Child Killed While Playing With Golf Clubs

Tragedy struck a Plymouth family last Sunday afternoon, when four-year-old Linda Forth was killed accidentally while playing with five other children in the back yard of her grandmother's home at 2207 W. Seven Mile, Livonia.

The children were playing with golf clubs, and little Linda was hit in the chest by a wild swing from one of the clubs. She was found on arrival at Redford Receiving hospital.

Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Forshee of 396 Arthur street. She is survived by her parents, two brothers, Gary and Earl, an eight-month-old sister, Susan Kay, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cub Forshee and Mrs. Elizabeth Brantmeyer of Farmington.

Services were held at Schrader's funeral home at 3 p.m. Wednesday with the Reverend Edgar Hoenecke officiating. Entombment was at Riverside Mausoleum.

Residents Fail to Donate Blood

In the face of mounting American casualties in Korea, the scheduled visit of the Red Cross bloodmobile to Plymouth last Monday, May 21, had to be cancelled for lack of donors pledges. A minimum of 150 advance pledges are required to insure a successful operation, and less than 30 had been received up to Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Penhale, branch chairman, and Mrs. John Blichershtaff, blood program chairman, will continue their efforts to round up an adequate number of donors for a later visit of the mobile unit.

They expressed confidence that Plymouth residents will respond when they realize the urgency of the need. The Detroit Red Cross blood center reports that it will need at least 1,500 pints this week to meet military commitments alone, and these include a double quota of type O blood for shipment to Korea by air.

Invite M'Arthur To Speak Here

An invitation will be received today by General Douglas MacArthur to attend July Fourth celebrations in Plymouth. The invitation was sent to the General at the Pentagon in Washington by the Retail Merchants Committee of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce Chairman Ralph Rostow.

Salvation Army Announces Plans For New Church

A $200,000 church is being planned by the local unit of the Salvation Army, according to Captain William Roberts. The building is to be located on the northeast corner of Fairground and Maple streets, on an 80 by 100 foot lot.

One half of the property was contributed to the Army by Albert Smith of Hollywood, Florida, through the efforts of Attorney Perry W. Richwine. An adjoining lot on the east was purchased by the Army from George Zetsch, of Plymouth.

Plans are almost completed for the building and Captain Roberts hopes to begin construction within six weeks. The new church will house all the local activities of the Salvation Army, which in the future will concentrate on a Youth Program.

Captain Roberts hopes to have the building open each night for youth activities and will continue the present programs of handicraft and nursing classes, sewing and home training classes, and ceramics classes for teen age girls. The Army also provides services for new inductees from the area.

The Army has been in Plymouth for over 20 years, and Captain Roberts, who has been in charge for four years is very enthusiastic about the new building.

"We have been working in cramped facilities for years," he says, "and this is like a dream coming true."

Area Republican Women Schedule Meeting

The Republican Plymouth and Plymouth Township Women's clubs will hold a meeting Monday, May 28 at 12:30 p.m. in the Veterans Memorial Home on Plymouth road. Each member is asked to bring a box lunch. Coffee and tea will be served by the club.

Plymouth Resident Adds Another "First" to City's Leadership

The up-and-coming city of Plymouth which can lay claim to being "first" in many things—can now rightly claim to being the home of Don Lightfoot, the new Michigan state singles bowling champion.

He won this honor for himself and his home city in the state bowling series recently conducted in Saginaw—winning it by defeating the best from such cities as Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Detroit, Lansing and other centers where bowling is a most popular pastime.

The new Michigan singles bowling champion went to Saginaw for the state contest as a member of Cliff Tait's bowling team. Although he has bowled a higher score, he won the state singles contest by a score of 476.

In the state bowling contest a year ago held at Pontiac, Don was also a member of the Plymouth Elks team which won the state team championship. That's all—its just another "first" for good old Plymouth.

Former Postmaster and Wife Back for Visit Among Republicans

Former Postmaster Harry Irwin and Mrs. Irwin, now residents of Pinellas Park, Florida, have arrived in their old home town of Plymouth and expect to remain here until the "frost is on the pumpkin" before returning to the sunny south.

Plymouth's former Democratic leader has become a most enthusiastic booster for his adopted city and declares that there is no nicer place in the world to live than the place where he now resides. But he says he just can't miss a year without visiting with his old Republican friends in Michigan.

It seems that Mr. Irwin remains as enthusiastic Democratically as he did when he lived in strongly Republican Plymouth and served this city as its postmaster. Pinellas county, in which he now resides, has also become a strongly Republican and elected a Republican ticket in the last election. In the same election Mr. Irwin was named by the Democrats as a member of the Florida county committee of his precinct.

Spending Fortune to Raise C & O Tracks for Greater Travel Safety

To secure both greater safety and speed as well, the C & O has begun a tremendous task of raising its track from the city of Detroit to Plymouth as much as from two to eight inches. Workmen say that the entire system in this area will be re-balanced and rebuilt, with crushed rock being used for ballast.

In order to provide better drainage to prevent decay of railway ties, the drainage system along both sides of the railway line is also being rebuilt.

The work will cost the company many hundreds of thousands of dollars, but it will in the long run prove a savings as well as a safety measure. The track in front of the Plymouth depot will be raised only about two inches.

Provide Aid in Locating Graves on Memorial Day

An office in Plymouth Riverside cemetery on Decoration Day will be set up and personnel provided for the purpose of conducting persons through the cemetery for convenience in locating graves and a cemetery burial space.

Special care is given the cemetery, especially for Memorial Day, to maintain the dignity and quiet of the last resting place of the pioneers and forebearers of this community, stated the cemetery trustees.

The cemetery has a perpetual care fund which provides part of the money necessary for the upkeep of the grounds.

Sunday Night Rain Did Vast Amount of Good in the Plymouth Area

"That was a near million dollar rain that fell over Plymouth and vicinity last Sunday night," declared Sam Spicer who has tilled more acres of ground over a longer period of time than most farmers in this area, although he hasn't done much farming in the last two years.

Mr. Spicer, one of the organizers of the Michigan State Grange, while not so active in farm production in recent years, does keep a pretty close tab on what's going on out in the field around Plymouth.

"It came just at the right time, after truck growers had planted big fields of cabbage and tomatoes, and other farmers had most of their corn," said Mr. Spicer. "It will be of vast benefit to farmers with sandy and light soil, but not of so much benefit to farmers in Canton."

"If the weather holds good and we have our just share of rain from now until harvest, I predict some bumper crops in spite of the Washington bureaucrats."

Observance of Memorial Day Begins Sunday

Plymouth will begin observing Memorial Day this Sunday with a special service at the Methodist church at 11 a.m. The Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson will conduct the services.

After the services, flags will be placed at Riverside cemetery by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and all individuals who would like to participate.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars request that if any graves are missed, individuals may contact Ivan Campbell, Le. Coolman, or Ray Danol and flags will be placed on the graves.

On Wednesday, Decoration Day ceremonies will commence at 9:30 a.m. at the bridge on Plymouth road, where the Navy Mothers will cast a wreath into the river. This is a traditional ceremony to honor the Navy dead.

The Navy Mothers will be escorted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and other servicemen's groups. A blowing of taps and the firing of a volley will conclude the rites.

The annual Memorial Day parade will begin at 10 a.m. or very soon after at North Mill and Main streets. A printed order of march will be given to each group. All individuals are invited to join any group they would like to march with in the parade.

Marching in the parade will be Passage Gayde post of the American Legion, the high school band, Cub Scouts' Drum and Bugle corps, Veterans of Foreign Wars Mayflower post and auxiliary, the Myron H. Beal Post 32 and auxiliary, Moms club, Navy Mothers, Ex-Servicemen's club, Boy and Girl Scouts, and the Salvation Army.

The parade will continue along Main street to Kellogg park, where the Memorial Day program will begin. Master of ceremonies will be Mayor Tibbitts.

The ceremonies will begin with an invocation given by Reverend Johnson. Soloist for the program will be Fred Kendall, who with the assistance of a quartette of girls and boys from the high school, will sing "My Buddy."

Next on the program, Gladys Witt, an 11th grade student, will present the prose poem "In Flanders Field."

The main speaker of the day will be John Danman, news commentator on radio station WJR, who will talk on the current worldwide situation and significance of Memorial Day.

Assisted by the quartette, and the high school band, Mr. Kendall will lead the audience in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

The program will continue with the laying of wreaths by two boys from the high school in the park, which contains plaques in honor of the veterans of the Spanish American War, World War I and World War II.

A volley will be discharged by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Mayflower Post firing squad, led by Captain Edward Kopski. Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson will close the ceremonies with the benediction.

Plymouth residents will then go on their way to observe Decoration Day in their own individual ways.

Families will go to cemeteries and place flowers on the graves of the dead, and no doubt all will remember and think of the American boys fighting on Korean battle fields on that day when the dead of the past wars are honored.

Forest Merchants Open Parking Lot

To alleviate the parking problem in the busy Forest avenue shopping area, Bryer Pharmacy, Dunning's Department Store, Grand Jewelers and Plymouth Hardware company have developed through the cooperation of Finlan and Son a parking area.

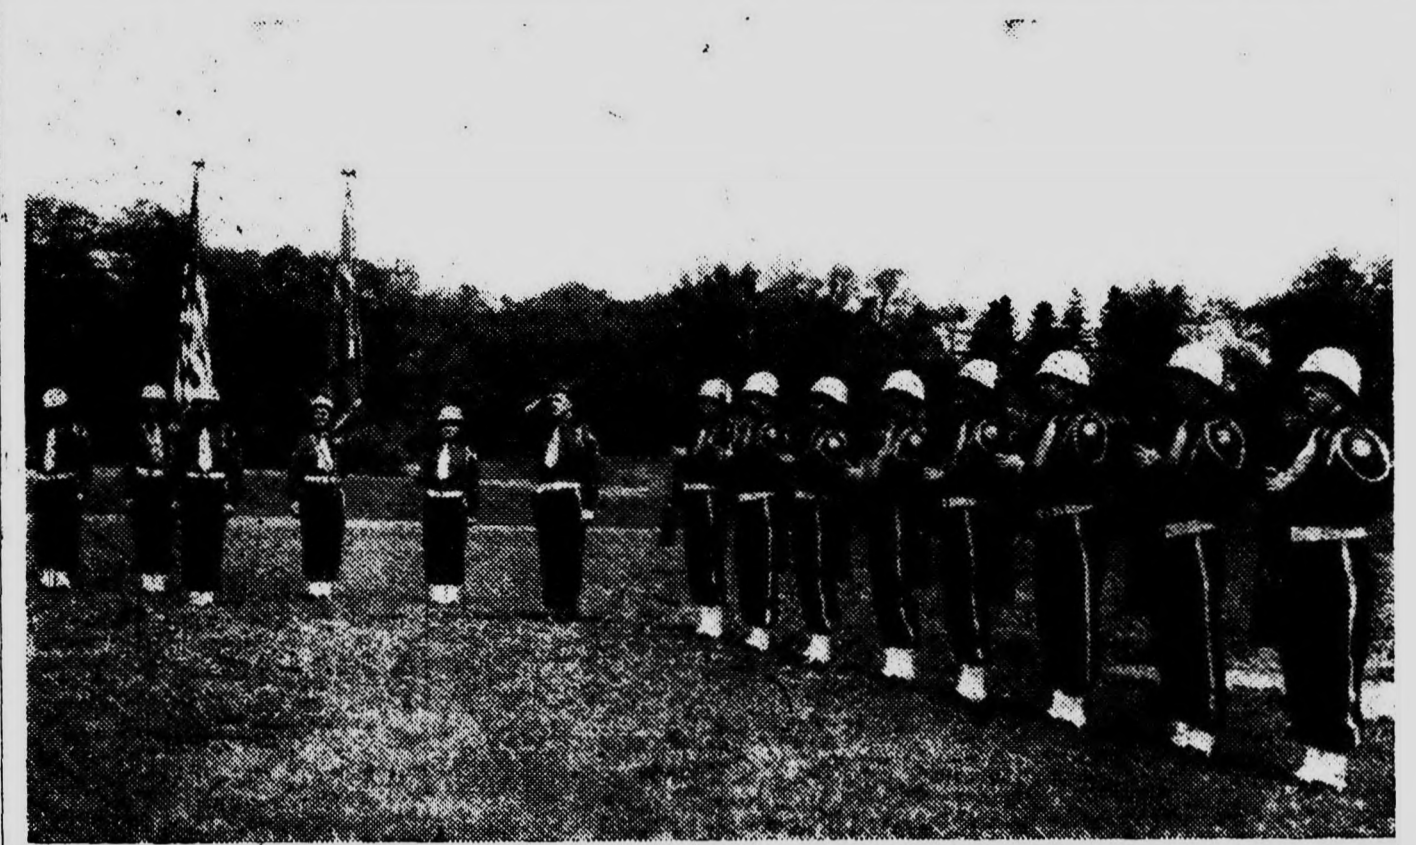

The lot, located between Plymouth Hardware and Kroger stores, is open to all customers in the area. Part of the parking lot is open now.

Treasure Chest at Dave Galin's

A treasure chest with $900 in credit awards, an opportunity to win $675 in savings bonds, free theatre tickets and a lot more is Dave Galin's way of announcing the completion of Plymouth's first exclusive Youngstown Kitchen Department at his appliance store at 849 Penniman.

Each person entering the store will receive a key. No purchase will be necessary. Anyone receiving a key which fits the treasure chest will be eligible for the awards.

For the first 200 youngsters who visit the store, accompanied by a parent, there are free tickets to the Penniman Allen theatre, May 26.

ATTENTION! Captain Edward Kopski is conducting a drill practice of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Mayflower post firing squad. The rifle squad will participate in the Memorial Day ceremony appearing in their new uniforms, which were purchased from the proceeds of a paper drive.

Gets Prescription Blanks and Money

Plymouth experienced a new type of extraction Monday when an allegedly bad check netted $30.00 and a few hours visit on the main street netted a possible narcotic expert a pad of Community Pharmacy prescription blanks.

A man saying he was a new local doctor visited with other tenants in the Dibble building Monday morning and informed them he was opening offices in one of the suites there on Wednesday. Later in the day he made a couple of trips to the Community Pharmacy and discussed the drugs carried in the city then asked C. C. Witte to send up drug salesmen to his offices so he could stock his office when they next came to town.

Later in the day he dropped back again to the drug store and asked that some prescription blanks be furnished him with his name on them, then asked for a few for immediate use. After securing the blanks he asked Mr. Witte to cash a check for him saying he had spent most of his pocket cash during the day. On presentation of the check at the bank it was found there was no account and the check was worthless.

White Cane Drive is Given Big Lift by Women DeHoCo Prisoners

While members of the Plymouth Lions club did not get credit for it simply because Warden A. Blake Gillies rushed into a hurried decision while addressing a Lions club in Detroit, the women inmates of the Detroit House of Correction the other day added $139.50 to the Lions club white cane drive. The employees of the institution added another $100 to the fund.

The Plymouth Lions club according to last reports was exceptionally successful in this drive to help the blind and other unfortunate—and as members of the local club stated—Plymouth is an exceedingly liberal city when it comes to helping those who really need help.

Hundreds of Thousands of Tomato Plants Have Been Set Out

Not thousands—but hundreds of thousands of tomato plants have been set out by Plymouth vegetable growers within the past few days. A trip up and down most any of the roads leading out of this city will reveal the fact that local vegetable growers are preparing for one of the biggest tomato crops ever grown in this vicinity.

The weather during the past weekend was ideal for plant setting—and growers took full advantage of it. If weather conditions continue to hold as good as has prevailed during the past ten days or so, there can be expected not only one of the biggest crops ever grown, but also one of the earliest.

Letter to Parents Lauds Heroic Deed of Their Son in Korea

Through the thoughtfulness of Dave Galin, chairman of the International committee of the Plymouth Rotary club, a "round robin" letter signed by all members of the club last Friday extends congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. N. S. Thams upon the honors bestowed their son because of his heroism in a battle in Korea.

As reported in last week's issue of The Plymouth Mail, the silver star medal for distinguished service during an enemy attack was awarded First Lieutenant Robert Thams, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thams. Chairman Galin plans to present the letter to the Thams within the next few days, who will keep it for their son now in Japan preparing for a visit here early in July.

Whitley Fined For Hinderling Fire Engine

For obstructing the fire department from performing its duty and endangering the lives of the occupants of a home and their property, Bruce Whitley, of 2147 Canton Center road, was fined $100 by Municipal Judge Perlongo Monday morning.

As the fire engine pulled out of the fire hall Sunday evening to answer a call from Mr. Schultz, his home at 935 Simpson street was hit by lightning. Mr. Whitley's car was in front of the engine.

Firemen stated that they rang the bell and double alarm immediately and all was except Mr. Whitley's car got out of the way. Finally the firemen were able to pass the car near the Hotel Mayflower, but Whitley's car again pulled in front of the fire engine.

When the fire department reached Mr. Schultz's home, Whitley parked directly beside the engine. This is against a city ordinance, stated the firemen, which rules that cars must park behind fire trucks.

Mr. Whitley testified that he couldn't hear the bell or siren because the windows of his car were closed. However, Judge Perlongo pointed out that all of the other cars moved aside for the fire truck.

Fuse Box Blown off Wall by Lightning Sunday

Damage was estimated at $50. The home is owned by Mr. S. A. Schultz.

Michigan Bell Names Mr. Hartrick as Manager

The Michigan Bell Telephone company announced this week that George P. Hartrick has been appointed manager of the company's Plymouth office to take over the duties of Erwin E. Scherdt who will return to military duty early next month.

Mr. Hartrick was assistant manager of Michigan Bell's Ann Arbor office before being named to succeed Mr. Scherdt. He began working with Michigan Bell in 1946 and was promoted to assistant manager in March, 1948.

Winner of the trip to Chicago was Phillip Patrick, Times carrier, who flew there today and will return Friday evening. Phillip is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Patrick, 11325 Eastside Drive. He won the trip for his high circulation of customers.

Never Too Old to Go West Decides Pioneer Resident

Like the tremendous task of pulling up the roots of a century old elm tree has been the decision of Mrs. Emma Henderson, 90 years old and a resident of this vicinity for more than three quarters of a century, to make up her mind to give up Plymouth as her home and move to Vernon, Washington where she will reside with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hettie Henderson.

Mrs. Henderson returned a few weeks ago from the northwest where she spent the winter with the widow of her son, the late Claude Henderson, who was an only child, and the granddaughter, Mrs. Don Willhite of Portland, Oregon.

When she returned home she announced that she had reached the most difficult decision to move from a city in which her late husband, John Henderson had been so active in its affairs for nearly half a century.

"It was awfully hard to make up my mind to do it, but I realize that I have now reached the age where it isn't advisable to live alone. I know I will have good care with my daughter-in-law and granddaughter. It was this fact which caused me to decide to give up my home which we built more than half a century ago—but I do intend to keep in touch with all my friends and associates," said Mrs. Henderson the other day as she busily picked up many of the old family keepsakes to take west with her.

Only to life-long and older residents of Plymouth and vicinity can a full realization of the decision of Mrs. Henderson to leave Plymouth be fully realized.

They will recall that it was her husband who for nearly two decades served as a member of the Plymouth village council and as president of the village. They will remember, too, that it was John Henderson who was a member of the board of education for years and years, and at times served as its president. They know also that for nearly a quarter of a century he served as treasurer of the Presbyterian church and that it was his conservatism and high ideas which had their influence upon village life.

Mrs. Henderson was born in Foxville in 1861, during the first year of the Civil war. It was while she was still a young girl that the Thomas Patterson family moved to this vicinity, buying the farm which her late brother, John Patterson, converted into a golf course out on the Five Mile road and which is now operated by Don Patterson, nephew of Mrs. Henderson.

It was nearly 50 years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Henderson bought the lot at the northwest corner of Main street and Erieck avenue and built the home in which the Henderson family has always lived up to the present time. Mrs. Henderson does not expect to sell the home. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Carney having leased it to the present Mr. Carney is a department executive of the Kaiser-Fraser corporation.

During the long years of residence in Plymouth, Mrs. Henderson created a wide circle of friends who will greatly miss her kindly ways. Her neighbors, too, regret that such a thoughtful associate is "going west" to continue to "grow up" in a city where her son in a few brief years won outstanding success as an attorney and public official. His career was cut short by death a few years ago.

Mrs. Henderson, her daughter-in-law and granddaughter, will leave Plymouth about the first of June, driving back to the northwest. It is her plan to return to Plymouth now and then to visit with her many old friends.

Another Car is Reported Stolen

The second car to be stolen in the city in the last few days was reported to The Plymouth Mail Tuesday morning.

The car a 1949 gray Ford belonged to Robert Sylvester who resides at 711 Burroughs. Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester had just retired when they heard noises in front of their home. As they peered out the window they saw their car being driven away.

Aid Residents on Social Security

Plymouth residents will be able to receive assistance in obtaining Social Security benefits and information on the act's provisions from a representative of the social security Detroit-Northwest office, who will be present at the Plymouth Post Office on the second and fourth Thursday of each month from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Under the 1950 Amendments to the Social Security Act, social security wage credits are provided for active service in the military or naval forces of the U.S. during WW II.

"Many veterans or their families are still not aware of this provision in the new social security law," Clarence Mattson, manager of the Detroit Northwest social security field office announced, "and as a result are not claiming or receiving social security benefits to which they are entitled to because of this credit for military service."

WW II veterans are given a wage credit of $160.00 for each month of active military or naval service in addition to any wages paid to them for services in employment covered by Social Security.

These credits are allowable regardless of whether (a) the veteran is alive or deceased; (b)

he died in active service or out; (c) death occurred more than three years after his discharge or separation; or (d) pension or compensation is payable by the Veterans Administration.

In the event of the Veteran's death before retirement, WW II wage credits will be used in determining the amount of survivor benefits.

"The effect of this provision in the new Social Security law," Mr. Mattson explained, "will now permit in many cases payments to survivors of a veteran whose claim was previously disallowed because the deceased veteran died in service or more than three years after discharge. Also, many survivors of service men who may never have filed a claim, are now possibly eligible for monthly benefits."

For further information about your social security rights and benefits, call at, write, or phone the Northwest office at 12065 Wyoming, corner of Grand River. The telephone number is TEXAS 4-4750.

Area Automobile Racers Win Top Spots in Contest

Three Plymouth hot rod racers drove in recent contests in the area winning several of the heats. Two of the drivers, Bob Simmons and John Krieger, were entries Sunday at Partington Pastures.

Mr. Simmons came in second in the five mile feature, took fifth spot in a semi-feature, third in the pursuit, and third in the fourth heat race. During the fifth heat, his car rolled over three times.

In the races Monday night at Motor City, Dwight Morris took third place in the fourth heat and fifth in the semi-feature. During the semi-feature, four of the cars crashed, and the car driven by Mr. Morris was cracked in two places on the sportsman hardtop.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From A. V. Barbour, Nathalie, Va.: When I was a little girl, women took 10 yards of cloth to make a dress. Baby dresses were so long they touched the ground when the mother stood holding the baby. They would kill cows and take hide to tan yard to get leather made, with which to make shoes at home with a needle and thread, using wooden pegs to put on soles.

From E. E. Meredith, Fairmont, W. Va.: Do you remember when April 1 was moving day, hay fever was called "a summer cold," a man could buy an umbrella for a dollar, folks had oranges only at Christmas, people believed you got warts from touching a toad, mosquito netting protected victrols left on the dining room table?

From Mrs. Henry Mease, Lititz, Pa.: I remember the farmers and butchers leaving their houses all the year round at 2:00 a.m. to attend inside and curb market the greater part of the day, traveling 10 or 20 miles by horse-drawn market wagon. Independence Day was a gala event, and folks hired a livery team called a Tally-Ho with two or four horses hitched to the wagon decorated for the occasion, with the driver on an elevated seat, to go to the gala celebrations, sometimes 20 miles away.

From Bertha L. DeVoss, Hermosa Beach, Calif.: I remember when we kids got only one pair of shoes a year, going barefoot most of the summer except to church. We would carry our shoes until we got almost to the church, then put them on. When we left church, we took them off and carried them home. This way we could wear them all winter to school.

From Mrs. Nettie Dennis, Fairmont, W. Va.: I remember when the boy friend was expected to remain at the girl's home until she signified the evening was over. Otherwise, it would look like the boy was tired of her company. (Mail your memories to The Old Timers, Box 340, Frankfort, Ky.)

Stuff spareribs with an apple stuffing for a tasty combination. Spread the stuffing inside one section of spareribs and cover with a second section. Sew or skewer the two sections together, then sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place on a rack in an open roasting pan and roast in a 350° F. oven for 1 to 1 1/2 hours, or until the meat is tender.

Here's variation with veal steak. Brown the steak thoroughly, then add a sauce prepared of sour cream, salt, pepper, paprika, mustard, and catchup. Cover the pan tightly and slowly simmer for 30 to 40 minutes. Serve plain or over hot noodles.

To save on auto tires, motorists are reminded: 1. Tires will last twice as long at 30 m.p.h. as at 50 m.p.h. 2. High speed is much more harmful to tires in hot weather than in cold. Tire treads wear five times faster at 40 degrees than at 40 degrees. 3. Go slow on roads which have sharp projecting stones. 4. Take curves and turns slowly. Spreading around curves can multiply tire wear as much as 10 times.

ARROW Short Story

A minor league pitcher named Joe

Wore shorts that climbed up at each throw.

Till the first baseman cried,

"Arrow shorts never ride,

They are worn in the big leagues, you know!"

Dr. W. Alexander to Address GOP State Meeting

Speaker at the Republican state wide meeting sponsored by the Republican Women's Federation of Michigan will be Dr. W. H. (Bill) Alexander pastor of the First Christian church of Oklahoma City.

The meeting will be held Saturday, June 9 in the Metamora Hunt County at the estate of Mrs. Fred T. Murphy, five miles north-east of Oxford. A box supper will be served at 5:30 p.m. Information regarding tickets can be obtained from Mrs. John Henderson at Plymouth, 477 or Livonia 3081.

Dr. Alexander comes to Michigan with a schedule of 700 principle addresses given in five years before all kinds of business, professional and school groups.

His background includes broadcasting over a national network and a position of the "Church of the Air" broadcast over C.B.S. in addition to speaking before college groups throughout the country.

Mr. Milton Eisenhower of Kansas State University stated that "Dr. Alexander works effectively with men and women of all ages, but especially with young people. He is a scholar; has great vitality and enthusiasm and is most convincing. We were delighted with him in every way and would consider ourselves most fortunate to have him with us again."

Dr. Alexander served as a war correspondent in Italy during the latter part of World War II. He also attended the International Congress on Mental Health in London and the first World Council of Churches in Amsterdam.

He is also active in politics, and although he lost in the recent election for Senator in Oklahoma, he won more Republican votes than any other candidate since Statehood.

The clothing which was mended and cleaned is now on its way to Korea with the aid of the Brethren Service Center in Nappanee, Indiana and the cooperation of the Church World Service.

Also sent for relief were 152 pounds of used fats for soap. The next collection will be held July 30. Persons who would like to contribute may contact Mrs. William J. Hunt, 1407 W. Ann Arbor trail, phone 1332-M for fat containers and shuffle bags for clothing.

NEWEST ADDITION to the John M. Campbell plumbing fleet is the beautiful new Chevrolet engineering car delivered last week to Campbell's Albert Holcomb, above left, by Chevrolet dealer Frank Allison. The truck will be used on emergency service calls and will provide a rolling office for engineering estimates and orders.

Workshop Project Proves of Value to All Concerned

A journalism workshop project begun by the Plymouth Mail and Wayne University several months ago has proved to be of benefit to all concerned.

The project was planned by Sterling Eaton, business manager of the Mail, and W. Sprague Holden, chairman of the Journalism Department at the university. It is intended to answer the most common complaint of college graduates seeking jobs.

"Employers," they say, "will not give a job to anyone without experience. But how can we get experience without having a job?" The workshop program, adopted on a large scale, would offer students a chance to obtain practical experience by giving college credit for work done on local newspapers.

First Wayne University student to participate in the new project was Frank H. Rathbun, who has been working with the Mail on a part-time basis since March.

"The experience has been of great value," says Rathbun. "There are a lot of things you can't learn in a classroom. Terms and expressions which were only vague words to me before, now have a real meaning."

Rathbun, in his time with the Mail, has covered and written news stories and features, read copy for errors, written headlines, made advertising layouts, written advertising copy, and spent time in the "back room," learning some of the mechanical aspects of newspaper publishing.

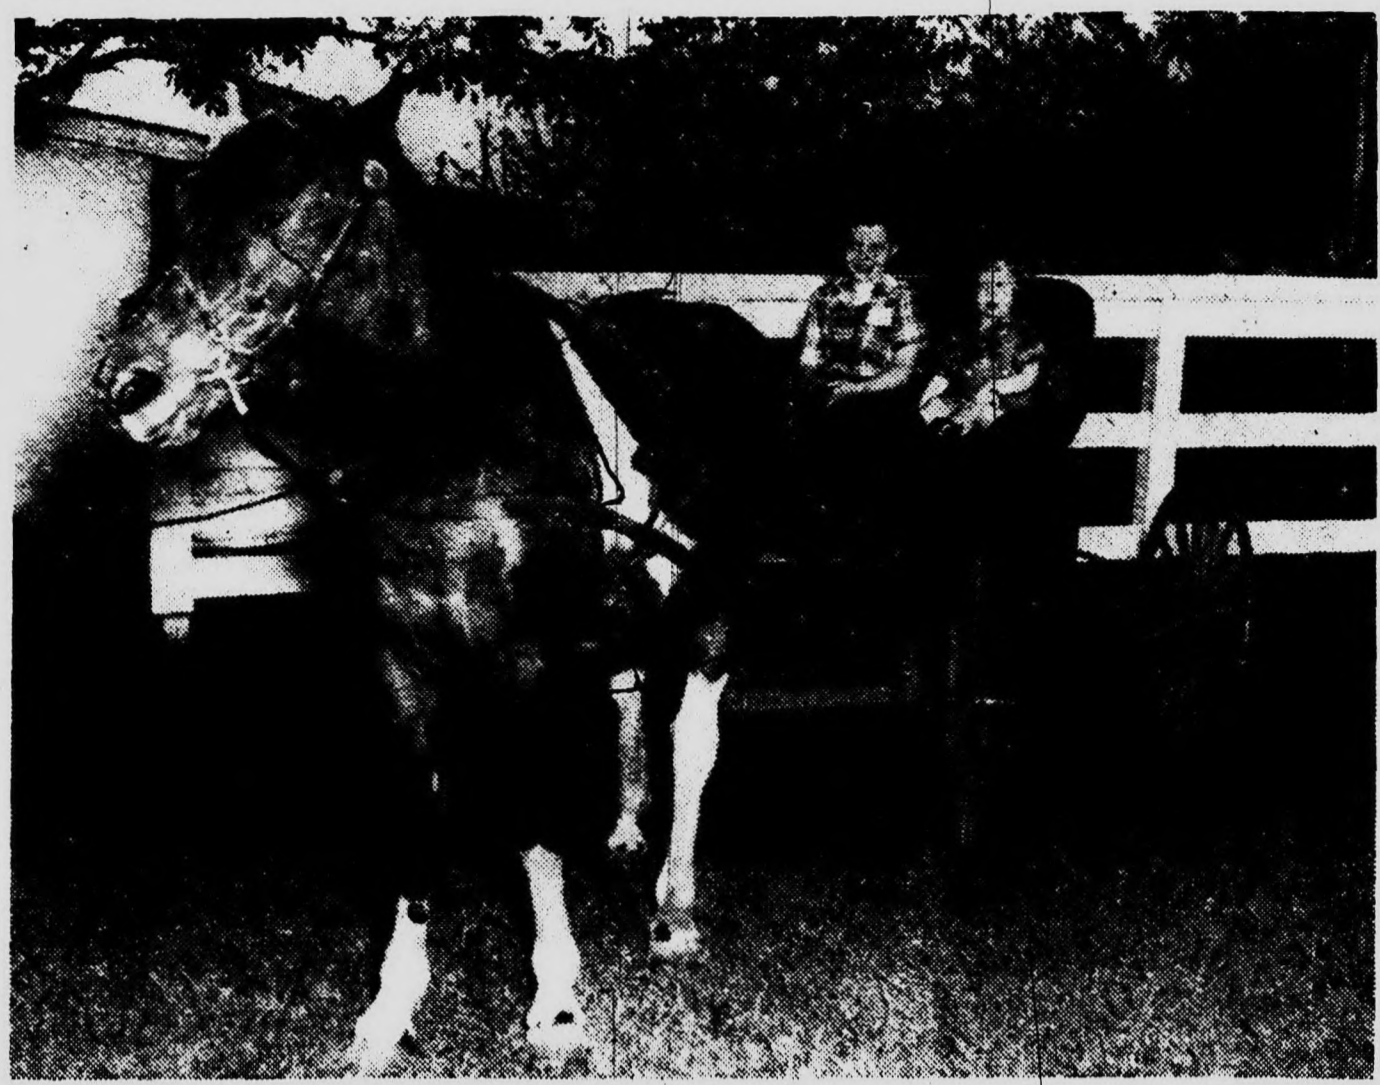

The program has also proved to be of value to the Mail, the work done by Rathbun having lightened the load of other members of the editorial and advertising staff.

Mr. Holden, whose job it is to train his students in all phases of journalistic work, is very enthusiastic about the plan. He depicted a number of the all-journalism magazines doing work on one of the Detroit papers, with the college daily. However, with many students working their way through college, it is not practical to insist on it.

It should be the goal of newspapers and schools of journalism alike to give advanced training to future journalists. Such a program as this one is to be the most practical method to accomplish this purpose.

A college education is a great asset to a job seeker. Practical experience is also an asset. But he who has both, goes far, doubly armed to take his place in the lines of the men who write history as it is made.

Your 1952 crop of students will depend on the variety you set out during the 1951 season.

What I Think and Have A Right to Say

By ELTON R. EATON

KICKING OLD PEOPLE OFF JOBS.

Apparently we are not the only one who thinks the system of kicking elderly people out of jobs is entirely wrong. Comment about our reference to this subject in the last issue has been somewhat surprising.

A day or so ago in the mail came a letter from a well known citizen of Plymouth who is beyond the age of 70, but is as active in business as he was 30 or 40 years ago, in which he enclosed a clipping telling of a recent conference held in Washington when this subject was given much consideration.

We are sure that you will read it with the same interest that we did. It follows:

A redesigning of the job opportunities of American business and a restatement of its personnel policy are necessary preliminaries if the older worker is to be saved from finding himself "on the scrap heap," according to speakers at a two-day conference on this subject at New York University.

Representatives of welfare, labor, business firms, church groups, and education gathered at the Waverly Building at Washington Square on April 27 and 28 to discuss "Society and the Older Citizen." Following up the Washington conference on aging held last August, the university's division of general education conceived of an action-producing meeting in New York which will seek to solve the working needs of a steadily growing population.

While there were only a little more than 3,000,000 persons of 65 years or over in the United States in 1900, census reports show that there are now more than 12,000,000 in this class and that the number is increasing. Dean Paul A. McGhee of the university declared. In New York State, the number of persons in this category has increased 269 per cent since 1900, according to figures quoted by Robert T. Lansdale, New York State Commissioner on Public Welfare.

"As labor, management, government, and the general public come to understand more fully the economic and social implications of conditions which deprive large numbers of older workers of opportunities for self-support, additional job opportunities will become available to our able-bodied aged," he pointed out.

"The possibilities of employment for the aged were demonstrated in the period 1941-1945, when, because of the labor market expansion due to the defense and war efforts, our old-age assistance case load declined by nearly 20,000 cases during this period."

Much of the concern felt for the older jobless stays in the realm of sentiment or apologetics, Solomon Bagkin, director of research for the Textile Workers Union of America, said in a plea for action.

"Labor's position is that business enterprises are economic institutions serving to sustain the society in which we live and permitting it to share in the benefits.

"Until business recognizes the problem sufficiently to adopt the policies which keep the older worker from being thrown upon the scrap heap, it will be under constant attack by the trade unions," he advised.

Constant attack in a democratic society, he added, leads eventually to far-reaching measures.

While the unions do not control the hiring policies, they can get behind legislation which brings "conscience" into the picture and keep up a ceaseless fight for jobs for people of all classes and ages, Mr. Bagkin stressed.

"Management, which in the past has designed jobs for its own production purposes, will redesign jobs for the successful employment of older persons, it will get full cooperation from labor," he said.

As jobs for this group of older citizens are found, the problem of dependence will decline, despite the group's growing numbers, it was forecast by Mr. Lansdale.

"Extension of coverage of workers under the old-age and survivors insurance program, and increases in such insurance benefits will gradually transfer an increasingly larger part of the old-age assistance case load from that tax-supported program to the contributory insurance program. The recent increases in insurance benefits made it possible to close 1,709 old-age assistance cases in October, 1950, and reduce old-age assistance grants in 11,192 cases."

WHO IS DOING THE "QUIBBLING"?

Harry Truman, who hates everybody not a member of the Pendergast political machine or some of its subsidiaries, says it is about time for some people to quit their "quibbling" and get down to earth and support the Truman war in Korea. From all that we can hear and read it seems that Harry is the chief quibbler and if the quibbling dies down for a time, he opens up his smiling yaps and starts quibbling all over again. As we see it, he's the one who should stop quibbling.

NOT AT ALL SURPRISING.

We've noted with interest that some nicker has again come along to sponsor Drew Pearson's Sunday night radio smear of decent Americans. It is not surprising, however, that the sponsor is the ruler of a collective, but unfortunately the pills only clean out the system and not the brain that is contaminated by Pearson's insidious insinuations.

Interesting, too, is the fact that Pearson's pill sponsor was forced not so long ago to take off the market all the former labels used on its bottles because of alleged claims that they didn't comply with some of the pure food and drug law provisions. It had to change, too, all the advertisements the outfit ran in the newspaper and magazine because of misleading representations. No wonder it is all surprising that a concern that had misrepresented its product in the past is now sponsoring a radio smear of the who has been branded by at least two Presidents as a notorious faker.

We like very much to read the editorial column on the editorial page of the Free Press. We think that Bunney is by far one of the best editors in the country. We like, too, the exceptionally fine and accurate editorial comments of The Free Press. But it is the editor's job to permit the Pearson count to smear up such a good writer. Editorial page is more than we can immerse in, it not only contaminates the editorial page but the entire newspaper as well.

REMEMBER THE LINDBERGH SMEAR?

Read with more than ordinary interest the story in Monday morning's Free Press telling of the school of a group of school boys when they spotted the name Lindbergh used on his famed flight across the Atlantic. They turned the Smithsonian Institute in Washington. One of the kids asked "Where's Lindbergh now?" Another answered that he was dead.

Fortunately for the nation Lindbergh is still alive and donating to our government his services in helping to build up our defense, even though he is the son of the lowest, most contemptible traitor any American ever received from the departed Franklin Roosevelt.

The Lindbergh smear by the traitor can be compared to the present attempt to smear the virtue of the Truman mob of Washington political rascals.

We wonder how much longer the political people of our grand country will continue to tolerate such traditions as we have had since the day the traitor was elected by his notorious campaign of political lies and false promises.

Trenton Defeats Rocks Nine, 7-4

The Plymouth Rocks lost their last ball game Friday afternoon to the Trenton Trojans by the score of 7-4. Rex Wooley pitched the last game of the season.

Travis started the game off with a single to center, and moved up to third when Lanphear drew a base on balls. Sockow singled and scored Travis. Ritter went to third and when Lanphear got a hit, he scored, giving the Rocks a 2-0 lead.

Trenton scored once in their half of the first inning, and the Rocks tied another two runs in the second inning.

But the roof fell in on PHS in the seventh. Trenton scored four times with the aid of two errors. A batter being hit by a pitch, and a home run. The Rocks tried to rally in their half but tallied only once. The Rocks now have won two and lost four games.

Area Tracksters Take Fourth Spot

Plymouth high school's thin clad squad settled into fourth place at the Twenty-first Annual Regional Track and Field Meet held at Wines Field, Ann Arbor, Saturday, May 19. The PHS athletes combined to score 22 markers.

Winner of the Class B, in which the Rocks were competing was Walled Lake with a total of 56 points, second was Bedford with 48, and third was Howell with 43.

High lighting Plymouth's performance at this meet was John Balogh's capture of the first place in the mile run with a time of 4:48.8, just two-tenths of a second slower than the record time of 4:46.6.

Freshman Jerry Kelly finished third in the two-yard dash with a time of about :10.6.

The PHS 880-yard relay team finished third with 1:38.5, the best clocking Plymouth has run in this year.

Four of the Plymouth athletes who competed in this carnival qualified for the State meet to be held this Saturday, May 25, at Ferry field in Ann Arbor. John Balogh qualified with his win in the mile; Dick Joachim, with a second-place in the 440-yard dash; Arlen Ottensman, with a first place tie in the pole vault; and Darryl Speers qualified with a second place in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Five records at this meet are held by Plymouth High school track men. Paul Harding is owner of two of these one in the 100-yard dash with a time of :10.3, and the other in the 22-yard dash with a time of :22.5.

Louie Vangha is holder of the top clocking in the quarter mile. He raced over the distance in :52.6 in the 1950 meet. Dave Heinzman set the record for the high jump in 1950 with a jump of 5' 9.8".

The last record is a time of 1:34.3 in the half-mile relay set by PHS's team in 1950.

Frosh Nine Win Over Ross

A 6-5 count was the final score, as the Froshman baseball nine edged out a hustling Ross Junior nine, last Friday, May 18. Pitching for the PHS frosh was Don Woolley.

Plymouth had to come from behind to win, though. With the aid of some wild hurling by the Ross pitcher, the young Rocks tallied three times in the last half of the seventh inning to pull out a victory.

At times wonder what happens after some group of hardy males picks "The 10 Most Gorgeous Girls in the World" or the 10 best cuties in any category... like the N.Y. Dress Institute tabbing the "10 Best Dressed Women." You can imagine one of the select members of the Institute explaining his choices at home. "Randy" is his fondest critic. "Was I elected as one of the ten best?" Elmer goes and says, loosens his collar a bit, and blurts, "No, honey, as a matter of fact you weren't in the first million. Unique Recipes To Supply Needs of Vitamin C

The bride who is getting acquainted with the materials of her new job of homemaking will find it worth while to know the wide range of citrus fruits and fruit juices. The important nutritional fact for brides to know about citrus fruits is that oranges and grapefruit are the richest natural source of vitamin C.

As vitamin C is not stored by the body, it must be renewed daily. A 6 oz. glass of orange or grapefruit juice will take care of the individual daily requirement for vitamin C. Here are a few delightful ways to include citrus fruit in your menus.

Citrus Bouquet
2 No. 2 cans orange and grapefruit sections drained or 4 cups fresh orange and grapefruit sections
1 pint of strawberries
Mound orange and grapefruit sections in shallow bowl. Place 3 whole strawberries in center of fruit. Halve remaining strawberries; place point side out around edge of fruit to resemble corsage bouquet. Yield: 10 servings.

Grapefruit-Shrimp Cocktails
Salad
1 No. 2 can grapefruit sections
2 cups fresh grapefruit sections
2 cups cooked shrimp
1 1/2 cup finely diced green pepper or celery
1 1/4 teaspoon paprika
1 tablespoon grated horseradish
2 tablespoons grapefruit juice

Drain canned grapefruit sections or use fresh grapefruit sections free of membrane. Combine grapefruit sections, shrimp and celery or green pepper; place in cocktail glasses. Combine remaining ingredients and pour a small amount over each cocktail or serve with a prepared cocktail sauce. This may be served on salad green as a main dish salad. Yield: 6 servings.

Entice guests with these clever tidbits. Roll thin slices of dried beef into cornucopia. Then top with colored picks. Stuff with chive cottage cheese or smoky cheese.

Hints For Plymouth Homemakers

PICNIC SUGGESTIONS FOR SPRING OUTINGS

Sandwiches, spread with peanut butter in various combinations, including the suggested bacon, jam, and piccalilli, are highly acceptable for single picnic fare with no worry about their keeping qualities. Designed for easy carrying, and tasty eating, this lunch fits into many outing schemes so popular in early spring. Bicycle excursions, hobo hikes, fishing trips, and visits to the park offer excellent opportunities for enjoying a lunch out-of-doors. The meal, with sandwiches, baker's cookies, fruit, and beverage, is quick and easy to prepare and pack, and none of the food requires a fire for cooking. Spring suggests picnics, so a menu such as this is a good one to keep in mind and repeat again and again.

Offer Tips on Making Sandwiches

Most homemakers have had plenty of experience in making their favorite food, sandwiches, but a few modern tips about them are timely now that we are entering the "sandwich season."

Here are a few suggestions that may help your efficiency in sandwich-making. Did you know that day-old-bread is easier to cut and to spread, but that bread chilled in the refrigerator gives the same results?

Butter will spread easier if it is first softened. You can do this, of course, by leaving it at room temperature for awhile. Or you can cut it in large chunks, put it in a bowl, and cover it with warm water. Then you can work it with a fork until the butter is soft and drain off the water. You can also use the trick of putting the butter in a hot bowl and then mashing it with a fork.

You can keep sandwiches moist even if you have to make them ahead of time. Wrap each sandwich in waxed paper. Then wrap all of them in a dampened tea towel and keep in the refrigerator.

Sandwiches can be made the night before and frozen if the filling is one which can stand freezing. When they thaw out, they taste exactly as if they had been freshly made.

Variety in bread and in the fillings make sandwich eating more enjoyable. Search for different breads or rolls at your grocery store and for new fillings in your cookbook.

If the sandwich is to be the main part of the meal think of its nutritive value and include eggs, peanut butter, meat, but also remember the many fruit and vegetable fillings.

Local Resident Visits California Ghost Town

Lucille M. Johnson of 850 Stockweather avenue recently visited the Buena Park, California, ghost town of the early West.

Like the forty-niners, Mrs. Johnson tried her luck panning gold in the ancient sluice box of the old Gold Mine. Later she visited the wagon camp where in a huge circle real covered wagons were lighted by the flickering flames of a large camp fire.

From the ghost town she wandered through the State Hall, general merchandise store, the covered wagon show, and many other buildings erected as a monument to the pioneers of the early West.

Warn Women on Use of Ladder

To save falls in doing home jobs that call for a climb, safety advisors of the U. S. Department of Agriculture offer some ladder lore especially to women who may have to do more repair and upkeep of the house this year as men have longer working hours.

For up-high work indoors—washing windows, cleaning upper cupboards or painting, for example—they urge the use of a sturdy step-stool or step ladder instead of taking a chance on a chair, box or other makeshift.

Most women are inexperienced in using straight ladders for outside work.

Here are tips toward a safe climb.

Wear clothes that give freedom for work and don't get caught in climbing. Generally well-fitted blue jeans or slacks are safer than skirts. To avoid slipping, be sure any mud or grease has been cleaned from shoes before starting up.

Also be sure the ladder is in good repair—no cracked, loose or rotted rungs or supports, no loose or rusty nuts.

Set ladder firmly on the ground, never on any slippery surface. Have the base of the ladder's height away from the wall to prevent tipping or sliding backward. The ladder should be long enough to extend above the level of work so that the upper two or three rungs can be used for a hand grasp, never for the feet.

Never carry heavy or bulky loads or sharp tools when climbing a ladder. Instead have a rope hoist to bring them up and hold them in position for convenient use. A metal hook is handy for holding a pail or paint can.

When climbing, depend more on the hands than the feet, and use both hands. It is safer to grasp the sides of the ladder than the rungs because there is less danger of falling if one should break.

A one-half hour program was given in each of the rooms.

Juniors to Stage Senior Farewell

The annual Junior-Senior Farewell to be held on June 1, promises to be a gala event. "The Hasta La Vista Ball" is the theme around which the decoration committee will adorn the high school gymnasium in Mexican array.

The juniors are planning a dance room where those who do not dance may find entertainment. Prizes are to be awarded to the winners.

In charge of the occasion are Elaine Lietz and Dave Travis who have chosen the following juniors to be committee chairmen: Donna Renwick, decorations; Donald Lewis, tickets; Pat Wassenaar and Jack Daggett, refreshments; Beth Douglas, chairperson; Phyllis Wilkins, entertainment; Derald McKinley, floor; Barbara Packard, publicity; Joyce Houghton, games; and Carolyn Smith, prizes.

Plans are being made to have Les Scott's orchestra furnish music for dancing.

Police Point Out Defective Autos Cause Accidents

His lights flickered off for only an instant, but in that time a pedestrian stepped in front of his automobile. The result—another death due to improper vehicle maintenance.

This incident, pointing up the vital importance of keeping cars in perfect mechanical condition, was related by the police department in announcing that the department this month is promoting the May theme of "Operation Safety," a program for reducing traffic injuries and deaths. The program is sponsored by the State Safety Commission and the National Safety Council.

"Unsafe automobiles driven by negligent drivers figured in 12 percent, or approximately 3,300, of the nation's fatal traffic accidents in 1949, Chief Greenlee said. "This is tragic when it is remembered that most faulty automobiles could be put in safe working condition in only a few minutes, and at little cost."

Poorly aimed or defective lights, bad brakes, worn steering mechanisms or worn tires are the chief faults of unsafe automobiles. Every motorist in Plymouth is urged to have these mechanical features checked by a competent mechanic at least twice a year. Rear and stop lights, windshield wipers, muffler, window glass, horn, and rear view mirror should be inspected likewise.

May is the logical time for checking a car, stated the police department. The city's streets and the highways soon will be teeming with pedestrians and drivers taking advantage of fine weather, starting their vacation, or observing Memorial Day.

"The motorist who gets his car in good mechanical condition now may be saving some youngster's life—perhaps even his own life, or some loved member of his family," Chief Greenlee said.

Another important reason for keeping one's car mechanically fit, the police department pointed out, should be apparent to those who were faced with the problem of keeping the family car running during World War II years. Today's international situation places a premium on the car that is kept in dependable mechanical condition.

Chief Greenlee had this word of advice for every motorist. "Remember, good drivers drive safe cars. So Wise Up... Check Up... Fix Up!"

Homemakers List Spring Review

The homemaking classes of Plymouth High school are sponsoring the "Spring Review" tonight in the high school gym at 7:30 p.m.

The audience will be seated at card tables to have a Tea Room effect where refreshments will be served.

The planning committee is sending invitations to the mothers of the students and to some of the neighboring schools. Serving on this committee are: Lorraine Jensen, Margo Schultz, and Joyce Smith, eighth grade; Janet Wilkins, seventh grade; Duane Huebler and Joanne Anderson, ninth grade; and Carol Rakowski, tenth grade.

The Plymouth High school Eco club will be in charge of the ushering, music, and the refreshments. The chairmen are: Betty Bowden, ushering; Janice Feniv, refreshments; and Maudie Crosby, music. Pat Krumb, commentator, will show a film "Homemaking in College."

Mrs. Frances Overton's art students are making posters for the event. Mr. William Campbell will be in charge of lighting.

The public and students of Plymouth High school are cordially invited.

The dollar should be called a "dollar" says Representative Cotton, Republican from New Hampshire.

These Events Were News

25 Years Ago

A very impressive wedding took place last Saturday evening at 8:00 at the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary on Longfellow and Dexter boulevard, Detroit, when Clarence McCrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCrum of Golden road of this village, was united in marriage to Miss Ellen O'Leary of Detroit.

Max Trucks and Miss Sophie Weibekim were married at the Lutheran church in this village, Thursday afternoon at four p.m. The Reverend Charles Strasen officiating.

Mrs. E. E. Pettibone and Mrs. Archie Collins called on Mrs. Outmer at Wayne last Friday.

Plymouth's welfare and its future must be built upon the highest ideals, backed by co-operation and thrift, in the opinion of Roy E. Crowe, manager here for the Michigan Bell Telephone company who propounded this theory during his address at the ceremony of placing the cornerstone of the new telephone building, Tuesday afternoon, May 18.

Mr. Crowe, recounting the telephone history of Plymouth, told how the first toll station was established in the village in 1886, located in the drug store of J. L. Gale.

Now that the library is moved into the new quarters, the front hall and the old commission chamber at the village hall will be redecorated. Oak floor will be laid and the walls and ceiling painted a light gray like the manager's office.

so far as it applies to those willing to do a good day's work. Here are eight reasons to prove it:

Free Educational Opportunities
(1) Although our United States population has increased from 75,994,575 in 1900 (when I tried to get my first job at ten dollars per week) to 153,490,000 today, the demand for workers has increased much more. Hence, population figures are in favor of today's young people.

(2) There are many more opportunities for free advanced education than ever before. These include free Degree Scholarships Extension Correspondence in all good colleges, very cheap extension correspondence courses in most subjects, and excellent Public Libraries where one can get a good education by merely systematic reading.

(3) The average young person today will not work hard or for long hours. He wants an "easy job." This gives those few who are glad to work hard and long much better jobs and faster promotions.

What Employers Want
(4) Employers want young workers to have good habits—those who let liquor alone and don't smoke during business hours. As each year fewer job applicants appear to qualify for good habits, those few who do possess them have an advantage.

(5) Those who belong to no labor union also have an advantage in getting good jobs and fast promotions. This gives another opportunity to young people not possessed by elders.

(6) Another advantage young people have today is the ability to borrow money for a home. When I got married it was necessary to put 40 percent cash down. We could borrow only 60 percent and only for 3 to 5 years. Now, any good couple can borrow 80 percent or more with payments extended over 20 years. In addition, they today have Social Security Accident Insurance and other benefits which Mrs. Babson and I never had.

(7) As a statistician, I must remind readers of how the country's birth rate will help graduates this coming June. If you were born during the early "thirties" when there was great unemployment and few marriages and babies, you now have not so many to compete with.

(8) The pension plans which are now rapidly increasing not only eliminate the oldest men rapidly, thus making promotions easier for you, but they also furnish you security in your later days.

Don't Let the Draft Worry You
I repeat my previous advice that you go ahead with your plans for college or for getting a job the same as if no war were possible. Congress is acting on Universal Military Training just as I forecast. Moreover, those who are drafted are about as safe as those who stay at home; while 85 percent who return okay will have benefits as veterans, which the non-drafted boys will not have.

One more thought. The question as to whether you will become an employer some day instead of always remaining a wageworker will largely be determined by this simple rule:—If you save some money each week, you can some day become an employer. If you don't save money each week, you will always remain a wageworker.
