What I Think and Have A Right to Say

By ELTON R. EATON

THE LESSONS THAT I LEARNED AT MOTHER'S KNEE

I've a tender recollection that I'll cherish all my life,
And age but makes it dearer, day by day.
'Tis the memory of a mother, whose smiles in days now gone,
Drove all my troubled childish thoughts away.

She was gentle, and so kind, I'll ever bear in mind
The many golden lessons she taught me.
I have wealth and earthly power, but I'd give all for one hour
That I spent upon my dear old mother's knee.

I remember in the evening, when the fire was burning bright,
She'd call me to her side and say to me:
"Be brave, my boy, and truthful and never be afraid
Of the lessons that you've learned at mother's knee."

How her loving voice would cheer me when at evening I'd return,
From working in the meadows all the day.
Each gentle word brought comfort—but that voice is silent now:
The mother that I loved has passed away.

In the quiet village churchyard she has slumbered many years,
And the only treasure life holds dear to me
Is the grave that oft in twilight I have watered with my tears,
And the lessons that I've learned at mother's knee.

AN OUTSTANDING PUBLIC SERVICE.

The Plymouth Mail has just concluded the publication of a series of articles written by Charles H. Bennett, who will soon celebrate his 90th birthday, that most interestingly told of the early life and struggles of this community during most of the past century.

Possessed of a remarkable memory, Mr. Bennett has recalled incidents of community life that took place 75 or more years ago as clearly as though they took place but yesterday. He was born here and has spent his entire lifetime in Plymouth.

History of any kind to many people is not generally of more than passing interest, but history interwoven with human interest, humor and good will provides a sparkling delight that can be obtained only from the most fascinating publications—and Mr. Bennett's articles had that intensely personal something that resulted in more interest in his early Plymouth history than anything else published in The Plymouth Mail in years.

He pictured Plymouth down through the years as the delightful community we know it to be. How fortunate it is that he has been able to prepare these articles and release them for publication just at a time when Plymouth is rapidly changing from one of Michigan's most desirable residential communities into a humming industrial center. He has made it possible for future generations to know the real Plymouth as it was during most of its first century of existence. As we see it, he has performed the most outstanding community service of all time. And The Plymouth Mail staff is not alone in this belief. Every lover of Plymouth thinks so, too. Thanks again, Mr. Bennett.

Veterans Plan For Memorial Day

Members of various Plymouth patriotic organizations will within the next few days announce plans for the general observance of Memorial Day in this city. As in previous years, all local veteran organizations and auxiliaries will join together in working out details for the Memorial day program, the observance this year taking place on Friday, May 30.

This city, a highly patriotic community, due to the fact that nearly every family in Plymouth has at some time had one or more members serving in the armed forces of this country, has never failed in its general observance of the day set aside by law for the purpose of honoring both the living and the dead men and women who have worn the uniforms of the nation's armed forces.

Local Balloon Sets New Record

Many people have witnessed an old tom cat perched on top of their fence howling with all stops open, but imagine the surprise that Cyrille Montpelier of Quebec received when she saw the cat-shaped balloon which Jim Cash of Dunn Court had released from Plymouth, wedged in their fence.

The old belief that a cat always returns home didn't prove true in this case, as Jim's cat strayed out of the country and remained at Cedars Co. Soulages Providence, Quebec. The balloon was released from the boy's back yard at 7 a.m. April 22 and word was received that the balloon was found at 1 p.m. April 25. So far as is known Jim now holds the record for local balloon releases.

Plymouth Going to Celebrate Fourth

Within a few days Secretary-Manager Nat Sibbold of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce will place before the directors of that organization for approval plans and arrangements for one of the biggest Fourth of July celebrations this city ever had.

While last year's celebration was an outstanding one, the Chamber of Commerce hopes to make the 1952 event so outstanding that it will bring thousands of people to the city where they can enjoy the fun as well as taking part in many of the events to be arranged.

Started in the beginning for the purpose of giving the large number of people in this vicinity something to do on the Fourth so that they would not be forced to travel long distances on overcrowded highways going somewhere to spend the Fourth, last year's event kept thousands of Plymouth residents at home over the Fourth who thoroughly appreciated what the Chamber of Commerce did.

Secretary Sibbold stated yesterday that it may be possible to announce next week the names of the various committees who will have charge of the big Fourth celebration. He is anxious to get an early start on the plans in order to do away with last minute rushes.

George Richwine Dies—Funeral to be Held Saturday

Ill over a period of many months, George W. Richwine, one of Plymouth's best known citizens and active in civic affairs during the greater part of his life, died shortly after 7 o'clock Wednesday morning.

He was 80 years old. His death removes from this area probably the most expert harness and saddle maker in Michigan. Of such high type was his work that horsemen from all parts of the middlewest would frequently come to Plymouth to have Mr. Richwine make a saddle or bridle.

He was born on June 11, 1872 in Cleveland, Ohio, the son of George W. and Elizabeth Richwine. The family later moved to Chicago, Illinois and later to Romulus, Michigan. George Richwine's father was a steel worker and specialized in spring making. He had a large family and purchased a farm south of Romulus where the family did the farming while the father worked in the spring factories at the various steel cities during the winter months.

The son, George Richwine purchased a harness business in Romulus in 1893. He was married April 24, 1895 to Edna E. Johnson of Romulus, and their first child, Alton J. Richwine, was born in Romulus on March 7, 1896. The family then moved to Flint where Mr. Richwine was a foreman in a harness factory which was later purchased by the Dort Buggy Company and later became part of the Dort Automobile Company. Mr. Richwine's first automobile, which was purchased in 1919, was a Dort model. The Richwine's second child, Edna E. Richwine, was born in Flint on May 7, 1900.

When the harness factory in Flint closed, the Richwines moved back to Detroit where Mr. Richwine again worked in the harness factory and it was one of his employers there that advised him of the harness business in Plymouth which was available. With the assistance of his employer, his father, and his younger brother he came to Plymouth in May, 1903 and purchased the harness business at the location which is now occupied by the Charles McConnell Barber Shop and Plymouth Taxi company.

The first of 53 model homes will be opened for public viewing Saturday, May 10, by the Plymouth Hills Development. All the homes are situated on tracts of land covering an acre or more. Homes are modern in every detail. The new home area is developed by Mr. and Mrs. Bev Smith and is located on the northwest section of Beck and Powell roads.

The homes will sell from $22,000 and upwards. The public is invited to the showing of the first home which is resplendent with furnishings from Blunk's Incorporated, draperies from the DeLux Drapery & Shade company from Ann Arbor and a model Youngstown kitchen and appliances from D. Galin & Son Appliances.

The first model home is located directly on the corner of Beck and Powell roads facing the Hill Top Golf course. The second model is west of the first, and is located on Amherst court just off Powell. Both will be opened for inspection, Saturday, May 10 through May 25, from 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Merriman and Company are handling the sales of homes and also have available other choice sites in the Plymouth Hills Development which are available for home building. The opening of the model home marks the first venture of this kind in this vicinity since previous to the last war and much interest is evidenced in the progress.

New Addition to Vinc's Service

"It's the first step in my plan to build the finest and most complete tire service store in the state." This comment was made by Vinc Sheline, owner of Vinc's Tire Service, as he announced the addition of an 18 ft. by 60 ft. building to his present site at 384 Starkweather.

Sheline stated that the new building would house additional tire recapping and service equipment as well as provide new office and storage space. Sheline expects the project to be ready for use in about six weeks. This marks the third addition to the original Vinc's Tire Service building which was opened seven years ago.

Three Inducted

Two Plymouth men and one from Northville will leave for the Army on Thursday, May 15. Those from Plymouth are William R. Nolan and Billy G. Guynn. Leaving from Northville is Ferris D. Mathias.

Roy Jacobus and son, of Warren spent the weekend fishing at their cabin on Turk lake.

NEW ADVERTISING DEADLINE

The new Monday night deadline of The Plymouth Mail for display advertising copy went into effect this week. With few exceptions it met with general success and in cases where accommodations could be made on Tuesday morning it was done for those who forgot their copy.

However in conjunction with other weekly publications throughout the state where publication day is on Wednesday no exception to the rule will be made in the future. All copy must be in by Monday at 5 p.m. to insure publication on Wednesday of that week. Daily newspapers have now set their deadlines four and five days in advance of publication and weeklies now find they must have at least one full day previous to publication in order to do justice to the composing of the ads for their advertisers.

Only in the most exceptional cases, where some unforeseen condition exists and plans are made in advance, will any advertising be accepted after Monday at five p.m. Your cooperation is appreciated in helping us solve this difficult situation. Classified ads will still be accepted until 5 p.m. on Tuesday. The Plymouth Mail is most appreciative of the excellent cooperation given by our advertisers, and we are sure that it will work out to the benefit of everyone.

Movies Feature Masonic Dinner

Through the efforts of Walter Gregory members of Plymouth Rock Lodge and their wives will have an opportunity to enjoy the famous color motion picture "Touring Glorious Michigan".

Through special arrangement with Dennis Glen Cooper, nationally known explorer and lecturer the pictures will be presented at a ladies night in the Masonic Temple on Wednesday, May 14. Dinner will be served at seven o'clock after which Mr. Cooper will show his pictures and tell of the many interesting sights there are to see in this state. Tickets can be secured from any officer of the lodge.

The gorgeous new Michigan color motion pictures represent a score of expeditions by boat, plane and motor car. They required several summers to make, and a travel cost in excess of $7,000. The films cover the coasts of Lakes Huron, Michigan and Superior, and many principal highways, parks and favorite tourist haunts. They show Michigan's famous lakes, forests, waterfalls, and world-famed recreational areas in the Upper and Lower peninsulas.

New City Budget Jumps by $60,000

Officials Plan for Many Improvements, Larger Library and Create Parking Fund

A 1952-53 third-of-a-million dollar budget for the City of Plymouth was approved by the City Commission last Monday night. The $333,034.35 total figure represents an increase of approximately $60,000 over that of this year. Much of this increase is due to salary and wage increases voted by the city recently, and additional costs of materials and supplies.

The budget, in most details, follows the projects outlined by the Ten-Year Planning Committee for the fiscal year 1952-53. This Ten-Year Plan was published in the Plymouth Mail last winter.

In the new budget there is established a Parking Fund, into which all revenues from parking meters will be deposited. Against this account will be charged the salary of one patrolman, half the salary of the comfort station attendant, leaving an estimate of $6,240 for capital outlay. The city commission also approved a proposal to transfer $14,575 to this fund from the surplus account of the General Fund, which represents the $16,000 previously earmarked for parking lot extension, less $1,625 transferred to the Library Fund for the rear end of the library property to be used as a parking area in the proposed east Central Parking lot plan.

The City Commission adopted the recommendations of the parking committee, composed of members of the City Commission, Chamber of Commerce, and the City Manager, relative to the donation of land at the rear of property at no cost to the city, and that the city would complete the improvements of lots for parking and establish parking meters.

It was pointed out that deviation from the plan would be (Continued on Page 6)

School-Community Planning Group Finish Year - Plan Special Election

The School-Community Planning Group met for the last time this year Monday night, May 5. This group, composed of the principal, a teacher and two parents from each school, along with the superintendent of schools and members of the Board of Education, have met regularly throughout the school year to discuss problems confronting the schools at the present time, as well as problems that will arise in the near future.

It was unanimously decided that the group should continue next year, and other phases of education such as curriculum revision be discussed. The first meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, October 1, 1952, at the Smith School. It was suggested that new members be chosen for the group next year.

The consensus of opinion was that the main job confronting the schools at the immediate time is the housing of the increased enrollment, remodeling of the high school, and providing adequate operational expenses to run the school efficiently.

As a result of the group's recommendations to the School Board, three proposals are being presented to the voters at a special school election Monday, May 26. Proposal number 1 asks for a two mill levy for the construction of a new elementary school, remodeling and re-equipping the high school, and acquiring additional land sites.

Proposal number 2 asks for a two mill levy, for five years, for the purpose of providing additional funds for operating expenses.

Proposal number 3, on which only property owners may vote, asks for the authority to borrow the needed money, and issue bonds, for the purposes stated in proposal number 1.

12 Horses Die in Fire

Eleven horses were burned to death in a fire that raged the large barn of the Circle D riding stables, just outside the city limits of Plymouth, Monday afternoon. Another horse had to be disposed of because of injuries received in the blaze. A number of horses however were led to safety outside the barn.

The direct cause of the conflagration is unknown, but an investigation is being carried on by the state fire marshal's office.

Fire departments from three sources, Plymouth township, Livonia and Northville converged on the scene, but the fire had gained such a headway, that the building was a total loss. Explosions from a gasoline tank on a tractor nearby handicapped the fire-fighters at the start.

The stables, owned by Arthur Blunk, and rented by Orville Dudley, were located at 14500 Haggerty road. Several people owned most of the animals, and boarded them at the riding stable.

The previous Thursday morning, a garage directly across the road from the horse barn, was leveled by an explosion at three o'clock in the morning. The three stall garage, owned by Oscar Puckett, caught fire from a gas saturated floor, when a motor scooter backfired as one of the young men in the family was trying to start it.

The fire was prevented from destroying the house by the Plymouth township and Livonia fire departments.

Jaycees Receive Charter, Pins

Plymouth chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will receive its charter at a dinner to be May 10 at the Mayflower hotel.

The charter will be presented by David Blakely of Detroit. Mr. Blakely is a National Director from Michigan and will represent the United States Chapter of Commerce.

J. G. Rucker, president of the group, will receive his pin from Bud Powell, National Director from Lansing. Mr. Rucker will then present the charter members with their pins.

Main speaker of the evening will be Albert Glassford, city manager. He will discuss long range plans of the city of Plymouth.

Master of ceremonies will be Charles Wolfe, past president of the Plymouth Jaycees and now associated with the Ford Motor company. Peter Baldwin of Howell, state vice president, will present the charter membership scroll to the club.

President of the Detroit Junior Chamber of Commerce, Richard Frey will make a presentation to the local group. It was the Detroit group which sponsored the rechartering of the Plymouth organization.

All local Jaycees, their wives, visiting officers from surrounding communities and state officers with their wives are expected to be present at the dinner. City officials will also attend.

Tank Plant to be in Operation Soon

The new Ford Tank plant being erected on Plymouth road extends to be in production by the end of this year. The Army Ordnance Corps has more than tripled its order for T-48 medium tanks, a secret model, according to the Ford Motor Company.

The first contract called for 180 million dollars, which included tooling cost for the Plymouth road plant. New orders have pushed this above the 300 million mark.

Nearly 50 percent of the 3000 tons of steel affected by the fire last February 29, has been salvaged. That setback will not affect the delivery of tanks as scheduled this year.

Dawn Huebler

Miss Dawn Huebler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huebler of Berry road, was appointed and installed as Grand Patriotism of the Grand Assembly of Michigan, Order of Rainbow for girls, at the annual convention held at Kalamazoo, April 24, 25, and 26.

She will serve with the line officers as follows: Sue Frazier of Royal Oak as Grand Worthy Advisor; Phyllis Van Orden of Adrian, Grand Worthy Associate Advisor; Barbara Bell of Jackson, Grand Charity; Betty Jean Love of Diamondale, Grand Hope; Mary Ann Klone of Highland Park, Grand Faith and 14 other Grand appointed officers.

Miss Huebler is the second grand officer in her family. Her brother, Richard is State Scribe in the order of the DeMolay.

Livonia Rotary's Annual Carnival

This weekend is going to be a busy one for residents of neighboring Livonia for it is their Annual Carnival time, the profits of which all go towards providing a Youth Center for the children of Livonia.

Many outstanding people have assured Committee Chairman, Jack Richards, that they will be on hand. A big parade will be held on Plymouth road from Wayne to Merriman, on Sunday at 2 p.m.

Many rides for young and old, old-time and modern dancing, over 100 booths and exhibits, band music, and many other attractions will be available to the thousands who attend this gala affair at the MRA race track, corner of Middlebelt and Schoolcraft roads, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

This carnival is sponsored each year by the Livonia Rotary club to provide funds for its current project—that of constructing a Youth Center for the city.

Mrs. Lillian Birchall has returned to University hospital, Ann Arbor for observation and further treatment.

Wednesday Was Important Day in Life of Supt. A. Blake Gillies

Yesterday, Wednesday, May 7, 1952, was an important day in the life of Superintendent A. Blake Gillies of the Detroit House of Correction. It was his 68th birthday and the day also marked the first day of the 33rd year he has served as a prison official. It was an important day in another way, too, because it was the first day of the last year that he will serve as superintendent of one of the best managed penal institutions in this country.

Already granted two extensions beyond the retirement age fixed for employees of the institution, Superintendent Gillies yesterday stated there will be no more extensions possible.

But his entry into the last year of his direction of the big prison with which he has been associated for nearly a third of a century, surely will be a most satisfying one to this highly efficient prison official. He will have the satisfaction of knowing that for more than two decades he has been regarded as one of the outstanding prison officials of the United States. Time and again the Detroit House of Correction has been rated as the best directed prison in the nation.

Mr. Gillies says that if he had his life to live over again, he would again select prison work as his vocation, "because it gives a person a wonderful opportunity to help people who need help."

He declares emphatically that Henry Ford did more to help restore prisoners to useful and beneficial citizenship than any other industrialist in Michigan or any other state.

"When I entered prison work," said Mr. Gillies, "there was no such thing as a welfare plan to aid prisoners after they left the institution. They were thrown out on their own, to shift as they pleased with not a cent in their pockets and no one to give them aid or direction. When Mr. Ford was asked if he would give a helping hand to men worthy of another chance to make good in life, he gladly consented to do so

There are now in Detroit and elsewhere in Michigan hundreds of excellent citizens who were given that opportunity so badly needed by men when they leave prison. Some of these men advanced to important executive positions not only in the Ford plant, but in other automobile plants where they were able to secure employment after leaving Ford employment. With the death of Henry Ford that doorway to better citizenship was closed and it hasn't always been easy since to place some men where the same opportunity existed," said Mr. Gillies in tribute to Michigan's greatest industrialist.

Warden Gillies has given no hint as to what his plans might be for the future—but there is one thing for sure, say his close friends, he will be seeking ways to restore his good health, which hasn't been of the best in recent months, although he insists on keeping his hand on the wheel that directs the best managed prison in the United States.

Luree Merillat Wins First Place

Luree Merillat, a student at Plymouth High school, was named district winner in the American Legion Auxiliary essay contest. The subject of the essay was "Know Your Michigan".

Miss Merillat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Merillat of North Main street, will now enter the department contest, competing with other Michigan district winners.

Her essay is the history of Michigan told in the first person with the state telling the history of itself.

Peggy Lee Bell

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Bell of 7337 Decosta avenue, Detroit announce the engagement of their daughter, Peggy Lee to Private Dallas Donald Hay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Hay, Sr., of Livonia. Elizabeth Ann Warblow Weds Herschel Hessler

At eleven o'clock on the evening of May 3 with candles and palms as a background, Elizabeth Ann Warblow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warblow of Wayne became the bride of Private H. Herschel Hessler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hessler of Warren road. The ceremony was held in the St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, Wayne. The late hour was decided upon when it was learned that Private Hessler would be unable to reach home from Ft. Knox before that hour.

The bride was lovely in a gown of colonial design and was of white organdy. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by an organdy headpiece and her bridal bouquet was a colonial nosegay of white rosebuds and lily of the valley.

Jean Johnson of Wayne was Elizabeth Ann's maid of honor. Her gown, also of colonial design, was of pale blue organdy with a headpiece of matching blue with pink flowers. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Richard Hessler was best man for his brother and seating the guests were William and Albert Warblow.

The bride's mother wore a navy crepe dress with pink accessories and her corsage was of pink carnations. Mrs. Hessler wore a two piece dress of navy and white silk with white accessories. A corsage of two-toned carnations was pinned to her shoulder.

Two hundred guests were present at the two receptions which were held, one immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents where the beautiful wedding cake and coffee were served and one later at the home of the bridegroom's parents where fruit cake and coffee were served.

Elizabeth Ann is a graduate of Wayne High school and Herschel attended Plymouth schools. He has been in the Armed Forces since November of 1951 and stationed at Ft. Knox, Kentucky. Following his school exams at Ft. Knox the young couple will leave on their honeymoon.

Doctor Feted at Celebration

Goodland, Kansas, recently feted Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Gulick, parents of Dr. Arthur Gulick of Plymouth, on their golden wedding anniversary. The doctor and his wife have lived in Goodland for more than half a century.

Three years ago, the city dedicated a large plot of ground as Gulick Park. One of the highlights of the ceremony was registration of persons the 83 year-old doctor delivered at birth. It was believed that he had officiated at the birth of a fourth of Goodland's residents.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Gulick of 543 Deer street attended this fete.

And there is ever so much more! Cooper, a master of platform technique, accompanies the picture throughout with an exciting, rapid-fire narrative which holds the audience spellbound, making the presentation as delightful to hear as it is to see.

Dennis Glen Cooper was born and educated in Detroit. In 1933 Wayne University granted him its first Master's degree in geography. During World War II he rose to the rank of major, was Chief Rescue Intelligence Officer of the Fifth Air Force. Important military assignments took him all the way from Australia and New Guinea to Tokyo. He won the coveted Bronze Star for meritorious service during the Philippines Campaign. He holds eight major campaign stars and two distinguished unit citations.

The Richwine family moved into the upstairs of the building which is now Ken and Orks and here Perry W. Richwine was born in 1905 and Walton Richwine was born in 1915. While in Plymouth, Mr. Richwine was elected and served as President of the Leatherworkers Association of Michigan.

He became city treasurer in 1920 and his treasurer's job was performed in his place of business on Penniman avenue. He continued as city treasurer until 1931, during which time he temporarily discontinued his harness business and took up full time work in the city hall.

In 1931 Mr. Richwine moved to the township of Plymouth where he became Justice of the Peace and again established his harness business. It was while in this location that Mr. Richwine began to specialize in the manufacturing of harnesses for trotting and pacing horses. The many tracks in the Plymouth vicinity kept him more than busy. He also assisted many horsemen interested in riding horses, especially Western type riding, and worked on many of the finest Western horse rigs in this part of the country, including the saddle and bridle presented by the late Henry Ford to Harry Bennett.

George W. Richwine continued as Justice of the Peace and a member of the Plymouth Township board until illness made it advisable for him to retire in July, 1951. In December, 1951 the George Richwines moved back to the city of Plymouth and since have resided in their residence at 869 South Main street.

In addition to his many other activities, Mr. Richwine was at one time secretary of Plymouth Rock Masonic lodge, as well as serving in other lodge official positions. He was treasurer and a member of the board of trustees of the Plymouth Methodist church for more than 30 years.

Mr. Richwine is survived by his widow, Edna E. Richwine, four children, Alton J. Richwine, of Monroe, Edna E. Wilson, Perry W. Richwine and Walton Richwine all of Plymouth. There are also 12 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren who survive. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock under the direction of the Schrader Funeral Home at the First Methodist church in Plymouth.

Glassford Tells of City Plans

City Manager Al Glassford explained to members of the Plymouth Kiwanis club Tuesday night the purpose and function of the city's new 10 Year Plan.

"The 10 Year Plan serves as a ready reference and answer to taxpayers' questions on when needed civic projects are to be undertaken. It also serves as a check on spending and allows us to distribute expenses equitably over a period of years," Glassford went on to say that the city has been able to hire more and better employees by increasing salaries and thereby hopes to shave expenses by employing systematic principles and closer supervision. He also discussed the problem of downtown parking and said that plans are underway to alleviate this situation. Glassford was introduced by Program Chairman Jim Houk.

It was announced that Mother's Day plants will be sold by the Kiwanis club Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They will be distributed from a truck situated on Forest avenue and also will be placed on sale in several downtown stores.

Attendance pins were awarded to Les Daniels and Marvin Terry, the former for eight years attendance and Terry for one year.

Mayor Appoints City Officials

Harry Deyo was appointed to succeed himself as city attorney by Mayor Russell Daane at the city commission meeting held Monday evening in the commission chambers.

Reappointed to the Board of Assessment and Review were H. R. Penhale who will serve until January 1953, Sidney Corbett who will serve until January 1954 and Warren L. Smith whose term will expire January 1955.

A change in the auditing committee procedure was announced by the mayor. Each commissioner will serve a four month term instead of two commissioners serving for the entire year.

Commissioners Frank Arlen and George Bauer will serve from now until August. They will be followed by Commissioners Henry Fisher and Floyd Tibbitts. Completing the year will be Commissioners Eleanor Hammond and Ernest Henry.

Also appointed was Fred Stopher as city assessor-engineer. Mr. Stopher was formerly employed by the city of Columbus, Ohio. He is a graduate of Ohio State University.

College to Take Part in Carnival

This year Madonna College will take an active part in the Rotary Club Carnival on the week-end of May 9, 10, 11. The Carnival will be held at the Detroit Race track, located at Middlebelt and Telegraph roads.

The art department, under the direction of Sister Mary Angeline, will display and sell various art pieces. Among the articles will be ceramics, paintings, handkerchiefs and fascinating glitter birds.

New City Budget Jumps by $60,000

tions from the plan may become necessary. For instance, the merchants, in order to maintain free parking in the Central lot, may offer to purchase the land, provide all the improvements and turn the lot over to the city for maintenance and policing. Such changes in plans may be necessary, since the business houses will be in competition with the new shopping center to be located at the intersection of Farmington and Plymouth roads offering free parking.

The new budget includes $12,000 for library construction, of which $8,000 is a carry-over of a portion of the cash surplus from operations during the current fiscal year. The Library Fund has a balance of approximately $16,000. The new budget will bring the total to $28,000 which is the recent estimate of cost submitted by the architect. Work will begin on the new library addition this summer, and bids will be let for such work as soon as possible.

The 1952 assessment roll was confirmed by the Board of Review at $13,551,770 which represents an increase of $1,404,220 over last year. Personal property increased in valuation by $740,260 and Real property by $663,960.

Breaking down the total budget, one finds $60,620 being asked for the General Fund, an increase of $3,000 over last year, and representing 18 per cent of the total budget. Public Works will require the biggest percentage of the total as $108,300 is requested, or 32 per cent of the total—an increase of $14,000 over that of last year. Another big item is Public Safety, where $87,740 is requested, an increase of $11,000 and representing 26 per cent of the total budget. Others are Building and Structure Fund $11,130, Health and Welfare $5,000, Recreation and Parks $22,820, Debt Retirement and Interest $4,800.41.

Non-tax revenues of $129,915 from the total budget leaves a total of $203,119.35 to be raised by taxation.

City Manager Albert Glassford says, "Because of the increased expenditures, it has been necessary to estimate more accurately the revenues. The margin of receipts over estimated receipts will be very much smaller during the fiscal year 1952-53 than for the current fiscal year, and every precaution must be taken against expending funds before they are actually in the city's possession. The state sales tax receipts are estimated to be $36,500, whereas for the current year the city estimated the receipts to be $33,000. Actual receipts for the current year are estimated to amount to $40,000. For the new budget, however, we have reduced the estimated receipts by 10 per cent upon the advice of the Municipal League, which reports that the State Tax Commission, estimates about a 10 per cent reduction in sales tax returns.

"Receipts from intangible taxes possibly will be reduced by one-third because the State legislature is debating a bill recapturing all intangible tax receipts over $800,000. The gas and weight tax receipts will increase from our estimated $16,500 during the current year to $31,000 provided the Supreme Court denies the petition of the CIO calling for an election to be held in connection with the collection of the recent increase in gasoline tax 1 1/2 cents per gallon. people must realize that these are immediate necessities. If the proposals are not approved, it will not be long before the elementary schools will be on half-day sessions. At the present time some classes have 40 children enrolled, which is way over the suggested number by leading educators. There seems to be some misinterpretation on some people's part, in that we have two new elementary schools. The buildings are new, but only one was gained as all the children who formerly attended the old Central elementary school, moved to the new building at Bird. At that time many children were attending emergency classes in the Baptist and Methodist churches, and this overflow, plus many new children, has filled the new Smith school to capacity. The old Central building now houses the Junior High school. The influx of population, and the expected increase in the next few years deem it advisable and necessary to construct a new building now. Even if the vote is favorable, it will take over a year to build and equip a new building, and by that time the present facilities will be taxed to over capacity.

The school tax in the Plymouth district of 13,889, is one of the lowest of 40 communities in Out-Wayne County. Wayne recently built a new three million dollar high school. Wayne has a tax of 24.559, Livonia has 22.68, Farmington 20.549, Redford Union 24.16, Allen Park 23.60, Wall-ed Lake 20.16 and Allen Park 23.60. Even with the 4 mill increase, Plymouth would still be well under the majority of schools in Wayne County.

The Publicity committee states that the important thing at this time is to register in order to vote. The registration deadline is Friday, May 16. Anyone must be registered in the city or township in which he resides to be eligible to vote. He must be 21 years of age, have resided in Michigan 6 months, and in the school district 30 days preceding the election.

It is hoped by the Committee that all eligible persons interested in good schools and the welfare of the children of Plymouth, if they are not registered, will do so by next week Friday, and will vote on May 26.

Plymouth Boy Honored at U of M

Lawrence Mack, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Mack of Penniman avenue, an honor graduate of Plymouth high school, was honored at the convocation held recently in Ann Arbor.

This is not the first honor which he has received since entering the College of Engineering at the University in the fall of 1950. Mack, who is attending school on a Regents' Alumni scholarship, was named to the freshman honor society for men, Phi Eta Sigma, and has been chosen a member of Chi Epsilon, a civil engineering honor society. At the annual dinner of this society, he received special mention as the sophomore with the highest average in his class.

tailed sharply in the event these taxes are not available. Our miscellaneous non-tax revenues will remain about the same, except that the revenue from parking meters as mentioned before, will be kept in a separate fund."

Services Held For Sidney Brown

Funeral services will be held Friday, May 9 at 2 p.m. from the Schrader Funeral home, Plymouth, for Sidney L. Brown who passed away early Tuesday morning, May 6 at Mount Carmel hospital, Detroit. Mr. Brown was 51 years old. He resided at 20515 San Juan Drive, Detroit. He was manager of the Commonwealth Loan Company in Highland Park Office No. 1 and a member of "SPEBSQA" and Detroit Board of Commerce.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Edith I. Brown; his son, Donald Alan, and his daughter, Nancy Jane; other relatives and many friends. His father, Oliver George Brown preceded him in death many years ago, and his mother, Mrs. Jane N. Brown passed away on May 14, 1950.

Reverend H. Holle of Epiphany Lutheran church of Detroit will officiate. Hymns will be rendered by Nester Sibbold, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Edna O'Conner. Interment will be in Riverside cemetery.

GOOD YEAR TIRES
BETTER FOR SAFETY
On slippery roads you get "stop-quick" traction from Goodyear's extra tread "grip" and better tread design. On all roads you get more tire safety from Goodyear's stronger, tougher bodies.

BETTER FOR COMFORT
On rough roads you get a smoother ride because Goodyear's stronger cords give to cushion car-jolting bumps and road shocks.

BETTER FOR MILEAGE
Long after less popular tires are discarded, Goodyears are still rolling safely. Their stronger bodies and tougher treads stand up longer to give many extra miles of safe motoring.

That God is not the creator of a sinful man is clearly shown in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, May 11, under the subject "Adam and Fallen Man". The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (15:22): "As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive." Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Gen. 1:31): "And God saw every thing that he had made, and behold, it was very good." Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Everything good or worthy, God made. Whatever is valuable or beautiful, He did not make,—hence its unreality." (p. 525)

Grange Gleanings

Those members who did not come to the meeting of last Thursday night missed a very fine talk given by Dr. Pino. We all enjoyed his visit so much. The birthday table was beautifully decorated and the committee worked hard to make the occasion a success. Next week Friday and Saturday comes the Rummage Sale at the Grange Hall. There are many good bargains waiting so be sure to come and see what there is. Monday is the date of the Lily Club supper at Ray Mettetal's. Those who plan to go are expected to meet at George Huebler's on Northville road at 6:30 and go together from there. Pot luck supper you know. And another important date on our Grange list is May 18, Sunday. The Grange is invited to the little country church on Angling road west of Salem. Service is at 3 p.m. So we are to gather at the Grange Hall and go all together from there. Be at the Hall at 2 o'clock. Charlie McConnell has been sick in bed for a few days. Better at this time. Mr. and Mrs. Finton returned to their home in Plymouth last week after their winter's sojourn in Winter Haven, Florida.

TEN COMMANDMENTS of Good Business

A CUSTOMER is the most important person in any business is not dependent on us—we are dependent on him. It is not an interruption of our work—he is the purpose of it. It does us a favor when he calls—we are not doing him a favor by serving him. It is a part of our business—not an outsider. It is not a cold statistic—he is a flesh and blood human being with feelings and emotions like our own. It is not someone to argue or match wits with. It is a person who brings us his wants—it is our job to fill those wants. It is deserving of the most courteous and attentive treatment we can give him. It is the life blood of this and every other business.

Official Proceedings of The Board of Education

The regular meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Township School District was held on April 14, 1952.

The meeting was called to order at 7:45 p.m. by President Gallimore.

Present: Mr. Gallimore, Mr. Hulsing and Mr. Smith. Mr. Laury arrived at 8:15 p.m., and Mrs. Willoughby at 8:30 p.m.

Absent: None.

Guests: Reverend-Hooker, from the Church of God, made a formal request for the use of the gymnasium for two special church services. The Board of Education took no action pending further study.

Mr. Simons, Mr. Eaton and Mr. Schietz of the Bartlett School District were present to ask the Board of Education to give favorable consideration to their request to have the Bartlett School District annexed to the Plymouth Township School District.

The minutes were approved for the regular meeting of March 10 and the special meetings of March 26 and April 1, 1952.

Tree Planting Very Essential

In 1921 President Harding issued the first proclamation that the last week in April would be American Forest Week, a week which is designated to develop interest in forestry conditions.

Originally the "voorst" or forest was the segregated property of the people. At the close of the eighth century it referred to all the royal woods in which the right to hunt was reserved by the king, but other rights such as the clearing of the land and the right to cut wood was free to all.

Today there are hundreds of national forests throughout the nation. Each forest is divided into ranger districts and each district has facilities for storage of equipment, supplies, lookouts and fireguards. Each district ranger is responsible for making the resources of his district render the greatest possible service to the country, state and nation. He supervises the planting of trees, is in charge of the forest fire prevention, constructs recreational sites and has charge of the wildlife.

Michigan has four national forests namely: the Huron, Ottawa, Manistee and the Hiawatha. Michigan citizens must help support public education in forestry in order to stamp out fire evil, control tree pests, and to enlarge the tree planting programs.

Approximately every four years enough newsprint is made for a strip as wide as a daily paper and long enough to reach to the sun and back. Five million trees are cut annually for telegraph and telephone poles; we use 500,000,000 fence posts every year. Railroads of the United States use about 130,000,000 new wood ties every year. There are about 3,000 to the mile.

"If the nation saves the trees, the trees will save the nation", states Charles Lathrop Pack. The American Tree Association was established to further the growth of forestry. Anyone can be a member of this association. The only requirement is to plant a tree and register it with the association at Washington. There are no dues.

There is only one point in the current economic situation concerning which all of the economists seem to agree: Money saved for a rainy day buys a much smaller umbrella than it used to. — Davenport Times

Another Sponsors Foster War Child

Patricia J. Helfrich, 38801 Ann Arbor trail, Plymouth, has "adopted" As-unta Di Natale, 8 year old Italian girl through Foster Parents' Plan for War Children, Inc. It was announced yesterday by Plan headquarters at 55 West 12nd Street, New York City, 18.

Now celebrating its Fifteenth Anniversary, Foster Parents' Plan, has cared for more than 70,000 European War Children. It is now operating in Belgium, England, France, Greece, Holland and Italy and is helping unfortunate and impoverished children of 14 different nationalities, without regard to race or creed.

Foster Parents' Plan for War Children does not do mass relief. Each child is treated as an individual. "Adoption" is financial, not legal. The Foster Parent merely promises to contribute $15 monthly towards the child's support, for at least a year. In return, the foster parent receives a photograph and brief history of the child and correspondence through the Plan office is encouraged, since the children need the feeling of being loved and belonging to someone, someplace. Though the war in Europe has been over for six years, it has never ceased for these children.

It makes each drop of gas say uncle

Then it's fired. And when that happens, a drop of gasoline certainly lets loose power.

This isn't something that happens in a "car of the future."

It happens in a Buick Fireball 8 Engine today. It's a high-compression engine. It's a valve-in-head engine. But it's also a Fireball in performance as well as name.

And it puts extra power under the hood—and extra miles in the fuel back in the gas tank.

Now, power is great, but what goes with it?

Mister, that's something you ought to find out—and soon.

What goes with it is an automobile as sweet-handling, eager and willing as anything that ever made your pulse leap to a faster beat.

It's a car that seems to know what you want it to do—true and sure in its course on a straightaway—beautifully balanced on curves.

It's a car with Dynaflo Drive* to feed power with infinite smoothness—and a road-hugging levelness of ride that took a million in cold cash to perfect.

And it is, with all this, a very tidy bargain. Why not price it, drive it, know it for yourself? We'll be glad to arrange a demonstration.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. Wheel Crests standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Library Bulging Top Sellers

Mrs. Murray, librarian, announces that more new books have arrived at the library recently. Top sellers, mysteries, novels, and autobiographies rank high with the new shipment.

"The Saracen Blade" by Frank Yearby is a story concerning twin boys. In spite of the fact that one lad was born into a common family, the other was the son of an Emperor, neither were related by blood. Both were born on the same day, same hour and in the same town, hence they were linked together by the stars.

The story takes place in the thirteenth century, at which time the world seemed so dark at times and then again so very bright.

The author has a keen sense of imagination and has the power to describe everything to his readers. He is also the author of "The Foxes of Harrow" and "A Woman Called Nancy."

Another top seller is "The Cruel Sea" by Nicholas Monsarrat. At the present time the library has only one copy but will be receiving two more copies soon from the publishing company. This novel is a story about one ocean, two ships and 150 men. Only one ocean was necessary, as a regular map can show the size of the sea but the map cannot depict the steepness of the Atlantic Ocean, nor can it reveal the treachery, nor its mild calms. Neither can the map show what man can do to the sea or what it can do with man. The sailors are the stars of the story; the heroines are the ships, one of which sunk in the murky waters, and the villain the cruel sea.

Residents of Michigan and also of the Netherlands will enjoy reading "Two Sofas In The Parlor" by David Cornel DeLong. In 1913 a family by the name of Kigel migrated from a village in Holland to Grand Rapids, Michigan, a town of furniture and flypaper factories. The family moved into a small settlement known as Zeeland. The father became employed as a carpenter, while the mother cared for her six children.

The readers have no idea what that family had to contend with: the first day at school in America, the observance of various holidays, peculiar food and strange clothing and customs. The family is as real as your family next door.

The author, David DeLong was born in Holland and at the age of 12 moved to America. He too lived in Grand Rapids in a Dutch community. He attended Calvin College and later taught high school history for a year. He wrote several poems and short stories which were accepted for publication. Later he won a fellowship at the Duke University.

His first novel was "Belly Fulla Straw" and one of the most recent, "The Desperate Children".

Other new books which are crowding the library shelves are: "The Smoking Mountain", Boyle; "The Stranger Beside Me", Seeley; "The Caine Mutiny", Wouk; "The Vatican and It's Role in World Affairs", Pichon; and "The People With the Dogs", Stead.

A series of books on health by Alvarez can also be obtained. Some of them are entitled: "How to Live With Your Allergy", "How to Live With Your Blood Pressure", "How to Live With Your Heart Condition", and "How to Live With Your Ulcer".

Rocks Drop Game Recreation 8-1 to Belleville

The baseball team at the high school dropped another league game last week Tuesday to Belleville. Weak hitting and poor fielding support contributed heavily to the 8 to 1 setback.

Rex Woolley started on the mound for the Rocks and did fairly well until he was shelled from the mound with a four-run inning in the last inning. Dave Finney came in to retire the side. Woolley allowed 8 runs and 7 hits in the 6 2/3 innings that he worked—many of the runs were unearned. Finney struck out the only batter he faced to end the game.

Plymouth scored their one run in the first inning when Dick Hobbler led off with a single to left, he was thrown out at second base on a fielder's choice by Ritter. Lanphear then scored Ritter with a ringer hit to center.

The Tigers evened the count in the third inning, and went ahead in the fifth, when they scored two runs. Another in the sixth, and four in the last produced eight runs.

For Plymouth, Hueber, Lanphear, Cavell, Straub and Woolley each had one hit.

Hunter, the Belleville left-fielder, led the Tigers attack with three hits, a home run, triple and double.

Smith pitched a steady game for Belleville and had excellent support.

Improved Tennis Team Splits Two

The improving high school tennis team split two meets last week winning from Belleville 2 matches to 2, and losing to a powerful Ypsilanti Roosevelt squad by the same score.

In the latter meet, Coach John McFall's lads lost all the singles matches and one of the doubles matches and one of the doubles. Plymouth was represented in singles play by Dale Behler, Hans Kruger, Ronald Wendland and Dick Root. Gary Kopen and Brian Kidston lost a doubles match, and the two local winners were John Wahn and Ronald Krump in the doubles, and Kurt Hoenecke and Elmer Whipple, also in the doubles.

In the Belleville victory, Plymouth won two singles matches and all three doubles. Behler won his match with ease, as did Hans Kruger, the German exchange student, Dick Root and Ronald Wendland lost their matches.

In doubles, Wahn and Krump won. Nalty and Hoenecke won, and Whipple and Kidston won on a forfeit.

This makes the season record stand at 2 won and 2 lost. They have been defeated once in league play, that one a hard-fought match to Trenton 4 and 3.

Bin Luncheon

That handy helper, ready-to-serve luncheon meat, scores again. This time grind the loaf and pile it on big buns. Broil until the meat is golden brown and serve with a thick cheese sauce.

Win One in Track Lose to Trenton

Coach Konrad Moisia's track team had two dual meets last week—winning the first from Belleville 59 to 60, and dropping a close one to Trenton, 57 to 52.

In both meets the Rocks were not at full strength, as Wagenschutz, who is always good for 7 or 8 points, was ill and out of school all week. Vettesse, a pointer in the shot put, also missed the Trenton meet. Then to top it off, Nyhus, an all-around athlete was injured after he had tossed the shot 42 feet. The big iron ball tossed by another boy warming up landed on Nyhus' foot, and forced him out of the remainder of the Trenton meet. However, his one put was good for a first in the shot put.

In the Belleville meet, Plymouth scored 6 first to Belleville's 7, but more balanced strength let the Rocks come through for the win. First place winners were: Kelly in the 100 and 220, Balogh in the mile, Ottensman in the pole vault, Becker in the 880, and the medley relay team. The best showing was made by Kelly, when he ran the 100 in 10.8, and the 220 in 23.9 seconds. Balogh duplicated his best performance in the mile in 4:47.

Gregg ran a fast 440 for Belleville in the good time of 55.2 seconds. Glenn tossed the shot 46 feet 2 1/2 inches.

The Rocks slammed the pole vault and the mile as they took 11 three places in each.

In the Trenton meet, Plymouth did by 2 points going into the last event, the broad jump, but were only able to garner a third by Bill Bush. Each team scored 4 points with a tie in the pole vault.

Winners for Plymouth were: Nyhus in the shot, Kelly in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, Balogh in the mile, Ottensman in the high jump and a tie in the pole vault, and the medley relay team. Best performances were by Nyhus in the shot with 42 feet, Kelly's 11 second 100 and 24 second 220, Balogh's 4:44.2 mile. The latter was a real thriller as Kelly's heels all the way and nearly nipped him at the tape.

There won't be another track meet until Saturday, May 17, when Plymouth enters the state regional meet in Ann Arbor. The preliminaries will start at 10 a.m., with the finals beginning at 1:30 p.m. The meet, held on Wines Field of Ann Arbor High school, will attract many stars from around the Ann Arbor area. The first three place winners in this meet are eligible to compete in the state meet at East Lansing Saturday, May 24.

Sports Glances

by "Professor" Edgar Brown

Spring sports are really under way in this city. Each week one can find practically any sport of his liking to attend, from horse-shoes to baseball. There are hundreds of sports enthusiasts in Plymouth who like to attend, and read about these sporting events. When two or three thousand persons attend a night football game, they don't go there just for the novelty, but because sports form a big part in the lives of a majority of people. It is a form of relaxation after a day's work, and proves very entertaining as well. The new gymnasium will allow two thousand to witness a basketball game, whereas, in the old gymnasium, around 400 could attend.

Plymouth is fortunate in that they have the wonderful Riverside Park within a few blocks of the city limits, as many take advantage of the horseshoe pits, shuffleboard and tennis courts, football and hardball diamonds, wings, slides and picnic tables, tables, etc. One should feel fortunate to be a member of such a community, which has such splendid recreational advantages, and is still near enough to Ann Arbor, Lansing and Detroit for the big sporting events such as hockey, big league baseball, football, boxing, etc. Some people are things for granted, and don't fully realize the important value of such things.

The new junior gun club formed recently for young boys in Plymouth is another step in the right direction to help our young folk use wisely their leisure time, and to combat juvenile delinquency. This club, sponsored jointly by the Plymouth Optimist club and the Daisy Manufacturing company, is to teach the kids the correct use of firearms, good marksmanship, conservation and sportsmanship.

The Optimist club has been doing many good things for the youth of Plymouth, and this young organization has even more ambitious plans for the future. Other service clubs are also contributing much toward the happiness and welfare of the young people; each know that an investment in youth is the same as an investment in future city welfare.

At last Plymouth has a ball team in the Inter-County league that is, more or less, sponsored by the community. Twelve sports-community minded businessmen of this city have each volunteered to contribute $75 to provide a ball club for Plymouth. It has become so expensive for one sponsor to field a club that it sort of looked for awhile that we had the players, but no sponsor. The cost today is over a thousand dollars to equip and field a club in this fast league. Hats off to these 12 local business men—their names appear in another article on this page.

Future Track Men Perform in Meet

The first meet for the high school freshmen track squad resulted in a shellacking by Southfield high. But Coach Keith Baughman felt his boys made a creditable showing since Southfield, a ten grade school, used ninth and tenth graders. The final point total was 74 to 21.

Bob Danol showed much promise as a future track star when he won the 440 yard dash in 61.7, was second in the high jump and tied with Moran for third in the broad jump.

His first was the only one recorded by the frosh, and his 7 1/2 points was high for the locals.

Jim Angevine did a good 220 yard dash in 24.8, but came in third.

Home Runs Spark Grade School Ball

The Inter-Grade School Softball League got off to a fast start, April 21, with some of the teams displaying great power at the plate. Ed Klinski, outfielder for the Catholic Tigers, hit two home runs and a triple as he led his team to a 12 to 4 victory over the Lutheran school. In the other league game Starkweather Jets beat the Bird school 5 to 2.

On Wednesday, April 23, Smith downed Catholic 6 to 3, and Starkweather walloped Lutheran 14 to 2. Friday, April 25, Smith won a close one from Bird 3 to 2. April 23, Starkweather beat Smith 2 to 1.

Softball Leagues Combine for 1952

Former Champion Golf Instructor

A former Michigan Women's golf champion, Sally Sessions of Detroit, begins her golf instructional classes today at the Plymouth Country Club.

Miss Sessions was state champion in 1947, was runner-up to Betty Jamieson for the national title in 1947, and also that year won the Mexican national title. In 1945-46 she held the Western Michigan title. Miss Sessions is the holder of 17 course records for women throughout the country. She has had professional teaching at the YMCA, and at the Red Run golf club in Detroit.

Miss Sessions is now working on a masters degree in music at the Detroit Conservatory of Music.

These classes for women, men, and mixed will continue for the next eight weeks. Beginners are welcome, and many good golfers will receive many worthwhile tips to help improve their game.

Anyone desiring information, or wanting to join any of these classes should contact the recreation office in the city hall—phone 2075.

Detroiters Fill Plymouth Area of The Parkway

If Plymouth residents who gave to the Wayne county road commission all of the land comprising the Plymouth-Riverside park, which is one of the largest and best developed areas of the entire county parkway system, have any idea that they can use any portion of that area during weekends or on Sunday, they had better give up any such thought at once.

Last Sunday, like the previous Sunday, saw the entire parkway in this area flooded to overflowing with all types and kinds of people from the great city of Detroit. Local residents who over a period of years have observed gradual use of their former park being taken over by Detroiters, have been amazed at the numbers who come from all sections of Detroit to use that portion of the parkway once regarded as Plymouth's own.

Park attendants say that if you register for a picnic or some other type of gathering in time, you can generally get the spot you desire in the park, but even previous registration does not always protect the individuality of your gathering.

Detroit crowds come early and stay late. At one time late Saturday afternoon there were not dozens, but hundreds of fish-pole, bait and bobber fishermen lining the banks of the Rouge river that flows down through the park and along the banks of Wilcox pond as well as Phoenix lake.

Not in years have such large crowds come so early in the season. Park workers had barely finished placing the newly painted picnic tables, installing some new playground equipment and repairing the stoves when the crowds began to arrive.

Newer sections of the park below Newburg and near Nankin Mills have not been taken over so completely by Detroiters as has been the Plymouth-Riverside section of the parkway, although the newer sections of the park are nearer Detroit than is the Plymouth-Riverside section by several miles.

Plymouth residents who desire to use the recreational facilities of the parkway better do the same as they did last year, use the park during the early days of the week, but not much after Thursdays unless they want some of those who come from Detroit to march up to your table or stove and place their picnic dinners on the same table with yours.

Millis Says Ask for Edison Help When Working Near Power Lines

The Detroit Edison Company stands ready to help take the danger out of well-repairs where overhead electric lines are a hazard in the raising or lowering of drop-pipes and casings.

Arrangements may be made with the company for protecting well-drilling equipment against contact with electrical conductors.

Edward L. Millis, Edison's district manager for the Plymouth area, explains that well-work near electric lines is particularly dangerous because the men handling the equipment usually have a perfect "ground".

"People tend to forget that unwieldy pipes are likely to topple against overhead wires," Millis notes. "Lives can be saved each year if the electrical hazard is eliminated from well-repair work."

Detroit Edison's offer applies to all its customers, and the company will take care of the hazard whether the wires are on the customer's own property or are on a public right-of-way.

All Detroit Edison farm service advisors are being asked to carry this information throughout rural areas, with the request that persons needing the service call the nearest Edison office.

Stanley Allen Returns Home From Japan

Captain Stanley Allen returned to Plymouth last Monday after serving for 45 months in Japan. Captain Allen will spend a 30 day leave in Plymouth before going to Fort Custer where he will be stationed.

Before the Korean hostilities began, Captain Allen served with G-2 intelligence in Korea and Japan and then with the ordinance rebuilding trucks and Jeeps. Until censorship was removed in the fall of 1949 he was in charge of newspaper and printing plant censorship for all of Japan south of Hiroshima.

Captain Allen was production superintendent of the rebuilding of trucks and jeeps in Tokyo. Since the beginning of the Korean fighting, this group has saved the United States Government 5 million dollars, by rebuilding items which otherwise would have been scrapped.

In his capacity as superintendent, the captain escorted many prominent men such as General Ridgeway and Governor Warren through his plant.

While in Tokyo, he received his degree in engineering from Sophia University.

Captain Allen's family was with him for three years of the time he was stationed in Japan. His oldest daughter was married in Japan recently.

"It certainly is good to be back in Plymouth," he stated, "My relatives all met me at the plane, it was good to see them all again."

Captain Allen is spending his leave with his brother, Walter Allen of 651 Arthur street.

Lawn Fertilizer Sales Take Big Jump This Spring

Plymouth home owners give every sign of being determined to have the best looking lawns this city has ever seen—if the sale of fertilizers by business houses that sell garden and farm supplies is any indication.

Walk into any store where one can purchase seeds, garden supplies and other lawn essentials and dealers will say that never before have they sold so much lawn fertilizer as they have to Plymouth residents this year.

Fertilizer sales are not represented by pounds this year, but by the tons. It is estimated that more than 1,110 tons of fertilizers have so far been sold this year to residents in and around Plymouth.

From all appearances, the merchants state that the people are also becoming more "lawn conscious" as they have already sold more than six ton of grass seed. This is a much greater amount than that which was sold last year.

Reasons for the increase in these two items are: New homes, buildings and industrial plants are springing up in and around Plymouth and one of the first essentials after the building is erected is to landscape. Another contributing factor is the weather which has been prevailing the past couple of weeks. People get the urge to go out of doors and one way of fulfilling this desire is to work in the garden or on the lawn, say dealers.

One merchant states that he thought one reason for the enormous increase in sales was due to excellent information available from Michigan educational institutions as well as better promotional advertising.

In Tulsa, after agreeing that Clifford Taylor was merely gunning his car and trying to get off an ice spot on which his wheels were spinning, police changed the charge against him from drunken driving to drunkenness.

12 Books Added to School Library

Several new books have been added to the Junior and Senior high school libraries recently which greatly improve the libraries and add to the reading pleasure of the pupils.

These are the stories of a great baseball player, movie making, Indians, an autobiography of a cowboy, the story of a boy and his fawn, and the story of MacArthur on Bataan, respectively.

Five of the books added to the Senior high are "Time to Remember" by Lloyd C. Douglas, "Escape to Adventure" by Fitzroy Maclean, "The Red Pony" by John Steinbeck, "The Bounty Trilogy" by Charles Nordhoff and James Norman Hall, and "The Keys of the Kingdom" by A. J. Cronin.

"Cooks" Day Off-Here's Mother's Day Menu for Family to Prepare

Give Mother a real vacation from the kitchen. Mother's Day is the one day of the year when the youngsters can relieve her of her duties and invite her to a dinner they've prepared all on their own.

Since the family may have little cooking experience, the menu should be on the simple side. And here's just such a main course centered around big baked potatoes temptingly stuffed with creamed chipped beef. Preparation is easy following the recipe below. With the chipped beef stuffed potatoes you might have hot baked green beans or peas. If a king should be delegated to some member of the family, why not have stuffed green peppers? Cut peppers in half, then cut them from each half, hollow out and fill with cottage cheese. Try each serving with a green bean salad. Complete your menu with hot rolls and the simplest of desserts, ice cream sundaes. For an extra nice touch you might have an appetizer in the living room preceding dinner, maybe chilled tomato or pineapple juice with assorted crackers. In the meantime, one member of the family may be placing the chipped beef potatoes and accompaniments on the table.

Creamed Chipped Beef in Baked Potatoes
8 ounces chipped beef
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
1/4 teaspoon paprika
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
5 baked potatoes

Separate chipped beef into pieces. Cook in melted fat until slightly crisp. Remove 5 small pieces to be placed on top of each serving of creamed beef. Blend flour with drippings and remaining chipped beef; add milk gradually, stirring constantly. Cook until thickened; add paprika and chopped parsley. Serve in baked potatoes, punched to make an opening in the top. 5 servings.

Liverwurst Spread
Add this liverwurst spread to your sandwich list. Mash liverwurst and combine with softened butter or margarine, finely chopped celery and green olives. Moisten with mayonnaise.

Explore Chop Field Thoroughly Before Buying Dinner Meat

If you're a homemaker who also works away from home, then you're probably said "thanks" to pork, veal and lamb chops more than once. They're a ready friend when meal preparation must fit into a tight schedule.

But perhaps you have not explored the chop field thoroughly. For instance, have you served all types of pork chops? Center cut loins chops are the most popular. However, you'll find that same fine pork flavor when you purchase less demanded rib chops and shoulder chops—arm and blade—which are actually steaks. Frequently, you'll find these priced several cents per pound under center cut loin chops. All types are prepared by the same cooking method, braising.

Veal chops are also loin, rib and shoulder chops. Another choice which you'll sometimes find in your market is the kidney chop. This comes from the loin and is cut to contain a cross section of kidney. Veal chops are prepared by braising, too.

As for lamb chops, the choice is loin or rib, economical shoulder chops and frequently, Saratoga chops. The latter come from the lamb shoulder. The shoulder is boned and rolled, then skewered and cut to form pinwheel type chops. Lamb chops are usually broiled, however, they may be braised to vary their serving.

Just For You, Mom

Here's a meal the family can easily prepare for Mother—big baked potatoes boasting a stuffing of creamed chipped beef with more curls of the chipped beef arranged over the top. Colorful salads are prepared of cottage cheese filled peppers, garnished with green pepper rings.

BRIGHT NEW SPRING TREAT!

Marguerite Michelsen

If the days are turning summery out in your neighborhood, you'll be in the mood to discover a cool, luscious salad like this gay show-off—"Peach Angel Salad", topped with a halo of golden cling peaches.

PEACH ANGEL SALAD

- 1 No. 2 1/2 can cling peach slices
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 3/4 cup syrup from peaches
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 envelope (1 tablespoon) plain gelatin
- 1 teaspoon prepared horseradish
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/2 cup chilled evaporated milk
- 2 (3 oz.) packages cream cheese
- 1/2 cup finely chopped celery

Drain peaches; heat syrup to boiling. Soften gelatin in lemon juice and dissolve in hot syrup. Cool. Mash cheese with fork; blend in mayonnaise and seasonings. Blend in gelatin.

Whip chilled evaporated milk in chilled bowl. Fold in gelatin. Fold in celery and peach slices, withholding 7 or 8 slices for garnish. Turn into 8 inch ring mold and chill until firm. Unmold on greens. Decorate with peaches and berries or cherries. Serve with additional mayonnaise if desired. Serves 8 to 10.

To serve 4 or 5, use half amounts of each ingredient and chill salad in individual molds.

They're Stuffed

Let corned beef hash from your pantry shelf be the stuffing for green peppers. Slice off the stem ends of the peppers, hollow, then parboil for about 8 minutes. Stuff with the canned meat, combined with chopped onion and tomato puree. Place the stuffed peppers in a baking dish with 1 inch of water and bake for 20 to 30 minutes in a 350 F. oven.

Shop the easy way. Read our advertisements first, then you will know where to buy, at the price you want to pay.

Rhubarb Adds Zest to Meals

Homegrown rhubarb will soon be available. It is a sure sign of spring that can add tart-sweet flavors to meals that may have been lacking in taste and color appeal.

Rhubarb is one fruit to which sugar is added before it is cooked if it is to remain in whole pieces. Water should be added in small quantities as the rhubarb has a naturally high water content.

In preparing rhubarb sauce, remember that the fruit should be cooked as short a time as possible to retain the most of the fresh fruit flavor—the more aroma in the air, the less flavorful the cooked sauce.

Rhubarb lends itself to baking. The prepared fruit should be placed in a baking dish which can be tightly covered. Sugar and a very small portion of water are needed. Bake the fruit in a 350 degree oven. One part dates to three parts rhubarb make a rich baked fruit combination.

Another combination is lemon or orange or both added to rhubarb. Use either the juice or grated rind of the lemon or orange.

Rhubarb punch is colorful and tasty for springtime entertaining. Use pink rhubarb to get the best color. In cooking the fruit for punch, the sugar should not be added before cooking. Rhubarb marmalade is another variation for this fruit. The tart-sweet flavor is enhanced by addition of a small portion of orange or lemon.

Broiled Kidney, a Thrifty Meal

Many outstanding chefs boast of dishes prepared with kidney. There's the famous steak and kidney stew and pie and creative kidney to name a few. And one more dish which you'll find a thrifty and satisfying choice is broiled kidneys.

Either veal or lamb kidney may be prepared by broiling. Beef kidney is less tender and should be cooked by moist heat—either by cooking in liquid or by braising.

To broil kidneys the surrounding fat may or may not be removed. Veal is temptingly broiled without removing the fat and by cutting the kidney into slices about 1/2 inch thick. It not covered with fat, as is often the case of lamb kidneys, wash them thoroughly and remove the membrane. Split lamb kidneys through the center, brush with melted butter or margarine and broil about five minutes on each side. If desired, wrap kidney with bacon before broiling.

81 Seniors Leave for New York City

New York is the trip destination of 81 seniors who left Detroit from the New York Central Depot on May 7, at 5 p.m.

Arriving in New York at 7 a.m., the students will go at 7:30 a.m. on a three hour sight-seeing trip which will get them acquainted with the big city. The main points of interest will be Manhattan, Chinatown, the Bowery, the site of the UN, several Cathedrals and Broadway. After dinner the Radio Music Hall with its Rockettes show, which is famous the world over for its precision, will be on the program.

The next day a sight-seeing yacht will take the group around Manhattan. The statue of Liberty, the financial district, Staten Island, and Brooklyn will be pointed out to the students. The National Broadcasting Company will be toured next and the rest of the afternoon will be free for visiting famous places like one of the skyscrapers or department stores. At 7 p.m. the train will leave Grand Central Station for Detroit.

The senior trip will be supervised and chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Alesandio Callegari, Walter Goodwin and Miss Freda Olsen.

Speech Classes Hold Debates

"Resolved; That the U.S. should rearm Western Germany", was the debate problem of Carl Kranish's second hour speech class, Wednesday, April 30 in the Junior High Gymnasium. Marilyn Barnes and Barbara Campbell of the affirmative team were victorious over the negative team, Grace Aldrich and Joyce Houghton. Attending the debate were Mrs. Joan Hayskar's and John McFall's second hour history classes.

Foster Brown and Charles Osebold on the affirmative team defeated Gerold Schmidt and Gerold Trahan of the Negative team on the question "Resolved: That Hawaii should be admitted to the Union as the forty-ninth state." Mrs. Hayskar's sixth hour history class attended the debate.

The debates were arranged by Mr. Kranish to publicize debating for the incoming freshmen.

Rotarians Told How Miniature Circus Grew Out of Just a Hobby

Plymouth Rotarians recently had the opportunity to see and hear a well known American citizen, Ernie Palmquist of New York, who turned a hobby into a thriving business as well as providing the public with an intensely interesting novelty to witness. The many thousands of residents in and around Plymouth who visited the Blunk Furniture store during the past few days to see "Ernie's Circus" will attest to this statement.

For years Mr. Palmquist was a well known American band leader. Like many other people, he had a hobby, and his hobby was that of making miniature circus figures.

Finally he had thousands of animals, performers, clowns, circus wagons and other circus esentials in his collection that he had carefully whittled out to scale. He erected his circus tent, put his parade on a small electric track, and his friends became so elated over the miniature circus that they urged him to place it on public exhibit. He did, and now it has become a hobby exhibit that mercantile houses all over the country seek to have displayed in the communities where they exist.

James Taylor of the Blunk store introduced the interesting speaker to the Rotarians and what the speaker had to say to the club was as interesting as is his miniature circus. His hobby has taken the place of his band leadership in all of his activities said Mr. Palmquist—and others who have developed a hobby have had the same experience as he has had he said.

President David Mather expressed to Mr. Palmquist the club members appreciation of his visit to the organization.

Classes Held For Local Firemen

A fire school conducted for the volunteer firemen of Plymouth, Canton township, Salem township, the Dacey Manufacturing company and Whitman and Barnes ended yesterday evening. The school sponsored by the University of Michigan Extension service, and the Office of Vocational Education, Lansing, was conducted by Wallace F. Gannon. The class met in the Plymouth fire hall from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. for seven evenings.

The importance of the first five minutes of a fire, and how fires can be either lost or won during this crucial period was the first topic discussed by the class. "A fire can be won by correct thinking, or lost by excitement and poor thinking during these important five minutes," stated Mr. Gannon.

Mr. Gannon was a member of the Muskegon Fire Department for 28 years, for the last five of these he was one of the chiefs. He has been affiliated with the extension service and vocational office for the past five and a half years. During this time he has visited 200 departments and instructed 4,000 men.

The second evening, the firemen discussed the strategy of attack. Mr. Gannon stressed the importance of fighting a fire from the inside. "More fires are won by fighting them from the inside than from the outside," he said.

Ventilation, the subject of another evening's study, has a direct bearing of the strategy of attack. The firemen were taught the best ways to open a building and let out heat, smoke and gas so they might enter and fight from the inside.

Fundamentals of fire fighting and control were also discussed. Mr. Gannon demonstrated many short cuts to effective fire fighting it would take an untrained fireman many years to learn.

Fire prevention and control in industry were discussed during the week. Mr. Gannon said that he usually did not spend an entire evening on this subject, but because of the number of men from Daisy and Whitman and Barnes, he did.

The firemen conducted a rescue practice using ropes and ladders, saw an oil pit fire demonstration and discussed the principles of fog fire fighting.

"The course is given free," remarked Mr. Gannon, "because the sponsoring agencies feel that the persons who benefit from it are the residents of the community."

Local Lad Goes to Washington

Joseph V. Bailey, 650 Herald, age 13, safety patrol leader at Our Lady of Good Counsel school, will represent Plymouth in Washington, D.C. with 101 outstanding Michigan young men Thursday, May 8. The boys will be Automobile Club of Michigan's guests on a four-day all-expense trip to the 16th annual AAA National Safety Patrol Rally.

Bailey was chosen by local school authorities and Club safety men after his school was cited for its superior 1951-52 safety patrol.

Highlights of this year's trip will include participation by Bailey in a mile-long parade down Constitution Avenue with 25,000 patrolmen from all over the nation. They'll be led by schoolboys' television heroes "Captain Video" and the "Video Ranger".

All expenses of the 100 Michigan boys will be borne by Auto Club as a tribute to the motorist public for the 200 hours per year which each of 43,000 Michigan safety patrol boys and girls spend guarding school corners.

Winning safety patrol leaders will gather in Detroit Thursday afternoon for registration and physical checkup. With adult supervisors and registered nurses, they'll board special cars on the Baltimore and Ohio Ambassador at 5:45 p.m. for the overnight trip to Washington. A magician will entertain them after dinner until bedtime.

The Plymouth Merchants' ball team opened their season last Sunday, before a large crowd, with a victory over the Royal Oak team. Roger Babson Says---

Babson Discusses Picking Young Executives

Babson Park, Mass., May 8. It is open season now for the young executive hunt! Hundreds of company recruitment officers are in the chase, hopeful that they may bag "promising" college seniors for their companies. Two grave mistakes will make the hunt costly in the long run: (1) colleges will give the men with the highest grades the best recommendations; and (2) companies will fail to interview some of the best executive potentials because the men are "grade outcasts."

The Myth of Good Grades
For years now many educators have promoted the notion that the same qualities which bring a man high grades in school also make for success on the job. Nothing could be further from the truth. One hundred and fifty years ago when the purpose of our colleges was primarily to educate for the learned professions, there may have been some direct relationship between grades and job success. But college is a vastly different institution today from what it was then. Several research studies indicate that good grades have little or no bearing on a man's job success in business.

I am assuming, of course, that job success is measured by dollars and cents. I know that some teachers will challenge the monetary yardstick. If the financial measure, why is it that so many teachers have left the profession for jobs in industry? Or why do hoards of high school teachers slave to earn their Masters' Degrees? Certainly, with inflation today, college students and their parents place an ever-increasing emphasis on the monetary value of a college education.

Grades and Job Success
For years now I have been an employer, and since 1919 and the founding of Babson Institute I have been seriously interested in education. My observation is that in the average college the ability to sit, read, comprehend, memorize and reply parrot-fashion to the professor will insure good grades.

Do these particular abilities pay off in business? Not especially, except in the professions. Of course, if the college, in addition to developing scholastically competent individuals, has done something about character and personality development, then we have a different situation. But too many colleges give only lip-service to character education.

What Business Needs
I hope company recruitment officers won't let the schools and colleges over-emphasize the grade aspect of a job recommendation. What business needs most today are men with the character qualities of wisdom and honesty, a personal philosophy of self-reliance and the ability to act and get things done.

Employment experience has shown that some of these qualities are best developed outside the classroom—editing the school paper, managing a team, representing the student body in student government, being social chairman of a fraternity. The extra-curricular record also measures best drive and follow-through. Wisdom should have been developed in the classroom. The scholar is often wise but has poor judgment. The scholar sees people acting as he believes they ought to act. The successful businessman, however, sees people as they really are.

Importance of "Drive"
Practical application of good judgment can be measured in a man's personal conduct record, work record, campus participation, and in a variety of ways. A high degree of self-reliance and competitiveness as measured by hobbies, part-time jobs, and the kinds of extra-curricular activities in which one has participated are character traits absolutely essential to success in any free enterprise economy.

I want to know what kind of an economic philosophy the young graduate has picked up in college. The successful young executive must learn to drive himself and deprive himself—perhaps even his family—because he sees in the long run that it is for the good of all. The high turnover of young executives on their first jobs suggests that both college and company recruitment officers ought to pay more attention to some of the practical requirements for success in the professions, manufacturing, commerce, and even in farming.

Many men have thought they had a girl on the string only to find out too late they have hold of the end with the hook. —Gosport.

Will Supply More Natural Gas

The Michigan Public Service Commission and the Petroleum Administration for Defense have granted Consumers Power Company permission to supply natural gas to 15,000 new space heating customers in Michigan during this year.

Letters informing eligible applicants were mailed on Monday. The share of this allocation for the Western Wayne district which includes Plymouth is 755 permits. Those applications included in the drawing of October 10 and not released will have first choice now. Applications received after October 10 will be approved in chronological order.

Training School is Model Institution

Mrs. Sarah Smilansky a teacher of mentally retarded children in Tel Aviv for five years, recently came to America to study the various methods of education used in our special schools. She was awarded a scholarship from the National Council of Jewish Women, which enabled her to study at the Ohio university.

To further her education and interest in the mentally retarded children, she spent considerable time at the Wayne County Training School at Northville. While there she observed the administration and curriculum construction of the school. She studied not only the organization of special education there but also education in Detroit.

Mrs. Smilansky is a native of Poland, and migrated to Palestine in 1935. When interviewed for "The Jewish News", she remarked that on her visit to the training school, the program of training promised to the retarded child a future in the community. The training also enabled the child to become responsible and to know that he was needed. By careful planning and training, such desirable character traits could be established, such as, patience, regularity and perseverance.

Mrs. Smilansky praised the work of Dr. Robert H. Haskell, medical director and stated, "I believe that this model institution will be one of the experiments in the United States that I can present before my fellow educators in Israel as a solution to our similar problems".

Fire Destroys Garage-Barn

Fire destroyed a garage-barn on the Oscar Puckett farm, early Thursday morning. The Plymouth Township Fire department answered the call at 3:05 a.m. and left the premises at 4:45.

The Northville department sent their tanker to provide extra water. There was a strong wind blowing toward the house on the property, but the firemen succeeded in keeping this from burning. Some of the paint, however, did blister.

Plymouth Truck Growers Say 1952 May be Best Year Ever

There are no eight hour days of five day-weeks for the hundreds of vegetable and plant growers in and around Plymouth at the present time.

This is the busiest season of the entire year for the Plymouth truck growers— except the harvest period— and if you have any desire to find a vegetable grower these days, don't look for him around the house. Go out into his hot-house or in the fields where you will find him tending his plants or setting them out.

Believe it or not, there are many thousands of cabbage plants already set out in the fields around Plymouth. Clyde Smith of Newburg road, as usual, seems to have been about the first one to have his cabbage plants set out. Some plants have been in his fields for more than three weeks.

Pepper plants as well as onion sets are also being planted by the thousands.

Some growers estimate that the 1952 yield of vegetables in the Plymouth area will exceed that of any other year. While last year's crop was a record breaker, a number of vegetable growers have this year increased their acreage. This increase will offset considerable of the land which has been converted to industrial use or for home building.

If present favorable weather continues, heavy planting of sweet corn and potatoes will be gin. In fact there are some reports of planting already done.

Statistics revealed by P. R. Biesheimer, Wayne county farm agent, show that approximately 3,700 bushels of fresh sweet corn was sold last year from local gardens. Wayne county ranks high in the production of vegetables.

It ranks first in the state for the raising of bi-perennials, of which the total sales amount to approximately one and a half million dollars yearly. It ranks second in the production of cabbage; third in soy beans; fourth in the growing of ripe tomatoes and seventh in the harvesting of most other vegetables. Peaches place the county in 10th place with 62,000 trees, and the production of all other fruits places us in 18th place.

Wayne county harvested 262,000 bushels of winter wheat from 10,000 acres of land. Only 58 acres of land was devoted to the growing of watermelons and 219 acres used for the production of cantaloupes.

The majority of the farms in Wayne county average from three to five acres in size. However, there are about 23 farms which have from 260 to 500 acres.

Joe Wickens of the Specialty Feed Company Incorporated estimates his company alone will handle thousands of bushels of wheat grown in this area.

Kansas Takes Credit For Plymouth Growth

We have heard everything but this tops them all. A letter came to The Plymouth Mail yesterday from Mrs. Oscar Blackford of Northville. Mrs. Blackford is a former resident of Oswego, Kansas and the letter came from her daughter Mrs. Charles Smith of that city. As a reader of the Parsons Kansas Sun she found the following interesting column in that paper about Plymouth which she forwarded to her mother and which her mother forwarded on to us.

Of particular interest to Plymouth is the fact that Parson, Kansas has taken full credit for the growth of this city population wise. Not that we mind because these Sun Flower state former residents make fine additions to our city but we think they might be stretching it a bit far out there in Parsons when they say, "Persons like those from Kansas have swelled the population of Plymouth from a few thousand to its present population of 8,000." Read the item below it certainly is revealing.

"During a period about 15 years ago the industrial area of Detroit, Mich., beckoned countless Southeast Kansans.

Among them were scores of Labette Countians who were seeking employment. Many of them found jobs with industries for which they still work. Others went into business for themselves, remaining in the industrial area.

Not long ago a Mrs. Karl Hornback, formerly of Dennis, looked around her home town of Plymouth, Mich., and noted that many Labette Countians lived there.

Plymouth is a little industrial city of 8,000 in the midst of an area that manufacturers things from toys to big farm machines. More than 100 persons from Southeast Kansas got a start in their new environs at a single plant in Plymouth, that of Allen Industries.

Though Plymouth has 37 manufacturing plants, 1,000 persons commute to work outside the city. It is but 23 miles from Detroit.

Most of the former countians own their own homes in Plymouth. Many who were youngsters when they left here with their parents are now married and have their own children.

All together, Labette County has a strong representation in the big industrial area. A number of Kansas picnics have been held to afford the ex-Sunflower folks a chance to get together.

Among the former Altamont residents in the Plymouth area found in Mrs. Hornback's list were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. William Keeler and two children (Mrs. Keeler is the former Marie Adams of Altamont). Mr. and Mrs. George Adams and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Adams and children, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John Wiggins, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiggins. All are related to J. Q. Adams of Altamont.

Many ex-Parsonians live in the area too. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Orville Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Cormican, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kimbal, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Groom, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Olson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woodmansee and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Redd and four children, Mr. ett Redd and four children, Mr.

and Mrs. George Graham and others.

Dennis is heavily represented at Plymouth and in the area. Former Dennis residents there include Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hart and five children, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hopper and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Skaggs and three children.

Some of the northward migrants, like Mr. and Mrs. Will Skaggs of Dennis, have died. But members of their family now know Plymouth as home.

Other ex-Dennis folks in the area are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wall and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Moore and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Olson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Banta and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray March and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hopper and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson and family.

Former Oswegoans on the list include Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bolen and family and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pierson and family.

Cherryvale also provided residents for the area. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Denver Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Bertie Carson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Carson, Lloyd Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cruse.

From Mound Valley are Richard Stierwalt and Mr. and Mrs. Don Stierwalt.

Persons like those from Kansas have swelled the population of Plymouth from a few thousand to its present 8,000 and the city is still growing."

I. H. Releases New Tractor

The West Bros. International Harvester dealer here, has just received the first McCormick Farmall Super M, the new model which is described as the "world's most powerful all-purpose tractor." The tractor is now on display at the West Bros. showroom.

"The new Farmall Super M has 21 per cent more power and faster field speeds than the famous Farmall M which it replaces," says Dutch West. "It will handle a regular four-bottom moldboard plow easily in practically all conditions and plow more than 20 acres in a 10-hour day."

To illustrate its large work capacity, Mr. West mentioned what the Super M will do on several other field jobs. The Farmall Super M, he says, will cover up to 50 acres a day with a 10-foot tandem disk harrow and have plenty of power to handle a peg-tooth harrow or ground roller at the same time. Field tests indicate that it will drill small grain at the rate of 65 acres a day and cultivate up to 80 acres a day with four-row equipment.

All mounted implements that fit the Farmall M will work on the new Super M. The tractor has hydraulic control for mounted equipment and can be equipped with hydraulic Farmall Remote-Control for trailing machines.

The new model also features self-energizing, double-disc brakes and a comfortable hydraulic seat, making it surprisingly easy to handle and comfortable to ride.

The Super M can be equipped to use gasoline, L-P gas or distillate. A similar model—with the same power, speed and other features—had also been introduced, according to Mr. West. It is known as the Super MD and is equipped with a full diesel engine.

At the same time, International Harvester has announced two new standard wheel tractor models in the same power class. They are known as the McCormick Standard Super W-6 and the diesel-powered Super WD-6.

Eclair Recipe Has Many Uses

French in origin but long acclaimed by the American hostess is the finger-shaped pastry, chocolate éclair. Following the recipe below you can reproduce this exciting dessert right in your own kitchen. You'll find the recipe is three-in-one—bake the batter in round form and you have cream puffs, french fry teaspoonfuls of it at 365° F. until brown and you have queen fritters, an ideal accompaniment for your dinner roast.

Eclairs or Cream Puffs
1/2 cup lard
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup boiling water
1 cup enriched flour
4 eggs
Add lard to salted water and bring to a boil. Add flour all at once, and stir vigorously until ball forms in center of pan. Cool. Add unbeaten eggs, one at a time, beating after each addition until mixture is smooth. Mixture should be very stiff. Shape eclairs on greased cookie sheet with a spoon or using pastry bag and tube, in strips about 1 inch wide and 4 inches long. To make cream puffs drop mixture by tablespoonfuls about 2 inches apart on greased cookie sheet. Bake 15 minutes in hot oven (450° F.). Reduce temperature to moderate (350° F.) and continue baking for 30 minutes or until done. Cool. Fill with cream filling, ice cream or whipped cream. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar or top with chocolate frosting. Yield: 10 to 12 eclairs or cream puffs.

Sausage Plan

Then remove cover and place canned peach halves in the pan to lightly brown. Cook sausage and peach halves until lightly browned. To serve, place peach halves in center of a chop platter and arrange hot sausage around them.

Grade Children Return From Trip

Twenty-five happy sixth grade children of Starkweather school returned Sunday from their weekend trip to Chicago by bus. These youngsters, with their teacher, William Foster, and six parents, had the thrill of their young lives as they saw the educational sights of the "windy city".

The young Plymouth travelers arrived in Chicago Saturday at 1 p.m. and promptly went, by elevated railway, to the Swift Packing Company plant, where a bountiful steak dinner was served them free of charge.

That evening they were guests of the television show "Down You Go" a WGN coast to coast Mutual broadcast. After that they went to the Stevens hotel, where they were given $10.25 rooms for $2.50, and were served a $5.50 full course turkey dinner for $2.

The next day they visited the Museum of Science and Industry, where they saw depicted the history of the telephone, the making of steel, plus many other educational things. They also all went down in a coal mine.

Mr. Foster says this was a worthwhile cooperative venture as the children made all the $400 needed for the trip by bake sales, baby-sitting, dances, etc. Some didn't quite make enough but others made more, which they shared with the ones who didn't.

The bus, loaned to them by the Assembly of God church, stopped at the Four Flags hotel in Niles on the return trip, and the children were treated to a Colonial ham dinner.

The Stevens hotel management said the Plymouth youngsters were the best behaved group to ever stop at the hotel.

Mr. Foster also received a letter from the Swift Packing Company stating that these same students were the best to ever go through their plant, and that children from Plymouth will always be welcome to come again whenever they can.

The children wish to thank all those who contributed in any degree to this happy occasion, which will always remain a pleasant memory for them the remainder of their life.

I see where the president of a tool company is blaming the lack of manpower on parents. Actually I suppose everything could be blamed on parents... because if there weren't any, there wouldn't be any other people. By making parenthood illegal we could quickly solve all the world's problems. This fellow claims that parents discourage their offsprings from working with their hands and encourage them to try for white collar and professional work. Well, the man has a point... but the law of supply and demand will probably take care of it. There's no use wearing a white collar if you aren't eating regularly.
