"Newspapers are the most indispensable medium of all. Radio gives only the headlines, but details are the thing the public demands. Out-of-town papers can't begin to take the place of the wealth of local interest one's own newspapers provide. As a national advertiser whose growth has been built on heavily localized selling effort, I know, too, that the absence of newspapers during Pittsburgh's 47 day newspaper strike was an irreparable loss to Pittsburgh business."

What I Think and Have A Right to Say

By ELTON R. EATON

GOOD JUDGMENT USED.

Liked very much what the representatives of the Plymouth school board, township officials and city officials did about providing better protection for school children who are forced to cross busy thoroughfares on their way to and from school. All three of these units of government are deeply interested in seeing to it that no child is injured by an automobile and proper steps have been taken to provide protection.

It is needless to emphasize the problems growing out of the heavy traffic in and about Plymouth. Seemingly almost overnight all of the streets and highways in and around the city have become overloaded with motor traffic. While the police department has no record, it is probably an understatement of fact to say that Main street traffic is three times as heavy as it was a year or so ago.

Ann Arbor trail, Ann Arbor road, Harvey street, Mill street, Territorial road, Plymouth road and even the double lane Schoolcraft road are some of the thoroughfares that are seemingly carrying excess traffic. What will happen on Plymouth road and Schoolcraft road when the new Ford plant and some of the other industries out east of the city are employing full forces, only the future can tell.

As we see it, the traffic experts of Wayne county and the state of Michigan had better get their staffs working overtime RIGHT NOW to figure out how these highways are going to carry more traffic than they are now.

But it is good to know that the proper authorities within the Plymouth school district have taken necessary steps to protect the lives of our school children.

THAT EDWARDS APPOINTMENT.

Don't know of any better way that Soapy Williams could have insulted the memory of the late Judge D. J. Healy as well as the good people of Wayne county than he did by appointing Sit Down Striker Edwards as a probate judge of Wayne county to fill the place made vacant by Judge Healy's death.

It is announced that Edwards is going to take over the juvenile division of the court, the place where Judge Healy did so much for the benefit of Wayne county boys and girls. Must be Soapy thought that the 30 day jail sentence once served by the Sit-Downer gave Edwards special, outstanding qualifications for the $15,000 a year job that he will rattle around in at least for another year and a half.

Had an idea the other day that we'd try and find out how some of the people of this city felt about the appointment. One said he wouldn't print what he thought of it, another held his nose and another said it paid to try and talk like a "wise guy."

As we see it, the people of Michigan voted for it—and having voted as they did, they are getting just what they voted for. Mind you, too, that that $15,000 Edwards will get as a salary, comes directly out of YOUR pocket.

Terry Bakery Comes to Rescue of Hundreds of Bread Users

"Bread, bread and more bread." That was the motto at Terry's Bakery as the bakery strike in Detroit and other large cities severely curtailed the supply of bread and other baked goods.

All last weekend the well-known bakery on Penniman avenue was swamped with customers begging for bread. Employees of the bakery worked overtime as they strove to supply baked goods to Plymouth residents, restaurants, wholesalers and local factories.

Bread production at Terry's more than doubled as the bakery produced hundreds of additional loaves of bread. In spite of this huge production, however, the bread was always sold out by early afternoon.

"We are doing our best to supply bread to everyone," says Marvin Terry, "and if Plymouth residents will continue to buy their bread daily and not try to hoard a week's supply, we will have enough."

The unprecedented demand for bread forced the bakery to impose a limit of two loaves to a customer. Although Terry's Bakery has doubled their production of all baked goods, it is for bread that the demand is greatest.

Square Dances to Begin October 4

"Swing your partner and promenade the hall" — that familiar call will again be heard when the Square Dance club begins its regular dances Thursday, October 4, in the junior high school gymnasium at the high school.

The committee for the coming year is composed of George Evans, president, Don Smith, treasurer, Ralph Lorenz and Lester Gouge. Mr. Evans, spokesman for the group, says dances will continue each alternate Thursday throughout the winter. Admission will be $1.50 per couple this year which includes all the coffee one can drink.

Mr. Evans says they are fortunate in again having Dave Palmer, the very popular caller, in charge of the dances. Mr. Palmer is from Jackson, and is a member of the Michigan Square Dance Leaders' Association.

The group is a congenial mixture of experienced and beginner dancers, with special attention being paid to those who have not yet been exposed to the old time style of dancing, and yet there is plenty of the more advanced dancing for those who are ready for it.

These dances are sponsored by the Plymouth Department of Recreation, and have been well attended for the past several years. The committee extends a cordial invitation to all who are interested in this highly entertaining form of recreation.

Plans for the new building call for a floor space of 4,800 square feet and will include an auditorium, kitchen and rest rooms—all of which will be modern in every detail. The grounds will be landscaped for recreational purposes including children's playgrounds, picnicking facilities, base-ball and other forms of recreation.

One does not have to be a member to attend. The funds will be used towards paying off the debt on the building.

Gas Station Gives Excess Profit to Kids Day Fund

This coming Saturday all the excess profits above the average daily normal business, at the Norman and Burley Sinclair gas station, will go to the Kiwanis clubs National Kids Day Fund.

This fund goes for boys and girls work and each local club can use the proceeds as they see fit. The local Kiwanis club has been actively engaged in youth work for several years, and the money obtained from this venture will go to further this work among our young people.

The Norman and Burley station is located on S. Main and Wing streets in Plymouth, and remember if you stop in there Saturday to fill up your gas tank, you will not only be getting your money's worth, but you will be directly contributing to the welfare of some young Plymouth boy or girl.

Register This Week for Adult Education Work

The Student and Adult Education program is about to begin, but so far registration has been slow, according to Recreational director, Herb Woolweaver.

These classes are taught by certified instructors, and anyone in this area who is interested in gaining knowledge in any of the courses, or activities, listed below should immediately call 2075 and register.

Badminton began last Monday, and will continue to meet each Monday evening at 8:30 at the Wayne County Training school. There is room for more players.

If enough people are interested there will also be a class taught in bridge and oil painting. A woman's bowling class will begin Thursday, October 4, from 4 to 6 at the Parkview Recreation.

Other classes and activities beginning soon are: Ceramics, sewing, swimming, typing, women's health, chamber music, theater guild, community chorus, parliamentary procedure, square dancing, men's volleyball, men's and women's basketball and a chess club.

Dates and time of meeting were listed in last week's Mail, and this information will be furnished by calling the Recreation office. Remember, if you desire to join any one of these groups call 2075 and register this week.

Manager of Roller Rink Seriously Hurt in Accident

A weekend traffic accident severely injured Clayton LaMay, manager and instructor at the Riverside Roller Rink on Plymouth road, as he was driving to his home from Detroit last Friday evening.

Mr. LaMay was driving west on Plymouth road when his car was struck by one driven by a Mr. Meyers of Birmingham, who was going south on Middlebelt. The impact threw Mr. LaMay from his car badly fracturing his left arm and right leg, and inflicting serious head lacerations. He was rushed to Harper hospital, Detroit, where 10 stitches were taken in his scalp.

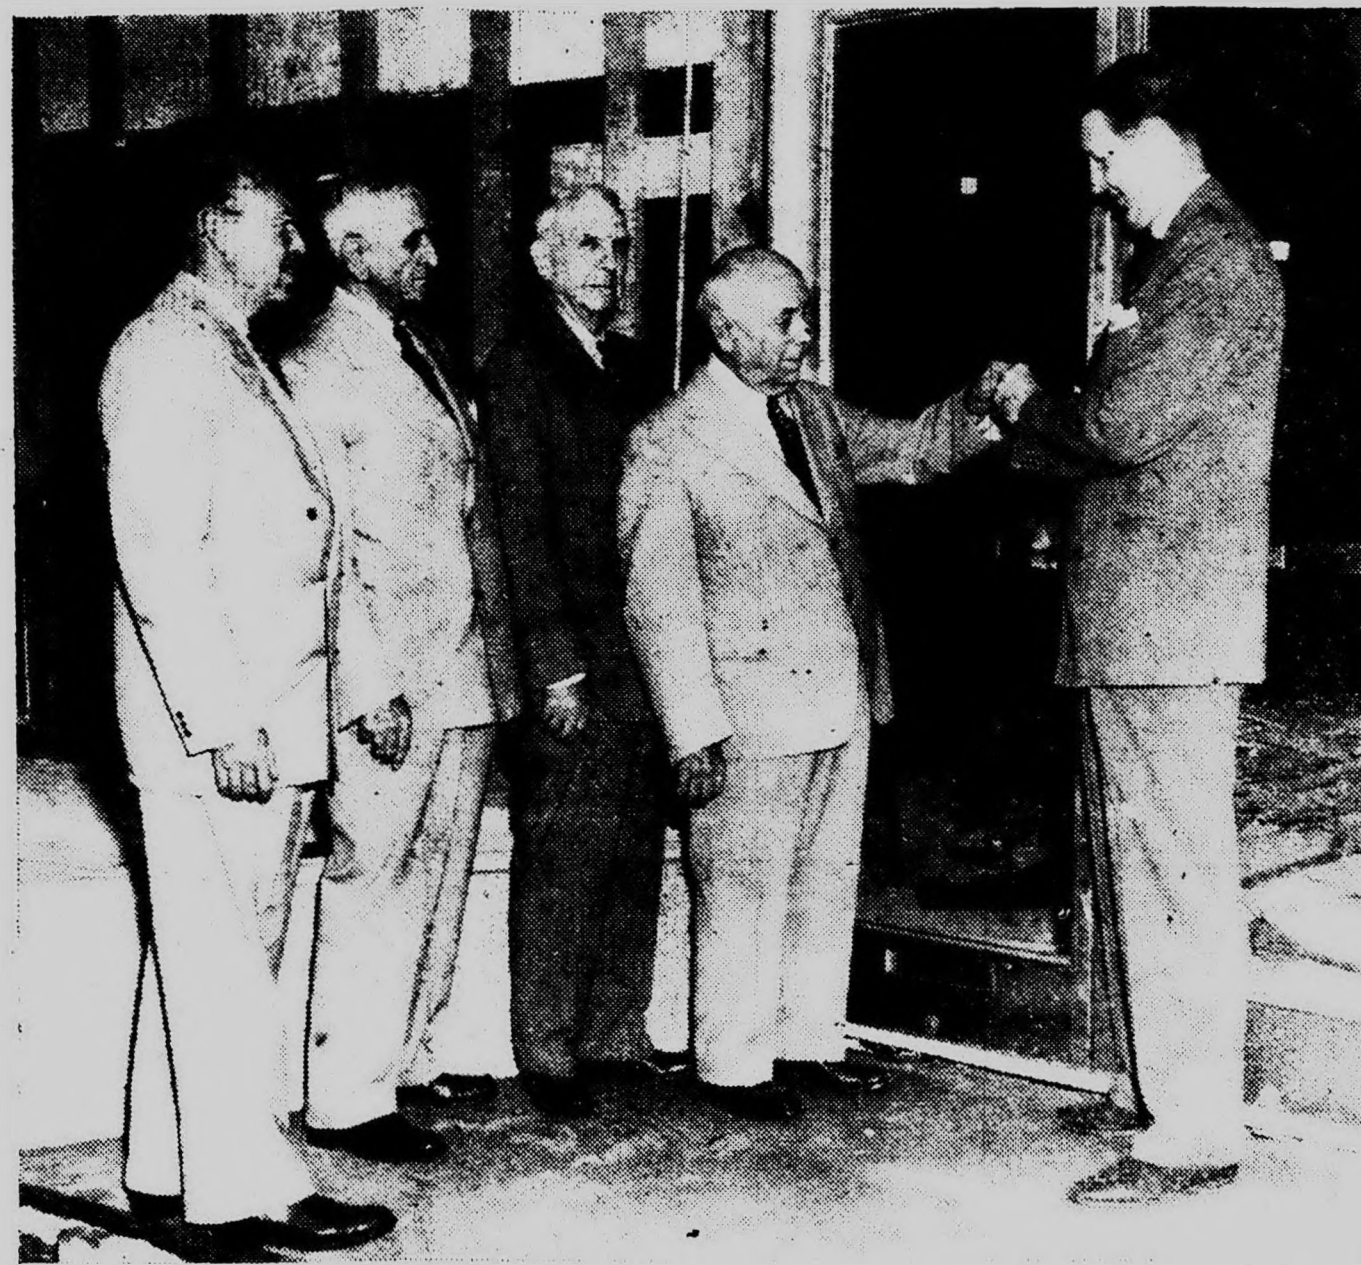

Both cars were demolished in the collision.

Late reports from the hospital indicate Mr. LaMay is doing fairly well.

Clayton's wife, Mrs. LaMay, is the nurse at Dr. Bentley's new clinic on S. Main street. His daughter, Barbara, is secretary to the principal in the junior high school office. Another son, Donald, is attending Bentley High school.

Charles E. Brake Tells Rotarians of Early Day Problems

Charles E. Brake, deputy superintendent of public instruction of Wayne county, gave to members of the Plymouth Rotary club last Friday, an interesting and timely discussion of the problems that confronted the signers of the American constitution. He told of the many conflicts, of the personalities and of the patriotic desires of the majority members of the signers of America's famed document. His talk was a most interesting one, being arranged by Frank Henderson, chairman of the club program committee.

SEBASTIAN S. KRESGE, founder of the Kresge Company and Kresge Foundation presents the keys to Plymouth's new Kresge store to Marshall W. Kirkpatrick as work on the city's newest store building nears completion. Caught by The Mail photographer on the event of an inspection of the new Main street store were, left to right: Stanley Kresge, president of the Kresge Company; C. B. Van Deusen, retired Kresge president; Paul Voorhies, president of the Kresge Foundation; Sebastian S. Kresge, and store manager M. W. Kirkpatrick. Kresge top officials have more than ordinary interest in the Plymouth store since Foundation chairman, Paul Voorhies, is chairman of the board of the Plymouth United Savings Bank and started his law career in this city. It is hoped that the store will be one of the finest in the Kresge chain as more or less of a tribute to Mr. Voorhies and his home town. Opening of the store is scheduled for the middle of October.

Auto Accident Injures Two

A head-on collision at the corner of Spring and Starkweather Friday evening seriously injured Joan Gillies, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gillies of 624 Arthur street. Miss Gillies is reported in good condition today and is expected to leave Sessions hospital, Northville, sometime this week.

The accident occurred when a car with an unidentified driver swung in front of a car driven by Robert S. Wilson, 18878 Northville road. Wilson swerved to avoid him and collided with the car in which Miss Gillies was a passenger.

This car was driven by Mary Lou Austin, 18, of 9430 Brookline. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin. Miss Austin was taken to the hospital, treated for bruises on the face and neck. She was released on Saturday.

Police are trying to locate the driver of the car which caused the accident.

Announcement of the appointment of William C. Sliger of Merced, California as advertising manager of The Plymouth Mail was made this week. Coming to Plymouth as one of the best trained young advertising men in the country Mr. Sliger has several years of practical experience with daily newspapers to offer businessmen of Plymouth on their advertising problems.

A graduate of Albion college in 1947 and a veteran in the air corps during the last world war, he served two years on the Albion Recorder in Albion on the editorial staff. After working in Albion he was appointed assistant advertising manager of the Cadillac Evening Star of Cadillac, Michigan where he remained for two years prior to accepting the position of advertising manager on the Merced Sun-Star a daily paper in Merced, California. He will assume his duties with

Children Playing With Matches Cause Fire

Children playing in the basement of the Kenneth Groth residence on the corner of Farmer and Pacific caused a fire shortly before 8 o'clock Saturday.

The children were mixing everything they could find in the basement and putting it into the wash tub, when the concoction was complete, a match was touched to it and flames burst forth. The children ran screaming to a neighbor who called the fire department. When the fire department arrived, the fire was out, but the basement was still full of smoke.

Send-Off Given 35 U of M Students

A send-off banquet for Plymouth students leaving to attend the University of Michigan this fall was held last Thursday evening in the high school gymnasium. This affair was sponsored by the U. of M. club of Plymouth.

Principal speaker of the evening was Hayward Keniston, Dean of the School of Literature, Science and Arts at the University. Over a hundred persons attended, including 35 Plymouth students attending the University this fall, and 75 members and parents of the students.

Among the other guests was T. Hawley Tapping, general secretary of the Alumni Association.

Mrs. Perry W. Richwine and her mother, Mrs. Florence Parsons are in Ridge Farm, Illinois visiting relatives.

Special Service Installs Pastor at Baptist Church

The installation service for the new pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. David L. Rieder, was held last Friday evening, September 15, in the church parlors.

Captain William Roberts opened the services with the Invocation and the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Dorothy Anderson sang a solo, which was followed by Rev. Robert Behnken's Charge to the Minister and Rev. Merle Meeden's Charge to the church. Rev. Edman then delivered the sermon after which Rev. A. E. MacRae gave the Prayer of Installation.

Mrs. Betty Moss and Mrs. Ruth Wilson sang a duet. Welcome from the Michigan Baptist Convention was given by Rev. Robert Behnken; welcome from the Wayne Association by Rev. Merle Meeden; and welcome from the Plymouth Ministerial Association by Captain William Roberts of the Salvation Army. Rev. Rieder concluded the services with his Response and Benediction.

A reception followed in the social rooms of the church.

Others attending from the Plymouth Ministerial Association were: Rev. Walton of the Nazarene church, Rev. Johnson of the Methodist church, Rev. Clifford of Calvary Baptist, Rev. Wabaskay of the A. S. Bible of God church, Rev. McKee, the retired pastor and Rev. Shaw of the First Baptist church of Ypsilanti.

Rev. Rieder was a former pastor of the Scribner avenue Baptist church of Grand Rapids. During his stay there, Rev. Rieder served as treasurer of the Grand Rapids Evangelical Ministerial Union. He also served as Associate Pastor of the Gratiot avenue Baptist church of Detroit in 1940 and 1941.

Rev. Rieder is a graduate of Wheaton college and Northern Baptist Theological Seminary in Illinois, and also has taken special study at Northwestern University and the Moody Bible Institute.

With Mrs. Rieder and their two sons, Donnie and Gene, Rev. Rieder is now at home in the parsonage at 494 Mill street.

Forsythia Blossoms Out in Mrs. Sumner's Garden

Mrs. Walter K. Sumner of 1078 W. Ann Arbor trail has some forsythia blossoms in her living room which she picked from her garden this week.

This is very unusual since this is one of the earliest shrubs to begin flowering in the spring, and is unheard of in the fall.

School Attendance Reaches New High

Plymouth's school attendance, according to figures that have just been compiled, have jumped to nearly 300 more than a year ago—the total now being over 2,600. Last year the high was 2,384.

But that total for the current year is expected to be increased by nearly 200 more, as there are many students who do not enter school until late in the fall term. The usual experience has been for the record high to be noted in December and January.

The increase is largely in the kindergarten where nearly 200 little boys and girls have started their school careers. If the rate of increase continues, it is anticipated that the new buildings now being completed will have a capacity attendance in another three or four years.

Proposed Changes in The City Charter

On Monday, October 1, Plymouth citizens will have the opportunity to approve or reject the new charter proposed for the city by members of the commission elected a year ago to draft a new charter for Plymouth.

The charter is the BASIC law of the city. It defines just what the city officials can and cannot do. It defines the duties of the city officials. It sets up the divisions of the city government and regulates local taxes.

It states definitely what authority the city commission and officials can have over your local taxes.

The charter commission has made many and highly important changes in the charter. If you have not done so, you should read it thoroughly.

We have attempted to point out a few of the important changes that have been made. One column following shows provisions of the present charter and the other column points out what changes have been made. The first paragraph shows that the new charter provides for seven members—and the term of office are increased from two to four years.

We hope next week to point out more changes that have been made. But meanwhile study not only the tabulation which follows, but the new charter which was published in full last week in The Plymouth Mail. If you do this, you can vote your own conviction, at the special election on October 1.

NUMBER OF COMMISSIONERS AND TERMS IN OFFICE

The present charter provides for a commission of five members, who serve in rotation for two years.

The proposed charter would increase the number to seven members and the term of office would be for four years, except for the one elected by lowest vote, who would serve two years. It is pointed out that this retains experience on commission as well as providing rotation.

SUPERVISOR ELECTION AND TERM IN OFFICE

At present the city elects a supervisor once in two years. In case of a vacancy the mayor fills by appointment.

The new charter provides that a supervisor shall be elected for four years. In case of vacancy the clerk acts for city until vacancy can be filled. Mayor may appoint an administrative city official or clerk to serve for the period of temporary absence.

A TRIAL BOARD

The present charter provides for a trial board.

The new charter provides for the continuance of the trial board but the name is changed to "Personal Service Appeal Board." The reason given is that the employee is not being tried as old name would imply.

TRAFFIC VIOLATION BUREAU

At present traffic violations are under the jurisdiction of the chief of police and fines are paid to city treasurer.

The new charter would place this jurisdiction under the administration of the municipal court as an arm of the court designed to save time for individuals wishing to pay their fines and no court procedure necessary. Not considered proper function of police powers.

BUDGET AND FINANCE

May upon written recommendation of Mr. Rieder be transferred back to general fund or to another fund. Example: surplus in amount budgeted for a project after project is completed may on completion be legally used for another project.

Carry over to the following year as unencumbered funds in that account to complete project. Budget therefore reflects operating estimate on more factual basis without distortion.

(1) Unencumbered funds remain in the account until end of fiscal year, then revert back to general funds under present charter.

(2) Encumbered funds revert back to general fund making it necessary to increase budget for the following year by the amount necessary to finish job already started.

Sackett Leaves City Police Force

Former Chief of Police Lee Sackett, having reached the retirement age, has formally resigned from the Plymouth police department, the resignation being reached.

Mr. Sackett has been with the department for nearly 20 years. It was his discharge by former city manager, Harold Cheek without granting him a formal hearing, that led to the recent recall election and all of the municipal tribulations that followed in its wake.

During recent months Mr. Sackett had not served as chief of police, it being his own request that he be transferred to other police work. Upon his retirement as chief of police, Carl Greenley was permanently appointed to that position.

Dedication Sept. 30
Formal dedication of the Bird Elementary school will take place Sunday, September 30, in the auditorium of the school. Ceremonies are scheduled to begin at 4 p.m. The school will be open to visitors for an hour prior to the dedication.

No Buses Yet
Although another meeting is scheduled today, as yet there is no settlement in sight in the local bus strike which for three weeks has taken away commercial transportation for residents of this area and from Deht. it.

Messerly-Broman Rites Held on Saturday

Mrs. Robert Messerly

The First Presbyterian church in Plymouth was the scene last Saturday evening of the marriage of Nancy Broman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Broman of Rosedale Gardens to Robert Messerly, Robert's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gates of Plymouth.

The Reverend Henry Walsh, D.D. officiated at the 7:30 o'clock candlelight ceremony before the altar which was adorned with all white baskets of gladioli and dahlias and a low bank of all white flowers at the altar. Fred C. Nelson, the organist, also accompanied Clarence Broman, an uncle of the bridegroom, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Nancy, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white taffeta faille with a fitted jacket of starched white lace and in ballerina length. She wore a matching dutch cap to which was fastened a shoulder length veil of illusion. She carried a white prayer book on which were baby mums and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert Johnson of Lansing was her sister's matron of honor. Her gown was of cocoa colored taffeta faille with matching jacket with face framing, off the shoulder, pleated collar. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow mums and matching ing headdress.

Her bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Brown, Nancy Kunkel, and Alea Christie. They wore low-cut gowns of tangerine, tangerine and tangerine yellow fashioned like that of the honor matron. They carried colonial bouquets in contrasting shades of mums and also wore matching headpieces.

Social Affair Planned by Moms of America

Unit 18 of the Moms of America will hold a social evening on Monday, September 24, at the Veterans Memorial, at 6:30 p.m. Members are asked to bring any articles which can be used in occupational therapy, such as yarn, brochet and tatting thread. These articles will be sent to the Gaylord Sanitarium.

Carl Hopela of Delray served Robert as best man and the ushers were David Jolliffe, Robert Johnston and Tom Hopson. Mrs. Broman selected for her daughter's wedding a charcoal grey dress with violet hat and black accessories. Mrs. Gates wore a plum colored dress with matching hat and black accessories. Both carried orchids on their purses.

A reception for 150 was held in the Rosedale Gardens club house with guests coming from Florida, Alpena, Port Huron, Detroit and Northville.

For going away the new Mrs. Messerly wore a gray flannel suit with matching shoes and spice colored hat and bag. She wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The young couple are honeymooning in Chicago, Illinois. Nancy attended Michigan State Normal college in Ypsilanti and Robert will continue his studies at Michigan State. They will reside in East Lansing for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mumby and Mr. and Mrs. William Grammel returned last week Monday from a 10 day trip to Denver, Colorado where they were the guests of Mrs. Grammel's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Mercer. They enjoyed many sight seeing trips while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy, 38620 Plymouth road, together with Mrs. Joy's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester F. Ostrander, of Wayne, have just returned from a 10 day trip throughout Northern Michigan. The trip included a visit with Mrs. Joy's brother, Floyd Ostrander, of Johannesburg, Michigan. Mrs. Joy reports that they enjoyed a wonderful trip.

Elwyn Clemmons, of St. Paul, Minnesota spent last weekend as the houseguest of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gregory Clemmons of Dewey street.

Proposed City Charter

BOARD OF REVIEW

Three members appointed annually for a one year term at present.

TAX APPEAL PROVISIONS
Taxpayer appeals to Board of Review and if still unhappy then to City Commission and if still unhappy then to State Tax Board.

TAX ASSESSMENT FOR IMPROVEMENTS
Taxpayer goes to Board of Review and then if still unhappy to the City Commission.

SPECIAL PAVING TAXES
Limited to 25 per cent of value of assessed valuation. Has restricted improvements in many instances under present charter.

May not tax for repairs or ordinary maintenance. Paid for from general funds of city at large.

No taxing for improvement a second time, such as for repaving of a street.

ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS
By Mayor with approval of Commission under the present charter.

3 members. One appointed each year for a 3 year term. Retains experience, yet provides for rotation.

Taxpayer appeals to Board of Review then directly to State Tax Board. City Commission has no voice or power to override action of the duly appointed member of the Board of Review under new charter.

Taxpayer goes directly to the City Commission. Board of Review has no jurisdiction. City Commission have all the facts on nature and extent of improvement better qualified to discuss and advise taxpayers.

No limit but amount to be determined by the commission. If 50 per cent of landowners or owners of 50 per cent of the land involved offer objection the City Commission may not undertake the improvement without the affirmative vote of 5 of 7 members of the commission. Provision to carry out the project by a 5 to 7 vote will permit improvements for the good of the city at large and can not be obstructed by a few or a small group.

No change is made. No change in this. Supreme Court has ruled that no levy may be made for ordinary repairs or maintenance. Such repairs could include repaving of an entire street or resurfacing if wear was normal and would be paid from general funds.

Not provided for. Left up to discretion of the duly elected City Commissioners as representatives of the people to determine, in the light of all the facts and circumstances, what portion is to be assessed to property and what portion against city at large. Always subject to supreme court rule if repairs and to need for 5 of 7 members of commission to give their affirmative vote if taxpayers object to the improvement.

This provision now functions much the same as the old charter which while restricting paving assessments a second time did permit second assessments for sewers, sidewalks, water, etc., and this point has not been one of controversy or caused undue hardship.

By Manager with advice and approval of Commission. Any appointment made by the manager if not approved at that time by the commission is probationary for 30 days. If Commission does not approve or disapprove during the 30 day period appointment stands. This provision eliminates putting off decisions and requires timely action.

Grange Cleanings

Yes, this is "Booster Night" so let us all boost our Grange as hard as we can. Our Fair will be a success if everyone helps out to make it so. Bring fruit, vegetables, flowers, baked goods, fancy work and home made candy. The articles will be sold afterwards.

We have a short program arranged which will be followed by dancing so invite your friends and neighbors and come and have a good time. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

There was a good attendance at the Pamaona meeting last Tuesday evening. Several Granges were represented. Lunch was served about 12 o'clock.

Mrs. Cole is a "shut-in" these days and suffers a great deal. Remember her with a card now and then.

The General Unit of the W.S.-C.S. of the First Methodist church held on September 12, was very well attended with over 114 members present. Mrs. Frank Field, wife of a former Methodist pastor of Plymouth, was the guest speaker, her theme being "World Peace."

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Terry attended the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Thompson in Dearborn last Saturday evening.

Drive Continues to Provide Funds for DeMolay Boys

William A. Rose, chairman of the finance committee of the Order of DeMolay, states that the fund raising campaign for the local chapter is progressing slowly, but is still far short of the goal set by the committee.

This character building organization provides wholesome entertainment, close companionship, and sound guidance for its youthful members.

Committee man Jack Gage, a strong advocate for youth activities, has this to say about membership in this rapidly expanding fraternity: "To join the Order of DeMolay a boy must have attained the age of 14 and be under 21. He must believe in God and be of good character and reputation. Any DeMolay in good standing or a Freemason will be glad to have a boy fill out a written petition of application for membership in the nearest chapter to his residence. After his petition has been presented to the chapter, investigated and passed upon favorably, he will be notified to appear for initiation. His annual dues are nominal and there are no assessments."

The list of our outstanding men who are accomplishing things in the world today who were active in DeMolay as boys, runs into the thousands. Nearly all have received the DeMolay Legion of Honor. There is Walt Disney, the creator of Mickey Mouse and a former member of the Mother Chapter in Kansas City.

Claster Lauck and Norris Goff, who were officers in the chapter of Men, Arkansas, today are better known in the entertainment field as Lum and Abner of the radio network. Movie star Robert Taylor was an officer in the chapter at Beatrice, Nebraska. Tennis star Don Budge got his start in tournaments sponsored by the DeMolay in Oakland, California. Such baseball stars as Larry French and Dick Bartell began their climb to fame on DeMolay teams.

Many governors and congressmen were former members of MAGIC was the order of the day when members of the International Brotherhood of Magicians descended upon the city to enjoy their annual picnic in the beautiful garden of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rew at 1015 Harding street. Among the many guests here for the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCleary, Mr. McCleary being president of the society, and past presidents, Albert Monroe and Dr. F. H. Buell. Bobby Rew and Doris McCleary are pictured on the fireplace about ready to do a disappearing trick with the giant coffee pot which provided the guests with steaming refreshment throughout the afternoon.

DeMolay chapters. If anyone wishes to contribute to this worthy cause he can do so by sending his contribution to Mr. Rose at 452 Maple street, or to the Plymouth Hardware on Forest avenue.

The following is a letter received from Edgar A. Guest, the Free Press poet: Mr. William A. Rose, The Order of DeMolay, 730 Penniman Avenue, Plymouth, Michigan, Dear Noble:

I have long admired the work of the Order of DeMolay for the youth of Masonry. I believe in it, and over the past years have seen great good come from it. I think every Mason should in every way possible support it.

Sincerely,
Edgar W. Guest

Adults Needed to Help Children Cross Streets

Superintendent of Schools Russell L. Isbister, states that four adults are needed for proper protection of our school children, while crossing busy intersections on the way to and from the Bird and Starkweather Elementary schools.

Two each, either men or women, from the vicinity of these schools, are needed a short time in the morning, at noon, and after school. If anyone can qualify for this work he should call either Nancy Tanger at the Bird school, or Donald Hank at the Starkweather school.

Vote Special Election for Airport Proposal

Local voters will go to the polls November 6 to vote approval or disapproval of a 3 million dollar bond issue for the completion of the Wayne County airport. This election will be paid for by the county from a $40,000 fund allotted by supervisors to defray the expenses of the localities which do not have an election scheduled for that date. Passage of the bond issue means a tax increase of 1.5 mills. (Fifteen cents per thousand dollars of property valuation.)

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Jewell were dinner guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McLaughlin in Niles.

William Gayde has returned to his home on North Holbrook avenue after a week's stay at Session's hospital, Northville.

Hello Folks!
I'm moving to Plymouth very soon. And am I happy about it! I'm looking forward to knowing you real well.

A Truly Remarkable Product

Dr. Wm. A. Lane, called the world's greatest medical authority on medicine states: "Iodine is an element absolutely necessary for life."

Dr. Carl Ramus, M.D., U. S. Public Health Surgeon, states "The Physiological and chemical reasons for the known effects of Iodine are: (1) That it makes the blood more fluid and (2) It tends to dissolve out masses of abnormal deposits left by certain diseases. The greater fluidity imparted to the blood by Iodine, gives better and quicker circulation through the minute blood vessels supplying all tissues with nutrition, and carrying away waste products which, when there is stagnation in the microscopic vessels, tend to irritate tissues and to leave insoluble deposits in their surfaces."

IN-FLAM-GO is iodine with all the poisons and caustics removed. Therefore it can be used in enough quantity to do the good which it has been noted for, without causing irritating and other distressing effects. IN-FLAM-GO after being rubbed on both humans and white rats showed complete absorption in laboratory tests.

A Gesture to Health:
I have used In-Flam-Go for the past two years. I had Arthritis in my back so bad that at times I couldn't work, also had varicose veins in my legs and my forelegs would swell and pain me so bad that I couldn't lay down or rest. It has done so much for me that I cannot be grateful enough. Anyone doubting this can call me at Farmington, Michigan, 1479J or better yet, use it yourself and you will be just as appreciative as I.

Rudolph Olson, 29952 Eldred Ave., Route No. 2, Farmington, Mich.

For further information and a list of local and Michigan users that are grateful for having been told about this truly remarkable product see your druggist.

V.F.W. News

September 25 is the date of our open meeting. Mr. Albert Glassford will speak about the proposed city charter, and the Joseph Elliotts will show movies taken during their recent trip abroad. Refreshments will be served afterwards.

Don't forget the District Rally on Sunday, September 30. Marion Dickie is one of the Fourth District Colorbearers. More information will be given later.

A rummage sale will be held at the Veteran's Memorial Center on Friday, October 12th and Saturday, October 13. Eleanor Gust is chairman of the sale. She asks that any usable clothes or furniture be saved. Call either Kay Coolman or Lillian Voss for collection of them.

Work on our annual Smorgasbord is continuing. You will be called upon soon, so be prepared.

The V.F.W. welcomes any contributions to its building fund. Call Dan Grubich if you wish to help. The bigger the fund the faster our building will be completed.

The Auxiliary's membership campaign is now in progress. We have been divided into teams and, no doubt, the losing team will have to do something for the winning team. So don't forget to bring in new members, if you want your team to win.

BEAUTIFUL setting for this 4 bedroom home, just one mile from center of town. Has a 3 car garage plus a work shop, full basement and work just starting on a complete new auto, oil heating system. Large rooms, natural fireplace, sunroom and large screened in porch. Must see this at $17,500. terms. VERY NICE 5 room home in a good city location, has full basement with the new gas furnace. It has been decorated and is carpeted. The lawn and garage are in and there are interchangeable screens and storms with awnings. A new roof makes it complete at $11,000. THERE is a 3 bedroom brick in town near schools and bus. It has nice size rooms with a full basement along with a gas furnace. The basement is so that a recreation room is possible. There are venetian blinds and the decoration is good. A pro did the landscaping and there is a fence for kids and pets. It will sell for $14,000. IN 1943 a house was built on a 67'x152'x12' foot lot in town. It has 2 bedrooms now but more are possible up. The living room is nice with a modern kitchen. The outside just got its face lifted with white paint, the roof is good and can be seen, almost, from our new school, only $11,000. TWO MORE families can have a home here in town. They can walk easy to stores and school, each will have 4 rooms and bath with lots of possibilities with large sun porch each will have. No work is needed to make this so and it took less than 8 ton of coal to keep both warm last year. The lot is 100x130 ft. and there is 1 1/2 story garage also, must see this only $14,500, $5,000 down.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST
Sunday Services at 10:30 a.m. Sunday School, 10:30 a.m. for pupils up to 20 years. That man must depend on something more than materiality if he wishes to make real progress is emphasized in the Lesson-Scripture entitled "Matter" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, September 23. The Golden Text is from Psalms (73:26): "My flesh and my heart fail; but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever." Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Col. 3:2): "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. Corporate passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Bring in sympathy with matter, the worldly man is at the beck and call of error, and will be attracted thitherward." (P.21)

A food expert in the Office of Naval Research says that if you eat what you like it's probably good for you. How about those Navy beans? Anyway the report should be a boon to chow hounds who have felt a trifle apologetic about their two-handed attack on the blue-plate special. It could even excuse garlic lovers and hamburger cheese enthusiasts, although that may be as optimistic as a salesman with his hand on your lapel. If the report reaches Young America it'll be a big psychological lever at the soda fountain. Perhaps the expert should be taken with a grain of salt... and common sense.

Just arrived! Super selection of collectors salt and pepper shakers.

Sports Glances

by "Professor" Edgar Brown

The curtain rolled up for another football season last Friday, one which will be filled with many thrills, heart-breaking losses, last second wins, a few injuries, and loss of sleep and hair for many coaches.

On the local scene our PHS gridgers were kept from winning their first opening game in years by a heart-breaking fumble which resulted in a Farmington touchdown to tie up the ball game 12 to 12 with only 40 seconds of play remaining in the game.

The boys played well and deserved to win, but such things happen quickly, and that is what makes football such a thrilling game to watch.

Don Huebler tells me Plymouth hasn't beaten Farmington since the fall of 1946, his last year, when the Rocks won 9 to 0. By the way, Don is enrolled at the University of Michigan and plans on going out for basketball there. He has been a tower of strength in local basketball circles the past five years and this valuable experience may prove of great value to him in his bid for a varsity berth. Good luck to you Don.

The vast sports program provided for Plymouth by the Recreation department has paid off well in state competition. Our teams have gone far in the many tournaments they have entered. Daisy went to the finals in Class D baseball; Beglinger Olds also went to the finals in the state softball tournament; the men's golf team came in second and the women's golf team won the state recreational golf tournament. That's a fairly good record for any city in Michigan to match. Yes, Plymouth has one of the best recreational programs in the state, and has made itself known throughout the state.

The 9 man touch football league proposed by the recreational department is receiving a good response from the young fry of our city. I understand that teams have been entered from each grade school and also from each parochial school.

Introducing football on a limited scale down in the grades will prove of value to the little fellows now and also later when they get into high school. A well-rounded athletic program will do much to make better physical specimens of our young people. Forty percent of our young men were rejected during the last war for some physical defect. Such a program may help these young people develop a better physical body.

Well, Michigan State wins their first game this coming Saturday when they play host to Oregon State—the western boys will go home with at least a four-touchdown defeat on their backs. MSC is going to be one of the powerhouses in the nation this year, and I wouldn't be surprised to see them go through an undefeated season. Other local games should find U. of D. walloping Toledo and Wayne losing to Iowa State.

In high school circles—Trenton seems to have a fair team as they won over Class A Monroe, however, Monroe never has been a powerhouse in football. Ypsi won over Class A Hazel Park, and the latter never has had a good football team. Melvindale defeated Allen Park, our opponent tomorrow night, by a score of 33 to 13—many of those touchdowns were made on fumbles and the game was a lot closer than the score indicates. Bentley was upset by Garden City. Garden City was an 11th grade school last year and had a fair team and they are all back. Redford Union has some strength, Belleville lost to Class C Milan by a lopsided score of 40 to 2.

By the way, I have arranged to call in the highlights of all our games to Radio Station WKRV, Ann Arbor, where they will be broadcast in the high school football roundup program at 11:45 a.m. each Saturday morning. Listen to this program and hear all about all the games around this area each Saturday morning.

PHS Ties Farmington

Plymouth almost defeated Farmington for the first time since 1946, but a fumble with 40 seconds of the game remaining enabled an outplayed Farmington eleven to tie the score at 12 to 12 and escape certain defeat.

The local boys led throughout the game and seemed headed for an easy victory, but old dame Fortune stepped in and decided differently. Plymouth had held for downs and forced Farmington to punt on fourth down with 50 seconds of the game left. The Rocks received a short punt near mid-field and merely had to "freeze" the ball for a few downs to gain their victory of the year, but on second down Travis, who played a grand game, fumbled and the free ball bounced around for quite some time before a Farmington player picked it up and ran unmolested 60 yards for the equalizing touchdown—they then tried a pass for what would have been the winning point, but it was yards away from the intended receiver.

Just before the game began, a cloudburst drenched the field for 10 minutes leaving it muddy and slippery; as a result there were many fumbles by both sides and many a runner went a short distance only to lose his footing—the passing game was hampered, however, Farmington scored their first touchdown on a fourth down jump pass over center.

The game opened with Plymouth kicking off to Farmington, who couldn't advance and were forced to kick to the Rocks. Then the first break of the game came for Plymouth, when, on fourth down, Lanphear placed a beautiful 30 yard punt out of bounds on the Farmington 6 inch line. Trying desperately to get out of this hole, Farmington fumbled in the end zone and an alert Daggett pounced on the ball for a Plymouth touchdown. A bad pass from center doomed the extra point attempt of Vettese.

In the second quarter Daggett recovered another fumble near mid-field and with Travis, Ritter and Lanphear lugging the pigskin for long gains, Travis finally went the last five yards around left end for the score. The extra point attempt of Jerry Vettese was wide of the goal posts. The half ended shortly after this with the score 12 to 0 in Plymouth's favor.

The second half began with the play going much as it had in the first half. Farmington was unable to penetrate into Rock territory until near the end of the third quarter, when Runge fumbled a punt and Farmington recovered near mid-field. They marched to the Rock 10 yard line as the period ended, and Plymouth held for three downs only to see a fourth down jump pass connect for a touchdown to open the fourth quarter. The extra try attempt was wide of the uprights leaving the locals still possessing a 12 to 6 lead.

The score remained that way until late in the fourth quarter when Travis fumbled with less than a minute to go, and a Farmington player picked it up and raced 60 yards for a touchdown. A pass for the extra point was incomplete, leaving the two teams tied at 12 to 12. There was just time enough remaining for two plays and Plymouth had the ball on the Farmington 45 yard line as the gun sounded ending the game.

Because of the playing conditions it was hard to evaluate either team, but the locals played a hard game, and are expected to give a good account of themselves in all games this season. The inexperienced line held Farmington to 5 first downs by rushing, and the pass defense held the opponents to one pass completion out of 5 attempts—that one being for a touchdown.

Plymouth made five first downs by rushing and one by passing. The Rocks gained a net of 134 yards by rushing and 20 by passing—they completed one pass out of two attempts—that being the 20 yard toss from Travis to Kelly. The other attempt was intercepted. Lanphear had a 30 yard punting average on five kicks. Davis Travis was the workhorse in the backfield going 68 yards on 14 rushes. Ritter showed much promise as a runner when he gained 42 yards in 6 tries.

Fumbles played an important part in all scores—Plymouth fumbled the slippery ball four times and Farmington six times. The Rocks play Allen Park this Friday night under the lights at 8 p.m. on the local athletic field.

9-Man Football Begins Next Week

Recreational director Herbert Woolweaver states that the response to the nine-man football proposed on this page last week has been heartening. So far, one or two teams from each grade school in the city and one each from the parochial schools have sent in applications.

Mr. Woolweaver states that the deadline has been moved up to next Monday, because a few more teams have indicated a desire to compete.

This program is a touch football league, and the fundamentals of football will be taught—the youth of our city will become accustomed to playing a hard game of football. Most of the injuries in football today are caused by not knowing how to tackle, block and think on the field, and also being afraid of getting hurt.

See Big Increase in Pheasant Kill

A potential kill of 1,000,000 pheasants is in prospect for gunners who will open their season on October 15, according to Ralph Blouch, pheasant expert for the Conservation Department.

Blouch this week released his summary on the 1951 pheasant breeding season. He based his forecast on extensive counts of crowing cock birds, surveys by cooperating farmers, brood survey, and reports from mail carriers.

All agreed that there was a reasonably large breeding population, an early hatch, a large percentage of productive hens and a larger number of broods in all areas.

Most significant observation was by 200 farmers who reported that pheasants nested fully two weeks earlier than a year ago. Earlier nesting meant that nests were less disturbed by farming operations.

In their first hay cutting farmers found five percent fewer nests, this year, which means that many broods were brought off ahead of haying, resulting in a lower loss from cutting bars.

Observation of pheasants hatching this year was during the second week of June. Last year, at the peak was one week later. Average brood size, however, was the same this year as last.

Early spring counts by mail carriers and conservation officers showed that winter carry-over was high. More pheasants were seen in all areas.

The sex ratio was the same as for the past two years: about two hens for every cock. Blouch commented: "The actual proportion is certainly higher this year."

The rural mail carrier brood surveys showed an average increase of 59 percent in southern Michigan. Various parts of the state checked out as follows:

Thumb area (Huron, Sanilac, Tuscola, Bay, Saginaw, and St. Clair counties) 96 percent increase over last year.

Southeastern area (Lenawee, Macomb, Monroe, Washtenaw and Wayne counties) 18 percent more.

Central area (Clinton, Eaton, Gratiot, Ionia, Ingham and Shiawassee) 30 percent more.

Southwestern area (Barry, Berrien, Branch, Calhoun, Cass, Kalamazoo, St. Joseph and Van Buren) 52 percent increase.

Western area (Allegan, Ottawa and Muskegon) 79 percent more.

Local Bowlers Vie for Awards By Local Store

If he hits the head pin in the strike zone 12 consecutive times in one game some male bowler will be $600 richer, providing he is wearing a King Louie bowling shirt purchased from the Davis and Lent's Men's Clothing store.

Yes, the men bowlers of Plymouth will really have an incentive for that high or perfect game again this year. The Davis and Lent store announced their second annual bowling contest in last week's issue of the Mail, and some man bowler will win a substantial sum of money during the bowling season.

Davis and Lent's will give $300 to the first qualified bowler in a sanctioned league wearing any bowling shirt purchased from the store, and that amount will be doubled to $600 if said bowler is wearing a King Louie bowling shirt from their store.

Also $300 will be paid, even after the first $600 has been paid, to each man bowling a 300 game, providing he is wearing a Davis and Lent King Louie shirt.

If no one qualifies for the top award during the regular season, the store will still give a cash award of $50 to the man bowling the highest game in any regular sanctioned league. A second prize of $25 for the next highest game; $15 for the third and $10 for the fourth highest game.

Last year first prize went to Eugene Piscopink of Wayne; second prize to Robert Johnson of Plymouth; third prize to Warren Hoffman of Livonia and fourth prize to Arthur Dupont of Wayne.

This is the second year that Davis and Lent's have made this astounding cash offer; previously they had given suits of clothes as awards. It will be of interest to watch the high score recorded during the season.

This page will report on the progress of this amazing contest.

Detroit Lions Will Be Up Among Leaders this Year

It looks like this will be the year for the Detroit Lions to make a strong bid for the professional football championship. Coach "Buddy" Parker has molded together a smoothly working outfit, and from early indications his team will hold its own against any team in the league this year. They already have played three pre-season games—winning two and tying the other—for the best pre-season record of any recent Lion team.

They bowled over the New York Giants 31 to 21, tied the Philadelphia Eagles 10 to 10, and stunned the highly-fouted Cleveland Browns 21 to 20. This last victory over Paul Brown's team really sold the football fans of Detroit the idea that the Lions are more than just another so-so football team such as they have been the past few seasons.

The inexperienced young squad of a year ago has improved to such an extent that they will be feared by all opponents this year. Doak Walker, Leon Hart, Bobby Layne, Les Bingaman, Lou Cheekmur, Joe Soboleski, Jim Martin and Ollie Cline are the youthful players who have gained much in the year, or two, they have been up in the big time.

A few star collegians of last year are making their presence felt—Jack Christiansen, a speedy back, is counted on heavily to gain many yards for the Lions.

Doak Walker is better than the dazzling player he was while performing for Southern Methodist. Big Leon Hart is just as tough as they come.

The team spirit is high and at the end of the season, I'll wager a pickled pig's tongue that the Lions are right up among the leaders.

The league schedule of 12 games will begin September 30 and run through December 16. Fans attending any of these games will be treated to some high class, spectacular football this year.

Ladies Teams Wins State MRA Golf Tourney at Pontiac

The Plymouth Women's golf team won the Michigan Recreational Association golf tournament held last Saturday, September 15, at the Pontiac Municipal golf course, with a combined score of 526 strokes. Pontiac was second with a score of 532. Jackson and Dearborn finished far down the list. Dearborn was the winner last year.

The Plymouth ladies won a travelling trophy in this second annual MRA golf tournament and will have the beautiful trophy for a year—it is being displayed at the Plymouth United Savings Bank. Each lady of the winning team also received an individual permanent trophy.

Comprising the Plymouth team were the following ladies: Mrs. Betty Demel, who was low scorer in the tournament with a 90; Mrs. Jane Carmichael with a 102; Mrs. Isabelle Partridge with a 104; Mrs. Jane Todd with a 114 and Mrs. Helen Meyer with a 116.

Mr. Herbert Woolweaver, Plymouth Recreational director, accompanied the team to Pontiac and says local golf fans can well be proud of the ladies for bringing this honor to Plymouth.

The men's team competed in this same tournament last week, and finished in second place.

Important things to do to assure successful summer seedings are having weeds under control, preparing a good seed bed, and applying lime and fertilizers, if needed. Michigan State college farm crops specialists say.

Alfalfa and red clover should not be cut or pastured during September if you want it to survive the winter.

Allen Park Opens Football Season Here Tomorrow

Plymouth football fans will get their first glimpse of the local gridiron warriors when the Rocks play host to Allen Park, one of the new members of the 6B suburban league, under the lights of the local athletic field at 8 p.m. tomorrow night.

The Rocks, coached this year by Charles Ketterer, were tied last Friday when a Farmington player picked up a Plymouth fumble and raced 60 yards for the tying points with 40 seconds remaining in the game. The game was played on a field which had been made very muddy and slippery by a downpour just as the game was supposed to begin.

The Rocks are making good use of the new free substitution rule this year which permits players being freely substituted between downs. Coach Ketterer uses a partial platoon system with some players going in on offense, others only on defense, and a few iron men play both defense and offense.

The fans who witness this game tomorrow night will be treated to some nifty football. One thing is certain, those boys will be out there fighting to bring Plymouth a win in their first home game of the season.

This will be the first league game for each school.

If, in instructing a child, you are vexed with it for want of adroitness, try, if you have never tried before, to write with your left hand, and then remember that a child is all left hand.

Charles Ketterer New PHS Coach Likes Plymouth

The guiding force of the Plymouth High gridders this fall is Charles Ketterer, the new head football coach at the high school. Coach Ketterer has been working diligently the past few weeks trying to get the local boys in shape as contenders for the new 6B Suburban league crown.

The new coach is a product of the University of Michigan where he played football for the Wolverines on the 150 pound team in the Ben Ten league, was a member of the basketball squad, and played baseball. Before going to Michigan he had stayed in football, basketball and baseball at Northwestern High school in Detroit.

Charles has his Master's degree from the University of Michigan, and while obtaining it he helped as assistant coach at Ann Arbor High school.

Before coming to Plymouth, Coach Ketterer was head football coach at Northville and last year at River Rouge.

Charley is a fellow with a pleasing personality, friendly attitude, and has made many friends during the short time he has been with us. We know he will do everything possible to give Plymouth a football team we can be proud of whether they win or lose. Charley says he likes what he has seen of Plymouth and is grateful for the fine cooperation he has received thus far.

Coach Ketterer is married and Mrs. Ketterer formerly taught speech correction in Plymouth Public Schools in 1949. They reside in an apartment located on the corner of Penniman and S. Harvey streets.

Cross-Country Lads Open Season Friday at Park

The first cross-country meet of the season for the local thinclads is supposed to be tomorrow afternoon against Allen Park on the two-mile course in Riverside Park. It isn't definite whether Allen Park is putting a cross-country team in the new 6B Suburban league this year—at least at this writing.

Plymouth, the league champion of last year, faces a season of uncertainty as they have an inexperienced squad of only 9 boys—four less than reported last week. It takes 7 to make up a team for all open meets, and everyone can run in a duel meet.

Belogh, the only experienced man back, is expected to give a good performance as he has been clocked in 12:08 for the two mile grind this year, but the rest of the squad have not been performing up to championship caliber as the second best time has been 13:23.

After-school work has wrecked Coach Moiso's dream of another league championship as three boys, whom he was counting on to win many points, are working after school and find it impossible to run this year.

Any distance runners who would like to come out for the team would be welcomed by Coach Moiso and probably would stand a good chance of earning a letter if they are fairly good runners.

Engagement of Ester Spitza Announced

Ester Spitza

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Spitza of Merriman road announce the engagement of their daughter, Ester to Joseph E. Labbe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Labbe of Fenmore avenue, Detroit. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Nancy Neubecker Weds John Carney

Before an altar banked in large baskets of white gladioli, mums, dahlias and palms and double tiers of lighted tapers Nancy Lee Neubecker repeated here nuptial vows to John Ryan Carney of Cavell avenue, Livonia. Nancy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Neubecker also of Cavell avenue and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Carney.

The candlelight ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock last Friday evening in Hosanna Lutheran church on Plymouth road. The Reverend R. Pranschke officiated at the rites. Mrs. Edna O'Conner presided at the organ and the soloist, Mary Lou Hartwick sang "The Greatest of These is Love" and "O Perfect Love."

Nancy chose a lovely gown of traditional bridal satin with picture neckline of illusion and full skirt which extended into a cathedral train. The skirt was complimented with a satin peplum bordered with Alecon lace. The yoke of her dress was attached to the satin with an illusion ruffing studded with rhinestones. Her fingertip length veil was fastened to a tiara of lace and she carried a cascade of shattered mums centered with a large orchid and satin streamers. She was given in marriage by her father.

Yalarie Neubecker was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of shrimp colored net with shawl collar and carried shattered bronze mums with matching ribbons. The bridesmaids were Joanne Ross and Barbara Harrison. Both attendants wore sea-foam green and carried bronze mums. Joanne Neubecker, as the flower girl, wore a floor length gown of blue satin, the skirt of which was tiers of ruffles. She carried a white baskets of red rosebuds. Billy Neubecker was the ring bearer.

Malcolm Carney was his brother's best man and seating the guests were Raymond Ross and Donald Brose. Mrs. Neubecker selected a floor length gown of orchid-blue with a matching lace side drape and Mrs. Carney was in pea green also floor length. Both mothers wore corsages of rubrum lillies.

A reception for over 250 guests was held in the church dining room immediately following the ceremony. Large tables extended the entire length of the room. On the white cloths were pinned single gladioli and asters in fall shades. The large five tiered wedding cake had lighted tapers encircling each tier and on either side were large baskets of gladioli also in fall shades. Indirect lighting was used the entire length of the tables.

The young couple are now honeymooning upstate. For going away Mrs. Carney wore a skipper blue suit with black accessories and a black velvet hat trimmed with sequins. She had the orchid from her bridal bouquet pinned to her shoulder. Nancy is a graduate of Bentley High School and John graduated from Plymouth High School and is now attending Lawrence Tech. They will make their future home in Wyandotte.

Engagement of Doris Landau Announced

Mrs. Olga Landau of Maple street announces the engagement of her daughter, Doris to John Ausmus, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ausmus, Sr., of Ford road. No definite plans for the wedding have been made.

Hints For Plymouth Homemakers

Autumn's The Time For an Out Door Steak Roast

In the good old autumn-time our favorite luxury is a steak broiled over an outdoor fire. And right next to that steak, we'll have a big pot of coffee brewing over the embers. There isn't anything that smells or tastes so good. For the additional glorification of charcoal-broiled steak, here is an unusual and truly delicious sauce to brush on the meat before and during the cooking. Somehow or other, it makes even the best steak taste better.

Steak Barbecue Sauce
 2 1/2 cup strong coffee
 1/2 cup butter or margarine
 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
 dash tobacco
 1 1/2 teaspoons dry mustard
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 1 teaspoon sugar

Combine all ingredients in saucepan. Heat, stirring until butter melts. Brush over steak as it broils. (Makes about 1 cup.)

Tips for the Campfire Chef

To befriend the family chef on woodland outings, we have collected helps from experienced Forest Rangers on how to build an open fire and what to expect from it in cooking.

To begin with, a campfire should be small. It is the hot coals which do the cooking.

First scrape away ground litter from a circle and in the middle dig a hole a few inches deep and a foot or so wide for the fire. See which way the wind is blowing, and shovel earth away from the side opposite to the wind. This feeds the fire with a draft, which helps keep the fire burning.

If your kindling is dry wood use small branches about the size of a lead pencil, or pieces cut from the center of small, dead, standing trees.

In broiling steaks or frying foods over hot coals, place the grate only about six inches from the fire.

Do not use the fire in the roaring stage except for boiling or heating water. It takes about an hour after a fire is touched to get cooking heat. When a glowing bed of coals is ready, and you can count on another half hour of steady, dependable heat.

Even so, a campfire will not keep the same degree of heat under a cooking pan for a very long time. Adding fuel changes the heat output, and cooking time varies with wind strength and type of firewood. IMPORTANT rule for all campfire builders: Never leave a campfire unattended even for the shortest time. Put out the fire and soak the coals with water every time you leave camp.

Theoretically, no spot on earth is now farther away from your local airport than 40 hours of flying time.

TENNESSEE SPECIAL
 Ever go to a Tennessee covered dish supper? If you have, no doubt there was corn bread stuffing with chicken and sweet potato pudding among the many dishes. The rich sweet pudding is a natural dessert for a covered dish meal because it may be served warm or cold.

Sweet Potato Pudding
 2 cups grated raw pared sweet potatoes
 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine
 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
 1/4 teaspoon ginger
 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
 2 eggs, well-beaten
 1/2 cup coarsely chopped walnuts

Grate potato with a medium grater. Add butter and next six ingredients, add eggs and blend well. Pour into greased one-quart casserole. Top with nuts. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for one hour. Serve with or without cream.

Yield: 6 servings.

The bright yellow color of the sweet potato or yam is a fine sign for good health. Both are excellent sources of Vitamin A.

Savory Corn Bread Stuffing
 4 cups bread cubes
 2 cups corn bread, finely broken
 1/4 cup minced onion
 2 teaspoons salt
 3 teaspoons sugar
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 1 tablespoon sage
 1/4 cup minced parsley
 1/2 cup finely chopped celery, melted
 3/4 cup giblet broth or water

Toss all ingredients together lightly. The stuffing will be more attractive to serve if it is baked about one and one-half hours in a casserole.

Pan Broil With Ease

For simple pan broiling with almost guaranteed success, follow the suggestions listed below.

1. Place meat in heavy frying-pan.
2. Do not add fat. Do not add water. Do not cover.
3. Cook slowly, turning occasionally.
4. Pour fat from pan as it accumulates.
5. Brown meat on both sides.
6. Season. Serve at once.

Meat Cuts for Panbroiling
BEEF: Rib, Club, Tenderloin (filet mignon), T-bone, Porterhouse, Sirloin, Top Round Steaks; Patties.

SMOKED PORK: Bacon, Canadian-Style Bacon, Ham Slice.
LAMB: Shoulder, Rib and Loin Chops; Patties.
VARIETY MEATS: Sweetbreads; Brains; Veal or Lamb Liver and Kidneys.

Special Points on Panbroiling
 1. Panbroiled meats should not be seared at the beginning of cooking—a gradual broiling by occasional turning during cooking is better.

2. In panbroiling meat patties, it is often desirable to run the frying pan with fat to prevent the patties from sticking.

3. In panbroiling, the frying-pan need not be preheated. The meat merely starts cooking more quickly if the utensil is warm.

Care of Chicken Meat

Uncooked:
 1. Keep frozen chicken frozen until ready to use.

2. Wrap fresh-drawn chicken loosely in waxed paper, aluminum foil or parchment and refrigerate. It may be kept 2 or 3 days at refrigerator temperature.

3. If purchased dressed style, draw the bird and clean giblets promptly.

Cooked:
 Serve chicken promptly after cooking. Refrigerate leftover chicken gravy, well-covered, as soon as possible after the meal. Remove any stuffing from stuffed birds and refrigerate it separately, well-covered.

Pickle Slices Are Easily Made

Making crisp, whole cucumber pickles of high quality requires a long, painstaking brining process that tries the patience of most busy homemakers, but delicious cucumber slices are easy to fix and will keep well.

Miss Roberta Hershey, extension foods and nutrition specialist at Michigan State College, suggests a recipe for making cucumber slices that's a snap.

For 1 peck (10 pounds) of small cucumbers you need a cup of salt, vinegar, a half cup each of sugar and mustard seed, and 2 tablespoons each of celery seed and peppercorns.

Wash and cut the cucumbers into slices about a quarter of an inch thick. Put slices and salt in alternate layers in a crock or stone jar. Let them stand overnight.

In the morning drain and press out all the juice possible. If they're too salty to the taste, rinse them in cold water. Measure the cucumber slices. Heat half as much vinegar as cucumber slices to simmering—then add salt and seasonings.

Pack the cucumbers into clean, hot jars to within 1 inch of the top. Fill the jars with the hot vinegar and seasoning mixture to within a half inch of the top. Wipe off jar rims and adjust lids according to the manufacturer's directions.

Boil the jars 15 minutes in a boiling-water bath, making sure water covers the jars. Remove the jars and complete the seals.

LAZY SUSAN—CONVERSATION PIECE

by Marguerite Mickelsen

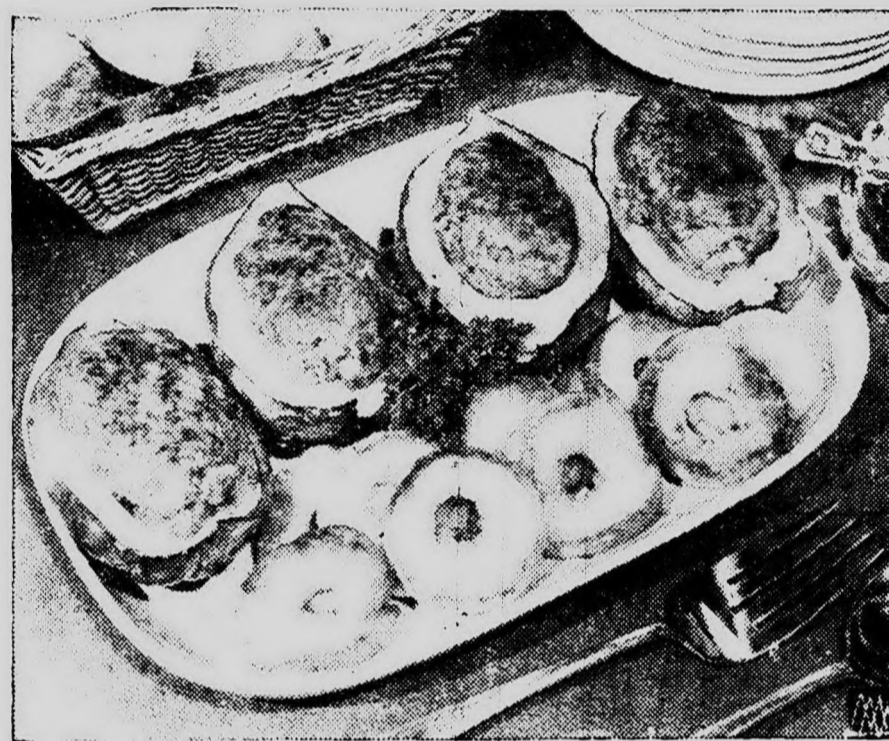

Want to do something different the next time you invite guests to dinner? You can skip the appetizers and salad if you load your lazy susan with various kinds of pickles, jellies and jams, spiced fruits and sauces. None of these demand preparation time for you have them all available in jars or cans at your local grocery or in your own fruit cellar.

Picture are sweet mixed pickle, pepper cabbage, fresh cucumber pickle, chow-chow, cherry jelly, Schmier kase, and apple sauce. Equally suitable are spiced fruits, marmalades, fruit butters, chili sauce, etc.

THRIFTY MEAL FEATURES FRESH PORK SAUSAGE

by Marie Gifford

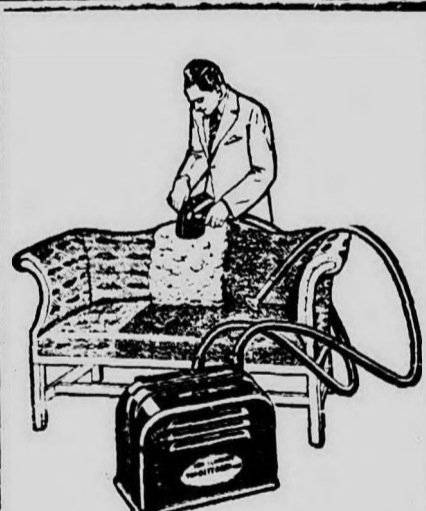

It isn't enough just to prepare meals that satisfy appetites. Homemakers have the additional responsibility of providing meals that are nutritious, too. When there's a limited budget, the job grows even bigger. Here's a hearty meal that does the trick from all standpoints. Tempting, nutritious, and economical, it features fresh pork sausage with baked acorn squash and fried apple rings.

There's a precious store of vitamins and minerals in this easy-to-prepare meal. The sausage is an excellent source of thiamine, the vitamin so important to all-around top health. Vitamin A value is abundant in the squash, and there's a lot of essential minerals in all of these foods.

Much of the success of this meal will depend upon the right sausage. Buy it by brand name. A star brand will be guaranteed absolutely fresh, 100% pure pork with only carefully selected spices and seasonings added. For this meal, choose a handy, one-pound cellophane roll of sausage. It's a convenient type for slicing, too. Just cut the roll into the number of portions you want to serve, remove the cellophane from the slices, and they're all ready to cook.

Here's all there is to preparing this man-sized meal. Cut two acorn squashes in half lengthwise, turn halves face down in pie tins, and bake 30 minutes in a 350° F. oven. Remove from oven, turn squash over, brush with sausage drippings. Sprinkle with sugar and finish baking for 10-15 minutes, right side up. While squash is baking, shape sausage into 4 large, oblong patties and brown slowly in frying pan for 20 minutes. Pour off fat as it accumulates. (Use this fat for seasoning the squash.) Place one patty in each squash. Serve hot. 4 servings. Apple slices fried in 2 tablespoons of the sausage drippings are a delicious accompaniment.

As a general rule, late summer seedlings of legumes are best when made just before fall rains. The seedbed should be well-prepared, and supplied with proper amounts of lime and fertilizer before the seed goes into it.

Now's The Time to Can Fall Fruits For Use This Winter

It's almost fall, and time for grapes, tomatoes, pears, and apples. With all of these fruits on the market many a modern homemaker, anxious to keep food budgets down, is re-discovering the old-fashioned ways of economizing. One of the most important is home canning.

No question about it—jars of home-canned fruits and vegetables are a real asset to any pantry, besides saving at least half on canned food requirements. Here is a "quickie" recipe for

Magic Grape Nectar

To make this delicious drink, you simply wash and stem a batch of firm, ripe grapes and put one cupful into each hot quart fruit jar. Add one-half to one cup of sugar. Fill jar with boiling water, apply cap and process 10 minutes in boiling water bath. Then let cool and test for seal. Before long you will have jars of luscious purple liquid with only a little sediment which is strained off when serving.

Simple, isn't it? And you have the job all done, the kitchen tidied, in an unbelievably short time.

Grape juice is a tasty, vitamin rich cocktail for breakfast, lunch or dinner. It mixes well with carbonated water, ginger ale, or pineapple juice for a delectable party drink. It also provides a colorful, appetizing flavoring for jellied salads, frozen desserts, sherbets and sauces.

The unsweetened juice can be put up now for use in making grape jelly later when you have more time.

Tomato juice is another universal favorite with home canners. This year's crop of tomatoes is the firm, meaty kind which can well, either whole, in sections or as juice.

Here is a streamlined recipe for putting up tomato juice now, while prices are low and flavor at its best:

Tomato Juice

Wash firm, red-ripe tomatoes, discarding any that are bruised or speckled. Cut out core. Then cut into small pieces and cook until soft. Press the hot tomatoes through a fine sieve or food mill. Add salt to taste. Reheat to simmering (195-205° F.) Pour into hot fruit jars and seal. Process 15 minutes in hot-water bath at boiling.

These recipes assure a supply

Applesauce—Fresh or Canned

For a Salad
 Here's a recipe which makes good use of the applesauce in a salad: Dissolve a package of lemon-flavored gelatin in a cup of hot water, and stir in chopped marshmallows until they're partially dissolved. Cool the gelatin mixture slightly, and add 2 cups of applesauce, a half cup of chopped nuts, 6 large stuffed, chopped olives, and 3 tablespoons of salad dressing. Pour the salad into molds and chill until it's firm. Then serve it on salad greens.

Prepare a medium syrup and tint with red coloring.
 Wash, peel, halve and core Bartlett Pears. Pack into clean hot jars. Add 1/2 teaspoon mint (spearmint) flavoring to each quart and 1/4 teaspoon for each pint. Cover with syrup. Wipe jar rims, and adjust lids. Process in boiling water bath for 20 minutes.

Prepare a medium syrup and tint with red coloring.
 Wash, peel, halve and core Bartlett Pears. Pack into clean hot jars. Add one inch piece of stick cinnamon and a lemon slice to each pint jar, and double that amount for a quart. Cover with syrup, wipe jar rims, and adjust lids. Process in boiling water bath for 20 minutes.

The general primary election held Tuesday brought out a large vote in Plymouth. A total of 527 votes were cast in both precincts.

Mr. and Mrs. William Powell were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bordine, in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hanchett and sons of Northville, spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pettibone on Ford road.

E. V. Jolliffe returned Friday, September 3, from a splendid trip to the Canadian Northwest, and left immediately for Philadelphia, Pa., where he joined Mrs. Jolliffe and the children, who have been spending the summer in the east. They returned home by auto, arriving here last Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Wilson, a son, George Wilford, Sunday, September 12.

Coello Hamilton and family have arrived home from their cottage at Black Lake, where they have been spending the summer.

An intensive campaign for a new $200,000 hotel will begin Monday night, September 20, with a supper meeting in the Banquet Hall of the Masonic Temple. 130 salesmen will start selling stocks in units of $200 each at that time.

Alice Delaney of Plymouth and Irving Rutenbar of Detroit were joined as husband and wife in holy matrimony on the afternoon of September 2 at the Evangelical parsonage. They were attended by Robert E. Evy and Alma Rutenbar.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and Mrs. C. E. Ryder attended the State Fair last week Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper are spending a few days with Mrs. Cooper's sister, Mrs. Guntz, before returning to their home in Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Sheldon Gale was in Ypsilanti last week, calling on old friends, and together with Mr. Gale, was at the home of their son, Walter Gale the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Passage are visitors in Petoskey.

Miss Phyllis C. Larkins was the guest of Miss Ruth Magee of Ann Arbor for the weekend.

Village President Harry C. Robinson wishes to commend the progressiveness and thoughtfulness of E. O. Huston, who, at his own expense, had dirt drawn in and graded the alley between the Huston building and the Mail office.

Famous Race Driver Chooses Nash Ambassador!

HERE'S WHY Johnny Mantz PICKS JETFIRE POWER!

Johnny Mantz, world-famous race driver, who's driven just about every kind of car ever made and won many of racing's top honors, has this to say about his Nash Ambassador:

"I chose a Nash Ambassador for personal and stock-car racing use because I firmly believe Airflyte Construction and handling ease make it the safest car on the highway. Speed and performance? I proved that when I drove an Ambassador 102.46 m.p.h. over El Mirage Dry Lake. Its Jetfire Engine is one of the finest ever put into any car! But, above and beyond its record performance and economy are such features as Coil Spring riding ease, Airliner Reclining Seat, Twin Beds and Weather Eye Conditioned Air. Nash wins on every count—and I can recommend it to anyone who wants a truly fine car."

FAVORITE RANGE OF A FOOTBALL FAVORITE

The Johnny Greenes Cook Electrically!

"I'm so glad we have an electric range," says attractive Mrs. Johnny Greene. "I don't know how we'd get along without it," joins in Johnny. "Alice is a career wife."

Whereupon Alice adds, "That's one of the reasons why I so often delegate cook's job to my range. I put dinner in the oven before I leave for my law office and set the controls. When Johnny and I get home dinner's ready to be served. An electric range is ideal for working couples . . . it's so time-releasing. It's so clean, too. I just can't seem to say enough nice things about it!"

Once you've cooked with an electric range you'll be as enthusiastic about it as the Greenes. See the modern electric range for yourself—at your dealer's—today!

Polls will be open at seven o'clock A.M., and remain open until eight o'clock P.M., E.S.T., of said day of election. Every qualified elector present and in line at the polls at eight o'clock P.M., shall be allowed to vote.

Albert F. Glassford, City Clerk

Maybe you're missing something BIG

WE know how you feel when a car has given you faithful service. You like it. You're loyal to it. And that's only human.

But just suppose you found out that some other car could make familiar roads seem a lot smoother.

Suppose some other car held the curves in a way you'd never felt before.

Suppose some other car had more thrilling power — steered like a dream — held its course like an airliner on the beam — and let you finish a long day's drive feeling daisy fresh.

Wouldn't you feel you're missing something big unless you tried it out?

There is such a car. Its name is Buick.

It has big soft coil springs on every wheel. It has a Fireball Engine. It has a "front-end geometry" that does miracles with steering. And it has Dynaflo Drive.*

And incidentally, it wears a price tag that makes it a very smart buy compared to anything else you own.

We'd like to have you try this car. You'll never know what you're missing till you do.

How about giving us a call — or coming in to see us real soon?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.
*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

NO OTHER CAR PROVIDES ALL THIS:

- DYNAFLOW DRIVE — saves strain on driver and car
- FIREBALL ENGINE — high compression, valve-in-head — gets more miles from every tank of fuel
- PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT — combines smart style and unsurpassed protection
- WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS — greater clarity at night
- TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE — seals the chassis, steadies ride, improves driving control
- 4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING — cushions ride, saves servicing costs
- DUAL VENTILATION — outside air fed separately to right or left of front compartment
- SELF-ENERGIZING BRAKES — hydraulic — multiply pedal pressure five times at brake drum
- DREAMLINE STYLING — tapered, car-length fenders, gleaming sweepstakes on most models
- Plus: Self-locking luggage lid, Step-On parking brake, two-way ignition lock, Safety Ride tires, Hi-Poised engine mounting, Body by Fisher

Plymouth Historical Holds First Meeting

Thirty-two members of the Plymouth Historical Society met at the home of E. Fletcher Campbell on West Ann Arbor trail last Thursday evening, September 13.

Earl W. DeLaVergne, of Livonia, a member of the Society, gave a talk on "Old Maps of Michigan." Among several original maps owned and displayed by Mr. DeLaVergne was one dated 1703.

Mrs. Harry Terry, program chairman, outlined the program for the ensuing year. Mrs. Bessie Dunning, chairman of the Memory Book Fund, reported that Gray's "Botany" has been placed in the local library in memory of Mrs. Mary K. Hillmer, a charter member.

Miss Joanne Purcell accompanied by Miss Czarinna Penney, sang two solos. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Campbell assisted by Mrs. Howard Brown and Mrs. Roy Purcell.

The next meeting will be held on October 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills of North Harvey street.

The safest way to double your money is to fold it over and pocket it.

Suitcase: Something you sit on while waiting for the train.

— if everything burned TONIGHT?

The furnishings in your home are probably worth 5 or 10 times what you think they are.

You've accumulated them one at a time—a chair, a book, a picture, a suit of clothes, a set of dishes—so you underestimate their total value.

Your insurance on these things is probably only a fraction of what it should be. For example, just list the things in one room, and see! Or ask us for a form on which to make a complete inventory of your household possessions. And we'll tell you how inexpensive complete America Fore protection against fire loss really is.

Services Held For Burton B. Johnson

Burton Branch Johnson, 77, of Plymouth, first professional secretary of the Ann Arbor Young Men's Christian Association, died Wednesday in Sessions Hospital, Northville, after a short illness.

A lifelong YMCA worker, Mr. Johnson began his career as a field representative in Army camps in the Spanish-American War of 1903.

An 1899 University graduate, he organized a student "Y" group in Ann Arbor in 1900, and in 1901 joined the campaign for a "Y" building there. He was the first professional secretary at the new building, serving from 1902 to 1904.

He later helped build the Lansing YMCA, pioneered in "Y" work in the Houghton-Hancock area of Michigan and joined the faculty of the YMCA College in Chicago. Retiring in 1935, he moved to Tennessee, but soon began developing Hi-Y Clubs there.

Born on April 22, 1874, in Bath, Mich., he was a son of Abel W. and Eliza Branch Johnson.

He married Beatha Swartout of Three Rivers, Mich., in 1904. She died April 7, 1947.

On Jan. 16, 1948, he married Mrs. Blanche Tutthill Daniels of Plymouth. She survives.

Also surviving are two daughters, two sons, and a brother.

Funeral services were held Friday at 2 o'clock at the Schrader Funeral home. Burial was made in Three Rivers, Saturday.

Plymouth Resident Produces Record Beet

Roy Lare who resides at 202 North Mill street, believes he grew in his garden this summer the biggest beet that ever came out of the ground around Plymouth.

It is a big red beet, that weighed a trifle over two pounds, and measured more than 17 inches in circumference. In anybody's garden—that "is some beet." It has been on display in one of the Plymouth Mail windows and has attracted much attention.

Mr. Lare also brought to the Plymouth Mail office two cans of pickles that he had put up out of vegetables grown in his garden. It is safe to say that if these had been displayed at the state fair, they would have been prize winners.

Thinks Rattlesnake Rattle Gift is a Bid to a Good Old Fight

Is the "feud" that has been raging between Frank Rambo, Plymouth peanut grower, and Harry Lush, California spice grower, getting "hotter" day by day and has additional fuel been poured onto the fire?

Frank Rambo says it is "hotter" and Mrs. Rambo declares that an olive branch has been extended to Mr. Rambo by the Pacific coast herb producer.

It all came about when Mr. Lush mailed to his old friend and specialty rival the rattles taken from a California rattlesnake. It seems that the rattlesnake wanted to be a bit friendly with one of the neighbors of the Lush family. It crawled up on the porch and instead of getting a pat on the back, it got a crack on its head that ended its supposedly friendly visit.

Putting the rattles in an envelop, Mr. Lush mailed them the other day to Mr. Rambo.

"Well now, what do you know about that?" said Mr. Rambo. "I guess that means trouble. I remember about hearing my great-grandfather telling about old Chief Tonquish, who thought he owned Plymouth and everything around here," said Mr. Rambo.

"One day my great grandfather found some massa sauga rattles tacked on his cabin door—and he said right away that that was the Indian sign for a fight. Now when a fellow nuffs some California rattlesnake rattles to you, what else can you think about except what my great grandfather told me when he found some rattles on his cabin door?"

Mrs. Rambo thinks it was only a friendly act—that Mr. Lush simply wanted to show Frank that they grow bigger rattlesnakes out in California than they can grow here in Michigan—but it is hard to make Frank forget his great grandfather's story.

Two Plymouth Girls Enter Stephens College

The opening of the 119th fall term at Stephens college for women at Columbia, Missouri on September 17 will find this progressive college geared to the times and prepared to provide specialized training to meet the needs of the existing national emergency. Dr. Homer Price Rainey, Stephens president, has announced that in addition to the regular curriculum, 32 courses have been planned to specifically train the 1,700 students for effective contribution to the national defense effort. The general education program at Stephens, designed to prepare the individual for effective living, will continue to train students for their future roles as cultured women, intelligent citizens, specialists in their chosen fields, and as homemakers.

Entering Stephens for her junior year is Miss Alice Elizabeth French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Edwin French, 11405 Berwick, and returning for her senior year is Miss Marilyn Jane Brooker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Oryliss L. Brooker, 9832 Cranston, Rosedale Gardens, both of Plymouth.

Superstitions Are Dying Out

Many old time superstitions and odd beliefs are dying away, but people are as superstitious as ever. They have just traded the old fears and misbeliefs for new ones.

This was the conclusion of Dr. Eugene Levitt of Columbia university, a psychologist, before a recent meeting of the American Psychological association in Chicago.

Superstitions which are becoming extinct, according to Dr. Levitt, who has done research on the subject, include such old faithfuls as:

1. Children are born with instinctive knowledge of good or evil.
2. Certain lines in a person's hand foretell his future.
3. Stare at a person's back, and you can make him turn around.
4. A square jaw is a sign of will power, and a high forehead means intelligence.
5. Women are inferior to men in intelligence, but they are purer and better by nature.
6. The person who doesn't look you in the eye is probably dishonest.
7. You can get a mental or physical disease by just thinking of it.

Dr. Levitt gave a list of these and other superstitions of 110 college students, he told his colleagues, and then compared their answers with the same questionnaire given to 219 college students in 1925.

"It is true that far smaller percentages still thought the statements were true than in 1925," he said. "The students in 1925 believed more than 10 pieces of a long list of false beliefs, while today's students believed in less than two pieces."

"But people are just as superstitious as ever." In fact, world tension and the atom bomb probably are causing a brand new crop of misbeliefs. People know the atom bomb is important to them, but their knowledge of it is limited, and they are likely to grasp hold of only stray facts.

"People become anxious and want to have something definite to believe in. They don't have the actual information, but they have a need to know something. People who grasp at such beliefs are also the kind who believe and spread rumors."

Among the false axioms of today, Dr. Levitt said, are:

1. All criminals are feeble-minded.
2. The American Indian sees better than the white man.
3. Complexity of life is causing more insanity.
4. Men judge by reason and women by feelings and intuition.
5. The color red excites a bull. Any waving article will annoy a bull, whatever its color.

"I sometimes suspect that I believe in some of the bromides myself," Dr. Levitt laughed.

Scrawled beneath a large likeness of a dollar bill chalked by a sidewalk artist: "Drawn From Memory."

On a furniture store: "Couches—Sinfully Luxurious."

V.F.W. News

Mrs. Geraldine Olson and Mrs. Virginia Bartlett served the draftees and their families coffee and doughnuts on September 6 at the Draft Board. This is part of our community service program and is done every time draftees leave Plymouth.

The V.F.W. welcomes any contributions to their building fund. Work on the new building will be moving faster as the delivery of lumber is expected very soon. If you have a contribution, please contact Dan Grubisch.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Olson visited the Simon Kinton Post 2734 at Maysville, Kentucky, during their recent vacation. They found it both interesting and informative.

Don't forget we are selling both Christmas cards and occasional cards. Gertrude Danol has the sample cards.

Everyone is invited to attend a talk by our city manager, Albert Glasford, on the new city charter, and movies taken by the Eltotts on their recent trip abroad. It will take place on Tuesday, September 25, at the Veterans' Memorial Center. Refreshments will be served. This is a discussion held for all our members and the public for which no charge will be made.

Roger Babson Says --

Babson Discusses Schools
 Gloucester, Mass., September 21. The other day I visited an old schoolhouse which I attended when a boy. It then had a big wood stove, two outhouses in the back yard (with various "inscriptions" thereon) and two grades in each room to teach us concentration, and it surely did.

Busses vs. Gymnasiums
 This old schoolhouse turned out workers and our parents then set us a good example by working hard themselves. We then walked to school, some of us two or more miles. Now this has changed, schoolhouses now have modern toilets, with tiled walls so that the boys cannot write sassy inscriptions thereon. They have expensive central heating and ventilating systems. Busses take the children to school, with gymnasiums to exercise them after they get to school.

The whole idea now is to eliminate hardships and make the children soft. Yet, don't blame the school principals. These luxuries are demanded by the parents. Whether, however, the primitive system by which I was educated or the luxury system which exists today produces better men and women is debatable.

Embosos and Blackboards
 In my day, the teachers used the bamboo on us when reasoning failed to get results. I had my share of lickings and MY parents never complained to the teachers because they spanked their "darling boy."

For some reason the bamboo was not used on the girls, but they had a blackboard treatment. For instance, if a girl was caught using unbecoming language, she was compelled to write on the blackboard a hundred times the following: "A soft answer turneth away wrath."

I remember being taught to read from the McGuffey Readers and having to learn such sayings as "Habit is a cable. We weave a strand of it each day until it becomes so strong we cannot break it," or "All that you do, do with your might"; or "Things that are half done are never done right."

We Want Lower Prices
 We want to reduce the cost of living, but the present price controls are the bunk. These laws are enacted to fool the voters and to make more jobs for Democrats. To reduce the cost of living, we must start with the schools and teach the children to love work instead of to love play. Turn to the yearbook which your high school seniors issue and you will see that 90 percent of it is given to the various extra-curricular activities. This long name, used to fool us parents, really refers to sports, clubs, and other things which teach children to spend money instead of to earn it. I have never found in one of these yearbooks the account of a spelling or mental arithmetic contest.

It may be that the merchants don't want lower prices, but want the children taught to be spenders. The merchants root for bands, baseball, football and other athletics. But again I say, don't blame the school principals. They are simply giving the parents what they demand. As long as parents are primarily interested in whom the high school employs as an athletic coach, we have only ourselves to blame.

We Want Religious Instruction
 I am glad to say that the Bible continues to be read in Gloucester every morning. But the School Committee no longer seeks teachers who regularly attend church or teach in Sunday School. A woman who smoked or went to cocktail parties would then never be hired as a teacher. This change for the worse is wholly due to parents who have substituted canasta for family prayers, and cocktail parties for mid-week church services.

We blame juvenile delinquency upon the schools. We criticize the schools when boys break windows and the students go on strikes; but again the parents are to blame. Parents seem to be interested in only one thing—not what their children learn—but to have their children get a diploma. Even Parent-Teacher Associations see more interested in the children's sports than in their studies. Of course, some day parents will see their present mistakes, and demand returning to fundamentals. This does not mean that we should return to outhouses, wood stoves and bamboos, but it does mean that we may return to the McGuffey Readers, the three R's, good discipline and creating among students the love to work and save.

NEVER-ENDING BATTLE

Faith in Honesty of Customers Helps Solve City Labor Shortage

There is one Plymouth business man who has solved the help shortage problem. His name is Phil Barney—and he has licked the situation by putting his trust in the customers who fill his little restaurant on Starkweather just north of the Pere Marquette depot from early morning until late at night. Phil has no cashiers. He is so busy and his waitresses are so busy that they do not have time to make change for their customers.

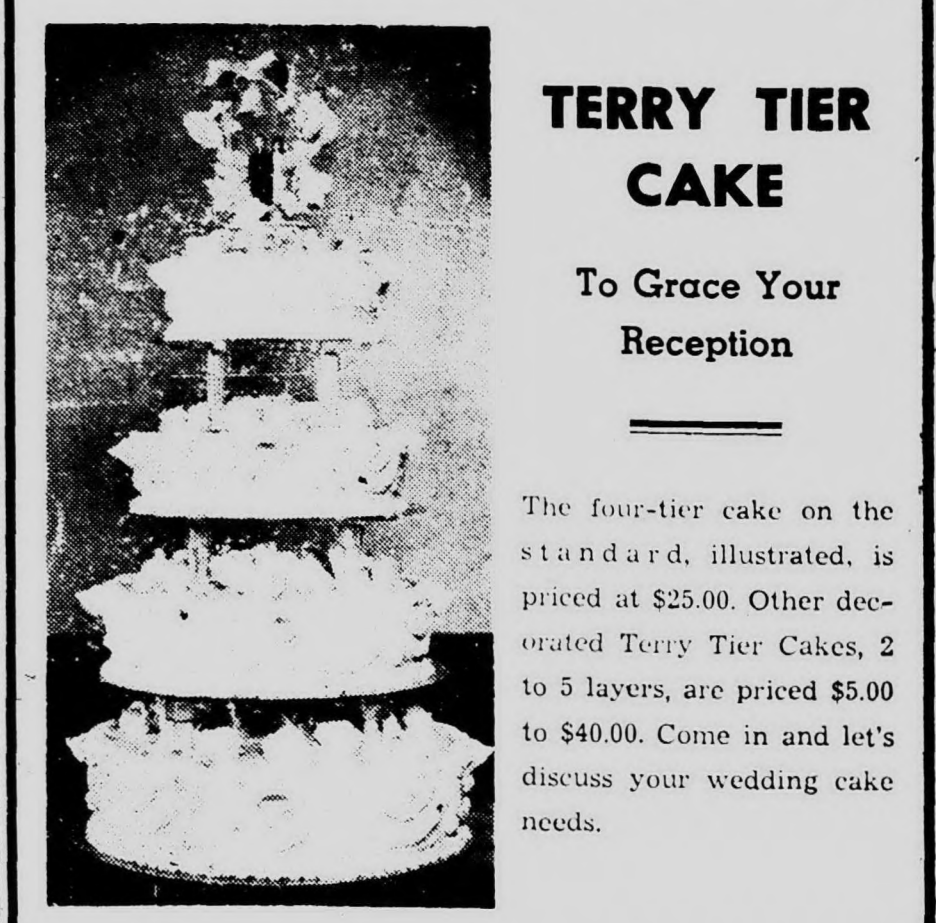

So what does he do? He puts the change out on the counter by the cash till—and customers make their own change.

"Have never lost a cent by doing it that way. Once in awhile a fellow can't make the correct change and calls for help, but since we have been leaving the money right out on the counter near the cash till and permitting people to make their own change, we have never had a single case of where some one tried to take back more money that he had coming," said Mr. Barney the other day when answering some questions about his new method of solving the help shortage problem.

"It's a funny thing, too. I've noticed that customers will go out of their way to make change
