City Commission

Monday, September 18, 1950
 The regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Monday, September 18, 1950 at 7:30 P.M.

Present: Commissioners Fisher, Hammond, Richwine, Tibbitts and Mayor Hough.
 Absent: None.

The minutes of the regular meeting held September 5th and the adjourned regular meeting of September 11th were read and approved.

The following reports were read by the Clerk: Treasurer's report ending September 15th; Fire Department for the month of August; Police Dept. for the month of August; and a report of the Dept. of Public Works as of Sept. 18th.

Moved by Comm. Hammond supported by Comm. Tibbitts that the reports be accepted and placed on file. Carried.

The Commission discussed the many complaints received of disorderly conduct at or near the local taverns and the increased policing problem.

Moved by Comm. Richwine supported by Comm. Hammond that the City Manager notify local tavern keepers that in the future any complaints received of disorderly conduct of patrons from their place of business would be referred to the Liquor Control Commission for appropriate action. Carried.

A request for sign installation at 467 Forest Avenue was presented by the City Manager.

Moved by Comm. Richwine supported by Comm. Tibbitts that the City Manager be authorized to grant a permit to the General Electric Sign Company for the erection of a sign at 467 Forest Avenue, provided the sign extend beyond the lot line not more than 18 inches. Carried.

Bids for the re-roofing of the City Hall were presented by the City Manager.

Moved by Comm. Richwine supported by Comm. Tibbitts that the low bid of the Hovan Valley Roofing Company be accepted as recommended by the Manager in the amount of $1,636.38 to re-roof the City Hall, and that funds in the amount of $1,156.38 be transferred from the unappropriated Reserve account to the City Hall Maintenance fund.

Yes: Commissioners Fisher, Hammond, Richwine, Tibbitts and Mayor Hough.
 No: None.

The following resolution was offered by Comm. Fisher supported by Comm. Richwine:

WHEREAS notice of hearing upon the question of rent control was duly given by publication of such notice in the Plymouth Mail, a newspaper published and circulated in the City of Plymouth, Michigan, on the 31st day of August, 1950, and the 7th day of September, 1950;

WHEREAS a public hearing on said question has been duly held in the City Hall of said City pursuant to said notice on September 11, 1950, and WHEREAS it appears to the City Commission of the City of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan, after said hearing, that there no longer exists such a shortage in rental housing accommodations in said City as to require further rent control, now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED that the City Commission of the City of Plymouth, Michigan, determine and find and it does hereby determine and find that there no longer exists in the City of Plymouth, Michigan, such a shortage in rental housing accommodations as to require rent control.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that rent control be forthwith terminated in the City of Plymouth, Michigan.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the City Clerk forward to the Federal Housing Expediter a certified copy of this resolution for appropriate action by said official.

Yes: Commissioners Fisher, Hammond, Richwine, Tibbitts and Mayor Hough.

Moved by Comm. Tibbitts supported by Comm. Fisher that the gift of $1000.00 be accepted from interested persons for the installation of a municipal court bench, witness box, court officer box, and jury box, and that the City Manager be authorized to proceed forthwith upon receipt of the full amount of money. Carried.

The Mayor requested City Manager Glassford, Engineer S. L. Besse and Comm. Tibbitts to confer with the school officials relative to the extension of the 24 inch sewer in the new street abutting the George A. Smith School and bring recommendations as to the settlement of the City's share of the cost of the installation.

An announcement by Henry J. Kaiser

Today, at your Kaiser-Frazer dealer, you will see what we believe to be the most important car that America has produced since the automobile became a necessity of daily living.

It fills the needs, the wants, the purchasing power of all America as no other car has done in the last ten years.

It is rugged. It has outstanding maneuverability, handles and parks easily, and is powered with our new Superonic Engines which deliver up to 30 to 35 miles to the gallon.

The Henry J is the lowest-priced car in the low-price field. It has the full, generous proportions to which Americans are accustomed. We have given it the best combination of performance, comfort, styling, and economy of operation.

It is the car that you and every American family can afford to buy, to operate, to maintain, and be proud to own.

The most important new car in America!

Here today... The Henry J

Important because... It's Smart! Smart to look at... smart to own! Notice the extra-wide doors... front seat 58 inches wide... head room and leg room galore! And—look! The back of the rear seat folds forward, giving you 51 cubic feet of storage space, almost double that of the largest sedan trunk compartment!

Important because... It's Tough! Husky, Double-Channel Frame, reinforced like a steel bridge! The rear axle Hypoid geared, as in most expensive cars. Extra-wide windshield and windows give you the largest vision area in any low-priced car... short turning radius permits the easiest parking.

Important because... It's Thrifty! You get 30 to 35 miles per gallon from the quiet, responsive Superonic Engines. (Henry J—4 cylinders, Henry J Deluxe—6 cylinders.)

Lower first cost... lower maintenance... lower repair bills... lower insurance... lower operating cost. Your savings, in just two years, can more than total the down payment on the Henry J.

Built to Better the Best on the Road!

Costs less to buy... less to drive... less to maintain!

SEE THE AMAZING WINKLER DEMONSTRATION OF OIL BURNER ECONOMY AND SERVICE-FREE OPERATION

Watch the Winkler LP* burn crank case drainings, unrefined oil, mixed oil and water—all without smoke or soot.

You've never seen anything like this low pressure burner. Saves oil, cuts service costs, ends trouble!

The Winkler LP* can be sized exactly to the heat requirements of your home—burns as little as 1/2 gallon per hour—doesn't waste heat up the chimney. Saves costly service work because of simple, dependable design and clog-proof nozzle.

LP* owner heats 7 room house on 1.87 gallons of oil per day.

"From the 17th day of January until the 11th day of May, I actually burned only 216 gallons. This figures out to 1.87 gallons per day. I doubt if such wonderful economy can be matched by any oil burner I ever heard about. I have never had the need for a single service call."

CONSTRUCTION OF WARREN AVENUE WATER MAIN IN TUNNEL CROSSING EDELL FORD EXPRESSWAY IN THE CITY OF DETROIT, WAYNE COUNTY.
PROJECT: U1 B29 of 82-22-10, C1 (U) 291 (1949).
Net classification required for this project is 26-X, Water Main and Tunnel. Subcontract No. Electrical.
Sealed proposals for the construction of this project located in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, shall be received from contractors having 1950 Michigan State Highway Department pre-qualifications in the Veterans Memorial Bldg., 213 South Capitol Avenue, Lansing, Michigan, until 11:00 A.M., Eastern Standard Time, on Wednesday, October 12, 1950, and will then and there be publicly opened and read. Proposals may be mailed to Room 424, State Office Building, Lansing, Michigan.
The work will consist of constructing two concrete shafts of 12'-0" inside diameter, 25'-4" length each of connecting tunnel of 10' inside diameter, and furnishing and laying a 42" water main in the tunnel, tunnel and will then open cut trenches outside the tunnel section, including gate valves, wells, fittings and concrete structures. It also includes furnishing and laying a connecting 12" water main from the existing 12" main in Warren to the 42" main on the north side of the proposed Expressway and other incidental work.
Completion date for entire project April 15, 1951.
The Department's Standard Specifications 1950 Edition, its current Soils Manual, the plans for this project, the special provisions governing subletting and assigning the contract and the employment and use of labor, and the proposal blanks (all of which are essential parts of the contract) may be examined at the district office of the Department at Redford, Michigan, and at the Michigan Road Builders Association, Lansing, Michigan, but may be obtained only at the office of the Contract-Estimate Engineer, Room 424, State Office Building, Lansing, Michigan, up to 5 P.M. of the day preceding the opening of bids. A fee of three dollars will be charged for furnishing plans or proposal blanks, which will not be refunded.
Full cooperation in carrying out the special provisions will be required. Minimum wage paid to labor employed on this contract shall be as follows for Zone 1: Skilled labor $2.125 per hour. Intermediate labor $1.80 per hour. Unskilled labor $1.70 per hour. Other rates as listed in the proposal.
A certified or cashier's check on an open solvent bank, in the sum of $13,000.00, payable to Charles M. Ziegler, State Highway Commissioner, must accompany each proposal. All such checks will be returned promptly after the bidding, except that of the lowest bidder will not be returned until execution and delivery of the contract to the State Highway Department.
The right is reserved to reject any or all proposals.
CHARLES M. ZIEGLER,
State Highway Commissioner

What's Tool-Vision?

HERE'S WHAT G TRACTOR OWNERS SAY

It's hoe-handle vision from a comfortable seat just over the crop row. It's front-mounted tools underneath an open arch with room for all types of plows, planters and cultivators.

It's a creeper gear which lets you throttle down to 3/4 miles per hour to see exactly what you are doing as you ease through tiny plants as carefully as hand hoeing.

You'll like Tool-Vision, and other G features . . . handling up to six rows at once in any spacing from ten inches up, mounting tools with two pins, using quarts of fuel in the rear engine instead of gallons.

Leone Richards Becomes Bride of Floyd Lanning

In a ceremony solemnized on Thursday evening, September 28, at 8 o'clock, Leone Richards became the bride of Floyd Lanning. The double ring ceremony performed by the Reverend William Richards took place in the Methodist church of Northville.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richards of Plymouth, wore a rich colored suit with dark green accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

For her only attendant, the bride chose her sister, Beverly Richards, to be her maid of honor. Beverly wore a burgundy suit with matching accessories and a corsage of white flowers.

Milan George performed the duties of best man while Jay Richards, a brother of the bride, acted as usher. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Marjorie Lanning and the late Floyd Lanning of Northville.

A reception for the immediate family was held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

After a week's honeymoon that will take them to Asheville, North Carolina, the young couple will make their home in Northville.

Some views of the beautiful gardens of members of the Plymouth branch of the National Farm and Garden association will be shown via colored slides at the meeting Monday, October 9, of the local club.

Mrs. A. E. VanOrnam will show the slides which were taken during late summer by her husband, Dr. Van Ornam. Comments by individual members will be given during the showing, giving information on the flowers, plants and shrubs depicted in the slides.

A report will also be given at the meeting by Mrs. William Morgan, eighth grade science teacher, on the Conservation school at Higgins lake. Mrs. Morgan was the first local teacher to be sent to the school by the garden club. A teacher was selected for the course so that up-to-date information on conservation may be imparted to school children.

The afternoon program will be followed by tea served by Mrs. Winston Cooper and her hostess committee consisting of Mrs. Andrew Dunn, Mrs. Frank Dunn, Mrs. John Wimsatt and Mrs. A. K. Samuelson.

Hints For Plymouth Homemakers

Fall Harvest Vegetables Are Easily Stored For Winter Use

Long before the "frost is on the pumpkin" many of our popular summer vegetables disappear from vegetable counters or are used up from family gardens. It's then that fall harvested vegetables come to the rescue with more good buys in nutrition, variety, color and flavor.

Many of these vegetables are well adapted to storage. If you have the space you might want to try buying some of them for storage at home.

Although most of the fall vegetables are stored commercially, the vegetable dollar will usually buy more during harvest season than later in the fall or winter.

Potatoes, carrots, beets, turnips and parsnips keep well under cool, dark, slightly moist conditions. A cool basement usually meets these requirements. Onions should be kept in a dry place, cool and well ventilated. Most attics are ideal for onion storage in the fall and winter. Squash and pumpkin will keep well under cool, dry conditions, in either basement or attic.

Fall greens that are usually available from commercial storage most of the year are spinach, chard and head lettuce. Other popular fall vegetables include cauliflower, egg plant, peppers and late celery.

Here are two good rules well worth remembering if you want to be sure of enjoying tasty, nutritious fall vegetable dishes—use plenty of variety in preparation, and watch the clock when preparing cooked dishes. This cooking rule can be summed up by saying "cook quickly in a small amount of water only until tender."

Variety, too, can be simple. Rather than using squash or pumpkin consistently for pie or as a baked dish, try them steamed or cooked and seasoned in any way you prefer. Turnips can be served raw in salads, as well as cooked. They are usually served buttered, but can also be creamed. Rutabagas also may be served buttered, creamed, mashed, or in soups.

Most homemakers are familiar with cooking egg plant by slicing, dipping in egg and crumbs, and frying. It also may be steamed, cooked and scalloped in recipes similar to those for other vegetables.

Peppers are most commonly used in salads or prepared stuffed. However, if they are very reasonably priced you may want to try them alone as a cooked vegetable. The large sweet red peppers which become plentiful in the fall have much the same flavor and texture as the green peppers, and can be used in the same ways. They should not be confused with the small "hot" red peppers used mainly for seasoning and pickling.

Suits or coats that are worn for one day and then hung away in the closet for a day or two will prove more serviceable over a longer period of time than garments that are worn day after day without a period of rest between wearings, advise clothing specialists at Michigan State college.

Choosing the right varieties now can make a big difference in the quality of frozen foods you take out of your locker next winter. Be sure you freeze only the recommended varieties of fruits and vegetables this summer.

Scalloped potatoes for many take special treatment. Precooking potatoes eliminates curdling and cuts the baking time. Make this recipe four times for ease in handling.

Yield: 100 servings.

7 1/2 pounds potatoes
1 1/2 cups butter or margarine
1/2 cup flour
4 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon white pepper
2 quarts milk

Paré and cut potatoes in thin slices. Cover with boiling water and simmer 10 minutes. Drain and spread in shallow greased baking pan. Blend together melted butter, flour and seasonings; add milk slowly and cook until thickened and smooth; stir constantly. Pour sauce over potatoes. Sprinkle with paprika. Cover and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 1 1/2 hours. Remove cover and brown.

Wake Up Morning Appetites!

This time of the year, brunch parties on Sundays are wonderful solutions for informal entertaining. Main thing to remember is that people are cheerier if their morning meal is tasty, so set out this favorite fare and the seasonings to make the main dish a hit, salt and Tabasco. Serve individual casseroles of browned hash topped with poached eggs. Either canned hash or the homemade variety, using up left-overs from your weekend roasts; will prove filling and delicious, and the poached eggs give the hash a dress-up touch. Tabasco and salt give the eggs the final fillip for flavor.

Rolled Roast Easily Carved

Easy carving! This is one of the grand features of a boned and rolled roast. In addition, homemakers are pleased to find that these trim roasts fit neatly into a refrigerator and take less space than similar roasts with bone in.

Among the roasts that meat dealers bone and roll are beef rib and pork, veal and lamb shoulder. Identical cookery steps are followed for both boned and unboned roasts; however, since bone is a better conductor of heat than lean meat a boned roast requires slightly longer cooking time—about 10 minutes per pound more.

A rolled roast is cooked as any other roast. It is placed on a rack in an open roasting pan. No water is added and the meat is left uncovered throughout the entire cooking time. Beef, veal and lamb roasts are cooked in a 300° F. oven; fresh pork roasts in a 350° F. oven.

Dress Up Package Desserts For Delicious Family Treats

Packaged gelatin and pudding desserts are always favorites with children—and they can be good for Papa, too. Here's how to make some delicious treats from these prepared foods.

CHOCOLATE CUSTARD WITH MERINGUE TOPPING
1 pkg. chocolate pudding
3 cups milk
2 eggs
1/4 cup sugar

Make chocolate pudding according to directions on package, using 3 cups of milk instead of 2 as package directions call for. Separate eggs. Then beat up the egg yolks slightly. Add a little of the cooked chocolate mixture to the yolks (this is so you won't cook them up in a lump), then combine the two and put back on the stove and cook another two minutes, stirring constantly. Take off the stove and cool.

While mixture is cooling beat up the egg whites until stiff. Then gradually beat in the sugar and continue beating until meringue looks like white satin. Pour pudding into baking dish. Pile meringue on top and bake 10 to 12 minutes at 325° F. or until meringue peaks are a delicate brown. Serve hot to 4 to 6.

JELLIED WAFER PIE
1 pkg. lemon gelatin
1 cup hot water
1/4 cup lemon juice
1/4 cup sugar
1/8 teaspoon salt

1 cup evaporated milk
1/2 7 1/4-oz. pkg. vanilla wafers
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Dissolve gelatin in hot water, then flavor with lemon juice, sugar and salt. Chill in refrigerator until syrupy. In the meantime, pour milk into a freezing tray and chill until little crystals form on the sides.

Crush vanilla wafers fine and mix thoroughly with melted butter or margarine. Pat onto bottom and sides of a 9 in. pie pan and chill until mixture feels firm.

Remove milk from refrigerator and beat over a bowl of ice until stiff. Mix gently with syrupy lemon gelatin and pour into pie shell. Chill 30 minutes. Real handsome served with or without fresh fruit.

CHERRY - PINEAPPLE SURPRISE
1 pkg. cherry gelatin
8 marshmallows
1 No. 1 can (1 cup) crushed pineapple
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped

Dissolve gelatin in 1 1/2 cups boiling water. Pour into an 8 in. square pan and chill in your refrigerator until stiff. Now cut it up into 1/2 in. cubes.

While gelatin is setting, snip up marshmallows with scissors and pour pineapple over them. Let stand about 2 hours to mellow the marshmallows. Mix gelatin, fruit mixture and cream together with care and serve in sherbet glasses to 6.

DAIRY INDUSTRY provides much of the leather to keep Michigan in shoes

DAIRY INDUSTRY IS THE KEYSTONE OF MICHIGAN'S AGRICULTURE

AGRICULTURE is Michigan's most VITAL INDUSTRY BUTTER is that industry's most VITAL PRODUCT

The welfare of every man, woman and child in Michigan depends on the state's dairy industry represented by more than 132,000 dairy farmers with an investment of 2 and 1/2 billion dollars.

One in every six families in the state is dependent for livelihood on the dairy industry. More than 600,000 derive all or part of their incomes from dairying. Income from dairy herds last year amounted to $681,000,000.

And this vast industry depends on butter for its solid foundation. Butter is the one dairy product which is a storable, staple food—the dairy product which absorbs excess production during the flush spring season and makes it possible to have a sufficient supply of fluid milk and other dairy products during the many months of low milk production.

Without butter, the vital dairy industry would be completely out of balance—during many months of the year fluid milk would be scarce—prices would zoom and the public health would be jeopardized. Butter is of great import to every person in Michigan—it helps to keep milk production on an even keel. Farmers realize the great importance of butter for it means large dairy herds throughout the state. Dairying is the greatest soil conservation measure known to mankind.

To keep Michigan prosperous and her people healthy, dairying must be maintained—milk provides one-fourth of all of our food. There is little wonder that thinking people want to protect the butter market against imitators who would help destroy Michigan's greatest industry for the sake of profit to themselves. And those who seek to wreck this state's dairy business for the most part have no interest in Michigan except to take her money away. Michigan is prosperous and a wonderful state in which to live largely because of her excellent dairy herds and unsurpassed abundant supply of milk.

Michigan's dairy industry has grown up with the state—it can be given a mortal blow over night by letting selfish imitators destroy the KEYSTONE of the Industry—THE BUTTER MARKET.

Wins Prize For Writing Letter on U of M Ruling

R. M. Daane, comptroller of the Daisy Manufacturing company, was a winner in the recent Free Press letter writing contest. The Free Press had invited readers to submit letters for publication setting forth their opinions on the University of Michigan ruling to not televise football games.

Of the hundreds of letters the paper received only three approved of the university action and of the 15 letters that were published Mr. Daane's was one of the contest winners. His letter follows.

"To the Editor:
I have strongly protested the ban on TV by the Big Ten since their policy was announced last January, even to the point of discussing it with one member of the Board of Regents for the University of Michigan.

"Many people, now elderly, some of whom are hard of hearing or find it hard to get around as they formerly did, made possible the construction of the stadium through the purchase of stadium bonds.

"In return for their investment they were to get nominal interest and a preference in seats at football games. This was fine for a while, but, when capacity crowds provided a cash surplus, the bonds were retired and the investor lost the nominal income as well as the seating preference. It should be mentioned that the bonds were actually not callable at the time but a very tactful and appealing letter was sent the bondholder by Mr. H. O. Crisler and the bondholder surrendered.

"Now these same people who made the stadium and the gate receipts possible are being denied the right to see the games on their own TV sets. It would appear that Mr. Crisler was willing to co-operate when he needed funds, but now that the shoe is on the other foot, it is apparent that he cares little for the former bondholder or for the taxpayer or for the goodwill and public service that telecasting of games would generate.

"As taxpayers the people of this State are entitled to watch the games played by the team supported with their tax dollars.

"Notre Dame is to be congratulated on being foresighted enough to see the benefits of TV and without a doubt more people will know about the school and its facilities after this football season than ever before. In addition they will have a nice tidy sum handed them for the sale of the TV rights."

Enrolled at Harding College

Garth Granville McAllister, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. McAllister, 244 Hamilton, is enrolled at Harding college as a freshman. He has selected a course of study which will lead to the bachelor of arts degree.

Preceding registration McAllister participated with 200 other freshmen students in a series of achievement tests which were used as a guide in planning the year's work. The busy days of tests, physical examinations and conferences with faculty advisers were relieved by informal "sings" at the campus fishpond, a softball game and weiner roast. With orientation completed, his classwork will begin today.

He is a graduate of Plymouth High school.

Celebrates 22nd Anniversary as Just Another Day

Twenty-two years of serving the laundry and dry cleaning needs of the community was celebrated last weekend by Kenneth Corey who said he observed the event in his usual way of "just taking care of the needs of his customers." The popular, local laundry man was caught by The Mail photographer doing just what he said he intended to do during his celebration, working and in this case writing up an order from Mrs. Harold Underwood who resides at 1341 Sheridan and has been one of Mr. Corey's steady customers during his years in business here.

Begin Study at Ferris Institute

Russell L. Maxwell and Edwin M. Wall of Plymouth are enrolled in the college of commerce at Ferris Institute this fall and are ready for all college activities and work. Wall is a junior in commerce, taking accounting, and Maxwell is a freshman in commerce, taking business administration.

Homecoming at Ferris will be on October 7, with a parade and football game in the afternoon and the Homecoming ball in the evening.

The football game with Michigan Tech will be Ferris' first home game of the season.

Hunters Warned to be Cautious

With the hunting season just around the corner a warning to Plymouth hunters to be extra cautious comes from the conservation department. Cold statistics themselves should be enough to warn sportsmen to take every precaution while "up north."

With 28 deaths and 175 injuries in hunting seasons last year reported to the conservation department, the state had one accident for about every 5,000 hunters compared to a more favorable 1948 record of one accident for about every 5,750 hunters.

This amounted to one fatality for about every 35,928 hunters last fall as against one for about every 41,647 in 1948.

Last year's small game seasons accounted for 13 fatal and 118 nonfatal gun mishaps. In 1948, conservation officers recorded 23 deaths and 147 injuries, of which 12 deaths and 99 injuries were in small game seasons.

Total of hunting licenses issued in 1949 is estimated at 1,006,000 contrasted to a final 1948 figure of 977,883.

On the basis of accidents reported to the department, per- around the corner a warning to Plymouth hunters to be extra cautious comes from the conservation department. Cold statistics themselves should be enough to warn sportsmen to take every precaution while "up north."

The hunter's greatest danger again was his own gun or those of members of his own party. Records show 52 persons killed or wounded themselves while another 100 were killed or injured by members of their hunting parties.

VFW News

Members of the Mayflower Auxiliary are busily engaged in making gifts for the annual bazaar, which is to be held the 9th of November at the Masonic Temple. One group met at the home of Virginia Bartel on Dunn Court and another group at Vivian Haahr's on Irvin street. Many interesting items will be offered for sale this year, so keep the date in mind.

Mrs. Katherine McLellan of Simpson street is recovering nicely from a fall and arm injury which she sustained recently and is now able to be out.

President Eleanor Gust called a meeting of all Auxiliary chairmen Wednesday, September 27, to outline the year's work and explain the honor point system. Each chairman was given printed material containing suggestions to help her in earning as many points as possible.

The Cancer Research Fund established by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the VFW in 1947, now has become the "gift of hope" for children suffering from the disease. Within this Auxiliary year, three major cash contributions have been made by the National Auxiliary to hospitals in different parts of our country, which are either treating cancer or conducting research control programs. The $10,000 Grace H. Davis Memorial was established early this year at the Children's Mercy hospital in Kansas City, Mo.; another Memorial Fund of $10,000 was established in August at the Holy Cross hospital in Chicago and the most recent hospital to benefit by a cash contribution of $5,000 was the Children's Hospital of Michigan located in Detroit, for the purchase of cortisone, which is successfully being used to treat cancer in children. These contributions are more than organizational gifts because the fund is directly obtained from individual contribution by the members of each VFW Auxiliary and from the proceeds of benefit activities.

The "Health and Happiness Fund," designed for the purpose of insuring maintenance of the VFW National Home at Eaton Rapids, reached a total of $116,- 122 this past year. This is proof that the Auxiliaries of our country have pledged not only to "honor the dead by helping the living" but to provide care, love and affection for war orphans of our nation's war veterans.

(From the Historical and Patriotic Calendar):

On October 13, 1792 the cornerstone of the White House was laid.

On October 14, 1949 after a 9-month's trial in New York Federal court, 11 Communist leaders were found guilty of advocating the overthrow of the U.S. government. On October 21, ten were sentenced to five years' imprisonment; one to three years; all were fined $10,000 each. All appealed.

Most Beloved Car in the World!

Ask the owner of a 1950 Cadillac whether he expects his next car to carry the same proud name—and the chances are he will find it difficult to believe you are serious.

It simply never occurs to him that any other car could take the place of his beloved Cadillac.

And this deep respect for Cadillac goes far beyond its owners. In fact, it overflows the whole of America.

A survey just completed indicates that almost half of all the motor car owners in the United States would buy a Cadillac if they felt it suited to their economic situation.

Surely, there has been no finer example of quality's ability to hold the respect and regard of the American people.

We wish that all who want a Cadillac could own one. And we know that more would purchase Cadillacs if only they would properly evaluate these basic facts:

- the lower-priced cars in the Cadillac line cost less to buy than certain models of numerous other makes.
- you can drive a Cadillac all day long, under normal conditions, on a single tankful of gasoline.
- a Cadillac car is designed so well, and is so soundly built, that its lifespan has never been fully measured.

Why not pay us a visit soon—and see for yourself? We are sure you're closer to "The Standard of the World" than you ever thought you were!

Dorothy Curtis Heads Staff of 1951 All-School Annual

The staff was chosen for the 1951 edition of the All-School annual this week.

The annual will be printed by Myers & Company and the photographs will be taken by Powell's Studio.

Discuss Athletic Award at Student Council Meeting

Bud Young, the mayor of the school, called the second regular meeting of the student council on Wednesday, September 27. Shirley Plant gave the report on the sale of beanies at the Farmington game. Then the council appointed a committee to sell the beanies at the Plymouth-Ypsilanti football game here last Friday.

Bud introduced the newly elected seventh grade student council members, Linden Mills and Richard Noll.

Some new business brought up was the awarding of a letter or emblem to freshmen and reserve athletes. After a long discussion the council decided to postpone voting on it until the next meeting when they will try to have a school official and an athletic official present. Another matter brought up for discussion was the wearing in classes of sweaters and emblems which represents some school other than Plymouth. This was also laid on the table until the next meeting.

Commercial Club Officers Chosen

Anne Jean Munster was chosen president of the Commercial club on September 22.

Other officers chosen were Donna Carr, vice president; Lois Donaldson, secretary; Catherine Schindler, treasurer; Dorothy Leavick, reporter. These officers together with Lois Fackender, Mary Schindler and Carol Oldenburg for the executive board.

Officers and board members, along with their sponsor, Mr. Brown, will meet soon to plan activities for the coming semester.

French Paper Used by Students

Le Mot Francais, a French newspaper, will be delivered at the door of Room 40 twice a month for the reading enjoyment of the fifth hour French class. This will be carried on through the first semester at the price of 50 cents.

The paper contains a vocabulary pertaining to the styles, current events and songs. Other features of it are music, jokes and expressions.

Eleven students make up this class taught by Mrs. Calligan, modern language teacher.

Senior Counselors Confer on Class Credits

Miss Ruth Butts, girls' counselor, and George Canfield, boys' counselor, are conferring with the high school seniors to make sure they have 12 or more credits up to this year.

Sixteen credits are needed for graduation, including three years of English, one year of American history, and one semester of government.

Efforts to counsel students for their future plans are also being undertaken.

Library Club to Hold Bake Sale

The Library club with a membership of 28 held its first meeting of this season Tuesday, September 19, in the Plymouth High school library.

Don Lightfoot was elected president along with Alex Paskevich as vice president. Beverly Ross, recording secretary; Barbara Packard, corresponding secretary; Gwen Phillips, treasurer, and Ann Preston, chairman of publicity.

As a money making idea, Oliver Manwaring suggested the club put on a bake sale. A motion to that effect was made and carried, with the date to be announced later.

Donna Hunt Captains PHS Cheerleaders

Donna Hunt was elected captain of this year's cheerleading squad and Elaine Lietz, secretary. Duties of the captain are to select the cheers, call practice and to arrange for transportation.

During basketball season co-captains will be selected. The secretary keeps a record of attendance at meetings, games and practices. She also is required to take the minutes of meetings and issue demerits.

The advisor of the cheerleaders this year is Miss Dolores Lloyd, girls' gymnasium instructor.

Ecneics Elects Officers Nov. 4

Plymouth High school Ecneics Science club will have its first meeting Wednesday, November 4 when new officers will be elected and new members taken in.

A committee will be chosen by the vice president at a meeting on November 18 to set up the regular program for the school year.

The club's purpose is to increase the knowledge of science and to carry out the program of the Science Clubs of America. Anyone interested in the aims of this club can join.

Vocal Music Gets Underway at PHS

Under the direction of Fred Nelson, the Boys' Glee club, Girls' Glee club, Junior chorus, choir, Twin Trios and the Boys' quartet are preparing for the coming year. Classes are held in the Methodist church.

Girls' Glee club consists of grades 9-12 and meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 6th hour. Choir consists of both boys and girls, grades 9-12 and meets on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 5th hour; and Junior chorus consists of boys and girls grades 7 and 8 and meets Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 1st and 4th hours. Boys' quartet and Twin Trios practice during and after school hours.

At the Monday class practice for the Girls' Glee club began on "Epiphany," a capella selection by Zoltan Kodaly.

Recently, outfits for the non-formal performances were discussed. They are to be white blouses and dark skirts.

The choral group, which is to make three formal appearances, will give their first performance at Christmas time.

GAA to Hold Monthly Playday

Under the supervision of Miss Dolores Lloyd, the Girls' Athletic association met September 29.

Sally Zink, president, brought the meeting to order. Marilyn Walsh, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, and Elaine Lietz, treasurer, gave the treasurer's report. These girls were chosen last year.

The girls discussed the time to have their meetings and decided to have a playday once a month. The club will meet twice a week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and will begin the year with soccer.

Miss Lloyd has taken over Miss Virginia Olmstead's position, as girls' physical education instructor.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLDTIMERS

From the Old Timer of Frankfort, Ky. to C. M. Johns: There was one significant mistake in my handling of your recent contribution to "I Remember" in which you recalled when harvesting was done by hand and cradle and sheaves were tied by hand. The item, as it appeared in the column, said the men used to work from sunup to sundown for 75 cents to a dollar an hour! Of course, no one—not even white-collar workers—earned that much in those days. Obviously, their wages ranged from 75 cents to a dollar a day, like you said originally. Obviously!

From Jennie Garard of Bakersfield, Calif.: I remember my mother getting up early to make fresh cream pie for breakfast, or perhaps vinegar pie. Both kinds were delicious. Mother's pie drawer, holding five pies, was never empty and we kids were permitted to help ourselves upon coming home from school. This was when we lived in Indiana. Heaters are noted as great pie-eaters.

From E. E. Meredith of Fairmont, W. Va.: I remember when round packages of Arbuckle's coffee contained cards with information concerning the various states and children traded with the hope of getting every state.

Foundation Grants $81,625 For Arthritis

Grants totaling $81,625 have been made to Michigan medical colleges and hospitals for varied research projects on arthritis and rheumatism by the Michigan Chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, Henry T. Ewald, chapter chairman, announced this week.

Sterling Eaton of Plymouth, a director of the Foundation since its inception pointed out that in addition to these grants two other arthritis research projects which will have been in operation a year by the end of this November have made requests for the continuation of their research projects, and they will undoubtedly be granted by the board of directors of the Michigan Chapter. These two requests are for approximately $20,000, so that more than $100,000 will have been given in grants this fiscal year.

All the projects are financed by funds made available by the United Health and Welfare Fund of Michigan, Inc., and the United Foundation Torch Drive in Detroit and Plymouth. This is the second year that grants have been made available for research by the Michigan Chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation. During the last fiscal year grants totaling $65,846 were made available for six different research projects.

The six projects and the amount of grants are as follows: $19,000, University of Michigan Medical college; $10,500, Henry Ford hospital; $7,500 each, to Grace hospital, Wayne University Medical college-Receiving hospital, and Wayne County General hospital, and $7,000 to Providence hospital.

Hines-Owens Display Kaiser-Frazer Henry J.....

The new 1951 Henry J and Henry J DeLuxe, low-priced sedans introduced by the Kaiser-Frazer corporation, will be displayed this week by Hines and Owens, local Kaiser-Frazer dealers. Pictured above is the six-cylinder deluxe model. The new car promises exceptional fuel economy of 30 miles to the gallon. Design features include a folding rear seat arrangement which provides more than 50 cubic feet of luggage space.

The new Henry J, Kaiser-Frazer corporation's entry in the low-priced car field, will be on display this week in the showrooms of Hines and Owens, Kaiser-Frazer dealers on South Main street.

Low initial cost plus great operating economy and exceptional performance are the 1-2-3 features of the all-new Henry J sedan models.

Buyers will have a choice of the four-cylinder Henry J, and the Henry J DeLuxe, six-cylinder model offering greater styling refinements. Both engines are new high-compression "Kaiser Supersonic" L-head types. Edgar F. Kaiser, president, said prices to be about $1325 will be the lowest in America for a full size sedan, thus marking the first full scale new competition in the low priced auto market in nearly a quarter-century.

Basically, it is the car that Henry J. Kaiser, board chairman, envisioned when Kaiser-Frazer was formed in 1945. Developed on the basis of postwar engineering advances, the Henry J models profited from prior years of experimentation with 50 prototypes built under Mr. Kaiser's personal direction.

Along with specifications and road test results, the company issued an open challenge to the public to compare Henry J highway and traffic performance, and riding comfort with other makes delivering for hundreds of dollars more.

The company reported that in the most extensive pre-marketing tests ever given a new automobile the Henry J demonstrated its ability to leap from zero to 50 miles an hour in 10 seconds, and to 60 in 14 seconds.

An impartial report on remarkable operating economy was furnished earlier this month when the six-cylinder model delivered 34 miles to the gallon in gasoline mileage tests conducted by the American Automobile association. The tests, held on the recently opened New Hampshire Turnpike, were supervised by David L. Gundry of the certified test committee of the A.A.A.

Mayor on Panel at Municipal League Meeting

Mayor Cass Hough will participate in the program of the Annual Convention of the Michigan Municipal League to be held in Detroit this week. He will participate in a panel which will discuss organizing municipalities for civilian defense at a general session for all municipal officials.

The meeting of city and village officials at Detroit will mark the 52nd convention of the Municipal League since the time it was originally organized. It is anticipated that approximately 600 municipal officials will attend the three-day session.

The program includes round table discussions for officials with similar positions in different cities and villages. The program will also feature speakers on such important and diverse current problems as civilian defense, city representation on county boards of supervisors, and the planning and administration of municipal insurance programs.

A special address by Brigadier General D. F. Stace, Commanding General, Middletown Material Area, on "The Effect of AMC Contracts in Michigan" will be a special program highlight. Other special highlights of the program will include addresses by Dr. John R. Hannah, president of Michigan State college; Murray Seasongood, former mayor of Cincinnati, Ohio; Albert E. Cobo, mayor of Detroit; and gubernatorial candidates Governor G. Mennen Williams and Harry F. Kelly.

Social items can be phoned to 1755.

★ AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING" ★

Do the Thing You Fear To Do

HERE'S A MAN who says that at one time, and not so long ago, he was living virtually in a state of confusion. He found himself unable to make clean-cut, definite decisions on even minor matters. He would have his mind almost made up on a certain point, then, presto! he would begin to waver.

This man is Stewart H. Jessee, Hugo, Oklahoma.

Well, it's not surprising to hear that any man wavers today when confronted with a decision. We have so much evidence presented on each side of a question, and much of it forced, untrue. But let's go on and see what happened in the case of Stewart Jessee when he was promoted to a new job in his company. This job carried quite a lot of responsibility. He had to both plan and direct the work of others. He was quite happy when he was told he was to get this promotion. It was something he had been working toward, longing for. A step up the ladder he had set himself out to climb. He continued to be happy for a couple of months, went to work each morning with enthusiasm.

As bigger problems presented themselves, as those working under him did not always cooperate, fear seized him, he began to worry. What if he couldn't handle this job to the satisfaction of his superiors after all? What if he made some vital mistake, something which would mean a severe loss? And once he started worrying, he found it the most natural thing in the world to continue. Of course, he didn't call it worry, or fear, even though he stumbled over a decision. By and by, he lost so much confidence in his own ability to think things through that he didn't perform even the simplest of jobs well. Then the future seemed dark.

Then he read some advice made popular by the late Theodore Roosevelt. This advice ran: Do the thing you fear to do and fear will disappear. Now he realized that he was afraid to make a decision, afraid he would be wrong. So he made up his mind that he would do what seemed to him to be the right thing—and stand by whatever consequence. He would believe himself in the right and he would work to make that right come right.

Well, it was very simple after that. The first time wasn't too difficult, and each succeeding time became easier. And it was amazing how many times his decisions proved to be right. Now he knows that there was nothing the matter with him except fear and nervousness. But he might have lost a good job had he not conquered himself.

Plymouth Woman Was Among Stranded Students in Europe

Mrs. Marian Broadway Currin, former social worker, returned to her home at 11258 Wayne road last week after traveling three months in Europe.

Mrs. Currin, well known in and around Plymouth toured England, Scotland, Wales, Italy, France, Switzerland, Austria, The Netherlands and Belgium; visiting the universities and the schools with Dr. William Reitz' group from the college of education, Wayne university, Detroit. Among the highlights of the trip were the Ballet at L'Opera in Paris, an audience with the Pope, Madame Butterfly at the outdoor opera of the Caracalla Roman Bath ruins in Rome, the Magic Flute during the Mozart Music festival in Salzburg, Austria, the Passion Play at Oberammergau, Germany, Carousal at Drury Lane theater in London, and Henry VIII at the Shakespeare Memorial theater in Stratford-upon-Avon.

The climax was being stranded in London with about 60 others, six Detroiters, although the return fares had been paid in advance to the Student Travel Service of Chicago. After waiting from September 5 to 14, I.O.U.'s were signed with the Flying Tigers, Inc. for the return flight. Leaving London September 14 one engine stalled and the plane was landed at Amsterdam, Holland where they waited four days until another plane flew from New York.

Aberdeen is known as the granite city. It has many granite buildings and a granite pier approximately 2,000 feet long.

Roger Babson Says...

Babson Discusses Run-Down Farms

In view of the Korean situation I wish to repeat some advice which I have given before. It is not written for those who live in small, self-sustaining cities or rural communities. Rather, I am writing for those in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, Los Angeles, Cleveland, Baltimore, St. Louis, Boston, Pittsburgh and Washington, D. C. In some one of these cities almost every reader has relatives or friends. When World War III does come, some one or more of these 11 cities may suffer a terrible loss of life.

Readers who live in the Central West are especially fortunate and have nothing to fear. You are in "the richest in time of war" of any part of the U. S. Probably, every state has some similar safe, productive and attractive sections. Readers who live in such places should be very thankful. With the above introduction I will sail ahead.

What I Have Done
For some time my Statistical Organization has been building a branch here at New Boston, N.H. for use in case of World War III. We bought an old brick building, which we could use for offices and several nearby homes in which we could house a limited number of executives. We believe that many more business concerns in each of these vulnerable cities should do the same thing. We all owe it to our customers and clients. Most employers have summer places to which they personally could flee, but such places do not provide an emergency plant or emergency offices.

I, however, have not been content to do only this. Hence, I have been picking up some old farm houses to which the families of our employees could move. These are from one to three miles from our emergency plant at New Boston, a distance which could easily be covered with a horse and wagon if no gasoline is available! Such farm houses are well-built with all modern conveniences and can be bought for one quarter what it would cost to build them today.

How Far Away?
The authorities tell me that to be absolutely safe one should be about 60 miles away from any of the above big cities. It also is important to be in a locality where there is a bountiful supply of water, food and fuel which makes it independent of railroad transportation. This last requirement rules out many places that are good for summer residences but are not self-contained. Hence, I prefer a small acreage of fertile land which—in an emergency—could support a family. If it now has a house on it, so much the better.

I am sure that property in these large cities will decline in price and small surrounding farms will increase in price until peace is made with Russia. The purchase of such need not be considered an investment, any more than an insurance policy is an investment. Such a farm would give a family wholly dependent thereon only a meager existence. The same time and energy spent on a city job would pay three times as much as if expended on this farm—but for employees who work in a large city, it is an excellent insurance policy.

This is not a recommendation that educated young or old people try to get a living on such a farm. The experiment would probably end in disappointment. Such farms are useful as summer homes for employers and executives within commuting distance, or those who have saved or inherited a modest nest egg. This, however, is an appeal that medium-sized corporations provide not only for their owners and the business, but also for their key employees and families.

Farms as Insurance

I believe that more corporations should buy a few such farms within 20 to 60 miles of their plant. These farms should be fairly close together; they should be expected to pay only enough to compensate for maintenance and taxes. They should be furnished so each house could—in an emergency—take care of four families (with one central kitchen). I repeat: Whatever happens in Korea, there someday will be a World War III. When it comes some of the above cities will be bombed. Old employees, who have not the money to buy and maintain such places of refuge, should be protected in this way by their employers. Time to buy such farms is NOW.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The regular meeting of the Board of Education was held on September 11 at the high school. Present: Mr. Gallimore, Mr. Hulsing, Mr. Laury, Mrs. Morrow and Mr. Wesley. Absent: None.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. Wesley. The minutes of the regular meeting of August 8 and special meetings of August 17, 22, 23 were approved as read.

A discussion was carried on by members of the Board of Education and Architect Moss. Mr. Moss informed the Board that preliminary plans would be completed September 26 and final plans for approval would be presented October 2 for the gymnasium.

A report was given by Supt. Helmer Nelson on the progress of construction of the George A. Smith School.

Suggested by Mrs. Morrow that Michigan State College Horticulture Dept. be contacted for advice of landscaping grounds of the new school projects.

A discussion of the building progress of the Bird Elementary school seemed to indicate that they are ahead of schedule.

A discussion of safety officer for Route No. 112 seemed to bring out that there is a division of responsibility between the Township and City.

It was moved by Mr. Hulsing, seconded by Mr. Laury that bills to the amount of $4,276.78 be allowed. Carried.

Ayes: Mr. Gallimore, Mr. Laury, Mr. Hulsing, Mrs. Morrow and Mr. Wesley. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Laury, seconded by Mr. Gallimore that the salary schedule be extended to include Elementary Grade Principals at a salary of $4,800 with a Master's Degree.

Discussion of switchboard for schools. Mr. Wesley agreed to contact the telephone company to determine which type of service would be best and most economical for service to public.

Marrion B. Morrow, Secretary.

HAROLD YAKLEY

THE STARS

By LYN CONNELLY

MILTON BERLE may do a turn at London's famous Palladium next summer... Claudette Colbert will star in a quarter-hour daytime dramatic series on NBC... The network is also reported negotiating with film stars Loretta Young and Robert Cummings to head other daytime programs... The beloved childhood doll, Raggedy Ann, may make her debut as a video character soon... NBC brass in New York is more than casually interested in the audition platter of a week, morning show... All NBC's efforts apparently are not going into TV exclusively... A big 90-minute variety show for Sunday afternoon fare is contemplated by the net.

PLATTER CHATTER

MERCURY—"Daddy's Little Boy" is given a polished rendition by capable Eddy Howard... "They Put the Lights Out" is on the reverse... A swingy little song that is certainly different is "Cincinnati Dancing Pig" and Vic Damone does a nice job with it... He continues his fine performance on the flip with "Forbidden Love"...

... An oldie is revived effectively by Ralph Martiere in "Say It Isn't So" with another beautiful oldie, "My Silent Love," backing it.

CAPITOL—"Pennies from Heaven" is a favorite from yesteryear and Woody Herman does it justice... The band sizzles with "Sonny Speaks" on the flip... Ray Anthony does an excellent job on an instrumental, "Dixie Doodle" with the new "All of a Sudden" backing it... Peggy Lee has an exciting record in her "Lover, Come Back to Me".

COLUMBIA—Claude Thornhill's "Do I Worry" is a possible winner... "Can't We Talk It Over?" is given a sultry arrangement by Toni Arden... It's backed by "Only a Moment Ago"...

And watch "Angels Cry" by Guy Mitchell... "You're Not in My Arms Tonight" is on the flip... This is a comer.
