

Jean Murray Wed in Greenfield Village Chapel

The quaint elegance of the Greenfield Village Chapel formed the background for the impressive ceremony uniting Jean Farley Murray and Hugh Lyman Harsha on Saturday, June 7. Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Murray of Lakeland Court and Hugh's parents are the H. Paul Harsha, Srs. of Rosedale Gardens.

The Reverend Henry Walch officiated at the services at 12 o'clock noon. Single white peonies typed to each pew with wide white satin streamers formed the aisle down which Jean approached the altar on the arm of her father. Large bouquets of white peonies were placed at the altar. Preceding the ceremony Miss Alice Jean Thompson of Detroit, a classmate of Jean's at Duke University sang "I Love Thee" accompanied by the chapel organist.

Jean wore a white organdy gown with gathered sleeves, fitted bodice and portrait neckline.

Mrs. Hugh Harsha

Bands of embroidered leaves were applied around the neckline. Two bands of the leaves extended down the front and the back of her gown to the skirt of which flowed into a short chapel train. Her French illusion, fingertip length veil fell from a Juliet cap of organdy banded with the same applique leaves. She carried a white organdy fan edged with organdy leaves and centered with an arrangement of white geraniums, stephanotis and English ivy and she wore short white gloves.

Mrs. Edmund Andrews of Dexter, the former Madelyn Schlendorfer, was the matron of honor and Jean's bridesmaids were Jeanne MacLeod of East Lansing and Patricia Whitaker of Washington, D.C. All attendants wore gowns of Alice blue dotted swiss with full circular skirts, tight bodices with necklines of matching draped material which also formed the brief sleeves. Each attendant wore a white organdy sash with a full embroidered ruffle and tied in the back with large white bows. Their flowers were nosegays of coral geraniums and they wore matching geraniums in their hair.

Mrs. Murray chose for her daughter's wedding a mocha tuckered marquisette and lace dress over satin with which she wore matching accessories and a green orchid corsage. Mrs. Harsha wore a white sheer with narrow brown stripes and dark brown accessories. Her flowers were brown orchids.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for 160 guests was held at Dearborn Inn.

For traveling Jean wore a steel blue shantung dress with red and white accessories and a corsage of red carnations. The young couple are honeymooning in the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania.

Jean is a graduate of Plymouth High school and Duke University and Hugh graduated from Plymouth and the University of Michigan. They will make their home on South Harvey street.

Mrs. Harold Finlan entertained the members of her Contract bridge club Wednesday evening in her home on Arthur street.

That we may ever look to God for protection from all evil is emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Preserver of Man" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, June 15. The Golden Text is from Psalms (91:1): "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." Among the Bible citations is this passage. (Ps. 165:1): "O give thanks unto the Lord: call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people." Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Discerning the rights of man, we cannot fail to foresee the doom of all oppression. Slavery is not the legitimate state of man. God made man free." (p. 227)

Forgery Suspect Held For Court Arraignment

A former Northville resident, Jimmy Knisley, 30, is being held in Washtenaw county jail on an "uttering and publishing" charge pending arraignment in Ann Arbor circuit court, June 17. Plymouth police first established a hold over Knisley when it was suspected he forged a check in the name of a local resident, who earlier had lost his army discharge papers to him. Knisley was arrested in Canton, Ohio and extradited to Michigan after local police learned he forged a check payable to an airline. A check back by airline authorities establishing the validity of the check subsequently brought about Knisley's arrest that came as he stepped from a plane. Plymouth police still have a hold on Knisley who could be brought here for trial. This, according to Police Chief Carl Greenlee, will occur only if the charges levied against Knisley by Ann Arbor police are disproved in the circuit court trial, the date which has not been set. Police authorities say Knisley wrote over 100 checks forged against the checking accounts of persons throughout the country.

Ticketed After Ramming Metal Utility Pole

A boulevard utility pole costing between $175 and $200 came crashing to the ground at North Main and Starkweather last Saturday after being rammed by a car driven by James King, 23, of 986 Starkweather. Mr. King was ticketed for reckless driving by Police Chief Carl Greenlee who observed the crash just as it happened. Chief Greenlee said the driver sped around the North Main street and Starkweather intersection, apparently out of control, and crashed into the east-iron utility pole. House for sale? Youthful Driver Pays Stiff Fine

James Mason, 17, 41908 Joy road paid a heavy penalty in another Municipal court action Tuesday, June 3, to stop "careless, reckless driving." Mason paid a $35 fine for running a stop street. In addition, he was placed on one year probation to the court, had his driver's license suspended for six months. To all this was added the proviso that he remain out of future trouble—violating no traffic laws for at least a year. The youthful driver was ticketed by patrolman Guldner K. Voss as he rounded a Main and Wing street corner at a high rate of speed. In other traffic court action at this same time three other persons received fines for speeding. They were George Gillies, $25; Burton Zander, Jr., $10; Gary Morgan, $25.

Members Hear Book Review

Approximately 40 members and guests attended the pot luck luncheon which was held at the home of Mrs. Austin Whipple on Penniman avenue, Monday, June 9 at 12:30. The luncheon concluded the year's activities of the Plymouth branch of the Michigan Division of Women's National Farm and Garden Association. The book entitled "The Old Oaken Bucket" by Bellamy Partridge, was reviewed for the group by Mrs. J. G. Clemmons.

I guess the favorite game of button makers is, "Button, button... who's got the ditto?" And during a campaign year they're happier than a cricket in the tall grass. They don't care who anybody likes as long as the result is a candidate's button in a lapel. And the more candidates, the merrier. At this time of year, button makers probably put themselves to sleep at nights by counting Presidential "dark horses" jumping over political fences. With the political handwagons shifting into high gear, the makers of buttons are busier than elbows in a crowded bus. And they'll keep at it until everything's buttoned up.

Power Mower Mangles Foot

Robert J. Etherington, 11800 Riverside Drive, suffered a fracture and severe foot lacerations last Saturday morning while mowing his lawn with a rotary lawn power mower.

The accident occurred when Mr. Etherington's left foot slipped into a hole covered by wet grass over which the power mower was traveling. This permitted the whirling blades to mangle his foot after cutting off the top of his leather shoe.

He was rushed to Dr. Largo's office after being administered first aid by Fire Chief Robert J. McAllister and Capt. C. Groth, both who answered the emergency call for help.

Both fire fighters marvelled that the accident was not more severe. As a precautionary measure, they suggested other owners of power mowers wear spiked shoes, such as used in golfing, to prevent future accidents of this type.

Grangers Greet Artist Laurell at Mass Meeting

Approximately 100 persons were present at the Grange meeting held Thursday evening, June 6 at the Grange hall. Several guests from the Pittsfield Grange in Ann Arbor were present.

This meeting marked the close of the home economics contest which had been in progress for some time. Mrs. Charles Rhenas was awarded the prize for the house dress which she had made and modeled. The judges, Mrs. Karl Laurell and Mrs. Ethel Midol, based their decision on workmanship and originality. Mrs. Bert Kahrl was the victor for her chair set display. A large patchwork quilt, pieced together by Mrs. Lloyd Fillmore and quilted by the Grange ladies, was on exhibition. Miss Carol Jean Henry honored the group with a piano solo.

Guest speaker for the evening was Karl Laurell, artist-craftsman and director of the weaving shops at the Plymouth Colony Farms. Mr. Laurell presented a colored film entitled "School for American Craftsman." The picture was taken at the Rochester Institute of Technology. The film contained information depicting the four major crafts: weaving, pottery, metal and wood working.

Mr. Laurell stated that since the Industrial Revolution or the "Machine Age," many of the craftsmen have ceased their hand labor, until just recently. Of late, people are beginning to recognize the artistic and intricate designs and patterns constructed only by hand weavers. The general trend in modern housekeeping is to have something original and entirely different than anyone else, and again machinery cannot fulfill this command. Craftsmen enjoy their work even though competition is keen.

The weaving shops at the Colony Farms feature handwoven casement fabrics, upholstery and the latest featured item is fabrics for women's wearing apparel.

Not by the hearing of the ear is spiritual truth learned and loved; nor cometh this apprehension from the experiences of others. We glean spiritual harvests from our own material losses.

The kick that comes from the fellow you have helped is the one that leaves a real sore spot.

Scouting The Sunset

By Harold H. Schryer

Dads who attend the Spring Dad and Son Camp out to be held at the Multi-Lakes Conservation Club property at Reed Lake the week end of June 13-14-15 will be presented with a special certificate designed by Special Field Commissioner Sidney D. Strong. While it is not necessary for Dads to stay overnight to receive this mark of appreciation for interest in their sons Scouting career, this writer wishes to advise all and sundry that such an experience could look back upon with much pleasure in the years ahead when memories of yesterday become the treasures of today.

Some of the events to be expected on a Dad-Son basis will be wood-sawing, firebuilding, judging of height and distance, knot tying, etc.

Patrols will be given a self-rating sheet by which they may judge themselves on their jobs of tent pitching, cooking, Scoutcraft and other items of value to their Patrol rating in the Troop.

As this is an event planned for the presence and participation of all Scouts and Dads we urge the Scouts to bring Pops along, if only for a day. Saturday will be the Big Day—so we'll be seeing you there.

That action is not warrantable which other fears to ask the divine blessing on its performance, or having succeeded, does not come with thanksgiving to God for its success.

If you have a social item or any other local news, phone 1600.

Young Pianists Present Public Performances

Music students of Hanna Strasen will present two piano recitals on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 17 and 18, at the Penniman-Allen theater at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday's program will be presented by grade school children while the recital held on Wednesday will be presented by students of high school age.

Those participating in the program on Tuesday are: Donald Alsbro, Valerie Arden, Nancy Aronson, Cynthia Baker, Laurie Chabut, Martha Davis, Scottie Dodge, Tommy Ebersole, Patricia Foley, Margo Hall, Hobart Hammond, Gary Hondorp, Suzanne Phillips, Sally Plamondon, Marie Reddeman, Susan Ruehr, Franklyn Smith, Julie Stecker, Elizabeth Taylor, Douglas Togg, Ann West and John Carl Zittel.

The young pianists who will play in the recital Wednesday are as follows: Jacqueline Bailey, Vinea Battle, Barbara Carley, Patsy Clifford, Brenda Jane Covell, Janet Eveleth, Sally Ford, Beverly Goodale, Mildred Green, Peter Leemon, Joyce Nagel, Sandra Newingham, Shirley Place, Wesley Smith, Suzanne Stecker, Peggy Wingard and Jim Zukosky.

Joan Pursell, soprano, will be most vocal soloist on Wednesday's program. She will sing "Trees" by Rasback and "Love, You Are My Music" by Klemm.

Music lovers are invited to attend the recitals.

Conscience is that still small voice which tells us we are about to be caught.

Five Will Attend New York Workshop

Mrs. Gladys Bowen of Penniman avenue has been chosen as a Staff member for the 8th Annual Character Education Workshop of the Union College Character Research Project at Schenectady, New York. She will also head a delegation of four persons representing the Christian Character School of Plymouth. The Plymouth group consists, at present, of 25 families having 56 children in the Project.

Others attending the Workshop will be Mrs. Ann Packard of N. Territorial road, Mrs. Helen Van-Dyke of Joy road and Mrs. Jane Bower of Stark road. The Workshop will be held from June 15 to 27. Including this year's delegation from Plymouth, 11 people have represented the local project at the Workshops, five having attended two or more years.

The Workshop is an annual two-week training course conducted by the Character Research Project. The courses include classes, discussion groups, lectures, seminars and demonstration teaching. Representatives from 46 church groups, four Y.M.C.A.'s, one private school and seven Parent Groups attend the meetings. They come from 19 states, the District of Columbia and Toronto, Canada. The opportunity for sharing experiences with others from various parts of the country has benefited the local group greatly.

The Character Research Project had its beginning in the fall of 1935. The experimental work was based on a series of lectures given by Dr. Ernest M. Ligon in the spring of 1933 at the Westminster Presbyterian church in Albany, New York. The Project has at its goal the discovery and application of the laws governing the growth and development of character.

WHAT'S THE RIGHT COMBINATION FOR VALUE?

1. Advanced Styling

2. Proved Performance

Don't miss the big television hit, "TOAST OF THE TOWN" with Ed Sullivan, Sunday evening, 7:00 to 8:00, Station WJBK-TV, Channel 2.

HERE'S THE car that gives you everything—economy, beauty and high-stepping performance. Here's the car that adds together all the things you want ... in an unbeatable value combination. Take economy. Pound for pound, Mercury's the most economical car in the land—officially proved by its 3-year record in the Mobilgas Economy Run (twice the Sweepstakes winner against all comers; three times champion in its class).

Take styling. Mercury gives you a fresh, new look—smart styling that will stay in style—not an outmoded "carry-over" design. Take performance. This year's Mercury has 12% more power, hustling V-8 power, and even higher compression.

Want more? Just keep on adding. For there's extra stamina and long life to keep repair bills low, extra built-in value to keep trade-in value high ... proved conclusively by registration figures and used car market reports.

Come down and we'll let you see for yourself. Just ask for a key, a car, and be our guest on the road!

Hints for Plymouth Homemakers

Homemade Coffee Cake Ideal for Sunday Breakfast

Sunday mornings with the family gathered around the breakfast table is a favorite time in many households. Sunday calls for a special breakfast treat such as fresh-from-the-oven coffee cake. That's when you want to serve Butter-Scotch Coffee Cake Ring, which is a quick bread rather than a yeast coffee cake. To be even easier and faster, it calls for a pancake ready-mix. This eliminates the sifting and much of the measuring so that it takes only a few minutes to have the coffee cake ready for the oven.

MEAT COOKERY Quiz

Q. What is this method of meat cookery?
A. Braising.

Q. How should meat be braised?
A. Brown meat on all sides in own or a small amount of additional fat in a heavy utensil. (The meat may be floured, if desired.) Season with salt and pepper. Add a little liquid if necessary. Cover meat closely and cook slowly until tender.

Q. What meats are prepared by this method?
A. Beef — pot-roasts, short ribs, arm or blade steaks, flank steaks, round steaks, cubes, heart, kidney, liver.
Veal — breast, rib, loin or shoulder chops, steaks, cutlets, cubes, patties, heart, kidney.
Pork — shoulder steaks, loin and rib chops, spare ribs, frenched tenderloin, hocks, patties, heart, kidney, liver.
Lamb — breast, shoulder, neck slices, shanks.

Plan Dinner in Dad's Honor

Dad's Day is coming up and the time is right for planning the dinner in his honor. If he's like many fathers, then steak is sure to be featured on your menu.

Which will it be, a broiled or a braised steak? If it's a broiled steak, here's a tip on buying. For a large family a sirloin steak makes generous servings. Thick T-bone and porterhouse steaks will serve three to four, while club steaks cut thick will serve two.

And when time comes for broiling, here are the steps to follow for best results. Place the steak on your broiler rack and adjust the pan so that the surface of a one-inch steak is about 2 inches from the heat. If the steak is thicker place it farther from the heat. When the steak is browned, season, turn and finish broiling on the second side. Season, then serve immediately.

If it's a Swiss or Country fried steak, or in other words, a braised steak you are preparing for dad, here are the basic steps: Brown the meat thoroughly, then add a small amount of liquid, cover the steak and cook it slowly until tender.

Whether a broiled or braised steak is your choice the menu might read: Steak, french fried potatoes, corn on the cob, tossed salad, hot rolls and strawberry shortcake or a cheese-apple pie and coffee.

If the lines of your farmhouse are low and horizontal, plant low, rounded foundation plantings for best effect.

Children's Diets Need Special Care

Swimming, tennis, badminton and all the other sports youngsters love are in full swing. With children engaged in these activities attention must be paid to their diet. This does not mean they need a special diet, but rather a well rounded choice of foods.

For instance, protein foods are important to good nutrition. High quality protein, as found in meat, is essential for body health and growth and should be abundantly included in summer months. Meat also supplies the B vitamins necessary for health and the functioning of the body. Variety means such as veal and lamb are especially rich in iron for blood re-energization and should be included in the diet weekly.

Regular servings of fruits and vegetables, also, are necessary in summer months for keeping the body in tip-top shape. Menu plans should include milk and other dairy products and eggs for their special vitamins and minerals. Likewise, whole grain breads and cereals add valuable amounts of vitamin B as well as bulk for a well rounded diet—necessary for busy youngsters and grown-ups alike during the summer season.

Woodlots Not Meant For Cattle Pasture

Resist that temptation to pasture the farm woodlot, say Michigan State College foresters. Woodlots not only make poor pasture, but become worthless for any serious wood production if grazed much.

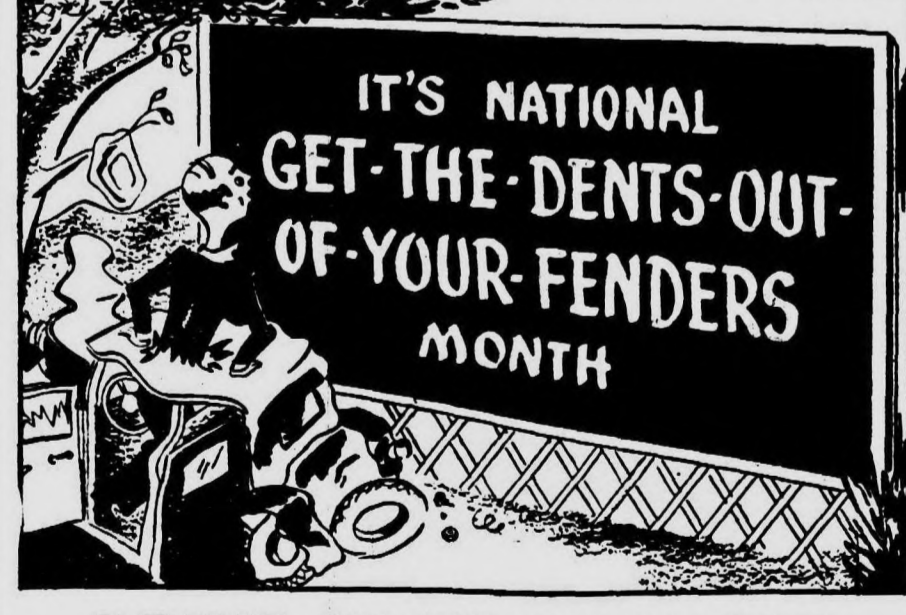

Keith Hudson, MSC forester, says that farmers with good land in forest, who are desperately in need of additional pasture, would be better off to cut the area clear except for a few shade trees and convert to improved pasture.

But the farmer who has his woodland on a poor or sloping area, would be far better off to improve existing pastures and to keep livestock out. The woodlot will then have a chance to grow and produce satisfactorily.

CHEESE FARE WITH A PARTY FLAIR

by Marie Gifford

Cheese brings to mind hundreds of meals — never just one! For cheese is that unusual food that's perfect any way, any time. And so it is with cheese sandwiches. There's an endless variety of cheese sandwiches — from hearty dagwoods to frankly sophisticated party fare.

It's party fare we're featuring this time, for cheese is the perfect answer to occasions that call for food and fun. Individual frosted cheese loaves will add a note of glamour to your menu. The frosting is softened cream cheese.

Two fillings are suggested for the loaves. It's a good idea to make each layer with a different filling. Combining two types of bread will also add variety to the loaves. Here are the easy-to-follow directions.

FROSTED LOAVES

Remove crusts from slices of whole wheat and white bread. Cut slices in half. Use 3 layers for each loaf. Combine two kinds of bread. Make first filling with grated sharp rindless cheddar cheese moistened slightly with salad dressing. Add chopped pecans or pimento to the mixture. Spread first layer with this mixture. Top with another half slice of bread and spread with deviled ham mixed with softened butter and a little chopped celery to add crispness. Top with third slice of bread. Frost with cream cheese that has been softened with a little cream. Flute edges with fork or pastry tube and make flowers with green pepper strips for stem and pimento strips for flowers. Store the frosted loaves in your refrigerator until time to serve. Serve with cold, spiced peaches. Eat with forks.

Haying Time Calls For Safety Check

Haying operations mark the beginning of a season when farm accidents run high. To assure safety and avoid lost time, check haying equipment carefully.

Pay special attention to loft floors and make sure hay chutes are guarded to avoid falls. Special care should be taken in making starts and stops while loading, especially on rough ground. Never dismount from tractors or mowers while they are in operation.

Remember that damp hay is one of the main causes of barn fires, say farm safety authorities. Make sure hay is well cured before it is stored in hay mows. Freshly stored hay should be checked regularly for several weeks to see that there is no sign of heating.

The commencement week activities of the Plymouth schools will be ushered in with the baccalaureate sermon at the High school auditorium on Sunday evening. Reverend Walter Nichol, of the First Presbyterian church, will give the sermon. The choir of that church will render special music for the occasion.

"Fly High in Dearborn June 17" has been the slogan chosen from the hundreds submitted to the Chamber of Commerce for the centennial celebration to be held in that city. Great plans have been made by the general committee for the day, which will mark the hundredth anniversary of Dearborn.

Erection of structural steel for Plymouth's new $200,000 hotel, The Mayflower, is well under way, and will be completed in a few days. With the foundation walls all laid and the steel girders in place, the running-up of the walls and the roof of the building will follow quickly.

Reverend Donald W. Riley is the new pastor of the First Baptist church of Plymouth, and preached his first sermon last Sunday. Mr. Riley is a very pleasant gentleman to meet and the Mail welcomes him to Plymouth.

The City Plan Commission and a committee of five selected by Mayor John W. Smith will choose the site for Stoepel Park this month, it was announced Saturday by Walter H. Blucher, secretary of the commission. As designated in the will of William C. Stoepel, Detroit capitalist, who died May 8, 1923, and left a bequest of $200,000 for a park to be named after him, it must be "near the city limits in the direction of Plymouth."

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dunn entertained at dinner Tuesday evening for Glenn Northrup and family of Plymouth; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Larned, of Northville, and Mr. and Mrs. George Kielwasser and Virginia Dunn, of Ann Arbor, the occasion being the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Kielwasser and birthdays of Mr. and Mrs. Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Oldenburg, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George Oldenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldenburg and daughter, Lillian, Mr. and Mrs. John Oldenburg, Jr., and baby, Marion, together with Frank Carr and family of Lansing, were guests at the home of Charles Oldenburg at Dearborn, last Sunday, where the 82 birthday anniversary of Mrs. John Oldenburg, Sr., was celebrated. It was a most happy occasion for all present.

William Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schoof, was christened Sunday afternoon, at the parents' home on Mill street. Reverend Charles Strasen officiating.

Tabulations completed and turned over to Frank L. V. state chairman of the Michigan war bond campaign committee, show that the "Minute Woman" of Plymouth who made the house-to-house drive in this city, secured the amazingly large total of 1,643 pledges for regular buying of war bonds during the forthcoming year.

"As cool as a cucumber"—that's just what folks are saying these days when they attend a motion picture show at the new Penn theatre. Harry Lush, owner of Plymouth's attractive new show house, Tuesday completed the installation of his new cooling system and when it was put into operation Wednesday, it worked perfectly.

Two new members, Dr. H. J. Brisbois and Howard W. Stark, were elected to the board of education by the voters of Plymouth school district in Monday's election. The total number of votes cast was 234, the largest vote at a regular election in recent years and the highest since the special election on bus transportation in 1930 when a total of 247 votes were cast.

Four local restaurant managers announce a plan to close one day a week due to the serious labor shortage caused by the increased defense effort. Bert's Place and Ken & Ork's will both close on Sundays in cooperation with the plan. The Ellis restaurant will close each Wednesday and Reed's restaurant will be closed on Thursdays.

A new first Aid class for auxiliary firemen and air wardens will start Wednesday evening, June 17, at the high school building with Mr. Lauri, as instructor. Any one who wants the course should contact the city hall or Fire Chief Fred Wagenschultz, or Chief Air Warden Floyd Eckles.

Peggy Ann Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Owens, celebrated her second birthday, Tuesday afternoon, with a party for eight little friends. They enjoyed playing games for a while after which Mrs. Owens served light refreshments. Peggy Ann received several very pretty gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vickstrom of Ann street announce the engagement of their daughter, Linnea, to Lieutenant Marvin Wilson of Plymouth road, now stationed in California. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haas of North Main street, arrived home last Saturday from a two weeks' vacation in New York City and Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sopp (Florence Clinansmith) of Pontiac road, announce the birth of a daughter, Friday, June 5 at St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor.

Nurses' Club Attends Hospital's Graduation

The Future Nurses club attended the Harper Hospital's graduation exercises Tuesday evening, June 3 at 8 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church on Edmund Place in Detroit.

They also attended the reception held in McLaughlin Hall following the graduation.

PHS Swim Pool Open to Public

Plymouth Recreation Department has set up a swimming program in the Plymouth High school pool starting June 23 through August 15 for students from five years old through senior high school. The pool will be open Monday through Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Student tickets will cost 15c each or 10 for a $1.00, while tickets for adults or anyone out of school will cost 35c each or 10 for $3.00. Adults will swim in the evening. All tickets will be purchased from bath attendants at the pool after June 23.

Instructors will be provided for those who wish to learn how to swim or learn to swim better. Those who know how to swim may do as they wish.

Seniors Attend Class Dinner

The senior class of 1952 held its annual dinner at McKenna Hall in Ypsilanti on June 11, 1952.

Dinner was served at 6:00 p.m. with a menu consisting of fruit cocktail, a turkey dinner with vegetable, salad, milk, and apple pie with cheese served to the group.

Entertainment was provided by the speech department of Michigan State Normal college with games and favors for all.

One hundred and fifty reservations were made for the Senior class members and their advisers: Gertrude Figel, Freda Olson, Frances Overton, Virginia Calligari, Walter Goodwin, Keith Baughman, and Melvin Blunk.

Transportation was arranged by school bus leaving at 5 o'clock and returning at 10 p.m.

Art Exhibit Postponed

The annual art exhibit which is usually held in the spring will be held over until fall. Students with "A" projects will be asked to leave them at school until then.

Pictures in oil paints, water color, chalk, and other materials have been displayed in the school show case. Many represent the truth and others are modern art such as surrealism and abstract.

First year art and advanced art have been working outside on projects.

High Schools to be Remodeled

Plymouth High school and the Junior High are having many improvements planned for next year. A new roof is being installed on the Junior High building by the maintenance staff and extensive remodeling is being done through the high school.

A considerable replacement of furniture will be made by next fall. There is a possibility also of six new units of cupboards for the home making cooking classes. The old gymnasium will have eight or ten wall lunch room tables installed to make it usable for lunch room, study hall, and other activities.

Home Economics Classes Entertain

Mrs. Chystena Soules' third hour home economics class held a picnic in the park during the class period and noon hour Thursday, June 5.

Refreshments consisting of pop, hot dogs, potato salad, potato chips, and cake were served.

Miss Ingeborg Lundin's afternoon classes gave a tea for the students' mothers Wednesday afternoon, June 4.

Homemaking Students Hold Open House

An open house was held for the mothers of Plymouth high school, junior high homemaking students, last Wednesday, June 4, from 2 to 3 in the afternoon.

Approximately 50 mothers attended and were entertained by a style show, "Gingham Clouds." Refreshments were served by eighth graders and the show was presented by seventh graders. Mrs. Pauline Morgan is teacher of both groups.

Groups Give Concerts

Series of concerts were presented on May 28-29 by the Boys' Junior Chorus, Girls' Junior chorus and the choir at Plymouth elementary schools including Smith school, Bird school and Starkweather.

These groups along with the Triple Trios presented a concert in Plymouth High schools new gym with Leo King as soloist. Accompanists included: Jon Brake, Sally Canning, Jean Ebersole, Jane Nulty, Lura Puchett and Nancy West.

Supervisor was Fred Nelson, Choral Director.

Keep garden pests out this easy way!
Why let those old enemies take over your garden? Why let aphids ruin your roses or mildew make your delphiniums look sick? Why let weeds spoil your lawn, paths or driveway? You can keep these troubles out of your garden with easy-to-use ORTHO pest controls. For example—to keep out insects—load your handy SPRAY-ETTE hose attachment with ISOTOX Garden Spray—to keep out plant diseases—load your SPRAY-ETTE with ORTHORIX. Or mix them together for all-purpose pest control.
Keep out weeds from paths, parking strips, brick walks and driveways with TRIOX. This time-tested arsenical weedicide actually sterilizes the soil and prevents plant growth for months . . . For broad-leaf weeds in lawns—use WEED-B-GON containing 2,4-D.
Keep out most every pest there is with BOTANO deluxe. In its own "pump-action" duster, this all-purpose dust provides easy control against both insects and plant diseases. Just carry it around in your garden basket—ready instantly to use wherever pests attack.
Keep out snails and slugs with BUG-GETA Pellets. Their fatal attraction for pests such as slugs and snails is a life-saver for newly set out plants. And they save you money because they go four times farther than old-fashioned meal-type baits. A few minutes, a few handfuls a week.

New Collection Given to Library

Recently the Plymouth branch of the Wayne County library was the recipient of a large collection of the "Architectural Forum" magazine and the "New Pencil Points". The gifts were from an anonymous donor, but are greatly appreciated by the architectural-minded individuals.

Should one be interested in building or constructing an alumnae house, low cut home, secondary school, an art museum, hospital, post office, or a radio station, he would discover that the "Architectural Forum" would be of great help to him.

The magazine offers plans and statistics for constructing and remodeling most any type of building. Throughout the magazines are accounts of various building projects, pictures of the proposed plans and illustrations of the completed projects. There are also complete reports on the construction, materials and brand products used.

"Globe and Mail", a daily Toronto newspaper, is housed in a plant that was primarily built as a factory for the production of the daily newspaper and also was constructed in such a fashion that it is a memorial to the late William H. Wright. This story along with thousands of others including the erection of the New York and San Francisco Worlds Fairs can be found in the "Architectural Forum."

"New Pencil Points" contains views, opinions and remarks about current construction problems and has reviews of new books, periodicals, bibliographies and manufacturer's literature. The magazine contains news about design and construction developments, regulations, professional contracts and products progress.

Commendation Ribbon Awarded to Jim Christensen

Sergeant James G. Christensen recently received the commendation ribbon with a combat "V" for "excellent service in the line of his profession" while serving with the Marines in Korea. Sergeant Christensen was serving with a Marine 4.2 mortar company.

The citation reads in part: "Sergeant Christensen, serving as a forward observer, displayed outstanding skill, courage and initiative in performance of his duties. Without regard for his own personal safety, he repeatedly exposed himself to intense enemy artillery, mortar, and small arms fire to direct, control, and adjust accurate and effective mortar fire against innumerable enemy targets."

The commendation was signed by Major General G. C. Thomas, commanding General 1st Marine Division (Reinf) FMF.

Sergeant Christensen is the son of Ernest Ed Christensen of Northern street and the husband of Mrs. Lois Adele Christensen of the same address.

I AM OLD GLORY

By the VFW Auxiliary

For more than eight score years I have been the banner of hope and freedom for generation after generation of Americans born amid the first flames of America's fight for freedom. I am the symbol of a country that has grown from a little group of thirteen colonies to a United Nation of forty-eight sovereign states. Planted firmly on the high pinnacle of American Faith my gently fluttering folds have proved an inspiration to untold millions. Men have followed me into battle with unwavering courage. They have looked upon me as a symbol of national unity. They have prayed that they and their fellow citizens might continue to enjoy the life, liberty and pursuit of happiness, which have been granted to every American as the heritage of free men. So long as men love liberty more than life itself; so long as they treasure the priceless privileges bought with the blood of our forefathers; so long as the principles of truth, justice and charity for all remain deeply rooted in human hearts, I shall continue to be the enduring banner of the United States of America.

Blunks Buyers At Chicago Show

The consumer is being offered the best values obtainable in home furnishings for several years, with the accent on improved styling and greater utility, according to Mr. A. L. Lantz of Blunk's Inc., who is leaving to attend the International Home Furnishings Market in Chicago.

Some 2,000 manufacturers are showing new offerings in furniture, floor coverings, bedding, major household appliances, radio, television and other types of home goods at this market, the largest of its kind in the country, from June 16 to June 26.

According to latest U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics figures, Mr. Lantz said, home furnishings are one of the best buys on the market today, as prices have not increased in line with rises in other commodities, and the values being presented are greater.

New chairs, chests and tables equally appropriate for living have been so designed as to be room, dining room or bedroom. Many of the pieces will have the same finish, varying in minor decorative details and hardware. Numerous chests and desks to be shown have been finished on the back, to permit placement at right angles to the wall, and thus serve as a room divider. Color continues to play a big part in most of the new lines. The new co-ordinated groups, Mr. Lantz said, simply the space problem and give the home a finished, co-ordinated appearance.

While modern design will be shown everywhere, Mr. Lantz states there has been a softening of the sharp lines of former years. Provincial furniture continues to enjoy wide popularity in both wooden pieces and upholstered furniture, he says, with finishes predominantly in medium colors, with a "soft" look.

In addition to seeking new merchandise to offer their customers, Mr. Lantz will also participate in a series of conferences and breakfast business sessions of the National Retail Furniture Association, of which he is a member. Held in conjunction with the market, these meetings feature panel discussions to aid retailers in their merchandising and operating problems.

Roger Babson Says---

Babson Discusses The Supreme Court Decision
Babson Park, Mass., June 12. Investors seem to feel that last week's Supreme Court steel decision was a victory for them against the labor unions. This, however, is a mistake. The Supreme Court decision was a victory for every reader of this paper. It means that a President cannot become a Dictator without an express Act of Congress, and that this Act must be constitutional.

Just now, with a President friendly to the labor leaders, they are disappointed; but these labor leaders should realize that the time may come when someone may be President who is unfriendly to labor. If the Supreme Court had upheld the seizure of the steel industry, it could then become very harmful to labor. Therefore, all should be very happy with the decision. Furthermore, we should become immune to these strikes. They have been with us since the days of Cain and Abel and will continue for another 1,000 years.

Pension Funds for Workers
One of the basic problems now connected with strikes applies to Pension Funds for employees. Naturally, I feel that pensions have their usefulness in the case of faithful executives and employees of long standing. Like everything else in this world they have, however, disadvantages as well as advantages.
I surely believe that all Pen-

MAN IN A HURRY

There is a temptation to buy too many stocks at a critical time like this, it would be better to use an insurance company. By so doing the corporation would avoid perilous kickbacks due to the shrinkage of assets by a carelessly self-administered Pension Fund.

Is This Request Crazy?
Among letters from readers I am asked: "Why pensions for officers, executives and everyone else but the stockholders?" One suggestion is that stockholders of 20 years or more should—under certain circumstances—be entitled to a pension! I am not now advocating this, but it may be a fair question. I don't know. The subject of "Pensions for Stockholders" could well be one for discussion at conventions and government tax conferences. The Federal Treasury allows corporations to deduct, as an expense, their contributions to Pension Funds for officers and employees. But why not allow this (which means that Uncle Sam now pays 50 per cent of the contribution to a Pension Fund) for faithful stockholders of 20 years standing?

An Important Warning
Without now taking sides in any pension discussion, I must remind corporation officials of this: Since the approval by stockholders should be secured to get pensions for officers and employees, the stockholders could block any Pension Fund which did not include them, the same as employees can strike for Pension Plans.

One thing is certain—either we are headed for an unjust and unwise socialistic system, or else greater consideration must be given to both employees, as well as to the stockholders who build the plant, pay for the machinery, and provide the working capital. The present unfair setup, with double taxation of dividends, could ultimately result in unemployment, due to insufficient capital.

Here is one compromise suggestion: After a common stockholder has held stock for 20 years, he could have the option of exchanging it for a preferred stock, which would give him, in part at least, preferred security.

In Milwaukee, Mrs. Evelyn Hansher, 52, was charged with disorderly conduct for spitefully ordering seven ambulances and six hearses to the home of a woman acquaintance.
