

"A REAL THRILL" says Albert Holcomb pictured above when he tells about landing the huge Alligator-Gar from the turbulent waters of the Mississippi River on his recent vacation to his former home state.

ONE OF THE MOST VICIOUS of all fish in the river most fishermen shoot them with rifles but gunless at the time of the strike it took Mr. Holcomb and his brother 3 1/2 hours to bring their prize to shore.

Local Fishermen Lands 151 Pounder

Albert Holcomb, 1150 Carroll, has a real fish story to tell, and unlike many such tales, he has the proof to go with it—pictures of his catch.

On a recent trip to his native state of Mississippi, he went out on the Mississippi near Gumberton, with his brother, Forest Holcomb, of Marx, Mississippi. They were in a 26-foot, homemade boat, using nylon lines, and hoped to catch some of the famous "channel cats."

In the course of the fishing, he felt a jerk on his line and he knew he had hooked one. A moment later a second and harder jerk told him something else had grabbed his cat.

Three and a half hours later, with considerable help from his brother, he landed his fish, a 151-pound, 15 1/2-inch pointed snout known as an alligator-gar.

This huge fish, sometimes weighing almost 400 pounds, is a little known, fresh-water fish, whose flesh is considered a delicacy in the south. Mr. Holcomb sold his catch to a local restaurant for five cents a pound.

Mr. Holcomb and his family enjoyed a pleasant vacation in Mississippi, but any fisherman can tell what part of the vacation Mr. Holcomb will remember longest.

Smith Memorial Fund Organized

Friends of former George A. Smith met at the Robert Willoughby residence last week to further plans for the establishing of a memorial fund for loan purposes to local students. An accounting of funds so far received, shows that $220.00 has been collected at local banks and it is the hope of the group that this amount can be increased so that it will grow into a sizeable fund that can be made available through the years ahead to students needing aid in completing their education.

Local civic groups have been asked to name a member to the fund committee to serve with the group in expanding the fund and its facilities. The next meeting of the group is scheduled at the Harry Reeves residence at 1224 W. Ann Arbor trail at 8 p.m. on August 1.

Elks and Auxiliary Presented with Award

The Northville area Elks' lodge, 2504, which includes Plymouth and vicinity, has been presented with a certificate of appreciation for their part in raising $130,689 for the Damon Runyon Memorial Fund for Cancer Research.

Archery Club to Hold Shoot

Here's a chance for you bow-and-arrow deer hunters to assure yourselves of getting that buck next fall. Practice makes perfect, and it takes perfect archery to bring down those elusive deer in the old-fashioned, Indian style.

The Western Wayne County Conservation Association is holding an all-day shooting match at their club grounds on August 12. Stationary and running deer targets will be provided, and lunch and refreshments will be served at the club house.

Experts tell us that there are two types of deer hunters; those who walk the woods and those who bring back a buck. The two types are suited to this time of year. The rifle or bow of the woods-walker is either gathering dust or being used to take a few half-hearted shots at a tomato-can-fishy feet away. In the fall he will come back with tales of the "12 pointers" which got away.

The other type, who will have venison on his table next fall, is out on the range now. He is practicing different positions, sharpening his distance estimation and getting the feel of the weapon.

If you have been the woods-walker type before, why not get in a little practice now and bring back that "12 pointer" this year. Bring your bow out to the Association club grounds, on Joy road, between Wayne and Newburg roads, on August 12. There are no range or entrance fees; only a get-acquainted, good time and lots of shooting.

Plymouth Cited For Safe Streets

Plymouth has been cited favorably by the American Automobile Association for its pedestrian safety activities during 1950. City Manager A. F. Glassford received a letter from AAA President Lou E. Holland singling out Plymouth's "splendid record of no pedestrian deaths in 1950."

Plymouth's fine pedestrian protection results helped Michigan win third place among states in the 1950 AAA Pedestrian contest. Automobile Club of Michigan's General Manager Richard Harst commented.

The letter complimented Police Chief Carl R. Greenlee for his safety efforts in 1950. A chart attached to the letter recorded a 41 percent reduction in pedestrian fatalities nationally since 1937 when the contest began. In that period all other traffic fatalities have increased five percent nationally.

Flood Strands Jean Carmody at Army Base

Caught in the recent Kansas-Missouri flood, Jean Carmody, 41895 Wilcox, spent the most hectic four days of her life. Jean was stranded by the flood waters at Fort Riley, Kansas, where she was visiting Charles Finlan, son of Mrs. Harold Finlan of Arthur street, now a Private in the U. S. Army.

After spending one night in the WAC barracks, she was evacuated at 5:30 in the morning by the Army and was later placed by them in the home of a Warrant Officer. All sheets, pillow cases and mattress covers were commandeered for use as sandbags, but in spite of all precautions, the dike protecting the base broke in three places. Thousands of GI's were moved to nearby hills to live in pup tents until the water receded.

The Army took over the first day of the flood and flew in food and supplies with helicopters. As the water went down, says Jean, it revealed a sight of almost complete ruin. Many buildings were wrecked and mud covered everything. Some people, homeless and frightened, were in a state of panic, thus adding to the confusion.

"All in all" says Jean, "it was almost like the aftermath of a bombing raid. A few days earlier I had been admiring a beautiful Army base. When I left, it was a pile of debris."

Although no one was supposed to leave the base, Jean heard of a passable road which led toward home and she persuaded the M. P.'s to let her leave. She drove straight through and arrived in Plymouth last Tuesday night.

"I hope we never experience anything like it here," she says.

Husband Missing, Family Needs Aid

A family, consisting of an expectant mother and her five children, ranging in age from 3 to 13, are in dire need in Plymouth township.

The woman, who is expecting a baby in the immediate future, was left without any funds when her husband vanished more than two weeks ago.

The husband took the last of their savings to make a down payment on a car and has not been heard from since. The distraught wife fears something may have happened to him as it is entirely out of line with his character. They have lived together many years and nothing resembling this has ever happened before. He has been a good father and a dutiful husband.

Officers have been notified to search for the missing man. This destitute family live in a home without water, toilet facilities, or any other modern conveniences.

Help is urgently needed, and if anyone interested in the case cares to help, more information can be obtained at the Plymouth Mail.

Annual Election of KC Takes Place

Roland J. Francis was elected without opposition and installed as Grand Knight of Plymouth's vigorous young Knights of Columbus council at the clubhouse Monday, July 9.

The customary, impressive installation of officers ceremony was presided over by the District Deputy representing the state council. An interesting side-light on the slate of officers elected for the 1951-52 term is the presence of two father-and-son combinations in its roll. Noteworthy, also, is the fact that although the council includes members from several surrounding communities, all except one of the new officers are residents of the Plymouth area.

It is the membership's tribute to the energetic men of the town who have labored so diligently to launch and establish this local unit of the international-wide organization of the Knights of Columbus.

Assisting the new Grand Knight for the coming year will

Ask Stop Lights On Sheldon Road

City Manager Albert Glassford has requested the Wayne County Road Commission to make their recommendations for stop lights at four-way stop signs at the intersections of Ann Arbor trail and Sheldon road, and Penman street and Sheldon road. This move, sponsored by the city commission with the safety of the school children in mind, was authorized by the commission at its last meeting. The city, having no traffic experts, depends on the county for such recommendations. It is hoped that these safety precautions can be taken by the time school opens this fall.

DeMolays Have Drive for Funds

William A. Rose, chairman of the finance committee of The Order of DeMolay, states that a fund raising campaign has begun for the local Chapter.

In answer to scores of inquiries that usually begin with "What is DeMolay? How did it start?" Mr. Rose has this to say:

The movement was founded in 1919 by Frank S. Land in Kansas City, Missouri. It started with a group of nine high school boys. Today, more than a million and a half young men have passed through the portals of DeMolay and knelt at its altar. The entire international organization of the order is unified and governed by a group of outstanding, public-spirited men known as the Grand Council of the Order of DeMolay.

All that was best in ancient chivalry lives now in the Order of DeMolay. It is an international fellowship of young men between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one. There is hardly a town or hamlet in North America where you will not find a DeMolay Chapter—or a DeMolay.

A few short months ago, a Plymouth-sponsored Order of DeMolay Chapter was formed, and has been working under the close supervision of its adult sponsors. All concerned have discovered that this character-

Interest Mounts in Golf Tourney

Interest in the annual City of Plymouth amateur golf tournament continues to mount as plans progress for the sixth anniversary of this interesting golf event beginning Saturday, August 11.

As established originally, the scene of this keenly awaited golf event will be Hilltop Golf Club. The tournament is open to resident amateur golfers of Plymouth, Canton, Livonia, Nankin and Newburg townships.

Qualifying rounds of 18 holes will be played on Saturday, August 11. Eighty lowest medal scorers will become eligible to begin elimination match play rounds Sunday, August 12, and continuing through Saturday and Sunday, August 13 and 14, with 36 hole finals on Saturday, August 25. A victor's dinner-dinner will be held for the winners and award trophies and prizes will be held in the evening following the matches.

The city's amateur golfers will battle it out in five divisions for the coveted titles of Plymouth's amateur champions in the Championship. First, Second, Third and Fourth flights. Runners-up in each division will also share in the trophies and prizes.

Defending champion, Tom Lock, a three-time winner during the five years of this event, now holds the original Plymouth Mail Trophy as its permanent possessor. A new trophy will appear in its place this year for the city's low handicap golfers to shoot at.

It is expected that more than one hundred golfers will enter this year's tournament and will bring out many new faces from the ranks of Plymouth's newer residents. Entry blanks may be secured at the Hilltop Club. Entry fee remains at $2.50.

Join the golfing throng for a chance to share in the many wonderful prizes and trophies, as well as the thrill of competing in this annual affair.

Kiwanis Club to Hear Official

At the July 31 meeting of the Plymouth Kiwanis will have as their honored guest, Walter F. Patenge, of Lansing, District Governor of Michigan, who will be making his first visit to the Plymouth group.

The Governor has served as president of his local club, Lieutenant-Governor of the 3d division, and was chairman of the Michigan delegation to the Los Angeles convention in 1948.

Several other clubs have been invited to this meeting, and most of the clubs of the 6th district are expected to attend.

A special luncheon will be served for the ladies in the Pilgrim room of the Mayflower hotel with Mrs. Patenge as the guest of honor.

Community Band Concert Friday

Another of the weekly concerts sponsored by the Plymouth Summer Community Band will be presented Friday evening at 9 p.m. in Kellogg Park.

According to Robert L. Snyder, the director, tomorrow's program will consist of Bitter Sweet overture by Coward, Washington Post march by Sousa, Officer of the Day march by Hall, Tea for Two by Youmans, March of the Musketeers by Friml, Jealousy by Gade, On Wisconsin march by Purdy, Palmona overture by Leoni, Shine on Harvest Moon by Bayes, Let Me Call You Sweetheart by Whitson and El Capitan march by Sousa.

WAYNE COUNTY PROBATE JUDGE JAMES H. SEXTON congratulates Attorney Vina M. Alandt, first girl graduate of Plymouth High School to receive a law degree. Mrs. Alandt will open a law office at her residence, 45411 W. Ann Arbor Road.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Galloway, 9475 N. Canton Center Road and is married to Clarence J. Alandt, a CPA and law graduate of the University of Detroit.

The new attorney graduated from Plymouth High School in June, 1941 and took her law degree from the University of Detroit in 1950. She is president of Lambda Chapter of Kappa Beta Pi, International Legal Sorority and is Chancellor of the same sorority for Province 3, consisting of the Northwestern states and Kentucky. Last year she was in charge of the Province 3 convention in Detroit. She is also a member of Phi Gamma Nu commercial sorority.

She was employed by the Wayne County Treasurer's Office prior to her marriage to Mr. Alandt. She is the mother of a five-year-old son, Michael Clare Alandt.

Rotarians Hear of Air Progress

Donald N. Phillips, a member of the publicity department of Capital Air Lines, gave a very interesting and entertaining talk to the members of the Rotary Club at their weekly meeting in the Mayflower hotel on July 20. His subject was, "The Progress of Commercial Air Transportation."

Mr. Phillips told of the progress of transportation from the earlier days when sailing boats were the chief mode of transportation, to the steamships and railroads, and up to the present day air transportation facilities.

He compared the Commercial air facilities of 1950 with those available in 1946. In that short five year period the number of transport planes doubled in quantity.

Mr. Phillips concluded his talk by relating the part the air lines played in the transportation of military supplies, and stated that the first air transport was converted to military service in the remarkable time of 24 hours.

Catherine Moss has Trip Abroad

Miss Catherine Moss, daughter of Thomas W. Moss, of 1278 W. Ann Arbor trail, has just returned from a two month vacation in Europe. While there she visited England, France and Italy, and was particularly impressed with London, Rome, Paris, Vienna, and the Italian Riviera.

Miss Moss sailed in May aboard the New Amsterdam, a ship of the Holland American line. She states it was a very rough trip going over as a hurricane swept down upon them when part way across the Atlantic.

The young Plymouth lady found Venice very fascinating. The Italian people seemed very poor, but most contented. Food was plentiful everywhere, with the exception of England, where it was rather scarce.

Crossing the Channel from France to England she found herself on the same boat as "Sugar" Ray Robinson and his party. Ray lost his middleweight boxing championship in London.

In England she witnessed the British Exhibition, a festival of Britain. Also Miss Moss had the rare privilege of seeing Queen Elizabeth and Princess Margaret coming out of St. Paul's cathedral, where they had been attending a special service.

Everyone in England seems to have two gardens; a flower garden in front of the house and a vegetable garden in the rear, and take a great deal of pride in keeping them in good shape.

Miss Moss states that the traffic problem is much more serious in Europe than in America. The streets are so narrow, and the taxis and cyclist so numerous that a pedestrian has to watch carefully at all times to avoid injury.

Catherine is glad to be home again and has resumed her position, from which she had been granted a leave of absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Doyle and daughter and Mr. Clair Hubbard of Midland were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Tibbatts of Ann Arbor road.

Marching Band Here on Friday

Final plans for a concert for local music lovers by the Racine, Wisconsin Boy Scout Drum and Bugle corp has been completed for Friday night at 7:30 in the high school athletic field. The band's performance will be of unusual interest in view of the fact that the many maneuvers the band goes through when it plays will be an added treat for residents of this city.

Entertained here by the Daisy Manufacturing Company as a contribution to Detroit's 250th anniversary celebration, the entire program of appearance in Plymouth has been arranged by the Detroit Scout Council. In addition to a tour of the Daisy plant, and dinner given by the company at the Presbyterian church, the boys will be entertained by a ball game between the Championship Daisy team and the colored Inkster-Harrison team of Inkster on the Daisy field at 5:45 p.m. Wally Dzurus, recently signed by the Cleveland Indians, will pitch for the so far undefeated Daisy team.

A parade has been planned previous to the concert and a color guard from local scout units will parade with the band. The concert in the evening will be entirely free of charge and it is hoped that a large crowd will be on hand to see the championship band go through their marching maneuvers.

New City Charter Awaits Signing by Gov. Williams

The nine members of the City Charter Revision Committee, having completed their long and arduous task of making necessary changes in the city charter, are now awaiting the next step. That will be the signing of the new charter by Governor G. Mennen Williams. The committee is planning a journey to Lansing to be present at the signing. Plymouth voters will be called upon to vote on the suggested charter on October 1. If voted upon favorably, the new charter will go into effect on November 1.

Members of the nine-member committee are: Frank Arlen, James Houk, Howard Carson, Gladys Tillotson, Russell Daane, Catherine Henderson, Robert Nulty, Don Sutherland and Clarence Moore, the last two being chairman and vice-chairman, respectively.

These persons deserve the thanks of the community for their perseverance and devotion to their job. The finished product is the result of much thought and discussion, and the committee is justly proud of its work. It will be presented to the Plymouth public for study in an early edition of the Mail.

The question of local variances in building codes has long been a subject of concern to builders and engineers. A national builders organization, the Building Officers Conference of America, Inc., has drawn up a master building code, to be used as a standard for the entire country. A Wayne county code, patterned after this national code, is now in the making. Such changes, however, take considerable time to effect.

The construction of Gunnison homes is also under consideration in Plymouth township, but township officers express doubt as to their practicability.

"They look fine now," says Charles Rathburn, township supervisor, "but how will they look in ten years?"

The township building code also prohibits construction of the homes. As in the city, the township code calls for thicker walls, larger studs and a masonry chimney built from the ground.

This sort of building code is known as a "specification type" code. Proponents of modernized building codes would prefer to see "performance type" codes, in which the size and type of material is not as important as what it will do. They denounce the "good enough for our fathers" attitude and point out that if we had followed such an attitude we would still be riding in horse and buggies.

Large Tomatoes Grown by Farmer

This section of Wayne county not only grows the most sweet-corn, but can boast of the largest tomatoes.

Marvin Schmidt, a commercial vegetable grower, recently brought in a story of a huge tomato which is 13 1/2" in circumference, and balances the scales at 15 1/2 ounces. It is 4" in diameter and has a height of 3 1/2", and what's more, is of Grade 1. Fast figuring by this reporter makes that about 15 tomatoes to a peck.

Mr. Schmidt, a member of the Wayne County Vegetable Growers' Association, and whose farm is located at 38507 Plymouth road, planted 10,000 tomato plants last Spring. He is harvesting about 200 baskets a day and trucking them to the Eastern Market in Detroit.

Wynn Schrader and Randy Eaton left Tuesday for a two-weeks stay at Camp Mahn-Gah-To-See.

James Powers and son, Arthur, from Jerseyville, Illinois, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Powers at their home at 43065 Joy road.

City Building Code Challenged By New Ideas

A possible answer to Plymouth's growing housing problem has been suggested by the Northville agency of Gunnison Homes, a U. S. Steel subsidiary. A prefabricated home, made of marine plywood, can be constructed by a Gunnison Homes' crew in about eight working days, at a price which runs 23 percent less than conventionally built homes.

The house is a one-story unit, built on a concrete slab. Its walls are made of 4 by 8 panels of insulated marine plywood, three inches thick. This is the substance used by the U. S. Navy in their PT boats during World War II. It has withstood test pressures up to 22,000 pounds.

However, according to City Engineer Stanford Bessé, the homes cannot be constructed in Plymouth.

"We have to follow the building code," he says, "and these homes fail to comply in several respects. The house has a Van Packer chimney, a rafter-suspension type, which is illegal in view of the requirement for brick and mortar chimneys built from the ground. The 2 by 3 studs used in the house do not comply with the 2 by 4 requirement of the code, nor does the three inch thickness of the walls."

Mr. Harry Duerson, of Northville, general manager of the Gunnison Agency for this area, waves these objections aside.

"The Van Packer chimney is approved by the Underwriters Laboratories and all leading fire insurance companies. As far as the building code is concerned, the house is approved by the FHA, the VA, the Bureau of Standards and the leading architects and engineers of the country. They have been approved for construction in Grand Rapids, Ann Arbor, Northville, and recently, Detroit."

City officers and real estate men are non-committal about the value of the homes. They fear to rush into anything new without knowing more about it. Past experiences with other prefabricated homes have made them distrustful.

The problem facing Plymouth seems to be whether or not the city building code is out-of-date in view of recent progress in the home building field. The code was drawn up over 20 years ago. Is it so old-fashioned, rigid and unflexible that it acts as a curb on expansion and growth of the city?

The question of local variances in building codes has long been a subject of concern to builders and engineers. A national builders organization, the Building Officers Conference of America, Inc., has drawn up a master building code, to be used as a standard for the entire country. A Wayne county code, patterned after this national code, is now in the making. Such changes, however, take considerable time to effect.

The construction of Gunnison homes is also under consideration in Plymouth township, but township officers express doubt as to their practicability.

"They look fine now," says Charles Rathburn, township supervisor, "but how will they look in ten years?"

Proponents of modernized building codes would prefer to see "performance type" codes, in which the size and type of material is not as important as what it will do. They denounce the "good enough for our fathers" attitude and point out that if we had followed such an attitude we would still be riding in horse and buggies.

War Pilot Here to Visit Brothers

Captain William L. Jackson, brother of Woodrow Jackson of 42681 Five Mile road and Max Jackson of 42479 Laurel road, is returning with them this week, after which he will go to his permanent base at Shaw Field, South Carolina.

Captain Jackson has been a pilot in the Air Force since February, 1945, and completed 26 B-17 bomber missions over Europe during World War II. He has flown 128 missions over Korea in the present conflict.

The Captain is a "mosquito" pilot in reconnaissance with a tactical air unit. A "mosquito" pilot is one who flies at a very low altitude over enemy lines locating the targets and then informing the jet plane pilots where to direct their fire. He is in contact with a jeep on the ground at all times. This is necessary as the front lines are so close together that our own troops might be strafed without this contact.

The Captain states that the Reds are experts at camouflage, and many times his plane was shot at and he could not locate the artillery from which the fire came.

He says the ground forces learned to appreciate the air force much more in this war than in World War II, because they consented a lot of support to them.

"Captain Jackson is married and has two children."

Twenty-six CAP pilots lost their lives in World War II. In the event of future hostilities, the CAP will prove valuable, if our cities are bombed, by evacuating the wounded and bringing doctors and nurses to the scene.

Today, one of the chief functions of the Patrol is the training of American youth in the fundamentals of aeronautics. In the United States and territories which make up the 51 wings of the CAP there are about 30,000 boys and girls participating in the CAP Cadet Training Program.

VFW Ladies Hold Ice Cream Social

A very successful ice cream social was held by the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary in Kellogg Park last Friday. Ice cream and cake were served to the music of the Plymouth Summer Community Band from two until ten o'clock.

Chairmen of the event were Mrs. Gerald Olson, 707 Maple, and Mrs. Robert Shepard, 14290 Northville road. Results of the social were very pleasing and the auxiliary is considering another one later in the summer.

Services Held for Mrs. Anna B. Root

Mrs. Anna Belden Root, a well-known Plymouth resident passed away Saturday evening, July 21, in Sessions hospital, Northville, at the age of 79 years. Mrs. Root has been a long-time resident of this area and has resided at 9590 Ann Arbor road for the past 20 years.

Anna Belden Root was born in Providence, Rhode Island, the only daughter of Francis Stanton Belden and Anna LeValley Belden. Her father, mother and five brothers passed on several years ago. In 1910 she married Charles A. Root in Chicago.

The family lived in Philadelphia, Chicago and Evanston, Illinois, and she received her education in the public schools of the latter city. She also was a pupil at the Conservatory of Music at Northwestern University. Mrs. Root later graduated from a Chicago Normal school and received a life certificate and taught in the public school kindergartens in Chicago for ten years.

On account of the scarcity of teachers during the first World War she was back into teaching again and taught in the little Miller-Greer school for two years. In 1920 she received a life certificate from Ypsilanti State Normal college, and taught the first grade in the Plymouth schools for 11 years, and three years in the Kenyon school in Wayne county.

Mrs. Root was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Eastern Star, and the Plymouth Historical Society.

Survivors include her husband, Charles A. Root; her son, Charles A. Root, Jr.; one nephew, George C. Belden, of Baltimore, Maryland; one niece, Mary Belden Rader of San Jose, California; and one grandson, Richard Bruce Root, of Plymouth, and other relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral services were conducted by the Schrader Funeral Home Tuesday, July 24, at two p.m. with Mr. Edwin Bolton, a Christian Science Reader officiating. The services were under the auspices of the Plymouth Chapter 115 O.E.S. The active pallbearers were Messrs. Thomas Gardner, Burt Bennett, Harlow Ingall, William Grammel, Charles Huebner and Frank Hesse. Interment was in Highland cemetery, Ypsilanti, Michigan.

Detroit, were fishing about a mile off Lexington in Lake Huron when the sudden wind came up. Brother Krass' body has not been accounted for at this time.

The body of Mrs. Koerber was washed ashore at midnight the day of the accident.

The lone survivor of the tragic fishing trip was Mrs. Gretchen Davis, 27, of Detroit. Mrs. Davis, who could not swim, was found clinging to a life preserver.

Planes from Selfridge Air Base, the Civil Air Patrol at Port Huron, and Coast Guard searched the accident area for many hours after the tragedy.

Mr. Smith, the father of five children, lived in East Detroit. His body was recovered a week after the accident. Mr. Smith's funeral was held last Friday morning at 9:30 in East Detroit. Besides his children, Mr. Smith is survived by his widow, Marie.

DeMolays Have Drive for Funds

building organization not only teaches harmonious cooperation, but supplies a means of expending adolescent energy along creative and constructive lines. Plymouth DeMolay has attracted a fine group of eager, hard working boys in its few months of life and they have already gained sufficient proficiency so that they have been asked by neighboring chapters to confer the degrees.

"Many local 'friends of youth' have voluntarily contributed monetary support to help the boys purchase robes and ritualistic equipment," said Rose, "and on behalf of the committee, I want to take this opportunity to thank them." They've made an investment that pays off big in the knowledge that they're invested in YOUTH—and in the AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE!

The committee under Rose consists of: Lewis Balch, William Michaels, John Campbell, Jack Gage, Roy Leemon, Godber Jackson, Charles Huebner, Herman Foltz and Henry Agosta.

The drive got off to a good start, and the letter printed below is typical of those received thus far. Mr. William Rose & Committee Order of DeMolay Plymouth, Michigan Dear Bill and Fellows:

Attached is a wee bit of a contribution to DeMolay. It's about as small an amount as you will receive. BUT— with it comes the biggest heart-felt "Welcome to Plymouth and God Bless you" that I can muster.

Long ago the writer was groping through life by a trial and error method when DeMolay offered him a protecting wing. It was comforting under that wing, with myriads of fine guidance, impressive ritual, good companionship, and, for the first time since my own father died, someone and something to turn to when the going was rough. We had a swell "Dad" or two, and a host of other Masons who watched over us. Now, as the years roll by, I realize that the investment of time in working through the chairs of DeMolay was the best investment I could have made.

I didn't know it at the time, but a lot of older men about me must have contributed of their time and monies to give us all we had. Now it's my turn. The enclosed check is only the smallest partial repayment of the debt

I owe. I wish it could be many times as much.

Best wishes to you all in bringing Jacques DeMolay to the attention of the lads of our Plymouth.

Cordially,
Carl Caplin

THE MIDDLES By Bob Karp

In Memoriam 28
IN loving memory of our father, husband, and grandfather, who passed away one year ago today, July 25. July brings sad memories of a loved one laid to rest: He'll always be remembered by those who loved him best. He bade no one a last farewell, he said goodbye to none: His loving heart just ceased to beat; before we knew it he was gone. Sadly missed by Mrs. William H. Scheppe, Wilma M. Kaiser, Mildred F. Fisher, Warren W. Scheppe. 28-1tc

All Star Team in Tourney Finals

The Plymouth All Star team composed of boys picked from the Western Wayne League came through the Times-Hearst Regionals with flying colors by winning all three games played at Belle Isle last Saturday, July 21. By winning these three games the All Stars qualified for the finals of the tournament to be played at Briggs Stadium this Saturday, July 28.

Jerry Davies of Wayne pitched a two hit shut-out against the Dearborn All Stars to give the Plymouth boys their first win 7-0.

In the second game, Scott of Inkster, set down an Adrian team with one hit for a 1-0 victory.

Davies came back for the third game and pitched another two hit shut-out to Port Huron and give the Plymouth All Stars their third win and a clean sweep of the Regionals.

Local Fishermen Hook Eager Fish

Judge J. Rusling Cutler relates a fantastic "fish story" which occurred last weekend while fishing for pike in the Thunder Bay river. He swears it is the truth, and has his companions Ernie Henry, Ralph Taylor, Lon Brocklehurst and Frank Terry to verify it.

It seems Judge Cutler and "Brook" were in one boat and had several lines dangling over the boat for pan fish. Suddenly the judge heard "Brook" shout and looked up to see him pulling in an 8-inch perch. Out of the water leaped a large pike, grabbed the perch, and hung on until he found himself in Judge Cutler's landing net.

This over-zealous fish saved them from an embarrassing situation as it was the only pike caught during the weekend.

Generosity to many people, consists merely in giving free advice to others.

Three rats will usually eat as much grain daily as two top-production laying hens.

By Carl Peterson

The San Diego, Calif., Board of Education is setting up a course to aid confused teenagers. Sounds like quite a project. The students are to be trained to "see through" untruths in advertising, political campaign bally-hoo, speeches and propaganda. That'll take 20-30 mental vision unaided by rose-colored glasses. Truth is sometimes harder to pin down than a flock of butterflies in a whirlwind. But it's a great idea and we hope it helps to clarify current confusions. If it works on the teen-agers... maybe somebody'll start a similar course for disorganized oldsters. It's a big field.

A system of government that discourages a man from thinking for himself, or from acting for himself is doomed to fail because it crushes human incentive to a level lower than the beasts of the jungle.

The Communist Ministry of Construction in Budapest ordered knobs on all staircase railings to keep kids from sliding down them. That ought to put the rising generation on its feet. To put the finishing touch on a good evening at the movies, stop by PETERSON DRUG for some cooling refreshments or tasty snacks. And while there, you can conveniently do your shopping in the most modern and completely-stocked drug store in this area. At 840 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Phone: 2080.

The Lazy J Ranch's 1950 Ford F-3 Express with POWER PILOT was one of more than 5,000 Fords in the nationwide, 50-million-mile Ford Truck Economy Run.

George Stephens of the Lazy J Ranch says: "The low cost my Ford Truck showed in the Economy Run speaks for itself. I got regular service checkups from my Ford Dealer."

"My ranch 'workhorse' runs for only 2 1/2¢ a mile!"

Ranch owner George Stephens proved for himself, in the big Economy Run, just how little it costs to run his Ford Truck!

"The Lazy J's Ford Express did itself proud in the Ford Truck Economy Run," says Stephens. "Daily records kept during the entire six months show that our Ford Truck ran up a total of 5,109 miles. My out-of-pocket expense for gas, oil, maintenance and repairs was exactly $123.51... about a $20 bill each month... only 2 1/2 cents a mile!"

The Ford Truck POWER PILOT carburetion-ignition system is one reason why Ford Trucks cost so little to run, in ranch work or any work. The POWER PILOT gives you the most power from the least gas. In the low-price field, only Ford has it!

FORD TRUCKING COSTS LESS

Cavalcade Lead in Open League

Cavalcade led by the 3 hit pitching of George Le Tourneau, and Bill Buettel's long homerun defeated Beglinger Olds last Monday night, July 16, to move into first place in the Men's Open League.

Cavalcade jumped off to an early lead in the top of the first inning when Cook led off with a single, and after two batters were out Gadwa blasted a double to centerfield scoring Cook. Bill Buettel then came up and lined a single to left, but Gadwa was thrown out trying to score.

With first place at stake, Beglinger Olds fought back and tied up the ballgame in their half of the first on a base on balls to Schultz and a double by Gilles.

Both teams went scoreless in the second inning, but Cavalcade in the top of the third scored again on an error and a double by Cook.

But to the displeasure of the Cavalcade team, the Beglinger boys tied up the game again in their half of the same inning.

Then in the fourth inning Big Bill Buettel slammed a long homerun to right center for the winning tally as Le Tourneau pitched hitless ball for the last four innings.

Three days later on Thursday, July 19, Cavalcade maintained their first place position by defeating DeHoCo 7-2 as Beglingers squeezed out a win over Penn Theater 2-1.

Dunn Steel Still Lead Old Timers

Games in the Old Timers' League last week featured four wild scoring sprees. In the first two games of the week played on Wednesday July 18, Dunn Steel downed Rosedale Civic 19-1 and Allen Industries fell before the V.F.W. boys 15-5.

On Friday night the last two games were played which saw Dunn Steel go hit-happy again and swamp the Contractors 11-0, and Rosedale Civic massacred Allen Industries 15-5.

In the four games the Old Timers scored a grand total of 48 runs, rapped out 90 hits, and as you guessed, it was a tough week on pitchers.

Wallace Williams' Return from Northern Honeymoon

In a gown of Chantilly lace and net over white satin, Marie Travis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Travis of Plymouth spoke her nuptial vows to Wallace Williams at St. Peter's Lutheran church Saturday, June 30. Wallace is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams of Dearborn.

Her lovely gown had a portrait neckline of illusion and long fitted sleeves extending to points at the wrist. Her fingertip length veil of illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade of white orchids, stephanotis and ivy. She was given in marriage by her father.

The Reverend Edgar Hoenecke officiated at the four o'clock rites before the altar festive in palms, white snapdragons and carnations. "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Miss Mabel Vickstrom preceding the ceremony.

Miss Beverly Williams, sister of the bridegroom was Marie's only attendant. She wore a gown of lavender marquisette over tulle in the same shade and matching picture hat. She carried a basket of white daisies.

David Travis, brother of the bride, was chosen by Wallace to assist him as best man. The bride's mother wore a dress of black and white silk print with white accessories and Mrs. Williams selected a navy and white silk print with white accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Immediately after the wedding, a reception for 150 was held with

Residents Go to Golden Wedding

Fifty years ago St. Alphonsus church was the scene of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lorenz of Langdon, North Dakota. Wednesday, June 20, in the same church Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz renewed their nuptial vows at a solemn high mass at 10 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz are the parents of eight children, seven of whom were present for the celebration. Among the children from the Plymouth area attending were Henry F. Lorenz, of this city, and Mrs. Wes Cameron of Detroit.

Mr. Lorenz is the oldest of seven surviving brothers, one of whom is Ralph J. Lorenz of Plymouth.

About 70 guests were present for the dinner in St. Alphonsus gymnasium which was held after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz, who have lived at Langdon for 55 years, are both natives of Austria. Mr. Lorenz immigrated to North Dakota in 1896 and settled in the Osabrock vicinity.

Hints For Plymouth Homemakers

It Isn't too Early to Begin Preserving Peaches

Waiting for the peak of the Michigan peach crop before using the fruit lavishly this year is not necessary. Crops from the South and East are available and the fruit coming into Plymouth markets is of increasingly better quality as gradually decreasing prices.

If the crop forecast for Michigan is not too favorable it may even be wise to schedule canning, freezing and other methods of preserving peaches earlier than usual. Whenever good quality peaches are available at an attractive price will be the best time to buy them.

Careful shoppers look for a creamy white or yellow background color on peaches, rather than red cheeks. This shade that the fruit has been ripened sufficiently on the trees before picking, according to the Food and Nutrition Service of the American Red Cross. Fruit which has been picked too green is not only poor in flavor but often travels instead of ripening.

For any use—freezing, canning, making jam or eating freshly—fully ripe peaches are best. When they are brought in a large quantity it is a good idea to sort them out carefully at once so the ripe fruit can be used first. The under-ripe fruit should be placed in a shallow layer in a moderately cool place—not the refrigerator—to soften and develop a rich flavor.

Frozen Peaches
For best results in either canning or freezing use the peaches while they are still firm. The use of ascorbic acid which you can buy in either tablet or powder form, is usually added to the syrup to prevent darkening of peaches during freezing.

To prepare syrup boil together for five minutes one quart water with either three to four cups granulated sugar. Skin and chill. Just before pouring syrup over peaches in the containers add 1/4 teaspoon powdered ascorbic acid or 1,000 milligrams in tablet form. Stir until completely dissolved.

Use firm, ripe peaches. Peel, halve and pit them. Cut each half into four to six pieces and pack quickly into containers, leaving 1/2 inch of headspace. Cover peaches with cold syrup immediately. To keep firm below syrup put some crumpled waxed paper on top. Seal at once and freeze.

Peach Jam
Use fully ripe fruit. Dip in boiling water for about half a minute, drop into cold water for a few seconds and slip off skins. Pit peaches. Weigh fruit and crush. Arrange in kettle in alternate layers with sugar, using three-fourths pound sugar for each pound of peaches.

Let stand for three or four hours to draw juice. Place over low heat, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Increase heat, bring mixture to boiling point and cook until fruit is clear and jam slightly thickened, stirring frequently. Pour into hot, sterilized jars or glasses and seal at once.

Peach Torte
One and one-half cups sifted enriched all-purpose flour, 1 cup sugar, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon iodized salt, 1/3 cup vegetable shortening, 3/4 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon almond extract, 3 egg whites, peach custard, confectioners' sugar.

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together. Add soft shortening, milk and flavoring and beat for two minutes. Add egg whites and beat two minutes longer. Pour batter into greased 8-inch square pan and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees for 30 to 35 minutes. With a cool knife through center to make two thin layers. Spread peach custard or bottom layer. Cover with second layer and sprinkle top with powdered sugar.

Cover with second layer and sprinkle top with powdered sugar.

Peach Custard
One half cup sugar, 1/4 cup enriched flour, 1 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, dash salt, 1 1/2 cups milk, 3 egg yolks, 1/2 teaspoon almond extract, 2 cup sliced peaches.

Combine sugar, nutmeg, flour and salt in top of double boiler. Stir in milk to make a smooth paste. Cook over low heat until thickened, stirring constantly. Pour small amount of hot mixture into slightly beaten egg yolks, then add this mixture to rest of hot mixture. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, for about two minutes. Cool. Add almond extract and peaches. Spread between layers of cake.

Peach Mousse
One and one-half cups mashed peaches, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 tall can chilled evaporated milk, 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Select 4 to 5 ripe peaches. Peel, pit and mash. Add sugar and stir until sugar is dissolved. Whip milk until stiff. Fold in lemon juice and peaches. Pour into cold freezing tray and freeze. Makes 3 pints.

CONTEST WINNING RECIPE

No wonder this recipe for Hawaiian Spareribs won the blue ribbon in a recent recipe contest. No judge could resist these luscious browned spareribs dripping with sweet-sour pineapple sauce.

Hawaiian Spareribs
3 pounds spareribs
3 tablespoons brown sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup vinegar
1/2 cup catsup
1 9-ounce can crushed pineapple
1 tablespoon soy sauce

Cut ribs in serving pieces. Combine sugar, cornstarch and salt and stir in vinegar, catsup, crushed pineapple and juice, and soy sauce. Cook until slightly thickened, stirring constantly.

Arrange layer of spareribs in roasting pan. Cover with half of pineapple sauce; add second layer of ribs and top with rest of sauce.

Cover pan tightly and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 1/2 to 2 hours.

Yield: 4 servings.

Although this recipe calls for braising the ribs, they may also be prepared by cooking in liquid or roasting. When you stuff spareribs for roasting try adding one to two cups of tart apples to your favorite bread stuffing.

Top-of-the-stove spareribs and kraut are an easily prepared dinner dish. Just season the ribs with salt and pepper and simmer about one hour. Add several small peeled onions and cook 30 minutes.

Add sauerkraut and cook one-half hour longer. Put the finishing touches on the menu by serving boiled potatoes and corn muffins.

BE BRIGHT—START THE DAY RIGHT

By Gay Kitchen

Hot crispy muffins and soft-cooked eggs with butter balls and beverages go a long way toward "starting the day right." A balanced breakfast is a must for good health. It should contain all the basic nutrients—high quality protein, some fat, carbohydrates, minerals and vitamins.

Eggs, one of nature's finest protein foods, are particularly suited to the breakfast menu because of their delicate flavor, quickness and ease of cooking and high quality protein. One egg for breakfast is fine but better yet—two eggs. Two eggs will furnish one-fifth of the day's protein need. They help also to balance the breakfast meal not only with protein but also with important vitamins, minerals and some fat. Not pictured but a necessary addition to this breakfast would be fruit in some form.

This entire meal may be prepared in about twelve minutes. While the eggs are cooking, the coffee is perking, the muffins are being warmed and the fruit is prepared for service.

To be sure that eggs are at their best, use moderate to low cooking temperature. Take your choice of the methods given below. Note that in both methods the eggs are cooked below the boiling point.

Soft-Cooked Eggs
Cut ribs in serving pieces. Combine sugar, cornstarch and salt and stir in vinegar, catsup, crushed pineapple and juice, and soy sauce. Cook until slightly thickened, stirring constantly.

Combine Meat With Salads for Warm Day

Refreshing salads are a part of many summer menu plans. As the main course of your buffets or lunches, cooling jellied meat salads take on an important role. They're also popular these warm days because they are made ahead of dinner time, then left to "set" in the refrigerator—and what's more important, they are an interesting way of using leftover meat.

Here's a recipe for mayonnaise meat loaf—a combination of cooked veal with dried celery, olives, peas, and hard-cooked eggs in a gelatin mold. Ham, pork, beef or ready-to-serve meat may be used equally as well in this recipe. Mold the mixture in a loaf or ring pan or individual pans.

Mayonnaise Meat Loaf
3 cups diced cooked veal
2 tablespoons gelatin
2 tablespoons water
1 1/4 cups hot meat stock
1/2 cup dried celery
1/2 cup sliced olives
1 cup peas
3 diced hard-cooked eggs
2 tablespoons capers
1 cup mayonnaise

Cut veal in 1/2 inch cubes. Soak gelatin in water and dissolve in meat stock. Cool. Add remaining ingredients to diced veal. When gelatin mixture begins to congeal, combine with meat mixture and pour into loaf pan (5 x 9 inches). Place in refrigerator and allow to stand until very firm, 12 servings.

FAIR IN THE LIGHT OF MEMORY SHINES
MICHIGAN
My MICHIGAN
ELTON R. EATON

Recently there appeared in publication a new magazine named "Inside Michigan." From a somewhat careful study of the contents of the first issue, our judgment is that there is ample room in Michigan for such a publication. We know not one of its editors. For the first issue there was selected a number of timely and interesting articles, all of general interest to Michigan citizens. Its format could be improved and a cover page that would make a greater newsstand appeal doubtless will be presented in future issues. We wish it success—if it continues along the ideals indicated in the first issue.

Wayne University will sometime late this summer start the construction of its new Medical Science building made possible by a recent appropriation of the Republican controlled Michigan state legislature. During recent years state aid has been given in dribbles to this most useful educational institution. The curtailed appropriations cannot be blamed too much upon the legislature.

The fault lies entirely with the voters who have tied up state funds in such a way that some units of government get more money than they can use and others get nowhere near as much as they need.

The state will sooner or later face the financial crack-up that is bound to come and then maybe a proper tax provision can be written into the state constitution. Meanwhile the over-burdened taxpayers of the city of Detroit must bear the greatest share of the financing of Wayne University, which should be an ENTIRELY state supported institution.

There appears to be some little misunderstanding as to the purposes of Frank Rambo in growing peanuts in his garden out on Ann Arbor Trail. To clarify the erroneous views held by some, Mr. Rambo stated the other day that he is growing the crop just to prove that anything good grown in the world can be grown in Michigan.

"I've always said that there is no place in the country where the soil is richer than here in Michigan. Rightly tilled and fertilized, we can grow the biggest and best crops in the country. Not only that, but no state can produce fruit with a better flavor than the fruit we grow here," said Mr. Rambo the other day. "Now I just want to prove that we can grow peanuts that will have even a better flavor than the peanuts grown down in Georgia. My crop looks pretty good and when the time comes I am going to give some of the peanut experts in Plymouth a chance to try out a Georgia peanut then compare it to a Michigan peanut," added Mr. Rambo.

If there's something like a peanut contest brewing, might it be suggested that the Governor be invited to judge which peanut is the best. A smart-aleck Republican who heard about the peanuts said he thought the Governor would be an awfully good judge of peanuts as well as pretty girls, and therefore ought to be able to decide such a contest without trouble.

According to the Michigan conservation department, our great Wolverine state is rapidly restoring the tree planting program that some 25 or 30 years ago helped to cover the cut-over and burned-over lands of Northern Michigan with the beautiful forests that now flourish on some 6,000,000 acres of state owned lands. There was a time when the state didn't pay much attention to its re-forestation program, but apparently the conservation department has decided that it should go the limit in planting every tree that the lands of northern Michigan can support. The department says that a lot of trees went into the ground during the spring planting this season, over 10,332,000 of them.

The conservation forestry division also reports the largest block of stock, about 7,375,000 seedlings and transplants, was chiefly distributed to farmers, industries, schools and communities for reforestation purposes.

Completed tabulations at the Higgins Lake nursery show about 3,955,000 pieces of stock were planted mainly in state forests and parks and state recreation and game areas. Some trees were used on stream improvement projects, for bank planting and other purposes.

Applications for fall tree planting stock will not be accepted by the forestry division at Lansing until August 15. Price and stock list will be available to farmers and other landowners at that time.

Looking at a Michigan road map one discovers that there are two different spellings of the word "Mackinaw." The municipality at the northern tip of the Lower Peninsula and which is the southern terminal of the state ferry system, is spelled "Mackinaw City." On the same map one will note that the Straits of Mackinac and Mackinac Island are spelled differently, the letter "C" taking the place of the letter "W." The explanation is a rather easy one, and both spellings are correct. The "Mackinaw" spelling is the old Indian way and the Mackinac way of spelling comes as a result of the way early French settlers decided to spell Mackinaw. But don't pronounce the word MACKINACK—that's dead wrong. Just do as the Indians did and pronounce it with the "graw" sound at the end. Both spellings are rightly pronounced MackinAW. "Historian" William Doyle who has been off-and-on again on the Mackinac Island commission probably more times than any other living human being, has checked and rechecked the proper pronouncing of the word and his final edict is that it should be pronounced just as it was by the Indians who gave the name in the first place to the Straits and the Island.

The Great Lakes area is not the only place in this old world that is having its trouble in maintaining wild life. Here it is the lamprey eel that is raising havoc with game fish in the Great Lakes—and "game hogs" with deer and other wild life.

The Wild Life Management Institute reports that in spite of heroic work by the states, by Canada, and by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the Pacific salmon is taking a beating from civilization. The Washington State Department of Fisheries has released a pamphlet under the title of "The Salmon Crisis," which contains thought-provoking material. Washington's salmon pack decreased from 12,300,000 cases from 1910 to 1917 to 2,350,000 cases in the period from 1938 through 1945 in spite of an increase in the commercial fishing intensity. Because it can be rightly controlled, fishing pressure plays a less important part in the depletion of fisheries than might be imagined. The major depleting factor is the blocking of spawning streams by power dams. The reduction of suitable water by pollution, drainage, siltation, and deforestation also are playing important parts in reducing the salmon runs.

The authors of the publication feel that if all proposed power projects are carried out in the Northwest, the survival of the salmon in Washington will depend entirely upon the maintenance of fish ladders and costly artificial propagation. More interest by the public, however, in a resource valued conservatively at one-half billion dollars a year, they conclude, could make rehabilitation of the Washington salmon runs a reality. They propose in particular that steam plants be considered as a source of power in some localities where the existing value of the salmon outweighs the revenue promised from the development of power.

OSCAR FREIHEIT, who has driven a delivery truck for Blunk's since 1937, stands beside his truck saying goodbye to a job he has performed faithfully for fourteen years. Oscar is turning the job over to his son-in-law, Alfred Houghton, 9253 S. Main street.

In his years driving for Blunk's, Oscar has driven over a million miles, all in a radius of thirty miles from Plymouth. Prior to joining Blunk's, he drove thirteen years for Plymouth Lumber and Coal company. In all that 27 years he has never had an accident. In 1949, the Plymouth Police Department presented him with a citation for this perfect driving record.

Mr. Freiheit has lived in Plymouth for forty years. He was born April 25, 1886 on Easter Sunday and his birthday has fallen on Easter Sunday but once since that time. He is married, the father of one daughter, Mrs. Alfred Houghton, and has one grandson. He will remain with Blunk's as a warehouse employee.

Jack Dobbs Wins Baseball Award

A former local star athlete received honors the past year for his athletic ability at Western Michigan. Jack Dobbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards Dobbs of 321 Adams, was awarded his letter in baseball at the Kalamazoo college. This is quite an achievement for Jack because of the keen competition for places on a team that plays nearly all the Big Ten schools. Western won 16 and lost three games this year, and were nosed out by Ohio State 2 to 1 in the final game of the NCAA District tournament, after having defeated Ohio State twice during the regular season.

The greatest thrill Jack experienced during the past season was that of hitting a triple with the bases loaded against Notre Dame to break up the ball game. Jack alternates between second and third base, and Coach Charley Maher expects much from this Plymouth senior next year.

This summer he is continuing his power hitting for the First National team in the Inter-County league. In the 4th of July contest against Northville he powdered the ball for two homers and a triple. Jack also plays with the classy Oldsmobile softball team, which is currently tied with Cavalade for the league lead.

Young Dobbs graduated from Plymouth High school in 1948 after having starred in football, basketball and baseball. Last February he married his high school sweetheart, the former Marjorie Bassett, who is an outstanding athlete in Women's sports in this area.

Jack is enrolled in the Business Administration school at Western and expects to graduate next June. It will be well for Plymouth sports fans to watch for Jack's accomplishments in the collegiate sports world next Spring.

Local Residents See Kansas Flood

Back home from a three week trip to California are Mr. and Mrs. William Davidson, and daughter Barbara, of 24270 Lakeland Court.

The Davidsons had the unusual experience of witnessing, first-hand, the devastating results of the flood, which struck Kansas earlier in the month. While passing through that state, they saw much of the damage the water had already done; houses were in ruins and streets were impassable.

A few hours after leaving the flood area, a sandstorm swept down upon them, which forced a detour of several miles.

Among the many interesting scenic places visited were the following: Boulder Dam, the Painted Desert in the Petrified Forest, Hollywood, the Redwoods, Las Vegas, and "Old Faithful" in the Yellowstone National Park. In the latter place they were fascinated by the many tame deer, elk, and antelope along the highway, who are always ready for a "handout" from a passerby.

Feeding with antibiotics speeds growth of baby chicks

Aureomycin, a recent antibiotic development, promotes rapid growth in baby chicks, say poultry researchers at Michigan State College Agricultural Experiment Station. Believing that this drug acts on bacteria in the intestine of the baby chick, they fed Aureomycin to one group of chicks, then inoculated another group. They found that while Aureomycin injections had no beneficial effect on growth, including the drug in normal feeding practices substantially improved growth. More recent experiments have added Penicillin, Terramycin and Bacitracin to the list of antibiotics stimulating growth. For further information on the possibilities of antibiotic feedings for your poultry, call, write or visit your County Agricultural Agent.

Operators' atlas places calls promptly
In each of Michigan Bell's 75 toll centers, long distance operators use a complete world communication atlas to speed calls along the highways of speech. The atlas lists 71,000 localities within the U. S. proper (2,214 of them here in Michigan); 16,000 in Canada, Cuba and Mexico; 17,000 vessels; and 330 airplanes. It includes 10,000 cars and trucks equipped with telephones; and 85 overseas countries and territories to which telephone service is available. The atlas is revised from day to day, keeping all these points at your operator's finger tips. It's another example of telephone efficiency working for you.

"Nothing beats an ELECTRIC Range," say the Priddys

Evelyn and Jerry Priddy are ardent fans of electric cooking.

"It's tops in my league," says Jerry. "Man, how you can broil a steak with an electric range!"

"Broiling, baking—it's ideal for every purpose," insists Evelyn. "And an electric range is a real work-saver. My kitchen stays so nice and clean... and cool, too."

Take a tip from the Priddys and go electric. Visit your nearest appliance dealer now.

Roger Babson Says --

Babson Discusses Making Wills
Gloucester, Mass., July 26. Everyone should make a will. I seriously mean this. Too many people have died unexpectedly, especially in connection with automobile accidents. Statistics show that more Americans have been killed by automobiles the past year than have been killed in Korea. You may live a long life, but you may die next week. The important thing is not to die without a will whatever your age. Let me give you seven reasons for this:

Reason 1. To be sure of a friendly executor and to avoid having some judge appoint some friend of his as an executor, with whom you might not be satisfied, you can appoint your own executor by making a will. I have appointed a Trust Company.

Reason 2. If you die without a will and the court is obliged to disburse your estate it may run up a lot of costs, including the necessity for a bond. These costs can be eliminated largely by making a will and appointing your own executor. You can provide that the executor may give your beneficiaries property or securities at a fair value instead of cash, under certain circumstances.

Reason 3. By making a will you can give your executor certain other discretionary powers, like deciding what property to sell, and the power to do other things which a court appointee would not do. You can directly will certain articles of furniture, clothing, etc., to definite people and do the things that you want to do as you would want to do them without the fear of litigation.

Reason 4. If a court should liquidate your estate it may sell property hurriedly or during a depression. By making a will you can give your executor time and enable him to use his judgment and consult other people. This privilege may save your estate thousands of dollars.

Reason 5. By making a will, you can arrange to leave money in trust so that your widow or husband may have the full income during his or her lifetime and then have it go to the children or other people. You also may wish to distribute your property among your children in unequal proportion, as one may be disabled or handicapped. To do this you must make a will.

Reason 6. If the estate goes to a court-appointed executor it may take two years or more in being settled and your wife and family may have nothing on which to live during this period. By making a will you can authorize your executor to pay your wife a certain amount each month pending settlement of your estate, or to give her more money if an unexpected illness, or other unexpected troubles should come. You always can make changes at any time by proper codicils.

Reason 7. I hope you will have some church or charities, as well as friends, to whom you wish to make a gift. This can be done only by executing a will. Really all of us should remember some church in our wills. The only hope of this old world is religion and the church holds the key and is the doorway thereto. All this nation has—democracy, education and hospitals—we owe to the church. Let us uphold the ladder by which we have climbed.

Consult a Good Lawyer
Don't try to make your own will to save $50; but go to a good lawyer. Make a list of the gifts you desire to make and whom you want as executor and give this material to your lawyer, who should be a resident of your state. Then he will put it in legal shape.

He will explain to you that three witnesses must see you sign and that three witnesses better be people who are NOT mentioned in the will. There also are some other technicalities which your lawyer will explain to you. The laws of different states differ. Have his clerk make three typewritten carbons of the finished will.

After you sign the original copy at the lawyer's office, you'd better let your suggested executor read it so as to ask you questions if anything is not clear. Then leave it with your bank and get a receipt therefor. You can put a carbon copy in your safe deposit box for future reference by yourself; also you can give a carbon copy to your lawyer and to your executor if you wish.

EVEN IF YOU NOW HAVE ONLY VERY LITTLE MONEY, YOU SHOULD MAKE A WILL. IT IS THE BEST POSSIBLE INVESTMENT FOR YOU.

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.
You roll out into the golden sunshine of a dew-encrusted morning and head your Cadillac into another day of your vacation.
You glance at the gauge on the instrument panel—and it points to a full tank of gasoline. And you just can't help wondering whether it will happen again today...
The miles go by and the miles go by. The little towns check off on your map and a state capital looms in the distance. And, an hour or so later, somebody says it's time for lunch.

Again, it's the road and the beautiful countryside and the interesting towns and villages. You drive and drive—until the shadows begin to lengthen—and somebody spots a lovely place to spend the night.
Okay! We'll fill 'er up before we turn in—and be all set for a full day tomorrow!
Yes—it's difficult to believe. But it happens to you over and over again—and finally you come to accept it as a wonderful money-saving truth:
Your great and beautiful Cadillac is a veritable miser when it comes to gasoline.
And there, if ever you had it, is "frosting on the cake"! Better come in and place your order for the wonderful car that brings you economy—as well as unrivaled prestige.
