Stresses "Patience" for Korean Vets Seeking Training Under New GI Bill

Michigan veterans have flooded the Detroit Veterans Administration Regional Office with requests for training information under the new Korean GI Bill, said Guy F. Palmer, manager of the office.

He advised these veterans to be patient for a few days, when all their questions will be answered. The nation's 48 State governors have been formally requested by Carl R. Gray, Jr., Administrator of Veteran Affairs, to appoint agencies within their states to handle approval of schools and business establishments for training eligible veterans.

The new law specifies that the schools and training establishments must have State approval before they may offer training to veterans who served since the outbreak of Korean hostilities. This requirement also was a part of the original GI Bill for World War II veterans.

Mr. Gray requested "early receipt" of the lists of state approving agencies, so that the Veterans Administration can start handling veterans' applications before August 20—the date the new training program goes into effect.

He suggested to the Governors that the same approving agency may be designated for the Korean GI Bill that already has been doing the job under the earlier World War II act. He pointed out that a State may have either one agency to handle all types of approvals, or separate agencies to approve various types of training—classroom, on-the-job, apprenticeship or on-the-job.

The Governors were reminded that the law allows VA to reimburse State approving agencies "for reasonable and necessary expenses of salary and travel incurred in rendering necessary services under this Act." Once an approving agency is appointed, he said, it will be sent a contract proposal for reimbursement of expenses.

He emphasized that approval granted to schools and training establishments must be inspected under World War II GI Bill does not carry over for training under the new Korean Act. Schools and establishments must be reinspected and reapproved for Korean GI Bill training, since in many cases they must meet different standards than those required under the earlier law.

To make certain that post-Korean veterans will be able to enroll in training without delay, Mr. Gray urged the States to approve first those courses which are accredited, since they do not demand extensive investigation.

The new Korean GI Bill provides up to 36 months of training to veterans who were on active duty on or after June 27, 1950—the date of the outbreak of fighting in Korea—regardless of where they served. While in training, they may receive an allowance from the Government to cover part of their expenses.

No allowance may be paid for any training taken prior to August 20, the law states.

Republican Rally Will Highlight Ferguson Talk

A Washtenaw County Republican kick-off rally starting a fall political campaign will feature Senator Homer Ferguson (R) Mich., who will speak at a public picnic, set for September.

To be held at The Oaks, 5041 Portage Lake road, two miles west of Dexter, the event is scheduled to get underway at 4:30 p.m.

The rally will also feature brief talks by Owen J. Cleary of Ypsilanti, Republican candidate for Michigan secretary of state, and Representative George Meader of Ann Arbor, incumbent congressman from the Second Michigan District.

Tickets for the picnic supper are available from all members of the Washtenaw County Republican Committee and the Ann Arbor Republican Committee. Reservations may be made by calling Ann Arbor 2-0754 or 2-0820.

Shoerack on Closet Door
WOMEN appreciate having an established place for the menfolks to place their shoes. A shoerack that fits inside the closet door or on a closet wall will keep shoes neat and accessible. One or two for each closet are easily constructed of ordinary materials and with simple hand tools.

The rack is built in the form of an inverted triangular trough. To fit most closet doors, the home craftsman should use two pieces of Masonite tempered hardboard 26 inches long and 12 inches wide. He will form the end pieces of the trough with 1-inch lumber cut into triangles having two 12-inch sides and the other approximately 14 inches.

One panel of hardboard lies adjacent to the door, while the other forms a landing platform which holds the shoes. The builder will fasten a strip of 1 by 1/2 inch wood about 3 1/2 inches from the top side of the platform. Against this strip the heels will rest. The rack is assembled and then attached to the door frame—or the studs if its location is the wall—with screws.

Funeral Rites For Dingman Held in Detroit

George A. Dingman, Wayne County drain commissioner for 25 years and a Democratic nominee for re-election, was paid a final tribute at funeral services held in Detroit, August 18.

Buried in Grand Lawn cemetery, Dingman, who was 76 when he died of a heart attack two weeks ago, lived at 42345 Schoolcraft road, in suburban Plymouth.

Mr. Dingman was first elected Wayne County drain commissioner in 1918 and continued in office until 1928, when he was defeated by Harry I. Dingeman, a relative of Harry J. Dingeman, popular Circuit Court judge at that time.

Mr. Dingman was born in Hillsdale county, December 25, 1875, and had lived in the Detroit area since 1893. After attending school to the ninth grade, he took night school and correspondence school courses until he became a registered civil engineer.

A United States government chief inspector for four years, Dingman also served as a Wayne County road engineer. He was county surveyor for a year before his election to drain commissioner. In 1929 he was an unsuccessful candidate for city council.

Active in professional circles, he was a member of the Michigan Engineering Society, American Military Engineers, several Masonic organizations and Democratic clubs.

He is survived by his wife, the former Meta Weller, of Detroit, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Patricia Zak, living in Plymouth.

Mrs. Gyde was born in Salem, May 24, 1874, and married William Gyde in 1892. She was preceded in death by her husband and a son, Earl, who died at the age of three.

DALE CARNEGIE

AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING"

Crop of Experience
CARL W. KOUBA, Green Bay, Wisc., for the first time in 20 years was to be out of a job. He had worked up to treasurer of the company, and because the business had been sold he was to find that these 20 years of progress in the company had terminated.
He was alone in the general office late one afternoon and had just made some of the final entries so that the business could be turned over in the morning. As he switched off the lights and turned the key in the door for the last time, he came face to face with the old night-watchman, George Bogue. He too was making "the final round" but he had a smile on his face—and he noticed that Carl didn't as he said, "Well George, this is it." And then George answered him with something he says he will never forget. As a matter of fact, it is something for all of us to remember. "Carl," said the older man, "you have been planting your crop for 20 years. If you planted a good crop you will find a lot of people wanting to buy your harvest. There should be lots of people wanting to buy the things that you have been growing. You just have to tell them about it." Then he shook Carl's hand and left.
Carl says he found George Bogue was right. It became a real pleasure to think of offering the harvest of 20 years for sale—and not just be looking for a job. And it worked. He sat down and wrote out what he had been planting; then he got out and told of the kind of a crop he had to offer.
In that one minute after midnight he learned a valuable truth. In selling your crop of experience, if it is good there will be a lot of people looking for it.

"Watch Out For Kids" Plea Start of Safety Drive

With the reopening of schools and nearly one and one-half million Michigan children crossing streets and highways on their way to and from classrooms, Sergeant Henry P. Kozowicz, commander of the Detroit State Police post, is urging all persons to take part in the current statewide child safety campaign.

"Last year," Sergeant Kozowicz said, "8,247 children under 15 years of age were killed or injured in Michigan traffic, an average of about 160 casualties each week."

"More often than not the children were victims of their own carelessness, but many of the tragedies could have been avoided if drivers had been more alert and expecting the unexpected."

"Drivers should take special precautions, not only in school and playground areas, but in all areas where children are likely to be. They also should always remember that thousands of pre-school age children will be outdoors during all hours of the day. In other words, children may be anywhere, any time."

"Likewise, adult pedestrians, parents especially, can help prevent accidents involving children by practicing safe walking habits. Adults should realize that their own actions are examples boys and girls observe and follow. Too often these are examples of carelessness."

"Help protect children. For their sake—as well as your own—walk and drive carefully."

The slogan of the campaign, which is sponsored by the State Safety Commission, is "Watch Out For Kids."

Some Korea Battle Veterans to Get Foxhole Combat Pay of $45 a Month

Combat pay to the tune of $45 a month has been approved for all Korean veterans, including those already discharged, who spent six days or more in battle zone foxholes.

The measure was sparked by Senator Blair Moody (D) Mich. It applies chiefly to infantrymen of the Army and Marines, putting them on equal footing with fliers, submariners and paratroopers.

Approved by congressional action just prior to adjournment, the special hazard pay is retroactive to the start of the Korean police action for those qualifying.

Pentagoners estimate the foxhole-hazard pay will cost the nation between 250 million and 300 million dollars.

Though nobody knows yet how many servicemen or ex-servicemen will be affected by the law, critics coming forward say the bill would discriminate against many combat veterans unable to meet its requirements.

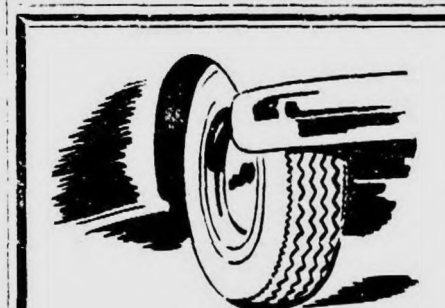

Some experts say that a number of GI's have seen bitter action yet might be ineligible. They point out that it is possible some infantrymen might have been pulled from the line after suffering severe casualties, without serving the required six days during a hot month's campaign.

Army officials, however, state that the "bugs" which are expected to develop in the hazard-pay-law could be wiped out by sending a new bill to Congress during the next session. They say military officials, in general, favor combat pay for infantrymen but are anxious to get the most workable "on the book" legislation.

Whatever argument develops on high levels, it is plain that sorting out the myriad of claims for the $45 a month figure, is going to take a long time.

The job of sorting out deciding just who is eligible will take mountains of paper work and a long time lag, experts in both Congress and the Pentagon claim.

Commanding officers of each group will have to certify that the individual soldier was attached

Here's A Good Fish Story

This time of year, when fresh fish are plentiful and economical, is a good time to get acquainted with the many varieties available not only near ocean and lakes but in inland towns, thanks to modern refrigeration. Secret of success in cooking fish is not to overcook it, and to season it properly. Fish is bland, and takes well to simple sauces, such as the Tabasco sauce below. A high quality protein food, there are some 160 varieties of fish sold in the United States. Here are pictured, reading top to bottom, three salt water varieties, sea bass, mackerel and porgie, and three fresh water species, white fish, yellow pike and brook trout. An easy and appetizing way of preparing fish for the table is by simple broiling. To serve four, plan on 1 pound of filets or steaks or four small fish, and 3 to 4 tablespoons of fat. Preheat broiler. Cut filets or steaks into serving pieces. Grease the broiler rack lightly. Place fish on rack, skin side up; brush with melted fat. Place rack 2 to 3 inches from heat. Broil fish 5 to 8 minutes or until brown, and serve with this tangy sauce.

Tabasco Butter Sauce

4 tablespoons butter or margarine 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco
4 1/2 teaspoons lime juice 1 tablespoon minced parsley
Melt butter in saucepan. Add lime juice and Tabasco; heat. Add parsley. YIELD: Approximately 1/2 cup.

Humane Society News

The Humane Society stresses the importance of good feeding, fresh water and sufficient exercise for your dog. During hot months especially, give your dog extra consideration if he is gruff at times. Do not permit children to agitate or over exert your dog with too much play. Some dogs get temperamental during hot weather and may cause injury to the youngsters.

Did you know that iodine can be very harmful to cats and sometimes fatal. If Felix should get in a scrap or is harmed in any other way, your 'vet' will be more than happy to give you information about the medicine to use. Iodine can be used on dogs but there are less painful treatments to be used.

Remember to use the oil in the cat or dog's ears to prevent mites. Once a week is suggested to avoid having a serious infection in the ear channel.

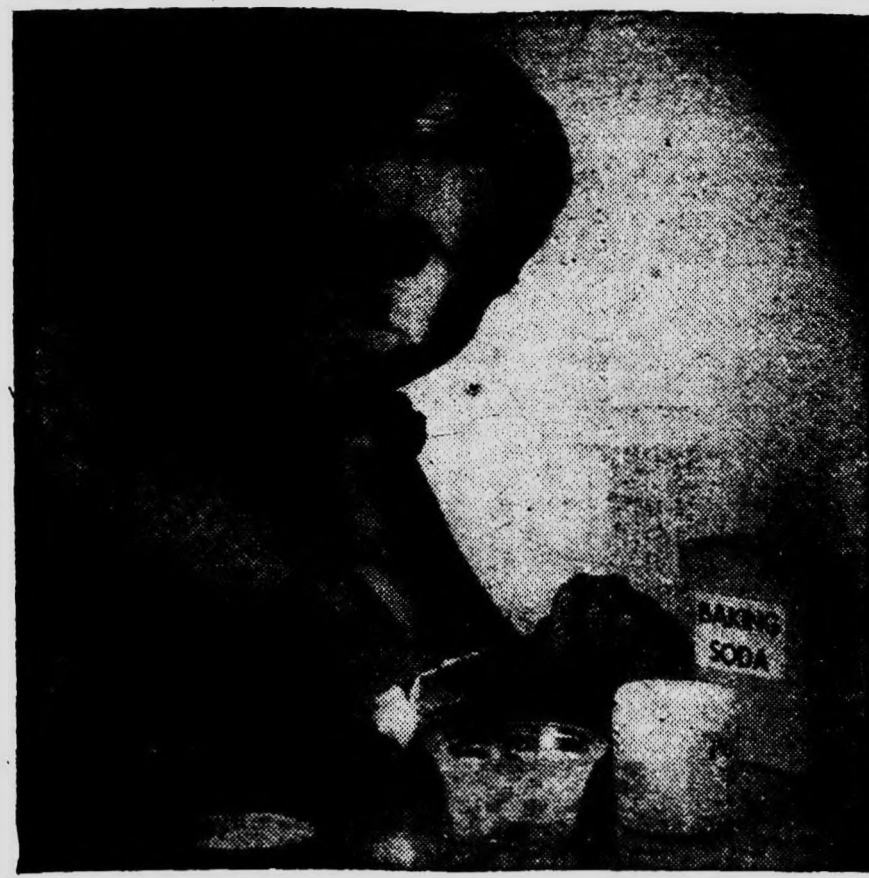

Also, remember the Humane Society is at your service. We have found several good homes for our animals. As long as you bring in the unwanted and stray animals we will always have animals to adopt out. This past week we have turned loose some squirrels that were wee babies when brought here. The mama squirrel was run over on the highway. After weeks of hand feeding and care, they are happy nut hunting now.

Remember—by your donations the Humane Society can continue its humane care of animals. As one last word, the Auxiliary is seeking new members. If interested, telephone 1283-M or 786-J.

means," and points out that there is, as far as environment is concerned, "no reason for stealing."

The teen-agers, reports Lt. Traye, readily admitted breaking into a concession at Middle Rouge park where they stole ice cream and candy. Following this, he says, they attempted another forced entry at a concession near the Cavalcade Inn. In addition, the eight youths confessed to stripping cars of such things as fender skirts that they installed on their own cars.

"What these burglaries and thefts add up to," asserts Lt. Traye, "is a lack of healthful youth activities and recreation." In addition, he criticizes the parents of youths, pointing out that these teen-age, unarmed burglars "can be just the beginning of crimes that have serious implications."

In this particular case, he points out, one parent was on vacation—the youth was left unsupervised. He, along with the other teen-agers wanted some beer to drink.

Issuing a warning to the overseers of the city's youth, Lt. Traye said: "Proper supervision is needed at all times to guide youth properly, keeping them free of temptation."

"We need something that will help burn up their excess energy and provide an outlet for their social development."

Withheld from publication are the names of all the teen-agers implicated in this latest series of burglaries. The 20-year-old youth, whose name ordinarily would be revealed, has assured police he intends to enlist in the armed forces following his release from detention.

By Carl Peterson

In the midst of an election year we're reminded that on 26, Aug., 1920, the 19th amendment went into effect. That's the one that says the right to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the U.S. or by any state on account of sex...

Evelyn Woods Entertains During Cruise

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Groschke have just returned from a seven day cruise on the Great Lakes aboard the South American. What promised to be a relaxing vacation turned into a musical session on shipboard says Mrs. Groschke, better known to Plymouthites as Evelyn Woods.

At the close of the trip she was asked, through her Detroit booking agent, to finish the trip. Mrs. Groschke refused, preferring to return to her teaching activities in Plymouth.

Good Fish Catches at Nearby Lakes

The peak of good fishing is here according to reports of the numerous fishermen who have returned with good catches in Oakland county lakes.

Some good catches of pike, rainbow and bass were reported from Union Lake. These were caught by still fishing, mostly on night crawlers, in deep water.

Orchard, Pontiac and Walled lakes are also good fishing spots for bass and perch. Bass fishing was good in the Huron River and Belleville Lake, also.

Wendell Lent returned from a fishing trip at Lake Chemung in the upper peninsula and reported successful catches of big large mouth bass. Mr. Lent must have that delicate touch as he caught several prize fish, while his upper peninsula companions were mostly unsuccessful.

At Union Lake bluegills also were reported to be numerous, and most of the anglers are using crickets as bait.

According to authorities, the best fishing is from now until the middle of September.

Ex-Plymouthite Heads Important Research Post

A former Plymouthite, Colonel T. R. J. Hickey, Quartermaster Corps, has one of the army's most important jobs.

Colonel Hickey, 43, a West Point graduate, is Chief of the Research and Development Division of this world's largest supply agency, currently experimenting with a "colobar" suit, designed for rigid arctic temperatures.

A graduate of Plymouth High school in the mid 1920's, Colonel Hickey directs the activities of his organization from offices in Washington, D.C. He was recently mentioned in a Saturday Evening Post article titled, "We're Licking the Terror of the Arctic."

As quoted from the August 16 Post, Colonel Hickey explains some of the objectives behind "colobar", arctic dress that purportedly permits a man to swim in freezing water, march in polar cold, crawl through winter mud—and still soldier.

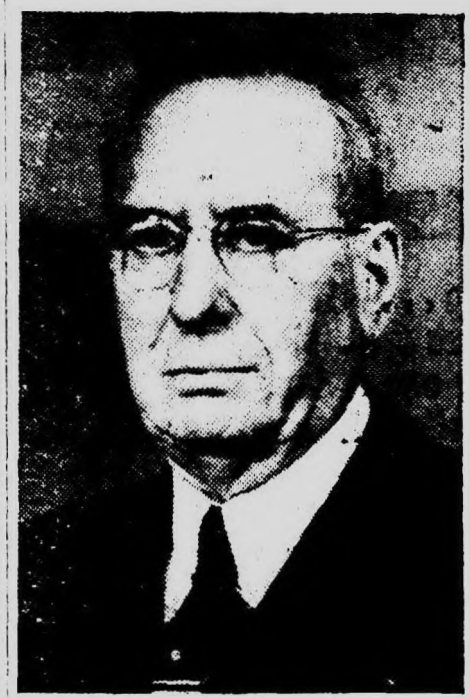

"It may sound startling," he explains in the article, "but our troops in the far north have to be clothed better than the native Indians and Eskimos. Their duties often keep them in the open when Eskimos in their tight minks would take shelter and stay there. Fahrenheit to soggy, wet cold of enough for weather going from dry cold of minus-60 degrees Fahrenheit to soggy, wet cold of every degree and circumstance you could imagine, if you've got a nasty imagination."

It Means So Much - To So Many!

In all the history of the world's commerce, it is doubtful whether another manufactured product has ever had such a hold on the affections of its owners as the Cadillac car.

There is a well-to-do gentleman in a southern state, for instance, who will permit no one to minister to his Cadillac except himself—other than for its mechanical needs. He washes it, polishes it and cleans it... himself.

There is a family in New York which has owned a long series of Cadillacs to which have been given the names of people—because they regard their cars as all but members of the household.

There is a professional man in a mid-western state who insists that his whole life changed for the better when he got his Cadillac.

These are but typical of innumerable instances of the deep regard in which Cadillac owners hold their cars. The loyalty and respect a Cadillac engenders are extraordinary indeed.

You might well ask what there could be about a motor car to make it mean so much to so many. The answer is not far to seek.

Because of its world-wide standing as one of life's better things, it reflects credit upon its owner and indicates that he is a person of substance and good taste.

Because it performs so well and so dependably, it is conducive to his desire to travel and to see the world—an inspiring companion for his daily movements among his fellows.

Because it is beautiful and luxurious, it is a joy to own and a pleasure to contemplate.

Standing in his driveway, rolling down the streets of his favorite city, or parked at the entrance to a distinguished club or hotel—it is a credit to his judgment and a testimonial to his work.

No wonder he cherishes it, and thinks of it as all but a part of his own personality.

Don't you think that a car which can mean so much to so many could mean a great deal to you?

Better come in today—and talk it over.

1 teaspoon dry mustard
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup lemon juice
1 1/2 cups salad oil

Combine egg yolks, seasonings and 2 tablespoons of the lemon juice in a bowl. Beat well with a rotary beater. Continue beating and add salad oil, 1 tablespoon at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition until 1/2 cup is used. Then add 1 tablespoon of lemon juice and continue adding remaining salad oil, a little at a time. Beat in the last tablespoon of lemon juice. Makes 2 cups.

UPPER CRUST DESSERTS
Special treatment of the upper crust for green apple pie makes it the all-time winner in the dessert parade.

I LOVE IT ALL TO MY UPPER CRUST!

THE WINNER—AND STILL CHAMP
Green Apple Pie with Cheese Crust

4 cups green apples, peeled and sliced
1/2 cup sugar
1 tablespoon flour
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
Unbaked pastry for two 9-inch crusts
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 cup grated sharp cheddar cheese

Combine apples, sugar, flour and spices. Place in pie pan lined with unbaked pastry. Dot with butter or margarine. Roll out remaining pastry; sprinkle with grated cheese. Fold pastry in half to enclose cheese, and roll to fit top of pie. Wet edges of lower crust and top crust and press edges together.

CHEESE BAKED RIGHT IN THE UPPER CRUST
Prick or slash the top crust to allow the steam to escape. Bake in very hot oven (450°F.) for ten minutes, reduce to 350°F. and bake forty to forty-five minutes. Yield: One 9-inch pie.

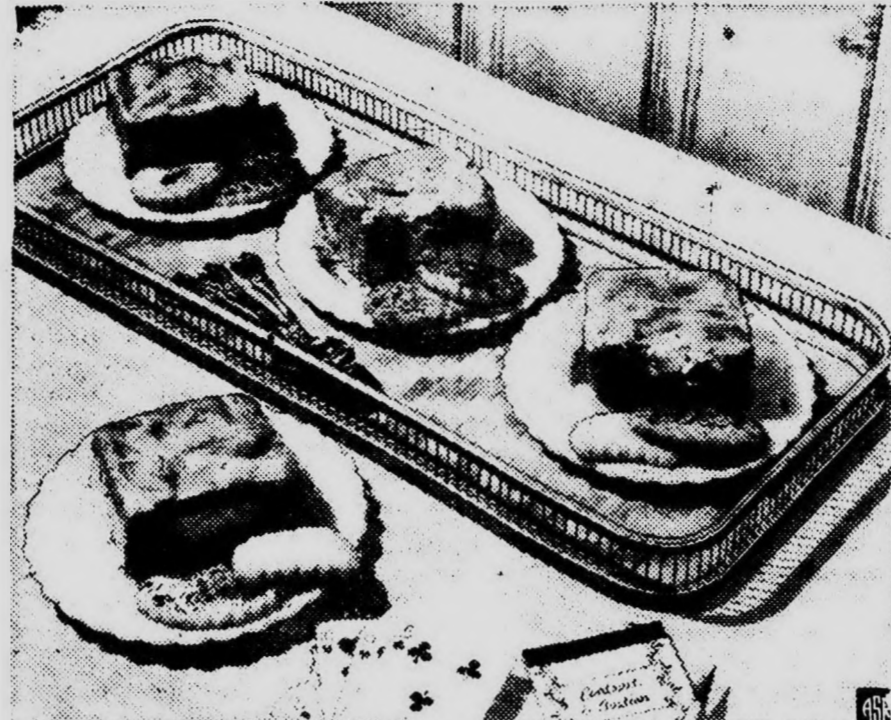

The English version of apple pie is all upper crust topped with hard sauce and served warm.

Deep-Dish Apple Pie
6 to 8 tart apples
Rich pastry
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon butter
1/4 cup water

Pare and core apples. Cut in eighths. Line the sides of an eight by eight by three inch pan with stripes of pastry. Do not put pastry on the bottom. Mix apples with sugar, cinnamon and salt. Place in pan. Dot with butter and sprinkle with water. Cover with top crust slashed to allow steam to escape. Bake ten minutes in a very hot oven (450°F.), reduce temperature to moderate (350°F.) and bake for thirty-five minutes.

Lime Chiffon Pie Unusual Dessert

Lemon or lime chiffon pie is an appetizing finish for a hot weather meal. Lemons and limes are now on the market and there are also plenty of eggs—another important ingredient for this pie.

1 tbsp. gelatin for a firm filling (or 2 tps. for a fluffier filling or for use with small eggs)
1/4 cup cold water;
3 eggs, separated;
1/2 cup sugar;
1/2 cup unstrained lemon or lime juice
1/2 tsp. grated lemon or lime rind
1/4 tsp. salt
(a few drops of green coloring for lime pie)

9-inch baked pastry shell or a graham cracker shell.

Sprinkle gelatin on water and soak a few minutes. Beat egg yolks slightly, and add half the sugar and the lemon or lime juice and rind. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until thick. Add softened gelatin to the hot egg mixture; stir until dissolved. (Mix in the coloring for lime pie.) Cool until thick but not set. Add salt to egg whites and beat until stiff. Add rest of sugar slowly, beating constantly. Then blend with the cooled gelatin mixture. Pour into the pie shell and chill. Keep cold until served.

Graham-cracker shell, which requires no baking and is easy to make, is a good choice for this summer pie. Ingredients: 15 graham crackers; 1/3 cup melted table fat; 1/3 cup sugar. To make Roll crackers fine. Mix with shell.

Many from Plymouth are planning to attend the first Newburg Homecoming celebration, which takes place tomorrow at the Newburg school grounds. Many former residents of Newburg, who now reside in various places throughout the state, have planned to attend the event and renew acquaintances with friends of other days.

H. K. Wrench, who for the past two years has been manager of the local gas plant of the Michigan Federated Utilities, has been promoted to division manager and secretary and treasurer of the Michigan Federated Utilities, having charge of all the gas properties of that company in Michigan. The promotion of Mr. Wrench also makes it possible for another well earned promotion in the local personnel of the company. P. H. Deal, who for a little more than a year has been office manager, has been promoted to assistant manager of the local gas plant. Perley is a thorough office manager, genial and courteous, and his promotion is well merited and especially pleasing to his many friends.

On account of poor health, Calving Whipple, who has conducted a shoe and gent's furnishings store here for the past five years has decided to close out the business. Mr. Whipple's many friends and patrons will be sorry to learn of his leaving the mercantile field, but all hope that the change will speedily restore his health.

On October 5 and 6, the Michigan convention of Kiwanis will be held at Battle Creek. The Plymouth Kiwanis Club is trying to make a 100 per cent attendance at this convention.

In a recent house-to-house canvass in a Missouri town it was found that 12 per cent of the women residents use gasoline for dry cleaning, while kerosene is used in 11 per cent of the homes visited, chiefly for starting fires. We do not know if the percentages will run as high in Plymouth, but we do know that enough of our homes contain gasoline and kerosene to make a warning necessary.

Princess Patt, a three-year-old colt owned by Dr. A. E. Patterson of this village, won fourth place in the 2:24 pace at the Milford fair last week. This was the first race the colt has ever been in, and she certainly made a splendid showing for a beginner.

The sun dial presented to the school by the class of 1927 has been placed in front of the High school building. A concrete walk has been built around it and the whole presents a very nice appearance.

Mrs. Nathaniel Ryder was very much surprised Sunday morning upon her arrival home from church, to find all of her children and grandchildren and a bountiful dinner awaiting her, the occasion being her birthday. Guests were present from Grand Rapids, Ann Arbor, Birmingham and Plymouth.

Mrs. Kellogg Tells of Siamese Cat Breeding
Mrs. Harold W. Kellogg of Lamont, Michigan, formerly of Plymouth, was featured in the "Distaff Story" of the Grand Rapids Herald, recently. The Herald described her Siamese cat breeding and antique finishing hobbies.
Mrs. Kellogg who has raised assorted litters of kittens, began breeding Siamese cats a short time ago. The two which she now owns, One-Song, a male, and Two-Song, a female, have learned to live with a dog, two chickens, and, for a while, a pet mouse.
She has managed this merger because she understands cats and cats like her well enough to put up with foreigners. One of the most recent demonstrations of affection was the presentation of four moles placed neatly on her doorstep.
Mrs. Kellogg has learned to discredit a lot of myths about cats. One of these is the myth that you can cross different breeds such as Persian and Siamese and get kittens that are a mixture of both. "Not so," she says, "the results in any case of cross breeding will be alley cats."
Cats scratching furniture could be a problem to Mrs. Kellogg who furnishes her 115 year old home with antiques which she has been collecting and refinishing for over 20 years. "Cats," according to Mrs. Kellogg, "scratch to remove tiny shells on the outside of their toenails. If the cats can get rid of excess energy by playing outdoors, they are less apt to scratch furniture. A scratching log in the house helps, too."
Mrs. Kellogg is one of the few cat owners who can truthfully say, "My cats never scratch the rug or furniture."

Roger Babson Says---

Babson Discusses Working Women
Appeal for a Longer School Day Gloucester, Mass., August 28, 1952. Am here again for my summer vacation at the city where I was born, which has fine people, good schools, a beautiful harbor and a most comfortable climate. When the new Route 128 is completed and the School for Fisheries is built, it should greatly prosper industrially. I am writing this at 58 Middle Street in the very room in which I was born; and am thinking of the changes since my boyhood.

Women in Industry
When I was a boy only about 2 million women were employed in the entire United States in other than housework or teaching. This has now increased nearly 20 million. Jobs have given women more money to spend. New industries and products have been developed... freeing women from housework. Among these may be mentioned frozen foods, complete bakery products, self-service stores, electric refrigerators and ranges, dishwashers, garbage disposals and plastic table "linen."

There are 110 million people in the United States over 14 years of age, of which 58 million are women. Of these only 19 million are now employed. The total men and women in the labor force is about 63 million. If we subtract the 19 million from 58 million women it means that 39 million women have not yet become wage workers. Now here is the important question: How long will it be before the number of women employed equals the number of men employed? This will be possible as smaller and more modern houses are built, supplemented by complete automatic electronic equipment and other wonderful new inventions not yet on the market.

Labor Unions and Living Standards
When I was a boy there was not a labor union in Gloucester. The carpenters and painters got $3 a day; haircuts were 25 cents; common labor was $1 a day. After graduating from college, I went to work for $10 a week. Rents and foods were low and there was no plumber's bill as our "bathroom" was out in the back yard! We got our water from a cistern in the cellar; our heat came from stoves; we cut our own fire wood; for light we used kerosene lamps.

There, however, was then a great difference between the living standards of the few well-to-do families and of the great mass of the population. As a result of the labor unions, minimum wages, social security, safety laws, shorter hours and higher wages, the living standards of the wage worker are now very much higher; while the privileges and profits of the old well-to-do families are gradually vanishing. Of course, new machinery and advertising have greatly aided in this redistribution of wealth. Let us hope that the labor leaders will not overreach and "kill the goose which has laid these golden eggs."

Managed Money and Education
In my boyhood days we were living under the Gold Standard, which put a "ceiling" and "floor" on business, employment, prices, etc. It acted like a thermostat. When the expansion became too great, the thermostat turned off the oil burner; while when business cooled off, this economic thermostat started up the oil burner again. Twenty years ago this Gold Standard, or "business thermostat", was discarded. We are now living under Managed Currency. It is a pleasant sensation, but it is like running an oil burner without a thermostat. Some day the boiler will bust!

45 Per Cent Drop Chartered in U. S. Mortality Rate

Plymouthites, along with the nation's populace, are considered a healthy lot with an ever increasing life expectancy.

This was revealed in a health survey that shows the nation's death rate to have dropped nearly 45 per cent since the turn of the century.

People are now living longer, staying healthier longer—growing old without fear of some of the maladies that struck down earlier generations.

Everyone seems to have shared in the improvement in health, states a book published last Monday by the Brookings Institution, a private research organization.

Statistically, Brookings has facts to prove these statements. The 1900 death rate of 17.2 per 1,000 persons was compared with 9.6 per 1,000 in 1950.

A decline was also noted in diseases like pneumonia and similar respiratory maladies, but increases were recorded in the research findings of such disorders as cancer and other malignant tumors.

Scouts to Attend Annual Meeting

Approximately 75 local Council Scouts, Explorers and Leaders will take part with more than 1,500 others in the 37th Anniversary Meeting of the Order of the Arrow at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio from August 29 through August 31.

The Order, founded in 1915, has a membership of 45,000 Scouts, all of whom are expert campers selected by their fellow campers as worthy examples of living the Scout Oath and Law.

The local delegation, under the leadership of Richard Marshall, Mayor of Oak Park and Scouting Community Commissioner, will join with 300 other local councils, representing 35 states, to help further the teaching of democratic principles, Scouting ideals and good citizenship among Scout Troops and Explorer Units in the Scout Movement.

General Lewis B. Hershey, National Director of Selective Service, will give the keynote address at the opening session of the Conclave on Friday, afternoon, August 29. Other speakers include: H. Lloyd Nelson of Burlington, New Jersey, Chairman of the National Order of the Arrow Committee; James R. Montgomery of Knoxville, Tennessee, National Conference Chief and Jack Hoel, Chief of the host lodge at Hamilton, Ohio.

The three-day conference, full of camping traditions and spirit, includes fun, fellowship, inspiration and learning, and will feature colorful Indian dancing, displays, demonstrations and impressive Order ceremonies.

Local Council Lodge Chief, John Komives, and Henry Vassel, former Lodge Chief, share the responsibility as National Co-Chairmen of registration and housing.

Livonian Grows 61 Inch Zinnia Flowers

Zinnias 61 inches high are somewhat of a record in any man's language. This, however, is the unusual position of Mrs. John Jayska, 34015 Orangelawn avenue, Livonia.

Mrs. Jayska says that as far as she knows this is a record growth for zinnia plants that generally stay under the 20 inches in height. Confirming her suspicions, William Bartel, owner of Bartel's Flowers, 39089 Plymouth road, says it is very unusual for zinnias to grow this tall.

"This is especially true, in the face of the hot dry weather we have had this summer. Most flowers and plants are unusually short this year," he concludes.

It's true... good layers are born. That doesn't mean they'll be good layers, though. You have to save them to lay... grow them to lay... make them lay. You can't do the job better than...
