What I Think and Have A Right to Say
By ELTON R. EATON

IT IS A GOOD SELECTION.

The Plymouth Chamber of Commerce has selected Marvin Terry to act as general chairman for the Fourth of July celebration. It is an excellent selection, and with the right kind of support, he'll make the Plymouth Fourth of July celebration one of the outstanding events in our long history. But remember, he can't do it alone. He's got to have all the help we can give him—and we are sure that judging from past experiences he will get it. Congratulations upon an excellent appointment.

LET'S DO IT THE RIGHT WAY!

There seems to be considerable differences between local business men and some of the representatives of the city government over our parking problem development. The business men are arguing the immediate enlargement of the Central parking area, pointing out that EVERY section of downtown Plymouth will benefit by this plan. They believe that our parking areas should be developed one by one AFTER the business center of the city has been properly cared for. We know that some disagree with this, but we think it is one hundred per cent right. And our recommendation is that we stop arguing about it—and DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT.

READ EVERY ONE OF THEM.

The Detroit News right now is publishing an intensely interesting, as well as alarming, series of articles written by James Sweinhart upon the Communist threat in this state and nation. Mr. Sweinhart is probably the outstanding authority in our state on the treasonable operations of these filthy polecats. He has done much in the past to expose these traitors and in his present series of articles he is continuing the good work of previous years. We know that many readers of The Plymouth Mail are also readers of The News, but if you are not a News reader, be sure and go down to the newsstand or the Dunning library and read what Mr. Sweinhart is telling the people of Michigan about the Communist threat. There are some five or six articles yet to be published—and if you have a desire to know more about the dangers we face, get The Detroit News and read the articles yet to be published.

ANOTHER NEW DEAL-FAIR DEAL FAKE.

Remember back to the days when the Roosevelt-Truman political mob down in Washington first started agitation for the enactment of a lot of new labor laws?—Remember that it was promised if Congress would enact the various proposals put forth by Senator Wagner from New York that there would be no more strikes in this country?

Remember, too, do you, that Congress yielded to the demands of the political mob running affairs at that time, chiefly because of the promise that the passage of these so-called labor bills pending in Congress would bring about peace in the industrial world, that labor-relation conditions would be of such a high type nature that strikes would never be heard of again.

If you want some interesting reading, some day go down to one of the big libraries and get out the Congressional Records of that period and read what the promises were about strikes.

But what has been the actual result? Never in the history of this or any other country have the people suffered so much inconvenience from strikes as in recent years. Strikes, walk-outs, sit-downs and work stoppages have been notorious because of their numbers. The industry that has peaceful relations with its workers is the exception these days.

And there never will be labor peace until we take the dirty hands of dirty politicians out of the problem. The country made a terrible mistake when it permitted Roosevelt and old Senator Wagner to put over that big fake on the nation. But let's hope that the time is near when a remedy can be applied.

AND STILL THEY COME.

When Dr. "Ace" Williams recently brought back from the South a number of editorials taken from southern newspapers for the purpose of enlightening "Ye editor" about southern Fair Deal sentiment, he really started something. We are glad of it, too, because it has revealed the fact that even in the "solid south" there are many editors who are not afraid to tell the Washington political fakers what they think.

A few days ago E. S. Anderson of the Whitman & Barnes company sent to the writer a clipping that had been taken from the editorial column of The Richmond News Leader of Richmond, Virginia, and mailed to him.

The editorial entitled "Faith of Our Fathers" is worthy of reproduction even in a community that has to its credit the distinction of never having gone off half-cocked and voted for a lot of the nincompoops now trying to run affairs in Washington. It follows:

It is by ironic coincidence, perhaps, that a transcript of President Truman's press conference of last Thursday should come across the desk just as we begin an editorial on this week's celebration in King William County. They are planning big doings down in King William. There will be a pageant on Thursday at West Point High School, a pageant on Friday at King William High School, a tour of historic homes, a speech by Senator Robertson, and a full-dress Colonial ball on Saturday night. The week's events have been in preparation for months. It is the 250th anniversary of the forming of one of Virginia's smallest and poorest counties, and the people of King William, who love the place, propose to make the most of it.

Many of the Tidewater counties are older, of course, and many have known more colorful times. Quarto-millenary celebrations come along all the time. Probably King William's program would prompt little editorial mention, but for one thing.

The whole week is being dedicated in King William to "Individual Liberty—the Faith of Our Fathers." In a day of little faith, it is a thrilling and inspiring thing.

We lift our eyes from King William's simple program (Students Participating... Lunch Will Be Served on the Courthouse Green) and the text of the President's conference slips across the desk.

The President was asked: "If it is proper to seize the steel mills, can you, in your opinion, seize the newspapers and radio stations?"

Mr. Truman replied that under similar circumstances, the President of the United States has to act for whatever is for the best of the country. That is the answer, he added.

The faith of our fathers! Could there be more damning evidence of how far this nation has slipped from that tremendous creed? Individual Liberty! What could point up more revealingly how weak this liberty has become?

Three Sections, 24 Pages $2.00 Per Year In Advance

Main Street May Be Resurfaced in Next Few Months

Do not be surprised if something should be done during the present summer towards improving the paving on Main street between Penniman avenue and Mill street.

While some Plymouth residents had given up all hope for the street ever being given even a sort of "facial" treatment, City Manager Al Glassford yesterday hinted that there were strong hopes of something being done in the immediate future.

This surprising news—if it really becomes news—resulted from the fact that Plymouth this year is going to get more than $30,000 out of state highway funds for street improvements. That is almost twice the amount the city received last year. The increase is due to changes in the distribution formula of state highway revenues.

Manager Glassford said he hoped to place before the city commission at one of its meetings in the near future plans for Main street improvement that if carried out will be highly satisfactory to Plymouth residents.

He didn't say whether the plans might call for a widening of the street by 10 or 12 feet in some places where there now exists several so-called "bottle-necks." At any rate hope is revived that the new city commission may take the jolts, jars and shimmies out of Main street before the end of the present summer.

Manager Glassford's plan will probably provide, also, for improvements on many other streets in the city.

Bloodmobile to be Here May 19

Saturday is the last day to make an appointment at the Red Cross Bloodmobile which will be in Plymouth on May 19 from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Any person who wishes to donate a pint of blood and has not as yet registered may do so by calling Mrs. James Keyes, 468-W, or stopping in at Davis and Lent, Duke's Barber Shop, Cloverdale Dairy, the Plymouth Grill, or The Plymouth Mail.

The unit, sponsored by the Plymouth BPO Elks will be at the Masonic temple. The blood may be designated to go to the forces fighting in Korea or to any other place specified by the donor.

A person who donated when the unit was here in January may do so again without injury to his health.

Kindergartens Register

A correction is to be made in an article that appears in another section of this paper regarding the registration of kindergarten pupils for next year at the Bird elementary school. Any person who did not register his child Tuesday for next year, may do so by calling at the school any day up to Thursday, May 22.

Other registrations for next year's kindergarten will be held at the Smith School next Tuesday, May 20, and at the Stark-weather School next Thursday, May 22, for those planning on attending either of these schools.

Rabies Vaccination Clinic to be Held

A Rabies vaccination clinic will be held May 16 and 17 at the City Fire Hall on Main street.

Dr. W. E. Lickfeldt, veterinarian, will be at the fire hall from 1 p.m. until 8 p.m. on Friday and from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. on Saturday. Any person who wishes to have his dog vaccinated may bring him to the clinic at either of these times.

Dogs must be penned or tied during the months of June, July, August, and September. From October 1, 1952 until May 31, 1953 only vaccinated dogs may be loose, according to the present dog ordinance.

A city ordinance 95 provides for a $50 fine for all dogs loose and unlicensed.

Optimists Elect Officers For the Ensuing Year

The Plymouth Optimist Club has elected officers for the coming year. These new officials will take office July 1: Herbert Woolweaver, president; Floyd Brandon, first vice president; Warren Hoffman, second vice president; Matt Fortney, secretary; Carl Watkins, treasurer; Sam Dibble and Robert Knapp, sergeant-at-arms; board members will be Kenyon Olds for one year, Lloyd Clark for two years and Dr. John Robison for two years.

The inaugural meeting will be June 16.

At the Monday evening meeting, the club heard the new Secretary of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, Nat Sibbold.

Mr. Sibbold said the purpose of the Chamber of Commerce is to coordinate all efforts of all organizations to make Plymouth a better city in which to live. He stressed the point that it takes everyone to make it a success.

The main Chamber of Commerce projects at the present time are the community hospital and off-street parking.

Mr. Sibbold said he had traveled all over the country, and when he decided to leave show business he looked for a progressive community in which to settle, found Plymouth, liked it, and decided this was to be his future home.

He thinks this community has great possibilities, with the great influx in population, and that the Chamber of Commerce will play a big part in helping to make this a strong community in which to live.

Plymouth Youth Honored at U of M

The many Plymouth friends of Kit Hough will be pleased to learn of the two honors received by him at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor last week.

Elected president of the Arnold Air Society it marks the first time an underclassman has headed the honorary group composed of honorary students of the R.O.T.C. on the campus. In addition to being elected president of that group Hough was also elected chairman of the Military Ball committee for 1953 which stages one of the major social functions of the school each year.

Rest Room, Press Box Being Built on Athletic Field

A greatly-needed improvement on the high school athletic field is being realized this week, when, through the cooperation of several persons, who are donating their time and services, new rest rooms and a press box are being constructed.

The structure will be located on the west side of the playing field back of the bleachers opposite the 50 yard line. The building will be 12 feet by 21 feet and 20 feet high, with an addition on the west side for the storage of field equipment. The press box will be located on the second floor.

A telephone system connected with the coaches line will inform the scoreboard operators of the plays from the field.

An emergency telephone will also be installed on the 50 yard line for announcements over the public address system for lost articles and emergencies.

The building will be used at all sporting events conducted by the high school, recreation department, or civic groups. It is expected to be ready for use by the time the football season begins next fall.

The work is being donated by several civic-minded persons. The foundation digging, wire and plumbing trenches are being dug by the high school machine shop classes under the direction of William Campbell. The carpenter work is to be taken care of by the high school maintenance men under the direction of Leo Kowalcik. Edward Dobbs, Ernie Burger and George Farwell have volunteered to lay the cinder blocks and do the mason work. All the necessary material will be paid for out of the athletic fund.

There has been a need for such a unit ever since the field has been used.

Gym Completion Set for Thursday

Barring labor disputes, the new gymnasium and swimming pool at the high school, will be turned over to the Board of Education on Thursday, May 22.

In an agreement between the Board of Education; the architects, Moss and Gould, and Beverly Smith; and the contractors, Ward Ross, Inc., the general contractor Lloyd Thornton company, the plumbing contractor; and Jones-Sherman, Inc., the electrical contractor, the building is promised to be ready for use by the above date.

The structure, begun in the fall of 1950, has been slowed lately by labor disputes, and earlier by material shortages, but is now complete except for a few finishing touches in the swimming pool and locker rooms.

The gymnasium, completed some time ago, has been used a few times already for student assemblies, a recreation basketball game, a boxing match, and for many civic programs.

Casey Cavell, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ted Cavell, East Tawas, entered Sessions hospital, Northville, late Tuesday evening for an emergency appendicitis operation. At last report he was feeling much better.

Business Men Insist on Central Parking

While Nothing Has so Far Been Accomplished, Hope for Action in Near Future on Expansion Program

Plymouth's off-street parking committee of the Chamber of Commerce met in a heated session in the commission chambers at the city hall last Monday noon. General consensus of opinion among the members of the committee was that little had actually been accomplished that would in any way provide additional parking facilities for Plymouth. Three city officials and four local business men comprise the committee.

The main subject of discussion was the aggressive attitude of Livonia in regards to development of parking areas and what could Plymouth do to protect its present business area from encroachment of large retail developments such as the one now in progress at the corner of Farmington and Plymouth roads.

Suggestions as to the adoption of an overall parking plan for the entire city, or immediate completion of expansion in the Central parking lot were the main subjects of argument. Methods of development and the securing of funds for the same provided the biggest items of argument. City participation and private fund raising programs were discussed during the meeting. The four business men on the committee favor the immediate expansion of the Central parking area.

No definite conclusions were reached and another session of the group is planned for early next week. City Manager Albert Glassford was instructed to prepare a large map showing the entire business area so that a study of the entire problem could be made.

Barbara Stecker Elected Garden Club President

Mrs. Austin Stecker was elected president of the Plymouth Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association at their annual meeting last Monday afternoon. She will succeed Mrs. Sidney Strong who completed a most successful two year term in the office.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Edwin Schrader 1st vice president, Mrs. Arnold Samuelson 2nd vice president, Mrs. Ralph Lorenz recording secretary, Mrs. Chester Teasel corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bruno Schroeter treasurer and Mrs. Sterling Eaton publicity chairman.

In appreciation of the fine work done by Mrs. Strong the club presented her with a lilac bush in recognition of the same. Lilacs were also planted by the club in the city park across from the city hall which are the first of a series of plantings planned in and around the city by that group.

Mrs. Carl Wall and Mrs. Clifford E. Fishbeck were welcomed into the club as new members at the meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Paul J. Wiedman. Floral specimens from members gardens were on display in the beautiful Wiedman home. The next meeting will be a potluck picnic planned at the home of Mrs. Austin Whipple in June.

Molnar Electric Shop Moves to Ann Arbor Rd.

George Molnar announced recently that Molnar's Electric Motor shop had moved from 1311 South Harvey to 1303 West Ann Arbor road.

The shop has been located at the south Harvey address for the past six years. An increase in business which caused a need for additional space was the main reason for the change in locations, stated Mr. Molnar.

The moving is completed and the shop is now open, he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dittich of Birmingham were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Russell of West Maple avenue.

Thanks a Million to All Advertisers in The Plymouth Mail

The Plymouth Mail wishes to express its sincere appreciation to our advertisers. Their cooperation in helping us to overcome the big Tuesday "load" has been nothing less than remarkable. By getting advertising copy in early it has enabled both our advertising department as well as the mechanical employes to take it a bit easier in getting out this week's edition. If we can keep up this splendid record for the future, it will help much more than one can realize. Again we say THANKS to every one of our advertisers for your splendid cooperation.

Former Plymouth Girl Elected President of New Jersey Garden Clubs

Mrs. Athalie Hough Archibald of Elizabeth, New Jersey, daughter of Edward C. Hough of this city, has just been elected president of the State Garden Clubs of New Jersey. The convention at which this former well known Plymouth girl was named to this high position was held on May 10 in Atlantic City.

All Construction Work on New Buildings is Ended by a Strike

All construction work in and around Plymouth came to a sudden end Monday morning when top union officials of the labor organizations engaged in various branches of construction work called a strike in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Monroe counties. Even the big Ford tank plant just east of the city which is being rushed to completion to help get tanks to American fighting forces in Korea was tied up by the strike. When the strike will end no one knows, but reports late Tuesday indicated that the strike might be continued for several days more. So if you are in a hurry to get into that new home you are having built for your wife and kiddies, get over your rage as there is nothing you can do about it.

Northville Horse Show to be June 1

The third Annual Northville Junior Horse Show will be staged at the Northville Downs race track Sunday, June 1. This annual event, sponsored by the Northville Optimist club for the benefit of underprivileged children, has become recognized as one of the outstanding horse shows in the state.

Riders of all ages will compete for the many trophies awarded in the numerous classes of competition. There are four general classes, the Equitation class, the Saddle Horse class, the Hunters and Jumpers class, and the Championship class.

Judging will be based on suitability of the horse for children in the juvenile division, the ability to ride and handle their mounts, and other factors.

Tickets for this sporting event may be procured from any member of the Plymouth Optimist club, or by calling 151-J after five o'clock.

Plans For Fourth

"It will be the biggest celebration Plymouth has ever seen," stated Marvin Terry when asked about the forthcoming Fourth of July weekend planned by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce. Named general chairman of the event, Mr. Terry outlined the plans for the three day celebration and named committee chairman of the various parts of the program.

Thousands of people visited Plymouth last year to participate in the affair and plans are being made to accommodate twice as many this year. On the program for consideration at the meeting called by Chamber of Commerce Secretary Nat Sibbold, plans call for a rodeo, a carnival, fireworks, games, beauty contest, amateur show, etc.

Committee chairmen named were Frank Arlen and Robert Waldecker, parade; Carl Caplin, tickets; Marshall Kirkpatrick, advertising; Wendell Lent, prizes; Edward Campbell, parking; William Campbell, sound equipment; Laurence Livingston, music; Fred Kendall amateur show and Herbert Woolweaver children's program. Other committees will be appointed next week.

Only Gallimore Files For School Board Election

James Gallimore was the only candidate to file petitions for a seat on the school board last Saturday, the last day for filing for that position. He will be unopposed at the June election in seeking re-election to his present post, unless there is a write-in candidate.

According to Superintendent Russell Isbister there is no school law which requires notification to the general public of the final day a candidate must file petitions to qualify for the election therefore no previous notice was given by the board of the filing date last Saturday.

Registration and notices of the election will appear in next week's issue of The Mail setting forth the time and place of the annual school district meeting.

The board election will be held after the special election for approval of a new elementary building and remodeling of the present high school building.

Rucker to Open Ann Arbor Store

Ann Arbor residents will be treated to a new thrill in grocery shopping next Tuesday when Plymouth's Rucker brothers open their new Stop and Shop store in that city. It will mark the opening of the finest food store in the neighboring city and will be entirely new throughout in decoration plan and equipment.

According to Jay Rucker the store will introduce to Michigan a new type of check out counter that cuts time in that section to a minimum. Located at 704 South Main street in Ann Arbor the store has a large parking area where shoppers can park while participating in the grand opening event which runs from Tuesday through Saturday, May 20 to 24. Favors await all visitors to the store on the event of its opening.

In addition to the opening favors Mr. Rucker states that he will give residents of that area the surprise of their lives when they gaze upon the remarkable food specials he is featuring during the opening week.

Mrs. Edward Sommerman was hostess at a lovely pink and blue shower last Friday evening in her home on Loveland avenue in Livonia honoring Mrs. Richard Warga. Twelve guests were present. Mrs. Warga is the former Beth Sutherland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sutherland.

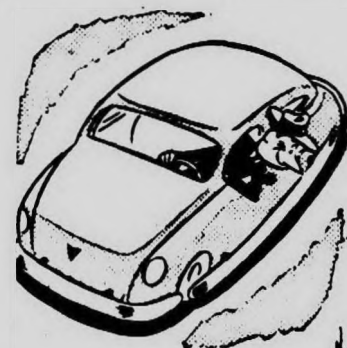

Local News

Russell Powell did the automobile driving for his parents.

Mrs. Clarence Adamson gave a very interesting program entitled "Symphony in Nature". Friday, May 16, the chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. D. P. Hammill for a co-operative dinner at 6:30 p.m. This is the first time the chapter has met in the new Hammill home at Farmington. Following the dinner there will be a social hour with a gift exchange and the mystery gifts of the year will be revealed.

Wheat Crop This Year Will be the State's Biggest

When Joe Wickens of the Specialty Feed Company added sufficient equipment to his feed and grain plant on Haggerty highway at the C. & O. tracks, to handle more than 175,000 bushels of wheat this year, he didn't know that the Michigan Crop Reporting Service was going to estimate that Michigan's wheat yield of this year might exceed 38,900,000 bushels as compared to a yield of 30,800,000 bushels last year.

The report was issued Monday, and if the estimated crop is produced in Michigan, it will exceed that of any other year in the state's history.

Plymouth Mail files reveal the interesting information that in 1931 the state's yield was only 13,200,000 bushels which was the result of the smallest wheat crop planted in the state in over 75 years.

Mr. Wickens who only a few years ago started up a grain elevator business in Plymouth purchasing only 50,000 bushels the first year of his entry into the grain business. Last year it jumped to more than 100,000 bushels and if his hopes and state predictions come true, he will handle through his Plymouth elevator more than 175,000 bushels this fall.

Officers for the new year, who were elected at the last meeting, will be installed at this time. The following are the leaders for the new year: William Clarke, President; Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, 1st Vice President; Kenneth Owens, 2nd Vice President; Miss George Anne Bauer, Student Vice President; Mrs. Peter Schipper, Secretary; and Mrs. Ace Williams, Treasurer.

During the meeting, members of the pioneer camping group of the school will give reports concerning their trip and camp life. Mrs. Miss Catherine Beck and Miss Nancy Tanager will also report on the event.

Waistline Problem Answer Announced

With 25,000,000 Americans over weight by at least 20 pounds, the health organizations, the medical profession and insurance companies have begun a concerted drive to point out to the American public that "your waistline is your lifeline."

One of the few people in this country who can say "I told you so" is Ann Delafield, famed reducing expert and beauty authority. As head of a famous Fifth Avenue salon and author of numerous articles of expert guidance on the subject, Miss Delafield holds what must be the world's record for master-minding the disappearance of literally thousands of tons of unsightly, unhealthy and certainly unwanted fat.

But, characteristically, Miss Delafield isn't content to sit back and look smug as well as handsome as the all-out battle of bulges begins. She has come up with a new kind of answer which many medical and pharmaceutical authorities feel may be THE answer. She worked out a new formula for a supplementary food wafer, non-fattening and low calorie, which is prescribed to be eaten between meals as an appetite appeaser (a "willpower pill," Miss Delafield describes it), allowing you to eat a normal amount of food and quelling craving for excessive eating or gnawing hunger at or between meals. The wafer (which is also delicious to the taste) is part of a new weight reducing "package," called the Ann Delafield Appetite Reducing Plan, which the Rexall Drug Company has placed on sale in their outlets throughout the country. In addition to the month's supply of the wafers, the package contains a month's supply of vitamin capsules and Ann Delafield's new book to follow step by step as you reduce—and afterward—to give you your new figure, new face and new personality their full glamour quotient.

Robert Beyer of Beyer Rexall Drugs announced today that the new Ann Delafield Appetite Reducing Plan has arrived at his store. As one of 10,000 of the independent druggists associated with the Rexall Drug Company who are releasing this Plan simultaneously throughout the nation, Beyer Rexall Drugs are exclusive distributors for this area.

Company Marks 53rd Anniversary

The S. S. Kresge Company will mark its 53rd anniversary in May with a nation-wide birthday celebration.

Each of the Kresge stores in the United States, including the Kresge store here in Plymouth, opens a ten day sales event beginning May 12 featuring special reductions in prices of merchandise in all departments in celebration of the occasion.

Second largest organization of its kind in the retail field, the company represents the realization of the dream of its founder, Sebastian S. Kresge, who recognized the need for a store which would bring a wide range of household and personal items within the reach of every family.

While a traveling salesman in Pennsylvania, Kresge discussed this need with one of his customers, J. G. McCrory. The two men became partners and in 1879 opened two variety stores, one in Memphis, Tennessee, and one in Detroit, Michigan.

In 1899 Kresge traded his half interest in the Memphis store for McCrory's half interest in the Detroit unit. This completely owned Detroit store was the first in a chain today spreading across the United States and into Canada to make up a total of 691 Kresge stores.

"Nothing Over Ten Cents" the sign over that first store announced, and for many years this precedent was followed in the other Kresge stores that opened. During World War I the "five and tens" were so popular that Sebastian Kresge decided to expand into the higher price range in order to carry a wider assortment of merchandise.

"Nothing over 25 cents" became the rule. Customer demand for more merchandise in the Kresge stores pushed the price limit up to fifty cents, and, later, up to a dollar or more.

The most recent development has been the construction of single large units that are shopping centers for a wider range of ready-to-wear and household necessities, as well as the customary ten-cent store items. For the customer, this has meant a wide assortment of merchandise, increased range of quality and quicker shopping.

Ownership of the company founded by Sebastian Kresge is now shared by over 28,000 stockholders.

Offices are located in Detroit, the city where Kresge opened his first store 53 years ago.

Seminary Graduate Receives Degree

Dean Saxton Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Saxton Sr., of 587 West Ann Arbor trail, will receive his Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California, Thursday, May 15. After attending the Summer Institute of Linguistics at Norman, Oklahoma, Dean expects to enter the mission field.

In Dayton, a housewife, equipped with field glasses, hired the Miami Valley Flying Service to circle over Wright Patterson Air Force Base, where her husband works, because "I want to find out where he goes after he leaves the field and before he comes home."

Hamster Cavie Interest Many

"Looks just like a rat only it's cleaner!" "Why does it chew the cage?" "Mercy, what is that thing on the bottom!" Such were the exclamations heard while standing in front of the Davis & Lent men's wear, on Penniman avenue. Many a curious individual stood and stared at the small cages which housed the Syrian Golden Hamsters and the Peruvian Cavies or "Rag Mops". One glance would be sufficient to know the reason for bestowing such a name on the animal. The little animals are owned by Edward E. Parsons & Son of the Parsons Hamstery, 8876 Sheldon road.

The royal golden hamster was originally a native of Syria and it wasn't until the early 1930's that any were imported here. Since that time their popularity has increased greatly. The hamster is a superior laboratory animal for experimental work. Frequently in many cases they give not only more accurate but faster results to laboratory tests and experiments.

Of late, the hamster, as a fur bearing animal, has grown into a strong reality as manufacturers are using the pelts to line helmets, caps and gloves.

The hamster is also used for a pet. Cleanliness is a keynote in the life of the little animal. If you pick him up he will wash himself, in the same manner that a cat uses, shortly after his return to his cage. As far as is known, a hamster has never been a carrier of disease. He will supply your leisure time with hours of enjoyment. The little animals are very talented and can do such things as sitting up and begging food.

He is very pretty with his beautiful golden-red coat with a white undercoat and black markings. He has almost no tail, as it measures a quarter of an inch in length. He has cheek pouches on either side of his neck which open into his mouth, and it is here, that he may store food for a day or two. His diet consists mostly anything from your dining table with the exception of meat, for which he has an aversion.

Mr. Hamster requires little space for his home. He is housed in a small cage, preferably made of some gnaw-proof material as he is a gnawing animal.

The Peruvian Cavies or "Rag Mops" are natives of Peru. They vary in size and color, and also the length of their hair varies. The little animal is very affectionate with the human race and is definitely a pet. His life expectancy is between seven and 15 years. He will live in a small box and remain quiet until he gets hungry and then he whistles. He looks just like a little old dust mop.

The little fellow will consume most all vegetables and grains. The male cavie will protect his family in very nearly the same fashion that the man of the house would protect his wife and children. Should anyone startle Mr. "Rag Mop", he would push his family behind him and then investigate said noise.

V.F.W. News

In honor of Americanism Day, April 27, red, white, and blue balloons were given to 175 children with the compliments of the V.F.W. Auxiliary.

Membership is the pulse beat of our organization, it means success in all stages of our work. Any members wishing to sponsor a new member please contact Loretta Young, chairman of the membership committee.

Our organization is founded on service to other. What more important service can we render than that of making life worth living for our disabled and hospitalized vets? They depend on us for the treats we take, our chery smile, and our warm hand clasp. What greater service can we give than caring for the widows and orphans of our fallen servicemen who gave their lives that we might live. Truly can we honor the dead by caring for the living.

The next regular hospital trip to Maybury Sanatorium will be May 18. A special trip was made May 12 to the children's ward. Cookies and children's books were distributed to the youngsters by Virginia Bartell, Lillian Voss, and Alice Armstrong.

Services Held For Lillian Gillespie

Funeral services were held Monday, May 12 at 1 p.m. at the Schrader Funeral home for Mrs. Lillian Gillespie who passed away Friday, May 9 after a long illness. She was 59 years old. Mrs. Gillespie has been a resident of Detroit since 1912, her home was at 5636 Missouri.

Surviving are her husband, Alexander Gillespie; her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Harr of Plymouth, other relatives and many friends. Reverend Henry J. Wulch, D. D. officiated. Hymns were rendered on the organ by Mrs. Edna O'Conner. The active pallbearers were Walter Haar, Larry W. Lang, Andrew A. Goldie, Garnet Rush, Robert Stromich and Harold Enterline. Interment was in Highland Cemetery, Ypsilanti.

Wild Canaries Seen in Plymouth

Twenty goldfinches, more commonly called wild canaries, have located in the yard of the house located at 9125 Ridge road, just off Ann Arbor road. These finches seem to be most happy on the west side of the house in some young willow trees. They have been there since May 1. Goldfinches have a canary like song, sweet, plaintive with upward slurred sweet-sweet notes. Several other persons in or near the city have reported seeing this gregarious bird.

In St. Louis, Magistrate Anton Sestric awarded $500 damages to four-year-old Gary Lee Roberts, another $500 to his parents, for the illusion that was shattered last year when a department-store Santa Claus picked up young Gary Lee, carelessly dropped him.

D. and prior to three-and-a-half years' service with the 90th Infantry Division, he was an assistant buyer with a Fargo dry goods firm, Smith, Follett & Crowl.

Dog Ordinance to be Changed

An amended dog ordinance passed its first reading at a city commission meeting held recently. The ordinance would prohibit dogs from running loose at any time during the year. The ordinance as it now reads allows the dogs to run free from October 1 through May 31 if vaccinated. At the present time there is a $50 fine for any dog not properly licensed.

The new ordinance states that at no time of the year may a dog be on the street unless he is on a leash. This ordinance provides for a license fee, and increases the rate charged for keeping a dog found on the street in the pound.

Drivers' Program Underway Here

A drivers' program for Consumers Power company employes is now underway in the city of Plymouth. The course is under the direction of Basil Mills from the Pontiac office of the company.

The program which takes two to two and a half hours per person has two main objectives. The first of these is to develop attitudes which will help present drivers become better drivers. Helping the individual find deficiencies which may influence his driving performance and to compensate for them and therefore become a safer driver is the second objective.

There are vision, coordination, written and road tests. These tests, developed by the American Automobile Association, are given by a skilled person. During the past three years 5,000 persons in the country have taken the tests.

The vision and coordination tests include mental and physical coordination tests such as visual acuity, field of vision, depth and color perception, night vision and glare recovery. Reaction time is also checked, but this is done at the time of the road test. Smoothness of the operation recorder.

The written tests are for driving aptitude, attitude, (new employes only) and driving knowledge. The driving knowledge test is very complete and covers the main points necessary for good driving.

Each employe talking the road test is taken over the same course by a trained observer who uses a printed check list. Each person receives a card containing his test results.

An employe general information sheet is distributed to each employe a few days before the program begins. Drivers for the company which has the second largest fleet of trucks in the state of Michigan are required to take the tests and other members of the company may.

Upon completion of the course, those who pass it receive driver authorization cards. An employe who fails all or part of it has a basis from which he may go ahead and correct his driving faults.

Local Students to Enter U of M

Two Plymouth high school students, two from Northville and five from Livonia are among 722 graduating seniors in Michigan high schools who have been selected to receive the newly created Regents-Alumni awards of the University of Michigan.

This has been announced by E. A. Walter, dean of students at the University and chairman of the Committee on University scholarships.

The students in this vicinity who have been placed on this list are Robert Keeney, 866 Ross street, this city and Beverly J. Ross, 50,000 Ann Arbor road.

The two from Northville are Marilyn Funk and Mary Jean Woodruff of Beck road.

Those from Bentley high school are Robert C. Fisk, 10447 Bassett Drive; Patricia C. Hanson, 11324 Cranston; Ruth Anna Nelson, 15799 Southampton; Mary Lou Passmore, 33925 LaMoynne and Marcel L. Salive, 36235 West Seven Mile road, Farmington.

Society Elects Officers For '53'

The annual dinner and election of officers of the Plymouth Historical Society took place in the Mayflower Room of the Mayflower Hotel on Thursday evening, with 50 members present.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Austin Whipple, 1st. Vice-President, in charge of Publicity, Mrs. Arthur Mills, 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Howard Brown, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Hugh Means, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. E. Fletcher Campbell, Treasurer, Leonard Millross.

A very interesting history of the Seal of the City of Plymouth written by Sidney D. Strong, former Village Manager, was read by Miss Edna M. Allen.

Mr. Strong stated that the first general use of the Seal on a public occasion was at the time of the celebration of the opening of the Plymouth Road Pavement on September 11, 1924, at which time the decorations on the street lamp posts included the seal.

When the City Hall was rebuilt during the term of L. P. Cookingham as City Manager, the seal in colors was painted on the wall of the corridor on the first floor. The artist was Edward McCandlish, who also painted the murals on the walls of the Commission Room.

The Society will meet at the Arthur Todd home on June 12 for the final meeting until fall.

Mrs. Michael Schuster of Lelenaw near Traverse City arrived Monday to spend a few days with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beyer and their new son, Robert Michael.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Austin Whipple, 1st. Vice-President, in charge of Publicity, Mrs. Arthur Mills, 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Howard Brown, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Hugh Means, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. E. Fletcher Campbell, Treasurer, Leonard Millross.

When the City Hall was rebuilt during the term of L. P. Cookingham as City Manager, the seal in colors was painted on the wall of the corridor on the first floor. The artist was Edward McCandlish, who also painted the murals on the walls of the Commission Room.

The Society will meet at the Arthur Todd home on June 12 for the final meeting until fall.

Many boys have already denoted their intention of competing and many more are expected to sign up before the deadline of Friday, May 23. All boys will have an equal opportunity for the dozens of ribbons awarded as prizes as there will be three classifications. These will be based on age and weight. City Petitions for Sewer Extension

City officials say street improvements on the west and south sections of the city are being held up because of no sewer facilities. A petition has been sent to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors requesting permission to construct a pumping station to serve those sections of the city, and possibly areas in the township. This pumping station would lift the sewage into the present system which is tapped into the Wayne County Road Commission interceptor sewer that runs through Riverside Park, into empties into the Merriman road sewage disposal plant.

The Metropolitan Planning Commission says the above disposal plant is now inadequate, and feel a giant interceptor system throughout the Rouge parkway system with fingers extending out is essential. However, no consideration in this new setup has been made for the south and west section of Plymouth. The city cannot pave streets, or make other necessary improvements until the sewage problem is solved.

The Board of Supervisors met Tuesday to act on the Plymouth petition. No word is available for this edition on what was done.

WHAT I THINK AND HAVE A RIGHT TO SAY

Down in King William, men have shed blood for this. A few miles away is Yorktown, a few miles beyond that, Williamsburg. Jefferson owned property in King William; so did Washington and the Custis family and Carter Braxton and R. E. Lee. Nothing much remains of the county now but second-growth scrub pine and thin soil, and along the Mattaponi and Pamunkey a few still magnificent estates. King William's population is declining slowly. But among the 7,600 people who cling to the county's quiet land and slow-moving rivers is a common bond, deep and meaningful: They will dedicate this big event in their lives to Individual Liberty—the Faith of Our Fathers.

Shafer, assistant factory manager of the Daisy Manufacturing Company, NOW! TODAY! So far the moles have got him licked. Out at his attractive home on Sheldon road not so far this side of Northville, he's been fighting moles all the spring. He's tried to trap 'em. He's tried to flood 'em down the creek and he's even tried to gas 'em and he's feed them so-called mole poison—but they get fat and sassy on that. When he tries to flood them by turning a hose down one of their runways, he looks up on the side hill and there's a spring of running water that wasn't there when he turned his hose

Symphony Presents Local Artists at Music Festival

Members of the Plymouth Symphony will attend a music festival in Detroit Saturday and Sunday, May 17 and 18 at the St. James Methodist church, Puritan at Archdale. An honorary dance group from Wayne university will start the festival Saturday by presenting dances connected with the medieval churches. Later the Reverend-Deacon Sergei Glagolev will conduct a concert given by the Russian Orthodox church. The concert will depict the background of our present day church music.

Open house will be held Sunday afternoon at which time the four children's choirs of the church, under the direction of Mrs. Frances Hutchison will sing various selections. Following this the group will see many exhibits which will be on display. A "Voice Mirror" will be on exhibition as well as an oscillograph which transmits sound into light. Numerous movies will be shown among them, "The Voice in Action" and "The History of the Pipe Organ". A doll collection depicting the history of early church vestments will also be of great interest to the group. Instruments used in biblical times and early Bibles and hymnals will also be on display.

Sunday evening at 8:30 the Plymouth Symphony will play several selections for the festival and Evelyn Woods will play Rachmaninoff's Concerto. The festival will conclude with the members of the covenant and crusaders singing the Spring portions of Haydn's "Seasons", with the Plymouth Symphony accompanying the group. Soloists for this concert are Mrs. Norma Heide of Ann Arbor and Fred Kendall and Nat Sibbold of Plymouth. Wayne Dunlap will conduct the symphony and will also be guest conductor of the "Seasons".

Mr. and Mrs. John Pint had as their dinner guests on Mother's Day, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pint and Miss Mildred White.

City Questions Purpose of Road Near Water Farm

City officials are keeping a close eye on the operations of some gravel outfit that is defacing the face of the earth and threatening Plymouth's water supply just north of the city's "water farm" over on Beck road.

While there is still pending in Judge Vincent Brennan's court a Plymouth city and Northville township action to prevent the gravel outfit from further operation, it recently came to the attention of city officials that the gravel company is building a new road right along the north line of the Plymouth water farm. The road, cut in from Beck road, runs for 600 feet or more along the Plymouth water farm, then cuts north apparently for an opening on Seven Mile road.

No one knows just why the road is being built. Some say it is because the Wayne county road commission will not permit gravel to be hauled on Beck road, which is not a paved highway, and therefore the gravel diggers must get a direct opening on Seven Mile road, better known as the Fishery road. There have also been reports that the road is being planned for homesite developments, but that on the face of it looks like a ploy it is reported, because of the fact that the thoroughfare is being built within a few feet of the Plymouth water farm and there isn't enough space left along the southside on the proposed thoroughfare even to build a chicken coop on.

Not only are Plymouth city officials watching the operations carefully, but Northville township residents are wondering what is happening, especially as long as the court has not yet given a decision in the case which has been pending for several years.

Dave Travis gave his report and presented Jerry Kelly, next year's treasurer elect, the treasurer's book.

Following a speech by Russell Isbister, superintendent of schools, Bob Keeney gave Casey Cavell, vice mayor elect, the scrapbook and named the duties of a vice mayor. One of the features of the assembly was a speech by Chris Kregier, German student, followed by a recessional as this year's members departed to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne". The "52-'53" Student Council and class officers replaced them. Lynn Osen, elections chairman presiding, introduced Carvel M. Bentley, high school principal who congratulated the officers and administered the oath of office to the new officers. Sophie Niemeyer, German student, led the audience and officers in singing the school Alma Mater.

Chamber of Commerce Secretary Tells Rotarians of Worthy Aims

Plymouth Rotarians last Friday had plenty of evidence that an excellent selection has been made for a permanent and full-time secretary of that organization when Nat Sibbold, the new executive official, told of the hopes and aims of the organization for the immediate future.

Because of lack of funds the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce over a dozen years or more has been forced to engage only a part-time secretary. While these part-time officials have done good work in the little time they had to devote to Chamber of Commerce work, board members have long felt that the organization should have a full time secretary and they have been fortunate in getting an energetic youthful citizen of the city to serve in this capacity.

Mr. Sibbold indicated clearly that he knows of the many problems facing this fast growing community. He not only knows its problems, but his brief talk provided plenty of evidence that he knows what to do.

"I think we should co-ordinate our civic activities, all of the various groups working for the good of Plymouth combining their efforts to accomplish worthy purposes. I think, too, that the Chamber of Commerce should be used as a sort of clearing-house for local events. If we do this, there would be no conflicts between concerts, banquets and other gatherings. If a listing could be made with the organization that this club or some other club was sponsoring some outstanding public event say on October 5 or some other date, then some other organization would not announce a big meeting or concert for the same night," said Mr. Sibbold.

Rotarians after the meeting said frankly that the suggestion was good common sense.

Off-street parking, a hospital, Christmas decorations, Halloween programs and Fourth of July celebrations are just a few of the many things that an active Chamber of Commerce can help, he said.

Rent Control Off In Township

Supervisor Charles Rathburn of Plymouth township has announced that rent control has been lifted in Plymouth township effective immediately.

Hearings for the lifting of the control were held sometime ago, only one person having been reported as present at the meeting to protest the proposed recommendation of the township board.

The board after hearing all of the arguments that township residents desired to make, passed a resolution asking that the rent control of the township be lifted.

Township officials have just been advised that the federal rent control officials in Washington have complied with their request. Rent controls in Northville and other nearby townships were lifted about a year ago.

Group Will Hold Quarter Century Class Reunion

The 25th reunion of the 1927 graduating class of Plymouth high school will take place on June 22. The class will have a dinner at the high school, which will take place at 1:30 p.m. All of the 47 class members have been located but one. The members are asking the public to help them locate Lillian Lee, who transferred for her junior and senior years from Grand Rapids and Northville. Anyone knowing of her whereabouts is asked to contact Mrs. Winifred Draper Carney of 865 Penniman, in order that she too may be invited for the occasion. Reservations are also to be sent to Mrs. Carney. Wives and husbands of the members are invited to this quarter of a century celebration. Local residents of Plymouth are making all preparations for the affair.

Many Visitors Present at Meeting

Ernest E. Folsom of 572 South Inverly became a new member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at the meeting on May 7. There were 35 members at the meeting. The group will meet Wednesday, May 21 for their next session.

There were several visitors present; among them were Henry Juntunen, 2nd District Commander; Louis Levan, Jr., Vice Commander of the Wayne County Council; Charles Gallagher, 2nd District Chief of Staff; William A. H. Smith, Vice Commander of the 2nd District; R. Heffernan, Senior Vice Commander of the 1st District; D. Chrysler, Chaplain of the 2nd District and G. Edwin Slater, Past Department Commander.

Grange Cleanings

We hope we shall have a good crowd at the meeting this evening to welcome the three new candidates that are to be initiated tonight. It is very important that all the officers be present.

There is the Rummage sale tomorrow and Saturday, we have a good lot of clothing and other things so be sure to come in and see what there is.

Mr. and Mrs. George Huebler were dinner guests of her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Toles on Sunday.

The Lily Club was postponed on account of the gas situation. Mr. and Mrs. E. Vealey spent last week Wednesday in Oxford as dinner guests of the latter's niece Mrs. Howard Houck. Mrs. Alice Crawford was also present. The dinner was in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Vealey.

This year's farm production costs are above those of last year. Next year they probably will go higher.

Highway "Kill" Indicate That This Area Has Been Invaded by Opossums

Along with the migration of many thousands of good people from the central southern states to Plymouth and vicinity, apparently has come a migration of opossums, too. Seemingly one can rarely drive on a country road around Plymouth that one or more opossums not yet skilled in the techniques of dodging automobiles driven by wild-eyed northerners, can be seen lying on the paving where they have been crushed to death by night drivers. Sunday there was a big opossum on the paving just outside the city limits and near the Willoughby home on Ann Arbor trail that hadn't been able to miss the wheels of some northern loon who wouldn't give this interesting and harmless animal a chance. Another had been killed near the intersection of Ann Arbor trail and Ann Arbor road. People who travel the highways west and north of the city say there is rarely a night that goes by without some opossum being killed by some automobile driver.

Opossums were a rare sight in this part of Michigan for years but seemingly there has been not only a big migration of these animals from southern states, but they have found this a country in which they can exist and grow big families.

I see where the Air Force is maintaining research stations within a snowball throw of the North Pole. They are checking weather and various other conditions, and building landing fields. And we hear they're getting plenty of volunteers... even though the temperature runs from 70 below zero up to 17 below. Well, it's a great place to "get away from it all"... if that's what you want. Offering wonderful prizes, the contest is open to all kids under 16 years of age, who must complete this sentence: "Daisy owners should be NRA members because _____ in 15 words or less, and they must also shoot an official 10-bull target sheet on a range of 15 feet, from a standing position.

Their scores must be certified by an adult—a parent, guardian, cotmaster, or NRA instructor.

The first four winners in the NRA-sponsored event will be guests for two weeks this summer at Fred Harman's Red Ryder ranch, and will receive, in addition, a loving cup and a brand new Daisy Defender—the No. 141 model. One hundred more Defenders will be awarded to those who place 5th, while 50 Daisy Pumps will go to those who place 6th, and 50 Red Ryder model No. 111's will be given to 7th place winners.

A second contest, for non-members of the NRA, will offer 53 rifles as prizes.

All winners will be announced within a month after the close of the contest.

The mailing room of the Daisy plant has been extremely busy lately getting out the thousands of dealer's kits, consisting of entry blanks and window streamers, rules, targets, and prize lists. Nearly one million kits have already been sent out.

Any boy or girl under 16 in this area can obtain an entry blank through a dealer, or from the Daisy Manufacturing company. Get them quick as there are only two weeks left before the deadline.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15—Seeing the sights in their Capital was ample reward to these young Michigan AAA safety patrol leaders for long hours spent guarding school corners. They were among 101 Michigan school patrol leaders taken on a four-day all-expense trip here by Automobile Club of Michigan from Thursday through Sunday (May 8-11). From left to right they are: Joseph V. Bailey, Our Lady of Good Counsel school, Plymouth; Michael A. Willis, Northville Grade school; and Phillip D. Jones, Velney Smith school, Redford.

Farmers now have more than five times as much money invested in machinery as they had 10 years ago. You can take all the judgment and experience of men over 50 out of the world and there wouldn't be enough left to run it.

Hints for Plymouth Homemakers

Tuna Served in Green Rice Ring Easy to Prepare; Good to Eat

Attractive enough for company, yet unbelievably quick to make, is this delectable Supreme of Tuna served in a spring-like Green Rice Ring. The ripe olives used as a garnish around the ring, enhance the delicate coloring so that the whole is a feast to the eyes as well as the palate.

To round out the meal, serve a crisp green salad, thin butter sandwiches, and, of course steaming, fragrant coffee.

Supreme of Tuna

- 1 3/4 cup butter or margarine
- 1 3/4 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Few grains pepper
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 1/4 teaspoon rosemary
- 3 cups milk
- 1/2 cup sliced ripe olives
- 2 cups cooked white onions
- 1 7-ounce can tuna

Melt butter or margarine; blend in flour, salt, pepper, paprika and rosemary. Add milk, cook over low heat, stirring constantly until smooth and thickened. Add olives, onion and flaked tuna; heat well. Serve in green rice ring. Makes 6 servings.

Green Rice Ring

Cook enough rice to fill your ring-mold. Add 1 cup minced parsley, 2 tablespoons minced onion and 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine. Turn out on serving platter and fill with Supreme of Tuna.

For something quick and easy to serve to hungry folks who have had a work-out in the garden or just come in from a drive in the oh-so-beautiful spring-time, serve pancakes. Here's how to do it in a hurry.

2 cups ready-mix for pancakes and 2 1/4 cups milk.

(1) Add milk to unsifted mix all at once and stir lightly. Some-what lumpy batter makes light, fluffy pancakes.

(2) Pour 1/4 cup batter for each pancake onto a hot, lightly greased griddle.

(3) Bake to a golden brown, turning only once.

Prepare in advance a variety of toppings for your pancakes. To serve, arrange them on your Lazy Susan or a large tray. Be sure to include maple-blended syrup and butter, the old-time favorite. Other applause-winning toppings are honey butter, apple sauce, or simple fruit icing.

Honey Butter

Beat 1/2 cup butter or margarine and 1/2 cup honey together until light and fluffy. Serve.

Fruit Icing

Cream 2 tablespoons butter thoroughly. Add 3 tablespoons top milk and 1 cup confectioners sugar, beating until light and fluffy. Fold in 1 cup sliced cooked peaches (drained). Serve over hot pancakes.

Q. What is this method of meat cookery?

A. Deep-fat frying.

Q. How should meat be deep-fat fried?

A. Use a deep kettle and a frying basket. Melt enough fat to completely cover meat to be cooked. Heat fat to frying temperature, the range is from 300° to 350°F, depending upon the size of the pieces and whether it is uncooked or leftover meat. Using the frying basket, lower a few pieces of meat at a time, gradually into the hot fat. Brown the meat and cook it thoroughly. No turning is necessary. When done, drain fat from meat into kettle before removing meat from basket.

Q. What meats are prepared by this method?

A. Croquettes of ground fresh meat, leftover cooked meat, ready-to-serve or canned meats; liver and some of the other variety meats.

Lard Plentiful, Good Fat Buy

The food budget can really have a break if budget-minded homemakers will take a look at the price and quality of lard on the market.

Lard is unusually plentiful and the lowest in price for some time. Of the fats, lard is the best buy today. It is selling for about one-third the price of the hydrogenated vegetable compounds.

Several types of lard are available. Leaf lard and kettle-rendered lard are the highest quality. Steam-rendered lard has been bleached and deodorized and will be less expensive yet very usable.

Lard should be kept in a cool place, away from light, to keep the quality good and the flavor sweet.

In using any fat for cooking, a neutral flavor and odor are desirable. A fat, such as lard, with a high "smoking point" is best for deep fat frying. It does not break down as easily during the cooking process. This breakdown gives undesirable products which are hard to digest and gives "off" flavors to the foods.

Lard has a relatively low melting point and a fairly high smoking point, making it a good fat for deep fat frying. Lard also has more shortening power than the vegetable products. Lard will give a more flaky and tender pie crust than an equal amount of vegetable shortening. In fact, you can use about one fourth less lard to get a comparable product.

Bland flavor, high shortening power and high smoking temperature make lard a good buy at any time, but with prices low and the supply plentiful, lard becomes a real bargain in this day of high food prices.

Grapefruit Now Season's Best Buy

Good news from Florida is that the fresh grapefruit crop will peak in April and May, a budget buy for halving and squeezing like oranges since this special crop features small sizes. Pink as well as white grapefruit will be vitamin C bargains; seedless as well as seeded, the kind Floridians prefer for juice and flavor. If you buy grapefruit with seeds for halving and garnishing, before separating the fruit from dividing membrane take a sharp knife and with a circling movement cut through the membrane all around the seeds and lift out core and seeds all at once. Cut around each section, loosening fruit from membrane. Fill center with sliced strawberries, melon balls or any seasonal fruit.

Ham and Egg Nests Tempt Laggard Spring Breakfast Appetites

Spring calls for especially tempting breakfasts. Such breakfasts for your family may be planned around a clever combination of ham and egg nests.

If you purchase a ham slice 1 inch thick or thicker, broil it. For the desired moderate cooking temperature, place the ham slice on the broiler rack adjusted so that the top of the meat is 2 inches from the heat. If a thicker slice, place it farther from the heat. Cook a 1 inch ham slice for 8 to 10 minutes, then turn and finish cooking for this same length of time on the second side.

Thinner ham slices are best panbroiled. Place in a heavy frying-pan and cook over low heat, pouring off the excess drippings in the pan. This method requires about half the time needed for broiling.

To make the egg nests, here's all you do. Separate eggs, one for each serving, then add salt and pepper and beat until stiff but not dry. Next, split and toast English muffins, and spread them with butter or margarine. Pile the egg white on the English muffins, making a depression in the center of each mound to form a nest. Slip an egg yolk in each nest. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) for 12 to 15 minutes or until egg white is lightly browned. Serve with the ham slice in the center of a large platter and the egg nests arranged around it.

If you have a social item or any other local news, phone 1600.

QUICK CINNAMON PECAN ROLLS

- 1 teaspoon melted butter or margarine
 - 1 tablespoon granulated sugar
 - 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
 - 1 tablespoon chopped pecans
 - 8 Brown 'n Serve dinner rolls
- Brush butter over top of each roll. Combine cinnamon and sugar and sprinkle 1/2 teaspoon over each roll. Top with chopped pecans. Bake in a greased shallow pan in a moderate oven for 12 minutes. Serve immediately.

BACON PINWHEELS

Remove crusts from slices of sandwich bread and cut slices in half.

Lay 2 strips of bread lengthwise on a slice of bacon, and then heap grated sharp cheese on bread.

Roll loosely like jelly roll and secure with toothpicks. Place in a pan and bake in 400°F. oven for 12-15 minutes or until crisp.

Allow 3 pinwheels for each serving and serve with salad or soup.

List and Label as You Store

Time spent on labels and lists of articles stored away this spring may be saved many times over later in the year.

Label each bag or box of winter clothing in order of contents as clothes are put away, and then keep a list of what is stored where. At any time when you want to get out one item—a sweater or a wool skirt or shirt for a summer vacation trip perhaps—you won't have to hunt and tumble out all the stored clothes. Next fall you can bring out clothes systematically as you need them.

The easiest and often most efficient way to store winter clothes, blankets or other seasonal items is on the installment plan. First to put away safe against moth damage are the midwinter items—furs, heavy coats and blankets, and snowsuits. Later, as the weather is warmer and the need for lighter wools is over, these can be packed away. By storing little by little you can sandwich these jobs into the regular house work routine.

Or, you may prefer to store as you spring-clean, taking one room at a time, and packing winter clothes from closets and bureau drawers as you clean and spray. Either way, it pays to list and label as you go.

Water is one of the main nutrients in a dairy feeding enterprise. Make sure your cows get plenty. And a warmed supply will pay dividends over the ice cold type.

Timely Tips

It's the little things in life that count, they say . . . and the little things that make homemaking easier, too. Put these in your bag of tricks for future use.

When you need only a little lemon juice, don't cut a full lemon. Roll it first on a hard surface, pierce it twice near one end and squeeze out the amount of juice you need. You end up with the juice and a whole lemon to boot.

That mammoth refrigerator can be moved from its nook for cleaning with ease! First, wet the floor and rub it with soap. Now the giant will simply glide.

Use your head and not your brawn when cleaning greasy stove parts. Just boil them in a deep solution of water and a cup of sal soda. They'll come out slick as new!

By joining an artificial insemination unit, you can eliminate the hazards of keeping a bull on the place. There are only two safe places to keep a bull—one is in a well constructed pen on the farm, the other is in the artificial insemination bull stud.

Try Barbecued Lamb for Dinner

Lavish cooking in a barbecue sauce is a popular way of preparing many lamb cuts. This gives you an opportunity to use your own private recipe for the sauce made with tomatoes, herbs, minced pepper and other condiments.

Lamb cubes you ordinarily use for a lamb stew make a perfect choice for barbecuing. Brown the cubes first, then add the barbecue sauce. Start with from 1/2 to 3/4 cup of the sauce, adding more as needed. Cover the pan and let the meat cook for 1 to 1 1/2 hours. Serve the cubes in sauce, perhaps over rice.

A lamb breast cut into riblets presents one more ideal cut for barbecuing. Braise riblets in the same manner as the lamb stew meat. Lamb shanks are another choice for cooking in a barbecue sauce.

Fishermen Off to Northern Canada

When next week-end rolls around six well known Plymouth citizens will be on their way to their "happy fishing grounds" way up in northern Canada where some of the rivers flow towards Lake Superior and others towards the Hudson Bay. The group, consisting of Don Lightfoot, Frank Terry, Wendell Lent, Gar Evens, Gus Lindquist and Ralph Taylor, will spend a week fishing in the famed Canadian Chapeau Game Reserve where all they've got to do is throw a hook and line into the water and as soon as it sinks under the waves, there's a fish on the hook.

Don Lightfoot and Gar Evens will make the trip by automobile, the Toronto road department having in the past two years completed the building of a road up to Missinobie, a railway station located amid a group of lakes where it is said the fishing is about the best there is left in Canada. The others of the party will go by train to Toronto where they will change to the Canadian Pacific, meeting the other two fishermen who will make the trip by auto at the Game Reserve. They expect to be gone about a week.

Old Time Residents Highly Commend The Charles H. Bennett Plymouth Articles

One of the pleasing as well as interesting incidents that grew out of the publication of the series of articles by Charles H. Bennett recalling the early days of Plymouth has been comments both personally and by letter that Mr. Bennett has received from scores of former and old-time residents of Plymouth.

Mr. Bennett has kindly consented to the publication of three or four out of the many letters he has received about his stories of early Plymouth.

Readers of The Mail will be interested in some of them. The following letter is from Mrs. Theresa Root, now a resident of Clayton, Michigan but for years one of the best known residents of this area: Dear Mr. Bennett—

I will introduce myself at once: I am John Root's widow. John died in '42. We were then living on Ridge road, 9259, where his son now lives. (Henry C. Root)

I desire to tell you how keenly I have enjoyed your articles in the Plymouth Mail. Not only for myself alone, but sharing them, in imagination, with those departed: John, Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Root, and the Loomiss' and Ben Geer, especially.

I have been in the Plymouth vicinity for 47 years. When Mr. Root and I were married in 1928 he immediately began my education of his forebearers, and the historical events in Plymouth with which he was so well acquainted (b 1860). Your contributions became a delightful review. I eagerly awaited your account of Ros, Root, and the post office. He was held in high regard in the Root family. Many times I have had the place where the nice stump, upon which he sank exhausted and died; the sudden death being a great shock to his relatives and his friends.

Did you know John's grandfather was a pseudo lawyer and a member of the first State Legislature when it met in Detroit?

I remember Charlie Shearer's skunks; we drove by their place on our way to and from Plymouth. I also recall that my fifteen year old son hopped over a fence in the dusk of evening, thinking he was picking up his cat. He almost duplicated your experience; only his mother was not at the door but in response to his rap, and then came the procedure; a bath in the shop (NOT SOFT-SOAP did not have any) and buried clothes and averted noses.

I have clipped all you have presented to us of your delightful memories, and wondered to whom I should send them. First, I thought of Rev. and Mrs. Richard Neale, now in Wheaton, Ill. Remember? They lived in your home and the "Calvary Baptist" church held their first assemblies there. Now the church is well established at the corner of Elizabeth and Ann Arbor Trail. (910 University Place, Wheaton, Ill.)

But today it occurs to me how much Floss (Taft) Lair would appreciate them. More than any one I know of. She was here in 1940, I think, and you entertained her. I believe? She writes me at least once a year, and sends interesting news print accounts of wonderful California. Was it her mother who married Mrs. Bennett's brother? I am dubious about that, it's hard to remember too many details, without John to correct me.

If your recollections are to be printed, you might prefer to send her a copy of your book yourself. Her address is:

Mrs. J. B. Lair (Florence)
5712 La Mirada Ave.
Hollywood 38, California

Again thanking you for many pleasant, interesting hours. Sincerely,

Theresa S. Root
(Mrs. John F.)

Another letter came from Mrs. Thomas E. Rooney, now a resident of Omaha, Nebraska. It follows:

Honorable Sir—
I congratulate you on the very, very interesting story of your life in Plymouth from your birth, June 27, 1863 to date and hope you may live much longer retaining your present vigor and happiness.

From the date some years ago, when I moved from Detroit to Plymouth, I walked the streets to see the beautiful homes, schools, churches and business and industrial establishments, to enjoy the well laid out nice streets and find fault with those not so good, to figure and plan for widening narrow ones, straighten crooked ones and plan new ones.

I ever grew so bold as to suggest a method to pursue that would have, quite some time ago, averted the present terrible mess arrived on Main street.

And only recently I wrote the new "Ten Year Planning Committee" restating the same plan with very slight changes, which, I believe, would divert "One half" of that bottleneck traffic a different way across town for what it will cost for a 120' Main street.

I did not mean to write this long discourse when I sat down but only to ask if you would be willing to answer a few questions about Plymouth that were aroused in my mind by your story or which have been in my mind unanswered for some time?

In closing I would thank you again for the good story. Very respectfully yours,

Thos. E. Rooney
5402 Izard

P.S.—My grandfather, who died at Fremont, Michigan in 1894, was 109 years 2 months and five days old. You remember how they, in those days, always put that data on the head stones in the old graveyards?

Mrs. Isabelle Williams of Gyde road was inspired to tell one of her early experiences by Mr. Bennett's article. In her letter to Mr. Bennett she relates an experience she had while living in Saskatchewan, Canada, which will prove of more than ordinary interest to the hundreds of former owners of race horses now living in this vicinity. The letter follows:

Dear Mr. Bennett—

I have had so much real pleasure out of your write ups—I tho't you might like to hear one of my "horse stories"—While out in Saskatchewan, the Canadian Northwest we had to drive two and a half miles to post a letter on the morning train if we were in haste for a reply. I had done so frequently with our "Don", a pacer off the Toronto race track. This morning I am telling you of, Don ran just as if he were on the track. I could not hold him back, friends tho't him running away. But as I looked way across the prairie I could see the smoke of the train. Don made it exactly with the train, he walked every step back. He would not trot unless I had used the whip and you know I did not. I note you like to be funny too, so I'm going to spoil that nice true story above by telling you a true cow story. "A very nasty one." I was very young "18" when I married and afraid of cows. My husband told me they were all tied, he did not say he would untie the first one he milked to see what I might do, he found out. But, oh! my, so did I.

It was late spring, I had been asked to have dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Cal Wheeler of Salem because a relative of mine was the family doctor guest they had from Grand Rapids. Like a very young girl I had worn the very nicest clothes and slippers I had. I'll explain first the sun had baked the ground all the same color, when that cow backed up, I tho't it could run faster than I probably so—oh! oh! I jumped out that little side door where they cleaned the stable out and sunk to my knees, as far as I know those lovely slippers and stockings are still part of the Cal Wheeler farm. The very last straw was Cal Wheeler looked around the corner of the barn and said, "Well Judith Priest." I still visit his son and wife at Salem.

When I was a child I was taken out on a farm where the cows were all around and was so frightened a few days after I was walking on an outskirt street of the city of London, Ontario and a man stepped off on the grass to pass me and I must have been thinking of cows for I shouted "huwey". He looked at me and laughed and I said, "I'm sorry, I tho't you were a cow."

My! for a pen like yours to tell a story. I hope you will like my first story though improperly written. I might excuse myself by saying my age, "79", but the truth is I'm not clever.

Well now, I never wrote a letter without signing my name, but oh! my! writing to the President of the Daisy Co. and I only an obscure old lady here on Gyde road. But my principal says I must sign my name to any letter I write so—Sincerely yours,

Isobelle Williams
R. R. 1 Gyde Rd.
Plymouth, Michigan

Karl Starkweather, a local resident, pays tribute to Mr. Bennett for the accuracy and interesting information he has revealed in the series which was published. Mr. Starkweather's letter follows:

Dear Mr. Bennett—
This is to add my own delayed plaudits to the other compliments which you have no doubt recently received. I refer, of course, to your sparkling memoirs of old Plymouth. Eight units of them, I believe, have so far appeared in as many issues of the Plymouth Mail. This is believed to be the first time that Plymouth citizens have ever been treated with anywhere near so full and entertaining a narrative concerning their town of the dim and distant past.

By the way, Mr. Bennett, just why have you been hiding such talent under a bushel all these years? We just now seem to have discovered that we have a Mark Twain or an Irvin S. Cobb living in our midst. We had long known, of course, of your good worth to the community, of your career in industry and about your lifetime of public spiritedness and all that, but here is a new one.

Indeed—what you are giving us now is more than mere narration of a full and interesting past. Along with the facts you have also interwoven a plentiful supply of finely drawn good nature and wholesome merriment. Yes, this is a new pleasure and satisfaction which you have given us. Not only that, but that which you have written for us here and now will be read again by Plymouth children as yet unborn and yet again by theirs.

Within a few days I will hope to write again with some additional comment. I may have some comment to make on certain of your already published articles and I may also venture a suggestion or two concerning one or more additional units which you might be willing to serve us with. Incidentally, thanks for your recognition of the Starkweather family in your articles.

Very sincerely,
Karl Starkweather

Enroll Tots Now for Kindergarten

Anticipating one of the largest kindergarten enrollments in the history of the Plymouth Public Schools, Superintendent of Schools Russell L. Isbister, has set the date for next year's kindergarten children to enroll.

Registration will be held for all those living in the Bird School district from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday, May 13, at the Bird School. Those planning on attending the Smith School will register on Tuesday, May 20, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Smith School. While those in the Starkweather District will register at the Starkweather School Thursday, May 22, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

It is requested that the parent please bring the child's birth certificate along. Only those children who become 5 years of age on or before December 1, 1952, will be permitted to register.

Because of the large enrollments expected, Mr. Isbister says it is very important that all kindergarten children be enrolled on the above respective dates, so plans can be made for the opening of kindergarten classes in September.

Plymouth Streets To Be Oiled Soon

The city commission, upon recommendation of the city manager, A. F. Glassford, approved the expenditure of $1500 for street oiling.

This is the surplus from last year's allotment for dust control. Oil, not atr, will be used for the program.

The entire program should not take very long, and we plan on starting it as soon as possible, stated Mr. Glassford.

The commission also passed a resolution to construct new sidewalk on Harvey street, Simpson street, and on South Main from Edison on the East and Simpson on the West to Ann Arbor road. Property owners will be given 15 days to construct the sidewalk. If it is not done by the owner, the city will pour the concrete and charge the property owner.

Mayor of Northville Doesn't Forget Warden Gillies on Birthday

Mayor Conrad Langfield of Northville seems to have a habit of never forgetting important days in the lives of his friends. That's how it happened one day last week that Warden and Mrs. A. Blake Gillies were dinner guests of Mayor and Mrs. Langfield at the Detroit Athletic Club on the prison official's birthday.

Vera Brown, rated as probably the best among all Detroit newspaper columnists, had the following comment in her "Our Times" column in The Detroit Times, about the pleasing event:

"Cake and Candles—A quiet party last night at the DAC with Northville's vanilla king, Connie Langfield and his wife, as host and hostess.

They entertained Blake Gillies, head of the House of Correction, and his wife. The occasion was Blake's birthday. First time he's been away from his prison in many a day. He is housing some of the Jackson prison rioters.

Merchants Team Splits Two Games in Inter-County

The Inter-County league began its season a week ago last Sunday when the 16 teams in the Red and Blue divisions played their first games of the current season.

The local representative, The Plymouth Merchants in the Blue division, dropped a tough one in the opener to the Teamsters Local of Detroit, 6 to 3 in 10 innings.

Pete Collura, who hurled for Plymouth two years ago, pitched this game.

In the second game, last Sunday, the Merchants defeated Grandale 6 to 0, on some snappy pitching from Collura and Manager Warren Bassett. Collura started the game and tossed the first inning, but went out at that point with hand trouble. Manager Bassett came on in the second and did an excellent job the rest of the route, as he mowed the batters down somewhat like he did a few years ago.

Warren allowed only 3 scattered hits the 8 innings he toiled on the mound.

The Merchants team scored 1 run in the first, 2 in the second, 2 in the fourth and 1 in the sixth inning. They collected a total of 9 hits, which were evenly divided among several players.

This Sunday, the home fans will be treated to some high-class baseball at Riverside Park when the Merchants meet a fast Gamble Post team from Detroit.

These games all start at three o'clock.

Rock Nine Takes Third Straight

Another victory was recorded by the high school nine last Friday when they trounced Redford Union by a 11 to 2 score. This was the third straight 6-B league win for Coach Gorguza's boys.

After losing the first two to Bentley and Belleville, they have handed defeats to Allen Park, Trenton and Redford Union.

The Rocks scored once in the second, four times in the fourth, once in the sixth and five runs in the seventh. Redford Union scored their two runs in the first inning when they garnered half of their four hits.

Ron Ritter led Plymouth at the plate connecting for three hits, Russell Brown and Casey Cavell each had two, and Bud Lanphear, Dick Huebler and Bill Runge had one each.

Bill Runge pitched the distance allowing only 4 hits, walking only 1 batter, and striking out 5 men. Plymouth made only 3 errors.

The high school lads have been hitting the ball to all corners lately and as a result have raised their batting average to a lofty .280 having made 49 hits in 177 times at bat.

Tomorrow Plymouth journeys to Belleville for a return engagement with the Tigers. Belleville defeated the Rocks 8 to 1 in the first encounter, and are holding down first place in the league standings with no defeats in competition this season.

Tuesday the local nine travel to Trenton—they won easily from the Trojans here the first time the two teams met.

Three Close Ones in Grade League

There were three thrill-packed games in the grade school softball league last week.

In the first, Smith downed Catholic in an exciting contest 5 to 4. Catholic scored three runs in the first inning and had the bases loaded with only one out, but could not score another run. Their last run was scored in the second. Smith scored twice in the first, once in the second, and the two winning runs in the third inning.

Bird School won a pitchers battle from Starkweather 2 to 1 by scoring once in the second and fourth innings. The losers scored their lone run in the first.

Misner hurled a splendid game for the winners and Jones was the loser.

The Bird boys also edged the Catholic lads 8 to 7 in another game. Turkett had three hits for the winners, and Isbister, Curtis, and Dzurus two each. Klinske smashed out two home runs and a triple for the losers.

The standings as of May 9 are as follows:

	W	L
Smith	3	2
Starkweather	3	2
Luthfan	2	2
Catholic	2	3
Bird	2	3

Golfers Split in Two Matches

The local high school golfers split two matches last week when they easily outstroked Allen Park to win by a total score of 187 to 244 on Monday.

Ralph Walch was again low for the Rocks when he came in in 42 strokes. He was followed by Tyler Caplin with a 46. Fred Benson with a 48 and Larry Jolliffe with a 51.

Tuesday saw the linkmen dropping a close one to Redford Union by six strokes. The final outcome was in doubt until the last hole had been completed. Redford Union won 179 to 185.

Ralph Walch completed the nine holes in 45, Fred Benson had a 46, and Larry Jolliffe and Tyler Caplin each had a 47.

Today the boys meet Bentley here, and this coming Saturday they will participate in the state regional meet.

Court Men Easily Defeat Bentley

The tennis team split two more meets last week when River Rouge won 5 to 2, while the Rocks downed Bentley 6 to 1.

River Rouge took advantage of one of the Rock netters being on the senior trip to win. Plymouth had defeated them earlier when at full strength.

Brian Kidston and Chris Kruger won the only matches the locals were able to take—both in singles play. The other singles players, Dale Behler and Ronald Wendland lost.

All the doubles combinations lost—they were, Krump and Hoenecke, Whipple and Root, and Rossow and VanWagoner.

In the Bentley meet, Plymouth won all the singles matches, Behler, Kruger, Kidston and Wendland all won. Hoenecke and Krump won in doubles, as did Whipple and Root, but Rossow and VanWagoner lost their match.

Robert Anthony Victor in Dashes

In a letter to track coach Konrad Moiso, former high school track star, Robert Anthony, says he won first places in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes in a Post meet at Fort Devens, Massachusetts. He won the 100 in the good time of 10 seconds flat, and the 220 in 23.1 seconds. This made him eligible to compete in the First Army championships at Fort Dix, New Jersey. At this meet all 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners will go to the Olympic trials in California.

Bob graduated from Plymouth High school in 1950, and was a stellar athlete in football and track. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anthony of Cadillac road.

Bob is in the army now and his address is Pfc. Robert Anthony, R.A. 16355296, 853rd. Comm. Recon. Det. 8622AAU, Fort Devens, Massachusetts.

Tennis Team Defeats Berkley

The improving tennis team of the high school won an important match last week Tuesday, when they bested a good Berkley team four matches to three.

In singles play, Dale Behler won in straight sets, and Brian Kidston won on a forfeit. Hans Kruger and Ronald Wendland lost their matches.

The doubles combination of John Wohn and Ronald Krump won, as did that of Kurt Hoenecke and Elmer Whipple. Dick Root and Edwin Rossow lost in doubles play.

The squad lost Bob Nulty for two weeks when he injured his back.

Coach John McFall is busy preparing his squad for the 6-B League meet this coming Saturday.

Local Merchants Sponsor Ball Club

Plymouth is represented again this year in the Inter-County baseball league, because 14 local sports-minded merchants put up the necessary funds to operate a team in this fast league.

The hundreds of baseball fans in this league should appreciate the efforts of the following merchants for endeavoring to give them some top-notch entertainment in the grand American game of baseball for the summer months.

Latture's Real Estate, First National Bank, Cloverdale Dairy, Stop and Shop Supermarket, Molnar Electric Motors, Dann's Tavern, McAllister Bros. Beer and Wine, Norman and Burley Sinclair, Hubbs and Gillis Electric, Beglinger Olds, Davis and Lent Sport Shop, Parkside Bar, Box Bar, and the Schrader Funeral Home.

The league is divided into two divisions, a Red and a Blue, each division having eight teams. The Plymouth Merchants will play in the Blue division. Other teams in his same one are Clarenceville, Wayne, Ypsilanti, Grandale, Northville, Gamble Post VFW, and Teamsters Local AFL 247. The latter two are from Detroit.

The Red Division has the Detroit Merchants, Pine Tree Inn, Taylor Township Merchants, Centerline, Five Points, Walled Lake VFW, River Rouge and Bodker Dairy all-stars. The latter team is composed mostly of former Bentley and Redford Union high school players, and will play all their home games at Riverside Park.

The highest 4 teams in each division will be eligible for the playoffs, which begin July 27. The winner of the playoffs will go to Youngstown, Ohio, to compete in the national tournament the Saturday after Labor Day.

All home games of the Plymouth Merchants will be played at Riverside Park beginning at three o'clock on Sunday. This coming Sunday, the locals meet Gamble Post at Riverside.

Second-Guessers Want to Manage?

Here is a chance for all the second-guessers of baseball managers decisions to do the job themselves. If you want to manage a boys summer baseball team in the city recreation league this summer, you can get a job very easily.

Herbert Woolweaver, city recreational director needs managers for all age groups. Select your preferred age group and call him at the office in the city hall—2075 is the telephone number.

These games are played in the evening.

Frosh Track Lads Take Trenton Win

The future track stars of Plymouth High school won a meet from Trenton Frosh last week 50 to 35.

Of the 10 events, Plymouth won only 4, but piled up many points by gaining seconds and thirds for their margin of victory.

First places were scored by Baskins in the high jump at 4 feet 8 inches, Hamlin in the broad jump with a leap of 16 feet 4 inches, Danol in the 880 with a time of 2:19. The 440 was scratched so Danol ran the 880 for the first time. The Rock 440 yard relay team also won a first.

Baskins was high point man with 12 points on a first, two seconds and a third. Danol and Hamlin each contributed 8 points.

High School Team Guests of Tigers

Twenty-eight members of the high school baseball team, along with their coach, Gustave Gorguza, attended the annual baseball clinic sponsored jointly by the Michigan High School Athletic Association and the Detroit Baseball company.

Over 6000 high school players were present at the morning baseball school conducted by Tiger Manager Red Rolfe. After a two hour clinic on just about every phase of the game, the pupils were guests of the Tiger management at the Chicago and Detroit baseball game.

Each year a few Tiger players give tips to the boys at this school. This year Manager Rolfe was assisted by Diz Trout, Bob Swift, George Kell, Ben Taylor, Neil Berry, George Lerchen, Coaches Rick Ferrell and Ted Lyons, and Trainer Jack Homel.

Allen Park Runs to Track Victory

In the last meet before the state regional meet, the high school track team dropped a meet to Allen Park 61 to 48. Two good sprinters, Heslop and Thayer, of Allen Park, and two fairly good hurdlers made the difference in the score. The sprinters turned in some remarkable times in the dashes, when Thayer ran the 220 in 22.5 seconds, which would have been a track record if a strong wind had not been at his back. Heslop won the 100 in 10.5 seconds. Kelly, of Plymouth, was third in both dashes.

The Rocks won 5 first places to 8 for Allen Park. First were scored by the Plymouth Medley relay team, Balogh in the mile, Nyhus in the shot put, Becker in the 880, and Bill Bush in the broad jump.

Besides the dashes, good marks were made in the shot put and pole vault. Nyhus made his best heave of the year when he put the iron ball 43 feet 1 inch. King of Allen Park vaulted 11 feet to beat Ottensman by 6 inches.

Ottensman was high point man for Plymouth with 7 points on a second, a tie for second, and two thirds.

Ralph Wagenschutz was still out of this meet, but is expected to run in the regional meet. James Blanton is out for the remainder of the season with scarlet fever. Jim was counted on to pick up 3 points at the league meet in the mile.

The regional meet will be staged in Ann Arbor this coming Saturday with the preliminaries scheduled for 10 a.m., and the finals at 1:30 p.m. The meet will be held at the Ann Arbor High School Wines field.

Frosh Wins First Two Ball Games

Coach Charles Ketterer's frosh baseball team opened the season in a big way as they trounced the Trenton frosh 14 to 0. The young Rocks made their 14 runs on 9 hits and many Trenton errors.

Bob Middleton chucked a two-hitter for Plymouth, and struck out six while walking only three.

Dick Day and Jim Zukosky led the attack with 3 hits each. Ken Pelchat, Tom Rutherford and Chuck McKenna each had one hit.

Plymouth scored in every inning but the fourth and last, and counted 5 times in the third.

In the second game of the season, the local frosh edged Allen Park 10 to 9 in two extra innings. The ninth graders had tied it up at 8 and 8 in the sixth inning, and Allen Park scored one run in the ninth to go ahead, but Plymouth came back with two runs in the bottom half to win 10 to 9.

Pelchat walked in the ninth, Luker was hit by a pitched ball, and then Rutherford smacked a long double down the right field foul line to score the winning runs and end the game.

Bob Middleton started on the mound for Plymouth, but gave way to Dick Day in the second, when Allen Park scored 8 runs. Day allowed only 1 run and 2 hits the next 7 innings. He also contributed a home run with two men on base in the third inning.

White, the young Allen Park flinger, allowed only 4 hits and struck out 12 men, but his wildness cost him the win. Twelve Rocks got free passes to first base.

Tomorrow the frosh play Northville at home.

Girls Softball Organized

A young girl's softball team called the "Parkview Blue Jays" has been organized in the city. Mrs. Jennie Donnelly and Mr. Dudley are coaches of the team. The girls will be sponsored by the Parkview recreation.

Practices are held three nights a week, and after the close of school, the lasses will play teams from other nearby towns. The first game will be played June 17.

Mary Ellen Sparks and Joan Donnelly were elected co-captains of the team.

Baseball Team Finds Stick Power . . .

The high school baseball team sharpened up their batting eyes last week, and as a result won two games. They defeated Trenton 16 to 9, when they exploded for 10 runs in the fourth inning. They were behind 6 to 5 when the inning began, but before it was over 10 runs had crossed the plate, and most of them after two men were out.

"Bud" Lanphear led the 12 hit attack when he contributed 3 hits, Phil Straub had 2 hits, and every other man made one hit. Ron Bender smacked a triple, and Ron Ritter and Russell Brown each had doubles.

Bill Runge pitched all the way to register his first victory of the season.

Last Friday the Rocks defeated Allen Park in a close thriller 5 to 3, when the locals pushed four runs across the platter in the sixth inning.

In the sixth inning Plymouth made 5 of their 10 hits. McKinley opened with a single, Gohard followed with another single, Bill McKenna also singled scoring McKinley. Lanphear struck out, but Brown singled scoring Ritter and Bender flied out to left field scoring Gohard—Straub kept the rally going when he singled home Brown, and Cavell popped to first to end the inning. Coach Gorguza inserted two pinch-hitters in this frame, Gohard and McKenna, and they both came through with singles.

The improving Rocks made 10 hits and only 3 errors.

Woolley was the winning pitcher even though he left the game at the end of the fifth. Finney did an excellent 2 inning relief job.

Officials Plan Paving on Many Streets in City

The City Commission approved of special assessments for street improvements on 12 streets at the recent meeting held in the city hall. Many of these streets are not completed, and some have not been started, but it is customary in other cities to collect the first payment of the special assessment rolls, in order that it may be determined the amount of bonds to be issued against the special assessments.

Some property owners may want to pay the total balance and thus save the interest expense. Others may want to pay on 5 or 10 year installments, which ever the case may be, and these are the ones the city wants to know, in order to determine the amount of bonds to issue.

For that reason, the first payment is now due, and the property owners will be billed within 30 days for their share.

Two are for a maximum of five year installments—Elizabeth from Roe to W. Ann Arbor trail for curb and gutter, and the other is Fralick for a sidewalk on the south side of the street.

The others are all for 10 year installments—Fralick, a concrete pavement; Fairground from W. Ann Arbor trail to Fair, a 12 inch storm sewer; Evergreen from Penniman to Blanche, curb, gutter and bituminous concrete; Fairground from Ann Arbor trail to Fair, curb and gutter; Fralick from Harvey to Main, concrete pavement and 2 inch bituminous concrete recap; Wing, Pine, Joy, Deer to a point 170 feet east of Pine, curb, gutter, bituminous concrete; Sunset from Penniman to Blanche, curb and gutter; Sunset from Farmer to Junction, bituminous concrete pavement; Sunset from Penniman to Farmer, bituminous concrete pavement; Jener from Brush to Maple, sanitary sewer; Jener from Brush to Maple, water main.

The country is filled with places where men can learn how to earn money, but there is no place where women may be taught how to spend it.

Harold Cheek in Headlines Again

Civic "headaches" seem to trail former City Manager Harold Cheek who had plenty of them while serving as city manager of Plymouth.

A few days ago newspaper dispatches from Niagara Falls, New York, said that more than 600 "sick" employees of that city had been fired by City Manager Cheek.

A New York state law prohibits strikes on the part of city employees and under the provisions of the law, the administrative official must fire all of the municipal employees who go on strike.

It seems that most of the hourly workers of the city of Niagara Falls had for nearly a week been reporting in every morning as "sick" and thereby not showing up for work.

They have been demanding a 15 cent an hour increase. The city commission had offered a slight increase, but the workers figured that they wanted all that they ask for—and as a result got the "axe". City Manager Cheek had issued an order that all who did not show up for work on a certain morning would be fired.

Some 50 or more did show up and thereby saved their jobs, but some 600 are out.

The newspaper dispatches said that Niagara Falls was the second New York state city to invoke the state law passed some years ago.

After leaving Plymouth, Mr. Cheek secured a position as city manager of Lexington, Kentucky, but soon after was offered the position as city manager of the industrial city of Niagara Falls in western New York state, where he has been for the past few years.

Roger Babson Says---

Babson Discusses Savings
Babson Park, Mass., May 15. The man in the street has done as much this year to stop inflation and stabilize our currency as all the government regulations put together. I wonder if the average American realizes how much he has helped to curb inflation through restraining his urge to spend and by voluntary saving? He has done a job that ought to make the front pages of every paper in the country. I say this because only through a program of natural, voluntary savings can America keep strong.

Politicians Steal the Credit
You can be sure that in this election year the politicians will be taking the credit for what you have done. They will tell you that inflation has been slowed to a standstill by their price and wage controls, their heavy tax program, and their tightening of consumer credit. No one of us is going to be stupid enough to deny that an aspirin or a Seltzer may help a headache. But unless we are very stupid indeed, we realize the aspirin is only a sedative, not a cure. A look at the record since the close of the war shows the politician to be a good hawk-er of patent cure-alls but a mighty poor diagnostician.

Sometimes, after awakening from an overdose of drugs, the hang-over which follows is worse than the pain one first endured. As a result, the American people have lost confidence in the politician's patent medicines and have decided to try an old-fashioned remedy—THRIFT. This old-fashioned remedy is producing some phenomenal results. It has actually caused a halt in the inflation epidemic.

The Real Story About Savings
Through voluntary savings our people more than doubled their 1951 savings over 1950, putting better than $22 billion into the sock. At the same time, consumer debt held steady for 1951; only 34 per cent of disposable income after taxes, and but 32 per cent of savings. Yet, the same potential to spend was there.

More people are earning more money than in any previous postwar year; incomes are better for 25 million families. They could have gone on a spending spree, but they didn't. My guess is that they didn't because the average man has lost faith in the politician and his panaceas. He is wondering if he can keep afloat if prices go much higher. So he is beginning to put a little money aside for harder times. He is less and less inclined to mortgage his future for a TV set or a new car. People everywhere who have good wages ought to continue to save as much as they can while the going is good.

How is the Money Being Saved?
Bank accounts and savings bonds are still the most popular places to save money. This last year the nation's 529 mutual savings banks reported an all-time high in new savings accounts, with 3 million more accounts. Despite this exceptionally good year for the banks, there is a trend away from the banks, and a trend away from buying U. S. Savings Bonds. The number of families that have become interested in mutual investment trusts and other stocks has trebled in the last couple of years, while the number who have put their savings into real estate has increased about 80 per cent.

I hope that small investors who are now buying stocks for the first time will not be disappointed. The high prices at which most popular stocks are now selling are danger signals. The small saver, especially, should know that at only one point in history (1929-30) were stocks selling higher than they are today, and he should remember well what happened then!

It's Time To Be Careful
I am not predicting a stock market crash. I am merely warning that the risk factor of buying stocks increases as the prices of stocks advance. This risk is further accentuated by unstable world conditions and the uncertainties of an election year. It, therefore, might be wise to take profits and put them into savings banks and government bonds. This would enable you to set aside a nest egg now so that it will be ready for use when prices drop. Whatever you do, save. The great need for strengthening our national economy today—and for keeping it strong for years to come—is voluntarily enforced savings. Join the parade of savers, today—even though the political outlook appears better.

Poppy Day

As members of the Passage-Gayde American Legion Auxiliary, we know the Poppy story, as do the other veteran organizations, but we are wondering if you, the public, know the story.

The custom of wearing poppies in honor of the war dead sprang from World War I, when the little red flowers grew between the crosses in the war cemeteries in Europe. The flowers have come to symbolize sacrifice of life for America where ever it occurred. We wear the flowers for those who died in the Far Pacific in World War II, as well as those who gave their lives in the European theater where the poppy is a native wild flower. And now we wear them too, for the dead of the Korean conflict.

Poppies were first worn to honor the nation's war dead in 1918. The custom of contributing to the welfare of war's living victims, in exchange for the flowers was begun the following year.

The disabled veterans of both world wars in veterans hospitals throughout the nation are working to complete the thirty million memorial poppies which we will wear on Poppy Day. Veterans who are unable to perform other work, have been given employment by the American Legion Auxiliary in its poppy hobby shops in hospitals of the Veterans Administration. Many have been employed at special poppy workrooms maintained by the Auxiliary in several states. With more than 1,500 Korean War Veterans now in veterans hospitals, it is probable that some of the poppies this year have been made by men disabled in that conflict too.

To men who have been confined to the hospitals for months or even years, the work is a godsend. It fills the long, monotonous hospital hours with an interesting activity, keeping hands and minds busy and turning thoughts away from themselves. Some apparently hopeless cases have been started on the road to recovery by making poppies.

The materials are supplied by the Auxiliary, and the veterans are paid regularly out of Auxiliary funds. Everyone who wears a poppy on Poppy Day, helps these veterans while honoring their fallen comrades.
