

WHY NOT SAY IT?

A short time ago an interesting letter was sent to the writer of this column pertaining to a most interesting subject—a subject every person is interested in. The writer enclosed a number of clippings pertaining to the subject—but he or she didn't sign the letter, although they expect Yours Truly to comment about it under his name.

There is one thing about it, anything you read in this column under my name, except editorials that are credited to others, you know who to blame. You can cuss or praise the writer to your heart's content—which is as it should be.

Why, therefore, shouldn't others who desire to express an opinion in this column sign their own name to it? Maybe some will not like what you say. Others will. That is the way it should be.

The person who sent this unsigned letter must be afraid of the school teachers. But why? If they don't like what was written and discussed, they have a perfect right to express their views. The Plymouth Mail has many times in the past urged its readers to write letters giving their views of subjects of general public interest. But few ever take the time to do so. They seem perfectly willing to let "ye editor" take it on the chin, but they'd rather not go around with a black-eye, or maybe a bouquet pinned on your coat lapel.

At any rate we'll tell you what the letter was about. It is a timely subject and one that is creating considerable discussion at present.

The writer suggests that our public school educational system could be greatly improved if we kept our schools open the year around—and such a plan, says the writer would be a great savings to the taxpayers.

"I do hope our newspaper can help us out in changing this growing madness" in which people seem to desire to do as little as possible for the money that is paid to them.

The writer of the letter believes that we should keep our schools open the year around. A clipping from a national magazine which strongly advocates a longer school year was enclosed.

Sorry, but the article is too long to be reprinted in this column. At any rate you know now what the letter was about. The idea expressed is a good one for discussion and for the life of me, I can't see why the writer wasn't willing to sign his name to it. He says he is a taxpayer of this school district—and that gives him every right in the world to discuss our school problems, openly and above board—just as the school authorities and every one else should do.

WE DO NOT LIKE THE TREND.

Detroit papers have in recent weeks printed news dispatches from about the country which tell of subscription price increases being made by newspapers. Seemingly almost every daily newspaper out-state in Michigan has been forced to raise its subscription rates. We anticipate that Detroit papers will be doing the same thing soon.

Probably no other line of endeavor has been faced with such high and rapid increases in prices of materials used as have the newspapers. The scarcity and high price of paper has prevented a single new publication from being established anywhere in the country in the past two or three years.

Recent reports indicate that because of the paper shortage some 179 papers and publications went out of business last year. A consolidation of papers took place in Colorado the other day because of the paper problem, the two papers merged in order to keep at least one newspaper going in the city of Durango. The Norwich, Connecticut Evening Record, one of the oldest newspapers in the east, went out of business the other day because of the latest newsprint price increase.

The Plymouth Mail is taking every precaution possible to meet the present paper situation. By cutting corners and enforcing other economies, we have been able to get along without raising subscription rates, except on outside circulation. This raise was made on mail subscriptions outside of the Plymouth territory because of greatly increased postal rates. We plan to put forth every effort to keep away from any advance in our circulation rates—and we believe that we will be able to do so, with your cooperation.

POLITICAL PORK CHOPPERS.

Statistics recently revealed show that there are almost twice as many employees of the federal government working in Michigan as there are state employees. And Michigan has more than its share of pork-choppers on the payroll of this state. As a matter of fact this state now has an all-time high in the number of "payroll patriots" serving their political bosses chiefly and the state taxpayers once in a while. In May that total reached a high of 24,505 according to figures released by the Civil Service Commission.

Serving the bureaucrats of Washington in Michigan are more than 45,500—a vast army of tax-eaters who frequently find it difficult to make it look as though they were doing make-believe work.

The taxpayers must like it because they've been voting for it for nearly two decades. But now that the shoe is beginning to pinch and the folks who foot the bills are beginning to get a bit weary, prospects are pretty good that a lot of public payroll pork-choppers will soon after November be required to get out and get jobs where they will have to work like the men and women who are now pouring their tax dollars into the public feed trough.

WE WONDER WHAT WOULD HAPPEN.

The other day in looking over a number of exchanges we happened to read some interesting comment about the thoughtlessness of city people who drive out into the country for a picnic dinner. Said this writer:

"I wonder what would happen if, without permission, a group of farm-folk were to park their cars on some city lawn and spread an outdoors dinner? Perhaps if the owners were kindly people, they would stand for it even though the intrusion may be resented.

"But after the visitors had gone, supposing the owners found their yard strewn with papers, melon rinds, banana skins, bottles, cans and other refuse? What would be in the minds of the owners?"

"Supposing too, that many holes had been dug in search of something the visitors needed for the activities of the day's recreation. Maybe some newly planted trees had been cut to be used in toasting sandwiches. Perhaps broken bottles found in the swimming pool or children's sandbox.

"Maybe we assume that the owners would take steps to prevent a future invasion? If there were any legal method of preventing a recurrence of the discourtesy, wouldn't the owners take advantage of such law?"

"How about reversing the problem? How should the farmers take it when people from town arrive on their properties for a day of recreation? It matters little whether for trout fishing or family picnics. It is the refuse that is left strewn on their lands that is in question.

"All of the above mentioned items and more, are strewn on privately owned grounds by fishermen and picnickers. Serious damage is done when cars are driven over plowed fields. More damage comes from digging holes in search of worms for bait.

"Newly planted trees are cut for various purposes. Some are hacked by children as pastime while their parents busy

Negotiate $60,000 Bond Issue For City Streets

Beginning negotiations for an $60,000 bond issue to pave, develop and improve 17 Plymouth streets was announced earlier this week by city officials.

The good news for housewives beating street dust out of curtains and drapes and removing road oil from their carpets, comes as the 1952-1953 fiscal year is just getting underway.

Construction of many of the designated streets to be underway by early fall, will see property values leap higher with completed improvements—and, perhaps, an easing of frayed tempers of housewives, periodically fighting dust, mud and oil.

Omitted from this list of public improvements is Fralick avenue, originally scheduled for a $12,000 facelifting with concrete and blacktop paving.

This proposed project, subject of an assessment controversy with 14 property owners, may be shelved indefinitely—until formal charges of "negligence and laxness" levied against the City, accused of "improperly making up assessment rolls," are either aired by city officials or in a circuit court hearing-injunction case.

Assessments for the 17 streets to be improved will be levied against homeowners on a "10-year pro-rata basis," with each property owner paying the direct levy in 10 equal installments.

The streets, type and cost of improvements are listed below. South Harvey and Wing, pavement, $146; Auburn, blacktop, $2287; Fairground, sanitary sewer, $62; Fairground, water main, $165; Arthur, sidewalk, $75; Sutherland, sidewalk, $463.

Other more extensive improvements are listed. Forest, widening and pavement. (Continued on Page 8)

Burglar Alarm Thwarts Third B & E Attempt

Attempted breaking and entering seems to have become a habit with some persistent burglar (or burglars) who have made three unsuccessful attempts to rifle the Plymouth Finance company, 274 South Main street, in the last 30 days.

The alleged break-in "artists" chiseled a lock off a front office door in this latest attempt just a week ago.

Finance company officials said the thieves were scared away by a burglar alarm, set off by the "chiselers."

Sees City Growth—Wealth Tied to "Know Plymouth" Campaign

Plymouth—"city of residences"—unknown to many of its people and merchants, is facing a problem—how to sell "outsiders" the idea that this City is a "good place to live."

Putting Plymouth "on the map" involves more than just assigning the "city of residences" title, says Nat Sibbold, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. "First of all, it is necessary to have an active and sound public relations and educational program."

Such a program, he asserts, "finds its beginning in community desire to attract home-seekers, then city-wide action pointing more and more toward becoming a suburban residential action link for persons working in 'big city' (Detroit) business and industry."

Mr. Sibbold points alarmingly to the upsurge in growth of residential cities springing up outside Detroit boundaries.

"Some cities," he says, have doubled their population, nearly tripled property values representing thousands of new homes. In Plymouth, he states, there has been an average increase of about 100 population every year for the last 10 years—and property values have not yet seen a two-fold increase. Industries, too, he continues, have not responded to Plymouth's open door. And new house building has slowed down in Plymouth—only 10 permits have been issued in 1952!

What this points to the Chamber of Commerce secretary declares, is the need for a peak united effort from every merchant leader, from every person interested in Plymouth's future.

The Chamber of Commerce, as one of the City's publicity organizations, has embarked alone on

FROM THE FIELDS OF PLYMOUTH'S TRUCK GARDENERS come the first of the summer vegetables that find their way to the Detroit market to bring top dollars to local producers. Shown packing the first picking of sweet corn from his highly productive fields is Clyde Smith of Newburg road who carried 100 bushels of sweet corn to Detroit a week ago Wednesday to garner 70 cents per dozen from his early crop. In less than a week the market dropped to 50 cents per dozen wholesale and at this writing most of Plymouth's corn growers already have swelled their bank accounts with their early harvest.

OK $15,500 Improvement For 14 City Streets

Street improvements, that will take on that "good looking appearance" with an $60,000 bond issue, are being supplemented by another $15,500 sum approved by city commissioners, July 7.

Portions of Hartsough, Elizabeth and Fairground streets will be graded, salted and gravelled at an estimated cost of $3,150. Other streets being prepared for a two-inch concrete paving are Sunset, from Junction to Penniman, and Evergreen street, from Penniman to Blanche. Wing and Joy to Deer street will also receive the excavating grading and graveling. Cost of this project is estimated as costing the City $6,450.

Washed, crushed gravel will smooth out Ann Arbor trail, Arthur, Church, Union, Pacific, Williams, Wing and Blunk streets. This construction also approved by city commissioners, will cost about $5,900.

In making these street improvement recommendations, Fred Stopher, city construction engineer, said that the construction projects should be started "as soon as possible" to avert work stoppages due to cold weather.

Rotarians List 72 Professions of Club Members

Plymouth's Rotary club, whose members represent 72 different professions—from insurance to banking, from surgery to obstetrics, probate law to psychiatry—met last Monday with its newly elected officers formally taking up the reins of their chairmanships and offices.

The fraternal organization, encumbered with 27 offices whose names sound like a run down of Federal bureaus, boasts an international service, United Nations chairman, international contacts officer, student loan, and camp and youth chairmen to mention just a few.

Rotarians are active in local employer-employee relations, education, support of local social organizations, besides having appointments scan the local city area for indications of needed traffic control and safety.

The newly elected Rotarian directors and chairmen are: Frank Arlen, president; Captain W. Roberts, vice president; H. J. Brunner, past president rotary international; E. Joffile, secretary; R. J. Masden, director; Lewis H. Goddard, treasurer; L. P. McGuire, director; T. F. Kuckleman, district governor.

Director Masden is also chairman of club service, and Treasurer Goddard is in charge of vocational with community service being headed by Captain Roberts. Head of the international service is Director McGuire.

8 to be Drafted From Plymouth-Northville Areas

Eight men from Plymouth and Northville are going to be drafted into the armed services, July 21.

This announcement came Monday from Plymouth's selective service board 102.

Those to be inducted from Plymouth are: Bruce E. Besse, John A. Hamann, Richard L. Carpenter, Gerald C. Micol, John P. Hancock.

Northville men reporting for active duty are: Perry R. Scharburgh, Eugene F. Maloney, James H. Biddle.

This July quota of eight draftees from Plymouth and Northville, say local draft board officials, is being bolstered with 92 other draftees from Wayne-out-county.

The 100 men being called will be sworn in at Detroit. Present selective service board orders indicate the men will receive basic training at Fort Custer Reception Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Peck and children, Ronnie and Nancy spent last week at Manistee lake in northern Michigan.

Plymouthite is T-V Show Director

Friends of Mort Walton, who resides in Plymouth at 319 N. Mill street, now have the opportunity to watch him at work at WXYZ-TV every Sunday afternoon. As director of Sunday Matinee Mr. Walton is pictured in his control room at the station at 2 p.m. on Channel 7 each week presenting a feature movie film for the enjoyment of the many fans of that station.

A former press photographer Mr. Walton entered the television business about three years ago and says he finds this fast developing enterprise far more interesting than taking pictures for a living.

Phone Survey to be Conducted by JCC Auxiliary

Do you do most of your shopping in Plymouth? Are you satisfied with the present shopping hours? What merchandise do you have trouble finding in Plymouth? These are three of the five questions being asked in a telephone survey of Plymouth residents. The survey is being conducted by the Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary.

"We will contact approximately 600 residents in an effort to see what changes should be made in Plymouth store hours, and the type of merchandise carried by local stores," stated Mrs. Marvin L. Partridge, chairman of the telephone survey.

"There are now ten women who are calling and they would appreciate any and all cooperation which can be given them," Mrs. Partridge continued. "We each have 60 forms to complete and without the cooperation of those whom we call, it will be an almost impossible job."

Legion Names New Officers

Raymond Gardner was elected commander of the Passage-Gayde post 391 of the American Legion at a meeting held recently.

Others elected were Robert Wilson, first vice commander; Russell Williams, second vice commander; William Langmaid, treasurer; Ivan Campbell, historian; Vernon Miller, chaplain; and Russell Wilson, sergeant-at-arms. The time and date of initiation of the officers has not yet been decided.

Other business included the naming of the winners of the prizes at the recent Legion carnival. Winners are Richard Schryer of Union street, Jackie Langmaid, Koppernick road; Mrs. Pat Kubitsky of Hix road; O. Dunham of Farmer street and H. R. Gardner of Oakview street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hovey and 3 children of VanNuys, California are visiting with Mrs. Hovey's mother, Mrs. Adeline Nairn, Sheridan avenue.

Plymouth Parks Draw Thousands

Last Sunday was one of Plymouth's hottest days of the unusually long heat spell but steaming crowds of Detroiters, ringing the city on all sides, did much to raise local temperatures both literally and figuratively to an even higher degree than the sun.

Plymouth's Riverside Park and all of the other available lawns, cool shady creekside spots, as well as shady trees at the side of the road were reserved or taken by city dwellers who sought refuge in the "coolness" of the country.

Overflowing crowds at the parks covered the grounds surrounding some of the Ford plants and the creek at the Northville plant was populated like the one at Beulah, Michigan during a Smelt run.

Park authorities stated that they thought more people were in the parks Sunday than at any time since they were opened. The traffic light at Northville road and Hines Drive on the edge of the city had cars lined up in both directions for a half of a mile all day long and residents of this area living near the parks stated that by eight a.m. in the morning practically all available picnic spots were taken.

Crowds finally dispersed near the midnight hour and except for thousands and thousands of pop, milk and beer bottles and tons and tons of paper and rubbish one would never know that thousands of feet had trampled the rolling hills east and north of the city on probably the hottest and most uncomfortable day experienced so far this summer.

Lodge Delays East-Central Lot

Development of the east central parking area, proposed from the back of the Penn theatre parallel with Main and Union streets to Dodge street, met with a set back last Friday night when the Masonic Lodge failed to give approval of the usage of their land for a right to the same.

City officials had hoped that they might gain a 20 foot entrance to the lot back of the Temple from the Masonic organization thereby making it possible to develop immediately the Freydl and Plymouth Mail properties, one of which they have already acquired and one which they expect to acquire for parking purposes.

According to Merritt Crumie, chairman of the Masonic Building Association, the lodge membership indicated that when the entire project got under way they would be inclined to participate in the development but that it was their desire to withhold their property until that time arrived.

Northville Seeks City-Wide Independence in Incorporation

Northville—our neighboring village of 3,200 residents—now under township government non-correlated to present day city needs—has awakened to the possibilities of incorporation. This was disclosed last week by a Northville committee on city incorporation who listed in a six-point "brief" reasons why Northville should incorporate.

The committee, shooting for tight city control of city affairs, struck out stating that adoption of a new city charter would improve the efficiency of municipal government, giving residents a better court system, control of improvements through assessments and taxation, and elimination of "township taxes forever."

To this the committee added that public improvements can be installed on the "pay as you go" plan without resorting to bond issue indebtedness.

It lauded one point—that one of a city government that would alone control the affairs of Northville bringing about closer control of registration, voting, assessment and collection of taxes ("by setting up only one agency (the City) to handle these matters.")

Shooting for representation in Wayne and Oakland county affairs, the committee showed another benefit to city incorporation.

"It will give the city three supervisors in both Wayne and Oakland counties, whereas, the present village has no direct representation on the Board of Supervisors of either county. These supervisors would be paid by the respective counties without cost to the City," said the incor-

Library Bids High

Plymouth's Dunning Library addition may go without some interior "niceties" unless there is a meeting point between city pocketbooks and the low construction bidder, who places the cost of the addition at a figure $8,000 over city estimates.

This was revealed last Tuesday after bids for the rear library brick addition were opened before a special meeting of City Commissioners.

The lowest construction company bid, one of three, placed the cost of the 40 by 60 feet addition at slightly over $36,000—more than $8,000 than earlier estimated. Construction of the building has still been assured by the Commission who stated that the library project would not be shelved because of "insufficient funds."

Mayor Russell Daane declared, "we (commissioners) have every intention of going ahead with the library building project. It may be necessary," he said, "to eliminate some of the niceties of the building's interior until more funds become available."

He went on to indicate there may be an added delay in the building of the addition until the matter is completely reviewed before other Commissioners and construction company officials. Construction of the library addition, to be erected behind the present site, was expected to be underway before the end of the summer.

This Wayne county library branch has "overflowed its shelves" in a short period of five years.

According to Librarian Ada Murray, every available square foot of shelf and floor space has been utilized to house the increased book circulation. She pointed to the latest improvisation—book shelves that had been placed across several of the library windows.

This new addition will house these overflowing books giving added shelf and book storage areas and additions to present reading rooms. A new heating plant and rest room facilities will be other features of the sleek, modernistic structure.

An architectural sketch shows that an overall master plan has been set up calling for a scientifically designed library building to be added unit by unit until complete.

This entire structure will be realized, city officials reveal, as additional funds become available. A library fund, set aside for building purposes, now totals nearly $20,000. It will be used to pay the costs of the new addition.

Rotary Members Honored For Attendance Marks

Members of the local Rotary club paid respect to several of their members for perfect attendance at their regular meeting last Friday noon. Those receiving attendance pins from President Frank Arlen were Elmer Anderson for one year, Dr. Walter Hammond and Lawrence Lyons for five years, Harold Curtis for eight years, Edward Gardiner for 13 years, Russell Daane for 17 years and Robert Willoughby for 20 years.

The program for the meeting was an oratorical recitation by Halbert S. Otto.

Explain Weaving To Kiwanians

The activities of the Plymouth Colony Farms were explained and displayed by Carl Laurel to members of the Plymouth Kiwanis club Tuesday evening at the Mayflower Hotel.

Laurel gave a most interesting picture of the weaving processes carried on at the Colony Farms. He displayed samples of their work, many articles of which have been made for notables and institutions throughout the country. Laurel stated that all the background fabrics for the "Treasury Room" of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City were produced at the Colony Farms. The draperies and upholstery fabrics for the executive offices of the Pennsylvania Power & Light Co. at Allentown, Pa., were also designed here, he said. Mr. Laurel was introduced by A. L. Lance, program chairman.

Mrs. Hugh Law Pictured in "See"

Plymouth residents reading the September issue of "See" were surprised to see a picture of Mrs. Hugh Law of Ann Arbor road sitting with Steve Allen, emcee of Songs for Sale.

The picture is in conjunction with the "See" article about the Songs for Sale television program. The article pictured Ella Mae Morris singing the song, "Fat Man" which Mrs. Law wrote, the ballet team which performed during the playing of the song, and the panel of judges which commented on the composition.

Mrs. Law appeared on Songs for Sale on April 12, 1952.

Canned Citrus Good Travelers

Mapping out a pleasant trip entails thought for snacks and refreshment that won't cost too much and are good travelers. Long refreshing drinks of nutritious fruit juice that can be enjoyed en route help Mother and Dad and the children too, to avoid getting overly tired and irritable. Best buys in this direction are the various canned Florida citrus juices—juice, the tart grapefruit juice or blended orange and grapefruit juice. Prices of all these nutritious, delicious juices are news these days—they're 20 per cent lower than they were a year ago!

An easy way to be sure of chilled beverages en route is to tote a thermos filled with cracked ice or ice cubes. When someone is thirsty, simply drain off whatever water may have accumulated from the cubes, puncture the top of your convenient can of citrus juice, pour the juice into the cold thermos and in a twinkling it will be properly chilled for the best relief yet from the heat.

Layer Casserole, Dinner-in-a-Dish

Carry this dinner-in-a-dish to your porch for serving. It's a beef and vegetable casserole, or you might call it a "layer" casserole for that's just how it is put together. For a picnic-type supper complete your menu with fresh fruit salads, hot muffins, ice cream sundaes and iced tea.

- Beef Vegetable Casserole
- 1 pound ground beef
 - 2 tablespoons lard or drippings, melted

 - 1 green pepper, sliced
 - 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
 - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 1 No. 1 can whole kernel corn, drained
 - 4 tomatoes, sliced
 - 1/3 cup buttered bread crumbs

Brown onion and green pepper in lard or drippings for 3 minutes. Add meat and brown slowly. Season. Remove from heat. Place 1/2 of the corn in the bottom of a 2-quart casserole. Add half of the meat mixture and then a layer of sliced tomatoes. Repeat layers. Sprinkle with buttered crumbs. Bake in a slow oven (300° F.) for 40 minutes. 6 servings.

Mr. Dick Lee, representing residents on N. Holbrook, between Union and Plymouth Road, requested the Commission to take some action to control the excessive traffic using N. Mayor Daane referred the matter to the Police and Fire Departments for further study and consideration.

Mr. Dunbar Davis presented a property owners petition protecting the re-zoning of Ann Arbor Road from Commercial to Industrial. He was informed by Mayor Daane that although the preliminary hearings by the Planning Commission and the first reading of the proposed ordinance had been held, the petitions would be accepted and given consideration before final passage.

Mr. Ralph Lorenz, of the Chamber of Commerce parking committee presented a communication regarding the Bronson property. The following resolution was offered by Comm. Henry and supported by Comm. Tibbitts:

Long Drink Time Is Here Again

Summer days, long and lazy, are here. These are the days when everyone wants to be out in the open as much as possible. To have leisure time requires planning ahead of time. A little forethought in marketing will save many a last minute rush when an opportunity for a day's pleasure presents itself.

An assortment of timed and jarred foods on your pantry shelves can afford a delightful quick meal or a picnic lunch at short notice, and save many long hours of preparation. Canned or frozen fruit juices, flavorings, fresh fruits, packaged ice cream and plenty of pale dry ginger ale and sparkling water on hand, mean that you can whip up refreshing drinks in a jiffy for any occasion.

Ginger ale, well chilled, is an excellent refresher at any time, and it mixes well with almost any fruit juice. A scoop of vanilla ice cream in a glass of ginger ale is a truly delicious drink. For an afternoon party, here is a good drink.

Five O'Clock Cooler
2 cups tea infusion
1/2 cup mint jelly
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups grapefruit juice, sweetened
Green food coloring
Pale dry ginger ale
Fresh mint

Pour hot tea over jelly and sugar; stir until dissolved. Add grapefruit juice and coloring; chill. Divide among 8 tall glasses. Add ice cold ginger ale. Stir gently to mix. Top each with a spray of mint.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Miss Ruth Sweet, Waterloo, N.Y.: I like to think of the days of the nickel sodas when a young man was able to take six girls to an ice cream parlor and buy seven sodas for 35 cents.

From Mrs. Ada Short, Center, Texas: When my grandmother wanted us children to be quiet, she would tell us honest-to-goodness Indian stories—the trials and tribulations she encountered in a caravan from Alabama to Texas.

From Mrs. C. D. Hale, Mart, Texas: Do you remember when the daughter of the family would say, "Mother, do you think three petticoats will be enough?"

From Mary Karch, Lakeview, Ohio: I remember the peddling wagon, where mother used to take her butter and eggs to the main highway to trade. The peddler used to blow a conch shell that sounded over the hills to let us know he was coming.

From Curtis W. Robertson, Kansas City, Mo.: I remember when I was a very young man living in Lathrop, Mo., I sold stereoscopes. I remember going as a boy to my great grandma's to roll papers to light her pipe and the oil lamps.

From John S. Simpson, Cincinnati: I can remember when we had to wear one pair of leather boots all winter. We would have to go barefooted until well up into the winter, and then my father would get on a horse and go get us a pair of red top and brass-toed boots, and come riding home with them slung across the saddle.

Expansion to be Completed Soon

The expansion of the Dunning store on Forest avenue is nearing completion. "We expect to be able to move in sometime this fall," stated Margaret Dunning, proprietor.

"The usual problems with workmen have delayed the building somewhat, but we hope that it will go smoothly from now to completion," she said.

The cinder block addition which is located to the north of the original store will double the size of the store. This addition will allow for an increased amount of merchandise on display. Miss Dunning remarked that it will be possible for her to carry other lines of merchandise, and therefore be of more service to her customers.

Fisher's Adds Air Conditioning

Air conditioning with that "just right temperature" has been added to the Fisher Shoe Store, 250 South Main street.

Put into operation Tuesday, the air conditioner is adding "degrees" of comfort for shoppers tuning out for Fisher's twenty-second annual shoe sale that started today.

Jim Houk and Blake Fisher, owners of the shoe store, say the downward temperature spiral is provided by a floor air conditioner that dehumidifies the air, adding cool comfort to "sweat-browed" shoppers coming into the store.

The air conditioner was installed by The Stevens Heating and Air Conditioning company.

TO PICK OUT quality celery, select stalks of medium length and thick stems free from damage. The exterior should be smooth with fresh looking leaves. Limp or stringy stalks with dry brown tops should be avoided.

Good cauliflower has a creamy white color. It's clean, feels heavy and is firm. Outer leaves should be fresh and green. Avoid those with dark spots or yellowed leaves as this indicates age.

Fresh, fine cabbage has no discolored veins, and is well trimmed. Lift it to test for heaviness. It should feel heavier than it looks.

Cracked or water-soaked carrots will not give you the most for your money; neither will those which have green on top of the carrot. The color should be a bright, fresh orange, and the skin smooth, firm and clean.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
Toasted Oat Cookies
(Makes 3 dozen)
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly
2 eggs, unbeaten
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 cup shredded coconut, toasted
1 cup rolled oats, toasted
Combine shortening, sugars, eggs, salt and vanilla and beat thoroughly. Sift flour and soda together; add to first mixture with coconut and oats; blend together thoroughly. Drop level tablespoonfuls on greased baking sheets. Bake in a moderate (350 F.) oven for 10 to 15 minutes.

If fresh mushrooms are exposed too long to strong light, they will lose weight and wither. Brown mushrooms are more flavorful than white ones.

Green onions at their best are tender and crisp with fresh green tops. Avoid those with damaged tops or nicks as these indicate age. There are many different kinds of okra. Some are two inches long while others are four. Some are green, others are whitish green. Some are smooth, others are grooved. All should have fresh pods that snap easily.

themselves fishing. Fires are started too close to fences or in places where they get out of control, resulting in damage to crops and woodlands. In some instances the guilty parties have driven away from such fires, leaving them to be extinguished by the landowners.

"Such unsportsmanlike conduct by a few, along with profane and abusive language has caused many landowners to post their lands. This means that the many people who are careful and courteous, must suffer with the few who commit the acts of vandalism.

"Does it not, therefore, appear to be the rightful duty of all the good citizens to report acts of a harmful nature to the proper authorities for correction? In this way, we may succeed in holding at least a few streams open for public fishing and other recreation. Otherwise, we'll continue to lose mileage, year by year."

HIGHWAYS AND PARKING.

It is difficult to conceive a reason why there are some public officials in our state who cannot wake up to the fact that one of Michigan's greatest problems today is its highway system. Seemingly for some reason there are those who cannot comprehend the fact that automobile usage is growing much faster than highway development. It is true that our state highway department is putting forth every effort to keep pace with the increased auto traffic. But the department is handicapped by lack of sufficient funds.

We, the people, are responsible for that condition. While we pay what we think is a high gasoline tax, we fail to realize that we have by legal action diverted much of our highway funds away from the state to local units of government. Some of these smaller units spend the money well. Others squander it. Some divert it from the purposes for which the money is intended.

It is time for us to wake up—and wake up quickly. The weekend death toll is not entirely due to crazy and careless drivers. Some of these accidents can be charged up to the fact that our highway "capacity" is not great enough to carry the load it is forced to bear.

We not only need new and wider roads, but we need entirely NEW thoroughfares, additional roads that will relieve some of the congestion on our over-loaded trunk roads.

Yes, we had better wake up to the fact that each one of us is somewhat responsible for the highway death toll we read in newspapers on every Monday. The rebuilding of our entire highway system is one of Michigan's greatest problems—and we had better begin doing something about it NOW.

putting up Christmas lights." Up to the present time, he says, "I see no source of revenue that would permit our paying the $2,000 needed to put the lights up on Main street."

Besides a year long program answering queries of residential and industrial properties and its "know Plymouth" campaign, the Chamber continuously seeks city-wide improvements.

One of its outstanding accomplishments has been the successful bidding for consolidated off-street parking lots—a project that has been supported by merchants and agreed to by the City now developing additional parking areas that will hold nearly 300 additional cars when completed.

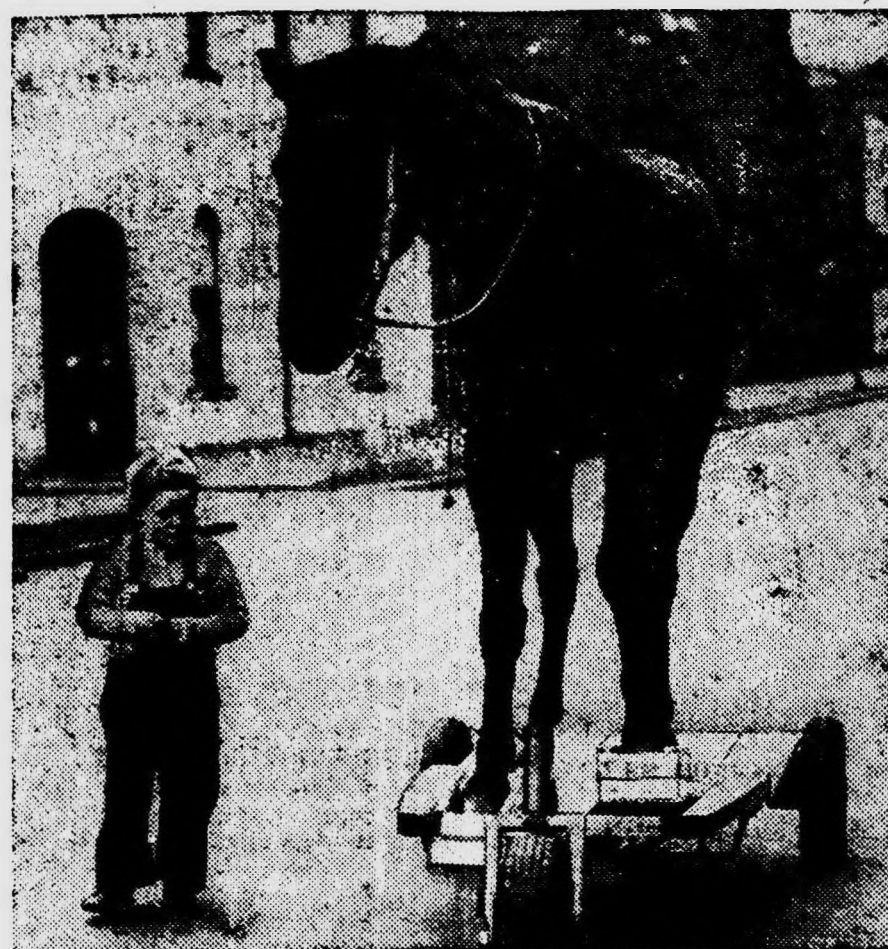

The Chamber also supports a sales training and refresher course taught by University of Michigan instructors, beside helping to promote "Dollar Day" sales that save the townspeople money.

Appealing to local industries to join in this "know Plymouth" campaign, Mr. Sibbold says, "the Chamber seeks industrial support as a means of helping the manufacturers stabilize their own personnel programs."

"It is a known fact that a healthful, happy community environment has a direct bearing on the flow of employees satisfied with their jobs and the community in which they live, he concluded.

By LYN CONNELLY

THE ENTERTAINMENT world is applauding the "show must go on" performances of Jimmy Durante, in London. Despite a severe gallstone attack en route to England and an eye ailment requiring surgery, Jimmy played his entire Palladium engagement without missing a single performance.

Oddly enough, if Durante had succumbed under the trying circumstances he would have been a martyr to the show world. Much as we like the lovable comedian, we think the "show must go on" adage is often carried too far and is almost ridiculous at times. But for the sake of entertainment, we're happy Jimmy has an iron constitution.

Burr Tillstrom's wonderful TV show, "Kukla, Fran and Ollie" will be seen only a half hour each week beginning this fall, a far cry from the half-hour five days a week they were seen previously. But instead of complaining we are supposed to bow and scrape before NBC for not killing the show altogether. It's only the cleanest, most entertaining and most beloved of television shows on the air. It's tragic how these truly fine family shows must go by the wayside for the sake of more smut, killings and other things distasteful.

IDOL CHATTER There's a three-way battle royal going on in Hollywood over who's going to play Lorelei Lee in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes"... Betty Grable, Carol Channing and Marilyn Monroe are all after the role. With the publicity build-up Marilyn has received by her studio in the past few months, she would seem to be the most logical choice. Dinah Shore, Ginny Simms and Jack Smith are in New York for television shows.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Mrs. Pearl Boutwell, Rio Vista, Calif.: I remember when my mother used a 10-gallon jar for her freezer. She would pack her fryers, after dressing 30 or 40 of them, in the jar and cover with water. They would freeze solid overnight sitting on the back porch. That was in Missouri where it was zero all winter.

From Mrs. Lillie Hicks, Marengo, Ind.: I remember when mother took her clothes to the creek and washed them on a rock that slanted into the water. She scrubbed her floors with sand.

From Mrs. Clara Tutmark, Alderwood Manor, Wash.: I remember when father took me to town to get new shoes—riding in the cutter, Nellie in the traces, and a hot water jug at my feet. What fun!

From Virginia Gruver, Thompson, Utah: I remember when I cut several pairs of long stockings in pieces and sewed them together so the children's knees wouldn't show. Now they don't wear any, and not only their knees show.

From the Old Cuss, Chicago: I remember a dog-powered tread mill that was used to churn butter. A mouth-powered tread mill, powered by my first wife's jaws, would have churned lots of butter—she was always chewing the fat.

From Casper Ross, Oklahoma City: I remember when Graham's O-n-guent was one of the most popular whiskers and mustache growers in the country. A kiss without a beard was like a hot dog without mustard, all the cute chicks of that day said.

18-Year Bonds to be Issued for New School

The Plymouth taxpaying public will soon be obligating itself for nearly two-thirds of a million dollars.

But its nothing to get scared about—the $650,000 in general obligation bonds to be borrowed for a $425,000 elementary school and $175,000 for high school improvements are long term loans scheduled to be paid during an 18-year period.

Bids for the 650 $1,000 coupon bonds are now being accepted by the Plymouth township school board. The bonds will pay the buyer up to a three per cent yearly interest expressed in multiples of one-fourth of one per cent.

They will be retired at the rate of $25,000 for the first three years, $30,000 the second three years with outgoing checks during the years from 1959 through 1961. After three $40,000 payments from 1962 to 1966, the bond issue will be completely retired in 1970 with the payment of $135,000 for a three year period.

The bond proposals are being accepted up to July 23, at which time the bids will be opened and the purchaser disclosed.

The elementary school to be built with this bond issue will cost taxpayers about $425,000. To be located on Haggerty Highway, halfway between Ann Arbor road and Ann Arbor trail, the new school is expected to be completed by September, 1953, says Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister.

It will accommodate 420 school children and incorporate up-to-the-minute school equipment especially designed for elementary youth.

The additional $175,000 will go toward giving Plymouth high school an extensive "facelifting". New futuristic desks and chairs, painting and redecorating and science and vocational laboratories are all planned to give Plymouth a modern and well equipped educational "switch".

Wives Invade Inner Sanctum of Optimist Club

Harried husbands who seek refuge behind closed Mayflower hotel club room doors are no longer obscured from the watchful eyes of their spouses. But it was made this way—on purpose. One of Plymouth's all male fraternal organizations, the Optimist Club, is no longer exclusively private—it has been invaded by the fair female sex. Newly installed Optimist President Herb Woolweaver has opened the inner sanctum of the fraternity to Optimist wives. Doors on this Optimist husband and wife summer program will bang shut early in the Fall, and wives will again be relegated to baby sitting as Optimist men discuss futures—possibly with a Republican regime steering the nation. Two Optimist husband and wife turnouts will mark the summer program. A covered dish picnic will be held July 21 at Riverside park. Second on the "heretical" program will see an August first turnout for a night baseball game in Detroit with "ringside tickets" guaranteed. During this summer program announcement, Mr. Woolweaver sent "special orchids and invisible bottles of perfume" (sincere thanks) to 15 fellow members and wives who helped Optimists gross $285 made during the Fourth of July Optimist refreshment stand project. Listed below with their wives is part of the refreshment stand "crew". Edgar Brown and Rose, Dow Swope and Dorothy, Austin Stecker and Barbara, Bob Brown and Frances, Cary Watkins and Marcella. Others who participated in the project are: Bill McAllister, Bob Hudson, Warren Hoffman, Bev Smith, Rose Berry, Bill Eger, Hoyt Mills, Bert Allen, Ed Arlan, Mat Fortney. A windup activity of the Optimists for the summer will be a "fish derby" featuring a Tuesday morning "kids day." Escorted by parents, the Optimist children will be taken to Herm Bakhaus's lake, July 29 at 8 a.m. This will be followed August 21 with an Optimist golf tournament, Grand Rapids—for Optimist men only.

Merchants Must Win Next Sunday to Gain Playoffs

Next Sunday the Plymouth Merchants baseball nine of the Inter-County league play a very important contest over at Wayne. They are fighting for a chance to play in the playoffs, and will have to defeat the league-leading Wayne nine to gain that place.

The game will be played at the new County Park at the edge of Wayne beginning at 3 p.m. This park is located at the end of Ash-ton street off Wayne road.

The popular Plymouth manager, Warren Bassett, will have all week to plan the strategy for Sunday's game as he is now enjoying a well-earned vacation at Turtle lake near Gaylord. He left immediately after the game Sunday, but will be back for next Sunday's important game.

The highest four teams automatically win a playoff berth, and all teams that are tied for fourth place also will enter the playoffs. At present Wayne, Gamble Post, Grandale and Teamsters are automatically in, and there is a possibility that Plymouth and Northville may also make it if they win their games Sunday. Teamsters is now tied with the latter two, but they automatically win next Sunday if any games are played, for they are scheduled to play Clarenceville, whose team has folded up. If all games are cancelled because of rain, then the standings revert to that of last Sunday. However, if one game is played, the Teamsters—Clarenceville game will be declared a forfeit in favor of Teamsters.

The locals have to win their game against the league-leading Wayne Sunday to make the playoffs.

President of the league, Earl Gray, reports that two managers, those from Northville and Gamble Post, were suspended for two weeks for fighting and abusive language recently, and cannot witness the games their teams participate in—the suspension ends with next Sunday's games.

Dr. Hall Scores Hole-In-One

A golfer's dream came true last Sunday at Plymouth Country Club for Dr. Cortez R. Hall of 14408 Grand River, Detroit. Playing in a foursome with Fred Cole, William Seales and Don Shank, all of Detroit, Dr. Hall scored a hole-in-one on the number 11 par three hole.

Using a number four iron, Dr. Hall made the shot before an audience. A preceding foursome was standing on the green, watching while the Hall foursome took their shots. Highly excited at seeing the ball roll into the cup, Dr. Hall said he hoped his friend Charles Bennett, president of Daisy Manufacturing in Plymouth, would read of his feat! Hall went on to score a 78 for the eighteen holes.

Catholic Lads Win in July 4th Kids' Game

In the Fourth of July celebration kids' game, a pickup team of Catholic school players edged a pickup team from the summer playgrounds 12 to 11.

The Catholics built up an early lead and were able to withstand a belated bid by the losers to win this game.

Nagy Loses One-Hitter on Errors

Cavalcade took a close game from Whitman & Barnes last week in the Mens' league by a 2 to 1 score, even though the winners made only one hit off Nagy, the losing hurler.

Poor support in the fifth inning when the winners scored all their runs contributed to Nagy's defeat. After two were out, three consecutive errors allowed the two runs to score without a hit being made. The only hit made off the offerings of Nagy was a double by Sommermon in the third inning.

Whitman & Barnes made a total of 6 hits. They scored their only run in the sixth inning on a double and a triple. C. Kolbasa and Onusko each had two hits.

Merchants Split in Sunday Games

The Plymouth Merchants came closer to a playoff berth last Sunday when they split two games at Riverside Park—losing the first game to Grandale 11 to 5, but edging Northville 7 to 6 in the nightcap. The Merchants now have won 4 of their last 5 games.

Last Sunday's games left Northville and Plymouth tied, each having won 7 and lost 6 games. Next Sunday the last scheduled game of the year will be played over at Wayne. Plymouth must win this game from the league-leaders if they are to gain the playoffs.

In the first game Sunday, Pete Collura started on the mound for Plymouth and was shelled for four runs in the third inning and three more in the fourth before he was removed in favor of George Molnar, who finished the game yielding four more runs.

The Merchants scored three runs in the fourth inning as a result of a home run by Shedd, a 16 year old outfielder from Ypsilanti, who was starting his first Inter-County league game. Shedd plays with the Daisy team in the class "D" Western Wayne County league. He garnered a total of 6 hits in both games in 8 times at bat. In the first game besides his home run, he also had a double and a single. DeWulf also had 2 hits in the first game.

In the second game the Merchants came from behind to score 4 runs in the fifth inning on 5 hits and a walk. 2 more runs in the 7th on 3 hits and an error, and the big run in the 8th on 3 singles.

Lefty Ed Hock won this game and bested Northville's highly-touted Rowe, who has signed with the Detroit Tigers.

Mahley had 2 in 4 times at bat, Shedd 3 in 4 and DeWulf, besides playing a splendid game at shortstop, also had 2 hits in 4 times at bat.

Sports Glances

by "Professor" Edgar Brown

Now that the Republican Convention is over maybe I can get some work done that has been piling up for some time. That was a great show, and really brought out the wonders of television. One could sit in his own living room and see and hear it better than if he had been there.

There will be another spectacle next week when the Democrats hold their convention.

Television has opened up many avenues of entertainment for those who can't afford high-class entertainment, and also provides national and world affairs that bring things closer to the common person. It is truly a wonderful invention.

The Annual Optimist Club Fish Derby is again at hand. This contest provides entertainment and fun for youngsters up to 19 years of age, and is fast becoming a special local attraction for young fishermen and women of this area.

If any boy or girl is interested he had better get his entry in—the one who catches the largest fish will receive a prize. Call 2075 for particulars and registering.

The Plymouth Merchants team in the Inter-County league is playing splendid ball lately in trying to gain a playoff berth. They have won 4 of their last 5 games and need one more victory next Sunday at Wayne to insure a playoff berth. They will be up against the best opposition as they will have to defeat the league-leading Wayne team, but don't be surprised if they do it.

A large number of local supporters should accompany the team over to Wayne and root for them to win. This will be a good game to watch, and will also provide moral support for the team if many fans are present from Plymouth.

An unfortunate incident occurred the other night at a softball game in the Mens' league. A player struck an umpire and knocked him down, because he thought the arbitrator had made an unfair decision which resulted in losing a ball game.

We know that tempers are on edge in a closely fought game, and some lose their heads. I don't think anyone would do such a thing intentionally if he stopped to think what he was doing.

It would be well if those persons who are inclined to be temperamental would try to control their actions, and if they are unable to do so, they should stay away from any contest where they may forget themselves. It isn't good for the game, the crowd, or the players to have such things happen.

The umpire is trying to do his best, and calls decisions the way he sees them. True, he may be wrong, and most umpires I have talked to admit they have made some mistakes, but we should know they have a tough job out there. They are supposed to be impartial in their decisions, and most of the ones I have seen are, those that can't be should not be umpiring. Remember he is right over the play and can see it much better than someone 50 feet away.

Plymouth Loses Class F Ball Game to Garden City

In a class "F" baseball game for boys of 16 and under last week, Garden City bested Plymouth 3 to 2 in a tight ball game.

Tyler Caplin scored the locals' first run in the fourth inning when he walked, stole second, and scored on an error on a ground ball to the infield. Tom Rutherford led the attack for Plymouth with a single and a triple. His triple was responsible for the second run. Bob Middleton also contributed a triple.

Hank Bongo was the losing pitcher.

Olds Nips Evans In 12 Innings as Umpire is Hit

In an exciting hard-fought game where tempers flared easily, Beglinger Olds nipped Evans in a 12 inning softball game last week 2 to 1.

The winning run, which touched off the controversy, was scored on a hit and an error in the 12th inning. Carl Pursell led off with a single and when Graczka threw the ball away in trying to nip him at second, Pursell scored the winning run on a very close decision at the plate. This decision brought on a fracas during which the umpire was knocked down by a player from the losing team. This player is out of recreational baseball for good.

The game was a nip-and-tuck affair all the way. Olds scored first in the second inning when Gilles reached first safely and scored on a single by Egloff.

Evans tied it up in the sixth inning as Yeager reached first on an error and scored on a single by Crawford.

Evans had a chance to win in the eighth inning when Crawford doubled and Lecznar singled off Street, but Fairbanks and Choban struck out to end the threat.

Evans' outfit, the classy Olds outfit 7 to 4. Maas hurled the first 7 innings and gave up 5 hits. Gabby Street came on the scene then and allowed 2 hits the rest of the way, and struck out 14 of the 15 outs made. Graczka hurled for Evans and tossed a grand game, struck out 13 of the Olds batters, and didn't walk a man. He didn't allow a hit after the sixth inning until Pursell's winning hit in the twelfth inning. Egloff had 2 hits, and Maas had the other—all singles.

Choban had 3 hits for Evans, and Crawford had 2.

Comeback Allows Allen to Win 10-9

By scoring 5 runs in the last three innings while holding Contractors to no runs, Allen Industries was able to remain undefeated in the Old Timers' league, and to win from Contractors 10 to 9.

Contractors had jumped into a 9 to 5 lead by the end of the fourth inning due to a big 7 run spurge in the third inning. But the league leaders kept pecking away and scored 2 runs in the fifth inning, 2 more in the sixth, and the winning run in the last inning to keep their unblemished record intact.

Becker scored the winning run, without a hit being made—the run was scored on 2 walks, a sacrifice, and an error by Jenkins.

Perry tossed for the winners, with Jenkins going all the way for the losers. Perry also had a double and a triple for his cause; Walker and Becker also had 2 hits.

In the big second inning for Contractors, 2 home runs, one each by Jenkins and Gray, plus a triple by Schonomon were the big blows.

Twin Pine Girls Near League Title

The out-of-school girls' team representing Twin Pines in the Inter-City Girls' Softball league are at the top of the league as a result of 4 wins and 1 loss. They stand a good chance of representing the league in the state recreational tournament at Lansing later in the season.

Last week the team won a close decision from the strong Ypsilanti Boostettes, last year's state champions. They defeated the Boostettes by a 7 to 6 score.

Twin Pines has a good fielding and hard-hitting team, and Barbara MacIntosh has been pitching splendid ball all season. The rest of the squad is as follows: Jennie Konezeski, Lois Eby, Eleanor Wilkin, Ruth Grieg, Norma Smith, Baker Street, Saxie Holstein, Dorothy Sackett, Dorothy Bassett and Eileen Williams. Lois Eby and Eleanor Wilkin co-manage the team.

Today the local girls play the Waafs team from Ypsilanti. The league is composed of Twin Pines, Waafs, Boostettes and DeHoCo.

Daisy Nine Wins First Round in Hearst Tourney

The first round in the Annual Hearst Baseball Tournament was held in a district meet at Plymouth last week with the Daisy team of Plymouth emerging the winner.

This tournament provides one of the greatest chances for a young ball player to be recognized by higher baseball officials.

These teams competing have a chance for their team to go to the finals, then too, a good player from any losing team can perform with an all-star outfit, which is picked from the losing teams in each tournament.

In the games played here last week the Daisy nine had to win 3 games to gain the chance of advancing to the quarter finals at Dearborn next week.

In the first game Daisy had an easy time disposing of Ypsilanti 10 to 0 behind the 4-hit pitching of Kenneth Kisabeth. The locals scored 3 in the first, 3 more in the second and 4 in the fifth inning.

The second game saw them defeating Wayne by a 7 to 2 score with Ed Hock chucking 4-hit ball for Daisy.

The final game pitted Daisy against Bentley and Larry Shimil pitched this one for the locals as they edged neighboring Bentley 5 to 4. Daisy scored first and remained ahead all the way.

Dick Huebner had 3 hits out of 3 times at bat, and Bud Lanphear 2 in 4 times up.

The team is made up of Kenneth Kisabeth, Ed Hock, Larry Shimil, Wally Dzurus, Dick Huebner, Derald McKinley, Mike Richards, Russell Brown, Norman Herron, Ron Bender, Bud Lanphear, Jim Shedd, Ron Ritter, Al Zabel and Phil Graub.

The winner from next week's quarter-finals at Dearborn advances to the semi-finals at Ann Arbor on August 1. The winner there will play in Briggs Stadium on August 9.

Mrs. Lavina Cole was pleasantly surprised last Thursday evening in her home on West Ann Arbor trail when all her children arrived with cake and ice cream to help her celebrate her birthday.

Olds Racks Up 9th Straight Victory

The Beglinger Olds team in the Mens' Softball league continued to roll toward an unbeaten season as they racked up their ninth consecutive win by trouncing Cavalcade 5 to 0 behind the one-hit chucking of Gabby Street.

Barnes, outfielder for Cavalcade, got the only hit off Gabby when he singled after two were out in the final inning. Thirteen men went down swinging on third strikes at the slants of Street, including 4 strikeouts in the first inning—the catcher dropped the ball on one of them permitting the batter to reach first base safely.

Olds scored 3 runs in the third and 2 in the fifth inning. They made a total of 11 hits, with Gilles making a single and a double.

Annual Optimist Fishing Derby to Be Held July 29

It's time again for the young anglers of Plymouth to get out their rod and reels and get set to catch that big fish waiting for them in a nearby fishing site. The Annual Boys' Life Fish Derby, sponsored locally by the Plymouth Optimist club, will be held at a nearby lake the morning of Tuesday, July 29.

This national derby, offers over $1500 in prizes for the biggest catches in 11 different classifications—lake trout, stream trout, smallmouth bass, largemouth bass, northern pike, walleyed pike, muskellunge, pickerel, catfish, panfish and salt water fish.

Locally the winning catch will receive a rod and reel as a gift from the Optimist club.

Any boy, or girl, in this community under 19 years of age is eligible to compete in this contest. All one has to do is register at the recreation office in the city hall, or call 2075.

Each contestant must bait his own hook, catch and land his own fish, and report it to one of the judges present who will accompany the group to the fishing site. Robert L. Smith is in charge of the group of young fishermen and women. Transportation will be furnished. Anglers must furnish their own rod and reel, or pole.

Last year, the winning local fish weighed much less than a pound, but indications are that the winner this year will be larger as a better "fishing hole" has been secured.

The Optimist club hopes to make this a bigger attraction to the young folks of Plymouth each year, and to promote the good sport of fishing among the youngsters of this city, plus promoting good sportsmanship.

All who wish to participate in this year's Fish Derby are urged to register right away.

Sponsors "Hobo" Teen-Age Dance

Teen-agers—dance to syncopating rhythms of your favorite maestro or the three-four time of an airy waltz. Whatever your style—ballroom or square dance—you will find it at next Wednesday's teen-age "Hobo" dance.

Sponsored by the Recreation Department, the July 23 dance will be held in Plymouth junior high school gymnasium, from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m.

The "canned" music for the "Hobo" and square dances will be piped through a new, hi-fidelity PA system that promises to furnish hours of those "jive" and ballroom ballads.

And now ye "slo, foots and quick foots" if you have read this far, here is the really good news—the dance costs just nine cents. And soft drinks will be on tap with popcorn added to make you drink more pop.

Reports seeping back from yesterday's Teen-age dance indicate that even the "slo motions" had a good time.

Both young people are graduates of Michigan State Normal college holding their Bachelor of Science degrees and teaching certificates. Both young people will teach in Livonia this fall. A fall wedding is being planned.

William Bakewell Weds Florida Girl

In a double ring ceremony held in the Pasadena Community church in St. Petersburg, Florida on Sunday afternoon, June 22, Beverly Eugenia Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis McKinley of St. Petersburg became the bride of William Alfred Bakewell. William is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Alfred Bakewell, former Plymouth residents.

Reverend Frank P. Anderson of the First Presbyterian church of that city officiated. Mrs. Andrew Hilton the soloist was accompanied by the organist, Mrs. Olive Rupert.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown with a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace with illusion neckline and a full skirt which extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil of illusion fell from a lace and seed pearl coronet and she carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Navy chifon with white accessories and pink carnations were worn by the bride's mother and pink lace with white accessories with white carnations was chosen by the mother of the bridegroom.

The young couple are making their home in Florida.

Mrs. L. B. Rice, Joan Cavell, and Dick Palmer spent the weekend in East Tawas visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Ted Cavell.

Sara Ann McConnell is June Bride

Mrs. James H. Menard

St. William's church in Walled Lake was the scene Saturday morning, June 28, of the lovely wedding uniting Sara Ann McConnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee C. McConnell of Starkweather avenue and James H. Menard. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Menard of Walled Lake.

The Reverend Father Graven officiated at the high mass double ring ceremony at 10 o'clock before an altar decked with large baskets of white gladioli and asters.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over candlelight satin. The fitted bodice had a sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. The hooped skirt had panels of the lace and her cathedral train, which was fastened to the bustle of her skirt, was outlined in matching lace. Her fingertip length veil of illusion fell from a tiara trimmed with lily of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of ivory roses, valley lilies and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was an heirloom Italian cameo.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Albert Drake, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Morris McConnell and Miss Marjorie Thomas wore identical gowns in ballerina length white nylon net over hoop skirts. Each attendant wore a matching picture hat of net and satin and they carried colonial nosegays of red carnations. Cheryl McConnell, niece of the bride wore a white dress with the hooped skirt and matching hat made like that of the bridesmaids and carried a miniature colonial nosegay of red carnations.

Richard Menard, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and came from Eufaula, Alabama to attend his brother. Ushers were Morris McConnell, brother of the bride, Donald Sova of Walled Lake, Lloyd Burley and Paul Hanlon of Detroit.

Mrs. McConnell selected a gown of mauve lace over rose taffeta with mauve and rose accessories and Mrs. Menard was in aqua lace over satin. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

A wedding breakfast followed the rites at Hillside Inn for the wedding party and a few relatives. A reception for over 400 guests was held that evening in the American Legion Hall in Farmington.

The new Mrs. Menard chose an aqua suit with white accessories for traveling and the roses from her bridal bouquet. After a honeymoon through Canada and the Eastern states they will make their home in Walled Lake.

Batten-Mishler Wedding Saturday

On Monday evening, July 7, in the First Methodist church, Miss Naomi Dolores Mishler repeated her nuptial vows to Cpl. Edward Charles Batten. Naomi is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mishler of Ross street and the Ernest Battens of Eckles road are the bridegroom's parents.

Reverend Lendrum officiated at the impressive 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony. Large baskets of white gladioli flanked the altar. Organ music was played by Mr. Briery and Miss Shirley Plant sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Naomi approached the altar, on the arm of her father, in a gown of white lace and nylon net over taffeta. The fitted bodice was complimented with a picture neckline of illusion with the lace scallopes at the shoulder. Her fingertip length veil was also scalloped and she carried a white Bible centered with an orchid and stephanotis and tied with white satin streamers.

Joan Batten, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. She wore a peacock blue nylon net gown over taffeta with a fitted bodice and illusion neckline of nylon net. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations centered with pink flowers. Miss Betty Mishler attended her sister as bridesmaid. Her gown, identical to that of the maid of honor, was in pink nylon net and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations centered with peacock blue flowers.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Edson Whipple. Seating the guests were Donald Sutherland and Henry Levering.

A navy two piece dress with white accessories was the choice of Mrs. Mishler. With it she wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Batten wore beige shantung with white accessories. Her flowers were pink rosebuds.

A reception for 125 was held in the church parlors following the wedding. Guests were present from Detroit, Cadillac, South Lyon, Ypsilanti, Wyandotte, Windsor, Quebec, and Montreal, Canada, Livonia, and Plymouth.

The young couple are traveling through northern Michigan. Mrs. Batten wore a biege linen dress with matching accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Both young people are graduates of Plymouth High school.

1/2 cup milk

Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt. Combine egg and milk and stir in dry ingredients. Mix to form a smooth batter. Stir in melted shortening. FRUITS: Banana chunks, apple slices, canned sliced pineapple, or peaches.

VEGETABLES: Cauliflowerets, sliced green or ripe tomatoes or egg plant.

Apricot Bavarian Cream-Cake

Protect Color and Flavor When Freezing

Fruits frozen this summer, if properly treated with an antioxidant at the time of freezing, will have that "orchard-fresh" color and flavor when served next winter.

On exposure to air, peaches, apples and other light-colored fruits turn brown and lose their taste. A recent development in the food field, an ascorbic-citric mixture, effectively and economically protects the fruit against the effects of oxidation. It is a scientific balance of two natural food ingredients, ascorbic acid (Vitamin C) retards the browning while the citric slows down the action of the enzymes so destructive to ascorbic.

In the preparation of fruits for freezing, this antioxidant is mixed with sugar or sugar syrup. One teaspoonful protects a pound of fruit at a cost of about a penny a pound. No change in freezing methods is required. The fruit will be protected before and during freezing and, later, while it is being thawed for use.

Fresh fruits for desserts, salads or fruit cocktail can be prepared in advance, and served with their natural color and flavor hours later by using this ascorbic citric mixture.

How to Choose Ripe Cantelope

Cantaloupe and fresh ripe tomatoes—two foods which mean a lot of good eating for Michigan families—are back on the market in good supply.

Michigan cantaloupes don't come on the market until the middle of August, but will be in good supply until about September 15 or until the vines are killed by frost. The cantaloupes now are coming from southern California and Arizona.

The netting, color and odor of cantaloupe all indicate the degree of ripeness. The amount of netting will vary, but whatever is present should be coarse and stand out well. A greenish yellow or yellow color, rather than green, indicates ripeness, but a deep yellow can mean over-ripeness. The melon should have a musk-like fragrance. The scar at the stem end should be slightly sunken, smooth and hard or calloused. Moisture at the stem scar usually indicates a green melon.

It's time to start making plans for canning the winter tomato supply. Michigan tomatoes start arriving on the market and ripening in the home garden about July 15. Of course, most of the first ones will be eaten fresh. Planning the amount to be canned and checking the necessary supplies early is good business for homemakers who can tomatoes for their families. When the supply becomes plentiful and the price reasonable, you will be ready to buy tomatoes for canning.

Buy mature, firm, uniformly ripe tomatoes, smooth and regular in shape. Medium-sized tomatoes usually have the best shape, are easy to peel and slice.

Tomatoes not fully ripe do not have to be kept in the refrigerator to preserve the quality. Those about to turn ripe will ripen best at moderately cool temperatures, in either sunlight or shade. Sort and use the ripest tomatoes first.

Tomatoes are sold either by the pound or by the bushel. A bushel of tomatoes weighs about 30 pounds and will yield 15 to 20 quarts of tomatoes or juice, depending on the amount of waste.

Daisy Coffee Cake

Here's a breakfast as inviting as summer sunshine! Chilled tomato juice is the eye-opener, followed by a light and spicy Daisy Coffee Cake and fried eggs with crisp bacon.

Pretend your family is "company" for Sunday brunch and surprise them with a many-petaled Daisy Coffee Cake you've created yourself. Make this yeast coffee cake fragrant with cinnamon, a day ahead of time and then warm it, just before serving. It's made from a basic sweet dough which will help you brush up on your kneading technique. Though the coffee cake looks intricate, the shaping comes easy. After cinnamon sugar is layered in the dough, cut spokes from the circle of dough and twist each one, two or three times.

Daisy Coffee Cake makes a happy addition to the picnic hamper. Since it costs but a quarter to make, it's a thrifty way to satisfy out-of-door appetites. For many of your summer picnics, of course, you'll find it more convenient to drop by your baker for coffee cakes, sandwich bread and desserts.

Score enriched coffee cakes and breads high in your menu planning, not only for appetite appeal but for good nutrition as well. They provide protein, three B-vitamins and food iron for good health.

DAISY COFFEE CAKE

1 package yeast, compressed or dry
1/4 cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening

2 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour (about) 1 egg
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1/4 cup cinnamon sugar
Confectioners' sugar icing

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Add flour to make a thick batter. Mix well. Add softened yeast and egg. Beat well. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead until smooth and satiny. Place in greased bowl. Cover and let rise in warm place until doubled (about 1 1/2 hours). When light, punch down. Let rest 10 minutes. Roll out to square about 1/4 inch thick. Brush one half with butter or margarine and sprinkle with cinnamon sugar.

Fold over. Brush with butter or margarine and sprinkle with cinnamon sugar and fold over again. Roll out to circle about 12 inches in diameter. Place on greased baking sheet. With scissors or sharp knife cut to within 1 inch of center making about 16 pie-shaped pieces. Turn each piece over two or three times to make twists. Let rise until doubled (about 45 minutes). Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 20 minutes. When cool brush with confectioners' sugar icing, if desired. Makes 1 coffee cake.

Can Cherries Now for Winter

Now is the time to plan for cherries for this coming winter. Cherries can be cold packed, hot packed, or preserved for pies.

Cherries — Cold Pack
— Wash, stem and pit cherries or leave whole. (Prick each unpitted cherry with needle.) Pack into hot jars.

Cover sour cherries with boiling sirup made of 1 part sugar to 1 or 2 of water or cherry juice, and sweet cherries with sirup made of 1 part sugar to 2 or 3 of liquid. Seal with dome lids and bands and process 20 minutes in hot-water bath.

Cherries — Hot Pack
Wash, pit, and measure cherries. Mix with 1/2 to 1 cup sugar to each quart pitted cherries. Let stand 1 to 2 hours; simmer 10 minutes. Pack into hot jars. Seal and process 15 minutes in hot water bath.

Cherries — For Pies
So-called Pie Cherries are sour red (pitted) fruit canned in plain water. The water-bath processing time is 20 minutes if packed cold and 15 minutes if packed hot. Cherries usually fade less and are firmer when packed in sirup.

For Picnic Desserts Take Cake in Pan

Make your picnic a success from start to finish! Many folks agree that for a final triumph there's nothing like bringing a thickly frosted cake out of the picnic basket.

For ease in carrying, bake and take your cake right in the same pan. This helps to prevent the cake from drying out en route. Or if you prefer, you can bake the batter in cup cake form. When baked and cooled, you might remove a cone shape section from the center of each, fill the cake with frosting and replace the cone section. In this way there's no fear of the frosting sticking to the waxed paper in which the cakes are wrapped.

For a cake that's light and tender, be sure to use lard, the shortening you use for your best pies and biscuits. Cakes made from lard stay fresh and moist to the last bite, important for picnic serving.

Choose Variety of Cold Cuts for Attractive Main Dish Platter

Liverwurst, pickle and pimiento loaf, salami, pork loaf and on and on the list goes of the numerous ready-to-serve meats in your meat dealers display case. They're the meats you'll turn to for easy menu planning these summer days and especially for attractive cold meat trays.

Variety is the word in buying "cold" cuts. Choose them with your meat platter in mind, as assortments of light and dark meats, of large and small loaves and of various shaped loaves.

In arranging your cold meat tray, perhaps you'll want to center it with a molded bing cherry salad, a lime salad with pineapple and carrots or a tomato aspic salad. Using the salad as the center point you can arrange the meats from it in an attractive manner. Colorful radish roses and cucumber slices may garnish the meat.

Well, I see where Congress is out for the summer. In the last few sessions bills were going faster than a magician shuffling a deck of cards. The lawmakers were anxious to duck out of Washington's heat and head for home base. Even so they couldn't finish all the business on hand, so they had to take care of some of it . . . and the rest was put in month-balls for next term. With this being a big election year the Congressmen want to get back to the grass roots and make a little hay with the voters. This looks like a very promising summer . . . all over the U.S.

Met Hoover in 1929 at White House Reception

Realtor John H. Jones, 936 W. Ann Arbor trail, a one-time active political figure on the national scene, dropped into the editorial rooms of The Plymouth Mail last week to recount some of his adventures during the gala 1929 inaugural ceremonies of the now Ex-President Herbert Hoover.

"I met Hoover personally," he said, "at a White House reception party after the inaugural ceremonies."

"Bertha Bauers, national committee woman from Illinois, still holding this post, introduced us."

As the only now living ex-president of the United States, Mr. Jones had fond words for his Republican friend.

"I have followed Hoover down through the years," he declared, asserting that Hoover is one of the "finest statuesque political figures of our time."

In a brief statement about Hoover's recent speech before the Republican national convention, Mr. Jones concluded with, "I think he was wonderful—it was the best talk I have ever heard him make. We can all profit by what he said. It is pathetic it will be Hoover's last convention address."

Mr. Jones, before the 1932 Wall-Street crash, was first vice president of the Atlas Exchange and the National Bank of Chicago and an active banking official in Chicago banking circles.

He currently owns and operates a realty business, and is a member of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

William Canfield, age 76, recalls for Ed Alchin, County Agent, how much harder farm work was before electricity came along. Today, electric power saves time and labor . . . boosts production and profits:

Warm Milk HELPS HEAT MILK HOUSE
Electric pump attached to milk cooler does the trick

William Canfield, Oakland County farmer, uses an electric heat pump in connection with his modern front-opening milk cooler. Taking heat from warm milk and well water, it keeps the milk house comfortable in freezing weather.

Mr. Canfield and son, John, farm 160 acres, most of which are devoted to seed corn. They use electricity whenever possible. It powers corn drying, ventilating, conveying, and elevating equipment. It operates water heaters in the milk house and home, providing him and his family with plenty of hot water to make speedy work of dairy and household chores.

Is electricity doing all it can for you? For further information, see your Edison Farm Service Advisor.

Good wiring is always important. So always ask your Farm Service Advisor for his recommendations.

THIS is—to coin a phrase—a "shopper's market."

Folks are taking a keen look at what they get for what they pay—and they're taking a double look at price tags.

That's the kind of market where Buick really shines. Do you know why? Buick prices are down within easy reach of the folks who buy what's known as "the low-priced three."

Fact is—a big chunk of Buick sales comes from the folks who trade in one of this low-priced trio.

For very few extra dollars, they're getting a lot more automobile. They're getting more power—and the thrill that goes with it.

They're getting "big-car" comfort. They're getting a ride that cost a million dollars and more to develop.

They like the room, the fabrics, the extra appointments they find in the smart-stepping beauty pictured here. And they like Dynaflo Drive.*

They like the way it handles. They like the way it's engineered. They like the belt they get out of touching off the power of its Fireball 8 Engine—and they like the miles they get from a gallon of fuel.

So Buick sales are booming. Not just the SPECIAL—but also the SUPER and ROADMASTER. Folks find that each one is the buy in its field.

When we tell you that business is great, we can back up that statement with figures. More people are buying Buicks than any other car at their price or above.

Why don't you come in and see for yourself what's behind this popularity? If you can afford a new car, you can be the proud owner of a Buick.

Firm Lecturer on Realtor Term Shows Meaning

A perturbed Realtor (actually, he was angry) cornered The Plymouth Mail's editorial staff one day this week and delivered a firm lecture on the ethics, etymology and definition of one little word—Realtor.

Realtor, says Roy R. Lindsay, is not a synonym for "real estate agent", indicating that legally and ethically only bona-fide Realtors (the word must be capitalized) can claim membership to the exclusive term.

The reason for the tirade became a little clearer as "crusading" Realtor Lindsay inserted ethics and the dollar sign into the realty business "that mounts into hundreds of millions of dollars every year."

Realtors are only Realtors, he asserts, when they belong to the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

Mr. Lindsay suggests that this one little word can be as "explosive" as the combined strength of the Realtor parent organization.

He went on to prove this pointing to 15 court injunctions issued to preserve the "integrity and property right" of the Realtor term against encroachment. To point to just a broker or real estate salesman and call him that revered name—Realtor, is inviting an enjoining court action, says the director of the local Realtor's board.

The insistent lecturer holding firmly to the word (and the nape of our necks, theoretically, at least) declared this protection of the "seven syllables" was for the public's benefit, "saving property buyers millions of dollars every year."

"Don't forget," he continued, "under everything is land, even the ground you stand on. Wise utilization and widely allocated ownership of this land contributes to the growth of free institutions and our civilization."

Rapidly approaching his objective, the 1259 W. Ann Arbor road Realtor concluded: "The Realtor is the instrument through which this land of the nation reaches its highest use and through which land ownership attains its widest distribution."

"He (the Realtor) is a creator of homes, builder of cities, developer of industries and farms."

The term, coined in 1916 by Charles N. Chadbourn, is defined in Webster's International Dictionary, as follows:

A Realtor is a "real estate broker who is an active member of a local board having membership in the National Association of Real Estate Boards."

"My life saved by Kaiser's safety front seat"

Says Donald E. Holmes, of Coldwater, Mich.

Here's what happened:

Swerving desperately to avoid another car, Mr. Holmes crashed his '52 Kaiser head-on into a pole on U.S. Highway 112, Allen, Michigan, last May 27.

Yet he walked away from the wreck—unharmed! Why? Because the Kaiser's instrument panel was padded... no protruding knobs to injure him... and the wind-shield pushed outward in one piece! "In any other car I might have been killed!" Mr. Holmes writes.

This extra safety and extra value explain why thousands have switched to Kaiser. The car with the world's safest front seat! With America's lowest center of gravity! Largest glass area in any sedan! Easiest steering! Handsomest "hardtop" styling at regular sedan prices! Mobilgas economy winner—24.6 miles a gallon! Drive a Kaiser, and you'll agree... it's your safest buy today!

The premium book and program for the Washtenaw county eighth annual fair is off the press and being delivered this week by mail to all farmers of the county. The book contains 252 pages, including pictures of the county supervisors, fair officials, program of events, and regulations for exhibits. According to the announcement, August 30, opening day, will be children's day.

Tighe's Service Station at the corner of Starkweather avenue and North Main street opened for business last Monday. A very attractive building has been erected with modern equipment.

In passing another car at the intersection of the Plymouth and Ann Arbor roads, east of the village, late last Sunday night, John Stremich got too near the edge of the road and the car went into the ditch. A heavy fog prevailing at the time made it difficult driving. When the car landed in the ditch, it quickly burst into flames, and although Mr. Stremich and passing motorists made every effort to extinguish the blaze, they were unsuccessful, and it was destroyed. Mr. Stremich was unhurt.

Dr. Fred H. Stauffer, chiropractor, has moved his office from the rooms over Whipple's residence, adjoining the Penniman Allen building on Penniman avenue. Dr. Stauffer will use the front part of the house for a suite of offices, and the rest for living apartments.

The members of the Detroit city planning commission have chosen 2 pieces of property from among 25 sites proposed for Stoepel park, for which the late William C. Stoepel left $330,000 for its establishment. The site selected is located within the square mile south of Six Mile road and north of Five Mile road, between Middlebelt and McKinney roads. As an alternate, a tract south of Seven Mile road and west of McKinney road will be recommended.

H. C. Doolin, car repairer, employed by the Pere Marquette Railroad, had the misfortune to fall from the running board of an automobile, while riding home from his work last Saturday, breaking two bones of his left foot below the ankle. He was taken to his home and a physician summoned.

In the Kroger Grocery and Baking Co. ad last week, it was stated that No. 2 Clobber potatoes were selling at 48c per peck, when it should have read No. 1 Cobblers instead of No. 2.

Mrs. Phillip Dingleday, Mrs. Lewis Truesdell, Mrs. J. M. Swegles, Mrs. John Schiller and Mrs. Myron Sherman gave a miscellaneous shower last Wednesday for Mrs. Ruth Tillotson at the home of Mrs. Dingleday.

The government drive for the collection of reclaimable scrap rubber, conducted by the local salvage committee in cooperation with local oil companies and gas stations, has exceeded its quota in Plymouth through the wholehearted support of the community.

Members of the Plymouth board of education met Monday evening and approved plans for proposed repairs and alterations to the high school building, changed the age requirement for kindergarten enrollment and announced two additions to the school staff.

The Red Cross room in the post office building will be open from 1 to 4 on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons for the remainder of the summer for knitting only, according to the Red Cross chairman, Mrs. John Bickenstaff.

Plymouth will, on July 23, be host to all of the officers of the Rotary clubs of the 153 district, according to an announcement just made by District Governor Alex Moore of Wayne. Governor Moore states that he has designated Plymouth as the meeting place for the 1942 district conference because of its easy accessibility from all points in eastern Michigan and western Canada. This is one of the largest Rotary districts on the continent.

Plymouth's campaign to raise funds for United China Relief opens Friday and will continue through August 1. This city's quota has been set at $750.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dalton attended the Shubert-Lafayette Thursday evening and saw Billie Burke in "The Vinegar Tree."

Mrs. George Peterson entertained at lunch, Friday, Mrs. C. F. Spring and daughter, Thelma, Mrs. Frank Carner and Mrs. Elizabeth Dermeyer and two sons, of Brooklyn. Mrs. Dermeyer formerly resided in Plymouth. Mrs. Spring, who is the mother of Mrs. Peterson, remained until Monday.

A linen shower was given, Thursday evening, July 2, in Riverside park, in honor of Mrs. Altenbernt, a recent bride, formerly Anna Dely, the hostesses being Miss Sophia Saner and Mrs. Evelyn Ranney. A delicious lunch was served and games played. Mrs. Altenbernt received many beautiful gifts.

Criticizes School Board Action That Shelved Youth Driver Training Program

"Letting some people drive cars is like giving them a gun to shoot indiscriminately."

This is the declaration of L. B. Rice, manager of the Plymouth branch of the Automobile Association of America, who reveals that "for some unknown reason" Plymouth High school's driver training program was suddenly dropped from the curricula. Criticizing this action on the part of school officials, he states that Plymouth has a higher accident rate among teen-agers than Northville and Livonia—both of whom have high-school driver training programs.

"I definitely feel Plymouth needs this driver training program restored," he declares, asserting that "it will take at least 10-years before Plymouth's teenage youth can be taught to drive properly. "The whole program of motor-ing safety sponsored by the AAA is aimed toward youths, who can be easily taught to obey the rules of the road and understand the more technical aspects of driving, cutting accidents down by as much as 90 per cent. "More than 385 schools throughout Michigan are working cooperatively with automotive manufacturers and the AAA in making this objective possible, he says. "The excellent part of this whole teen-age motoring safety campaign is that it is costing our tightly budgeted schools a minimum expense."

This, he continues, was made possible when automotive manufacturers agreed to furnish driver training automobiles "free-of-charge." This is still being continued, he reveals, and the cars are being replaced every 6,000 miles at no expense to the school. In addition, the AAA furnishes at no expense to the schools, dual driving controls and free textbooks.

Mr. Rice sees as one possible stumbling block to reviving the driver-training program in Plymouth High school the cost of furnishing instructors for the program.

"But," he warns, "the three or four thousand dollars it takes cannot justifiably be measured in terms of money economy. We (the people) must think of it in terms of lives that can be saved."

From a manager's point of view Mr. Rice argues that automotive insurance buyers are paying for traffic deaths. "Public liability and property damage insurance are costing the public 20 to 30 per cent more than it did years ago. To save this loss of lives and money, I see but one solution," he concludes.

"We must get them (teen-age drivers) at the source and train them in the rules of motoring safety—with adults it is too late."

The interest rate for each coupon period on any one bond shall be at one rate only. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such bonds shall be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

No premium shall be paid on bonds called for redemption on or after April 1, 1967.

Notice of redemption shall be given to the holders of the bonds to be redeemed by publication of such notice not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for redemption at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the State of Michigan which carries, as part of its regular service, notices of sale of municipal bonds.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from August 1, 1952, to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the School District. Each bidder shall state in his bid the interest cost to the School District, computed in the manner above specified. No proposal for the purchase of less than all the bonds or at a price less than 100% of their par value will be considered.

The said bonds are payable from ad valorem taxes subject to such limitation upon said taxing power as may result from the provisions of Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution and the Michigan Property Tax Limitation Act.

A certified or cashier's check in an amount of $13,000, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the School District, must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, Attorneys, Penobscot Building, Detroit, Michigan, which opinion will be furnished, without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof, approving the legality of the bonds. The purchaser shall furnish bonds ready for execution at his expense. Bonds will be delivered without expense to the purchaser at a place to be designated by the purchaser.

Free Rent Goes to "Deer Family" at State Hospital

The Northville State hospital has three new tenants occupying part of its land—and they are not mental patients that some persons have seen stealing across the green on all fours.

Reports seeping back to The Plymouth Mail editorial rooms from Orval P. Kerr, 50475 Powell road, stationary engineer at Northville state hospital, say three white-tailed deer—a buck, doe and fawn—have bedded down for the summer about one-eighth mile west of the hospital's power house.

The Seven Mile road tenants may have come down Plymouth way to escape the thousands of vacationers pointing their high-powered vehicles toward the northlands, some persons think. They indicate that old "deer haunts" are being violated with sounds of axes ringing against wood and the happy, carefree laughter of gleeful, energy-filled children.

Maybe, now, the deer are seeking privacy and protection from youths who know no fear. Maybe—they just don't like the screaming.

More Eloquent Than Words!

It is true, of course, that a Cadillac owner is proud of everything about his motor car.

But it is also true that he reserves a special place in his heart for the beautiful crest that rides high on the hood.

For here, as only he can fully appreciate, is one of the most wonderful and unique symbols in all the world of manufactured products.

In fact, it seems safe to say that no other mark of identification speaks so clearly or so eloquently of the product that bears it . . . and of the man who owns it.

It tells, for instance, of magnificent engineering and inspired design—and of experienced craftsmanship and painstaking construction.

It promises mile after mile of superlative motoring enjoyment—and it foretells year after year of dependable and enduring performance.

It proclaims, in short, the Cadillac pledge of quality—that here is an automobile built to the highest standards it is practical to enforce in the production of a motor car.

And, oh, the wonderful things it says about the man behind the wheel!

It reveals, more surely than if the words were spoken, that he is a man of position and achievement in his own private world of affairs.

It attests to the high regard he places on the safety and the comfort of his fellow passengers.

And it says, with unmistakable clarity, that he is a person of discernment and good taste.

Little wonder that the man who owns a Cadillac takes special pride in the beautiful crest that identifies it and adorns it.

The Cadillac crest tells its most eloquent story when it adorns the magnificent car illustrated above. For here is the illustrious eight-passenger Cadillac "75"—so luxurious, spacious and distinguished that it stands alone among the world's motor cars.

Babson Discusses Farm Possibilities
Babson Park, Mass. July 17. Although the present Real-Estate Boom is ending I don't want my readers to sell "sustenance" farms held as insurance. When we gaze upon our bountiful dinner tables, it hardly seems possible that our grandchildren may have to face semi-starvation. In spite of the fact that the U. S. is rated the best-fed nation, there are signs of "starvation"; that is, certain diseases even now are due to a deterioration in our diet.

Shortage of Crop Land
Since 1880 the population of the U.S. has increased threefold—from about 50 million to about 155 million in 1951. Available crop land, on the other hand, has increased less than two and one quarter times—from 188 million acres in 1880 to about 408 million acres in 1951. Furthermore, the net production of available crop land is both lagging the growth in population, and comparatively has been leveling off since 1920.

The increase in crop land from the late 1800's to its peak in the early 1930's came primarily from the release of grazing land for horses and mules. This source of increase in farm land, however, is passing out of existence. With the trend towards greater use of livestock and dairy products, more crop land will have to be used for raising cattle, sheep and poultry. This will further reduce available crop land.

Outlook for the Future Crop Land
Moreover, since 1930 long-range government planning has provided new sources of crop land. The draining of swampland, together with new irrigation projects, to reclaim desert wastes, has already added 38 million acres of crop land to our economy. Looking ahead another 25 years, 45 million more acres may be added.

Thus, in 1975 we should have a total of 500 million acres of crop land. At the present rate of population growth, however, many more millions of acres will be needed to feed our nation on present-day diet standards. This means that certain farm and pasture land may be the safest investment in which to have our money even if acreage prices decline.

The Role of Research
Fortunately, agricultural research has brought forth fertilizers, insecticides, improved farming machinery and techniques, such as crop rotation. This has enabled farm output to continue to rise even after the increase in available crop land has leveled off. Continuing research should do much to help reduce the anticipated deficit in crop land; and, in addition, it should make our available crop and even more valuable, especially in case of World War III.

Unfortunately, many farmers fail to realize that fertilizers and insecticides will not provide a solution to the problem. They are merely supplements, the same as vitamin tablets are only supplements to human diet. Despite improved fertilizers and insecticides, and despite improved agricultural techniques, the fertility of our crop land is declining, in some sections as much as 1 per cent a year, or perhaps 15 per cent in 20 years. Farmers have not been able to completely neutralize the damage caused by floods, soil erosion, and soil deterioration resulting from the abnormally high crop production during the past decade. The effect of this "mining" of crop land is a very serious factor.

Farmers Beware!

Here are some practical suggestions:

- (1) Urge your children to stay in a farming community instead of settling in some city which will be bombed in World War III.
- (2) Temper demands upon the soil and conserve what crop land you already have, and at the same time nurse the depleted soil back to normal. Our foreign aid program should point more to making other nations self-supporting as to food.
- (3) It is important to cut our waste of food. The "Johnny-clean-your-plate" attitude must return to every household. This is a job for the parents; and it is just as important as the "Three R's".
- (4) Don't sell good pasture or timber land to take a profit in paper dollars. Such land should further increase in value; while paper dollars and many bonds and stocks will become less valuable.

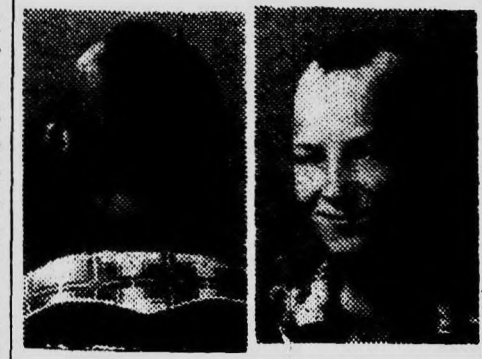

Grange Cleanings Mohawk, A Fad?

The Grange picnic was a very enjoyable affair. A fine crowd sat down to the bountiful supper with a special group of ten birthdays. The birthday table was prettily decorated. A lovely cake baked by Mrs. Kahl was the special attraction. Dr. Ralph Pino gave a fine talk immediately after the supper then everyone went up to "Colony Farms" where Mr. and Mrs. Laurell explained weaving and showed many examples of their work. Beautiful materials for dresses, skirts, upholstery, drapes, etc. A very interesting display.

Mrs. Cole was very happily surprised on Thursday night upon her return home from the Grange supper to find her house full of her children and grandchildren. Cake and ice cream and other good things were served. Mrs. Cole received many nice gifts and cards in honor of her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vealey were the guests of their cousins Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Post on Milford road at a barbecue picnic on Saturday. Other cousins Mrs. Myrta Brighton and Mrs. Kate Robson were also present.

Mrs. Frank Oldenburg is just about the same as at our last writing. It is tough to have to lie in bed in such terribly hot weather so we hope for her a speedy recovery.

Scalped, nearly bald but still proud, Charles L. Andrews, 11, Battle Creek youth staying with a friend at 412 W. Pearl street, displays his "mohawk" hair cut that promises to start a fad—and a flair of parental tempers—among Plymouth youngsters. Andrews, whose father, Arthur Andrews works for H. Perlongo construction company, said about the "center of the scalp" locks—"I just wanted a 'mohawk,' my dad didn't want me to, but I kept persisting." Andrews friend, Billy Ferguson—at whose home he is staying, says he is going to join the "mohawk" haircut ranks.
