Mrs. Bessie Dunning and daughter Margaret break ground for what promises to be biggest department store in this section of Wayne county. It was the gift of Mrs. Dunning and her daughter some years ago which enables Plymouth to claim one of the finest library buildings in a city of this size in the state of Michigan.

Ground was broken last Thursday for the new Dunning's department store on the west side of Forest street by Mrs. Bessie Dunning. It is expected that the new building will be completed by January 1.

The modern store will be built of slag block. It will be 25 by 125 feet and an addition the same size will be built next year, making the store one of the largest department stores in the city. The addition will be constructed as soon as the lease is up on the property adjoining the store now under construction.

The front of the building will be one story with two stories in the rear. The second floor will be used for storage of stock. Margaret Dunning, manager of the store, states that no new lines of merchandise will be added until the complete building is finished next year.

Dunning's have been located on Main street for a number of years. In order to find new quarters, the Kruse company purchased four buildings on Main. The Dunning's then decided to build in the new business district on Forest street.

What I Think and Have A Right to Say
By ELTON R. EATON

THERE'S LOTS TO DO.

At a recent meeting held in the Plymouth township hall and attended by high up officials of the Regional Planning commission of Detroit, it was pointed out that unless a calamity should take place, Plymouth will be a city of more than 10,000 population within another ten years.

There was plenty of data presented at the meeting to indicate that this was a very conservative estimate. It may go several thousands higher.

And there is plenty of evidence right now to indicate that the prediction may come true before the end of another ten year period. In last week's issue of The Plymouth Mail announcement was made of another new factory for this area, an old established concern that is moving out from Detroit. When the new plant is completed, employment will be provided for not less than 550 people.

Other new factories have located in this area during the past year or so—and not one of them has been able to get all of the local help needed. Old established industries, like The Dancy, the Wall Wire Products, Pilgrim Drawn Steel, Plymouth Stamping, and others are also growing by leaps and bounds. The Allen Industries is constantly operating on a full schedule.

The city of Plymouth, and the township, too, have got a lot to do in order to keep pace with industrial expansion. The school district voted wisely a year or so ago when it bonded for three new schools. There is no question but what both the city and township will meet the situation and do the things that are necessary to provide for this big growth. But we want no "slum" areas to develop—and that is one thing to be watched most carefully.

A POLITICAL GRANDSTAND PLAY.

Now that the glamor has faded and all of the press statements have been issued, read and discarded, what was that surprise meeting between President Truman and General MacArthur arranged for way out there in the Pacific?

The President says he doesn't care what they say all he wanted was to "see MacArthur, so I went to see him," just as Franklin Roosevelt did when he was on a political hot spot. Newspaper correspondents who went to Wake Island to attend the meeting now say it was "nothing but a political grandstand play." There was no doubt, they said, but what it would help the Democrats in their present campaign.

Let's see—who was it that paid for that long trip to the mid-Pacific? The answer to that silly question is simple—we the "saph-headed" taxpayers of the country, of course.

THE DIONNE QUINTUPLETS.

They've been making quite a fuss down in New York over the Dionne quintuplets who recently visited that city for the first time. They made the visit on their 16th birthday.

Funny, but we lost interest in these girls when they turned their backs on the late Dr. DeFoe, the attending physician who saved the lives of the girls when they were born. It was Dr. DeFoe who saw them safely through the days when few believed they would live.

As they grew older, it was commonly reported they broke the heart of Dr. DeFoe by publicly shunning him. It was shortly after this affront when he died. So now when we see their pictures in the paper, we quickly turn the pages to something else.

Sunday Hunting is on Way Out

Chalk it up to the credit of some of the so-called "sportsmen" from the city of Detroit—it looks very much as though all of Wayne county will be closed next year to Sunday hunting.

Farmers have become so tired of having their fences cut, their poultry and live stock shot at, their gardens trampled over and gates left open, that they've demanded something be done about it.

As a result, Supervisor Robert Waldo of Canton township a few days ago presented a resolution to the Wayne county board of supervisors asking that steps be taken to close all of Wayne county to Sunday hunting before the next year's hunting season rolls around.

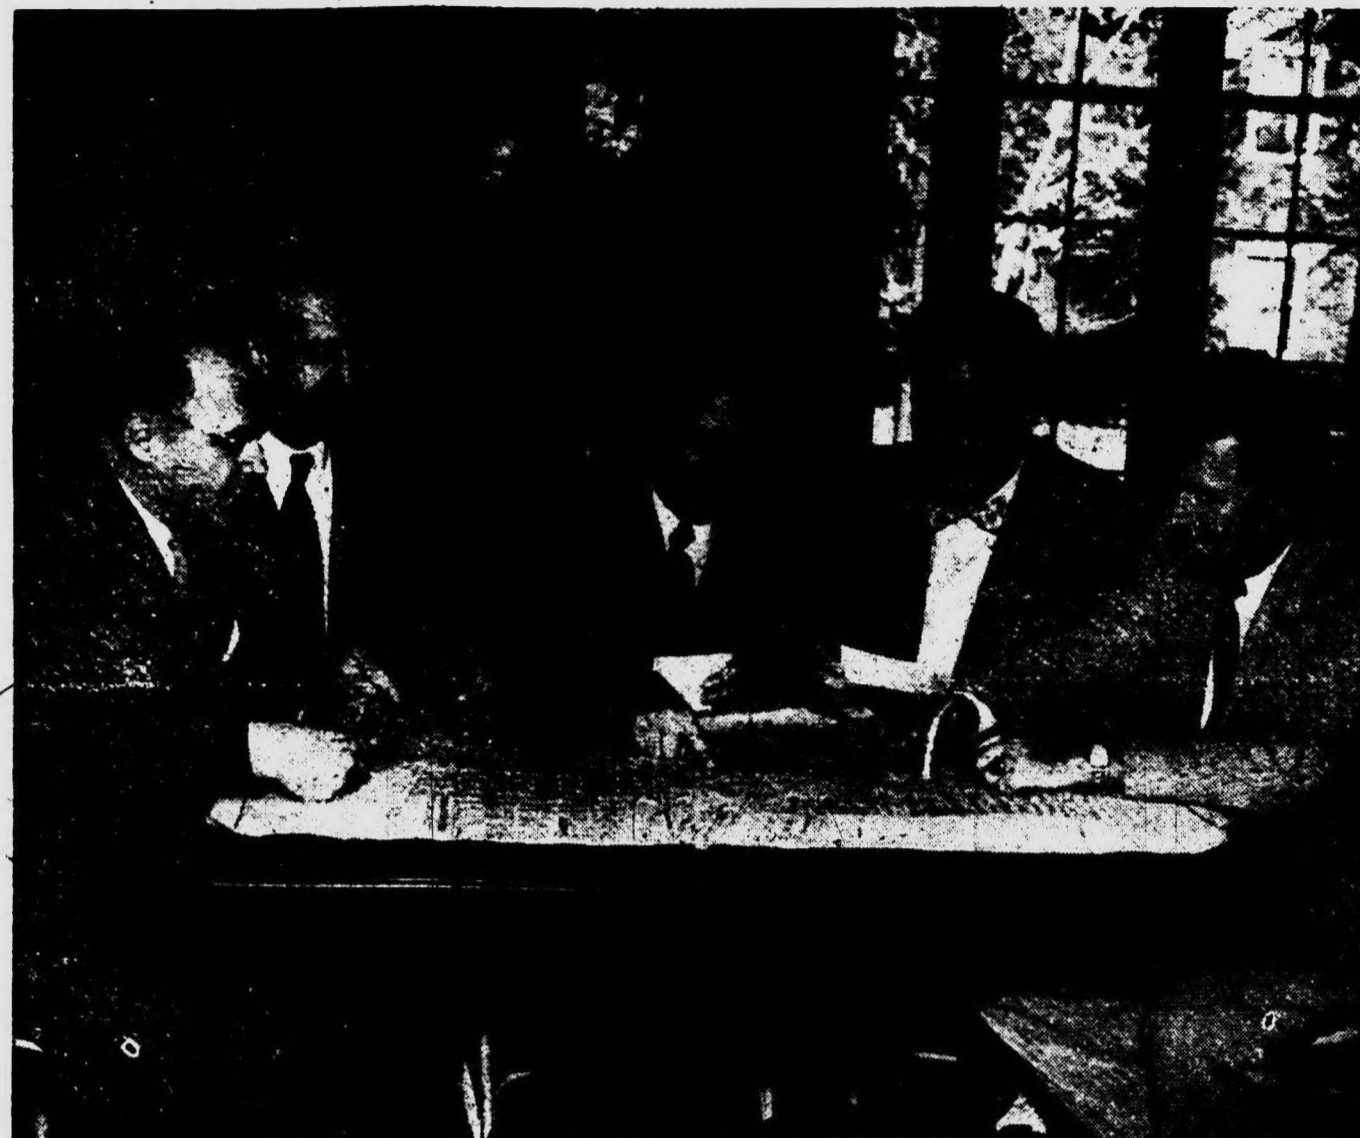

The resolution was passed with little opposition to it. While some of the townships in Wayne county are already closed to Sunday hunting, and Dearborn township permits no hunting at all within the township, this is the first step ever taken to close all of Wayne county to Sunday hunting.

Farmers place the entire blame for the hostility to Sunday hunting upon certain hordes of Detroit hunters who seem to utterly disregard the rights of property owners.

These alleged hunters, some of them wearing the arm bands of certain Detroit Sportsmen organizations, have in some cases openly defied the requests of farmers not to hunt near their buildings or near live stock.

The steps to close all of Wayne county to Sunday hunting is a direct result of this unsportsmanlike conduct on the part of certain Detroit hunters. As one farmer said, "They've asked for it, how they are going to get it."

Local Churches to Conduct Census Here.....

Pastors of eleven local churches meet this week to plan a complete census of all churches in Plymouth. The census will be conducted this Sunday, October 29, with groups from each church working on a house-to-house canvas in the afternoon. Shown zoning the city for the census are, left to right, the Rev. Melbourne Johnson of the Methodist church; the Rev. G. MacDonald Jones of the Newburg Methodist church; the Rev. Alexander Miller of St. John's Episcopal church; the Rev. William Welton of the Church of the Nazarene; the Rev. P. M. McPherson of the Church of God, and the Rev. Henry Walch of the First Presbyterian church. Others working on the census are Captain William Roberts of the Salvation Army, the Rev. William Mooney of Our Lady of Good Counsel church, the Rev. Patrick Clifford of the Calvary Baptist church, the Rev. Benjamin Eicher of the First Baptist church and the Rev. John Walasky of the Assembly of God church.

Masons Fete Knights of Columbus November 2

The first of what is hoped to be an annual event will be held November 2 when the Plymouth Rock lodge fetes the local Knights of Columbus council at 7 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. Dignitaries of both organizations are expected to be in attendance.

Community Fund Response Is Slow

Residential solicitors for the Community Fund drive were disappointed in the early results of the drive, according to Robert Stewart, drive chairman. Returns were slow in coming in, though all soliciting and call-backs were due to be completed today.

The goal of $12,000 will not be reached if contributions are not received as expected during the coming week. Results of industrial solicitation have not been determined as yet but it is believed they will equal or surpass last year's goal.

Contributions may be left at the office of the Chamber of Commerce or with Ray Williams at the Plymouth United Savings bank.

The drive being conducted by students at Plymouth High school is meeting success with $194.58 being collected thus far. The students have set a goal of $600 which must be reached by the end of the month.

Residents are reminded that the Community Fund drive will aid seven local agencies and also the United Foundation Torch Drive. The local agencies include the Boy and Girl Scouts, the Well-Baby clinic, the Salvation Army, the Veterans Memorial foundation, the Recreation commission and the Visiting Nurse association.

Child Injured by Hit-Run Driver

Pamela Kieth, 2, of 8820 Elmhurst street was injured last Friday morning by a hit and run driver as she played near her home. The child was taken to Dr. Russell Atchinson in Northville. X-rays showed no broken bones but the child's legs were bruised.

Pamela was sitting on the curb playing when the accident occurred. A playmate found her and told her mother that Pamela was hurt. There were no witnesses. Tire marks were shown distinctly on the child's legs. The Wayne County Sheriff's office is investigating.

Another instance of reckless driving in the Green Meadows area was evidenced last week-end when the car of Eugene Eicher of 9034 Elmhurst was sideswiped. The car was parked in front of the Eicher home. The fender and bumper were damaged and the fender of the other car was left lying in the street.

Rotary Collects $73 For Seeds

Following the Plymouth Rotary club's appeal for contributions for seeds to be sent to the needy farmers of the Philippines, $73 has been collected.

The campaign for funds was made by the international service committee of the club. The project was part of a nation-wide appeal to help fight Communism in the Philippine Islands. By receiving needed vegetable seeds from America, Filipino farmers will realize that others besides the Communists are interested in their welfare. The money will be sent to the Ferry-Morse Seed company in Detroit who will ship the seeds to the Philippines.

Linda Lee Women's Shop to Open on Forest December 1

A new ladies' apparel store, the Linda Lee shop, will open at 487 Forest avenue on or about December 1. The shop will be located in one of two stores now under construction on Forest. They are being built by Harry Speyer of Detroit.

The modern store will have a frontage of 25 feet, having an L-shaped display window. It will carry a complete line of women's ready-to-wear, including coats, suits, dresses, sportswear, lingerie and accessories.

The Linda Lee shops, operated by the Harry Galperin corporation, have 25 stores in Detroit. Plymouth's store will be the corporation's fourth out-of-town shop, the others being located in Pontiac, Berkley and Ann Arbor.

Personnel for the new shop will be selected in Plymouth as the company wishes to train local women to serve their outlying stores.

J. J. Elden of the Galperin corporation, in announcing the opening of the new store, states, "It has been the purpose of this organization to give the best in value and quality and workmanship hand in hand with a popular price. At the same time, we maintain our own New York office where all the newest and best merchandise is obtained as fast as it is produced so we can feature the latest fashions. We are more than proud to add the Plymouth store to our group."

Galpin Observes 23rd Anniversary

Dave Galpin celebrates his 23rd anniversary in Plymouth this week and will observe the occasion with expanding his appliance department. He has closed the retail meat department in the store but continues the locker, rental and food processing service.

Marking the store's anniversary, Galpin will give away a free candy dish to all adults who visit the store and register. No purchase will be necessary. The offer will be made, today, Friday and Saturday.

Galpin opened in Plymouth in 1927 at the corner of Main and Ann Arbor trail. The store moved to its present location on Penniman in 1937. The locker plant was opened in 1940 and in 1945 the grocery department was discontinued and the appliance business started.

Closing of the meat section enables the store to offer a more complete line and variety of appliances.

Civil Defense Council Meets

The Civil Defense Council will meet tonight, Thursday, at 8 p.m. in the city hall. All members of the council are asked to be present.

The call for volunteers under the civil defense program has not been too successful and many more are still needed before an effective program can get underway.

Russell Daane, chairman of the council, states that since the number of volunteers offering their services has been insufficient, the council may have to map out civil defense zones in the city and give assignments to residents living in the specific zones. The council originally felt that the action would not be necessary, but feel it must be done in order to insure a complete and unified program of civil defense.

Volunteers may enlist their services at city hall.

Draft Calls Five More Local Men

Five young men from Plymouth will be inducted into the army on October 30, according to an announcement made by the local selective service office.

They are John Lewis Grandson, James Walter Bookout, Michael Cicirelli, Ronald John Alder and Tony Pellerito. This is the second group of men drafted from this city.

Figures released this week reveal that a total of 15,000 men from Michigan have entered the army and air force since the start of the Korean war, and this number does not include Michigan's air force reserve personnel ordered to active duty by the Tenth Air Force at Selfridge Field Air Force base.

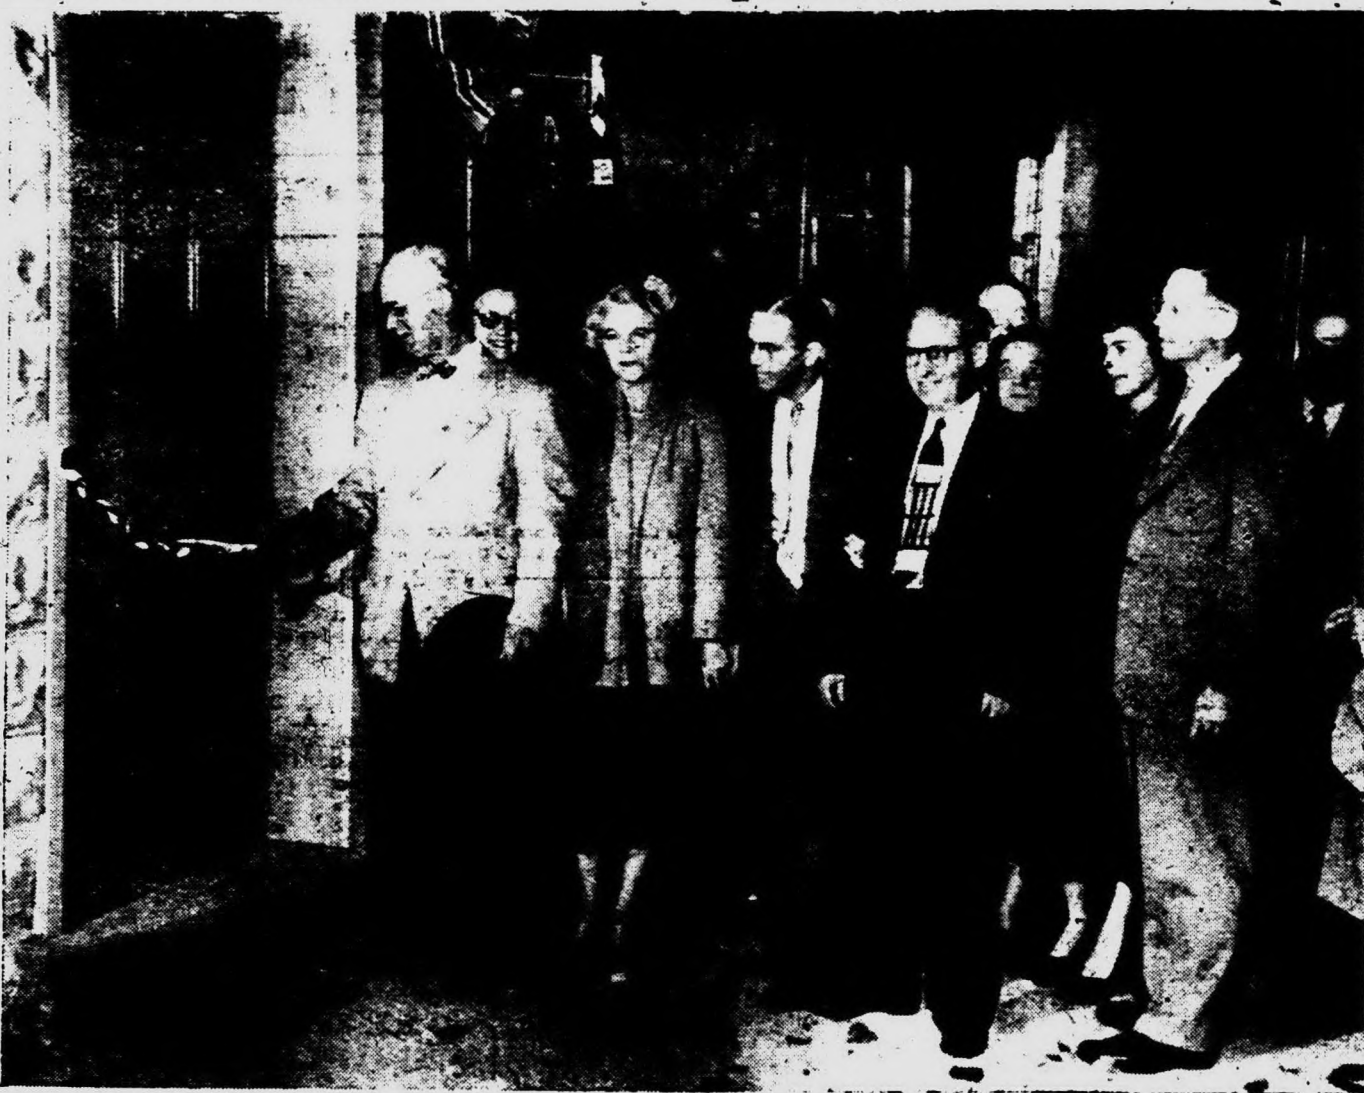

Five thousand Michigan men have voluntarily enlisted in the army and air force since June 25, the date of the outbreak of hostilities in Korea. Eight hundred reserve army officers, and 5,200 enlisted reservists have been ordered to active duty during the same period.

Dondero Talks to Women Voters

Plymouth's Veterans Memorial hall was filled Monday afternoon when the Plymouth Women's Republican club heard Congressman George A. Dondero and George A. Smith, Plymouth candidate for election as state representative from this district, make interesting addresses.

Mrs. John Henderson was enthusiastic over the excellent turn out and expressed pleasure at the interest women are showing in the campaign.

Congressman Dondero declared that the American for Democratic Action crowd, that had taken over the control of the Democratic party in Michigan has but one chief object, and that is to get rid of the un-American activities committee of congress which has been smoking out the disloyal traitors to America.

The purposes of this organization the ADA are strictly against the best interests of this country, he made it clear.

Mr. Smith discussed the amendments and their importance that are to be voted upon at the regular fall election.

The Plymouth Women's Republican organization is most active in the present campaign and hopes to be able to get out every Republican voter on election day.

mums. George Schott, Jr., soloist, sang "Because" and "Until." The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown fashioned with an embroidered bertha and a full skirt which fell to a long train. Her flowers were white shattered mums.

The 6B football league has drawn to a close for the 1950 season with the Rocks ending up in third place behind Ypsilanti and Wayne. This season has been very successful for the Rocks as they failed to win a game in the previous two years in league competition. The Rocks were in there fighting all the way and held a tie for second throughout the season before losing to Wayne in the final game of the season.

Before the season started the players on the team made up their minds that they were going to win some games and they are doing just that. The Rock teams of the last two years took quite a razzing for not winning their games and this year's team had the same trouble until they started to win. I don't think you will hear too much more of this rest of the year. You have to give the players a lot of credit for fighting out the joke about Plymouth's football team and getting some respect for their work out on the gridiron whether winning or losing.

Plymouth still has two very tough games left to play with Bentley and Northville. Tomorrow night the Rocks will play Bentley High school whose team hasn't lost a game this year. The players are all waiting for this game as a rivalry between Plymouth and Bentley is starting up.

After the Bentley game the Rocks will muster forces again to meet a powerful Northville team which hasn't lost a game either. The Mustangs are rated one of the top 10 Class "C" teams in Michigan so this should prove quite a game as Plymouth and Northville are arch rivals over the Elton R. Eaton Friendship trophy of these two schools. The Rock teams have held it for both years it has been awarded. The holder of the trophy is the school that wins three or more of the five games the schools play each year.

SALESMEN SPEAK AT C OF C COURSE

Two excellent speakers presented the main topics at the Chamber of Commerce Sales Training course, October 18, in the Plymouth High school library.

Mark Kundiff, assistant sales manager, Parke Davis & Company, started the meeting with an interesting discussion on sales technique with particular emphasis on the greeting, narrowing the selection and closing the sale. After recess, Jerome Hoefler, of the Bureau of Business Research, University of Michigan, presented the current ideas of suggestive selling, and how to "tie-in" sales of related merchandise within the store.

By CARL PETERSON

Dr. Wm. Boyd of N.Y., after a long period of lip-tugging meditation, says you can't inherit genius from your long-departed ancestors. This punctures a bevy of boasts of folks who like to claim they have a direct line to some great talent. You may be descended from Franklin, Bach, Caesar or Dickens... but your chances of repeating the old boy's successes are about as remote as finding a valuable pearl in an oyster stew. On the other mitten, the chances are you can't inherit great-grandpop's Mortimer Snerd characteristics. So, heads up... you're on your own, chum!

Here's Political News That's News

"There is more to it than just 'smoke'—this rumor that some of the old line Democrats are deserting their party which has been taken over by the ADA, an alleged left-wing group that recently seized control of the Democratic party through violence and mob action."

Miss Neva Lovewell, a life-long Democrat whose ancestors were among some of the best known Democrats in Michigan, declares that she will not "swallow the stuff they are trying to force down our throats."

It is evident, she declares, that real Democrats are not wanted. "They want something else, and as far as I am concerned, they are not going to get what they want by my vote. I am going to vote for Harry Kelly and a number of other Republican candidates, especially George A. Smith, our candidate for state representative. I am one citizen who is fearful of the situation in which this country has been dragged, and we are not going to help any in getting it out of the mess we are in by voting for those who got us into it. I am very much in favor of a complete change, as long as we no longer have a Democratic party in power," said Miss Lovewell.

Some of the Democrats hereabouts who were elected as delegates to the Wayne county district conventions are known to be passing out Kelly buttons and doing active campaigning for the Republicans.

Work Underway for Season's Supply of Christmas Trees

Although Christmas is about nine weeks away, already work is under way for this season's supply of Christmas trees, which usually amounts to a million evergreen trees, states C. A. Boyer, chief of the bureau of plant industry, Michigan Department of Agriculture.

As a protection to land owners the 1933 Michigan Legislature passed Act No. 124 known as the Christmas Tree Act, which governs the removal and transportation of both Christmas trees and evergreen boughs. This act prohibits the cutting and removal or transportation of such stock without written consent of the owner, which means a legal bill of sale must accompany the evergreens. Such a legal bill of sale shows the number of trees or amount of boughs, the exact legal description of land where they are grown and must be signed by the legal land owner and two witnesses.

The Bureau of Plant Industry is responsible for the enforcement of this Act in cooperation with the Michigan State Police, conservation officers, county sheriffs and county agricultural agents. The forms for written consent can be secured from any of these sources. As the holiday season approaches, checking stations will be established on highways leading from northern Michigan, and all persons transporting cut Christmas trees, evergreen boughs, etc. are required to stop at these stations and present a legal bill of sale and consent. In addition, free lance inspectors constantly visit the areas in northern Michigan where the Christmas trees are cut and check metropolitan areas where trees and boughs are being offered for sale. Thus, anyone cutting, transporting or selling the Christmas greens must be prepared at all times to show a legal bill of sale for the trees or boughs that he has in his possession.

The requirements for the transportation of cut trees should not be confused with those for the movement of trees, shrubs or vines with roots attached. To transplant or move trees, shrubs, etc. from one property to another, one must have a certificate showing that the plants have been inspected and found to be free of dangerous insect pests and plant diseases. Arrangements for inspection may be made by writing the Bureau of Plant Industry, State Department of Agriculture at Lansing.

MOMS

Monday night was our regular pot luck meeting. Mrs. Ellen Tritton was an honored guest for the evening as she is moving away. So sorry to lose her but we all wish her much happiness in her new home. Don't forget us, Ellen.

The state convention is being held at the Hotel Olds in Lansing October 25, 26 and 27. Those going from Plymouth Unit No. 18 are Maud Anderson, who will act as delegate for the unit, Carrie Gladstone, who has been corresponding secretary on the state board for the past year, and Mildred Hewer who is serving on the national board for the coming year.

We were all shocked and grieved at the sudden death Monday morning of one of our most beloved members, Mrs. Ada Robinson, better known to all of us as Robie. All our sympathy goes to her family in this hour of sadness. She will always be remembered in our club.

Growing Through Reading and Meditation

Lesson for October 29: Acts 17: 10-12; Philippians 4: 8-9; 1 Timothy 4: 12-16; 11 Timothy 2: 15; 6:13.

Memory Selection: Philippians 4:8.

THE PEOPLE of Berea, in the synagogue there, heard Paul and Silas "with all readiness of mind," and they examined "the scriptures daily, whether these things were so." "The scriptures" were those of the Old Testament. And "Greek women of honorable estate and of men, not a few" believed.

The memory selection is a beautiful verse. It shows the power of thought to attain unto Christian graces and virtues. Men tend to become like that on which they constantly look. As Ernest looked through a lifetime upon the Great Stone Face, he bore its image by and by. Christians who meditate upon good things will attain unto them in due time. And they who look ever to Christ will become like him.

Paul wrote Timothy to study the scriptures that he might be able to handle "aright the word of truth." And Paul's own dependence upon the scriptures is indicated in his request that Timothy bring him the books, "especially the parchments." These parchments were doubtless those of the Old Testament and one or more of the Gospels which had been recently written.

Our lesson is designed to show that spiritual growth comes through reading and meditation upon great books.

Symphony Notes

by Grace Von Bergen

The first presentation of the 1950-51 season of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra was rated one of the very best concerts to date according to many persons in the audience last Sunday. Paul T. Wagner chose an ambitious selection for a first concert but the orchestra had a "togetherness" and a professional touch in its handling of Ravel's Ma Mère L'Oye, the Promethus Overture by Beethoven and the entire Symphony No. 2 in C Major, Opus 61, by Schumann.

To Beethoven lovers the Promethus Overture was a sure-fire hit... but praise for the Ravel suite and Schumann Symphony seemed to be equally divided in the opinions expressed during the tea following the concert. The Ravel number has a dream-like quality similar to that of Debussy and the interpretations of the various numbers were easily followed. The bassoon section was outstanding in its performance. The Schumann symphony was really "big time" and where else would a concert lover expect to hear such an ambitious program by an amateur group excepting in Plymouth?

Shoshana Brooke Freedman, the dramatic soprano who appeared as soloist at this concert, was consistent with the excellence of the program. Her voice is well trained, and possesses a very captivating quality. It is well suited to the operatic number from Gounod's "Queen of Sheba" from which she chose "Plus Grand Dans Son Obscurite" followed by a waltz from "Sari" to the orchestra's accompaniment. She made a pleasing appearance in her French creation of brown lace.

Before the intermission, Frank Henderson, vice president of the Symphony society, presented a scholarship to Miss Dorothy Zander who expressed the hope that the symphony would some day be proud of her.

As usual, the concert was followed by one of the symphony teas to which the audience was invited to attend.

The society membership included many new names, and that Plymouth is a musically conscious community, there is no doubt. No wonder Dr. Harold Todd had such a broad smile.

Rev. McPhillips Speaker During Education Week

The Rev. Frank J. McPhillips, famed chaplain of the Catholic students at the University of Michigan, will address the Catholics of the Plymouth area at a meeting marking the climax of their observance of National Education Week in the hall of Our Lady of Good Counsel church on November 9, according to an announcement made by the local pastor, the Reverend William P. Mooney.

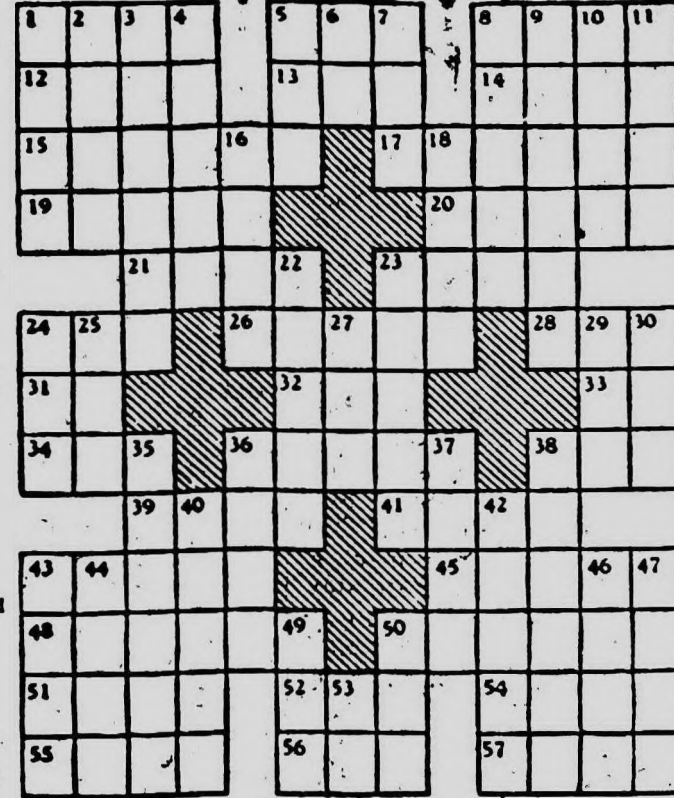

"For centuries the Catholic church, which has numbered among her faithful such celebrated scholars as Thomas Aquinas, Dante, Roger Bacon, Galvani, Pasteur and Jacques Maritain, and whose members were responsible for the founding of such renowned institutions of learning as the Universities of Rome, Bologna, Paris, Louvain, Prague, Oxford, Cambridge, Heidelberg, Leipzig and Freiburg, has been the leader in every constructive move in the field of education," Father Mooney said.

"In our own Michigan," he added, "we find that the first printing press was started by the man who later helped establish the University of Michigan and was appointed its vice president and given six of the 13 original professors - Father Gabriel Richard."

Father Mooney, under whose leadership the new Catholic school, directed by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Nazareth, was erected here last year, cited the following statistics to illustrate the devotion of Catholics to the cause of education: The school system of the archdiocese of Detroit, which includes Plymouth, is the second largest school system in the state of Michigan and the 16th largest in the entire country. Its enrollment for 1949 was over 111,000, including more than 23,500 in Catholic high schools. More boys and girls are educated in parochial schools in this archdiocese than in the combined parochial and public schools of some entire states, notably Delaware, Montana, New Hampshire, Nevada and Wyoming. To accommodate this record-breaking number of students requires 178 elementary schools and 80 high schools, located throughout seven counties in eastern Michigan, and taught by priests, three communities of brothers, 28 communities of sisters and lay teachers. By voluntarily paying the costs of a parochial school education for their children, Catholic parents of the archdiocese of Detroit save the state of Michigan over $22,000,000 in education costs each year.

Time to get those summer kinks

out of your Buick!

THERE's a change of the year for your Buick, too, its toll-in played-out lubricants, spark timing that may have slipped off a notch or two over the many miles, a carburetor that would probably give you better mileage and snap if it were properly adjusted now for fall driving.

Point is—your Buick will feel a lot friskier in the trying days to come if you let your Buick dealer get those summer kinks out of its system now! Just drive in—say you want (1) a fall tune-up and (2) a regular Lubricare—and see how much rewarded you are, for a small fee!

Do it this week, will you? Before the rush, you can be served more promptly.

Plymouth Cross Country Squad Downs Wayne 21-36 For Fifth League Win

John Balogh Again Scores Top Honors

The Plymouth cross country squad won their fifth league meet as they downed Wayne 21-36. For the fourth time this year John Balogh of Plymouth came in first. Tom Beaver, who has been improving steadily since he quit the football squad, came in third and second for the Rocks.

Friday, November 27 the league cross country meet will be held at Ypsilanti starting at 3 p.m. This meet will decide the winner of the 6B league. Plymouth has a good chance to win the meet as they have defeated all the league schools but Coach Moiso is worried about Ypsilanti more than the other schools as the Braves are used to the course and have some good runners.

Each school is allowed to enter seven men. The ones from Plymouth will be John Balogh, Bob Davis, Dave Green, Dick Rucinski, Ron Beaver, Paul Briolat and the seventh will be between Dan Green and Dick Joachim who have been neck and neck in the last few meets.

Rocks Lose to Wayne Zebras 13-7; Finish Up Third in B League

The Plymouth Rock football squad lost out in its race for second place to Wayne Friday as the powerful Zebras downed Plymouth 13-7. This game, the last league game, broke the tie that the teams held most of the season.

While losing the game the Rocks played well but just couldn't hold the hard charging backs. The starting lineup for the game was as follows. At ends were Charlie Stark and Dick Cramb, at tackles were Gary Sockow and John Britcher, at guards were Bob Keeney and Jack Robinson and at center Bob Gow. In the backfield were George Hunter, Phil Jacobus, Ron Davis and Dave Travis.

Wayne received the ball first as Gow kicked to the 20 with Wayne coming back to the 38 with Robinson making the tackle. Wayne's first play was a line plunge that picked up 9 yards. On the second play they made it a first down on another line plunge. Wayne kept rolling to the Rock's 30 where they were stopped with a 15 yard penalty. Ross Diaz was hurt on the preceding play and was taken to the doctor with a broken nose. On the next play the Wayne backfield got mixed up and fumbled the ball and recovered it after losing six yards as Sockow made the tackle.

This stalled Wayne's drive and the Rocks took over. As in the Trenton game, Plymouth pulled a sleeper play in the first few plays but this time the ball just sailed over Runge's hands. The Zebras held the Rocks forcing them to punt. Here Plymouth got a break as the safety fumbled the ball and Robinson and Travis recovered the ball on the 47. Again the Wayne line held, forcing Hunter to kick. It was a bad punt going out of bounds on the line of scrimmage.

Wayne picked up a first down on the Rock 30. On the next play Charlie Stark made a neat tackle as he came through the line to throw Wayne for a 7 yard loss. The Zebras punted here making it a good one as the ball went out of bounds on Plymouth's 6 yard line. Wayne was handed a 5 yard penalty before Plymouth fumbled the ball and Wayne recovered on the 20. Wayne started the second quarter with another five yard penalty. Plymouth's line dug in here and stopped the Zebras drive. On the last down Ron Davis made sure that it wouldn't be another first down as he threw Wayne for a yard loss.

Plymouth took over here with Jacobus picking up 3 yards. On fourth down the Rocks were in punt formation when Lanphear fumbled the pass from center and recovered it on the 7 yard line. Wayne made it down to the 1 foot line in three plays and on fourth down they plunged over for a touchdown. The conversion was good making it seven points.

Plymouth started to roll after the kickoff which went to the 38. Jacobus threw a nice pass to Travis good to the Wayne 35. A 15 yard penalty set them back but the Rocks picked it up again to the 38. Hunter then passed to Runge good to the 18. Runge finally found pay dirt on another pass from Jacobus. Bob Gow's kick was good but the Rocks were penalized 5 yards on the play forcing them to kick over. This time the kick was no good leaving the score 7-6.

Wayne started a drive after the Rocks touchdown starting from their 33. A Zebra pass was good to the Rocks 45. A line play picked up some more but Wayne was penalized 15 yards putting them back on the 50. Another Zebra pass was good to the 15 and the half ended with Wayne on the 10 yard line.

Plymouth received the kickoff in the second half with Cramb coming back to the 32. Wayne held Plymouth, to the Rocks advantage, as they punted and the Zebras fumbled the ball with Bill Runge recovering on the 40. Again Plymouth was forced to kick, this time to the 12. Robinson broke in on Wayne's first play and put them back to the 10 on a two yard loss. Plymouth held Wayne making them kick to the 50 with Travis coming back to the 45. Plymouth picked up a first down before fumbling with the Zebras recovering the ball. Plymouth held Wayne again forcing them to punt to the Rock 15. Here the teams put on an exhibition of kicking as Lanphear kicked to the 35. Wayne kicked back to the 10 and Lanphear punted back to the 45 again. Wayne was thrown for a two yard loss here as Zurkosky broke through. This made Wayne punt again to the 15. Plymouth tried a pass here but Wayne intercepted on the 35 and made it a first down on the 13. On fourth down Wayne needed two yards for the first down which they just made. A five yard penalty to Wayne saved the Rocks for awhile but Wayne made good on a pass for a touchdown. Wayne's conversion was good but the line was offside making them kick over again. This time it was no good with the score remaining 13-6 with 2 minutes left.

After the kickoff the Rocks took to the air, to no avail, however, as four passes were no good. Plymouth held Wayne as they took over and had time for one more play which was a pass intercepted by Wayne to end the game. Friday the Rocks will play

Got Limit of Big Ducks on Opening Day of Season Up on Saginaw Bay

It was just "good luck" and not selective hunting that resulted in Russell Powell and Jack Selle, two well known Plymouth hunters, bringing home with them from Saginaw bay eight big ducks—all BIG ducks.

"We saw lots of others of smaller variety, but it just seemed that only the big ones came near our decoys," said Russell and Jack in unison as they told of their hunting experiences.

These two hunters with several others from Plymouth, have hunted Saginaw bay for years. Both declare that there seem to be more ducks in Saginaw bay this year than ever before.

(Editors note—As a matter of fact these hunters, as well as some others who have been up to Saginaw bay in the past few days, haven't brought home their limit. Their excuse—not flying. The facts, bum shooting.)

Bentley at Plymouth. This will be the Rocks' homecoming game. The Rocks final game will be with Northville a week from Friday.

Fishing Licenses Good 'Till Dec. 31

That fishing license does not expire until December 31, the conservation department reminds anglers inclined to end the season when fall hunting begins.

In fact fishermen who "mothball" their gear when autumn arrives are missing some of the best fishing of the year, the department emphasizes.

Pet tackle and fishing methods are as varied as the stories fishermen tell but the fall angler usually will not go wrong if he sticks to equipment and methods successfully used during the summer. When results suggest experimenting, the angler then can run through his bag of fishing tricks to find the combination which means fish in the creel.

Water temperatures are more uniform at this time of the year, permitting fish to range more freely near the surface. Water temperatures react slowly to changes in the air temperature. Day fishing is good advice although some still favor early morning and late evening hours in the fall. Barring streaks of warm weather, heavier clothing is in order. Some sportsmen make hunting clothes do double duty.

While the regular trout season is closed, the department notes that over 160 lakes, ponds and portions of streams in 51 counties remain open for hook and line rainbow fishing through November 30. And anglers can continue to take black bass through December 31 while panfish, pike, muskies and other fish listed in the fish law digest are legal hook and line targets in all or nearly all waters, beyond December.

List of rainbow trout waters which are open can be obtained from the local conservation officer and at department headquarters and field offices.

AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING"

Maybe You Haven't Lived

HERE'S A TOUCHING STORY from A. R. Murfotan, New Plymouth, New Zealand. It is the kind of story that makes me want to make this column better and better. You will know why as you read. I quote Mr. Murfotan:

"If anyone had asked me a few weeks ago, what sort of a man I was, the reply probably would have run something like this: 'I am a normal sort of a chap who makes the best of things, and though my wife and I have our differences, we have managed to stick together for nearly 30 years.'

Carnegie

"Yes, that is what I would have said a few weeks ago, but that is not what I say now. I thought I was trying to make the best of things, but it is as if I were doing so with my eyes closed. After serving in the last war, I managed to carry on at my pre-war occupation for two years, then I was sent to the hospital with acute coronary thrombosis. It was a bad show and when I left the hospital I was told I'd never work again. From the past two wars, for I served in both, I have collected disabilities amounting to 145 per cent.

"Then I read some of your columns and learned how other men suffered and how they pulled through, under a great variety of difficulties, and I realized that for all these years I haven't been living at all. I was either living in the past, worrying over lost opportunities, or else wondering and worrying about what the future held for me. I certainly had not lived.

"But now I have begun to live. I sleep like a log. One morning when my wife brought my breakfast to bed, I realized that she was virtually a stranger to me; that for nearly 30 years I had taken her for granted. Suddenly I decided that I was going to make her acquaintance, that what time remains for us to be together, is going to be real. There is only 'today' and every today is going to count.

"I once wrote of my experiences and called it 'And Things Came Right'. I now see that things never would have come right if I had continued to face them as I had been doing. But things are started right now."

If Mr. Murfotan has made even one of you readers know the value of living for the day, of looking yourself over and deciding to live not only for yourself but for others, what he has written will be so valuable that one couldn't afford the space in this paper to tell about it.

City Needs More Scout Leaders

An appeal was sent out this week by leaders of Plymouth Boy and Girl Scout groups for leaders of Brownie and Cub Scout packs. A group of Cub Scouts was organized at Starkweather school last year but is inactive at the present time because a leader cannot be found to take over activities.

If enough leaders can be obtained Scouting groups will be formed for the pupils of the new George A. Smith school. Proper training for the packs will be given anyone interested in taking over this worthwhile work.

Adults interested in Scout leadership should call Mrs. James Latture at 1146-J.

Church Teachers to Confer Here

"Developing a Christian Education Program in the Local Church" is the topic of the main address to be given by the Rev. George E. Riday of the Detroit Baptist Missionary Society at the Northwest Wayne Church School Worker's conference this Saturday.

The conference will be held in the First Presbyterian church. A series of age-group meetings will be conducted in the morning and in the afternoon Miss Elizabeth Bullock will speak on "Worship in the Church School." Another speaker on the program is Miss Viola Currie whose topic is "Visual Education in the Local Church."

Valrance-Ahrens Nuptials Read in Candlelight Ceremony

The Bushnell Congregational church was the scene of the candlelight ceremony last Saturday, October 21, uniting Miss Mary Lou Ahrens in marriage to George Hurd Valrance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hurd Telford Valrance.

Mary Lou, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitters Ahrens, was given in marriage by her father.

The Rev. John B. Forsyth performed the 8 o'clock rites following the singing of the "Lord's Prayer" and "I Love But Thee" by the soloist.

The bride was lovely in a gown of blush satin and carried a white satin covered prayer book centered with white orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Louis Jones, a sister of the bride, wore a gown of old rose velvet in waltz length and carried a muff of the same material centered with orchids and ivy. Her slippers were of matching color.

For her bridesmaids, Mary Lou chose Miss Barbara Mitchell and Miss Eleanor Harger. Their gowns of beauty and burgundy with matching muffs were similar to that of the matron of honor. They also had orchids and ivy centered on their muffs.

The best man was James Valrance, brother of the bridegroom, and ushers were Hugh Harsha, James Thornton, James Clark and Donald Shely.

Mrs. Ahrens was gowned in grey lace with royal blue accessories and an orchid corsage, and Mrs. Valrance chose burgundy crepe with a jeweled mauve hat and matching corsage of mums and gladioli buds.

A reception for 35 guests was held at Fellowship Hall Congregational church following the ceremony.

Mrs. Ahrens chose a suit of navy and rose plaid with navy accessories for her wedding trip which will take the young couple into northern Michigan.

Both are graduates of Albion college, Mrs. Ahrens being affil-

Local Women to Form Branch of A. A. U. W. Here

Twenty-one women representing 12 colleges met at the home of Mrs. John Paul Morrow on Thursday, October 19, to discuss the local interest in the formation of a branch of the American Association of University Women, commonly known as the AAUW.

Mrs. Roy Bradstrum, a state vice president, was present to discuss the aims of such a group and to help with the organizing.

The second meeting of the group will be held November 21 at the home of Edna M. Allen.

The AAUW was formed in 1882 by a group of women who believed that women could do what they called "practical work in education" and could take an interest in opportunities for women everywhere. At the present there are 111,100 members. Since these are concerned with women's part in meeting the problems of the day, but particularly in education, the branch activities should be helpful to both the individual and the community.

Anyone who is a graduate of a college accredited by the AAUW or who has been two full years in such a college is eligible for membership.

Hints For Plymouth Homemakers

Inexpensive Evaporated Milk Useful in Variety of Recipes

Many Plymouth homemakers who realize how important to good health is a generous amount of milk are greatly disturbed by the announcement of higher cost of the fresh product. It's particularly distressing at the time when increased income tax makes greater economies necessary all along the line.

It's tempting to reduce milk consumption, but that's an extremely unwise solution to the problem. Without the use of approximately a quart of milk daily for children and pregnant and nursing women and three cups for other adults, we're likely to fall far short of food elements essential to good health.

Milk is our best means of getting the calcium our bodies need. This material is required for building strong bones and good teeth. For this special purpose it must be supplied generously to growing children, expectant mothers and those who nurse their babies.

It's been found that even after growth is completed, an abundance of calcium in the diet keeps bones strong. Adults who use milk as a regular part of their meals are less likely to develop the round shoulders and bowed

THE MONTH WITH AN "R"
Thank goodness October is a month with an "R" in it. Traditionally oysters are in the market from September through April. Gastronomically speaking, oyster stew is in season as soon as there is a crisp cold nip in the air.

Secret of Good Stew
Most everyone knows that the secret of good oyster stew is simply to cook the undrained oysters for two to three minutes in lots of butter or margarine. When the edges begin to curl, combine with scalded milk. Season with salt and pepper. Serve piping hot.

Tender Oysters?
Oysters are bound to be tender if they are not overcooked. The liquor is full of flavor—don't drain it off!

Banquet or Supper
Oysters have added a note of luxury and festivity to the meal through the centuries, from the extravagant Roman banquet to the present day Sunday night supper.

Oyster Kabobs
For a touch of sophistication serve Oyster Kabobs for supper the next time you have company.

1 pint oysters
6 slices bacon
4 tomatoes
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Cut bacon in two inch pieces. Place slice of bacon, an oyster, and a thick slice of tomato on skewers. Repeat, leaving a little space between bacon, oyster and tomato on the skewer. Place skewers across baking dish. Bake in very hot oven (500° F.) for 15 to 20 minutes or until bacon is crisp.

Yield: 6 servings.

Freshness Is Important!
Plan to buy oysters no more than one to two days in advance and keep them refrigerated until they are served.

HALLOWE'EN FAMILY STYLE

It's a Halloween dinner for the family centered with a sumptuous pork loin. The clever garnishes for the roast platter are sweet potato balls rolled in bran. Hollowed oranges with pumpkin faces are filled with fruit for the dinner salad.

Here's Tricks and Treats for Family's Halloween Dinner

Weird witches and ghostly goblins are not necessarily reserved for the children's Halloween. Bring Halloween to the family table.

We suggest a dinner on October 31 full of fun and frivolity and brought down to earth with plain good food.

Youngsters can help mother prepare "punkin" salads. These miniature "pumpkins" are cleverly constructed from hollowed oranges. Simply use your carving ability to produce freakish and laughable expressions. Perhaps tuck a cherry in one for a big red nose. Fill the baby pumpkins with gay pineapple slices, seedless grapes and cherries. You can even clip a few tree leaves to place under the salads.

For the main course serve roasted-to-perfection pork loin. The result is obtained by placing the pork loin in an open roasting pan and cooking in a 350 degrees F. oven for 35 to 40 minutes per pound. The roasting pan is left uncovered and no water is added. A surprising garnish will be sweet potato balls rolled in bran, lining either side of the roast. With the pork and sweet potatoes include julienne green beans and corn sticks.

Dessert, also, reveals shades of Halloween—a rich chocolate layer cake completely covered with a bright orange tinted frosting. Bring the cake to the table with the center top displaying a chocolate designed pumpkin.

An overheated oven can be cooled quickly by putting one or two pans of cold water in it.

For the first time in over two years, skipped away over the weekend to attend the fall meeting of the Michigan Outdoor Writers Association held up in Manistee. For your information the name of "Outdoor Writers" covers a pretty wide latitude. It makes possible an association of newspaper editors, magazine writers, lecturers and others who by radio, television or pictures, do what they can to promote proper conservation of our natural resources.

The words "natural resources" is also a pretty broad expression. It covers such subjects as timber conservation, reforestation, elimination of stream pollution, protection of both plant and wild life and the development of new methods of restoring that which thoughtless generations of the past have destroyed.

Just at present the most important subject is the problem of saving for future generations some of the game, fish and wild fowl of Michigan and the rest of the country.

It didn't shock many of those present when that high-type typical old southern gentleman, J. Hammond Brown, of the Baltimore News-Post, who is at present serving as president of the National Outdoor Writers Association, told some 75 of more Michigan writers that no one can rightly expect that hunting and fishing will ever be as good in the future as it has been in the past.

Saturday evening's program was made a sort of night for Michigan weekly newspaper editors who do a lot of writing and thinking about conservation problems. Don Gillies, well-known Detroit Times outdoor writer, who is president of the Michigan Outdoor Writers Association, paid tribute to the work of editors of small city and country town publications. He pointed out that their efforts in conservation work was just as important, and in fact some cases more so, than were the efforts of the big-town publications.

It was Mr. Brown who declared that the future of various writers and conservation organizations rested directly upon the shoulders of the more numerous so-called country editors.

Some seven or eight of the rural editors present made brief addresses—and all of them urged more energetic efforts in proper conservation work.

Manistee, one of the best known of the historic lumbering cities of Michigan, is determined that its fame shall not die. While it one time boasted of having 27 or 28 of the biggest sawmills in Michigan and more millionaires living there some two generations ago than lived in Detroit, it can now boast of being the state's best glad-hand city. If every organization that holds a convention in Manistee receives the same kind of treatment accorded the 70 or 75 members of the Michigan Outdoor Writers

Association, Manistee can rightly claim "tops" in convention cordiality. Every visitor at the meeting had only words of highest praise for Manistee, a once prosperous city that got a terrific bump when the lumbering industry faded out. No municipality with the spirit possessed by Manistee can ever die and this hustling community up on the shores of beautiful Lake Michigan is again on the upward swing. Mark it down in your book that a city possessed of the spirit of Manistee will always be both a progressive and an important community of a great state.

Do you happen to know that Manistee right now provides more table salt for use in America than any other place in the world? Some of its salt mines are over a mile deep. The quality of Manistee salt is regarded as the best.

When a big pulp mill located on the Manistee river decided to change one of its production methods, it consulted with the Michigan Stream Control Commission as to what its effects might be if the refuse was dumped into the Manistee river. The commission made an investigation and reported that no harm would result. But it didn't figure on what the temperature of the air might do. The upshot of it was that thousands of fish died when the weather suddenly turned hot one day early last spring. Without a protest of any kind, and in full cooperation with the state, the pulp company is now laying a big pipe line under the Manistee river to carry its refuse to a place a mile or so from the mill where it will be disposed of without contaminating any lake or stream.

James Crowe, Lansing correspondent of the Associated Press who writes thousands of words each week about conservation, declares that newspapers have got to give more and more space to conservation. If they don't, there will be nothing left to conserve, he declares. "Jim" is one of Michigan's most ardent conservation advocates.

Do you know of anything more delightful on a bright sunny fall day than a steak roast on the banks of a river of clear, sparkling water, where pine trees along its shore have seemingly been set in such a way as to emphasize the beauty of the leaves of maple, aspen, oak, turned into all colors of the rainbow by early fall frosts? That event was just one of many provided by the good citizens of Manistee for the visitors—and a busy business man named Chas. Boyer did the roasting—to a queen's taste.

The Century Boat company, one of Manistee's important industries, is just now operating its big plant to full capacity producing its new line of boats for the 1951 market. A pre-view and trial of one of these new high-powered crafts, provided plenty of evidence that other boat companies will have to do some tall stepping to produce anything better. The new boats are not only "swell" looking, but that ride and handle with all of the ease found in the latest automobile models.

Eugene D. Emunson is the name of the secretary of the Manistee Chamber of Commerce. Why some city of a hundred, two hundred or half a million population hasn't snatched him out of his present job is something we can't figure out. He's about as live-a-wire chamber of commerce worker as we have ever met. Apparently the secret of his success is his ability to work and great folks in the way they should be. This young hustler will go places in his chosen field of activities, there is no question about that.

Back in the days when millionaires were being made overnight by denuding Michigan forests of their virgin pine, some of these old lumberjacks who became suddenly rich had difficulty in finding ways to spend their money. One of them decided he would outdo his neighbors up in Manistee, so he had a gold plated bath tub installed in his house. His wife decided that just a gold plated bath tub was not enough, so they had their door-knobs made of gold. The house still stands but it is stated that the gold "fixings" are no longer there.

John Kruse has been state representative for the Manistee district for a number of years. He says that if he is elected to the house for another term that he will next seek the senatorial nomination from his district, which would be a good spot for him as well as his district. Why? Well John happens to be one of those fellows who is loyal to his district and its interests that isn't quite safe to cross his path if you should happen to think otherwise. The writer trampled on "dangerous ground the other night when he asked John just how it happened that Manistee's population showed a slight decrease during the last ten year period.

"Well that's easy to answer," said John, "and we have already decided to cure it. You see back some years ago we used to raise eight, ten or twelve children to a family. Then came along some of these new fangled ideas out of Washington and some of our folks got caught in the swim and thought it was a public duty not to raise such big families. Instead of having a dozen children or so in every family, we began raising only one or two or maybe three children to a family. That's what caused our population to shrink. But we have seen the error in following a lot of these foolish ideas coming from these new fangled deals in Washington, so we've decided to go back to raising the kind of families we did in the good old days. That's about all there is to it. But you watch out the next census," added John.

Among the guests at the Manistee meeting was Charles Helin, the man who invented and is now manufacturing the most popular fish bait ever put on the market. Among fishermen it is known as the "Flatfish." So popular has it become in recent years that the two Helin factories, one located in Detroit and the other in Canada, are producing hundreds of thousands of this artificial bait every year.

But to the writer the most interesting thing about the visit of this famous bait manufacturer to the Manistee meeting was the discovery that he lived in Plymouth when a youngster and went to Plymouth schools. He left Plymouth when his parents moved to Detroit.

"It's been so many years ago that I remember just one name in Plymouth. It was the Schrader family. A Schrader girl named Gladys was in my room. I thought then that she was about the prettiest girl in the whole school. Some day I'm going to find time to come out and look the old town over," he said. Gladys Schrader, the "prettiest girl" he mentioned is now Mrs. Lyle Prescott of Dixon, Illinois.

Turned off U. S. 16 just south of Ionia when going north. Made most of the trip over U. S. 66, which runs almost directly from Ionia to the Straits of Mackinaw. Never drove over a Michigan trunk line road that had so little traffic on it as this one. Back in the old days, they used to say around Lansing that this road was Fred Green's private highway to northern Michigan. Critics even went so far as to say that he had it built because his dog kennel was located on the road some 75 or 80 miles north of Ionia. He wanted the road built so he could not only have a good road up to his dog kennel but to northern Michigan as well, a road direct from his home to the place he wanted to go to. The story may and may not be true. But it's a good road to travel if you are going up to northwestern Michigan and want to escape a lot of traffic such as you will find on U. S. 27.

Win Kuehl is one of the editors of the Manistee News Advocate, a very good daily newspaper published in Manistee. Win is one of those newspaper workers who seems able to find time to do everything under the sun. He writes a full page of conservation news once every week, takes an active interest in various Manistee organizations and some how finds time to do a lot of hunting and fishing. He, too, is one of those loyal sons of Manistee who would kick a fellow in the shins just like that if he said something that didn't sound good for Manistee.

Rode up north with Murl DeFoe, editor of the Charlotte Republican-Tribune. After spending several hours damning the Truman political mob of racketeers, bunglers and misfits, thought we'd talk about a more pleasant subject—the automobile. It was news to me when Editor DeFoe said it was R. E. Olds, the famed auto manufacturer who died recently, who installed the first gas engine used by the Charlotte paper in running its presses. "My associate in the Republican-Tribune, Mr. McGrath, when he bought the gas engine had heard that a fellow named Olds over in Lansing knew just how to install it as it should be. So Mr. Olds who was then just an ordinary worker, came over to Charlotte and hooked up that old gas engine which for years ran our presses," said Editor DeFoe. It was a few years later when Mr. Olds began his automobile career which ended in him becoming one of America's most famous auto manufacturers.

Plans Program For Guidance Workers Meet

George W. Canfield, director of guidance for Plymouth public schools, is program chairman for the annual Counselors Conference to be held November 1 at Michigan State college. Over 400 guidance workers are expected to attend the conference which is again being sponsored by the Michigan Counselors Association and the Institute of Counseling, Testing and Guidance.

The conference theme is "Growing on the Job." Mr. Canfield and his committee faced a real challenge to plan a program comparable to the programs of the three previous meetings. They announce that this year they believe they have selected a program that has the earmarks of one of the best to date.

Dr. John Hannah, president of Michigan State college, is scheduled to open the conference speaking on the topic "Michigan State Opens Its Doors."

The keynote address this year is to be given by a former Michigan counselor, Campbell Beard. Many guidance people will remember him as chief of the counseling division of the Michigan Employment Service. He is the present executive secretary of National Vocational Guidance Association with offices in Washington, D. C. and is the editor of the organization's official publication, "Occupations."

To interpret present trends in the training of counselors, Dr. Walter F. Johnson of Michigan State college was invited to review this important area of information to all guidance workers. Dr. Johnson, a member of the Michigan Counselors Association, has headed the division on appraisal, counseling and instruction of the National Vocational Guidance Association and is an active member of the American Psychological Association.

The third major speaker on the program is Dr. Forrest Kirkpatrick, dean of students, Bethany college, Bethany, West Virginia. He has a national reputation as an amusing speaker and has spent his entire professional career in some type of personnel work. During World War II he was director of personnel, Radio Corporation of America, resigning in the position following the end of the conflict to return to pupil personnel activities.

Library Has New Reference Books

The Plymouth High school library offers for the convenience of the students a new set of reference books called "The Album of American History" in five volumes. The information in these books covers the years 1492-1917. Also received were some new editions of "Rand-McNally World Atlas," one copy of which will be distributed to each of the schools.

The first volume of the album is about the colonial period; the second volume covers the years 1783-1853; and the third, 1853-1893, these years having to do with the development of the New West. The fourth and final volume is about the automobile and radio, and the famous men who made history up to 1917. Volume five is an index to the entire set.

Any students wishing to use the books may do so at any time in the library. They will not be permitted to leave the library due to their reference value to students and teachers.

Freshmen Hold Skating Party

Rollball, a skating party for grades 9-12 sponsored by the freshmen class, took place at the Riverside Arena last Thursday, from 7 to 10 p.m.

A floor show added to the entertainment. Buses left the high school at 6:45 p.m. and left the rink at 10 p.m.

75 Enrolled in Training Course

Approximately 75 students enrolled in the Occupational Training course supervised by Carvel Bentley.

Of this number, 45 are seniors and the rest are 10th and 11th graders. A student enrolled in this class must work at least 20 hours a week to receive one credit a year.

Trade study, which is a class, is devoted to learning more about the particular occupation that interests the student.

In addition to his high school diploma the student receives an achievement record and diploma signed by his employer and school officials showing his progress. This will help the student when applying for a job.

Typing Class Has Honor Roll

Twenty-five highest students with A or B grades are chosen each week in Edgar Brown's typing class for a class honor roll.

As of today it has taken an average of 32 words a minute to receive a position on this honor roll.

An enrollment of 140 students in typing alone exceeds that of most courses which are not compulsory. Students seem to realize the need for neater work, which they accomplish by means of typing. Thirty-two students are also in advanced typing with the hope of securing an office position.

Appoint Junior Ring Committee

Heading this year's junior class ring committee is Betty Salmon, assisted by four girls and four boys. They will meet with a representative of the Terryberry company who will discuss samples with them.

VFW News

The next hospital trip for Auxiliary members will be on Saturday, October 28. Those who were not at the meeting to sign up and who would like to go are asked to call Mrs. Chas. Thompson at 1279-W, so that she can arrange for transportation. Your help is urgently needed in this work.

Mrs. Robert Van Mefer, Mrs. Edward Olson and Mrs. Roy Warner were initiated into membership at the last meeting of the Auxiliary.

Twelve Auxiliary members participated in soliciting funds for the Community Chest Fund drive which opened October 17 and continued until Tuesday, October 24. The Veterans group undertook a house-to-house canvass this year of the outlying districts in the township. The VFW has Green Meadows and workers have reported a good response, so far.

Roger Babson Says...

Babson Looks Ahead 40 Years

I am coming to the conclusion that historians of the future will write off the whole twentieth century as a century of uncertainty, confusion and continuous warfare. Our salvation lies in human research and the discovery of natural laws which govern the interactions of men and obtain for us a free power from gravity or the sun, not from atomic energy.

Our Culture Too Materialistic
One of my able business associates believes that only a great new revolution, such as the application of atomic energy to industry, would bring about peace by diverting men's minds to new fields of endeavor. My friend may be right, but I think he has overlooked the fact that we have already progressed so fast technologically that we have been unable to keep pace spiritually.

Our worship of machines, gadgets and amusements has created for us a very "comfortable" push button existence. It has, at the same time, drained off our best brains into physical - scientific pursuits and left undeveloped the whole science of man. The common man is beginning to feel the pinch of this mistake. This country has given all kinds of economic aids to its workers such as better homes, larger bank accounts, more automobiles, and radios, health insurance, pensions, etc. Yet, I doubt if there ever was a time in history when men felt less secure and more confused.

Men Must Study Man
One of the reasons why the Eastern and Western Worlds are at war today is because the citizens of these nations are materialistic, uncertain and apathetic. Their respective ideologies have not given them what they expected. In war, the immediate goal is to win the war. We expect hardships; we endure them. In peace, we expect something else. Like the little child, if a nation does not get what it expects, the nation has a temper tantrum.

I predict that before we can have peace in the world, men must study man and develop a science for living. But this costs money, and we must be as willing and eager to devote as many billions to this type of research as we are to atom bombs, 100 inch telescopes, electronics and the like. We must discover what environment stimuli and idealized goals are universally acceptable and zealously followed. What the U. S. and much of the rest of the world needs is NOT a better five cent cigar, but a better "five cent" religion which will be understood by everyone, which is honest, dynamic, specific and scientifically sound.

Changing Human Nature
I can hear the out and out pessimists and defeatists warning:

"You can't change human nature." Admittedly, we can't change God's physical laws, but by understanding His laws we can and we have changed the face of the earth quite remarkably. In my lifetime, for example, through an understanding of natural laws, we have built skyscrapers, driven engines hundreds of miles an hour, bred faster horses, fatter hogs, taken the seeds out of oranges... and even split the atom. Some day, by understanding the force of gravity, we shall have a vast new source of energy and power.

I believe this same principle applied to humans. We may not be able to change man's basic instincts, but by understanding the laws of human nature which governs man's actions, we shall be able to channel human urges and drives into more constructive patterns of behavior.

Our Immediate Need
As I look into the next 40 years I envision the development of a vast new science of man. In time this science, through its discovery of universal laws, will enable us both to understand and predict group behavior as well as to direct it toward constructive goals. Let's encourage our colleges to do research in this direction. Let's encourage business to devote a good portion of its resources to this worthy cause. Its findings may well be more world shaking than splitting the atom.

Hobbyist Appears on TV Program

Mrs. Alvah Carnes of Butwell street will appear on the "Pat 'n Johnny" television show tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m. over station WXYZ-TV at 2 p.m. to show her collection of artificial flowers.

A recent hobbyist in the series displayed in the Plymouth United Savings bank, Mrs. Carnes' story of her flower-making hobby appeared in The Plymouth Mail. She will make a rose of crepe paper for the television audience to show how it is done.

The Pat 'n Johnny show has been the avenue for many talented persons to get started on the road to success and it is a privilege for one of the local residents to have an opportunity to appear on the program.

Mrs. Carnes has been interested in making artificial flowers since she was a child and has perfected her talent to the point where her work ranks with the professionals. She uses simple materials, including crepe paper, metallic ribbon, wood fibre and chenille.

To enable a small child to get a better grip on a drinking glass, place two rubber bands around the glass—one about an inch from the top and the other about an inch from the bottom.

By LYN CONNELLY

WONDER IF FRED ALLEN was being self-critical when he made the remark recently that "television is a device that permits people who haven't anything to do to watch people who can't do anything..."

ALLEN

Great a comedian as Fred is, his TV debut was, at best, a visual radio show... Just close your eyes and he was back on radio... Until he whips together as clever a video show as he always had radio show he had better stop voicing opinions... That is, after all, like the pot calling the kettle black... Speaking of TV, we note that Jerry Lester has strong competition in the comedy field each night in the person of ABC's Paul Harvey... Laughs are about evenly divided.

Amos 'N Andy's TV debut is being postponed indefinitely because of difficulty in casting... Curt Massey may take his CBS musical to San Francisco soon to headline the opening of the Community Chest drive in the Bay City... Veteran Bill Comstock is reviving his Tizzie Lish, famous in the early days of radio, for a guest appearance on Garry Moore's show in New York... Must be true that vaudeville is dead and a television receiver is the box it's buried in... Much as we enjoy listening to Arthur Godfrey it's getting a bit monotonous hearing all about Hawaii day in and day out... Surely there must be some other subject he can discuss for a while and give the beautiful Pacific islands and many fans a little rest.

HOLLYWOOD CHATTER

Now that Judy Garland has obtained her release from MGM where she made all her pictures to date, she may wind up in a Broadway show or on television... She's eager for both... And Bing Crosby's paging her for his radio show... It'll be good for Judy to get away from movies which obviously depressed her in the making... The ring was no sooner on Liz Taylor's wedding finger when Hollywood columnists began gossiping.
