What I Think and Have A Right to Say

By ELTON R. EATON

JUST AN IDEA TO THINK OVER.

Every resident of Plymouth, and any one who finds it necessary to come to this city to do his banking business, see his doctor or do his "trading" for the family, is interested in our serious parking situation. Because Plymouth is like most growing municipalities, restricted by boundaries created back in the days when the city had just emerged from being known as "Plymouth Corners," its parking problem is really a difficult one to solve.

We have made some progress. We must make more—and before expressing our idea as to what we propose for consideration—we have a word of warning to issue. Let's keep from creating any hard feelings as the result of the arguments we must necessarily pass through in reaching a solution. We can have our differences, but let's not get "mad" if every one doesn't agree with us.

Well—back to what Yours Truly was going to suggest. Here it is, and don't get "mad" if you don't agree with it and think it impractical.

Main street between Penniman avenue and Ann Arbor Trail is an exceptionally wide street. Penniman avenue, running along the north side of Kellogg park between Main street and Ann Arbor trail is also another wide street.

We've been walking around and through the park and along its edges for years. A while back the idea came to Yours Truly that we could easily create a lot more parking space on Main street without interfering with through traffic, the fire lanes or anything else if—

We removed the sidewalk along the east side of Main street and moved it back into the park just east of that row of trees that sets some 15 or 20 feet back from the present street curbing. Then we could move the curbing back to a proper distance, thereby adding some 20 or more feet to the width of Main street.

This would permit angle parking on both sides of the street—and also enable Plymouth to do as hundreds of other cities do throughout the country, permit parking for a row of cars in the middle of Main street.

That would leave more space for both north and south bound traffic than most cities now possess. It would enable the parking of some 40 or 50 more cars on Main street. To gain more room even the unnecessarily wide sidewalk along the west side of the street could be cut back four or five feet.

By moving the sidewalk inside the row of trees along the north side of the park on Penniman avenue, some 10 or 15 feet could be added to the width of that street, thereby permitting angle parking on both sides of this street.

By doing these things we can still retain all of our beautiful Kellogg park. All we would be doing is simply widening the streets on two sides of the park, as has been done at various times in past years. The plan does involve some street paving expense as well as rebuilding some sidewalks. But it does not involve any land purchases and does make available MORE downtown parking space.

Think it over—and don't get mad at anybody if you don't agree with the proposal. We do think it is worthy of some consideration and it would permit the parking of a lot more cars right in the heart of the business center of fast growing Plymouth.

THEY SHOULD RESIGN — OR BE KICKED OUT.

The three dizzy female members of the Detroit board of education who insisted the name of Detroit and the people of Michigan by refusing to permit Detroit public school children the opportunity to see General MacArthur on his visit to that city last Friday, should be forced to resign from the board or they should be kicked out. How characters of this type can be elected to public office in any city is more than one can understand.

General MacArthur will for centuries stand out as the greatest military and civic leader of the present century. It had been proposed that the Detroit public schools close for the Friday afternoon session so that Detroit's public school children could join with the children of the parochial schools in seeing the great General and his wife as they visited various parts of Detroit.

But it was within the power of three women, who in some way hoodwinked the people of Detroit into electing them to the school board, to keep the public school children from an experience they would remember as long as they live.

What they could have been thinking of by refusing to grant the thousands of Detroit's children this opportunity is more than one can understand—but why should one try to figure out what goes through the minds of such characters? It is simply a waste of time. Maybe Detroiters will soon begin to understand why the public holds in such low estimation our metropolitan city's public school system.

WELCOME BACK TO THE JOB, MR. PEGLER!

Glad to note in Monday's Detroit Times that Westbrook Pegler is back on the job following a period of rest necessitated by a recent operation. Mr. Pegler is one of the not too many American newspaper columnists possessing enough courage to tell the people of this country where the real threats to America exist. He has done much to expose the goon labor leaders who are growing rich and fat off the "cut" they take out of the wages of American working people. He has been fearless in laying bare the crooked politicians in Washington and elsewhere. Yours Truly happens to be just one of a very large number of people, in this vicinity, at least, who is enthusiastic in welcoming Mr. Pegler back on the job.

WHY NOT RUN IN YOUR OWN DISTRICT?

Had "official" notice the other day that Detroit City Councilman Charles Oakman of Detroit has become a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from this district.

Mr. Oakman plans to move from the present congressional district in which he lives in Detroit to run in the 17th, which has remained in the Republican column during all the hectic days of New Deals, Crooked Deals and Phony Fair Deals.

There is a Democratic congressman in Mr. Oakman's home district. Why do you run away from a fight with him Mr. Oakman? If you remained in your own balivick and licked one of the goose-stepping Phony Dealers, you would be doing a far greater service to the state of Michigan than by trying to get yourself elected to Congress in a sure-fire Republican district.

It seems to me that if your record in the Detroit city council has been satisfactory to the people of the congressional district in which you live, that it wouldn't be too tough a job to give one of the many Phonies Detroit has been sending to Washington as congressmen a good, old-fashioned trimming in the forthcoming election.

School Work Exhibited

Counsel school will be on exhibit on Tuesday, May 27. The public and friends are invited to come to the school and view the work of the children.

PLYMOUTH'S FOURTH OF JULY COMMITTEE isn't wasting a minute of time in making its plans for the gala celebration to be held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 3, 4 and 5. General chairman Marvin Terry, left front, discusses entertainment locations as Chamber secretary Nat Sibbold points out spots for various activities. Chamber president Harry Roberts who is looking at the program chart says that from early indications there is no reason why this year's celebration won't be greater than any ever held in the city. The High School football field furnishes both the setting for this picture and also the place for the celebration.

Death of Two Well Known Residents Shocks Community Wednesday Morning

Local Jeweler is Found Dead in Bed by Police After Disappearance From Store

Deane Herrick, well known local jeweler, was found dead in his bed at his residence, 166 E. Ann Arbor trail, Wednesday morning by local police. Called by employees of his store at 839 Penniman avenue at 10 a.m., because he hadn't shown up for work, police opened the home and found him in his bedroom. He had left the store Tuesday morning and failed to return causing some concern in the minds of his employees who reported his absence on Wednesday.

He was in good health and no immediate cause of the death was reported. The body was removed to the Wayne County morgue in Detroit late Wednesday.

Mrs. Herrick and her two children, Sue Ellen, nine, and Carol Leitha, four, were visiting with Mrs. Herrick's mother and father in Buckley, Michigan when notified of the death.

Mr. Herrick, who was 35 years old, operated three jewelry stores. The one in Plymouth and one each in Northville and South Lyon. He had been in business here for 12 years. No funeral arrangements had been made at this writing.

Ann Arbor Gives Real Welcome to New Stop & Shop

Opening of the new Stop and Shop store in Ann Arbor Tuesday evening though it was a rainy day, went far beyond all expectations of the store owners who spent the day welcoming Ann Arbor residents to the newest and one of the most progressive food stores in that city.

It is estimated that considerably over 8,000 people visited the store during the day. So crowded was the store at times that it was necessary to close the doors for brief periods.

Customers commented on what splendid bargains were offered, and they were pleased, too, with the cordiality and cooperation of the clerks. The store, located on South Main street, is beautifully decorated and arranged in the most modern way.

The Truckers returned to Plymouth Tuesday evening highly pleased with the welcome they received on their venture into Ann Arbor business circles.

Plymouthites to Compete in Horse Show on June 1

On Sunday, June 1 at Northville Downs, the 4th annual Northville Junior Horse Show will get under way with a record entry for the big junior event.

The Plymouth Optimist Club is participating in the show with the ticket sale under the direction of Edward Houghtaling, Ronald Cobb and Sam Dibble. The show is sponsored by the Northville Optimist Club.

Top junior performers from all over the state will be on hand for the competition. Returning for a repeat performance will be all of last year's Northville Champions, Ann Jensen, Birmingham, Junior Champion, Janet Porath, Detroit, Western Champion, and Joyce McManus, English Seat Champion and winner of the H. B. Clark Memorial Challenge Trophy will be contesting such good riders as Marie Jo DeWitt, Grand Rapids, Michigan English Seat Champion, Frank Duff of (Continued on Page 6)

Mrs. K. R. Smith Dies After Operation

Residents of the community were shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Kermit R. Smith at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor on Wednesday morning. The 42 year old Plymouth matron underwent an operation Saturday and failed to rally satisfactorily over the weekend. Doctors held little hope for her recovery Tuesday night and she passed away early Wednesday morning.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Guest of Detroit and the niece of Edgar Guest, well known Detroit Free Press poet. She is survived by her husband, Kermit Smith, production superintendent of the letter press division of the Wolf Detroit Envelope Company and a daughter, Susan, six, and a son Wayne, 15. A brother, Percy Jr., of Birmingham also survives her.

Devoted to her family and friends she had few activities outside of her home other than the Presbyterian church where she has been one of its most loyal workers. She was born in Detroit in 1910, Elizabeth Guest, and was married in 1935 in the same city. Her birthday was Tuesday. They came to Plymouth in 1936 and made their home on south Harvey street since that time.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon from the Schrader Funeral Home at one p.m. with the Rev. Henry J. Walsh officiating.

Cocktail Lounge Opens

Norbert Lofy and W. Lee Butler, proprietors, announce the grand opening of the Arbor-Lill cocktail lounge.

This opening will be Saturday, May 24, Arbor-Lill, located at 42390 Ann Arbor road, corner of Lilley road, is open from 7 a.m. until 2 a.m.

School Program To Only Increase Tax By Four Dollars Per Thousand

BUY A POPPY
ON POPPY DAY

FRIDAY, MAY 23
IN PLYMOUTH

The Board of Education revealed the fact Monday that passage of the entire proposed bond issue could only at the maximum, cost local tax payers $4.00 per year per thousand dollars of their assessment. Therefore a local piece of property assessed at $5,000 would be taxed $20.00 more the first year to help pay the cost of the enlarged school program.

The three proposals which will be submitted next Monday to the voters cover the following issues. Number one is the right to levy a two mill tax to pay the principal and interest on a $650,000 bond issue.

Number two is for the approval of two mills for operational expense for a period of five years including salary increases and cost involved in the operation of the new units of the school such as the swimming pool and the gymnasium. The third proposal is for the right to borrow the necessary funds needed to build a new elementary school. Proposals one and three must both pass if either is feasible.

Of the $650,000.00 which the issue will raise for the schools it is thought that about $425,000 will be needed for the grade school and about $200,000 for remodeling the high school. If there is a balance it is hoped that future sites may be purchased by the board to provide additional facilities in the future.

The polls at the high school building will open at seven a.m. next Monday morning and remain open until eight in the evening. Residents are asked to vote as early as is possible in the day so that the usual late afternoon and early evening rush may be avoided.

Veterans Arrange Memorial Program

Judge Jay H. Payne of the probate court of Ann Arbor, has been selected as speaker for the Memorial day program to take place in Plymouth next week Friday, May 30.

Committees in charge of the annual event have announced complete plans for the day—and Plymouth will honor its fallen war dead as patriotically as it has in all former years.

The graves of all veterans buried in Riverside cemetery will be decorated with the American flag on Saturday of this week. There are over 200 veterans buried in the city's cemetery and if by chance the grave of any veteran should be missed by the committee in charge it is urged that either Lee Coolman, William Norman or Robert Van Meter be notified.

The Navy Mothers will honor the Navy dead by services at the Plymouth road bridge near Hillside Inn at 9:30 next Friday morning. Mrs. Charles Huebler, president of the Navy Mothers Club, is in charge of the program.

Immediately following this service, the Memorial day parade which will be formed at the corner of Mill and Main streets, will be organized. The parade will start promptly at 10 o'clock, headed by the Veterans of Foreign Wars color guard.

Participating in the parade will be the following organizations: Plymouth high school band under the direction of Larry Livingston.

Veterans of Foreign Wars, Mayflower Post No. 6695.

Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary

American Legion, Myron H. Beals Post

American Legion, Myron H. Beals Post Auxiliary

American Legion, Passage-Gayde Post

American Legion, Passage-Gayde Post Auxiliary

Navy Mothers Club

Ex-Service Men's Club

Daughters of the American Revolution

Cub Scout Drum and Bugle Corps

Boy Scouts

Cub Scouts

Girl Scouts

The program at Kellogg Park, at 10:30 a.m. follows:

Invocation—Rev. David T. Davies, St. John's Episcopal church.

Master of Ceremonies—Al Glassford, Manager, city of Plymouth.

Pledge of Allegiance—Assembly, led by Ray Danol, Grand Marshall.

Introduction of Service Organization Officers, VFW, American Legion, Navy Mothers, Mom's Club, Ex-Service Men's Club, etc.

Memorial Day Speaker—Judge Jay H. Payne, Judge of Probate Washtenaw county.

Benediction—Rev. David T. Davies, St. John's Episcopal church.

National Anthem—Plymouth High School band, Larry Livingston Director.

Memorial Wreath Laying Ceremony—Boy Scouts will place wreath at the Memorial.

Firing Squad—Under direction of Lieut. Edward Kopinski, VFW Firing Squad.

Taps.

Special Election Set For Monday

Next Monday registered voters in the Plymouth School District will be called on to decide on an important issue at the special school election called for that date.

The Board of Education, on recommendations submitted by the School - Community Planning Group, are asking for a new elementary school, remodeling the present high school building, and operational expenses.

Board of Education members say that these proposals are in.

Vets Observe Poppy Day Here on This Friday

Poppy Day is coming to Plymouth, Friday, May 23.

Participating in this annual "red flower" sale, whose benefits are helping thousands of needy persons, are the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Women's auxiliaries of the VFW Mayflower Post 6695, and Passage Gayde Post 391, American Legion, Myron H. Beals Post No. 32 will also be on hand to observe the annual tribute to America's war dead.

Beside this annual observance, Poppy day flower sales have deeper significance.

This was the observation of Robert VanMeter, of 353 Starkweather, commander of the VFW post.

Sales from poppies, Mr. VanMeter relates, go into a general relief fund, later distributed to veterans hospitals, widows, and orphans of our war dead.

"We believe," he continued, "that we can best honor the dead by helping the living."

Joseph Elliott, of 876 Church street, is heading the poppy sale in which 75 VFW members will participate.

"If the weather is bad on Friday, poppies will be sold on Saturday," he stated.

Beyer Drug Celebrates 1st Anniversary

Residents of Plymouth and vicinity will join in celebrating the first anniversary of the Beyer Rexall Drug store, located at 505 Forest avenue, Friday and Saturday, May 23 and 24. Proprietor Robert Beyer announces that a grand time will be had by all, both young and old alike, who attend this anniversary sale, honoring the store's existence in Plymouth the past year.

Gifts will be presented to all those who attend. A large shipment of fresh Hawaiian Vanda Orchids will be presented to the first 500 ladies each day who visit the store. An orchid lei will be presented to the 500th customer who attends the celebration each day. Men will receive cigars on (Continued on Page 6)

Poor Fido—He's in For Tough Times

Pity poor Fido! The Plymouth cops are after him—and if Fido's master doesn't look out, Fido's master is going to go before the judge and maybe say "I'm guilty", plus paying for the release of Fido, if he's fallen into the arms of the law. And if Fido has been hustled off to the Dog Hoosegow, it's going to cost another $2.50 to set Fido free.

If Fido or Spot or Sugar or Skippy or Rover is permitted by their owners to gad about the streets on and after June 1, it's just going to be too bad for everybody.

It seems that the Plymouth city commission got up on its ear when they learned that a pack of stray dogs has been snapping at children around some of the schools about the city. Not only have they been snapping at children, but some of the elders have been letting out some howls about stray dogs.

So the commission passed a new dog ordinance—and it's a tough one on both dogs and dog owners. You'd better not let your dog run at large after the last day of May—OR ELSE!

City Approves Transfer

The city commission acting upon request of the Liquor Control Commission and the advice of Chief of Police Carl Greenlee, approved the transfer of ownership of the SDM license from the Choffin Estate to Milton and Roberta Orr.

The SDM license permits the package sale of beer and wine. The city commission approval is then returned to the LCC in Lansing and it is this commission which approves the final transfer.

Anthony Worth C.A.R. President

Plymouth Corners society of the Children of the American Revolution elected officers at a meeting held recently.

Anthony Worth was named president. Other officers are Margaret Sue Daniel, vice-president, Carolyn Burkman, secretary, Sande Cutler, treasurer and Mary Ellen Cruse.

Emilie Cutler, chaplain; Robert Willoughby, flag bearer; and Randy Eaton, color bearer complete the list of officers.

Mrs. R. D. Willoughby was named state senior president of the C. A. R. at the state convention.

Band Parents Elect Officers

At the final business meeting of the school year held at the Plymouth high school band room on May 14, Mrs. Harold Paulger was elected president of the association for the ensuing year. Mrs. Michael Huber vice president, Mrs. Leo Crane, treasurer; Mrs. Allen Bernash, assistant treasurer, and Mrs. George Dierick recording and corresponding secretary.

The officers were installed by Mrs. Steve Veresh. Mrs. Paulger suggested that band shoes and shirts which were outgrown be advertised for sale. All band students were asked to return their uniforms not later than July 5, 1952.

To Fence Garage

Bids will be taken in the office of the city clerk for the construction of 700 feet to 1,000 feet of chain link fence, two inch mesh, nine gauge wire including three 12 foot gates until 3:00 p.m. May 26.

Specifications may be obtained from the office of the Superintendent of Public Works.

The fence is to enclose the city garage on Arthur street.

Petition Placed on File

A petition for paving of Irvin street from Blanche to Farmer was presented to the city commission at its regular meeting. The petition was placed on file for the hearing which will be held in January 1943.

This procedure is in accordance with the new charter which provides for hearings in January for all city improvements.

Perfection Gets Business of New State Hospital

Kenneth Cory's up-to-date Perfection Laundry is humming these days with as much work as it can satisfactorily handle with its present crew of efficient help.

It is all because he recently secured the contract to do the laundry work of the new Northville State hospital located between Six and Seven mile road just west of Haggerty highway.

While there are only a small portion of patients as to what there will be in the near future when the hospital is completed, the additional work is keeping Mr. Cory and his force as busy as bees.

The Perfection Laundry has sufficient equipment to handle much more work than it is now producing, and as time goes along Mr. Cory expects to add to his force as his work increases.

Over the years, the laundry has been enlarged from time to time and because of Mr. Cory's faith in the future of Plymouth, he is now able to handle a sudden increase in business that he had not expected to come his way. The Perfection Laundry has some of the most modern laundry equipment that is manufactured.

Few Visit Blood Bank This Time

Comparatively few residents of Plymouth donated blood at the recent Red Cross Blood Bank which was held May 19 at the Masonic Temple. This unit was sponsored by the Plymouth BPO Elks. Approximately a little more than 100 people visited the bank and were successful in donating their blood. Several persons were rejected for various reasons, some had high blood pressure, others with low blood pressure and still others had a good case of slightly warped nerves.

There were six nurses and a doctor who accompanied the mobile unit, plus 14 Plymouth ladies who assisted with the registering of the donors and also worked in the canteen.

Several of the factories were represented at the bank, among them were Allen Industries Inc., Barnes-Gibson-Raymond Division of Associated Spring Corp., Daisy Manufacturing Company, Evans Products Company, Peerless Industries Inc., and the Wall Wire Products Company.

Whitman & Barnes states that the Red Cross obtained 108 pints of blood from their employees during the time the unit was at the plant on Monday, May 12.

The majority of the persons designated their blood to be sent to the forces fighting in Korea.

Book Festival to be Held May 28

The annual spring book festival will be held Wednesday, May 28, in the high school library from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. announced Mrs. Esther Ham, librarian.

The festival is held each spring so that the parents of children in Plymouth schools may see the type of books which the library purchases, and keep up with the trend of the recently published books. "Any parent, friend, or interested person is welcome to drop into the library and browse," said Mrs. Ham.

A program will be held consisting of music, readings, and dancing. Refreshments will be served. Special displays will be shown including one of student designed book covers done by an English class in conjunction with book reports.

New Ordinances to be Posted

The city commission passed a resolution to post all new or amended ordinances on the three official bulletin boards and in the office of the city clerk. A notice of the posting will be published in The Plymouth Mail.

The official bulletin boards are located on the comfort station in the central parking lot, in Kellogg Park at the intersection of Main and Penniman, and at the intersection of Starkweather and Liberty streets.

Youths racing cars in reverse add to highway dangers.

Veterans Plan Cemetery Flowers

Mayflower Post No. 6695 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion are again carrying out the time honored custom of decorating the graves of their departed comrades in Riverside Cemetery for Memorial Day.

If any family or friends know of any Veterans graves that do not have a flag holder please notify William Norman, phone 9130 or Harold Wilson, phone 1875-W. The organizations will be decorating graves on May 24, 1952.

It is the sincere desire of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion to honor and commemorate all Veterans who have served their country valiantly and honorably by giving their lives.

If the families and friends of buried Veterans in Riverside Cemetery will please cooperate by notifying one of the above named individuals they will do all in their power to see that each is properly remembered.

Lee C. BeGole New City Clerk

Lee C. BeGole has taken over the job of city clerk for the city of Plymouth.

He is a recent graduate of the University of Detroit, School of Law, and received his bachelors degree from the University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario. Mr. BeGole majored in modern languages and as undergraduate.

He was in the army from October 1942 until June, 1946. While in the army, he served in Africa, Italy, and Sicily. Mr. BeGole is now a first lieutenant in the Michigan National Guard, 425th Infantry regiment.

He served for two years with the Wayne County Sheriff's road patrol.

A native of Detroit, Mr. BeGole plans on moving to Plymouth as soon as he can find a place to stay.

Kenneth Way of Holbrook has been appointed deputy city clerk. Mr. Way was formerly with the Plymouth police force.

Public Schools Gain In Taxes

Plymouth Public Schools stand to get an extra $3,500 from their share of the 15 mill tax limitation for next year. In an appeal to the Wayne County Tax Allocation Board by the Detroit Board of Education, the school share was increased from 8.239 to 8.329.

The victory was gained at the expense of the Wayne County Government whose share of the 15 mills was chopped one-tenth of a mill, or $650,000. All the 55 school districts in the county will benefit.

An increase to 9.30 had been asked for the schools.

According to Russell L. Isbister, Plymouth will benefit by approximately $3,500 by the favorable appeal ruling.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tibbitts and two daughters, Rita and Betty, and daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. Charles Ryder, returned Monday from a ten day visit with their son and brother and his wife, Airman third class and Mrs. Lawrence Tibbitts, at Randolph Field, Texas. After a visit at Randolph Field, the party of six drove to Monterey, Mexico for an enjoyable visit in that country.

Parents Association to Hold Annual Picnic

The Band Parents Association will hold its annual picnic at Gunsolly Drive in the River Rouge Park on Thursday evening, May 29, at 6:30 p.m. All parents who have students playing instruments in any of the school bands are invited to attend. Each family is to bring its own meal and one dish to pass. Mrs. Harold Paulger, president of the Association, is in charge of the final arrangements.

Commission to Delegate Power

Permission for locally organized service clubs to take donations or hold a sale on the streets one day per year may soon be granted by the city manager, rather than by motion of the city commission.

This matter was discussed at the meeting of the city commission held Monday evening, and referred to the city manager and attorney to draw up the appropriate resolution.

In the past any service club wishing to take donations on the street or to hold a sale of plants or greens in any one parking space, the donations of which were to go to charity, were required to send a communication to, or appear before the city commission for this permission. The resolution, if passed, would eliminate the delay.

"Often," stated Manager A. F. Glassford, "a representative of a service club comes into my office the day after the commission has met and wants permission for his group to take donations before the next meeting of the commission. If such a motion were passed, I could give the group permission without having to refer it to the commission."

Former Resident Dies in California

Mrs. Mary E. Wilson, formerly of Plymouth, died Tuesday at the home of her daughter in Bakersfield, California at the age of 81.

Mrs. Wilson's husband, Daniel C., preceded her in death a year ago.

Surviving Mrs. Wilson are two daughters, Mary Grove of Bakersfield and Estella LaHay of Texas, two sons, Lester J. of Bakersfield and Floyd M. of Plymouth, and 12 grandchildren.

Interment was in Green Lawn cemetery at Bakersfield.

It is indeed at home that every man must be known by those who would make a just estimate either of his virtue or felicity; for smiles and embroidery are alike occasional, and the mind is often dressed for show in painted honor and fictitious benevolence. —Samuel Johnson

Groth Attends School

Fire Captain Charles Groth is attending the Fire Inspectors school at Michigan State college this week. The city of Plymouth is paying the expenses of Captain Groth in order that he might obtain knowledge of advanced fire inspection techniques.

Reckless Driving Ticket Issued

A reckless driving ticket was issued to Aldon J. Smith of Penniman after he entered the city driving at an excessive rate of speed and turned over, police reports say.

The car skidded about 200 feet on its side before coming to a stop, the report continues. Mr. Smith suffered only minor injuries.

Speeding Car Causes Accident

Helen Rowell, 18, of 287 Adams was seriously injured in an accident which occurred at the corner of South Main street and Ann Arbor road Saturday evening.

Miss Rowell was a passenger in a car driven by William Hix of Keego Harbor. Mr. Hix was driving south on Main street when a car approaching at a high rate of speed ran a red light and hit the Hix automobile, reports say.

The driver left the other car and fled. It was a stolen car belonging to John McMann of 212 South Main street. He had previously reported the car stolen, according to sheriff's reports.

Plymouth police were called to the scene and remained there until the Sheriff's department arrived. The driver of the stolen car has not yet been apprehended.

mediate necessities at the present time. A thorough study of the educational needs of Plymouth was made by the School-Community Planning Group, and it was deemed necessary that a new elementary building was needed at once. The elementary school population has increased 25 percent since 1950. The Smith elementary school was built to accommodate 420 students, but is now housing 490. The Bird school was built to house 420, but now has 509, and the Starkweather school has 475 children, but built for 420. This does not include the record enrollment of children entering school next September. School authorities say it will take a year or so before a new building can be completed and by that time, the school population will be to such extent that, if these proposals are not approved, held day sessions will be necessary. The present increased population, plus that expected in the next few years, will bulge the present buildings. The high school building, built originally for a small enrollment, has to be remodeled to fit a changing curriculum demanded by a changing community. Now that the new gymnasium is available, the old gymnasium has to be made useable for various purposes. It has been suggested that it be used for a combination lunch room, study hall, auditorium. With additional funds better use of the existing space could be realized and worn out and outmoded equipment could be replaced. With the additional expenses and increased cost of supplies of the past few years, it is thought that the two mill operational expense proposal is necessary. This would realize approximately $70,000 each year for a five-year period. In the last few years costs, salaries, etc., have risen considerably. Plymouth now has one of the lowest school tax rates of any city its size in Wayne county. The tax rate of 13.899 is far below the average. Even with the four mill increase asked for, it still will be only average for other schools in this area. Monday, the citizens of Plymouth will determine whether we will have an adequate educational plant for the children of this city, or whether the schools will continue to operate under crowded conditions, and possibly on a part time basis.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS
From Kay McIntosh, Montrose, Mich.: I remember the many nice things at Grandma's house, such as he big black Dutch oven that stood on three legs on the hearth, filled with sweet potatoes baked to a turn, soft and sweet and good eating on winter evenings. I remember the small "pattie" of bee's wax on the ironing board to smooth Grandma's iron fresh-hot from the kitchen range top.
From Mrs. W. T. Cox, Big Lake, Texas: I remember when a pinch of this, a pinch of that and a dash of something else made the best apple pie you ever ate. Cooking schools and exact recipes didn't interfere with a woman's natural knack for cooking. Women had the feel for mixing things.
From Mrs. Mary Roth Bonsall, Parrish, N.D.: I remember when a child the great events we looked forward to. Once a year Mother took us four children on a pleasure boat excursion down the river and back—these are known as showboats today. On the Fourth of July, she piled us in a springy buggy and we drove to town to celebrate. In the fall, we attended the old soldiers' reunion.
From Mrs. Christ Karcenickals, Perryville, Mo.: Well I remember as a little girl I attended Sunday school with my four sisters. As we had only one pair of Sunday shoes a year, we walked barefooted to church and back all summer, carrying our shoes to keep them clean, wearing them only when in the church.
From the Old Cuss, Chicago: I remember the bathing beauties of Mack Sennett days. Their swim suits would keep a modern gal as warm as a milk coat; they were so capacious. Modern gals' swim suits keep the men warm, except me—I'm too old.

Birmingham, Michigan Jumper Champion, and Katie Kolb of Holland, Hunter Champion of Michigan.
The undefeated 12 year old Equitation Champion, Julie Andreason of Port Huron, will attempt to upset the older riders for the Championship of the show. Coming over from Plymouth will be Ellen Cowgill, Mary Foster and Linda Schaffer to vie with the top riders of their divinity. For the first time in the history of Michigan Horse Shows; the big Northville junior event will inaugurate Junior Equestrian Team competition. This is patterned after the regular International Olympic jumping events. Teams consist of three riders, and are scored on F. E. I. low score. The aggregate low score team will receive the Northville Optimist's Junior Equestrian Team Challenge Trophy, which they will hold until the next show of the Michigan show circuit. Throughout the season the teams will compete and at the end of the season, the low scoring team will be the Junior Olympic Champions. The show, which gets under way at 11 a.m. and runs through the 30 classes for English Saddle Horses, Ponies, Hunters, and Jumpers, is under the direction of J. P. Malley, General Chairman, and Mrs. Franklin Beeks, 690 Thayer Blvd., Northville, the show secretary.

ers for the American Legion Auxillary is Mrs. James Sexton, of 1043 Penniman avenue. "When you put on a memorial poppy on Poppy Day you will be paying tribute to those who have died for America in the three wars since the turn of the century. "When we think of those who died in these wars," Mrs. Sexton declared, "we think, too, of those who suffered disabling wound or illnesses in defense of the country. "Wearing poppies enables veterans' organizations to help these disabled persons and children of veterans who face privation because their fathers served. "The contributions made on Plymouth's Poppy Day," Mrs. Sexton concluded, form the chief source of support for the rehabilitation and child welfare programs carried out continuously by the American Legion Auxillary. Representing the American Legion's Gayde Post No. 391, Mrs. Dorothy Knapp, 173 N. Main St., said that no campaign expenses will be deducted from the Poppy Day contribution. All workers, she said, are unpaid volunteers, except for the disabled veterans who make the poppies. Small percentages of the contributions will go to state and national funds, which, in turn, will be distributed to veterans hospitals for many types of services for sick and disabled veterans.

ESTHER HULSING ELECTED Regent to Local Chapter

ington D. C., delivered reports and information regarding the Congress, to the group members. Among the many mementoes which were on display were a large American flag approximately 75 years old; an ivory note pad, the original charter of the chapter, a small Canadian and American flag with standards. Certificates of membership of some of the very early settlers and two photographs of Sarah Ann Cochrane, the lady for whom the chapter was named. Sarah Ann Cochrane was one of the early settlers and citizens of Northville. She was well known for her work as a librarian in the Burton Library in Detroit, and because of her great achievements the Daughters of the American Revolution pay her great tribute and honor. Many of the items which were on display belonged to Sarah Ann at one time, and are cherished by all members of the group. Also on display for the members was the prize winning scrapbook containing all newspaper items concerning the group's activities and functions, which was compiled by Mrs. Sterling Eaton. As is customary at an election of officers, the former First vice regent presented a corsage to the retiring Regent, Mrs. Edward Cutler. Then Mrs. Hulsing asked the Chaplain, Mrs. Bryan to present the past Regent's pin to the retiring Regent who is Mrs. Cutler. Following this Mrs. Cutler pinned the chapter Regent pin on Mrs. Hulsing. A Daughters of the American Revolution grave marker was also brought to the meeting for members to observe. Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing stated that two new American flags will soon be dedicated to the high school at an honors assembly. Social items can be phoned to 1600.

PHS Golf Team Takes Bentley

By shooting their lowest score this year, the Plymouth high school golf team turned back a fair Bentley team last week by a total score of 174 to 193. The Plymouth lads all shot nearly identical rounds as Ralph Walsh and Larry Jolliffe each had a 43 and Tyler Caplin and Fred Benson each a 44.

In another match last week, the local squad defeated Allen Park 189 to 239. This time Ralph Walsh and Tyler Caplin tied for low each with a 45, Casey Partridge had a 46 and Bob Rush a 53.

Plymouth is second in the 6-B league at present, trailing Redford Union, who is in first place.

Bentley Fells Plymouth 'Nine'

The Plymouth Frosh baseball nine lost their first game of the year when they were edged by Bentley last Thursday 10 to 9.

Bob Middleton was pounded from the box with one man out in the second inning, after he had allowed 4 runs and 4 hits. Dick Day came on in then and hurled the rest of the game, and was the losing pitcher. Dick yielded 6 runs and 5 hits and walked 6 men.

Plymouth Fishermen Try Luck for Big Pike in St. Mary's River Near Soo

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lent and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Humphries are spending a few days up along the Canadian side of St. Mary's river south of Sault Ste. Marie trying to land some of those big pike that thrive in the fast and cold waters of the river just after it leaves Lake Superior.

Because of his desire to go after the "big ones" in St. Mary's river, Mr. Lent will not be a member of that fishing party which leaves this weekend for the famed Chapeau Game Reserve located several hundred miles north of the Soo, where the chief catches consist of brook trout, and walleyed pike.

Those comprising this party which has been going to the interior of Canada for nearly half a dozen years or so, consists of Don Lightfoot, Gar Evans, Charles Beggie, Frank Terry, Gus Lindquist and Ralph Taylor. They expect to be gone about a week or more.

5 of 13 Records Held by Locals

In looking over the program at the regional track meet in Ann Arbor Saturday, it was very interesting to note that Plymouth athletes hold 5 of the 13 records.

John Balogh now has the record in the mile at 4:42.5, Paul Harding holds two records, one in the 100 yard dash, and the other in the 220 yard dash—the first at 10.3 and the second at 22.5 seconds. Louis Vargha has the 440 yard dash record of 52.6 seconds. The half mile relay team of 1950 also hung up a mark for others to shoot at with a time of 1:34.3. All the marks except Balogh's were made in 1950.

Before the mile run Saturday, John Balogh said the record would be broken. The confidence and faith he had in himself paid off for he ran a splendid race. The lad from Howell, who had beaten him in the Rough relays, was again pitted against him, but this time John turned the tables and won by 10 yards.

Win Vaults PHS Into 2nd Place

The rejuvenated high school baseball team vaulted into second place in the tight 6-B league race last week Thursday, when they upset Bentley on the diamond to win by an 8 to 7 score.

Crucial errors by MacIntyre, the Bentley second baseman, played a prominent part in the Plymouth victory, for the Rocks made only 5 hits while Bentley got 13 safeties.

Plymouth scored 2 in the first, 3 in the fourth, 1 in the fifth to tie up the ball game, and the 2 winning runs were scored in the sixth inning.

Casey Cavell, who had an operation for appendicitis a few hours after the game, was the leading hitter with three solid smashes. Bender and Ritter made the other two hits the Rocks were able to get. Kime had 3 for Bentley.

Bentley got off to a good start by scoring 4 runs on 4 hits in the first inning. David Finney started for Plymouth, and hurled the first three innings, Kisabeth tossed the next two, and old reliable Bill Runge came on in the sixth and was the winning pitcher. This was Runge's third win of the year.

Plymouth won the game in the sixth when Ron Johnson, pinch hit and grounded out third to first, Lanphear walked, Brown also walked, Bender then singled to right field, but Lanphear was thrown out at the plate trying to score, Brown taking third and Bender second. Straub got on through an error by MacIntyre, which let both Brown and Bender score. Cavell got his third hit, a single, and Ritter struck out to end the inning.

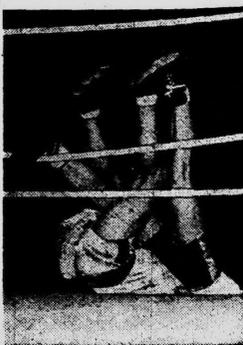

The Rocks now have a four won and two lost record in league play.

FEET OR FISTS? . . . Two British amateurs take a header in the amateur boxing association tournament and keep punching while standing on their heads—with their feet. They are lightweight champs of Birmingham and London.

All in the Game

THE NEW YORK YANKEES have been accusing the Browns of padding their attendance figures . . . Eddie Arcaro now says he's after his sixth Kentucky Derby . . . Dixie Dean thinks the current Dodgers are better than his old "Gas House Gang" Cards of 1934 . . . Casey Stengel says he graded Jackie Jensen to the Senators because Jackie couldn't hit—but the Yankee skipper praised Jensen's running, throwing, and hustle . . . Women in great numbers became interested in attending boxing bouts in 1916 when Jess Willard fought Frank Moran—Tex Richard had put on a drive for female patrons . . . The parent game of football was soccer . . . The kickoff was first made from the middle of the gridiron in 1924 . . . The St. Andrews (Scotland) golf course, one of the most famous in the world, is 6,883 yards in length and has never had an official par, since it was constructed before that term was applied to the game.

Sports Glances by "Professor" Edgar Brown

Gus Gorguze, the high school baseball coach, sure has his boys inspired at this time. They have been going in high gear the past few weeks, and as a result are near the top of the league. After losing the first two games they have now won four straight league contests.

The boys seem full of confidence, and certain they are as good as any team in the league. I had my doubts earlier in the season, but I am inclined to go along with them now. Many a victory is won before the game starts by having the right mental attitude.

A right and positive mental attitude goes a long way in winning at anything—even in life. Still like that old saying in the typing book, "If one thinks he can, he can."

At long last rest rooms are being constructed on the athletic field. These have been a need ever since the field was opened a few years ago. A press box above them will also add to the comfort of those working the game.

All this is being realized because of the cooperation and charity of many individuals.

Three public-minded citizens, Edward Dobbs, George Farwell and Ernie Burger are donating their time to do the mason work and laying the cinder blocks. Leo Kowalick and his maintenance men are doing the carpenter work, and Bill Campbell and his machine shop boys are getting some practical experience by digging and laying the cables, etc.

So many people now days seem to think that they have to get paid for everything they do. The first question many people ask, when asked to do something, is, how much do I get. If more people could realize that money, or material things isn't everything, and for an extra deed or act they get paid in many other ways—satisfaction in helping others, working together for a common cause, etc.—they would be much happier persons.

I hope the public will appreciate the work the above mentioned men did to make it more convenient for everyone who attends an athletic event on the field.

Hold that Tiger! Remember that popular song of a few years ago? Well, it wouldn't take much to hold the Tigers today for they are as harmless as young kittens. I'm talking about the Detroit Tigers, and the anemic baseball they have played the first month of the season. Four games won the first month! Wow! I've said all along they need a shot in the arm, and new blood on the team. I feel we will see a big trade soon.

The Tigers are the only club that have never ended a season in last place. They shouldn't this year, for they are definitely not a last place club. However, all the second division ball clubs have made trades which have improved their clubs considerably, while the Tigers just roll along with the same faces they have had for the last five years.

Detroit has been one of the best baseball towns in history, and the fans deserve more than they have been getting lately. Other clubs get star players, because they give up a good player or pay cash; most clubs want players these days and not cash. There isn't anyone on the Detroit club I wouldn't trade if I thought it would benefit the club and fans. Oh, well, I'm just a barber shop manager, who likes to spout off once in awhile. It's becoming harder and harder to become a barber shop coach these days because of the high price of hair cuts.

Rocks Take Fifth at Regional Meet

At the state regional track meet in Ann Arbor last Saturday, Plymouth made a total of 21½ points good for fifth place. A well balanced Walled Lake team won first place and the trophy that goes with it. Also ahead of Plymouth were Howell, Bedford and Albion.

John Balogh established a new record in the mile run for the regional when he ran the distance in 4 minutes and 42.5 seconds. He smashed the former record by 3 seconds.

Three men from Plymouth qualified for the state meet. Jerry Kelly qualified in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes in which he finished second in each race. The first three places qualified for the state meet in East Lansing next Saturday. Balogh qualified in the mile, and Arlen Ottensman tied for third in the pole vault to qualify for the state. The medley relay team missed out by about 2 yards from qualifying.

In amassing the 21½ points, Kelly had 8½, Balogh 5, Ottensman 2½, Ron Nyhus 1 3/4 points. Nyhus made his best put of the year, 43 feet 7 inches, but that effort was only good for fifth place.

The time in the mile was the best ever made by Balogh.

The 6-B League meet is next Tuesday afternoon and evening on the local track behind the high school.

'Rock' Frosh Bow to Southfield

Again Southfield high took the measure of the Rock frosh in a duel track meet last Thursday by the count of 69 to 26. Southfield, a new high school in Southfield township uses tenth graders on the team, as it is now only a tenth grade school.

Southfield won each of the 11 events. Plymouth Frosh had 6 seconds and 8 third places.

Donaldson leaped 17 feet 1½ inches in the broad jump, but that was only good for second place, as Cameron of Southfield soared 18 feet 5 inches for first place. Donaldson was high point man for the young Rocks with 9 points on seconds in the broad jump, 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Taxes Take Third of Income in 1952

The first dollar you can call your own, out of all the money you have earned this year, was in your pay May 19. Up to that day the average American had been working to pay this year's taxes—local, state and Federal.

Never before have Americans had to work so long to pay their taxes. Out of each hour worked, 23 minutes' pay is taken by the Government in direct and hidden imposts.

the year on which a man can call his earnings his own, a day to be celebrated as "National Tax Freedom Holiday", is advocated by Dallas L. Hostetter, executive director of the Florida State Retailers Association.

Last year even Congress recognized the occasion by adopting a resolution providing that it "be symbolized as a day of relief throughout the land, with such demonstrations as may seem appropriate, including a prayer for deliverance."

Last year local, state, and Federal taxes took 32 cents out of each dollar the average American earned. This year the over-all tax load takes 38 cents. Mussolini took 40 per cent of his people's income. Hitler took 50 per cent. Stalin is taking 70 per cent.

In 1920 Americans began working for themselves on February 28 for the first time that year. By 1940 the date had advanced to March 27. In 1951 the tax freedom holiday was observed on April 28. This year it is pushed up to May 19.

OUT OF THE CANADIAN NORTH comes one of the mysteries that fishermen are always interested in but seldom experience. A few days ago Dr. August Holcomb of Northville returned from his Garden Lake lodge up on Ranger lake road north of Sault Ste. Marie, Canada with one of those rare Menominee fish one hears much about but seldom sees. It should not be confused with the Menominee herring, which is somewhat common and frequently caught along the north shores of Lake Michigan and Lake Superior. The Menominee fish that Dr. Holcomb caught in Cedar lake is seldom caught on a line. Once in a great while it is taken in a fishing net. But how it got into Cedar lake is another one of the mysteries. There is no way possible for it to go up stream into the inland lake, as there are several falls between Lake Superior and Cedar lake that no fish could swim over. Dr. Holcomb not only consulted with old-time Canadian guides who were mystified about the fish, but several well known fishermen of Michigan were consulted. The other day he called Dr. Brick Champe, former president of the Western Wayne County Conservation Association and one of Michigan's best known fishermen, and the "out-door" editor of The Mail, to see this rare fish. The above picture reading left to right, shows the Mail's out-door man, Dr. Brick Champe and Dr. Holcomb.

Sign Up Now for Elks Decathlon

Tomorrow is the deadline for signing up for the Decathlon sponsored by the BPO Elks club of Plymouth. This ten event sporting event is being revived this year after a lapse of several years. It was formerly sponsored by the Rotary club.

The committee has been working diligently to promote this affair, and it promises to be one of the most popular events of the year.

Anyone can win points that enters as so many points have been set up for certain times and distances. The highest totals determine the prize winners. There will be many prizes, and children will compete in their own class, which will be determined by age and weight.

If any boy hasn't signed up yet, he should do so right away as the deadline is tomorrow. See any high school coach, or James Lature at the high school before tomorrow night.

Turns Deer Country Summer Home Into Northern Cattle Ranch

Horace Johnson, well known Plymouth resident and long active in Rotary club affairs, possesses a log cabin up in the northern part of the state near Glennie, where the "deer and porcupine" roam at will.

But there's something else that is now going to roam about some of the excellent pasture land that is found along that babbling trout stream. Mr. Johnson has recently purchased a small herd of cattle and turned them loose in the woods and pasture surrounding the summer hide-out of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson up in the north woods.

So do not be surprised if sometime this summer when riding by a northern wilderness if you should see a "cowboy" out riding the "range" around the Johnson summer home—and maybe that "cowboy" might be none other than the good-natured, and busy Mr. Johnson.

Bird's Nest Barely Precedes the Egg

IF IT WEREN'T for such things as weather and accidents, most birds would be as predictable as the cliff swallows of San Juan Capistrano, which seem to come and go by the calendar and the clock. Or as the puffins of Labrador, which give up a carefree life at sea at a definite time each spring to take up nesting duties ashore.

In general, a bird's behavior—migrating, singing, mating, building a nest, incubating the eggs, feeding the young—is controlled by two major forces, which apparently leave little room for the use of intelligence. These forces are described by Arthur A. Allen, professor of ornithology at Cornell.

There is first, the physiological control from within the body, apparently governed largely by the activity of the bird's pituitary gland. Second is the force from without in the form of what students of bird behavior term "releasers."

Most of the releasers are visual, Dr. Allen says; but many are associated with hearing, and a few are due to the senses of touch and smell. Thus the urge from within to migrate, breed, and so on is not necessarily obeyed unless surroundings look, sound, feel, or possibly even smell right.

Experimentally, autumn has been turned into spring for captive sparrows, crows, pheasants, and other wild species. Gland activity is stimulated by gradually increased doses of light in a manner corresponding to the lengthening days of spring. Hand-reared grouse and quail will actually produce eggs in winter; but birds trapped in the wild do not proceed quite so far, since nest building and egg laying are controlled by releasers which are not so easily supplied.

With song, plumage, and fancy strutting, the male contrives literally to raise the rate of the female's pulse. It is usually the female's job to build the nest. In most species, nest building appears to occupy the six-day period required for forming and developing the first egg. The instinct to build seems to come with the formation of the first yellow yolk.

"34,000 wonderful miles in six hard months"

A. E. Hoffman, San Lorenzo, Calif., writes, "My Nash Rambler Station Wagon covered 34,000 miles in six hard months, averaging better than 25 miles to the gallon, carrying loads up to 750 pounds all over my territory."

It's a real double-duty beauty, this Nash Rambler Station Wagon—a luxury family sedan, designed especially for today's crowded traffic conditions. At the drop of a seat, it instantly converts to a heavy duty all-steel station wagon with a 6½-foot platform that easily hauls man-size loads.

Wives think it's wonderful, too—so handy for shopping—so easy to steer and park—plus the smartest custom tailoring. Economy? The Nash Rambler holds the all-time record in the Mobilgas Run with 31.05 miles per gallon!

See our beautiful Rambler display. Choose the model you want, convertibles, hardtop sedans, station wagons—all completely custom equipped—even radio and Weather Eye at no extra cost. Come in today or phone us—you don't have to buy—just try!

Bonnie Wickens and Charles Kellogg Wed

Mrs. Charles Kellogg

The First Presbyterian church was the scene Saturday evening of the lovely wedding uniting Miss Bonnie Jean Wickens and Charles W. Kellogg. Bonnie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wickens of Blunk avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Kellogg of Lamont, formerly of Plymouth, are the bridegroom's parents.

The Reverend Henry Walch officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening, before the altar which was graced with baskets of white gladioli and stock and lighted tapers.

The bride's gown was fashioned with a lace tunic over satin and nylon tulle. The long sleeves extended to points over the wrists and her fingertip length veil of illusion fell from a halo of lily of the valley. The lace tunic extended into a long cathedral train and she carried a bouquet of lily of the valley and white orchids.

Sally Jane Zink assisted Bonnie as her maid of honor. Her gown was floor length and strapless and of white tulle with a taffeta jacket. The bridesmaids, Janet Wickens, sister of the bride, and Jacqueline Phalen wore white gowns identical to that of the maid of honor. All attendants carried bouquets of gloria lilies. Kathy Kellogg, sister of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She wore a pink tulle gown with hooped skirt and carried a white basket filled with green ivy.

Ted McCrae of Saginaw was Charles' best man and seating the guests were Charles Todd and Jack Miller.

Both mothers wore floor length gowns. Mrs. Wickens chose rose lace with white accessories and Mrs. Kellogg was in aqua with white accessories. Their corsages were of orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlors after which the young couple left for a honeymoon in Florida. For traveling the new Mrs. Kellogg wore a yellow suit with navy accessories and the orchids from her bridal bouquet. Both young people are graduates of Plymouth High school and will make their home on Starkweather avenue in Plymouth.

Delores Fulton is Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Gwynne Fulton announce the engagement of their daughter, Delores Geraldine to Samuel Richard Hassen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hassen of Glen street, Wayne. No date has been set for the wedding.

The Library Book club will meet on Tuesday afternoon, May 27 with Mrs. Ernest Vealey on Adams street. She will review the book "Rivers Parting" by Shirley Barker.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Glass and son, Alfred of Bowling Green, Ohio spent Sunday with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Glass of Holbrook avenue.

American Dinner Favorite Can be Prepared in Many Ways

Fried, roasted, broiled or stewed—chicken's an all-round favorite on the American dinner table. With a heavy market supply, excellent quality and reasonable prices, it is also an outstanding food buy.

Broilers or broiler-fryers will be most abundant. These birds are young, tender, soft-meat chickens weighing from 2 to 3½ pounds. As a general rule these birds are marketed ready to cook—either whole, cut up, or individual pieces, either fresh or frozen. It is possible on some markets to buy live chickens or dressed, not drawn, chicken.

Price per pound of ready-to-cook chicken will be higher than for live or feather dressed birds. The cost of ready-to-eat chicken will be about 25 per cent higher than the feather dressed because of the amount of waste.

In buying chicken, allow a half broiler per person or ¾ pound of ready-to-cook chicken. Look for smooth white or yellow skin with no pinfeathers.

Chicken is quite perishable and when brought home should be placed immediately in the refrigerator meat container or close to the freezing unit. To keep chicken more than a couple days, freezing is best. Frozen chicken may be thawed in the refrigerator or at room temperature. Soaking in water should be avoided.

Chicken may be cooked in such a variety of ways that folks need never tire of eating it. Chicken chowder, paprika chicken, southern fried, bar-be-queed, broiled, and fried chicken are suggestions for variety. Remember to cook chicken slowly and at a low temperature for that tasty, juicy flavor. Too high temperature will give a dry, tough and less flavorful dish. Turning occasionally with tongs makes for even browning, prevents broken skin and loss of juices.

Oven Fried Chicken
This method is excellent when two or more chickens are being fried.

Coat chicken with seasoned flour. For each pound of chicken, blend ¼ cup flour, 1 teaspoon paprika, ¼ teaspoon salt and ½ teaspoon pepper (¼ teaspoon poultry seasoning optional) in a paper bag. Shake chicken, 2 or 3 pieces at a time, in bag to coat evenly. Save any leftover flour for gravy.

Brown pieces of chicken in at least ½ inch layer of fat in a heavy skillet. If a large quantity of chicken is being prepared the browning will go much faster if a 1 to 2-inch layer of fat is used. Place golden-browned chicken one layer deep in a shallow baking pan.
For each chicken spoon a mixture of 2 tablespoons of melted butter and 2 tablespoons of broth or milk over the chicken. Continue the cooking in a moderate oven (350°F.) until chicken is tender, 30 to 40 minutes. Turn once to crisp evenly. During the cooking more broth or milk may be drizzled over chicken if it appears dry.
Chicken squares and molded chicken loaf are two good ways to use left over chicken.

Chicken Squares
3 cups cooked chicken, cut into medium sized pieces
1 cup cooked rice
1½ tablespoons chopped parsley
1½ tablespoons chopped pimiento
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

3 eggs, slightly beaten
1½ cups seasoned chicken stock
1 cup rice krispies
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine

Combine chicken, rice, parsley and pimiento. Stir in salt, pepper, and slightly beaten eggs. Mix carefully. Heat chicken stock and add to chicken mixture, stirring constantly. Pour into greased baking dish or pan 8 x 8 inches; mixture should be about 2 inches deep. Mix melted butter and rice krispies together and sprinkle over top of dish. Set in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for 50 minutes or until set. Cut into squares and serve hot or cold.

Molded Chicken Loaf
1 envelope unflavored gelatine
½ cup cold chicken stock
1 cup hot chicken stock
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup diced cooked chicken
½ cup cooked peas
½ cup diced celery

Soften gelatine in cold chicken stock. Add hot stock and salt; stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice. Chill until the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in chicken, peas and celery. Turn into loaf pan or individual molds; chill until firm. Unmold and serve with mayonnaise or salad dressing. Yield 6 servings.

Whirl 'o Way Cookies Ideal for Bridal Shower

The bride-to-be, all a-whirl with excitement, is not too aware of such prosaic things as the refreshments served at her bridal shower! But as hostess, you are probably very concerned, for you want everything just right for the festivities. That's where Whirl 'O Way Cookies fit into the picture so beautifully.

These dainty squares or circles were named for their whirl of chocolate shot around the edges. But they could also have been named for the way they'll whirl right off the plate when you serve them.

Crisp and very short, they have a melt-in-your-mouth quality that appeals to everyone and they are picture-pretty arranged on a large plate with a nosegay of violets in the center. Your guest of honor will be thrilled to have the lovely flowers as a special remembrance of your party.

Whirl 'O Way Cookies
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup confectioners sugar
2 teaspoons vanilla
1½ cups sifted enriched flour
1 cup quick rolled oats, uncooked
Chocolate shot
Cream butter; add sugar gradually and cream until fluffy. Add vanilla. Add flour to creamed mixture, mixing thoroughly. Blend in rolled oats. (Dough will be quite stiff)

Shape dough into rolls 1½ inches in diameter; coat each roll with chocolate shot. Slice 3/8 inch thick and place on ungreased baking sheet. Bake in a slow oven (325°) 25 to 30 minutes. Makes 3 doz.

For the ability to be of service to a fellow-creature, we ought to give thanks, not demand it, since in any true act of helpfulness it is the helper who is most helped.
—W. J. Cameron

Buy Hosiery Wisely for Longer Wear

Wise buying is the first step in getting your money's worth in wear in hosiery, clothing specialists advise women who are concerned about the dollars they lose from breaks and runs in stockings.

It's not enough to tell the salesgirl whether you want service weights or sheers because there's considerable difference in wearing quality even among sheers. The shopper will be wise to know and specify both gauge and denier number, and length as well as size. Worth consideration is the wearing advantage of crepe hose.

Gauge indicates the fineness or closeness of knit; denier the fineness of nylon yarn. Today 51 gauge is considered low or coarse, 54 gauge is medium, 60 is fine, and 66 very fine. In denier 15 or 20 is the fine yarn used in sheer hose and 30 the heavier for service weight hose. Very fine yarn calls for a fine or close knit to endure the tension of wear. Thus, 15 or 20 denier hose can be expected to last longer in the close 60 or 66 gauge rather than in 51 gauge. The heavier 30 denier, however, can give good wear in 51 gauge or lower. Brands differ in wearing quality so the specialists suggest that when you find one that wears well, it's wise to remember it for your next purchase.

Crepe hose usually wear better than smooth ordinary hose, because the yarn has a twist that makes it stronger and more resistant to snagging. Crepe hose feel more like silk when worn—more resilient and less stiff. They stand up well to the extra tension at knees and ankles. Crepe hose come in different gauges and deniers as regular hose do.

For good wear the right length is very important so the garter can be fastened to the reinforced top rather than to the sheerer part beneath. If hose are too short, they may break from too much pull.

Many fancy novelty hose are for sale nowadays—some with sandal feet, beaded or embroidered clocks or heels of contrasting color. Extra cost goes into such trim. The shopper should not expect extra wear for the higher price. She's paying for style, not durability.

Meat Loaf Takes Spring Style

Diced cooked ham and grated American cheese molded with unflavored gelatine hearten the dinner at a spring day meal. This main course loaf extends a last portion of ham to family size portions. It has interesting texture, too, because the meat and cheese are skillfully blended by the gelatine with crisp celery and sweet pickle, another example of gel-cookery. Parsley potatoes and asparagus complete this dinner with the seasonal compliments of spring.

Molded Ham And Cheese Loaf
1 envelope unflavored gelatine
½ cup cold water
½ cup hot water
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup vinegar
¼ cup diced celery
¼ cup diced sweet pickle
1 cup grated American cheese
1 cup diced cooked ham

Soften gelatine in cold water. Add hot water and salt and stir until dissolved. Add vinegar. Chill until the mixture is the consistency of unparted; to one add the grated cheese, to the other the diced ham. Turn ham mixture into loaf pan and chill until almost firm; add cheese mixture. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp greens and serve with tomato wedges. YIELD: 6 servings.

Low Cost Eggs High in Vitamins

Eggs are a bargain package of food value at today's low prices. They furnish excellent body-building protein as well as iron, calcium and phosphorus. Eggs contain at least five of the vitamins.

Homemakers can expect the plentiful supply of eggs to continue through the spring. Homemakers should take advantage of this plentiful supply and reasonable prices. Eggs go well with any meal and can be combined with other foods in making main dishes, beverages, salads, cakes and desserts.

Several points should be kept in mind when shopping for eggs. Brown shell eggs are usually less expensive than white eggs, but there is no difference in food value or quality. Eggs are apt to be of better quality generally during these early spring months. Grade B eggs have as much nutritional value as higher quality eggs. They can do the job just as well for baking or blending and save you money.

African Violet, Most Popular House Plant, Needs Moist Air, Light

This lovely flowering plant with velvety leaves and blooms of shaded purple, blue, pink, white, and royal red, is one of our most popular house plants.

East and north windows are preferred for growing this plant. They do not need direct sunlight, which means they can be set away from the window. They should be guarded from bright artificial light at night. Plants should be turned regularly to keep them growing straight. Guard against excessive heat and drafts.

African Violets should be watered from below. They must have a constant supply of water. An excellent way to keep the surrounding air moist enough is to ret the pot in another that is larger and contains damp peat moss. Then all that's necessary between waterings is to keep the peat moss damp, providing for the constant evaporation of moisture in the air.

The plants should be fed once a month. A good way to feed is to put ½ teaspoon of complete plant food in a quart of luke warm water and use in watering the plants. Since all of the plant food will not readily go into solution shake or stir before watering each plant. A complete plant food in tablet form is used very successfully by many growers.

African Violets do not require repotting as often as some others. When they are moved from one pot to another, the new pot should not be more than one inch larger than the old pot, and they should never be set deeper in the new pot than they were in the old one. Deep planting will cause

Take Notice That the Board of Education has estimated the total expense of erecting and furnishing an additional elementary schoolhouse and remodeling and re-equipping the high school building and acquiring additional land for site purposes, in said District, to be Six Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($650,000), all of which it is necessary to raise by borrowing and issuing the bonds of the District.

This Notice is given by order of the Board of Education of Plymouth Township School District, Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan.

Farmers Set Out Largest Tomato Crop in Years

Hundreds of thousands of tomato and green pepper plants have been planted during the present week in the Plymouth area by the scores of gardeners and farmers who raise vast amounts of the vegetables that are sold each year on the Detroit markets.

A few who set out some plants early last week that had not been "hardened" to cold weather lost some of their plants by the light frost that hit some of the big fields in the low spots, but the loss was not as heavy as some at first feared it would be.

Present indications are that this year's tomato planting around Plymouth will be the largest in years. Only the earliest bearers are being put out at present; but in the next week or two most of the growers hope to have all of their tomato plants set in the fields.

Surprising as it may seem, there are a few growers of sweet corn who boast that they have corn that already stands four and five inches above the ground.

While last week there was some concern over the cold weather, most growers now feel that they are beyond the danger of any severe frosts, although some plants in previous years have been nipped as late as the last week in May.

Parents Seeking Creek Coverage

Parents who have children attending the new George A. Smith school on the south side of the city are determined to have some action taken towards covering the small creek that runs alongside of the playground before another school year starts.

It seems that many of the children in their play activities, have fallen into the creek. While generally the water is not deep, the creek apparently serves as a sort of open sewer for a section of the city, as the water flowing through the stream is dirty and filthy, like any creek that carries off waste and refuse.

Frequently the children in chasing a batted ball or in running in play, have been reported as having fallen into this dirty water, necessitating a thorough scrubbing and cleansing of their clothing.

While the creek runs through property owned by the school district, it also runs through a portion of the city of Plymouth. Just who will "bury" the creek as was Tonquish creek, the city or school district, is a question to be decided, but parents of the George A. Smith school children are hoping that some one performs the "rites" before the fall term opens.

Threats Made to Blow Up Home of Harold Cheek in Buffalo Falls, N. Y.

There appears to be some "hot times" in Niagara Falls, New York, as the result of the discharge of some 600 city employees who went on strike in violation of a New York state law which prohibits public employees from striking.

Threats have been made to bomb the home of Harold Cheek, now city manager of Niagara Falls, who discharged the strikers. Mr. Cheek was former city manager of Plymouth.

A dispatch from Niagara Falls appearing in The Buffalo Courier-Express provides the following information about the civic troubles faced by Manager Cheek:

Niagara Falls, May 12— City Manager Harold R. Cheek said today he received an anonymous letter threatening the bombing of his home at 810 Maple Ave. unless the strike of city employees is settled "satisfactorily". Police immediately placed a 24-hour guard at his home.

The threat was the latest development in the strike of about 600 hourly paid city workers absent from their jobs since last Tuesday, and fired by Cheek Friday by authority of the Condon-

Wadlin Act banning public employees from striking.

Police Superintendent Martin T. Considine said the threat was in a pencil-scrawled note mailed to Cheek. Considine quoted part of it as reading:

"Mr. Cheek— What a coward you turned out to be. Instead of dealing across the table man to man you have resorted to the law. That may be all right down South... where you were, but up here it is different."

The letter warned Cheek, formerly city manager of Lexington, Ky., that his home "will be blown to bits."

Cheek has a wife and three small children living here.

Considine assigned patrolmen to the city manager's home, cancelled all vacations and days off and ordered plainclothesmen to wear uniforms during the emergency.

Officials of Local 133, State County & Municipal Employees, AFL, disclaimed any responsibility for the threatening letter.

A spokesman for the local declared:

"Every member of the union has been told repeatedly that there is to be no violence, no profanity and no threats in connection with this labor dispute. The union has not stopped any members from going back to work if they desire. The union does not condone any threats including one allegedly made to Mr. Cheek."

The strike has halted the city's million dollar paving program, and several city alleys today were made nearly impassable by piles of uncollected garbage.

Before the strikers were fired by Cheek, the union sought wage increases between 12 1/2 and 24 cents hourly. It rejected a city offer to seven cents to some, and ten cents to others of the 600 employees last Monday.

Negotiations between the city and the union have been suspended.

Says Political Bungling Cause of Potato Mess

When you went down to one of the many excellent and well-stocked Plymouth food stores this week to buy potatoes, did your dealer have them on hand—and did you pay what you thought was a pretty good price for the "spuds"?

If you did, don't blame the Plymouth grocer. It isn't his fault. While most of them have had potatoes on hand to sell, some of the stores have been out of potatoes a part of the time. But take his word for it, potatoes in this rich farm producing center of Michigan are hard to get. In fact maybe you have been eating potatoes that have been imported from Spain.

Remember, do you, when driving home from some trip last fall, of seeing potatoes at farmer stands along the highways and the price was only a dollar a bushel?

What happened to the potato market anyway—and why are there no potatoes and the price is so high if you can find some to buy, asks every housewife when out shopping.

Fulton Lewis Jr. in a recently syndicated column published throughout the nation declared that "Housewives are now paying for the government's bungling in trying to control potato production." He adds this bit of startling information, "Prices will be higher and supplies scarcer and good table spuds practically unobtainable."

His article continues:

"Department of agriculture officials hope the shortage will only be temporary, but they admit that the potato market today is in a mess because of previous government regulations that cost us taxpayers $500,000,000 and led to the destruction of millions of bushels of potatoes.

"Americans consume 1,000,000 bushels of potatoes a day, but unless the price ceiling is raised there won't be that many available in the market for several months. Some growers are talking about a 20 per cent increase in potato prices to stimulate more farm interest in spud growing.

"The idiotic price support program brought thousands of new growers into the market, who made money on submarginal land by producing below-grade potatoes to sell to the government. Top grade growers in Maine, Florida, California and Long Island, New York, stayed in the potato business when regulations and support prices were discontinued in 1951, but most of them cut their acreage.

"Right now potatoes are being shipped into this country from Canada and Spain, although the quality is not large. The United States normally imports potatoes from Canada at this time of the year, anyway.

"Since 1951, however, Canada has been buying large quantities of cheap U. S. spuds. Our prices are controlled, Canadian spud prices are not, so Canada has made a good thing out of buying from us and then selling hers back at better prices."

MOMS NEWS

Unit 18 MOMS of America Inc. will meet for their social evening on Monday, May 26, at 6:30 p.m. in the Veterans Memorial Center. The supper will be pot-luck and members are asked to bring dishes, silver and a dish to pass.

Mildred Hower attended the National Convention of the MOMS held in Texarkana, Tex. from May 6 to 8. We wish to congratulate her on her election to the office of treasurer on the National Board.

Two new members were welcomed Monday night at the business meeting. Glad to have you with us Anna Anderson and Myrtle Pinkerton.

Sorry to hear Anna Dely and Rebecca Erdelyi are on the sick list, also that Mr. Erdelyi had returned to Veterans hospital. We hope for an early recovery.

A request is made for any old eye glasses or any parts or frames, to be used by the Veterans Facility. Leave with any member of the MOMS or at 280 North Main street. They will be greatly appreciated by the veterans.

Martha Griffiths is Luncheon Guest

Last Saturday noon Mrs. Martha W. Griffiths was guest of honor at a lovely luncheon in the Pilgrim Room of the Hotel Mayflower with Miss Neva Lovewell as hostess. The 15 guests heard Mrs. Griffiths outline the major duties of an active legislator, based on her four years experience as a State Representative in Lansing.

Rep. Griffiths is a graduate of the University of Michigan, a practicing lawyer, and an active member of many organizations including the Business and Professional Women's Club of Northwest Detroit.

Petitions are already in circulation for Rep. Griffiths for Representative from the new 17th Congressional District which includes Plymouth, Northville, Livonia, and Detroit's 22nd Ward, and the formal announcement of her candidacy will be made this week.

Congressman George Dondero has been Plymouth's Representative in Washington for 20 years, but he is no longer eligible to serve this area. He now lives in the new 18th Congressional District created by the Michigan Legislature in 1951. Hence Plymouth has both a new district and a vacancy to be filled, nominations to be made at the Primary Election Tuesday, August 5.

Thus far Rep. Griffiths is the only candidate for the office who has had active experience as a state legislator.

Life insurance claims due in 1951 are put at $1,400,000,000.

See Beglinger for a better deal.

Will Install New P.T.A. Officers

On Tuesday evening, May 27, the Smith School Parent - Teachers Association will bring to a close a successful school year of activities.

The program will consist of installation of new officers; presentation of rain coats to the Safety Patrol Boys; two musical numbers by the Junior Chorus; and a Panel Discussion moderated by the Rev. Henry J. Walch, D. D. and participated in by several of the Exchange Students now attending the High School.

The discussion will encompass some of the aspects of school and home life, as these young people see it,— both here and in their native land.

Every member is urged to attend this last meeting and the public is cordially invited. Refreshments will be served.

Circus Theme is Party Setting

Balloons, clowns and an atmosphere of circus life was the setting for the annual Mother and Daughter Party which was held at the Presbyterian church, Wednesday, May 14 at 7:30 p.m.

Approximately 210 persons attended the party and from statements made by both the youngsters and the adults the occasion was a happy and memorable one.

The evening's entertainment consisted of the presentation of plants to the oldest and youngest mother present. Mrs. George Matveia gave a toast to the daughters and Carol Stratton dedicated her toast to the mothers.

The highlight of the evening was Mel Snyder's novelty balloon act, at which time, rubber balloons took on the appearance of dogs, cats and other animals, once they were enlivened with oxygen. Spectators were awed and excited with Mr. Snyder's interpretations of the animal kingdom.

Carnations were presented to each mother present and the daughters were delighted with the marshmallow clowns which were given to them.

Members of the Men's Brotherhood, donned in white aprons and chef's caps served the guests desert. The party was sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church, with Mrs. Roy Jacobus as general chairman.

If you are planning spring redecoration of a room used principally at night, remember it needs special color treatment. Plan to key colors higher, make them more intense.

ALWAYS BE CAREFUL DRIVING

You can swing it if you try

HAVE you, by any chance, been casting eyes at a Buick, and promising yourself that someday you will take the Big Step and have one all your own?

Let us whisper something to you. The "big step" isn't big at all.

We know that's true, because such a high percentage of present Buick owners traded in a car tagged as belonging in "the low-priced field."

So why not set your sights on this star performer?

Why not enjoy big-car comfort—big-car power—big-car prestige for your money?

There's one of these lively lovelies waiting for you to come in and try it.

Get the feel of its mighty Fireball 8 Engine, that's a gas-saving high-compression valve-in-head. You could pay $300 to $400 more for a car that doesn't match its horsepower.

Get the feel of Dynaflo Drive*, that lets you ride relaxed—feeds a silken flow of power—and at the same time cuts down on upkeep costs, by protecting the engine, the rear end, and even the tires, from driving strains.

Get the feel of a ride that cost a million dollars and more for controls of end-sway and side-roll and vertical "throw"—for X-bracing the frame and V-bracing the torque-tube keel—for a total of 15 ride-engineering features.

One thing you'll know for sure when you've tried it. This car wasn't "built to a price." It's a Buick through and through.

But the fact remains that—when you check the price of a Buick SPECIAL against the price tags on so-called "low-priced cars"—you'll find out you can swing it if you really want to.

And brother, will that make your family happy!

Exactly 310 tickets were printed for the 3rd annual mother and daughter banquet, sponsored by the Camp Fire Girls and Girl Reserves, and by Wednesday, the day of the banquet, there were numerous calls for tickets and none available. Practically every seat in the auditorium was filled. Mrs. Martha Ray, personnel worker with the girls in the Highland Park High school, was the main speaker of the evening.

Another fatal automobile accident occurred at the Golden road crossing of the Pere Marquette railroad, about four o'clock last Sunday morning, when an automobile skidding on the wet pavement, wrecked itself against the side of a moving freight train, resulting fatally for one man and seriously injuring two others. All three lived in Detroit.

Plymouth citizens have contributed liberally for the relief of the Mississippi Valley flood sufferers, in the campaign that has been carried on here under the direction of George H. Robinson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, which organization sponsored the movement. Mr. Robinson reports about $950 has been contributed, and sent to the proper authorities, at the time of our going to press.

The senior play, "The Man on the Box," met with such success week before last that it was repeated Wednesday evening. All of the characters played their part remarkably well. The leads played by Josephine Schmidt, Barbara Horton, Wilbur Murphy and Robert Hubert were particularly well done.

Mrs. Martha Egge has commenced the taking of the school census in this school district. The work is to be completed this month.

Misses Edna Allen and Ursula Carey were week-end visitors at Alma, Michigan.

The board of directors of the new Mayflower hotel purchased a passenger elevator for the hotel Tuesday.

The Plymouth Rotary Club held a very interesting meeting last Friday. A pleasing feature of the luncheon hour, was the presentation of a fine traveling bag to Rotarian E. C. Hough, by Past President B. E. Champe, on behalf of the members of the club. Mr. Hough will leave next Sunday for Ostend, Belgium, where he where he goes to attend the International Rotary Convention.

Halvar Blomberg and Miss Ruth D. DuBois were united in marriage at the bridegroom's home, 678 Ann street, Saturday morning, Rev. A. K. MacRae performing the ceremony. Kenneth Anderson acted as best man, while Mrs. Annan Anderson was bridesmaid. During the ceremony, Mrs. Bessie Little sang "O Promise Me."

Every home in Plymouth a loyal American war bond pledge signer! That is the aim of some 50 or 60 patriotic Plymouth women who will Monday and Tuesday give all of their time in a nation-wide drive to help the United States to secure funds with which to conduct the war for our national preservation.

The largest parade and Memorial Day program in Plymouth is planned by the joint American Legion and Ex-Service Men's committee for next Saturday, May 30. The parade, to be led by the massed colors of all participating organizations and the Plymouth high school band, will form at the corner of Mill and Main streets at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

Property owners will pay taxes at the same rate as last year, $12.80 per thousand, it was determined at the city commission meeting Monday evening. The commission confirmed the 1942 assessment roll at $6,008,170 and passed the annual budget recommendations.

The city commission Monday at its regular meeting passed on first and second reading proposed amendments to the city milk ordinance which will permit Detroit milk dealers to operate within the city of Plymouth. Plymouth's seven milk dealers who reside in and around this city, had protested against the change, declaring that they feared they could not face the competition of the big Detroit dealers. Some members of the commission contended, however, that the present milk ordinance set up more or less of a monopoly for dealers who live in this locality and that other business men of Plymouth did not have the same sort of protection.

A delegation of about 200 citizens assembled at the local draft headquarters last Friday morning to stage the first civic demonstration organized as a "send-off" for army inductees. The program was sponsored by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce. Representatives of the community included Red Cross canteen workers, members of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, city officials and employees and the employees of many local business firms.

Bob Thams and Joe Brisbois have invited a group of 20 high school friends to a weenie roast and picnic to be held Saturday evening in Riverside park.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wiedman plan to attend a semi-formal affair, Saturday evening, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Schultz, in Rosedale Park, in celebration of the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Dohmen, also of the park.

It is interesting to note that the dairy cow belongs to one of the first families in America. Although none of her ancestors came over on the Mayflower, the first of them arrived at Jamestown Colony a few years later in 1624.

New Books Crowd Library Shelves

"It's not easy to find a place for books", stated Mrs. Ada S. Murray, librarian, when she gazed upon the new arrivals. Among the new books received are: "The Master", Brod; "April Snow", Budd; "Home to Tennessee", Crabb; "Smoking Iron", Field; "No Survivors", Henry; "Tomorrow, the Stars", Heinlein; "Devil in the Desert", Horgan; "Green Light for Death", Kane; "Grand Right and Left", Kronenberger; "The Chicago Story", Morris; "Catcher in the Rye", Salinger; "The White Lady", Dubkin; and "The Fifth Chinese Daughter", by Wong.

"The Eye of the Kite", is a novel by Fleming MacLiesh, which portrays the life of seven; four were "names"—three were lesser souls. Koenig, a millionaire dreamed of building an Industrial Empire, he was both spoiled and sadistic toward his fellow men and women. Ivy Thorne adorned the society pages and was constantly seeking new thrills. Lynton Rhodes held a variety of titles, among them a gambler, movie star and lecher. Dr. Asher was a nuclear physicist. His brain belonged to Koenig by right of eminent domain.

The three souls consisted of a pilot, his wife and an ex-test pilot. The book is centered around a flight, intermingled with the jealousies and tension which arose and flared up around the trip. Under the author's sure touch, theme, style, and sharp development of character combine to make an unforgettable novel that is also a shrewd commentary on certain of today's mores.

The author is a well educated man. He studied aerodynamics, meteorology and aircraft engines. For several years he pursued flying as a sportsman pilot. He was a flying instructor, a ferry pilot and became an enlisted man in the Army. In 1935 he published a book of verse under the name of Archibald Fleming. He has written three novels, a play and a book on hemisphere strategy. He has been represented in national publications with articles, verse and literary criticism. As a lecturer his subjects ranged from modern literature to aviation to organizing medical research.

Horse lovers will cherish Leach's "Kentucky Derby Diamond Jubilee". The book was compiled under the Auspices of the Churchill Downs from 1875 thru 1949. The author, Brownie Leach was born and bred in Kentucky's bluegrass region. As a child he romped over the fields at Ashland Stud, where three Derby winners were fouled. He knew many of the horsemen personally and obtained much of the information for his book from them.

The masterpiece contains many pictures and important facts on the winners, pedigrees, tabulated racing records and historic parallels. The book also reveals a synopsis of leading events concerning each year.

PHS Clubs Elect Officers, Plan Future Events

Joanne Skaggs was elected to the presidency of the Commercial Club at the meeting held Friday, May 9. Others who received offices were: Marion Donahue, vice president; Gretchen Schuster, secretary; and Shirley Fradette, treasurer.

Plans were made for the picnic honoring the senior class members of the club which will be held Thursday, May 29, in the park by the tennis courts. Marion Donahue is the chairman of this project. Refreshments will consist of hot dogs, pop, baked beans, potato salad, and cake.

Clarence Jetter of the unemployment bureau will be guest speaker at the Friday, May 23 meeting.

Joyce Campbell was elected president of the Future Nurses Club of Plymouth High at an election held on May 9. Edna Gishner was elected vice president and Grace Aldrich, secretary and treasurer.

The purpose of this club is to help the members get acquainted with their future work. To fulfill this purpose the girls are assigned to special hours to take care of the nurse's office.

Band Parents Elect Officers

Chosen by the band parents at a meeting on May 14, to receive scholarships for the two week summer camp at Baldwin-Walace College, Berea, Ohio, were Kathy Bernash, Barbara Carley, Arlene French, Wayne Smith, Dick Lickfeldt, Lee Huber, and David Baker.

The following parent officers were chosen for the coming year: president, Mrs. Harold Paulger; vice president, Mrs. Michael Huber; secretary, Mrs. George Diehrick; treasurer, Mrs. Leo Crane, assistant treasurer, Mrs. Allen Bernash.

All band parents of the elementary junior high and high school band members are invited to a potluck picnic to be held May 29, at Gunsali Drive in Riverside Park at 6:30 where games and entertainment will be provided for all.

Public Speaking Classes Begin Reading Exercises

For the past week the second and sixth hour classes, directed by Carl Kranish, have been doing exercises in reading.

Each day everyone in the class must read a short story or a few stanzas of poetry showing expression and emphasis in their reading.

After a few days of this, they have to commit to memory 30 lines of poetry which they will recite, showing strong expression and emphasis.

Sophomores Select Rings

Class rings, pins, and necklaces were on display for the Sophomore class, Wednesday, May 14.

The tenth grade executive board met, Tuesday, May 13, to pick out the five rings available which will be ordered through Herrick's Jewelry from the H. R. Terryberry Company in Grand Rapids, Michigan, between May 19 and June 5. Five dollars must be paid now and the balance is to be paid in the fall when the class receives its rings.

Rings available are: plain gold $15.07, $17.10, and $19.37; rose and white, $1.75 more; Sapphire, $4.25 more; black onyx $3. more; blue and white stripes, $1.50 more; and extra large, $2.50 more. Pins or necklaces cost: plain gold, $9.23; pearl, $11.69; rose and white, $11.69; and black onyx is $14.76.

Executive board members who picked out the rings were: Jerry Kelly, Jackie O'Neill, Brian Kidston, Ross Willet, Margaret Burr, Inez Enterline, Dean Palmer, Barry Lightfoot, Jim Isbister, Ty Caplin and Bob Fulton.

Graduates Offered Scholarship

Graduates of January or June of 1952 with a high scholastic standing, high sports standards, and the ambition to become secretaries have been offered the National Secretaries Association Scholarship which the Detroit Transcript Chapter of the National Secretaries Association is sponsoring.

A transcript of high school credits must accompany an application which may be obtained from Miss Ruth Butts, counselor of Plymouth High school. Entries will be disqualified if transcripts of credits are not attached.

On the reverse side of the application, write in 200 words or less "Why I Want to Win the National Secretaries Association Scholarship for Business Education."

All entries must be postmarked on or before midnight, May 31, 1952. All entries become the property of the National Secretaries Association and cannot be returned.

Mail the application with the transcript attached to: Mrs. Eve Neenan, Post-World, Grosse Pointe, 30, Michigan.

Club Members Attend Annual Spring Picnic

The Library Club, sponsored by Mrs. Esther Ham, had its annual spring picnic on Friday, May 16. The Student Library Assistants met at Alex Paskevich's house where they had a Weiner roast. Alex then furnished the hay wagon and the club spent the rest of the evening on a hay ride.

Vocal Students Present Concert

Under the direction of Fred C. Nelson a concert of vocal music will be given on Wednesday, May 28, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Starting the program will be the Boys' Junior Chorus singing: "Go Down Moses", a Spiritual; "Loch Lomond", Old Scottish air and "Marionina", an Italian folk tune. Next will be the Girls' Junior Chorus with "Serenade", by Tosti; "Panis Angelicus", by Franck; and "The Maids of Chiapas", a Mexican Folk song.

The Triple Trios will do "Where E're You Walk", by Handel; "Into the Night", by Edwards; and "Rio Rita", by Tierney.

Girls Glee Club will sing "The Enchanted Lake" by Pfeil; "Blue Are Her Eyes", by Clokey; "It's a Grand Night for Singing", by Rogers and Hammerstein; "La Spagnola", by De Chiara; and "I Got Shoes", by Cain.

Ending the program is the Choir rendering "Jesus, Joy of Mans Endeavor", by Bach; "Cherubim Song No. 7", by Bortniansky; "Listen to the Lambs", by Dett; "Deep River", by Budieigh; "The Syncopated Clock", by Anderson; and "Rain and the River", by Fox.

Ron Krump Elected Hi-Y President

Election of officers for Hi-Y were held Thursday, May 15, at Plymouth High school. Ron Krump was elected President; Bob Nulty, vice president; Tom Guthrie, sergeant of arms; Jim Isbister, secretary; Dick Root, treasurer and Bruce Green, chaplain.

Hi-Y members went swimming at the Detroit Fisher YMCA Tuesday, May 13, under the direction of Harry Reeves, Hi-Y advisor.

Saturday night, May 17, members of Hi-Y club had a picnic in the local park. They played games, and enjoyed the usual weenie roast.

College Band Performs at Junior High School

Under the direction of William D. Fitch, the Michigan State Normal college band, presented an assembly for the junior high students and members of the senior high band, on May 12, in the high school gymnasium.

Among the numbers that the band played were: "High School Cadets", a march by Sousa; the "Holst Suite for Band in E Flat", which was in march form; "Cowboy Rhapsody", Gould, a modernistic arrangement of well-known western melodies; and "Bop She Goes", Walters, a novelty which stirred the audience. Included also in the program was a cello trio comprised of three girls and piano accompaniment.

Eighteen Models of Other Makes of Cars Cost More!

Official price lists show that there are eighteen different models of American motor cars, produced by five separate automotive manufacturers, which actually cost more than the lowest-priced Cadillac—when similarly equipped.

If you find this difficult to believe—then you're in good company!

For the record also shows that, during the past few years, literally hundreds of thousands of motorists have taken title to these costlier models. And there can be little doubt that many of them did so simply because they failed to realize how relatively modest the cost of a Cadillac can be.

They simply assumed that exclusive in quality means exclusive in price! And it is doubtful if a single misunderstanding ever cost so many motorists so much!

It cost them, first of all, the satisfaction of owning a Cadillac! For there is no substitute for the sense of pride and well-being that comes from owning a motor car that is universally recognized as the "Standard of the World."

It cost them, too, the pleasure of driving a Cadillac! And this, beyond any question, is the greatest penalty of all! For in missing out on the many thrills to be found behind its wheel—they're missing out on motoring's finest rewards.

And, of course, it also cost them Cadillac's many long-range economies—its almost unbelievable gasoline mileage, its unsurpassed dependability, and its legendary long life.

We know that you wouldn't want to make such a costly mistake in the selection of your next car. But you'd better be careful—because there are eighteen different ways to make it!

So when the time comes—investigate! And if you pay the price of a Cadillac—be sure that you get one!

Come on In . . . the Water's Fine

And it's pumped electrically in this up-to-date farm home. With two small children to keep clean and healthy, Mrs. Vern Whims, Oakland County, says water under pressure is a real help around the clock.

There's no lifting or lugging. And no need to skimp. Electricity puts water where you want it—when you want it.

A well-planned electric water system helps farm folks in other ways, too. More milk, eggs and meat; fewer hours of hard labor; extra fire protection.

Roger Babson Says---

Babson Discusses Bad Investments

Babson Park, Mass., May 22. E. H. Harriman was probably America's greatest railroad builder. Incidentally, he was the father of the present W. Averell Harriman, formerly Ambassador to Russia and who is now seeking the nomination for President on the Democratic ticket. Once, when riding in the father's private car, I asked: "What is the most important factor in selecting a good railroad investment?" He replied: "Character of the Management. Good Management can make a profitable railroad from two streaks of rust; while poor Management can turn a good railroad into two streaks of rust."

Selecting Good Management
I then thought that by studying the location, capitalization and earnings of a railroad it would be possible to tell a good investment from a bad investment. Unfortunately, I have since found Mr. Harriman to be correct. There are too many who at the present time think they can select good investments and detect bad investments by studying earnings statements and other statistics for the collecting and analyzing of which I now spend a million dollars a year. Such figures are valuable. Every careful person should study balance sheets and earnings statements before investing hard-earned money in any stocks or bonds. From sad experience, I have learned that such figures, although recording the past, are little indication as to what the future will bring forth. To avoid losses, one must look deeper. The future depends upon the Management. Not only does the character of Management change as new men are elected; but Management will deteriorate under the same men who stay too long, or become careless. Unfortunately, the required information to judge the character of Management cannot be secured from manuals and magazines, but only through personal contacts and confidential studies.

Importance of Character
I have almost reached the point where I must employ retired FBI men as my assistants, rather than statisticians or economists. A few trained newspaper men are useful in detecting bad Managements; but the popular policy of leading Banks, Insurance Companies, and Investment Trusts to depend upon so-called "investment colleges" is dangerous practice. Colleges have graduated hundreds of these investment analyst and they hold such jobs today. They are honest and hard working young men, but very few of them can forecast the future of a corporation by relying on published reports.

To prepare worth-while reports on the Management of any corporation, it is necessary to visit the plant and talk with the officers, directors and employees. Furthermore, these men need not be judged by the answers which they give to your questions so much as by their language, ethics and basic principles. When interviewing men high up in the management of a corporation, I may learn more of their character by discussing home life, children, churches, schools, liquor, race tracks, and other general subjects than by talking about their own company.

What the Neighbors Report
In addition to such personal interviews, I have informative connections through many thousands of clients and the four hundred fifty newspapers which carry this column. I also am one of a confidential organization which secures undercover information of the most important kind. These and other confidential sources are in addition to publications, vast files and printed reports which all investment advisors have to study. Readers should know that there are today over 750,000 corporations whose stocks have been bought or sold and are now a total loss, the companies passing out of existence.

Young people especially need to realize the importance of character in connection with securing and holding jobs, as well as in connection with the investing of their hard-earned savings. The strength of America today came not from money or big business or even colleges. These are but the fruits of character implanted by praying parents, devoted school teachers, ethical employers and good neighbors.

Society Holds Honorary Tea

On Wednesday, May 14, the Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the Methodist church for its annual meeting. The day was planned as an Honorary Tea for Home Friends. The highlight of the afternoon's program was a talk given by a one time member, Mrs. A. J. Koenig of St. Clare Shores. Her topic, "What the Church Has Meant to Alaska" was enjoyed by her many friends, both old and new.

Mr. Koenig will be remembered as serving Plymouth as City Manager some years ago. They lived in Alaska for some time. Many of the home friends were in attendance and those unable to be present were remembered by a flow-er taken from the Society.

Grange Gleanings

Our Grange meeting of May 15 was well attended. Mr. and Mrs. Toles of Ypsilanti and Mrs. Brodie of Northville road were received into membership and we were very happy to welcome them.

Our next meeting on June 5 will be an especially interesting one and we hope there will be a big crowd there. We are to have a demonstration of weaving and other crafts by the teachers from Colony Farms. The public is invited.

The birthday supper comes first at 6:30, potluck as usual of course and just bring a little bit extra this time as we are to have guests.

Over forty Grange members attended service Sunday afternoon at the little country church west of Salem. A friendly pastor and a friendly pastor and his wife. It was good to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Huebler spent Sunday in Toledo with their son Jack and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McConnell visited their daughter in Ludington the early part of this week.

The rummage sale was quite successful and added a neat little sum to the treasury.

Mr. and Mrs. Finton enjoyed a visit from their son from Saginaw last week.

You're money ahead when you buy on these PLAIN HARD FACTS

CHEVROLET

Stack up what you get for what you pay... and join the nation's largest group of truck users by choosing Chevrolet

By far the biggest number of truck users today are Chevrolet owners... and for good hard-headed reasons. Because what they get is this:

Low Cost—in purchase price and in upkeep. A truck that gets the job done. A truck that's rugged, long lasting.

Take a look at the four facts below... and see why you, too, will be money ahead with a Chevrolet truck. Come in and see us about it!

FACT NO. 1 Save money on purchase price. Stack up a Chevrolet truck against any other truck with comparable specifications. You'll find the Chevrolet truck lists for less.

FACT NO. 2 Save money on operating costs. Hundreds of thousands of truck users have proved to their own satisfaction that Chevrolet costs the least of all to own and maintain.

FACT NO. 3 Save money on job efficiency. Chevrolet trucks are factory-matched to your payload requirements. You don't buy "too much or too little truck."

FACT NO. 4 Save money on low depreciation. Records show that Chevrolet trucks traditionally bring more money at resale than any other make which costs about the same new.

Community Band to Give Concerts

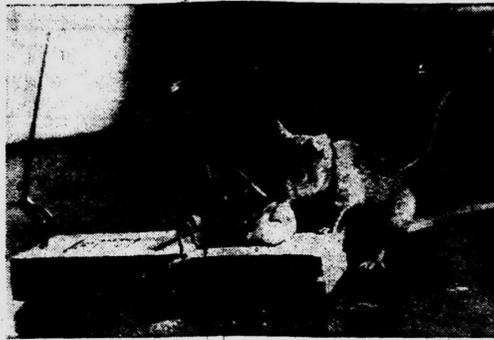

The Plymouth school and community band will present a series of eight concerts in Kellogg park from 7 until 8 p.m. on Fridays beginning June 20.

The concerts will consist of popular music and some of the favorites from semi-classical music.

Rehearsals for the band will begin Monday, June 16, at 8 p.m. and continue on Mondays throughout the season. Rehearsals will be in the new band room of the high school. All local musicians who would like to take part are welcome to do so. Those interested should contact Lawrence Livingston at the high school before June 1.

Much of the new music to be heard at the concerts was purchased by James Houk and Blake Fisher of Fisher Shoe store and donated to the band.

Sidewalks to be Constructed in Precinct Three

The city commission voted the necessity of construction of sidewalks in precinct 3. This is the first of a series of studies on the sidewalk needs of the entire city.

Sidewalks will be constructed on Sunset from Penniman to Junction; on Auburn from Penniman to Junction; on Evergreen from Penniman to Junction; on Irvin from William to Junction; on Blunk from Church to Junction; on Ann from William to Junction; on Harvey from Church to Junction; on Adams from Church to Junction; on Blanche from Sheldon to Adams also, lot 10 corner of William and Evergreen where sidewalk does not now exist.

The owners of property on these streets which do not have sidewalks on their property must see that sidewalks are constructed in accordance with plans in the office of the city engineer. If the owner does not do this, the city manager will have a construction company build the sidewalk and charge the owner for the construction.

High School Choir to Appear on TV

The Plymouth High school choir will appear on television on Memorial Day. The choir will sing on Ladies' Day which is broadcast over WJBK.

Soloists for the program will be Mary Lou Hartwick and Verlyn Knight.

The program will include mostly patriotic music. Among the songs to be sung are "Beautiful Savior", "Hymn of Freedom", "Deep River", "Lord Bless You and Keep You", and "Dona Nobis Pacem".

The choir is under the direction of Fred C. Nelson.

Oil, Asphalt, Sewer Bids Let

Bids were let at the city commission meeting held Monday evening for 20,000 gallons of road oil, for 30,000 gallons of asphalt sealer and for the installation of storm sewers.

The road oil contract was let to the Phillips road oil company at a total cost of $2,280. Flynn Construction company will furnish the asphalt and 700 tons of sand with a total cost to the city of approximately $7,400.00.

W. B. Warner company was low bidder for the storm sewer. The quoted $5.80 per foot if the sewers were between six and seven and a half feet deep; $6.80 if seven and a half to eight and a half feet deep; and $8.10 per foot if between eight and a half and ten feet deep. Man holes will be installed at a cost of $150 each.

For Homes, Camps and Basement Rooms.

THE HEATILATOR FIREPLACE circulates heat to every corner of the room and adjoining rooms. Saves the heat that ordinary fireplaces waste up the chimney. The scientifically designed heating chamber of the Heatilator Fireplace is concealed in the masonry where it draws cool air from floor level, heats it, and returns it to the room.

Heatilator installation eliminates the usual causes of smoking. It saves fuel bills during cool weather. Puts no limit on mantel design. Adds but little to the cost of the finished fireplace.

See the Heatilator Fireplace in our display room, or phone for illustrated folder and low prices.

Keep Hats In Shape

INSTEAD of tossing his hat on the closet shelf, where it soon lost its shape, a businessman exercised his ingenuity and built a simple rack which he fastened inside the closet door. He made it in his workshop from three pieces of 1 by 2-inch lumber and two panels of Masonite tempered Presdwood, each 3/16 of an inch thick, 10 inches wide and 26 inches long.

The wood formed three uprights to which the Presdwood was nailed to form a long box just 2 inches wide.

The hardwood next to the door was oblong, but the outer piece had two semi-circles cut out with a scroll saw to provide a resting place for his hats. Width of each cutout was 7 inches and its depth 6 inches. In the center was a space of 6 inches to give clearance when both hats were in place, and at either end was a clear space of 3 inches.

Offsets at the tops and bottoms of the wood strips permitted him to attach the hat rack to the door with screws. He liked the natural brown color of the hardwoods and therefore did not paint them.

Ordinance No. 169

An ordinance to amend Sections 7, 10 and 12 and the Title, and to change the number of Ordinance No. 95, as last amended, entitled "AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUING OF LICENSES TO THE OWNERS OR KEEPERS OF DOGS AND TO COMPEL THE OWNERS OR KEEPERS THEREOF TO OBTAIN AND PAY FOR SUCH LICENSES; TO REGULATE THE RUNNING AT LARGE OF DOGS; TO AUTHORIZE THE KILLING OF ALL DOGS NOT LICENSED, OR RUNNING AT LARGE IN VIOLATION OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ORDINANCE; TO PROVIDE FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATION OF A PUBLIC POUND; TO PROVIDE A PENALTY FOR THE VIOLATION OF THIS ORDINANCE; AND TO REPEAL ALL ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT HERewith.

The City of Plymouth Ordains:

Section 1. Section 7 of ordinance No. 95, as last amended is hereby amended to read as follows: No persons owning, possessing or harboring any dog shall do so without having upon such dog a substantial collar of leather or other durable material to which shall be attached the license tag above required and, further, no such person shall permit, at any time, any such dog in any of the streets, alleys, commons, or other open or public spaces of the City, unless the dog is securely held by leash.

Section 2. Section 10 of said ordinance is hereby amended to read as follows: No person owning, possessing or harboring any dog shall permit such dog to run at large at any time, and the Chief of Police or any authorized representative of the Police Department may destroy any stray dog, any apparently vicious dog or any dog not held by leash found in any of the streets, alleys, commons, or other public or open spaces in the city; provided, however, that reasonable efforts, except in the case of an apparently vicious dog, shall first have been made to catch and impound such dog in the city pound.

Section 3. Section 12 of said ordinance is hereby amended to read as follows: No dog shall be released from the pound unless the owner or person entitled to demand the same shall pay to the City Treasurer the sum of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) as an impounding fee and shall exhibit a license for such dog issued pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 4. Said Ordinance shall hereafter be numbered "Ordinance No. 1 A" and its title is hereby amended to read as follows: AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE LICENSING, CONTROL, REGULATION AND DESTRUCTION OF DOGS, TO PROVIDE FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATION OF A PUBLIC POUND; TO PROVIDE PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION OF THIS ORDINANCE AND TO REPEAL ALL ORDINANCES OR PARTS OF ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT HERewith.

Section 5. This ordinance shall become operative and effective on the 9th day of June, 1952.

City Property to be Appraised

The American Appraisal company has been named by the city commission to appraise the city hall and its contents as well as all other city property and contents where necessary.

The cost to the city for this survey is $1,500 for the original and $200 per year for continuing service. The appraisal will allow the city to insure its buildings up to the amount of evaluation, or to the proper amount under a co-insurance clause.

In case of a fire, the American Appraisal company sends out its "Fire Brigade" with the list of the contents, the evaluation of the building burned, and the type of construction used in the building.

At this time the city owned buildings are believed to be grossly underinsured.

Street Lights Off, But No One Seemed to Care a Bit About it

Downtown street lights have been off several hours during early evening this week due to some transformer changes being made by the Detroit Edison company.

But the most amazing thing about the darkened streets was not so much the fact that the lights were off as was the fact that the city hall or the Detroit Edison office in Plymouth had not received a single call up until Tuesday forenoon—and that one call was from The Plymouth Mail asking as to why the lights were off.

Apparently everybody took the darkened streets as a matter of fact and seemingly didn't care whether the lights were on or off. Plymouth does enjoy the reputation of having some of the best lighted streets of any city of similar size in Michigan.

It is interesting to note that the dairy cow belongs to one of the first families in America. Although none of her ancestors came over on the Mayflower, the first of them arrived at Jamestown Colony a few years later in 1624.

COMPLETING PLANS for the last concert of this school year are F. C. Nelson, vocal director, Mary Lou Hartwick who will solo, and Jon Brake, accompanist. The concert will be presented May 28, at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. Groups singing in the concert are the junior boys chorus, the junior girls chorus, the triple trios, the girls glee club and the high school choir.

DALE CARNEGIE

AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING"

Some People Never Die

WHEN GEORGE SCHMIDT, Minneapolis, received word that his father had died, he traveled home on an airplane. Looking down through the window he saw some houses through a hole in clouds, and noticed one particularly, a little white house, bathed in sunshine.

Then he thought of another white house in Jersey which he used to visit. A little old Swedish lady lived in that house, and it was a place to go if you had any problems on your mind. The door always opened wide when you knocked and there was Mrs. Evander with a big smile on her face. She had a heart as big as the world, and she loved everyone. If she heard someone was sick, she would prepare some tasty dish. She sent flowers from her garden to all the shut-ins she knew about, and she had a smile and a cheerful word for everybody.

Carnegie

George remembered that when this little lady died a host of friends came to bid her farewell. He thought then that some people can never really die; they leave too much of themselves in this world; all the good, kind things become a part of everyone they have contacted, and though they may leave this world, they live on in the hearts of all who knew them.

Suddenly he felt very peaceful, because his father had been that kind of a man, a grand guy, who loved to laugh and to make other people laugh with him. He remembered his own happy childhood, and all the kind words and the understanding his father had given him. He knew he would never see his father alive again, but he knew, too, that he wasn't dead—he could never die. He left too much of himself with his son, and with all the people he had ever known.

Although sadness remained, the terrible despondency, the crushing grief was gone. He understood then how one may really achieve eternal life, and he found peace in that understanding.

UNCORKING THE NEWS

By Carl Peterson

Around the first of the year various "deep-thinkers" were saying that 1952 would be a year of decision. That's a forecast that fits any year like cream on strawberries. And one of the big decisions is now covering the land like an epicurean . . . that's "Where do we go for our vacation?" This is the season of the well-thumbed road map, travel folder and budget book . . . and blessed is the family that can come to a quick agreement on whether the beach, the mountains, or some other exact location, suits all hands. The annual task is divided into anticipation, vacation and remembrance . . . and they're all good.

I see where a psychology professor is trying to teach a chimpanzee to talk. Isn't there enough monkey business going on already without bringing monkeys into it? "My druggist told me . . ." is a pretty common expression these days . . . and people are turning more and more to their druggist for every family need. They can count on friendly advice, efficient service and quality goods. For the best in everything you don't yet make your family head-quarters PETERSON DRUG, 840 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Phone: 2080.

Just as green is symbolic of spring so in the spring the outer skin of mature oranges and grapefruit frequently gets re-tinted with green. Nature applying chlorophyll . . . the green color . . . to a new crop of fruit developing on the trees also touches up the citrus not yet picked. Re-greening affects only the peel; not the ripe, juicy fruit.

The word "protein" came into our vocabulary about 100 years ago, being coined from the Greek "protos" which means "first." Protein, the main or first substance in all the body's muscles, organs and tissues, is supplied chiefly by meat, fish, poultry, eggs, cheese, milk, dry beans and peas and nuts.

Luncheon meat leads in the canned meat pack.

A chiffon pie filling has a milk and egg custard base. But instead of being compact, the lightness and froth of the beaten egg are maintained by unflavored gelatin. This gelatin is a food stabilizer . . . it actually captures and makes stable an airy texture.

Fresh mushrooms contain twice their weight in water. Since they shrink nearly fifty percent when cooked, a 4-ounce can of mushrooms equals about one-half pound of the fresh.

Historically strawberries are a young fruit. Found growing wild in America, they have been cultivated only about 500 years.

Solids in milk total nearly 13 percent. That's more solids and less water than found in many foods . . . carrots, cauliflower and spinach for example. Since milk protein coagulate and convert milk into a solid as soon as it reaches the stomach, and because of its high nutritive value, milk can be considered a food rather than a beverage.

To corn means to preserve and season with salt in grains . . . thus "corned beef."

When putting on new spring gloves be sure to turn finger rings toward the palm.

California Wins In Peanut Fracas

Would you believe it! California wins in the hottest peanut contest this city or any other city ever had. Frank Rambo has decided that when he plants his peanut crop this weekend out at the Rambo Peanut Ranch on Ann Arbor trail that the seeds he will use mostly will be seeds direct from California.

It seems that since last fall when the bluejays took Mr. Rambo's peanut crop "for a ride" that his friends have been showering him with seeds from everywhere for his 1952 crop. Along came a shipment of peanut seed from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lush, who are now nicely domiciled out in the beautiful foothills of Rancho Sanfe Fe where they can sit on their front porch, look at the ocean and feel the nice cool breezes blowing down from the mountains.

Then some lady walked into Mr. Rambo's office last winter when he was as busy as a bee and dumped a lot of peanut seeds on his desk.

Soon after this someone else sent him a shipment of peanut seeds from somewhere. He thinks they were from Arkansas, but he isn't sure. Then the farm editor of The Plymouth Mail brought him back a mess of peanut seeds from Georgia where they claim they grow the sweetest peanuts in the world.

After weeks and weeks of nibbling on these various samples, Mr. Rambo has decided that the California peanuts are just a bit sweeter, that they have more of that real peanut flavor than any of the others—and like everything else in California, they are bigger than any other peanuts that grow anywhere in the world.

"I like 'em little fellers that the farm editor brought up from Georgia, but they are pretty small. They've got a good taste, but them I nibble on a California peanut, and I decide that there is just a trifle better taste to that California brand that Harry Lush sent me. Them Arkansas peanuts are pretty good, too. So while I'm going to plant all my California seed, I'm going to plant just a smattering of the others. Maybe Michigan soil will help 'em all. We'll see this fall," commented Mr. Rambo when cornered in his office the other day.

He strenuously denied the rumor that the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Lush in Plymouth just at this time had anything to do with his decision to plant more California peanuts than he is going to plant from Georgia, Arkansas or North Carolina.

"I'm going by taste only. I've tasted 'em all—and I like 'em all, but there's something about those California peanuts that's different. They've got a whang to 'em you can't find in any other peanut," he insisted.

Dollar Conscious Students Measure Size of Budget

How much is $85,000,000.00? Searching out comparisons to this question, James Latture's Plymouth High school class in government came up with some startling answers indicating the buying power of Pres. Truman's recommended, 1952-1953 fiscal budget.

One student, Shirley Riker, had this to say about this lush budget plum: Eighty-five billion dollars will buy 42,500,000 mink coats at $2,000 apiece or more than 36,956,000 automobiles.

Al Williams, comparing the 10,625,000 bricks making up Plymouth High school's new school, said that each brick compared to the budget, since pared down by congressional action, would cost taxpayers at the rate of $8,000 a brick.

Not to be outdone, Gary Hees told a satirical story: "If a Scotchman threw away a dollar bill ever second since 1 A.D., he would still have more than $23,441,000,000 yet to toss away."

Thinking in terms of distance, Marvin Green stated that 85,000,000,000 dollar bills laid end to end would reach around the world over 315 times.

Instead of laying that same line of bills around the world Ruth Hasper's calculations took her straight up—right to the moon, which, she said, could be reached by that 85-billion dollar bill line 17 times—round trip included.

R. S. Bennette talked in terms of square miles. "Eighty-five billion dollar bills laid side by side," he declared, "would cover the same area as the state of Indiana, which has an area of 36,291 square miles."

Sally Hockenberry concluded "exercise budget" with an all important factor—time.

"If a watch ticked two times in a second and each tick was equivalent to a dollar bill," she exclaimed, "it would have to tick continuously for 1347 years to equal $85,000,000,000 of government spending."

Though no one said who would get the mink coats, new automobiles or just those dollar bills lying around on the ground, Mr. Latture's experiment brought to light one fact—that money doesn't "grow on trees." Someone has to open his pocketbook and help fill the budget coffers.

BETTER EATING
by Jean Allen
SPRING FEVER TONIC

Everyone suffers a trifle, at least, from this ailment called spring fever. A good "tonic" is the flavor freshness of pineapple and strawberries made into Sunday desserts.
Pineapple Strawberry Cup
1 cup sliced strawberries
1 cup strained honey
1 cup shredded or diced fresh pineapple
Combine strawberries and honey. Let stand fifteen to twenty minutes. Add pineapple just before serving. Serve well chilled.
Yield: 3 to 4 servings.

Fresh Pineapple
A pineapple should be ripe when it is used uncooked in desserts. The pineapple is ripe when the spikes can be pulled out of the top easily.
Cut off the base and twist out the top. Slice crosswise. Pare each slice removing the eyes and the center core. Cut into bite-size pieces or shred by pulling apart with a fork.

A sweet chewy cookie goes well with this tart pineapple-strawberry combination. From a more practical standpoint, this cookie recipe is a good way to use up slightly stale bread.

Bread Crumb Dainties
2 eggs
1 teaspoon lemon or almond extract
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 cups soft bread cubes
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 teaspoon salt
Beat eggs until thick. Add extract, then gradually add the sugar, beating well after each addition. Fold in bread cubes, nuts and salt.
Drop by tablespoonfuls, about two inches apart, on greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) fifteen minutes.
Yield: about 30 cookies.
Iced tea or hot coffee is a "must" with this dessert.
